became as detestable and loathsome as the thing they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird;
No birth, no pregnancy, and [because of their impurity] no conception.

12 Even though they bring up their children, ‡
Yet I will bereave them until not one is left.
Indeed, woe (judgment is coming) to them when I look away and withdraw [My blessing] from them!

Is planted in a pleasant [and prosperous] meadow like Tyre;
But Ephraim will bring out his children to the executioner
[for slaughter].
<sup>14</sup> Give them [the punishment they deserve], O LORD! What will You give? ‡
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

Indeed, I came to hate them there!
Because of the wickedness of their [idolatrous] practices
I will drive them out of My house (the land of Israel)!
I will love them no longer;
All their princes are rebels.  [Hos 4:15; 12:11 ]
<sup>16</sup> Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up,
They will bear no fruit.
Even though they give birth,
I will slay the precious children of their womb.
<sup>17</sup> My God will reject them and cast them away
Because they did not listen to Him;
And they will be wanderers (fugitives) among the nations.

Retribution for Israel's Sin

<sup>1</sup> ISRAEL IS a luxuriant and prolific vine; ‡
He produces fruit for himself.
The more his fruit,
The more altars he made [to Baal];
The richer his land,
The better he made the [idolatrous] pillars.
<sup>2</sup> Their heart is divided (faithless); ‡
Now they must bear their guilt and punishment.
The LORD will break down [the horns of] their altars;
He will destroy their idolatrous pillars.

<sup>3</sup> Surely now they will say [in despair], "We have no [true]

king,

For we do not revere the LORD;
And as for the king, what can he do for us [to rescue us]?"
<sup>4</sup>They have spoken empty (disingenuous) words, ‡
Swearing falsely to make covenants [they intend to break]; Therefore, judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

<sup>5</sup> The people of Samaria will fear and tremble
For the [idolatrous] calf of Beth-aven (House of Wickedness).
Indeed, its people will mourn over it
And its idolatrous priests will cry out and wail over it, Over its glory, because the glory [of their calf god] has departed from it.

<sup>6</sup> The golden calf itself will be carried to Assyria
As tribute to King Jareb;
Ephraim will be seized with shame
And Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel [to worship the calf and separate Israel from Judah].

<sup>7</sup> As for Samaria, her king will be cut off and float away
Like a twig on the surface of the water.

<sup>8</sup> Also the high places of Aven (Beth-aven), the sin of Israel, will be destroyed; ‡
The thorn and the thistle will grow on their [pagan] altars,
And [in despair] they will say to the mountains,
"Cover us!" And to the hills, "Fall on us!"  [Luke 23:30 ; Rev 6:16 ; 9:6 ]

<sup>9</sup> O Israel, you have [willfully] sinned since the days of Gibeah;
There they (Israel) stand!
Will not the battle against the sons of wickedness overtake them at Gibeah?  [Judg 20 ]

<sup>10</sup> When it is my desire [to defend My righteousness], I will chastise them; ‡
And [hostile] peoples will be gathered against them
When they are bound and punished for their double guilt [their revolt against the LORD and their worship of idols].  [Jer 2:13 ; Lam 3:31–33 ]

<sup>11</sup>Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to tread out the grain,‡
But I will come over her fair neck with a heavy yoke [for hard field work].

I will harness Ephraim;
Judah will plow and Jacob will harrow and rake for himself.

<sup>12</sup>Sow with a view to righteousness [that righteousness, like seed, may germinate];‡

Reap in accordance with mercy and lovingkindness.

Break up your uncultivated ground,

For it is time to seek and search diligently for the LORD [and to long for His blessing]

Until He comes to rain righteousness and His gift of salvation on you.  [2 Cor 9:10 ]

<sup>13</sup>You have plowed and planted wickedness, you have reaped
the [willful] injustice [of oppressors],‡

You have eaten the fruit of lies.

Because you have trusted in your own way and your chariots, and in your many warriors,

<sup>14</sup>Therefore an uproar will arise among your people,
And all your fortresses will be destroyed,
As Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle,
When mothers were dashed in pieces with their children. [
2 Kin 17:3.]

<sup>15</sup>In this way it will be done to you at [idolatrous] Bethel because of your great wickedness;
At daybreak the king of Israel will be completely cut off.

Hosea 11

God is the Loving Father of His People

<sup>1</sup>WHEN ISRAEL was a child [a young nation], I loved him,‡
And I called My son out of Egypt.  [Matt 2:15. ]

<sup>2</sup>The more they [the prophets] called them [to repentance and obedience],

The more they went away from them;
They kept sacrificing to the Baals
And burning incense to the carved images.

Taking them in My arms [nurturing the young nation];
But they did not know that I healed them.

<sup>4</sup> I led them gently with cords of a man, with bonds of love [guiding them],‡
And I was to them as one who lifts up and eases the yoke [of the law] over their jaws;
And I bent down to them and fed them.

<sup>5</sup> They will not return to the land of Egypt,
But Assyria will be their king [bringing them into captivity]
Because they refused to return to Me.

<sup>6</sup> The sword will whirl against and fall on their cities,
And will demolish the bars of their gates and fortifications
And will consume them because of their counsels.

Though the prophets call them to the One on high,
None at all exalts Him .

How can I surrender you, O Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
My heart recoils within Me;
All My compassions are kindled together [for My nation of Israel].  [Deut 29:23 ]

<sup>9</sup> I will not execute the fierceness of My anger;‡
I will not return to Ephraim to destroy him again.
For I am God and not man, the Holy One in your midst [who will not revoke My covenant],

And I will not come in wrath or enter the city [in judgment].

Who will roar like a lion;
He will roar [summoning them]
And His sons will come trembling from the west.

<sup>11</sup> They will come trembling and hurriedly like birds from

And like doves from the land of Assyria;
And I will settle them in their houses [in the land of their inheritance], declares the LORD.

And the house of Israel with deceit;
Judah is also unruly against God,
Even against the faithful Holy One.

Hosea 12

Ephraim Reminded

<sup>1</sup> EPHRAIM FEEDS on the [emptiness of the] wind ‡
And [continually] pursues the [parching] east wind [which brings destruction];

Every day he multiplies lies and violence.

Further, he makes a covenant with Assyria

And (olive) oil is carried to Egypt [to seek alliances].  [Is 30:6 , 7 ]

<sup>2</sup> The LORD also has a dispute [a legal complaint and an indictment] with Judah, ‡

And He will punish Jacob in accordance with his ways;

He will repay him in accordance with his deeds.

He wept [in repentance] and sought His favor.

He met Him at Bethel

And there God spoke with [him and through him with] us—  [Gen 28:12–19; 32:28; 35:1–15 ]

<sup>5</sup> Even the LORD, the God of hosts, ‡

The name of Him [who spoke with Jacob] is the LORD.

Observe and highly regard kindness and justice,

And wait [expectantly] for your God continually.

He loves to oppress and exploit.

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim said, “I have indeed become rich [and powerful as a nation]; ‡

I have found wealth for myself.

In all my labors they will not find in me

Any wickedness that would be sin.”  [Rev 3:17. ]

<sup>9</sup>. But I have been the LORD your God since [you became a nation in] the land of Egypt; ‡

I will make you live in tents again,

As in the days of the appointed and solemn festival.  [Lev 23:39–43. ]

<sup>10</sup> I have also spoken to [you through] the prophets, ‡

And I gave [them] many visions [to make My will known],

And through the prophets I gave parables [to appeal to your sense of right and wrong].

Surely the people there are worthless.

In Gilgal [they defy Me when] they sacrifice bulls,

Yes, [after My judgment] their [pagan] altars are like the stone heaps

In the furrows of the fields.

And [there] Israel (Jacob) worked and served for a wife,

And for a wife he kept sheep .  [Gen 29:18–20; 30:31; 31:38–41 ]

<sup>13</sup> And by a prophet (Moses) the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt, ‡

And by a prophet Israel was preserved.

So his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him [invoking punishment]

And bring back to him his shame and dishonor.

Hosea 13

Ephraim's Idolatry

<sup>1</sup> WHEN EPHRAIM spoke, there was trembling and terror.
He exalted himself [above the other tribes] in Israel;
But through [the worship of] Baal he became guilty and died [spiritually, and then came ruin, sealing Israel's doom as a nation].

<sup>2</sup>. And now they sin more and more,
And make for themselves molten images,
Idols skillfully made from their silver [as it pleased them],
All of them the work of the craftsmen.
They say of these [very works of their hands], "Let those who sacrifice kiss and show respect to the calves [as if they were living gods]!"

<sup>3</sup> Therefore they will be [swiftly dissipated] like the morning cloud ‡
Or like dew which soon disappears,
Like chaff which swirls with the whirlwind from the threshing floor,
And like smoke from the chimney or through the window [worthless and without substance —they will vanish].

<sup>4</sup> Yet I have been the LORD your God ‡
Since [the time you became a nation in] the land of Egypt;
And you were not to know any god except Me,
For there is no savior besides Me.

<sup>5</sup> I knew and regarded you and cared for you in the wilderness, ‡
In the land of drought.

And being satisfied, their heart became proud (self-centered);
Therefore they forgot Me.

<sup>7</sup> So I will be like a lion to them; ‡
Like a leopard I will watch and lie in wait [ready to attack] by the road [to Assyria].

<sup>8</sup> I will encounter them like a bear robbed of her cubs, ‡
And I will tear open their chests;
There I will also devour them like a lioness,
As a wild beast would tear them.

Because you are against Me, [and have rebelled] against your help.

That he may save you [when you are attacked] in all your cities?

And your judges of whom you asked,
“Give me a king and princes”?

And I took him away in My wrath [as punishment].

punished] is bound up [as in a bag]; ‡

His sin is stored up [for judgment and destruction].

But he is not a wise son,

For it is not the time to delay [his chance at a new birth] as the womb opens [but he ignores the opportunity to change].

the dead)? ‡

Shall I redeem them from death?

O death, where are your thorns?

O Sheol, where is your sting?

Compassion is hidden from My eyes [because of their failure to repent].  [1 Cor 15:55 ]

An east wind (Assyria) will come,
The breath of the LORD rising from the desert;
And Ephraim’s spring will become dry
And his fountain will be dried up.

Assyria will plunder his treasury of every precious object.

Because she rebelled against her God;
They will fall by the sword,
Their infants will be dashed in pieces,

And their pregnant women will be ripped open.

Hosea 14

Israel's Future Blessing

<sup>1</sup>O ISRAEL, return [in repentance] to the LORD your God, ‡
For you have stumbled and fallen [visited by tragedy], because of your sin.

to the LORD. ‡

Say to Him, “Take away all our wickedness;
Accept what is good and receive us graciously,
So that we may present the fruit of our lips (gratitude).  [Heb 13:15 ]

<sup>3</sup> “Assyria will not save us; ‡
We will not ride on horses [relying on military might], Nor will we say again to [the idols who are] the work of our hands,
‘You are our gods.’
For in You [O LORD] the orphan finds love and compassion and mercy.”

<sup>4</sup>I will heal their apostasy and faithlessness;
I will love them freely,
For My anger has turned away from Israel.

<sup>5</sup> I shall be like the dew to Israel; ‡
He will blossom like the lily,
And he will take root like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup> His shoots will sprout, ‡
And his beauty will be like the olive tree
And his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.

Will again raise grain,
And they will blossom like the vine.
His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup> O Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols?

It is I who have answered and will care for you and watch over you.

I am like a luxuriant cypress tree;
With Me your fruit is found [which is to nourish you].

9 Whoever is [spiritually] wise, let him understand these things; ‡

Whoever is [spiritually] discerning and understanding, let him know them.

For the ways of the LORD are right,
And the righteous will walk in them,
But transgressors will stumble and fall in them.  [Ps 107:43; Is 26:7; Jer 9:12; Dan 12:10 ]

Annotations for Hosea

1:2–3 wife of prostitution. Gomer may have been a common prostitute at the time Hosea married her, or perhaps she had participated in a ritual sexual act as part of a Baal cult. However, it is more likely that the descriptive phrase anticipates what Gomer would become following her marriage to Hosea.
children of [her] prostitution. If Gomer was a prostitute when she married Hosea, this could refer to children that Gomer already had and that Hosea adopted at the time of marriage. A more likely possibility is that the title anticipates children born to a mother whose reputation and escapades would make their lineage suspect. Gomer's marital infidelity is a picture of Israel's idolatry and unfaithfulness to its covenant with God.

1:5 break the bow. This phrase means to destroy an opponent's military strength (1Sa 2:4 ; Ps 46:9 ; Jer 49:35 ).

1:6 Lo-Ruhamah. This means "not loved," foreshadowing the Lord's rejection of Israel.

1:9 Lo-Ammi. This means "not my people," threatening the termination of the Lord's covenant relationship with His people (Lev 26:12 ).

1:10 Shall be like the sand of the sea. The Lord would not reject His people forever. God would fulfill His promise to Abraham (Ge 22:17 ; 32:12 ).

2:2 she is not my wife. This may be a formal announcement of divorce or a realistic confession that the relationship between God and Israel had lost its vitality.

2:3 And make her like a wilderness. This simile pictures the loss of fertility, an appropriate punishment for a nation that had sought fertility by worshiping another god.

2:6–7 She will [passionately] pursue her lovers. This word draws attention to the strong passion the people of Israel felt for Baal. These verses anticipate the exile, when Israel would be separated from the idols of Baal.

2:12 animals of the open country. The Lord would break down the nation's defenses and turn them into overgrown thickets inhabited by wild animals.

2:14 I will allure Israel. Having separated Israel from her lovers, the Lord would seek to win her back by making romantic overtures and wooing her with tender words of love.

2:15 Valley of Achor. This meant "valley of trouble." It was a reminder of the sin of Achan and God's discipline of the nation of Israel for his sin (Jos 7:24–26 ).

2:19–20 betroth. Betrothal was a binding commitment, the last step before the wedding and consummation of the marriage.

3:1–2 I bought her. Gomer had become the property of another man. Hosea's purchase of Gomer symbolized God's great devotion, which moves Him to seek reconciliation even if it means subjecting Himself to humiliation (Php 2:8 ). One of the great truths presented in the Old Testament is God's undying love for Israel. From among all the ancient nations on Earth, He had chosen Israel.

3:1 The Extent of God's Love— People who think of the God of the Old Testament as a God of judgment and the God of the New Testament as a God of love should spend some time studying Hosea. In the book God instructs Hosea to marry a woman named Gomer who is consistently unfaithful. The Book of Hosea is a living parable about how far God will go to love Israel. While there is definitely judgment in Hosea, the consistent ongoing message is God will go to any extreme to demonstrate His love.

He is even willing to play the betrayed spouse in order to save us. He is willing to be an object of scorn and disrespect if that is what it takes to win us back to Him. God's own given law allows for the execution of both parties in an adulterous affair (Lev 20:10). God cares deeply about this sin. He cares more deeply about His people.

It is important to understand how much He takes the initiative. He does not wait passively for us to come to Him. He is faithful about the task of going after us. Even though there is every reason to reject and ignore us, God is right there working to win us in spite of the fact that we reject Him at every turn.
Go to Theological Notes Index

3:4 pillar. These were stone pillars used by the Canaanites in their worship of Baal and other gods (2Ki 3:2 ; 10:26-27 ; 17:10 ). ephod. This was a priestly garment.

4:1 a [legal] case. The Hebrew word refers to a formal complaint charging Israel with breaking the covenant. knowledge. This does not refer to intellectual awareness, but to recognition of God's authority as Israel's covenant Lord.

4:2 [false] swearing of oaths, deception (broken faith), murder, stealing, and adultery. Five of the Ten Commandments are mentioned here.

4:5-6 lack of knowledge. The priests had failed to teach God's law to the people (Mal 2:7 ). As a result, the priests would be the special object of God's judgment. He would terminate the priestly line.

4:7-8 They (the priests) feed on the sin offering of My people. The priests greedily accepted the meat from the people's hypocritical and empty sacrifices (6:6 ; 8:11-13 ).

4:10 play the prostitute. This refers to religious prostitution associated with Baal worship, not to immorality in general. The Israelites worshiped Baal in order to have good crops and many children, but they still would not have enough to eat, nor would they multiply in number.

4:12 their [diviner's] wand. This refers to wooden idols that Baal worshipers consulted for guidance.

4:15 Gilgal. This was an important religious center in the north, known in Hosea's time for its hypocritical religious practices (9:15 ; 12:11 ; Am 4:4 ). Beth-aven. This means "house of iniquity," and is a sarcastic reference to the important religious center Bethel, which means "house of God" (Am 5:5 ).

4:17-19 Ephraim. This tribe was one of the largest tribes of Israel. It is used here to represent the entire Northern Kingdom.

5:4 spirit of prostitution. The people had an uncontrollable desire to worship other gods.

5:8-9 Blow the horn. This act signaled an emergency and mustered the fighting men to defend the land. The towns mentioned were north of Jerusalem, within or near the borders of Benjamin. The implication is that the enemy army had already swept through the north and was ready to invade Judah.

5:10 move a boundary marker. Stones were used to mark the boundaries of property. A thief could steal a part of someone's land by moving one. The law warned that altering a boundary in this way would bring a special judgment from God (Dt 19:14 ; 27:17 ; Pr 22:28 ).

5:12 I am like a moth to Ephraim. As a moth slowly destroys clothing, so the Lord would destroy Israel (Job 13:28 ; Isa 50:9 ; 51:8 ). dry rot. Elsewhere this word refers to bone or to decay (Pr 12:4 ; 14:30 ; Hab 3:16 ).

5:14-15 like a young lion. God would scatter His people as judgment for their treachery. But the purpose of the Lord's discipline was to drive the people to "earnestly" seek Him.

6:3 like the [heavy] rain, Like the spring rain watering the earth. Two periods of rain are alluded to here. The heavy rains came in the autumn and softened the ground for plowing and sowing. The spring rains came in the spring and caused the plants to grow.

6:5 judgments [pronounced upon them by the prophets] are like the light that shines forth. This comparison suggests that God's judgment, like bright sunlight, was obvious to all; or that, like a bolt of lightning or a blinding flash of light, it came swiftly.

6:11 there is a harvest [of divine judgment] appointed for you. The comparison of God's judgment to a harvest indicates that the judgment was inevitable and implies that it would be thorough in its destruction.

7:4–7 They are all hot like an oven. The background for these verses is the political turmoil of the Northern Kingdom. During a 20-year period (752–732 BC), four Israelite kings were assassinated (2Ki 15). The dangerous, uncontrollable perpetrators of these crimes are described here. These conspirators were like a large baker's oven that has been heating up for several hours while the bread dough rises. By morning the fire in the oven can be destructive.

7:8 Ephraim mixes himself with the [Gentile] nations. Instead of depending on the Lord for political stability, Israel formed alliances with surrounding nations. The destructive outcome of this policy is compared to a cake that has been placed over a fire and left unturned.

7:9–10 Gray hairs. Israel did not recognize that its power was declining and its freedom was slipping away, like an aging man who is gradually overtaken by the signs of old age.

7:11–12 Egypt . . . Assyria. Israel was caught between these two superpowers. It tried to maintain its independence by playing one power against the other, but this vacillating policy didn't work. Israel was like a silly dove, flitting about from place to place.

7:13 Woe (judgment is coming) to them. When prophets spoke this way, they were saying a funeral dirge for those under the sentence of God's judgment.

7:14 grain and new wine. God sent a drought on Israel, but instead of the people turning to Him in repentance, the idolatrous Israelites demonstrated their devotion to Baal. According to Canaanite religious beliefs, prolonged drought was a signal that the storm god Baal had been temporarily defeated by the god of death and was imprisoned by the underworld. Baal's worshipers would mourn his death in hopes that their tears might facilitate his resurrection and the restoration of crops.

8:1–3 Like a [great] vulture. As a bird of prey would do, Assyria would invade Israel and take its people into captivity. we of Israel know You. Though Israel claimed to acknowledge the Lord's authority, it had violated His covenant and rejected the qualities the Lord regarded as good, such as justice, loyalty, and humility (Am 5:14–15 ; Mic 6:8 ).

8:4 They set up kings. This phrase alludes to the political turmoil surrounding the throne of the Northern Kingdom during the eighth century BC, when four kings were assassinated during a 20-year period (7:4–7 ).

8:6 A craftsman made it. Hosea reasoned that anything that is made with human hands cannot possibly qualify as a god.

8:9–10 a wild donkey. This comparison draws attention to Israel's free-spirited attitude and desire to live unrestrained by God's standards.

8:14 palaces . . . built many fortified cities. True security comes from the Creator, but God's people trusted instead in their own efforts, symbolized by their important buildings.

9:1–2 threshing floor. Because of their association with the harvest, threshing floors were the site of agricultural festivals in which Israel offered up sacrifices to Baal. The Lord would take away the joy of the harvest by destroying the crops and leaving the threshing floors and wine vats empty.

9:3 the land of the LORD . Israel had forgotten that their land belonged to the Lord. He alone decided who would or would not live in it (Lev 25:23 ).

9:7 The man [of God] who is inspired is [treated as if] demented. The word translated "demented" or "mad" is used in 1 Samuel 21:15 of David when he pretended to be a madman before the Philistine king.

9:8 watchman. He would look for approaching armies and then warn the people so that they could secure the city and prepare for battle (Eze 33:6). The prophets were like watchmen because they were sent by God to warn the people of judgment and urge them to repent (Eze 3:17).

9:9 As in the days of Gibeah. The reference here is to the rape and murder of a young woman by men of Gibeah, an event that started a civil war (Jdg 19). Those who witnessed this violent deed remarked that it was the worst crime committed in Israel's history until that time. However, the sins of Hosea's generation rivaled the infamous Gibeah.

9:14 miscarrying womb. Some women of Israel would be barren (v. 11); others would bear children, only to lose them to the invader's sword (vv. 12–13). Still others would conceive but miscarry.

10:1 Israel is a luxuriant and prolific vine. This refers to God's blessings upon the nation, which contrast with the nation's ingratitude and idolatry.

10:4 judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field. In much the same way judgment would replace God's blessings.

10:11 loves to tread out. Israel preferred to be unrestrained, like an unmuzzled heifer at the threshing floor that can simply lean down and eat grain. I will harness Ephraim. Israel's rebellious spirit necessitated harsh treatment, compared here to a farmer binding his calf to the yoke and forcing it to do hard labor. Threshing in this context refers to Israel's service to the Lord; plowing refers to the discipline that Israel had to acquire through judgment and exile.

10:12 Break up your uncultivated ground. Plowing and planting are necessary preliminary steps for growing a crop, which eventually sprouts when the rain falls in season. In the same way, repentance would set the stage for restored blessing, which God would eventually rain down on His people.

11:3 it is I who taught Ephraim to walk. Like a father teaching his child to walk, the Lord patiently gave the people of Israel direction and cared for them tenderly when they experienced pain or injury.

11:4 cords . . . bonds. The Lord had placed restraints on Israel, but His regulations, rather than being overly strict or harsh, reflected His concern for the people's well-being. God did not drive them mercilessly but provided for their needs, like a farmer who periodically removes the yoke from an animal's neck so that it can eat.

11:6 consume. This is the same Hebrew word translated "fed them" in verse 4. The people of Israel had rejected the gentle Master who fed them and provided for their needs. As a result, they would be devoured by the swords of the invading Assyrians.

11:9 For I am God and not man. When human beings get angry, they are often incapable of tempering their anger with compassion, but God's emotions operate in perfect balance.

12:1 oil is carried to Egypt. Oil may have been used in a ritual ratifying a treaty or given as a sign of loyalty.

12:7 in whose hand are false and fraudulent balances. In violation of the Old Testament law (Lev 19:36), dishonest merchants sometimes rigged their scales so that they could give buyers less than what they thought they were purchasing (Pr 11:1 ; 16:11).

12:9 I will make you live in tents again. During the Feast of the Tabernacles people lived in tents to commemorate the wilderness wandering (Lev 23:33–43).

13:2 kiss and show respect to the calves. This is a reference to the idolatrous practice of kissing images as a sign of homage (1Ki 19:18).

13:6–9 So I will be like a lion to them. God provided for Israel's needs and richly blessed the people, like a shepherd leading his flock to lush pasturelands. In return, Israel forgot the Lord. The Lord's relationship with Israel would change drastically from caring Shepherd to ravaging Predator. Ironically and tragically, Israel's rebellion had turned its Helper into a Destroyer.

13:12 bound up . . . stored up. God had kept a careful record of Israel's sins, to be revealed as evidence of guilt in the day of judgment.

13:13 The pains of childbirth. This metaphor illustrates Israel's spiritual insensitivity. When the crucial time of judgment arrived, Israel would respond unwisely, resulting in death. The nation's failure to repent is compared to a baby that is not positioned properly during labor and jeopardizes the life of both mother and child.

14:1–3 Take away all our wickedness. The final section of Hosea's prophecy begins with a call to repentance that includes a model prayer. The people of Israel were to pray for God's gracious forgiveness and renew their allegiance to Him by renouncing foreign alliances, their own military strength, and artificial gods.

14:4 I will heal their apostasy and faithlessness. The grief-stricken Hosea does not tell us whether a reconciliation took place between him and his adulterous wife Gomer. But there is no question concerning the outcome between God and faithless Israel. Several beautiful figures of speech are employed by Hosea to describe the results and effects of God's love for Israel.

14:9 For the ways of the LORD are right. God's demands and principles are completely true. The wise person will choose to obey them, but the foolish person will ignore them and consequently stumble into judgment.

The Book of Joel

- AUTHOR: Although there are several other Joel's in the Bible, the prophet Joel is known only from this book. It has been suggested that he lived not far from Jerusalem and some think that Joel was possibly a priest as well as a prophet on account of references to the priesthood throughout the book (Joel 1:13–14 ; 2:17 ).
- TIMES: c. 835 BC
- KEY VERSE: Joel 2:11
- THEME: For the true agrarian society, crops are life itself. It is hard to imagine how devastating the natural disasters described in Joel are, and he uses these painful events as a megaphone to get the attention of the people. There is urgency in this call, because the day of the Lord is coming. This day will be a day of judgment or a day of blessing depending on where one stands with God.

Joel 1

The Devastation of Locusts

Listen closely, all inhabitants of the land!
Has such a thing as this occurred in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?

And let your children tell their children,
And their children the next generation.

And what the swarming locust has left, the creeping locust has eaten;

And what the creeping locust has left, the stripping locust has eaten [in judgment of Judah].

<sup>5</sup> Awake [from your intoxication], you drunkards, and weep; ‡

Wail, all you drinkers of wine,
Because of the [fresh] sweet wine
That is cut off from your mouth.

<sup>6</sup> For a [pagan and hostile] nation has invaded My land [like locusts], ‡

Mighty and without number;
Its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And it has the fangs of a lioness.  [Rev 9:7, 8 ]

<sup>7</sup> It has made My vine (My people) a waste and object of horror, ‡

And splintered and broken My fig tree.
It has stripped them completely bare and thrown them away;
Their branches have become white.  [Is 5:5, 6 ]

<sup>8</sup> Wail like a virgin [bride] clothed with sackcloth ‡

For the bridegroom of her youth [who has died].

From the house of the LORD;

The priests mourn
Who minister to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>The field is ruined, ‡

The ground mourns;
For the grain is ruined,
The new wine is dried up,
The fresh oil fails.

Wail, O vinedressers,
For the wheat and for the barley,
Because the harvest of the field has perished.

And the fig tree fails;
The pomegranate, the palm also, and the apple tree,
All the trees of the field dry up,
Indeed, joy dries up and withdraws
From the sons of men.

And lament (cry out in grief), O priests;
Wail, O ministers of the altar!
Come, spend the night in sackcloth [and pray without ceasing],
O ministers of my God,
For the grain offering and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.

Starvation and Drought

<sup>14</sup> Consecrate a fast, ‡

Proclaim a solemn assembly,
Gather the elders
And all the inhabitants of the land
To the house of the LORD your God,
And cry out to the LORD [in penitent pleadings].

15. Alas for the day! ‡

For the [judgment] day of the LORD is at hand,
And it will come [upon the nation] as a destruction from the Almighty. [Zeph 1:14–18.]

16 Has not the food been cut off before our eyes, ‡
Joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17. The seeds [of grain] shrivel under the clods,
The storehouses are desolate and empty,
The barns are in ruins
Because the grain is dried up.

18 How the animals groan! ‡
The herds of cattle are bewildered and wander aimlessly
Because they have no pasture;
Even the flocks of sheep suffer.

19 O LORD, I cry out to You, ‡
For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
And the flame has burned up all the trees of the field.

20 Even the wild animals pant [in longing] for You; ‡
For the water brooks are dried up
And fire has consumed the pastures of the wilderness.

Joel 2

The Terrible Visitation

1. BLOW THE trumpet in Zion [warning of impending judgment], ‡

Sound an alarm on My holy mountain [Zion]!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble and shudder in fear,
For the [judgment] day of the LORD is coming;
It is close at hand, [Ezek 7:2–4; Amos 5:16–20.]

2. A day of darkness and gloom, ‡
A day of clouds and of thick [dark] mist,
Like the dawn spread over the mountains;
There is a [pagan, hostile] people numerous and mighty,
The like of which has never been before
Nor will be again afterward
Even for years of many generations.

And behind them a flame burns;
Before them the land is like the Garden of Eden,
But behind them a desolate wilderness;
And nothing at all escapes them.

And they run like war horses.

They leap on the tops of the mountains,
Like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble,
Like a mighty people set in battle formation.  [Rev 9:7, 9 ]

All faces become pale [with terror].

<sup>7</sup> They run like warriors;
They climb the wall like soldiers.
They each march [straight ahead] in line,
And they do not deviate from their paths.

<sup>8</sup> They do not crowd each other;
Each one marches in his path.
When they burst through the defenses (weapons),
They do not break ranks.

They run on the wall;
They climb up into the houses,
They enter at the windows like a thief.

The heavens tremble,
The sun and the moon grow dark
And the stars lose their brightness.  [Rev 9:2–4; 16:14 ]

<sup>11</sup>. The LORD utters His voice before His army, ‡
For His camp is very great,
Because strong and powerful is he who [obediently] carries out His word.
For the day of the LORD is indeed great and very terrible [causing dread];
Who can endure it?  [Is 26:20, 21; 34:1–4, 8; Rev 6:16, 17 ]

<sup>12</sup> “Even now,” says the LORD, ‡ “Turn and come to Me with all your heart [in genuine repentance],

With fasting and weeping and mourning [until every barrier is removed and the broken fellowship is restored];

<sup>13</sup>Rip your heart to pieces [in sorrow and contrition] and not your garments.” ‡

Now return [in repentance] to the LORD your God,

For He is gracious and compassionate,

Slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness [faithful to His covenant with His people];

And He relents [His sentence of] evil [when His people genuinely repent].

And leave a blessing behind Him,

Even a grain offering and a drink offering [from the bounty He provides you]

For the LORD your God?

Dedicate a fast [as a day of restraint and humility], call a solemn assembly.

Assemble the elders,

Gather the children and the nursing infants.

Let the bridegroom come out of his room

And the bride out of her bridal chamber. [No one is excused from the assembly.]

Weep between the porch and the altar,

And let them say, “Have compassion and spare Your people, O LORD,

And do not make Your inheritance (Israel) an object of ridicule,

Or a [humiliating] byword among the [Gentile] nations.

Why should they say among the peoples,

‘Where is their God?’ ”

Deliverance Promised

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD will be jealous for His land [ready to defend it since it is rightfully and uniquely His]‡
And will have compassion on His people [and will spare them].

“Behold, I am going to send you grain and new wine and oil,
And you will be satisfied in full with them;
And I will never again make you an object of ridicule among the [Gentile] nations.

<sup>20</sup> “But I will remove the northern army far away from you,‡
And I will drive it into a parched and desolate land,
With its forward guard into the eastern sea (Dead Sea)
And with its rear guard into the western sea (Mediterranean Sea).

And its stench will arise and its foul odor of decay will come up [this is the fate of the northern army in the final day of the LORD],

For He has done great things.”  [Is 34:1–4, 8; Amos 4:10 ]

For the LORD has done great things!  [Zech 12:8–10. ]

For the pastures of the wilderness have turned green;
The tree has produced its fruit,
And the fig tree and the vine have yielded in full.

And delight in the LORD, your God;
For He has given you the early [autumn] rain in vindication
And He has poured down the rain for you,
The early [autumn] rain and the late [spring] rain, as before.

<sup>24</sup> And the threshing floors shall be full of grain,
And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.

That the swarming locust has eaten,
The creeping locust, the stripping locust, and the gnawing locust—

My great army which I sent among you.

And praise the name of the LORD your God
Who has dealt wondrously with you;
And My people shall never be put to shame.
<sup>27</sup> “And you shall know [without any doubt] that I am in the midst of Israel [to protect and bless you], ‡
And that I am the LORD your God,
And there is no other;
My people will never be put to shame.

The Promise of the Spirit

<sup>28</sup> “It shall come about after this ‡
That I shall pour out My Spirit on all mankind;
And your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
Your old men will dream dreams,
Your young men will see visions.
<sup>29</sup> “Even on the male and female servants ‡
I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

The Day of the LORD

<sup>30</sup> “I will show signs and wonders [displaying My power] in the heavens and on the earth, ‡
Blood and fire and columns of smoke.
And the moon into blood
Before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.  [Is 13:6, 9–11; 24:21–23; Ezek 32:7–10; Matt 24:29, 30;
Rev 6:12–17 ]
<sup>32</sup> “And it shall come about that whoever calls on the name of the LORD ‡
Will be saved [from the coming judgment]
For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
There will be those who escape,
As the LORD has said,
Even among the remnant [of survivors] whom the LORD calls.  [Acts 2:17–21; Rom 10:13 ]

Joel 3

The Nations Will Be Judged

<sup>1</sup> “FOR BEHOLD, in those [climactic] days and at that time, ‡
When I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

<sup>2</sup>-I will gather together all the [Gentile] nations [that were hostile to My people]‡

And bring them down into the Valley of Jehoshaphat (the LORD has judged).

And there I will deal with them and enter into judgment with them there

For [their treatment of] My people, My inheritance, Israel,
Whom they have scattered among the nations,
And [because] they have encroached on My land and divided it up.

And have traded a boy for a prostitute

And have sold a girl for wine that they may drink.

<sup>4</sup> “Moreover, what are you to Me, O Tyre and Sidon and all the [five small] regions of Philistia? Will you pay Me back for something [I have supposedly done to you]? Even if you do pay Me back, I will swiftly and speedily return your deed [of retaliation] on your own head. [Is 23 ; Ezek 26:1–18 ; Amos 1:6–10 ; Zeph 2:4–7 ; Zech 9:2–7] ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Because you have taken My silver and My gold and have carried My precious treasures to your temples and palaces,

<sup>6</sup> and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the Greeks, so that you may send them far away from their territory,

<sup>7</sup> behold, I am going to stir them up from the place where you have sold them [and return them to their land], and I shall return your action [of retaliation] on your own head. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Also I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a distant nation,” for the LORD has spoken. [Is 14:2 ; 60:14] ‡

Prepare a war! Stir up the mighty men!

Let all the men of war come near, let them come up!
10 Beat your plowshares into swords ‡
And your pruning hooks into spears;
Let the weak say, “I am strong!”  [Is 2:4; Mic 4:3 ]
11 Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, ‡
And gather yourselves there;
Bring down, O LORD, Your mighty ones (Your warriors).
12 Let the nations be stirred [to action] ‡
And come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat,
For there I will sit to judge and punish
All the surrounding nations.
13 Put in the sickle [of judgment], for the harvest is ripe; ‡
Come, tread [the grapes], for the wine press is full;
The vats overflow, for the wickedness [of the people] is great.
 [Mark 4:29; Rev 14:15, 18–20 ]
14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision (judgment)! ‡
For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision
[when judgment is executed].  [Zech 14:1–9 ]
15 The sun and the moon grow dark
And the stars lose their brightness.
16 The LORD thunders and roars from Zion ‡
And utters His voice from Jerusalem [in judgment of His enemies],
And the heavens and the earth tremble and shudder;
But the LORD is a refuge for His people
And a stronghold [of protection] to the children of Israel. [
Amos 9:11–15; Mic 4:1–3; 5:2; Zeph 3:13–20; [Zech
6:12](#), 13; 12:8, 9 ]
17 Then you will know and understand fully that I am the LORD your God,
Dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem will be holy,
And strangers [who do not belong] will no longer pass through it.

Judah Will Be Blessed

18. And in that day
The mountains will drip with sweet wine
And the hills will flow with milk;
And all the brooks and riverbeds of Judah will flow with water,
And a fountain will go out from the house of the LORD
To water the [desert] Valley of Shittim.  [Ezek 47:1–12; Amos 9:13; Zech 14:8 ]

19 Egypt will become a waste,
And Edom will become a desolate wilderness,
Because of their violence against the children of Judah,
In whose land they have shed innocent blood.  [Ex 1:16 ;
Amos 1:11 ]

20 But Judah shall be inhabited forever
And Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 And I shall avenge their blood which I have not avenged, ‡
For the LORD dwells in Zion.

Annotations for Joel

1:2 Has such a thing as this occurred in your days. The calamity of recent days was unprecedented in the memory of the people.

1:4 locust. Many interpreters have viewed these locusts as foreign armies that attacked Judah in successive waves—Assyria, Babylon, Greece, and Rome. Yet literal locust plagues were one of the judgments promised if the people disobeyed God and broke their covenant with Him (Dt 28:38–42 ). Further, Joel’s description of the damage done by the locusts compares with eyewitness reports. The impression given is one of overwhelming devastation.

[1:9 The \[daily\] grain offering and the drink offering.](#) This phrase refers to the wine offerings that accompanied the priests’ morning and evening sacrifices (Ex 29:38–41 ). The devastation of the locust meant that no sacrifice could be offered.

1:10 The ground mourns. The land is personified as mourning because the three principle crops it produced—grain, grapes, and olives—had been destroyed (Dt 7:13 ; Ps 104:15 ).

[1:15 the \[judgment\] day of the LORD .](#) This phrase refers to a time of judgment and deliverance. Joel views the locust plague as a contemporary day of judgment that was serving as a token or forewarning of an even greater, future “day of the LORD.”

[1:17 The seeds \[of grain\] shrivel.](#) This indicated further devastation in the land and an inability to replant the following year.

2:1 coming . . . close at hand. The Bible presents the day of the Lord as an imminent reality. It is not something that we are gradually moving toward; rather, it is ever ready to burst in on us. At any moment, the day that is “nigh” may become present.

2:2 darkness and gloom. This phrase is used as a figure for misery, distress, and judgment (Isa 8:22 ; 60:2 ; Jer 13:16 ).

2:4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses. Joel compared the speed and strength of the invaders to galloping horses.

2:11 Who can endure it? Nothing will be able to withstand the wrath of God (Mt 24:21–22 ).

2:13 Rip your heart. God is not satisfied with outward acts of repentance. Tearing one’s garments was a customary way of expressing grief or remorse (Jos 7:6 ; 1Sa 4:12 ). However, like all outward acts, the tearing of a garment could be done without true sorrow or repentance. God required more than mere external words or actions; He wanted a change of heart and sorrow over sin.

2:14 Who knows. These words suggest that even at the last moment, the Lord would withhold His wrath and display His grace if the people would truly repent. As a result, agriculture would be restored and productivity would return. There would be food and drink for the people and for offerings to the Lord.

2:16 bridegroom . . . And the bride. According to Jewish tradition codified in the Mishnah, a couple could be excused from reciting daily prayers on their wedding day. But Joel excused no one from prayer at this time of spiritual emergency.

2:17 Why should they say among the peoples. This rhetorical question was designed to move God to intervene. Failure to come to Judah’s aid might encourage the nations to make a mockery of Judah’s God.

2:18–19 jealous for His land. The deep love of God for the land of Israel is coupled with His abiding love for the people. On every occasion in which God brought judgment on the land, there was the hope that one day His zeal for the land would lead to a renewal of blessing. Genuine repentance is the prerequisite for God's blessing. In response to repentance, God would bring restoration and blessing.

2:22 For the pastures of the wilderness have turned green; The tree has produced its fruit. The renewal of agriculture would be a sign that God had renewed prosperity and peace to His land.

2:28–32 I shall pour out My Spirit on all mankind. Peter quotes this passage on the Day of Pentecost (Ac 2:17–21) to explain the miracle of speaking in tongues. There are three main viewpoints regarding how Peter uses Joel's prophecy: (1) Some interpreters see a completer fulfillment of Joel's prophecy in the experience of the first believers on the Day of Pentecost. The outpouring of the Spirit ushered in the kingdom age. (2) Some interpreters believe that Peter was simply using Joel's prophecy as an illustration of what was happening. In effect, Peter was saying, "This is that same Holy Spirit which was spoken of by Joel." (3) Some others suggest that Joel's prophecy was partially fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost. The gift of the Holy Spirit was given, but the signs mentioned in verses 30–32 will be fulfilled later in connection with the return of Christ in great glory.

3:2 Valley of Jehoshaphat. The name Jehoshaphat means "the Lord judges." The location of this valley is not known. Perhaps this was merely a symbolic name for the location of the great battle in the end times.

3:11 nations . . . mighty ones. Joel saw two different armies assembling for battle (Mk 8:38 ; Rev 19:14).

3:14 the valley of decision. This may be a symbolic name for the valley of Jehoshaphat (3:2), or it may refer to the option before the people to continue toward certain judgment or to turn to God in repentance (vv. 12–13).

3:18 in that day. These words indicate the prophetic future. Joel uses poetic imagery to describe the productivity of the land in the Messianic Age. The valley of Shittim was the location of the last encampment before the Israelites entered Canaan (Nu 25:1 ; Jos 3:1).

The Book of

Amos

- AUTHOR: The only Old Testament appearance of the name Amos is in this book. Amos' objective appraisal of Israel's spiritual condition was not well received, not least because he was just a farmer from Judah. The author said of his background, "I am not a prophet [by profession], nor am I a prophet's son; I am a herdsman and a grower of sycamore figs" (7:14 ). He delivered his message in Bethel because it was the residence of the king of Israel and a center of idolatry.
- TIMES: c. 760–753 BC
- KEY VERSES: Am 3:1–2
- THEME: Amos was a contemporary of Isaiah and Hosea. The unusual aspect of his ministry is that he was a farmer and herdsman from Judah prophesying to the northern Israel. The issues he addresses are the usual prophetic concerns, but with a heavy emphasis on social justice. When injustice is rampant, expect God's judgment. No one is immune. In fact, the more God has given, the more God expects in response.

Judgment on Neighboring Nations

1 THE WORDS of Amos, who was among the shepherders of Tekoa, which he saw [in a divine revelation] concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. [Zech 14:5] ‡

2 And he said, ‡

“The LORD thunders and roars from Zion [in judgment]
And utters His voice from Jerusalem;
Then the pastures of the shepherds mourn,
And the summit of [Mount] Carmel dries up [because of God’s judgment].” [Is 42:13; Jer 25:30; Joel 3:16]

3. Thus says the LORD, ‡

“For three transgressions of Damascus and for four (multiplied delinquencies)

I shall not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,

Because they have threshed Gilead [east of the Jordan River] with sharp iron sledges [having spikes that crushed and shredded]. [2 Kin 10:32, 33]

4. “So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] upon the house of Hazael, ‡

And it shall devour the palaces and strongholds of Ben-hadad (Hazael’s son).

5. “I also will break the bar [of the gate] of Damascus, ‡

And cut off and destroy the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven (Wickedness),

And the ruler who holds the scepter, from Beth-eden (Damascus);

And the people of Aram [conquered by the Assyrians] will go into exile to Kir,”

Says the LORD. [Ezek 30:17]

6. Thus says the LORD, ‡
“For three transgressions of Gaza [in Philistia] and for four (multiplied delinquencies)
I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,
Because [as slave traders] they took captive the entire [Jewish] population [of defenseless Judean border villages, of which none was spared]
And deported them to Edom [for the slave trade].  [Joel 3:6 ]

<sup>7</sup> “So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] on the wall of Gaza ‡
And it shall consume her citadels.
<sup>8</sup> “And I will cut off and destroy the inhabitants from Ashdod, ‡
And the ruler who holds the scepter, from Ashkelon;
And I will unleash My power and turn My hand [in judgment]
against Ekron,
And the rest of the Philistines [in Gath and the towns dependent on these four Philistine cities] shall die,”
Says the Lord GOD.  [Josh 13:3 ]

<sup>9</sup> Thus says the LORD, ‡
“For three transgressions of Tyre and for four (multiplied delinquencies)
I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,
Because they [as middlemen] deported an entire [Jewish] population to Edom
And did not [seriously] remember their covenant of brotherhood.  [1 Kin 5:1, 12; 9:12, 13 ] <sup>10</sup> “So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] on the wall of Tyre,
And it shall consume her citadels.”

11. Thus says the LORD, ‡
“For three transgressions of Edom [the descendants of Esau] and for four (multiplied delinquencies)
I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,

Because he pursued his brother Jacob (Israel) with the sword, Corrupting and stifling his compassions and casting off all mercy;

His destructive anger raged continually,
And he maintained [and nurtured] his wrath forever.

upon Teman, ‡

And it shall consume the citadels of Bozrah [in Edom].”

<sup>13</sup> Thus says the LORD, ‡

four (multiplied delinquencies)

I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,

Because the Ammonites have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,

That they might enlarge their border.

<sup>14</sup> “So I will kindle a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction] on the wall of Rabbah [in Ammon] ‡

And it shall devour its strongholds

Amid war cries and shouts of alarm on the day of battle,

And a tempest on the day of the whirlwind [when the enemy captures the city].

He and his princes together,” says the LORD.

Amos 2

Judgment on Moab

<sup>1</sup> THUS SAYS the LORD, ‡

“For three transgressions of Moab and for four (multiplied
delinquencies)

I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,

Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom [Esau’s descendant] into lime [and used it to plaster a Moabite house]. Israel and Judah Under Jereboam II and Uzziah

upon Moab ‡

And it shall devour the strongholds of Kerioth;
And Moab shall die amid tumult and uproar,
With war cries and shouts of alarm and the sound of the trumpet.

<sup>3</sup> “I will also cut off and destroy the ruler from its midst ‡
And slay all the princes with him,” says the LORD.

Judgment on Judah

<sup>4</sup> Thus says the LORD, ‡

“For three transgressions of Judah and for four (multiplied
delinquencies)

I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,

Because they have rejected the law of the LORD [the sum of God’s instruction to His people]

And have not kept His commandments;

But their lies [and their idols], after which their fathers walked,

Caused them to go astray.

<sup>5</sup> “So I will send a fire [of war, conquest, and destruction by the Babylonians] upon Judah ‡

And it will devour the strongholds of Jerusalem.”

Judgment on Israel

<sup>6</sup> Thus says the LORD, ‡

“For three transgressions of Israel and for four (multiplied
delinquencies)

I will not reverse its punishment or revoke My word
concerning it,

Because they sell the righteous and innocent for silver
And the needy for the price of a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup> “These who pant after (long to see) the dust of the earth on the head of the helpless [as sign of their grief and

Also turn aside the way of the humble;
And a man and his father will go to the same girl
So that My holy name is profaned.

8 “They stretch out beside every [pagan] altar on clothes taken in pledge [to secure a loan, disregarding God’s command], ‡

And in the house of their God [in contempt of Him] they frivolously drink the wine [which has been] taken from those who have been fined.  [Ex 22:26; Deut 24:12, 13 ]

9 “Yet it was I [not the false gods] who destroyed the Amorite before them, ‡

Though his height was like the height of the cedars,
And he was as strong as the oaks;
I even destroyed his fruit above and his root below.

10 “Also it was I who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, ‡

And I led you forty years through the wilderness
That you might possess the land of the Amorite.

11 “Then I raised up some of your sons to be prophets [who gave you My revelation], ‡

And some of your young men to be Nazirites (dedicated ones).

Is this not true, O you children of Israel?” says the LORD.  [Num 6:1–8 ]

12 “But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink [despite their vows] ‡

And commanded the prophets, saying, ‘You shall not prophesy!’

13 “Behold, I am weighted down beneath you ‡

As a cart that is weighted down when it is full of sheaves.

14 “Flight will be lost to the swift [so they will be unable to escape], ‡

And the strong shall not strengthen nor maintain his power,
Nor shall the mighty man save his own life.

15 “He who handles the bow will not stand his ground,
The one who is swift of foot will not escape,

Nor will he who rides the horse save his life [from the invading army].

Amos 3

All the Families Are Guilty

<sup>2</sup> “I have known [chosen, cared for, and loved] only you of all the families of the earth; ‡

Therefore I shall punish you for all your wickedness.”

<sup>3</sup> Do two men walk together unless they have made an appointment?

Does a young lion growl from his den if he has not captured something?

<sup>5</sup> Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground when there is no bait in it?

Does a trap spring up from the ground when it has caught nothing at all? [Of course not! So it is that Israel has earned her impending judgment.]

<sup>6</sup> If a trumpet is blown in a city [warning of danger] will not the people tremble? ‡

If a disaster or misfortune occurs in a city has not the LORD caused it?

Without revealing His secret plan [of the judgment to come] To His servants the prophets.  [Rev 10:7 ]

The Lord GOD has spoken [to the prophets]! Who can but prophesy?  [Acts 4:20 ; 5:20 , 29 ; 1 Cor 9:16 ] and see the great confusion within her and the oppressions and abuse of authority in her midst.

11.Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD,

“An adversary (Assyria), even one surrounding the land,
Shall pull down your strength from you
And your fortresses will be looted.”

12.Thus says the LORD,

“Just as the shepherd snatches from the mouth of the lion a couple of legs or a piece of the [sheep’s] ear [to prove to the owner that he has not stolen the animal],

So will the [remaining] children of Israel living in Samaria be snatched away

With the corner of a bed and [part of] the damask covering of a couch.

Says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

<sup>14</sup> “On that day when I punish Israel’s transgressions,

I shall also punish the altars of Bethel [with their golden calves];

And the horns of the altar shall be cut off

And fall to the ground.

15 “And I shall tear down the winter house with the summer house; ‡

And the houses of ivory shall also perish

And the great houses shall come to an end,”

Says the LORD.

Amos 4

“Yet You Have Not Returned to Me”

1—HEAR THIS word, you [well-fed, pampered] cows (women) of Bashan who are on the mountain of Samaria, ‡

Who oppress the poor, who crush the needy,

Who say to their husbands, “Bring [the wine] now, and let us drink!”  [Ps 22:12; Ezek 39:18 ]

<sup>2</sup> The Lord GOD has sworn [an oath] by His holiness ‡

That, “Behold, the days are coming upon you
When they shall take you away with meat hooks,
And the last of you with fish hooks.  [Ps 89:35 ]

Every woman straight before her [unable to turn aside],
And you shall be cast to Harmon,”
Says the LORD.

In Gilgal [where idols are worshiped] multiply transgression;
Bring your sacrifices every morning,
Your tithes every three days!

And [boastfully] proclaim freewill offerings, announce them.
For this you so love to do, O children of Israel!”
Says the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup>“I also gave you cleanliness of teeth [because of the famine] in all your cities ‡

And lack of bread in all your places,
Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> “Furthermore, I withheld the rain from you
When there were still three months until the harvest.
Then I would send rain on one city,
And on another city I would not send rain;
One piece of ground was rained on,
While the part not rained on would dry up.

<sup>8</sup> “So [the people of] two or three cities would stagger into one city to drink water,

But would not be satisfied;
Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “I wounded you with blight [from the hot, blasting east wind] and with mildew; ‡
And the caterpillar devoured
Your many gardens and vineyards, your fig trees and your olive trees;
Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> “I sent a plague among you like [those of] Egypt; ‡
I killed your young men with the sword and I captured your horses,
I made the stench of your camp rise up into your nostrils;
Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.  [2 Kin 8:12 ; 13:3 , 7 ]

<sup>11</sup> “I overthrew and destroyed [some among] you, as [I, your] God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, ‡
And you were [rescued] like a log pulled out of the flame;
Yet you have not returned to Me [in repentance],” says the LORD.  [Gen 19:24 , 25 ; Is 13:19 ; Jer 49:18 ]

Because I will do this to you,
Prepare to meet your God [in judgment], O Israel!”

<sup>13</sup> For behold, He who forms the mountains and creates the wind ‡
And declares to man what are His thoughts,
He who makes the dawn into darkness
And treads on the heights of the earth—
The LORD God of hosts is His name.  [Ps 139:2 ; Dan 2:28 ]

Amos 5

“Seek Me that You May Live”

<sup>1</sup> HEAR THIS word which I take up for you as a funeral song, O house of Israel: ‡

The virgin Israel.
She lies neglected on her land;

There is no one to raise her up.

<sup>3</sup> For thus says the Lord GOD,
“The city which goes forth a thousand strong
Will have a hundred left,
And the one which goes forth a hundred strong
Will have ten left to the house of Israel.”

“Seek Me [search diligently for Me and regard Me as more essential than food] so that you may live.  [2 Chr 15:2
; Jer 29:13 ]

Nor enter [idolatrous] Gilgal,
Nor cross over to Beersheba [and its idols];
For Gilgal will certainly go into captivity and exile,
And Bethel will come to nothing.

<sup>6</sup> “Seek the LORD [search diligently for Him and long for Him as your most essential need] so that you may live,

Or He will rush down like a [devouring] fire, O house of Joseph,
And there will be no one to quench the flame for [idolatrous]
Bethel,

<sup>7</sup> “For those [shall be consumed] who turn justice into wormwood (bitterness) ‡
And cast righteousness down to the earth.”

<sup>8</sup> He who made the [cluster of stars called] Pleiades and [the constellation] Orion, ‡

Who turns deep darkness into the morning
And darkens the day into night,
Who calls for the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the surface of the earth,
The LORD is His name.

<sup>9</sup> It is He who causes [sudden] destruction to flash forth on the strong
So that destruction comes on the fortress.

10. They hate the one who reprimands [the unrighteous] in the [court held at the city] gate [regarding him as unreasonable and rejecting his reprimand], ‡

And they detest him who speaks [the truth] with integrity and honesty.

11. Therefore, because you impose heavy rent on the poor ‡

And demand a tribute (food-tax) of grain from them,

Though you have built [luxurious] houses of square stone,

You will not live in them;

You have planted beautiful vineyards, but you will not drink their wine.

12. For I know your transgressions are many and your sins are great (shocking, innumerable), ‡

You who distress the righteous and take bribes,

And turn away from the poor in the [court of the city] gate [depriving them of justice].

13. Therefore, he who is prudent and has insight will keep silent at such a [corrupt and evil] time, for it is an evil time [when people will not listen to truth and will disregard those of good character]. ‡

14. Seek (long for, require) good and not evil, that you may live; ‡

And so may the LORD God of hosts be with you,

Just as you have said!

15. Hate evil and love good, ‡

And establish justice in the [court of the city] gate.

Perhaps the LORD God of hosts

Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph [that is, those who remain after God's judgment].

16. Therefore, thus says the LORD God of hosts, the Lord, ‡

"There is wailing in all the public plazas,

And in all the streets they say, 'Alas! Alas!'

And they call the farmers to mourning [for those who have died]

And professional mourners to wailing.

For I will pass through your midst [in judgment],” says the LORD.  [Ex 12:12 ]

<sup>18</sup> Woe (judgment is coming) to you who desire the day of the LORD [expecting rescue from the Gentiles]!‡
Why would you want the day of the LORD?
It is darkness (judgment) and not light [and rescue and prosperity];

<sup>19</sup> It is as if a man runs from a lion [escaping one danger]‡
And a bear meets him [so he dies anyway],
Or goes home, and leans with his hand against the wall
And a snake bites him.

Even very dark with no brightness in it?

And I do not take delight in your solemn assemblies.

<sup>22</sup> “Even though you offer Me your burnt offerings and your grain offerings,‡
I will not accept them;
And I will not even look at the peace offerings of your fattened animals.

<sup>23</sup> “Take the noise of your songs away from Me [they are an irritation]!

I shall not even listen to the melody of your harps.

And righteousness like an ever-flowing stream [flowing abundantly].

<sup>25</sup> “Did you bring Me sacrifices and grain offerings during those forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? [Certainly not!] ‡

<sup>26</sup> “You carried along your king Sikkuth and Kayyun [your man-made gods of Saturn], your images of your star-god which you made for yourselves [but you brought Me none of the appointed sacrifices].‡

<sup>27</sup> “Therefore, I will send you to go into exile far beyond Damascus,” says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.  [Acts 7:42, 43 ]‡

Amos 6

“Those at Ease in Zion”

and carefree in Zion (Judah) ‡

And to those on the mountain of Samaria who feel secure,
The distinguished men of the foremost of nations,
To whom the house of Israel comes.  [Luke 6:24, 25 ]

And from there go [north of Damascus] to the great city of Hamath;

Then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are they better than these kingdoms [of yours],
Or is their territory greater than yours?
<sup>3</sup> Do you put off the day of punishment, ‡
Yet cause the seat of violence to come near?

And lounge around out on their couches,
And eat lambs from the flock

And calves from the midst of the stall,

<sup>5</sup> Who improvise to the sound of the harp— ‡
Like David they have composed songs for themselves— [
1 Chr 23:5.]

<sup>6</sup> Who drink wine from sacrificial bowls ‡
And anoint themselves with the finest oils [reflecting their unrestrained celebration];

Yet they are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph (Israel).  [Gen 49:22, 23. ]

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, they will now go into exile with the first of the captives,
And the cultic revelry and banqueting of those who lounge around [on their luxurious couches] will pass away.

<sup>8</sup> The Lord GOD has sworn [an oath] by Himself—the LORD God of hosts, says: ‡

“I loathe and reject the [self-centered] arrogance of Jacob

(Israel),
And I hate his palaces and citadels;
Therefore, I shall hand over the [idolatrous] city [of Samaria] with all that it contains [to the Assyrian invaders].”

<sup>9</sup> And it shall come to pass that if there remain ten men in one house, they shall die [by the pestilence that comes with war].

<sup>10</sup> Then one’s uncle, or his undertaker, shall come to bring the [disease-infected] body out of the house, [to cremate it], and he will say to another in the farthest part of the house, “Is there anyone else with you?” And that one will say, “No one.” Then he will respond, “Hush! Keep quiet! For the name of the LORD is not to be mentioned [even casually, for fear that we might invoke even more punishment].”  [1 Sam 31:12 ] ‡

Do men plow rocks with oxen? [Of course not!]
Yet you have turned justice into poison
And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood (bitterness), <sup>13</sup> You who [self-confidently] rejoice in Lo-debar (Nothing),
Who say, “Have we not by our own strength taken Karnaim (Strength) for ourselves?”

<sup>14</sup> “For behold, I am going to stir up a nation against you, ‡
O house of Israel,” says the LORD, the God of hosts,
“And they will afflict and torment you [to the entire limits of Israel] from the entrance of Hamath [in the north]
To the brook of the Arabah [in the south].”

Amos 7

Warning Through Visions

<sup>1</sup> THUS THE Lord GOD showed me [a vision], and behold, He was forming a swarm of locusts when the spring crop began to sprout. And behold, the spring crop was after the king’s mowing.

<sup>2</sup>- And when the locusts had finished eating the plants of the land, then I said, ‡

“O Lord GOD, please forgive!
How can Jacob stand,
For he is so small [that he cannot endure this]?”
<sup>3</sup> The LORD revoked this sentence. ‡
“It shall not take place,” said the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Thus the Lord GOD showed me, and behold, the Lord GOD called for punishment with fire, and it devoured the great deep [underground sources of water] and began to consume the land.

<sup>5</sup> Then I said, ‡

“O Lord GOD, please stop!
How can Jacob stand,
For he is so small [that he cannot endure this]?”
<sup>6</sup> The LORD revoked this sentence.
“This also shall not be,” said the Lord GOD.

<sup>7</sup> Thus He showed me [a vision], and behold, the Lord was standing by a vertical wall with a plumb line in His hand [to determine if the wall was straight or if it needed to be destroyed].  [2 Kin 21:13; Is 34:11. ]

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A plumb line.” Then the Lord said, ‡

“Behold, I am setting a plumb line [as a standard] Among My people Israel [showing the defectiveness of the nation, requiring judgment].
I shall not spare them any longer. [The door of mercy is shut.]
<sup>9</sup> “And the [idolatrous] high places of Isaac (Israel) will be devastated and deserted, ‡
And the sanctuaries of Israel will be in ruins.
Then I shall rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword [and destroy the monarchy].”

Amos Accused, Answers

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel [site of the golden calf shrine], sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is unable to endure all his words. [

1 Kin 12:31 , 32 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “For in this way Amos has said, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword and Israel will certainly go from its land into exile.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Then Amaziah said to Amos, “Go, you seer, run for your life [from Israel] to the land of Judah [your own country] and eat bread and live as a prophet there!

<sup>13</sup> “But do not prophesy any longer at Bethel, for it is the king’s sanctuary and a royal residence.”  [Luke 10:10–12 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then Amos replied to Amaziah, “I am not a prophet [by profession], nor am I a prophet’s son; I am a herdsman and a grower of sycamore figs. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “But the LORD took me as I followed the flock and the LORD said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to My people Israel.’ ”

<sup>16</sup> “Now therefore, listen to the word of the LORD: You say, ‘You shall not prophesy against Israel nor shall you speak against the house of Isaac.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore, thus says the LORD, ‘Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city [when the Assyrians capture Samaria] and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by a measuring line; you yourself shall die in an unclean and defiled [pagan] land, and Israel shall certainly go from its land into exile.’ ” ‡

Amos 8

Basket of Fruit and Israel’s Captivity

<sup>1</sup> THUS THE Lord GOD showed me [a vision], and behold, there was a basket of [overripe] summer fruit.

<sup>2</sup> And He said, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then the LORD said to me, “The end has come for My people Israel. I will spare them no longer [for the nation is ripe for judgment]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “In that day, the songs of the palace shall turn to wailing,” says the Lord GOD. “There will be many dead bodies; in [sacred] silence they will throw them everywhere.” ‡

“When will the New Moon [festival] be over

So that we may sell grain,
And the Sabbath ended so that we may open the wheat market,
Making the ephah [measure] smaller and the shekel bigger [that is, selling less for a higher price]
And to cheat by falsifying the scales, 6 So that we may buy the poor [as slaves] for silver [since they are unable to support themselves] ‡
And the needy for a pair of sandals,
And that we may sell the leftovers of the wheat [as if it were a good grade of grain]?"

7 The LORD has sworn [an oath] by the pride of Jacob, ‡
"Surely I shall never forget [nor leave unpunished] any of their [rebellious] acts.

8 "Because of this [coming judgment] will the land not quake ‡
And everyone mourn who dwells in it?
Indeed, all of it shall rise up like the Nile,
And it will be tossed around [from the impact of judgment]
And [afterward] subside again like the Nile of Egypt.
9 "It shall come about in that day," says the Lord GOD, ‡
"That I shall cause the sun to go down at noon,
And I shall darken the earth in broad daylight. [Ezek 32:7-10

10 "And I shall turn your festivals and feasts into mourning ‡
And all your songs into dirges (funeral poems to be sung);
And I shall cause sackcloth to be put on everyone's loins
And baldness on every head [shaved for mourning].
And I shall make that time like a time of mourning for an only son [who has died],
And the end of it shall be like a bitter day.

11 "Behold, the days are coming," says the Lord GOD, ‡
"When I will send hunger over the land,
Not hunger for bread or a thirst for water,
But rather [a hunger] for hearing the words of the LORD.
12 "People shall stagger from sea to sea [to the very ends of the earth]

And from the north even to the east;
They will roam here and there to seek the word of the LORD
[longing for it as essential for life],
But they will not find it.

<sup>13</sup> “In that day the beautiful virgins
And [even the vigorous] young men shall faint from thirst.
Samaria or Ashimah (a pagan goddess), ‡
Who say, ‘By the life of your god [the golden calf], O Dan!’
And [swear], ‘By the life of the way of [idolatrous]
Beersheba,’
They shall fall and not rise again.”

Amos 9

God’s Judgment Unavoidable

<sup>1</sup> I SAW [in a vision] the Lord standing at the altar, and He said, ‡

“Destroy the capitals (tops) of the pillars so that the thresholds will shake,
And break them on the heads of all of the people!
Then I will kill the rest of them with the sword;
They will not have a fugitive who will get away,
Or a survivor who will escape.

<sup>2</sup> “Though they dig into Sheol [to hide in the deepest pit], ‡
From there My hand will take them [for judgment];
And though they climb up to heaven [to hide in the realm of light],

From there will I bring them down [for judgment].

I will track them down and take them from there;
And though they hide from My sight on the floor of the sea,
From there I shall command the serpent and it will bite them.

From there I shall command the sword to kill them,
And I will set My eyes against them for evil (judgment, punishment) and not for good [that is, not for correction leading to restoration].”

It is He who touches the earth [in judgment] and it melts,
And all who dwell on it mourn [in despair and fear],
And all of it rises up like the Nile
And subsides like the Nile of Egypt;

And has established His vaulted dome (the firmament of heaven) over the earth,
He who calls to the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the face of the earth—
The LORD is His name.

<sup>7</sup> “Are you [degenerate ones] not as the [despised] sons of Ethiopia to Me, ‡
O sons of Israel?” says the LORD.

“Have I not brought up Israel from the land of Egypt,
And the Philistines from Captor and the Arameans (Syrians) from Kir?

<sup>8</sup>—“Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful
[northern] kingdom [of Israel’s ten tribes] ‡
And I shall destroy it from the face of the earth;
But I shall not totally destroy the house of Jacob [that is, the entire nation of Israel],”
Says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>—“For behold, I am commanding,
And I shall shake and sift the house of Israel among all nations
[and cause it to tremble]
Like grain is shaken in a sieve [removing the chaff],
But not a kernel [of the faithful remnant] shall fall to the ground and be lost [from My sight]. [Lev 26:33; Deut 28:64; Hos 9:17.]

<sup>10</sup> “All the sinners among My people will die by the sword, ‡
Those who say [defiantly], ‘The disaster will not overtake or confront us.’

The Restoration of Israel

<sup>11</sup> “In that day I shall raise up and restore the fallen tabernacle (booth) of David,‡

And wall up its breaches [in the city walls];

I will also raise up and restore its ruins

And rebuild it as it was in the days of old,

<sup>12</sup> That they may possess the remnant of Edom (ancient enemies)‡

And all the nations that are called by My name,”

Says the LORD who does this.  [Acts 15:15–17. ]

“When the plowman shall overtake the one who gathers the harvest,

And the one who treads the grapes [shall overtake] him who sows the seed [for the harvest continues until planting time];

When the mountains will drip sweet wine

And all the hills shall melt [that is, everything that was once barren will overflow with streams of blessing]. [ [Lev
26:5](#) ; Joel 3:18 ]

<sup>14</sup> “Also I shall bring back the exiles of My people Israel,‡

And they will rebuild the deserted and ruined cities and inhabit them:

They will also plant vineyards and drink their wine,

And make gardens and eat their fruit.

<sup>15</sup> “I will also plant them on their land,‡

And they shall never again be uprooted from their land

Which I have given them,”

Says the LORD your God.

Annotations for Amos

1:1–2:16 The words of Amos. The Lord sent Amos, a Judean, to Bethel to prophesy of coming judgment on Israel. But in Bethel, Amos faced a hostile audience. Israel's first king, Jeroboam I, had made the town a center of pagan worship. Because the temple in Jerusalem was in Judah and not in the nation of Israel, Jeroboam had encouraged the Israelites to worship at Bethel instead of Jerusalem. Thus the Israelites who gathered at Bethel would regard Amos, a Judean, with suspicion. Yet Amos bravely condemned there the sins of Israel's neighbors. He also points to the iniquity of Israel and Judah. They both had rejected the God who had covenanted with them.

1:1 Tekoa. This town was about ten miles south of Jerusalem, in a region well-suited for raising sheep and goats.

1:3 For three . . . and for four. This stylistic device indicated the exhaustion of God's patience—the Syrians had continued to sin, again and again. This device is repeated as Amos speaks God's words against nation after sinful nation. Gilead. This was the region on the east side of the Jordan from the Yarmuk River to the Dead Sea.

1:4 I will send a fire . . . it shall devour the palaces. Fire in an ancient city was a real threat. Cities were crowded with houses close together on very narrow streets; there was too little water to effectively fight them.

1:5 the bar. This was a large timber that barred the city gate from the inside. If it was broken, the city would lose its security and could be captured easily.

1:6 Gaza. This was one of the five principal cities of the Philistines.

1:11 Edom. This nation was located southeast of the Dead Sea. It controlled important caravan trade routes, and thus was deeply involved in commerce. Its citizens were descendants of Esau.

1:13 Ammon. The nation of Ammon was located east of Gilead on the edge of the desert. Its people were descended from one of the sons of Lot (Ge 19:36–38).

**Israel and Judah Under Jereboam II and Uzziah**

2:1 burned the bones. This act was believed to desecrate the remains of a deceased person, a heinous act in ancient times and a great dishonor to the person's memory.

2:6 sell the righteous and innocent for silver. In His law, God had instructed the Israelites to work off their debts through indentured service—administered humanely and for a strictly limited time (Lev 25:39–43 ; Dt 15:12 ). By Amos' day, those in power in Israel were taking advantage of the courts to sell debtors as slaves, termed "the righteous" here because they were the innocent victims of the corruption of the courts. for the price of a pair of sandals. This means for little or nothing.

2:7 humble. Those without power or influence should have been able to depend on the justice due them. Instead, justice was denied them. As a result, their lives were turned to poverty, oppression, and insecurity.

2:8 clothes taken in pledge. Clothing taken as security for a loan was supposed to be returned in the evening so that it could be used as bedding for the poor (Ex 22:26–27 ). The powerful in Israel were spreading the clothes out as beds for themselves beside the altars, in a show of empty, merciless piety.

2:9 Yet it was I [not the false gods] who destroyed. This emphatic statement underscores the fact that God had been Israel's champion, and the nation's success had not been its own doing. the Amorite. This refers to the previous inhabitants of the land of Canaan.

2:13 I am weighted down beneath you. This is a powerful metaphor of the burden of Israel's sin on the Lord. This is the same God Isaiah describes as measuring the waters of the earth in the hollow of His hand, measuring the heavens with the span of His hand, and weighing the mountains in His balance (Isa 40:12 ).

3:1 the whole family which I brought up. This phrase emphasizes the personal, intimate relationship that God had with Israel.

3:2 I have known [chosen, cared for, and loved] only you. God's relationship with Israel was not only intimate, it was exclusive. God had been faithful to Israel, yet Israel had not been faithful to God. For this reason, the nation would be judged.

3:2 Selection of Israel— The selection of Israel as a special nation to God was part of God's plan (Ro 11:2 ). Historically, the selection of Israel began with the Lord's promise to Abraham, "I will make you a great nation" (Ge 12:2 ). The name Israel actually comes from the new name which God gave to Abraham's grandson, Jacob, when they fought at the ford of Jabbok (Ge 32:28 ). This fact explains why his descendants are often called the children of Israel.

The motivation for the Lord's choice of Israel as His select nation did not lay in any special attraction the nation possessed. Its people were, in fact, the least in number among all the nations (Dt 7:6–8 ). Rather, the Lord chose them because of His love for them and because of His covenant with Abraham. This fact does not mean that God did not love other nations, because it was through Israel that He blessed all nations in Christ. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:3–6 Do two men walk together. This series of rhetorical questions illustrates the seriousness, certainty, and righteousness of God's impending action against Israel. Each question is framed so as to require a resounding "no" as its answer.

3:11 An adversary (Assyria), even one surrounding the land. This verse pictures a formal sentencing of Israel in the presence of the witnesses whom God had called (v. 9). Sapping Israel's strength was exactly what Assyria did in the years following Amos' prophecies, finally putting an end to the nation in 722 BC.

3:12 as the shepherd snatches from the mouth of the lion. The hired shepherd was responsible to the owner for the safety of the sheep. He had to make good any loss, unless he could prove it was unavoidable. A lion taking a sheep was an unavoidable loss, but the shepherd had to prove that the lion had taken it. A couple of small bones or a piece of an ear was sufficient; the owner would recognize the lion's work. As complete as the destruction of a sheep by a lion would be the destruction of Israel that God would bring.

3:15 the great houses shall come to an end. The four houses mentioned here were all symbols of oppression. Many small inheritances had been stolen to form the large estates of the wealthy and powerful, where they built their opulent houses.

4:1 cows (women) of Bashan. This phrase refers to the well-fed women of Samaria. Bashan, the region east and northeast of the Sea of Galilee, was (and is) a prime grassland area renowned for its cattle.

4:3 breaches. These were a symbol of the thoroughness of the destruction of the city and the homes that the people held so dear. In an undamaged city, the usual way in and out was the one main gate. But Samaria would be so ruined that the deportees would be driven straight through the breaches in the walls of their houses and their city.

4:6–11 you have not returned to Me [in repentance], says the LORD . This passage describes a series of five calamities that God had already sent upon the Israelites in an effort to drive them to repentance. A striking feature of this narrative is God's emphatic claim that the Israelites had brought these disasters on themselves. They had repeatedly failed to understand the implications of the disasters.

4:10 like [those of] Egypt. This fourth calamity suggests that God was reminding Israel of the ten plagues that preceded their exodus from Egypt; these included epidemic diseases and other disasters.

4:11 you were [rescued] like a log pulled out of the flame. This refers to a stick snatched from a fire with one end already ablaze. Here it was a vivid metaphor for God's last-minute rescue of most of Israel from the fate He brought upon some of its cities and territories.

4:12 Prepare to meet your God [in judgment], O Israel. Because Israel had not returned to God through these five calamities, it would have to meet God Himself. To be confronted—inescapably—by the God it had scorned and rejected would be a fate more terrible than Israel could imagine.

5:2 The virgin Israel. This term depicts the nation as a young maiden, cut off from her life before it had really begun. on her land. This is a reminder that the land had been God's gift to Israel. By their faithlessness, the people had turned God's gift into the place of their death and burial.

5:6 O house of Joseph. This phrase refers to the whole nation.

5:8 the [cluster of stars called] Pleiades. This refers to a cluster of stars within the constellation Taurus, one of the twelve signs of the Zodiac. One of Israel's idolatries was astral worship. Far from being deities, Amos asserted, the constellations also were God's creations. Orion. This is a reference to a prominent constellation in the southern sky in the shape of a hunter.

5:10 gate. This was the location of the town court, where justice was to be upheld in all legal proceedings whether civil or criminal.

5:11–15 God's Justice— The Israelites in Amos' day had lost sight of God's commands to treat the poor compassionately. There is no record that Israel ever practiced the year of Jubilee (Lev 25:11 ) that is part of Old Testament law, for instance.

As many of the prophets did, Amos called on the Israelites to practice justice and see to it that the poor were not abused. He made it clear that the rich in his day were taking advantage of the poor. The justice system was ineffective because of rampant bribery. The prophets repeatedly made the point that the sacrifices were not enough. The sacrificial process needed to be connected with a response in behavior. God's justice demanded more than the sacrifices. It demanded obedience.

Amos teaches us to be observant about where this injustice is being practiced. He teaches us to look for movements, forces, or programs that can work against the accumulation of power and unjustly gained wealth.

One of the first things the Jerusalem church did when it formed was to put in place a system of some kind to care for the widows and orphans (Ac 6:1–4). Belief in God included an understanding of His desire for justice and the believer's need to act on it. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:11 And demand a tribute (food-tax) of grain from them. To take grain taxes from the poor was to put them at risk of starvation if the harvest had not been bountiful. Yet the rich and powerful had sufficient resources to build luxurious houses for themselves. God promised that the rich would not enjoy their luxury stolen from the lifeblood of the poor and powerless.

5:12 your sins are great. Israel's leaders did not sin incidentally or furtively; they sinned brazenly and habitually, as though God had never revealed Himself and His standards of justice and mercy.

5:18 the day of the LORD . The popular theology of Amos' time apparently looked forward to this day as the time of Israel's restoration to military, political, and economic greatness, perhaps to the greatness of the reigns of David and Solomon. Amos declared such hopes futile, even pitiable. What the people looked forward to as a day of light and triumph would rise upon them instead as a day of darkness and ruin.

5:19 bear . . . snake. These images evoke the terror that follows when a person escapes a terrible danger and is exhausted and relieved, only to find a worse danger so close at hand that it is inescapable.

5:21–23 feasts . . . solemn assemblies. By stating He would no longer accept Israel's sacrifices or listen to them, God was rejecting Israel's worship as hypocritical, dishonest, and meaningless.

6:3 you put off the day of punishment. This refers to those who insisted that Israel was too strong for destruction to fall upon the nation any time soon.

6:4–6 lambs . . . calves . This passage describes the extravagant living indulged in by the rich and paid for with the wealth stolen from the poor. Meat was a luxury for most families of the ancient Middle East, consumed only on special occasions. Meat on a daily basis was the privilege only of the rich and powerful. The upper classes of Israel were so engrossed in their own privileges and luxuries that they cared nothing for the affliction of their fellow Israelites, though it was their transgressions that had caused it.

7:1 the king's mowing. These words imply that the king took the first harvest of hay as a tax. Thus a swarm of locusts devouring the late crop would leave the people with nothing for themselves, inflicting a crippling economic blow.

7:2–3 How can Jacob stand. If God carried out the threatened punishment, Jacob (the nation of Israel) might be destroyed. One function of the prophet was to serve as intercessor for the people before God. Amos prayed that the vision decreed in heaven might be halted before it was accomplished on earth. The basis of Amos' petition lay in the true assessment of Israel's position. They were not large and strong, as they thought; rather they were small and weak. In response to Amos' intercession, and out of His own love for Israel, God stayed His decree.

7:7–9 a plumb line. This apparatus is a string with a weight tied to one end, used to establish a vertical line so that a wall can be built straight. what do you see. Unlike the first two visions of natural disasters, the visions of the plumb line and the basket of summer fruit were not self-explanatory. God asked Amos what he saw, then explained the vision's meaning. Also unlike the first two visions, God did not give Amos opportunity to intercede, nor did He relent. These judgments would be executed. the house of Jeroboam. This is a metaphor for the nation.

7:10–11 Amaziah. Amaziah was the priest in charge of the temple at Bethel, who informed the king about the prophet who was making threats against the king's house. Amaziah was reacting to Amos' third vision which ended with God's promise to bring the sword against the house of Jeroboam. Amaziah regarded Amos' words as a political threat, and reported them not as a prophecy from God, but as Amos' call to revolt.

7:14–17 nor am I a prophet's son. Amos' answer to Amaziah came in two parts. First, he denied being a prophet by profession. He did not come from a family of prophets, nor had he been trained in prophecy. Amos made it clear that he had neither desired nor sought his prophetic task. You wife shall become a prostitute. The only way the spouse of an important official like Amaziah would be reduced to prostitution would be if all her family and all her resources were taken away and she were left to fend entirely for herself.

8:1–3 a basket of [overripe] summer fruit. The fruits that came at the end of the harvest in late summer included grapes, pomegranates, and figs. The end has come. Amos could not have discerned the meaning of this vision until God's pronouncement. Israel's wickedness was about to result in a harvest of judgment.

8:5 Making the ephah [measure] smaller. This was a way of cheating the customer of value received for price paid. shekel. This was a unit of money, so making it "bigger" was also a way of cheating.

8:12–13 sea to sea. This meant from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean. the beautiful virgins And [even the vigorous] young men. This refers to those who are most vigorous to survive.

8:14 Dan . . . Beersheba. This was a phrase that indicated the limits of the Israelite territory. In Amos' day, Beersheba was in the kingdom of Judah. Israel could swear oaths by the Lord, claiming they loyally worshiped Him from the extreme north to the extreme south of His land, but that would not relieve the famine of God's word.

9:2 Sheol . . . heaven. In this imagery, Israel's fugitives from God's judgment could escape neither up nor down; God would find them no matter where in the universe they fled.

9:3 summit of [Mount] Carmel. This peak represented the highest point on earth. Whether as high as that, or as low as the bottom of the sea, the earth would provide no escape.

9:8 the sinful [northern] kingdom. This is Israel. I shall not totally destroy. This was a glimmer of hope in a long passage of judgment and doom. God's judgment would be thorough, but a remnant would survive.

9:9 Like grain is shaken in a sieve. Sifting grain was the final operation in cleaning it before gathering it into storage. In winnowing, all the chaff was blown away; only pebbles and small clumps of mud remained with the grain. The sieve was constructed with holes that were sized so other debris were retained in the sieve.

9:13 the plowman shall overtake the one who gathers the harvest. For this to happen it would mean such an abundant harvest that it would last all summer and would not be gathered until the plowing had started again. Grapes were harvested from mid-summer to early fall. The grain crop was sown after the plowing in late fall.

9:15 plant them on their land. God does not abandon His promises or His covenant, nor does He leave His people without hope. God's punishment is certain, but His restoration is just as certain. The word of hope for God's people of old is valid also for God's people of today.

The Book of Obadiah

- AUTHOR: Obadiah was an obscure prophet who probably lived in the Southern Kingdom of Judah. It is assumed, however, that he was not a priest since his father is not mentioned and nothing is given of his background. There are 13 Obadiah's in the Old Testament. Four of the better prospects for this Obadiah are: (1) the officer in Ahab's palace that hid God's prophets in a cave (1Ki 18:3 ); (2) one of the officials sent out by Jehoshaphat to teach the law in the cities of Judah (2Ch 17:7 ); (3) one of the overseers who took part in repairing the temple under Josiah (2Ch 34:12 ); or (4) a priest in the time of Nehemiah (Neh 10:5 ).
- TIMES: c. 840 BC
- KEY VERSE: Ob 10
- THEME: Obadiah is a prophecy against Edom, the nation that descended from Esau. Edom included the area south and east of the Dead Sea. Throughout most of Old Testament history, if Edom is mentioned, it is in the context of some kind of skirmish. This friction started when the king of Edom refused to let the Israelites cross his territory as they journeyed towards the promised land in Numbers 20:14–21 . When Israel and Judah were taken into exile, Edom stood by and watched. The purpose of Obadiah seems clear. He is out to encourage the Israelites in the context of captivity. God will rescue his people.

Obadiah 1

Edom Will Be Humbled

<sup>1</sup> THE VISION of Obadiah. ‡

T hus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom—
We have heard a report from the LORD,
And an ambassador has been sent among the nations, saying, “Arise, and let us rise up against Edom for battle [with the LORD as commander]!”  [Ps 137:7; Is 34:1–15; [63:1–
6](#); Jer 49:7–22; Ezek 25:12–14. ]

<sup>2</sup> “Behold [Edom], I shall [humiliate you and] make you small among the nations;
You are greatly despised.  [Ezek 35. ]

<sup>3</sup> “The pride and arrogance of your heart have deceived you, ‡
You who live in the clefts and lofty security of the rock (Sela), Whose dwelling place is high,
Who say [boastfully] in your heart,
‘Who will bring me down to earth?’

Though you set your nest among the stars,
I will bring you down from there,” says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> “If thieves came to you, ‡
If robbers by night—
How you will be ruined!—

Would they not steal only until they had enough?
If grape gatherers came to you,

Would they not leave some grapes for gleaning?  [Jer 49:9. ]

ravage with divine approval]!

How his hidden treasures shall be searched out!

<sup>7</sup> “All the men allied with you ‡
Shall send you on your way to the border;
The men who were at peace with you
Shall deceive you and overpower you;
Those who eat your bread [those you trust]

Shall set a hostile ambush for you.
(There is no understanding of it.)
8.“Will I not on that day,” says the LORD,‡
“Destroy the wise men from Edom [removing all wisdom]
And understanding from the mountain of Esau?
9.“And your mighty men shall be dismayed and demoralized,
O Teman,‡
So that everyone from the mountain of Esau may be cut off in the slaughter.

Edom Denounced

10 “Because of the violence you did against your brother Jacob,‡
Shame shall cover you [completely],
And you shall be cut off forever.
11.“On the day that [Jerusalem was destroyed] you stood aloof
[from your brother Jacob]—‡
On the day that strangers took his forces captive and carried off his wealth,
And foreigners entered his gates
And cast lots for Jerusalem [dividing the city for plunder]—
You too were like one of them [collaborating with the enemy].  [Num 20:18–20; Amos 1:11, 12 ]
12 “Do not gaze and gloat [in triumph] over your brother’s day,‡
The day when his misfortune came.
Do not rejoice over the sons of Judah
In the day of their destruction;
Do not speak arrogantly [jeering and maliciously mocking]
In the day of their distress.
13.“Do not enter the gate of My people
In the day of their disaster;
Yes, you, do not look [with delight] on their misery
In the day of their ruin,
And do not loot treasures
In the day of their ruin.
14 “Do not stand at the crossroad
To cut down those [of Judah] who escaped;

And do not hand over [to the enemy] those [of Judah] who survive
In the day of their distress.

The Day of the LORD and the Future

15. “For the [judgment] day of the LORD draws near on all the nations. ‡

As you have done, it shall be done to you [in retribution];
Your [evil] dealings will return on your own head.  [Ps 137:7–9 ; Is 2:10–22 ; Zeph 3:8–20 ; Zech 12:1–14 ; Rev 19:11–21 ]

16 “Because just as you [Edom] drank on My holy mountain
[desecrating it in the revelry of the destroyers], ‡
So shall all the nations drink continually [one by one, of My wrath];

Yes, they shall drink and swallow [the full measure of punishment]

And become as though they had never existed.  [Rev 16:14–16 ]

17 “But on Mount Zion [in Jerusalem] there shall be [deliverance for] those who escape, ‡

And it shall be holy [no pagan will defile it];

And the house of Jacob shall possess their [former] possessions.  [Ezek 36 ; Joel 2:32 ]

18. “Then the house of Jacob shall be a fire ‡

And the house of Joseph a flame [in executing God’s wrath];
But the house of Esau will be like stubble.

They (Jacob) shall set them on fire and consume them (the Edomites),

So that there shall be no survivor of the house of Esau,”

For the LORD has spoken.  [Ezek 25:12–14 ]

19 Then those of the Negev shall possess the mountain of Esau, ‡
And those of the Shephelah [shall possess] the Philistine plain;
Also, [they shall] possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria,

And Benjamin will possess Gilead [across the Jordan River].  [Amos 9:12 ; Zeph 2:7 ]

20 And the exiles of this host of the sons (descendants) of Israel ‡

Who are among the Canaanites as far as Zarephath,
And the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
Shall possess the cities of the Negev.

21 The deliverers shall go up on Mount Zion ‡
To rule and judge the mountain of Esau,

Annotations for Obadiah

2 I shall [humiliate you and] make you small. God would bring about a reversal of Edom's inflated self-importance.

3 Whose dwelling place is high. Some of the mountain peaks of Edom reached over 6,000 feet. Jerusalem is about 2,300 feet above sea level. Who will bring me down to earth? Edom's presumed physical safety led the Edomites to become haughty; this would be their downfall.

4 build [your nest] on high like the eagle. Edom's physical location became a metaphor of the proud and haughty spirit that the nation had displayed at the time of Judah's distress. Trusting in its high places and mountainous strongholds, Edom reckoned that no one could bring it to account for its actions.

8 Destroy the wise men from Edom. The nation had a reputation for having many wise men among its citizens (Jer 49:7 ).

9 O Teman. This name comes from a son of Eliphaz, who was the firstborn son of Esau (Ge 36:9–11 ).

11 On the day. This refers to the time of Judah's distress. strangers . . . foreigners. These words are used to describe Judah's principal enemies, contrasted with the words of verse 10 , "your brother." It was one thing for the Babylonians to attack Judah; for a nation like Edom to join the Babylonians against their own brothers was unthinkable.

13 the day of their disaster. This phrase is repeated three times in this verse. It refers to the day of God's judgment upon Judah, carried out by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

15 the [judgment] day of the LORD . This is a technical term used by the prophets to indicate the day of God's judgment (Am 5:18–20 ). Here the term likely refers to the time when God would judge all the nations, including Edom, that had participated in Judah's destruction.

18 house of Jacob . . . house of Joseph. Together these signify a unified Israel. God intends to rejoin the kingdoms of Israel and Judah as one people again.

20 Zarephath. This was a Phoenician city 14 miles north of Tyrus (1Ki 17:8–24 ). Sepharad. This was a city to which some Judeans were exiled. The restoration of Judah from exile, which these verses predict, was a sign to Judah and all nations that the God of Israel was not just a local God. He had not been defeated by the Babylonian god Marduk. The fact that He could allow His people to be carried into captivity in a foreign land and then bring them back to their own land was proof of His power and sovereignty over all the earth.

21 deliverers. The Judeans who had been taken into captivity would come back as deliverers, and they would reign over the people of Edom. the kingdom and the kingship shall be the LORD's. These were Obadiah's last words against all human arrogance, pride, and rebellion. Edom had thought itself indestructible; but the Lord humbled that nation and restored the fallen Judah. Many people are tempted to consider themselves beyond the reach of God. But God will bring them low, just as He will lift those who humble themselves before Him. And one great day, He will establish His just rule over all.

Jonah

- AUTHOR: Jonah was “the son of Amitai” and nothing more would be known about him were it not for a reference in 2 Kings 14:25 calling him a prophet in the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel. Jonah was a Galilean, contrary to the Pharisees claim that “no prophet arises out of Galilee.” One Jewish tradition says that Jonah was the son of the widow of Zarephath whom Elijah raised from the dead (1Ki 17:8–24 ).
- TIMES: c. 760 BC
- KEY VERSES: Jnh 2:8–9
- THEME: The Book of Jonah directs us towards God’s greatness and mercy. He will go to any lengths in order to assure that His message is heard. He makes it possible for people to repent and be redeemed no matter how decadent and far away from God they are. Jonah himself is a prime example of the power of storytelling, as he gives us an amazingly visual and memorable image of God’s far reaching grace and His involvement in individual lives to accomplish His purposes.

Jonah 1

Jonah's Disobedience

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amitai, saying,

<sup>2</sup>—“Go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim [judgment] against it, for their wickedness has come up before Me.”  [Gen 10:11, 12 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup>But Jonah ran away to Tarshish to escape from the presence of the LORD [and his duty as His prophet]. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish [the most remote of the Phoenician trading cities]. So he paid the fare and went down into the ship to go with them to Tarshish away from the presence of the LORD.  [Gen 4:16 ; Job 1:12 ; 2:7 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD hurled a great wind toward the sea, and there was a violent tempest on the sea so that the ship was about to break up.  [Ps 107:23–27 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the sailors were afraid, and each man cried out to his god; and to lighten the ship [and diminish the danger] they threw the ship’s cargo into the sea. But Jonah had gone below into the hold of the ship and had lain down and was sound asleep. ‡

<sup>6</sup> So the captain came up to him and said, “How can you stay asleep? Get up! Call on your god! Perhaps your god will give a thought to us so that we will not perish.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> And they said to another, “Come, let us cast lots, so we may learn who is to blame for this disaster.” So they cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then they said to him, “Now tell us! Who is to blame for this disaster? What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So he said to them, “I am a Hebrew, and I [reverently] fear and worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then the men became extremely frightened and said to him, “How could you do this?” For the men knew that he was running from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

<sup>11</sup> Then they said to him, “What should we do to you, so that the sea will become calm for us?”—for the sea was becoming more and more violent.

<sup>12</sup> Jonah said to them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will become calm for you, for I know that it is because of me that this great storm has come upon you.” ‡

to land, but they could not, because the sea became even more violent [surging higher] against them. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then they called on the LORD and said, “Please, O LORD, do not let us perish because of taking this man’s life, and do not make us accountable for innocent blood; for You, O LORD, have done as You pleased.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then the men greatly feared the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows. ‡

Jonah 2

Jonah’s Prayer

<sup>1</sup> THEN JONAH prayed to the LORD his God from the stomach of the fish, <sup>2</sup> and said, ‡

“I called out of my trouble and distress to the LORD,
And He answered me;
Out of the belly of Sheol I cried for help,
And You heard my voice.  [Ps 120:1 ; 130:1 ; 142:1 ; Lam 3:55–58 ]

Into the [deep] heart of the seas,
And the currents surrounded and engulfed me;
All Your breakers and billowing waves passed over me.  [Ps 42:7 ]

Nevertheless I will look again toward Your holy temple.’  [Ps 31:22 ]

<sup>5</sup> “The waters surrounded me, to the point of death. ‡
The great deep engulfed me,
Seaweed was wrapped around my head.  [Ps 69:1 ; Lam 3:54 ]
<sup>6</sup> “I descended to the [very] roots of the mountains. ‡

The earth with its bars closed behind me [bolting me in] forever,

Yet You have brought up my life from the pit (death), O
LORD my God.

<sup>7</sup> “When my soul was fainting within me, ‡
I remembered the LORD,
And my prayer came to You,
Into Your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup> “Those who regard and follow worthless idols ‡ Turn away from their [living source of] mercy and lovingkindness.

<sup>9</sup>. “But [as for me], I will sacrifice to You ‡
With the voice of thanksgiving;
I shall pay that which I have vowed.
Salvation is from the LORD!”

<sup>10</sup> So the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah up onto the dry land.

Jonah 3

Nineveh Repents

<sup>3</sup> So Jonah went to Nineveh in accordance with the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, a three days’ walk [about sixty miles in circumference].

<sup>4</sup> Then on the first day’s walk, Jonah began to go through the city, and he called out and said, “Forty days more [remain] and [then] Nineveh will be overthrown!” ‡

sat in the dust [in repentance]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> He issued a proclamation and it said, “In Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles: No man, animal, herd, or flock is to taste anything. They are not to eat or drink water. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But both man and animal must be covered with sackcloth; and every one is to call on God earnestly and forcefully that each may turn from his wicked way and from the violence that is in his hands. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Who knows, God may turn [in compassion] and relent and withdraw His burning anger (judgment) so that we will not perish.”  [Joel 2:13, 14. ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> When God saw their deeds, that they turned from their wicked way, then God [had compassion and] relented concerning the disaster which He had declared that He would bring upon them. And He did not do it. ‡

Jonah 4

Jonah’s Displeasure Rebuked

<sup>2</sup> He prayed to the LORD and said, “O LORD, is this not what I said when I was still in my country? That is why I ran to Tarshish, because I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and great in lovingkindness, and [when sinners turn to You] You revoke the [sentence of] disaster [against them].  [Ex 34:6. ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said, “Do you have a good reason to be angry?”

<sup>5</sup> Then Jonah went out of the city and sat east of it. There he made himself a shelter and sat under its shade so that he could see what would happen in the city.

<sup>6</sup> So the LORD God prepared a plant and it grew up over Jonah, to be a shade over his head to spare him from discomfort. And Jonah was extremely happy about [the protection of] the plant.

<sup>7</sup> But God prepared a worm when morning dawned the next day, and it attacked the plant and it withered.

<sup>8</sup> When the sun came up God prepared a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah’s head so that he fainted and he wished to die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.” ‡

9. Then God said to Jonah, “Do you have a good reason to be angry about [the loss of] the plant?” And he said, “I have a [very] good reason to be angry, angry enough to die!”

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD said, “You had compassion on the plant for which you did not work and which you did not cause to grow, which came up overnight and perished overnight.

11. “Should I not have compassion on Nineveh, the great city in which there are more than 120,000 [innocent] persons, who do not know the difference between their right and left hand [and are not yet accountable for sin], as well as many [blameless] animals?” ‡

Annotations for Jonah

1:1 the word of the LORD. This phrase affirms the divine source of the message to Jonah (Jer 1:4 ; Hos 1:1 ; Joel 1:1 ; Mic 1:1 ). The name “Jonah” means “Dove.”

1:2 Nineveh. Nineveh is located on the Tigris River, the capital of ancient Assyria (2Ki 19:36 ) for about a century. It was over 500 miles from Jonah’s home near Nazareth.

1:3 a ship going to Tarshish. The location of this port city is uncertain, but it could be Tartessus on the southeast coast of Spain. The city represents the most distant place known to the Israelites. Joppa was about 50 miles southwest of Jonah’s hometown in the opposite direction from Nineveh.

1:4–5 the LORD hurled a great wind. Throughout the Book of Jonah, the Lord shows Himself sovereign over every aspect of creation. In this case, the storm at sea was so ferocious that even the experienced mariners were afraid.

1:9 I am a Hebrew. With these words, Jonah identified himself with the people of the Lord’s covenant (Ge 14:13 ). I [reverently] fear and worship the LORD. Fear here indicates an ongoing activity of awe before the Lord, of piety in His presence, of obedience to His word, and of saving faith (Ge 22:12 ; Ex 20:20 ; Pr 1:7 ). Yet Jonah’s actions contradicted his words.

1:10 extremely frightened. This is the same term for “fear” that Jonah used in his statement of piety (v. 9 ). But here the word means to be in terror; it refers to overwhelming dread (v. 16 ). God, the Creator of the universe, was after Jonah. And because God was after Jonah, He was after the sailors as well. They had every right to be afraid (Ge 12:18 ; Jdg 15:11 ).

1:14 they called on the LORD. Ironically, the pagan sailors prayed to the Lord on behalf of the Lord’s rebellious prophet. Jonah needed God’s grace as much as Nineveh did. as You pleased. The narrator skillfully uses the sailors’ words to express one of the book’s themes: the Lord is free to act as He wills.

1:17 the LORD had prepared (appointed, destined) a great fish. God sent the fish—not a whale, as is commonly thought—to rescue Jonah from drowning, not to punish him (ch. 2 ). Three days and three nights may refer to one full day and portions of two more (Ge 30:36 ; Ex 3:18 ; 1Sa 30:12 ). Jesus Christ said that His death and resurrection were foreshadowed by Jonah’s experience (Mt 12:39–40 ; 16:4 ; Lk 11:29 ).

2:2 I called . . . I cried. These terms come from two different verbs. The first is a more general term meaning “to call aloud,” with a wide range of usage in the Bible. The second is a term that means a “cry for help,” particularly as a scream to God (Ps 5:2 ; 18:6 ; 22:24 ; 88:13 ; 119:146 ).

2:4 I will look again toward Your holy temple. The man who had run from God’s presence was alone, yet he clung to the hope that God would not abandon him. The temple, the sanctuary in Jerusalem (Dt 12:5–7 ; Ps 48 ; 79:1 ; Heb 9:24 ), was the symbol of God’s presence.

2:6 the [very] roots of the mountains. Jonah pictures himself so deep in the sea that it is as if he had found the deepest place possible. the pit. This term, along with hell (v. 2 ), is used to describe the realm of the dead (Job 33:24 ; Ps 30:9 ; 49:9 ).

2:9 I will sacrifice to You . . . voice of thanksgiving. This vow is common in the Psalms (Ps 13:6 ; 142:7 ). I shall pay that which I have vowed. Jonah declares that he will keep his promise, a pledge both to sacrifice and to acknowledge God’s help (Job 22:27 ; Ps 50:14 ; 66:13 ; Ro 6:13 ; 1Pe 2:5 ).

2:10 the LORD commanded the fish. The focus in the story of Jonah is on the Lord’s sovereign control over creation to bring about His purpose.

3:1–2 the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time. Jonah's new commission was essentially the same as the one he had received in 1:1 .

3:5 The people of Nineveh believed and trusted in God. The term used for God here is the general term for deity. In contrast, the sailors in chapter 1 proclaimed faith in the Lord, using the personal, covenant name for God (1:16 ). The fact that the writer does not use the personal name for God here may suggest that the Ninevites had a short-lived or imperfect understanding of God's message. History bears this out. We have no historical record of a lasting period of belief in Nineveh. Eventually the city was destroyed in 612 BC.

3:10 God [had compassion and] relented. The Ninevites' repentance moved the Lord to extend grace and mercy to them.

4:1 displeased. Jonah's irritation belied the good news that the city would be spared God's judgment, but he was unable to appreciate the parallel. Jonah . . . became angry. In contrast to God, Jonah had no compassion on the people of Nineveh.

4:5 so that he could see what would happen in the city. In his continuing stubbornness and lack of compassion, Jonah held out hope that God would judge Nineveh. This was God's chief complaint against him (Ps 58 ).

4:7 God prepared a worm. The Book of Jonah depicts the Lord as both sovereign and free to act in creation. God placed the worm in the plant to serve as His agent in Jonah's life.

4:9 I have a [very] good reason to be angry. Jonah's anger (v. 1 ) did not arise from a desire for justice, but from his own selfishness. He continued to justify his rebellious attitude. And again, God was merciful.

4:11 have compassion. The same word used to describe Jonah's feeling toward the plant in verse 10 is used for God's feeling toward the people of Nineveh. People are of more value than animals and animals of more value than plants, but the Lord has a concern that extends to all of His creation. The Lord's compassion comes from His character (v. 2 ; Joel 2:13–14 ).

The Book of Micah

- AUTHOR: Micah was from Moresheth-gath (1:14) which was located about 25 miles southwest of Jerusalem, near Gath. Although Micah was not as politically aware as Isaiah or Daniel, he showed a profound concern for the suffering of the people and had a clear sense of his prophetic calling. A contemporary of Isaiah and Hosea, Micah may have been a farmer turned prophet like Amos.
- TIMES: c. 735–710 BC
- KEY VERSE: Mic 6:8
- THEME: Micah was from a town in southwestern Judah. His message was directed at both capital cities, Samaria and Jerusalem. He was probably around when the Assyrians destroyed Samaria in 722 BC, and may have even lived through the siege of Jerusalem by Assyria. Micah's message comes out of unique visions from God. In effect he saw things that others couldn't, such as the prophecy of Bethlehem as the birthplace of Christ.

Micah 1

Destruction in Israel and Judah

Listen closely, O earth and all that is in it,
And let the Lord GOD be witness [giving a testimony of the judgment] against you,
The Lord from His holy temple [in the heavens].  [1 Kin 22:28

He shall come down and tread [in judgment] on the high places of the earth.  [Zech 14:3, 4; Mal 4:2, 3; Matt 24:27–30; Rev 1:7; 19:11–16 ]

<sup>4</sup> The mountains shall melt under Him ‡
And the valleys shall be split
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep place.

<sup>5</sup>.All this is because of the rebellion and apostasy of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel (the Northern Kingdom).

What is the rebellion and apostasy of Jacob?
Is it not [the abandonment of God in order to worship the idols of] Samaria?

What are the high places [of idolatry] in Judah (the Southern Kingdom)?

Are they not Jerusalem [the capital and center of corruption]?

[and of stones and arable land] in the open country, ‡

A place for planting vineyards;
And I will pour her stones down into the ravine
And lay bare her foundations.  [2 Kin 19:25; Ezek 13:14 ]
<sup>7</sup>.All her idols shall be broken in pieces, ‡

All her earnings [from her idolatry] shall be burned with fire,
And all her images I shall make desolate;
For from the earnings of a prostitute she collected them,
And to the earnings of a prostitute they shall return.

<sup>8</sup>Because of this I [Micah] must lament (mourn over with expressions of grief) and wail,‡

I must go barefoot and naked [without outer garments as if robbed];

I must wail like the jackals
And lament [with a loud, mournful cry] like the ostriches.

For it has come to Judah;

The enemy has reached the gate of my people,
Even to Jerusalem.

Weep not at all [and in this way betray your grief to Gentiles];

In Beth-le-aphrah (House of Dust) roll in the dust [among your own people].

inhabitants of Shaphir (Beautiful), in shameful nakedness.

The inhabitant of Zaanan (Go Out) does not go out [of the house];

The wailing of Beth-ezel (House of Removal) will take away from you its support.

Writhes in pain [at its losses] and waits anxiously for good,
Because a catastrophe has come down from the LORD
To the gate of Jerusalem.

invasion],‡

O inhabitant of Lachish—

She was the beginning of sin

To the Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem)—

Because in you were found

The rebellious acts of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore you will give parting gifts ‡
On behalf of Moresheth-gath (Micah's home);
The houses of Achzib (Place of Deceit) will become a deception
To the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, I will bring on you ‡
The one who takes possession,
O inhabitant of Mareshah (Prominent Place).
The glory (nobility) of Israel will enter Adullam [seeking refuge].  [1 Sam 22:1 ]

For the children of your delight;
Remain as bald as the eagle,
For your children will be taken from you into exile.

Micah 2

Woe to Oppressors

<sup>1</sup> WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to those who devise wickedness

And plot evil on their beds!
When morning comes, they practice evil
Because it is in the power of their hands.

And houses, and take them away.
They oppress and rob a man and his house,
A man and his inheritance.  [Is 5:8 ; Ex 20:17 ; Lev 25:23ff. ]

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, thus says the LORD,

“Behold, I am planning against this family a disaster (exile)
[Like a noose] from which you cannot remove your necks;
Nor will you be able to walk haughtily and erect,
For it will be an evil time [of subjugation to the invaders].

<sup>4</sup> “On that day they shall take up a [taunting, deriding] parable against you ‡
And wail with a doleful and bitter song of mourning and say,

‘We are completely destroyed!
God exchanges the inheritance of my people;
How He removes it from me!
He divides our fields to the rebellious [our captors].’

<sup>5</sup>“Therefore, you will have no one stretching a measuring line [dividing the common land]

For you by lot in the assembly of the LORD.  [Rev 21:27 ]

<sup>6</sup> ‘Do not speak out,’ so they speak out.

But if they do not speak out concerning these things,
Reproaches will not be turned back.

<sup>7</sup> “Is it being said, O house of Jacob:

‘Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?’

Or are these [prophesied judgments] His doings?’

Do not My words do good

To the one walking uprightly?

<sup>8</sup> “But lately My people have stood up as an enemy [and have made Me their antagonist].

You strip the ornaments off the garment

Of those unsuspecting passers-by,

Like those returned from war.

<sup>9</sup> “You evict the women (widows) of My people,

Each one from her pleasant house;

From her [young, fatherless] children you take away My splendor and blessing forever [by putting them among the pagans, away from Me].

For this [land] is not the place of rest

Because of the defilement that brings destruction,

A painful and terrible destruction.

Should lie and say,

‘I will prophesy to you [O Israel] of wine and liquor (greed, sensual pleasure),’

He would be the acceptable spokesman of this people.  [Jer
5:31 ]

<sup>12</sup>“I shall most certainly assemble all of you, O Jacob; ‡

I shall surely gather the remnant of Israel.
I shall bring them together like sheep in the fold [multiplying the nation];
Like a flock in the midst of its pasture.
The place will swarm with many people and hum loudly with noise.

13 “The breaker [the Messiah, who opens the way] shall go up before them [liberating them]. ‡
They will break out, pass through the gate and go out;
So their King goes on before them,
The LORD at their head.”  [Ex 23:20, 21; 33:14; Is 63:8, 9;
Hos 3:5; Amos 9:11 ]

Micah 3

Rulers Denounced

1 AND I said, ‡
“Hear now, heads of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel.
Is it not for you to know and administer justice?
2 “You who hate good and love evil,
Who tear the skin off my people
And their flesh from their bones;
3 You who eat the flesh of my people, ‡
Strip off their skin from them,
Break their bones
And chop them in pieces as for the pot,
Like meat in a kettle.”
4 Then they will cry to the LORD, ‡
But He will not answer them;
Instead, He will even hide His face from them at that time
[withholding His mercy]
Because they have practiced and tolerated and ignored evil acts.
 [Is 1:15 ]

5 Thus says the LORD concerning the [false] prophets who lead my people astray; ‡

When they have something good to bite with their teeth,
They call out, “Peace,”
But against the one who gives them nothing to eat,
They declare a holy war.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore it will be night (tragedy) for you—without vision, ‡
And darkness (cataclysm) for you—without foresight.
The sun shall go down on the [false] prophets,
And the day shall become dark and black over them.

<sup>7</sup> The seers shall be ashamed ‡
And the diviners discredited and embarrassed;
Indeed, they shall all cover their mouths [in shame]
Because there is no answer from God.

With the Spirit of the LORD,
And with justice and might,
To declare to Jacob his transgression
And to Israel his sin.

<sup>9</sup> Now hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who hate and reject justice
And twist everything that is straight,

<sup>10</sup> Who build Zion with blood [and extortion and murder] ‡
And Jerusalem with violent injustice.

Her priests teach for a fee,
And her prophets foretell for money;
Yet they lean on the LORD, saying,
“Is not the LORD among us?

No tragedy or distress will come on us.”  [Is 1:10–15. ]

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, on account of you ‡
Zion shall be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins,
And the mountain of the house [of the LORD] shall become like a densely wooded hill.  [Jer 26:17–19. ]

Micah 4

Peaceful Latter Days

1. BUT IT shall come about in the last days ‡
That the mountain of the house of the LORD
Shall be established as the highest and chief of the mountains;
It shall be above the hills,
And peoples shall flow [like a river] to it.

2. And many nations shall come and say,
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob,
That He may teach us about His ways
And that we may walk in His paths.”
For the law shall go forward from Zion,
And the word of the LORD [the revelation about Him and His truth] from Jerusalem.

3. And He will judge between many peoples ‡
And render decisions for strong and distant nations.
Then they shall hammer their swords into plowshares
And their spears into pruning hooks [so that the implements of war may become the tools of agriculture];
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
Nor shall they ever again train for war.  [Is 2:2–4; Joel 3:10 ]
4. Each of them shall sit [in security and peace] under his vine ‡
And under his fig tree,
With no one to make them afraid,
For the mouth of the [omnipotent] LORD of hosts has spoken
it.  [Zech 3:10 ]

5 For all the peoples [now] walk ‡
Each in the name of his god [in a transient relationship],
As for us, we shall walk [securely]
In the name of the LORD our [true] God forever and ever.

6 “In that day,” says the LORD, ‡
“I shall assemble the lame,
And gather the outcasts [from foreign captivity],
Even those whom I have caused pain.

7 “I shall make the lame a [godly] remnant ‡
And the outcasts a strong nation;
And the LORD shall reign over them in Mount Zion

From this time on and forever.

Hill and stronghold of the Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem’s inhabitants),

To you the former dominion shall come,
The kingdom of the Daughter of Jerusalem [when the Messiah reigns in Jerusalem, and the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled].  [Luke 21:24. ]

Is there no king among you?

Has your counselor perished?

For agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth.

<sup>10</sup> “Writhe in pain and labor to give birth,

O Daughter of Zion,

Like a woman in childbirth;

For now you shall go out of the city,

Live in the field,

And go to Babylon.

There you will be rescued;

There the LORD shall redeem you

From the hand of your enemies.

<sup>11</sup> “Now many [conquering] nations are assembled against you, ‡

Who say, ‘Let her be profaned [through Gentile presence and the temple’s destruction],

And let our eyes gaze on and gloat over Zion.’

LORD, ‡

Nor do they understand His purpose and plan;

For He has gathered them (Gentiles) like sheaves to the threshing floor [for destruction].

For I will make your horn iron

And I will make your hoofs bronze;

That you may beat many peoples in pieces [trampling down your enemies],

That you may devote to the LORD their unjust gain (pagan possessions)

And their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.  [Zech 12:1–8; 14:14 ]

Micah 5

Birth of the King in Bethlehem

<sup>1</sup> “NOW GATHER yourself in troops, O daughter of troops; ‡
A state of siege has been placed against us.
They shall strike the ruler of Israel on the cheek with a rod (scepter).

Too little to be among the clans of Judah;
From you One shall come forth for Me [who is] to be Ruler in Israel,

His goings forth (appearances) are from long ago,
From ancient days.”  [Gen 49:10; Matt 2:5–12; John 7:42 ]

When she who is in labor has given birth to a child.
Then what is left of His kinsmen
Shall return to the children of Israel.

In the strength of the LORD,
In the majesty of the name of the LORD His God;
And they shall dwell [secure in undisturbed peace], Because at that time He shall be great [extending His authority]

[Even] to the ends of the earth.  [Ps 72:8; Is 40:11; Zech 9:10;
Luke 1:32, 33 ]

When the Assyrian invades our land
And tramples on our citadels and in our palaces,
Then shall we raise against him
Seven shepherds and eight princes [an overpowering force]
among men.  [Is 9:6; Eph 2:14 ]

The land of Nimrod within her [own] gates.

And He (the Messiah) shall rescue us from the Assyrian (all enemy nations)

When he attacks our land

And when he tramples our territory.

<sup>7</sup> Then the remnant of Jacob ‡

Shall be among many peoples

Like dew from the LORD,

Like showers on the grass [a source of blessing]

Which [come suddenly and] do not wait for man

Nor delay for the sons of men.  [Ps 72:6; 110:3 ]

Shall be among the nations,

In the midst of many peoples

Like a lion among the beasts of the forest,

Like a young lion [suddenly appearing] among the flocks of sheep

Which, if he passes through,

Tramples down and tears into pieces [the nations in judgment],

And there is no one to rescue.

<sup>9</sup> Your hand will be lifted up against your adversaries,

And all your enemies shall be cut off and destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> “And in that day,” says the LORD, ‡

“I will cut off your horses from among you

And destroy your chariots [on which you depend].  [Ps 20:7, 8 ; Zech 9:10 ]

<sup>11</sup> “I will cut off the cities of your land

And tear down all your fortifications.

<sup>12</sup> “I will cut off witchcrafts and sorceries from your hand, ‡

And you shall have no more fortune-tellers.

<sup>13</sup> “I will also cut off your carved images ‡

And your sacred pillars from among you,

So that you will no longer worship and bow down

To the work of your hands.

<sup>14</sup> “I will root out your Asherim (symbols of the goddess Asherah) from among you

And destroy your cities [which are the centers of pagan worship].  [Deut 16:21 ]

On the nations which have not obeyed [such vengeance as they have not known before].”

Micah 6

God’s Indictment of His People

<sup>1</sup> HEAR NOW what the LORD is saying,
“Arise, plead your case before the mountains,
And let the hills [as witnesses] hear your voice.

<sup>2</sup> “Hear, O mountains, the indictment of the LORD, ‡
And you enduring foundations of the earth,
For the LORD has a case (a legal complaint) against His people,

And He will dispute (challenge) Israel.

<sup>3</sup> “O My people, what have I done to you [since you have turned away from Me]? ‡

And how have I wearied you? Answer Me.

And ransomed you from the house of slavery,
And I sent before you Moses [to lead you], Aaron [the high priest], and Miriam [the prophetess].

What Balak king of Moab devised [with his evil plan against Israel]

And what Balaam the son of Beor answered him [turning the curse into blessing for Israel],

[Remember what the LORD did for you] from Shittim to Gilgal,

So that you may know the righteous and saving acts [displaying the power] of the LORD.”  [Num 23:7–24 ; 24:3–24 ; Josh 3:1 ; 4:19 ]

What God Requires of Man

<sup>6</sup> With what shall I come before the LORD [to honor Him]
And bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings,
With yearling calves?

Or with ten thousand rivers of oil?

Shall I present my firstborn for my acts of rebellion,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

<sup>8</sup> He has told you, O man, what is good; ‡
And what does the LORD require of you Except to be just, and to love [and to diligently practice] kindness (compassion),

And to walk humbly with your God [setting aside any overblown sense of importance or self-righteousness]?  [Deut 10:12, 13 ]

<sup>9</sup> The voice of the LORD shall call to the city [of Jerusalem]

And it is sound wisdom to heed [solemnly] and fear Your name [with awe-filled reverence]; “Hear, O tribe [the rod of punishment]. Who has appointed its time?

<sup>10</sup> “Are there not still treasures gained by wickedness
In the house of the wicked,
And a short (inaccurate) measure [for grain] that is cursed? [
Deut 25:14–16 ]

And a bag of dishonest weights?  [1 Thess 4:6 ]

<sup>12</sup> “For the rich men of the city are full of violence [of every kind]; ‡

Her inhabitants speak lies
And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

<sup>13</sup> “So also I will make you sick, striking you down, ‡
Desolating and devastating you, because of your sins.

<sup>14</sup> “You shall eat, but you will not be satisfied, ‡
And your emptiness shall be among you;
You will [try to] remove [your goods and those you love] for safekeeping

But you will fail to save anything,
And what you do save I shall give to the sword.

You shall tread olives, but shall not anoint yourself with oil,
And [you will extract juice from] the grapes, but you shall not drink the wine.

king], ‡
And all the works of the [wicked] house (dynasty) of Ahab;
And you walk in their counsels and policies.
Therefore, I shall hand you over for destruction and horror
And your [city’s] inhabitants for ridicule,
And you shall bear the rebuke and scorn of My people.”

Micah 7

The Prophet Acknowledges Injustice

<sup>1</sup> WOE IS me (judgment is coming)! For I am ‡
Like one who gathers the summer fruits, like one who gleans the vintage grapes.
There is not a cluster of grapes to eat,
No first-ripe fig which my appetite craves.
<sup>2</sup> The godly person [who is faithful and loyal to God] has perished from the earth, ‡
And there is no upright person [one with good character and moral integrity] among men.
They all lie in wait to shed blood;
Each hunts the other with a net.
<sup>3</sup> Concerning evil, both of their hands pursue it and do it diligently and thoroughly;
The prince asks, also the judge, for a bribe,
And a great man speaks the [evil] desire of his soul.
So they twist the course of justice between them.
<sup>4</sup> The best of them is [injurious] like a briar; ‡
The most upright is [prickly] like a thorn hedge.
The day of your watchmen [that is, the time predicted by the prophets]

And your punishment comes;
Now shall be their confusion.

<sup>5</sup> Do not trust in a neighbor [because of the moral corruption in the land];

Do not have confidence in a friend.

Guard the doors of your mouth

From her who lies in your bosom.  [Luke 12:51–53. ]

<sup>6</sup> For the son dishonors the father and treats him contemptuously, ‡

The daughter rises up [in hostility] against her mother,

The daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—

A man's enemies are the men (members) of his own household.  [Matt 10:21, 35, 36; Mark 13:12, 13. ]

God Is the Source of Salvation and Light

<sup>7</sup> But as for me, I will look expectantly for the LORD and with confidence in Him I will keep watch;

I will wait [with confident expectation] for the God of my salvation.

My God will hear me.

<sup>8</sup> Do not rejoice over me [amid my tragedies], O my enemy! ‡

Though I fall, I will rise;

Though I sit in the darkness [of distress], the LORD is a light for me.

Because I have sinned against Him,

Until He pleads my case and executes judgment for me.

He will bring me out to the light,

And I will behold His [amazing] righteousness and His remarkable deliverance.  [Rom 10:1–4; 11:23–27. ]

And shame [for despising the LORD] will cover her who said to me,

“Where is the LORD your God?”

My eyes will look on her [with satisfaction at her judgment];

Now she (unbelievers) will be trampled down

Like mud of the streets.

<sup>11</sup>*It shall be a day for building your walls,
On that day the boundary [of Israel] shall be [greatly] extended.*  [Is 33:17; Amos 9:11 ]

<sup>12</sup> It shall be a day when the Gentiles will come to you ‡
From Assyria and from the cities of Egypt,
And from Egypt even to the river Euphrates,
From sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

<sup>13</sup> Yet the earth [beyond the land of Israel] shall become desolate because of those who dwell in it, ‡
Because of the fruit of their deeds.

blessing],* ‡
The flock of Your inheritance and Your possession Which dwells alone [separate and secure from attack] in the forest,

In the midst of a garden land.
Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead
As in the days of old [the days of Moses and Elijah].

*I shall show you marvelous and miraculous things.”*

<sup>16</sup>The [pagan] nations shall see [God’s omnipotence in delivering Israel] and be ashamed ‡

Of all their might [which cannot be compared to His].
They shall put their hand on their mouth [in silent astonishment];

Their ears shall be deaf.

Like crawling things of the earth

*They shall come trembling out of their fortresses and hiding places.*

*They shall turn and come with fear and dread to the LORD our God*

*And they shall be afraid and stand in awe before You [O
LORD].*  [Jer 33:9 ]

And passes over the rebellious acts of the remnant of His possession?

He does not retain His anger forever,
Because He [constantly] delights in mercy and lovingkindness.

<sup>19</sup> He shall again have compassion on us;
He will subdue and tread underfoot our wickedness
[destroying sin's power].

Yes, You will cast all our sins
Into the depths of the sea.  [Ps 103:12. ]

<sup>20</sup> You shall give truth to Jacob ‡
And lovingkindness and mercy to Abraham,
As You have sworn to our forefathers
From the days of old.  [Luke 1:54, 55. ]

Annotations for Micah

1:1 Micah. The name means “Who is like the Lord?” The question presents a major biblical theme, the idea that God is incomparable (7:18 ; Dt 4:32–40 ; Ps 113:4–6 ). Micah’s ministry centered on the Assyrian threat to Samaria, the capital of Israel, that was destroyed in 722 BC and Jerusalem, the capital of Judah.

1:3 the LORD is coming. This is the language of epiphany, the dramatic coming of God to earth, here in a solemn procession of judgment. In other texts the language of epiphany is used to describe God’s dramatic acts of deliverance (Ps 18:7–19 ).

1:5 Jacob. The name is used to refer to the Northern Kingdom of Israel, whose transgression was centered in its capital Samaria. high places. Jerusalem, which was once “fair and beautiful in elevation” (Ps 48:2 ), was nothing more than another platform of pagan worship, like the “high places” of the Canaanites.

1:7 from the earnings of a prostitute she collected them. Idolatry is often described in the Hebrew Bible as spiritual adultery (Jer 3:1 ; Hos 4:15 ). Israel is pictured here as a wife who is unfaithful to her husband. This is not just a metaphor, however; the worship system of Canaan was sexual in nature.

1:8 barefoot and naked. Micah’s words describe mourning rites in which outer garments were laid aside in deep humility. The mourning person thought no longer about himself but only about the calamity that had overcome his senses.

1:10 in Gath. The reference here is to the lament of David in his mourning over the death of Saul and Jonathan (2Sa 1:20 ). Just as it was unseemly then to have the bad news of God’s people profaned in a foreign city, so it would be in the present circumstance.

1:12 Maroth. This name means “bitterness.” The name Jerusalem suggests “peace.” Thus, the inhabitants of the “town of bitterness” would be sickened with dread, and the inhabitants of the “town of peace” would experience God’s judgments.

1:16 shave off your hair. This would have been the ultimate sign of mourning in a culture in which a man’s hair was highly valued.

2:1–2 devise wickedness . . . covet. The ethical teaching of the prophets regularly included oracles of judgment against greed, theft, and oppression, actions of the powerful in attacking the weak. To covet is not just to have a passing thought; it is a determination to seize what is not one’s own.

2:4 He divides our fields. God would take the property rights from those who had seized them illegally and give them to people who were even more reprobate than they were.

2:5–6 no one stretching a measuring line . Land-grabbers would no longer have a legitimate claim among God’s people. God would dispossess them even as they had dispossessed others. Do not speak out . These words may have been a strong warning to Micah not to be like the lying prophets who counseled that all was well in the land.

2:12–13 assemble . . . gather . . . bring them together . The verbs are emphatic, demonstrating the certainty of God’s determination to bring to pass His good pleasure on His people (Dt 30:1–6 ). They will break out . This phrase speaks of regathering Israel from wherever the people may have been scattered.

3:1 Is it not for you to know and administer judgment? The idea here is that one might not expect justice from pagan leaders in a faraway place. But the rulers of the people of God were expected to emphasize justice. Justice is one of the key concepts of the law (Dt 10:18 ; 32:4 ; 33:21 ). Perverting justice was strongly prohibited by God (Dt 16:19 ; 24:17 ), yet this was precisely what the leaders of Judah were doing. They had used their authority to destroy justice rather than to establish it among the people.

[3:5–7 concerning the \[false\] prophets.](#) This oracle was against false prophets who proclaimed peace, causing the people to be unprepared for trouble. These prophets would have neither true prophetic insight, nor help from the forbidden arts of divination. Finally, they would have nothing to say, for there would be no answer from God.

3:11 bribe . . . for a fee . . . money. The wicked leaders and prophets of Israel “worked” only when they could gain something from it. Needless to say, if justice had to be paid for, it would not be justice. Is not the LORD among us? Many people of Jerusalem believed that they would not be affected by God’s judgment because God Himself dwelled in the holy temple in Jerusalem. They reasoned that, despite their evils, as long as God was in His temple they were safe—even from divine judgment. What people refused to believe was that God might leave His temple because of the sinfulness of the people (Eze 10 ).

4:1 in the last days. This is an indication of a prophecy of end times.

4:2 we may walk in His paths. Unlike the people of Micah’s generation who were strangers to justice (3:1 ), the peoples of the coming kingdom will be obedient to God.

4:3 swords . . . spears. All weapons of destruction will be recycled into tools of production. There will finally be an end to conflict. War will not even be a subject for study any more.

4:4 vine . . . fig tree. Both are symbols of peace and prosperity (Zec 3:10 ).

4:7 remnant. The majority of people in Israel did not live their lives in faith and dedication to the Lord. However, true faith never really died out in Israel, even in the worst of times.

4:9–10 like a woman in childbirth. The troubles of the present moment would lead finally to the birth of a deliverer. go to Babylon. This refers to the exile.

4:13 Arise and thresh. The nations would be gathered by the Lord like sheaves on the threshing floor (v. 12 ). This is a way of speaking of the final victory over all of Israel’s foes.

5:2 Bethlehem. This name means “House of Bread.” Ephrathah. This locates the village in a known region in Judah (Ge 35:16 ). This prophecy figures significantly in the New Testament story of the visit of the wise men to the Christ child (Mt 2:1–12 ). goings forth. The birth of this Savior King would be unlike the birth of any other, because He was preexistent. He is “from everlasting.”

5:3 she who is in labor. This probably refers to Zion (4:10 ). The metaphor refers to the deliverance in the end time of those who will be able to delight in the coming of God’s kingdom (4:9–5:1 ).

5:7 dew . . . showers. Jewish people are blessings from God on their neighbors.

5:10 I will cut off. It was God’s intention to destroy the evils in Israel’s society. Horses and chariots represent the pride of Israel’s military power. Israel’s tendency was to rely on its own military power rather than on the Lord.

6:1–2 mountains . . . hills. These were among the witnesses to the covenant that God made with His people (Dt 4:26 ; 32:1 ; Isa 1:2 ).

6:7 Will the LORD be delighted. The idea of bringing pleasure to God through sacrifice is found elsewhere in the Bible. God is pleased with those who do as He commands (Ge 4:1–8 ).

6:8 what does the LORD require of you. This verse speaks of the underlying attitudes that must accompany all true worship. The idea here is that God seeks certain characteristics of true worship from His people. be just . . . love [and to diligently practice] kindness . . . walk humbly. These three phrases summarize biblical piety in true worship. The majority of the people of Israel had violated each of these standards repeatedly. with your God. It is the Lord who ultimately gives a person strength, courage, and ability to exercise the virtues of godly living.

7:1–2 Woe is me. Micah was moved by the oracles of judgment that God delivered through him (1:8). There is not a cluster. For Micah, the harvest was over. There was nothing around him but undesirable fruit. The godly person . . . has perished. The norms of society had broken down; everyone was out to destroy someone else.

7:3–4 both of their hands. The people were pursuing evil with gusto. The leaders of the state were leading the way in evil (3:11). The day of your watchmen. This refers to the time when people needed to be alert for the approach of an enemy army. In this context, judgment was imminent.

7:7 I will look expectantly for the LORD. While there would need to be a watchman for the coming of an enemy army, Micah was going to look for the advent of the Lord.

7:8–9 I have sinned. This is the confession of the people in saving faith.

7:11–12 On that day. These words call attention to a future day, the time of the end.

7:16–17 nations shall see [God's omnipotence in delivering Israel] and be ashamed. The response of the wicked nations to the renewed mercies of God on His people would be terror. The nations would be humiliated because they had taunted Israel in the day of its trouble (vv. 8–10).

7:18–20 God's Mercy— There is a significant passage on mercy or love like this in every book in the Old Testament. God wants His people to succeed and be prosperous. He wants the best for them. He is always eager to restore them. He protects, directs, sustains, and covenants with them. His steadfast love is characterized by faithfulness in spite of constant wandering in unfaithfulness.

In the New Testament, it is also easy to find passages in every book where someone is being judged. Usually it's the religious people who have set themselves up in God's place or those who have turned away from God when they should know better who are condemned.

The Old Testament predicts, leads toward, and sets the scene for the ultimate judgment of the New Testament. The entire Bible consistently points to the kind of creatures we are because of the fall and sin. Only God has the ultimate solution in Christ. God subjects Himself to that ultimate judgment for us so that all of His love for us may be realized. It's a mystery that we can solve only in our hearts by accepting and believing its implications.

Every day our prayer needs to be, "Lord, My sins are ever with me. I deserve your judgment. Thank you for the great mercy I've received through Jesus' death for me. That He died in my place must always be the primary reality in my life." Go to Theological Notes Index

7:18 Who is a God like You. These words speak of the incomparability of God. There is nothing in all of creation to compare with God (Isa 40:25 ).

7:20 As You have sworn. This last verse is reminiscent of God's promise to Abraham in Genesis 12, 15, and 22, and His promises to Jacob in Genesis 32. The Lord had sworn to fulfill His promises to the patriarchs. He would not—could not—leave His promise unfulfilled (Ps 89:33 ).

The Book of

Nahum

► AUTHOR: The only mention of Nahum in the Old Testament is found in 1:1 where he is called Nahum of Elkosh. Scholars have been unable to determine the exact location of Elkosh and numerous theories exist, but due to his interest in the triumph of Judah (1:15 ; 2:2 ), some believe Nahum to be a prophet of the Southern Kingdom.

► TIMES: c. 660 BC

► KEY VERSES: Na 1:7–8

► THEME: Nahum is unique in that it is a prophecy addressed completely to a nation other than Israel: Assyria and its capital Nineveh. While Nineveh may be powerful, her day of destruction is coming. Nineveh is not invincible. The message is that God's standards apply to all nations, not just Israel and Judah. They need to be prepared to live by those standards or face judgment.

Nahum 1

God Is Awesome

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is a jealous and avenging God [protecting and demanding what is rightfully and uniquely His]; ‡

The LORD avenges and He is full of wrath.

The LORD takes vengeance on His adversaries,

And He reserves wrath for His enemies.  [Ex 20:5 ]

And He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished.

The LORD has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm,

And the clouds are the dust beneath His feet.  [Ex 34:6, 7 ]

He dries up all the rivers [illustrating His judgment].

Bashan [on the east] and [Mount] Carmel [on the west] wither,

And [in the north] the blossoms of Lebanon fade.

And the hills melt away;

Indeed the earth is shaken by His presence—

Yes, the world and all that dwell in it.

And who can stand up and endure the fierceness of His anger?

His wrath is poured out like fire

And the rocks are destroyed by Him.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is good, ‡

A strength and stronghold in the day of trouble;

He knows [He recognizes, cares for, and understands fully] those who take refuge and trust in Him.  [Ps 1:6; Hos 13:5; John 10:14, 27 ]

<sup>8</sup> But with an overwhelming flood [of judgment through invading armies]

He will make a complete destruction of its site
And will pursue His enemies into darkness.

He will make a complete end of it;
Affliction [of God's people by the hand of Assyria] will not occur twice.

<sup>10</sup> Like tangled thorn branches [gathered for fuel],‡
And like those drowned in drunkenness,
The people of Nineveh are consumed [through fire]
Like stubble completely withered and dry [in the day of the LORD's wrath].  [Mal 4:1 ]

<sup>11</sup> From you [O Nineveh],
One has gone forth who plotted evil against the LORD,
A malevolent counselor [the king of Assyria].  [2 Kin 19:20–23; Is 10:5–7; 36:15–20 ]

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says,

“Though they are at full strength and many in number,
Even so, they will be cut off and pass away.
Though I have afflicted you and caused you grief [O
Jerusalem],
I will afflict you no longer.  [2 Kin 19:35–37; John 5:14 ]
<sup>13</sup> “Now, I will break his yoke [of taxation] off you,
And I will tear off your shackles.”  [Is 14:25 ]

<sup>14</sup> The LORD has given a command concerning you [O king of Nineveh]:

“Your name will no longer be perpetuated.
I will cut off the carved idols and cast images
From the temple of your gods;
I will prepare your grave,
For you are vile and unworthy.”  [Is 37:38; Ezek 32:22, 23 ]

<sup>15</sup> Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news [telling of Assyria's destruction],
Who announces peace and prosperity!
Celebrate your feasts, O Judah;

Perform your vows.
For the wicked one [the king of Assyria] will never again pass through you;
He is completely cut off.  [Is 52:7; Rom 10:15. ]

Nahum 2

The Overthrow of Nineveh

1. THE ONE who scatters has come up against you [Nineveh].
Man the fortress and ramparts, watch the road;
Strengthen your back [prepare for battle], summon all your strength.

2 For the LORD will restore the splendor and majesty of Jacob
Like the splendor of [ancient and united] Israel,
Even though destroyers have destroyed them
And ruined their vine branches.  [Is 10:12. ]

3. The shields of his soldiers [of Media and Babylon] are colored red;
The warriors are dressed in scarlet.
The chariots blaze with fire of [flashing] steel
When he is prepared to march,
And the cypress spears are brandished [for battle].

4. The chariots race madly in the streets;
They rush wildly in the broad plazas.
Their appearance is like torches;
They rush in various directions like forked lightning.

5 He remembers and summons his nobles;
They stumble in their march [terrified because of the attack].
They hurry to the city wall,
And the mantelet is prepared and firmly set up.

6. The gates of the rivers [surrounding Nineveh] are opened
And the palace [of sun-dried brick] is dissolved [by the torrents].

7 It is decreed:
Nineveh is stripped, and she is carried away,
And her handmaids are moaning like the sound of doves,

Beating on their breasts [in sorrow].

<sup>8</sup> Though Nineveh was like a pool of water throughout her days,

Now her inhabitants are fleeing;
“Stop! Stop!” [a few cry,
But no one turns back.

Plunder the gold!

For there is no end to the treasure—
Wealth from every precious object.

<sup>10</sup> She is emptied! She is desolate and waste!

Hearts melting [in fear] and knees knocking!

Anguish is in the whole body,

And the faces of all grow pale!  [Is 13:7, 8 ]

<sup>11</sup> Where is the den of the lions (Assyria)

And the feeding place of the young lions,
Where the lion, lioness, and lion’s cub prowled
With nothing to fear?

Killed [enough prey] for his lionesses,

And filled his lairs with prey

And his dens with torn flesh.

<sup>13</sup> “Behold, I am against you [Nineveh],” declares the LORD of hosts, “and I will burn your chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions. I will cut off your prey from the land, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

Nahum 3

Nineveh’s Complete Ruin

<sup>1</sup> WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to the city of blood [guilty of murder and mayhem], completely full of lies and pillage;

Her prey never departs [alive].  [Ezek 24:6, 9, 10; Hab 2:12 ]

The noise of the rattling of the wheel,
Galloping horses
And rumbling and bounding chariots [in the assault of Nineveh]!

Swords flashing, spears gleaming,
Many slain, a mass of corpses,
No end of corpses—
The horsemen stumble over the corpses!

the prostitute, ‡

The charming and well-favored one, the mistress of sorceries,
Who betrays nations by her acts of prostitution (idolatry)
And families by her sorceries.

“And I will lift up your skirts over your face,
And I will let the nations look at your nakedness [O Nineveh]
And the kingdoms at your disgrace.

And make you vile and treat you with contempt,
And set you up as a spectacle.

<sup>7</sup> “And it will come about that all who see you ‡
Will shrink back and run from you and say,
‘Nineveh is completely ruined!
Who will grieve for her?’
Where will I seek comforters for you?”

<sup>8</sup>. Are you better than Thebes, ‡
Which was situated by the waters of the Nile,
With water surrounding her,
Whose defense was the sea (the Nile),
Whose wall consisted of the sea?

<sup>9</sup> Ethiopia was her strength,
And Egypt too, without limits.
Put and Lubim were among her helpers.

She went into captivity.

Her young children were dashed to pieces
At the head of every street;
They cast lots for her honorable men,
And all her great men were bound with chains.

<sup>11</sup> You too [Nineveh] will become drunk [with the cup of God's wrath]; ‡
You will be hidden.

You too [Nineveh] will search [in vain] for a refuge from the enemy.

— ‡

When shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater.

<sup>13</sup> Behold, your people are [as weak and helpless as] women in your midst! ‡

The gates of your land are opened wide to your enemies;
Fire consumes the bars across your gates.

Strengthen your fortresses!

Go down to the clay pits, trample the mortar!
Prepare the brick kiln [to burn bricks for the rampart]!

<sup>15</sup> But there [in the very midst of these preparations] the fire will devour you; ‡

The sword will cut you down;
It will devour you as the locust does.

Multiply yourself like the creeping locusts;
Multiply yourself like the swarming locusts.

<sup>16</sup> You have increased your traders more than the [visible] stars of heaven—

The creeping locust strips and destroys and then flies away.

<sup>17</sup> Your guardsmen are like the swarming locusts. ‡
Your marshals are like the hordes of grasshoppers
Settling in the stone walls on a cold day.

When the sun rises, they fly away,
And no one knows the place where they are.
<sup>18</sup> Your shepherds are asleep, O king of Assyria; ‡
Your nobles are lying down [in death].
Your people are scattered on the mountains
And there is no one to gather them.

19. There is no relief and healing for your hurt;  $\ddag$
Your wound is incurable.
All who hear the news about you
Clap their hands over [what has happened to] you.
For on whom has your [unceasing] evil not come continually?

Annotations for Nahum

1:2 jealous and avenging God. The repetition of words and the use of parallel terms are typical devices in Hebrew poetry for intensifying and sharpening the poet's message.

1:3 whirlwind and in the storm . . . clouds. The peoples of the ancient Middle East worshiped nature gods, particularly deities associated with storms, clouds, and rainfall. In Canaan, this fixation on storms was centered in the worship of Baal and his consorts Anat and Asherah. The Scriptures testify that there are no gods but the Lord; it is He who rules and is above all creation.

1:8 flood . . . complete destruction . . . darkness. The judgment of the Lord will be inescapable. The word "flood" is both a poetic term for overwhelming devastation and a specific reference to the actual manner of Nineveh's fall. It is believed that the invaders of Nineveh entered the city through its flooded waterways (2:6 ).

1:11 A malevolent counselor. "Malevolent," or in some translations "wicked," is one of the harshest terms in biblical language, nearly a curse word. The term speaks of someone who is utterly worthless.

1:14 you are vile and unworthy. The only thing to be done with Nineveh was to dig a grave and bury it. The prophecy came true literally—the city was destroyed so completely that its very existence was questioned until its discovery by archaeologists in the nineteenth century (3:13–15 ).

2:1 Man the fortress and ramparts. These were sarcastic words to the people of Nineveh and its leaders, as if they would be able to protect themselves against the wrath of the Lord.

2:3 red . . . scarlet . . . blaze with fire. These images speak of blood, violence, and warfare. Isaiah refers to the custom of the Assyrians of rolling their outer garments in blood before a battle (Isa 9:5 ) to strike terror in the hearts of their opponents. Here the tables would be turned. While others would have shields, chariots, and spears, the people of Nineveh would be bathed in blood—their own blood.

2:4 The chariots race madly. The Assyrians used chariots as formidable war machines. The proficiency of the chariot drivers underlies the imagery of this verse. But, as in the case of the shields and spears of verse 3, the chariots of Nineveh would not prevail, no matter how fast they drove.

2:6 gates of the rivers. The destruction of Nineveh is believed to have taken place when the besiegers entered the city through its flooded waterways. The attack came at flood time, when rivers undermined the walls and defenses of the city. Archaeologists have found evidence of flood debris that may be associated with the destruction of the city. Thus, the words of Nahum were fulfilled exactly.

2:11–12 den of the lions. Nineveh was the city of lions (v. 13 ). Yet, despite all the horrors that the lion of Nineveh had brought to other nations, it would no longer need to be feared by anyone. Although the Babylonians conquered the city, they were only God's instruments. Nineveh's greatest foe was God Himself.

3:4 prostitution. Any worship of gods other than the God of Scriptures is an act of spiritual prostitution. Nineveh was so adept at pagan practices that the city earned the descriptive title, "the mistress of witchcrafts."

3:6–7 I will throw filth on you. The Lord described the fate of Nineveh as comparable to a person on whom unspeakable filth was thrown. When Nineveh lay in ruins, no one would grieve for her. The nations would be glad that the city was gone.

3:8 Thebes. Thebes is derived from an Egyptian name meaning "city of the god Amon." The argument seems to suggest that, before its destruction, no one would have even dreamed of the fall of Thebes.

But the destruction had happened—not long before the writing of the Book of Nahum. The city of Thebes was rebuilt only to be destroyed later during the Roman period (29 BC). Nineveh, however, would never be rebuilt.

3:11 drunk . . . hidden . . . will search. Nineveh would be like a helpless drunk hoping for strength but finding nowhere to turn for it.

3:16–17 the sun rises. The people of Nineveh would be like nocturnal insects that disappear at daylight.

The Book of Habakkuk

- AUTHOR: In both the introduction to the book (1:1) and the closing psalm (3:1) the author identifies himself as Habakkuk the prophet. It is believed that he might have been a priest as he mentions in the closing psalm “For the choir director, on my stringed instruments” (3:19). Also, in the apocryphal book of Bel and the Dragon, Daniel is rescued a second time by the prophet Habakkuk.
- TIMES: c. 607 BC
- KEY VERSE: Hab 2:4
- THEME: This whole book of Habakkuk is really devoted to the question of “Lord, if you are all powerful, why is evil allowed to exist?” The events that seem to be precipitating this question are the victories of Babylon. God was using Babylon, a completely Godless nation, to punish Israel, God’s own people. The answers God gives us to this question in Habakkuk solidly point us in one direction, but ultimately the answers are in faith in Him alone.

Habakkuk 1

Chaldeans Used to Punish Judah

And You will not hear?
I cry out to You, “Violence!”
Yet You do not save.

<sup>3</sup> Why do You make me see iniquity,
And cause me to look on wickedness?
For destruction and violence are before me;
Strife continues and contention arises.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, the law is ineffective and ignored ‡
And justice is never upheld,
For the wicked surround the righteous;
Therefore, justice becomes perverted.

Be astonished! Wonder!
For I am doing something in your days—
You would not believe it if you were told.  [Acts 13:40, 41 ]
<sup>6</sup> “For behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans [who rule in Babylon],
That fierce and impetuous nation
Who march throughout the earth
To take possession of dwelling places that do not belong to them.  [2 Kin 24:2 ]

<sup>7</sup> “The Chaldeans are dreaded and feared;
Their justice and authority originate with themselves and are defined only by their decree.

<sup>8</sup> “Their horses are swifter than leopards
And keener than [hungry] wolves in the evening,
Their horsemen come galloping,
Their horsemen come from far away;

They fly like an eagle swooping down to devour.
9 “They all come for violence;
Their horde of faces moves [eagerly] forward,
They gather prisoners like sand.
10 “They make fun of kings
And rulers are a laughing matter to them.
They ridicule every stronghold
And heap up rubble [for earth mounds] and capture it.
11 “Then they will sweep by like the wind and pass on. ‡
But they will be held guilty,
They [and all men] whose own power and strength is their god.”

12 Are You not from everlasting, ‡
O LORD, my God, My Holy One?
We will not die.
O LORD, You have appointed the Chaldeans [who rule in Babylon] to execute [Your] judgment,
And You, O Rock, have established them to correct and chastise.  [Deut 32:4 ]

13 Your eyes are too pure to approve evil,
And You cannot look favorably on wickedness.
Why then do You look favorably
On those who act treacherously?
Why are you silent when the wicked (Chaldean oppressors) destroy
Those more righteous than they?

14 Why do You make men like the fish of the sea, Like reptiles and creeping things that have no ruler [and are helpless against their enemies]?

15 The Chaldeans bring all of them up with a hook,
And drag them away with a net,
And gather them together in their fishing net;
So they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore, they offer sacrifices to their net ‡
And burn incense to their fishing net;
Because through these things their catch is large and they live luxuriously,

And their food is plentiful.

<sup>17</sup> Will they continue to empty their net
And [mercilessly] go on destroying nations without sparing?

Habakkuk 2

God Answers the Prophet

1. I WILL stand at my guard post ‡
And station myself on the tower;
And I will keep watch to see what He will say to me,
And what answer I will give [as His spokesman] when I am reproved.

2 Then the LORD answered me and said, ‡
“Write the vision
And engrave it plainly on [clay] tablets
So that the one who reads it will run.

3. “For the vision is yet for the appointed [future] time ‡
It hurries toward the goal [of fulfillment]; it will not fail.
Even though it delays, wait [patiently] for it,
Because it will certainly come; it will not delay.  [Heb 10:37 ,
38 ]

4. “Look at the proud one, ‡
His soul is not right within him,
But the righteous will live by his faith [in the true God].  [Rom 1:17 ; Gal 3:11 ]

5. “Moreover, wine is treacherous and betrays the arrogant man,
So that he does not stay at home.
His appetite is large like Sheol,
And he is like death, never satisfied.
He gathers to himself all nations
And collects to himself all peoples [as if he owned them].

6. “Will all these [victims of his greed] not take up a taunting song against him,
And in mocking derision against him Say, ‘Woe (judgment is coming) to him who increases that which is not his—

How long [will he possess it]?
And [woe to him who] makes himself wealthy with loans.<sup>7</sup>
7“Will your creditors not rise up suddenly,
And those who collect from you awaken?
Then you will become plunder for them.
<sup>8</sup> “Because you [king of Babylon] have looted many nations,‡
All peoples who are left will loot you—Because of human bloodshed and for the violence done to the land,
To the city and all its inhabitants.

<sup>9</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to him who obtains wicked gain for his house [and thinks by so doing]‡
To set his nest on high,
That he may be rescued from the hand of evil.
<sup>10</sup> “You have devised a shameful thing for your house
By cutting off and putting an end to many peoples;
So you are sinning against your own life and forfeiting it.
11“For the stone will cry out from the wall [to accuse you—built in sin!]
And the rafter will answer it out of the woodwork.

<sup>12</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to him who builds a city with bloodshed
And establishes a town by violence!
<sup>13</sup> “Is it not indeed from the LORD of hosts That peoples labor [only] for the fire [that will destroy their work],
And nations grow weary for nothing [that is, things which have no lasting value]?
14“But [the time is coming when] the earth shall be filled
With the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
As the waters cover the sea.  [Is 11:9 ]

<sup>15</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to you who make your neighbors drink,‡
Who mix in your venom to make them drunk

So that you may look at their nakedness!
16 “You will be filled with disgrace instead of honor.
Now drink and expose your own nakedness!
The cup [of wrath] in the LORD’s right hand will come around to you [O destroyer],
And utter disgrace will be on your own glory.  [Rev 16:19 ]
<sup>17</sup> “For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you;
The destruction of the animals will terrify you
On account of human bloodshed and the violence done to the land,
To the city and all its inhabitants.

18 “What profit is the carved image when its maker has formed it?
It is only a cast image, and a teacher of lies.
For its maker trusts in his own creation [as his god]
When he makes speechless idols.
<sup>19</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to him who says to the wooden image, ‘Awake!’
And to the speechless stone, ‘Arise!’
And that is your teacher?
Look, it is overlaid with gold and silver,
And there is no breath at all inside it.
20 “But the LORD is in His holy temple.
Let all the earth hush and be silent before Him.”  [Zeph 1:7 ;
Zech 2:13 ]

Habakkuk 3

God’s Salvation of His People

<sup>1</sup> A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet, set to wild and enthusiastic music.

2 O LORD, I have heard the report about You and I fear.
O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years,
In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath [earnestly] remember compassion and love.

- <sup>3</sup> God [approaching from Sinai] comes from Teman (Edom),
And the Holy One from Mount Paran.
Selah (pause, and calmly think of that).
His splendor and majesty covers the heavens
And the earth is full of His praise.
- <sup>4</sup>. His brightness is like the sunlight;
He has [bright] rays flashing from His hand,
And there [in the sunlike splendor] is the hiding place of His power.
- <sup>5</sup> Before Him goes the pestilence [of judgment as in Egypt],
And [the burning] plague [of condemnation] follows at His feet [as in Sennacherib's army].  [Ex 7:2-4; 2 Kin 19:32-35 ]
- <sup>6</sup> He stood and measured the earth; ‡
He looked and startled the nations,
Yes, the eternal mountains were shattered,
The ancient hills bowed low and collapsed.
His ways are eternal.
- <sup>7</sup> I [Habakkuk, in my vision] saw the tents of Cushan under distress;
The tent curtains of the land of Midian were trembling.
- <sup>8</sup>. Did the LORD rage against the rivers,
Or was Your anger against the rivers,
Or was Your wrath against the [Red] Sea,
That You rode on Your horses,
On Your chariots of salvation?
- <sup>9</sup> Your bow was made bare;
The rods of chastisement were sworn.
Selah (pause, calmly think of that).
You split the earth with rivers [bringing waters to dry places].
 [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11 ]
- <sup>10</sup> The mountains saw You and [they] trembled and writhed [as if in pain]; ‡
The downpour of waters swept by [as a deluge].
The deep uttered its voice and raged,
It lifted its hands high.
- <sup>11</sup> The sun and moon stood in their places [as before Joshua];

They went away at the light of Your [swift] arrows,
At the radiance and gleam of Your glittering spear.  [Josh 10:12
, 13 ]

In anger You trampled and threshed the nations.

<sup>13</sup> You went forth for the salvation of Your people,
For the salvation and rescue of Your anointed [people Israel].
You struck the head from the house of the wicked
To lay him open from the thigh to the neck.

Selah (pause, and calmly think of that).

<sup>14</sup> With the enemy's own spears, You pierced
The head of his hordes.

