How to Use This eBible

What is the difference between an eBook and a print book?

eBook versions of Bibles contain all the content and supplementary materials found in the original print versions and are optimized for navigation in the various apps and devices used for display. eReaders recognize text as one fluid string and are formatted in a single column, which differs from the multi-column layout seen in many print version Bibles. Therefore, some content may not match the exact appearance of the original print version, but instead uses hyperlinks to navigate between related content.

How do I use the eBook Table of Contents?

*Important Note: Be sure to consult your device manufacturer's User's Guide for device-specific navigation instructions.*

The Table of Contents is generally formatted in the same order as the original print version and hyperlinked as follows:

- Front matter – Introductory articles
- Bible books and chapters
- Back matter – Supplementary materials

To navigate to specific Bible books, chapters, or verses, please note the following:

- Book links (Ex. “Genesis”) go directly to the Introduction of each book, or the beginning of that Bible book if there is no introductory text.
- Chapter links go directly to the beginning of the chapter associated with a book.
- Use the device’s “Next Page/Previous Page” buttons or functions to scroll through the verses in each chapter.
- Every Bible book and chapter hyperlink in the Bible text returns or goes back to the Table of Contents. Or, use the device’s “back” button or function to go back to the last selection.

How do I navigate supplementary materials?

Articles and Features related to Bible content are accessible through the pointer links that are interspersed throughout the Bible text.

- Select the hyperlinked content title at the end of a paragraph where referenced Bible verse(s) appear to go to its location in the Annotations section at the end of each Bible book.
- Select the hyperlinked title entry to go back to the Bible verse location, or use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Cross References are marked with small, hyperlinked superscript cross “‡”.

- Select the hyperlinked superscript cross in the main Bible text to the corresponding cross reference(s).
- Select the hyperlinked letter to the left of the cross reference(s) and you are returned to the main Bible text, or use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Theological Notes (commentary) are hyperlinked to Bible verse numbers where study notes are available in the main Bible text. Some notes cover a range of verses while others are verse specific. All verses do not have notes associated with them.

- Select a hyperlinked Bible verse number to the corresponding study note (commentary).
- Select a hyperlinked verse number to the left of the study note (commentary) and you are returned to the main Bible text, or use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Indexes are features that supplement the Bible text and are hyperlinked directly to the content-specific location following the main Bible text.

- Select the hyperlinked entry in the Table of Contents to the specific article, list, or index.
- Select the Bible reference or article hyperlink to the corresponding main Bible text or article.
- Use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Charts and Maps present information about the Bible in visual form.

- Select the hyperlinked Chart or Map title entry at the end of a verse to go to its location following the last chapter of each Bible book.
- Select the hyperlinked title entry in the article to go back to the Bible verse location, or use the device’s “back” button or function to go back to the last selection.
- Note: Some charts have been converted into text format for clearer display in ebook format.

Color Maps are included as images and optimized for eReader device display.

- Select the hyperlinked entry in the Table of Contents to go to a specific map.
- The first image displays the entire map, followed by each of the 4 equal sections defined. Please note that some complex charts are also rendered this way to make them easier to view on a variety of devices.
- Use the device’s “Next Page/Previous Page” buttons or functions to scroll through larger versions of each individual section.
- Use the device’s “back” button or function to go back to the last selection.

Foreword

Scriptural Promise

“The grass withers, the flower fades,
But the word of our God stands forever.”

Isaiah 40:8

The Amplified Bible has been produced with the conviction that the words of Scripture as originally penned in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek were inspired by God. Since they are the eternal Word of God, the Holy Scriptures speak with fresh power to each generation, to give wisdom that leads to salvation, that people may serve Christ to the glory of God.

The Fourfold Aim of The Lockman Foundation

1. These publications shall be true to the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek.
2. They shall be grammatically correct.
3. They shall be understandable to the people.
4. They shall give the Lord Jesus Christ His proper place, the place which the Word gives Him; therefore, no translation work will ever be personalized.

Introduction

The Amplified Study Bible has been designed to provide a foundation for Bible study. It is intended for both beginning and experienced students of the Scriptures who want a Bible that contains the key features of a study Bible combined with the impressive study tools already included in the Amplified translation.

The Amplified ® Translation

First, a word about the Amplified translation itself. The Amplified Bible is a Literal Equivalent translation that, by using synonyms and definitions, both explains and expands the meaning of words in the text by placing amplification in parentheses, brackets, and after key words. This unique system of translation allows the reader to more completely and clearly grasp the meaning as it was understood in the original languages. Additionally, amplifications provide further theological, historical, and other details for a better understanding of the text.

The appeal and readability of the 2015 edition of the Amplified Bible has been broadened by refreshing the English and refining the amplifications for relevance and clarity. The Amplified Bible is now easier to read and better than ever to study and understand, as it includes more amplification in the Old Testament and refined amplification in the New Testament. Additionally, the Bible text has been improved to read smoothly with or without amplifications, so the text may be read clearly either way. The same feel and style of amplification has been carefully maintained, so those who read the classic Amplified Bible will easily transition to the new text and appreciate its improvements.

Through amplification, the reader gains a better understanding of what the Hebrew and Greek listener instinctively understood (as a matter of course). Take, for example, the Greek word pisteuo , which the vast majority of versions render as “believe.” That simple translation, however, hardly does justice to the many meanings contained in the Greek pisteuo : “to adhere to, cleave to; to trust, to have faith in; to rely on, to depend on.” Notice the subtle shades of meaning that are unlocked in John 11:25 : “Jesus said to her, ‘I am the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in (adheres to, trusts in, relies on) Me [as Savior] will live even if he dies.’ ”

The Story of the Amplified Bible

The story of the Amplified Bible is a remarkable story of faith, hope, and love. It’s the story of a woman, a foundation, a committee, and a publisher. Commitment, energy, enthusiasm, and giftedness—these are the words that paint the picture, the picture of the making of a translation.

Frances Siewert (Litt. B., B.D., M.A., Litt. D.) was a woman with an intense dedication to the study of the Bible. It was Mrs. Siewert (1881–1967) who laid the foundation of the Amplified Bible, devoting her life to a familiarity with the Bible, with the Hebrew and Greek languages, and with the cultural and archaeological background of Biblical times, which would result in the publication of this unique translation.

Every vision needs visionaries willing to follow the cause. The story of this dream is no different. Mrs. Siewert’s vision was seen by a California non-profit foundation called The Lockman Foundation, made up of Christian men and women who through their commitment, their expertise, and their financial support undergirded Mrs. Siewert’s monumental translation project. The Lockman Foundation’s purpose remains today what it was then: to promote Bible translation, Christian evangelism, education, and benevolence.

Commitment, energy, enthusiasm, giftedness—the things visions are made of—describes the efforts of the committee appointed by The Lockman Foundation to carefully review the impressive work of Mrs. Siewert. This Editorial Board, made up of dedicated scholars, lent credibility and organization to this unprecedented attempt to bring out the richness of the Hebrew and Greek languages within the English text itself.

One chapter yet remained to bring the vision into reality. A publishing house in Grand Rapids, Michigan, on its way to becoming a major religious publishing firm, seized the opportunity to participate in a project that all visionaries involved strongly believed would be used by God to change lives. The Zondervan Publishing House joined the team, and the dream became reality with the publication of The Amplified New Testament in 1958, followed by the two-volume Amplified Old Testament in 1962 and 1964, and the one-volume Amplified Bible in 1965.

Since the Amplified Bible was first translated, there have been changes in both the style and usage of the English language; therefore, it seemed appropriate for The Lockman Foundation to revisit this well-loved translation of God's Word. Accordingly, Dr. Robert G. Lambeth, President of The Lockman Foundation, established a translation team and under his leadership the project was developed and completed in 2015. The result is a new Amplified Bible translation that is contemporary and firmly based on the foundation established by the complete Amplified Bible of 1965.

Features of the *Amplified Study Bible

The features of the Amplified Study Bible have been carefully crafted to bring you, the reader, a solid study system with several unique features that allow for deeper study.

The Amplified Translation. First, the Amplified translation's unique system of punctuation, italics, references, and synonyms unlock subtle shades of meaning as found in the original languages. This translation itself includes an amazing depth of insight into the Word of God. Careful reading of the text will bring deeper understanding of the nuances that the original authors of the Bible intended, bringing greater depth of insight to your personal study.

Study Notes. More than 5000 concise study notes provide helpful, practical, application-oriented comments on passages of Scripture and open the Word so that you can more appropriately apply it to your life. These informative notes are intended not to overpower the words of Scripture, but to come alongside you as the reader to increase your understanding as you consider what God has to say to you today through the power of his living Word.

Theological Notes. Some 330 practical theological notes draw attention to important doctrinal content in the Bible. These notes are signified by a bold Roman heading followed by a dash. They are generally longer notes that highlight important teachings in Scripture that allow you to further unlock the critical teachings of the Bible. Each one of these notes is indexed in two ways in the back matter of this Bible, allowing you as a student of the Bible to read through these notes topically, looking for insights to help you to further appreciate and apply these life-changing teachings.

Book Introductions. These brief introductions to each of the Bible's 66 books help you understand the historical context of each Bible book. Key themes of each book are also highlighted, allowing you to look for these themes as you make your way through each particular book.

Cross References. The cross-references of this study Bible appear in a separate section following the Study Notes of each Bible book. These cross references provide a nearly inexhaustible method of understanding the key connections that can be made throughout the Bible text. Each verse that has cross-references associated with it can be further expanded upon and understood through looking up the other passages of Scripture that relate to it, bringing deeper insights to your personal study.

Topical Index. This study feature provides an alphabetical listing of important passages that highlight key concepts in the Bible. Simply look for the Bible topic, person, or word you have in mind, and you'll find more information on that subject area through the referenced passages. The thousands of references in this study tool make this a helpful companion to the other study tools included in this Bible.

Full-color Maps of Bible Lands. Included in the back of this Bible are multiple full-color maps that allow you to understand the locations described within the text of the Bible. These are placed here to add a visual aspect to the study Bible, giving you the opportunity to see and understand more about the context of the history contained within God's Word.

May God bless you as you use the study tools included in this Bible to come to a deeper understanding of, and a more intimate relationship with, the God who has preserved his Word for the instruction, encouragement, and salvation of his people.

Then [with a deep longing] you will seek Me and require Me [as a vital necessity] and [you will] find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.

Preface

In 1958 The Lockman Foundation and Zondervan Publishing House issued the first edition of the Amplified New Testament. In 1962 and 1964 the two-volume Amplified Old Testament was released. In 1965 the complete Amplified Bible was published, and in 1987 the Amplified Bible, Expanded Edition was completed. Over fifty years have passed since the Amplified New Testament was translated and during that time there have been changes in both the style and usage of the English language; therefore, it seemed appropriate for The Lockman Foundation to revisit this well-loved translation of God's Word. Accordingly, Dr. Robert G. Lambeth, President of The Lockman Foundation, established a translation team and under his leadership the project was developed and completed.

The Lockman Foundation is now pleased to present the Amplified Bible of 2015. The English has been updated based on contemporary usage, a substantial number of new amplifications have been added to the Old Testament, and original amplifications have been updated, expanded, refined, or clarified where needed. The translation team has also added a significant number of new footnotes and references.

The result is a translation that is contemporary and firmly based on the foundation established by the Amplified Bible of 1965. That original translation project was envisioned and led by Frances Siewert (1881-1967), an amazing and gifted woman who devoted her life to serving the Lord and to making His Word available in an entirely new format. Her contribution to the spread of the Gospel through the Amplified Bible is impossible to quantify and her vision continues to speak to the hearts of people today.

The Amplified Bible of 2015 has been editorially recast so that a verse may be read either with or without amplification. The basic verse is the literal equivalent translation of the Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek text. The basic verse is then amplified in a way that permits the reader to have a greater understanding of the relationship between the crispness of contemporary English and the depth of meaning in the biblical languages.

Explanation of General Format

Amplification is indicated within the English text by parentheses, brackets, and italicized conjunctions.

Parentheses in Roman type ( ) supply the definition in context of the preceding name, place, or word. When the Amplified Bible is read aloud the definition in context may be skipped over.

Parentheses in bold type ( ) indicate a parenthetical phrase that is part of the original language and should be included when Scripture is read aloud.

Brackets in Roman type [ ] contain justified words, phrases, or brief commentary not fully expressed in the preceding English text, but which are validated by the meaning of the original Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek, or are validated elsewhere by Scripture. The amplifications within brackets serve many purposes. They may expand the depth of meaning in the underlying Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek word; they may clarify a theological word or concept; they may expand a teaching or principle; they may supply information that helps the reader grasp the context of the passage.

Brackets in bold type [ ] are footnoted and indicate text not found in early mss or found only in some early mss.

Italicized conjunctions: and, or, nor are not in the original text, but are used to connect additional English words indicated by the original Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek.

Italicized words are not found in the original language, but implied by it.

Proper names of persons, places, or things are often used to replace pronouns. When pronouns are retained in the text they may be followed by a name placed in parentheses.

Pronouns referring to God, the Father; Jesus, the Son; and the Holy Spirit are always capitalized, so that the reader immediately recognizes Deity in the text.

Paragraphs are identified by bold verse numbers or bold letters. This allows paragraphs to be clearly identified without displaying the verses in paragraph format. The text can still be read or studied by paragraphs, but individual verses are much easier to find when each verse begins on a new line.

Small capital letters are used in the New Testament to indicate Old Testament quotations or obvious references to Old Testament texts. Variations of Old Testament wording are found in New Testament citations depending on whether the New Testament writer translated from a Hebrew text, used existing Greek or Aramaic translations, or restated the material. It should be noted that modern rules for the indication of direct quotation were not used in biblical times; therefore, the ancient writer would use exact quotations or references to quotation without specific indication of such.

The proper name of God in the Old Testament is most significant and understandably so. The most common name for the Deity is God, a translation of the Hebrew word, Elohim. One of the titles for God is Lord, a translation of Adonai. There is yet another name which is particularly assigned to God as His special or proper name, that is, the four letters YHWH (Exodus 3:14 and Isaiah 42:8). This name has not been pronounced by the Jews because of reverence for the great sacredness of the divine name. Therefore, it has been consistently translated LORD. The only exception to this translation of YHWH is when it occurs in immediate proximity to the word Lord, that is, Adonai. In that case it is regularly translated GOD in order to avoid confusion. When the name of God appears within parentheses or brackets, the context of the verse determines which name and type style is used.

Verse reference are placed in brackets at the end of some verses. If a verse contains more than one Scripture reference, the references are listed in biblical order.

Section headings are included in the text, but are not part of the original language.

Abbreviations and Special Markings

Aram = Aramaic

c = about

DSS = Dead Sea Scrolls

etc. = and so on e.g. = for example

The Lockman Foundation

The Lockman Foundation wishes to express deepest gratitude to all those who have contributed to the development of the 2015 edition of the Amplified Bible. Throughout these years of translation many people have shared their time, talent, prayers and very best effort to bring this Bible translation to completion.

It is our prayer that each participant—whether scholar or staff, professor or proofreader, consultant or critical reader—will look at these pages of Scripture and know that each one's contribution is treasured. . . nothing is insignificant when dealing with God's Word.

To quote F. Dewey "Granddad" Lockman (1898–1974), "This work is a symphony, not a solo!" May each of you be specially blessed and always hold a special joy in your heart whenever you read the new Amplified Bible 2015. Thank you beloved.

The Old Testament

Old Testament Overview

Genesis: Describes God's creation of the world, the sin of the first humans and the history of the Hebrew people.

Exodus: Israel's miraculous freedom from slavery in Egypt; the giving of the Law and the building of the tabernacle.

Leviticus: Hebrew ceremonial law and rules for living.

Numbers: The story of Israel's wanderings in the wilderness after they disobeyed God.

Deuteronomy: Moses reiterates the Law for the people as they prepare to enter the Promised Land.

Joshua: Israel conquers the Promised Land and the land is divided among the twelve tribes.

Judges: The history of a chaotic period in the life of Israel from Joshua to Samson.

Ruth: A Moabite woman follows her mother-in-law back to Israel and is blessed for her faithfulness.

1 Samuel: The story of Israel during the judgeship of Samuel and the reign of Israel's first king, Saul.

2 Samuel: The reign of King David.

1 and 2 Kings: The history of the nation of Israel from David's death and Solomon's reign to the dividing of the kingdom and the destruction of Judah after the capture of Jerusalem.

1 and 2 Chronicles: The official historical records of Israel and Judah.

Ezra: A small group of Jews returns to Jerusalem from captivity in Babylon to rebuild the temple.

Nehemiah: Another group of Jews returns from captivity and rebuilds the wall around Jerusalem.

Esther: A young Jewish woman becomes queen of Persia and saves the Jewish people from being wiped out by order of the king of Persia.

Job: Pain and patience teach the main character of this book to trust in God alone.

Psalms: A collection songs that were used to worship God. King David wrote many of these Psalms.

Proverbs: Practical wisdom from King Solomon and others.

Ecclesiastes: A poem that leads the reader to examine what's truly important in life.

Song of Solomon: A poetic rendering of love and desire between a husband and wife.

Isaiah: Israel's greatest prophet foretells the birth of Jesus and describes his work.

Jeremiah: Predicts the coming captivity of Judah, what it will suffer, and indicates that God will one day allow the people to return to the land.

Lamentations: Jeremiah's song of sorrow over what Jerusalem will experience.

Ezekiel: Messages of both warning and comfort sent to Jews who were in captivity.

Daniel: Wise Jewish captives remain faithful to God; Daniel prophesies about the future.

Hosea: A picture of God's unfaithful people through the allegory of a faithless wife.

Joel: Predicts Judah's coming judgment with a promise that God will reward faithful people.

Amos: Predicts that Israel and its surrounding neighbors will be punished; points to the Messiah's kingdom.

Obadiah: Predicts the destruction of Edom.

Jonah: A reluctant prophet is sent to proclaim judgment to the Assyrian city of Nineveh.

Micah: Predicts the Babylonian captivity and points toward the birth of the Messiah in Bethlehem.

Nahum: Predicts the destruction of Assyria.

Habakkuk: A prophet chooses to remain faithful in the face of national destruction.

Zephaniah: Predicts the overthrow of Judah because of its unfaithfulness to God.

Haggai: Prophecies about the rebuilding of the temple.

Zechariah: Prophecies about the rebuilding of the temple and the Messiah.

Malachi: A prophet calls the nation of Israel to remain faithful to the Lord.

The First Book of Moses, Commonly Called

Genesis

- AUTHOR: Nowhere in the Book of Genesis is the author named. Although the events of the book end 300 years before Moses was born, the rest of the Bible and most of church historians attribute the authorship of Genesis to Moses. Both the Old and New Testaments have many references to Moses as its author (Ex 7:14 ; Lev 1:1–2 ; Nu 33:2 ; Dt 1:1 ; Da 9:11–13 ; Mal 4:4 ; Mt 8:4 ; Mk 12:26 ; Lk 16:29 ; Jn 7:19 ; Ac 26:22 ; Ro 10:19 ). Both early Jewish and Christian writers name Moses as the author.
- TIMES: c. 4000–1804 BC
- KEY VERSE: Ge 3:15
- THEME: After the initial story of the world's creation, Genesis ("beginnings") covers two basic subjects: God and man. God creates man. Man disobeys God and alienates himself from God. Genesis is the story then of the subsequent interactions between God and man that bring them back together into a right relationship. As such, the book points to the beginnings of the way of change, of restoration, and of a new way of life. Genesis sets the tone for the rest of the Bible with clear teaching on following God's call, believing in His promises, and being obedient to His commands. The main characters who dominate the story are the patriarchs: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph.

The Creation

1 IN THE beginning God (Elohim ) created [by forming from nothing] the heavens and the earth. [Heb 11:3] ‡

2 The earth was formless and void or a waste and emptiness, and darkness was upon the face of the deep [primeval ocean that covered the unformed earth]. The Spirit of God was moving (hovering, brooding) over the face of the waters. ‡

3. And God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. ‡

4 God saw that the light was good (pleasing, useful) and He affirmed and sustained it; and God separated the light [distinguishing it] from the darkness. [2 Cor 4:6]

5 And God called the light day, and the darkness He called night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day. ‡

6 And God said, “Let there be an expanse [of the sky] in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters [below the expanse] from the waters [above the expanse].” ‡

7 And God made the expanse [of sky] and separated the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so [just as He commanded]. ‡

8 God called the expanse [of sky] heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

9 Then God said, “Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place [of standing, pooling together], and let the dry land appear”; and it was so. ‡

10 God called the dry land earth, and the gathering of the waters He called seas; and God saw that this was good (pleasing, useful) and He affirmed and sustained it.

11 So God said, “Let the earth sprout [tender] vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit according to (limited to, consistent with) their kind, whose seed is in them upon the earth”; and it was so. ‡

12 The earth sprouted and abundantly produced vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their kind, and trees bearing fruit with seed in them, according to their kind; and God saw that it was good and He affirmed and sustained it.

<sup>13</sup> And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

14 Then God said, “Let there be light-bearers (sun, moon, stars) in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be useful for signs (tokens) [of God’s provident care], and for marking seasons, days, and years;  [Gen 8:22 ]

<sup>15</sup> and let them be useful as lights in the expanse of the heavens to provide light on the earth”; and it was so, [just as He commanded].

16 God made the two great lights—the greater light (the sun) to rule the day, and the lesser light (the moon) to rule the night; He made the [galaxies of] stars also [that is, all the amazing wonders in the heavens]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> God placed them in the expanse of the heavens to provide light upon the earth,

<sup>18</sup> to rule over the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good and He affirmed and sustained it. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then God said, “Let the waters swarm and abundantly produce living creatures, and let birds soar above the earth in the open expanse of the heavens.”

<sup>21</sup> God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind; and God saw that it was good and He affirmed and sustained it. ‡

<sup>23</sup> And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

24 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to (limited to, consistent with) their kind: livestock, crawling things, and wild animals of the earth according to their kinds”; and it was so [because He had spoken them into creation].

<sup>25</sup> So God made the wild animals of the earth according to their kind, and the cattle according to their kind, and everything that creeps and crawls on the earth according to its kind; and God saw that it was good (pleasing, useful) and He affirmed and sustained it.

26 Then God said, “Let Us (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) make man in Our image, according to Our likeness [not physical, but a spiritual personality and moral likeness]; and let them have complete authority over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the cattle, and over the entire earth, and over everything that creeps and crawls on the earth.”  [Ps 104:30; Heb 1:2; 11:3 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> So God created man in His own image, in the image and likeness of God He created him; male and female He created them.  [Col 3:9, 10; James 3:8, 9 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> And God blessed them [granting them certain authority] and said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth, and subjugate it [putting it under your power]; and rule over (dominate) the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and every living thing that moves upon the earth.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> So God said, “Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the surface of the entire earth, and every tree which has fruit yielding seed; it shall be food for you; ‡

<sup>30</sup> and to all the animals on the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that moves on the ground—to everything in which there is the breath of life— I have given every green plant for food”; and it was so [because He commanded it]. ‡

<sup>31</sup> God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good and He validated it completely. And there was evening and there was morning, a sixth day. ‡

The Creation of Man and Woman

<sup>2</sup> And by the seventh day God completed His work which He had done, and He rested (ceased) on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.  [Heb 4:9, 10 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> So God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it [as His own, that is, set it apart as holy from other days], because in it He rested from all His work which He had created and done.  [Ex 20:11 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> This is the history of [the origin of] the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day [that is, days of creation] that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens— ‡

<sup>5</sup> no shrub or plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the ground,‡

6but a mist (fog, dew, vapor) used to rise from the land and water the entire surface of the ground—

7then the LORD God formed [that is, created the body of] man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being [an individual complete in body and spirit]. [1 Cor 15:45–49]‡

8 And the LORD God planted a garden (oasis) in the east, in Eden (delight, land of happiness); and He put the man whom He had formed (created) there.

9 And [in that garden] the LORD God caused to grow from the ground every tree that is desirable and pleasing to the sight and good (suitable, pleasant) for food; the tree of life was also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the [experiential] knowledge (recognition) of [the difference between] good and evil. [Rev 2:7 ; 22:14 , 19.]‡

10 Now a river flowed out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it divided and became four [branching] rivers.

11 The first [river] is named Pishon; it flows around the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold.‡

12 The gold of that land is good; bdellium (a fragrant, valuable resin) and the onyx stone are found there.‡

13 The name of the second river is Gihon; it flows around the entire land of Cush [in Mesopotamia].

14 The third river is named Hiddekel (Tigris); it flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.‡

15 So the LORD God took the man [He had made] and settled him in the Garden of Eden to cultivate and keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, “You may freely (unconditionally) eat [the fruit] from every tree of the garden;

17but [only] from the tree of the knowledge (recognition) of good and evil you shall not eat, otherwise on the day that you eat from it, you shall most certainly die [because of your disobedience].”‡

18Now the LORD God said, “It is not good (beneficial) for the man to be alone; I will make him a helper [one who balances him—a counterpart who is] suitable and complementary for him.”‡

19So the LORD God formed out of the ground every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called a living creature, that was its name.‡

20 And the man gave names to all the livestock, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for Adam there was not found a helper [that was] suitable (a companion) for him.

21 So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam; and while he slept, He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh at that place. ‡

22 And the rib which the LORD God had taken from the man He made (fashioned, formed) into a woman, and He brought her and presented her to the man. ‡

23 Then Adam said, ‡

“This is now bone of my bones,
And flesh of my flesh;
She shall be called Woman,
Because she was taken out of Man.”

24 For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother, and shall be joined to his wife; and they shall become one flesh. [Matt 19:5 ; 1 Cor 6:16 ; Eph 5:31–33] ‡

25 And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed or embarrassed. ‡

The Fall of Man

1 NOW THE serpent was more crafty (subtle, skilled in deceit) than any living creature of the field which the LORD God had made. And the serpent (Satan) said to the woman, “Can it really be that God has said, ‘You shall not eat from any tree of the garden’?” [Rev 12:9–11] ‡

2 And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees of the garden,

3 except the fruit from the tree which is in the middle of the garden. God said, ‘You shall not eat from it nor touch it, otherwise you will die.’ ”

4 But the serpent said to the woman, “You certainly will not die! [2 Cor 11:3] ‡

5 “For God knows that on the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened [that is, you will have greater awareness], and you will be like God, knowing

[the difference between] good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup> And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was delightful to look at, and a tree to be desired in order to make one wise and insightful, she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband with her, and he ate. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of the two of them were opened [that is, their awareness increased], and they knew that they were naked; and they fastened fig leaves together and made themselves coverings. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But the LORD God called to Adam, and said to him, “Where are you?”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “I heard the sound of You [walking] in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> God said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten [fruit] from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?”

<sup>12</sup> And the man said, “The woman whom You gave to be with me—she gave me [fruit] from the tree, and I ate it.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” And the woman said, “The serpent beguiled and deceived me, and I ate [from the forbidden tree].”  [2 Cor 11:3; 1 Tim 2:14 ] ‡

“Because you have done this,
You are cursed more than all the cattle,
And more than any animal of the field;
On your belly you shall go,
And dust you shall eat
All the days of your life.

Between you and the woman,
And between your seed (offspring) and her Seed;
He shall [fatally] bruise your head,
And you shall [only] bruise His heel.”  [Gal 4:4. ]

<sup>16</sup> To the woman He said, ‡

“I will greatly multiply
Your pain in childbirth;
In pain you will give birth to children;
Yet your desire and longing will be for your husband,
And he will rule [with authority] over you and be responsible for you.”

<sup>17</sup> Then to Adam the LORD God said, “Because you have listened [attentively] to the voice of your wife, and have eaten [fruit] from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat of it’; ‡

The ground is [now] under a curse because of you;
In sorrow and toil you shall eat [the fruit] of it
All the days of your life.

And you shall eat the plants of the field.

You will eat bread
Until you return to the ground,
For from it you were taken;
For you are dust,
And to dust you shall return.”

<sup>22</sup> And the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us (Father, Son, Holy Spirit), knowing [how to distinguish between] good and evil; and now, he might stretch out his hand, and take from the tree of life as well, and eat [its fruit], and live [in this fallen, sinful condition] forever”—

<sup>23</sup> therefore the LORD God sent Adam away from the Garden of Eden, to till and cultivate the ground from which he was taken. ‡

<sup>24</sup> So God drove the man out; and at the east of the Garden of Eden He [permanently] stationed the cherubim and the sword with the flashing blade which turned round and round [in every direction] to protect and guard the way (entrance, access) to the tree of life.  [Rev 2:7; 22:2, 14, 19. ] ‡

Cain and Abel

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE man Adam knew Eve as his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain, and she said, “I have obtained a man (baby boy, son) with the help of the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> And in the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground. ‡

<sup>5</sup> but for Cain and his offering He had no respect. So Cain became extremely angry (indignant), and he looked annoyed and hostile. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you so angry? And why do you look annoyed?

<sup>7</sup> “If you do well [believing Me and doing what is acceptable and pleasing to Me], will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well [but ignore My instruction], sin crouches at your door; its desire is for you [to overpower you], but you must master it.”

<sup>8</sup> Cain talked with Abel his brother [about what God had said]. And when they were [alone, working] in the field, Cain attacked Abel his brother and killed him.  [1 John 3:12. ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?” And he [lied and] said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?” ‡

<sup>11</sup> “And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s [shed] blood from your hand.  [Deut 28:15–20. ]

<sup>12</sup> “When you cultivate the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength [it will resist producing good crops] for you; you shall be a fugitive and a vagabond [roaming aimlessly] on the earth [in perpetual exile without a home, a degraded outcast].”

<sup>14</sup> “Behold, You have driven me out this day from the face of the land; and from Your face (presence) I will be hidden, and I will be a fugitive and an [aimless] vagabond on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> And the LORD said to him, “Therefore, whoever kills Cain, a sevenfold vengeance [that is, punishment seven times worse] shall be taken on him [by Me].” And the LORD set a [protective] mark (sign) on Cain, so that no one who found (met) him would kill him.  [Gen 4:24 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> Now to Enoch was born Irad, and Irad became the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael became the father of Methushael, and Methushael became the father of Lamech.

<sup>19</sup> And Lamech took for himself two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other, Zillah.

<sup>21</sup> His brother’s name was Jubal; he became the father of all those [musicians] who play the lyre and flute.

“Adah and Zillah,
Hear my voice;
You wives of Lamech,
Listen to what I say;
For I have killed a man [merely] for wounding me,
And a boy [only] for striking (bruising) me.

Then Lamech [will be avenged] seventy-sevenfold.”

<sup>25</sup> Adam knew [Eve as] his wife again; and she gave birth to a son, and named him Seth, for [she said], “God has granted another child for me in place of Abel, because Cain killed him.” ‡

26 To Seth, also, a son was born, whom he named Enosh (mortal man, mankind). At that [same] time men began to call on the name of the LORD [in worship through prayer, praise, and thanksgiving].  [Joel 2:32; Luke 3:38; Acts 2:21. ] ‡

Descendants of Adam

<sup>2</sup> He created them male and female, and blessed them and named them Mankind at the time they were created. ‡

<sup>4</sup> After he became the father of Seth, Adam lived eight hundred years and had other sons and daughters. ‡

<sup>32</sup> After Noah was five hundred years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ‡

The Corruption of Mankind

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened, when men began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them, ‡

desirable; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose and desired. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said, “My Spirit shall not strive and remain with man forever, because he is indeed flesh [sinful, corrupt—given over to sensual appetites]; nevertheless his days shall yet be a hundred and twenty years.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> There were Nephilim (men of stature, notorious men) on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God lived with the daughters of men, and they gave birth to their children. These were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown (great reputation, fame).  [Num 13:33. ]

<sup>5</sup> The LORD saw that the wickedness (depravity) of man was great on the earth, and that every imagination or intent of the thoughts of his heart were only evil continually. ‡

<sup>6</sup> The LORD regretted that He had made mankind on the earth, and He was [deeply] grieved in His heart. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So the LORD said, “I will destroy (annihilate) mankind whom I have created from the surface of the earth—not only man, but the animals and the crawling things and the birds of the air—because it [deeply] grieves Me [to see mankind’s sin] and I regret that I have made them.”

<sup>8</sup> But Noah found favor and grace in the eyes of the LORD. ‡

<sup>11</sup>—The [population of the] earth was corrupt [absolutely depraved—spiritually and morally putrid] in God’s sight, and the land was filled with violence [desecration, infringement, outrage, assault, and lust for power]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> God looked on the earth and saw how debased and degenerate it was, for all humanity had corrupted their way on the earth and lost their true direction. ‡

<sup>13</sup> God said to Noah, “I intend to make an end of all that lives, for through men the land is filled with violence; and behold, I am about to destroy them together with the land. ‡

<sup>15</sup>—“This is the way you are to make it: the length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits (450’ x 75’ x 45’).

<sup>17</sup> “For behold, I, even I, will bring a flood of waters on the earth, to destroy all life under the heavens in which there is the breath and spirit of life; everything that is on the land shall die. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But I will establish My covenant (solemn promise, formal agreement) with you; and you shall come into the ark—you and your [three] sons and your wife, and your sons’ wives with you. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “And of every living thing [found on land], you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Of fowls and birds according to their kind, of animals according to their kind, of every crawling thing of the ground according to its kind—two of every kind shall come to you to keep them alive. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Also take with you every kind of food that is edible, and you shall collect and store it; and it shall be food for you and for them.”

<sup>22</sup> So Noah did this; according to all that God commanded him, that is what he did. ‡

The Flood

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Noah, “Come into the ark, you with all your household, for you [alone] I have seen as righteous (doing what is right) before Me in this generation. [Ps 27:5 ; 33:18 , 19 ; 2 Pet 2:9] ‡

<sup>3</sup> also of the birds of the air, seven pair, the male and the female, to keep the offspring alive on the surface of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> “For in seven days I am going to cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights; and I will destroy (blot out, wipe away) every living thing that I have made from the surface of the earth.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Noah was six hundred years old when the flood (deluge) of water came on the earth [covering all of the land].

<sup>8</sup> Of clean animals and animals that are not clean and birds and fowls and everything that crawls on the ground,

<sup>9</sup> they came [motivated by God] into the ark with Noah two by two, the male and the female, just as God had commanded Noah.

<sup>10</sup> And after the seven days [God released the rain and] the floodwaters came on the earth.

<sup>13</sup> On the very same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark,

<sup>14</sup> they and every animal according to its kind, all the livestock according to their kinds, every moving thing that crawls on the earth according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, every winged thing of every sort. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So they went into the ark with Noah, two by two of all living beings in which there was the breath and spirit of life. ‡

<sup>19</sup> The waters prevailed so greatly and were so mighty and overwhelming on the earth, so that all the high mountains everywhere under the heavens were covered.

<sup>22</sup> Everything on the dry land, all in whose nostrils was the breath and spirit of life, died. ‡

<sup>23</sup> God destroyed (blotted out, wiped away) every living thing that was on the surface of the earth; man and animals and the crawling things and the birds of the heavens were destroyed from the land. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive.  [Matt 24:37–44 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> The waters covered [all of] the earth for a hundred and fifty days (five months). ‡

The Flood Abates

<sup>1</sup> AND GOD remembered and thought kindly of Noah and every living thing and all the animals that were with him in the ark; and God made a wind blow over the land, and the waters receded. ‡

<sup>7</sup> and he sent out a raven, which flew here and there until the waters were dried up from the earth.

<sup>8</sup> Then Noah sent out a dove to see if the water level had fallen below the surface of the land.

<sup>9</sup> But the dove found no place on which to rest the sole of her foot, and she returned to him to the ark, for the waters were [still] on the face of the entire earth. So he reached out his hand and took the dove, and brought her into the ark.

<sup>11</sup> The dove came back to him in the evening, and there, in her beak, was a fresh olive leaf. So Noah knew that the water level had subsided from the earth.

<sup>12</sup> Then he waited another seven days and sent out the dove, but she did not return to him again.

<sup>13</sup> Now in the six hundred and first year [of Noah's life], on the first day of the first month, the waters were drying up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and the surface of the ground was drying.

<sup>16</sup> “Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and their wives with you.”‡

<sup>17</sup> “Bring out with you every living thing from all flesh—birds and animals and every crawling thing that crawls on the earth—that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”‡

<sup>19</sup> Every animal, every crawling thing, every bird—and whatever moves on the land—went out by families (types, groupings) from the ark.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD smelled the pleasing aroma [a soothing, satisfying scent] and the LORD said to Himself, “I will never again curse the ground because of man, for the intent (strong inclination, desire) of man’s heart is wicked from his youth; and I will never again destroy every living thing, as I have done.‡

    Seedtime and harvest,
    Cold and heat,
    Winter and summer,
    And day and night
    Shall not cease.”

Covenant of the Rainbow

1 AND GOD blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth. ‡ Major Covenants in the Old Testament Major Types of Royal Covenants/Treaties in the Ancient Near East

2 “The fear and the terror of you shall be [instinctive] in every animal of the land and in every bird of the air; and together with everything that moves on the ground, and with all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hand. ‡

3 “Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; I give you everything, as I gave you the green plants and vegetables. ‡

4 “But you shall not eat meat along with its life, that is, its blood.  [Lev 7:26; Acts 15:20; 21:25. ] ‡

5 “For your lifeblood I will most certainly require an accounting; from every animal [that kills a person] I will require it. And from man, from every man’s brother [that is, anyone who murders] I will require the life of man.  [Ex 21:28, 29. ] ‡

6 “Whoever sheds man’s blood [unlawfully], ‡
By man (judicial government) shall his blood be shed,
For in the image of God
He made man.  [Rom 13:4 ]

7 “As for you, be fruitful and multiply; ‡
Populate the earth abundantly and multiply in it.”

8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying,

9 “Now behold, I am establishing My covenant (binding agreement, solemn promise) with you and with your descendants after you ‡

10 and with every living creature that is with you—the birds, the livestock, and the wild animals of the earth along with you, of everything that comes out of the ark—every living creature of the earth. ‡

11 “I will establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the water of a flood, nor shall there ever again be a flood to destroy and ruin the earth.” ‡

12 And God said, “This is the token (visible symbol, memorial) of the [solemn] covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations; ‡

13 I set My rainbow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth. ‡

14 “It shall come about, when I bring clouds over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the clouds,

<sup>15</sup> and I will [compassionately] remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again will the water become a flood to destroy all flesh. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “When the rainbow is in the clouds and I look at it, I will [solemnly] remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> And God said to Noah, “This [rainbow] is the sign of the covenant (solemn pledge, binding agreement) which I have established between Me and all living things on the earth.”

“Cursed be Canaan [the son of Ham];
A servant of servants
He shall be to his brothers.”  [Deut 27:16. ]

<sup>26</sup> He also said, ‡

“Blessed be the LORD,
The God of Shem;
And let Canaan be his servant.

<sup>27</sup> “May God enlarge [the land of] Japheth, ‡
And let him dwell in the tents of Shem;

<sup>29</sup> So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

Genesis 10

Descendants of Noah

<sup>18</sup> and the Arvadite and the Zemarite and the Hamathite. Afterward the families of the Canaanite were spread abroad.

<sup>32</sup>—These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their descendants, by their nations; and from these [people] the nations were separated and spread abroad on the earth after the flood. [Acts 17:26] ‡

Genesis 11

Universal Language, Babel, Confusion

<sup>2</sup>—And as people journeyed eastward, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and they settled there. [Gen 10:10.]

<sup>3</sup> They said one to another, “Come, let us make bricks and fire them thoroughly [in a kiln, to harden and strengthen them].” So they used brick for stone [as building material], and they used tar (bitumen, asphalt) for mortar.

<sup>4</sup> They said, “Come, let us build a city for ourselves, and a tower whose top will reach into the heavens, and let us make a [famous] name for ourselves, so that we will not be scattered [into separate groups] and be dispersed over the surface of the entire earth [as the LORD instructed].”  [Gen 9:1 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD said, “Behold, they are one [unified] people, and they all have the same language. This is only the beginning of what they will do [in rebellion against Me], and now no evil thing they imagine they can do will be impossible for them. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Come, let Us (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) go down and there confuse and mix up their language, so that they will not understand one another’s speech.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the surface of the entire earth; and they stopped building the city. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Therefore the name of the city was Babel—because there the LORD confused the language of the entire earth; and from that place the LORD scattered and dispersed them over the surface of all the earth. ‡

Descendants of Shem

<sup>11</sup> And Shem lived five hundred years after Arpachshad was born, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>13</sup> Arpachshad lived four hundred and three years after Shelah was born, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>15</sup> Shelah lived four hundred and three years after Eber was born, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>27</sup> Now these are the records of the descendants of Terah. Terah was the father of Abram (Abraham), Nahor, and Haran; and Haran was the father of Lot.

<sup>31</sup> Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran, his grandson, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they went out together to go from Ur of the Chaldeans into the land of Canaan; but when they came to Haran [about five hundred and fifty miles northwest of Ur], they settled there. ‡

Genesis 12

Abram Journeys to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> NOW [in Haran] the LORD had said to Abram, ‡

“Go away from your country,
And from your relatives
And from your father’s house,
To the land which I will show you;  [Heb 11:8–10 ]
<sup>2</sup> And I will make you a great nation, ‡
And I will bless you [abundantly],
And make your name great (exalted, distinguished);
And you shall be a blessing [a source of great good to others];
<sup>3</sup> And I will bless (do good for, benefit) those who bless you, ‡
And I will curse [that is, subject to My wrath and judgment] the one who curses (despises, dishonors, has contempt
for) you.
And in you all the families (nations) of the earth will be blessed.”  [Gal 3:8 ]

<sup>5</sup> Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his nephew, and all their possessions which they had acquired, and the people (servants) which they had acquired in Haran, and they set out to go to the land of Canaan. When they came to the land of Canaan, ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, “I will give this land to your descendants.” So Abram built an altar there to [honor] the LORD who had appeared to him. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then he moved on from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD [in worship through prayer, praise, and thanksgiving]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a famine in the land; and Abram went down into Egypt to live temporarily, for the famine in the land was oppressive and severe. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And when he was about to enter Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, “Listen: I know that you are a beautiful woman; ‡

<sup>12</sup> so when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife’; and they will kill me [to acquire you], but they will let you live. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Please tell them that you are my sister so that things will go well for me for your sake, and my life will be spared because of you.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What is this that you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? ‡

<sup>20</sup> So Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they escorted him on his way, with his wife and all that he had. ‡

Abram and Lot

cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. Now the Canaanite and the Perizzite were living in the land at that same time [making grazing of the livestock difficult]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So Abram said to Lot, "Please let there be no strife and disagreement between you and me, nor between your herdsmen and my herdsmen, because we are relatives." ‡

<sup>10</sup> So Lot looked and saw that the valley of the Jordan was well watered everywhere—this was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah; [it was all] like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar [at the south end of the Dead Sea]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> for all the land which you see I will give to you and to your descendants forever.  [Acts 7:5 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> "I will make your descendants [as numerous] as the dust of the earth, so that if a man could count the [grains of] dust of the earth, then your descendants could also be counted.  [Gen 28:14 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> "Arise, walk (make a thorough reconnaissance) around in the land, through its length and its width, for I will give it to you."

<sup>18</sup> Then Abram broke camp and moved his tent, and came and settled by the [grove of the great] terebinths (oak trees) of Mamre [the Amorite], which are in Hebron, and there he built an altar to [honor] the LORD. ‡

War of the Kings

<sup>4</sup> Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer [the most powerful king in the invading confederacy], but in the thirteenth year they rebelled. ‡

<sup>5</sup> In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the [three] kings who were with him attacked and subdued the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim, ‡

<sup>6</sup> and the Horites in their mountainous country of Seir, as far as El-paran, which is on the border of the wilderness. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then they turned back and came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and subdued all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar (bitumen) pits; and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, they fell into them. But the remainder [of the kings] who survived fled to the hill country. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And they also took [captive] Lot, Abram's nephew, and his possessions and left, for he was living in Sodom. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then a survivor who had escaped [from the invading forces on the other side of the Jordan] came and told Abram the Hebrew. Now he was living by the terebinths (oaks) of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner—they were allies of Abram. ‡

<sup>14</sup>- When Abram heard that his nephew [Lot] had been captured, he armed and led out his trained men, born in his own house, [numbering] three hundred and eighteen, and went in pursuit as far [north] as Dan. ‡

attacked and defeated them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus. ‡

<sup>16</sup> And he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his nephew Lot and his possessions, and also the women, and the people.

Abram and Melchizedek

“Blessed (joyful, favored) be Abram by God Most High, Creator and Possessor of heaven and earth;

Who has given your enemies into your hand.”

And Abram gave him a tenth of all [the treasure he had taken in battle]. [Heb 7:1–10]

<sup>21</sup> The king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people and keep the goods (spoils of battle) for yourself.”

<sup>22</sup> But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have raised my hand and sworn an oath to the LORD God Most High, the Creator and Possessor of heaven and earth, ‡

<sup>23</sup> that I would not take anything that is yours, from a thread to a sandal strap, so you could not say, ‘I [the King of Sodom] have made Abram rich.’ ‡

<sup>24</sup> “I will take nothing except what my young men have eaten, and the share of the spoils belonging to the men [my allies] who went with me—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their share of the spoils.”

Abram Promised a Son

<sup>1</sup> AFTER THESE things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision,

“Do not be afraid, Abram,
I am your shield;
Your reward [for obedience] shall be very great.”

<sup>2</sup> Abram said, “Lord GOD, what reward will You give me, since I am [leaving this world] childless, and he who will be the owner and heir of my house is this [servant] Eliezer from Damascus?” ‡

<sup>3</sup> And Abram continued, “Since You have given no child to me, one (a servant) born in my house is my heir.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, “This man [Eliezer] will not be your heir but he who shall come from your own body shall be your heir.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> And the LORD brought Abram outside [his tent into the night] and said, “Look now toward the heavens and count the stars—if you are able to count them.” Then He said to him, “So [numerous] shall your descendants be.”  [Heb 11:12] ‡

<sup>6</sup>—Then Abram believed in (affirmed, trusted in, relied on, remained steadfast to) the LORD; and He counted (credited) it to him as righteousness (doing right in regard to God and man).  [Rom 4:3, 18–22; Gal 3:6; James 2:23] ‡

<sup>7</sup> And He said to him, “I am the [same] LORD who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land as an inheritance.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> But Abram said, “Lord GOD, by what [proof] will I know that I will inherit it?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So God said to him, “Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

<sup>10</sup> So Abram brought all these to Him and cut them down the middle, and laid each half opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds. ‡

<sup>13</sup>—God said to Abram, “Know for sure that your descendants will be strangers [living temporarily] in a land (Egypt) that is not theirs, where they will be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.  [Ex 12:40] ‡

<sup>14</sup> “But on that nation whom your descendants will serve I will bring judgment, and afterward they will come out [of that land] with great possessions.  [Ex 12:35, 36; Acts 7:6, 7 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> When the sun had gone down and a [deep] darkness had come, there appeared a smoking brazier and a flaming torch which passed between the [divided] pieces [of the animals].  [Jer 34:18, 19. ]

“To your descendants I have given this land,
From the river of Egypt to the great river Euphrates—

Genesis 16

Sarai and Hagar

<sup>2</sup> So Sarai said to Abram, “See here, the LORD has prevented me from bearing children. I am asking you to go in to [the bed of] my maid [so that she may bear you a child]; perhaps I will obtain children by her.” And Abram listened to Sarai and did as she said. ‡

<sup>4</sup> He went in to [the bed of] Hagar, and she conceived; and when she realized that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress [regarding Sarai as insignificant because of her infertility]. ‡

me [by the arrogant behavior of Hagar] be upon you. I gave my maid into your arms, and when she realized that she had conceived, I was despised and looked on with disrespect. May the LORD judge [who has done right] between you and me.”‡

<sup>8</sup> And He said, “Hagar, Sarai’s maid, where did you come from and where are you going?” And she said, “I am running away from my mistress Sarai.”

<sup>9</sup> The Angel of the LORD said to her, “Go back to your mistress, and submit humbly to her authority.”‡

<sup>10</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, “I will greatly multiply your descendants so that they will be too many to count.”‡

“Behold, you are with child,
And you will bear a son;
And you shall name him Ishmael (God hears),
Because the LORD has heard and paid attention to your persecution (suffering).

<sup>12</sup> “He (Ishmael) will be a wild donkey of a man;‡
His hand will be against every man [continually fighting]
And every man’s hand against him;
And he will dwell in defiance of all his brothers.”

<sup>13</sup> Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, “You are God Who Sees”; for she said, “Have I not even here [in the wilderness] remained alive after seeing Him [who sees me with understanding and compassion]? ”‡

Genesis 17

Abraham and the Covenant of Circumcision

<sup>1</sup> WHEN ABRAM was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, ‡

“I am God Almighty;
Walk [habitually] before Me [with integrity, knowing that you are always in My presence], and be blameless and complete [in obedience to Me].

<sup>2</sup> “I will establish My covenant (everlasting promise) between Me and you, ‡
And I will multiply you exceedingly [through your descendants].”

And [as a result] you shall be the father of many nations.
<sup>5</sup> “No longer shall your name be Abram (exalted father), ‡
But your name shall be Abraham (father of a multitude);
For I will make you the father of many nations.

<sup>6</sup> “I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your descendants after you.  [Gal 3:16 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> “I will give to you and to your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger [moving from place to place], all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession [of property]; and I will be their God.”  [Acts 7:5 ] ‡ <sup>9</sup> Further, God said to Abraham, “As for you [your part of the agreement], you shall keep and faithfully obey [the terms of] My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

<sup>10</sup> “This is [the sign of] My covenant, which you shall keep and faithfully obey, between Me and you and your descendants after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “And you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be the sign (symbol, memorial) of the covenant between Me and you. ‡

throughout your generations, [including] a servant whether born in the house or one who is purchased with [your] money from any foreigner, who is not of your descendants. ‡

13 “A servant who is born in your house or one who is purchased with your money must be circumcised; and [the sign of] My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

<sup>14</sup> “And the male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.” ‡

15 Then God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai (my princess), but her name will be Sarah (Princess).

<sup>16</sup> “I will bless her, and indeed I will also give you a son by her. Yes, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> And Abraham said to God, “Oh, that Ishmael [my firstborn] might live before You!”

19 But God said, “No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son indeed, and you shall name him Isaac (laughter); and I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant and with his descendants after him. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “As for Ishmael, I have heard and listened to you; behold, I will bless him, and will make him fruitful and will greatly multiply him [through his descendants]. He will be the father of twelve princes (chieftains, sheiks), and I will make him a great nation.  [Gen 25:12–18 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> “But My covenant [My promise, My solemn pledge], I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this time next year.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all the servants who were born in his house and all who were purchased with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin the very same day, as God had said to him.

<sup>27</sup> All the men [servants] of his household, both those born in the house and those purchased with money from a foreigner, were circumcised along with him [as the sign of God's covenant with Abraham]. ‡

Genesis 18

Birth of Isaac Promised

<sup>2</sup> When he raised his eyes and looked up, behold, three men were standing [a little distance] from him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed down [with his face] to the ground, ‡

<sup>3</sup> and Abraham said, "My lord, if now I have found favor in your sight, please do not pass by your servant [without stopping to visit].

<sup>5</sup> And I will bring a piece of bread to refresh and sustain you; after that you may go on, since you have come to your servant." And they replied, "Do as you have said." ‡

<sup>6</sup> So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly, get ready three measures of fine meal, knead it and bake cakes."

<sup>7</sup> Abraham also ran to the herd and brought a calf, tender and choice, and he gave it to the servant [to butcher], and he hurried to prepare it.

<sup>8</sup> Then he took curds and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before the men; and he stood beside them under the tree while they ate. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "There, in the tent." ‡

<sup>10</sup> He said, "I will surely return to you at this time next year; and behold, Sarah your wife will have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent door, which was behind him.  [Rom 9:9–12 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> So Sarah laughed to herself [when she heard the LORD's words], saying, "After I have become old, shall I have pleasure and delight, my lord (husband) being also old?"  [1 Pet 3:6 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> And the LORD asked Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh [to herself], saying, 'Shall I really give birth [to a child] when I am so old?'

<sup>14</sup> “Is anything too difficult or too wonderful for the LORD? At the appointed time, when the season [for her delivery] comes, I will return to you and Sarah will have a son.”  [Matt 19:26. ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Sarah denied it, saying, “I did not laugh”; because she was afraid. And He (the LORD) said, “No, but you did laugh.”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD said, “Shall I keep secret from Abraham [My friend and servant] what I am going to do,  [Gal 3:8 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> since Abraham is destined to become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him?  [Gen 12:2, 3 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> “For I have known (chosen, acknowledged) him [as My own], so that he may teach and command his children and [the sons of] his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is righteous and just, so that the LORD may bring upon Abraham what He has promised him.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> And the LORD said, “The outcry [of the sin] of Sodom and Gomorrah is indeed great, and their sin is exceedingly grave. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “I will go down now, and see whether they have acted [as vilely and wickedly] as the outcry which has come to Me [indicates]; and if not, I will know.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> “Suppose there are fifty righteous [people] within the city; will You really sweep it away and not spare it for the sake of the fifty righteous who are in it? ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Far be it from You to do such a thing—to strike the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous and the wicked are treated alike. Far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right [by executing just and righteous judgment]?” ‡

<sup>26</sup> So the LORD said, “If I find within the city of Sodom fifty righteous [people], then I will spare the entire place for their sake.” ‡

<sup>27</sup> Abraham answered, “Now behold, I who am but dust [in origin] and ashes have decided to speak to the Lord.  [Gen 3:19; Job 30:19. ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> “If five of the fifty righteous are lacking, will You destroy the entire city for lack of five?” And He said, “If I find [at least] forty-five [righteous people] there, I will not destroy it.”

<sup>29</sup> Abraham spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose [only] forty are found there.” And He said, “I will not do it for the sake of the forty [who are righteous].”

<sup>30</sup> Then Abraham said [to Him], “Oh, may the Lord not be angry, and I will speak; suppose thirty [righteous people] are found there?” And He said, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.”

<sup>31</sup> And he said, “Now behold, I have decided to speak to the Lord [again]. Suppose [only] twenty [righteous people] are found there?” And the Lord said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of the twenty.”

<sup>32</sup> Then Abraham said, “Oh may the Lord not be angry [with me], and I will speak only this once; suppose ten [righteous people] are found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten.” ‡

<sup>33</sup> As soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham the LORD departed, and Abraham returned to his own place.

The Doom of Sodom

<sup>1</sup> IT WAS evening when the two angels came to Sodom. Lot was sitting at Sodom’s [city] gate. Seeing them, Lot got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And he said, “See here, my lords, please turn aside and come into your servant’s house, and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may get up early and go on your way.” But they said, “No, we shall spend the night in the open plaza [of the city].” ‡

<sup>4</sup> But before they lay down [to sleep], the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, surrounded the house, all the men from every quarter;

<sup>5</sup> and they called out to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we may know them [intimately].” ‡

<sup>6</sup> But Lot went out of the doorway to the men, and shut the door after him, ‡

<sup>7</sup> and said, “Please, my brothers, do not do something so wicked.

<sup>8</sup> “See here, I have two daughters who have not known a man [intimately]; please let me bring them out to you [instead], and you can do as you please with them; only do nothing to these men, because they have in fact come under the shelter of my roof [for protection].” ‡

<sup>9</sup> But they said, “Get out of the way!” And they said, “This man (Lot) came [as an outsider] to live here temporarily, and now he is acting like a judge. Now we will treat you worse than your visitors!” So they rushed forward and pressed violently against Lot and came close to breaking down the door [of his house]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And the [two] men (angels) asked Lot, “Have you any others here [in Sodom]—a son-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters? Whomever you have in the city, take them out of here; ‡

<sup>13</sup> for we are destroying this place, because the outcry [for judgment] against them has grown so great before the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy and ruin it.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were [betrothed, and legally promised] to marry his daughters, and said, “Get up, get out of this place, for the LORD is about to destroy this city!” But to his sons-in-law he appeared to be joking. ‡

<sup>15</sup> When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot [to hurry], saying, “Get up! Take your wife and two daughters who are here [and go], or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> When they had brought them outside, one [of the angels] said, “Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, or stop anywhere in the entire valley; escape to the mountains [of Moab], or you will be consumed and swept away.” ‡

magnified your lovingkindness (mercy) to me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, because the disaster will overtake me and I will be killed.

<sup>20</sup> “Now look, this town [in the distance] is near enough for us to flee to, and it is small [with only a few people]. Please, let me escape there (is it not small?) so that my life will be saved.”

<sup>21</sup> And the angel said to him, “Behold, I grant you this request also; I will not destroy this town of which you have spoken. ‡

<sup>22</sup>—“Hurry and take refuge there, for I cannot do anything [to punish Sodom] until you arrive there.” For this reason the town was named Zoar (few, small). ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then the LORD rained down brimstone (flaming sulfur) and fire on Sodom and on Gomorrah from the LORD out of heaven, ‡

<sup>27</sup> Abraham started out early the next morning to the place where he [only the day before] had stood before the LORD; ‡

<sup>28</sup> and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the valley [of the Dead Sea]; and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land went up like the smoke of a kiln (pottery furnace). ‡

<sup>29</sup> Now when God ravaged and destroyed the cities of the plain [of Siddim], He remembered Abraham [and for that reason], and He sent [Abraham’s nephew] Lot out of the midst of the destruction, when He destroyed the cities in which Lot had lived. ‡

Lot Is Debased

<sup>31</sup> The firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is aging, and there is not a man on earth [available] to be intimate with us in the customary way [so that we may have children]. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Come, let us make our father drunk with wine, and we will lie with him so that we may preserve our family through our father.” ‡

<sup>33</sup> So they gave their father wine that night, and the firstborn went in and lay with her father; and he did not know when she lay down or when she got up [because he was completely intoxicated].

<sup>34</sup> Then the next day, the firstborn said to the younger, “Behold, I lay with my father last night; let us make him drunk with wine tonight also, and then you go in and lie with him, so that we may preserve our family through our father.”

<sup>35</sup> So they gave their father wine that night also, and the younger got up and lay with him; and again he did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

<sup>38</sup> The younger also gave birth to a son and named him Ben-ammi (son of my people); he is the father of the Ammonites to this day. ‡

Genesis 20

Abraham's Deception

<sup>1</sup> NOW ABRAHAM journeyed from there toward the Negev (the South country), and settled between Kadesh and Shur; then he lived temporarily in Gerar. ‡

<sup>3</sup> But God came to Abimelech in a dream during the night, and said, “Behold, you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken [as your wife], for she is another man’s wife.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Now Abimelech had not yet come near her; so he said, “Lord, will you kill a people who are righteous and innocent and blameless [regarding Sarah]? ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Did Abraham not tell me, ‘She is my sister?’ And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know you did this in the integrity of your heart, for it was I who kept you back and spared you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not give you an opportunity to touch her. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “So now return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her [to him], know that you shall die, you and all who are yours (your household).” ‡

<sup>8</sup> So Abimelech got up early in the morning and called all his servants and told them all these things; and the men were terrified.

<sup>9</sup> Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? And how have I offended you that you have brought on me and my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me what ought not to be done [to anyone].” ‡

<sup>10</sup> And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What have you encountered or seen [in us or our customs], that you have done this [unjust] thing?”

<sup>11</sup> Abraham said, “Because I thought, ‘Surely there is no fear or reverence of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.’ ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Besides, she actually is my [half] sister; she is the daughter of my father [Terah], but not of my mother; and she became my wife. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “When God caused me to wander from my father’s house, I said to her, ‘This kindness and loyalty you can show me: at every place we stop, say of me, “He is my brother.”’ ‡

<sup>15</sup> So Abimelech said, “Behold, my land is before you; settle wherever you please.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then to Sarah he said, “Look, I have given this brother of yours a thousand pieces of silver; it is to compensate you [for all that has happened] and to vindicate your honor before all who are with you; before all men you are cleared and compensated.” ‡

Genesis 21

Isaac Is Born

<sup>1</sup> THE LORD graciously remembered and visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for her as He had promised. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Sarah said, “God has made me laugh; all who hear [about our good news] will laugh with me.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> And she said, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have given birth to a son by him in his old age.”  [Heb 11:12 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> The child [Isaac] grew and was weaned, and Abraham held a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

Sarah Turns against Hagar

<sup>9</sup> Now [as time went on] Sarah saw [Ishmael] the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking [Isaac].  [Gal 4:29 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup>- God said to Abraham, “Do not let it distress you because of Ishmael and your maid; whatever Sarah tells you, listen to her and do what she asks, for your descendants will be named through Isaac.  [Rom 9:7 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> When the water in the skin was all gone, Hagar abandoned the boy under one of the bushes.

<sup>16</sup> Then she went and sat down opposite him, about a bowshot away, for she said, “Do not let me see the boy die.” And as she sat down opposite him, she raised her voice and wept.

17 God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, “What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy from where he is [resting]. ‡

18 “Get up, help the boy up, and hold him by the hand, for I will make him a great nation.” ‡

19 Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the [empty] skin with water and gave the boy a drink. ‡

20 God was with Ishmael, and he grew and developed; and he lived in the wilderness and became an [expert] archer. ‡

21 He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt. ‡

Covenant with Abimelech

22 Now at that time Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham, “God is with you in everything you do; ‡

23 so now, swear to me here by God that you will not deal unfairly with me [by breaking any agreements we have] or with my son or with my descendants, but as I have treated you with kindness, you shall do the same to me and to the land in which you have sojourned (temporarily lived).” ‡

24 And Abraham said, “I will swear.”

25 Then Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water which the servants of Abimelech had [violently] seized [from him], ‡

26 Abimelech said, “I do not know who did this thing. Indeed, you did not tell me, and I did not hear of it until today.”

27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a covenant (binding agreement). ‡

28 Then Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs of the flock,

29 and Abimelech said to Abraham, “What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set apart?” ‡

30 Abraham said, “You are to accept these seven ewe lambs from me as a witness for me, that I dug this well.” ‡

31 Therefore that place was called Beersheba (Well of the Oath or Well of the Seven), because there the two of them swore an oath. ‡

32 So they made a covenant at Beersheba; then Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, got up and returned to the land of the Philistines.

33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD [in prayer], the Eternal God. ‡

34 And Abraham lived [as a resident alien] in the land of the Philistines for many days.

Genesis 22

The Offering of Isaac

1 NOW AFTER these things, God tested [the faith and commitment of] Abraham and said to him, “Abraham!” And he answered, “Here I am.” ‡ Abraham and Isaac in the Land of Canaan

2 God said, “Take now your son, your only son [of promise], whom you love, Isaac, and go to the region of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you.” ‡

3 So Abraham got up early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and his son Isaac; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and then he got up and went to the place of which God had told him.

4 On the third day [of travel] Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance.

5 Abraham said to his servants, “Settle down and stay here with the donkey; the young man and I will go over there and worship [God], and we will come back to you.”  [Heb 11:17–19. ]

6 Then Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on [the shoulders of] Isaac his son, and he took the fire (firepot) in his own hand and the [sacrificial] knife; and the two of them walked on together. ‡

7 And Isaac said to Abraham, “My father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” Isaac said, “Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

8 Abraham said, “My son, God will provide for Himself a lamb for the burnt offering.” So the two walked on together.

9 When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood, and bound Isaac his son and placed him on the altar, on top of the wood.  [Matt 10:37. ] ‡

10 Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son.  [Heb 11:17–19. ]

11 But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said,

“Abraham, Abraham!” He answered, “Here I am.”

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said, “Do not reach out [with the knife in] your hand against the boy, and do nothing to [harm] him; for now I know that you fear God [with reverence and profound respect], since you have not withheld from Me your son, your only son [of promise].” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Abraham looked up and glanced around, and behold, behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by his horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering (ascending sacrifice) instead of his son.

<sup>14</sup> So Abraham named that place The LORD Will Provide. And it is said to this day, “On the mountain of the LORD it will be seen and provided.”

<sup>16</sup> and said, “By Myself (on the basis of Who I Am) I have sworn [an oath], declares the LORD, that since you have done this thing and have not withheld [from Me] your son, your only son [of promise], ‡

<sup>17</sup>—indeed I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your descendants like the stars of the heavens and like the sand on the seashore; and your seed shall possess the gate of their enemies [as conquerors].  [Heb 6:13 , 14 ; 11:12 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup>“Through your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have heard and obeyed My voice.”  [Gen 12:2 , 3 ; 13:16 ; 22:18 ; 26:4 ; 28:14 ; Acts 3:25 , 26 ; Gal 3:16 ] ‡

Death and Burial of Sarah

<sup>4</sup> "I am a stranger and a sojourner (resident alien) among you; give (sell) me property for a burial place among you so that I may bury my dead [in the proper manner]." ‡

<sup>6</sup> "Listen to us, my lord; you are a prince of God [a mighty prince] among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our graves; none of us will refuse you his grave or hinder you from burying your dead [wife]." ‡

<sup>8</sup> And Abraham said to them, "If you are willing to grant my dead a [proper] burial, listen to me, and plead with Ephron the son of Zohar for me, <sup>9</sup> so that he may give (sell) me the cave of Machpelah which he owns—it is at the end of his field; let him give it to me here in your presence for the full price as a burial site [which I may keep forever among you]."

<sup>10</sup> Now Ephron was present there among the sons of Heth; so within the hearing of all the sons of Heth and all who were entering the gate of his city, Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham, saying, ‡

<sup>11</sup> "No, my lord, hear me; I give you the [entire] field, and I also give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the men of my people I give (sell) it to you; bury your dead [there]."‡

<sup>13</sup> He said to Ephron in the presence of the people of the land, "If you will only please listen to me and accept my offer. I will give you the price of the field; accept it from me and I will bury my dead there."

<sup>15</sup> "My lord, listen to me. The land [you seek] is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that between you and me? So bury your dead." ‡

<sup>16</sup> So Abraham listened to Ephron [and agreed to his terms]; and he weighed out for Ephron the [amount of] silver which he had named in the hearing of the Hittites: four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weights current among the merchants. ‡

<sup>17</sup> So the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was to the east of Mamre

(Hebron)—the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field and in all its borders around it—were deeded over [legally] ‡

<sup>20</sup> The field and the cave in it were deeded over to Abraham by the Hittites as a [permanent] possession and burial place. ‡

Genesis 24

A Bride for Isaac

<sup>3</sup> and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live, ‡

<sup>4</sup> but you will [instead] go to my [former] country (Mesopotamia) and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac [the heir of the covenant promise].” ‡

<sup>5</sup> The servant said to him, “Suppose the woman will not be willing to follow me back to this country; should I take your son back to the country from which you came?”

<sup>6</sup> Abraham said to him, “See to it that you do not take my son back there!

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house, from the land of my family and my birth, who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give this land’—He will send His angel before you [to guide you], and you will take a wife from there for my son [and bring her here]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “If the woman is not willing to follow you [to this land], then you will be free from this my oath and blameless; only you must never take my son back there.” ‡

<sup>12</sup>-And he said, “O LORD, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today, and show lovingkindness (faithfulness) to my master Abraham. ‡

<sup>14</sup> now let it be that the girl to whom I say, ‘Please, let down your jar so that I may [have a] drink,’ and she replies, ‘Drink, and I will also give your camels water to drink’—may she be the one whom You have selected [as a wife] for Your servant Isaac; and by this I will know that You have shown lovingkindness (faithfulness) to my master.” ‡

Rebekah Is Chosen

<sup>16</sup> The girl was very beautiful, a virgin and unmarried; and she went down to the spring and filled her jar and came up. ‡

<sup>19</sup> When she had given Eliezer a drink, she said, “I will also draw water for your camels until they have finished drinking.”

weighing a half-shekel and two bracelets for her hands weighing ten shekels in gold.‡

<sup>23</sup> and said, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room in your father’s house for us to lodge?”

<sup>25</sup> Again she said to him, “We have plenty of both straw and feed, and also room to lodge.”

<sup>27</sup> He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not denied His lovingkindness and His truth to my master. As for me, the LORD led me to the house of my master’s brothers.”‡

<sup>30</sup> When he saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister’s arms, and when he heard Rebekah his sister, saying, “The man said this to me,” he went to Eliezer and found him standing by the camels at the spring.

<sup>31</sup> And Laban said, “Come in, blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside since I have made the house ready and have prepared a place for the camels?”‡

<sup>32</sup> So the man came into the house, and Laban unloaded his camels and gave them straw and feed, and [he gave] water to [Eliezer to] wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.‡

<sup>33</sup> But when food was set before him, he said, “I will not eat until I have stated my business.” And Laban said, “Speak on.”‡

<sup>34</sup> So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant.

<sup>35</sup> “The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become great (wealthy, powerful); He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and servants and maids, and camels and donkeys.‡

<sup>36</sup> “Now Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master when she was in her old age, and he has given everything that he has to him.‡

<sup>37</sup> “My master made me swear [an oath], saying, ‘You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live;‡

<sup>38</sup> but you shall [instead] go to my father’s house and to my family and take a wife for my son [Isaac].’‡

<sup>39</sup> “Then I said to my master, ‘But suppose the woman will not follow me

[back to this land].’ ‡

<sup>40</sup> “He said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I walk [habitually and obediently], will send His angel with you to make your journey successful, and you will take a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father’s house; ‡

<sup>41</sup> then you will be free of my oath, when you come to my relatives; and if they do not give her to you, you will [also] be free of my oath.’ ‡

<sup>42</sup> “I came today to the spring, and said, ‘O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if now You will make my journey on which I go successful; ‡

<sup>43</sup> please look, I am standing by the spring of water; now let it be that when the maiden [whom You have chosen for Isaac] comes out to draw [water], and to whom I say, “Please, give me a little water to drink from your jar”; ‡

<sup>44</sup> and if she says to me, “You drink, and I will also draw [water] for your camels”; let that woman be the one whom the LORD has selected and chosen [as a wife] for my master’s son.’

<sup>45</sup> “Before I had finished praying in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her [water] jar on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. And I said to her, ‘Please, let me have a drink.’ ‡

<sup>46</sup> “And she quickly let down her jar from her shoulder, and said, ‘Drink, and I will also water your camels’; so I drank, and she also watered the camels.

<sup>47</sup> “Then I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ She said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him’; and I put the ring in her nose, and the bracelets on her arms. ‡

<sup>48</sup> “And I bowed down my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take the daughter of my master’s brother to his son [as a wife]. ‡

<sup>49</sup> “So now if you are going to show kindness and truth to my master [being faithful to him], tell me; and if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right or to the left [and go on my way].” ‡

<sup>50</sup> Then Laban and Bethuel answered, “The matter has come from the LORD; so we dare not speak bad or good [to you about it—we cannot interfere]. ‡

articles of clothing, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave precious things to her brother and her mother.‡

<sup>54</sup> Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night [there]. In the morning when they got up, he said, “Now send me back to my master.”‡

<sup>55</sup> But Rebekah’s brother and mother said, “Let the girl stay with us a few days—at least ten; then she may go.”

<sup>56</sup> But Eliezer said to them, “Do not delay me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away, so that I may go back to my master.”

<sup>57</sup> And they said, “We will call the girl and ask her what she prefers.”

“May you, our sister,
Become [the mother of] thousands of ten thousands,
And may your descendants possess (conquer)
The [city] gate of those who hate them.”

<sup>61</sup> Then Rebekah and her attendants stood, and they mounted camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and went on his way.

Isaac Marries Rebekah

<sup>65</sup> She said to the servant, “Who is that man there walking across the field to meet us?” And the servant said, “He is my master [Isaac].” So she took a veil and covered herself [as was customary].

Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.‡

Genesis 25

Abraham's Death

Descendants of Ishmael

settlements, and by their encampments (sheepfolds); twelve princes (sheiks) according to their tribes. Foretold in [Gen 17:20] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Ishmael lived a hundred and thirty-seven years; then he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people [who had preceded him in death]. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Ishmael's sons (descendants) settled from Havilah to Shur which is east of Egypt as one goes toward Assyria; he settled opposite (east) of all his relatives. ‡

Isaac's Sons

<sup>19</sup> Now these are the records of the descendants of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham was the father of Isaac. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Isaac prayed to the LORD for his wife, because she was unable to conceive children; and the LORD granted his prayer and Rebekah his wife conceived [twins]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But the children struggled together within her [kicking and shoving one another]; and she said, “If it is so [that the LORD has heard our prayer], why then am I this way?” So she went to inquire of the LORD [praying for an answer]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> The LORD said to her, ‡

“[The founders of] two nations are in your womb;
And the separation of two nations has begun in your body;
The one people shall be stronger than the other;
And the older shall serve the younger.”

<sup>25</sup> The first came out reddish all over like a hairy garment; and they named him Esau (hairy). ‡

<sup>30</sup> and Esau said to Jacob, “Please, let me have a quick swallow of that red stuff there, because I am exhausted and famished.” For that reason Esau was [also] called Edom (Red).

<sup>32</sup> Esau said, “Look, I am about to die [if I do not eat soon]; so of what use is this birthright to me?”

<sup>33</sup> Jacob said, “Swear [an oath] to me today [that you are selling it to me for this food]”; so he swore [an oath] to him, and sold him his birthright. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew; and he ate and drank, and got up and went on his way. In this way Esau scorned his birthright.  [Heb 12:15–17 ] ‡

Genesis 26

Isaac Settles in Gerar

<sup>1</sup> NOW THERE was a famine in the land [of Canaan], besides the previous famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Gerar, to Abimelech king of the Philistines. ‡

<sup>2</sup> The LORD appeared to him and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; stay in the land of which I will tell you. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Live temporarily [as a resident] in this land and I will be with you and will bless and favor you, for I will give all these lands to you and to your descendants, and I will establish and carry out the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.  [Gen 22:16–18; Ps 105:9 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> “I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of the heavens, and will give to your descendants all these lands; and by your descendants shall all the nations of the earth be blessed,  [Gen 22:18; Acts 3:25, 26; Gal 3:16 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> The men of the place asked him about his wife, and he said, “She is my sister,” for he was afraid to say, “my wife”—thinking, “the men of the place might kill me on account of Rebekah, since she is very beautiful.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> It happened when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out of a window and saw Isaac caressing Rebekah his wife.

<sup>9</sup> Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, “See here, Rebekah is in fact your wife! How did you [dare to] say to me, ‘She is my sister’?” And Isaac said to him, “Because I thought I might be killed because of her [desirability].”

<sup>10</sup> Abimelech said, “What is this that you have done to us? One of the men [among our people] might easily have been intimate with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us [before God].” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then Isaac planted [seed] in that land [as a farmer] and reaped in the same year a hundred times [as much as he had planted], and the LORD blessed and favored him. ‡

<sup>13</sup> And the man [Isaac] became great and gained more and more until he became very wealthy and extremely distinguished; ‡

Quarrel over the Wells

<sup>18</sup> Now Isaac again dug [and reopened] the wells of water which had been dug in the days of Abraham his father, because the Philistines had filled them up [with dirt] after the death of Abraham; and he gave the wells the same names that his father had given them. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then his servants dug another well, and they quarreled over that also, so Isaac named it Sitnah (enmity).

<sup>22</sup> He moved away from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over that one; so he named it Rehoboth (broad places), saying, “For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be prosperous in the land.” ‡

“I am the God of Abraham your father;
Do not be afraid, for I am with you.
I will bless and favor you, and multiply your descendants,
For the sake of My servant Abraham.”

<sup>25</sup> So Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD [in prayer]. He pitched his tent there; and there Isaac’s servants dug a well. ‡

Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>27</sup> Isaac said to them, “Why have you [people] come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?” ‡

<sup>28</sup> They said, “We see clearly that the LORD has been with you; so we said, ‘There should now be an oath between us [with a curse for the one who breaks it], that is, between you and us, and let us make a covenant (binding agreement, solemn promise) with you,’ ‡

<sup>29</sup> that you will not harm us, just as we have not touched you and have done nothing but good to you and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed and favored of the LORD!’ ” ‡

<sup>32</sup> Now on the same day, Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well they had dug, saying, “We have found water.”

to this day.  [Gen 21:31 ] ‡

34. When Esau was forty years old he married Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite as his wives; ‡

Genesis 27

Jacob's Deception

1 NOW WHEN Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, he called his elder [and favorite] son Esau and said to him, "My son." And Esau answered him, "Here I am." ‡

2 Isaac said, "See here, I am old; I do not know when I may die. ‡

3 "So now, please take your [hunting] gear, your quiver [of arrows] and your bow, and go out into the open country and hunt game for me; ‡

4. and make me a savory and delicious dish [of meat], the kind I love, and bring it to me to eat, so that my soul may bless you [as my firstborn son] before I die." ‡

5 But Rebekah overheard what Isaac said to Esau his son; and when Esau had gone to the open country to hunt for game that he might bring back,

6 Rebekah said to Jacob her [younger and favorite] son, "Listen carefully: I heard your father saying to Esau your brother,

7 'Bring me some game and make me a savory and delicious dish [of meat], so that I may eat it, and declare my blessing on you in the presence of the LORD before my death.'

8. "So now, my son, listen [carefully] to me [and do exactly] as I command you. ‡

9 "Go now to the flock and bring me two good and suitable young goats, and I will make them into a savory dish [of meat] for your father, the kind he loves [to eat]. ‡

10 "Then you shall bring it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before his death." ‡

11 Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Listen, Esau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth [skinned] man. ‡

12 "Suppose my father touches me and feels my skin; then I will be seen by him as a cheat (impostor), and I will bring his curse on me and not a blessing." ‡

<sup>13</sup> But his mother said to him, “May your curse be on me, my son; only listen and obey me, and go, bring the young goats to me.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> So he went to his father and said, “My father.” And Isaac said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”

<sup>19</sup> Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done what you told me to do. Now please, sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may bless me.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have found the game so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the LORD your God caused it to come to me.”

<sup>21</sup> But Isaac [wondered and] said to Jacob, “Please come close [to me] so that I may touch you, my son, and determine if you are really my son Esau or not.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> But he said, “Are you really my son Esau?” Jacob answered, “I am.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Isaac said, “Bring the food to me, and I will eat some of my son’s game, so that I may bless you.” He brought it to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine and he drank. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then his father Isaac said to him, “Please come, my son, and kiss me.”

<sup>27</sup> So he came and kissed him; and Isaac smelled his clothing and blessed him and said, ‡

“The scent of my son [Esau]

Is like the aroma of a field which the LORD has blessed;

<sup>28</sup> Now may God give you of the dew of heaven [to water your land], ‡

And of the fatness (fertility) of the earth,
And an abundance of grain and new wine;  [Gen 27:39; Deut 33:13, 28 ]

29. May peoples serve you, ‡
And nations bow down to you;
Be lord and master over your brothers,
And may your mother's sons bow down to you.
May those who curse you be cursed,
And may those who bless you be blessed.”

The Stolen Blessing

30 Now as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely left the presence of Isaac his father, Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 Esau also made a delicious dish [of meat] and brought it to his father and said to him, “Let my father get up and eat some of his son's game, so that you may bless me.” ‡

32 Isaac his father said to him, “Who are you?” And he replied, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”

33 Then Isaac trembled violently, and he said, “Then who was the one [who was just here] who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I blessed him. Yes, and he [in fact] shall be (shall remain) blessed.” ‡

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with a great and extremely bitter cry and said to his father, “Bless me, even me also, O my father!”  [Heb 12:16, 17 ] ‡

35 Isaac said, “Your brother came deceitfully and has [fraudulently] taken away your blessing [for himself].”

36 Esau replied, “Is he not rightly named Jacob (the supplanter)? For he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright, and now he has taken away my blessing. Have you not reserved a blessing for me?” ‡

37 But Isaac replied to Esau, “Listen carefully: I have made Jacob your lord and master; I have given him all his brothers and relatives as servants; and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. What then, can I do for you, my son?” ‡

38 Esau said to his father, “Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father.” Then Esau [no longer able to restrain himself] raised his voice and wept [loudly]. ‡

<sup>39</sup> Then Isaac his father answered and [prophesied and] said to him, ‡

“Your dwelling shall be away from the fertility of the earth
And away from the dew of heaven above;
<sup>40</sup> But you shall live by your sword, ‡
And serve your brother;
However it shall come to pass when you break loose [from your anger and hatred],
That you will tear his yoke off your neck [and you will be free of him].”

<sup>41</sup> So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him; and Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are very near; then I will kill my brother Jacob.” ‡

<sup>42</sup> When these words of her elder son Esau were repeated to Rebekah, she sent for Jacob her younger son, and said to him, “Listen carefully, your brother Esau is comforting himself concerning you by planning to kill you. ‡

<sup>45</sup> “When your brother’s anger toward you subsides and he forgets what you did to him, then I will send and bring you back from there. Why should I be deprived of you both in a single day?”

<sup>46</sup> Then Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am tired of living because of the daughters of Heth [these insolent wives of Esau]. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, like these daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?” [Gen 26:34] ‡

Jacob Is Sent Away

<sup>1</sup> SO ISAAC called Jacob and blessed him and charged him, and said to him, “You shall not marry one of the women of Canaan. ‡ mother's brother.‡

3 “May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, so that you may become a [great] company of peoples.‡

4 “May He also give the blessing of Abraham to you and your descendants with you, that you may inherit the [promised] land of your sojournings, which He gave to Abraham.”‡

5 Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram, to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

6 Now Esau noticed that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him to Paddan-aram to take a wife for himself from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a prohibition, saying, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,”

7 and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Paddan-aram.

8 So Esau realized that [his two wives] the daughters of Canaan displeased Isaac his father;‡

9-and [to appease his parents] Esau went to [the family of] Ishmael and took as his wife, in addition to the wives he [already] had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth [Ishmael's firstborn son].‡

Jacob's Dream

10-Now Jacob left Beersheba [never to see his mother again] and traveled toward Haran.‡

11 And he came to a certain place and stayed overnight there because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down there [to sleep].

12 He dreamed that there was a ladder (stairway) placed on the earth, and the top of it reached [out of sight] toward heaven; and [he saw] the angels of God ascending and descending on it [going to and from heaven]. [John 1:51.]‡

13 And behold, the LORD stood above and around him and said, “I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your [father's] father and the God of Isaac; I will give to you and to your descendants the land [of promise] on which you are lying.‡

14 “Your descendants shall be as [countless as] the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and the east and the north and the south; and all the families (nations) of the earth shall be blessed through you and your descendants.  [Gen 12:2 , 3 ; 13:16 ; 22:18 ; 26:4 ; Acts 3:25 , 26 ; Gal 3:8 16 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Behold, I am with you and will keep [careful watch over you and guard] you wherever you may go, and I will bring you back to this [promised] land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and he said, “Without any doubt the LORD is in this place, and I did not realize it.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> So he was afraid and said, “How fearful and awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gateway to heaven.”

<sup>18</sup> So Jacob got up early in the morning, and took the stone he had put under his head and he set it up as a pillar [that is, a monument to the vision in his dream], and he poured [olive] oil on the top of it [to consecrate it]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> He named that place Bethel (the house of God); the previous name of that city was Luz (Almond Tree). ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then Jacob made a vow (promise), saying, “If God will be with me and will keep me on this journey that I take, and will give me food to eat and clothing to wear, ‡

<sup>21</sup> and if [He grants that] I return to my father’s house in safety, then the LORD will be my God. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “This stone which I have set up as a pillar (monument, memorial) will be God’s house [a sacred place to me], and of everything that You give me I will give the tenth to You [as an offering to signify my gratitude and dependence on You].”  [Deut 12:8–11 ; 14:22–26 ; 26:1–11 ] ‡

Genesis 29

Jacob Meets Rachel

<sup>2</sup> As he looked, he saw a well in the field, and three flocks of sheep lying there [resting] beside it because the flocks were watered from that well. Now the stone on the mouth of the well [that covered and protected it] was large,

<sup>3</sup> and when all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the mouth of the well, water the sheep, and [afterward] replace the stone on the mouth of the well.

<sup>4</sup> Jacob said to them, “My brothers, where are you from?” And they said, “We are from Haran.”

<sup>7</sup> Jacob said, “Look, the sun is still high [overhead]; it is a long time before the flocks need to be gathered [in their folds for the night]. Water the sheep, and go, and return them to their pasture.”

<sup>8</sup> But they said, “We cannot [leave] until all the flocks are gathered together, and the shepherds roll the stone from the mouth of the well; then we will water the sheep.”

<sup>9</sup> While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father’s sheep, for she was a shepherdess. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Jacob told Rachel he was her father’s relative, Rebekah’s son; and she ran and told her father. ‡

<sup>13</sup> When Laban heard of the arrival of Jacob, his sister’s son, he ran to meet him, and embraced and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then he told Laban all these things. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then Laban said to him, “You are my bone and my flesh.” And Jacob stayed with him a month. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Laban said to Jacob, “Just because you are my relative, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me, what should your wages be?”

<sup>16</sup> Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

<sup>18</sup> Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, “I will serve you [as a hired workman] for seven years [in return] for [the privilege of marrying] Rachel your younger daughter.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Laban said, “It is better that I give her [in marriage] to you than give her to another man. Stay and work with me.”

Laban’s Treachery

<sup>21</sup> Finally, Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife, for my time [of service] is completed, so that I may take her to me [as my wife].” ‡

<sup>25</sup> But in the morning [when Jacob awoke], it was Leah [who was with him]! And he said to Laban, “What is this that you have done to me? Did I not work for you [for seven years] for Rachel? Why have you deceived and betrayed me [like this]?!”

<sup>27</sup> “Finish the week [of the wedding feast] for Leah; then we will give you Rachel also, and in return you shall work for me for seven more years.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Now when the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, He made her able to bear children, but Rachel was barren. ‡

<sup>32</sup> Leah conceived and gave birth to a son and named him Reuben (See, a son!), for she said, “Because the LORD has seen my humiliation and suffering; now my husband will love me [since I have given him a son].” ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then she conceived again and gave birth to a son and said, “Because the LORD heard that I am unloved, He has given me this son also.” So she named him Simeon (God hears).

<sup>34</sup> She conceived again and gave birth to a son and said, “Now this time my husband will become attached to me [as a companion], for I have given him three sons.” Therefore he was named Levi.

<sup>35</sup> Again she conceived and gave birth to a [fourth] son, and she said, “Now I will praise the LORD.” So she named him Judah; then [for a time] she stopped bearing [children].‡

Genesis 30

The Sons of Jacob

<sup>1</sup> WHEN RACHEL saw that she conceived no children for Jacob, she envied her sister, and said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I will die.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then Jacob became furious with Rachel, and he said, “Am I in the place of God, who has denied you children?” ‡

<sup>3</sup> She said, “Here, take my maid Bilhah and go in to her; and [when the baby comes] she shall deliver it [while sitting] on my knees, so that by her I may also have children [to count as my own].” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then Rachel said, “God has judged and vindicated me, and has heard my plea and has given me a son [through my maid].” So she named him Dan (He judged). ‡

<sup>8</sup> So Rachel said, “With mighty wrestlings [in prayer to God] I have struggled with my sister and have prevailed.” So she named him Naphtali (my wrestlings). ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now at the time of wheat harvest Reuben [the eldest child] went and found some mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> But Leah answered, “Is it a small thing that you have taken my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes also?” So Rachel said, “Jacob shall sleep with you tonight in exchange for your son’s mandrakes.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> When Jacob came in from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must sleep with me [tonight], for I have in fact hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” So he slept with her that night.

<sup>18</sup> Then Leah said, “God has given me my reward because I have given my maid to my husband.” So she named him Issachar.

<sup>20</sup> Then Leah said, “God has endowed me with a good [marriage] gift [for my husband]; now he will live with me [regarding me with honor as his wife], because I have given birth to six sons.” So she named him Zebulun. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then God remembered [the prayers of] Rachel, and God thought of her and opened her womb [so that she would conceive]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> So she conceived and gave birth to a son; and she said, “God has taken away my disgrace and humiliation.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> She named him Joseph (may He add) and said, “May the LORD add to me another son.” ‡

Jacob Prospers

<sup>25</sup> Now when Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go back to my own place and to my own country. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know the work which I have done for you.” ‡

<sup>27</sup> But Laban said to him, “If I have found favor in your sight, stay with me; for I have learned [from the omens in divination and by experience] that the LORD has blessed me because of you.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> Jacob answered him, “You know how I have served you and how your possessions, your cattle and sheep and goats, have fared with me. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “For you had little before I came and it has increased and multiplied abundantly, and the LORD has favored you with blessings wherever I turned. But now, when shall I provide for my own household?” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Laban asked, “What shall I give you?” Jacob replied, “You shall not give me anything. But if you will do this one thing for me [which I now propose], I will again pasture and keep your flock:

<sup>32</sup> Let me pass through your entire flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep and every dark or black one among the lambs and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and those shall be my wages. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “So my honesty will be evident for me later, when you come [for an accounting] concerning my wages. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and dark among the young lambs, if found with me, shall be considered stolen.” ‡

<sup>35</sup> So on that same day Laban [secretly] removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one with white on it, and all the dark ones among the sheep, and put them in the care of his sons.

<sup>38</sup> Then he set the branches which he had peeled in front of the flocks in the watering troughs, where the flocks came to drink; and they mated and conceived when they came to drink.

<sup>39</sup> So the flocks mated and conceived by the branches, and the flocks gave birth to streaked, speckled, and spotted offspring.

<sup>40</sup> Jacob separated the lambs, and [as he had done with the peeled branches] he made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the dark or black in the [new] flock of Laban; and he put his own herds apart by themselves and did not put them [where they could breed] with Laban’s flock.

<sup>41</sup> Furthermore, whenever the stronger [animals] of the flocks were breeding, Jacob would place the branches in the sight of the flock in the watering troughs, so that they would mate and conceive among the branches;

<sup>42</sup> but when the flock was sickly, he did not put the branches there; so the sicker [animals] were Laban’s and the stronger Jacob’s.

<sup>43</sup> So Jacob became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks [of sheep and goats], and female and male servants, and camels and donkeys. ‡

Genesis 31

Jacob Leaves Secretly for Canaan

<sup>1</sup> JACOB HEARD that Laban's sons were saying: "Jacob has taken away everything that was our father's, and from what belonged to our father he has acquired all this wealth and honor." ‡

<sup>2</sup> Jacob noticed [a change in] the attitude of Laban, and saw that it was not friendly toward him as before. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your people, and I will be with you." ‡

<sup>4</sup> So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to his flock in the field,

<sup>5</sup> and he said to them, "I see [a change in] your father's attitude, that he is not friendly toward me as [he was] before; but the God of my father [Isaac] has been with me. ‡

<sup>6</sup> "You know that I have served your father with all my strength. ‡

<sup>7</sup> "Yet your father has cheated me [as often as possible] and changed my wages ten times; but God did not allow him to hurt me. ‡

<sup>8</sup> "If he said, 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then the entire flock gave birth to speckled [young]; and if he said, 'The streaked shall be your wages,' then the entire flock gave birth to streaked [young]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> "Thus God has taken away the flocks of your father and given them to me. ‡

<sup>10</sup> "And it happened at the time when the flock conceived that I looked up and saw in a dream that the rams which mated [with the female goats] were streaked, speckled, and spotted.

<sup>11</sup> "And the Angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob.' And I said, 'Here I am.' ‡

<sup>12</sup> "He said, 'Look up and see, all the rams which are mating [with the flock] are streaked, speckled, and spotted; for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you. ‡

<sup>13</sup> 'I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar, and where you made a vow to Me; now stand up, leave this land, and return to the land of your birth.' " ‡

<sup>14</sup> Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there still any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? ‡

<sup>15</sup> "Are we not counted by him as foreigners? For he sold us [to you in marriage], and has also entirely used up our purchase price. ‡

<sup>16</sup> "Surely all the riches which God has taken from our father are ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has told you to do, do it."

camels;

<sup>18</sup> and he drove away all his livestock and [took along] all his property which he had acquired, the livestock he had obtained and accumulated in Paddan-aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

<sup>21</sup> So he fled with everything that he had, and got up and crossed the river [Euphrates], and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead [east of the Jordan River]. ‡

Laban Pursues Jacob

<sup>22</sup> On the third day [after his departure] Laban was told that Jacob had fled.

<sup>23</sup> So he took his relatives with him and pursued him for seven days, and they overtook him in the hill country of Gilead. ‡

<sup>24</sup> God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and said to him, “Be careful that you do not speak to Jacob, either good or bad.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then Laban said to Jacob, “What do you mean by deceiving me and leaving without my knowledge, and carrying off my daughters as if [they were] captives of the sword? ‡

<sup>27</sup> “Why did you run away secretly and deceive me and not tell me, so that [otherwise] I might have sent you away with joy and with songs, with [music on the] tambourine and lyre?

<sup>28</sup> “And why did you not allow me to kiss my grandchildren and my daughters [goodbye]? Now you have done a foolish thing [in behaving like this]. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “It is in my power to harm you, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, ‘Be careful not to speak to Jacob, either good or bad.’ ‡

<sup>30</sup> “Now [I suppose] you felt you must go because you were homesick for your father's house and family; but why did you steal my [household] gods?” ‡

our relatives [search my possessions and] point out whatever you find that belongs to you and take it.” For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the idols. ‡

<sup>33</sup> So Laban went into Jacob’s tent and into Leah’s tent and the tent of the two maids, but he did not find them. Then he came out of Leah’s tent and entered Rachel’s tent.

<sup>35</sup> So Rachel said to her father, “Do not be displeased, my lord, that I cannot rise before you, for the manner of women is on me and I am unwell.” He searched [further] but did not find the household idols. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Then Jacob became angry and argued with Laban. And he said to Laban, “What is my fault? What is my sin that you pursued me like this?

<sup>37</sup> “Although you have searched through all my possessions, what have you found of your household goods? Put it here before my relatives and your relatives, so that they may decide [who has done right] between the two of us.

<sup>38</sup> “These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not lost their young, nor have I eaten the rams of your flocks.

<sup>39</sup> “I did not bring you the torn carcasses [of the animals attacked by predators]; I [personally] took the loss. You required of me [to make good] everything that was stolen, whether it occurred by day or night. ‡

<sup>40</sup> “This was my situation: by day the heat consumed me and by night the cold, and I could not sleep.

<sup>41</sup> “These twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for [my share of] your flocks, and you have changed my wages ten times. ‡

<sup>42</sup> “If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and [the Feared One] of Isaac, had not been with me, most certainly you would have sent me away now empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and humiliation and the [exhausting] labor of my hands, so He rendered judgment and rebuked you last night.” ‡

The Covenant of Mizpah

<sup>43</sup> Laban answered Jacob, “These women [that you married] are my daughters, these children are my grandchildren, these flocks are [from] my flocks, and all that you see [here] is mine. But what can I do today to these my daughters or to their children to whom they have given birth?

<sup>44</sup>“So come now, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between you and me.” ‡

<sup>48</sup> Laban said, “This mound [of stones] is a witness [a reminder of the oath taken] today between you and me.” Therefore he [also] called the name Galeed, ‡

<sup>49</sup> and Mizpah (watchtower), for Laban said, “May the LORD watch between you and me when we are absent from one another. ‡

<sup>50</sup> “If you should mistreat (humiliate, oppress) my daughters, or if you should take other wives besides my daughters, although no one is with us [as a witness], see and remember, God is witness between you and me.”

<sup>51</sup> Laban said to Jacob, “Look at this mound [of stones] and look at this pillar which I have set up between you and me.

<sup>52</sup> “This mound is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not pass by this mound to harm you, and that you will not pass by this mound and this pillar to harm me.

<sup>53</sup> “The God of Abraham [your father] and the God of Nahor [my father], and the god [the image of worship] of their father [Terah, an idolater], judge between us.” But Jacob swore [only] by [the one true God] the Fear of his father Isaac.  [Josh 24:2 ] ‡

<sup>54</sup> Then Jacob offered a sacrifice [to the LORD] on the mountain, and called his relatives to the meal; and they ate food and spent the night on the mountain.

Jacob’s Fear of Esau

<sup>1</sup> THEN AS Jacob went on his way, the angels of God met him [to reassure and protect him]. ‡ Jacob's Travels in the Land of Canaan

<sup>5</sup> I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, male servants, and female servants; and I have sent [this message] to tell my lord, so that I may find grace and kindness in your sight.” ’ ” ‡

<sup>6</sup> The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you, and there are four hundred men with him.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two camps; ‡

<sup>8</sup> and he said, “If Esau comes to the one camp and attacks it, then the other camp which is left will escape.”

<sup>9</sup> Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD, who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your people, and I will make you prosper,’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> I am unworthy of all the lovingkindness and compassion and of all the faithfulness which You have shown to Your servant. With only my staff [long ago] I crossed over this Jordan, and now I have become [blessed and increased into these] two groups [of people]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Save me, please, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, that he will come and attack me and the mothers with the children. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “And You [LORD] said, ‘I will certainly make you prosper and make your descendants as [numerous as] the sand of the sea, which is too great to be counted.’ ” ‡

female donkeys, and ten [donkey] colts.

<sup>16</sup> He put them into the care of his servants, every herd by itself, and said to his servants, “Go on ahead of me, and put an interval [of space] between the individual herds.”

<sup>17</sup> Then he commanded the one in front, saying, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks to whom you belong, and where you are going, and whose are the animals in front of you?

<sup>18</sup> then you shall say, ‘They are your servant Jacob’s; they are a gift sent to my lord Esau. And he also is behind us.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> And so Jacob commanded the second and the third as well, and all that followed the herds, saying, “This is what you shall say to Esau when you meet him;

<sup>20</sup> and you shall say, ‘Look, your servant Jacob is behind us.’ ” For he said [to himself], “I will try to appease him with the gift that is going ahead of me. Then afterward I will see him; perhaps he will accept and forgive me.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> So the gift [of the herds of livestock] went on ahead of him, and he himself spent that night back in the camp.

<sup>23</sup> Then he took them and sent them across the brook. And he also sent across whatever he had.

Jacob Wrestles

<sup>26</sup> Then He said, “Let Me go, for day is breaking.” But Jacob said, “I will not let You go unless You declare a blessing on me.” ‡

<sup>27</sup> So He asked him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Jacob.”

<sup>28</sup> And He said, “Your name shall no longer be Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed.”  [Hos 12:3, 4] ‡

<sup>29</sup> Then Jacob asked Him, “Please tell me Your name.” But He said, “Why is it that you ask My name?” And He declared a blessing [of the covenant promises] on Jacob there. ‡ seen God face to face, yet my life has not been snatched away.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Now the sun rose on him as he passed Penuel (Peniel), and he was limping because of his hip.

Genesis 33

Jacob Meets Esau

<sup>4</sup> But Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and hugged his neck and kissed him, and they wept [for joy].  [Luke 15:20 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> But Esau said, “I have plenty, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.”

<sup>10</sup> Jacob replied, “No, please, if now I have found favor in your sight, then accept my gift [as a blessing] from my hand, for I see your face as if I had seen the face of God, and you have received me favorably.”

11 “Please accept my blessing (gift) which has been brought to you, for God has dealt graciously with me and I have everything [that I could possibly want].” So Jacob kept urging him and Esau accepted it. ‡ of you [to lead the way].”

<sup>13</sup> But Jacob replied, “You know, my lord, that the children are frail and need gentle care, and the nursing flocks and herds [with young] are of concern to me; for if the men should drive them hard for a single day, all the flocks will die.

<sup>14</sup> “Please let my lord go on ahead of his servant, and I will move on slowly, governed by the pace of the livestock that are in front of me and according to the endurance of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir [in Edom].” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Esau said, “Please let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.” But Jacob said, “What need is there [for it]? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> But Jacob journeyed [north] to Succoth, and built himself a house and made shelters for his livestock; so the name of the place is Succoth (huts, shelters). ‡

Jacob Settles in Shechem

Genesis 34

The Treachery of Jacob’s Sons

<sup>1</sup> NOW DINAH the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out [unescorted] to visit the girls of the land. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now when Jacob’s sons heard of it they came in from the field; they were deeply grieved, and they were very angry, for Shechem had done a disgraceful thing to Israel by lying with Jacob’s daughter, for such a thing is not to be done. ‡

<sup>8</sup> But Hamor conferred with them, saying, “The soul of my son Shechem [deeply] longs for your daughter [and sister]. Please give her to him as his wife.

<sup>9</sup> “And [beyond that] intermarry with us; give your daughters to us [as wives] and take our daughters for yourselves.  [Ex 34:15, 16; Deut 7:3; Josh 23:12, 13 ]

<sup>10</sup> “In this way you shall live with us; the country will be open to you; live and do business in it and acquire property and possessions in it.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Shechem also said to Dinah’s father and to her brothers, “Let me find favor in your sight, and I will give you whatever you ask of me.

<sup>12</sup> “Demand of me a very large bridal payment and gift [as compensation for giving up your daughter and sister], and I will give you whatever you tell me; only give me the girl to be my wife.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> They said to them, “We cannot do this thing and give our sister [in marriage] to one who is not circumcised, because that would be a disgrace to us. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “But we will consent to you only on this condition: if you will become like us, in that every male among you consents to be circumcised,

<sup>16</sup> then we will give our daughters to you [in marriage], and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will live with you and become one people.

<sup>19</sup> and the young man did not hesitate to do the [required] thing, for he was delighted with Jacob's daughter. Now he was more respected and honored than all [others] in the household of his father. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their [walled] city [where the leading men would meet] and spoke with the men of the city, saying,

<sup>21</sup> "These men are peaceful and friendly with us; so let them live in the land and do business in it, for the land is large enough [for us and] for them; let us take their daughters for wives and let us give them our daughters [in marriage].

<sup>22</sup> "But only on this condition will the men consent to our request that they live among us and become one people: that every male among us become circumcised just as they are circumcised.

<sup>23</sup> "Will not their cattle and their possessions and all their animals be ours [if we do this]? Let us consent [to do as they ask], and they will live here with us."

<sup>24</sup> And every [Canaanite] man who went out of the city gate listened and considered what Hamor and Shechem said; and every male who was a resident of that city was circumcised. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Now on the third day [after the circumcision], when all the men were [terribly] sore and in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's [full] brothers, took their swords, boldly entered the city [without anyone suspecting them of evil intent], and they killed every male. ‡

<sup>29</sup> they looted all their wealth, and [took captive] all their children and their wives, even everything that was in the houses.

<sup>30</sup> Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have ruined me, making me a stench to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites! My men are few in number, and the men of the land will band together against me and attack me; I shall be destroyed, I and my household." ‡

<sup>31</sup> But they said, "Should he [be permitted to] treat our sister as a prostitute?"

Genesis 35

Jacob Moves to Bethel

<sup>1</sup> THEN GOD said to Jacob, “Go up to Bethel and live there, and make an altar there to God, who appeared to you [in a distinct manifestation] when you fled [years ago] from Esau your brother.” [Gen 28:11–22] ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, “Get rid of the [idols and images of] foreign gods that are among you, and ceremonially purify yourselves and change [into fresh] clothes; ‡

<sup>3</sup> then let us get up and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. ‡

<sup>7</sup> There he built an altar [to worship the LORD], and called the place Elbethel (God of the House of God), because there God had revealed Himself to him when he escaped from his brother. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now Deborah, [who once was] Rebekah’s nurse, died and was buried below Bethel under the oak; and the name of it was called Allon-bacuth (Oak of Weeping). ‡

Jacob Is Named Israel

<sup>9</sup> Then God [in a visible manifestation] appeared to Jacob again when he came out of Paddan-aram, and declared a blessing on him. [Gen 32:28] ‡

<sup>10</sup> Again God said to him, ‡

“Your name is Jacob;
You shall no longer be called Jacob,
But Israel shall be your name.”

So he was called Israel.

<sup>11</sup> And God said to him, ‡

“I am God Almighty.

Be fruitful and multiply;

A nation and a company of nations shall come from you,
And kings shall be born of your loins.

I will give to you, and to your descendants after you I will give the land.”

<sup>13</sup> Then God ascended from Jacob in the place where He had spoken with him. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Jacob set up a pillar (memorial, monument) in the place where he had talked with God, a pillar of stone, and he poured a drink offering [of wine] on it; he also poured oil on it [to declare it sacred for God’s purpose]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So Jacob named the place where God had spoken with him, Bethel (the House of God). ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then they journeyed from Bethel; and when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath (Bethlehem), Rachel began to give birth and had difficulty and suffered severely.

<sup>17</sup> When she was in hard labor the midwife said to her, “Do not be afraid; you now have another son.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> And as her soul was departing, (for she died), she named him Ben-oni (son of my sorrow); but his father called him Benjamin (son of the right hand).

The Sons of Israel

Now Jacob had twelve sons—

<sup>29</sup> Isaac's spirit departed and he died and was gathered to his people [who had preceded him in death], an old man full of days (satisfied, fulfilled); his sons Esau and Jacob buried him [in the cave of Machpelah with his parents Abraham and Sarah]. ‡

Genesis 36

Esau Moves

Descendants of Esau

<sup>9</sup> These are the records of the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

<sup>43</sup> Magdiel, and Iram. These are the tribal chiefs of Edom (that is, of Esau the father of the Edomites), according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession.

Genesis 37

Joseph's Dream

Joseph, when he was seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers [Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher]; the boy was with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's [secondary] wives; and Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father.

3-Now Israel (Jacob) loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a [distinctive] multicolored tunic. ‡

4-His brothers saw that their father loved Joseph more than all of his brothers; so they hated him and could not [find it within themselves to] speak to him on friendly terms. ‡

5 Now Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brothers, and they hated him even more.

6 He said to them, “Please listen to [the details of] this dream which I have dreamed;

7 we [brothers] were binding sheaves [of grain stalks] in the field, and lo, my sheaf [suddenly] got up and stood upright and remained standing; and behold, your sheaves stood all around my sheaf and bowed down [in respect].” ‡

8 His brothers said to him, “Are you actually going to reign over us? Are you really going to rule and govern us as your subjects?” So they hated him even more for [telling them about] his dreams and for his [arrogant] words.

9 But Joseph dreamed still another dream, and told it to his brothers [as well]. He said, “See here, I have again dreamed a dream, and lo, [this time I saw] eleven stars and the sun and the moon bowed down [in respect] to me!” ‡

10 He told it to his father as well as to his brothers; but his father rebuked him and said to him [in disbelief], “What is [the meaning of] this dream that you have dreamed? Shall I and your mother and your brothers actually come to bow down to the ground [in respect] before you?” ‡

11 Joseph's brothers were envious and jealous of him, but his father kept the words [of Joseph] in mind [wondering about their meaning]. ‡

12 Then his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. ‡

13 Israel (Jacob) said to Joseph, “Are not your brothers pasturing [the flock] at Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them.” And he said, “Here I am [ready to obey you].”

14 Then Jacob said to him, “Please go and see whether everything is all right with your brothers and all right with the flock; then bring word [back] to me.” So he sent him from the Hebron Valley, and he went to Shechem. ‡

15 Now a certain man found Joseph, and saw that he was wandering around and had lost his way in the field; so the man asked him, “What are you looking for?”

<sup>16</sup> He said, “I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are pasturing our flocks .” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then the man said, “[They were here, but] they have moved on from this place. I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’ ” So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan. ‡

The Plot against Joseph

<sup>18</sup> And when they saw him from a distance, even before he came close to them, they plotted to kill him. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Now then, come and let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits (cisterns, underground water storage); then we will say [to our father], ‘A wild animal killed and devoured him’; and we shall see what will become of his dreams!” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Reuben said to them, “Do not shed his blood, but [instead] throw him [alive] into the pit that is here in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him [to kill him]”—[he said this so] that he could rescue him from them and return him [safely] to his father.

<sup>24</sup> then they took him and threw him into the pit. Now the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

<sup>26</sup> Judah said to his brothers, “What do we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood (murder)? ‡

<sup>27</sup> “Come, let us [instead] sell him to these Ishmaelites [and Midianites] and not lay our hands on him, because he is our brother and our flesh.” So his brothers listened to him and agreed.  [Gen 22:24; 25:2 ] ‡

brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and they sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. And so they took Joseph [as a captive] into Egypt. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Now Reuben [unaware of what had happened] returned to the pit, and [to his great alarm found that] Joseph was not in the pit; so he tore his clothes [in deep sorrow]. ‡

<sup>30</sup> He rejoined his brothers and said, “The boy is not there; as for me, where shall I go [to hide from my father]?” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then they took Joseph’s tunic, slaughtered a male goat and dipped the tunic in the blood; ‡

<sup>32</sup> and they brought the multicolored tunic to their father, saying, “We have found this; please examine it and decide whether or not it is your son’s tunic.”

<sup>33</sup> He recognized it and said, “It is my son’s tunic. A wild animal has devoured him; Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces!” ‡

<sup>34</sup> So Jacob tore his clothes [in grief], put on sackcloth and mourned many days for his son. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Then all his sons and daughters attempted to console him, but he refused to be comforted and said, “I will go down to Sheol (the place of the dead) in mourning for my son.” And his father wept for him. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Meanwhile, in Egypt the Midianites sold Joseph [as a slave] to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and the captain of the [royal] guard. ‡

Genesis 38

Judah and Tamar

<sup>4</sup> Then she conceived again and gave birth to a son and named him Onan. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Again she conceived and gave birth to still another son and named him Shelah. It was at Chezib that she gave birth to him. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD killed him [in judgment]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> But what he did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD; therefore He killed him also [in judgment]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, “Remain a widow at your father’s house until Shelah my [youngest] son is grown”; [but he was deceiving her] for he thought that [if Shelah should marry her] he too might die like his brothers did. So Tamar went and lived in her father’s house. ‡

<sup>14</sup> So she removed her widow’s clothes and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself up [in disguise], and sat in the gateway of Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah had grown up, and she had not been given to him as a wife [as Judah had promised]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> He turned to her by the road, and said, “Please come, let me lie with you”; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, “What will you give me, that you may lie with me?”