They stormed out to scatter us,
Rejoicing like those Who secretly devour the oppressed [of Israel].

<sup>15</sup> You have trampled on the sea with Your horses, ‡
On the surge of many waters.  [Ex 15:8 ]

16. I heard and my whole inner self trembled; ‡
My lips quivered at the sound.
Decay and rottenness enter my bones,
And I tremble in my place.
Because I must wait quietly for the day of distress,
For the people to arise who will invade and attack us.

17. Though the fig tree does not blossom
And there is no fruit on the vines,
Though the yield of the olive fails
And the fields produce no food,
Though the flock is cut off from the fold
And there are no cattle in the stalls,

<sup>18</sup> Yet I will [choose to] rejoice in the LORD;
I will [choose to] shout in exultation in the [victorious] God of my salvation!  [Rom 8:37 ]

19. The Lord GOD is my strength [my source of courage, my invincible army]; ‡
He has made my feet [steady and sure] like hinds' feet
And makes me walk [forward with spiritual confidence] on my high places [of challenge and responsibility].

For the choir director, on my stringed instruments.

Annotations for Habakkuk

1:2 O LORD, how long. This question is phrased as a formal complaint (Ps 13:1–2 ).

1:4 the law is ineffective and ignored. The revelation of God given at Mount Sinai had little impact on the hearts of people whose lives were focused on material success. These people had little interest in living by God's definition of what is fair and humane. wicked. God's chosen people committed and tolerated heinous acts through the corruption of the courts.

1:5 Look among the nations. The international scene during Habakkuk's lifetime was full of turmoil, with Assyria on the decline and Babylon on the rise.

1:6 I am raising up. God controls the nations for His own purposes (Da 2:21 ), sometimes indirectly and at other times directly.

1:7 dreaded and feared. Far from being humane, the Babylonians prided themselves on their arrogant use of raw power.

1:9 They gather prisoners like sand. The Babylonians resettled numerous conquered peoples with little regard for them as individuals.

1:12 Are You not from everlasting. Habakkuk's point seems to be that God's holiness should have prohibited Him from using a "dirty" instrument such as Babylon to accomplish His purposes in judging and reproofing His own people.

1:16 they offer sacrifices to their net. This phrase speaks of the contemptuous pride of the Babylonians in their devices of destruction.

2:1 I will stand . . . on the tower. Habakkuk stationed himself as a watchman to look at the nations, as God had commanded him. what He will say to me. Habakkuk's faith is seen in his anticipation of a response from God. when I am reproved. This phrase indicates the prophet's submission to God.

2:3 the appointed [future] time. This speaks of a determined time in God's eyes. Even though it delays, wait [patiently] for it. God knows His plan and the outworking of all things in accordance with His purposes. The godly are responsible to study and proclaim His revelation while awaiting its fulfillment. it will certainly come. The fulfillment of the vision would not take any longer than God had planned.

2:4 the righteous will live by his faith. True righteousness before God is linked to genuine faith in God. A proud person relies on self, power, position, and accomplishment; a righteous person relies on the Lord.

2:5 all nations . . . all peoples. These peoples of the earth should have been gathered together before the Lord in holy worship (Ps 117:1 ); instead, they became morsels for the rapacious appetite of Babylon.

2:6 Woe (judgment is coming) to him. A woe is an oracle of judgment consisting of two parts: a declaration of the wrong and a notice of impending judgment. The judgment usually applies the principle of the law of retribution.

2:7 creditors. This Hebrew term has the idea of "those who bite," suggesting sudden, hurtful attacks (Mic 3:5 ).

2:11 the stone will cry out . . . the rafter will answer it out of the woodwork. The whole structure of Israel's society called out for justice; every part reverberated with the need for righting wrongs.

2:14 the glory of the LORD . This speaks to the full manifestation of His person, significance, presence, and wonder. The true knowledge of God in the time of His kingdom on earth will be like the waters—all-embracing, inescapable, and fully enveloping.

2:16 The cup [of wrath] in the LORD's right hand. This represents the wrath of God (Isa 51:17 , 22 ; Rev 14:10 ; 16:19 ).

2:18 teacher of lies. Idolatry begins with deception, encourages deception, and calls for a commitment to deception (Isa 44:20 ).

2:20 be silent before him. The call to silence is not an invitation to worship, but a command to reflect on the terrible state of all who fall into the hands of the angry God (Zep 1:7 ).

3:2 I have heard. Habakkuk knew the stories of God's mighty acts as celebrated in song and in the feasts and festivals of Israel. These mighty acts included the exodus from Egypt, the miracles by the Red Sea, and the conquest of the land. revive . . . make it known. Habakkuk prayed for God's renewed involvement in Israel. In the midst of the years. This was a way of calling for a quick response.

3:4 the hiding place of His power. God reveals evidence of His power, but its totality and greatness remain hidden.

3:8 rivers . . . Sea. The Lord had divided the Red Sea and the Jordan River for His people to cross (Ex 14:26–15:5 ; Jos 3:14–17 ). chariots of salvation. The appearance of the Lord was for the purpose of bringing deliverance to His people.

3:16 I must wait quietly for the day of distress. The prophet encouraged the godly not to be anxious in adversity.

3:17 God and Politics— Living in this physical, time bound reality we see only a small portion of what God created. It is the bigger part of creation we need to be aware of and try to understand. We ultimately live beyond what we see and feel now. Life, as currently defined, is only that proverbial shadow of what it shall be. Our struggle is to have the vision to see beyond.

The same can be said for the political realities Habakkuk complains about. A season of failing crops isn't that much different than living a few years under the rule of an incompetent or cruel despot. It is tough and life can be severely affected, but the ultimate realities of how the world functions and how God relates to it remain unchanged.

God is a just God and will bring about justice. A period of injustice does not imply God has lost sight of what is going on or that He is losing His grip on the events of the world. He has different immediate purposes or works in a completely different timeframe. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:19 my strength. God will strengthen those who trust in Him (Ps 18:32 ,39 ). He will give those who live by faith the same confidence that a sure-footed deer has in climbing mountains.

The Book of Zephaniah

- AUTHOR: In the beginning of the book, Zephaniah traces his lineage back four generations to the godly King Hezekiah. This would make him the only prophet of royal descent. His use of the phrase “this place” in reference to Jerusalem indicates that he was probably an inhabitant of Judah’s royal city.
- TIMES: c. 630 BC
- KEY VERSES: Zep 1:14–15
- THEME: A contemporary of Jeremiah, Zephaniah was written during the reign of Josiah, one of the good kings of Judah. The book follows a fairly familiar pattern for the prophets. Judgment is pronounced on Judah as well as several surrounding nations. After the judgment of the first two chapters, the third declares a restoration process that sounds strongly encouraging.

Zephaniah 1

Day of Judgment on Judah

<sup>1</sup> THE WORD of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah:

From the face of the earth [in judgment],” says the LORD.

I will consume and sweep away the birds of the air
And the fish of the sea,
And the stumbling blocks (idols) along with the wicked;
And I will cut off and destroy man from the face of the earth,” declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> “I will also stretch out My hand [in judgment] against Judah
‡

And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
And I will cut off and destroy the remnant of Baal from this place,

And the names and remembrance of the idolatrous priests along with the [false] priests,

<sup>5</sup> And those who bow down and worship the host of heaven
[the sun, the moon, and the stars] on their housetops ‡

And those who bow down and swear [oaths] to [and pretend to worship] the LORD and [yet also] swear by [the pagan god called] Milcom [god of the Ammonites],

‡

And those who have not sought the LORD [as their most important need] or inquired of Him.”

<sup>7</sup> [Hush!] Be silent before the Lord GOD [there is no acceptable excuse to offer]! ‡

For the day [of the vengeance] of the LORD is near,
For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice (Judah),

He has set apart [for His use] those who have accepted His invitation [the Chaldeans who rule Babylon].  [Hab 2:20 ]

8 “Then it will come about on the day of the LORD’s sacrifice

That I will punish the princes and the king’s sons
And all who are clothed in [lavish] foreign apparel [reflecting their paganism].  [Num 15:38 , 39 ]

9 “On that day I will also punish all those who leap over the temple threshold,

Who fill their [pagan] lord’s temple with violence and deceit.

10 “On that day,” declares the LORD, ‡

“There will be the sound of crying from the Fish (Damascus) Gate [in the northern wall of Jerusalem where invaders enter]

And wailing from the Second Quarter [of the city],

And a loud crash from the hills.

11 “Wail [in anguish], you inhabitants of the Mortar (Valley of Siloam), ‡

For all the merchants of Canaan will be silenced and destroyed;

All who weigh out silver will be cut off.

12 “It will come about at that time ‡

That I will search Jerusalem with lamps

And I will punish the men

Who [like old wine] are stagnant in spirit,

Who say in their hearts,

‘The LORD will not do good, nor will He do evil.’

13 “Furthermore, their wealth will become plunder ‡

And their houses a desolation.

Yes, they will build houses but not live in them,

And plant vineyards but not drink their wine.”  [Deut 28:30 , 39 ; Amos 5:11 , 12 ]

14 The great [judgment] day of the LORD is near, ‡ Near and coming very quickly.

Listen! The [voice of the] day of the LORD!

The warrior cries out bitterly [unable to fight or to flee].

<sup>15</sup> That day is a day of [the outpouring of the] wrath [of God], ‡
A day of trouble and distress,
A day of destruction and devastation,
A day of darkness and gloom,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,  [Jer 30:7; Joel 2:11; Amos 5:18 ]

<sup>16</sup> A day of trumpet and the battle cry [of invaders] ‡
Against the fortified cities
And against the high corner towers (battlements).

<sup>17</sup>. I will bring distress on men ‡
So that they will walk like the blind [unable to find a way of escape],
Because they have sinned against the LORD;
Their blood will be poured out like dust [and trampled underfoot],
And their flesh like dung.

<sup>18</sup> Neither their silver nor their gold ‡
Will be able to rescue them
On the day of the LORD's indignation and wrath.
And the whole earth will be consumed
In the fire of His jealous wrath,
For He shall make a full and complete end,
Indeed a terrifying one,
Of all the inhabitants of the earth.  [Luke 21:35, 36; 2 Pet 3:10–13. ]

Judgments on Judah's Enemies

O nation without shame,

The day passes like the chaff [whirled by the wind]—
Before the burning and fierce anger of the LORD comes upon
you,

Before the day of the wrath of the LORD comes upon you.

<sup>3</sup> Seek the LORD [search diligently for Him and regard Him as the foremost necessity of your life], ‡

All you humble of the land

Who have practiced His ordinances and have kept His commandments;

Seek righteousness, seek humility [regard them as vital].

Perhaps you will be hidden [and pardoned and rescued]

In the day of the LORD's anger.

<sup>4</sup> For [this is the fate of the Philistines:] Gaza will be abandoned ‡

And Ashkelon a desolation;

[The people of] Ashdod will be driven out at noon [in broad daylight]

And Ekron will be uprooted and destroyed.

The nation of the Cherethites [in Philistia]!

The word of the LORD is against you,

O Canaan, land of the Philistines;

I will destroy you

So that no inhabitant will be left.

<sup>6</sup> So the [depopulated] seacoast shall be pastures, ‡

With [deserted] meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

To the remnant of the house of Judah;

They will pasture [their flocks] on it.

In the [deserted] houses of Ashkelon [in Philistia] they [of Judah] will lie down and rest in the evening,

For the LORD their God will care for them;

And restore their fortune [permitting them to occupy the land].  [Is 14:29–31; Amos 1:6–8 ]

And the revilings of the sons of Ammon,

With which they have taunted My people

And become arrogant against their territory [by violating Israel's boundary and trying to seize its land].

<sup>9</sup> “Therefore, as I live,” declares the LORD of hosts,‡
The God of Israel,
“Moab will in fact become like Sodom
And the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah,
A land possessed by nettles and salt pits,
And a perpetual desolation.
The remnant of My people will plunder them
And what is left of My nation will inherit them [as their own].”

<sup>10</sup> This they shall have in return for their pride, because they have taunted and become arrogant against the people of the LORD of hosts.‡

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will be terrifying and awesome to them, for He will starve all the gods of the earth; and all the coastlands of the nations will bow down and worship Him, everyone from his own place.  [Joel 2:11 ; Zeph 1:4 ; 3:9 ]‡

<sup>13</sup> And the LORD will stretch out His hand against the north‡
And destroy Assyria,
And He will make Nineveh a desolation [a wasteland],
Parched as the desert.  [Is 10:12 ; Nah 1:1 ]

All the animals which range in herds;
Both the pelican and the short-eared owl
Will roost on the top of Nineveh’s pillars.
Birds will sing in the window,
Desolation will be on the threshold;
For He has uncovered the cedar paneling.

<sup>15</sup> This is the joyous city‡
Which dwells carelessly [feeling so secure],
Who says in her heart,
“I am, and there is no one besides me.”
What a desolation she has become,
A lair for [wild] animals!
Everyone who passes by her will hiss [in scorn]
And wave his hand in contempt.  [Is 10:5–34 ; 47:8 , 10 ]

Zephaniah 3

Woe to Jerusalem and the Nations

<sup>1</sup> WOE (JUDGMENT is coming) to her who is rebellious and defiled,

The tyrannical city [Jerusalem]!

She accepted no correction.

She did not trust in the LORD [but trusted her own power];

She did not draw near to her God [but to the pagan gods of Baal or Molech].

<sup>3</sup>. Her officials within her are roaring lions; ‡

Her judges are [as hungry as] the wolves at evening,

They leave nothing for the morning.

Her priests have profaned the sanctuary;

They have done violence to the law [by pretending their word is God's word].  [Jer 23:11; Ezek 22:26; Hos 9:7 ]

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is righteous within her; ‡

He will do no injustice.

Every morning He brings His justice to light;

He does not fail.

But the unjust person knows no shame.

<sup>6</sup> “I [the LORD] have cut off and destroyed nations [as a warning to Judah];

Their corner towers (battlements) are in ruins.

I have made their streets desolate

So that no one passes by;

Their cities are destroyed

So that there is no man, there is no inhabitant.

<sup>7</sup> “I said, ‘Most certainly you will [reverently] fear Me; ‡

Accept correction.’

So Jerusalem’s dwelling will not be cut off

In accordance with all that I have appointed concerning her [punishment],

But they were eager [even rising early] to make all their deeds corrupt.  [Jer 7:13 ]

8 “Therefore [you of the godly remnant of Judah, patiently] wait for Me,” declares the LORD,‡ “[Wait] for the day when I rise up as a witness [against the nations].

For it is My decision and My right to gather the nations,
To assemble kingdoms,
To pour out on them My indignation,
All [the heat of] My burning anger;
For [in that day] all the earth shall be consumed
By the fire of My zeal.

9 “Then I will give to the peoples [clear and pure speech from] purified lips [which reflect their purified hearts],‡

That all of them may call on the name of the LORD,
To serve Him shoulder to shoulder (united).

10 “From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia‡
My worshipers, [the descendants of] My dispersed ones,
Will bring My offerings.

11 “On that day you [Israel] will feel no shame‡
Because of all your acts
By which you have rebelled and sinned against Me;
Then I will remove from among you
Your rejoicing ones who delight in their pride;
And you will never again behave arrogantly
On My holy mountain [Mount Zion].

A Remnant of Israel

12 “But I will leave among you‡
A humble and lowly people,
And they will take refuge and trust confidently in the name of the LORD.

13 “The remnant of Israel will do no wrong‡
Nor speak lies,
Nor will a deceitful tongue
Be found in their mouths;
For they will eat and lie down
With no one to make them tremble and feel afraid.”

Shout in triumph, O Israel!

Rejoice, be in high spirits and glory with all your heart,
O Daughter of Jerusalem [in that day]!

He has cleared away your enemies.

The King of Israel, even the LORD [Himself], is in your midst;

You will no longer fear disaster.

<sup>16</sup> In that day it will be said to Jerusalem: ‡

“Do not be afraid, O Zion;

Do not let your hands fall limp.

A Warrior who saves.

He will rejoice over you with joy;

He will be quiet in His love [making no mention of your past sins],

He will rejoice over you with shouts of joy.

<sup>18</sup> “I will gather those [Israelites in captivity] who grieve about the appointed feasts— ‡

They came from you, [O Zion];

On whom the reproach [of exile] is a burden.

With all your oppressors;

I will save the lame

And gather the scattered,

And I will turn their shame into praise and renown

In every land [where they have suffered].  [Mic 4:6, 7 ]

<sup>20</sup> “At that time I will bring you in, ‡

Yes, at the time I gather you together;

For I will make you a name and a praise

Among all the peoples of the earth

When I restore your fortunes [and freedom] before your eyes,”

Says the LORD.

Annotations for Zephaniah

1:1 Zephaniah means “Hidden in the Lord,” a name that relates to the principal message the prophet presented (2:3). The names of the prophets were often significantly associated with the message that God gave them to present to the people.

1:2–3 I will completely consume and sweep away all things. The message of Zephaniah begins with a pronouncement of universal judgment (Ge 6–8). These words not only introduce the particular judgment that would be pronounced upon Judah (v. 4), but they also speak of the final judgment that will usher in the kingdom of God on earth (Rev 20:11–15).

1:4–6 I will cut off and destroy the remnant of Baal. Baal worship and its evils had led to the destruction of Israel and its capital Samaria in 722 BC. Likewise, Baal worship and its associations would lead to the destruction of Judah and its capital, Jerusalem, in 586 BC.

1:7 Be silent. This prophetic call for silence was for solemn preparation for the horror of divine wrath (Hab 2:20; Zec 2:13). sacrifice. The people of God were expected to prepare sacrifices for the Lord as acts of contrition and celebration. But rebels, scofflaws, idolaters, and apostates would themselves become God’s sacrifice.

1:8–9 foreign apparel. This suggests two things: (1) acts of greed and extortion against the populace, amassing funds for exotic clothing; (2) participation in foreign religious rites associated with exotic clothing. leap over the temple threshold. This may refer to a pagan practice like the one mentioned in 1 Samuel 5:5. The priests of Dagon would not step on the doorway of the temple to Dagon because the hands and the head of Dagon had fallen there.

1:12–13 The LORD will not do good, nor will He do evil. The complacency of the wicked people led them to believe that God is similarly complacent. Foolishly these people believed that the Lord would be inactive, neither blessing nor cursing, neither benefiting nor punishing His people.

1:17–18 like the blind. God’s judgment would be so sudden and so overwhelming that the survivors would be in a state of shock, stumbling around in the dark.

2:1–3 you will be hidden. Zephaniah used a play on words with the meaning of his own name, “Hidden in the Lord.” Even in the midst of the most calamitous of judgment scenes, the mercy and grace of the Lord is still available to a repentant people.

2:4–5 Gaza . . . Ashkelon . . . Ashdod . . . Ekron. The focus of the book moves from the description of divine judgment on Judah and Jerusalem to a description of divine judgment on the surrounding nations. The judgment begins with the nation to the west, Philistia, and its major cities.

2:11 The LORD will be terrifying and awesome to them. There may be a double meaning in these words. For the righteous people of Judah and Jerusalem, there would be a response of awe and wonder before God, who had responded to the prayer of His servant. But for the wicked there would be quite another response, one of terror and dread. all the coastlands of the nations. Not only would there be a righteous remnant in Judah, there would also be people coming to God from the nations of the earth.

2:13–15 Birds will sing in the window. The presence of birds in the ruins of Nineveh attests to the severity of the destruction announced on these people. the joyous city. The rejoicing here is ironic, seen as an act of the city’s complacency. Soon the judgment of God would descend suddenly, and the region would be useful only for herding animals.

3:3–4 officials . . . judges . . . prophets . . . priests. God had designated these people to work for righteousness, but they were more wicked than the “regular” citizens of Jerusalem. These leaders were destroying and defrauding the weak, the needy, and the helpless.

3:8 All [the heat of] My burning anger. God's response to the wickedness of Jerusalem was to declare His judgment. He would use other nations to punish the city for its rebellion.

3:8 God's Purpose in Judgment— What we don't properly understand is that judgment should lead us to a restoration or improvement in a relationship. Judgment is never announced without grace being far behind. We live with the tension of knowing God's judgment hangs over us while at the same time knowing that forgiveness is readily available to us too. Such is the message of Zephaniah.

Judgment implies a necessary purification process. You can't get the impurities out without first identifying their presence. We want to think of ourselves as pure without going through any process of purification. We want grace without judgment, but it doesn't work that way. Judgment reflects the true state of our being, namely that we are sinful and in need of grace. Often the only way to understand our reality is to go through a judgment process.

Once the judgment is accepted and the proper response is made, we fully experience God's grace. He deals with our enemies (3:15). He quiets us with His love (3:17). He removes our burdens (3:18). God stands ready to gather us back to Himself (3:19). He restores our fortunes (3:20).

The commonly held thought that the writings of the Old Testament prophets are all gloom and doom is actually myth and misnomer. There's always hope and renewal in the prophetic message. There are always opportunities for repentance, forgiveness, and restoration. God's judgment is in fact good for us because the sin in our lives needs to be brought to light in order for us to be restored to full fellowship with God. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:9–13 purified lips. One day human language will become a unifying element in the true worship of God. My worshipers. God's people would come from all nations to worship Him.

3:20 I will make you a name and a praise. Ordinarily Scripture speaks of the praise that should be brought to God. Here we find the praise that God will bring to His people. Says the LORD. This is a solemn vow of God to do what He has promised. Zephaniah begins and ends with the strong assertion that the Lord is speaking. The implication is clear: "Listen and live!"

The Book of # Haggai

- ▶ AUTHOR: The authorship of the book is virtually uncontested as Haggai's name is mentioned nine times. Haggai is known only from this book and two other references to him in Ezra 5:1 and 6:14. Haggai returned from Babylon with the remnant and may well have been one of the few people who could remember the former temple before its destruction. Haggai was therefore very instrumental in the rebuilding of the temple.
- ▶ TIMES: c. 520 BC
- ▶ KEY VERSES: Hag 1:7–8
- ▶ THEME: Haggai is the first of the postexilic prophets, addressing the immediate problem of the rebuilding of the temple. The people had returned about 20 years earlier, but apathy and opposition were keeping the work from being completed. Haggai's concern is that neglect of the temple is a symptom of a bigger problem. God has dropped out of the Israelites' sight as a priority. The people are more concerned with building their materialistic lifestyles than they are with their relationship with God.

Haggai Begins Temple Building

<sup>1</sup> IN THE second year of Darius the king [of Persia], on the first day of the sixth month (Aug 29, 520 B.C. ), the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘These people say, “The time has not come that the LORD’s house (temple) should be rebuilt.” ’ ”  [Ezra 1:1–6; 4:1–6, 24; 5:1–3 ]

<sup>5</sup> Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, “Consider your ways and thoughtfully reflect on your conduct!” ‡

<sup>6</sup> “You have planted much, but you harvest little; you eat, but you do not have enough; you drink, but you do not have enough to be intoxicated; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm enough; and he who earns wages earns them just to put them in a bag with holes in it [because God has withheld His blessing].” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Consider your ways and thoughtfully reflect on your conduct!

<sup>8</sup> “Go up to the hill country, bring lumber and rebuild My house (temple), that I may be pleased with it and be glorified,” says the LORD [accepting it as done for My glory].

<sup>9</sup> “You look for much [harvest], but it comes to little; and even when you bring that home, I blow it away. Why?” says the LORD of hosts. “Because of My house, which lies in ruins while each of you runs to his own house [eager to enjoy it].” ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Therefore, because of you [that is, your sin and disobedience] the heavens withhold the dew and the earth withholds its produce.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people [who had returned from exile], listened carefully and obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, since the LORD their God had sent him. And the people [reverently] feared the LORD. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's message to the people saying, " 'I am with you,' declares the LORD." ‡

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, ‡

Haggai 2

The Builders Encouraged

<sup>1</sup> ON THE twenty-first day of the seventh month (Oct 17, 520 B.C. , the second year of Darius king of Persia), the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

<sup>4</sup> 'But now be courageous, Zerubbabel,' declares the LORD, 'be courageous also, Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and be courageous, all you people of the land,' declares the LORD, 'and work; for I am with you,' declares the LORD of hosts. ‡

<sup>5</sup> 'As for the promise which I made with you when you came out of Egypt, My Spirit stands [firm and immovable] and continues with you; do not fear!' ‡

<sup>6</sup> "For thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Once more, in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land.  [Heb 12:26 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> 'I will shake all the nations; and they will come with the desirable and precious things of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory and splendor,’ says the LORD of hosts.  [Is 60:5; Matt 2:1–12 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine,’ declares the LORD of hosts.

<sup>9</sup> ‘The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘and in this place I shall give [the ultimate] peace and prosperity,’ declares the LORD of hosts.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month (Dec 18, 520 B.C. ), in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>12</sup> ‘If a man carries meat that is holy [because it has been offered in sacrifice to God] in the fold of his garment, and he touches bread, or cooked food, or wine, or oil, or any [kind of] food with this fold, does what he touches become holy [dedicated exclusively to God’s service]? ’ ” And the priests answered, “No!” [Holiness is not transferrable.]

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai said, “If one who is [ceremonially] unclean because of [contact with] a corpse touches any of these [articles of food], will it be unclean?” And the priests answered, “It will be unclean.” [Ceremonial uncleanness, like sin, is infectious.] ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai answered, “‘So is this people. And so is this nation before Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there [on the altar] is unclean [because they who offer it are unclean]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> from that time when one came to a grain heap expecting twenty measures, there would be only ten; and when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures, there would be only twenty. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘I struck you and the work of your hands with scorching wind, mildew, and hail; yet you did not come back to Me,’ declares the LORD. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Is the seed still in the barn? As to the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree—they have not produced. Yet from this day on I will bless you [in the harvest of your crops].’ ” ‡

<sup>20</sup> And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month (Dec 18, 520 B.C. ), saying,

the heavens and the earth.  [Hag 2:6; Matt 1:12, 13 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘I will [in the distant future] overthrow the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of the kingdoms of the [ungodly] nations; and I will overthrow the chariots and those who ride in them, and the horses and their riders will go down, every one by the sword of his brother [annihilating one another].  [Dan 2:34, 35, 44, 45; Rev 19:11–21 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup>‘On that day,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘I will take you, Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, My servant,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will make you [through the Messiah, your descendant] like a signet ring, for I have chosen you [as the one with whom to renew My covenant to David’s line],’ ” declares the LORD of hosts.  [2 Sam 7:12, 16 ] ‡

Annotations for Haggai

1:2 The time has not come. The people had decided that rebuilding the Lord's dwelling among His people was not important.

[1:4 your \[expensive\] paneled houses.](#) Those who wanted to make their houses elaborate installed wood panels. The people of Haggai's time were making their homes elegant, rivaling royal residences and the holy temple itself. But they still did not feel that the "time was right" to begin working on the renewed temple. While this verse is not a blanket condemnation of elegant living among God's people, it certainly calls for a re-evaluation of priorities.

1:8 that I may be pleased with it. God's joy in the temple is related to His pleasure in the people who would worship Him there. be glorified. Clearly God does not need to receive more glory (Ps 24:7–10); however, He gladly receives the adoration of His people.

1:13 I am with you. God's promise to Moses was, "Certainly I will be with you" (Ex 3:12 ). God's promise to the people of Judah was that the name of the Coming One would be Immanuel, meaning "God is with us" (Isa 7:14 ). Here God repeated the same message of comfort and encouragement.

2:3 this house \(temple\) in its former glory. The temple of Solomon was one of the wonders of the ancient world (1Ki 6 ). The older temple would have loomed large and magnificent, far outstripping the present structure. So even though the building was completed, there may have been the sense among some of the people that it was "as nothing."

2:6 I am going to shake the heavens. This is another way of speaking of the day of the Lord. The purpose of the day of the Lord is to prepare the earth for the glorious reign of Jesus Christ on earth (Mt 24:29 ; Rev 6:12–17 ).

[2:9 I shall give \[the ultimate\] peace.](#) Peace includes good health, well-being, and an abundant life. The term speaks of everything being as it ought to be.

2:12 does what he touches become holy. Since the role of the priest was to interpret God's law, it was reasonable that questions on holiness should be addressed to them. Haggai asked whether holiness could be transferred by contact. The answer was no.

2:13–14 It will be unclean. The priests were asked if a religiously unclean person, someone who had touched a corpse, could contaminate someone else by touch. The answer was yes (Nu 19:11–13 ). The people had worked hard to rebuild the temple, only to be told that their worship would be unacceptable in the new temple. The existence of the temple itself guaranteed nothing. The hearts of the people had to be in harmony with the sacrifices being made.

2:23 a signet ring. This was an item of great value in the ancient world. The owner used it much like we use our personal signature on checks or other important documents. God used this imagery to indicate that Zerubbabel was in His hand, that he was highly valued, and that he represented God's authority in his leadership of the people. Even though the people had been told they were still unclean in God's eyes (2:10–14 ), their leader Zerubbabel was encouraged to guide them through those spiritually trying times.

The Book of Zechariah

- AUTHOR: The universal testimony of the Jewish and Christian tradition affirms Zechariah as the author of the entire book. Like Jeremiah and Ezekiel, he was of priestly lineage and was a young man when he was called to prophesy. According to Jewish tradition, Zechariah was a member of the Great Synagogue that collected and preserved the canon of revealed Scripture. He was born in Babylon and brought to Palestine by his grandfather when the Jewish exiles returned under Zerubbabel and Joshua the high priest.
- TIMES: 520–470 BC
- KEY VERSE: Zec 9:9
- THEME: Zechariah's writings were designed to encourage the Israelites and inspire energy, identity, and vision during the rebuilding of the temple. Like Isaiah, Daniel, and Ezekiel, his prophecies are characterized by visions of God and the future. In this context, many would describe the book to be apocalyptic with similarities to Revelation. Probably, more than any of the other books, Zechariah makes concrete predictions about Christ, which are fulfilled in the New Testament. He also makes some startling predictions about Israel in the end times that have already seen fulfillment.

A Call to Repentance

<sup>3</sup> “Therefore say to the Jews, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts (armies), ‘Return to Me,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘and I shall return to you.’ ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Repent [that is, change your way of thinking] and return now from your evil way [of life] and from your evil deeds.’ ’ But they did not listen or pay attention to Me,’ declares the LORD. [2 Kin 17:13; Is 45:22; Jer 18:11; Ezek 33:11] ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

<sup>6</sup> “But did not My words (warnings) and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said, ‘As the LORD of hosts planned to do to us [in discipline and punishment], in accordance with our ways and our deeds, so has He dealt with us.’ ” ‡

Patrol of the Earth

<sup>7</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (Feb 15, 519 B.C.), which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of [the reign of] Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows:

<sup>8</sup> In the night I saw [a vision] and behold, a Man was riding on a red horse, and it stood among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine; and behind Him were horses: red, sorrel (reddish-brown), and white. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then I said, “O my lord, what are these?” And the angel who was speaking with me said, “I will show you what these are.”

<sup>10</sup> And the Man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, “These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth and patrol it.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> And the men on the horses answered the Angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees and said, “We have gone throughout the earth [patrolling it] and behold, all the earth sits at rest [in peace and free from war].” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD said, “O LORD of hosts, how long will You withhold mercy and compassion from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against which You have had indignation and anger these seventy years [of the Babylonian captivity]?” ‡

<sup>13</sup> And the LORD answered the angel who was speaking with me with gracious and comforting words. ‡

<sup>14</sup> So the angel who was speaking with me said to me, “Proclaim, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I am jealous [with a burning, fiery passion] for Jerusalem and for Zion [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine] with a great jealousy.”’ ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Therefore, thus says the LORD, “I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy and compassion. My house shall be built in it,” says the LORD of hosts, “and a measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.”’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then I looked up, and saw four horns (powers)!

<sup>19</sup> So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these?” And he answered me, “These are the horns [the powerful Gentile nations] that have scattered Judah (the Southern Kingdom), Israel (the Northern Kingdom), and Jerusalem (capital city of Judah).” ‡

<sup>21</sup> I asked, “What are these [horns and craftsmen] coming to do?” And he said, “These are the horns (powers) that have scattered Judah so that no man raised up his head [because of the suffering inflicted by the Gentile nations]. But these craftsmen have come to terrify them and make them panic, and throw down the horns of the nations who have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah in order to scatter it.” ‡

Zechariah 2

God's Favor to Zion

<sup>2</sup> So I said, “Where are you going?” And he said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide it is and how long it is.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> And behold, the angel who was speaking with me was going out, and another angel was coming out to meet him,

<sup>4</sup> and he said to the second angel, “Run, speak to that young man, saying, ‘Jerusalem will be inhabited [like villages] without walls [spreading out into the open country] because of the great number of people and livestock in it.’ ‡

<sup>8</sup> For thus says the LORD of hosts, “After glory He has sent Me against the nations which plunder you—for he who touches you, touches the apple of His eye. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Behold, I will wave my hand over them and they shall become plunder for their own slaves. Then you shall know (recognize, understand fully) that the LORD of hosts has sent Me. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Sing for joy and rejoice, O Daughter of Zion; for behold, I am coming, and I will dwell in your midst,” declares the LORD. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day and shall be My people. And I will dwell in your midst, and you shall know (recognize, understand fully) that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you.  [Is 2:3; Mic 4:2 ] ‡

Joshua, the High Priest

<sup>2</sup> And the LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you, Satan! Even the LORD, who [now and ever] has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is this not a log snatched and rescued from the fire?”  [Jude 9 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> He spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, “Remove the filthy garments from him.” And He said to Joshua, “See, I have caused your wickedness to be taken away from you, and I will clothe and beautify you with rich robes [of forgiveness].” ‡

<sup>6</sup> And the Angel of the LORD [solemnly and earnestly] admonished Joshua, saying,

<sup>7</sup> “Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘If you will walk in My ways [that is, remain faithful] and perform My service, then you will also govern My house and have charge of My courts, and I will give you free access [to My presence] among these who are standing here.’ ‡

The Branch

<sup>8</sup> ‘Now listen, Joshua, the high priest, you and your colleagues who are sitting in front of you—indeed they are men who are a symbol [of what is to come] —for behold, I am going to bring in My servant the Branch [in Messianic glory].  [Is 4:2 ; Jer 23:5 ; 33:15 ; Zech 6:12 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘For behold, the stone which I have set before Joshua; on that one stone are seven eyes (symbolizing infinite intelligence, omniscience). Behold, I will engrave an inscription on it,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘and I will remove the wickedness and guilt of this land in a single day.  [2 Chr 16:9 ; Jer 50:20 ; Zech 4:10 ] ‡

Zechariah 4

The Golden Lampstand and Olive Trees

<sup>1</sup> AND THE angel who was speaking with me came back and awakened me, like a man who is awakened out of his sleep. ‡

<sup>2</sup> He said to me, “What do you see?” I said, “I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with its bowl [for oil] on the top of it and its seven lamps on it with seven spouts belonging to each of the lamps which are on the top of it.  [Matt 5:14 , 16 ; Luke 12:35 ; Phil 2:15 ; Rev 1:20 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who was speaking with me answered me, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said, “No, my lord.”

<sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, “This [continuous supply of oil] is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel [prince of Judah], saying, ‘Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit [of whom the oil is a symbol],’ says the LORD of hosts. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘What are you, O great mountain [of obstacles]? Before Zerubbabel [who will rebuild the temple] you will become a plain (insignificant)! And he will bring out the capstone [of the new temple] with loud shouts of “Grace, grace to it!” ’ ”  [Ezra 4:1–5 , 24 ; Is 40:4 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>9</sup> “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundations of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know (recognize, understand fully) that the LORD of hosts has sent me [as His messenger] to you. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Who [with reason] despises the day of small things (beginnings)? For these seven [eyes] shall rejoice when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. They are the eyes of the LORD which roam throughout the earth.”  [Rev 5:6 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> And a second time I said to him, “What are these two olive branches which are beside the two golden pipes by which the golden oil is emptied?”

<sup>13</sup> And he answered me, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said, “No, my lord.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he said, “These are the two sons of fresh oil [Joshua the high priest and Zerubbabel the prince of Judah] who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth [as His anointed ones].”  [Rev 11:4 ] ‡

The Flying Scroll

<sup>2</sup> And the angel said to me, “What do you see?” And I answered, “I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits (thirty feet) and its width is ten cubits (fifteen feet).”

<sup>3</sup> Then he said to me, “This is the curse that is going out over the face of the whole land; for everyone who steals will be cut off according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears [oaths falsely] shall be cut off according to the writing on the other side.  [Is 24:6; Mal 3:8, 9 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> “I will send the curse out,” declares the LORD of hosts, “and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name; and it will spend the night in that house and consume it, both its timber and its stones.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and said to me, “Now look up and see what this is going forth.”

<sup>6</sup> And I said, “What is it?” And he said, “This is the ephah (grain basket) going forth. This,” he continued, “is their appearance throughout the land  [Amos 8:5 ]

<sup>7</sup> (and behold, a [round, flat] lead cover was lifted up); and there sat a woman inside the ephah.”

<sup>8</sup> Then he said, “This is Wickedness (Godlessness)!” And he threw her back down into the middle of the ephah and threw the lead cover on its opening.

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked up, and there were two women coming out with the wind in their wings; and they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens.

<sup>10</sup> I said to the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they taking the ephah?”

<sup>11</sup> And he said to me, “To the land of Shinar (Babylon) to build a temple for her; and when it is prepared, she shall be set there on her own pedestal.” ‡

The Four Chariots

<sup>4</sup> Then I said to the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?” ‡

<sup>6</sup> with the chariot with the black horses going toward the north country; then the one with the white horses follows after them [because there are two northern powers to overcome], and the chariot with the dappled horses goes toward the south country.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> When the strong horses went out, they were eager to patrol the earth. And the LORD said, “Go, patrol the earth.” So they patrolled the earth [watching and protecting it]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then He called out to me and said to me, “See, those who are going to the north country have quieted My Spirit [of wrath] in the north country.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> The word of the LORD also came to me, saying,

<sup>10</sup> “Take an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah [as representatives]; and you go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have arrived from Babylon.

The Symbolic Crowns

<sup>12</sup> “Then say to Joshua, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Behold (look, keep in sight, watch), a Man (Messiah) whose name is Branch, for He shall branch out from His place (Israel, the Davidic line); and He shall build the [ultimate] temple of the LORD.  [Is 4:2 ; Jer 23:5 ; 33:15 ; Zech 3:8 ] ‡

13 “Yes, [you are to build a temple of the LORD, but] it is He who shall build the [ultimate] temple of the LORD, and He shall bear the honor and majesty [as the only begotten of the Father] and sit and rule on His throne. And He shall be a Priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between the two offices [Priest and King].” ’  [John 1:14 ; 17:5 ; Heb 2:9 ] ‡

14 “Now the crown shall become a reminder in the temple of the LORD to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.  [Matt 10:41 ] ‡

15 “And those who are far away will come and [help] build the temple of the LORD.” Then you shall know [without any doubt] that the LORD of hosts sent me (Zechariah) to you. And it will come about if you will diligently obey the [voice of the] LORD your God. ‡

Hearts like Flint

1 IN THE fourth year of [the reign of] King Darius [of Persia], the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev (Dec 7, 518 B.C. ).

2 Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech and their men to seek the favor of the LORD,

3.speaking to the priests who belong to the house of the LORD of hosts and to the prophets, saying, “[Now that I am returned from exile] shall I weep in the fifth month [mourning the destruction of the temple], and fast as I have done these many years [in Babylon]?” ‡

4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me (Zechariah), saying,

5.“Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these seventy years [that you were in exile], was it actually for Me that you fasted?’ ‡

6 ‘When you eat and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves and do you not drink for yourselves [to satisfy your own needs]?’

7 ‘Should you not hear the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and prosperous along with her cities around her, and the South (the Negev) and the foothills were inhabited?’ ” ‡

8 Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“Thus has the LORD of hosts said, ‘Dispense true justice and practice kindness and compassion, to each other;’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> and do not oppress or exploit the widow or the fatherless, the stranger or the poor; and do not devise or even imagine evil in your hearts against one another.’ ‡

<sup>12</sup> “They made their hearts [hard] like flint, so that they could not hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “And just as He called and they would not listen, so they called and I would not listen,” says the LORD of hosts; ‡

<sup>14</sup> “but I scattered them with a storm wind among all the nations whom they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after they had gone, so that no one passed through or returned, for they [by their sins] had made the pleasant land desolate and deserted.’ ” ‡

The Coming Peace and Prosperity of Zion

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE word of the LORD of hosts came [to me], saying,

<sup>3</sup> “Thus says the LORD, ‘I shall return to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the [faithful] City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts will be called the Holy Mountain.’ ‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its streets.’

<sup>6</sup> “Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘If it is difficult in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days [in which this comes to pass], will it also be difficult in My sight?’ declares the LORD of hosts.  [Gen 18:14; Jer 32:17, 27 ; Luke 18:27.] ‡

7 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Behold, I am going to save My people from the east country and from the west,  [Is 43:5, 6 ] ‡

8 and I will bring them home and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God in truth (faithfulness) and in righteousness.’ ‡

9 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Let your hands be strong, you who in these days hear these words from the mouths of the prophets who, on the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, foretold that the temple might be rebuilt. ‡

10 ‘For before those days there were no wages for man or animal; nor was there any peace or success for him who went out or came in because of his enemies, for I set all men against one another. ‡

11 ‘But now [in this time since you began to build] I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,’ declares the LORD of hosts.

12 ‘For there the seed will produce peace and prosperity; the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will produce its increase, and the heavens will give their dew. And I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit and possess all these things. ‡

13 ‘And as you have been a curse among the nations, O house of Judah (Southern Kingdom) and house of Israel (Northern Kingdom), so I will save you, that you may be a blessing. Fear not; let your hands be strong.’  [Jer 22:8, 9 ] ‡

14 “For thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Just as I planned to do harm to you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘and I did not relent, ‡

15 so I have again planned in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear!

16 ‘These are the things which you should do: speak the truth with one another; judge with truth and pronounce the judgment that brings peace in [the courts at] your gates.  [Eph 4:25 ] ‡

17 ‘And let none of you devise or even imagine evil in your heart against another, and do not love lying or half-truths; for all these things I hate,’ declares the LORD.” ‡

18 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me (Zechariah), saying,

19 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘The fast of the fourth [month to mourn the breaching of Jerusalem’s walls], the fast of the fifth [month to mourn the temple’s destruction], the fast of the seventh [month to mourn Gedaliah’s assassination], and the fast of the tenth [month to mourn the siege of

Jerusalem] will become times of joy and gladness and cheerful feasts for the house of Judah; so [to bring this about] love truth and peace.'  [Jer 39:2; 2 Kin 25:1, 2, 8, 25] ‡

20 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'It will come to pass that peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will come [to Jerusalem].

21 'The inhabitants of one [city] will go to another, saying, "Let us go at once to ask the favor of the LORD and to seek the LORD of hosts. I will go also." ‡

22 'So many peoples and powerful nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem and to ask the LORD for His favor.' ‡

23 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'In those days ten men [as representatives] from all the nations will grasp the robe of a Jew, saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you." ' " ‡

Zechariah 9

Prophecies against Neighboring Nations

1 THE ORACLE (a burdensome message) of the word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach [in Syria], with Damascus as its resting place (for the eyes of men, especially of all the tribes of Israel, are toward the LORD), [Nah 1:1] ‡

2 And Hamath also, which borders on it (Damascus), ‡
Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

3 For Tyre built herself an [impregnable] stronghold [on an island offshore],

And she has heaped up silver like dust
And gold like the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her ‡
And throw her wealth into the sea;
And Tyre will be devoured by fire.

5 Ashkelon will see it and fear;
Gaza will writhe in pain,
And Ekron, for her hope and expectation, has been ruined.
The king will perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

<sup>6</sup> And a mongrel race will live in Ashdod,‡
And I will put an end to the pride and arrogance of the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup> I will take the blood from their mouths
And their detestable things from between their teeth [those repulsive, idolatrous sacrifices eaten with the blood].
Then they too will be a remnant for our God,
And be like a clan in Judah,
And Ekron will be like one of the Jebusites.

<sup>8</sup> Then I will camp around My house [as a guard] because of an army,‡
Because of him who passes by and returns;
And no oppressor will again overrun them (Israel),
For now My eyes are upon them [providentially protecting them].

Shout aloud, O Daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, your King (Messianic King) is coming to you;
He is righteous and endowed with salvation,
Humble and unassuming [in submission to the will of the Father] and riding on a donkey,
Upon a colt, the foal of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup> I will cut off the [war] chariot from Ephraim‡
And the [war] horse from Jerusalem,
And the bow of war will be cut off.
And He will speak [words of] peace to the nations,
And His dominion shall be from sea to sea [absolutely endless],
And from the River [Euphrates] to the ends of the earth. [ [Ps
72:8.](#) ]

Salvation of Judah and Ephraim

<sup>11</sup> As for you also, because of the blood of My covenant with you [My chosen people, the covenant that was sealed with blood]‡

I have freed your prisoners from the waterless pit.  [Gen 37:24
; Ex 24:4–8; Heb 9:16. ]

<sup>12</sup> Return to the stronghold [of security and prosperity], O prisoners who have the hope; ‡
Even today I am declaring that I will restore double [your former prosperity] to you [as firstborn among nations].  [Ps 40:2; Is 40:2 ]

<sup>13</sup> For I will bend Judah as My bow,
I will fit the bow with Ephraim [as My arrow].
And I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece,
And will make you [Israel] like the sword of a warrior.

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD will be seen [hovering] over them [protecting His people], ‡
And His arrow will go forth like lightning;
And the Lord GOD will blow the trumpet
And will march in the windstorms of the south.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD of hosts shall defend and protect them;
And they will devour [the enemy] and trample down the slingstones [that have missed their mark],
And they will drink [of victory] and be boisterous as with wine;
And they shall be filled like sacrificial bowls [used to catch the blood],
Drenched like the corners of the [sacrificial] altar.

<sup>16</sup> And the LORD their God shall save them on that day ‡
As the flock of His people;
For they are like the [precious] jewels of a crown,
Displayed and glittering in His land.

<sup>17</sup> For how great is God's goodness and how great is His beauty! And how great [He will make Israel's] goodliness and [Israel's] beauty! ‡
Grain and new wine will make the young men and virgins flourish.

Zechariah 10

God Will Bless Judah and Ephraim

<sup>1</sup> ASK FOR rain from the LORD at the time of the spring rain. ‡

It is the LORD who makes the thunder clouds;
And He will give them showers of rain, grass in the field to everyone.

(emptiness, worthlessness), ‡

And the diviners see lying visions
And tell false dreams;
They comfort in vain.

Therefore the people wander like sheep,
They are afflicted and suffer because there is no shepherd.

<sup>3</sup>“My anger is kindled against the shepherds [who are not true shepherds], ‡

And I shall punish the male goats (leaders);
For the LORD of hosts has visited His flock, the house of Judah (the Southern Kingdom),
And will make them like His beautiful and majestic horse in the battle.  [Ezek 34:1–10 ]

From them the tent peg,
From them the bow of battle,
From them every ruler, all of them together.  [Jer 30:21 ]

<sup>5</sup> “They will be like mighty men ‡

Trampling down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle;

And they will fight because the LORD is with them,
And the [enemies'] riders on horses will be shamed.

<sup>6</sup> “I will strengthen the house of Judah [making it superior], ‡
And I will save the house of Joseph.

I will bring them back [and allow them to live securely],
Because I have had compassion on them.

They will be as though I had not rejected them,
For I am the LORD their God, and I will listen and answer them.

And their heart will rejoice as if from wine;
Yes, their children will see it and rejoice;

Their heart will rejoice and shout triumphantly in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> “I will whistle for them and gather them together, ‡

For I have redeemed them;
And they will increase [again] as they have increased before
[in Egypt].  [Ezek 36:10, 11 ]

9 “When I scatter them among the nations,‡
They will remember Me in far countries,
And with their children they will live and come back [to Me and the land I gave them].

10 “I will bring them (all Israel) back home again from the land of Egypt‡

And gather them from Assyria,
And I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon
[the land on the east and on the west of the Jordan]
Until no room can be found for them.

11 “And they will pass through the sea of distress and anxiety
[with the LORD leading His people, as at the Red Sea]‡

And He will strike the waves in the sea,
So that all the depths of the Nile will dry up;
And the pride of Assyria will be brought down
And the scepter [of the taskmasters] of Egypt will pass away.

12 “And I will strengthen Israel in the LORD,‡
And they will walk [and glory] in His name,” declares the LORD.

Zechariah 11

The Doomed Flock

1 OPEN YOUR doors, O Lebanon,‡
That fire may devour your cedars.

2 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen,‡
Because the magnificent trees have been destroyed;
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
For the inaccessible forest [on the steep mountainside] has come down.

3 There is a sound of the shepherds’ wail,
For their splendor (grazing land) is ruined;
There is a sound of the young lions’ roar,

For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

<sup>4</sup> Thus says the LORD my God, “Pasture the flock doomed for slaughter,

<sup>6</sup> “For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of the land,” declares the LORD; “but behold, I will cause the men to fall, each into the hand of another and into the hands of his [foreign] king. And the enemy will strike the land, and I will not rescue the people from their hand.”

<sup>7</sup> So I [Zechariah] pastured the flock doomed for slaughter, truly [as the name implies] the most miserable of sheep. And I took two [shepherd’s] staffs, the one I called Favor (Grace) and the other I called Union (Bonds); so I pastured the flock. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then I eliminated the three [incompetent, unfit] shepherds [the civil rulers, the priests, and the prophets] in one month, for I was impatient with them, and they also were tired of me and despised me.  [Jer 2:8, 26; 18:18. ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> So I said, “I will not pasture you. What is to die, let it die, and what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let the survivors devour one another’s flesh.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> So the covenant was broken on that day, and thus the most wretched of the flock who were watching me realized that it was the word of the LORD. ‡

<sup>12</sup> I said to them, “If it seems good to you, give me my wages; but if not, do not.” So they weighed out thirty pieces of silver as my wages. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Throw it to the potter [as if to the dogs]—that magnificent sum at which I am valued by them!” So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD.  [Matt 26:14, 15; 27:3–10. ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then I broke my second staff, Union, into pieces to break the brotherhood between Judah (the Southern Kingdom) and Israel (the Northern Kingdom).

<sup>15</sup> The LORD said to me, “Take again for yourself the equipment [of a shepherd, but this time] of a foolish shepherd.  [Ezek 34:2–6. ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “For behold, I am going to raise up a [false] shepherd in the land who will not care for the perishing, seek the scattered, heal the broken, or feed the healthy; but will eat the flesh of the fat ones and tear off their hoofs [to consume everything].

17. “Woe (judgment is coming) to the worthless and foolish shepherd ‡
Who deserts the flock!
The sword will strike his arm
And his right eye!
His arm shall be totally withered
And his right eye completely blinded.”  [Jer 23:1; John 10:12, 13.]

Jerusalem to Be Attacked

1 THE ORACLE (a burdensome message) of the word of the LORD concerning Israel. ‡

T hus declares the LORD who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth and forms the spirit of man within him:

2 “Behold, I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that causes reeling (staggering) to all the surrounding peoples; and when the siege is against Jerusalem, it will also be against Judah. ‡

3 “And in that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it will be severely injured. And all the nations of the earth will come and be gathered against it. ‡

4 “In that day,” declares the LORD, “I will strike every horse with panic and his rider with madness; but I will open My eyes and watch over the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the [opposing] nations with blindness. ‡

5 “Then the clans of Judah will say in their hearts, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are our strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.’

6 “In that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, and like a flaming torch among sheaves [of grain]. They will devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and on the left; and the people of Jerusalem will again live [securely] in their own place, in Jerusalem. ‡

7 “The LORD shall save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not be magnified above Judah.

<sup>8</sup> “In that day the LORD will defend the people of Jerusalem, and the one who is impaired among them in that day [of persecution] will become [strong and noble] like David; and the house of David will be like God, like the Angel of the LORD [who is] before them.

<sup>9</sup> “And in that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. ‡

10.“I will pour out on the house of David and on the people of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace (unmerited favor) and supplication. And they will look at Me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for Him as one mourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him as one who weeps bitterly over a firstborn.  [John 19:37; Rev 1:7 ] ‡

12.“The land will mourn, every family by itself; the [royal] family of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan [David’s son] by itself and their wives by themselves; ‡

<sup>13</sup> the [priestly] family of the house of Levi by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei [grandson of Levi] by itself and their wives by themselves;

<sup>14</sup> all the families that remain, each by itself, and their wives by themselves [each with an overwhelming individual regret for having blindly rejected their Messiah].

Zechariah 13

False Prophets Ashamed

<sup>1</sup> “IN THAT day a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the people of Jerusalem for [cleansing from] sin and impurity. ‡

2.“In that day,” declares the LORD of hosts, “I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will also remove the [false] prophets and the unclean spirit from the land. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “And if anyone still [appears as a prophet and falsely] prophesies, then his father and his mother who gave birth to him will say to him, ‘You shall not live, for you have spoken lies in the name of the LORD’; and his father and his mother who gave birth to him shall pierce him through when he prophesies. ‡

4.“And in that day the [false] prophets will each be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies, and they will not wear a hairy robe [of true prophets] in order to deceive, ‡

5 but he will [deny his identity and] say, ‘I am no prophet. I work the ground, because a man sold me as a slave in my youth.’ ‡

6.“And one will say to him, ‘What are these wounds between your arms?’ Then he will answer, ‘Those wounds I received in the house of my friends.’

7.“Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, ‡
And against the Man, My Associate,”
Declares the LORD of hosts.

“Strike the Shepherd so that the sheep [of the flock] may be scattered;

And I will turn My hand and stretch it out against the little ones [of the flock].  [Matt 26:31, 32. ]

8 “It will come about in all the land,” ‡

Declares the LORD,

“Two parts in it will be cut off and perish,
But the third will be left alive.  [Hos 2:23; Rom 11:5. ]

9.“And I will bring the third part through the fire, ‡

Refine them as silver is refined,
And test them as gold is tested.

They will call on My name,
And I will listen and answer them;
I will say, ‘They are My people,’
And they will say, ‘The LORD is my God.’ ”

Zechariah 14

God Will Battle Jerusalem’s Foes

1 BEHOLD, A day is coming for the LORD when the spoil taken from you (Jerusalem) will be divided in your midst. ‡

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be captured and the houses plundered and the women ravished; and half of the city will be exiled, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as when He fights on a day of battle.

<sup>4</sup> In that day His feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives, which lies before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in half from the east to the west by a very large valley, and half of the mountain will move toward the north and half of it toward the south.  [Is 64:1, 2 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> You will flee by the valley of My mountains, for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel; and you will flee just as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones (believers, angels) with Him.  [Amos 1:1; Col 3:4; 1 Thess 4:14; Jude 14, 15 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> In that day there will be no light; the glorious ones (heavenly bodies) shall be darkened.

<sup>7</sup> But it will be a unique day which is known to the LORD—not day and not night, but at evening time there will be light. ‡

<sup>8</sup> And in that day living waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea (Dead Sea) and half of them to the western sea (the Mediterranean); it will be in summer as well as in winter. ‡

God Will Be King over All

<sup>9</sup> And the LORD shall be king over all the earth; in that day the LORD shall be the only one [worshiped], and His name the only one. ‡

<sup>10</sup> All the land will be changed into a plain from Geba to Rimmon, [the Rimmon that is] south of Jerusalem; but Jerusalem will rise and remain [lifted up] on its site from Benjamin's Gate to the place of the First Gate to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses. ‡

<sup>11</sup> It will be inhabited, for there will no longer be a curse, for Jerusalem will dwell in security.  [Rev 22:3 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> Now this will be the plague with which the LORD shall strike all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongue will rot in their mouth.

<sup>13</sup> In that day a great panic and dismay from the LORD will fall on them; and they will seize one another's hand, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other. ‡

nations will be gathered together—gold and silver and garments in great abundance. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So like this plague [on men] there will be the plague on the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the livestock in those camps. ‡

<sup>17</sup> And it will be that whichever of the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain on them. ‡

<sup>18</sup> If the family of Egypt does not go up [to Jerusalem] and present themselves, then no rain will fall on them. It will be the plague with which the LORD will strike the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles). ‡

<sup>19</sup> This will be the [consequent] punishment [for the sin] of Egypt, and the [consequent] punishment [for the sin] of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles).

<sup>20</sup> In that day there will be written on the little bells on the horses, “HOLY TO THE LORD.” And the cooking pots in the LORD’s house will be [holy to the LORD] like the bowls before the altar. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Every cooking pot in [all the houses in] Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts, and all who sacrifice will come and take them and boil [their sacrifices] in them. And in that day there will no longer be a Canaanite [that is, any godless or spiritually unclean person, whether Jew or Gentile] in the house of the LORD of hosts.  [Eph 2:19–22 ] ‡

Annotations for Zechariah

1:1 Zechariah. The name means “Yahweh remembers,” emphasizing God’s faithfulness to His covenant promises and to His people.

1:3 says the LORD of hosts. The personal name translated “Lord” speaks of God’s gracious nature as He relates to His people (Ex 3:14–16); the hosts are the angelic armies that await His every command.

Return to Me. These words remind us of the depth of God’s unconditional love.

1:5–6 fathers . . . prophets. The previous generation had been overtaken by God’s judgment (Dt 28:15–68).

1:7–6:15 the word of the LORD . This section contains a sequence of eight night visions concerning Israel’s future, followed by the symbolic crowning of the high priest Joshua. Here Zechariah pursues the same end as Haggai, rebuilding the temple as the center of worship and world rule, and as a place of pilgrimage for the nations (8:20–23).

1:8 myrtle. This was an evergreen tree that was once very common in the vicinity of Jerusalem (Neh 8:15).

1:12–13 Angel of the LORD . This may be a conversation between the pre-incarnate Jesus and the first Person of the Trinity, God the Father (Ps 110:1–3). It is certainly an allusion to Jesus’ role as Intercessor.

1:15 I am very angry. Here the anger of God was against the nations that He had used to punish His unrepentant people.

1:16 a measuring line shall be stretched. A measuring line was used to make measurements in preparation for new construction. The stretching of the line was a promise that the work would begin and that the completion of the task would follow.

1:18 four horns. Animal horns were often used by poets and prophets as symbols of powerful nations and their kings (Da 7:7–8 ,24). The horns that persecuted Israel and Judah included Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and later Greece.

2:4–5 inhabited [like villages] without walls. Jerusalem will have no need for defensive fortifications because God’s presence will guarantee its safety and security. These words refer ultimately to the future Jerusalem under the rule of its glorious king (Zep 3:15–19).

2:8–9 the apple of His eye. This refers to the pupil, an endearing expression suggesting how enormously important the Hebrew people are to God because of His covenant with them. Just as we protect our eyes from even the smallest particles of dust, so God protects and cares for His people.

2:12 the holy land. Surprisingly, this phrase occurs in the Old Testament only here. The land is “holy” because of the presence of God among His believing people.

3:1 Satan. The Hebrew is literally “the Satan,” meaning “the Accuser.” The picture is not unlike that of Job 1, where Satan stands before the Lord making accusations against people who follow God.

3:3 with filthy (nauseatingly vile) garments. The high priest represented the people before God (Ex 28:29) and under no circumstances was he to become defiled or unclean (Ex 28:2 ; Lev 21:10–15). Joshua’s garments were literally “befouled with excrement.”

3:8 the Branch. Isaiah used this word and a similar one to describe the Messiah who will grow out of the root of the family of Jesse as a tender sprout shoots up from the ground (6:12 ; Isa 4:2 ; 11:1 ; 53:2). Joshua and his companions were “men wondered at” because the reinstitution of the priesthood made public God's continuing intention to fulfill His promises to His people.

4:2–3 a lampstand all of gold. This would remind people of the lampstand in the tabernacle and the temple.

4:6 but by My Spirit. The rebuilding of the temple, which had at last begun in earnest (Ezr 5:1–2 ; Hag 1:14), would be accomplished not by human strength or resources, but by the power of God's Spirit.

4:7 O great mountain. This was a figurative reference to the great obstacles the people faced in rebuilding the temple (Ezr 5:3–17). The setting of the “capstone” would mark the completion of the project. Grace, grace to it. This may be understood as a prayer for God's favor, or as a cry of admiration over the grace and beauty of the newly built temple.

4:11–14 two olive trees . . . two sons of fresh oil. These are identified as representatives of the religious and political offices in Israel, or of priest and king. Many identify the two branches with the high priest Joshua and the governor Zerubbabel.

5:4 it will . . . consume it. God's great love does not preclude the exercise of His judgment on those who violate His will. The judgment upon the disobedient would be certain and severe.

5:7–8 This is Wickedness. The woman sitting inside the ephah (basket) is a personification of sin.

6:1 chariots. In ancient times two-wheeled and four-wheeled horse-drawn carts served as vehicles for transportation and for warfare. The war chariots usually had a crew of two or three men including a driver, an archer, and a defender who used a shield to protect the others.

6:5 four spirits of the heavens. These spirits were probably angels.

6:11 make an ornate crown. This crown was to be placed on the head of Joshua the high priest.

6:12 He shall build the [ultimate] temple of the LORD . Since the restoration temple (the second temple) was already being built and would be complete by Zerubbabel (4:9), the temple referred to here may be the future temple of the messianic kingdom (Isa 2:2–4 ; Eze 40–42 ; Mic 4:1–5 ; Hag 2:7–9). The Messiah Himself will build it. The temple of Zerubbabel was a prophetic symbol of the temple that is still to come.

6:13 sit and rule . . . be a Priest. In the Messiah the two offices of king and priest will be united (Jn 1:49 ; Heb 3:1).

7:3 the house of the LORD of hosts. This refers to the temple in Jerusalem.

7:5–6 was it actually for Me that you fasted. The rhetorical question was designed to confront the people and priests with the selfish motives of their self-righteous fasting. Biblical fasting is meant to be time taken from the normal routines of preparing and eating food to express humility and dependence on God during a time of prayer. There was only one required fast in the law of Moses, the fast on the Day of Atonement (Lev 23:27).

7:9–10 Dispense true justice. Judicial decisions must be made without partiality or bias. practice kindness and compassion. Loving commitment and concern should guide our relationships with others. do not oppress. No advantage is to be taken of the helpless and less fortunate. do not devise or even imagine evil in your hearts against one another. Evil scheming against others is prohibited. Sacrifices and worship are of little interest to God if they are not accompanied by practical piety. Zechariah's four admonitions highlight the practical social concerns that many of the prophets emphasized (Isa 1:11–17 ; Hos 6:6 ; Mic 6:6–8).

8:1–3 City of Truth. This label will be valid only when the Messiah brings His righteous reign to that city. Then the land will be holy (2:12).

8:7–8 east country . . . west. These terms together represent all parts of the earth. My people . . . their God. This expression occurs in the descriptions of God's covenant relationship with His people (Ex 19:5 ; 29:45 ; Lev 26:12 ; Hos 2:23). With these words, Zechariah anticipates a renewal of God's covenant with His people (Jer 31:34 ).

8:10 no wages . . . nor was there any peace. Zechariah recounts the desperate situation in Judea before the work on the temple resumed in 520 BC (Hag 1:1 , 6 ,10–11 ; 2:16–17 ).

8:11–13 let your hands be strong. In view of God's gracious purposes and future plans for His people, they were called to be diligent in their present efforts to serve Him with sincere hearts (1Co 15:58 ).

8:16–17 judge with truth and pronounce the judgment that brings peace. Zechariah set forth the ethical obligations of a life of faith. He upheld these important values and condemned evil plans and false oaths.

8:20–23 peoples . . . will come. Here Zechariah announces a great turning of the nations to God. During the Messianic Era, a multitude of people from many cities will go to Jerusalem to "seek the LORD." These Gentiles will be included among the people of God by faith (Eph 2:13–19 ).

9:1 oracle. This word suggests that a weighty judgment must be declared.

9:7 blood from their mouths . . . detestable things from between their teeth. These phrases refer to the cessation of unlawful and idolatrous practices (Lev 17:14 ; Isa 65:4 ; 66:17 ).

9:9 Humble and unassuming . . . and riding on a donkey. This prophecy was fulfilled on the day of the triumphal entry, when Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the colt of a donkey (Mt 21:2–7 ). The donkey was the mount of princes (Jdg 5:10 ; 10:4 ) and kings (2Sa 16:1–2 ).

9:14 windstorms of the south. This description, patterned after God's appearance at Sinai (Ex 19 ), reveals God's sovereignty and power to protect His own.

9:15 they will drink. The people will be filled with drink like sacrificial basins were filled with blood, and they will be filled with meat like the corners of a sacrificial altar (Ps 110:6 ).

10:2 no shepherd. The metaphor of shepherd was often used in the ancient Middle East to represent a king or ruler (Eze 34:6–8 ,23–24 ). Here the emphasis was on the lack of spiritual leadership.

10:3 the house of Judah. God will strengthen Judah so that she can overthrow the oppressors.

10:4–5 tent peg. A peg firmly in place suggests permanence and endurance (Isa 22:23 ). bow of battle. This image pictures the strength necessary for military conquest (2Ki 13:17 ).

10:7 as if from wine. What was promised to Judah in verse 5 is here promised to Ephraim. Wine is used here as a symbol of abundant joy (Ps 104:15 ; Am 9:13 ; Jn 2:1–11 ).

10:9 They will remember Me. This phrase anticipates their turning to the Lord in repentance. will live. This implies more than mere survival. God promises spiritual life and blessing to the repentant.

10:12 I will strengthen Israel. The regathering will be accomplished by God's power as He gives strength to His people. they will walk [and glory] in His name. In the last days, Israel will return to the land as a believing nation (v. 8 ; 12:10–13:1 ; Ro 11:26 ).

11:7 Favor . . . Union. These were the names of Zechariah's two staffs. The images suggest that he wanted the flock to enjoy God's favor and to experience national unity. According to Canaanite legend, the god Baal was given the two clubs named Driver and Chaser to battle the dark deities of the sea. It is appropriate that God's messenger Zechariah is given shepherd's staffs to guide the people, instead of clubs for fighting.

11:8 three [incompetent, unfit] shepherds. Some have suggested that the three shepherds represent classes of rulers in Israel: kings, priests, and prophets. Others suggest that they refer to the last three kings of Judah or to certain high priests of the Maccabean era.

11:12 thirty pieces of silver. Zechariah, taking the role of the messianic shepherd, requested his wages for service rendered. This amount was the price of a slave. It was also the price paid to Judas for betraying Jesus (Mt 27:6–10 ).

11:15–16 Take again for yourself the equipment [of a shepherd, but this time] of a foolish shepherd. This phrase means to behave like one. eat the flesh of the fat ones and tear off their hoofs. These phrases express the savagery of a foolish shepherd.

11:17 worthless and foolish shepherd. He will be judged. His “arm,” which should have been used to protect the sheep, will wither. His “right eye,” which should have watched over the sheep, will be blinded.

12:1 The oracle. As in 9:1, the burden is a weighty judgment that the prophet must discharge. heavens . . . the earth . . . the spirit of man. Three phrases are used here in describing the greatness of God as Creator.

12:3 heavy stone. Jerusalem is compared to a heavy stone that brings injury to anyone who tries to remove it from its place.

12:6 Judah. Here, Judah is likened to (1) “a firepot in a woodpile” used to carry hot coals for the purpose of starting a fire, and (2) “a flaming torch” that could quickly ignite a field of cut grain.

12:10 Spirit of grace. These words refer to the gracious working of the Holy Spirit that leads to conviction and repentance (Jn 16:8–11). supplication. The Spirit will stimulate an attitude of repentance and prayer for God’s mercy. There are many significant ministries of the Holy Spirit in the period of the Hebrew kingdom.

12:12–14 the house of David . . . the house of Levi . . . their wives by themselves. These words are quoted in the Talmud as an argument for separating men and women in worship. But the verse seems to indicate that each mourner will face his or her sorrow alone, without the comfort of companionship.

13:2 cut off the names of the idols. In ancient times, a person’s name reflected his or her reputation. Zechariah anticipated the complete removal of the reputation and acknowledgement of false gods.

13:4 a hairy robe. This was the traditional clothing of a prophet. False prophets will deny that they are prophets, for fear of punishment, and will refuse to wear one (2Ki 1:8; Mt 3:4).

13:6 wounds between your arms. This is probably a reference to the profession of an ecstatic prophet who slashed himself on the back or breast. Self-inflicted wounds were thought to gain the attention and blessing of the gods (1Ki 18:28). Under questioning, the man declares that the wounds were received from friends so that he will not be found out as a false prophet and be put to death (v. 3).

13:7 O sword. The sword, an instrument of death, is likened to a warrior being roused for action. The Lord commands the sword to strike the Messiah. My Shepherd. This clearly indicates that the death of Jesus was not accident, but was divinely determined.

13:9 Refine them. The smelting pot uses intense heat to separate the dross from pure metal. test them. Once refined, precious metal must be analyzed to determine its value.

14:4 Mount of Olives. This is located east of Jerusalem and the Kidron valley: it is a north-south hill about 2,700 feet in elevation. The Messiah will return to the Mount of Olives, the very mountain from which He will have ascended after His time on earth. (Ac 1:10–11). On the day of Messiah’s return, the mount will be split by a deep east-west valley.

14:8 living waters. This term describes running water from a spring or river, in contrast to the stale and stagnant water of a cistern (Jer 2:13). The water will flow from Jerusalem toward the eastern sea (the Dead Sea) and the western sea (the Mediterranean). In contrast with the seasonal streams that flow only during the rainy season, these streams will irrigate the land in both summer and winter.

14:11 will be inhabited. This is a contrast to the time of Nehemiah when the population of Jerusalem was sparse (Neh 7:4; 11:1). In the Lord’s coming kingdom, the city will be inhabited and its citizens secure.

14:18–19 Egypt. In this passage, Egypt is used as an example of the nations that are unwilling to come to Jerusalem to worship King Messiah and celebrate the feast. It will be subject to divine judgment because it was a traditional enemy of Israel.

14:20–21 HOLY TO THE LORD. These words will be inscribed on the gold headband worn by the high priest (Ex 28:36). Holiness will so permeate Messiah's kingdom that even the lowly cooking pots will be holy. The name "Canaanite" here refers to the merchants who frequented Jerusalem and the temple courts with their wares (Neh 13:19–22 ; Mt 21:12 ; Jn 2:14). None will profiteer in the worship of God in the coming age. God's search for true worshipers will be realized in the company of devoted, holy people.

The Book of Malachi

- AUTHOR: The only Old Testament mention of Malachi is in 1:1 . Nothing else is known of Malachi, not even his father's name. But tradition holds that he too, like Zechariah, was a member of the Great Synagogue. He is generally accepted as the author of this book. It is likely that Malachi proclaimed his message when Nehemiah was absent from Judah between 432 BC and 425 BC, almost a century after Haggai and Zechariah began to prophesy. Thus, because of its place in history and the Old Testament, Malachi is a transitional book. Its primary themes are consistent with the rest of the Old Testament, but it also serves as a precursor to the New Testament.
- TIMES: c. 432–425 BC
- KEY VERSE: Mal 2:17
- THEME: In Malachi, the days of political upheaval are past, and the country is living in an uneventful waiting period. The people are waiting for Messiah to bring the glorious restoration of their nation to the renewed prominence of the Davidic and Solomonic period. There is a sense the people are losing touch with God during this rather uneventful time. The old problem with idol worship is gone, but other problems have taken its place. Malachi's role is to call them back to a genuine enduring faith in God. His dominant admonition is for a personal relationship with the living God, who seeks men to walk with Him (2:6 ).

Malachi 1

God's Love for Jacob

<sup>2</sup> “I have loved you,” says the LORD. But you say, “How and in what way have You loved us?” “Was not Esau Jacob’s brother?” declares the LORD. “Yet I loved Jacob (Israel); ‡

<sup>3</sup> but [in comparison with My love for Jacob] I have hated Esau (Edom), and I have made his mountains a wasteland, and have given his inheritance to the jackals of the wilderness.”  [Rom 9:13, 16 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> Though [impoverished] Edom says, “We have been beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins.” Thus says the LORD of hosts, “They may build, but I will tear down; and men will call them the Wicked Territory, the people against whom the LORD is indignant forever.”

<sup>5</sup> Your own eyes will see this and you will say, “The LORD is great and shall be magnified beyond the border of Israel!”  [Is 34; 63:1–6; Jer 49:7–22; Ezek 25:12–14; Obad 1 ] ‡

Sin of the Priests

<sup>6</sup> “‘A son honors his father, and a servant his master. Then if I am a Father, where is My honor? And if I am a Master, where is the [reverent] fear and respect due Me?’ says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise My name. But you say, ‘How and in what way have we despised Your name?’ ‡

<sup>7</sup> “You are presenting defiled food upon My altar. But you say, ‘How have we defiled You?’ By thinking that the table of the LORD is contemptible and may be despised. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “When you [priests] present the blind [animals] for sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you present the lame and the sick, is it not evil? Offer such a thing [as a blind or lame or sick animal] to your governor [as a gift or as payment for your taxes]. Would he be pleased with you? Or would he receive you graciously?” says the LORD of hosts. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “But now will you not entreat God’s favor, that He may be gracious to us? With such an offering from your hand [as an imperfect animal for sacrifice], will He show favor to any of you?” says the LORD of hosts. ‡

10 “Oh, that there were even one among you [whose duty it is to minister to Me] who would shut the gates, so that you would not kindle fire on My altar uselessly [with an empty, worthless pretense]! I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD of hosts, “nor will I accept an offering from your hand. ‡

11 “For from the rising of the sun, even to its setting, My name shall be great among the nations. In every place incense is going to be offered to My name, and a grain offering that is pure; for My name shall be great among the nations,” says the LORD of hosts. ‡

12 “But you [priests] profane it when you say, ‘The table of the Lord is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food is to be despised.’ ‡

13 “You also say, ‘How tiresome this is!’ And you disdainfully sniff at it,” says the LORD of hosts, “and you bring what was taken by robbery, and the lame or the sick [animals]; this you bring as an offering! Should I receive it with pleasure from your hand?” says the LORD.  [Lev 1:3; Deut 15:21 ] ‡

14 “But cursed is the swindler who has a male in his flock and vows [to offer] it, but sacrifices to the Lord a blemished or diseased thing! For I am a great King,” says the LORD of hosts, “and My name is to be [reverently and greatly] feared among the nations.” ‡

Malachi 2

Priests to Be Disciplined

1 “NOW, O priests, this commandment is for you.

2 “If you do not listen, and if you do not take it to heart to honor My name,” says the LORD of hosts, “then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings [on the people]. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you are not taking it to heart. ‡

3 “Behold, I am going to rebuke your seed, and I will spread the refuse on your faces, the refuse from the festival offerings; and you will be taken away with it [in disgrace]. ‡

4 “Then you will know [without any doubt] that I have sent this [new] commandment to you (priests), that My covenant may continue with Levi [the priestly tribe],” says the LORD of hosts.

5 “My covenant with Levi was [one of] life and peace, and I gave them to him as an object of reverence; so he [and the priests] feared Me and stood in reverent awe of My name.‡

6“True instruction was in Levi’s mouth and injustice was not found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from wickedness.‡

7“For the lips of the priest should guard and preserve knowledge [of My law], and the people should seek instruction from his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.‡

8 “But as for you [priests], you have turned from the way and you have caused many to stumble by your instruction [in the law]. You have violated the covenant of Levi,” says the LORD of hosts.‡

9 “So I have also made you despised and abased before all the people, just as you are not keeping My ways but are showing partiality [to people] in [your administration of] the law.”‡

Sin in the Family

10Do we not all have one Father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously with one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers [with God]?‡

11Judah has been treacherous (disloyal), and an repulsive act has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. [Ezra 9:2; Jer 2:3]‡

12 As for the man who does this, may the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob to the last man those who do this [evil thing], awake and aware, even the one who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts.‡

13This is another thing you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with [your own] weeping and sighing, because the LORD no longer regards your offering or accepts it with favor from your hand.

14But you say, “Why [does He reject it]?” Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously. Yet she is your marriage companion and the wife of your covenant [made by your vows].‡

15But not one has done so who has a remnant of the Spirit. And what did that one do while seeking a godly offspring? Take heed then to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of your youth.‡

16“For I hate divorce,” says the LORD, the God of Israel, “and him who covers his garment with wrong and violence,” says the LORD of hosts.

“Therefore keep watch on your spirit, so that you do not deal treacherously [with your wife].” ‡

17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. But you say, “In what way have we wearied Him?” In that you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them,” or [by asking], “Where is the God of justice?” ‡

Malachi 3

The Purifier

1 “BEHOLD, I am going to send My messenger, and he will prepare and clear the way before Me. And the Lord [the Messiah], whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming,” says the LORD of hosts. [Matt 11:10 ; Luke 1:13–17 , 76] ‡

2 “But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner’s fire and like launderer’s soap [which removes impurities and uncleanness]. [Rev 6:12–17] ‡

3 He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi [the priests], and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the LORD [grain] offerings in righteousness. ‡

4 “Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in ancient years. ‡

5 “Then I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurors, and against those who oppress the laborer in his wages and widows and the fatherless, and against those who turn away the alien [from his right], and those who do not fear Me [with awe-filled reverence],” says the LORD of hosts. [Deut 24:17] ‡

6 “For I am the LORD, I do not change [but remain faithful to My covenant with you]; that is why you, O sons of Jacob, have not come to an end. ‡

7 “Yet from the days of your fathers you have turned away from My statutes and ordinances and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of hosts. “But you say, ‘How shall we return?’ ‡

You Have Robbed God

8—“Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, ‘In what way have we robbed You?’ In tithes and offerings [you have withheld]. ‡

9 “You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing Me, this whole nation! [Lev 26:14–17.]

10 “Bring all the tithes (the tenth) into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,” says the LORD of hosts, “if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you [so great] a blessing until there is no more room to receive it. [Mal 2:2] ‡

11 “Then I will rebuke the devourer (insects, plague) for your sake and he will not destroy the fruits of the ground, nor will your vine in the field drop its grapes [before harvest],” says the LORD of hosts. ‡

12 “All nations shall call you happy and blessed, for you shall be a land of delight,” says the LORD of hosts. ‡

13 “Your words have been harsh against Me,” says the LORD. “But you say, ‘What have we spoken against You?’ ‡

14 “You have said, ‘It is useless to serve God. What profit is it if we keep His ordinances, and walk around like mourners before the LORD of hosts?’ ‡

15 ‘So now we call the arrogant happy and blessed. Evildoers are exalted and prosper; and when they test God, they escape [unpunished].’ ” ‡

The Book of Remembrance

16 Then those who feared the LORD [with awe-filled reverence] spoke to one another; and the LORD paid attention and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him of those who fear the LORD [with an attitude of reverence and respect] and who esteem His name. ‡

17 “They will be Mine,” says the LORD of hosts, “on that day when I publicly recognize them and openly declare them to be My own possession [that is, My very special treasure]. And I will have compassion on them and spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.” ‡

18 Then you will again distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between the one who serves God and the one who does not serve Him. ‡

Malachi 4

Final Admonition

<sup>1</sup> “FOR BEHOLD, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, and all the arrogant (proud, self-righteous, haughty), and every evildoer shall be stubble; and the day that is coming shall set them on fire,” says the LORD of hosts, “so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.  [Is 5:21–25 ; Matt 3:12 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup>—“But for you who fear My name [with awe-filled reverence] the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. And you will go forward and leap [joyfully] like calves [released] from the stall. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this,” says the LORD of hosts. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Remember [with thoughtful concern] the Law of Moses My servant, the statutes and the ordinances which I commanded him on [Mount] Horeb [to give] to all Israel. ‡

<sup>6</sup>—“He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers [a reconciliation produced by repentance], so that I will not come and strike the land with a curse [of complete destruction].”  [Luke 1:17 ] ‡

Annotations for Malachi

1:1 to Israel. In the postexilic period, the use of the word Israel for the people of Judah expresses the hope that the Lord was in the process of reasserting the fullness of His original promises to His people. The name “Malachi” means “My Messenger.”

1:3 I have hated Esau. The contrast between the words love and hate here and in verse 2 seems too strong. But on many occasions in the Old Testament, the verb hate has the basic meaning “not to choose.” God’s love for Jacob was expressed in His electing grace in extending His covenant to Jacob and to his descendants (Ge 25:21–26 ; Isa 44:1–5 ). In His sovereign purpose, God set His love on the one and not the other. The term hate may carry the idea of indifference as well.

1:6 A son honors his father. Here the Lord uses truisms: A father and a master can expect honor from those beneath them, but God was not receiving the honor due Him. if I am a Father. The image of God as Father is common in the New Testament, but less frequent in the Old Testament (Isa 63:16 ; 64:8 ).

1:8 the blind . . . lame and the sick. The demands of the holy worship of God had been made clear in the law. Only the very best should be presented as an offering to the Lord (Lev 1:3 ); no one was to come with an offering that was blemished or unclean (Lev 7:19–21 ).

1:11 great among the nations. God would one day receive praise from all the nations. Even the despised Gentiles would offer praise, while God’s own people were profaning His holy name (Ps 87 ; 117 ).

1:14 I am a great King. The reputation of the Lord among His people was to have been the means whereby all the nations would be drawn to worship Him as well.

2:2 I will send the curse. At the passage of the people into the promised land, the Levites spread before the people the blessings of obedience and the curses on disobedience (Dt 27 ; 28 ). But the priests were not obeying the law that they were supposed to uphold. They would therefore receive the curses.

2:3 refuse. This was the refuse in the sacrificed animal that should have been removed when the animal was prepared for sacrifice to the Lord.

2:6 True instruction. The priests of the Old Testament period had a twofold responsibility: they were to represent the people in holy worship before the living God, and they were to teach and apply God’s law to the people. in peace and uprightness. This refers to complete moral virtue in all things before the Lord.

2:7 messenger. In the Old Testaments, prophets were commonly called messengers. But apparently this is the only time in the Old Testament that priests are specifically called the messengers of the Lord (3:1 ).

2:10 God the Father of All— The Fatherhood of God applies in a general sense to everyone since all men and women are created by God in His image. God is the Father of the human race. Several Scriptures speak of God as “the Father of spirits” (Heb 12:9 ; Nu 16:22 ; Ecc 12:7 ). Paul even agrees with a heathen poet that all men are God’s offspring (Ac 17:28 ). James 3:9 says that men have been made in God’s image.

God is also the Father of all as sustainer of life. Every person is an object of His fatherly care (Mt 18:10 ) and a candidate for His Kingdom (Lk 18:16 ). Furthermore, God is not willing that any should perish (Mt 18:14 ; 1 Ti 2:4 ). Even when men and women reject God, He still provides for them as He does believers with rain, fruitful seasons, food, and gladness (Mt 5:45 ; Ac 14:17 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

2:11 the sanctuary of the LORD which He loves. The text presents the ideas of affection and revulsion which we usually think of in the verbs to love and to hate. Marriage is something God loves; divorce is something He hates (v. 16). The Lord's people had polluted something in which God takes great pleasure.

2:13 This is another thing you do. The prophets at times spoke of the compounding sins of the people (Jer 2:13). Here, tears seem to be judged as hypocritical acts of insincere repentance (Isa 1:10–15).

2:14 Why. The feigned surprise of the people fooled no one, certainly not the Lord. witness. There are some whose witness may be challenged, but the Lord is not among them (3:5). wife of your youth. These men had not only married pagan wives, but they had divorced their first wives to make room for their new ones.

2:15–16 God and Marriage— While couples make the marriage covenant with each other, God is a party in the relationship too. He owns us and makes us one, all at the same time. Going back to Genesis 2:24, He designed men and women for each other; to be in relationship with each other, out of His wisdom for what was best for them. This design was the culminating action in the creation process. Out of it was to be the future of this race, this species that God created to rule with Him. Marriage is not just an institution for couples, but for society and God. In marriage we fulfill God's plan for the universe. God not only made the couple one, in a way He made Himself one with the couple too. It grieves Him when we can not or will not follow through with our part of this covenant.

The best way to carry on the faith is through children of functioning covenant marriages. This only confirms what all the statistics are increasingly telling us. When divorce rates started soaring in the 60's and 70's, many thought kids were resilient and handling the dissolution of their families well. Current studies, years later, indicate children of these divorces have significantly greater problems coping with life when compared with kids from intact families. While there is enormous complexity involved in a marriage relationship, nothing about it is more important in making it work than the commitment to maintain it. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:15 a remnant of the Spirit. This somewhat difficult phrase most likely indicates the work of God's Holy Spirit in the life of the married couple. God has joined them, and by His Spirit He has worked on their behalf to strengthen them.

2:16 treacherously. To the Lord, attitudes of indifference to marriage vows and duties are the actions of a traitor.

2:17 You have wearied the LORD . God is wearied by people who do not submit to Him but who argue their points against His revelation. When justice comes, they will be sorry they asked (3:5 ).

3:1 Messenger of the covenant. This is a messianic title, referring to the One who will initiate the New Covenant (Jer 31:33–34 ; Mt 26:28 ; Heb 12:24 ). He is coming. As in Psalm 96:13 , this dramatic wording indicates something that was just about to occur. However, it would be 400 years before these words would be fulfilled.

3:2 like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap. These two images are vivid illustrations of the purifying process. The Savior King Himself will sift all people to prepare for His reign.

3:3 purify the sons of Levi. Since the priests had come under such strong censure in this book (1:6–2:9 ), and since the prophet himself was likely a priest, these words would have had a special significance for him.

3:6 For I am the LORD, I do not change. We might expect these opening words to ensure the nation's doom. Instead, they give assurance of God's continuing mercy.

3:8 tithes. These were gifts to the Lord that the law required. There were three: two that were annual and one that came every three years. The tithe supported the priests and Levites, and also widows, orphans, and foreigners (Dt 14:28–29 ).

3:12 All nations. One of the ways in which other countries would be drawn to the worship of the Lord was by seeing how the people of Israel fared with the Lord as their God. a land of delight. The adjective indicates enjoyment, life that is genuinely pleasurable (1:10 ).

3:14 What profit. The people secretly entertained doubts about the value of following the Lord. In fact, they had not really “kept his ordinance.” The proper attitude is encouraged in Malachi 4:4 .

3:16 a book of remembrance. God never forgets His promises. God teaches us to remember and value the good that people do (Php 4:8 ); He does the same as He commands us.

3:17 They will be Mine. These words are exciting because we can sense in them the pride God has in His children.

3:18 one who serves God. Serving God means putting Him first, obeying His commands, and finding one’s chief joy in life the advancement of the glory of His name.

4:2 with healing in its wings. The prophet compares the Savior to a bird whose comforting wings bring healing to the chicks that gather underneath (Ps 91:1-4 ).

4:5 Elijah the prophet. There are three ways in which this prophecy might be fulfilled: (1) John the Baptist, whom Malachi had already prophesied (3:1 ), was the first to fill the promise of the Elijah figure. John, like Elijah, was a minister of the Lord calling the people to repent and prepare for the coming of the Messiah (Mt 11:14 ). (2) Elijah appeared in person along with Moses at the transfiguration (Mt 17:1-8 ). (3) An Elijah-like figure will appear at the end times; he will call fire down from heaven just as Elijah did (1Ki 18:36 ; Rev 11:1-7 ).

4:6 fathers to their children . . . children to their fathers. Malachi ends with a promise and a warning. As in every act of God announcing judgment, there is also an offer of His mercy (Jnh 4:2 ). a curse. The term is one of the harshest in Scripture. The Hebrew word suggests complete annihilation. This is the term translated “accursed” in the account of the destruction of Jericho (Jos 6:17 ).

The New Testament

New Testament Overview

Matthew: A brief history of the life of Christ, pointing to Jesus as the promised Messiah.

Mark: The briefest and most fast-paced history of the life of Christ.

Luke: The history of the life of Christ, focusing on his important miracles and teachings.

John: The life of Christ, including many teachings and events not recorded by the other gospel authors.

Acts: The history of the apostles and the early Christian church.

Romans: Paul writes extensively on key realities of Christian belief and justification by faith alone.

1 Corinthians: Paul speaks to the errors of the church in Corinth.

2 Corinthians: Paul encourages the church in Corinth and defends his character.

Galatians: Paul's letter points out that believers are justified by faith, not by our own efforts.

Ephesians: Paul's positive letter focuses on God's amazing grace and urges the church to live in love.

Philippians: Paul writes on Christian contentment, unity and kindness.

Colossians: Paul warns his audience against following false teaching, focusing on Jesus' work of salvation.

1 Thessalonians: Paul encourages his listeners to continue to live in a way that pleases God.

2 Thessalonians: Paul encourages the church and talks about Jesus' second coming.

1 and 2 Timothy: Paul encourages and instructs his young student Timothy in his role as a pastor.

Titus: Paul encourages Titus in his role as a pastor.

Philemon: Paul asks a believing slave owner to treat a believing slave with kindness.

Hebrews: A discourse on how Jesus is the ultimate and permanent fulfillment of the Mosaic Law.

James: A letter from Jesus' brother on the necessity of combining faith with work.

1 and 2 Peter: The apostle warns and encourages his audience as they live their Christian lives.

1 John: John elegantly explains basic truths about the Christian life.

2 John: John warns a believing lady about false teachers.

3 John: John's letter to a believing man thanking him for his hospitality.

Jude: A letter warning Christians against those who try to deceive them.

Revelation: John's vision of the exalted Christ and the future of the church.

The Gospel According to Matthew

- AUTHOR: The early church uniformly attributed this Gospel to Matthew, and no tradition to the contrary ever emerged. This book was known early and accepted quickly. Matthew occupied the unpopular post of tax collector in Capernaum for the Roman government, and as a result he was no doubt disliked by his Jewish countrymen. He was chosen as one of the twelve apostles, and the last appearance of his name in the Bible is in Acts 1:13. Matthew's life from that point on is veiled in tradition.
- TIMES: c. 4 BC–AD 33
- KEY VERSES: Mt 16:16–19
- THEME: Matthew is typically described as the story of Jesus written by a Jew for Jewish people. In this context it contains the most references to Jewish culture and the Old Testament of the Gospels. The author's main purpose seems to be proving to his Jewish readers that Jesus is their Messiah. Matthew is also the fullest systematic account of Christ's teachings. These 5 "blocks" of teaching are one of the key differences with the other Gospels: Chapters 5–7, The Sermon on the Mount; Chapter 10, The Mission Charge; Chapter 13, The Parables of the Kingdom; Chapter 18, The Church; Chapters 23–25, Judgment and the End of the World.

Matthew 1

The Genealogy of Jesus the Messiah

<sup>2</sup> Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers [who became the twelve tribes of Israel]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Ram was the father of Aminadab, Aminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon.

<sup>5</sup> Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz was the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse.

David was the father of Solomon by Bathsheba who had been the wife of Uriah.  [Ruth 4:18–22 ; 1 Chr 2:13–15 ]

<sup>8</sup> Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah.

<sup>9</sup> Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah.

<sup>10</sup> Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, and Amon the father of Josiah. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud.

<sup>15</sup> Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob.

16 Jacob was the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah (Christ).

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen; from David to the Babylonian deportation (exile), fourteen generations; and from the Babylonian deportation to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

Conception and Birth of Jesus

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by [the power of] the Holy Spirit. ‡

19 And Joseph her [promised] husband, being a just and righteous man and not wanting to expose her publicly to shame, planned to send her away and divorce her quietly. ‡

20 But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, descendant of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. ‡

21 “She will give birth to a Son, and you shall name Him Jesus (The LORD is salvation), for He will save His people from their sins.” ‡

22 All this happened in order to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet [Isaiah]:

23 “B EHOLD , THE VIRGIN SHALL BE WITH CHILD AND GIVE BIRTH TO A S ON , AND THEY SHALL CALL H IS NAME I MMANUEL ”—which, when translated, means, “G o WITH US .”  [Is 7:14 ] ‡

24 Then Joseph awoke from his sleep and did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and he took Mary [to his home] as his wife,

25 but he kept her a virgin until she had given birth to a Son [her firstborn child]; and he named Him Jesus (The LORD is salvation). ‡

Matthew 2

The Visit of the Magi

1 NOW WHEN Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king (Herod the Great), magi (wise men) from the east came to Jerusalem, asking, ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the east and have come to worship Him.”  [Num 24:17; Jer 23:5; Zech 9:9 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> When Herod the king heard this, he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him.

<sup>4</sup> So he called together all the chief priests and scribes of the people and [anxiously] asked them where the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) was to be born. ‡

<sup>5</sup> They replied to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is what has been written by the prophet [Micah]:

ARE NOT IN ANY WAY LEAST AMONG THE LEADERS OF J UDAH ; F OR FROM YOU SHALL COME A R ULER
W HO WILL SHEPHERD M Y PEOPLE I SRAEL .’ ”  [Mic 5:2. ]

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod secretly sent for the magi and learned from them the [exact] time the star [had first] appeared.

<sup>8</sup> Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search carefully for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may come and worship Him.”

<sup>9</sup> After hearing the king, they went their way; and behold, the star, which they had seen in the east, went on before them [continually leading the way] until it came and stood over the place where the young Child was.

<sup>12</sup> And having been warned [by God] in a dream not to go back to Herod, the magi left for their own country by another way. ‡

The Flight to Egypt

<sup>13</sup> Now when they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod intends to search for the Child in order to destroy Him.”

14 So Joseph got up and took the Child and His mother while it was still night, and left for Egypt.

15 He remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet [Hosea]: “O UT OF E GYPT I CALLED M Y S ON . Hos 11:1.‡

Herod Slaughters the Babies

16 Then Herod, when he realized that he had been tricked by the magi, was extremely angry, and he sent [soldiers] and put to death all the male children in Bethlehem and in all that area who were two years old and under, according to the date which he had learned from the magi. The Birth of Jesus and the Flight into Egypt

17 Then what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: ‡

18“A VOICE WAS HEARD IN RAMAH , WEEPING AND GREAT MOURNING ,
RACHEL WEEPING FOR HER CHILDREN ;
SHE REFUSED TO BE COMFORTED ,
BECAUSE THEY WERE NO MORE .”  [Jer 31:15 ]

19 But when Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, and said,

20 “Get up! Take the Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel; for those who sought the Child’s life are dead.”

21 Then Joseph got up, and took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod [the Great], he was afraid to go there. Then being warned by God in a dream, he left for the region of Galilee, ‡

23 and went and settled in a city called Nazareth. This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets: “He shall be called a Nazarene.” ‡ House of Herod

Matthew 3

The Preaching of John the Baptist

<sup>3</sup> This is the one who was mentioned by the prophet Isaiah when he said, ‡

“T HE VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS , ‘P REPARE THE ROAD FOR THE LORD,
M AKE H IS HIGHWAYS STRAIGHT (level, direct)!’ ”  [Is 40:3 ]

<sup>6</sup> and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the [divine] wrath and judgment to come? ‡

<sup>8</sup> “So produce fruit that is consistent with repentance [demonstrating new behavior that proves a change of heart, and a conscious decision to turn away from sin];

<sup>9</sup> and do not presume to say to yourselves [as a defense], ‘We have Abraham for our father [so our inheritance assures us of salvation]’; for I say to you that from these stones God is able to raise up children (descendants) for Abraham.  [Luke 3:8 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “As for me, I baptize you with water because of [your] repentance [that is, because you are willing to change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret your sin and live a changed life], but He (the Messiah) who is coming after me is mightier [more powerful, more noble] than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to remove [even as His slave]; He will baptize you [who truly repent] with the Holy Spirit and [you who remain unrepentant] with fire (judgment).  [Luke 3:16 ] ‡

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>14</sup> But John tried to prevent Him [vigorously protesting], saying, “It is I who need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?”

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus replied to him, “Permit it just now; for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John permitted [it and baptized] Him.

<sup>16</sup> After Jesus was baptized, He came up immediately out of the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and he (John) saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove and lighting on Him (Jesus),  [John 1:32 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> and behold, a voice from heaven said, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased and delighted!”  [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1 ] ‡

Matthew 4

The Temptation of Jesus

<sup>1</sup> THEN JESUS was led by the [Holy] Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.  [Luke 4:1–13 ] ‡ The Baptism of Jesus and the Sojourn in the Desert

<sup>2</sup> After He had gone without food for forty days and forty nights, He became hungry.  [Ex 34:28; 1 Kin 19:8 ]

<sup>3</sup> And the tempter came and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus replied, “It is written and forever remains written, ‘M AN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE , BUT BY EVERY WORD THAT COMES OUT OF THE MOUTH OF G OD .’ ”  [Deut 8:3 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> And he said [mockingly] to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it is written, ‡

‘H E WILL COMMAND H IS ANGELS CONCERNING Y OU [to serve, care for, protect and watch over You]’;

and

‘T HEY WILL LIFT YOU UP ON their HANDS ,
S O THAT Y OU WILL NOT STRIKE Y OUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE .’ ” [
Ps 91:11, 12]

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, “On the other hand, it is written and forever remains written, ‘YOU SHALL NOT TEST THE LORD YOUR GOD .’ ” [Deut 6:16] ‡

<sup>8</sup> Again, the devil took Him up on a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory [splendor, magnificence, and excellence] of them;

<sup>9</sup> and he said to Him, “All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Go away, Satan! For it is written and forever remains written, ‘Y OU SHALL WORSHIP THE L ORD YOUR G OD , AND SERVE H IM O .’ ” [Deut 6:13] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then the devil left Him; and angels came and ministered to Him [bringing Him food and serving Him]. ‡

Jesus Begins His Ministry

<sup>13</sup> And leaving Nazareth, He went and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the country of Zebulun and Naphtali. [Mark 2:1]

<sup>15.</sup>“T HE LAND OF Z EBULUN AND THE LAND OF N APHTALI , ‡ B Y THE WAY OF THE SEA , BEYOND THE J ORDAN , G ALILEE [in the district] OF THE G ENTILES —

<sup>16</sup>“T HE PEOPLE WHO WERE SITTING (living) IN [spiritual] DARKNESS HAVE SEEN A GREAT L IGHT , ‡

A ND FOR THOSE WHO WERE SITTING (living) IN THE LAND AND SHADOW OF [spiritual and moral] DEATH ,
U PON THEM A L IGHT HAS DAWNED .” [Is 9:1, 2]

<sup>17</sup> From that time Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God’s purpose for your life], for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” ‡

The First Disciples

<sup>18</sup> As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He noticed two brothers, Simon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. ‡

<sup>19</sup> And He said to them, “Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men.” ‡

Ministry in Galilee

<sup>23</sup> And He went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news (gospel) of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people [demonstrating and revealing that He was indeed the promised Messiah]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> So the news about Him spread throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were sick, those suffering with various diseases and pains, those under the power of demons, and epileptics, paralytics; and He healed them.

<sup>25</sup> Large crowds followed Him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and the other side of the Jordan. ‡

Matthew 5

The Sermon on the Mount; The Beatitudes

<sup>1</sup> WHEN JESUS saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain; and when He was seated, His disciples came to Him. ‡ Around the Sea of Galilee

<sup>2</sup> Then He began to teach them, saying,

<sup>5</sup> “Blessed [inwardly peaceful, spiritually secure, worthy of respect] are the gentle [the kind-hearted, the sweet-spirited, the self-controlled], for they will inherit the earth.  [Ps 37:11.] ‡

Disciples and the World

<sup>13</sup> “You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has lost its taste (purpose), how can it be made salty? It is no longer good for anything, but to be thrown out and walked on by people [when the walkways are wet and slippery]. ‡

14 “You are the light of [Christ to] the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden; ‡

15 nor does anyone light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house.  [Mark 4:21; Luke 8:16; 11:33. ] ‡

16 “Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good deeds and moral excellence, and [recognize and honor and] glorify your Father who is in heaven. ‡

17 “Do not think that I came to do away with or undo the Law [of Moses] or the [writings of the] Prophets; I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. ‡

18 “For I assure you and most solemnly say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke [of the pen] will pass from the Law until all things [which it foreshadows] are accomplished. ‡

19 “So whoever breaks one of the least [important] of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least [important] in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever practices and teaches them, he will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ‡

20 “For I say to you that unless your righteousness (uprightness, moral essence) is more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ‡

Personal Relationships

21 “You have heard that it was said to the men of old, ‘YOU SHALL NOT MURDER,’ and ‘Whoever murders shall be guilty before the court.’  [Ex 20:13; Deut 5:17; 16:18. ] ‡

22 “But I say to you that everyone who continues to be angry with his brother or harbors malice against him shall be guilty before the court; and whoever speaks [contemptuously and insultingly] to his brother, Raca (You empty-headed idiot!)’ shall be guilty before the supreme court (Sanhedrin); and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ shall be in danger of the fiery hell. ‡

23 “So if you are presenting your offering at the altar, and while there you remember that your brother has something [such as a grievance or legitimate complaint] against you, ‡

24 leave your offering there at the altar and go. First make peace with your brother, and then come and present your offering. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Come to terms quickly [at the earliest opportunity] with your opponent at law while you are with him on the way [to court], so that your opponent does not hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you are thrown into prison.  [Luke 12:58, 59 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you will not come out of there until you have paid the last cent.

<sup>29</sup> “If your right eye makes you stumble and leads you to sin, tear it out and throw it away [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body, than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “If your right hand makes you stumble and leads you to sin, cut it off and throw it away [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

<sup>31</sup> “It has also been said, ‘W HOEVER DIVORCES HIS WIFE IS TO GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE ’; ‡

<sup>34</sup> “But I say to you, do not make an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God; ‡

<sup>36</sup> “Nor shall you make an oath by your head, for you are not able to make a single hair white or black.

<sup>37</sup> “But let your statement be, ‘Yes, yes’ or ‘No, no’ [a firm yes or no]; anything more than that comes from the evil one.  [Lev 19:12 ; Num 30:2 ; Deut 23:21 ] ‡

<sup>38</sup> “You have heard that it was said, ‘A N EYE FOR AN EYE , AND A TOOTH FOR A TOOTH [punishment that fits the offense].’  [Ex 21:24 ; Lev 24:20 ; Deut 19:21 ]

<sup>39</sup> “But I say to you, do not resist an evil person [who insults you or violates your rights]; but whoever slaps you on the right cheek, turn the other toward him also [simply ignore insignificant insults or trivial losses and do not bother to retaliate—maintain your dignity, your self-respect, your poise].  [Luke 6:29, 30; Rom 12:17–21 ] ‡

<sup>40</sup> “If anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, let him have your coat also [for the Lord repays the offender].

41.“And whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two. ‡

<sup>42</sup> “Give to him who asks of you, and do not turn away from him who wants to borrow from you.  [Deut 15:8; Prov 24:29 ] ‡

<sup>44</sup> “But I say to you, love [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for] your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,  [Prov 25:21, 22 ] ‡

45.so that you may [show yourselves to] be the children of your Father who is in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on those who are evil and on those who are good, and makes the rain fall on the righteous [those who are morally upright] and the unrighteous [the unrepentant, those who oppose Him]. ‡

<sup>46</sup> “For if you love [only] those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do that? ‡

<sup>47</sup> “And if you greet only your brothers [wishing them God’s blessing and peace], what more [than others] are you doing? Do not even the Gentiles [who do not know the Lord] do that?

48.“You, therefore, will be perfect [growing into spiritual maturity both in mind and character, actively integrating godly values into your daily life], as your heavenly Father is perfect.  [Lev 19:2 ] ‡

Matthew 6

Giving to the Poor and Prayer

<sup>1</sup> “BE [VERY] careful not to do your good deeds publicly, to be seen by men; otherwise you will have no reward [prepared and awaiting you] with your Father who is in heaven.

2.“So whenever you give to the poor and do acts of kindness, do not blow a trumpet before you [to advertise it], as the hypocrites do [like actors acting out a role] in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be honored and recognized and praised by men. I assure you and most solemnly say to you they [already] have their reward in full. ‡

<sup>4</sup> so that your charitable acts will be done in secret; and your Father who sees [what is done] in secret will reward you. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Also, when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to pray [publicly] standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets so that they may be seen by men. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, they [already] have their reward in full.

<sup>6</sup> “But when you pray, go into your most private room, close the door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees [what is done] in secret will reward you. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “And when you pray, do not use meaningless repetition as the Gentiles do, for they think they will be heard because of their many words.  [1 Kin 18:25–29 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> “So do not be like them [praying as they do]; for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

<sup>9</sup>. “Pray, then, in this way: ‡

‘Our Father who is in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.  [Luke 11:2–4 ]

<sup>10</sup> ‘Your kingdom come, ‡
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.

<sup>11</sup> ‘Give us this day our daily bread. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘And forgive us our debts, as we have forgiven our debtors
[letting go of both the wrong and the resentment]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [ For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen. ] ’  [Luke 11:2–4 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> “For if you forgive others their trespasses [their reckless and willful sins], your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “But if you do not forgive others [nurturing your hurt and anger with the result that it interferes with your relationship with God], then your Father will not forgive your trespasses. ‡

Fasting, The True Treasure, Wealth (Mammon)

<sup>16</sup> “And whenever you are fasting, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they put on a sad and dismal face [like actors, discoloring their faces with ashes or dirt] so that their fasting may be seen by men. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, they [already] have their reward in full.  [Is 58:5 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “But when you fast, put oil on your head [as you normally would to groom your hair] and wash your face ‡

<sup>18</sup> so that your fasting will not be noticed by people, but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees [what is done] in secret will reward you.

<sup>19</sup> “Do not store up for yourselves [material] treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. ‡

<sup>21</sup> for where your treasure is, there your heart [your wishes, your desires; that on which your life centers] will be also.

<sup>22</sup> “The eye is the lamp of the body; so if your eye is clear [spiritually perceptive], your whole body will be full of light [benefiting from God’s precepts]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “But if your eye is bad [spiritually blind], your whole body will be full of darkness [devoid of God’s precepts]. So if the [very] light inside you [your inner self, your heart, your conscience] is darkness, how great and terrible is that darkness!

<sup>24</sup> “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon [money, possessions, fame, status, or whatever is valued more than the Lord]. ‡

The Cure for Anxiety

<sup>25</sup> “Therefore I tell you, stop being worried or anxious (perpetually uneasy, distracted) about your life, as to what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, as to what you will wear. Is life not more than food, and the body more than clothing?  [Luke 12:22–31 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow [seed] nor reap [the harvest] nor gather [the crops] into barns, and yet your heavenly Father keeps feeding them. Are you not worth much more than they? ‡

27 “And who of you by worrying can add one hour to [the length of] his life?  [Ps 39:5–7. ]

28 “And why are you worried about clothes? See how the lilies and wildflowers of the field grow; they do not labor nor do they spin [wool to make clothing],

29 yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory and splendor dressed himself like one of these.  [1 Kin 10:4–7. ]

30 “But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive and green today and tomorrow is [cut and] thrown [as fuel] into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith!

31 “Therefore do not worry or be anxious (perpetually uneasy, distracted), saying, ‘What are we going to eat?’ or ‘What are we going to drink?’ or ‘What are we going to wear?’

32 “For the [pagan] Gentiles eagerly seek all these things; [but do not worry,] for your heavenly Father knows that you need them.

33 “But first and most importantly seek (aim at, strive after) His kingdom and His righteousness [His way of doing and being right—the attitude and character of God], and all these things will be given to you also. ‡

34 “So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Matthew 7

Judging Others

1 “DO NOT judge and criticize and condemn [others unfairly with an attitude of self-righteous superiority as though assuming the office of a judge], so that you will not be judged [unfairly]. ‡

2 “For just as you [hypocritically] judge others [when you are sinful and unrepentant], so will you be judged; and in accordance with your standard of measure [used to pass out judgment], judgment will be measured to you. ‡

3 “Why do you look at the [insignificant] speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice and acknowledge the [egregious] log that is in your own eye? ‡

4 “Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me get the speck out of your eye,’ when there is a log in your own eye?

5 “You hypocrite (play-actor, pretender), first get the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

<sup>6</sup>“Do not give that which is holy to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, for they will trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces. ‡

Prayer and the Golden Rule

<sup>7</sup> “Ask and keep on asking and it will be given to you; seek and keep on seeking and you will find; knock and keep on knocking and the door will be opened to you.  [Luke 11:9–13 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> “For everyone who keeps on asking receives, and he who keeps on seeking finds, and to him who keeps on knocking, it will be opened. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Or what man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will [instead] give him a stone? ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Or if he asks for a fish, will [instead] give him a snake?

<sup>11</sup> “If you then, evil (sinful by nature) as you are, know how to give good and advantageous gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven [perfect as He is] give what is good and advantageous to those who keep on asking Him. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “So then, in everything treat others the same way you want them to treat you, for this is [the essence of] the Law and the [writings of the] Prophets. ‡

The Narrow and Wide Gates

<sup>13</sup> “Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad and easy to travel is the path that leads the way to destruction and eternal loss, and there are many who enter through it. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “But small is the gate and narrow and difficult to travel is the path that leads the way to [everlasting] life, and there are few who find it.  [Deut 30:19 ; Jer 21:8 ]

A Tree and Its Fruit

<sup>16</sup> “By their fruit you will recognize them [that is, by their contrived doctrine and self-focus]. Do people pick grapes from thorn bushes or figs from thistles?  [Luke 6:43, 44 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Even so, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the unhealthy tree bears bad fruit. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Therefore, by their fruit you will recognize them [as false prophets].

<sup>21</sup> “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Many will say to Me on that day [when I judge them], ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, and driven out demons in Your name, and done many miracles in Your name?’ ‡

<sup>23</sup> “And then I will declare to them publicly, ‘I never knew you; DEPART FROM M E [you are banished from My presence], YOU WHO ACT WICKEDLY [disregarding My commands].’  [Ps 6:8 ] ‡

The Two Foundations

<sup>24</sup> “So everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them, will be like a wise man [a far-sighted, practical, and sensible man] who built his house on the rock.  [Luke 6:47–49 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> “And the rain fell, and the floods and torrents came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock.

<sup>26</sup> “And everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not do them, will be like a foolish (stupid) man who built his house on the sand.

<sup>27</sup> “And the rain fell, and the floods and torrents came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and it fell—and great and complete was its fall.”

<sup>29</sup> for He was teaching them as one who had authority [to teach entirely of His own volition], and not as their scribes [who relied on others to confirm their authority]. ‡

Jesus Cleanses a Leper; The Centurion's Faith

<sup>3</sup> Jesus reached out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

<sup>4</sup> And Jesus said to him, “See that you tell no one [about this]; but go, show yourself to the priest [for inspection] and present the offering that Moses commanded, as a testimony (evidence) to them [of your healing].”  [Lev 14:2. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> As Jesus went into Capernaum, a centurion came up to Him, begging Him [for help],  [Luke 7:1–10. ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

<sup>8</sup> But the centurion replied to Him, “Lord, I am not worthy to have You come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “For I also am a man subject to authority [of a higher rank], with soldiers subject to me; and I say to one, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard this, He was amazed and said to those who were following Him, “I tell you truthfully, I have not found such great faith [as this] with anyone in Israel.

<sup>11</sup> “I say to you that many [Gentiles] will come from east and west, and will sit down [to feast at the table, and enjoy God’s promises] with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven [because they accepted Me as Savior], ‡

<sup>12</sup> while the sons and heirs of the kingdom [the descendants of Abraham who will not recognize Me as Messiah] will be thrown out into the outer darkness; in that place [which is farthest removed from the kingdom] there will be weeping [in sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [in distress and anger].”  [Ps 107:2, 3; Is 49:12; 59:19; Mal 1:11. ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go; it will be done for you as you have believed.” And the servant was restored to health at that very hour.

Peter's Mother-in-law and Many Others Healed

<sup>17</sup> so that He fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: “H E H IMSELF TOOK OUR INFIRMITIES [upon Himself] AND CARRIED AWAY OUR DISEASES .”  [Is 53:4] ‡

Discipleship Tested

<sup>18</sup> Now when Jesus saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to cast off for the other side of the Sea of Galilee .

<sup>19</sup> Then [on His way to board the boat] a scribe [who was a respected and authoritative interpreter of the Law] came and said to Him, “Master, I will accompany You [as Your student] wherever You go.”  [Luke 9:57–60] ‡

<sup>20</sup> Jesus replied to him, “Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.”  [Dan 7:13; Mark 8:31, 38; Luke 12:8; John 1:51; Acts 7:56 ]

<sup>21</sup> Another of the disciples said to Him, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father (collect my inheritance).”  [Luke 9:59, 60] ‡

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus said to him, “Follow Me [believing in Me as Master and Teacher], and allow the [spiritually] dead to bury their own dead.”

<sup>23</sup> When He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him.  [Mark 4:36–41; Luke 8:22–25. ]

<sup>25</sup> And the disciples went and woke Him, saying, “Lord, save us, we are going to die!”

<sup>26</sup> He said to them, “Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was [at once] a great and wonderful calm [a perfect peacefulness]. ‡

<sup>27</sup> The men wondered in amazement, saying, “What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?”

Jesus Casts Out Demons

<sup>28</sup>When He arrived at the other side in the country of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming out of the tombs met Him. They were so extremely fierce and violent that no one could pass by that way.  [Mark 5:1–17 ; Luke 8:26–37 ] ‡

<sup>29</sup> And they screamed out, “What business do we have [in common] with each other, Son of God? Have You come to torment us before the appointed time [of judgment]?”  [Judg 11:12 ; 2 Sam 16:10 ; Matt 25:41 ; Mark 5:7 ; Luke 4:34 ; Rev 20:10 ]

<sup>32</sup> And He said to them, “Go!” So they came out [of the men] and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and died in the water.

<sup>33</sup> The herdsmen ran away, and went to the city and reported everything, including what had happened to the men under the power of demons.

<sup>34</sup> And the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and as soon as they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region. ‡

Matthew 9

A Paralytic Healed

<sup>2</sup> They brought to Him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a stretcher. Seeing their [active] faith [springing from confidence in Him], Jesus said to the paralytic, “Do not be afraid, son; your sins are forgiven [the penalty is paid, the guilt removed, and you are declared to be in right standing with God].”  [Mark 2:3–12 ; Luke 5:18–26 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts? ‡

<sup>5</sup> “For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven and the penalty paid,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? [Both are possible for God; both are impossible for man.]

<sup>6</sup> “But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority and the power on earth to forgive sins”—then He said to the paralytic, “Get up, pick up your stretcher and go home.”

<sup>7</sup> And he got up and went home [healed and forgiven].

<sup>8</sup> When the crowds saw this, they were awestruck, and glorified God and praised Him, who had given such authority and power to men.

Matthew Called

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew (Levi) sitting in the tax collector’s booth; and He said to him, “Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk].” And Matthew got up and followed Him.  [Mark 2:14–22; Luke 5:27–39 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> But when Jesus heard this, He said, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but [only] those who are sick.

<sup>13</sup> “Go and learn what this [Scripture] means: ‘I DESIRE COMPASSION [for those in distress], AND NOT [animal] SACRIFICE ,’ for I did not come to call [to repentance] the [self-proclaimed] righteous [who see no need to change], but sinners [those who recognize their sin and actively seek forgiveness].”  [Hos 6:6; Mark 2:17; Luke 5:32 ] ‡

The Question about Fasting

<sup>14</sup> Then the disciples of John [the Baptist] came to Jesus, asking, “Why do we and the Pharisees often fast [as a religious exercise], but Your disciples do not fast?” ‡

<sup>15</sup> And Jesus replied to them, “Can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while the bridegroom is with them? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “But no one puts a piece of unshrunk (new) cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and a worse tear results.

<sup>17</sup> “Nor is new wine put into old wineskins [that have lost their elasticity]; otherwise the wineskins burst, and the [fermenting] wine spills and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine is put into fresh wineskins, so both are preserved.”

Miracles of Healing

<sup>18</sup> While He was saying these things to them, a ruler (synagogue official) entered [the house] and kneeled down and worshiped Him, saying, “My daughter has just now died; but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live.”  [Mark 5:22–43; Luke 8:41–56. ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> for she had been saying to herself, “If I only touch His outer robe, I will be healed.”

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus turning and seeing her said, “Take courage, daughter; your [personal trust and confident] faith [in Me] has made you well.” And at once the woman was [completely] healed. ‡

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus came to the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players [who were professional, hired mourners] and the [grieving] crowd making an uproar, ‡

<sup>24</sup> He said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead, but is sleeping.” And they laughed and jeered at Him. ‡

<sup>25</sup> But when the crowd had been sent outside, Jesus went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

<sup>26</sup> And the news about this spread throughout all that district.

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed Him, screaming loudly, “Have mercy and compassion on us, Son of David (Messiah)! ” ‡

<sup>28</sup> When He went into the house, the blind men came up to Him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe [with a deep, abiding trust] that I am able to do this?” They said to Him, “Yes, Lord.”

<sup>29</sup> Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith [your trust and confidence in My power and My ability to heal] it will be done to you.”

<sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them: “See that no one knows this!” ‡

<sup>31</sup> But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout that whole district. ‡

<sup>32</sup> While they were going away, a mute, demon-possessed man was brought to Jesus. ‡

<sup>33</sup> And when the demon was driven out [by Jesus], the mute man spoke; and the crowds wondered in amazement, saying, “Never before has anything like this [miracle] been seen in Israel.”

<sup>34</sup> But the Pharisees were saying, “He casts out the demons by [the power of] the ruler of demons.” ‡

<sup>36</sup> When He saw the crowds, He was moved with compassion and pity for them, because they were dispirited and distressed, like sheep without a shepherd.  [Zech 10:2 ] ‡

‡

The Twelve Disciples; Instructions for Service

<sup>8</sup> “Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. ‡

<sup>10</sup> or a provision bag for your journey, or even two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for the worker deserves his support. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Whatever city or village you enter, ask who in it is worthy [who welcomes you and your message], and stay at his house until you leave [that city]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “As you go into the house, give it your greeting [that is, ‘Peace be to this house’].

<sup>13</sup> “If [the family living in] the house is worthy [welcoming you and your message], give it your [blessing of] peace [that is, a blessing of well-being and prosperity, the favor of God]. But if it is not worthy, take back your blessing of peace. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Whoever does not welcome you, nor listen to your message, as you leave that house or city, shake the dust [of it] off your feet [in contempt, breaking all ties].  [Mark 6:11 ; Acts 13:51 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that city [since it rejected the Messiah’s messenger]. ‡

A Hard Road before Them

<sup>17</sup> “Beware of men [whose nature is to act in opposition to God], for they will hand you over to the courts and flog you in their synagogues; ‡

<sup>18</sup> and you will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as witnesses to them and to the Gentiles. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given you within that [very] hour;  [Mark 13:11–13 ; Luke 21:12–19 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> for it is not you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Brother will betray brother to death, and the father his child; and children will rise up and rebel against their parents and cause them to be put to death. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And you will be hated by everyone because of [your association with] My name, but it is the one who has patiently persevered and endured to the end who will be saved. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “When they persecute you in one city [because of your faith in Me], flee to the next; for I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you will not finish going through all the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes. ‡

The Meaning of Discipleship

<sup>25</sup>“It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the bond-servant like his master. If they have called the head of the house Beelzebul (Satan), how much more [will they speak evil of] the members of his household. [2 Kin 1:2] ‡

<sup>27</sup> “What I say to you in the dark (privately), tell in the light (publicly); and what you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim from the housetops [to many people].

<sup>29</sup> “Are not two little sparrows sold for a copper coin? And yet not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father’s will.

<sup>30</sup> “But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered [for the Father is sovereign and has complete knowledge]. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

<sup>32</sup>“Therefore, the one who confesses and acknowledges Me before men [as Lord and Savior, affirming a state of oneness with Me], that one I will also confess and acknowledge before My Father who is in heaven. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “But the one who denies and rejects Me before men, that one I will also deny and reject before My Father who is in heaven. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “Do not think that I have come to bring peace on the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword [of division between belief and unbelief].  [Luke 12:51–53] ‡

<sup>35</sup> “For I have come to SET A MAN AGAINST HIS FATHER , AND A DAUGHTER AGAINST HER MOTHER , AND A DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AGAINST HER MOTHER-IN-LAW ; ‡

<sup>36</sup> and A MAN ’ S ENEMIES WILL BE THE MEMBERS OF HIS [own] HOUSEHOLD [when one believes and another does not].  [Mic 7:6] ‡

<sup>37</sup> “He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me.  [Luke 14:26.] ‡

<sup>38</sup> “And he who does not take his cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me] is not worthy of Me. ‡

<sup>39</sup> “Whoever finds his life [in this world] will [eventually] lose it [through death], and whoever loses his life [in this world] for My sake will find it [that is, life with Me for all eternity].  [Matt 16:25; Mark 8:35; Luke 9:24; 17:33; John 12:25.] ‡

The Reward of Service

<sup>40</sup> “He who receives and welcomes you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.  [Mark 9:37; Luke 10:16; John 13:20.] ‡

<sup>41</sup> “He who receives and welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward; and he who receives a righteous (honorable) man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man’s reward. ‡

<sup>42</sup> “And whoever gives to one of these little ones [these who are humble in rank or influence] even a cup of cold water to drink because he is my disciple, truly I say to you, he will not lose his reward.” ‡

Matthew 11

John’s Questions

<sup>1</sup> WHEN JESUS had finished giving instructions to His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and to preach in their [Galilean] cities.

<sup>2</sup> Now when John [the Baptist] in prison heard about the activities of Christ, he sent word by his disciples  [Luke 7:18–35. ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> and asked Him, “Are You the Expected One (the Messiah), or should we look for someone else [who will be the promised One]?”  [Gen 49:10; Num 24:17; Ps 40:7; 118:26; Is 59:20. ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered, “Go and report to John what you hear and see:

<sup>5</sup> the BLIND RECEIVE [their] SIGHT and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed [by healing] and the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the POOR HAVE THE GOSPEL PREACHED TO THEM .  [Is 35:5, 6; 61:1. ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> “And blessed [joyful, favored by God] is he who does not take offense at Me [accepting Me as the Messiah and trusting confidently in My message of salvation].”  [Luke 7:23. ] ‡

Jesus’ Tribute to John

<sup>7</sup> As these men were going away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out in the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind [which is commonplace]? ‡

<sup>8</sup> “What did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing [entirely unsuited for the harsh desert]? Those who wear soft clothing are in the palaces of kings!

<sup>9</sup> “But what did you [really] go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and one [more eminent, more remarkable, and] far more than a prophet [who foretells the future]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “This is the one of whom it is written [by the prophet Malachi], ‡

‘B EHOLD , I SEND M Y MESSENGER AHEAD OF Y OU ,
W HO WILL PREPARE Y OUR WAY BEFORE Y OU .’  [Mal 3:1. ]

<sup>11</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater [in privilege] than he.

<sup>14</sup> “And if you are willing to accept it, John himself is [the fulfillment of] Elijah [as the messenger] who was to come [before the kingdom].  [Mal 4:5. ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like little children sitting in the market places, who call to the others, ‡

<sup>17</sup> and say ‘We piped the flute for you [playing wedding], and you did not dance; we waisted sad dirges [playing funeral], and you did not mourn and cry aloud.’

<sup>18</sup> “For John came neither eating nor drinking [with others], and they say, ‘He has a demon!’

<sup>19</sup> “The Son of Man came eating and drinking [with others], and they say, ‘Look! A glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews]!’ Yet wisdom is justified and vindicated by her deeds [in the lives of those who respond to Me].” ‡

The Unrepenting Cities

<sup>20</sup> Then He began to denounce [the people in] the cities in which most of His miracles were done, because they did not repent [and change their hearts and lives]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon [cities of the Gentiles], they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes [their hearts would have been changed and they would have expressed sorrow for their sin and rebellion against God]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Nevertheless I say to you, it will be more tolerable for [the pagan cities of] Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “And you, Capernaum, are you to be exalted to heaven [for your apathy and unresponsiveness]? You will descend to Hades (the realm of the dead); for if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment, than for you.” ‡

Come to Me

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth [I openly and joyfully acknowledge Your great wisdom], that You have hidden these things [these spiritual truths] from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to infants [to new believers, to those seeking God’s will and purpose]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Yes, Father, for this way was well-pleasing in Your sight.

<sup>27</sup> “All things have been handed over to Me by My Father; and no one fully knows and accurately understands the Son except the Father; and no one fully knows and accurately understands the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son [deliberately] wills to reveal Him. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Come to Me, all who are weary and heavily burdened [by religious rituals that provide no peace], and I will give you rest [refreshing your souls with salvation].

<sup>29</sup> “Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me [following Me as My disciple], for I am gentle and humble in heart, and YOU WILL FIND REST (renewal, blessed quiet) FOR YOUR SOULS .  [Jer 6:16 ] ‡

Sabbath Questions

<sup>1</sup> AT THAT particular time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His disciples were hungry and began to pick the heads of grain and eat them.  [Deut 23:25 ; Mark 2:23–28 ; Luke 6:1–5 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> But when the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath.”  [Ex 20:10 ; 23:12 ; Deut 5:14 ]

<sup>3</sup> He said to them, “Have you not read [in the Scriptures] what David did when he was hungry, he and those who accompanied him—  [Lev 24:9 ; 1 Sam 21:1–6 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> how he went into the house of God, and they ate the consecrated bread, which was not lawful for him to eat nor for those with him, but for the priests only? ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Or have you not read in the Law, that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple break [the sanctity of] the Sabbath and yet are innocent?  [Num 28:9 , 10 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> “And if you had only known what this statement means, ‘I DESIRE COMPASSION [for those in distress], AND NOT [animal] SACRIFICE ,’ you would not have condemned the innocent.  [Hos 6:6 ; Matt 9:13 ] ‡

Lord of the Sabbath

<sup>9</sup> Leaving there, He went into their synagogue.  [Mark 3:1–6 ; Luke 6:6–11 ]

<sup>10</sup> A man was there whose hand was withered. And they asked Jesus, “Is it lawful and permissible to heal on the Sabbath?”— they asked this so that they might accuse Him and bring charges into court. ‡

<sup>11</sup> But He said to them, “What man is there among you who, if he has only one sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? ‡

<sup>12</sup> “How much more valuable then is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful and permissible to do good on the Sabbath.”

<sup>13</sup> Then He said to the man, “Reach out your hand!” The man reached out and it was restored, as normal and healthy as the other.

<sup>16</sup> and warned them not to tell [publicly] who He was. ‡

M Y B ELOVED IN WHOM M Y SOUL IS WELL-PLEASED ;
I WILL PUT M Y S PIRIT UPON H IM ,
A ND H E WILL PROCLAIM JUSTICE TO THE NATIONS .

<sup>19</sup> “H E WILL NOT QUARREL , NOR CRY OUT LOUDLY ; N OR WILL ANYONE HEAR H IS VOICE IN THE STREETS .

<sup>20</sup> “A BATTERED REED H E WILL NOT BREAK , A ND A SMOLDERING WICK H E WILL NOT EXTINGUISH , U NTIL H E LEADS JUSTICE TO VICTORY .

<sup>21</sup> “A ND IN H IS NAME THE G ENTILES (all the nations of the world)
WILL HOPE [with confidence].”  [Is 42:1–4 ]

The Pharisees Rebuked

<sup>22</sup> Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Jesus, and He healed him, so that the mute man both spoke and saw.  [Mark 3:22–27 ; Luke 11:14 , 15. ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> All the people wondered in amazement, and said, “Could this be the Son of David (the Messiah)?”

<sup>25</sup> Knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them, “Any kingdom that is divided against itself is being laid waste; and no city or house divided against itself will [continue to] stand.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> “If Satan casts out Satan [that is, his demons], he has become divided against himself and disunited; how then will his kingdom stand?

<sup>27</sup> “If I cast out the demons by [the help of] Beelzebul (Satan), by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason they will be your judges.

<sup>28</sup> “But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out the demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you [before you expected it]. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “Or how can anyone go into a strong man’s house and steal his property unless he first overpowers and ties up the strong man? Then he will ransack and rob his house.  [Is 49:24, 25; Mark 3:27 ] ‡

The Unpardonable Sin

<sup>30</sup> “He who is not with Me [once and for all on My side] is against Me; and he who does not [unequivocally] gather with Me scatters.  [Luke 9:50 ; 11:23 ]

<sup>31</sup> “Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy [every evil, abusive, injurious speaking, or indignity against sacred things] will be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the [Holy] Spirit will not be forgiven. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit [by attributing the miracles done by Me to Satan] will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.  [Mark 3:29; Luke 12:10 ] ‡

Words Reveal Character

<sup>33</sup> “Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for the tree is recognized and judged by its fruit. ‡

and the evil man, from his [inner] evil treasure, brings out evil things.

<sup>36</sup> “But I tell you, on the day of judgment people will have to give an accounting for every careless or useless word they speak.

<sup>37</sup> “For by your words [reflecting your spiritual condition] you will be justified and acquitted of the guilt of sin; and by your words [rejecting Me] you will be condemned and sentenced.”

The Desire for Signs

<sup>38</sup> Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign (attesting miracle) from You [proving that You are what You claim to be].” ‡

<sup>39</sup> But He replied and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation [that is morally unfaithful to God] craves and demands a [miraculous] sign; but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah;  [Luke 11:29–32. ] ‡

<sup>40</sup> for just as J ONAH WAS THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS IN THE BELLY OF THE SEA MONSTER , so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.  [Jon 1:17. ] ‡

<sup>43</sup> “Now when the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it roams through waterless (dry, arid) places in search of rest, but it does not find it. ‡

<sup>44</sup> “Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when it arrives, it finds the place unoccupied, swept, and put in order.

<sup>45</sup> “Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and make their home there. And the last condition of that man becomes worse than the first. So will it also be with this wicked generation.” ‡

Changed Relationships

<sup>46</sup> While He was still talking to the crowds, it happened that His mother and brothers stood outside, asking to speak to Him.  [Mark 3:31–35 ; Luke 8:19–21 ] ‡

<sup>47</sup> Someone said to Him, “Look! Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside asking to speak to You.”

<sup>48</sup> But Jesus replied to the one who told Him, “Who is My mother and who are My brothers?”

<sup>49</sup> And stretching out His hand toward His disciples [and all His other followers], He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers!

<sup>50</sup> “For whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven [by believing in Me, and following Me] is My brother and sister and mother.” ‡

Matthew 13

Jesus Teaches in Parables

<sup>1</sup> THAT SAME day Jesus went out of the house and was sitting beside the sea [of Galilee].  [Mark 4:1–20 ; Luke 8:4–15 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> and as he sowed, some seed fell beside the road [between the fields], and the birds came and ate it.

<sup>5</sup> “Other seed fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil; and at once they sprang up because they had no depth of soil.

<sup>6</sup> “But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

<sup>7</sup> “Other seed fell among thorns, and thorns came up and choked them out.

<sup>8</sup> “Other seed fell on good soil and yielded grain, some a hundred times as much [as was sown], some sixty [times as much], and some thirty. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “He who has ears [to hear], let him hear and heed My words.” ‡

An Explanation

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples came to Him and asked, “Why do You speak to the crowds in parables?”

<sup>11</sup> Jesus replied to them, “To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted.  [Mark 4:11 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> “For whoever has [spiritual wisdom because he is receptive to God’s word], to him more will be given, and he will be richly and abundantly supplied; but whoever does not have [spiritual wisdom because he has devalued God’s word], even what he has will be taken away from him.  [Matt 25:29 ; Mark 4:25 ; Luke 8:18 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “This is the reason I speak to the crowds in parables: because while [having the power of] seeing they do not see, and while [having the power of] hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand and grasp [spiritual things].

<sup>14</sup> “In them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says, ‡

‘Y OU WILL HEAR and KEEP ON HEARING , BUT NEVER UNDERSTAND ; A ND YOU WILL LOOK and KEEP ON LOOKING , BUT NEVER COMPREHEND ;

<sup>15</sup> F OR THIS NATION’S HEART HAS GROWN HARD , ‡
A ND WITH THEIR EARS THEY HARDLY HEAR ,
A ND THEY HAVE [tightly] CLOSED THEIR EYES , O THERWISE THEY WOULD SEE WITH THEIR EYES ,
A ND HEAR WITH THEIR EARS ,
A ND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART , AND TURN [to Me]
A ND I WOULD HEAL THEM [spiritually].’  [Is 6:9 ]

<sup>16</sup> “But blessed [spiritually aware, and favored by God] are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear.  [Luke 10:23 , 24 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, many prophets and righteous men [who were honorable and in right standing with God] longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it. ‡

The Sower Explained

<sup>18</sup> “Listen then to the [meaning of the] parable of the sower:  [Mark 4:2–20 ; Luke 8:4–15 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> “The one on whom seed was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and at once welcomes it with joy; ‡

<sup>21</sup> yet he has no [substantial] root in himself, but is only temporary, and when pressure or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he stumbles and falls away [abandoning the One who is the source of salvation]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And the one on whom seed was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the worries and distractions of the world and the deceitfulness [the superficial pleasures and delight] of riches choke the word, and it yields no fruit. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “And the one on whom seed was sown on the good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands and grasps it; he indeed bears fruit and yields, some a hundred times [as much as was sown], some sixty [times as much], and some thirty.”  [Mark 4:2–20; Luke 8:4–15. ]

Weeds among Wheat

<sup>24</sup> Jesus gave them another parable [to consider], saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.

<sup>25</sup> “But while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds [resembling wheat] among the wheat, and went away.

<sup>26</sup> “So when the plants sprouted and formed grain, the weeds appeared also.

<sup>27</sup> “The servants of the owner came to him and said, ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Then how does it have weeds in it?’

<sup>28</sup> “He replied to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ The servants asked him, ‘Then do you want us to go and pull them out?’

<sup>29</sup> “But he said, ‘No; because as you pull out the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them.

<sup>30</sup> ‘Let them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, “First gather the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; but gather the wheat into my barn.” ’ ” ‡

The Mustard Seed

<sup>32</sup> and of all the seeds [planted in the region] it is the smallest, but when it has grown it is the largest of the garden herbs and becomes a tree, so that THE BIRDS OF THE AIR FIND SHELTER IN ITS BRANCHES .”  [Ezek 17:23 ]

The Leaven

<sup>33</sup>He told them another parable, “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and worked into three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”  [Gen 18:6; Luke 13:21 ] ‡

<sup>34</sup>All these things Jesus said to the crowds in parables, and He said nothing to them without [using] a parable. ‡

<sup>35</sup>This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet: ‡

“I WILL OPEN M Y MOUTH IN PARABLES ;
I WILL UTTER THINGS [unknown and unattainable] THAT HAVE BEEN HIDDEN [from mankind] SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF
THE WORLD .”  [Ps 78:2 ]

The Weeds Explained

<sup>38</sup>and the field is the world; and [as for] the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the weeds are the sons of the evil one; ‡

<sup>39</sup>and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the end of the age; and the reapers are angels. ‡

<sup>40</sup>“So just as the weeds are gathered up and burned in the fire, so will it be at the end of the age.

<sup>41</sup>“The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend [those things by which people are led into sin], and all who practice evil [leading others into sin], ‡

<sup>42</sup>and will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger]. ‡

<sup>43</sup>“Then THE RIGHTEOUS [those who seek the will of God] WILL SHINE FORTH [radiating the new life] LIKE THE SUN in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears [to hear], let him hear and heed My words.  [Dan 12:3 ] ‡

Hidden Treasure

44 “The kingdom of heaven is like a [very precious] treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid again; then in his joy he goes and sells all he has and buys that field [securing the treasure for himself]. ‡

A Costly Pearl

45 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls,

46 and upon finding a single pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it. ‡

A Dragnet

47 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet which was lowered into the sea, and gathered fish of every kind, ‡

48 and when it was full, they dragged it up on the beach; and they sat down and sorted out the good fish into baskets, but the worthless ones they threw away.

49 “So it will be at the end of the age; the angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous ‡

50 and throw the wicked into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].

51 “Have you understood all these things [in the lessons of the parables]?” They said to Jesus, “Yes.”

52 He said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household, who brings out of his treasure things that are new and fresh and things that are old and familiar.” ‡

Jesus Revisits Nazareth

53 When Jesus had finished these parables, He left there.

54 And after coming to [Nazareth] His hometown, He began teaching them in their synagogue, and they were astonished, and said, “Where did this Man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers [what is the source of His authority]?  [Mark 6:1–6; Luke 4:16, 23. ] ‡

<sup>56</sup> “And His sisters, are they not [living here] among us? Where then did this Man get all this [wisdom and power]?”

<sup>57</sup> And they took offense at Him [refusing to believe in Him]. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household.”‡

<sup>58</sup> And He did not do many miracles there [in Nazareth] because of their unbelief.‡

Matthew 14

John the Baptist Beheaded

<sup>1</sup> AT THAT time Herod [Antipas], the tetrarch [who governed a portion of Palestine including Galilee and Perea], heard the reports about Jesus, [Luke 9:7–9]‡

<sup>2</sup> and said to his attendants, “This is John the Baptist; he has been raised from the dead, and that is why the miraculous powers are at work in him.”

<sup>7</sup> so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

<sup>9</sup> The king was distressed, but because of his oaths, and because of his dinner guests, he ordered it to be given her.

<sup>11</sup> His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother [Herodias].

<sup>12</sup> And John’s disciples came and took away the body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Five Thousand Fed

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus heard about John, He left there privately in a boat and went to a secluded place. But when the crowds heard of this, they followed Him on foot from the cities.  [Mark 6:32–44; Luke 9:10–17; John 6:1–13 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> When He went ashore, He saw a large crowd, and felt [profound] compassion for them and healed their sick. ‡

<sup>15</sup> When evening came, the disciples came to Him and said, “This is an isolated place and the hour is already late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus said to them, “They do not need to go away; you give them something to eat!”

<sup>19</sup> Then He ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass, and He took the five loaves and the two fish and, looking up toward heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people, ‡

<sup>20</sup> and they all ate and were satisfied. They picked up twelve full baskets of the leftover broken pieces.

<sup>21</sup> There were about 5,000 men who ate, besides women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water

<sup>22</sup> Immediately He directed the disciples to get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side [of the Sea of Galilee], while He sent the crowds away.  [Mark 6:45–52; John 6:15–21 ]

<sup>23</sup> After He had dismissed the crowds, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. When it was evening, He was there alone. ‡

<sup>24</sup> But the boat [by this time] was already a long distance from land, tossed and battered by the waves; for the wind was against them.

<sup>25</sup> And in the fourth watch of the night (3:00–6:00 a.m.) Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.  [Mark 6:48; John 6:19 ]

<sup>26</sup> When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear. ‡

<sup>27</sup> But immediately He spoke to them, saying, “Take courage, it is I! Do not be afraid!”  [Ex 3:14 ]

<sup>28</sup> Peter replied to Him, “Lord, if it is [really] You, command me to come to You on the water.”

<sup>29</sup> He said, “Come!” So Peter got out of the boat, and walked on the water and came toward Jesus.

<sup>30</sup> But when he saw [the effects of] the wind, he was frightened, and he began to sink, and he cried out, “Lord, save me!”

<sup>32</sup> And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

<sup>33</sup> Then those in the boat worshiped Him [with awe-inspired reverence], saying, “Truly You are the Son of God!” ‡

<sup>35</sup> And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent word throughout all the surrounding district and brought to Him all who were sick;

Matthew 15

Tradition and Commandment

<sup>1</sup> THEN SOME Pharisees and scribes from Jerusalem came to Jesus and said,
‡

<sup>2</sup>—“Why do Your disciples violate the tradition (religious laws) handed down by the [Jewish] elders? For Your disciples do not [ceremonially] wash their hands before they eat.” ‡

<sup>3</sup>He replied to them, “Why also do you violate the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition [handed down by the elders]? ”

<sup>4</sup> “For God said [through Moses], ‘H ONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER , ’ and, ‘H E WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF or INSULTS or TREATS IMPROPERLY FATHER OR MOTHER IS TO BE PUT TO DEATH .’  [Ex 20:12 ; 21:17 ; Lev 20:9 ; Deut 5:16 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> “But you say, ‘If anyone says to his father or mother, “Whatever [money or resource that] I have that would help you is [already dedicated and] given to God,” ’

<sup>6</sup> he is not to honor his father or his mother [by helping them with their need].’ So by this you have invalidated the word of God [depriving it of force and authority and making it of no effect] for the sake of your tradition [handed down by the elders].

7“You hypocrites (play-actors, pretenders), rightly did Isaiah prophesy of you when he said, ‡

8 ‘T HIS PEOPLE HONORS M E WITH THEIR LIPS , ‡

B UT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM M E .

9 ‘B UT IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP M E , ‡

F OR THEY TEACH AS DOCTRINES THE PRECEPTS OF MEN .’ ”  [Is 29:13 ]

10 After Jesus called the crowd to Him, He said, “Listen and understand this: ‡

11 It is not what goes into the mouth of a man that defiles and dishonors him, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles and dishonors him.” ‡

12 Then the disciples came and said to Jesus, “Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard you say this?”

13 He answered, “Every plant which My heavenly Father did not plant will be torn up by the roots.  [Is 60:21 ] ‡

14 “Leave them alone; they are blind guides [ leading blind followers ]. If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit.” ‡

The Heart of Man

15 Peter asked Him, “Explain this parable [about what defiles a person] to us.” ‡

16 And He said, “Are you still so dull [and unable to put things together]? ‡

17 “Do you not understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and is eliminated? ‡

18 “But whatever [word] comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and this is what defiles and dishonors the man. ‡

19 “For out of the heart come evil thoughts and plans, murders, adulteries, sexual immoralities, thefts, false testimonies, slanders (verbal abuse, irreverent speech, blaspheming). ‡

20 “These are the things which defile and dishonor the man; but eating with [ceremonially] unwashed hands does not defile the man.”

The Syrophenician Woman

<sup>22</sup> And a Canaanite woman from that district came out and began to cry out [urgently], saying, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David (Messiah); my daughter is cruelly possessed by a demon.”

<sup>23</sup> But He did not say a word in answer to her. And His disciples came and asked Him [repeatedly], “Send her away, because she keeps shouting out after us.”

<sup>24</sup> He answered, “I was commissioned by God and sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> But she came and began to kneel down before Him, saying, “Lord, help me!”

<sup>27</sup> She said, “Yes, Lord; but even the pet dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their [young] masters’ table.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, your faith [your personal trust and confidence in My power] is great; it will be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed from that moment.

Healing Crowds

<sup>29</sup> Jesus went on from there and passed along by [the eastern shore of] the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on the hillside and was sitting there. ‡

<sup>30</sup> And great crowds came to Him, bringing with them the lame, crippled, blind, mute, and many others, and they put them down at His feet; and He healed them. ‡

<sup>31</sup> So the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled restored, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they praised and glorified the God of Israel.

Four Thousand Fed

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus called His disciples to Him, and said, “I feel compassion for the crowd, because they have been with Me now three days and have nothing [left] to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, because they might faint [from exhaustion] on the way [home].”  [Mark 8:1–21 ] ‡

<sup>33</sup> The disciples said to Him, “Where are we to get enough bread in this isolated place to feed so large a crowd?” ‡

<sup>34</sup> And Jesus asked them, “How many loaves [of bread] do you have?” They replied, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

<sup>35</sup> He directed the crowd to sit down on the ground,

<sup>36</sup> and He took the seven loaves and the fish; and when He had given thanks, He broke them and started giving them to the disciples, and the disciples [gave them] to the people. ‡

<sup>37</sup> And they all ate and were satisfied, and they gathered up seven full baskets of the broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>38</sup> [Among] those who ate were 4,000 men, not counting women and children.

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus sent the crowds away, got into the boat and went to the district of Magadan. ‡

Matthew 16

Pharisees Test Jesus

<sup>2</sup> But He replied to them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’

<sup>3</sup> “And in the morning, ‘It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and has a threatening look.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but cannot interpret the signs of the times?

<sup>4</sup> “An evil and [morally] unfaithful generation craves a [miraculous] sign; but no sign will be given to it, except the sign of [the prophet] Jonah.” Then He left them and went away.  [Jon 3:4, 5 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> When the disciples reached the other side of the sea, they realized that they had forgotten to bring bread. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, “Watch out and be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> They began to discuss this among themselves, saying, “He said that because we did not bring bread.”

<sup>8</sup> But Jesus, aware of this, said, “You men of little faith, why are you discussing among yourselves that you have no bread?

<sup>9</sup> “Do you still not understand or remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you picked up? ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many large baskets you picked up? ‡

<sup>11</sup> “How is it that you fail to understand that I was not talking to you about bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>12</sup> Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the [false] teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's Confession of Christ

<sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?”  [Mark 8:27–29; Luke 9:18–20 ] ‡ The Visits to Tyre, Sidon and Caesarea Philippi

<sup>14</sup> And they answered, “Some say John the Baptist; others, Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah, or [just] one of the prophets.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

<sup>16</sup> Simon Peter replied, “You are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of the living God.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus answered him, “Blessed [happy, spiritually secure, favored by God] are you, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood (mortal man) did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “And I say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades (death) will not overpower it [by preventing the resurrection of the Christ].  [Eph 1:22; 4:15; 5:23; Col 1:18 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> “I will give you the keys (authority) of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind [forbid, declare to be improper and unlawful] on earth will have [already] been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose [permit, declare lawful] on earth will have [already] been loosed in heaven.”  [Is 22:22; Matt 18:18 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then He gave the disciples strict orders to tell no one that He was the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed). ‡

Jesus Foretells His Death

<sup>21</sup> From that time on Jesus began to show His disciples [clearly] that He must go to Jerusalem, and endure many things at the hands of the elders and the chief priests and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), and be killed, and be raised [from death to life] on the third day.  [Mark 8:31–9:1 ; Luke 9:22–27 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> Peter took Him aside [to speak to Him privately] and began to reprimand Him, saying, “May God forbid it! This will never happen to You.”

<sup>23</sup> But Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on things of God, but on things of man.” ‡

Discipleship Is Costly

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone wishes to follow Me [as My disciple], he must deny himself [set aside selfish interests], and take up his cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me]. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “For whoever wishes to save his life [in this world] will [eventually] lose it [through death], but whoever loses his life [in this world] for My sake will find it [that is, life with Me for all eternity]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there are some of those standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.” ‡

Matthew 17

The Transfiguration

<sup>1</sup> SIX DAYS later Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John the brother of James, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves.  [Mark 9:2–8 ;

Luke 9:28–36 ] ‡ The Transfiguration

<sup>4</sup> Then Peter began to speak and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good and delightful and auspicious that we are here; if You wish, I will put up three [sacred] tents here—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased and delighted! Listen to Him!”  [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were terrified. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But Jesus came and touched them and said, “Get up, and do not be afraid.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus Himself alone.

<sup>9</sup> And as they were going down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Do not tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> The disciples asked Him, “Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” ‡

<sup>11</sup> He answered and said, “Elijah is coming and will restore all things; ‡

<sup>12</sup> but I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they did not recognize him, but did to him as they wished. The Son of Man is also going to suffer at their hands.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist.  [Mal 4:5] ‡

The Demonic

<sup>14</sup> When they approached the crowd, a man came up to Jesus, kneeling before Him and saying,  [Mark 9:14–27; Luke 9:37–42 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is a lunatic (moonstruck) and suffers terribly; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

<sup>16</sup> “And I brought him to Your disciples, and they were not able to heal him.”

<sup>17</sup> And Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.”

<sup>18</sup> Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed at once.

<sup>19</sup> Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, “Why could we not drive it out?”

<sup>20</sup> He answered, “Because of your little faith [your lack of trust and confidence in the power of God]; for I assure you and most solemnly say to you, if you have [living] faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and [if it is God’s will] it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.  [Mark 11:23; Luke 17:6; 1 John 5:14 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> “ [ But this kind of demon does not go out except by prayer and fasting. ] ”

<sup>22</sup> When they were gathering together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed and handed over to men [who are His enemies]; ‡ <sup>23</sup> and they will kill Him, and He will be raised [from death to life] on the third day.” And they were deeply grieved and distressed.

The Tribute Money

<sup>24</sup> When they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the half-shekel [temple tax] went up to Peter and said, “Does not your teacher pay the half-shekel?”  [Ex 30:13; 38:26 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> Peter answered, “Yes.” And when he came home, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do earthly rulers collect duties or taxes, from their sons or from strangers?”

<sup>26</sup> When Peter said, “From strangers,” Jesus said to him, “Then the sons are exempt [from taxation].

<sup>27</sup> “However, so that we do not offend them, go to the sea and throw in a hook, and take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a shekel. Take it and give it to them [to pay the temple tax] for you and Me.”

Matthew 18

Rank in the Kingdom

<sup>3</sup> and said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless you repent [that is, change your inner self—your old way of thinking, live changed lives] and become like children [trusting, humble, and forgiving], you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble and sin [by leading him away from My teaching], it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone [as large as one turned by a donkey] hung around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea. [Mark 9:42 ; Luke 17:2] ‡

Stumbling Blocks

<sup>7</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to the world because of stumbling blocks and temptations to sin! It is inevitable that stumbling blocks come; but woe to the person on whose account or through whom the stumbling block comes! [Luke 17:1] ‡

<sup>8</sup> “If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble and sin, cut it off and throw it away from you [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]; it is better for you to enter life crippled or lame, than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into everlasting fire.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> “If your eye causes you to stumble and sin, pluck it out and throw it away from you [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]; it is better for you to enter life with only one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fiery hell.