<sup>17</sup> He answered, “I will send you a young goat from the flock.” And she said, “Will you give me a pledge [as a deposit] until you send it?” ‡

<sup>18</sup> He said, “What pledge shall I give you?” She said, “Your seal and your cord, and the staff that is in your hand.” So he gave them to her and was intimate with her, and she conceived by him. ‡

<sup>21</sup> He asked the men of that place, “Where is the temple prostitute who was by the roadside at Enaim?” They said, “There was no prostitute here.”

<sup>22</sup> So he returned to Judah, and said, “I cannot find her; also the local men said, ‘There was no prostitute around here.’ ”

<sup>23</sup> Then Judah said, “Let her keep the things (pledge articles) for herself, otherwise we will be a laughingstock [searching everywhere for her]. After all, I sent this young goat, but you did not find her.”

<sup>24</sup> About three months later Judah was told, “Tamar your daughter-in-law has played the [role of a] prostitute, and she is with child because of her immorality.” So Judah said, “Bring her out and let her be burned [to death as punishment]!” ‡

<sup>25</sup> While she was being brought out, she [took the things Judah had given her and] sent [them along with a message] to her father-in-law, saying, “I am with child by the man to whom these articles belong.” And she added, “Please examine [them carefully] and see [clearly] to whom these things belong, the seal and the cord and staff.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> Judah recognized the articles, and said, “She has been more righteous [in this matter] than I, because I did not give her to my son Shelah [as I had promised].” And Judah did not have [intimate] relations with her again. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Now when the time came for her to give birth, there were twins in her womb.

<sup>28</sup> And when she was in labor, one [baby] put out his hand, and the midwife took his hand and tied a scarlet thread on it, saying, “This one was born first.”

<sup>29</sup> But he pulled back his hand, and his brother was born first. And she said, “What a breach you have made for yourself [to be the firstborn]!” So he was named Perez (breach, break forth).  [Matt 1:3 ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> Afterward his brother who had the scarlet [thread] on his hand was born and was named Zerah (brightness).

Joseph’s Success in Egypt

<sup>2</sup>-The LORD was with Joseph, and he [even though a slave] became a successful and prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master, the

<sup>4</sup> So Joseph pleased Potiphar and found favor in his sight and he served him as his personal servant. He made Joseph overseer over his house, and he put all that he owned in Joseph's charge.‡

<sup>5</sup> It happened that from the time that he made Joseph overseer in his house and [put him in charge] over all that he owned, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house because of Joseph; so the LORD's blessing was on everything that Potiphar owned, in the house and in the field.‡

<sup>8</sup> But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, with me in the house, my master does not concern himself with anything; he has put everything that he owns in my charge.

<sup>9</sup> "He is not greater in this house than I am, nor has he kept anything from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do this great evil and sin against God [and your husband]?"‡

<sup>10</sup> And so it was that she spoke to Joseph [persistently] day after day, but he did not listen to her [plea] to lie beside her or be with her.

<sup>11</sup> Then it happened one day that Joseph went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the men of the household was there in the house.

<sup>14</sup> she called to the men of her household and said to them, "Look at this, your master has brought a Hebrew [into the household] to mock and insult us; he came to me to lie with me, and I screamed.

whom you brought among us, came to me to mock and insult me; ‡

<sup>18</sup> then as soon as I raised my voice and screamed, he left his robe with me and ran outside [the house].”

Joseph Imprisoned

<sup>19</sup> And when Joseph’s master heard the words of his wife, saying, “This is the way your servant treated me,” his anger burned. ‡

<sup>20</sup> So Joseph’s master took him and put him in the prison, a place where the king’s prisoners were confined; so he was there in the prison. ‡

<sup>21</sup> But the LORD was with Joseph and extended lovingkindness to him, and gave him favor in the sight of the warden. ‡

<sup>22</sup> The warden committed to Joseph’s care (management) all the prisoners who were in the prison; so that whatever was done there, he was in charge of it. ‡

<sup>23</sup> The warden paid no attention to anything that was in Joseph’s care because the LORD was with him; whatever Joseph did, the LORD made to prosper. ‡

Genesis 40

Joseph Interprets a Dream

<sup>5</sup> Then the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, both dreamed a dream in the same night, each man with his [own significant] dream and each dream with its [personal] interpretation.

<sup>6</sup> When Joseph came to them in the morning and looked at them, [he saw that] they were sad and depressed.

<sup>7</sup> So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were in confinement with him in his master's house, "Why do you look so down-hearted today?"

<sup>8</sup>- And they said to him, "We have [each] dreamed [distinct] dreams and there is no one to interpret them." So Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell me [your dreams]." ‡

<sup>9</sup> So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "In my dream there was a grapevine in front of me;

<sup>10</sup> and on the vine were three branches. Then as soon as it budded, its blossoms burst open, and its clusters produced ripe grapes [in rapid succession].

<sup>11</sup> "Now Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup; then I placed the cup into Pharaoh's hand."

<sup>13</sup> within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head (present you in public) and restore you to your position; and you will [again] put Pharaoh's cup into his hand just as [you did] when you were his cupbearer. ‡

<sup>14</sup> "Only think of me when it goes well with you, and please show me kindness by mentioning me to Pharaoh and get me out of this house. ‡

<sup>16</sup> When the chief baker saw that the interpretation [of the dream] was good, he said to Joseph, "I also dreamed, and [in my dream] there were three cake baskets on my head;

<sup>17</sup> and in the top basket there were some of all sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds [of prey] were eating [these foods] out of the basket on my head."

<sup>19</sup> within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head and will hang you on a tree (gallows, pole), and [you will not so much as be given a burial, but] the birds will eat your flesh." ‡

Genesis 41

Pharaoh's Dream

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened at the end of two full years that Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing by the Nile.

<sup>2</sup> And lo, there came up out of the Nile seven [healthy] cows, sleek and handsome and fat; and they grazed in the reed grass [in a marshy pasture].

<sup>4</sup> Then the ugly and gaunt and raw-boned cows ate up the seven sleek and fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.

<sup>6</sup> Then behold, seven ears [of grain], thin and dried up by the east wind, sprouted after them.

<sup>7</sup> Then the thin ears swallowed the seven plump and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and it was a dream.

<sup>8</sup> So when morning came his spirit was troubled and disturbed and he sent and called for all the magicians and all the wise men of Egypt. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them to him. ‡

<sup>11</sup> "We dreamed a dream on the same night, he and I; each of us dreamed according to [the significance of] the interpretation of his own dream. ‡

<sup>12</sup> "Now there was with us [in the prison] a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us, to each man according to the significance of his own dream. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “And just as he interpreted [the dreams] for us, so it happened; I was restored to my office [as chief cupbearer], and the baker was hanged.” ‡

Joseph Interprets

<sup>14</sup> Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they hurriedly brought him out of the dungeon; and when Joseph shaved himself and changed his clothes [making himself presentable], he came to Pharaoh. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it; and I have heard it said about you that you can understand a dream and interpret it.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> and seven fat, sleek and handsome cows came up out of the river, and they grazed in the reed grass [of a marshy pasture].

<sup>21</sup> “Yet when they had devoured them, it could not be detected that they had eaten them, because they were still as thin and emaciated as before. Then I awoke [but again I fell asleep and dreamed].

<sup>23</sup> and lo, seven [other] ears, withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind, sprouted after them;

<sup>24</sup> and the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. Now I told this to the magicians and soothsayers, but there was no one who could explain it [to me].” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “The [two] dreams are one [and the same and have one interpretation]; God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; the [two] dreams are one [and the same].

<sup>27</sup> “The seven thin and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years; and also the seven thin ears, dried up and scorched by the east wind, they are seven years of famine and hunger. ‡

<sup>30</sup> but afterward seven years of famine and hunger will come, and [there will be such desperate need that] all the great abundance [of the previous years] will be forgotten in the land of Egypt [as if it never happened], and famine and destitution will ravage and destroy the land. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “So the great abundance will become forgotten in the land because of that subsequent famine, for it will be very severe.

<sup>32</sup> “That the dream was repeated twice to Pharaoh [and in two different ways] indicates that this matter is fully determined and established by God, and God will bring it to pass very quickly. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “So now let Pharaoh [prepare ahead and] look for a man discerning and clear-headed and wise, and set him [in charge] over the land of Egypt [as governor under Pharaoh].

<sup>35</sup> “Let them gather [as a tax] all [of the fifth of] the food of these good years that are coming, and store up grain under the direction and authority of Pharaoh, and let them guard the food [in fortified granaries] in the cities. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “That food shall be put [in storage] as a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine and hunger which will occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land (people) will not be ravaged during the famine.” ‡

<sup>37</sup> Now the plan seemed good to Pharaoh and to all of his servants. ‡

Joseph Is Made a Ruler of Egypt

<sup>38</sup> So Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find a man like this [a man equal to Joseph], in whom is the divine spirit [of God]? ” ‡

<sup>39</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since [your] God has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and clear-headed and wise as you are.

<sup>40</sup> “You shall have charge over my house, and all my people shall be governed according to your word and pay respect [to you with reverence, submission, and obedience]; only in [matters of] the throne will I be greater than you [in Egypt].” ‡

<sup>41</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “See, I have set you [in charge] over all the land of Egypt.” ‡

<sup>44</sup> Moreover, Pharaoh said to Joseph, “ Though I am Pharaoh, yet without your permission shall no man raise his hand [to do anything] or set his foot [to go anywhere] in all the land of Egypt [all classes of people shall submit to your authority].”

<sup>45</sup> Then Pharaoh named Joseph Zaphenath-paneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On (Heliopolis in Egypt), as his wife. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt [to inspect and govern it].

<sup>48</sup> And Joseph gathered all the [surplus] food of the seven [good] years in the land of Egypt and stored [enormous quantities of] the food in the cities. He stored away in every city the food [collected] from its own surrounding fields.

The Sons of Joseph

<sup>50</sup> Now two sons were born to Joseph before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him. ‡

<sup>51</sup> Joseph named the firstborn Manasseh (causing to forget), for he said, “God has made me forget all my trouble and hardship and all [the sorrow of the loss of] my father’s household.”

<sup>52</sup> He named the second [son] Ephraim (fruitfulness), for “God has caused me to be fruitful and very successful in the land of my suffering.” ‡

<sup>53</sup> When the seven years of plenty came to an end in the land of Egypt,

<sup>54</sup> the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said [they would]; the famine was in all the [surrounding] lands, but in the land of Egypt there was bread (food). ‡

<sup>55</sup> So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried out to Pharaoh for food; and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; do whatever he says to you.”

<sup>57</sup> And [the people of] all countries came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was severe over all the [known] earth. ‡

Genesis 42

Joseph's Brothers Sent to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN Jacob (Israel) learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why are you staring at one another [in bewilderment and not taking action]?” ‡

<sup>2</sup> He said, “I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down there and buy [some] grain for us, so that we may live and not die [of starvation].” ‡

<sup>4</sup>- But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's [younger] brother, with his brothers, for he said, “I am afraid that some harm or injury may come to him.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> So the sons of Israel came [to Egypt] to buy grain along with the others who were coming, for famine was in the land of Canaan also. ‡

<sup>7</sup> When Joseph saw his brothers he recognized them, but [hiding his identity] he treated them as strangers and spoke harshly to them. He said to them, “Where have you come from?” And they said, “From the land of Canaan, to buy food.”

<sup>9</sup> Joseph remembered the dreams he had dreamed about them, and said to them, “You are spies; you have come [with a malicious purpose] to observe the undefended parts of our land.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> But they said to him, “No, my lord, for your servants have [only] come to buy food.

<sup>11</sup> “We are all the sons of one man; we are honest men, your servants are not spies.”

<sup>13</sup> But they said, “Your servants are twelve brothers [in all], the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; please listen: the youngest is with our father today, and one is no longer alive.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Joseph said to them, “It is as I said to you, you are spies.

<sup>16</sup> “Send one of you [back home], and let him bring your brother [here], while [the rest of] you remain confined, so that your words may be tested, [to see] whether there is any truth in you [and your story]; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, certainly you are spies.”

<sup>18</sup> Now Joseph said to them on the third day, “Do this and [you may] live, for I fear God: ‡

<sup>19</sup> if you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined in your [place here in] prison; but as for the rest of you, go, carry grain for the famine in your households,

<sup>20</sup> but bring your youngest brother to me, so your words will be verified and you will not die.” And they did so. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And they said to one another, “Truly we are guilty regarding our brother [Joseph], because we saw the distress and anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us [to let him go], yet we would not listen [to his cry]; so this distress and anguish has come on us.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> He turned away from his brothers and [left the room and] wept; then he returned and talked with them, and took Simeon from them and bound him in front of them [to be kept as a hostage in Egypt].

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph gave orders [privately] that their bags be filled with grain, and that every man's money [used to pay for the grain] be put back in his sack, and that provisions be given to them for the journey. And so this was done for them. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And he said to his brothers, "My money has been returned! Here it is in my sack!" And their hearts sank, and they were afraid and turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?"

The Return to Canaan

<sup>29</sup> When they came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan, they told him everything that had happened to them, saying,

<sup>30</sup> "The man who is the lord of the land spoke harshly to us, and took us for spies of the land. ‡

<sup>31</sup> "But we told him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.'

<sup>32</sup> 'We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no longer alive, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.'

<sup>33</sup> "And the man, the lord of the country, said to us, 'By this [test] I will know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers here with me and take grain for your starving households and go. ‡

<sup>34</sup> 'Bring your youngest brother to me; then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. Then I will return your [imprisoned] brother [back] to you, and you may trade and do business in the land.' " ‡

<sup>36</sup> Jacob their father said to them, "You have bereaved me [by causing the loss] of my children. Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and you would take Benjamin [from me]. All these things are [working] against me." ‡

<sup>37</sup> Then Reuben spoke to his father, "You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring Benjamin back to you; put him in my care, and I will return him to you.”

<sup>38</sup> But Jacob said, “My son shall not go down [to Egypt] with you; for his brother is dead, and he alone is left [of Rachel’s children]. If any harm or accident should happen to him on the journey you are taking, then you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol (the place of the dead) in sorrow.” ‡

Genesis 43

The Return to Egypt

<sup>2</sup> And it happened that when the families of Jacob’s sons had finished eating [all of] the grain which they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, “Go again, buy us a little food.”

<sup>3</sup> But Judah said to him, “The man [representing Pharaoh] solemnly and sternly warned us, saying, ‘You will not see my face [again] unless your brother is with you.’ ‡

<sup>4</sup> “If you will send our brother with us, we will go down [to Egypt] and buy you food.

<sup>5</sup> “But if you will not send him, we will not go down there; for the man said to us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> And Israel (Jacob) said, “Why did you treat me so badly by telling the man that you had another brother?”

<sup>7</sup> And they said, “The man asked us straightforward questions about ourselves and our relatives. He said, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ And we answered him accordingly. How could we possibly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down [here to Egypt]’? ”

<sup>8</sup> Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the young man with me and we will get up and go [buy food], so that we may live and not die [of starvation], we as well as you and our little ones.

<sup>9</sup> “I will be security (a guarantee) for him; you may hold me [personally] responsible for him. If I do not bring him [back] to you and place him [safely] before you, then let me bear the blame before you forever. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “For if we had not delayed like this, surely by now we would have returned the second time.”

<sup>11</sup> Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this; take some of the choicest products of the land in your sacks, and carry it as a present [of tribute] to the man [representing Pharaoh], a little balm and a little honey, aromatic spices or gum, resin, pistachio nuts, and almonds. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Take double the [amount of] money with you, and take back the money that was returned in the opening of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight. ‡

<sup>14</sup> and may God Almighty grant you compassion and favor before the man, so that he will release to you your other brother [Simeon] and Benjamin. And as for me, if I am bereaved of my children [Joseph, Simeon, and Benjamin], I am bereaved.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then the men took the present, and they took double the [amount of] money with them, and Benjamin; then they left and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

Joseph Sees Benjamin

<sup>16</sup> When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Bring the men into the house, and kill an animal and make [a meal] ready; for the men will dine with me at noon.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> So the man did as Joseph said, and brought the men to Joseph’s house.

<sup>18</sup> The men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph’s house; and [expecting the worst] they said, “It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time [we came] that we are being brought in, so that he may find a reason to accuse us and assail us, and take us as slaves, and seize our donkeys.”

<sup>21</sup> and when we arrived at the inn [after leaving here], we opened our sacks and there was each man’s money [with which he had paid for grain], in full, returned in the mouth of his sack. So we have brought it back [this time]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “We have also brought down with us additional money to buy food; we do not know who put our money [back] in our sacks [last time].”

<sup>23</sup> But the steward [encouraged them and] said, “Peace be to you, do not be afraid; your God and the God of your father has [miraculously] given you treasure in your sacks. I [already] had your money [which you paid to us].” Then he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>25</sup> So they prepared the present [of tribute] for Joseph before his arrival at noon; for they had heard that they were to eat a meal there.

<sup>26</sup> When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present [of tribute] which they had with them and bowed to the ground before him. ‡

<sup>27</sup> He asked them about their well-being, and said, "Is your old father well, of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?" ‡

<sup>28</sup> And they answered, "Your servant our father is in good health; he is still alive." And they bowed down [their heads before Joseph] in respect. ‡

<sup>29</sup> And he looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's [only other] son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" And Joseph said, "God be gracious to you and show you favor, my son." ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then he washed his face and came out, and, restraining himself, said, "Let the meal be served." ‡

<sup>32</sup> So the servants served Joseph by himself [in honor of his rank], and his brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because [according to custom] the Egyptians could not eat food with the Hebrews, for that is loathsome to the Egyptians. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Now Joseph's brothers were seated [by the steward] before him [in the order of their birth]—the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked at one another in astonishment [because so much was known about them].

<sup>34</sup> Joseph selected and sent portions to them from his own table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they feasted and drank freely and celebrated with him. ‡

Genesis 44

The Brothers Are Brought Back

sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's [grain] money in the mouth of the sack.

<sup>4</sup> When they had left the city, and were not yet far away, Joseph said to his steward, "Get up, follow after the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil [to us] for good [paid to you]?

<sup>5</sup> 'Is this not my lord's drinking cup and the one which he uses for divination? You have done [a great and unforgivable] wrong in doing this.' "

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Why does my lord speak these things? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing!"

<sup>8</sup> "Please remember, the money which we found in the mouths of our sacks we have brought back to you from the land of Canaan. Is it likely then that we would steal silver or gold from your master's house?" ‡

<sup>9</sup> "With whomever of your servants your master's cup is found, let him die, and the rest of us will be my lord's slaves." ‡

<sup>10</sup> And the steward said, "Now let it be as you say; he with whom the cup is found will be my slave, but the rest of you shall be blameless."

<sup>12</sup> The steward searched, beginning with the eldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

<sup>13</sup> Then they tore their clothes [in grief]; and after each man had loaded his donkey again, they returned to the city. ‡

<sup>14</sup> When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, he was still there; and they fell to the ground before him. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Joseph spoke harshly to them, "What is this thing that you have done? Do you not realize that such a man as I can indeed practice divination and foretell [everything you do without outside knowledge of it]?"

<sup>16</sup> So Judah said, "What can we say to my lord? What can we reply? Or how can we clear ourselves, since God has exposed the sin and guilt of your servants? Behold, we are my lord's slaves, the rest of us as well as he with whom the cup is found." ‡

<sup>17</sup> But Joseph said, "Far be it from me that I should do that; but the man in whose hand the cup has been found, he will be my servant; and as for [the rest of] you, get up and go in peace to your father.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Judah approached him, and said, “O my lord, please let your servant say a word to you in private, and do not let your anger blaze against your servant, for you are equal to Pharaoh [so I speak as if directly to him]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Then you said to your servants, ‘Bring him down to me that I may actually see him.’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> “But we said to my lord, ‘The young man cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.’

<sup>24</sup> “So when we went back to your servant my father, we told him what my lord had said.

<sup>26</sup> “But we said, ‘We cannot go down [to Egypt]. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down [there]; for we [were sternly told that we] cannot see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

<sup>27</sup> “Your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife [Rachel] bore me [only] two sons. ‡

<sup>28</sup> ‘And one [son] went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn to pieces,” and I have not seen him since. ‡

<sup>29</sup> ‘If you take this one also from me, and harm or an accident happens to him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow.’ ‡

<sup>30</sup> “Now, therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the young man is not with us, since his life is bound up in the young man’s life, ‡

<sup>31</sup> when he sees that the young man is not with us, he will die; and your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sheol in [great] sorrow.

<sup>32</sup> “For your servant became security for the young man to my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, then let me bear the blame before my father forever.’ ‡

brothers.‡

<sup>34</sup> “How can I go up to my father if the young man is not with me—for fear that I would see the tragedy that would overtake my [elderly] father [if Benjamin does not return]?”

Genesis 45

Joseph Shows Kindness to His Brothers

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOSEPH could not control himself [any longer] in front of all those who attended him, and he called out, “Have everyone leave me.” So no man stood there when Joseph revealed himself to his brothers.

<sup>3</sup> Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?” But his brothers were speechless, for they were stunned and dismayed by [the fact that they were in] Joseph’s presence.‡

<sup>4</sup> And Joseph said to his brothers, “Please come closer to me.” And they approached him. And he said, “I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.‡

<sup>5</sup> “Now do not be distressed or angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me ahead of you to save life and preserve our family.‡

<sup>6</sup> “For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there are still five more years in which there will be no plowing and harvesting.

<sup>7</sup> “God sent me [to Egypt] ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant on the earth, and to keep you alive by a great escape.

<sup>8</sup> “So now it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh and lord of all his household and ruler over all the land of Egypt.‡

<sup>9</sup> “Hurry and go up to my father, and tell him, ‘Your son Joseph says this to you: “God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay.

<sup>10</sup> “You shall live in the land of Goshen [the best pasture land of Egypt], and you shall be close to me—you and your children and your grandchildren, your flocks and your herds and all you have.‡

<sup>11</sup> “There I will provide for you and sustain you, so that you and your household and all that are yours may not become impoverished, for there are still five years of famine to come. ” ’

<sup>12</sup> “Look! Your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see, that I am speaking to you [personally in your language and not through an interpreter].”

<sup>13</sup> “Now you must tell my father of all my splendor and power in Egypt, and of everything that you have seen; and you must hurry and bring my father down here.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Tell your brothers, ‘Do this: load your animals and return to the land of Canaan [without delay], <sup>18</sup> and get your father and your households and come to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt and you will eat the fat (the finest produce) of the land.’”

<sup>19</sup> “Now you [brothers of Joseph] are ordered [by Pharaoh], ‘Do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father and come.

<sup>20</sup> ‘Do not be concerned with your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.’”

<sup>21</sup> Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them wagons according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey.

<sup>22</sup> To each of them Joseph gave changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing.

<sup>23</sup> To his father he sent the following: ten male donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and provision for his father [to supply all who were with him] on the journey.

<sup>24</sup> So he sent his brothers away, and as they departed, he said to them, “See that you do not quarrel on the journey [about how to explain this to our father].”

<sup>25</sup> So they went up from Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father, <sup>26</sup> and they said to him, “Joseph is still alive, and indeed he is ruler over all the land of Egypt.” But Jacob was stunned and his heart almost stopped beating, because he did not believe them.

<sup>27</sup> When they told him everything that Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

<sup>28</sup> And Israel (Jacob) said, “It is enough! Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46

Jacob Moves to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> SO ISRAEL set out with all that he had, and came to Beersheba [where both his father and grandfather had worshiped God], and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. [Gen 21:33 ; 26:23–25] ‡

<sup>2</sup> And God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, “Jacob, Jacob!” And he said, “Here I am.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> And He said, “I am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you (your descendants) a great nation there.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> “I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you (your people) up again; and Joseph will put his hand on your eyes [to close them at the time of your death].” ‡

<sup>7</sup> His sons and his grandsons, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.

Those Who Came to Egypt

<sup>22</sup> These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob; [there were] fourteen persons in all [two sons and twelve grandchildren].

<sup>25</sup> These are the sons of Bilhah, [the maid] whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter [when she married Jacob]. And she bore these to Jacob; [there were] seven persons in all [two sons and five grandchildren]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> All the persons who came with Jacob into Egypt—who were his direct descendants, not counting the wives of [Jacob or] Jacob's sons, were sixty-six persons in all, ‡

<sup>27</sup> and the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two. All the persons of the house of Jacob [including Jacob, and Joseph and his sons], who came into Egypt, were seventy. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Then Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to meet Israel his father in Goshen; as soon as he presented himself before him (authenticating his identity), he fell on his [father's] neck and wept on his neck a [very] long time. ‡

<sup>30</sup> And Israel said to Joseph, “Now let me die [in peace], since I have seen your face [and know] that you are still alive.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Joseph said to his brothers and to his father’s household, “I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘My brothers and my father’s household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me; ‡

<sup>32</sup> and the men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock; and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.’

<sup>33</sup> “And it shall be that when Pharaoh calls you and says, ‘What is your occupation?’ ‡

<sup>34</sup>-you shall say, ‘Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth until now, both we and our fathers [before us],’ in order that you may live [separately and securely] in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is repulsive to the Egyptians.” ‡

Jacob’s Family Settles in Goshen

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOSEPH came and told Pharaoh, “My father and my brothers, with their flocks and their herds and all that they own, have come from the land of Canaan, and they are in the land of Goshen.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> And Pharaoh said to his brothers [as Joseph expected], “What is your occupation?” And they said to Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers [before us].” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Moreover, they said to Pharaoh, “We have come to live temporarily (sojourn) in the land [of Egypt], for there is no pasture for the flocks of your servants [in our land], for the famine is very severe in Canaan. So now, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen.” ‡

<sup>5</sup>-Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, “Your father and your brothers have come to you.

<sup>6</sup> “The land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land. Let them live in the land of Goshen; and if you know of any men of ability among them, put them in charge of my livestock.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty. Few and unpleasant have been the years of my life, and they have not reached the years that my fathers lived during the days of their pilgrimage.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Joseph provided and supplied his father and his brothers and all his father’s household with food, according to [the needs of] their children.

<sup>13</sup> Now [in the course of time] there was no food in all the land, for the famine was distressingly severe, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan languished [in destitution and starvation] because of the famine. ‡

<sup>15</sup> And when the money was exhausted in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, “Give us food! Why should we die before your very eyes? For our money is gone.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Joseph said, “Give up your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock, since the money is gone.”

<sup>17</sup> So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for the horses and the flocks and the herds and the donkeys; and he supplied them with food in exchange for all their livestock that year.

<sup>18</sup> When that year was ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, “We will not hide from my lord [the fact] that our money is spent; my lord also has our herds of livestock; there is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.

<sup>19</sup> “Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. And give us seed [to plant], that we may live and not die, and that the land may not be desolate.”

Result of the Famine

<sup>20</sup> So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every Egyptian sold his field because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's.

<sup>22</sup> Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they lived on the amount which Pharaoh gave them, so they did not sell their land. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then Joseph said to the people, "Look, today I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh; now, here is seed for you, and you shall plant the land.

<sup>24</sup> "At harvest time [when you reap the increase] you shall give one-fifth of it to Pharaoh, and four-fifths will be your own to use for seed for the field and as food for you and those of your households and for your little ones."

<sup>25</sup> And they said, "You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants." ‡

<sup>26</sup> And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt—valid to this day—that Pharaoh should have the fifth part [of the crops]; only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh's. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Now [the people of] Israel lived in the country of Egypt, in [the land of] Goshen, and they gained possessions and acquired property there and were fruitful and multiplied greatly. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; so the length of Jacob's life was a hundred and forty-seven years.

<sup>29</sup> And when the time drew near for Israel to die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh and [promise to] deal loyally and faithfully with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt, ‡

<sup>30</sup> but when I lie down with my fathers [in death], you will carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place [at Hebron in the cave of Machpelah]." And Joseph said, "I will do as you have directed." ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then he said, "Swear to me [that you will do it]." So he swore to him. Then Israel (Jacob) bowed in worship at the head of the bed. ‡

Genesis 48

Israel's Last Days

<sup>1</sup> NOW SOME time after these things happened, Joseph was told, "Your father is sick." So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him [to go to Goshen].

<sup>2</sup> And when Jacob (Israel) was told, “Look now, your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel strengthened himself and sat up on the bed.

<sup>3</sup> Then Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz (Bethel) in the land of Canaan and blessed me,‡

<sup>4</sup> and said to me, ‘Behold, I will make you fruitful and numerous, and I will make you a great company of people, and will give this land to your descendants after you as an everlasting possession.’  [Gen 28:13–22; 35:6–15 ]‡

<sup>5</sup> “Now your two sons [Ephraim and Manasseh], who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine [that is, adopted as my heirs and sons as surely], as Reuben and Simeon are my sons.‡

<sup>6</sup> “But other sons who were born to you after them shall be your own; they shall be called by the names of their [two] brothers in their inheritance.

<sup>7</sup> “Now as for me, when I came from Paddan [in Mesopotamia], Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the journey, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).”‡

<sup>8</sup> When Israel [who was almost blind] saw Joseph’s sons, he said, “Who are these?”

<sup>9</sup> Joseph said to his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here [in Egypt].” So he said, “Please bring them to me, so that I may bless them.”‡

<sup>10</sup> Now Israel’s eyes were so dim from age that he could not see [clearly]. Then Joseph brought them close to him, and he kissed and embraced them.‡

“The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked [in faithful obedience],

The God who has been my Shepherd [leading and caring for me] all my life to this day,

<sup>16</sup> The Angel [that is, the LORD Himself] who has redeemed me [continually] from all evil, ‡

Bless the boys;

And may my name live on in them [may they be worthy of having their names linked with mine],

And the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac;

And may they grow into a [great] multitude in the midst of the earth.”

<sup>18</sup> Joseph said to his father, “Not so, my father, for this is the firstborn; place your right hand on Manasseh’s head.”

<sup>19</sup> But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know; Manasseh also will become a people and he will be great; but his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations.” ‡

“By you Israel will pronounce a blessing, saying,
‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.’ ”

And he put Ephraim before Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> Then Israel said to Joseph, “Behold, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and bring you back to [Canaan] the land of your fathers. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Moreover, I have given you [the birthright,] one portion [Shechem, one mountain ridge] more than any of your brothers, which I took [reclaiming it] from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow.”  [Gen 33:18, 19; Josh 24:32, 33; John 4:5] ‡

Israel’s Prophecy concerning His Sons

<sup>1</sup> THEN JACOB called for his sons and said, “Assemble yourselves [around me] that I may tell you what will happen to you and your descendants in the days to come. ‡

And listen to Israel (Jacob) your father.

My might, the beginning of my strength and vigor, Preeminent in dignity and preeminent in power [that should have been your birthright].

<sup>4</sup> “But unstable and reckless and boiling over like water [in sinful lust], you shall not excel or have the preeminence [of the firstborn], ‡
Because you went up to your father’s bed [with Bilhah];
You defiled it—he went up to my couch.  [Gen 35:22 ]

<sup>5</sup>—“Simeon and Levi are brothers [equally headstrong, deceitful, vindictive, and cruel]; ‡
Their swords are weapons of violence and revenge.  [Gen 34:25–30 ]

<sup>6</sup> “O my soul, do not come into their secret council; ‡
Let not my glory (honor) be united with their assembly [for I knew nothing of their plot];
Because in their anger they killed men [an honored man,
Shechem, and the Shechemites],
And in their self-will they lamed oxen.

<sup>7</sup> “Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce;
And their wrath, for it was cruel.
I will divide and disperse them in Jacob,
And scatter them in [the midst of the land of] Israel.

Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies;
Your father’s sons shall bow down to you.

<sup>9</sup> “Judah, a lion’s cub; ‡
With the prey, my son, you have gone high up [the mountain].
He stooped down, he crouched like a lion,

And like a lion—who dares rouse him?  [Rev 5:5 ]

10 “The scepter [of royalty] shall not depart from Judah,‡
Nor the ruler’s staff from between his feet,
Until Shiloh [the Messiah, the Peaceful One] comes,
And to Him shall be the obedience of the peoples.  [Num 24:17
; Ps 60:7 ; Ezek 21:27 ]

11 “Tying his foal to the [strong] vine
And his donkey’s colt to the choice vine,
He washes his clothing in wine [because the grapevine produces abundantly],
And his robes in the blood of grapes.  [Is 63:1–3 ; Zech 9:9 ;
Rev 19:11–16 ]

12 “His eyes are darker and sparkle more than wine,
And his teeth whiter than milk.

13 “Zebulun shall dwell at the seashore;‡
And he shall be a haven (landing place) for ships,
And his flank shall be toward Sidon.

14 “Issachar is [like] a strong-boned donkey,
Crouching down between the sheepfolds.

15 “When he saw that the resting place was good‡
And that the land was pleasant,
He bowed his shoulder to bear [burdens],
And became a servant at forced labor.

16 “Dan shall judge his people,‡
As one of the tribes of Israel.

17 “Dan shall be a [venomous] serpent in the way,‡
A fanged snake in the path,
That bites the horse’s heels,
So that his rider falls backward.

18 “I wait for Your salvation, O LORD.‡

19 “As for Gad—a raiding troop shall raid him,‡
But he shall raid at their heels and assault them [victoriously].

20 “Asher’s food [supply] shall be rich and bountiful,‡

And he shall yield and deliver royal delights.

21 “Naphtali is a doe let loose, [a swift warrior,]‡
Which yields branched antlers (eloquent words).

22 “Joseph is a fruitful bough (a main branch of the vine),
A fruitful bough by a spring (a well, a fountain);
Its branches run over the wall [influencing others].

23 “The [skilled] archers have bitterly attacked and provoked him; ‡

They have shot [at him] and harassed him.

24 “But his bow remained firm and steady [in the Strength that does not fail], ‡

For his arms were made strong and agile
By the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob,
(By the name of the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel),  [Gen 48:15; Deut 32:4; Is 9:6; 49:26. ]

25 By the God of your father who will help you, ‡
And by the Almighty who blesses you
With blessings of the heavens above,
Blessings lying in the deep that couches beneath,
Blessings of the [nursing] breasts and of the [fertile] womb.

26 “The blessings of your father ‡
Are greater than the blessings of my ancestors [Abraham and Isaac]

Up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills;
They shall be on the head of Joseph,
Even on the crown of the head of him who was the distinguished one and the one who is prince among (separate from) his brothers.

27 “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; ‡
In the morning he devours the prey,
And at night he divides the spoil.”

28 All these are the [beginnings of the] twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them as he blessed them, blessing each one according to the blessing appropriate to him.

<sup>29</sup> He charged them and said to them, “I am to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,”‡

<sup>33</sup> When Jacob (Israel) had finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people [who had preceded him in death]. ‡

Genesis 50

Burial Preparations and Mourning for Jacob

<sup>3</sup> Now forty days were required for this, for that is the customary number of days [of preparation] required for embalming. And the Egyptians wept and grieved for him [in public mourning as they would for royalty] for seventy days.‡

<sup>4</sup> When the days of weeping and public mourning for him were past, Joseph spoke to [the nobles of] the house of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found favor in your sight, please speak to Pharaoh, saying,‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘My father made me swear [an oath], saying, “Hear me, I am about to die; bury me in my tomb which I prepared for myself in the land of Canaan.” So now let me go up [to Canaan], please, and bury my father; then I will return.’ ”‡

<sup>7</sup> So Joseph went up [to Canaan] to bury his father, and with him went all the officials of Pharaoh, [the nobles of his court and] the elders of his household and all [the nobles and] the elders of the land of Egypt—

land of Goshen.

<sup>9</sup> Both chariots and horsemen also went up [to Canaan] with Joseph; and it was a very great company.

<sup>10</sup> When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they mourned there with a great lamentation (expressions of mourning for the deceased) and [extreme demonstrations of] sorrow [according to Egyptian custom]; and Joseph observed a seven-day mourning for his father. ‡

<sup>11</sup> When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “This is a grievous mourning for the Egyptians.” Therefore the place was named Abel-mizraim (mourning of Egypt); it is west of the Jordan.

Burial at Machpelah

<sup>12</sup> So Jacob’s sons did for him as he had commanded them;

<sup>13</sup> for his sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, east of Mamre, which Abraham bought along with the field as a burial site from Ephron the Hittite. ‡

<sup>14</sup> After he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all who had gone up with him.

<sup>15</sup> When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “What if Joseph carries a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong which we did to him?” ‡

<sup>16</sup> So they sent word to Joseph, saying, “Your father commanded us before he died, saying,

<sup>17</sup> ‘You are to say to Joseph, “I beg you, please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, for they did you wrong.” ’ Now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father.” And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then his brothers went and fell down before him [in confession]; then they said, “Behold, we are your servants (slaves).” ‡

<sup>19</sup> But Joseph said to them, “Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? [Vengeance is His, not mine.] ‡

<sup>20</sup> “As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good in order to bring about this present outcome, that many people would be kept alive [as they are this day]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “So now, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and support you and your little ones.” So he comforted them [giving them encouragement and hope] and spoke [with kindness] to their hearts. ‡

Death of Joseph

<sup>22</sup> Now Joseph lived in Egypt, he and his father’s household, and Joseph lived a hundred and ten years.

<sup>23</sup> Joseph saw the third generation of Ephraim’s children; also the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born and raised on Joseph’s knees. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “I am about to die, but God will surely take care of you and bring you up out of this land to the land which He promised to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob [to give you].” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph made the sons of Israel (Jacob) swear [an oath], saying, “God will surely visit you and take care of you [returning you to Canaan], and [when that happens] you shall carry my bones up from here.” ‡

Annotations for Genesis

1:1 Creation— Biblical revelation begins with a simple, strong, and sublime affirmation. Instead of arguing the existence of God, it declares that the very existence of the universe depends on the creative power of God. The world we live in was created by God and belongs to Him. His absolute ownership requires our faithful stewardship of all things. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:1 In the beginning. No information is given to us about what happened before the creation of the physical universe, though John 1:1 speaks of this time. It is possible that the rise, rebellion, and judgment of Satan transpired before the events of this chapter. God. This standard Hebrew term for deity Elohim is in the form called the plural of majesty or plural of intensity. In contrast to the ordinary plural (gods), this plural means “the fullness of deity” or “God—very God.” Furthermore, the use of the plural allows for the later revelation of the Trinity (see 11:7 ; Mt 28:19 ; Jn 1:1-3 ).

1:3 Let there be light. These words express a principal theme of the Bible: God bringing light into darkness (see Isa 9:1-2 ). Here, God produced physical light. The New Testament records God sending His Son to be the light of the world (Jn 8:12 ), bringing release from the spiritual darkness of bondage to sin. In the end, there will no longer be any darkness at all and we will be face to face with the source of light (Rev 21:23 ).

1:7 separated the waters. The description of upper and lower waters is somewhat mysterious; it has been theorized that this is simply a reference to the division between the water of the seas and rivers on the surface of the earth and the water vapor which is part of the atmosphere.

1:11-12 seed . . . kind. God not only created plant life; He also set in motion the process that makes plant life reproduce.

[1:14 for signs \(tokens\) \[of God's provident care\], and for marking seasons](#). Some have mistakenly viewed these words as a biblical basis for astrology. The signs in this case relate to phases of the moon and the relative positions of stars that mark the passage of time from the vantage point of earth. The two words form a pair that may be translated seasonal signs .

[1:16 He made the \[galaxies of\] stars also](#). This is a remarkable statement. In the ancient Middle East, other religions worshiped, deified, and mystified the stars. Israel’s neighbors revered the stars and looked to them for guidance. In contrast, the biblical creation story gives the stars only the barest mention, as though the writer shrugged and said, And, oh, yes, He also made the stars . Such a statement showed great contempt for ancient Babylonian astrology (Ps 29 ; 93 ).

1:24 living creatures. This expression contains the word sometimes used for the soul, but the word can also mean “life,” “being,” “living thing,” or “person,” depending on the context. The same phrase is used for man in 2:7 .

1:26 in Our image. Since God is spirit (Jn 4:24 ), there can be no “image” or “likeness” of Him in the normal sense of these words. The traditional view of this passage is that God’s image in man is in specific moral, ethical, and intellectual abilities. A more recent view, based on a possible interpretation of Hebrew grammar and the knowledge of the Middle East, interprets the phrase as meaning “Let us make man as our image.” In ancient times an emperor might command statues of himself to be placed in remote parts of his empire. These symbols would declare that these areas were under his power and reign. So God placed humankind as living symbols of Himself on earth to represent His reign. This interpretation fits well with the command that follows—to reign over all that God has made.

1:28 fill the earth, and subjugate it. The word translated subjugate means “bring into bondage.” This harsh term is used elsewhere of military conquest (Zec 9:15 ) and of God subduing our iniquities (Mic

7:19 ). Since this direction was given before the fall, it appears that the need to subjugate the earth is not because of sin but because God left part of the arranging and ordering of the creation as work for mankind to do. Whatever the case, subjugate does not mean “destroy” or “ruin.” It does mean to “act as managers who have the authority to run everything as God planned.” This command applies equally to male and female.

2:2 He rested \(ceased\) on the seventh day. God did not rest because of fatigue, but because of His accomplishment. God is never weary (Isa 40:28–29 ). The verb translated “rested” is related to the word for Sabbath, which means “rest.” God’s rest on the seventh day showed that He was satisfied with the work He had done.

2:4 the LORD God. This is a significant term. The word translated God is the same word as in 1:1 . The word translated LORD is the proper name of God, Yahweh (or Jehovah; see Ex 3:14–15 ). The God of chapter 1 and the LORD God of chapter 2 are one and the same.

2:6 mist. The precise meaning of this word is uncertain. Obviously it refers to some manner of irrigation before the Lord brought the cycles of rain into being.

2:7 the breath of life. Although God created light with a mere word (1:3 ), He created man by fashioning a body out of mud and clay, transforming the clay into something new, and then breathing life into it. This “breath of life” is something which only God can bestow. Medical knowledge enables doctors to keep a human body “alive,” keeping the heart pumping and the vital organs functioning, but it does not enable them to keep or to call back the breath of life. Some have speculated that the “breath of life” is the human soul, but later on, animals are also described as having the “breath . . . of life” in their nostrils (7:22 ), which would seem to indicate that this is simply a reference to the miracle of living, breathing flesh.

2:15–17 The First Covenant— In biblical times the purpose of a covenant was to establish an agreement between two persons or groups. The elements of a covenant included a promise on the part of one person and the conditions that needed to be fulfilled, on the part of the other person, in order for the promises to be carried out by both parties to the covenant. The Edenic Covenant is the first covenant mentioned in the Bible. God gave Adam a place in His creation and charged him with the responsibility of caring for the garden. The only condition in the covenant was that Adam could not allow himself to eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil or he would die. This covenant was terminated by Adam’s disobedience which also resulted in man’s spiritual and physical death. God then established a new covenant with Adam in Genesis 3:14–21 . Go to Theological Notes Index

2:17 shall most certainly die. These emphatic words are made of two forms of the verb meaning “to die.” The point is not that the guilty person would drop dead on the instant, but that death would surely happen—there is no escape (Heb 9:27 ).

2:18 It is not good. Until this point, everything in creation was very good.

2:19 to see what he would call them. In giving each animal its name, Adam demonstrated his right as God’s agent (1:26–28 ), the one set in place as lord of the created order.

[2:20 helper \[that was\] suitable \(a companion\) for him.](#) Some have felt that calling the woman man’s helper indicates that she is inferior in value, but this is far from true. In fact, the term “help” is used to describe God Himself, when He comes to our aid. The word “helper” indicates role, not value or position. The helper Adam needed was not merely a servant or a slave, nor another man exactly like himself. He needed a compliment, equal in value and with the same intelligence, personality, spirituality, and ethical and moral sense; but with different qualities and a different role, a helper who could join with him in his work of subduing the earth.

2:21 He took one of his ribs. God’s use of Adam’s rib was fitting. He might have started over with dust and clay. But by using a part of Adam himself, the identification of Adam with his partner would be ensured. As Martin Luther observed, God might have taken a bone from a toe, and thus signified that Adam was to rule over her; or He might have taken a bone from his head to indicate her rule over him.

But by taking a bone from his side, God implied equality and mutual respect.

2:24 one flesh. This phrase suggests both a physical, sexual bonding and a lifelong relationship. They are still separate persons, but together they are as one (Eph 5:31 ). In the New Testament, Jesus refers to this text as the foundation of the biblical view of marriage (Mt 19:5 ). A married couple functions as “we,” rather than “me and you.” They are a new unit, separate from the family units they each came from. This does not mean that they will no longer relate to their extended families, but that their “one flesh” is a unit distinct from either family.

3:1 the serpent. With no introduction, Satan appears in the garden of Eden. This is the first clue in Scripture of creation outside the one Adam and Eve experienced. It is interesting to note that Eve expressed no surprise at the serpent speaking to her in intelligible language.

3:3 You shall not eat from it, nor touch it. Some interpreters suggest that the woman was already sinning by adding to the word of God, for these words were not part of God’s instructions in 2:17 . Scripture, however, always refers to the eating of the fruit as the sin, and never comments on Eve’s addition. Her words reflected the original command well enough, and indeed they would have ensured that the command would be kept.

3:5 you will be like God. God’s fullness of knowledge was only one of the superiorities that set Him apart from the woman. But the serpent combined all of God’s superiority over the woman into this one audacious appeal to her pride.

3:6–7 Sin’s Consequences— At first Adam’s sin does not appear to be all that significant. All he did was take a bite of some fruit. But Scripture takes it very seriously. Adam’s sin was one of disobedience and rebellion. God told Adam not to eat the fruit of the “tree of the knowledge of good and evil” under penalty of death (2:17 ). That action of eating the fruit changed Adam’s whole nature as well as his relationship with God. Adam became a sinner and as such he died. His spiritual death was immediate, the physical death progressive. Adam, who began the human race, then became the source of sin for the world. We are all sinners by nature because Adam sinned (Ro 5:12–14 ). We inherit sin from Adam in our natures in the same way we inherit many of our physical characteristics from our parents. Sin is a universal part of our spiritual inheritance. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:14–21 The Covenant with Adam— The Adamic Covenant is the second covenant God made with man. It sets forth conditions that will be in effect until the curse of death is lifted (Isa 11:6–10 ; Ro 8:18–23 ). In Christ’s death and resurrection we have the beginning (firstfruits) of the lifting of the curse. The ultimate lifting of the curse will happen as Christ establishes His final reign on earth. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:14 to the serpent. The Lord turned first to the serpent and brought judgment upon him. God did not excuse the woman because she was deceived, but He did bring the harsher judgment on the one who had deceived her.

3:15 Christ— This passage is sometimes referred to as the “preaching of Messiah in the garden of Eden,” because it introduces the One who will deliver mankind from the power of the Tempter. The seed of the serpent, those of the human race who choose evil and thus give themselves into the control of the Evil One, would hate and destroy the Seed of the woman, who was Jesus Christ. But in that very act, Evil condemned itself. Jesus rose triumphant from the grave, having paid the blood atonement for the sin of the world and conquered death forever. Thus the Seed of woman crushed the head of the serpent. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:16 Your pain in childbirth. The woman’s joy in conceiving and bearing children would be saddened by the pain of it. desire . . . rule. The word desire can also mean “an attempt to usurp authority or control” as in 4:7 . The last two lines of this verse could be paraphrased, “You will now have a tendency to try to dominate your husband and he will have the tendency to act as a tyrant.” Each strives for control and neither lives in the best interest of the other (Php 2:3–4 ). The antidote is in the restoration of mutual respect and dignity through Jesus Christ (Eph 5:21–23 ).

3:17–19 The ground is [now] under a curse . . . By the sweat of your face. Humans sometimes tend to look upon work itself as a curse, but it is important to remember that work in itself is part of the “very good” creation. The curse on the ground simply means that work is now painful and tiresome toil instead of the pure satisfaction that it was designed to be. to dust you shall return. The word of God was sure: God had stated that they would certainly die (2:17). Now they were served notice concerning the process of aging and decay that was already at work (5:5; 6:3).

3:22 tree of life. Adam and Eve apparently had free access to this tree before the fall, and by continuing to eat its fruit they would live forever. The penalty for sin was not instant death, but banishment from this tree and eventual death and decay. One day this tree will be planted anew and its fruit will be for the healing of the nations (Rev 22:2).

4:3 Cain brought . . . an offering. Genesis does not explain how the practice of sacrificial worship began, but it is clear that Adam and Eve’s two sons understood the custom. Some people assume that Cain’s offering was unsuitable because it was not a blood offering, and blood is required for the forgiveness of sins (Heb 9:22). But nothing in this chapter indicates that Cain and Abel were coming to God for forgiveness. Their sacrifices were acts of worship, and as such a bloodless offering was not necessarily inappropriate (see Lev 6:14–23). Apparently the deficiency was in Cain’s heart, not in the actual offering. Abel’s offering was “more excellent” than Cain’s because of his faith in the Lord (Heb 11:4).

4:8 killed him. The murder was stunning in its lack of precedent, its suddenness, and its finality. Jesus spoke of this ghastly event as a historical fact (Mt 23:35).

4:17 Cain knew his wife. The identity of Cain’s wife has long been a source of puzzlement and argument to the readers and critics of the Book of Genesis. Some have postulated that God created other humans outside of the garden of Eden, but the Scriptures give no such indication, and in fact Adam refers to his wife as “the mother of all the living” (3:20). It makes the most sense to assume that Cain married one of his sisters. While this idea seems repugnant to us today, it must be remembered that Adam and Eve’s children had a near perfect gene pool, and there would not have been any genetic complications with close intermarrying. God’s strict prohibition against siblings and other close relatives marrying did not come until much later (Lev 18); even Abraham’s wife Sarah was his half sister. Enoch. The fact that Cain named a city after his son indicates the rapid and dramatic increase in population.

4:25 Seth. While it is certain that Adam and Eve had other daughters, and possibly other sons as well, the death of righteous Abel and the banishment of their firstborn, Cain, had left them with no one to carry on their line for good and for the promise of the Messiah. Seth is specifically mentioned among Adam and Eve’s children because it would be through his descendants that the Messiah would come. His name is related to a Hebrew verb meaning “to place” or “to set” for he was appointed to take this special place in the plan of God.

4:26 men began to call on the name of the LORD . These words can hardly mean that only now did people begin to pray to God. Rather, the verb call means “to make proclamation.” That is, this is the beginning of preaching, of witnessing, and testifying in the name of the Lord (12:8).

5:3 a hundred and thirty years. The long lives of the people of the early chapters of Genesis have led to considerable speculation. One suggestion is that these ages were possible because of tremendously different climate and environmental conditions that were in effect before the flood.

5:5 and he died. God created humans for eternity; if Adam and Eve had not disobeyed, they would have lived forever. There is a profound sadness in Adam’s death, for it reminds us of Adam’s mortality—and hence our own.

5:21–24 because God took him. Only Enoch and Elijah were taken by God without experiencing death (2Ki 2:11). This was both a testimony of Enoch’s deep faith in God (Heb 11:5–6) and a strong reminder at the beginning of biblical history that for God’s people, there is life in God’s presence after our physical bodies have died.

6:2 sons of God . . . daughters of men. This passage is very difficult to interpret. Some believe that the “sons of God” were the men of the righteous line of Seth, while the “daughters of men” were Cain’s offspring. This does not account for the fact that their offspring were giants, men of extraordinary size and talents; it is also problematic in that it assumes that Cain’s descendants were universally more sinful than Seth’s descendants. Since Noah was the only descendant of Seth who was considered righteous, this is obviously not accurate. A second view is that the “sons of God” were angelic beings. The phrase “sons of God” is used elsewhere in Scripture to refer to angelic beings (Job 1:6), but it seems impossible since angels in heaven do not marry (Mt 22:30). It may be, however, that these “sons of God” were some of the rebellious angels who had joined Satan (Jude 6; 2Pe 2:4); they took on human form (as Satan was apparently able to take on the form of a snake), and out of perverted lust, seduced human women. The problem with this theory is that verse 4 says that these unions produced children. Nothing in the rest of Scripture would indicate that angels reproduce, or that a spirit being could mate with a human being. Nor is there any reference to half-man/half-spirit beings. Whichever view one settles on, it is clear that what happened here was corrupt and one of the reasons for the flood.

6:11–13 Disobedience— In the beginning, God pronounced His creative work good. But with the entrance of sin and decadence on the scene, the world became corrupt in His sight. It was not merely that some individuals or groups had corrupted their ways, but a matter of pervasive perversity. Because sin is repugnant to His holiness, God declared His purpose of destroying both mankind and the earth he had polluted. Defying God’s will affects our environment as well as ourselves. Judgment for disobedience is only averted through repentance and fresh submission to God. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:11 corrupt. The verb translated corrupt has the idea of being ruined, spoiled, or destroyed. Sinful people were bringing ruin to the world that belonged to the living God (Ps 24:1).

6:14 ark. The word ark simply means “box,” the same word is used for the box in which the baby Moses was placed in the Nile (Ex 2:3), and for the gold-covered chest which contained the stone tablets of the Covenant (Ex 25:10). We usually picture Noah’s ark as a huge ship, with curved bow and stern, but it was very likely more like a large box. It was not designed for navigation, but simply to stay safely afloat.

6:15 cubits. A cubit was supposed to be the measurement of a man’s forearm, from the tip of the bent elbow to the fingertips. This is naturally a somewhat imprecise measurement, but it is generally considered to equal about 18 inches. Hence the ark was about 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high.

6:17 I, even I. The Hebrew text places significant emphasis on the personal role of God in the ensuing storm.

6:18–19 covenant. This is the first time the word covenant is used in the Bible. The details of this covenant were given after the flood (9:9). Here, in the midst of judgment, the Lord stooped down to meet the needs of His servant (Ps 40:1; 113:6) and to enter into a binding oath with him.

7:9 they came [motivated by God] into the ark with Noah. The gathering and cooperation of the animals must have been arranged by God. It appears that after Noah and his wife and sons entered the ark, the animals followed of their own accord.

7:11 fountains of the great deep . . . windows and floodgates of the heavens. Until this time, no rain had fallen on the earth, but it was watered by a mist (2:5–6). This description of the first rain portrays a thundering, catastrophic event, accompanied by violent upheaval of the earth’s crust and geysers of water bursting from the depths. The violence and the amount of water involved are more than enough to account for many peculiarities of the earth’s surface, such as the formation of the Grand Canyon. The flood also explains the enormous quantity of fossilized remains of plants, animals, and shellfish that are buried in layers of rock over the entire surface of the earth and even on the tops of mountains.

7:16 closed the door behind him. The Lord who had drawn them now closed the door on them. That shut door was a symbol of closure, safety, and God's deliverance.

7:19 the high mountains everywhere under the heavens were covered. This explicit declaration, accompanied by the assertion in verse 21 that every living thing died, makes it clear that this was no localized event, but in actuality a worldwide catastrophic flood (see 8:5). Jesus affirmed the historicity of the “days of Noah” when he compared them to the end days (Mt 24:37–38 ; Lk 17:26–27 ). Peter similarly used the story of Noah and the flood as a pattern for the final judgment (1Pe 3:20 ; 2Pe 2:5 ; 3:5–6 ).

8:14 the land was [entirely] dry. After more than a full year, the waters had returned to their place (7:11 ). As in the beginning, God brought the waters of earth into their place (1:9–13 ). The flood began in Noah’s 600th year, in the 2nd month, on day 17 (7:11 ) and ended in Noah’s 601st year, in the 2nd month, on day 27 (8:14 ).

8:20 an altar. This is the first mention of sacrificial worship since the days of Cain and Abel (4:3–5 ); yet we may assume that the principle of sacrificial worship was perpetuated through the line of faithful people (ch. 5).

8:22 While the earth remains. The words of this verse are a poem of powerful effect. These words might easily have become a song of faith, the response of the people of God to the promise He made (v. 21). Later in Israel’s history, the prophets recalled God’s great promise to Noah (Isa 54:9–10 ).

Major Covenants in the Old Testament

Covenant: Noahic

Reference: Ge 9:8–17

Type: Royal Grant

Participant: Made with righteous (6:9) Noah (and his descendants and every living thing on earth—all life that is subject to human jurisdiction)

Description: An unconditional divine promise never to destroy all earthly life with some natural catastrophe, the covenant “sign” (9:13, 17) being the rainbow in the storm cloud

Covenant: Abrahamic A

Reference: Ge 15:9–21

Type: Royal (land) Grant

Participant: Made with “righteous” (his faith was “credited . . . to him as righteousness,” v. 6) Abram (and his descendants, v. 16)

Description: An unconditional divine promise to fulfill the grant of the land; a self-maledictory oath symbolically enacted it (v. 17; see note there)

Covenant: Abrahamic B

Reference: Ge 17

Type: Suzerain-vassal

Participant: Made with Abraham as patriarchal head of his household

Description: A conditional divine pledge to be Abraham’s God and the God of his descendants (cf. “as for me,” v. 4; “as for you,” v. 9); the condition: total consecration to the Lord as symbolized by circumcision

Covenant: Sinaitic*Reference: Ex 19–24Type: Suzerain-vassal

Participant: Made with Israel as the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and as the people the Lord had redeemed from bondage to an earthly power

Description: A conditional divine pledge to be Israel's God (as her protector and the guarantor of her blessed destiny); the condition: Israel's total consecration to the Lord as his people (his kingdom) who live by his rule and serve his purposes in history

Covenant: Phinehas*Reference: Nu 25:10–13Type: Royal Grant

Participant: Made with the zealous priest Phinehas

Description: An unconditional divine promise to maintain the family of Phinehas in a "lasting priesthood" (v. 13; implicitly a pledge to Israel to provide her forever with a faithful priesthood)

Covenant: Davidic*Reference: 2Sa 7:5–16Type: Royal Grant

Participant: Made with faithful King David after his devotion to God as Israel's king and the Lord's anointed vassal had come to special expression (v. 2.)

Description: An unconditional divine promise to establish and maintain the Davidic dynasty on the throne of Israel (implicitly a pledge to Israel) to provide her forever with a godly king like David and through that dynasty to do for her what he had done through David—bring her into rest in the promised land ( 1Ki 4:20–21 ; 5:3–4 )

Covenant: New*Reference: Jer 31:31–34Type: Royal Grant

Participant: Promised to rebellious Israel as she is about to be expelled from the promised land in actualization of the most severe covenant curse ( Lev 26:27–39 ; Dt 28:36–37 , 45–68.)

Description: An unconditional divine promise to unfaithful Israel to forgive her sins and establish his relationship with her on a new basis by writing his law "on their hearts" (v. 33)—a covenant of pure grace

Major Types of Royal Covenants/Treaties in the Ancient Near East

Royal Grant (Unconditional)

A king's grant (of land or some other benefit) to a

Parity

A covenant between equals, binding them

Suzerain-Vassal (Conditional)

A covenant regulating the relationship between a great king and one of his subject kings. The great king loyal servant for faithful or exceptional service. The grant was normally perpetual and unconditional, but the servant's heirs benefited from it only as they continued their father's loyalty and service. (Cf. 1Sa 8:14 ; 22:7 ; 27:6 ; Est 8:1 .)

to mutual friendship or at least to mutual respect for each other's spheres and interests. Participants called each other "brother." (Cf. Ge 21:27 ; 26:31 ; 31:44–54 ; 1Ki 5:12 ; 15:19 ; 20:32–34 ; Am 1:9 .)

claimed absolute right of sovereignty, demanded total loyalty and service (the vassal must "love" his suzerain) and pledged protection of the subject's realm and dynasty, conditional on the vassal's faithfulness and loyalty to him. The vassal pledged absolute loyalty to his suzerain—whatever service his suzerain demanded—and exclusive reliance on the suzerain's protection. Participants called each other "lord" and "servant" or "father" and "son." (Cf. Jos 9:6 , 8 ; Eze 17:13–18 ; Hos 12:1 .)

Commitments made in these covenants were accompanied by self-maledictory oaths (made orally, ceremonially or both). The gods were called on to witness the covenants and implement the curses of the oaths if the covenants were violated.

9:1–19 God's Promise to Noah— Only when we think of God as Creator, as well as Redeemer, can we begin to understand His covenant of redemption as being related to the covenant of creation (Ge 1:26–30 ; 2:15–17 ). God doesn't abandon His creation. On the contrary, though evil has corrupted it, He graciously (for it is undeserved) establishes a covenantal relationship with Noah's descendants as well as with every beast of the earth. This note of universality is given further expression by Hosea (2:18 ) and Jonah (4:11 ). When Paul encourages Roman believers about struggles in this life, he reminds them that they are not alone, but assures them that the whole creation also groans and suffers, eagerly anticipating that final redemption from the curse of sin. The promise given here is to never destroy the earth again by flood (v. 11 ). The rainbow is then a testimony of the existence of this promise. Go to Theological Notes Index

9:4 blood. This restriction gets more attention in Leviticus (see Lev 17:11–12 ). Blood represents the animal's life. It may be used in sacrifice, for all life belongs to the Lord.

9:6 image of God. Sin did not destroy man as the image of God. God values human life more highly than animal life because only humankind possesses God's image.

9:9 covenant. This is the second occurrence in Genesis of the important concept of covenant (6:18 ). God promised that He would establish His covenant with Noah and here He accomplished this great work.

9:26–27 Shem. Shem was given precedence over his brothers. Eber and Abram were descended from Shem (11:10–30 ), so Shem's blessing is ultimately a blessing on Israel.

9:29 and he died. Noah's death was the end of an era. Only he and his family spanned two worlds, that of the earth before and after the flood. His long life (950 years) gave him opportunity to transmit to his many descendants the dramatic story that he had lived out with his family. Peoples in places and cultures the world over have memories and stories of a great flood in antiquity. The details differ, but the stories remain.

10:2 the sons of Japheth. The listing of Japheth's descendants is briefer than the others. Among the persons and peoples mentioned is Javan, an ancient name for the Greek people. It is thought that many of Japheth's descendants migrated to Europe.

10:6 the sons of Ham. Cush is the ancient name for Ethiopia; Mizraim is a name for Egypt.

10:7–11 Nimrod. Like Lamech the descendant of Cain, Nimrod's infamy was proverbial. His territory was in the lands of the east, the fabled ancient cities of Mesopotamia. The prophet Micah would later use the name Nimrod to describe the region of Assyria, which would come under God's judgment (Mic 5:5–6 ).

10:21–24 Eber. This is the name that gives rise to the term Hebrew, which is first used of Abram in 14:13. Eber descended from Shem, the one of Noah's sons who was appointed to carry on the messianic line. Abram was a direct descendant of Eber.

10:32 the families of the sons of Noah. Although not every ancient people group is listed in this “Table of the Nations,” its clear teaching is that all the varied peoples of the earth, no matter of what land or language, are descended from Noah.

11:2 the land of Shinar. This is the region of ancient Babylon in Mesopotamia (10:10), part of modern Iraq.

11:4 Pride—God divided the human race into different language groups because they had refused to obey His command to fill the earth, and had become united for an evil purpose. This does not mean that God wants the world to remain divided. Christ came to reconcile the world to God (2Co 5:19), and when we are in Christ we are not only reconciled to God, but to one another (Eph 2:11–19). The unity God destroyed by judgment at Babel was restored by grace on the day of Pentecost. On that day people from different nations came together to hear the gospel in their own languages. Go to Theological Notes Index

11:7 let Us \(Father, Son, Holy Spirit\) go down. The plural “Us” in this passage is similar to the language of 1:26–28. The plural pronoun emphasizes the majesty of the speaker.

11:9 Babel. There is a pun in this name that no Hebrew reader would miss. The verb for confuse sounds similar to the name of the city. confused . . . scattered. Because of their pride and arrogance, God scattered the peoples of the earth and confused their language, but one day peoples of all languages and cultures will unite to celebrate the grace of God's risen Son, lifting their voices together in praise of the Lamb (Rev 5:8–14).

11:10–25 the generations. This genealogy shows that Abram was a descendant of Noah through Shem, just as Noah was a descendant of Adam through Seth. It is interesting to note that while the people mentioned in this genealogy lived to be very old, they did not reach the great ages of the peoples before the flood. Instead, their lives appear to be growing progressively shorter.

11:28 Ur of the Chaldeans. For generations, scholars have believed this to be the famous Ur located near the ancient delta in the Persian Gulf where the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers flow together. More recently, some scholars have noted the tablets at Ebla that speak of an Ur in the region of north Syria and suggest that this is the city of Haran's death.

11:29 Sarai. The name Sarai means “princess,” implying a person of noble birth. Later we learn that Sarai was Abram's half sister (20:12).

12:1–3 God's Covenant with Abram—The covenant with Abram is the first covenant that pertains to the rule of God. It is unconditional, and depends only on God who obligates Himself in grace, indicated by the unconditional declaration, “I will.” The Abrahamic covenant is also the basis of other covenants and it promises blessings in three areas: (1) national—“I will make you a great nation,” (2) personal—“I will bless you [abundantly], and make your name great”; and (3) universal—“in you all the families (nations) of the earth will be blessed.” The Abrahamic Covenant is an important link in all that God began to do, has done throughout history, and will continue to do until the consummation of history. God blesses Abram and all his descendants through the Messiah, who is Abram's progeny and provides salvation for the entire world. Go to Theological Notes Index

12:1 LORD. Even though the name Yahweh (translated LORD) is not explained until Exodus 3:14–15, it is used here to make it clear to the readers that this was the same God who later formed the nation of Israel, and who was the creator (2:4 ).

12:2-3 I will bless you. There are seven elements in God's promise to Abram. The number seven is often used in Scripture to suggest fullness and completeness.

12:7 to your descendants. The land of Canaan was a gift to the descendants of Abram. God owned the land (Ps 24:1 ); it was His to do with as He pleased. The people of Canaan had lost their right to occupy the land due to their awful depravity (see 15:16 ). Thus God declared that this land would become the land of Israel (15:18–21 ; 17:6–8 ).

12:8 called on the name of the LORD . This was not a private prayer but a public proclamation. Abram was telling others about the Lord.

12:11 beautiful woman. Sarai's physical beauty was remarkable considering her age. She was ten years younger than Abram, or about 65 (12:4 ; 17:17 ).

12:13 my sister. Sarai was Abram's half sister, the daughter of his father but not of his mother (20:12 ).

12:17 the LORD punished Pharaoh. This is the first example of the cursing and blessing element of God's promise (see 12:2–3 ).

13:7 the Canaanite and the Perizzite. As in 12:6, the point of this phrase is that the land was already populated; Abram and Lot did not come into an empty region but had to compete for land for their rapidly growing herds and flocks.

13:14–17 This section forms part of the set of texts that set the stage for the Abrahamic covenant (see the list at 15:1–21). This section builds on 12:1–3,<sup>7</sup> the passage in which God first gave His great promise to Abram.

14:3 the Valley of Siddim. This valley is most likely submerged under the waters of the Dead Sea today.

14:14 three hundred and eighteen. The fact that Abram could find this many fighting men from among his own servants is an indication of the great wealth and honor that the Lord had given him (12:2–3).

14:18 Melchizedek. This name means “My King is Righteous.” Melchizedek was a contemporary of Abram who worshiped the living God. He is described as the “king of Salem,” an older shorter name for Jerusalem. The word is based on the root from which the word shalom (peace) comes. Melchizedek is a mysterious figure, apparently appearing from nowhere, and with no explanation of his family or background. He is a priest of God Most High, even though there is no indication that he is of Abram’s family or even a descendant of Shem. The writer of Hebrews compares Melchizedek with another priest, the Lord Jesus Christ (see Heb 5:9; Ps 110:4).

14:20 blessed, praised, and glorified be God Most High. When we bless God, we acknowledge Him as the source of all our blessings (Ps 103:1–2). a tenth. This is the first mention of tithing in the Bible. Even though there is no record of tithing as a command until much later (Dt 14:22), the concept of a tenth belonging to God was apparently known. Abram's gift indicates that he considered Melchizedek a true priest of the living God; in giving this gift Abram was giving to the Lord.

14:22 the LORD God Most High. Abraham identified Yahweh, translated here as “the LORD,” with the most high God for whom Melchizedek was priest. This is a clear statement that he and Melchizedek worshiped the same God.

15:1–21 This section is one of the texts that present the Abrahamic covenant (see 17:1–22; 18:1–15; 22:15–18; 26:23–24; 35:9–15; compare also 12:1–3, 7; 13:14–17).

15:2 Eliezer from Damascus. This man had the honor of being Abram's heir because Abram and Sarai had no child of their own. Some have wondered if Eliezer is also the unnamed servant of Abraham who went on the quest for a wife for Isaac (24:2–5).

15:6 Abram believed. Almost ten years had passed since the original promises were given. As Abram grew older and still had no children, it was natural for him to wonder how the promises could be fulfilled. In answer to Abram's questions, God, who had revealed Himself in word, and who had faithfully protected him and sustained him, again pledged His word of promise. Abram believed and his faith was accounted to him as righteousness. Some have thought that in Old Testament times people were saved by their good deeds rather than by faith, but this idea is mistaken. Abram was not saved because of righteous living or obedience, but by believing in God and so being declared righteous by Him. The only valid work is the work of faith (Jn 6:28–29; Jas 2:2).

15:9 Bring Me. Abram prepared the sacrifice, but God enacted the sign (v. 17). This emphasizes the unilateral, unconditional nature of the covenant.

15:12 horror . . . darkness. These two words give great emphasis to the meaning “an overwhelmingly dark terror.” This kind of reaction to the indescribable holiness of the Lord (Isa 6:3; 40:25) is natural—Abram was about to experience the presence of the Almighty. This was a moment of profound dread and holy awe.

15:13 four hundred years. Moses wrote down the story of Abram's life from the vantage point of the generation who fulfilled this prophecy (Ex 12:40–42).

15:17 between the [divided] pieces. This last element has profound implications. In solemn agreements between equals (parity treaties), both parties would pass between the bloody pieces of slain animals and birds. The symbol would be evident to all: “May I become like this if I do not keep my part of the agreement.” But Abram was not to walk this grisly pathway. Only God made the journey in the symbols of smoke and fire. The fulfillment of the promise of God to Abram, the Abrahamic covenant, is as sure as the ongoing life of the Lord.

15:18 this land. God's promise to Abram included his descendants and the Promised One, the Seed of Genesis 3:15. But the promise also included the land of Canaan. God removed the people of Israel from the land of Canaan several times, but He never revoked His everlasting promise (17:8). The promise will be fulfilled in its fullness when Jesus Christ returns (Isa 9:1–7). the river of Egypt. The “river of Egypt” may refer to the Nile, or it may be what is called today the Wadi el Arish, a smaller watercourse at the natural boundary of Egypt and the land of Israel. the great river Euphrates. This is the northern arm of the Euphrates in Syria.

15:20 Rephaim. A people of unusually tall stature; they are called giants in 2 Samuel 21:15–22 (see Nu 13:33; Dt 2:11; 3:11).

16:2 go in to [the bed of] my maid. This seems to have been an accepted practice in the ancient middle east. If a woman was unable to bear children, she might use her servant as a surrogate mother, and adopt the child as her own.

16:11 Ishmael. The name Ishmael uses the divine name El, and means “God hears.”

17:4 covenant. While the peoples who descended directly from Abram (the nation of Israel, the Midianites, Ishmaelites, and Edomites) were certainly numerous, Abram was “father of many” in a much broader sense yet. The message of the New Testament reveals that God’s promise to Abram is to be fulfilled in the community of faith in every nation. So certain was the promise, that his name was changed to Abraham, as an everlasting reminder of God’s gracious covenant. Furthermore, the emphatic “as for me” underscores the identity of the all sufficient God who takes the initiative for establishing the covenantal relationship. This relationship is both spiritual and personal, anticipating the divine pledge, “and I will be their God.” The wonder of it all is that we who believe in Jesus Christ are part of that “multitude of nations” who share in the faith of Abraham “who is the father of us all.”

17:5 Abram . . . Abraham. This name change is significant. Abram means “exalted Father.” Abraham means “Father of Many”—a direct reflection of his new role.

17:8 the land . . . an everlasting possession. The promise clearly included the Israelite people and the land of Canaan. The two are linked in the language of the covenant in chapter 15. Even though God removed Israel more than once from the land, He promised them ultimate possession of Canaan.

17:13 circumcised. Circumcision in and of itself did not make people acceptable to God. It was meant as a tangible symbol of God’s covenant in their lives, as an outward sign standing for the inward reality of a thorough commitment to God. In the New Testament, the apostle Paul speaks of having a “circumcised heart,” pointing to the fact that a circumcised body means nothing if the heart is not in accord (Ro 2:25–29).

17:15 Sarai . . . Sarah. Both names come from the same root, meaning “Princess.” No explanation is given for the change in Sarah’s name, but like the name change from Abram to Abraham (vv. 4–5) the new name accompanied a new relationship with God.

18:1 the LORD appeared. This was the fifth time the Lord appeared to Abraham since he came into the land of Canaan (12:7 ; 13:14–17 ; 15:1–21 ; 17:1–22 ).

18:2–3 three men. Verse 1 states that the Lord appeared to Abraham, then the next verse refers to “three men.” It seems clear from verses 1 , 13 and 17 that one of the three was the Lord Himself, and from 19:1 on the other two are referred to as angels. Apparently all three were in human form, and were able to eat the meal that Abraham had prepared. Many have speculated that this was an appearance of the pre-incarnate Christ.

18:19 For I have known \(chosen, acknowledged\) him. Some translations say, “I have chosen him.” The language speaks of the intimate relationship which motivates the Lord to accomplish His purpose in Abraham (22:12 ). righteous and just. One idea in two words—“genuine righteousness.”

19:2 my lords. This is a greeting of respect for special visitors.

19:5 know them. This term usually refers to sexual relations between a man and a woman (4:1 ), here it is referring to homosexual activity, which God has declared is an abomination (Lev 18:22 ).

19:16 the LORD was merciful to him. This is the whole point of the story. God could have destroyed the city of Sodom with no word to Lot or Abraham (18:17 ). But because of His mercy, God’s angels grabbed Lot and his family and brought them forcibly to safety. In this passage, Lot appears weak, indecisive, and unsure of whether he really wants to be rescued. However, the New Testament speaks a good word for Lot’s character, calling him a “just man” and telling us that he was grieved by the sin he saw in Sodom and Gomorrah (2Pe 2:6–8 ).

19:23–26 brimstone \(flaming sulfur\) and fire. This may be simply a supernatural judgment on the cities, but some have also theorized that the fire and brimstone which “rained” down on them may have been from a volcanic eruption. In any case, it is clear that the destruction was a judgment from God, and that it was under His control.

19:26 pillar of salt. Near the Dead Sea, which is believed to now cover the site of Sodom and Gomorrah, there are numerous rock salt formations, including pillars about the size of a human. Jesus referred to the fate of Lot's wife as a historical fact (Lk 17:32 ).

19:36–38 Moab . . . Ben-ammi. The shameful act of incest led to the births of two sons whose descendants (the Moabites and the Ammonites) would greatly trouble Israel.

20:2 She is my sister . The complete truth told in such a way as to deceive or mislead is still a falsehood. Abraham's words were true: "She is my sister," but the message he intended to convey was false: "She is not married to me." His intent was deceit and the consequences he reaped were the same as if he had directly lied. A man speaks the real truth when he speaks the truth in his heart (Ps 15:2 ).

20:3 God came . . . in a dream. Presumably, Abimelech was a pagan king. Yet God warned him of the wrong he was about to commit. This is another instance of the protective care that the Lord gives His people (31:24 ; Nu 22:12–20 ).

20:12 she actually is my [half] sister. Later the law would prohibit the marriage of people so closely related, but in the early years of the earth it was apparently acceptable for half siblings to marry (see note on 4:17 ).

21:1 The LORD . . . visited Sarah as He had said. The Bible stresses that the Lord causes conceptions; that children are a gift of the Lord (Ps 127:3 ). The verb visit is an extraordinary choice here, indicating that the Lord entered directly into the affairs of His people.

21:3 Isaac. Isaac means "He (God) Is Laughing (Now)." At one time Abraham and Sarah had both laughed at the improbability of having a son in their old age (17:17 ; 18:12 ); now with the birth of the promised child their laughter took on a happier meaning.

21:12 do what she asks. As painful as the situation was, God confirmed that Sarah was right that Ishmael would have to leave. Only Isaac was the child of promise, the one through whom the covenant would be fulfilled. This complicated situation was part of the price Abraham had to pay for trying to bring about God's promises in his own time. Nevertheless, God is merciful and He did not abandon Hagar and Ishmael.

21:17 God heard. What wonderful words these are! There is no pain of His people that He does not see or hear about (Isa 40:27–28 ; Heb 2:10 , 18 ; 4:15 ). Even though Ishmael was not the son of promise, God still had His hand on his life.

21:23 kindness. This exceedingly important term, sometimes translated loyal love or lovingkindness is often used in the Psalms to describe God's character (Ps 100:5 ). Here we see its proper context in a binding relationship. The term basically describes covenant loyalty (24:12 ).

21:27 covenant. This is a binding agreement between two equals, similar to today's business contracts.

21:28–31 seven ewe lambs . . . Beersheba. The Hebrew number seven is similar in sound to the verb meaning "to swear" (v. 24 ). Thus Beersheba would be the well where they swore and the well of the seven ewe lambs.

21:34 land of the Philistines. The name Palestine comes from the word for Philistine.

**Abraham and Isaac in the Land of Canaan**

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

22:5 worship [God], and we will come back to you. Abraham's comment to his servants is a significant avowal of his faith in God. Even though he was going to sacrifice his son, he was confident that they both would return.

22:8 God will provide. Abraham's faith in God's promise is shown in his response to a very real and terrible test. Many times this is seen as a test of the quality of Abraham's love for God—who would he choose, God or his son? However, there is no sign that Abraham made this mistake. He knew beyond a shadow of doubt that Isaac was given to him directly by God, the son of promise. Therefore it was right that he should love his son of promise as a gift from God. God's covenant said that a great nation would descend from Isaac, therefore it would be so. Abraham's test was not "whom do you love most?" but

“do you really believe Me?” The answer was a resounding, “Yes!” Abraham carried his faith to the knife edge on his son’s flesh. God had promised, and it would be so, even if Isaac had to be raised from the dead to make His words come to pass (Heb 11:17–19 ).

22:9 bound Isaac his son. Surely Isaac could have struggled or run away at this point, but there is no evidence that he did so. Apparently Isaac’s faith and trust both in God and in his father was sufficient to stand the test.

22:14 The Lord Will Provide. As God provided a ram to take the place of Abraham’s son, so one day He would provide His own Son to take our place. Some believe that Mt. Moriah later became part of the city of Jerusalem, and was the site of Solomon’s temple.

22:17 I will greatly bless you. In the Hebrew, this is stated by doubling the verbs (blessing I will bless you, multiplying I will multiply you), a Hebrew idiom that powerfully emphasizes the certainty of the action.

22:18 seed. Here this is a grand play on words. The seed was Isaac, and by extension the Jewish nation. Specifically the Seed was one descendant of Abraham, Jesus the Messiah.

23:13 I will give you the price of the field. Abraham would not have been offering “money” as we think of it today; minted coins were not invented until at least 650 BC. Instead, trading was done by barter, or with precious metals by weight.

23:15 what is that between you and me? The dialogue in this chapter gives a wonderfully detailed example of the bargaining process of the day. Abraham clearly understood Ephron’s generous statement as a politely phrased way of setting his price.

23:20 field . . . cave . . . were deeded over to Abraham. It is interesting to note that the only piece of the promised land that Abraham ever personally possessed was this field and cave to bury his wife.

24:2 his servant [Eliezer of Damascus], the oldest of his household. Some have thought that this might be Eliezer of Damascus, the one who had been named as Abraham’s heir before the births of Ishmael and Isaac.

24:3 the daughters of the Canaanites. This was not an issue of racism, as is sometimes thought—it was theological. The Canaanite peoples worshiped the false gods Baal and Asherah (Dt 7:3 ).

24:12 O LORD, God of my master Abraham. This language does not mean that the servant himself did not believe in God. The servant was making his appeal on the basis of God’s covenant loyalty to Abraham.

24:15 Providence— Abraham sent his servant to choose Isaac’s bride, confident that his servant would be led by the Lord and that in God’s providence he would make the right choice. The servant prayed for very specific guidance, and God sent him Rebekah. He was impressed not only with her physical beauty, but also with her kind, generous, and hospitable character. His decision was confirmed when her parents gave their consent and she agreed to return with him. Today we must remember to seek the Lord’s guidance and trust in His providence just as Abraham’s servant, Rebekah, and her family did. Go to Theological Notes Index

24:50 The matter has come from the LORD . It appears that the family of Bethuel and Laban also worshiped the living God, or at least acknowledged Him along with other gods (see 31:19 ; Jos 24:2 ).

24:60 They blessed Rebekah. These words are not mere sentiment, nor are they a magical charm, but a prayer for God’s blessing on her life. gate. The possession of the gates of one’s enemies meant power over them (22:17 ).

24:67 he loved her . The love of Isaac for Rebekah is a wonderful fulfillment and illustration of God’s original purpose for marriage. Realizing it was not good for man to be alone (Ge 2:18 ), the Creator graciously created Eve, a helper for Adam. God Himself then performed history’s first wedding. Isaac and Rebekah serve not only as a lovely example of godly marriage, but also as a beautiful picture of the love between Christ and the church in the New Testament. Rebekah, like the church, loved her bridegroom without first seeing him (compare Ge 24:58 with 1Pe 1:8 ). Like the church, Rebekah was prayed for by her bridegroom (Ge 24:63 ; Ro 8:34 ). Isaac, having previously been presented for offering on Mt. Moriah (Ge 22:1–14 ), was content to await the arrival of his bride. He was an early portrayal of the Son of God who now awaits the arrival of His bride in heaven (Heb 10:12–14 ).

25:1 took another wife. In 1 Chronicles 1:32 , Keturah is described as Abraham's concubine. It is not really known exactly what position she had in Abraham's household, or when the relationship began. Her sons had a status similar to that of Ishmael, Abraham's son by Hagar (ch. 16 ), but without Ishmael's particular blessing (16:10–16 ).

25:2 Midian. This son was the father of the Midianites, some of whom later bought Joseph from his brothers (37:28 ,36 ).

25:11 God blessed. God blessed Isaac because He had already established "an everlasting covenant" with him (17:19 ; Heb 11:17 ). Later God renewed the covenant with Isaac personally (26:2–5 ).

25:21 prayed. The Hebrew verb here indicates that Isaac prayed passionately for his wife. For examples of passionate prayer, see Ex 8:30 ; 2Sa 21:14 ; 24:25 .

25:25 Esau. This name sounds like the Hebrew word that means "hairy."

25:26 Jacob. The Hebrew word that means "heel" sounds similar to the name Jacob. The name may mean either "He Who Grasps at the Heel (of Another)" or "He (the Lord) Is at His Heels (Is His Protector)."

25:30 Edom. This name means "red." The nickname is here connected to the red stew for which he traded his birthright; many have speculated that Esau may have had ruddy skin, or even red hair since the name stuck and even became the name of his land and the nation of his descendants (36:8 ).

26:1 Philistines. The Philistines are thought to have come to the coastland of Canaan following their defeat by the Egyptians around 1200 BC. The Egyptians called them the "Sea Peoples"; they were apparently Greek peoples who migrated eastward (see 1Sa 4:1 ; 2Sa 5:17 ).

26:3 bless and favor you. The Lord fulfilled His promise to Abraham concerning Isaac (17:19 ). He established His everlasting covenant with Isaac, just as He had with Abraham.

26:7 sister. Rebekah was Isaac's close relative, but she was not his sister (she was his first cousin once removed). Isaac was even more deceitful than his father Abraham (20:2 ,12 ).

26:12–13 blessed. God's special work for Abraham was extended to the son.

26:25 called on the name of the LORD . Isaac followed the practice of his father (12:8 ). At this altar Isaac not only prayed to the Lord, he also affirmed the reality of the living God in this special land (12:8 ; 21:33 ).

26:34 Hittite. Because the Hittites believed in many different gods, Esau's marriages were unacceptable for one belonging to God's covenant family.

27:4 my soul. This phrase is simply a substitute for the personal pronoun, "I."

27:8 listen [carefully] to me [and do exactly] as I command you. Rebekah certainly appears calculating and devious in this passage, but God had told her before they were even born that the younger son would have precedence over the older (25:23 ). He had not, however, told her to make sure that it happened, and the results of her deception were family strife and the loss of her younger son.

27:18–29 Falsehood— Jacob may have felt justified in deceiving his father, since Esau had already sold him the birthright. Esau had clearly demonstrated his contempt of the position (including the spiritual responsibility) which was his by right, while Jacob valued and desired it. However, lofty purposes and aspirations cannot justify deceit and trickery. We must be content to leave the fulfillment of God's promises in His hand and wait for His time. Go to Theological Notes Index

27:29 peoples serve you. Isaac predicted that Jacob's descendants would obtain supremacy over other peoples. Jesus, as the King of kings, and a descendant of Jacob, ultimately fulfilled this prediction (1Ti 6:14–16 ).

27:46 daughters of Heth. Intermarrying with the pagan women of Canaan was dangerous because they would bring their pagan gods and pagan worship into their new homes.

28:2 Paddan-aram. This is a region of Haran in northern Aram (Syria) near the Euphrates River.

28:3 God Almighty. This Hebrew name, El Shaddai is used by or in the hearing of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (35:11 ). God later identified Himself to Moses with this same name (Ex 6:3 ).

28:9 Mahalath. This daughter of Ishmael is probably the same woman as Basemath (36:3 ). Her name means "dance."

28:10–15 Jacob's Dream— The ladder of Jacob's dream reminds us of Jesus' words about the angels "ascending and descending on the Son of Man" (Jn 1:51 ), vividly depicting Himself as the Way into the heavenlies. Certainly Jacob did not deserve such grace after cheating his brother out of the blessings of Isaac. Indeed, he was already suffering by being banished from the fellowship of his family. Nevertheless, God mercifully confirmed the covenant promises made to Abraham and Isaac concerning the land and the descendants. His words, "I am with you and will keep you" speak of God's personal presence for protection and guidance, anticipating Jacob's return to the land, so that all the promises might be fulfilled. Surely the grace of God goes far beyond our small expectations. Go to Theological Notes Index

28:22 the tenth. Jacob promised to give a tenth of his possessions to God. Abraham had given the same proportion to Melchizedek, the priest of the most high God. Later the Mosaic law required giving a tenth to God (Dt 14:22 ).

29:6 Rachel. This name is a term of endearment meaning "Ewe Lamb."

29:21–25 Deception— Many times we see God's prohibitions as mere taboos. We somehow imagine that God says no just because He can, instead of acknowledging both His goodwill towards us, and His wisdom. God does not merely prohibit lying because He can, it is because it is destructive. Jacob learned through experience that trickery and deceit bring complicated and painful consequences. False dealing destroys trust in a relationship, and once trust has been broken it is difficult, if not impossible, to entirely restore it. Go to Theological Notes Index

29:31 unloved. God was kind to Leah in her predicament. Even though she was the unloved wife, it was through her son Judah that the messianic line was carried out.

30:14 mandrakes. This is a plant which was regarded as an aid to conception. Its aroma was associated with lovemaking (SS 7:13 ).

30:22 remembered . . . thought of her . . . opened. These three verbs emphasize conception as a gift from God.

30:25 own place. Even though Jacob had lived for twenty years with Laban's family, he had not adopted that place as his own. He never forgot that the promise and covenant of God were for the land of Canaan, and he knew that he must return.

30:27 blessed. God had promised to bless others through Abraham's descendants (12:2–3 ). Now God blessed Laban through Jacob.

30:37 branches of fresh poplar. Just what significance these sticks hold is unknown. Some have theorized that they were simply symbols of Jacob's faith in God. Whatever the case, God blessed Jacob by causing Laban's stock to give birth to speckled and spotted young.

31:7 cheated me . Jacob had surely lived up to his name, deceiving his old father and tricking his brother out of the birthright. But in Laban he met his match, and tasted some of his own medicine. The consequences of dishonesty reach both ways. Because of his own trickery, Jacob had to flee from his home. He apparently never saw his mother again, and his relationship with his father and his only brother was broken. Lying not only harms the liar, but it also affects those he lies to. Because of Laban's trickery, Jacob was saddled with an unloved wife, quarreling sons, and consistent domestic strife.

31:19 household gods. Laban's family may have been polytheistic (believing in many gods), as Abraham's father Terah evidently was (Jos 24:1–3). Considering the evidence of verses 25–50 it seems likely that they worshiped Yahweh along with other "lesser gods." In this culture, the possession of the gods was the right of the principal heir. Rachel probably did not steal the idols in order to worship them, but because they represented ownership of her father's property.

31:44 covenant. This instance of a covenant was an agreement between two equals.

31:49 Mizpah. This name means "Outlook Point" and is related to the Hebrew word meaning "to watch." God above had His eyes on both men to make them keep their covenant.

31:53 The God of Abraham. The wording in Laban's oath suggests that Abraham, Nahor, and their father Terah all worshiped the same One True God. Joshua records the fact that Terah at least worshiped other gods as well (Jos 24:1–3). It is possible that they were henotheistic—worshiping God not as the only God but as the most important and powerful among many.

Jacob's Travels in the Land of Canaan

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

32:11 Save me, please. Jacob did not pray in generalities. He named his concerns openly, and concluded with another appeal to God's promises. Christians today can likewise base their prayers on God's proven character and His promises in the Bible.

32:24 a Man [came and] wrestled with him. Some believe that the man who wrestled with Jacob was the pre-incarnate Jesus Christ. Others believe the man was the Angel of God (21:17 ; 31:11 ). In any case, Jacob wrestled with a manifestation of God (vv. 28-30 ), and because of God's mercy he survived.

32:28 Israel. Before Jacob wrestled with the angel, his name, "One who Supplants," described a man who was deceitful in character. Afterwards he was given the new status of a champion, "One who Strives (or Prevails) with God."

32:30 God face to face . The dramatic name ("Face of God") given to the location shows the awesome nature of the encounter. Here God's messenger in human form was the same as God Himself, a fact which Jacob recognized to his amazement. In Hebrew thought, the penalty for seeing God face to face was death (Ex 33:20 ), yet Jacob had passed through such an experience and had survived.

33:11 Please accept my blessing. Before, Jacob had done all he could to take Esau's blessing (25:29-34 ; 27:1-45 ). Now a wiser man, Jacob wanted to bless his brother with what God had given him.

33:20 he erected an altar. The name Jacob gave this altar reflected his mature faith in "God, the God of Israel." The God of Jacob's fathers was now Jacob's personal God, for He had fulfilled His promises and protected him (28:13-15 ).

34:25 killed every male . Jacob's sons were correct that God did not want them to intermarry with the pagan Canaanite families. According to later Levitical law, they were even correct that rape was punishable by death. However, their treacherous pretended friendship and the massacre of all the men of Shechem, along with their greedy looting of all the Shechemites' goods, was clearly not a justifiable execution of justice, and God condemned their violence and anger (49:5-7 ).

35:2 foreign gods. Jacob's command included the idols that Rachel had stolen (31:22-35 ) as well as any idols among his servants. These were not gods Jacob himself had been worshiping, but he had apparently been allowing others in his household to do so.

35:10-12 Israel shall be your name . The renewal of God's covenant with Jacob was introduced by confirming Jacob's change of name to Israel, the one who "wrestled with God and prevailed." The promises made to Abraham and Isaac were once again repeated, underscoring the continuity of the covenant. Furthermore, a rather significant phrase is added, "be fruitful and multiply," which incorporated the creation ordinance, thus exhibiting the continuity with the covenant of creation. The covenant Lord is the God of creation and of redemption.

35:16 Ephrath. This is an alternative name for the region around Bethlehem (v. 19 ; 48:7 ; Ru 1:2 ; Mic 5:2 ). The King of Glory would one day be born near the birthplace of Benjamin (Mt 2:1 ).

35:27 Jacob came to Isaac his father. After more than 20 years of exile Jacob finally visited his father. Sadly, his mother Rebekah was probably dead since she is not mentioned.

36:12 Amalek. Esau's grandson Amalek founded a people that later would trouble the Israelites (Nu 14:39-45 ).

36:40-43 Esau the father of the Edomites— Although Esau was not the heir of God's everlasting covenant with the family of Abraham, God still blessed his family and made them into a nation. Go to Theological Notes Index

37:1 a stranger. The Lord had promised that this land would become a permanent possession of Abraham's family (12:7 ). To the third generation, that promise was still not realized. Jacob and his family were still aliens in the land.

37:2 a bad report. Since Joseph in general demonstrated his integrity (see ch. 39 ), he was probably not slander his brothers, but accurately reporting some negligence on their part.

37:3 a [distinctive] multicolored tunic. The traditional phrase here is “coat of many colors.” The Hebrew phrase may simply mean a garment with long sleeves. The robe was certainly distinctive in some way, and probably costly.

37:4 hated him . Because fallen and unregenerate man hates God, he displays hatred in his relations with others. The hatred of Joseph’s brothers is attributed primarily to the love which Jacob had for his youngest son. As a result of their hatred the brothers were not able to speak kindly to Joseph, and the hatred led to a plot to kill him. Jesus remarked that the world’s hatred of His people is a reflection of hatred against Himself (Jn 15:18 ). Love is the leading characteristic of the godly as hatred is the mark of the worldly person.

37:17 Dothan. This is about ten miles north of Shechem, near Mount Gilboa.

37:21 Let us not take his life. Reuben, as the firstborn son and principal heir, had the most to lose if Joseph’s dreams came true. Yet Reuben intervened to spare Joseph’s life. This was something of a contrast with his earlier wicked actions (35:22 ).

37:25 Ishmaelites. The Ishmaelites of this passage were wandering traders. The name (referring to descendants of Ishmael, the son of Abraham and Hagar) is loosely equivalent with the name Midianite (Midian was another son of Abraham, by Keturah). Probably the families of the two half brothers had a strong alliance and were so closely associated that the names became interchangeable (v. 28 ).

37:28 twenty shekels of silver. The standard price for a slave in later Israelite law was 30 pieces of silver.

37:29 tore his clothes. Tearing one’s clothes was a common expression of grief and dismay. Reuben’s grief was genuine feeling for his younger brother mixed with fear that he, the oldest brother, would be blamed.

38:1–30 At first glance it appears that the story of Judah and Tamar is an intrusion into the story of Joseph, but it is here for a reason. It provides a stunning contrast between the morals of Judah and Joseph. It illustrates the further disintegration of Jacob’s family. If this process continued, Jacob’s family, the family of promise, would become like the people of Canaan.

38:8 to your brother’s widow. In order to maintain the family line and the name of the deceased, it was the custom in ancient times for the dead man’s brother to marry the widow and father a child that would carry on the man’s family. This is called levirate marriage, from the Latin word meaning “husband’s brother.” The custom became part of the Mosaic law (Dt 25:5–10 ; Ru 4:1–12 ).

38:15–18 Fornication— God designed sexual relations to be enjoyed exclusively within the framework of marriage: one man, for one woman, mutually committed for life. Outside of this framework, all sexual relations are sin. This is not because God wants to deprive His people of pleasure, but because He wants to protect them from the painful and destructive consequences of sin. Sexual union is not only a union of the body, but of the whole person (1Co 6:15–20 ). Illicit sexual relations defile the temple of God, breed both physical and social disease, and serve as a source for many other sins. Go to Theological Notes Index

38:18 seal. This was an ancient means of identification. The seal was distinctively etched in stone, metal, or ivory. To confirm a business transaction, or make an order official, the seal was pressed into soft clay, leaving its distinctive impression. Basically, Judah gave Tamar the equivalent of a modern credit card.

38:26 She has been more righteous. Judah, one of the heirs of the everlasting covenant with the living God, was put to shame by a Canaanite woman. To his credit, Judah confessed his sins.

38:29 Perez . Perez was in the lineage of David, and eventually Jesus the Messiah (Ru 4:18 ; Mt 1:3 ).

39:2 The LORD was with Joseph. This key phrase of this section is repeated (vv. 21 , 23 ). This phrase indicates that God cared for, protected, and blessed Joseph.

39:4 found favor. Joseph's life illustrates the principle that one who is faithful in little will be given charge over much (Mt 25:21 ; 1Co 4:2 ).

39:5 the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house. God blessed Potiphar's house because of Joseph, just as He had blessed Laban because of Jacob.

39:9 sin against God . Joseph rejected the solicitation to sin, regarding it both as a wicked act of treachery against his master, and as a defiling and rebellious act before a holy God. Because Joseph's conscience was bound by God and His truth, he was able to resist this evil suggestion more than once. Pleasing God was more important to Joseph than engaging in the pleasures of sin for a season. His fear and reverence of God was the directing power of his life.

39:20 in the prison. Surprisingly, Potiphar did not simply kill Joseph outright. It is possible that knowledge of Joseph's character (or his own wife's character) caused him to suspect that the story was not wholly true.

39:21 lovingkindness. This word can be translated loyal love (Ps 13:5 ). God faithfully kept His promises by staying with His people (12:1-3 ; 50:24 ).

39:23 the LORD made to prosper. Because of God's blessing, everything Joseph did prospered (Ps 1:1-3 ).

40:8 interpretations belong to God? Joseph not only announced his faith, he then quickly acted upon it. Joseph had received dreams and visions as a younger man, and he had understood their meaning (37:5-11 ).

40:22 Pharaoh hanged the chief baker. Pharaoh was clearly a ruthless ruler who rewarded those who served him well, but destroyed those he perceived as threats.

41:8 magicians. The Hebrew term is related to the word for stylus , a writing instrument. Thus the magicians were associated in some manner with writing and knowledge, no doubt of the occult. wise men. These were a class of scholars associated with the courts of the ancient Middle East. They were either functionaries of pagan religions, or merely observers and interpreters of life.

41:14 shaved. Egyptian men not only shaved their faces, but their entire bodies and heads. Egyptian officials scorned the "hairy" Canaanites, including the Hebrews (43:32 ). While he lived in Egypt Joseph apparently adopted the dress and manner of the Egyptians.

41:16 God. Joseph praised the power of the living God in the pagan court of Pharaoh. He would not take any credit to himself, nor did he try to use the situation to plead for his own release.

41:32 God, and God. Joseph made it clear that he was speaking about the one God, not the numerous false gods that filled the Egyptian court, or Pharaoh himself who was believed to be a god (22:1 ; 42:18 ).

41:38 in whom is the divine spirit. Even if he did not follow God himself, Pharaoh was at least acknowledging that Joseph was extraordinarily wise, and that the power of his God was obvious in his life.

41:39 discerning and clear-headed and wise . Joseph is an illustration of the instructions Paul gave Colossae: "Conduct yourself with wisdom in your interactions with outsiders" (Col 4:5 ). Pharaoh recognized that Joseph's wisdom was not the ordinary powers of a clever man, but something unique and outside of himself. Joseph was wise because he listened to God, not just because of his extraordinary intelligence and perspicacity. God's wisdom is moral. It discerns between good and evil. It is seen through prudence in secular affairs and comes through personal experience with the Lord.

41:45 Zaphenath-peneah. This Egyptian name probably means something like "The God Speaks and Lives." Asenath. This name means "Belonging to (the Goddess) Neith." Potiphera. This name means "He Whom Ra (the sun god) Gave." Even though his father-in-law was the priest of a pagan god, Joseph and Asenath's sons were worshipers of the Lord, not Ra.

42:4 Benjamin. Jacob still played favorites, but this time there is no mention of jealousy among the other brothers as there had been before (37:8 ).

42:6 bowed down before him. God fulfilled the dreams He gave to Joseph at the age of 17 (37:5–11 ).

42:9 You are spies. Joseph set out to learn whether his brothers had changed for the better. Would they betray each other when under pressure?

42:18 I fear God. Joseph gave his brothers a clue about who he was.

42:22 Did I not tell you . Joseph's brothers were fearful because they knew they were guilty before God and that they deserved any punishment that God might choose to send. They must have been troubled by feelings of guilt for years, and even though they did not realize who Joseph really was, they immediately attributed their troubles to their guilt.

42:25 money. This refers to a certain weight of silver. Coins had not been invented at this time.

43:8 Send the young man with me. Judah promised that he would keep Benjamin safe. Judah had changed tremendously (38:1 ). Instead of leaving the family, he protected his brother and was concerned about his father's welfare.

43:23 your God and the God of your father. Surprisingly, the steward expressed his own faith in the God of Joseph and Jacob.

43:26 bowed. For the second time (42:6 ) the brothers of Joseph bowed down to him, just as his dreams had predicted (37:5–11 ).

43:32 loathsome. This word can indicate the strongest revulsion, something that might cause physical illness (46:34 ). The Egyptians (who carefully shaved their entire bodies) may have been repulsed by the "hairy" Hebrews.

44:15 can indeed practice divination. This curious verse is not very clear in meaning. Clearly a God-fearing man like Joseph who knew that only God can interpret dreams and visions (40:8 ) would not have been one to dabble with the occult. He may just have been trying to frighten his brothers by appearing to know things supernaturally (this would certainly have been backed up by his uncanny knowledge of their birth order in 43:33 ).

44:17 get up and go in peace to your father. Joseph was testing his brothers again, to see if they had changed in their attitude to the son of their father's favorite wife. Would they leave Benjamin a slave in Egypt as they had Joseph?

45:1–4 Real love— A profound comparison can be made between the life of Joseph and the life of Christ. Both Joseph and Jesus were persecuted unjustly (Ge 37:11–28 ; Mt 26:59 ). Both were lost to their brothers for a while (Ge 45:1–15 ; Ro 10:1–4 ). Both later forgave and restored their repentant brothers (Ge 45:1–15 ; Zec 8:1–8 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

45:3 I am Joseph. Joseph must have said this in Hebrew, finally dropping the ruse of the interpreter (42:23 ).

45:5 God sent me . God often permits the wicked to carry out their evil plans in order to fulfill some larger purpose He has for the objects of their violence and cruelty. Since it is not possible for us to see the whole picture from God's perspective, we must exercise faith and believe that the God of all the earth will do right and that all things do work together for good to those who love God, who are called according to His purpose. Joseph was able to freely forgive his brothers partly because he recognized that their sin had been turned by God into something good.

45:10 You shall live in the land of Goshen. This was God's plan. He had told Abraham that his descendants would live in a foreign land (15:13–16 ).

46:1 Israel set out. Jacob's journey to Egypt began a four-hundred-year sojourn away from the promised land of Canaan. Jacob entered Egypt with his twelve sons and their families; Jacob's descendants would leave Egypt as a small nation.

46:2 Israel . . . Jacob. The fact that these names are used interchangeably indicates that the earlier negative connotations of the name Jacob had faded (31:11 ; 32:28 ; 35:10 ).

46:11 Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. These sons of Levi became the founders of the Levitical families (Ex 6:16–19 ). Aaron and Moses descended from Kohath (Ex 6:20–25 ).

46:26–27 sixty-six . . . seventy. When Joseph, his two sons, and Jacob himself are added, the number of males in Jacob's family equals seventy.

46:34 every shepherd is repulsive to the Egyptians. God used the racial and ethnic prejudice of the Egyptians as a way of preserving the ethnic and spiritual identity of His own people. Jacob's family was already intermarrying with the Canaanites (ch. 38 ) and was in danger of losing its identity as the people of God.

47:5–6 Pharaoh. There is some uncertainty concerning the identity of this Pharaoh. Many believe he was Amenhotep I of the eleventh dynasty. Prior to his reign Egypt had suffered political and economic chaos for 200 years. Irrigation and building projects fell into ruin, and civil war raged. But Pharaoh Amenhotep was able to reunite Egypt, rebuilding the country and developing world trade. One of the reasons for his success no doubt stemmed from the fact that he was a generous man as we are told here. Not only was he generous to his own people, but he was kind to Israel. God had already promised to bless those who blessed the descendants of Abraham (Ge 12:3 ). The lesson is clear. If a pagan king can experience God's blessing for his liberality, how much more can born-again believers know the riches of heaven for their liberality? Solomon reminds us of this principle: "The generous man [is a source of blessing and] shall be prosperous and enriched" (Pr 11:25 ).

47:8 How old are you? Pharaoh's question suggests that the long ages of the patriarchal family were truly exceptional, even for this period. Jacob's final 147 years (47:28 ) were fewer than the 175 years of Abraham (25:7 ) and the 180 years of Isaac (35:28 ), but still a significant age.

47:20 the land. Pharaoh's ownership of all the land of Egypt would one day lead to gross abuses of power (see the Book of Exodus ).

47:29 deal loyally and faithfully with me. In other words, "demonstrate to me the utmost covenant loyalty." Jacob showed his vigorous faith in God's promises by asking to be buried in the land promised to his descendants.

48:5–7 Ephraim and Manasseh. As firstborn, Reuben should have received a double portion of the inheritance, but he had forfeited his birthright by his sins (35:22 ). By adopting Ephraim and Manasseh as his own sons, Jacob gave the double portion to Joseph.

48:22 one portion [Shechem, one mountain ridge] more. Jacob promised Joseph that he would one day return to the land of Canaan. The promise was fulfilled after Joseph's death (50:24–26 ).

49:5–7 Simeon and Levi. This prophecy was fulfilled when the Israelites settled in the promised land. Simeon's allotment was scattered within the larger portion of the tribe of Judah, and Levi's allotment was scattered cities throughout the land (Jos 21 ).

49:10 scepter. With these words, Jacob predicted that a royal line would rise from Judah's descendants. Shiloh is an obscure word, probably meaning "the one to whom it belongs." In other words, Judah's descendants would be the rulers of Israel until the coming of "Shiloh," the One to whom all royal authority belongs. In this context, Shiloh, like "the Seed," is a reference to the coming Messiah.

49:11–12 wine . . . blood. The imagery in this verse describes the warfare that the Messiah will wage to establish His reign (Ps 2 ; 110 ; Rev 19:11–21 ).

49:24 Shepherd. The image of God as a shepherd occurs many times in Scripture. This term would have had great significance for a family of shepherds. God shepherded and cared for their families just as they shepherded and cared for their own flocks. God is the one Good Shepherd (Ps 23 ; Jn 10 ).

49:28 the . . . twelve tribes of Israel. Jacob's blessings are prophecies about the destiny of each tribe. Some of the blessings are obscure, but the blessings on Judah and Joseph are clear prophecies from God about their destinies (compare Moses' blessing of the tribes of Israel, Dt 33 ).

The Tribes of Israel

* Jacob's name was symbolically changed to Israel when he wrestled with the divine visitor at Peniel. As patriarch of the 12 tribes, he bequeathed his new name to the nation, which often was still poetically called "Jacob."

** Levi was not included among the tribes given land allotments following the conquest of Canaan (cf. Ge 49:7 and note). Instead, Moses set the Levites apart for national priestly duty as belonging to the Lord (Nu 3:1–4 ,49 ). Joshua awarded them 48 towns scattered throughout Israel (Jos 21:1–45 ).

*** Joseph became the father of two tribes in Israel since Jacob adopted his two sons Ephraim and Manasseh.

50:5–6 swear. Bound by an oath, Joseph requested leave to bury his father in Canaan in a sepulchre ready for his remains. It seems today that we do not take vows as seriously as Joseph took his promise to his father, and every thing from casual promises to solemn marriage vows are broken with little remorse. Honoring vows, both in small matters and significant, honors God because He asks us to reject “all falsehood [whether lying, defrauding, telling half-truths, spreading rumors, any such as these], speak truth each one” (Eph 4:25 ). Broken vows result in broken hearts and ruined relationships, blasted memories, ineffective lives and testimonies. Even a foolish or wrong vow cannot be lightly set aside, but must be repented of before God. We must learn to promise wisely, and honor our promises faithfully.

50:20 God meant it for good. God transformed the evil of a group of men into an exceedingly great work. Joseph not only saved the lives of numerous people in the ancient world, he also testified to the power and goodness of the living God.

50:24 to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. This phrase is the standard way of referring to God’s covenant with Abraham’s family (50:24 ; Ex 2:24 ; 3:16 ). The recital of the three names reaffirms the certainty of the promise and God’s commitment to fulfill it.

50:25 carry my bones. Hundreds of years later, Moses would keep the Israelites’ oath by taking Joseph’s bones with the people into the wilderness (Ex 13:19 ). Finally, Joshua would bury the bones of Joseph at Shechem (Jos 24:32 ).

The Second Book of Moses, Commonly Called

Exodus

► AUTHOR: Exodus has been attributed to Moses since the time of Joshua (cf. 20:25 ; Jos 8:30–32 ), and there is a great deal of both internal and external evidence that supports Moses as the author. The claims in Joshua are backed by similar testimony from Malachi (4:4 ), the disciples (Jn 1:45 ), Paul (Ro 10:5 ), and Christ (Mk 7:10 ; 12:26 ; Lk 20:37 ; Jn 5:46–47 ; 7:19 ,22–23 ). Portions of the book itself claim the authorship of Moses (ch. 15 ; 17:8–14 ; 20:1–17 ; 24:4 ,7 ,12 ; 31:18 ; 34:1–27 ). The author of Exodus must have been a man familiar with the customs and climate of Egypt. Its consistency of style points to a single author and its ancient literary devices support its antiquity.