<sup>10</sup> “See that you do not despise or think less of one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven [are in the presence of and] continually look upon the face of My Father who is in heaven. [Acts 12:15 ; Heb 1:14] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “ [ For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost. ] ‡

Ninety-nine Plus One

<sup>12</sup> “What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them gets lost, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountain and go in search of the one that is lost?  [Luke 15:4–7 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “And if it turns out that he finds it, I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that did not get lost.

<sup>14</sup> “So it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones be lost.

Discipline and Prayer

<sup>15</sup> “If your brother sins, go and show him his fault in private; if he listens and pays attention to you, you have won back your brother. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “But if he does not listen, take along with you one or two others, so that EVERY WORD MAY BE CONFIRMED BY THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES . ‡

<sup>17</sup> “If he pays no attention to them [refusing to listen and obey], tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile (unbeliever) and a tax collector.  [Lev 19:17; Deut 19:15 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whatever you bind [forbid, declare to be improper and unlawful] on earth shall have [already] been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose [permit, declare lawful] on earth shall have [already] been loosed in heaven.  [Matt 16:19 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Again I say to you, that if two believers on earth agree [that is, are of one mind, in harmony] about anything that they ask [within the will of God], it will be done for them by My Father in heaven.  [1 John 5:14 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> “For where two or three are gathered in My name [meeting together as My followers], I am there among them.”  [Ex 3:14 ]

Forgiveness

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came to Him and asked, “Lord, how many times will my brother sin against me and I forgive him and let it go? Up to seven times?” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered him, “I say to you, not up to seven times, but seventy times seven. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “When he began the accounting, one who owed him 10,000 talents was brought to him.

<sup>27</sup> “And his master’s heart was moved with compassion and he released him and forgave him [canceling] the debt.

<sup>28</sup> “But that same slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and he seized him and began choking him, saying, ‘Pay what you owe!’

<sup>29</sup> “So his fellow slave fell on his knees and begged him earnestly, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you.’

<sup>30</sup> “But he was unwilling and he went and had him thrown in prison until he paid back the debt.

<sup>31</sup> “When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and they went and reported to their master [with clarity and in detail] everything that had taken place.

<sup>32</sup> “Then his master called him and said to him, ‘You wicked and contemptible slave, I forgave all that [great] debt of yours because you begged me.

<sup>33</sup> ‘Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave [who owed you little by comparison], as I had mercy on you?’

<sup>34</sup> “And in wrath his master turned him over to the torturers (jailers) until he paid all that he owed.

<sup>35</sup> “My heavenly Father will also do the same to [every one of] you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart.”‡

Matthew 19

Concerning Divorce

<sup>3</sup> And Pharisees came to Jesus, testing Him and asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?”

<sup>6</sup> “So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

<sup>7</sup> The Pharisees said to Him, “Why then did Moses command us to GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE AND SEND HER AWAY ?”  [Deut 24:1–4 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> He said to them, “Because your hearts were hard and stubborn Moses permitted you to divorce your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way.

<sup>10</sup> The disciples said to Jesus, “If the relationship of a man with his wife is like this, it is better not to marry.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> But He said to them, “Not all men can accept this statement, but only those to whom [the capacity to receive] it has been given. ‡

<sup>12</sup>—“For there are eunuchs who have been born that way from their mother’s womb [making them incapable of consummating a marriage]; and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men [for royal service]; and there are eunuchs who have made themselves so for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to accept this, let him accept it.” ‡

Jesus Blesses Little Children

<sup>13</sup> Then children were brought to Jesus so that He might place His hands on them [for a blessing] and pray; but the disciples reprimanded them. ‡

<sup>15</sup> After placing His hands on them [for a blessing], He went on from there.

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>16</sup> And someone came to Him and said, “Teacher, what [essentially] good thing shall I do to obtain eternal life [that is, eternal salvation in the Messiah’s kingdom]?”  [Lev 18:5 ; Mark 10:17–30 ; Luke 18:18–30 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Jesus answered, “Why are you asking Me about what is [essentially] good? There is only One who is [essentially] good; but if you wish to enter into eternal life, keep the commandments.”  [Luke 10:28. ]

<sup>18</sup> He said to Jesus, “Which commandments?” And Jesus answered, “Y OU SHALL NOT COMMIT MURDER ; Y OU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY ; Y OU SHALL NOT STEAL ; Y OU SHALL NOT GIVE FALSE TESTIMONY ;  [Ex 20:12–16 ; Deut 5:16–20 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> The young man said to Him, “I have kept all these things [from my youth]; what do I still lack?”  [Luke 18:21. ]

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered him, “If you wish to be perfect [that is, have the spiritual maturity that accompanies godly character with no moral or ethical deficiencies], go and sell what you have and give [the money] to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me [becoming My disciple, believing and trusting in Me and walking the same path of life that I walk].” ‡

<sup>22</sup> But when the young man heard this, he left grieving and distressed, for he owned much property and had many possessions [which he treasured more than his relationship with God].

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to His disciples, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, it is difficult for a rich man [who clings to possessions and status as security] to enter the kingdom of heaven. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man [who places his faith in wealth and status] to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>25</sup> When the disciples heard this, they were completely astonished and bewildered, saying, “Then who can be saved [from the wrath of God]?”

<sup>26</sup> But Jesus looked at them and said, “With people [as far as it depends on them] it is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”  [Gen 18:14 ; Job 42:2 ] ‡

The Disciples’ Reward

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter answered Him, saying, “Look, we have given up everything and followed You [becoming Your disciples and accepting You as Teacher and Lord]; what then will there be for us?” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, in the renewal [that is, the Messianic restoration and regeneration of all things] when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you [who have followed Me, becoming My disciples] will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”‡

<sup>29</sup> “And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or farms for My name’s sake will receive many times as much, and will inherit eternal life.”‡

<sup>30</sup> “But many who are first [in this world] will be last [in the world to come]; and the last, first.”‡

Matthew 20

Laborers in the Vineyard

<sup>2</sup> “When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard.

<sup>3</sup> “And he went out about the third hour (9:00 a.m.) and saw others standing idle in the market place;

<sup>4</sup> and he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right (an appropriate wage).’ And they went.

<sup>5</sup> “He went out about the sixth hour (noon) and the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.), and did the same thing.

<sup>6</sup> “And about the eleventh hour (5:00 p.m.) he went out and found others standing around, and he said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day?’

<sup>7</sup> “They answered him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He told them, ‘You go into the vineyard also.’

<sup>8</sup> “When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last [to be hired] and ending with the first [to be hired].’  [Lev 19:13; Deut 24:15. ]

<sup>9</sup> “Those who had been hired at the eleventh hour (5:00 p.m.) came and received a denarius each [a day’s wage].

<sup>10</sup> “Now when the first [to be hired] came, they thought they would get more; but each of them also received a denarius.

<sup>11</sup> “When they received it, they protested and grumbled at the owner of the estate,

<sup>12</sup> saying, ‘These men who came last worked [only] one hour, and yet you have made them equal [in wages] to us who have carried [most of] the burden and [worked in] the scorching heat of the day.’

<sup>13</sup> “But the owner of the estate replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no injustice. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?’

<sup>14</sup> ‘Take what belongs to you and go, but I choose to give to this last man [hired] the same as I give to you.

<sup>15</sup> ‘Am I not lawfully permitted to do what I choose with what is mine? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?’ ‡

<sup>16</sup> “So those who are last [in this world] shall be first [in the world to come], and those who are first, last.” ‡

Death, Resurrection Foretold

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve [disciples] aside, and along the way He said to them, ‡

<sup>18</sup> “Listen carefully: we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), and they will [judicially] condemn Him and sentence Him to death, ‡

<sup>19</sup> and will hand Him over to the Gentiles (Roman authorities) to be mocked and scourged and crucified, and He will be raised [to life] on the third day.” ‡

Preferred Treatment Asked

<sup>21</sup> And He said to her, “What do you wish?” She answered Him, “Command that in Your kingdom these two sons of mine may sit [in positions of honor and authority] one on Your right and one on Your left.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus replied, “You do not realize what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup [of suffering] that I am about to drink?” They answered, “We are able.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “You will drink My cup [of suffering]; but to sit on My right and on My left this is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> And when the [other] ten heard this, they were resentful and angry with the two brothers. ‡

<sup>25</sup> But Jesus called them to Himself and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles have absolute power and lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them [tyrannizing them].  [Mark 10:42–45 ; Luke 22:25–27 ]

<sup>26</sup> “It is not this way among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant, ‡

<sup>27</sup> and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your [willing and humble] slave; ‡

<sup>28</sup> just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many [paying the price to set them free from the penalty of sin].” ‡

Sight for the Blind

<sup>29</sup> As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him.  [Mark 10:46–52 ; Luke 18:35–43 ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> And two blind men were sitting by the road, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David (Messiah)!” ‡

<sup>31</sup> The crowd sternly told them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more, “Lord, Son of David (Messiah) have mercy on us!”

<sup>32</sup> Jesus stopped and called them, and asked, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

Matthew 21

The Triumphal Entry

19:29–38 ; John 12:12–15 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup>saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and at once you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to Me.

<sup>3</sup> “If anyone says anything to you, you should say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and without delay the owner will send them [with you].”

<sup>4</sup> This happened so that what was spoken by the prophet would be fulfilled, saying:

<sup>5</sup> “TELL THE DAUGHTER OF ZION (the people of Jerusalem), ‡
‘BEHOLD, YOUR KING IS COMING TO YOU,
GENTLE AND MOUNTED ON A DONKEY,
EVEN ON A COLT, THE FOAL OF A BEAST OF BURDEN.’”  [Is 62:11;
Zech 9:9. ]

<sup>6</sup> Then the disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them, ‡

<sup>7</sup> and they brought the donkey and the colt, and placed their coats on them; and Jesus sat on the coats. ‡

<sup>9</sup> The crowds that went ahead of Him, and those that followed Him, were shouting [in praise and adoration], ‡

“Hosanna to the Son of David (Messiah);
BLESSED [praised, glorified] IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD;
Hosanna in the highest [heaven]!”  [Ps 118:26. ]

<sup>10</sup> When He entered Jerusalem, all the city was trembling [with excitement], saying, “Who is this?” ‡

Cleansing the Temple

<sup>12</sup> And Jesus entered the temple [grounds] and drove out [with force] all who were buying and selling [birds and animals for sacrifice] in the temple area, and He turned over the tables of the moneychangers [who made a profit exchanging foreign money for temple coinage] and the chairs of those who were selling doves [for sacrifice].  [Mark 11:15–18 ; Luke 19:45–47 ; John 2:14–16 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said to them, “It is written [in Scripture], ‘M Y HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER ’; but you are making it a ROBBERS’ DEN .”  [Is 56:7 ; Jer 7:11 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> And the blind and the lame came to Him in [the porticoes and courts of] the temple area, and He healed them.

<sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful and miraculous things that Jesus had done, and heard the boys who were shouting in [the porticoes and courts of] the temple [in praise and adoration], “Hosanna to the Son of David (the Messiah),” they became indignant

<sup>16</sup> and they said to Him, “Do You hear what these children are saying?” And Jesus replied to them, “Yes; have you never read [in the Scripture], ‘O UT OF THE MOUTHS OF INFANTS AND NURSING BABIES Y OU HAVE PREPARED and PROVIDED PRAISE FOR Y OURSELF ’?”  [Ps 8:2 ] ‡

The Barren Fig Tree

<sup>18</sup> Now early in the morning, as Jesus was coming back to the city, He was hungry.  [Mark 11:12–14 , 20–24 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> Seeing a lone fig tree at the roadside, He went to it and found nothing but leaves on it; and He said to it, “Never again will fruit come from you.” And at once the fig tree withered. ‡

<sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw it, they were astonished and asked, “How is it that the fig tree has withered away all at once?” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Jesus replied to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, if you have faith [personal trust and confidence in Me] and do not doubt or allow yourself to be drawn in two directions, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ it will happen [if God wills it].  [1 John 5:14 ] ‡

Authority Challenged

<sup>23</sup> When He entered the temple area, the chief priests and elders of the people came to Him as He was teaching and said, “By what [kind of] authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority [to exercise this power]?”  [Mark 11:27–33 ; Luke 20:1–8 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> Jesus replied to them, “I will also ask you a question, and if you tell Me the answer, then I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>25</sup> “The baptism of John—from where did it come? From heaven [that is, ordained by God] or from men?” And they began debating among themselves [considering the implications of their answer], saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Then why did you not believe John?’

<sup>26</sup> “But if we say, ‘From men,’ we are afraid of the [response of the] crowd; for they all regard John as a prophet.” ‡

<sup>27</sup> So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And He said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what [kind of] authority I do these things.”

Parable of Two Sons

<sup>28</sup> “What do you think? There was a man who had two sons, and he came to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’

<sup>29</sup> “And he answered, ‘I will not’; but afterward he regretted it and changed his mind and went.

<sup>30</sup> “Then the man came to the second son and said the same thing; and he replied, ‘I will, sir’; but he did not go.

<sup>31</sup> “Which of the two did the will of the father?” The chief priests and elders replied, “The first one.” Jesus said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes will get into the kingdom of God before you. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “For John came to you [walking] in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did believe him; and you, seeing this, did not even change your mind afterward and believe him [accepting what he proclaimed to you]. ‡

Parable of the Landowner

<sup>33</sup>—“Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who PLANTED A VINEYARD AND PUT A WALL AROUND IT AND DUG A WINE PRESS IN IT , AND BUILT A TOWER , and rented it out to tenant farmers and went on a journey [to another country].  [Is 5:1–7 ; Mark 12:1–12 ; Luke 20:9–19 ] ‡

<sup>34</sup> “When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to get his [share of the] fruit. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “But the tenants took his servants and beat one, and killed another, and stoned a third. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “Again he sent other servants, more than the first time; and they treated them the same way.

<sup>37</sup> “Finally he sent his own son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son and have regard for him.’

<sup>38</sup> “But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This [man] is the heir; come on, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.’ ‡

<sup>39</sup> “So they took the son and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ‡

<sup>40</sup> “Now when the owner of the vineyard comes back, what will he do to those tenants?”

<sup>41</sup> They said to Him, “He will put those despicable men to a miserable end, and rent out the vineyard to other tenants [of good character] who will pay him the proceeds at the proper seasons.” ‡

<sup>42</sup> Jesus asked them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures: ‡

‘T HE [very] S TONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED and THREW AWAY ,

H AS BECOME THE CHIEF C ORNERSTONE ;

T HIS IS THE L ORD ’ S DOING ,

A ND IT IS MARVELOUS and WONDERFUL IN OUR EYES ?  [Ps 118:22, 23 ]

<sup>43</sup> “Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to [another] people who will produce the fruit of it. ‡

<sup>44</sup> “And he who falls on this Stone will be broken to pieces; but he on whom it falls will be crushed.”  [Is 8:14, 15; Dan 2:34, 35] ‡

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they understood that He was talking about them.

<sup>46</sup> And although they were trying to arrest Him, they feared the people, because they regarded Jesus as a prophet. ‡

Matthew 22

Parable of the Marriage Feast

<sup>2</sup> “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son.

<sup>3</sup> “And he sent his servants to call those who had [previously] been invited to the wedding feast, but they refused to come.

<sup>4</sup> “Then he sent out some other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited, ‘Look, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fattened calves are butchered and everything is ready; come to the wedding feast.’’ ‡

<sup>6</sup> “The rest [of the invited guests] seized his servants and mistreated them [insulting and humiliating them] and killed them.

<sup>8</sup> “Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding [feast] is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘So go to the main highways that lead out of the city, and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find.’

<sup>11</sup> “But when the king came in to see the dinner guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed [appropriately] in wedding clothes, ‡

<sup>12</sup> and he said, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without wearing the wedding clothes [that were provided for you]?’ And the man was speechless and without excuse.

<sup>13</sup> “Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Tie him hand and foot, and throw him into the darkness outside; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].’ ‡

Tribute to Caesar

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went and conspired together plotting how to trap Him by [distorting] what He said.  [Mark 12:13–17; Luke 20:20–26 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> They sent their disciples to Him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are sincere and that You teach the way of God truthfully, without concerning Yourself about [what] anyone [thinks or says of Your teachings]; for You are impartial and do not seek anyone’s favor [and You treat all people alike, regardless of status].

<sup>17</sup> “Tell us then, what do You think? Is it permissible [according to Jewish law and tradition] to pay a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?”

<sup>18</sup> But Jesus, aware of their malice, asked, “Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites?

<sup>19</sup> “Show me the coin used for the poll-tax.” And they brought Him a denarius [a day’s wage].

<sup>20</sup> And Jesus said to them, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?”

<sup>21</sup> They said, “[The Emperor Tiberius] Caesar’s.” Then He said to them, “Then pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s; and to God the things that are God’s.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> When they heard this, they were caught off guard, and they left Him and went away.

Jesus Answers the Sadducees

<sup>23</sup> On that day some Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection [of the dead], came to Him and asked Him a question,  [Mark 12:18–27; Luke 20:27–40 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married and died, and having no children left his wife to his brother.

<sup>26</sup> “The second also [died childless], and the third, down to the seventh.

<sup>28</sup> “So in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had married her.”

<sup>29</sup> But Jesus replied to them, “You are all wrong because you know neither the Scriptures [which teach the resurrection] nor the power of God [for He is able to raise the dead]. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “For in the resurrection neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage, but they are like angels in heaven [who do not marry nor produce children]. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “But as to the resurrection of the dead—have you not read [in the Scripture] what God said to you:

<sup>32</sup> ‘I AM THE G OD OF A BRAHAM , AND THE G OD OF I SAAC , AND THE G OD OF . He is not the God of the dead, but of the living.’  [Ex 3:6] ‡

<sup>42</sup> “What do you [Pharisees] think of the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)? Whose Son is He?” They said to Him, “ The son of David.”

<sup>43</sup> Jesus asked them, “How is it then that David by the inspiration of the Spirit, calls Him ‘Lord,’ saying,

<sup>44</sup> ‘T HE L ORD (the Father) SAID TO MY L ORD (the Son, the Messiah), ‡

“S IT AT M Y RIGHT HAND ,
U NTIL I PUT Y OUR ENEMIES UNDER Y OUR FEET ” ’?  [Ps 110:1] ‡

<sup>45</sup> “So then, if David calls Him (the Son, the Messiah) ‘Lord,’ how is He David’s son?”

<sup>46</sup> No one was able to say a word to Him in answer, nor from that day on did anyone dare to question Him again. ‡

Matthew 23

Pharisaism Exposed

<sup>1</sup> THEN JESUS spoke to the crowds and to His disciples, Jewish Sects

<sup>3</sup> so practice and observe everything they tell you, but do not do as they do; for they preach [things], but do not practice them. ‡

<sup>7</sup> and to be greeted [with respect] in the market places and public forums, and to have people call them Rabbi.

<sup>8</sup> “But do not be called Rabbi (Teacher); for One is your Teacher, and you are all [equally] brothers. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Do not call anyone on earth [who guides you spiritually] your father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Do not let yourselves be called leaders or teachers; for One is your Leader (Teacher), the Christ.

<sup>11</sup> “But the greatest among you will be your servant. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and whoever humbles himself shall be raised to honor. ‡

Eight Woes

<sup>13</sup> “But woe (judgment is coming) to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you shut off the kingdom of heaven in front of people; for you do not enter yourselves, nor do you allow those who are [in the process of] entering to do so.  [Luke 11:52 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> “ [ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you swallow up widows' houses, and to cover it up you make long prayers; therefore you will receive the greater condemnation. ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel over sea and land to make a single proselyte (convert to Judaism), and when he becomes a convert, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you are.

<sup>16</sup> “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears [an oath] by the sanctuary of the temple, that is nothing (non-binding); but whoever swears [an oath] by the gold of the temple is obligated [as a debtor to fulfill his vow and keep his promise].’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “You fools and blind men! Which is more important, the gold or the sanctuary of the temple that sanctified the gold?  [Ex 30:29 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> “And [you scribes and Pharisees say], ‘Whoever swears [an oath] by the altar, that is nothing (non-binding), but whoever swears [an oath] by the offering on it, he is obligated [as a debtor to fulfill his vow and keep his promise].’

<sup>19</sup> “You [spiritually] blind men, which is more important, the offering, or the altar that sanctifies the offering? ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Therefore, whoever swears [an oath] by the altar, swears both by it and by everything [offered] on it.

<sup>21</sup> “And whoever swears [an oath] by the sanctuary of the temple, swears by it and by Him who dwells within it.  [1 Kin 8:13 ; Ps 26:8 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And whoever swears [an oath] by heaven, swears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits upon it. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you give a tenth (tithe) of your mint and dill and cumin [focusing on minor matters], and have neglected the weightier [more important moral and spiritual] provisions of the Law: justice and mercy and faithfulness; but these are the [primary] things you ought to have done without neglecting the others. ‡

<sup>24</sup>—“You [spiritually] blind guides, who strain out a gnat [consuming yourselves with minuscule matters] and swallow a camel [ignoring and violating God's precepts]!  [Lev 11:24 ; 27:30 ; Mic 6:8 ]

<sup>25</sup>—“Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of extortion and robbery and self-indulgence (unrestrained greed). ‡

<sup>26</sup> “You [spiritually] blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the plate [examine and change your inner self to conform to God’s precepts], so that the outside [your public life and deeds] may be clean also.

<sup>27</sup> “Woe to you, [self-righteous] scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which look beautiful on the outside, but inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “So you, also, outwardly seem to be just and upright to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.  [Ps 5:9 ]

<sup>30</sup> and you say, ‘If we had been living in the days of our fathers, we would not have joined them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

<sup>31</sup> “So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “Therefore, take notice, I am sending you prophets and wise men [interpreters, teachers] and scribes [men educated in the Mosaic Law and the writings of the prophets]; some of them you will kill and even crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues, and pursue and persecute from city to city, ‡

<sup>35</sup> so that on you will come the guilt of all the blood of the righteous shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah [the priest], the son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.  [Gen 4:8; 2 Chr 24:21; Luke 11:51. ] ‡

<sup>36</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, [the judgment for] all these things [these vile and murderous deeds] will come on this generation.  [2 Chr 36:15, 16. ]

Lament over Jerusalem

<sup>37</sup> “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who murders the prophets and stones [to death] those [messengers] who are sent to her [by God]! How often I wanted to gather your children together [around Me], as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling.  [Luke 13:34 , 35 ] ‡

<sup>39</sup> “For I say to you, you will not see Me again [ministering to you publicly] until you say, ‘B LESSED [to be celebrated with praise] IS H E WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE L ORD !’ ”  [Ps 118:26 ] ‡

Matthew 24

Signs of Christ’s Return

<sup>2</sup> And He said to them, “Do you see all these things? I assure you and most solemnly say to you, not one stone here will be left on another, which will not be torn down.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> While Jesus was seated on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, and said, “Tell us, when will this [destruction of the temple] take place, and what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end (completion, consummation) of the age?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered, “Be careful that no one misleads you [deceiving you and leading you into error]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “For many will come in My name [misusing it, and appropriating the strength of the name which belongs to Me], saying, ‘I am the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed),’ and they will mislead many. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “You will continually hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end [of the age].

<sup>7</sup> “For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs [of the intolerable anguish and the time of unprecedented trouble].

<sup>9</sup> “Then they will hand you over to [endure] tribulation, and will put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “At that time many will be offended and repelled [by their association with Me] and will fall away [from the One whom they should trust] and will betray one another [handing over believers to their persecutors] and will hate one another. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Because lawlessness is increased, the love of most people will grow cold.

<sup>13</sup> “But the one who endures and bears up [under suffering] to the end will be saved. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “This good news of the kingdom [the gospel] will be preached throughout the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end [of the age] will come. ‡

Perilous Times

<sup>16</sup>then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains [for refuge].

<sup>19</sup> “And woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Pray that your flight [from persecution and suffering] will not be in winter, or on a Sabbath [when Jewish laws prohibit travel].

<sup>21</sup> “For at that time there will be a great tribulation (pressure, distress, oppression), such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will [again].  [Dan 12:1 ; Joel 2:2 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And if those days [of tribulation] had not been cut short, no human life would be saved; but for the sake of the elect (God’s chosen ones) those days will be shortened. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Then if anyone says to you [during the great tribulation], ‘Look! Here is the Christ,’ or ‘There He is,’ do not believe it. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “For false Christs and false prophets will appear and they will provide great signs and wonders, so as to deceive, if possible, even the elect (God’s chosen ones). ‡

<sup>26</sup> “So if they say to you, ‘Look! He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out there, or, ‘Look! He is in the inner rooms [of a house],’ do not believe it.

<sup>27</sup> “For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming [in glory] of the Son of Man [everyone will see Him clearly]. ‡

The Glorious Return

<sup>29</sup> “Immediately after the tribulation of those days THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED , AND THE MOON WILL NOT PROVIDE ITS LIGHT , AND THE STARS WILL FALL from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.  [Is 13:10 ; 34:4 ; Joel 2:10 , 11 ; Zeph 1:15 ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> “And at that time the sign of the Son of Man [coming in His glory] will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth [and especially Israel] will mourn [regretting their rebellion and rejection of the Messiah], and they will see the SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN with power and great glory [in brilliance and splendor].  [Dan 7:13 ; Rev 1:7 ] ‡

Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>33</sup> so you, too, when you see all these things [taking place], know for certain that He is near, right at the door. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this generation [the people living when these signs and events begin] will not pass away until all these things take place. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “Heaven and earth [as now known] will pass away, but My words will not pass away. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “For the coming of the Son of Man (the Messiah) will be just like the days of Noah.

<sup>38</sup> “For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the [very] day when Noah entered the ark,‡

<sup>39</sup> and they did not know or understand until the flood came and swept them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be [unexpected judgment].  [Gen 6:5–8 ; 7:6–24. ]

<sup>40</sup> “At that time two men will be in the field; one will be taken [for judgment] and one will be left.‡

<sup>41</sup> “Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken [for judgment] and one will be left.

Be Ready for His Coming

<sup>42</sup> “So be alert [give strict attention, be cautious and active in faith], for you do not know which day [whether near or far] your Lord is coming.‡

<sup>43</sup> “But understand this: If the head of the house had known what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into.  [Luke 12:39 , 40. ]‡

<sup>48</sup> “But if that servant is evil and says in his heart, ‘My master is taking his time [he will not return for a long while],’

<sup>49</sup> and begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards;

<sup>50</sup> the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour of which he is not aware,

<sup>51</sup> and will cut him in two and put him with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger]. ‡

Matthew 25

Parable of Ten Virgins

<sup>1</sup> “THEN THE kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Five of them were foolish [thoughtless, silly, and careless], and five were wise [far-sighted, practical, and sensible]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Now while the bridegroom was delayed, they all began to nod off, and they fell asleep. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “But at midnight there was a shout, ‘Look! The bridegroom [is coming]! Go out to meet him.’ ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Then all those virgins got up and put their own lamps in order [trimmed the wicks and added oil and lit them]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But the foolish virgins said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.’

<sup>9</sup> “But the wise replied, ‘No, otherwise there will not be enough for us and for you, too; go instead to the dealers and buy oil for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup> “But while they were going away to buy oil, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast; and the door was shut and locked. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Later the others also came, and said, ‘Lord, Lord, open [the door] for us.’ ‡

<sup>12</sup> “But He replied, ‘I assure you and most solemnly say to you, I do not know you [we have no relationship].’ ‡

Parable of the Talents

27] ‡ The Life of Christ

<sup>15</sup> “To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and then he went on his journey. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “The one who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he [made a profit and] gained five more.

<sup>17</sup> “Likewise the one who had two [made a profit and] gained two more.

<sup>18</sup> “But the one who had received the one went and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.

<sup>19</sup> “Now after a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.

<sup>20</sup> “And the one who had received the five talents came and brought him five more, saying, ‘Master, you entrusted to me five talents. See, I have [made a profit and] gained five more talents.’

<sup>21</sup> “His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little, I will put you in charge of many things; share in the joy of your master.’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Also the one who had the two talents came forward, saying, ‘Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have [made a profit and] gained two more talents.’

<sup>23</sup> “His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little, I will put you in charge of many things; share in the joy of your master.’ ‡

<sup>24</sup> “The one who had received one talent also came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew you to be a harsh and demanding man, reaping [the harvest] where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter seed .

<sup>25</sup> “So I was afraid [to lose the talent], and I went and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is your own.’

<sup>26</sup> “But his master answered him, ‘You wicked, lazy servant, you knew that I reap [the harvest] where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter seed .

<sup>27</sup> “Then you ought to have put my money with the bankers, and at my return I would have received my money back with interest.

<sup>28</sup> “So take the talent away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.’

<sup>29</sup> “For to everyone who has [and values his blessings and gifts from God, and has used them wisely], more will be given, and [he will be richly supplied so that] he will have an abundance; but from the one who does not have [because he has ignored or disregarded his blessings and gifts from God], even what he does have will be taken away.  [Matt 13:12; Luke 19:26 ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> “And throw out the worthless servant into the outer darkness; in that place [of grief and torment] there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger]. ‡

The Judgment

<sup>31</sup> “But when the Son of Man comes in His glory and majesty and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory.  [Rev 20:4–6 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> “All the nations will be gathered before Him [for judgment]; and He will separate them from one another, as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats;  [Ezek 34:17 ] ‡

<sup>34</sup> “Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you blessed of My Father [you favored of God, appointed to eternal salvation], inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ‡

<sup>35</sup> ‘For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; ‡

<sup>36</sup> I was naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me [with help and ministering care]; I was in prison, and you came to Me [ignoring personal danger].’  [Is 58:7 ] ‡

<sup>37</sup> “Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink?’

<sup>38</sup> ‘And when did we see You as a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You?’

<sup>39</sup> ‘And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?’

<sup>40</sup> “The King will answer and say to them, ‘I assure you and most solemnly say to you, to the extent that you did it for one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it for Me.’  [Prov 19:17 ] ‡

<sup>41</sup> “Then He will say to those on His left, ‘Leave Me, you cursed ones, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels (demons); ‡

<sup>42</sup> for I was hungry, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me nothing to drink;

<sup>43</sup> I was a stranger, and you did not invite Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me [with help and ministering care].’

<sup>44</sup> “Then they also [in their turn] will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or as a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to You?’

<sup>45</sup> “Then He will reply to them, ‘I assure you and most solemnly say to you, to the extent that you did not do it for one of the least of these [my followers], you did not do it for Me.’  [Prov 14:31 ; 17:5 ] ‡

<sup>46</sup> “Then these [unbelieving people] will go away into eternal (unending) punishment, but those who are righteous and in right standing with God [will go, by His remarkable grace] into eternal (unending) life.”  [Dan 12:2 ] ‡

The Plot to Kill Jesus

<sup>1</sup> WHEN JESUS had finished this discourse, He said to His disciples,

<sup>4</sup> and plotted together to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill Him.

<sup>5</sup> But they said, “It must not be during the festival (Passover), otherwise there might be a riot among the people.”

The Anointing in Bethany

<sup>6</sup> Now when Jesus was [back] in Bethany, at the home of Simon the leper,  [Mark 14:3–9 ; John 12:1–8 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very expensive perfume and she poured it on Jesus’ head as He reclined at the table .

<sup>9</sup> “For this perfume might have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor.”

<sup>10</sup> But Jesus, aware [of the malice] of this [remark], said to them, “Why are you bothering the woman? She has done a good thing to Me.

<sup>11</sup> “For you always have the poor with you; but you will not always have Me.  [Deut 15:11; Mark 14:7. ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> “When she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.

<sup>13</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, wherever this gospel [of salvation] is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her [for her act of love and devotion].”

Judas' Bargain

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the twelve [disciples], who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests ‡

<sup>15</sup> and said, “What are you willing to give me if I hand Jesus over to you?” And they weighed out thirty pieces of silver.  [Ex 21:32; Zech 11:12. ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> And from that moment Judas began looking for an opportune time to betray Jesus.  [Mark 14:10, 11; Luke 22:3–6; John 6:71. ]

<sup>17</sup> Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread (Passover Week) the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”  [Mark 14:12–16; Luke 22:7–13. ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, ‘My time [to suffer and atone for sin] is near; I am to keep the Passover at your house with My disciples.’’’”

<sup>19</sup> [Accordingly] the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover.  [Deut 16:5–8. ]

The Last Passover

<sup>21</sup> And as they were eating, He said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you that one of you will betray Me.”

<sup>22</sup> Being deeply grieved and extremely distressed, each one of them began to say to Him, “Surely not I, Lord?”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered, “He who has dipped his hand in the bowl with Me [as a pretense of friendship] will betray Me. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “The Son of Man is to go [to the cross], just as it is written [in Scripture] of Him; but woe (judgment is coming) to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had never been born.” [Ps 41:9] ‡

<sup>25</sup> And Judas, the betrayer, said, “Surely it is not I, Rabbi?” Jesus said to him, “You have said it yourself.”

The Lord’s Supper Instituted

<sup>26</sup> Now as they were eating Jesus took bread, and after blessing it, He broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is My body.” [Mark 14:22–25; Luke 22:17–20; 1 Cor 11:23–25] ‡

<sup>27</sup> And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you; ‡

<sup>28</sup> for this is My blood of the [new and better] covenant, which [ratifies the agreement and] is being poured out for many [as a substitutionary atonement] for the forgiveness of sins. [Ex 24:6–8] ‡

<sup>29</sup> “But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father’s kingdom.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away because of Me this night [disillusioned about Me, confused, and some even ashamed of Me], for it is written [in the Scriptures], ‘I WILL STRIKE THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP OF THE FLOCK WILL BE SCATTERED.’” [Zech 13:7] ‡

<sup>32</sup> “But after I am raised [to life], I will go ahead of you [leading the way] to Galilee.” ‡

<sup>33</sup> Peter replied to Him, “Though they all fall away because of You [and doubt and disown You], I will never fall away!” [Mark 14:29–31; Luke 22:33, 34; John 13:37, 38]

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this night, before a rooster crows, you will [completely] deny Me three times.” ‡

<sup>35</sup> Peter said to Jesus, “Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!” And all the disciples said the same thing.

The Garden of Gethsemane

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane (olive-press), and He told His disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”  [Mark 14:32–42; Luke 22:40–46. ] ‡

<sup>37</sup> And taking with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee [James and John], He began to be grieved and greatly distressed. ‡

<sup>38</sup> Then He said to them, “My soul is deeply grieved, so that I am almost dying of sorrow. Stay here and stay awake and keep watch with Me.” ‡

<sup>39</sup> And after going a little farther, He fell face down and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it is possible [that is, consistent with Your will], let this cup pass from Me; yet not as I will, but as You will.” ‡

<sup>40</sup> And He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “So, you men could not stay awake and keep watch with Me for one hour?

<sup>41</sup> “Keep actively watching and praying that you may not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.” ‡

<sup>42</sup> He went away a second time and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done.”

<sup>43</sup> Again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

<sup>44</sup> So, leaving them again, He went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words once more.

<sup>45</sup> Then He returned to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Listen, the hour [of My sacrifice] is at hand and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners [whose way and nature is to oppose God].

Jesus’ Betrayal and Arrest

<sup>48</sup> Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I kiss, He is the one; seize Him.”

<sup>49</sup> Immediately Judas went to Jesus and said, “Greetings (rejoice), Rabbi!” And he kissed Him [in a deliberate act of betrayal]. ‡

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to Judas, “Friend, do what you came for.” Then they came and seized Jesus and arrested Him. ‡

<sup>51</sup> And one of those who were with Jesus reached out and drew his sword, and struck [Malchus] the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.  [Mark 14:47; Luke 22:50; John 18:10 ] ‡

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back in its place; for all those who habitually draw the sword will die by the sword.  [Gen 9:6 ] ‡

<sup>53</sup>—“Do you think that I cannot appeal to My Father, and He will immediately provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels? ‡

<sup>54</sup> “How then will the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen this way?”
‡

<sup>55</sup> At that moment Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would against a robber? Day after day I used to sit in the porches and courts of the temple teaching, and you did not arrest Me.

<sup>56</sup> “But all this has taken place so that the Scriptures of the prophets would be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted Him and fled. ‡

Jesus before Caiaphas

<sup>57</sup> Those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) had gathered [illegally] together.  [Mark 14:53–65; Luke 22:66–71; John 18:12f, 19–24 ] ‡

<sup>58</sup> But Peter followed Him at a distance as far as the courtyard of the [elegant home of the Jewish] high priest, and went inside, and sat with the guards to see the outcome.

<sup>59</sup> Now the chief priests and the whole Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) tried to get false witnesses to testify against Jesus, so that they might [have a reason to] put Him to death.

<sup>60</sup> They found none, even though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward, ‡

<sup>61</sup> and testified, “This man said, ‘I am able to tear down the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’ ” ‡

<sup>62</sup> The high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Have You no answer to give? What is it that these men are testifying against You?” ‡

<sup>63</sup> But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest said to Him, “I call on You to swear a binding oath by the living God, that you tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God.” ‡

<sup>64</sup> Jesus said to him, “You have [in fact] said it; but more than that I tell you [regardless of what you do with Me now], in the future you will see [Me revealed as] THE SON OF MAN SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF POWER, and COMING

ON THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN .”  [Ps 110:1 ; Dan 7:13 ] ‡

<sup>65</sup> Then the high priest tore his robes [in mock horror] and exclaimed, “He has blasphemed [by making Himself God’s equal]! What further need have we of witnesses or evidence? See, you have now heard the blasphemy.  [Lev 24:16 ; Num 14:6 ] ‡

<sup>68</sup> saying, “Prophesy to us, You Christ (Messiah, Anointed); who was it that struck You?” ‡

Peter’s Denials

<sup>70</sup> But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know what you are talking about.”

<sup>71</sup> And when he had gone out to the gateway, another servant-girl saw him and she said to the bystanders, “This man was with Jesus the Nazarene.”

<sup>74</sup> Then he began to curse [that is, to invoke God’s judgment on himself] and swear [an oath], “I do not know the man!” And at that moment a rooster crowed. ‡

<sup>75</sup> And Peter remembered the [prophetic] words of Jesus, when He had said, “Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly [in repentance]. ‡

Matthew 27

Judas’ Remorse

<sup>1</sup> WHEN IT was morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) conferred together against Jesus, [plotting how] to put Him to death [since under Roman rule they had no power to execute anyone]; ‡

<sup>2</sup> so they bound Him, and led Him away and handed Him over to Pilate the governor [of Judea, who had the authority to condemn prisoners to death]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> When Judas, His betrayer, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was gripped with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders,  [Ex 21:32 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> So after consultation they used the money to buy the Potter’s Field as a burial place for strangers.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore that piece of ground has been called the Field of Blood to this day. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the words spoken by Jeremiah the prophet were fulfilled: “A ND THEY TOOK THE THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER , THE PRICE OF H IM ON WHOM A PRICE HAD BEEN SET by the sons of Israel;  [Jer 18:1, 2; 19:1–15; 32:6–9 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> AND THEY GAVE THEM FOR THE P OTTER’S F IELD , AS THE L ORD DIRECTED ME Zech 11:13. ]

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>11</sup> Now Jesus stood before [Pilate] the governor, and the governor asked Him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” [In affirmation] Jesus said to him, “It is as you say.”  [Mark 15:2–5; Luke 23:2, 3; John 18:29–37 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate said to Him, “Do You not hear how many things they are testifying against You?” ‡

<sup>14</sup> But Jesus did not reply to him, not even to a single accusation, so that the governor was greatly astonished.

<sup>16</sup> And at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner [guilty of insurrection and murder], called Barabbas.

<sup>17</sup> So when they had assembled [for this purpose], Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to set free for you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?”

<sup>18</sup> For Pilate knew that it was because of jealousy that the chief priests and elders had handed Jesus over to him.

<sup>19</sup> While he was seated on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous and innocent Man; for last night I suffered greatly in a dream because of Him.”

<sup>20</sup> But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to put Jesus to death. ‡

<sup>21</sup> The governor said to them, “Which of the two do you wish me to set free for you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”

<sup>22</sup> Pilate said to them, “Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?” They all replied, “Let Him be crucified!”

<sup>23</sup> And he said, “Why, what has He done that is evil?” But they continued shouting all the louder, “Let Him be crucified!”  [Mark 15:14; Luke 23:4, 14, 22; John 18:39; 19:4, 6. ]

<sup>24</sup> So when Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but rather that a riot was breaking out, he took water and washed his hands [to ceremonially cleanse himself of guilt] in the presence of the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this [righteous] Man’s blood; see to that yourselves.”  [Deut 21:6–9; Ps 26:6 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> And all the people answered, “Let [the responsibility for] His blood be on us and on our children!”  [Josh 2:19 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> So he set Barabbas free for them; but after having Jesus severely whipped (scourged), he handed Him over to be crucified. ‡

Jesus Is Mocked

<sup>30</sup> They spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him repeatedly on the head. ‡

<sup>32</sup> Now as they were coming out, they found a man of Cyrene named Simon, whom they forced into service to carry the cross of Jesus.  [Mark 15:21; Luke 23:26] ‡

The Crucifixion

<sup>34</sup> they offered Him wine mixed with gall (myrrh, a bitter-tasting narcotic) to drink; but after tasting it, He refused to drink it. ‡

<sup>35</sup> And when they had crucified Him, they divided His clothes among them by casting lots.  [Ps 22:18] ‡

<sup>36</sup> Then sitting down there, they began to keep watch over Him [to guard against any rescue attempt]. ‡

<sup>40</sup> and they said [tauntingly], “You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself [from death]! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross.” ‡

<sup>41</sup> In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders, mocked Him, saying,

<sup>42</sup> “He saved others [from death]; He cannot save Himself. He is the King of Israel; let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe in Him and acknowledge Him.

<sup>43</sup> “H E TRUSTS IN G OD ; LET G OD RESCUE Him now, IF H E DELIGHTS IN H IM ; said, ‘I am the Son of God.’ ”  [Ps 22:8] ‡

<sup>44</sup> The robbers who had been crucified with Him also began to insult Him in the same way. ‡

<sup>45</sup> Now from the sixth hour (noon) there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.).  [Mark 15:33–41 ; Luke 23:44–49 ] ‡

46 About the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud [agonized] voice, “E LI , E LI , LAMA SABACHTHANI ?” that is, “M Y G OD , M Y G OD , WHY HAVE Y OU FOI M E ?”  [Ps 22:1 ] ‡

47 When some of the bystanders there heard it, they began saying, “This man is calling for Elijah.”

48 Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, soaked it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and gave Him a drink.  [Ps 69:21 ; Mark 15:36f ; Luke 23:36 ; John 19:29 , 30 ] ‡

49 But the rest said, “Let us see whether Elijah will come to save Him [from death].”

50 And Jesus cried out again with a loud [agonized] voice, and gave up His spirit [voluntarily, sovereignly dismissing and releasing His spirit from His body in submission to His Father’s plan].  [John 10:18 ] ‡

51 And [at once] the veil [of the Holy of Holies] of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; the earth shook and the rocks were split apart.  [Ex 26:31–35 ] ‡

52 The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints (God’s people) who had fallen asleep [in death] were raised [to life];

53 and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered the holy city (Jerusalem) and appeared to many people.

54 Now the centurion, and those who were with him keeping guard over Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the things that were happening, they were terribly frightened and filled with awe, and said, “Truly this was the Son of God!” ‡

55 There were also many women there looking on from a distance, who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him. ‡

56 Among them was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and [Salome] the mother of Zebedee’s sons [James and John]. ‡

Jesus Is Buried

57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Jesus.  [Mark 15:42–47 ; Luke 23:50–56 ; John 19:38–42 ] ‡

58 He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus [so that he might bury Him], and Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

<sup>59</sup> And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth (burial wrapping),

<sup>60</sup> and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock; and he rolled a large stone over the entrance of the tomb and went away. ‡

<sup>61</sup> And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

<sup>62</sup> The next day, that is, the day after the [day of] preparation [for the Sabbath], the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled before Pilate,

<sup>63</sup> and said, “Sir, we have remembered that when He was still alive that deceiver said, ‘After three days I will rise [from the dead].’” ‡

<sup>64</sup> “Therefore, give orders to have the tomb made secure and safeguarded until the third day, otherwise His disciples may come and steal Him away and tell the people, ‘He has risen from the dead,’ and the last deception [the reporting of His resurrection] will be worse than the first [the reporting that He is the Messiah].”

<sup>65</sup> Pilate said to them, “You have a guard [of soldiers]; go [with them], make the tomb as secure as you know how.”

<sup>66</sup> So they went and made the tomb secure, and along with [stationing] a guard of soldiers [to be on watch] they set a seal on the stone. ‡

Matthew 28

Jesus Is Risen!

<sup>5</sup> But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid; for I know that you are looking for Jesus who has been crucified.

<sup>6</sup> “He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said [He would]. Come! See the place where He was lying. ‡

7“Then go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead; and behold, He is going ahead of you into Galilee [as He promised]. There you will see Him; behold, I have told you.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the women left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell [the good news to] the disciples.

<sup>9</sup> And as they went, suddenly, Jesus met them, saying, “Rejoice!” And they went to Him and took hold of His feet [in homage] and worshiped Him [as the Messiah]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell My brothers to leave for Galilee, and there they will see Me [just as I promised].” ‡

<sup>11</sup> While they were on their way, some of the [Roman] guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.

<sup>12</sup> And when the chief priests had gathered with the elders and had consulted together [to develop a plan of deception], they gave a sufficient sum of money [as a bribe] to the soldiers,

<sup>13</sup> and said, “You say this, ‘His disciples came at night and stole Him while we were sleeping.’

<sup>14</sup> “And if the governor (Pilate) hears about it, we will calm him down and keep you out of trouble.”

<sup>15</sup> So they took the money [they were paid for lying] and did as they were instructed; and this [fabricated] story was widely spread among the Jews, and is to the present day.

The Great Commission

<sup>16</sup> Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had designated. ‡

<sup>17</sup> And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some doubted [that it was really He].

<sup>18</sup> Jesus came up and said to them, “All authority (all power of absolute rule) in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations [help the people to learn of Me, believe in Me, and obey My words], baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ‡

<sup>20</sup> teaching them to observe everything that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always [remaining with you perpetually—regardless of circumstance, and on every occasion], even to the end of the age.” ‡

Annotations for Matthew

1:1 genealogy. Jesus' genealogy is crucial to His claim to be the Messiah, as it traces the lineage of Joseph, His recognized father, back to Abraham through David. It shows that from a legal standpoint, Jesus is qualified to rule from the throne of David.

1:3 Tamar. The mention of women in a Jewish genealogy is unusual. But in addition to Mary, four women are listed in this catalogue of names: Tamar, who was involved in a scandal with Judah (Ge 38); Rahab, the Canaanite harlot of Jericho (Jos 2:1-21); Ruth, who was not an Israelite, but a Moabite (Ru 1:4); and Bathsheba, the wife of Uriah, who committed adultery with David (2Sa 11:1-5). At the beginning of his Gospel, Matthew shows how God's grace forgives the darkest of sins and reaches beyond the nation of Israel to the world. He also points out that God can lift the lowest and place them in royal lineage.

1:16 the husband of Mary. Matthew was careful not to identify Jesus as the physical son of Joseph. The Greek pronoun translated "by whom" is feminine and refers to Mary. called the Messiah (Christ). The words "Messiah" (from the Hebrew) and "Christ" (from the Greek) both mean "Anointed One."

1:17 Abraham . . . to the Messiah. The genealogy is broken down into three groups of names with 14 generations in each list. A basic covenant is set forth in each period: the Abrahamic covenant, the Davidic covenant, and the New Covenant.

1:18 betrothed. In Jewish culture, this covenant was made about a year before the marriage. Engagement was understood to be as binding as a marriage covenant, therefore a legal divorce was required to withdraw from the agreement.

1:23 B EHOLD . . . I MMANUEL. The angel's message to Joseph indicated that Mary would fulfill the prophecy of Isaiah (Isa 7:14). "Jesus," the Greek form of "Joshua" means "salvation."

1:25 kept her a virgin until. The clear implication is that Mary was a virgin only until the birth of Jesus. The brothers and sisters of Jesus (13:55-56) were probably younger siblings born to Joseph and Mary after Jesus' birth. Joseph could not have had children by a previous marriage, as some suppose, for then Jesus would not have been heir to the Davidic throne as the oldest son of Joseph.

2:1 magi \(wise men\) from the east. These "wise men" would have been of the same class as the "wise men" of Babylon over whom Daniel was made ruler (Da 2:48). to Jerusalem. Contrary to popular belief, the events of chapter two probably took place some months after Jesus' birth. Herod murdered all the male children 2 years and under, going by the time the wise men said the star had appeared (and probably leaving a significant margin for error). In addition, it would have been strange for Mary and Joseph to offer the sacrifice of the poor (see Lev 12:8; Lk 2:24) if the wise men had just given them rich gifts.

2:7 Then Herod. This is Herod the Great, who reigned over Palestine for over thirty years. A crafty ruler and lavish builder, Herod had a reign marked by cruelty and bloodshed.

2:15 to fulfill. The prophecy quoted here, from Hosea 11:1, refers to the nation of Israel as God's son coming out of Egypt in the exodus. Jesus is the genuine Son of God, and, as Israel's Messiah, is the true Israel (Jn 15:1); therefore He gives fuller meaning to the prophecy of Hosea.

2:18 RACHEL WEEPING FOR HER CHILDREN. This prophecy comes from Jeremiah 31:15, in which Rachel, entombed near Bethlehem some 13 centuries before the Babylonian captivity, is seen weeping for her children as they are led away in 586 BC. In the slaughter of the male infants at the time of Christ's birth, Rachel is again seen weeping for the violent loss of her sons.

2:23 Nazareth. Those who lived in Nazareth were looked down upon (Jn 1:46). Perhaps God chose this place for His Son to emphasize His humanness.

3:2 Repent. The Greek verb translated “repent” indicates a change of attitude. The basic idea is a recognition of sin and a reversal of thinking which changes one’s life.

3:3 P REPARE THE ROAD FOR THE LORD . As roads were smoothed and straightened for the arrival of a king, so John was preparing a spiritual path for the Messiah. The quotation is from Isaiah 40:3 .

3:7 Pharisees and Sadducees. The Pharisees and Sadducees were two prominent groups in Judaism at the time of Christ. The groups differed considerably in their beliefs. The Pharisees not only based their beliefs on the law of Moses, but also on a large body of oral tradition. They were devout and zealous, concerned with outward righteousness. The Sadducees were associated with a priestly caste, and in doctrine they held primarily to the first five books of Moses. They did not believe in the resurrection of the dead, and did not adhere to all the detailed laws of the Pharisees. Formerly enemies, the two groups seemed to unite against a common enemy: the long awaited Messiah.

3:11 baptize. Sometimes fire has connotations of judgment in Scripture, but here the fire of God’s Spirit represents the transforming power of His grace and love. The baptism of all Jesus’ disciples with water is an outward sign of the inward work of the Holy Spirit. It is the symbol of obedience to the command to believe in Christ’s saving work of grace on the cross.

3:15 to fulfill all righteousness. This phrase does not suggest that Jesus came for baptism because He had sinned; the Lord Jesus was without sin (2Co 5:21 ; Heb 4:15 ). His baptism probably served several purposes. By being baptized, He confirmed the ministry of John and fulfilled the Father’s will.

3:17 God, the Father of Christ— Most Christians eventually wonder how God may be called the Father of Christ and Christ, the Son of God. First, one must recognize that God is spirit (Jn 4:24 ), and Christ was the Son of God before He assumed a human body in Bethlehem (Jn 3:16 ; Gal 4:4 ). Passages which use terms implying physical origin must be taken in a figurative sense (Heb 1:5 ). Second, the title expresses a sonship relationship, unique from that of His disciples (Jn 20:17 ). He was begotten of God unlike anyone else (Jn 1:14 ; 3:16 ). The Nicene council in the fourth century used the phrase “very God of very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father” to describe this unique relationship. Third, the title describes equality with God. When Jesus claimed to be “one” with the Father, He was speaking of a unity of “substance” with the Father and thus equality in all the attributes of deity (Jn 10:30 ). The Jews understood this claim, because they took up stones to stone Him, protesting that “You . . . make Yourself out to be God” (Jn 10:33 ). Fourth, the title emphasizes Christ’s role as the revealer of God. He alone possesses the knowledge of the Father (Jn 14:6–9 ; 1Jn 1:2 ), and He is the sole mediator of that knowledge (1Ti 2:5 ). Therefore, no one can know the Father except through the Son (Jn 14:6 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

4:1–4 It is written. Satan did not lead Jesus into the place of temptation, the Holy Spirit did. Perhaps part of the reason for this was to show us how to deal with temptation. Jesus quoted the Word of God, showing the power of Scripture in battling with the evil one.

4:10 Satan. Satan is not dispatched easily by anyone who merely says, “Go.” The only way we can be victorious in temptation is through the blood and authority of Jesus Christ.

4:15–16 GREAT LIGHT. The passage quoted here (Isa 9:1–2) foretells the reign of the Messiah in the coming kingdom.

4:18–20 I will make you fishers of men. This allusion to Jeremiah 16:16 was used to call Peter and Andrew to a life of ministry.

4:23 teaching . . . preaching . . . healing. These words summarize Jesus’ early ministry.

5:2 He began to teach them. The Sermon on the Mount wasn't given as the way of salvation for the lost, but as the way of life for the children of the kingdom. It was instruction for those who had responded to Jesus' invitation to repent.

5:3–12 The Beatitudes— In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ succinctly describes the basic character traits of those who will inherit the kingdom. The word kingdom usually implies someone who is on top, who rules and has authority over others. They are the privileged. In God's kingdom the people are not privileged because they are on top but because, by being on the bottom, they are in a better position to receive God's grace and favor. These characteristics are the reverse of what man generally values in the world. "Blessed" can also be translated as "Happy." The signs of being blessed aren't power or material wealth. The sign of being blessed is receiving the benefits of God's grace. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:16 Let your light shine. The believer does not have inherent light, rather, we have reflective light. As Christ followers, we must make sure that we do not allow anything to come between us and our Source of light.

5:27 ADULTERY. Control of the heart and body begins with control of the eyes. Deeds of shame result from fantasies of shame. Jesus gives the sobering advice "if your right eye makes you stumble and leads you to sin, tear it out and throw it away." It should be clear here that Jesus is not advocating mutilating our bodies, but He is using a strong figure of speech to emphasize removing any temptation for evil, whatever the cost.

5:32 sexual immorality. This is a general term that includes premarital sex, extramarital infidelity, homosexuality, and bestiality.

5:38 A N EYE FOR AN EYE. This important Old Testament law (Ex 21:24–25 ; Lev 24:20 ; Dt 19:21 ), known as the lex talionis (law of retaliation), covered what type of punishment should be meted out to transgressors. It limited the retribution the offender would have to bear, preventing the "head for eye, jaw for tooth” vengeance typical of humans.

5:41 forces. The Roman government could press anyone to carry a load as far as one mile.

5:45 children of your Father. In other words, “that you be like your heavenly Father who displays His love without discrimination.”

5:48 be perfect. God does not lower the standard to accommodate our sinfulness. He gives us the power to keep this righteousness standard.

6:2 they [already] have their reward. The only reward the hypocrites will ever receive is to be honored by man.

6:9 in this way. This does not mean to pray only these words, but to remember the general topics of worship, request for both physical and spiritual needs, confession, and repentance of sins.

6:19 Do not store up . . . on earth. In other words, don’t give priority to things that only last on earth, but instead put priority and energy into serving God.

6:24 Covetousness— God requires total allegiance and continuous subjection of our wills to Him. He asks for full commitment of our hearts and love for His service. We cannot serve God like that while under the influence of the god of money, urging us to make present, tangible, and worldly things the object of our thoughts and affections. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:27 add one hour. It seems that Jesus would bring a smile here; the mental picture either of growing taller, or of stretching time by worrying, helps us to see the futility of it.

7:1–2 judge. The point of this verse is that a Christian must not judge or criticize in a way that they themselves would not want to be judged or criticized. Every judgment that a person makes becomes a basis for his or her own judgment (Jas 3:1–2 ).

7:6 dogs . . . pigs. These insulting terms refer to people who are enemies of the gospel, as opposed to those who are merely unbelievers.

7:15 Beware of the false prophets. Deuteronomy 13:1–11 and 18:20–22 provide information on discerning and responding to false prophets. The way to tell a false teacher from teachers of the truth is by their fruits. Fruit does not only refer to deeds, but also to doctrine (16:12 ; 1Jn 4:1–3 ).

8:4 show yourself to the priest. This was no small undertaking. The sacrifice required was long and involved (Lev 14:4–32 ). In obeying the law of Moses, the leper also would be a powerful testimony to the religious authorities in Jerusalem that the Messiah had arrived.

8:10 I have not found . . . in Israel. Jesus makes it clear that just being a physical descendant of Abraham does not guarantee entrance into His kingdom. The true children of Abraham are those who share his faith in God (Gal 5:6–9 ).

8:17 TOOK OUR INFIRMITIES [upon Himself] AND CARRIED AWAY OUR DISEASES. This verse quotes Isaiah 53:4 . Jesus healed because He had compassion on the people.

8:28–29 demon-possessed. We learn several things about demons in this passage. They recognize the deity of Christ, they are limited in their knowledge, they know they will ultimately be judged by Christ (25:41 ; Jas 2:19 ; 2Pe 2:4 ; Jude 6 ; Rev 12:7–17 ), and they cannot act without the permission of higher authority.

9:2 their [active] faith. This refers to the faith of the paralytic as well as that of the men who were carrying him.

9:10 tax collectors. Tax collectors were often despised not only because they were seen as traitors, working for the hated Roman government, but also because they generally collected more than necessary and pocketed the difference.

9:12–13 Those who are healthy have no need. Jesus refers ironically to the Pharisees as “the righteous.” They were not righteous, that was only how they perceived themselves because of their pious and scrupulous law keeping (Php 3:6 ). But God is more interested in a person's loyal love than the observance of external rituals.

9:30 See that no one knows this! Jesus may have wanted to discourage the masses from coming to Him for physical healing alone, because His primary purpose was spiritual healing.

9:37 harvest. The harvest will mark the beginning of the Kingdom Age. For the lost it will mean doom, but for the saved it will mean blessing.

10:2 the twelve. The twelve are called disciples in verse 1 ; here they are called "apostles." The word "apostle" emphasizes delegated authority (1Th 2:6 ).

10:15 more tolerable . . . for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah. This verse, together with 11:22–24 , implies that there will be different degrees of judgment and torment for those who reject Christ.

10:18 for My sake. God would use Jewish rejection and persecution of the messengers to bring the gospel message to the Gentiles.

10:25 Persecution— Believers must know that what the world has called our Lord, it will call us. The world has hated Jesus without cause, and they will hate those who bear His name in the same way. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:32 the one who confesses. Every act of our lives will be evaluated at the judgment seat of Christ (2Co 5:10 ). To refuse to speak up for Christ because of intimidation or persecution will result in the believer's loss of reward and consequent loss of glory in the kingdom (Ro 8:17 ; 2Ti 2:12 ).

10:38 does not take his cross. "Taking up a cross" stands for commitment to the extent of being willing to die for something.

11:3 should we look. John probably expected the Messiah to immediately judge Israel and establish His kingdom (3:2–12 ). Jesus' failure to do what John anticipated may have planted seeds of doubt in John's mind about whether Jesus was the Messiah. But doubt that inquires and does not weaken faith is not evil. John went to the right person for answers, and Jesus reassured him by pointing out the fulfillment of prophecy.

11:12 violent men seize it by force. This probably means that violent people forcibly oppose the kingdom with their hostility (23:13 ).

11:21 Woe. Jesus pronounced a direct judgment on Israel. They would be judged for seeing the Messiah and then rejecting Him.

11:23 Capernaum. Capernaum, which is on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee was called "His own city" (9:1 ).

12:2 is unlawful. To desecrate the Sabbath was flagrant disobedience to the law of Moses (Nu 15:30–36 ). The Pharisees were trying to make Jesus into a lawbreaker and accuse Him of wrongdoing.

12:14 how they could destroy him. Because of Jesus' view of the Sabbath, the Pharisees concluded that He was trying to overthrow the entire Mosaic system, and therefore had to be destroyed. Their antagonism toward Jesus was growing.

12:17–21 spoken by the prophet Isaiah. This quotation of Isaiah 42:1–4 shows that the Messiah's gentleness was just as had been prophesied, and also that the Gentiles would be included in His blessing.

12:31–32 blasphemy. The sin that shall not be forgiven is the stubborn refusal to heed the Holy Spirit's conviction and accept the salvation that Christ offers. Particularly in reference to the leaders of Israel, Jesus had offered them all the proof that could be expected, such as the ministry of John, the testimony of the Father, the prophecies of the Old Testament, His own testimony, and the substantiation of the Holy Spirit. Because the leaders rejected all proofs regarding Jesus as Messiah, nothing else would be given.

12:39 the sign of the prophet Jonah. The demand for signs was evidence of unbelief. The “sign of the prophet Jonah” is explained in verse 40 as the resurrection.

12:41–42 The men of Nineveh . . . The Queen of the South. These terms represent Gentiles who come to faith because of the words of God’s prophets and kings, lesser messengers than God’s only Son.

12:43 the unclean spirit. This analogy seems to be describing the moral reformation that took place in Israel as a result of the ministries of John the Baptist and Jesus. The reformation, however, was not genuine, and therefore Israel’s unbelief and hardness of heart was worse than before. In the same way, a person who decides to try religion without being born again, and then decides “it’s not for me,” is worse off than if they had never tried, because their hearts are hardened to God’s voice.

13:11 To you it has been granted. The purpose of this parable was to both reveal and conceal the truth. This hiding of the truth was a judgment for unbelief, as happened during Isaiah’s ministry (Isa 6:9–10 ).

13:14–15 Spiritual Death— Genesis 3 teaches us that, through sin, man died spiritually. Here, Christ quotes from Isaiah 6 to detail the meaning of spiritual death: Our ability to perceive spiritual reality is absent. Key spiritual senses don’t work as they were originally designed to work. We can’t see the implications of spiritual events. We can’t understand the meaning of spiritual words. It is as if our senses are dead. In order to have our spiritual senses restored, we need someone to heal us. Only Christ can provide the necessary healing to open our spiritual eyes and ears. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:25 his enemy came and sowed weeds. These weeds closely resemble wheat, but do not produce good food. They are indistinguishable from the real wheat until the fruit appears. Just like the weeds among the wheat, genuine believers and counterfeits will be allowed to remain together.

13:31 like a mustard seed. The parable of the mustard seed shows that the number of people who will inherit the kingdom will be very small at first, but it will grow to be completely out of proportion to its initial size.

13:33 like leaven. Although leaven is sometimes used in Scripture to symbolize evil, here the kingdom of heaven is being compared to the dynamic character of yeast. When yeast is mixed with the dough, it expands from within, causing the dough to grow. Rather than being powered by outward armies or organizations, the kingdom of God will grow by the internal power of the Holy Spirit.

13:42 Hell— This verse describes the separation that comes between the righteous and the wicked at the end of the age. The place of their eternal dwelling is described as a “furnace of fire,” perhaps because fire is one of man’s most vivid concepts of suffering. Some think that there is no real, actual hell of fire, and that instead the wicked simply cease to exist, but this is difficult to support. The Scriptures consistently speak of hell as a real place of torment and anguish for all who do not receive the salvation that Jesus offers. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:44 like a [very precious] treasure. The main point here is the immense value of the kingdom, which far outweighs any sacrifice or inconvenience one might encounter on earth.

13:47 of every kind. The responsibility of the disciples would be to catch as many “fish” of every kind as possible. The work of judging or sorting out the false catch, however, is a job that disciples are neither called nor equipped to do. That work is assigned to angels at Christ’s return.

14:3 because of Herodias. Herod had gone to Rome, where he met Herodias, the wife of his half brother Philip. After seducing Herodias, Herod divorced his own wife and married his sister-in-law. John had rebuked the king for his moral transgressions.

15:2 the tradition (religious laws) handed down by the [Jewish] elders. This was not the law of Moses, but oral tradition, based on interpretations of the law.

15:3 tradition. The scribes and Pharisees were placing their own views above the revelation of God, and yet claimed to be following Him.

15:7 hypocrites. The Pharisees had laid down many rigid and inflexible laws concerning diet, Sabbath day activities, ceremonial washings, and many other traditions. Not only did this reduce spiritual service to a harsh system of do's and don'ts, it also caused everyone, Pharisees included, to look for loopholes of escape from the burden of so many laws and rules. The ultimate outcome was religious hypocrisy. Christ came both to fulfill the law (5:17–18) and also to free us from its penalty (Gal 3:13).

15:18 comes from the heart. As we think in our hearts, or inner beings, so we are. The raw material of our actions is what we take into our minds and allow to settle in our hearts. David put it this way: "Your word I have treasured and stored in my heart, that I may not sin against You" (Ps 119:11). The other side is seen in Psalm 101:3 "I will set no worthless or wicked thing before my eyes." Paul says the believer must take "every thought and purpose captive to the obedience of Christ" (2Co 10:5).

15:22 Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David. The woman was a Gentile who would have had no natural claim on the Jewish Messiah.

15:31 glorified the God of Israel. The Gentiles believed and glorified Israel's God, while many in Israel remained blind to their Messiah.

16:11–12 leaven. In Scripture, leaven is often used as a symbol of evil. The doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees was hypocrisy and legalism, political opportunism, and spiritual hardness.

16:16 Church— Peter’s confession “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God” is the foundation on which the church is built. Never mind how small the apostolic band may be, the church is indestructible, and with unsurpassed power overcomes Satan and cannot be overcome. The power comes from God, the Creator of the universe, Owner and Master of the church. All the church has is derived from and dependent on the Almighty Son of God. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:18 The Origin of the Church— The church was a mystery (not clearly revealed) in the Old Testament. Christ prophesied in these words spoken to Peter, “on this rock I will build My church.” There is a play here on the word rock, which also happens to be Peter’s name. Jesus said, “you are Peter” (masculine, petros) and “on this rock” (feminine, petra) “I will build My church.” The Holy Spirit came upon the church on the Day of Pentecost in response to Peter’s sermon when “about 3,000 souls were added [to the body of believers]” (Ac 2:41). This group, along with the original disciples, became “the church.” Go to Theological Notes Index

17:3 Moses and Elijah. This amazing experience was not only to show the disciples that Jesus was God's Son, but also to show them that He supersedes the law and the prophets and that they were subordinate to Him. It also explained that what Jesus was doing was no mystery to the Old Testament. The Old Testament people had been long looking forward to the Messiah and His kingdom.

17:11–13 Elijah. Jesus indicates that the prophecies concerning Elijah had their fulfillment in John the Baptist, yet because the restoration is not complete, many conclude that the role of Elijah will be taken up by one of the two witnesses of Revelation 11:3–6.

17:24 half-shekel. This was a tax given annually by every adult Jewish male over 20 years of age for maintaining the temple. It was based on Exodus 30:13, and amounted to two days' wages for a common laborer.

17:25 strangers. Most likely this means the king taxed the common people and not the imperial family.

18:3 repent. To "repent" means to turn around, to take a different course (Lk 22:32).

18:10 their angels. This verse seems to imply that angels watch over and serve His followers on earth (Heb 1:14).

18:16 TWO OR THREE WITNESSES. The principle of witnesses is taken from Deuteronomy 19:15. Evidently, in this case they are to witness that the offended brother is acting in good faith and the right spirit in attempting to work towards reconciliation. They would also be witnesses to any agreement.

18:17 church. Unfortunately "discipline" has sometimes been reduced to a merely negative concept. To be sure, discipline includes the notion of punishment and correction, but church discipline in this context clearly has the restoration of the offender in view. Severe measures may sometimes need to be taken with an erring brother or sister, but restoration and reconciliation should always be the goal.

18:22 seventy times seven. Some translations say "seventy-seven times." Whichever number is used, the point is the same: be ready to forgive over and over again, past counting. This verse does not only apply to forgiveness for seventy times seven different sins. Sometimes, we may have to consciously decide to forgive and let go of an old hurt again and again, "seventy times seven."

18:35 forgive. This verse is a serious warning (1Jn 4:20).

Jesus' Last Journey to Jerusalem

19:9 divorces his wife. When the Pharisees asked Jesus if divorce could ever be considered lawful, He did not fall into their trap. He took them back to Genesis and God's original intent in marriage, one man and one woman for life (vv. 4–5 ; Ge 1:27 ; 2:24 ). In spite of the “exception clause” one thing is surely clear: God hates divorce (Mal 2:15–16 ). Marriage is a divine arrangement that is intended to be permanent and inviolable. Straying from God's path always has tragic consequences.

19:12 eunuchs. The term eunuch refers to a castrated man, whether by surgery, accident, or birth. In the ancient world, eunuchs were put in charge of harems, because they had the physical strength and endurance of a man, but would not be a sexual threat to the women of the harem.

19:21 sell what you have. This verse does not teach salvation by works (Ro 3:23–24 ; Eph 2:8–9 ). Rather, Jesus was proving that the rich young man could not have truly fulfilled all of the law of Moses. If he really loved his neighbor as the law required (Lev 19:18 ), he would not have had any difficulty in giving away his wealth to the poor.

19:23–24 it is difficult for a rich man . . . to enter the kingdom of heaven. The point of this seems to be that fear of losing one's wealth can hold a person back to the extent that they will never become saved at all. One of the things that goes with being saved is saying, “God's way, not my way.”

20:3 third hour. This was about 9:00 A.M.

20:5 the sixth hour. This was about noon, and the ninth hour was about 3:00 P.M.

20:6 the eleventh hour. This was about 5:00 P.M. There would be only an hour or so left in the working day.

20:16 last [in this world] shall be first. The workers who were collected without an agreement represent the Gentiles who are made equal with the Jewish people when salvation became available to all through Jesus Christ (Ro 11:15 ; Eph 2:13–15 ; 3:6 ).

20:26–27 whoever wishes to become great. The measure of greatness is not position, power, or prestige. It is service.

21:2 a donkey tied. This was prophesied in Zechariah 9:9 .

21:9 Hosanna. Hosanna literally means “save now.” The people were using it as an exclamation of joyous praise, but also they expected the Messiah to save them from the oppression of the Romans.

21:19 at once. This does not necessarily mean instantly; it may have the idea of “very soon” as in Luke 19:11 . (The account of this miracle in Mk 11:12–14 ,20–21 indicates some time passing.)

21:21 faith. Few if any besides our Savior will reach this kind of faith in its fullness. However, as each believer approaches such faith in prayer, his effort will be rewarded. Answers are always given, even to the feeblest prayers of faith.

21:33 PLANTED A VINEYARD. The owner of the vineyard was God; the vine-growers were the people of Israel. The slaves represent God's messengers, and the son is Jesus the Messiah.

21:42 CHIEF C ORNERSTONE. The rejected stone was the Messiah, who became the chief cornerstone, the one holding the whole building together (Ps 118:22–23 ).

22:11 was not dressed [appropriately] in wedding clothes. Like the others, this visitor had been invited to the wedding, but he failed to prepare himself for it. In Revelation, the garment of fine linen worn by the bride of the Lamb is said to be the righteous deeds of the saints (Rev 19:8 ). In this parable the garment may refer to the righteousness of Christ, graciously provided for us through His death. To refuse to put it on would mean a refusal of Christ's sacrifice.

22:14 many are called (invited, summoned), but few are chosen. All Israel has been invited, but only a few will accept and follow Jesus. Not all those invited will be among the chosen of God, for not all will believe.

22:21 things that are Caesar's. When one subjects one's self to the state and accepts its protection and benefits, one is obligated to support it and obey its laws until it becomes sinful to do so (Ro 13:1-7 ; 1Pe 2:13-17 ). But giving back to God what is His reaches far deeper than obedience to the state. Man has a duty to give himself to God, with all he is and all that he has.

22:42-45 Christ . . . Whose Son is He? The Old Testament foretold that the Messiah would come from David's royal line (2Sa 7:12-16 ; Ps 89:3-4 , 34-36 ; Isa 9:7 ; 16:5 ; 55:3-4 ).

22:44 T HE LORD (the Father) SAID TO MY LORD (the Son, the Messiah). The Hebrew text of Psalm 110:1 uses two different Hebrew words for "Lord." The first, translated "LORD," is the name Yahweh, the proper name of Israel's God. The second "Lord" means "master." David, the great king of Israel, calls one of his offspring "Lord" or "master." The implication is that Jesus, the Son of David, is God. He is a human descendant of David, and also divine.

Jewish Sects

Pharisees

Their roots can be traced to the Hasidim of the second century BC (see note on Mk 2:16 ).

- (1) Along with the Torah, they accepted as equally inspired and authoritative all the commands set forth in the oral traditions preserved by the rabbis.
- (2) On free will and determination, they held to a mediating view that did not allow either human free will or the sovereignty of God to cancel out the other.
- (3) They accepted a rather developed hierarchy of angels and demons.
- (4) They believed in the immortality of the soul and in reward and

- retribution after death.
(5) They believed in the resurrection of the dead.
(6) The main emphasis of their teaching was ethical rather than theological.

Sadducees

They probably had their beginning during the Hasidean period (166–63 BC). Their demise occurred c. AD 70 with the fall of Jerusalem and the destruction of the temple.

- (1) They considered only the books of Moses to be canonical Scripture, denying that the oral law was authoritative and binding.
(2) They were very exacting in Levitical purity.
(3) They attributed everything to free will.
(4) They argued that there is neither resurrection of the dead nor a future life.
(5) They rejected the idea of a spiritual world, including belief in angels and demons.

Essenes

They probably originated among the Hasidim, along with the Pharisees, from whom they later separated (1 Maccabees 2:42; 7:13). The Hasidim were a group of zealous Jews who took part with the Maccabeans in a revolt against the Syrians c. 165–155 BC. A group of Essenes probably moved to Qumran c. 150 BC, where they copied scrolls and deposited them in nearby caves.

- (1) They strictly observed the purity laws of the Torah.
(2) They practiced communal ownership of property.
(3) They had a strong sense of mutual responsibility.
(4) Daily worship was an important feature along with daily study of their sacred scriptures.
(5) Solemn oaths of piety and obedience had to be taken.
(6) Sacrifices were offered on holy days and during their sacred seasons, but not at the temple, which they considered to be corrupt.

(7) Marriage was avoided by some but was not condemned in principle.

(8) They attributed to fate everything that happened.

Zealots

They originated during the reign of Herod the Great c. 6 BC. A group of Zealots were among the last defenders against the Romans at Masada in AD 73.

(1) They opposed payment of taxes to a pagan emperor because they believed that allegiance was due to God alone.

(2) They were fiercely loyal to Jewish tradition.

(3) They endorsed the use of violence as long as it accomplished a good end.

(4) They were opposed to the influence of Greek pagan culture in the Holy Land.

23:5 phylacteries. Phylacteries were small boxes containing specific Scripture passages, in fulfillment of Deuteronomy 6:8 (Ex 13:9 , 16 ; Pr 3:3 ; 6:21 ; 7:3 ). They were worn on the forehead or arm. In order to be seen as especially righteous, some Pharisees wore conspicuously large phylacteries.

23:7 Rabbi. The title “rabbi” means “teacher.”

23:10 Do not let yourselves be called leaders or teachers. This verse is a warning against the human tendency to replace a personal relationship with God with following an earthly leader. No matter how dynamic or even how godly such a leader is, as soon as people start looking to that person rather than to God, they have created an idol.

23:24 swallow a camel. The Pharisees would literally “strain out a gnat” in order not to violate Leviticus 11:41–43 , but they swallowed “a camel” by neglecting mercy, justice, and faith.

23:25–26 but inside. The inside of the cup represents a person’s character. Sometimes those who most loudly protest the sins of others are secretly guilty of those or worse sins themselves.

23:35 Abel. Abel was the first person murdered in the Old Testament (Ge 4:8 ); Zechariah is the last.

His death is recorded in 2 Chronicles 24:20–22, the last book of the Hebrew canon.

24:1 temple. The first temple, built by Solomon, was destroyed by the Babylonians in 586 BC. The second temple, built under the encouragement of Haggai and Zechariah, and the leadership of Zerubbabel and Joshua (Hag 1:1), was completed after considerable delay in 516 BC. This second temple was lavishly restored by Herod the Great, but not completed until AD 64. It stood completed for only six years, before it was reduced to rubble by the Romans. The devastation in AD 70 was so complete that the precise location is still unknown today.

24:4 Be careful that no one misleads you. Jesus' warning about being deceived was especially appropriate for the disciples. The destruction of Jerusalem did not necessarily mean the nearness of the end of the age. This principle was a point of confusion for them (Lk 19:11–27; Ac 1:6–7).

24:6 must take place. This indicates a divine or logical necessity. Such things will happen because of the people's sin. False messiahs had existed before (Ac 5:36–38) and false preachers would come in the future (Ac 20:29; 2Co 11:13–15). Verses 4–6 may describe the first part of Daniel's seventieth week (Da 9:25–27), but possibly they present a general picture of the present age.

24:7 famines and earthquakes. These disasters are more fully described in Revelation 6:1–8; 8:5–23; 9:13–21; 16:2–21.

24:10 Apostasy— Satan is a subtle adversary who works as an angel of light through false religious teachers (2Co 11:14–15), and many will be misled. Apostasy is also the result of persecution. Jesus speaks of "temporary" faith, and says that a falling away often occurs when "pressure or persecution comes because of the word" (13:21). Perseverance in faith and in the accompanying results of faith are positive evidence of a genuine Christian profession. Go to Theological Notes Index

24:15 ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION. The abomination of desolation literally means "the abomination that makes desolate." This prophecy comes from Daniel, specifically Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. Many believe that Daniel 11:31 refers to Antiochus IV, who desecrated the temple by sacrificing a pig on its altar and setting up an idol to Zeus in it. His actions were certainly a prelude to what the ultimate "man of sin" will do. In AD 70, Titus destroyed Jerusalem, burned the temple, and set up an idol to mock the Jews. Significantly, Paul speaks of the Antichrist at the end times also setting himself up as god (2Th 2:3–4; Rev 13:14–15).

24:16 flee. At the time of the war ending in the destruction of the temple in AD 70, many of the Christians did flee, hiding in the clefts of Petra. Some believe that the final fulfillment of this prophecy will occur in the future desecration of the temple (Da 9:27) and the subsequent setting up of an image of the "man of sin" in the most holy place.

24:24 signs and wonders. Miracles by themselves do not prove that something is of God (7:21–23; 2Th 2:9; Rev 13:13–15). The teaching of those who perform signs and wonders must be tested against correct doctrine (Dt 13:1–5; 1Jn 4:1–3), and by the witness of God's Spirit (Jn 10:3–5, 27).

24:29 Immediately after. This verse moves chronologically to the close of the tribulation, a period that will be marked by monumental cosmic disturbances (Isa 13:10; 34:4; Eze 32:7–8; Joel 2:30–31; 3:15; Hag 2:6; Zec 14:6; Rev 6:12–14).

24:34 this generation. "Generation" may mean "race," indicating that Israel as a people will not cease to exist before God fulfills His promises to them. Another possibility is that the word describes a particular era in which people will see the end times. That is, the events will occur so rapidly that all will happen within one generation. Perhaps both interpretations are true.

24:36 that [exact] day and hour no one knows. Mark 13:32 indicates that even Jesus Himself did not know the exact time of His return. When the Lord Jesus was on earth, He voluntarily limited His use of His divine attributes (Jn 17:4–5; Php 2:5–8). Therefore He became hungry, thirsty, and tired. In this instance, Jesus surrendered the use of His divine omniscience.

25:10 the bridegroom came. Christ's return is often compared to a wedding (22:1–14; Rev 19:7–8).

25:14 entrusted them with his possessions. The parable of the talents illustrates the faith required of God's servants.

25:15 talents. A talent was a large sum of money, about six thousand denarii.

25:23 I will put you in charge of many things. The first two servants received the same reward, based on their faithfulness, not on the size of their responsibilities. The smallest task in God's work may receive a great reward if we are faithful in performing it (10:42 ).

25:32–40 Judgment— The final judgment will be according to the evidence, not according to what was professed but what was practiced. It will be not according to what was said, but what was done. These works cannot earn salvation, but they are works of love which reflect a life redeemed by the saving work of Christ through the Holy Spirit (Gal 5:6 ). Love for God is demonstrated by love for man (1Jn 4:20 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

26:14 one of the twelve. The enormity of Judas' sin is seen in these words: Jesus was betrayed by one of His own best friends.

26:15 thirty pieces of silver. Thirty pieces of silver was the price of a slave (Ex 21:32 ). Zechariah prophesied this sum (Zec 11:12–13 ).

26:21 one of you will betray Me. This statement indicates the Lord's omniscience. Repeatedly, Christ unveiled evidence of His deity to His disciples.

26:26–28 My body . . . My blood. The Lord Jesus, at this last meal with His disciples before He went to the cross, instituted this ordinance for His church throughout this age. It is called "the Lord's Supper" (1Co 11:20 ). Using common everyday items, the bread and wine that could be found on any table, no matter how poor, He gave us a "remembrance" so that we would never forget that His broken body and shed blood bought salvation for us.

26:28 My blood of the [new and better] covenant. This refers to the new covenant promised in the Old Testament (Jer 31:31–34 ; 32:37–44 ; Eze 34:25–31 ; 37:26–28 ).

26:36 Gethsemane. The name "Gethsemane" means "oil press." This garden was east of Jerusalem on the Mount of Olives. In the place where olives were crushed and ground, the Anointed One was crushed.

26:51 one of those. John 18:10 informs us that the impetuous swordsman was Peter. This action was performed with one of the two swords that the disciples had (Lk 22:38 ).

26:53 twelve legions of angels. A legion in the Roman army was about six thousand men. When one considers the power of one angel (Ex 32:23 ; 2Sa 24:15–17 ; 2Ki 19:35 ) the power of more than 72,000 angels is beyond comprehension. Jesus had all of heaven's power at His disposal, yet He refused to use it. His Father's will was for Him to go to the cross.

26:62 Have You no answer to give? In maintaining His silence, Jesus fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah

53:7 .

26:64 Second Coming— Throughout His ministry, Jesus had applied to Himself the Old Testament prophecies that were acknowledged as messianic by the Jewish teachers. Here, Jesus answers Caiaphas the high priest by combining two well-known messianic prophecies from Psalm 110:1 and Daniel 7:13 . The first describes His enthronement and the other His second coming. The final word spoken by Christ to the Jews was about the certainty of His future return. About His first coming Jesus said, “For God did not send the Son into the world to judge and condemn the world” (Jn 3:17 ). But the time will come when all the world will see Him enthroned at the right hand of God and given all power and majesty as the judge of the ages. Go to Theological Notes Index

26:74 at that moment a rooster crowed. Some have detected a contradiction between this passage and the account in Mark 14:72 . Others believe that seeing a contradiction is a forced reading of the text. Matthew, Luke, and John make the simple statement that a rooster would crow (Lk 22:61 ; Jn 18:27 ), whereas Mark, which is believed to be based on Peter’s memories, would include more exact details.

27:2 Pilate. Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Samaria, and Idumea from AD 26 to 36. Because the Jews did not have authority to execute Jesus, they brought Him to Pilate.

27:25 His blood be on us and on our children. The sins of the fathers are visited on their children for those who hate God. But if anyone turns to Jesus and repents, He never fails to show His lovingkindness.

27:27 the Praetorium. This was the official residence of the governor when he was in Jerusalem.

27:31 crucify. Crucifixion, a practice probably adopted from Persia, was considered by the Romans to be the cruelest form of execution. This punishment was reserved for the worst criminals. The offender usually died after two or three days of agonizing suffering, enduring not only incomprehensible pain, but also hunger, thirst, and exposure. The offenders’ arms were nailed to a beam that was hoisted up and fixed to a post, to which their feet were nailed.

27:32 Simon. Simon probably was (or later became) a follower of Christ; it is unlikely that he would be referred to by name if he were a stranger to the Christian community (Mk 15:21 ).

27:34 wine mixed with gall. It is believed that this mixture was meant to dull the victim’s pain. The prophetic words of Psalm 69:21 were fulfilled here.

27:35 casting lots. The soldiers fulfilled the prophetic words of Psalm 22:18 .

27:38 two robbers. This is the fulfillment of Isaiah 53:12 , he “was counted among the transgressors.” Psalm 22:6 predicted the insults that would be directed at the Messiah.

27:45 the sixth hour. This would have been noon. The first hour began at sunrise (approximately 6:00 A.M.). darkness. The darkness could not have been due to a natural cause, such as an eclipse of the sun, since the Passover occurred during a full moon. This was a supernatural occurrence.

27:46–50 Atonement— Because God cannot tolerate sin, as Jesus took upon Himself the sin of the whole human race, God had to turn away. Jesus felt this separation, and many believe it was as much for the dread of this as for the physical pain that Jesus wept in the garden. Jesus’ cry to God is a quote from Psalm 22:1 , a messianic verse that the Jews should have understood. Go to Theological Notes Index

27:50 cried out again with a loud [agonized] voice. The cry referred to here by Matthew was, “It is finished” (Jn 19:30 ). This was not a cry of exhaustion, but a cry of victory. The purpose for which Jesus came into the world had been accomplished. Redemption from sin had been purchased for all mankind.

27:51 the veil [of the Holy of Holies] of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The temple had two veils or curtains, one in front of the holy place and the other separating the holy place from the most holy place. These curtains were heavy and very strong and thick. It was the second of these that was torn, demonstrating that through the death of Jesus, there was now open access to God. Jesus’ blood covered our sins from God's sight.

27:57 a rich man from Arimathea. Joseph's actions fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, "His grave was assigned with the wicked, but He was with a rich man in His death" (Isa 53:9 ).

28:2 rolled away the stone. The tomb was not opened to allow Christ to come out; it was opened to allow others to go in and see for themselves that it was empty.

28:6 He has risen, just as He said. Jesus predicted His resurrection to His disciples, even though they did not understand Him (12:40 ; 16:21 ; 17:9 ,23 ; 26:32 ).

28:7 go quickly and tell. This is always the divine order: to tell others the good news that Jesus is alive (v. 19 ).

28:19 Why Share Our Faith— There are at least six compelling reasons for sharing our faith in Christ with those who have not experienced new life in Christ:

Because God has commanded us to do so (Ac 1:8).

Because it demonstrates our love for God. If we truly love Him we will keep His commandments (Jn 14:15 ).

Because all are lost without Christ (Ro 3:10 , 23).

Because this is God's chosen method: He could use angels, but He only uses redeemed sinners to tell lost sinners about Christ (Ro 10:14–17; 1Ti 1:15).

Because God desires to save all people (Ac 4:12; 1Ti 2:4; 2Pe 3:9).

Because faith grows best when each generation conscientiously strives to pass it on to the next. Go to Theological Notes Index

28:20 I am with you always. Jesus is the true Immanuel, "God with us" (1:23 ; Heb 13:5–6 ; Rev 21:3 ).

The Gospel According to Mark

- AUTHOR: According to Acts 12:12 , Mark's mother Mary had a large house that was used as a meeting place for believers in Jerusalem. Barnabas was Mark's cousin (Col 4:10 ), but Peter may have been the person that led him to Christ (Peter called him "my son, Mark" in 1Pe 5:13 ). It was this close association with Peter that lent apostolic authority to Mark's Gospel, since Peter was evidently Mark's primary source of information. It has been suggested that Mark was referring to himself in his account of a "young man" in Gethsemane (14:51 ). Since all the disciples had abandoned Jesus (14:50 ), this little incident may have been a firsthand account.
- TIMES: c. AD 29–33
- KEY VERSES: Mk 8:34–37
- THEME: Mark is the shortest and simplest of the Gospels. He doesn't seem to be telling the story in a way that appeals to a particular audience the way Matthew does. He also does not use the well-developed thematic structure that characterizes John. One of the most common phrases in the book is one that is translated "straightway" in the King James and "immediately" or "at once" in other translations. He uses this phrase frequently as he moves from one anecdote to another. Mark's quickly paced Gospel is often confrontational, as he tells the story of the gospel as clearly as possible. He wants the reader to respond, and almost seems to be saying "here is the truth, believe it, and let's get on with following Jesus."

Mark 1

The Preaching of John the Baptist

1 THE BEGINNING of the [facts regarding the] good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. ‡

2. As it is written and forever remains in the [writings of the] prophet Isaiah: ‡

“B EHOLD , I SEND M Y MESSENGER AHEAD OF Y OU ,
W HO WILL PREPARE Y OUR WAY —  [Mal 3:1 ]
<sup>3</sup> A VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS , ‡
‘P REPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD,
M AKE H IS PATHS STRAIGHT !’ ”  [Is 40:3 ]

4 John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins [that is, requiring a change of one's old way of thinking, turning away from sin and seeking God and His righteousness]. ‡

5—And all the country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem were continually going out to him; and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins. ‡

6 John wore clothing made of camel's hair and had a [wide] leather band around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.  [Lev 11:22 ; 2 Kin 1:8 ] ‡

7—And he was preaching, saying, “After me comes He who is mightier [more powerful, more noble] than I, and I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the straps of His sandals [even as His slave]. ‡

8—“As for me, I baptized you [who came to me] with water [only]; but He will baptize you [who truly repent] with the Holy Spirit.” ‡

The Baptism of Jesus

9. In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.  [Matt 3:13–17 ; Luke 3:21, 22 ; John 1:32 ] ‡

10 Immediately coming up out of the water, he (John) saw the heavens torn open, and the Spirit like a dove descending on Him (Jesus); ‡

11—and a voice came out of heaven saying: “You are My beloved Son, in

You I am well-pleased and delighted!”  [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1 ] ‡

12 Immediately the [Holy] Spirit forced Him out into the wilderness. ‡

13 He was in the wilderness forty days being tempted [to do evil] by Satan; and He was with the wild animals, and the angels ministered continually to Him. ‡

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

14 Now after John [the Baptist] was arrested and taken into custody, Jesus went to Galilee, preaching the good news of [the kingdom of] God, ‡

15 and saying, “The [appointed period of] time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God’s purpose for your life] and believe [with a deep, abiding trust] in the good news [regarding salvation].” ‡

16 As Jesus was walking by the shore of the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon [Peter] and Simon’s brother, Andrew, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen. ‡ From Nazareth to Cana and Capernaum

17 And Jesus said to them, “Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men.”

18 Immediately they left their nets and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example]. ‡

19 Going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, who were also in the boat mending and cleaning the nets. ‡

20 Immediately Jesus called to them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired workers, and went away to follow Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

21 They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.  [Luke 4:31–37. ] ‡

22 They were completely amazed at His teaching; because He was teaching them as one having [God-given] authority, and not as the scribes. ‡

23 Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit; and he cried out [terribly from the depths of his throat],

24 saying, “What business do You have with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!” ‡

25 Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet (muzzled, silenced), and come out of him!” ‡

<sup>27</sup> They were all so amazed that they debated and questioned each other, saying, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits (demons), and they obey Him.”

Healing the Crowds

<sup>30</sup> Now Simon’s mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever; and immediately they told Him about her.

<sup>31</sup> Jesus went to her, and taking her by the hand, raised her up; and the fever left her, and she began to serve them [as her guests].

<sup>32</sup> Now when evening came, after the sun had set [and the Sabbath Day had ended, in a steady stream] they were bringing to Him all who were sick and those who were under the power of demons, ‡

<sup>34</sup> And Jesus healed many who were suffering with various diseases; and He drove out many demons, but would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him [recognizing Him as the Son of God]. ‡

<sup>37</sup> and they found Him and said, “Everybody is looking for You!”

<sup>38</sup> He replied, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so I may preach there also; that is why I came [from the Father].” ‡

<sup>39</sup> So He went throughout Galilee, preaching [the gospel] in their synagogues and casting out demons. ‡

<sup>40</sup> And a leper came to Him, begging Him and falling on his knees before Him, saying, “If You are willing, You are able to make me clean.”  [Matt 8:2–

4; Luke 5:12–14] ‡

<sup>41</sup> Moved with compassion [for his suffering], Jesus reached out with His hand and touched him, and said to him, “I am willing; be cleansed.”

<sup>44</sup>saying to him, “See that you tell no one anything [about this]; but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your purification what Moses commanded, as proof to them [that you are really healed].”  [Lev 13:45; 14:2–32] ‡

<sup>45</sup> But he went out and began to proclaim it freely and to spread the news [of his healing], to such an extent that Jesus could no longer openly enter a city [where He was known], but stayed out in the unpopulated places; yet people were still coming to Him from everywhere. ‡

The Paralytic Healed

<sup>1</sup> JESUS RETURNED to Capernaum, and a few days later the news went out that He was at home.  [Matt 4:13] ‡

<sup>2</sup> So many people gathered together that there was no longer room [for them], not even near the door; and Jesus was discussing with them the word [of God].

<sup>3</sup> Then they came, bringing to Him a paralyzed man, who was being carried by four men.  [Matt 9:2–8; Luke 5:18–26.]

<sup>4</sup> When they were unable to get to Him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Jesus; and when they had dug out an opening, they let down the mat on which the paralyzed man was lying.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus saw their [active] faith [springing from confidence in Him], He said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>6</sup> But some of the scribes were sitting there debating in their hearts [the implication of what He had said],

<sup>7</sup> “Why does this man talk that way? He is blaspheming; who can forgive sins [remove guilt, nullify sin’s penalty, and assign righteousness] except God alone?” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Immediately Jesus, being fully aware [of their hostility] and knowing in His spirit that they were thinking this, said to them, “Why are you debating and arguing about these things in your hearts?

<sup>9</sup> “Which is easier, to say to the paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven’; or to say, ‘Get up, and pick up your mat and walk?’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> “But so that you may know that the Son of Man has the authority and power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralyzed man,

11 “I say to you, get up, pick up your mat and go home.”

<sup>12</sup> And he got up and immediately picked up the mat and went out before them all, so that they all were astonished and they glorified and praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

13 Jesus went out again along the [Galilean] seashore; and all the people were coming to Him, and He was teaching them. ‡

Levi (Matthew) Called

<sup>14</sup> As He was passing by, He saw Levi (Matthew) the son of Alphaeus sitting in the tax collector’s booth, and He said to him, “Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk].” And he got up and followed Him [becoming His disciple, believing and trusting in Him and following His example]. [Matt 9:9–17 ; Luke 5:27–39] ‡

<sup>15</sup> And it happened that Jesus was reclining at the table in Levi’s house, and many tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews] were eating with Him and His disciples; for there were many of them and they were following Him. ‡

<sup>16</sup> When the scribes [belonging to the sect] of the Pharisees saw that Jesus was eating with the sinners [including non-observant Jews] and tax collectors, they asked His disciples, “Why does He eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus heard this, He said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need of a physician, but [only] those who are sick; I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners [who recognize their sin and humbly seek forgiveness].” ‡

18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting [as a ritual]; and they came and asked Jesus, “Why are John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fasting, but Your disciples are not doing so?” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Jesus answered, “The attendants of the bridegroom cannot fast while the bridegroom is [still] with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

<sup>20</sup> “But the days will come when the bridegroom is [forcefully] taken away from them, and they will fast at that time.

<sup>21</sup> “No one sews a patch of unshrunk (new) cloth on an old garment; otherwise the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and the tear becomes worse.

<sup>22</sup> “No one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the [fermenting] wine will [expand and] burst the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the wineskins. But new wine must be put into new wineskins.”

Question of the Sabbath

<sup>24</sup> The Pharisees said to Him, “Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to them, “Have you never read [in the Scriptures] what David did when he was in need and was hungry, he and his companions;  [1 Sam 21:1-6 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> how he went into the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the sacred bread, which is not lawful for anyone but the priests to eat, and how he also gave it to the men who were with him?”  [1 Sam 21:1-6 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> Jesus said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.  [Ex 23:12 ; Deut 5:14 ]

<sup>28</sup> “So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath [and He has authority over it].” ‡

Mark 3

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup> AGAIN JESUS went into a synagogue; and a man was there whose hand was withered.  [Matt 12:9-14 ; Luke 6:6-11 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> The Pharisees were watching Jesus closely to see if He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him [in the Jewish high court].

<sup>3</sup> He said to the man whose hand was withered, “Get up and come forward!”

<sup>4</sup> He asked them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to kill?” But they kept silent.

<sup>5</sup> After looking around at them with anger, grieved at the hardness and arrogance of their hearts, He told the man, “Hold out your hand.” And he held it out, and his hand was [completely] restored.

<sup>6</sup> Then the Pharisees went out and immediately began conspiring with the Herodians [to plot] against Him, as to how they might [fabricate some legal grounds to] put Him to death. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Jesus withdrew to the sea with His disciples; and a large crowd from Galilee followed Him; and also people from Judea, ‡

<sup>8</sup> and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and [from the region] beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon; a vast number of people came to Him because they were hearing about all [the things] that He was doing.

<sup>9</sup> And He told His disciples to have a small boat stand ready for Him because of the many people, so that they would not crowd Him;

<sup>10</sup> for He had healed many, and as a result all who had diseases pressed around Him to touch Him.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever the unclean spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him and screamed out, “You are the Son of God!” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Jesus sternly warned them [again and again] not to tell who He was. ‡

The Twelve Are Chosen

<sup>13</sup> He went up on the hillside and called those whom He Himself wanted and chose; and they came to Him. ‡

<sup>14</sup> And He appointed twelve [disciples], so that they would be with Him [for instruction] and so that He could send them out to preach [the gospel as apostles—that is, as His special messengers, personally chosen representatives], <sup>15</sup> and to have authority and power to cast out demons.

<sup>17</sup> and James, the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James (to them

He gave the name Boanerges, that is, “Sons of Thunder”);

<sup>18</sup> and [He also appointed] Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew (Nathanael), and Matthew (Levi the tax collector), and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus (Judas the son of James), and Simon the Zealot;

<sup>20</sup> Then He came to a house [in Capernaum], and a crowd formed again, so [many people] that Jesus and His disciples could not even eat a meal [together]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> So He called them to Himself and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan drive out Satan? ‡

<sup>24</sup> “If a kingdom is divided [split into factions and rebelling] against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

<sup>26</sup> “And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end.

<sup>27</sup> “But no one can go into a strong man’s house and steal his property unless he first overpowers and ties up the strong man, and then he will ransom and rob his house.  [Is 49:24, 25; Matt 12:29 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and all the abusive and blasphemous things they say; ‡

<sup>29</sup> but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit and His power [by attributing the miracles done by Me to Satan] never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin [a sin which is unforgivable in this present age as well as in the age to come]”—  [Matt 12:32; Luke 12:10 ]

<sup>30</sup> [Jesus said this] because the scribes and Pharisees were [attributing His miracles to Satan by] saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

<sup>32</sup> A crowd was sitting around Him, and they said to Him, “Look! Your mother and Your brothers are outside asking for You.”

<sup>33</sup> And He replied, “Who are My mother and My brothers?”

<sup>34</sup> Looking at those who were sitting in a circle around Him, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers!

<sup>35</sup> For whoever does the will of God [by believing in Me, and following Me], he is My brother and sister and mother.”

Mark 4

Parable of the Sower and Soils

<sup>1</sup> AGAIN JESUS began to teach beside the sea [of Galilee]. And a very large crowd gathered around Him, so He got into a boat [anchoring it a short distance out] on the sea and sat down; and the whole crowd was by the sea on the shore. [Matt 13:1–15 ; Luke 8:4–15] ‡

<sup>4</sup> and as he was sowing, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and ate it up.

<sup>5</sup> “Other seed fell on rocks where there was not much soil; and immediately a plant sprang up because the soil had no depth.

<sup>6</sup> “And when the sun came up, the plant was scorched; and because it had no root, it dried up and withered away.

<sup>7</sup> “Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it yielded no grain.

<sup>8</sup> “And other seed fell into good soil, and as the plants grew and increased, they yielded a crop and produced thirty, sixty, and a hundred times [as much as had been sown].” ‡

<sup>9</sup> And He said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.”

<sup>10</sup> As soon as He was alone, those who were around Him, together with the twelve [disciples], began asking Him about [the interpretation of] the parables. ‡

<sup>11</sup> He said to them, “The mystery of the kingdom of God has been given to you [who have teachable hearts], but those who are outside [the unbelievers, the spiritually blind] get everything in parables, ‡

<sup>12</sup> so that THEY WILL CONTINUALLY LOOK BUT NOT SEE , AND THEY WILL CONTINUALLY HEAR BUT NOT UNDERSTAND , OTHERWISE THEY MIGHT TURN [from their rejection of the truth] AND BE FORGIVEN .”  [Is 6:9 , 10; Matt 13:11–15] ‡

Explanation

<sup>13</sup> Then He said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How will you understand and grasp the meaning of all the parables?  [Matt 13:18–23; Luke 8:11–15.]

<sup>15</sup> “These [in the first group] are the ones along the road where the word is sown; but when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word which has been sown in them.

<sup>16</sup> “In a similar way these [in the second group] are the ones on whom seed was sown on rocky ground, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy [but accept it only superficially];

<sup>17</sup> and they have no real root in themselves, so they endure only for a little while; then, when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they [are offended and displeased at being associated with Me and] stumble and fall away.

<sup>18</sup> “And others are the ones on whom seed was sown among the thorns; these are the ones who have heard the word,

<sup>19</sup> but the worries and cares of the world [the distractions of this age with its worldly pleasures], and the deceitfulness [and the false security or glamour] of wealth [or fame], and the passionate desires for all the other things creep in and choke out the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “And those [in the last group] are the ones on whom seed was sown on the good soil; and they hear the word [of God, the good news regarding the way of salvation] and accept it and bear fruit—thirty, sixty, and a hundred times as much [as was sown].”

<sup>21</sup> He said to them, “A lamp is not brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed, is it? Is it not [brought in] to be put on the lampstand?  [Matt 5:15; Luke 8:16; 11:33. ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> “For nothing is hidden, except to be revealed; nor has anything been kept secret, but that it would come to light [that is, things are hidden only temporarily, until the appropriate time comes for them to be known].  [Matt 10:26–33; Luke 12:2–9. ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> “If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then He said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear. By your own standard of measurement [that is, to the extent that you study spiritual truth and apply godly wisdom] it will be measured to you [and you will be given even greater ability to respond]—and more will be given to you besides. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “For whoever has [a teachable heart], to him more [understanding] will be given; and whoever does not have [a yearning for truth], even what he has will be taken away from him.”  [Matt 13:12; 25:29; Luke 8:18 ] ‡

Parable of the Seed

<sup>26</sup> Then He said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who throws seed on the ground; ‡

<sup>27</sup> and he goes to bed at night and gets up every day, and [in the meantime] the seed sprouts and grows; how [it does this], he does not know.

<sup>28</sup> “The earth produces crops by itself; first the blade, then the head [of grain], then the mature grain in the head.

<sup>29</sup> “But when the crop ripens, he immediately puts in the sickle [to reap], because [the time for] the harvest has come.” ‡

Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>30</sup> And He said, “How shall we picture the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use to illustrate and explain it?  [Matt 13:31, 32; Luke 13:18, 19 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> “It is like a mustard seed, which, when it is sown on the ground, even though it is smaller than all the [other] seeds that are [sown] on the soil,

<sup>32</sup> yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden herbs; and it puts out large branches, so that THE BIRDS OF THE SKY are able to MAKE NESTS and LIVE UNDER ITS SHADE .”  [Ps 104:12; Ezek 17:23; 31:6 ]

<sup>33</sup> With many such parables, Jesus spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear and understand it; ‡

<sup>34</sup> and He did not say anything to them without [using] a parable; He did, however, explain everything privately to His own disciples.

Jesus Stills the Sea

<sup>35</sup> On that [same] day, when evening had come, He said to them, “Let us go over to the other side [of the Sea of Galilee].” ‡

<sup>36</sup> So leaving the crowd, they took Him with them, just as He was, in the boat. And other boats were with Him.  [Matt 8:23–27; Luke 8:22–25 ]

<sup>37</sup> And a fierce windstorm began to blow, and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already being swamped.

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus was in the stern, asleep [with His head] on the [sailor's leather] cushion. And they woke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are about to die?"

<sup>39</sup> And He got up and [sternly] rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Hush, be still (muzzled)!" And the wind died down [as if it had grown weary] and there was [at once] a great calm [a perfect peacefulness].

<sup>40</sup> Jesus said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith and confidence [in Me]?"

<sup>41</sup> They were filled with great fear, and said to each other, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

Mark 5

The Gerasene Demoniac

<sup>1</sup> THEY CAME to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes. [Matt 8:28–34 ; Luke 8:26–37 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> When Jesus got out of the boat, immediately a man from the tombs with an unclean spirit met Him, <sup>3</sup> and the man lived in the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with chains.

<sup>4</sup> For he had often been bound with shackles [for the feet] and with chains, and he tore apart the chains and broke the shackles into pieces, and no one was strong enough to subdue and tame him.

<sup>6</sup> Seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him [in homage];

<sup>7</sup> and screaming with a loud voice, he said, "What business do we have in common with each other, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore you by God [swear to me], do not torment me!"  [Matt 8:29 ; Luke 4:34 ]

<sup>8</sup> For Jesus had been saying to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

<sup>9</sup> He was asking him, "What is your name?" And he replied, "My name is Legion; for we are many."

<sup>10</sup> And he began begging Him repeatedly not to send them out of the region.

<sup>11</sup> Now there was a large herd of pigs grazing there on the mountain.

<sup>12</sup> And the demons begged Him, saying, “Send us to the pigs so that we may go into them!” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Jesus gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out [of the man] and entered the pigs. The herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea; and they were drowned [one after the other] in the sea.

<sup>14</sup> The herdsmen [tending the pigs] ran away and reported it in the city and in the country. And the people came to see what had happened.

<sup>15</sup> They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been demon-possessed sitting down, clothed and in his right mind, the man who had [previously] had the “legion” [of demons]; and they were frightened.

<sup>16</sup> Those who had seen it described [in detail] to the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man, and [told them all] about the pigs.

<sup>17</sup> So the people began to beg with Jesus to leave their region. ‡

<sup>18</sup> As He was stepping into the boat, the [Gentile] man who had been demon-possessed was begging with Him [asking] that he might go with Him [as a disciple]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Jesus did not let him [come], but [instead] He said to him, “Go home to your family and tell them all the great things that the Lord has done for you, and how He has had mercy on you.”

<sup>20</sup> So he [obeyed and] went away and began to publicly proclaim in Decapolis [the region of the ten Hellenistic cities] all the great things that Jesus had done for him; and all the people were astonished.

Miracles and Healing

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had again crossed over in the boat to the other side [of the sea], a large crowd gathered around Him; and so He stayed by the seashore. ‡

<sup>23</sup> and begged anxiously with Him, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death; [please] come and lay Your hands on her, so that she will be healed and live.”

<sup>26</sup> and had endured much [suffering] at the hands of many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but instead had become worse.

<sup>27</sup> She had heard [reports] about Jesus, and she came up behind Him in the crowd and touched His outer robe.

<sup>29</sup> Immediately her flow of blood was dried up; and she felt in her body [and knew without any doubt] that she was healed of her suffering.

<sup>30</sup> Immediately Jesus, recognizing in Himself that power had gone out from Him, turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched My clothes?”‡

<sup>31</sup> His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing in around You [from all sides], and You ask, ‘Who touched Me?’ ”

<sup>32</sup> Still He kept looking around to see the woman who had done it.

<sup>33</sup> And the woman, though she was afraid and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.

<sup>34</sup> Then He said to her, “Daughter, your faith [your personal trust and confidence in Me] has restored you to health; go in peace and be [permanently] healed from your suffering.”‡

<sup>35</sup> While He was still speaking, some people came from the synagogue official’s house, saying [to Jairus], “Your daughter has died; why bother the Teacher any longer?”‡

<sup>36</sup> Overhearing what was being said, Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; only keep on believing [in Me and my power].”

<sup>37</sup> And He allowed no one to go with Him [as witnesses], except Peter and James and John the brother of James.

<sup>38</sup> They came to the house of the synagogue official; and He looked [with understanding] at the uproar and commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing [in mourning].

<sup>39</sup> When He had gone in, He said to them, “Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is sleeping.”‡

<sup>40</sup> They began laughing [scornfully] at Him [because they knew the child was dead]. But He made them all go outside, and took along the child’s father and mother and His own [three] companions, and entered the room where the child was.‡

<sup>41</sup> Taking the child's hand, He said [tenderly] to her, "Talitha kum!"—which translated [from Aramaic] means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!"

<sup>42</sup> The little girl immediately got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they [who witnessed the child's resurrection] were overcome with great wonder and utter amazement.

<sup>43</sup> He gave strict orders that no one should know about this, and He told them to give her something to eat. ‡

Mark 6

Teaching at Nazareth

<sup>2</sup> When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue; and many who listened to Him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things [this knowledge and spiritual insight]? What is this wisdom [this confident understanding of the Scripture] that has been given to Him, and such miracles as these performed by His hands? ‡

<sup>3</sup> "Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? Are His sisters not here with us?" And they were [deeply] offended by Him [and their disapproval blinded them to the fact that He was anointed by God as the Messiah]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> He wondered at their unbelief. ‡

A nd He was going around in the villages teaching.

The Twelve Sent Out

<sup>7</sup> And He called the twelve [disciples] and began to send them out [as His special messengers] two by two, and gave them authority and power over the unclean spirits. ‡

<sup>8</sup> He told them to take nothing for the journey except a mere walking stick —no bread, no [traveler's] bag, no money in their belts—

<sup>9</sup> but to wear sandals; and [He told them] not to wear two tunics. ‡

<sup>10</sup> And He told them, “Wherever you go into a house, stay there until you leave that town. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Any place that does not welcome you or listen to you, when you leave there, shake the dust off the soles of your feet as a testimony against them [breaking all ties with them because they rejected My message].”  [Matt 10:14 ; Acts 13:51. ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> So they went out and preached that men should repent [that is, think differently, recognize sin, turn away from it, and live changed lives].

<sup>13</sup> And they were casting out many demons and were anointing with oil many who were sick, and healing them. ‡

John's Fate Recalled

<sup>14</sup> King Herod [Antipas] heard about this, for Jesus' name and reputation had become well known. People were saying, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> But others were saying, “He is Elijah!” And others were saying, “It is a prophet, like one of the prophets [of old].” ‡

<sup>17</sup> For Herod himself had sent [guards] and had John arrested and shackled in prison because of Herodias, the wife of his [half-] brother Philip, because he (Herod) had married her.  [Matt 14:3 ; Luke 3:19 ]

<sup>19</sup> Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she could not,

<sup>20</sup> because Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he continually kept him safe. When he heard John [speak], he was very perplexed; but he enjoyed listening to him. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Now [Salome] the daughter of Herodias came in and danced [for the men]. She pleased and beguiled Herod and his dinner guests; and the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you.”

<sup>23</sup> And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give it to you; up to half of my kingdom.”  [Esth 5:3, 6 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> She went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask for?” And Herodias replied, “The head of John the Baptist!”

<sup>27</sup> So the king immediately sent for an executioner and commanded him to bring back John’s head. And he went and had John beheaded in the prison, <sup>28</sup> and brought back his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

<sup>29</sup> When his disciples heard about this, they came and took away John’s body and laid it in a tomb.

Five Thousand Fed

<sup>30</sup> The apostles [who had been sent out on a mission] gathered together with Jesus and told Him everything that they had done and taught. ‡

<sup>31</sup> He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a little while”—for there were many [people who were continually] coming and going, and they could not even find time to eat. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Many [people] saw them leaving, and recognized them and ran there together on foot from all the [surrounding] cities, and got there ahead of them.

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus went ashore, He saw a large crowd [waiting], and He was moved with compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd [lacking guidance]; and He began to teach them many things. ‡

<sup>35</sup> When the day was nearly gone, His disciples came to Him and said, “This is an isolated place, and it is already late; ‡

<sup>36</sup> send the crowds away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

<sup>37</sup> But He replied, “You give them something to eat!” And they asked Him,

“Shall we go and buy 200 denarii worth of bread and give it to them to eat?”  [2 Kin 4:42–44] ‡

<sup>38</sup> He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go look!” And when they found out, they said, “Five [loaves], and two fish.” ‡

39 Then Jesus commanded them all to sit down by groups on the green grass.

<sup>40</sup> They sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties [so that the crowd resembled an orderly arrangement of colorful garden plots].

<sup>41</sup> Taking the five loaves and two fish, He looked up to heaven and said a blessing [of praise and thanksgiving to the Father]. Then He broke the loaves and [repeatedly] gave them to the disciples to set before the people; and He divided up the two fish among them all. ‡

<sup>42</sup> They all ate and were satisfied.

43 And the disciples picked up twelve full baskets of the broken pieces [of the loaves], and of the fish.

<sup>44</sup> Those who ate the loaves were five thousand men [not counting the women and children].

Jesus Walks on the Water

<sup>45</sup> Jesus immediately insisted that His disciples get into the boat and go ahead [of Him] to the other side to Bethsaida, while He was dismissing the crowd.  [Matt 14:22–32; John 6:15–21] ‡

<sup>46</sup> And after He said goodbye to them, He went to the mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup> Now when evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and Jesus was alone on the land. ‡

<sup>48</sup> Seeing the disciples straining at the oars, because the wind was against them, at about the fourth watch of the night (3:00–6:00 a.m.) He came to them, walking on the sea. And [acted as if] He intended to pass by them.  [Matt 14:25; John 6:19] ‡

<sup>49</sup> But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost, and cried out [in horror];

<sup>50</sup> for they all saw Him and were shaken and terrified. But He immediately spoke with them and said, “Take courage! It is I (I AM)! Stop being afraid.”  [Ex 3:14]

51 Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased [as if exhausted by its own activity]; and they were completely overwhelmed,

<sup>52</sup> because they had not understood [the miracle of] the loaves [how it revealed the power and deity of Jesus]; but [in fact] their heart was hardened [being oblivious and indifferent to His amazing works]. ‡

Healing at Gennesaret

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over [the sea], they reached the land of Gennesaret and anchored at the shore. ‡

<sup>54</sup> They got out of the boat and immediately people recognized Him,

<sup>55</sup> and ran throughout that surrounding countryside and began to carry around on their mats those who were sick, to any place where they heard He was.

<sup>56</sup> And wherever He came into villages, or cities, or the countryside, they were laying the sick in the market places and pleading with Him [to allow them] just to touch the fringe (tassel with a blue cord) of His robe; and all who touched it were healed. ‡

Followers of Tradition

<sup>3</sup>-(For the Pharisees and all of the Jews do not eat unless they carefully wash their hands, holding firmly to the traditions of the elders;

<sup>4</sup> and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they cleanse themselves [completely according to ritual]; and there are many other things [oral, man-made laws and traditions handed down to them] which they follow diligently, such as the washing of cups and pitchers and copper utensils.)

actors, pretenders), as it is written [in Scripture], ‡

‘T HESE PEOPLE HONOR M E WITH THEIR LIPS , B UT THEIR HEART IS FAR FROM M E .

T EACHING THE PRECEPTS OF MEN AS DOCTRINES [giving their traditions equal weight with the Scriptures].’  [Is 29:13 ]

<sup>8</sup> “You disregard and neglect the commandment of God, and cling [faithfully] to the tradition of men.”

<sup>9</sup> He was also saying to them, “You are experts at setting aside and nullifying the commandment of God in order to keep your [man-made] tradition and regulations.

<sup>10</sup> “For Moses said, ‘H ONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER [with respect and gratitude]’; and, ‘H E WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF HIS FATHER OR MOTHER MUST BE PUT TO DEATH ’;  [Ex 20:12; 21:17; Lev 20:9; Deut 5:16 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> then you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother [since helping them would violate his vow of Corban];

<sup>13</sup> so you nullify the [authority of the] word of God [acting as if it did not apply] because of your tradition which you have handed down [through the elders]. And you do many things such as that.”

The Heart of Man

<sup>14</sup> After He called the people to Him again, He began saying to them, “Listen [carefully] to Me, all of you, [hear] and understand [what I am saying]: ‡

<sup>15</sup> there is nothing outside a man [such as food] which by going into him can defile him [morally or spiritually]; but the things which come out of [the heart of] a man are what defile and dishonor him.

<sup>18</sup> And He said to them, “Are you, too, so foolish and lacking in understanding? Do you not understand that whatever goes into the man from outside cannot defile and dishonor him,

<sup>19</sup> since it does not enter his heart, but [only] his stomach, and [from there it] is eliminated?” (By this, He declared all foods ceremonially clean.)

<sup>20</sup> And He said, “Whatever comes from [the heart of] a man, that is what defiles and dishonors him.

<sup>22</sup> acts of greed and covetousness, wickedness, deceit, unrestrained conduct, envy and jealousy, slander and profanity, arrogance and self-righteousness and foolishness (poor judgment).

<sup>23</sup> “All these evil things [schemes and desires] come from within and defile and dishonor the man.”

The Syrophenician Woman

<sup>24</sup> Jesus got up and left there and went to the region of Tyre [and Sidon, the coastal area of Phoenicia]. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know about it; but it was impossible for Him to be hidden [from the public]. [Matt 15:21–28] ‡

<sup>25</sup> Instead, after hearing about Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately came and fell at His feet.

<sup>26</sup> Now the woman was a Gentile (Greek), a Syrophenician by nationality. And she kept pleading with Him to drive the demon out of her daughter.

<sup>30</sup> And returning to her home, she found the child lying on the couch [relaxed and resting], the demon having gone.

‡

32 They brought to Him a man who was deaf and had difficulty speaking, and they begged Jesus to place His hand on him. ‡

33 Jesus, taking him aside by himself, away from the crowd, put His fingers into the man's ears, and after spitting, He touched the man's tongue [with the saliva]; ‡

34 and looking up to heaven, He sighed deeply and said to the man, "Ephphatha," which [in Aramaic] means, "Be opened and released!" ‡

35 And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he began speaking plainly. ‡

36 Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone; but the more He ordered them, the more widely they continued to proclaim it. ‡

37 They were thoroughly astounded and completely overwhelmed, saying, "He has done everything well! He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!"

Mark 8

Four Thousand Fed

1 IN THOSE days, when there was again a large crowd [gathered before Him] and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples and told them, [Matt 15:32–39] ‡

2 "I feel compassion for the crowd; they have been with Me now for three days and have nothing [left] to eat.

3 "If I send them away to their homes hungry, they will faint [from exhaustion] on the road; because some of them have come a long way."

4 His disciples replied to Him, "Where will anyone be able to find enough bread here in this isolated place to feed these people?"

5 He asked them, "How many loaves [of bread] do you have?" They said, "Seven." ‡

6 He directed the people to sit down on the ground; and taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks and broke them, and [repeatedly] gave them to His disciples to set before them, and they served the crowd.

7 They also had a few small fish; and when Jesus had blessed them [and given thanks], He ordered these [fish] to be set before them as well. ‡

8- And the people ate and were satisfied; and they picked up seven large baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>9</sup> About four thousand [men] were there [besides women and children]; and He sent them away.

<sup>10</sup> Then immediately He got into the boat with His disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha. ‡

<sup>12</sup> He groaned and sighed deeply in His spirit and said, “Why does this generation demand a sign? I assure you and most solemnly say to you, no sign will be given to this generation!”

<sup>14</sup> Now the disciples had forgotten to bring bread, and they had only one loaf with them in the boat. ‡

<sup>16</sup> They began discussing this with one another, saying, “It is because we have no bread [that He said this].”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus, aware of this [discussion], said to them, “Why are you discussing [the fact] that you have no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Are your hearts hardened?  [Is 6:9, 10. ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> “T HOUGH YOU HAVE EYES , DO YOU NOT SEE ? A ND THOUGH YOU HAVE EARS , YOU NOT HEAR and LISTEN [to what I have said]? And do you not remember,  [Je 5:21. ]

<sup>21</sup> And He was saying to them, “Do you still not understand?” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then they came to Bethsaida; and some people brought a blind man to Jesus and begged Him to touch him.

<sup>25</sup> Then again Jesus laid His hands on his eyes; and the man stared intently and [his sight] was [completely] restored, and he began to see everything clearly.

<sup>26</sup> And He sent him to his home, saying, “Do not even enter the village.” ‡

Peter’s Confession of Christ

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus and His disciples went out to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that I am?”  [Matt 16:13–16; Luke 9:18–20 ] ‡

<sup>29</sup> And He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter replied to Him, “You [in contrast to the others] are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then Jesus strictly warned them not to tell anyone about Him. ‡

<sup>31</sup> And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must [of necessity] suffer many things and be rejected [as the Messiah] by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and must be put to death, and after three days rise [from death to life].  [Matt 16:21–28 ; Luke 9:22–27 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> He was stating the matter plainly [not holding anything back]. Then Peter took Him aside and began to reprimand Him.

<sup>33</sup> But turning around [with His back to Peter] and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, “Get behind Me, Satan; for your mind is not set on God’s will or His values and purposes, but on what pleases man.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus called the crowd together with His disciples, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to follow Me [as My disciple], he must deny himself [set aside selfish interests], and take up his cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me].” ‡

<sup>36</sup> “For what does it benefit a man to gain the whole world [with all its pleasures], and forfeit his soul?

<sup>37</sup> “For what will a man give in exchange for his soul and eternal life [in God's kingdom]?

<sup>38</sup>“For whoever is ashamed [here and now] of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.” ‡

Mark 9

The Transfiguration

<sup>1</sup> AND JESUS said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste (experience) death before they see the kingdom of God after it has come with power.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> Six days later, Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured (changed in form) before them [and began to shine brightly with divine and regal glory];  [Matt 17:1–8; Luke 9:28–36 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were having a conversation with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Peter responded and said to Jesus, “Rabbi (Master), it is good for us to be here; let us make three [sacred] tents—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>6</sup> For he did not [really] know what to say because they were terrified [and stunned by the miraculous sight].

<sup>7</sup> Then a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, “This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him and obey Him!”

<sup>8</sup> Suddenly they looked around and no longer saw anyone with them, except Jesus alone.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus expressly ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. ‡

<sup>10</sup> So they [carefully and faithfully] kept the matter to themselves, discussing and questioning [with one another] what it meant to rise from the dead.

<sup>11</sup> They asked Him, saying, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first [before the Messiah comes]?”  [Mal 4:5, 6 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> He answered them, “Elijah does come first and restores and reestablishes all things. And yet how is it written of the Son of Man that He will suffer many things [grief and physical distress] and be treated with contempt [utterly despised and rejected]?  [Is 53:3] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “But I say to you that Elijah has in fact come [already], and they did to him whatever they wished, just as it is written [in Scripture] of him.” ‡

All Things Possible

<sup>14</sup> When they came [back] to the [other nine] disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and scribes questioning and arguing with them.  [Matt 17:14–18; Luke 9:37–42] ‡

<sup>15</sup> Immediately, when the entire crowd saw Jesus, they were startled and began running up to greet Him.

<sup>16</sup> He asked them, “What are you discussing with them?”

<sup>17</sup> One of the crowd replied to Him, “Teacher, I brought You my son, possessed with a spirit which makes him unable to speak; ‡

<sup>18</sup> and whenever it seizes him [intending to do harm], it throws him down, and he foams [at the mouth], and grinds his teeth and becomes stiff. I told Your disciples to drive it out, and they could not do it.”

<sup>19</sup> He replied, “O unbelieving (faithless) generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me!”

<sup>20</sup> They brought the boy to Him. When the [demonic] spirit saw Him, immediately it threw the boy into a convulsion, and falling to the ground he began rolling around and foaming at the mouth. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he answered, “Since childhood.

<sup>22</sup> “The demon has often thrown him both into fire and into water, intending to kill him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to him, “[You say to Me,] ‘If You can?’ All things are possible for the one who believes and trusts [in Me]!” ‡

<sup>24</sup> Immediately the father of the boy cried out [with a desperate, piercing cry], saying, “I do believe; help [me overcome] my unbelief.”

<sup>25</sup> When Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly gathering [around them], He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You deaf and mute spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again!”

<sup>26</sup> After screaming out and throwing him into a terrible convulsion, it came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse [so still and pale] that many [of the spectators] said, “He is dead!”

<sup>27</sup> But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him; and he stood up.

<sup>28</sup> When He had gone indoors, His disciples began asking Him privately, “Why were we unable to drive it out?” ‡

<sup>29</sup> He replied to them, “This kind [of unclean spirit] cannot come out by anything but prayer [to the Father].”

Death and Resurrection Foretold

<sup>30</sup> They went on from there and began to go through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know it,

<sup>31</sup> because He was teaching His disciples [and preparing them for the future]. He told them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed and handed over to men [who are His enemies], and they will kill Him; and when He has been killed, He will rise [from the dead] three days later.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him [what He meant].

<sup>33</sup> They arrived at Capernaum; and when He was in the house, He asked them, “What were you discussing and arguing about on the road?”  [Matt 18:1–5; Luke 9:46–48 ] ‡

<sup>34</sup> But they kept quiet, because on the road they had discussed and debated with one another which one [of them] was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup> Sitting down [to teach], He called the twelve [disciples] and said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all [in importance] and a servant of all.” ‡

<sup>36</sup> Taking a child, He set him before them; and taking him in His arms, He said to them, ‡

<sup>37</sup> “Whoever receives and welcomes one child such as this in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives not [only] Me, but Him who sent Me.”  [Matt 10:40; Luke 10:16; John 13:20 ] ‡

Dire Warnings

<sup>38</sup> John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he was not accompanying us [as Your disciple].”  [Luke 9:49, 50 ] ‡

<sup>39</sup> But Jesus said, “Do not stop him; for there is no one who will perform a miracle in My name, and be able soon afterward to speak evil of Me.”‡

<sup>40</sup> “For he who is not against us is for us.  [Num 11:27–29. ]‡

<sup>41</sup> “For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of your name as followers of Christ, I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he will not lose his reward.‡

<sup>42</sup> “But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe and trust in Me to stumble [that is, to sin or lose faith], it would be better for him if a heavy millstone [one requiring a donkey’s strength to turn it] were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea.  [Matt 18:6; Luke 17:2. ]‡

<sup>43</sup> “If your hand causes you to stumble and sin, cut it off [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]! It is better for you to enter life crippled, than to have two hands and go into hell, into the unquenchable fire,‡

<sup>45</sup> “If your foot causes you to stumble and sin, cut it off [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]! It would be better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell,

<sup>47</sup> “If your eye causes you to stumble and sin, throw it out [that is, remove yourself from the source of temptation]! It would be better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell,

<sup>50</sup> “Salt is good and useful; but if salt has lost its saltiness (purpose), how will you make it salty? Have salt within yourselves continually, and be at peace with one another.”‡

Mark 10

Jesus’ Teaching about Divorce

<sup>1</sup> GETTING UP, He left there (Capernaum) and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan; and crowds gathered around Him again and accompanied Him, and as was His custom, He once more began to teach them.‡

<sup>2</sup> Pharisees came to Jesus to test Him [intending to trick Him into saying something wrong], and asked Him, “Is it lawful [according to Scripture] for a man to divorce his wife and send her away?” ‡

<sup>3</sup> He replied to them, “What did Moses command you?”

<sup>4</sup> They said, “Moses allowed a man TO WRITE A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE AND TO SEND HER AWAY .”  [Deut 24:1–4. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of hearts [your callousness and insensitivity toward your wives and the provision of God] he wrote you this precept.

<sup>8</sup> AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH ; so that they are no longer two, but [are united as] one flesh.  [Gen 2:24. ]

<sup>9</sup> “Therefore, what God has united and joined together, man must not separate [by divorce].”

<sup>11</sup> And He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her; ‡

<sup>12</sup> and if a woman divorces her husband and marries another man, she commits adultery.”

Jesus Blesses Little Children

<sup>13</sup> People were bringing children to Him so that He would touch and bless them, but the disciples reprimanded them and discouraged them [from coming]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and He said to them, “Allow the children to come to Me; do not forbid them; for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whoever does not receive and welcome the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it at all.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> And He took the children [one by one] in His arms and blessed them [with kind, encouraging words], placing His hands on them.

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>17</sup> As He was leaving on His journey, a man ran up and knelt before Him and asked Him, “Good Teacher [You who are essentially good and morally perfect], what shall I do to inherit eternal life [that is, eternal salvation in the Messiah’s kingdom]?”  [Matt 19:16–29; Luke 18:18–30 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is [essentially] good [by nature] except God alone.

<sup>20</sup> And he replied to Him, “Teacher, I have [carefully] kept all these [commandments] since my youth.”

<sup>21</sup> Looking at him, Jesus felt a love (high regard, compassion) for him, and He said to him, “You lack one thing: go and sell all your property and give [the money] to the poor, and you will have [abundant] treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me [becoming My disciple, believing and trusting in Me and walking the same path of life that I walk].” ‡

<sup>22</sup> But the man was saddened at Jesus’ words, and he left grieving, because he owned much property and had many possessions [which he treasured more than his relationship with God].

<sup>23</sup> Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How difficult it will be for those who are wealthy [and cling to possessions and status as security] to enter the kingdom of God!” ‡

<sup>24</sup> The disciples were amazed and bewildered by His words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how difficult it is [for those who place their hope and confidence in riches] to enter the kingdom of God! ‡

<sup>25</sup> “It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man [who places his faith in wealth or status] to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup> They were completely and utterly astonished, and said to Him, “Then who can be saved [from the wrath of God]?”

<sup>27</sup> Looking at them, Jesus said, “With people [as far as it depends on them] it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Peter started saying to Him, “Look, we have given up everything and followed You [becoming Your disciples and accepting You as Teacher and Lord].” ‡

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there is no one who has given up a house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or farms, for My sake and for the gospel's sake,

<sup>30</sup>who will not receive a hundred times as much now in the present age—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and farms—along with persecutions; and in the age to come, eternal life. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “But many who are first will be last, and the last, first.” ‡

Jesus' Sufferings Foretold

<sup>32</sup> Now they were on the road going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking on ahead of them; and they were perplexed [at what Jesus had said], and those who were following were alarmed and afraid. And again He took the twelve [disciples] aside and began telling them what was going to happen to Him, ‡

<sup>33</sup> saying, “Listen very carefully: we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to the chief priests and the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles (Romans).

<sup>34</sup> “They will mock and ridicule Him and spit on Him, and whip (scourge) Him and kill Him, and three days later He will rise [from the dead].”

<sup>35</sup> James and John, the two sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, “Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of You.”  [Matt 20:20, 21 ] ‡

<sup>36</sup> And He replied to them, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

<sup>37</sup> They said to Him, “Grant that we may sit [with You], one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory [Your majesty and splendor in Your kingdom].”

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism [of suffering and death] with which I am baptized?”

<sup>39</sup> And they replied to Him, “We are able.” Jesus told them, “The cup that I drink you will drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized.

<sup>42</sup> Calling them to Himself, Jesus said to them, “You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them; and their powerful men exercise authority over them [tyrannizing them]. ‡

<sup>43</sup> “But this is not how it is among you; instead, whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, ‡

<sup>44</sup> and whoever wishes to be first and most important among you must be slave of all.

<sup>45</sup> “For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.” ‡

Bartimaeus Receives His Sight

<sup>46</sup> Then they came to Jericho. And as He was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, a blind beggar, Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road [as was his custom].  [Matt 20:29–34; Luke 18:35–43 ] ‡

<sup>47</sup> When Bartimaeus heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and say, “Jesus, Son of David (Messiah), have mercy on me!”

<sup>48</sup> Many sternly rebuked him, telling him to keep still and be quiet; but he kept on shouting out all the more, “Son of David (Messiah), have mercy on me!”

<sup>49</sup> Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” So they called the blind man, telling him, “Take courage, get up! He is calling for you.”

<sup>50</sup> Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped up and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup> And Jesus said, “What do you want Me to do for you?” The blind man said to Him, “Rabboni (my Master), let me regain my sight.”

<sup>52</sup> Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith [and confident trust in My power] has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and began following Jesus on the road.  [Is 42:6, 7 ] ‡

Mark 11

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THEY were nearing Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of His disciples,  [Matt 21:1–9 ; Luke 19:29–38 ; John 12:12–15 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> saying to them, “Go into the village in front of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find a [donkey’s] colt tied, which has never been ridden by anyone; untie it and bring it here.

<sup>3</sup> “If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it’; and immediately he will send it here.”

<sup>4</sup> So they went away [to the village] and found a colt tied outside at a gate in the street, and they untied it.

<sup>5</sup> Some of the people who were standing there said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

<sup>6</sup> They replied to them just as Jesus had directed, and they allowed them to go.

<sup>7</sup> They brought the colt to Jesus and put their coats on it, and He sat on it.

<sup>8</sup> And many [of the people] spread their coats on the road [as an act of tribute and homage before a new king], and others [scattered a layer of] leafy branches which they had cut from the fields [honoring Him as Messiah]. [2 Kin 9:13] ‡

<sup>9</sup> Those who went in front and those who were following [Him] were shouting [in joy and praise], ‡

“Hosanna (Save, I pray)!

BLESSED (praised, glorified) IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF
THE LORD! [Ps 118:26]

<sup>10</sup> “Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! ‡
Hosanna in the highest [heaven]!”

<sup>13</sup> Seeing at a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if He would find anything on it. But He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. ‡

<sup>14</sup> He said to it, “No one will ever eat fruit from you again!” And His disciples were listening [to what He said].

Jesus Drives Moneychangers from the Temple

<sup>15</sup> Then they came to Jerusalem. And He entered the temple [grounds] and began driving out [with force] the people who were selling and buying

[animals for sacrifice] in the temple area, and overturned the tables of the moneychangers [who made a profit exchanging foreign money for temple coinage] and the seats of those who were selling doves;  [Matt 21:12–16 ; Luke 19:45–47 ; John 2:13–16 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> and He would not permit anyone to carry merchandise or household wares through the temple [grounds, using the temple area irreverently as a shortcut].

17 He began to teach and say to them, “Is it not written, ‘M Y HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL THE NATIONS’? But you have made it a ROBBERS’ DEN.”  [Is 56:7 ; Jer 7:11 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> In the morning, as they were passing by, the disciples saw that the fig tree had withered away from the roots up. ‡

21 And remembering, Peter said to Him, “Rabbi (Master), look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered!”

<sup>23</sup> I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea!’ and does not doubt in his heart [in God’s unlimited power], but believes that what he says is going to take place, it will be done for him [in accordance with God’s will].  [Matt 17:20 ; Luke 17:6 ; 1 John 5:14 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> “For this reason I am telling you, whatever things you ask for in prayer [in accordance with God’s will], believe [with confident trust] that you have received them, and they will be given to you. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him [drop the issue, let it go], so that your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you your transgressions and wrongdoings [against Him and others]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> [ “But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions.” ] ‡

Jesus’ Authority Questioned

<sup>27</sup> They came again to Jerusalem. And as Jesus was walking in the [courts and porches of the] temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him,  [Matt 21:23–27 ; Luke 20:1–8 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> and began saying to Him, “By what authority are You doing these things, or who gave You this authority to do these things?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question, and you answer Me, and then I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>30</sup> “Was the baptism of John [the Baptist] from heaven [that is, ordained by God] or from men? Answer Me.”

<sup>31</sup> They began discussing it with each other, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’

<sup>32</sup> “But shall we say, ‘From men?’ ” —they were afraid [to answer because] of the crowd, for everyone considered John to have been a real prophet. ‡

<sup>33</sup> So they replied to Jesus, “We do not know.” And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Mark 12

Parable of the Vineyard Owner

<sup>1</sup> JESUS BEGAN to speak to them [the chief priests, scribes and elders who were questioning Him] in parables: “A man PLANTED A VINEYARD AND PUT A WALL AROUND IT , AND DUG A PIT FOR THE WINE PRESS AND BUILT A TOWER ; and he rented it out to tenant farmers and left the country.  [Is 5:1 , 2 ; Matt 21:33–46 ; Luke 20:9–19 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> “They took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>4</sup> “Again he sent them another servant, and they [threw stones and] wounded him in the head, and treated him disgracefully.

<sup>5</sup> “And he sent another, and that one they killed; then many others—some they beat and some they killed.

<sup>6</sup> “He still had one man left to send, a beloved son; he sent him last of all to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

<sup>7</sup> “But those tenants said to each other, ‘This man is the heir! Come on, let us kill him [and destroy the evidence], and his inheritance will be ours!’

<sup>8</sup> “So they took him and killed him, and threw his body outside the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup> “What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants, and will give the vineyard to others.

<sup>10</sup> “Have you not even read this Scripture: ‡

‘T HE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REGARDED AS UNWORTHY and REJECTED ,
T HIS [very stone] HAS BECOME THE CHIEF C ORNERSTONE
<sup>11</sup> T HIS CAME ABOUT FROM THE L ORD ,
A ND IT IS MARVELOUS and WONDERFUL IN OUR EYES ’?”  [Ps 118:22, 23 ]

<sup>12</sup> And they were looking for a way to seize Him, but they were afraid of the crowd; for they knew that He spoke this parable in reference to [and as a charge against] them. And so they left Him and went away. ‡

Jesus Answers the Pharisees, Sadducees and Scribes

<sup>13</sup> Then they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Jesus in order to trap Him into making a statement [that they could use against Him].  [Matt 22:15–22 ; Luke 20:20–26 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> They came and said to Him, “Teacher, we know that You are truthful and have no personal bias toward anyone; for You are not influenced by outward appearances or social status, but in truth You teach the way of God. Is it lawful [according to Jewish law and tradition] to pay the poll-tax to [Tiberius] Caesar, or not?

<sup>15</sup> “Should we pay [the tax] or should we not pay?” But knowing their hypocrisy, He asked them, “Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a coin (denarius) to look at.”

<sup>16</sup> So they brought one. Then He asked them, “Whose image and inscription is this?” They said to Him, “Caesar’s.”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said to them, “Pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were greatly amazed at Him.

<sup>20</sup> “There were seven brothers; the first [one] took a wife, and died leaving no children.

<sup>21</sup> “The second brother married her, and died leaving no children; and the third likewise;

<sup>22</sup> and so all seven [married her and died, and] left no children. Last of all the woman died also.

<sup>23</sup> “In the resurrection, whose wife will she be? For all seven [brothers] were married to her.”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to them, “Is this not why you are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures [that teach the resurrection] nor the power of God [who is able to raise the dead]?

<sup>25</sup> “For when they rise from the dead, they do not marry nor are they given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “But concerning the raising of the dead, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the burning bush, how God spoke to him, saying, ‘I AM THE G OD OF A BRAHAM , AND THE G OD OF I SAAC , AND THE G OD OF J ACC 3:2–6.] ‡

<sup>27</sup> “He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; you are greatly mistaken and you are deceiving yourselves!”

<sup>28</sup> Then one of the scribes [an expert in Mosaic Law] came up and listened to them arguing [with one another], and noticing that Jesus answered them well, asked Him, “Which commandment is first and most important of all?” [ Matt 22:34–40; Luke 10:25–28] ‡

<sup>30</sup> AND YOU SHALL LOVE THE L ORD YOUR G OD WITH ALL YOUR HEART , AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL (life), AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND (thought, understanding), AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH .’ [ Deut 6:4, 5.]

<sup>32</sup> The scribe said to Him, “Admirably answered, Teacher; You truthfully stated that H E IS O NE , AND THERE IS NO OTHER BUT H IM ; ‡

<sup>33</sup> AND TO LOVE H IM WITH ALL THE HEART AND WITH ALL THE UNDERSTANDING AND WITH ALL THE STRENGTH , AND TO [unselfishly] LOVE ONE’S NEIGHBOR AS ONESELF , is much more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.” [ 1 Sam 15:22; Hos 6:6; Mic 6:6–8; Heb 10:8] ‡

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he answered thoughtfully and intelligently, He said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And after that, no one would dare to ask Him any more questions. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “David himself said [when inspired] by the Holy Spirit, ‡

‘T HE L ORD (the Father) SAID TO MY L ORD (the Son, the Messiah),
“S IT AT M Y RIGHT HAND ,
U NTIL I PUT Y OUR ENEMIES UNDER Y OUR FEET .” ’  [Ps 110:1 ]

<sup>37</sup> “David himself calls Him (the Son, the Messiah) ‘Lord’; so how can it be that He is David’s Son?” The large crowd enjoyed hearing Jesus and listened to Him with delight.

<sup>39</sup> and [they love] the chief seats in the synagogues and the places of distinction and honor at banquets,

<sup>40</sup> [these scribes] who devour (confiscate) widows’ houses, and offer long prayers for appearance’s sake [to impress others]. These men will receive greater condemnation.” ‡

The Widow’s Mite

<sup>41</sup> And He sat down opposite the [temple] treasury, and began watching how the people were putting money into the treasury. And many rich people were putting in large sums.  [Luke 21:1–4 ] ‡

<sup>42</sup> A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which amount to a mite.

<sup>43</sup> Calling His disciples to Him, He said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this poor widow put in [proportionally] more than all the contributors to the treasury. ‡

<sup>44</sup> “For they all contributed from their surplus, but she, from her poverty, put in all she had, all she had to live on.” ‡

Mark 13

Things to Come

<sup>2</sup> Jesus replied to him, “You see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left on another which will not be torn down!” ‡

<sup>3</sup> As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked Him privately,

<sup>4</sup> “Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Jesus began to say to them, “Be careful and see to it that no one misleads you. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Many will come in My name [misusing My name or claiming to be the Messiah], saying, ‘I am He!’ and will deceive and mislead many.

<sup>7</sup> “When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed (frightened, troubled); these things must take place, but the end is not yet.

<sup>8</sup> “For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. These things are the beginning of the birth pangs [the intolerable anguish and suffering]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “But be on your guard; they will turn you over to courts, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand [as accused] before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “The gospel [that is, the good news regarding the way of salvation] must first be preached to all the [Gentile] nations. [ Col 1:6 , 23.] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “When they take you and turn you over [to the court], do not worry beforehand about what to say, but say whatever is given to you [by God] in that hour; for it is not you who speak, but it is the Holy Spirit [who will speak through you]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Brother will betray brother to [be put to] death, and a father [will hand over] his child; and children will rise up and take a stand against parents and have them put to death. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “You will be hated by everyone because of [your association with] My name, but the one who [patiently perseveres empowered by the Holy Spirit and] endures to the end, he will be saved. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “But when you see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION standing [in the temple sanctuary] where it ought not to be (let the reader understand) then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains. [ Dan 9:27 ; 11:31 ; 12:11 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “And woe to those women who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! ‡

<sup>19</sup> for at that time there will be such tribulation as has not occurred, from the beginning of the creation which God made, until now—and never will [be again]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “And if the Lord had not shortened the days, no human life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom He chose [for Himself], He shortened the days.  [Dan 12:1 ]

<sup>21</sup> “Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)!’ or, ‘Look, He is there!’ do not believe it; ‡

<sup>22</sup> for false Christs and false prophets will arise, and they will provide signs and wonders in order to deceive, if [such a thing were] possible, even the elect [those God has chosen for Himself].

<sup>23</sup> “But be on your guard; I have told you everything in advance. ‡

The Return of Christ

<sup>24</sup> “But in those days, after [the suffering and distress of] that tribulation, THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED , AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT ,  [Is 13:10 ]

<sup>25</sup> AND THE STARS WILL BE FALLING from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.  [Is 34:4 ]

<sup>26</sup> “Then they will see THE SON OF MAN COMING IN CLOUDS with great power and glory [in royal majesty and splendor].  [Dan 7:13, 14 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> “And then He will send out the angels, and will gather together His elect [those He has chosen for Himself] from the four winds, from the farthest end of the earth to the farthest end of heaven.

<sup>29</sup> “Even so, you too, when you see these things happening, know [for certain] that He is near, right at the door.

<sup>30</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this generation [the people living when these signs and events begin] will not pass away until all these things take place.

<sup>31</sup> “Heaven and earth [as now known] will pass away, but My words will not pass away. ‡

32 “But of that [exact] day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son [in His humanity], but the Father alone.

<sup>33</sup> “Be on guard and stay constantly alert [ and pray ] ; for you do not know when the appointed time will come. ‡

34 “It is like a man away on a journey, who when he left home put his servants in charge, each with his particular task, and also ordered the doorkeeper to be continually alert. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “Therefore, be continually on the alert—for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning—‡

<sup>36</sup> [stay alert,] in case he should come suddenly and unexpectedly and find you asleep and unprepared.

<sup>37</sup> “What I say to you I say to everyone, ‘Be on the alert [stay awake and be continually cautious]!’ ”

Mark 14

Death Plot and the Anointing in Bethany

3.While He was in Bethany [as a guest] at the home of Simon the leper, and reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster vial of very costly and precious perfume of pure nard; and she broke the vial and poured the perfume over His head. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But there were some who were indignantly remarking to one another, “Why has this perfume been wasted?”

<sup>5</sup> “For this perfume might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii [a laborer’s wages for almost a year], and the money given to the poor.” And they scolded her.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, “Let her alone; why are you bothering her and causing trouble? She has done a good and beautiful thing to Me.

7 “For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish you can do something good to them; but you will not always have Me.  [Deut 15:11 ]

8 “She has done what she could; she has anointed My body beforehand for the burial.

9 “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, wherever the good news [regarding salvation] is proclaimed throughout the world, what she has done will be told in memory of her.”

10 Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve [disciples], went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them.  [Matt 26:14–16; Luke 22:3–6; John 6:71 ] ‡

11 When they heard this they were delighted, and promised to give him money. And he began looking for an opportune time to betray Jesus.

The Last Passover

12 On the first day [of the festival] of Unleavened Bread, when [as was customary] they sacrificed the Passover lamb, His disciples asked Him, “Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?”  [Matt 26:17–19; Luke 22:7–13 ] ‡

13 And He sent two of His disciples, saying to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him;

14 and say to the owner of the house he enters, ‘The Teacher asks, “Where is My guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?” ’

15 “He will show you a large upstairs room, furnished and ready [with carpets and dining couches]; prepare [the supper] for us there.”

16 The disciples left and went to the city and found everything just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

17 When it was evening, He came with the twelve [disciples].  [Matt 26:20–25] ‡

18 While they were reclining at the table, Jesus said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you that one of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me.”  [Ps 41:9 ]

19 They began to be grieved and deeply distressed and to say to Him one by one, “Surely not I?”

20 And He replied, “It is one of the twelve [disciples], one who is dipping bread in the bowl with Me.

21 “For the Son of Man goes [to the cross] just as it is written [in Scripture] of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born.” ‡

The Lord’s Supper

<sup>22</sup> While they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it [giving thanks and praise], and He broke it, and gave it to them and said, “Take it. This is My body.”  [Matt 26:26–29; Luke 22:17–20; 1 Cor 11:23–25.] ‡

<sup>23</sup> And when He had taken a cup [of wine] and given thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it.  [Ex 24:8.]

<sup>24</sup> And He said to them, “This is My blood of the [new] covenant, [My blood] which is being poured out for many [for the forgiveness of sins].

<sup>25</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

<sup>27</sup> Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away [and be ashamed and be afraid to be associated with Me as disciples], because it is written, ‘I WILL STRIKE THE SHEPHERD , AND THE SHEEP WILL BE SCATTERED .’  [Zech 13:7.] ‡

<sup>28</sup> “But after I have been raised [from the dead], I will go ahead of you to Galilee.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> But Peter said to Him, “Even if they all fall away [and desert You, ashamed and afraid of being associated with You], yet I will not [do so]!” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this very night, before a rooster crows twice, you will deny [that you even know] Me three times.”  [Matt 26:34; John 13:38.]

<sup>31</sup> But Peter kept saying insistently, “If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!” And they all were saying the same thing as well.

Jesus in Gethsemane

<sup>33</sup> He took Peter and James and John with Him, and He began to be deeply distressed and troubled [extremely anguished at the prospect of what was to come].

<sup>34</sup> And He said to them, “My soul is deeply grieved and overwhelmed with sorrow, to the point of death; remain here and keep watch.” ‡

35 After going a little farther, He fell to the ground [distressed by the weight of His spiritual burden] and began to pray that if it were possible [in the Father’s will], the hour [of suffering and death for the sins of mankind] might pass from Him.

36 He was saying, “Abba, Father! All things are possible for You; take this cup [of judgment] away from Me; but not what I will, but what You will.” ‡

37 And He came back and found them sleeping, and He said to Peter, “Simon, are you asleep? Were you unable to keep watch for one hour?

38 “Keep [actively] watching and praying so that you do not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.” ‡

39 He went away again and prayed, saying the same words.

40 And again He came back and found them sleeping, because their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know how to answer Him.

41 He came back a third time and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough [of that]! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. ‡

42 “Get up, let us go. Look, my betrayer is near!” ‡

Betrayal and Arrest

43 And at once, while He was still speaking, Judas [Iscariot], one of the twelve [disciples], came up, and with him a crowd of men with swords and clubs, who came from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders [of the Sanhedrin].  [Matt 26:47–56; Luke 22:47–53; John 18:3–11 ] ‡

44 Now the betrayer had given them a signal, saying, “Whomever I kiss, He is the one; seize Him and lead Him away safely [under guard].”

45 When Judas came, immediately he went up to Jesus and said, “Rabbi (Master)!” and he kissed Him [forcefully].

46 They laid hands on Him and seized Him.

47 But one of the bystanders [Simon Peter] drew his sword and struck [Malchus] the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.  [Matt 26:51; Luke 22:50; John 18:10 ]

48 Jesus said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me, as you would against a robber? ‡

49 “Day after day I was with you, teaching in the [courts and porches of the] temple, and you did not seize Me; but this has happened so that the Scriptures would be fulfilled.” ‡

50 Then all of His disciples abandoned Him and fled. ‡

51 A young man was following Him, wearing [only] a linen sheet over his naked body; and some men seized him.

52 But pulling free of the linen sheet, he escaped [from them] naked.

Jesus before His Accusers

53 They led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) gathered together.  [Matt 26:57–68; Luke 22:66–71; John 18:12f, 19–24] ‡

54 Peter had followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers [guards and servants] and warming himself at the fire.

55 Now the chief priests and the entire Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) were trying to obtain testimony against Jesus [which they could use] to have Him [condemned and] executed, but they were not finding any. ‡

56 For many [people] were giving false testimony against Him, but their testimonies were not consistent.

57 Some stood up and began to give false testimony against Him, saying,

58 “We heard Him say, ‘I will destroy this temple (sanctuary) that was made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’ ”  [John 2:19–21] ‡

59 Not even in this respect was their testimony consistent.

60 The high priest stood up and came forward and asked Jesus, “Have You no answer to give [in response] to what these men are testifying against You?” ‡

61 But Jesus kept silent and gave no answer at all. Again the high priest was questioning Him, and saying to Him, “Are You the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of the Blessed One?” ‡

62 Jesus said, “I am; and you will [all] see THE S ON OF M AN SEATED [with authority] AT THE RIGHT HAND OF P OWER (the Father), and COMING WITH THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN .”  [Ps 110:1; Dan 7:13] ‡

63 Then tearing his robe [to express his indignation], the high priest said, “What further need do we have of witnesses?  [Num 14:6] ”

64 “You have heard the blasphemy [that is, His claim to be the Son of God]. What is your decision?” And they all condemned Him to be [guilty and] deserving of death.  [Lev 24:16 ]

<sup>65</sup> And some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists, and to say to Him, “Prophesy [by telling us who hit you]!” Then the officers took custody of Him and struck him in the face.

Peter's Denials

<sup>67</sup> and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked intently at him and said, “You were with Jesus the Nazarene, too.”

<sup>68</sup> But he denied it, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you are talking about.” Then he went out [of the courtyard] to the porch, [ and a rooster crowed. ]

<sup>70</sup> But again he denied it. After a little while, the bystanders again said to Peter, “You are in fact one of them, for [it is clear from your accent, that] you are a Galilean, too.” ‡

<sup>71</sup> But he began to invoke a curse [on himself] and to swear [an oath], “I do not know this man you are talking about!”

<sup>72</sup> Immediately a rooster crowed the second time. And Peter remembered what Jesus said to him: “Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” And thinking of this, he began weeping [in anguish]. ‡

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>1</sup> EARLY IN the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes and the whole Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), immediately consulted together; and they bound Jesus, they took Him away [violently] and handed Him over to Pilate.  [Is 53:8 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> The man called Barabbas was imprisoned with the insurrectionists (revolutionaries) who had committed murder in the civil rebellion.

<sup>8</sup> The crowd came up and began asking Pilate to do as he usually did for them.

<sup>9</sup> Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you want me to set free for you the King of the Jews?”

<sup>10</sup> For he was aware that the chief priests had turned Jesus over to him because of envy and resentment.

<sup>14</sup> But Pilate asked them, “Why, what has He done that is evil?” But they screamed all the more, “Crucify Him!”

<sup>15</sup> So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, set Barabbas free for them; and after having Jesus scourged, he handed Him over [to his soldiers] to be crucified.  [Is 53:5 ] ‡

Jesus Is Mocked

<sup>18</sup> and they began saluting and mocking Him: “Hail, King of the Jews!”

<sup>19</sup> They kept beating Him on the head with a reed and spitting on Him, and kneeling and bowing in [mock] homage to Him.  [Is 50:6. ]

<sup>20</sup> After they had mocked Him, they took off the purple robe and put His own clothes on Him. And they led Him out [of the city] to crucify Him.

The Crucifixion

<sup>23</sup> They tried to give Him wine mixed with myrrh [to dull the pain], but He would not take it. ‡

<sup>24</sup> And they crucified Him, and divided up His clothes among themselves, casting lots for them to see who should take what.  [Ps 22:18 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> It was the third hour (9:00 a.m.) when they crucified Him.  [Ps 22:14–16 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> [ And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “He was counted with the transgressors.” ]  [Is 53:12 ] ‡

<sup>29</sup> Those who were passing by were insulting Him with abusive and insolent language, wagging their heads [as a sign of contempt], and saying, “Ha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in [only] three days,  [John 2:19 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes, were ridiculing and mocking Him among themselves and saying, “He saved others [from death]; He cannot save Himself!  [Ps 22:7, 8. ]

<sup>32</sup> “Let the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, so that we may see and believe and trust [in Him]!” Those who were crucified with Him were also insulting Him. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Some of the bystanders heard Him and said, “Look! He is calling for Elijah!"

<sup>39</sup> When the centurion, who was standing opposite Him, saw the way He breathed His last [being fully in control], he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!" ‡

<sup>40</sup> Now some women also were watching from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome.  [John 19:25 ] ‡

<sup>41</sup> When Jesus was in Galilee, they used to accompany him and minister to Him; and there were also many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem. ‡

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathea came, a prominent and respected member of the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God—and he courageously dared to go in before Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. ‡

<sup>44</sup> Pilate wondered if He was dead by this time [only six hours after being crucified], and he summoned the centurion and asked him whether He was already dead.

<sup>45</sup> And when he learned from the centurion [that Jesus was in fact dead], he gave the body to Joseph [by granting him permission to remove it].

<sup>46</sup> So Joseph purchased a [fine] linen cloth [for wrapping the body], and after taking Jesus down [from the cross], he wrapped Him in the linen cloth and placed Him in a tomb which had been cut out of rock. Then he rolled a [large, wheel-shaped] stone against the entrance of the tomb.  [Is 53:9 ] ‡

<sup>47</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were [carefully] watching to see where He was laid.

Mark 16

The Resurrection

<sup>2</sup> Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. ‡

<sup>3</sup> And they were saying to one another, “Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?”

<sup>4</sup> Looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, though it was extremely large.

<sup>5</sup> Entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, wearing a [long, stately] white robe; and they were amazed and bewildered. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And he said to them, “Do not be amazed; you are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen; He is not here. See, [here is] the place where they laid Him. [Ps 16:10] ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see Him there, just as He told you.’” [Mark 14:28] ‡

<sup>8</sup> They went out and fled from the tomb, for they were seized with trembling and astonishment; and they said nothing [about it] to anyone, because they were afraid. ‡

<sup>10</sup> She went and reported it to those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping. ‡

<sup>11</sup> When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it. ‡

<sup>12</sup> After that, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking along the way to the country. [Luke 24:13–35] ‡

<sup>13</sup> They returned [to Jerusalem] and told the others, but they did not believe them either.

The Disciples Commissioned

14 Later, Jesus appeared to the eleven [disciples] themselves as they were reclining at the table; and He called them to account for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen Him after He had risen [from death]. ‡

15 And He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation. ‡

16 “He who has believed [in Me] and has been baptized will be saved [from the penalty of God’s wrath and judgment]; but he who has not believed will be condemned. ‡

17 “These signs will accompany those who have believed: in My name they will cast out demons, they will speak in new tongues; ‡

18 they will pick up serpents, and if they drink anything deadly, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.” ‡

19 So then, when the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.  [Ps 110:1. ] ‡

20 And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord was working with them and confirming the word by the signs that followed. ] ‡

Annotations for Mark

1:1 The beginning of the [facts regarding the] good news of Jesus Christ. Writing three decades after the resurrection of Christ, Mark starts his narrative with a simple declaration of the good news about God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. The gospel refers to the basic story of the good news to be found in Christ's life, ministry, death, and resurrection.

1:2–3 As it is written. Other than by quoting Jesus, Mark makes only one reference to the Old Testament.

1:4 John the Baptist appeared . . . preaching a baptism of repentance. The mention of John without any introduction presupposes some knowledge of the Christian faith on the part of Mark's readers. the forgiveness of sins. This phrase does not mean that one is baptized in order to receive forgiveness of sins. The Greek preposition translated of in English probably means "with a view to," signifying that baptism looks to the forgiveness that God gives through the gift of repentance.

1:5 were being baptized by him. John's baptizing was a recurring popular event that attracted large crowds. Mark vividly portrays the continuous stream of followers who flocked to John. As each person was baptized by John, he or she would admit to his or her individual sin and need for the Messiah.

1:7 And he was preaching, saying. The tense of these verbs indicates continuous action in past time. John's characteristic message was to promote expectancy and acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ.

1:8 I baptized you [who came to me] with water. The water is a physical representation of the future life in the Spirit that people who followed the Messiah would have.

1:9 Jesus . . . was baptized by John. Because He had no sins to repent of, Jesus' baptism was unique. It showed His identity with John's work and with the sinner for whom He would die. It also foreshadowed His own death, burial, and resurrection for sinners.

1:11 a voice came out of heaven. Three times during Christ's earthly ministry a voice came from heaven. Here it was the Father's testimony to Christ's unique and divine Sonship. The other two confirming incidents were at the transfiguration (9:7) and on the day of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem (Jn 12:28).

1:13 angels ministered continually to Him. Mark is the only Gospel that mentions these angels.

1:15 kingdom of God. The kingdom was the subject of much Old Testament prophecy, and the theme was familiar to Jesus' listeners. repent . . . and believe. These are both acts of faith. When a person accepts the only true and worthy object of faith, that person readily turns from inferior substitutes.

From Nazareth to Cana and Capernaum

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

---

1:19 James . . . John. The scenes of verses 16–20 are very colorful. Simon and Andrew are fishing when we encounter them. James and John are mending their nets. Such details indicate the testimony of an eyewitness, probably Peter.

1:21 Capernaum. This city is now in ruins, and sits beside the northern edge of the Sea of Galilee. It is mentioned 22 times in the Gospels. By contrast, only one recorded event during Christ's ministry occurred at Nazareth (Lk 4:16).

1:22 They were completely amazed at His teaching. Christ's teaching differed from that of scribes and Pharisees because He did not lean on the wisdom of other teachers and rabbis. His authority came from Himself.

1:28 the news about Him spread everywhere throughout the district surrounding Galilee. Mark notes the extent of recognition this great miracle brought Jesus. He also creates suspense by contrasting the people who received Christ with the Pharisees and rulers who worked to bring about His death.

1:35 was praying there. The verb tense indicates Jesus prayed continuously. Jesus' prayer life was successful because it was planned, private, and prolonged. He got up early enough, got far enough away, and stayed at it long enough.

1:44 tell no one anything. Jesus' demand has several plausible explanations: (1) The report of Jesus' healing the man may have prejudiced the priest who needed to pronounce him clean; (2) Jesus did not want to be known primarily as a miracle worker, so He often commanded those who received His healing to remain quiet; and (3) the man's testimony would possibly have hastened the confrontation between Jesus and the religious leaders.

2:5 saw their [active] faith. Not only did the four men have faith, but the paralytic himself had it too. When Jesus announced to him, "your sins are forgiven," He was implicitly acknowledging the paralytic's trust that He was the Messiah.

2:6–7 some of the scribes. Mark notes the opposition of the scribes, who under their breath accused Jesus of blasphemy. In Christ's day the scribes were commonly called lawyers.

2:11 get up, pick up your mat and go home. By healing the paralytic, Jesus made His pronouncement of forgiveness far more credible.

2:13 He was teaching them. Jesus regularly taught the multitudes in retreat settings. This is indicated by the continuous tense of the verbs used here. They kept on coming and Jesus kept on teaching.

2:18 fasting. Jesus was not against fasting, if properly observed. He gave guidelines for fasting in the Sermon on the Mount (Mt 6:16–18). Here, the Pharisees' fasting, perhaps twice each week (Lk 18:12), is contrasted with Jesus feasting probably at Levi's house.

2:21–22 No one sews . . . No one puts. Mark records only four of Jesus' parables—two of which he includes here. The comparison implies that the newness of His message, and of the new covenant to follow, cannot fit into the old molds of Judaism. The Old Testament was preparation for the New Testament (Gal 3:19–25).

2:24 what is unlawful on the Sabbath. The point to the Pharisees' accusation against Jesus and His disciples was that they had performed work on the Sabbath, but their charge was dubious. The act of plucking grain should not be confused with Sabbath work condemned by the law (Ex 31:15). This incident is further proof of rising opposition to Jesus' ministry.

3:5 After looking around at them with anger. It is possible, as Paul exhorts, to be angry and not sin (Eph 4:26). Jesus demonstrated this righteous anger. He was grieved with sin but did not sin Himself by retaliating or losing control of His emotions.

3:6 Herodians. The Pharisees were religious experts who should have led the people in righteousness. Instead they plotted Jesus' death with the Herodians, their bitter enemies. They were willing to set aside differences to destroy a common foe. The Herodians were Jews who supported Rome and the Herods in particular. Herod Antipas, a son of Herod the Great, ruled Galilee during the same time that Pilate served as Roman governor over Judea and Samaria.

3:11–12 Jesus sternly warned them [again and again] not to tell who He was. Jesus rebuked the demons who proclaimed "You are the Son of God." This was not because the demons incorrectly identified Jesus, but because their testimony was untrustworthy.

3:16–19 (to whom He gave the name Peter). Jesus gave Peter a new name because it was the Jewish custom to rename someone who had experienced a life-changing event. This renaming of the disciples has similarities to the renaming of Abram (Ge 17:3–5) and of Saul (Ac 9).

3:27 strong man. Whoever defeats Satan must be stronger than he. Jesus implies that He Himself has come to enter the house of the strong man, Satan, to seize his goods (1Jn 3:8).

3:28–30 whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit. This person places himself or herself outside the redeeming grace of God. It is apparently not a single act of defiant behavior, but a continued state of opposition entered into willingly. The tense of “they said” indicates a continued action, not a one time event. The words and works of Christ were spoken and performed by the power of the Holy Spirit. To attribute them to Satan is to call the work of heaven a work of hell. For such perverse belief there is no remedy. How someone can commit this sin today is a difficult question to answer, but those who persist in denigrating Christ by insulting His work or by attributing it to Satan may drive themselves past a point of no return (Mt 12:31–32).

3:31 His mother and His brothers. Opposition arose from Jesus’ own immediate family. We are not told precisely what they wanted to say, but it likely involved a concern for Jesus’ safety or reputation, since He was becoming widely known as a preaching prophet and a worker of miracles.

4:3–8 A sower went out to sow seed. The point of the parable is that the condition of the soil determines the potential for growth. The principle is true for Christians and non-Christians alike. Those who have become complacent and lackadaisical are not likely to receive the Word with benefit (Jas 1:2–25).

4:11 The mystery of the kingdom of God has been given to you. In Scripture, a mystery is a truth God has revealed or will reveal at the proper time (Ro 16:25–26). Jesus apparently used parables for several reasons. First, they are interesting and grab the listener’s attention. Second, such stories are easily remembered. Third, they reveal truth to those who are ready spiritually to receive it. Fourth, they conceal truth from those who oppose Christ’s message. Frequently Jesus’ opponents failed to understand the lessons because of their own spiritual blindness (Mt 21:45–46).

4:20 hear the word . . . and accept it and bear fruit. Only one soil produces fruit. Such a person recognizes God’s call, determines to follow it, and experiences a profound transformation.

4:21–23 A lamp. These were small clay vessels that burned a wick set in olive oil. Like the lamp, Jesus’ teachings reveal the motives of the human heart.

4:26–29 The kingdom of God is like a man who throws seed on the ground. Plants develop in a complex, intricate process that humans still do not fully understand even two thousand years after Jesus spoke these words. Yet plants grow and bear fruit and seeds just the same. God’s kingdom likewise is growing, although we do not understand all that is happening. This parable, which appears only in Mark’s Gospel, presents God’s kingdom in brief, from first sowing to final reaping.

4:35 go over to the other side. The Sea of Galilee is about eight miles wide and twelve miles long. Its unique geography produces a greatly varying climate. It is 700 feet below sea level with mountains that rise 3,000–4,000 feet around it. It is not unusual for sudden windstorms to appear during the evening hours. The warm tropical air from the lake’s surface rises and meets the colder air from the nearby hills. The resulting turbulences and winds can be treacherous.

4:41 Who then is this. Mark uses the disciples’ question to evoke a similar response in the minds of his readers. Mark relates the works and words of the one he calls “Jesus Christ, the Son of God” (1:1).

5:1 the region of the Gerasenes. This area is on the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee. The form of the name varies (Mt 8:28; Lk 8:26,37).

5:17–20 the people began to beg with Jesus to leave their region. Jesus was not well received in this region. His presence had cost financial loss to some, although it meant liberation to the demoniac. Jesus could have healed and saved in that region, but He was turned away by its fearful citizens. Decapolis. This literally means “ten cities.” This largely Gentile, Greek-speaking area was an important strategic link in Rome’s military defense.

5:22 One of the synagogue officials. Jairus was a lay leader charged with supervising services at the synagogue.

5:26 had endured much [suffering] at the hands of many physicians. Mark is not complimentary toward the physicians who had treated this woman.

5:29–30 Immediately. This word is used twice in this context. Both the woman and Jesus simultaneously knew what had happened. Who touched My clothes? Jesus turned when He was touched and confronted the woman before she disappeared. He wanted to correct any mistaken notion she may have had about her healing. It was not any magical quality of His clothing but His divine will that had made her well.

5:33 told Him the whole truth. Jesus' kind manner and tender words must have eased the fear this woman had of being revealed. Naturally, the time that Jesus took to care for the woman must have worried the already tense disciples.

5:34 Daughter. Jesus used this tender word to address this woman, and He noted that her faith made the difference, for it was correctly placed in Him. Faith itself does not heal—it is the proper object of that faith, Jesus, who heals.

5:43 He gave strict orders. The command to keep the miracle a secret was a temporary measure, for certainly the girl's appearance could not be hidden very long. Such orders would, however, allow Jesus to exit quietly. Jesus did not want to be known primarily as a miracle worker, lest people seek Him for the wrong reasons.

Cana and Nazareth Revisited

6:4 A prophet is not without honor (respect) except in his hometown. This maxim is still repeated and is still true today. Perhaps others were jealous of Jesus' popularity and huge following. Their envy even took the form of violence against Christ (Lk 4:29 ).

6:14 King Herod. This is Herod Antipas, one of the sons of Herod the Great, the king who tried to kill the baby Jesus (Mt 2:1-18 ). After Herod the Great's death in 4 BC his kingdom was divided between Archelaus, who received Judea and Samaria; Philip, who ruled Iturea and Trachonitis, north and east of Galilee; and Antipas, who controlled Galilee and Perea from 4 BC to AD 39. Jesus ministered largely in the territory ruled by Antipas.

6:18 not lawful. John's message to Herod was that his divorce was not lawful as grounds for remarriage. John's declaration could be based on Jesus' stern words about divorce (10:11-12 ) or on Leviticus 20:21 , which prohibits a man from taking his brother's wife.

6:23 up to half of my kingdom. This is an expression meaning a large amount but with some limits.

6:34 moved with compassion. The Gospels record several times that when Jesus saw a need He responded compassionately (1:41 ). That compassion led to action, despite an obvious lack of food in this instance.

6:36–37 send the crowds away. The disciples sought to avoid responsibility for the hungry multitude.

6:39–40 in groups of hundreds and of fifties. Details such as sitting on the green grass, which is possible only in late winter and early spring, and the fact that the groups were counted are indications that an eyewitness, probably Peter, recounted this story to Mark.

6:43 twelve full baskets of the broken pieces. These were small baskets commonly carried by travelers. It is possible to conclude that the leftovers gave each disciple enough food for his own use.

6:51 He got into the boat with them. Three miracles are contained in this brief account (vv. 47–51); (1) In the darkness Jesus saw the disciples out in the storm miles away, (2) Jesus walked on the water, and (3) Jesus showed complete control over His creation when the wind ceased.

6:56 wherever He came into villages, or cities, or the countryside. Mark summarizes Jesus' healing ministry, noting how widespread it was.

7:3–4 For the Pharisees. These two verses explain the tradition of handwashing and various kinds of ceremonial uncleanness. Mark's intended readers in Rome likely needed more background on the Jewish faith to understand this controversy.

7:5 the tradition of the elders. This phrase refers to a series of rules meant to bolster the ceremonial law of the Jews. Its authority was not supported by Scripture. The question indirectly challenged Jesus, for as the disciples' teacher He was judged responsible for their actions.

7:6–7 hypocrites. The term originally referred to actors who wore masks on stage as they played different characters. Thus the Pharisees were not genuinely religious; they were merely playing a part for all to see.

7:11–13 but you [Pharisees and scribes] say. This shows the absolute contrast between God's will and man's empty tradition. Corban. This was evidently a pious-sounding evasion of the requirement of honoring one's parents by supporting them financially.

7:24 the region of Tyre. This city is the farthest Jesus traveled from Israel during his public ministry.

7:27 to the pet dogs. Jesus is not attempting to insult the woman by using this metaphor. In fact, He is testing her faith. Matthew records Jesus' reaction to her reply, "Woman, your faith . . . is great" (Mt 15:28).

7:28 But she replied. The woman understood Jesus' test and persistently replied that even during the meal the dogs consume the children's crumbs that fall from the table.

7:32–35 a man who was deaf. The healing of this deaf man (who also had a speech impediment) is one of the two miracles recorded by Mark only. (The other is the healing of the blind man in 8:22–26.)

8:8 seven large baskets. There was one basket for each original loaf. These baskets were much larger than the 12 small personal baskets mentioned in 6:43. It was the kind of larger basket that was used to lower Paul over the wall of Damascus (Ac 9:25).

8:10 Dalmanutha. This was probably on the western side of the Sea of Galilee, about three miles north of modern Tiberias and about five miles southwest of Capernaum. This is the only time it is mentioned in the New Testament.

8:11 The Pharisees came out and began to argue [contentiously and debate] with Him. The Pharisees' testing of Jesus was crafty and devious. Obviously these men did not heed the many signs and wonders that Jesus had already performed. John 20:30–31 indicates that the signs were meant to produce faith. It is doubtful that the Pharisees would have changed their minds even if they had seen another miracle.

8:17–21 Do you still not see or understand? The disciples continued to show a lack of spiritual discernment despite the miracles they had witnessed. Jesus' rebuke was intended to make them recall what God had done for them.

8:27 Caesarea Philippi. This city is about 25 miles north of Bethsaida and the Sea of Galilee. It stands on the southern edge of Mount Hermon. One of the sources of the Jordan River springs forth from under a large rocky cliff that rises a hundred or more feet above the village. The name Philippi distinguishes this town from Caesarea by the sea.

8:29 But who do you say that I am? Jesus emphatically asks His disciples for their understanding. you. Prominent in Jesus' question is the word "you." You . . . are the Christ. Peter answers for the group. Jesus wants His disciples to grasp firmly His true identity before He reveals to them the necessity of His coming death and resurrection. In Mark's Gospel, only the disciples come to understand who Jesus is.

8:30 not to tell anyone about Him. Jesus' warning may seem strange. Its explanation lies in the fact that the Jews expected the Messiah to be a political liberator. Jesus' first coming was meant to accomplish another kind of liberation—release from sin. Hence Jesus was careful not to use the name Messiah publicly, for it was misunderstood by the Jewish people, their leaders, and the Roman authorities.

8:38 when He comes in the glory. This is the first glimpse of the fulfillment of all history (1Co 15:24–28). Those who will reign with Christ invest their lives in that which will last (v. 35). Those who are willing to confess Him today will be rewarded before the Father in heaven (Mt 5:10–12 ; 2Ti 2:11–13 ; Rev 2:26–28 ).

9:4 Elijah. Elijah is mentioned in Malachi 4:5–6 in connection with the future coming of Christ. This is why people asked John the Baptist if he was Elijah (Jn 1:21 ). Moses was the lawgiver and liberator, while Elijah was the first of the great prophets. Their presence confirmed the reality that Jesus is the Messiah of Peter's confession.

9:24 I do believe; help [me overcome] my unbelief. These words express the dilemma that even those who believe can be nagged by doubt and hopelessness. This man took the correct course by appealing to Jesus for help.

9:40 For he who is not against us is for us. Jesus is not endorsing all who claim to follow Him. Rather, this statement was meant to remind the disciples that God's work was not necessarily restricted to their small group.

9:49 For everyone will be salted with fire. This phrase may refer to the trials and judgments that all will face—believers with trials that purify faith, unbelievers with the eternal fire of God's judgment.

10:4 A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE. This was a document signed before witnesses. Its intent was to limit frivolous divorces. In Jesus' day, the interpretation of this custom varied widely. The disciples of Hillel allowed divorce for almost any reason, but the followers of Shammai permitted divorce only for sexual impurity.

10:11 Whoever divorces his wife. Mark includes no exception to Christ's prohibition of divorce, nor is any exception listed in Luke 16:18 , Romans 7:1–2 , or 1 Corinthians 7:10–11 . Compare Matthew 5:32 where the exception is made.

10:18 No one is [essentially] good [by nature] except God alone. This reply is a claim to deity, which Jesus asks the young ruler to recognize.

10:19 D O NOT. Jesus recounts the Seventh, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, and Fifth Commandments. Do not defraud. Jesus inserts this phrase just before the Fifth Commandment. All of these commands concern the fair and ethical treatment of other people (Ex 20:12–17 ).

10:25–27 It is easier. This comparison of a camel going through a needle is a literal one. In human terms, it is not just difficult, but totally impossible, for a rich man to be saved. But it is also impossible for anyone at all to be saved apart from God's grace and power. God provides the means of salvation, enlightens the sinner's understanding, and regenerates the believing soul.

10:30 in the present age. This is the time between Christ's first and second comings. Mark alone mentions that persecutions will follow as well—a point his Roman readers may have already known.

10:37 one on Your right and one on Your left. To be seated at a king's right hand was to take the position of the most prominence; the person seated at the left hand ranked just below that (Lk 22:24–30). Jesus had to remind the disciples again about the price of greatness in God's kingdom.

10:38 drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism. These phrases are references to the suffering and death that awaited Jesus (14:36). Jesus wanted His disciples to understand the mocking, scourging, beating, and torture He would have to endure.

10:45 The Ministry of Christ—He is Savior. Sinful men to be saved (1Ti 1:15); Christ's qualifications to be Savior (Jn 10:18–38); His humiliating death (Jn 19:18); bodily resurrection to guarantee our salvation (1Co 15:13–22); and results of salvation (Jn 5:24). It is no wonder that, in light of these realities, Paul speaks of Christ as "our great God and Savior" (Titus 2:13). Go to Theological Notes Index

He is High Priest. The high priest brought the people before God on the Day of Atonement (Lev 16:32–33). Jesus is eminently qualified to be our High Priest: appointed by God (Heb 5:5), eternal (Heb 7:24–25), sinless (Heb 7:26), His offering was final (Heb 9:28), and His mediation is effective (Ro 8:34; Heb 7:25; 1Jn 2:1). As the only qualified High Priest for men and women, Jesus Christ thus constitutes the only way to God (1Ti 2:5).

He is King. King implies sovereign authority and rule over all. This right belongs only to Jesus Christ who is called "Lord of lords and King of kings" (Rev 17:14; 19:16). He is destined to rule as king and every knee must ultimately bow and acknowledge His authority (Php 2:10). Those who acknowledge Christ as King and Lord in this life will reign with Him; those who do not will be judged by Him (Rev 20:11–15).

11:8–11 Bethany. Jesus retired there each night, perhaps staying in a friend's home. But in view of the fact that Jesus appears to have had no breakfast the next day (v. 12), He and the twelve may have camped outside this night.

11:13 it was not the season for figs. Passover always comes in March or April, and fig season is not until May or June. However, fig trees generally produce a number of buds in March, leaves in April, and ripe fruit later on. Jesus was looking for the edible buds, the lack of which indicated that the tree would be fruitless that year.

11:17 ROBBERS' DEN. Jesus was referring to the practice of cheating people, both Israelites and those of other nations, either through a crooked exchange of money or by selling inferior products.

11:21 The fig tree which You cursed has withered! The passage emphasizes the power of true faith. Some have suggested that the fig tree represented Israel, which bore no fruit and would soon face the judgment of God.

11:29–30 answer Me. The intent of Jesus' question was to expose once again the insincerity of His detractors. baptism of John. This refers to the authority of John's baptism. from heaven. Was it ordained by God and worthy of obedience? from men. Or was it of human contrivance and void of any spiritual authority and reality?

12:1 Jesus began to speak to them . . . in parables. Parables usually get across a significant truth, but the details are not meant to correspond exactly with particular spiritual realities. In this parable, the owner of the vineyard represents God, but God Himself was never so mistaken as to assume they would respect His Son. God is omniscient, whereas the vineyard owner in the parable is not. This story illustrates the immense patience God had with Israel.

12:12 they were looking for a way to seize Him. Only as the final points of the parable were made did these evil men realize that Jesus was speaking of them.

12:14 You are truthful and have no personal bias toward anyone. This comment was intended as a compliment. The teachers recognized that Jesus was partial to no one. The question, however, was a lose-lose proposition: a yes answer would alienate Jews who opposed Rome, while a no answer could be taken as treason against the state.

12:18 Sadducees were an elite group of religious leaders who denied the existence of angels, the immortality of the soul, and the resurrection. They rejected the oral traditions and accepted only the validity of the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Old Testament.

12:19–22 Moses wrote for us. The custom of marrying the widow of one's brother was supported by Deuteronomy 25:5–6, but it was not absolutely binding (Dt 25:7–10).

12:26–27 I AM THE GOD OF A BRAHAM . . . I SAAC . . . J ACOB. Jesus quotes from the law—the Exodus—to make His point. God said I am the God of the three patriarchs mentioned, not “I was their God, but now they are dead.” He still is their God because they are still alive. Their souls not only live after death, but their bodies will be raised anew as well.

12:28 Which commandment is first. In Judaism, these words (quoted from Dt 6:4–5) are known as the Shema. It is described by Jews as the most important words a Jew can know. Jesus quotes these words at the beginning of answering the question, “What commandment is the foremost of all?” We should be driven to the cross. There, we understand His love for us and are constantly motivated to seek to love Him better because of what He has done. We can only be thankful at the comprehensiveness of His love. Even though we sin every day of our lives, He forgives. We just need to keep coming to Him for that forgiveness.

12:29 HEAR, O ISRAEL. This phrase from Deuteronomy 6:4 is commonly called the Shema (from a Hebrew word meaning “to hear”) and is repeated by Jews the world over, as expressing the essence of their faith in God.

12:35 in [a portico or court of] the temple. This does not refer to the sanctuary itself, where only the priests were allowed to minister. The temple environs included a number of porticos and courts. One was designated especially for women, another for men. Gentiles could view the temple from an outer area.

12:43–44 this poor widow put in [proportionally] more than all the contributors to the treasury. Jesus' comparison of the percentages contributed by the rich and the poor reminds us that God measures not how much we give, but how much we retain. Those with greater income have an obligation to return a larger percentage of it to God's work.

13:1–2 what wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings! The disciples' excitement over the temple's tremendous construction was a natural reaction to splendid and majestic architecture; each stone weighed several tons. Josephus described its magnificence. There was nothing like it in all the world. Begun by Herod the Great in 20 BC, the temple was later completed by Herod's descendants some time before AD 66. Its beautiful white marble stones with gold ornamentation reached 100 feet high. Surrounding it were colonnaded walkways, courtyards, and stairways that filled 20 acres of the most prominent landscape in all Jerusalem.

13:11–12 the Holy Spirit. The promise given that the Holy Spirit will guide one's speech in the hour of trial applies first to the twelve and only secondarily to others who will experience persecution. But this promise does not assure escape from persecution or even freedom from being put to death.

13:13 the one who . . . endures to the end, he will be saved. This is not referring to regeneration or justification but to physical deliverance from affliction (vv. 19–20). The ones who physically endure will be delivered into Christ's messianic kingdom.

13:14 standing [in the temple sanctuary] where it ought not. This phrase refers to the presence of an idol standing in the temple. Daniel's prediction primarily referred to Antiochus Epiphanes' placement of sacrifices to Zeus on the temple's altar. Some believe that the destruction of the Herodian temple in AD 70 fulfilled Jesus' prediction. Others still await its fulfillment in the blasphemous actions of the antichrist in the last days (2Th 2:3–4).

13:28–29 when you see these things happening. Jesus likened the signs of His second coming to the sprouts of growth and leaves on a fig tree. Both point to the glories to come—the full flowering of the earth and return of Christ.

13:32 But of that [exact] day or hour no one knows. As one who was fully God and at the same time fully man, Jesus possessed all the attributes of deity, including omnipotence and omniscience. He knew what was in people's hearts (2:8 ), and He could still the waves (4:39 ). When Jesus became a man, however, He voluntarily placed certain knowledge in the hands of the Father. Of course today, glorified in heaven, Jesus now knows the day and hour of His return.

13:34–36 It is like a man away on a journey. Jesus' parable of the absent master of the house is unique to Mark. The point of the parable is that the master could return at any time so all servants must be vigilant and watchful (Lk 19:11–27 ).

14:3 alabaster. Alabaster is a translucent stone still used to make ornamented jewelry boxes and other items of value. perfume of pure nard. This was a precious perfume imported from India, made from plants that grow in the high elevations of the Himalayas. This perfume is mentioned in the Song of Solomon (1:12 ; 4:13–14 ).

14:7 For you always have the poor with you. Jesus' statement does not show callousness towards the poor (Dt 15:7–11 ). His compassion for those overwhelmed by sickness and poverty appears frequently in the Gospels, and He encouraged others to meet their needs (10:21 ). But He also wanted people to give freely and of their own volition. No one can coerce a gift from another; no one should criticize another's gift; and no one can read the heart of a giver. A giver's motive is known only to God.

14:14–15 a large upstairs room. There is reason to suspect that the master of the house may have been Mark's father. Mark himself may have been the young man of verses 51 and 52 . Acts 12:12 indicates that this house was later used as a gathering place for many believers who prayed together. Tradition has it that this was also the “upper room” of Acts 1:13 where over 100 believers met on Pentecost.

14:19 Surely not I? In Greek this is actually a negative question that implies a negative answer. The phrase means “It is not I, is it?” Matthew and John both identify the culprit as Judas, even though Mark does not (Mt 26:25 ; Jn 13:26 ).

14:24 This is My blood. This means that the contents of this cup represented Jesus' blood that would be shed for our sins. The sprinkling of blood was required to institute the Mosaic covenant in Exodus 29:12 (Heb 9:18–22 ). In the same way, Jesus' blood shed on the cross initiated the new covenant. His blood was shed for many. He died on the cross in the place of many sinners from every nation. He paid the price for all of their sins. All those who believe in Him will receive eternal life.

14:26 After they had sung a hymn. What they sang was no doubt from the Psalms. Frequently Psalms 113–118 were used in connection with the Passover.

14:30 before a rooster crows twice. Only Mark mentions Christ's prediction of Peter's denial. The incident would have remained vivid in Peter's mind when he related the story to Mark.

14:34 My soul is deeply grieved and overwhelmed with sorrow. The crushing realization of having to bear the sin of the world and to lose, even temporarily, the fellowship of God the Father was nearly more than Jesus' soul could bear.

14:35 the hour . . . might pass from Him. This is a reference to the time Jesus would bear the punishment for the sin of the world in His own body, becoming, as it were, sin for all.

14:38 Temptation by the Flesh—Flesh in the Bible often means something other than the substance of the human body. It is used constantly to refer to the carnal, sinful principle within man that is opposed to God (Ro 8:7 ). The actions produced by the flesh are given in detail in Galatians 5:19–21 . Among these are all types of sexual immorality, impurity, hatred, anger, envy, and drunkenness. A person whose life is characterized by these sins cannot be a true Christian and is under the wrath of God (Gal 5:21 ; Eph 2:3 ). Though the flesh is not eradicated for the Christian, he does have the power to deny it (Ro 7:15–25 ). He possesses a new nature empowered by the Holy Spirit. The solution to the urges of the flesh lies in acknowledging that the power of sin was nullified by Jesus' death (Ro 6:11) and in living under the control of the Spirit's power (Gal 5:16). The latter is a moment-by-moment dependence in faith on the Spirit's power. The believer must choose by an act of his will to benefit from the Spirit's enablement. Go to Theological Notes Index

14:39–41 He went away again. The three apostles were exhorted to watch and pray several times, and no doubt truly desired to uphold their Lord in His deepest hour of need. Yet physical fatigue overcame spiritual alertness.

14:43 and with him a crowd of men. Judas came with a detachment of troops (Jn 18:3). It was one-tenth of a Roman legion or roughly 600 men.

14:50–52 young man. Only Mark tells of this incident and many believe that this young man was Mark himself. How else would he have known this story, and why else should he have included it? If it was Mark, and if the Last Supper was at his home that evening, he could easily have risen from bed, pulled on a linen sheet, and followed the disciples.

14:61 Jesus kept silent. Jesus remained silent before Pilate and Herod Antipas. Finally they could find nothing substantial with which to charge Him. the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of the Blessed One. The trial was over, and Jesus stood falsely condemned for blasphemy, which in this context means laying claim to deity. Naturally, this is the boast of a liar or a lunatic—unless He is the Almighty God in human flesh, as Jesus was (Php 2:5–8; 1Jn 1:1–3).

14:71–72 a rooster crowed. We are not told that Peter thought at all about Jesus' words. If he did, maybe he tried to conceal his identity more carefully, but to no avail. Each of the other Gospel writers tells us that the cock crowed immediately upon Peter's final denial (Mt 26:74; Lk 22:60; Jn 18:27). This time he thought about it, and he wept.

15:1–3 consulted together. Rather than murdering Jesus privately, the Jewish politicians decided to seek Pilate's approval so they could execute the "blasphemer legally." Their charges included many things but apparently centered on treason. Jesus claimed to be a king, thus defying Caesar (Lk 23:2). This crime was punishable in the Roman Empire by death. Pilate must have concluded that the charges against Jesus were groundless, for Mark tells us he desired to release Him.

15:15 after having Jesus scourged. This word, used only twice in the New Testament (Mt 27:26 and here), describes a punishment more severe than flogging or beating. The prisoner was beaten with a whip fashioned of numerous strips of leather attached to a handle. To the leather strips were tied sharp pieces of bone and metal, which could rip and tear one's skin to shreds.

15:22 Golgotha is an Aramaic word. The hill may have resembled the bony features of a skull or was called this because it was a place of death. The name Calvary comes from the Latin word for skull.

15:25 the third hour. This was 9 A.M., using a common Jewish system of marking the day. Jesus suffered on the cross until at least 3 P.M., the ninth hour of verse 34.

15:32 Let the Christ. Jesus was mockingly called the Christ or Messiah by the chief priests and scribes. Their offer to believe in Christ if He would descend from the cross was not believable.

15:37 Jesus uttered a loud cry. Frequently, crucifixion produced a coma or unconsciousness prior to death, but Jesus was in control of all His faculties until the moment when He voluntarily gave up His life (Jn 10:17–18).

[15:38 the veil \[of the Holy of Holies\] of the temple.](#) The significance of this event is that access to God is now open to all. No longer through priests and the blood of bulls and goats do we approach God, but through the torn veil, which also symbolizes Jesus' broken and torn body (Heb 10:20).

15:40–41 some women also were watching. These women were true disciples of Christ. They had ministered to Jesus' needs and would be the first witnesses of His resurrection. Mark does not name Jesus' mother here but includes other prominent women. Three Marys were present along with many other women and Salome. She was the mother of the disciples James and John (Mt 27:56).

15:43 Joseph of Arimathea. He is identified as a prominent member of the Sanhedrin. To ask Pilate for the body of Jesus was not just a gesture of kindness. It was an act of bravery, which placed Joseph in opposition to the Sanhedrin and identified him as a follower of Jesus.

16:5–6 a young man sitting on the right, wearing a [long, stately] white robe. Mark does not identify the young man with the robe as an angel, but he is there to explain the mystery that confronts the women. He has risen. In the passive voice, this indicates that an act of God accomplished the raising up of Jesus.

16:9–20 Now Jesus, having risen. The authenticity of these last twelve verses has been disputed. Those who doubt Mark's authorship of this passage point to two fourth-century manuscripts that omit these verses. Others believe that they should be included because even these two manuscripts leave space for all or some of these verses, indicating that their copyists knew of their existence. The difficulty is in knowing whether the space is for this longer version of Mark's ending or for one of the alternate endings found in the manuscripts. Important early church fathers endorsed this passage, and it does not seem likely that Mark would end his story on a note of fear (v. 8).

16:14 to the eleven. After Judas' demise (Mt 27:3–5 ; Ac 1:16–18 ), the disciples were known for a while as the eleven. Jesus upbraided these disciples for not believing the accounts of eyewitnesses, but He pronounced a blessing on "they who did not see [Me] and yet believed" (Jn 20:29 ).

16:19 He was taken up into heaven. This was the final sign that Jesus was the Son of God.

The Gospel According to Luke

► AUTHOR: It is evident from the prologues to Luke and Acts (1:1–4 ; Ac 1:1–5) that both books were addressed to a man called Theophilus as a two-volume work. Acts begins with a summary of Luke and continues the story from where the Gospel of Luke concludes. Luke may have been a Hellenistic Jew, but it is more likely that he was a Gentile (this would make him the only Gentile contributor to the New Testament). It has been suggested that Luke may have been a Greek physician to a Roman family who at some point was set free and given Roman citizenship. Luke was not an eyewitness of the events in his Gospel, but he relied on the testimony of apostolic eyewitness and reliable written sources.

► TIMES: c. 4 BC–AD 33

► KEY VERSE: Lk 19:10

► THEME: The beginning of Luke makes reference to the fact that there was a great deal of oral tradition concerning Jesus circulating during the first century. The rapid growth of the church (over 3,000 on the Day of Pentecost alone) meant that there would have been potential for significant variety in stories about Jesus. Luke's stated agenda is reliability. Where Matthew goes to great lengths to tie Jesus' story to the history of the Jews, Luke is more interested in where the story fits in the history of the human race. Throughout the book, Christ reaches out to people from a variety of social strata, nationalities, and cultures. Luke sees Jesus as the Savior of the whole world.

Luke 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> SINCE [AS is well known] many have undertaken to compile an orderly account of the things which have been fulfilled among us [by God],

<sup>2</sup>-exactly as they were handed down to us by those [with personal experience] who from the beginning [of Christ's ministry] were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word [that is, of the teaching concerning salvation through faith in Christ], ‡

<sup>3</sup>-it seemed fitting for me as well, [and so I have decided] after having carefully searched out and investigated all the events accurately, from the very beginning, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus; [Acts 1:1] ‡

<sup>4</sup>-so that you may know the exact truth about the things you have been taught [that is, the history and doctrine of the faith]. ‡

Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

<sup>5</sup>In the days of Herod [the Great], king of Judea, there was a certain priest whose name was Zacharias, of the division of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron [the first high priest of Israel], and her name was Elizabeth. ‡

<sup>6</sup> They both were righteous (approved) in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and requirements of the Lord. ‡

<sup>7</sup>-But they were childless, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both far advanced in years.

<sup>9</sup> as was the custom of the priesthood, he was chosen by lot to enter [the sanctuary of] the temple of the Lord and burn incense [on the altar of incense]. [Ex 30:7] ‡

<sup>13</sup>-But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zacharias, because your petition [in prayer] was heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John. ‡

<sup>14</sup>-“You will have great joy and delight, and many will rejoice over his birth, ‡

<sup>15</sup>for he will be great and distinguished in the sight of the Lord; and will never drink wine or liquor, and he will be filled with and empowered to act by the Holy Spirit while still in his mother’s womb.  [Num 6:3 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “He will turn many of the sons of Israel back [from sin] to [love and serve] the Lord their God. ‡

<sup>17</sup>“It is he who will go as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, TO TURN THE HEARTS OF THE FATHERS BACK TO THE CHILDREN , and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous [which is to seek and submit to the will of God]—in order to make ready a people [perfectly] prepared [spiritually and morally] for the Lord.”  [Is 40:3 ; Mal 4:5 , 6 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> And Zacharias said to the angel, “How will I be certain of this? For I am an old man and my wife is advanced in age.” ‡

<sup>19</sup>The angel replied and said to him, “I am Gabriel; I stand and minister in the [very] presence of God, and I have been sent [by Him] to speak to you and to bring you this good news.  [Dan 8:16 ; 9:21 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup>“Listen carefully, you will be continually silent and unable to speak until the day when these things take place, because you did not believe what I told you; but my words will be fulfilled at their proper time.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> The people [outside in the court] were waiting for Zacharias, and were wondering about his long delay in the temple.

<sup>22</sup> But when he did come out, he was unable to speak to them. They realized that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he kept making signs to them, and remained mute.

<sup>24</sup> Now after this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant, and for five months she secluded herself completely, saying,

<sup>25</sup>“This is how the Lord has dealt with me in the days when He looked with favor on me, to take away my disgrace among men.”  [Gen 30:23 ; Is 4:1 ]

Jesus’ Birth Foretold

<sup>27</sup> to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, a descendant of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And coming to her, the angel said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." ‡

<sup>29</sup> But she was greatly perplexed at what he said, and kept carefully considering what kind of greeting this was. ‡

<sup>30</sup> The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

<sup>31</sup> "Listen carefully: you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son, and you shall name Him Jesus. ‡

<sup>32</sup> "He will be great and eminent and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David; ‡

<sup>33</sup> and He will reign over the house of Jacob (Israel) forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end."  [Is 9:6, 7; Dan 2:44 ] ‡

<sup>34</sup> Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I am a virgin and have no intimacy with any man?"

<sup>35</sup> Then the angel replied to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you [like a cloud]; for that reason the holy (pure, sinless) Child shall be called the Son of God.  [Ex 40:34; Is 7:14 ] ‡

<sup>36</sup> "And listen, even your relative Elizabeth has also conceived a son in her old age; and she who was called barren is now in her sixth month.

<sup>38</sup> Then Mary said, "Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; may it be done to me according to your word." And the angel left her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup> Now at this time Mary arose and hurried to the hill country, to a city of Judah (Judea), ‡

<sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, her baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and empowered by Him.

<sup>42</sup> And she exclaimed loudly, "Blessed [worthy to be praised] are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!" ‡

<sup>43</sup> “And how has it happened to me, that the mother of my Lord would come to me?

<sup>44</sup> “For behold, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.

<sup>45</sup> “And blessed [spiritually fortunate and favored by God] is she who believed and confidently trusted that there would be a fulfillment of the things that were spoken to her [by the angel sent] from the Lord.”

The Magnificat

<sup>46</sup> And Mary said, ‡

“My soul magnifies and exalts the Lord,

<sup>47</sup> And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

<sup>48</sup> “For He has looked [with loving care] on the humble state of His maidservant; ‡

For behold, from now on all generations will count me blessed and happy and favored by God!

<sup>49</sup> “For He who is mighty has done great things for me; ‡

And holy is His name [to be worshiped in His purity, majesty, and glory].

<sup>50</sup> “A ND H IS MERCY IS UPON GENERATION AFTER GENERATION ‡

T OWARD THOSE WHO [stand in great awe of God and] FEAR H IM .
FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION .  [Ps 103:17 ]

<sup>51</sup> “He has done mighty deeds with His [powerful] arm; ‡

He has scattered those who were proud in the thoughts of their heart.

<sup>52</sup> “He has brought down rulers from their thrones, ‡

And exalted those who were humble.

<sup>53</sup> “H E HAS FILLED THE HUNGRY WITH GOOD THINGS ; ‡

And sent the rich away empty-handed.

<sup>54</sup> “He has helped His servant Israel, ‡

In remembrance of His mercy,

<sup>55</sup> Just as He promised to our fathers, ‡

To Abraham and to his descendants forever.”  [Gen 17:7 ;
18:18 ; 22:17 ; 1 Sam 2:1–10 ; Mic 7:20 ]

<sup>56</sup> And Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months, and then returned to her home.

John Is Born

<sup>57</sup> Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she gave birth to a son.

<sup>61</sup> And they said to her, “None of your relatives is called by that name.”

<sup>62</sup> Then they made signs to his father, as to what he wanted him called.

<sup>63</sup> And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote as follows, “His name is John.” And they were all astonished.

<sup>64</sup> At once Zacharias’ mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began speaking, praising and blessing and thanking God.

<sup>65</sup> Then fear came on all their neighbors; and all these things were discussed throughout the hill country of Judea.

<sup>66</sup> All who heard these things kept them in mind, saying, “What then will this little boy turn out to be?” For the hand of the Lord was certainly with him [to bring about his birth]. ‡

Zacharias’ Prophecy

<sup>67</sup> Now Zacharias his father was filled with the Holy Spirit and empowered by Him, and he prophesied, saying, ‡

<sup>68</sup> “Blessed (praised, glorified) be the Lord, the God of Israel, ‡ Because He has visited us and brought redemption to His people,

<sup>69</sup> And He has raised up a horn of salvation [a mighty and valiant Savior] for us ‡

In the house of David His servant—

<sup>70</sup> Just as He promised by the mouth of His holy prophets from the most ancient times—‡

<sup>71</sup> Salvation FROM OUR ENEMIES ,
And FROM THE HAND OF ALL WHO HATE US ;  [Ps 106:10. ]
<sup>72</sup> To show mercy [as He promised] to our fathers, ‡
And to remember His holy covenant [the promised blessing], <sup>73</sup> The oath which He swore to Abraham our father, ‡ <sup>74</sup> To grant us that we, being rescued from the hand of our enemies, ‡
Might serve Him without fear, <sup>75</sup> In holiness [being set apart] and righteousness [being upright] before Him all our days. ‡
<sup>76</sup> “And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; ‡
For you will go on BEFORE THE LORD (the Messiah) TO PREPARE
H IS WAYS ;  [Is 40:3.; Mal 4:5. ]
<sup>77</sup> To give His people the knowledge of salvation ‡
By the forgiveness of their sins,
<sup>78</sup> Because of the tender mercy of our God,
With which the Sunrise (the Messiah) from on high will dawn and visit us,  [Mal 4:2. ]
<sup>79</sup> T O SHINE UPON THOSE WHO SIT IN DARKNESS AND IN THE SHADOW OF DEATH , ‡
To guide our feet [in a straight line] into the way of peace and serenity.”  [Is 9:2. ]

<sup>80</sup> The child continued to grow and to become strong in spirit, and he lived in the deserts until the day of his public appearance to Israel [as John the Baptist, the forerunner of the Messiah]. ‡

Luke 2

Jesus' Birth in Bethlehem

<sup>3</sup> And everyone went to register for the census, each to his own city.

<sup>4</sup> So Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, ‡

<sup>6</sup> While they were there [in Bethlehem], the time came for her to give birth,

<sup>7</sup> and she gave birth to her Son, her firstborn; and she wrapped Him in [swaddling] cloths and laid Him in a manger, because there was no [private] room for them in the inn. ‡

<sup>8</sup> In the same region there were shepherds staying out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.

<sup>9</sup> And an angel of the Lord suddenly stood before them, and the glory of the Lord flashed and shone around them, and they were terribly frightened. ‡

<sup>10</sup> But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all the people. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “For this day in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord (the Messiah).  [Mic 5:2. ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> “And this will be a sign for you [by which you will recognize Him]: you will find a Baby wrapped in [swaddling] cloths and lying in a manger.”  [1 Sam 2:34; 2 Kin 19:29; Is 7:14. ]

<sup>13</sup> Then suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host (angelic army) praising God and saying, ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Glory to God in the highest [heaven], ‡

And on earth peace among men with whom He is well-pleased.”

<sup>15</sup> When the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying one to another, “Let us go straight to Bethlehem, and see this [wonderful] thing that has happened which the Lord has made known to us.”

<sup>16</sup> So they went in a hurry and found their way to Mary and Joseph, and the Baby as He lay in the manger.

<sup>17</sup> And when they had seen this, they made known what had been told them about this Child, <sup>18</sup> and all who heard it were astounded and wondered at what the shepherds told them.

<sup>19</sup> But Mary treasured all these things, giving careful thought to them and pondering them in her heart. ‡

<sup>20</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as it had been told them.

Jesus Presented at the Temple

<sup>21</sup> At the end of eight days, when He was to be circumcised, He was named Jesus, the name given [to Him] by the angel [Gabriel] before He was conceived in the womb. ‡

<sup>22</sup> And when the time for their purification came [that is, the mother's purification and the baby's dedication] according to the Law of Moses, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord [set apart as the Firstborn]  [Lev 12:1–4 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, “E VERY firstborn MALE THAT OPENS THE WOMB SHALL BE CALLED HOLY [set apart and dedicated] TO THE LORD”  [Ex 13:1, 2, 12; Num 8:17 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> and [they came also] to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord [to be appropriate for a family of modest means], “ A PAIR OF TURTLEDOVES OR TWO YOUNG PIGEONS .”  [Lev 12:6–8 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout [carefully observing the divine Law], and looking for the Consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him. ‡

<sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed). ‡

<sup>27</sup> Prompted by the Spirit, he came into the temple [enclosure]; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for Him the custom required by the Law, ‡

<sup>28</sup> Simeon took Him into his arms, and blessed and praised and thanked God, and said,

<sup>29</sup> “Now, Lord, You are releasing Your bond-servant to leave [this world] in peace, ‡

According to Your word;

<sup>30</sup> For my eyes have seen Your Salvation,  [Is 52:10 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> Which You have prepared in the presence of all peoples,

And [to bring] the praise and honor and glory of Your people Israel.”  [Is 42:6; 49:6 ]

<sup>33</sup> And His [legal] father and His mother were amazed at what was said about Him.

<sup>35</sup> and a sword [of deep sorrow] will pierce through your own soul—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” ‡

<sup>36</sup> There was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old, and had lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage,  [Josh 19:24 ]

<sup>37</sup> and then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She did not leave the [area of the] temple, but was serving and worshiping night and day with fastings and prayers. ‡

<sup>38</sup> She, too, came up at that very moment and began praising and giving thanks to God, and continued to speak of Him to all who were looking for the redemption and deliverance of Jerusalem. ‡

Return to Nazareth

<sup>39</sup> And when they had done everything [in connection with Jesus’ birth] according to the Law of the Lord, they went back to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. The Return from Egypt; The Boy Jesus in the Temple

<sup>40</sup> And the Child continued to grow and become strong [in spirit], filled with wisdom; and the grace (favor, spiritual blessing) of God was upon Him.  [Judg 13:24 ] ‡

Visit to Jerusalem

<sup>41</sup> Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year for the Passover Feast.  [Deut 16:1–8 ; Ex 23:15 ] ‡

<sup>42</sup> And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, according to the custom of the Feast;

<sup>43</sup> and as they were returning [to Nazareth], after spending the required number of days [at the Feast], the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem. Now His parents did not know this,

<sup>44</sup> but supposed Him to be in the caravan, and traveled a day’s journey; and [then] they began searching [anxiously] for Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

<sup>45</sup> When they did not find Him, they went back to Jerusalem looking for Him [everywhere].

<sup>46</sup> Three days later they found Him in the [court of the] temple, sitting among the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions.

<sup>48</sup> When they saw Him, they were overwhelmed; and His mother said to Him, “Son, why have You treated us like this? Listen, Your father and I have been [greatly distressed and] anxiously looking for You.”

<sup>49</sup> And He answered, “Why did you have to look for Me? Did you not know that I had to be in My Father’s house? ” ‡

<sup>50</sup> But they did not understand what He had said to them. ‡

<sup>52</sup> And Jesus kept increasing in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and men.  [1 Sam 2:26. ] ‡

Luke 3

John the Baptist Preaches

<sup>1</sup> NOW IN the fifteenth year of [Emperor] Tiberius Caesar’s reign—when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod [Antipas] was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene—

<sup>3</sup> And he went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sin; ‡

<sup>4</sup> as it is written and forever remains written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, ‡

“T HE VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS ,

‘P REPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD,

M AKE H IS PATHS STRAIGHT .

<sup>5</sup> ‘E VERY RAVINE SHALL BE FILLED UP ,

A ND EVERY MOUNTAIN AND HILL SHALL BE LEVELED ;
A ND THE CROOKED [places] SHALL BE MADE STRAIGHT , A ND THE ROUGH ROADS SMOOTH ;

<sup>7</sup> So he began saying to the crowds who were coming out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath [of God that is] to come? ‡

<sup>8</sup>—“Therefore produce fruit that is worthy of [and consistent with your] repentance [that is, live changed lives, turn from sin and seek God and His righteousness]. And do not even begin to say to yourselves [as a defense], ‘We have Abraham for our father [and so our heritage assures us of salvation]’; for I say to you that from these stones God is able to raise up children (descendants) for Abraham [for God can replace the unrepentant, regardless of their heritage, with those who are obedient].  [Matt 3:9.]

<sup>11</sup>—And John replied, “The man who has two tunics is to share with him who has none; and he who has food is to do the same.” ‡

<sup>12</sup>—Even some tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked, “Teacher, what are we to do?” ‡

<sup>13</sup> And he told them, “Collect no more than the fixed amount you have been ordered to [collect].” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Some soldiers asked him, “And what about us, what are we to do?” And he replied to them, “Do not extort money from anyone or harass or blackmail anyone, and be satisfied with your wages.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Now the people were in a state of expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts about John, as to whether he was the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

<sup>16</sup> John answered them all by saying, “As for me, I baptize you [only] with water; but One who is mightier [more powerful, more noble] than I is coming, and I am not fit to untie the strap of His sandals [even as His slave]. He will baptize you [who truly repent] with the Holy Spirit and [you who remain unrepentant] with fire.  [Matt 3:11.] ‡

floor, and to gather the wheat (believers) into His barn (kingdom); but He will burn up the chaff (the unrepentant) with unquenchable fire.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> So with many other appeals and various admonitions John preached the good news (gospel) to the people.

<sup>20</sup> he also added this to them all: he locked up John in prison.

Jesus’ Baptism

<sup>21</sup> Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus was also baptized, and while He was praying, the [visible] heaven was opened,  [Matt 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; John 1:32] ‡

<sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, “You are My Son, My Beloved, in You I am well-pleased and delighted!”  [Ps 2:7; Is 42:1 ]

Genealogy of Jesus

<sup>23</sup> When He began His ministry, Jesus Himself was about thirty years of age, being, as was supposed, the son of Joseph, the son [by marriage] of Eli, ‡

<sup>24</sup> the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,

<sup>25</sup> the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Hesli, the son of Naggai,

<sup>26</sup> the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda,

<sup>27</sup> the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,

<sup>28</sup> the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,

<sup>29</sup> the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,

<sup>30</sup> the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim,

<sup>31</sup> the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, ‡

<sup>32</sup> the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, ‡

<sup>33</sup> the son of Amminadab, the son of Admin, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,

<sup>34</sup> the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, ‡

<sup>35</sup> the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Heber, the son of Shelah,

<sup>37</sup> the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan,

<sup>38</sup> the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.  [Gen 5:3–32; 11:10–26; Ruth 4:18–22; 1 Chr 1:1–4, 24–28; 2:1–15. ] ‡

The Devil Tempts Jesus

<sup>1</sup> NOW JESUS, full of [and in perfect communication with] the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness  [Matt 4:1–11 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And He ate nothing during those days, and when they ended, He was hungry.  [Deut 9:9; 1 Kin 19:8. ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then the devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, command this stone to turn into bread.”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus replied to him, “It is written and forever remains written, ‘M AN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE .’ ”  [Deut 8:3. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then he led Jesus up [to a high mountain] and displayed before Him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth [and their magnificence] in the twinkling of an eye.

<sup>6</sup> And the devil said to Him, “I will give You all this realm and its glory [its power, its renown]; because it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I wish. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Jesus replied to him, “It is written and forever remains written, ‘YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD AND SERVE ONLY HIM.’”  [Deut 6:13; 10:20 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then he led Jesus to Jerusalem and had Him stand on the pinnacle (highest point) of the temple, and said [mockingly] to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here; ‡

<sup>10</sup> for it is written and forever remains written, ‡

‘HE WILL COMMAND HIS ANGELS CONCERNING YOU TO GUARD and PROTECT YOU,’

<sup>11</sup> and,

‘THEY WILL LIFT YOU UP ON their HANDS,
SO THAT YOU DO NOT STRIKE YOUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE.’”  [Ps 91:11, 12 ]

<sup>12</sup> Jesus replied to him, “It is said [in Scripture], ‘YOU SHALL NOT TEMPT THE LORD YOUR GOD [to prove Himself to you].’”  [Deut 6:16 ; Matt 4:7 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> When the devil had finished every temptation, he [temporarily] left Him until a more opportune time. ‡

Jesus' Public Ministry

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus went back to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and the news about Him spread through the entire region. ‡

<sup>15</sup> And He began teaching in their synagogues and was praised and glorified and honored by all.

<sup>16</sup> So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and as was His custom, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath, and stood up to read. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME (the Messiah), ‡

BECAUSE HE HAS ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR .

HE HAS SENT ME TO ANNOUNCE RELEASE (pardon, forgiveness) TO THE CAPTIVES ,

AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND ,

T O SET FREE THOSE WHO ARE OPPRESSED (downtrodden, bruised, crushed by tragedy),

<sup>19</sup> TO PROCLAIM THE FAVORABLE YEAR OF THE L ORD [the day when salvation and the favor of God abound greatly].”  [Is 61:1, 2 ]

<sup>20</sup> Then He rolled up the scroll [having stopped in the middle of the verse], gave it back to the attendant and sat down [to teach]; and the eyes of all those in the synagogue were [attentively] fixed on Him.

<sup>21</sup> He began speaking to them: “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing and in your presence.”

<sup>22</sup> And [as He continued on] they all were speaking well of Him, and were in awe and were wondering about the words of grace which were coming from His lips; and they were saying, “Is this not Joseph’s son?” ‡

<sup>23</sup> So He said to them, “You will no doubt quote this proverb to Me, ‘Physician, heal Yourself! Whatever [miracles] that we heard were done [by You] in Capernaum, do here in Your hometown as well.’ ” ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then He said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, no prophet is welcome in his hometown. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “But in truth I say to you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was closed up for three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land; ‡

<sup>26</sup> and yet Elijah was not sent [by the Lord] to a single one of them, but only to Zarephath in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.  [1 Kin 17:1, 8–16; 18:1 ]

<sup>28</sup> As they heard these things [about God’s grace to these two Gentiles], the people in the synagogue were filled with a great rage;

<sup>29</sup> and they got up and drove Him out of the city, and led Him to the crest of the hill on which their city had been built, in order to hurl Him down the cliff.

<sup>31</sup> Then He came down [from the hills of Nazareth] to Capernaum, a city of Galilee [on the shore of the sea], and He was teaching them on the Sabbath;  [Mark 1:21–28. ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> and they were surprised [almost overwhelmed] at His teaching, because His message was [given] with authority and power and great ability. ‡

<sup>33</sup> There was a man in the synagogue who was possessed by the spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud and terrible voice, ‡

<sup>34</sup> “Let us alone! What business do we have [in common] with each other, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!” ‡

<sup>35</sup> But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent (muzzled, gagged) and come out of him!” And when the demon had thrown the man down among them, he came out of him without injuring him in any way.

<sup>36</sup> They were all astonished and in awe, and began saying to one another, “What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits and they come out!”

<sup>37</sup> And the news about Him spread into every place in the surrounding district (Galilee).

Many Are Healed

<sup>39</sup> Standing over her, He rebuked the fever, and it left her; and immediately she got up and began serving them [as her guests].

<sup>40</sup> While the sun was setting [marking the end of the Sabbath day], all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to Jesus; and laying His hands on each one of them, He was healing them [exhibiting His authority as Messiah].  [Matt 8:16, 17 ; Mark 1:32–34 ] ‡

<sup>41</sup> Demons also were coming out of many people, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed). ‡

<sup>42</sup> When daybreak came, Jesus left [Simon Peter’s house] and went to a secluded place; and the crowds were searching for Him, and [they] came to Him and tried to keep Him from leaving them. ‡

<sup>43</sup> But He said, “I must preach [the good news of] the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because I was sent for this purpose.”

<sup>44</sup> So He continued preaching in the synagogues of Judea [the country of the Jews, including Galilee]. ‡

The First Disciples

<sup>2</sup> that He saw two boats lying at the edge of the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets.

<sup>3</sup> He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little distance from the shore. And He sat down and began teaching the crowds from the boat.

<sup>4</sup> When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon [Peter], “Put out into the deep water and lower your nets for a catch [of fish].” ‡

<sup>5</sup>—Simon replied, “Master, we worked hard all night [to the point of exhaustion] and caught nothing [in our nets], but at Your word I will [do as you say and] lower the nets [again].”

<sup>6</sup> When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their nets were [at the point of] breaking;

<sup>7</sup> so they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both of the boats [with fish], so that they began to sink.

<sup>8</sup> But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, “Go away from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!” ‡

<sup>9</sup> For he and all his companions were completely astounded at the catch of fish which they had taken;

<sup>10</sup> and so were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon [Peter]. Jesus said to Simon, “Have no fear; from now on you will be catching men!” ‡

<sup>11</sup> After they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example]. ‡

The Leper and the Paralytic

<sup>12</sup> While Jesus was in one of the cities, there came a man covered with [an advanced case of] leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean and well.”  [Matt 8:2–4; Mark 1:40–44 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> And Jesus reached out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” And immediately the leprosy left him.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus ordered him to tell no one [that he might happen to meet], “But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your purification, just as Moses commanded, as a testimony (witness) to them [that this is a work of Messiah].”  [Lev 13:49 ; 14:2–32 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus Himself would often slip away to the wilderness and pray [in seclusion]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> One day as He was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of the Law sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present with Him to heal.

<sup>19</sup> But finding no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof [and removed some tiles to make an opening] and lowered him through the tiles with his stretcher, into the middle of the crowd, in front of Jesus.

<sup>20</sup> When Jesus saw their [active] faith [springing from confidence in Him], He said, “Man, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>21</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees began to consider and question [the implications of what He had said], saying, “Who is this man who speaks blasphemies [by claiming the rights and prerogatives of God]? Who can forgive sins [that is, remove guilt, nullify sin’s penalty, and assign righteousness] except God alone?” ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?

<sup>24</sup> “But, in order that you may know that the Son of Man (the Messiah) has authority and power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralyzed man, “I say to you, get up, pick up your stretcher and go home.”

<sup>25</sup> He immediately stood up before them, picked up his stretcher, and went home glorifying and praising God.

<sup>26</sup> They were all astonished, and they began glorifying God; and they were filled with [reverential] fear and kept saying, “We have seen wonderful and incredible things today!”

Call of Levi (Matthew)

<sup>27</sup> After this Jesus went out and noticed a tax collector named Levi (Matthew) sitting at the tax booth; and He said to him, “Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk].”  [Matt 9:9–17; Mark 2:14–22 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> And he left everything behind and got up and began to follow Jesus [as His disciple].

<sup>29</sup> Levi (Matthew) gave a great banquet for Him at his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining at the table with them. ‡

<sup>30</sup> The Pharisees and their scribes [seeing those with whom He was associating] began murmuring in discontent to His disciples, asking, “Why are you eating and drinking with the tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews]? ”

<sup>31</sup> And Jesus replied to them, “It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but [only] those who are sick.

<sup>32</sup> “I did not come to call the [self-proclaimed] righteous [who see no need to repent], but sinners to repentance [to change their old way of thinking, to turn from sin and to seek God and His righteousness].” ‡

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “Can you make the wedding guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them?

<sup>35</sup> “But days [for mourning] will come when the bridegroom is [forcefully] taken away from them. They will fast in those days.”

<sup>36</sup> He also told them a parable: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and puts it on an old one; otherwise he will both tear the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the new [fermenting] wine will [expand and] burst the skins and it will be spilled out, and the skins will be ruined.

<sup>39</sup> “And no one, after drinking old wine, wishes for new; for he says, ‘The old is fine.’ ”

Luke 6

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

<sup>2</sup> But some of the Pharisees said, “Why are you doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”  [Ex 20:10 ; 23:12 ; Deut 5:14 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied to them, “Have you not even read [in the Scriptures] what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him—  [1 Sam 21:1–6 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> how he went into the house of God, and took and ate the consecrated bread, which is not lawful [for anyone] to eat except the priests alone, and [how he also] gave it to the men who were with him?”  [Lev 24:9 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> Jesus was saying to them, “The Son of Man (the Messiah) is Lord [even] of the Sabbath.”

<sup>7</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him closely [with malicious intent], to see if He would [actually] heal [someone] on the Sabbath, so that they might find a reason to accuse Him.

<sup>8</sup> But He was aware of their thoughts, and He said to the man with the withered hand, “Get up and come forward.” So he got up and stood there.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you directly: Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil, to save a life or to destroy it?”

<sup>10</sup> After looking around at them all, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand!” And he did, and his hand was [fully] restored.

<sup>11</sup> But the scribes and Pharisees were filled with senseless rage [and lacked spiritual insight], and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Choosing the Twelve

<sup>12</sup> Now at this time Jesus went off to the mountain to pray, and He spent the whole night in prayer to God.

<sup>13</sup> When day came, He called His disciples and selected twelve of them, whom He also named apostles (special messengers, personally chosen representatives):  [Matt 10:2–4; Mark 3:16–19 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> Simon, whom He also named Peter, and his brother Andrew; and [the brothers] James and John; and Philip, and Bartholomew [also called Nathanael]; ‡

<sup>15</sup> and Matthew (Levi, the tax collector) and Thomas; and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot;

<sup>16</sup> Judas [also called Thaddaeus] the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor [to the Lord]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place; and there was a large crowd of His disciples, and a vast multitude of people from all over Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon, ‡

<sup>18</sup> who had come to listen to Him and to be healed of their diseases. Even those who were troubled by unclean spirits (demons) were being healed.

<sup>19</sup> All the people were trying to touch Him, because [healing] power was coming from Him and healing them all. ‡

The Beatitudes

<sup>20</sup> And looking toward His disciples, He began speaking: “Blessed [spiritually prosperous, happy, to be admired] are you who are poor [in spirit, those devoid of spiritual arrogance, those who regard themselves as insignificant], for the kingdom of God is yours [both now and forever].  [Matt 5:3–12 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Blessed [joyful, nourished by God’s goodness] are you who hunger now [for righteousness, actively seeking right standing with God], for you will be [completely] satisfied. Blessed [forgiven, refreshed by God’s grace] are you who weep now [over your sins and repent], for you will laugh [when the burden of sin is lifted]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Blessed [morally courageous and spiritually alive with life-joy in God’s goodness] are you when people hate you, and exclude you [from their fellowship], and insult you, and scorn your name as evil because of [your association with] the Son of Man. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “But woe (judgment is coming) to you who are rich [and place your faith in possessions while remaining spiritually impoverished], for you are [already] receiving your comfort in full [and there is nothing left to be awarded to you]. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Woe to you who are well-fed (gorged, satiated) now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now [enjoying a life of self-indulgence], for you will mourn and weep [and deeply long for God]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Woe to you when all the people speak well of you and praise you, for the fathers used to treat the false prophets in the same way. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “But I say to you who hear [Me and pay attention to My words]: Love [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for] your enemies, [make it a practice to] do good to those who hate you, ‡

<sup>28</sup> bless and show kindness to those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “If you [only] love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

<sup>34</sup> “If you lend [money] to those from whom you expect to receive [it back], what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners expecting to receive back the same amount. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “But love [that is, unselfishly seek the best or higher good for] your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; for your reward will be great (rich, abundant), and you will be sons of the Most High; because He Himself is kind and gracious and good to the ungrateful and the wicked. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “Do not judge [others self-righteously], and you will not be judged; do not condemn [others when you are guilty and unrepentant], and you will not be condemned [for your hypocrisy]; pardon [others when they truly repent and change], and you will be pardoned [when you truly repent and change].  [Matt 7:1–5 ] ‡

38 “Give, and it will be given to you. They will pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over [with no space left for more]. For with the standard of measurement you use [when you do good to others], it will be measured to you in return.” ‡

39 He also told them a parable: “Can a blind man guide [another] blind man? Will they not both fall into a hole in the ground?” ‡

40 “A student is not superior to his teacher; but everyone, after he has been completely trained, will be like his teacher.” ‡

41 “Why do you look at the speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice or consider the log that is in your own eye?” ‡

42 “How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, allow me to take out the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite (play actor, pretender), first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother’s eye.

43 “For there is no good tree which produces bad fruit, nor, on the other hand, a bad tree which produces good fruit.  [Matt 7:16, 18 ] ‡

44 “For each tree is known and identified by its own fruit. For figs are not picked from thorn bushes, nor is a cluster of grapes picked from a briar bush.” ‡

45 “The [intrinsically] good man produces what is good and honorable and moral out of the good treasure [stored] in his heart; and the [intrinsically] evil man produces what is wicked and depraved out of the evil [in his heart]; for his mouth speaks from the overflow of his heart.” ‡

A Secure Foundation

46 “Why do you call Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not practice what I tell you?” ‡

47 “Everyone who comes to Me and listens to My words and obeys them, I will show you whom he is like:  [Matt 7:24–27 ] ‡

48 he is like a [far-sighted, practical, and sensible] man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock; and when a flood occurred, the torrent burst against that house and yet could not shake it, because it had been securely built and founded on the rock.

49 “But the one who has [merely] heard and has not practiced [what I say], is like a [foolish] man who built a house on the ground without any foundation, and the torrent burst against it; and it immediately collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great.”

Luke 7

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Slave

1 AFTER HE had finished all that He had to say in the hearing of the people, He went to Capernaum. [Matt 8:5–13] ‡

2 Now a [Roman] centurion's slave, who was highly regarded by him, was sick and on the verge of death.

3 When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to Him, asking Him to come and save the life of his slave.

4 When they reached Jesus, they pleaded with Him earnestly [to come], saying, “He is worthy for You to do this for him,

5 because he loves our nation and he built us our synagogue [at his own expense].”

6 And Jesus went with them. But when He was near the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying, “Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy for You to come under my roof.

7 “Therefore I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You. But just speak a word, and my slave will be healed.

8 “For I also am a man subject to authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

9 Now when Jesus heard this, He was amazed at him, and turned and said to the crowd that was following Him, “I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith [as this man's].”

10 When the messengers who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

11 Soon afterward Jesus went to a city called Nain [near Nazareth], and His disciples and a large crowd accompanied Him.

12 Now as He approached the city gate, a dead man was being carried out —the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her [in the funeral procession].

13 When the Lord saw her, He felt [great] compassion for her, and said to her, “Do not weep.”

14 And He came up and touched the bier [on which the body rested], and the pallbearers stood still. And He said, “Young man, I say to you, arise [from death]!” ‡

<sup>15</sup> The man who was dead sat up and began to speak. And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> Fear and profound awe gripped them all, and they began glorifying and honoring and praising God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and, “God has visited His people [to help and care for and provide for them]!” ‡

<sup>17</sup> This news about Him spread through all of Judea and in all the surrounding countryside.  [1 Kin 17:17–24; 2 Kin 4:32–37 ]

A Delegation from John

<sup>19</sup> John called two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord, saying, “Are You the Expected One (the Messiah), or should we look for someone else?”

<sup>20</sup> So the men came to Jesus and said, “John the Baptist sent us to You to ask, ‘Are You the Expected One (the Messiah), or should we look for someone else?’ ”

<sup>21</sup> At that very hour Jesus healed many people of sicknesses and infirmities and evil spirits; and He gave [the gracious gift of] sight to many who were blind.

<sup>22</sup> So He replied to them, “Go and tell John about everything you have seen and heard: the BLIND RECEIVE SIGHT , the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the POOR HAVE THE GOOD NEWS (gospel) PREACHED TO THEM .  [Is 29:18 , 19 ; 35:5 , 6 ; 61:1 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> “But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing [entirely unsuited for the harsh wilderness]? Those who wear splendid clothing and live in luxury are in royal palaces!

<sup>26</sup> “But what did you [really] go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one far more [eminent and remarkable] than a prophet [who foretells the future].

<sup>27</sup> “This is the one of whom it is written [by the prophet Malachi], ‡

‘B EHOLD , I SEND M Y MESSENGER AHEAD OF Y OU ,
W HO WILL PREPARE Y OUR WAY BEFORE Y OU .’  [Mal 3:1. ]

28 “I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater [in privilege] than he.”

29 All the people and the tax collectors who heard Jesus, acknowledged [the validity of] God’s justice, having been baptized with the baptism of John. ‡

30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers [who were experts in the Mosaic Law] annulled and set aside God’s purpose for themselves, not having been baptized by John. ‡

31 “To what then shall I compare the people of this generation [who set aside God’s plan], and what are they like? ‡

32 “They are like children sitting in the market place and calling to one another, and saying, ‘We played the flute for you [pretending to be at a wedding], and you did not dance; we sang a dirge [pretending to be at a funeral], and you did not weep [so nothing we did appealed to you].’

33 “For John the Baptist has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon!’ ‡

34 “The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a man who is a glutton and a [heavy] wine-drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews].’

35 “Yet wisdom is vindicated and shown to be right by all her children [by the lifestyle, moral character, and good deeds of her followers].” ‡

The Anointing in Galilee

36 One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and He went into the Pharisee’s house [in the region of Galilee] and reclined at the table. ‡

37 Now there was a woman in the city who was [known as] a sinner; and when she found out that He was reclining at the table in the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster vial of perfume;

38 and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began wetting His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and [respectfully] kissed His feet [as an act signifying both affection and submission] and anointed them with the perfume.

39 Now when [Simon] the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, “If this Man were a prophet He would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching Him, that she is a [notorious] sinner [an outcast, devoted to sin].” ‡

Parable of Two Debtors

<sup>40</sup> Jesus, answering, said to the Pharisee, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” And he replied, “Teacher, say it.”

<sup>41</sup> “A certain moneylender had two debtors: one owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

<sup>42</sup> “When they had no means of repaying [the debts], he freely forgave them both. So which of them will love him more?”

<sup>43</sup> Simon answered, “The one, I take it, for whom he forgave more.” Jesus said to him, “You have decided correctly.”

<sup>44</sup> Then turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house [but you failed to extend to Me the usual courtesies shown to a guest]; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair [demonstrating her love].

<sup>45</sup> “You gave Me no [welcoming] kiss, but from the moment I came in, she has not ceased to kiss My feet.

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith [in Me] has saved you; go in peace [free from the distress experienced because of sin].” ‡

Luke 8

Ministering Women

<sup>1</sup> SOON AFTERWARD, Jesus began going around from one city and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve [disciples] were with Him,

<sup>2</sup> and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and diseases:

Mary, called Magdalene [from the city of Magdala in Galilee], from whom seven demons had come out, ‡

<sup>3</sup> and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's household steward, and Susanna, and many others who were contributing to their support out of their private means [as was the custom for a rabbi's disciples].

Parable of the Sower

<sup>4</sup> When a large crowd was gathering together, and people from city after city were coming to Him, He spoke [to them] using a parable:  [Matt 13:2–9 ; Mark 4:1–9 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> “The sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell beside the road and it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the sky ate it up.

<sup>6</sup> “And some seed fell on [shallow soil covering] the rocks, and as soon as it sprouted, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

<sup>7</sup> “Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it out.

<sup>8</sup> “And some fell into good soil, and grew up and produced a crop a hundred times as great.” As He said these things, He called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.”

10. And He said, “To you [who have been chosen] it has been granted to know and recognize the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is in parables, so that though SEEING THEY MAY NOT SEE , AND HEARING THEY MAY NOT UNDERSTAND .  [Is 6:9 , 10 ; Jer 5:21 ; Ezek 12:2 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Now [the meaning of] the parable is this: The seed is the word of God [concerning eternal salvation]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Those beside the road are the people who have heard; then the devil comes and takes the message [of God] away from their hearts, so that they will not believe [in Me as the Messiah] and be saved.

13.“Those on the rocky soil are the people who, when they hear, receive and welcome the word with joy; but these have no firmly grounded root. They believe for a while, and in time of trial and temptation they fall away [from Me and abandon their faith].

14.“The seed which fell among the thorns, these are the ones who have heard, but as they go on their way they are suffocated with the anxieties and riches and pleasures of this life, and they bring no fruit to maturity.

<sup>15</sup> “But as for that seed in the good soil, these are the ones who have heard the word with a good and noble heart, and hold on to it tightly, and bear fruit with patience.

Parable of the Lamp

<sup>16</sup> “Now no one lights a lamp and then covers it with a container [to hide it], or puts it under a bed; instead, he puts it on a lampstand, so that those who come in may see the light.  [Matt 5:15 ; Mark 4:21 ; Luke 11:33 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For there is nothing hidden that will not become evident, nor anything secret that will not be known and come out into the open. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “So be careful how you listen; for whoever has [a teachable heart], to him more [understanding] will be given; and whoever does not have [a longing for truth], even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him.”  [Matt 13:12 ; 25:29 ; Mark 4:25 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> And He was told, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, asking to see You.”

<sup>21</sup> But He answered, “My mother and My brothers are these who listen to the word of God and do it!”

Jesus Calms the Sea

<sup>22</sup> Now on one of those days Jesus and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, “Let us cross over to the other side of the lake (Sea of Galilee).” So they set out.  [Matt 8:23–27 ; Mark 4:36–41 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> But as they were sailing, He fell asleep. And a fierce gale of wind swept down [as if through a wind tunnel] on the lake, and they began to be swamped, and were in great danger.

<sup>24</sup> They came to Jesus and woke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we are about to die!” He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging, violent waves, and they ceased, and it became calm [a perfect peacefulness].

<sup>25</sup> And He said to them, “Where is your faith [your confidence in Me]?” They were afraid and astonished, saying to one another, “Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the sea, and they obey Him?”

The Demonic Cured

<sup>26</sup> Then they sailed to the country of the Gerasenes, which is east of Galilee.  [Matt 8:28–34; Mark 5:1–17 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> Now when Jesus stepped out on land, He was met by a man from the city [of Gerasa] who was possessed with demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and was not living in a house, but among the tombs.

<sup>28</sup> Seeing Jesus, he cried out [with a terrible voice from the depths of his throat] and fell down before Him [in dread and terror], and shouted loudly, “What business do we have [in common] with each other, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me [before the appointed time of judgment]!”

<sup>29</sup> Now He was [already] commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had seized him [violently] many times; and he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.

<sup>30</sup> Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” And he answered, “Legion”; because many demons had entered him.

<sup>32</sup> Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the mountain. The demons begged Jesus to allow them to enter the pigs, and He gave them permission. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

<sup>34</sup> When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they ran away and told it in the city and out in the country.

<sup>35</sup> And people came out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus’ feet, clothed and in his right mind (mentally healthy); and they were frightened.

<sup>36</sup> Those who had seen it told them how the man who had been demon-possessed had been healed.

<sup>37</sup> Then all the people of the country of the Gerasenes and the surrounding district asked Him to leave them, because they were overwhelmed with fear. So Jesus got into the boat and returned [to the west side of the Sea of Galilee]. ‡

<sup>39</sup> “Return home and tell [about] all the great things God has done for you.”

So the man went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

Miracles of Healing

<sup>40</sup> Now as Jesus was returning [to Galilee], the people welcomed Him, for they had all been expecting Him.

<sup>41</sup> Now a man named Jairus, a synagogue official, came [to Him]; and he fell at Jesus' feet and began begging Him to come to his house;  [Matt 9:18–26 ; Mark 5:22–43 ] ‡

<sup>42</sup> for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. But as Jesus went, the people were crowding against Him [almost crushing Him].

44—came up behind Him and touched the fringe of His outer robe, and immediately her bleeding stopped.

<sup>45</sup> Jesus said, “Who touched Me?” While they all were denying it, Peter [ and those who were with him ] said, “Master, the people are crowding and pushing against You!”

<sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, “Someone did touch Me, because I was aware that power [to heal] had gone out of Me.” ‡

<sup>47</sup> When the woman saw that she had not escaped notice, she came up trembling and fell down before Him. She declared in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she had been immediately healed.

<sup>48</sup> He said to her, “Daughter, your faith [your personal trust and confidence in Me] has made you well. Go in peace (untroubled, undisturbed well-being).”

<sup>49</sup> While He was still speaking, someone from the synagogue official's house came and said [to Jairus], “Your daughter is dead; do not inconvenience the Teacher any further.” ‡

<sup>50</sup> But Jesus, hearing this, answered him, “Do not be afraid any longer; only believe and trust [in Me and have faith in My ability to do this], and she will be made well.”

<sup>51</sup> When He came to the house, He allowed no one to enter with Him, except Peter and John and James, and the girl's father and mother.

52-Now they were all weeping loudly and mourning for her; but He said, "Do not weep, for she is not dead, but is sleeping." ‡

53 Then they began laughing scornfully at Him and ridiculing Him, knowing [without any doubt] that she was dead.

54 But Jesus took hold of her hand and spoke, saying, "Child, arise!" ‡

55 And her spirit returned, and she got up immediately; and He ordered that she be given something to eat.

56 Her parents were greatly astonished [by the miracle]; but He instructed them to tell no one what had happened. ‡

Luke 9

Ministry of the Twelve

1 NOW JESUS called together the twelve [disciples] and gave them [the right to exercise] power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases. ‡

2 Then He sent them out [on a brief journey] to preach the kingdom of God and to perform healing. [Matt 10:5] ‡

3 And He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey [that might encumber you]—neither a walking stick, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not even have two tunics apiece. ‡

4 "Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that city [to go to another]. ‡

5 "And as for all those who do not welcome you, when you leave that city, shake the dust off your feet [breaking all ties with them] as a testimony against them [that they rejected My message]." ‡

6 So they began going from village to village, preaching the gospel and healing the sick everywhere. ‡

7 Now Herod [Antipas] the tetrarch [who governed a portion of Palestine including Galilee and Perea] heard about all that was being done [by Jesus], and he was thoroughly perplexed, because it was said by some that John [the Baptist whom he had ordered beheaded] had been raised from the dead, [Matt 14:1, 2] ‡

8 and by others that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the [other] prophets of old had been resurrected.

9 Herod said, "I personally had John beheaded. Who is this man about whom I hear such things?” And he kept trying to see Jesus. ‡

<sup>10</sup> When the apostles returned, they told Him all that they had done. He took them with Him and He privately withdrew [across the Jordan] to a city called Bethsaida.  [Matt 14:13–21; Mark 6:32–44; John 6:5–13. ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> But when the crowds learned of it, they followed Him; and He welcomed them and He began talking to them about the kingdom of God, and healing those who needed to be healed.

Five Thousand Fed

<sup>12</sup> Now the day was ending, and the twelve [disciples] came and said to Him, “Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging, and get provisions; because here we are in an isolated place.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> But He said to them, “You give them something to eat.” They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless perhaps we go and buy food for all these people.”  [2 Kin 4:42–44. ]

<sup>14</sup> (For there were about 5,000 men.) And He said to His disciples, “Have them sit down to eat in groups of about fifty each.”

<sup>15</sup> They did so, and had them all sit down.

<sup>16</sup> Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and He looked up to heaven [and gave thanks] and blessed them, and broke them and kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

<sup>17</sup> They all ate and were [completely] satisfied; and the broken pieces which they had left over were [abundant and were] picked up—twelve baskets full.

<sup>18</sup> Now it happened that as Jesus was praying privately, the disciples were with Him, and He asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”  [Matt 16:13–16; Mark 8:27–29. ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> They answered, “John the Baptist, and some say, Elijah; but others, that one of the ancient prophets has come back to life.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> And He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter replied, “The Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) of God!” ‡

<sup>21</sup> But He strictly warned and admonished them not to tell this to anyone, ‡

<sup>22</sup> saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected [as the Messiah] by the elders and chief priests and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), and be put to death, and on the third day be raised up [from death to life].”  [Matt 16:21–28 ; Mark 8:31–9:1 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> And He was saying to them all, “If anyone wishes to follow Me [as My disciple], he must deny himself [set aside selfish interests], and take up his cross daily [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “For whoever wishes to save his life [in this world] will [eventually] lose it [through death], but whoever loses his life [in this world] for My sake, he is the one who will save it [from the consequences of sin and separation from God].

<sup>25</sup> “For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world [wealth, fame, success], and loses or forfeits himself? ‡

<sup>26</sup> “For whoever is ashamed [here and now] of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and the glory of the [heavenly] Father and of the holy angels. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “But I tell you truthfully, there are some among those standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.” ‡

The Transfiguration

<sup>29</sup> As He was praying, the appearance of His face became different [actually transformed], and His clothing became white and flashing with the brilliance of lightning.

<sup>30</sup> And behold, two men were talking with Him; and they were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup> who appeared in glory, and were speaking of His departure [from earthly life], which He was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Now Peter and those who were with him had been overcome with sleep; but when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and splendor and majesty, and the two men who were standing with Him. ‡

<sup>33</sup> And as these [men, Moses and Elijah] were leaving Him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is delightful and good for us to be here; we should make three [sacred] tents; one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not realizing what he was saying.

<sup>34</sup> But even as he was saying this, a cloud formed and began to overshadow them; and they were [greatly] afraid as they entered the cloud.

<sup>37</sup> On the next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him.  [Matt 17:14–18; Mark 9:14–27. ] ‡

<sup>38</sup> And a man from the crowd shouted for help, “Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, because he is my only child;

<sup>39</sup> and a spirit seizes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it throws him into a convulsion so that he foams at the mouth; and only with [great] difficulty does it leave him, mauling and bruising him as it leaves.

<sup>40</sup> “I begged Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.”

<sup>41</sup> Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and perverted generation! How long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here [to Me].”

<sup>42</sup> Even while the boy was coming, the demon slammed him down and threw him into a [violent] convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

<sup>43</sup> They were all amazed [practically overwhelmed] at the [evidence of the] greatness of God and His majesty and His wondrous work.  [Mark 9:30–32. ]

But while they were still awed by everything Jesus was doing, He said to His disciples,

<sup>44</sup> “Let these words sink into your ears: the Son of Man is going to be betrayed and handed over to men [who are His enemies].” ‡

<sup>45</sup> However, they did not understand this statement. Its meaning was kept hidden from them so that they would not grasp it; and they were afraid to ask Him about it. ‡

The Test of Greatness

<sup>47</sup> But Jesus, knowing what they were thinking in their heart, took a child and had him stand beside Him,

<sup>48</sup> and He told them, “Whoever welcomes this child in My name welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes Me [also] welcomes Him who sent Me; for the one who is least among all of you [that is, the one who is genuinely humble —the one with a realistic self-view]—he is the one who is [truly] great.” ‡

<sup>49</sup> John replied, “Master, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name; and we tried to stop him because he does not follow along with us.”  [Mark 9:38–40] ‡

<sup>50</sup> But Jesus told him, “Do not stop him; for he who is not against you is for you.”  [Matt 12:30] ‡

<sup>51</sup> Now when the time was approaching for Him to be taken up [to heaven], He was determined to go to Jerusalem [to fulfill His purpose]. ‡

<sup>52</sup> He sent messengers on ahead of Him, and they went into a Samaritan village to make arrangements for Him;

<sup>53</sup> but the people would not welcome Him, because He was traveling toward Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>54</sup> When His disciples James and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and destroy them?”  [2 Kin 1:9–16] ‡

<sup>55</sup> But He turned and rebuked them [ and He said, “You do not know what kind of spirit you are;

<sup>56</sup> for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them.” ] And they journeyed on to another village. ‡

Exacting Discipleship

<sup>57</sup> As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go.”  [Matt 8:19–22] ‡

<sup>58</sup> And Jesus told him, “Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.”

<sup>59</sup> He said to another, “Follow Me [accepting Me as Master and Teacher].” But he said, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.”  [Matt 8:21, 22] ‡

<sup>60</sup> But He said to him, “Allow the [spiritually] dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and spread the news about the kingdom of God.”

<sup>61</sup> Another also said, “I will follow You, Lord [as Your disciple]; but first let me say goodbye to those at my home.” ‡

Luke 10

The Seventy Sent Out

<sup>1</sup> NOW AFTER this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them out ahead of Him, two by two, into every city and place where He was about to go. ‡

<sup>2</sup> He was saying to them, “The harvest is abundant [for there are many who need to hear the good news about salvation], but the workers [those available to proclaim the message of salvation] are few. Therefore, [prayerfully] ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Do not carry a money belt, a provision bag, or [extra] sandals; and do not greet anyone along the way [who would delay you]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace [that is, a blessing of well-being and prosperity, the favor of God] to this house.’ ‡

<sup>6</sup> “And if anyone of peace is there [someone who is sweet-spirited and hospitable], your [blessing of] peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.

<sup>8</sup> “Whenever you go into a city and they welcome you, eat what is set before you;

<sup>9</sup> and heal those in it who are sick [authenticating your message], and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> “But whatever city you enter and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,

<sup>11</sup> ‘Even the dust of your city which clings to our feet we wipe off in protest against you [breaking all ties]; yet understand this, that the kingdom of God has come near [and you rejected it].’ ‡

<sup>12</sup> “I tell you, it will be more bearable in that day [of judgment] for Sodom than for that city.  [Gen 19:24–28. ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented and changed their minds long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes [to show deep regret for sin]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “However, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.

<sup>15</sup> “And you, Capernaum, will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will descend to Hades (the realm of the dead). ‡

<sup>16</sup>“The one who listens to you listens to Me; and the one who rejects you rejects Me; and the one who rejects Me rejects Him [My heavenly Father] who sent Me.” ‡

The Joyous Results

<sup>18</sup>He said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like [a flash of] lightning. ‡

<sup>19</sup>“Listen carefully: I have given you authority [that you now possess] to tread on serpents and scorpions, and [the ability to exercise authority] over all the power of the enemy (Satan); and nothing will [in any way] harm you. ‡

<sup>20</sup>“Nevertheless do not rejoice at this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are recorded in heaven.”  [Ex 32:32 ; Ps 69:28 ; Dan 12:1 ; Rev 3:5 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> In that very hour He was overjoyed and rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and He said, “I praise You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things [relating to salvation] from the wise and intelligent, and have revealed them to infants [the childlike and untaught]. Yes, Father, for this way was [Your gracious will and choice, and was] well-pleasing in Your sight. ‡

<sup>22</sup>“All things have been transferred and turned over to Me by My Father and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then turning to His disciples, Jesus said privately, “Blessed [joyful, spiritually enlightened, and favored by God] are the eyes which see what you see,  [Matt 13:16 , 17 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> for I say to you that many prophets and kings longed to see what you see, and they did not see it; and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?”

<sup>27</sup> And he replied, “YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART , AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL , AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH , AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND ; AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF .”  [Lev 19:18; Deut 6:5 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to him, “You have answered correctly; DO THIS habitually AND YOU WILL LIVE .”  [Lev 18:5; Ezek 20:11; Matt 19:17 ] ‡

<sup>29</sup> But he, wishing to justify and vindicate himself, asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” ‡

Parable of the Good Samaritan

<sup>30</sup> Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he encountered robbers, who stripped him of his clothes [and belongings], beat him, and went their way [unconcerned], leaving him half dead.

<sup>31</sup> “Now by coincidence a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Likewise a Levite also came down to the place and saw him, and passed by on the other side [of the road].

<sup>33</sup> “But a Samaritan (foreigner), who was traveling, came upon him; and when he saw him, he was deeply moved with compassion [for him], ‡

<sup>34</sup> and went to him and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them [to soothe and disinfect the injuries]; and he put him on his own pack-animal, and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

<sup>35</sup> “On the next day he took out two denarii (two days’ wages) and gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I return.’

<sup>36</sup> “Which of these three do you think proved himself a neighbor to the man who encountered the robbers?”

<sup>37</sup> He answered, “The one who showed compassion and mercy to him.” Then Jesus said to him, “Go and constantly do the same.”

Martha and Mary

<sup>39</sup> She had a sister named Mary, who seated herself at the Lord’s feet and was continually listening to His teaching. ‡

<sup>40</sup> But Martha was very busy and distracted with all of her serving responsibilities; and she approached Him and said, “Lord, is it of no concern to You that my sister has left me to do the serving alone? Tell her to help me and do her part.”

<sup>41</sup> But the Lord replied to her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and bothered and anxious about so many things;

Luke 11

Instruction about Prayer

<sup>1</sup> IT HAPPENED that while Jesus was praying in a certain place, after He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray just as John also taught his disciples.”

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, ‡

“When you pray, say:

‘Father, hallowed be Your name.

Your kingdom come.

<sup>3</sup> ‘Give us each day our daily bread.

<sup>4</sup>. ‘And forgive us our sins,

For we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us
[who has offended or wronged us].

And lead us not into temptation [ but rescue us from evil ]. ”

Parable of Persistence

<sup>5</sup> Then He said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and goes to him at midnight and says, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves [of bread];

<sup>6</sup> for a friend of mine who is on a journey has just come to visit me, and I have nothing to serve him’;

<sup>7</sup> and from inside he answers, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been shut and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything. ’

<sup>8</sup> “I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything just because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence and boldness he will get up and give him whatever he needs. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “So I say to you, ask and keep on asking, and it will be given to you; seek and keep on seeking, and you will find; knock and keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you.  [Matt 7:7–11 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> “For everyone who keeps on asking [persistently], receives; and he who keeps on seeking [persistently], finds; and to him who keeps on knocking [persistently], the door will be opened.

<sup>11</sup> “What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish? ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

<sup>13</sup> “If you, then, being evil [that is, sinful by nature], know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask and continue to ask Him!”

Pharisees' Blasphemy

<sup>14</sup> And [at another time] Jesus was casting out a demon, and it was [controlling a man so as to make him] mute; when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke. And the crowds were awed.  [Matt 12:22–24 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> But He, well aware of their thoughts and purpose, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is doomed to destruction; and a house divided against itself falls. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand and continue to survive? For you are saying that I drive out demons by [the power of] Beelzebul.

<sup>19</sup> “Now if I drive out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons [the Jewish exorcists] drive them out? For this reason they will be your judges.

<sup>20</sup> “But if I drive out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has already come upon you. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “But when someone stronger than he attacks and overpowers him, he robs him of all his armor on which he had relied and divides his [goods as] spoil. ‡

23 “He who is not with Me [believing in Me as Lord and Savior] is against Me [there is no impartial position]; and he who does not gather with Me [assisting in My ministry], scatters. ‡

24 “When the unclean spirit comes out of a person, it roams through waterless places in search [of a place] of rest; and not finding any, it says, ‘I will go back to my house (person) from which I came.’ ‡

25 “And when it comes, it finds the place swept and put in order.

26 “Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in [the person] and live there; and the last state of that person becomes worse than the first.” ‡

27 Now while Jesus was saying these things, one of the women in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “Blessed (happy, favored by God) is the womb that gave birth to You and the breasts at which You nursed!” ‡

28 But He said, “On the contrary, blessed (happy, favored by God) are those who hear the word of God and continually observe it.” ‡

The Sign of Jonah

29 Now as the crowds were increasing [in number], He began to say, “This [present] generation is a wicked generation; it seeks a sign (attesting miracle), but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah [the prophet].  [Matt 12:39–42. ] ‡

30 “For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so will the Son of Man also be [a sign] to this generation.  [Jon 3:4–10. ] ‡

31 “The Queen of the South (the kingdom of Sheba) will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and look, something greater than Solomon is here.  [1 Kin 10:1–13; 2 Chr 9:1–12. ] ‡

32 “The men of Nineveh will stand up [as witnesses] at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and look, something greater than Jonah is here.  [Jon 3:5. ] ‡

33 “No one lights a lamp and then puts it in a cellar nor under a basket [hiding the light], but [instead it is put] on the lampstand, so that those who come in may see the light.  [Matt 5:15; Mark 4:21; Luke 8:16. ] ‡

34 “The eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is clear [spiritually perceptive, focused on God], your whole body also is full of light [benefiting from God's precepts]. But when it is bad [spiritually blind], your body also is full of darkness [devoid of God's word]. ‡

<sup>35</sup> "Be careful, therefore, that the light that is in you is not darkness.

36 "So if your whole body is illuminated, with no dark part, it will be entirely bright [with light], as when the lamp gives you light with its bright rays."

Woes upon the Pharisees

<sup>37</sup> Now after Jesus had spoken, a Pharisee asked Him to have lunch with him. He went in [the Pharisee's home] and reclined at the table [without ceremonially washing His hands].

<sup>38</sup> The Pharisee noticed this and was surprised that Jesus did not first ceremonially wash before the meal. ‡

39 But the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and plate [as required by tradition]; but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. ‡

<sup>40</sup> "You foolish ones [acting without reflection or intelligence]! Did not He who made the outside make the inside also?

<sup>41</sup> "But give that which is within as charity [that is, acts of mercy and compassion, not as a public display, but as an expression of your faithfulness to God], and then indeed all things are clean for you. ‡

42 "But woe (judgment is coming) to you Pharisees, because you [self-righteously] tithe mint and rue and every [little] garden herb [tending to all the minutiae], and yet disregard and neglect justice and the love of God; but these are the things you should have done, without neglecting the others. [Lev 27:30; Mic 6:8] ‡

<sup>43</sup> "Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the best seats in the synagogues and to be respectfully greeted in the market places. ‡

<sup>45</sup> One of the lawyers [an expert in the Mosaic Law] answered Him, "Teacher, by saying this, You insult us too!"

46 But He said, "Woe to you lawyers as well, because you weigh men down with burdens [man-made rules, unreasonable requirements] which are hard to bear, and you yourselves will not even touch the burdens with one of your fingers [to lighten the load]. ‡

<sup>48</sup> “So you are witnesses and approve the deeds of your fathers, because they [actually] killed them, and you repair or build their tombs.

<sup>49</sup> “For this reason also the wisdom of God said [in the Scriptures], ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will put to death and some they will persecute,’‡

<sup>50</sup> so that charges may be brought against this generation [holding them responsible] for the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world,

<sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah [the priest], who was murdered between the altar and the house of God. Yes, I tell you, charges will be brought against this generation.’  [Gen 4:8; 2 Chr 24:20, 21; Zech 1:1; Ma 23:35.]‡

<sup>52</sup> “Woe to you lawyers, because you have taken away the key to knowledge (scriptural truth). You yourselves did not enter, and you held back those who were entering [by your flawed interpretation of God’s word and your man-made tradition].”  [Matt 23:13.]‡

<sup>53</sup> When He left there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile [toward Him] and to interrogate Him on many subjects,

Luke 12

God Knows and Cares

<sup>1</sup> IN THE meantime, after so many thousands of the people had gathered that they were stepping on one another, Jesus began speaking first of all to His disciples, “Be continually on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees [that is, their pervasive, corrupting influence and teaching], which is hypocrisy [producing self-righteousness].‡

<sup>2</sup> “But there is nothing [so carefully] concealed that it will not be revealed, nor so hidden that it will not be made known.  [Matt 10:26–33; Mark 4:22.]‡

<sup>3</sup> “For that reason, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed on the housetops.

<sup>4</sup> “I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that have nothing more than they can do. ‡

5 “But I will point out to you whom you should fear: fear the One who, after He has killed, has authority and power to hurl [you] into hell; yes, I say to you, [stand in great awe of God and] fear Him!

6 “Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins? Yet not one of them has [ever] been forgotten in the presence of God.

7 “Indeed the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not be afraid; you are far more valuable than many sparrows.

8 “I say to you, whoever declares openly and confesses Me before men [speaking freely of Me as his Lord], the Son of Man also will declare openly and confess him [as one of His own] before the angels of God. ‡

9 “But he who denies Me before men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God.

10 “And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit [that is, whoever intentionally discredits the Holy Spirit by attributing the authenticating miracles done by Me to Satan], it will not be forgiven him [for him there is no forgiveness].  [Matt 12:31; Mark 3:28–30 ] ‡

11 “When they bring you before the synagogues and the magistrates and the authorities, do not be worried about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say; ‡

12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.”

Covetousness Denounced

13 Someone from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.”

14 But He said to him, “Man, who appointed Me a judge or an arbitrator over [the two of] you?” ‡

15 Then He said to them, “Watch out and guard yourselves against every form of greed; for not even when one has an overflowing abundance does his life consist of nor is it derived from his possessions.” ‡

Parable of the Wealthy Fool

16 Then He told them a parable, saying, “There was a rich man whose land was very fertile and productive.

<sup>17</sup> “And he began thinking to himself, ‘What shall I do, since I have no place [large enough in which] to store my crops?’

<sup>18</sup> Then he said, ‘This is what I will do: I will tear down my storehouses and build larger ones, and I will store all my grain and my goods there.

<sup>19</sup> ‘And I will say to my soul, “Soul, you have many good things stored up, [enough] for many years; rest and relax, eat, drink and be merry (celebrate continually).”’ ‡

<sup>20</sup> “But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your soul is required of you; and now who will own all the things you have prepared?’  [Job 27:8; Jer 17:11] ‡

<sup>21</sup> “So it is for the one who continues to store up and hoard possessions for himself, and is not rich [in his relationship] toward God.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to His disciples, “For this reason I tell you, do not worry about your life, as to what you will eat; or about your body, as to what you will wear.  [Matt 6:25–33] ‡

<sup>23</sup> “For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes.

<sup>25</sup> “And which of you by worrying can add one hour to his life’s span?

<sup>26</sup> “So if you are not even able to do a very little thing [such as that], why are you worried about the rest?

<sup>27</sup> “Consider the lilies and wildflowers, how they grow [in the open field]. They neither labor nor spin [wool to make clothing]; yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory and splendor dressed himself like one of these.  [1 Kin 10:4–7]

<sup>28</sup> “But if this is how God clothes the grass which is in the field today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you? You of little faith!

<sup>29</sup> “So as for you, do not seek what you will eat and what you will drink; nor have an anxious and unsettled mind.

<sup>30</sup> For all the [pagan] nations of the world greedily seek these things; and your [heavenly] Father [already] knows that you need them.

<sup>31</sup> “But [strive for and actively] seek His kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well. ‡

pleasure to give you the kingdom. ‡

33. “Sell your possessions (show compassion) and give [donations] to the poor. Provide money belts for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing and inexhaustible treasure in the heavens, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. ‡

34. “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Be in Readiness

35 “Be dressed and ready for active service, and keep your lamps continuously burning. ‡

36 “Be like men who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks they may immediately open the door for him.

37 “Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) are those servants whom the master finds awake and watching when he arrives. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he will prepare himself to serve, and will have them recline at the table, and will come and wait on them. ‡

38. “Whether he comes in the second watch (before midnight), or even in the third (after midnight), and finds them so [prepared and ready], blessed are those servants .

39 “But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what time the thief was coming, he [would have been awake and alert, and] would not have allowed his house to be broken into.  [Matt 24:43, 44. ] ‡

40 “You too, be continually ready; because the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not expect.” ‡

41. Peter said, “Lord, are You addressing this parable to us [disciples], or to everyone else as well?”

Parable of the Faithful Steward

42 The Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and wise steward [of the estate], whom his master will put in charge over his household, to give his servants their portion of food at the proper time?  [Matt 24:45–51 ] ‡

43 “Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is that servant whom his master finds so doing when he arrives.

44 “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. ‡

45 “But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My master is taking his time in coming,’ and begins to beat the servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk, ‡

46 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

47 “And that servant who knew his master’s will, and yet did not get ready or act in accord with his will, will be beaten with many lashes [of the whip], ‡

48 but the one who did not know it and did things worthy of a beating, will receive only a few [lashes]. From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and to whom they entrusted much, of him they will ask all the more.  [Num 15:29, 30; Deut 25:2, 3 ] ‡

Christ Divides Men

49 “I have come to cast fire (judgment) on the earth; and how I wish that it were already kindled! ‡

50 “I have a baptism [of great suffering] with which to be baptized, and how [greatly] I am distressed until it is accomplished! ‡

51 “Do you suppose that I came to grant peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division [between believers and unbelievers];  [Matt 10:34–36 ] ‡

52 for from now on five in one household will be divided [over Me], three against two and two against three. ‡

53 “They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”  [Mic 7:6 ]

54 He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, ‘It is going to rain,’ and that is how it turns out. ‡

55 “And when [you see that] a south wind is blowing, you say, ‘It will be a hot day,’ and it happens.

56 “You hypocrites (play-actors, pretenders)! You know how to analyze and intelligently interpret the appearance of the earth and sky [to forecast the weather], but why do you not intelligently interpret this present time?

57 “And why do you not even on your own initiative judge what is right?

58 “For while you are going with your opponent [at law] to appear before a magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle, so that he does not drag you before the judge, and the judge does not [rule against you and] turn you over to the officer, and the officer does not throw you into prison.  [Matt 5:25, 26 ] ‡

<sup>59</sup> “I say to you, you [absolutely] will not get out of there until you have paid the very last cent.”

Luke 13

Call to Repent

<sup>1</sup> JUST AT that time some people came who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate [the governor] had mixed with their sacrifices.

<sup>2</sup> Jesus replied to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans because they have suffered in this way?

<sup>3</sup> “I tell you, no; but unless you repent [change your old way of thinking, turn from your sinful ways and live changed lives], you will all likewise perish.

<sup>4</sup> “Or do you assume that those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed were worse sinners than all the others who live in Jerusalem?

<sup>5</sup> “I tell you, no; but unless you repent [change your old way of thinking, turn from your sinful ways and live changed lives], you will all likewise perish.”

Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>6</sup> Then He began telling them this parable: “A certain man had a fig tree that had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it, but did not find any; ‡

<sup>7</sup> so he said to the vineyard-keeper, ‘For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and have found none. Cut it down! Why does it even use up the ground [depleting the soil and blocking the sunlight]?’

<sup>8</sup> “But he replied to him, ‘Let it alone, sir, [just] one more year until I dig around it and put in fertilizer;

<sup>9</sup> and if it bears fruit after this, fine; but if not, cut it down.’ ”

Healing on the Sabbath

<sup>10</sup> Now Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

<sup>11</sup> And there was a woman who for eighteen years had had an illness caused by a spirit (demon). She was bent double, and could not straighten up at all.

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are released from your illness.”

<sup>13</sup> Then He laid His hands on her; and immediately she stood erect again and she began glorifying and praising God. ‡

<sup>14</sup> But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, began saying to the crowd in response, “There are six days in which work ought to be done; so come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.”  [Ex 20:9, 10.] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “And this woman, a daughter (descendant) of Abraham whom Satan has bound for eighteen long years, should she not have been released from this bond on the Sabbath day?” ‡

<sup>17</sup> As He was saying this, all His opponents were being humiliated; and the entire crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things that were being done by Him.

Parables of Mustard Seed and Leaven

<sup>18</sup> So this led Him to say, “What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it?  [Matt 13:31, 32; Mark 4:30–32] ‡

<sup>19</sup> “It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his own garden; and it grew and became a tree, and THE BIRDS OF THE SKY FOUND SHELTER and NESTED IN ITS BRANCHES .”  [Ezek 17:23; Dan 4:12.]

<sup>20</sup> And again He said, “To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?

<sup>21</sup> “It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three peck measures of flour until it was all leavened.”  [Matt 13:33.]

Teaching in the Villages

<sup>23</sup> And someone asked Him, “Lord, will only a few be saved [from the penalties of the last judgment]?” And He said to them,

<sup>24</sup> “Strive to enter through the narrow door [force aside unbelief and the attractions of sin]; for many, I tell you, will try to enter [by their own works] and will not be able.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Once the head of the house gets up and closes the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door [again and again], saying, ‘Lord, open to us!’ then He will answer you, ‘I do not know where you are from [for you are not of My household].’” ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets’;

<sup>27</sup> but He will say to you, ‘I do not know where you are from; DEPART FROM M E , ALL YOU EVILDOERS !’  [Ps 6:8 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> “In that place there will be weeping [in sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [in distress and anger] when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being thrown out and driven away.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> “And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and they will sit down [and feast at the table] in the kingdom of God.

<sup>30</sup> “And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> At that very hour some Pharisees came up and said to Him, “Leave and go away from here, because Herod [Antipas] wants to kill You.”

<sup>32</sup> And He said to them, “Go and tell that fox [that sly, cowardly man], ‘Listen carefully: I cast out demons and perform healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I reach My goal.’” ‡

<sup>33</sup> “Nevertheless I must travel on today and tomorrow and the day after that —for it cannot be that a prophet would die outside of Jerusalem.

<sup>34</sup> “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones [to death] those [messengers] who are sent to her [by God]! How often I have wanted to gather your children together [around Me], just as a hen gathers her young under her wings, but you were not willing!  [Matt 23:37–39 ] ‡

<sup>35</sup> “Listen carefully: your house is left to you desolate [abandoned by God and destitute of His protection]; and I say to you, you will not see Me until the time comes when you say, ‘BLESSED [to be celebrated with praise] IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE L ORD !’ ”  [Ps 118:26 ; Jer 22:5 ] ‡

Luke 14

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>2</sup> And there in front of Him was a man who had dropsy (extreme swelling).

<sup>3</sup> And Jesus asked the lawyers and the Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> But they kept silent. Then He took hold of the man and healed him, and sent him on his way.

<sup>5</sup> Then He said to them, “Which one of you, having a son or an ox that falls into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?” ‡

<sup>6</sup> And they were unable to reply to this.

Parable of the Guests

<sup>7</sup> Now Jesus began telling a parable to the invited guests when He noticed how they had been selecting the places of honor at the table, saying to them,

<sup>8</sup> “When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down [to eat] at the place of honor, since a more distinguished person than you may have been invited by the host,  [Prov 25:6 , 7 ]

<sup>9</sup> and he who invited both of you will come and say to you, ‘Give this man your place,’ and then, in disgrace you proceed to take the last place.

<sup>10</sup> “But when you are invited, go and sit down [to eat] at the last place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher’; and then you will be honored in the presence of all who are at the table with you. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled [before others], and he who habitually humbles himself (keeps a realistic self-view) will be exalted.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Jesus also went on to say to the one who had invited Him, “When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or wealthy neighbors, otherwise they may also invite you in return and that will be your repayment.

<sup>13</sup> “But when you give a banquet or a reception, invite the poor, the disabled, the lame, and the blind, ‡

<sup>14</sup> and you will be blessed because they cannot repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous (the just, the upright).”

<sup>15</sup> When one of those who were reclining at the table with Him heard this, he said to Him, “Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is he who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!” ‡

Parable of the Dinner

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus said to him, “A man was giving a big dinner, and he invited many guests; ‡

<sup>17</sup> and at the dinner hour he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, because everything is ready now.’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But they all alike began to make excuses. The first one said to him, ‘I have purchased a piece of land and I have to go out and see it; please consider me excused.’

<sup>19</sup> “Another one said, ‘I have purchased five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please consider me excused.’

<sup>20</sup> “And another said, ‘I have [recently] married a wife, and for that reason I am unable to come.’  [Deut 24:5 ]

<sup>21</sup> “So the servant came back and reported this to his master. Then [his master,] the head of the household, became angry [at the rejections of his invitation] and said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and the lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and the disabled and the blind and the lame.’

<sup>22</sup> “And the servant [after returning] said, ‘Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.’

<sup>23</sup> “Then the master told the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and along the hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled [with guests].

<sup>24</sup> ‘For I tell you, not one of those who were invited [and declined] will taste my dinner.’ ” ‡

Discipleship Tested

<sup>25</sup> Now large crowds were going along with Jesus; and He turned and said to them,

<sup>26</sup> “If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life [in the sense of indifference to or relative disregard for them in comparison with his attitude toward God]—he cannot be My disciple. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “Whoever does not carry his own cross [expressing a willingness to endure whatever may come] and follow after Me [believing in Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me] cannot be My disciple.”‡

<sup>28</sup> “For which one of you, when he wants to build a watchtower [for his guards], does not first sit down and calculate the cost, to see if he has enough to finish it?”‡

<sup>29</sup> “Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is unable to finish [the building], all who see it will begin to ridicule him,

<sup>31</sup> “Or what king, when he sets out to meet another king in battle, will not first sit down and consider whether he is strong enough with ten thousand men to encounter the one who is coming against him with twenty thousand?

<sup>32</sup> “Or else [if he feels he is not powerful enough], while the other [king] is still a far distance away, he sends an envoy and asks for terms of peace.

<sup>33</sup> “So then, none of you can be My disciple who does not [carefully consider the cost and then for My sake] give up all his own possessions.

<sup>34</sup> “Therefore, salt is good; but if salt has become tasteless, with what will it be seasoned?”‡

<sup>35</sup> “It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; it is thrown away. He who has ears to hear, let him hear and heed My words.”

Luke 15

The Lost Sheep

<sup>1</sup> NOW ALL the tax collectors and sinners [including non-observant Jews] were coming near Jesus to listen to Him.‡

<sup>2</sup> Both the Pharisees and the scribes began muttering and complaining, saying, “This man accepts and welcomes sinners and eats with them.”‡

<sup>3</sup> So He told them this parable:

<sup>4</sup> “What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one which is lost, [searching] until he finds it?  [Matt 18:12–14 ]‡

<sup>5</sup> “And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

<sup>6</sup> “And when he gets home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my lost sheep!’‡

7—“I tell you, in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance. ‡

The Lost Coin

8—“Or what woman, if she has ten silver coins [each one equal to a day’s wages] and loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it?

9 “And when she has found it, she calls together her [women] friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, because I found the lost coin!’

10 “In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents [that is, changes his inner self—his old way of thinking, regrets past sins, lives his life in a way that proves repentance; and seeks God’s purpose for his life].”

The Prodigal Son

11 Then He said, “A certain man had two sons.

12 “The younger of them [inappropriately] said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that falls to me.’ So he divided the estate between them.  [Deut 21:15–17 ] ‡

13 “A few days later, the younger son gathered together everything [that he had] and traveled to a distant country, and there he wasted his fortune in reckless and immoral living.

14 “Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred in that country, and he began to do without and be in need.

15 “So he went and forced himself on one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.

16 “He would have gladly eaten the [carob] pods that the pigs were eating [but they could not satisfy his hunger], and no one was giving anything to him.  [Jer 30:14 ]

17 “But when he [finally] came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired men have more than enough food, while I am dying here of hunger!

18 ‘I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight.

<sup>19</sup> “I am no longer worthy to be called your son; [just] treat me like one of your hired men.” ’

<sup>20</sup> “So he got up and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with compassion for him, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. †

<sup>21</sup> “And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> “But the father said to his servants, ‘Quickly bring out the best robe [for the guest of honor] and put it on him; and give him a ring for his hand, and sandals for his feet.  [Gen 41:42; Zech 3:4 ]

<sup>23</sup> ‘And bring the fattened calf and slaughter it, and let us [invite everyone and] feast and celebrate;

<sup>24</sup> for this son of mine was [as good as] dead and is alive again; he was lost and has been found.’ So they began to celebrate. †

<sup>25</sup> “Now his older son was in the field; and when he returned and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

<sup>26</sup> “So he summoned one of the servants and began asking what this [celebration] meant.

<sup>27</sup> “And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him back safe and sound.’

<sup>28</sup> “But the elder brother became angry and deeply resentful and was not willing to go in; and his father came out and began pleading with him.

<sup>29</sup> “But he said to his father, ‘Look! These many years I have served you, and I have never neglected or disobeyed your command. Yet you have never given me [so much as] a young goat, so that I might celebrate with my friends;

<sup>30</sup> but when this [other] son of yours arrived, who has devoured your estate with immoral women, you slaughtered that fattened calf for him!’

<sup>31</sup> “The father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

<sup>32</sup> ‘But it was fitting to celebrate and rejoice, for this brother of yours was [as good as] dead and has begun to live. He was lost and has been found.’ ” †

Luke 16

The Unjust Steward (Manager)

<sup>1</sup> NOW JESUS was also saying to the disciples, “There was a certain rich man who had a manager [of his estate], and accusations [against this man] were brought to him, that this man was squandering his [master’s] possessions. *Parables of Jesus*

<sup>2</sup> “So he called him and said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management [of my affairs], for you can no longer be [my] manager.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> “The manager [of the estate] said to himself, ‘What will I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig [for a living], and I am ashamed to beg.

<sup>4</sup> ‘I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the management, people [who are my master’s debtors] will welcome me into their homes.’

<sup>5</sup> “So he summoned his master’s debtors one by one, and he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

<sup>6</sup> “He said, ‘A hundred measures of [olive] oil.’ And he said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

<sup>7</sup> “Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

<sup>8</sup> “And his master commended the unjust manager [not for his misdeeds, but] because he had acted shrewdly [by preparing for his future unemployment]; for the sons of this age [the non-believers] are shrewder in relation to their own kind [that is, to the ways of the secular world] than are the sons of light [the believers]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “And I tell you [learn from this], make friends for yourselves [for eternity] by means of the wealth of unrighteousness [that is, use material resources as a way to further the work of God], so that when it runs out, they will welcome you into the eternal dwellings. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “He who is faithful in a very little thing is also faithful in much; and he who is dishonest in a very little thing is also dishonest in much. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore if you have not been faithful in the use of earthly wealth, who will entrust the true riches to you?

<sup>12</sup> “And if you have not been faithful in the use of that [earthly wealth] which belongs to another [whether God or man, and of which you are a trustee], who will give you that which is your own?

<sup>13</sup> “No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stand devotedly by the one and despise the other.

You cannot serve both God and mammon [that is, your earthly possessions or anything else you trust in and rely on instead of God].” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and were sneering and ridiculing Him. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So He said to them, “You are the ones who declare yourselves just and upright in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts [your thoughts, your desires, your secrets]; for that which is highly esteemed among men is detestable in the sight of God.  [1 Sam 16:7; Prov 21:2 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “The Law and the [writings of the] Prophets were proclaimed until John; since then the gospel of the kingdom of God has been and continues to be preached, and everyone tries forcefully to go into it. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Yet it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for a single stroke of a letter of the Law to fail and become void. ‡

The Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19</sup> “Now there was a certain rich man who was habitually dressed in expensive purple and fine linen, and celebrated and lived joyously in splendor every day.

<sup>21</sup> “He [eagerly] longed to eat the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. Besides, even the dogs were coming and licking his sores.

<sup>22</sup> “Now it happened that the poor man died and his spirit was carried away by the angels to Abraham’s bosom (paradise); and the rich man also died and was buried.

<sup>23</sup> “In Hades (the realm of the dead), being in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away and Lazarus in his bosom (paradise).

<sup>24</sup> “And he cried out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus so that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in severe agony in this flame.’ ‡

<sup>25</sup> “But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things [all the comforts and delights], and Lazarus likewise bad things [all the discomforts and distresses]; but now he is comforted here [in paradise], while you are in severe agony.‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘And besides all this, between us and you [people] a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to come over from here to you will not be able, and none may cross over from there to us.’

<sup>27</sup> “So the rich man said, ‘Then, father [Abraham], I beg you to send Lazarus to my father’s house—

<sup>28</sup> for I have five brothers—in order that he may solemnly warn them and witness to them, so that they too will not come to this place of torment.’

<sup>29</sup>.“But Abraham said, ‘They have [the Scriptures given by] Moses and the [writings of the] Prophets; let them listen to them.’‡

<sup>30</sup> “He replied, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent [they will change their old way of thinking and seek God and His righteousness].’

<sup>31</sup> “And he said to him, ‘If they do not listen to [the messages of] Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.’ ”‡

Luke 17

Instructions

<sup>1</sup> JESUS SAID to His disciples, “Stumbling blocks [temptations and traps set to lure one to sin] are sure to come, but woe (judgment is coming) to him through whom they come! [Matt 18:7] ‡

<sup>2</sup> “It would be better for him if a millstone [as large as one turned by a donkey] were hung around his neck and he were hurled into the sea, than for him to cause one of these little ones to stumble [in sin and lose faith]. [Matt 18:6; Mark 9:42] ”

<sup>3</sup> “Pay attention and always be on guard [looking out for one another]! If your brother sins and disregards God’s precepts, solemnly warn him; and if he repents and changes, forgive him. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Even if he sins against you seven times a day, and returns to you seven times and says, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him [that is, give up resentment and consider the offense recalled and annulled].”

<sup>5</sup> The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith [our ability to confidently trust in God and in His power].”

<sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, “If you have [confident, abiding] faith in God [even as small] as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree [which has very strong roots], ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea’; and [if the request was in agreement with the will of God] it would have obeyed you. [Matt 17:20; Mark 11:23; 1 John 5:14] ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Which of you who has a servant plowing or tending sheep will say to him when he comes in from the field, ‘Come at once and sit down to eat?’

<sup>8</sup> “Will he not instead say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat, and appropriately clothe yourself [for service] and serve me while I eat and drink; then afterward you may eat and drink?’ ‡

<sup>9</sup> “He does not thank the servant just because he did what he was ordered to do, does he?

<sup>10</sup> “So you too, when you have done everything that was assigned and commanded you, say, ‘We are unworthy servants [undeserving of praise or a reward, for we have not gone beyond our obligation]; we have merely done what we ought to do.’ ” ‡

Ten Lepers Cleansed

<sup>12</sup> As He entered a village, He was met by ten lepers who stood at a distance; ‡

<sup>13</sup> and they raised their voices and called out, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

<sup>14</sup> When He saw them, He said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were [miraculously] healed and made clean. [Lev 14:2–32.] ‡

<sup>15</sup> One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying and praising and honoring God with a loud voice;

<sup>16</sup> and he lay face downward at Jesus’ feet, thanking Him [over and over]. He was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten [of you] cleansed? Where are the [other] nine?

<sup>18</sup> “Was there no one found to return and to give thanks and praise to God, except this foreigner?”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to him, “Get up and go [on your way]. Your faith [your personal trust in Me and your confidence in God’s power] has restored you to health.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Now having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He replied, “The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed or with a visible display;

<sup>21</sup> nor will people say, ‘Look! Here it is!’ or, ‘There it is!’ For the kingdom of God is among you [because of My presence].” ‡

Second Coming Foretold

<sup>22</sup> Then He said to the disciples, “The time will come when you will long to see [even] one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “They will say to you, ‘Look [the Messiah is] there!’ or ‘Look [He is] here!’ Do not go away [to see Him], and do not run after them. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “But first He must suffer many things and be repudiated and rejected and considered unfit [to be the Messiah] by this [unbelieving] generation. ‡

26 “And just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the time of [the second coming of] the Son of Man: ‡

27 the people were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage, [they were indifferent to God] until the day that Noah went into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.  [Gen 6:5–8; 7:6–24 ]

28 “It was the same as it was in the days of Lot. People were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building [carrying on business as usual, without regard for their sins]; ‡

29 but on the [very] day that Lot left Sodom it rained fire and brimstone (burning sulfur) from heaven and destroyed them all. ‡

30 “It will be just the same on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.  [Gen 18:20–33; 19:24, 25 ] ‡

31 “On that day, whoever is on the housetop, with his belongings in the house, must not come down [and go inside] to take them out; and likewise whoever is in the field must not turn back. ‡

32 “Remember [what happened to] Lot’s wife [when she looked back]!  [Gen 19:26] ‡

33 “Whoever seeks to save his life will [eventually] lose it [through death], and whoever loses his life [in this world] will keep it [from the consequences of sin and separation from God].  [Matt 10:39; 16:25; Mark 8:35; Luke 9:24; John 12:25 ] ‡

34 “I tell you, on that night [when Messiah comes again] there will be two [sleeping] in one bed; the one (the non-believer) will be taken [away in judgment] and the other (the believer) will be left. ‡

35 “There will be two women grinding [at the mill] together; the one (the non-believer) will be taken [away in judgment] and the other (the believer) will be left.

36 [ “Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other will be left.” ]

37 And they asked Him, “Where, Lord?” He answered, “Where the corpse is, there the vultures will be gathered.” ‡

Luke 18

Parables on Prayer

<sup>1</sup> NOW JESUS was telling the disciples a parable to make the point that at all times they ought to pray and not give up and lose heart, ‡

<sup>2</sup> saying, “In a certain city there was a judge who did not fear God and had no respect for man.

<sup>3</sup> “There was a [desperate] widow in that city and she kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice and legal protection from my adversary.’

<sup>4</sup> “For a time he would not; but later he said to himself, ‘Even though I do not fear God nor respect man, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow continues to bother me, I will give her justice and legal protection; otherwise by continually coming she [will be an intolerable annoyance and she] will wear me out.’ ” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says!

<sup>7</sup> “And will not [our just] God defend and avenge His elect [His chosen ones] who cry out to Him day and night? Will He delay [in providing justice] on their behalf? ‡

<sup>8</sup> “I tell you that He will defend and avenge them quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find [this kind of persistent] faith on the earth?” ‡

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

<sup>9</sup> He also told this parable to some people who trusted in themselves and were confident that they were righteous [posing outwardly as upright and in right standing with God], and who viewed others with contempt: ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Two men went up into the temple [enclosure] to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

<sup>11</sup> “The Pharisee stood [ostentatiously] and began praying to himself [in a self-righteous way, saying]: ‘God, I thank You that I am not like the rest of men—swindlers, unjust (dishonest), adulterers—or even like this tax collector. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘I fast twice a week; I pay tithes of all that I get.’

<sup>13</sup> “But the tax collector, standing at a distance, would not even raise his eyes toward heaven, but was striking his chest [in humility and repentance], saying, ‘God, be merciful and gracious to me, the [especially wicked] sinner [that I am]!’

<sup>14</sup> “I tell you, this man went to his home justified [forgiven of the guilt of sin and placed in right standing with God] rather than the other man; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself [forsaking self-righteous pride] will be exalted.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Now they were also bringing their babies to Him, so that He would touch and bless them, and when the disciples noticed it, they began reprimanding them. ‡

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus called them to Himself, saying [to the apostles], “Allow the children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God [with faith and humility] like a child will not enter it at all.” ‡

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is [essentially and morally] good except God alone.

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard this, He said to him, “You still lack one thing; sell everything that you have and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have [abundant] treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me [becoming My disciple, believing and trusting in Me and walking the same path of life that I walk].” ‡

<sup>23</sup> But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was extremely rich.

<sup>24</sup> Jesus looked at him and said, “How difficult it is for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God! ‡

<sup>26</sup> And those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>29</sup> And He said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God, ‡

<sup>30</sup> who will not receive many times as much in this present age and in the age to come, eternal life.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then taking the twelve [disciples] aside, He said to them, “Listen carefully: we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that have been written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled and completed.  [Is 53:1–12 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> “He will be betrayed and handed over to the Gentiles (Roman authorities), and will be mocked and ridiculed and insulted and abused and spit on,  [Is 50:6 ‡ ]

<sup>33</sup> and after they have scourged Him, they will kill Him; and on the third day He will rise [from the dead].”  [Ps 16:10 ]

<sup>34</sup> But the disciples understood none of these things [about the approaching death and resurrection of Jesus]. This statement was hidden from them, and they did not grasp the [meaning of the] things that were said [by Jesus]. ‡

Bartimaeus Receives Sight

<sup>36</sup> Now when he heard a crowd going by, he began to ask what this was [about].

<sup>38</sup> So he shouted out, saying, “Jesus, Son of David (Messiah), have mercy on me!”

<sup>39</sup> Those who were leading the way were sternly telling him to keep quiet; but he screamed all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup> Then Jesus stopped and ordered that the blind man be led to Him; and when he came near, Jesus asked him,

<sup>41</sup> “What do you want Me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, let me regain my sight!”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to him, “Regain your sight; your [personal trust and confident] faith [in Me] has made you well.” ‡

<sup>43</sup> Immediately he regained his sight and began following Jesus, glorifying and praising and honoring God. And all the people, when they saw it, praised God. ‡

Luke 19

Zaccheus Converted

<sup>1</sup> JESUS ENTERED Jericho and was passing through.

<sup>2</sup> And there was a man called Zaccheus; he was a chief tax collector [a superintendent to whom others reported], and he was rich.

<sup>3</sup> Zaccheus was trying to see who Jesus was, but he could not see because of the crowd, for he was short in stature.

<sup>4</sup> So he ran on ahead [of the crowd] and climbed up in a sycamore tree in order to see Him, for He was about to pass through that way.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus reached the place, He looked up and said to him, “Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.”

<sup>6</sup> So Zaccheus hurried and came down, and welcomed Jesus with joy.

<sup>7</sup> When the people saw it, they all began muttering [in discontent], “He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a [notorious] sinner.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Zaccheus stopped and said to the Lord, “See, Lord, I am [now] giving half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone out of anything, I will give back four times as much.”  [Ex 22:1 ; Lev 6:5 ; Num 5:6 , 7 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this household, because he, too, is a [spiritual] son of Abraham; ‡

<sup>10</sup> for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.” ‡

Parable of Money Usage

<sup>11</sup> While they were listening to these things, Jesus went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem, and they assumed that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately [as soon as He reached the city]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> So He said, “A nobleman went to a distant country to obtain for himself a kingdom, and [then] to return. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “So he called ten of his servants, and gave them ten minas [one apiece, each equal to about a hundred days’ wages] and said to them, ‘Do business

[with this] until I return.'

<sup>14</sup> "But his citizens [the residents of his new kingdom] hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to be a king over us.' ‡

<sup>15</sup> "When he returned, after receiving the kingdom, he ordered that these servants, to whom he had given the money, be called to him, that he might find out what business they had done.

<sup>16</sup> "The first one came before him and said, 'Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.'

<sup>17</sup> "And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you proved yourself faithful and trustworthy in a very little thing, you shall [now] have authority over ten cities [in my kingdom].' ‡

<sup>18</sup> "The second one came and said, 'Lord, your mina has made five minas.'

<sup>19</sup> "And he said to him also, 'And you shall take charge over five cities.'

<sup>20</sup> "Then another came and said, 'Lord, here is your mina, which I have kept laid up in a handkerchief [for safekeeping].'

<sup>21</sup> 'I was [always] afraid of you, because you are a stern man; you pick up what you did not lay down and you reap what you did not sow.' ‡

<sup>22</sup> "He said to the servant, 'I will judge and condemn you by your own words, you worthless servant! Did you [really] know that I was a stern man, picking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow?' ‡

<sup>23</sup> 'Then why did you not [at the very least] put my money in a bank? Then on my return, I would have collected it with interest.'

<sup>24</sup> "Then he said to the bystanders, 'Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has the ten minas.'

<sup>25</sup> "And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten minas already!'

<sup>26</sup> "[Jesus explained,] 'I tell you that to everyone who has [because he valued his gifts from God and has used them wisely], more will be given; but from the one who does not have [because he disregarded his gifts from God], even what he has will be taken away.' ‡

<sup>27</sup> "[The king ended by saying,] 'But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them, bring them here and kill them in my presence.' "

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>28</sup> After saying these things, Jesus went on ahead [of them], going up to Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>29</sup> When He approached Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, He sent two of the disciples,  [Matt 21:1–9; Mark 11:1–10; John 12:12–15. ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> saying, “Go into the village ahead of you; there, as you enter, you will find a [donkey’s] colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here.

<sup>31</sup> “If anybody asks you, ‘Why are you untying the colt?’ you will say, ‘The Lord needs it.’”

<sup>36</sup> As He rode along, people were spreading their coats on the road [as an act of homage before a king].  [2 Kin 9:13. ]

<sup>37</sup> As soon as He was approaching [Jerusalem], near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the entire multitude of the disciples [all those who were or claimed to be His followers] began praising God [adoring Him enthusiastically and] joyfully with loud voices for all the miracles and works of power that they had seen,

<sup>38</sup> shouting, ‡

“BLESSED (celebrated, praised) IS THE KING WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!

Peace in heaven and glory (majesty, splendor) in the highest [heaven]!”  [Ps 118:26. ]

<sup>39</sup> Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples [for shouting these Messianic praises].”

<sup>41</sup> As He approached Jerusalem, He saw the city and wept over it [and the spiritual ignorance of its people], ‡

<sup>42</sup> saying, “If [only] you had known on this day [of salvation], even you, the things which make for peace [and on which peace depends]! But now they have been hidden from your eyes.

<sup>43</sup> “For a time [of siege] is coming when your enemies will put up a barricade [with pointed stakes] against you, and surround you [with armies] and hem you in on every side,  [Is 29:3 ; Jer 6:6 ; Ezek 4:2 ] ‡

<sup>44</sup> and they will level you to the ground, you [Jerusalem] and your children within you. They will not leave in you one stone on another, all because you did not [come progressively to] recognize [from observation and personal experience] the time of your visitation [when God was gracious toward you and offered you salvation].” ‡

Traders Driven from the Temple

<sup>45</sup> Jesus went into the temple [enclosure] and began driving out those who were selling,  [Matt 21:12 , 13 ; Mark 11:15–17 ; John 2:13–16 ] ‡

<sup>46</sup> saying to them, “It is written, ‘M Y HOUSE SHALL BE A HOUSE OF PRAYER ’; but you have made it a ROBBERS’ DEN .”  [Is 56:7 ; Jer 7:11 ] ‡

<sup>47</sup> He was teaching day after day in the temple [porches and courts]; but the chief priests and scribes and the leading men among the people were seeking [a way] to put Him to death, ‡

<sup>48</sup> and they could not find anything that they could do, for all the people [stayed close to Him and] were hanging on to every word He said.

Luke 20

Jesus’ Authority Questioned

<sup>1</sup> ON ONE of the days, as Jesus was instructing the people in the temple [area] and preaching the good news (gospel), the chief priests and the scribes along with the elders confronted Him,  [Matt 21:23–27 ; Mark 11:27–33 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> and said to Him, “Tell us by what kind of authority You are doing these things? Or who is the one who gave You this authority?” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, “I will also ask you a question. You tell Me:

<sup>4</sup> “The baptism of John [the Baptist]—was it from heaven [that is, ordained by God] or from men?”

<sup>5</sup> They discussed and debated it among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’”

<sup>6</sup> “But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us to death, for they are firmly convinced that John was a prophet.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So they replied that they did not know from where it came.

<sup>8</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Nor am I telling you by what [kind of] authority I do these things.”

Parable of the Vineyard Owner

<sup>9</sup> Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard and leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time [to another country].  [Is 5:1–7 ; Matt 21:33–46 ; Mark 12:1–12 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> “At harvest time he sent a servant [as his representative] to the tenants, so that they would give him his share of the fruit of the vineyard; but the tenants beat the servant and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>11</sup> “So he again sent another servant; they also beat him and dishonored and treated him disgracefully and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>12</sup> “And he sent yet a third; and this one too they wounded and threw out [of the vineyard].

<sup>13</sup> “Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will have respect for him.’

<sup>14</sup> “But when the tenants saw him, they discussed it among themselves, saying, ‘This [man] is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance will be ours.’

<sup>15</sup> “So they threw the son out of the vineyard and killed him. What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

<sup>16</sup> “He will come and put these tenants to death and will give the vineyard to others.” When the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders heard this, they said, “May it never be!”

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus looked at them and said, “What then is [the meaning of] this that is written: ‡

‘T HE [very] S TONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED ,
THIS BECAME THE CHIEF C ORNERSTONE’ ?  [Ps 118:22 , 23 ]

<sup>18</sup> “Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken and shattered in pieces; and on whomever it falls, it will crush him.”  [Is 8:14 , 15 ; Dan 2:34 , 35 ] ‡

Tribute to Caesar

<sup>19</sup> The scribes and the chief priests tried to [find a way to] arrest Him at that very hour, but they were afraid of the people; because they understood that

He spoke this parable against them.

<sup>20</sup> So they watched [for a chance to trap] Him. They sent spies who pretended to be upright and sincere, in order that they might catch Him in some statement [that they could distort and use against Him], so that they could turn Him over to the control and authority of [Pilate] the governor.  [Matt 22:15–22; Mark 12:13–17 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> They asked Him, “Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and that You show no partiality to anyone, but teach the way of God truthfully.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Is it lawful [according to Jewish law and tradition] for us to pay taxes (tribute money) to Caesar or not?”

<sup>23</sup> But He saw through their trickery and said to them,

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, “Then pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>26</sup> They were not able to seize on anything He said in the presence of the people; and being unnerved at His reply, they were silent.

Is There a Resurrection?

<sup>27</sup> Now some of the Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection) came to Him  [Matt 22:23–33; Mark 12:18–27 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> and they questioned Him, saying, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us [a law that] IF A MAN’S BROTHER DIES , leaving a wife AND NO CHILDREN , HIS BROTHER SHOULD MARRY THE WIFE AND RAISE CHILDREN FOR HIS BROTHER .  [Deut 25:5, 6. ]

<sup>29</sup> “Now there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and died childless.

<sup>30</sup> “And the second,

<sup>31</sup> and the third married her, and in the same way all seven died, leaving no children.

<sup>32</sup> “Finally the woman also died.

<sup>33</sup> “So in the [life after] resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had married her.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “The sons of this [world and present] age marry and [the women] are given in marriage;

<sup>35</sup> but those who are considered worthy to gain that [other world and that future] age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage;

<sup>36</sup>and they cannot die again, because they are [immortal] like the angels (equal to, angel-like). And they are children of God, being participants in the resurrection. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “But [as for the fact] that the dead are raised [from death], even Moses showed, in the passage about the burning bush, when he calls the Lord THE G O OF A BRAHAM , THE G OD OF I SAAC , AND THE G OD OF J ACOB .  [Ex 3:6 ] ‡

<sup>38</sup> “Now He is not the God of the dead, but of the living [so these forefathers will be among the resurrected]; for all live [in a definite relationship] to Him.” ‡

<sup>39</sup> Some of the scribes replied, “Teacher, you have spoken well [so that there is no room for blame].”

<sup>40</sup> And they did not dare to question Him further about anything [because of the wisdom He displayed in His answers].

<sup>41</sup> Then He said to them, “How is it that people say that the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) is David’s son?  [Matt 22:41–46 ; Mark 12:35–37 ] ‡

<sup>42</sup> “For David himself says in the book of Psalms, ‡

‘T HE L ORD (the Father) SAID TO MY L ORD (the Son, the Messiah),

“S IT AT M Y RIGHT HAND ,

<sup>43</sup> U NTIL I MAKE Y OUR ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR Y OUR FEET .” ’  [Ps 110:1 ]

<sup>44</sup> “So David calls Him (the Son) ‘Lord,’ and how then is He David’s son?”

Luke 21

The Widow’s Gift

<sup>1</sup> LOOKING UP, He saw the rich people putting their gifts into the treasury.  [Mark 12:41–44 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> He said, “Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in [proportionally] more than all of them; ‡

<sup>4</sup> for they all put in gifts from their abundance; but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on.”

<sup>5</sup> As some were talking about the temple, that it was decorated with beautiful stones and consecrated offerings [of magnificent gifts of gold which were displayed on the walls and hung in the porticoes], He said,  [Matt 24 ; Mark 13 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> “As for all these things which you see, the time will come when there will not be one stone left on another that will not be torn down.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> They asked Him, “Teacher, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to happen?”

<sup>8</sup> He said, “Be careful and see to it that you are not misled; for many will come in My name [appropriating for themselves the name Messiah which belongs to Me alone], saying, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not follow them. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “When you hear of wars and disturbances [civil unrest, revolts, uprisings], do not panic; for these things must take place first, but the end will not come immediately.”

Things to Come

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus told them, “Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom.  [2 Chr 15:6 ; Is 19:2 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “There will be violent earthquakes, and in various places famines and [deadly and devastating] pestilences (plagues, epidemics); and there will be terrible sights and great signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> “But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, turning you over to the synagogues and prisons, and bringing you before kings and governors for My name’s sake.  [Matt 10:19–22 ; Mark 13:11–13 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “This will be a time and an opportunity for you to testify [about Me]. ‡

15 for I will give you [skillful] words and wisdom which none of your opponents will be able to resist or refute. ‡

16 “But you will be betrayed and handed over even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death, ‡

17 and you will be continually hated by everyone because of [your association with] My name. ‡

18 “But not a hair of your head will perish.  [1 Sam 14:45 ] ‡

19 “By your [patient] endurance [empowered by the Holy Spirit] you will gain your souls.

20 “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by [hostile] armies, then understand [with confident assurance] that her complete destruction is near. ‡

21 “At that time, those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those who are inside the city (Jerusalem) must get out, and those who are [out] in the country must not enter the city;

22 for these are days of vengeance [of rendering full justice or satisfaction], so that all things which are written will be fulfilled. ‡

23 “Woe to those women who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For great trouble and anguish will be on the land, and wrath and retribution on this people [Israel]. ‡

24 “And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled (completed).  [Is 63:18; Dan 8:13 ] ‡

The Return of Christ

25 “There will be signs (attesting miracles) in the sun and moon and stars; and on the earth [there will be] distress and anguish among nations, in perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea and the waves,  [Is 13:10; Joel 2:10; Zeph 1:15 ] ‡

26 people fainting from fear and expectation of the [dreadful] things coming on the world; for the [very] powers of the heavens will be shaken. ‡

27 “Then they will see THE S ON OF M AN COMING IN A CLOUD with [transcendent, overwhelming] power [subduing the nations] and with great glory.  [Dan 7:13, 14 ] ‡

28 “Now when these things begin to occur, stand tall and lift up your heads [in joy], because [suffering ends as] your redemption is drawing near.” ‡

Parable of the Fig Tree

29 Then He told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees;  [Matt 24:32 , 33 ; Mark 13:28 , 29 ] ‡

30 as soon as they put out leaves, you see it and know for yourselves that summer is near.

31 “So you too, when you see these things happening, know [without any doubt] that the kingdom of God is near.

32 “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, this generation [those living at that definite period of time preceding the second coming] will not pass away until everything takes place.

33 “Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away. ‡

34 “But be on guard, so that your hearts are not weighed down and depressed with the giddiness of debauchery and the nausea of self-indulgence and the worldly worries of life, and then that day [when the Messiah returns] will not come on you suddenly like a trap; ‡

35 for it will come upon all those who live on the face of all the earth. ‡

36 “But keep alert at all times [be attentive and ready], praying that you may have the strength and ability [to be found worthy and] to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand in the presence of the Son of Man [at His coming].” ‡

37 Now in the daytime Jesus was teaching in [the porches and courts of] the temple, but at night He would go out and spend the night on the mount that is called Olivet. ‡

38 And early in the morning all the people would come to Him in the temple to listen to Him.

Luke 22

Preparing the Passover

1 NOW THE Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was approaching.  [Lev 23:4 , 5 ; Ezek 45:21 ; Matt 26:2–5 ; Mark 14:1 , 2 ] ‡

2 The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to put Him to death; for they were afraid of the people [who listened devotedly to His teaching, and who respected His spiritual wisdom]. ‡

3 Then Satan entered Judas, the one called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve [disciples]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And he went away and discussed with the chief priests and officers how he might betray Him and hand Him over to them.

<sup>6</sup> So he consented, and began looking for a good opportunity to betray Jesus to them [at a time when He was] separated from the crowd [because the people might riot or stop them from seizing Him].

<sup>7</sup> Then came the preparation day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.  [Ex 12:18–20; Deut 16:5–8; Matt 26:17–19; Mark 14:12–16 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us, so that we may eat it.”

<sup>9</sup> They asked Him, “Where do You want us to prepare it?”

<sup>10</sup> He replied, “When you have entered the city, a man carrying an earthen jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house that he enters.

<sup>11</sup> “And say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks, ‘Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?’’

<sup>12</sup> “Then he will show you a large upstairs room, furnished [with carpets and dining couches]; prepare the meal there.”

<sup>13</sup> They left and found it just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

The Lord’s Supper

<sup>14</sup> When the hour [for the meal] had come, Jesus reclined at the table, and the apostles with Him. ‡

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, “I have earnestly wanted to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

<sup>16</sup> for I say to you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He said, “Take this and share it among yourselves;  [Matt 26:26–29; Mark 14:22–25; 1 Cor 11:23–25 ]

<sup>18</sup> for I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine from now on until the kingdom of God comes.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> And when He had taken bread and given thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me.” ‡

20 And in the same way He took the cup after they had eaten, saying, “This cup, which is poured out for you, is the new covenant [ratified] in My blood. ‡

21 “But listen, the hand of the one betraying Me is with Mine on the table.  [Ps 41:9. ] ‡

22 “For indeed, the Son of Man is going as it has been determined; but woe (judgment is coming) to that man by whom He is betrayed and handed over!” ‡

23 And they began to discuss among themselves which one of them it might be who was going to do this. ‡

Who Is Greatest?

24 Now a dispute also arose among them as to which of them was regarded to be the greatest. ‡

25 Jesus said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles have absolute power and lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called ‘Benefactors.’  [Matt 20:25–28; Mark 10:42–45. ] ‡

26 “But it is not to be this way with you; on the contrary, the one who is the greatest among you must become like the youngest [and least privileged], and the [one who is the] leader, like the servant. ‡

27 “For who is the greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at the table? But I am among you as the one who serves. ‡

28 “You are those who have remained and have stood by Me in My trials; ‡

29 and just as My Father has granted Me a kingdom, I grant you [the privilege] ‡

30 that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ‡

31 “Simon, Simon (Peter), listen! Satan has demanded permission to sift [all of] you like grain;  [Job 1:6–12; Amos 9:9. ] ‡

32—but I have prayed [especially] for you [Peter], that your faith [and confidence in Me] may not fail; and you, once you have turned back again [to Me], strengthen and support your brothers [in the faith].” ‡

33 And Peter said to Him, “Lord, I am ready to go with You both to prison and to death!”  [Matt 26:33–35; Mark 14:29–31; John 13:37, 38. ]

34 Jesus said, “I say to you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will [utterly] deny three times that you know Me.” ‡

35 And He said to them, “When I sent you out without a money belt and [provision] bag and [extra] sandals, did you lack anything?” They answered, “Nothing.” ‡

<sup>36</sup> Then He said to them, “But now, he who has a money belt is to take it along, and also his [provision] bag, and he who has no sword is to sell his coat and buy one.