► KEY VERSES: Ex 19:5–6

► THEME: The main character of Exodus is clearly Moses. God gives him the job of leading the exodus from Egypt. Moses also takes on the job of establishing, at God's direction, the essential elements of the Jewish patterns of life and worship. He is simultaneously God's designated representative of the people to God and God's messenger and representative to the people. The critical events in Exodus are the Passover and the giving of the Ten Commandments. The remainder of the Old Testament continually refers back to God's deliverance of Israel from Egypt and the law as delivered at Sinai. In these events God's identity and purpose are revealed. There are many signs and wonders of His power. Aspects of His nature and His expectations of the people also become increasingly clear.

Exodus 1

Israel Multiplies in Egypt

1 NOW THESE are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob; each came with his household: ‡

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;

4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 All the descendants of Jacob were seventy people; Joseph was [already] in Egypt. ‡

6 Then Joseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation, ‡

7 but the Israelites were prolific and increased greatly; they multiplied and became extremely strong, so that the land was filled with them. ‡

8 Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph [nor the history of his accomplishments].

9 He said to his people, “Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are too many and too mighty for us [they greatly outnumber us]. ‡

10 “Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, so that they will not multiply and in the event of war, join our enemies, and fight against us and escape from the land.” ‡

11 So they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with hard labor. And the sons of Israel built Pithom and Raamses as storage cities for Pharaoh. ‡

12 But the more the Egyptians oppressed them, the more they multiplied and expanded, so that the Egyptians dreaded and were exasperated by the Israelites.

13 And the Egyptians made the Israelites serve rigorously [forcing them into severe slavery].

14 They made their lives bitter with hard labor in mortar, brick, and all kinds of field work. All their labor was harsh and severe. ‡

15 Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah (beauty) and the other named Puah (splendor),

16 “When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a son, you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, she shall live.”

17 But the midwives feared God [with profound reverence] and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded, but they let the boy babies live. ‡

<sup>18</sup> So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this thing, and allowed the boy babies to live?”

<sup>21</sup> And because the midwives feared God [with profound reverence], He established families and households for them. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, “Every son who is born [to the Hebrews] must be thrown into the Nile, but every daughter you shall keep alive.” ‡

Exodus 2

The Birth of Moses

<sup>1</sup> NOW A man of the house of Levi [the priestly tribe] went and took as his wife a daughter of Levi. [Ex 6:18 , 20 ; Num 26:59] ‡

<sup>2</sup>. The woman conceived and gave birth to a son; and when she saw that he was [especially] beautiful and healthy, she hid him for three months [to protect him from the Egyptians]. [Acts 7:20; Heb 11:23] ‡

<sup>3</sup> When she could no longer hide him, she got him a basket (chest) made of papyrus reeds and covered it with tar and pitch [making it waterproof]. Then she put the child in it and set it among the reeds by the bank of the Nile.

<sup>8</sup> And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Go ahead .” So the girl went and called the child’s mother.

<sup>9</sup> Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him.

<sup>10</sup> And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. And she named him Moses, and said, "Because I drew him out of the water." ‡

<sup>12</sup> He turned to look around, and seeing no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. ‡

<sup>13</sup> He went out the next day and saw two Hebrew men fighting with each other; and he said to the aggressor, "Why are you striking your friend?" ‡

<sup>14</sup> But the man said, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid and said, "Certainly this incident is known." ‡

Moses Escapes to Midian

<sup>17</sup> Then shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and helped them and watered their flock. ‡

<sup>18</sup> When they came to Reuel (Jethro) their father, he said, "How is it that you have come back so soon today?" ‡

<sup>22</sup> She gave birth to a son, and he named him Gershom (stranger); for he said, "I have been a stranger in a foreign land." ‡

23 Now it happened after a long time [about forty years] that the king of Egypt died. And the children of Israel (Jacob) groaned and sighed because of the bondage, and they cried out. And their cry for help because of their bondage ascended to God. ‡

24 So God heard their groaning and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Israel).  [Gen 12:1–3; 15:18–21; 17:3–8, 21; 35:10–12.] ‡

25 God saw the sons of Israel, and God took notice [of them] and was concerned about them [knowing all, understanding all, remembering all].  [Ps 56:8, 9; 139:2.] ‡

Exodus 3

The Burning Bush

1 NOW MOSES was keeping the flock of Jethro (Reuel) his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb (Sinai), the mountain of God. ‡

2 The Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a blazing flame of fire from the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush was on fire, yet it was not consumed. ‡

3 So Moses said, “I must turn away [from the flock] and see this great sight —why the bush is not burned up.” ‡

4 When the LORD saw that he turned away [from the flock] to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” ‡

5 Then God said, “Do not come near; take your sandals off your feet [out of respect], because the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” ‡

6 Then He said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” Then Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God. ‡

7 The LORD said, “I have in fact seen the affliction (suffering, desolation) of My people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters (oppressors); for I know their pain and suffering. ‡

8 “So I have come down to rescue them from the hand (power) of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a land [that is] good and spacious, to a land flowing with milk and honey [a land of plenty]—to the place of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Now, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me; and I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. ‡

The Mission of Moses

<sup>10</sup> “Therefore, come now, and I will send you to Pharaoh, and then bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> But Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?” ‡

<sup>12</sup> And God said, “Certainly I will be with you, and this shall be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve and worship God at this mountain.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses said to God, “Behold, when I come to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers (ancestors) has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His name?’ What shall I say to them?”

<sup>14</sup> God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM”; and He said, “You shall say this to the Israelites, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’ ” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then God also said to Moses, “This is what you shall say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob (Israel), has sent me to you.’ This is My Name forever, and this is My memorial [name] to all generations. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Go, gather the elders (tribal leaders) of Israel together, and say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared to me, saying, ‘I am indeed concerned about you and what has been done to you in Egypt. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “So I said I will bring you up out of the suffering and oppression of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.” ’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> “The elders [of the tribes] will listen and pay attention to what you say; and you, with the elders of Israel, shall go to the king of Egypt and you shall say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us; so now, please, [we ask and plead with you,] let us go on a three days’ journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’ ‡

<sup>19</sup> “But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless [he is forced] by a strong hand. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “So I will reach out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I shall do in the midst of it; and after that he will let you go.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> “And I will grant this people favor and respect in the sight of the Egyptians; therefore, it shall be that when you go, you will not go empty-handed.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> “But every woman shall [insistently] ask her neighbor and any woman who lives in her house, for articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons and daughters. In this way you are to plunder the Egyptians [leaving bondage with great possessions that are rightfully yours].”  [Gen 15:14] ‡

Exodus 4

Moses Given Powers

<sup>1</sup> THEN MOSES answered [the LORD] and said, “What if they will not believe me or take seriously what I say? For they may say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’ ”

<sup>2</sup> And the LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?” And he said, “A staff.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then He said, “Throw it on the ground.” So Moses threw it on the ground, and it became a [living] serpent [like the royal symbol on the crown of Pharaoh]; and Moses ran from it.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out your hand and grasp it by the tail.” So he reached out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand—

<sup>5</sup> [“You shall do this,” said the LORD,] “so that the elders may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has [most certainly] appeared to you.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> The LORD also said to him, “Put your hand into your robe [where it covers your chest].” So he put his hand into his robe, and when he took it out, his hand was leprous, as white as snow. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then God said, “Put your hand into your robe again.” So he put his hand back into his robe, and when he took it out, it was restored [and was] like the rest of his body. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “If they will not believe you or pay attention to the evidence of the first sign, they may believe the evidence of the second sign.

<sup>9</sup> “But if they will not believe these two signs or pay attention to what you say, you are to take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water which you take out of the river will turn into blood on the dry ground.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Moses said to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I am not a man of words (eloquent, fluent), neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant; for I am slow of speech and tongue.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to him, “Who has made man’s mouth? Or who makes the mute or the deaf, or the seeing or the blind? Is it not I, the LORD?” ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Now then go, and I, even I, will be with your mouth, and will teach you what you shall say.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> But he said, “Please my Lord, send the message [of rescue to Israel] by [someone else,] whomever else You will [choose].” ‡

Aaron to Speak for Moses

<sup>14</sup> Then the anger of the LORD was kindled and burned against Moses; He said, “Is there not your brother, Aaron the Levite? I know that he speaks fluently. Also, he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you, he will be overjoyed.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> “You must speak to him and put the words in his mouth; I, even I, will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you are to do.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Moreover, he shall speak for you to the people; he will act as a mouthpiece for you, and you will be as God to him [telling him what I say to you].” ‡

<sup>17</sup> “You shall take in your hand this staff, with which you shall perform the signs [the miracles which prove I sent you].” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Moses went away and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please, let me go back so that I may return to my relatives in Egypt, and see if they are still alive.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>21</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders (miracles) which I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart and make him stubborn so that he will not let the people go. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Then you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Israel is My son, My firstborn. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “So I say to you, ‘Let My son go so that he may serve Me’; and if you refuse to let him go, behold, I will kill your son, your firstborn.” , ” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Zipporah took a flint knife and cut off the foreskin of her son and threw it at Moses’ feet, and said, “Indeed you are a husband of blood to me!” ‡

<sup>26</sup> So He let Moses alone [to recover]. At that time Zipporah said, “ You are a husband of blood”—because of the circumcision.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.” So he went and met him at the mountain of God (Sinai) and kissed him. ‡

<sup>28</sup> Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which He had sent him, and all the signs that He had commanded him to do. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went [into Egypt] and assembled all the elders of the Israelites; ‡

<sup>30</sup> and Aaron said all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. Then Moses performed the signs [given to him by God] before the people. ‡

<sup>31</sup> So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD was concerned about the Israelites and that He had looked [with compassion] on their suffering, then they bowed their heads and worshiped [the LORD]. ‡

Israel’s Labor Increased

<sup>1</sup> AFTERWARD MOSES and Aaron came and said to Pharaoh, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Let My people go, so that they may celebrate a feast to Me in the wilderness.’ ” ‡

<sup>2</sup> But Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, nor will I let Israel go.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go on a three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God, so that He does not discipline us with pestilence or with the sword.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> “You will no longer give the people straw to make brick as before; let them go and gather straw for themselves.

<sup>8</sup> “But the number of bricks which they were making before, you shall [still] require of them; you are not to reduce it in the least. For they are idle and lazy; that is why they cry, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’”

<sup>9</sup> “Let labor be heavier on the men, and let them work [hard] at it so that they will pay no attention to [their God’s] lying words.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the [Egyptian] taskmasters [in charge] of the people and their [Hebrew] foremen went out and said to the people, “Thus says Pharaoh, ‘I will not give you any straw.

<sup>11</sup> ‘Go, get straw for yourselves wherever you can find it, but your work [quota] will not be reduced in the least.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> So the people were scattered throughout the land of Egypt to gather stubble to use for straw.

<sup>13</sup> And the taskmasters pressured them, saying, “Finish your work, [fulfill] your daily quotas, just as when there was straw [given to you].”

<sup>14</sup> And the Hebrew foremen, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and were asked, “Why have you not fulfilled your required quota of making bricks yesterday and today, as before?”

<sup>15</sup> Then the Hebrew foremen came to Pharaoh and cried, “Why do you deal like this with your servants?

<sup>16</sup> “No straw is given to your servants, yet they say to us, ‘Make bricks!’ And look, your servants are being beaten, but it is the fault of your own people.”

<sup>17</sup> But Pharaoh said, “You are lazy, very lazy and idle! That is why you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’”

<sup>18</sup> “Get out now and get to work; for no straw will be given to you, yet you are to deliver the same quota of bricks.”

<sup>19</sup> The Hebrew foremen saw that they were in a bad situation because they were told, “You must not reduce [in the least] your daily quota of bricks.”

<sup>21</sup> And the foremen said to them, "May the LORD look upon you and judge you, because you have made us odious (something hated) in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants, and you have put a sword in their hand to kill us." ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses turned again to the LORD and said, "O Lord, why have You brought harm and oppression to this people? Why did You ever send me? [I cannot understand Your purpose!]

<sup>23</sup> "Ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has harmed and oppressed this people, and You have done nothing at all to rescue Your people."

Exodus 6

God Promises Action

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh; for under compulsion he will [not only] let them go, but under compulsion he will drive them out of his land." ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then God spoke further to Moses and said to him, "I am the LORD.  [Ex 3:14 ]

<sup>3</sup> "I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob (Israel) as God Almighty [El Shaddai], but by My name, LORD, I did not make Myself known to them [in acts and great miracles].  [Gen 17:1 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> "I also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they lived as strangers (temporary residents, foreigners).  [Gen 12:1–3 ; 13:14–17 ; 15:18–21 ; 17:19 ; 26:3 , 4 ; 28:13 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> "And I have also heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians have enslaved, and I have [faithfully] remembered My covenant [with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> "Therefore, say to the children of Israel, 'I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will free you from their bondage. I will redeem and rescue you with an outstretched (vigorous, powerful) arm and with great acts of judgment [against Egypt].' ‡

<sup>7</sup> 'Then I will take you for My people, and I will be your God; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who redeemed you and brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘I will bring you to the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Israel); and I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD [you have the promise of My changeless omnipotence and faithfulness].’ ” ‡

<sup>12</sup> But Moses said to the LORD, “Look, [my own people] the Israelites have not listened to me; so how then will Pharaoh listen to me, for I am unskilled and inept in speech?” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them a command concerning the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

The Heads of Israel

<sup>28</sup> Now it happened on the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

<sup>29</sup> that He said, "I am the LORD; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything that I say to you."‡

<sup>30</sup> But Moses said before the LORD, "Look, I am unskilled and inept in speech; how then will Pharaoh listen to me and pay attention to what I say?"‡

Exodus 7

"I Will Stretch Out My Hand"

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, "Now hear this: I make you as God to Pharaoh [to declare My will and purpose to him]; and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet.‡

<sup>3</sup>- "And I will make Pharaoh's heart hard, and multiply My signs and My wonders (miracles) in the land of Egypt.‡

<sup>4</sup> "But Pharaoh will not listen to you, and I shall lay My hand on Egypt and bring out My hosts [like a defensive army, tribe by tribe], My people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment (the plagues).‡

<sup>6</sup> And Moses and Aaron did so; just as the LORD commanded them, so they did.‡

<sup>7</sup> Now Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.‡

Aaron's Rod Becomes a Serpent

<sup>8</sup> Now the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

<sup>9</sup> “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Work a miracle [to prove your authority],’ then you say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh, so that it may become a serpent.’ ” ‡

<sup>12</sup> For every man threw down his staff and they turned into serpents; but Aaron’s staff swallowed up their staffs.

<sup>13</sup> Yet Pharaoh’s heart was hardened and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Water Is Turned to Blood

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is hard; he refuses to let the people go. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he is going out to the water, and wait for him on the bank of the Nile; and you shall take in your hand the staff that was turned into a serpent. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “You shall say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me in the wilderness. But behold, you have not listened until now.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘Thus says the LORD, “By this you shall know and recognize and acknowledge that I am the LORD: look, with the staff in my hand I will strike the water in the Nile, and it shall be turned to blood. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “The fish in the Nile will die, and the Nile will become foul, and the Egyptians will not be able to drink water from the Nile.” ’ ” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, over their pools, and over all their reservoirs of water, so that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, in containers both of wood and of stone.’ ” ‡

<sup>21</sup> The fish in the Nile died, and the river became foul smelling, and the Egyptians could not drink its water, and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their secret arts and enchantments; so Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not take even this [divine sign] to heart.

<sup>24</sup> So all the Egyptians dug near the river for water to drink, because they could not drink the water of the Nile.

Exodus 8

Frogs over the Land

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> “However, if you refuse to let them go, hear this: I am going to strike your entire land with frogs. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “The Nile will swarm with frogs, which will come up and go into your home, into your bedroom and on to your bed, and into the houses of your servants and on your people, and into your ovens and your kneading bowls. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “So the frogs will come up on you and on your people and all your servants.” ’ ”

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the streams and canals, over the pools [among the reeds], and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’ ” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Plead with the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and my people; and I will let the people go, so that they may sacrifice to the LORD.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> And Moses said to Pharaoh, “I am entirely at your service: when shall I plead [with the Lord] for you and your servants and your people, so that the frogs may leave you and your houses and remain only in the Nile?”

<sup>10</sup> Then Pharaoh said, “Tomorrow.” Moses replied, “May it be as you say, so that you may know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that there is no one like the LORD our God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> The LORD did as Moses asked, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards and villages, and out of the fields.

<sup>14</sup> So they piled them up in heaps, and the land was detestable and stank.

<sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that there was [temporary] relief, he hardened his heart and would not listen or pay attention to them, just as the LORD had said. ‡

The Plagues of Gnats and Insects

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground, and it will become [biting] gnats (lice) throughout the land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> The magicians (soothsayer-priests) tried by their secret arts and enchantments to create gnats, but they could not; and there were gnats on man and animal. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the [supernatural] finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart was hardened and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Now the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he is coming out to the water [of the Nile], and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “For if you do not let My people go, hear this: I will send swarms of [bloodsucking] insects on you and on your servants and on your people and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of insects, as well as the ground on which they stand.

<sup>22</sup> “But on that day I will separate and set apart the land of Goshen, where My people are living, so that no swarms of insects will be there, so that you may know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that I, the LORD, am in the midst of the earth.”‡

<sup>23</sup> “I will put a division (distinction) between My people and your people. By tomorrow this sign shall be in evidence.”’”

<sup>24</sup> Then the LORD did so. And there came heavy and oppressive swarms of [bloodsucking] insects into the house of Pharaoh and his servants’ houses; in all the land of Egypt the land was corrupted and ruined because of the [great invasion of] insects.‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God [here] in the land [of Egypt].”

<sup>26</sup> But Moses said, “It is not right [or even possible] to do that, for we will sacrifice to the LORD our God what is repulsive and unacceptable to the Egyptians [that is, animals that the Egyptians consider sacred]. If we sacrifice what is repulsive and unacceptable to the Egyptians, will they not riot and stone us?‡

<sup>27</sup> “We must go a three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He commands us.”‡

<sup>28</sup> So Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, so that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Plead [with your God] for me.”‡

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, “I am going to leave you, and I will urgently petition (pray, entreat) the LORD that the swarms of insects may leave Pharaoh, his servants, and his people tomorrow; only do not let Pharaoh act deceitfully again by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”‡

<sup>32</sup> But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he did not let the people go.‡

Exodus 9

Egyptian Cattle Die

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.”’‡

<sup>4</sup> “But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing that belongs to the Israelites will die.” ’ ”‡

<sup>5</sup> The LORD set a [definite] time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.”

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD did this thing the next day, and all [kinds of] the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the Israelites, not one died.‡

<sup>7</sup> Then Pharaoh sent [men to investigate], and not even one of the livestock of the Israelites had died. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened [and his mind was firmly set], and he did not let the people go.‡

The Plague of Boils

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of soot from the brick kiln, and let Moses throw it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup> “It will become fine dust over the entire land of Egypt, and it will become boils breaking out in sores on man and animal in all the land [occupied by the Egyptians].”‡

<sup>12</sup> But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not listen or pay attention to them, just as the LORD had told Moses.‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.”’‡

<sup>14</sup> “For this time I will send all My plagues on you [in full force,] and on your servants and on your people, so that you may know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that there is no one like Me in all the earth. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “For by now I could have put out My hand and struck you and your people with a pestilence, and you would then have been cut off (obliterated) from the earth. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “But indeed for this very reason I have allowed you to live, in order to show you My power and in order that My name may be proclaimed throughout all the earth. [Rom 9:17–24] ‡

The Plague of Hail

<sup>17</sup> “Since you are still [arrogantly] exalting yourself [in defiance] against My people by not letting them go,

<sup>18</sup> hear this: tomorrow about this time I will send a very heavy and dreadful hail, such as has not been seen in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.

<sup>19</sup> “Now therefore send [a message], bring your livestock and whatever you have in the field to safety. Every man and animal that is in the field and is not brought home shall be struck by the hail and shall die.” ’ ”

<sup>20</sup> Then everyone among the servants of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD made his servants and his livestock flee into the houses and shelters;

<sup>21</sup> but everyone who ignored and did not take seriously the word of the LORD left his servants and his livestock in the field.

<sup>22</sup> Now the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand [with your staff] toward the sky, so that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man and on animal and on all the vegetation of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and lightning (fireballs) ran down to the earth and along the ground. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt. ‡

<sup>24</sup> So there was hail, and lightning (fireballs) flashing intermittently in the midst of the extremely heavy hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

<sup>25</sup> The hail struck down everything that was in the field throughout all the land of Egypt, both man and animal; the hail struck and beat down all the plants in the field and shattered every tree in the field.‡

<sup>27</sup> Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time; the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.‡

<sup>28</sup> “Pray and entreat the LORD, for there has been enough of God’s thunder and hail; I will let you go, and you shall stay here no longer.”‡

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, “As soon as I leave the city, I will stretch out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease and there will be no more hail, so that you may know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that the earth is the LORD’s.‡

<sup>30</sup> “But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God.”‡

<sup>31</sup> (Now the flax and the barley were battered and ruined [by the hail], because the barley was in the ear (ripe, but soft) and the flax was in bud,‡

<sup>32</sup> but the wheat and spelt (coarse wheat) were not battered and ruined, because they ripen late in the season.)

<sup>34</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, he sinned again and hardened his heart, both he and his servants.

<sup>35</sup> Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had said through Moses. [Ex 4:21]‡

Exodus 10

The Plague of Locusts

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants [making them determined and unresponsive], so that I may exhibit My signs [of divine power] among them,‡

<sup>2</sup> and that you may recount and explain in the hearing of your son, and your grandson, what I have done [repeatedly] to make a mockery of the Egyptians —My signs [of divine power] which I have done among them—so that you may know [without any doubt] and recognize [clearly] that I am the LORD.”‡

3-So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.’ ‡

4 ‘For if you refuse to let My people go, then hear this: tomorrow I will bring [migratory] locusts into your country.’ ‡

5 ‘They shall cover the [visible] surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the ground, and they will eat the rest of what has remained—that is, the vegetation left after the hail—and they will eat every one of your trees that grows in the field; ‡

6 your houses and those of all your servants and of all the Egyptians shall be filled with locusts, as neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen, from their birth until this day.’ ” Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

7 Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long shall this man be a trap to us? Let the men go, so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not realize that Egypt is destroyed?” ‡

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God! Who specifically are the ones that are going?”

9 Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old, with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds [all of us and all that we have], for we must hold a feast to the LORD.” ‡

10 Pharaoh said to them, “The LORD be with you [to help you], if I ever let you go with your children [because you will never return]! Look [be forewarned], you have an evil plan in mind.

11 “No! Go now, you who are men, [without your families] and serve the LORD, if that is what you want.” So Moses and Aaron were driven from Pharaoh’s presence.

12-Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, so that they may come up on the land of Egypt and eat all the plants of the land, all that the hail has left.” ‡

13 So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night; when it was morning, the east wind had brought the [swarms of] locusts.

14 The locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled down in the whole territory, a very dreadful mass of them; never before were there such locusts as these, nor will there ever be again. ‡

15 For they covered the [visible] surface of the land, so that the ground was darkened; and they ate every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained not a green thing on the trees or the plants of the field throughout all the land of Egypt. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then Pharaoh hurried to call for Moses and Aaron, and he said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once [more], and pray and entreat the LORD your God, so that He will remove this [plague of] death from me.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> So the LORD shifted the wind to a violent west wind which lifted up the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not one locust remained within the border of Egypt. ‡

<sup>20</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart [so that it was even more resolved and obstinate], and he did not let the Israelites go. ‡

Darkness over the Land

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward the sky, so that darkness may come over the land of Egypt, a darkness which [is so awful that it] may be felt.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and for three days a thick darkness was all over the land of Egypt [no sun, no moon, no stars]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> The Egyptians could not see one another, nor did anyone leave his place for three days, but all the Israelites had [supernatural] light in their dwellings. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, “Go, serve the LORD; only your flocks and your herds must be left behind. Even your children may go with you.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> But Moses said, “You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we may sacrifice them to the LORD our God.

<sup>26</sup> “Therefore, our livestock must also go with us; not one hoof shall be left behind, for we must take some of them to serve the LORD our God. Even we do not know with what we will serve the LORD until we arrive there.”

<sup>27</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was not willing to let them go. ‡

<sup>28</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Moses, “Get away from me! See that you never enter my presence again, for on the day that you see my face again you will die!”

<sup>29</sup> Then Moses said, “You are correct; I will never see your face again!” ‡

Exodus 11

The Last Plague

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, “I will bring yet one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you go. When he lets you go, he will most certainly drive you out of here completely.”‡

<sup>2</sup> “Speak so that all of the people [of Israel] may hear, and tell every man to ask from his neighbor, and every woman to ask from her neighbor, articles of silver, and articles of gold.”‡

<sup>4</sup> Then Moses said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘At midnight I am going out into the midst of Egypt,‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘There shall be a great cry [of heartache and sorrow] throughout the land of Egypt, such as has never been before and such as shall never be again.‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘But not even a dog will threaten any of the Israelites, whether man or animal, so that you may know [without any doubt] and acknowledge how the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.’‡

<sup>8</sup> “All these servants of yours will come down to me and bow down before me, saying, ‘Get out, you and all the people who follow you.’ After that I will leave.” And he left Pharaoh in the heat of anger.‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My wonders (miracles) may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”‡

Exodus 12

The Passover Lamb

1 THE LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, Hebrew Calendar and Selected Events

2 “This month shall be the beginning of months to you; it is to be the first month of the year to you. ‡

3 “Tell all the congregation of Israel, ‘On the tenth [day] of this month they are to take a lamb or young goat for themselves, according to [the size of] the household of which he is the father, a lamb or young goat for each household.

4 ‘Now if the household is too small for a lamb [to be consumed], let him and his next door neighbor take one according to the number of people [in the households]; according to what each man can eat, you are to divide the lamb.

5 ‘Your lamb or young goat shall be [perfect] without blemish or bodily defect, a male a year old; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.  [1 Pet 1:19 , 20 ] ‡

6 ‘You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month, then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel is to slaughter it at twilight. ‡

7 ‘Moreover, they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel [above the door] of the houses in which they eat it.  [Matt 26:28 ; John 1:29 ; Heb 9:14 ]

8 ‘They shall eat the meat that same night, roasted in fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ‡

9 ‘Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted in fire—both its head and its legs, along with its inner parts. ‡

10 ‘You shall let none of the meat remain until the morning, and anything that remains left over until morning, you shall burn completely in the fire. ‡

11 ‘Now you are to eat it in this manner: [be prepared for a journey] with your loins girded [that is, with the outer garment tucked into the band], your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; you shall eat it quickly—it is the LORD’s Passover. ‡

12 ‘For I [the LORD] will pass through the land of Egypt on this night, and will strike down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal; against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments [exhibiting their worthlessness]. I am the LORD. ‡

13 ‘The blood shall be a sign for you on [the doorposts of] the houses where you live; when I see the blood I shall pass over you, and no affliction shall happen to you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.  [1 Cor 5:7 ; Heb 11:28 ]

Feast of Unleavened Bread

<sup>14</sup> ‘Now this day will be a memorial to you, and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations you are to celebrate it as an ordinance forever. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘[In the celebration of the Passover in future years,] seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, but on the first day you shall remove the leaven from your houses [because it represents the spread of sin]; for whoever eats leavened bread on the first day through the seventh day, that person shall be cut off and excluded from [the atonement made for] Israel. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘On the first day [of the feast] you shall have a holy and solemn assembly, and on the seventh day there shall be another holy and solemn assembly; no work of any kind shall be done on those days, except for the preparation of food which every person must eat—only that may be done by you. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘You shall also observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because on this very day I brought your hosts [grouped according to tribal armies] out of the land of Egypt; therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an ordinance forever. ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, [and continue] until the twenty-first day of the month at evening. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘Seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses; whoever eats what is leavened shall be cut off and excluded from [the atonement made for] the congregation of Israel, whether a stranger or native-born.  [1 Cor 5:6–8 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go and take a lamb for yourselves according to [the size of] your families and slaughter the Passover lamb. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “You shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood which is in the basin, and touch some of the blood to the lintel [above the doorway] and to the two doorposts; and none of you shall go outside the door of his house until morning. ‡

A Memorial of Redemption

<sup>23</sup> “For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel [above the entry way] and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to slay you. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “You shall observe this event [concerning Passover] as an ordinance for you and for your children forever.

<sup>25</sup> “When you enter the land which the LORD will give you, as He has promised, you shall keep and observe this service. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “When your children say to you, ‘What does this service mean to you?’ ‡

<sup>27</sup> you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD’s Passover, for He passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians, but spared our houses.’ ” And the people bowed [their heads] low and worshiped [God]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> Then the Israelites went and did [as they had been told]: just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Pharaoh got up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry [of heartache and sorrow] in Egypt, for there was no house where there was not someone dead. ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then he called for Moses and Aaron at night and said, “Get up, get out from among my people, both you and the Israelites; and go, serve the LORD, as you said. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go, and [ask your God to] bless me also.” ‡

Exodus of Israel

<sup>33</sup> The Egyptians [anxiously] urged the people [to leave], to send them out of the land quickly, for they said, “We will all be dead.” ‡

<sup>35</sup> Now the Israelites had acted in accordance with the word of Moses; and they had asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing. ‡

<sup>36</sup> The LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they gave them what they asked. And so they plundered the Egyptians [of those things]. ‡

37 Now the Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides [the women and] the children. ‡

38 A mixed multitude [of non-Israelites from foreign nations] also went with them, along with both flocks and herds, a very large number of livestock.  [Num 11:4; Deut 29:11 ]

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought from Egypt; it was not leavened, since they were driven [quickly] from Egypt and could not delay, nor had they prepared any food for themselves. ‡

40 Now the period of time the children of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.  [Gen 15:13, 14] ‡

41 At the end of the four hundred and thirty years, to that very day, all the hosts of the LORD [gathered into tribal armies] left the land of Egypt. ‡

Ordinance of the Passover

42 It is a night of watching to be observed for the LORD for having brought them out of the land of Egypt; this [same] night is for the LORD, to be observed and celebrated by all the Israelites throughout their generations. ‡

43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “This is the ordinance of the Passover: no foreigner is to eat it; ‡

44 but every man’s slave who is bought with money, after you have circumcised him, then he may eat it. ‡

45 “No stranger (temporary resident, foreigner) or hired servant shall eat it. ‡

46 “It is to be eaten inside one house; you shall not take any of the meat outside the house, nor shall you break any of its bones.  [John 19:33, 36] ‡

47 “The entire congregation of Israel shall keep and celebrate it. ‡

48 “If a stranger living temporarily among you wishes to celebrate the Passover to the LORD, all his males must be circumcised, and then he may participate and celebrate it like one that is born in the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat it. ‡

49 “The same law shall apply to the native-born and to the stranger who lives temporarily among you.” ‡

50 Then all the Israelites did so; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

51 And on that very same day the LORD brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt by their hosts (tribal armies). ‡

Exodus 13

Consecration of the Firstborn

1 THE LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Sanctify to Me [that is, set apart for My purpose] every firstborn, the first offspring of every womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of animal; it is Mine.” ‡

3 Moses said to the people, “Remember [solemnly observe and commemorate] this day on which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage and slavery; for by a strong and powerful hand the LORD brought you out of this place. And nothing leavened shall be eaten. ‡

4 “On this day in the month Abib, you are about to go onward. ‡

5 “And it shall be when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land [of abundance] flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep and observe this rite (service) in this month. ‡

6 “For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD. ‡

7 “Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; no leavened bread shall be seen with you, nor shall there be leaven within the borders of your territory. ‡

8 “You shall explain this to your son on that day, saying, ‘It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’ ‡

9 “It shall serve as a sign to you on your hand (arm), and as a reminder on your forehead, so that the instruction (law) of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with a strong and powerful hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt. ‡

10 “Therefore, you shall keep this ordinance at this time from year to year. ‡

11 “Now it shall be when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanite, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you,

12 you shall set apart and dedicate to the LORD all that first opens the womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock shall be the LORD’s. ‡

13 “Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem by [substituting] a lamb [as a sacrifice for it], but if you do not [wish to] redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and every firstborn among your sons you shall redeem [that is, “buy back” from God with a suitable sacrifice]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “And it shall be when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What does this mean?’ you shall say to him, ‘With a strong and powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of bondage and slavery.’ ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘For it happened, when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, that the LORD struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of animal. Therefore, I sacrifice to the LORD all the males, the first [to be born] of every womb, but every firstborn of my sons I redeem.’ ‡

<sup>16</sup> “So it shall serve as a sign and a reminder on your [left] hand (arm) and as frontlets between your eyes, for by a strong and powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.” ‡

God Leads the People

<sup>17</sup> So it happened, when Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, even though it was nearer; for God said, “The people might change their minds when they see war [that is, that there will be war], and return to Egypt.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> The [presence of the] LORD was going before them by day in a pillar (column) of cloud to lead them along the way, and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light, so that they could travel by day and by night. ‡

<sup>22</sup> He did not withdraw the pillar of cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from going before the people.

Exodus 14

Pharaoh in Pursuit

<sup>3</sup> “For Pharaoh will say of the Israelites, ‘They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.’” ‡

<sup>4</sup> “I will harden (make stubborn, defiant) Pharaoh’s heart, so that he will pursue them; and I will be glorified and honored through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians shall know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that I am the LORD.” And they did so. ‡

<sup>5</sup> When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people, and they said, “What is this that we have done? We have let Israel go from serving us!” ‡

<sup>7</sup> and he took six hundred chosen war-chariots, and all the other war-chariots of Egypt with fighting charioteers over all of them. ‡

<sup>10</sup> As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians marching after them, and they were very frightened; so the Israelites cried out to the LORD. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then they said to Moses, “Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What is this that you have done to us by bringing us out of Egypt?” ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Did we not say to you in Egypt, ‘Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians?’ For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians [as slaves] than to die in the wilderness.” ‡

The Sea Is Divided

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid! Take your stand [be firm and confident and undismayed] and see the salvation of the LORD which He will accomplish for you today; for those Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see again. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “The LORD will fight for you while you [only need to] keep silent and remain calm.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to move forward [toward the sea].

<sup>16</sup> “As for you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, so that the sons of Israel may go through the middle of the sea on dry land. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “As for Me, hear this: I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they will go in [the sea] after them; and I will be glorified and honored through Pharaoh and all his army, and his war-chariots and his horsemen. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “And the Egyptians shall know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that I am the LORD, when I am glorified and honored through Pharaoh, through his war-chariots and his charioteers.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. It was a cloud along with darkness [even by day to the Egyptians], but it gave light by night [to the Israelites]; so one [army] did not come near the other all night. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD swept the sea back by a strong east wind all that night and turned the seabed into dry land, and the waters were divided. ‡

<sup>25</sup> He made their chariot wheels hard to turn, and the chariots difficult to drive; so the Egyptians said, “Let us flee from Israel, for the LORD is fighting for them against the Egyptians.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, on their war-chariots and their charioteers.”

<sup>27</sup> So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal flow at sunrise; and the Egyptians retreated right into it [being met by the returning water]; so the LORD overthrew the Egyptians and tossed them into the midst of the sea. ‡

<sup>30</sup> The LORD saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians [lying] dead on the seashore. ‡

<sup>31</sup> When Israel saw the great power which the LORD had used against the Egyptians, they feared the LORD [with reverence and awe-filled respect], and they believed in the LORD, and in His servant Moses. ‡

Exodus 15

The Song of Moses and Israel

<sup>1</sup> THEN MOSES and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, singing, ‡

“I will sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously;
The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea.

<sup>2</sup> “The LORD is my strength and my song, ‡
And He has become my salvation;
This is my God, and I will praise Him;
My father’s God, and I will exalt Him.

<sup>3</sup> “The LORD is a warrior; ‡
The LORD is His name.

‡

His chosen captains are drowned in the Red Sea.

<sup>5</sup> “The deep [water] covers them; ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Your right hand, O LORD, is glorious in power; ‡
Your right hand, O LORD, shatters the enemy.

annihilate those [adversaries] who rise [in rebellion]

against You; ‡

You send out Your fury, and it consumes them like chaff.

<sup>8</sup> “With the blast of Your nostrils the waters piled up, ‡

The flowing waters stood up like a mound;

The deeps were congealed in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup> “The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; ‡

My desire shall be satisfied against them;

I will draw my sword, my hand shall dispossess them and drive them out.’

<sup>10</sup> “You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them; ‡

[Clad in armor] they sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>11</sup> “Who is like You among the gods, O LORD? ‡

Who is like You, majestic in holiness,

Awesome in splendor, working wonders?

The sea swallowed them.

<sup>13</sup> “You in Your lovingkindness and goodness have led the people whom You have redeemed; ‡

In Your strength You have guided them with care to Your holy habitation.

<sup>14</sup> “The peoples have heard [about You], they tremble; ‡

Anguish and fear has gripped the inhabitants of Philistia.

horrified; ‡

The [mighty] leaders of Moab, trembling grips them;

All the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away [in despair]

<sup>16</sup> Terror and dread fall on them; ‡

Because of the greatness of Your arm they are as still as a stone;

Until Your people pass by and [into Canaan], O LORD,

Until the people pass by whom You have purchased.

<sup>17</sup> “You will bring them [into the land of promise] and plant them on the mountain (Mt. Moriah in Jerusalem) of Your inheritance, ‡

The place, O LORD, You have made for Your dwelling
[among them],

The sanctuary, O Lord, which Your hands have established.
18 “The LORD shall reign to eternity and beyond.” ‡

19 For the horses of Pharaoh went with his war-chariots and his charioteers into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea on them, but the sons of Israel walked on dry land in the middle of the sea. ‡

20 Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron [and Moses], took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women followed her with timbrels and dancing.  [Mic 6:4.] ‡

21 Miriam answered them, ‡

“Sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously and is highly exalted;
The horse and its rider He has hurled into the sea.”

The LORD Provides Water

22 Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea, and they went into the Wilderness of Shur; they went [a distance of] three days (about thirty-three miles) in the wilderness and found no water. ‡

23 Then they came to Marah, but they could not drink its waters because they were bitter; therefore it was named Marah (bitter). ‡

24 The people [grew discontented and] grumbled at Moses, saying, “What are we going to drink?” ‡

25 Then he cried to the LORD [for help], and the LORD showed him a tree, [a branch of] which he threw into the waters, and the waters became sweet. ‡

There the LORD made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there He tested them,

26 saying, “If you will diligently listen and pay attention to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in His sight, and listen to His commandments, and keep [foremost in your thoughts and actively obey] all His precepts and statutes, then I will not put on you any of the diseases which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am the LORD who heals you.” ‡

27 Then the children of Israel came to Elim where there were twelve springs of water and seventy date palms, and they camped there beside the waters. ‡

Exodus 16

The LORD Provides Manna

<sup>3</sup> and the Israelites said to them, “Would that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat and ate bread until we were full; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this entire assembly with hunger.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will cause bread to rain from heaven for you; the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, so that I may test them [to determine] whether or not they will walk [obediently] in My instruction (law). ‡

<sup>5</sup> “And it shall be that on the sixth day, they shall prepare to bring in twice as much as they gather daily [so that they will not need to gather on the seventh day].” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So Moses and Aaron said to all Israel, “At evening you shall know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt, ‡

<sup>7</sup> and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, for He hears your murmurings against the LORD. What are we, that you murmur and rebel against us?” ‡

The LORD Provides Meat

<sup>8</sup> Moses said, “This will happen when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning [enough] bread to be fully satisfied, because the LORD has heard your murmurings against Him; for what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of Israel, ‘Approach the LORD, because He has heard your murmurings.’ ” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>12</sup> “I have heard the murmurings of the Israelites; speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So in the evening the quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a blanket of dew around the camp. ‡

<sup>14</sup> When the layer of dew evaporated, on the surface of the wilderness there was a fine, flake-like thing, as fine as frost on the ground. ‡

<sup>15</sup> When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.  [John 6:31, 33 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Let every man gather as much of it as he needs. Take an omer for each person, according to the number of people each of you has in his tent.’” ‡

<sup>20</sup> But they did not listen to Moses, and some left a supply of it until morning, and it bred worms and became foul and rotten; and Moses was angry with them.

<sup>21</sup> So they gathered it every morning, each as much as he needed, because when the sun was hot it melted.

The Sabbath Observed

<sup>22</sup> Now on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each person; and all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses.

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Tomorrow is a solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD’; bake and boil what you will bake and boil [today], and all that remains left over put aside for yourselves to keep until morning.” ‡ today you will not find it in the field.

<sup>24</sup> They put it aside until morning, as Moses told them, and it did not become foul nor was it wormy. ‡

26“Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none [in the field].” ‡

27 Now on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, but they found none.

28 Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you [people] refuse to keep My commandments and My instructions (laws)? ‡

29 “See, the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you the bread for two days on the sixth day. Let every man stay in his place; no man is to leave his place on the seventh day.”

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 The house of Israel called the bread manna; it was like coriander seed, white, and it tasted like flat pastry (wafers) made with honey. ‡

32 Then Moses said, “This is the word which the LORD commands, ‘Let an omer of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’ ”

33 So Moses said to Aaron, “Take a pot and put an omer of manna in it, and place it before the LORD to be kept throughout your generations.” ‡

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron [eventually] placed it in the presence of the Testimony, to be kept.  [Heb 9:4 ] ‡

35 The Israelites ate manna forty years, until they reached an inhabited land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan. ‡

36 (Now an omer is the tenth of an ephah.)

Exodus 17

Water in the Rock

1 THEN ALL the congregation of the children of Israel moved on from the Wilderness of Sin by stages, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. ‡

2 Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, “Give us water so we may [have something to] drink.” And Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you tempt the LORD and try His patience?” ‡

3 But the people were thirsty for water; and the people murmured against Moses and said, “Why did you bring us up from Egypt to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> So Moses cried out to the LORD for help, saying, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pass before the people and take with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; there you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may [have something to] drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. [1 Cor 10:4] ‡

<sup>7</sup> He named the place [where this miracle occurred] Massah (test) and Meribah (contention) because of the quarreling of the sons of Israel, and because they tested the [patience of the] LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us, or not?” ‡

Amalek Fought

<sup>9</sup> So Moses said to Joshua, “Choose men for us and go out, fight against Amalek [and his people]. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> So Joshua did as Moses said, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the hilltop.

<sup>11</sup> Now when Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed, and when he lowered his hand [due to fatigue], Amalek prevailed. ‡

<sup>12</sup> But Moses’ hands were heavy and he grew tired. So they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Then Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side and one on the other side; so it was that his hands were steady until the sun set.

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this in the book as a memorial and recite it to Joshua, that I will utterly wipe out the memory of Amalek [and his people] from under heaven.” [1 Sam 15:2–8] ‡

<sup>15</sup> And Moses built an altar and named it The LORD Is My Banner;

<sup>16</sup> saying, “The LORD has sworn [an oath]; the LORD will have war against [the people of] Amalek from generation to generation.”

Exodus 18

Jethro, Moses' Father-in-law

<sup>1</sup> NOW JETHRO (Reuel), the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. ‡

<sup>3</sup> along with her two sons, of whom one was named Gershom (stranger), for Moses said, "I have been a stranger in a foreign land." ‡

<sup>4</sup> The other [son] was named Eliezer (my God is help), for Moses said, "The God of my father was my help, and He rescued me from the sword of Pharaoh."

<sup>6</sup> He sent a message to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons [who are] with her."

<sup>7</sup> So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down [in respect] and kissed him. They asked each other about their well-being and went into the tent. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Moses told his father-in-law about all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and about all the hardship that had happened during the journey, and how the LORD had rescued them. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Jethro rejoiced over all the good things the LORD had done to Israel, in that He had rescued them from the hand of the Egyptians.

<sup>10</sup> Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, and who has rescued the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. ‡

<sup>11</sup> "Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods; indeed, it was proven when they acted insolently toward Israel [and the LORD showed Himself infinitely superior to all their gods]." ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and [other] sacrifices [to offer] to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat a meal with Moses' father-in-law before God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now the next day Moses sat to judge [the disputes] the people [had with one another], and the people stood around Moses from dawn to dusk.

<sup>14</sup> When Moses' father-in-law saw everything that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why are you sitting alone [as a judge] with all the people standing around you from dawn to dusk?"

<sup>15</sup> Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to ask [about the will] of God." ‡

<sup>16</sup> "When they have a dispute they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor and I make known the statutes of God and His laws." ‡

Jethro Counsels Moses

<sup>17</sup> Moses' father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you are doing is not good.

<sup>18</sup> "You will certainly wear out both yourself and these people who are with you, because the task is too heavy for you [to bear]; you cannot do it alone." ‡

<sup>19</sup> "Now listen to me; I will advise you, and may God be with you [to confirm my advice]. You shall represent the people before God. You shall bring their disputes and causes to Him." ‡

<sup>20</sup> "You shall teach them the decrees and laws. You shall show them the way they are to live and the work they are to do." ‡

<sup>21</sup> "Furthermore, you shall select from all the people competent men who [reverently] fear God, men of truth, those who hate dishonest gain; you shall place these over the people as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens." ‡

<sup>22</sup> "They shall judge the people at all times; have them bring every major dispute to you, but let them judge every minor dispute themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you." ‡

<sup>23</sup> "If you will do this thing and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure [the responsibility], and all these people will also go [back] to their tents in peace." ‡

<sup>24</sup> So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything that he had said.

<sup>26</sup> And they judged the people at all times; they would bring the difficult cases to Moses, but every minor dispute they judged and decided themselves. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Then Moses said goodbye to his father-in-law, and Jethro went back to his own land (Midian). ‡

Exodus 19

Moses on Sinai

<sup>3</sup> Moses went up to God [on the mountain], and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Say this to the house of Jacob and tell the Israelites: ‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried you on eagles’ wings, and brought you to Myself. ‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘Now therefore, if you will in fact obey My voice and keep My covenant (agreement), then you shall be My own special possession and treasure from among all peoples [of the world], for all the earth is Mine; ‡

<sup>6</sup> and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation [set apart for My purpose].’ These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So Moses called for the elders of the people, and told them all these words which the LORD commanded him.

<sup>8</sup> All the people answered together and said, “We will do everything that the LORD has spoken.” And Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD. ‡

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may believe and trust in you forever.” Then Moses repeated the words of the people to the LORD. ‡

<sup>10</sup> The LORD also said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow [that is, prepare them for My sacred purpose], and have them wash their clothes ‡

<sup>12</sup> “You shall set barriers for the people all around [the mountain], saying,

‘Beware that you do not go up on the mountain or touch its border; whoever touches the mountain must be put to death.’‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘No hand shall touch him [that is, no one shall try to save the guilty party], but the offender must be stoned or shot through [with arrows]; whether man or animal [that touches the mountain], he shall not live.’ When the ram’s horn sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain.” [Num 24:8]‡

<sup>15</sup> He said to the people, “Be prepared for the third day; do not be intimate with a woman.”‡

<sup>16</sup> So it happened on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunder and flashes of lightning, and a thick cloud was on the mountain, and a very loud blast was sounded on a ram’s horn, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled.‡

The LORD Visits Sinai

<sup>19</sup> And it happened, as the blast of the ram’s horn grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him with [a voice of] thunder. [Deut 4:12]‡

<sup>20</sup> The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and he went up.

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go down, warn the people, so that they do not break through [the barriers around the mountain] to the LORD to see [Me], and many of them perish [as a result].‡

<sup>22</sup> “Also have the priests who approach the LORD consecrate (sanctify, set apart) themselves [for My sacred purpose], or else the LORD will break forth [in judgment] against them [and destroy them].”‡

<sup>23</sup> Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, because You warned us, saying, ‘Set barriers around the mountain and consecrate it.’ ”‡

<sup>24</sup> Then the LORD said to him, “Go down and come up again, you and Aaron with you; but do not let the priests and the people break through [the barriers] to come up to the LORD, or He will break forth [in judgment] against them [and destroy them].”

<sup>25</sup> So Moses went down to the people and told them [again about God’s warning].

Exodus 20

The Ten Commandments

<sup>1</sup> THEN GOD spoke all these words: ‡

<sup>5</sup> “You shall not worship them nor serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous (impassioned) God [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine], visiting (avenging) the iniquity (sin, guilt) of the fathers on the children [that is, calling the children to account for the sins of their fathers], to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,  [Is 42:8; 48:11 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> but showing graciousness and steadfast lovingkindness to thousands [of generations] of those who love Me and keep My commandments. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain [that is, irreverently, in false affirmations or in ways that impugn the character of God]; for the LORD will not hold guiltless nor leave unpunished the one who takes His name in vain [disregarding its reverence and its power]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> but the seventh day is a Sabbath [a day of rest dedicated] to the LORD your God; on that day you shall not do any work, you or your son, or your daughter, or your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock or the temporary resident (foreigner) who stays within your [city] gates. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and everything that is in them, and He rested (ceased) on the seventh day. That is why the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy [that is, set it apart for His purposes]. ‡

12 “Honor (respect, obey, care for) your father and your mother, so that your days may be prolonged in the land the LORD your God gives you. ‡

13 “You shall not commit murder (unjustified, deliberate homicide).  [Gen 9:6 ; Ex 21:12 , 14 , 18 ] ‡

14 “You shall not commit adultery.  [Prov 6:25 , 26 ; Matt 5:27 , 28 ; Rom 1:2 ; Eph 5:3 ] ‡

15 “You shall not steal [secretly, openly, fraudulently, or through carelessness].  [Prov 11:1 ; 16:8 ; 21:6 ; 22:16 ; Jer 17:11 ; Mal 3:8 ] ‡

16 “You shall not testify falsely [that is, lie, withhold, or manipulate the truth] against your neighbor (any person).  [Ex 23:1 ; Prov 19:9 ; 24:28 ] ‡

17 “You shall not covet [that is, selfishly desire and attempt to acquire] your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or his male servant, or his female servant, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”  [Luke 12:15 ; Col 3:5 ] ‡

18 Now all the people witnessed the thunder and the flashes of lightning and the sound of the trumpet and the smoking mountain; and as they looked, the people were afraid, and they trembled [and moved backward] and stood at a [safe] distance. ‡

19 Then they said to Moses, “You speak to us and we will listen, but do not let God speak to us or we will die.” ‡

20 Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come in order to test you, and in order that the fear of Him [that is, a profound reverence for Him] will remain with you, so that you do not sin.” ‡

21 So the people stood at a [safe] distance, but Moses approached the thick cloud where God was. ‡

22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven. ‡

23 ‘You shall not make other gods [to worship] besides Me; gods of silver or gods of gold, you shall not make [these lifeless idols] for yourselves. ‡

24 ‘You shall make an altar of earth for Me, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I cause My Name to be recorded and remembered [through revelation of My divine nature] I will come to you and bless you. ‡

25 ‘If you make an altar of stone for Me, you shall not build it of cut stones, for if you use a chisel on it, you will profane it. ‡

26 ‘Nor shall you go up to My altar on steps, so that your nakedness will not be exposed on it.’

Exodus 21

Ordinances for the People

1 “NOW THESE are the ordinances (laws) which you shall set before the Israelites: ‡

2 “If you purchase a Hebrew servant [because of his debt or poverty], he shall serve six years, and in the seventh [year] he shall leave as a free man, paying nothing.  [Lev 25:39 ] ‡

3 “If he came [to you] alone, he shall leave alone; if he came married, then his wife shall leave with him.

4 “If his master gives him a wife, and she gives birth to sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall belong to her master, and he shall leave [your service] alone.

5 “But if the servant plainly says, ‘I love my master, my wife and my children; I will not leave as a free man,’ ‡

6 then his master shall bring him to God [that is, to the judges who act in God’s name], then he shall bring him to the door or doorpost. And his master shall pierce his ear with an awl (strong needle); and he shall serve him for life. ‡

7 “If a man sells his daughter to be a female servant, she shall not go free [after six years] as male servants do. ‡

8 “If she does not please her master who has chosen her for himself [as a wife], he shall let her be redeemed [by her family]. He does not have the authority to sell her to a foreign people, because he has been unfair to her.

9 “If her master chooses her [as a wife] for his son, he shall act toward her as if she were legally his daughter.

10 “If her master marries another wife, he may not reduce her food, her clothing, or her privilege as a wife. ‡

11 “If he does not do these three things for her, then shall she leave free, without payment of money.

Personal Injuries

12 “Whoever strikes a man so that he dies must be put to death. ‡

13 “However, if he did not lie in wait [for him], but God allowed him to fall into his hand, then I will establish for you a place to which he may escape [for protection until duly tried].  [Num 35:22–28.] ‡

14 “But if a man acts intentionally against another and kills him by [design through] treachery, you are to take him from My altar [to which he may have fled for protection], so that he may be put to death. ‡

15 “Whoever strikes his father or his mother must be put to death.

16 “Whoever kidnaps a man, whether he sells him or is found with him in his possession, must be put to death. ‡

17 “Whoever curses his father or his mother or treats them contemptuously must be put to death. ‡

18 “If men quarrel and one strikes another with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but is confined to bed,

19 if he gets up and walks around leaning on his cane, then the one who struck him shall be left [physically] unpunished; he must only pay for his loss of time [at work], and the costs [of treatment and recuperation] until he is thoroughly healed. ‡

20 “If a man strikes his male or his female servant with a staff and the servant dies at his hand, he must be punished.

21 “If, however, the servant survives for a day or two, the offender shall not be punished, for the [injured] servant is his own property.

22 “If men fight with each other and injure a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely [and the baby lives], yet there is no further injury, the one who hurt her must be punished with a fine [paid] to the woman’s husband, as much as the judges decide. ‡

23 “But if there is any further injury, then you shall require [as a penalty] life for life,

24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ‡

25 burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

26 “If a man hits the eye of his male servant or female servant and it is destroyed, he must let the servant go free because of [the loss of] the eye.

27 “And if he knocks out the tooth of his male servant or female servant, he must let the servant go free because of [the loss of] the tooth.

28 “If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox must be stoned and its meat shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be cleared [of responsibility]. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “But if the ox has tried to gore on a previous occasion, and its owner has been warned, but has not kept it confined and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner shall be put to death as well.

<sup>31</sup> “If the ox has gored another’s son or daughter, he shall be dealt with according to this same rule.

<sup>33</sup> “If a man leaves a pit open, or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

<sup>34</sup> the owner of the pit shall make restitution; he shall give money to the animal’s owner, but the dead [animal] shall be his.

<sup>35</sup> “If one man’s ox injures another’s so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the proceeds equally; they shall also divide the dead ox [between them].

<sup>36</sup> “Or if it is known that the ox was previously in the habit of goring, and its owner has not kept it confined, he must make restitution of ox for ox, and the dead [animal] shall be his.

Exodus 22

Property Rights

<sup>2</sup> “If a thief is caught breaking in [after dark] and is struck [by the owner] so that he dies, there shall be no bloodguilt for him. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “But if the sun has risen, there will be bloodguilt for him. The thief [if he lives] must make [full] restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be sold [as a slave to make restitution] for his theft. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “If the animal that he stole is found alive in his possession, whether it is ox or donkey or sheep, he shall pay double [for it]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed bare or lets his livestock loose so that it grazes in another man’s field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

6 “If fire breaks out and spreads to thorn bushes so that the stacked grain or standing grain or the field is consumed, he who started the fire shall make full restitution.

7 “If a man gives his neighbor money or [other] goods to keep [for him while he is away] and it is stolen from the neighbor’s house, then, if the thief is caught, he shall pay double [for it]. ‡

8 “If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house shall appear before the judges [who act in God’s name], to determine whether or not he had stolen his neighbor’s goods. ‡

9 “For every offense involving property, whether it concerns ox, donkey, sheep, clothing, or any piece of lost property, which another identifies as his, the case of both parties shall come before the judges [who act in God’s name]. Whomever the judges pronounce guilty shall pay double to his neighbor. ‡

10 “If a man gives his neighbor a donkey or an ox or a sheep or any [other] animal to keep [for him], and it dies or is injured or taken away while no one is looking,

11 then an oath before the LORD shall be made by the two of them that he has not taken his neighbor’s property; and the owner of it shall accept his word and not require him to make restitution. ‡

12 “But if it is actually stolen from him [when in his care], he shall make restitution to its owner. ‡

13 “If it is torn to pieces [by some predator or by accident], let him bring the mangled carcass as evidence; he shall not make restitution for what was torn to pieces.

14 “And if a man borrows an animal from his neighbor, and it gets injured or dies while its owner is not with it, the borrower shall make full restitution.

15 “But if the owner is with it [when the damage is done], the borrower shall not make restitution. If it was hired, the damage is included in [the price of] its fee.

Various Laws

16 “If a man seduces a virgin who is not betrothed, and lies with her, he must pay a dowry (marriage price) for her to be his wife. ‡

17 “If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must [still] pay money equivalent to the dowry of virgins. ‡

18 “You shall not allow a woman who practices sorcery to live. ‡

19 “Whoever lies with an animal must be put to death.  [Lev 18:23 ] ‡

20 “He who sacrifices to any god, other than to the LORD alone, shall be put under a ban (designated) for destruction (execution). ‡

21 “You shall not wrong a stranger or oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. ‡

22 “You shall not harm or oppress any widow or fatherless child. ‡

23 “If you harm or oppress them in any way, and they cry at all to Me [for help], I will most certainly hear their cry; ‡

24 and My wrath shall be kindled and burn; I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless. ‡

25 “If you lend money to any one of My people with you who is poor, you shall not act as a creditor (professional moneylender) to him; you shall not charge him interest. ‡

26 “If you ever take your [poor] neighbor’s robe in pledge, you must return it to him before sunset, ‡

27 for that is his only covering; it is his clothing for his body. In what shall he sleep? And when he cries to Me [for help], I will hear him, for I am compassionate and gracious. ‡

28 “You shall not curse God, nor curse the ruler of your people [since he administers God’s law].  [Acts 23:5 ] ‡

29 “You shall not delay the offering from your harvest and your vintage. You shall give (consecrate, dedicate) to Me the firstborn of your sons.  [Ex 34:19, 20 ] ‡

30 “You shall do the same with your oxen and with your sheep. It shall be with its mother for seven days; on the eighth day you shall give it [as an offering] to Me. ‡

31 “You shall be holy men to Me; therefore you shall not eat meat [from any animal] that has been torn to pieces [by predators] in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs. ‡

Exodus 23

Various Laws

1 “YOU SHALL not give a false report; you shall not join hands with the wicked to be a malicious witness [promoting wrong and violence]. ‡

<sup>3</sup>-nor shall you favor or be partial to a poor man in his dispute [simply because he is poor].

<sup>4</sup> “If you meet your enemy’s ox or his donkey wandering off, you must bring it back to him. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “You shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the soul [the feelings, thoughts, and concerns] of a stranger, for you were strangers in Egypt. ‡

The Sabbath and Land

<sup>11</sup>-but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie uncultivated, so that the poor among your people may eat [what the land grows naturally]; whatever they leave the animals of the field may eat. You shall do the same with your vineyard and olive grove.

<sup>12</sup> “Six days [each week] you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall stop [working] so that your ox and your donkey may settle down and rest, and the son of your female servant, as well as your stranger, may be refreshed. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Now concerning everything which I have said to you, be on your guard; do not mention the name of other gods [either in a blessing or in a curse]; do not let such speech be heard [coming] from your mouth. ‡

Three National Feasts

<sup>14</sup> “Three times a year you shall celebrate a feast [dedicated] to Me. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. No one shall appear before Me empty-handed [but you shall bring sacrificial offerings]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Also [you shall observe] the Feast of Harvest (Weeks, Pentecost, or First Fruits), acknowledging the first fruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. And [third] the Feast of Ingathering (Booths or Tabernacles) at the end of the year when you gather in [the fruit of] your labors from the field. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “You shall bring the choice first fruits of your ground into the house of the LORD your God. ‡

“You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Conquest of the Land

<sup>20</sup> “Behold, I am going to send an Angel before you to keep and guard you on the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Be on your guard before Him, listen to and obey His voice; do not be rebellious toward Him or provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgression, since My Name (authority) is in Him.  [Ex 32:34 ; 33:14 ; Is 63:9 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> “But if you will indeed listen to and truly obey His voice and do everything that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “When My Angel goes before you and brings you to [the land of] the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, I will reject them and completely destroy them. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “You shall serve [only] the LORD your God, and He shall bless your bread and water. I will also remove sickness from among you. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “No one shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “I will send My terror ahead of you, and I will throw into confusion all the people among whom you come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you [in flight]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “I will send hornets ahead of you which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite before you.”‡

<sup>29</sup> “I will not drive them out before you in a single year, so that the land does not become desolate [due to lack of attention] and the [wild] animals of the field do not become too numerous for you.”‡

<sup>30</sup> “I will drive them out before you little by little, until you have increased and are strong enough to take possession of the land.

<sup>31</sup> “I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Sea of the Philistines (the Mediterranean), and from the wilderness to the River Euphrates; for I will hand over the residents of the land to you, and you shall drive them out before you.”‡

<sup>33</sup> “They shall not live in your land, because they will make you sin against Me; for if you serve their gods, it is certain to be a trap for you [resulting in judgment].”‡

Exodus 24

People Affirm Their Covenant with God

<sup>1</sup> THEN GOD said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu (Aaron’s older sons), and seventy of Israel’s elders, and you shall worship at a [safe] distance.”‡

<sup>2</sup> “Moses alone shall approach the LORD, but the others shall not come near, nor shall the people come up with him.”

<sup>3</sup> Then Moses came and told the people everything that the LORD had said and all the ordinances. And all the people answered with one voice, “Everything the LORD has said we will do.”‡

<sup>6</sup> Moses took half of the blood and put it in large basins, and [the other] half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.‡

<sup>7</sup> Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it aloud to the people; and they said, “Everything that the LORD has said we will do, and we will be obedient.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> So Moses took the blood [which had been placed in the large basins] and sprinkled it on the people, and said, “Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”  [1 Cor 11:25 ; Heb 8:6 ; 10:28 , 29 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up [the mountainside],

<sup>10</sup> and they saw [a manifestation of] the God of Israel; and under His feet there appeared to be a pavement of sapphire, just as clear as the sky itself.  [Ex 33:20–23 ; Deut 4:12 ; Ezek 28:14 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> Now the LORD said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and stay there, and I will give you the stone tablets with the law and the commandments which I have written for their instruction.”  [2 Cor 3:2 , 3 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> So Moses arose with Joshua his attendant, and he went up to the mountain of God. ‡

<sup>14</sup> And he said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Remember that Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a legal matter, let him go to them.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses went up to the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Moses entered the midst of the cloud and went up the mountain; and he was on the mountain forty days and forty nights. ‡

Exodus 25

Offerings for the Sanctuary

whose heart moves him [to give willingly] you shall take My offering. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Have them build a sanctuary for Me, so that I may dwell among them. [Heb 8:1, 2; 10:1] ‡

<sup>9</sup> “You shall construct it in accordance with everything that I am going to show you, as the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furniture. ‡

Ark of the Covenant

<sup>11</sup> “You shall overlay the ark with pure gold, overlay it inside and out, and you shall make a gold border (frame) around its top.

<sup>12</sup> “You shall cast four gold rings for it and attach them to the four feet, two rings on either side.

<sup>14</sup> and put the poles through the rings on the sides of the ark, by which to carry it.

<sup>19</sup> “Make one cherub at each end, making the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends.

seat with their wings and facing each other. The faces of the cherubim are to be looking downward toward the mercy seat. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “You shall put the mercy seat on the top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the Testimony which I will give you. ‡

22.“There I will meet with you; from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the Testimony, I will speak [intimately] with you regarding every commandment that I will give you for the Israelites. ‡

The Table of Bread

<sup>23</sup> “You shall make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and one and a half cubits high. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “You shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them.

29.“You shall make its plates [for the showbread] and its cups [for incense] and its pitchers and bowls for sacrificial drink offerings; you shall make them of pure gold. ‡

30.“You shall set the bread of the Presence (showbread) on the table before Me at all times.  [John 6:58 ] ‡

The Golden Lampstand

<sup>31</sup> “You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand and its base and its shaft shall be made of hammered work; its cups, its calyxes and its flowers shall be all of one piece with it. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Six branches shall come out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand out of the one side and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side [the shaft being the seventh branch].

<sup>33</sup> “Three cups shall be made like almond blossoms, each with a calyx and a flower on one branch, and three cups made like almond blossoms on the other branch with a calyx and a flower—so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand; ‡

<sup>36</sup> “Their calyxes and their branches shall be of one piece with it; all of it shall be one piece of hammered work of pure gold.

<sup>40</sup> “See that you make them [exactly] after their pattern which was shown to you on the mountain.  [Heb 8:5, 6 ] ‡

Curtains of Linen

<sup>5</sup> “You shall make fifty loops on the one curtain, and fifty loops on the edge of the last curtain that is in the second set. The loops on one curtain correspond to the loops on the other.

<sup>6</sup> “You shall make fifty gold hooks, and fasten the curtains together with the hooks; and the tabernacle shall be one unit.

Curtains of Goats’ Hair

<sup>7</sup> “Then you shall make [exterior] curtains of goats’ hair as a tent over the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains in all. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Each curtain shall be thirty cubits long and four cubits wide. The eleven curtains shall all measure the same.

<sup>9</sup> “You shall join five curtains by themselves and the other six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the front of the tent [to make a closed door].

<sup>11</sup> “You shall make fifty bronze hooks and put the hooks into the loops and join the tent together so that it may be one unit.

<sup>14</sup> “You shall make a third covering for the tent of rams’ skins dyed red, and a fourth covering above that of porpoise skins. ‡

Boards and Sockets

<sup>18</sup> “You shall make the boards for the tabernacle [in the following quantities]: twenty boards for the south side.

<sup>19</sup> “You shall make forty silver sockets under the twenty boards, two sockets under each board for its two dovetails, and two sockets under another board for its two dovetails;

<sup>20</sup> for the north side of the tabernacle there shall be twenty boards,

<sup>28</sup> “And the middle bar in the center of the boards shall pass through [horizontally] from end to end.

<sup>30</sup> “You shall erect the tabernacle according to its plan [the direction corresponding to its meaning and purpose] which has been shown to you on the mountain. ‡

The Veil and Screen

<sup>32</sup> “You shall hang it on four pillars (support poles) of acacia wood overlaid with gold, with gold hooks, on four silver sockets.

<sup>33</sup> “You shall hang the veil from the hooks [that connect the curtains together], and you shall bring the ark of the Testimony there within the veil. The veil shall separate for you the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “You shall set the table [for the bread] outside the veil [in the Holy Place] on the north side, and the lampstand opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “You shall make five pillars (support poles) of acacia wood to support the hanging curtain and overlay them with gold. Their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five [base] sockets of bronze for them. ‡

Exodus 27

The Bronze Altar

<sup>2</sup> “Make horns (horn-shaped projections) for it on its four corners; the horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Also make a grate for it, a network of bronze; and on the grid you are to make four bronze rings at its four corners.

<sup>5</sup> “And you shall put it under the ledge of the altar, so that the grid will extend halfway up the altar.

<sup>7</sup> “The poles shall be inserted through the rings on the two sides of the altar so that it may be carried.  [Num 4:14, 15. ]

<sup>8</sup> “You are to make the altar hollow with planks; as you were shown on the mountain [of Sinai], so shall it be made. ‡

Court of the Tabernacle

<sup>9</sup> “You shall make the court of the tabernacle. The south side of the court is to have curtains of fine twisted linen, a hundred cubits long for one side; ‡

<sup>10</sup> it shall have twenty pillars and twenty bronze sockets; but the hooks of the pillars and their fasteners shall be silver;

<sup>14</sup> “The curtains for one side [of the gate] shall be fifteen cubits with three pillars and three sockets.

<sup>15</sup> “On the other side [of the gate] the curtains shall be fifteen cubits with three pillars and three sockets.

<sup>18</sup> “The length of the court shall be a hundred cubits, and the width fifty [cubits] throughout, and the height five cubits of fine twisted linen, and their sockets of bronze.

<sup>20</sup> “You shall command the Israelites to provide you with clear oil of beaten olives for the light, to make a lamp burn continually [every night]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “In the Tent of Meeting [of God with His people], outside the veil which is in front of the [ark of the] Testimony [and sets it apart], Aaron [the high priest] and his sons shall keep the lamp burning from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a perpetual statute [to be observed] throughout their generations on behalf of the Israelites. ‡

Exodus 28

Garments of the Priests

<sup>1</sup> “NOW BRING your brother Aaron near, and his sons with him from among the sons of Israel, so that he may serve as priest to Me—Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s sons. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “You are to make sacred garments [official clothing reserved for holy services] for Aaron your brother, for honor and for beauty (ornamentation). ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Tell all the skilled and talented people whom I have endowed with a spirit of wisdom, that they are to make Aaron’s garments to sanctify him and set him apart to serve as a priest for Me. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “These are the garments which they shall make: a breastpiece and an ephod [for the breastpiece] and a robe and a tunic of checkered work, a turban, and a sash. They shall make sacred garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, so that he may serve as a priest to Me. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “They are to use the gold and the blue and the purple and the scarlet fabric and fine twisted linen [from the people],

<sup>6</sup> and they shall make the ephod of gold and blue, purple, and scarlet fabric and fine twisted linen, skillfully woven and [beautifully] worked. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “It is to have two shoulder pieces joined to its two [back and front] ends, so that it may be joined together.

<sup>8</sup> “And the skillfully woven sash, which is on the ephod shall be made of the same material: of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet fabric and fine twisted linen.

<sup>9</sup> “You shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the [twelve] sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup> six of their names on one stone and the remaining six names on the other stone, arranged in the order of their births.

<sup>11</sup> “With the work of a jeweler, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones according to the names of the sons of Israel. You shall have them set in filigree [settings] of gold.

<sup>20</sup> and the fourth row a beryl and an onyx and a jasper; they shall be set in gold filigree.

<sup>24</sup> “You shall put the two twisted cords of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastpiece.

<sup>25</sup> “The other two ends of the two cords you shall fasten in the two filigree settings in front, putting them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod.

<sup>28</sup> “They shall bind the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it will be above the skillfully woven sash of the ephod, so that the breastpiece will not come loose from the ephod.

<sup>29</sup> “So Aaron shall carry the names of the sons of Israel (Jacob) in the breastpiece of judgment over his heart when he enters the Holy Place, to bring them in continual remembrance before the LORD. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “In the breastpiece of judgment you shall put the Urim (Lights) and the Thummim (Perfections) [to be used for determining God’s will in a matter]. They shall be over Aaron’s heart whenever he goes before the LORD, and Aaron shall always carry the judgment (verdict, judicial decisions) of the sons of Israel over his heart before the LORD. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “There shall be an opening at its top in the center [for the head], with a binding of woven work around the opening, like the opening in a coat of armor, so that it will not tear or fray.

<sup>33</sup> “You shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet fabric all around its hem, with gold bells between them;

<sup>35</sup> “Aaron shall wear the robe when he ministers, and its sound shall be heard when he goes [alone] into the Holy Place before the LORD, and when he comes out, so that he will not die there.

<sup>40</sup> “For Aaron’s sons you shall make tunics and sashes and [ornamental] caps, for glory and honor and beauty. ‡

42 “You shall make for them [white] linen undergarments to cover their bare flesh, reaching from the waist to the thighs. ‡

<sup>43</sup> “The various articles of clothing shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they enter the Tent of Meeting, or when they approach the altar [of incense] to minister in the Holy Place, so that they do not incur guilt and die. It shall be a statute forever to Aaron and to his descendants after him. ‡

Exodus 29

Consecration of the Priests

1 “THIS IS what you shall do to consecrate Aaron and his sons so that they may serve Me as priests: take one young bull and two rams, without blemish,

2 and unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil; you shall make them of fine wheat flour. ‡

3 “You shall put them in one basket, and present them in the basket along with the bull and the two rams.

4 “Then bring Aaron and his sons to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting [out where the basin is] and wash them with water. ‡

5 “Then you shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the tunic and the robe of the ephod and the ephod and the breastpiece, and wrap him with the skillfully woven sash of the ephod; ‡

6 and you shall put the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban. ‡

7 “Then you shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him. ‡

8 “You shall bring his sons and put tunics on them. ‡

9 “And you shall wrap them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and put the [ornamental] caps on them; and the priest’s office shall be theirs by a perpetual statute. So you shall ordain Aaron and his sons. ‡

The Sacrifices

10 “Then you shall bring the bull before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the bull’s head. ‡

11 “Then you shall kill the bull before the LORD by the doorway of the Tent of Meeting.

12 “And you shall take some of the blood of the bull and with your finger put it on the horns of the altar [of burnt offering], and you shall pour out the remainder of the blood at the base of the altar. ‡

13 “You shall take all the fat that covers the intestines and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and offer them up in smoke on the altar. ‡

<sup>16</sup> then you shall kill the ram and you shall take its blood and sprinkle it around the altar [of burnt offering].

<sup>17</sup> “Then you shall cut the ram into pieces, and wash its intestines and legs, and place them with its pieces and its head,

<sup>19</sup> “Then you shall take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “You shall also take the fat of the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the intestines, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and the right thigh; (for it is a ram of ordination),

<sup>24</sup> and you shall put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons, and wave them as a wave offering before the LORD. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Then you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron’s ordination, and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your (Moses) portion. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “You shall consecrate the waved breast offering [of the ram] used in the ordination and the waved thigh offering of the priests’ portion, since it is [a contribution] for Aaron and for his sons.‡

<sup>29</sup> “The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed and ordained in them.‡

<sup>30</sup> “That son who is [high] priest in his place shall put them on [each day for] seven days when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place.‡

Food of the Priests

<sup>31</sup> “You shall take the ram of the ordination and boil its meat in a holy place.‡

<sup>35</sup> “So you shall do to Aaron and to his sons in accordance with all I have commanded you; during seven days you are to ordain them.‡

<sup>36</sup> “You shall offer a bull every day as a sin offering for atonement. You shall cleanse the altar from sin when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to consecrate it [for God’s sacred purpose].‡

<sup>37</sup> “For seven days you shall make atonement for the altar [of burnt offering] and consecrate it; then the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar must be holy (set apart for God’s service).‡

<sup>40</sup> and with the one lamb there shall be one-tenth of a measure of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of beaten [olive] oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering [to be poured out].

<sup>41</sup> “And the other lamb you shall offer at twilight, and do with it as with the grain offering of the morning and with the drink offering, for a sweet and soothing aroma [to appease God], an offering by fire to the LORD. ‡

<sup>42</sup> “This will be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there. ‡

<sup>43</sup> “There I will meet with the Israelites, and the Tent of Meeting shall be sanctified by My glory [the Shekinah, God’s dwelling presence]. ‡

<sup>44</sup> “I will sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar [of burnt offering]; also I will sanctify Aaron and his sons to serve as priests to Me. ‡

<sup>45</sup> “I will dwell among the sons of Israel and be their God. ‡

<sup>46</sup> “They shall know [from personal experience] and acknowledge that I am the LORD their God who brought them out of the land of Egypt so that I might dwell among them; I am the LORD their God. ‡

Exodus 30

The Altar of Incense

<sup>3</sup> “You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top and its sides all around, and its horns; and you shall make a gold molding all around it.

<sup>4</sup> “You shall make two gold rings under its molding, make them on the two side walls—on opposite sides—they shall be holders for the poles with which to carry it.

<sup>6</sup> “You shall put the altar of incense [in the Holy Place] in front and outside of the veil that screens the ark of the Testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “When Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup> “You shall not offer any strange incense on this altar, or burnt offering or meal offering; you shall not pour out a drink offering on it. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Once a year Aaron shall make atonement [for sin] on its horns. He shall make atonement on it with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once a year throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.” ‡

The Ransom Money

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,

<sup>12</sup> “When you take the census of the Israelites, each one shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD when you count them, so that no plague will come on them when you number them.  [Rom 8:1–4 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “You shall take the atonement money from the Israelites and use it [exclusively] for the service of the Tent of Meeting, so that it may be a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.” ‡

The Bronze Basin

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,

<sup>18</sup> “You shall also make a basin of bronze, with a base of bronze, for washing. You shall put it [outside in the court] between the Tent of Meeting and the altar [of burnt offering], and you shall put water in it. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “When they enter the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, so that they will not die. Also, when they approach the altar to minister, to burn an offering in the fire to the LORD [they shall do the same].  [John 13:6–8 ]

The Anointing Oil

<sup>22</sup> Moreover, the LORD said to Moses,

<sup>24</sup> and five hundred shekels of cinnamon blossom according to the sanctuary shekel, and a hin of olive oil.‡

<sup>27</sup> and the table [for the bread] and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense,

<sup>28</sup> and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin [for cleansing] and its base.

<sup>30</sup> “You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may serve as priests to Me.‡

<sup>31</sup> “You shall say to the Israelites, ‘This shall be a holy and sacred anointing oil, to Me [alone] throughout your generations.  [Rom 8:9; 1 Cor 12:3 ]

<sup>32</sup> ‘It shall not be poured on anyone’s body, nor shall you make any like it in the same composition. It is holy, and it shall be sacred to you.‡

<sup>33</sup> ‘Whoever prepares any like it or puts any of it on a layman shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them].’ ”‡

The Incense

<sup>35</sup> and make incense with it, a perfume, the work of a perfumer, salted, pure and sacred.‡

<sup>36</sup> “You shall crush some of it [into a] very fine [powder], and put some of it before the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you; it shall be most holy to you.‡

<sup>37</sup> “The incense which you shall make, you shall not make in the same proportions for yourselves; it shall be holy to you for the LORD. ‡

<sup>38</sup> “Whoever makes any like it, to use as perfume shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them].” ‡

Exodus 31

The Skilled Craftsmen

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE LORD said to Moses,

<sup>4</sup> to make artistic designs for work in gold, in silver, and in bronze,

<sup>5</sup> and in the cutting of stones for settings, and in the carving of wood, to work in all kinds of craftsmanship.

<sup>6</sup> “And behold, I Myself have appointed with him Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; to all who are wise-hearted I have given the skill and ability to make everything that I have commanded you: ‡

<sup>8</sup> the table [for the bread] and its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the [golden] altar of incense, ‡

<sup>10</sup> the finely worked garments, the holy garments for Aaron the [high] priest and the garments for his sons to minister as priests, ‡

<sup>11</sup> and the anointing oil and the sweet and fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them according to all that I have commanded you.” ‡

The Sign of the Sabbath

<sup>12</sup> And the LORD said to Moses,

<sup>13</sup> “But as for you, say to the Israelites, ‘You shall most certainly observe My Sabbaths, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, so that you may know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that

I am the LORD who sanctifies you and sets you apart [for Myself]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘Therefore, you shall keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it must be put to death; for whoever does work on the Sabbath, that person (soul) shall be cut off from among his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘For six days work may be done, but the seventh is the Sabbath of complete rest, sacred to the LORD; whoever does work on the Sabbath day must be put to death. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘So the Israelites shall observe the Sabbath, to celebrate the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.’

<sup>17</sup> “It is a sign between Me and the Israelites forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He ceased and was refreshed.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> When He had finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses the two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God. ‡

Exodus 32

The Golden Calf

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, they gathered together before Aaron and said to him, “Come, make us a god who will go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> So Aaron replied to them, “Take off the gold rings that are in the ears of your wives, your sons and daughters, and bring them to me.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So all the people took off the gold rings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron.

<sup>4</sup> And he took the gold from their hands, and fashioned it with an engraving tool and made it into a molten calf; and they said, “This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Now when Aaron saw the molten calf, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, “Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD!” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So they got up early the next day and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; then the people sat down to eat and drink, and got up to play

[shamefully—without moral restraint]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!’ ” ‡

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked (stubborn, rebellious) people. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Now therefore, let Me alone and do not interfere, so that My anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them; and I will make of you (your descendants) a great nation.” ‡

Moses' Entreaty

<sup>12</sup> “Why should the Egyptians say, ‘With evil [intent] their God brought them out to kill them in the mountains and destroy them from the face of the earth’? Turn away from Your burning anger and change Your mind about harming Your people. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob), Your servants to whom You swore [an oath] by Yourself, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens, and all this land of which I have spoken I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’ ” ‡

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD changed His mind about the harm which He had said He would do to His people. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand; tablets that were written on both sides—they were written on one side and on the other. ‡

<sup>16</sup> The tablets were the work of God; the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Now when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a sound of battle in the camp.”

<sup>18</sup> But Moses said,

“It is not the sound of the cry of victory,

Nor is it the sound of the cry of defeat;
But I hear the sound of singing.”

Moses' Anger

<sup>19</sup> And as soon as he approached the camp and he saw the calf and the dancing, Moses' anger burned; and he threw the tablets from his hands and smashed them at the foot of the mountain. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then Moses took the calf they had made and burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it on the surface of the water and made the Israelites drink it. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron, “What did this people do to you, that you have brought so great a sin on them?” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Aaron said, “Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you know the people yourself, that they are prone to evil. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “For they said to me, ‘Make us a god who will go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’

<sup>24</sup> “I said to them, ‘Let whoever has gold [jewelry], take it off.’ So they gave it to me; then I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.”

<sup>25</sup> Now when Moses saw that the people were out of control—for Aaron had let them get out of control to the point of being an object of mockery among their enemies—‡

<sup>26</sup> then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, “Whoever is on the LORD’s side, come to me!” And all the sons of Levi [the priestly tribe] gathered together to him.

<sup>27</sup> He said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Every man strap his sword on his thigh and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor [all who continue pagan worship].’ ” ‡

<sup>28</sup> So the sons of Levi did as Moses instructed, and about three thousand men of the people [of Israel] were killed that day.

<sup>29</sup> Then Moses said [to the Levites], “Dedicate yourselves today to the LORD—for each man has been against his own son and his own brother [in his attempt to escape execution]—so that He may restore and bestow His blessing on you this day.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then the next day Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. Now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> So Moses returned to the LORD, and said, “Oh, these people have committed a great sin [against You], and have made themselves a god of gold. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Yet now, if You will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of Your book which You have written (kill me)!” ‡

<sup>33</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book [not you].  [Ps 69:28; Dan 12:1; Phil 4:3; Rev 3:5 ] ‡

<sup>34</sup> “But now go, lead the people [to the place] where I have told you. Behold, My Angel shall go before you; nevertheless, in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin!”  [Ex 23:20; 33:2, 3 ] ‡

<sup>35</sup> So the LORD struck the people with a plague, because of what they had done with the calf which Aaron had made [for them]. ‡

Exodus 33

The Journey Resumed

<sup>1</sup> THE LORD spoke to Moses, saying, “Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought from the land of Egypt, to the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Israel), saying, ‘To your descendants I will give it.’ ‡

<sup>2</sup> “I will send an Angel before you and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.  [Ex 23:23; 34:11 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the sons of Israel, ‘You are a stiff-necked (stubborn, rebellious) people! If I should come among you for one moment, I would destroy you. Now therefore, [penitently] take off your ornaments, so that I may know what to do with you.’ ” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now Moses used to take his own tent and pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting [of God with His own people]. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the [temporary] tent of meeting which was outside the camp. ‡

<sup>10</sup> When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the tent door, all the people would rise and worship, each at his tent door. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And so the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, just as a man speaks to his friend. When Moses returned to the camp, his attendant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent. ‡

Moses Intercedes

<sup>12</sup> Moses said to the LORD, “See, You say to me, ‘Bring up this people,’ but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.’ ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Now therefore, I pray you, if I have found favor in Your sight, let me know Your ways so that I may know You [becoming more deeply and intimately acquainted with You, recognizing and understanding Your ways more clearly] and that I may find grace and favor in Your sight. And consider also, that this nation is Your people.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> And the LORD said, “My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest [by bringing you and the people into the promised land].”  [Deut 3:20] ‡

<sup>15</sup> And Moses said to Him, “If Your presence does not go [with me], do not lead us up from here. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “For how then can it be known that Your people and I have found favor in Your sight? Is it not by Your going with us, so that we are distinguished, Your people and I, from all the [other] people on the face of the earth?” ‡

<sup>17</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I will also do this thing that you have asked; for you have found favor (lovingkindness, mercy) in My sight and I have known you [personally] by name.”  [Rev 2:17.] ‡

<sup>19</sup> And God said, “I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the Name of the LORD before you; for I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion (lovingkindness) on whom I will show compassion.”  [Rom 9:15, 16.] ‡

<sup>20</sup> But He said, “You cannot see My face, for no man shall see Me and live!” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD said, “Behold, there is a place beside Me, and you shall stand there on the rock;

<sup>22</sup> and while My glory is passing by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock and protectively cover you with My hand until I have passed by. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Then I will take away My hand and you shall see My back; but My face shall not be seen.” ‡

Exodus 34

The Two Tablets Replaced

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, “Cut two tablets of stone like the first, and I will write on these tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you smashed [when you learned of Israel’s idolatry]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “So be ready by morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me on the top of the mountain. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “No man is to come up with you, nor let any man be seen anywhere on the mountain; nor let flocks or herds feed in front of that mountain.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and he got up early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took the two tablets of stone in his hand.

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD descended in the cloud and stood there with Moses as he proclaimed the Name of the LORD. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD passed by in front of him, and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness and truth (faithfulness); ‡

<sup>7</sup> keeping mercy and lovingkindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin; but He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, visiting (avenging) the iniquity (sin, guilt) of the fathers upon the children and the grandchildren to the third and fourth generations [that is, calling the children to account for the sins of their fathers].” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Moses bowed to the earth immediately and worshiped [the Lord]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> And he said, “If now I have found favor and lovingkindness in Your sight, O Lord, let the Lord, please, go in our midst, though it is a stiff-necked (stubborn, rebellious) people, and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your possession.” ‡

The Covenant Renewed

<sup>10</sup> Then God said, “Behold, I am going to make a covenant. Before all your people I will do wondrous works (miracles) such as have not been created or produced in all the earth nor among any of the nations; and all the people among whom you live shall see the working of the LORD, for it is a fearful and awesome thing that I am going to do with you. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Be sure to observe what I am commanding you this day: behold, I am going to drive out the Amorite before you, and the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Watch yourself so that you do not make a covenant (solemn agreement, treaty) with the inhabitants of the land into which you are going, or it will become a [dangerous] trap among you. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “But you shall tear down and destroy their [pagan] altars, smash in pieces their [sacred] pillars (obelisks, images) and cut down their Asherim ‡

<sup>18</sup> “You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread (Passover). For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I have commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt. ‡

of your sons. None of you are to appear before Me empty-handed. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “You shall work for six days, but on the seventh day you shall rest; [even] in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest [on the Sabbath]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “For I will drive out and dispossess nations before you and enlarge your borders; nor shall any man covet (actively seek for himself) your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times a year. ‡

“ You shall not boil a young goat in his mother’s milk [as some pagans do].”

<sup>27</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Moses was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he ate no bread and drank no water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments. ‡

Moses’ Face Shines

<sup>29</sup> When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, he did not know that the skin of his face was shining [with a unique radiance] because he had been speaking with God. ‡

<sup>30</sup> When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to approach him.

<sup>31</sup> But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him; and he spoke to them.

<sup>32</sup> Afterward all the Israelites approached him, and he commanded them to do everything that the LORD had said to him on Mount Sinai. ‡

<sup>34</sup> But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out. When he came out and he told the Israelites what he had been commanded [by God], ‡

<sup>35</sup> the Israelites would see the face of Moses, how his skin shone [with a unique radiance]. So Moses put the veil on his face again until he went in to speak with God.

Exodus 35

The Sabbath Emphasized

<sup>1</sup> MOSES GATHERED all the congregation of the sons of Israel together, and said to them, “These are the things which the LORD has commanded you to do: ‡

<sup>2</sup> “For six days work may be done, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of complete rest to the LORD; whoever does any kind of work on that day shall be put to death. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And Moses said to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever has a willing heart, let him bring it as the LORD’s offering: gold, silver, and bronze, ‡

<sup>7</sup> and rams’ skins dyed red, and skins of porpoises, and acacia wood,

<sup>9</sup> and onyx stones and other stones to be set for the ephod and the breastpiece.

Tabernacle Workmen

<sup>10</sup> ‘Let every skilled and talented man among you come, and make everything that the LORD has commanded: ‡

<sup>11</sup> the tabernacle (sacred dwelling of God), its tent and its covering, its hooks, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; ‡

<sup>12</sup> the ark [of the covenant] and its carrying poles, with the mercy seat and the veil (partition curtain) of the screen [to hang between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies]; ‡

<sup>14</sup> the lampstand also for the light and its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light; ‡

<sup>15</sup> and the altar of incense and its carrying poles, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, the screen (curtain) for the doorway at the entrance of the tabernacle; ‡

<sup>16</sup> the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its carrying poles, and all its utensils, the wash basin and its base (stand); ‡

<sup>17</sup> the court's curtains, its support poles and their sockets, and the curtain for the gate of the courtyard; ‡

<sup>18</sup> the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court and their cords;

<sup>19</sup> the finely-woven garments for ministering in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons, to minister as priests.' " ‡

Gifts Received

<sup>21</sup> Everyone whose heart stirred him and everyone whose spirit moved him came and brought the LORD's offering to be used for the Tent of Meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then all whose hearts moved them, both men and women, came and brought brooches, earrings or nose rings, signet rings, and necklaces, all jewels of gold; everyone bringing an offering of gold to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> Every man who had in his possession blue or purple or scarlet fabric, and fine linen, and goats' hair , and rams' skins dyed red and porpoise skins, brought them. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Everyone who could make an offering of silver or bronze brought it as the LORD's offering; every man who had in his possession acacia wood for any work of the service brought it.

<sup>27</sup> The leaders brought onyx stones and other stones to be put in settings for the ephod and for the breastpiece,‡

<sup>29</sup> The Israelites, all the men and women whose heart moved them to bring material for all the work which the LORD had commanded through Moses to be done, brought a freewill (voluntary) offering to the LORD.‡

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses said to the Israelites, “See, the LORD called by name Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;‡

<sup>31</sup> and He has filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom and skill, with intelligence and understanding, and with knowledge in all [areas of] craftsmanship,

<sup>32</sup> to devise artistic designs to work in gold, silver, and bronze,

<sup>33</sup> and in the cutting of stones for setting and in the carving of wood, for work in every skilled craft.

<sup>34</sup> “He has also put in Bezalel’s heart [the willingness] to teach [others the same skills], both he and Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.‡

<sup>35</sup> “He has filled them with skill to do the work of an engraver, of a designer, and of an embroiderer, in blue, purple, and scarlet fabric, and in fine linen, and of a weaver; makers of every work and embroiderers of [excellent] designs.‡

Exodus 36

The Tabernacle Underwritten

<sup>1</sup> “BEZALEL AND Oholiab, and every skilled person in whom the LORD has put ability and understanding to know how to do all the work in the construction of the sanctuary, shall work according to all that the LORD has commanded.”‡

<sup>2</sup> So Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person in whom the LORD had put ability, everyone whose heart stirred him, to come to do the work.‡

<sup>4</sup> And all the skilled men who were doing all the work on the sanctuary came, each one from the work which he was doing,

<sup>5</sup> and they said to Moses, “The people are bringing much more than enough for the construction work which the LORD commanded us to do.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So Moses issued a command, and it was proclaimed throughout the camp, “Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the sanctuary offering.” So the people were restrained from bringing anything more;

<sup>7</sup> for the material they had was sufficient and more than enough to do all the work.

Construction Proceeds

<sup>9</sup> Each curtain was twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide; all the curtains were one size.

<sup>10</sup> Bezalel joined five curtains one to another, and [the other] five curtains he joined one to another.

<sup>11</sup> He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set; he also did this on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the second set.

<sup>13</sup> He made fifty gold hooks and joined the curtains together with the hooks, so that the tabernacle became a unit.

<sup>14</sup> Then he made curtains of goats’ hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains in all. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Each curtain was thirty cubits long and four cubits wide; the eleven curtains were of equal size.

<sup>18</sup> He made fifty bronze hooks to join the tent together into a unit.

<sup>23</sup> And [this is how] he made the boards [for frames] for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side;

<sup>24</sup> and he made under the twenty boards forty silver sockets; two sockets under one board for its two tenons (dovetails), and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.

<sup>25</sup> For the other side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty boards,

<sup>28</sup> And he made two boards for each corner of the tabernacle in the rear.

<sup>29</sup> They were separate below, but linked together at the top with one ring; thus he made both of them in both corners.

<sup>30</sup> There were eight boards with sixteen silver sockets, and under [the end of] each board two sockets.

<sup>33</sup> And he made the middle bar pass through [horizontally] halfway up the boards from one end to the other.

<sup>34</sup> He overlaid the boards and the bars with gold and made their rings of gold as holders for the bars.

<sup>38</sup> and [he made] the five support poles with their hooks, and overlaid their [ornamental] tops and connecting rings with gold; but their five sockets were bronze.

Exodus 37

Construction Continues

<sup>1</sup> BEZALEL MADE the ark [of the covenant] of acacia wood—it was two and a half cubits long, and one and a half cubits wide, and one and a half cubits high. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And he overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a molding (border) of gold to go all around [the top of it].

<sup>3</sup> He cast four rings of gold for it on its four feet, two rings on one side and two rings on the other side.

<sup>6</sup> Bezalel made the mercy seat of pure gold; it was two and a half cubits long, and one and a half cubits wide. ‡

<sup>7</sup> He made two cherubim of hammered gold; he made them at the two ends of the mercy seat,

<sup>11</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a border of gold for it all around [its top].

<sup>12</sup> He made a rim for it [just under the top] a hand width wide all around, and a border of gold around its rim.

<sup>14</sup> Close by the rim were the rings, the holders for the poles [to pass through] to carry the table.

<sup>16</sup> He made the utensils which were to be on the table, its dishes and its pans [for bread], its bowls and its jars for pouring drink offerings, of pure gold. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then he made the lampstand (menorah) of pure gold. He made the lampstand of hammered work, its base and its [center] shaft; its cups, its calyxes, and its flowers were all of one piece with it. ‡

<sup>18</sup> There were six branches coming out of the sides of the lampstand, three branches from one side of the center shaft and three branches from the other side of it;

<sup>19</sup> three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a calyx and a flower in one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a calyx and a flower in the opposite branch—so for the six branches coming out of the center shaft of the lampstand.

<sup>20</sup> On the center shaft of the lampstand there were four cups shaped like almond blossoms, with calyxes and flowers [one at the top];

<sup>21</sup> and a calyx was under the first pair of branches coming out of it, and a calyx under the second pair of branches, coming out of it, and a calyx under the third pair of branches coming out of it, for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

<sup>23</sup> He made its seven lamps with its snuffers and its trays of pure gold.

<sup>24</sup> He made the lampstand and all its utensils from a talent of pure gold. [John 1:4, 5, 9; 2 Cor 4:6]

<sup>25</sup> Then Bezalel made the incense altar of acacia wood; its top was a cubit square and it was two cubits high; the horns were of one piece with it. ‡

<sup>26</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides all around and its horns; he also made a rim of gold around it.

<sup>27</sup> He made two rings of gold for it under its rim, on its two opposite sides, as holders for the poles [to pass through] to carry it.

<sup>28</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>29</sup> He also made the holy anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense of spices, the work of a perfumer. ‡

The Tabernacle Completed

<sup>2</sup> And he made its horns (horn-shaped projections) on the four corners of it; the horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

<sup>3</sup> He made all the utensils and vessels of the altar [of burnt offering], the pots, shovels, basins [to catch the blood of the sacrificed animal], meat hooks and the firepans [to store live coals]. He made all its utensils of bronze.

<sup>5</sup> He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating as holders for the carrying poles.

<sup>6</sup> And he made the carrying poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

<sup>7</sup> He put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it; he made it hollow with planks.

<sup>10</sup> their twenty support poles, and their twenty bronze sockets; the hooks of the support poles and their connecting rings were silver.

<sup>14</sup> The curtains for one side of the court gate were fifteen cubits, with their three support poles and their three sockets;

<sup>17</sup> The sockets for the support poles were made of bronze, the hooks of the support poles and their connecting rings were made of silver; and silver overlaid their tops. All the support poles of the court had silver connecting rings.

<sup>18</sup> The screen (curtain) for the gate of the courtyard [on the east side] was the work of an embroiderer, in blue, purple, and scarlet fabric, and fine twisted linen; it was twenty cubits long and five cubits high, corresponding to the curtains of the court.

<sup>20</sup> All the pegs for the tabernacle and the court were bronze. ‡

The Cost of the Tabernacle

<sup>22</sup> Now Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that the LORD commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>23</sup> With him was Oholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a skillful craftsman and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in scarlet fabric, and in fine linen.

<sup>24</sup> All the gold that was used for the work, in all the building and furnishing of the sanctuary, the gold from the wave offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. ‡

<sup>30</sup> With it Bezalel made the sockets for the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and the bronze altar and its bronze grating, and all the utensils of the altar, <sup>31</sup> and the sockets of the court all around and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pegs of the tabernacle and all the pegs around the court.

Exodus 39

The Priestly Garments

<sup>1</sup> MOREOVER, FROM the blue and purple and scarlet fabric, they made finely woven garments for serving and ministering in the Holy Place; they made the holy garments for Aaron, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>2</sup> Bezalel made the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple, and scarlet fabric, and fine twisted linen. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then Bezalel and Oholiab hammered the gold [into thin sheets] and cut it into threads to work into the blue, purple, and scarlet fabric, and into the fine linen, the work of a skilled craftsman.

<sup>4</sup> They made attaching shoulder pieces for the ephod; it was attached at its two [upper] edges.

<sup>5</sup> The skillfully woven sash with which to bind it, which was on the ephod [to hold it in place], was like its workmanship, of the same material: of gold and of blue, purple, and scarlet fabric, and fine twisted linen, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup> They made the onyx stones, set in settings of gold filigree; they were engraved as signs are engraved, with the names of [the twelve tribes of] the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And he put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod to be memorial stones (a remembrance) for the sons of Israel (Jacob), just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>9</sup> It was square; they made the breastpiece folded double, a [hand's] span long and a [hand's] span wide when folded double.

<sup>12</sup> and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

<sup>13</sup> and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they were mounted in settings of gold filigree.

<sup>15</sup> And they made on the breastpiece twisted chains like cords of pure gold.

<sup>16</sup> They made two settings of gold filigree and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece.

<sup>17</sup> Then they put the two twisted cords of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastpiece. ‡

<sup>18</sup> They put the [other] two ends of the two cords on the two filigree settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

<sup>19</sup> They made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inner edge which was next to the ephod.

<sup>20</sup> Furthermore, they made two [other] gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, at the front of it, close to the place where it is joined, above the woven sash of the ephod.

<sup>21</sup> They bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it would lie on the woven sash of the ephod, and so that the breastpiece would not come loose from the ephod, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>23</sup> there was an opening [for the head] in the middle of the robe, like the opening in a coat of armor, with a hem around it, so that it would not be frayed or torn.

<sup>24</sup> On the hem of the robe they made pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet fabric, and fine twisted linen.

<sup>31</sup> They tied a blue cord to it, to fasten it on the turban above, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>32</sup> Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was finished; and the Israelites did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; that is what they did. ‡

<sup>33</sup> They brought the tabernacle to Moses [for him to inspect]: the tent and all its furnishings, its hooks, its [frame] boards, its bars, its support poles, its sockets or bases;

<sup>34</sup> and the covering of rams’ skins dyed red, and the covering of porpoise skins, and the veil (partition) of the screen (curtain);

<sup>35</sup> the ark of the Testimony, its carrying poles and the mercy seat;

<sup>36</sup> the table and all its utensils and the bread of the Presence (showbread);

<sup>37</sup> the pure gold lampstand and its lamps, with the lamps placed in order, all its utensils, and the oil for the light;

<sup>38</sup> the golden altar [of incense], the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the [hanging] veil for the doorway of the tent;

<sup>39</sup> the bronze altar [of burnt offering] and its grating of bronze, its poles and all its utensils, the basin and its base;

<sup>40</sup> the curtains of the courtyard, its support poles and sockets, and the screen (curtain) for the courtyard gate, its cords and pegs, and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting [of God with His people];  [Ex 29:42, 43 ]

<sup>41</sup> the [finely] woven garments for serving and ministering in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons to minister as priests.

<sup>42</sup> So the Israelites did all the work according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>43</sup> And Moses [carefully] inspected all the work, and behold, they had done it; just as the LORD had commanded, so had they done it. So Moses blessed them. ‡

Exodus 40

The Tabernacle Erected

<sup>2</sup> “On the first day of the first month (Abib) you shall set up the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting [of God with you]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “You shall set the [bronze] altar of burnt offering in front of the doorway of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>8</sup> “You shall set up the courtyard [curtains] all around and hang up the screen (curtain) for the gateway of the courtyard.

<sup>9</sup> “Then you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and consecrate it and all its furniture; and it shall be holy (declared sacred, separated from secular use). ‡

<sup>10</sup> “You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar, and the altar shall be most holy. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “You shall anoint the basin and its base, and consecrate it.

<sup>15</sup> you shall anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may serve as priests to Me; and their anointing shall qualify them for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Thus Moses did; in accordance with all that the LORD commanded him, so he did.

<sup>18</sup> Moses erected the tabernacle, laid its sockets, set up its boards, put in its bars and erected its support poles.

<sup>19</sup> He spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent over it, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>20</sup> He took the Testimony [the stones inscribed with the Ten Commandments] and put it into the ark [of the covenant], and placed the poles [through the rings] on the ark, and put the mercy seat on top of the ark. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Moses brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up a veil (partition) for the screen (curtain), and screened off the ark of the Testimony, just as the LORD had commanded him. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then he put the table in the Tent of Meeting on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil. ‡

<sup>23</sup> He set the bread [of the Presence] in order on it before the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded him.  [John 6:32–35 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then he put the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting, opposite the table, on the south side of the tabernacle. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Moses mounted and lighted the lamps [on the lampstand] before the LORD, just as the LORD commanded him. ‡

<sup>26</sup> He put the golden altar [of incense] in the Tent of Meeting in front of the veil; ‡

<sup>29</sup> He set the altar of burnt offering before the doorway of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, just as the LORD commanded him. ‡

<sup>30</sup> He placed the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar [of burnt offering], and put water in it for washing. ‡

<sup>32</sup> When they entered the Tent of Meeting, and when they approached the altar, they washed, just as the LORD commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>33</sup> And he erected the courtyard all around the tabernacle and the altar, and hung the screen (curtain) at the gateway of the courtyard. So Moses finished the work. ‡

The Glory of the LORD

<sup>34</sup>Then the cloud [the Shekinah, God's visible, dwelling presence] covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the tabernacle.  [Rev 15:8.] ‡

<sup>35</sup>Moses was not able to enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud remained on it, and the glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the tabernacle. ‡

<sup>36</sup>In all their journeys, whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out; ‡

<sup>37</sup>but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey on until the day when it was taken up. ‡

<sup>38</sup>For throughout all their journeys, the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel. ‡

Annotations for Exodus

1:1 Israel. Originally, Israel was called Jacob. His twelve sons became the founders of the twelve tribes of the nation Israel.

1:2–4 The sons are listed according to their mothers and their ages. Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun were all sons of Leah. Benjamin was the son of Rachel. Dan and Naphtali were sons of Bilhah, the maid of Rachel. Gad and Asher were sons of Zilpah, the maid of Leah (for each son's birth, see Ge 29:31–35 ; 35:16–20 ,23–26 ).

1:8 a new king. This king did not remember Joseph, his privileged position in the older pharaoh's administration, his administrative skill that saved the Egyptians from starvation, and his enrichment of the pharaoh's treasury. This pharaoh was probably one of the Hyksos kings who descended from foreign invaders. Ethnically they were a minority in Egypt, and they may have perceived the growing numbers of Hebrews as a personal challenge.

1:11–22 to oppress them . Long before the sons of Israel came to Egypt, Abraham received a remarkable revelation from the Lord (Ge 15:13–16 ): his descendants would be strangers in a foreign land and would be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years. "In all their distress He was distressed" (Isa 63:9 ). At the point when Israel's afflictions became unbearable they cried for help, and God responded in faithfulness to His promise.

1:11 Pithom and Raamses. These storage cities are mentioned according to the names by which they were known in later times. The Pharaoh Ramses (whose name presumably relates to the name of one of these cities) was not yet in power.

1:15 king of Egypt. This king was probably not the Hyksos king alluded to in verses 8–14 . This king, perhaps Thutmose I (c. 1539–1514 BC), ruled Egypt when Moses was born (2:1–10 ). Hebrew midwives. The names of these women (Shiphrah—"beautiful one," and Puah—"splendid one") are preserved in this account because they were godly women with a courageous faith. At the same time, the names of the pharaohs—the "important" people of the day—are omitted.

1:17 feared. The Hebrew term for "fear" is the word regularly used for piety, obedience, and the true worship of God (20:20 ; Ge 22:12 ).

2:2 gave birth to a son. This was not their first child, both Miriam and Aaron were older than Moses (v. 4 ; 7:7 ).

2:6 one of the Hebrews' children. A Hebrew baby would have been circumcised on the eighth day. Although circumcision was practiced in Egypt, it was not done to infants. Upon unwrapping the infant's clothing, the women would have seen his special mark.

2:10 Because I drew him out. In Hebrew, the name Moses means "he who draws out." In this manner, Moses' name can refer the reader to the living God, who is the true Deliverer, and also to Moses, who was used by God to deliver the Israelites from the Red Sea (chs. 14–15 ). The one who was drawn out of water would be the means of drawing the Israelite nation out of water.

2:11 after Moses had grown. The years of Moses' experience in the pharaoh's court are not detailed. Yet Stephen, the New Testament martyr, reported the long-held and surely accurate tradition: "Moses was educated in all the wisdom and culture of the Egyptians, and he was a man of power in words and deeds" (Ac 7:22 ). The training Moses received was the best education the world had to offer at the time. He would have learned three languages: Egyptian, Akkadian, and Hebrew. When Moses came into the presence of Pharaoh to demand freedom for his people, he was no "uneducated slave," but had received an education on par with the king's.

2:15 the land of Midian. This is the region of the Sinai Peninsula and Arabian deserts where the seminomadic Midianites lived (for the Abrahamic origin of this people group, see Ge 25:1 ).

2:16 the priest of Midian. This man appears to have been a foreigner who had come to worship the true and living God.

2:19 An Egyptian. Moses apparently still dressed and spoke as an Egyptian, rather than as a Hebrew.

2:22 Gershom. Gershom means “a stranger there.” Moses was doubly removed from his land. He and his people, the Israelites, were strangers in Egypt, and now he was estranged even from his people.

2:23 the king of Egypt died. The death of Pharaoh (likely Thutmose III, who died about 1447 BC) meant that Moses could return to Egypt (4:19 ).

3:1 Horeb. This alternate name for Mount Sinai means “desolate place.” Yet because of God’s appearance on the mountain, this desolate place would become holy. Usually the site of this mountain is identified as Jebel el-Musa, a mountain in the southern Sinai Peninsula.

3:2 Angel. The word angel simply means “messenger” (Mal 1:1 ). In the Old Testament, the term “the Angel of the Lord” is used numerous times, and is identified with God as well as being distinguished from Him. In this passage, having mentioned that the Angel of the Lord appeared to Moses, it is immediately established that it was the Lord Himself (v. 4 ).

3:6 the God of your father. God identified Himself as the God worshiped by Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. In announcing these names, the Lord was assuring Moses that the covenant He had made with them was still intact.

3:14 I AM WHO I AM. The One who spoke to Moses declared Himself to be the Eternal One—uncaused and independent. Only the Creator of all things can call Himself the I AM in the absolute sense; all other creatures are in debt to Him for their existence. But in addition, God the Creator declares His relationship with the people of Israel. The future tense of the Hebrew verb related to God’s name is used in verse 12 : The I AM will be with His people. Thus God declares His covenantal relationship with Israel by His name.

3:15 The LORD . LORD in capital letters is the form translators have chosen to represent the Hebrew name YHWH (also transliterated Yahweh, or Jehovah). The Hebrew word meaning “I Am” used in verse 14 is very similar.

4:6–7 leprous. The term leprosy included a wide variety of skin diseases.

4:19 who were seeking your life . God promised Abraham that those who persecuted Israel would be judged (Ge 12:3 ), and it is clear from history that God fulfilled His promise. In Exodus 14 , the Egyptians attempted to destroy the Israelites by driving them into the Red Sea, but instead were drowned themselves. Those who threw Daniel to the lions were devoured by those same beasts (Da 6 ). Haman plotted to destroy all the Jews in Persia, and ended up signing his own death warrant (Est 7 ). “The LORD keeps all who love Him” (Ps 145:20 ).

4:21 Pharaoh. This Pharaoh was most likely Amenhotep II (c. 1447–1421). I will harden his heart. Some interpret these words to mean that God would confirm what Pharaoh had stubbornly determined to do. In the first five plagues, the hardening was attributed to Pharaoh (7:13 ,22 ; 8:15 ,19 ,32 ; 9:7 ). Then for the sixth plague, God hardened a heart that had already rejected Him (9:12 ). Others insist that God had determined Pharaoh’s negative response to Moses long before Pharaoh could harden his heart. These interpreters point to this verse and to 9:16 , in which God says that He raised up Pharaoh for the purpose of demonstrating His power.

4:24 sought to kill him. The precise meaning of this passage is unclear. Apparently someone in Moses’ family was not circumcised, despite God’s command. It is possible that Moses had kept one of his sons uncircumcised in order to please his Midianite family. (The Midianites practiced adult male circumcision at the time of marriage, rather than infant circumcision as the Hebrews did.) Moses' neglect of the sign of God's covenant was very serious, especially for the future leader of God's people.

5:2 Who is the LORD. Later these words would haunt Pharaoh (12:31–32). Meanwhile, Pharaoh believed himself to be a god in his own right, and certainly felt no need to cave in to the demands of a god who claimed to be the champion of his slave labor force.

5:7–9 let them go and gather straw for themselves. It is easy to rationalize our cruel treatment of others when it is in our selfish interest to do so. We often hear "Pharaoh's reasoning" about minority peoples or people on welfare today. Of course laziness and discontent is a genuine problem for some who are on welfare, or who feel oppressed (just as it is for some who were born into wealth and privilege), but too often we turn off the concern we should have for the poor and oppressed with the comfortable conviction that somehow they deserve their problems. If we continue in this attitude, we may be sure that God will judge our sin. God cares deeply for the weak, the poor, and the downtrodden; if we are genuine disciples we will share His concern.

5:23 speak in Your name. It seems that Moses expected Pharaoh to cave in as soon as he heard the use of the Lord's name Yahweh (3:13–15; 5:1). Yet God had warned Moses that Pharaoh would do the opposite (3:19; 4:21).

6:4 My covenant. This is a reference to the Abrahamic covenant celebrated in Genesis (Ge 12:1–3, 7; 15:12–21; 17:1–16; 22:15–18).

6:14–27 their fathers'. The family history of Moses, Aaron, and Miriam is important because all of Israel's future priests would come from this family.

7:1 your prophet. As Moses was the prophet of the Lord, so Aaron became Moses' prophet. Aaron would speak for Moses, for a prophet was the "mouth" of the one who sent him.

7:3 I will make Pharaoh's heart hard. It was a part of God's plan that Pharaoh would be inflexibly stubborn, thus setting the scene for God to deliver His people by powerful signs and wonders.

7:7 eighty . . . eighty-three. These men had already lived as long as the average lifetime of our day before their principal life work had begun. Moses and Aaron each lived another forty years as leaders of the nation of Israel.

7:9–10 Miracles— A miracle could be defined as the temporary suspension of some natural law (like turning a staff into a snake), or the manipulation of natural forces (such as weather) over which humans ordinarily have no jurisdiction. We tend to look for miracles only for their immediate results (healing, retribution, etc.), but in the Bible miracles are always for a "sign." The focus isn't on the actual miracle, but on the supernatural as a sign of God's working in the situation. This is clearly seen in the miracles of Jesus. If His purpose had just been physical healing, He would have set up a clinic and systematically healed everyone. Instead, His miracles were for a sign, to let people know who and what He was (Jn 20:30–31). Go to Theological Notes Index

7:11 wise men . . . sorcerers . . . magicians. The king's wise men were his counselors, men of learning and insight. In ancient times, the "wise men" of a court were often associated with occult practices. The power of these men may have been in trickery and slight-of-hand illusions, or demonic power. Later the royal courts of Israel had wise men (1Ki 4:34; Pr 25:1), but the black arts of sorcery, divination, and astrology were forbidden (Dt 18:9–14).

7:12 his staff . . . serpents. The text does not say whether this was a genuine transformation or a trick of Pharaoh's evil sorcerers. Whatever the case, their serpents were no match for the serpent of God's sign.

7:15 to the water . . . the bank of the Nile. Pharaoh went to the waters of the Nile not to bathe but to be empowered. Pharaoh's bath in the Nile was a sacred Egyptian rite connected to his claim of divinity. The plague on the waters of the Nile was a direct attack on the Egyptian religion.

7:23 turned and went into his house. Pharaoh showed his utter disdain for the revelation of God's power and his complete lack of concern for the suffering of his own people.

8:7 the magicians . . . with their secret arts and enchantments. We do not know how or in what quantities the magicians produced frogs, but doing so hardly helped the situation. Clearly the power they had was not strong enough to counteract the plagues God sent.

8:8 called for Moses and Aaron. Note that Pharaoh did not turn to his magicians to relieve the land of the frogs.

8:15 Instability— The action of this Egyptian Pharaoh is a case study in instability. He gave permission for the people to go and then changed his mind more than once. He alternated between denying the power of God and actually admitting his sin. Pharaoh was a rebel against God, tossed about by his own lack of integrity. Believers can take warning from Pharaoh's behavior. The apostle James informs us that a double-minded man is unstable in all his ways (James 1:8 ). But stability isn't something we achieve by sheer willpower. Real integrity and stability comes from the security of our relationship with God. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:18 The magicians (soothsayer-priests) tried . . . enchantments . . . but they could not. Perhaps the lack of announcement meant they had no time to prepare. The magicians could not duplicate God's work; further proof that this was no trick, but the hand of God.

8:26 repulsive and unacceptable to the Egyptians. Moses employed the ethnic and cultural sensibilities of the Egyptians to free the Israelites (Ge 43:32 ; 46:34 ). The sacrificial animals of Israel would include sheep, something the Egyptians regarded as detestable.

9:11 for the boils were on the magicians. The reference to the hapless magicians is almost humorous. Not only were they powerless, but they also suffered from the plague.

9:16 for this very reason I have allowed you to live. God used Pharaoh's stubbornness and disobedience to demonstrate His power. Pharaoh was not only an evil ruler in a powerful state; he was an evil man, ungodly, and unrighteous. Pharaoh set himself up as a god who maintained the stability of his kingdom. The Lord's judgment on him was an appropriate response to this fraud.

9:17 exalting yourself. Pharaoh was behaving like the king of Tyrus (Eze 28:1-10 ) and Satan, whom the king of Tyrus emulated (Eze 28:11-19 ).

9:19 bring your livestock. The fact that God was judging Pharaoh does not mean that He was unmerciful. The Lord could have destroyed Pharaoh and his people in a moment (v. 15 ), but instead He warned them of the calamities about to befall them. Apparently some of the Egyptians took the word of the Lord seriously.

9:27 I have sinned. This was a stunning admission for such a proud man. Sadly, these words of contrition would not hold. Pharaoh repeated them later (10:16-17 ), only to take them back in the end.

10:1 I have hardened his heart. Three verbs are used in Exodus to describe God's hardening of Pharaoh's heart. Usually the verb meaning "to make hard" is used (4:21 ). In 7:3 the verb "to make stiff" is used. Here the Hebrew verb that means "to make heavy" or "to make insensitive" is used.

10:3 refuse to humble yourself. Pharaoh's pride was his undoing. He believed himself to be a god and paraded himself like one. God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble (Ps 18:27 ; 1Pe 5:5 ).

10:12-16 Repentance— In Exodus 9 and 10 there are two vivid examples of "foxhole religion" recorded for us. This kind of "faith" freely acknowledges the person and power of God during a terrible crisis, and then promptly forgets all about Him when the danger passes. Just like little children, we want to avert punishment by saying, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry!" and then go about our business as usual. God is not interested in empty "I've sinned" confessions. Only true repentance from the heart is acceptable to God. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart. See 3:19 ; 4:21 ; 5:2 ; 7:3 ,13-14 .

10:22 thick darkness. This calamity was another direct attack on the Egyptian religious system. They worshiped many gods, but none so much as the sun. An enshrouding darkness that lasted three days was a clear statement that their gods, their Pharaoh with his supposed control of nature, and all Pharaoh's counselors were, in reality, helpless before the God of Israel.

10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart. See 3:19 ; 4:21 ; 5:2 ; 7:3 ,13-14 .

11:3 favor. After all that had happened, we might suppose that the Egyptians would have universally hated the Hebrews. Instead, most of the people felt positively towards them, even Pharaoh's own servants.

11:7 a distinction between Egypt and Israel. The institution of the Passover accentuated this great distinction. The Lord in His mercy protected His people even as He executed judgment on those who opposed Him.

11:9-10 wonders . We tend to think that if God would only send a miracle, people would have to believe. Sadly, history shows that this is not true. Often those individuals who have seen God's mightiest miracles have responded by displaying a total lack of faith. Pharaoh had all the proof one could want of who God was, and did not believe. The Pharisees saw a man raised from the dead, and wanted to kill both the man and his healer (Jn 11:53 ; 12:9-11 ). God desires us to believe His word by faith, and not be dependent on supernatural and external signs and wonders. Miracles are signs, just as the creation itself is a sign of God's power and authority (Ro 1:19-20 ), but a person whose heart is hardened toward God will not be any more impressed with a miracle than with a sunset.

12:1–14 The Passover— There was only one Passover. The Passover feast has always been one of the primary elements of Jewish religious tradition and is their way of remembering the “pass over” by the Lord, sparing the people of a visit by “the destroyer” (v. 23). By celebrating it, Jews remember one of the key elements of their history. It points to their national identity and to their deliverance as a community of faith. One could say that it was a defining moment of their faith. For the Christian, the event clearly foreshadows the cross of Christ. He is our Passover Lamb who delivers us from death by taking it all on Himself. The parallels between Exodus 12 and the Christian Communion service are noteworthy (1Co 11:23–26). Go to Theological Notes Index

12:2 the beginning of months to you. This month, called Abib in 13:4, corresponds to April/May and is also called Nisan. The Hebrew people began to mark time in relation to the time of their departure from Egypt.

12:5 without blemish. Sacrifice was not a way to get rid of unwanted animals. Only the very best lambs were suitable. The Passover lamb sacrificed for the Israelites was meant as a picture of the coming death of the perfect, sinless Savior, Jesus Christ.

12:8 unleavened bread and bitter herbs. The Passover meal is full of symbolism, the unleavened bread reminded them that the first Passover was eaten in haste, ready for flight. The bitter herbs were a reminder of the bitterness of the slavery from which they were rescued.

[12:12 I \[the LORD\] will pass through . . . will strike down.](#) The repetition of the pronoun I emphasizes that God did this, not an angel or some other agent.

12:13 sign. The term “sign” can mean a reminder, memorial, or symbol, as it does here, or a miracle that points to the power of God.

12:29–33 the LORD struck every firstborn. In the Passover we have a summary of God’s eternal plan of salvation. Jesus, the final sacrifice, was killed at the time of the Passover feast; His blood provides salvation from eternal death. Note some similarities between the first and final Passover: (1) the blood of an innocent sacrifice must be shed, (2) the sacrifice must be blameless, and (3) the shed blood must be applied by faith.

12:29 and all the firstborn of the cattle. Though not nearly as awful as the death of firstborn children, the death of the livestock was a blow to the Egyptians economically. These deaths were also attacks on the power of their gods (v. 12).

12:32 and [ask your God to] bless me also. At last Pharaoh capitulated (10:9 ,26). The death of his son—and the deaths of firstborn sons everywhere—must have shattered him to the core of his being.

12:36 plundered the Egyptians. Newly freed slaves do not usually make their escape with their masters pushing the family silver into their hands. Far from wanting to keep the Israelites in bondage, the rest of Egypt couldn't wait to get rid of them.

12:37 Rameses. The reference to Rameses most likely relates to the store city Raamses, mentioned in 1:11, perhaps Tel el-Maskhuta further to the east. six hundred thousand men. This number of men would indicate a total population of perhaps three million men, women, and children (Nu 1:46).

12:38 mixed multitude. Apparently a number of Egyptians and perhaps other non-Hebrews joined the flight out of Egypt. Some of these people later caused trouble when things did not go as smoothly as expected (Nu 11:4).

12:39 unleavened cakes. The symbolism in this has to do with the haste of their departure, not (as some have supposed) that there is something evil in leaven itself. If leaven were intrinsically evil, the Israelites would have been forbidden to eat leaven at any time. In the New Testament, leaven is often used as a symbolic way of speaking about sin, but again, leaven in and of itself is not evil.

12:40 four hundred and thirty years. If the exodus took place around 1446 BC, Jacob's arrival in Egypt would have been around 1876 BC.

12:46 nor shall you break any of its bones. Not breaking the bones of the lamb foreshadowed Jesus' death. None of the Savior's bones were broken, even though He suffered a horrible death (Ps 34:20 ; Jn 19:33–36).

13:1–22 Sanctify to Me. Before the dramatic story of the crossing of the Red Sea there is a record of foundational institutions that the Lord gave to Israel. These are: (1) the consecration of the firstborn (vv. 1–2); (2) the Feast of Unleavened Bread (vv. 3–10); and (3) the law concerning the firstborn (vv. 11–16). This is followed by the Lord's command to the Israelites to travel in an unexpected direction (vv. 17–22).

13:9 sign. A similar commandment is found in Deuteronomy 6:8. Jews would fasten a small box containing passages of Scripture to their foreheads or arms during prayer, to serve as a memorial. The physical symbol was designed to be a reminder of the inner reality of making God's law the guiding rule of all we do.

13:13 firstborn of a donkey. Donkeys were unclean animals, and could not be used as a sacrifice. Instead they were redeemed with a lamb. Similarly, a firstborn son was redeemed. God would never allow human sacrifice. Later the Lord claimed the Levites for Himself in exchange for the firstborn sons of the people (Nu 3:40–51).

13:18 the way of the wilderness. The route the Israelites traveled from Egypt to Canaan has been disputed. The traditional route has the people moving in a southerly direction along the western shore of the Sinai Peninsula until they reached Mount Sinai in the far south central region of the peninsula. Red Sea. This translation comes from the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Old Testament); the Hebrew phrase means "Sea of Reeds." This phrase may refer to the ancient northern extension of the Red Sea. Many believe that it was one of the marshy lakes of the region.

13:19 the bones of Joseph. The story of the last wish of Joseph and his death is found in Genesis 50:22–26.

14:11-12 What is this that you have done to us. This marks the first of ten episodes of Israel's unbelief, beginning at the Red Sea, and concluding at Kadesh-barnea (Nu 14:22). Because of these ten events an entire generation was prevented from entering the promised land. The New Testament book of Hebrews recalls these events, using the promised land as a picture of heaven and warning that disobedience and unbelief will still keep people out of the final land of "rest" (Heb 4).

14:13 the salvation of the LORD . The Hebrew word for salvation comes from a term that has to do with room or space. The people were under great pressure, squeezed between the waters before them and the armies of Pharaoh behind them. Salvation relieved the pressure in a most dramatic way.

14:19 angel of God. The term "angel of God" is an alternative expression for the angel of the Lord. The pillar of cloud is later strongly associated with the Lord Himself (33:9–11 ).

14:25 the LORD is fighting for them. This was the confession the Lord demanded; word spread widely that the Lord fought for the Israelites.

14:31 Israel . . . believed in the LORD. The same wording is used of Abraham's saving faith in Genesis 15:6 (see also Ro 4 ). The people were transformed spiritually even as they were delivered physically.

15:2 My father's God. The Israelites had worshiped, believed, and obeyed. Today, Christians are part of Abraham's line because they also believe, obey, and worship the same God (Gal 3:6–7 ). Many faithful believers have preceded us.

15:3 the LORD is His name. Other supposed gods had secret names that only guilds of priests knew. By knowing a god's secret name, a priest supposedly had special access to that god. But the living God had made His name known to all, and salvation is found in His name alone.

15:11 Who is like You. Many times, the Bible uses the language of incomparability to describe the true God. In a world in which there are many supposed gods, the Lord is unique. He alone is God. He is not just better than other gods; there are no other gods. No person, god, or thing can be compared to the one true God (Ps 96:4 ; Isa 40:25–26 ; Mic 7:18 ).

15:18 The LORD shall reign to eternity and beyond. Ultimately, the salvation of Israel from Egypt points to the coming reign of the living God on earth over His redeemed people. This victory song ends with the assertion of the eternal rule of the Lord, promising the kingdom of God rather than the conquering of neighboring lands. Its emphasis is spiritual, not material. Now that deliverance from slavery in Egypt had been accomplished, the Hebrews would be formed by God into a nation which was designed to be a witness to the rest of the world of God's character and authority.

15:20 prophetess. Although there is no record of women serving as priests in ancient Israel, women did serve as prophetesses (Deborah, Jdg 4:4 ; the wife of Isaiah, Isa 8:3 ; Huldah, 2Ki 22:14 ). As a prophetess, Miriam spoke authoritatively from God. However, it is apparent that neither she nor Aaron had the level of intimacy with God that Moses had.

15:24 grumbled. The people's recent deliverance from the Egyptian armies makes this complaint seem fickle and a true test of God's mercy. We are like the Israelites far too often, turning from praise to complaint at a moment's notice.

15:27 Elim. Elim means "place of trees." The wells and palms of this oasis would have been a welcome relief from the barren wasteland.

16:1 Wilderness of Sin. The location of this wasteland is uncertain; its position between Elim and Sinai depends on the location of Mount Sinai. (The name Sin has nothing to do with the English word "sin.")

16:4 test. In this sense, to test does not mean "to provide evidence," but "to prove what one really is."

16:5 twice as much. Gathering extra food on the sixth day would allow for the Sabbath rest (v. 25 ).

16:10 the glory . . . of the LORD. This is one of the grand appearances of God recorded in Exodus. We do not know exactly what the people saw in the cloud, but the sight certainly made them aware of God's majestic and somewhat ominous presence (Ps 97:2–5 ).

16:14 a fine, flake-like thing, as fine as frost on the ground. There have been many attempts to explain manna as a naturally occurring substance that still might be found in the desert, suggesting that it was some kind of plant or animal secretion. However, it is clear from the wording of these verses that this was not so. The description of the manna was necessary precisely because it was not a naturally occurring substance, or something they had ever seen before (Nu 11:1–15 ).

16:15–18 God's provision— It is easy to think we trust in God and believe He will supply all of our needs when we have food, shelter, and clothing. It is more difficult when the food is low, the clothing has disappeared, and there is no money to pay the rent. Sometimes God allows us to be in this kind of position so that we will have to learn to consciously rely on His providence. When we really place our lives in His hands, we will experience a depth of relationship which is worth far more than all the security in the world. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:19 Let none of it be left. The Israelites' daily dependence on manna was an act of faith in God's provision.

16:26 Six days . . . the Sabbath. The characteristics of manna were a built-in reminder of the importance of the Sabbath day in the life of the people of Israel.

16:31 coriander seed . . . honey. Apparently the manna was very tasty. It must also have been very nutritious since it was the staple of the Israelites for a full generation.

16:32 kept throughout your generations. This pot of manna was not only a reminder of God's miraculous provision, but a miracle in itself since it did not spoil as did the extra manna Israelites gathered for themselves.

17:7 Is the LORD among us. The people had seen God's power in the plagues, the exodus, the crossing of the Red Sea, and the provision of manna. Every day they saw the pillar of His presence. We can wonder at their lack of faith until we look at our own weakness.

17:8 Amalek. The people of Amalek were descendants of Esau, and thus relatives of the Hebrews (Ge 36:12). Their attack on Israel was unprovoked. The Israelites—and the Lord—regarded this attack as particularly heinous (vv. 14–16).

17:14 Write this. Some people allege that the first five books of the Old Testament were not actually written down until centuries after Moses' death. Others concede that Moses may have written certain small sections, such as the one to which this verse seems to refer (24:4). However, strong tradition supports the assertion that Moses really wrote all of the first five books; ancient Jews, including Jesus, referred to this portion of the Scripture as "the books of Moses."

17:16 The LORD has sworn. This Hebrew phrase is somewhat obscure, but appears to mean "Surely there is a hand on the throne of the LORD." In this phraseology, the Creator of the universe is pictured as seated on His throne while raising His hand in a solemn oath. It is a fearful thing for the wicked to fall into the hands of the just and righteous Judge of the universe.

18:6 her two sons. Zipporah's two sons stayed with Moses and became part of the families of Israel. However, the subsequent history of the family of Gershom involved a return to idols and inappropriate priesthood (Jdg 18:30).

18:7 bowed down [in respect] and kissed him. The ancient Middle Eastern acts of bowing and kissing were not acts of worship, but signs of respect and reminders of obligations between two people.

18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater. Jethro's words imply that he had once regarded the Lord as one among many gods, or perhaps as the principal deity over the lesser. Here he declares full faith in God as the supreme Deity.

18:21 hate dishonest gain . Jethro's five qualifications for judges are similar to the qualifications for elders in the New Testament (1Ti 3:1–13). In particular, the men recommended by Jethro were to be God-fearing and haters of dishonesty. As such they would not be susceptible to bribery, and justice would not be perverted. God takes no bribes (Dt 10:17), so neither must a judge. A bribe blinds the eyes. Human justice must reflect divine justice, which is impartial (Ro 2:11).

19:5–8 God Gives His Covenant— The covenant with Moses is the second covenant that pertains to the rule of God. It is different than the Abrahamic covenant in that it is conditional. It is introduced by the conditional formula "if you will in fact obey My voice . . . you shall be My own special possession and treasure." This covenant was given to the nation Israel so that those who believed God's promises given to Abraham in the Abrahamic Covenant (Ge 12:1–3) would know how they should live. The Mosaic Covenant in its entirety governs three areas of their lives: (1) the commandments governed their personal lives (Ex 20:1–26); (2) the law governed their social lives particularly as they related to one another (Ex 21:1–24:11); and (3) the ordinances governed their religious lives so that the people would know how to approach God (Ex 24:12–31:18). The Mosaic Covenant did not replace the Abrahamic Covenant. It was added alongside the Abrahamic Covenant so that the people of Israel would know how to live until “the seed,” Christ, comes and makes the complete and perfect sacrifice. The Mosaic Covenant was never given so that by keeping it people could be saved, but so that they might realize that they cannot do what God wants, even when God writes it down on stone tablets. The law was given that man might realize that he is helpless and that his only hope is to receive the righteousness of God by faith in Jesus (Gal 3:17–24). Go to Theological Notes Index

19:16 a very loud blast was sounded on a ram's horn. Amazingly, one of the heavenly visitors played the trumpet rather than someone in the camp of Israel (compare Isa 27:13; 1Co 15:52; 1Th 4:16). No wonder they trembled (20:18–19).

19:18 the LORD descended. Even though we know God is everywhere, language such as this gives us a greater appreciation of His merciful grace.

20:1 Then God spoke. The following words of God are known as the law of Moses, but this is only because they were delivered to the people from God through Moses, not because Moses invented them.

20:1–17 The Ten Commandments— The first four Commandments (20:1–11) lay out the basics of the relationship with God. God is not a mere abstraction or figment of imagination. He is the God who spoke dramatically to the patriarchs and continues to speak to us. Our responsibility is to have a relationship with Him whereby we explicitly recognize Him, listen to what He says, and then obey. What He wants isn't all that complicated. He is the Creator and Master of the world, as we know it. Any view of God that makes Him less, falls short of what is required to make the relationship between God and man work. For example, if God is not the creator and sustainer of the world, then the perspective of Genesis 1:28 and our responsibility as stewards of His creation don't make much sense.

The last six Commandments (20:12–17) give us the basics for living—with our families, our neighbors, and our communities. Disregarding and disobeying any of these commands leads to the breakdown and possible destruction of those relationships. The relationship between a parent and a child can only go downhill if the basic respect for the parent has not been created and maintained. Adultery clearly has enormous potential to destroy a marriage because it creates distrust where trust should be. Trust is one of the foundational blocks of the marriage relationship.

While many would like to say that these Commandments are limiting, confining, and outdated, in reality, they provide the basis for a society to function harmoniously. Only when a culture places limits on itself, is it able to prosper. Followed correctly, these Commandments provide safety and freedom, the same way a fish functions best within the confines of water. In the water it lives and prospers. On land it dies. Go to Theological Notes Index

20:3 no other gods. God is not to be viewed as one god among many, or even as the highest among many. He is the one and only.

20:4 not make . . . any likeness. This command has often been misunderstood as a prohibition against all kinds of art. In fact, God used many “likenesses” of created things to beautify His tabernacle, including carved images and woven pictures. The prohibition was not against art, but against attempting to “picture” God. Any statue, icon, painting, or image of any sort which is meant to be a representation of God can only detract from His glory. God does not want His people to worship a picture of “what He might look like,” He wants all our worship for Himself alone.

20:5 a jealous (impassioned) God. In other words, He has a zeal for the truth that He alone is God, and He is jealous of any rivals.

20:6 showing graciousness and steadfast lovingkindness to thousands. The contrasting of the phrases “third and fourth generations” (v. 5) with “thousands” demonstrates that God’s mercy is greater than His wrath. The lingering effects of righteousness will last far longer than the lingering effects of wrath.

20:7 in vain. Using God’s name in vain is trivializing His name by regarding it as insignificant, trying to advance evil purposes by coaxing God to violate His character and purposes, or even simply using it thoughtlessly, without any attempt to realize of whom we are speaking.

20:8–11 Remember the Sabbath (seventh) day. The word Sabbath means “rest.” The command to rest and remember the Lord on the seventh day goes back to the pattern set at the time of creation (Ge 2:2–3 ).

20:12 Honor (respect, obey, care for) your father and your mother. The term “honor” means “to treat with significance.” Many times we equate “honor” with “obey,” but in fact the two are not synonyms. Adult children or children of ungodly parents can find ways to honor when they cannot in good conscience obey.

20:14 adultery. God regards the sanctity of marriage as a sacred trust similar to the sanctity of life (v. 13 ). The marriage relationship is a symbol of God’s faithfulness to us.

20:16 testify falsely. This command is an essential foundation for a just and effective judicial system.

20:20 the fear of Him. God did not want His people to live in terror of Him, as though He were an irrational, uncontrolled, violent force, ready to be unleashed on innocent people without provocation. Rather, God wanted His people to respect the obvious hazards of wanton sin. Appropriate fear of God in this sense would make them circumspect, reverent, obedient, and worshipful, so that they might not sin.

20:26 your nakedness. The pagan worship of the Canaanites involved sexually perverse acts. Nothing obscene or unseemly was permitted in the pure worship of the living God.

21:1 the ordinances. This word describes God’s response to a specific action, something like an umpire’s call. The judgments of God set forth here are responses to specific situations; the Ten Commandments are more general laws, a code for living rather than a response to a certain problem.

21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth. Here we encounter the best known statement of the “law of retaliation.” The idea here is not to foster revenge, but to curtail it. The natural, sinful human response is “a head for an eye, a jaw for a tooth, an arm for a hand.” This law says “no more than eye for eye, tooth for tooth.”

22:1–4 the sun has risen. There is a difference between struggling with an intruder at the moment when he is caught red-handed, and hunting him down in order to kill him later on. The law made a distinction between self-defense and murder as retaliation.

22:18 You shall not allow a woman who practices sorcery to live. The Bible does not record any executions of sorcerers or sorceresses, but it does recount the deadly consequences of false worship (ch. 32 ; Nu 25 ).

23:1 false report. Malicious talk is everywhere condemned in Scripture (see James 3:1–12 ).

23:3 favor or be partial to a poor man. God’s support of the poor did not overrule His justice. Here God anticipated that some would use poverty as an excuse for greedy, even criminal, activity.

23:11 rest and lie uncultivated. Letting the land rest allowed the poor to glean any produce that might grow during the fallow year. It also gave the land time to rejuvenate for greater productivity in subsequent years. The year of rest was an act of faith, for the Israelites would have to trust God to meet their needs.

23:17 Lord GOD . Here two names for God, Adonai (translated as Lord), and Yahweh (translated as GOD), are used together. This expression emphasizes God’s sovereignty.

23:20 Angel. The statement “My Name (authority) is in Him” (v. 21 ) shows that this messenger is the Angel of the Lord, who is none other than God Himself; with the promise of His presence and protection comes the warning “obey His voice,” for the Lord is a holy God who cannot dwell in the presence of sin. Obedience is the evidence of reality of the covenant relationship. The Angel of the Lord “encamps around those who fear Him” (Ps 34:7 ).

23:26 suffer miscarriage or be barren. God reminded His people that He was the one who controlled reproduction—not the fertility cults of the pagan Canaanites.

24:6 blood. This blood anticipated the death of the coming Messiah, Jesus. His blood could do what the blood of bulls and goats could never accomplish; His death opened the way for direct communication with God (12:7 ; Ro 3:23–26 ; Heb 10:4,10 ).

24:8 the blood of the covenant. Just as their houses were protected from the Passover by the sign of blood (ch. 12 ), now the people were brought into a covenant relationship with the Lord with a sign of blood. This is a picture of our own relationship with God, brought about by the blood of Jesus (1Pe 1:2 ).

24:9–17 God of Israel. This vision of God was a great privilege. The elders of the people saw God standing on a structure resembling a transparent sapphire platform, which emphasized His grandeur. Blue was one of the colors favored by some members of ancient Near Eastern royalty. God's glory is the manifestation of all His divine characteristics, including power and holiness, which for Israel were represented by the billowing consuming fire (Heb 12:29 ).

24:12 Come up to Me. Only Moses could draw near to God at that time. Today, we are all called to draw near to God through Jesus (see Heb 4:14–16 ).

25:2 From every man whose heart moves him. God does not need the gifts of His people, but He desires us to give to Him as an expression of true worship.

25:9 the pattern. The language of these verses suggests that there is a heavenly pattern that the earthly tabernacle was designed to resemble (see v. 40 ; 26:30 ; 27:8 ; Ac 7:44 ; Heb 8:5 ).

25:10 ark. In contrast to the idolatry of Israel's neighbors, the shrine of the living God had no likeness or idol of any sort (20:2–6 ). cubits. This measurement was represented by the length of a man's arm from elbow to extended middle finger. The commonly accepted estimate for the cubit is eighteen inches. Therefore, the ark was about four feet long and two and one quarter feet wide and high.

25:17 mercy seat. This English phrase translates a Hebrew noun derived from the verb meaning “atone for,” “to cover over,” or “to make propitiation.” The mercy seat was the lid of the ark, the place where God's spirit rested.

25:22 I will speak [intimately] with you. God dwells with His people in the space-time reality in which He created them, and communes with them in the language with which He endowed them. He is not aloof and He is not silent. His words are an extension of Himself and reflect His nature. They are altogether pure and without blemish, and they are fully authoritative. At the same time, His words reach out to man and are rooted in love, issued from the mercy seat. He speaks them Himself or has them spoken by His authority. He preserves them. He writes them or has them written under His superintendence. God is the ultimate Author of His own Word. This Word is and remains His living and abiding Voice.

25:29 pure gold. All of the implements for making bread were also to be costly and wonderfully designed to physically represent their holiness. They were “set apart” to God.

25:30 the bread of the Presence. Twelve loaves representing the twelve tribes of Israel were placed in two rows with six loaves in each row (Lev 24:5–9 ). It was called bread of the Presence because it was placed symbolically before the face of God.

25:39 talent. A talent weighed about 75 pounds.

26:1 tabernacle. The word tabernacle simply means “tent.”

27:9–18 court of the tabernacle . The courtyard separated the ceremonies of worship from common areas. It was arranged to keep people and stray animals from wandering into the tabernacle. Entering the tent could only be a deliberate act.

27:20 clear oil of beaten olives. All that was used in the tabernacle and sacrifices must be pure and without blemish in order to honor God's holiness. a lamp burn continually. The oil for the lampstand was the gift of the children of Israel. It had to be pure oil, as a symbol of our need to call upon the Lord from a pure heart (2Ti 2:22 ). The lamps were to burn continuously, a reminder of the perpetual need of the sinner for the light of God's word, "a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path" (Ps 119:105 ).

28:3 skilled and talented people. This expression literally means "those who are wise at heart." The same expression is used of the skillful women who did the weaving (35:25 ).

28:5–14 ephod. The ephod has been described as a cape or vest made of fine linen with brilliant colors. Its two main sections covered the chest and back, with seams at the shoulders and a band at the waist.

28:16 span. The span was determined as the length from the tip of the thumb to the tip of the small finger on an outstretched hand. It is generally estimated as nine inches, or half a cubit.

28:30 the Urim \(Lights\) and the Thummim \(Perfections\). Together their names may mean "perfect knowledge" or a similar idea. It is not known exactly what the Urim and Thummim were, or how they were used. Some have suggested that they were two stones used for the casting of lots.

28:42 undergarments. The command to wear trousers protected the modesty of the priests. Given the sexually preoccupied worship of Israel's neighbors, this provision was decidedly countercultural.

29:1–9 consecrate Aaron and his sons. The outward purification process was used to symbolize the inward purity which was demanded of the priests of Israel, the intermediaries between the people and their holy God. Obviously the priests were not perfectly pure; it was only God's gracious act of accepting blood sacrifices that allowed the priests to stand in His presence on behalf of the people. The outward washings of the priests showed that they were doing everything possible to live their lives in the way they had been commanded by God. Likewise, in the New Testament era, the only reason that Christians can stand before God as believer-priests is because God graciously accepts Christ's sacrifice on behalf of our sins.

29:1 consecrate. The priests' actions should mark them as distinct, holy, set aside for God's purposes.

29:9 ordain. The verb translated ordain in this verse literally means "to fill one's hand." A king was handed a rod as the symbol of his political power; so the hand of the priest was filled with spiritual power.

29:18 burnt offering. Aaron and his sons needed to offer sacrifices for themselves as much as for their fellow Israelites (Heb 5:1–4 ).

29:24 wave offering. This offering made it clear that everything was owed to God, but some was received back as God's gift (Lev 7:30 ; 10:14 ).

29:40 one-tenth of a measure . . . hin. One tenth of a measure was about two quarts; one fourth of a hin was about one quart.

29:45 dwell among the sons. Man is God's special creation, created in His image and likeness. A part of that image and likeness is the uniqueness of personality that allows communion with God. He did not create a race of robots but rather endowed man with a will so that he might choose fellowship with God. In Israel, fellowship with God centered in the tabernacle and especially in the mercy seat which symbolized His presence. Today, believers have fellowship with God through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. In eternity He will dwell in the midst of His people more fully than ever before.

30:7 sweet . . . incense. Burning incense was a privilege restricted to those who were allowed to approach God.

30:9 strange incense. The incense offered to God was to be made from a special recipe consecrated to be used only in the worship at the tabernacle. No other incense was acceptable.

30:10 atonement . The sacrificial blood of the sin offering (Lev 16:18 ) was applied to the incense altar to indicate that even this article needed cleansing to preserve its ideal holiness because of man's willful or accidental sin. The Hebrew word for "atonement" involves the covering or canceling of sin, resulting in the offender being reconciled to God. Without blood being shed there can be no forgiveness (Heb 9:22). The atonement made annually for this small altar is a reminder that everything in God's service must be holy to the Lord (Zec 14:20).

30:12 ransom. The idea is to pay a price for one's life. The Israelites had to acknowledge that their lives were from God and governed by Him by giving Him an offering of money.

30:19 wash their hands and their feet. The continual washing was symbolic of the need to be cleansed from sin regularly.

31:3 filled him with the Spirit of God. We often think of the "filling of the Spirit" only in connection with Acts 2, but passages such as this one help us to see the continuity of God's work among His people through the ages. In this case, the Spirit empowered uniquely gifted people to design and build a tabernacle befitting a holy and magnificent God.

31:18 the finger of God. This verse underscores the divine origin of the law. Scholars of religion have long spoken of Israel's religious ideas as its unique contribution to civilization, much as the Greeks developed philosophy and the Romans displayed a genius for organization and empire-building. Yet such a comparison misses the point of Scripture. The Bible speaks not of the genius of Israel, but of the finger of God. The Ten Commandments were not the product of man, but the revelation of the Lord.

32:1–35 The Golden Calf— The story of the Israelites' worship of the golden calf reveals both the unfaithfulness of the Israelites and God's great mercy. Even though the people had so quickly broken their promise to obey Him, God forgave their sin and began again with them. Go to Theological Notes Index

32:2–3 gold rings. These were part of the treasure from Egypt that should have been used for building the tabernacle (35:20–29).

32:4 a molten calf. This was an ominous worship symbol. Not only were the cow and the bull worshiped in Egypt, but the bull was a familiar embodiment of Baal seen in Canaan. It appears that the worship of the Lord had been blended with the symbols of Baal and other fertility gods. In this one scene, the people broke the first three of God's commandments.

32:14 the LORD changed His mind. Here is a wonderful example of the interaction of faithful intercessory prayer and the purpose of the Lord. He uses our prayer combined with His own determination to make His will come to pass.

32:25–26 were out of control. Obedience to God is many times just the opposite of "what everybody else is doing." Humans are very prone to giving in to peer pressure at the crucial moment. We often care more about what those around us think than about what God thinks. Aaron and the other Levites fell into this trap initially, but when Moses gave them another chance to say where their loyalties really lay, they chose the path of obedience. Even though almost "everybody was doing it," they were willing to say, "No, this is wrong. We were wrong." The Levites were not innocent, but God blessed them for their repentance and their obedience.

32:27–28 his brother . . . his friend . . . his neighbor. This terrible massacre is hard for us to reconcile with our feelings, but we must realize that sin is loathsome and deserving of death. The Levites were used by God to execute His judgment in this instance, but they were not given general authority to kill sinners.

32:32–33 blot me out of Your book. Like Paul many centuries later, Moses could almost wish himself to be cursed, if by being so he could secure the salvation of his people (Ro 9:3).

32:34 in the day. This may refer to the day of the Lord, proclaimed by later prophets (Joel 2 ; Zep 1).

33:5 stiff-necked. Contrary to popular belief, God did not choose the Hebrew people because of their righteousness or willingness to serve Him (Dt 9:7). In fact, one of Israel's besetting sins was obstinacy (vv. 3 ,5), and God saw them as a rebellious and stiff-necked people. The opposite of being obstinate is to "circumcise [that is, remove sin from] your heart" (Dt 10:16). Such a heart is inclined to obey the Word of God. God's presence with His people was in response to His covenantal promise: if they obeyed Him they would be His “special possession and treasure” (Ex 19:5 ).

33:6 left off all their ornaments. These ornaments were probably associated with the idolatrous worship of the golden calf. Their removal was a mark of genuine repentance and renewal.

33:8 all the people would rise and stand. In contrast to their former wickedness, the people now responded reverently to the living God.

33:11 his attendant Joshua. The word translated attendant here does not mean slave, but rather a minister, one who does spiritual service.

33:17 I have known you [personally] by name. God’s grace was accompanied by His intimate knowledge of and care for Moses.

33:22–23 My hand. The use of words such as hand, back, and face is a way of describing God, who is Spirit, in terms familiar to humans.

34:6 compassionate and gracious . . . abounding in lovingkindness and truth. God is overwhelmingly gracious. John’s description of the coming of Jesus echoes this passage, describing the Messiah as “full of grace and truth” (Jn 1:14 ,17 ). To see Jesus is to see the Father (Jn 1:18 ).

34:7 forgiving iniquity. God is a God of unlimited grace, mercy, and forgiveness. But man is not automatically forgiven—“He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished.” We receive forgiveness from God only when we repent and seek reconciliation with Him. The second covenant with Israel (34:10 ) included relief from the judgment of the people’s sins to allow them to be taught their need and seek forgiveness.

34:15 play the prostitute with their gods. This is probably more than a figure of speech. Unfaithfulness to the Lord was often manifested in sexual rites with temple prostitutes (male and female), acts of supposed union with Baal, Asherah, and other pagan deities.

34:16 take some of his daughters for your sons. The quickest way for the Israelites to become corrupted with the false worship of the Canaanites would have been to marry into it.

34:28 forty days and forty nights. A person can survive without food for weeks, but no one can go entirely without water for more than three or four days. This fact has been used to cast doubt on the truth of this passage, but we must recall that there is no reason to think that God could not keep His servant hydrated in any way He chose.

34:33 a veil over his face. Paul taught that Moses wore the veil because the glow faded, a sign of imperfect glory (2Co 3:7 ,13 ).

35:31–35 Spirit of God. The work of the Holy Spirit is often thought to have begun at Pentecost (Ac 2 ), but in fact the Holy Spirit of God was at work long before that time. The Old Testament shows that He was active in creation (Ge 1:2 ; Job 33:4 ). The Spirit came upon men for prophetic utterance (1Sa 10:10 ) and for all divine revelation (2Sa 23:2 ). Men were endowed for special functions by the power of the Holy Spirit (Ex 31:3 ; Jdg 11:29 ; 13:25 ; 14:6 ). Bezalel is a good example of a man indwelt by the Spirit of God in the Old Testament (37:1–9 ).

36:8–37:29 Servant— Not only ability was required for service in building the tabernacle. God also wanted willing hearts (36:2 ). Even if we do not feel that we are particularly good at anything, we must remember that every talent we possess, no matter how small, is a gift from God. He gives us these gifts so that we will have something to give back to Him. We should look at ourselves, not saying, “I don’t have any great skill, I’ll just sit and watch,” but rather, “Here’s what I have—where shall I start?” Go to Theological Notes Index

37:1–9 Bezalel. Bezalel carefully reproduced the pattern given to Moses (25:10–22 ). Obviously this pattern wasn’t just a “design suggestion” from God. Each detail had to be just like the plan because each part was a symbol or reminder of their relationship with God, His character, and His holiness.

38:22–23 Responsibility— No higher tribute can be paid than “Well done—you’ve finished.” Bezalel and his assistant, Oholiab, were called, Spirit endowed, and commissioned for one work and one work alone. Neither of these individuals ever became celebrities, but God does not measure our effectiveness in His kingdom work by how many times we make the headlines in the local media. God cares about whether we obey Him faithfully, not whether other people approve of us. It is easy to make verbal commitments that sound really good, but God isn't looking for fine words. He complimented Bezalel and Oholiab on finishing their assignment, not on their fine start or their good intentions (39:43). Go to Theological Notes Index

38:24 All the gold. The weight of all the gold used in the work may have been about a ton. The talent weighed about 75 pounds, and equaled 3,000 shekels.

38:25 The silver. The quantity of silver was enormous, about 7,000 pounds.

38:26 a beka for each man. The census of Numbers 14:6 puts the number of men over the age of 20 at 603,550.

38:27–28 the sanctuary. Although the tabernacle was a tent, it was not a makeshift dwelling. It was a glorious shrine that symbolized the presence of the living God in the midst of the people.

38:29 bronze. About 5,000 pounds of bronze were used.

39:32–43 that is what they did. Because it was so important in God's plan for His people, both in the wilderness and today, the tabernacle had to be constructed in exact accordance with the divine pattern. It was the place where His glory would actually dwell and where they could meet Him. Because they had done just as the Lord had commanded, "Moses blessed them." A mood of celebration pervades these verses. One can sense the pride of accomplishment coupled with the reverence for all of these holy objects.

40:2 first month. This was the month of Abib, also called Nisan (12:2 ; 13:4 ). The tabernacle was completed nine months after the arrival of the people at Mount Sinai (19:1 ) and two weeks before the second celebration of the Passover (v. 17 ).

40:20–21 the Testimony . . . the mercy seat. The Testimony was the stone tablets of the Ten Commandments (25:16 ). The mercy seat was the cover of the ark (25:17–22 ).

40:34 cloud . . . glory. When the Lord came near in 19:20 , the people were terrified, but this time they were overjoyed. The glory of the Lord filling the tabernacle demonstrated His presence with the Israelites, His significance to them, and His awe-inspiring wonder.

40:35 the cloud remained on it. God is not "far away in heaven," occasionally looking at the earth through binoculars. He lives among His people, and He desires to communicate with them (Jn 1:14 ).

40:38 the cloud of the LORD . The Book of Exodus ends with the picture of the gracious God hovering protectively over His people. He allowed His presence to be felt and seen.

The Third Book of Moses, Called

Leviticus

- AUTHOR: Moses is declared to be the author of Leviticus fifty-six times within the book. External evidence supporting the authorship of Moses includes 1) a uniform ancient testimony; 2) parallels found in the Ras Shamra Tablets dating from 1400 BC; 3) the testimony of Christ (Mt 8:2–4 and Lev 14:1–4 ; Mt 12:4 and Lev 24:9 ; Lk 2:22 ).
- TIMES: c. 1405 BC
- KEY VERSES: Lev 20:7–8
- THEME: Leviticus is God's guidebook for His newly redeemed people. It shows them how to worship and live holy lives. The instructions for the sacrificial system point to a holy God and what he requires from people who would serve him. The laws of holiness and sanctification provide basic instructions for living in a community. Together the two groups of laws are a framework for relationship between God and man. Blessings result from obedience to these laws and discipline is the result of disobedience.

Leviticus 1

The Law of Burnt Offerings

1 THE LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting, saying, ‡

2 “Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘When any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of [domestic] animals from the herd (cattle, oxen) or from the flock (sheep, goats). ‡

3 ‘If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish; he shall offer it at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting so that he may be accepted before the LORD. [Rom 12:1; Phil 1:20] ‡

4 ‘He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering [transferring symbolically his guilt to the sacrifice], that it may be accepted for him to make atonement on his behalf. [Heb 13:15, 16; 1 Pet 1:2] ‡

5 ‘He shall kill the young bull before the LORD; and Aaron’s sons the priests shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ‡

6 ‘Then he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces.

7 ‘The sons of Aaron the [high] priest shall put fire on the altar [of burnt offering] and arrange wood on the fire. ‡

8 ‘Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, the head and the fat, on the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar.

9 ‘But he shall wash its entrails and its legs with water. The priest shall offer all of it up in smoke on the altar as a burnt offering. It is an offering by fire, a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD. [Eph 5:2; Phil 4:18; 1 Pet 2:5]

10 ‘But if his offering is from the flock, of the sheep or of the goats, as a burnt offering, he shall offer a male without blemish. ‡

11 ‘He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. ‡

12 ‘He shall cut it into pieces, with its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar.

13 ‘But he shall wash the entrails and legs with water. The priest shall offer all of it, and offer it up in smoke on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.

14 ‘But if his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall bring turtledoves or young pigeons as his offering. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘The priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head, and offer it up in smoke on the altar; and its blood is to be drained out on the side of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> ‘He shall remove its crop with its feathers and throw it next to the east side of the altar, in the place for ashes. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘Then he shall tear it open by its wings, but shall not sever it. And the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD. ‡

Leviticus 2

The Law of Grain Offerings

<sup>2</sup> ‘He shall bring it to Aaron’s sons the priests. Out of it he shall take a handful of the fine flour and oil, with all of its frankincense, and the priest shall offer this up in smoke on the altar [of burnt offering] as the memorial portion of it. It is an offering by fire, a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD. ‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘If your offering is grain baked on a griddle, it shall be of fine unleavened flour, mixed with oil.

<sup>6</sup> ‘You are to break it into pieces, and you shall pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

<sup>7</sup> ‘Now if your offering is grain cooked in a lidded pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

<sup>8</sup> ‘When you bring the grain offering that is made of these things to the LORD, it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar [of burnt offering].

<sup>11</sup> ‘No grain offering that you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you shall not offer up in smoke any leaven [which symbolizes the spread of sin] or any honey [which, like leaven, is subject to fermentation] in any offering by fire to the LORD.  [1 Cor 5:8] ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘As an offering of first fruits you may offer them [leaven and honey] to the LORD, but they shall not go up [in smoke] on the altar as a sweet and soothing aroma. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘You shall season every grain offering with salt so that the salt (preservation) of the covenant of your God will not be missing from your grain offering. You shall offer salt with all your offerings.  [Mark 9:49, 50] ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘You shall put oil on it and lay incense on it; it is a grain offering. ‡

Leviticus 3

The Law of Peace Offerings

<sup>4</sup> and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys.

<sup>6</sup> ‘If his peace offering to the LORD is an animal from the flock, male or female, he shall offer the animal without blemish. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘If he offers a lamb as his offering, then he shall present it before the LORD,

<sup>8</sup> and he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

<sup>9</sup> ‘From the sacrifice of peace offerings he shall bring as an offering by fire to the LORD, its fat, the entire fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat which is on the entrails,

<sup>10</sup> and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

<sup>14</sup> ‘Then he shall present from it as his offering, an offering by fire to the LORD: the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails,

<sup>15</sup> and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys.

<sup>17</sup> ‘It is a permanent statute for your generations wherever you may be, that you shall not eat any fat or any blood.’ ” ‡

Leviticus 4

The Law of Sin Offerings

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel, ‘If a person sins unintentionally in any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and commits any of them—‡

<sup>3</sup> if the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, then he shall offer to the LORD a young bull without blemish as a sin offering for the sin he has committed.  [Heb 7:27, 28] ‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘Then the anointed priest is to take some of the bull’s blood and bring it into the Tent of Meeting; ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘The priest shall also put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense which is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting. All the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of the burnt offering which is at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘He shall remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering—the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat which is on the entrails,

<sup>11</sup> ‘But the hide of the bull and all its meat, with its head, its legs, its entrails, and its refuse, ‡

<sup>12</sup> that is, all the rest of the bull, he is to bring outside the camp to a clean place where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on a fire of wood. Where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.  [Heb 13:11–13] ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘Now if the whole congregation of Israel sins unintentionally, and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, and they have done any one of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and they become guilty; ‡

<sup>14</sup> when the sin which they have committed becomes known, then the congregation shall offer a young bull of the herd as a sin offering and bring it before the Tent of Meeting.

the bull before the LORD [to transfer symbolically the congregation's guilt to the sacrifice], and they shall kill the bull before the LORD. ‡

<sup>18</sup> 'He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar [of incense] which is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting; and he shall pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>19</sup> 'He shall remove all its fat from the bull and offer it up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>20</sup> 'He shall also do with the bull just as he did with the bull of the sin offering; that is what he shall do with this. So the priest shall make atonement for [the sin of] the people, and they will be forgiven. ‡

<sup>21</sup> 'Then the priest is to bring the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the congregation.

<sup>23</sup> if his sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring a goat, a male without blemish as his offering. ‡

<sup>25</sup> 'Then the priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering. ‡

<sup>26</sup> 'And he shall offer all its fat up in smoke on the altar like the fat from the sacrifice of peace offerings; so the priest shall make atonement for him in regard to his sin, and he will be forgiven. ‡

<sup>27</sup> 'If anyone of the common people sins unintentionally by doing any of the things the LORD has commanded not to be done, and becomes guilty, ‡

<sup>28</sup> if his sin which he has committed is made known to him, then he shall bring a goat, a female without blemish as his offering for the sin which he has committed. ‡

<sup>29</sup> 'He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering [transferring symbolically his guilt to the sacrifice], and kill it at the place of the burnt offering. ‡

<sup>31</sup> ‘Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat was removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD. In this way the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven. ‡

<sup>32</sup> ‘If he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish. ‡

<sup>34</sup> ‘The priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and all the rest of the blood of the lamb he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

<sup>35</sup> ‘Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offerings, and the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar, on the offerings by fire to the LORD. In this way the priest shall make atonement for him in regard to the sin which he has committed, and he will be forgiven.  [Heb 9:13, 14 ] ‡

The Law of Guilt Offerings

<sup>1</sup> ‘IF ANYONE sins after he hears a public adjuration (solemn command to testify) when he is a witness, whether he has seen or [otherwise] known [something]—if he fails to report it, then he will bear his guilt and be held responsible. ‡

<sup>2</sup> ‘Or if someone touches any [ceremonially] unclean thing—whether the carcass of an unclean wild animal or the carcass of an unclean domestic animal or the carcass of unclean creeping things—even if he is unaware of it, he has become unclean, and he will be guilty. ‡

<sup>3</sup> ‘Or if he touches human uncleanness—whatever kind it may be—and he becomes unclean, but he is unaware of it, when he recognizes it, he will be guilty.‡

<sup>4</sup>‘Or if anyone swears [an oath] thoughtlessly or impulsively aloud that he will do either evil or good, in whatever manner a person may speak thoughtlessly or impulsively with an oath, but he is unaware of it, when he recognizes it, he will be guilty in one of these.  [Mark 6:23. ]‡

<sup>5</sup>‘So it shall be when a person is guilty in one of these, that he shall confess the sin he has committed.‡

<sup>6</sup>‘He shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD for the sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin.

<sup>7</sup>‘But if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons as his guilt offering for his sin to the LORD, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering.‡

<sup>9</sup>‘He shall also sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.‡

<sup>10</sup>‘The second [bird] he shall prepare as a burnt offering, according to the ordinance. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for the sin which he has committed, and it will be forgiven him.‡

<sup>11</sup>‘But if he cannot afford to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he shall bring as his offering for his sin the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour as a sin offering; he shall not put [olive] oil or incense on it, for it is a sin offering.‡

<sup>12</sup>‘He shall bring it to the priest, who shall take a handful of it as a memorial portion and offer it up in smoke on the altar, with the offerings by fire to the LORD; it is a sin offering.‡

<sup>13</sup>‘In this way the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed in one of these things, and it will be forgiven him; then the rest shall be for the priest, like the grain offering.’ ”‡

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>15</sup>“If a person commits a breach of faith and sins unintentionally against the holy things of the LORD, then he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, valued by you in shekels of silver, that is, the shekel of the sanctuary, as a guilt offering.‡

<sup>16</sup>“He shall make restitution for the sin which he has committed against the holy thing, and shall add a fifth [of the ram's value] to it, and give it to the priest. The priest shall then make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and he shall be forgiven. ‡

17 “Now if anyone sins and does any of the things which the LORD has forbidden, though he was not aware of it, still he is guilty and shall bear his punishment.  [Luke 12:48 ] ‡

18 “He is then to bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your valuation, for a guilt offering. In this way the priest shall make atonement for him regarding the error which he committed unintentionally and did not know it, and he shall be forgiven. ‡

19 “It is a guilt offering; he was certainly guilty before the LORD.” ‡

Leviticus 6

Guilt Offerings

<sup>2</sup> “When anyone sins and acts unfaithfully against the LORD by deceiving his neighbor (companion, associate) in regard to a deposit or a security entrusted to him , or through robbery, or if he has extorted from his neighbor, ‡

<sup>3</sup> or has found what was lost and lied about it and sworn falsely, so that he sins in regard to any one of the things a man may do— ‡

<sup>4</sup> then if he has sinned and is guilty, he shall restore what he took by robbery, or what he got by extortion, or the deposit which was entrusted to him, or the lost thing which he found,

<sup>5</sup> or anything about which he has sworn falsely; he shall not only restore it in full, but shall add to it one-fifth more. He shall give it to the one to whom it belongs on the day of his guilt offering. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Then he shall bring to the priest his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, as valued by you, as a guilt offering. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “The priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for any one of the things which he may have done to incur guilt.” ‡

The Priest's Part in the Offerings

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>9</sup> “Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering shall remain on the hearth that is on the altar all night until morning and the fire is to be kept burning on the altar.

<sup>11</sup> ‘Then he shall take off his garments and put on something else, and take the ashes outside the camp to a (ceremonially) clean place. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘The fire on the altar shall be kept burning; it shall not [be allowed to] go out. The priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and he shall arrange the burnt offering on it and offer the fat portions of the peace offerings up in smoke on it. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘The fire shall be burning continually on the altar; it shall not [be allowed to] go out.

<sup>14</sup> ‘Now this is the law of the grain offering: the sons of Aaron shall present it before the LORD in front of the altar. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘One of them shall take up from it a handful of the fine flour of the grain offering with its oil and all the incense that is on the grain offering, and he shall offer it up in smoke on the altar, a sweet and soothing aroma, as the memorial offering to the LORD. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘It shall not be baked with leaven [which represents corruption or sin]. I have given it as their share of My offerings by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>20</sup> “This is the offering which Aaron and his sons are to present to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: the tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “It shall be prepared with oil on a griddle. When it is well stirred, you shall bring it. You shall present the grain offering in baked pieces as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.

22 “The priest from among the sons of Aaron who is anointed in his place shall offer it. By a permanent statute it shall be entirely offered up in smoke to the LORD. ‡

23 “So every grain offering of the priest shall be burned entirely. It shall not be eaten.”

24 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

“Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD in the [same] place where the burnt offering is killed; it is most holy. ‡’

26 ‘The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting. ‡’

27 ‘Whatever touches its meat will become consecrated (ceremonially clean). When any of its blood splashes on a garment, you shall wash what was splashed on in a holy place. ‡’

28 ‘Also the earthenware vessel in which it was boiled shall be broken; and if it was boiled in a bronze vessel, then that vessel shall be scoured and rinsed in water. ‡’

29 ‘Every male among the priests may eat this offering; it is most holy. ‡’

30 ‘But no sin offering from which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place shall be eaten; it shall be [completely] burned in the fire.  [Heb 13:11–13 ] ‡’

Leviticus 7

The Priest’s Part in the Offerings

1 ‘THIS IS the law of the guilt offering; it is most holy. ‡’

2 ‘In the place where they kill the burnt offering they are to kill the guilt offering, and he shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. ‡’

3 ‘Then he shall offer all its fat, the fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails, ‡’

4 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

5 ‘The priest shall offer them up in smoke on the altar as an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.

6 ‘Every male among the priests may eat it; it shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy. ‡’

<sup>7</sup> ‘The guilt offering is like the sin offering, there is one law for [both of] them: the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it for himself. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘The priest who presents any man’s burnt offering shall have for himself the hide of the burnt offering which he has presented.

<sup>9</sup> ‘Likewise, every grain offering that is baked in the oven and everything that is prepared in a pan or on a griddle shall belong to the priest who presents it. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘Every grain offering, mixed with [olive] oil or dry, all the sons of Aaron may have, one as well as another.

<sup>11</sup> ‘Now this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which shall be presented to the LORD: ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘If one offers it as a sacrificial meal of thanksgiving, then along with the sacrifice of thanksgiving he shall offer unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour mixed with oil. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving, he shall present his offering with cakes of leavened bread. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘Of this he shall present one [cake] from each offering as a contribution to the LORD; it shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘The meat of the sacrifice of thanksgiving presented as a peace offering shall be eaten on the day that it is offered; none of it shall be left until morning. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice, and on the next day that which remains of it may be eaten; ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘If any of the meat of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is ever eaten on the third day, then it will not be accepted, and the one who brought it will not be credited with it. It shall be an abhorred (offensive) thing; the one who eats it shall bear his own guilt. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘The meat that comes in contact with anything that is unclean shall not be eaten; it shall be burned in the fire. As for other meat, everyone who is [ceremonially] clean may eat it.

<sup>20</sup> ‘But the one who eats meat from the sacrifice of peace offerings which belong to the LORD, in his uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>23</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘You shall not eat any fat from an ox, a sheep, or a goat. ‡

<sup>27</sup> ‘Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.’ ”

<sup>28</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>29</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offerings. ‡

<sup>30</sup> ‘With his own hands he is to bring offerings by fire to the LORD; he shall bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be presented as a wave offering before the LORD. ‡

<sup>33</sup> ‘The son of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat shall have the right thigh as his portion.

<sup>35</sup> ‘This is the consecrated portion from the offerings by fire to the LORD that was designated for Aaron and his sons on the day he presented them to serve as priests to the LORD.

on the day that He anointed them. It is their portion perpetually throughout their generations.’ ”‡

<sup>37</sup> This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the consecration (ordination) offering, and the sacrifice of peace offerings,‡

Leviticus 8

The Consecration of Aaron and His Sons

<sup>4</sup> Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the congregation was assembled at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>5</sup> Moses said to the congregation, “This is what the LORD has commanded us to do.”‡

<sup>9</sup> He also put the turban on Aaron’s head, and on it, in the front, Moses placed the golden plate, the holy crown, just as the LORD had commanded him.‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.‡

<sup>11</sup> He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the basin and its stand, to consecrate them.

<sup>12</sup> Then he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then he brought the bull for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull. ‡

<sup>17</sup> But the bull (the sin offering) and its hide, its meat, and its refuse he burned in the fire outside the camp, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>20</sup> When he had cut the ram into pieces, Moses offered up the head, the pieces, and the fat in smoke.

<sup>21</sup> After he had washed the entrails and the legs in water, Moses offered up the whole ram in smoke on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a sweet and soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>25</sup> He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat that was on the entrails, the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh; ‡

<sup>27</sup> and he put all these things in Aaron's hands and his sons' hands and presented them as a wave offering before the LORD. ‡

<sup>32</sup> "And what remains of the meat and of the bread you shall burn in the fire. ‡

<sup>34</sup> "As has been done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do for your atonement. ‡

<sup>35</sup> "You shall remain day and night for seven days at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, doing what the Lord has required you to do, so that you will not die; for so I (Moses) have been commanded." ‡

Leviticus 9

Aaron Offers Sacrifices

<sup>2</sup> and he said to Aaron, “Take a bull calf as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, [each] without blemish, and offer both before the LORD.  [Heb 10:10–12. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> So they took what Moses had commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and all the congregation approached and stood before the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Moses said to Aaron, “Approach the altar and present your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and for the people; and present the offering of the people and make atonement for them, just as the LORD has commanded.”  [Heb 5:1–5; 7:27. ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> So Aaron approached the altar and killed the calf as the sin offering, which was designated for himself.

<sup>13</sup> They brought the burnt offering to him piece by piece, with the head, and Aaron offered them up in smoke on the altar. ‡

<sup>14</sup> He also washed the entrails and the legs, and offered them up in smoke with the burnt offering on the altar. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Aaron presented the people’s offering. He took the goat for the sin offering of the people, and killed it and offered it for sin, as he did the first.  [Heb 2:16, 17. ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> He also presented the burnt offering and offered it according to the ordinance. ‡

<sup>18</sup> He also killed the bull and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings which was for the people; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him and he sprinkled it around on the altar. ‡

<sup>20</sup> they now put the portions of fat on the breasts; and Aaron offered the fat up in smoke on the altar. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Aaron lifted his hands toward the people and blessed them, and came down [from the altar of burnt offering] after presenting the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they came out they blessed the people, and the glory and brilliance of the LORD [the Shekinah cloud] appeared to all the people [as promised]. [Lev 9:6] ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the portions of fat on the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell face downward [in awe and worship]. ‡

Leviticus 10

The Sin of Nadab and Abihu

<sup>3</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron, “This is what the LORD said: ‡

‘I will be treated as holy by those who approach Me,
And before all the people I will be honored.’ ”

So Aaron, therefore, said nothing.

<sup>4</sup> Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel who was Aaron's uncle, and said to them, "Come here, carry your relatives away from the front of the sanctuary and take them outside the camp." ‡

<sup>5</sup> So they came forward and carried them, still in their undertunics, outside the camp, as Moses had said.

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron and to his [younger] sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not uncover your heads nor let your hair hang loose nor tear your clothes [as expressions of mourning], so that you will not die [also] and so that He will not express His wrath and anger toward all the congregation. But your relatives, the whole house of Israel, may mourn the burning which the LORD has brought about. ‡

<sup>7</sup> "You shall not even go out of the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, or you will die; for the LORD's anointing oil is upon you." So they did [everything] according to the word of Moses. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying,

<sup>9</sup> "Do not drink wine or intoxicating drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the Tent of Meeting, so that you will not die—it is a permanent statute throughout your generations—‡

<sup>10</sup> and to make a distinction and recognize a difference between the holy (sacred) and the common (profane), and between the [ceremonially] unclean and the clean; [Ezek 44:23] ‡

<sup>13</sup> "You shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your portion and your sons' portion, from the offerings by fire to the LORD; for so I have been commanded. ‡

<sup>14</sup> "But the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering you may eat in a clean place, you and your sons and daughters with you; for the breast and the thigh are your portion and your sons' portion, given out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the Israelites. ‡

<sup>15</sup> "They shall bring the thigh presented by lifting up and the breast presented by waving, along with the offerings by fire of the fat, to present as a wave offering before the LORD. This shall be yours and your sons' with you, as your perpetual portion, just as the LORD has commanded." ‡

<sup>16</sup> But Moses diligently tried to find the goat [that had been offered] as the sin offering, and discovered that it had been burned up [as waste, not eaten]! So he was angry with Aaron's surviving sons Eleazar and Ithamar, saying, ‡

<sup>17</sup> "Why did you not eat the sin offering in the holy place? For it is most holy; and God gave it to you to remove the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD." ‡

<sup>18</sup> "Behold, its blood was not brought into the Holy Place; you certainly should have eaten the goat in the sanctuary, just as I commanded." ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then Aaron said to Moses, "This very day they have [obediently] presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, but [such terrible things] as these have happened to me [and to them]; if I [and my sons] had eaten a sin offering today would it have been acceptable and pleasing in the sight of the LORD?"  [Hos 9:4 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> When Moses heard that, he was satisfied.

Laws about Animals for Food

<sup>3</sup> 'You may eat any animal that has a divided hoof [that is, a hoof split into two parts especially at its distal extremity] and chews the cud.

<sup>4</sup> 'Nevertheless, you are not to eat these, among those which chew the cud or divide the hoof: the camel, because it chews the cud but does not divide the hoof; it is [ceremonially] unclean to you.

<sup>5</sup> 'And the shaphan, because it chews the cud but does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you.

<sup>6</sup> "And the hare, because it chews the cud but does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you.

<sup>9</sup> 'These you may eat, whatever is in the water: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, these you may eat; ‡

<sup>10</sup> but whatever does not have fins and scales in the seas and in the rivers, of all the teeming life in the waters, and of all the living creatures that are in the waters, they are [to be considered] detestable to you.  [1 Cor 8:8–13. ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘They shall be hated things to you. You may not eat their meat; you shall detest their carcasses.

<sup>12</sup> ‘Everything in the water that does not have fins and scales is detestable to you.

Avoid the Unclean

<sup>14</sup> the kite, every kind of falcon,

<sup>18</sup> the white owl, the pelican, the carrion vulture,

<sup>21</sup> yet of all winged insects that walk on all fours you may eat those which have legs above their feet with which to leap on the ground.

<sup>22</sup> ‘Of these you may eat: the whole species of migratory locust, of bald locust, of cricket, and of grasshopper.  [Matt 3:4. ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> ‘By [contact with] these you will become unclean; whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until the evening (dusk),

<sup>27</sup> ‘Also all animals that walk on their paws, among all kinds of animals that walk on four legs, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until the evening,

<sup>28</sup> and the one who picks up their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to you.

<sup>29</sup> ‘These also are unclean to you among the swarming things that crawl around on the ground [and multiply profusely]: the mole, the mouse, and any kind of great lizard,‡

<sup>31</sup> ‘These [creatures] are unclean to you among all that swarm; whoever touches them when they are dead becomes unclean until evening.

<sup>32</sup> ‘Also anything on which one of them falls after dying becomes unclean, whether it is an article of wood or clothing, or a skin, or a sack—any article that is used—it must be put in water, and will be unclean until the evening; then it becomes clean.‡

<sup>34</sup> ‘Any of the food which may be eaten, but on which [unclean] water falls, shall become unclean, and any liquid that may be drunk in every container shall become unclean.

<sup>35</sup> ‘Everything that part of their carcass falls on becomes unclean; an oven, or a small stove shall be smashed; they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.

<sup>37</sup> ‘If a part of their carcass falls on any seed for sowing which is to be sown, it is clean;

<sup>38</sup> but if water is put on the seed and a part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

<sup>39</sup> ‘If one of the animals that you may eat dies [of natural causes], whoever touches its carcass becomes unclean until the evening.

<sup>41</sup> ‘Now everything that swarms on the ground is detestable; it is not to be eaten.

<sup>42</sup> ‘Whatever crawls on its belly, and whatever walks on all fours, and whatever has many feet among all things that swarm on the ground, you shall not eat; for they are detestable.

<sup>43</sup> ‘Do not make yourselves loathsome (impure, repulsive) by [eating] any swarming thing; you shall not make yourselves unclean by them so as to defile yourselves.‡

44. ‘For I am the LORD your God; so consecrate yourselves and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not make yourselves unclean with any of the swarming things that swarm or crawl on the ground.  [1 Thess 4:7, 8 ] ‡

45 ‘For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God; therefore you shall be holy, for I am holy.’ ”  [1 Pet 1:14–16 ] ‡

46 This is the law regarding the animal and the bird and every living thing that moves in the waters and everything that swarms on the earth,

47 to make a distinction between the [ceremonially] unclean and the [ceremonially] clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten. ‡

Leviticus 12

Laws of Motherhood

1 THEN THE LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2.“Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‡

‘ If a woman conceives and gives birth to a male child, she shall be [ceremonially] unclean for seven days, unclean as during her monthly period.

3 ‘On the eighth day the flesh of the male child’s foreskin shall be circumcised. ‡

4–‘Then she shall remain [intimately separated] thirty-three days to be purified from the blood; she shall not touch any consecrated thing nor enter the [courtyard of the] sanctuary until the days of her purification are over.

5 ‘But if she gives birth to a female child, then she shall be unclean for two weeks, as during her monthly period, and she shall remain [intimately separated] sixty-six days to be purified from the blood.

6 ‘When the days of her purification are completed, whether for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting a one year old lamb as a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtledove as a sin offering; ‡

7 and he shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement for her, and she shall be cleansed from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who gives birth to a child, whether a male or a female child.

8.‘If she cannot afford a lamb then she shall take two turtledoves or young pigeons, one as a burnt offering, the other as a sin offering; the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.’ ”  [Luke 2:22, 24 ] ‡

Leviticus 13

The Test for Leprosy

<sup>3</sup> “The priest shall look at the diseased spot on the skin of his body, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears deeper than the skin of his body, it is an infection of leprosy; when the priest has looked at him, he shall pronounce him [ceremonially] unclean.

<sup>4</sup> “If the bright spot is white on the skin of his body and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has not turned white, the priest shall isolate the person who has the infection for seven days.

<sup>5</sup> “The priest shall examine it on the seventh day, and if in his estimation the infection has not changed and has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven more days.

<sup>6</sup> “The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the infection has a more normal color and the spot has not spread on the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab; and he shall wash his clothes and be clean. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But if the scab spreads farther on the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his [ceremonial] cleansing, he shall show himself to the priest again.

<sup>8</sup> “The priest shall look, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then he shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

<sup>9</sup> “When a leprous infection is on a person, he shall be brought to the priest.

<sup>10</sup> “The priest shall examine him, and if there is a white swelling on the skin and it has turned the hair white and there is new raw flesh in the swelling, ‡

<sup>11</sup> it is a chronic leprosy on the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not isolate him because he is [clearly] unclean.

<sup>12</sup> “But if the [suspected] leprosy breaks out farther on the skin, and it covers all of the skin of the one who has the outbreak—from his head to his foot—wherever the priest looks,

<sup>13</sup> the priest shall examine him. If the [suspected] leprosy has covered his entire body, he shall pronounce him clean of the disease; it has all turned white, and he is clean.

<sup>15</sup> “The priest shall examine the raw flesh, and he shall pronounce him unclean; the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy.

<sup>16</sup> “But if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest, <sup>17</sup> and the priest shall examine him, and if the diseased part is changed to white, then the priest shall pronounce him who had the disease to be clean; he is clean.

<sup>18</sup> “And when there is on the skin of the body [the scar of] a boil that is healed,‡

<sup>19</sup> and in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a bright spot, reddish white, then it shall be shown to the priest;

<sup>20</sup> and the priest shall look, and if it looks deeper than the skin and the hair on it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the disease of leprosy; it has broken out in the boil.

<sup>21</sup> “But if the priest examines it and finds no white hair in it and it is not deeper than the skin and is dull in color, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days.

<sup>22</sup> “If it spreads farther on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a disease.

<sup>23</sup> “But if the bright spot remains where it is and does not spread, it is the scar of the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>24</sup> “Or if the body has on its skin a burn from fire and the new flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish white or white,

<sup>25</sup> then the priest shall examine it, and if the hair in the bright spot has turned white, and it appears deeper than the skin, then leprosy has broken out in the burn. So the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the disease of leprosy.‡

<sup>26</sup> “But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the bright spot and it is not deeper than [the rest of] the skin but is dull in color, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days.

<sup>27</sup> “And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day; if it is spreading farther on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

<sup>28</sup> “But if the bright spot remains in its place and has not spread in the skin, but is dull in color, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar of the burn.

<sup>29</sup> “When a man or woman has a disease on the head or in the beard (face),

<sup>31</sup> “But if the priest examines the spot infected by the scale, and it does not appear deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, the priest shall isolate the person with the scaly infection for seven days.

<sup>32</sup> “On the seventh day the priest shall examine the diseased spot; if the scale has not spread and has no yellow hair in it, and the scale does not look deeper than the skin,

<sup>33</sup> then he shall shave himself, but he shall not shave the scale; and the priest shall isolate the person with the scale for seven more days. ‡

<sup>36</sup> then the priest shall examine him, and if the scale has spread on the skin, the priest need not look for the yellowish hair; he is unclean.

<sup>38</sup> “When a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, even white bright spots,

<sup>39</sup> then the priest shall look, and if the bright spots on the skin of their bodies is a dull white, it is [only] a rash that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

<sup>41</sup> “And if he loses the hair on front of his head, he is bald on the forehead, but he is clean.

<sup>43</sup> “Then the priest shall examine him, and if the diseased swelling is reddish-white on his bald head or forehead like the appearance of leprosy on the skin of the body,

<sup>44</sup> he is a leprous man; he is unclean; the priest shall most certainly pronounce him unclean; his disease is on his head.

45 “As for the leper who has the infection, his clothes shall be torn, and the hair of his head shall be uncovered (disheveled), and he shall cover his mustache and call out, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’ ‡

46 “He shall remain [ceremonially] unclean as long as the disease is on him; he is unclean. He shall live alone; he shall live outside the camp. ‡

47 “When a garment has a mark of leprosy in it, whether it is a wool garment or a linen garment,  [Jude 23; Rev 3:4 ]

48 whether in woven or knitted material or in the warp (lengthwise strands) or woof (crosswise strands) of linen or of wool, or in a skin or on anything made of leather, 49 if the mark is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather or in the warp or woof or in any article made of leather, it is an infestation of leprosy and shall be shown to the priest.

50 “The priest shall examine the mark and shall quarantine the article with the mark for seven days.

51 “He shall examine the mark on the seventh day; if it has spread in the garment, whether in the warp or the woof, or in the leather, whatever the leather’s purpose, the mark is a malignant leprosy; it is unclean. ‡

52 “So he shall burn the garment, whether the warp or woof, in wool or linen, or on anything made of leather in which the mark occurs; for it is a malignant leprosy; it shall be burned in the fire.

53 “But if the priest sees that the mark has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or the woof, or on anything made of leather,

54 then the priest shall order that they wash the thing in which the mark occurs, and he shall quarantine it for seven more days.

55 “The priest shall examine the article with the mark after it has been washed, and if the mark has not changed color, even though the mark has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire; it is a corroding mildew, whether on the top or on the front of it.

56 “If the priest looks and the mark has faded after it is washed, he shall tear it out of the garment, or the leather, or out of the warp or woof.

57 “If it still appears in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or on anything made of leather, it is an outbreak; you shall burn the marked part in the fire.

58 “The garment, whether the warp or the woof, or anything made of leather from which the mildew has departed after washing, shall then be washed a second time and it will be [ceremonially] clean.”

<sup>59</sup> This is the law for a leprous disease in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or woof, or on anything made of leather, to pronounce it clean or unclean.

Leviticus 14

Law of Cleansing a Leper

<sup>2</sup> “This shall be the law of the leper on the day of his [ceremonial] cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest [at a meeting place outside the camp]; ‡

<sup>3</sup> the priest shall go out of the camp [to meet him]; and the priest shall examine him, and if the leper has been healed of the infection of leprosy,

<sup>5</sup> “Next the priest shall order that one of the birds be killed [as a sacrifice] in an earthenware container over [fresh] running water.

<sup>6</sup> “As for the live bird, he shall take it together with the cedar wood and the scarlet string and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird sacrificed over the running water.

<sup>7</sup> “He shall sprinkle [the blood] seven times on the one to be cleansed from the leprosy and shall pronounce him [ceremonially] clean. Then he shall let the live bird go free over the open field.  [Heb 9:13–15 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> “The one to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe in water; and he shall be clean. After that he may come into the camp, but he shall stay outside of his tent for seven days. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “On the seventh day he shall shave off all his hair: he shall shave his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair [on his body]. Then he shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and be clean.

<sup>10</sup> “Now on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and a yearling ewe lamb without blemish, and three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with [olive] oil as a grain offering, and one log (about a pint) of oil; ‡

<sup>11</sup> and the priest who cleanses him shall present the man to be cleansed and his offerings before the LORD at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>12</sup> “Then the priest shall take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering, with the log of oil, and present them as a wave offering before the LORD. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “He shall kill the male lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the sacred place [the courtyard of the tabernacle]; for the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Next the priest shall offer the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness, and afterward kill the burnt offering. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “The priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

<sup>21</sup> “But if the cleansed leper is poor and his means are insufficient, then he is to take one lamb as a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, and one tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and a log of oil, ‡

<sup>22</sup> and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he can afford, one shall be a sin offering, the other a burnt offering. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Next he shall kill the lamb of the guilt offering; and the priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “The rest of the oil that is in the priest’s palm shall be put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> “Then he shall offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, which are within his means. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “He shall offer what he can afford, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. The priest shall make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one to be cleansed.

<sup>32</sup> “This is the law for the one in whom there is an infection of leprosy, whose means are limited for his [ceremonial] cleansing.” ‡

Cleansing an Infected House

<sup>34</sup> “When you come into the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as a possession, and I put a mark of leprosy on a house in your land, ‡

<sup>35</sup> then the one who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, ‘I have seen something that looks like a mark of leprosy in my house.’ ‡

<sup>36</sup> “The priest shall order that they empty the house before he goes in to examine the mark, so that everything in the house will not have to be declared unclean; afterward he shall go in to see the house.

<sup>37</sup> “He shall examine the mark, and if the mark on the walls of the house has greenish or reddish depressions and appears deeper than the surface,

<sup>38</sup> the priest shall go out of the house, to the doorway, and quarantine the house for seven days.

<sup>39</sup> “The priest shall return on the seventh day and look; and if the mark has spread on the walls of the house,

<sup>40</sup> he shall order them to tear out the contaminated stones and throw them into an unclean place outside the city.

<sup>41</sup> “He shall have the entire inside area of the house scraped, and the plaster that is scraped off shall be dumped in an unclean place outside the city.

<sup>42</sup> “Then they shall take new stones and replace the [contaminated] stones, and he shall take plaster and replaster the house.

<sup>43</sup> “If, however, the mark breaks out again in the house after he has removed the stones and has scraped and replastered the house,

<sup>44</sup> then the priest shall come and look again, and if the mark has spread in the house, it is a malignant leprosy in the house; it is [ceremonially] unclean. ‡

<sup>45</sup> “He shall tear down the house—its stones and its timber and all the plaster of the house—and shall take everything outside the city to an unclean place.

<sup>46</sup> “Moreover, whoever goes into the house during the time that it is quarantined becomes unclean until evening.

<sup>48</sup> “But if the priest comes in and inspects it and the mark has not spread in the house after the house has been replastered, he shall pronounce the house clean because the mark has not reappeared.

<sup>49</sup> “To cleanse the house then, he shall take two birds and cedar wood and scarlet string and hyssop; ‡

<sup>51</sup> and he shall take the cedar wood and the hyssop and the scarlet string, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird as well as in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

<sup>52</sup> “So he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the running water, along with the live bird and the cedar wood and the hyssop and the scarlet string.

<sup>53</sup> “But he shall let the live bird go free outside the city into the open field. So he shall make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.” ‡

<sup>57</sup> to teach when they are unclean and when they are clean. This is the law of leprosy [in regard to both persons and property]. ‡

Leviticus 15

Cleansing Unhealthiness

<sup>3</sup> ‘This shall be [the law concerning] his uncleanness in his discharge: whether his body allows its discharge to flow or obstructs its flow; it is uncleanness in him.

<sup>6</sup> and whoever sits on anything on which the man with the discharge has been sitting shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>7</sup> ‘Also whoever touches the man with the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup> ‘And if he who has the discharge spits on one who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>10</sup> ‘Whoever touches anything that has been under him shall be unclean until evening; and whoever carries those things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>12</sup> ‘An earthenware container that the one with the discharge touches shall be broken, and every wooden container shall be rinsed in water. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and come before the LORD to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest; ‡

<sup>15</sup> and the priest shall offer them, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement for the man before the LORD because of his discharge. ‡

16 ‘Now if any man has a seminal emission, he shall wash all his body in water, and be unclean until evening. ‡

17 ‘Every garment and every leather on which there is semen shall be washed with water, and shall be unclean until evening.

18 ‘If a man lies with a woman so that there is a seminal emission, they shall both bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ‡

19 ‘When a woman has a discharge, if her bodily discharge is blood, she shall continue in her menstrual impurity for seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening. ‡

20 ‘Everything on which she lies during her menstrual impurity shall be unclean; and everything on which she sits shall be unclean.

21 ‘Anyone who touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

22 ‘Whoever touches anything on which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

23 ‘And if it is on her bed or on the thing on which she is sitting, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening.

24 ‘If a man actually lies with her so that her menstrual impurity is on him, he shall be unclean for seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean. ‡

25 ‘Now if a woman has a flow of blood for many days, not during the time of her menstruation, or if she has a discharge beyond that period, as long as the impure discharge continues she shall be as she is in the days of her [normal] menstrual impurity; she is unclean.  [Matt 9:20 ] ‡

26 ‘Every bed on which she lies during the time of her discharge shall be to her like the bed of her menstrual impurity, and whatever she sits on shall be unclean, like the uncleanness of her monthly period.

27 ‘And whoever touches those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

28 ‘When she is cleansed from her discharge, then she shall count off for herself seven days, and after that she will be clean. ‡

29 ‘Then on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting;

30 and the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering; and he shall make atonement for her before the LORD for her unclean discharge.'

31 "Thus you shall separate the Israelites from their uncleanness, so that they do not die in their uncleanness by their defiling My tabernacle that is among them." ‡

32 This is the law for the one who has a discharge and for the one who has a seminal emission, so that he is unclean by it; ‡

33 and for the woman who is ill because of her monthly period, and for the one who has a discharge, whether man or woman, or for a man who lies with a woman who is [ceremonially] unclean. ‡

Leviticus 16

Law of Atonement

1 THEN THE LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron who had died when they [irreverently] approached the presence of the LORD. [Lev 10:1 , 2] ‡

2. The LORD said to Moses, ‡

"Tell Aaron your brother that he must not enter at any time into the Holy Place inside the veil (the Holy of Holies), before the mercy seat which is on the ark, or he will die, for I will appear in the cloud over the mercy seat. [Heb 9:7–15 , 25–28]

3 "Aaron [as high priest] shall enter the Holy Place in this way: with [the blood of] a young bull as a sin offering and [the blood of] a ram as a burnt offering. ‡

4 "He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and the linen undergarments shall be next to his body, and he shall be belted with the linen sash, and dressed with the linen turban (these are the holy garments). He shall bathe his body in water and put them on. ‡

5 "He shall take from the congregation of the Israelites [at their expense] two male goats as a sin offering and one ram as a burnt offering. ‡

6 "Then Aaron shall present the bull as the sin offering for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house. ‡

7 "He shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting.

8 "Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats—one lot for the LORD, the other lot for the scapegoat.

<sup>9</sup> “Then Aaron shall bring the goat on which the LORD’s lot fell and offer it as a sin offering.

<sup>10</sup> “But the goat on which the lot fell for the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement on it; it shall be sent into the wilderness as the scapegoat. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Aaron shall present the bull as the sin offering for himself and make atonement for himself and for his household (the other priests), and he shall kill the bull as the sin offering for himself.

<sup>15</sup> “Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering that is for [the sins of] the people and bring its blood within the veil [into the Most Holy Place] and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and in front of the mercy seat.  [Heb 2:17 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “So he shall make atonement for the Holy Place (Holy of Holies) because of the uncleanness and transgressions of the Israelites, for all their sins. He shall also do this for the Tent of Meeting which is among them in the midst of their uncleanness (impurities).  [Heb 9:22–24 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “There shall be no person in the Tent of Meeting when the high priest goes in to make atonement in the Holy Place [within the veil] until he comes out, so that he may make atonement for himself (his own sins) and for his household and for all the congregation of Israel. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “Then he shall go out to the altar [of burnt offering in the court] which is before the LORD and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the goat and put it on the horns of the altar on all sides. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “When he has finished atoning for the Holy Place and the Tent of Meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat. ‡

21 “Then Aaron shall lay both of his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the wickedness of the sons of Israel and all their transgressions in regard to all their sins; and he shall lay them on the head of the goat [the scapegoat, the sin-bearer], and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is prepared [for the task]. ‡

22 “The goat shall carry on itself all their (the Israelites) wickedness, carrying them to a solitary (infertile) land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness.  [Ps 103:12 ; Is 53:11 , 12 ; John 1:29 ] ‡

23 “Then Aaron shall come into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the Holy Place (Holy of Holies), and shall leave them there. ‡

24 “He shall bathe his body with water in a holy place and put on his clothes, and come out and offer his burnt offering and that of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people. ‡

25 “And he shall offer up in smoke the fat of the sin offering on the altar. ‡

26 “The man who released the goat as the [sin-bearing] scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp. ‡

27 “The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place (Holy of Holies), shall be taken outside the camp; their skins, their meat, and their waste shall be burned in the fire.  [Heb 13:11–13 ] ‡

28 “Then he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body with water, and afterward he may come into the camp.

An Annual Atonement

29 “This shall be a permanent statute for you: in the seventh month (nearly October) on the tenth day of the month you shall humble yourselves [by fasting] and not do any work, whether the native-born or the stranger who lives temporarily among you; ‡

30 for it is on this day that atonement shall be made for you, to cleanse you; you will be clean from all your sins before the LORD.  [Heb 10:1 , 2 ; 1 John 1:7 , 9 ] ‡

31 “It is a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall humble yourselves; it is a permanent statute. ‡

32 “So the priest who is anointed and ordained to serve and minister as priest in his father's place shall make atonement: he shall wear the holy linen garments,‡

<sup>33</sup> and make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the Tent of Meeting, and for the altar [of burnt offering in the court]. He shall also make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.‡

<sup>34</sup> "This shall be a permanent statute for you, so that atonement may be made for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year." So he did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.‡

Leviticus 17

Blood for Atonement

<sup>2</sup> "Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'This is what the LORD has commanded, saying,

<sup>3</sup> "Any man from the house of Israel who kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or kills it outside the camp‡

<sup>4</sup> and has not brought it to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting to offer it as an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, that man shall be guilty of bloodshed. He has shed blood and shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them].‡

<sup>5</sup> "This is so that the sons of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they were sacrificing [to idols] in the open field [where they killed them], that they may bring them in to the LORD, at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting to the priest, and sacrifice them as sacrifices of peace offerings to the LORD.‡

<sup>7</sup> "So they shall no longer offer their sacrifices to goat-idols or demons or field spirits with which they have played the prostitute. This shall be a permanent statute for them throughout their generations."‡

<sup>8</sup> "Then you shall say to them, 'Any man from the house of Israel or any of the strangers living temporarily among you, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice‡

<sup>9</sup> and does not bring it to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting to offer it to the LORD shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them].

10 ‘Any man from the house of Israel, or any stranger living temporarily among you, who eats any blood, against that person I shall set My face and I will cut him off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them].  [Ezek 33:25 ] ‡

11 ‘For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement, by reason of the life [which it represents].’  [Rom 3:24–26 ] ‡

12 “Therefore I have said to the sons of Israel, ‘No person among you may eat blood, nor may any stranger living temporarily among you eat blood.’

13 “So when any Israelite or any stranger living temporarily among them, catches any ceremonially clean animal or bird when hunting, he shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth. ‡

14 “For in regard to the life of all flesh, its blood is [the same] as its life; therefore I said to the Israelites, ‘You are not to eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off [excluding him from the atonement made for them].’ ‡

15 “Every person who eats an animal which dies [of natural causes] or was torn by a predator, whether he is native-born or a stranger, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be [ceremonially] unclean until evening; then he will become clean.  [Acts 15:20 ] ‡

16 “But if he does not wash his clothes or bathe his body, he shall bear his guilt [for it will not be borne by the sacrifice of atonement].” ‡

Leviticus 18

Laws on Immoral Relations

1 THEN THE LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘I am the LORD your God. ‡

3 ‘You shall not do what is done in the land of Egypt where you lived, and you shall not do what is done in the land of Canaan where I am bringing you. You shall not follow their statutes (practices, customs). ‡

4 ‘You are to follow My judgments (precepts, ordinances) and keep My statutes and live by them. I am the LORD your God. ‡

5.‘So you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, by which, if a person keeps them, he shall live; I am the LORD.  [Luke 10:25–28; Rom 10:4, 5; Ga 3:12] ‡

6.‘No one shall approach any blood relative of his to uncover nakedness (have intimate relations). I am the LORD.

7.‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother. She is your mother. You shall not uncover her nakedness. ‡

8.‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s wife; it is your father’s nakedness. ‡

9.‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, either the daughter of your father or of your mother, whether born at home or born elsewhere. ‡

10 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter; their nakedness you shall not uncover, for they are your own nakedness [that is, your own descendants].

11 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s wife’s daughter; born to your father, she is your sister.

12 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s sister; she is your father’s blood relative. ‡

13 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister, for she is your mother’s blood relative.

14 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s brother’s wife; you shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt. ‡

15 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son’s wife. You shall not uncover her nakedness. ‡

16 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother’s wife; it is your brother’s nakedness. ‡

17 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, nor shall you take her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter to uncover their nakedness (have intimate relations with them); they are [her] blood relatives; it is an outrageous offense. ‡

18 ‘You shall not marry a woman in addition to her sister as a rival while she is alive, to uncover her nakedness. ‡

19 ‘Also you shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness during her menstrual impurity and ceremonial uncleanness. ‡

20.‘You shall not have intimate relations with your neighbor’s wife, to be defiled with her. ‡

21.‘You shall not give any of your children to offer them [by fire as a sacrifice] to Molech [the god of the Ammonites], nor shall you profane the name of your God [by honoring idols as gods]. I am the LORD. ‡

22. ‘You shall not lie [intimately] with a male as one lies with a female; it is repulsive.  [1 Cor 6:9 , 10 ] ‡

23. ‘You shall not have intimate relations with any animal to be defiled with it; nor shall a woman stand before an animal to mate with it; it is a perversion. ‡

24. ‘Do not defile yourselves by any of these things; for by all these the nations which I am casting out before you have become defiled. ‡

25 ‘For the land has become defiled; therefore I have brought its punishment upon it, and the land vomits out its inhabitants. ‡

26 ‘But as for you, you are to keep My statutes and My judgments (precepts) and shall not commit any of these repulsive acts, neither the native-born, nor the stranger who lives temporarily among you ‡

27 (for all these repulsive acts have been done by the men who lived in the land before you, and the land has become defiled);

28 [do none of these things] so that the land will not vomit you out, should you defile it, as it has vomited out the nation which has been before you. ‡

29 ‘For whoever commits any of these repulsive acts, those persons who do so shall be cut off from among their people [excluding them from the atonement made for them].

30 ‘So keep My command: do not practice any of the repulsive customs which have been practiced before you, so as not to defile yourselves by them; I am the LORD your God.’ ” ‡

Idolatry Forbidden

1 THEN THE LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Say to all the congregation of the children of Israel, ‘You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.  [1 Pet 1:15 ] ‡

3. ‘Each of you shall respect his mother and his father, and you shall keep My Sabbaths; I am the LORD your God. ‡

4 ‘Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves molten gods (images cast in metal); I am the LORD your God. ‡

5. ‘Now when you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted. ‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘It shall be eaten the same day you offer it and on the day following; and if anything remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire.

<sup>7</sup> ‘But if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is repulsive; it will not be accepted [by God as an offering].

<sup>8</sup> ‘Everyone who eats it will bear [the responsibility for] his wickedness, for he has profaned a holy thing of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them].

Various Laws

<sup>9</sup> ‘Now when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings (grain left after reaping) of your harvest. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather its fallen grapes; you shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>11</sup> ‘You shall not steal, nor deal deceptively, nor lie to one another.  [Col 3:9 , 10. ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘You shall not swear [an oath] falsely by My name, so as to profane the name of your God; I am the LORD. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘You shall not do injustice in judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor nor show a preference for the great, but judge your neighbor fairly.

<sup>16</sup> ‘You shall not go around as a gossip among your people, and you are not to act against the life of your neighbor [with slander or false testimony]; I am the LORD. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘You shall not hate your brother in your heart; you may most certainly rebuke your neighbor, but shall not incur sin because of him.  [Gal 6:1 ; 1 John 2:9 , 11 ; 3:15. ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘You shall not take revenge nor bear any grudge against the sons of your people, but you shall love your neighbor (acquaintance, associate, companion) as yourself; I am the LORD.  [Matt 5:43–46 ; Rom 12:17 , 19. ] ‡

19 ‘You are to keep My statutes. You shall not breed together two kinds of your cattle; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed, nor wear clothing of two kinds of material mixed together. ‡

20 ‘Now if a man has intimate relations with a woman who is a slave acquired for [marriage to] another man, but who has not been redeemed nor given her freedom, there shall be punishment [after an investigation]; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free;

21 but he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, a ram as a guilt offering. ‡

22 ‘The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed; and he shall be forgiven for his sin.

23 ‘When you enter the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall consider their fruit forbidden. For three years the fruit shall be forbidden to you; it shall not be eaten.

24 ‘In the fourth year all the fruit shall be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD. ‡

25 ‘In the fifth year you may eat the fruit [of the trees], this is so that their yield may increase for you; I am the LORD your God.

26 ‘You shall not eat anything with the blood, nor practice divination [using omens or witchcraft] or soothsaying. ‡

27 ‘You shall not trim and round off the side-growth of [the hair on] your heads, nor mar the edges of your beard. ‡

28 ‘You shall not make any cuts on your body [in mourning] for the dead, nor make any tattoo marks on yourselves; I am the LORD. ‡

29 ‘Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, so that the land will not fall to prostitution and become full of wickedness. ‡

30 ‘You shall keep My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary. I am the LORD. ‡

31 ‘Do not turn to mediums [who pretend to consult the dead] or to spiritists [who have spirits of divination]; do not seek them out to be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God. ‡

32 ‘You shall rise before the gray-headed and honor the aged, and you shall fear your God [with profound reverence]; I am the LORD. ‡

33 ‘When a stranger resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress or mistreat him. ‡

34 ‘But the stranger who resides with you shall be to you like someone native-born among you; and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God. ‡

35. ‘You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measurement of weight or quantity. ‡

36. ‘You shall have just and accurate balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. ‡

37. ‘You shall observe and keep all My statutes and all My ordinances and do them. I am the LORD.’ ” ‡

Leviticus 20

On Human Sacrifice and Immoralities

1 THEN THE LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2. “Moreover, you shall say to the children of Israel, ‡

‘A ny Israelite or any stranger residing in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech (the god of the Ammonites) [as a human sacrifice] shall most certainly be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 ‘I will also set My face against that man [opposing him, withdrawing My protection from him] and will cut him off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them], because he has given some of his children to Molech, so as to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name. ‡

4 ‘If the people of the land should ever tolerate that man when he gives any of his children [as a burnt offering] to Molech, and fail to put him to death [as My law requires], ‡

5 then I shall set My face against that man and against his [extended] family, and I will cut off from their people both him and all who follow him in playing the prostitute (commit apostasy) with Molech. ‡

6 ‘As for the person who turns to mediums [who consult the dead] or to spiritists, to play the prostitute after them, I shall set My face against that person and will cut him off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them]. [ Is 54:5.] ‡

7 ‘You shall consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am the LORD your God. ‡

8. ‘You shall keep My statutes and do them. I am the LORD who sanctifies you. ‡

9. ‘If anyone curses his father or mother, he shall most certainly be put to death; he has cursed his father or mother; his blood is on him [that is, he bears full responsibility for the consequences]. ‡

10 ‘The man who commits adultery with another’s wife, even his neighbor’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall most certainly be put to death.  [John 8:4–11.] ‡

11 ‘The man who lies [intimately] with his father’s wife has uncovered his father’s nakedness; both of them shall most certainly be put to death; their blood is on them. ‡

12 ‘If a man lies [intimately] with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall most certainly be put to death; they have committed incest; their blood is on them. ‡

13 ‘If a man lies [intimately] with a male as if he were a woman, both men have committed a detestable (perverse, unnatural) act; they shall most certainly be put to death; their blood is on them. ‡

14 ‘It is immoral and shameful if a man marries a woman and her mother; all three shall be burned in fire, so that there will be no immorality among you.  [Josh 7:15, 25.] ‡

15 ‘If a man has intimate relations with an animal, he shall most certainly be put to death; you shall kill the animal also. ‡

16 ‘If a woman approaches any animal to mate with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they shall most certainly be put to death; their blood is on them.

17 ‘If a man takes his sister, his father’s daughter or his mother’s daughter, so that he sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace; and they shall be cut off in the sight of the sons of their people. He has uncovered his sister’s nakedness; he bears [responsibility for] his guilt. ‡

18 ‘If a man lies [intimately] with a woman during her menstrual cycle and uncovers her nakedness, he has exposed her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood; both of them shall be cut off from their people [excluding them from the atonement made for them]. ‡

19 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of (have intimate relations with) your mother’s sister or your father’s sister, for such a one has uncovered his blood relative; they will bear their guilt. ‡

20 ‘If there is a man who lies [intimately] with his uncle’s wife, he has uncovered his uncle’s nakedness; they will bear their sin. They will die childless. ‡

21 ‘If a man takes his brother’s wife, it is a hated and unclean thing; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness. They will be childless. ‡

<sup>22</sup> 'Therefore keep all My statutes and all My ordinances and do them, so that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out [as it did those before you].  [Lev 18:28 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> 'You shall not follow the statutes (laws, practices, customs) of the nation which I am driving out before you; for they did all these things, and therefore I have loathed them. ‡

<sup>24</sup> 'But I have said to you, "You are to inherit and take possession of their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land [of plenty] flowing with milk and honey." I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples (pagan nations). ‡

<sup>25</sup> 'You are therefore to make a distinction between the [ceremonially] clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean; and you shall not make yourselves detestable by animal or by bird or by anything that crawls on the ground, which I have set apart from you as unclean. ‡

<sup>26</sup> 'You are to be holy to Me; for I the LORD am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples (nations) to be Mine. ‡

<sup>27</sup> 'A man or woman who is a medium [who pretends to consults the dead] or who is a spiritist shall most certainly be put to death, and be stoned with stones; their blood is on them.' " ‡

Regulations concerning Priests

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: ‡

' N o one shall defile himself [that is, become ceremonially unclean] for the dead among his people [by touching a corpse or assisting in preparing it for burial],

<sup>3</sup> also his virgin sister, who is near to him because she has had no husband; for her he may become unclean.

<sup>4</sup> 'He shall not become unclean as a relative by marriage among his people, and so profane himself.

<sup>5</sup> 'The priests shall not shave their heads, nor shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuts in their body. ‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God; for they present the offerings by fire to the LORD, the food of their God; so they shall be holy. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘They shall not take [as a wife] a woman who is a prostitute, nor a woman who is divorced from her husband; for the priest is holy to his God. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘You shall consecrate him, therefore, for he offers the food of your God; he shall be holy to you; for I the LORD, who sanctifies you, am holy.

<sup>9</sup> ‘The daughter of any priest who profanes herself by prostitution profanes her father; she shall be burned in fire.  [Josh 7:15, 25.] ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘But he who is the high priest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated to wear the [sacred] garments, shall not uncover his head nor tear his clothes [in mourning], ‡

<sup>11</sup> nor shall he approach any dead person, nor defile himself [by doing so, even] for his father or for his mother; ‡

<sup>12</sup> nor shall he go out of the sanctuary nor profane (make ceremonially unclean) the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him; I am the LORD. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘He may not marry a widow or a divorced woman or one who is profaned by prostitution, but he is to marry a virgin from his own people,  [1 Tim 3:2–7; Titus 1:7–9.]

<sup>15</sup> so that he will not profane or dishonor his children among his people; for I am the LORD who sanctifies the high priest.’ ” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>17</sup> “Say to Aaron, ‘Throughout their generations none of your descendants who has any [physical] defect shall approach [the altar] to present the food of his God. ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘For no man who has a defect shall approach [God’s altar as a priest]: no man who is blind or lame, or who has a disfigured face, or any deformed limb, ‡

<sup>19</sup> or a man who has a broken foot or a broken hand,

<sup>20</sup> or a hunchback or a dwarf, or one who has a defect in his eye or eczema or scabs or crushed testicles. ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘No man among the descendants of Aaron the priest who has a [physical] defect and is disfigured or deformed is to approach [the altar] to present the offerings of the LORD by fire. He has a defect; he shall not approach [the altar] to present the food of his God. ‡

22 ‘He may eat the food of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy things, ‡

23 but he shall not go within the veil or approach the altar [of incense], because he has a defect, so that he will not profane My sanctuaries; for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.’ ” [ Heb 7:28] ‡

24 So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the Israelites.

Leviticus 22

Various Rules for Priests

1 THEN THE LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Tell Aaron and his sons to be careful with the holy things (offerings, gifts) which the children of Israel dedicate to Me, so that they do not profane My holy name; I am the LORD. ‡

3 “Say to them, ‘Any one of your descendants throughout your generations who approaches the holy things which the Israelites dedicate to the LORD, while he is [ceremonially] unclean, that person shall be cut off from My presence and excluded from the sanctuary; I am the LORD. ‡

4 ‘No man of the descendants of Aaron who is a leper or has a discharge may eat the holy things [the offerings and the showbread] until he is clean. And whoever touches any person or thing made unclean by contact with a corpse or a man who has had a seminal emission, ‡

5 or whoever touches any crawling thing by which he is made unclean, or any person by whom he is made unclean, whatever it may be, [ Lev 11:24–28] ‡

6 the person who touches any such thing shall be unclean until evening and shall not eat the holy things unless he has bathed his body in water. [ Heb 10:22] ‡

7 ‘When the sun sets, he will be clean, and afterward he may eat the holy things, for it is his food. ‡

8 ‘He shall not eat that which dies [of natural causes] or is torn by a predator, becoming unclean by it; I am the LORD. ‡

9 ‘Therefore the priests shall observe My ordinance, so that they will not bear sin because of it and die if they profane it; I am the LORD who sanctifies them. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘No layman [that is, someone outside of Aaron’s family] is to eat the holy gift [which has been offered to God]; a foreigner residing with the priest or a hired man shall not eat the holy thing. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘If a priest’s daughter is married to a layman [one not part of the priestly tribe], she shall not eat the offering of the holy things.

<sup>13</sup> ‘But if a priest’s daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child, and returns to her father’s house as in her youth, she shall eat her father’s food; but no layman shall eat it. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘But if a person unknowingly eats a holy gift [which has been offered to God], then he shall add one-fifth of its value to it and give the holy gift to the priest. ‡

<sup>16</sup> and so cause them [by neglect of any essential observance] to bear the punishment of guilt when they eat their holy things; for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.’ ” ‡

Flawless Animals for Sacrifice

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>18</sup> “Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them, ‘Any man of the house of Israel or any stranger in Israel who presents his offering, whether to fulfill any of their vows or as any of their freewill (voluntary) offerings which they presented to the LORD as a burnt offering—‡

<sup>19</sup> so that you may be accepted—it must be a male without blemish from the cattle, the sheep, or the goats. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘You shall not offer anything which has a blemish, because it will not be accepted for you.  [1 Pet 1:19. ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to fulfill a special vow to the LORD or as a freewill offering from the herd or from the flock, it must be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish in it. ‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘Animals that are blind or fractured or mutilated, or have a sore or a running wound or an itch or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD nor make an offering of them by fire on the altar to the LORD.‡

<sup>23</sup> ‘For a freewill offering you may offer either a bull or a lamb which has an overgrown or stunted member (deformity), but for [the payment of] a vow it will not be accepted.‡

<sup>24</sup> ‘You shall not offer to the LORD any animal which has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut off, or sacrifice it in your land.

<sup>25</sup> ‘Nor shall you offer as the food of your God any such [animals obtained] from a foreigner, because their corruption and blemish makes them unfit; there is a defect in them, they shall not be accepted for you.’ ”‡

<sup>26</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>27</sup> “When a bull or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain for seven days with its mother; and after the eighth day it shall be accepted as an offering by fire to the LORD.‡

<sup>28</sup> “And whether [the mother] is a cow or a sheep, you shall not kill both it and its young in one day.‡

<sup>29</sup> “When you sacrifice an offering of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.‡

<sup>30</sup> “It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall leave none of it until the next morning; I am the LORD.‡

<sup>31</sup> “So you shall keep My commandments and do them; I am the LORD.‡

<sup>32</sup> “You shall not profane My holy name [using it to honor an idol, or treating it with irreverence or contempt or as a byword]; but I will be sanctified (set apart as holy) among the Israelites. I am the LORD, who sanctifies and declares you holy,‡

<sup>33</sup> who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am the LORD.”‡

Leviticus 23

Laws of Religious Festivals

The Sabbath

<sup>3</sup> ‘For six days work may be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation (calling together). You shall not do any work [on that day]; it is the Sabbath of the LORD wherever you may be. ‡

The Passover and Unleavened Bread

<sup>6</sup> ‘The Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD is on the fifteenth day of the same month; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.  [1 Cor 5:7, 8 ]

<sup>7</sup> ‘On the first day you shall have a holy convocation (calling together); you shall not do any laborious work [on that day]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘But you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD for seven days; on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation; you shall not do any laborious work [on that day].’ ”

The Feast of First Fruits

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>10</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land which I am giving you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest. ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘He shall wave the sheaf before the LORD so that you may be accepted; the priest shall wave it on the day after the Sabbath. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘Its grain offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with [olive] oil, an offering by fire to the LORD for a sweet and soothing aroma, with its drink offering [to be poured out], a fourth of a hin of wine. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘You shall not eat any bread or roasted grain or new growth, until this same day when you bring in the offering to your God; it is a permanent statute throughout your generations wherever you may be.

The Feast of Weeks

<sup>16</sup> ‘You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall present a new grain offering to the LORD. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘You shall bring in from your places two loaves of bread as a wave offering, made from two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven as first fruits to the LORD. ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘And you shall offer with the bread seven unblemished lambs, one year old, and one young bull and two rams. They are to be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings. It is an offering by fire, a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> ‘And you shall sacrifice one male goat as a sin offering and two male lambs, one year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘The priest shall wave them before the LORD as a wave offering, together with the bread of the first fruits and the two lambs. They are to be holy to the LORD for the priest. ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘On this same day you shall make a proclamation, you are to have a holy convocation (calling together); you shall not do any laborious work [on that day]. It is to be a permanent statute throughout your generations wherever you may be.

<sup>22</sup> ‘When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the edges of your field, nor gather the gleaning of your harvest; you are to leave them for the poor and for the stranger. I am the LORD your God.’ ” ‡

The Feast of Trumpets

<sup>23</sup> Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>24</sup> “Say to the children of Israel, ‘On the first day of the seventh month (almost October), you shall observe a day of solemn sabbatical rest, a memorial day announced by the blowing of trumpets , a holy convocation. ‡

<sup>25</sup> ‘You shall not do any laborious work [on that day], but you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD.’ ”

The Day of Atonement

26 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

27 “Also the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble yourselves [by fasting] and present an offering by fire to the LORD. ‡

28 “You shall not do any work on this same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God.

29 “If there is any person who will not humble himself on this same day, he shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them]. ‡

30 “If there is any person who does any work on this same day, I will destroy that person from among his people. ‡

31 “You shall do no work at all [on that day]. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations wherever you may be.

32 “It is to be to you a Sabbath of complete rest, and you shall humble yourselves. On the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening you shall keep your Sabbath.”

The Feast of Booths

33 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

34 “Say to the children of Israel, ‘On the fifteenth day of this seventh month, and for seven days, is the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles) to the LORD. ‡

35 ‘The first day is a holy convocation (calling together); you shall not do any laborious work [on that day].

36 ‘For seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation and present an offering by fire to the LORD. It is a festive assembly; you shall not do any laborious work [on that day]. ‡

37 ‘These are the appointed times (established feasts) of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to present an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering and a grain offering, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its own day. ‡

38 ‘This is in addition to the [weekly] Sabbaths of the LORD, and in addition to your gifts and all your vowed offerings and all your freewill offerings, which you give to the LORD. ‡

39 ‘On exactly the fifteenth day of the seventh month (nearly October), when you have gathered in the crops of the land, you shall celebrate the feast of the LORD for seven days, with a Sabbath rest on the first day and a Sabbath rest on the eighth day.‡

<sup>42</sup> ‘You shall live in booths (temporary shelters) for seven days; all native-born in Israel shall live in booths,‡

<sup>43</sup> so that your generations may know that I had the sons of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’ ”‡

<sup>44</sup> So Moses declared to the Israelites the appointed feasts of the LORD.‡

The Lamp and the Bread of the Sanctuary

<sup>2</sup> “Command the children of Israel to bring to you clear oil from beaten olives for the light [of the golden lampstand], to make a lamp burn continually.‡

<sup>3</sup> “Outside the veil of the Testimony [between the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place] in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron shall always keep the lamps burning before the LORD from evening until morning; it shall be a permanent statute throughout your generations.