<sup>37</sup> “For I tell you that this [Scripture] which is written must be completed and fulfilled in Me: ‘A ND H E WAS COUNTED WITH THE CRIMINALS ’; for that which refers to Me has its fulfillment [and is settled].”  [Is 53:12] ‡

<sup>38</sup> They said, “Lord, look, here are two swords.” And He said to them, “It is enough.”

The Garden of Gethsemane

<sup>39</sup> And He came out and went, as was His habit, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed Him. ‡

<sup>40</sup> When He arrived at the place [called Gethsemane], He said to them, “Pray continually that you may not fall into temptation.”  [Matt 26:36–46; Mark 14:32–42] ‡

<sup>42</sup> saying, “Father, if You are willing, remove this cup [of divine wrath] from Me; yet not My will, but [always] Yours be done.” ‡

<sup>45</sup> When He rose from prayer, He came to the disciples and found them sleeping from sorrow,

<sup>46</sup> and He said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you may not fall into temptation.” ‡

Judas Betrays Jesus

<sup>47</sup> While He was still speaking, a crowd came, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve [disciples], was leading the way for them. He approached Jesus to kiss Him.  [Matt 26:47–56; Mark 14:43–50; John 18:3–11] ‡

<sup>48</sup> And Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>49</sup> When those who were around Him saw what was about to happen, they said, “Lord, should we strike with the sword?”

<sup>51</sup> But Jesus replied, “Stop! No more of this.” And He touched the ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders [of the Sanhedrin] who had come out against Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against a robber? ‡

<sup>53</sup> “Day after day when I was with you in the temple, you did not lay hands on Me; but this hour and the power and authority of darkness are yours.” ‡

Peter’s Denials

<sup>54</sup> Then they seized Him, and led Him away and brought Him to the [elegant] house of the [Jewish] high priest. And Peter was following at a [safe] distance. ‡

<sup>56</sup> And a servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight and looking intently at him, said, “This man was with Him too.”

<sup>57</sup> But Peter denied it, saying, “Woman, I do not know Him!”

<sup>59</sup> After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, “This man was with Him, for he is a Galilean too.” ‡

<sup>60</sup> But Peter said, “Man, I do not know what you are talking about.” Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

<sup>61</sup> The Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, “Before a rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.” ‡

<sup>62</sup> And he went out and wept bitterly [deeply grieved and distressed].

<sup>64</sup> They blindfolded Him and asked, “Prophesy, who is it that struck You?”

<sup>65</sup> And they were saying many other [evil and slanderous] things against Him, blaspheming [speaking sacrilegiously and abusively about] Him.

Jesus before the Sanhedrin

<sup>66</sup>-When day came, the Council of the elders of the people (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) assembled, both chief priests and scribes; and they led Jesus away to the council chamber, saying, ‡

<sup>67</sup> “If You are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), tell us.” But He said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe [what I say], ‡

<sup>68</sup> and if I ask a question, you will not answer.

<sup>69</sup>“But from now on, THE S ON OF M AN WILL BE SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND of the power OF G OD .”  [Ps 110:1 ] ‡

<sup>70</sup> And they all said, “Are You the Son of God, then?” He replied, “ It is just as you say.” ‡

<sup>71</sup> Then they asked, “What further need of testimony do we have? For we ourselves have heard it from His own mouth.” ‡

Luke 23

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE whole assembly got up and brought Him before Pilate. ‡

<sup>2</sup>-They began to accuse Jesus, asserting, “We found this Man misleading and perverting our nation and forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and claiming that He Himself is Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), a King.”  [Matt 27:11–14; Mark 15:2–5; John 18:29–37 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?” And He answered him, “ It is just as you say.” ‡

<sup>5</sup>-But they were insistent and said, “He stirs up the people [to rebel], teaching throughout Judea, starting from Galilee even as far as here [in Jerusalem].”

<sup>6</sup> When Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.

<sup>7</sup>-And when he learned that He belonged to the jurisdiction of Herod [Antipas, the tetrarch of Galilee], he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. ‡

Jesus before Herod

<sup>8</sup> When Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly pleased. He had wanted to see Him for a long time because of what he had heard about Him, and was hoping to see some [miraculous] sign [even something spectacular] done by Him. ‡

<sup>9</sup> And he questioned Him at some length, but Jesus made no reply.  [Is 53:7 ]

<sup>10</sup> The chief priests and the scribes were standing there, continually accusing Him heatedly.

<sup>11</sup> And Herod with his soldiers, after treating Him with contempt and mocking and ridiculing Him, dressed Him in a gorgeous robe and sent Him back to Pilate.  [Is 53:8. ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> Now that very day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other—before this they had been enemies. ‡

Pilate Seeks Jesus' Release

<sup>13</sup> Pilate summoned the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ‡

<sup>14</sup> and said to them, “You brought this man before me as one who corrupts and incites the people to rebellion. After examining Him before you, I have found no guilt in this Man regarding the charges which you make against Him. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “No, nor has Herod, for he sent Him back to us; and indeed, He has done nothing to deserve death.

<sup>16</sup> “Therefore I will punish Him [to teach Him a lesson] and release Him.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> [ Now he was obligated to release to them one prisoner at the Feast. ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> But they [loudly] shouted out all together, saying, “Away with this Man, and release Barabbas to us!”  [Matt 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15; John 18:39–19:16. ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> (He was one who had been thrown into prison for an insurrection that happened in the city, and for murder.)

<sup>20</sup> Pilate addressed them again, wanting to release Jesus,

<sup>22</sup> A third time he said to them, “Why, what wrong has He done? I have found no guilt [no crime, no offense] in Him demanding death; therefore I will punish Him [to teach Him a lesson] and release Him.”

<sup>23</sup> But they were insistent and unrelenting, demanding with loud voices that Jesus be crucified. And their voices began to prevail and accomplish their purpose.

<sup>25</sup> And he released the man they were asking for who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, but he handed over Jesus to their will.

Simon Bears the Cross

<sup>26</sup> When they led Him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in [to the city] from the country, and placed on him the cross to carry behind Jesus.  [Matt 27:32; Mark 15:21 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> Following Him was a large crowd of the people, including women who were mourning and wailing for Him.

<sup>28</sup> But Jesus, turning toward them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

<sup>29</sup> “For behold, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that have not given birth, and the breasts that have never nursed.’ ‡

<sup>30</sup> “Then they will begin TO SAY TO THE MOUNTAINS , ‘F ALL ON US !’ AND TO TH HILLS , ‘C OVER US !’  [Is 2:19, 20; Hos 10:8; Rev 6:16 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> “For if they do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?” ‡

<sup>32</sup> Two others also, who were criminals, were being led away to be executed with Him.  [Is 53:12 ] ‡

The Crucifixion

<sup>35</sup> Now the people stood by, watching; but even the rulers ridiculed and sneered at Him, saying, “He saved others [from death]; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) of God, His Chosen One.” ‡

<sup>36</sup>The soldiers also mocked Him, coming up to Him and [cruelly] offering Him sour wine,  [Ps 69:21; Matt 27:48; Mark 15:36f; John 19:29, 30 ]

<sup>37</sup> and sarcastically saying, “If you are [really] the King of the Jews, save Yourself [from death]!”

<sup>38</sup> Now there was also an inscription above Him: “THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.” ‡

<sup>39</sup> One of the criminals who had been hanged [on a cross beside Him] kept hurling abuse at Him, saying, “Are You not the Christ? Save Yourself and us [from death]!” ‡

<sup>40</sup> But the other one rebuked him, saying, “Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?

<sup>41</sup> “We are suffering justly, because we are getting what we deserve for what we have done; but this Man has done nothing wrong.”

<sup>42</sup> And he was saying, “Jesus, [please] remember me when You come into Your kingdom!”

<sup>43</sup> Jesus said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise.”  [2 Cor 12:4; Rev 2:7 ]

<sup>44</sup> It was now about the sixth hour (noon), and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.),  [Matt 27:45–56; Mark 15:33–41; John 19:14 ] ‡

<sup>45</sup> because the sun was obscured; and the veil [of the Holy of Holies] of the temple was torn in two [from top to bottom].  [Ex 26:31–35 ] ‡

<sup>46</sup> And Jesus, crying out with a loud voice, said, “Father, INTO Y OUR HANDS I COMMIT M Y SPIRIT !” Having said this, He breathed His last.  [Ps 31:5 ] ‡

<sup>47</sup> Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he began praising and honoring God, saying, “Certainly this Man was innocent.” ‡

<sup>48</sup> All the crowds who had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had happened, began to return [to their homes], beating their breasts [as a sign of mourning or repentance].

<sup>49</sup> And all His acquaintances and the women who had accompanied Him from Galilee were standing at a distance, watching these things. ‡

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>50</sup> A man named Joseph, who was a member of the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), a good and honorable man  [Matt 27:57–61 ; Mark 15:42–47 ; John 19:38–42 ] ‡

<sup>51</sup> (he had not consented to the Council's plan and action) a man from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was waiting for and expecting the kingdom of God; ‡

52.this man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

54.It was the day of preparation [for the Sabbath], and the Sabbath was dawning. ‡

A nd on the Sabbath they rested in accordance with the commandment [forbidding work].  [Ex 12:16 ; 20:10 ]

Luke 24

The Resurrection

2.And they found the [large, circular] stone rolled back from the tomb, ‡

<sup>3</sup> but when they went inside, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ‡

<sup>4</sup> While they were perplexed and wondering about this, suddenly, two men in dazzling clothing stood near them; ‡

<sup>5</sup> and as the women were terrified and were bowing their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why are you looking for the living One among the dead?

<sup>6</sup> “He is not here, but has risen. Remember how He told you, while He was still in Galilee, ‡

<sup>7</sup> saying that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise [from death to life].”  [Ps 16:10 ]

<sup>9</sup> and after returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the eleven [apostles] and to all the rest. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now they were Mary Magdalene and Joanna [the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward] and Mary the mother of James; also the other women with them were telling these things to the apostles. ‡

<sup>11</sup> But their report seemed to them like idle talk and nonsense, and they would not believe them. ‡

<sup>12</sup> But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping [at the small entrance] and looking in, he saw only the linen wrappings; and he went away, wondering about what had happened.  [John 20:3–6 ] ‡

The Road to Emmaus

<sup>13</sup> And then, that very day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem.  [Mark 16:12 ] ‡
Resurrection Appearances

<sup>14</sup> And they were talking with each other about all these things which had taken place.

<sup>19</sup> He asked, “What things?” And they replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet powerful in deed and word in the sight of God and all the people, ‡

<sup>20</sup> and how the chief priests and our rulers handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and crucified Him. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel and set our nation free. Indeed, besides all this, it is the third day since these things happened. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And also some of the women among us shocked us. They were at the tomb early in the morning, ‡

<sup>23</sup> and they did not find His body. Then they came back, saying that they had even seen a vision of angels who said that He was alive!

<sup>24</sup> “Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just exactly as the women had said, but they did not see Him.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “O foolish men, and slow of heart to trust and believe in everything that the prophets have spoken!

<sup>26</sup> “Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and [only then to] enter His glory?” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Then they approached the village where they were going, and He acted as if He were going farther. ‡

<sup>29</sup> But they urged Him [not to go on], saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening, and the day has just about ended.” So He went inside to stay with them. ‡

<sup>30</sup> And it happened that as He reclined at the table with them, He took the bread and blessed it, and breaking it, He began giving it to them. ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were [suddenly] opened [by God] and they [clearly] recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight.

<sup>32</sup> They said to one another, “Were not our hearts burning within us while He was talking with us on the road and opening the Scriptures to us?”

<sup>33</sup> They got up that very hour and went back to Jerusalem, and found the eleven [apostles] gathered together and those who were with them,

<sup>34</sup> saying, “The Lord has really risen and has appeared to Simon [Peter]!” ‡

<sup>35</sup> They began describing in detail what had happened on the road, and how Jesus was recognized by them when He broke the bread.

Other Appearances

<sup>36</sup> While they were talking about this, Jesus Himself [suddenly] stood among them and said to them, “Peace be to you.” ‡

<sup>37</sup> But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a spirit. ‡

<sup>38</sup> And He said, “Why are you troubled, and why are doubts rising in your hearts?

<sup>39</sup> “Look at [the marks in] My hands and My feet, [and see] that it is I Myself. Touch Me and see; a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see that I have.”  [John 20:20–27.] ‡

<sup>41</sup> While they still did not believe it because of their joy and amazement, He asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” ‡

<sup>44</sup> Then He said to them, “This is what I told you while I was still with you, everything which has been written about Me in the Law of Moses and the [writings of the] Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.” ‡

<sup>46</sup> and said, “And so it is written, that the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day,  [Hos 6:2 ] ‡

<sup>49</sup> “Listen carefully: I am sending the Promise of My Father [the Holy Spirit] upon you; but you are to remain in the city [of Jerusalem] until you are clothed (fully equipped) with power from on high.”  [John 14:26; Acts 1:4 ] ‡

The Ascension

‡

<sup>52</sup> And they worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy [fully understanding that He lives and that He is the Son of God]; ‡

<sup>53</sup> and they were continually in the temple blessing and praising God. ‡

Annotations for Luke

1:1 many have undertaken to compile. Luke makes it clear that he was not the first to write a narrative of the ministry of Jesus.

1:2 eyewitnesses. These verses suggest that Luke was not an eyewitness to the events of Jesus' ministry, but that he had access to statements of those who were.

1:3 an orderly account. Luke gave his narrative a basic structure. Not every part is in chronological sequence, but the broad sequence is Christ's ministry in Galilee, His travel to Jerusalem, and His struggles in Jerusalem. The order of events shows how Jesus gradually revealed Himself and how opposition to Him grew.

1:4 the exact truth. Theophilus was likely a young Gentile believer. He not only needed to know the truth and accuracy of what the church taught, but he also needed to be reassured. He might well have been wondering what he as a Gentile was doing in a movement which was originally Jewish.

1:5 Herod. He was appointed by the Roman emperor and reigned over Judea, Samaria, Galilee, Perea, and Syria from 37 to 4 BC.

1:7 Elizabeth was barren. Being childless was a grave disappointment in ancient Israel (1Sa 1 ). The Scriptures record a number of times when God blessed a barren woman by giving her a son (Ge 18:11 ; 21:2 ).

1:8–9 the custom of the priesthood. Zacharias served for one week twice a year at the temple, one of perhaps 18,000 priests who served in a year.

1:13 Do not be afraid. Angels often calmed the fears of those to whom they appeared (v. 30 ; 2:10 ; Ge 15:1 ; Da 10:12 ; Mt 1:20 ; Ac 18:9 ; Rev 1:17 ).

1:14 joy and delight. Joy is a major theme throughout the writings of Luke (vv. 44 ,47 ,58 ; 2:10 ; 10:20 ; 13:17 ; 15:5–7 ; Ac 5:41 ).

1:15 will never drink wine or liquor. As with Samuel and Samson, a vow was imposed on the child that indicated his special consecration to the Lord. filled with and empowered to act by the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Spirit means being directed by Him and obedient to Him (Eph 5:18 ).

1:17 in the spirit and power of Elijah. John was the forerunner of the Messiah. This description recalls Matthew 3:1–6 . John's ministry paralleled Elijah, for both prophets called Israel to repentance (1Ki 17:18 ).

1:19 Gabriel. Two angels are named in the Bible who function as messengers. Michael is the other one (Da 8:16 ; 9:21 ; 10:13 ,21 ; Jude 9 ; Rev 12:7 ).

1:25 my disgrace. In ancient Israel barrenness was seen as a cause for shame. The "opening of the womb" indicated God's grace (Ge 21:6 ; 30:23 ; 1Sa 1:2 ). In this verse, Elizabeth praises the Lord for mercifully blessing her even as He moved His plan for all of human history forward.

1:32 Most High. This phrase is another way of referring to the majesty of God. David. Jesus fulfilled God's promise to David concerning an unending dynasty.

1:34 How will this be. Mary did not ask for a sign, so this remark does not reflect disbelief. She accepts her role without question in verse 38 , and thus is a model of faith, even though she does not fully understand everything. The work of God in Mary introduces something unknown before or after; the birth into the human race of One who is both God and man.

1:35 The Holy Spirit will come upon you. This is a direct declaration of Jesus' divine conception. The child's conception means He is uniquely set apart.

1:38 servant. This term suggests humility before the Lord and a readiness for faithful and obedient service, which should characterize every believer. Paul uses the masculine form of this word to describe himself (Ro 1:1 ).

1:46 My soul magnifies and exalts the Lord. The following hymn gets its name, the "Magnificat," from the Latin word for magnifies. Mary's hymn is a recital of what God had done for her and for others in the past.

1:48 all generations will count me blessed. Mary went from being a poor unknown Hebrew girl to the most honored woman in the history of the world.

1:50 MERCY. This term expresses the Old Testament concept of God's loyal, gracious, faithful love (Ps 103 ).

1:51–53 He has scattered those who were proud. These verses portray a "reversal" in the end times, when those who have abused power will be judged and those who have suffered persecution will be exalted.

1:67 Zacharias his father was filled with the Holy Spirit . . . and he prophesied. The presence of the Holy Spirit enabled Zacharias to announce God's promise. Zacharias's hymn is called the "Benedictus" from its first word in the Latin Vulgate translation. There are three types of prophecy in the Bible: foretelling future events, forthtelling the Word of God, and praising God. Zacharias's prophecy includes all three.

1:69 horn of salvation. The horn of an ox is a symbol of power (Dt 33:17 ; 1Sa 2:10 ; 2Sa 22:3 ; Ps 75:4–5 , 10 ; 132:17 ; Eze 29:21 ).

1:77 knowledge of salvation. John's task was to prepare the people by informing them of their need to repent (3:1–14 ) and of the One who was coming (3:15–18 ).

1:78 the Sunrise (the Messiah) from on high will dawn and visit us. This phrase is a reference to the coming of the Messiah (Nu 24:17 ; Mal 4:2 ).

2:1–2 Augustus. This was the Roman emperor from 31 BC to AD 14. Quirinius. Quirinius was the governor or administrator of a major census organized to facilitate the collection of taxes.

2:3–4 to register. The registration, following Jewish custom took place at a person's ancestral home (2Sa 24 ). The journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem was about 90 miles, at least a three-day trip.

2:9 glory. This word refers to evidence of God's majestic presence, later associated with Jesus (Ac 7:55 ). In this scene, the glory is the appearance of light in the midst of darkness.

2:11 Savior, who is Christ the Lord. These three titles together summarize the saving work of Jesus and His sovereign position. What God was called in 1:47 , Jesus is called here. The word Christ means "Anointed," referring to Jesus' royal, messianic position. The word Lord was the title of a ruler.

2:14 peace among men. Peace is not for everyone, but for those who please God.

2:21 At the end of eight days. According to the law, a Jewish boy was to be circumcised on his eighth day (Ge 17:12 ; Lev 12:3 ).

2:25 Consolation of Israel. Simeon was waiting for the comforter of Israel, a hope that parallels the hope of national deliverance expressed in the two hymns of chapter one. This deliverance would involve the work of the Messiah, as verse 26 suggests.

2:32 A LIGHT FOR REVELATION TO THE GENTILES. This is the first explicit statement in Luke that includes both Jew and Gentile. Salvation is portrayed as light (1:79 ). It would be a revelation to Gentiles because they would be able to participate in God's blessing with a fullness that had not been revealed in the Old Testament (Eph 2:11–3:7 ).

2:36 There was a prophetess, Anna. Anna's work as a prophetess in the temple court suggests that she addressed all who would listen to her, as did Miriam (Ex 15:20), Deborah (Jdg 4:4), and Huldah (2Ki 22:14).

2:41 to Jerusalem every year. The annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem was customary for many who lived outside the city. The laws commanded three pilgrimages for the men each year: Passover, Pentecost, and the Feast of Tabernacles (Ex 23:14-17; Dt 16:16).

2:49 I had to be in My Father's house. This is the first indication in Luke's Gospel that Jesus knew He had a unique mission and a unique relationship to the Father.

3:1–2 Tiberius Caesar . . . Pontius Pilate . . . Herod . . . Annas . . . Caiaphas. The various rulers that Luke lists show the complexity of the historical and political situation in Israel during Jesus' day. A first century Israelite had to deal with the edicts of the Roman emperor, the regulations of the governor over Israel, and the judgments of the religious leaders of Israel.

3:4–6 P REPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD . This citation from Isaiah 40:3–5 declares the coming of God's deliverance. Luke cites the text more fully than Matthew or Mark. He carries the passage through to its mention of salvation being seen by all flesh (v. 6), thus highlighting that the gospel is for all people. The preparation for the arrival of a king typically meant that a road was prepared for his journey. This is what Isaiah compares to the arrival of God's salvation.

3:8 Therefore produce fruit. John the Baptist warned that the fruits of repentance are necessary, not the claim of an ancestral connection to Abraham. External genealogical connections would not change one's attitude to God.

3:11 two tunics. One was an undergarment, and the other was an outer garment. A person did not need two when another person had none.

3:12 tax collectors. These men were Jewish agents employed by those who had purchased the right to collect taxes for the Roman state. Tax collectors often added interest to cover their own expenses and to pad their income. They were disliked both for their business practices and for their support of the occupying state.

3:16–17 the Holy Spirit and [you who remain unrepentant] with fire. These two facets of Christ's work relate to His first and second comings. As a result of Christ's work at His first coming, believers are placed into one family (1Co 12:13) and commended to the care of the Holy Spirit. When Christ comes a second time, He will come with the fire of judgment. winnowing fork. This tool was a wooden forklike shovel that lifted the grain in the air so that the wind could separate it from the chaff.

3:19–20 all the wicked things that Herod had done. Herod had divorced his wife to marry his own niece Herodias, who already had been the wife of his brother Philip. Not only was the divorce a problem, so was marrying such a close relative (Lev 18:16 ; 20:21 ).

3:22 You are My Son, My Beloved, in You I am well-pleased and delighted. This statement combines two ideas. The idea of God's Son comes from Psalm 2:7, a psalm about God's chosen King. The idea of pleasure comes from the image of the Servant in Isaiah 42:1. The fact that Jesus is both King and Servant is fundamental to Jesus' identity.

4:1–13 Temptation of Christ— Hebrews 2:18 makes the point that, because Christ was tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted. We can see two examples of this quite plainly. The temptations are about security and power. In becoming man, Jesus gave up both (Php 2:5–11). Jesus didn't cling to any of what was by nature and identity rightfully His. In doing so, He had to trust fully in the Father for His life and very being. He can truly identify with our temptations. His experience wasn't just like ours are. No one ever gave up more power. No one of greater stature has ever been in such an insecure position. He can be there for us because He has been there before us. Go to Theological Notes Index

4:3 If You are the Son of God. This is a conditional statement. In other words, Satan was saying: "Let's assume for the sake of argument that You are the Son of God." In fact, Satan was challenging Jesus' identity and authority.

4:4 It is written. Jesus responded to Satan's temptation by quoting Deuteronomy 8:3. Jesus refused to operate independently of God. The Spirit had led Him into the wilderness to prepare Him for His ministry, so eating at Satan's instruction would have shown a lack of dependence on the Father.

4:5 all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth. This temptation was an attempt to offer Jesus power by the wrong means. Satan's method involved a detour around the cross, an inducement to "take the easy way" to power.

4:10–11 H E WILL COMMAND H IS ANGELS CONCERNING Y OU TO GUARD and PROTECT Y O
Satan cited Psalm 91:11–12, reminding Jesus of God's promise of protection. However, the mere use of biblical words does not always reveal God's will, particularly if they are placed in the wrong context.

4:12 Y OU SHALL NOT TEMPT THE LORD YOUR GOD. In response to Satan's third temptation, Jesus cited Deuteronomy 6:16. God is to be trusted, not tested. The Deuteronomy passage refers to Israel's attempt to test God at Meribah (Ex 17:1–7). Jesus would not repeat the nation's error of unfaithfulness to God.

4:16–17 stood up to read. Most synagogue services had a reading from the Law and one from the Prophets, with an exposition that tied the texts together. Jesus expounded Isaiah 61.

4:18–19 H E HAS SENT M E. By citing Isaiah 61, Jesus was claiming to be a royal figure and to have a prophetic mission (v. 24). RELEASE (pardon, forgiveness) TO THE CAPTIVES. In the Old Testament, captivity refers to Israel's exile (1:68–74); here captivity refers to sin (1:77; 7:47; 24:47; Ac 2:38; 5:31; 10:43; 13:38; 26:18). THOSE WHO ARE OPPRESSED. This was originally the call of Israel, but the nation had failed in its assignment (Isa 58:6). THE FAVORABLE YEAR OF THE LORD. This phrase is an allusion to the year of Jubilee when every fiftieth year all debt was forgiven and slaves were given their freedom (Lev 25:10).

4:20 He rolled up the scroll. Jesus closed the book in the middle of the sentence. He did not continue because the next phrase—"the day of vengeance of our God"—was not being fulfilled then.

4:34 What business do we have [in common] with each other. The demon knew that Jesus possessed divine authority, and he wanted nothing to do with Him.

4:35–36 rebuked. This term in Aramaic was a technical term for calling evil into submission. Jesus' authority over evil forces is clear.

Capernaum Synagogue

Capernaum was more than a seaside fishing village in the days of Jesus. It was the place that Jesus chose to be the center of his ministry to the entire region of Galilee, and it possessed ideal characteristics as a point of dissemination for the gospel.

There were good reasons for this. The town itself was named Kephar Nahum, “village of [perhaps the prophet] Nahum,” and was the centerpiece of a densely populated region having a bicultural flavor. On the one hand, there were numerous synagogues in Galilee (in addition to the one in Capernaum), where the ferment of Jewish religious life was profound. On the other hand, there was Hellenism, a pervasive culture already centuries old and potent in its paganism—a lifestyle that influenced manners, dress, architecture and political institutions as well.

Archaeological work at Capernaum has revealed a section of the pavement of a first-century synagogue below the still-existing ruins of the fourth-century one on the site. A private house later made into a church and a place of pilgrimage has yielded some evidence that may link it to the site of Simon Peter’s house (Lk 4:38 ).

4:41 You are the Son of God. This confession, unique to the Gospel of Luke, shows the close connection Luke makes between Jesus' sonship and messiahship.

4:43 kingdom of God. In Luke, the kingdom is referred to thirty times and six times in Acts. Jesus announced the rule of God through His person, in dealing with sin (24:47), in distributing the Spirit as He mediates blessing from God's side (24:49), and in reigning with His followers according to the Old Testament promise (Ps 2:7–12; Ac 3:18–22).

5:1 Gennesaret. This is another name for the Sea of Galilee and the Sea of Tiberias.

5:5 at Your word I will [do as you say and] lower the nets. This is Peter's statement of faith. The fisherman noted that he and his companions had just failed to make a catch at the best time for fishing, the evening. The circumstances were not good for a catch at the time of Jesus' command, but Peter chose to obey His word and let down his nets anyway.

5:12 leprosy. This term was used broadly in the ancient world. It included psoriasis, lupus, and ringworm. Lepers were isolated from the rest of society (Lev 13:45–46), but could be restored to the community when they recovered (Lev 14).

5:14 show yourself to the priest. Jesus commanded that the regulation of Leviticus 14 be followed in silencing the healed leper. Jesus sought to avoid drawing excessive attention to His healing ministry.

5:21 blasphemies. The charge of the scribes and the Pharisees was that Jesus' claim dishonored God. This was a serious charge; the conviction of blasphemy would eventually lead to Jesus' death (22:70–71).

5:23 Which is easier. Jesus posed a riddle to His audience. From an external point of view, it would seem easier to declare sins forgiven than to actually heal a person. In reality, however, one has to possess more authority to forgive sin. Jesus linked the healing to what it represented, the forgiveness of sin. Jesus forgave the man's sins and healed him at the same time.

5:24 Son of Man. This is an Aramaic idiom that refers to a human being, meaning "someone" or "I." Jesus used this idiom as a title, taken from Daniel 7:13. In the Book of Daniel, the phrase "Son of man" describes a figure who shares authority with the Ancient of Days.

5:29 with them. In ancient Israel the table was a place where spiritual points were taught and where fellowship occurred.

5:33 fasting. The Pharisees fasted twice a week, on Mondays and Thursdays (18:12), as well as on the Day of Atonement (Lev 16:29). They also fasted as an act of penitence (Isa 58:1–9) and to recall four times a year the destruction of Jerusalem (Zec 7:3, 5; 8:19). The goal of fasting was to dedicate oneself to prayer and to focus on God. John led an ascetic life, which his followers also imitated (7:24–28; Mt 11:1–19).

5:35 days [for mourning] will come. The image of the removal of the bridegroom is the first hint in Jesus' ministry of His fast approaching death.

5:37 puts new wine into old wineskins. This would not work because as the new wine fermented, it would stretch the old skin and break it, ruining the wineskin and wasting the wine.

6:1 picking . . . rubbing . . . eating. According to Jewish tradition, the disciples were reaping, threshing, and preparing food, and so were violating the commandment not to work on the Sabbath. It is clear that at this point the Pharisees were watching Jesus carefully (v. 7).

6:3–4 consecrated bread. This was bread that was taken from the twelve loaves placed on a table in the holy place and changed once a week (Ex 25:30; 39:36; Lev 24:5–9). Jesus pointed out that if David and his men could violate the law to satisfy their hunger, His disciples could do the same.

6:5 Lord [even] of the Sabbath. Regardless of the laws and customs that the Pharisees cited, Jesus has authority over the Sabbath. Jesus' claim of divine authority here is similar to His claim of authority to forgive sins in 5:21, 24.

6:11 senseless rage. The term here means irrational or mindless anger. The parallels in Matthew 12:14 and Mark 3:6 make it clear that the Pharisees started to plot against Jesus in earnest after this confrontation.

6:17 level place. This probably refers to a plateau on a mountain. The setting and the contents of the sermon that follows suggest that Luke is providing a shorter version of the Sermon on the Mount, omitting those portions that have to do with the law.

6:20 Blessed . . . are you. Blessed means “happy,” referring to the special joy and favor that comes upon those who experience God’s grace.

6:22 because of [your association with] the Son of Man. Identification with Jesus usually leads to rejection and hardship, but the disciple who has left all to follow Jesus understands what placing Jesus first means. He or she also recognizes that God is aware of all suffering.

6:24 woe. A woe is a cry of pain that results from misfortune. Just as God presented blessings for obedience and curses for disobedience in Deuteronomy 28, Jesus presented blessings and woes to His disciples who were anticipating the kingdom. The same blessings and woes apply to believers today when their works are evaluated (1Co 3:12–15 ; 2Co 5:10 ; 1Jn 2:28 ; Rev 22:12 ).

6:27–28 Love . . . your enemies. The threat of religious persecution was very real when Jesus presented His command for extraordinary love. The reference to a cursing enemy suggests a context of religious persecution.

6:30 do not demand it back. The commands of verses 29 and 30 are expressed in such absolute terms that they force the listener to reflect on them by contrasting them with the normal responses people would have to such injustices.

6:35 He Himself is kind and gracious and good to the ungrateful and the wicked. The practice of loving one’s enemies is modeled by God Himself.

6:38 good measure. This illustration comes from the marketplace where grain was poured out, shaken down, and then filled to overflowing so the buyer received the full amount purchased. Such is the full measure that will be returned to one who has been generous.

6:46 Lord, Lord. Jesus pointed out that those who called Him by this title of respect acknowledged submission to Him. However when these same people ignored His teaching, they were guilty of hypocrisy.

7:1 Capernaum. This city was on the northwest shore of the Sea of Galilee. It was an important town in northern Galilee with an economy centered on fishing and agriculture. Heavily Jewish, it was the center for Jesus’ Galilean ministry (4:31–44 ).

7:5 built us our synagogue. The Roman government regarded synagogues as valuable because their moral emphasis helped maintain order.

7:9 not even in Israel. The Centurion’s example of faith came from outside the nation of Israel. This is one of only two cases where Jesus “wondered” (Mk 6:6 ).

7:12 a dead man was being carried out. This was a funeral procession. The cemetery was located outside the city gates. Funerals were normally held the day of death because keeping a body overnight rendered a house unclean.

7:24–26 Jesus began speaking to the crowds about John. The questions that Jesus asked were designed to emphasize that John the Baptist played a special role in God’s plan. The crowds did not go out to the wilderness to see scenery or a man dressed in special clothes, but to see a prophet.

7:28 he who is least in the kingdom of God. Jesus emphasizes the contrast between the old and new eras. John was the greatest prophet ever born. But the lowest person in the new era of God’s kingdom is higher than the greatest prophet of the old era.

7:31–34 To what then shall I compare. Jesus made a comparison between children playing a game in the marketplace and the present generation of Israel, referring especially to the Jewish religious leaders. The leaders were like the children in that they complained no matter what tune was played. John the Baptist refused to eat bread or drink wine, and the religious leaders dismissed him as demon-possessed. In contrast, Jesus, the Son of Man, was accused of living loosely and associating with sinners. No matter what the style of God's messenger was, the religious leaders complained and rejected him.

7:36 One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him. This event is not the same as the one in Matthew 26:6–13; Mark 14:3–9; and John 12:1–8. The event described in those passages occurred in the house of a leper, a place where no Pharisee would ever have gone.

7:37 alabaster vial. This was made of soft stone to preserve the quality of the precious and expensive perfume. There is humility and devotion in the woman's act of service, as well as a great deal of courage, as she performed the deed in front of a crowd that knew her as a sinner.

7:44–46 Do you see this woman? Jesus contrasted the actions of the woman with the actions of the Pharisee Simon, implying that the woman knew more about forgiveness than Simon (v. 47).

8:1–3 Mary, called Magdalene. Because she is introduced here, it is unlikely that she was the sinful woman of 7:36–50. Joanna. This is an example of how some women of means used their wealth to benefit the work of God.

8:10 kingdom . . . parables. Jesus' parables both concealed and revealed truths. The disciples were privileged to learn the truths of parables. For other listeners, the parables served as judgments that concealed truth, as the reference to Isaiah 6:9 indicates. On occasion, a parable was understood by an outsider but was not accepted, thus still functioning as a message of judgment (20:9–19).

8:13 believe for a while . . . fall away. Brief and superficial encounters with the Word of God will not stand times of testing. A person needs to meditate on the truths in Scripture and establish them as principles for living in order to withstand the trials and temptations that will inevitably come.

8:14 anxieties and riches and pleasures of this life. According to this parable, these three are the great obstacles to spiritual fruitfulness. The concerns of life can squelch spiritual growth. This type of "soil" is viewed as tragically unsuccessful (2Ti 2:4; 4:10).

8:19–20 Then Jesus' mother and His brothers came up toward Him. Jesus' family was concerned about the direction of His ministry (Mk 3:31–35). Though some have suggested that the brothers here were sons of Joseph by a previous marriage or cousins of Jesus, most likely they were the sons of Joseph and Mary. Joseph's absence here may mean that he had died by this time.

8:23 a fierce gale of wind. The calming of the wind is the first of four miracles in verses 22–56 that demonstrate Jesus' authority over a variety of phenomena—nature, demons, disease, and death. This miracle took place on the Sea of Galilee. Cool air rushing down the ravines and hills of the area collides with warm air from the Sea of Galilee, causing sudden and strong storms.

8:25 Where is your faith. Jesus' question was a rebuke of His disciples. Because God was aware of their situation, they could trust in His protection, for He was powerful enough to control the winds and waves.

8:28 Son of the Most High God. The demon's confession recalls the angel's announcement to Mary in 1:31–32 and the demonic confessions of 4:34 ,41.

8:30 Legion. This name reflects the fact that the man was possessed by multiple demons. A legion was a Roman military unit of about 6,000 soldiers.

8:31 the abyss. This is an allusion to the underworld and the destruction of judgment (Ro 10:7).

8:44 her bleeding stopped. This condition not only would have been embarrassing, it would have made the woman unclean (Lev 15:25–31). It took great courage for her to seek out Jesus. Note that her action was not criticized, but commended (v. 48).

8:52 sleeping. “Sleeping” was a common metaphor for death. Here it indicates that the girl’s death was not permanent.

9:2 to preach . . . to perform healing. The entire nation of Israel needed to see the evidence of the kingdom of God and make a decision concerning the King. Jesus commissioned His disciples to spread the word about God’s kingdom through preaching and healing.

9:11 talking . . . healing. Jesus had the same two-pronged ministry that the twelve disciples had: preaching and healing (v. 2). The topic of Jesus’ preaching was always the kingdom of God.

9:13–17 about 5,000 men. This is the only miracle of Jesus’ ministry that appears in all four Gospels. The feeding of the 5,000 demonstrated Jesus’ ability to provide.

9:20 The Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) of God. The emphasis here is on the messianic role of Jesus. He is the Promised One who was ushering in a new era. However, Jesus would soon reveal to the disciples that His messiahship would have elements of suffering that the disciples did not expect (vv. 22–23).

9:22 must suffer . . . be rejected . . . be put to death . . . be raised up. This is the first of several predictions in Luke of Jesus’ suffering and vindication (v. 44 ; 12:50 ; 13:31–33 ; 17:25 ; 18:31–33 ). The disciples struggled to understand what Jesus was saying (v. 45 ; 18:34 ). They could not comprehend how Jesus’ predictions fit into God’s plan. Only after Jesus’ resurrection and His explanation of the Scriptures to them did they begin to understand (24:25–27 ,44–49 ).

9:23 take up his cross daily. Although Jesus offered salvation as a free gift (Jn 1:12 ; 3:16–18 ), He also warned that following Him would entail suffering and hardship (Mt 5:10–12 ; Ro 8:17 ; 2Th 1:5 ).

9:24–25 For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world. It makes no sense to attempt to save our lives on earth only to lose everything when our lives quickly and inevitably pass away. The wise course is to invest our earthly resources—our time, talents, and wealth—in what is eternal.

9:31 speaking of His departure. This important allusion to the central Old Testament event of salvation is unique to Luke’s account of the transfiguration. The comparison is made between Jesus’ death and the journey to salvation that the nation of Israel experienced under Moses.

9:34 cloud. This is an allusion to the presence of God (Ex 40:35 ).

9:41 unbelieving and perverted generation. This rebuke suggests that the disciples lacked the faith to cast out the spirit described in verses 38–40 . There is also a hint of a competitive spirit among the disciples (v. 46 ).

9:45 they were afraid to ask. The indication here is that the disciples still had much to learn. Their fear shows that they understood something about what Jesus said, but they did not understand how and why Jesus could say such things about Himself, since He was the Messiah. The suffering of the Messiah was something the disciples did not yet understand. They would continue to be confused in their understanding of how such suffering fit into God’s plan until Jesus’ death and resurrection (24:25–26 ,43–49 ).

9:51 He was determined to go to Jerusalem. This is the first indication that Jesus’ attention was turning toward His final suffering in Jerusalem (v. 53 ; 13:22 ; 17:11 ; 18:31 ; 19:11 ,28 ,41 ). Luke’s Gospel uniquely emphasizes this journey to Jerusalem.

9:52 Samaritan. These people were the descendants of Jews who had married Gentiles after the fall of the Northern Kingdom, Israel. The Samaritans eventually developed their own religious rites which they practiced on Mount Gerizim instead of at the temple in Jerusalem. Though there was deep hostility between Jews and Samaritans, Jesus ministered to both groups.

9:54 command fire to come down. James and John wanted Jesus to bring judgment upon the Samaritan villages that refused to respond to His message, just as Elijah had done in 2 Kings 1:9–16 . Their demand for judgment was antithetical to Jesus’ loving response (v. 56 ).

9:59 allow me first to go and bury my father. This aspiring disciple placed family responsibilities ahead of following Jesus. The concerns of home were this man's stumbling block.

9:62 fit for the kingdom. This remark of Jesus demonstrates the seriousness of commitment to Him.

10:2 The harvest is abundant. The picture of a great harvest suggests that a positive response awaited the laborers, even in the face of much rejection.

10:3 lambs among wolves. This image from Isaiah 40:11 was a popular one in Judaism.

10:13 if the miracles performed in you had been performed. Jesus' remark was meant to wake the people up to what their rejection of Him signified.

10:16 The one who listens to you listens to Me. Hearing the messenger is the same as hearing the One who sent him. Authority resides not in the messenger, but in the person the messenger represents, the source of the message.

10:18 I watched Satan. This verse provides a commentary on what the disciples' healing ministry meant. The reversal of the effects of sin and death, which Satan introduced through his deception in Genesis 3 is portrayed graphically as Satan falling from heaven. Jesus' ministry and what grows out of it represents the defeat of Satan, sin, and death.

10:19–20 I have given you authority. This passage records the transmission of Jesus' power to His immediate circle of disciples. It should be noted that similar power was not given beyond that circle of disciples.

10:22 All things have been transferred and turned over to Me. This is Jesus' declaration of total authority as the Son of God (Jn 10:18 ; 17:2 ). Jesus declares His unique relationship with God the Father. The Lord reveals Himself only through Jesus. To know God, one must know His Son, Jesus.

10:25–26 what must I do to inherit eternal life? The question posed by the lawyer is really a challenge, since the verse speaks of the testing of Jesus. This is a similar, though probably distinct, event from Matthew 22:34–40 and Mark 12:28–34 . To inherit something is to receive it. In other words, the man was asking, "What must I do to share in the reward at the resurrection of the righteous at the end?"

10:27 Y OU SHALL LOVE THE LORD . . . AND YOUR NEIGHBOR. The lawyer responded to Jesus' question by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5 , a text that was recited twice a day by every faithful Jew. This text summarized the central ethical standard of the law.

10:28 D O THIS habitually AND YOU WILL LIVE. Jesus was not saying that righteousness is the result of works. Rather He was saying that love for and obedience to God will be a natural result of placing one's faith in the Lord.

10:29 who is my neighbor? This question was an attempt to limit the demands of the law by suggesting that some people are neighbors while others are not. The lawyer was looking for minimal obedience while Jesus was looking for absolute obedience.

10:30 Jerusalem to Jericho. This was a 17 mile journey on a road known to harbor many robbers.

10:31–33 priest . . . Levite . . . Samaritan. Part of the beauty of the story of the Good Samaritan is the reversal of stereotypes. The priest and Levite traditionally would have been the "good guys." The Samaritan would have been a "bad guy," a person who compromised in religious matters. However, the Samaritan knew how to treat his neighbor. The neighbor here was not someone the Samaritan knew or even someone of the same race, just someone in need.

10:36 Which . . . proved himself a neighbor. The central issue is not determining who one's neighbor is, but being a good neighbor to all.

11:1 Lord, teach us to pray. The Lord's Prayer illustrates the variety of requests that one can and should make to God, as well as displaying the humble attitude that should accompany prayer. The use of the plural pronoun us throughout the prayer shows that it is not just the prayer of one person for his or her own personal needs, but a community prayer.

11:2 Your kingdom come. The reference here is to God's program and promise. This is more affirmation than request, highlighting the petitioner's submission to God's will and the desire to see God's work come to pass.

11:4 For we ourselves also forgive. The petitioner recognizes that if mercy is to be sought from God, then mercy must be shown to others. We need to adopt the same standard that we expect others to follow. lead us not into temptation. This remark is often misunderstood as suggesting that perhaps God can lead us into sin. The point is that if one is to avoid sin, one must follow where God leads. In short, the petitioner asks God for the spiritual protection necessary to avoid falling into sin.

11:17–18 you are saying that I drive out demons by [the power of] Beelzebul. The attribution of Jesus' miracles to Satan was not only blasphemous, it was illogical. If Satan had cast out the demon (v. 14), he would have been destroying the result of his own work.

11:20 the finger of God. This phrase is an allusion to God's power, like that demonstrated in the exodus (Ex 8:19 ; Dt 9:10 ; Ps 8:3 ). the kingdom of God has already come upon you. Jesus' miracles represented the arrival of God's power and promise—in short, His rule. That rule comes in and through Jesus. The miracles of Jesus demonstrated God's victory over the forces of evil. The kingdom program, depicted as drawing near, will be consummated at the return of Jesus when this rule is manifested over every creature.

11:22 But when someone stronger than he. Jesus portrays Himself as someone stronger than Satan who overruns Satan's house and gives the spoils of victory to those who are His (Eph 4:8–9 ).

11:23 He who is not with Me. Jesus' ministry forces everyone to make a choice. Neutrality is not an option. Either Jesus comes from God or He does not. Not to align with Jesus is to be against Him.

11:26 the last state. Jesus' point is that experiencing God's blessing and then ignoring it leaves one callous towards the work of God and exposed to the control of demonic forces.

11:29 the sign of Jonah. This refers to his prophetic call to repentance rather than to the resurrection foreshadowed by Jonah's return from the belly of the great fish.

11:36 your whole body is illuminated. A person can become like light, a living picture of what God's Word teaches, by concentrating on the light of the truth.

11:39 clean the outside of the cup. These condemnations by Jesus are similar to those in Matthew 23 . The Pharisees washed the outside of cups, making sure that the cups had not become unclean through contact with a dead insect (Lev 11:31–38 ). Jesus pointed out that the Pharisees concerned themselves with outward appearances and ritual cleanliness, while what was inside, what really counts, was full of selfishness and evil.

11:42 tithe mint and rue. Some Pharisees took the strictest interpretation and counted almost anything, including spices. However, they neglected two basic things that the prophets also had warned about: love and justice (Mic 6:8 ; Zec 7:8–10 ).

11:46 burdens. This term refers to a ship's cargo. The idea is that a heavy strain was being imposed on the people and yet, in the end, this burden did not bring them close to God. Here Jesus rebuked the tradition that had grown up around the law of Moses.

11:47–48 you repair or build tombs for the prophets. Jesus made a biting, ironic comparison between the current generation of Israel and the generations of the past. Jesus was saying that the current generation finished the job of slaying the prophets that the previous generation had started. The building and care of tombs was supposed to be an act of honoring the prophets, but Jesus pointed out that something else was really going on.

11:52 Woe to you lawyers. Jesus charged the lawyers with doing the opposite of what they claimed their calling to be. Rather than bringing people nearer to God, they had removed the possibility of their entering into that knowledge, and had prevented others from understanding it as well.

12:1–2 leaven. This represents the presence of corruption. Unleavened bread is what the Jews ate at Passover (Ex 12:14–20 ). The corruption in view here is hypocrisy. Practicing hypocrisy is senseless because eventually all deeds—both good and evil—will be exposed.

12:4 do not be afraid of those who kill the body. This verse anticipates the presence of severe religious persecution in response to Jesus' remarks in Luke 11:39–54 .

12:5 fear Him. Even in the context of physical persecution, the only One believers should fear is God, who sees how we live and judges us. Jesus was not guaranteeing physical preservation in this life, but was opening the prospect of deliverance in the next life.

12:6 two copper coins. These coins, the smallest in circulation, were worth about one-sixteenth of a basic day's wages.

12:14 who appointed Me a judge. Jesus refuses to enter into a dispute over money, which is clearly dividing a family. Such disputes over money destroy relationships, so Jesus tells a parable that explains the danger of focusing on wealth.

12:18–19 This is what I will do. Including verse 17 , the word “I” appears six times, showing the selfish focus this man has as a result of his fortune. His plan is to store his abundant resources for himself, as though the assets were his alone and should be hoarded. This focus on the self is what Jesus is condemning.

12:27–29 God clothes the grass. This illustration indicates that God cares enough to provide beauty for the parts of His creation that have a short life. Why should we worry if God takes such care of even the smallest blade of grass? The Lord knows our problems and will provide us with what we need.

12:33 Sell your possessions. In contrast to the world's hoarding of possessions, the disciple must be generous with what God gives. By serving God and others, you can invest in your eternal future. You cannot take possessions with you in the next life, but you can store up an eternal treasure by giving to others (Php 4:17 ).

12:34 where your treasure is. What people consider valuable is where their energy will be spent. Knowing God and investing in His purposes should be the treasure we seek.

12:38 Whether he comes in the second watch (before midnight), or even in the third (after midnight). This verse speaks of a return at an unusually late hour. The exact time referred to depends on which system of time was used. In the Roman system the second and third watch would be 9 P.M. to 3 A.M. By the Jewish method it would be 10 P.M. to 6 A.M.

12:41 to us [disciples], or to everyone else. Peter asked if Jesus' teaching was for the disciples only or for all people. Jesus did not answer the question directly. Instead He described a variety of categories of servants. Servants are those who belong to the Master and have their stewardship evaluated (19:11–27 ). Several responses, from faithfulness to blatant disobedience, are described in verses 42–48 . The issue is who lives life in a way that looks for, and takes seriously, the return of Jesus (1Jn 2:28 ).

12:45 begins to beat the servants, both men and women. This servant is depicted as consciously doing the opposite of caring for others, and of treating the Master's return as irrelevant.

12:46 will cut him in pieces. The image of being slain indicates the severity of this judgment, especially in contrast to the whippings of verses 47 and 48 .

12:49 I have come to cast fire (judgment) on the earth. Fire is an image associated with God's judgment (Jer 5:14 ; 23:29 ). Jesus' coming brings judgment on those who refuse to accept Him and divides the believers from the faithless.

12:54–55 a cloud rising in the west. In Palestine, a western breeze meant moisture coming from the Mediterranean Sea. A south wind meant hot air coming from the desert.

12:56 You hypocrites. Jesus rebuked His audience for being able to discern the weather but not what God was doing through Him.

13:1 Pilate. Pilate was known for his insensitivity to the Jewish people early in his rule. The event probably occurred during the Feast of the Passover or Tabernacles, when Galileans most likely would have been at the temple.

13:5 unless you repent. The manner in which a person dies is not a measure of righteousness; what is important is not to die outside of God's grace and care. The way to avoid such a fate is to repent, to come to God through the care of the Physician Jesus (5:32).

13:6 a fig tree. This tree often represents God's blessing, or a people who have a special relationship with God (Mic 7:1-2 ). The man in this parable represents God; the fig tree represents Israel.

13:7 For three years. A fig tree was often given some time to bear good fruit since its root structure was complex and took time to develop. Three years would have been enough for the tree to yield some fruit.

13:15 hypocrites. When the ruler of the synagogue became indignant regarding Jesus' healing on the Sabbath (vv. 10-14 ), Jesus pointed out that basic compassion was shown to animals on the Sabbath, so how much more compassion should be shown to a suffering woman (v. 16)?

13:18-19 mustard. A tree of the mustard family would grow to about twelve feet. The image of birds nesting in the trees is found frequently in the Old Testament (Ps 104:12 ; Eze 17:22-24 ; Da 4:10-12 ).

13:26 We ate and drank . . . You taught. The appeal here is by people who experience Jesus' presence. The passage primarily involves those Jews who witnessed Jesus' ministry. They were trying to gain entry into God's presence based simply on the fact that they had observed Jesus. Jesus refused them. Pointing out that it was not enough for them to have been close to Him. In order to have a relationship with God, one must embrace Jesus and come to know Him.

13:29 east . . . west . . . north . . . south. People would come from all corners of the earth for entrance into God's kingdom. This passage alludes to the inclusion of Gentiles.

13:30 some are last who will be first. There will be many surprises in God's kingdom. Those who are despised on earth—some Gentiles, for example—will be greatly honored in the kingdom. Conversely, those who are considered influential and powerful on earth—the Jewish religious leaders of Jesus' day, for example—will be excluded from the kingdom.

13:32 Go and tell that fox. Herod is portrayed as more curious than hostile. The reference here is to Herod's cunning. Jesus' reply seems to take the Pharisees' warning at face value.

13:34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem. The double address indicates Jesus' deep sorrow (2Sa 18:33 ; Jer 22:29 ). The city had executed many of God's messengers. Stephen makes a similar point about the nation of Israel in Acts 7:51-53 .

[13:35 B LESSED \[to be celebrated with praise\] IS H E.](#) This is a citation of Psalm 118:26 . The people of Israel would not see the Messiah again until they were ready to receive Him and recognize that He was sent from God. Psalm 118 reflects the greeting of a priest to a group entering the temple. Jesus used the language of this psalm to illustrate God's greeting to Him.

14:7 they had been selecting the places of honor. In ancient times the best seats at a meal were those next to the host.

14:17 those who had been invited. In the ancient world, invitations to a feast were sent out well in advance of the meal. Then on the day of the feast, servants would announce the start of the meal. This parable is similar to the one in Matthew 22:1-4 , but was probably spoken on a different occasion.

[14:20 I have \[recently\] married a wife.](#) While the Old Testament exempted a man from military duty because of marriage (Dt 20:7 ; 24:5 ), marriage was not an excuse for avoiding social duties. The general point here is that the man regarded his own affairs as more important than the feast.

14:21 poor and the disabled and the blind and the lame. This list matches that of verse 13 . The disabled were excluded from full participation in Jewish worship (Lev 21:17-23 ). The master's second invitation extended the scope of the offer to those who were rejected by society.

14:23 Go out into the highways. The master's second invitation extended beyond the city limits, encouraging even more people to come to the feast. This may picture the inclusion of Gentiles in God's salvation (Isa 49:6 ). The instruction to compel them to come in does not mean to force people in, but to urge them.

14:34 salt is good. In the ancient world, salt was often used as a catalyst for burning fuel such as cattle dung. The salt of the time was impure and could lose its strength over time, becoming useless. Jesus' point is that the same is true of a "saltless" disciple.

15:1 tax collectors and sinners. The three parables of chapter 15 explain why Jesus associated with the despised groups while the Pharisees and scribes did not. The parables in this chapter are found only in Luke.

15:4 a hundred sheep. This was a medium-sized flock. The average herd ran from 20 to 200 head, while a flock of 300 or more was considered large.

15:7 people who have no need of repentance. This phrase is a rhetorical way of describing the scribes and Pharisees. A similar description is found in 5:31 , where it is said that some do not need a physician. The scribes and Pharisees believed that they did not need to repent because they were not lost.

15:8 ten silver coins. A drachma was a silver coin equal to a day's wage for a basic laborer. The woman needed a lamp because she lived in a windowless house. Her broom for sweeping would have been made of palm twigs.

15:15 to feed pigs. Feeding pigs was an insulting job for a Jewish person, since pigs were unclean according to the law of Moses.

15:20 his father saw him and was moved with compassion. Many scholars feel that the emphasis on the son in this parable causes people to miss the more important point, namely, the importance of the father's welcoming role. Still others think it could even be called the Parable of the Elder Brother. Interestingly, both brothers underestimate their father's love and grace. The younger brother is slow to realize the extent and permanence of his father's love. The elder brother has trouble understanding that the restored relationship with the younger son is vital to the life of the father. What makes the dramatic conversion possible is the younger son's knowledge that he will be accepted when he returns. While there are consequences to his behavior (his money is gone), he is welcomed to be a part of the family again. In many ways the welcome is even more than he could have hoped for. What is amazing about grace is that it is always more than we expect or deserve.

15:21 no longer worthy to be called your son. Despite his awareness of being accepted by his father, the son continued his confession of his sin. He then asked to become one of his father's servants. Similarly, a sinner realizes that he or she brings nothing to and deserves nothing from God, but must rely completely on God's mercy.

15:24 dead . . . alive again . . . lost . . . found. The total transformation of the prodigal son is summarized in these two contrasts. Such a transformation is a reason to celebrate. It is also the reason Jesus chose to associate with the lost.

15:28 the elder brother became angry. The elder brother's unhappiness over a fatted calf (v. 27 ) being killed to celebrate the return of his undisciplined brother illustrates the response of the Pharisees and scribes at the prospect of sinners becoming acceptable to God.

16:1 a manager. This was a servant who supervised and administered an estate. The charge brought against this manager is incompetence.

16:8 And his master commended the unjust manager. The master recognized the foresight in the steward's generosity. It is debatable whether the steward was dishonest and robbed the master by such reductions or was shrewd in using his authority to discount the goods (vv. 6–7). The fact that the master commended the steward may suggest that the master was not robbed and that the steward's reduction was the result of either an adherence to the law or a lowering of the steward's own commission.

16:9 wealth of unrighteousness. This is money and should be used generously to build works that last. Money is called unrighteous because it often manifests unrighteousness and selfishness in people (1Ti 6:6–10 , 17–19 ; Jas 1:9–11 ; 5:1–6 ).

16:19 dressed in expensive purple. Purple clothes were extremely expensive because they were made with a special dye extracted from a kind of snail.

16:20–21 licking his sores. To have his sores licked by dogs threatened Lazarus with infection as well as ritual uncleanness, since dogs fed on garbage, including dead animals.

16:22 Abraham's bosom. This was the blessed place of the dead. Angelic escorts for the dead were also known in Judaism. This verse indicates that the dead know their fate immediately.

16:24 I am in severe agony in this flame. The rich man desired relief from his suffering. The image of thirst for the experience of judgment is common (Isa 5:13 ; 65:13 ; Hos 2:3 ).

16:29 They have [the Scriptures given by] Moses and the [writings of the] Prophets. Abraham made it clear that the rich man's brothers should have known what to do, since they had the message of God in the ancient writings. The point here is that generosity with money and care for the poor were taught in the Old Testament (Dt 14:28–29 ; Isa 3:14–15 ; Mic 6:10–11 ).

17:1–2 woe (judgment is coming) to him. Jesus warned that judgment awaits those who cause others to stumble. The severe form of the warning suggests that false teaching, or leading someone into apostasy, is in view here. a millstone. This was a heavy stone used in a grinding mill.

17:20 kingdom of God. In ancient Israel there was an expectation that the kingdom of God would come with cosmic signs (Joel 2:28–32 ). Jesus' concept of the kingdom of God, however, was broader than the time of the final consummation.

17:21 among you. This verse indicates that there was an aspect of kingdom promise involved in Jesus' first coming. The kingdom of God is among earthly kingdoms today; but one day the kingdom of God will swallow up all rival kingdoms (Rev 11:15 ). In verses 22–37 , Jesus makes it clear that the kingdom has two phases—one now and one to come. In the beginning of His kingdom on earth, God first prepares a King to rule; then He gathers a people for Him to rule over; then He gives the Ruler a realm in which to reign. The kingdom of God is not the same as the church, though the church is a part of the kingdom. The kingdom now is the presence of God alongside earthly kingdoms. One day, however, Jesus will rule over all, and He will share that rule with His people (Rev 2:26–27 ; 5:9–10 ; 20:4–6 ).

17:26 in the days of Noah. At that time people paid little attention to God and faced judgment as a result (Ge 6:5–13 ). The same will be the case at Jesus' return.

17:32 Lot's wife. This woman represents those who are attached to earthly things, those whose hearts are still in this world. Like Lot's wife, such people will perish (Ge 19:26 ).

17:34–37 one (the non-believer) will be taken. This phrase suggests judgment such as when the soldiers took Jesus to crucify Him. Verse 37 makes it clear that those who are taken are taken to final judgment. The vultures will be gathered. When judgment comes, it will be final and terrible, with the stench of death and the presence of vultures everywhere. No one will need to look for the place of judgment; the presence of the birds will reveal where the carcasses are.

18:2 a judge. The Romans allowed the Jews to manage most of their own affairs. This judge did not fear God, and was therefore probably a secular judge, not a religious one. The dishonest judge represents corrupted power.

18:5 this widow continues to bother me. The persistence of the widow is the lesson of the parable. God is a counterexample to the judge. God does not begrudge answering prayer. Jesus' point is that, if an insensitive judge will respond to the continual requests of a widow, God will certainly respond to the continual prayers of believers.

18:11–12 God, I thank You. The tone of the prayer reveals the Pharisee's problem. He uses the pronoun "I" five times in two verses. The Pharisee's attitude seems to be that God should be grateful to him for his commitment. The man obviously looked down on other people and was proud of his fasting and tithing.

18:13 God, be merciful and gracious to me, the [especially wicked] sinner. This is an example of the humble spirit of repentance that Jesus commends. The tax collector knew that he could not say or bring anything to enhance his standing with God. He knew that only God's mercy and grace, and not his own works, could deliver him.

18:16 But Jesus called them. Jesus used the thoughtlessness of his disciples to make two points: (1) all people, even little children, are important to God; and (2) the kingdom of God consists of those who respond to Him with the trust that a little child gives to a parent.

18:22 sell everything that you have and distribute the money to the poor. This was a radical test of the ruler's concern for others (12:33–34). Jesus was determining whether the ruler's treasure (Mt 6:19–21) lay with God or money (16:13). Jesus was not establishing a new requirement for being saved. He was examining the ruler's orientation to God by directly confronting him with the very thing that was hindering him—namely, his wealth.

18:24–25 For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle. Jesus used this figure of speech to emphasize the difficulty of turning from wealth to find salvation. Because many Jewish people believed that wealth was evidence of God's blessing, Jesus' statements would have been shocking to His audience.

18:34 the disciples understood none of these things. The disciples may have understood something of what Jesus said, but they could not understand why God's Chosen One would have to face such suffering. For those who were expecting the Promised One to be an exalted figure who would deliver God's people, it would be very difficult to reconcile such an expectation with such terrible suffering.

18:38 Son of David. Note the irony in this verse. The blind man recognized who Jesus was more clearly than many people who were blessed with physical sight. The blind man's cry for mercy demonstrated his belief that Jesus had the power to heal him.

19:2 Zaccheus. This was the chief tax collector which meant he most likely bid for the right to collect taxes and then hired another tax collector to actually gather the money.

19:7 they all began muttering. The crowd was not happy with Jesus' choice of who to honor with His fellowship. In the crowd's opinion, Zaccheus was a sinner. Tax collectors often took for themselves a high percentage of what they demanded. They were hated and despised in ancient Israel.

19:11 they assumed that. Evidently the disciples believed that Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem would signal the arrival of the kingdom of God. Jesus' parable in verses 12–27 was designed to dispel this misconception. Note that the disciples raised the same question in Acts 1:6.

19:13 ten minas. Each servant received about four months' wages for the average worker. The master, symbolizing Jesus Himself, wants to see fruit, or dividends from his investment. Did his servants put the money they received to good use?

19:20–23 I was [always] afraid of you. The unfaithful servant's excuse for failure reflects a negative view of the nobleman. If the servant had really feared the master, he would have done something with the money. Even putting the money in the bank would have yielded interest.

19:31–34 The Lord needs it. Such borrowing of an animal was not as strange as it may appear. There was an ancient custom by which a political or religious leader could commandeer property for short-term use. Jesus was entering Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, festivals that commemorated the great act of God's deliverance of the nation. Such feasts were often celebrated at this time with the hope that God's decisive deliverance would come.

19:41 wept over it. Jesus knew that so many of the people of Israel had rejected Him that the nation would suffer judgment, in the form of the terrible destruction that came on Jerusalem in AD 70.

[19:43 put up a barricade \[with pointed stakes\] against you, and surround you.](#) This is a prediction of Rome's successful siege of Jerusalem under Titus. The details reflect a divine judgment for covenant unfaithfulness, similar to the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC (Isa 29:1–4 ; Jer 6:6–21 ; Eze 4:1–3 ).

19:45 Jesus went into the temple. Jesus cleansed the temple in anger after seeing that the place of prayer had become an excuse for corrupt commerce. Merchants were selling sacrificial animals in the outer court of the temple (the court of the Gentiles) at exorbitant prices. Money changers were making an excessive profit exchanging currencies for the temple shekel. John records a temple cleansing in John 2:13–22 , but it is not clear whether that event is the same as this one in Luke. Since John places the event early in Jesus' ministry, Jesus might have cleansed the temple twice.

[20:4 The baptism of John \[the Baptist\]—was it from heaven \[that is, ordained by God\] or from men?](#) Here as throughout the Gospel of Luke, the ministries of John the Baptist and Jesus are linked. Jesus' question presented the Pharisees with a dilemma. If they recognized John's ministry as coming from heaven, they would be recognizing the same divine origin of Jesus' similar "independent" Spirit directed ministry. But if the Pharisees denied that John was sent by God they risked angering the majority of the people, who believed that John's ministry was divinely directed (vv. 5–6 ).

20:9 A man planted a vineyard. The imagery of the vineyard recalls the subject of Jesus' parable in 13:6–9 . This parable is also found in Matthew 21:33–44 and Mark 12:1–12 , with some slight variations of detail in each account.

[20:14 This \[man\] is the heir; let us kill him.](#) The vinedressers hoped that with the son gone, the inheritance would fall to those who worked the property, a transfer that was possible in the ancient world. It should be noted that the details of this parable do not represent the thinking of those who crucified Jesus. The leaders of Israel thought they were stopping someone who was dangerous to Judaism, not that they were going to inherit Jesus' kingdom.

[20:17 T HE \[very\] S TONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED.](#) This passage, taken from Psalm 118:22 , pictures the exaltation of the Righteous One, Jesus, after His rejection. Opposition will not stop God from making the One who is rejected the center of His work of salvation.

20:18 Everyone who falls on that stone. Jesus is the stone. Anyone who goes against the stone will be destroyed. Jesus' statement is similar to a late Jewish proverb: "If the stone falls on the pot, alas for the pot; If the pot falls on the stone, alas for the pot." The imagery for the stone is also found in 1 Peter 2:4–8 .

20:22 Is it lawful . . . for us to pay taxes \(tribute money\) to Caesar. This question concerned the poll tax to Rome, which was different from the taxes collected by the tax collectors. The poll tax was a citizenship tax paid directly to Rome, as an indication that Israel was subject to that Gentile nation. The Pharisees' query was a trick question. If Jesus answered yes, the people would be angry because He respected a foreign power. If He answered no, He could be charged with sedition.

20:24 Whose image and inscription does the coin have? Jesus' reply was clever. He had the Pharisees pull out a coin, indicating that they already recognized Roman sovereignty by using Roman coins themselves. A penny was a silver coin that had a picture of the emperor Tiberius on it.

20:27 Sadducees. The Sadducees, the Pharisees, and the Essenes were three major divisions in first-century Judaism. The Sadducees rejected the oral traditions that the Pharisees too stringently obeyed. Instead they based their teaching only on the first five books of the Old Testament. They also denied that there could be a resurrection.

[20:36 they are \[immortal\] like the angels.](#) The everlasting life of a resurrected person makes that person something like an angel. Paul explains further that in the resurrection we will be given resurrection bodies similar to Christ's (1Co 15:25–58 ). This will be a new experience that will not necessarily parallel experiences on this earth, such as marriage.

20:41–42 How is it that people say. Here Jesus takes His turn at raising a theological issue. The dilemma He poses is how the Messiah could be called the Son of David, when David himself gave Him the title Lord, my Lord. This is a citation from Psalm 110:1. The Messiah was David's descendant and yet David gave Him the respect due to a superior, the reverse of what normally occurred in ancient times. Jesus was not denying the title Son of David to the Messiah, He was simply noting that the title Lord, meaning "Master," is more central. Even David one day will bow at the Messiah's feet and confess that He is Lord (Php 2:10 ).

21:2 two small copper coins. These were the smallest currency available.

21:5 consecrated offerings. These were gift offerings for the decoration of the temple and included gold and silver-plated gates, grapevine clusters, and Babylonian linen tapestries which hung from the temple veil. Even Tacitus, the Roman historian, called it an "immensely opulent temple."

21:6 there will not be one stone left on another. Jesus noted that the beautiful place of worship was temporary and would be destroyed. He was referring to the fall of Jerusalem in AD 70, which itself was a picture of the destruction of the last days.

21:8 Be careful and see to it that you are not misled. The first century and early second century were times of great messianic fervor in Judaism, as the Israelites sought freedom from Roman rule. Many people claimed to be the Messiah. Jesus warned his disciples not to be fooled by such claims.

21:12 synagogues and prisons . . . kings and governors. These references indicate that all nations would share responsibility for the massacre of the disciples.

21:15 I will give you [skillful] words and wisdom. Jesus promises the disciples that the Holy Spirit will assist them in giving testimony (12:11–12 ). The initial fulfillment of this promise is found in Acts 4:8–14 ; 7:54 ; and 26:24–30 .

21:16 you will be betrayed. The persecution of the disciples would be painful and severe. Identifying with Jesus often means risking the rejection and denunciation of family, and in some cases martyrdom.

21:20 complete destruction. This passage compared the desecration of the temple to what occurred in 167 BC, when Antiochus Epiphanes erected an altar to Zeus in the temple. A similar desecration of the temple site occurred during the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70.

21:22 days of vengeance. Jerusalem had become an object of divine judgment because of its unfaithfulness. Jesus warned of this consequence throughout His ministry (13:9 ,34–35 ; 19:41–44 ). The premise for such judgment goes back to the curses of the Mosaic covenant and the Old Testament prophets' warnings of coming judgment (Dt 28:49–57 ; 32:35 ; Jer 6:1–8 ; 26:1–9 ; Hos 9:7 ).

21:27 S ON OF M AN COMING IN A CLOUD. The reference here is to the authoritative return of Jesus. The allusion to the cloud and the figure comes from Daniel 7:13–14 , with its picture of One who receives authority from the Ancient of Days. Jesus viewed this text in terms of an apocalyptic deliverance. The image of the cloud is important, since God is identified as riding the clouds in the Old Testament (Ex 34:5 ; Ps 104:3 ). The Son of Man has divine authority to judge the world.

21:29–30 as soon as they put out leaves. The tender buds that appear every spring on trees show that summer is approaching; the appearance of the signs Jesus describes will warn of the coming of the end times.

21:33 will not pass away. The disciples had the assurance that Jesus' promises concerning the end times were more certain than creation itself. God made an unconditional and unilateral covenant, and He will keep it (Ge 12:1–3 ; 15:18–21 ; Ps 89 ).

21:34 be on guard. Though the events of the end times may not come to pass for a long time, believers should continue to look for their arrival. The day of Jesus' return should not take us by surprise. We should live as if it is imminent.

22:1 the Festival of Unleavened Bread. This feast took place immediately following Passover (Ex 12:1–20 ; Dt 16:1–8 ). The two feasts were often considered as one. Passover commemorated the night of the tenth plague in Egypt. The Feast of Unleavened Bread celebrated the exodus.

22:4 officers. These were Levites who were members of the temple guard. They were the ones who could make the arrest.

22:11–12 guest room. Such rooms were often made available to the thousands of pilgrims who came to Jerusalem for the celebration of Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Such a room would contain couches for guests at the feasts to recline for the meal. Access to the room was probably gained by stairs on the outside of the house.

22:19 My body . . . do this in remembrance. Jesus instituted a new meal which is not only a memorial of His death, but also a fellowship meal of unity. It is a proclamation and a symbol of the believer's anticipation of Jesus' return, when all God's promises will be fulfilled (1Co 10:16–17 ; 11:23–26 ).

22:20 This cup . . . is the new covenant. The wine of the Lord's Supper depicts the giving of life, a sacrifice of blood, which inaugurated the new covenant for those who respond to Jesus' offer of salvation (Heb 8:8 , 13 ; 9:11–28 ).

22:30 eat and drink . . . sit on thrones judging. This is a promise of future blessing and authority. The disciples were promised a seat at the banquet of victory and the right to help Jesus rule over Israel on His return (Mt 19:28 ; 2Ti 2:12 ).

22:32 I have prayed [especially] for you . . . you have turned back again [to Me]. The Greek word for you here is singular, referring specifically to Peter. In effect, Jesus restored Peter even before his fall (vv. 54–62 ), and He instructed the disciple to shepherd the saints by strengthening them.

22:37 this [Scripture] which is written. Jesus cited Isaiah 53:12 , which describes a righteous one who suffers as a criminal. Jesus noted that His death would fulfill Isaiah's prediction.

22:42 this cup. This is a figure of speech for wrath (Ps 11:6 ; 75:7–8 ; Jer 25:15–16 ; Eze 23:31–34 ).

22:43 strengthening Him. God's answer to Jesus' prayer did not allow His Son to avoid suffering. However, God did provide angelic help for Jesus to face what was coming. Sometimes God answers prayer by eliminating trials; sometimes He answers by strengthening us in the midst of them.

22:52 as you would against a robber. The Greek term for robber was used of both highway bandits and revolutionaries. Jesus rebuked His captors for treating Him as though He were a dangerous lawbreaker.

22:59 for he is a Galilean. According to Mark 14:70 , Peter's accent gave him away as being from the same region as Jesus.

22:66 the elders of the people . . . assembled. The description here is of a major morning trial that involved all the Jewish religious leaders, the entire council or Sanhedrin. This trial violated various Jewish legal rules given in later sources: meeting on the morning of a feast; meeting at Caiaphas's home; trying a defendant without defense; and reaching the verdict in one day instead of the two days that were required for capital cases.

22:69 AT THE RIGHT HAND of the power OF GOD . Jesus' reply here alludes to the regal enthronement image of Psalm 110:1 . This reply is what convicted Him. Apparently what offended Jesus' audience was His claim to sit in God's presence and to exercise divine authority. In effect, His answer to their question about being the Christ was more than they expected. It was not blasphemous to claim to be Messiah. What was blasphemous was the claim to be the Judge of Jewish people, with God's authority.

23:2 began to accuse. Three charges were lodged against Jesus: (1) perverting the nation, (2) forbidding payment of taxes to Rome, and (3) claiming to be the Christ. The first charge, which was a general complaint, involved disturbing the peace. The other two charges could have been construed as challenges to Rome. The second charge was a blatant lie (20:20–26 ). The third charge was true, but not in the threatening sense that the prosecutors suggested. A three-part Roman procedure was followed at the trial; charges, examination, and verdict.

23:5 they were insistent. By mentioning the charge that Jesus stirred up the people, the leaders suggested that Pilate risked being found derelict in his duty if he let Jesus go.

23:7 jurisdiction of Herod. Herod was responsible for Galilee, so Pilate “passed the buck” for the ruling and showed political courtesy at the same time.

23:16 punish Him . . . and release Him. Pilate hoped that a public whipping might satisfy the crowd and tame Jesus, avoiding the need to resort to the death penalty.

23:18–19 Away with this Man. The entire crowd is portrayed as wanting Jesus to die. Luke makes it clear that Jesus’ death was not only instigated by Jewish officials but approved by the Jewish people.

23:26 Simon of Cyrene was recruited to carry Jesus’ cross. He was from a leading city of Libya.

23:28 do not weep for Me. Though He was dying, Jesus pointed out that their weeping should be for Jerusalem and its inhabitants, since judgment was going to fall on the city (19:41–44). Jerusalem here represents the entire nation of Israel.

23:31 what will happen when it is dry. The idea here seems to be “If this is what is done to a live tree, what will happen to the dead one?” In other words, “If Jesus, the living tree, has not been spared, how much more will dead wood not be spared.” This is Jesus’ final lament over the nation of Israel.

23:33 the place called The Skull. The name of the place in Aramaic is Golgotha, which means “skull.” Calvary is the Latin name for Golgotha. Possibly the name referred to a geographical feature of the locale, something that resembled a skull.

23:36 sour wine. The drink referred to here was probably wine vinegar, which was inexpensive and quenched thirst better than water. It was a drink of the poor.

23:44 sixth hour . . . ninth hour. The first hour was sunrise, so the time was 12 P.M. to 3 P.M. During these three hours, signs of creation revealed that the hour was not one of light but of darkness (22:53).

23:47 Certainly this Man was innocent. If Jesus was righteous and innocent, then He is who He claimed to be. Thus a second figure besides the thief on the cross had insight into Jesus’ death.

23:52 the body of Jesus. There is no doubt that Jesus died. Efforts to explain the resurrection as something like a return from a coma are more impossible than the idea of the resurrection itself.

23:54 the day of preparation. Jesus was buried late on Friday, on the day called Preparation when everything was made ready for the Sabbath, the day when no labor could take place.

24:2 they found the [large, circular] stone rolled back. Matthew 28:2 mentions that an earthquake moved the stone, which would have fit in a channel in front of the entrance to the tomb. Moving the stone would have been possible, though difficult, for a group of people. The earthquake settles the question of how the stone was moved.

24:11 they would not believe them. Skepticism reigned among the disciples. It is clear that they did not expect a resurrection. The disciples thought the women’s story was nonsense.

24:12 Peter got up and ran. Having already experienced a fulfilled prediction of the Lord (22:54–62), Peter hurried to the tomb to check out the women’s story. It is hard to say whether Peter believed in the resurrection when he left the tomb. At that point he was probably more amazed than anything else.

24:19–21 Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet. These disciples on the road to Emmaus regarded Jesus as the Revealer of God's way and the Doer of His work.

24:23 He was alive! The women reported that there was no body found in Jesus' tomb, and that angels had announced to them that Jesus lives. The fact that the men were still sad indicates that they did not believe the report.

24:25 slow of heart to trust and believe. Jesus, who at this time was still not known to the travelers, rebuked His companions and reminded them of the things that the prophets taught.

24:27 Then beginning with Moses. Going from the books of Moses to the Prophets, Jesus provided an overview of God's plan in the Scriptures. This plan is present throughout the entire Old Testament (Ac 3:22–26 ; 10:43 ).

24:39 flesh and bones. Jesus pointed out that a raised body is not a disembodied spirit. The presence of his body indicates that Jesus had been raised and that He was not a hallucination. He was raised in the same physical body in which He had been put to death. The difference was that His resurrected body is not corruptible and not subject to death.

24:46 Christ \(the Messiah, the Anointed\) would suffer and rise from the dead. Two parts of God's plan had been fulfilled. Jesus had been crucified and raised from the dead. Old Testament texts that predict these events are Psalm 22 and Psalm 118:22 .

24:49 the Promise of My Father. This is a reference to the baptism of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Ac 2:4 ). It was promised in Jeremiah 31:31–33 , and in Joel 2:28 . Peter called this coming of the Spirit “the beginning” (Ac 11:15 ) because the real fulfillment of God’s promise of salvation would start in those people united by the Spirit to establish the church.

The Gospel According to John

- AUTHOR: Jesus nicknamed John and his brother, James, “Sons of Thunder” (Mk 3:17 ). John was evidently among the Galileans who followed John the Baptist until they were called to follow Jesus at the outset of His public ministry. These Galileans were later called to become full-time disciples of the Lord (Lk 5:1–11 ), and John was among the twelve men who were selected to be apostles (Lk 6:12–16 ). The author of this Gospel is identified only as the disciple “whom Jesus loved” (Jn 13:23 ; 19:26 ; 21:7 ), but attention to detail concerning geography and Jewish culture in the Gospel lend credibility to the author’s claim to be an eyewitness. The strong testimony of the early church relates this eyewitness to the apostle John.
- TIMES: c. AD 29–33
- KEY VERSES: Jn 20:30–31
- THEME: John is a great book for new or young Christians because it intentionally helps the reader understand the significance of Jesus. What becomes increasingly clear as you read the Gospel of John is that Jesus does not fit the image of someone who is simply a nice moral teacher. Only a lunatic would make the claims He makes for Himself unless He was who He said He was. John leaves no room for indecision. Like the many people Jesus encounters in the book, as you read, you must either reject Him or accept Him, and say in the end like Thomas: “My Lord and my God” (20:28 ). This Gospel is an incredibly powerful presentation of Jesus.

John 1

The Deity of Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup> IN THE beginning [before all time] was the Word (Christ), and the Word was with God, and the Word was God Himself.  [Gen 1:1 ; Is 9:6 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup>. All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him not even one thing was made that has come into being. ‡

<sup>4</sup>. In Him was life [and the power to bestow life], and the life was the Light of men. ‡

<sup>5</sup>. The Light shines on in the darkness, and the darkness did not understand it or overpower it or appropriate it or absorb it [and is unreceptive to it].  [Gen 1:4 ] ‡

The Witness of John the Baptist

<sup>8</sup> John was not the Light, but came to testify about the Light.

<sup>9</sup> There it was—the true Light [the genuine, perfect, steadfast Light] which, coming into the world, enlightens everyone.  [Is 49:6 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> He (Christ) was in the world, and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him. ‡

<sup>11</sup>. He came to that which was His own [that which belonged to Him—His world, His creation, His possession], and those who were His own [people—the Jewish nation] did not receive and welcome Him. ‡

<sup>12</sup>. But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave the right [the authority, the privilege] to become children of God, that is, to those who believe in (adhere to, trust in, and rely on) His name—  [Is 56:5 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> who were born, not of blood [natural conception], nor of the will of the flesh [physical impulse], nor of the will of man [that of a natural father], but of God [that is, a divine and supernatural birth—they are born of God—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified]. ‡

The Word Made Flesh

14—And the Word (Christ) became flesh, and lived among us; and we [actually] saw His glory, glory as belongs to the [One and] only begotten Son of the Father, [the Son who is truly unique, the only One of His kind, who is] full of grace and truth (absolutely free of deception).  [Is 40:5. ] ‡

15 John testified [repeatedly] about Him and has cried out [testifying officially for the record, with validity and relevance], “This was He of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me has a higher rank than I and has priority over me, for He existed before me.’ ” ‡

16 For out of His fullness [the superabundance of His grace and truth] we have all received grace upon grace [spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing, favor upon favor, and gift heaped upon gift]. ‡

17 For the Law was given through Moses, but grace [the unearned, undeserved favor of God] and truth came through Jesus Christ.  [Ex 20:1. ] ‡

18 No one has seen God [His essence, His divine nature] at any time; the [One and] only begotten God [that is, the unique Son] who is in the intimate presence of the Father, He has explained Him [and interpreted and revealed the awesome wonder of the Father].  [Prov 8:30. ] ‡

The Testimony of John

19 This is the testimony of John [the Baptist] when the Jews sent priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?” ‡

20 And he confessed [truthfully] and did not deny [that he was only a man], but acknowledged, “I am not the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)!” ‡

21 They asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” And he said, “I am not.” “Are you the [promised] Prophet?” And he answered, “No.”  [Deut 18:15, 18; Mal 4:5. ] ‡

22 Then they said to him, “Who are you? Tell us, so that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

23 He said, “I am THE VOICE OF ONE SHOUTING IN THE WILDERNESS , ‘MAKE STRAIGHT THE WAY OF THE LORD,’ as the prophet Isaiah said.”  [Is 40:3. ] ‡

24 Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.

25 They asked him, “Why then are you baptizing, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

26 John answered them, “I baptize [only] in water, but among you there stands One whom you do not recognize and of whom you know nothing.  [Mal

3:1] ‡

27 “It is He [the preeminent One] who comes after me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie [even as His slave].” ‡

28 These things occurred in Bethany across the Jordan [at the Jordan River crossing], where John was baptizing. ‡

29 The next day he saw Jesus coming to him and said, “Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!  [Ex 12:3; Is 53:7 ] ‡

30 “This is He on behalf of whom I said, ‘After me comes a Man who has a higher rank than I and has priority over me, for He existed before me.’ ‡

31 “I did not recognize Him [as the Messiah]; but I came baptizing in water so that He would be [publicly] revealed to Israel.” ‡

32 John gave [further] evidence [testifying officially for the record, with validity and relevance], saying, “I have seen the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven, and He remained upon Him.  [Matt 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; Luke 3:22, 23 ] ‡

33 “I did not recognize Him [as the Messiah], but He who sent me to baptize in water said to me, ‘He upon whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this One is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’ ‡

34 “I myself have [actually] seen [that happen], and my testimony is that this is the Son of God!”

Jesus’ Public Ministry, First Converts

35 Again the next day John was standing with two of his disciples,

36 and he looked at Jesus as He walked along, and said, “Look! The Lamb of God!” ‡

37 The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.

38 And Jesus turned and saw them following Him, and asked them, “What do you want?” They answered Him, “Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are You staying?”

39 He said to them, “Come, and you will see.” So they went [with Him] and saw where He was staying; and they stayed with Him that day, for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two who heard what John said and [as a result] followed Jesus was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother.

41 He first looked for and found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah” (which translated means the Christ).

42 Andrew brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon the son of John. You shall be called Cephas (which is translated Peter).” ‡

43 The next day Jesus decided to go into Galilee, and He found Philip and said to him, “Follow Me [as My disciple, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher, and walking the same path of life that I walk].”

44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. ‡

45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the One Moses in the Law and also the Prophets wrote about—Jesus from Nazareth, the son of Joseph [according to public record].” ‡

46 Nathanael answered him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip replied, “Come and see.” ‡

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and said of him, “Here is an Israelite indeed [a true descendant of Jacob], in whom there is no guile nor deceit nor duplicity!” ‡

48 Nathanael said to Jesus, “How do You know [these things about] me?” Jesus answered, “Before Philip called you, when you were still under the fig tree, I saw you.”

49 Nathanael answered, “Rabbi (Teacher), You are the Son of God; You are the King of Israel.” ‡

50 Jesus replied, “Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe [in Me]? You will see greater things than this.”

51 Then He said to him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man [the bridge between heaven and earth].”  [Gen 28:12; Dan 7:13] ‡

John 2

Miracle at Cana

1 ON THE third day there was a wedding at Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there; ‡ Miracles of Jesus

2 and both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.

3. When the wine was all gone, the mother of Jesus said to Him, “They have no more wine.”

4 Jesus said to her, “[Dear] woman, what is that to you and to Me? My time

[to act and to be revealed] has not yet come.”  [Eccl 3:1 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Now there were six stone waterpots set there for the Jewish custom of purification (ceremonial washing), containing twenty or thirty gallons each. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the waterpots with water.” So they filled them up to the brim.

<sup>8</sup> Then He said to them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter [of the banquet].” So they took it to him.

<sup>9</sup> And when the headwaiter tasted the water which had turned into wine, not knowing where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew) he called the bridegroom, ‡

<sup>10</sup> and said to him, “Everyone else serves his best wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then he serves that which is not so good; but you have kept back the good wine until now.”

<sup>12</sup> After this He went down to Capernaum, He and His mother and brothers and His disciples; and they stayed there a few days. ‡

First Passover—Cleansing the Temple

<sup>13</sup> Now the Passover of the Jews was approaching, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>14</sup> And in the temple [enclosure] He found the people who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting at their tables.  [Matt 21:12ff; Mark 11:15, 17 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> He made a whip of cords, and drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen; and He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables;

<sup>16</sup> then to those who sold the doves He said, “Take these things away! Stop making My Father’s house a place of commerce!”  [Ps 93:5 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> His disciples remembered that it is written [in the Scriptures], “Z EAL (love, concern) FOR Y OUR HOUSE [and its honor] WILL CONSUME M E .”  [Ps 69:9 ]

<sup>18</sup> Then the Jews retorted, “What sign (attesting miracle) can You show us as [proof of] your authority for doing these things?” ‡

19. Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.” ‡

20. Then the Jews replied, “It took forty-six years to build this temple, and You will raise it up in three days?”

21. But He was speaking of the temple which was His body. ‡

22. So when He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered what He had said. And they believed and trusted in and relied on the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.  [Ps 16:10 ] ‡

23. Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover feast, many believed in His name [identifying themselves with Him] after seeing His signs (attesting miracles) which He was doing.

24. But Jesus, for His part, did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all people [and understood the superficiality and fickleness of human nature],

25. and He did not need anyone to testify concerning man [and human nature], for He Himself knew what was in man [in their hearts—in the very core of their being].  [1 Sam 16:7 ] ‡

John 3

The New Birth

1 NOW THERE was a certain man among the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler (member of the Sanhedrin) among the Jews,

2-who came to Jesus at night and said to Him, “Rabbi (Teacher), we know [without any doubt] that You have come from God as a teacher; for no one can do these signs [these wonders, these attesting miracles] that You do unless God is with him.” ‡

3 Jesus answered him, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless a person is born again [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified], he cannot [ever] see and experience the kingdom of God.” ‡

4 Nicodemus said to Him, “How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter his mother’s womb a second time and be born, can he?”

5. Jesus answered, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot [ever] enter the kingdom of God.  [Ezek 36:25–27 ] ‡

6 “That which is born of the flesh is flesh [the physical is merely physical], and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

<sup>7</sup> “Do not be surprised that I have told you, ‘You must be born again [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified].’

<sup>8</sup> “The wind blows where it wishes and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it is coming from and where it is going; so it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Jesus replied, “You are the [great and well-known] teacher of Israel, and yet you do not know nor understand these things [from Scripture]?

<sup>11</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, we speak only of what we [absolutely] know and testify about what we have [actually] seen [as eyewitnesses]; and [still] you [reject our evidence and] do not accept our testimony. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “If I told you earthly things [that is, things that happen right here on earth] and you do not believe, how will you believe and trust Me if I tell you heavenly things?

<sup>13</sup> “No one has gone up into heaven, but there is One who came down from heaven, the Son of Man [Himself—whose home is in heaven]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> so that whoever believes will in Him have eternal life [after physical death, and will actually live forever]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “For God so [greatly] loved and dearly prized the world, that He [even] gave His [One and] only begotten Son, so that whoever believes and trusts in Him [as Savior] shall not perish, but have eternal life. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For God did not send the Son into the world to judge and condemn the world [that is, to initiate the final judgment of the world], but that the world might be saved through Him. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “Whoever believes and has decided to trust in Him [as personal Savior and Lord] is not judged [for this one, there is no judgment, no rejection, no condemnation]; but the one who does not believe [and has decided to reject Him as personal Savior and Lord] is judged already [that one has been convicted and sentenced], because he has not believed and trusted in the name of the [One and] only begotten Son of God [the One who is truly unique, the only One of His kind, the One who alone can save him]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “This is the judgment [that is, the cause for indictment, the test by which people are judged, the basis for the sentence]: the Light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil.  [Is 5:20 ] ‡

20 “For every wrongdoer hates the Light, and does not come to the Light [but shrinks from it] for fear that his [sinful, worthless] activities will be exposed and condemned. ‡

21 “But whoever practices truth [and does what is right—morally, ethically, spiritually] comes to the Light, so that his works may be plainly shown to be what they are—accomplished in God [divinely prompted, done with God’s help, in dependence on Him].”

John’s Last Testimony

22 After these things Jesus and His disciples went into the land of Judea, and there He spent time with them and baptized.  [John 4:1, 2 ] ‡

23 Now John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was an abundance of water there; and people were coming and were being baptized—‡

24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison. ‡

25 Therefore there arose a controversy between John’s disciples and a Jew in regard to purification (ceremonial washing).

26 So they came to John and said to him, “Rabbi (Teacher), the Man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan [at the Jordan River crossing]—and to whom you have testified—look, He is baptizing too, and everyone is going to Him!” ‡

27 John replied, “A man can receive nothing [he can claim nothing at all] unless it has been granted to him from heaven [for there is no other source than the sovereign will of God]. ‡

28 “You yourselves are my witnesses that I stated, ‘I am not the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed),’ but, ‘I have [only] been sent ahead of Him [as His appointed forerunner and messenger to announce and proclaim His coming].’  [Mal 3:1 ] ‡

29 “He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands by and listens to him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. So this pleasure and joy of mine is now complete.  [Song 5:1 ] ‡

30 “He must increase [in prominence], but I must decrease.  [Is 9:7 ]

31 “He who comes from [heaven] above is above all others; he who is of the earth is from the earth and speaks [about things] of the earth [his viewpoint and experience are earthly]. He who comes from heaven is above all. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “What He has [actually] seen and heard, of that He testifies; and yet no one accepts His testimony [as true]. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “Whoever receives His testimony has set his seal [of approval] to this: God is true [and he knows that God cannot lie]. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God [proclaiming the Father’s own message]; for God gives the [gift of the] Spirit without measure [generously and boundlessly]!  [Deut 18:18. ] ‡

<sup>35</sup> “The Father loves the Son and has given and entrusted all things into His hand.  [Dan 7:14. ] ‡

<sup>36</sup> “He who believes and trusts in the Son and accepts Him [as Savior] has eternal life [that is, already possesses it]; but he who does not believe the Son and chooses to reject Him, [disobeying Him and denying Him as Savior] will not see [eternal] life, but [instead] the wrath of God hangs over him continually.”  [Heb 3:18. ] ‡

John 4

Jesus Goes to Galilee

<sup>1</sup> SO WHEN the Lord learned that the Pharisees had been told that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John ‡ *Jesus' Visits to Jerusalem*

<sup>5</sup> So He arrived at a Samaritan town called Sychar, near the tract of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph; ‡

<sup>6</sup> and Jacob’s well was there. So Jesus, tired as He was from His journey, sat down by the well. It was then about the sixth hour (noon).

The Samaritan Woman

<sup>7</sup> Then a woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give Me a drink”—

<sup>8</sup> For His disciples had gone off into the city to buy food—

<sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman asked Him, “How is it that You, being a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” (For Jews have nothing to do with Samaritans.) ‡

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered her, “If you knew [about] God’s gift [of eternal life], and who it is who says, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would have asked Him [instead], and He would have given you living water (eternal life).” ‡

<sup>11</sup> She said to Him, “Sir, You have nothing to draw with [no bucket and rope] and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water?”

<sup>12</sup> “Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and who used to drink from it himself, and his sons and his cattle also?”

<sup>13</sup> Jesus answered her, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again.

<sup>14</sup> “But whoever drinks the water that I give him will never be thirsty again. But the water that I give him will become in him a spring of water [satisfying his thirst for God] welling up [continually flowing, bubbling within him] to eternal life.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> The woman said to Him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I will not get thirsty nor [have to continually] come all the way here to draw.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> At this, Jesus said, “Go, call your husband and come back.”

<sup>17</sup> The woman answered, “I do not have a husband.” Jesus said to her, “You have correctly said, ‘I do not have a husband’;

<sup>18</sup> for you have had five husbands, and the man you are now living with is not your husband. You have said this truthfully.”

<sup>19</sup> The woman said to Him, “Sir, I see that You are a prophet. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews say that the place where one ought to worship is in Jerusalem [at the temple].” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Jesus replied, “Woman, believe Me, a time is coming [when God’s kingdom comes] when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “You [Samaritans] do not know what you worship; we [Jews] do know what we worship, for salvation is from the Jews. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “But a time is coming and is already here when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit [from the heart, the inner self] and in truth; for the Father seeks such people to be His worshipers. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “God is spirit [the Source of life, yet invisible to mankind], and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> The woman said to Him, “I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ—the Anointed); when that One comes, He will tell us everything [we need to know].” ‡

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, “I who speak to you, am He (the Messiah).” ‡

<sup>27</sup> Just then His disciples came, and they were surprised to find Him talking with a woman. However, no one said, “What are You asking about?” or, “Why are You talking to her?”

<sup>28</sup> Then the woman left her water jar, and went into the city and began telling the people,

<sup>33</sup> So the disciples said to one another, “Has anyone brought Him something to eat?”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to completely finish His work.” ‡

<sup>37</sup> “For in this case the saying is true, ‘One [person] sows and another reaps.’”

<sup>38</sup> “I sent you to reap [a crop] for which you have not worked. Others have worked and you have been privileged to reap the results of their work.”

The Samaritans

<sup>39</sup> Now many Samaritans from that city believed in Him and trusted Him [as Savior] because of what the woman said when she testified, “He told me all the things that I have done.” ‡

<sup>40</sup> So when the Samaritans came to Jesus, they asked Him to remain with them; and He stayed there two days.

<sup>41</sup> Many more believed in Him [with a deep, abiding trust] because of His word [His personal message to them];

<sup>42</sup> and they told the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said; for [now] we have heard Him for ourselves and know [with confident assurance] that this One is truly the Savior of [all] the world.” ‡

<sup>43</sup> After the two days He went on from there into Galilee.

<sup>44</sup> For Jesus Himself declared that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ‡

<sup>45</sup> So when He arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed Him, since they had seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they too came to the feast. ‡

Healing a Nobleman's Son

<sup>46</sup> So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. And there was a certain royal official whose son was sick in Capernaum. ‡

<sup>47</sup> Having heard that Jesus had come back from Judea to Galilee, he went to meet Him and began asking Him to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

<sup>48</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Unless you [people] see [miraculous] signs and wonders, you [simply] will not believe.” ‡

<sup>49</sup> The royal official pleaded with Him, “Sir, do come down [at once] before my child dies!”

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, “Go; your son lives!” The man believed what Jesus said to him and started home.

<sup>51</sup> As he was already going down [the road], his servants met him and reported that his son was living [and was healthy].

<sup>52</sup> So he asked them at what time he began to get better. They said, “Yesterday during the seventh hour the fever left him.”

<sup>53</sup> Then the father realized that it was at that very hour when Jesus had said to him, “Your son lives”; and he and his entire household believed and confidently trusted [in Him as Savior].

<sup>54</sup> This is the second sign (attesting miracle) that Jesus performed [in Cana] after He had come from Judea to Galilee [revealing that He is the Messiah].

John 5

The Healing at Bethesda

<sup>1</sup> LATER ON there was a Jewish feast (festival), and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Now in Jerusalem, near the Sheep Gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew (Jewish Aramaic) Bethesda, having five porticoes (alcoves, colonnades). ‡

<sup>3</sup> In these porticoes lay a great number of people who were sick, blind, lame, withered, [ waiting for the stirring of the water;

<sup>4</sup> for an angel of the Lord went down into the pool at appointed seasons and stirred up the water; the first one to go in after the water was stirred was healed of his disease. ]

<sup>5</sup> There was a certain man there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus noticed him lying there [helpless], knowing that he had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, “Do you want to get well?”

<sup>7</sup> The invalid answered, “Sir, I have no one to put me in the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am coming [to get into it myself], someone else steps down ahead of me.”

<sup>9</sup> Immediately the man was healed and recovered his strength, and picked up his pallet and walked. ‡

Now that day was the Sabbath.

<sup>10</sup> So the Jews kept saying to the man who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath, and you are not permitted to pick up your pallet [because it is unlawful].” ‡

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, “The Man who healed me and gave me back my strength was the One who said to me, ‘Pick up your pallet and walk.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> They asked him, “Who is the Man who told you, ‘Pick up your pallet and walk’?”

<sup>13</sup> Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away [unnoticed] since there was a crowd in that place.

<sup>14</sup> Afterward, Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, “See, you are well! Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

<sup>16</sup> For this reason the Jews began to persecute Jesus continually because He was doing these things on the Sabbath.

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus answered them, “My Father has been working until now [He has never ceased working], and I too am working.” ‡

Jesus' Equality with God

<sup>18</sup> This made the Jews more determined than ever to kill Him, for not only was He breaking the Sabbath [from their viewpoint], but He was also calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God. ‡

19. So Jesus answered them by saying, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself [of His own accord], unless it is something He sees the Father doing; for whatever things the Father does, the Son [in His turn] also does in the same way. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “For the Father dearly loves the Son and shows Him everything that He Himself is doing; and the Father will show Him greater works than these, so that you will be filled with wonder. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life [and allows them to live on], even so the Son also gives life to whom He wishes. ‡

22. “For the Father judges no one, but has given all judgment [that is, the prerogative of judging] to the Son [placing it entirely into His hands], ‡

<sup>23</sup> so that all will give honor (reverence, homage) to the Son just as they give honor to the Father. [In fact] the one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who has sent Him. ‡

24. “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, the person who hears My word [the one who heeds My message], and believes and trusts in Him who sent Me, has (possesses now) eternal life [that is, eternal life actually begins —the believer is transformed], and does not come into judgment and condemnation, but has passed [over] from death into life. ‡

Two Resurrections

<sup>25</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, a time is coming and is [here] now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear it will live. ‡

26. “For just as the Father has life in Himself [and is self-existent], even so He has given to the Son to have life in Himself [and be self-existent].

<sup>27</sup> “And He has given Him authority to execute judgment, because He is a Son of Man [sinless humanity, qualifying Him to sit in judgment over mankind].  [Dan 7:13, 14. ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Do not be surprised at this; for a time is coming when all those who are in the tombs will hear His voice,

29. and they will come out—those who did good things [will come out] to a resurrection of [new] life, but those who did evil things [will come out] to a resurrection of judgment [that is, to be sentenced].  [Dan 12:2; Rev 20:11–15 ]

30 “I can do nothing on my own initiative or authority. Just as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just (fair, righteous, unbiased), because I do not seek My own will, but only the will of Him who sent Me. ‡

31 “If I alone testify about Myself, My testimony is not valid. ‡

32 “There is another [My Father] who testifies about Me, and I know [without any doubt] that His testimony on My behalf is true and valid. ‡

Testimony of John

33 “You have sent [an inquiry] to John [the Baptist] and he has testified [as an eyewitness] to the truth. ‡

34 “But the testimony I receive is not from man [a merely human witness]; but I say these things so that you may be saved [that is, have eternal life].

35 “John was the lamp that kept on burning and shining [to show you the way], and you were willing for a while to rejoice in his light.  [John 1:23–25 ] ‡

Testimony of Works

36 “But the testimony which I have is far greater than the testimony of John; for the works that the Father has given Me to finish—the very same works [that is, the miracles and proofs of My deity] that I am [now] doing—testify about Me, [by providing evidence] that the Father has sent Me. ‡

Testimony of the Father

37 “And the Father who sent Me has Himself testified about Me. You have never heard His voice nor seen His form [His majesty and greatness—what He is like]. ‡ 38 “You do not have His word (Scripture) abiding in you [actually living in your hearts and minds], because you do not believe in Him whom He has sent.

Testimony of the Scripture

39 “You search and keep on searching and examining the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and yet it is those [very Scriptures] that testify about Me;‡

<sup>40</sup> and still you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life.‡

<sup>42</sup> but I know you and recognize that you do not have the love of God in yourselves.

<sup>43</sup> “I have come in My Father’s name and with His power, and you do not receive Me [because your minds are closed]; but if another comes in his own name and with no authority or power except his own, you will receive him and give your approval to an imposter.

<sup>44</sup> “How can you believe [in Me], when you [seek and] receive glory and approval from one another, and yet you do not seek the glory and approval which comes from the one and only God?‡

<sup>45</sup> “Do not think that I [am the One who] will accuse you before the Father. There [already] is one who accuses you: Moses, [the very one] in whom you have placed your hope [for salvation].‡

<sup>46</sup> “For if you believed and relied on [the Scriptures written by] Moses, you would believe Me, for he wrote about Me [personally].  [Gen 3:15 ; 22:18 ; 49:10 ; Num 24:17 ; Deut 18:15 ]‡

<sup>47</sup> “But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

John 6

Five Thousand Fed

<sup>3</sup> And Jesus went up on the mountainside and sat down there with His disciples.

<sup>5</sup> Jesus looked up and saw that a large crowd was coming toward Him, and He said to Philip, “Where will we buy bread for these people to eat?”‡

<sup>6</sup> But He said this to test Philip, because He knew what He was about to do.

7 Philip answered, “Two hundred denarii (200 days’ wages) worth of bread is not enough for each one to receive even a little.” ‡

8 One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to Him,

9 “There is a little boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are these for so many people?” ‡

10 Jesus said, “Have the people sit down [to eat].” Now [the ground] there was [covered with] an abundance of grass, so the men sat down, about 5,000 in number.

11 Then Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed them to those who were seated; the same also with the fish, as much as they wanted.

12 When they had eaten enough, He said to His disciples, “Gather up the leftover pieces so that nothing will be lost.”

13 So they gathered them up, and they filled twelve large baskets with pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 When the people saw the sign (attesting miracle) that He had done, they began saying, “This is without a doubt the promised Prophet who is to come into the world!”  [Deut 18:15, 18; John 1:21; Acts 3:22 ] ‡

Jesus Walks on the Water

15 Then Jesus, knowing that they were going to come and take Him by force to make Him king, withdrew again to the mountainside by Himself.

16 When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, ‡

17 and they got into a boat and started to cross the sea to Capernaum. It was already dark, and Jesus had still not come [back] to them.

18 The sea was getting rough and rising high because a strong wind was blowing.

19 Then, when they had rowed three or four miles [and were near the center of the sea], they saw Jesus walking on the sea and approaching the boat; and they were [terribly] frightened.

20 But Jesus said to them, “It is I (I AM); do not be afraid.”  [Matt 14:27; John 8:58 ]

21 Then they were willing to take Him on board the boat, and immediately the boat reached the [shore of the] land to which they were going.

22 The next day the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea realized that there had been only one small boat there, and that Jesus had not boarded the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had gone away alone.

<sup>23</sup> [Now some] other small boats from Tiberias had come in near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

<sup>24</sup> So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they boarded the small boats themselves and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they asked Him, “Rabbi, when did You get here?”

Words to the People

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, you have been searching for Me, not because you saw the signs (attesting miracles), but because you ate the loaves and were filled.

<sup>27</sup> “Do not work for food that perishes, but for food that endures [and leads] to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you; for God the Father has authorized Him and put His seal on Him.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Then they asked Him, “What are we to do, so that we may habitually be doing the works of God?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, “This is the work of God: that you believe [adhere to, trust in, rely on, and have faith] in the One whom He has sent.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> So they said to Him, “What sign (attesting miracle) will You do that we may see it and believe You? What [supernatural] work will You do [as proof]? ‡

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread out of heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread out of heaven.

<sup>33</sup> “For the Bread of God is He who comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world.”

<sup>35</sup> Jesus replied to them, “I am the Bread of Life. The one who comes to Me will never be hungry, and the one who believes in Me [as Savior] will never be thirsty [for that one will be sustained spiritually]. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “But as I told you, you have seen Me and still you do not believe. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “All that My Father gives Me will come to Me; and the one who comes to Me I will most certainly not cast out [I will never, never reject anyone who follows Me]. ‡

<sup>38</sup> “For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but to do the will of Him who sent Me. ‡

<sup>39</sup> “This is the will of Him who sent Me, that of all that He has given Me I lose nothing, but that I [give new life and] raise it up at the last day. ‡

<sup>40</sup> “For this is My Father’s will and purpose, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him [as Savior] will have eternal life, and I will raise him up [from the dead] on the last day.” ‡

Words to the Jews

<sup>41</sup> Now the Jews murmured and found fault with Him because He said, “I am the Bread that came down out of heaven.”

<sup>42</sup> They kept saying, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does He now [have the arrogance to] say, ‘I have come down out of heaven?’” ‡

<sup>43</sup> So Jesus answered, “Stop murmuring among yourselves.

<sup>44</sup> “No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him [giving him the desire to come to Me]; and I will raise him up [from the dead] on the last day. ‡

<sup>45</sup> “It is written in the prophets, ‘A ND THEY WILL ALL BE TAUGHT OF G OD .’ Everyone who has listened to and learned from the Father, comes to Me.  [Is 54:13. ] ‡

<sup>46</sup> “Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He [who was with the Father and] who is from God; He [alone] has seen the Father. ‡

<sup>47</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, he who believes [in Me as Savior—whoever adheres to, trusts in, relies on, and has faith in Me—already] has eternal life [that is, now possesses it]. ‡

<sup>50</sup> “This is the Bread that comes down out of heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. ‡

<sup>51</sup> “I am the Living Bread that came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this Bread [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior], he will live forever. And the Bread that I will give for the life of the world is My flesh (body).” ‡

<sup>52</sup> Then the Jews began to argue with one another, saying, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?” ‡

53 And Jesus said to them, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood [unless you believe in Me as Savior and believe in the saving power of My blood which will be shed for you], you do not have life in yourselves. ‡

<sup>54</sup> “The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] has eternal life [that is, now possesses it], and I will raise him up [from the dead] on the last day. ‡

<sup>55</sup> “For My flesh is true [spiritual] food, and My blood is true [spiritual] drink.

<sup>56</sup> “He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] remains in Me, and I [in the same way remain] in him. ‡

<sup>57</sup> “Just as the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, even so the one who feeds on Me [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] will also live because of Me.

<sup>58</sup> “This is the Bread which came down out of heaven. It is not like [the manna that] our fathers ate and they [eventually] died; the one who eats this Bread [believes in Me, accepts Me as Savior] will live forever.” ‡

Words to the Disciples

<sup>59</sup> He said these things in a synagogue while He was teaching in Capernaum.

60 When many of His disciples heard this, they said, “This is a difficult and harsh and offensive statement. Who can [be expected to] listen to it?” ‡

<sup>61</sup> But Jesus, aware that His disciples were complaining about it, asked them, “Does this cause you to stumble and take offense?

<sup>62</sup> “What then [will you think] if you see the Son of Man ascending to [the realm] where He was before? ‡

63 “It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh conveys no benefit [it is of no account]. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life [providing eternal life]. ‡

<sup>64</sup> “But [still] there are some of you who do not believe and have faith.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who did not believe, and who would betray Him. ‡

<sup>65</sup> And He was saying, “This is the reason why I have told you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him [that is, unless he is enabled to do so] by the Father.” ‡

Peter's Confession of Faith

<sup>67</sup> So Jesus said to the twelve [disciples], “You do not want to leave too, do you?”

<sup>68</sup> Simon Peter answered, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You [alone] have the words of eternal life [you are our only hope]. ‡

<sup>69</sup> “We have believed and confidently trusted, and [even more] we have come to know [by personal observation and experience] that You are the Holy One of God [the Christ, the Son of the living God].” ‡

<sup>70</sup> Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve [disciples]? And yet one of you is a devil (ally of Satan).” ‡

<sup>71</sup> Now He was speaking of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot; for he, one of the twelve [disciples], was about to betray Him.

John 7

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

<sup>3</sup> So His brothers said to Him, “Leave here and go to Judea, so that Your disciples [there] may also see the works that You do. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “No one does anything in secret when he wants to be known publicly. If You [must] do these things, show Yourself openly to the world and make Yourself known!”

<sup>6</sup> So Jesus said to them, “My time has not yet come; but any time is right for you. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “The world cannot hate you [since you are part of it], but it does hate Me because I denounce it and testify that its deeds are evil. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Go up to the feast yourselves. I am not going up to this feast because My time has not yet fully come.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Having said these things to them, He stayed behind in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup> But [afterward], when His brothers had gone up to the feast, He went up too, not publicly [with a caravan], but quietly [because He did not want to be noticed].

<sup>11</sup> So the Jews kept looking for Him at the feast and asking, “Where is He?”

‡

<sup>12</sup> There was a lot of whispered discussion and murmuring among the crowds about Him. Some were saying, “He is a good man”; others said, “No, on the contrary, He misleads the people [giving them false ideas].” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Yet no one was speaking out openly and freely about Him for fear of [the leaders of] the Jews. ‡

<sup>14</sup> When the feast was already half over, Jesus went up into the temple [court] and began to teach.

<sup>15</sup> Then the Jews were perplexed. They said, “How did this man become learned [so versed in the Scriptures and theology] without formal training?” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Jesus answered them by saying, “My teaching is not My own, but His who sent Me. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “If anyone is willing to do His will, he will know whether the teaching is of God or whether I speak on My own accord and by My own authority. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “He who speaks on his own accord seeks glory and honor for himself. But He who seeks the glory and the honor of the One who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness or deception in Him. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law. Why do you want to kill Me [for not keeping it]? ” ‡

<sup>20</sup> The crowd answered, “You have a demon [You are out of Your mind]! Who wants to kill You?” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Jesus replied, “I did one work, and you are all astounded.  [John 5:1–9 ]

<sup>22</sup> “For this reason Moses has given you [God’s law regarding] circumcision (not that it originated with Moses, but with the patriarchs) and you circumcise a man [even] on the Sabbath. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “If, to avoid breaking the Law of Moses, a man undergoes circumcision on the Sabbath, why are you angry with Me for making a man’s whole body well on the Sabbath? ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then some of the people of Jerusalem said, “Is this not the Man they want to kill?

<sup>27</sup> “But we know where this Man is from; whenever the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus called out as He taught in the temple, “You know Me and know where I am from; and I have not come on my own initiative [as self-appointed], but He who sent Me is true, and Him you do not know. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “I know Him Myself because I am from Him [I came from His very presence] and it was He [personally] who sent Me.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> So they were eager to arrest Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His time had not yet come. ‡

<sup>31</sup> But many from the crowd believed in Him. And they kept saying, “When the Christ comes, will He do more signs and exhibit more proofs than this Man?” ‡

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things [under their breath] about Him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent guards to arrest Him.

<sup>33</sup> Therefore Jesus said, “For a little while longer I am [still] with you, and then I go to Him who sent Me. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “You will look for Me, and will not [be able to] find Me; and where I am, you cannot come.” ‡

<sup>35</sup> Then the Jews said among themselves, “Where does this Man intend to go that we will not find Him? Does He intend to go to the Dispersion [of Jews scattered and living] among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? ‡

<sup>36</sup> “What does this statement of His mean, ‘You will look for Me, and will not [be able to] find Me; and where I am, you cannot come?’”

<sup>37</sup> Now on the last and most important day of the feast, Jesus stood and called out [in a loud voice], “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink! ‡

<sup>38</sup> “He who believes in Me [who adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Me], as the Scripture has said, ‘From his innermost being will flow continually rivers of living water.’ ”  [Is 58:11; John 4:14. ] ‡

<sup>39</sup> But He was speaking of the [Holy] Spirit, whom those who believed in Him [as Savior] were to receive afterward. The Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified (raised to honor). ‡

Division of People over Jesus

<sup>40</sup> Listening to these words, some of the people said, “This is certainly the Prophet!”  [Deut 18:15, 18; John 1:21; 6:14; Acts 3:22 ] ‡

<sup>41</sup> Others said, “This is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)!” But others said, “Surely the Christ is not going to come out of Galilee, is He?” ‡

<sup>45</sup> Then the guards went [back] to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, “Why did you not bring Him [here with you]?”

<sup>46</sup> The guards replied, “Never [at any time] has a man talked the way this Man talks!”

<sup>47</sup> Then the Pharisees said to them, “Have you also been deluded and swept off your feet?

<sup>49</sup> “But this [ignorant, contemptible] crowd that does not know the Law is accursed and doomed!”

<sup>51</sup> “Does our Law convict someone without first giving him a hearing and finding out what he is [accused of] doing?” ‡

<sup>52</sup> They responded, “Are you also from Galilee? Search [and read the Scriptures], and see [for yourself] that no prophet comes from Galilee!” ‡

<sup>53</sup> [ And everyone went to his own house.

The Adulterous Woman

<sup>2</sup> Early in the morning He came back into the temple [court], and all the people were coming to Him. He sat down and began teaching them.

<sup>3</sup> Now the scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery. They made her stand in the center of the court,

4.and they said to Him, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the very act of adultery.

5 “Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women [to death]. So what do You say [to do with her—what is Your sentence]?”  [Deut 22:22–24 ] ‡

6 They said this to test Him, hoping that they would have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down and began writing on the ground with His finger.

7 However, when they persisted in questioning Him, He straightened up and said, “He who is without [any] sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.”  [Deut 17:7 ] ‡

8 Then He stooped down again and started writing on the ground.

9 They listened [to His reply], and they began to go out one by one, starting with the oldest ones, until He was left alone, with the woman [standing there before Him] in the center of the court. ‡

10 Straightening up, Jesus said to her, “Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?”

11 She answered, “No one, Lord!” And Jesus said, “I do not condemn you either. Go. From now on sin no more.” ] ‡

Jesus Is the Light of the World

12 Once more Jesus addressed the crowd. He said, “I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life.” ‡

13 Then the Pharisees told Him, “You are testifying on Your own behalf; Your testimony is not valid.” ‡

14 Jesus replied, “Even if I do testify on My own behalf, My testimony is valid, because I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from or where I am going. ‡

15 “You judge according to human standards [just by what you see]. I do not judge anyone. ‡

16 “But even if I do judge, My judgment is true and My decision is right; for I am not alone [in making it], but I and the Father who sent Me [make the same judgment]. ‡

17 “Even in your own law it is written that the testimony of two persons is true [valid and admissible].  [Deut 19:15. ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> “I am One [of the Two] who testifies about Myself, and My Father who sent Me testifies about Me.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then the Pharisees said to Him, “Where is this Father of Yours?” Jesus answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father; if you knew Me, you would know My Father also.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Jesus said these things in the treasury, as He taught in the temple [courtyard]; and no one seized Him, because His time had not yet come. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then He said again to them, “I am going away, and you will look for Me, and you will die [unforgiven and condemned] in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> So the Jews were asking [among themselves], “Will He kill Himself? Is that why He says, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come’?”

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “That is why I told you that you will die [unforgiven and condemned] in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am the One [I claim to be], you will die in your sins.”  [Ex 3:14; Matt 24:5; Mark 13:6; Luke 21:8 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> So they said to Him, “Who are You [anyway]?” Jesus replied, “What have I been saying to you from the beginning?

<sup>26</sup> “I have many things to say and judge concerning you, but He who sent Me is true; and I say to the world [only] the things that I have heard from Him.” ‡

<sup>27</sup> They did not realize [or have the spiritual insight to understand] that He was speaking to them about the Father.

<sup>28</sup> So Jesus said, “When you lift up the Son of Man [on the cross], you will know then [without any doubt] that I am He, and that I do nothing on My own authority, but I say these things just as My Father taught Me. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “And He who sent Me is [always] with Me; He has not left Me alone, because I always do what pleases Him.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> As He said these things, many believed in Him. ‡

The Truth Will Make You Free

<sup>31</sup> So Jesus was saying to the Jews who had believed Him, “If you abide in My word [continually obeying My teachings and living in accordance with them, then] you are truly My disciples.

<sup>32</sup> “And you will know the truth [regarding salvation], and the truth will set you free [from the penalty of sin].” ‡

<sup>33</sup>They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been enslaved to anyone. What do You mean by saying, ‘You will be set free’?” ‡

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, everyone who practices sin habitually is a slave of sin. ‡

<sup>36</sup>“So if the Son makes you free, then you are unquestionably free. ‡

<sup>37</sup>“I know that you are Abraham’s descendants; yet you plan to kill Me, because My word has no place [to grow] in you [and it makes no change in your heart]. ‡

<sup>38</sup>“I tell the things that I have seen at My Father’s side [in His very presence]; so you also do the things that you heard from your father.” ‡

<sup>39</sup>They answered, “Abraham is our father.” Jesus said to them, “If you are [truly] Abraham’s children, then do the works of Abraham and follow his example. ‡

<sup>40</sup>“But as it is, you want to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. This is not the way Abraham acted. ‡

<sup>41</sup>“You are doing the works of your [own] father.” They said to Him, “We are not illegitimate children; we have one [spiritual] Father: God.” ‡

<sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father [but He is not], you would love and recognize Me, for I came from God [out of His very presence] and have arrived here. For I have not even come on My own initiative [as self-appointed], but He [is the One who] sent Me. ‡

<sup>43</sup>“Why do you misunderstand what I am saying? It is because [your spiritual ears are deaf and] you are unable to hear [the truth of] My word. ‡

<sup>44</sup>“You are of your father the devil, and it is your will to practice the desires [which are characteristic] of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks what is natural to him, for he is a liar and the father of lies and half-truths. ‡

<sup>45</sup>“But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me [and continue in your unbelief].

<sup>46</sup>“Which one of you [has proof and] convicts Me of sin? If I speak truth, why do you not believe Me?

<sup>47</sup>“Whoever is of God and belongs to Him hears [the truth of] God’s words; for this reason you do not hear them: because you are not of God and you are not in fellowship with Him.” ‡

48 The Jews answered Him, “Are we not right when we say You are a Samaritan and [that You] have a demon [and are under its power]?” ‡

49 Jesus answered, “I do not have a demon. On the contrary, I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me.

50 “However, I am not seeking glory for Myself. There is One who seeks [glory for Me] and judges [those who dishonor Me]. ‡

51 “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, if anyone keeps My word [by living in accordance with My message] he will indeed never, ever see and experience death.” ‡

52 The Jews said to Him, “Now we know that You have a demon [and are under its power]. Abraham died, and also the prophets; yet You say, ‘If anyone keeps My word, he will never, ever taste of death.’ ‡

53. “Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets died too! Whom do You make Yourself out to be?”

54 Jesus answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is [worth] nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say, ‘He is our God.’ ‡

55 Yet you do not know Him, but I know Him fully. If I said I did not know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know Him and keep His word. ‡

56 “Your father Abraham [greatly] rejoiced to see My day (My incarnation). He saw it and was delighted.”  [Heb 11:13. ] ‡

57 Then the Jews said to Him, “You are not even fifty years old, and You [claim to] have seen Abraham?”

58 Jesus replied, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, before Abraham was born, I Am.”  [Ex 3:14. ] ‡

59 So they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Jesus concealed Himself and left the temple. ‡

John 9

Healing the Man Born Blind

1 WHILE HE was passing by, He noticed a man [who had been] blind from birth.

2 His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi (Teacher), who sinned, this man or his parents, that he would be born blind?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> “We must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> “As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world [giving guidance through My word and works].” ‡

<sup>6</sup> When He had said this, He spat on the ground and made mud with His saliva, and He spread the mud [like an ointment] on the man’s eyes. ‡

<sup>7</sup>—And He said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which is translated, Sent). So he went away and washed, and came back seeing. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the neighbors, and those who used to know him as a beggar, said, “Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?”

<sup>9</sup> Some said, “It is he.” Still others said, “No, but he looks like him.” But he kept saying, “I am the man.”

<sup>10</sup> So they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?”

<sup>11</sup> He replied, “The Man called Jesus made mud and smeared it on my eyes and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went and washed, and I received my sight!” ‡

<sup>12</sup> They asked him, “Where is He?” He said, “I do not know.”

Controversy over the Man

<sup>13</sup> Then they brought the man who was formerly blind to the Pharisees.

<sup>14</sup> Now it was on a Sabbath day that Jesus made the mud and opened the man’s eyes.

<sup>15</sup> So the Pharisees asked him again how he received his sight. And he said to them, “He smeared mud on my eyes, and I washed, and now I see.”

<sup>16</sup> Then some of the Pharisees said, “This Man [Jesus] is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner (a non-observant Jew) do such signs and miracles?” So there was a difference of opinion among them. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Accordingly they said to the blind man again, “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?” And he said, “[It must be that] He is a prophet!” ‡

<sup>18</sup> However, the Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the man’s parents.

<sup>19</sup> They asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?”

<sup>20</sup> His parents answered, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

<sup>21</sup> but as to how he now sees, we do not know; or who has opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him [and stop asking us]; he is of age, he will speak for himself and give his own account of it.”

<sup>22</sup> His parents said this because they were afraid of [the leaders of] the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone acknowledged Jesus to be the Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue (excommunicated). ‡

<sup>23</sup> Because of this his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

<sup>24</sup> So a second time they called the man who had been [born] blind, and said to him, “Give God glory and praise [for your sight]! We know this Man [Jesus] is a sinner [separated from God].” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then he answered, “I do not know whether He is a sinner [separated from God]; but one thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see.”

<sup>26</sup> So they said to him, “What did He [actually] do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

<sup>27</sup> He answered, “I already told you and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again and again? Do you want to become His disciples, too?”

<sup>28</sup> And [at that remark] they stormed at him and jeered, “You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses!

<sup>29</sup> “We know [for certain] that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this Man, we do not know where He is from.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> The man replied, “Well, this is astonishing! You do not know where He comes from, and yet He opened my eyes!” ‡

<sup>31</sup> “We know [according to your tradition] that God does not hear sinners; but if anyone fears God and does His will, He hears him.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Since the beginning of time it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.

<sup>33</sup> “If this Man were not from God, He would not be able to do anything [like this because God would not hear His prayer].” ‡

<sup>34</sup> They answered him, “You were born entirely in sins [from head to foot], and you [presume to] teach us?” Then they threw him out [of the synagogue].
‡

Jesus Affirms His Deity

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had put him out [of the synagogue], and finding him, He asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?” ‡

<sup>36</sup> He answered, “Who is He, Sir? Tell me so that I may believe in Him.”

<sup>37</sup> Jesus said to him, “You have both seen Him, and [in fact] He is the one who is talking with you.” ‡

<sup>38</sup> And he said, “Lord, I believe [in You and Your word]!” And he worshiped Him [with reverence and awe].

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment [to separate those who believe in Me from those who reject Me—to declare judgment on those who choose to be separated from God], so that the sightless would see, and those who see would become blind.” ‡

<sup>40</sup> Some Pharisees who were with Him heard these things and said to Him, “Are we also blind?” ‡

<sup>41</sup> Jesus said to them, “If you were blind [to spiritual things], you would have no sin [and would not be blamed for your unbelief]; but since you claim to have [spiritual] sight, [you have no excuse so] your sin and guilt remain. [Prov 26:12] ‡

John 10

Parable of the Good Shepherd

<sup>1</sup> “I ASSURE you and most solemnly say to you, he who does not enter by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up from some other place [on the stone wall], that one is a thief and a robber.

<sup>2</sup> “But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep [the protector and provider].

<sup>3</sup> “The doorkeeper opens [the gate] for this man, and the sheep hear his voice and pay attention to it. And [knowing that they listen] he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out [to pasture].

<sup>4</sup> “When he has brought all his own sheep outside, he walks on ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice and recognize his call.

<sup>5</sup> “They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.”

<sup>6</sup> Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what He was talking about.

<sup>7</sup> So Jesus said again, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, I am the Door for the sheep [leading to life].

<sup>8</sup> “All who came before Me [as false messiahs and self-appointed leaders] are thieves and robbers, but the [true] sheep did not hear them.

<sup>9</sup> “I am the Door; anyone who enters through Me will be saved [and will live forever], and will go in and out [freely], and find pasture (spiritual security). ‡

<sup>10</sup> “The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows].

<sup>11</sup> “I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd lays down His [own] life for the sheep.  [Ps 23; Is 40:11 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “The man runs because he is a hired hand [who serves only for wages] and is not concerned about the [safety of the] sheep.

<sup>14</sup> “I am the Good Shepherd, and I know [without any doubt those who are] My own and My own know Me [and have a deep, personal relationship with Me]— ‡

<sup>15</sup> even as the Father knows Me and I know the Father—and I lay down My [very own] life [sacrificing it] for the benefit of the sheep. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “I have other sheep [beside these] that are not of this fold. I must bring those also, and they will listen to My voice and pay attention to My call, and they will become one flock with one Shepherd.  [Ezek 34:23; Eph 2:13–18 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My [own] life so that I may take it back. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “No one takes it away from Me, but I lay it down voluntarily. I am authorized and have power to lay it down and to give it up, and I am authorized and have power to take it back. This command I have received from My Father.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Many of them said, “He has a demon and He is mad [insane—He raves and rambles]. Why listen to Him?” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Others were saying, “These are not the words and thoughts of one possessed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?” ‡

Jesus Asserts His Deity

22 At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup> So the Jews surrounded Him and began saying to Him, "How long are You going to keep us in suspense? If You are [really] the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), tell us so plainly and openly."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus answered them, "I have told you so, yet you do not believe. The works that I do in My Father's name testify concerning Me [they are My credentials and the evidence declaring who I am]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> "But you do not believe Me [so you do not trust and follow Me] because you are not My sheep. ‡

<sup>27</sup> "The sheep that are My own hear My voice and listen to Me; I know them, and they follow Me. ‡

<sup>28</sup> "And I give them eternal life, and they will never, ever [by any means] perish; and no one will ever snatch them out of My hand.

<sup>29</sup> "My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater and mightier than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. ‡

<sup>32</sup> Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works [and many acts of mercy] from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

<sup>33</sup> The Jews answered Him, "We are not going to stone You for a good work, but for blasphemy, because You, a mere man, make Yourself out to be God." ‡

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I SAID , YOU ARE GODS [human judges representing God, not divine beings]'?  [Ps 82:6 ] ‡

<sup>35</sup> "If He called them gods, men to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be undone or annulled or broken), ‡ Jesus' Seven "I Am" Statements

<sup>36</sup> [if that is true] then do you say of Him whom the Father sanctified and set apart for Himself and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? ‡

<sup>37</sup> "If I do not do the works of My Father [that is, the miracles that only God could perform], then do not believe Me. ‡

<sup>38</sup> "But if I am doing them, even if you do not believe Me or have faith in Me, [at least] believe the works [that I do—admit that they are the works of God], so that you may know and keep on knowing [clearly—without any doubt] that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father [that is, I am One with Him].”‡

<sup>39</sup> So they tried again to seize Him, but He eluded their grasp.‡

<sup>40</sup> He went back again across the Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing, and He was staying there.‡

<sup>41</sup> Many came to Him, and they were saying, “John did not perform a single sign (attesting miracle), but everything John said about this Man was true and accurate.”‡

<sup>42</sup> And many there believed and confidently trusted in Him [accepting Him as Savior, and following His teaching].‡

John 11

The Death and Resurrection of Lazarus

<sup>3</sup> So the sisters sent word to Him, saying, “Lord, he [our brother and Your friend] whom You love is sick.”

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus heard this, He said, “This sickness will not end in death; but [on the contrary it is] for the glory and honor of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it.”‡

<sup>5</sup> Now Jesus loved and was concerned about Martha and her sister and Lazarus [and considered them dear friends].

<sup>6</sup> So [even] when He heard that Lazarus was sick, He stayed in the same place two more days.‡

<sup>7</sup> Then He said to His disciples, “Let us go back to Judea.”

<sup>8</sup> The disciples said to Him, “Rabbi (Teacher), the Jews were only recently going to stone You, and You are [thinking of] going back there again?”‡

<sup>9</sup> Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours [of light] in the day? Anyone who walks in the daytime does not stumble, because he sees [by] the light of this world.‡

<sup>10</sup> “But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no light in him.”‡

<sup>11</sup> He said this, and after that said, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep;

but I am going there to wake him.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> The disciples answered, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”

<sup>13</sup> However, Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that He was referring to natural sleep.

<sup>14</sup> So then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead.

<sup>15</sup> “And for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Thomas, who was called Didymus (the twin), said to his fellow disciples, “Let us go too, that we may die with Him.”

<sup>17</sup> So when Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

<sup>18</sup> Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles away;

<sup>19</sup> and many of the Jews had come to see Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning [the loss of] their brother.

<sup>20</sup> So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet Him, while Mary remained sitting in the house.

<sup>21</sup> Then Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

<sup>22</sup> “Even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give to You.”

‡

<sup>24</sup> Martha replied, “I know that he will rise [from the dead] in the resurrection on the last day.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, “I am the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in (adheres to, trusts in, relies on) Me [as Savior] will live even if he dies; ‡

<sup>26</sup> and everyone who lives and believes in Me [as Savior] will never die. Do you believe this?”

<sup>27</sup> She said to Him, “Yes, Lord; I have believed and continue to believe that You are the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of God, He who was [destined and promised] to come into the world [and it is for You that the world has waited].” ‡

<sup>29</sup> And when she heard this, she got up quickly and went to Him.

<sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met Him.

<sup>31</sup> So when the Jews who were with her in the house comforting her, saw how quickly Mary got up and left, they followed her, assuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there. ‡

<sup>32</sup> When Mary came [to the place] where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell at His feet, saying to Him, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.” ‡

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her sobbing, and the Jews who had come with her also sobbing, He was deeply moved in spirit [to the point of anger at the sorrow caused by death] and was troubled,

<sup>34</sup> and said, “Where have you laid him?” They said, “Lord, come and see.”

<sup>36</sup> So the Jews were saying, “See how He loved him [as a close friend]!”

<sup>37</sup> But some of them said, “Could not this Man, who opened the blind man’s eyes, have kept this man from dying?” ‡

<sup>38</sup> So Jesus, again deeply moved within [to the point of anger], approached the tomb. It was a cave, and a boulder was lying against it [to cover the entrance].

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to Him, “Lord, by this time there will be an offensive odor, for he has been dead four days! [It is hopeless!]”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, “Did I not say to you that if you believe [in Me], you will see the glory of God [the expression of His excellence]?” ‡

<sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised His eyes [toward heaven] and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.

<sup>42</sup> “I knew that You always hear Me and listen to Me; but I have said this because of the people standing around, so that they may believe that You have sent Me [and that You have made Me Your representative].” ‡

<sup>43</sup> When He had said this, He shouted with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

<sup>44</sup> Out came the man who had been dead, his hands and feet tightly wrapped in burial cloths (linen strips), and with a [burial] cloth wrapped around his face. Jesus said to them, “Unwrap him and release him.” ‡

<sup>45</sup> So then, many of the Jews who had come to [be with] Mary and who were eyewitnesses to what Jesus had done, believed in Him. ‡

<sup>46</sup> But some of them went back to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

Conspiracy to Kill Jesus

<sup>47</sup> So the chief priests and Pharisees convened a council [of the leaders in Israel], and said, “What are we doing? For this man performs many signs (attesting miracles). ‡

<sup>48</sup> “If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our [holy] place (the temple) and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup> But one of them, Caiaphas, who was the high priest that year [the year of Christ’s crucifixion], said to them, “You know nothing at all! ‡

<sup>50</sup> “Nor do you understand that it is expedient and politically advantageous for you that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish.” ‡

<sup>51</sup> Now he did not say this [simply] on his own initiative; but being the high priest that year, he [was unknowingly used by God and] prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation,  [Is 53:8 ]

<sup>52</sup> and not only for the nation, but also for the purpose of gathering together into one body the children of God who have been scattered abroad.  [Is 49:6 ] ‡

<sup>53</sup> So from that day on they planned together to kill Him.

<sup>54</sup> For that reason Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but left there and went to the district that borders on the uninhabited wilderness, to a town called Ephraim; and He stayed there with the disciples. ‡

<sup>55</sup> Now the Passover of the Jews was approaching, and many from the country went up to Jerusalem before Passover to purify themselves [ceremonially, so that they would be able to participate in the feast]. ‡

<sup>56</sup> So they were looking for Jesus as they stood in the temple [area], and saying among themselves, “What do you think? Will He not come to the feast at all?” ‡

<sup>57</sup> Now the chief priests and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he was to report it so that they might arrest Him.

John 12

Mary Anoints Jesus

<sup>1</sup> SIX DAYS before the Passover, Jesus went to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom He had raised from the dead.  [Matt 26:6–13 ; Mark 14:3–9 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> So they gave a supper for Him there. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But Judas Iscariot, one of His disciples, the one who was going to betray Him, said,

<sup>5</sup> “Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and [the money] given to the poor?”

<sup>6</sup> Now he said this, not because he cared about the poor [for he had never cared about them], but because he was a thief; and since he had the money box [serving as treasurer for the twelve disciples], he used to pilfer what was put into it. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So Jesus said, “Let her alone, so that she may keep [the rest of] it for the day of My burial.

<sup>8</sup> “You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> A large crowd of Jews learned that He was there [at Bethany]; and they came, not only because of Jesus, but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. ‡

<sup>11</sup> because on account of him many of the Jews were going away [from the teaching and traditions of the Jewish leaders] and believing in Jesus [following Him as Savior and Messiah]. ‡

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>12</sup> The next day, when the large crowd who had come to the Passover feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,  [Matt 21:4–9; Mark 11:7–10; Luke 19:35–38 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> they took branches of palm trees [in homage to Him as King] and went out to meet Him, and they began shouting and kept shouting “Hosanna! BLESSED (celebrated, praised) IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, even the King of Israel!”  [Ps 118:26 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> And Jesus, finding a young donkey, sat on it; just as it is written [in Scripture], ‡

<sup>16</sup> His disciples did not understand [the meaning of] these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified and exalted, they remembered that these things had been written about Him and had been done to Him. ‡

<sup>17</sup> So the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, continued to tell others about Him.

<sup>18</sup> For this reason the crowd went to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this [miraculous] sign. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then the Pharisees [argued and] said to one another, “You see that your efforts are futile. Look! The whole world has gone [running] after Him!” ‡

Greeks Seek Jesus

<sup>20</sup> Now there were some Greeks (Gentiles) among those who were going up to worship at the feast; ‡

<sup>21</sup> these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, with a request, saying, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Philip came and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

<sup>23</sup> And Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified and exalted. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone [just one grain, never more]. But if it dies, it produces much grain and yields a harvest. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “The one who loves his life [eventually] loses it [through death], but the one who hates his life in this world [and is concerned with pleasing God] will keep it for life eternal. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “If anyone serves Me, he must [continue to faithfully] follow Me [without hesitation, holding steadfastly to Me, conforming to My example in living and, if need be, suffering or perhaps dying because of faith in Me]; and wherever I am [in heaven’s glory], there will My servant be also. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him. ‡

Jesus Foretells His Death

<sup>27</sup> “Now My soul is troubled and deeply distressed; what shall I say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour [of trial and agony]’? But it is for this [very] purpose that I have come to this hour [this time and place]. ‡ Jesus' Trial, Judgment and Crucifixion

<sup>28</sup> “[Rather, I will say,] ‘Father, glorify (honor, extol) Your name!’ ” Then a voice came from heaven saying, “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> The crowd of people who stood nearby and heard the voice said that it had thundered; others said, “An angel has spoken to Him!”

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “Now judgment is upon this world [the sentence is being passed]. Now the ruler of this world (Satan) will be cast out. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “And I, if and when I am lifted up from the earth [on the cross], will draw all people to Myself [Gentiles, as well as Jews].” ‡

<sup>33</sup> He said this to indicate the kind of death by which He was to die. ‡

<sup>34</sup> At this the crowd answered Him, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ is to remain forever; how then can You say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”  [Ps 110:4] ‡

<sup>35</sup> So Jesus said to them, “The Light is among you [only] a little while longer. Walk while you have the Light [keep on living by it], so that darkness will not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going [he is drifting aimlessly]. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “While you have the Light, believe and trust in the Light [have faith in it, hold on to it, rely on it], so that you may become sons of Light [being filled with Light as followers of God].” ‡

Jesus said these things, and then He left and hid Himself from them.

<sup>37</sup> Even though He had done so many signs (attesting miracles) right before them, yet they still did not believe and failed to trust Him—

<sup>38</sup> This was to fulfill what Isaiah the prophet said: “LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR MESSAGE ? A ND TO WHOM HAS THE ARM (the power) OF THE L ORD BEEN SHOWN (unveiled, revealed)?”  [Is 53:1] ‡

<sup>39</sup> Therefore they could not believe, for Isaiah said again,

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah said these things because he saw His glory and spoke about Him.  [Is 6:9, 10] ‡

<sup>42</sup> Nevertheless, even many of the leading men believed in Him [as Savior and Messiah], but because of the Pharisees they would not confess it, for fear that [if they acknowledged Him openly] they would be put out of the synagogue (excommunicated); ‡

<sup>43</sup> for they loved the approval of men more than the approval of God. ‡

<sup>44</sup> But Jesus loudly declared, “The one who believes and trusts in Me does not believe [only] in Me but [also believes] in Him who sent Me. ‡

<sup>46</sup> “I have come as Light into the world, so that everyone who believes and trusts in Me [as Savior—all those who anchor their hope in Me and rely on the truth of My message] will not continue to live in darkness. ‡

<sup>47</sup> “If anyone hears My words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge and condemn the world [that is, to initiate the final judgment of the world], but to save the world. ‡

<sup>48</sup> “Whoever rejects Me and refuses to accept My teachings, has one who judges him; the very word that I spoke will judge and condemn him on the last day. ‡

<sup>49</sup> “For I have never spoken on My own initiative or authority, but the Father Himself who sent Me has given Me a commandment regarding what to say and what to speak.  [Deut 18:18, 19 ] ‡

<sup>50</sup> “I know that His commandment is eternal life. So the things I speak, I speak [in accordance with His exact instruction,] just as the Father has told Me.”

John 13

The Lord’s Supper

<sup>1</sup> NOW BEFORE the Passover Feast, Jesus knew that His hour had come [and it was time] for Him to leave this world and return to the Father. Having [greatly] loved His own who were in the world, He loved them [and continuously loves them with His perfect love] to the end (eternally). ‡

<sup>2</sup> It was during supper, when the devil had already put [the thought of] betraying Jesus into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, ‡

<sup>3</sup> that Jesus, knowing that the Father had put everything into His hands, and that He had come from God and was [now] returning to God, ‡

<sup>4</sup> got up from supper, took off His [outer] robe, and taking a [servant’s] towel, He tied it around His waist. ‡

Jesus Washes the Disciples’ Feet

<sup>5</sup> Then He poured water into the basin and began washing the disciples’ feet and wiping them with the towel which was tied around His waist.

<sup>6</sup> When He came to Simon Peter, he said to Him, “Lord, are You going to wash my feet?” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied to him, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but you will [fully] understand it later.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Peter said to Him, “You will never wash my feet!” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with Me [we can have nothing to do with each other].” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, [in that case, wash] not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said to him, “Anyone who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, and is completely clean. And you [My disciples] are clean, but not all of you.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> For He knew who was going to betray Him; for that reason He said, “Not all of you are clean.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> So when He had washed their feet and put on His [outer] robe and reclined at the table again, He said to them, “Do you understand what I have done for you?

<sup>13</sup> “You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you are right in doing so, for that is who I am. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “So if I, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you ought to wash one another’s feet as well.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> “For I gave you [this as] an example, so that you should do [in turn] as I did to you.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> “If you know these things, you are blessed [happy and favored by God] if you put them into practice [and faithfully do them].” ‡

<sup>18</sup> “I am not speaking of all of you. I know whom I have chosen; but [this has happened] in order that the Scripture may be fulfilled: ‘H E WHO EATS M Y BREAD HAS RAISED UP HIS HEEL AGAINST M E [as My enemy].’  [Ps 41:9 ]” ‡

<sup>19</sup> “From now on I am telling you [what will happen] before it occurs, so that when it does take place you may believe that I am He [who I say I am—the Christ, the Anointed, the Messiah].” ‡

<sup>20</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, the one who receives and welcomes whomever I send receives Me; and the one who receives Me receives Him who sent Me [in that same way].” ‡

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

<sup>21</sup> After Jesus had said these things, He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, one of you will betray Me and hand Me over.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> So Simon Peter motioned to him (John) and [quietly] asked [him to ask Jesus] of whom He was speaking.

<sup>25</sup> Then leaning back against Jesus’ chest, he (John) asked Him [privately], “Lord, who is it?”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered, “It is the one to whom I am going to give this piece [of bread] after I have dipped it.” So when He had dipped the piece of bread [into the dish], He gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot.

<sup>27</sup> After [Judas had taken] the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him, “What you are going to do, do quickly [without delay].” ‡

<sup>28</sup> But no one reclining at the table knew why He said this to him.

<sup>29</sup> Some thought that, since Judas [as the treasurer of the group] had the money box, Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the feast,” or that he was to give something to the poor. ‡

<sup>30</sup> After taking the piece of bread, he went out immediately; and it was night.

<sup>31</sup> So when Judas had left, Jesus said, “Now is [the time for] the Son of Man [to be] glorified, and God is glorified in Him; ‡

<sup>32</sup> [ if God is glorified in Him, ] God will also glorify Him (the Son) in Himself, and will glorify Him at once. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “Little children, I am with you [only] a little longer. You will look for Me and, as I told the Jews, so I tell you now, ‘Where I am going, you are not able to come.’  [John 8:21. ] ‡

<sup>34</sup> “I am giving you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so you too are to love one another. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you have love and unselfish concern for one another.” ‡

<sup>36</sup> Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, where are You going?” Jesus answered, “Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now; but you will be able to follow later.” ‡

<sup>37</sup>Peter said to Him, “Lord, why cannot I follow You now? I will lay down my life for You!”  [Matt 26:33–35; Mark 14:29–31; Luke 22:33, 34 ] ‡

<sup>38</sup> Jesus answered, “Will you [really] lay down your life for Me? I assure you and most solemnly say to you, before a rooster crows you will deny and completely disown Me three times.

John 14

Jesus Comforts His Disciples

<sup>1</sup> “DO NOT let your heart be troubled (afraid, cowardly). Believe [confidently] in God and trust in Him, [have faith, hold on to it, rely on it, keep going and] believe also in Me. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “In My Father’s house are many dwelling places. If it were not so, I would have told you, because I am going there to prepare a place for you. ‡

<sup>3</sup>“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and I will take you to Myself, so that where I am you may be also. ‡

<sup>4</sup>“And [to the place] where I am going, you know the way.”

<sup>5</sup> Thomas said to Him, “Lord, we do not know where You are going; so how can we know the way?”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus said to him, “I am the [only] Way [to God] and the [real] Truth and the [real] Life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. ‡

Jesus’ Oneness with the Father

<sup>7</sup> “If you had [really] known Me, you would also have known My Father. From now on you know Him, and have seen Him.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Philip said to Him, “Lord, show us the Father and then we will be satisfied.”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you for so long a time, and you do not know Me yet, Philip, nor recognize clearly who I am? Anyone who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father?’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words I say to you I do not say on My own initiative or authority, but the Father, abiding continually in Me, does His works [His attesting miracles and acts of power]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me; otherwise believe [Me] because of the [very] works themselves [which you have witnessed]. ‡

12 “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, anyone who believes in Me [as Savior] will also do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these [in extent and outreach], because I am going to the Father. ‡

13 “And I will do whatever you ask in My name [as My representative], this I will do, so that the Father may be glorified and celebrated in the Son.  [Ex 3:14] ‡

14 “If you ask Me anything in My name [as My representative], I will do it.

15 “If you [really] love Me, you will keep and obey My commandments. ‡

Role of the Spirit

16 “And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengthener, Standby), to be with you forever— ‡

17 the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive [and take to its heart] because it does not see Him or know Him, but you know Him because He (the Holy Spirit) remains with you continually and will be in you. ‡

18 “I will not leave you as orphans [comfortless, bereaved, and helpless]; I will come [back] to you. ‡

19 “After a little while the world will no longer see Me, but you will see Me; because I live, you will live also. ‡

20 “On that day [when that time comes] you will know for yourselves that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you. ‡

21 “The person who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who [really] loves Me; and whoever [really] loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him [I will make Myself real to him].” ‡

22 Judas (not Iscariot) asked Him, “Lord, what has happened that You are going to reveal Yourself to us and not to the world?” ‡

23 Jesus answered, “If anyone [really] loves Me, he will keep My word (teaching); and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our dwelling place with him. ‡

24 “One who does not [really] love Me does not keep My words. And the word (teaching) which you hear is not Mine, but is the Father’s who sent Me. ‡

25 “I have told you these things while I am still with you.

<sup>26</sup> “But the Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengthener, Standby), the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name [in My place, to represent Me and act on My behalf], He will teach you all things. And He will help you remember everything that I have told you. [Matt 5:7, 13, 24, 25; Luke 24:49; John 14:16; Acts 1:4] ‡

<sup>27</sup> “Peace I leave with you; My [perfect] peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. [Let My perfect peace calm you in every circumstance and give you courage and strength for every challenge.] ‡

<sup>28</sup> “You heard Me tell you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming back to you.’ If you [really] loved Me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going [back] to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does take place, you may believe and have faith [in Me]. ‡

30. “I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of the world (Satan) is coming. And he has no claim on Me [no power over Me nor anything that he can use against Me]; ‡

<sup>31</sup> but so that the world may know [without any doubt] that I love the Father, I do exactly as the Father has commanded Me [and act in full agreement with Him]. Get up, let us go from here. ‡

John 15

Jesus Is the Vine—Followers Are Branches

<sup>1</sup> “I AM the true Vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.

2. “Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that continues to bear fruit, He [repeatedly] prunes, so that it will bear more fruit [even richer and finer fruit]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You are already clean because of the word which I have given you [the teachings which I have discussed with you]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Remain in Me, and I [will remain] in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself without remaining in the vine, neither can you [bear fruit, producing evidence of your faith] unless you remain in Me. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “I am the Vine; you are the branches. The one who remains in Me and I in him bears much fruit, for [otherwise] apart from Me [that is, cut off from vital union with Me] you can do nothing. ‡

6 “If anyone does not remain in Me, he is thrown out like a [broken off] branch, and withers and dies; and they gather such branches and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. ‡

7 “If you remain in Me and My words remain in you [that is, if we are vitally united and My message lives in your heart], ask whatever you wish and it will be done for you. ‡

8 “My Father is glorified and honored by this, when you bear much fruit, and prove yourselves to be My [true] disciples. ‡

9 “I have loved you just as the Father has loved Me; remain in My love [and do not doubt My love for you].

10 “If you keep My commandments and obey My teaching, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father’s commandments and remain in His love. ‡

11 “I have told you these things so that My joy and delight may be in you, and that your joy may be made full and complete and overflowing. ‡

Disciples’ Relation to Each Other

12 “This is My commandment, that you love and unselfishly seek the best for one another, just as I have loved you. ‡

13 “No one has greater love [nor stronger commitment] than to lay down his own life for his friends. ‡

14 “You are my friends if you keep on doing what I command you. ‡

15 “I do not call you servants any longer, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you [My] friends, because I have revealed to you everything that I have heard from My Father. ‡

16 “You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you and I have appointed and placed and purposefully planted you, so that you would go and bear fruit and keep on bearing, and that your fruit will remain and be lasting, so that whatever you ask of the Father in My name [as My representative] He may give to you. ‡

17 “This [is what] I command you: that you love and unselfishly seek the best for one another.

Disciples’ Relation to the World

18 “If the world hates you [and it does], know that it has hated Me before it hated you. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “If you belonged to the world, the world would love [you as] its own and would treat you with affection. But you are not of the world [you no longer belong to it], but I have chosen you out of the world. And because of this the world hates you. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Remember [and continue to remember] that I told you, ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “But they will do all these [hurtful] things to you for My name’s sake [because you bear My name and are identified with Me], for they do not know the One who sent Me. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have [the guilt of their] sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “If I had not done among them the works (attesting miracles) which no one else [ever] did, they would not have [the guilt of their] sin; but now [the fact is that] they have both seen [these works] and have hated Me [and continue to hate Me] and My Father as well. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “But [this is so] that the word which has been written in their Law would be fulfilled, ‘T HEY HATED M E WITHOUT A CAUSE .’ [ Ps 35:19 ; 69:4 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> “But when the Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strenghtener, Standby) comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of Truth who comes from the Father, He will testify and bear witness about Me. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “But you will testify also and be My witnesses, because you have been with Me from the beginning. ‡

John 16

Jesus’ Warning

<sup>1</sup> “I HAVE told you these things so that you will not stumble or be caught off guard and fall away. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “They will put you out of the synagogues and make you outcasts. And a time is coming when whoever kills you will think that he is offering service to God. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “And they will do these things because they have not known the Father or

Me. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “I have told you these things [now], so that when their time comes, you will remember that I told you about them. I did not say these things to you at the beginning, because I was with you. ‡

The Holy Spirit Promised

<sup>5</sup> “But now I am going to Him who sent Me; and none of you asks Me, ‘Where are You going?’ ‡

<sup>6</sup> “But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts [and taken complete possession of them].