<sup>6</sup> “You shall set the bread of the Presence (showbread) in two rows, six in a row, on the pure gold table before the LORD.‡

<sup>7</sup> “You shall put pure frankincense [in two censers, one] beside each row, so that it may be with the bread as a memorial portion, an offering by fire to the

LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “The bread of the Presence shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a sacred place, for it is for Aaron a most holy portion of the offerings by fire to the LORD, his portion forever.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the Israelites, and he and a man of Israel quarreled and struggled with each other in the camp.

<sup>12</sup> They put him in custody until the will and command of the LORD might be made clear to them. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>14</sup> “Bring the one who has cursed [the LORD] outside the camp, and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head [as witnesses to his guilt]; then let all the congregation stone him.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> “You shall speak to the Israelites, saying, ‘Whoever curses his God will bear his sin [through his own death].’ ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘Further, the one who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall most certainly be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him. The stranger as well as the native-born shall be put to death when he blasphemes the Name [of the LORD].’ ‡

“An Eye for an Eye”

<sup>19</sup> ‘If a man injures his neighbor (fellow citizen), whatever he has done shall be done to him.’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘The one who kills an animal shall replace it; but he who kills a human being [unlawfully] shall be put to death.’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘You shall have one standard of law for the stranger among you as well as for the native, for I am the LORD your God.’ ” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they brought the one who had cursed [the LORD] outside the camp and stoned him with stones. Thus the Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

Leviticus 25

The Sabbath Year and Year of Jubilee

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘When you come into the land which I am giving you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath to the LORD. ‡

<sup>3</sup> ‘For six years you shall sow your field, and for six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in its crop.

<sup>4</sup> ‘But in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of rest for the land, a Sabbath to the LORD; you shall not sow [seed in] your field nor prune your vineyard.

<sup>6</sup> ‘And all of you shall have for food whatever the [untilled] land produces during its Sabbath year; yourself, and your male and female slaves, your hired servant, and the foreigners who reside among you,

<sup>7</sup> even your domestic animals and the [wild] animals that are in your land shall have all its crops to eat.

The Year of Jubilee

<sup>8</sup> ‘You are also to count off seven Sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years, so that you have the time of the seven Sabbaths of years, namely, forty-nine years.

<sup>9</sup> ‘Then you shall sound the ram’s horn everywhere on the tenth day of the seventh month (almost October); on the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout your land. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim freedom [for the slaves] throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee (year of remission) for you, and each of you shall return to his own [ancestral] property [that was sold to another because of poverty], and each of you shall return to his family [from whom he was separated by bondage]. ‡

11 ‘That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee for you; you shall not sow [seed], nor reap what reseeds itself, nor gather the grapes of the uncultivated vines. ‡

12 ‘For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat its crops out of the field. ‡

13 ‘In this Year of Jubilee each of you shall return to his own [ancestral] property. ‡

14 ‘If you sell anything to your friend or buy from your friend, you shall not wrong one another.

15 ‘According to the number of years after the Jubilee, you shall buy from your friend. And he is to sell to you according to the number of years of crops [which may be harvested before you must restore the property to him]. ‡

16 ‘If the years [until the next Jubilee] are many, you shall increase the price, but if the years remaining are few, you shall reduce the price, because it is the number of crops that he is selling to you.

17 ‘You shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God [with profound reverence]; for I am the LORD your God. ‡

18 ‘Therefore you shall carry out My statutes and keep My ordinances and do them, so that you may live securely on the land. ‡

19 ‘Then the land will yield its produce, so that you can eat your fill and live securely on it. ‡

20 ‘And if you say, “What are we going to eat in the seventh year if we do not sow [seed] or gather in our crops?” ‡

21 then [this is My answer:] I will order My [special] blessing for you in the sixth year, so that it will produce [sufficient] crops for three years. ‡

22 ‘When you are sowing the eighth year, you can still eat old things from the crops, eating the old until the ninth year when its crop comes in. ‡

The Law of Redemption

23 ‘The land shall not be sold permanently, for the land is Mine; you are [only] foreigners and temporary residents with Me.  [Heb 11:13; 1 Pet 2:11–17 ] ‡

24 ‘So in all the country that you possess, you are to provide for the redemption of the land [in the Year of Jubilee].

25 ‘If a fellow countryman of yours becomes so poor he has to sell some of his property, then his nearest relative is to come and buy back (redeem) what his relative has sold. ‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘Or in case a man has no relative [to redeem his property], but he has become more prosperous and has enough to buy it back,

<sup>27</sup> then he shall calculate the years since its sale and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and so return to his [ancestral] property.  [1 Kin 21:2, 3] ‡

<sup>28</sup> ‘But if he is unable to redeem it, then what he has sold shall remain in the hands of the purchaser until the Year of Jubilee; but at the Jubilee it shall revert, and he may return to his property. ‡

<sup>29</sup> ‘If a man sells a house in a walled city, then his right of redemption remains valid for a full year after its sale; his right of redemption lasts a full year.

<sup>30</sup> ‘But if it is not redeemed for him within a full year, then the house that is in the walled city passes permanently and irrevocably to the purchaser throughout his generations. It does not revert back in the Year of Jubilee.

<sup>31</sup> ‘The houses of the villages that have no surrounding walls, however, shall be considered as open fields. They may be redeemed, and revert in the Year of Jubilee.

<sup>32</sup> ‘As for the cities of the Levites, the Levites have a permanent right of redemption for the houses in the cities which they possess. ‡

<sup>33</sup> ‘Therefore, what is [purchased] from the Levites may be redeemed [by a Levite], and the house that was sold in the city they possess reverts in the Year of Jubilee, for the houses in the Levite cities are their [ancestral] property among the Israelites.

<sup>34</sup> ‘But the pasture lands of their cities may not be sold, for that is their permanent possession. ‡

Of Poor Countrymen

<sup>35</sup> ‘Now if your fellow countryman becomes poor and his hand falters with you [that is, he has trouble repaying you for something], then you are to help and sustain him, [with courtesy and consideration] like [you would] a stranger or a temporary resident [without property], so that he may live among you.  [1 John 3:17] ‡

<sup>36</sup> ‘Do not charge him usurious interest, but fear your God [with profound reverence], so your countryman may [continue to] live among you. ‡

<sup>37</sup> ‘You shall not give him your money at interest, nor your food at a profit.

<sup>38</sup> ‘I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God. ‡

<sup>39</sup> ‘And if your fellow countryman becomes so poor [in his dealings] with you that he sells himself to you [as payment for a debt], you shall not let him do the work of a slave [who is ineligible for redemption], ‡

<sup>40</sup> but he is to be with you as a hired man, as if he were a temporary resident; he shall serve with you until the Year of Jubilee,

<sup>41</sup> and then he shall leave you, he and his children with him, and shall go back to his own family and return to the property of his fathers. ‡

<sup>43</sup> ‘You shall not rule over him with harshness (severity, oppression), but you are to fear your God [with profound reverence].  [Eph 6:9; Col 4:1 ] ‡

<sup>44</sup> ‘As for your male and female slaves whom you may have—you may acquire male and female slaves from the pagan nations that are around you.

<sup>45</sup> ‘Moreover, from the children of the strangers who live as aliens among you, from them you may buy slaves and from their families who are with you, whom they have produced in your land; they may become your possession. ‡

<sup>46</sup> ‘You may even bequeath them as an inheritance to your children after you, to receive as a possession; you can use them as permanent slaves. But in respect to your fellow countrymen, the children of Israel, you shall not rule over one another with harshness (severity, oppression). ‡

Of Redeeming a Poor Man

<sup>47</sup> ‘Now if the financial means of a stranger or temporary resident among you become sufficient, and your fellow countryman becomes poor in comparison to him and sells himself to the stranger who is living among you or to the descendants of the stranger’s family, ‡

<sup>50</sup> ‘Then he [or his redeemer] shall calculate with his purchaser from the year when he sold himself to the purchaser to the Year of Jubilee, and the [original] price of his sale shall be adjusted according to the number of years. The time he was with his owner shall be considered as that of a hired man. ‡

51 ‘If there are still many years [before the Year of Jubilee], in proportion to them he must refund [to the purchaser] part of the price of his sale for his redemption and release.

52 ‘And if only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he shall so calculate it with him. He is to refund the proportionate amount for his release.

53 ‘Like a man hired year by year he shall deal with him; he shall not rule over him with harshness in your sight.

54 ‘Even if he is not redeemed during these years and under these provisions, then he shall go free in the Year of Jubilee, he and his children with him.

55 ‘For the children of Israel are My servants; My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26

Blessings of Obedience

1 ‘YOU SHALL not make idols for yourselves, nor shall you erect an image, a sacred pillar or an obelisk, nor shall you place any figured stone in your land so that you may bow down to it; for I am the LORD your God. ‡

2 ‘You shall keep My Sabbaths and have reverence for My sanctuary. I am the LORD. ‡

3 ‘If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments and [obediently] do them, ‡

4. then I will give you rain in its season, and the land will yield her produce and the trees of the field bear their fruit. ‡

5 ‘And your threshing season will last until grape gathering and the grape gathering [time] will last until planting, and you will eat your bread and be filled and live securely in your land. ‡

6. ‘I will also grant peace in the land, so that you may lie down and there will be no one to make you afraid. I will also eliminate harmful animals from the land, and no sword will pass through your land. ‡

7 ‘And you will chase your enemies, and they will fall before you by the sword.

8 ‘Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will put ten thousand to flight; your enemies will fall before you by the sword. ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘For I will turn toward you [with favor and regard] and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will establish and confirm My covenant with you. [2 Kin 13:23.] ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘I will make My dwelling among you, and My soul will not reject nor separate itself from you. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so that you would not be their slaves; and I broke the bars of your yoke and made you walk upright [with heads held high as free men].

Penalties of Disobedience

<sup>14</sup> ‘But if you do not obey Me and do not [obediently] do all these commandments, ‡

<sup>15</sup> if, instead, you reject My statutes, and if your soul rejects My ordinances, so that you will not [obediently] do all My commandments, and in this way break My covenant,

<sup>16</sup> I, in turn, will do this to you: I will appoint over you sudden terror, consumption, and fever that will waste away the eyes and cause the soul to languish also. And you will sow your seed uselessly, for your enemies will eat what you plant. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘I will set My face against you so that you will be struck down before your enemies; those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you. [1 Sam 4:10.; 31:1.] ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘If in spite of all this you still will not listen to Me and be obedient, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘Your strength will be spent uselessly, for your land will not yield its produce and the trees of the land will not yield their fruit. ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘If then, you act with hostility toward Me and are unwilling to obey Me, I will increase the plague on you seven times in accordance with your sins.

<sup>22</sup> ‘I will let loose the [wild] animals of the field among you, which will bereave you of your children and destroy your livestock and make you so few in number that your roads will lie deserted and desolate.  [2 Kin 17:25, 26 ] ‡

23 ‘And if by these things you are not turned to Me, but act with hostility against Me,‡

24 then I also will act with hostility against you, and I will strike you seven times for your sins.‡

25 ‘I will bring a sword on you that will execute vengeance for [breaking] the covenant; and when you gather together in your cities, I will send pestilence (virulent disease) among you, and you shall be handed over to the enemy.  [Num 16:49; 2 Sam 24:15 ] ‡

26 ‘When I break your staff of bread [that is, cut off your supply of food], ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will ration your bread; and you will eat and not be satisfied.  [Hag 1:6] ‡

27 ‘Yet if in spite of this you will not [attentively] listen to Me but act with hostility against me,

28 then I will act with hostility against you in wrath, and I also will punish you seven times for your sins.‡

29 ‘You will eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters.  [2 Kin 6:28, 29 ] ‡

30 ‘I will destroy your high places [devoted to idolatrous worship], and cut down your incense altars, and heap your dead bodies upon the [crushed] bodies of your idols, and My soul will detest you [with deep and unutterable loathing].  [2 Kin 23:8, 20 ] ‡

31 ‘I will lay waste your cities as well and will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your sweet and soothing aromas [of offerings by fire].  [2 Kin 25:4–10; 2 Chr 36:19 ] ‡

32 ‘I will make the land desolate, and your enemies who settle in it will be appalled at it.‡

33 ‘I will scatter you among the nations and draw out the sword [of your enemies] after you; your land will become desolate and your cities will become ruins.  [Ps 44:11–14] ‡

34 ‘Then the land [of Israel] will enjoy its Sabbaths as long as it lies desolate, while you are in your enemies’ land; then the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.‡

35 ‘As long as it lies desolate, it will have rest, the rest it did not have on your Sabbaths, while you were living on it.  [2 Chr 36:21] ‡

36 ‘As for those who are left of you, I will bring despair (lack of courage, weakness) into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a scattered leaf will put them to flight, and they will flee as if [running] from the sword, and will fall even when no one is chasing them. ‡

37 ‘They shall stumble over one another as if to escape from a sword when no one is chasing them; and you will have no power to stand before your enemies. ‡

38 ‘You will perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will consume you.

39 ‘Those of you who are left will rot away because of their wickedness in the lands of your enemies; also because of the wickedness of their forefathers they will rot away like them. ‡

40 ‘If they confess their wickedness and the wickedness of their forefathers, in their unfaithfulness which they have committed against Me—and also in their acting with hostility toward Me—‡

41 I also was acting with hostility toward them and brought them into the land of their enemies—then if their uncircumcised (sin-filled) hearts are humbled and they accept the punishment for their wickedness,  [2 Kin 24:10–14 ; Dan 9:11–14 ] ‡

42 then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and also My covenant with Isaac, and also My covenant with Abraham, and remember the land.  [Ps 106:44–46 ] ‡

43 ‘But the land will be abandoned by them and will enjoy its Sabbaths while it lies desolate without them; and they will accept the punishment for their wickedness and make amends because they rejected My ordinances and their soul rejected My statutes. ‡

44 ‘Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I so despise them as to destroy them, breaking My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.  [Deut 4:31–35 ; Jer 33:4, 5, 23–26 ; Rom 11:2–5 ] ‡

45 ‘But I will, for their sake, [earnestly] remember the covenant with their forefathers, whom I have brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am the LORD.’ ” ‡

46 These are the statutes, ordinances, and laws which the LORD established between Himself and the Israelites through Moses at Mount Sinai. ‡

Leviticus 27

Rules concerning Valuations

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘When a man makes a special vow [consecrating himself or a member of his family], he shall be valued according to your [established system of] valuation of people belonging to the LORD [that is, the priest accepts from the man making the vow a specified amount of money for the temple treasury in place of the actual person].‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘Or if the person is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels.

<sup>5</sup> ‘If the person is between five years and twenty years of age, then your valuation for the male shall be twenty shekels and for the female ten shekels.

<sup>6</sup> ‘But if the child is between one month and five years of age, then your valuation shall be five shekels of silver for the male and three shekels for the female.

<sup>7</sup> ‘If the person is sixty years old and above, your valuation shall be fifteen shekels for the male, and ten shekels for the female.

<sup>8</sup> ‘But if the person is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall be placed before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of the one who vowed, the priest shall value him.

<sup>9</sup> ‘Now if it is an animal of the kind which men can present as an offering to the LORD, any such that one gives to the LORD shall be holy.

<sup>10</sup> ‘He shall not replace it or exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; but if he does exchange an animal for an animal, then both the original offering and its substitute shall be holy.

<sup>11</sup> ‘If it is any unclean animal of the kind which men do not present as an offering to the LORD, then he shall bring the animal before the priest, <sup>12</sup> and the priest shall value it as either good or bad; it shall be as you, the priest, value it.

<sup>13</sup> ‘But if he ever wishes to redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth of it to your valuation.‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘If a man consecrates his house as sacred to the LORD, the priest shall appraise it as either good or bad; as the priest appraises it, so shall it stand.

<sup>15</sup> ‘If the one who consecrates his house should wish to redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth of your valuation price to it, so that it may be his.‡ property, then your valuation shall be proportionate to the seed needed for it; a homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

<sup>17</sup> ‘If he consecrates his field during the Year of Jubilee, it shall stand according to your valuation.

<sup>18</sup> ‘But if he consecrates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall calculate the price for him in proportion to the years that remain until the Year of Jubilee; and it shall be deducted from your valuation. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘If the one who consecrates the field should ever wish to redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth of the appraisal price to it, so that it may return to him. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘If he does not redeem the field, but has sold it to another man, it may no longer be redeemed.

<sup>22</sup> ‘Or if a man consecrates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not part of the field of his [ancestral] property, ‡

<sup>23</sup> then the priest shall calculate for him the amount of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee; and the man shall give that [amount] on that day as a holy thing to the LORD. ‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘However, the firstborn among animals, which as a firstborn belongs to the LORD, no man may consecrate, whether an ox or a sheep. It is [already] the LORD’s. ‡

<sup>27</sup> ‘If it is among the unclean animals, the owner may redeem it in accordance with your valuation, and add one-fifth to it; or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold in accordance with your valuation. ‡

<sup>28</sup> ‘But nothing that a man sets apart [that is, devotes as an offering] to the LORD out of all that he has, of man or of animal or of the fields of his own property, shall be sold or redeemed. Anything devoted to destruction (banned, cursed) is most holy to the LORD. ‡

<sup>29</sup> ‘No one who may have been set apart among men shall be ransomed [from death], he shall most certainly be put to death. ‡

<sup>30</sup> ‘And all the tithe (tenth part) of the land, whether the seed of the land or the fruit of the tree, is the LORD’s; it is holy to the LORD.  [1 Cor 9:11; Gal

6:6] ‡

31 ‘If a man wishes to redeem any part of his tithe, he shall add one-fifth to it.’ ‡

32 ‘For every tithe of the herd or flock, whatever passes under the [shepherd’s] staff, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD.  [2 Cor 9:7–9 ] ‡

33 ‘The man is not to be concerned whether the animal is good or bad, nor shall he exchange it. But if he does exchange it, then both it and its substitute shall become holy; it shall not be redeemed.’ ” ‡

34 These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai for the children of Israel.  [Rom 10:4 ; Heb 4:2 ; 12:18–29 ] ‡

Annotations for Leviticus

1:1–17 offering to the LORD. Leviticus continues the Exodus narrative of the dedication of the tabernacle by indicating how the liberated Israelites are to worship their God. This book deals with the voluntary sacrifices for thanksgiving, communion, or cleansing from sin. These offerings from the herd or flock represented the labor and financial investment of the owner, and were a continual reminder that a price always has to be paid for sin.

1:3 burnt offering. The “burnt offering” was the only offering that was entirely consumed on the altar. It foreshadows the total sacrifice of Christ on the cross, as well as representing wholehearted, unreserved worship where nothing is withheld or left over. It reminds us that nothing must be held back for ourselves; it all belongs to Him. male without blemish. Offering a perfect animal was a real sacrifice, not just “something they didn’t really need or want.” These perfect animals were valuable for breeding or for sale. The principle still holds. God’s people are to offer their best, of their own free will, and with joy.

1:4 He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering. Each worshiper brought his or her own offering and laid his own hand on the animal’s head. No one could send another to act on his behalf. In the same way, no one today can send someone else to accept Christ’s atonement for him; we must each come to Christ ourselves, acknowledging our own sin before Him.

1:9 sweet and soothing aroma. Never does Scripture represent God as eating the offerings brought to Him, as the pagan gods were thought to do. When a sacrifice was done in faith with a free will, it was accepted by the Lord as desirable, or sweet.

2:1 oil . . . frankincense. Olive oil was a primary part of the diet and a prominent symbol of blessing and prosperity. Frankincense was a costly incense from South Arabia and East Africa, an imported luxury that would have to be bought with money. By including frankincense, as well as the animals and grain they could raise on their land, every aspect of Israel’s wealth was made a part of the offerings to God.

2:3 belongs to Aaron and his sons. A significant portion of the priest’s daily food came from this part of the grain offering. Only the consecrated priests were allowed to eat it, and only within the tabernacle.

2:8–9 priest. There were always two individuals involved when the ancient Hebrew brought his sacrifice to God. One was the offerer himself and the other was the officiating priest, who was the “bridge builder” between men and God. Jesus, as a better priest and a better sacrifice, once for all time bridged the gap between God and man, and through Him we can have direct access to God, to confess our sins and receive forgiveness.

2:11 leaven. Leaven and honey were prohibited because both cause fermentation, which represents corruption.

2:13 salt (preservation) of the covenant of your God. Salt was to be used in every grain offering. This was a reminder of the covenant that God had made with Israel at Sinai, and was a symbol of faithfulness to God and His covenant. There is an old saying, “he has eaten my salt,” which means that you have taken someone into your home, given them shelter, food, and hospitality. The idea of the “salt” of God’s covenant was a well understood concept.

3:1 peace offerings. The Hebrew word for “peace” means “wholeness, completeness, soundness, health.” When a person possesses all of these attributes, he is at peace. The peace offerings were a time of celebrating and enjoying the gift of peace with God. Yet it was only after Christ’s death and resurrection, when He became our perfect peace offering (Col 1:20) that we could really have perfect peace with God. The sacrifices had to be made over and over, but Christ's death was once, for all time.

3:3–4 two kidneys with the fat that is on them . . . lobe of the liver. The fat was one of the most prized portions of the meat, and the kidneys were considered the seat of the emotions. The liver was an essential organ for telling the future in the pagan cultures surrounding Israel. Giving all of these things to God symbolized giving Him the best, giving Him the hopes, dreams, and desires of life; recognizing that He alone has control of the future, and that He will reveal it in His own way, at His own time.

3:5 on the burnt offering. The peace offering normally followed the burnt offering, which was entirely consumed on the altar. Being reconciled to God through the burnt offering, the worshiper was in a position to fellowship with God. Repentance and reconciliation must always come before genuine fellowship.

3:9 the entire fat tail. The tail of the Palestinian broad-tailed sheep is almost entirely fat and can weigh more than 16 pounds. This explains its special mention in the regulations for offering the fat of the sheep.

Old Testament Sacrifices

Sacrifice: Burnt Offering

OT References: Lev 1:6:8–13 ; 8:18–21 ; 16:24

Elements: Bull, ram or male bird (dove or young pigeon for the poor); wholly consumed; no defect

Purpose: Voluntary act of worship; atonement for unintentional sin in general; expression of devotion, commitment and complete surrender to God

Sacrifice: Grain Offering

OT References: Lev 2:6:14–23

Elements: Grain, finest flour, olive oil, incense, baked bread (cakes or wafers), salt; no yeast or honey; accompanied burnt offering and fellowship offering (along with drink offering)

Purpose: Voluntary act of worship; recognition of God's goodness and provisions; devotion to God

Sacrifice: Fellowship Offering

OT References: Lev 3:7:11–34

Elements: Any animal without defect from herd or flock; variety of breads

Purpose: Voluntary act of worship; thanks giving and fellowship (it included a communal meal)

Sacrifice: Sin Offering

OT References: Lev 4:1–5:13 ; 6:24–30 ; 8:14–17 ; 16:3–22

Elements:

1. Young bull: for high priest and congregation
2. Male goat: for leader
3. Female goat or lamb: for common person
4. Dove or pigeon: for the poor
5. Tenth of an ephah of finest flour: for the very poor

Purpose: Mandatory atonement for specific unintentional sin; confession of sin; forgiveness of sin; cleansing from defilement

Sacrifice: Guilt Offering

OT References: Lev 5:14–6:7; 7:1–6

Elements: Ram

Purpose: Mandatory atonement for unintentional sin requiring restitution; cleansing from defilement; make restitution; pay 20% fine

When more than one kind of offering was presented (as in Nu 7:13–17), the procedure was usually as follows: (1) sin offering or guilt offering, (2) burnt offering, (3) fellowship offering and grain offering (along with a drink offering). This sequence furnishes part of the spiritual significance of the sacrificial system. First, sin had to be dealt with (sin offering or guilt offering). Second, the worshipers committed themselves completely to God (burnt offering and grain offering). Third, fellowship or communion between the Lord, the priest and the worshiper (fellowship offering) was established. To state it another way, there were sacrifices of expiation (sin offerings and guilt offerings), consecration (burnt offerings and grain offerings) and communion (fellowship offerings—these included vow offerings, thank offerings and freewill offerings).

4:11–12 all the rest of the bull. Burning the whole bull ensured that the priest did not profit in any way from his own sin or the atonement for his sin. Carrying it outside the camp was another way of symbolizing the seriousness and pollution of sin.

4:13–21 the whole congregation. Interestingly, not only individuals bring a sin offering to God, but the whole congregation as well. We are used to thinking of individuals coming under conviction and repenting, but how can a whole community come to this way of thinking? A congregation or community can begin to realize that they have misrepresented God, or fallen short of their God-given responsibilities, and together repent and ask for forgiveness, even though the members repenting may not have been the actual people who made the bad decisions that created the problem. Groups need to turn around and redirect their actions, just as much as individuals do, and this is one of the ways that God changes whole societies.

5:3 human uncleanness. Body fluids, a person's waste, and contact with a corpse were all causes of uncleanness. The ancient Israelites knew nothing about microbiology, but God, who knows everything, gave them laws that prevented disease and made them distinct from their neighbors.

5:4 swears . . . but he is unaware of it. Certainly a person would know when he makes a vow, but he might not be immediately aware of how rash his vow is, or that the long term consequences are undesirable. Whether the vow was made with good intentions, but not carried out, or made with wicked intentions, but not carried out, the person who made the vow is still responsible to repent of his foolishness when he becomes aware of it.

5:7 two turtledoves. Part of the purification offering was burned on the altar, and part was not burned. When offering birds, the worshiper brought two in order to accomplish this.

5:11 tenth part of an ephah. This was approximately two quarts.

5:13 the rest shall be for the priest. Part of the offering was burned on the altar, as was part of the animal sacrifices. The rest belonged to the priests, as did the remainder of the animal sacrifices brought by ordinary citizens, except for their burnt offerings.

5:15–6:7 person commits a breach of faith. The trespass offering covers both offenses against God (5:15–19) and against people (6:1–7). The offense may be unintentional, or quite deliberate, but regardless of the motive, such actions make the perpetrator guilty. The quickest way to mend relationships with God and with fellow human beings is to honestly admit our guilt and wrongdoing, pay back or repair where we can, and ask forgiveness of those we have sinned against. This responsibility cannot be sidestepped.

5:15 commits a breach of faith and sins unintentionally . . . guilt offering. This refers both to the objective responsibility of a sinner for his or her actions and the subjective feeling of guilt experienced by the sinner. The offering righted the wrong of the offense and cleared the conscience of the sinner.

5:17 though he was not aware of it, still he is guilty. Ignorance does not make an offense harmless. The offender was still guilty and bore responsibility for his sin. He might also be troubled in conscience, though he might never learn the exact nature of his offense. This raises the concept that a person can be aware of a break in his fellowship with God, without being sure what caused this break.

5:18 error which he committed unintentionally and did not know it. This was not a sin of rebellion, but one for which the offender earnestly desired to atone, though he did not know what it was.

5:19 he was certainly guilty before the LORD. The fact that the priest declared him forgiven, and the peace of conscience that the worshiper had, declares that he was indeed guilty of some trespass; it was not his imagination. It is possible for a Christian to have an overactive conscience that keeps the believer in a constant state of anxiety about unknown sins. It is good to remember that God knows all about this, and if we confess our feelings of guilt, He will either show us our true guilt and grant us forgiveness and a clear conscience, or show us the error in our thinking regarding what He expects from us.

6:5–6 not only restore it. Restitution and a one-fifth fine were evidence of genuine repentance. Then the offender could bring the ram for the trespass offering and be forgiven for the sin of swearing falsely in God's name. Jesus preserved this order for the person who remembered at the altar that he had offended his brother (Mt 5:23).

6:10 undergarments. The undergarments were linen trousers that prevented immodest exposure as the priest ascended and descended the altar ramp. This modesty communicated to the Israelites that human sexuality could not influence God. That idea was a central feature of Baal worship, which continually tempted the Israelites. The priests of Baal would use obscene gestures and actions in the pagan worship of their depraved god.

6:13 fire shall be burning continually. There are at least three reasons the priests are instructed to keep the fire burning. The original fire on the altar came from God, perpetual fire symbolized perpetual worship, and perpetual fire was a reminder of the continual need for atonement and reconciliation with God.

6:20 half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening. The idea of a morning and evening appointment with God is ancient. It is a precious privilege, open to every believer because Jesus opened the door into the presence of God when He died on the cross for our sins.

6:22 a permanent statute. This grain offering and the burnt offering were sacrificed daily—with some interruptions, most notably during the exile—until the destruction of the temple in AD 70. Even in the periods of Judah's worst apostasy, the evidence suggests that the daily offerings continued, though often for incorrect or inadequate reasons (Isa 1:10–17 ; Jer 7:8–15 ; Mic 6:6–8 ).

7:1–7 guilt offering . The guilt or trespass offering was “most holy,” showing how seriously and carefully God considers the acts of reparation made by His people. The priest was to eat it in a holy place. It was his to eat, as part of God's provision for him, but he was to remember where it came from. The price of atonement has never been cheap in God's eyes, even when it was as incomplete as the offering of a goat or lamb.

7:34 the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering. This present was a contribution to the officiating priest as his portion of the peace offerings for thanksgiving. The offering was waved before the Lord as an acknowledgment that He is the giver of all gifts.

8:6–13 Purification— Moses carried out the Lord's command (Ex 29:4) by purifying Aaron and his sons for the priesthood. The purification process began with an outward washing of water which symbolized an inward purity. The believer today also shows his inward reality (his acceptance of Christ and the presence of the Holy Spirit) with his outward actions. These acts of obedience do not create the inward reality, but they confirm it. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:8 the Urim and the Thummim. These were the sacred lots used to determine the will of God. What they looked like and how they were used is not known. Apparently, the high priest phrased questions so the answers would be yes or no, depending on how the lots came up.

8:12 anointed him. The high priests of Israel, beginning here with Aaron, were anointed, as were the kings of Israel (1Sa 10:1 ; 16:13) and at least one of the prophets (1Ki 19:16). Jesus combines in His person the offices of High Priest, King, and Prophet, so He is the Anointed One, which is the meaning of the names Messiah (Hebrew) and Christ (Greek).

8:35 so that you will not die. This statement was a reminder that it is dangerous to approach God carelessly, without reverence, or ignore His instructions. Two of Aaron's sons failed to heed this warning and died (ch. 10).

9:4 the LORD will appear to you. The purpose of all worship is to fellowship with God. The sacrifices were not an end in themselves; they allowed the worshiper to meet with God without being destroyed. The Israelites looked forward and we look back to Christ's atonement, which made the way for us to come freely into God's presence.

9:15 the goat for the sin offering. This goat was offered for atonement of the people as a general acknowledgment that they would always need to make things right with God before they could worship Him, and is referred to again in ch. 16. The bull for the sin offering (4:14) was for a specific sin, rather than dealing with sin nature (that is, our ability to sin).

9:22 Aaron . . . blessed them. The ultimate function of the priests was to bless the people. The purpose of the priests' sacrifices was to cleanse the priests so they could bless the people, and the purpose of the people's sacrifices was to cleanse the people to receive this blessing from God.

10:1–2 strange (unauthorized, unacceptable) fire. Aaron and his sons served the Lord as high priests in the worship of the tabernacle. They had been properly appointed, purified, clothed, anointed, and ordained. Initially they did everything that the Lord commanded through Moses. But when Nadab and Abihu disobeyed God in the very performance of their duties, the Lord swiftly punished them with a consuming fire. Being blessed with a thriving ministry is no excuse to go off and do things our own way. God doesn't take such actions lightly, and neither should we.

10:3 I will be treated as holy by those who approach Me. Although this passage refers specifically to the priests of Israel, it is still a good concept for all believers. We are close to God, we remember that He is holy, that He paid a great price to redeem us, and it is our purpose to glorify Him.

11:3 chews the cud. Ruminants, like cows, sheep, goats, deer, and antelope, eat only plants, mainly grasses and grains. No meat-eating animal chews the cud.

11:4 the camel. Some of Israel's neighbors considered the camel a great delicacy.

11:5–6 shaphan . . . hare. The shaphan, or rock hyrax, lives in colonies among the rocks. It is about the size of the rabbit, and like the rabbit, appears to chew constantly, but it is not a true ruminant, nor does it have a hoof.

11:7 the swine. The swine is the best known of the unclean animals. We know now that pigs can pass some diseases to humans, and that inadequately cooked meat is one way these diseases are transferred. Pigs were sacrificed to pagan deities, and God was carefully steering His people away from these corrupted cultures.

11:8 nor touch their carcasses. In the case of these unclean animals, eating their meat or touching their dead bodies caused the Israelite to be unclean, or ritually impure. However, touching a live animal did not make the Israelites unclean, and they were allowed to use camels and donkeys as beasts of burden.

11:11–12 hated . . . detestable. The phrasing is careful, deliberate, and repetitive to remove any possibility of finding any exception anywhere. Abhorrent is a stronger word than “unclean,” and implies not just avoidance, but repulsion.

11:20 walk on all fours. This phrase is an idiom for crawling on the ground, as insects do on their six legs. Many insects move about in filth and eat refuse.

11:21 legs above their feet. The joints are the enlarged third legs of locusts and grasshoppers that enable them to leap. Locusts and grasshoppers do not live in filth or eat dung; they eat only plants.

11:44–45 be holy. Our Lord calls us to personal holiness, and holy living can only come from a life which spends time with the Lord, meditating on who He is, seeking His power to be like Him. We will make mistakes and sin all of our lives, which God never does; when He asks us to be holy because He is holy, it is a goal that we grow toward. Even though we never finish, we still overcome many, many areas of sin, and this growth shows others that we serve a holy God, because they see His characteristics in us.

12:2 conceives and gives birth to a . . . child . . . unclean. The child did not cause the mother to be unclean. God had ordained and blessed childbirth from the beginning, even before the sin in the garden (Ge 1:28). It was the blood and other fluids in childbirth that made the mother ritually unclean for a period of time, just as other bodily fluids caused people to be unclean.

12:4 thirty-three days to be purified from the blood. There is a practical as well as a ceremonial aspect to these instructions. The eighth day marked the end of the mother’s uncleanness with regard to everyday objects and activities; she would no longer make them unclean by touching them. But her personal uncleanness continued. This corresponds with the medical characteristics of childbirth, and the need for special care and rest for the mother. (There is no reason given why this period is double with the birth of a female child.)

12:8 If she cannot afford a lamb. Mary, following the birth of Jesus and the days of her purification, went to the temple in Jerusalem and offered a pair of doves because she was poor. be clean. The law of purification after childbirth demonstrates that all aspects of human existence are touched by sin. Childbirth itself is not sinful, and having children was one of the good commands that the Lord gave Adam and Eve in the garden.

Yet pain in childbirth was one of the curses of the fall, and this time of purification can be viewed as a reminder that humans are still dealing with a sin nature that needs God’s mercy and purification.

13:2 a man. The Hebrew word for “a man” means “human being,” that is, anyone.

13:11 shall not isolate him. Isolation, or quarantine, was for the purpose of protecting the community until a diagnosis was reached. In this case, the patient was already diagnosed as “unclean,” which meant he had to live outside the camp (v. 46).

13:45–46 clothes shall be torn . . . mustache. These actions were signs of mourning, for chronic skin diseases isolated the patients from life and family as if they had died. It is easy to see how leprosy became a metaphor for sin. Like serious skin diseases, sin is dangerous and ultimately fatal, often difficult to diagnose, and incurable without God’s intervention.

13:47 mark of leprosy. This would include any mold, mildew, or other fungus growths on clothing.

13:50–58 priest shall examine the mark. The procedures for diagnosing a problem with a garment were similar to those for diagnosing human skin ailments. The fact that a garment was considered worth saving after a piece had been torn out of it was an economic consideration, reflecting the value of cloth.

14:1–9 cleansing. It is likely that the sprigs of hyssop were tied to the cedar with the scarlet thread. With that in one hand and the living bird in the other, the priest would dip them all in the blood and water mixture in the pottery bowl and shake them over the head of the person to be cleansed. It may seem like a rather messy procedure, but being purified from sin has never been a tidy process. In the end, it took Christ's death on the cross to cleanse His followers. The bird which was released is a reminder of the real freedom and joy that any forgiven sinner experiences.

14:2 He shall be brought to the priest. The priest was responsible for the diagnosis, and he was the one who administered the sacrifices and rituals that celebrated the return of the person to the community of Israel. Jesus was aware of these laws when he touched the leper and healed him, and then directed the leper to show himself to the priest (Mt 8:4 ).

14:4 cedar wood . . . scarlet . . . hyssop. Cedar is both durable and resistant to decay, scarlet is a reminder of blood, and hyssop is an aromatic herb used for flavor, fragrance, and medicine. Each of these items would have been a reminder of the blood that cleansed, the decay that was stopped, and the sweetness of good health.

14:5 running water. This is literally "living water," water from a spring or stream rather than water from a cistern, vessel, or pool. Living water symbolizes life. Jesus told the woman at the well to ask for living water (Jn 4:7-14 ).

14:9-32 shave . . . wash. What is termed leprosy was apparently a number of skin diseases which were infectious, and thus were an apt picture of sin, which also corrupts the flesh, and is spread through social contact. The picture of isolating, analyzing, and finally cleansing these skin diseases is similar to the process of recognizing, repenting, and being forgiven for sin. Blood is necessary in both cases, and in both cases the touch of the Holy Spirit, symbolized by oil, is present.

14:10 the eighth day. The eighth day was the day of circumcision for a newborn male, and the cleansed person was starting again, almost like being born again into the community.

14:21-32 if the cleansed leper is poor. God's legislation for Israel showed special concern for the poor. In these sacrifices the poor Israelite still had to bring a lamb for the trespass offering, but for the sin offering or burnt offering he was allowed to bring turtledoves or pigeons. The grain offering was reduced from three-tenths to one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour.

14:34 mark of leprosy on a house. This is the same term used of serious skin diseases in chapter 13 . All of these conditions were harmful, whether on human skin, clothing, or the wall of a house.

14:54-57 the law for any mark of leprosy. The uncleanness of leprosy required action. If it could not be removed, the thing that carried the uncleanness had to be removed from among God's people. In the same way, the uncleanness of sin requires action, but God has provided an infinitely stronger remedy through the blood of Christ.

15:18 both bathe in water . . . unclean. God's plan from the beginning includes sexual intercourse between a man and his wife; this is not sinful in God's eyes. The uncleanness and requirements of washing were a ritual cleansing, a reminder of the holiness of God, not a prohibition of intimate relationships.

15:19 woman . . . discharge. There are rules for cleansing, but no sacrifice was required. Menstruation was not regarded as sinful.

15:25-27 blood for many days, not during . . . her menstruation. If a woman had a flow of blood at any time other than her normal monthly period, or if this was unusually long, her uncleanness continued the whole time and passed to all she touched. The woman with a hemorrhage who touched Jesus secretly (Lk 8:43-48 ) was in this situation.

15:28-30 cleansed from her discharge. The woman was to bring the smallest allowable sacrifice for the atonement of sins she may have committed during the period of her uncleanness.

15:31-33 separate . . . from their uncleanness. Hygiene and health were important by-products, but the focus of these regulations concerning uncleanness was on keeping God's tabernacle undefiled. Ceremonial laws in regard to natural impurity seem strange to us, because these ceremonies were made obsolete by the perfect sacrifice of Christ. But in the Old Testament one form of blasphemy was the defilement of sanctuary worship by certain forms of ceremonial impurity.

16:2 must not enter at any time. This refers to the arrogant attitude in which Aaron's sons had approached to offer unauthorized sacrifice. God is Holy, and must not be approached carelessly. After Christ opened the way for all believers to approach God at any time, it is perhaps easy to forget that we still approach with reverence and awe. It was because of the terrible price of the cross that we have this privilege, not because God has suddenly become casual.

16:6 for himself. After atoning for himself, the high priest could offer the sacrifice to atone for the people. The author of Hebrews places great emphasis on this point in discussing the superior priesthood of Jesus, who did not have to offer a sacrifice for Himself before He could be the sacrifice of atonement, one time for all people (Heb 7:26 ; 9:11-28 ; 10:19-22 ).

16:15-19 the goat . . . for [the sins of] the people. Aaron offered the goat for the people, and the other actions involved in this sacrifice made it clear that the sins of the people had a defiling effect on the tabernacle. If not removed, the sins would have caused the ministry to be ineffective in atoning for the people.

16:21 Aaron shall lay both of his hands on the head of the live goat. Sending the goat into the wilderness was a public ceremony. Everyone could see Aaron symbolically placing the sins of the people on the goat's head. All of the ways that people could offend God were placed on the head of the goat, which took them away from the camp, away from the people, away from God.

16:22 goat shall carry on itself. This is the origin of the common expression "scapegoat." The goat was not guilty of the sins, but he bore them anyway, allowing the guilty to escape the consequences of their sins. In Jesus' bearing the sins of the human race, and in His death outside the city (outside the camp), He fulfilled this annual ritual of the Day of Atonement. Not only was Jesus the perfect High Priest, He was the perfect Sacrifice.

16:29 in the seventh month. The Day of Atonement fell between mid-September and mid-October.

16:29-34 The Day of Atonement— This whole process of animal sacrifice seems foreign to us. There is no enjoyment in seeing an animal killed. Special underwear and extra washings do not fit our religious experience. It is easy for us to wonder why this was necessary. What is the big deal anyway? The primary reason we have trouble with this is that we have such a superficial understanding of sin and God's attitude toward it. We tend to think of sin as a kind of correctable mistake, easily taken care of. Why be so upset about it?

The Day of Atonement pointed the Israelites to the seriousness of sin. They were able to see that sin was an affront to God that had to be dealt with. It is like cancer. If it is not treated, death is the ultimate consequence. At its core, sin is rebellion against God. This ceremony stood as a permanent reminder of these truths. It pointed to God's holiness, to the drastic measures needed to deal with sin. Our souls are to be cleansed thoroughly and the sacrifices on the Day of Atonement accomplished this cleansing for the Israelite community. As such it was the most important day in the Jewish religious calendar. Go to Theological Notes Index

17:5 sacrifices . . . in the open field. Such sacrifices were strictly forbidden. All sacrifices were to be clearly and unequivocally made to God alone, and in His way.

17:7 to goat-idols or demons . . . played the prostitute. Pagan deities in the form of goats, like satyrs, were a part of the cultures surrounding the Israelites. Israel's worship of other gods, and God's attitude toward it was likened to the way a husband would feel if his wife became a prostitute. This was a picture of betrayal that the Israelites could understand. permanent statute. Because this was a permanent rule, it becomes clear that it was not an injunction against slaughtering animals for meat, but referred to sacrifices. When Israel's worship was centered in Jerusalem, some families lived more than a hundred miles from the temple. They could not have traveled so far to kill animals for meat, although they did make the journey for sacrifices.

17:10 any blood. Eating blood was forbidden in the strongest possible terms.

17:13 cover it with earth. Blood was to be treated respectfully, and covering it with earth was a token of burial.

18:2 the LORD. This is the translation of the name for God, sometimes called Yahweh, the name by which God revealed Himself to Moses (Ex 6:2–8). In using this name, God was basing His claim to the Israelites' devotion on His willingness to reveal Himself to them, to redeem them and to be their God.

18:4 My judgments . . . My statutes. "Judgments" refers to judicial decisions involving situations that might not be addressed in the statutes. "Statutes" are decrees, laws, and acts of a permanent nature.

18:5 if a person keeps them, he shall live. God gave the law as a means of life on all levels—physical, moral, spiritual, and relational.

18:6 No one . . . any blood relative . . . uncover nakedness. This term covers cases such as incest between father and daughter and between brother and full sister, even though they are absent from the following list. To uncover someone's nakedness is to have sexual intercourse with that person.

18:7 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father. The point of this passage is that committing incest with the wife of one's father is symbolically to uncover the father's nakedness too, because the two are one flesh through marriage.

18:8 father's wife. Even if your father's wife is not your mother, it is still wrong to have sexual relations with her. In Israel at that time multiple wives or concubines were still part of society, as well as a second wife coming into the family through death or divorce of the first wife.

18:9 your sister. Though this may seem redundant, God wanted to make it abundantly clear that a sister who did not share the same pair of parents as her brother was still off limits. This would cover husbands of multiple wives and illegitimate children. Sexual sin is serious with long reaching consequences, and it is clearly forbidden within the family.

18:20 with your neighbor's wife. Adultery is forbidden in Exodus 20:14 and its penalty is given in Leviticus 20:10.

18:21 not give any of your children . . . to Molech. God forbids child sacrifice right along with incest. This is destructive behavior with far reaching consequences, and all followers of the Lord will abhor it as God does.

18:22 lie [intimately] with a male. Homosexuality here is labeled as repulsive, something detestable to God both ritually (as a part of the Canaanite religion) and morally. When God is repulsed, it is a clear message that homosexuality is not part of His plan for human relationships.

18:23 any animal. Bestiality is labeled a perversion, something out of the natural order and a defilement. It, too, was a feature of some of the religions of Israel's neighbors.

18:24–30 defile. The land had become so defiled by the perverted practices of the Canaanites that it was vomiting them out. For that reason, the land would be available to Israel to settle. The Israelites, however, needed to be careful to live as God's holy people, or the land would vomit them out as well.

19:3 keep My Sabbaths. The weekly Sabbath was an acknowledgment that not everything depended on the Israelites' efforts. It was an acknowledgment of God's lordship and His grace.

19:5 peace offerings. The peace offering was a free will offering.

19:10 for the poor and for the stranger. Providing for the poor and the alien who could not own land was a priority in ancient Israel. The generosity of God's people was rooted in God's generosity toward the Israelites.

19:16 gossip. This person is not just a gossip, but one who is actively seeking to destroy another's reputation.

19:17 hate . . . in your heart. Jesus addressed this principle in the Sermon on the Mount (Mt 5:21–24).

19:18 take revenge. Vengeance belongs to God (Dt 32:35); His vengeance is entirely just. It is easy for human vengeance to be carried out too zealously, leaving the by-products of bitterness and hatred.

Instead, we are to do good to those who hate us and pray for those who persecute us (Mt 5:44). love. The word “love” is first found in Genesis 22:2, where God told Abraham to offer up his son whom he loved as a burnt sacrifice upon Mount Moriah, and the first mention of love in the New Testament is God proclaiming that Jesus is His beloved Son (Mt 3:17). Family love is something people find easy to understand. Even if it is not very strong in one’s nuclear family, the longing for love shows us that we understand what it is to be. To take this love one step further, that a parent would allow a child to die for the good of others, stretches the concept of love. And yet it is that very love that caused God to send His Son to die for the whole world.

19:20 a woman who is a slave. The slave woman had a low social standing and few rights, and may not have had the freedom to cry out when approached sexually. Therefore, she remained guiltless. Because she was a slave, the man escaped death, but remained guilty before God. Atonement was necessary for him to receive forgiveness.

19:26 divination. God, and not a demon or impersonal force, is all powerful and directs the future. Practicing divination reveals a lack of trust in God to bring the best in the future in His timing.

19:27–28 beard . . . cuts on your body . . . nor make any tattoo marks. The human body was designed by God to be beautiful. Disfiguring the body for the dead, or as a sign of mourning, is dishonoring to God. Some disfiguring was a part of pagan religions, and was forbidden to God’s people for any reason.

19:29 making her a prostitute. Sexual relations are sacred. Forcing a daughter to violate that sanctity defiled her against her will.

19:31 mediums . . . spiritists. In principle this is no different than divination. Its practice involves consulting the spirits of the dead, or other spirits, both of which are strictly forbidden. It demonstrates lack of faith and rebellion against God and His ways.

19:35–36 do no wrong . . . in measurement of weight or quantity. Injustice in legal transactions or in business are equally wrong. God is just and generous, and His people are to be the same.

20:2–5 gives any of his children to Molech . . . put to death . . . stone him. The penalty for child sacrifice, whether carried out by an alien or a citizen of Israel, was death, either carried out by the justice system or by God Himself. Children are a trust and blessing from God, and killing them in a pagan ritual is a wickedness that God will not overlook.

20:8 who sanctifies you. To be sanctified is to be “set apart.” The worshiper was set apart to God, from all other allegiances.

20:9 his blood is on him. This statement assured the executioners that they were not guilty of shedding the offender’s blood.

20:21 takes his brother’s wife. It may be assumed that this passage refers to taking his brother’s wife while his brother is still living. Deuteronomy 25:5–10 gives a fairly detailed directive for a brother marrying his brother’s childless widow and giving the firstborn the name of the dead brother, so that his family line will be maintained.

21:5 not shave their heads . . . make any cuts in their body. These were pagan customs, and all Israel was forbidden to observe them (19:27).

21:9 profanes herself by prostitution. Prostitution, the ultimate promiscuity, was the opposite of holiness, the ultimate faithfulness. The daughter was to reflect her father’s holiness to God.

21:22 He may eat. Physical defect did not imply a moral defect. The person afflicted was to receive his food as the other priests did, from the sacrifices.

22:3 of your descendants throughout your generations. This statement made the restriction as broad as possible in any one generation, and as broad as possible through all time. cut off from My presence. The individual was not executed or banished from the community, but was permanently barred from ministering as a priest.

22:7 it is his food. The sacrifices brought by the Israelites were a major part of the daily provisions of the priests.

22:8 that which dies [of natural causes] or is torn by a predator. An ordinary Israelite was unclean until evening if he ate such animals (17:15–16), but a priest was not to eat them at all.

22:11 buys a slave . . . the slave may eat. Strangers, guests, and hired servants were forbidden to eat of the holy gifts, but slaves and their children were considered a part of the priest's family, and could eat of the consecrated food.

22:18 stranger in Israel. Resident aliens in Israel were permitted to worship God with the Israelites, and were subject to the same regulations about sacrifices.

22:21 it must be perfect to be accepted. This is a very clear directive, yet the prophet Malachi addressed the problem of defective sacrifices in his day (Mal 1:7–14). God called that “despising” His name.

22:31 commandments. As Christians, it is important to understand the relationship between grace and law. A focus on the law without grace leads to a rule-oriented life, where our actions may be decent enough, but our heart is hard toward God. But if the focus is only on grace, we may be without the guidelines necessary to keep us from just doing what is right in our own eyes. Certain directives are given to us because even when we are born again, we are not all wise. The best way to balance all of this is to consider the whole counsel of God by reading and seeking to understand the whole Bible.

23:3 six days work may be done. Work was given to the human race in the garden of Eden. It is one of the ways humans bear the image of God, and is not a curse on the race. Even after the fall it remains God's good gift. the Sabbath of complete rest . . . wherever you may be. The regular seventh day of rest is for our refreshment, and a day of solemn, joyful worship. It was not to be observed only in the sanctuary, it was to be celebrated in every household. The writer of Hebrews (ch 4) calls belief in the saving work of Jesus, "entering His rest," and compares that to the Sabbath rest.

23:5 fourteenth day of the first month. This month would fall between mid-March and mid-April. The Passover celebrated Israel's exodus from Egypt (Ex 12:1–28 ).

23:6–8 Feast of Unleavened Bread. This festival immediately followed Passover, and later in Israel's history, it involved pilgrimages to the central sanctuary; first in Shiloh, and later in Jerusalem.

23:10 sheaf of the first fruits. This bundle of the first harvested barley belonged to God as a special offering, acknowledging God's provision for the harvest.

23:24 the seventh month. This holiday falls in mid-September. It was a reminder of God's goodness, which was expressed in the covenant, and asked God to continue to remember that covenant.

23:26–32 Atonement— The Day of Atonement was a time to set aside all the thoughts and actions that typically fill the day and consider one's relationship with God. This was to be a time of humbleness, which would preclude any self-righteousness or merely comparing oneself with others. It was a time to remember that even people who want to follow God need to have their lives realigned with Him. Christians regularly take time to think of these things as they remember the Lord's death until He comes again, with the bread and the cup of communion. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:27 Day of Atonement. The day was not given this name in chapter 16 , but this was the day of all days, when complete atonement was made for all Israel.

23:40 boughs of thick (leafy) trees. This leafy tree is thought to be the myrtle.

24:19–20 eye for eye. This law is also found in Exodus 21:23–25. Its purpose is not to require the injured party to inflict equal bodily harm on the one who had injured him, but to restrict him from inflicting greater harm than he received.

24:22 one standard of law. These laws are repeated here in order to answer the question of whether these laws apply to non-Israelites. The answer is yes, they also apply to the stranger in the land.

25:5 shall not reap. Reaping and gathering for storage and selling were not permitted. However, harvesting for daily needs was allowed.

25:10 freedom. This word could also be translated “liberty.” It meant specifically that all debts were cancelled, all Israelites who had sold themselves into slavery were freed, and all the land reverted to its original owners, from the time the land was divided by Joshua. The same phrase occurs in Isaiah 61:1, the passage Jesus read in the synagogue in Nazareth at the beginning of His earthly ministry. Jesus declares liberty to all who have lost their inheritance and become slaves to sin.

25:11 Jubilee. The fiftieth, or jubilee year, followed a Sabbath year of rest, so this meant that there were two years of rest in a row for the land.

25:17 fear your God. Fear of God includes respect of man, who is God’s highest creation. A deep respect of the life of man, who is created in God’s image and likeness, is stressed in Scriptures. This text prohibits taking advantage of or oppressing others, and for the Christian there is the added reminder that we are not to injure those “for whom Christ died” (1Co 8:11).

25:23 temporary residents with Me. The principle governing all of these laws was that the land did not belong to Israel; it belonged to God.

25:44–46 permanent slaves. The fact that God made laws to govern the current practices of slavery does not mean that He approved of slavery. He made laws about divorce too, but He also said that He hates divorce.

26:1 figured stone. A “figured stone” is a sacred pillar, a stone or wooden column erected to represent a pagan god or goddess. It was not a likeness, but a symbol. Together, the four terms used in this verse cover all the possibilities for pagan images.

26:4–5 rain in its season . . . threshing . . . until grape gathering . . . until planting. Not only will God provide the rain when needed, He would provide abundant harvests. The grain harvest was finished by early to mid-June, and the grape harvest began about two months later. Having two months to thresh the grain indicated a large harvest. Likewise sowing could not occur until after the first rains softened the ground, usually in mid-October. A two month grape harvest would be a bumper crop. This is the first of the three blessings from God.

26:6–10 peace in the land. Neither animal nor human adversaries would be successful against Israel. This is the second of the three blessings from God.

26:11–13 I will walk among you. The third blessing was the promise of His presence within Israel, actively walking among them and looking out for their welfare.

26:12–13 be your God. The image in these verses is a dramatic one, reminding the Israelites that God would be their intimate associate continually. He would walk with them, support them in times of difficulty and danger, and abundantly provide for both their physical and spiritual needs. To be God’s people meant that the Israelites had to obey God’s laws scrupulously, to be holy as God is holy, and to be a witness of God among the pagan nations.

26:14–15 do not [obediently] do all these commandments. As with the blessings, the curses are presented in an “if-then” format.

26:16–17 terror, consumption, and fever. Fear, illness, poor harvest, and enemies in the land would be God's first attempts to draw Israel back to Himself.

26:18–20 sky like iron. The second series of curses were characterized as "seven times more." Rain was essential to the whole nation, both the fall and spring rains.

26:19 pride in your power. The pride of power will often cause a person or nation to trust in its own strength and accomplishments rather than to submit to God and give Him the honor and glory. The punishment for this pride was drought—skies like iron, with not even a hint of rain. This can be true on a personal level as well as a national level if one forgets that it is God who has given the position of significance. Then the iron heavens make it seem as if prayers are not heard, and the parched spirit cries out for God's touch again.

26:21–22 increase the plague on you seven times. The third series of curses are again increased "seven times," so that the land is plagued with wild beasts that attack both their children and their domestic animals.

26:23–26 a sword . . . pestilence . . . handed over to the enemy . . . eat and not be satisfied. The fourth series of curses are also increased "seven times." When enemies invaded the land, the people living in unwalled villages fled to walled cities, and if the city was besieged, the overcrowding created prime conditions for epidemics and famine.

26:29 eat the flesh of your sons . . . daughters. The fifth and final curse, "seven times for your sins," was cannibalism. This actually happened centuries later during a siege of Samaria, and later still in Jerusalem (2Ki 6:28–29 ; La 2:20 ; 4:10 ).

26:30 high places . . . incense altars. The high places and incense altars were dedicated to the worship of pagan gods.

26:33 scatter. This threat was fulfilled in the Babylonian exile of 587–536 BC.

26:36–37 despair (lack of courage, weakness) into their hearts. Survivors would not enjoy relief or peace of mind after escaping the disasters. They would still be timid, even when no one pursued them.

26:38–39 perish among the nations. Having been exiled to foreign lands, the people were not to think they were beyond God's punitive reach.

26:42 My covenant. God's covenant with the patriarchs took precedence over the covenant at Sinai (Gal 3:15–18 ). Even when Israel violated the Sinai covenant, God honored the patriarchal covenant.

26:44–45 I will not reject them . . . remember the covenant. Ultimately, God's character is grace, mercy, love, and redemption. On that basis, God would remember the covenant and redeem them because He is God.

27:2–8 special vow . . . shall value. While people could dedicate themselves or their children to the Lord (1Sa 1:11 , 22 ) only the Levites were allowed to serve God as priests. Therefore, those others vowed in service to the Lord had to be redeemed, and the value of his service was given to the sanctuary.

27:8 too poor. Fifty shekels might have represented about four years' earnings. If a person was too poor to pay this price, the priest set a price that the person could pay.

27:14–24 consecrates. Consecrating property to the Lord, and then buying it back with cash if one wants to use it for oneself is a curious idea to modern people. We tend to consider dedication of something to God as using it in a way that pleases Him, and the line between "God's" and "mine" may be very fuzzy. We are familiar with offering praises or tithes to God as worship, but think of the way we handle property as "good" or "poor" stewardship. A passage like this reminds us that we are not to be casual in worship. Are we offering it to God or not? Is it His, or do we want it back at no cost to ourselves?

27:16 homer of barley. A homer was a donkey load.

27:28 sets apart. Setting apart or devoting a possession was a stronger act than dedication. Nothing devoted could be redeemed; persons devoted (under the ban) were to be put to death. No private citizen would have had the power to put himself or anyone else “under the ban.”

27:31 redeem any part of his tithe. For a person living a distance from the sanctuary, it may have been more practical to redeem the tithe than to bring the crops to the sanctuary.

27:32 under the [shepherd's] staff. Sheep and goats were inspected when they passed under the staff that the shepherd placed across the entrance to the fold. This was a time to determine if the animals were under any distress from disease or injury, and was also the time that some of them were set aside for the Lord.

The Fourth Book of Moses, Called

Numbers

- AUTHOR: The Jews, Samaritans, and the early church testify to Moses' authorship. Several New Testament passages attribute events cited from Numbers to Moses (Jn 3:14 ; Ac 7 ; 13 ; 1Co 10:1–11 ; Heb 3–4 ; Jn 11 ), and there are more than eighty claims within Numbers that state that the Lord spoke to Moses (1:1 ). Numbers 33:2 says that Moses recorded their journeys at the Lord's command. As an eyewitness who kept detailed records, and the central character of the events in the book, no one was better qualified to write this book than Moses.
- TIMES: c. 1114–1405 BC
- KEY VERSES: Nu 14:22–23
- THEME: At Sinai, this newly resurrected nation of Israel receives its laws, its system of sacrifices, and its national charter. The people then should have been ready to take the next step into the promised land, but they aren't. Numbers largely has Israel in a holding pattern. While the book records further steps taken in organizing the nation, its central narrative is that of the refusal of the people to go into Canaan. But God still doesn't give up on His people. He continues to discipline them in an effort to have a new generation ready to fulfill His plan. In this context Numbers points to God's sovereignty, His patience, and His desire to bless His people.

The Census of Israel's Warriors

<sup>4</sup> “And with you there shall be a man [to assist you] from each tribe, each being the head of his father’s household.

<sup>19</sup> just as the LORD had commanded Moses. So he numbered them in the Wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>42</sup> Of the sons of Naphtali, their descendants, by their families (clans), by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go to war:

<sup>44</sup> These were the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each representing his fathers' household. ‡

<sup>45</sup> So all those numbered of the sons of Israel, by their fathers' households, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go to war in Israel,

<sup>46</sup> all who were numbered were 603,550. ‡

Levites Exempted

<sup>47</sup> The Levites, however, were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe. ‡

<sup>48</sup> For the LORD had said to Moses,

<sup>49</sup> "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor shall you take their census among the sons of Israel [since they are unavailable to go to war]. ‡

<sup>50</sup> "But appoint the Levites over the tabernacle (sanctuary) of the Testimony, and over all its furnishings and all things that belong to it. They shall carry the tabernacle [when traveling] and all its furnishings, and they shall take care of it and camp around it. ‡

<sup>51</sup> "When the tabernacle is to go forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to [be set up for] camp, the Levites shall set it up. But the layman (non-Levite) who approaches the tabernacle shall be put to death. ‡

<sup>53</sup> “But the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the Testimony, so that there will be no wrath against the congregation of the Israelites. The Levites shall be in charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony.” ‡

<sup>54</sup> Thus the sons of Israel did these things; according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so they did.

Numbers 2

Arrangement of the Camps

<sup>7</sup> “Then [also on the east side] the tribe of Zebulun; and Eliab the son of Helon shall lead the sons of Zebulun,

<sup>8</sup> and his army as numbered totaled 57,400.

<sup>10</sup> “On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben, by their armies; and Elizur the son of Shedeur shall lead the sons of Reuben,

<sup>12</sup> “Those who camp next to Reuben [on the south side] shall be the tribe of Simeon; and Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai shall lead the sons of Simeon,

<sup>13</sup> and his army as numbered totaled 59,300.

<sup>14</sup> “Then [completing the south side] the tribe of Gad; and Eliasaph the son of Reuel (Deuel) shall lead the sons of Gad,

<sup>16</sup> “The total of the numbered men [in the three tribes on the south side] in the camp of Reuben was 151,450, by their armies. They shall move out second [on the march]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Beside Ephraim [on the west side] shall be the tribe of Manasseh; and Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur shall lead the sons of Manasseh,

<sup>22</sup> “Then [completing the west side shall be] the tribe of Benjamin; and Abidan the son of Gideoni shall lead the sons of Benjamin,

<sup>24</sup> “The total of the numbered men [of the three tribes on the west side] in the camp of Ephraim was 108,100, by their armies. They shall move out in third place. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “Encamped next to Dan [on the north side] shall be the tribe of Asher; and Pagiel the son of Ochran shall lead the sons of Asher,

<sup>29</sup> “Then [completing the north side] comes the tribe of Naphtali; and Ahira the son of Enan shall lead the sons of Naphtali, ‡

<sup>31</sup> “The total of the numbered men [of the three tribes on the north side] in the camp of Dan was 157,600. They shall move out last, standard after standard.” ‡

<sup>33</sup> But the Levites were not numbered with the [other] Israelites, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Thus the Israelites did [as ordered]; according to everything the LORD had commanded Moses, so they camped by their standards, and so they moved out, everyone with his family (clan), according to his fathers' household. ‡

Numbers 3

Levites to Be Priesthood

<sup>4</sup> But Nadab and Abihu died in the presence of the LORD when they offered strange (unholy, unacceptable, inappropriate) fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai; and they had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the presence and under the supervision of Aaron their father.  [Lev 10:1–4. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>6</sup> “Bring the tribe of Levi near and present them before Aaron the priest, so that they may serve him. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “They shall carry out the duties for him and for the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, doing the service of the tabernacle. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “They shall also take care of all the furnishings and utensils of the Tent of Meeting, and [attend to] the duties of the Israelites, doing the service of the tabernacle.

<sup>9</sup> “You shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons [as servants and helpers]; they are to be given wholly to him from among the Israelites. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of and as a substitute for every firstborn, that is, the first that opens the womb among the Israelites. So the Levites shall be Mine,‡

<sup>13</sup> for all the firstborn are Mine. On the day that I killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated for Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and animal. They shall be mine; I am the LORD.”‡

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying,

<sup>15</sup> “Number the sons of Levi by their fathers’ households, by their families (clans). You shall number every male from a month old and upward.”‡

<sup>20</sup> and the [two] sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by their fathers’ households.‡

<sup>22</sup> The males who were numbered, every male from a month old and upward totaled 7,500.

Duties of the Priests

<sup>26</sup> and the hangings of the courtyard, the curtain for the doorway of the courtyard which is around the tabernacle and the altar, its tent ropes, and all the service concerning them.‡

<sup>27</sup> Of Kohath were the families of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites; these are the families of the Kohathites.‡

<sup>28</sup> The males who were numbered, every male from a month old and upward totaled 8,600, attending to the duties of the sanctuary.

<sup>29</sup> The families of the sons of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle, ‡

<sup>30</sup> and the leader of the fathers' households of the families of the Kohathites was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

<sup>32</sup> Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, was chief of the leaders of the Levites; he supervised those who performed the duties of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup> Of Merari were the families of the Mahlites and the Mushites; these are the families of Merari.

<sup>38</sup> Now those to camp before the tabernacle toward the east, before the Tent of Meeting, toward the sunrise, were to be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, performing the duties of the sanctuary for whatever was required of the Israelites; and the layman (non-Levite) who approached [the sanctuary] was to be put to death. ‡

Firstborn Redeemed

<sup>41</sup> "You shall take the Levites for Me instead of and as a substitute for all the firstborn among the Israelites. I am the LORD; and you shall take the cattle of the Levites instead of and as a substitute for all the firstborn among the cattle of the Israelites.” ‡

<sup>42</sup> So Moses numbered all the firstborn among the Israelites, just as the LORD had commanded him;

<sup>43</sup> and all the firstborn males from a month old and upward as numbered were 22,273 [273 more than the Levites].

<sup>44</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>45</sup> “Take the Levites [for Me] instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle. And the Levites shall be Mine. I am the LORD. ‡

<sup>49</sup> So Moses took the ransom (redemption) money from those who were in excess, beyond those ransomed by the Levites;

Numbers 4

Duties of the Kohathites

<sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families (clans), by their fathers’ households,

<sup>4</sup> “This is the work and responsibility of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle): the most holy things. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “When the camp prepares to move out, Aaron and his sons shall come into the sanctuary and take down the veil (curtain) screening off the Holy of

Holies , and cover the ark of the testimony with it; ‡

<sup>8</sup> “They shall spread over them a cloth of scarlet, and cover that with a covering of porpoise skin, and they shall insert its carrying poles.

<sup>10</sup> and they shall put the lampstand and all its utensils in a covering of porpoise skin, and shall put it on the carrying bars.

<sup>13</sup> “Then they shall clean away the ashes from the altar [of burnt offering], and spread a purple cloth over it.

<sup>14</sup> “They shall also put on it all its utensils with which they minister in connection with it: the pans, the meat-forks, the shovels, the basins, and all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread a covering of porpoise skin over it, and insert its carrying poles.

<sup>15</sup> “When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all its furniture, as the camp sets out, after all that [is done, but not before], the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them [using the poles], so that they do not touch the holy things, and die. These are the things in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle) which the sons of Kohath are to carry. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “The responsibility of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, is the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continual grain offering, and the anointing oil—the responsibility of all the tabernacle and everything that is in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

<sup>18</sup> “Do not cut off (eliminate, destroy) the tribe of the families of the Kohathites [who are only Levites and not priests], from among the Levites

[by exposing them to the sin of touching the most holy things].

<sup>19</sup> “But deal with them in this way, so that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each of them to his [specific] work and to his load [to be carried on the march].‡

<sup>20</sup> “But the Kohathites shall not go in to see the holy things, even for an instant, or they will die.”‡

Duties of the Gershonites

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>22</sup> “Take a census of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers’ households, by their families.

<sup>23</sup> “From thirty years and upward to fifty years old, you shall number them; all who enter for service to do the work in the Tent of Meeting.‡

<sup>24</sup> “This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in carrying [when on the march]:

<sup>26</sup> and the hangings of the courtyard, and the curtain for the entrance of the gate of the courtyard which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their tent ropes, and all the equipment for their service; and all that is to be done, they shall perform.

<sup>27</sup> “Aaron and his sons shall direct all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all they have to carry and all they have to do. You shall assign to them as a duty all that they are to carry [on the march].

<sup>28</sup> “This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle); and their duties shall be under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron, the [high] priest.‡

Duties of the Merarites

<sup>29</sup> “As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families (clans), by their fathers’ households;

<sup>30</sup> from thirty years and upward to fifty years old, you shall number them, everyone who enters the service to do the work of the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle).‡

<sup>31</sup> “This is what they are assigned to carry [on the march], according to all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the boards [for the framework] of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its sockets or bases,‡

<sup>35</sup> from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who enters the service to do the work in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle);‡

<sup>36</sup> the men who were numbered by their families were 2,750.

<sup>37</sup> These were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who did service in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle), whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD through Moses.

<sup>38</sup> The men who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families (clans), and by their fathers' households,

<sup>39</sup> from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service to do the work in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle);

<sup>40</sup> the men who were numbered by their families, by their fathers' households, were 2,630.

<sup>42</sup> The men who were numbered of the sons of Merari, by their families (clans), by their fathers' households,

<sup>43</sup> from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle);

<sup>44</sup> the men who were numbered by their families were 3,200.

<sup>45</sup> These are the men who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered in accordance with the commandment of the LORD through Moses. ‡

<sup>46</sup> All the men who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted by their families (clans) and by their fathers' households,

<sup>47</sup> from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who could enter to do the work of service and the work of carrying in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle); ‡

<sup>48</sup> the men that were numbered were 8,580.

<sup>49</sup> According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses, they were numbered, each assigned to his work of serving and carrying. Thus they were numbered by him, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

Numbers 5

On Defilement

<sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites to send away from the camp every leper and everyone who has a discharge, and whoever is defiled [that is, ceremonially unclean] by [coming in contact with] the dead. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You shall send away both male and female; you shall send them outside the camp so that they will not defile their camp where I dwell in their midst.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> The Israelites did so, and sent them outside the camp; just as the LORD had said to Moses, so the Israelites did.

<sup>5</sup> And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>6</sup> “Say to the Israelites, ‘When a man or woman commits any of the sins of mankind [against other people], thus breaking faith with the LORD, and that person is guilty, ‡

<sup>7</sup> then he shall confess the sin which he has committed, and he shall make restitution for his wrong in full, and add a fifth to it, and give it to [the person] whom he has wronged. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘But if the man [who was wronged] has no redeemer (relative) to whom the restitution may be made, it is to be given to the LORD for the priest, besides the ram of atonement with which atonement is made for the offender. ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘Also every contribution pertaining to all the holy gifts of the Israelites which they offer to the priest, shall be his. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘And every man’s holy gifts shall be the priest’s; whatever any man gives the priest, it becomes his.’ ” ‡

The Adultery Test

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>12</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and say to them, ‘If any man’s wife goes astray (deviates) and is unfaithful to him,

<sup>13</sup> and a man is intimate with her, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband and it is kept secret, although she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act, ‡

<sup>14</sup> and if a spirit (sense, attitude) of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous and angry at his wife who has defiled herself—or if a spirit of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife when she has not defiled herself

---

<sup>15</sup> then the man shall bring his wife to the priest, and he shall bring as an offering for her, a tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall not pour oil on it nor put frankincense on it [the symbols of favor and joy], because it is a grain offering of jealousy, a memorial grain offering, a reminder of [the consequences of] wickedness. ‡

<sup>17</sup> and the priest shall take holy water [from the sacred basin] in an earthenware vessel; and he shall take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it in the water.

<sup>18</sup> ‘The priest shall then have the woman stand before the LORD, and let the hair of the woman’s head hang loose, and put the memorial grain offering in her hands, which is the jealousy offering, and in the hand of the priest is to be the water of bitterness that brings a curse.

<sup>19</sup> ‘Then the priest shall have her take an oath and say to the woman, “If no man has lain with you and if you have not gone astray into uncleanness [while married], then be immune to this water of bitterness that brings a curse;

<sup>20</sup> but if you have gone astray [while married] and you have defiled yourself and a man other than your husband has been intimate with you”

<sup>21</sup> (then the priest shall have the woman swear the oath of the curse, and say to the woman), “The LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people when the LORD makes your thigh waste away and your abdomen swell; ‡

<sup>22</sup> and this water that brings a curse shall go into your stomach, and make your abdomen swell and your thigh waste away.” And the woman shall say, “Amen. Amen (so let it be).” ‡

<sup>23</sup> ‘The priest shall then write these curses on a scroll and shall wash them off into the water of bitterness;

<sup>24</sup> and he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings a curse, and the water that brings the curse will go into her and cause bitterness.

<sup>26</sup> ‘Then the priest shall take a handful of the grain offering as the memorial portion of it and offer it up in smoke on the altar, and afterward he shall make the woman drink the water. ‡

<sup>27</sup> ‘When he has made her drink the water, then it shall come about, that if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, the curse water will go into her and cause bitterness and cause her abdomen to swell and her thigh to waste away, and the woman will become a curse among her people. ‡

<sup>28</sup> ‘But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she will be free and conceive children.

<sup>30</sup> or when a spirit (sense, attitude) of jealousy and suspicion comes on a man and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall have the woman stand before the LORD, and the priest shall apply this law to her.

<sup>31</sup> ‘Further, the husband will be free from guilt, but that woman [if guilty] shall bear her guilt.’ ” ‡

Numbers 6

Law of the Nazirites

<sup>3</sup> he shall abstain from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar, whether made from wine or strong drink, nor shall he drink any grape juice

nor eat fresh or dried grapes.  [Luke 1:15 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘All the time of his separation he shall not eat anything produced from the grapevine, from the seeds even to the skins.

<sup>6</sup> ‘All the time that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body. ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘If a man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his dedicated head, then he shall shave his head on the day that he becomes [ceremonially] clean; he shall shave it on the seventh day [the end of the purification period]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle). ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘The priest shall offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering and make atonement for him concerning his sin because of the [dead] body. He shall consecrate his head the same day,

<sup>12</sup> and he shall dedicate himself to the LORD for the time of his separation and shall bring a male lamb a year old as a guilt offering; but the previous days will be void and lost, because his separation was defiled. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘Then the priest shall present them before the LORD and shall offer the person’s sin offering and his burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup> ‘He shall also offer the ram as a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, together with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall offer also its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>20</sup> ‘Then the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; they are a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered by lifting up; and afterward the Nazirite may drink wine.’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> “This is the law for the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD for his separation, besides what else he is able to afford, according to the vow which he has vowed; so shall he do according to the law for his separation and abstinence [as a Nazirite].”  [Acts 21:24, 26. ]

Aaron’s Benediction

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>23</sup> “Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the way you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them: ‡

<sup>25</sup> The LORD make His face shine upon you [with favor], ‡
And be gracious to you [surrounding you with lovingkindness];

<sup>26</sup> The LORD lift up His countenance (face) upon you [with divine approval], ‡
And give you peace [a tranquil heart and life].’

<sup>27</sup> “So Aaron and his sons shall put My name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.” ‡

Numbers 7

Offerings of the Leaders

<sup>1</sup> ON THE day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle and had anointed and consecrated it and all its furniture, and the altar and all its utensils; he also anointed them and consecrated them [for holy use]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' households, made offerings. (These were the leaders of the tribes; they were the ones who were over the men who were numbered.) ‡

<sup>3</sup> They brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen; a cart for each two of the leaders and an ox for each one; and they presented them before the tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>5</sup> “Accept these things from them, so that they may be used in the service of the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle), and give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service.”

<sup>6</sup> So Moses took the carts and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.

<sup>7</sup> He gave two carts and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service [in transporting the tabernacle]; ‡

<sup>8</sup> and he gave four carts and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service [in transporting the tabernacle], under the supervision of Ithamar the son of Aaron, the [high] priest. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But to the sons of Kohath he gave nothing, because they were assigned the care of the holy things which they carried on their shoulders [when the tabernacle was moved]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Let them present their offerings, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.”

<sup>12</sup> Now the one who presented his offering on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah; ‡

<sup>13</sup> and his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ‡

<sup>17</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab [from the tribe of Judah]. ‡

<sup>18</sup> On the second day Nethanel the son of Zuar, leader [of the tribe] of Issachar, presented [his offering];

<sup>19</sup> he presented as his offering one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>21</sup> one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>24</sup> On the third day [it was] Eliab the son of Helon, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Zebulun [who presented his offering];

<sup>25</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>27</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>30</sup> On the fourth day [it was] Elizur the son of Shedeur, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Reuben [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>31</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

<sup>33</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>36</sup> On the fifth day [it was] Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Simeon [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>37</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>39</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>42</sup> On the sixth day [it was] Eliasaph the son of Deuel, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Gad [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>43</sup> his offering was one silver dish the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>45</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering; ‡

<sup>48</sup> On the seventh day [it was] Elishama the son of Ammihud, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Ephraim [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>49</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>52</sup> one male goat as a sin offering;

<sup>54</sup> On the eighth day [it was] Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Manasseh [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>55</sup> his offering was one silver dish the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>57</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>58</sup> one male goat as a sin offering;

<sup>60</sup> On the ninth day [it was] Abidan the son of Gideoni, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Benjamin [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>61</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>63</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>65</sup> and as the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni [from the tribe of Benjamin].

<sup>67</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>69</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>72</sup> On the eleventh day [it was] Pagiel the son of Ochran, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Asher [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>73</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>75</sup> one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>78</sup> On the twelfth day [it was] Ahira the son of Enan, leader [of the tribe] of the sons of Naphtali [who presented his offering]; ‡

<sup>79</sup> his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>81</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>86</sup> the twelve golden bowls, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, all the gold of the bowls being a hundred and twenty shekels;

<sup>87</sup> all the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs one year old twelve, together with their grain offering; and the male goats as a sin offering twelve;

<sup>88</sup> and all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs one year old sixty. This was the dedication for the altar [of burnt offering] after it was anointed. ‡

<sup>89</sup> Now when Moses went into the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle) to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat (the gold cover) that was on the ark of the Testimony from between the two cherubim; and He spoke [by special revelation] to him. ‡

Numbers 8

The Seven Lamps

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aaron and say to him, ‘When you set up and light the lamps, the seven lamps will shine in front of the lampstand.’ ” ‡

<sup>3</sup> And Aaron did so; he set up the lamps at the front of the lampstand, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>4</sup> Now this was the workmanship of the lampstand: hammered work of gold; from its base to its flowers it was hammered work; according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand. ‡

Cleansing the Levites

<sup>5</sup> Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>8</sup> “Then let them take a young bull and its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull as a sin offering. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Aaron shall present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the Israelites, so that they may perform the service of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> “Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, then you are to offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “You shall have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons and present them as a wave offering to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> “Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the Israelites, and the Levites shall be Mine [in a very special sense]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Then after that the Levites may go in to serve the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle), but you shall cleanse them [first] and present them as a wave offering; ‡

<sup>16</sup> for they are wholly given to Me from among the Israelites. I have taken them for Myself instead of all who are born first, the firstborn of all the Israelites. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For all the firstborn among the Israelites are Mine, among the men and among the animals; on the day that I struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified and set the Israelites apart for Myself. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “And I have taken the Levites instead of every firstborn among the Israelites.

<sup>19</sup> “I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the Israelites, to perform the service of the Israelites at the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle) and to make atonement for them, so that there will be no plague among the Israelites if they should approach the sanctuary.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Thus Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel did [these things] to the Levites; in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the Israelites did to them.

<sup>22</sup> Then after that the Levites went in to perform their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron and his sons; just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them. ‡

Retirement

<sup>23</sup> Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>25</sup> but at the age of fifty years, they shall retire from the service of the [tabernacle] work and serve no longer.

<sup>26</sup> They may assist their brothers in the Tent of Meeting to keep an obligation, but they shall do no [heavy or difficult] work. Thus you shall deal with the Levites concerning their obligations.” ‡

Numbers 9

The Passover

<sup>3</sup> “On the fourteenth day of this month at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and ordinances you shall keep it.”

<sup>5</sup> They observed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight in the Wilderness of Sinai; in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the Israelites did. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But there were certain men who were [ceremonially] unclean because of [touching] the dead body of a man, so they could not observe the Passover on that day; so they came before Moses and Aaron that same day. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Those men said to Moses, “We are [ceremonially] unclean because of [touching] a dead body. Why are we being restrained from presenting the LORD’s offering at its appointed time among the Israelites?”

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, Moses said to them, “Wait, and I will listen to what the LORD will command concerning you.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>10</sup> “Say to the Israelites, ‘If any one of you or of your descendants becomes [ceremonially] unclean because of [touching] a dead body or is on a distant journey, he may, however, observe the Passover to the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> ‘But the man who is [ceremonially] clean and is not on a journey, and yet does not observe the Passover, that person shall be cut off from among his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them] because he did not bring the LORD’s offering at its appointed time; that man will bear [the penalty of] his sin. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘If a stranger lives among you as a resident alien and observes the Passover to the LORD, in accordance with its statutes and its ordinances, so shall he do; you shall have one statute, both for the resident alien and for the native of the land.’ ” ‡

The Cloud on the Tabernacle

<sup>15</sup> Now on the day that the tabernacle was erected, the cloud [of God’s presence] covered the tabernacle, that is, the tent of the Testimony; and in the evening it was over the tabernacle, appearing like [a pillar of] fire until the morning.  [Ex 13:21. ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> So it was continuously; the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

<sup>19</sup> Even when the cloud lingered over the tabernacle for many days, the Israelites would keep their obligation to the LORD and not set out. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Sometimes the cloud remained only a few days over the tabernacle, and in accordance with the command of the LORD they remained camped. Then at His command they set out.

<sup>21</sup> If sometimes the cloud remained [over the tabernacle] from evening only until morning, when the cloud was lifted in the morning, they would journey on; whether in the daytime or at night, whenever the cloud was lifted, they would set out.

<sup>22</sup> Whether it was two days or a month or a year that the cloud [of the LORD's presence] lingered over the tabernacle, staying above it, the Israelites remained camped and did not set out; but when it was lifted, they set out. ‡

Numbers 10

The Silver Trumpets

<sup>4</sup> “However, if a single trumpet is blown, then the leaders, heads of the tribes of Israel, shall gather themselves to you. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “When the assembly is to be gathered, you shall blow [the trumpets in short, sharp tones], but without sounding an alarm. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and the trumpets shall be for you a perpetual statute throughout your generations. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “When you go to war in your land against the enemy that attacks you, then sound an alarm with the trumpets, so that you may be remembered before the LORD your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Also in the day of rejoicing, and in your appointed feasts, and at the beginnings of your months, you shall sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifice of your peace offerings; and they shall be as a reminder of you before your God. I am the LORD your God.” ‡

The Tribes Leave Sinai

<sup>13</sup> So they moved out for the first time in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses. ‡

<sup>15</sup> and Nethanel the son of Zuar was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Issachar;

<sup>16</sup> and Eliab the son of Helon was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Zebulun.

<sup>17</sup> Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who were carrying the tabernacle, moved out. ‡

<sup>19</sup> and Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Simeon, <sup>20</sup> and Eliasaph the son of Deuel was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Gad.

<sup>21</sup> Then the Kohathites moved out, carrying the holy things, and the tabernacle was set up before they arrived. ‡

<sup>23</sup> and Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Manasseh, <sup>24</sup> and Abidan the son of Gideoni was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Benjamin.

<sup>26</sup> and Pagiel the son of Ochran was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Asher, <sup>27</sup> and Ahira the son of Enan was [commander] over the tribal army of the sons of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup> This was the order of march of the sons of Israel by their armies as they moved out. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Then Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are going to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will be good to you, for the LORD has promised good [things] concerning Israel." ‡

<sup>30</sup> But Hobab [Moses' brother-in-law] said to him, "I will not go; I will return to my own land and to my family."

<sup>31</sup> Then Moses said, "Please do not leave us, for you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you will serve as eyes for us [as we make our trek through the desert]. ‡

<sup>32</sup> "So if you will go with us, it shall be that whatever good the LORD does for us, we will do the same for you." ‡

"Rise up, O LORD!
Let Your enemies be scattered;
And let those who hate You flee before You." [Ps 68:1, 2]

<sup>36</sup> And when the ark rested, Moses said,

"Return, O LORD,
To the myriad (many) thousands of Israel."

Numbers 11

The People Complain

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE people became like those who complain and whine about their hardships, and the LORD heard it; and when the LORD heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and devoured those in the outlying parts of the camp. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So the people cried out to Moses, and when Moses prayed to the LORD, the fire died out. ‡

<sup>3</sup> He named that place Taberah (the place of burning), because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

<sup>4</sup>-The rabble among them [who followed Israel from Egypt] had greedy desires [for familiar and delicious food], and the Israelites wept again and said, “Who will give us meat to eat?” ‡

<sup>5</sup> “We remember the fish we ate freely and without cost in Egypt, the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “But now our appetite is gone; there is nothing at all [in the way of food] to be seen but this manna.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in mills or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes with it; and it tasted like cakes baked with fresh [olive] oil. ‡

<sup>9</sup> When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna fell with it. ‡

The Complaint of Moses

<sup>10</sup>-Now Moses heard the people weeping [in self-pity] throughout their families, every man at the doorway of his tent; and the anger of the LORD blazed hotly, and Moses regarded their behavior as evil. ‡

<sup>11</sup> So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have You been so hard on Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have placed the burden of all these people on me?” ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Was it I who conceived all these people? Was it I who brought them forth, that You should say to me, ‘Carry them in your arms as a nurse carries the nursing infant, to the land which You swore to their fathers?’ ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Where am I to get meat to give to all these people? For they weep before me and say, ‘Give us meat, so that we may eat.’ ‡

<sup>14</sup> “I am not able to carry all these people alone, because the burden is too heavy for me. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “So if this is the way You are going to deal with me, please kill me at once, if I have found favor in your sight, and do not let me see my wretchedness.” ‡

Seventy Elders to Assist

<sup>16</sup> Accordingly, the LORD said to Moses, “Gather for Me seventy men from among the elders of Israel whom you know to be the elders of the people and their officers; bring them to the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle) and let them stand there with you. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Then I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take away some of the Spirit who is upon you, and will put Him upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you will not have to bear it all alone. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “Say to the people, ‘Consecrate (separate as holy) yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept [in self-pity] in the ears of the LORD, saying, ‘Who will give us meat to eat? For we were well-off in Egypt.’’ Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

<sup>20</sup> but a whole month—until it comes out of your nostrils and is disgusting to you—because you have rejected and despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept [in self-pity] before Him, saying, “Why did we come out of Egypt?” ’ ”  [Ps 106:13–15 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> But Moses said, “The people, among whom I am, are 600,000 [fighting men] on foot [besides all the women and children]; yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, so that they may eat it for a whole month!’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Should flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Or should all the fish of the sea be collected for them to be sufficient for them?” ‡

<sup>23</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Is the LORD’s hand (ability, power) limited (short, inadequate)? You shall see now whether My word will come to pass for you or not.”  [Is 50:2 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> So Moses went out and spoke to the people the words of the LORD, and he gathered seventy men from among the elders of the people and stationed them around the Tent (tabernacle). ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him; and He took some of the Spirit who was upon Moses and put Him upon the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied [praising God and declaring His will], but they did not do it again.  [Num 11:29 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> But two men had remained in the camp; one named Eldad and the other named Medad. The Spirit rested upon them (now they were among those who had been registered, but had not gone out to the Tent), and they prophesied in the camp. ‡

<sup>27</sup> So a young man ran and told Moses and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying [extolling the praises of God and declaring His will] in the camp.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Joshua the son of Nun, the attendant of Moses from his youth, said, “My lord Moses, stop them!” ‡

<sup>29</sup> But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!”  [Luke 9:49, 50 ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses went back into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

The Quail and the Plague

<sup>31</sup> Now there went forth a wind from the LORD and it brought quails from the sea, and let them fall [so they flew low] beside the camp, about a day’s journey on this side and on the other side, all around the camp, about two cubits (three feet) deep on the surface of the ground. ‡

<sup>32</sup> The people spent all that day and all night and all the next day and caught and gathered the quail (the one who gathered least gathered ten homers) and they spread them out for themselves around the camp [to cure them by drying]. ‡

<sup>34</sup> So that place was named Kibroth-hattaavah (the graves of greediness), because there they buried the people who had been greedy [for more than the manna that God provided them].  [1 Cor 10:1–13 ]

Numbers 12

The Murmuring of Miriam and Aaron

<sup>1</sup> NOW MIRIAM and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had married a Cushite woman); ‡

<sup>2</sup> and they said, “Has the LORD really spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken also through us?” And the LORD heard it. ‡

<sup>3</sup> (Now the man Moses was very humble (gentle, kind, devoid of self-righteousness), more than any man who was on the face of the earth.)

<sup>4</sup> Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “Come out, you three, to the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle).” And the three of them came out. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And He said, ‡

“Hear now My words:
If there is a prophet among you,
I the LORD will make Myself known to him in a vision
And I will speak to him in a dream.

He is entrusted and faithful in all My house.  [Heb 3:2, 5, 6 ]

<sup>8</sup> “With him I speak mouth to mouth [directly], ‡
Clearly and openly and not in riddles;
And he beholds the form of the LORD.
Why then were you not afraid to speak against My servant
Moses?”

<sup>9</sup> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Miriam and Aaron, and He departed.

<sup>10</sup> But when the cloud had withdrawn from over the tent, behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. And Aaron turned and looked at Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, I plead with you, do not account this sin to us, in which we have acted foolishly and in which we have sinned. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Oh, do not let her be like one dead, already half decomposed when he comes from his mother's womb.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “Heal her please, O God, I plead with You!”

<sup>14</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, would she not bear her shame for seven days? Let her be shut up outside the camp for seven days, and afterward she may return.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> So Miriam was shut up outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until Miriam was brought in again [and declared ceremonially clean from her leprosy]. ‡

Numbers 13

Spies View the Land

<sup>17</sup>Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up this way into the Negev (the South country); then go up into the hill country. ‡

<sup>18</sup>“See what the land is like and whether the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many,

<sup>19</sup>and whether the land in which they live is good or bad, and whether the cities in which they live are [open] camps or fortifications,

<sup>20</sup>and what the land is, whether it is fat (productive) or lean, whether there is timber on it or not. Make an effort to get some of the fruit of the land.” Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes. ‡

<sup>21</sup>So they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Zin to Rehob [a town in Lebanon], at Lebo-hamath [in the far north]. ‡

<sup>22</sup>When they had gone up into the Negev (the South country), they came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai the descendants of Anak were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) ‡

<sup>23</sup>Then they came to the Valley of Eshcol (cluster of grapes), and from there cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes; and they carried it on a pole between two of them, with some of pomegranates and the figs. ‡

<sup>24</sup>That place was called the Valley of Eshcol (cluster of grapes) because of the cluster of grapes which the sons of Israel cut down there.

The Spies' Reports

<sup>26</sup>they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel in the Wilderness of Paran at Kadesh, and brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the land's fruit. ‡

<sup>27</sup>They reported to Moses and said, “We went in to the land where you sent us; and it certainly does flow with milk and honey, and this is its fruit. ‡

<sup>28</sup>“But the people who live in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified (walled) and very large; moreover, we saw there the descendants of Anak [people of great stature and courage]. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “[The people descended from] Amalek live in the land of the Negev (South country); the Hittite, the Jebusite, and the Amorite live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the [Dead] Sea and along the side of the Jordan.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, “Let us go up at once and take possession of it; for we will certainly conquer it.” ‡

<sup>31</sup> But the men who had gone up with him said, “We are not able to go up against the people [of Canaan], for they are too strong for us.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> So they gave the Israelites a bad report about the land which they had spied out, saying, “The land through which we went, in spying it out, is a land that devours its inhabitants. And all the people that we saw in it are men of great stature. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “There we saw the Nephilim (the sons of Anak are part of the Nephilim); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight.” ‡

Numbers 14

The People Rebel

<sup>2</sup> All the Israelites murmured [in discontent] against Moses and Aaron; and the whole congregation said to them, “Oh that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or that we had died in this wilderness! ‡

<sup>3</sup>—“Why is the LORD bringing us to this land [of Canaan], to fall by the sword? Our wives and children will become plunder. Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?”  [Acts 7:37–39 ]

<sup>4</sup> So they said one to another, “Let us appoint a [new] leader and return to Egypt.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes [as a sign of grief], ‡

<sup>7</sup> and they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, “The land through which we passed as spies is an exceedingly good land. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “If the LORD delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land which flows with milk and honey. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Only do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they will be our prey. Their protection has been removed from them, and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> But all the congregation said to stone Joshua and Caleb with stones. But the glory and brilliance of the LORD appeared at the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle) before all the sons of Israel. ‡

Moses Pleads for the People

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “How long will these people treat me disrespectfully and reject Me? And how long will they not believe in Me, despite all the [miraculous] signs which I have performed among them?” ‡

<sup>12</sup> “I will strike them with the pestilence (plague) and dispossess them, and will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> But Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your strength You brought up these people from among them, ‡

<sup>14</sup> and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, LORD, are among these people [of Israel], that You, LORD, are seen face to face, while Your cloud stands over them; and that You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Now if You kill these people as one man, then the nations (Gentiles) that have heard of Your fame will say,

<sup>16</sup> ‘Because the LORD was not able to bring these people into the land which He promised to give them, therefore He slaughtered them in the wilderness.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “But now, please, let the power of the Lord be great, just as You have declared, saying,

<sup>18</sup> ‘The LORD is slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, forgiving wickedness and transgression; but He will by no means clear the guilty, visiting (avenging) the wickedness and guilt of the fathers on the children, to the third and fourth generations [that is, calling the children to account for the sins of their fathers].’  [Ex 34:6, 7.] ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Please pardon the wickedness and guilt of these people according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness, just as You have forgiven these people, from Egypt even until now.” ‡

The LORD Pardons and Rebukes

<sup>20</sup> So the LORD said, “I have pardoned them according to your word; ‡

<sup>21</sup> but indeed as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD.  [Is 6:3 ; 11:9 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Surely all the men who have seen My glory and My [miraculous] signs which I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have put Me to the test these ten times and have not listened to My voice, ‡

<sup>23</sup> will by no means see the land which I swore to [give to] their fathers; nor will any who treated me disrespectfully and rejected Me see it.  [Heb 6:4–11 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> “But My servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land into which he entered, and his descendants shall take possession of it. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “How long shall I put up with this evil congregation who murmur [in discontent] against Me? I have heard the complaints of the Israelites, which they are making against Me. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the LORD, ‘just what you have spoken in My hearing I will most certainly do to you; ‡

<sup>29</sup> your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness, even all who were numbered of you, your entire number from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against Me.  [Heb 3:17–19 ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> ‘Except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun, not one of you shall enter the land in which I swore [an oath] to settle you. ‡

<sup>31</sup> ‘But your children whom you said would become plunder, I will bring in, and they will know the land which you have despised and rejected. ‡

<sup>32</sup> ‘But as for you, your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness. ‡

<sup>33</sup> ‘Your sons shall be wanderers and shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, and they will suffer for your unfaithfulness (spiritual infidelity), until your corpses are consumed in the wilderness. ‡

<sup>34</sup> ‘According to the number of days in which you spied out the land [of Canaan], forty days, for each day, you shall bear and suffer a year for your sins and guilt, for forty years, and you shall know My displeasure [the revoking of My promise and My estrangement because of your sin]. ‡

<sup>35</sup> ‘I, the LORD, have spoken. I will most certainly do this to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be consumed [by war, disease, and plagues], and here they shall die.’ ”  [1 Cor 10:10 , 11 ] ‡

<sup>38</sup> But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive out of those men who went to spy out the land. ‡

Israel Repulsed

<sup>39</sup> Moses spoke the Lord's words to all the Israelites, and the people mourned greatly. ‡

<sup>40</sup> They got up early in the morning and went up to the ridge of the hill country, saying, “Look, here we are; we have indeed sinned, but we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised.” ‡

<sup>41</sup> But Moses said, “Why then are you transgressing the commandment of the LORD, when it will not succeed? ‡

<sup>42</sup> “Do not go up, or you will be struck down before your enemies, for the LORD is not among you. ‡

<sup>43</sup> “For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will be there in front of you, and you will fall by the sword, because you have turned away from following the LORD; therefore the LORD will not be with you.” ‡

<sup>45</sup> Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and struck the Israelites and scattered them as far as Hormah. ‡

Numbers 15

Laws for Canaan

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and say to them, ‘When you come into the land where you are to live, which I am giving you, ‡

<sup>3</sup> then make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfill a special vow, or as a freewill offering or in your appointed feasts, to make a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD, from the herd or from the flock. ‡

<sup>5</sup> and you shall prepare wine for the drink offering, a fourth of a hin, with the burnt offering or for the sacrifice, for each lamb. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘And for the drink offering you shall offer a third of a hin of wine, as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> ‘When you prepare a bull as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice, in fulfilling a special vow or peace offering to the LORD, ‡

<sup>9</sup> then you shall offer with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil; ‡

<sup>10</sup> and you shall bring as the drink offering one-half a hin of wine as an offering by fire, as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> ‘Thus shall it be done for each bull, or for each ram, or for each of the male lambs, or of the goats. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘According to the number that you prepare, so shall you do to everyone according to their number.

<sup>13</sup> ‘All who are native-born shall do these things in this way, in presenting an offering by fire, as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.

Law of the Stranger

<sup>14</sup> ‘If a stranger lives as a resident alien with you, or whoever may be among you throughout your generations, and he wishes to make an offering by fire, as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD, just as you do, so shall he do.

<sup>15</sup> ‘As for the assembly, there shall be one [and the same] statute for you [of the congregation] and for the stranger who is a resident alien with you, a permanent statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘There is to be one law and one ordinance for you and for the stranger who lives with you as a resident alien.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>18</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and say to them, ‘When you enter the land to which I am bringing you, ‡

19 then, when you eat the food of the land, you shall lift up an offering (heave offering) to the LORD. ‡

20 ‘You shall lift up a cake made of the first of your [ground grain which has been made into] dough as an offering [to the Lord]; as an offering from the threshing floor, so shall you lift it up. ‡

21 ‘From the first of your dough (ground grain) you shall give to the LORD an offering throughout your generations.

22 ‘But when you unintentionally fail and do not observe all these commandments, which the LORD has spoken to Moses, ‡

23 even all that the LORD has commanded you through Moses, from the day that the LORD gave commandments and onward throughout your generations,

24 then it shall be, if it was done unintentionally without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bull as a burnt offering, as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat as a sin offering. ‡

25 ‘Then the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and they will be forgiven, for it was an error and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error. ‡

26 ‘So all the congregation of the Israelites will be forgiven as well as the stranger who lives among them as a resident alien, because all the people were involved in the error.

27 ‘Also if one person sins unintentionally, then he shall offer a female goat one year old as a sin offering. ‡

28 ‘The priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the person who commits an error when he sins unintentionally, making atonement for him so that he may be forgiven. ‡

29 ‘You shall have one law for him who sins unintentionally, whether he is native-born among the Israelites or a stranger who is living among them as a resident alien. ‡

30 ‘But the person who does [anything wrong] willfully and defiantly, whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one is blaspheming the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from among his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them]. ‡

31 ‘Because he has despised and rejected the word of the LORD, and has broken His commandment, that person shall be utterly cut off; [the responsibility for] his wickedness and guilt will be upon him.’ ” ‡

Sabbath-breaking Punished

<sup>32</sup> Now while the Israelites were in the wilderness, they found a man who was gathering wood on the Sabbath day. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation;

<sup>36</sup> So all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death with stones, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>37</sup> The LORD said to Moses,

<sup>39</sup> “It shall be a tassel for you to look at and remember all the commandments of the LORD, to do them, so that you do not follow after [the desires of] your own heart and eyes, [desires] after which you used to follow and play the prostitute, ‡

<sup>40</sup> so that you may remember to do all My commandments and be holy (set apart) to your God. ‡

<sup>41</sup> “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD your God.”

Numbers 16

Korah's Rebellion

<sup>5</sup> and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, “In the morning the LORD will show who belongs to Him, and who is holy, and will bring him near to Himself; the one whom He will choose He will bring near to Himself.  [2 Tim 2:19 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> then put fire in them and place incense on them in the presence of the LORD tomorrow; and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the one who is holy. You have gone far enough, you sons of Levi.”

<sup>8</sup> Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi,

<sup>9</sup> does it seem but a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them; ‡

<sup>10</sup> and that He has brought you near [to Him], Korah and all your brothers, sons of Levi with you? Would you seek the priesthood also?

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD; but as for Aaron, who is he that you murmur against him?” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; but they said [defiantly], “We will not come up.

<sup>13</sup> “Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land [of plenty] flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, but you would also lord it over us? ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Indeed, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Moses said to Korah, “You and all your company are to appear before the LORD tomorrow, both you and they along with Aaron. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Each of you take his censer and put incense on it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers; also you and Aaron shall each bring his censer.”

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

<sup>21</sup> “Separate yourselves from among this congregation, so that I may consume them immediately.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> But they fell on their faces [before the LORD], and said, “O God, God of the spirits of all flesh! When one man sins, will You be angry with the entire congregation?” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>26</sup> And he said to the congregation, “Get away from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, or you will be swept away in all their sin.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Then Moses said, “By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; for I do not act of my own accord. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “If these men die the common death of all mankind or if what happens to everyone happens to them, then [you will know for sure that] the LORD has not sent me. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “But if the LORD creates an entirely new thing, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up, along with all that belongs to them, and they descend alive into Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead), then you will understand that these men have spurned and rejected the LORD!” ‡

<sup>31</sup> As soon as Moses finished speaking all these words, the ground under them split open; ‡

<sup>32</sup> and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their households, and all the men who supported Korah, with all their possessions.

 [Num 26:10 , 11 ] ‡

<sup>33</sup> So they and all that belonged to them went down alive to Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from among the assembly.

<sup>34</sup> All Israel who were around them fled at their outcry, for they said, “The earth may swallow us also .”

<sup>35</sup> Fire also came forth from the LORD and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering the incense. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

37—“Tell Eleazar the son of Aaron, the priest, that he is to pick up the censers from the midst of the blaze for they are holy; and you scatter the burning coals abroad. ‡

<sup>38</sup> “As for the censers of these people who have sinned at the cost of their lives, have the censers made into hammered sheets as a plating for the altar [of burnt offering], for they were presented before the LORD and they are sacred. They shall be a [warning] sign to the sons of Israel.” ‡

<sup>39</sup> So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers which the Levites who were burned had offered, and they were hammered out [into broad sheets] as a plating for the [bronze] altar [of burnt offering],

<sup>40</sup> as a reminder to the sons of Israel so that no layman—that is, one who is not of the descendants of Aaron should approach to offer incense before the LORD; so that he will not become like Korah and as his company—just as the LORD had said to him through Moses. ‡

Murmuring and Plague

41—But on the next day the entire congregation of the Israelites murmured against Moses and Aaron, saying, “You have caused the death of the people of the LORD.” ‡

<sup>44</sup> and the LORD spoke to Moses saying,

<sup>45</sup> “Get away from among this congregation, so that I may consume them immediately.” Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces [in silence before the LORD]. ‡

<sup>46</sup> Moses said to Aaron, “Take a censer and put fire in it from the altar and lay incense on it; then bring it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone forth from the LORD; the plague has begun!” ‡

<sup>47</sup> So Aaron took the burning censer as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and behold, the plague had [already] begun among the people; and he put on the incense and made atonement for the people.

<sup>48</sup> He stood between the dead and the living, so that the plague was brought to an end. ‡

<sup>49</sup> But those who died in the plague were 14,700, besides those who died because of Korah.

<sup>50</sup> Then Aaron returned to Moses at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle), for the plague had been brought to an end.

Numbers 17

Aaron's Rod Buds

<sup>8</sup> Now on the next day Moses went into the Tent of the Testimony, and the rod of Aaron of the tribe of Levi had sprouted and put out buds and produced blossoms and yielded [ripe] almonds.

<sup>9</sup> Moses brought out all the rods from the presence of LORD to all the Israelites; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

<sup>10</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “Put Aaron’s rod back before the Testimony [in the ark], to be kept as a [warning] sign for the rebellious and contentious, so that you may put an end to their murmurings [of discontent] against Me, so that they do not die.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> And Moses did so; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Israel said to Moses, “Look, we perish, we are doomed, all doomed!

<sup>13</sup> “Everyone who approaches, who approaches the tabernacle of the LORD, must die. Are we to perish completely?” ‡

Numbers 18

Duties of Levites

<sup>1</sup> SO THE LORD said to Aaron, “You and your sons and your father’s household (family) with you shall bear the guilt in connection with the sanctuary [that is, through your service as priests you will atone for the offenses which the people unknowingly commit when brought into contact with the manifestations of God’s presence]; and you and your sons with you shall bear the guilt in connection with your priesthood [that is, your own unintentional offenses]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “But bring with you also your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father (ancestor), so that they may join with you and serve you [as assistants], while you and your sons with you are before the Tent of the Testimony [the Holy Place where only priests may go, and the Most Holy Place which only the high priest may enter]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “And the Levites shall attend to your duty [as assistants] and to the duties of all the tent (tabernacle); only they shall not approach the articles of the sanctuary and the altar, or both they and you will die. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “They shall join you and attend to the duties of the Tent of Meeting—all the service of the tent—and no stranger [no layman, anyone who is not a Levite] may approach you [and your sons]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “So you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar [of burnt offering and the altar of incense], so that there will no longer be wrath on the Israelites [as with Korah, Dathan, and Abiram].  [Num 16:42—

<sup>6</sup> “Behold, I Myself have taken your fellow Levites from among the sons of Israel; they are a gift to you, given (dedicated) to the LORD, to do the service for the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle). ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything concerning the altar [of burnt offering and the altar of incense] and [of the Holy of Holies] within the veil, and you are to serve. I am giving you the priesthood as a bestowed service, but the stranger (outsider, layman) who approaches shall be put to death.”  [Ex 40:18, 20, 26] ‡

The Priests' Portion

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, “Now behold, I [the LORD] have entrusted you with My heave offerings, even all the holy gifts of the Israelites, I have given them to you as a portion, and to your sons as a continual allotment.  [Lev 7:35] ‡

<sup>9</sup> “This shall be yours of the most holy things, [reserved] from the fire: every offering of the people, every grain offering and sin offering and guilt offering, which they shall render (give) to Me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “You shall eat it as the most holy thing; every male [of your family] shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.  [Lev 22:10–16] ‡

<sup>11</sup> “This also is yours: the heave offering of their gift, including all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I have given them to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you as a continual allotment; everyone in your household who is [ceremonially] clean may eat it. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “All the best of the fresh [olive] oil, and all the best of the new wine and of the grain, the first fruits of those which they give to the LORD, I give them to you. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “The first ripe fruits of all that is in the land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone in your household who is [ceremonially] clean may eat it. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Every devoted thing in Israel [everything that has been promised to the Lord with an oath] shall be yours. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Every firstborn of the womb of all flesh, whether it is man or animal, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; nevertheless, the firstborn of man you shall most certainly redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “But the firstborn of a cow or of a sheep or of a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy [and belong to the LORD]. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar and shall offer up their fat in smoke as an offering by fire, for a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.”‡

<sup>19</sup> “All the offerings of the holy things, which the Israelites offer to the LORD I have given to you and to your sons and your daughters with you as a continual allotment. It is an everlasting covenant of salt [that cannot be dissolved or violated] before the LORD to you and to your descendants with you.”‡

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said to Aaron, “You shall have no inheritance in the land [of the Israelites], nor have any portion [of land] among them. I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.”‡

<sup>23</sup> “Only the Levites shall perform the service of the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle), and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations, that the Levites shall have no inheritance [of land] among the children of Israel.”‡

<sup>24</sup> “But the tithe of the Israelites, which they present as an offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites as an inheritance; therefore I have said to them, ‘They shall have no inheritance among the children of Israel.’ ”

<sup>25</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>26</sup> “Moreover, you shall speak to the Levites and say to them, ‘When you take from the Israelites the tithe which I have given to you from them as your inheritance, then you shall present an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe [paid by the people].’‡

<sup>27</sup> ‘Your offering shall be credited to you as the grain from the threshing floor or as the full produce from the wine vat.

<sup>28</sup> ‘Likewise you shall also present an offering to the LORD from all your tithes, which you receive from the Israelites; and from it you shall give the LORD's offering to Aaron the priest.

<sup>29</sup> ‘Out of all your gifts, you shall present every offering due to the LORD, from all the best of it, even the sacred part from them.’

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore you shall say to them, ‘When you have offered the best from it, then the rest shall be credited to the Levites as the product of the threshing floor, and as the product of the wine vat.’ ‡

<sup>31</sup> ‘You may eat it anywhere, you and [the members of] your households, for it is your compensation in return for your service in the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle). ‡

<sup>32</sup> ‘You will bear no sin because of it when you have offered the best of it; but you shall not profane the sacred gifts of the children of Israel, or you will die [because of it].’ ” ‡

Numbers 19

Ordinance of the Red Heifer

<sup>2</sup> “This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded: ‘Tell the Israelites to bring you an unblemished red heifer in which there is no defect and on which a yoke has never been placed. ‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘The priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet [material] and cast them into the midst of the burning heifer. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; and afterward come into the camp, but he shall be [ceremonially] unclean until evening. ‡

heifer and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place, and the congregation of the Israelites shall keep it for water to remove impurity; it is [to be used for] purification from sin. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘The one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. This shall be a perpetual statute to the Israelites and to the stranger who lives as a resident alien among them.