<sup>7</sup> “But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengthener, Standby) will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him (the Holy Spirit) to you [to be in close fellowship with you]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “And He, when He comes, will convict the world about [the guilt of] sin [and the need for a Savior], and about righteousness, and about judgment:

<sup>9</sup> about sin [and the true nature of it], because they do not believe in Me [and My message]; ‡

<sup>10</sup> about righteousness [personal integrity and godly character], because I am going to My Father and you will no longer see Me; ‡

<sup>11</sup> about judgment [the certainty of it], because the ruler of this world (Satan) has been judged and condemned. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear [to hear] them now. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “But when He, the Spirit of Truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth [full and complete truth]. For He will not speak on His own initiative, but He will speak whatever He hears [from the Father—the message regarding the Son], and He will disclose to you what is to come [in the future]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “He will glorify and honor Me, because He (the Holy Spirit) will take from what is Mine and will disclose it to you.

<sup>15</sup> “All things that the Father has are Mine. Because of this I said that He [the Spirit] will take from what is Mine and will reveal it to you. ‡

Jesus’ Death and Resurrection Foretold

<sup>16</sup> “A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Some of His disciples said to one another, “What does He mean when He tells us, ‘A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me’; and, ‘because I am going to My Father’?”

<sup>18</sup> So they were saying, “What does He mean when He says, ‘A little while’? We do not know what He is talking about.”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus knew that they wanted to ask Him, so He said to them, “Are you wondering among yourselves about what I meant when I said, ‘A little while, and you will not see Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me’?”

<sup>20</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, that you will weep and grieve [in great mourning], but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.

<sup>21</sup> “A woman, when she is in labor, has pain because her time [to give birth] has come; but when she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of her joy that a child has come into the world. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “So for now you are in grief; but I will see you again, and [then] your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away from you your [great] joy. ‡

Prayer Promises

<sup>23</sup> “In that day you will not [need to] ask Me about anything. I assure you and most solemnly say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name [as My representative], He will give you. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “Until now you have not asked [the Father] for anything in My name; but now ask and keep on asking and you will receive, so that your joy may be full and complete. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “I have told you these things in figurative language (veiled language, proverbs); the hour is now coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but I will tell you plainly about the Father.

<sup>26</sup> “In that day you will ask in My name, and I am not saying to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf [because it will be unnecessary];

<sup>27</sup> for the Father Himself [tenderly] loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came from the Father. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “I came from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and going to the Father.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> His disciples said, “Ah, now You are speaking plainly to us and not in figures of speech!

<sup>30</sup> “Now we know that You know all things, and have no need for anyone to question You; because of this we believe [without any doubt] that you came from God.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Take careful notice: an hour is coming, and has arrived, when you will all be scattered, each to his own home, leaving Me alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have [perfect] peace. In the world you have tribulation and distress and suffering, but be courageous [be confident, be undaunted, be filled with joy]; I have overcome the world.” [My conquest is accomplished, My victory abiding.] ‡

John 17

The High Priestly Prayer

<sup>1</sup> WHEN JESUS had spoken these things, He raised His eyes to heaven [in prayer] and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, so that Your Son may glorify You. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Just as You have given Him power and authority over all mankind, [now glorify Him] so that He may give eternal life to all whom You have given Him [to be His—permanently and forever]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Now this is eternal life: that they may know You, the only true [supreme and sovereign] God, and [in the same manner know] Jesus [as the] Christ whom You have sent. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “I have glorified You [down here] on the earth by completing the work that You gave Me to do. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Now, Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory and majesty that I had with You before the world existed. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “I have manifested Your name [and revealed Your very self, Your real self] to the people whom You have given Me out of the world; they were Yours and You gave them to Me, and they have kept and obeyed Your word. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Now [at last] they know [with confident assurance] that all You have given Me is from You [it is really and truly Yours].

<sup>8</sup> “For the words which You gave Me I have given them; and they received and accepted them and truly understood [with confident assurance] that I came from You [from Your presence], and they believed [without any doubt] that You sent Me. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “I pray for them; I do not pray for the world, but for those You have given Me, because they belong to You;

<sup>10</sup> and all things that are Mine are Yours, and [all things that are] Yours are Mine; and I am glorified in them.

<sup>11</sup> “I am no longer in the world; yet they are still in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name which You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are.

<sup>12</sup> “While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name which You have given Me; and I guarded them and protected them, and not one of them was lost except the son of destruction, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled. [Ps 41:9; John 6:70.]

The Disciples in the World

<sup>13</sup> “But now I am coming to You; and I say these things [while I am still] in the world so that they may experience My joy made full and complete and perfect within them [filling their hearts with My delight].

<sup>14</sup> “I have given to them Your word [the message You gave Me]; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world and do not belong to the world, just as I am not of the world and do not belong to it.

<sup>15</sup> “I do not ask You to take them out of the world, but that You keep them and protect them from the evil one.

<sup>16</sup> “They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

<sup>17</sup> “Sanctify them in the truth [set them apart for Your purposes, make them holy]; Your word is truth.

<sup>18</sup> “Just as You commissioned and sent Me into the world, I also have commissioned and sent them (believers) into the world.

<sup>19</sup> “For their sake I sanctify Myself [to do Your will], so that they also may be sanctified [set apart, dedicated, made holy] in [Your] truth.

<sup>20</sup> “I do not pray for these alone [it is not for their sake only that I make this request], but also for [all] those who [will ever] believe and trust in Me through their message,

<sup>21</sup> that they all may be one; just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, so that the world may believe [without any doubt] that You sent Me. ‡

Their Future Glory

22 “I have given to them the glory and honor which You have given Me, that they may be one, just as We are one; ‡

23 I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfected and completed into one, so that the world may know [without any doubt] that You sent Me, and [that You] have loved them, just as You have loved Me. ‡

24 “Father, I desire that they also, whom You have given to Me [as Your gift to Me], may be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory which You have given Me, because You loved Me before the foundation of the world. ‡

25 “O just and righteous Father, although the world has not known You and has never acknowledged You [and the revelation of Your mercy], yet I have always known You; and these [believers] know [without any doubt] that You sent Me; ‡

26 and I have made Your name known to them, and will continue to make it known, so that the love with which You have loved Me may be in them [overwhelming their heart], and I [may be] in them.” ‡

John 18

Judas Betrays Jesus

1 HAVING SAID these things, Jesus left with His disciples and went across the ravine of the Kidron. There was a garden there, which He and His disciples entered. ‡

2 Now Judas, who was betraying Him, knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with His disciples. ‡

3 So Judas, having obtained the Roman cohort and some officers from the high priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.  [Matt 26:47–56; Mark 14:43–50; Luke 22:47–53. ] ‡

4 Then Jesus, knowing all that was about to happen to Him, went to them and asked, “Whom do you want?”

5 They answered Him, “Jesus the Nazarene.” Jesus said, “I am He.” And Judas, who was betraying Him, was also standing with them.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus said, “I am He,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Again He asked them, “Whom do you want?” And they said, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered, “I told you that I am He; so if you want Me, let these men go on their way.”

<sup>9</sup> This was to fulfill and verify the words He had spoken, “Of those whom You have given Me, I have not lost even one.”  [John 6:39 ; 17:12 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s servant, cutting off his right ear. The servant’s name was Malchus. ‡

<sup>11</sup> So Jesus said to Peter, “Put the sword [back] in its sheath! Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?” ‡

Jesus before Annas and Caiaphas

<sup>12</sup> So the cohort and their commander and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him,

<sup>13</sup> and led Him to Annas first; for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. ‡

<sup>14</sup> It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it was expedient for one man to die on behalf of the people.  [John 11:49 , 50 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, so he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the [residence of the] high priest; ‡

<sup>16</sup> but Peter was standing outside at the door. So the other disciple (John), who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter inside.  [Matt 26:69–75 ; Mark 14:66–72 ; Luke 22:55–62 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, “You are not one of this Man’s disciples, are you?” He said, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup> Now the servants and the officers had made a fire of coals, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. And Peter was with them, standing and warming himself.

<sup>19</sup> Then the high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching.  [Matt 26:59–68 ; Mark 14:55–65 ; Luke 22:63–71 ]

<sup>20</sup> Jesus answered him, “I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in a synagogue and in the temple [area], where all the Jews habitually congregate; and I said nothing in secret. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Why question Me? Question those who have heard what I said to them.

They know what I said.”

<sup>22</sup> But when He said this, one of the officers who was standing nearby struck Jesus [in the face], saying, “Is that how You answer the high priest?” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, “If I have said anything wrong, make a formal statement about the wrong; but if [I spoke] properly, why did you strike Me?”

Peter’s Denial of Jesus

<sup>25</sup> Now Simon Peter was [still] standing and warming himself. So they said to him, “You are not one of His disciples, are you?” He denied it and said, “I am not.”  [Matt 26:71–75; Mark 14:69–72; Luke 22:58–62 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> One of the high priest’s servants, a relative of the one whose ear Peter cut off, said, “Did I not see you with Him in the garden?”

<sup>27</sup> So Peter denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed. ‡

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>28</sup> Then the Jews led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium (governor’s palace). Now it was early and the Jews did not enter the Praetorium so that they would not be [ceremonially] unclean, but might [be able to] eat [and participate in the Feast of Unleavened Bread which began after] the Passover [supper]. ‡

<sup>29</sup> So Pilate came out to them and asked, “What accusation do you bring against this Man?”  [Matt 27:11–14; Mark 15:2–5; Luke 23:2, 3.]

<sup>30</sup> They answered, “If He were not a criminal, we would not have handed Him over to you [for judgment].”

<sup>31</sup> Then Pilate said to them, “Take Him yourselves and judge Him according to your own law.” The Jews said, “We are not permitted to put anyone to death.”

<sup>32</sup> This was to fulfill the word which Jesus had spoken to indicate by what manner of death He was going to die.  [John 12:32–34. ] ‡

<sup>33</sup> So Pilate went into the Praetorium again, and called Jesus and asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?” ‡

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, “Are you saying this on your own initiative, or did others tell you about Me?”

<sup>35</sup> Pilate answered, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own people and their chief priests have handed You over to me. What have You done [that is worthy of death]?”

<sup>36</sup> Jesus replied, “My kingdom is not of this world [nor does it have its origin in this world]. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would be fighting [hard] to keep Me from being handed over to the Jews; but as it is, My kingdom is not of this world.” ‡

<sup>37</sup> So Pilate said to Him, “Then You are a King?” Jesus answered, “You say [correctly] that I am a King. This is why I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth [who is a friend of the truth and belongs to the truth] hears and listens carefully to My voice.”  [Dan 7:13, 14; Luke 1:32, 33 ] ‡

And when he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, “I find no guilt in Him [no crime, no cause for an accusation].

<sup>39</sup> “But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. So shall I release for you the King of the Jews?”  [Matt 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15; Luke 23:18–25. ] ‡

<sup>40</sup> Then they all shouted back again, “Not this Man, but Barabbas!” Now Barabbas was a robber. ‡

John 19

The Crown of Thorns

<sup>3</sup> and they kept coming up to Him, saying [mockingly], “Hail, King of the Jews [Good health! Peace! Long life to you, King of the Jews]!” And they slapped Him in the face.  [Is 53:3, 5, 7. ]

<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate came out again and said to them, “Look, I am bringing Him out to you so that you may know that I find no guilt in Him [no crime, no cause for an accusation].” ‡

<sup>5</sup> So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, and Pilate said to them, “Look! The Man!”

<sup>6</sup> When the chief priests and officers saw Him, they shouted, “Crucify [Him]! Crucify [Him]!” Pilate said to them, “Take Him yourselves and crucify Him, for I find no guilt in Him [no crime, no cause for an accusation].”  [Luke 23:4, 14, 22; John 18:38; 19:4 ] ‡

7-The Jews answered him, “We have a law [regarding blasphemy], and according to that law He should die, because He made Himself out to be the Son of God.”  [Lev 24:16 ] ‡

8 So when Pilate heard this said, he was [even] more alarmed and afraid.

9-He went into the Praetorium again and said to Jesus, “Where are You from?” But Jesus did not answer him.  [Is 53:7 ] ‡

10 So Pilate said to Him, “You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?”

11 Jesus answered, “You would have no authority over Me at all if it had not been given to you from above. For this reason the sin and guilt of the one who handed Me over to you is greater [than your own].” ‡

12-As a result of this, Pilate kept making efforts to release Him, but the Jews kept screaming, “If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar! Anyone who makes himself out [to be] a king opposes Caesar [and rebels against the emperor]!” ‡

13 When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover [week], and it was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, “Look, your King!” ‡

15 But they shouted, “Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar!” ‡

The Crucifixion

16 Then he handed Him over to them to be crucified. ‡

17 So they took Jesus, and He went out, bearing His own cross, to the place called the Place of the Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha.  [Matt 27:33–44; Mark 15:22–32; Luke 23:33–43 ] ‡

18 There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them.  [Is 53:12 ]

19-Pilate also wrote an inscription [on a placard] and put it on the cross. And it was written: “JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”  [Matt 27:33–44; Mark 15:22–32; Luke 23:33–43 ] ‡

20-And many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

<sup>21</sup> Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews’; but, ‘He said, “I am King of the Jews.”’”

<sup>22</sup> Pilate replied, “What I have written I have written [and it remains written].”

<sup>23</sup> Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His outer clothes and made four parts, a part for each soldier, and also the tunic. But the tunic was seamless, woven [in one piece] from the top throughout.  [Matt 27:35; Mark 15:24; Luke 23:34. ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> So they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, to decide whose it will be.” This was to fulfill the Scripture, “T HEY DIVIDED M Y OUTER CLOTHING AMONG THEM , AND FOR M Y CLOTHING THEY CAST LOTS .”  [Ps 22:18. ] ‡

But standing by the cross of Jesus were His mother, His mother’s sister [Salome], Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.  [Mark 15:40. ]

<sup>26</sup> So Jesus, seeing His mother, and the disciple whom He loved (esteemed) standing near, said to His mother, “[Dear] woman, look, [here is] your son!” ‡

<sup>28</sup> After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said in fulfillment of the Scripture, “I am thirsty.”  [Ps 69:21. ] ‡

<sup>29</sup> A jar full of sour wine was placed there; so they put a sponge soaked in the sour wine on [a branch of] hyssop and held it to His mouth.  [Matt 27:48, 50; Mark 15:36f; Luke 23:36. ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, “It is finished!” And He bowed His head and [voluntarily] gave up His spirit. ‡

Care of the Body of Jesus

<sup>31</sup> Since it was the day of Preparation [for the Sabbath], in order to prevent the bodies from hanging on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high holy day) the Jews asked Pilate to have their legs broken [to hasten death] and the bodies taken away. ‡

<sup>32</sup> So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man, and of the other who had been crucified with Him.

<sup>33</sup> But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs.

<sup>35</sup> And he (John, the eyewitness) who has seen it has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also [who read this] may believe.

<sup>37</sup> And again another Scripture says, “T HEY SHALL LOOK AT H IM WHOM THEY HAVE PIERCED .”  [Zech 12:10 ] ‡

<sup>38</sup> And after this, Joseph of Arimathea—a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews—asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away His body.  [Matt 27:57–61 ; Mark 15:42–47 ; Luke 23:50–56 ] ‡

<sup>39</sup> Nicodemus, who had first come to Him at night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, [weighing] about a hundred [Roman] pounds. ‡

<sup>40</sup> So they took Jesus’ body and bound it in linen wrappings with the fragrant spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. ‡

<sup>41</sup> Now there was a garden at the place where He was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb [cut out of solid rock] in which no one had yet been laid.

<sup>42</sup> Therefore, because of the Jewish day of Preparation, and since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there. ‡

John 20

The Empty Tomb

<sup>2</sup> So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple (John), whom Jesus loved (esteemed), and said to them, “They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him!” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Peter and the other disciple left, and they were going to the tomb. [

Luke 24:12 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> And the two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and arrived at the tomb first.

<sup>5</sup> Stooping down and looking in, he saw the linen wrappings [neatly] lying there; but he did not go in. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter came up, following him, and went into the tomb and saw the linen wrappings [neatly] lying there;

<sup>7</sup> and the [burial] face-cloth which had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the [other] linen wrappings, but rolled up in a place by itself. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, went in too; and he saw [the wrappings and the face-cloth] and believed [without any doubt that Jesus had risen from the dead].

<sup>9</sup> For as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead.  [Ps 16:10 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples went back again to their own homes.

<sup>11</sup> But Mary [who had returned] was standing outside the tomb sobbing; and so, as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb; ‡

<sup>12</sup> and she saw two angels in white sitting there, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

<sup>13</sup> And they said to her, "Woman, why are you crying?" She told them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

<sup>14</sup> After saying this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you crying? For whom are you looking?" Supposing that He was the gardener, she replied, "Sir, if you are the one who has carried Him away from here, tell me where you have put Him, and I will take Him away."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to Him in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (which means, Teacher).

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said to her, "Do not hold Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to My brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.' " ‡

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene came, reporting to the disciples that she had seen the Lord and that He had said these things to her. ‡

Jesus among His Disciples

<sup>19</sup> So when it was evening on that same day, the first day of the week, though the disciples were [meeting] behind barred doors for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them, and said, “Peace to you.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> After He said this, He showed them His hands and His side. When the disciples saw the Lord, they were filled with great joy. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus said to them again, “Peace to you; as the Father has sent Me, I also send you [as My representatives].” ‡

<sup>22</sup> And when He said this, He breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.  [Acts 1:8; 2:1–3 ]

<sup>25</sup> So the other disciples kept telling him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the marks of the nails, and put my finger into the nail prints, and put my hand into His side, I will never believe.”

<sup>26</sup> Eight days later His disciples were again inside the house, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, though the doors had been barred, and stood among them and said, “Peace to you.”

<sup>27</sup> Then He said to Thomas, “Reach here with your finger, and see My hands; and put out your hand and place it in My side. Do not be unbelieving, but [stop doubting and] believe.”  [Luke 24:39 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> Thomas answered Him, “My Lord and my God!”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, “Because you have seen Me, do you now believe? Blessed [happy, spiritually secure, and favored by God] are they who did not see [Me] and yet believed [in Me].” ‡

Purpose of Writing this Gospel

<sup>30</sup> There are also many other signs (attesting miracles) that Jesus performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; ‡

<sup>31</sup>—but these have been written so that you may believe [with a deep, abiding trust] that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), the Son of God; and that by believing [and trusting in and relying on Him] you may have life in His name.  [Ps 2:7, 12 ] ‡

John 21

Jesus Appears at the Sea of Galilee

<sup>1</sup> AFTER THIS Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias (Galilee). And He did it in this way:

<sup>3</sup> Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said, “And we are coming with you.” So they went out and got into the boat; and that night they caught nothing.

<sup>4</sup> As morning was breaking, Jesus [came and] stood on the beach; however, the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So Jesus said to them, “Children, do you have any fish [to eat along with your bread]?” They answered, “No.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> And He said to them, “Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat (starboard) and you will find some.” So they cast [the net], and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great catch of fish. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then that disciple (John) whom Jesus loved (esteemed) said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer tunic (for he was stripped for work ) and threw himself into the sea [and swam ashore]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> But the other disciples came in the small boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards away, dragging the net full of fish.

<sup>9</sup> So when they got out on the beach, they saw a charcoal fire set up and fish on it cooking, and bread.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have just caught.”

<sup>11</sup> So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three [of them]; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

Jesus Provides

<sup>12</sup> Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared to ask Him, “Who are You?” They knew [without any doubt] that it was the Lord. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

<sup>14</sup> This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples, after He had risen from the dead. ‡

The Love Motivation

<sup>15</sup> So when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these [others do—with total commitment and devotion]?” He said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend].” Jesus said to him, “Feed My lambs.”

<sup>16</sup> Again He said to him a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me [with total commitment and devotion]?” He said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend].” Jesus said to him, “Shepherd My sheep.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me [with a deep, personal affection for Me, as for a close friend]?” Peter was grieved that He asked him the third time, “Do you [really] love Me [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend]?” And he said to Him, “Lord, You know everything; You know that I love You [with a deep, personal affection, as for a close friend].” Jesus said to him, “Feed My sheep. ‡

Our Times Are in His Hand

<sup>18</sup> “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, when you were younger you dressed yourself and walked wherever you wished; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and arms, and someone else will dress you, and carry you where you do not wish to go.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Now He said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. And after saying this, He said to him, “Follow Me [walk the same path of life that I have walked]!” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; the one who also had leaned back on His chest at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is it that is going to betray You?” ‡

<sup>21</sup> So when Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, “Lord, and what about this man [what is in his future]?”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, “If I want him to stay alive until I come [again], what is that to you? You follow Me!” ‡

<sup>23</sup> So this word went out among the brothers that this disciple (John) was not going to die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he was not going to die, but only , “If I want him to stay alive until I come [again], what is that to you?”

<sup>24</sup>-This is the same disciple who is testifying to these things and has recorded them; and we know [without any doubt] that his testimony is true. ‡

<sup>25</sup>-And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they were recorded one by one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. ‡ Major Archaeological Finds Relating to the New Testament

Annotations for John

1:1 In the beginning. Genesis 1:1 starts with the moment of creation and moves forward to the creation of humanity. John 1:1 starts with creation and contemplates eternity past. the Word was with God. This suggests a face-to-face relationship. In the ancient world, it was important that persons of equal station be on the same level when seated across from one another.

1:3 All things were made and came into existence through Him. God the Father created the world (Ge 1:1) through God the Son (Col 1:16; Heb 1:2). All creation was made through Him. Thus, He is the Creator God.

1:4 Light of men. This image conveys the concept of revelation. As the light, Jesus Christ reveals both sin and God to humans (Ps 36:9). Later in this Gospel, Christ declares Himself to be both the life (11:25) and the light (8:12). Death and darkness flee when the life and light enter.

1:5 Light shines on in the darkness. Although Satan and his forces resist the light, they cannot thwart its power. In short, Jesus is life and light; those who accept Him are “sons of light” (12:35–36). As the creation of light was the beginning of the original creation, so, when believers receive the light, they become part of the new creation (2Co 4:3–6).

1:7 as a witness. This phrase means “to testify” or “to declare.” John uses the word translated witness 33 times as a verb and 14 times as a noun in his Gospel. The term is particularly important to his purpose, which is to record adequate witnesses to Jesus as the Messiah so that individuals might believe Him (20:30–31). believe. This word means “to trust.” John uses this verb almost 100 times in his Gospel to express what must take place for a person to receive the gift of eternal life.

1:11 receive. This means “to receive with favor” and implies “welcome.” Instead of a welcome mat, Jesus had a door slammed in His face. The themes of rejection and reception (v. 12) introduced in the prologue (1:1–18) appear repeatedly throughout the Gospel of John.

1:12 He gave the right. This phrase refers to the legitimate entitlement to the position of children of God. By believing, undeserving sinners can become full members of God’s family.

1:14 the Word (Christ) became flesh. The Son of God who was from eternity became human, with limitations in time and space (Php 2:5–8). This is the doctrine of the incarnation: God became human. Nothing of the essential nature of deity was lost in this event; we might rephrase became as “took to Himself.” John uses the word flesh to refer to the physical nature of humans, not to our sinful disposition. lived among us. The Greek word for tent or lived was also used in the Greek Old Testament for the tabernacle, where the presence of God dwelt. only One. This means unique, one of a kind.

1:16 grace upon grace. The background of this doubled term, as well as the use of the term in verse 17, is found in Exodus 32–34. Moses and the people had received grace, but they were in tremendous need of more grace (Ex 33:13).

1:18 No one has seen God. God is Spirit (4:24) and is invisible (Col 1:15; 1Ti 1:17) unless God chooses to reveal Himself. Humans cannot look at God and live (Ex 33:20). However, the Son is in intimate relationship with the Father, face-to-face with God (1:1; 6:46; 1Jn 1:2). God became visible to human eyes in the man Jesus. It is through seeing the Son that we see God.

1:19–20 the Jews. This refers to the Jewish leaders or the council (the Sanhedrin), who would be responsible for examining anyone thought to be a prophet, to see if the person was true or false.

1:23 MAKE STRAIGHT. When a king traveled, roads were built so that the royal chariot would not have to travel over rough terrain or be stuck in the mud. Isaiah was saying that before God appeared to manifest His glory, a voice would be heard, inviting Israel to make straight the way by which God Himself would come.

1:24 the Pharisees. The Pharisees were an influential sect that numbered about 6,000. As strict interpreters of the law in Israel, they were extremely zealous for ritual and tradition.

1:27 strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie. Undoing the shoe strap was the job of a slave. The Jewish Talmud says, “Everything that a servant will do for his master, a scholar shall perform for his teacher, except the menial task of loosing his sandal thong.” Thus, John was saying that “Jesus Christ is the living Lord and I am the voice, His servant and slave. Actually, I’m not even worthy to be His slave.”

1:29 The Lamb of God. Jesus Christ is the Lamb that God would give as a sacrifice not only for Israel, but for the whole world (Isa 52:13–53:12).

1:33 this One is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. Seven times, the New Testament mentions this ministry of Jesus. Five are prophetic (Mt 3:11 ; Mk 1:8 ; Lk 3:16 ; Ac 1:5); one is historical (Ac 11:16–18); one is doctrinal (1Co 12:13).

1:42 Cephas. This is the Aramaic word for “rock” (Mt 16:18).

1:45 Nathanael. This name is not mentioned in the Synoptic Gospels. But in every list of the apostles in Matthew, Mark, and Luke, the name Bartholomew is listed with Philip, as Nathanael is linked with Philip here. It is likely that Nathanael and Bartholomew were the same person.

1:46 Nazareth. Nathanael knew that the Old Testament prophets had predicted that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem. Furthermore, Nazareth was an obscure village. Nathanael simply could not fathom that such a significant person as the Messiah could come from such an insignificant place as Nazareth.

1:48–49 under the fig tree. In the Old Testament, this expression often suggests being safe and at leisure (1Ki 4:25 ; Mic 4:4 ; Zec 3:10).

2:1–2 Cana. This city was about four and a half miles northwest of Nazareth. the mother of Jesus was there; and both Jesus and His disciples were invited. This suggests that Jesus and His disciples were invited because of Mary. Her forwardness in asking Jesus to help when the wine ran out (v. 3) may indicate that she was in some way related to the family holding the wedding.

2:3 They have no more wine. Hospitality in the East was a sacred duty. A wedding feast often lasted for a week. To run out of wine at such an important event would have been humiliating for the bride and groom. The family of Jesus was not wealthy, and it is likely their relatives and acquaintances were not either. This may have been a “low-budget” wedding feast.

2:6 six stone waterpots. Each waterpot held 20–30 gallons, for a total of 120–180 gallons of the finest wine (v. 10). Jewish custom of purification. Jewish tradition required several kinds of ceremonial washings. Strict Jews washed their hands before a meal, between courses, and after the meal. This “purifying” extended not only to washing hands, but also to washing cups and vessels (Mk 7:3–4).

2:11 This, the first of His signs. In the Gospel of John, the miracles of Jesus are called signs, indicating that they pointed to His messiahship. This sign signified Christ’s glory—that is, His deity. When Jesus transformed water into wine, He demonstrated His power.

2:13 the Passover of the Jews. Every male Jew was required to go to Jerusalem three times a year—for the Feast of Passover, the Feast of Pentecost, and the Feast of Tabernacles (Ex 23:14–19 ; Lev 23 ). Jerusalem. The Synoptic Gospels concentrate on Jesus’ Galilean ministry. John focuses on Jesus’ ministry in Jerusalem.

2:14 And in the temple [enclosure] He found the people who were selling oxen and sheep and doves. The Synoptic Gospels place the cleansing of the temple at the conclusion of Jesus’ ministry (Mt 21:12–13 ), whereas John puts it at the beginning. Apparently, Jesus cleansed the temple two different times. The law of Moses required that any animal offered in sacrifice be unblemished and that every Jewish male over 19 years of age pay a temple tax (Lev 1:3 ; Dt 17:1 ). As a result, tax collectors and inspectors of sacrificial animals were present at the temple. However, these officials would not accept secular coins because they had an image of the Roman emperor. To put such coins into the temple treasury was thought to be an offense. Accordingly, merchants and moneychangers set up shop and charged high prices for changing currency and for sacrificial animals.

2:19 Destroy this temple. Jesus was not talking about the physical building; He was referring to His body, as John emphasizes in verse 21. Jesus was speaking of His death. I will raise it up. Note that Jesus did not say, “I will build it again.” He was referring to His resurrection, three days after His death.

2:20 forty-six years. Herod the Great began restoring the temple in 20 BC. The work was not finished at the time of this conversation. In fact, it was not completed until around AD 64 under Herod Agrippa.

2:23 many believed in His name. This was saving faith. John’s purpose in recording Jesus’ miracles was for people to believe and have eternal life (20:30–31).

2:24 But Jesus, for His part, did not entrust Himself. This word is the same Greek word translated believe in verse 23. There is a play on words here. These individuals trusted Jesus, but Jesus did not entrust Himself to them.

3:2 at night. The fact that Nicodemus came to Jesus at night may reveal the timidity of his faith (12:42); however, his faith was developing (7:50–51; 19:39).

3:5 born of water and the Spirit. There are several interpretations of this phrase. (1) Jesus was referring to water baptism (Ac 10:43–47). (2) Water is to be understood as a symbol for the Holy Spirit. (3) Water is to be understood as a symbol of the Word of God. (4) Jesus used the phrase “born of water” to refer to physical birth. He then used the contrasting phrase “of the Spirit” to refer to spiritual birth. (5) Jesus used the phrase “born of water” to refer to John the Baptist’s baptism. (6) Jesus used the Old Testament imagery of “water” and “wind” to refer to the work of God from above (Isa 44:3–5).

3:8 The wind. Jesus used the wind as an illustration of the work of the Holy Spirit. The Greek word translated Spirit also means “wind.” As the wind seemingly blows where it wills, so the Holy Spirit sovereignly works. Likewise, no one knows the origin or destination of the wind, but everyone knows it is there. The same is true of the Holy Spirit.

3:12 heavenly things. This refers to events like Christ’s ascension (6:61–62) and the coming of the Holy Spirit (16:7).

3:14 lifted up. Every time these words occur in the Gospel of John, there is a reference to Jesus’ death (8:28; 12:32, 34). as Moses lifted up the [bronze] serpent in the desert. Those who looked at it lived (Nu 21:9). So it is with the Son of Man (1:51).

3:16 Belief— Belief involves understanding, knowing, living, and being committed to a relationship with God. How one does all that is so different from not doing it, it is like being born again to a new life. Nicodemus had a little knowledge. What Nicodemus failed to understand was the nature of spiritual reality. He was earthbound and didn’t understand that Jesus and belief are God things. He could not get from where he was to where Jesus was on the road of his understanding. He needed to accept a new road, namely the one Jesus was walking, toward Him. Jesus draws us to that light, His light. We have to respond to it as Nicodemus did over time (Jn 7:50; 19:39). Belief involves internalizing these truths with our whole hearts and minds, being born again, letting all of ourselves be exposed to, and by, that light. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:20 For every wrongdoer hates the Light. People offer many excuses for not accepting Christ. Some cite the presence of hypocrites in the church. Others claim inability to believe some of the truths about Christ or the gospel. These are merely attempts to conceal a heart in rebellion against God. The ultimate reason people do not come to Christ is that they do not want to.

3:26 they came to John. John the Baptist’s disciples were loyal to him. They were deeply concerned that one of his “disciples,” Jesus, was competing with and surpassing him. In their astonishment, they exaggerated the predicament, saying, “all men come to him.” They were concerned that John was losing his audience to another preacher.

3:27 John replied. John the Baptist clarified the relationship between himself and Jesus. First, he talked about himself (vv. 27–29); then he talked about Jesus (vv. 30–36). John explained that he could not accept the position of supremacy that his disciples wanted to thrust upon him because he had not received it from heaven.

3:29 friend of the bridegroom. John compared himself to this person who was generally appointed to arrange the preliminaries of the wedding, to manage the wedding, and to preside at the wedding feast.

3:31 He who comes from [heaven] above. This is a reference to Christ. he who is of the earth. This refers to John the Baptist. John emphasized his earthly origin and its limitations. John proclaimed divine truth on earth; Jesus, on the other hand, is from heaven and above all.

3:33 has set his seal. In a society where many could not read, seals were used to convey a clear message, even to the illiterate. A seal indicated ownership to all and expressed a person's personal guarantee. To receive Jesus' testimony is to certify that God is true regarding what He has sealed.

3:34 God gives [the gift of] the Spirit without measure. Unlike human teachers, Jesus was not given the Spirit in a limited way (Isa 11:1–2). All three Persons of the Trinity are referred to in this verse; God the Father sent Christ the Son, and gave Him the Holy Spirit without measure.

Jesus' Visits to Jerusalem

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

4:1 So when. This refers the reader back to 3:22–36. Christ's success in winning disciples had created jealousy among John's followers and provoked questions among the Pharisees. Since Jesus did not want to be drawn into a controversy over baptism at this stage of His ministry, He left Judea for Galilee (v. 3).

4:4 He had to go through Samaria. The shortest route from Judea in the south to Galilee in the north went through Samaria. The journey took three days if He wanted to travel the direct route. The Jews often avoided Samaria by going around it along the Jordan River. The hatred between the Jews and Samaritans went back to the days of the exile. Samaria was the region between Judea and Galilee. When the Northern Kingdom was exiled to Assyria, King Sargon repopulated the area with captives from other lands. The intermarriage of these foreigners and the Jews who had been left complicated the ancestry of the Samaritans. The Jews hated the Samaritans and considered them to be no longer "pure" Jews.

4:16 Go, call your husband. Jesus mentioned the woman's husband in order to expose her sin (v. 18).

4:20 you Jews say . . . in Jerusalem. The Jews insisted that the exclusive place of worship was Jerusalem. But the Samaritans had set up a rival worship site on Mount Gerizim, which, according to their tradition, was where Abraham went to sacrifice Isaac and where later on he met Melchizedek.

4:24 God is spirit . . . worship in spirit and truth. God is not limited by time and space. When people are born of the Spirit, they can commune with God anywhere. Spirit is the opposite of what is material and earthly, for example, Mount Gerizim. Christ makes worship a matter of the heart. Truth is what is in harmony with the nature and will of God. The issue is not where a person worships, but how and whom.

4:29 all the things that I have done. In her excitement, the woman exaggerated. She did not report what Jesus actually told her, but what He could have told her. Note the woman's spiritual journey. She first viewed Christ as a Jew (v. 9), then as a prophet (v. 19), and finally as the Messiah.

4:36 receiving his wages. The reaper of a spiritual harvest receives wages—that is, fruit which brings joy. In this case, Jesus sowed by giving the message to the woman. The disciples were going to reap the harvest that He had sown.

4:42 Savior of [all] the world. This title is used only here and in 1 John 4:14. The Jews of Jesus' day taught that to approach God, one first had to be a Jew. By including this incident in the Gospel, John demonstrates that Jesus is for all people of the world.

4:46 a certain royal official. This was probably someone who was in the service of the king. Herod Antipas was technically the "tetrarch" of Galilee, but he was referred to as a king.

5:2 the Sheep Gate. This gate was in the wall of Jerusalem near the temple, through which sheep were brought for sacrifice.

5:9 picked up his pallet and walked. Carrying a bed on the Sabbath was considered a violation of the law of Moses (v. 10).

5:10 you are not permitted. The law of Moses taught that the Sabbath must be different from other days. On it, neither people nor animals could work. The prophet Jeremiah had prohibited carrying burdens or working on the Sabbath (Jer 17:21–22). Over the years, the Jewish leaders had amassed thousands of rules and regulations concerning the Sabbath. By Jesus' day, they had 39 different classifications of work. According to them, carrying furniture and even providing medical treatment on the Sabbath were forbidden. Jesus did not break the law. He violated the traditions of the Pharisees which had grown up around the law.

5:16 the Jews began to persecute Jesus. This is the first recorded declaration of open hostility toward Jesus in the Gospel of John.

5:17 My Father. Jesus is the unique Son of God. Here He claims not only a unique relationship with God the Father, but also equality with God in nature. Since God continually does good works without allowing Himself to stop on the Sabbath, the Son does likewise, since He is equal with God. Certainly the Jewish leaders understood the implications of Jesus' claims (v. 18 ).

5:19 the Son can do nothing of Himself. Action by the Son apart from the Father is impossible because of the unity of the Father and the Son (v. 17 ). whatever things the Father does, the Son [in His turn] also does. Here is a claim of deity and unity with the Father.

5:22 all judgment . . . to the Son. The Jews recognized that God alone had the right to judge humanity. In claiming that the Father committed all judgment to Him, Jesus again claimed equality with God.

5:24 Never-Ending Life— One of the primary features of the new life that we have in Christ is that it is an eternal or everlasting life. This truth completely changes how we look at our present lives and at the future. It needs to be seen as something we possess even now (Jn 10:28 ). We have entered into a new, personal relationship with God that gives us a spiritual vitality and fullness of life that we lacked before (Jn 17:3 ). It will be completely fulfilled in the future when we are bodily redeemed (Ro 8:23 ). The greatness of this spiritual reality constitutes a wonderful incentive to vigorously proclaim the gospel to those who are still dead in trespasses and sins (Eph 2:1 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

5:26 For. This indicates that this verse explains the previous verse. Christ can give life because He Himself possesses life. He not only has a part in giving it, He is the source of it. This is another testimony to Jesus' deity because only God has life in Himself.

5:29 resurrection of [new] life . . . resurrection of judgment. Two separate resurrections are presented here in the fashion of the Old Testament prophets, who often grouped together events of the future without distinction of the time (Isa 61:2 ). Jesus was teaching the universality of resurrection, not the timing of it.

5:31–32 My testimony is not valid. If Christ were the only one bearing witness of what He was claiming, His witness would not be accepted. According to Jewish legal practice, a person's testimony about himself was not accepted in court. So, in this case, Jesus offered another witness—John the Baptist (v. 33 ).

5:42 the love of God. This love is not love from God but love for God. Love from God is evidenced in Christ (3:16 ; Ro 5:8 ). Since God loves us, we should love Him (Dt 6:5 ; 1Jn 4:19 ).

5:45 in whom you have placed your hope. Christ will not have to accuse the people on judgment day because the one in whom they place their trust, Moses, will. The people will be condemned by the very law they professed to keep.

5:46 for he wrote about Me. Moses wrote about Christ in the promises to the patriarchs, in the history of the deliverance from Egypt, in the symbolic institutions of the law, and in the prediction of a Prophet like himself (Lk 24:25–26 ). If the people had believed Moses, they would have received Jesus gladly. Over 300 Old Testament prophecies were specifically fulfilled in the first coming of Christ.

6:1 Sea of Galilee (or Sea of Tiberias). John's use of the name Tiberias is an indication that his Gospel was written for those outside of Palestine. The Jewish people called this body of water the Lake of Genessaret. The Romans called it Tiberias, after the city built on its western shore by Herod Antipas and named for the Emperor Tiberius.

6:7 Two hundred denarii. One denarius was a day's wage for a laborer or field hand (Mt 20:2 ). Two hundred denarii would have been almost two-thirds of a year's wages.

6:9 barley loaves. These were an inexpensive food of the common people and the poor.

6:10–11 about 5,000 in number . . . He distributed them to those who were seated. This is the only miracle of Jesus that is recounted in all four Gospels.

6:15 to make Him king. Moses had not only miraculously provided food for the Israelites, he had also led them out of bondage in Egypt. Perhaps these men felt that Jesus could lead them out of bondage to the Romans. Christ was at the zenith of His popularity, and the temptation to take the kingdom without the cross must have been great (Mt 4:8–10 ).

6:19–21 they saw Jesus walking on the sea. This miracle, the fifth sign recorded by John, pointed to Jesus' deity. Only God could walk on water, calm the sea, and supernaturally transport the disciples to their destination.

6:27 Do not work for food. The impression that one must work for eternal life is quickly corrected when Jesus adds "which the Son of Man will give you." The Son provides life as a gift (4:10 ).

6:31 H E GAVE THEM BREAD OUT OF HEAVEN. There was a tradition that said the Messiah would cause manna to fall from heaven as Moses did (Ex 16:4 ,15 ). The people probably also saw this "miracle worker" as the perpetual provider of physical needs rather than spiritual ones.

6:32 My Father. The crowd misrepresented the truth, so Jesus corrected them. The manna had not come from Moses; it had been provided by God. Moreover, God still gives true bread —that is, eternal life (v. 33 ).

6:39–40 My Father's will. This is twofold: (1) that all who come to the Son will be received and not lost; (2) that all who see and believe on the Son will have eternal life.

6:42 the son of Joseph. The religious leaders' proof that Jesus was not from heaven was that they knew His parents. To them, there was nothing supernatural about Jesus' origin.

6:48–49 I am the Bread of Life. Those who believe in Him have life (v. 47 ). The manna in the wilderness did not ultimately sustain life. Those who ate it eventually died because it could not provide eternal life.

6:53–58 eats My flesh and drinks My blood. Jesus had made it abundantly clear in this context that eternal life is gained by believing (vv. 29 ,35 ,40 ,47 ). These verses teach that the benefits of Jesus' death must be appropriated, by faith, by each individual.

6:60 This is a difficult and harsh and offensive statement. It was hard for the Jewish learners to accept the idea of eating flesh and drinking blood. Jews were forbidden to even taste blood.

6:63 It is the Spirit who gives life. Jesus was trying to get the religious leaders to see beyond the physical aspects of His teaching to the real issue—namely, that if they believed on Him they would have eternal life.

7:2 Feast of Tabernacles. This was one of the three great Jewish religious festivals (Passover and Pentecost were the other two). It was called the Feast of Tabernacles (Booths) because for seven days the people lived in makeshift shelters or lean-tos made of branches and leaves. The feast commemorated the days when the Israelites wandered in the wilderness and lived in tents (Lev 23:40–43 ).

7:3–4 His brothers. Jesus' brothers argued, "If You are really working miracles and thus claiming to be the Messiah, do not hide in obscure Galilee. If you are doing miracles at all, then do them in Jerusalem at the Feast to convince the whole nation." These words were sarcastic, as verse 5 explains.

7:14 When the feast was already half over. This would have been the fourth day of the seven-day feast. During the first half of the festival, Jesus remained in seclusion (v. 10 ). During the second half, He began to teach publicly. This is the first mention in the Gospel of John of Jesus teaching in the temple.

7:15 without formal training. Jesus never attended a rabbinical school. Similar bewilderment was later expressed regarding Jesus' disciples (Ac 4:13 ).

7:28–29 You know Me and know where I am from. Jesus reminded the leaders that they knew His origin. Their problem was that they did not know God, who sent Jesus. He explained to them that He knew God, was from God, and was sent by God.

7:32 to arrest Him. The Jewish leaders decided earlier that they wanted to kill Christ (5:16 ), but this is the first real attempt on His life.

7:37–39 the last and most important day of the feast. On each day of the feast, the people came with palm branches and marched around the great altar. A priest took a golden pitcher filled with water from the pool of Siloam, carried it to the temple, and poured it on the altar as an offering to God. This dramatic ceremony was a memorial of the water that flowed from the rock when the Israelites traveled through the wilderness. On the last day of the feast, the people marched seven times around the altar in memory of the seven circuits around the walls of Jericho.

7:38 as the Scripture has said. The reference is not to a single passage, but to the general emphasis of such passages as Deuteronomy 18:15 , Isaiah 58:11 , and Zechariah 14:8 . In contrast to the small amount of water poured out each day during the feast, there will be a river of water coming out of those who believe in Christ. Not only will they be satisfied themselves, but they will also become a river so that others may drink and be satisfied (v. 39 ).

7:40–42 Christ comes from the descendants of David. These people knew that the Messiah was to come from Bethlehem (Mic 5:2 ). However, they did not know that Jesus had been born there. They thought He was from Galilee. They knew the Scripture, but they did not take the time to know the Messiah (5:39 ).

8:2 He sat down. Teachers in ancient Israel sat when they taught. Jesus assumed the position of an authoritative teacher.

8:4–5 in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Stoning was specified in certain cases of adultery (Dt 22:23–24 ), though not all. (It is not clear why the authorities intended to punish the woman but not the man.) In the Greek text, the pronoun you is emphatic. The religious leaders were trying to trap Jesus into saying something that was contrary to the law.

8:6 to test Him. If Jesus had said not to stone her, He would have contradicted Jewish law. If He had said to stone her, He would have run counter to Roman law, which did not permit Jews to carry out their own executions (18:31 ). What Jesus wrote on the ground is a matter of conjecture.

8:13 Your testimony is not valid. This phrase does not mean “false”; it means “not sufficient.” The Pharisees challenged Jesus on legal grounds because no man on trial in a Jewish court was allowed to testify on his own behalf. Their point was that, if Jesus were the only one testifying as to who He claimed to be, it would not be enough to prove His case.

8:14 My testimony is valid. In 5:31 Jesus argued on the basis of legality and offered other witnesses. Sometimes, however, an individual is the only one who knows the facts about himself. Thus, self-disclosure is the only way to truth (7:29 ; 13:3 ).

8:15 according to human standards. The religious leaders formed conclusions based on human standards and an imperfect, external, and superficial examination. Jesus did not judge according to human standards or outward appearances.

8:24 I am. This was God’s designation of Himself (Ex 3:14 ). Jesus was claiming to be God. This assertion was not understood by the religious leaders at this time. Later, Jesus’ claim to be the “I Am” (v. 58 ) prompted the Jewish leaders to seek His life (v. 59 ).

8:31 God’s Word Confirms— The Bible establishes the truth in our own hearts in several ways. Go to Theological Notes Index

It confirms our salvation. In Jesus’ own words in the Gospel of John: “I assure you and most solemnly say to you, the person who hears My word [the one who heeds My message], and believes and trusts in Him who sent Me, has (possesses now) eternal life [that is, eternal life actually begins—the believer is transformed], and does not come into judgment and condemnation, but has passed [over] from death into life.” (Jn 5:24 ). Compare John 3:16 ; 6:27 ,35 ,37 ,40 ; 10:27–29 ; Romans 8:1 .

It confirms the hand of God in all of life’s bitter disappointments. Romans 8:28 provides reassurance and comfort in these crucial situations: “And we know [with great confidence] that God [who is deeply concerned about us] causes all things to work together [as a plan] for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to His plan and purpose.”

It confirms our forgiveness when we sin. Repeatedly, the Bible assures us that all confessed sin is instantly and eternally forgiven (Ps 32:5 ; 103:12 ; Isa 38:17 ).

8:33 have never been enslaved to anyone. The Pharisees’ objection is startling. In their past, the Israelites had been in bondage to the Egyptians, the Assyrians, and the Babylonians. At the time they spoke, Israel was under the power of Rome.

8:39 Abraham is our father. The Pharisees believed that being a descendant of Abraham guaranteed them a place in heaven.

8:41 We are not illegitimate children. From ancient times, this has been interpreted as a sneer, as if to say, “We are not illegitimate children, but You are.” Apparently gossip had followed Jesus for many years, alleging that He had been conceived out of wedlock.

8:53 Are You greater than our father Abraham. Abraham and the prophets kept God’s word and died. Jesus was claiming not that He would prevent physical death, but that He could give eternal life. To the Jewish leaders, this was proof that Jesus was demon-possessed.

8:58–59 I Am. Jesus was not just claiming to have lived before Abraham; He was claiming eternal existence. He was claiming to be God Himself (Ex 3:14 ). This time the Jewish leaders understood that Jesus was claiming to be God, so they took up stones to stone Him for blasphemy (Lev 24:16 ).

9:1 a man [who had been] blind from birth. Most likely he was a beggar. Beggars waited by the gates of the temple for gifts from worshipers. Therefore, it is likely that this scene took place near the temple.

9:2 who sinned. It was commonly supposed that sickness was a result of sin. It would follow that sin committed by a baby still in the womb or sin committed by parents could result in a baby being born with a disease. Jesus rejected both suggestions (v. 3 ).

9:7 pool of Siloam. Hezekiah had a tunnel cut through solid rock to transport water from Gihon into the city of Jerusalem, to the pool of Siloam (2Ki 20:20 ; 2Ch 32:30 ). John emphasizes that the name Siloam means “sent,” because Jesus had just announced that He had been sent by God (v. 4 ).

9:22 put out of the synagogue. To take this action was a form of excommunication. The Jews had three types of excommunication: one lasting 30 days, during which the person could not come within six feet of anybody else; one for an indefinite time, during which the person was excluded from all fellowship and worship; and one that meant absolute expulsion forever. These judgments were very serious because no one could conduct business with a person who was excommunicated.

9:30–33 it has never been heard. There is no healing of a blind man recorded anywhere in the Old Testament.

9:38 Lord, I believe. Note the progression throughout this chapter of the healed man’s understanding of the person of Christ. First, he called Jesus “The Man” (v. 11 ); then, “a prophet” (v. 17 ); and finally, he realized that Jesus is the Son of God (vv. 35–38 ).

10:1 sheepfold. A sheepfold was a walled enclosure or high fence made with stakes and having one door or gate; often the enclosure was a cave. some other place. The Pharisees had secured their power by illegitimate means.

10:3 The doorkeeper. The doorkeeper was the undershepherd. calls his own sheep by name. The naming of sheep was an ancient practice (Ps 147:4 ; Isa 40:26 ).

10:7 I am the Door. In verses 1–5 , Jesus is the shepherd; here, He is the door. Some shepherds lay down across the entry of the sheepfold at night to sleep. Wild beasts would be discouraged from entering, and sheep would not exit. Thus, the shepherd was also the door.

10:10 have it in abundance. The thieves take life; the shepherd gives it. Abundant life includes salvation, nourishment, healing (v. 9 ), and much more. Life here refers to eternal life, God’s life. It speaks not only of endlessness, but of quality of life. With Christ, life on earth can reach much higher quality, and then in heaven it will be complete and perfect.

10:11 The Ministry of Jesus— Jesus' most important teachings are: the kingdom of God (Mt 5–7 ; 24–25 ); His divine authority over men (Mt 7:28–29 ; Mk 2:10 ); His own role as God and Messiah demonstrated by miracles and signs; the significance of His death and resurrection (Mt 16:21 ; Lk 24:26 ); the relationship which His disciples and subsequent believers are to share with Him (Jn 13–16 ); and the urgency of His commission to believers to make disciples (Mt 28:19–20 ). The most significant events of His earthly life, His death, and resurrection, are central to the entire Christian faith (1Co 15:14 ). The death of Christ was a humiliating physical death (Jn 19:18 ,33 ) that constituted a spiritual separation from God (Mt 27:46 ). Within this moment there occurred the inexplicable mystery of the Father punishing the Son for the sins of the world (1Pe 3:18 ; 2Co 5:21 ). The greatest crime of human history was in the plan of God (Ac 2:23 ) and became the basis of salvation for sinners (Isa 53:5 ). The resurrection of Christ demonstrated that His death, by which believing sinners are justified, was valid (1Co 15:12–20 ). The historical evidence for the resurrection is plentiful: the many separate accounts of post-resurrection appearances, the empty tomb, and the transformed disciples. It is the power of the resurrection that empowers Christians today to live the Christian life (Eph 1:19–20 ; Php 3:10 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

10:16 I have other sheep. These were not Jews in heathen lands, but Gentiles. The Jewish people had asked if Jesus would go and teach the Gentiles (7:35 ). Jesus now declared that He had sheep among the despised heathen. one flock. This anticipates the salvation of the Gentiles and the formation of the church, in which converted Jews and Gentiles would form one spiritual body (Gal 3:28 ; Eph 2:16 ).

10:19–21 Many of them said . . . Others were saying. After Jesus' analogy of the good shepherd, the editorial comment by John is fitting. In the analogy, Jesus was the good shepherd whose sheep hear His voice, implying that there are sheep who do not hear His voice. John's comment indicates that some believe and others do not. This is the same division that occurred in 9:16 .

10:22 the Feast of Dedication. This festival was celebrated for eight days. In 167 BC Antiochus Epiphanes desecrated the temple in Jerusalem, as prophesied in Daniel 11:31 . The Maccabees restored and purified the temple. In commemoration of the restoration, the Feast of Dedication was instituted. Today it is also known as the Feast of Lights or Hanukkah.

10:27–29 hear . . . follow. The following of the sheep is a metaphor for faith. Other metaphors for faith in this Gospel include drinking water (4:14 ), eating bread (6:50–51 ), eating flesh, and drinking blood (6:54 ).

10:30 I and the Father are One. The Jewish opponents understood that Jesus was claiming to be God (vv. 31 ,33 ).

10:34 YOU ARE GODS. In the Old Testament, judges were called gods. They exercised godlike judicial sovereignty. Psalm 82:6 , the verse quoted here, refers to judges who violate the law. Jesus' argument was that, if the divine name had been applied by God to mere men, there could be neither blasphemy nor folly in its application to the incarnate Son of God Himself.

Jesus' Seven “I Am” Statements

Jesus' “I am” statements would have particular significance to the first-century Jewish listener. God had revealed Himself to Moses with a resounding “I AM” (Ex. 3:14 ). Now Jesus was using the same words to describe Himself (4:26 ; 6:20 ; 13:19 ).

Title: “I am the bread of life.”

Reference: 6:35, 41, 48, 51

Context: After Jesus had fed the five thousand and the people wanted more free food.

Significance: As bread sustains physical life, so Christ offers and sustains spiritual life. The nourishment and satisfaction He offers are permanent.

Title: “I am the light of the world.”

Reference: 8:12

Context: During the Feast of Tabernacles. At this feast a huge candelabra was lit in the women’s court of the temple. It reminded the Israelites of the pillar of fire which guided their ancestors during the wilderness wanderings.

Significance: To a world stumbling about in the darkness of sin, Christ offers Himself as a constant guide. Light is also symbolic of holiness.

Title: “I am the door of the sheep.”

Reference: 10:7, 9

Context: During a discourse with Israel’s religious leaders in which Jesus in essence declared them to be unfit shepherds of the nation.

Significance: Shepherds guided their flocks into stone enclosures each night to protect them. These structures had no doors. The shepherd would sit or lie in the opening to prevent predators from attacking. Thus Jesus was describing His care and constant devotion to those who are His.

Title: “I am the good shepherd.”

Reference: 10:11, 14

Context: Same as above.

Significance: Unlike hirelings who might run away and leave the flock unprotected, Jesus is committed to caring for and keeping watch over His people.

Title: “I am the resurrection and the life.”

Reference: 11:25

Context: After Lazarus had died.

Significance: Jesus is the Lord of all life and possesses the power to raise the dead. Death is not the final word, for all who are in Christ will live forever.

Title: “I am the way, the truth, and the life.”

Reference: 14:6

Context: When the disciples were confused about Jesus’ statements about heaven.

Significance: Jesus is the one and only way to the Father. He is the source of all truth and the source for all knowledge about God. He offers to spiritually dead people the very life of God.

Title: “I am the true vine.”

Reference: 15:1, 5

Context: In the Upper Room discourse on the night of His arrest.

Significance: The Old Testament contains many references to Israel as God’s vine (Ps. 80:8 ; Is. 5:1–7 ; Ezek. 15 ; Hos. 10:1). But because of the nation’s unfruitfulness, Jesus came to fulfill God’s plan. By attaching ourselves to Christ, we enable His life to flow in and through us. Then we cannot help but bear fruit that will honor the Father. In this metaphor, He is the Gardener.

11:1 Bethany. This was a small village on the southeast slope of the Mount of Olives. It was located about two miles from Jerusalem.

11:4 not end in death. This phrase means not having death as its final result.

11:6–8 He stayed in the same place two more days. God's purpose was to glorify His Son (v. 4) and to cause the disciples to grow (v. 15). Had Jesus immediately rushed to Lazarus' bedside and healed him, Lazarus would not have died and Jesus would not have been able to manifest His glory by raising Lazarus.

11:16 Let us go too, that we may die with Him. While the Lord saw their development in faith, Thomas saw their deaths. Yet, in his loyalty, he followed anyway.

11:33 troubled. This word means to be stirred up, disturbed. Jesus was moved by the mourning of Mary and indignant at the hypocritical lamentations of His enemies.

11:37 Could not this Man. Some people misinterpreted Jesus' tears as powerlessness. They complained that He had healed others, but now was impotent.

11:43 Lazarus. Augustine once said that, if Jesus had not designated Lazarus by name, all the graves would have been emptied at His command (5:28). Raising Lazarus from the dead is the seventh sign of Jesus' messiahship, the greatest miracle of all, giving life back to the dead.

11:49–52 it is expedient. In the opinion of Caiaphas, Jesus should die rather than plunge the nation into destruction. John adds that by virtue of his office Caiaphas pronounced a message of God unconsciously. Caiaphas was a prophet in spite of himself. John also saw in Caiaphas' words a prophecy that Jesus should die not only for Israel but for the Gentiles as well.

11:53 they planned together to kill Him. Humanly speaking, the resurrection of Lazarus was a major factor that led to the plot by the Jewish religious leaders to kill Christ. At this point the council decided informally, if not formally, to put Jesus to death. It is ironic that these men believed they could put to death permanently One who could raise the dead.

12:1 Six days before the Passover. If the crucifixion took place on a Friday, this dinner occurred during the evening of the previous Saturday. Verse 12 seems to support this conclusion because the Jerusalem entry took place on Sunday.

12:3 expensive perfume. Judas Iscariot said that this perfume cost 300 denarii. One denarius was a laborer's wage for one day. Thus, the perfume cost approximately a year's wages. poured it on Jesus' feet. Mary also anointed Jesus' head. The custom of that time was to anoint the heads of guests. Anointing Jesus' head was an act of honor; anointing His feet was a display of devotion.

12:10–11 the chief priests planned to kill Lazarus also. The chief priests were mostly Sadducees. They had an additional reason to kill Lazarus. He was a living refutation of their doctrine that there was no resurrection (11:57; Ac 23:8). Yet this was not a meeting of the Jewish council, nor was it a formal sentence of death. The ultimate motivation for wanting to kill Lazarus was that, because of him, many were believing in Jesus.

12:13–15 the King of Israel. Until this point, Jesus had discouraged expressions of support from the people (6:15; 7:1–8). Here, He allowed public enthusiasm. He entered Jerusalem on the back of a young donkey. This act fulfilled prophecy (Zec 9:9) and as such was a symbolic proclamation that Jesus is the Messiah.

12:20 to worship at the feast. This verse indicates that these Greeks were Jewish proselytes. By recording this incident, perhaps John was hinting that the salvation rejected by many of the Jews was already passing to the Gentiles.

12:24 unless a grain of wheat . . . dies. When a seed dies, it produces fruit. Life comes by death. This principle is not only true in nature, but it is also true spiritually. Jesus was speaking first and foremost of Himself. He is the grain of wheat. His death would produce much fruit and would result in many living for God.

Jesus' Trial, Judgment and Crucifixion

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

12:27 Now My soul is troubled. Jesus' agony over His impending death was not confined to Gethsemane, where He prayed for the cup to pass from Him (Mt 26:39 ). He felt the agony and expressed it almost a week before Gethsemane.

12:35–36 while you have the Light. Instead of answering the people's questions (v. 34 ), Jesus gave them a warning. Jesus is the light. He wanted the people to believe and abide in Him (v. 46 ).

12:42–43 Nevertheless. This word marks a stark contrast between these believers and the unbelief spoken of in verses 37–41 . These men were genuine believers. Their problem was that they feared the opinions of their fellow leaders. Such believers will be ashamed at Christ's return (1Jn 2:28 ).

12:47 I do not judge him. Christ will judge, but at His first coming He did not come to judge but to save (3:17 ).

13:1 to the end. This phrase means either "to the last" or "utterly and completely." What follows in verses 1–11 demonstrates Jesus' complete love. Jesus loved His disciples, even though He knew that one would betray Him, another would deny Him, and all would desert Him for a time.

13:8 no part with Me. The washing was a symbol of spiritual cleansing (vv. 10–11 ). If Peter did not participate in the cleansing, he would not enjoy fellowship with Christ (1Jn 1:9 ).

13:13 Teacher and Lord. These were the ordinary titles of respect given to a rabbi.

13:18 HAS RAISED UP HIS HEEL. Jesus quoted Psalm 41:9 to explain the action of Judas. Lifting up one's heel was a gesture of insult or a preparation to kick. The blow had not yet been given. This was the attitude of Judas at that moment. He was eating with the disciples, but he was ready to strike.

13:23 whom Jesus loved. The disciple is never named in Scripture, but the tradition of the early church designates him as John, the author of this Gospel. leaning against Jesus' chest. At this time people did not generally sit at a table to eat. They reclined on the left side of a low platform, resting on the left elbow and eating with the right hand, their feet extended outward. Reclining in such a way, a man's head was near the chest of the person on his left.

13:33 Little children is an expression of tender affection used nowhere else in the Gospels. John did not forget the expression; he used it repeatedly in 1 John.

13:35 By this. Unbelievers recognize Jesus' disciples not by their doctrinal distinctives, nor by dramatic miracles, nor even by their love for the lost. They recognize His disciples by their deeds of love for one another.

13:36 Lord, where are you going? This question Jesus had already addressed twice before, indicating that Peter completely missed the point of what Jesus said in verses 34 and 35 .

13:37 I will lay down my life for You! Peter was ready to die for Jesus. Unfortunately, he was not ready, at this point, to live for Him. Later Peter would die for Christ (21:18–19 ). Church tradition states that Peter was crucified upside down, at his request, for he felt himself unworthy to be crucified like his Lord.

14:3 I will come back again and I will take you. Peter may have failed Jesus (13:38 ), but Christ will not fail to return for Peter and for everyone else who has believed in Him (1Th 4:16–17 ).

14:6 the [only] Way [to God] and the [real] Truth and the [real] Life. Through His death and resurrection, Jesus is the way to the Father. He is also the truth and the life. As truth, He is the revelation of God. As life, He is the source of our very beings.

14:12 greater things. Jesus had accomplished the greatest things possible, including raising the dead. How could He say that believers would do greater things? The answer is seen in the extent of what the apostles did. Jesus' work on earth was confined to Palestine; the apostles would preach everywhere and see the conversion of thousands. Peter's message at Pentecost brought more followers to Jesus than did Jesus' entire earthly ministry. The disciples were able to do this work because Christ would go to the Father and send the Holy Spirit to empower them.

14:17 the Spirit of Truth. This is another name for the Holy Spirit because He is truth and guides us into all truth (1Co 2:13 ; 2Pe 1:21 ).

14:18 as orphans [comfortless, bereaved, and helpless]. He would not abandon them. He would come to them. There are three suggested interpretations as to when that statement would be fulfilled: (1) after the resurrection, (2) at Pentecost, in the person of the Holy Spirit, and (3) at the second coming.

14:23 If anyone [really] loves Me, he will keep My word. In response to Judas' question (v. 22), Jesus explained that His manifestation to the disciples would be in response to their love and obedience. make Our dwelling place with him. If a believer loves and obeys the Lord, he or she will experience fellowship with God.

14:24 One who does not [really] love Me does not keep My words. If a person does not love Jesus, he or she will not obey Him. Disobedience is a serious matter, for Jesus' words are the words of God.

14:30 has no claim on Me. These words indicate Jesus' sinlessness. Jesus' yielding to what was about to happen did not mean that Satan had any power over Him. Jesus would soon voluntarily yield to the death of the cross, in loving obedience to the Father (v. 31).

15:2 Every branch in Me. The emphasis of in Me in this passage is on deep, abiding fellowship. Jesus' purpose was to move His disciples from servants to friends (vv. 13–15). This would involve a process of discipline in regard to His commandments. prunes. This word carries the sense of purging. Once the fruit is on the vine, the vinedresser cleanses the fruit of bugs and diseases. The spiritual counterpart is cleansing which is done through the Word (v. 3).

15:6 If anyone does not remain in Me. Not abiding in Christ has serious consequences: (1) the person is thrown out like a branch, indicating the loss of fellowship; (2) the person wITHERS and dies, indicating a loss of vitality; (3) the person is burned, indicating a loss of reward.

15:8 by this. Notice the striking parallel between this verse and 13:35. fruit. The love of 13:35 is pictured here. The text has come full circle in showing how strategic it is for disciples to love each other, as Christ's method of evangelizing the lost. Where there is good fruit, there are also seeds for propagation.

15:11 that your joy may be made full. This phrase is an expression peculiar to John (3:29 ; 16:24 ; 17:13 ; 1Jn 1:4 ; 2Jn 12). It describes a believer's experience of Christ's love: complete joy.

15:14 if you keep on doing. Jesus is our model for love (v. 13). Intimacy with Him is the motive for loving as He loves. If believers obey His command to love, they enjoy the intimacy of His friendship. Not that friendship, unlike sonship, is a once-for-all gift, but develops as the result of obeying Jesus' command to love.

15:15 I do not call you servants. Until this point, Jesus had called His disciples servants (12:26 ; 13:13–16). A servant does what he is told and sees what his master does, but does not necessarily know the meaning or purpose of it. friends. A friend knows what is happening because friends develop deep fellowship by communicating with one another.

15:22–23 not have [the guilt of their] sin . . . no excuse for their sin. The world's hatred of Jesus was a sin against God, for He revealed the Father Himself to them.

15:26–27 He will testify. As the disciples spoke, the Holy Spirit would bring inner conviction to unbelievers concerning Christ. This in turn would make the disciples witnesses for Jesus.

16:2 They will put you out of the synagogues. The persecution that the disciples would face included excommunication and even execution. Excommunication had economic as well as religious implications because much of the life of an ancient Jew revolved around the synagogue.

16:7 it is to your advantage. The disciples must have thought, "How can it be to our advantage to be alone? The Romans hate us because they see us as disturbers of the peace. The Jewish leaders hate us because they see us as blasphemers." Jesus explained the benefits of His departure. When Jesus left, the believers would have (1) the provision of the Holy Spirit (vv. 7–15); (2) the potential of full joy (vv. 16–24); (3) the possibility of fuller knowledge (vv. 25–28); (4) the privilege of peace (vv. 29–33).

16:8 convict. The Holy Spirit would demonstrate the truth of Christ beyond the fear of contradiction. The Holy Spirit convicts unbelievers through believers who witness about Christ (15:26–27). Believers are the mouthpiece for God's voice.

16:11 about judgment. Satan, the ruler of the world, rules in the hearts of unregenerate people and blinds their minds (1Co 2:6–8). Satan was judged at the cross, and the Holy Spirit would convince people of the judgment to come. Satan has been judged, so all who side with him will be judged with him.

16:12 you. Here, this refers to the apostles. Technically, what the Lord says about the ministry of the Holy Spirit in verses 12–15 applies primarily to the apostles. That ministry was threefold: (1) He would guide them into all truth (v. 13); (2) He would tell them of the future (v. 13); (3) He would help them glorify Christ (vv. 14–15). Jesus' words were fulfilled in the apostles' preaching and writings.

16:13 Spirit of Truth. The phrase means that the Holy Spirit is the source of truth (14:17 ; 15:26). guide. The Holy Spirit would not compel or carry the disciples into truth. He would lead; their job was to follow.

16:14 glorify and honor Me. The Holy Spirit glorifies Christ by declaring Him or making Him known. It is the work of the Holy Spirit to throw light on Jesus Christ, who is the image of the invisible God. Christ is to be on center stage; that is the desire of both the Father and the Spirit. The apostles received truth from the Holy Spirit, truth about things to come, and truth about Christ. Then, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, they wrote those truths in documents known today as the New Testament.

16:18 A little while. The biggest question weighing on the disciples' minds was the time factor. They simply did not understand the strange intervals marked by their separation from Jesus.

16:21 A woman, when she is in labor. Jesus used the example of a pregnant woman whose sorrow is transformed into joy in the birth of a child.

16:26 I will ask the Father on your behalf. Because Jesus provides forgiveness of sins through His death and now intercedes for all believers at the right hand of the Father (Heb 7:25), we have direct access to the Father. We do not need the intercession of a priest, because Jesus acts as our High Priest before God.

16:31 Do you now [at last] believe? We continue in the Christian life the same way we begin, by believing in Jesus. The more we learn of Christ, the more we have to believe. The more we place our trust in Jesus, the more we receive. The more we receive, the more we can accomplish for His glory.

16:33 tribulation. This is literally "pressure" and figuratively means "affliction" or "distress."

17:1–2 the hour has come. Throughout the Gospel of John, Jesus referred to the cross as His "hour" (2:4 ; 7:30 ; 8:20 ; 12:23 ; 13:1). The time for Him to die had arrived. Glorify Your Son. Jesus was asking that His mission to the world would be made known through the cross. The reasons for this request are twofold: (1) that Your Son may glorify You. In the cross, Jesus reveals the Father to the world, that is, His love and justice, and (2) that, through Jesus' death on the cross, God would provide forgiveness of sins and give eternal life to all those who believe in His Son.

17:3 that they may know You. Eternal life consists of a growing knowledge of the only true God as opposed to false gods.

17:11 keep them in Your name. This verse reveals Jesus' sensitivity to the plight of His disciples brought on by His departure. He was going to the Father, but they would be left behind. Jesus asked the Father to keep them true to the revelation of God that Jesus had given to them while He was with them. The disciples would have a new union with the Father and Son through the future indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

17:14–16 of the world. This verse has profound implications for discipleship. Our desire should not be to isolate ourselves from the world, but to use Christ's Word and the Holy Spirit's power to serve Him while our life lasts. Yet, at the same time, we should not become like the world, succumbing to the evil influences of the world.

17:17 Sanctify them. This means “to set apart.” There are two ways to understand this statement: (1) as separate for holiness, or (2) as set apart for service. According to the first view, Jesus was praying not only that the disciples should be kept from evil, but that they should advance in holiness.

17:21 that they all may be one. The present tense of the verb “to be” indicates that Jesus was praying for the unity that takes place through the sanctification of believers. This is what Jesus was commanding in 13:34–35.

17:22 the glory. This is the revelation of Jesus Christ through His disciples and is the means to unity. Such unity begins with belief and correct thinking about Jesus and God the Father, that is, with doctrine. But correct belief must bear fruit—a life that demonstrates God’s love and produces unity between all believers.

17:23 I in them and You in Me. The mutual indwelling of the Father in the Son and the Son in the church is also the means to unity, the ultimate expression of God’s love (13:35 ; Ro 8:17 ).

18:1 ravine of the Kidron. A brook was located in a ravine that was between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives.

18:3 officers. These were members of the temple police under the command of the Jewish council, the Sanhedrin.

18:13 Annas. Annas was high priest from AD 7 to 14. He was deposed by the Romans. Then Caiaphas, Annas’ son-in-law, was appointed to the position and served from AD 18 to 37. However, according to Jewish law the high priest was a lifetime position, so the Jews still considered Annas to be high priest. Therefore, they took Jesus to Annas first.

18:15 another disciple. Although this other disciple is never identified, the consensus is that he was John, the author of this Gospel.

18:21 Question those who have heard. According to the law, the witnesses for the defense had to be called first. Jesus should not have been questioned until witnesses had testified.

18:27 Peter denied it again. For the third time, Peter denied the Lord, as Jesus had said he would (13:38). In the upper room, Peter had boasted that he would remain true to the Lord to the end (13:37 ; Mt 26:33 ,35 ). In the garden he surrendered to the desires of his body by sleeping three times when the Lord had commanded the disciples to stay up in prayer (Mk 14:34–42 ). Now he submitted to the pressure of the world and denied the Lord three times.

18:28 Praetorium. This was probably the Roman governor’s official residence, probably the Fortress Antonia near the temple.

18:29–30 What accusation. Pilate was not ignorant of the accusation. He was merely requesting that it be formally stated.

18:31 We are not permitted to put anyone to death. The Romans did not allow the Jews to impose capital punishment. These Jewish leaders had no interest in a just trial; they simply wanted permission from Rome to have Jesus executed.

18:34 Are you saying this on your own initiative. In reply to Pilate, Jesus gave no violent protest of innocence, nor was He sullenly defiant. Jesus politely but directly asked whether Pilate was asking on his own initiative or whether the charge was secondhand. If Pilate’s question originated with him, he was using king in the Roman sense of political ruler. If not, then king was being used in the Jewish sense of the messianic king.

18:38 What is truth? This question has been interpreted as (1) a cynical denial of the possibility of knowing truth; (2) a contemptuous jest at anything so impractical as abstract truth; and (3) a desire to know what no one had been able to tell him. no guilt. This is a legal term meaning that there were no grounds for a criminal charge.

18:39 you have a custom. It appears that some in the crowd suggested that a prisoner should be released in honor of the Passover (Mk 15:8 ,11 ). Pilate jumped at the possible compromise. By promising to release Jesus on account of the custom rather than by proclaiming Him innocent, Pilate would avoid insulting the Jewish leaders, who had already pronounced Him guilty.

19:4 I am bringing Him out to you. Perhaps Pilate was appealing to the people's compassion so that he could release Jesus.

19:7 We have a law. The Jewish leaders were telling Pilate, "If you are appealing to us, we say that, according to our law, He must die." As governor, Pilate was bound by Roman custom to respect Jewish law. He made Himself out to be the Son of God. The Jewish leaders were accusing Jesus of violating the laws against blasphemy (Lev 24:16 ).

19:9 Jesus did not answer him. Three times Pilate had publicly pronounced Jesus innocent (18:38 ; 19:4 ,6 ).

19:12 you are no friend of Caesar. The Jews shifted their focus from the religious charge (v. Z ) to the political charge (18:33 ), which they backed up with an appeal to Caesar's own political interest. This new plea forced Pilate to choose between yielding to an indefinite sense of right or escaping the danger of an accusation from Rome.

19:19 wrote an inscription. It was a Roman custom to write the name of the condemned person and his crime on a plaque to be placed above his head at execution.

19:20 written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Multilingual inscriptions were common. The title was written in the local, common, and official languages of the day. Everyone could read the message in his or her own language.

19:23 the soldiers. According to Roman law, the garments of a condemned criminal belonged to the executioners. Jesus had two items of clothing. The cloak was a large, loose garment. The tunic was a close-fitting garment that went from the neck to the knees.

19:24 cast lots. The outer garment could be conveniently divided, but the inner garment could not. Thus, the soldiers divided the outer one and cast lots for the inner one. Unknowingly, the soldiers fulfilled David's prophecy in Psalm 22:18 .

19:30 It is finished! Having fulfilled every command of the Father and every prophecy of Scripture, Jesus voluntarily died. This was not a cry of exhaustion, but of completion. Jesus had done what He had agreed to do.

19:31 the day of Preparation. This day was Friday, the day before the Sabbath Day. Bodies should not remain on the cross. It is ironic that in the midst of a deliberate judicial murder the Jews were scrupulous about keeping the ceremonial law. According to Jewish law (Dt 21:23 ), it was necessary to remove the bodies of executed criminals before sunset. To avoid breaking the law, the Jews requested that the legs of the condemned be broken so that the men would die quickly and could be removed from their crosses. With his legs broken, a victim could no longer lift his body in order to breathe and would soon suffocate.

19:34 one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear. After the soldier did this, blood and water came out, indicating that Jesus was already dead. Only blood would have flowed from a living body.

19:35 he (John, the eyewitness) who has seen it. John's words can be trusted because he is giving an eyewitness account, so that his readers will believe that Jesus is the Savior.

20:2 They have taken away the Lord. Mary Magdalene jumped to the wrong conclusion.

20:5 the linen wrappings [neatly] lying. No one who came to steal the body would have taken the time to unwrap it and leave the clothes behind.

20:6 saw the linen. The Greek term implies an intense stare, in contrast to the more casual look described in verse 5. Peter went into the tomb to get a good look. He carefully examined the place where Jesus' body had been.

20:9 they did not understand the Scripture. The disciples believed because of what they saw in the tomb (v. 8), not because of what they knew from Old Testament passages describing the Savior's resurrection (Lk 24:25–27). Jesus had prophesied His death and resurrection in the disciples' presence, but the disciples had not understood what He was talking about.

20:17 Do not hold Me. This means "to fasten oneself to." Evidently Mary had grabbed Christ and was holding on to Him as if she would never turn Him loose.

20:19 Jesus came and stood among them. Christ's appearance was miraculous because the doors were shut. Jesus, as God, could perform a variety of miracles without requiring a change in His humanity. Here Christ's body was a physical body, the same body in which He died and was buried. The difference is that His flesh had been changed to take on immortality and incorruptibility (1Co 15:53).

20:31 that you may believe. John states the purpose of his book, which was to convince his readers that Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah who fulfilled God's promises to Israel. Jesus is the Son of God, God in the flesh. By believing these things, a person obtains eternal life (1:12).

21:4 the disciples did not know. Perhaps the apostles did not recognize Jesus because they were preoccupied with their work, as Mary Magdalene had been with her sorrow (20:14). In addition, there was not much light at this time of day.

21:7 Peter . . . threw himself into the sea. John was the first to recognize the Lord; Peter was the first to act.

21:17 You know that I love You. Peter denied the Lord at least three times. Here, he affirmed his love for the third time.

21:20–21 the disciple whom Jesus loved. This is commonly considered to be John, the author of this Gospel.

21:24 This is the same disciple. This is basically John's signature to his Gospel.

The Acts of the Apostles

- AUTHOR: There are many “we” sections in Acts that imply the author was present for these events (16:10–17 ; 20:5–21:18 ; 27:1–28:16 ). These sections of Acts are the historical record of an eyewitness. For the remainder of this book, Luke no doubt followed the same careful investigative procedures that he used in writing his Gospel (Lk 1:1–4 ). As a close traveling companion of Paul, Luke had access to the principal eyewitness for chapters 13–18 . It is also likely that he had opportunities to interview such key witnesses in Jerusalem as Peter and John for the information in chapters 13–28 . Twentieth-century archeological discoveries have strikingly confirmed the trustworthiness and precision of Luke as an historian.
- TIMES: c. AD 33–62
- KEY VERSES: Ac 2:42–47
- THEME: Acts is the record of how the events surrounding Jesus’ life and death and resurrection resulted in this worldwide movement called the church. The book is certainly not a comprehensive history. Acts is more like a photo album of snapshots. It is the record of an eyewitness who wrote about what he saw and what seemed to be the critical events in the beginnings of the church and its movement out of Jerusalem to the rest of the world. One could say that the Book of Acts is an elaboration on Acts 1:8 : “But you will receive power and ability when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you will be My witnesses [to tell people about Me] both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and Samaria, and even to the ends of the earth.”

Acts 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> THE FIRST account I made, Theophilus, was [a continuous report] about all the things that Jesus began to do and to teach [Luke 1:1–4] ‡

<sup>2</sup> until the day when He ascended to heaven, after He had by the Holy Spirit given instruction to the apostles (special messengers) whom He had chosen. ‡

<sup>3</sup> To these [men] He also showed Himself alive after His suffering [in Gethsemane and on the cross], by [a series of] many infallible proofs and unquestionable demonstrations, appearing to them over a period of forty days and talking to them about the things concerning the kingdom of God. ‡

<sup>4</sup> While being together and eating with them, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father had promised, “Of which,” He said, “you have heard Me speak. [John 14:16, 26; 15:26] ‡

<sup>5</sup> “For John baptized with water, but you will be baptized and empowered and united with the Holy Spirit, not long from now.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So when they had come together, they asked Him repeatedly, “Lord, are You at this time reestablishing the kingdom and restoring it to Israel?” ‡

<sup>7</sup> He said to them, “It is not for you to know the times or epochs which the Father has fixed by His own authority. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But you will receive power and ability when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you will be My witnesses [to tell people about Me] both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and Samaria, and even to the ends of the earth.” ‡

The Ascension

<sup>9</sup> And after He said these things, He was caught up as they looked on, and a cloud took Him up out of their sight. ‡

<sup>10</sup> While they were looking intently into the sky as He was going, two men in white clothing suddenly stood beside them, ‡

<sup>11</sup> who said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This [same] Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will return in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven.” ‡

The Upper Room

<sup>13</sup> When they had entered the city, they went upstairs to the upper room where they were staying [indefinitely]; that is, Peter, and John and [his brother] James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew (Nathanael) and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas (Thaddaeus) the son of James. ‡

<sup>14</sup> All these with one mind and one purpose were continually devoting themselves to prayer, [waiting together] along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Now on one of these days Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters (a gathering of about a hundred and twenty believers was there) and he said, ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Brothers and sisters, it was necessary that the Scripture be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit foretold by the lips of David [king of Israel] about Judas [Iscariot], who acted as guide to those who arrested Jesus. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “For in the book of Psalms it is written, ‡

‘L ET HIS PLACE OF RESIDENCE BECOME DESOLATE , A ND LET THERE BE NO ONE TO LIVE IN IT ’;
and [again],
‘L ET ANOTHER TAKE HIS POSITION AS OVERSEER .’  [Ps 69:25 ;
109:8 ]

<sup>21</sup> “So of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus spent with us,

<sup>23</sup> And they put forward two men, Joseph, the one called Barsabbas (who was surnamed Justus), and Matthias.‡

<sup>26</sup> And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Acts 2

The Day of Pentecost

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THE day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place,‡

<sup>2</sup> and suddenly a sound came from heaven like a rushing violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.‡

<sup>3</sup> There appeared to them tongues resembling fire, which were being distributed [among them], and they rested on each one of them [as each person received the Holy Spirit].

<sup>4</sup> And they were all filled [that is, diffused throughout their being] with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues (different languages), as the Spirit was giving them the ability to speak out [clearly and appropriately].‡

<sup>5</sup> Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout and God-fearing men from every nation under heaven.

<sup>6</sup> And when this sound was heard, a crowd gathered, and they were bewildered because each one was hearing those in the upper room speaking in his own language or dialect.

<sup>7</sup> They were completely astonished, saying, “Look! Are not all of these who are speaking Galileans?‡

<sup>8</sup> “Then how is it that each of us hears in our own language or native dialect?

<sup>9</sup> “[Among us there are] Parthians, Medes and Elamites, and people of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia [Minor],

<sup>10</sup> Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya around Cyrene, and the visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes (Gentile converts to Judaism),

<sup>11</sup> Cretans and Arabs—we all hear them speaking in our [native] tongues about the mighty works of God!”

<sup>12</sup> And they were beside themselves with amazement and were greatly perplexed, saying one to another, “What could this mean?”

<sup>13</sup> But others were laughing and joking and ridiculing them, saying, “They are full of sweet wine and are drunk!”

Peter’s Sermon

<sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: “Men of Judea and all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be explained to you; listen closely and pay attention to what I have to say.”

<sup>15</sup> “These people are not drunk, as you assume, since it is [only] the third hour of the day (9:00 a.m.); ‡

<sup>16</sup> but this is [the beginning of] what was spoken of through the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup> ‘A ND IT SHALL BE IN THE LAST DAYS ,’ says God, ‡
‘T HAT I WILL POUR OUT M Y S PIRIT UPON ALL MANKIND ; A ND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS SHALL PROPHESY ,
A ND YOUR YOUNG MEN SHALL SEE [divinely prompted] VISIONS ,
A ND YOUR OLD MEN SHALL DREAM [divinely prompted] DREAMS ;
<sup>18</sup> E VEN ON M Y BOND-SERVANTS , BOTH MEN AND WOMEN , ‡
I WILL IN THOSE DAYS POUR OUT M Y S PIRIT
And they shall prophesy.

<sup>19</sup> ‘A ND I WILL BRING ABOUT WONDERS IN THE SKY ABOVE ‡
A ND SIGNS (attesting miracles) ON THE EARTH BELOW , B LOOD AND FIRE AND SMOKING VAPOR .

<sup>20</sup> ‘T HE SUN SHALL BE TURNED INTO DARKNESS ‡
A ND THE MOON INTO BLOOD ,
B EFORE THE GREAT AND GLORIOUS DAY OF THE L ORD COMES .

<sup>21</sup> ‘A ND IT SHALL BE THAT EVERYONE WHO CALLS UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD [invoking, adoring, and worshiping the Lord Jesus] SHALL BE SAVED (rescued spiritually).’ [ [Joel
2:28–32](#). ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man accredited and pointed out and attested to you by God with [the power to perform] miracles and wonders and signs which God worked through Him in your [very] midst, just as you yourselves know— ‡

<sup>23</sup> this Man, when handed over [to the Roman authorities] according to the predetermined decision and foreknowledge of God, you nailed to a cross and put to death by the hands of lawless and godless men. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “But God raised Him up, releasing Him and bringing an end to the agony of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held in death’s power. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “For David says of Him, ‡

‘I SAW THE L ORD CONSTANTLY BEFORE ME ;
F OR H E IS AT MY RIGHT HAND , SO THAT I WILL NOT BE SHAKEN [from my state of security].

<sup>26</sup> ‘T HEREFORCE MY HEART REJOICED AND MY TONGUE EXULTED EXCEEDINGLY ;

M OREOVER MY FLESH ALSO WILL LIVE IN HOPE [that is, will encamp in anticipation of the resurrection];

<sup>27</sup> ‘F OR Y OU WILL NOT FORSAKE ME and ABANDON MY SOUL TO H
ADES (the realm of the dead),

N OR LET Y OUR H OLY O NE UNDERGO DECAY [after death].

<sup>28</sup> ‘Y OU HAVE MADE KNOWN TO ME THE WAYS OF LIFE ;
Y OU WILL FILL ME [infusing my soul] WITH JOY WITH Y OUR PRESENCE .’  [Ps 16:8–11 ]

<sup>29</sup> “Brothers, I may confidently and freely say to you regarding the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “And so, being a prophet and knowing fully that G OD HAD SWORN TO HIM WITH AN OATH THAT H E WOULD SEAT one OF HIS DESCENDANTS ON HIS THRONE ,  [2 Sam 7:12–16 ; Ps 132:11 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> he foresaw and spoke [prophetically] of the resurrection of the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), that H E WAS NOT ABANDONED [in death] TO H ADES (the realm of the dead), NOR DID His body UNDERGO DECAY .  [Ps 16:10 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> “God raised this Jesus [bodily from the dead], and of that [fact] we are all witnesses. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured out this [blessing] which you both see and hear. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “For David did not ascend into the heavens, yet he himself says, ‡

‘T HE L ORD [the Father] SAID TO MY L ORD [the Son],
“S IT AT M Y RIGHT HAND ,

<sup>35</sup> U NTIL I MAKE Y OUR ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR Y OUR FEET .” ’ [
Ps 110:1.]

<sup>36</sup> “Therefore let all the house of Israel recognize beyond all doubt that God has made Him both Lord and Christ (Messiah, Anointed)—this Jesus whom you crucified.”

The Ingathering

<sup>37</sup> Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart [with remorse and anxiety], and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what are we to do?” ‡

<sup>38</sup> And Peter said to them, “Repent [change your old way of thinking, turn from your sinful ways, accept and follow Jesus as the Messiah] and be baptized, each of you, in the name of Jesus Christ because of the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ‡

<sup>39</sup> “For the promise [of the Holy Spirit] is for you and your children and for all who are far away [including the Gentiles], as many as the Lord our God calls to Himself.” [Is 57:19; Joel 2:32] ‡

<sup>40</sup> And Peter solemnly testified and continued to admonish and urge them with many more words, saying, “Be saved from this crooked and unjust generation!”

<sup>41</sup> So then, those who accepted his message were baptized; and on that day about 3,000 souls were added [to the body of believers].

<sup>42</sup> They were continually and faithfully devoting themselves to the instruction of the apostles, and to fellowship, to eating meals together and to prayers. ‡

<sup>43</sup> A sense of awe was felt by everyone, and many wonders and signs (attesting miracles) were taking place through the apostles. ‡

<sup>44</sup> And all those who had believed [in Jesus as Savior] were together and had all things in common [considering their possessions to belong to the group as a whole]. ‡

<sup>45</sup> And they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing the proceeds with all [the other believers], as anyone had need. ‡

<sup>46</sup> Day after day they met in the temple [area] continuing with one mind, and breaking bread in various private homes. They were eating their meals together with joy and generous hearts, ‡

<sup>47</sup> praising God continually, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord kept adding to their number daily those who were being saved. ‡ The Jewish Diaspora in the Times of Jesus

Acts 3

Healing the Lame Beggar

<sup>1</sup> NOW PETER and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.), ‡

<sup>2</sup> and a man who had been unable to walk from birth was being carried along, whom they used to set down every day at that gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, so that he could beg alms from those entering the temple. ‡

<sup>3</sup> So when he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he began asking [them] for coins.

<sup>4</sup> But Peter, along with John, stared at him intently and said, “Look at us!”

<sup>5</sup> And the man began to pay attention to them, eagerly expecting to receive something from them.

<sup>6</sup> But Peter said, “Silver and gold I do not have; but what I do have I give to you: In the name (authority, power) of Jesus Christ the Nazarene—[begin now to] walk and go on walking!” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then he seized the man’s right hand with a firm grip and raised him up. And at once his feet and ankles became strong and steady,

<sup>8</sup> and with a leap he stood up and began to walk; and he went into the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. ‡

<sup>10</sup> and they recognized him as the very man who usually sat begging for coins at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement and were mystified at what had happened to him. ‡

Peter’s Second Sermon

<sup>11</sup> Now while he was still holding on to Peter and John, all the people, utterly amazed, ran together and crowded around them at the covered porch called Solomon’s portico. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And Peter, seeing this, said to the people, “You men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Why are you staring at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk?”

<sup>13</sup> “The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant and Son Jesus [doing Him this honor], the One whom you handed over and disowned and rejected before Pilate, when he had decided to release Him.  [Ex 3:6; Is 52:13 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> “But you disowned and denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked for [the pardon of] a murderer to be granted to you. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “But you killed the Prince (Author, Originator, Source) of life, whom God raised [bodily] from the dead. To this [fact] we are witnesses [for we have seen the risen Christ]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “And on the basis of faith in His name, it is the name of Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health and complete wholeness in your presence. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance [not fully aware of what you were doing], just as your rulers did also. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “And so God has fulfilled what He foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that His Christ (Messiah, Anointed) would suffer. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “So repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins] and return [to God—seek His purpose for your life], so that your sins may be wiped away [blotted out, completely erased], so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord [restoring you like a cool wind on a hot day]; ‡

<sup>20</sup> and that He may send [to you] Jesus, the Christ, who has been appointed for you,

<sup>21</sup> whom heaven must keep until the time for the [complete] restoration of all things about which God promised through the mouth of His holy prophets from ancient time. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Moses said, ‘T HE L ORD G OD WILL RAISE UP FOR YOU A P ROPHET LIKE ME FROM YOUR COUNTRYMEN ; YOU SHALL LISTEN TO H IM and OBEY everything He tells you. ‡

<sup>23</sup> ‘And it will be that every person that does not listen to and heed that Prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.’  [Deut 18:15–19 ]

<sup>24</sup> “Indeed, all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and those who came after him, also announced these days.

<sup>25</sup> “You are the sons (descendants) of the prophets and [heirs] of the covenant which God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘A ND IN YOUR SEED (descendant) ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH SHALL BE BLESSED .’  [Gen 22:18; Gal 3:16 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> “It was for you first of all that God raised up His Servant and Son [Jesus], and sent Him to bless you by turning every one of you from your wicked ways.”  [Acts 2:24; 3:22. ] ‡

Acts 4

Peter and John Arrested

<sup>1</sup> AND WHILE Peter and John were talking to the people, the priests and the captain [who was in charge of the temple area and] of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to them, <sup>2</sup> being extremely disturbed and thoroughly annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in [the case of] Jesus the resurrection of the dead.

<sup>3</sup> So they arrested them and put them in jail until the next day, because it was evening.

<sup>4</sup> But many of those who heard the message [of salvation] believed [in Jesus and accepted Him as the Christ]. And the number of the men came to be about 5,000.

<sup>5</sup>-On the next day, their magistrates and elders and scribes (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) were gathered together in Jerusalem;

<sup>6</sup> and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all others who were of high-priestly descent. ‡

<sup>7</sup> When they had put the men in front of them, they repeatedly asked, “By what sort of power, or in what name [that is, by what kind of authority], did you do this [healing]?” ‡

<sup>8</sup>-Then Peter, filled with [the power of] the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and elders of the people [members of the Sanhedrin, the Jewish High Court], ‡

<sup>9</sup> if we are being put on trial today [to interrogate us] for a good deed done to [benefit] a disabled man, as to how this man has been restored to health,

<sup>10</sup> let it be known and clearly understood by all of you, and by all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you [demanded be] crucified [by the Romans and], whom God raised from the dead—in this name [that is, by the authority and power of Jesus] this man stands here before you in good health. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “This Jesus is the STONE WHICH WAS DESPISED and REJECTED by you, THE

BUILDERS , but WHICH BECAME THE CHIEF C ORNERSTONE .  [Ps 118:22 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> “And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among people by which we must be saved [for God has provided the world no alternative for salvation].” ‡

Threat and Release

<sup>13</sup> Now when the men of the Sanhedrin (Jewish High Court) saw the confidence and boldness of Peter and John, and grasped the fact that they were uneducated and untrained [ordinary] men, they were astounded, and began to recognize that they had been with Jesus. ‡

<sup>14</sup> And seeing the man who had been healed standing there with them, they had nothing to say in reply. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But after ordering them to step out of the Council [chamber], they began to confer among themselves,

<sup>16</sup> saying, “What are we to do with these men? For the fact that an extraordinary miracle has taken place through them is public knowledge and clearly evident to all the residents of Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “But to keep it from spreading further among the people and the nation, let us [sternly] warn them not to speak again to anyone in this name.”

<sup>18</sup> So they sent for them, and commanded them not to speak [as His representatives] or teach at all in the name of Jesus [using Him as their authority]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> But Peter and John replied to them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you and obey you rather than God, you must judge [for yourselves]; ‡

<sup>20</sup> for we, on our part, cannot stop telling [people] about what we have seen and heard.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> When the rulers and Council members had threatened them further, they let them go, finding no way to punish them because [of their fear] of the people, for they were all praising and glorifying and honoring God for what had happened; ‡

<sup>22</sup> for the man to whom this sign (attesting miracle) of healing had happened was more than forty years old.

<sup>23</sup> After Peter and John were released, they returned to their own [people] and reported everything that the chief priests and elders had said to them. ‡

<sup>24</sup> And when they heard it, they raised their voices together to God and said, “O Sovereign Lord [having complete power and authority], it is You who MADE THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH AND THE SEA , AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN THEM ,  [Ex 20:11 ; Ps 146:6 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> who by the Holy Spirit, through the mouth of our father David, Your servant, said, ‡

‘W HY DID THE NATIONS (Gentiles) BECOME ARROGANT and RAGE ,
A ND THE PEOPLES DEVISE FUTILE THINGS [against the Lord]?’

<sup>26</sup> ‘T HE KINGS OF THE EARTH TOOK THEIR STAND [to attack], A ND THE RULERS WERE ASSEMBLED TOGETHER
A GAINST THE L ORD AND AGAINST H IS A NOINTED (the Christ, the Messiah).’  [Ps 2:1 , 2 ]

<sup>27</sup> “For in this city there were gathered together against Your holy Servant Jesus, whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, ‡

<sup>28</sup> to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose predestined [before the creation of the world] to occur [and so without knowing it, they served Your own purpose]. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “And now, Lord, observe their threats [take them into account] and grant that Your bond-servants may declare Your message [of salvation] with great confidence, ‡

<sup>30</sup> while You extend Your hand to heal, and signs and wonders (attesting miracles) take place through the name [and the authority and power] of Your holy Servant and Son Jesus.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> And when they had prayed, the place where they were meeting together was shaken [a sign of God’s presence]; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness and courage. ‡

Sharing among Believers

<sup>32</sup> Now the company of believers was of one heart and soul, and not one [of them] claimed that anything belonging to him was [exclusively] his own, but everything was common property and for the use of all. ‡

<sup>33</sup> And with great ability and power the apostles were continuously testifying to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace [God’s remarkable lovingkindness and favor and goodwill] rested richly upon them all. ‡

<sup>34</sup> There was not a needy person among them, because those who were owners of land or houses were selling them, and bringing the proceeds of the sales ‡

<sup>35</sup> and placing the money down at the apostles' feet. Then it was distributed to each as anyone had need. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Now Joseph, a Levite and native of Cyprus, who was surnamed Barnabas by the apostles (which translated means Son of Encouragement),

<sup>37</sup> sold a field belonging to him and brought the money and set it at the apostles' feet. ‡

Acts 5

Fate of Ananias and Sapphira

<sup>2</sup> and with his wife's full knowledge [and complicity] he kept back some of the proceeds, bringing only a portion of it, and set it at the apostles' feet.

<sup>3</sup> But Peter said, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and [secretly] keep back for yourself some of the proceeds [from the sale] of the land? ‡

<sup>4</sup> “As long as it remained [unsold], did it not remain your own [to do with as you pleased]? And after it was sold, was the money not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this act [of hypocrisy and deceit] in your heart? You have not [simply] lied to people, but to God.”

<sup>5</sup> And hearing these words, Ananias fell down suddenly and died; and great fear and awe gripped those who heard of it. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And the young men [in the congregation] got up and wrapped up the body, and carried it out and buried it. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now after an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

<sup>8</sup> Peter asked her, “Tell me whether you sold your land for so much?” And she said, “Yes, for so much.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Peter said to her, “How could you two have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Look! The feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> And at once she fell down at his feet and died; and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her

<sup>11</sup> And great fear and awe gripped the whole church, and all who heard about these things. ‡

<sup>12</sup> At the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders (attesting miracles) were continually taking place among the people. And by common consent they all met together [at the temple] in [the covered porch called] Solomon's portico. ‡

<sup>13</sup> But none of the rest [of the people, the non-believers] dared to associate with them; however, the people were holding them in high esteem and were speaking highly of them. ‡

<sup>14</sup> More and more believers in the Lord, crowds of men and women, were constantly being added to their number,

<sup>15</sup> to such an extent that they even carried their sick out into the streets and put them on cots and sleeping pads, so that when Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on one of them [with healing power]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> And the people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem were coming together, bringing the sick and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all being healed. ‡

Imprisonment and Release

<sup>19</sup> But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors, and leading them out, he said, ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Go, stand and continue to tell the people in the temple [courtyards] the whole message of this Life [the eternal life revealed by Christ and found through faith in Him].” ‡

<sup>21</sup> When they heard this, they went into the temple [courtyards] about daybreak and began teaching. ‡

N ow when the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), even all the council of elders of the sons of Israel, and sent word to the prison for the apostles to be brought [before them].

<sup>22</sup> But when the officers arrived, they did not find them in the prison; and they came back and reported,

<sup>23</sup> “We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened [the doors], we found no one inside.”

<sup>24</sup> Now when the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these things, they were greatly perplexed, wondering what would come of this. ‡

<sup>25</sup> But someone came and told them, “The men whom you put in prison are standing [right here] in the temple [area], teaching the people!”

<sup>26</sup> Then the captain went with the officers and brought them back, without hurting them (because they were afraid of the people, worried that they might be stoned). ‡

<sup>27</sup> So they brought them and presented them before the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court). The high priest questioned them,

<sup>28</sup> saying, “We gave you strict orders not to continue teaching in this name, and yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you intend to bring this Man’s blood on us [by accusing us as His murderers].” ‡

<sup>29</sup> Then Peter and the apostles replied, “We must obey God rather than men [we have no other choice]. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you had put to death by hanging Him on a cross [and you are responsible].  [Deut 21:22 , 23.] ‡

<sup>31</sup> “God exalted Him to His right hand as Prince and Savior and Deliverer, in order to grant repentance to Israel, and [to grant] forgiveness of sins. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “And we are witnesses of these things; and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has bestowed on those who obey Him.” ‡

Gamaliel's Counsel

<sup>33</sup> Now when they heard this, they were infuriated and they intended to kill the apostles. ‡

<sup>34</sup> But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law [of Moses], highly esteemed by all the people, stood up in the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) and ordered that the men be taken outside for a little while. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Then he said to the Council, “Men of Israel, be careful in regard to what you propose to do to these men.

<sup>36</sup> “For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody [of importance], and a group of about four hundred men allied themselves with him. But he was killed, and all who followed him were scattered and came to nothing.

<sup>37</sup> “After this man, Judas the Galilean rose up, [and led an uprising] during the time of the census, and drew people after him; he was also killed, and all his followers were scattered.

<sup>38</sup> “So in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or action is of men [merely human in origin], it will fail and be destroyed; ‡

<sup>39</sup> but if it is of God [and it appears that it is], you will not be able to stop them; or else you may even be found fighting against God!” ‡

<sup>40</sup> The Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) took his advice; and after summoning the apostles, they flogged them and ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released them. ‡

<sup>42</sup> And every single day, in the temple [area] and in homes, they did not stop teaching and telling the good news of Jesus as the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed). ‡

Acts 6

Choosing of the Seven

<sup>1</sup> NOW ABOUT this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, a complaint was made by the Hellenists (Greek-speaking Jews) against the [native] Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving of food. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So the Twelve called the disciples together and said, “It is not appropriate for us to neglect [teaching] the word of God in order to serve tables and manage the distribution of food. ‡

<sup>3</sup>—“Therefore, brothers, choose from among you seven men with good reputations [men of godly character and moral integrity], full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this task. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “But we will [continue to] devote ourselves [steadfastly] to prayer and to the ministry of the word.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> The suggestion pleased the whole congregation; and they selected Stephen, a man full of faith [in Christ Jesus], and [filled with and led by] the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas (Nikolaos), a proselyte (Gentile convert) from Antioch. ‡

6. They brought these men before the apostles; and after praying, they laid their hands on them [to dedicate and commission them for this service]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And the message of God kept on growing and spreading, and the number of disciples continued to increase greatly in Jerusalem; and a large number of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith [accepting Jesus as Messiah and acknowledging Him as the Source of eternal salvation]. ‡

8. Now Stephen, full of grace (divine blessing, favor) and power, was doing great wonders and signs (attesting miracles) among the people.

<sup>9</sup> However, some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (freed Jewish slaves), both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and [the province of] Asia, rose up and questioned and argued with Stephen.

<sup>10</sup> But they were not able to successfully withstand and cope with the wisdom and the intelligence [and the power and inspiration] of the Spirit by whom he was speaking. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then [to attack him another way] they secretly instructed men to say, “We have heard this man [Stephen] speak blasphemous (slanderous, sacrilegious, abusive) words against Moses and against God.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> And they provoked and incited the people, as well as the elders and the scribes, and they came up to Stephen and seized him and brought him before the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court).

<sup>13</sup> They presented false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking against this holy place and the Law [of Moses];

<sup>14</sup> for we have heard him say that this Jesus the Nazarene will tear down this place and will change the traditions and customs which Moses handed down to us.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then all those who were sitting in the Council, stared [intently] at him, and they saw that Stephen’s face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7

Stephen’s Defense

<sup>2</sup> And he answered, “Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory [the Shekinah, the radiance of God] appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,  [Gen 11:31; 15:7; Ps 29:3 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> and He said to him, ‘L EAVE YOUR COUNTRY AND YOUR RELATIVES , AND COME TO THE LAND THAT I WILL SHOW YOU .’  [Gen 12:1 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. And from there, after his father died, God sent him to this country in which you now live.  [Gen 11:31 ; 12:5 ; 15:7 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> “But He did not give him inheritable property, not even enough ground to take a step on, yet He promised that H E WOULD GIVE IT TO H IM AS A POSSESSION , AND TO HIS DESCENDANTS AFTER HIM .  [Gen 12:7 ; 17:8 ; Deut 2:5 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> “And this is, in effect, what God spoke [to him]: That his DESCENDANTS WOULD BE ALIENS (strangers) IN A FOREIGN LAND , AND THAT THEY WOULD BE ENSLAVED AND MISTREATED FOR FOUR HUNDRED YEARS . ‡

<sup>7</sup> “ ‘A ND I WILL JUDGE ANY NATION TO WHOM THEY WILL BE IN BONDAGE ,’ said God, ‘ AND AFTER THAT THEY WILL COME OUT AND SERVE M E [in worship] IN THIS PLACE .’  [Gen 15:13 , 14 ; Ex 3:12 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> “And God gave Abraham a covenant [a formal agreement to be strictly observed] of [which] circumcision [was the sign]; and so [under these circumstances] Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac [became the father] of Jacob, and Jacob [became the father] of the twelve patriarchs.  [Gen 17:10–14 ; 21:2–4 ; 25:26 ; 29:31–35 ; 30:1–24 ; 35:16–26 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> “The [ten elder] patriarchs, overwhelmed with jealousy, sold [their younger brother] Joseph into [slavery in] Egypt; but God was with him,  [Gen 37:11 , 28 ; 45:4 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> and He rescued him from all his suffering, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he made Joseph governor over Egypt and over his entire household.  [Gen 39:2 , 3 , 21 ; 41:40–46 ; Ps 105:21 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Now a famine came over all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great distress and our fathers could not find food [for their households and livestock].  [Gen 41:54 , 55 ; 42:5 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> “But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time.  [Gen 42:2 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “And on the second visit Joseph identified himself to his brothers, and Joseph’s family and background were revealed to Pharaoh.  [Gen 45:1–4 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Then Joseph sent and invited Jacob his father and all his relatives to come to him, seventy-five persons in all.  [Gen 45:9 , 10 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “And Jacob (Israel) went down into Egypt, and there he died, as did our fathers;  [Gen 49:33 ] ‡

16 and [from Egypt] their bodies were taken back to Shechem and placed in the tomb which Abraham had purchased for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.  [Gen 50:13 ; Josh 24:32 ] ‡

17 “But as the time [for the fulfillment] of the promise which God had made to Abraham was approaching, the [Hebrew] people increased and multiplied in Egypt,  [Deut 10:22 ] ‡

18 until [the time when] THERE AROSE ANOTHER KING OVER EGYPT WHO DID NOT KNOW JOSEPH [nor his history and the merit of his service to Egypt].  [Ex 1:7 , 8 ]

19 “He shrewdly exploited our race and mistreated our fathers, forcing them to expose their [male] babies so that they would die.  [Ex 1:7–11 , 15–22 ] ‡

20 “It was at this [critical] time that Moses was born; and he was lovely in the sight of God, and for three months he was nourished in his father’s house.  [Ex 2:2 ] ‡

21 “Then when he was set outside [to die], Pharaoh’s daughter rescued him and claimed him for herself, and cared for him as her own son.  [Ex 2:5 , 6 , 10 ] ‡

22 “So Moses was educated in all the wisdom and culture of the Egyptians, and he was a man of power in words and deeds. ‡

23 “But when he reached the age of forty, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel. ‡

24 “And when he saw one [of them] being treated unfairly, he defended the oppressed man and avenged him by striking and killing the Egyptian.

25 “He expected his countrymen to understand that God was granting them freedom through him [assuming that they would accept him], but they did not understand.

26 “Then on the next day he suddenly appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and he tried to reconcile them, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong one another?’

27 “But the man who was injuring his neighbor pushed Moses away, saying, ‘W HO APPOINTED YOU RULER AND JUDGE OVER US ?’ ‡

28 ‘D O YOU INTEND TO KILL ME AS YOU KILLED THE E GYPTIAN YESTERDAY ?’

29 “At this remark M OSSES FLED AND BECAME AN EXILE IN THE LAND OF M IDIAN where he fathered two sons.  [Ex 2:11–15 , 22 ; 18:3 , 4 ] ‡

30 “After forty years had passed, AN ANGEL APPEARED TO HIM IN THE WILDERNESS OF MOUNT Sinai, IN THE FLAME OF A BURNING THORN BUSH . ‡

<sup>31</sup> “When Moses saw it, he was astonished at the sight; but as he went near to look more closely, the voice of the Lord came [to him, saying]:

<sup>32</sup> ‘I AM THE GOD OF YOUR FATHERS , THE GOD OF A BRAHAM AND OF I SAAC AND ACOB .’ Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “THEN THE L ORD SAID TO HIM , ‘REMOVE THE SANDALS FROM YOUR FEET , FOR THE PLACE WHERE YOU ARE STANDING IS HOLY GROUND [worthy of reverence and respect].‡

Stephen Put to Death

54 Now when they heard this [accusation and understood its implication], they were cut to the heart, and they began grinding their teeth [in rage] at him. ‡

55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit and led by Him, gazed into heaven and saw the glory [the great splendor and majesty] of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God; ‡

<sup>56</sup> and he said, “Look! I see the heavens opened up [in welcome] and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!” ‡

<sup>57</sup> But they shouted with loud voices, and covered their ears and together rushed at him [considering him guilty of blasphemy].

<sup>59</sup> They continued stoning Stephen as he called on the Lord and said, “Lord Jesus, receive and accept and welcome my spirit!” ‡

<sup>60</sup> Then falling on his knees [in worship], he cried out loudly, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them [do not charge them]!” When he had said this, he fell asleep [in death]. ‡

Acts 8

Saul Persecutes the Church

<sup>1</sup> SAUL WHOLEHEARTEDLY approved of Stephen’s death. ‡

A nd on that day a great and relentless persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem; and the believers were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles.

<sup>3</sup> But Saul began ravaging the church [and assaulting believers]; entering house after house and dragging off men and women, putting them in prison. ‡

Philip in Samaria

<sup>4</sup> Now those [believers] who had been scattered went from place to place preaching the word [the good news of salvation through Christ]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Philip [the evangelist] went down to the city of Samaria and began proclaiming Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) to them.  [Acts 6:5] ‡

<sup>6</sup> The crowds gathered and were paying close attention to everything Philip said, as they heard [the message] and saw the [miraculous] signs which he was doing [validating his message].

<sup>7</sup> For unclean spirits (demons), shouting loudly, were coming out of many who were possessed; and many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So there was great rejoicing in that city.

<sup>9</sup> Now there was a man named Simon, who previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, claiming to be someone great. ‡

<sup>10</sup> They all paid [a great deal of] attention to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is what is called the Great Power of God!”

<sup>11</sup> They were paying attention to him because for a long time he had mystified and dazzled them with his magic.

<sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip as he preached the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being baptized, both men and women. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Even Simon believed [Philip’s message of salvation]; and after being baptized, he continued on with Philip, and as he watched the attesting signs and great miracles taking place, he was constantly amazed.

<sup>14</sup> When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that [the people of] Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

<sup>16</sup> for He had not yet fallen on any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus [as His possession]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Peter and John laid their hands on them [one by one], and they received the Holy Spirit. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money,

<sup>19</sup> saying, “Give me this authority and power too, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>20</sup> But Peter said to him, “May your money be destroyed along with you, because you thought you could buy the [free] gift of God with money! ‡

<sup>21</sup> “You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart (motive, purpose) is not right before God.  [Ps 78:37 ]

<sup>22</sup> “So repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, this thought of your heart may be forgiven you. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “For I see that you are provoked by bitterness and bound by sin.”  [Deut 29:18; Is 58:6 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> But Simon answered, “Pray to the Lord for me both of you, so that nothing of what you have said will come upon me.” ‡

An Ethiopian Receives Christ

<sup>25</sup> So, when Peter and John had given their testimony and preached the word of the Lord, they started back to Jerusalem, preaching the good news [about salvation] in many Samaritan villages [along the way].

<sup>26</sup> But an angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Get up and go south to the road that runs from Jerusalem down to Gaza.” (This is a desert road).

<sup>27</sup> So he got up and went; and there was an Ethiopian eunuch [a man of great authority], a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship,‡

<sup>28</sup> and he was returning, and sitting in his chariot he was reading [the scroll of] the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>29</sup> Then the [Holy] Spirit said to Philip, “Go up and join this chariot.”

<sup>30</sup> Philip ran up and heard the man reading the prophet Isaiah, and asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

<sup>31</sup> And he said, “Well, how could I [understand] unless someone guides me [correctly]?” And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup> Now this was the passage of Scripture which he was reading:‡

“L IKE A SHEEP H E WAS LED TO THE SLAUGHTER ; A ND AS A LAMB BEFORE ITS SHEARER IS SILENT ,
S O H E DOES NOT OPEN H IS MOUTH .

<sup>33</sup> “I N HUMILIATION H IS JUDGMENT WAS TAKEN AWAY [justice was denied Him].

W HO WILL DESCRIBE H IS GENERATION ?

F OR H IS LIFE IS TAKEN FROM THE EARTH .”  [Is 53:7 , 8. ]

<sup>34</sup> The eunuch replied to Philip, “Please tell me, about whom does the prophet say this? About himself or about someone else?”

<sup>35</sup> Then Philip spoke and beginning with this Scripture he preached Jesus to him [explaining that He is the promised Messiah and the source of salvation].‡

<sup>37</sup> [ Philip said to him, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” And he replied, “I do believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.” ]‡

<sup>38</sup> And he ordered that the chariot be stopped; and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

<sup>39</sup> When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord [suddenly] took Philip [and carried him] away [to a different place]; and the eunuch no longer saw him, but he went on his way rejoicing. ‡

<sup>40</sup> But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he preached the good news [of salvation] to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea [Maritima].

Acts 9

The Conversion of Saul

<sup>1</sup> NOW SAUL, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord [and relentless in his search for believers], went to the high priest, ‡

<sup>2</sup>-and he asked for letters [of authority] from him to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any men or women there belonging to the Way [believers, followers of Jesus the Messiah], men and women alike, he could arrest them and bring them bound [with chains] to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> As he traveled he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him [displaying the glory and majesty of Christ]; ‡

<sup>4</sup> and he fell to the ground and heard a voice [from heaven] saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting and oppressing Me?” ‡

<sup>5</sup> And Saul said, “Who are You, Lord?” And He answered, “I am Jesus whom you are persecuting, <sup>6</sup> now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> The men who were traveling with him [were terrified and] stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Saul got up from the ground, but though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

<sup>9</sup> And he was unable to see for three days, and he neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup> Now in Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” And he answered, “Here I am, Lord.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> And the Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street called Straight, and ask at the house of Judas for a man from Tarsus named Saul; for he is praying [there], ‡

<sup>12</sup> and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come in and place his hands on him, so that he may regain his sight.”

man, especially how much suffering and evil he has brought on Your saints (God's people) at Jerusalem; ‡

<sup>14</sup> and here [in Damascus] he has authority from the high priests to put in chains all who call on Your name [confessing You as Savior].” ‡

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord said to him, “Go, for this man is a [deliberately] chosen instrument of Mine, to bear My name before the Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel; ‡

<sup>16</sup> for I will make clear to him how much he must suffer and endure for My name’s sake.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> So Ananias left and entered the house, and he laid his hands on Saul and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you came [to Damascus], has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit [in order to proclaim Christ to both Jews and Gentiles].” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Immediately something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized;

<sup>19</sup> and he took some food and was strengthened. ‡

Saul Begins to Preach Christ

For several days [afterward] Saul remained with the disciples who were at Damascus.

<sup>20</sup> And immediately he began proclaiming Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “This Man is the Son of God [the promised Messiah]!” The Life of Paul

<sup>21</sup> All those who heard him continued to be amazed and said, “Is this not the man who in Jerusalem attacked those who called on this name [of Jesus], and had come here [to Damascus] for the express purpose of bringing them bound [with chains] before the chief priests?” ‡

<sup>22</sup> But Saul increased in strength more and more, and continued to perplex the Jews who lived in Damascus by examining [theological evidence] and proving [with Scripture] that this Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed). ‡

<sup>23</sup> After considerable time had passed [about three years or so], the Jews plotted together to kill him, ‡

<sup>24</sup> but their plot became known to Saul. They were also watching the city’s gates day and night so they could kill him; ‡

<sup>25</sup> but his disciples took him at night and let him down through an opening

in the wall, lowering him in a large basket. ‡

26 When he arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple. ‡

27 However, Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and described to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road [to Damascus], and how He had spoken to him, and how at Damascus Saul had preached openly and spoken confidently in the name of Jesus. ‡

28 So he was with them, moving around freely [as one among them] in Jerusalem, speaking out boldly in the name of the Lord. ‡

29 He was talking and arguing with the Hellenists (Greek-speaking Jews); but they were attempting to kill him. ‡

30 When the brothers found out [about the plot], they brought him down to Caesarea [Maritima] and sent him off to Tarsus [his home town].

31 So the church throughout Judea and Galilee and Samaria enjoyed peace [without persecution], being built up [in wisdom, virtue, and faith]; and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort and encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it continued to grow [in numbers]. ‡

Peter's Ministry

32 Now as Peter was traveling throughout the land, he went down to [visit] the saints (God's people) who lived at Lydda. ‡

33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years and was paralyzed.

34 Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed." Immediately Aeneas got up. ‡

35 Then all who lived at Lydda and the plain of Sharon saw [what had happened to] him, and they turned to the Lord. ‡

36 Now in Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha, (which translated into Greek means Dorcas). She was rich in acts of kindness and charity which she continually did. ‡

37 During that time it happened that she became sick and died; and when they had washed her body, they laid it in an upstairs room. ‡

38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, urging him, "Come to us without delay."

39 So Peter got up [at once] and went with them. When he arrived, they brought him into the upstairs room; and all the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing [him] all the tunics and robes that Dorcas used to make while she was with them.

<sup>40</sup> But Peter sent them all out [of the room] and knelt down and prayed; then turning to the body he said, “Tabitha, arise!” And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. ‡

<sup>41</sup> And he gave her his hand and helped her up; and then he called in the saints (God’s people) and the widows, and he presented her [to them] alive.

<sup>42</sup> This became known all over Joppa, and many came to believe in the Lord [that is, to adhere to and trust in and rely on Jesus as Christ and Savior].
‡

<sup>43</sup> And so it was that Peter stayed in Joppa for many days with Simon, a tanner. ‡

Acts 10

Cornelius’ Vision

<sup>1</sup> NOW AT Caesarea [Maritima] there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Regiment,

<sup>2</sup> a devout man and one who, along with all his household, feared God. He made many charitable donations to the Jewish people, and prayed to God always. ‡

<sup>3</sup> About the ninth hour (3:00 p.m.) of the day he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God who had come to him and said, “Cornelius!” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Cornelius was frightened and stared intently at him and said, “What is it, lord (sir)?” And the angel said to him, “Your prayers and gifts of charity have ascended as a memorial offering before God [an offering made in remembrance of His past blessings].

<sup>5</sup> “Now send men to Joppa and have them call for a man named Simon, who is also called Peter [and invite him here];

<sup>7</sup> When the angel who was speaking to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among his own personal attendants;

<sup>8</sup> and after explaining everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup> The next day, as they were on their way and were approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof of the house about the sixth hour (noon) to pray, ‡

<sup>10</sup> but he became hungry and wanted something to eat. While the meal was being prepared he fell into a trance;

<sup>11</sup> and he saw the sky opened up, and an object like a great sheet descending, lowered by its four corners to the earth,‡

<sup>12</sup> and it contained all kinds of four-footed animals and crawling creatures of the earth and birds of the air.

<sup>14</sup> But Peter said, “Not at all, Lord, for I have never eaten anything that is common (un holy) and [ceremonially] unclean.”‡

<sup>15</sup> And the voice came to him a second time, “What God has cleansed and pronounced clean, no longer consider common (un holy).”‡

<sup>16</sup> This happened three times, and then immediately the object was taken up into heaven.

<sup>17</sup> Now Peter was still perplexed and completely at a loss as to what his vision could mean when the men who had been sent by Cornelius, having asked directions to Simon’s house, arrived at the gate.

<sup>18</sup> And they called out to ask whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was staying there.

<sup>19</sup> While Peter was thoughtfully considering the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Now listen, three men are looking for you.‡

<sup>21</sup> Peter went down to the men and said, “I am the one you are looking for. For what reason have you come?”

<sup>22</sup> They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man well spoken of by all the Jewish people, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and hear what you have to say.”‡

<sup>23</sup> So Peter invited them in and gave them lodging [for the night].‡

Peter at Caesarea

The next day Peter got up and left with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him.

<sup>24</sup> On the following day he [and the others] entered Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends.

<sup>25</sup> When Peter arrived, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.

<sup>27</sup> As Peter talked with him, he entered [the house] and found a large group of people assembled.

<sup>28</sup> He said to them, “You know that it is unlawful for a Jewish man to associate with or befriend a Gentile, or to visit him; and yet God has shown me that I am not to call anyone common or [ceremonially] unclean. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “Therefore when I was sent for, I came without raising an objection. So I ask for what reason have you sent for me?”

<sup>30</sup> Cornelius said, “Four days ago to this hour, I was praying in my house during the ninth hour (3:00–4:00 p.m.); and a man [dressed] in bright, dazzling clothing suddenly stood before me, ‡

<sup>31</sup> and he said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your acts of charity have been remembered before God [so that He is about to help you]. ‡

<sup>32</sup> ‘Therefore send word to Joppa and invite Simon, who is also called Peter, to come to you. He is staying at the house of Simon the tanner by the sea.’

<sup>33</sup> “So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here present before God to listen to everything that you have been instructed by the Lord [to say].”

Gentiles Hear Good News

“M ost certainly I understand now that God is not one to show partiality [to people as though Gentiles were excluded from God’s blessing],

<sup>35</sup> but in every nation the person who fears God and does what is right [by seeking Him] is acceptable and welcomed by Him. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “You know the message which He sent to the sons of Israel, announcing the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all— ‡

<sup>37</sup> you know the things that have taken place throughout Judea, starting in Galilee after the baptism preached by John— ‡

<sup>38</sup> how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with great power; and He went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him.  [Is 61:1–3; Luke 4:18–21 ] ‡

<sup>39</sup> “We are [personally] eyewitnesses of everything that He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem [in particular]. They also put Him to death by hanging Him on a cross; ‡

<sup>40</sup> God raised Him [to life] on the third day and caused Him to be plainly seen, ‡

<sup>41</sup> not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen and designated beforehand by God, that is, to us who ate and drank together with Him after He rose from the dead.  [Luke 24:42, 43; John 21:12–15 ] ‡

<sup>42</sup> “He commanded us to preach to the people [both Jew and Gentile], and to solemnly testify that He is the One who has been appointed and ordained by God as Judge of the living and the dead. ‡

<sup>43</sup> “All the prophets testify about Him, that through His name everyone who believes in Him [whoever trusts in and relies on Him, accepting Him as Savior and Messiah] receives forgiveness of sins.” ‡

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who were listening to the message [confirming God’s acceptance of Gentiles]. ‡

<sup>45</sup> All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. ‡

<sup>46</sup> For they heard them talking in [unknown] tongues (languages) and exalting and magnifying and praising God. Then Peter said,

<sup>47</sup> “Can anyone refuse water for these people to be baptized, since they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did?” ‡

<sup>48</sup> And he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay there for a few days. ‡

Acts 11

Peter Reports at Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE apostles and the believers who were throughout Judea heard [with astonishment] that the Gentiles also had received and accepted the word of God [the message concerning salvation through Christ].

<sup>2</sup>- So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision [certain Jewish believers who followed the Law] took issue with him [for violating Jewish customs], ‡

<sup>4</sup> But Peter began [at the beginning] and explained [the events] to them step by step, saying, ‡

<sup>5</sup> “I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision of an object coming down from heaven, like a huge sheet being lowered by the four corners; and [it descended until] it came right down to me, ‡

<sup>6</sup> and looking closely at it, I saw all kinds of the four-footed animals of the earth and the wild beasts and the crawling creatures and the birds of the air [both clean and unclean according to the Law],

<sup>7</sup> and I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’

<sup>8</sup> “But I said, ‘Not at all, Lord; for nothing common (unholy) or [ceremonially] unclean has ever entered my mouth.’

<sup>9</sup> “But the voice from heaven answered a second time, ‘What God has cleansed and pronounced clean, no longer consider common (unholy).’

<sup>10</sup> “This happened three times, and everything was drawn up again into heaven.

<sup>11</sup> “And right then the three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were staying.

<sup>12</sup> “The Spirit told me to go with them without the slightest hesitation. So these six brothers also went with me and we went to the man’s house. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “And Cornelius told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, saying, ‘Send word to Joppa and have Simon, who is also called Peter, brought here; ‡

<sup>14</sup> he will bring a message to you by which you will be saved [and granted eternal life], you and all your household.’

<sup>15</sup> “When I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as He did on us at the beginning [at Pentecost].  [Acts 2:1–4 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “So, if God gave Gentiles the same gift [equally] as He gave us after we accepted and believed and trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ [as Savior], who was I to interfere or stand in God’s way?” ‡

<sup>18</sup> When they heard this, they quieted down and glorified and praised God, saying, “Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance that leads to eternal life [that is, real life after earthly death].” ‡

The Church at Antioch

<sup>19</sup> So then [since they were unaware of these developments] those who were scattered because of the persecution that occurred in connection with [the stoning of] Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, without telling the message [of salvation through Christ] to anyone except Jews. ‡

<sup>20</sup> But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Greeks as well, proclaiming [to them] the good news about the Lord Jesus. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And the hand (the power and presence) of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord [for salvation, accepting and drawing near to Jesus as Messiah and Savior]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> The news of this reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. ‡

<sup>23</sup> When he arrived and saw the grace of God [that was bestowed on them], he rejoiced and began to encourage them all with an unwavering heart to stay true and devoted to the Lord. ‡

<sup>24</sup> For Barnabas was a good man [privately and publicly—his godly character benefited both himself and others] and he was full of the Holy Spirit and full of faith [in Jesus the Messiah, through whom believers have everlasting life]. And a great number of people were brought to the Lord. ‡

<sup>26</sup> and when he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. For an entire year they met [with others] in the church and instructed large numbers; and it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians.  [Acts 26:28; 1 Pet 4:16 ]

<sup>28</sup> One of them named Agabus stood up and prophesied through the [Holy] Spirit that a severe famine would come on the entire world. And this did happen during the reign of Claudius. ‡

<sup>29</sup> So the disciples decided to send a contribution, each according to his individual ability, to the believers who lived in Judea. ‡

<sup>30</sup> And this they did, sending the contribution to the elders by Barnabas and Saul. ‡

Acts 12

Peter's Arrest and Escape

<sup>1</sup> NOW AT that time Herod [Agrippa I] the king [of the Jews] arrested some who belonged to the church, intending to harm them.

<sup>3</sup> and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to have Peter arrested as well. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread [the Passover week]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> When he had seized Peter, he put him in prison, turning him over to four squads of soldiers of four each to guard him [in rotation throughout the night], planning after the Passover to bring him out before the people [for execution]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So Peter was kept in prison, but fervent and persistent prayer for him was being made to God by the church.

<sup>6</sup> The very night before Herod was to bring him forward, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries were in front of the door guarding the prison.

<sup>7</sup> Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared [beside him] and a light shone in the cell. The angel struck Peter's side and awakened him, saying, "Get up quickly!" And the chains fell off his hands. ‡

<sup>8</sup> The angel said to him, "Prepare yourself and strap on your sandals [to get ready for whatever may happen]." And he did so. Then the angel told him, "Put on your robe and follow me."

<sup>9</sup> And Peter went out following the angel. He did not realize that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. ‡

<sup>10</sup> When they had passed the first guard and the second, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city. Of its own accord it swung open for them; and they went out and went along one street, and at once the angel left him. ‡

<sup>11</sup> When Peter came to his senses, he said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent His angel and has rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting [to do to me]."‡

<sup>12</sup> When he realized what had happened, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, who was also called Mark, where many [believers] were gathered together and were praying continually [and had been praying all night]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> When he knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant-girl named Rhoda came to answer.

<sup>14</sup> Recognizing Peter's voice, in her joy she failed to open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gateway.

<sup>15</sup> They said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she kept insisting that it was so. They kept saying, "It is his angel!"  [Matt 18:10; Heb 1:14 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> But [meanwhile] Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him, they were completely amazed.

<sup>17</sup> But motioning to them with his hand to be quiet and listen, he described how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, “Report these things to James and the brothers and sisters.” Then he left and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup> Now when day came, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what had become of Peter.

<sup>19</sup> When Herod had searched for him and could not find him, he interrogated the guards and commanded that they be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea [Maritima] and spent some time there.

Death of Herod

<sup>20</sup> Now Herod [Agrippa I] was extremely angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; and their delegates came to him in a united group, and after persuading Blastus, the king’s chamberlain [to support their cause], they asked for peace, because their country was fed by [imports of grain and other goods from] the king’s country. ‡

<sup>21</sup> On an appointed day Herod dressed himself in his royal robes, sat on his throne (tribunal, rostrum) and began delivering a speech to the people.

<sup>22</sup> The assembled people kept shouting, “It is the voice of a god and not of a man!”

<sup>23</sup> And at once an angel of the Lord struck him down because he did not give God the glory [and instead permitted himself to be worshiped], and he was eaten by worms and died [five days later]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> But the word of the Lord [the good news about salvation through Christ] continued to grow and spread [increasing in effectiveness]. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Barnabas and Saul came back from Jerusalem when they had completed their mission, bringing with them John, who was also called Mark.  [Acts 11:28–30. ] ‡

Acts 13

First Missionary Journey

<sup>1</sup> NOW IN the church at Antioch there were prophets [who spoke a new message of God to the people] and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod [Antipas] the tetrarch, and Saul. ‡ The First Missionary Journey of Paul

<sup>2</sup> While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul (Paul) for the work to which I have called them.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them [in approval and dedication] and sent them away [on their first journey]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> So then, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. ‡

<sup>5</sup> When Barnabas and Saul arrived at Salamis, they began to preach the word of God [proclaiming the message of eternal salvation through faith in Christ] in the synagogues of the Jews; and they also had John [Mark] as their assistant. ‡

<sup>6</sup> When they had traveled through the entire island [of Cyprus] as far as Paphos, they found a sorcerer, a Jewish false prophet named Bar-Jesus, ‡

<sup>7</sup> who was [closely associated] with the proconsul [of the province], Sergius Paulus, an intelligent and sensible man. He called for Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the word of God [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ].

<sup>8</sup> But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is how his name is translated) opposed them, trying to turn the proconsul away from accepting the faith. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But Saul, who was also known as Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit and led by Him, looked steadily at Elymas, ‡

<sup>10</sup> and said, “You [Elymas] who are full of every [kind of] deceit, and every [kind of] fraud, you son of the devil, enemy of everything that is right and good, will you never stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord?  [Hos 14:9] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Now, watch! The hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, [so blind that you will be] unable to see the sun for a time.” Immediately a mist and darkness fell upon him, and he groped around, seeking people to lead him by the hand. ‡

<sup>12</sup> The proconsul believed [the message of salvation] when he saw what had happened, being astonished at the teaching concerning the Lord.

<sup>14</sup> Now they went on from Perga and arrived at Antioch in Pisidia, and on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. ‡

<sup>15</sup> After the reading of the Law and the [writings of the] Prophets, the officials of the synagogue sent word to them, saying, “Brothers (kinsmen), if you have any word of encouragement for the people, say it.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand, he said, ‡

“Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen!

<sup>17</sup> “The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great and numerous during their stay [as foreigners] in the land of Egypt, and then with an uplifted arm He led them out of there.  [Ex 6:1, 6 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> “When He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave their land [to our ancestors] as an inheritance—this took about four hundred and fifty years.  [Deut 7:1; Josh 14:1, 2 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And when He had removed him, He raised up David to be their king: of him He testified and said, ‘I HAVE FOUND A MAN AFTER MY OWN HEART [conforming to My will and purposes], who will do all My will.’  [1 Sam 13:14; Ps 89:20; Is 44:28 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> “From this man’s descendants God has brought to Israel a Savior, [in the person of] Jesus, according to His promise. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “And as John was finishing his course [of ministry], he kept saying, ‘What or who do you think that I am? I am not He [the Christ]; but be aware, One is coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie [even as His slave]!’ ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Brothers, sons of Abraham’s family, and those among you who fear God, to us has been sent the message of this salvation [obtained through faith in Jesus Christ].  [Ps 107:20 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> “For those who live in Jerusalem, and their rulers, who failed to recognize or understand both Jesus and the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled these [very prophecies] by condemning Him. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “And though they found no cause or charge deserving death, they asked Pilate to have Him executed. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “And when they had finished carrying out everything that was written [in Scripture] about Him, they took Him down from the cross and laid Him in a tomb. ‡

<sup>31</sup> and for many days (forty) He appeared to those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, the very ones who are now His witnesses to the people. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “And we are bringing you the good news of the promise made to our fathers (ancestors), ‡

<sup>33</sup> that God has completely fulfilled this promise to our children by raising up Jesus, as it is also written in the second Psalm, ‘Y OU ARE M Y S ON ; TODAY I H/ BEGOTTEN (fathered) Y OU .’  [Ps 2:7] ‡

<sup>34</sup> “And [as for the fact] that He raised Him from the dead, never again to return to decay [in the grave], He has spoken in this way: ‘I WILL GIVE YOU THE HOLY AND SURE blessings OF D AVID [those blessings and mercies that were promised to him].’  [Is 55:3] ‡

<sup>35</sup> “For this reason He also says in another Psalm, ‘Y OU WILL NOT ALLOW Y OUR H OLY O NE TO SEE DECAY .’  [Ps 16:10] ‡

<sup>36</sup> “For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep and was buried among his fathers and experienced decay [in the grave]; ‡

<sup>37</sup> but He whom God raised [to life] did not experience decay [in the grave].

<sup>38</sup> “So let it be clearly known by you, brothers, that through Him forgiveness of sins is being proclaimed to you; ‡

<sup>39</sup> and through Him everyone who believes [who acknowledges Jesus as Lord and Savior and follows Him] is justified and declared free of guilt from all things, from which you could not be justified and freed of guilt through the Law of Moses. ‡

<sup>40</sup> “Therefore be careful, so that the thing spoken of in the [writings of the] Prophets does not come upon you: ‡

<sup>41</sup> ‘L OOK , YOU MOCKERS , AND MARVEL , AND PERISH and VANISH AWAY ;
F OR I AM DOING A WORK IN YOUR DAYS ,
A WORK WHICH YOU WILL NEVER BELIEVE , even IF SOMEONE DESCRIBES IT TO YOU [telling you about it in detail].’ ”  [Hab 1:5]

<sup>42</sup> As Paul and Barnabas were leaving [the synagogue], the people kept begging that these things might be spoken to them on the next Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup> When the congregation of the synagogue had been dismissed, many of the Jews and the devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, talking to them were urging them to continue in the grace of God. ‡

Paul Turns to the Gentiles

<sup>44</sup> On the next Sabbath almost the entire city gathered together to hear the word of the Lord [about salvation through faith in Christ].

<sup>45</sup> But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began contradicting the things said by Paul, and were slandering him. ‡

<sup>46</sup> And [at the same time] Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and confidently, saying, “It was necessary that God’s message [of salvation through faith in Christ] be spoken to you [Jews] first. Since you repudiate it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, now we turn to the Gentiles. ‡

<sup>47</sup> “For that is what the Lord has commanded us, saying, ‡

‘I HAVE PLACED YOU AS A LIGHT FOR THE GENTILES ,
SO THAT YOU MAY BRING [the message of eternal] SALVATION TO THE END OF THE EARTH .’ ”  [Is 49:6 ]

<sup>48</sup> When the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying [praising and giving thanks for] the word of the Lord; and all those who had been appointed (designated, ordained) to eternal life [by God] believed [in Jesus as the Christ and their Savior]. ‡

<sup>49</sup> And so the word of the Lord [regarding salvation] was being spread through the entire region.

<sup>51</sup> But they shook its dust from their feet in protest against them and went to Iconium.  [Matt 10:14; Mark 6:11 ] ‡

<sup>52</sup> And the disciples were continually filled [throughout their hearts and souls] with joy and with the Holy Spirit. ‡

Acts 14

Acceptance and Opposition

<sup>1</sup> NOW IN Iconium Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue together and spoke in such a way [with such power and boldness] that a large number of Jews as well as Greeks believed [and confidently accepted Jesus as Savior];

<sup>2</sup> but the unbelieving Jews [who rejected Jesus as Messiah] stirred up and embittered the minds of the Gentiles against the believers.

<sup>3</sup> So Paul and Barnabas stayed for a long time, speaking boldly and confidently for the Lord, who continued to testify to the word of His grace, granting that signs and wonders (attesting miracles) be done by them. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But the people of the city were divided; some were siding with the Jews, and some with the apostles. ‡

<sup>5</sup> When there was an attempt by both the Gentiles and the Jews, together with their rulers, to shamefully mistreat and to stone them, ‡

<sup>6</sup> they, aware of the situation, escaped to Lystra and Derbe, [taking refuge in the] cities of Lycaonia, and the neighboring region; ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now at Lystra a man sat who was unable to use his feet, for he was crippled from birth and had never walked. ‡

<sup>9</sup> This man was listening to Paul as he spoke, and Paul looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed,

<sup>10</sup> and said with a loud voice, “Stand up on your feet.” And he jumped up and began to walk. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And the crowds, when they saw what Paul had done, raised their voices, shouting in the Lycaonian language, “The gods have come down to us in human form!” ‡

<sup>12</sup> They began calling Barnabas, Zeus [chief of the Greek gods], and Paul, Hermes [messenger of the Greek gods], since he took the lead in speaking.

<sup>14</sup> But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard about it, they tore their robes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting, ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Men, why are you doing these things? We too are only men of the same nature as you, bringing the good news to you, so that you turn from these useless and meaningless things to the living God, WHO MADE THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH AND THE SEA AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN THEM .  [Ex 20:11 ; Ps 146:6 ]

<sup>17</sup> yet He did not leave Himself without some witness [as evidence of Himself], in that He kept constantly doing good things and showing you kindness, and giving you rains from heaven and productive seasons, filling your hearts with food and happiness.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Even saying these words, with difficulty they prevented the people from offering sacrifices to them.

<sup>19</sup> But Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium, and having won over the crowds, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, thinking he was dead.  [2 Cor 11:25 ; 2 Tim 3:11 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> But the disciples formed a circle around him, and he got up and went back into the city; and the next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe.

<sup>21</sup> They preached the good news to that city and made many disciples, then they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, ‡

<sup>22</sup> strengthening and establishing the hearts of the disciples; encouraging them to remain firm in the faith, saying, “It is through many tribulations and hardships that we must enter the kingdom of God.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> When they had appointed elders for them in every church, having prayed with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they believed [and joyfully accepted as the Messiah]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia.

<sup>25</sup> When they had spoken the word [of salvation through faith in Christ] in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

<sup>26</sup> From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been entrusted to the grace of God for the work which they had now completed. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Arriving there, they gathered the church together and began to report [in great detail] everything that God had done with them and how He had opened to the Gentiles a door of faith [in Jesus as the Messiah and Savior]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Acts 15

The Council at Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> SOME MEN came down from Judea and began teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised in accordance with the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.” [Gen 17:9–14] ‡

<sup>2</sup> Paul and Barnabas disagreed greatly and debated with them, so it was determined that Paul and Barnabas and some of the others from their group would go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders [and confer with them] concerning this issue. ‡

<sup>3</sup> So, after being supplied and sent on their way by the church, they went through both Phoenicia and Samaria telling in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they brought great joy to all the believers. ‡

<sup>4</sup> When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were received warmly by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported to them all the things that God had accomplished through them. ‡

<sup>5</sup> But some from the sect of the Pharisees who had believed [in Jesus as the Messiah] stood up and said, “It is necessary to circumcise the Gentile converts and to direct them to observe the Law of Moses.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> The apostles and the elders came together to consider this matter.

<sup>7</sup> After a long debate, Peter got up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles would hear the message of the gospel and believe. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “And God, who knows and understands the heart, testified to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He also did to us; ‡

<sup>9</sup> and He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith [in Jesus]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Now then, why are you testing God by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we have been able to endure? ‡

<sup>11</sup> “But we believe that we are saved through the [precious, undeserved] grace of the Lord Jesus [which makes us free of the guilt of sin and grants us eternal life], in just the same way as they are.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> All the people remained silent, and they listened [attentively] to Barnabas and Paul as they described all the signs and wonders (attesting miracles) that God had done through them among the Gentiles. ‡

James' Judgment

<sup>14</sup> “Simeon (Simon Peter) has described how God first concerned Himself about taking from among the Gentiles a people for His name [to honor Him and be identified with Him]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “The words of the Prophets agree with this, just as it is written [in Scripture],

<sup>16</sup> ‘AFTER THESE THINGS I will return, ‡

A ND I WILL REBUILD THE TENT OF D AVID WHICH HAS FALLEN ;

I WILL REBUILD ITS RUINS ,

A ND I WILL RESTORE IT ,

<sup>17</sup> S O THAT THE REST OF MANKIND MAY SEEK THE LORD,

A ND ALL THE G ENTILES UPON WHOM M Y NAME HAS BEEN INVOKED ,

<sup>18</sup> S AYS THE LORD,

W HO HAS BEEN MAKING THESE THINGS KNOWN FROM LONG AGO . [

Is 45:21 ; Jer 12:15 ; Amos 9:11 , 12 ]

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore it is my judgment that we do not trouble and make it difficult for those who are turning to God among the Gentiles [by putting obstacles in their way], ‡

<sup>20</sup> but that we write to them that they are to abstain from anything that has been contaminated by [being offered to] idols and from sexual impurity and from [eating the meat of] what has been strangled and from [the consumption of] blood. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “For from ancient generations [the writing of] Moses has been preached in every city, since he is read aloud in the synagogues every Sabbath.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then the apostles and the elders, together with the whole church, decided to select some of their men to go to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas—Judas, who was called Barsabbas, and Silas [also called Silvanus, both], leading men among the brothers. ‡

<sup>23</sup> With them they sent the following letter: “The apostles and the brothers who are the elders, to the brothers and sisters who are from the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia, Greetings.

<sup>24</sup> “Since we have heard that some of our men have troubled you with their teachings, causing distress and confusion —men to whom we gave no such orders or instructions
— ‡

<sup>25</sup> it has been decided by us, having met together, to select men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

<sup>27</sup> “So we have sent Judas and Silas, who will report by word of mouth the same things [that we decided in our meeting].

<sup>28</sup> “For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to place on you any greater burden than these essentials:

<sup>29</sup> that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from [consuming] blood, and from [eating the meat of] things that have been strangled, and from sexual impurity. If you keep yourselves from these things, you will do well. Farewell.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch; and after assembling the congregation, they delivered the letter.

<sup>31</sup> And when they had read it, the people rejoiced greatly at the encouragement and comfort [it brought them].

<sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets (divinely inspired spokesmen), encouraged and strengthened the believers with many words. ‡

<sup>33</sup> After spending some time there, they were sent back by the brothers with [the greeting of] peace to those who had sent them. ‡

Paul’s Second Missionary Journey

<sup>36</sup> After some time Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit the brothers and sisters (believers) in every city where we preached the message of the Lord, and see how they are doing.” ‡

<sup>38</sup> But Paul kept insisting that they should not take along with them the one who had quit and deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone on with them to the work. ‡

39. And it became such a sharp disagreement that they separated from one another, and Barnabas took [John] Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus.

40. But Paul chose Silas [who was again in Antioch] and set out [on his second journey], commended by the brothers to the grace and favor of the Lord. ‡

41. And he traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches. ‡

Acts 16

The Macedonian Vision

1 NOW PAUL traveled to Derbe and also to Lystra. A disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer [in Christ], however, his father was a Greek. ‡

2 Timothy was well spoken of by the brothers and sisters who were in Lystra and Iconium. ‡

3. Paul wanted Timothy to go with him [as a missionary]; and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, since they all knew that his father was a Greek. ‡

4 As they traveled from town to town, they delivered the decrees decided on by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem, for the churches to observe. ‡

5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and they continually increased in number day after day. ‡

6 Now they passed through the territory of Phrygia and Galatia, after being forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor];

7 and after they came to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them;

8 so passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas. ‡

9 Then a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man from [the Roman province of] Macedonia was standing and pleading with him, saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!” ‡

10 And when he had seen the vision, we (including Luke) tried to go on into Macedonia at once, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them. ‡

<sup>11</sup> So setting sail from Troas, we ran a direct course to Samothrace, and the next day [went on] to Neapolis;

<sup>12</sup> and from there [we came] to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia, a Roman colony. We stayed on in this city for several days; ‡

<sup>13</sup> and on the Sabbath day we went outside the city gate to the bank of the [Gangites] river, where we thought there would be a place of prayer, and we sat down and began speaking to the women who had come there.

First Convert in Europe

<sup>14</sup> A woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a dealer in purple fabrics who was [already] a worshiper of God, listened to us; and the Lord opened her heart to pay attention and to respond to the things said by Paul. ‡

<sup>15</sup> And when she was baptized, along with her household, she pleaded with us, saying, “If you have judged me and decided that I am faithful to the Lord [a true believer], come to my house and stay.” And she persuaded us. ‡

<sup>16</sup> It happened that as we were on our way to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave-girl who had a spirit of divination [that is, a demonic spirit claiming to foretell the future and discover hidden knowledge], and she brought her owners a good profit by fortune-telling. ‡

<sup>17</sup> She followed after Paul and us and kept screaming and shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God! They are proclaiming to you the way of salvation!”

<sup>18</sup> She continued doing this for several days. Then Paul, being greatly annoyed and worn out, turned and said to the spirit [inside her], “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ [as His representative] to come out of her!” And it came out at that very moment. ‡

<sup>19</sup> But when her owners saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities in the market place [where trials were held], ‡

<sup>20</sup> and when they had brought them before the chief magistrates, they said, “These men, who are Jews, are throwing our city into confusion and causing trouble. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “They are publicly teaching customs which are unlawful for us, as Romans, to accept or observe.”

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

<sup>22</sup> The crowd also joined in the attack against them, and the chief magistrates tore their robes off them and ordered that Paul and Silas be beaten with rods.
[\[2 Cor 11:25\]](#) ‡

<sup>23</sup> After striking them many times [with the rods], they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to guard them securely.

<sup>24</sup> He, having received such a [strict] command, threw them into the inner prison (dungeon) and fastened their feet in the stocks [in an agonizing position].

<sup>25</sup> But about midnight when Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them;

<sup>26</sup> suddenly there was a great earthquake, so [powerful] that the very foundations of the prison were shaken and at once all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened. ‡

<sup>27</sup> When the jailer, shaken out of sleep, saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, thinking that the prisoners had escaped.

<sup>29</sup> Then the jailer called for torches and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas,

<sup>30</sup> and after he brought them out [of the inner prison], he said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ‡

The Jailer Converted

<sup>31</sup> And they answered, “Believe in the Lord Jesus [as your personal Savior and entrust yourself to Him] and you will be saved, you and your household [if they also believe].” ‡

<sup>32</sup> And they spoke the word of the Lord [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ] to him and to all who were in his house.

<sup>33</sup> And he took them that very hour of the night and washed their bloody wounds, and immediately he was baptized, he and all his household.

<sup>34</sup> Then he brought them into his house and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, since he had believed in God with his entire family [accepting with joy what had been made known to them about the Christ]. ‡

<sup>36</sup> And the jailer repeated the words to Paul, saying, “The chief magistrates have sent word to release you; so come out now and go in peace.”

<sup>37</sup> But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us in public without a trial, men who are Romans, and have thrown us into prison; and now they are sending us out secretly? No! Let them come here themselves and bring us out!” ‡

<sup>38</sup> The officers reported this message to the chief magistrates, and when they heard that the prisoners were Romans, they were frightened;

<sup>39</sup> so they came [to the prison] and appealed to them [with apologies], and when they brought them out, they kept begging them to leave the city. ‡

Acts 17

Paul at Thessalonica

<sup>1</sup> NOW AFTER Paul and Silas had traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

<sup>2</sup> And Paul entered the synagogue, as was his custom, and for three Sabbaths he engaged in discussion and friendly debate with them from the Scriptures, ‡

<sup>3</sup> explaining and pointing out [scriptural evidence] that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and rise from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus, whom I am proclaiming to you, is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).” ‡

<sup>4</sup> And some of them were persuaded to believe and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large number of the God-fearing Greeks and many of the leading women. ‡

<sup>5</sup> But the [unbelieving] Jews became jealous, and taking along some thugs from [the lowlifes in] the market place, they formed a mob and set the city in an uproar; and then attacking Jason’s house tried to bring Paul and Silas out to the people. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But when they failed to find them, they dragged Jason and some brothers before the city authorities, shouting, “These men who have turned the world upside down have come here too; ‡

<sup>7</sup> and Jason has welcomed them [into his house and protected them]! And they all are saying things contrary to the decrees of Caesar, [actually] claiming that there is another king, Jesus.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> They stirred up the crowd and the city authorities who heard these things.

<sup>9</sup> And when they had taken security (bail) from Jason and the others, they let them go.

Paul at Berea

<sup>10</sup> The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea; and when they arrived, they entered the Jewish synagogue. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now these people were more noble and open-minded than those in Thessalonica, so they received the message [of salvation through faith in the Christ] with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so. ‡

<sup>12</sup> As a result many of them became believers, together with a number of prominent Greek women and men.

<sup>13</sup> But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ] had also been preached by Paul at Berea, they came there too, agitating and disturbing the crowds.