<sup>11</sup> ‘The one who touches the dead body of any person shall be unclean for seven days. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘That one shall purify himself from uncleanness with the water [made with the ashes of the burned heifer] on the third day and on the seventh day, and then he will be clean; but if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘Whoever touches a corpse, the body of anyone who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from Israel [that is, excluded from the atonement made for them]. Because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘This is the law when a man dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent and everyone who is in the tent shall be [ceremonially] unclean for seven days.

<sup>15</sup> ‘Every open container [in the tent], which has no covering tied down on it, is unclean. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘Also, anyone in the open field who touches one who has been killed with a sword or who has died [of natural causes], or a human bone or a grave, shall be unclean for seven days. ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘A clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in the water and sprinkle it on the tent and on all the furnishings and on the people who were there, and on the one who touched the bone or the one who was killed or the one who died [naturally] or the grave. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘Then the clean person shall sprinkle [the water for purification] on the unclean person on the third day and on the seventh day, and on the seventh day the unclean man shall purify himself, and wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and shall be [ceremonially] clean at evening. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water for purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘So it shall be a perpetual statute to them. He who sprinkles the water for impurity [on another] shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 20

Death of Miriam

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE Israelites, the whole congregation, came into the Wilderness of Zin in the first month [in the fortieth year after leaving Egypt]. And the people lived in Kadesh. Miriam died there and was buried there. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Why have you brought up the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness to die here, we and our livestock? ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Why have you made us come up from Egypt, to bring us to this wretched place? It is not a place of grain or of figs or of vines or of pomegranates, and there is no water to drink.”

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle) and fell on their faces [before the LORD in prayer]. Then the glory and brilliance of the LORD appeared to them; ‡

<sup>7</sup> and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

The Water of Meribah

<sup>8</sup> “Take the rod; and you and your brother Aaron assemble the congregation and speak to the rock in front of them, so that it will pour out its water. In this way you shall bring water for them out of the rock and let the congregation and their livestock drink [fresh water].” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Moses took the rod from before the LORD, just as He had commanded him; ‡

<sup>10</sup> and Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly before the rock. Moses said to them, “Listen now, you rebels; must we bring you water out of this rock?” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then Moses raised his hand [in anger] and with his rod he struck the rock twice [instead of speaking to the rock as the LORD had commanded]. And the water poured out abundantly, and the congregation and their livestock drank [fresh water]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you have not believed (trusted) Me, to treat Me as holy in the sight of the sons of Israel, you therefore shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”  [Ps 106:32, 33] ‡

<sup>13</sup> These are the waters of Meribah (contention, strife), where the sons of Israel contended with the LORD, and He showed Himself holy among them. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: “Thus says your brother Israel, ‘You know all the hardship that has come upon us [as a nation]; ‡

<sup>15</sup> that our fathers (ancestors) went down to Egypt, and we lived there for a long time, and the Egyptians treated [both] us and our fathers badly. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘But when we cried out to the LORD [for help], He heard us and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. Now look, we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through a field or through a vineyard; we will not even drink water from a well. We will go along the king’s highway, not turning [off-course] to the right or to the left until we have passed through your territory.’ ” ‡

<sup>18</sup> But [the king of] Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through my territory, or I will come out against you with the sword.”

<sup>19</sup> Again, the Israelites said to him, “We will go by the highway [trade route], and if I and my livestock drink any of your water, then I will pay for it. Only let me pass through on foot, nothing else.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> But the king of Edom said, “You shall not pass through [my territory].” And Edom came out against Israel with many people and a strong hand. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Thus [the king of] Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory, so Israel turned away from him. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Now when they set out from Kadesh, the Israelites, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor. ‡

Death of Aaron

<sup>23</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying,

<sup>24</sup> “Aaron will be gathered to his people [in death]; for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you [both] rebelled against My command at the waters of Meribah.  [Num 20:7–12 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> and strip Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son. So Aaron will be gathered to his fathers, and will die there.”

Numbers 21

Arad Conquered

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THE Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negev (the South country) heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim [the route traveled by the spies sent out by Moses], he fought against Israel and took some of them captive. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So Israel made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed hand over these people to me, then I will utterly destroy their cities.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> The LORD heard the voice of Israel and handed over the Canaanites; then they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of the place was called Hormah (dedicate to destruction).

<sup>4</sup> Then they set out from Mount Hor by the way of the [branch of the] Red Sea [called the Gulf of Aqabah], to go around the land of Edom; and the people became impatient, because [of the challenges] of the journey. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So the people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, nor is there any water, and we loathe this miserable food.” ‡

The Bronze Serpent

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD sent fiery (burning) serpents among the people; and they bit the people, and many Israelites died. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So the people came to Moses, and said, “We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD, so that He will remove the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Make a fiery serpent [of bronze] and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten will live when he looks at it.”

<sup>9</sup> So Moses made a serpent of bronze and put it on the pole, and it happened that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the bronze serpent, he lived. ‡

<sup>14</sup> That is why it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD:

“Waheb in Suphah,
And the wadis of the Arnon [River],
<sup>15</sup> And the slope of the wadis ‡
That stretches toward the site of Ar
And leans to the border of Moab.”

<sup>16</sup> From there the Israelites went on to Beer, that is the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people together and I will give them water.”  [John 7:37–39] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Israel sang this song, ‡

“Spring up, O well! Sing to it,  [Rom 14:17]
<sup>18</sup> The well which the leaders dug, ‡
Which the nobles of the people hollowed out
With the scepter and with their staffs.”

And from the wilderness Israel journeyed to Mattanah,

<sup>20</sup> and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah which looks down on the wasteland. ‡

Two Victories

<sup>22</sup> “Let me pass through your land; we will not turn away [from the road] into field or vineyard; we will not drink the water of the wells. We will go by the king’s highway until we have crossed your border.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Israel took all these cities, and settled in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all its towns.

<sup>26</sup> For Heshbon was the city of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.

<sup>27</sup> That is why those who use proverbs say,

“Come to Heshbon,

Let the city of Sihon be built and established.

<sup>28</sup> “For fire has gone out of Heshbon, ‡

A flame from the city of Sihon;

It devoured Ar of Moab

And the lords of the heights of the Arnon.

<sup>29</sup> “Woe (judgment is coming) to you, Moab! ‡

You are destroyed, O people of [the god] Chemosh!

Moab has given his sons as fugitives [that is, survivors of battle],

And his daughters into captivity

To Sihon king of the Amorites.

<sup>30</sup> “We have shot them down [with arrows]; ‡

Heshbon is destroyed as far as Dibon,

And we have laid them waste as far as Nophah,

Which reaches to Medeba.”

<sup>33</sup> Then they turned and went up by the way of Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. ‡

<sup>34</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him, for I have handed over him and all his people and his land to you; and you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.” ‡

Numbers 22

Balak Sends for Balaam

<sup>2</sup> And Balak [the king of Moab] the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Moab was terrified because of the people, for they were numerous. Moab was overcome with fear because of the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Moab said to the elders of Midian, “Now this horde will lick up all that is around us, just as the ox licks up the grass of the field.” And Balak the son of Zippor was the king of Moab at that time. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So he sent messengers to Balaam [a famous prophet-diviner] the son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the [Euphrates] River, in the land of the descendants of his people, to call for him, saying, “There is a people who have come out of Egypt; behold, they cover the surface of the land, and they are living opposite me. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Now please come, curse these people for me, for they are too powerful for me; perhaps I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land. For I know [your reputation] that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So the elders of Moab and of Midian departed with fees for divination (foretelling) in hand; and they came to Balaam and told him the words of

Balak. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Balaam said to them, “Spend the night here and I will bring word back to you as the LORD may speak to me.” So the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam [that night]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> God came to Balaam, and said, “Who are these men with you?” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Balaam said to God, “Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent word to me:

<sup>11</sup> ‘Hear this, the people who came out of Egypt cover the surface of the land; come now, curse them for me. Perhaps I may be able to fight against them and drive them out.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them; you shall not curse the people [of Israel], for they are blessed.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Balaam got up in the morning, and said to the leaders of Balak, “Go back to your own land [of Moab], for the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”

<sup>14</sup> The leaders of Moab arose and went to Balak, and said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Balak again sent leaders, more numerous and [men who were] more distinguished than the first ones.

<sup>16</sup> They came to Balaam, and said to him, “Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, ‘I beg you, let nothing hinder you from coming to me.

<sup>17</sup> ‘For I will give you a very great honor and I will do whatever you tell me; so please come, curse these people [of Israel] for me.’ ” ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Now please, you also stay here tonight, and I will find out what else the LORD will say to me.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “If the men have come to call you, get up and go with them, but you shall still do only what I tell you.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> So Balaam got up in the morning and saddled his donkey and went with the leaders of Moab.

The Angel and Balaam

<sup>22</sup> But God’s anger was kindled because he was going, and the Angel of the LORD took His stand in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. ‡

<sup>26</sup> The Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right or to the left.

<sup>27</sup> When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam, so Balaam was angry and he struck the donkey [a third time] with his staff.

<sup>28</sup> And the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you that you have struck me these three times?" ‡

<sup>29</sup> Then Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have made a mockery of me! If there had been a sword in my hand, I would have killed you by now!" ‡

<sup>30</sup> The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life until this day? Have I ever been accustomed to do so to you?" And he said, "No." ‡

<sup>32</sup> The Angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to stand against you, because your behavior was obstinate and contrary to Me. ‡

<sup>33</sup> "The donkey saw Me and turned away from Me these three times. If she had not turned away from Me, I would have certainly killed you now, and let her live."

<sup>34</sup> Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know that You were standing in the way against me. But now, if my going displeases You, I will turn back." ‡

<sup>35</sup> The Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but you shall speak only what I tell you." So Balaam went along with the leaders of Balak. ‡

<sup>37</sup> Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not urgently send word to you to call you? Why did you not come to me [immediately]? Am I really unable to honor (pay) you?” ‡

<sup>38</sup> So Balaam said to Balak, “Indeed I have come to you now, but am I able to say anything at all? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I shall speak.” ‡

<sup>40</sup> Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent some to Balaam and to the leaders who were with him.

<sup>41</sup> Then it came about in the morning that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high places of Baal; from there he saw a portion of the Israelites. ‡

Numbers 23

The Prophecies of Balaam

<sup>2</sup> Balak did just as Balaam had said, and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand beside your burnt offering and I will go. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me; and whatever He shows me I will tell you.” So he went to a desolate hill. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Now God met Balaam, who said to Him, “I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered a bull and a ram on each altar.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD put a speech in Balaam’s mouth, and said, “Return to Balak, and you shall speak thus.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Balaam took up his [first] discourse (oracle) and said: ‡

“Balak, the king of Moab, has brought me from Aram (Syria), from the mountains of the east, [saying,] ‘Come, curse [the descendants of] Jacob for me;
And come, [violently] denounce Israel.’

<sup>8</sup> “How shall I curse those whom God has not cursed? ‡
Or how can I [violently] denounce those the LORD has not denounced?

<sup>9</sup> “For from the top of the rocks I see Israel, ‡
And from the hills I look at him.
Behold, the people [of Israel] shall dwell alone
And will not be reckoned among the nations.
<sup>10</sup> “Who can count the dust (the descendants) of Jacob ‡
And the number of even the fourth part of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous [those who are upright and in right standing with God],
And let my end be like his!”  [Ps 37:37; Rev 14:13. ]

<sup>11</sup> Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but here you have [thoroughly] blessed them instead!” ‡ <sup>12</sup> Balaam answered, “Must I not be obedient and careful to speak what the LORD has put in my mouth?” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Balak said to him, “Come with me, I implore you, to another place from where you can see them, although you will see only the nearest and not all of them; and curse them for me from there.”

<sup>14</sup> So he took Balaam to the field of Zophim to the top of [Mount] Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Stand here beside your burnt offering while I go to meet the LORD over there.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD met Balaam and put a speech in his mouth, and said,
“Go back to Balak and you shall speak thus.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> When Balaam returned to Balak, he was standing beside his burnt offering, and the leaders of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, “What has the LORD spoken?”

“Rise up, O Balak, and hear;
Listen [closely] to me, son of Zippor.

<sup>19</sup> “God is not a man, that He should lie, ‡
Nor a son of man, that He should repent.
Has He said, and will He not do it?
Or has He spoken and will He not make it good and fulfill it?
<sup>20</sup> “Behold, I have received His command to bless [Israel]. ‡

He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.

<sup>21</sup> “God has not observed wickedness in Jacob [for he is forgiven], ‡

Nor has He seen trouble in Israel.

The LORD their God is with Israel,

And the shout of their King is among the people.  [Rom 4:7 , 8 ; 1 John 3:1 , 2 ]

<sup>22</sup> “God brought them out of Egypt; ‡

They have the strength of a wild ox.

<sup>23</sup> “For there is no enchantment or omen against Jacob, ‡

Nor is there any divination against Israel.

At the proper time it shall be said to Jacob

And to Israel, what has God done!

<sup>24</sup> “Behold, a people rises up like a lioness ‡

And lifts itself up like a lion;

He will not lie down until he devours the prey

And drinks the blood of the slain.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!”

<sup>26</sup> But Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not say to you, ‘All that the LORD speaks, that I must do?’ ” ‡

<sup>27</sup> Then Balak said to Balaam, “Please come; I will take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them for me from there.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Balak did just as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24

The Prophecy from Peor

<sup>1</sup> WHEN BALAAAM saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as he had done each time before [superstitiously] to seek omens and signs

[in the natural world], but he set his face toward the wilderness (desert). ‡

<sup>3</sup> He took up his [third] discourse (oracle) and said: ‡

“The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor,
And the oracle of the man whose eye is opened [at last, to see clearly the purpose and will of God],

<sup>4</sup> The oracle of one who hears the words of God, ‡
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Falling down, but having his eyes open and uncovered,

<sup>5</sup> How fair are your tents, O Jacob,
And your tabernacles, O Israel!

<sup>6</sup> “Like valleys that stretch out, ‡
Like gardens beside the river,
Like aloes planted by the LORD,
Like cedars beside the waters.  [Ps 1:3 ]

<sup>7</sup> “Water [that is, great blessings] will flow from his buckets, ‡
And his offspring will live by many waters,
And his king will be higher than Agag,
And his kingdom shall be exalted.

<sup>8</sup> “God brought Israel out of Egypt; ‡
Israel has strength like the wild ox;
He will devour [Gentile] nations, his adversaries (enemies),
And will crush their bones in pieces,
And shatter them with his arrows.

<sup>9</sup> “He bowed down [to rest], he lies down as a lion; ‡
And as a lioness, who dares to rouse him?
Blessed [of God] is he who blesses you,
And cursed [of God] is he who curses you.”  [Matt 25:40 ]

<sup>10</sup> Then Balak’s anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have done nothing but bless them these three times. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore now flee to your place! I had intended to honor you greatly, but behold, the LORD has held you back from honor.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not tell your messengers whom you had sent to me,

<sup>13</sup> ‘Even if Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own accord. What the LORD speaks, that I will speak?’ ‡

<sup>14</sup> “And now, look, I am going to my people; come, I will advise you as to what this people [Israel] will do to your people [Moab] in the days to come.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> He took up his [fourth] discourse (oracle) and said:

“The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor,
The oracle of the man whose eye is opened,
<sup>16</sup> The oracle of him who hears the words of God
And knows the knowledge of the Most High,
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Falling down, but having his eyes open and uncovered:
<sup>17</sup> “I see Him, but not now; ‡
I behold Him, but not near.
A star shall come forth from [the descendants of] Jacob,
A scepter shall rise out of [the descendants of] Israel
And shall crush the forehead of Moab
And destroy all the sons of Sheth.  [Matt 2:2 ; Rom 15:12 ]
<sup>18</sup> “Edom shall be [taken as] a possession, ‡
[Mount] Seir, Israel’s enemies, also will be a possession,
While Israel performs valiantly.
<sup>19</sup> “One from [the descendants of] Jacob shall have dominion ‡
And will destroy the remnant from the city.”

<sup>20</sup> Balaam looked at Amalek and took up his [fifth] discourse (oracle) and said:

“Amalek was the first of the [neighboring] nations [to oppose the Israelites after they left Egypt],
But his end shall be destruction.”

<sup>21</sup> And Balaam looked at the Kenites and took up his [sixth] discourse (oracle) and said:

“Strong is your dwelling place,
And you set your nest in the cliff.
<sup>22</sup> “Nevertheless the Kenites will be consumed.

How long will Asshur (Assyria) keep you (Israel) captive?”

<sup>23</sup> Then he took up his [seventh] discourse (oracle) and said:

“Alas, who can live unless God has ordained it?

<sup>24</sup> “But ships shall come from the coast of Kittim,‡
And shall afflict Asshur (Assyria) and Eber;
So they (the victors) also will come to destruction.”

Numbers 25

The Sin of Peor

<sup>1</sup> ISRAEL SETTLED and remained in Shittim, and the people began to play the prostitute with the women of Moab [by being unfaithful to God]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Israel joined themselves to Baal of Peor [in worship]. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. ‡

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people [who have committed sin with the Moabites], and execute them in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> and he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and pierced both of them through the body, the man of Israel and the woman. Then the plague on the Israelites stopped. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Nevertheless, those [Israelites] who died in the plague numbered 24,000. ‡

The Zeal of Phinehas

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>11</sup> “Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the Israelites because he was jealous with My jealousy among them, so that I did not destroy the Israelites in My jealousy. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘And it shall be for him and his descendants after him, a covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was jealous (impassioned) for [the unique honor and respect owed to] his God and made atonement for the sons of Israel.’”  [Ps 106:28–31 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now the name of the man of Israel who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father’s household among the Simeonites.

<sup>18</sup> for they harass you with their tricks, the tricks with which they have deceived you in the matter [of the Baal] of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the leader of Midian, their sister, who was killed on the day of the plague because [of the Baal] of Peor.” ‡

Numbers 26

Census of a New Generation

<sup>1</sup> THEN IT happened after the plague that the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest,

<sup>4</sup> “A census of the people shall be taken from twenty years old and upward, just as the LORD has commanded Moses.” ‡

N ow the Israelites who came out of the land of Egypt were:

<sup>7</sup> These are the families (clans) of the Reubenites; and those who were numbered of them were 43,730.

<sup>9</sup> The sons of Eliab: Nemuel and Dathan and Abiram. These are the Dathan and Abiram who were called by the congregation, who contended against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the

<sup>10</sup> and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up along with Korah, when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men, so that they became a [warning] sign.‡

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Simeon according to their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites;

<sup>15</sup> The sons of Gad according to their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites;

<sup>18</sup> These are the families (clans) of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered, 40,500.

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Judah were Er and Onan, but Er and Onan [were judged by God and] died in the land of Canaan. [Gen 38:7-10]‡

<sup>22</sup> These are the families (clans) of Judah according to those who were numbered, 76,500.

<sup>27</sup> These are the families (clans) of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered, 60,500.

<sup>28</sup> The sons of Joseph according to their families were Manasseh and Ephraim. ‡

<sup>30</sup> These are the sons of Gilead: of Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;

<sup>33</sup> Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but only daughters, and the names of Zelophehad's daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ‡

<sup>34</sup> These are the families (clans) of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were 52,700.

<sup>35</sup> These are the sons of Ephraim according to their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

<sup>37</sup> These are the families (clans) of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered, 32,500. These are the descendants of Joseph according to their families (clans).

<sup>41</sup> These are the sons of Benjamin according to their families (clans); and those who were numbered, 45,600.

<sup>42</sup> These are the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan according to their families. ‡

<sup>43</sup> All the families (clans) of the Shuhamites according to those who were numbered, 64,400.

<sup>47</sup> These are the families (clans) of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered, 53,400.

<sup>50</sup> These are the families (clans) of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were 45,400.

<sup>51</sup> This was the [total] number of the [male] Israelites, 601,730 [twenty years old and upward who were able to go to war]. ‡

<sup>52</sup> And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>53</sup> “Among these the land shall be divided as an inheritance according to the number of names. ‡

<sup>56</sup> “According to the [location selected by] lot, their inheritance shall be divided between the larger and the smaller [groups].”

<sup>58</sup> These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. And Kohath was the father of Amram.

<sup>62</sup> Those numbered of the Levites were 23,000, every male from a month old and upward; for they were not numbered among the sons of Israel, since no inheritance [of land] was given to them among the Israelites. ‡

A Law of Inheritance

<sup>2</sup> They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and all the congregation at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle), saying,

<sup>3</sup> “Our father died in the wilderness. He was not among those who assembled together against the LORD in the company of Korah, but he died for his own sin [as did all those who rebelled at Kadesh], and he had no sons.  [Num 14:26–35. ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Why should the name of our father be removed from his family because he had no son? Give to us a possession (land) among our father’s brothers.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> So Moses brought their case before the LORD. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,

<sup>8</sup> “Further, you shall say to the Israelites, ‘If a man dies and has no son, you shall transfer his inheritance to his daughter.

<sup>9</sup> ‘If a man has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

<sup>10</sup> ‘If a man has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

<sup>11</sup> ‘If his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his nearest relative in his own family, and he shall take possession of it. It shall be a statute and ordinance to the Israelites, just as the LORD has commanded Moses.’”‡

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go up to this mountain (Nebo) [in the] Abarim [range] and look at the land I have given to the sons of Israel.‡

<sup>13</sup> “When you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people [in death], just as Aaron your brother was gathered;‡

<sup>14</sup> because in the Wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, you rebelled against My command to treat me as holy [by following My instruction] before their eyes at the water.” (These are the waters of Meribah in Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.) [Num 20:10–12.]‡

Joshua to Succeed Moses

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying,

<sup>17</sup> who will go out and come in before them, and will lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD will not be as sheep without a shepherd.”‡

<sup>18</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him;‡

<sup>20</sup> “You shall put some of your authority and honor on him, so that all the congregation of the Israelites will obey him.‡

<sup>23</sup> and Moses laid his hands on Joshua and commissioned him, just as the LORD had commanded through Moses. ‡

Numbers 28

Laws for Offerings

<sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites and say to them, ‘You shall be careful to present at its appointed time [during the year] My offering, My food for My offerings by fire as a sweet and soothing aroma to Me.’ ‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘You shall offer one lamb in the morning and you shall offer the other lamb at twilight,

<sup>5</sup> also a tenth of an ephah of finely-milled flour as a grain offering, mixed with a fourth of a hin of pressed oil. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘Its drink offering shall be a fourth of a hin for each lamb, in the holy place you shall pour out a strong drink offering to the LORD. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘The other lamb you shall offer at twilight; as the grain offering of the morning and as its drink offering, you shall offer it, an offering by fire, a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> ‘Then on the Sabbath day two male lambs one year old without blemish, and two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>10</sup> ‘This is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, in addition to the continual burnt offering and its drink offering. ‡

<sup>12</sup> and three-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, for each bull; and two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, for the one ram; ‡

<sup>13</sup> and a tenth [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering of a sweet and soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> ‘On the first day there shall be a holy [summoned] assembly; you shall do no laborious work that day. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘For their grain offering you shall offer fine flour mixed with oil; three-tenths [of an ephah] for the bull, and two-tenths for the ram;

<sup>21</sup> you shall offer a tenth [of an ephah] for each of the seven male lambs;

<sup>22</sup> and one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you. ‡

<sup>23</sup> ‘You shall present these in addition to the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

<sup>24</sup> ‘In this way you shall present daily, for seven days, the food of the offering by fire, a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD; it shall be presented with its drink offering in addition to the continual burnt offering.

<sup>28</sup> and their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil; three-tenths [of an ephah] for each bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

<sup>29</sup> a tenth for each of the seven male lambs,

<sup>30</sup> and one male goat to make atonement for you.

<sup>31</sup> ‘In addition to the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, you shall present them with their drink offerings. They shall be without blemish. ‡

Numbers 29

Offerings of the Seventh Month

<sup>1</sup> ‘ON THE first day of the seventh month, you shall have a holy [summoned] assembly; you shall do no laborious work. It will be for you a day of blowing the trumpets (the shophar, ram’s horn). ‡

<sup>3</sup> also their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three-tenths [of an ephah] for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,

<sup>4</sup> and one-tenth [of an ephah] for each of the seven lambs,

<sup>5</sup> and one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

<sup>6</sup> ‘These are in addition to the burnt offering of the New Moon and its grain offering, and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to the ordinance for them, as a sweet and soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘Then on the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy [summoned] assembly [for the Day of Atonement]; and you shall humble yourselves; you shall not do any work. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD as a sweet and soothing aroma: one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs one year old, which are without blemish; ‡

<sup>9</sup> and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three-tenths [of an ephah] for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

<sup>11</sup>—one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings. ‡

<sup>12</sup>—‘Then on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy [summoned] assembly; you shall do no laborious work, and you shall observe a Feast [of Booths] to the LORD for seven days. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘You shall present a burnt offering, an offering by fire as a sweet and soothing aroma to the LORD: thirteen bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old, which are without blemish; ‡

<sup>14</sup> and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three-tenths [of an ephah] for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,

<sup>16</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>17</sup> ‘Then on the second day [of the Feast of Booths]: twelve bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old without blemish,

<sup>18</sup> with their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance, ‡

<sup>21</sup> with their grain offering and drink offerings for the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance, ‡

<sup>24</sup> their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance,

<sup>25</sup> and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>27</sup> and their grain offering and drink offerings for the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>28</sup> and one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering, and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>29</sup> ‘Then on the sixth day [of the Feast of Booths]: eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without blemish;

<sup>30</sup> and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance,

<sup>31</sup> and one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offerings.

<sup>32</sup> ‘Then on the seventh day [of the Feast of Booths]: seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without blemish,

<sup>33</sup> and their grain offering and drink offerings for the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>34</sup> and one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering, and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>35</sup> ‘On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly [to mark the end of the feast]; you shall do no laborious work.’ ‡

<sup>37</sup> their grain offering and drink offerings for the bull, the ram, and the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance,

<sup>38</sup> and one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering, and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>40</sup> So Moses spoke to the Israelites in accordance with everything that the LORD had commanded him.

Numbers 30

The Law of Vows

<sup>1</sup> THEN MOSES spoke to the leaders of the tribes of the Israelites, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‡

<sup>3</sup>—“Also if a woman makes a vow to the LORD and binds herself by a pledge [of abstinence], while living in her father’s house in her youth,

<sup>4</sup> and her father hears her vow and her pledge by which she has bound herself, and he offers no objection, then all her vows shall stand and every pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand.

<sup>5</sup> “But if her father disapproves of her [making her vow] on the day that he hears about it, none of her vows or her pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will forgive her because her father has disapproved of her [making the vow].

<sup>6</sup> “But if she marries while under her vows or if she has bound herself by a rash statement, <sup>7</sup> and her husband hears of it and says nothing about it on the day he hears it, then her vows shall stand and her pledge by which she bound herself shall stand.

<sup>8</sup> “But if her husband disapproves of her [making her vow or pledge] on the day that he hears of it, then he shall annul her vow which she is under and the rash statement of her lips by which she bound herself; and the LORD will forgive her. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “But the vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, everything by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

<sup>10</sup> “However, if she vowed in her husband’s house or bound herself by a pledge with an oath, <sup>11</sup> and her husband heard it, but said nothing to her and did not disapprove of her [making the vow], then all her vows and every pledge by which she bound herself shall stand.

<sup>13</sup> “Every vow and every binding oath to humble herself, her husband may confirm it or her husband may annul it.

<sup>14</sup> “But if her husband says nothing to her [concerning the matter] from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all her pledges which are on her. He has confirmed them because he said nothing to her on the day he heard them.

<sup>15</sup> “But if he indeed nullifies them after he hears of them, then he shall be responsible for and bear her guilt [for breaking her promise].”

<sup>16</sup> These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter while she is a youth in her father’s house.

The Slaughter of Midian

<sup>2</sup> “Take vengeance for the Israelites on the Midianites; afterward you will be gathered to your people [in death].” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm men from among you for war, so that they may go against Midian to execute the LORD’s vengeance on Midian [for seducing Israel to participate in idolatry].  [Num 25:16–18. ]

<sup>4</sup> “A thousand [fighting men] from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war.”

<sup>5</sup> So out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe were selected, twelve thousand armed for war.

<sup>6</sup> Moses sent them, a thousand from each tribe, to the war, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to war with them, and the sacred vessels [of the sanctuary] and the trumpets to blow the alarm in his hand. ‡

<sup>7</sup> They made war against Midian, just as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they killed every male. ‡

<sup>8</sup> They killed the kings of Midian along with the rest of their slain: Evi and Rekem and Zur [the father of Cozbi] and Hur and Reba, the five kings of Midian; also Balaam the son of Beor they killed with the sword.  [Num 22:31–35; Neh 13:1, 2. ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp.

<sup>14</sup> But Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, who served in the war.

<sup>15</sup> And Moses said to them, “Have you let all the women live? ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But all the young girls who have not known a man intimately, keep alive for yourselves [to marry].

<sup>19</sup> “Camp outside the camp for seven days; whoever has killed any person and whoever has touched any dead body, purify yourselves and your captives, on the third day and on the seventh day.”‡

<sup>20</sup> “You shall purify every garment and every article made of leather and all the things made of goats’ hair, and every article made of wood.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle, “This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses:

<sup>22</sup> only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

<sup>23</sup> everything that can stand fire, you shall pass through fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless, it shall also be purified with the water of purification [to remove its impurity]; and all that cannot stand fire [such as fabrics] you shall pass through water.”‡

<sup>24</sup> “And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.”‡

Division of the Spoil of War

<sup>25</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>26</sup> “You and Eleazar the priest and the leaders of the fathers’ households of the congregation are to take a count of the spoil of war that was captured, both people and livestock.

<sup>29</sup> “Take this tribute from the warriors’ half and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> “From the Israelites’ half [of the spoil] you shall take one out of every fifty of the persons, the oxen, the donkeys, the flocks, and of all the livestock, and give them to the Levites who are in charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.”‡

<sup>31</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as the LORD had commanded

Moses.

<sup>32</sup> The plunder that remained from the spoil of war which the warriors had taken, was 675,000 sheep,

<sup>33</sup> and 72,000 cattle,

<sup>35</sup> and 32,000 persons in all, of the [Midianite] women who were virgins.

<sup>36</sup> The half share, the portion of those who went to war, was 337,500 sheep in number,

<sup>39</sup> the donkeys were 30,500, from which the LORD's levy was 61;

<sup>47</sup> and from the Israelites' half, Moses took one out of every fifty, both of persons and animals, and gave them to the Levites, who were in charge of the tabernacle of the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

<sup>48</sup> Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, approached Moses,

<sup>49</sup> and they said to him, "Your servants have counted the warriors under our command, and not one man of us is missing."

<sup>54</sup> So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting

(tabernacle) as a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD. ‡

Numbers 32

Reuben and Gad Settle in Gilead

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had very large herds of cattle, and they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead [on the east side of the Jordan River], and indeed, the place was suitable for raising livestock. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So the sons of Gad and of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,

<sup>4</sup> the land which the LORD conquered before the congregation of Israel, is a land [suitable] for livestock, and your servants have [very large herds of] livestock.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> They said, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not take us across the Jordan [River].”

<sup>6</sup> But Moses said to the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, “Shall your brothers go to war while you sit here?

<sup>7</sup> “Now why are you discouraging the hearts of the Israelites from crossing over into the land which the LORD has given them?

<sup>8</sup> “This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land! ‡

<sup>9</sup> “For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the hearts of the Israelites so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “And the LORD’s anger was kindled on that day and He swore an oath, saying, ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I promised to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not followed Me completely, ‡

<sup>12</sup> except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have followed the LORD completely.’ ‡

<sup>13</sup> “So the LORD’s anger was kindled against the sons of Israel (Jacob) and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until the entire generation of those who had done evil in the sight of the LORD was destroyed. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Now look, you [the tribes of Reuben and Gad] have risen up in your fathers’ place, a brood of sinful men, to add still more to the fierce anger of the LORD against Israel. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “For if you turn back from following Him [completely], He will once again leave them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> But the people of Reuben and Gad approached Moses and said, “We will build sheepfolds here for our flocks and [walled] cities for our children,

<sup>17</sup> but we will be armed and ready to go to war before the [other tribes of the] Israelites, until we have brought them to their place, while our children live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “We will not return to our homes until every one of the [other] sons of Israel has taken possession of his inheritance. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “For we will not inherit with them on the west side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan [River] toward the east.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Moses replied, “If you will do as you say, if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for war, ‡

<sup>21</sup> and every armed man of yours will cross the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies before Him,

<sup>22</sup> and the land [west of the Jordan] is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you shall return and be blameless [in this matter] before the LORD and before Israel, and this land [east of the Jordan] shall be yours as a possession before the LORD. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “But if you do not do this, behold, you will have sinned against the LORD; and be sure that your sin will find you out. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “Build yourselves cities for your children, and folds for your sheep, and do that of which you have spoken.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then the descendants of Gad and of Reuben said to Moses, “Your servants will do just as my lord commands.

<sup>26</sup> “Our children, our wives, our livestock, and all our cattle shall be there in the cities of Gilead. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “But your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to the battle, just as my lord says.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> So Moses gave the command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the leaders of the fathers’ households of the tribes of the Israelites. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to them, “If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben will cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead [east of the Jordan River] as a possession;

<sup>30</sup> but if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan [and surrender their right to their land east of the Jordan River].”

<sup>31</sup> The sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, “As the LORD has said to your servants, so will we do.

<sup>32</sup> “We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, so that the possession of our inheritance on [the east] side of the Jordan may be ours.”

<sup>33</sup> So Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon, the king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, the land with its cities and territories, the cities of the surrounding land. ‡

<sup>38</sup> Nebo, and Baal-meon (their names being changed) and Sibmah; and they gave other names to the cities which they built. ‡

<sup>39</sup> The sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and drove out the Amorites who were in it. ‡

<sup>40</sup> So Moses gave Gilead to [the tribe of] Machir the son of Manasseh, and they settled in it. ‡

<sup>41</sup> [The sons of] Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its towns (tent villages) and called them Havvoth-jair. ‡

Numbers 33

Review of the Journey from Egypt to Jordan

came out of the land of Egypt by their [tribal] armies, under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

<sup>2</sup> Moses recorded their points of departure, as the LORD commanded, stage by stage; and these are their journeys according to their points of departure:

<sup>9</sup> They moved out from Marah and came to Elim; in Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there. ‡

- <sup>21</sup> They moved out from Libnah and camped at Rissah.
- <sup>22</sup> They moved out from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
- <sup>23</sup> They moved out from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Sheper.
- <sup>24</sup> They moved out from Mount Sheper and camped at Haradah.
- <sup>25</sup> They moved out from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
- <sup>26</sup> They moved out from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
- <sup>27</sup> They moved out from Tahath and camped at Terah.
- <sup>28</sup> They moved out from Terah and camped at Mithkah.
- <sup>29</sup> They moved out from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
- <sup>30</sup> They moved out from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth. ‡
- <sup>31</sup> They moved out from Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan.
- <sup>32</sup> They moved out from Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-haggidgad. ‡
- <sup>33</sup> They moved out from Hor-haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
- <sup>34</sup> They moved out from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
- <sup>35</sup> They moved out from Abronah and camped at Ezion-geber [or Elath on the gulf of Aqabah]. ‡
- <sup>36</sup> They moved out from Ezion-geber and camped in the Wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh. ‡
- <sup>37</sup> They moved out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom. ‡
- <sup>38</sup> Aaron the priest went up on Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there in the fortieth year after the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.  [Num 20:23–29 ] ‡
- <sup>39</sup> Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.
- <sup>40</sup> The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev (the South country) in the land of Canaan, heard that the sons of Israel were coming. ‡
- <sup>41</sup> They moved out from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah. ‡
- <sup>42</sup> Then they moved out from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
- <sup>43</sup> They moved out from Punon and camped at Oboth. ‡
- <sup>44</sup> They moved out from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim, on the border of Moab. ‡
- <sup>45</sup> They moved out from Iyim (Iye-abarim) and camped at Dibon-gad. ‡
- <sup>46</sup> They moved out from Dibon-gad and camped at Almon-diblathaim. ‡
- <sup>47</sup> They moved out from Almon-diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before [Mount] Nebo. ‡

Law of Possessing the Land

<sup>50</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, saying,

<sup>53</sup> and you shall take possession of the land and live in it, for I have given the land to you to possess.

<sup>54</sup> ‘You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the large tribe you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the small tribe you shall give a smaller inheritance. Wherever the lot falls to any man, that shall be [the location of] his [inheritance]. According to the tribes of your fathers (ancestors) you shall inherit. ‡

<sup>55</sup> ‘But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those you let remain of them will be like pricks in your eyes and like thorns in your sides, and they will attack you in the land in which you live. ‡

<sup>56</sup> ‘And as I [the LORD] planned to do to them, so I will do to you.’ ”

Numbers 34

Instruction for Apportioning Canaan

<sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites, ‘When you enter the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall be yours as an inheritance, the land of Canaan according to its boundaries, ‡

<sup>3</sup> your southern region shall be from the Wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom, and your southern boundary from the end of the Salt (Dead) Sea eastward.‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘Then the boundary shall turn from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt (Wadi el-arish), and its limit shall be at the [Mediterranean] Sea.‡

<sup>12</sup> and the [eastern] boundary shall go down to the Jordan [River], and its limit shall be at the Salt (Dead) Sea. This shall be your land according to its boundaries all around.’ ”‡

<sup>13</sup> So Moses commanded the Israelites, saying, “This is the land you are to inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to be given to the nine tribes and the half-tribe [of Manasseh],‡

<sup>15</sup> “The two and a half tribes have received their inheritance across the Jordan [River] opposite Jericho, eastward toward the sunrise.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>23</sup> of the sons of Joseph: from the tribe of the sons of Manasseh a leader, Hanniel the son of Ephod;
<sup>24</sup> from the tribe of the sons of Ephraim a leader, Kemuel the son of Shiphyan;
<sup>26</sup> from the tribe of the sons of Issachar a leader, Paltiel the son of Azzan;
<sup>27</sup> from the tribe of the sons of Asher a leader, Ahihud the son of Shelomi;
<sup>29</sup> These are the [twelve] men whom the LORD commanded [to work with Joshua and Eleazar] to divide the inheritance to the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35

Cities for the Levites

<sup>3</sup> “The cities shall be theirs to live in; and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle and for their herds and for all their livestock.

<sup>4</sup> “The pasture lands around the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits (1,500 ft.) around.

<sup>5</sup> “You shall also measure outside the city on the east, south, west, and north sides two thousand cubits (3,000 ft.), with the city in the center. This shall belong to the Levites as pasture lands for the cities.

Cities of Refuge

<sup>6</sup> “[Among] the cities which you give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall provide for the one who commits manslaughter to flee to; and in addition to them you shall give forty-two cities [to the Levites].

<sup>7</sup> “So you shall give to the Levites forty-eight cities in all, together with their pasture lands. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “As for the cities which you shall give from the possession of the Israelites, from the larger tribes you shall take many and from the smaller tribes few; each tribe shall give [at least some] of its cities to the Levites in proportion to [the size of] its inheritance which it possesses.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>10</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘When you cross the Jordan [River] into the land of Canaan, ‡

<sup>11</sup> then you shall select for yourselves cities to be cities of refuge, so that the one who kills any person unintentionally may escape there. ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘The cities shall be to you as a refuge from the avenger, so that the one who has caused the death of another will not be killed until he has had a [fair] trial before the congregation. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘The cities which you are to provide shall be your six cities of refuge. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘You shall provide three cities on this [east] side of the Jordan [River], and three [more] cities in the land of Canaan; they are to be the cities of refuge. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘These six cities shall be a refuge for the Israelites and for the stranger and the resident alien among them; so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may escape there. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘But if he struck his victim down [intentionally] with an iron object so that he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall certainly be put to death. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘If he struck his victim down [intentionally] with a stone in hand, which may cause a person to die, and he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall certainly be put to death.

<sup>18</sup> ‘Or if he struck his victim down [intentionally] with a wooden object in hand, which may cause a person to die, and he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall certainly be put to death.

<sup>19</sup> ‘The blood avenger shall himself put the murderer to death; he shall put him to death when he meets him. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘But if he pushed his victim out of hatred or threw something at him with malicious intent, and he died, ‡

blood avenger shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

<sup>22</sup> ‘But if he pushed the victim suddenly, not in enmity, or threw anything at him without malicious intent,‡

<sup>23</sup> or without seeing him hit him [accidentally] with a stone object that could kill him, and he died, and [the offender] was not his enemy nor intending to harm him,

<sup>24</sup> then the congregation shall judge between the offender and the blood avenger according to these ordinances.‡

<sup>25</sup> ‘The congregation shall rescue the offender from the hand of the blood avenger and return him to his city of refuge, [the place] to which he had escaped; and he shall live there until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the sacred oil.‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘But if at any time the one guilty of manslaughter comes outside the border of his city of refuge to which he fled,

<sup>27</sup> and the blood avenger finds him outside the border of his city of refuge and kills the offender, the blood avenger will not be guilty of murder,

<sup>28</sup> because the offender should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the high priest’s death the offender shall return to the land of his possession.

<sup>29</sup> ‘These things shall be a statute for you throughout your generations wherever you may be.‡

<sup>31</sup> ‘Moreover, you shall not accept a ransom [in exchange] for the life of a murderer guilty and sentenced to death; but he shall certainly be put to death.

<sup>32</sup> ‘You shall not accept a ransom for him who has escaped to his city of refuge, so that he may return to live in his [own] land before the death of the high priest.

<sup>33</sup> ‘So you shall not pollute and defile the land in which you live; for [the shedding of innocent] blood pollutes and defiles the land. No atonement (expiation) can be made for the land for the [innocent] blood shed in it, except by the blood (execution) of him who shed it.‡

<sup>34</sup> ‘You shall not defile the land in which you live, in the midst of which I live, for I, the LORD, live among the people of Israel.’ ”‡

Numbers 36

Inheritance by Marriage

<sup>1</sup> THE LEADERS of the fathers' households of the family of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, approached and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers' households of the Israelites,‡

<sup>2</sup> and they said, "The LORD commanded my lord [Moses] to give the land by lot to the sons of Israel as an inheritance, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.‡

<sup>3</sup> "But if the daughters marry any of the men from any of the other tribes of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken away from that of our fathers (tribal ancestors) and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so it will be taken away from our allotted inheritance.‡

<sup>4</sup> "When the [year of] Jubilee of the Israelites comes, then their inheritance will be added [permanently] to that of the tribe to which they belong; so their inheritance will be taken away from that of the tribe of our fathers (tribal ancestors)."‡

<sup>9</sup> "So no inheritance shall be transferred from one tribe to another, but each of the tribes of the Israelites shall hold to its own inheritance."

<sup>12</sup> They married into the families of the descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

Annotations for Numbers

1:1 Wilderness of Sinai. The setting of the book of Numbers is the wilderness. Not only did the Israelites live in the wilderness, but they as a nation were traveling through a time of spiritual emptiness. They were starting all over in their relationship with God after a time of slavery. The empty wilderness kept them dependent, and kept them from being distracted with the normal affairs of caring for land and animals.

1:44–46 all who were numbered. The number of able-bodied men who were at least twenty years old would indicate a population of between two and five million, including the women, children, and older or infirm men who were not counted in this census.

1:50 the tabernacle. The term tabernacle points to the temporary and portable nature of the tent.

2:1–2 by his own standard. A person's identity was not only derived from his or her tribe, but also from his or her place in relation to the tabernacle. This is a chapter on design and order; it speaks to the importance of knowing one's duties in relation to the holy and living God.

2:3–9 on the east side toward the sunrise. The east side was the favored side, facing the rising sun. The Israelites were not a sea-faring people; in effect they turned their backs to the sea, so the word for "back" could mean "west" or "the sea."

2:17 Tent of Meeting . . . with . . . the Levites in the middle. In the line of march, the tabernacle was in a central position—a symbol not only of Israel's protection of the holy objects, but also of the presence of God among His people.

3:1–10 sons of Aaron. The priests had privileged access to God. In the New Covenant this is no longer confined only to a particular group of God's people. All Christians comprise God's new temple and constitute "a holy . . . priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices [that are] acceptable and pleasing to God through Jesus Christ" (1Pe 2:5 ).

3:5–10 Aaron and his sons. The Levites could care for the holy things, but only the priests, who ministered in the tabernacle, drew near to God. Only the high priest entered the most holy place.

3:11–13 I consecrated for Myself. God is directly involved in redemption. When God redeemed and saved His people, it was by His own person.

3:38 performing the duties of the sanctuary. "Performing the duties of the sanctuary" was committed to a particular group of people, and no one else was to intrude on that task. Believers, as part of the body of Christ, also have certain duties. These roles are not rigid, but they are definite, planned, and created by God for the good of the whole church. The teamwork of the whole body creates a harmonious whole, and if one fails in his duty, the whole team suffers (1Co 12 ).

3:40–42 Number every firstborn male. When God passed over the homes of the Hebrew families who had obeyed His commands in the Passover (Ex 12:23–51 ), He declared the surviving firstborn Hebrew children—and also the firstborn of animals—to be His. The animals were sacrificed, the firstborn were redeemed (paid for), at first by the Levites who took the place of all the other firstborn, and then by a set sum of money for those that numbered more than the Levites. It is a clear statement of fact that people belong to God.

4:3 from thirty years old. According to 8:24 , the Levites were to be twenty-five years old, which seems like a contradiction to this passage. It is possible that the difference reflects a time of apprenticeship.

4:16 The responsibility of Eleazar. God made arrangements for the priest to approach Him in the way

He prescribed. If the priests did not do their job, no one else could do it for them. It was a big responsibility, and the well-being of the whole nation depended upon their faithfulness.

4:21–28 enter for service. There are various tasks given to us in the kingdom of God which appear to be of minor importance. Daily faithfulness in the little things is the best preparation for greater trusts. Mary, the mother of Jesus, is an example of this. Her response to the angel when she was told that she would be the mother of Jesus was, “Behold, I am the servant of the Lord” (Lk 1:38). She had found favor in the way she conducted her daily life, and God chose her for a unique and blessed role.

5:3 not defile their camp where I dwell. Ritual purity was important because God wanted the Israelites to remember that He lived among them. They needed to think of Him walking around in the camp and live in such a way that there was not something offensive for God to discover.

5:6 breaking faith with the LORD . Not only did God deal with ritual impurity, He was also concerned about how the people treated each other. To label sin as “acting unfaithfully” kept the real issue right in front. When we mistreat our fellow citizens, God cares, and He takes it personally. He made us; He made them. We each belong to Him, and we are not to wrong other people.

5:12 wife goes astray. The wife belonged to her husband. If she was unfaithful, she could be stoned. If she was not guilty, and he acted on his unsubstantiated suspicions, he would be guilty of murder. The woman had a serious responsibility to her husband because the reliability of family lines depended upon her faithfulness. It is obvious if a woman is pregnant, but it is not obvious who the father is. By bringing the whole sorry problem to God, the Israelites could be sure of justice.

5:15 bring his wife to the priest. Determining if a woman had been unfaithful to her husband, when she had not been caught in wrongdoing, was more difficult than detecting skin diseases. But because God was in the camp, the issue could be resolved by the priest, in the presence of God. Again, it reminded the Israelites that nothing was hidden from God.

5:18 water of bitterness that brings a curse. This was not a magic potion, but dust from the floor of the tabernacle and holy water. The woman held in her own hands the grain offering for jealousy. These things reminded everyone that they were standing in the presence of God, and that it was He who would determine if the woman bore any guilt.

5:21 your thigh waste away and your abdomen swell. These words speak symbolically of a miscarriage (of an illegitimate child) if the woman was pregnant, and the inability to conceive again. In the biblical world, a woman who was unable to bear children was regarded as being under a curse; in this case it would have been true.

5:31 woman [if guilty] shall bear her guilt. Throughout the Bible God compares idolatry with marital unfaithfulness, so it is clear that this is a subject that touches close to the heart of every man and woman. God is faithful to His people, and they are to be true to Him. In the same way, as a daily picture of this faithfulness, the husband and wife are to be true and faithful to each other. The law recognizes the volatility of unfaithfulness, provides a limit to unjust accusations, and underlines the seriousness of the moral lapse that comes with adultery. A guilty woman would indeed bear her guilt, but a faithful woman would be exonerated.

6:1–8 Self-denial— To serve God by abstaining from legitimate things is the Christian’s privilege today as well. It is not that God is looking for sacrifice, but He is looking for a willing heart that will lay aside the good to spend time on the best. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:21 the law for the Nazirite. Not to be confused with a Nazarene (one from Nazareth), the Nazirite vows were practiced both in the Old and New Testament. It is likely that John the Baptist was a Nazirite, probably all of his life.

6:23 bless the Israelites. This special blessing shows the love and mercy of God toward His chosen people. God’s keeping power, His shining personal presence, His eye contact, and His own peace would be a blessing that would mark the Israelites as belonging to God Himself, and they would be called with His name.

7:1 On the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle. This phrasing places the events of this chapter before the taking of the census in chapters 1–4. The tabernacle was completed on the first day of the first month of the second year. The census began one month later.

7:1–11 brought their offering. The tabernacle from the beginning to the end was constructed and furnished by willing hearts and hands. God wants us to give to His work because we are eager to, not because we are required. Jesus directed, “Give, and it will be given to you . . . a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over” (Lk 6:38). We can never out-give God.

7:89 heard the voice. The tabernacle is referred to as the “tent of meeting,” because it was here that the Lord communicated with His people. Moses knew that it was the Lord he was hearing, and he took that word very seriously. The Word of God is still something that God’s people can hear, usually through the Bible, sometimes in creation (Ro 1), and sometimes through the work of the Holy Spirit. This is usually a strong impression that God wants you to pay attention to something, wait, change a decision, or pray. The leading of the Holy Spirit will never contradict Scripture, so it is exceedingly important for believers to maintain a familiarity with the Bible, so they can know God and hear Him.

8:10–12 shall lay their hands on. The sons of Israel who laid their hands on the Levites in this ancient symbol of dedication were showing their support for and agreement with the special role that the Levites had been set aside for. This would be an event that everyone could look back on and remember as an important, solemn time of dedication and asking for God’s blessing.

8:16 wholly given to Me. The Hebrew words for this phrase are an emphatic doubling: “given, given.”

8:19 no plague. God’s holiness would not bear an improper approach. But in His mercy He provided the protective hedge of the Levites, to keep the Israelites from coming near the sanctuary in an unauthorized way, and thus causing a plague.

8:24 from twenty-five years old. According to 4:3, the Levites were to be thirty years old, which seems like a contradiction to this passage. It is possible that the difference reflects a time of apprenticeship.

9:1 the first month of the second year. This phrasing places the events of this chapter before the taking of the census. (See note for 7:1.)

9:1–5 keep the Passover. When the first Passover was celebrated in Egypt, the command was given to commemorate it throughout Israel’s generations (Ex 12:14). This would be the second time that the Israelites had observed this special commemorative event. Passover had greater significance than any Israelite of that day could imagine, however wonderful the exodus events were. Redemption from Egypt was a picture of greater redemption yet to be, when the blood of Christ would speak of better things than the blood applied to the doors in Egypt. Christ is now our eternal Passover (1Co 5:7).

9:12 nor break any of its bones. It is fitting to remember that when the Savior was crucified as our “Passover Lamb,” none of His bones were broken (Jn 19:36).

9:15–23 the cloud. The cloud was a dramatic symbol of the active presence of God with His people, hovering over them in protection, moving ahead of them for direction, and coming near at night as fire for comfort in the darkness.

9:23 At the command. Like the children of Israel, our existence often seems to us like a wilderness. Most often we want to move, to do, to know. Without waiting and following God’s directions, His Word, His plan, we miss His best, and lessons are lost or delayed. How blessed to wait for God’s direction, to obey Him in both stops and starts in all of life! No words spoken, no money spent, no job taken, no engagement ring given or received, without knowing we will be keeping God’s charge.

10:2 two trumpets of silver. The two silver trumpets were different from the curved ram’s horn trumpets (Lev 25:9). Made of hammered silver, these instruments were straight with a flaring bell, like the post horns of medieval Europe. Since they did not have valves, they would have been played like a bugle.

10:29 Reuel. Also called Jethro (Ex 3:1), Reuel was the priest of Midian who befriended Moses and gave his daughter Zipporah to him as his wife.

11:1 complain. Murmuring and complaining demonstrated a lack of trust in God's plan, provision, and judgment. Such attitudes are no more pleasing to God now than they were then, although He does not discipline complainers with fire from heaven.

11:4 rabble. The presence of a mixed multitude, or rabble, indicates that there were people in the camp who had escaped from slavery or poverty in Egypt, but were not Israelites. They seem to have been the instigators of dissatisfaction, who made discomfort an excuse to agitate rebellion against God. God's people have always had the responsibility to keep their ears tuned to God's voice instead of the voices of the unbelievers around them.

11:10 weeping. Instead of thankfulness, the Israelites complained against what they had been given and asked for more. This is a serious sin (Ps 78:17), and in response God chastened them. We ought to learn from the example of the Israelites in the wilderness and make thankfulness our lifestyle (Php 4:4).

11:26 Eldad . . . Medad. These two men prophesied, even though they had not joined the other elders at the tabernacle. They were not obedient, but neither were they presumptuous, and the Lord showed that He still wanted them as leaders.

11:34 Kibroth-hattaavah. The place was called "Graves of Craving," for the greedy people buried there.

11:35 Hazeroth. This place of rest is called "Enclosures."

12:5 The LORD came down. The language of this verse is more directly physical than usual. God came down, stood, and then called Aaron and Miriam forward. God's presence had been in the camp, but this was apparently distinctly more direct.

[12:8 mouth to mouth \[directly\], Clearly and openly.](#) Sometimes referred to as "face to face," these verses speak of the completely intimate relationship that God had with Moses.

12:16 the Wilderness of Paran. Paran had been the destination of the people since they set out from Mount Sinai. The journey had been marred by discontent, complaining, and rebellion.

13:16 Joshua. Hoshea means "salvation." Joshua means "the Lord saves." Moses may have changed Joshua's name to emphasize that it was the Lord, not any particular leader, that they were dependent on. Jesus is another form of the name Joshua.

13:27 flow with milk and honey. This phrase brought visions of pleasure and plenty to the Israelites. Canaan was a good land, a land with pasture for sheep and goats, with orchards and vineyards. The orchards and beekeeping went hand in hand, and thriving orchards meant honey. This was a land that was already developed and prospering.

14:3 Our wives and children will become plunder. Not only did the Israelites complain against Moses and Aaron, they dishonored God, saying that He would heartlessly bring them to a place where they would die along with their wives and children.

14:11 How long. This chapter records perhaps the saddest and most far reaching event in the history of Israel, surpassed only by the crucifixion of their own Messiah. The miracles performed in the exodus did not convince the Israelites of God's trustworthiness, and the miracles of Christ did not convince the leaders of the day that He was the promised Messiah (Mt 16:1-4).

14:19 Please pardon. This passage records the divine testing of Moses. God was not speaking lightly when He offered to smite the Israelites and start over with another group, new descendants from Moses. But Moses needed to know his own heart about the Israelites. As frustrating as they had been, they were still a living history of the mighty hand of God, and Moses did not want the story of their rescue to end with annihilation in the wilderness. Moses' response was what God wanted to hear, and in passionately and humbly asking for their pardon, Moses had no room for bitterness toward the people who were so difficult to lead.

14:23 will by no means see the land. God pardoned those who turned against Him, but there was a price to pay. They would not see the land that they had complained was impossible to possess. There is often a lifelong consequence to sin, even with forgiveness.

14:45 Hormah. The name of this place is very apt; it means “utter destruction.”

15:2 When you come into the land. These words may seem inappropriate following God’s punishment for disobedience. But His overall purpose had not changed, and the children would enter the land the parents had rejected.

15:5 wine. The wine was poured out on the altar in an accompaniment to the burnt offering. It was another way of giving freely back to God that which the worshiper valued. Paul refers to himself as being poured out like a drink offering (2Ti 4:6). There is a sense of being finished, emptied of himself, and physically spent, as he does his final work. In the same way, the wine was emptied for God; it was used up. It was not waved, nor was a portion saved for the priests.

15:19–21 lift up an offering. By holding up the very first produce from a harvest, or the first cake made from the first grain of the season, the worshiper thanked God as the giver of all good gifts.

15:30–31 willfully and defiantly. Moses spoke of unfaithfulness when he reminded the people of their presumption at Kadesh (Dt 1:43). Their presumption was overstepping the limits of what God allowed, and doing it defiantly. If they had trusted God, they would have been happy to do things His way. Christians need to be on guard, lest they too be guilty of presumptuous sin. Consider the words of David, “Also keep back Your servant from presumptuous sins” (Ps 19:13).

15:39 play the prostitute. Prostitution of the heart is unfaithfulness to God, in the same way that prostitution is unfaithfulness to the sanctity of marriage.

16:1 Korah. Korah was already set aside in a special position; he was a Levite. His sin was greater than jealousy of his cousins, the priests. He had set himself against God, and led others to do the same.

16:1–3 they rose up. Churches, organizations, marriages, and homes can all be affected by complaining, by rebelling against those whom God has appointed to lead. Great blessing and joy and guidance come from turning such feelings over to God and obeying Him and those whom He has designated.

16:24 Get away. The Lord was giving the people a chance to show to whom they really had allegiance: God, or Korah and his followers.

16:32 all the men who supported Korah. The whole families of Dathan and Abiram were swallowed up, but some of Korah’s descendants did not follow him, and were not destroyed. Some of them contributed a considerable number of psalms (see Ps 42). God is always merciful, even when dealing with the flagrant troublemakers.

16:37 pick up the censers. Just as He spared the relatives of Korah who were not in rebellion, so, also, did He save the censers. They were holy because they had been dedicated to God, but they would not be used as incense burners again.

16:41 murmured against Moses and Aaron. Incredibly, even after watching the dramatic destruction of the rebels, the congregation blamed the very leaders who had pleaded for the Lord to spare the rest of the congregation (v. 20). Obviously the people still strongly identified with Korah and his followers, and did not comprehend what they had just witnessed. Witnessing the destructiveness of sin does not always make people wake up and change their ways.

16:48 He stood between the dead and the living. Aaron stood between the living and the dead to stop the plague—just like the Savior, who stands in the gap between life and death.

17:12 we perish. The Israelites were overshadowed by despondency. Aware of God’s righteous judgments against their constant grumbling, they were gripped by fear. They knew they were guilty, they knew that God would punish them, and the warm light of peace had left their lives. When this happens, let us remember that there is still one way back into the sunshine. Repentance leads to the happy experience of the remission of sins and peace with God (Lk 24:47).

17:13 Are we to perish completely? Finally the people realized that God had revealed His will through His miraculous actions among them. They suddenly saw their presumption and God's opinion of it.

18:1 bear the guilt in connection with the sanctuary . . . priesthood. The priests stood as intermediaries between God and man. If the people had no advocate before the Lord, they would die in their offenses. The priests had a formidable responsibility, for if they did not do their job, the whole community suffered.

18:19 continual allotment. The priests lived off the produce of the land as God provided for them through the gifts of His people. Instead of inheriting land, God was their inheritance. They would be well supplied as long as the people were faithful, and this would be a good incentive to the priests to be responsible.

19:2 red heifer. The animal sacrificed for making the waters of purification was different than sacrifices for sins or thanksgivings. It was a female, not a male, its color was specified, it was killed outside the camp, and cedar and hyssop, used in purification ceremonies, were added to the burning heifer.

19:9 water to remove impurity. It is not that this water was "magic," but it was prepared in obedience to God's commands, and was an outward symbol of the inner work that God does to remove impurity. It is important to recognize that the rituals and celebrations were designed by God to create an awareness in His people of their spiritual needs, and ultimately to prepare them for Christ. All of the washings and sacrifices were still powerless to change hearts. That is a spiritual work done by God alone.

19:20 does not purify himself. The issues of uncleanness were so serious that the one who applied the waters of purification became unclean also. Refusing to accept the need for cleansing was not just the act of an uncouth person who didn't care about germs. Every time someone dies, it is a reminder that death came into the world through sin (Ro 5:12-14 ). The ritual for cleansing was a way of addressing the fact that it was sin that made this happen: the world is not the way God created it to be, and humans are in continual need of being reconciled to their Creator.

20:1 in the first month. No year is associated with this month; most likely it is the fortieth year, the end of the sojourn in the wilderness.

20:2 no water. Having no water was the subject of the first crisis that the Israelites had on their journey out of Egypt (Ex 17 ). The same problem, forty years later, provokes the same ingratitude and anger from the people.

20:11 struck the rock twice. The first time God brought water from the rock, He asked Moses to strike it. This time He asked Moses to speak to it. In his anger at the Israelites' attitude, Moses spoke roughly to the Israelites and struck the rock. Even Moses could mess things up by responding in anger.

20:11 , 23-24 because you [both] rebelled. Up to this point, Moses' obedience had been impeccable. It may seem that his anger was so understandable that God was overly harsh in His discipline of Moses. But Moses was the only representative of God to the people. It was only with Moses that God had spoken face to face, and Moses had a grave responsibility to only communicate what God actually said. Moses' attitude was displeasing to God, and his actions went beyond what God had directed. Anger and presumption are still two quick ways to break our fellowship with God.

20:13 Meribah. This is the same name that was given 40 years earlier to the location of the first water crisis (Ex 17:7 ). The word means "contention."

20:14 your brother Israel. The Edomites were descendants of Jacob's brother Esau. Because of this relationship, Moses had a special basis of appeal, and for the same reason, the Israelites were not to fight the Edomites.

21:5 loathe this miserable food. As the psalmist later observed, "How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!" (Ps 78:40 ). In their contempt of the food, the people were actually spurning God who had given them this food. It is a sharp reminder to believers to do all things without grumbling (Php 2:14 ) so the glory of the Lord will be evident to those who are watching.

21:8 fiery serpent . . . will live when he looks at it. Jesus pointed to this stunning image in His dialogue with Nicodemus (Jn 3:14–15). Jesus was nailed to the cross, and those who look at it—who realize, “the cross is the price for my sins”—will receive eternal life. Each Israelite who looked at the bronze snake knew that the snake bites were the penalty for his own sinful attitudes. In both cases, only God has the cure.

21:21 king of the Amorites. The Amorites were one of the peoples that God had commissioned Israel to destroy (Ex 33:2 ; 34:11 ).

21:21–24 Saying no to God— A stubborn “no” to an innocent and reasonable request can produce a counter-reaction. It is not that it is wrong to ever say “no,” but the key fault on the part of the Amorites was a hard-hearted refusal to consider a request that would cost them nothing to grant. With God’s wisdom, we need to consider our words carefully, and “if possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone” (Ro 12:18 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

21:27–32 people of [the god] Chemosh. This song begins with a recital of the earlier victory of the Amorites over the people of Moab and their god Chemosh. After defeating Sihon and the Amorites, Israel became a formidable threat to Moab. The Amorites were pointing out that the Moabites’ god did not help them. Now that the Amorites had been defeated, it was clear that the God of Israel was greater than the gods of both the Moabites and the Amorites.

22:5 Balaam. Balak hired Balaam to destroy Israel by spiritual means. He thought that Balaam could cause Israel’s “gods” to stop protecting them.

22:6 whom you curse is cursed. The reality is that God’s blessing on Israel could not be tampered with. It is important to remember that the Creator God is the source of all blessing and that no evil can stand against God’s blessing and protection.

22:8 as the LORD may speak to me. Balaam speaks of the Lord as if he were intimate with Him. No doubt he had heard of the Lord, and no doubt the Lord did give him the words to say when Balaam looked at the Israelites. But Balaam did not give the Lord God any greater place in his own life than he gave to pagan gods, as is evidenced by his subsequent actions.

22:18 the LORD my God. This is not a confession of faith on Balaam’s part, but a bold and false claim to be a medium of Israel’s “god.” Balaam was motivated by greed, not by a desire to please the Lord (2Pe 2:15 ; Jude 11 ).

22:22 But God’s anger was kindled because he was going. God had given Balaam permission to go, after he asked the second time, and yet God was angry. This is a little puzzling, but if we remember that God is not whimsical, it makes sense. God had already told Balaam “no,” and when Balak’s leaders came to him again, Balaam came to God again, saying in essence, “but now there is a lot of money and power available, so let me run this by you again . . .” He was treating the Lord as if He were any little demon god, who is appealed to by money and divination rituals. Balaam did not comprehend that he was dealing with the real powerful, awesome, and almighty God, until he encountered the angel with his drawn sword. God had a plan, and He was going to use Balaam to sabotage Balak’s plans in a way that would definitely communicate to Balak exactly who the Israelites’ God was, and what His plan was for His people. But Balaam needed to understand that it was the Lord who was in charge, not Balaam and his divination methods.

23:5 the LORD put a speech in Balaam’s mouth. Even though Balaam was not a true servant of God, the words that Balaam spoke were truly God’s blessing.

23:7–10 took up his [first] discourse. The words that Balaam spoke, however unwillingly, certainly affirmed God’s providence for the nation of Israel. It is curious how the Lord used a mercenary and devious diviner to clearly speak the blessing on Israel, but that too was a part of God’s providence. Balaam was claiming to speak for the Lord; the Lord would make sure that Balaam indeed spoke for Him.

24:17–19 I see Him, but not now . . . A star shall come forth from [the descendants of] Jacob. This poetic language clearly refers to the Messiah. The pagan Balaam had a vision of the coming of the Hebrew Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. He was visible from afar, He was like a star, radiant and beautiful. And He is the victor over His enemies, including Moab—the nation that hired Balaam to curse Israel.

24:19 dominion. At this point Balaam should have repented of his involvement with Balak. It was clear that the Lord God was in control, not Balaam, and that the Lord's curses were not for hire. This should be a great encouragement to believers in our day, because we can trust in a God who has promised to bless those who trust in Him. Our God will not change His mind and forget those who have put their faith in Him.

24:22 How long will Asshur (Assyria) keep you (Israel) captive? Asshur is Assyria. This nation did take the rebellious Northern Kingdom of Israel captive in 722 BC.

25:1–3 play the prostitute. Right on the edge of the promised land the Israelites had shown unfaithfulness to God again. It was not just that they had illicit sex with women outside their nation. They had participated in the licentious worship of the Baal of Peor. Worshiping idols on the side is not just a little slip, like eating between meals. They had enough information to know how seriously offended God would be, and they just did not care. Such behavior is always likened to adultery, and this was something that God rebuked His people for repeatedly (Isa 1:21 ; Jer 3:1 ; Ezr 10 ; Hos 2:5 ).

25:1 the women of Moab. What the men of Moab could not do, the women were able to accomplish. They trapped the Israelite men in sexual immorality and false worship. The principle instigator of this sorry affair was none other than Balaam (31:16 ). Perhaps the most sobering aspect is the fact that the Moabites were descendants of Lot, through his daughter's incestuous relationship with her father, after their long sojourn in Sodom (Ge 19 ). Sexual perversion had a long history in this group.

25:4–5 fierce anger of the LORD . This was the most serious challenge to God's authority yet. The people had been seduced into joining the worship of Baal. And it was Baal worship that they had been sent to Canaan to eliminate.

25:7 Phinehas the son of Eleazar. For this decisive and courageous act, Phinehas is praised, not only in this book, but in Psalm 106:30–31 . In the psalm, it says that this act was "credited to him for righteousness."

26:2 Take a census of all the [males in the] congregation. The plague is over, the old generation has all died. This is a new beginning and a new census. Despite all the people who had died in the wilderness, the total population was not significantly different than the first census.

26:51 This was the [total] number. The totals of the twelve tribes are very similar. Some had increased, some had decreased. The final figure shows a slight decrease, from 603,550 to 601,730.

27:1–5 the [five] daughters of Zelophehad. In ancient Israel, women did not inherit land. Yet because their case made sense, Moses took the issue to the Lord.

27:7 The request . . . is justified. Justice was done to women regarding inheritance because Moses took the case to God, and His truth was used as the foundation for the decree. Only as we base our decisions in life on God's truth, as expressed in the Bible and in Jesus Himself, will we be acting in truth. Any other way can bring injustice and decisions regretted because they spring from error.

27:18 Holy Spirit—Joshua was a "man in whom is the Spirit." In the Old Testament, only a few people had the Holy Spirit. It was not until after Jesus' resurrection that the Holy Spirit indwelt every believer. The way that God speaks to the heart of man, apart from the written Word, has generally been through the quiet voice of the Holy Spirit. Joshua apparently was a man led by the voice of the Spirit of God. He is not pictured as seeing visions or being led by angels, yet his leadership was effective and faithful.

28:26 Feast of Weeks. The Feast of Weeks occurred 50 days after Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

29:1–40 holy [summoned] assembly. This chapter regulates offerings to the Lord during the three sacred festivals of the seventh month: the Feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles. The Feast of Trumpets marked the beginning of Israel's civil year. It was a day of preparation for the next two celebrations. The Day of Atonement was a solemn day on which sins were confessed and special sacrifices made for the holy place, the priests, and the people. The Feast of Tabernacles was a time of rejoicing.

29:1 a day of blowing the trumpets. The celebration of the Feast of Trumpets involved blowing ram's horns. Later this festival became identified with the New Year festival.

29:11 offering of atonement. The Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, was regarded as the most holy day of all. Leviticus 16 describes it as a day of fasting, rather than feasting.

29:12 Feast [of Booths] to the LORD for seven days. The celebration of the Feast of Booths, or Tabernacles, or Succoth, included both sacrifices and eight days of "no work." In later years Israelites lived in tents or booths during this celebration, to commemorate the years that their ancestors lived in tents in the desert.

30:2 If a man makes a vow. The key issue is clear: One who makes a vow shall not break his word. Vows that are made to the Lord must be carried out.

30:3 if a woman. In Israelite culture, an unmarried woman was under the protection of her father. If she made a vow, she might bring her father into an obligation that he did not want to fulfill, or could not fulfill. The same was true of a married woman (v. 6). Her vows would involve her husband, so the husband or father had to agree to the vow.

31:2 Midianites. The Midianites were descendants of Abraham and his wife Keturah, but were not part of the covenant that God had with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

31:7–16 Unfaithfulness— Moses was ordered to campaign against the Midianites because of their wicked involvement in the seduction of Israel (25:17–18). He was angry with the officers of the army because they had not carried out the Lord's directive concerning the women who had caused Israel to act unfaithfully toward the Lord. There was no excuse for the officers' unfaithfulness. The plague that followed the seduction of Israel should have been enough to make them aware of the great responsibility they had to obey God's directives. Go to Theological Notes Index

31:27 Divide the spoil. The division of the prey, or booty, among those who had gone to war and those who had not, set a standard for future battles. The proportion that was regarded as the Lord's also became a standard.

31:52 16,750 shekels. The officers' gift was over 400 pounds of gold.

32:5 If we have found favor. Although an inheritance on the east side of the Jordan was not part of God's promise, the respectful request of the Reubenites and Gadites was granted, because they came humbly, not rebelliously.

32:8–13 This is what your fathers did. To discourage obedience of God's orders and so prevent His people from entering upon the full enjoyment of the promises is a serious sin. Let us never forget that without an obedient faith, it is impossible to please God (Heb 11:6).

32:31 so will we do. Reuben and Gad gladly affirmed their allegiance to the Lord and their consideration of the remainder of the community of Israel. The benevolence of Reuben and Gad is a beautiful picture of the mutual ties between God's people. Truly, we are one body.

33:53 for I have given the land to you to possess. It was God's land, and He had transferred it from the Canaanites to the Israelites. Though the land was promised to the nation as a gift, it did not come into the possession of the people without their involvement. Israel had to drive out the inhabitants, destroy their high places, their figures, stones, and molten images. Still, the land was God's gracious gift to His people. In spite of all of our striving, we have only what we receive from the hand of the Lord.

33:55–56 But if you do not. If the idolatrous Canaanites were allowed to live among God's people, they would be a constant enticement to sin. If the Israelites fell into the same sin as the Canaanites, their punishment would be the same.

34:1–12 the land of Canaan according to its boundaries. Chapter 34 serves as a detailed display of the grandeur of the land that God was about to give to His people.

34:16–29 These are the names of the men. The listing of the men serves several purposes. It gives authenticity to the record, it memorializes these individuals in the history of Israel, and it serves as a legal arrangement so that the transfer of the land to the tribes would be done in order.

35:29–34 statute. The practice of blood vengeance was common in the ancient Near East. Divine law was formulated to control and limit blood vengeance in Israel (vv. 9–34). God's Word differed significantly from the surrounding cultures. The difference of practice was due to Israel's unique view of man created in God's image. These directives regarding blood vengeance are referred to here as a "statute," coming from a word meaning "to engrave." The Word of God was written, given to govern and direct their conduct "wherever they may be." We can be truly grateful that the revelation of God comes to us in a permanently accessible form.

35:30–34 If anyone kills a person. The people were not to confuse accidental manslaughter with premeditated murder.

36:5–13 within the family of the tribe of their father. This beautiful example of concern for fair treatment of Zelophehad's daughters, consideration for the well-being of the tribe, and obedience to Moses' decision is a happy ending to this book that is so full of hard-heartedness and disobedience.

The Fifth Book of Moses, Called

Deuteronomy

- AUTHOR: Numerous external and internal evidences support the authorship of Moses. The Old Testament attributes Deuteronomy to Moses (Jos 1:7 ; Jdy 3:4 ; 1Ki 2:3 ; 2Ki 14:6 ; Ezr 3:2 ; Neh 1:7 ; Ps 103:7 ; Da 9:11 ; Mal 4:4 ), and there is evidence from Joshua and 1 Samuel to indicate that these laws existed in the form of codified written statutes that influenced the Israelites in Canaan. Christ quoted Deuteronomy when he was being tempted (Mt 4:4 , 7 ,10 ) and attributed it to Moses (Mt 19:7–9 ; Mk 7:10 ; Lk 20:28 ; Jn 5:45–47 ) as do the more than eighty citations of Deuteronomy in the New Testament. Internally, the book includes about forty claims to Moses as the author (31:24–26 ; 1:1–5 ; 4:44–46 ; 29:1 ; 31:9 ). The political and geographic details of Deuteronomy indicate a firsthand knowledge of the events.
- TIMES: c. 1405 BC
- KEY VERSES: Dt 30:19–20
- THEME: Deuteronomy is a series of addresses that Moses gives to the nation of Israel just before it enters the promised land. In many ways it can be seen as the coach's speech given to a team just before it takes the field. The book reviews and reiterates what has been taught in the previous books of Moses in the same way that a coach's last instructions contain a review of the basic game plan and what has been covered in practice. The purpose of that speech is to focus on what to do and then create the motivation to carry it out. For the Israelites much of the previous instruction was somewhat hypothetical. Many of the laws assumed the occupation of the land. Now, as they stand looking over the Jordan River, they're within reach of moving from the hypothetical to the real and practical. God has renewed His marvelous covenant with them. Now is the time to live up to its requirements.

Deuteronomy 1

Israel's History after the Exodus

<sup>1</sup> THESE ARE the words which Moses spoke to all Israel [while they were still] beyond [that is, on the east side of] the Jordan [River] in the wilderness [across from Jerusalem], in the Arabah [the long, deep valley running north and south from the eastern arm of the Red Sea to beyond the Dead Sea] opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel and Laban and Hazeroth and Dizahab (place of gold). ‡

<sup>5</sup> Beyond (east of) the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying,

<sup>6</sup> “The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, ‘You have stayed long enough on this mountain.’ ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘Turn and resume your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country and in the lowland (the Shephelah), in the Negev (South country) and on the coast of the [Mediterranean] Sea, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup> ‘Look, I have set the land before you; go in and take possession of the land which the LORD swore (solemnly promised) to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them.’ ‡

<sup>9</sup> “I spoke to you at that time, saying, ‘I am not able to bear the burden of you alone. ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘The LORD your God has multiplied you, and look, today you are as numerous as the stars of heaven. ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘May the LORD, the God of your fathers, add to you a thousand times as many as you are and bless you, just as He has promised you! ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘How can I alone bear the weight and pressure and burden of you and your strife (contention) and complaining? ‡

<sup>13</sup>‘Choose for yourselves wise, understanding, experienced, and respected men from your tribes, and I will appoint them as heads (leaders) over you.’

<sup>14</sup> “And you answered me, ‘The thing which you have said to do is good.’

<sup>15</sup> “So I took the leaders of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and made them leaders over you, commanders of thousands, and hundreds, and fifties, and tens, and officers (administrators) for your tribes. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Then I commanded your judges at that time, saying, ‘Hear the matters between your brothers [your fellow countrymen], and judge righteously and fairly between a man and his brother, or the stranger (resident alien, foreigner) who is with him. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear and pay attention to the [cases of the] least [important] as well as the great. You shall not fear man, for the judgment is God’s. The case that is too hard for you [to judge], you shall bring to me, and I will hear it.’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> “I commanded you at that time [regarding] all the things that you should do.

<sup>19</sup> “Then we set out from Horeb (Sinai), and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, just as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea. ‡

<sup>20</sup>“And I said to you, ‘You have come to the hill country of the Amorites which the LORD our God is about to give us.

<sup>21</sup> ‘Behold, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and take possession of it, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you. Do not fear or be dismayed.’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Then all of you approached me and said, ‘Let us send men [into the land] before us, so that they may explore and search the area for us, and bring back to us word regarding the way we should go, and the cities we should enter.’

<sup>23</sup> “The plan pleased me and I took twelve of your men, one man from each tribe. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “They turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and spied it out. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Then they took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they reported back to us, and said, ‘It is a good land which the LORD our God is about to give us.’ ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Yet you were not willing to go up [to take possession of it], but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “You murmured and were ill-tempered (discontented) in your tents, and said, ‘Because the LORD hates us He has brought us from the land of Egypt to hand us over to the Amorites to destroy us.’ ‡

<sup>28</sup> ‘Where can we go up? Our brothers (spies) have made our hearts melt [in fear] and demoralized us by saying, “The people are bigger and taller than we; the cities are large, and fortified [all the way up] to heaven. And besides, we saw the [giant-like] sons of the Anakim there.” ’ ‡

<sup>29</sup> “Then I said to you, ‘Do not be shocked, nor fear them.

<sup>30</sup> ‘The LORD your God who goes before you will fight for you Himself, just as He did for you in Egypt before your [very] eyes, ‡

<sup>31</sup> and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried and protected you, just as a man carries his son, all along the way which you traveled until you arrived at this place.’ ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Yet in spite of this word, you did not trust [that is, confidently rely on and believe] the LORD your God, ‡

<sup>33</sup> who went before you along the way, in fire by night and in a cloud by day, to seek a place for you to make camp and to show you the way in which you should go. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “And the LORD heard the sound of your words, and He was angry and took an oath, saying, ‡

<sup>36</sup> except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and to his children I will give the land on which he has walked, because he has followed the LORD completely [and remained true to Him].’ ‡

<sup>37</sup> “The LORD was angry with me also because of you, saying, ‘Not even you shall enter Canaan. ‡

<sup>38</sup> ‘Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall enter there. Encourage and strengthen him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. ‡

<sup>39</sup> ‘Moreover, your little ones whom you said would become prey, and your sons, who today have no knowledge of good or evil, shall enter Canaan, and I will give it to them and they shall possess it. ‡

<sup>40</sup> ‘But as for you, turn around and set out for the wilderness by way of the Red Sea (Sea of Reeds).’ ‡

<sup>41</sup> “Then you answered and said to me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God has commanded us.’ So you equipped every man with weapons of war, and regarded it as easy to go up into the hill country. ‡

<sup>42</sup> “But the LORD said to me, ‘Say to them, “Do not go up and do not fight, for I am not among you [because of your rebellion]; otherwise you will be [badly] defeated by your enemies.” ’ ‡

<sup>43</sup> “So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. Instead you rebelled against the command of the LORD, and acted presumptuously and went up into the hill country. ‡

<sup>44</sup> “Then the Amorites who lived in that hill country came out against you and chased you as bees do, and struck you down in Seir as far as Hormah. ‡

<sup>45</sup> “And you returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not listen to your voice nor pay attention to you.

<sup>46</sup> “So you stayed in Kadesh; many days you stayed there. ‡

Deuteronomy 2

Wanderings in the Wilderness

<sup>1</sup> “THEN WE turned and set out for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, just as the LORD had told me; and we circled Mount Seir for many days. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “And the LORD spoke to me, saying,

<sup>4</sup> and command the people, saying, “You are passing through the territory of your brothers the sons of Esau (the Edomites), who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. So be very careful; ‡

<sup>5</sup> do not provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even as little as a footprint, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “You shall buy food from them with money so that you may [have something to] eat, and you shall also buy water from them with money so that you may [have something to] drink.

<sup>7</sup> “For the LORD your God has blessed you in all that you have done; He has known about your wanderings through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.”’ ‡

8“So we passed beyond our brothers the sons of Esau, who lived in Seir, away from the Arabah (wilderness) road, away from Elath and from Eziongeber. Then we turned and passed through by the way of the Wilderness of Moab. ‡

9“And the LORD said to me, ‘Do not harass [the descendants of] Moab, nor provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the sons (Moab and Ammon) of Lot as a possession.’  [Gen 19:30–38] ‡

10 (The Emim lived there in times past, a people great and numerous, and as tall as the Anakim. ‡

11 These also are regarded as Rephaim [an ancient people], as are the Anakim, but the Moabites call them Emim.

12 The Horites also used to live in Seir, but the sons of Esau dispossessed them. They destroyed them from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did in the land which the LORD gave them as their possession.) ‡

13‘Now arise and cross the valley of the Zered.’ So we crossed the Zered Valley. ‡

14 “Now thirty-eight years passed from the time we left Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the Zered Valley, until that entire generation of the men of war had died from within the camp, just as the LORD had sworn to them. ‡

15“Moreover the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from within the camp, until they were all dead. ‡

16 “So it came about when all the men of war had finally died from among the people,

17 that the LORD spoke to me, saying,

18 ‘Today you are to pass through Ar, the border of Moab.

19 ‘When you come opposite the territory of the sons of Ammon, do not harass them nor provoke them, for I will not give you any of the land of the sons of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the sons of Lot as a possession.’ ‡

20 (It is also regarded as the land of the Rephaim [of giant stature], for Rephaim used to live there, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummin, ‡

21 a great, numerous people, and tall as the Anakim, but the LORD destroyed them before the sons of Ammon. And they dispossessed them and settled in their place, ‡

22 just as He did for the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them; and the sons of Esau (the Edomites) dispossessed them and settled in their place [and remain there] even to this day. ‡

23 As for the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim (Cretans, later Philistines) who came from Caphtor (Crete) destroyed them and settled in their place.) ‡

24 ‘Now arise, continue on, and go through the valley of the Arnon. Look, I have handed over to you Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin! Take possession [of it] and fight with him in battle. ‡

25 ‘This day I will begin to put the dread and the fear of you on the peoples (pagans) under the whole heaven, who, when they hear the reports about you, will tremble and be in anguish because of you.’ ‡

26 ‘So I sent messengers from the Wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, ‡

27 ‘Let me pass through your land [with my people]. I will travel [with them] only on the highway; I will not turn away to the right or to the left. ‡

28 ‘You will sell me food for money so that I [along with my people] will eat, and you will give me water for money so that I [along with my people] will drink; only let me [and my people] travel through [the land] on foot, ‡

29 just as the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, did for me, until I cross the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God is giving us.’ ‡

30 ‘But Sihon king of Heshbon was not willing for us to travel through his land; for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, in order to hand him over to you, as he is today. ‡

31 ‘The LORD said to me, ‘Look, I have begun to hand over to you Sihon and his land. Begin! Take possession [of it], so that you may possess his land.’ ‡

32 ‘Then at Jahaz, Sihon and all his people came out to meet us in battle. ‡

33 ‘So the LORD our God handed him over to us [and gave us the victory], and we defeated him and his sons and all his people. ‡

34 ‘At the same time we took all his cities and utterly destroyed every city —men, women and children. We left no survivor. ‡

35 ‘We took only the cattle as plunder for ourselves and the spoil of the cities which we had captured.

36 ‘From Aroer, which is on the edge of the Arnon Valley, and from the city which is in the valley, as far as Gilead, there was no city [whose wall was] too high and too strong for us; the LORD our God handed over everything to us. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “Only you did not go near the land of the sons of Ammon, all along the river Jabbok and the cities of the hill country, and wherever the LORD our God had forbidden us. ‡

Deuteronomy 3

Conquests Recounted

<sup>1</sup> “THEN WE turned and went up the road toward Bashan, and at Edrei, Og king of Bashan, with all his people came out to meet us in battle. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “And the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you, him and all his people and his land; and you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> “So the LORD our God also handed over Og king of Bashan, and all his people, into our hand and we struck him until no survivor was left. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “We captured all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “All these cities were fortified and unassailable with their high walls, gates, and bars; in addition, [there were] a very great number of unwalled villages.

<sup>6</sup> “We utterly destroyed them, just as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every city—the men, women, and children. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But we took all the cattle and the spoil of the cities as plunder for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup> “So we took the land at that time from the hand of the two kings [Sihon and Og] of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon

<sup>9</sup> (the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir): ‡

<sup>10</sup> all the cities of the plain and all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salekah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> (For only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the [the giants known as the] Rephaim. Behold, his bed frame was a bed frame of iron; is it not in Rabbah of the Ammonites? It was nine cubits (12 ft.) long and four cubits (6 ft.) wide, using the cubit of a man [the forearm to the end of the middle finger].) ‡

<sup>12</sup> “So we took possession of this land at that time. I gave the territory from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, along with half of the hill country of Gilead and its cities to the Reubenites and to the Gadites. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Jair the son (descendant) of Manasseh took all the region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, that is Bashan, and called it after his own name, Havvoth (the villages of) Jair, as it is called to this day.) ‡

<sup>16</sup> “To the Reubenites and Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead as far as the Valley of Arnon, with the middle of the Valley as a boundary, and as far as the Jabbok River, the boundary of the sons of Ammon; ‡

<sup>17</sup> the Arabah also, with the Jordan as its boundary, from Chinnereth (the Sea of Galilee) as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea (Dead Sea), at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah on the east. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “Then I commanded you [Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh] at that time, saying, ‘The LORD your God has given you this land to possess; all you who are brave men shall cross over [the Jordan] armed before your brothers, the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘But your wives and your children and your cattle—I know that you have much livestock—shall remain in your cities which I have given you,

<sup>20</sup> until the LORD gives rest to your fellow countrymen as [He has] to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God has given them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you may return to the land (possession) which I have given to you.’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> “I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, ‘Your eyes have seen everything that the LORD your God has done to these two kings [Sihon and Og]; so the LORD shall do the same to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross. ‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘Do not fear them, for it is the LORD your God who is fighting for you.’ ‡

<sup>24</sup> ‘O Lord GOD, You have only begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand; for what god is there in heaven or on earth that can do such works and mighty acts (miracles) as Yours?’ ‡

<sup>25</sup> ‘I pray, let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country [with Hermon] and Lebanon.’ ‡

<sup>26</sup> “But the LORD was angry with me because of you [and your rebellion at Meribah], and would not listen to me; and the LORD said to me, ‘Enough! Speak to Me no longer about this matter.  [Num 20:8 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> ‘Go up to the top of [Mount] Pisgah and raise your eyes toward the west and north and south and east, and see it with your eyes, for you shall not cross this Jordan. ‡

<sup>28</sup> ‘But command Joshua and encourage and strengthen him, for he shall go across and lead this people, and he will give them the land which you see as an inheritance.’ ‡

Deuteronomy 4

Israel Urged to Obey God’s Law

<sup>1</sup> “NOW, O Israel, listen and pay attention to the statutes and the judgments (God’s legal decisions) which I am teaching you to do, so that you may live and go in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor take away from it, so that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I am commanding you. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baal-peor; for all the men who followed [and participated in the worship of] Baal of Peor, the LORD your God destroyed them from among you,  [Num 25:1–9 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> but you who held tightly to the LORD your God are alive today, every one of you.

<sup>5</sup> “Look, I have taught you statutes and judgments just as the LORD my God has commanded me, so that you may do them in the land which you are entering to possess.

<sup>6</sup> “So keep and do them, for that is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes and say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’ ‡

<sup>7</sup> “For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the LORD our God [is to us] whenever we call on Him? ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Or what great nation has statutes and judgments so righteous (upright, just) as this whole law which I am placing before you today?

9—“Only pay attention and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen and they do not depart from your heart all the days of your life. Make them known to your children and your grandchildren [impressing these things on their mind and penetrating their heart with these truths]—‡

10 especially the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb (Mount Sinai), when the LORD said to me, ‘Assemble the people to Me and I will let them hear My words, so that they may learn to fear Me [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect] all the days they live on the land, and so that they may teach their children.’‡

11 “You approached and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the [very] heart of the heavens: darkness, cloud and thick gloom.‡

12 “Then the LORD spoke to you from the midst of the fire; you heard the sound of the words, but you saw no form—there was only a voice.‡

13 “So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to follow, the Ten Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone.‡

14 “The LORD commanded me at that time to teach you the statutes and judgments, so that you might do them in the land which you are going over to possess.‡

15 “So pay attention and watch yourselves carefully—for you did not see any form [of God] on the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire—‡

16 so that you do not act corruptly and make for yourselves a carved or sculpted image [to worship] in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female,‡

17 the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, or of any winged bird that flies in the sky,

18 the likeness of anything that crawls on the ground, or of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth.

19 “And beware that you do not raise your eyes toward heaven and see the sun and the moon and the stars, all the host of heaven, and let yourselves be led astray and worship them and serve them, [mere created bodies] which the LORD your God has allotted to [serve and benefit] all the peoples under the whole heaven.‡

20 “But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron [smelting] furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people for His own possession, as [you are] this day.‡

21 “Now the LORD was angry with me [at the waters of Meribah] because of you, and He swore [an oath] that I would not cross the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance. ‡

22 “For I am going to die in this land, I am not going to cross the Jordan, but you shall cross over and take possession of this good land. ‡

23 “So be on your guard and watch yourselves, so that you do not forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He has made with you, and make for yourselves a carved or sculpted image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you. ‡

24—“For the LORD your God is a consuming fire; He is a jealous (impassioned) God [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely His]. ‡

25 “When you become the father of children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, then if you corrupt yourselves by making a carved or sculpted image in the form of anything [for the purpose of worship], and do evil [things] in the sight of the LORD your God, provoking Him to anger, ‡

26. I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You shall not live long on it, but will be utterly destroyed. ‡

27—“The LORD will scatter and disperse you among the peoples (pagan nations), and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD drives you. ‡

28 “And there you will serve [false and foreign] gods, the work of human hands, [lifeless images of] wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell [the offerings of food given to them]. ‡

29 “But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find Him if you search for Him with all your heart and all your soul. ‡

30 “When you are in distress and tribulation and all these things come on you, in the latter days you will return to the LORD your God and listen to His voice. ‡

31 “For the LORD your God is a merciful and compassionate God; He will not fail you, nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant with your fathers which He swore to them. ‡

32 “Indeed, ask now about the days that are past, [those days] which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and ask from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything been done like this great thing, or has anything been heard like it? ‡

33 “Did [any] people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you heard, and [still] live? ‡

<sup>34</sup> “Or has any [man-made] god ever tried to go and take for himself a nation from within another nation by trials, by signs and wonders and by war and by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm and by great terrors, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your [very] eyes? ‡

<sup>35</sup> “It was shown to you so that you might have [personal] knowledge and comprehend that the LORD is God; there is no other besides Him. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “Out of the heavens He let you hear His voice to discipline and admonish you; and on earth He let you see His great fire, and you heard His words from the midst of the fire. ‡

<sup>38</sup> dispossessing and driving out from before you nations, [nations that were] greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land as an inheritance, as it is this day. ‡

<sup>39</sup> Therefore know and understand today, and take it to your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on the earth below; there is no other. ‡

<sup>40</sup> “So you shall keep His statutes and His commandments which I am commanding you today, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and so that you may live long on the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time.” ‡

<sup>41</sup> Then Moses set apart three cities [of refuge] beyond the Jordan toward the rising of the sun (eastward), ‡

<sup>42</sup> so that someone who committed manslaughter could flee there, [that is, a person] who killed his neighbor unintentionally and without previously having hostility toward him, and that by escaping to one of these cities he might [claim the right of asylum and] save his life: ‡

<sup>44</sup> This is the law which Moses placed before the sons of Israel;

<sup>45</sup> these are the testimonies (legal provisions) and the statutes and the judgments which Moses spoke to the sons of Israel when they came out of Egypt,

Deuteronomy 5

The Ten Commandments Repeated

<sup>1</sup> THEN MOSES summoned all Israel and said to them:

“ Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments (legal decisions) which I am speaking today in your hearing, so that you may learn them and observe them carefully.

<sup>5</sup> “I was standing between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain. He said, ‡

<sup>6</sup>. ‘I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘You shall not make for yourself an idol [as an object to worship], or any likeness (form, manifestation) of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth. ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘You shall not worship them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous (impassioned) God [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine], visiting (avenging) the iniquity (sin, guilt) of the fathers on the children [that is, calling the children to account for the sins of their fathers], to the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me,  [Is 42:8 ; 48:11 ]

<sup>10</sup> but showing graciousness and lovingkindness to thousands [of generations] of those who love Me and keep My commandments. ‡

11 ‘You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain [that is, irreverently, in false affirmations or in ways that impugn the character of God]; for the LORD will not hold guiltless nor leave unpunished the one who takes His name in vain [disregarding its reverence and its power]. ‡

12 ‘Observe the Sabbath day to keep it holy (set apart, dedicated to God), as the LORD your God commanded you. ‡

13 ‘Six days you shall labor and do all your work, ‡

14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath [a day of rest dedicated] to the LORD your God; on that day you shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter or your male servant or your female servant or your ox or your donkey or any of your livestock or the stranger who stays inside your [city] gates, so that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. ‡

15 ‘You shall remember [with thoughtful concern] that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day. ‡

16 ‘Honor (respect, obey, care for) your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that your days [on the earth] may be prolonged and so that it may go well with you in the land which the LORD your God gives you. ‡

17 ‘You shall not murder. ‡

18 ‘You shall not commit adultery.  [Prov 6:25 , 26 ; Matt 5:27 , 28 ; Rom 1:2 ; Eph 5:3 ] ‡

19 ‘You shall not steal.  [Prov 11:1 ; 16:8 ; 21:6 ; 22:16 ; Jer 17:11 ; Mal 3:8 ]

20 ‘You shall not give false testimony [that is, lie, withhold, or manipulate the truth] against your neighbor (any person).  [Ex 23:1 ; Prov 19:9 ; 24:28 ] ‡

21 ‘You shall not covet [that is, desire and seek to acquire] your neighbor’s wife, nor desire your neighbor’s house, his field, his male servant or his female servant, his ox or his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.’  [Luke 12:15 ; Col 3:5 ] ‡

Moses Interceded

22 “The LORD spoke these words with a great voice to all your assembly at the mountain out of the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, and He added no more. He wrote these commandments on two tablets of stone and gave them to me. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “And when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you approached me, all the leaders (heads) of your tribes and your elders; ‡

<sup>24</sup> and you said, ‘Behold, the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire; we have seen today that God speaks with man, yet he [still] lives. ‡

<sup>25</sup> ‘Now then why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer, then we will die. ‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘For who is there of all flesh (mankind) who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? ‡

<sup>27</sup> ‘You, Moses, go near and listen to everything that the LORD our God says; then speak to us everything that the LORD our God speaks to you, and we will listen and do it.’ ‡

<sup>28</sup> “The LORD heard your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me, ‘I have heard the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken. ‡

<sup>29</sup> ‘Oh that they had such a heart in them, that they would fear [and worship Me with awe-filled reverence and profound respect] and keep all My commandments always, so that it may go well with them and with their children forever! ‡

<sup>31</sup> ‘But as for you, stand here by Me, and I will tell you all the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which you shall teach them, so that they may obey them in the land which I give them to possess.’ ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Therefore you shall pay attention and be careful to do just as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right or to the left [deviating from My commandments]. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “You shall walk [that is, live each and every day] in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and so that it may be well with you, and that you may live long in the land which you will possess. ‡

Deuteronomy 6

Obey God and Prosper

<sup>1</sup> “NOW THIS is the command; the statutes and the judgments (precepts) which the LORD your God has commanded me to teach you, so that you might do (follow, obey) them in the land which you are crossing over [the Jordan] to possess,‡

<sup>2</sup>-so that you and your son and your grandson may fear and worship the LORD your God [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect], to keep [and actively do] all His statutes and His commandments which I am commanding you, all the days of your life, so that your days may be prolonged.‡

<sup>3</sup>.“Therefore listen, O Israel, and be careful to do them, that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly [in numbers], as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you, in a land flowing with milk and honey.‡

<sup>5</sup>“You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and mind and with all your soul and with all your strength [your entire being].‡

<sup>6</sup>“These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be [written] on your heart and mind.‡

<sup>8</sup>“And you shall bind them as a sign on your hand (forearm), and they shall be used as bands (frontals, frontlets) on your forehead.‡

<sup>9</sup>“You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.‡

<sup>10</sup>“Then it shall come about when the LORD your God brings you into the land which He swore (solemnly promised) to [give] your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—to give you, [a land with] great and splendid cities which you did not build,‡

<sup>11</sup> and houses full of all good things which you did not fill, and hewn (excavated) cisterns (wells) which you did not dig out, and vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you eat and are full and satisfied,‡

<sup>12</sup> then beware that you do not forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

<sup>14</sup> “You shall not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who surround you,‡

<sup>15</sup> for the LORD your God who is among you is a jealous (impassioned) God [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely His]—otherwise the anger of the LORD your God will be kindled and burn against you, and He will destroy you from the face of the earth.‡

<sup>16</sup> “You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested Him at Massah.  [Ex 17:7]‡

<sup>17</sup> “You shall diligently keep [foremost in your thoughts and actively do] the commandments of the LORD your God, and His testimonies and His statutes which He has commanded you.‡

<sup>18</sup> “You shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, so that it may be well with you and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to [give] your fathers,‡

<sup>20</sup> “When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is the meaning of the testimonies and statutes and judgments (precepts) which the LORD our God has commanded you?’‡

<sup>21</sup> then you shall say to your son, ‘We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘Moreover, the LORD showed great and terrible signs and wonders before our eyes against Egypt, Pharaoh and all his household;‡

<sup>23</sup> He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land which He had sworn to [give] our fathers.’

<sup>24</sup> “So the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear [and worship] the LORD our God [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect] for our good always and so that He might preserve us alive, as it is today.‡

<sup>25</sup> “It will be [considered] righteousness for us [that is, right standing with God] if we are careful to observe all this commandment before the LORD our God—just as He has commanded us.‡

Deuteronomy 7

Warnings

<sup>1</sup> “WHEN THE LORD your God brings you into the land which you are entering to possess, and has cleared away many nations before you, the Hittite and the Gergashite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, seven nations greater and mightier than you, ‡

<sup>2</sup>-and when the LORD your God gives them over to you and you defeat them, then you shall utterly destroy them. You shall not make a covenant (treaty) with them nor show mercy and compassion to them. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You shall not intermarry with them; you shall not give your daughter to his son, nor shall you take his daughter for your son; ‡

<sup>4</sup> for they will turn your sons away from following Me to serve other gods; then the anger of the LORD will be kindled and burn against you and He will quickly destroy you. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “But this is how you shall deal with them: you shall tear down their altars and smash to pieces their sacred pillars, and cut down their Asherim (symbols of the goddess Asherah), and burn their carved or sculpted images in the fire. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “For you are a holy people [set apart] to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be a people for His own possession [that is, His very special treasure]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD did not love you and choose you because you were greater in number than any of the other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But because the LORD loves you and is keeping the oath which He swore to your fathers, the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed (bought) you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Therefore know [without any doubt] and understand that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who is keeping His covenant and His [steadfast] lovingkindness to a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commandments; ‡

<sup>10</sup> but repays those who hate Him to their faces, by destroying them; He will not hesitate with him who hates Him, He will repay him to his face. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, you shall keep (follow, obey) the commandment and the statutes and judgments (precepts) which I am commanding you today.

Promises of God

<sup>12</sup> “Then it shall come about, because you listen to these judgments and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the [steadfast] lovingkindness which He swore to your fathers. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “He will love you and bless you and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your new wine and your [olive] oil, the offspring of your cattle and the young of your flock, in the land which He swore to your fathers to give you. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “You shall be blessed above all peoples; there will be no male or female barren (childless, infertile) among you or among your cattle. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “The LORD will take away from you all sickness; and He will not subject you to any of the harmful diseases of Egypt which you have known, but He will impose them on all [those] who hate you. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “And you shall consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God will give over to you; your eye shall not pity them, nor shall you serve their gods, for that would be a [deadly] trap to you. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “If you say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I am; how can I dispossess them?’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> you shall not be afraid of them; you shall remember [with confidence] what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt— ‡

<sup>19</sup> the great trials which you saw with your own eyes, and the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Moreover, the LORD your God will send the hornet (His terror) against them, until those who are left and hide themselves from you perish. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “You shall not dread them, for the LORD your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you will not be able to put an end to them quickly, for [if you did] the wild animals would become too numerous for you. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “But the LORD your God will hand them over to you, and will confuse them with a great panic until they are destroyed.

<sup>24</sup> “And He will hand over their kings to you, and you will make their name perish from under heaven; no man will be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “You shall burn the carved and sculpted images of their gods in the fire. You shall not covet the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, so that you will not be ensnared by it [in a deadly trap], for it is an abomination (repulsive) to the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “You shall not bring an abomination (idol) into your house, and like it come under the ban (doomed to destruction); you shall utterly detest and you shall utterly hate it, for it is something banned. ‡

God’s Gracious Dealings

<sup>1</sup> “EVERY COMMANDMENT that I am commanding you today you shall be careful to do, so that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore [to give] to your fathers. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “And you shall remember [always] all the ways which the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, so that He might humble you and test you, to know what was in your heart (mind), whether you would keep His commandments or not. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “He humbled you and allowed you to be hungry and fed you with manna, [a substance] which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, so that He might make you understand [by personal experience] that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your feet swell these forty years. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Therefore, know in your heart (be fully cognizant) that the LORD your God disciplines and instructs you just as a man disciplines and instructs his son ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk [that is, to live each and every day] in His ways and fear [and worship] Him [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect].  [Prov 8:13 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> a land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey;

<sup>9</sup> a land where you will eat bread without shortage, in which you will lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “When you have eaten and are satisfied, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God by failing to keep His commandments and His judgments (precepts) and His statutes which I am commanding you today;

<sup>12</sup> otherwise, when you have eaten and are satisfied, and have built good houses and lived in them, ‡

<sup>13</sup> and when your herds and flocks multiply, and your silver and gold multiply, and all that you have increases,

<sup>14</sup> then your heart will become lifted up [by self-conceit and arrogance] and you will forget the LORD your God who brought you from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “He led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water; it was He who brought water for you out of the flinty rock. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “He fed you manna in the wilderness, [a substance] which your fathers did not know, so that He might humble you [by dependence on Him] and that He might test you, to do good [things] for you at the end. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Otherwise, you may say in your heart, ‘My power and the strength of my hand made me this wealth.’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But you shall remember [with profound respect] the LORD your God, for it is He who is giving you power to make wealth, that He may confirm His covenant which He swore (solemnly promised) to your fathers, as it is this day. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “And it shall come about if you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods and serve them and worship them, I testify against you today that you will most certainly perish. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Like the nations which the LORD causes to perish before you, so shall you perish; because you would not listen to and obey the voice of the LORD your God. ‡

Deuteronomy 9

Israel Provoked God

<sup>2</sup> a people great and tall, sons of Anakim, whom you know and of whom you have heard it said, ‘Who can stand before the sons of Anak?’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> “So know today [with confident assurance] that the LORD your God is crossing [the Jordan] before you like a devouring fire. He will destroy them and He will subdue them before you, and you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, just as the LORD has promised you. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Do not say in your heart when the LORD your God has driven them out before you, ‘Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land,’ but because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD is dispossessing them before you. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “It is not for your righteousness or for the uprightness of your heart that you are going to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God is driving them out before you, and to confirm the oath which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Know [without any doubt], that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stiff-necked (stubborn, obstinate) people. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Remember [with remorse] and do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; from the day you left the land of Egypt until you arrived in this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “And at Horeb (Sinai) you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that He would have destroyed you. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “When I went up the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I did not eat food or drink water. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “The LORD gave me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of God; and on them were written all the words which the LORD had spoken to you at the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “It came about at the end of forty days and forty nights that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

<sup>12</sup> “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go down from here quickly, for your people whom you brought from Egypt have acted corruptly. They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made (cast) a molten image for themselves.’ ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Furthermore, the LORD said to me, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed, they are stiff-necked (stubborn, obstinate) people. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘Let Me alone, so that I may destroy them and wipe out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.’ ‡

<sup>15</sup> “So I turned and came down from the mountain while the mountain was burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “And I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God. You had made for yourselves a molten calf (idol). You had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.  [Ex 32:1–10 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> “So I took hold of the two tablets and threw them from my two hands and smashed them before your very eyes!

<sup>18</sup> “Then, as before, I fell down before the LORD for [another] forty days and forty nights; I did not eat food or drink water, because of all the sin you had committed by doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him to anger. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “For I was afraid of the anger and absolute fury which the LORD held against you, [enough divine fury] to destroy you, but the LORD listened to me that time also. ‡ <sup>20</sup> “The LORD was very angry with Aaron, angry [enough] to destroy him, so I also prayed for Aaron at the same time.

<sup>21</sup> “I took your sinful thing, the calf which you had made, and burned it in the fire and thoroughly crushed it, grinding the metal thoroughly until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that came down from the mountain. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “At Taberah also and at Massah and at Kibroth-hattaavah you provoked the LORD to wrath. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “And when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, ‘Go up and take possession of the land which I have given you,’ then you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God, and you did not believe and rely on Him, nor did you obey His voice. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “You have been rebellious against the LORD from the [first] day that I knew you. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “So I fell down and lay face down before the LORD forty days and nights because the LORD had said He would destroy you. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Then I prayed to the LORD and said, ‘O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people, even Your inheritance, whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought from Egypt with a mighty hand. ‡

<sup>27</sup> ‘Remember [with compassion] Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look at the stubbornness of this people or at their wickedness or at their sin,

<sup>28</sup> so that the [people of the] land from which You brought us will not say, “Because the LORD was not capable of bringing them into the land which He had promised them and because He hated them He has brought them out to the wilderness [in order] to kill them.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> ‘Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You have brought out by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm.’ ‡

Deuteronomy 10

The Tablets Rewritten

<sup>1</sup> “AT THAT time the LORD said to me, ‘Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me on the mountain, and make an ark (chest) of wood for yourself. ‡

<sup>2</sup> ‘I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you shattered, and you shall put them in the ark.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> “So I made an ark of acacia wood and cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hand. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “The LORD wrote on the tablets, like the first writing, the Ten Commandments which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly; then the LORD gave them to me. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Then I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and they are there, just as the LORD commanded me.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> From there they traveled to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water. ‡

<sup>8</sup> At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to serve Him and to bless in His name until this day. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, Levi does not have a portion or inheritance [of tribal land] with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, as the LORD your God has promised him.) ‡

<sup>10</sup> “And I stayed on the mountain, like the first time, forty days and nights, and the LORD listened to me at that time also; the LORD was not willing to destroy you. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go on your journey ahead of the people, so that they may go in and take possession of the land which I swore to their fathers to give to them.’ ‡

<sup>12</sup> “And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require from you, but to fear [and worship] the LORD your God [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect], to walk [that is, to live each and every day] in all His ways and to love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul [your choices, your thoughts, your whole being], ‡

<sup>13</sup> and to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I am commanding you today for your good? ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Behold, the heavens and the highest of heavens belong to the LORD your God, the earth and all that is in it. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “So circumcise [that is, remove sin from] your heart, and be stiff-necked (stubborn, obstinate) no longer. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For the LORD your God is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, the awesome God who does not show partiality nor take a bribe. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore, show your love for the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> “You shall fear [and worship] the LORD your God [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect]; you shall serve Him and cling to Him [hold tightly to Him, be united with Him], and you shall swear [oaths] by His name. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “He is your praise and glory; He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things which you have seen with your own eyes. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Your fathers went down to Egypt, seventy persons [in all], and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars of heaven. ‡

Deuteronomy 11

Rewards of Obedience

<sup>2</sup> “Know this day that I am not speaking to your children who have not known [by personal experience] and who have not seen [firsthand] the instruction and discipline of the LORD your God—His greatness, His mighty hand and His outstretched arm; ‡

<sup>3</sup> and His signs and His works which He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to all his land; ‡

<sup>4</sup> and what He did to the army of Egypt, to its horses and its chariots, when He made the water of the Red Sea engulf them as they pursued you, and how the LORD completely destroyed them; ‡

<sup>5</sup> and what He did to you in the wilderness until you came to this place;

<sup>6</sup> and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel.  [Num 26:9, 10 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> “For your eyes have seen all the great work of the LORD which He did. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, you shall keep all the commandments which I am commanding you today, so that you may be strong and go in and take possession of the land which you are crossing over [the Jordan] to possess; ‡

<sup>9</sup> so that you may live long on the land which the LORD swore (solemnly promised) to your fathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land [of great abundance,] flowing with milk and honey. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “For the land which you are entering to possess is not like the land of Egypt from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot like a garden of vegetables.