<sup>14</sup> So at that time the brothers immediately sent Paul away to go as far as the sea; but Silas and Timothy remained there [at Berea]. ‡

Paul at Athens

<sup>16</sup> Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was greatly angered when he saw that the city was full of idols. ‡

<sup>17</sup> So he had discussions in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and in the market place day after day with any who happened to be there.

<sup>18</sup> And some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to engage in conversation with him. And some said, “What could this idle babbler [with his eclectic, scrap-heap learning] have in mind to say?” Others said, “He seems to be a proclaimer of strange deities”—because he was preaching the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.

19 They took him and brought him to the Areopagus (Hill of Ares, the Greek god of war), saying, “May we know what this [strange] new teaching is which you are proclaiming?”

20 “For you are bringing some startling and strange things to our ears; so we want to know what they mean.”

21 (Now all the Athenians and the foreigners visiting there used to spend their [leisure] time in nothing other than telling or hearing something new.)

Sermon on Mars Hill

22 So Paul, standing in the center of the Areopagus, said: “Men of Athens, I observe [with every turn I make throughout the city] that you are very religious and devout in all respects.

23 “Now as I was going along and carefully looking at your objects of worship, I came to an altar with this inscription: ‘TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.’ Therefore what you already worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.

24 “The God who created the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands; ‡

25 nor is He served by human hands, as though He needed anything, because it is He who gives to all [people] life and breath and all things. [Is 42:5] ‡

26 “And He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on the face of the earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their lands and territories. ‡

27 “This was so that they would seek God, if perhaps they might grasp for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us. ‡

28 “For in Him we live and move and exist [that is, in Him we actually have our being], as even some of your own poets have said, ‘For we also are His children.’ ‡

29 “So then, being God’s children, we should not think that the Divine Nature (deity) is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination or skill of man. ‡

30 “Therefore God overlooked and disregarded the former ages of ignorance; but now He commands all people everywhere to repent [that is, to change their old way of thinking, to regret their past sins, and to seek God’s purpose for their lives], ‡

31-because He has set a day when He will judge the inhabited world in righteousness by a Man whom He has appointed and destined for that task, and He has provided credible proof to everyone by raising Him from the dead.”  [Ps 9:8; 96:13; 98:9 ] ‡

32-Now when they heard [the term] resurrection from the dead, some mocked and sneered; but others said, “We will hear from you again about this matter.”

33 So Paul left them.

34 But some men joined him and believed; among them were Dionysius, [a judge] of the Council of Areopagus, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Acts 18

Paul at Corinth

1 AFTER THIS Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.

2 There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife, Priscilla, because [the Roman Emperor] Claudius had issued an edict that all the Jews were to leave Rome. Paul went to see them, ‡

3-and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them; and they worked together for they were tent-makers. ‡

4 And he reasoned and debated in the synagogue every Sabbath, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks; ‡

5 but when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia (northern Greece), Paul began devoting himself completely to [preaching] the word, and solemnly testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed). ‡

6 But since the Jews kept resisting and opposing him, and blaspheming [God], he shook out his robe and said to them, “Your blood (damnation) be on your own heads! I am innocent of it. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.”  [Acts 13:46 ] ‡

7-Then he moved on from there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, who worshiped God and whose house was next door to the synagogue.

8 Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with his entire household [joyfully acknowledging Him as Messiah and Savior]; and many of the Corinthians who heard [Paul's message] were believing and being baptized. ‡

<sup>9</sup> One night the Lord said to Paul in a vision, "Do not be afraid anymore, but go on speaking and do not be silent; ‡

<sup>10</sup> for I am with you, and no one will attack you in order to hurt you, because I have many people in this city."  [Is 43:5; Jer 1:8] ‡

<sup>11</sup> So he settled there for a year and six months, teaching them the word of God [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ].

<sup>12</sup> But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia (southern Greece), the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the judgment seat,

<sup>13</sup> declaring, "This man is persuading people to worship God in violation of the law [of Moses]."

<sup>14</sup> But when Paul was about to reply, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of some misdemeanor or serious crime, O Jews, I would have reason to put up with you; ‡

<sup>15</sup> but since it is merely a question [of doctrine within your religion] about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; I am unwilling to judge these matters."

<sup>18</sup> Paul stayed for a while longer, and then told the brothers and sisters goodbye and sailed for Syria; and he was accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchrea [the southeastern port of Corinth] he had his hair cut, because he was keeping a [Nazirite] vow [of abstention]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then they arrived in Ephesus, and he left the others there; but he entered the synagogue and reasoned and debated with the Jews.

<sup>20</sup> When they asked him to stay for a longer time, he refused;

<sup>21</sup> but after telling them goodbye and saying, "I will return again if God is willing," he set sail from Ephesus. ‡

<sup>22</sup> When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church [at Jerusalem], and then went down to Antioch.

Paul's Third Missionary Journey

<sup>24</sup> Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent and cultured man, and well versed in the [Hebrew] Scriptures. ‡

<sup>25</sup> This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and being spiritually impassioned, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things about Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John; ‡

<sup>26</sup> and he began to speak boldly and fearlessly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained more accurately to him the way of God [and the full story of the life of Christ].

<sup>27</sup> And when Apollos wanted to go across to Achaia (southern Greece), the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples, [urging them] to welcome him gladly. When he arrived, he was a great help to those who, through grace, had believed and had followed Jesus as Lord and Savior, ‡

<sup>28</sup> for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public discussions, proving by the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed). ‡

Acts 19

Paul at Ephesus

<sup>1</sup> IT HAPPENED that while Apollos was in Corinth, Paul went through the upper [inland] districts and came down to Ephesus, and found some disciples. ‡

<sup>2</sup> He asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed [in Jesus as the Christ]?” And they said, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.” ‡

<sup>3</sup>-And he asked, “Into what then were you baptized?” They said, “Into John’s baptism.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Paul said, “John performed a baptism of repentance, continually telling the people to believe in Him who was coming after him, that is, [to confidently accept and joyfully believe] in Jesus [the Messiah and Savior].” ‡

<sup>5</sup> After hearing this, they were baptized [again, this time] in the name of the Lord Jesus. ‡

<sup>6</sup>-And when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in [unknown] tongues (languages) and prophesying. ‡

<sup>7</sup> There were about twelve men in all.

<sup>8</sup> And he went into the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and arguing and persuading them about the kingdom of God. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But when some were becoming hardened and disobedient [to the word of God], discrediting and speaking evil of the Way (Jesus, Christianity) before the congregation, Paul left them, taking the disciples with him, and went on holding daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus [instead of in the synagogue]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> This continued for two years, so that all the inhabitants of [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor], Jews as well as Greeks, heard the word of the Lord [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ]. ‡

Miracles at Ephesus

<sup>12</sup> so that even handkerchiefs or face-towels or aprons that had touched his skin were brought to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out [of them]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then some of the traveling Jewish exorcists also attempted to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “I implore you and solemnly command you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches!” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Seven sons of one [named] Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

<sup>15</sup> But the evil spirit retorted, “I know and recognize and acknowledge Jesus, and I know about Paul, but as for you, who are you?”

<sup>16</sup> Then the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaped on them and subdued all of them and overpowered them, so that they ran out of that house [in terror, stripped] naked and wounded.

<sup>17</sup> This became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified and exalted. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Many of those who had become believers were coming, confessing and disclosing their [former sinful] practices. ‡

<sup>19</sup> And many of those who had practiced magical arts collected their books and [throwing book after book on the pile] began burning them in front of everyone. They calculated their value and found it to be 50,000 pieces of silver.

<sup>20</sup> So the word of the Lord [concerning eternal salvation through faith in Christ] was growing greatly and prevailing. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Now after these events, Paul determined in the Spirit that he would travel through Macedonia and Achaia (most of the Greek mainland), and go to Jerusalem, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome [and preach the good news of salvation].” ‡

<sup>25</sup> These [craftsmen] he called together, along with the workmen of similar trades, and said, “Men, you are well aware that we make a good living from this business.

<sup>26</sup> “You see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but almost all over [the province of] Asia, this Paul has persuaded [people to believe his teaching] and has misled a large number of people, claiming that gods made by [human] hands are not really gods at all. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “Not only is there danger that this trade of ours will be discredited, but also that the [magnificent] temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited, and that she whom all Asia and the world worship will even be dethroned and lose her glorious magnificence.”

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this, they were filled with rage, and they began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>29</sup> Then the city was filled with confusion; and people rushed together [as a group] into the amphitheater, dragging along with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul’s traveling companions. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Paul wanted to go into the [pagan] assembly, but the disciples would not let him.

<sup>31</sup> Even some of the Asiarchs (officials) who were his friends sent word to him and repeatedly warned him not to venture into the amphitheater.

<sup>32</sup> Now some shouted one thing and some another, for the gathering was in confusion and most of the people did not know why they had come together.

<sup>33</sup> Some of the crowd advised Alexander [to speak], since the Jews had pushed him forward; and Alexander motioned with his hand [for attention] and intended to make a defense to the people. ‡

<sup>34</sup> But when they realized that he was a Jew, a single outcry went up from the crowd as they shouted for about two hours, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>35</sup> After the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, “Men of Ephesus, what person is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of that [sacred stone image of her] which fell from the sky?

<sup>36</sup> “So, since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and stay calm and not do anything rash.

<sup>37</sup> “For you have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

<sup>38</sup> “So then, if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are in session and proconsuls are available; let them bring charges against one another there.

<sup>39</sup> “But if you want anything beyond this, it will be settled in the lawful assembly.

<sup>40</sup> “For we are running the risk of being accused of rioting in regard to today’s events, and since there is no reason for it, we will be unable to give an account and justify this disorderly gathering.”

<sup>41</sup> And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20

Paul in Macedonia and Greece

<sup>1</sup> AFTER THE uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples, and when he had encouraged them he told them goodbye, and set off to go to Macedonia. ‡

<sup>2</sup> After he had gone through those districts and had encouraged the believers, he came to Greece.

<sup>3</sup> And he stayed three months, and when a plot was formed against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia (northern Greece). ‡

<sup>4</sup> He was accompanied by Sopater of Berea, the son of Pyrrhus, and by Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and by Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. ‡

<sup>5</sup> These men went on ahead and were waiting for us (including Luke) at Troas.

<sup>6</sup> We sailed from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread (Passover week), and within five days we reached them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days. ‡

7 Now on the first day of the week (Sunday), when we were gathered together to break bread (share communion), Paul began talking with them, intending to leave the next day; and he kept on with his message until midnight. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now there were many lamps in the upper room where we were assembled, ‡

<sup>9</sup> and there was a young man named Eutychus (“Lucky”) sitting on the window sill. He was sinking into a deep sleep, and as Paul kept on talking longer and longer, he was completely overcome by sleep and fell down from the third story; and he was picked up dead.

<sup>10</sup> But Paul went down and threw himself on him and embraced him, and said [to those standing around him], “Do not be troubled, because he is alive.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> When Paul had gone back upstairs and had broken the bread and eaten, he talked [informally and confidentially] with them for a long time—until daybreak [in fact]—and then he left.

<sup>12</sup> They took the boy [Eutychus] home alive, and were greatly comforted and encouraged.

Troas to Miletus

13 But we went on ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there; for that was what he had arranged, intending himself to go [a shorter route] by land.

<sup>14</sup> So when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and sailed on to Mitylene.

<sup>15</sup> Sailing from there, we arrived the next day [at a point] opposite Chios; the following day we crossed over to Samos, and the next day we arrived at Miletus [about 30 miles south of Ephesus].

<sup>16</sup> Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus so that he would not end up spending time [unnecessarily] in [the province of] Asia (modern Turkey); for he was in a hurry to be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost. ‡

Farewell to Ephesus

<sup>17</sup> However, from Miletus he sent word to Ephesus and summoned the elders of the church [to meet him there].

<sup>18</sup> And when they arrived he said to them: ‡

“ You know well how I [lived when I] was with you, from the first day that I set foot in Asia [until now],

<sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and trials which came on me because of the plots of the Jews [against me]; ‡

<sup>20</sup> [you know] how I did not shrink back in fear from telling you anything that was for your benefit, or from teaching you in public meetings, and from house to house, ‡

<sup>21</sup> solemnly [and wholeheartedly] testifying to both Jews and Greeks, urging them to turn in repentance to God and [to have] faith in our Lord Jesus Christ [for salvation]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And now, compelled by the Spirit and obligated by my convictions, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, ‡

<sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit solemnly [and emphatically] affirms to me in city after city that imprisonment and suffering await me. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “But I do not consider my life as something of value or dear to me, so that I may [with joy] finish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify faithfully of the good news of God’s [precious, undeserved] grace [which makes us free of the guilt of sin and grants us eternal life]. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “And now, listen carefully: I know that none of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will see me again. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “For that reason I testify to you on this [our parting] day that I am innocent of the blood of all people. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “For I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose and plan of God. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Take care and be on guard for yourselves and for the whole flock over which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as overseers, to shepherd (tend, feed, guide) the church of God which He bought with His own blood. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “I know that after I am gone, [false teachers like] ferocious wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; ‡

<sup>30</sup> even from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse and distorted things, to draw away the disciples after themselves [as their followers]. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “Therefore be continually alert, remembering that for three years, night or day, I did not stop admonishing and advising each one [of you] with tears. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “And now I commend you to God [placing you in His protective, loving care] and [I commend you] to the word of His grace [the counsel and promises of His unmerited favor]. His grace is able to build you up and to give you the [rightful] inheritance among all those who are sanctified [that is, among those who are set apart for God’s purpose—all believers]. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “I had no desire for anyone’s silver or gold or [expensive] clothes. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “You know personally that these hands ministered to my own needs [working in manual labor] and to [those of] the people who were with me. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “In everything I showed you [by example] that by working hard in this way you must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, ‘It is more blessed [and brings greater joy] to give than to receive.’ ” ‡

<sup>36</sup> When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. ‡

<sup>37</sup> And they began to weep openly and threw their arms around Paul’s neck, and repeatedly kissed him, ‡

<sup>38</sup> grieving and distressed especially over the word which he had spoken, that they would not see him again. And they accompanied him to the ship. ‡

Acts 21

Paul Sails from Miletus

<sup>1</sup> WHEN WE had torn ourselves away from them and set sail, we ran a straight course and came to Cos, and on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara;

<sup>2</sup> and after finding a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went on board and set sail.

<sup>3</sup> After we came in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on our left (port side), we sailed on to Syria and put in at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo.

<sup>4</sup> After looking up the disciples [in Tyre], we stayed there [with them] seven days; and they kept telling Paul through the [Holy] Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>5</sup> When our days there came to an end, we left and proceeded on our journey, while all of the disciples, with their wives and children, escorted us on our way until we were outside the city. After kneeling down on the beach and praying, we told one another goodbye. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then we boarded the ship, and they returned to their homes. ‡

<sup>7</sup> When we had completed the voyage from Tyre, we landed [twenty miles to the south] at Ptolemais, and after greeting the believers, we stayed with them for one day.

<sup>8</sup> On the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and we went to the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven [deacons], and stayed with him.  [Acts 6:3–6 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> He had four virgin daughters who had the gift of prophecy. ‡

<sup>10</sup> As we were staying there for some time, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And coming to [see] us, he took Paul's [wide] band (belt, sash) and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: 'In this same way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this band, and they will hand him over to the Gentiles (pagans).' " ‡

<sup>12</sup> Now when we had heard this, both we and the local residents began pleading with Paul trying to persuade him not to go up to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Then Paul replied, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart [like this]? For I am ready not only to be bound and imprisoned, but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." ‡

<sup>14</sup> And since he would not be dissuaded, we stopped pleading and fell silent, saying, "The Lord's will be done!" ‡

Paul at Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> After this we got ready and started on our way up to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> Some of the disciples from Caesarea also came with us, taking us to [the house of] Mnason, a man from Cyprus, a disciple of long standing with whom we were to lodge.

<sup>17</sup> When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters welcomed us gladly. ‡

<sup>18</sup> On the next day Paul went with us to [see] James, and all the elders of the church were present. ‡

<sup>19</sup> After greeting them, Paul began to give a detailed account of the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. ‡

<sup>20</sup> And when they heard it, they began glorifying and praising God; and they said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews, and they are all enthusiastic supporters of the Law [of Moses].‡

<sup>21</sup> “Now they have been told about you, that you are teaching all the Jews who are living among the Gentiles to turn away from [the Law of] Moses, advising them not to circumcise their children or to live according to the [Mosaic] customs.

<sup>22</sup> “What then should be done? They will certainly hear that you have arrived.

<sup>23</sup> “Therefore do just what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow;

<sup>24</sup> take these men and purify yourself along with them, and pay their expenses [for the temple offerings] so that they may shave their heads. Then everyone will know that there is nothing to the things they have been told about you, but that you yourself also follow and keep the Law.‡

<sup>25</sup> “But with regard to the Gentiles who have believed [in Christ], we have sent them a letter with our decision that they should abstain from meat sacrificed to idols and from [consuming] blood and from [the meat of] what has been strangled and from sexual immorality.”‡

<sup>26</sup> Then Paul took the [four] men, and the next day he purified himself along with them [by submitting to the ritual]. He went into the temple to give notice of [the time] when the days of purification [ending each vow] would be fulfilled and the usual offering could be presented on behalf of each one.‡

Paul Seized in the Temple

<sup>27</sup> When the seven days [required to complete the ritual] were almost over, [some] Jews from [the province of] Asia [Minor], caught sight of him in the temple, and began to stir up the crowd, and they seized him,‡ Paul's Voyage to Rome

<sup>28</sup> shouting, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against our people and the Law and this place. And besides, he has brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place.”‡

<sup>29</sup> For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with Paul, and they assumed that he had brought the man into the temple [beyond the court of the Gentiles].‡

<sup>30</sup> Then the whole city was provoked and confused, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the gates were closed.‡

<sup>31</sup> Now while they were trying to kill him, word came to the commander of the [Roman] garrison that all Jerusalem was in a state of upheaval.

<sup>32</sup> So he immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down among them. When the people saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then the commander came up and arrested Paul, and ordered that he be bound with two chains. Then he asked who he was and what he had done. ‡

<sup>34</sup> But some in the crowd were shouting one thing and others something else; and since he could not determine the facts because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be taken to the barracks [in the tower of Antonia].

<sup>35</sup> When Paul got to the steps, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob;

<sup>37</sup> Just as Paul was about to be taken into the barracks, he asked the commander, “May I say something to you?” And the man replied, “Do you know Greek?

<sup>38</sup> “Then you are not [as I assumed] the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led those 4,000 men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?” ‡

<sup>39</sup> Paul said, “I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia (Mersin Province, Turkey), a citizen of no insignificant city; and I beg you, allow me to speak to the people.” ‡

<sup>40</sup> When the commander had given him permission, Paul, standing on the steps, gestured with his hand to the people; and when there was a great hush, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect (Jewish Aramaic), saying, ‡

Acts 22

Paul’s Defense before the Jews

<sup>2</sup> When they heard that he was addressing them in the Hebrew dialect, they became even more quiet. And he continued,

<sup>3</sup> “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated at the feet of Gamaliel according to the strictness of the law of our fathers, being ardent and passionate for God just as all of you are today. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “I persecuted and pursued the followers of this Way to the death, binding them with chains and putting [followers of Jesus] both men and women into prisons, ‡

<sup>5</sup> as the high priest and all the Council of the elders (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) can testify; because from them I received letters to the brothers, and I was on my way to Damascus in order to bring those [believers] who were there to Jerusalem in chains to be punished. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “But as I was on my way, approaching Damascus about noontime, a great blaze of light suddenly flashed from heaven and shone around me. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?’

<sup>8</sup> “And I replied, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And He said to me, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.’

<sup>9</sup> “Now those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “And I asked, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ And the Lord answered me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that is appointed and destined for you to do.’

<sup>11</sup> “But since I could not see because of the [glorious intensity and dazzling] brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me and came into Damascus.

<sup>12</sup> “And one Ananias, a devout man according to the standard of the Law, and well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there, ‡

<sup>13</sup> came to [see] me, and standing near, he said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ And at that very moment I [recovered my sight and] looked up at him.

<sup>14</sup> “And he said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will, [and to progressively understand His plan with clarity and power] and to see the Righteous One [Jesus Christ, the Messiah] and to hear a message from His [own] mouth. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘For you will be His witness to all men testifying of what you have seen and heard. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘Now, why do you delay? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins by calling on His name [for salvation].’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Then it happened when I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple [enclosure], that I fell into a trance (vision); ‡

<sup>18</sup> and I saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me.’ ‡

<sup>19</sup> “And I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know [without any doubt] that in one synagogue after another I used to imprison and beat those who believed in You [and Your message of salvation].’ ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was being shed, I also was standing nearby approving and consenting [to his death], and guarding the coats of those who were killing him.’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> “And the Lord said to me, ‘Go, I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’ ” ‡

<sup>22</sup> They listened to Paul until [he made] this [last] statement, but now they raised their voices and shouted, “Away with such a man from the earth! He is not fit to live!” ‡

<sup>23</sup> And as they were shouting and throwing off their coats [getting ready to stone Paul] and tossing dust into the air [expressing their anger],

<sup>24</sup> the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, stating that he was to be interrogated with a whip in order to learn why the people were shouting against him that way.

<sup>25</sup> But when they had stretched him out with the leather straps [in preparation for the whip], Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, “Is it legal for you to whip a man who is a Roman citizen and uncondemned [without a trial]?” ‡

<sup>26</sup> When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and said to him, “What are you about to do? This man is a Roman!”

<sup>27</sup> So the commander came and asked Paul, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” And he said, “Yes.”

<sup>28</sup> The commander replied, “I purchased this citizenship [of mine] for a large sum of money [so how did you acquire yours?].” Paul said, “But I was actually born a citizen .”

<sup>29</sup> So those who were about to interrogate him by torture immediately let him go; and the commander was also afraid when he realized that Paul was a Roman and he had put him in chains.

<sup>30</sup> But on the next day, wanting to know the real reason why Paul was being accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) to assemble; and brought Paul down and presented him before them.

Acts 23

Paul before the Council

<sup>2</sup> [At this] the high priest Ananias ordered those who stood beside him to strike Paul on the mouth. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, “God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you actually sit to judge me according to the Law, and yet in violation of the Law order me to be struck?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> But those who stood near Paul said, “Are you insulting the high priest of God?”

<sup>5</sup> Paul said, “I was not aware, brothers, that he was high priest; for it is written, ‘YOU SHALL NOT SPEAK EVIL OF A RULER OF YOUR PEOPLE.’”  [Ex 22:28 ]
‡

<sup>6</sup> But recognizing that one group were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began affirming loudly in the Council chamber, “Kinsmen, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for the hope and resurrection of the dead!” ‡

<sup>7</sup> When he said this, an angry dispute erupted between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the [whole crowded] assembly was divided [into two factions].

<sup>8</sup> For the Sadducees say that there is no [such thing as a] resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit, but the Pharisees [speak out freely and] acknowledge [their belief in] them all. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then a great uproar occurred, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees’ party stood up and began to argue heatedly [in Paul’s favor], saying, “We find nothing wrong with this man; suppose a spirit or an angel has [really] spoken to him?” ‡

<sup>10</sup> And as the dissension became even greater, the commander, fearing that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, ordered the troops to go down and forcibly take him from them, and bring him to the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> On the following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, “Be brave; for as you have solemnly and faithfully witnessed about Me at Jerusalem, so you must also testify at Rome.” ‡

A Conspiracy to Kill Paul

<sup>12</sup> Now when day came, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves under an oath (curse), saying that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul. ‡

<sup>13</sup> There were more than forty [men] who formed this plot [and swore this oath].

<sup>14</sup> They went to the chief priests and elders and said, “We have bound ourselves under a solemn oath not to taste anything [neither food nor drink] until we have killed Paul.

<sup>15</sup> “So now you, along with the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court), notify the commander to bring Paul down to you, as if you were going to investigate his case more thoroughly. But we are ready to kill him before he comes near [the place].”

<sup>16</sup> But the son of Paul’s sister heard of their [planned] ambush, and he went to the barracks and told Paul.

<sup>17</sup> Then Paul, calling in one of the centurions, said, “Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him.”

<sup>18</sup> So he took him and led him to the commander and said, “Paul the prisoner called for me and asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup> The commander took him by the hand and stepping aside, began to ask him privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup> And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court) tomorrow, as if they were going to interrogate him more thoroughly. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “But do not listen to them, for more than forty of them are lying in wait for him, and they have bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. Even now they are ready, just waiting for your promise.”

<sup>22</sup> So the commander let the young man leave, instructing him, “Do not tell anyone that you have given me this information.”

Paul Moved to Caesarea Maritima

<sup>23</sup> Then summoning two of the centurions, he said, “Have two hundred soldiers ready by the third hour of the night (9:00 p.m.) to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen;

<sup>24</sup> also provide mounts for Paul to ride, and bring him safely to Felix the governor.”

<sup>25</sup> And [after instructing the centurions] he wrote a letter to this effect:

<sup>27</sup> “This man was seized [as a prisoner] by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, when I came upon him with the troops and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen.”‡

<sup>28</sup> “And wanting to know the exact charge which they were making against him, I brought him down to their Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court);‡

<sup>29</sup> and I discovered that he was accused in regard to questions and issues in their Law, but [he was] under no accusation that would call for the penalty of death or [even] for imprisonment.‡

<sup>30</sup> “When I was told that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you immediately, also directing his accusers to bring their charges against him before you.”‡

<sup>31</sup> So the soldiers, in compliance with their orders, took Paul and brought him to Antipatris during the night.

<sup>32</sup> And the next day, leaving the horsemen to go on with him, they returned to the barracks.

<sup>33</sup> When these [horsemen] reached Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor, and also presented Paul to him.

<sup>34</sup> After reading the letter, he asked which province Paul was from, and when he learned that he was from Cilicia [an imperial province],‡

<sup>35</sup> he said, “I will hear your case when your accusers have arrived,” giving orders that Paul be kept under guard in Herod’s Praetorium (the governor’s official residence).‡

Acts 24

Paul before Felix

<sup>1</sup> FIVE DAYS later, the high priest Ananias came down [from Jerusalem to Caesarea] with some elders and an attorney named Tertullus [acting as spokesman and counsel]. They presented to the governor their [formal] charges against Paul.‡

“ Since through you we have attained great peace, and since by your foresight reforms are being carried out for this nation,

<sup>3</sup> in every way and in every place, most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this with all gratitude.

<sup>4</sup> “But so that I do not weary you further, I beg you to grant us, by your kindness, a brief hearing.

<sup>5</sup> “For we have found this man to be a public menace and one who instigates dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the [heretical] sect of the Nazarenes.‡

<sup>6</sup> “He even tried to desecrate the temple, but we took him into custody [ and we intended to judge him by our Law,‡

<sup>7</sup> but Lysias the commander came, and with great force took him out of our hands,‡

<sup>8</sup> and ordered his accusers to come before you. ] By interrogating him yourself concerning all these matters you will be able to determine [the truth about] these things with which we charge him.”‡

<sup>9</sup> The Jews also joined in the attack, declaring and insisting that these things were so.

<sup>10</sup> When the governor nodded for him to speak, Paul answered, “ Knowing that for many years you have been a judge over this nation, I make my defense cheerfully and with good courage.

<sup>11</sup> As you can easily verify, it has been no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.‡

<sup>13</sup> “Nor can they present evidence to you to prove what they now bring against me.

<sup>14</sup> “But I confess this to you, that according to the Way, which they call a [divisive and heretical] sect, I do worship and serve the God of our fathers, [confidently] believing everything that is in accordance with the Law [of Moses] and that is written in the Prophets;‡

<sup>15</sup> having [the same] hope in God which these men cherish themselves, that there shall certainly be a resurrection of [the dead], both of the righteous and of the wicked. ‡

16 “In view of this, I also do my best and strive always to have a clear conscience before God and before men. ‡

17 “Now after several years I came [to Jerusalem] to bring to my people charitable contributions and offerings. ‡

18 “They found me in the temple presenting these offerings , after I had undergone [the rites of] purification, without any crowd or uproar. But there were some Jews from [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor], ‡

19 who ought to have been here before you to present their charges, if they have anything against me. ‡

20 “Or else let these men tell what crime they found [me guilty of] when I stood before the Council (Sanhedrin, Jewish High Court),

21 other than for this one statement which I had shouted out as I stood among them, ‘For the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you today.’ ” ‡

22 But Felix, having a rather accurate understanding about the Way, put them off, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case.” ‡

23 Then he ordered the centurion to keep Paul in custody, but to let him have some freedom, and [he told the centurion] not to stop any of his friends from providing for his needs. ‡

24 Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and listened to him talk about faith in Christ Jesus.

25 But as he was discussing righteousness, self-control [honorable behavior, personal integrity], and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, “Go away for now, and when I find [a convenient] time I will send for you.”

26 At the same time he was also hoping to get money from Paul [as a bribe]; so he continued to send for him quite often and talked with him. ‡

27 But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded [in office] by Porcius Festus; and wishing to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul imprisoned. ‡

Acts 25

Paul before Festus

<sup>1</sup> NOW FESTUS arrived in the province, and three days later he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea [Maritima].

<sup>3</sup> asking as a concession against Paul, that he would have him brought to Jerusalem; (meanwhile planning an ambush to kill him on the way).‡

<sup>4</sup> Festus answered that Paul was being held in custody in Caesarea [Maritima] and that he himself was about to leave shortly.

<sup>5</sup> “So,” he said, “let those who are in a position of authority among you go there with me, and if there is anything criminal about the man, let them bring charges against him.”‡

<sup>6</sup> Now after Festus had spent no more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he took his seat on the tribunal (the judicial bench), and ordered Paul to be brought [before him].

<sup>7</sup> After Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges against him which they were not able to prove,‡

<sup>8</sup> while Paul declared in his own defense, “I have done no wrong and committed no offense either against the Law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar.”‡

<sup>9</sup> But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial there in my presence [before the Jewish Sanhedrin] on these charges? ”‡

<sup>10</sup> Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s tribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know.

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, if I am guilty and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not try to escape death; but if there is nothing to the accusations which these men are bringing against me, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar (Emperor Nero).”‡

<sup>13</sup> Now several days later, Agrippa [II] the king and Bernice [his sister] arrived at Caesarea and paid their respects to Festus [the new governor].

<sup>15</sup> “When I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews [told me about him and] brought charges against him, petitioning for a sentence of condemnation against him. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “I told them that it was not the custom of the Romans to hand over any man [for punishment] before the accused meets his accusers face to face and has the opportunity to defend himself against the charges. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “So after they arrived together here, I did not delay, but on the next day took my place on the tribunal and ordered that the man be brought before me. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “When his accusers stood up, they brought no charges against him of crimes that I was expecting [neither civil nor criminal actions],

<sup>19</sup> instead they had some points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about one Jesus, a man who had died, but whom Paul kept asserting and insisting [over and over] to be alive. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “And I, being at a loss as to how to investigate these things, asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there regarding these matters.

<sup>21</sup> “But when Paul appealed to be held in custody for a decision by the Emperor [Nero], I ordered him to be kept in custody until I could send him to Caesar.”

<sup>22</sup> Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear the man myself.” “Tomorrow,” Festus replied, “you will hear him.” ‡

Paul before Agrippa

<sup>23</sup> So the next day Agrippa and [his sister] Bernice came with great pageantry, and they went into the auditorium accompanied by the military commanders and the prominent men of the city. At the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.

<sup>24</sup> Then Festus said, “King Agrippa and all you gentlemen present with us, you see this man [Paul] about whom all the Jewish people appealed to me, both at Jerusalem and here, loudly insisting that he ought not to live any longer. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “But I found that he had done nothing worthy of death; however, since he appealed to the Emperor [Nero], I decided to send him [to Rome]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “But I have nothing specific about him to write to my lord. So I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the investigation has taken place, I will have something to put in writing.

<sup>27</sup> “For it seems absurd and unreasonable to me to send a prisoner [to Rome] without indicating the charges against him.”

Acts 26

Paul’s Defense before Agrippa

<sup>1</sup> THEN AGRIPPA said to Paul, “You are [now] permitted to speak on your own behalf.” At that, Paul stretched out his hand [as an orator] and made his defense [as follows]:

<sup>2</sup> “I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, since it is before you that I am to make my defense today regarding all the charges brought against me by the Jews,

<sup>3</sup> especially because you are an expert [fully knowledgeable, experienced and unusually conversant] in all the Jewish customs and controversial issues; therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

<sup>4</sup> “So then, all the Jews know my manner of life from my youth up, which from the beginning was spent among my own nation [the Jewish people], and in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> “They have known me for a long time, if they are willing to testify to it, that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I have lived as a Pharisee. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “And now I am standing trial for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers.  [Acts 13:32, 33. ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Which hope [of the Messiah and the resurrection] our twelve tribes [confidently] expect to realize as they serve and worship God in earnest night and day. And for this hope, O King, I am being accused by Jews! ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Why is it thought incredible by [any of] you that God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup> “So then, I [once] thought to myself that it was my duty to do many things in opposition to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “And this is just what I did in Jerusalem; I not only locked up many of the saints (God’s people) in prison after receiving authority from the chief priests, but also when they were being condemned to death, I cast my vote against them. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “And I often punished them [making them suffer] in all the synagogues and tried to force them to blaspheme; and in my extreme rage at them, I kept hunting them even to foreign cities [harassing and persecuting them]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “While so engaged, as I was traveling to Damascus with the authority and commission and full power of the chief priests,‡

<sup>13</sup> at midday, O King, I saw on the way a light from heaven surpassing the brightness of the sun, shining all around me and those who were traveling with me.

<sup>14</sup> “And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice in the Hebrew dialect (Jewish Aramaic) saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick [repeatedly] against the goads [offering pointless resistance].’

<sup>15</sup> “And I said, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And the Lord said, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

<sup>16</sup> ‘Get up and stand on your feet. I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you [to serve] as a minister and as a witness [to testify, with authority,] not only to the things which you have seen, but also to the things in which I will appear to you,‡

<sup>17</sup> [choosing you for Myself and] rescuing you from the Jewish people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you, [Ezek 2:1, 3]‡

<sup>18</sup> to open their [spiritual] eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness and release from their sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified (set apart, made holy) by faith in Me.’ [Is 42:7, 16]‡

<sup>19</sup> “So, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision,

<sup>20</sup> but I openly proclaimed first to those at Damascus, then at Jerusalem and throughout the region of Judea, and even to the Gentiles, that they should repent [change their inner self—their old way of thinking] and turn to God, doing deeds and living lives which are consistent with repentance.‡

<sup>21</sup> “Because of this some Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.‡

<sup>22</sup> “But I have had help from God to this day, and I stand [before people] testifying to small and great alike, stating nothing except what the Prophets and Moses said would come to pass—‡

<sup>23</sup> that the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) was to suffer, and that He by being the first to rise from the dead [with an incorruptible body] would proclaim light (salvation) both to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles.”‡

<sup>24</sup> While Paul was making this defense, Festus said loudly, “Paul, you are out of your mind! Your great education is turning you toward madness.”‡

<sup>25</sup> But Paul replied, “I am not out of my mind, most excellent and noble Festus, but [with a sound mind] I am uttering rational words of truth and reason.

<sup>26</sup> “For [your majesty] the king understands these things, and [therefore] I am also speaking to him with confidence and boldness, since I am convinced that none of these things escape his notice; for this has not been done in a corner [hidden from view, in secret].

<sup>27</sup> “King Agrippa, do you believe the [writings of the] Prophets [their messages and words]? I know that you do.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time [and with so little effort] you [almost] persuade me to become a Christian.”

<sup>29</sup> And Paul replied, “Whether in a short time or long, I wish to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these chains.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then the king stood up, and [with him] the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them;

<sup>31</sup> and after they had gone out, they began saying to one another, “This man is not doing anything worthy of death or [even] of imprisonment.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> And Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar (Emperor Nero).” ‡

Acts 27

Paul Is Sent to Rome

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN it was determined that we (including Luke) would sail for Italy, they turned Paul and some other prisoners over to a centurion of the Augustan Regiment named Julius. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And going aboard a ship from Adramyttian which was about to sail for the ports along the [west] coast [province] of Asia [Minor], we put out to sea; and Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, accompanied us. ‡

<sup>3</sup> The next day we landed at Sidon; and Julius, treating Paul with [thoughtful] consideration, allowed him to go to his friends there and be cared for and refreshed. ‡

<sup>4</sup> From there we put out to sea and sailed to the leeward (sheltered) side of Cyprus [for protection from weather] because the winds were against us.

<sup>5</sup> When we had sailed across the sea along the coasts of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia [on the south coast of Asia Minor].

<sup>6</sup> There the centurion [Julius] found an Alexandrian ship [a grain ship of the Roman fleet] sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard it.

<sup>7</sup> For a number of days we sailed slowly and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus; then, because the wind did not allow us to go farther, we sailed under the leeward (sheltered) side of Crete, off Salmone;

<sup>8</sup> and hugging the shore with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea [on the south side of Crete].

<sup>9</sup> Now much time had been lost, and navigation was dangerous, because even [the time for] the fast (Day of Atonement) was already over, so Paul began to strongly warn them,‡

<sup>10</sup> saying, “Men, I sense [after careful thought and observation] that this voyage will certainly be a disaster and with great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”

<sup>11</sup> However, the centurion [Julius, ranking officer on board] was persuaded by the pilot and the owner of the ship rather than by what Paul said.

<sup>12</sup> Because the harbor was not well situated for wintering, the majority [of the sailors] decided to put to sea from there, hoping somehow to reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup> So when the south wind blew softly, thinking that they had obtained their goal, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, hugging the coast.

Shipwreck

<sup>14</sup> But soon afterward a violent wind, called Euraquilo [a northeaster, a tempestuous windstorm like a typhoon], came rushing down from the island;

<sup>15</sup> and when the ship was caught in it and could not head against the wind [to gain stability], we gave up and [letting her drift] were driven along.

<sup>16</sup> We ran under the shelter of a small island [twenty-five miles south of Crete] called Clauda, and with great difficulty we were able to get the ship's skiff on the deck and secure it.

<sup>17</sup> After hoisting the skiff [on board], they used support lines [for frapping] to undergird and brace the ship's hull; and fearing that they might run aground on the shallows of Syrtis [off the north coast of Africa], they let down the sea anchor and lowered the sails and were driven along [backwards with the bow into the wind].

<sup>18</sup> On the next day, as we were being violently tossed about by the storm [and taking on water], they began to jettison the cargo;

<sup>19</sup> and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle (spare lines, blocks, miscellaneous equipment) overboard with their own hands [to further reduce the weight]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Since neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm kept raging about us, from then on all hope of our being saved was [growing worse and worse and] gradually abandoned.

<sup>21</sup> After they had gone a long time without food [because of seasickness and stress], Paul stood up before them and said, "Men, you should have followed my advice and should not have set sail from Crete, and brought on this damage and loss.

<sup>22</sup> "But even now I urge you to keep up your courage and be in good spirits, because there will be no loss of life among you, but only loss of the ship.

<sup>23</sup> "For this very night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood before me, ‡

<sup>24</sup> and said, 'Stop being afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar; and behold, God has given you [the lives of] all those who are sailing with you.'

<sup>25</sup> "So keep up your courage, men, for I believe God and have complete confidence in Him that it will turn out exactly as I have been told; ‡

<sup>26</sup> but we must run [the ship] aground on some island." ‡

<sup>27</sup> The fourteenth night had come and we were drifting and being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, when about midnight the sailors began to suspect that they were approaching some land.

<sup>28</sup> So they took soundings [using a weighted line] and found [the depth to be] twenty fathoms (120 feet); and a little farther on they sounded again and found [the depth to be] fifteen fathoms (90 feet).

<sup>29</sup> Then fearing that we might run aground somewhere on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern [to slow the ship] and kept wishing for daybreak to come.

<sup>30</sup> But as the sailors were trying to escape [secretly] from the ship and had let down the skiff into the sea, pretending that they were going to lay out anchors from the bow,

<sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men remain on the ship, you cannot be saved."

<sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes that held the skiff and let it fall and drift away.

<sup>33</sup> While they waited for the day to dawn, Paul encouraged them all [and told them] to have some food, saying, "This is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly on watch and going without food, having eaten nothing.

<sup>34</sup> “So I urge you to eat some food, for this is for your survival; for not a hair from the head of any of you will perish.” ‡

<sup>35</sup> Having said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all, and he broke it and began to eat. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Then all of them were encouraged and their spirits improved, and they also ate some food.

<sup>37</sup> All told there were two hundred and seventy-six of us aboard the ship. ‡

<sup>38</sup> After they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship by throwing the wheat [from Egypt] overboard into the sea.

<sup>39</sup> When day came, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, and they decided to run the ship ashore there if they could.

<sup>41</sup> But striking a reef with waves breaking in on either side, they ran the ship aground. The prow (forward point) stuck fast and remained immovable, while the stern began to break up under the [violent] force of the waves. ‡

<sup>42</sup> The soldiers’ plan was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would dive overboard and swim [to land] and escape;

<sup>43</sup> but the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from [carrying out] their plan. He commanded those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to the shore;

<sup>44</sup> and [he commanded] the rest to follow, some on [floating] planks, and others on various things from the ship. And so it was that all of them were brought safely to land. ‡

Acts 28

Safe at Malta

<sup>1</sup> AFTER WE were safe [on land], we found out that the island was called Malta. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And the natives showed us extraordinary kindness and hospitality; for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, since it had begun to rain and was cold. ‡

<sup>3</sup> But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper crawled out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand.

<sup>4</sup> When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, “Undoubtedly this man is a murderer, and though he has been saved from the sea, Justice [the avenging goddess] has not permitted him to live.”

<sup>6</sup> But they stood watching and expecting him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But after they had waited a long time and had seen nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and began saying that he was a god. ‡

<sup>7</sup> In the vicinity of that place there were estates belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed and entertained us hospitably for three days.

<sup>8</sup>—And it happened that the father of Publius was sick [in bed] with recurring attacks of fever and dysentery; and Paul went to him, and after he had prayed, he laid his hands on him and healed him. ‡

<sup>9</sup> After this occurred, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases were coming to him and being healed.

<sup>10</sup> They also gave us many honors [gifts and courtesies expressing respect]; and when we were setting sail, they supplied us with all the things we needed. ‡

Paul Arrives at Rome

<sup>11</sup> At the end of three months we set sail on a ship which had wintered at the island, an Alexandrian ship with the Twin Brothers [Castor and Pollux] as its figurehead.

<sup>12</sup> We landed at Syracuse [on Sicily] and stayed there three days.

<sup>13</sup> From there we sailed around and arrived at Rhegium [on Italy’s southern tip]; and a day later a south wind came up, and on the second day we arrived at Puteoli.

<sup>14</sup> There we found some believers and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup> And the brothers and sisters, having heard news about us, came from as far away as the Forum of Appius and Three Inns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and was encouraged.

<sup>16</sup> When we entered Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself [in rented quarters] with the soldier who was guarding him. ‡

17 Three days later he called together the leaders of the Jews; and when they had gathered, he said to them, “Kinsmen, though I have done nothing against our people or against the customs of our fathers, yet I was turned over as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. ‡

18 “After they had interrogated me, they were ready to release me because I was not guilty of any offense deserving death. ‡

19 “But when the Jews objected [to my release], I was forced to appeal to Caesar (Emperor Nero), not because I had any charge to make against my nation. ‡

20 “For this reason I have asked to see you and talk with you, since it is for the sake of the hope of Israel (the Messiah, the resurrection) that I am bound with this chain.” ‡

21 They said to him, “We have not received [any] letters about you from Judea, nor have any of the [Jewish] brothers come here and reported or said anything bad about you.

22 “But we would like to hear from you what your views are [that is, exactly what you believe]; for in regard to this sect (Christianity), we are fully aware that it is denounced everywhere.” ‡

23 When they had set a day for Paul, they came to his lodging in large numbers. And he carefully explained [Christianity] to them from morning until evening, solemnly testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them concerning Jesus, both from the Law of Moses and from the [writings of the] Prophets. ‡

24 Some were persuaded by what he said, but others would not believe. ‡

25 They disagreed among themselves and they began to leave after Paul had made one last statement: “The Holy Spirit rightly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers, saying,

26 ‘G O TO THIS PEOPLE AND SAY , ‡

“Y OU WILL KEEP ON HEARING , BUT WILL NOT UNDERSTAND , Y OU WILL KEEP ON SEEING , BUT WILL NOT PERCEIVE ;

27 “F OR THE HEART (the understanding, the soul) OF THIS PEOPLE
HAS BECOME DULL (calloused),

A ND WITH THEIR EARS THEY SCARCELY HEAR ,
A ND THEY HAVE SHUT THEIR EYES [to the truth];

O THERWISE THEY MIGHT SEE WITH THEIR EYES ,
A ND HEAR WITH THEIR EARS ,

A ND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART AND RETURN [to Me],

A ND I WOULD HEAL THEM .” ’  [Is 6:9 , 10 ]

<sup>28</sup> “Therefore let it be known to you that [this message of] the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they indeed will listen!” [Ps 67:2] ‡

<sup>29</sup> [ And when he had said these things, the Jews left, arguing among themselves. ]

30-And Paul lived there for two full years [at his own expense] in his own rented lodging and welcomed all who came to him, 31-preaching and proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all openness and boldness, unhindered and unrestrained.

Annotations for Acts

1:3 many infallible proofs. This is the only time the Greek word tekmerion occurs, emphasizing the certainty of the resurrection.

1:5 Baptism— The promised Holy Spirit (Isa 32:15 ; Joel 2:28–32) is a gift to believers after the glorification of Jesus (Jn 7:39). John baptized for forgiveness of sins, but the outpouring of the Spirit resulted from Christ's victory and exaltation to God's right hand (2:33). Believers are sealed until redemption (Eph 1:13), made one body, and caused to drink of one Spirit (1Co 12:13). The baptism of the Spirit is the immersion in the Spirit and uniting of believers into one body. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:8 Living by Faith— God designed the Christian life to be one lived in the power of the Holy Spirit. Believers must appropriate, daily, by faith, the power of the Holy Spirit to live as Christians (Ro 8:4–5). This means that the believer trusts the Spirit to empower him in specific instances such as resisting temptation, being faithful, and sharing one's faith. There is no secret formula that makes the Spirit's power operational in our lives. Scripture tells us that the Spirit dwells and operates in us (1Co 6:9). We have to learn by experience through interaction with God to understand how that dynamic works. First the disciples received the Holy Spirit. Then he gave them power and finally the disciples were told they would be Christ's witness to the very ends of the earth. Effective witness requires that we first learn to rely on the Spirit to help us. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:14 with one mind and one purpose. The disciples were like-minded; the people put aside personal positions and took on a common goal. True unity is an act of grace.

2:4 tongues. This means “diverse languages” and was essential to the rapid worldwide spread of the gospel. Those gathered for Pentecost came from around the known world and had various “mother tongues.”

2:17 VISIONS . . . DREAMS. The Holy Spirit was poured out on the church at the beginning of this final age of Scripture.

2:37 Conviction of the Holy Spirit— Peter's preaching was extremely effective, for it came “in [its inherent] power and in the Holy Spirit and with great conviction” (1Th 1:5). The result was they were “cut to the heart.” Their response was, “Brothers, what are we to do?” The reality was that conviction by the Holy Spirit brought about a real search for an answer. Such a consciousness of sin is an indispensable prerequisite to conversion. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:38 Repent. Peter called the Jews to turn their backs on their former lives and change. Faith involves an action of belief by those who accept Jesus.

2:42–47 Being in the Church— Converts were apparently immediately incorporated into the body of believers that became the church. Being involved in the Jerusalem church clearly must have changed the lives of these new believers dramatically. This was manifested in several ways: (1) they devoted themselves to new teaching; (2) they thought differently about all their possessions; (3) they became people of prayer; (4) they ate together and worshiped together with unified hearts. They weren't just saved from sin. They were saved to Christ and to this new body called the church, which of course is also His. We are called to be a part of one another's lives. We are to learn, share, pray, and worship together. As a body of believers, God expects us to have great concern for our fellow believers and to help one another mature. ## The Jewish Diaspora in the Times of Jesus

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

---

3:7 strong and steady. This account is told by a physician who describes instant healing. Before their eyes, strength is given to muscles and bones. The man's feet could instantly hold his weight.

3:19 repent . . . and return. Peter challenges all to change their minds and change their courses. Not only is their sin addressed but their closed minds.

3:22 Messiah— Peter draws on the witness of the prophets who foretold the suffering of Christ. He quotes Moses, who spoke of a prophet like himself from among the Jews (Dt 18:15–17). The crucified, risen, and ascended Jesus has fulfilled this role perfectly as God's anointed Servant sent to atone for humans. Jesus carried God's authority; the words of Jesus must be heeded since they give life to the dying sinner. A person greater than Moses has come to fulfill the prophets. Peter is proclaiming that Jesus is the deliberate fulfillment of God's promise for redemption. Go to Theological Notes Index

4:1 Sadducees. The Sadducees were skeptics who rejected all of the Old Testament except the books of Moses, and who denied the resurrection from the dead. Peter's teaching about the resurrection challenged their beliefs and teaching.

4:5 magistrates and elders and scribes. The Sanhedrin, which consisted of 70 men plus the high priest, was the highest Jewish court. The group consisted of the wealthiest, most educated, and most powerful Jewish men in Israel.

4:8 The Filling of the Holy Spirit— This is the second description in the Book of Acts of someone being filled with the Holy Spirit (see 2:4 ; 4:31 ; 9:17 ; 13:9 ). The initial filling accompanies the baptism in the Spirit. This filling brought boldness for God's work. Jesus had promised His disciples that they would stand before kings and rulers and that the Spirit of God within them would implant in their minds exactly what to say to these leaders (Mt 10:16–20 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

4:19 listen to you and obey you rather than God. There is no authority apart from God. When human authority rejects God's authority, it becomes twisted and loses its right to demand compliance (5:29 ). God's people are responsible to obey the government because it has been set in place by God, but when government directs against God's will, the Author of authority has the higher claim on our allegiance. We must resist any command that is against God's will (Ex 1 ; Da 3 ; Heb 11:23 ).

5:3 Filled with Satan— Satan is the father of lies (Jn 8:44 ). When Ananias and Sapphira deliberately lied, they took upon themselves the moral character of the one who is behind all lies, the devil himself. A person who is listening to Satan begins to act like Satan; his or her thoughts and actions are “filled with Satan” rather than reflecting the filling and direction of the Holy Spirit. Satan or a demon cannot possess someone who is filled with the Holy Spirit, but by listening to Satan rather than the Holy Spirit a believer can behave like one who belongs to Satan rather than one who belongs to God. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:4 Holy Spirit— This passage confirms the deity of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the third Person of the triune Godhead. To lie to Him (v. 3) is to lie to God. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:12 signs and wonders. These are miraculous occurrences that point to a warning, instruction, or encouragement from God. The signs and wonders which were done among the people at this time gave credibility to the apostles as messengers from God.

5:19 Angels— The word “angel” simply means “messenger.” The phrase “angel of the Lord” is commonly used in the Old Testament to refer to spiritual messengers of God. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:32 witnesses of these things. The witness of the believer is vitally related to the Holy Spirit. Jesus had said that the Holy Spirit would be a witness and that the apostles would be witnesses. The apostles were conscious that they were indwelt by the Holy Spirit of God, and that their witness depended upon this filling. There is a tremendous lesson here for every believer. No one can be a witness for Christ and a herald of the gospel by individual initiative. Empowerment must come from the Holy Spirit.

6:3 full of the Spirit and of wisdom. The men's lives were consistent with their confession of faith. They knew the will of God and understood how to carry it out in their lives (Eph 5:15–18 ). They could be trusted with responsibility and authority.

6:6 laid their hands on them. This was not done in order for the men to receive the Holy Spirit, because the seven men were already “full of the Spirit” (vv. 3,5). Instead the apostles were conferring on these men the responsibility of carrying out the ministry. The laying on of hands was a meaningful tradition that dated back to the days of Moses (Nu 27:23 ); it identified people with the ministries to be performed.

6:8 full of grace (divine blessing, favor) and power. Stephen had the gifts, the boldness, and the brilliance to be a powerful witness; yet even his witness would be rejected by the religious leaders. Hearts are opened only by God, not by our gifts, boldness, or brilliance.

7:8 circumcision. This covenant and its outward symbol were given to Abraham that he might never forget God's promise to bless him. Abraham was saved by faith in God (Ge 15:6 ); the symbol of circumcision was an outward sign of the inward reality of his faith. God's blessing was not based on the physical fact of circumcision but on genuine faith.

7:16 Shechem. At the time of Stephen's defense, Shechem was the center of Samaritan life. Mount Gerazim, the Samaritan worship center, was located nearby. Stephen's point was not to speak against the temple in Jerusalem, but to point out that God had been speaking and moving in the lives of His people not only in Jerusalem or the temple. The most important address God made to His people was at Mount Sinai, which is nowhere near Jerusalem.

7:19 Persecution— Pharaoh enslaved and mistreated the Hebrews, and at the same time he feared their strength. It was his fear that led him to seek their destruction, persecuting them and destroying their children. It is easy to recognize the enormity and evil of the Egyptian persecution of the Jews as a race and a nation, but the ancient Egyptians are not the only ones guilty of such sin. Some of those claiming the name of Christ in recent times have been guilty of mistreating or even enslaving those of different ethnic background. Feelings of racial superiority have no place in the heart of a Christian. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:38 The Meaning of the Church— In modern English the word church is used five ways: (1) a building designated as a place of worship; (2) all who profess faith in Christ; (3) a denomination; (4) a single organized local church; and (5) the body of Christ, that is, the universal church. While all of these may be legitimate uses for modern English, the word church is used in the New Testament in only the last two senses—a local congregation or the body of Christ, the universal church. At its root, the word church means a “called-out group.” It is used for the nation of Israel (Ac 7:38), which was a group of people who were called out of the rest of the world to have a special national relationship to God. It is used for a local church (1Th 1:1; Rev 2:1) and for the universal church, the body of Christ (Col 1:18). The universal church comprises all believers from the Day of Pentecost until God completes His plan for the world. The local church is a local, visible, temporal manifestation of the universal church. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:44 tabernacle. The ancient tabernacle had been the focus of the Israelites' national worship. Even after the miraculous deliverance from Egypt there was a tendency among the people to forget God. The tabernacle was a constant testimony of God's presence no matter where the people went. Paul tells us that we are the tabernacle, the temple of God (1Co 3:16). We can never move beyond God's reach, for we carry His presence with us.

7:58 drove him out of the city. Because Jewish law did not allow an execution within the walls of the holy city, the religious leaders took Stephen outside the city. Jerusalem is situated in a stony area and this made Stephen's hasty (and illegal) execution easy. His executioners had plenty of rocks at hand, they only had to bend over and pick them up (see Jn 10:31).

7:59–60 Death— Scripture affirms, and experience confirms, the universality of death. It comes to kings and commoners, saints and sinners alike. Christians die, as well as unbelievers. No one likes to think of dying violently, but Stephen's death shows that even this end can be met with courage and peace. In both life and death Stephen sought to imitate his Lord, and he departed without resentment, praying for the pardon of his foes. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:5 Samaria. In the first century, the Jews and Samaritans hated one another. The Jews considered the Samaritans half-breeds and religious deviants. Following the fall of the Northern Kingdom of Israel in 722 BC, Samaria had been resettled by colonists brought to the land by the Assyrians. These colonists intermarried with the remaining Jews, and the Samaritans of the New Testament era were descendants of these mixed marriages. Because of their mixed heritage and their rejection of the temple in Jerusalem and most of the Old Testament Scriptures (the Samaritans only accepted the five books of Moses), the Jews considered them to be unclean. The amazing work of the Holy Spirit in forming one fellowship out of Jewish and Samaritan believers indicates that there is no room for racial or ethnic division in His church (Gal 3:26–28).

8:14–15 that they might receive the Holy Spirit. This episode clearly showed the Samaritans that salvation did come through the Jews, and that the Scriptures they had previously rejected were actually God's message. It also showed the Jewish believers that God had accepted the Samaritan believers fully into His family. The dependence of the Samaritans upon the Jews to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit was the healing sign that the two sides were to become one.

8:27 had come to Jerusalem to worship. Many Gentiles in the first century had grown weary of the multiple gods and loose morals of their own cultures. In their search for something more, some of them came to Judaism. One who accepted Judaism, obeying all the law of Moses (including circumcision and baptism), was called a proselyte. Gentiles who did not become proselytes but did attend the Jewish synagogues to listen to the Scriptures were called God-fearers. We cannot be sure which category the Ethiopian eunuch fell into.

8:35 preached Jesus to him. First-century Jews did not speak much about a suffering Messiah. The Jewish people, facing the yoke of Roman rule, believed that the Messiah would come as the Lion of Judah, a delivering king, not a weak lamb. They believed and taught that the suffering One spoken of by Isaiah was the suffering nation of Israel. Philip's explanation of the passage gave a very different view, showing Jesus as the Messiah who came to suffer and die in order to redeem sinners.

9:2 synagogues. The early Jewish believers in Jesus were still attending the synagogues, gathering places where Jews came together to hear the Scriptures read and expounded upon. Part of Saul's mission was apparently to let the Damascus synagogues know beyond any doubt that the followers of "The Way" did not have the approval of the Sanhedrin.

9:4–5 Messiah— Apparently unimpressed by the witness of the dying Stephen (7:59), Saul needed a more serious, personal jolt to awaken his spiritual awareness. The light that blinded Saul prepared him to receive the True Light that came into the world to dispel the darkness of sin. This personal encounter with the risen Christ changed Saul from a fire-breathing persecutor into a dynamic preacher who was not ashamed to publicly claim the crucified Man from Galilee as his Lord and Savior. Go to Theological Notes Index

9:17 Jesus, who appeared to you. Saul was not dreaming on the road to Damascus but instead had seen the resurrected Lord.

Lines, brackets and dotted lines help show sequence of events but are not meant to point to precise months or days within a given year, since exact dating is difficult.

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

9:30 Tarsus. Saul's hometown was about three hundred miles north of Jerusalem and about ten miles inland from the Mediterranean Sea. Tarsus was a well known university city, surpassed in educational opportunities only by Athens and Alexandria.

9:31 peace. This rest was not due solely to Saul's conversion. Tiberius, the emperor of Rome, died around this time. He was replaced by Caligula, who wanted to erect a statue of himself in the temple at Jerusalem. The attention of the Jewish religious leaders was directed towards this new threat, and the emerging church was given a short season of respite.

10:1–11:18 The following two chapters mark an important turning point in the Book of Acts. Those who were scattered by persecution from Jerusalem had been preaching the gospel only to Jews (11:19). At this point, they began to overcome their prejudices and carry the message of Christ to the Gentiles.

10:6 Simon the tanner. God cut away Peter's prejudices by having him stay for many days with one whose trade Peter likely considered repulsive. Since a tanner (one who makes leather) is constantly working with animals dead from various causes, he would spend much of his life "ceremonially unclean."

10:15 What God has cleansed and pronounced clean, no longer consider common. Food may have been his first consideration, but Peter would soon understand the greater message. The vision was a sign from heaven that Jews were no longer to call Gentiles unclean.

10:44 the Holy Spirit fell on all those who were listening to the message. Following the plan laid out by Jesus before His ascension (1:8), the good news had reached the Jews, the Samaritans, and now the Gentiles. All were united by the same faith in the same Lord with the same gift of the Holy Spirit.

11:2 those of the circumcision. This term refers to Jewish believers in Jesus who taught that Gentiles had to become Jews (be circumcised and keep the law of Moses) in order to become Christians.

11:16 baptized with the Holy Spirit. This is found seven times in the New Testament (1:5 ; Mt 3:11 ; Mk 1:8 ; Lk 3:16 ; Jn 1:33 ; 1Co 12:13) and refers to an act by Christ for believers.

11:22–23 Antioch. Seleucus I founded the city of Antioch, naming it after his father. The city was cosmopolitan, attracting people of various cultures and ethnic backgrounds—including people from Persia, India, and even China. The gospel proclaimed in Antioch would have tremendous potential for reaching other areas of the world.

11:26 called Christians. Originally, the believers had called themselves “followers of The Way.” Although the term “Christian” was apparently given to them by nonbelievers, they adopted it for themselves. Its essential meaning, “Christ-follower” is appropriate for those who have given their lives into the keeping of Jesus, the Messiah.

11:29–30 Benevolence— Christians must exercise responsibility and charity (love) towards all men, and especially to other believers (Gal 6:10 ). The Christians at Antioch are an example of well implemented Christian giving. All gave in accordance with their means (2Co 8:3 ). The gifts were placed in the charge of trustworthy Christians (2Co 8:20–21 ), who could ensure a responsible delivery and administration of the gifts. Go to Theological Notes Index

12:1–3 Herod [Agrippa I] the king. This is Herod Agrippa I, the nephew of Herod Antipas who murdered John the Baptist, and the grandson of Herod the Great who had the children of Bethlehem put to death in his search for Jesus. Herod was not a Jew but an Edomite. The Jews resented the fact that a son of Edom was given the position of king of the Jews.

12:11 rescued me from the hand of Herod. Why was Peter’s life spared while James’ life was taken? The answer is the sovereign will of God. If we believe that God is good and wise, we can trust that what He allowed to happen was part of His wise plan for the good of all His people.

12:22 the voice of a god. The Jewish historian Josephus also provides an account of this display, informing us that in an attempted appeasement of the king the people confessed that he was “more than mortal.”

13:2-4 Holy Spirit— God reveals His will to those who are sensitive to His leading. The believers in Antioch heard from the Lord as they were praying and fasting. Most often, God does not speak to us out of the blue. He speaks to us when we are listening. The Holy Spirit gave distinct direction to the listening, sensitive believers of the first century, and He leads believers in the same way today. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:3 laid their hands on them. The laying on of hands was the church's way of identifying with and affirming the mission to which God had called a particular person.

13:6-12 Sergius Paulus. Luke presents this man as the first Gentile ruler to believe the gospel. There is no evidence that Sergius Paulus was a God-fearer or had ever shown any interest in Judaism prior to this time. This pagan government official was amazed at the power of God and believed the truth.

13:39 everyone who believes . . . is justified and declared free of guilt from all things. “Justified” is a technical legal term declaring that a person is acquitted and absolved. Because of Jesus’ death on the cross, our sin debt has been paid. Everyone who accepts this payment is justified before God, considered righteous through the blood of Christ.

13:45 the Jews. When Luke refers to “the Jews,” he is not speaking of all Jewish people, but rather of the Jewish religious establishment, which opposed the gospel.

13:52 Joy— The pursuit of happiness doesn't always lead to the possession of joy. Joy does not come from circumstances but from the presence of God. It is a fruit of the spirit, poured into a believer's life by the grace of God. The believers in this passage were not filled with joy because their lives were comfortable, or because they were wealthy or powerful, but because they saw God working and had His Holy Spirit in their lives. Go to Theological Notes Index

14:11 The gods have come down. The Roman poet Ovid told of an ancient legend in which Zeus and Hermes came to the Phrygian hill country disguised as mortals seeking lodging. After being turned away from a thousand homes, they found refuge in the humble cottage of an elderly couple. In appreciation for the couple's hospitality, the gods transformed the cottage into a splendid temple and then destroyed all the houses of the inhospitable people. The people probably remembered this ancient legend, and wanted to make sure they did not make the same mistake their ancestors did.

14:23 appointed elders. The process outlined in 6:1–7 for selecting the seven men to serve the Jerusalem believers may provide a clue to the process used for selecting elders here. Both the assembly and the apostles were involved in the selection process.

15:11 we are saved through the [precious, undeserved] grace of the Lord Jesus. These are the last words of Peter in the Book of Acts. He leaves us with the eternal truth that we are saved through faith by grace alone. The emphasis in the narrative now moves from Peter to Paul, and his outreach to the Gentiles.

15:13 James. James was the leader of the church in Jerusalem until he was stoned to death at the insistence of the high priest in AD 62. It is believed that this James is the Lord's brother, the son of Mary and Joseph, who did not believe until the Lord appeared to him privately after the Resurrection (1Co 15:7 ).

15:19–20 abstain from anything that has been contaminated by [being offered to] idols. The Jerusalem council understood that it was not necessary for Gentiles to keep the whole of the law in order to be believers in Jesus, but also recognized that they did not have the background of moral teaching the Jewish believers had. They needed both reassurance as to their acceptance as true Christians and teaching for a godly life. In looking at the present application of these requirements, it is important to remember that Acts is a transitional book, documenting the beginning of the Christian movement. Sexual purity and food regulations are both addressed more thoroughly elsewhere in the New Testament (1Co 6–8 ).

15:20 Fornication— Illicit sexual relationships were not a matter of shame or sin among the Gentiles as they were among the Jews. In fact, many pagan religious practices included prostitution and sexual orgies. This made the need for teaching on sexual purity doubly urgent for the new Gentile believers. They would be constantly presented with temptation, not only for sexual sin but for returning to their old ways of worship. They needed to hear God's strict prohibition of such behavior. ## The Second Missionary Journey of Paul

15:39 that they separated from one another. Even though Paul and Barnabas had a heated disagreement, it is important to note that they did not bring their disagreement into the church fellowship, forcing others to take sides and causing more dissension. Instead, they simply parted ways, each continuing to faithfully serve the Lord. Later, the disagreement was apparently resolved, for Paul wrote to Timothy when he was imprisoned, asking for Mark to be sent to him, “for he is very helpful to me for the ministry” (2Ti 4:11).

16:3 circumcised him. According to Jewish law, Timothy should have been circumcised and raised a Jew, even with a Gentile father. For whatever reason, this had not happened, and the fact that he was an uncircumcised Jew would limit his effectiveness with Jewish Christians. The issue was not law but effectiveness.

16:12 Philippi. Named after the father of Alexander the Great, Philippi was a Roman colony loyal to the empire. The city itself was organized by the state of Rome and functioned as a military outpost. Because of its proximity to the sea as well as to one of the major roads to Europe, Philippi was a commercial center in Macedonia. Its influence throughout the region made it a good place to begin preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ.

16:13 where we thought there would be a place of prayer. According to Jewish custom, a congregation consisted of ten households. If ten male household heads could be found in a city, a synagogue was formed. If not, a place of prayer was established. Philippi did not have a synagogue, but Paul was still able to find the God-fearers of the city.

16:25 Praise— Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God at midnight in spite of the fact that they had been arrested, stripped naked, and beaten, confined to an inner cell and clamped into an uncomfortable position. They could praise God because their joy was not based on circumstances but on a relationship. Jesus Christ and His love and grace are the same, no matter where you are or what is happening to you. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:31 It Begins with Faith— Paul and Silas's answer to the Philippian jailer's question is the essence of salvation; Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved. This verse raises two questions: What does it mean to believe, and what does it mean to be saved? Belief includes but is more than just an intellectual assent. Belief includes the idea of total trust, dependence, and submission of oneself to Christ as Lord (King, Master). To be saved is to be delivered. We are delivered from the very presence of sin and evil (Satan and hell) and will be delivered into the very presence of God (Christ and heaven). We receive this new life by faith—believing that we are sinful, that Jesus died for our sins, that His death was in our place, and that His payment for sin is fully acceptable in God's sight. Faith can be summarized in the acrostic: Go to Theological Notes Index

16:33–34 Family— This man assumed spiritual leadership of his family by being the first to repent, to humble himself before God and ask for forgiveness and a change of life. By his example, the rest of his family was won. In the same way, every believing father has the responsibility to set the example of spiritual commitment, and to teach his family all he knows of following Christ. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:37 Romans. Paul was not simply seeking self-justification, he was protecting the infant church in Philippi. By forcing a public statement of their innocence, he minimized the possibility that the new believers would be regarded as “friends of criminals and troublemakers.”

17:7 things contrary to the decrees of Caesar. In AD 49 the Roman emperor Caligula expelled all Jews from Rome due to riots ignited by a group of zealous Jews. Paul's accusers were trying to paint him as a revolutionary who was bringing sedition to Thessalonica.

17:18 this idle babbler. This word is literally “seed picker.” The philosophers were saying that Paul was like a gutter sparrow, picking up bits and scraps of knowledge without fully digesting or thinking about what he taught.

17:19 Areopagus. Just southwest of the Acropolis in Athens was a hill called the Hill of Ares (Mars, in Latin), the god of war. This was where court was held concerning questions of religion and morals. In Athens, the gospel message was examined by the supposed experts of philosophy and religion.

17:23 An Unknown God— In the sixth century BC it was said that a poet from Crete named Epimenides turned aside a horrible plague from the people of Athens by appealing to a god of whom the people had never heard. An altar was built to honor this god, and its inscription caught Paul's attention. Knowing that the Athenians had no background in the Old Testament Scriptures as did the Jews in the synagogues, Paul began his discourse with what they were already familiar with: their own legends and observation. Go to Theological Notes Index

17:31 Resurrection— Christ has been raised from the dead not only for the purpose of returning to heaven and resuming His fellowship with the Father, a fellowship interrupted only by the alienation and abandonment at the cross. He has gone from His tomb to the right hand of His Father to intercede for us. One day, however, the mantle of Judge will be placed on Him, and we will stand before our Judge, not our High Priest. The world has yet to see the last of Jesus Christ. Go to Theological Notes Index

17:32 some mocked. Though they embraced the idea of the soul living on, the Greeks were repulsed by the idea of a bodily resurrection because they considered the body to be evil. This idea, known as dualism was derived from the teachings of Socrates and Plato. It held that everything physical is evil and everything spiritual is good. Therefore, the body and what is done with it is not important because it will be discarded at the end of life.

18:1 Corinth. Corinth was the political capital of Achaia. It was also a center for the worship of Aphrodite, the goddess of fertility, and it housed the major temple of Apollo. Because of the sensuous nature of the religious cult of Aphrodite, Corinth had a reputation for being a city of immorality. Beginning in the fifth century BC, the Greeks used a word meaning “to act like a Corinthian” as a symbol for sexual immorality.

18:3 tent-makers. All young rabbinical students had to learn a trade. The province of Cilicia, from which Paul came, was noted for its cloth made from goats’ hair. It is likely that Paul’s skill involved making such cloth.

18:7 Titius Justus. Most Romans had three names. This man’s name was Titius Justus. Based on Paul’s letter to the Corinthians, it is likely that Justus was the man called Gaius mentioned in 1 Corinthians 1:14.

18:18 had his hair cut. Paul had his hair cut as part of a Nazirite vow he had made (see Nu 6:5). Such a vow had to be fulfilled in Jerusalem where the hair would be presented to God.

The Third Missionary Journey of Paul

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

18:24 Apollos, a native of Alexandria. This Jew with a Greek name was from the second largest city in the Roman Empire. Alexandria was a seaport on the northern coast of Egypt. Founded by Alexander the Great, the city was very cosmopolitan. Egyptians, Romans, and Greeks all lived there; over one quarter of the population was Jewish. The Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures had been produced in that city about 150 years before the birth of Jesus. The city was famous for its great library and was considered the cultural and educational center of the world.

19:3 John's baptism. Baptism was a ritual used by the Jews as a picture of cleansing and purification. Gentiles who converted to Judaism would go through the rite of purification as their first act of worship. They would dip themselves in water as a sign of being cleansed from their old way of life. Before entering into the temple to worship, Jews would dip themselves in ritual bathing pools to show their desire for purification. John's baptism was a symbol of repentance from sin and a looking ahead to the coming of the Messiah.

19:6 laid his hands on them. The Holy Ghost was received without the laying on of hands in 10:44-48. By laying on his hands here, Paul was demonstrating his apostolic authority. He was also affirming the unity of the new church in Ephesus with the church in Jerusalem. Both were empowered by the Holy Spirit to speak in foreign tongues.

19:10 all the inhabitants of [the west coast province of] Asia . . . heard. From Ephesus, other churches were born in Asia Minor—in Colosse, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea. Paul and his students clearly did more than study. They must have actively evangelized as well.

19:13 the name of the Lord Jesus. The use of magical names in incantations was common in the ancient world. These practitioners had latched onto the name of Jesus to use as an incantation, but they discovered that it was not enough to know the name of Jesus; they needed to know Jesus personally.

19:29 the amphitheater. This amphitheater seated 25,000 people.

19:40 we are running the risk. The riot at Ephesus could have brought the discipline of Rome down upon the city. The Pax Romana, the peace that the Roman Empire brought to the Mediterranean world, was very important to Rome. The Romans would not tolerate any kind of uprising or rebellion. Ephesus risked losing its freedom and being ruled directly by the Roman army.

20:2 encouraged. This word has a full range of meanings, from rebuking in a certain way to comforting. Encouragement includes instruction, appeal, affirmation, exhortation, warning, and correction.

20:7 The Lord's Supper— Although the phrase “to break bread” could mean an ordinary meal, it more likely refers to the observance of the Lord’s Supper in obedience to Christ’s command. The “breaking of bread” appears to be the primary purpose for the gathering, with Paul’s sermon rising naturally in a group of people who had gathered to remember Christ. Go to Theological Notes Index

20:13–16 to go [a shorter route] by land. The distance between Troas and Assos was about thirty miles by sea, but Paul chose to go over land on foot.

20:17 elders. The words “elder” (literally, one who is older) and “overseer” (v. 28) appear to be used in the New Testament as interchangeable terms for the leaders of a particular fellowship.

20:22 compelled by the Spirit. Some say that Paul was out of the will of God in going to Jerusalem after the warnings of bonds and afflictions. But there is no evidence that Paul was rebelling against God. On the contrary, Jesus Himself confirmed that the trip was part of His good and perfect will (23:11).

20:28 Church— The elders or overseers of God’s flock must be men who are appointed not just by other men, but by the Holy Spirit of God. The leadership of the church is a solemn responsibility, and it should only be accepted by those who are convinced that they have been both called and equipped by the Holy Spirit to do this work. An elder has the responsibility to follow the example of our Chief Shepherd, Jesus Christ, as a servant leader. Go to Theological Notes Index

20:35 It is more blessed [and brings greater joy] to give. This saying of Jesus is not found in the Gospels, but it has been recorded here through Paul’s knowledge of it.

21:2 a ship crossing over to Phoenicia. In the summer months, the wind of the Aegean Sea blows from the north, beginning very early in the morning. In the late afternoon the wind dies away. Sunset brings a dead calm, and later a gentle southerly breeze blows. If a ship was heading down the coast, it would typically anchor at evening and wait for the winds of the morning.

21:4 through the [Holy] Spirit. Because of this warning, many have thought that Paul’s insistence in going to Jerusalem was disobedience to God’s will. However, it is more likely that this was simply a warning to let him know what to expect in the future. Paul was obviously very sensitive to the Holy Spirit (16:6), and felt that he had received specific instructions to go to Jerusalem (20:22). Later Jesus Himself encouraged Paul concerning his decision to go (23:11).

21:10–14 bound his own feet and hands. The Holy Spirit did not forbid Paul to go to Jerusalem, but warned him of what it would cost him.

21:17 Fellowship— Fellowship means more than chatting over coffee and cookies, or sharing a potluck supper. Christian fellowship essentially means sharing one another’s lives, participating in both the joy and sorrow of our brothers and sisters in Christ. Christian community extends beyond geography, class, color, and gender. As parts of one glorious whole, the body of Christ, believers rejoice in one another's joy, and reach out a helping hand for another's need. Go to Theological Notes Index

21:25 they should abstain from. The spiritual unity of the body of believers is realized in its diversity, not in its conformity. From our diverse backgrounds and cultures we honor the same Lord.

Paul's Voyage to Rome

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

---

21:28 defiled this holy place. The temple in New Testament times was surrounded by three courts. The innermost court was the court of Israel, where Jewish men could offer sacrifices. The second court was the court of Women where Jewish families could gather for prayer and worship. The outer court was the court of Gentiles, open to all who would worship God. The penalty for any Gentile who went beyond this court was death.

21:38 you are not [as I assumed] the Egyptian. An assassin claiming to be a prophet had come to Jerusalem in AD 54, and led four thousand Jews up to the Mount of Olives, promising that at his word the walls of Jerusalem would fall and the Roman Empire would be destroyed. The uprising was crushed, leaving four hundred Jews dead and another two hundred as prisoners. The Egyptian escaped into the desert with some of his followers.

22:16 calling on His name. Calling on the name of the Lord is what brings salvation, not the physical act of baptism (Ro 10:9–13). Baptism is the public declaration of one's repentance and new life.

22:24 with a whip. The scourge was a leather whip, studded with pieces of metal or bone, fastened to a wooden handle. The victim was stretched out on the floor or bound to a pillar to be beaten. Scourging was a cruel torture, designed to maim or kill the victim.

22:28 born a citizen. Roman citizenship was originally limited to free Romans, but later it was offered to many others in the empire, either as a reward for outstanding service, or in exchange for a high price. Because Paul's father was a Roman citizen (how he became a citizen is unknown), Paul was born a citizen. Ultimately, God used Paul's Roman citizenship to spread the gospel to Rome.

23:1 Conscience— The human conscience is given as a tool, enabling us to tell right from wrong, and to evaluate our own actions. The problem is that the conscience of fallen humans is not a reliable guide. Because humans are not "basically good," an untrained conscience will not necessarily lead toward right. The conscience must be trained by good teaching. It can be rendered useless if it is seared or defiled; it can be deadened by constantly ignoring it. In order to provide useful guidance, the conscience must be recharged by the Holy Spirit. It must be kept clear by confession of sins, and refusing to accept violations. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:11 also testify at Rome. Because of the earlier warnings of his friends (21:4 ,10–14), Paul may have begun to doubt his decision. The Lord gave Paul special encouragement at this time, that he was indeed doing just what God wanted him to do.

23:33 the governor. Antonius Felix governed Judea from AD 52 to 60. Felix had been a slave, but had gained the status of freedman under the emperor Claudius. Because Felix's brother was a friend of the emperor, Felix's political career blossomed, even though he was not popular among his peers. The writer Tacitus described him as "exercising the powers of a king with the character of a slave."

24:14 the Way. Paul openly admitted that he was a follower of "the Way" (those who followed Jesus), but he contended that he still believed the Law and the Prophets. That is, he was a follower of Judaism, a religion which enjoyed the protection of Rome.

24:16 Conscience— There is a connection between Paul's belief in future judgment and his desire to maintain a clear conscience before God and man. The intensity of Paul's desire may be seen from the verb translated "to do my best," which occurs only here in the New Testament. Paul's desire to have a good conscience toward God and man reflects the summary of duties of the law of love toward God and neighbor. The conscience needs to be enlightened and purified by Scripture in regard to our responsibilities toward God and man. Go to Theological Notes Index

24:22 having a rather accurate understanding about the Way. Felix's wife Drusilla was Jewish, and part of the Herodian family. Felix had governed Judea and Samaria for six years. He had ample opportunity to understand both Judaism and "the Way" as he must have observed the workings of the early church in Jerusalem.

24:27 after two years. Around AD 60, a riot broke out in Caesarea. Felix crushed it with such force that he was removed from office.

25:11 appeal to Caesar. If a Roman citizen thought he was not getting justice in a provincial court, he could appeal to the emperor himself. If the appeal was declared valid, all other proceedings in the lower courts ceased and the prisoner was sent to Rome for the disposition of his case.

26:5 I have lived as a Pharisee. Paul was not some stranger or foreigner trying to start a new religion. He was a Jew, and a member of the religious body which took God's law most seriously.

26:6–7 Hope— Paul faced a real paradox in his trial before Agrippa. He had been a faithful Pharisee, looking forward to the fulfillment of their common hope, the coming of the Messiah, and eventually the resurrection of the dead. Now that the Messiah had come, and Paul began proclaiming the truth of His atonement and resurrection, he was being persecuted by the very ones who had once shared his hope. Go to Theological Notes Index

26:20 that they should repent. Repentance indicates a complete change in thinking, an “about face” of the mind and heart. Genuine repentance is evidenced by changed behavior.

26:22–23 Christ— Paul makes it clear that Jesus stood firmly in the tradition of the Hebrew Law and Prophets, and specifically identifies Him as the promised Messiah. The suffering and death of the Messiah were ordained by God and proclaimed by His prophets. The resurrection of Jesus provided evidence of the control God was exercising over the process of redemption. This triumphant event removed the purely local and national character of Christ’s work, and gave His message of salvation worldwide dimensions, as had been prophesied (Isa 60:3 ; Mal 1:11 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

27:4 the winds were against us. This happened just before the winter storms increased, and sailing became difficult. Paul was being sent to Rome by ship at the worst time of year for sailing.

27:14 Euraquilo. This was a name given to the northeasterly storms which blow up on the Mediterranean Sea at this time of year.

28:8 sick [in bed] with recurring attacks of fever. This fever was possibly Malta fever, which was common in Malta, Gibraltar, and other Mediterranean islands. The microorganism has since been traced to the milk of the Maltese goats. The fever usually lasted four months, but sometimes could last as long as two or three years.

28:17 leaders of the Jews. By this time, the decree of the emperor Claudius (18:2 ) had been allowed to lapse, and Jews had returned to Rome.

28:20 Hope— The hope of Israel and the hope which Paul had found in Christ were not two different things. Wherever he went, he proclaimed Christ to the Jews as the fulfillment of their hope. That hope included not only the resurrection; it also included the Messiah and His kingdom. Paul is careful to emphasize that the hope which he now proclaims does not undermine the hope of Israel but rather is its divine fulfillment. His devotion to the hope of the fathers was the cause that brought about his imprisonment and put him in chains. His demeanor before these Jewish leaders in Rome must have been impressive. As he stood before these men whose influence could result in life or death for him, there was no quaking or fear. He had that hope which made him secure, whatever happened. Go to Theological Notes Index

28:30 two full years. Paul wrote four of the New Testament letters (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon) during this period.

28:31 preaching . . . teaching. Apparently Paul’s case had not been decided when Luke finished this book. It is thought that Paul was in fact released (there was really no case against him), and actually went to Spain as he desired (Ro 15:24 ). Titus 1:5 implies that Paul ministered on the island of Crete (something not mentioned in Acts), and many believe that Paul resumed his missionary travel for a few more years before his final arrest, condemnation, and execution, sometime around AD 67.

The Letter of Paul to the

Romans

- AUTHOR: All critical schools agree on the Pauline authorship of this foundational book. The vocabulary, style, logic, and theological development are consistent with Paul's other epistles. He wrote Romans in AD 57, near the end of his third missionary journey, evidently during his three-month stay in Greece (Ac 20:3–6), more specifically, in Corinth. The church in Rome was well-known (1:8), and it had been established for several years by the time of this letter. The believers were probably numerous, and evidently they met in several places (Ro 16:1–16). The historian Tacitus even referred to the Christians who were persecuted there under Nero in AD 64 as an “immense multitude,” as the gospel filled the gap left by the practically defunct polytheism of Roman religion.
- TIMES: c. AD 57
- KEY VERSES: Ro 1:16–17
- THEME: Most scholars feel that Paul probably wrote this letter from Corinth, shortly before going to Jerusalem with the relief funds for the believers there. At this point in his life and ministry, his theology has been fully developed through years of study and interaction with people as he preached the gospel. Romans systematically explains what Christ did, why He did it, and what has happened as a result. It speaks to what we are as humans and how God has interacted with us through Christ. It lays out God's plan for the world, clarifying what has happened and is still happening in biblical history. In this way, Paul forces us to deal with all the false versions of reality inspired by our fallen human nature as opposed to God's gracious, sustaining plan.

Romans 1

The Gospel Exalted

<sup>3</sup> [the good news] regarding His Son, who, as to the flesh [His human nature], was born a descendant of David [to fulfill the covenant promises], ‡

<sup>4</sup> and [as to His divine nature] according to the Spirit of holiness was openly designated to be the Son of God with power [in a triumphant and miraculous way] by His resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord. ‡

<sup>5</sup> It is through Him that we have received grace and [our] apostleship to promote obedience to the faith and make disciples for His name's sake among all the Gentiles, ‡

<sup>6</sup> and you also are among those who are called of Jesus Christ to belong to Him;

<sup>7</sup> [I am writing] to all who are beloved of God in Rome, called to be saints (God's people) and set apart for a sanctified life, [that is, set apart for God and His purpose]: Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>8</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith [your trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness] is being proclaimed in all the world. ‡

<sup>9</sup> For God, whom I serve with my spirit by preaching the gospel of His Son, is my witness as to how continuously I mention you ‡

<sup>10</sup> in my prayers; always pleading that somehow, by God's will, I may now at last come to you.

<sup>11</sup> For I long to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gift, to strengthen and establish you; ‡

<sup>12</sup> that is, that we may be mutually encouraged and comforted by each other's faith, both yours and mine. ‡

<sup>13</sup> I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that many times I have planned to come to you, (and have been prevented so far) so that I may have some fruit [of my labors] among you, even as I have among the rest of the Gentiles. ‡

<sup>14</sup>—I have a duty to perform and a debt to pay both to Greeks and to barbarians [the cultured and the uncultured], both to the wise and to the foolish.

<sup>15</sup> So, for my part, I am ready and eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

<sup>16</sup> I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation [from His wrath and punishment] to everyone who believes [in Christ as Savior], to the Jew first and also to the Greek. ‡

<sup>17</sup>—For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed, both springing from faith and leading to faith [disclosed in a way that awakens more faith]. As it is written and forever remains written, “T HE JUST and UPRIGHT SHALL LIVE BY FAITH .”  [Hab 2:4. ] ‡

Unbelief and Its Consequences

<sup>18</sup>—For [God does not overlook sin and] the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who in their wickedness suppress and stifle the truth, ‡

<sup>19</sup> because that which is known about God is evident within them [in their inner consciousness], for God made it evident to them. ‡

<sup>20</sup> For ever since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through His workmanship [all His creation, the wonderful things that He has made], so that they [who fail to believe and trust in Him] are without excuse and without defense.  [Ps 19:1–4 ; Eph 2:10. ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> For even though they knew God [as the Creator], they did not honor Him as God or give thanks [for His wondrous creation]. On the contrary, they became worthless in their thinking [godless, with pointless reasonings, and silly speculations], and their foolish heart was darkened. ‡

<sup>23</sup> and exchanged the glory and majesty and excellence of the immortal God for an image [worthless idols] in the shape of mortal man and birds and four-footed animals and reptiles. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their own hearts to [sexual] impurity, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them [abandoning them to the degrading power of sin], ‡

25because [by choice] they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.  [Jer 2:11 ] ‡

26 For this reason God gave them over to degrading and vile passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural [a function contrary to nature], ‡

27 and in the same way also the men turned away from the natural function of the woman and were consumed with their desire toward one another, men with men committing shameful acts and in return receiving in their own bodies the inevitable and appropriate penalty for their wrongdoing.

28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God or consider Him worth knowing [as their Creator], God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do things which are improper and repulsive, ‡

29 until they were filled (permeated, saturated) with every kind of unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice and mean-spiritedness. They are gossips [spreading rumors],

30 slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors [of new forms] of evil, disobedient and disrespectful to parents, 31 without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful [without pity].

32 Although they know God's righteous decree and His judgment, that those who do such things deserve death, yet they not only do them, but they even [enthusiastically] approve and tolerate others who practice them. ‡

Romans 2

The Impartiality of God

1 THEREFORE YOU have no excuse or justification, everyone of you who [hypocritically] judges and condemns others; for in passing judgment on another person, you condemn yourself, because you who judge [from a position of arrogance or self-righteousness] are habitually practicing the very same things [which you denounce]. ‡

2 And we know that the judgment of God falls justly and in accordance with truth on those who practice such things.

3 But do you think this, O man, when you judge and condemn those who practice such things, and yet do the same yourself, that you will escape God's judgment and elude His verdict?

<sup>4</sup>Or do you have no regard for the wealth of His kindness and tolerance and patience [in withholding His wrath]? Are you [actually] unaware or ignorant [of the fact] that God's kindness leads you to repentance [that is, to change your inner self, your old way of thinking—seek His purpose for your life]? ‡

<sup>5</sup> But because of your callous stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are [deliberately] storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. ‡

<sup>6</sup> He WILL PAY BACK TO EACH PERSON ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS [justly, as his deeds deserve]:  [Ps 62:12; Prov 24:12 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup>to those who by persistence in doing good seek [unseen but certain heavenly] glory, honor, and immortality, [He will give the gift of] eternal life.

<sup>8</sup> But for those who are selfishly ambitious and self-seeking and disobedient to the truth but responsive to wickedness, [there will be] wrath and indignation. ‡

<sup>9</sup> There will be tribulation and anguish [torturing confinement] for every human soul who does [or permits] evil, to the Jew first and also to the Greek, ‡

<sup>10</sup> but glory and honor and inner peace [will be given] to everyone who habitually does good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For God shows no partiality [no arbitrary favoritism; with Him one person is not more important than another].  [Deut 10:17; 2 Chr 19:7 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> For all who have sinned without the Law will also perish without [regard to] the Law, and all who have sinned under the Law will be judged and condemned by the Law.

<sup>13</sup> For it is not those who merely hear the Law [as it is read aloud] who are just or righteous before God, but it is those who [actually] obey the Law who will be justified [pronounced free of the guilt of sin and declared acceptable to Him]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> When Gentiles, who do not have the Law [since it was given only to Jews], do instinctively the things the Law requires [guided only by their conscience], they are a law to themselves, though they do not have the Law.

<sup>15</sup> They show that the essential requirements of the Law are written in their hearts; and their conscience [their sense of right and wrong, their moral choices] bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or perhaps defending them

<sup>16</sup>on that day when, as my gospel proclaims, God will judge the secrets [all the hidden thoughts and concealed sins] of men through Christ Jesus. [

Eccl 12:14] ‡

The Jew Is Condemned by the Law

17 But if you bear the name “Jew” and rely on the Law [for your salvation] and boast in [your special relationship to] God, ‡

18 and [if you claim to] know His will and approve the things that are essential or have a sense of what is excellent, based on your instruction from the Law, ‡

19 and [if you] are confident that you are a [qualified] guide to the blind [those untaught in theology], a light to those who are in darkness, ‡

20 and [that you are] a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the [spiritually] childish, having in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and of the truth— ‡

21 well then, you who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal [in ways that are discrete, but just as sinful]? ‡

22 You who say that one must not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob [pagan] temples [of valuable idols and offerings]?  [Deut 7:25 ; Acts 19:37 ] ‡

23 You who boast in the Law, do you [repeatedly] dishonor God by breaking the Law? ‡

24 For, “ THE NAME OF GOD IS BLASPHEMED AMONG THE GENTILES BECAUSE OF YOU ,” just as it is written [in Scripture].  [Is 52:5 ; Ezek 36:20 ] ‡

25 Circumcision [the sign of the covenant of Abraham] is indeed of value if you practice the Law; but if you habitually break the Law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision [it is meaningless in God’s sight]. ‡

26 So if the uncircumcised man keeps the requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded [by God] as circumcision? ‡

27 Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps [the spirit of] the Law will judge you who, even though you have the written code and circumcision, break the Law. ‡

28 For he is not a [real] Jew who is only one outwardly, nor is [true] circumcision something external and physical. ‡

29—But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and [true] circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by [the fulfillment of] the letter [of the Law]. His praise is not from men, but from God. ‡

Romans 3

All the World Guilty

<sup>1</sup> THEN WHAT is the advantage of the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?

<sup>2</sup> Great in every respect. To begin with, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God [His very words].  [Ps 147:19 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> What then? If some did not believe or were unfaithful [to God], their lack of belief will not nullify and make invalid the faithfulness of God and His word will it? ‡

<sup>4</sup> Certainly not! Let God be found true [as He will be], though every person be found a liar, just as it is written [in Scripture], ‡

“T HAT Y OU MAY BE JUSTIFIED IN Y OUR WORDS , A ND PREVAIL WHEN Y OU ARE JUDGED [by sinful men].”  [Ps 51:4

<sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? God is not wrong to inflict His wrath [on us], is He? (I am speaking in purely human terms.) ‡

<sup>7</sup> But [as you might say] if through my lie God’s truth was magnified and abounded to His glory, why am I still being judged as a sinner?

<sup>8</sup> And why not say, (as some slanderously report and claim that we teach) “Let us do evil so that good may come of it”? Their condemnation [by God] is just. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Well then, are we [Jews] better off than they? Not at all; for we have already charged that both Jews and Greeks (Gentiles) are under the control of sin and subject to its power. ‡

<sup>10</sup> As it is written and forever remains written, ‡

“T HERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS [none that meets God’s standard],
NOT EVEN ONE .  [Ps 14:3. ]

<sup>11</sup> “T HERE IS NONE WHO UNDERSTANDS ,
T HERE IS NONE WHO SEEKS FOR G OD .  [Ps 14:2. ]

<sup>12</sup> “A LL HAVE TURNED ASIDE , TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME USELESS ;

T HERE IS NONE WHO DOES GOOD , NO , NOT ONE .”  [Ps 53:1–3 ]

13 “T HEIR THROAT IS AN OPEN GRAVE ; ‡

T HEY [habitually] DECEIVE WITH THEIR TONGUES .”

“T HE VENOM OF ASPS IS BENEATH THEIR LIPS .”  [Ps 5:9 ; 140:3 ]

14 “T HEIR MOUTH IS FULL OF CURSING AND BITTERNESS .”  [Ps 10:7 ] ‡

15 “T HEIR FEET ARE SWIFT TO SHED BLOOD , ‡

16. D ESTRUCTION AND MISERY ARE IN THEIR PATHS ,

17 A ND THEY HAVE NOT KNOWN THE PATH OF PEACE .”  [Is 59:7 , 8 ]

18.“T HERE IS NO FEAR OF G OD [and His awesome power] BEFORE THEIR EYES .”  [Ps 36:1 ] ‡

19 Now we know that whatever the Law [of Moses] says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, so that [the excuses of] every mouth may be silenced [from protesting] and that all the world may be held accountable to God [and subject to His judgment]. ‡

20. For no person will be justified [freed of guilt and declared righteous] in His sight by [trying to do] the works of the Law. For through the Law we become conscious of sin [and the recognition of sin directs us toward repentance, but provides no remedy for sin]. ‡

Justification by Faith

21 But now the righteousness of God has been clearly revealed [independently and completely] apart from the Law, though it is [actually] confirmed by the Law and the [words and writings of the] Prophets. ‡

22 This righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ for all those [Jew or Gentile] who believe [and trust in Him and acknowledge Him as God’s Son]. There is no distinction,  [1 Cor 12:13 ; Gal 3:28 ] ‡

23. since all have sinned and continually fall short of the glory of God, ‡

24 and are being justified [declared free of the guilt of sin, made acceptable to God, and granted eternal life] as a gift by His [precious, undeserved] grace, through the redemption [the payment for our sin] which is [provided] in Christ Jesus, ‡

25. whom God displayed publicly [before the eyes of the world] as a [life-giving] sacrifice of atonement and reconciliation (propitiation) by His blood [to be received] through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness [which demands punishment for sin], because in His forbearance [His deliberate restraint] He passed over the sins previously committed [before Jesus' crucifixion].‡

<sup>26</sup> It was to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time, so that He would be just and the One who justifies those who have faith in Jesus [and rely confidently on Him as Savior].

<sup>28</sup> For we maintain that an individual is justified by faith distinctly apart from works of the Law [the observance of which has nothing to do with justification, that is, being declared free of the guilt of sin and made acceptable to God].‡

<sup>29</sup> Or is God the God of Jews only? Is He not also the God of Gentiles [who were not given the Law]? Yes, of Gentiles also,

<sup>30</sup> since indeed it is one [and the same] God who will justify the circumcised by faith [which began with Abraham] and the uncircumcised through [their newly acquired] faith.‡

<sup>31</sup> Do we then nullify the Law by this faith [making the Law of no effect, overthrowing it]? Certainly not! On the contrary, we confirm and establish and uphold the Law [since it convicts us all of sin, pointing to the need for salvation].

Romans 4

Justification by Faith Evidenced in Old Testament

<sup>1</sup> WHAT THEN shall we say that Abraham, our forefather humanly speaking, has found? [Has he obtained a favored standing?]‡

<sup>2</sup> For if Abraham was justified [that is, acquitted from the guilt of his sins] by works [those things he did that were good], he has something to boast about, but not before God.‡

<sup>4</sup> Now to a laborer, his wages are not credited as a favor or a gift, but as an obligation [something owed to him].‡

<sup>5</sup> But to the one who does not work [that is, the one who does not try to earn his salvation by doing good], but believes and completely trusts in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited to him as righteousness (right standing with God). ‡

<sup>6</sup> And in this same way David speaks of the blessing on the one to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

AND WHOSE SINS HAVE BEEN COVERED UP and COMPLETELY BURIED .

<sup>8</sup> “BLESSED and HAPPY and FAVORED IS THE MAN WHOSE SIN THE LAW WILL NOT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT nor CHARGE AGAINST HIM .”  [Ps 32:1, 2 ]

<sup>9</sup> Is this blessing only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? For we say, “FAITH WAS CREDITED TO ABRAHAM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS .”

<sup>10</sup> How then was it credited [to him]? Was it after he had been circumcised, or before? Not after, but while [he was] uncircumcised.

<sup>11</sup> He received the sign of circumcision, a seal or confirmation of the righteousness which he had by faith while [he was still] uncircumcised—this was so that he would be the [spiritual] father of all who believe without being circumcised—so that righteousness would be credited to them, ‡

<sup>12</sup> and [that he would be] the [spiritual] father of those circumcised who are not only circumcised, but who also walk in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had before he was circumcised.

<sup>13</sup> For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants that he would be heir of the world was not through [observing the requirements of] the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.  [Gen 17:4–6; 22:16–18 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> If those who are [followers] of the Law are [the true] heirs [of Abraham], then faith [leading to salvation] is of no effect and void, and the promise [of God] is nullified. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For the Law results in [God’s] wrath [against sin], but where there is no law, there is no violation [of it either]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, [inheriting] the promise depends entirely on faith [that is, confident trust in the unseen God], in order that it may be given as an act of grace [His unmerited favor and mercy], so that the promise will be [legally] guaranteed to all the descendants [of Abraham]—not only for those [Jewish believers] who keep the Law, but also for those [Gentile believers] who share the faith of Abraham, who is the [spiritual] father of us all—‡

<sup>17</sup>(as it is written [in Scripture], “I HAVE MADE YOU A FATHER OF MANY NATIONS ”) in the sight of Him in whom he believed, that is, God who gives life to the dead and calls into being that which does not exist.  [Gen 17:5. ]‡

<sup>18</sup> In hope against hope Abraham believed that he would become a father of many nations, as he had been promised [by God]: “S o [numberless] SHALL YOUR DESCENDANTS BE .”  [Gen 15:5. ]‡

<sup>19</sup> Without becoming weak in faith he considered his own body, now as good as dead [for producing children] since he was about a hundred years old, and [he considered] the deadness of Sarah’s womb.  [Gen 17:17; 18:11. ]‡

<sup>20</sup> But he did not doubt or waver in unbelief concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong and empowered by faith, giving glory to God,

<sup>21</sup> being fully convinced that God had the power to do what He had promised.‡

<sup>23</sup> Now not for his sake alone was it written that it was credited to him,‡

<sup>24</sup> but for our sake also—to whom righteousness will be credited, as those who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead—‡

<sup>25</sup> who was betrayed and crucified because of our sins, and was raised [from the dead] because of our justification [our acquittal—absolving us of all sin before God].‡

Romans 5

Results of Justification

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, SINCE we have been justified [that is, acquitted of sin, declared blameless before God] by faith, [let us grasp the fact that] we have peace with God [and the joy of reconciliation with Him] through our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).‡

<sup>2</sup> Through Him we also have access by faith into this [remarkable state of] grace in which we [firmly and safely and securely] stand. Let us rejoice in our hope and the confident assurance of [experiencing and enjoying] the glory of [our great] God [the manifestation of His excellence and power].‡

<sup>3</sup> And not only this, but [with joy] let us exult in our sufferings and rejoice in our hardships, knowing that hardship (distress, pressure, trouble) produces patient endurance; ‡

<sup>5</sup> Such hope [in God's promises] never disappoints us, because God's love has been abundantly poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. ‡

<sup>6</sup> While we were still helpless [powerless to provide for our salvation], at the right time Christ died [as a substitute] for the ungodly. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now it is an extraordinary thing for one to willingly give his life even for an upright man, though perhaps for a good man [one who is noble and selfless and worthy] someone might even dare to die.

<sup>8</sup> But God clearly shows and proves His own love for us, by the fact that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, since we have now been justified [declared free of the guilt of sin] by His blood, [how much more certain is it that] we will be saved from the wrath of God through Him. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, it is much more certain, having been reconciled, that we will be saved [from the consequences of sin] by His life [that is, we will be saved because Christ lives today]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Not only that, but we also rejoice in God [rejoicing in His love and perfection] through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received and enjoy our reconciliation [with God].  [Jer 9:24 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, so death spread to all people [no one being able to stop it or escape its power], because they all sinned. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Sin was [committed] in the world before the Law [was given], but sin is not charged [against anyone] when there is no law [against it]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Yet death ruled [over mankind] from Adam to Moses [the Lawgiver], even over those who had not sinned as Adam did. Adam is a type of Him (Christ) who was to come [but in reverse—Adam brought destruction, Christ brought salvation].  [Gen 5:5 ; 7:22 ; Deut 34:5 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> But the free gift [of God] is not like the trespass [because the gift of grace overwhelms the fall of man]. For if many died by one man's trespass [Adam's sin], much more [abundantly] did God's grace and the gift [that comes] by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, overflow to [benefit] the many. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Nor is the gift [of grace] like that which came through the one who sinned.

For on the one hand the judgment [following the sin] resulted from one trespass and brought condemnation, but on the other hand the free gift resulted from many trespasses and brought justification [the release from sin's penalty for those who believe].

<sup>17</sup> For if by the trespass of the one (Adam), death reigned through the one (Adam), much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in [eternal] life through the One, Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> So then as through one trespass [Adam's sin] there resulted condemnation for all men, even so through one act of righteousness there resulted justification of life to all men. ‡

<sup>19</sup> For just as through one man's disobedience [his failure to hear, his carelessness] the many were made sinners, so through the obedience of the one Man the many will be made righteous and acceptable to God and brought into right standing with Him.

<sup>20</sup> But the Law came to increase and expand [the awareness of] the trespass [by defining and unmasking sin]. But where sin increased, [God's remarkable, gracious gift of] grace [His unmerited favor] has surpassed it and increased all the more, ‡

<sup>21</sup> so that, as sin reigned in death, so also grace would reign through righteousness which brings eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6

Believers Are Dead to Sin, Alive to God

<sup>1</sup> WHAT SHALL we say [to all this]? Should we continue in sin and practice sin as a habit so that [God's gift of] grace may increase and overflow? ‡

<sup>2</sup> Certainly not! How can we, the very ones who died to sin, continue to live in it any longer? ‡

<sup>3</sup> Or are you ignorant of the fact that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? ‡

<sup>4</sup> We have therefore been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory and power of the Father, we too might walk habitually in newness of life [abandoning our old ways]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For if we have become one with Him [permanently united] in the likeness of His death, we will also certainly be [one with Him and share fully] in the likeness of His resurrection. ‡

<sup>6</sup> We know that our old self [our human nature without the Holy Spirit] was nailed to the cross with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For the person who has died [with Christ] has been freed from [the power of] sin. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live [together] with Him, ‡

<sup>9</sup> because we know [the self-evident truth] that Christ, having been raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has power over Him. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For the death that He died, He died to sin [ending its power and paying the sinner's debt] once and for all; and the life that He lives, He lives to [glorify] God [in unbroken fellowship with Him]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Even so, consider yourselves to be dead to sin [and your relationship to it broken], but alive to God [in unbroken fellowship with Him] in Christ Jesus. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts and passions. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Do not go on offering members of your body to sin as instruments of wickedness. But offer yourselves to God [in a decisive act] as those alive [raised] from the dead [to a new life], and your members [all of your abilities —sanctified, set apart] as instruments of righteousness [yielded] to God. ‡

<sup>14</sup> For sin will no longer be a master over you, since you are not under Law [as slaves], but under [unmerited] grace [as recipients of God's favor and mercy]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> What then [are we to conclude]? Shall we sin because we are not under Law, but under [God's] grace? Certainly not! ‡

<sup>16</sup> Do you not know that when you continually offer yourselves to someone to do his will, you are the slaves of the one whom you obey, either [slaves] of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness (right standing with God)? ‡

<sup>17</sup> But thank God that though you were slaves of sin, you became obedient with all your heart to the standard of teaching in which you were instructed and to which you were committed. ‡

<sup>18</sup> And having been set free from sin, you have become the slaves of righteousness [of conformity to God's will and purpose]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

<sup>20</sup> When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness [you had no desire to conform to God's will]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> So what benefit did you get at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? [None!] For the outcome of those things is death! ‡

<sup>22</sup> But now since you have been set free from sin and have become [willing] slaves to God, you have your benefit, resulting in sanctification [being made holy and set apart for God's purpose], and the outcome [of this] is eternal life. ‡

<sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God [that is, His remarkable, overwhelming gift of grace to believers] is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. ‡

Romans 7

Believers United to Christ

<sup>1</sup> OR DO you not know, brothers and sisters (for I am speaking to those who know the Law), that the Law has jurisdiction [to rule] over a person as long as he lives?

<sup>2</sup> For the married woman [as an example] is bound and remains bound by law to her husband while he lives; but if her husband dies, she is released and exempt from the law concerning her husband. ‡

<sup>3</sup>- Accordingly, she will be designated as an adulteress if she unites herself to another man while her husband is alive. But if her husband dies, she is free from the law [regarding marriage], so that she is not an adulteress if she marries another man. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, my fellow believers, you too died to the Law through the [crucified] body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. ‡

<sup>5</sup> When we were living in the flesh [trapped by sin], the sinful passions, which were awakened by [that which] the Law [identifies as sin], were at work in our body to bear fruit for death [since the willingness to sin led to death and separation from God]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But now we have been released from the Law and its penalty, having died [through Christ] to that by which we were held captive, so that we serve [God] in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter [of the Law]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, if it had not been for the Law, I would not have recognized sin. For I would not have known [for example] about coveting [what belongs to another, and would have had no sense of guilt] if the Law had not [repeatedly] said, “YOU SHALL NOT COVET.”  [Ex 20:17; Deut 5:21. ] ‡

<sup>8</sup>—But sin, finding an opportunity through the commandment [to express itself] produced in me every kind of coveting and selfish desire. For without the Law sin is dead [the recognition of sin is inactive]. ‡

<sup>9</sup>—I was once alive without [knowledge of] the Law; but when the commandment came [and I understood its meaning], sin became alive and I died [since the Law sentenced me to death].  [Ps 73:22 ]

<sup>10</sup> And the very commandment which was intended to bring life, actually proved to bring death for me.  [Lev 18:5. ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> For sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, beguiled and completely deceived me, and using it as a weapon killed me [separating me from God].

<sup>12</sup> So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good. ‡

<sup>13</sup>—Did that which is good [the Law], then become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, in order that it might be revealed as sin, was producing death in me by [using] this good thing [as a weapon], so that through the commandment sin would become exceedingly sinful.

The Conflict of Two Natures

<sup>14</sup> We know that the Law is spiritual, but I am a creature of the flesh [worldly, self-reliant—carnal and unspiritual], sold into slavery to sin [and serving under its control]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For I do not understand my own actions [I am baffled and bewildered by them]. I do not practice what I want to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate [and yielding to my human nature, my worldliness—my sinful capacity]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Now if I habitually do what I do not want to do, [that means] I agree with the Law, confessing that it is good (morally excellent).

<sup>17</sup> So now [if that is the case, then] it is no longer I who do it [the disobedient thing which I despise], but the sin [nature] which lives in me.

<sup>18</sup> For I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my flesh [my human nature, my worldliness—my sinful capacity]. For the willingness [to do good] is present in me, but the doing of good is not. ‡

<sup>19</sup> For the good that I want to do, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.

<sup>20</sup> But if I am doing the very thing I do not want to do, I am no longer the one doing it [that is, it is not me that acts], but the sin [nature] which lives in me.

<sup>21</sup> So I find it to be the law [of my inner self], that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good.

<sup>22</sup> For I joyfully delight in the law of God in my inner self [with my new nature],  [Ps 1:2 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> but I see a different law and rule of action in the members of my body [in its appetites and desires], waging war against the law of my mind and subduing me and making me a prisoner of the law of sin which is within my members. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Wretched and miserable man that I am! Who will [rescue me and] set me free from this body of death [this corrupt, mortal existence]?

<sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God [for my deliverance] through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind serve the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh [my human nature, my worldliness, my sinful capacity—I serve] the law of sin. ‡

Romans 8

Escape from Bondage

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE THERE is now no condemnation [no guilty verdict, no punishment] for those who are in Christ Jesus [who believe in Him as personal Lord and Savior].  [John 3:18 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> For the law of the Spirit of life [which is] in Christ Jesus [the law of our new being] has set you free from the law of sin and of death. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For what the Law could not do [that is, overcome sin and remove its penalty, its power] being weakened by the flesh [man's nature without the Holy Spirit], God did: He sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful man as an offering for sin. And He condemned sin in the flesh [subdued it and overcame it in the person of His own Son],  [Lev 7:37 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> so that the [righteous and just] requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us who do not live our lives in the ways of the flesh [guided by worldliness and our sinful nature], but [live our lives] in the ways of the Spirit [guided by His power]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For those who are living according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh [which gratify the body], but those who are living according to the Spirit, [set their minds on] the things of the Spirit [His will and purpose]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Now the mind of the flesh is death [both now and forever—because it pursues sin]; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace [the spiritual well-being that comes from walking with God—both now and forever]; ‡

<sup>7</sup> the mind of the flesh [with its sinful pursuits] is actively hostile to God. It does not submit itself to God's law, since it cannot, ‡

<sup>8</sup> and those who are in the flesh [living a life that caters to sinful appetites and impulses] cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup> However, you are not [living] in the flesh [controlled by the sinful nature] but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God lives in you [directing and guiding you]. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him [and is not a child of God].  [Rom 8:14 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> If Christ lives in you, though your [natural] body is dead because of sin, your spirit is alive because of righteousness [which He provides].

<sup>11</sup> And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit, who lives in you. ‡

<sup>12</sup> So then, brothers and sisters, we have an obligation, but not to our flesh [our human nature, our worldliness, our sinful capacity], to live according to the [impulses of the] flesh [our nature without the Holy Spirit]— ‡

<sup>13</sup> for if you are living according to the [impulses of the] flesh, you are going to die. But if [you are living] by the [power of the Holy] Spirit you are habitually putting to death the sinful deeds of the body, you will [really] live forever. ‡

<sup>14</sup> For all who are allowing themselves to be led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading again to fear [of God's judgment], but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons [the Spirit producing sonship] by which we [joyfully] cry, "Abba! Father!" ‡

<sup>16</sup> The Spirit Himself testifies and confirms together with our spirit [assuring us] that we [believers] are children of God. ‡

<sup>17</sup> And if [we are His] children, [then we are His] heirs also: heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ [sharing His spiritual blessing and inheritance], if indeed we share in His suffering so that we may also share in His glory. [John 17:24; Gal 3:29; 4:7; Eph 1:3, 11; 3:6; Heb 6:12] ‡

<sup>18</sup> For I consider [from the standpoint of faith] that the sufferings of the present life are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is about to be revealed to us and in us! ‡

<sup>20</sup> For the creation was subjected to frustration and futility, not willingly [because of some intentional fault on its part], but by the will of Him who subjected it, in hope [Eccl 1:2] ‡

<sup>21</sup> that the creation itself will also be freed from its bondage to decay [and gain entrance] into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

<sup>22</sup> For we know that the whole creation has been moaning together as in the pains of childbirth until now. [Jer 12:4, 11] ‡

<sup>23</sup> And not only this, but we too, who have the first fruits of the Spirit [a joyful indication of the blessings to come], even we groan inwardly, as we wait eagerly for [the sign of] our adoption as sons—the redemption and transformation of our body [at the resurrection]. [2 Cor 5:2, 4; Eph 4:30] ‡

<sup>24</sup> For in this hope we were saved [by faith]. But hope [the object of] which is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he already sees? ‡

<sup>25</sup> But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait eagerly for it with patience and composure.

Our Victory in Christ

<sup>26</sup> In the same way the Spirit [comes to us and] helps us in our weakness. We do not know what prayer to offer or how to offer it as we should, but the Spirit Himself [knows our need and at the right time] intercedes on our behalf with sighs and groanings too deep for words. ‡

<sup>27</sup> And He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because the Spirit intercedes [before God] on behalf of God's people in accordance with God's will. [Ps 139:1, 2] ‡

<sup>28</sup> And we know [with great confidence] that God [who is deeply concerned about us] causes all things to work together [as a plan] for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to His plan and purpose. ‡

<sup>29</sup> For those whom He foreknew [and loved and chose beforehand], He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son [and ultimately share in His complete sanctification], so that He would be the firstborn [the most beloved and honored] among many believers. ‡

<sup>30</sup> And those whom He predestined, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified [declared free of the guilt of sin]; and those whom He justified, He also glorified [raising them to a heavenly dignity]. ‡

<sup>31</sup> What then shall we say to all these things? If God is for us, who can be [successful] against us?  [Ps 118:6. ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> He who did not spare [even] His own Son, but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also, along with Him, graciously give us all things? ‡

<sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against God's elect (His chosen ones)? It is God who justifies us [declaring us blameless and putting us in a right relationship with Himself]. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Who is the one who condemns us? Christ Jesus is the One who died [to pay our penalty], and more than that, who was raised [from the dead], and who is at the right hand of God interceding [with the Father] for us. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Who shall ever separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

<sup>36</sup> Just as it is written and forever remains written, ‡

“F OR Y OUR SAKE WE ARE PUT TO DEATH ALL DAY LONG ; W E ARE REGARDED AS SHEEP FOR THE SLAUGHTER .”  [Ps 44:22. ]

<sup>37</sup> Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors and gain an overwhelming victory through Him who loved us [so much that He died for us]. ‡

<sup>38</sup> For I am convinced [and continue to be convinced—beyond any doubt] that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present and threatening, nor things to come, nor powers, ‡

<sup>39</sup>—nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the [unlimited] love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9

Concern for Israel

<sup>1</sup> I AM telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience testifies with me [enlightened and prompted] by the Holy Spirit, ‡

<sup>3</sup> For [if it were possible] I would wish that I myself were accursed, [separated, banished] from Christ for the sake [of the salvation] of my brothers, my natural kinsmen,  [Ex 32:32] ‡

<sup>4</sup> who are Israelites, to whom belongs the adoption as sons, the glory (Shekinah), the [special] covenants [with Abraham, Moses, and David], the giving of the Law, the [system of temple] worship, and the [original] promises.  [Ex 4:22; Hos 11:1] ‡

<sup>5</sup> To them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to His natural descent, came the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed), He who is exalted and supreme over all, God blessed forever. Amen. ‡

<sup>6</sup> However, it is not as though God's word has failed [coming to nothing]. For not all who are descended from Israel (Jacob) are [the true] Israel; ‡

<sup>7</sup> and they are not all the children of Abraham because they are his descendants [by blood], but [the promise was]: "Y OUR DESCENDANTS WILL BE NAMED THROUGH I SAAC" [though Abraham had other sons].  [Gen 21:9–12] ‡

<sup>9</sup> For this is what the promise said: "A BOUT THIS TIME [next year] I WILL COME , AND S ARAH SHALL HAVE A SON ."  [Gen 18:10] ‡

<sup>10</sup> And not only that, but this too: Rebekah conceived twin sons by one man [under the same circumstances], by our father Isaac; ‡

<sup>11</sup> and though the twins were not yet born and had not done anything either good or bad, so that God's purpose [His choice, His election] would stand, not because of works [done by either child], but because of [the plan of] Him who calls them, ‡

<sup>12</sup> it was said to her, "T HE OLDER (Esau) WILL SERVE THE YOUNGER (Jacob)."  [Gen 25:21–23] ‡

<sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? Certainly not! ‡

<sup>15</sup> For He says to Moses, "I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOMEVER I HAVE MERCY ,

AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOMEVER I HAVE COMPASSION .”  [Ex 33:19 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> So then God’s choice is not dependent on human will, nor on human effort [the totality of human striving], but on God who shows mercy [to whomever He chooses—it is His sovereign gift].

<sup>17</sup> For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “I RAISED YOU UP FOR THIS VERY PURPOSE , TO DISPLAY M Y POWER IN [dealing with] YOU , AND SO THAT M Y NAME WOULD BE PROCLAIMED IN ALL THE EARTH .”  [Ex 9:16 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> So then, He has mercy on whom He wills (chooses), and He hardens [the heart of] whom He wills.

<sup>19</sup> You will say to me then, “Why does He still blame me [for sinning]? For who [including myself] has [ever] resisted His will and purpose?” ‡

<sup>20</sup> On the contrary, who are you, O man, who answers [arrogantly] back to God and dares to defy Him? Will the thing which is formed say to him who formed it, “Why have you made me like this?”  [Is 29:16 ; 45:9 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> Does the potter not have the right over the clay, to make from the same lump [of clay] one object for honorable use [something beautiful or distinctive] and another for common use [something ordinary or menial]? ‡

<sup>22</sup> What if God, although willing to show His [terrible] wrath and to make His power known, has tolerated with great patience the objects of His wrath [which are] prepared for destruction?  [Prov 16:4 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> And what if He has done so to make known the riches of His glory to the objects of His mercy, which He has prepared beforehand for glory, ‡

<sup>24</sup> including us, whom He also called, not only from among the Jews, but also from among the Gentiles? ‡

<sup>25</sup> Just as He says in [the writings of the prophet] Hosea: ‡

“I WILL CALL THOSE WHO WERE NOT M Y PEOPLE , ‘M Y PEOPLE ,’
A ND [I will call] HER WHO WAS NOT BELOVED , ‘ BELOVED .’ ”  [Hos 2:23 ]

<sup>26</sup> “A ND IT SHALL BE THAT IN THE PLACE WHERE IT WAS SAID TO THEM , ‘ YOU ARE NOT M Y PEOPLE , ’ ‡

T HERE THEY SHALL BE CALLED SONS OF THE LIVING G OD .”  [Hos 1:10 ]

<sup>27</sup> And Isaiah calls out concerning Israel: “T HOUGH THE NUMBER OF THE SONS OF I SRAEL BE LIKE THE SAND OF THE SEA , IT IS ONLY THE REMNANT [a small believing minority] THAT WILL BE SAVED [from God’s judgment]; ‡

<sup>28</sup> F OR THE L ORD WILL EXECUTE H IS WORD UPON THE EARTH [He will conclude

His dealings with mankind] COMPLETELY AND WITHOUT DELAY .”  [Is 10:22, 23 ]

“I F THE L ORD OF H OSTS HAD NOT LEFT US SEED [future generations from which a believing remnant of Israelites came], W E WOULD HAVE BECOME LIKE S ODOM , AND WOULD HAVE RESEMBLED G OMORRAH [totally rejected and destroyed]!”  [Is 1:9 ]

<sup>30</sup> What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness [who did not seek salvation and a right relationship with God, nevertheless] obtained righteousness, that is, the righteousness which is produced by faith; ‡

<sup>31</sup> whereas Israel, [though always] pursuing the law of righteousness, did not succeed in fulfilling the law.  [Is 51:1 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> And why not? Because it was not by faith [that they pursued it], but as though it were by works [relying on the merit of their works instead of their faith]. They stumbled over the stumbling Stone [Jesus Christ].  [Is 8:14; 28:16 ] ‡

<sup>33</sup> As it is written and forever remains written, ‡

“B EHOLD I AM LAYING IN Z ION A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE ;

A ND HE WHO BELIEVES IN H IM [whoever adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED [in his expectations].”  [Is 28:16 ]

Romans 10

The Word of Faith Brings Salvation

<sup>1</sup> BROTHERS AND sisters, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation.

<sup>2</sup> For I testify about them that they have a certain enthusiasm for God, but not in accordance with [correct and vital] knowledge [about Him and His purposes]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For not knowing about God’s righteousness [which is based on faith], and seeking to establish their own [righteousness based on works], they did not submit to God's righteousness.‡

<sup>4</sup> For Christ is the end of the law [it leads to Him and its purpose is fulfilled in Him], for [granting] righteousness to everyone who believes [in Him as Savior].‡

<sup>5</sup> For Moses writes that the man who practices the righteousness which is based on law [with all its intricate demands] shall live by it.  [Lev 18:5.]‡

<sup>6</sup> But the righteousness based on faith [which produces a right relationship with Him] says the following: "D O NOT SAY IN YOUR HEART , 'W HO WILL ASCEND INTO H EAVEN ?' that is, to bring Christ down;‡

<sup>7</sup> or, 'W HO WILL DESCEND INTO THE ABYSS ?' that is, to bring Christ up from the dead [as if we had to be saved by our own efforts, doing the impossible]."  [Deut 30:12, 13.]

<sup>8</sup> But what does it say? "T HE WORD IS NEAR YOU , IN YOUR MOUTH AND IN YOUR HEART"—that is, the word [the message, the basis] of faith which we preach —  [Deut 30:14.]‡

<sup>9</sup> because if you acknowledge and confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord [recognizing His power, authority, and majesty as God], and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.‡

<sup>10</sup> For with the heart a person believes [in Christ as Savior] resulting in his justification [that is, being made righteous—being freed of the guilt of sin and made acceptable to God]; and with the mouth he acknowledges and confesses [his faith openly], resulting in and confirming [his] salvation.

<sup>11</sup> For the Scripture says, "W HOEVER BELIEVES IN H IM [whoever adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED [in his expectations]."  [Is 28:16.]‡

<sup>12</sup> For there is no distinction between Jew and Gentile; for the same Lord is Lord over all [of us], and [He is] abounding in riches (blessings) for all who call on Him [in faith and prayer].‡

<sup>13</sup> For " WHOEVER CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD [in prayer] WILL BE SAVED ."  [Joel 2:32.]‡

<sup>14</sup> But how will people call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how will they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher (messenger)?‡

<sup>15</sup> And how will they preach unless they are commissioned and sent [for that purpose]? Just as it is written and forever remains written, "H OW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE FEET OF THOSE WHO BRING GOOD NEWS OF GOOD THINGS !"  [Is 52:7.]‡

<sup>16</sup> But they did not all pay attention to the good news [of salvation]; for Isaiah says, "LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT ?"  [Is 53:1.]‡

<sup>17</sup> So faith comes from hearing [what is told], and what is heard comes by the [preaching of the] message concerning Christ.

<sup>18</sup> But I say, did they not hear? Indeed they have; ‡

“T HEIR VOICE [that of creation bearing God’s message] HAS GONE OUT TO ALL THE EARTH ,
A ND THEIR WORDS TO THE [farthest] ENDS OF THE WORLD .”  [Ps 19:4, 7–11 ]

<sup>19</sup> But I say, did Israel fail to understand [that the gospel was to go also to the Gentiles]? First Moses says, ‡

“I WILL MAKE YOU JEALOUS OF THOSE WHO ARE NOT A NATION
(Gentiles);
W ITH A NATION THAT LACKS UNDERSTANDING I WILL MAKE YOU
ANGRY .”  [Deut 32:21 ]

<sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah is very bold and says, ‡

“I HAVE BEEN FOUND BY THOSE WHO DID NOT SEEK M E ;
I HAVE SHOWN M YSELF TO THOSE WHO DID NOT [consciously] ASK
FOR M E .”  [Is 65:1 ]

<sup>21</sup> But of Israel he says, “ALL DAY LONG I HAVE STRETCHED OUT MY HANDS [in compassion] TO A DISOBEDIENT AND OBSTINATE PEOPLE .”  [Is 65:2 ] ‡

Romans 11

Israel Is Not Cast Away

<sup>1</sup> I SAY then, has God rejected and disowned His people? Certainly not! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.  [1 Sam 12:22 ; Jer 31:37 ; 33:24–26 ; Phil 3:5 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> God has not rejected His [chosen] people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?  [Ps 94:14 ; 1 Kin 19 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Lord, THEY HAVE KILLED Y OUR PROPHETS , THEY HAVE TORN DOWN Y OUR ALTARS , AND I ALONE AM LEFT [of the prophets], AND THEY ARE SEEKING MY LIFE .”

<sup>4</sup> But what is God's response to him? "I HAVE KEPT for Myself SEVEN THOUSAND MEN WHO HAVE NOT BOWED THE KNEE TO B AAL ."  [1 Kin 19:18. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> So too then, at the present time there has come to be a remnant [a small believing minority] according to God's gracious choice. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But if it is by grace [God's unmerited favor], it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace [it would not be a gift but a reward for works]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking [that is, God's favor by obedience to the Law], but the elect [those chosen few] obtained it, while the rest of them became hardened and callously indifferent; ‡

<sup>8</sup> just as it is written [in Scripture], ‡

"G OD GAVE THEM A SPIRIT OF STUPOR , E YES THAT DO NOT SEE AND EARS THAT DO NOT HEAR ,
[a spiritual apathy that has continued] TO THIS VERY DAY ." [
Deut 29:4; Is 29:10.]

<sup>9</sup> And David says, ‡

"L ET THEIR TABLE (abundance) BECOME A SNARE AND A TRAP ,
A STUMBLING BLOCK AND A RETRIBUTION TO THEM .  [Ps 69:22. ]

<sup>10</sup> "L ET THEIR EYES BE DARKENED SO THAT THEY DO NOT SEE , ‡
A ND MAKE THEIR BACKS BEND [under their burden] FOREVER ." [

Ps 69:23.]

<sup>11</sup> So I say, have they stumbled so as to fall [to spiritual ruin]? Certainly not! But by their transgression [their rejection of the Messiah] salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make Israel jealous [when they realize what they have forfeited]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Now if Israel's transgression means riches for the world [at large] and their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their fulfillment and reinstatement be!

<sup>13</sup> But now I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, ‡

<sup>14</sup> in the hope of somehow making my fellow countrymen jealous [by stirring them up so that they will seek the truth] and perhaps save some of them. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For if their [present] rejection [of salvation] is for the reconciliation of the world [to God], what will their acceptance [of salvation] be but [nothing less than] life from the dead?

<sup>16</sup> If the first portion [of dough offered as the first fruits] is holy, so is the whole batch; and if the root (Abraham, the patriarchs) is holy, so are the branches (the Israelites).  [Num 15:19–21 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> But if some of the branches were broken off, and you [Gentiles], being like a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them to share with them the rich root of the olive tree, ‡

<sup>18</sup> do not boast over the [broken] branches and exalt yourself at their expense. If you do boast and feel superior, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root that supports you. ‡

<sup>19</sup> You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.”

<sup>20</sup> That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand by your faith [as believers understanding the truth of Christ’s deity]. Do not be conceited, but [rather stand in great awe of God and] fear [Him]; ‡

<sup>21</sup> for if God did not spare the natural branches [because of unbelief], He will not spare you either.

<sup>22</sup> Then appreciate the gracious kindness and the severity of God: to those who fell [into spiritual ruin], severity, but to you, God’s gracious kindness—if you continue in His kindness [by faith and obedience to Him]; otherwise you too will be cut off. ‡

<sup>23</sup> And even they [the unbelieving Jews], if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for God has the power to graft them in again. ‡

<sup>24</sup> For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and against nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much easier will it be to graft these who are the natural branches back into [the original parent stock of] their own olive tree?

<sup>25</sup> I do not want you, believers, to be unaware of this mystery [God’s previously hidden plan]—so that you will not be wise in your own opinion—that a partial hardening has [temporarily] happened to Israel [to last] until the full number of the Gentiles has come in; ‡

<sup>26</sup> and so [at that time] all Israel [that is, all Jews who have a personal faith in Jesus as Messiah] will be saved; just as it is written [in Scripture], ‡

“T HE D ELIVERER (Messiah) WILL COME FROM Z ION , H E WILL REMOVE UNGODLINESS FROM J ACOB .”  [Is 59:20, 21 ]

<sup>27</sup> “T HIS IS M Y COVENANT WITH THEM , ‡

WHEN I TAKE AWAY THEIR SINS .”  [Is 27:9 ; Jer 31:33 ]

<sup>28</sup> From the standpoint of the gospel, the Jews [at present] are enemies [of God] for your sake [which is for your benefit], but from the standpoint of God’s choice [of the Jews as His people], they are still loved by Him for the sake of the fathers. ‡

<sup>29</sup> For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable [for He does not withdraw what He has given, nor does He change His mind about those to whom He gives His grace or to whom He sends His call]. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Just as you once were disobedient and failed to listen to God, but have now obtained mercy because of their disobedience, ‡

<sup>31</sup> so they too have now become disobedient so that they too may one day receive mercy because of the mercy shown to you.

<sup>32</sup> For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that He may show mercy to all [Jew and Gentile alike]. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and decisions and how unfathomable and untraceable are His ways! ‡

<sup>34</sup> For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, OR WHO HAS BEEN HIS COUNSELOR ?  [Is 40:13 , 14 ] ‡

<sup>35</sup> Or WHO HAS FIRST GIVEN TO HIM THAT IT WOULD BE PAID BACK TO HIM ? ‡

<sup>36</sup> For from Him [all things originate] and through Him [all things live and exist] and to Him are all things [directed]. To Him be glory and honor forever! Amen. ‡

Romans 12

Dedicated Service

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies [dedicating all of yourselves, set apart] as a living sacrifice, holy and well-pleasing to God, which is your rational (logical, intelligent) act of worship. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And do not be conformed to this world [any longer with its superficial values and customs], but be transformed and progressively changed [as you mature spiritually] by the renewing of your mind [focusing on godly values and ethical attitudes], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect [in His plan and purpose for you].‡

<sup>3</sup> For by the grace [of God] given to me I say to everyone of you not to think more highly of himself [and of his importance and ability] than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment, as God has apportioned to each a degree of faith [and a purpose designed for service].‡

<sup>4</sup> For just as in one [physical] body we have many parts, and these parts do not all have the same function or special use,‡

<sup>5</sup> so we, who are many, are [nevertheless just] one body in Christ, and individually [we are] parts one of another [mutually dependent on each other].‡

<sup>6</sup> Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to use them accordingly: if [someone has the gift of] prophecy, [let him speak a new message from God to His people] in proportion to the faith possessed;‡

<sup>7</sup> if service, in the act of serving; or he who teaches, in the act of teaching;‡

<sup>8</sup> or he who encourages, in the act of encouragement; he who gives, with generosity; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy [in caring for others], with cheerfulness.‡

<sup>11</sup> never lagging behind in diligence; aglow in the Spirit, enthusiastically serving the Lord;

<sup>15</sup> Rejoice with those who rejoice [sharing others' joy], and weep with those who weep [sharing others' grief].‡

<sup>16</sup> Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty [conceited, self-important, exclusive], but associate with humble people [those with a realistic self-view]. Do not overestimate yourself.  [Prov 3:7 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> Do not be overcome and conquered by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 13

Be Subject to Government

<sup>1</sup> LET EVERY person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God [granted by His permission and sanction], and those which exist have been put in place by God.  [Prov 8:15 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> Therefore whoever resists [governmental] authority resists the ordinance of God. And those who have resisted it will bring judgment (civil penalty) on themselves. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For [civil] authorities are not a source of fear for [people of] good behavior, but for [those who do] evil. Do you want to be unafraid of authority? Do what is good and you will receive approval and commendation. ‡

<sup>4</sup> For he is God's servant to you for good. But if you do wrong, [you should] be afraid; for he does not carry the [executioner's] sword for nothing. He is God's servant, an avenger who brings punishment on the wrongdoer.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore one must be subject [to civil authorities], not only to escape the punishment [that comes with wrongdoing], but also as a matter of principle [knowing what is right before God]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> For this same reason you pay taxes, for civil authorities are God's servants, devoting themselves to governance.

<sup>7</sup> Pay to all what is due: tax to whom tax is due, customs to whom customs, respect to whom respect, honor to whom honor. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Owe nothing to anyone except to love and seek the best for one another; for he who [unselfishly] loves his neighbor has fulfilled the [essence of the] law [relating to one's fellowman].  [Matt 22:36–40 ] ‡

9 The commandments, "YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY , YOU SHALL NOT MURDER , YOU SHALL NOT STEAL , YOU SHALL NOT COVET ,” and any other commandment are summed up in this statement: "YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF ."  [Ex 20:13–17; Lev 19:18 ] ‡

10 Love does no wrong to a neighbor [it never hurts anyone]. Therefore [unselfish] love is the fulfillment of the Law. ‡

11 Do this, knowing that this is a critical time. It is already the hour for you to awaken from your sleep [of spiritual complacency]; for our salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed [in Christ]. ‡

12 The night [this present evil age] is almost gone and the day [of Christ's return] is almost here. So let us fling away the works of darkness and put on the [full] armor of light. ‡

13 Let us conduct ourselves properly and honorably as in the [light of] day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and irresponsibility, not in quarreling and jealousy. ‡

14 But clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for [nor even think about gratifying] the flesh in regard to its improper desires. ‡

Romans 14

Principles of Conscience

1 AS FOR the one whose faith is weak, accept him [into your fellowship], but not for [the purpose of] quarreling over his opinions. ‡

2 One man's faith permits him to eat everything, while the weak believer eats only vegetables [to avoid eating ritually unclean meat or something previously considered unclean]. ‡

3 The one who eats [everything] is not to look down on the one who does not eat, and the one who does not eat must not criticize or pass judgment on the one who eats [everything], for God has accepted him. ‡

4 Who are you to judge the servant of another? Before his own master he stands [approved] or falls [out of favor]. And he [who serves the Master—the Lord] will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand. ‡

5 One person regards one day as better [or more important] than another, while another regards every day [the same as any other]. Let everyone be fully convinced (assured, satisfied) in his own mind. ‡

<sup>6</sup> He who observes the day, observes it for the Lord. He who eats, eats for the Lord, since he gives thanks to God; while he who abstains, abstains for the Lord and gives thanks to God. ‡

<sup>7</sup> None of us lives for himself [for his own benefit, but for the Lord], and none of us dies for himself [but for the Lord]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> If we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. So then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

<sup>9</sup> For Christ died and lived again for this reason, that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living. ‡

<sup>10</sup> But you, why do you criticize your brother? Or you again, why do you look down on your [believing] brother or regard him with contempt? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God [who alone is judge]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For it is written [in Scripture], ‡

A N D E V E R Y T O N G U E S H A L L G I V E P R A I S E T O G O D . ”  [I s 45:23 ]

<sup>12</sup> So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then let us not criticize one another anymore, but rather determine this—not to put an obstacle or a stumbling block or a source of temptation in another believer's way. ‡

<sup>14</sup> I know and am convinced [as one] in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean [ritually defiled, and unholy] in itself; but [nonetheless] it is unclean to anyone who thinks it is unclean. ‡

<sup>15</sup> If your brother is being hurt or offended because of food [that you insist on eating], you are no longer walking in love [toward him]. Do not let what you eat destroy and spiritually harm one for whom Christ died. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Therefore do not let what is a good thing for you [because of your freedom to choose] be spoken of as evil [by someone else]; ‡

<sup>18</sup> For the one who serves Christ in this way [recognizing that food choice is secondary] is acceptable to God and is approved by men. ‡

<sup>19</sup> So then, let us pursue [with enthusiasm] the things which make for peace and the building up of one another [things which lead to spiritual growth]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Do not, for the sake of food, tear down the work of God. All things indeed are [ceremonially] clean, but they are wrong for the person who eats and offends [another's conscience in the process]. ‡

21. It is good [to do the right thing and] not eat meat or drink wine, or do anything that offends your brother and weakens him spiritually. ‡

22. The faith which you have [that gives you freedom of choice], have as your own conviction before God [just keep it between yourself and God, seeking His will]. Happy is he who has no reason to condemn himself for what he approves. ‡

23. But he who is uncertain [about eating a particular thing] is condemned if he eats, because he is not acting from faith. Whatever is not from faith is sin [whatever is done with doubt is sinful]. ‡

Romans 15

Self-denial on Behalf of Others

1 NOW WE who are strong [in our convictions and faith] ought to [patiently] put up with the weaknesses of those who are not strong, and not just please ourselves. ‡

2 Let each one of us [make it a practice to] please his neighbor for his good, to build him up spiritually. ‡

3. For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written [in Scripture], “T HE REPROACHES OF THOSE WHO REPROACHED Y OU (the Father) FELL ON M E (the Son).” [Ps 69:9] ‡

4 For whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope and overflow with confidence in His promises. ‡

5 Now may the God who gives endurance and who supplies encouragement grant that you be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus, ‡

6 so that with one accord you may with one voice glorify and praise and honor the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

7 Therefore, [continue to] accept and welcome one another, just as Christ has accepted and welcomed us to the glory of [our great] God. ‡

8 For I tell you that Christ has become a servant and a minister to the circumcision (Jews) on behalf of God's truth, to confirm and verify the promises made to the fathers, ‡

9. and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy [to them, since God had no covenant with them]. As it is written and forever remains written,‡

“T HEREFOR I PRAISE Y OU AMONG THE G ENTILES ,
A ND SING PRAISES TO Y OUR NAME .”  [Ps 18:49 ]

<sup>10</sup> Again it says,‡

“R EJOICE and CELEBRATE , O G ENTILES , ALONG WITH H IS PEOPLE .”  [Deut 32:43 ]

<sup>11</sup> And again,‡

“P RAISE THE L ORD ALL YOU G ENTILES ,
A ND LET ALL THE PEOPLES PRAISE H IM !”  [Ps 117:1 ]

12 Again Isaiah says,‡

“T HERE SHALL BE A ROOT OF J ESSE ,
H E WHO ARISES TO RULE [as King] OVER THE G ENTILES ,
I N H IM SHALL THE G ENTILES HOPE .”  [Is 11:1, 10; Rev 5:5; 22:16

<sup>13</sup> May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing [through the experience of your faith] that by the power of the Holy Spirit you will abound in hope and overflow with confidence in His promises.‡

<sup>14</sup> Personally I am convinced about you, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, amply filled with all [spiritual] knowledge, and competent to admonish and counsel and instruct one another.‡

<sup>15</sup> Still, on some points I have written to you very boldly and without reservation to remind you [about them] again, because of the grace that was given to me from God,‡

<sup>16</sup> to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles. I minister as a priest the gospel of God, in order that my offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable [to Him], sanctified [made holy and set apart for His purpose] by the Holy Spirit.‡

<sup>17</sup> In Christ Jesus, then, I have found [legitimate] reason for boasting in things related [to my service] to God.‡

<sup>18</sup> For I will not [even] presume to speak of anything except what Christ has done through me [as an instrument in His hands], resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles [to the gospel], by word and deed, ‡

<sup>19</sup> with the power of signs and wonders, [and all of it] in the power of the Spirit. So [starting] from Jerusalem and as far away as Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel [faithfully preaching the good news] of Christ [where it had not before been preached]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Accordingly I set a goal to preach the gospel, not where Christ's name was already known, so that I would not build on another man's foundation; ‡

<sup>21</sup> but [instead I would act on this goal] as it is written [in Scripture], ‡

“T HEY WHO HAD NO NEWS OF H IM SHALL SEE , A ND THEY WHO HAVE NOT HEARD [of Him] SHALL UNDERSTAND .”
 [Is 52:15. ]

<sup>22</sup> This [goal—my commitment to this principle] is the reason why I have often been prevented from coming to you [in Rome]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> But now, with no further place for work in these regions, and since I have longed for many years to come to you— ‡

<sup>24</sup> whenever I go [on my trip] to Spain—I hope to see you as I pass through [Rome], and to be helped on my journey there by you, after I have first enjoyed your company for a little while. ‡

<sup>25</sup>—But for now, I am going to Jerusalem to serve the saints (Jewish believers). ‡

<sup>26</sup> For [Gentile believers in] Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints (Jewish believers) in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>27</sup> They were pleased to do it, and they are indebted to them. For if the Gentiles have come to share in their spiritual things, then they are indebted to serve them also in [tangible] material things. ‡

<sup>28</sup>—Therefore, when I have finished this [mission] and have safely given to them what has been raised, I will go on by way of you to Spain. ‡

<sup>29</sup>—I know that when I do come to you, I will come in the abundant blessing of Christ. ‡

<sup>30</sup> I urge you, believers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join together with me in your prayers to God in my behalf, ‡

<sup>31</sup> [and pray] that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints (Jewish believers) there; ‡

<sup>32</sup> so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and find rest in your

<sup>33</sup> May the God of peace be with you all! Amen. ‡

Romans 16

Greetings and Love Expressed

<sup>1</sup> NOW I introduce and commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deaconess (servant) of the church at Cenchrea, ‡

<sup>2</sup> that you may receive her in the Lord [with love and hospitality], as God's people ought to receive one another. And that you may help her in whatever matter she may require assistance from you, for she has been a helper of many, including myself. ‡

<sup>4</sup> who risked their own necks [endangering their very lives] for my life. To them not only do I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

<sup>5</sup> Also greet the church that meets in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who is the first convert to Christ from [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Greet Mary, who has worked so hard for you.

<sup>7</sup> Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and [once] my fellow prisoners, who are held in high esteem in the estimation of the apostles, and who were [believers] in Christ before me. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Greet Apelles, the one tested and approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.

<sup>11</sup> Greet my kinsman Herodion. Greet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> Greet those workers in the Lord, Tryphaena and Tryphosa. Greet my beloved Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Greet Rufus, an eminent and choice man in the Lord, also his mother [who has been] a mother to me as well. ‡

<sup>17</sup> I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep your eyes on those who cause dissensions and create obstacles or introduce temptations [for others] to commit sin, [acting in ways] contrary to the doctrine which you have learned. Turn away from them. ‡

<sup>18</sup> For such people do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites and base desires. By smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting [the innocent and the naive]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> For the report of your obedience has reached everyone, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise in what is good and innocent in what is evil. ‡

<sup>20</sup> The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. ‡

The [wonderful] grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

<sup>21</sup> Timothy, my fellow worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen. ‡

<sup>22</sup> I, Tertius, the writer (scribe) of this letter, greet you in the Lord.

<sup>23</sup> Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church here, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus, greet you. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Now to Him who is able to establish and strengthen you [in the faith] according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery [of the plan of salvation] which has been kept secret for long ages past, ‡

<sup>26</sup> but now has been disclosed and through the prophetic Scriptures has been made known to all the nations, according to the commandment of the eternal God, leading them to obedience to the faith, ‡

<sup>27</sup> to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory forevermore! Amen.

Annotations for Romans

1:1 bond-servant. A bond-servant is a slave. Paul is talking about a slavery taken voluntarily out of love (see Ex 21:1–6 ), unlike the forced slavery known to so many in the Roman Empire.

1:4 designated. Jesus did not become the Son of God by the resurrection. Instead, the resurrection proved that Jesus was the Son of God.

1:14 barbarians. Paul is referring to the non-Greek Gentile populations, such as the northern European peoples, the Britons, the Gauls, and the Celts.

1:17 from faith and leading to faith. Faith is at the beginning of the salvation process, and it is the goal as well. Paul had faith that God, through the Holy Spirit, could and would build true righteousness in him. For the believer this means prayerful self-examination, prayer to do better, and careful response to those inner nudges that say, “don’t say that . . . have pity . . . encourage him,” etc.

1:18–19 There Are No Excuses— Someone once said there were two points they understood about God: (1) “There is a God”; and (2) “I am not Him.” Theologians use the term “general revelation” to describe the concept Paul is teaching here in Romans 1 . God has revealed Himself through His creation so that everyone can understand that He exists and that He has created the world and man with a purpose. God created man with an inner sense that there is something bigger out there, something that transcends mankind. That something is God and He requires recognition. The created world points us to God, but we suppress that truth, preferring to put ourselves in the place of God, in effect saying, “There is no God but me.” Paul further says that, because the revelation is so clear, we have no excuse for missing it, no legitimate reason for our blindness. People who do not see it are guilty of not acknowledging the most basic reality there is. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:25 lie. This refers to the kind of wrong thinking that led to idol worship. This “lie” refuses to honor both God’s law and His authority. When people stop knowing that God created the universe, that it is His, they adopt all kinds of wrong thinking about sin, society, morality, and especially, the role of God Himself.

1:27 committing shameful acts. Homosexuality is sin (Lev 18:22 ), and the actions that are part of this lifestyle are called “shameful” by God. In this passage Paul explains that homosexual sin is the result of men having rejected God and exchanged what is natural for the unnatural. The problems from this way of living are themselves the “recompense” for this choice.

1:29–32 were filled (permeated, saturated) with every kind of unrighteousness. These verses contain one of the most complete lists of sin in all of Scripture. This passage addresses not only the fact that God judges rightly that these sins are deserving of death, but it also addresses the idea that approving of these sins is something God judges.

2:1–4 judges. Paul points out in this passage that anyone who judges others condemns himself, for in this list of sins is something that everyone has been guilty of in one way or another. Paul asks if the judges realize that it is God in His goodness who leads one to repentance, and that only God can judge rightly. Only He can judge the actions of the heart and person without condemning Himself, for only He is without sin.

2:4 repentance. Literally, this means “to change one’s mind.” In this context it means to reject one’s sinful habits and turn to God.

2:7–8 doing good . . . eternal life. According to these verses it might seem that “eternal life” can be gained by “doing good.” But Romans clearly teaches justification by faith (3:22 ). The subject of this verse is judgment, not justification. Jesus said that “on the day of judgment people will have to give an accounting for every careless or useless word they speak” (Mt 12:36 ). Even Christians will see both the good and the evil that they have done. They are justified (considered righteous and therefore not punished for their sins because they have accepted Christ’s death on their behalf) but they still have to see what they have done according to God’s righteous judgment. Good works are “a good foundation for the future” (1Ti 6:17–19 ).

2:12 without the Law. Gentiles, who did not receive the Mosaic law, were sometimes described by this term.

2:14 do instinctively the things the Law requires. Gentiles who still do such things as honor their parents, respond in kindness, or live honestly, show that they do have the idea of a basic moral law and the concepts of right and wrong.

2:16 secrets. According to the gospel that Paul preached, God will judge not only people’s actions, but their motives, or “secrets.”

2:17–25 Self-Righteousness— Paul speaks of the lamentable disparity between the truth that the Jews knew, and their practice of the truth. Boasting about having God’s law, while breaking the law in their lives, brings upon them the strongest condemnation, and establishes the truth that the law can only condemn. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:29 by the Spirit, not by [the fulfillment of] the letter. The internal circumcision of the heart is the work of the Holy Spirit. God condemns external observance if it is not the product of a righteous heart (Isa 1:10–18 ).

3:2 oracles of God. The entire Old Testament, the laws and the covenants that have been given by God Himself to the nation of Israel are the “oracles,” or the things that God has “spoken.”

3:16 D ESTRUCTION AND MISERY. In verses 10–18 , Paul quotes without formal introduction a number of different verses from the Old Testament. In these passages it is shown that man not only does not seek God, but apart from Him they lack true goodness and will treat each other with violence, cursing, being quick to kill, and finding only “destruction and misery.”

3:18 FEAR OF G OD. This is an Old Testament expression for respect and reverence for God.

3:20 justified. A legal term used of the defendant in a trial, “justified” means “declared righteous.” No one will be declared righteous by doing what God requires in the law.

3:23 Universal Sin— We generally avoid the word sin. We want to call it something other than what it is because we don’t like the implications of the word. We don’t like being told we’re rebels, that we’re flawed and bent in our very natures, and that there is nothing we can do about it on our own (Ge 3:6–7 ). We have this innate sense that we can overcome the problem with a little more effort or maturity. Even that innate sense is an illustration of the problem. The bold hard facts always point us back to Paul’s conclusions; “we’re sinners,” period. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:24 redemption. Those who believe are “justified,” that is, declared righteous, freely, by God’s grace or favor. Christ Jesus died to provide “redemption,” (or to “buy back,” in the same way we “redeem” a promissory note). He died to pay the price required to ransom sinners. He transfers His righteousness to those who believe in Him, and on the basis of Christ’s righteousness alone, believers can approach God’s throne with praise.

3:25 reconciliation (propitiation). By His death, Christ satisfied the justice of God. The word “reconciliation” or “propitiation” refers to appeasement. No man can ever appease God, for His wrath over sin and His judgment of sin is totally just. But God in His mercy provided that appeasement through Jesus Christ, who died on the cross to pay for the sins of the world and to open the way for sinners to come before our Holy God.

3:27 principle of faith. The “principle of faith” is a kind of play on words. Paul has been talking about the fact that the law (translated “principle” here) does not give people a right relationship with God.

The only “law” about having this relationship is that it must be by “faith,” not by deeds, whether people are Jewish or Gentile. We can never earn our salvation.

3:31 nullify the Law. In this passage the question of making the law void, or as nothing, and “establishing the law” means that if salvation is received by faith, it would seem like the law was of no value. But actually the fact that Christ came, which was promised through the whole Old Testament, and that He kept the law perfectly, establishes the law as being valid. Only after salvation can people keep the law at all, as Jesus explained in Matthew 22:40, for the law is summed up in loving God and loving our neighbor.

4:1 humanly speaking. The term “humanly speaking” means “by his own labor.”

4:16 Abraham, who is the [spiritual] father of us all. God’s promises to Abraham were not based on any performance or ritual, but on Abraham’s belief, so Abraham is the “father” of all who believe.

4:17 gives life to the dead. The description of God as one who “gives life to the dead” refers not only to God making Abraham and Sarah’s dead reproductive systems alive, but also to the fact that God could and did resurrect Jesus. That is the kind of God He is; belief in the resurrection is central to Christianity, and also to our belief in our own eternal life through Christ.

5:1 Justification— God’s gracious justification of the believer does not take place by stages or degrees. It is an instantaneous judicial “not guilty” declaration, based on the perfect obedience and the once-for-all sacrifice of Christ. The believer now has peace with God through Jesus Christ, full pardon of his sins, and the title to eternal life. The crowning gift is an abiding joy and peace in the Lord, which remains in spite of outside circumstances. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:12 one man. The “one man” is Adam.

5:13 charged. This refers to charging something to one’s account, as by an entry made into a ledger. In other words, sin was present in the world from Adam to Moses, but God did not keep an account of sins before the giving of the law because there was no law to obey or disobey. Those after Adam and before Moses did not sin like Adam because there were no prohibitions similar to the law of Moses. But they did sin, and the way we know this is that “death reigned.” They all died.

5:19 the many will be made righteous. Through the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit, the believer who has been declared righteous by God is continually becoming more righteous in thought and action.

5:20 where sin increased . . . grace . . . increased all the more. Once the law had been revealed, the sin which was already there became much more obvious because it had been explicitly illustrated how wrong it was. But grace was even bigger than the sin. Sin can never exceed the grace provided by God, and it loses its threat when compared to the infinite grace of God.

6:6 nailed to the cross with Him. Simply put, a believer is not the same person he or she was before conversion. A believer is a new creation in Christ (2Co 5:17).

6:23 New Life: A Free Gift— This passage gets at the central point of the Christian gospel. When we are separated from God, sin directs our lives and there is a wage, a consequence, for that sin: death and permanent separation from God. In stark contrast, we do not earn a wage from God. His gifts are free and abundant—the gift of eternal life. There is nothing that one can do to earn this incredible gift. Eternal life is just that—eternal—it never ceases. All fear of death and its effects can end. Instead of being separated from God for all eternity, Christians will have union with Him. Jesus Christ accomplished all of this on the cross once and for all. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:3 Adultery— In this passage Paul uses the marriage relationship as an illustration of the believer’s relationship to the law and Christ. A wife cannot leave her husband and marry another without committing adultery, but if her husband is dead, she is free to marry another. In the same way, believers must count the law (reconciliation with God by works) dead, in order to “marry” Christ and have a new life. Believers cannot live by the law and by Grace, any more than a woman can have two husbands. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:6 newness of the Spirit . . . oldness of the letter. Believers have a new life in the Holy Spirit, not in trying to gain life by obeying ancient or old laws.

7:8 without the Law sin is dead. Sin can exist without the law, but without a standard of right and wrong, there can be no judgment of what is sin and what is not.

7:9 when the commandment came [and I understood its meaning], sin became alive. Oddly enough, the very rules against certain behaviors arouse the desire to perform those evil acts.

7:13 become death to me. The problem is not the law; the problem is sin. Through the law, sin is shown for what it is, and realization that we are “dead” in sin. We cannot really “be good,” even when we know what that is.

8:1 Condemnation— God’s justification (“not guilty”), once pronounced, is final. Christ’s death blots out the sins of His people, and when His work is applied to the believer, there is no room for condemnation, for God’s justice has removed all grounds for it forever. This does not mean that the believer does not still deal with overcoming sin on a regular basis, but through the work of the Holy Spirit, he can be free from the tyranny of sin, and for the love of Christ, live in a way that pleases his Savior. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:3 the Law could not do. The law can point out sin, but it cannot do anything about sin itself.

8:4 the [righteous and just] requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us. The believer gains the righteous standard of the law—love—not by means of the law, but by being in Christ and walking “after the Spirit.”

8:15 God the Father— God is the Father of all who believe in Christ in a special sense not shared by unbelievers. God is called their Father, first of all, because they have a new standing before Him. While unbelievers are the offspring of God because He created them (Ac 17:28–29), they do not have the standing of sons or daughters. Their standing is rather as condemned sinners before God the Judge (Jn 3:18 ; Rev 20:11). When a person believes in Christ as Savior, his estate is changed from condemnation to sonship. This new standing grants to all believers the legal right and spiritual privileges of divine sonship: “heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ” (Ro 8:17). He gives them new life (Jn 3:3). This relationship then is a family one involving many of the same realities that exist between an earthly father and child: birth of the child (Jn 3:3); partaking of the father’s nature (2Pe 1:4); the father’s care for the child (Mt 6:32–33 ; 7:9–11); and the father’s discipline of the child (Heb 12:6–8). Furthermore, this new Father-child relationship carries with it new brothers and sisters (Heb 13:1). The one who believes in Christ as Savior enters into the Father-child relationship with God solely on the grounds of Christ’s sonship (Ro 8:17 ; Heb 2:17). Go to Theological Notes Index

8:38–39 The Ultimate Security— The first chapters of Romans contain the most complete and systematic presentation of the gospel in the Scriptures. This passage is the bottom-line statement. Nothing can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ. Sadly, too often we hear those words and aren’t able to apply them to how we live on a day-to-day basis. Satan is known as a deceiver. He will always try to persuade us that God’s love is less than what it is. No matter what the circumstances, no matter how much we mess up, no matter how many powerful forces there are that would try to damage our relationship with Him, God will be there for us with His love. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:39 will be able to separate us. Christ created all things, “in heaven and on earth, [things] visible and invisible,” and He was “before all things, and in Him all things hold together” (Col 1:16–17). If God, who was from the beginning, is for us, no created thing can separate us from His love. Our security in Him is absolute.

9:1 Conscience— This word is used by Paul for the witness within a person which scrutinizes, examines, and renders a verdict on behavior. Paul is saying in the passage that his conscience verifies the truthfulness of his statement that he has great grief over the Jew’s rejection of the gospel. The Holy Spirit is the revealer of truth to the soul, and only as the mind and heart are taught by Scripture and governed by the Holy Spirit is the voice of conscience a reliable guide in life. Go to Theological Notes Index

9:6 not all who are descended from Israel. What about the Jewish people? They had the law, the covenants, and the promises. God has not changed His mind about His chosen people. He always intended for them to understand His whole message, up to and including the Messiah (Christ), as Paul has just explained. But God has, throughout history, always worked with those who believed, not just according to bloodline.

9:15 I WILL HAVE MERCY. God does not “owe” any of us salvation. He has mercy on us in spite of the way we act, not because of the way we act.

9:20 answers [angrily] back to God. Herein lies the divine tension. The Lord says that He does not wish for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance (2Pe 3:9 ). But He also says that no one comes to Jesus unless the Father draws him (Jn 6:44 ). He has mercy on whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires (v. 18 ). Paul insists on God’s right to do as He pleases. Even though God both draws and hardens, He also says that who He is and His worthiness to be worshiped are made plain in creation, so man is without excuse (Ro 1:18–21 ). The question is not, “Why are some saved and some condemned?” Everyone deserves condemnation and it is only by God’s grace that anyone is saved. We can be sure that whatever God does, it will be righteous, and there is a bigger picture than we can understand from our finite point of view. The only real question is, “How can I be saved?”

9:32 stumbled. Being committed to righteousness by works, Israel “stumbled” over the righteousness of faith offered in Christ, just as God had already seen they would and declared through the prophet Isaiah (v. 33 ).

10:3 Self-Righteousness— There are two things which hinder people from submitting themselves to God’s plan of salvation. The first is ignorance of God’s own righteous character, and the second is human pride. No one is ever a candidate for Christ’s righteousness unless he sees himself as utterly devoid of all possibility of attaining it on his own merits. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:4 For Christ is the end of the law. Christ fulfilled all the requirements of the law, and He is also the opening to the only way of righteousness we can ever have.

10:8 T HE WORD IS NEAR YOU. Righteousness by faith is not far off and inaccessible, but it is as near as a person’s mouth and heart.

10:11 W HOEVER. Paul emphasizes the universal offer of salvation.

11:1 has God rejected and disowned His people? Paul points out that he himself is an Israelite, and was chosen by God to be a believer and an apostle. As he develops this thought, Paul reminds us that there has always been a remnant of Israelites whom God has kept true to Himself.

11:8–10 EARS THAT DO NOT HEAR. Paul quotes Isaiah and David to show that Israel’s spiritual indifference was a continual pattern.

11:25 mystery. The mystery is that Israel has been temporarily and partially hardened, but God has not rejected them.

11:26 all Israel. “All Israel” does not mean that every individual in the nation will turn to the Lord. It means that the nation as a whole will be saved, just as the nation as a whole (but not every individual in it) is now rejecting the Lord.

12:1 living sacrifice. In the Old Testament sacrificial system, the “job” of the sacrificial lamb was ended with its death. An individual or household selected an animal according to the dictated forms, and it was sacrificed to cover sins. Since Christ became the final atonement for sin, we no longer need the old system. But Paul is calling believers to consider their whole life as a sacrifice dedicated to God and His purposes, a “living” sacrifice, both holy and single-minded.

12:2 Walking in the Spirit— Confession of sin in itself is not enough to enable the believer to automatically walk in the Spirit. He or she must learn to yield their whole self to God (Ro 6:13 ; Jas 4:7 ). This involves both the body (Ro 12:1 ; 1Co 6:20 ) and the mind (Ro 12:2 ), since what is conceived in the mind is carried out by the body. One’s whole being must be presented by a decisive act of the will to God for His service. Yielding leads not only to dedication but also can result in separation: “do not be conformed to this world” (Ro 12:2). Finally, yielding includes transformation of the mind. This work is said to be accomplished through a lifetime of “renewing” the mind. Man’s mind has been darkened by sin (Ro 8:7 ; Col 1:21) and must be brought to the place where it thinks as God thinks (Eph 4:23). This renewing is said to come especially through prayer in everything (Php 4:6–7) and through constant meditation on the Word of God (Ps 119:1). This transformation is a lifelong process that will not be completed until we are with Christ (Php 1:6 ; 1Jn 3:2). Go to Theological Notes Index

12:4–5 Fellowship— A believer must not view himself exclusively as an individual, but must also see himself as part of the whole, as a member of “one body.” Fellowship in the New Testament sense is not merely companionship, but a partnership, a responsibility to one another that is financial, practical, and spiritual. Go to Theological Notes Index

12:6 prophecy. In its narrower sense, “prophecy” means the revealing of God’s will in a particular situation (Ac 13:1–3).

12:9 Love. There are three words used for love in the New Testament: “self-sacrificial love,” “brotherly love,” and “kindly affection,” the last of which is used in this verse. The greatest proof of the truth of the gospel message and of the reality of Jesus’ love is the love believers show to each other.

12:20 BURNING COALS. Freed from vengeance, believers can give themselves to mercy, even toward their enemies. Such unexpected acts of mercy might even bring them to shame and repentance.

13:9 AS YOURSELF. This is not a command to love ourselves. It is a recognition that we do love ourselves, and a command to love others just as genuinely and sincerely.

13:10 love. “Love” excludes murder, adultery, stealing, and lying. Therefore when we love, we automatically fulfill the prohibitions of the law.

14:1 faith is weak. Those whose faith is weak are not unbelievers, but they have not yet understood (or are not able to understand) some of the deeper thinking about the not so clearly defined situations that a Christian faces.

[14:5 one day as better \[or more important\] than another](#). This verse probably relates to the holy days of the Old Testament ceremonial law. The exhortation does not mean it is wrong to have strong convictions, but that all people must have their own convictions. Concerning “disputable matters,” things that are not clearly defined as sin, we as Christians are supposed to think deeply about these things, and decide what we think best pleases the Lord. We are not supposed to live by default, doing what most others are doing, or being swayed by the strongest voice. We may find that we need to change our original conclusions, but we must do so thoughtfully, not impulsively. We must not condemn others who come to a different conclusion.

14:12 account of himself to God. We must give an account to God for these conclusions we have reached about how to live, and in light of that, we want to be sure that our conclusions do not cause someone else to stumble.

14:14 unclean. “Unclean” means common, and refers to the things prohibited by the Jewish ceremonial law. If anyone considers some activity to be wrong, then for him it is wrong to engage in that activity.

14:15 Selfishness— This chapter concerns weak and strong Christians and their attitudes toward each other in practical matters within the church. If a stronger brother fails to consider the scruples of the weaker brother, the stronger brother violates the obligations of love. He is selfishly putting his own desires above the real needs of one who is weak in faith. Go to Theological Notes Index

14:16 good thing for you . . . be spoken of as evil. Even if you have decided that eating certain foods is in accord with your understanding of what is pleasing to God, if it causes another believer to be grieved by the choice you have made, you should be eager to change. Your freedom should not look like license or gluttony. The kingdom of God is a lot more important than the things we eat and drink.

14:21 offends. A believer does not have to abandon his own convictions, but love should cause him to carefully observe how what he does affects others. It is a sin (v. 23) to do something that you are really convinced is wrong, even if others think it is all right. In light of this, if a believer is influencing another to violate his conscience, even if the believer is not violating his own conscience, he has caused the other brother to “stumble,” and that should not happen.

15:3 Christ. Jesus Christ is the ultimate model for the strong believer. He “did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped . . . but emptied Himself” (Php 2:5–7) so that He could clearly represent God and His cause.

15:9 As it is written. Paul quotes from all three divisions of the Old Testament (the Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms) and from three great Jewish leaders (Moses, David, and Isaiah) to demonstrate that God’s purpose was always to bless the Gentiles through Israel.

15:12 ROOT OF JESSE. This is a title for the Messiah (Christ). Jesse was the father of David, and the Messiah was to be the Son of David. The Messiah is both the Origin and the Offspring of David.

15:25–26 Kindness— One of the New Testament commands is that Christians display kindness toward other believers (12:10). The Macedonian believers had just gathered a love offering for the needy saints in Jerusalem. Such kindness is a response to God’s wonderful kindness to us. In fact, wanting to reach out to others is an evidence of our new birth, and as we bless others in this way, we will find ourselves receiving similar blessings of kindness (Lk 6:38). Go to Theological Notes Index

15:28 Spain. No one knows for sure if Paul ever got to Spain, but he had it on his travel itinerary.

15:29 when I do come to you. Paul did get to Rome, but not in the time frame or way he had thought. God had a special plan for Paul. The Lord would give him the opportunity to testify of his faith in the emperor’s court, but he would do so as a prisoner (Ac 28).

16:3–4 Prisca and Aquila. This married couple is never mentioned separately, perhaps because they ministered so effectively together. Like Paul, they were tentmakers, and worked with him in Corinth and Ephesus. (Ac 18:1–3, 18:26).

16:8–10 Ampliatus . . . Urbanus . . . Stachys . . . Apelles. These were common slave names. Aristobulus. This was a familiar Greek name, and this man may have been the owner of the previously mentioned men, if they were indeed slaves.

16:23 Gaius. “Gaius” of Corinth (1Co 1:14) not only gave Paul lodging, but offered his house as a meeting place for the church.

16:25 mystery. Paul speaks of his message as a “mystery” (see 11:25) because God’s complete plan of salvation was at first hidden but now was being revealed. Part of the mystery is that the church will consist of both Jews and Gentiles united in one body of Christ (Eph 3:1–13).

The First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

► AUTHOR: Pauline authorship of 1 Corinthians is almost universally accepted. Instances of this widely held belief can be found as early as AD 95, when Clement of Rome wrote to the Corinthian church and cited this epistle in regard to the continuing problem of factions among themselves. Paul taught the Word of God in Corinth for eighteen months in AD 51 and 52, leaving Apollos to preach and teach in his absence. When Paul was in Ephesus during his third missionary journey, he became disturbed by reports of discord in the church of Corinth. First Corinthians is a record of Paul's initial response to these problems.

► TIMES: c. AD 56

► KEY VERSE: 1Co 1:10

► THEME: The basic theme of this epistle is the application of Christian principles to carnality in the individual as well as in the church. Paul is responding to a letter he received from the Corinthians concerning five behavioral problems that are causing dissension in one way or another: 1) Divisions in the church; 2) A case of incest; 3) Court cases between members; 4) The abuse of Christian "freedom"; 5) The chaos occurring in connection with celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Paul's ethical responses to the various behaviors of the Corinthian church are based on a theological understanding of what it means to be a part of the people of God in a complex multi-cultural, pagan environment.

1 Corinthians 1

Appeal to Unity

<sup>1</sup> PAUL, CALLED as an apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,‡

<sup>2</sup> To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified (set apart, made holy) in Christ Jesus, who are selected and called as saints (God's people), together with all those who in every place call on and honor the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:‡

<sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.‡

<sup>4</sup> I thank my God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus,‡

<sup>5</sup> so that in everything you were [exceedingly] enriched in Him, in all speech [empowered by the spiritual gifts] and in all knowledge [with insight into the faith].‡

<sup>6</sup> In this way our testimony about Christ was confirmed and established in you,‡

<sup>7</sup> so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift [which comes from the Holy Spirit], as you eagerly wait [with confident trust] for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ [when He returns].‡

<sup>8</sup> And He will also confirm you to the end [keeping you strong and free of any accusation, so that you will be] blameless and beyond reproach in the day [of the return] of our Lord Jesus Christ.‡

<sup>9</sup> God is faithful [He is reliable, trustworthy and ever true to His promise—He can be depended on], and through Him you were called into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.‡

<sup>10</sup> But I urge you, believers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in full agreement in what you say, and that there be no divisions or factions among you, but that you be perfectly united in your way of thinking and in your judgment [about matters of the faith].‡

<sup>11</sup> For I have been informed about you, my brothers and sisters, by those of Chloe's household, that there are quarrels and factions among you.

<sup>12</sup> Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I am [a disciple] of Paul," or "I am [a disciple] of Apollos," or "I am [a disciple] of Cephas (Peter)," or

“I am [a disciple] of Christ.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Has Christ been divided [into different parts]? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? [Certainly not!] ‡

<sup>14</sup>I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, [Acts 18:8 ; Rom 16:23]] ‡

<sup>15</sup> so that no one would say that you were baptized into my name.

<sup>16</sup>Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know if I baptized anyone else. ‡

<sup>17</sup>For Christ did not send me [as an apostle] to baptize, but [commissioned and empowered me] to preach the good news [of salvation]—not with clever and eloquent speech [as an orator], so that the cross of Christ would not be made ineffective [deprived of its saving power]. ‡

The Wisdom of God

<sup>18</sup> For the message of the cross is foolishness [absurd and illogical] to those who are perishing and spiritually dead [because they reject it], but to us who are being saved [by God’s grace] it is [the manifestation of] the power of God. ‡

<sup>19</sup> For it is written and forever remains written, ‡

“I WILL DESTROY THE WISDOM OF THE WISE [the philosophy of the philosophers],

A ND THE CLEVERNESS OF THE CLEVER [who do not know Me] I WILL NULLIFY .” [ Is 29:14 ]

<sup>20</sup> Where is the wise man (philosopher)? Where is the scribe (scholar)? Where is the debater (logician, orator) of this age? Has God not exposed the foolishness of this world’s wisdom? ‡

<sup>21</sup> For since the world through all its [earthly] wisdom failed to recognize God, God in His wisdom was well-pleased through the foolishness of the message preached [regarding salvation] to save those who believe [in Christ and welcome Him as Savior]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> but we preach Christ crucified, [a message which is] to Jews a stumbling block [that provokes their opposition], and to Gentiles foolishness [just utter nonsense], ‡

<sup>24</sup> but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks (Gentiles), Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.  [Rom 8:28 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> [This is] because the foolishness of God [is not foolishness at all and] is wiser than men [far beyond human comprehension], and the weakness of God is stronger than men [far beyond the limits of human effort].

<sup>26</sup> Just look at your own calling, believers; not many [of you were considered] wise according to human standards, not many powerful or influential, not many of high and noble birth. ‡

<sup>27</sup> But God has selected [for His purpose] the foolish things of the world to shame the wise [revealing their ignorance], and God has selected [for His purpose] the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong [revealing their frailty]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> God has selected [for His purpose] the insignificant (base) things of the world, and the things that are despised and treated with contempt, [even] the things that are nothing, so that He might reduce to nothing the things that are, ‡

<sup>29</sup> so that no one may [be able to] boast in the presence of God. ‡

<sup>30</sup> But it is from Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God [revealing His plan of salvation], and righteousness [making us acceptable to God], and sanctification [making us holy and setting us apart for God], and redemption [providing our ransom from the penalty for sin], ‡

<sup>31</sup> so then, as it is written [in Scripture], “H E WHO BOASTS and GLORIES , LET HIM BOAST and GLORY IN THE LORD.”  [Jer 9:24 ] ‡

1 Corinthians 2

Paul's Reliance upon the Spirit

<sup>1</sup> AND WHEN I came to you, brothers and sisters, proclaiming to you the testimony of God [concerning salvation through Christ], I did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom [no lofty words of eloquence or of philosophy as a Greek orator might do]; ‡

<sup>2</sup> for I made the decision to know nothing [that is, to forego philosophical or theological discussions regarding inconsequential things and opinions while] among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified [and the meaning of His redemptive, substitutionary death and His resurrection]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> I came to you in [a state of] weakness and fear and great trembling. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom [using clever rhetoric], but [they were delivered] in demonstration of the [Holy] Spirit [operating through me] and of [His] power [stirring the minds of the listeners and persuading them], ‡

<sup>5</sup> so that your faith would not rest on the wisdom and rhetoric of men, but on the power of God. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Yet we do speak wisdom among those spiritually mature [believers who have teachable hearts and a greater understanding]; but [it is a higher] wisdom not [the wisdom] of this present age nor of the rulers and leaders of this age, who are passing away; ‡

<sup>7</sup> but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom once hidden [from man, but now revealed to us by God, that wisdom] which God predestined before the ages to our glory [to lift us into the glory of His presence]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> None of the rulers of this age recognized and understood this wisdom; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory; ‡

<sup>9</sup> but just as it is written [in Scripture], ‡

“T HINGS WHICH THE EYE HAS NOT SEEN AND THE EAR HAS NOT HEARD , A ND WHICH HAVE NOT ENTERED THE HEART OF MAN , A LL THAT G OD HAS PREPARED FOR THOSE WHO LOVE H IM [who hold Him in affectionate reverence, who obey Him, and who gratefully recognize the benefits that He has bestowed].”  [Is 64:4 ; 65:17 ]

<sup>10</sup> For God has unveiled them and revealed them to us through the [Holy] Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things [diligently], even [sounding and measuring] the [profound] depths of God [the divine counsels and things far beyond human understanding]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For what person knows the thoughts and motives of a man except the man's spirit within him? So also no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the [Holy] Spirit who is from God, so that we may know and understand the [wonderful] things freely given to us by God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> We also speak of these things, not in words taught or supplied by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, combining and interpreting spiritual thoughts with spiritual words [for those being guided by the Holy Spirit].

<sup>14</sup> But the natural [unbelieving] man does not accept the things [the teachings and revelations] of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness [absurd and illogical] to him; and he is incapable of understanding them, because they are spiritually discerned and appreciated, [and he is unqualified to judge spiritual matters]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But the spiritual man [the spiritually mature Christian] judges all things [questions, examines and applies what the Holy Spirit reveals], yet is himself judged by no one [the unbeliever cannot judge and understand the believer's spiritual nature]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND and PURPOSES OF THE LORD, SO AS TO INSTRUCT HIM ? But we have the mind of Christ [to be guided by His thoughts and purposes]. [Is 40:13.] ‡

1 Corinthians 3

Foundations for Living

<sup>1</sup> HOWEVER, BROTHERS and sisters, I could not talk to you as to spiritual people, but [only] as to worldly people [dominated by human nature], mere infants [in the new life] in Christ! ‡

<sup>2</sup> I fed you with milk, not solid food; for you were not yet able to receive it. Even now you are still not ready. ‡

<sup>3</sup> You are still worldly [controlled by ordinary impulses, the sinful capacity]. For as long as there is jealousy and strife and discord among you, are you not unspiritual, and are you not walking like ordinary men [unchanged by faith]? ‡

<sup>4</sup> For when one of you says, "I am [a disciple] of Paul," and another, "I am [a disciple] of Apollos," are you not [proving yourselves unchanged, just] ordinary people?

<sup>7</sup> So neither is the one who plants nor the one who waters anything, but [only] God who causes the growth. ‡

<sup>8</sup> He who plants and he who waters are one [in importance and esteem, working toward the same purpose]; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. ‡

<sup>9</sup> For we are God's fellow workers [His servants working together]; you are God's cultivated field [His garden, His vineyard], God's building.  [Is 61:3 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> According to the [remarkable] grace of God which was given to me [to prepare me for my task], like a skillful master builder I laid a foundation, and now another is building on it. But each one must be careful how he builds on it, ‡

<sup>11</sup> for no one can lay a foundation other than the one which is [already] laid, which is Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>12</sup> But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw,

<sup>13</sup>-each one's work will be clearly shown [for what it is]; for the day [of judgment] will disclose it, because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality and character and worth of each person's work.  [2 Cor 5:10 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> If any person's work which he has built [on this foundation, that is, any outcome of his effort] remains [and survives this test], he will receive a reward.

<sup>15</sup> But if any person's work is burned up [by the test], he will suffer the loss [of his reward]; yet he himself will be saved, but only as [one who has barely escaped] through fire.  [Job 23:10 ]

<sup>16</sup> Do you not know and understand that you [the church] are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells [permanently] in you [collectively and individually]? ‡

<sup>17</sup> If anyone destroys the temple of God [corrupting it with false doctrine], God will destroy the destroyer; for the temple of God is holy (sacred), and that is what you are.

<sup>18</sup> Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool [discarding his worldly pretensions and acknowledging his lack of wisdom], so that he may become [truly] wise.  [Is 5:21 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> and again, “THE LORD KNOWS THE THOUGHTS of the [humanly] wise, THAT THEY ARE USELESS .”  [Ps 94:11 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> So let no one boast in men [about their wisdom, or of having this or that one as a leader]. For all things are yours,‡

<sup>22</sup> whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas (Peter) or the world or life or death or things present or things to come; all things are yours,

<sup>23</sup> and you belong to Christ; and Christ belongs to God.‡

1 Corinthians 4

Servants of Christ

<sup>2</sup> In this case, moreover, it is required [as essential and demanded] of stewards that one be found faithful and trustworthy.

<sup>3</sup> But [as for me personally] it matters very little to me that I may be judged by you or any human court [on this point]; in fact, I do not even judge myself.

<sup>4</sup> I am aware of nothing against myself and I feel blameless, but I am not by this acquitted [before God]. It is the Lord who judges me.

<sup>5</sup> So do not go on passing judgment before the appointed time, but wait until the Lord comes, for He will both bring to light the [secret] things that are hidden in darkness and disclose the motives of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God.‡

<sup>6</sup> Now I have applied these things [that is, the analogies about factions] to myself and Apollos for your benefit, believers, so that you may learn from us not to go beyond what is written [in Scripture], so that none of you will become arrogant and boast in favor of one [minister or teacher] against the other.‡

<sup>7</sup> For who regards you as superior or what sets you apart as special? What do you have that you did not receive [from another]? And if in fact you received it [from God or someone else], why do you boast as if you had not received it [but had gained it by yourself]?‡

<sup>8</sup> [You behave as if] you are already filled [with spiritual wisdom and in need of nothing more]. Already you have become rich [in spiritual gifts]! You [in your conceit] have ascended your thrones and become kings without us; and how I wish [that it were true and] that you did reign as kings, so that we might reign with you.‡

<sup>9</sup> For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles at the end of the line, like men sentenced to death [and paraded as prisoners in a procession], because we have become a spectacle to the world [a show in the world's amphitheater], both to angels and to men. ‡

<sup>10</sup>We are [regarded as] fools for Christ, but you are so wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are highly esteemed, but we are dishonored. ‡

<sup>11</sup>To this present hour we are both hungry and thirsty; we are continually poorly dressed, and we are roughly treated, and wander homeless. ‡

<sup>12</sup>We work [for our living], working hard with our own hands. When we are reviled and verbally abused, we bless. When we are persecuted, we take it patiently and endure. ‡

<sup>13</sup>When we are slandered, we try to be conciliatory and answer softly. We have become like the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now. ‡

<sup>14</sup>I do not write these things to shame you, but to warn and advise you as my beloved children. ‡

<sup>15</sup>For even if you were to have ten thousand teachers [to guide you] in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers [who led you to Christ and assumed responsibility for you], for I became your father in Christ Jesus through the good news [of salvation]. ‡

<sup>16</sup>So I urge you, be imitators of me [just as a child imitates his father]. ‡

<sup>17</sup>For this reason I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my way of life in Christ [my conduct and my precepts for godly living], just as I teach everywhere in every church. ‡

<sup>18</sup>Now some of you have become arrogant and pretentious, as though I were not coming to see you. ‡

<sup>19</sup>But I will come to you soon, if the Lord is willing, and I will find out not just the talk of these arrogant people, but [evaluate] their [spiritual] power [whether they live up to their own claims]. ‡

<sup>21</sup>Which do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod [of discipline and correction], or with love and a gentle spirit? ‡

1 Corinthians 5

Immorality Rebuked

<sup>1</sup> IT IS actually reported [everywhere] that there is sexual immorality among you, a kind of immorality that is condemned even among the [unbelieving] Gentiles: that someone has [an intimate relationship with] his father's wife. [Deut 22:30 ; 27:20] ‡

<sup>2</sup> And you are proud and arrogant! You should have mourned in shame so that the man who has done this [disgraceful] thing would be removed from your fellowship! ‡

<sup>3</sup> For I, though absent [from you] in body but present in spirit, have already passed judgment on him who has committed this [act], as if I were present. ‡

<sup>4</sup> In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, and I am with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ‡

<sup>5</sup> you are to hand over this man to Satan for the destruction of his body, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Your boasting [over the supposed spirituality of your church] is not good [indeed, it is vulgar and inappropriate]. Do you not know that [just] a little leaven ferments the whole batch [of dough, just as a little sin corrupts a person or an entire church]? ‡

<sup>7</sup> Clean out the old leaven so that you may be a new batch, just as you are, still unleavened. For Christ our Passover Lamb has been sacrificed. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with leaven of vice and malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and [untainted] truth. [Ex 12:19 ; 13:7 ; Deut 16:3] ‡

<sup>9</sup>—I wrote you in my [previous] letter not to associate with [sexually] immoral people—‡

<sup>10</sup>—not meaning the immoral people of this world, or the greedy ones and swindlers, or idolaters, for then you would have to get out of the world and human society altogether! ‡

<sup>11</sup> But actually, I have written to you not to associate with any so-called [Christian] brother if he is sexually immoral or greedy, or is an idolater [devoted to anything that takes the place of God], or is a reviler [who insults or slanders or otherwise verbally abuses others], or is a drunkard or a swindler—you must not so much as eat with such a person. [2 Thess 3:6] ‡

<sup>12</sup> For what business is it of mine to judge outsiders (non-believers)? Do you not judge those who are within the church [to protect the church as the situation requires]? ‡

<sup>13</sup> God alone sits in judgment on those who are outside [the faith]. REMOVE THE WICKED ONE FROM AMONG YOU [expel him from your church]. [Deut 17:7] ‡

1 Corinthians 6

Lawsuits Discouraged

<sup>1</sup> DOES ANY one of you, when he has a complaint (civil dispute) with another [believer], dare to go to law before unrighteous men (non-believers) instead of [placing the issue] before the saints (God's people)?

<sup>2</sup> Do you not know that the saints (God's people) will [one day] judge the world? If the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to try trivial (insignificant, petty) cases? ‡

<sup>3</sup> Do you not know that we [believers] will judge angels? How much more then [as to] matters of this life? ‡

<sup>4</sup> So if you have lawsuits dealing with matters of this life, are you appointing those as judges [to hear disputes] who are of no account in the church? ‡

<sup>5</sup> I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is not one wise man among you who [is governed by integrity and] will be able and competent to decide [private disputes] between his fellow believers, <sup>6</sup> but instead, brother goes to law against brother, and that before [judges who are] unbelievers?

<sup>7</sup> Why, the very fact that you have lawsuits with one another is already a defeat. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? ‡

<sup>8</sup> On the contrary, it is you who wrong and defraud, and you do this even to your brothers and sisters. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate [by perversion], nor those who participate in homosexuality, ‡

<sup>10</sup> nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers [whose words are used as weapons to abuse, insult, humiliate, intimidate, or slander], nor swindlers will inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God.

<sup>11</sup> And such were some of you [before you believed]. But you were washed [by the atoning sacrifice of Christ], you were sanctified [set apart for God, and made holy], you were justified [declared free of guilt] in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the [Holy] Spirit of our God [the source of the believer's new life and changed behavior]. ‡

The Body Is the Lord's

<sup>12</sup> Everything is permissible for me, but not all things are beneficial. Everything is permissible for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything [and brought under its power, allowing it to control me]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food, but God will do away with both of them. The body is not intended for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body [to save, sanctify, and raise it again because of the sacrifice of the cross]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> And God has not only raised the Lord [to life], but will also raise us up by His power. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Am I therefore to take the members of Christ and make them part of a prostitute? Certainly not! ‡

<sup>17</sup> But the one who is united and joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him . ‡

<sup>18</sup> Run away from sexual immorality [in any form, whether thought or behavior, whether visual or written]. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the one who is sexually immoral sins against his own body. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is within you, whom you have [received as a gift] from God, and that you are not your own [property]? ‡

<sup>20</sup> You were bought with a price [you were actually purchased with the precious blood of Jesus and made His own]. So then, honor and glorify God with your body. ‡

1 Corinthians 7

Teaching on Marriage

<sup>1</sup> NOW AS to the matters of which you wrote: It is good (beneficial, advantageous) for a man not to touch a woman [outside marriage]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> But because of [the temptation to participate in] sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

<sup>4</sup> The wife does not have [exclusive] authority over her own body, but the husband shares with her; and likewise the husband does not have [exclusive] authority over his body, but the wife shares with him .

<sup>5</sup> Do not deprive each other [of marital rights], except perhaps by mutual consent for a time, so that you may devote yourselves [unhindered] to prayer, but come together again so that Satan will not tempt you [to sin] because of your lack of self-control. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But I am saying this as a concession, not as a command. ‡

<sup>7</sup> I wish that all the people were as I am; but each person has his own gift from God, one of this kind and one of that. ‡

<sup>8</sup> But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, [that as a practical matter] it is good if they remain [single and entirely devoted to the Lord] as I am. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But if they do not have [sufficient] self-control, they should marry; for it is better to marry than to burn with passion . ‡

<sup>10</sup> But to the married [believers] I give instructions—not I, but the Lord—that the wife is not to separate from her husband, ‡

<sup>11</sup>—(but even if she does leave him, let her remain single or else be reconciled to her husband) and that the husband should not leave his wife.

<sup>12</sup> To the rest I declare—I, not the Lord [since Jesus did not discuss this]—that if any [believing] brother has a wife who does not believe [in Christ], and she consents to live with him, he must not leave her.

<sup>13</sup> And if any [believing] woman has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, she must not leave him.

<sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified [that is, he receives the blessings granted] through his [Christian] wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be [ceremonially] unclean, but as it is they are holy. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But if the unbelieving partner leaves, let him leave. In such cases the [remaining] brother or sister is not [spiritually or morally] bound. But God has called us to peace. ‡

<sup>16</sup>—For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband [by leading him to Christ]? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife [by leading her to Christ]? ‡

<sup>17</sup> Only, let each one live the life which the Lord has assigned him, and to which God has called him [for each person is unique and is accountable for his choices and conduct, let him walk in this way]. This is the rule I make in all the churches. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Was anyone at the time of his calling [from God already] circumcised? He is not to become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called while uncircumcised? He is not to be circumcised.  [Gal 5:1–3 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> Each one should remain in the condition in which he was [when he was] called.

<sup>21</sup> Were you a slave when you were called? Do not worry about that [since your status as a believer is equal to that of a freeborn believer]; but if you are able to gain your freedom, do that.

<sup>22</sup> For he who was a slave when he was called in the Lord is a freedman of the Lord, likewise he who was free when he was called is a slave of Christ. ‡

<sup>23</sup> You were bought with a price [a precious price paid by Christ]; do not become slaves to men [but to Christ]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Brothers, let each one remain with God in that condition in which he was [when he was] called.

<sup>26</sup> I think then that because of the impending distress [that is, the pressure of the current trouble], it is good for a man to remain as he is. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you unmarried? Do not seek a wife.

<sup>28</sup> But if you do marry, you have not sinned [in doing so]; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned [in doing so]. Yet those [who marry] will have troubles (special challenges) in this life, and I am trying to spare you that.

<sup>29</sup> But I say this, believers: the time has been shortened, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they did not; ‡

<sup>30</sup> and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess [anything];

<sup>31</sup> and those who use the world [taking advantage of its opportunities], as though they did not make full use of it. For the outward form of this world [its present social and material nature] is passing away. ‡

<sup>32</sup> But I want you to be free from concern. The unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; ‡

<sup>33</sup> but the married man is concerned about worldly things, how he may

please his wife,

<sup>34</sup> and his interests are divided. The unmarried woman or the virgin is concerned about the matters of the Lord, how to be holy and set apart both in body and in spirit; but a married woman is concerned about worldly things, how she may please her husband. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Now I say this for your own benefit; not to restrict you, but to promote what is appropriate and secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> But if any man thinks that he is not acting properly and honorably toward his virgin daughter, [by not permitting her to marry], if she is past her youth, and it must be so, let him do as he wishes, he does not sin; let her marry.

<sup>37</sup> But the man who stands firmly committed in his heart, having no compulsion [to yield to his daughter's request], and has authority over his own will, and has decided in his own heart to keep his own virgin [daughter from being married], he will do well.

<sup>38</sup> So then both the father who gives his virgin daughter in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage will do better. ‡

<sup>39</sup> A wife is bound [to her husband by law] as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes, only [provided that he too is] in the Lord. ‡

<sup>40</sup> But in my opinion a widow is happier if she stays as she is. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God [in this matter]. ‡

1 Corinthians 8

Take Care with Your Liberty

<sup>1</sup> NOW ABOUT food sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge [concerning this]. Knowledge [alone] makes [people self-righteously] arrogant, but love [that unselfishly seeks the best for others] builds up and encourages others to grow [in wisdom]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> If anyone imagines that he knows and understands anything [of divine matters, without love], he has not yet known as he ought to know. ‡

<sup>3</sup> But if anyone loves God [with awe-filled reverence, obedience and gratitude], he is known by Him [as His very own and is greatly loved]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> In this matter, then, of eating food offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world [it has no real existence], and that there is no God but one.  [Deut 6:4. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many gods and many lords,‡

<sup>6</sup> yet for us there is but one God, the Father, who is the source of all things, and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things [that have been created], and we [believers] exist and have life and have been redeemed] through Him.  [Mal 2:10. ]‡

<sup>7</sup> However, not all [believers] have this knowledge. But some, being accustomed [throughout their lives] to [thinking of] the idol until now [as real and living], still eat food as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and because their conscience is weak, it is defiled (guilty, ashamed).‡

<sup>8</sup> Now food will not commend us to God nor bring us close to Him; we are no worse off if we do not eat, nor are we better if we do eat.‡

<sup>9</sup> Only be careful that this liberty of yours [this power to choose] does not somehow become a stumbling block [that is, a temptation to sin] to the weak [in conscience].‡

<sup>10</sup> For if someone sees you, a person having knowledge, eating in an idol's temple, then if he is weak, will he not be encouraged to eat things sacrificed to idols [and violate his own convictions]?‡

<sup>11</sup> For through your knowledge (spiritual maturity) this weak man is ruined [that is, he suffers in his spiritual life], the brother for whom Christ died.‡

<sup>12</sup> And when you sin against the brothers and sisters in this way and wound their weak conscience [by confusing them], you sin against Christ.‡

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, if [my eating a certain] food causes my brother to stumble (sin), I will not eat [such] meat ever again, so that I will not cause my brother to stumble.‡

1 Corinthians 9

Paul's Use of Liberty

<sup>1</sup> AM I not free [unrestrained and exempt from any obligation]? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our [risen] Lord [in person]? Are you not [the result and proof of] my work in the Lord?‡

<sup>2</sup> If I am not [considered] an apostle to others, at least I am one to you; for you are the seal and the certificate and the living evidence of my apostleship in the Lord [confirming and authenticating it].‡

<sup>3</sup> This is my defense to those who would put me on trial and interrogate me

[concerning my authority as an apostle]:

<sup>4</sup> Have we not the right to our food and drink [at the expense of the churches]? ‡

<sup>5</sup> Have we not the right to take along with us a believing wife, as do the rest of the apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas (Peter)? ‡

<sup>6</sup> Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to stop doing manual labor [in order to support our ministry]? ‡

<sup>7</sup> [Consider this:] Who at any time serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not use the milk of the flock? ‡

<sup>8</sup> Do I say these things only from a man's perspective? Does the Law not endorse the same principles?

<sup>9</sup> For it is written in the Law of Moses, "YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE AN OX WHILE IT IS TREADING OUT THE GRAIN [to keep it from eating the grain]." Is it [only] for oxen that God cares?  [Deut 25:4 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> Or does He speak entirely for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake: The plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the harvest. ‡

<sup>11</sup> If we have sown [the good seed of] spiritual things in you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? ‡

<sup>12</sup> If others share in this rightful claim over you, do not we even more? However, we did not exercise this right, but we put up with everything so that we will not hinder [the spread of] the good news of Christ. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Do you not know that those who officiate in the sacred services of the temple eat from the temple [offerings of meat and bread] and those who regularly attend the altar have their share from the [offerings brought to the] altar?  [Deut 18:1 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> So also [on the same principle] the Lord directed those who preach the gospel to get their living from the gospel. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But I have used none of these privileges, nor am I writing this [to suggest] that any such provision be made for me now. For it would be better for me to die than to have anyone deprive me of my boast [in this matter of financial support]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> For if I [merely] preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about, for I am compelled [that is, absolutely obligated to do it]. Woe to me if I do not preach the good news [of salvation]! ‡

<sup>17</sup> For if I do this work of my own free will, then I have a reward; but if it is not of my will [but by God's choosing], I have been entrusted with a [sacred] stewardship.‡

<sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? [Just this:] that, when I preach the gospel, I may offer the gospel without charge [to everyone], so as not to take advantage of my rights [as a preacher and apostle] in [preaching] the gospel.‡

<sup>19</sup> For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to everyone, so that I may win more [for Christ].‡

<sup>20</sup> To the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might win Jews [for Christ]; to men under the Law, [I became] as one under the Law, though not being under the Law myself, so that I might win those who are under the Law.‡

<sup>21</sup> To those who are without (outside) the Law, [I became] as one without the Law, though [I am] not without the law of God, but under the law of Christ, so that I might win those who are without law.‡

<sup>22</sup> To the weak I became [as the] weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men, so that I may by all means [in any and every way] save some [by leading them to faith in Jesus Christ].‡

<sup>23</sup> And I do all this for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings along with you.

<sup>24</sup> Do you not know that in a race all the runners run [their very best to win], but only one receives the prize? Run [your race] in such a way that you may seize the prize and make it yours!‡

<sup>25</sup> Now every athlete who [goes into training and] competes in the games is disciplined and exercises self-control in all things. They do it to win a crown that withers, but we [do it to receive] an imperishable [crown that cannot wither].‡

<sup>26</sup> Therefore I do not run without a definite goal; I do not flail around like one beating the air [just shadow boxing].‡

<sup>27</sup> But [like a boxer] I strictly discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached [the gospel] to others, I myself will not somehow be disqualified [as unfit for service].‡

1 Corinthians 10

Avoid Israel's Mistakes

<sup>1</sup> FOR I do not want you to be unaware, believers, that our fathers were all under the cloud [in which God's presence went before them] and they all passed [miraculously and safely] through the [Red] Sea; [Ex 13:21 ; 14:22 , 29] ‡

<sup>2</sup> And all [of them] were baptized into Moses [into his safekeeping as their leader] in the cloud and in the sea;

<sup>3</sup> and all [of them] ate the same spiritual food; [Ex 16:4, 35] ‡

<sup>4</sup> and all [of them] drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was Christ. [Ex 17:6 ; Num 20:11] ‡

<sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, God was not well-pleased with most of them, for they were scattered along the ground in the wilderness [because their lack of self-control led to disobedience which led to death]. [Num 14:29, 30] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Now these things [the warnings and admonitions] took place as examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things as they did. [Num 11:4, 34] ‡

<sup>7</sup> Do not be worshipers of handmade gods, as some of them were; just as it is written [in Scripture], “THE PEOPLE SAT DOWN TO EAT AND DRINK [after sacrificing to the golden calf at Horeb], AND STOOD UP TO PLAY [indulging in immoral activities].” [Ex 32:6] ‡

<sup>8</sup> We must not indulge in [nor tolerate] sexual immorality, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand [suddenly] fell [dead] in a single day! [Num 25:1–18] ‡

<sup>9</sup> We must not tempt the Lord [that is, test His patience, question His purpose or exploit His goodness], as some of them did—and they were killed by serpents. [Num 21:5, 6] ‡

<sup>10</sup> And do not murmur [in unwarranted discontent], as some of them did—and were destroyed by the destroyer. [Num 16:41, 49] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now these things happened to them as an example and warning [to us]; they were written for our instruction [to admonish and equip us], upon whom the ends of the ages have come. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Therefore let the one who thinks he stands firm [immune to temptation, being overconfident and self-righteous], take care that he does not fall [into sin and condemnation]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> No temptation [regardless of its source] has overtaken or enticed you that is not common to human experience [nor is any temptation unusual or beyond human resistance]; but God is faithful [to His word—He is compassionate and trustworthy], and He will not let you be tempted beyond your ability [to resist], but along with the temptation He [has in the past and is now and] will [always] provide the way out as well, so that you will be able to endure it [without yielding, and will overcome temptation with joy]. ‡

14 Therefore, my beloved, run [keep far, far away] from [any sort of] idolatry [and that includes loving anything more than God, or participating in anything that leads to sin and enslaves the soul]. ‡

15 I am speaking as to wise and sensible people; judge [carefully and thoughtfully consider] for yourselves what I say. ‡

16 Is the cup of blessing which we bless [at the Lord's Supper] not a sharing in the blood of Christ? [Indeed it is.] Is the bread which we break not a sharing in the body of Christ? [Indeed it is.] ‡

17 Since there is one bread, we [believers] who are many are [united into] one body; for we all partake of the one bread [which represents the body of Christ]. ‡

18 Consider the people of Israel; are those who eat the sacrifices not partners of the altar [united in their worship of the same God]? [Indeed they are.]  [Lev 7:6] ‡

19 What do I mean then? That a thing offered to idols is anything [special or changed simply because it is offered], or that an idol is anything? ‡

20 On the contrary, the things which the Gentiles (pagans) sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons [in effect], and not to God; and I do not want you to become partners with demons [by eating at feasts in pagan temples].  [Deut 32:17] ‡

21 You cannot drink [both] the Lord's cup and the cup of demons. You cannot share in both the Lord's table and the table of demons [thereby becoming partners with them]. ‡

22 Do we [really] provoke the Lord to jealousy [when we eat food sacrificed to handmade "gods" at pagan feasts]? Are we [spiritually] stronger than He? [Certainly not! He knows that the idols are nothing. But we deeply offend Him.]  [Deut 32:21; Eccl 6:10; Is 45:9] ‡

23 All things are lawful [that is, morally legitimate, permissible], but not all things are beneficial or advantageous. All things are lawful, but not all things are constructive [to character] and edifying [to spiritual life]. ‡

24 Let no one seek [only] his own good, but [also] that of the other person. ‡

25 [Regarding meat offered to idols:] Eat anything that is sold in the meat market without asking any questions for the sake of your conscience, ‡

26 F OR THE [whole] EARTH IS THE LORD' S , AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN IT .  [I 24:1; 50:12] ‡

27 If one of the unbelievers invites you [to a meal at his home] and you want to go, eat whatever is served to you without asking questions [about its source] for the sake of your conscience. ‡

<sup>28</sup> But if anyone says to you, “This meat has been offered in sacrifice to an idol,” do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who told you, and for conscience’s sake— ‡

<sup>29</sup> and by conscience I mean for the sake of the other man’s, not yours. For why is my freedom [of choice] judged by another’s conscience [another’s ethics—another’s sense of right and wrong]? ‡

<sup>30</sup> If I take my share [of food] with thankfulness, why am I accused because of something for which I give thanks? ‡

<sup>31</sup> So then, whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of [our great] God. ‡

<sup>32</sup> Do not offend Jews or Greeks or even the church of God [but live to honor Him]; ‡

<sup>33</sup> just as I please everyone in all things [as much as possible adapting myself to the interests of others], not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, so that they [will be open to the message of salvation and] may be saved. ‡

1 Corinthians 11

Christian Order

<sup>2</sup> I praise and appreciate you because you remember me in everything and you firmly hold to the traditions [the substance of my instructions], just as I have passed them on to you. ‡

<sup>3</sup> But I want you to understand that Christ is the head (authority over) of every man, and man is the head of woman, and God is the head of Christ. ‡

<sup>5</sup> And every woman who prays or prophesies when she has her head uncovered disgraces her head; for she is one and the same as the woman whose head is shaved [in disgrace]. ‡

image and [reflected] glory of God; but the woman is [the expression of] man's glory.  [Gen 1:26 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> for indeed man was not created for the sake of woman, but woman for the sake of man.  [Gen 2:18 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> Therefore the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head, for the sake of the angels [so as not to offend them]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> For as the woman originates from the man, so also man is born through the woman; and all things [whether male or female] originate from God [as their Creator].

<sup>13</sup> Judge for yourselves; is it proper for a woman to offer prayer to God [publicly] with her head uncovered?

<sup>14</sup> Does not common sense itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him, <sup>15</sup> but if a woman has long hair, it is her ornament and glory? For her long hair is given to her as a covering.

<sup>16</sup> Now if anyone is inclined to be contentious [about this], we have no other practice [in worship than this], nor do the churches of God [in general]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> But in giving this next instruction, I do not praise you, because when you meet together it is not for the better but for the worse.

<sup>18</sup> For, in the first place, when you meet together in church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and in part I believe it, ‡

<sup>19</sup> for [doubtless] there have to be factions among you, so that those who are of approved character may be clearly recognized among you. ‡

<sup>20</sup> So when you meet together, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper,

<sup>21</sup> for when you eat, each one hurries to get his own supper first [not waiting for others or the poor]. So one goes hungry while another gets drunk. ‡

<sup>22</sup> What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those [impoverished believers] who have nothing? What will I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? In this I will not praise you! ‡

The Lord's Supper

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord Himself that [instruction] which I passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which He was betrayed took bread; ‡

<sup>24</sup> and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is (represents) My body, which is [offered as a sacrifice] for you. Do this in [affectionate] remembrance of Me."

<sup>25</sup> In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant [ratified and established] in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in [affectionate] remembrance of Me."

<sup>26</sup> For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are [symbolically] proclaiming [the fact of] the Lord's death until He comes [again]. ‡

<sup>27</sup> So then whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in a way that is unworthy [of Him] will be guilty of [profaning and sinning against] the body and blood of the Lord. ‡

<sup>28</sup> But a person must [prayerfully] examine himself [and his relationship to Christ], and only when he has done so should he eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ‡

<sup>29</sup> For anyone who eats and drinks [without solemn reverence and heartfelt gratitude for the sacrifice of Christ], eats and drinks a judgment on himself if he does not recognize the body [of Christ].

<sup>30</sup> That [careless and unworthy participation] is the reason why many among you are weak and sick, and a number sleep [in death].

<sup>31</sup> But if we evaluated and judged ourselves honestly [recognizing our shortcomings and correcting our behavior], we would not be judged. ‡

<sup>32</sup> But when we [fall short and] are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined [by undergoing His correction] so that we will not be condemned [to eternal punishment] along with the world. ‡

<sup>33</sup> So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat [the Lord's Supper], wait for one another [and see to it that no one is left out].

<sup>34</sup> If anyone is too hungry [to wait], let him eat at home, so that you will not come together for judgment [on yourselves]. About the remaining matters [of which I was informed], I will take care of them when I come. ‡

The Use of Spiritual Gifts

<sup>1</sup> NOW ABOUT the spiritual gifts [the special endowments given by the Holy Spirit], brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. ‡

<sup>2</sup> You know that when you were pagans, you were led off after speechless idols; however you were led off [whether by impulse or habit]. ‡

<sup>3</sup>-Therefore I want you to know that no one speaking by the [power and influence of the] Spirit of God can say, “Jesus be cursed,” and no one can say, “Jesus is [my] Lord,” except by [the power and influence of] the Holy Spirit. ‡

<sup>4</sup>-Now there are [distinctive] varieties of spiritual gifts [special abilities given by the grace and extraordinary power of the Holy Spirit operating in believers], but it is the same Spirit [who grants them and empowers believers]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> And there are [distinctive] varieties of ministries and service, but it is the same Lord [who is served]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And there are [distinctive] ways of working [to accomplish things], but it is the same God who produces all things in all believers [inspiring, energizing, and empowering them]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit [the spiritual illumination and the enabling of the Holy Spirit] for the common good. ‡

<sup>8</sup> To one is given through the [Holy] Spirit [the power to speak] the message of wisdom, and to another [the power to express] the word of knowledge and understanding according to the same Spirit; ‡

<sup>9</sup> to another [wonder-working] faith [is given] by the same [Holy] Spirit, and to another the [extraordinary] gifts of healings by the one Spirit; ‡

<sup>10</sup> and to another the working of miracles, and to another prophecy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], and to another discernment of spirits [the ability to distinguish sound, godly doctrine from the deceptive doctrine of man-made religions and cults], to another various kinds of [unknown] tongues, and to another interpretation of tongues. ‡

<sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and yet has many parts, and all the parts, though many, form [only] one body, so it is with Christ. ‡

<sup>13</sup>-For by one [Holy] Spirit we were all baptized into one body, [spiritually transformed—united together] whether Jews or Greeks (Gentiles), slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one [Holy] Spirit [since the same Holy Spirit fills each life].  [Rom 3:22 ; Gal 3:28 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> For the [human] body does not consist of one part, but of many [limbs and organs].

<sup>15</sup> If the foot says, “Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body,” is it not on the contrary still a part of the body?

<sup>16</sup> If the ear says, “Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body,” is it not on the contrary still a part of the body?

<sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole [body] were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?

<sup>18</sup> But now [as things really are], God has placed and arranged the parts in the body, each one of them, just as He willed and saw fit [with the best balance of function]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> If they all were a single organ, where would [the rest of] the body be?

<sup>20</sup> But now [as things really are] there are many parts [different limbs and organs], but a single body.

<sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.”

<sup>22</sup> But quite the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are [absolutely] necessary;

<sup>23</sup> and as for those parts of the body which we consider less honorable, these we treat with greater honor; and our less presentable parts are treated with greater modesty,

<sup>24</sup> while our more presentable parts do not require it. But God has combined the [whole] body, giving greater honor to that part which lacks it,

<sup>25</sup> so that there would be no division or discord in the body [that is, lack of adaptation of the parts to each other], but that the parts may have the same concern for one another.

<sup>26</sup> And if one member suffers, all the parts share the suffering; if one member is honored, all rejoice with it.

<sup>27</sup> Now you [collectively] are Christ’s body, and individually [you are] members of it [each with his own special purpose and function]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> So God has appointed and placed in the church [for His own use]: first apostles [chosen by Christ], second prophets [those who foretell the future, those who speak a new message from God to the people], third teachers, then those who work miracles, then those with the gifts of healings, the helpers, the administrators, and speakers in various kinds of [unknown] tongues. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?

<sup>30</sup> Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

<sup>31</sup>-But earnestly desire and strive for the greater gifts [if acquiring them is going to be your goal]. ‡

And yet I will show you a still more excellent way [one of the choicest graces and the highest of them all: unselfish love].

1 Corinthians 13

The Excellence of Love

<sup>1</sup> IF I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love [for others growing out of God's love for me], then I have become only a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal [just an annoying distraction].

<sup>2</sup> And if I have the gift of prophecy [and speak a new message from God to the people], and understand all mysteries, and [possess] all knowledge; and if I have all [sufficient] faith so that I can remove mountains, but do not have love [reaching out to others], I am nothing. ‡

<sup>3</sup> If I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it does me no good at all. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Love endures with patience and serenity, love is kind and thoughtful, and is not jealous or envious; love does not brag and is not proud or arrogant. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Love bears all things [regardless of what comes], believes all things [looking for the best in each one], hopes all things [remaining steadfast during difficult times], endures all things [without weakening]. ‡

<sup>8</sup>.Love never fails [it never fades nor ends]. But as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for the gift of special knowledge, it will pass away.

<sup>9</sup> For we know in part, and we prophesy in part [for our knowledge is fragmentary and incomplete]. ‡

<sup>10</sup>-But when that which is complete and perfect comes, that which is incomplete and partial will pass away.

<sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things.

<sup>12</sup> For now [in this time of imperfection] we see in a mirror dimly [a blurred reflection, a riddle, an enigma], but then [when the time of perfection comes we will see reality] face to face. Now I know in part [just in fragments], but then I will know fully, just as I have been fully known [by God]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> And now there remain: faith [abiding trust in God and His promises], hope [confident expectation of eternal salvation], love [unselfish love for others growing out of God's love for me], these three [the choicest graces]; but the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14

Prophecy a Superior Gift

<sup>1</sup> PURSUE [THIS] love [with eagerness, make it your goal], yet earnestly desire and cultivate the spiritual gifts [to be used by believers for the benefit of the church], but especially that you may prophesy [to foretell the future, to speak a new message from God to the people]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For one who speaks in an unknown tongue does not speak to people but to God; for no one understands him or catches his meaning, but by the Spirit he speaks mysteries [secret truths, hidden things]. ‡

<sup>3</sup>-But [on the other hand] the one who prophesies speaks to people for edification [to promote their spiritual growth] and [speaks words of] encouragement [to uphold and advise them concerning the matters of God] and [speaks words of] consolation [to compassionately comfort them].

<sup>4</sup> One who speaks in a tongue edifies himself; but one who prophesies edifies the church [promotes growth in spiritual wisdom, devotion, holiness, and joy].

<sup>5</sup> Now I wish that all of you spoke in unknown tongues, but even more [I wish] that you would prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater [and more useful] than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he translates or explains [what he says], so that the church may be edified [instructed, improved, strengthened].

<sup>6</sup> Now, believers, if I come to you speaking in unknown tongues, how will I benefit you unless I also speak to you [clearly] either by revelation [revealing God's mystery], or by knowledge [teaching about God], or by prophecy

[foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], or by instruction [teaching precepts that develop spiritual maturity]? ‡

<sup>7</sup> Yet even lifeless things, whether flute or harp, when producing a sound, if they do not produce distinct [musical] tones, how will anyone [listening] know what is piped or played?

<sup>8</sup> And if the [war] bugle produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle?

<sup>9</sup> So it is with you, if you speak words [in an unknown tongue] that are not intelligible and clear, how will anyone understand what you are saying? You will be talking into the air [wasting your breath]!

<sup>10</sup> There are, I suppose, a great many kinds of languages in the world [unknown to us], and none is lacking in meaning.

<sup>11</sup> But if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will [appear to] be a foreigner to the one who is speaking [since he knows exactly what he is saying], and the one who is speaking will [appear to] be a foreigner to me.

<sup>12</sup> So it is with you, since you are so very eager to have spiritual gifts and manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in ways that will build up the church [spiritually].

<sup>13</sup> Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may [be gifted to] translate or explain [what he says].

<sup>14</sup> For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unproductive [because it does not understand what my spirit is praying].

<sup>15</sup> Then what am I to do? I will pray with the spirit [by the Holy Spirit that is within me] and I will pray with the mind [using words I understand]; I will sing with the spirit [by the Holy Spirit that is within me] and I will sing with the mind [using words I understand]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Otherwise if you bless [and give thanks to God] in the spirit only, how will any outsider or someone who is not gifted [in spiritual matters] say the “Amen” [of agreement] to your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying?  [1 Chr 16:36; Ps 106:48 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> You are giving thanks well enough [in a way that God is glorified], but the other person [who does not understand you] is not edified [and spiritually strengthened since he cannot join in your thanksgiving].

<sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in [unknown] tongues more than all of you;

<sup>19</sup> nevertheless, in public worship I would rather say five understandable words in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue [which others cannot understand].

Instruction for the Church

<sup>20</sup> Brothers and sisters, do not be children [immature, childlike] in your thinking; be infants in [matters of] evil [completely innocent and inexperienced], but in your minds be mature [adults]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> It is written in the Law, “B Y MEN OF STRANGE TONGUES AND BY THE LIPS OF FOREIGNERS I WILL SPEAK TO THIS PEOPLE , AND NOT EVEN THEN WILL THEY LISTEN TO M E,” says the Lord.  [Is 28:11, 12.] ‡

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, [unknown] tongues are [meant] for a [supernatural] sign, not to believers but to unbelievers [who might be receptive]; while prophecy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people] is not for unbelievers but for believers.

<sup>23</sup> So then, if the whole church gathers together and all of you speak in [unknown] tongues, and outsiders or those who are not gifted [in spiritual matters] or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind? ‡

<sup>24</sup> But if all prophesy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], and an unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is convicted [of his sins] by all, and he is called to account by all [because he can understand what is being said];

<sup>25</sup> the secrets of his heart are laid bare. And so, falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring that God is really among you. ‡

<sup>26</sup> What then is the right course, believers? When you meet together, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation (disclosure of special knowledge), a tongue, or an interpretation. Let everything be constructive and edifying and done for the good of all the church. ‡

<sup>27</sup> If anyone speaks in a tongue, it should be limited to two or at the most three, and each one speaking in turn, and one must interpret [what is said].

<sup>28</sup> But if there is no one to interpret, the one [who wishes to speak in a tongue] must keep silent in church; let him speak to himself and to God.

<sup>29</sup> Let two or three prophets speak [as inspired by the Holy Spirit], while the rest pay attention and weigh carefully what is said. ‡

<sup>30</sup> But if an inspired revelation is made to another who is seated, then the first one must be silent. ‡

<sup>31</sup> For [in this way] you can all prophesy one by one, so that everyone may be instructed and everyone may be encouraged;

<sup>32</sup> for the spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets [the prophecy is under the speaker’s control, and he can stop speaking]; ‡

<sup>33</sup> for God [who is the source of their prophesying] is not a God of confusion and disorder but of peace and order. ‡

As [is the practice] in all the churches of the saints (God's people), <sup>34</sup> the women should be silent in the churches, for they are not authorized to speak, but are to take a subordinate place, as the Law says. ‡

<sup>35</sup> If there is anything they want to learn [that is, if they have questions about anything being said or taught], they are to ask their own husbands at home; for it is improper for a woman to talk in church.

<sup>36</sup> Did the word of the Lord originate from you [Corinthians], or has it come to you only [so that you know best what God requires]?

<sup>37</sup> If anyone thinks and claims that he is a prophet [a true spokesman for God] or spiritually astute [filled with and energized by the Holy Spirit], let him recognize that the things which I write to you are the Lord's commandment. ‡

<sup>38</sup> If anyone does not recognize this [that it is a command of the Lord], he is not recognized [by God].

<sup>39</sup> Therefore, believers, desire earnestly to prophesy [to foretell the future, to speak a new message from God to the people], and do not forbid speaking in unknown tongues. ‡

<sup>40</sup> But all things must be done appropriately and in an orderly manner. ‡

1 Corinthians 15

The Fact of Christ's Resurrection

<sup>1</sup> NOW BROTHERS and sisters, let me remind you [once again] of the good news [of salvation] which I preached to you, which you welcomed and accepted and on which you stand [by faith]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> By this faith you are saved [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose], if you hold firmly to the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain [just superficially and without complete commitment]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For I passed on to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to [that which] the Scriptures [foretold], [Is 53:5–12] ‡

<sup>4</sup> and that He was buried, and that He was [bodily] raised on the third day according to [that which] the Scriptures [foretold], [Ps 16:9, 10] ‡

<sup>5</sup> and that He appeared to Cephas (Peter), then to the Twelve. ‡

<sup>6</sup> After that He appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, the majority of whom are still alive, but some have fallen asleep [in death].

<sup>7</sup> Then He was seen by James, then by all the apostles, ‡

<sup>8</sup> and last of all, as to one untimely (prematurely, traumatically) born, He appeared to me also.  [Acts 9:1-9. ] ‡

<sup>9</sup>-For I am the least [worthy] of the apostles, and not fit to be called an apostle, because I [at one time] fiercely oppressed and violently persecuted the church of God. ‡

<sup>10</sup> But by the [remarkable] grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not without effect. In fact, I worked harder than all of the apostles, though it was not I, but the grace of God [His unmerited favor and blessing which was] with me. ‡

<sup>11</sup> So whether it was I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed and trusted in and relied on with confidence.

<sup>12</sup>-Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how is it that some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

<sup>13</sup> But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised; ‡

<sup>14</sup> and if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is vain [useless, amounting to nothing], and your faith is also vain [imaginary, unfounded, devoid of value and benefit—not based on truth].

<sup>15</sup>-We are even discovered to be false witnesses [misrepresenting] God, because we testified concerning Him that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised. ‡

<sup>16</sup> For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised, either;

<sup>17</sup>-and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless and powerless [mere delusion]; you are still in your sins [and under the control and penalty of sin]. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost.

<sup>19</sup>-If we who are [abiding] in Christ have hoped only in this life [and this is all there is], then we are of all people most miserable and to be pitied. ‡

The Order of Resurrection

<sup>20</sup>-But now [as things really are] Christ has in fact been raised from the dead,

[and He became] the first fruits [that is, the first to be resurrected with an incorruptible, immortal body, foreshadowing the resurrection] of those who have fallen asleep [in death].  [Col 1:18. ] ‡

21 For since [it was] by a man that death came [into the world], it is also by a Man that the resurrection of the dead has come. ‡

22 For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

23 But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's [own will be resurrected with incorruptible, immortal bodies] at His coming. ‡

24 After that comes the end (completion), when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after He has made inoperative and abolished every ruler and every authority and power. ‡

25 For Christ must reign [as King] until He has put all His enemies under His feet.  [Ps 110:1. ] ‡

26 The last enemy to be abolished and put to an end is death. ‡

27 For H E (the Father) HAS PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER H IS (Christ's FEET). But when He says, "All things have been put in subjection [under Christ]," it is clear that He (the Father) who put all things in subjection to Him (Christ) is excepted [since the Father is not in subjection to His own Son].  [Ps 8:6. ] ‡

28 However, when all things are subjected to Him (Christ), then the Son Himself will also be subjected to the One (the Father) who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all [manifesting His glory without any opposition, the supreme indwelling and controlling factor of life]. ‡

29 Otherwise, what will those do who are being baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people even baptized for them?

30 [For that matter] why are we [running such risks and putting ourselves] in danger [nearly] every hour [if there is no resurrection]? ‡

31 I assure you, believers, by the pride which I have in you in [your union with] Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily [I face death and die to self]. ‡

32 What good has it done me if, [merely] from a human point of view, I fought with wild animals at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised [at all], LET US EAT AND DRINK [enjoying ourselves now], FOR TOMORROW WE DIE.  [Is 22:13; 2 Cor 1:8, 9. ] ‡

33 Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals." ‡

34 Be sober-minded [be sensible, wake up from your spiritual stupor] as you ought, and stop sinning; for some [of you] have no knowledge of God [you are disgracefully ignorant of Him, and ignore His truths]. I say this to your shame. ‡

<sup>35</sup> But someone will say, “How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body will they come?” ‡

<sup>36</sup> You fool! Every time you plant seed you sow something that does not come to life [germinating, springing up and growing] unless it first dies. ‡

<sup>37</sup> The seed you sow is not the body (the plant) which it is going to become, but it is a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or some other grain.

<sup>38</sup> But God gives it a body just as He planned, and to each kind of seed a body of its own [is given].  [Gen 1:11 ]

<sup>39</sup> All flesh is not the same. There is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

<sup>40</sup> There are also heavenly bodies [sun, moon and stars] and earthly bodies [humans, animals, and plants], but the glory and beauty of the heavenly is one kind, and the glory of the earthly is another.

<sup>41</sup> There is a glory and beauty of the sun, another glory of the moon, and yet another [distinctive] glory of the stars; and one star differs from another in glory and brilliance.

<sup>42</sup> So it is with the resurrection of the dead. The [human] body that is sown is perishable and mortal, it is raised imperishable and immortal.  [Dan 12:3. ] ‡

<sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in strength; ‡

<sup>44</sup> it is sown a natural body [mortal, suited to earth], it is raised a spiritual body [immortal, suited to heaven]. As surely as there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

<sup>45</sup> So it is written [in Scripture], “The first MAN , Adam, BECAME A LIVING SOUL (an individual);” the last Adam (Christ) became a life-giving spirit [restoring the dead to life].  [Gen 2:7. ] ‡

<sup>46</sup> However, the spiritual [the immortal life] is not first, but the physical [the mortal life]; then the spiritual.

<sup>47</sup> The first man [Adam] is from the earth, earthy [made of dust]; the second Man [Christ, the Lord] is from heaven.  [Gen 2:7. ] ‡

<sup>48</sup> As is the earthly man [the man of dust], so are those who are of earth; and as is the heavenly [Man], so are those who are of heaven. ‡

<sup>49</sup> Just as we have borne the image of the earthly [the man of dust], we will also bear the image of the heavenly [the Man of heaven]. ‡

The Mystery of Resurrection

<sup>50</sup> Now I say this, believers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit nor be part of the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable (mortal) inherit the imperishable (immortal). ‡

<sup>51</sup> Listen very carefully, I tell you a mystery [a secret truth decreed by God and previously hidden, but now revealed]; we will not all sleep [in death], but we will all be [completely] changed [wondrously transformed], ‡

<sup>52</sup> in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at [the sound of] the last trumpet call. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead [who believed in Christ] will be raised imperishable, and we will be [completely] changed [wondrously transformed]. ‡

<sup>53</sup> For this perishable [part of us] must put on the imperishable [nature], and this mortal [part of us that is capable of dying] must put on immortality [which is freedom from death]. ‡

<sup>54</sup> And when this perishable puts on the imperishable, and this mortal puts on immortality, then the Scripture will be fulfilled that says, “D EATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory (vanquished forever).  [Is 25:8 ] ‡

<sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin [by which it brings death] is the law; ‡

<sup>57</sup> but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory [as conquerors] through our Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>58</sup> Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord [always doing your best and doing more than is needed], being continually aware that your labor [even to the point of exhaustion] in the Lord is not futile nor wasted [it is never without purpose]. ‡

1 Corinthians 16

Instructions and Greetings

<sup>1</sup> NOW CONCERNING the money collected for [the relief of] the saints [in Jerusalem], you are to do the same as I directed the churches of Galatia to do. ‡

<sup>2</sup> On the first day of every week each one of you is to put something aside, in proportion to his prosperity, and save it so that no collections [will need to] be made when I come. ‡

<sup>3</sup> When I arrive, I will send whomever you approve with letters [of authorization] to take your gift [of charity and love] to Jerusalem; ‡

<sup>4</sup> and if it is fitting for me to go too, they will accompany me. ‡

<sup>5</sup> I will visit you after I go through Macedonia, for I am only passing through Macedonia; ‡

<sup>6</sup> but it may be that I will stay with you [for a while], or even spend the winter, so that you may send me on my way to wherever I may go afterward. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For I do not wish to see you right now just in passing, but I hope to remain with you for some time [later on], if the Lord permits. ‡

<sup>8</sup> But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

<sup>9</sup> because a wide door for effective service has opened to me [in Ephesus, a very promising opportunity], and there are many adversaries.  [Acts 19:23–41 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> If Timothy comes, see to it that [you put him at ease, so that] he has nothing to fear in regard to you, for he is [devotedly] doing the Lord's work, just as I am. ‡

<sup>11</sup> So allow no one to treat him with disdain [as if he were inconsequential]. But send him off [cordially, and speed him on his way] in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am expecting him [to come along] with the other brothers. ‡

<sup>12</sup> As for our brother Apollos, I have strongly encouraged him to visit you with the other brothers. It was not at all his desire to come now, but he will come when he has the opportunity. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Let everything you do be done in love [motivated and inspired by God's love for us]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Brothers and sisters, you know that those of the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves for ministry to God's people—now I urge you ‡

<sup>16</sup> to be subject to such leaders [treating them with courtesy and respect], and to everyone who helps in the work and labors [for the benefit of yourselves and the church]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> I rejoice because Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus have arrived, for they have made up for your absence. ‡

<sup>18</sup> They have refreshed my spirit as well as yours. So fully acknowledge such men and deeply appreciate them. ‡

19.—The churches of Asia send you their greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church [that meets] in their house, send you their warm greetings in the Lord. ‡

20. All the believers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. ‡

21. This greeting is in my own hand—Paul. ‡

22. If anyone does not love the Lord [does not obey and respect and believe in Jesus Christ and His message], he is to be accursed. Maranatha (O our Lord, come)! ‡

23. The grace of our Lord Jesus [His unmerited favor, His spiritual blessing, His profound mercy] be with you. ‡

24. My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Annotations for 1 Corinthians

1:1 by the will of God. The Corinthian church greatly valued human wisdom. This misplaced emphasis had caused some in the church to challenge Paul's authority. They forgot that Jesus Christ Himself had called him to his ministry as an apostle of Christ.

1:2 sanctified \(set apart, made holy\) in Christ Jesus. Holiness comes from our position in Christ, not from our own goodness. Jesus' death in payment for our sins makes a believer holy forever in God's eyes (Heb 10:14 ). But in everyday living, sanctification involves small daily changes.

1:7 not lacking in any spiritual gift. The Corinthians were richly blessed with spiritual gifts because God was giving them everything they needed to do His will (12:14–27 ).

1:10 united in your way of thinking. Christian unity is not uniformity of appearance, but unity of direction, and the bond of mutual love and esteem (Eph 4:14–16 ).

1:14 Crispus and Gaius. Crispus was the ruler of the synagogue in Corinth when Paul began to preach there (Ac 18:8 ). He was instrumental in the conversion of many other Christians. Gaius may be the same person who hosted Paul and the entire church (Ro 16:23 ).

1:16 Stephanas. Stephanas was one of Paul's first converts in Achaia, the region of which Corinth was the capital. Paul praised him and his household for their devotion to the ministry and for their assistance (16:15 ). Stephanus was one of the couriers who took correspondence to and from Corinth.

[1:17 not send me \[as an apostle\] to baptize, but \[commissioned and empowered me\] to preach the good news.](#) Paul's primary ministry was not baptism, but preaching the truth. Baptism naturally follows conversion, but is secondary in importance.

1:20 Where is the wise man. All human efforts to find favor with God fall woefully short (Ro 3:9–28 ). Only through faith in Christ can we be saved from our sins.

1:27 the foolish things of the world. God's plan of salvation does not conform to the world's priorities. Yet in reality, eternal salvation is more valuable than anything else.

1:28 the insignificant \(base\) things . . . that are despised. Corinth had a large slave population, and many of these slaves became followers of Christ. Slaves were despised by the free-born and the well-to-do.

2:7 mystery. God's plan was kept hidden, known only to Him, until He chose to reveal it (Eph 3:1–11 ). This is in contrast to the teachings of the Gnostics, a group of false religious teachers who would infiltrate the early church (1Jn 2:18–27 ). They claimed that there existed a body of secret knowledge that was only available to those initiated into an inner circle of spiritual teachers.

2:13 interpreting spiritual thoughts with spiritual words. These words are difficult to translate and interpret. The two references to "spiritual" may mean interpreting spiritual truths to spiritual persons, or else combining spiritual truths with spiritual words (2Ti 3:16 ; 2Pe 1:20–21 ).

3:2 I fed you with milk. Paul did not expect the Corinthians to be mature when they first accepted Christ. Yet they should have grown in their faith—that is, become sanctified. The behavior of Christians should begin to line up with their righteous position in Christ.

3:3 You are still worldly. An immature Christian naturally lacks many Christian traits, but no one should expect this condition to last. Paul was surprised that the Corinthians had not yet grown into spiritual maturity or become able to distinguish between good and evil (Heb 5:14 ).

3:13 the day. This is the time when Christ will judge the merits of His servants' work (2Co 5:10 ), not whether they receive forgiveness of sin. Likewise, the fire does not refer to the eternal fire of damnation (Rev 20:10) but to the evaluation of believers' works (Rev 22:12).

3:21 all things are yours. The Stoic literature of the time, which the Corinthians would have known, often spoke of the wise man as possessing everything. Everything God has done in the church, and in the entire universe, benefits all believers. There is no place for foolish boasting or competition among Christians.

4:5 do not go on passing judgment. While believers can benefit from the constructive evaluations of other believers, their ultimate Judge is the Lord Himself. We cannot know the whole picture, and we must be careful not to make premature evaluations of others.

4:6 become arrogant and boast. Greeks considered humility to be a fault, a characteristic of slaves. To the Christian, however, it exemplifies the attitude of Christ (Php 2:5–8).

4:10 fools for Christ. True strength is found in understanding our weakness and Christ's sufficiency (2Co 12:7–10; Php 4:11–13).

5:1 sexual immorality. The sexual immorality of incest was forbidden by Old Testament law (Lev 18:8; Dt 22:30) and by Roman law. The phrase "his father's wife" probably indicates that the woman was the offender's stepmother. Paul does not specify any discipline for the woman, which may indicate that she was not a believer.

5:2 proud and arrogant! You should have mourned in shame. The Corinthian Christians had a twisted view of grace that caused them to be proud of their tolerance of the sexual offender. They believed that, because God's grace is limitless, living in sin was no problem.

5:6 a little leaven. The backdrop for this passage is the Passover (Ex 12). In commemoration of their ancestors' hurried departure from Egypt, Jewish families would carefully remove all leaven (yeast) from their homes in preparation for the celebration of the Passover. In the New Testament, leaven is often used as a symbol of sin. Yeast spreads through a batch of dough, and unchallenged sin can soon contaminate the whole church. The sexual offender was guilty of sin, but the whole congregation was also guilty of ignoring the man's disobedience.

5:9 my [previous] letter. It is believed that this refers to an earlier letter which has been lost.

5:10 of this world. Christians are called to influence the world, not to run away from it (Mt 5:13–16). They are agents of God to carry the light of Jesus Christ into a dark world (Php 2:14–16; 1Pe 2:11–12).

6:9 kingdom of God. This term seems to refer to a future time when God will rule the earth in righteousness (Mt 6:10; Lk 11:2).

6:11 Changed Life— The greatest proof of the new birth is a changed life. The child of God now suddenly loves the following: Go to Theological Notes Index

He loves Jesus. Before conversion the sinner might hold Christ in high esteem, but after conversion he loves the Savior (1Jn 5:1–2).

He loves the Bible. We should love God's Word as the psalmist did in Psalm 119. There he expresses his great love for God's Word 17 times.

He loves other Christians. "We know that we have passed out of death into Life, because we love the brothers and sisters" (1Jn 3:14).

He loves his enemies. (Mt 5:43–45).

He loves the souls of all people. Like Paul, he too can cry out for the conversion of loved ones. "Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation" (Ro 10:1).

He loves the pure life. John says, if one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him (1Jn 2:15–17).

17 ).

He loves to talk to God. “Speak to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [offering praise by] singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord” (Eph 5:19 ).

6:13 Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food. The stomach’s purpose is to digest food, but it is not the purpose of the body to commit immorality. Furthermore, by design God put restrictions on both eating and sexual activity. Eating to the point of gluttony and having sex outside of marriage both violate God’s intent and are sinful.

6:15 your bodies are members of Christ. Becoming a Christ follower is not just a “spiritual experience.” Our bodies belong to Jesus as well as our souls, and nothing that we do with our bodies is apart from our relationship with Jesus Christ.

6:16 one body. God designed sex as part of the intense “one flesh” bond between husband and wife, so sex is not a one-dimensional physical act. It involves soul, spirit, and emotions as well. Broken sexual relationships tear away at a person’s very being in a way that nothing else does.

6:19 The Work of the Holy Spirit— The Holy Spirit is sometimes referred to as the Paraclete . The first part of that word, “para,” is a preposition that means “coming alongside.” As the Spirit comes alongside of us, it ministers in the following ways: Go to Theological Notes Index

The Holy Spirit indwells Christians. The Bible teaches that believers are indwelt and are the “temple of the Holy Spirit” (1Co 6:19 ). The purpose of this indwelling ministry is to empower the newly created nature (2Co 5:17 ; Eph 3:16 ).

The Holy Spirit fills believers. We are admonished to “be filled with the [Holy] Spirit” (Eph 5:18 ). We are then to be subject to the control of the Spirit in contrast to being controlled by the lures of the world.

The Holy Spirit sanctifies the believer (Ro 15:16 ; 2Th 2:13 ).

The Holy Spirit produces fruit in the life of the believer. This fruit is described by Paul: “But the fruit of the Spirit . . . is love . . . joy, [inner] peace, patience . . . kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control” (Gal 5:22–23 ).

The Holy Spirit gives gifts to Christians (Ro 12:6–8 ; 1Co 12:1–11 ; Eph 4:7–12 ). These are abilities given to every Christian (1Co 7:7 ; 1Pe 4:10 ). The purpose of these gifts is to glorify God (Rev 4:11 ) and to edify the body of Christ (Eph 4:12–13 ).

The Holy Spirit teaches believers. He will instruct us in all spiritual things as we read the Word of God (Jn 14:26 ) and abide in the Son of God (1Jn 2:24–27 ).

6:20 bought with a price. With His death, Jesus Christ paid the cost to redeem us from our slavery to sin (Eph 1:7 ; 1Pe 1:18–19 ).

7:6 concession, not as a command. The Corinthians seemed to be caught by two extreme false positions: the false concept that physical activity does not affect the spirit, and the opposite incorrect idea that any kind of physical relationship is evil. Sexual relationships in marriage are good and God given, yet Paul also outlines the value of celibacy.

7:11 remain single. This statement is consistent with Jesus’ teaching (Mk 10:9–12 ).

7:16 how do you know. First Peter 3:1–6 reminds us that consistent obedience to God can make a skeptical spouse into a believing one, but there are no guarantees.

7:17 live the life which the Lord has assigned him. Social status is unimportant to God. He is interested in faithfulness.

7:27 bound to a wife . . . released. Considering the clear prohibition against divorce and remarriage (v. 10–11 ), this verse is most likely referring to couples who are betrothed but not yet married.

7:36–38 his virgin daughter. One interpretation of this verse is that this refers to a virgin daughter, although the word “daughter” is not actually in the Greek text. A second interpretation suggests that the any man of verse 36 refers to a fiancé who is maintaining, although with difficulty, a celibate state with a virgin he is (or has been) engaged to.

7:40 I think that I also have the Spirit of God. The Holy Spirit enabled Paul to speak with apostolic authority and also with spiritual wisdom.

8:4 there is no God but one. The Corinthian believers who claimed to have knowledge readily admitted that an idol is nothing (Isa 37:19 ; Jer 16:20 ; Gal 4:8 ) and that there is only one God (Dt 6:4 ). Therefore, since an idol is nothing, and since the whole world belongs to God, food which has been offered to idols is not contaminated (10:19 ,25–26 ).

8:7 accustomed [throughout their lives] to [thinking of] the idol. Even though it is true that an idol is not a real god, a new believer leaving a life of idol worship is still accustomed to thinking of the idol as real. Because of this strong association, eating meat sacrificed to an idol might still feel like paying honor to the idol, and thus seem vile and contaminating. A person who still feels the pull of the old worship is right to flee from all remembrances of it (10:20–23 ).

8:12 wound their weak conscience. The believer is given responsibility for a weaker brother’s conscience. It is sin to cause another to fall or to be wounded in the conscience. God is warning believers to stay away from questionable things.

9:1 an apostle. Paul could claim the title of apostle because he had seen the resurrected Lord (Ac 1:21–22 ), and the church in Corinth was his work in the Lord, a seal of his apostleship.

9:14 get their living from the gospel. God commands that ministers of the gospel be supported. Even as the priests in Israel were supported for their work, New Testament ministers were to be provided for as well (1Ti 5:17–18 ).

9:20 To the Jews I became as a Jew. In order to relate to the Jews in Jerusalem, Paul made a Nazirite vow in the temple (Ac 21:23–24 ).

9:21 under the law of Christ. Paul was not lawless; he was differentiating between the law of the Old Covenant and the broader law of Christ which includes great freedom and flexibility for the believer whose heart is obedient to Christ’s will (11:1 ; Ro 13:8 ; Gal 6:2 ).

9:27 will not somehow be disqualified. A careful distinction should be made between the prize and the gift. The free gift of justification cannot be the result of good works (Ro 4:1–8 ). The prize or crown, however, is the reward for endurance and suffering for the cause of Christ (Php 1:29 ; 2Ti 2:12 ).

10:1 under the cloud. When the ancient Israelites were wandering in the wilderness, the pillar of cloud was the visible manifestation of God’s presence with them.

10:6 crave evil things. The first failure of the Israelites was that they were not satisfied with God’s provision (Nu 11:4–34 ). It is not that the food they craved was evil in itself, but their lack of trust in God was sin.

10:7 worshipers of handmade gods. The Israelites had seen God’s mighty hand work on their behalf, yet they still fell into idolatry and sexual immorality. Knowledge alone does not protect against sin—obedience is a heart issue.

10:12 take care that he does not fall. The Corinthians may have had the attitude that, since they were justified by God, nothing could happen to them. The discipline of God, however, is not to be taken lightly. No one can sin without consequences (Gal 6:7–8 ).

10:14 run [keep far, far away] from [any sort of] idolatry. This was not a simple thing to do in ancient Greek culture, where the worship of multiple gods was deeply ingrained. There were idols on street corners and in houses. Various civic societies paid homage to their favorite gods. Cities adopted certain gods as their special protectors. The pagan temples were frequented often, especially in Corinth with its temple prostitution. Most of the food in the marketplace had been offered in worship to different gods.

10:20 sacrifice to demons. While the idols themselves are worthless, powerless, and certainly not gods, behind the statues and images is the very real evil and power of Satan and his demons. Anytime that worship is being directed at something that is not God, we can be sure that Satan is behind it.

10:22 provoke the Lord to jealousy. To participate in idolatrous activity is to deny that God is the only one worthy of worship.

10:23 All things are lawful. Though we have freedom, we also have a responsibility to help others in their Christian growth. Our first duty is to others, not to ourselves.

10:25 Eat anything that is sold. Paul himself did not ask whether meat was sacrificed in the temple, because pagan worship could not contaminate what God had made clean (Ps 24:1 ; Ac 10:15 ).

10:28 for conscience's sake. Believers do not need to fearfully ask whether the meat they are eating has been sacrificed to idols—it doesn't make any difference to the food itself. However, a Christian may give the impression to others, by eating sacrificed food, that he himself is also still involved in idol worship.

11:3 the head. The term “head” primarily means “authority” when used in the context of human relationships, but it can also mean “source” or “origin.” The relationship between men and women does not involve inferiority; in the parallel clause Christ is not inferior to God the Father. Just as Christ and God are equally divine, men and women are equal in God’s image. But Jesus and God the Father have different roles in God’s plan of salvation, and so also men and women are given different roles in life and in the church.

11:4 prays or prophesies. This may refer to intercessory prayer similar to that of Old Testament prophets (Ge 20:7 ; 1Sa 12:23 ; Jer 27:18 ), or Anna (Lk 2:36–38 ), or to the combination of tongues and prayer (14:13–16 ; Ac 2:4 ; 10:46 ). The term “prophesy” means to speak forth the words of God (14:3 ).

11:5 every woman who prays or prophesies. It is difficult from this passage alone to tell exactly what a woman’s role is to be in the Christian assembly, but it appears that women did minister to other believers through prayer and prophecy (see also 1Ti 2:11–14 ). shaved. For a woman to have her head shaved was a sign of public disgrace.

11:9 woman for the sake of man. This does not mean that women are inferior to men; it refers only to the purposes of God for men and women in the creative order, and the woman’s God-given role of “helper” (Ge 2:20 ).

11:10 authority. Some think that this might be a symbol of the woman’s authority to prophesy in the new church age; others believe that it might refer to a symbol of the man’s authority over the woman and her willingness to submit to God’s order. for the sake of the angels. Evidently God’s angels are present at the meetings of the church and actually learn of God’s work of grace through the lives and worship of God’s people (Eph 3:10 ).

11:11 woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman. Men and women need each other, and as creatures of God, both depend on Him. Neither man nor woman can have any claim to special status other than what God has purposed for them as their Creator.

11:19 those who are of approved character. Paul is here being sarcastic, suggesting that some individuals within the church felt that they alone were truly approved of by the Lord, and trying to separate themselves from other believers whom they felt to be unapproved or less-approved by God than themselves. He condemns this attitude in these verses.

11:20 the Lord's Supper. The Lord’s Supper was the centerpiece of early Christian worship. Gathered around one table, fellow believers met with the Lord and with each other in unity. Christ had expressed this type of humility and unity when He instituted the Supper (Mt 26:26–30 ; Mk 14:22–26 ; Lk 22:14–23 ).

11:26 you are [symbolically] proclaiming [the fact of] the Lord's death until He comes. The Lord’s Supper looks back to Christ's death and forward to His second coming (Mt 26:29 ; Mk 14:25 ; Lk 22:18 ).

11:30 sleep. The death of Christians is often referred to as "sleep" (15:18 ; 1Th 4:15–16 ). In this passage, it refers to untimely death, a punishment suffered by some Christians who failed to examine themselves at the Lord's Supper (v. 28 ).

12:1–10 Using Spiritual Gifts— Spiritual gifts are discussed in detail in four passages of the New Testament: Romans 12:3–8 ; 1 Corinthians 12:1–10 ; Ephesians 4:11–12 ; and 1 Peter 4:10–11 . These lists are not exhaustive but are to be regarded as representative of spiritual gifts. They are given by the Spirit of God to accomplish God's purpose in the world and for the edification of the church, the body of Christ. Every believer has been given spiritual gifts (Ro 12:5–6 ; 1Co 12:7 ; 1Pe 4:10 ). The gifts belong to God and are given for the believer to use for the glory of God (1Pe 4:11 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

12:3 cursed . . . Lord. A person speaking by the Holy Spirit will never curse Jesus; by the same token, no one can genuinely proclaim the lordship of Jesus without the enabling of the Spirit.

12:4 gifts. These gifts are spiritual capacities that God gives to individual Christians, through which He may strengthen His people.

12:13 by one [Holy] Spirit. "By" here may also be translated "in," speaking of location. Christ places each new member of the body in the Holy Spirit for His care and safekeeping (2Co 1:22 ).

12:18 God has placed and arranged the parts in the body. We should neither boast in what we do nor think too little of ourselves. Each one of us is important to God and has a mission to accomplish here on earth.

12:28 apostles. The term "apostle" or "sent one" refers generally to missionaries (15:7 ; Ro 16:7 ; 2Co 11:5 , 12:11 ; Gal 1:17–19 ). Other times the term is limited to the small group who witnessed the resurrected Christ and were given a special mission by Him as His representatives (9:1 ; 15:5 ,8 ).

12:31 earnestly desire and strive for the greater gifts. This phrase has generally been interpreted as Paul's exhortation to the Corinthians to seek after the more spiritually profitable gifts, yet it is possible that Paul is stating that the Corinthians were improperly desiring the gifts that would bring attention to themselves. In other words, he would be telling them that, although they desire this sort of gift, he wants to show them a more excellent way.

13:1–13 Love— The word love is also translated charity . The more one reads 1 Corinthians 13 , the more one has to face the fact that we don't naturally have that kind of love in us. The only way to get it is to get it from God. Love comes from God (1Jn 4:7 ). We're not very good at this kind of loving, and the only way we can be is through the empowering work of the Holy Spirit. It is tough because it means dependency on God for that which we cannot do by ourselves. It is tough because the objects of our love often act in unlovable ways or they reject our love when we give it. It is tough because we have to keep coming back with more love, even when it is rejected. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:8 Love never fails. This uncompromising and bold affirmation introduces the contrast with the spiritual gifts which will not last. Paul wants the Corinthians to know that all the gifts would one day no longer be needed, but charity, or love.

13:10 when that which is complete and perfect comes. The Greek word for "perfect" means "end" or "completion." Most likely, this is a reference to the second coming of Christ and the completion of all things, but some have interpreted this as referring to the completion of the New Testament canon.

14:3 prophesies. In this sense, prophecy incorporates all speaking gifts that edify the church (Ro 12:6 ; 1Pe 4:11 ).

14:11 I do not know the meaning. Paul underlines the original purpose of all spiritual gifts: they must serve the church (vv. 13–14 ; 12:7 ). Tongues must convey meaning or else they fail to help those who listen.

14:16 Amen. The word “amen” means “truly” or “so be it” (Jn 3:5 ). Saying “amen” indicated agreement with what was being said (Dt 27:14–26 ; Rev 5:14 ).

14:29 two or three. The meetings of the church should be characterized by orderliness and moderation. weigh. No one, not even a person exercising a spiritual gift, is exempt from accountability to the church (6:5 ; 11:29–31 ).

14:32 subject to the prophets. Paul anticipated that some might excuse disorder by claiming that they could not prevent themselves from prophesying when God brought a revelation to them. He explained that the Holy Spirit does not overpower the person through whom He speaks.

14:34 women should be silent. This command is the subject of much debate, for it seems to contradict the fact that Paul spoke of women prophesying in 1 Corinthians 11:5 . It has been suggested that Paul was addressing a particular problem in the Corinthian church, a group of women who were disruptive, but the prohibition is repeated at a different time to a different group of people (1Ti 2:11–12 ). This verse has also been interpreted as a prohibition on women interpreting prophecy, judging the prophets, or speaking in tongues. Others believe that women do prophesy and minister, but only to other women, or in a setting other than public church meetings, such as Priscilla and Aquila instructing Apollos (Ac 18:24–28 ).

14:40 appropriately and in an orderly manner. This verse is the key to all church practice. In worship and teaching, as in all of life, believers should demonstrate self-control and consideration.

15:3–4 Gospel Message— Paul makes it clear here that evangelism should be centered on the gospel of Christ. The central point of the good news is Christ’s death and resurrection. The four key points about that gospel are:

God’s Word says all are sinners, condemned to hell (Isa 53:6 ; Ro 3:10–11 , 23 ; 5:8 , 12 ; Rev 20:15 ).

There is nothing a sinner can do on his own to save himself (Isa 64:6 ; Eph 2:9 ).

Christ was born, crucified, and resurrected to save lost people from their sin (Jn 3:16 ; 1Ti 1:15 ).

To be saved, a sinner must believe God’s Word and invite Christ into his or her heart by faith (Jn 5:24 ; Ac 16:31 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

15:3 according to [that which] the Scriptures [foretold]. Christ lived and died in accordance with the prophecies about Him in the Old Testament (Ps 16:10 ; Isa 53:8–10 ).

15:8 untimely (prematurely, traumatically) born. This is probably Paul’s comment on the unique way that he became an apostle. Unlike the other apostles, who had the benefit of an initial training period with Christ, Paul became an apostle abruptly, with no opportunity for earthly contact with Christ or His teaching.

15:9 fiercely oppressed and violently persecuted the church. The story of Paul’s persecuting and conversion is told in Acts 9 , 22 ; Ephesians 3:8 ; 1 Timothy 1:15–16 .

15:12 no resurrection. These opponents of Paul may have been denying the reality of Christ’s resurrection. They may also have been teaching that resurrection is only spiritual and not physical; or they may have been teaching that the resurrection had already happened (2Ti 2:18 ). Whatever the case, they contradicted the essential teaching that Christ had been physically raised from the dead and that all believers in Him will someday also be resurrected.

15:15 false witnesses. In verses 5–8 Paul listed several people, including himself, who had witnessed the resurrected Christ. To deny the resurrection was to call these people liars.

15:17 Resurrection— There are many biblical scholars these days who say that the resurrection was an invented story out of some kind of “faith” process. They relegate the critical event that defines Christianity to the imaginations of some well-meaning but deluded Palestinian peasants. Paul goes to great pains to put the resurrection in the realm of fact, not opinion or imagination. He talks about the eyewitness testimony of hundreds (v. 6 ). He references his own story of personal confrontation with Christ (v. 8 ). In the end he says that if the resurrection isn’t a fact, then he is absolutely lost (v. 19 ). This sounds like a man who staked his entire life on an indisputable fact. Go to Theological Notes Index

15:19 miserable. If Christ did not rise, then He is just another dead prophet with no power over sin or death, and the Christian's hope of eternal life is a lie.

15:20 first fruits. The "first fruit" is the first installment of a crop, which anticipates and guarantees the ultimate offering of the whole crop (16:15 ; Ro 8:23 ). Because Christ rose from the dead, those who are asleep in Christ (1Th 4:15–16 ) have a guarantee of their own resurrection.

15:21 by a man that death came. The first man, Adam, transgressed God's law and brought sin and death into the world (Ge 2:17 ; 3:19 ; Ro 5:12–21 ); the second man, Jesus Christ, was the perfect sacrifice to take away sin and to bring life and resurrection to those who believe in Him (Ro 5:15–21 ).

15:23 each in his own order. The believers who have died will be the first to rise at Christ's coming and be reunited with their physical bodies. Following this is the removal of all living Christians from the earth (1Th 4:13–18 ).

15:29 baptized for the dead. It may be that some of the Corinthians had for some reason been baptized on behalf of others who had died without baptism. Paul does not address whether this practice was right or wrong (although his use of "they" rather than "we" indicates that he did not participate), but makes the point that their own actions are inconsistent with their beliefs. There would be no point in doing anything for the dead if there is no resurrection.

15:30 in danger. If this life is all there is, it would make more sense to take the position of the Epicureans, seeking pleasure and avoiding pain.

15:32 wild animals at Ephesus. This may be a figurative reference to Paul's enemies at Ephesus (Ac 19 ).

15:36 unless it first dies. Difficulty understanding the nature of the resurrection should not cause a person to doubt its reality any more than not understanding how a seed becomes a plant should cause disbelief in the coming harvest.

15:44 natural body . . . spiritual body. The contrast is not between a material body and an immaterial body, but between a body subject to death and a body that is immortal.

15:54 D EATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory. Satan's apparent victories in the garden of Eden (Ge 3:13 ) and at the cross (Mk 15:22–24 ) were reversed by Jesus' death and resurrection (Col 2:13–15 ).

15:58 your labor [even to the point of exhaustion] in the Lord is not futile nor wasted. We are looking forward to eternal life because of the hope of the resurrection; everything we do on this earth matters for eternity.

16:2 the first day of every week. It appears that the custom of believers meeting on the first day of the week began early in Christian history. put something aside. The Old Testament tithe was not adopted by the New Testament church, though certainly Christ practiced it. New Testament believers were encouraged to give liberally, but never a specified amount or percentage (Ro 12:8 ). Considering the New Testament teachings on generosity and self-sacrifice, believers should probably expect to give much more than ten percent.

16:13 Act like [mature] men. This phrase emphasizes bravery as well as maturity. Paul's command to do everything with love serves as a balance to these strong exhortations.

16:17 Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus. These were probably the ones who confirmed the bad report brought by Chloe's household in 1 Corinthians 1:11 .

16:19 Aquila and Prisca. Aquila and Prisca were tentmakers who had met Paul in Corinth. They followed him to Ephesus and made their house available for the meetings of the church (Ro 16:3–5 ). They would have been known to many in the Corinthian church.

16:20 holy kiss. In the ancient world (as in many cultures still today), a kiss was a common form of friendly or affectionate greeting.

16:22 be accursed. Paul does not condemn unbelievers, but rather unbelievers condemn themselves by ignoring the claims of the Creator on their lives.

The Second Letter of Paul to the # Corinthians

- AUTHOR: External and internal evidence amply support the Pauline authorship of this letter. There is an interval of about a year between these two letters to the Corinthians. Since Paul's first letter, the Corinthian church had been swayed by false teachers who stirred the people against Paul. They claimed he was fickle, arrogant, unimpressive in appearance and speech, and unqualified to be an apostle of Jesus Christ. During this time Paul has paid them what must have been an unpleasant visit and then wrote them another letter, which we do not have (2:1–4 ). Paul wrote 2 Corinthians in AD 56 in Macedonia and sent the letter to the church with Titus and another brother (8:16 ).
- TIMES: c. AD 56
- KEY VERSES: 2Co 4:5–6
- THEME: As Paul writes this letter, he is looking forward to yet another visit, and it appears that the Corinthians have listened to him and things are getting on the right track. There are still some problems though. The key issue seems to be Paul's leadership. He spends a good deal of the letter establishing his authority and the need to exercise it, which makes the letter intensely personal. In it we can see the depth of his relationship with the Corinthians, and we get an understanding of the hardships Paul went through for these people on his missionary journeys. Most importantly we see a faith that is so focused that Paul is ready to endure anything to see it spread.

2 Corinthians 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah) by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, ‡

To the church of God which is at Corinth, and to all the saints (God's people) throughout Achaia (southern Greece):

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Blessed [gratefully praised and adored] be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, ‡

<sup>4</sup>. who comforts and encourages us in every trouble so that we will be able to comfort and encourage those who are in any kind of trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

<sup>5</sup>. For just as Christ's sufferings are ours in abundance [as they overflow to His followers], so also our comfort [our reassurance, our encouragement, our consolation] is abundant through Christ [it is truly more than enough to endure what we must]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But if we are troubled and distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted and encouraged, it is for your comfort, which works [in you] when you patiently endure the same sufferings which we experience. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And our hope for you [our confident expectation of good for you] is firmly grounded [assured and unshaken], since we know that just as you share as partners in our sufferings, so also you share as partners in our comfort ‡

<sup>8</sup>. For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about our trouble in [the west coast province of] Asia [Minor], how we were utterly weighed down, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life [itself]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Indeed, we felt within ourselves that we had received the sentence of death [and were convinced that we would die, but this happened] so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead. ‡

<sup>10</sup> He rescued us from so great a threat of death, and will continue to rescue us. On Him we have set our hope. And He will again rescue us [from danger and draw us near], ‡

<sup>11</sup> while you join in helping us by your prayers. Then thanks will be given by many persons on our behalf for the gracious gift [of deliverance] granted to us through the prayers of many [believers]. ‡

Paul's Integrity

<sup>12</sup>This is our [reason for] proud confidence: our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world [in general], and especially toward you, with pure motives and godly sincerity, not in human wisdom, but in the grace of God [that is, His gracious lovingkindness that leads people to Christ and spiritual maturity]. ‡

<sup>13</sup>For we write you nothing other than what you read and understand [there is no double meaning in what we say]. And I hope you will [accurately] understand [divine things] until the end;

<sup>14</sup>just as you have [already] partially understood us, [and one day will recognize] that you can be proud of us just as we are of you, in the day of our Lord Jesus. ‡

<sup>15</sup>It was with this confidence that I planned at first to visit you, so that you might receive twice a token of grace; ‡

<sup>16</sup>that is, [I wanted] to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and [then] to come back to you [on my return] from Macedonia, and have you send me on my way to Judea. ‡

<sup>17</sup>So then, was I indecisive or capricious when I was [originally] planning this? Or the things I plan, do I plan in a self-serving way like a worldly man, ready to say, “Yes, yes” and “No, no” [at the same time]? ‡

<sup>18</sup>But [as surely as] God is faithful and means what He says, our message to you is not “Yes” and “No” [at the same time].

<sup>19</sup>For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not “Yes” and “No,” but has proved to be “Yes” in Him [true and faithful, the divine “Yes” affirming God’s promises]. ‡

<sup>20</sup>For as many as are the promises of God, in Christ they are [all answered] “Yes.” So through Him we say our “Amen” to the glory of God. ‡

<sup>21</sup>Now it is God who establishes and confirms us [in joint fellowship] with you in Christ, and who has anointed us [empowering us with the gifts of the Spirit]; ‡

<sup>22</sup>it is He who has also put His seal on us [that is, He has appropriated us and certified us as His] and has given us the [Holy] Spirit in our hearts as a pledge [like a security deposit to guarantee the fulfillment of His promise of eternal life]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> But I call on God as my soul's witness, that it was to spare you [pain and discouragement] that I did not come again to Corinth—‡

<sup>24</sup> not that we rule [like dictators] over your faith, but rather we work with you for [the increase of] your joy; for in your faith you stand firm [in your strong conviction that Jesus of Nazareth—the Messiah—is the Son of God, through whom we obtain eternal salvation].‡

2 Corinthians 2

Reaffirm Your Love

<sup>1</sup> BUT I made up my mind not to grieve you with another painful visit.‡

<sup>2</sup> For if I cause you grief [by a well-deserved rebuke], who then provides me enjoyment but the very one whom I have made sad?

<sup>3</sup> And I wrote this same thing to you, so that when I came, I would not be filled with sorrow by those who ought to make me glad, for I trusted in you and felt confident that my joy would be shared by all of you.‡

<sup>4</sup> For I wrote to you out of great distress and with an anguished heart, and with many tears, not to cause you sorrow but to make you realize the [overflowing] love which I have especially for you.‡

<sup>5</sup>. But if someone has caused [all this] sorrow, he has caused it not to me, but in some degree—not to put it too severely—[he has distressed and grieved] all of you.‡

<sup>7</sup>. so instead [of further rebuke, now] you should rather [graciously] forgive and comfort and encourage him, to keep him from being overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.‡

<sup>8</sup> Therefore I urge you to reinstate him in your affections and reaffirm your love for him.

<sup>9</sup> For this was my purpose in writing, to see if you would stand the test, whether you are obedient and committed to following my instruction in all things.‡

<sup>10</sup> If you forgive anyone anything, I too forgive [that one]; and what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of [and with the approval of] Christ, <sup>11</sup> to keep Satan from taking advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

12 Now when I arrived at Troas to preach the good news of Christ, even though a door [of opportunity] opened for me in the Lord, ‡

13 my spirit could not rest because I did not find my brother Titus there; so saying goodbye to them, I left for Macedonia. ‡

14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us spreads and makes evident everywhere the sweet fragrance of the knowledge of Him. ‡

15 For we are the sweet fragrance of Christ [which ascends] to God, [discernible both] among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing; ‡

16 to the latter one an aroma from death to death [a fatal, offensive odor], but to the other an aroma from life to life [a vital fragrance, living and fresh]. And who is adequate and sufficiently qualified for these things? ‡

17 For we are not like many, [acting like merchants] peddling God's word [shortchanging and adulterating God's message]; but from pure [uncompromised] motives, as [commissioned and sent] from God, we speak [His message] in Christ in the sight of God. ‡

2 Corinthians 3

Ministers of a New Covenant

1 ARE WE starting to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some [false teachers], letters of recommendation to you or from you? [No!] ‡

2 You are our letter [of recommendation], written in our hearts, recognized and read by everyone. ‡

3 You show that you are a letter from Christ, delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.  [Ex 24:12; 31:18; 32:15, 16; Jer 31:33 ] ‡

4 Such is the confidence and steadfast reliance and absolute trust that we have through Christ toward God.

5 Not that we are sufficiently qualified in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency and qualifications come from God. ‡

6 He has qualified us [making us sufficient] as ministers of a new covenant [of salvation through Christ], not of the letter [of a written code] but of the Spirit; for the letter [of the Law] kills [by revealing sin and demanding obedience], but the Spirit gives life.  [Jer 31:31 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now if the ministry of death, engraved in letters on stones [the covenant of the Law which led to death because of sin], came with such glory and splendor that the Israelites were not able to look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory, [a brilliance] that was fading,  [Ex 34:29–35. ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> how will the ministry of the Spirit [the new covenant which allows us to be Spirit-filled] fail to be even more glorious and splendid? ‡

<sup>9</sup> For if the ministry that brings condemnation [the old covenant, the Law] has glory, how much more does glory overflow in the ministry that brings righteousness [the new covenant which declares believers free of guilt and sets them apart for God's special purpose]! ‡

<sup>10</sup> Indeed, what had glory [the Law], in this case no longer has glory because of the glory that surpasses it [the gospel].

<sup>11</sup> For if that [Law] which fades away came with glory, how much more must that [gospel] which remains and is permanent abide in glory and splendor!

<sup>12</sup> Since we have such a [glorious] hope and confident expectation, we speak with great courage, ‡

<sup>13</sup> and we are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face so that the Israelites would not gaze at the end of the glory which was fading away. ‡

<sup>14</sup> But [in fact] their minds were hardened [for they had lost the ability to understand]; for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains unlifted, because it is removed [only] in Christ. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil [of blindness] lies over their heart;

<sup>16</sup> but whenever a person turns [in repentance and faith] to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty [emancipation from bondage, true freedom].  [Is 61:1, 2. ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> And we all, with unveiled face, continually seeing as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are progressively being transformed into His image from [one degree of] glory to [even more] glory, which comes from the Lord, [who is] the Spirit. ‡

2 Corinthians 4

Paul's Apostolic Ministry

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, SINCE we have this ministry, just as we received mercy

[from God, granting us salvation, opportunities, and blessings], we do not get discouraged nor lose our motivation. ‡

<sup>2</sup> But we have renounced the disgraceful things hidden because of shame; not walking in trickery or adulterating the word of God, but by stating the truth [openly and plainly], we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God. ‡

<sup>3</sup> But even if our gospel is [in some sense] hidden [behind a veil], it is hidden [only] to those who are perishing; ‡

<sup>4</sup>-among them the god of this world [Satan] has blinded the minds of the unbelieving to prevent them from seeing the illuminating light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves [merely] as your bond-servants for Jesus' sake. ‡

<sup>6</sup> For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," is the One who has shone in our hearts to give us the Light of the knowledge of the glory and majesty of God [clearly revealed] in the face of Christ.  [Gen 1:3 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> But we have this precious treasure [the good news about salvation] in [unworthy] earthen vessels [of human frailty], so that the grandeur and surpassing greatness of the power will be [shown to be] from God [His sufficiency] and not from ourselves. ‡

<sup>8</sup>-We are pressured in every way [hedged in], but not crushed; perplexed [unsure of finding a way out], but not driven to despair; ‡

<sup>9</sup>-hunted down and persecuted, but not deserted [to stand alone]; struck down, but never destroyed; ‡

<sup>10</sup> always carrying around in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the [resurrection] life of Jesus also may be shown in our body. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For we who live are constantly [experiencing the threat of] being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the [resurrection] life of Jesus also may be evidenced in our mortal body [which is subject to death]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> So physical death is [actively] at work in us, but [spiritual] life [is actively at work] in you. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Yet we have the same spirit of faith as he had, who wrote in Scripture, "I BELIEVED , THEREFORE I SPOKE ." We also believe, therefore we also speak,  [Ps 116:10 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> knowing that He who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and will present us [along] with you in His presence. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For all [these] things are for your sake, so that as [God's remarkable, undeserved] grace reaches to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of [our great] God. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Therefore we do not become discouraged [spiritless, disappointed, or afraid]. Though our outer self is [progressively] wasting away, yet our inner self is being [progressively] renewed day by day. ‡

<sup>17</sup> For our momentary, light distress [this passing trouble] is producing for us an eternal weight of glory [a fullness] beyond all measure [surpassing all comparisons, a transcendent splendor and an endless blessedness]! ‡

<sup>18</sup> So we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are unseen; for the things which are visible are temporal [just brief and fleeting], but the things which are invisible are everlasting and imperishable. ‡

2 Corinthians 5

The Temporal and Eternal

<sup>1</sup> FOR WE know that if the earthly tent [our physical body] which is our house is torn down [through death], we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For indeed in this house we groan, longing to be clothed with our [immortal, eternal] celestial dwelling, ‡

<sup>3</sup> so that by putting it on we will not be found naked. ‡

<sup>4</sup> For while we are in this tent, we groan, being burdened [often weighed down, oppressed], not that we want to be unclothed [separated by death from the body], but to be clothed, so that what is mortal [the body] will be swallowed up by life [after the resurrection]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Now He who has made us and prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the [Holy] Spirit as a pledge [a guarantee, a down payment on the fulfillment of His promise]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> So then, being always filled with good courage and confident hope, and knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord

<sup>7</sup> for we walk by faith, not by sight [living our lives in a manner consistent with our confident belief in God's promises]— ‡

<sup>8</sup> we are [as I was saying] of good courage and confident hope, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, whether we are at home [on earth] or away from home [and with Him], it is our [constant] ambition to be pleasing to Him.

<sup>10</sup>For we [believers will be called to account and] must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be repaid for what has been done in the body, whether good or bad [that is, each will be held responsible for his actions, purposes, goals, motives—the use or misuse of his time, opportunities and abilities].‡

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, since we know the fear of the Lord [and understand the importance of obedience and worship], we persuade people [to be reconciled to Him]. But we are plainly known to God [He knows everything about us]; and I hope that we are plainly known also in your consciences [your God-given discernment].‡

<sup>12</sup>We are not commanding ourselves to you again, but are giving you an occasion to be [rightfully] proud of us, so that you will have an answer for those who take pride in [outward] appearances [the virtues they pretend to have] rather than what is [actually] in heart.‡

<sup>13</sup>If we are out of our mind [just unstable fanatics as some critics say], it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for your benefit.‡

<sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ controls and compels us, because we have concluded this, that One died for all, therefore all died;‡

<sup>15</sup>and He died for all, so that all those who live would no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and was raised for their sake.‡

<sup>16</sup>So from now on we regard no one from a human point of view [according to worldly standards and values]. Though we have known Christ from a human point of view, now we no longer know Him in this way.‡

<sup>17</sup>Therefore if anyone is in Christ [that is, grafted in, joined to Him by faith in Him as Savior], he is a new creature [reborn and renewed by the Holy Spirit]; the old things [the previous moral and spiritual condition] have passed away. Behold, new things have come [because spiritual awakening brings a new life].‡

<sup>18</sup>But all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ [making us acceptable to Him] and gave us the ministry of reconciliation [so that by our example we might bring others to Him],‡

<sup>19</sup>that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting people's sins against them [but canceling them]. And He has committed to us the message of reconciliation [that is, restoration to favor with God].‡

<sup>20</sup>So we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making His appeal through us; we [as Christ's representatives] plead with you on behalf of Christ to be reconciled to God. ‡

<sup>21</sup> He made Christ who knew no sin to [judicially] be sin on our behalf, so that in Him we would become the righteousness of God [that is, we would be made acceptable to Him and placed in a right relationship with Him by His gracious lovingkindness]. ‡

2 Corinthians 6

Their Ministry Commended

<sup>2</sup> For He says, ‡

“A T THE ACCEPTABLE TIME (the time of grace) I LISTENED TO YOU

A ND I HELPED YOU ON THE DAY OF SALVATION .”

Behold, now is “THE ACCEPTABLE TIME ,” behold, now is “THE DAY OF SALVATION ”— [Is 49:8 ]

<sup>3</sup> we put no obstruction in anyone's path, so that the ministry will not be discredited, ‡

<sup>4</sup> but we commend ourselves in every way as servants of God: in great endurance, in sufferings, in hardships, in distresses, ‡

<sup>6</sup> in purity and sincerity, in knowledge and spiritual insight, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love,

<sup>7</sup> in [speaking] the word of truth, in the power of God; by the weapons of righteousness for the right hand [like holding the sword to attack] and for the left [like holding the shield to defend], ‡

<sup>8</sup> amid glory and dishonor; by evil report and good report; branded as deceivers and yet [vindicated as] truthful;

<sup>9</sup> as unknown [to the world], yet well-known [by God and His people]; as dying, yet we live; as punished, yet not killed; ‡

<sup>10</sup> as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet bestowing riches on many; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup> We are speaking freely to you, Corinthians [we are keeping nothing back], and our heart is opened wide.  [Is 60:5; Ezek 33:22 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> There is no limit to our affection for you, but you are limited in your own affection [for us]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now in the same way as a fair exchange [for our love toward you]—I am speaking as [I would] to children—open wide [your hearts] to us also. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Do not be unequally bound together with unbelievers [do not make mismatched alliances with them, inconsistent with your faith]. For what partnership can righteousness have with lawlessness? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness? ‡

<sup>15</sup> What harmony can there be between Christ and Belial (Satan)? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever?

<sup>16</sup> What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; just as God said: ‡

“I WILL DWELL AMONG THEM AND WALK AMONG THEM ;
A ND I WILL BE THEIR G OD , AND THEY SHALL BE M Y PEOPLE .  [Ex 25:8; 29:45; Lev 26:12; Jer 31:1; Ezek 37:27 ]

<sup>17</sup> “So COME OUT FROM AMONG UNBELIEVERS AND BE SEPARATE ,” says the Lord, ‡

“A ND DO NOT TOUCH WHAT IS UNCLEAN ;
And I will graciously receive you and welcome you [with favor],  [Is 52:11 ]

<sup>18</sup> And I will be a Father to you, ‡
And you will be My sons and daughters,”
Says the Lord Almighty.  [Is 43:6; Hos 1:10 ]

Paul Reveals His Heart

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, SINCE we have these [great and wonderful] promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, completing holiness [living a consecrated life—a life set apart for God’s purpose] in the fear of God. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Make room for us in your hearts; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have cheated no one. ‡

<sup>3</sup> I do not say this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are [nested] in our hearts [and you will remain there] to die together and to live together [with us]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Great is my confidence in you; great is my pride and boasting on your behalf. I am filled [to the brim] with comfort; I am overflowing with joy in spite of all our trouble. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For even when we arrived in Macedonia our bodies had no rest, but we were oppressed at every turn—conflicts and disputes without, fears and dread within. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But God, who comforts and encourages the depressed and the disquieted, comforted us by the arrival of Titus. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And not only by his arrival, but also by [his account of] the encouragement which he received in regard to you. He told us about your longing [for us], your mourning [over sin], and how eagerly you took my part and supported me, so that I rejoiced even more.

<sup>8</sup> For even though I did grieve you with my letter, I do not regret it [now]; though I did regret it —for I see that the letter hurt you, though only for a little while— ‡

<sup>9</sup> yet I am glad now, not because you were hurt and made sorry, but because your sorrow led to repentance [and you turned back to God]; for you felt a grief such as God meant you to feel, so that you might not suffer loss in anything on our account.

<sup>10</sup> For [godly] sorrow that is in accord with the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation; but worldly sorrow [the hopeless sorrow of those who do not believe] produces death. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For [you can look back and] see what an earnestness and authentic concern this godly sorrow has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves [against charges that you tolerate sin], what indignation [at sin], what fear [of offending God], what longing [for righteousness and justice], what passion [to do what is right], what readiness to punish [those who sin and those who tolerate sin]! At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

<sup>12</sup> So even though I wrote to you [as I did], it was not for the sake of the offender nor for the sake of the one offended, but in order to make evident to you before God how earnestly you do care for us [and your willingness to accept our authority]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> It is for this reason that we are comforted and encouraged. ‡

A nd in addition to our comfort, we were especially delighted at the joy of Titus, because you have refreshed his spirit.

<sup>14</sup> For if I have boasted to him at all concerning you, I was not disappointed. But just as everything we ever said to you was true, so our boasting [about you] to Titus has proved true also.

<sup>15</sup> His affection is greater than ever as he remembers the obedience [to his guidance] that all of you exhibited, and how you received him with the greatest respect. ‡

<sup>16</sup> I rejoice that in everything I have [perfect] confidence in you. ‡

2 Corinthians 8

Great Generosity

<sup>1</sup> NOW, BROTHERS and sisters, we want to tell you about the grace of God which has been evident in the churches of Macedonia [awakening in them a longing to contribute];

<sup>2</sup> for during an ordeal of severe distress, their abundant joy and their deep poverty [together] overflowed in the wealth of their lavish generosity. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For I testify that according to their ability, and beyond their ability, they gave voluntarily,

<sup>4</sup> begging us insistently for the privilege of participating in the service for [the support of] the saints [in Jerusalem]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Not only [did they give materially] as we had hoped, but first they gave themselves to the Lord and to us [as His representatives] by the will of God [disregarding their personal interests and giving as much as they possibly could].

<sup>6</sup> So we urged Titus that, as he began it, he should also complete this gracious work among you as well. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But just as you excel in everything, [and lead the way] in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in genuine concern, and in your love for us, see that you excel in this gracious work [of giving] also. ‡

<sup>8</sup> I am not saying this as a command [to dictate to you], but to prove, by [pointing out] the enthusiasm of others, the sincerity of your love as well. ‡

<sup>9</sup> For you are recognizing [more clearly] the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [His astonishing kindness, His generosity, His gracious favor], that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that by His poverty you might become rich (abundantly blessed). ‡

<sup>10</sup>I give you my opinion in this matter: this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin a year ago not only to take action [to help the believers in Jerusalem], but also [the first] to desire to do it. ‡

<sup>11</sup> So now finish this, so that your eagerness in desiring it may be equaled by your completion of it, according to your ability.

<sup>12</sup> For if the eagerness [to give] is there, it is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he does not have. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For it is not [intended] that others be relieved [of their responsibility] and that you be burdened [unfairly], but that there be equality [in sharing the burden]—

<sup>14</sup> at this present time your surplus [over necessities] is going to supply their need, so that [at some other time] their surplus may be given to supply your need, that there may be equality;

<sup>15</sup> as it is written [in Scripture], “H E WHO gathered MUCH DID NOT HAVE TOO MUCH , AND HE WHO gathered LITTLE DID NOT LACK .”  [Ex 16:18 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God who puts the same genuine concern for you in the heart of Titus.

<sup>17</sup> For Titus not only accepted our appeal, but was so very interested in you that he has gone to visit you of his own accord. ‡

<sup>18</sup> And we have sent along with him the brother who is praised in the gospel [ministry] throughout all the churches; ‡

<sup>19</sup> and not only this, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us in regard to this gracious offering which we are administering for the glory of the Lord Himself, and to show our eagerness [as believers to help one another]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> We are taking precaution so that no one will [find anything with which to] discredit us in our administration of this generous gift.

<sup>21</sup> For we have regard for what is honorable [and above suspicion], not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. ‡

<sup>22</sup> We have sent with them our brother, whom we have often tested and found to be diligent in many things, but who is now even more diligent [than ever] because of his great confidence in you.

<sup>23</sup> As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker in your service; and as for the [other two] brothers, they are [special] messengers of the churches, a glory and credit to Christ. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, show these men, in the sight of the churches, the proof of your love and our reason for being proud of you. ‡

2 Corinthians 9

God Gives Most

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT is unnecessary for me to write to you about the offering [that is to be made] for the saints [in Jerusalem]; ‡

<sup>2</sup> for I know your eagerness [to promote this cause], and I have [proudly] boasted to the people of Macedonia about it, telling them that Achaia has been prepared since last year [for this contribution], and your enthusiasm has inspired the majority of them [to respond]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Still, I am sending the brothers [on to you], so that our pride in you may not be an empty boast in this case, and so that you may be prepared, just as I told them you would be; ‡

<sup>4</sup>-otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—to say nothing of yourselves—will be humiliated for being so confident.

<sup>5</sup> That is why I thought it necessary to urge these brothers to go to you [before I come] and make arrangements in advance for this generous, previously promised gift of yours, so that it would be ready, not as something extorted [or wrung out of you], but as a [voluntary and] generous gift.

<sup>6</sup>-Now [remember] this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows generously [that blessings may come to others] will also reap generously [and be blessed]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Let each one give [thoughtfully and with purpose] just as he has decided in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver [and delights in the one whose heart is in his gift].  [Prov 22:9] ‡

<sup>8</sup>-And God is able to make all grace [every favor and earthly blessing] come in abundance to you, so that you may always [under all circumstances, regardless of the need] have complete sufficiency in everything [being completely self-sufficient in Him], and have an abundance for every good work and act of charity. ‡

<sup>9</sup> As it is written and forever remains written, ‡

“H E [the benevolent and generous person] SCATTERED ABROAD ,
HE GAVE TO THE POOR ,
H IS RIGHTEOUSNESS ENDURES FOREVER !”  [Ps 112:9]

<sup>10</sup> Now He who provides seed for the sower and bread for food will provide and multiply your seed for sowing [that is, your resources] and increase the harvest of your righteousness [which shows itself in active goodness, kindness, and love]. [Is 55:10 ; Hos 10:12] ‡

<sup>11</sup> You will be enriched in every way so that you may be generous, and this [generosity, administered] through us is producing thanksgiving to God [from those who benefit]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> For the ministry of this service (offering) is not only supplying the needs of the saints (God's people), but is also overflowing through many expressions of thanksgiving to God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Because of this act of ministry, they will glorify God for your obedience to the gospel of Christ which you confess, as well as for your generous participation [in this gift] for them and for all [the other believers in need], ‡

<sup>14</sup> and they also long for you while they pray on your behalf, because of the surpassing measure of God's grace [His undeserved favor, mercy, and blessing which is revealed] in you. ‡

15-Now thanks be to God for His indescribable gift [which is precious beyond words]! ‡

2 Corinthians 10

Paul Describes Himself

<sup>1</sup> NOW I, Paul, urge you by the gentleness and graciousness of Christ—I who am meek [so they say] when with you face to face, but bold [outspoken and fearless] toward you when absent! ‡

<sup>2</sup> I ask that when I do come I will not be driven to the boldness that I intend to show toward those few who regard us as if we walked according to the flesh [like men without the Spirit]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For though we walk in the flesh [as mortal men], we are not carrying on our [spiritual] warfare according to the flesh and using the weapons of man.

4-The weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood]. Our weapons are divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses. ‡

<sup>5</sup> We are destroying sophisticated arguments and every exalted and proud thing that sets itself up against the [true] knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought and purpose captive to the obedience of Christ, ‡

obedience [as a church] is complete. ‡

<sup>7</sup> You are looking [only] at the outward appearance of things. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, he should reflect and consider this, that just as he is Christ's, so too are we. ‡

<sup>8</sup> For even though I boast rather freely about the authority the Lord gave us for building you up and not for destroying you, I will not be ashamed [of the truth], ‡

<sup>9</sup> nor do I want to seem to be trying to frighten you with my letters;

<sup>10</sup> for they say, “His letters are weighty and forceful and impressive, but his personal presence is unimpressive and his speech contemptible [of no account].” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Let such people realize that what we say by word in letters when we are absent, is the same as what we are in action when present.

<sup>12</sup> We do not have the audacity to put ourselves in the same class or compare ourselves with some who [supply testimonials to] commend themselves. When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they lack wisdom and behave like fools. ‡

<sup>13</sup> We, on the other hand, will not boast beyond our proper limit, but [will keep] within the limits of our commission (territory, authority) which God has granted to us as a measure, which reaches and includes even you. ‡

<sup>14</sup> We are not overstepping the limits of our province, as if we did not [legitimately] reach to you, for we were the [very] first to come even as far as you with the good news of Christ. ‡

<sup>15</sup> We do not go beyond our proper limit, boasting in the work of other men, but we have the hope that as your faith [in Christ and His divine power] continues to grow, our field among you may be greatly expanded [but still within the limits of our commission], ‡

<sup>16</sup> so that we may preach the gospel even in the lands beyond you, but not to boast in work already accomplished in another one's field of activity.

<sup>18</sup> For it is not he who commands and praises himself who is approved [by God], but it is the one whom the Lord commands and praises. ‡

2 Corinthians 11

Paul Defends His Apostleship

<sup>1</sup> I WISH you would bear with me [while I indulge] in a little foolishness; but indeed you are bearing with me [as you read this]. ‡

<sup>2</sup>I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy because I have promised you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.  [Hos 2:19, 20 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup>But I am afraid that, even as the serpent beguiled Eve by his cunning, your minds may be corrupted and led away from the simplicity of [your sincere and] pure devotion to Christ.  [Gen 3:4] ‡

<sup>4</sup> For [you seem willing to allow it] if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted. You tolerate all this beautifully [welcoming the deception]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But even if I am unskilled in speaking, yet I am not [untrained] in knowledge [I know what I am talking about]; but we have made this evident to you in every way, in all things. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Or did I [perhaps] sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted and honored, because I preached God's gospel to you free of charge?

<sup>8</sup> I robbed other churches by accepting [more than their share of] financial support for my ministry to you.

<sup>9</sup> And when I was with you and ran short [financially], I did not burden any of you; for what I needed was fully supplied by the brothers (Silas and Timothy) who came from Macedonia (the church at Philippi). So I kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and will continue to do so.  [Phil 4:15, 16 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, my boast [of independence] will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia (southern Greece). ‡

<sup>11</sup> Why? Because I do not love you [or wish you well, or have regard for your welfare]? God knows [that I do]! ‡

<sup>12</sup> But what I am doing I will keep doing, [for I am determined to keep this independence] in order to cut off the claim of those who want an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things they brag about. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So it is no great surprise if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, but their end will correspond with their deeds. ‡

<sup>16</sup> I repeat then, let no one think that I am foolish; but even if you do, at least accept me as foolish, so that I too may boast a little.

<sup>18</sup>Since many boast [of worldly things and brag] about human accomplishments, I will boast too.

<sup>20</sup>For you tolerate it if anyone makes you his slave; or devours you and your possessions; or takes advantage of you; or acts presumptuously; or hits you in the face. ‡

<sup>21</sup>To my shame, I must say, we have been too weak [in comparison to those pseudo-apostles who take advantage of you]. ‡

But in whatever anyone else dares to boast—I am speaking foolishly—I also dare to boast.

<sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. ‡

<sup>23</sup>Are they [self-proclaimed] servants of Christ?—I am speaking as if I were out of my mind—I am more so [for I exceed them]; with far more labors, with far more imprisonments, beaten times without number, and often in danger of death. ‡

<sup>25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have spent adrift on the sea; ‡

<sup>26</sup>many times on journeys, [exposed to] danger from rivers, danger from bandits, danger from my own countrymen, danger from the Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger on the sea, danger among those posing as believers; ‡

<sup>27</sup>in labor and hardship, often unable to sleep, in hunger and thirst, often [driven to] fasting [for lack of food], in cold and exposure [without adequate clothing]. ‡

<sup>28</sup>Besides those external things, there is the daily [inescapable] pressure of my concern for all the churches. ‡

<sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I do not feel [his] weakness? Who is made to sin, and I am not on fire [with sorrow and concern]? ‡

<sup>30</sup>If I must boast, I will boast of the things that reveal my weakness [the things by which I am made weak in the eyes of my opponents]. ‡

<sup>31</sup>The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, He who is blessed and to be praised forevermore, knows that I am not lying. ‡

<sup>33</sup> and I was [actually] let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and slipped through his fingers.

2 Corinthians 12

Paul's Vision

<sup>1</sup> IT IS necessary to boast, though nothing is gained by it; but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

<sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, [only] God knows—such a man was caught up to the third heaven.  [Luke 23:43. ]‡

<sup>3</sup> And I know that such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, [only] God knows—

<sup>4</sup> was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words which man is not permitted to speak [words too sacred to tell].‡

<sup>5</sup> On behalf of such a man [and his experiences] I will boast; but in my own behalf I will not boast, except in regard to my weaknesses.‡

<sup>6</sup> If I wish to boast, I will not be foolish, because I will be speaking the truth. But I abstain [from it], so that no one will credit me with more than [is justified by what] he sees in me or hears from me.‡

A Thorn in the Flesh

<sup>7</sup> Because of the surpassing greatness and extraordinary nature of the revelations [which I received from God], for this reason, to keep me from thinking of myself as important, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, to torment and harass me—to keep me from exalting myself!  [Job 2:6 ]‡

<sup>8</sup> Concerning this I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might leave me;‡

<sup>9</sup> but He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you [My lovingkindness and My mercy are more than enough—always available—regardless of the situation]; for [My] power is being perfected [and is completed and shows itself most effectively] in [your] weakness.” Therefore, I will all the more gladly boast in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ [may completely enfold me and] may dwell in me. ‡

<sup>10</sup> So I am well pleased with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, and with difficulties, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak [in human strength], then I am strong [truly able, truly powerful, truly drawing from God's strength]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now I have become foolish; you have forced me [by questioning my apostleship]. Actually I should have been commended by you [instead of being treated disdainfully], for I was not inferior to those super-apostles, even if I am nobody. ‡

<sup>12</sup> The signs that indicate a genuine apostle were performed among you fully and most patiently—signs and wonders and miracles. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For in what respect were you treated as inferior to the rest of the churches, except [for the fact] that I did not burden you [with my financial support]? Forgive me [for doing you] this injustice! ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now for the third time I am ready to visit you. I will not burden you [financially], because I do not want what is yours [not your money or your possessions], but you. For children are not responsible to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But I will very gladly spend [my own resources] and be utterly spent for your souls. If I love you greatly, am I to be loved less [by you]? ‡

<sup>16</sup> But be that as it may, I did not burden you [with my support]. But [some say that] I was sly and took you by trickery. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Did I take advantage of you or make any money off you through any of the messengers I sent you? [Certainly not!] ‡

<sup>18</sup> I urged Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? [No!] Did we not conduct ourselves in the same spirit and walk in the same steps? [Of course!] ‡

<sup>19</sup> All this time you have been thinking that we are [merely] defending ourselves to you. It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking [as one] in Christ; and everything, dearly beloved, is to strengthen you [spiritually]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> For I am afraid that perhaps when I come I may find you not to be as I wish, and that you may find me not as you wish—that perhaps there may be strife, jealousy, angry tempers, disputes, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorder; ‡

<sup>21</sup> I am afraid that when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I may mourn over many of those who have sinned in the past and not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality and decadence which they formerly practiced. ‡

2 Corinthians 13

Examine Yourselves

<sup>1</sup> THIS IS the third time that I am visiting you. EVERY FACT SHALL BE SUSTAINED and CONFIRMED BY THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES . [Deut 19:15] ‡

<sup>2</sup> I have already warned those who have sinned in the past and all the rest as well, and I warn them now even though I am absent [from you] as I did when I was with you the second time, that if I come back I will not spare anyone, ‡

<sup>3</sup> since you seek [forensic] proof that Christ is speaking in and through me. He is not weak or ineffective in dealing with you, but powerful within you. ‡

<sup>4</sup>.For even though He was crucified in weakness [yielding Himself], yet He lives [resurrected] by the power of God [His Father]. For we too are weak in Him [as He was humanly weak], yet we are alive and well [in fellowship] with Him because of the power of God directed toward you. ‡

<sup>5</sup>.Test and evaluate yourselves to see whether you are in the faith and living your lives as [committed] believers. Examine yourselves [not me]! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves [by an ongoing experience] that Jesus Christ is in you—unless indeed you fail the test and are rejected as counterfeit? ‡

<sup>6</sup> But I hope you will acknowledge that we do not fail the test nor are we to be rejected.

<sup>7</sup> But I pray to God that you may do nothing wrong. Not so that we [and our teaching] may appear to be approved, but that you may continue doing what is right, even though we [by comparison] may seem to have failed. ‡

<sup>8</sup> For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth [and the gospel—the good news of salvation].

<sup>9</sup>.We are glad when we are weak [since God's power comes freely through us], but you [by comparison] are strong. We also pray for this, that you be made complete [fully restored, growing and maturing in godly character and spirit—pleasing your heavenly Father by the life you live]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For this reason I am writing these things while absent from you, so that when I come, I will not need to deal severely [with you], in my use of the authority which the Lord has given me [to be used] for building you up and not for tearing you down.‡

<sup>11</sup> Finally, believers, rejoice! Be made complete [be what you should be], be comforted, be like-minded, live in peace [enjoy the spiritual well-being experienced by believers who walk closely with God]; and the God of love and peace [the source of lovingkindness] will be with you.‡

<sup>12</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss.‡

<sup>13</sup> All God's people greet you.

<sup>14</sup>—The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.‡

Annotations for 2 Corinthians

1:4 who comforts and encourages us in every trouble. God comforts us for our own encouragement and also to make us comforters of others. The comfort that God gives to us becomes a gift that we can give to others (7:6 ; Ac 9:10–19 ).

1:5 Christ's sufferings. Jesus warned His disciples that they would experience the same kind of suffering that He did for the sake of the gospel (Jn 15:20 ).

1:8 Asia. This is the Roman province in western Asia Minor, present day Turkey. The trouble that Paul speaks of is likely the riots in Ephesus (Ac 19:23–41 ).

1:12 godly sincerity. The Corinthians certainly were well acquainted with Paul's character, since he had spent 18 months with them (Ac 18:11 ).

1:19 not “Yes” and “No.” Paul's preaching was not inconsistent or contradictory. Instead, his preaching reflected the truthfulness and faithfulness of God, because his teaching was based on the Scriptures and the teachings of Christ.

1:21 anointed us. God confirmed Paul and his fellow workers by anointing them, the special mark of service to God which was given to kings and priests in the Old Testament. This anointing probably refers to special empowerment by the Holy Spirit, similar to the anointing that John described in 1 John 2:20 ,27 .

1:22 put His seal on us. Sealing indicates ownership and security. The sealing and the giving of the Holy Spirit are also linked. The Holy Spirit is a guarantee, the down payment that there is more spiritual blessing to come and that the believer will receive eternal life.

[2:5 caused \[all this\] sorrow.](#) This is probably a reference to the incestuous man of 1 Corinthians 5 .

2:7 forgive and comfort and encourage him. The purpose of church discipline is repentance and restoration. Forgiveness should always follow the correction, just as Christ instructed (Mt 18:15–35 ).

2:12 Troas. Troas was a city on the Aegean coast, where Paul had received his call to preach the gospel in Macedonia (Ac 16:8 ).

2:16 death to death. The gospel message gives life to those who choose to accept it, but it represents death and judgment to those who reject it.

3:2 You are our letter. Paul sometimes did use letters of recommendation (8:22 ; Ro 16:1 ; 1Co 16:10 ; Col 4:10 ), but he did not need one for the Corinthians. They already knew him personally and had personally benefited from his ministry. Paul's love for the Corinthians was known to all who were acquainted with him. One of the qualifications for ministry is love for people, both God's people and the lost.

3:6 not of the letter. The “letter” is the old covenant of law. The “letter” kills because no one can be perfect enough to keep the whole law all the time, and the penalty for breaking it is death.

3:7 ministry of death. Though the law itself is holy (Ro 7:12 ), the ministry of the law is the ministry of death because the law defines and convicts of sin but offers no salvation.

3:9 ministry that brings righteousness. God declares righteous those who believe in His Son, and then the Holy Spirit empowers the believer to live righteously. This first work of God is called justification, and the second is called sanctification.

[3:11 that \[gospel\] which remains.](#) The new covenant supersedes the old covenant established at Mount Sinai between God and the nation of Israel.

3:18 from [one degree of] glory to [even more] glory. As believers behold the glory of God in the Word of God, the Spirit of God changes their hearts and actions to make them more and more like Jesus Christ.

4:2 adulterating the word of God. Apparently Paul had been accused of being crafty (12:16) and of being deceitful in the way that he preached. In fact, his ministry was based on the truthfulness of the word of God.

4:4 blinded the minds of the unbelieving. Because of Satan's deception, sometimes what the world thinks is obviously true is painfully wrong (Pr 14:12). image of God. Jesus Christ is God's Son, and He perfectly reveals God the Father to us. Human beings have been created in the image of God, but through sin they have fallen from a perfect relationship with God. Jesus Christ is restoring believers to what they were originally created to be (3:18; Ge 1:26).

4:8 but not crushed. As believers we will face trials, but we must remember that God controls trials and uses them to strengthen His people. God's glory is manifested through broken vessels, through people who endure troubles by relying on His power.

4:9 struck down. This literally happened (Ac 14:19). In Lystra a crowd stoned Paul, leaving him for dead. But the Lord spared his life so that he could continue to preach the gospel and testify to God's deliverance.

4:12 life [is actively at work] in you. Had Paul not been willing to risk death to bring the gospel to Corinth, the Corinthians would not have received eternal life.

4:17 producing for us. Afflictions produce glory, but the glory is far greater than the affliction (Mk 10:30).

5:2 we groan. Along with the rest of creation, our spirits cry out for what we were meant to be (Ro 8:22–23).

5:5 a pledge. The Holy Spirit's work in believers' lives can be compared to a down payment, or a pledge (1:22). The presence of the Holy Spirit assures believers that God has purchased them. They are no longer slaves to sin, but are now His children.

5:8 be at home with the Lord. This is one of the passages indicating where believers will go after death; they will be with Jesus in heaven (Lk 23:43; Php 1:23).

5:9 our [constant] ambition. Pleasing the Lord should always be our first concern in this life, since it is the only thing which will carry over into the next life.

5:10 what has been done in the body. The believer will either be approved or ashamed (5:3; Lk 19:11–26; 1Co 3:14–15; 9:27; 1Jn 2:28; 2Jn 7–8).

5:11 fear of the Lord. This is the fear of standing before the Lord and having one's life exposed and evaluated. The reality of giving an account to the Lord motivated Paul to persuade people, in this context meaning to convince the Corinthians of his sincerity and integrity.

5:14 love of Christ. This phrase can mean either Christ's love for us or our love for Christ.

5:15 for Him. Believers are united with Jesus both in His death and in His resurrection, and therefore they participate in the new creation. That is, they receive the benefits of being restored by Christ to what God had originally created them to be (Ge 1:26; 1Co 15:45–49).

5:17 Our New Nature—The term "new nature" refers to the spiritual transformation that occurs within people when they believe in Christ as Savior. New does not mean renewed, renovated, reformed, or rehabilitated. It means completely and distinctly new, with a new family, a new set of values, new motivations, and a whole new life. The old man is still present in the new life and expresses himself in sinful deeds such as lying (Eph 4:22; Col 3:9). The new man, to be visible, must be put on, as one would put on a new suit of clothes (Col 3:10 ). In other words, the new nature must be cultivated or nurtured by spiritual decisiveness to grow in Christ. We must not revert to putting on the old suit of the former life; rather, we must continue to grow in this new life (Eph 5:8 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

5:18 ministry of reconciliation. Reconciliation is the change of relation from enmity to peace. We who have been reconciled to God through Christ have the privilege of telling others that they can be reconciled to Him as well.

5:19 reconciling the world to Himself. God could change His relationship toward us because our sins have been imputed (charged) to Christ instead of to us. If we believe in Jesus, God counts Jesus' righteousness as our righteousness (v. 21 ).

5:20 ambassadors. Ambassadors are representatives of the sovereign who sends them, the “stand in” for their own ruler in a foreign country. Christians have been called by their King to serve as ambassadors in a world that is in rebellion against Him, with the responsibility to bring a message of peace and of reconciliation.

6:1 in vain. Believers who live for themselves may have received the grace of God, but they will miss out on a heavenly reward for their service to Him. Paul encourages those who have been saved to work out or develop their salvation (Php 2:12 ). The Corinthians were failing at this very point. They were saved and stuck, so to speak.

6:4 in great endurance. Believers must not expect that it will be easy or comfortable to be a disciple, but it will be more deeply fulfilling than anything else could be.

6:14 unequally bound together with unbelievers. This verse has most often been applied to the subject of marriage, warning believers not to bind themselves for life to one who does not love the Lord.

6:15 Belial. This term for Satan occurs only here in the New Testament. It refers to one who is vile and wicked and who causes destruction.

6:16 we are the temple. This reference to Leviticus 26:11–12 and Ezekiel 37:27 reminds believers of their relationship with God. Since the Holy Spirit is living in them, they are God’s new dwelling place (1Co 6:19 ).

6:17 BE SEPARATE. Paul was not encouraging isolation from unbelievers (1Co 9:5–13 ) but discouraging compromise with their sinful values and practices. He was urging them (and us) to maintain integrity in the world just as Christ did (Jn 15:14–16 ; Php 2:14–16 ).

7:1 completing holiness. This means dedicating ourselves to Christ and living righteously (Heb 6:1 ).

7:3 you are [nested] in our hearts. Paul was not throwing his weight around or trying to be controlling. He loved the Corinthians and wanted the very best for them.

7:10 produces a repentance. A person can be sorry that he or she was caught in sin, or sorry to have to bear the consequences, without repenting of sin. True sorrow leads to a change of heart and a turning to God. Repentance means changing direction, and results in spiritual deliverance.

8:1 Macedonia. Macedonia corresponds to the northern part of present day Greece. Paul had established churches in the Macedonian cities of Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea.

8:8 prove . . . the sincerity of your love. Generosity is the natural result of sincere love.

8:9 you might become rich. Jesus offers forgiveness, justification, regeneration, eternal life, and glorification. He purchased us from slavery to sin, giving us the position of children of God with free access to His presence.

8:10 to your advantage. Giving in this life is an investment for eternity (Mt 6:19–21 ).

9:4 any Macedonians. Paul was in Macedonia when he wrote this letter (2:13 ; 7:5 ). When he made his visit to Corinth he would no doubt bring traveling companions from Macedonia.

9:6–8 Giving— There is no better indicator of growth in the new life than in the area of giving. This passage and others deal with several aspects of giving:

Giving should be done generously, even extravagantly (2Co 9:6).

Giving should be done cheerfully (2Co 9:7).

Giving should be regular (1Co 16:2).

Giving should be systematic (1Co 16:2).

Giving should be proportionate (2Co 8:3).

God is not primarily concerned about the amount of the gift, but with the motive that lies behind it. The person who fails to honor God with his money actually robs God (Mal 3:8), not because it impoverishes God but because it denies the God-ordained means for the support of His work and His ministers. For the child of God who honors God with his money, God promises abundant blessing (Mal 3:10; Lk 6:38) and the provision of his every need (Php 4:19). Go to Theological Notes Index

9:6 also reap sparingly. The law of the harvest is referred to repeatedly in Scripture (Pr 11:24–25; 19:17; Lk 6:38; Gal 6:7). If you do not plant, you will have no harvest.

9:8 God is able. God sees to it that the generous giver will not suffer want. Instead, God generously provides for those who give so that they can continue to do so.

9:15 indescribable gift. Our gifts can never compare with God's sacrifice for us.

10:4 our warfare. The world is hostile to Christ and His followers because the world is following Satan. The life of a believer is not one of ease but a constant spiritual battle.

10:8 building you up. Paul's exhortation was aimed at correcting abuses, not the tearing down of the church.

10:16 lands beyond you. Paul states in Romans that his ambition was to preach the gospel in Spain (Ro 15:24).

11:2 jealous. Usually jealousy has a negative connotation to us—we confuse jealousy with envy or spite. The word has the same root as "zealous," and it can mean a sincere and energetic protection of the rights or purity of a person or place.

11:3 simplicity. In this sense, simplicity indicates sincerity or lack of double motives or cunning.

11:6 unskilled in speaking. Paul may have lacked gifts as a professional speaker, but he did not lack knowledge since he had received direct revelation from the Lord (Gal 1:11–12).

11:7 free of charge. Professional philosophers and teachers in Greek society charged for teaching.

11:14 masquerades as an angel of light. Don't make the mistake of believing that evil always appears grotesque, ugly, or repulsive. Satan's main tool is deception and he is quite capable of making evil appear beautiful.

11:17 I say not as the Lord would. This kind of boasting was not characteristic of the Lord. Jesus Christ was an example of humility (Php 2:5–11).

11:18 about human accomplishments. The false apostles measured themselves by their own standards rather than by God's.

11:21 we have been too weak. Paul's critics had accused him of being weak (10:10). He sarcastically said that he was too weak to rule the Corinthians harshly as the false apostles had done.

11:23 as if I were out of my mind. Paul acknowledged the silliness of such bragging. He knew that only God had made his preaching and service effective. Paul's credentials were superior to those of the false teachers on every point of experience and background, but even so his ministry had authority only because he received it from God.

12:1 visions and revelations. This boasting may have been to counter similar claims by the false teachers.

12:2 fourteen years. Paul wrote 2 Corinthians in AD 56; 14 years earlier would have been AD 42, probably when he was in Antioch (Ac 11:26 ). third heaven. It was common to speak of three “heavens:” The first is the atmosphere where the birds fly; the second is the place of the sun, moon, and stars; the third is where God dwells.

12:7 thorn in the flesh. Most commentators interpret Paul’s thorn as a physical ailment, and many suggest that it was eye trouble on the basis of Galatians 4:15 . It is also possible that “flesh” is a reference to the fallen human nature, in which case the thorn could be a temptation, or it could refer to persecution or opposition. messenger of Satan. God permitted Satan to afflict Paul as He did Job (Job 1-2 ).

12:11 forced me. Only the fact that the Corinthians had listened to the silly slander against Paul had made him waste time on boasting.

12:12 signs that indicate a genuine apostle. God has often used miracles as supernatural evidences of His authority in a new work (Ac 14:3 ).

12:14 the third time. It is not clear whether Paul had already made two previous visits to Corinth, or whether this refers to the third attempt to visit. We know that he had tried to come and had been prevented at least once (1:15-16 ,23 ; 2:1-4 ).

13:4 in weakness. Christ appeared to be weak when He was crucified, but He was raised by the power of God; similarly, Paul was weak, but by the power of God he would live with Christ in strength toward them.

13:5 Examine yourselves. Paul did not doubt that they were true believers (1:1 ,24 ; 7:1 ; 8:1 ; 12:14 ). He wanted them to ask themselves whether they were walking according to the gospel that they professed. He wanted them to apply the same standard to themselves that they were applying to him.

13:9 complete. The Greek word for “complete” was used to describe the setting of bones and the reconciliation of alienated friends.