<sup>11</sup> “But the land into which you are about to cross to possess, a land of hills and valleys, drinks water from the rain of heaven, ‡

<sup>12</sup> a land for which the LORD your God cares; the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “It shall come about, if you listen obediently and pay attention to My commandments which I command you today—to love the LORD your God and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul [your choices, your thoughts, your whole being]— ‡

<sup>14</sup> that He will give the rain for your land in its season, the early [fall] rain and the late [spring] rain, so that you may gather in your grain and your new wine and your [olive] oil. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “And He will give grass in your fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Beware that your hearts are not deceived, and that you do not turn away [from the LORD] and serve other gods and worship them, ‡

<sup>17</sup> or [else] the LORD’s anger will be kindled and burn against you, and He will shut up the heavens so that there will be no rain and the land will not yield its fruit; and you will perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is giving you. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “Therefore, you shall impress these words of mine on your heart and on your soul, and tie them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as bands (frontals, frontlets) on your forehead. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, ‡

<sup>21</sup> so that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as long as the heavens are above the earth. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “For if you are careful to keep all this commandment which I am commanding you to do, to love the LORD your God, to walk [that is, to live each and every day] in all His ways and to hold tightly to Him— ‡

<sup>23</sup> then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than you. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “No man will be able to stand before you; the LORD your God will lay the fear and the dread of you on all the land on which you set foot, just as He has spoken to you. ‡

<sup>27</sup> the blessing, if you listen to and obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today; ‡

<sup>28</sup> and the curse, if you do not listen to and obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I am commanding you today, by following (acknowledging, worshiping) other gods which you have not known. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “It shall come about, when the LORD your God brings you into the land which you are entering to possess, that you shall place the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.  [Josh 8:30–35 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> “For you are about to cross the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall possess it and live in it, ‡

<sup>32</sup> and you shall be careful to do all the statutes and the judgments which I am setting before you today. ‡

Deuteronomy 12

Laws of the Sanctuary

<sup>1</sup> “THESE ARE the statutes and judgments (precepts) which you shall be careful to do in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess as long as you live on the earth. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “But you shall seek the LORD at the place which the LORD your God will choose out of all your tribes to establish His Name there for His dwelling [place], and there you shall come [to worship Him]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “There you shall bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the contribution of your hand, your votive (pledged, vowed) offerings, your freewill (voluntary) offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “And there you and your households shall eat before the LORD your God, and rejoice in all to which you put your hand, in which the LORD your God has blessed you. ‡

8 “You shall not do at all what we are doing here [in the camp] today, every man doing whatever is right in his [own] eyes. ‡

9 “For you have not yet come to the resting place and to the inheritance which the LORD your God is giving you.

10 “When you cross the Jordan and live in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies around you so that you live in security, ‡

11 then it shall come about that the place which the LORD your God will choose for His Name [and Presence] to dwell; there you shall bring everything that I am commanding you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes and the [voluntary] contribution of your hand [as a first gift from the fruits of the ground], and all your choice votive offerings which you vow to the LORD. ‡

12 “And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and your daughters, and your male and female servants, and the Levite who is within your [city] gates, since he has no portion or inheritance with you. ‡

13 “Be careful that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every [cultic] place you see, ‡

14 but [only] in the place which the LORD will choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do everything that I am commanding you. ‡

15 “However, you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your [city] gates, whatever you wish, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you [as His generous provision for daily life]. The [ceremonially] unclean and the clean may eat it, such as the gazelle and the deer. ‡

16 “Only you shall not eat the blood; you are to pour it out on the ground like water. ‡

17 “You are forbidden to eat within your [city] gates the tithe of your grain or new wine or oil, or the firstborn of your herd or flock, or any of your votive offerings, or your freewill offerings, or the contribution of your hand.

18 “But you shall eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God will choose, you and your son and your daughter, and your male and female servants, and the Levite who is within your [city] gates; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you undertake. ‡

19 “Be careful that you do not neglect the Levite [who serves God] as long as you live in your land. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “When the LORD your God extends your territory, as He promised you, and you say, ‘I will eat meat,’ because you want to eat meat, then you may eat meat, whatever you wish. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “If the place which the LORD your God chooses to put His Name (Presence) is too far away from you, then you may slaughter [animals] from your herd or flock which the LORD has given you, just as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your [city] gates whatever you wish.

<sup>22</sup> “Just as the gazelle or the deer is eaten, so you may eat it [but not make it an offering]; the [ceremonially] unclean and the clean alike may eat it. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.

<sup>25</sup> “You shall not eat it, so that all may be well with you and with your children after you, because you will be doing what is right in the sight of the LORD. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “However, you shall take your holy things which you have [to offer] and your votive (pledged, vowed) offerings, you shall take them and go to the place which the LORD will choose. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the meat. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Be careful to listen to all these words which I am commanding you, so that it may be well with you and with your children after you forever, because you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “When the LORD your God cuts off and destroys before you the nations which you are going in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and settle in their land, ‡

<sup>30</sup>-beware that you are not lured (ensnared) into following them, after they have been destroyed before you, and that you do not inquire about their gods, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their gods, so that I too may do likewise?’

<sup>31</sup> “You shall not behave this way toward the LORD your God, for they have done for their gods every repulsive thing which the LORD hates; for they even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire [as sacrifices] to their gods. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “Everything I command you, you shall be careful to do it; you shall not add to it nor take away from it. ‡

Deuteronomy 13

Shun Idolatry

1 “IF A prophet arises among you, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or a wonder,‡

2 and the sign or the wonder which he spoke (foretold) to you comes to pass, and if he says, ‘Let us follow after other gods (whom you have not known) and let us serve and worship them,’‡

3—you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams; for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and mind and all your soul [your entire being].‡

4 “You shall walk after the LORD your God and you shall fear [and worship] Him [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect], and you shall keep His commandments and you shall listen to His voice, and you shall serve Him, and cling to Him.‡

5.“But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has counseled rebellion against the LORD your God who brought you from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, to draw you away from the way in which the LORD your God has commanded you to walk. So you shall remove the evil from among you.‡

6 “If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you cherish, or your friend who is as [precious to you as] your own life (soul), entices you secretly, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods’ ( gods whom neither you nor your fathers have known,‡

7 of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near you or far from you, from one end of the earth to the other),

8 you shall not consent to him or listen to him; and your eye shall not pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him.‡

9.“Instead, you shall most certainly execute him; your hand shall be first [to be raised] against him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.‡

10 “So you shall stone him to death with stones, because he has tried to draw you away from the LORD your God who brought you from the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery.

11 “Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and will never again do such a wicked thing among you. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “If you hear [it said] in one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to live in, ‡

<sup>13</sup> that some worthless and evil men have gone out from among you and have tempted the inhabitants of their city [to sin], saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods’ (whom you have not known), ‡

<sup>14</sup> then you shall investigate and search out [witnesses] and ask thorough questions. If it is true and the matter is established that this loathsome thing has been done among you,

<sup>15</sup> you shall most certainly strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it and all that is in it, even its livestock with the edge of the sword. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Then you shall collect all its spoil (plunder) into the middle of its open square and burn the city and set fire to the spoil as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It shall be a ruin forever. It shall not be built again. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Nothing from that which is put under the ban (designated for destruction) shall cling to your hand, so that the LORD may turn away from His burning anger and show mercy to you, and have compassion on you and make you increase, just as He swore to your fathers, ‡

<sup>18</sup> because you have listened to and obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, keeping all His commandments which I am commanding you today, and doing what is right in the eyes of the LORD your God. ‡

Deuteronomy 14

Clean and Unclean Animals

<sup>1</sup> “YOU ARE the sons of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor shave your forehead for the sake of the dead, ‡

<sup>2</sup> for you are a holy people [set apart] to the LORD your God; and the LORD has chosen you out of all the peoples who are on the earth to be a people for His own possession. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You shall not eat anything that is detestable [to the LORD and forbidden by Him]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope and the mountain sheep.

<sup>6</sup> “Among the animals, you may eat any animal that has the divided hoof [that is, a hoof] split into two parts [especially at its distal extremity] and that chews the cud.

<sup>7</sup> “However, you are not to eat any of these [animals] among those which chew the cud, or among those that divide the hoof in two: the camel, the hare and the shaphan, for though they chew the cud, they do not split the hoof; they are unclean for you.

<sup>8</sup> “The swine, because it has a divided hoof but does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you. You shall not eat their meat nor touch their carcasses. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Of all [creatures] that are in the waters, you may eat these: anything that has fins and scales you may eat, ‡

<sup>10</sup> but you may not eat anything that does not have fins and scales; it is unclean for you.

<sup>12</sup> “But these are the ones which you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, and the black buzzard, ‡

<sup>13</sup> and the red kite, the falcon, and the birds of prey of any variety,

<sup>14</sup> and every raven of any variety,

<sup>18</sup> the stork, and the heron of any variety, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

<sup>19</sup> “And all flying insects are unclean for you; they shall not be eaten. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “You shall not eat anything that dies on its own. You may give it to the stranger (resident alien, foreigner) who is in your [city] gates, so that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner [since they are not under God’s law], but you are a people holy (set apart) to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat or a lamb in its mother’s milk. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Every year you shall certainly tithe [a tenth] of all the yield of your seed which is produced by your field. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “You shall eat the tithe (tenth) of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and your flock before the LORD your God in the place where He chooses to establish His Name (Presence), so that you may learn to fear [and worship] the LORD your God [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect] always. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “If the place where the LORD your God chooses to set His Name

(Presence) is a great distance from you and you are not able to carry your tithe, because the LORD your God has blessed you [with such an abundance], ‡

<sup>25</sup>then you shall exchange your tithe for money, and take the money in your hand and go to the place [of worship] which the LORD your God chooses.

<sup>26</sup>“You may spend the money for anything your heart desires: for oxen, or sheep, or wine, or [other] strong drink, or anything else you want. You shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice, you and your household. ‡

<sup>27</sup>“Also you shall not neglect the Levite who is within your [city] gates, for he does not have a share [of land] or an inheritance among you. ‡

<sup>28</sup>“At the end of every third year you shall bring out all the tithe of your produce for that year, and shall store it up within your [city] gates. ‡

<sup>29</sup>“The Levite, because he has no share [of land] or an inheritance among you, and the stranger, and the orphan and the widow who are within your [city] gates, shall come and eat and be satisfied, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ‡

Deuteronomy 15

The Sabbatical Year

<sup>2</sup>“This is the regulation for the release: every creditor shall forgive what he has loaned to his neighbor; he shall not require repayment from his neighbor and his brother, because the LORD’s release has been proclaimed.

<sup>4</sup>“However, there will be no poor among you, since the LORD will most certainly bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, ‡

<sup>5</sup>if only you will listen to and obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all these commandments which I am commanding you today. ‡

<sup>6</sup>“When the LORD your God blesses you as He has promised you, then you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; and you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you. ‡

7 “If there is a poor man among you, one of your fellow Israelites, in any of your cities in the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not be heartless, nor close-fisted with your poor brother; ‡

8 but you shall freely open your hand to him, and shall generously lend to him whatever he needs. ‡

9 “Beware that there is no wicked thought in your heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of release (remission, pardon), is approaching,’ and your eye is hostile (unsympathetic) toward your poor brother, and you give him nothing [since he would not have to repay you]; for he may cry out to the LORD against you, and it will become a sin for you. ‡

10 “You shall freely and generously give to him, and your heart shall not be resentful when you give to him, because for this [generous] thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all your undertakings. ‡

11 “For the poor will never cease to be in the land; therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall freely open your hand to your brother, to your needy, and to your poor in your land.’ ‡

12 “If your fellow Israelite, a Hebrew man or woman, is sold to you, and serves you for six years, then in the seventh year you shall set him free [from your service]. ‡

13 “When you set him free, you shall not let him go away empty-handed.

14 “You shall give him generous provisions from your flock, from your threshing floor and from your wine press; you shall give to him as the LORD your God has blessed you. ‡

15 “And you shall remember and thoughtfully consider that you were [once] a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore, I am commanding you these things today. ‡

16 “Now if the servant says to you, ‘I will not leave you,’ because he loves you and your household, since he is doing well with you; ‡

17 then take an awl and pierce it through his ear into the door, and he shall [willingly] be your servant always. Also you shall do the same for your maidservant.  [Ex 21:6 ]

18 “It shall not seem hard to you when you set him free, for he has served you six years with double the service of a hired man; so the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do. ‡

19 “You shall consecrate (set apart) to the LORD your God all the firstborn males that are born of your herd and flock. You shall not work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “You and your household shall eat it every year before the LORD your God in the place [for worship] which the LORD chooses. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “But if it has any defect or injury, such as lameness or blindness, or any serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “You shall eat it within your [city] gates; the [ceremonially] unclean and the clean alike may eat it, as [if it were] a gazelle or a deer. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Only you shall not eat its blood; you are to pour it out on the ground like water. ‡

Deuteronomy 16

The Feast of Passover

<sup>1</sup> “OBSERVE THE month of Abib and celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “You shall sacrifice the Passover [lamb] to the LORD your God from the flock or the herd, in the place where the LORD chooses to establish His Name (Presence). ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You shall not eat leavened bread with it; instead, for seven days you shall eat the Passover with unleavened bread, the bread of affliction (for you left the land of Egypt in haste); [do this] so that all the days of your life you may remember [thoughtfully] the day when you came out of the land of Egypt. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “For seven days no leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory, and none of the meat which you sacrificed the evening of the first day shall remain overnight until morning. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “You are not allowed to sacrifice the Passover [lamb] in any of your cities which the LORD your God is giving you;

<sup>6</sup>-but at the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His Name (Presence), you shall sacrifice the Passover [lamb] in the evening at sunset, at the time that you came out of Egypt. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “You shall cook and eat it in the place which the LORD your God chooses. In the morning you are to return to your tents. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a celebration to the LORD your God; so you shall do no work [on that day]. ‡

The Feast of Weeks

9. “You shall count seven weeks for yourself; you shall begin to count seven weeks from the time you first put the sickle to the standing grain. ‡

10 “Then you shall celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with a tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give [to Him] just as the LORD your God blesses you; ‡

11 and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter and your male and female servants and the Levite who is within your [city] gates, and the stranger and the orphan and the widow who are among you, at the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His Name (Presence). ‡

12 “You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall be careful to obey these statutes. ‡

The Feast of Booths

13. “You shall celebrate the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles) seven days, when you have gathered in [the grain] from your threshing floor and [the wine] from your wine vat. ‡

14 “You shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter and your male and female servants and the Levite and the stranger and the orphan and the widow who are within your city. ‡

15 “Seven days you shall celebrate a feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful. ‡

16 “Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses, at the Feast of Unleavened Bread (Passover) and at the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost) and at the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles), and they shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed. ‡

17 “Every man shall give as he is able, in accordance with the blessing which the LORD your God has given you. ‡

18 “You shall appoint judges and officers in all your cities (gates) which the LORD your God is giving you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. ‡

19. “You shall not distort justice; you shall not be partial, and you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “You shall pursue justice, and only justice [that which is uncompromisingly righteous], so that you may live and take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving you. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “You shall not plant for yourself an Asherah of any kind of tree or wood beside the altar of the LORD your God, which you shall make. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “You shall not set up for yourself a sacred pillar which the LORD your God hates. ‡

Deuteronomy 17

Administration of Justice

<sup>1</sup> “YOU SHALL not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or sheep with a blemish or any defect, for that is a detestable thing to the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “If there is discovered among you, within any of your cities, which the LORD your God is giving you, a man or a woman who does evil in the sight of the LORD your God, by transgressing (violating) His covenant, ‡

<sup>3</sup> and has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, or the sun or the moon or any of the heavenly host, [doing these things] which I have commanded not to do, ‡

<sup>4</sup> and if it is told to you and you hear about it, then you shall investigate thoroughly [all the charges]. If it is confirmed beyond doubt that this detestable thing has been done in Israel, ‡

<sup>5</sup> then you shall bring that man or that woman who has done this evil thing to the gates [of your city] and you shall stone the man or the woman to death. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “On the evidence of two or three witnesses, he who is to die shall be put to death; he shall not be put to death on the evidence of [only] one witness. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “The hand of the witnesses shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall remove the evil from among you. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “If any case is too difficult for you to judge—between one kind of homicide and another, between one kind of lawsuit and another, between one kind of assault and another, being controversial issues in your courts—then you shall arise and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “So you shall come to the Levitical priests or to the judge who is in office

at that time, and you shall consult them and they will declare to you the verdict in the case.‡

<sup>10</sup> “You shall act in accordance with the terms of the verdict which they declare to you from that place which the LORD chooses. You shall be careful to act in accordance with all of their instructions.

<sup>11</sup> “You shall act in accordance with the law which they teach you and the judgment which they tell you. You shall not turn aside from their verdict, to the right or to the left.

<sup>12</sup> “The man who acts presumptuously and insolently by not listening to the priest who stands there to serve the LORD your God, nor to the judge, that man shall die; so you shall remove the evil from Israel.‡

<sup>13</sup> “Then all the people will hear and be afraid, and will not act presumptuously again.‡

<sup>14</sup> “When you enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you take possession of it and live there, and you say, ‘I will set a king over me like all the nations who are around me,’‡

<sup>15</sup> you shall most certainly set a king over you whom the LORD your God chooses. You shall set a king over you from among your countrymen (brothers); you may not choose a foreigner [to rule] over you who is not your countryman.‡

<sup>16</sup> “Further, he shall not acquire many [war] horses for himself, nor make the people return to Egypt in order to acquire horses [to expand his military power], since the LORD said to you, ‘You shall never return that way again.’‡

<sup>17</sup> “He shall not acquire multiple wives for himself, or else his heart will turn away [from God]; nor [for the same reason] shall he acquire great amounts of silver and gold.‡

<sup>18</sup> “Now it shall come about when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself a copy of this law on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests.‡

<sup>19</sup> “And it shall be with him and he shall read it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear [and worship] the LORD his God [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect], by carefully obeying (keeping foremost in his thoughts and actively doing) all the words of this law and these statutes,‡

<sup>20</sup> so that his heart will not be lifted up above his countrymen [by a false sense of self-importance and self-reliance] and that he will not turn away (deviate) from the commandment, to the right or to the left, so that he and his sons may continue [to reign] for a long time in his kingdom in Israel.‡

Portion of the Levites

<sup>1</sup> “THE LEVITICAL priests, the entire tribe of Levi, shall own [privately] no portion [of land] or inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the LORD’s offerings by fire and His portion. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Now this shall be the priests’ portion from the people, from those offering a sacrifice, either an ox or a sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder and the two cheeks and the stomach. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “You shall also give him the first fruits of your grain, your new wine [the first of the season], and your [olive] oil, and the first sheared fleece of your sheep. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “For the LORD your God has chosen him, him and his sons from all your tribes, to stand and serve in the name of the LORD forever. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Now if a Levite comes from any of your cities throughout Israel where he resides, and comes whenever he wishes to [the sanctuary] the place which the LORD chooses; ‡

<sup>8</sup> “They shall have equal portions to eat, except what they receive from the sale of their fathers’ estates.  [Jer 32:6–15 ] ‡

Spiritism Forbidden

<sup>9</sup> “When you enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to imitate the detestable (repulsive) practices of those nations. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or daughter pass through the fire [as a sacrifice], one who uses divination and fortune-telling, one who practices witchcraft, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, ‡

<sup>11</sup> or one who casts a charm or spell, or a medium, or a spiritist, or a necromancer [who seeks the dead]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “For everyone who does these things is utterly repulsive to the LORD; and because of these detestable practices the LORD your God is driving them out before you. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “You shall be blameless (complete, perfect) before the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup> “For these nations which you shall dispossess listen to those who practice witchcraft and to diviners and fortune-tellers, but as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you to do so.

<sup>15</sup> “The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me [Moses] from among you, from your countrymen (brothers, brethren). You shall listen to him.  [Matt 21:11 ; John 1:21 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “This is according to all that you asked of the LORD your God at Horeb (Mount Sinai) on the day of the assembly, saying, ‘Let me not hear the voice of the LORD my God again, nor see this great fire anymore, so that I will not die.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “The LORD said to me, ‘They have spoken well. ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘I will raise up a prophet from among their countrymen like you, and I will put My words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘It shall come about that whoever will not listen to My words which he shall speak in My name, I Myself will require it of him [and there will be consequences]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name which I have not commanded him to speak, or which he speaks in the name of other gods—that prophet shall die.’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> “If you say in your heart, ‘How will we know and recognize the word which the LORD has not spoken?’

<sup>22</sup> “When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD and the thing does not happen or come true, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him. ‡

Deuteronomy 19

Cities of Refuge

<sup>1</sup> “WHEN THE LORD your God cuts off (destroys) the nations whose land He is giving you, and you dispossess them and live in their cities and in their houses, ‡

<sup>2</sup> you shall designate three cities for yourself in the central area of the land, which the LORD your God is giving you to possess. ‡

3 “You shall prepare and maintain for yourself the roads [to these cities], and divide the territory of your land into three parts, so that anyone who kills another unintentionally may escape there [for asylum].

4 “Now this is the case of the offender (manslayer) who may escape there and live [protected from vengeance]: when he kills his neighbor unintentionally, not having hated him previously—‡

5 as [for example] when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand swings the axe to cut down the tree, but the iron head slips off the wooden handle and hits his companion and he dies—the offender may escape to one of these cities and live;

6 otherwise the avenger of blood might pursue the offender in the heat of anger, and overtake him, because it is a long way, and take his life, even though he did not deserve to die, since he did not hate his neighbor beforehand.‡

7 “Therefore, I command you, saying, ‘You shall set aside three cities [of refuge] for yourself.’

8 “If the LORD your God enlarges your border, as He has sworn to your fathers to do, and gives you all the land which He promised to give to your fathers—‡

9 if you keep and carefully observe all these commandments which I am commanding you today, to love the LORD your God, and to walk [that is, to live each and every day] always in His ways—then you shall add three more cities [of refuge] for yourself, besides these three,‡

10 so that innocent blood will not be shed [by blood avengers] in your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and blood guilt will not be on you [for the death of an innocent man].

11 “But if there is a man who hates his neighbor and lies in wait and ambush for him and attacks him and strikes him down so that he dies, and the assailant escapes to one of these cities,‡

12 then the elders of his own city shall send for him and have him taken back from there and turn him over to the avenger of blood, so that he may be put to death.

13 “You shall not pity him [the guilty one], but you shall purge the blood of the innocent from Israel, so that it may go well with you.‡

Laws of Landmark and Testimony

14 “You shall not move your neighbor’s boundary mark, which the forefathers [who first divided the territory] have set, in the land which you will inherit in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess. ‡

15 “A single witness shall not appear in a trial against a man for any wrong or any sin which he has committed; [only] on the testimony or evidence of two or three witnesses shall a charge be confirmed. ‡

16 “If a malicious witness rises up against a man to [falsely] accuse him of wrongdoing, ‡

17 then both parties to the controversy shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who will be in office at that time. ‡

18 “The judges shall investigate thoroughly, and if the witness is a false witness, and he has accused his brother falsely,

19 then you shall do to him just as he had intended to do to his brother. So you shall remove the evil from among you. ‡

20 “Those who remain will hear and be afraid, and will never again do such an evil thing among you. ‡

21 “You shall not show pity [to the guilty one]: it shall be life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot. ‡

Deuteronomy 20

Laws of Warfare

1 “WHEN YOU go out to battle against your enemies and see horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you. ‡

2 “When you approach the battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the people,

3 and shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel: you are advancing today to battle against your enemies. Do not lack courage. Do not be afraid, or panic, or tremble [in terror] before them,

4 for the LORD your God is He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’  [1 Sam 17:45 ] ‡

5 “The officers shall also speak to the soldiers, saying, ‘What man is there who has built a new house and has not yet dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would dedicate it.‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘What man has planted a vineyard and has not put it to use [harvesting its fruit]? Let him go and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would begin to use its fruit.

<sup>7</sup> ‘And who is the man who is engaged (legally promised) to a woman and has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would marry her.’‡

<sup>8</sup> “Then the officers shall speak further to the soldiers and say, ‘Who is the man who is afraid and lacks courage? Let him go and return to his house, so that he does not cause his brothers’ courage to fail like his own.’‡

<sup>9</sup> “And it shall be when the officers have finished speaking to the soldiers, they shall appoint commanders of armies over them.

<sup>10</sup> “When you advance to a city to fight against it, you shall [first] offer it terms of peace.‡

<sup>11</sup> “If that city accepts your terms of peace and opens its gates to you, then all the people who are found in it shall become your forced labor and shall serve you.

<sup>12</sup> “However, if it does not make peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall lay siege to it.

<sup>13</sup> “When the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall strike down all the men in it with the edge of the sword.‡

<sup>14</sup> “Only the women and the children and the animals and everything that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall take as plunder for yourself; and you shall use the spoil of your enemies which the LORD your God has given you.‡

<sup>15</sup> “That is what you shall do to all the cities that are very far away from you, which are not among the cities of these nations nearby [which you are to dispossess].

<sup>16</sup> “Only in the cities of these peoples that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, you shall not leave alive anything that breathes.‡

<sup>17</sup> “But you shall utterly destroy them, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you,

<sup>18</sup> so that they will not teach you to act in accordance with all the detestable practices which they have done [in worship and service] for their gods, and in this way cause you to sin against the LORD your God.‡

<sup>19</sup> “When you besiege a city for a long time, making war against it in order to capture it, you shall not destroy its [fruit-bearing] trees by swinging an axe against them; for you may eat from them, and you shall not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man, that it should be besieged (destroyed) by you?

<sup>20</sup> “Only the trees which you know are not fruit trees shall you destroy and cut down, so that you may build siegeworks against the city that is making war with you until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21

Expiation of a Crime

<sup>1</sup> “IF SOMEONE is found slain, lying in the field, in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess, and it is not known who has killed him, <sup>2</sup> then your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distance to the cities which are around the dead person.

<sup>3</sup> “It shall be that the elders of the city which is nearest to the dead man shall take a heifer of the herd, one which has not been worked and which has not pulled in a yoke;

<sup>4</sup> and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a [river] valley with running water, which has not been plowed or planted, and shall break the heifer’s neck there in the valley.

<sup>5</sup> “Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall approach, for the LORD your God has chosen them to serve Him and to bless in the Name (Presence) of the LORD; and every dispute and every assault (violent crime) shall be settled by them. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “All the elders of that city nearest to the dead man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley; ‡

<sup>7</sup> and they shall respond, and say, ‘Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it.

<sup>8</sup> ‘Forgive Your people Israel whom You have redeemed, O LORD, and do not put the guilt of innocent blood among Your people Israel.’ And the guilt of blood shall be forgiven them. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “So shall you remove the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD. ‡

Domestic Relations

<sup>10</sup> “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you lead them away captive,

<sup>11</sup> and you see a beautiful woman among the captives, and desire her and would take her as your wife,

<sup>12</sup> then you shall bring her [home] to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails [in preparation for mourning].

<sup>13</sup> “She shall take off the clothes of her captivity and remain in your house, and weep (mourn) for her father and her mother a full month. After that you may go in to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “But it shall be that if you have no delight and take no pleasure in her, then you shall let her go wherever she wishes. You certainly shall not sell her for money; you shall not deal with her as a slave or mistreat her, because you have humbled her [by forced marriage]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “If a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and both the loved and the unloved have born him sons, and the firstborn son belongs to the unloved wife, ‡

<sup>16</sup> then on the day when he wills his possessions to his sons, he cannot treat the son of his loved wife as firstborn in place of the son of the unloved wife —the [actual] firstborn. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Instead he shall acknowledge the son of the unloved as the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he was the beginning of his strength (generative power); to him belongs the right of the firstborn. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “If any man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or of his mother, and when they reprimand and discipline him, he will not listen to them,

<sup>19</sup> then his father and mother shall take hold of him, and bring him out to the elders of his city at the gateway of his hometown.

<sup>20</sup> “They shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey us, he is a glutton and a drunkard.’  [Prov 23:20–22 ]

<sup>21</sup> “Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death; so you shall remove the evil from among you, and all Israel will hear of it and be afraid. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And if a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and he is put to death and [afterward] you hang him on a tree [as a public example],  [Josh 10:26, 27 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> his body shall not hang all night on the tree, but you shall most certainly bury him on the same day (for he who is hanged is cursed by God), so that you do not defile your land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance.  [Gal 3:13 ] ‡

Deuteronomy 22

Various Laws

1 “YOU SHALL not see your countryman’s ox or his sheep straying away or being stolen, and ignore [your duty to help] them; you shall certainly take them back to him.  [Prov 24:12 ] ‡ Major Social Concerns in the Covenant

2 “If your countryman is not nearby or you do not know him, you shall bring the animal to your house, and it shall stay with you until he searches for it; then you shall return it to him.

3 “You shall do this with his donkey or with his garment or with anything that your countryman has lost and you have found. You are not allowed to ignore [your duty to help] them.

4 “You shall not see your countryman’s donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and ignore [your duty to help] them; you shall certainly help him lift it up. ‡

5 “A woman shall not wear a man’s clothing, nor shall a man put on a woman’s clothing; for whoever does these things is utterly repulsive to the LORD your God.

6 “If you happen to come upon a bird’s nest along the road, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the mother [bird] is sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young. ‡

7 “You shall certainly let the mother go, but you may take the young for yourself, so that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days. ‡

8. “When you build a new house, you shall make a railing (parapet) around your [flat] roof, so that you do not bring the guilt of [innocent] blood on your house if someone falls from it.

9 “You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, or everything produced by the seed which you have sown and the yield of the vineyard will become defiled [and banned for use]. ‡

10 “You shall not plow with an ox [a clean animal] and a donkey [an unclean animal] together.  [2 Cor 6:14–16 ] ‡

11 “You shall not wear a fabric made of wool and linen blended together [a fabric pagans believed to be magical].  [Ezek 44:18; Rev 19:8. ] ‡

12 “You shall make tassels for yourself on the four corners of your outer garment with which you cover yourself.  [Num 15:37–40. ] ‡

Laws on Morality

13 “If any man takes a wife and goes in to her and then scorns and hates her,

14 —and charges her [without cause] with shameful behavior and publicly defames her, and says, ‘I took this woman, but when I approached her, I did not find in her evidence of virginity,’

15 then the young woman’s father and her mother shall get and bring out the evidence of her virginity to the elders of the city at the gate [where court is held].

16 “The father of the young woman shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man as a wife, but he hates her and has turned against her;

17 and behold, he has made baseless charges against her, saying, “I did not find in your daughter the evidence of her virginity.” But this is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity.’ And they shall spread out the garment before the elders of the city.

18 “Then the elders of that city shall take the man and reprimand him,

19 and they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give it to the father of the young woman, because he publicly defamed a virgin of Israel. And she shall remain his wife; he is not allowed to divorce her as long as he lives.

20 “But if this charge is true that the evidence of virginity was not found in the young woman,

21 then they shall bring her out to the doorway of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death because she has committed a deliberate sin in Israel by playing the prostitute in her father’s house. So you shall remove the evil from among you. ‡

22 “If a man is intimate with a woman who is another man’s wife, they shall both be put to death, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman. So you shall remove the evil from Israel. ‡

23 “If a young woman who is a virgin is engaged (legally betrothed) to a man, and another man finds her in the city and is intimate with her, ‡

24 then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city and stone them to death—the young woman because she did not cry out for help [though she was] in the city, and the man because he has violated his neighbor's [promised] wife. So you shall remove the evil from among you. ‡

<sup>25</sup> "However, if the man finds the girl who is engaged (legally betrothed) in the [open] field, and seizes her and is intimate with her [by force], then only the man who lies with her shall be put to death.

<sup>26</sup> "But you shall do nothing to the young woman; she has committed no sin worthy of death, for this is the same as when a man attacks his neighbor and murders him.

<sup>27</sup> When he found her in the [open] field, the engaged girl [may have] cried out for help, but there was no one to [hear and] save her.

<sup>28</sup> "If a man finds a girl who is a virgin, who is not engaged, and seizes her and is intimate with her and they are discovered, ‡

Deuteronomy 23

Persons Excluded from the Assembly

<sup>1</sup> "HE WHO has been castrated by having his testicles crushed or his male organ cut off shall not enter the congregation of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> "A person of illegitimate birth shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; none of his descendants, even to the tenth generation.

<sup>3</sup> "An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; none of their descendants, even to the tenth generation, shall ever enter the assembly of the LORD, ‡

<sup>4</sup> because they did not meet you with bread (food) and water on the road as you came out of Egypt, and because they hired [to act] against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. ‡

<sup>5</sup> "Nevertheless, the LORD your God was not willing to listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you because the LORD your God has loved you.

descendant]. You shall not detest an Egyptian, because you were a stranger (resident alien, foreigner) in his land. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Their children of the third generation who are born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “When you go out as an army [to fight] against your enemies, you shall keep yourselves from every evil [thing].

<sup>10</sup> “If there is any man among you who is [ceremonially] unclean because of nocturnal emission, then he must go outside the camp; he shall not come back to the camp. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “But when evening comes, he shall bathe in water, and at sundown he may return to the camp. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “You shall also have a place outside the camp to which you may go,

<sup>13</sup> and you shall have a spade among your tools, and when you [prepare to] sit down outside [to relieve yourself], you shall dig a hole with it and shall turn and cover up your waste.

<sup>14</sup> “Since the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp to rescue you and to defeat your enemies before you, therefore your camp must be holy (undefiled); and He must not see anything indecent among you or He will turn away from you. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “You shall not hand over to his master a slave who has escaped from his master to you. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “He shall live among you, in the place he chooses in one of your cities where it pleases him; you shall not mistreat or oppress him. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “There shall be no cult prostitute among the daughters of Israel, nor shall there be a cult prostitute (a sodomite) among the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “You shall not bring the wages of a prostitute or the price of a dog [that is, a male prostitute] into the house of the LORD your God as payment for any vow, for both of these [the gift and the giver] are utterly repulsive to the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup> “You shall not charge interest to your fellow Israelite—interest on money, food or anything that may be loaned for interest. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “You may charge interest to a foreigner, but to your fellow Israelite you shall not charge interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you undertake in the land which you are about to enter to possess. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay to pay it, for He will most certainly require it of you, and a delay would cause you to sin. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “But if you refrain from making a vow, that would not be [counted as] sin in you.

<sup>23</sup> “You shall be careful to perform that [vow] which passes your lips, just as you have made a voluntary vow to the LORD your God, just as you have promised with your own words (mouth). ‡ <sup>24</sup> “When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, as many as you please, but you shall not put any in your basket [to take with you].

<sup>25</sup> “When you come into the standing grain of your neighbor, you may pluck the ears of grain with your hand, but you shall not wield a sickle in your neighbor’s standing grain [to harvest it]. ‡

Deuteronomy 24

Law of Divorce

<sup>1</sup> “WHEN A man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she loses his favor because he has found something indecent or unacceptable about her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, ‡

<sup>3</sup> and if the latter husband turns against her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her as his wife,

<sup>4</sup> then her former husband who [first] sent her away may not take her again as his wife, since she has been defiled; for that is an outrage before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out [to fight] with the army nor be charged with any duty; he shall be free at home for one year and shall bring happiness to his wife whom he has taken. ‡

Various Laws

<sup>6</sup> “No one shall take a handmill or an upper millstone [used to grind grain into bread] as security [for a debt], for he would be taking a [person’s] life in pledge.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man is caught kidnapping any of his countrymen from the sons of Israel, and he treats him violently or sells him [as a slave], then that thief shall die. So you shall remove the evil from among you. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Be careful during an outbreak of leprosy, that you diligently observe and do according to all that the Levitical priests teach you; just as I have commanded them, so you shall be careful to do.  [Lev 13:14, 15. ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> “When you lend your neighbor anything, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge (security deposit).

<sup>11</sup> “You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you lend shall bring the pledge out to you.

<sup>12</sup> “If the man is poor, you shall not keep his pledge overnight.

<sup>13</sup> “You shall certainly restore the pledge (security deposit) to him at sunset, so that he may sleep in his garment and bless you; and it will be credited to you as righteousness (right standing) before the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “You shall give him his wages on the day that he earns them before the sun sets—for he is poor and is counting on it—so that he does not cry out to the LORD against you, and it becomes a sin for you. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “You shall not pervert the justice due a stranger or an orphan, nor seize (impound) a widow’s garment as security [for a loan]. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “When you reap your harvest in your field and have forgotten a sheaf [of grain] in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be for the stranger, for the orphan, and for the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward; it shall be for the stranger, for the orphan, and for the widow.

<sup>22</sup> “You shall [thoughtfully] remember [the fact] that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing. ‡

Deuteronomy 25

Various Laws

<sup>1</sup> “IF THERE is a controversy between men, and they go to court, and the judges decide [the issue] between them, and they judge in favor of the innocent and condemn the guilty, ‡

<sup>2</sup> then it shall be that if the guilty man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall make him lie down and be beaten in his presence with a [certain] number of stripes in proportion to his offense. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “He may have him beaten forty times, but no more. He is not to be beaten with more stripes than these and he is not to be degraded [that is, treated like an animal] in your sight. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing [to prevent him from eating any of the grain].  [1 Cor 9:9, 10; 1 Tim 5:17, 18 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> “It shall be that her firstborn [son] will be given the name of the dead brother, so that his name will not be blotted out of Israel. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But if the man does not want to marry his brother’s [widowed] wife, then she shall go up to the gate [of the city, where court is held] to the elders, and say, ‘My brother-in-law refuses to continue his brother’s name in Israel; he is not willing to perform the duty of a husband’s brother.’ ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Then the elders of his city will summon him and speak to him. And if he stands firm and says, ‘I do not want to marry her,’ ‡

<sup>9</sup> then his brother’s widow shall approach him in the presence of the elders, and pull his sandal off his foot and spit in his face; and she shall answer and say, ‘So it is done to that man who does not build up his brother’s household.’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> “In Israel his [family] name shall be, ‘The house of him whose sandal was removed.'

<sup>13</sup> "You shall not have in your bag inaccurate weights, a heavy and a light [so you can cheat others]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> "You shall not have in your house inaccurate measures, a large and a small.

<sup>15</sup> "You shall have a perfect (full) and just weight, and a perfect and just measure, so that your days may be long in the land which the LORD your God gives you. ‡

<sup>16</sup> "For everyone who does such things, everyone who acts unjustly [without personal integrity] is utterly repulsive to the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>18</sup> how he met you along the road and attacked all the stragglers at your rear when you were tired and weary; and he did not fear God.  [Ex 17:14 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> "Therefore when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your surrounding enemies, in the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance to possess, you shall wipe out the memory of Amalek from under heaven; you must not forget. ‡

Deuteronomy 26

Offering First Fruits

<sup>1</sup> "THEN IT shall be, when you enter the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, and you take possession of it and live in it,

<sup>2</sup> that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His Name (Presence). ‡

<sup>3</sup> "You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and say to him, 'I declare this day to the LORD my God that I have entered the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.'

<sup>4</sup> "Then the priest will take the basket from you and place it before the altar of the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup>“And you shall say before the LORD your God, ‘My father [Jacob] was a wandering Aramean, and he [along with his family] went down to Egypt and lived there [as strangers], few in number; but while there he became a great, mighty and populous nation.’‡

<sup>6</sup>‘And the Egyptians treated us badly and oppressed us, and imposed hard labor on us.’‡

<sup>7</sup>‘Then we cried out to the LORD, the God of our fathers for help, and He heard our voice and saw our suffering and our labor and our [cruel] oppression;’‡

<sup>8</sup>and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm and with great terror [suffered by the Egyptians] and with signs and with wonders;‡

<sup>9</sup>and He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.‡

<sup>10</sup>‘And now, look, I have brought the first of the produce of the ground which You, O LORD, have given me.’ And you shall place it before the LORD your God, and shall worship before the LORD your God;

<sup>11</sup>and you and the Levite and the stranger (resident alien, foreigner) among you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given you and your household.‡

<sup>12</sup>“When you have finished paying all the tithe of your produce the third year, [which is] the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the stranger, to the orphan, and to the widow, so that they may eat within the gates of your cities and be satisfied.‡

<sup>13</sup>“You shall say before the LORD your God, ‘I have removed the sacred portion (the tithe) from my house and also have given it to the Levite, to the stranger, to the orphan, and to the widow, in accordance with all that You have commanded me. I have not transgressed or forgotten any of Your commandments.’‡

<sup>14</sup>‘I have not eaten from the tithe while mourning, nor have I removed any of it when I was [ceremonially] unclean [making the tithe ceremonially unclean], nor offered any of it to the dead. I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have done everything in accordance with all that You have commanded me.‡

<sup>15</sup>‘Look down from Your holy dwelling above, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel, and the land which You have given us, as You have sworn to our fathers, a land [of plenty] flowing with milk and honey.’‡

16 “This day the LORD your God commands you to do these statutes and judgments (precepts). Therefore, you shall be careful to do them with all your heart and with all your soul (your entire being).

17 “Today you have [openly] declared the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk [that is, live each and every day] in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments, and His judgments (precepts), and listen to His voice. ‡

18 “Today the LORD has declared that you are His people, His treasured possession, just as He promised you, and that you are to keep all His commandments; ‡

19 and that He will set you high above all the nations which He has made, for praise, fame, and honor: and that you shall be a holy people [set apart and consecrated] to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken.” ‡

Deuteronomy 27

The Altar at Mount Ebal

1 THEN MOSES and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, “Keep (remember, obey) all the commandments which I am commanding you today.

2 “So it shall be on the day when you cross the Jordan to [enter] the land which the LORD your God gives you, that you shall set up for yourself large stones and coat them with plaster (lime, whitewash). ‡

3 “You shall write on the stones all the words of this law when you cross over, so that you may go into the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land [of plenty] flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers has promised you.

4 “Now when you cross the Jordan you shall set up these stones on Mount Ebal, just as I am commanding you today and coat them with plaster. ‡

5 “There you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not use an iron tool on them. ‡

6 “You shall build the altar of the LORD your God with whole [uncut] stones, and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God;

7—and you shall sacrifice peace offerings and shall eat there, and shall rejoice before the LORD your God.

8 “And you shall write very clearly on the stones all the words of this law.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses and the Levitical priests said to all Israel, “Be silent and listen, O Israel! This day you have become a people for the LORD your God.

<sup>10</sup> “So you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, and do His commandments and statutes which I am commanding you today.”

The Curses of Mount Ebal

<sup>11</sup> Moses also commanded the people that day, saying,

<sup>12</sup> “These [tribes] shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people when you have crossed the Jordan: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “The Levites shall answer with a loud voice to all the men of Israel: ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘Cursed is the man who makes a carved or cast image (idol), a repulsive thing to the LORD, the work of the hands of the artisan, and sets it up in secret.’ All the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘Cursed is he who dishonors (treats with contempt) his father or his mother.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘Cursed is he who moves his neighbor’s boundary mark.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘Cursed is he who misleads a blind person on the road.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘Cursed is he who distorts (perverts) the justice due to a stranger, an orphan, and a widow.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘Cursed is he who is intimate with his father’s [former] wife, because he has violated what belongs to his father.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘Cursed is he who is intimate with any animal.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘Cursed is he who is intimate with his [half] sister, whether his father’s or his mother’s daughter.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>23</sup> ‘Cursed is he who is intimate with his mother-in-law.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>24</sup> ‘Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>25</sup> ‘Cursed is he who accepts a bribe to strike down an innocent person.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘Cursed is he who does not confirm the words of this law by doing them [keeping them, taking them to heart as the rule of his life].’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ ‡

Deuteronomy 28

Blessings at Gerizim

<sup>1</sup> “NOW IT shall be, if you diligently listen to and obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all of His commandments which I am commanding you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “All these blessings will come upon you and overtake you if you pay attention to the voice of the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You will be blessed in the city, and you will be blessed in the field. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “The offspring of your body and the produce of your ground and the offspring of your animals, the offspring of your herd and the young of your flock will be blessed. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Your basket and your kneading bowl will be blessed.

<sup>6</sup> “You will be blessed when you come in and you will be blessed when you go out. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD will cause the enemies who rise up against you to be defeated before you; they will come out against you one way, but flee before you seven ways. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “The LORD will command the blessing upon you in your storehouses and in all that you undertake, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “The LORD will establish you as a people holy [and set apart] to Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk [that is, live your life each and every day] in His ways. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “So all the peoples of the earth will see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they will be afraid of you. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “The LORD will give you great prosperity, in the offspring of your body and in the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “The LORD will open for you His good treasure house, the heavens, to give rain to your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hand; and you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “The LORD will make you the head (leader) and not the tail (follower); and you will be above only, and you will not be beneath, if you listen and pay attention to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today, to observe them carefully. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Do not turn aside from any of the words which I am commanding you today, to the right or to the left, to follow and serve other gods. ‡

Consequences of Disobedience

<sup>15</sup> “But it shall come about, if you do not listen to and obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all His commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today, then all these curses will come upon you and overtake you: ‡

<sup>16</sup> “You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the field.

<sup>17</sup> “Your basket and your kneading bowl will be cursed.

<sup>18</sup> “The offspring of your body and the produce of your land, the offspring of your herd and the young of your flock will be cursed.

<sup>19</sup> “You will be cursed when you come in and you will be cursed when you go out.

<sup>20</sup> “The LORD will send upon you curses, confusion, and rebuke in everything that you undertake to do, until you are destroyed, perishing quickly because of the evil of your deeds, because you have turned away from Me. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “The LORD will make the pestilence and plague cling to you until He has consumed and eliminated you from the land which you are entering to possess. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “The LORD will strike you with consumption [causing you to waste away] and with fever and with inflammation and with fiery heat and with the sword and with blight and with mildew [on your crops]; and they will pursue you until you perish. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “The heaven which is over your head shall be bronze [giving no rain and blocking all prayers], and the earth which is under you, iron [hard to plow and yielding no produce]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust; from heaven it will come down on you until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup> “The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you will go out against them one way, but flee before them seven ways, and you will be an example of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth [when they see your destruction].  [2 Chr 29:8 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Your carcasses will be food for all the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors and with the scab and the itch that you cannot heal. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “The LORD will strike you with madness and with blindness and with bewilderment of heart and mind; ‡

<sup>29</sup> and you will be groping at noon [in broad daylight], just as the blind grope in the darkness, and nothing you do will prosper; but you will only be oppressed and exploited and robbed continually, with no one to save you. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “You will be pledged to marry a wife, but another man will be intimate with her [before you]; you will build a house, but you will not live in it; you will plant a vineyard, but you will not use its fruit. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat any of it; your donkey will be torn away from you, and it will not be returned to you; your sheep will be given to your enemies, and you will have no one to save you.

<sup>32</sup> “Your sons and daughters will be given to another people, while your eyes look on and long for them continually; but there will be nothing you can do.  [2 Chr 29:9 ] ‡

<sup>33</sup> “A people whom you do not know will eat the produce of your land and all the products of your labors, and you will never be anything but oppressed and exploited and crushed continually.  [Judg 6:1–6 ; 13:1 ] ‡

<sup>35</sup> “The LORD will strike you on the knees and on the legs with sore boils that you cannot heal, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.

<sup>36</sup> “The LORD will bring you and your king, whom you appoint over you, to a nation which you and your fathers have never known; there you will [be forced to] serve other gods, [lifeless gods of] wood and stone.  [2 Kin 17:4 , 6 ; 24:12 , 14 ; 25:7 , 11 ; Dan 6:11 , 12 ] ‡

<sup>37</sup> “And you will become a horror, a proverb [a mere object lesson], and a taunt [a derisive joke] among all the people to which the LORD drives you. ‡

<sup>38</sup> “You will bring out a great quantity of seed to the field, but you will gather in little, because the locusts will consume it.  [Hag 1:6 ] ‡

<sup>39</sup> “You will plant vineyards and cultivate them, but you will not drink the wine or gather the grapes, because the worm will eat them.

<sup>40</sup> “You will have olive trees throughout your territory but you will not anoint yourselves with the oil, because your olives will drop off.

<sup>41</sup> “You will have sons and daughters, but they will not be yours [for long], because they will go into captivity.  [Lam 1:5 ] ‡

<sup>42</sup> “The cricket will take possession of all your trees and the produce of your ground.  [Joel 1:4 ]

<sup>43</sup> “The stranger who lives among you will rise above you higher and higher, and you will go down lower and lower.

<sup>44</sup> “He will lend to you [out of his affluence], but you will not lend to him [because of your poverty]; he will be the head, and you the tail. ‡

<sup>45</sup> “So all these curses will come on you and pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God by keeping His commandments and His statutes which He has commanded you. ‡

<sup>46</sup> “They will be a sign and a wonder to you and your descendants forever. ‡

<sup>47</sup> “Because you did not serve the LORD your God with a heart full of joy and gladness for the abundance of all things [with which He blessed you], ‡

<sup>48</sup> you will therefore serve your enemies whom the LORD sends against you, in hunger and in thirst, in nakedness and in lack of all things; and He will put an iron yoke [of slavery] on your neck until He has destroyed you. ‡

<sup>49</sup> “The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away, from the end of the earth, [as swift] as the eagle swoops down [to attack], a nation whose language you will not understand, ‡

<sup>51</sup> and it will eat the offspring of your herd and the produce of your ground until you are destroyed, who will leave you no grain, new wine, or oil, nor the offspring of your herd or the young of your flock until they have caused you to perish. ‡

<sup>52</sup> “They will besiege you in all your cities until your high and fortified walls in which you trusted come down throughout your land; and they will besiege you in all your cities throughout your land which the LORD your God has given you. ‡

<sup>53</sup> “Then you will eat the offspring of your own body [to avoid starvation], the flesh of your sons and daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, during the siege and the misery by which your enemy will oppress you.  [2 Kin 6:24–29. ] ‡

54 “The man who is most refined and well-bred among you will be cruel and hostile toward his brother and toward the wife he cherishes and toward the rest of his children who remain, ‡

55 so that he will not give even one of them any of the flesh of his children which he will eat, because he has nothing else left, during the siege and the misery by which your enemy will oppress you in all your cities.

56 “The most refined and well-bred woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because she is so delicate and pampered, will be cruel and hostile toward the husband she cherishes and toward her son and daughter, ‡

57 and toward her afterbirth that comes from between her legs and toward the children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of anything else, during the siege and the misery by which your enemy will oppress you in your cities. ‡

58 “If you are not careful to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, to fear and honor with reverence this glorious and awesome name, the LORD your God, ‡

59 then the LORD will bring extraordinary plagues on you and your descendants, even severe and lasting plagues, and miserable and chronic sicknesses. ‡

60 “Moreover, He will bring on you all the diseases of Egypt of which you were afraid, and they will cling to you. ‡

61 “Also the LORD will bring on you every sickness and every plague which is not written in this book of this law, until you are destroyed.

62 “Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God, you who were as numerous as the stars of heaven shall be left few in number. ‡

63 “It shall come about that just as the LORD delighted over you to make you prosper and multiply, so the LORD will delight over you to bring you to ruin and destruction; and you will be uprooted [violently] from the land which you are entering to possess. ‡

64 “And the LORD will scatter you among all the nations, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you will [be forced to] serve other gods, [lifeless gods of] wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known.  [Dan 3:6. ] ‡

65 “Among those nations you will find no peace (rest), and there will be no resting place for the sole of your foot; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a despairing soul.‡

<sup>66</sup> “Your life will hang in doubt before you; night and day you will be filled with anxiety and have no assurance of living.

<sup>67</sup> “In the morning you will say, ‘I wish it were evening!’ and in the evening you will say, ‘I wish it were morning!’—because of the dread in your heart with which you tremble, and because of the sight of your eyes which you will see.‡

<sup>68</sup> “The LORD will bring you back to Egypt in ships, by the way about which I said to you, ‘You will never see it again!’ And there you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no one to buy you.  [Hos 8:13 ]‡

The Covenant in Moab

<sup>1</sup> THESE ARE the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant which He made with them at Horeb (Sinai). ‡

<sup>2</sup> Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, “You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his servants, and to all his land; ‡

<sup>3</sup> the great trials [of Pharaoh] which your eyes have seen, the signs and those great wonders. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a heart and mind to understand, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “I have led you in the wilderness forty years; your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or strong drink, so that you might know that I am the LORD your God [on whom you must depend]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “When you reached this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us in battle, but we defeated them; ‡

<sup>8</sup> and we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “So keep the words of this covenant and obey them, so that you may prosper and be successful in everything that you do. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “All of you stand today before the LORD your God—your chiefs, your tribes, your elders and your officers, even all the men of Israel,

<sup>11</sup> your little ones, your wives, and the stranger (resident alien, foreigner) who is in your camps, from the one who chops and gathers your firewood to the one who draws your water— ‡

<sup>12</sup> so that you may enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, and into His oath and agreement which the LORD your God is making with you today, ‡

<sup>13</sup> so that He may establish you today as His people and that He may be your God, just as He spoke to you and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “It is not with you alone that I am making this covenant and this oath, ‡

<sup>15</sup> but with those [future Israelites] who are not here with us today, as well as with those who stand here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God ‡

<sup>16</sup> (for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we passed through the nations along the way;

<sup>17</sup> and you have seen their detestable acts and their [repulsive] idols of wood and stone, [lifeless images] of silver and gold, which they had with them),

<sup>18</sup> so that there will not be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the [false] gods of these nations; so that there will not be among you a root [of idolatry] bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood (bitterness). ‡

<sup>19</sup> “It will happen that when he (a renegade) hears the words of this oath, and he imagines himself as blessed, saying, ‘I will have peace and safety even though I walk within the stubbornness of my heart [rejecting God and His law], in order that the watered land dwindles away along with the dry [destroying everything],’ ‡

<sup>20</sup> the LORD will not be willing to forgive him, but then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse which is written in this book will rest on him; the LORD will blot out his name from under heaven. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Then the LORD will single him out for disaster from all the tribes of Israel [making an example of him], according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the Law. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “Now the next generation, your children who come after you and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, when they see the plagues of this land and the diseases with which the LORD has afflicted it, will say,

<sup>23</sup> ‘The whole land is brimstone and salt, a burning waste, unsown and unproductive, and no grass grows in it; it is like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and wrath.’ ‡

<sup>24</sup> “All the nations will say, ‘Why has the LORD done this thing to this land? Why this great outburst of anger?’ ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Then people will say, ‘It is because they abandoned (broke) the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> ‘For they went and served other gods and worshiped them, [false] gods whom they have not known and whom He had not allotted (given) to them.

<sup>27</sup> ‘So the anger of the LORD burned against this land, bringing on it every curse that is written in this book; ‡

<sup>28</sup> and the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger and in wrath and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.’ ‡

<sup>29</sup> “The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things which are revealed and disclosed belong to us and to our children forever, so that we may do all of the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30

Restoration Promised

<sup>1</sup> “SO IT shall be when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and you call them to mind in all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you, ‡

<sup>2</sup> and you have returned to the LORD your God and have listened to and obeyed His voice with all your heart and with all your soul, in accordance with everything that I am commanding you today, you and your children, ‡

<sup>3</sup> then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes [in your return from exile], and have compassion on you, and will gather you together again from all the peoples (nations) where He has scattered you. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Even if any of your dispersed are at the ends of the earth, the LORD your God will gather you together from there, and from there He will bring you back. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “The LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you will take possession of it; and He shall make you prosper and multiply—even more than your fathers.

<sup>6</sup> “And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the hearts of your descendants [that is, He will remove the desire to sin from your heart], so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and all your soul, so that you may live [as a recipient of His blessing]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD your God will inflict all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who have persecuted you.

<sup>8</sup> “And you shall again listen to and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all His commandments which I command you today.

<sup>9</sup> “Then the LORD your God shall make you abundantly prosperous in everything that you do, in the offspring of your body and in the offspring of your cattle and in the produce of your land; for the LORD will again delight over you for good, just as He delighted over your fathers,‡

10 if you listen to and obey the voice of the LORD your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul (your entire being).

11 “For this commandment which I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it out of reach.‡

12 “It is not [a secret hidden] in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and obey it?’‡

13 “Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will cross the sea for us and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and obey it?’

14 “But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may obey it.

Choose Life

15 “Listen closely, I have set before you today life and prosperity (good), and death and adversity (evil);‡

16 in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk [that is, to live each and every day] in His ways and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments (precepts), so that you will live and multiply, and that the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you are entering to possess.

17 “But if your heart turns away and you will not hear and obey, but are drawn away and worship other gods and serve them,

18 I declare to you today that you will certainly perish. You will not live long in the land which you cross the Jordan to enter and possess.‡

19 “I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse; therefore, you shall choose life in order that you may live, you and your descendants,‡

20 by loving the LORD your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding closely to Him; for He is your life [your good life, your abundant life, your fulfillment] and the length of your days, that you may live in the land which the LORD promised (swore) to give to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”‡

Moses' Last Counsel

<sup>1</sup> SO MOSES went and spoke these words to all Israel.

<sup>2</sup> And he said to them, “I am a hundred and twenty years old today; I am no longer able to come in and go out [as your spiritual and military leader], and the LORD has said to me, ‘You shall not cross this Jordan.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> “It is the LORD your God who will cross ahead of you; He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua is the one who will go across before you [to lead you], just as the LORD has said. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “The LORD will do to them just as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “The LORD will hand them over to you, and you shall do to them in accordance with all the commandments which I have commanded you. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or tremble in dread before them, for it is the LORD your God who goes with you. He will not fail you or abandon you.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all [the people of] Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you will give it to them as an inheritance. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “It is the LORD who goes before you; He will be with you. He will not fail you or abandon you. Do not fear or be dismayed.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. ‡

<sup>11</sup> when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses, you shall read this law before all [the people of] Israel so that they may hear. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Assemble the people, the men and the women and children and the stranger (resident alien, foreigner) within your cities, so that they may hear and learn and fear the LORD your God [with awe-filled reverence and profound respect], and be careful to obey all the words of this law. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Their children, who have not known [the law], will hear and learn to fear [and worship] the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land which you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”‡

Israel Will Fall Away

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, the time for you to die is near; call Joshua, and present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, so that I may commission him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting.‡

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood beside the doorway of the tent.‡

<sup>16</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, you are about to lie down [in death] with your fathers; and this people will arise and play the prostitute (commit apostasy) with the foreign gods [of the people] of the land, where they go to be among them. They will abandon (turn away from) Me and break My covenant which I have made with them.‡

<sup>17</sup> “Then My anger will be kindled and burn against them in that day, and I will abandon (turn away from) them and hide My face from them. They will be devoured, and many evils and troubles will come on them, so that they will say in that day, ‘Is it not because our God is not among us that these evils have come on us?’‡

<sup>18</sup> “But I will certainly hide My face [from them] in that day because of all the evil which they will do, for they will turn to other gods [to worship lifeless idols, to honor handmade relics].‡

<sup>19</sup> “Now then, write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the sons of Israel; put it in their mouth, so that this song may be a witness for Me against the sons of Israel.‡

<sup>20</sup> “For when I bring them into the land which I have sworn to their fathers, a land [of plenty] flowing with milk and honey, and they have eaten and are satisfied and become prosperous, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and despise and reject Me and break My covenant.‡

<sup>21</sup> “Then it shall come about, when many evils and troubles have come on them, that this [sacred] song will confront them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten from the mouth of their descendants. For I know their inclination which is developing even now, before I bring them into the land which I have sworn to give them.‡

<sup>22</sup> So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel. [Deut 32:1–43.]

Joshua Is Commissioned

<sup>23</sup> Then He commanded and commissioned Joshua, the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the sons of Israel into the land which I have sworn to give them, and I will be with you.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> And when Moses completely finished writing the words of this law in a book,

<sup>25</sup> he commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

<sup>26</sup> “Take this Book of the Law and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, so that it may remain there as a witness against you. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “For I know your rebellion and contention and your stubbornness; behold, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD; how much more, then, after my death? ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, so that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth as witnesses against them. ‡

<sup>29</sup> “For I know that after my death you will behave corruptly and turn from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will come upon you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of your hands.” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended:

Deuteronomy 32

The Song of Moses

<sup>1</sup> “LISTEN, O heavens, and I will speak; ‡
And let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

<sup>2</sup> “Let my teaching drop as the rain, ‡
My speech distill as the dew,
As the light rain upon the tender grass,
And as the spring showers upon the herb.

<sup>3</sup> “For I proclaim the name [and presence] of the LORD; ‡
Ascribe greatness and honor to our God!

<sup>4</sup> “The Rock! His work is perfect, ‡
For all His ways are just;

A God of faithfulness without iniquity (injustice),
Just and upright is He.

<sup>5</sup> “They (Israel) have acted corruptly toward Him. ‡
They are not His children, because of their [moral] defect;
But are a perverse and crooked generation.

<sup>6</sup> “Do you thus repay the LORD, ‡
O foolish and unwise people?
Is not He your Father who has acquired you [as His own]?
He has made you and established you [as a nation].

7. “Remember the days of old, ‡
Consider the years of many generations.
Ask your father, and he will inform you,
Your elders, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup> “When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, ‡
When He separated the sons of man,
He set the boundaries of the peoples
According to the number of the sons of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> “For the LORD’s portion and chosen share is His people; ‡
Jacob (Israel) is the allotment of His inheritance.

<sup>10</sup> “He found him in a desert land, ‡
In the howling wasteland of a wilderness;
He kept circling him, He took care of him,
He protected him as the apple of His eye.

<sup>11</sup> “As an eagle that protects its nest, ‡
That flutters over its young,
He spread out His wings and took them,
He carried them on His pinions.  [Luke 13:34. ]

12. “So the LORD alone led him;
There was no foreign god with him.

<sup>13</sup> “He made him (Israel) ride on the high places of the earth, ‡
And he ate the produce of the field;
And He made him suck honey from the rock,
And [olive] oil from the flinty rock,

<sup>14</sup> Butter and curds of cows, and milk of the flock, ‡
With fat of lambs,
And rams, the breed of Bashan, and goats,
With the finest of the wheat;
And you drank wine, the blood of grapes.

15. “But Jeshurun (Israel) became fat and kicked [at God]. ‡

You became fat, thick, sleek, and obstinate!

Then he abandoned God who had made him,

And scorned the Rock of his salvation.

16 “They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods [by denying Him the honor and loyalty that is rightfully and uniquely His]; ‡

And with repulsive acts they provoked Him to anger.

17. “They sacrificed to demons, not to God, ‡

To gods whom they have not known,

New gods who came lately,

Whom your fathers never feared.

18 “You were unmindful of the Rock who bore you, ‡

And you forgot the God who gave you birth.

19 “The LORD saw it, and rejected them,
Out of indignation with His sons and His daughters.

20 “Then He said, ‘I will hide My face from them, ‡

I will see what their end shall be;

For they are a perverse generation,

Sons in whom there is no faithfulness.

21 ‘They have made Me jealous with what is not God; ‡

They have provoked Me to anger with their idols.

So I will make them jealous with those who are not a people;

I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 ‘For a fire is kindled by My anger, ‡

And it burns to the depths of Sheol (the place of the dead, the nether world),

It devours the earth with its yield,

And sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 ‘I will heap misfortunes on them; ‡

I will use My arrows on them.

24 ‘They will be wasted by hunger, and consumed by plague

And a bitter destruction;

And I will send the teeth of beasts against them,

With the venom of crawling things of the dust.

25 ‘Outside the sword will bereave,

And inside [the chambers] terror—
For both young man and virgin,
For the nursing child and the man of gray hair.

<sup>26</sup> ‘I would have said, “I will cut them to pieces [scattering them far away],

I will remove the memory of them from men,”

<sup>27</sup> Had I not feared the provocation of the enemy,
That their adversaries would misjudge,
That they would say, “Our [own] hand has prevailed,
And the LORD has not done all this.” ’

<sup>28</sup> “For they are a nation devoid of counsel,
And there is no understanding in them.

<sup>29</sup> “O that they were wise, that they understood this, ‡
That they could discern their future and ultimate fate!

<sup>30</sup> “How could one chase a thousand, ‡
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Unless their Rock had sold them,
And the LORD had given them up?

<sup>31</sup> “For their rock is not like our Rock, ‡
Even our enemies themselves judge this.

<sup>32</sup> “For their vine is from the vine of Sodom, ‡
And from the fields of Gomorrah;
Their grapes are grapes of poison,
Their clusters, bitter.

<sup>33</sup> “Their wine is the venom of serpents, ‡
And the deadly poison of vipers.

<sup>34</sup> ‘Is it not laid up in store with Me, ‡
Sealed up in My treasures?’

<sup>35</sup> ‘Vengeance is Mine, and retribution, ‡
In due time their foot will slip;
For the day of their disaster is at hand,
And their doom hurries to meet them.’

<sup>36</sup> “For the LORD will vindicate His people, ‡
And will have compassion on His servants,
When He sees that their strength (hand) is gone,
And none remains, whether bond or free.

<sup>37</sup> “And He will say, ‘Where are their gods,‡
The rock in which they took refuge?

<sup>38</sup> ‘Who ate the fat of their sacrifices,
And drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let them rise up and help you,
Let them be your hiding place!

<sup>39</sup> ‘See now that I, I am He,‡
And there is no god besides Me;
It is I who put to death and I who give life.
I have wounded and it is I who heal,
And there is no one who can deliver from [the power of] My hand.

<sup>40</sup> ‘Indeed, I lift up My hand to heaven,
And say (swear an oath), as I live forever,
<sup>41</sup> If I sharpen the lightning of My sword,‡
And My hand takes hold of judgment,
I will render vengeance on My adversaries,
And I will repay those who hate Me.

<sup>42</sup> ‘I will make My arrows drunk with blood,‡
And My sword will devour flesh,
With the blood of the slain and the captives,
From the heads of the leaders of the enemy.’

<sup>43</sup> ‘Rejoice, O nations, with His people;‡
For He will avenge the blood of His servants,
And will render vengeance on His adversaries,
And will atone for His land and His people.”

<sup>44</sup> Then Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>45</sup> When Moses had finished speaking all these words to all [the people of] Israel,

<sup>46</sup> he said to them, “Take to heart all the words of warning which I am speaking to you today; and you shall command your children to observe them carefully—to do all the words of this law.‡

<sup>47</sup> “For it is not an empty or trivial matter for you; indeed it is your [very] life. By [honoring and obeying] this word you will live long in the land, which you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”‡

<sup>48</sup> And the LORD said to Moses that very same day,‡

<sup>49</sup> “Go up to this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab opposite Jericho, and look at the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel as a possession. ‡

<sup>50</sup> “Then die on the mountain which you climb, and be gathered to your people [in death], just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people, ‡

<sup>51</sup> because you broke faith with Me among of the sons of Israel at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin, and because you did not treat Me as holy among of the sons of Israel.  [Num 20:8–12; 27:14 ] ‡

<sup>52</sup> “For you shall see the land opposite you from a distance, but you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel.” ‡

Deuteronomy 33

The Blessing of Moses

<sup>1</sup> THIS IS the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death. ‡

<sup>2</sup> He said, ‡

“The LORD came from Sinai,
And dawned on them from Seir;
He shone forth from Mount Paran,
And He came from among ten thousand holy ones;
At His right hand was a flaming fire, a law, for them.

<sup>3</sup> “Indeed, He loves His people; ‡
All Your holy ones are in Your hand.
They followed in Your steps;
They accept and receive direction from You.

<sup>4</sup>. “Moses commanded us with a law, ‡
As a possession for the assembly of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> “The LORD was King in Jeshurun (Israel), ‡
When the heads of the people were gathered,
The tribes of Israel together.

<sup>6</sup> “May [the tribe of] Reuben live and not die out,
But let his men be few.”

<sup>7</sup> And [Moses said] this of Judah: ‡

“Hear, O LORD, the voice of Judah,
And bring him to his people.
With his hands he contended for them,
And may You be a help against his enemies.”

<sup>8</sup> Of Levi he said, ‡

“Your Thummim and Your Urim belong to Your godly man
[Aaron],
Whom You tested and proved at Massah,
With whom You contended at the waters of Meribah;  [Num 20:1–13 ]

<sup>9</sup> Who said of his father and mother, ‡
‘I did not consider them’;
Nor did he acknowledge his brothers,
Nor did he regard his own sons,
For the priests observed Your word,
And kept Your covenant.

<sup>10</sup> “The priests shall teach Your ordinances (judgments) to Jacob, ‡

And Your law to Israel.
They shall put incense before You,
And whole burnt offerings on Your altar.

<sup>11</sup> “O LORD, bless Levi’s substance (ability), ‡
And accept and take pleasure in the work of his hands;
Crush and shatter the loins of those who rise up against him,
And of those who hate him, so that they do not rise again .”

<sup>12</sup> Of Benjamin he said,

“May the beloved of the LORD dwell in safety by Him;
He shields and covers him all the day long,
And he dwells between His shoulders.”

<sup>13</sup> And of Joseph he said, ‡

“Blessed by the LORD be his land,

With the precious things of heaven, with the dew,
And from the deep water that lies beneath,

<sup>14</sup> With the precious fruits of the sun,
And with the precious produce of the months.

<sup>15</sup> “With the best things of the ancient mountains, ‡
And with the precious things of the everlasting hills,

<sup>16</sup> With the precious things of the earth and its fullness, ‡
And the favor and goodwill of Him who dwelt in the bush.

Let these blessings come upon the head of Joseph,
And upon the crown of the head of him who was distinguished [as a prince] among his brothers.  [Ex 3:4 ]

<sup>17</sup> “His majesty is like a firstborn young bull, ‡
And his horns like the horns of the wild ox;
With them he will gore the peoples,
All of them together, to the ends of the earth.
And those are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
And those are the thousands of Manasseh.”

<sup>18</sup> Of Zebulun he said, ‡

“Rejoice, Zebulun, in your interests abroad,
And, Issachar, in your tents [at home].

<sup>19</sup> “They will call the peoples to the mountain (Mount Carmel); ‡

There they will offer sacrifices of righteousness;
For they will draw out the abundance of the seas,
And the hidden treasures of the sand.”

<sup>20</sup> Of Gad he said, ‡

“Blessed is the one who enlarges Gad;
He lurks like a lioness,
And tears the arm and the crown of the head.

<sup>21</sup> “He selected the best [land] for himself, ‡
For there the leader’s portion was reserved;
Yet he came with the leaders of the people;
He carried out the justice (righteous will) of the LORD,

And His ordinances (judgments) with Israel.”  [Num 32:29–33

<sup>22</sup> Of Dan he said, ‡

“Dan is a lion’s cub,
That leaps forth from Bashan.”

<sup>23</sup> Of Naphtali he said, ‡

“O Naphtali, satisfied with favor,
And full of the blessing of the LORD,
Take possession of the sea [of Galilee] and the south.”

<sup>24</sup> Of Asher he said, ‡

“More blessed than sons is Asher;
May he be favored by his brothers,
And may he dip his foot in oil.

<sup>25</sup> “Your strongholds will be iron and bronze, ‡
And as your days are, so will your strength, your rest and security be.

<sup>26</sup> “There is none like the God of Jeshurun (Israel), ‡
Who rides the heavens to your help,
And through the skies in His majestic glory.

<sup>27</sup> “The eternal God is your refuge and dwelling place, ‡
And underneath are the everlasting arms;
He drove out the enemy from before you,
And said, ‘Destroy!’

<sup>28</sup> “So Israel dwells in safety and security, ‡
The fountain of Jacob alone and secluded,
In a land of grain and new wine;
His heavens also drop down dew.

<sup>29</sup> “Happy and blessed are you, O Israel; ‡
Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD,
The Shield of your help,
And the Sword of your majesty!
Your enemies will cringe before you,

And you will tread on their high places [trampling down their idolatrous altars].”

Deuteronomy 34

The Death of Moses

<sup>2</sup> and all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah to the western sea (Mediterranean Sea),‡

<sup>3</sup> and the Negev (South country) and the plain in the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.‡

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there.”‡

<sup>5</sup> So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.‡

<sup>7</sup> Although Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, his eyesight was not dim, nor his natural strength abated.  [Deut 31:2 ]‡

<sup>8</sup> So the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab for thirty days; then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.‡

<sup>9</sup>- Now Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him; so the sons of Israel listened to him and did as the LORD commanded Moses.‡

<sup>10</sup> Since that time no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,‡

<sup>11</sup> [none equal to him] in all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, all his servants, and all his land,‡

<sup>12</sup> and in all the mighty power and all the great and terrible deeds which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Annotations for Deuteronomy

1:2 eleven days. A journey that might have taken Israel less than two weeks to complete lasted forty years because of unbelief and disobedience (Nu 13:14 ).

1:5 law. The Hebrew word translated “law” basically means “instruction.”

1:13 wise, understanding. The qualities of the leaders reflect the attributes of God. Wisdom is the ability to judge fairly and understand and make wise use of facts. Discernment or understanding is the ability to find the hidden or obscure aspects of a situation.

1:20 Amorites. The Amorites were one of the groups Israel encountered in their approach to the promised land. This term is often a general designation for the Canaanites.

1:26–28 You murmured. An attitude of complaining and criticism toward the circumstances in our lives keeps us from seeing God’s hand in the situation. Our situation may indeed be difficult, but God has promised that He will never leave us nor forsake us. Paul said that he had learned how to be content in every circumstance. He made it a habit to give thanks in all things, and knew how to be contented with little, and how to be contented with much. He knew that he could do anything through Christ, who gives us strength (Php 4:13 ).

[1:28 the \[giant-like\] sons of the Anakim.](#) The Anakim were an ancient people known for their great size (Nu 13:28 ).

1:39 your little ones whom you said would become prey. The most outrageous of Israel’s complaints against God was that He had wanted their children to die (Nu 14:31 ). But the Lord demonstrated His love and faithfulness to His people by protecting those younger than 20 so that they could inherit the land.

1:44 Hormah. This name means “destruction,” and probably refers to a site south of the Amorite hill country by Kadesh-barnea that was later called by that name.

2:7 God has blessed. The Israelites could not have survived forty years in the wilderness without the miraculous provision of God. That care has been an inspiration and encouragement to God’s people throughout history. Those who receive God’s bounty with a thankful heart find that it is enough, no matter how difficult the circumstances, and those who complain never recognize His blessing at all.

2:8 we turned and passed through by the way. The Israelites turned away from the way of the Red Sea, on which these cities were located and turned to the wilderness of Moab, which was the area east of Moab (Nu 33:44 ).

2:9 Ar. Ar is a synonym for the region of Moab. The Moabites were related to the Israelites through Lot (Ge 19:37 ).

2:13 Zered. The brook of Zered was east of the Dead Sea at the border between Edom and Moab.

2:15 hand. The term “hand” suggests God’s personal involvement both in acts of deliverance (Ex 15:6 ) and in chastisement.

2:23 Avvim . . . Gaza . . . Caphtorim . . . Captor. The Avvim lived in villages between the Jordan and the Mediterranean coast. Gaza was a Philistine city on the Mediterranean coast. The Caphtorim were a group of tribes that came by sea to the coasts of Canaan and Egypt. Captor is possibly the same as Crete (Ge 10:14 ).

2:24 Arnon. The river Arnon was the traditional border between Moab and Ammon.

2:26 Wilderness of Kedemoth. This desert within the territory of Sihon was located on its eastern border, east of the Dead Sea.

2:32 Jahaz. Jahaz was located north of Kedemoth (Isa 15:4 ).

2:34–35 utterly destroyed. By the law of the ban, every living thing, human and animal, was to be put to death. Sometimes, as in this case, the Lord permitted the Israelites to take livestock and property as spoil, and sometimes the Lord permitted the women and children to be spared. Canaanite idolatry had reached such abominable levels that the Lord was not willing to put up with it any longer. He intended to put an end to it, and also to prevent the Israelites from being corrupted by the Canaanites.

2:36–37 Aroer . . . Gilead . . . Jabbok. Aroer was a city on the northern bank of the river Arnon at the border between Sihon and Moab. Gilead was the northern boundary of Sihon. Jabbok was the river Jacob crossed on his way back to Canaan (Ge 32:22 ).

3:1 Bashan . . . Og. Bashan was the region east of the Sea of Galilee. The territory of Og may have extended south of the river Yarmuk into Gilead.

3:8 Mount Hermon. Mount Hermon is in the mountain range in the north between Canaan and Lebanon.

3:9–11 Sidonians. The Sidonians were Phoenicians, a well-known ancient seafaring people.

3:10 Salecah. Salecah was a city located at the eastern border of Bashan.

3:11 bed frame. “Bed frame” could also be translated sarcophagus , that is, stone coffin . Rabbah. Rabbah was on the site of Amman, the capital of modern Jordan. cubit. The ordinary cubit is about eighteen inches. Nine cubits is about thirteen feet, and four cubits is about six feet.

3:14 Geshurites . . . Maachathites. The Geshurites lived east of the Sea of Galilee and south of Mount Hermon. The Maachathites were descended from Abraham’s brother Nahor.

3:17 Chinnereth . Chinnereth is another name for the Sea of Galilee.

3:23–25 pleaded with the LORD . Moses was a man of prayer and a man of God. He had repeatedly interceded with God for the rebellious Israelites, and God had answered those prayers. Yet this request of Moses to enter the promised land was answered with a decided “no,” and with the command not to mention the matter again. We usually don’t know why God says “no,” to things that seem not only reasonable, but right and good to us. It is hard to give thanks for the answer we did not want, but we must learn that “no” can also be the hand of our loving Heavenly Father. Most of the time we won’t see, this side of heaven, how grateful we ought to be for the “no” of God.

3:24 O Lord GOD . The Hebrew word for “Lord,” or “Master” is followed by the personal name of God (Yahweh, here translated “GOD”). The respect and humbleness in calling God “Master,” the long companionship revealed in calling God by the covenant name, and the pleading, just to see the promised land, poignantly speak of Moses’ longing.

3:29 Beth-peor. This was a pagan site dedicated to Baal of Peor (Nu 25:3–5 ) and was the scene of Israel’s first disastrous encounter with the sexually centered worship of Baal (4:3 ).

4:1 listen. The exhortation to listen includes an encouragement to obey (4:9 ; 5:1 ; 6:3–4 ).

4:6 in the sight of the peoples. By living in obedience to God, Israel would become a countercultural force, showing the way of God in both society and government.

4:9 your children. One of the purposes of the family is to pass on from generation to generation the acts of God among men. In times where the written record did not exist, or where people could not read, the wonderful acts of God were repeated in stories and conversations. With the Bible readily available, we don’t have to rely on our memories alone to recall the things that God has done, but we are still responsible to make these things known to our children. It is also important to tell our children about the times that the Lord has answered our prayers, convicted our conscience, and blessed us with His peace. The best role model a child can have is a parent whose heart is centered on the Lord.

4:12 heard . . . but you saw no form. The Lord revealed His glory to the Israelites, but they saw no visual image other than darkness and fire. They did hear God's voice, however (v. 15 ). This verse reminds us that God is Spirit (Jn 4:24 ).

4:15–19 you did not see any form. There was no way of describing or giving shape with any image to the experience of God's presence at Sinai (Ex 20:18 ). Since Israel had not seen the form of God, they could not represent Him in any way. Although people were created in the likeness of God (Ge 1:26–27 ), no image created in human likeness could represent God, nor could any animal or the majestic heavenly bodies. The Israelites could know God's creation, His power, and His character, but they would have to be satisfied to know Him without any visual image.

4:24 a consuming fire . . . jealous. God is free to destroy disobedient and rebellious people. Israel had witnessed His righteous anger during the wilderness journey as well as in Canaan (Heb 12:19 ; Nu 16 ). "Jealous" means that God will tolerate no rivalry or unfaithfulness. This word can also be translated zealous. God is zealous for His holiness.

4:26 heaven and earth. All creation would act as God's witness against a rebellious and obstinate people. God's invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, are all clearly seen in creation (Ro 1:20 ), so that man is without excuse. The creation belongs to God just as much as man does, and God uses it for His eternal purposes, one of which is to stand as a witness to the disobedient.

4:27 scatter and disperse you among the peoples. This is a prophetic warning of the exiles that would take place in 722 and 586 BC.

4:40 that it may go well with you. The promise of blessing in the land was conditional—it required obedience.

5:6–21 Commandments— The Ten Commandments are the basis for holy living, not just a list of rules, but an explanation of what God expects of us. Loving God comes first. Setting aside a day to focus on God is essential for maintaining this relationship. The way we feel about God will affect the way we feel about people, and this will have a direct effect on how we treat others. Even though these three ideas summarize the Commandments, it is also essential to examine each individual command and think about how it applies to our lives. It is not easy to faithfully obey these simple statements. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:11 take . . . in vain. Taking the name of the Lord in vain refers to the abuse, misuse, blasphemy, cursing, or manipulation of the Lord's name. Something "vain" is empty or without value, significance, or meaning.

5:12 the Sabbath. The primary significance of the Sabbath was that it belonged to the Lord.

5:18 adultery. Adultery was a betrayal not only of a commitment, but of a relationship. Anyone who treated marriage lightly would also treat his or her relationship with God lightly.

5:21 covet. This command deals specifically with an attitude, rather than an action. Covetousness is self-centered dissatisfaction, which does not reflect loving concern for the well-being of others. Loving God and loving others are closely connected (Mt 22:37–39 ).

5:22 wrote these commandments on two tablets of stone and gave them to me. The two tablets were two complete copies of the law. Usually two copies were made of ancient Middle Eastern treaties. One was retained by each of the contracting parties. But God gave both copies to Moses, signifying that God Himself would be with the Israelites. God and the Israelites kept their copies in the same place because they lived together.

5:25–26 why should we die . . . LORD our God. The Israelites' fear was an important part of understanding their sin and need for help in meeting the requirements of God. The living God is powerful, great, and holy, and He wants us to be like Him, so each sinner needs to realize the need for God's mercy.

5:29 heart in them. The people were impressed with what they saw and heard, but their hearts were unchanged.

6:2 fear. The fear of the Lord includes awe for His greatness and holiness, love for Him, and submission to His will. Initially, the fear of God may involve fright, knowing that God has the right to punish us for our sins. But when we look at his holiness and love, there is a joy in knowing God, who not only sees us for who we really are, but helps us to be who He wants us to be.

6:3 God of your fathers. God was their God, generation after generation, and He expected them to follow Him, from generation to generation as well.

6:4–9 Passing on the Faith— In the days leading up to the end of Moses' leadership, he laid out the essentials of raising a family to follow God. Moses knew that these instructions were a foundational element in Israel's future. The only way the Israelites could maintain the land they were going to possess was to make sure that the faith would be passed on to each succeeding generation. Nothing has changed. Today we need to heed the same instructions.

In a family's life the teaching of God is to be a constant, daily effort. God is to be made a part of everyday life. It is the responsibility of a parent to be constantly looking for opportunities to teach children about God's instructions for living. God's instructions should be like clothing. They should be put on the minute we get up and kept on all day. They are to be our constant companions. Sharing our faith should be a natural part of daily communication with our children. We should also remember that these instructions come in the text subsequent to the command to love God with all of our heart and soul and strength. How else can we love Him better than by obeying and following Him and teaching our children to do the same? Go to Theological Notes Index

6:4 Hear, O Israel. This verse is the celebrated Shema, the basic confession of faith in Judaism (Mt 22:37 ; Mk 12:29 ; Lk 10:27 ). The first word, "hear," is the Hebrew word shema . The people are to hear and respond properly to God. He is their God, and He alone is the Lord.

6:5 shall love. Moses repeatedly exhorted the Israelites to respond to God's love with devotion. God commanded His people to choose Him with all their being, and in the process to deny all other supposed deities.

6:8–9 hand . . . bands . . . doorposts . . . gates. In later years the Jews interpreted these instructions by wearing phylacteries (boxes containing Scripture) when they prayed. They attached a small vessel called a mezuzah, which contained these verses, to the doorpost. The purpose of this whole passage is to emphasize that God's ways are to be a part of our conversations, our homes, and every activity. They are to be as close to us and as visible as our hand or our forehead.

6:20–24 your son asks. The answer to the Israelite child's question would include four components: we were slaves in Egypt, the Lord brought us out with a mighty hand, He gave us land, and we have a challenge to responsible action. This is a powerful teaching tool, and one that applies to all Christians. We are to teach our children that we were slaves to sin, the Lord Jesus brought us out with a mighty hand, He has given us a Kingdom, and we have a challenge to responsible action.

7:1 Hittite . . . Gergashite . . . Amorite . . . Canaanite . . . Perizzite . . . Hivite . . . Jebusite. The Hittites came originally from Asia Minor (Ge 23:10 ). The Gergashites are an unknown people (Ge 10:16 ; 1Ch 1:14 ). The Amorites were the native population of Canaan that had settled in the mountains. The Canaanites were the native population that had settled in the coastland, the Perizzites were the native population that had settled in the hill country, and the Hivites were the native population that had settled south of the Lebanon mountains. The Jebusites (perhaps an offshoot of the Hittites) were the native population settled near what later became Jerusalem.

7:2 covenant. Covenant refers to any treaty with the Canaanite nations that might undermine God's covenant with Israel.

7:22 little by little. God's plan was that the land would be conquered in two stages. The first was a broad, rapid conquest under Joshua, and the second was a gradual, area by area conquest.

8:3 man does not live by bread alone. Humans have a spiritual nature that can be satisfied only by the spiritual nutrients of God's Word. Jesus used these words to rebuke Satan when Jesus was tempted in the wilderness (Mt 4:4 ; Lk 4:1–4 ). proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD . The Bible is valuable because it is the word of God. It is inspired by God not only in the sense that it is relating true events, but because God knows the kinds of things that people need to know to follow Him in a world of sin, uncertainty, and death. God's word is man's only wisdom and hope. When people study it, rely on it, and apply it, the word will prove to be both wise and right. For God is as good as His every word, and God's every word is as good as the One from whom it comes.

8:16 test you, to do good [things] for you. Through the whole experience in Egypt and the wilderness, the Lord was leading His children into decisions that would bring out their true nature. Difficult as the tests were, the Lord knew what was necessary to reveal to the Israelites not only His character, but theirs as well.

8:17 My power. Moses warned the people that prosperity and wealth often lead to an exaltation of self and a rejection of God.

9:4–6 to possess this land. The conquest of Canaan was both a judgment on the wickedness of the native population and a promise fulfilled to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Ge 15:18–21 ). The land was a gift of grace, not a gift given because of the merits of the Israelites.

9:7 do not forget. In addition to remembering the grace of God, the people also had to remember how vulnerable they were to apostasy (1:6–3:29 ).

9:9 or drink water. A person cannot go more than approximately three days without water and survive. God supernaturally preserved Moses during the forty days.

9:10 finger of God. The Ten Commandments were written on stone by the hand of God. This visual picture of God writing His words is so personal. There is another time that God writes on tablets, and that is on the tablet of the human heart (2Co 3:3 ). This, too, is intensely personal and life changing. In the end, His followers can only put the words of the stone tablets into effect after the Spirit of the Living God has written on their hearts.

9:19 the LORD listened to me. For Moses' prayer, see verses 26–29 . Daniel's prayer for the nation resembled Moses' intercession (Da 9:3–23 ).

9:26–29 I prayed. Moses took God's judgment seriously. Nevertheless he asked God for what he felt was important. He appealed to God's faithfulness, mercy, and honor. It is always all right to beseech the Lord for what seems right to us from our point of view, but as we pray, we remember that God knows more than we do, and we can trust Him to take the best course of action.

10:3 acacia. The acacia tree is still found in the Sinai peninsula, but in smaller numbers than when the Israelites passed through. Some varieties produce an attractive, highly figured hardwood.

10:19 show your love for the stranger. God's good provision for their own needs should have motivated the Israelites to love the stranger among them. To love and provide for the disadvantaged was in fact following God's example.

11:1 keep His charge. Loving God is in response to His love for us. We are directed to love God, but God first demonstrates His love for us. He rescued the Israelites from slavery to the Egyptians; He rescues us from slavery to sin (Ro 6:20 ). Our first response is to return this love He has shown us. Our second response is to keep His commandments, to do the things He says to do. Love oils the wheels of obedience and makes obedience a blessing, not a burden.

11:9–12 not like the land of Egypt. Agriculture in Egypt depended on irrigation, the annual flooding of the Nile.

11:14 early [fall] rain and the late [spring] rain. The early rain encouraged the sprouting of seed and new growth. The late rain brought crops to maturity.

12:1–4 altars . . . pillars. The sacred pillars were monuments dedicated to one of the gods. They represented the power of fertility. The poles refer to the altars dedicated to the goddess Asherah, who was frequently associated with Baal.

12:5 seek. Whatever one seeks is the object of one's desire and devotion. Once they were settled in the land, the different tribes would be spread out, but they would still find God in their midst, in the place that God chose. This place was to be the object of their desire, God Himself the object of their devotion.

12:6 sacrifices. The Hebrew word for sacrifice always designates the offering of an animal. The contribution of the hand was one which the priest lifted up to signify that it was a gift to the Lord (Ex 29:27 ; Lev 7:34 ). The priest took his share and the worshiper and his family ate the rest. A votive offering was made in the fulfillment of a vow (Lev 7:16 ; Nu 6:21 ). A freewill offering was voluntary (Ex 35:27–29 ; Lev 7:16 ).

12:7 eat . . . rejoice. The communal offerings were to be eaten and enjoyed by those who offered them. It was a time of celebration before the Lord.

12:8 whatever is right in his [own] eyes. In the wilderness the people did not develop a common focus on the Lord. Moses challenged the new generation to act with common faithfulness and obedience.

12:17 eat within your [city] gates. Aspects of God's worship were designed for community celebration, and were not to be done in the privacy of the home.

12:30–31 beware that you are not lured. For forty years the basic sin which kept Israel out of Canaan was unbelief. However, once they settled in the promised land, the sin that eventually drove them out was idolatry. Idolatry is not only bowing down to a stone or wood image of a god; idolatry takes place every time our trust for our well-being is placed on something that is not the one true God. In the end, idolatry is the ultimate form of unbelief. It mocks God, because it imitates the dependence that people should have on Him, choosing a powerless placebo for the living God. The Lord would remove the temptation of the Canaanite nations, but the Israelites must not become curious and imitate the practices of the vanquished peoples. Calling it a lure was a warning that the temptation to copy would be hidden, a trick, something that would catch them unaware.

13:1–2 a prophet . . . or a dreamer. Both prophecy and dreams were legitimate forms of revelation.

13:3 testing you. The revelation of God through Moses was the test of any sign or message. When the message deviated from God's prior revelation, Israel had to discern false teaching.

13:5 remove the evil. Discipline, punishment, and testing were God's means of keeping His people pure.

13:9 your hand shall be first. The relative or friend who brought the charge would lead in the capital punishment of the one who suggested idolatrous practices. With unforgettable words, Jesus emphasized the severity of this offense. Such a person should not have been born (Mt 18:6–7 ).

13:13 serve other gods. Falling away from the truth is apostasy. Sometimes this can be fairly subtle, and that is why the word "seduced" is used with this concept. God clearly lays out a test that will always separate the truth from the lie. If someone says, "let us go after other gods . . ." we know that the speaker is not from God. Our hope is in Christ alone. People do not recognize that they are going after "other gods" because they do not know the one true God. This is why it is so important to faithfully study the Bible, for in it all of the character and actions of God are revealed. We will not be fooled by the counterfeit if we are familiar with the genuine.

13:17–18 turn away from His burning anger and show mercy to you. This seemingly harsh judgment of evil was an act of obedience. God required the punishment of evildoers so that immoral practices would not spread throughout the land. God would bless the Israelites, and bless the land, but not while the evil practices were still going on.

14:2 God's Plan and Israel— The modern-day student of the Bible may well ask why so much of Scripture is taken up with the history of a single nation. Certainly many Christians wonder why one nation should be called “God’s chosen people.” The answer to this question is bound up in God’s purpose for Israel. When God promised Abraham that he would become the father of a great nation, He also promised that He would bless all peoples through that nation (Ge 12:1–3). Therefore Israel was to be a channel of blessing as well as a recipient. Even their deliverance from Egypt was at least partially designed to show other nations that Israel’s God was the only true God (Ex 7:5 ; 14:18 ; Jos 2:9–11 ). It was further prophesied by Isaiah that the Messiah would bring salvation to the Gentiles (Isa 49:6 ) The Psalms contain many invitations to other nations to come and worship the Lord in Israel (Ps 2:10–12 ; 117:1 ). Ruth the Moabitess is an example of a foreigner who believed in Israel’s God.

It is clear that God’s promise to Abraham to bless the whole world through him is still being fulfilled. The life, ministry, and death of Jesus Christ and the existence and influence of the church today all came about through God’s choice of Israel. All those the church wins to Christ, whether Jew or Gentile, enter into these great blessings channeled through Israel. Go to Theological Notes Index

14:21 not boil . . . in its mother’s milk. Unlike the Canaanites who boiled young goats alive in the milk of their mothers as a sacrifice to fertility gods, Israel was to practice a more humane method of animal sacrifice.

[14:22–29 tithe \[a tenth\] of all the yield of your seed.](#) The tithe was to be enjoyed in the presence of the Lord, unless the people had come from a great distance. Then they could exchange it for silver and purchase food and drink with it in Jerusalem.

14:25 money. Money refers to uncoined silver. Coins were not struck until the Persian era.

15:1 every seven years. God taught His people to think in cycles of holy time: six days of work, the seventh to rest; six years of business, the seventh of giving freedom to the poor; six years of agricultural cultivation, and the seventh to let the land lie fallow (Ex 23:10–13 ; Lev 25:1–7 ).

15:7–15 a poor man. Israel’s uniqueness in the ancient world is seen in the laws which connect a right relationship with God and worship of Him with interpersonal relationships. If you love God, you will also treat others well. God is intensely interested in the poor, and it is the responsibility of His people to imitate His concern. The story of the Good Samaritan (Lk 10:30–37 ) is both the simplest and the most profound picture of how this concern works out in real life.

15:7 not be heartless. The people’s attitude toward the poor should have been a reflection of their gratitude for God’s gifts to them.

15:19 shall not work . . . nor shear. The owners of firstborn male livestock could not profit from the firstborn because they belonged to the Lord.

16:1 Passover. Passover was observed on the fourteenth of Abib, or Nissan, which corresponds to our March-April (Ex 12:1–21 ; Lev 23:5–8 ; Nu 28:16–25 ).

16:6 at sunset. The twilight sacrifice was in commemoration of the exodus, which occurred at night.

16:9 sickle to the standing grain. This took place on the second day of the Feast of the Passover.

16:13–15 Feast of Booths. The harvest festival was a time to celebrate God’s goodness, and to remember how He cared for them when they lived in tents in the wilderness. Today this celebration is called Succoth, from the Hebrew word for booths.

16:19 not distort justice. The foundation for a just and honest application of law in human society is God Himself. God entrusts rule to men who function in His place in dispensing justice. To pervert this justice with favoritism or bribes is to malign the character of God, and that is a sin that God always deals with sooner or later.

17:2 transgressing. The Hebrew verb for transgressing is used elsewhere to indicate the crossing of a border or stream. Here the word is used to indicate “crossing over” the boundaries that God had set for His people.

17:4–6 investigate thoroughly. An investigation, rather than gossip, determined the truth of any report of idolatry. There must be two or three witnesses for a person to be condemned to death.

17:7 hand of the witnesses . . . first. The witnesses participated in the stoning of the guilty because they were responsible for the person's condemnation. Jesus' words about throwing the "first stone" referred to this practice (Jn 8:7 ).

17:8 between one kind of homicide and another. This refers to cases of manslaughter or murder—that is, accidental or intentional homicide.

17:12 acts presumptuously. It is presumptuous to ask for judgment and then to refuse to follow the verdict of the priests. It is both asking them to take the weight of the decision and then willfully disregarding that decision.

17:13 hear. To hear is to respond and obey.

17:14 a king. The regulations that follow anticipate the request that the Israelites would make for a king. At the time of Moses the Israelites were unique among nations. God Himself ruled them through appointed leaders, but there was no king.

18:10–12 pass through the fire . . . sorcerer. Each of the activities that the Lord forbids in this passage come under the category of occult activities. Passing through the fire was sacrificing a son or daughter to learn about the future or seek favor with a supposed deity. Divination, witchcraft, sorcery, casting spells and interpreting omens, mediums, spiritists, and necromancers (those who call up the dead) are all part of the demonic realm, an attempt to bypass God in foretelling and controlling the future. These activities are detestable to God and should be to His followers as well.

18:15 raise up for you a prophet. A true prophet came from the Lord; no one could become a true prophet by self-will or desire.

18:22 shall not be afraid of him. These words of warning for discerning a false prophet were also words of comfort. If the prophet did not come from God, there was no need to become anxious about whatever he might predict.

19:3–4 divide the territory . . . into three parts. The cities of refuge were intertribal cities. Anyone from any tribe could flee to the city that was closest to him.

19:6 avenger of blood. The avenger was possibly a relative commissioned by the elders of the city to execute justice. This Hebrew word is sometimes translated kinsman redeemer, and in this verse means "protector of family rights." This individual also stood up for the family to redeem property and persons. The glory of Israel was that its Avenger and Kinsman Redeemer was God Himself (Isa 41:14 ).

19:9–13 keep and carefully observe all these. The people of Israel were about to enter a land where they would be exposed to ideas and practices in the name of religion that God says are an abomination. The temptation to imitate would be great, but they must not do so. The believer is not different from his world for the sake of difference, but because he must not imitate the things that are inconsistent with a life of fellowship with a holy and just God. Copying the ways of the ungodly not only grieves the Lord, but it mars the picture He is making of Himself in the lives of those who follow Him.

19:14 move your neighbor's boundary mark. Removing a landmark was far more than moving a stone. It was changing a property line and in effect cheating some family out of the inheritance of land that God had given them.

19:15 on the testimony . . . of two or three witnesses. Requiring two or three witnesses was a safeguard against the dangerous lies of an individual.

19:21 it shall be life for life, eye for eye. The law of retribution established the principal that the punishment should not exceed the crime.

20:5–7 built a new house . . . planted a vineyard . . . engaged (legally promised) to a woman. Each of these activities represents a time of planning and preparation that has not yet been fulfilled. The Lord graciously acknowledges that it is right for people to have a chance to enjoy the fruits of their labor before they risk their lives for the nation.

20:8 afraid and lacks courage. Unlike the previous situations, the fearful and fainthearted endanger their fellow soldiers. The number of warriors was not as important as the army's belief that God was fighting for them.

20:17 utterly destroy. This was not just a symbolic war; the entire Canaanite population was to be destroyed.

20:18 they will not teach you. The principle concern of the Lord was for the welfare of His people. The Canaanite population in the land was like a deadly tumor eating away at the body. If the tumor was cut out, the body could live. No one could thrive in that land as a follower of God as long as the Canaanites were there.

21:1–9 someone is found slain. Although the people were innocent of the act and of any knowledge of the actual death of this individual, the elders must still ask the Lord for forgiveness for the shedding of innocent blood. An honest attempt must be made to find justice and to say, "We know this was wrong." God is teaching His people about an active social conscience in this passage. When we know that an innocent party has been wronged we are not to turn our backs and say that we are not involved. Even the simple act of publicly saying that such action is not pleasing to God is effective in reminding those who hear that God sees all and will judge the perpetrators of sin at some point.

21:15 two wives. Polygamy was commonly practiced in the cultures of the ancient Middle East and was assumed in the law of Moses. It is apparently something that God allowed, as He did divorce (Mt 19:3–9), but from the beginning it was not that way.

21:16 firstborn. A father was expected to show consideration for the firstborn child, regardless of his attitude toward the child's mother.

21:22 hang him. The guilty person was not executed by hanging, but after the person was stoned the corpse was impaled for public viewing as an example.

Major Social Concerns in the Covenant

1. Personhood

Everyone's person is to be secure (Ex 20:13 ; Dt 5:17 ; Ex 21:16–21 , 26–32 ; Lev 19:14 ; Dt 24:7 ; 27:18 ).

2. False Accusation

Everyone is to be secure against slander and false accusation (Ex 20:16 ; Dt 5:20 ; Ex 23:1–3 , 6–8 ; Lev 19:16 ; Dt 19:15–21 ).

3. Women

No woman is to be taken advantage of within her subordinate status in society (Ex 21:7–11 , 20 , 26–32 ; 22:16–17 ; Nu 27:1–11 ; 36:1–12 ; Dt 21:10–14 ; 22:13–30 ; 24:1–5 ).

4. Punishment

Punishment for wrongdoing shall not be excessive so that the culprit is dehumanized (Dt 25:1–3 ).

5. Dignity

Every Israelite's dignity and right to be God's servant are to be honored and safeguarded (Ex 21:2 , 5–6 ; Lev 25 ; Dt 15:12–18 ).

6. Inheritance

Every Israelite's inheritance in the promised land is to be secure (Lev 25 ; Nu 27:5–7 ; 36:1–9 ; Dt 25:5–10 ).

7. Property

Everyone's property is to be secure (Ex 20:15 ; Dt 5:19 ; Ex 21:33–36 ; 22:1–15 ; 23:4–5 ; Lev 19:35–36 ; Dt 22:1–4 ; 25:13–15 ).

8. Fruit of Labor

Everyone is to receive the fruit of their labors (Lev 19:13 ; Dt 24:14 ; 25:4 ).

9. Fruit of the Ground

Everyone is to share the fruit of the ground (Ex 23:10–11 ; Lev 19:9–10 ; 23:22 ; 25:3–55 ; Dt 14:28–29 ; 24:19–21 ).

10. Rest on Sabbath

Everyone, down to the humblest servant and the resident foreigner, is to share in the weekly rest of God's Sabbath (Ex 20:8–11 ; Dt 5:12–15 ; Ex 23:12 ).

11. Marriage

The marriage relationship is to be kept inviolate (Ex 20:14 ; Dt 5:18 ; see also Lev 18:6–23 ; 20:10–21 ; Dt 22:13–30 ).

12. Exploitation

No one, however disabled, impoverished or powerless, is to be oppressed or exploited (Ex 22:21–27 ; Lev 19:14 , 33–34 ; 25:35–36 ; Dt 23:19 ; 24:6 , 12–15 , 17 ; 27:18 ).

13. Fair Trial

Everyone is to have free access to the courts and is to be afforded a fair trial (Ex 23:6–8 ; Lev 19:15 ; Dt 1:17 ; 10:17–18 ; 16:18–20 ; 17:8–13 ; 19:15–21 ).

14. Social Order

Every person's God-given place in the social order is to be honored (Ex 20:12 ; Dt 5:16 ; Ex 21:15 , 17 ; 22:28 ; Lev 19:3 , 32 ; 20:9 ; Dt 17:8–13 ; 21:15–21 ; 27:16 ).

15. Law

No one shall be above the law, not even the king (Dt 17:18–20 ).

16. Animals

Concern for the welfare of other creatures is to be extended to the animal world (Ex 23:5 , 11 ; Lev 25:7 ; Dt 22:4 , 6–7 ; 25:4 ).

kindness that we can do for another, we are to do it cheerfully and willingly. Receiving an act of kindness is heartwarming; doing such an act is a great joy. Go to Theological Notes Index

22:8 railing. The battlement was a low wall around the edge of the roof. The rooftop was used as an extra room, and if the home owner did not provide safety measures, he would be responsible for any accidents.

22:11 wool and linen blended together. These restrictions were a reminder that the Hebrews were not a mixed people. They were separated to God and they were not to mix with other nations, nor were they to mix two kinds of animals, grain, or fabric. It was part of the concept of purity that governed every aspect of life.

22:14 charges her [without cause] with shameful behavior. Charging her indicated a public accusation. Virginity was highly regarded, for if the legitimacy of children was disputable, inheritance rights and positions in family would also be disputed. It is easy to determine the mother of a child, for pregnancy is obvious, but determining the father of the child was a matter of trust that the wife was faithful to marriage vows.

23:1 castrated. An emasculated man had had all or part of the sexual organs removed. This was done to men who were put in charge of harems to prevent sexual relations with the women. It was also a pagan practice. Genital mutilation was prohibited in Israel.

23:17 cult prostitute. The cult prostitute was used for the worship of the Canaanite gods and goddesses of fertility. They believed that having intimate relations with the cult prostitutes (either male or female) would bring fertility to their families, fields, and herds. This debased system of worship was one of the reasons God had decided to utterly destroy this group of people.

23:18 wages of a prostitute or the price of a dog. God did not need or want money earned by such practices that He called abominations. “Dogs” does not refer to the animal. It is still insulting in the Middle East to call a person a dog, and “dogs” are listed with sorcerers, immoral persons, murderers, idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying, as those who are outside the heavenly city (Rev 22:15 ).

23:21 vow. A vow was purely voluntary, and not necessary for the development of godliness. But if a vow was made, it must be kept.

24:1-4 a certificate of divorce. Marriage was instituted by God (Ge 2:24 ). It was intended to be a union of one man and one woman for life. And yet, the Mosaic law allowed divorce, even though God said through His prophet Malachi (Mal 2:16 ) that He hates divorce. When the Pharisees were asking Jesus about divorce, Jesus explained that it had not been so designed in the beginning, but “because of your hardness of heart” Moses had allowed it. Then Jesus raised the standard set by Moses, saying that those whom God had joined, no man should separate. With the death and resurrection of Christ, all believers receive the Holy Spirit, and it is at this point that hard hearts are changed.

24:4 defiled. Returning to her first husband after an intervening marriage might have placed the woman in the same position as an unfaithful wife.

24:6 millstone. A pair of millstones was used for grinding grain into flour. The flour was ground between two stones, and to deprive a household of the use of one of the stones was to deprive them of the necessities of daily life.

24:8 leprosy. Leprosy refers to a variety of infectious skin diseases. The disease known today as leprosy, Hansen’s disease, is different from the diseases described here.

25:3 forty times. Later Jewish law restricted the number to forty minus one (2Co 11:24 ) to make sure that the authorities remained within the set limits.

25:4 not muzzle the ox. Muzzling kept the animal from eating while it worked. Later the apostle Paul used this law as a principle for providing a living for those who spend their lives preaching the gospel (1Ti 5:18 ).

25:5 dies without a son. The firstborn son of the marriage would be acknowledged as the legal son of the dead brother. Taking a brother's widow as a second wife provided her with care, and preserved the name, position, and inheritance of the dead brother.

25:7–10 does not want to marry. Legally the brother-in-law was bound to keep the family name alive. His unwillingness to do so was a public issue, involving the elders of the community. The removal of the sandal was a sign of giving up of one's rights, and spitting was a strong act of public contempt.

25:19 wipe out the memory. The Amalekites would in effect come under the same ban as the Canaanite nations. The fact that they did not fear God made them a stumbling block to any nation that was following God.

26:5 Aramean. This is a reference to Jacob, whose parents' ancestral home was in Aramea (Ge 24:1–10 ).

26:8 mighty hand . . . outstretched arm. God with His own hand demonstrated His power to the Egyptians and delivered the Israelites. The idea of God rescuing His people with His mighty arm is repeated in Isaiah 62 and 63 .

26:10 I have brought. When the worshiper made a statement of what he was doing, (see v. 13 ) he was taking responsibility for the items he was presenting to the Lord, not just blindly following a set form.

26:15 Your holy dwelling. People direct their prayers to heaven, acknowledging at the same time that God is everywhere (Isa 66:1–2 ). Heaven most often refers to the dwelling place of God and the holy angels. Heaven is the place from which Christ came when He came to earth, and He returned there after He was resurrected (Ac 1:11 ). One day He will come from heaven back to earth (Mt 24:30 ), and Heaven will ultimately be the home of all believers (1Pe 1:4 ). Heaven is the place where the will of God is perfectly done, so it is a place of hope and inspiration.

26:16 with all your heart and with all your soul. This is a regular emphasis in Deuteronomy. God wants obedience, but He wants it to be the obedience of the engaged heart and mind.

27:7 peace offerings. Many of the sacrifices had to do with sin, repentance, and making things right with God. This particular sacrifice was a time to be thankful and to rejoice in the good care of God.

27:11–13 Mount Gerizim . . . Mount Ebal. Mount Gerizim, the mountain of blessing, is usually covered with vegetation. Mount Ebal, the mountain of cursing, is a barren peak. The visual contrast made a memorable object lesson.

27:26 does not confirm the words of this law by doing them. All of the actions listed in the curses are contrary to the law, as explained in the Book of Leviticus.

28:1–9 diligently listen to and obey. This passage repeatedly emphasizes the Israelites' responsibility to obey. God had already saved them from slavery, made them His people, promised to be their God, and to give them a land to dwell in. But the blessings would only come with Israel's obedience. Sadly, Israel failed again and again to follow God. It was only after Christ that the followers of God could have the new Spirit which enabled them to obey from the heart (Ro 7 ).

28:15–19 Disobedience— The price of disobedience is always more than one can imagine in the beginning. It is not only the loss of peace or blessing, great as that may be, but there is also the loss of all that might have been. In God's plan the obedience is for the benefit of the follower of God, for the benefit of those who are watching and are influenced by this follower, and for the kingdom of God. If the follower disobeys, he may see how his actions affect himself, but he cannot know what other blessings are lost in the wider sphere of his own influence. It is a terrible thing to find oneself in the position of working against God. Go to Theological Notes Index

28:20–57 curses, confusion, and rebuke. Disobedience brings suffering, and this suffering often spills over onto other people, even into future generations. The suffering is a wake-up call, something that is meant to remind the disobedient that they are living against God, and that they need to repent, turn to God, and ask for help. The problem is that often the disobedient have a skewed idea of who God is and what He desires, so they blame God and become more rebellious. There is another kind of suffering as well. This is the suffering of the innocent, as in the case of Job, where God allowed Satan to test him to show Satan that Job really loved God and was not merely faithful because God had blessed him.

28:30 marry a wife . . . build a house . . . plant a vineyard. Each of these momentous events of life were reasons to be excused from service in the army (20:5–7), yet if the Israelites were disobedient, life itself would prevent them from realizing the fruits of their labors.

28:52–57 besiege you in all your cities. Moses forewarned the people of the terrible stresses of sieges (2Ki 6:24–31; La 2:20; 4:10). The horrors of hunger and deprivation would lead people to behave in ways that they otherwise could never imagine.

29:9–13 keep the words of this covenant. The members of the covenant community included all adults, children, and strangers who had joined the Israelites, as well as those yet to be born.

29:10–15 The Covenant Renewed— As Israel reached the plains of Moab, anticipating their entrance into the promised land, it was important for the people to review and renew their covenantal relationship with God. So Moses summoned the people together and challenged them to keep the covenant that God had established with their forefathers. The essential terms of the covenant gave Israel the promised land and prosperity in their possession of it, but only on the condition of their obedience and willingness to walk in God's ways. Go to Theological Notes Index

29:18 heart turns away. To be in the position of once having known the way of the Lord, and then to have turned and followed a path of disobedience and rebellion is a miserable position. It is the cause of great heartache for the faithful ones who see it happening. The backslider becomes more and more hardened against God, and it will ultimately affect a wider and wider group of people. There is no security or safety while persisting in a course of flagrant and continuous rebellion. root [of idolatry] bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood. Tolerance for idolatry and pagan practices would always corrupt the community, and therefore the covenant relationship with God.

29:24–28 Why has the LORD done this. The lesson of faithless Israel would become known among the nations, even as the deliverance of Israel was to be known by them.

29:29 Revelation— Revelation may be defined as that process by which God gives to man truths that he would not otherwise know. The details of the creation story in Genesis 1 and 2 are an example of general revelation. Because man was not created until the sixth day, there was no human to even write about creation until after it happened. God revealed the creation facts to Moses. All created things have an innate knowledge of their Creator through creation itself.

We know God spoke to the human authors of our Bible. We are not sure exactly how it happened, but Scripture gives some examples of specific revelation. God's call to Samuel was in an audible voice he mistook for that of Eli's (1Sa 3). Often God spoke through angels such as when Gabriel was sent to tell Mary she would give birth to the Messiah (Lk 1:26–37). On other occasions it appears that God spoke directly to a man, as he did to Noah (Ge 6) and Moses through the burning bush (Ex 3). On still other occasions God communicated through dreams or visions as he did with the wise men (Mt 2:12) and Peter (Ac 10).

One of the most important ways God reveals Himself to people in Scripture is through encounters where God takes on human form called a theophany or Christophany. In Genesis 32 Jacob wrestled with God, and in Joshua 5 Joshua encounters a commander of the Lord's that most Bible students take to be a pre-incarnate Christ. Go to Theological Notes Index

30:1 when all these things have come on you. God had allowed Moses to foresee Israel's future apostasy and God's dispersal of the people among the nations. Hundreds of years later, these verses must have been both sad and encouraging to the Israelites as they saw the time of their dispersal.

30:6 circumcise your heart. God's intentions for His people have always been for the whole person to respond to Him. Outward symbols, such as circumcision, were always intended to be the mark of an inner reality, the heart that was tender to the Lord.

30:10 this Book of the Law. A reference to the Book of Deuteronomy. all your heart . . . soul. An open heart in the presence God through the law creates a dynamic of “life” and “blessing” (v. 19 ).

30:11 not too difficult for you. This is not a mysterious task.

30:12–13 not [a secret hidden] in heaven . . . beyond the sea. Obeying God’s law is entirely within the reach of the average person.

30:14 very near you. The revelation of God, unlike any other book, makes the truth of immediate importance to the reader.

30:18 today. Moses establishes here the best pattern for the preaching of the Word of God. Responses to God should not be delayed. Assuming that there will be a later day to respond to Him is dangerous thinking.

30:19 life and death. Biblical teaching is remarkable for the clarity with which it presents the great issues that demand decision. Either we love the Lord and walk in His ways, or we turn from Him to worship idols. We can choose life or death, blessing or cursing. God takes no pleasure in the misery of sinners, but urges us to choose life for our good and the good of unborn generations. The Lord has spoken, and we cannot plead ignorance. and your descendants. The present generation’s choice always determines the direction of future generations.

31:2–3 You shall not cross this Jordan. Moses spoke regretfully of God’s refusal to permit him to enter the promised land, yet he continued to make the most important point of all. The leadership of God Himself would not cease with Moses’ death.

31:12–13 Obeying God— Because the Israelites had no books or Bibles, they had to come together to listen to God’s word as read by a priest from a scroll. The laws were to be read to the whole assembly including women and children. No doubt memorization was important as a way of impressing the laws on the minds and hearts of the people. But it was not the end. The expected end result of hearing was obedience. Obedience to the Word of God is the only way that the child of God can please God in the new life. “But prove yourselves doers of the word [actively and continually obeying God’s precepts], and not merely listeners [who hear the word but fail to internalize its meaning], deluding yourselves [by unsound reasoning contrary to the truth]” (Jas 1:22 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

31:16 play the prostitute. This expression speaks both of spiritual adultery and physical acts of sexual immorality that were performed in association with the worship of Baal and Asherah, the gods of Canaan.

31:22 Moses wrote. Psalm 90 is also attributed to Moses, and perhaps Psalm 91 . Both Psalms are logical meditations for these last chapters of Deuteronomy.

32:7 Remembering the Works of God— The Bible’s revelation of God’s work in the past provides an informative and exciting panorama of centuries of divine activity toward man.

First, it gives man an education in truths unknowable apart from divine revelation. For example, the creation of man described in Genesis 1 and 2 answers man’s most basic questions: “Who am I?” and “Where did I come from?” The only way we can get this information is from God Himself.

Second, the Bible sets forth a significant body of historical evidence for the truth and validity of the Christian faith. These evidences include fulfilled prophecy, the miracles of Christ and Christ’s death and resurrection. The believer’s faith is thus grounded in historical events and is much more than just “a leap in the dark.”

Third, the Bible records examples to help present-day Christians. Israel’s failures and the consequences that resulted are used by the New Testament writers as lessons. Believers are urged to avoid grumbling, as Israel did (1Co 10:10–11 ), and the deviant behavior of Sodom and Gomorrah (2Pe 2:4–9 ). Paul is said to be a living example for believers to follow (1Co 4:16 ; 11:1 ), as is Jesus’ humility in the midst of suffering (1Pe 2:21 ).

Fourth, the Bible provides encouragement for Christians in their life and witness. If God could use an adulterer and murderer like David, then God can surely use a struggling Christian today if he has David's passion for the Lord. Likewise, if God saved Saul of Tarsus, the chief enemy of the early church (Ac 9:1–31), he can certainly save the people with whom Christians daily share their faith. Go to Theological Notes Index

32:12 the LORD alone. Deuteronomy is an extended argument against idolatry and paganism. Clearly the Israelites had no reason to abandon the God of grace and love, who had given them all they needed.

32:15 Jeshurun. Jeshurun, a pet name for Israel, means "uprightness." This part of the song contrasts what Israel should have been (upright) and what they became (rebellious). he abandoned God. A nation or a person who has forsaken God is godless. Because God is the source of blessing, peace, joy, wisdom, and comfort, they have also forsaken all of these attributes. One would think that that would be enough to drive people back to God. But persistence in willful disobedience and willful ignorance of God's ways creates a kind of blindness and deafness that makes people unwilling to turn back. At this point God sometimes hides His face, and they experience greater misfortunes.

32:17 demons. Scripture makes it clear that the false gods do not exist as such, and this passage identifies the power behind these gods: demons. It is important to remember this, especially in this era of multiculturalism, when many voices protest the exclusiveness of Christianity.

32:29 discern their . . . ultimate fate. In this great prophetic song Moses longs for the nation of Israel to turn to God and repent of its wickedness. As history proved, there was continual need for Israel to repent and turn back to God. They did abandon their covenant with God, but God did not abandon them, although He let them reap the consequences of their disobedience. Moses was not the last prophet to long for their repentance, and we can only guess at the heavenly joy Moses felt on the Mount of Transfiguration, seeing Jesus the Christ, who would finally redeem the people (Mk 9 ).

32:35 Vengeance is Mine. Only God who is completely just can judge and make right all the wrongs committed (Ro 12:19–20 ).

32:36 have compassion on His servants. God will discern between the righteous and the wicked (Mal 3:16 ).

32:39 God's Sovereignty— In his final words to the Israelites, Moses reminds them where they came from. Their history could not be written without God being in the central position. Their future, likewise, was intimately tied to God. To think otherwise would be folly (Dt 32:28–29 ). The basic point is that no matter how you want to look at it, God is in charge. That was the most basic fact in the Israelites' situation.

God's sovereignty is also the central fact in ours. It is not always easy to affirm it. We would much rather see ourselves as the central controlling force in our lives. Most of us simply don't like being told what to do or how to live. The problem is that the whole history of man teaches us that when God's laws are not followed, disaster ensues. When we put ourselves in charge, sooner or later we pay the price.

A whole generation of Israelites failed to understand God's sovereignty. As a result, they died in the desert, never having arrived at the promised land. While it is true that they lived out their lives, they surely missed out on what could have been. That fact is the basic backdrop for Moses' last words to the new generation, as they approached the promised land. We dare not ignore the lesson. Go to Theological Notes Index

32:43 Rejoice, O nations. These nations are the Gentiles, invited here to join in worship of the living God. All through history there have been a few who accepted this invitation (such as Ruth), and it was fulfilled in Christ (Ro 15 ).

33:1 Moses the man of God. In spite of his failure at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, Moses is noted here and throughout the Bible as "the man of God."

33:4 commanded us with a law. God chose Israel alone to receive His instructions, yet the law was ultimately for His whole creation, as Jesus demonstrated when He broke down the wall between Jew and Gentile (Ro 3–7 ).

33:9–10 the priests observed Your word. The Levites were keepers of God's word, even when it meant drawing their swords against their own brothers (Ex 32:25–29 ). This is a degree of testing that most believers will never experience, but Jesus promised that the world would hate His followers, and they would experience opposition even from their own families (Mt 10:22 ). It is not easy to be a follower of God in a world of sin and death, but the Christian may be assured that as he walks in obedience to God's truth, God "always causes us to triumph in Christ" (2Co 2:14 ).

33:22 lion's cub. This may refer to the small size of the tribe of Dan. Though Dan's land inheritance was close to Judah by the coastal plains, the tribe would not be able to keep their inheritance because of the hostility of the Philistines. Therefore, the Danites would one day migrate to the region of Bashan, south of Mount Hermon (Jdg 18 ).

34:1–2 Moab . . . Jericho . . . western sea. Moab was where Moses had given Israel an explanation of the law and led them in a covenant renewal. Jericho was the first city in Canaan to be conquered. The western sea is the Mediterranean.

34:6 no man knows where his burial place is. If his burial place had been known, some people would have been tempted to make it a shrine and possibly have begun to worship there.

34:9 Joshua . . . filled with the spirit of wisdom. Joshua was the leader chosen to succeed Moses, and God filled him with the spirit of wisdom. But there was another, a prophet like Moses, who would be greater even than Moses. That other was the Lord Jesus Christ (Ac 3:19–26 ).

The Book of

Joshua

- AUTHOR: Jewish tradition seems correct in assigning the authorship of this book to Joshua himself. The unity of style and organization suggest a single authorship for the majority of the book, with the exception of three small portions that may have been added after Joshua's death: Othniel's capture of Kirjath-sepher (15:13–19); Dan's migration to the north (19:47); and Joshua's death and burial (24:29–33). However, Joshua 24:26 makes this clear statement: "And Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God."
- TIMES: c. 1405–1398 BC
- KEY VERSE: Jos 11:23
- THEME: In the Book of Joshua, the Israelites are commanded to destroy everything and everybody so that they can take full possession of the land. The transition of leadership is from Moses to Joshua. A nomadic people attaches themselves to given tracts of land, and a nation is formed from a wandering tribe as the conquest is completed in 21:43–45. We also see how a failure to carry out God's plan completely lays a foundation for future problems.

Joshua 1

God's Commission to Joshua

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant (attendant), saying, [Deut 34:4–8] ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Moses My servant is dead; now therefore arise [to take his place], cross over this Jordan, you and all this people, into the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> “I have given you every place on which the sole of your foot treads, just as I promised to Moses.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> “From the wilderness [of Arabia in the south] and this Lebanon [in the north], even as far as the great river, the river Euphrates [in the east], all the land of the Hittites (Canaan), and as far as the Great [Mediterranean] Sea toward the west shall be your territory.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> “No man will [be able to] stand before you [to oppose you] as long as you live. Just as I was [present] with Moses, so will I be with you; I will not fail you or abandon you.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Be strong and confident and courageous, for you will give this people as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers (ancestors) to give them.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Only be strong and very courageous; be careful to do [everything] in accordance with the entire law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may prosper and be successful wherever you go.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> “This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall read [and meditate on] it day and night, so that you may be careful to do [everything] in accordance with all that is written in it; for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will be successful.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not be terrified or dismayed (intimidated), for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.” ‡

Joshua Assumes Command

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 “Go throughout the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare your provisions, for within three days you are to cross this [river] Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess [as an inheritance].’ ” ‡

12 To the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,

13 “Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is giving you rest (peace) and will give you this land [east of the Jordan].’ ” ‡

14 “Your wives, your children, and your cattle shall [be allowed to] stay in the land which Moses gave you on this [eastern] side of the Jordan, but you shall go across [the river] before your brothers (the other tribes) armed for battle, all your brave warriors, and you shall help them [conquer and take possession of their land],

15 until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as He has given you, and they also take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall [be allowed to] return to your own land, and take possession of that which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.” ‡

16 They answered Joshua, saying, “All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

17 “Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so will we obey you; only may the LORD your God be with you as He was with Moses. ‡

18—“Any man who rebels against your command and does not obey everything that you command him, shall be put to death; only be strong and courageous.”

Joshua 2

Rahab Shelters Spies

1 JOSHUA THE son of Nun sent two men as scouts secretly from Shittim, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho [the walled city].” So they went and came to the house of a prostitute named Rahab, and lodged there. ‡

2 Now the king of Jericho was told, “Behold, men from the sons of Israel have come here tonight to spy and search out the land.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who entered your house, because they have come [as spies] to search out all the land.”

<sup>4</sup> But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them; so she said, “Yes, two men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.”‡

<sup>5</sup> “When it was time to close the [city] gate at dark, the men left; I do not know where they went. Pursue them quickly, for [if you do] you will overtake them.”

<sup>6</sup> But [in fact] she had brought the scouts up to the roof and had hidden them under the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof [to dry].‡

<sup>7</sup> So the [king’s] men pursued them on the road to the Jordan as far as the fords [east of Jericho]; as soon as the pursuers had gone out after them, the gate [of the city] was shut.

<sup>8</sup> Now before the two men lay down [to sleep], Rahab came up to them on the roof,

<sup>9</sup> and she said to the men, “I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the terror and dread of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have melted [in despair] because of you.”‡

<sup>10</sup> “For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan [on the east], to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.”‡

<sup>11</sup> “When we heard it, our hearts melted [in despair], and a [fighting] spirit no longer remained in any man because of you; for the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.  [Heb 11:31. ]‡

<sup>12</sup> “And now, please swear [an oath] to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you also will show kindness to my father’s household (family), and give me a pledge of truth and faithfulness,‡

<sup>13</sup> and spare my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters, along with everyone who belongs to them, and let us all live.”

<sup>14</sup> So the men said to her, “Our lives for yours if you do not tell [anyone about] this business of ours; then when the LORD gives us the land we will show you kindness and faithfulness [and keep our agreement with you].”‡

The Promise to Rahab

<sup>15</sup> Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was built into the city wall, so that she was living on the wall.‡

<sup>16</sup> And she said to them, “Go [west] to the hill country, so that the pursuers [who have headed east] will not encounter you; hide yourselves there for three days until the pursuers return. Then afterward you can go your way.”

<sup>17</sup> The men said to her, “We shall be blameless and free from this oath which you have made us swear,‡

<sup>18</sup> unless, when we come into the land, you tie this cord of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down, and bring into the house your father and your mother and your brothers and all your father’s household [so that they will be safe].‡

<sup>19</sup> “But if anyone goes out the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his own head [that is, his own responsibility], and we shall be blameless and free [from our oath]; however, if a hand is laid on anyone who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head.‡

<sup>20</sup> “But if you tell [anyone] this business of ours, we shall be blameless and free from the oath which you made us swear.”

<sup>21</sup> She said, “According to your words, so be it.” Then Rahab sent them off, and they departed; and she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

<sup>22</sup> They left and went [on their way] to the hill country [west of Jericho], and stayed there [hidden in the caves] three days until the pursuers returned. The pursuers had searched all along the road but had not found them.

<sup>23</sup> Then the two men turned back and came down from the hill country and crossed over [the Jordan] and came to Joshua the son of Nun [at Shittim], and told him everything that had happened to them.

<sup>24</sup> They said to Joshua, “Certainly the LORD has given all the land into our hands; for all the inhabitants of the land have melted [in despair] because of us.”‡

Joshua 3

Israel Crosses the Jordan

<sup>1</sup> JOSHUA GOT up early in the morning; then he and all the children of Israel set out from Shittim and came to the Jordan, and they spent the night there before they crossed [the river].‡

<sup>2</sup> And it happened at the end of three days that the officers went throughout the camp,‡

<sup>3</sup> and they commanded the people, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God being carried by the Levitical priests, then you shall set out from where you are and follow it.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> “However, there shall be a distance between you and it of about 2,000 cubits (3,000 ft.) by measurement. Do not come near it, so that you may [be able to see the ark and] know the way you are to go, for you have not passed this way before.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then Joshua said to the people, “Sanctify yourselves [for His purpose], for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders (miracles) among you.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Joshua said to the priests, “Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over [the river] ahead of the people.” So they took up the ark of the covenant and went on ahead of the people. ‡

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to magnify and exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that just as I was with Moses, I will [also] be with you. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “You shall command the priests who carry the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.’ ” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Joshua said to the Israelites, “Come here, and listen to the words of the LORD your God.”

<sup>10</sup> Joshua said, “By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will, without fail, drive out from before you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Gergashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “So now take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each tribe. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “When the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, [come to] rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan flowing down from above will be cut off, and they will stand in one mass [of water].” ‡

<sup>14</sup> So when the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan with the priests who were carrying the ark of the covenant before the people, ‡

<sup>15</sup> and when those who were carrying the ark came up to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests carrying the ark were submerged at the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all of its banks throughout the time of harvest), ‡

16.the waters which were flowing down from above stopped and rose up in one mass a great distance away at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan. Those [waters] flowing downward toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. So the people crossed [the river] opposite Jericho. [Ps 114.] ‡

17 And while all [the people of] Israel crossed over on dry ground, the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan [riverbed], until all the nation had finished crossing over the Jordan. ‡

Joshua 4

Memorial Stones from Jordan

1 SO IT was when all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua, ‡

2 “Take for yourselves the twelve men [chosen] from among the people, one man from each tribe, ‡

3 and command them, ‘Pick up for yourselves twelve stones [one each] from here out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet are standing firm; carry them over with you and lay them down at the place where you will spend the night tonight.’ ” ‡

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe;

5 and Joshua said to them, “Cross over again to the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel,

6 so that this may be a sign among you; when your children ask later, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’ ‡

7 then you shall say to them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall become a memorial for Israel forever.” ‡

8 So the [twelve men chosen from the] sons of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had spoken to Joshua; and they carried them over with them to the place where they were spending the night and put them down there.

<sup>9</sup> Then Joshua set up [a second monument of] twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan at the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant were standing, and they are there to this day.

<sup>10</sup> For the priests who carried the ark were standing in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to tell the people, in accordance with everything that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people hurried and crossed [the dry riverbed];

<sup>11</sup> and when all the people had finished crossing, the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people.

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed for battle before the [other] sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them; ‡

<sup>13</sup> about 40,000 [men] armed and equipped for war crossed for battle before the LORD to the desert plains of Jericho.

<sup>14</sup> On that day the LORD magnified and exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; so they feared him [with profound awe and reverence], just as they had feared Moses all the days of his life. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Now the LORD said to Joshua,

<sup>16</sup> “Order the priests carrying the ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> When the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come up from the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of their feet were raised up to the dry land, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and flowed over all its banks as before. ‡

<sup>21</sup> He said to the sons of Israel, “When your children ask their fathers in time to come, ‘What do these stones mean?’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> then you shall let your children know, ‘Israel crossed this Jordan on dry ground.’ ‡

<sup>23</sup> “For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you crossed over, just as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed; ‡

<sup>24</sup> so that all the peoples of the earth may know [without any doubt] and acknowledge that the hand of the LORD is mighty and extraordinarily powerful, so that you will fear the LORD your God [and obey and worship Him with profound awe and reverence] forever.” ‡

Joshua 5

Israel Is Circumcised

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened when all the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed over, their hearts melted [in despair], and there was no [fighting] spirit in them any longer because of the Israelites [and what God had done for them]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at Gibeath-haaraloth.

<sup>5</sup> All the males who came out were circumcised, but all the males who were born in the wilderness on the way as they left Egypt had not been circumcised.

<sup>6</sup> For the Israelites walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, that is, the men of war who came out of Egypt, died because they did not listen to the voice of the LORD; to them the LORD had sworn [an oath] that He would not let them see the land which He had promised to their fathers to give us, a land [of abundance] flowing with milk and honey. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So it was their uncircumcised sons whom He raised up in their place, whom Joshua circumcised, because circumcision had not been performed on the way. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then, when they had finished circumcising all [the males of] the nation, they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I have rolled away the reproach

(derision, ridicule) of Egypt from you.” So the name of that place is called Gilgal (rolling) to this day. ‡

<sup>10</sup> While the Israelites camped at Gilgal they observed the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the desert plains of Jericho. ‡

<sup>11</sup> On the day after Passover, on that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened bread, and roasted grain.  [Lev 23:14 ]

<sup>12</sup> And the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten some of the produce of the land, so that the Israelites no longer had manna, but they ate some of the produce of the land of Canaan during that year. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now when Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up, and behold, a man was standing opposite him with his drawn sword in his hand, and Joshua went to him and said to him, “Are you for us or for our adversaries?” ‡

<sup>14</sup> He said, “No; rather I have come now as captain of the army of the LORD.” Then Joshua fell with his face toward the earth and bowed down, and said to him, “What does my lord have to say to his servant?” ‡

<sup>15</sup> The captain of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Remove your sandals from your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy (set apart to the LORD).” And Joshua did so.  [Ex 3:5 ] ‡

Joshua 6

The Conquest of Jericho

<sup>1</sup> NOW JERICHO [a fortified city with high walls] was tightly closed because [of the people’s fear] of the sons of Israel; no one went out or came in.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king and the mighty warriors. ‡ <sup>3</sup> “Now you shall march around the city, all the men of war circling the city once. You shall do this [once each day] for six days.

<sup>4</sup> “Also, seven priests shall carry seven trumpets [made] of rams’ horns ahead of the ark; then on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “When they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall cry out with a great shout (battle cry); and the wall of the city will fall down in its place, and the people shall go up, each man [going] straight ahead [climbing over the rubble].”

<sup>6</sup> So Joshua the son of Nun called for the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and have seven priests carry seven trumpets made of rams’ horns ahead of the ark of the LORD.”

<sup>7</sup> He said to the people, “Go forward! March around the city, and let the armed men go ahead of the ark of the LORD.”

<sup>8</sup> And it was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets made of rams’ horns went on before the LORD and blew the trumpets; then the ark of the covenant of the LORD went behind them.

<sup>9</sup> The armed men went in front of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while the priests continued to blow the trumpets. ‡

<sup>10</sup> But Joshua commanded the people, “You shall not shout [the battle cry] nor let your voice be heard nor let a word come out of your mouth, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout!”

<sup>11</sup> So Joshua had the ark of the LORD taken around the city [on the first day], circling it once; then they came back into the camp and spent the night in the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Then Joshua got up early in the morning [on the second day], and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. ‡

<sup>13</sup> The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets made of rams’ horns ahead of the ark of the LORD went on continually, blowing the trumpets; and the armed men went ahead of them and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the priests continued to blow the trumpets.

<sup>14</sup> On the second day they marched around the city once, and returned to the camp; they did this for six days.

<sup>15</sup> Then on the seventh day they got up early at daybreak and marched around the city in the same way seven times; only on that day they marched around the city seven times.

<sup>16</sup> And the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city.

<sup>17</sup> “The city and everything that is in it shall be under the ban [that is, designated to be destroyed as a form of tribute] to the LORD; only Rahab the prostitute and all [the people] who are with her in her house shall [be allowed to] live, because she hid and protected the messengers (scouts) whom we sent. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But as for you, keep yourselves [away] from the things under the ban [which are to be destroyed], so that you do not covet them and take some of the things under the ban [for personal gain], and put the camp of Israel under the ban (doomed to destruction), and bring disaster upon it. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “All the silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron are holy (consecrated) to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD.”

<sup>20</sup> So the people shouted [the battle cry], and the priests blew the trumpets. When the people heard the sound of the trumpet, they raised a great shout and the wall [of Jericho] fell down, so that the sons of Israel went up into the city, every man straight ahead [climbing over the rubble], and they overthrew the city. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then they utterly destroyed everything that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the prostitute’s house and bring the woman and all that she has out of there, as you have sworn to her.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> So the young men, the spies, went in and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and everything that she had; they also brought out all her relatives and allowed them to stay outside the camp of Israel [at Gilgal during the time required for ceremonial cleansing].  [Num 31:19. ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then they completely burned the city and everything that was in it. They put only the silver and the gold, and the articles of bronze and of iron, into the treasury of the house (tabernacle) of the LORD. ‡

<sup>25</sup> So Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, with her father’s household and everything that she had; and she has lived among Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers (scouts) whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then Joshua made them take an oath at that time, saying, “Cursed before the LORD is the man who rises up and rebuilds this city, Jericho; with the loss of his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son he shall set up its gates.”  [1 Kin 16:34. ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land. ‡

Joshua 7

Israel Is Defeated at Ai

<sup>1</sup> BUT THE sons of Israel acted unfaithfully and violated their obligation in regard to the things [off limits] under the ban [those things belonging to the LORD], for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took some of the things under the ban [for personal gain]. Therefore the anger of the LORD burned against the Israelites. ‡ <sup>2</sup> Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, “Go up and spy out the land.” So the men went up and spied out Ai.

<sup>3</sup> Then they returned to Joshua and said to him, “Do not make all the people go up [to fight]; have only about two thousand or three thousand men go up and attack Ai; do not make the entire army go up there, for they [of Ai] are few.”

<sup>4</sup> So about three thousand men from the sons of Israel went up there, but they fled [in retreat] from the men of Ai. ‡

<sup>5</sup> The men of Ai killed about thirty-six of Israel’s men, and chased them from the gate as far as [the bluffs of] Shebarim and struck them down as they descended [the steep pass], so the hearts of the people melted [in despair and began to doubt God’s promise] and became like water (disheartened). ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell face downward on the ground before the ark of the LORD until evening, he and the elders of Israel; and [with great sorrow] they put dust on their heads. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Joshua said, “Alas, O Lord GOD, why have You brought this people across the Jordan at all, only to hand us over to the Amorites, to destroy us? If only we had been willing to live beyond the Jordan! ‡

<sup>8</sup> “O Lord, what can I say now that [the army of] Israel has turned back [in retreat and fled] before their enemies?

<sup>9</sup> “For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear about it, and will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what will You do for Your great name [to keep it from dishonor]?” ‡

<sup>10</sup> So the LORD said to Joshua, “Get up! Why is it that you have fallen on your face?

<sup>11</sup> “Israel has sinned; they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them [to keep]. They have even taken some of the things under the ban, and they have both stolen and denied [the theft]. Moreover, they have also put the stolen objects among their own things. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “That is why the soldiers of Israel could not stand [and defend themselves] before their enemies; they turned their backs [and ran] before them, because they have become accursed. I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy the things under the ban from among you. ‡

tomorrow, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: “There are things under the ban among you, O Israel. You cannot stand [victorious] before your enemies until you remove the things under the ban from among you.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘In the morning you shall come forward by your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD chooses by lot shall come forward by families, and the family which the LORD chooses shall come forward by [separate] households, and the household which the LORD chooses shall come forward man by man. ‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘It shall be that the one who is chosen with the things under the ban shall be [killed and his body] burned with fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful and disobedient thing in Israel.’ ” [Josh 7:25] ‡

The Sin of Achan

<sup>16</sup> So Joshua got up early in the morning and had Israel come forward by tribes, and the tribe of Judah was chosen [by lot].

<sup>17</sup> He had the families of Judah come forward, and the family of the Zerahites was chosen; and he had the family of the Zerahites come forward man by man, and Zabdi was chosen.

<sup>18</sup> He brought his household forward man by man; and Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was chosen. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, I implore you, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give praise to Him [in recognition of His righteous judgments]; and tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> So Achan answered Joshua and said, “In truth, I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel, and this is what I have done:

<sup>21</sup> when I saw among the spoils [in Jericho] a beautiful robe from Shinar (southern Babylon) and two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, I wanted them and took them. Behold, they are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath.”

<sup>22</sup> So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and they saw the stolen objects hidden in his tent, with the silver underneath.

<sup>23</sup> And they took them from the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel, and spread them out before the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the [royal] robe, the bar of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and everything that he had; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor (Disaster). ‡

<sup>25</sup>Joshua said, “Why have you brought disaster on us? The LORD will bring you disaster this day.” Then all Israel stoned them [to death] with stones; afterward they burned their bodies in the fire. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then they piled up over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor (Disaster) to this day. ‡

The Conquest of Ai

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear or be dismayed (intimidated). Take all the men of war with you and set out, go up to Ai; see, I have given the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land into your hand. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “You shall do [the same] to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king; [except that] you shall take only its spoil and its cattle as plunder for yourselves. Set up an ambush for the city behind it [on the west side].” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Joshua set out with all the people of war to go up against Ai; then Joshua chose thirty thousand valiant men, and sent them out at night.

<sup>4</sup> He commanded them, saying, “Listen closely, you are going to lie in wait and ambush the city from behind it. Do not go very far away from the city, but all of you be ready. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. And when they come out to meet us [for battle] as [they did] the first time, we will run away from them. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “They will come out after us until we have lured them away from the city, because they will say, ‘They are running from us as [they did] before.’ So we will run from them.

<sup>7</sup> “Then you will emerge from the ambush and take possession of the city, for the LORD your God will hand it over to you.

<sup>8</sup> “When you have taken the city, you shall set it on fire; you shall do [exactly] as the LORD commanded. See, I have commanded you.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Joshua sent them off, and they went to the place for the ambush and stayed [hidden] between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua spent that night among the people [in Gilgal].

<sup>10</sup> Now Joshua got up early in the morning and assembled the people, and went up with the elders of Israel before the people to Ai.

<sup>11</sup> Then all the fighting men who were with him went up and advanced and arrived in front of the city, and camped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a ravine between them and Ai. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And Joshua took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.

<sup>13</sup> So they stationed the people, all the army—the main encampment that was north of the city, and their rear guard on the west side of the city—and Joshua spent that night in the valley.

<sup>14</sup> Now when the king [and the people] of Ai saw it, the men of the city hurried and got up early and went out to meet Israel in battle, the king and all his people at the appointed [time and] place before the desert plain (the Arabah). But he did not know that there was an ambush against him [waiting] behind the city [on the west side]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So Joshua and all Israel pretended to be defeated by them, and ran toward the wilderness. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were lured away from the city.

<sup>17</sup> Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who had not gone out after Israel; so they left the city open and unguarded and they pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Reach out with the spear that is in your hand [and point it] toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” So Joshua reached out with the spear in his hand [and pointed it] toward the city.

<sup>19</sup> The [men in] ambush emerged quickly from their [hiding] place, and when Joshua stretched out his hand they ran and entered the city and captured it, and quickly set the city on fire.

<sup>20</sup> When the men of Ai turned back and looked, behold, the smoke of the city was ascending toward the sky, and they had no opportunity to run this way or that way. Then the people who had been running to the wilderness turned back toward the pursuers.

<sup>21</sup> When Joshua and all Israel saw that the [men in] ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city was ascending, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

<sup>22</sup> Then the others came out of the city to confront the men of Ai [as they returned], so that they were trapped in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side; then Israel struck them until none of them survived or escaped. ‡

<sup>23</sup> But they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup> When Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field in the wilderness where they pursued them, and they had all fallen by the edge of the sword until they were destroyed, then all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

<sup>25</sup> And all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.

<sup>26</sup> For Joshua did not withdraw his hand with which he stretched out the spear until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

<sup>27</sup> Israel took only the livestock and the spoil of that city as plunder for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua. ‡

<sup>28</sup> So Joshua burned Ai and made it a rubbish heap forever, a desolation until this day. ‡

<sup>29</sup> He hanged [the body of] the king of Ai on a tree [leaving it there] until evening; at sunset Joshua gave a command and they took the body down from the tree and dumped it at the entrance of the city gate, and piled a great heap of stones over it that stands to this day. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, ‡

<sup>31</sup> just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones on which no one has wielded an iron tool; and they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. ‡

<sup>32</sup> And there, in the presence of the sons of Israel, Joshua wrote on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses which Moses had written. ‡

<sup>33</sup> All Israel, the stranger as well as the native born [among them], with their elders and officers and their judges, stood on either side of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD. Half of them stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at first to bless the people of Israel. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Then afterward Joshua read all the words of the law, the blessing and curse, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law. ‡

<sup>35</sup> There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before the entire assembly of Israel, including the women and the children and the foreigners who were living among them. ‡

Joshua 9

Guile of the Gibeonites

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country and in the lowland [at the western edge of the hills of Judea], and all along the coast of the Great [Mediterranean] Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, heard of this [army and its victories over Jericho and Ai], ‡

<sup>3</sup> But when the people of Gibeon [the Hivites] heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, ‡

<sup>4</sup> they too acted craftily and cunningly, and set out and took along provisions, but took worn-out sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins (leather bottles) that were worn out and split open and patched together,

<sup>5</sup> and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes; and all their supply of food was dry and had turned to crumbs.

<sup>6</sup> They went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the men of Israel, “We have come from a far country; so now, make a covenant (treaty) with us.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> But the men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you are living within our land; how then can we make a covenant (treaty) with you?” ‡

<sup>8</sup> They said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” Then Joshua said to them, “Who are you, and where do you come from?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> They said to him, “Your servants have come from a country that is very far away because of the fame of the LORD your God; for we have heard the news about Him and all [the remarkable things] that He did in Egypt, ‡

<sup>10</sup> and everything that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon the king of Heshbon and to Og the king of Bashan who lived in Ashtaroth. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “So our elders and all the residents of our country said to us, ‘Take provisions for the journey and go to meet the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘We are your servants; now make a covenant (treaty) with us.’’

<sup>12</sup> “This bread of ours was hot (fresh) when we took it along as our provision from our houses on the day we left to come to you; now look, it is dry and has turned to crumbs.

<sup>13</sup> “These wineskins which we filled were new, and look, they are split; our clothes and our sandals are worn out because of the very long journey [that we had to make].”

<sup>14</sup> So the men [of Israel] took some of their own provisions [and offered them in friendship], and [foolishly] did not ask for the counsel of the LORD. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant (treaty) with them, to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation [of Israel] swore an oath to them. ‡

<sup>16</sup> It happened that three days after they had made a covenant (treaty) with them, the Israelites heard that they were [actually] their neighbors and that they were living among them.

<sup>17</sup> Then the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. Now the cities [of the Hivites] were Gibeon and Chephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath-jearim. ‡

<sup>18</sup> But the sons of Israel did not strike them because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD the God of Israel [to spare them]. And all the congregation murmured [expressing great dissatisfaction] against the leaders. ‡

<sup>19</sup> But all the leaders said to the whole congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, so now we cannot touch them.”

<sup>20</sup> “This [is what] we will do to them: we will let them live, so that the wrath [of God] does not come upon us for [violating] the oath which we have sworn to them.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> The leaders said to them, “Let them live [as our slaves].” So they became the cutters and gatherers of firewood and water carriers for the entire congregation, just as the leaders had said of them. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Joshua called the [Hivite] men and said, “Why did you deceive us, saying, ‘We live very far away from you,’ when [in fact] you live among us? ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Now therefore, you are cursed, and you shall always be slaves, both cutters and gatherers of firewood and water carriers for the house of my God.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> They replied to Joshua and said, “Because your servants were told in no uncertain terms that the LORD your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the land’s inhabitants before you, we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and so we did this [deceptive] thing. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Now look, we are in your hands; do to us as it seems good and right in your sight.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> So that is what he did to them; he rescued them from the hands of the Israelites and they did not kill them.

<sup>27</sup> Now on that day Joshua made them cutters and gatherers of firewood and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which He would choose. ‡

Joshua 10

Five Kings Attack Gibeon

<sup>1</sup> WHEN ADONI-ZEDEK king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai, and had utterly destroyed it—as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king—and that the residents of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were [living] among them, ‡ The Battle of Gibeon

<sup>2</sup> he [and his people] feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

<sup>4</sup> “Come up to me and help me, and let us attack Gibeon [with a combined army], because it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons (people) of Israel.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they with all their armies, and they camped by Gibeon and fought against it. ‡

<sup>6</sup> So the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, “Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all [five of] the kings of the Amorites who live in the hill country have assembled against us.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the men of valor. ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Joshua came upon them suddenly, [surprising them] by marching [uphill] all night from Gilgal.

10 And the LORD caused them to panic and be confused before Israel, and He struck them dead in a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goes up to Beth-horon and struck them as far as Azekah and Makkedah. ‡

11 As they fled before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth-horon, the LORD threw down large stones [of hail] from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died. More [Amorites] died because of the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword. ‡

12 Then Joshua spoke to the LORD on the day when the LORD handed over the Amorites to the sons of Israel, and Joshua said in the sight of Israel, ‡

“Sun, stand still at Gibeon,
And moon, in the Valley of Aijalon.”

13 So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, ‡
Until the nation [of Israel] took vengeance upon their enemies.

Is it not written in the Book of Jashar? So the sun stood still in the middle of the sky and was in no hurry to go down for about a whole day.

14 There has not been a day like that before it or after it, when the LORD listened to (heeded) the voice of a man; for the LORD was fighting for Israel. ‡

15 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal. ‡

Victory at Makkedah

16 Now these five [Amorite] kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah. The Invasion of Judah and the Southern Tribes

17 And Joshua was told, “The five kings have been found and are hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”

18 Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and assign men by it to guard them,

19 but do not stay there yourselves; pursue your enemies and attack them from the rear. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand.”

20 Now when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished striking the Amorites dead in a very great defeat, until they were wiped out, and the surviving remnant among them had entered the fortified cities,

<sup>21</sup> all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. No one uttered a [threatening] word against any of the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave and bring out to me those five [Amorite] kings from the cave.”

<sup>23</sup> They did so, and brought these five [Amorite] kings out of the cave to him—the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

<sup>24</sup> When they brought these kings out to Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and told the commanders of the men of war who had gone with him, “Come up close, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came forward and put their feet on the necks [of the five kings]. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Joshua said to them, “Do not fear or be dismayed (intimidated)! Be strong and courageous, for this is what the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you [are about to] fight.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then afterward Joshua struck them [with his sword] and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees; and they hung on the trees until evening. ‡

<sup>27</sup> At sunset Joshua gave a command, and they took the bodies down from the trees and threw them into the cave where the kings had hidden themselves, and placed large stones over the mouth of the cave, [where they remain] to this very day. ‡

<sup>28</sup> Now Joshua captured Makkedah on that day, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed it and everyone who was in it. He left no survivor. So he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.  [Josh 6:21 ] ‡

Joshua’s Conquest of Southern Canaan

<sup>29</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him went on from Makkedah to Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

<sup>30</sup> The LORD gave it also along with its king into the hands of Israel, and Joshua struck it and every person who was in it with the edge of the sword. He left no survivor in it. So he did to the king of Libnah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>32</sup> The LORD gave Lachish into the hands of Israel; and Joshua captured it on the second day, and struck it and every person who was in it with the edge of the sword, just as he had done to Libnah.

<sup>34</sup> And Joshua and all Israel with him went on from Lachish to Eglon, and they camped by it and fought against it.

<sup>35</sup> They captured it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; and on that day he utterly destroyed every person who was in it, just as he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought against it ‡

<sup>37</sup> and captured it and struck it and its king and all its cities and all the persons who were in it with the edge of the sword. He left no survivor, just as he had done to Eglon. He utterly destroyed it and every person who was in it.

<sup>38</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to Debir, and fought against it. ‡

<sup>39</sup> He captured it with its king and all its cities, and they struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed every person who was in it. He left no survivor. Just as he had done to Hebron, so Joshua did to Debir and its king, as he had done also to Libnah and its king.

<sup>40</sup> So Joshua struck all the land, the hill country, the Negev (South country) and the lowland and the slopes [that descend to the Dead Sea] and all their kings. He left no survivor, but he utterly destroyed all who breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded.  [Deut 20:16 ] ‡

<sup>42</sup> Joshua captured all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. ‡

Joshua 11

Northern Canaan Taken

<sup>1</sup> THEN WHEN Jabin king of Hazor heard [of Israel's other victories] he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, ‡

<sup>2</sup> and to the kings who were in the north, in the hill country, and in the Arabah [the plain] south of Chinnereth (the Sea of Galilee) and in the lowland and on the hills of Dor on the west; ‡

<sup>3</sup> to the Canaanite in the east and in the west, and to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite at the foot of [Mount] Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. ‡

<sup>4</sup> They went out, they and all their armies with them, as many people as the sand on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So all these kings met and they came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow by this time I am going to hand over all of them slain [by the sword] to Israel; you shall hamstring (disable) their horses and set fire to their chariots.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So Joshua and all the people of war with him came against them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and attacked them.

<sup>8</sup>-The LORD handed them over to Israel, who struck them and pursued them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim and eastward as far as the Valley of Mizpeh; they struck them down until no survivor was left. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him; he hamstrung (disabled) their horses and set fire to their chariots.

<sup>10</sup> At that time Joshua turned back and captured Hazor and struck its king dead with the sword; for Hazor previously was the head of all these kingdoms.

<sup>11</sup> They struck all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them; there was no one left who breathed. And he set fire to Hazor.

<sup>12</sup> Joshua captured all the cities of these kings, and all their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded. [Deut 20:16] ‡

<sup>13</sup> But Israel did not burn any of the cities that stood [walled and fortified] on their mounds, except Hazor alone, which Joshua burned.

<sup>15</sup> Just as the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, so Moses had commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.‡

16 So Joshua took all this land: the hill country, all the Negev (South country), all the land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah [plain], the hill country of Israel and its lowland‡

17 from Mount Halak, that rises toward Seir [in the south], even as far as Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon at the foot of Mount Hermon [in the north]. He captured all their kings and struck them and put them to death.‡

18 Joshua waged war with all these kings a long time [at least five years].

19 There was no city that made peace with the Israelites except the Hivites living in Gibeon; they took all the others in battle.‡

20 For it was [the purpose] of the LORD to harden their hearts, to meet Israel in battle so that Israel would utterly destroy them, that they would receive no mercy, but that Israel would destroy them, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.‡

21 Then Joshua came at that time and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab and from all the hill country of Judah and all the hill country of Israel. Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.‡

22 There were no Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod [of Philistia] some remained.‡

23 So Joshua took the whole land [of Canaan], according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses, and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. So the land had rest from war.‡

Joshua 12

Kings Defeated by Israel

1 NOW THESE are the kings of the land whom the sons of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed beyond the Jordan toward the east, from the valley of the [river] Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah [plain] to the east:‡ The Battle of the Waters at Merom

2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the [river] Arnon, both the middle of the valley and half of Gilead, and as far as the brook Jabbok, [which is] the border of the sons of Ammon;‡

3 and the Arabah [plain] as far as the Sea of Chinnereth (Galilee) eastward, and as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt (Dead) Sea, eastward toward Beth-jeshimoth, and southward to the foot of the slopes of [Mount] Pisgah; ‡

<sup>4</sup> and the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the remnant of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, ‡

<sup>5</sup> and ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah and all of Bashan to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and over half of Gilead, as far as the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Moses the servant of the LORD and the sons of Israel defeated them; and Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land as a possession to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh. [Num 21; 32:33; Deut 2; 3] ‡

<sup>7</sup> These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the sons of Israel defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir. Joshua gave their land to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions, ‡

<sup>8</sup> in the hill country, in the lowland (foothills), in the Arabah [plain], on the slopes [descending to the Dead Sea], and in the wilderness, and in the Negev (South country)—the [lands of the] Hittite, the Amorite and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite: ‡

<sup>9</sup> the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one; ‡

<sup>15</sup> the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; ‡

<sup>23</sup> the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of Goiim in Gilgal, one; ‡

Joshua 13

Canaan Divided among the Tribes

<sup>1</sup> NOW JOSHUA was old and advanced in years, and the LORD said to him, “You have grown old and advanced in years, and very substantial portions of the land remain to be possessed. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and all those of the Geshurites; ‡

<sup>3</sup> from the Shihor [waterway] which is east of Egypt [at the southern end of Canaan], northward to the border of Ekron (all of it regarded as Canaanite); the five rulers of the Philistines: the Gazite, Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, the Ekonite; and the Avvite ‡

<sup>6</sup> “As for all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, even all the Sidonians, I will drive them out before Israel; only allot the land to Israel as an inheritance just as I have commanded you. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “So now, divide this land [west of the Jordan] as an inheritance for the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.”

<sup>8</sup> With the other half-tribe [of Manasseh], the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance which Moses gave them beyond the Jordan eastward, just as Moses the servant of the LORD gave to them; ‡

<sup>10</sup> and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the Ammonites; ‡

<sup>11</sup> and Gilead, and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salekah; ‡

<sup>13</sup> But the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites or the Maacathites; for Geshur and Maacath live among Israel to this day. ‡

<sup>14</sup> It was only to the tribe of Levi that Moses gave no [territory as an] inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as He told him. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their families.

<sup>17</sup> with Heshbon, and all its cities which are on the plain: Dibon and Bamoth-baal and Beth-baal-meon,

<sup>21</sup> even all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck down along with the leaders of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land. ‡

<sup>22</sup>—The sons of Israel also killed Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner (soothsayer), with the sword among [the rest of] their slain.  [Num 31:16 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> The border of the sons of Reuben was the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their families, with their cities and villages.

<sup>24</sup> Moses also gave an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad, according to their families.

<sup>25</sup> Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the sons of Ammon, as far as Aroer east of Rabbah; ‡

<sup>26</sup> and from Heshbon as far as Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim as far as the border of Debir;

<sup>28</sup> This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their families, with their cities and their villages.

<sup>29</sup> Moses also gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; and it was for the half-tribe of the sons of Manasseh according to their families.

<sup>30</sup> Their region extended from Mahanaim, all Bashan, the entire kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities; ‡

<sup>31</sup> also half of Gilead, with Ashtaroth and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan; these were for the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the sons of Machir according to their families (clans). ‡

<sup>32</sup> These are the territories which Moses distributed as an inheritance in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho to the east.

<sup>33</sup> But to the tribe of Levi, Moses did not give an inheritance; the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as He told them. ‡

Joshua 14

Caleb's Request

<sup>1</sup> NOW THESE are the territories which the tribes of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the households of the tribes of Israel apportioned to them as an inheritance, ‡ The Borders of the Tribal Territories

<sup>2</sup> by the lot of their inheritance, as the LORD had commanded through Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For Moses had given an inheritance to the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but he did not give [any territory as] an inheritance to the Levites among them. ‡

<sup>4</sup> For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and no portion was given in the land to the Levites except cities in which to live, with their pasture lands for their livestock and for their property. ‡

<sup>5</sup> The Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they divided the land. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the [tribe of the] sons of Judah approached Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know the word which the LORD said to Moses the man of God concerning me and you in Kadesh-barnea. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to scout the land [of Canaan], and I brought a report back to him as it was in my heart. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “My brothers (fellow spies) who went up with me made the heart of the people melt with fear; but I followed the LORD my God completely. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “So Moses swore [an oath to me] on that day, saying, ‘Be assured that the land on which your foot has walked will be an inheritance to you and to your children always, because you have followed the LORD my God completely.’  [Deut 1:35, 36 ] ‡

10 “And now, look, the LORD has let me live, just as He said, these forty-five years since the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel wandered in the wilderness; and now, look at me, I am eighty-five years old today. ‡

11 “I am still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so is my strength now, for war and for going out and coming in. ‡

12 “So now, give me this hill country about which the LORD spoke that day, for you heard on that day that the [giant-like] Anakim were there, with great fortified cities; perhaps the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out just as the LORD said.” ‡

13 So Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance. ‡

14 Therefore, Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, completely. ‡

15 The name of Hebron was formerly Kiriat-arba [city of Arba]; for Arba was the greatest man among the [giant-like] Anakim. Then the land had rest from war. ‡

Joshua 15

Territory of Judah

1 NOW THE lot (allotment) for the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families reached [southward to] the border of Edom, southward to the wilderness of Zin at its most southern part. ‡

2 Their southern border was from the lower end of the Salt (Dead) Sea, from the bay that turns southward.

3 Then it proceeded southward to the ascent of Akrabbim and continued along to Zin, and then went by the south of Kadesh-barnea and continued along to Hezron, and went up to Addar and turned about to Karka. ‡

4 It continued along to Azmon and proceeded to the Brook of Egypt (Wadi el-Arish), and the border ended at the [Mediterranean] sea. This was their southern border. ‡

<sup>5</sup> The eastern border was the Salt (Dead) Sea, as far as the mouth of the Jordan. The northern border was from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan.

<sup>8</sup> Then the border went up by the Valley of Ben-hinnom (son of Hinnom) at the southern slope of the Jebusite [city] (that is, Jerusalem); and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom to the west, which is at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now to Caleb the son of Jephunneh Joshua gave a portion among the sons of Judah, as the LORD commanded him, namely, Kiriath-arba, Arba being the father of Anak (that is, Hebron). ‡

<sup>14</sup> So Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, the children of Anak. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then he went up from there against the people of Debir; Debir was formerly named Kiriath-sepher. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Caleb said, “I will give Achsah my daughter as wife to the man who attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s brother, captured it; so he gave him Achsah his daughter as a wife. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Now it came about that when Achsah came to Othniel, she persuaded him

[to allow her] to ask her father for a field. Then she [rode up to Caleb and] dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you want?” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Achsah answered, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me the [dry] land of the Negev (South country), give me springs of water, too.” So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. ‡

<sup>20</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families (clans).

<sup>21</sup> The cities of the tribe of the sons of Judah in the extreme south toward the border of Edom were Kabzeel and Eder and Jagur,

<sup>22</sup> and Kinah and Dimonah and Adadah,

<sup>24</sup> Ziph and Telem and Bealoth,

<sup>26</sup> Amam and Shema and Moladah,

<sup>27</sup> and Hazar-gaddah and Heshmon and Beth-pelet,

<sup>28</sup> and Hazar-shual and Beersheba and Biziothiah,

<sup>29</sup> Baalah and Iim and Ezem,

<sup>36</sup> and Shaaraim and Adithaim and Gederah and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages.

<sup>46</sup> from Ekron even to the sea, all that were beside Ashdod, with their villages;

<sup>47</sup> Ashdod, with its towns and its villages; Gaza, with its towns and its villages; as far as the Brook of Egypt (Wadi el-Arish) and the Great [Mediterranean] Sea with its coastline. ‡

<sup>49</sup> and Dannah and Kiriath-sannah (that is, Debir),

<sup>51</sup> and Goshen and Holon and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages. ‡

<sup>52</sup> Arab and Dumah and Eshan,

<sup>54</sup> and Humtah and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior; nine cities with their villages. ‡

<sup>62</sup> and Nibshan and the City of Salt and Engedi; six cities with their villages.

<sup>63</sup>-But as for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the [tribe of the] sons of Judah were not able to drive them out; so the Jebusites live with the sons of Judah in Jerusalem to this day. ‡

Joshua 16

Territory of Ephraim

<sup>2</sup> Then it went from Bethel to Luz, and continued to Ataroth, the border of the Archites. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the border went westward at Michmethath on the north, and turned eastward to Taanath-shiloh and continued beyond it to the east of Janoah. ‡

<sup>9</sup> with the cities which were set apart for the sons of Ephraim within the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages. ‡

<sup>10</sup> But they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so the Canaanites live among Ephraim to this day, and they became forced laborers. ‡

Joshua 17

Territory of Manasseh

<sup>1</sup> NOW THIS was the lot (allotment) for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So the lot was also made for the rest of the sons of Manasseh according to their families—for the sons of Abiezer and for the sons of Helek and for the sons of Asriel and for the sons of Shechem and for the sons of Hepher and for the sons of Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families (clans). ‡

<sup>3</sup> But Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. ‡

<sup>4</sup> They came before Eleazar the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun and before the leaders and said, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” So according to the command of the LORD

Joshua gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers.‡

<sup>5</sup> So ten portions fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan [on the east side of the river],

<sup>6</sup> because the daughters of [Zelophehad, a descendant of] Manasseh had received an inheritance among his [other] sons [whose inheritance went to their male descendants]. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh. [Num 36:5–12.]

<sup>8</sup> The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but [the city of] Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim.‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the border went down to the brook of Kanah, south of the brook (these cities belonged to Ephraim, among the cities of Manasseh), and Manasseh's border was on the north side of the brook and it ended at the sea.‡

<sup>10</sup> The land on the south side belonged to Ephraim and that on the north side was Manasseh's, and the sea was their border; they reached to [the territory of] Asher on the north and to [the territory of] Issachar on the east.

<sup>11</sup> Also, in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its towns and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; the third is Napheth.‡

<sup>12</sup> But the sons of Manasseh were not able to [drive out the inhabitants and] take possession of these cities, because the Canaanites persisted in living in that land.‡

<sup>13</sup> When the Israelites became strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out completely.‡

<sup>14</sup> The sons of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given us only one lot and one portion as an inheritance, when we are a numerous people whom the LORD has so far blessed?"‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Joshua replied, "If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest and clear ground for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you."

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the valley have iron chariots, both those who are in Beth-shean and its towns and those in the Valley of Jezreel."‡

<sup>17</sup> Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, "You are a numerous people and have great power; you shall not have only one lot,

<sup>18</sup> but the hill country shall be yours. For though it is a forest, you shall clear it and possess it to its farthest borders; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and though they are strong.” ‡

Rest of the Land Divided

<sup>2</sup> There remained among the Israelites seven tribes who had not yet divided their inheritance.

<sup>3</sup>-So Joshua asked them, “How long will you put off entering to take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you? ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Provide for yourselves three men from each tribe so that I may send them, and that they may go through the land and write a description of it with regard to their [tribal] inheritance; then they shall return to me.

<sup>5</sup> “They shall divide it into seven parts; [the tribe of] Judah shall remain in its territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall remain in its territory on the north. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “You shall describe the land in seven divisions, and bring the description here to me. I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But the Levites have no portion among you, because the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh also have received their inheritance eastward beyond the Jordan, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the men arose and went [on their way], and Joshua commanded those who went to describe the land, saying, “Go and walk throughout the land and describe it, and return to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.”

<sup>9</sup> So the men set out and passed through the land, and described it by cities in seven divisions in a book; and they came back to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land to the sons of Israel, [to each tribe] according to their portions.

The Territory of Benjamin

<sup>11</sup> Now the lot (allotment) of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot fell between [the tribes of] the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph.

<sup>15</sup> The southern side was from the edge of Kiriath-jearim, and the border went on westward and went to the source of the waters of Nephtoah. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then the border went down to the edge of the hill overlooking the Valley of Ben-hinnom (son of Hinnom), which is at the north end of the Valley of Rephaim; and it descended to the Valley of Hinnom, south to the slope of the Jebusite, and went on down to En-rogel. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then it turned toward the north and went on to En-shemesh and on to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, and it went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. ‡

<sup>20</sup> And the Jordan River was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, according to their families and according to its borders all around.

<sup>21</sup> Now the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho and Beth-hoglah and Emek-keziz,

<sup>22</sup> and Beth-arabah and Zemaraim and Bethel,

<sup>26</sup> and Mizpeh and Chephirah and Mozah,

<sup>27</sup> and Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah,

<sup>28</sup> and Zelah, Haeleph and the Jebusite (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeath, Kiriath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of [the tribe of] the sons of Benjamin according to their families (clans). ‡

Joshua 19

Territory of Simeon

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE second lot fell to Simeon, to the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families (clans), and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the sons of Judah. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So they had as their inheritance Beersheba or Sheba and Moladah, ‡

<sup>4</sup> and Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah,

<sup>8</sup> and all the villages which were around these cities as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the Negev (South country). This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families.

<sup>9</sup> The inheritance of the sons of Simeon was taken from the portion of the sons of Judah, for the share of the sons of Judah was too large for them; so the sons of Simeon received an inheritance within Judah's inheritance. ‡

Territory of Zebulun

<sup>10</sup> The third lot came up for [the tribe of] the sons of Zebulun according to their families. The territory of their inheritance extended to Sarid.

<sup>11</sup> Then its border went up westward and on to Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth and reached to the brook east of Jokneam. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then it turned from Sarid east toward the sunrise as far as the border of Chisloth-tabor, and it proceeded to Daberath and on up to Japhia.

<sup>16</sup> This was the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Territory of Issachar

<sup>17</sup> The fourth lot fell to [the tribe of] Issachar, to the sons of Issachar according to their families.

<sup>19</sup> and Haphraim and Shion and Anaharath,

<sup>20</sup> and Rabbith and Kishion and Ebez,

<sup>23</sup> This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Territory of Asher

<sup>24</sup> The fifth lot fell to the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families.

<sup>26</sup> and Allammelech and Amad and Mishal; and on the west it reached to Carmel and to Shihor-libnath.

<sup>27</sup> Then it turned eastward to Beth-dagon and reached Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtahel northward to Beth-emek and Neiel, and continued in the north to Cabul,

<sup>29</sup> Then the border turned to Ramah, [reaching] to the fortified city of Tyre; and it turned to Hosah, and it ended at the [Mediterranean] sea at the region of Achzib.‡

<sup>31</sup> This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Territory of Naphtali

<sup>32</sup> The sixth lot fell to [the tribe of] the sons of Naphtali according to their families.

<sup>33</sup> Their border ran from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim and Adaminekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, and it ended at the Jordan.

<sup>38</sup> and Yiron and Migdal-el, Horem and Beth-anath and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.

<sup>39</sup> This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Territory of Dan

<sup>40</sup> The seventh lot fell to the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families.

<sup>43</sup> and Elon and Timnah and Ekron,

<sup>44</sup> and Eltekeh and Gibbethon and Baalath,

<sup>47</sup> The territory of the sons of Dan went beyond these; so the sons of Dan went up to fight against Leshem (Laish) and captured it. Then they struck it with the edge of the sword and took possession of it and settled there [between the tribes of Naphtali and Manasseh]; they renamed Leshem, Dan, after the name of their father (ancestor) Dan.  [Judg 1:34; 18:7–10, 27 ] ‡

<sup>48</sup> This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families (clans), these cities with their villages.

<sup>49</sup> When they had finished dividing the land for inheritance by its borders, the Israelites gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>50</sup> According to the command of the LORD they gave him the city for which he asked—Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. So he built the city and settled in it. ‡

<sup>51</sup> These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the households of the tribes of the sons of Israel distributed by lot in Shiloh before the LORD at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. So they finished dividing the land. ‡

Joshua 20

Six Cities of Refuge

<sup>3</sup> so that the person (manslayer) who kills any person unintentionally, without premeditation, may flee there, and they shall be your refuge from the blood avenger.  [Num 35:10ff. ]

<sup>4</sup> ‘He shall flee to one of these cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and explain his case to the elders of that city; and they shall take him into [the protection of] the city and give him a place [to stay], so that he may live among them.

<sup>5</sup> ‘If the blood avenger pursues him, they shall not hand the offender (manslayer) over to him, because he killed his neighbor unintentionally and without premeditation and did not hate him beforehand. ‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘He shall live in that city until he has stood before the congregation for judgment [and if acquitted of murder he must stay there], until the death of the one who is the high priest in those days. Then the offender (manslayer) shall return to his own city and his own house from which he fled.’ ” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So they set apart and consecrated Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of

Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they designated Bezer in the wilderness on the plain from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh. ‡

<sup>9</sup> These were the appointed cities for all the Israelites and for the stranger sojourning (living temporarily) among them, so that whoever killed any person unintentionally may flee there, and not die by the hand of the blood avenger until he had stood before the congregation [for judgment]. ‡

Joshua 21

Forty-eight Cities of the Levites

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE heads of the households of the Levites came to Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the households of the tribes of the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>2</sup> They spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us cities to live in, with their pasture lands for our cattle.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So the sons of Israel gave the Levites from their inheritance these [forty-eight] cities and their pasture lands, in accordance with the command of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> The [first] lot (allotment) came out for the families of the Kohathites. So those Levites who were sons (descendants) of Aaron the priest received thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah and from the tribe of Simeon and from the tribe of Benjamin. ‡

<sup>8</sup> The sons of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands, as the LORD had commanded through Moses. ‡

<sup>9</sup> They gave these cities which are mentioned here by name from the tribe of the sons of Judah and from the tribe of the sons of Simeon;

<sup>10</sup> and they were for the sons of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, of the sons of Levi, because the lot fell to them first.

<sup>12</sup> But the fields of the city and its villages they had given to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his property. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then the cities from the tribe of Ephraim were allotted to the families of the sons of Kohath, the Levites, even to the rest of the sons of Kohath. ‡

<sup>25</sup> From the half-tribe of Manasseh, they allotted Taanach with its pasture lands and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands; two cities.

<sup>26</sup> All the cities with their pasture lands for the families of the rest of the sons of Kohath totaled ten.

<sup>27</sup> To the sons of Gershon, one of the families of the Levites, they gave from the other half-tribe of Manasseh, [the city of] Golan in Bashan, the city of refuge for anyone who committed manslaughter, with its pasture lands, and Be-eshterah with its pasture lands; two cities. ‡

<sup>28</sup> From the tribe of Issachar, they gave Kishion with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands,

<sup>30</sup> From the tribe of Asher, they gave Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands,

<sup>33</sup> All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

<sup>40</sup> All [these were] the cities of the sons of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.

<sup>41</sup> All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the property of the sons of Israel were forty-eight cities with their pasture lands. ‡

<sup>42</sup> These cities each had its surrounding pasture lands; so it was with all these cities.

<sup>43</sup> So the LORD gave Israel all the land which He had sworn to give to their fathers (ancestors), and they took possession of it and lived in it. ‡

<sup>45</sup> Not one of the good promises which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel failed; all had come to pass. ‡

Joshua 22

Tribes beyond Jordan Return

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOSHUA called the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh,

<sup>2</sup> and said to them, “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have listened to and obeyed my voice in everything that I commanded you. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You have not deserted your brothers these many days to this day, but have [carefully] kept the obligation of the commandment of the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup> “And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brothers, as He has promised them; so turn now and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the [east side of the] Jordan. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Only be very careful and diligently observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD has commanded you to love the LORD your God and walk in all His ways and keep His commandments and hold fast to Him and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul [your very life].” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now to the one-half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half Joshua gave a possession on the west side of the Jordan among their brothers. So when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, ‡

<sup>8</sup> and he said to them, “Return to your tents with great riches and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron, and with very many clothes; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers (fellow tribesmen).” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So the sons (descendants) of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home and departed from the [other] sons (western tribes) of Israel at Shiloh which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their own which they had possessed, in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses. ‡

The Offensive Altar

<sup>10</sup> When they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan, an altar that was great to behold.

<sup>11</sup> And the [other] sons of Israel heard it said, “Look, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the edge of the land of Canaan, in the region [west] of the Jordan, on the side belonging to the sons of Israel.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> When the sons of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh to make war against them. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the sons of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, ‡

<sup>14</sup> and with him ten leaders, one leader from each father’s household from each of the tribes of Israel; and each one was the head of his father’s household among the thousands of Israel. ‡

<sup>15</sup> They came to the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they said to them,

<sup>16</sup> “This is what the entire congregation of the LORD says, ‘What is this disloyal and unfaithful act which you have committed against the God of Israel, so as to turn away from following the LORD this day, by building yourselves an altar, to rebel against the LORD this day?’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘Is the wrongdoing (idolatry) of Peor not enough for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, even though the affliction [in which twenty-four thousand died] came on the congregation of the LORD,  [Num 25:1–9] ‡

<sup>18</sup> that you would turn away this day from following the LORD? If you rebel against the LORD today, He will be angry with the entire congregation of Israel tomorrow. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘If, however, the land of your possession is unclean, then cross into the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD’s tabernacle is situated, and settle down among us. But do not rebel against the LORD, or rebel against us by building an altar for yourselves, besides the altar of the LORD our God [at Shiloh]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘Did not Achan the son of Zerah act unfaithfully in the things under the ban, and [as a result God’s] wrath came on the entire congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his wrongdoing.’ ”  [Josh 7:1–26 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the families of Israel,

<sup>22</sup> “The Mighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows, and may Israel itself know. If it was in rebellion, or if in an unfaithful act against the LORD, do not save us this day! ‡

<sup>23</sup> “If we have built an altar for ourselves to turn away from following the LORD, or if [we did so] to offer a burnt offering or grain offering on it, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings on it, may the LORD Himself require it [of us and hold us responsible]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “But in truth we have done this out of concern, for a reason, saying, ‘In time to come your sons (descendants) may say to our sons, “What claim do you have to the LORD, the God of Israel?”

<sup>25</sup> “For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you sons of Reuben and sons of Gad; you have no part in the LORD.” So your sons (descendants) may cause our sons to stop fearing the LORD.’

<sup>26</sup> “So we said, ‘Let us prepare and build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice,

<sup>27</sup> but to be a witness between us and you and between the generations after us, that we are to perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings, so that your sons (descendants) will not say to our sons in time to come, “You have no part in the LORD.” ’ ‡

<sup>28</sup> “So we said, ‘If your descendants should say this to us or to our descendants in time to come, then we can reply, “See the copy of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice, but rather it is a witness between us and you.” ’

<sup>29</sup> “Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away from following the LORD this day, by building an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering or for sacrifice, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle [in Shiloh].” ‡

30 So when Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the congregation and heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.

31 Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh, “Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this unfaithful act against the LORD; indeed you have saved Israel from the hand of the LORD.” ‡

32 Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought back word to them.

33 The report pleased the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel blessed God; and they said no more about going to battle against them to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were living. ‡

34 The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad called the altar Witness; “For it is a witness between us that the LORD is God.”

Joshua 23

Joshua's Farewell Address

1 A LONG time after that, when the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies on every side, and Joshua had grown old and advanced in years, ‡

2 that Joshua called all Israel, their elders and their heads and their judges and their officers, and said to them, “I am old and advanced in years. ‡

3 “And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake; for the LORD your God is He who has been fighting for you.  [Ex 14:14. ] ‡

4 “See, I have allotted to you these nations that remain as an inheritance for your tribes, with all the nations which I have cut off, from the Jordan [on the east] to the Great [Mediterranean] Sea toward the setting sun. ‡

5 “The LORD your God will push them away from before you and drive them out of your sight and you will take possession of their land, just as the LORD your God promised you. ‡

6 “Be steadfast and very determined to keep and to do everything that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, so that you do not turn aside from it to the right or the left,‡

<sup>7</sup> so that you do not associate with these nations which remain among you, or mention the name of their gods, or make anyone swear [an oath by them], or serve them, or bow down to them.‡

<sup>8</sup> “But you are to cling to the LORD your God, just as you have done to this day.‡

<sup>9</sup> “For the LORD has driven out great and mighty nations from before you; and as for you, no man has been able to stand [in opposition] before you to this day.‡

<sup>11</sup>“So be very careful and watchful of yourselves to love the LORD your God.‡

<sup>12</sup>“For if you ever turn back and cling to the rest of these nations, these that are left among you, and intermarry with them, so that you associate with them and they with you,‡

<sup>13</sup> know and understand with certainty that the LORD your God will not continue to drive these nations out from before you; but they will be a snare and trap to you, and a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.‡

<sup>14</sup> “Now behold, today I am going the way of all the earth, and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one word of all the good words which the LORD your God has promised concerning you has failed; all have been fulfilled for you, not one of them has failed.

<sup>15</sup> “It shall come about that just as every good word which the LORD your God spoke and promised to you has been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring upon you every bad thing [about which He warned you], until He has destroyed and eliminated you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.‡

<sup>16</sup>“When you transgress (violate) the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you [to follow], and you go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

Joshua 24

Joshua Reviews Israel's History

<sup>2</sup> Joshua said to all the people, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘Your fathers, including Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, lived beyond the [Euphrates] River in ancient times; and they served other gods.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> ‘Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the [Euphrates] River and led him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants, and I gave him Isaac.’ ‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau, and to Esau I gave [the hill country of] Mount Seir to possess; but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.’ ‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt by what I did in its midst; and afterward I brought you out.’ ‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘Then I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.’ ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘When they cried out to the LORD [for help], He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them and covered them; and your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness a long time (forty years).  [Josh 5:6 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘Then I brought you into the land of the Amorites who lived on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, and you took possession of their land and I destroyed them before you.’ ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel, and he sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘But I would not listen to Balaam. Therefore he had to bless you, so I saved you from Balak’s hand.  [Deut 23:5 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho; and the citizens of Jericho fought against you, as did the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Gergashite, the Hivite and the Jebusite; and so I gave them into your hand.’ ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘I sent the hornet [that is, the terror of you] before you, which drove the two kings of the Amorites out before you; but it was not by your sword or by your bow.  [Ex 23:27 , 28 ; Deut 2:25 ; 7:20 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘I gave you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you live in them; you eat from vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.’ ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Now, therefore, fear the LORD and serve Him in sincerity and in truth; remove the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the [Euphrates] River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> “If it is unacceptable in your sight to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve: whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> The people answered, “Far be it from us to abandon (reject) the LORD to serve other gods;

<sup>17</sup> for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did these great signs (miracles) in our sight and kept us safe all along the way that we went and among all the peoples among whom we passed.

<sup>18</sup> “The LORD drove all the peoples out from before us, even the Amorites who lived in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God.”

<sup>19</sup> Then Joshua said to the people, “You will not be able to serve the LORD [if you serve any other gods], for He is a holy God; He is a jealous God [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely His]. He will not forgive your transgression [of His law] or your sins.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> “If you do abandon (reject) the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume and destroy you after He has done you good.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> The people said to Joshua, “No, but we will serve [only] the LORD.”

<sup>22</sup> Joshua then said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves the LORD, to serve Him.” And they said, “We are witnesses.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Now then, remove the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your hearts toward the LORD, the God of Israel.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> The people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God and we will listen to and obey His voice.”

<sup>25</sup> So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance at Shechem. ‡

<sup>26</sup> And Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak that was in [the courtyard of] the sanctuary of the LORD. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Joshua then said to all the people, “Look, this stone shall serve as a witness against us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us; so it shall be a witness against you, so that [afterward] you do not deny your God.”‡

<sup>28</sup> Then Joshua sent the people away, each to [the territory of] his inheritance.‡

Joshua's Death and Burial

<sup>29</sup> It happened after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, at the age of a hundred and ten years.‡

<sup>30</sup> They buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.‡

<sup>31</sup> Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, and had known all the works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.‡

<sup>32</sup> Now they buried the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up from Egypt, at Shechem, in the plot of land which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of money; and it became the inheritance of the sons of Joseph.‡

<sup>33</sup> And Eleazar [the priest], the son of Aaron died; and they buried him at Gibeah [on the hill] of Phinehas his son, which had been given to him in the hill country of Ephraim.‡

The Battle of Gibeon

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

1:1 the servant of the LORD . In the Hebrew Scripture this is a special title given only to Moses, Joshua (24:29 ; Jdg 2:8 ), David (Ps 18 : title; 36 : title), and the Messiah (Isa 42:19 ). the LORD spoke to Joshua. God spoke directly to Joshua encouraging him and urging him to obey all the law. True success cannot occur apart from knowing God personally and doing His will.

1:7-8 Perseverance— A successful mission in the service of the Lord is dependent upon courage, meditation, and obedience. Keeping God's words in our hearts molds our character and guides our footsteps. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:8 Meditating upon God's Word— Helping people become prosperous and successful is big business. Late night infomercials point to a plethora of techniques for getting rich. Everyone wants to be wealthy. Everyone wants to be successful. These kinds of feelings are particularly strong when starting a new endeavor as Joshua was. At the very beginning of Joshua's leadership of Israel, God lays out for Joshua His key to success, meditating on God's word. Meditate upon the Word of God by rehearsing it in thought over and over in order to understand its implications for the situations of life. The meditation process results in changed thinking, because God's thoughts can literally become our thoughts. Then we are more likely to do what God wants of us. As we live in sync with God's plan for our lives, it follows that we will be more successful and prosperous than if we ignore His teachings.

People spend a large part of their lives in obtaining an education and working at a career in order to be prosperous and successful. Scripture points to itself as the primary means to that end. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:18 be strong and courageous. Joshua's task was not an easy one, for not only must he deal with the ungodly inhabitants of the promised land, he must also provide leadership for his own fearful and complaining people.

2:1 Rahab. Rahab was a Canaanite prostitute, yet out of all the populace of Jericho, only she reached out to the living God, and He in turn saved her (6:25 ).

2:4–6 I do not know where they went. Rahab lied to the men searching for the Israelite spies, and Joshua praised her, as did the apostle James and the writer of Hebrews (Heb 11:31 ; Jas 2:25 ). Throughout both the Old and the New Testament, the commands of God forbid lying, the prophets condemn it, and godly people avoid doing it. Scripture does not address Rahab's sin, but it does praise her for her faith in God. Christians have struggled for centuries over whether lying to save an innocent person's life is acceptable. There does not seem to be a clear cut answer, but Rahab did her best with the knowledge she had to protect the Israelite men.

2:16 Go [west] to the hill country. The pursuers had gone down to the Jordan River (v. Z ), logically supposing that the spies would be returning to their camp on the eastern side of the river. The only hills near Jericho are to the west, in the opposite direction from the Israelite camp, and further into the land of Canaan.

3:4 2,000 cubits. Two thousand cubits was more than half a mile. God was serious about the people showing due respect for the ark of the covenant.

3:9 Inspiration— God conveyed His message by means of words spoken by a specific chosen person. He descended to the human level and through humanity spoke His word of absolute truth. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:13 Lord of all the earth. The term "Adonai," translated "Lord," means "master." It refers to the fact that God is indeed the Sovereign of the entire universe.

3:15 Jordan overflows. God did not merely slow the great river to a trickle during a time of drought; he stopped the waters when the river was high. This is significant because it makes the point that a great miracle was involved.

3:16 Adam. Adam was a city about 18 miles north of Jericho. The Sea of Arabah is another name for the Dead Sea, into which the Jordan flows from the north. The Dead Sea is the lowest place on earth, 1286 feet below sea level. The phrase "Salt Sea" is added to the name because the sea has no outlet and loses its water by evaporation. The concentration of salt and other minerals is so high that nothing can live in it.

4:10 The people hurried and crossed. This is a flashback, 3:17 and 4:1 have already told of the crossing over. The purpose is to look back and reflect upon the people's obedience.

4:14 the LORD magnified and exalted Joshua. God is once again proclaiming Joshua as the man He has chosen to take Moses' place as leader of His people.

4:16 Testimony. In this sense, a “testimony” is a reminder. The ark contained the two stone tablets on which the Ten Commandments were written, reminding people of God’s covenant and His law.

4:21–24 Fear of God— The Scriptures are full of stories of the acts God performed that built up the respect of the people for Him. The awesome things God did were told to each new generation to develop respect for who God is. This miracle was performed not only for the purpose of getting the Israelites across the Jordan. It was also a sign to all peoples of the power of God. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:2 as [was done] before. The generation that left Egypt had been circumcised. However, that generation had died in the wilderness and for some reason they had neglected to circumcise their children, the generation which would enter the promised land.

5:6 milk and honey. The land God had promised to Israel was no wilderness, but a land that was fertile for both crops and cattle, and ready to provide for them and supply all their needs.

5:15 Remove your sandals. The command for Joshua to remove his sandals was practically identical to the command Moses received at the burning bush (Ex 3:1–6). Joshua was confronted with the living God, just as Moses had been (Ex 33:9–11).

6:3 circling the city once. The city of Jericho measured less than half a mile in circumference, so the march would have been completed quickly.

6:6–21 Zeal— Crossing the Jordan marked the beginning step in the fulfillment of God’s promise to give His people the land of Canaan. Immediately the task of conquering Jericho loomed before them. The Lord appeared to Joshua reminding him that God Himself was in charge and the presence of the holy One assured victory (v. 2). The plan for Jericho’s capture was a test of Israel’s zeal for the Lord and seems to have been designed to instill the lesson that submission to God’s directives was key to victory. How different Israel’s history would have been if they had continued to carry out God’s plans fully and zealously! God calls us to the same level of obedience today. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:26 Cursed before the LORD . Joshua’s curse found dramatic fulfillment many centuries later when Hiel of Bethel laid its foundation and rebuilt its gates at great personal cost (1Ki 16:34).

7:6–9 Suffering— Joshua’s prayer was one of despair. Why had God allowed their defeat? Whenever tragedy strikes it is hard to understand why God allowed it to happen to us. In this case it is clearly explained. Achan had greedily taken what was banned by God. Through his sin the whole camp was guilty of deception and thievery. There are other reasons, not related to sin, for God’s permission of tragedy. Sometimes people suffer in order to fulfill a sovereign purpose not immediately apparent. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:9 Your great name. Joshua is aware that there is an even larger issue at stake: God’s reputation.

7:10–15 Israel has sinned. God had consistent standards for both Israel and the Canaanites. He had ordered Israel to destroy Canaan because of their sin. He could not allow Israel to accommodate sin and corruption, even that of only one man.

7:13 until you remove. The relationship between obedience and blessing is well illustrated here. Israel would have no further successes until the sin had been uncovered.

7:19 give glory to the LORD . . . tell me now what you have done. We too dishonor the Lord when we hide our sins, and we honor Him when we confess them.

7:25 stoned them [to death] with stones. Achan and all that he had were brought out and stoned. This seems like a severe punishment and one that is hard to understand. But it illustrated God’s firm insistence on holiness. God could not tolerate the sin Achan had committed and He had to deal with him. It is a sobering thought for us, to remember that often our sins do not affect only ourselves, they also cause others to stumble and fall. We deserve punishment as severe as Achan’s, but Jesus Christ took over our penalty and through His blood we can be reconciled to God.

8:1 Do not fear or be dismayed. The sins of Achan had broken the special relationship God had established with His people, but God had not abandoned them.

8:7 the LORD your God will hand it over to you. Israel was completely dependent on God for their success.

8:12–17 Wisdom— The name Ai means “ruin” or “heap.” Unlike Jericho, Ai was not a walled city; to Israel it was just a rubble heap. It looked so easy, especially after their resounding victory at Jericho, that they set out to attack without asking for the Lord’s direction. In facing tasks that seem well within our powers, we also often forget to ask for the Lord’s help. Wisdom in the believer’s life demands persistence in depending on the Lord’s strength and direction in little problems as well as the big ones.

Go to Theological Notes Index

9:3 Gibeon. Gibeon was relatively close to Ai, and about five miles northwest of Jerusalem.

9:6 We have come from a far country. Israel was allowed to make treaties with cities that were far away (Ex 34:11–12 ; Dt 20:10–18 ). If the Gibeonites had been telling the truth, a treaty with them would have been permissible.

9:14 did not ask for the counsel of the LORD . Significantly, the Israelites did not ask God’s advice about making peace with the Gibeonites, contrary to God’s explicit instructions to Joshua (Nu 27:21 ).

9:18 Questioning— The congregation rose up and complained to their leaders about making the treaty with Gibeon because they knew the leaders had not consulted the Lord. There is a time to confront leaders, specifically when they sin or when they act in their own wisdom without asking for God’s direction. When the leaders appear to be traveling down the wrong path, the people can always ask respectfully, “Have you consulted the Lord about this? Did you get an answer?” Go to Theological Notes Index

9:20 the oath which we have sworn. Oath taking and swearing was serious business. To take an oath was to give a sacred and unbreakable promise to do a certain thing. Because of the unbreakable nature of an oath, the covenant the Israelites made with the Gibeonites could not be revoked, even though it was obtained under false pretenses.

10:10 the LORD caused them to panic. Despite Joshua’s presence with his warriors, it was God who gave the victory, and God who received the credit.

10:13 the Book of Jashar. This piece of literature is mentioned again in 2 Samuel 1:18 , confirming what is said here. Nothing else is known of the book of Jashar, it is not part of the Bible, and no known portion of it has survived.

10:14 the LORD listened to (heeded) the voice of a man. Any person can gain God’s attention in prayer. God may answer our pleas by saying no, but we can be certain that He always listens and answers. This incident was remembered as being like no other because God said “yes” to a request which He otherwise always answers “no”: He actually stopped time to allow the Israelites to finish the battle.

**The Invasion of Judah and the Southern Tribes**

10:24 put your feet on . . . these kings. Putting one's foot on a slain enemy was a declaration of victory. In Psalm 110:1 the Lord said, "I [will] make Your enemies a footstool" (see also Ps 8:6 ). God also speaks of placing Jesus' enemies under His feet (1Co 15:25-27 ). Ancient sculptures show Assyrian kings doing this to their vanquished enemies.

10:25 Be strong and courageous. Joshua encourages the people with the same words God used to encourage him (1:6 ,9 ; 10:8 ). God's words, written for us in the Bible, are the best form of encouragement we could have.

10:28-43 Fervor— All of Israel was zealous to do just as the Lord commanded, and the success they experienced was attributed to the Lord. But how can such destruction be regarded as honoring to God? The Bible gives reasons for the wiping out of these peoples, and these reasons are in accord with the tenor of the whole Bible. The Canaanites were guilty of extreme wickedness (Dt 7:2-11 ; 20:16-18 ). God is completely holy, and He therefore cannot tolerate sin. Sin must be judged. He is also patient. For many years the Canaanite sin did not justify annihilation. But that time did arrive, and it came in the time of Joshua. Israel was a tool in the hand of God to judge the wickedness of those nations. Leviticus 18 is a gruesome list of their evil actions, including incest, adultery, child sacrifice, homosexuality, and bestiality. The Canaanites brought God's judgment on themselves by their own sins. Canaan was not destroyed without plenty of warning. God is never unjust. They were a thoroughly debased society, hostile to all God's ways (Dt 9:4-5 ). The most sobering reflection is that now, today, many of those wicked sins listed in Leviticus 18 are present in our society. God's judgment in the last day will be complete indeed. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:30 The LORD . Here again we are reminded that the Lord was Israel's warrior. As He fought for them, we too can trust Him fully to fight for us. Indeed, He fought the ultimate fight for us on the cross, to set us free from death forever. We can also trust Him to be with us in the day-to-day fight against evil and sin.

11:4 very many horses and chariots. In this time in history, horses were used for pulling chariots which accompanied the infantry and carried a rider with a bow or a supply of spears. The enemy of Israel came well armed and with many soldiers to fight—but it made no difference. Again God defeated Israel's enemy. God limited the size of the Israelite army so they would not be depending on military strength, but rather on Him.

11:8 Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim. Great Sidon was a Phoenician city on the Mediterranean coast, and Misrephoth was south of it. The defeat of the Canaanites described here shows them fleeing in all directions.

11:16-12:24 Zeal— Joshua and the people served as the instruments of divine justice and fulfilled the word spoken to Moses concerning the gift of the land of Canaan. The list of the defeated kings who had banded together against Israel bears testimony to the zeal of Israel for God and the obedience and faithfulness of Joshua. As Christians we can eagerly anticipate the final outcome of world history, when the “kingdom (dominion, rule) of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ” (Rev 11:15 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

11:20 to harden their hearts. The people whose hearts God hardened were not good people, but people already committed to doing evil.

13:14 to the tribe of Levi that Moses gave no [territory as an] inheritance. Originally, the tribe of Levi was sentenced to be landless because of Levi's violent behavior (Ge 49:5–7 ). But later the Levites showed their faithfulness to the Lord (Ex 32:25–28 ) and were promised a blessing (Dt 33:8–11 ). Instead of land, the sacrifices of God would be their privileged inheritance.

13:22 Balaam the son of Beor. Balaam was a pagan fortune teller who had been hired by Balak, king of Moab, to curse the Israelites in the wilderness (Nu 22–24 ).

The Borders of the Tribal Territories

14:6 Caleb . . . the Kenizzite. The Kenizzites were a non-Israelite group descended from Esau through Kenaz (Ge 15:19 ; 36:11 ,15 ,42 ). It seems that Caleb, one of the most faithful to God of his time, was just a generation removed from a non-Israelite family. Although the Jews are indeed God's chosen people, He loves and honors anyone who obeys His commands.

14:10–11 Thankfulness— God's Word is as dependable as its author. His promise to Caleb waited forty-five years for fulfillment, but His blessing was sure. Caleb's view of all God's goodness to him resounded with thankfulness. Being silently thankful is important—God knows our hearts—but thankfulness should also be expressed with words of praise and glorification for the Giver of all good things. Go to Theological Notes Index

14:14 he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, completely. Caleb's wholehearted devotion to God was never a question, even in the wilderness. In the Bible, people are sometimes rewarded in this life for their faithfulness to God, but not always (Heb 11:32–40 ). The believer's ultimate blessing will come in eternity. Those who set their hope on that promise will lose nothing, whatever they suffer in this life.

15:1–12 the lot (allotment) for the tribe. The boundaries of Judah in southern Canaan are described in detail. These details may at first seem uninteresting, but they serve to underline the fact that this passage is talking about real people, in a real place, in a real time in history.

15:13 Word of God— Caleb was not afraid to face the giants of Hebron because he knew God would be with him. In the same way, we as Christians need not fear the “giants” we face in spiritual battle. God will be with us also. His resources are more than sufficient to overcome the hosts of darkness which confront us in this world (1Jn 4:4 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

15:63 with the sons of Judah. Judges 1:21 repeats this verse almost verbatim, except that it says Benjamin, not Judah, failed to drive the Jebusites out of Jerusalem. Jerusalem sat astride the boundary between Judah and Benjamin. In the early period, Jerusalem did not belong strictly to either tribe. The tribe of Judah later captured the city from the Jebusites (Jdg 1:8 ), and from then on it was considered a city of Judah.

17:3–6 Zelophehad . . . had . . . only daughters. This account serves to show again the theme of the Book of Joshua—that God is faithful to keep His promises. Joshua also was faithful to carry out the commands of God concerning His promise through Moses for the daughters of Zelophehad (Nu 26:33 ; 27:1–11 ).

18:1 Shiloh. Shiloh was about 15 miles northwest of Jericho. Here the Israelites set up the tent of meeting (Ex 26 ). This remained an important religious center for several hundred years (Jdg 18:31 ; 1Sa 1:9 ) until the taking of Jerusalem in David's day.

18:3 Unfaithfulness— The seven tribes yet to be settled seemed to have little desire to receive their inheritance and were rebuked for their half-heartedness. They had easily defeated the Canaanites, but they had not followed up on their victories and taken possession of all the land. This laziness was disobedience to God and showed lack of faith in His promises. In our own lives it is fatally easy to begin a work that God sets before us, and then slack off in our faithfulness before it is finished. The believer's inheritance is reserved in heaven, and cannot be bought by any work of our own. However, God requests holiness of living on our part, and His commands must be obeyed. Go to Theological Notes Index

19:50 Commandments— The account of the distribution of the land began with the recognition of Caleb's faithfulness to God. The conclusion recognizes Joshua as one who also believed God. Joshua's extreme service and faithfulness was rewarded by the Lord's command. When we delight to obey the word of the Lord, He also delights in giving us the desires of our hearts (Ps 37:4 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

20:3 unintentionally. God's laws made allowance for motive and intent, just as modern criminal codes distinguish unintentional killing from murder. The blood avenger was a close relative who was the "protector of family rights." (Ruth 3:13 and 4:1 translate the word used here for "blood avenger" as "close relative".) God did not give license to take revenge however. He has clearly reserved that task for Himself alone (Dt 32:35 ; Isa 34:8 ; Ro 12:19 ). God's provision of these cities of refuge put a limit on private acts of vengeance.

20:7-8 set apart and consecrated. The cities of refuge were evenly distributed so that none was more than a day's journey from any part of Israel's land.

21:4-8 by lot. Even though this seems as if it was done by chance, we know God was in control of every aspect of the inheritance process.

21:43-45 which He had sworn. Again we see the nature of our God—not only did He keep every promise, He also guaranteed that His people would have rest.

22:5 Perseverance— Past victories do not lessen the responsibility for present faithfulness. Joshua impressed upon the people, especially the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh (because they would be living in isolation from the rest of Israel), the urgent need to continue to zealously serve God. Our zeal for the Lord cannot cease because a crisis has passed. There is no certificate of discharge from the army of Christ. Go to Theological Notes Index

22:11-12 have built an altar. The Bible does not reveal why this altar was built until the events have developed into a full blown crisis. God had commanded Israel not to offer burnt offerings or sacrifices at any location except the tabernacle (Lev 17:8-9 ) and not to worship other gods (Dt 13:12-15 ). The punishment for violating both laws was death. This was why Israel gathered together to go to war against the three apparently erring tribes.

22:16-18 disloyal and unfaithful act. This is sometimes translated "treacherous" and is the same word used to describe Achan's sin (7:1 ). No one can sin in isolation. If the tribes of the east of the Jordan were indeed sinning, then the entire nation would feel the effects, as in the case of Achan.

22:23-28 out of concern. The tribes to the east of the Jordan were afraid that geographical distance would isolate them and in time cause the Israelites west of the Jordan to reject them. Thus they built the altar to help prevent the existing unity from being lost. The eastern tribes were careful to label the altar for what it really was—a replica to serve as a witness for future generations.

22:30-31 Prudence— Jumping to conclusions can bring one to the brink of disaster. While their motives were good (maintaining purity), they did not stop to find out what was really going on. This incident provides us with a good example of the importance of communicating before we act. Even when we are dealing with a case of serious sin (as the western tribes thought they were), the first reaction should be to try and persuade the sinner to repent and return to the Lord. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:3 He who has been fighting for you. This is a reminder that the land belonged to the Lord and that He gave it to Israel.

23:10 One of your men puts to flight. The power seen in God's people was so dramatic it had to be miraculous.

23:11 Duty— Certain outlines of duty are imposed on all mankind (Mic 6:8 ). We know that one man's specific duty may differ from another's, but all share a single common requirement: all must give account before God of what they have done or left undone. The church cannot decide how well each person is performing; there is no "spiritual commitment meter" to give an exact rating of each person's fulfillment of duty. Each person is responsible to maintain his or her own spiritual life. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:12–13 intermarry with them. Years later, Solomon ignored this command and proved how destructive the sin of being unequally yoked could be (1Ki 3:1 ; 11:1–8 ; 2Co 6:14 ).

23:16 perish . . . from the good land. This warning saw its most dramatic fulfillment when Judah was carried into Babylon because of its repeated rebellion against God (2Ki 25 ). The saddest thing is that Israel's rebellion began almost immediately. God lovingly gave them every good thing, but when they disobeyed, they had to be punished.

24:1 Shechem. Shechem was a site of ancient religious significance and covenant making going back to Abraham's day (Ge 12:6 ; 33:18–20 ).

24:13 a land for which you did not labor. This fulfills the promise given to Moses in Dt 6:10–11 . The land was a gift from God to His people. In a similar sense, He has given us another gift for which we did not labor. The gift of salvation, through Jesus Christ, cannot be bought or paid for; it is graciously given from a loving God to those who will accept it.

24:15 as for me and my house. Joshua's famous words show the stand we must take—on the side of the living God.

24:32 the bones of Joseph. The brief account of the transfer of Joseph's body to Canaan from Egypt notes the fulfillment of Joseph's prophecy hundreds of years before (Ge 50:24–25 ).

The Book of Judges

- AUTHOR: Although the author of Judges is anonymous, Jewish tradition contained in the Talmud attributes Judges to Samuel. Samuel lived during the time the book could have been written, and he was a principle character in the transition to the next phase. He would have been aware of the events that occur in the book. Samuel certainly was the crucial link between the period of the judges and the period of the kings. His prophetic ministry clearly fits the moral commentary of Judges, and the consistent style and orderly scheme of the book points to a single compiler.
- TIMES: c. 1380–1045 BC
- KEY VERSES: Jdg 2:20–21
- THEME: During the Book of Judges, the land wasn't fully conquered. There was political chaos. The Israelites appeared to live mostly in the land between the cities of the Philistines, who dominate them much of the time. Two common phrases occur in the book: The first is the Israelites “did evil in the sight of the Lord.” The second is “every man did what was right in his own eyes.” In the midst of this situation God raises up judges, who in addition to playing the role of adjudicator, also provide leadership in pulling the tribes together to fight the unconquered nations. Most are reluctant. Nevertheless, God is able to use them and demonstrate His power through these individuals.

Judges 1

Jerusalem Is Captured

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT came about after the death of Joshua, that the sons (descendants) of Israel (Jacob) asked the LORD, “Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?” ‡

<sup>2</sup> And the LORD said, “Judah shall go up [first]; behold, I have given the land into his hand.” ‡

<sup>3</sup>-And [the tribe of the sons of] Judah said to [the tribe of the sons of] Simeon his brother, “Come up with me into my allotted territory, so that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your allotted territory.” So Simeon went with him. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand, and they struck down in defeat ten thousand men at Bezek. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek and fought against him, and they struck down in defeat the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

<sup>6</sup>-But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and his big toes.

<sup>7</sup> Adoni-bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather up scraps of food under my table; as I have done [to others], so God has repaid me.” So they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there. ‡

<sup>8</sup>-Then the sons of Judah fought against [Jebusite] Jerusalem and captured it and struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, in the Negev (South country) and in the lowland. ‡

<sup>10</sup>-So Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba); and they defeated Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai. ‡

Capture of Other Cities

<sup>11</sup> From there [the tribe of] Judah went against the inhabitants of Debir (the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher [city of books and scribes]). ‡

<sup>12</sup> And Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will even give him my daughter Achsah as a wife.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, captured it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as a wife. ‡

<sup>14</sup> When she came to Othniel, she persuaded him to [allow her to] ask her father [Caleb] for a field. Then she [rode up to Caleb and] dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you want?” ‡

<sup>15</sup> She said to him, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me the land of the Negev (South country), give me springs of water, too.” So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. ‡

<sup>16</sup> The sons of [Jethro] the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up from the City of Palms (Jericho) with the sons of Judah, to the wilderness of Judah which is in the Negev (South country) near Arad; and they went and lived with the people.  [Ex 3:1 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then [the warriors of the tribe of] Judah went with [the warriors of the tribe of] Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites living in Zephath and utterly destroyed it. So the city was called Hormah (destruction). ‡

<sup>19</sup> The LORD was with Judah, and [the tribe of] Judah took possession of the hill country, but they could not dispossess and drive out those inhabiting the valley because they had iron chariots. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said, and he drove out from there the three sons of Anak.  [Josh 14:6, 9 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> But the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day. ‡

<sup>22</sup> The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. ‡

<sup>24</sup> The spies saw a man coming out of the city and they said to him, “Please show us the entrance to the city and we will treat you kindly.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free.

<sup>26</sup> The man went into the land of the Hittites and built a city and named it Luz, which is its name to this day.

Places Not Conquered

<sup>27</sup> But [the tribe of] Manasseh did not take possession of Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; so the Canaanites remained in that land. ‡

<sup>28</sup> It happened when Israel became strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out completely.

<sup>29</sup> Neither did [the warriors of] Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer; so the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them. ‡

<sup>30</sup> [The warriors of the tribe of] Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or of Nahalol; so the Canaanites lived among them and were put to forced labor. ‡

<sup>31</sup> [The warriors of the tribe of] Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob. ‡

<sup>32</sup> So the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land, because they did not drive them out. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Neither did [the warriors of] Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, or the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but they lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; and the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became forced labor for them. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Then the Amorites forced the sons of Dan [back] into the hill country, for they would not allow them to come down into the valley;

<sup>35</sup> yet the Amorites persisted in living on Mount Heres (the mountain of the sun), in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim; but when the power of the house (descendants) of Joseph became strong and prevailed, they became forced labor. ‡

Judges 2

Israel Rebuked

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, “I brought you up from Egypt and led you to the land which I swore [to give] to your fathers; and I said, ‘I will never break My covenant with you,

[Ex 20:2 ; 23:32 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup>and as for you, you shall not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed Me; what is this that you have done? ‡

<sup>3</sup> "So I also said, 'I will not drive your enemies out before you; but they will be like thorns in your sides and their gods will be a snare to you.' " ‡

<sup>4</sup> When the Angel of the LORD had spoken these words to all the Israelites, the people raised their voices and wept.

<sup>5</sup> So they named that place Bochim (weepers); and there they offered sacrifices to the LORD.

Joshua Dies

<sup>6</sup> And when Joshua had sent the people away, the [tribes of the] Israelites went each to his inheritance, to take possession of the land. ‡

<sup>7</sup> The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD which He had done for Israel. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten. ‡

<sup>9</sup> And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Also, all [the people of] that generation were gathered to their fathers [in death]; and another generation arose after them who did not know (recognize, understand) the LORD, nor even the work which He had done for Israel. ‡

Israel Serves Baals

<sup>11</sup> Then the Israelites did evil in the sight of the LORD and worshiped and served the Baals, The Limits on Early Israelite Control

<sup>12</sup> and they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt. They followed other gods from the gods of the peoples who were around them, and they bowed down to them, and offended and provoked the LORD to anger. ‡

<sup>13</sup> So they abandoned the LORD and served Baal [the pagan god of the Canaanites] and the Ashtaroth. ‡

<sup>14</sup> So the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands (power) of plunderers who robbed them; and He sold them into the hands of their surrounding enemies, so that they could no longer stand [in opposition] before their enemies. ‡

<sup>15</sup>Wherever they went, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil (misfortune), as the LORD had spoken, and as the LORD had sworn to them, so that they were severely distressed.  [Lev 26:14–46 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD raised up judges who rescued them from the hands of those who robbed them. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Yet they did not listen to their judges, for they played the prostitute after other gods and they bowed down to them. They quickly turned aside from the way in which their fathers had walked in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do as their fathers. ‡

<sup>18</sup> When the LORD raised up judges for them, He was with the judge and He rescued them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed and afflicted them. ‡

<sup>19</sup> But when the judge died, they turned back and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, in following and serving other gods, and bowing down to them. They did not abandon their practices or their stubborn ways. ‡

<sup>20</sup> So the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed (violated) My covenant (binding agreement) which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to My voice, ‡

<sup>21</sup> I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left [to be conquered] when he died, ‡

<sup>22</sup> in order to test [the loyalty of] Israel by them, whether Israel will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it, as their fathers did, or not.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> So the LORD allowed those nations to remain, not driving them out at once; and He did not give them into the hand of Joshua.

Judges 3

Idolatry Leads to Servitude

<sup>2</sup> only in order that the generations of the sons of Israel might be taught war, at least those who had not experienced it previously).

<sup>4</sup> They were [allowed to remain] for the testing of Israel, to determine whether Israel would listen to and obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers (ancestors) through Moses. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And the Israelites did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asheroth.  [Judg 2:13. ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the Israelites served Cushan-rishathaim eight years. ‡

The First Judge Rescues Israel

<sup>9</sup> But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD [for help], the LORD raised up a man to rescue the people of Israel, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. ‡ The Judges According to Their Tribes

<sup>10</sup> The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD gave Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand, and he prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And the land was at rest [from oppression for] forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

<sup>12</sup> Now the Israelites again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, since they had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD. ‡

<sup>13</sup> And Eglon gathered to him the sons of Ammon and Amalek, and went and struck down Israel [in defeat], and they took possession of the City of Palm Trees (Jericho). ‡

<sup>14</sup> And the Israelites served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years. ‡

Ehud Rescues Israel from Moab

<sup>16</sup> Now Ehud made for himself a sword a cubit long, which had two edges, and he bound it on his right thigh under his robe.

<sup>17</sup> And he brought the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

<sup>18</sup> And when Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who had carried it.

<sup>19</sup> But Ehud himself turned back from the sculptured stones at Gilgal, [and he returned to Eglon] and said [to him], “I have a secret message for you, O king.” Eglon said “Keep silence.” And all who attended him left him. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Ehud came to him as he was sitting alone in his [private] cool upper chamber, and Ehud said, “I have a message from God for you.” And the king got up from his seat.

<sup>22</sup> And the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, because Ehud did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the refuse came out.

<sup>23</sup> Then Ehud went out into the vestibule and shut the doors of the upper chamber behind him, and locked them.

<sup>24</sup> When Ehud departed, Eglon’s servants came. And when they saw that the doors of the upper room were locked, they said, “He is only relieving himself in the cool room.”

<sup>25</sup> They waited [a very long time] until they became embarrassed and uneasy, but he still did not open the doors of the upper room. So [finally] they took the key and opened them, and behold, their master had fallen to the floor, dead.

<sup>26</sup> Now Ehud escaped while they lingered, and he passed beyond the sculptured stones and escaped to Seirah.

<sup>27</sup> When he had arrived, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he was in front of them. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And he said to them, “Pursue them, for the LORD has handed over your enemies the Moabites to you.” So they went down after him and seized the fords of the Jordan opposite Moab and did not allow anyone to cross.‡

<sup>29</sup> They struck down at that time about ten thousand Moabite men, all strong, courageous men; not a man escaped.

<sup>30</sup> So Moab was subdued and humbled that day under the hand of Israel, and the land was at rest for eighty years.‡

Shamgar Rescues from Philistines

<sup>31</sup> After Ehud came Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck down six hundred Philistine men with an oxgoad. He too saved Israel.‡

Judges 4

Deborah and Barak Rescue from Canaanites

<sup>3</sup> Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD [for help], for Jabin had nine hundred iron chariots and had oppressed and tormented the sons of Israel severely for twenty years.‡

<sup>5</sup> She used to sit [to hear and decide disputes] under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgment.‡

<sup>6</sup> Now she sent word and summoned Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-naphtali, and said to him, “Behold, the LORD, the God of Israel, has commanded, ‘Go and march to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men [of war] from the tribes of Naphtali and Zebulun.‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘I will draw out Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his infantry to meet you at the river Kishon, and I will hand him over to you.’ ”‡

<sup>8</sup> Then Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go.”

<sup>9</sup> She said, “I will certainly go with you; nevertheless, the journey that you are about to take will not be for your honor and glory, because the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh. ‡

<sup>10</sup> And Barak summoned [the fighting men of the tribes of] Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up under his command; Deborah also went up with him. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, from the sons of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the terebinth tree in Zaanannim, which is near Kedesh. ‡

<sup>12</sup> When someone told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor, <sup>13</sup> Sisera called together all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth-hagoyim to the river Kishon.

<sup>14</sup> Deborah said to Barak, “Arise! For this is the day when the LORD has given Sisera into your hand. Has the LORD not gone out before you?” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him. ‡

<sup>16</sup> But Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth-hagoyim, and the entire army of Sisera fell by the sword; not even one man was left.

<sup>17</sup> But Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

<sup>18</sup> Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me! Have no fear.” So he turned aside to her [and went] into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

<sup>19</sup> And he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink because I am thirsty.” And she opened a skin of milk and gave him a drink; then she covered him. ‡

<sup>20</sup> And he said to her, “Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and asks you, ‘Is there anyone here?’ tell him, ‘No.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> But Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg and a hammer in her hand, and came up quietly to him and drove the peg through his temple, and it went through into the ground; for he was sound asleep and exhausted. So he died. ‡

<sup>22</sup> And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking.” And he entered [her tent] with her, and behold Sisera lay dead with the tent peg in his temple.

<sup>23</sup> So on that day God subdued and humbled Jabin king of Canaan before the sons of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> And the hand of the sons of Israel pressed down heavier and heavier on Jabin king of Canaan, until they had destroyed him.

Judges 5

The Song of Deborah and Barak

<sup>1</sup> THEN DEBORAH and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying,

<sup>2</sup> “For the leaders who took the lead in Israel,
For the people who volunteered [for battle],
Bless the LORD!

<sup>3</sup> “Hear, O kings; listen, O rulers! ‡
I will sing to the LORD,
I will sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> “LORD, when You went out from Seir,
When You marched from the field of Edom,
The earth quaked, the heavens also dripped,
Yes, the clouds dripped water.

<sup>5</sup> “The mountains quaked at the presence of the LORD,
Yes, this Sinai, at the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> “In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath,
In the days of Jael, the highways were deserted,
And travelers went by roundabout ways.

<sup>7</sup> “The villagers ceased to be; they ceased in Israel ‡
Until I, Deborah, arose,
Until I arose, a mother in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> “They chose new gods;
Then war was in the gates.
Was there a shield or spear seen
Among forty thousand in Israel?

<sup>9</sup> “My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel,
The volunteers among the people;
Bless the LORD!

<sup>10</sup> “Sing of it, you who ride on white donkeys, ‡
You who sit on rich carpets,
And you who walk by the way.

<sup>11</sup> “At the sound of those who divide flocks among the watering places, ‡
There they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD,
The righteous acts toward His villagers in Israel.
Then the people of the LORD went down to the gates.

<sup>12</sup> “Awake, awake, Deborah; ‡
Awake, awake, sing a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, you son of Abinoam.

<sup>13</sup> “Then down marched the survivors to the nobles; ‡
The people of the LORD marched down for Me against the mighty.

<sup>14</sup> “From Ephraim those whose root is in Amalek came down,
After you, Benjamin, with your relatives;
From Machir came down commanders and rulers,
And from Zebulun those who handle the scepter of the [office of] scribe.

<sup>15</sup> “And the heads of Issachar came with Deborah;
As Issachar, so was Barak;
Into the valley they rushed at his heels;
Among the divisions of Reuben
There were great searchings of heart.

<sup>16</sup> “Why [Reuben] did you linger among the sheepfolds,
To hear the piping for the flocks?
Among the divisions of Reuben
There were great searchings of heart.

<sup>17</sup> “Gilead remained beyond the Jordan; ‡
And why did Dan live as an alien on ships?
Asher sat [still] on the seacoast,
And remained by its landings.
[These did not come to battle for God’s people.]

18 “But Zebulun was a people who risked their lives to the [point of] death; ‡
Naphtali also, on the heights of the field.

19 “The kings came and fought; ‡
Then the kings of Canaan fought
At Taanach by the waters of Megiddo.
Spoils of silver they did not obtain.

20 “From the heavens the stars fought, ‡
From their courses they fought against Sisera.

21 “The torrent Kishon swept the enemy away, ‡
The ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon.
O my soul, march on with strength.

22 “Then the horses’ hoofs beat [loudly]
Because of the galloping—the galloping of his valiant and powerful steeds.

23 ‘Curse Meroz,’ said the messenger of the LORD, ‡
‘Utterly curse its inhabitants;
Because they did not come to the help of the LORD,
To the help of the LORD against the mighty.’

24 “Most blessed of women is Jael, ‡
The wife of Heber the Kenite;
Most blessed is she of women in the tent.

25 “Sisera asked for water and she gave him milk; ‡
She brought him curds in a magnificent bowl.

26. “She reached out her [left] hand for the tent peg,
And her right hand for the workmen’s hammer.
Then she struck Sisera, she smashed his head;
And she shattered and pierced his temple.

27 “He bowed, he fell, he lay [still] at her feet;
At her feet he bowed, he fell;
Where he bowed, there he fell dead.

28 “Out of the window she looked down and lamented (cried out in a shrill voice),
The mother of Sisera through the lattice,
‘Why is his chariot delayed in coming?’

Why have the hoofbeats of his chariots delayed?’
29 “Her wise ladies answered her,
Indeed, she repeated her words to herself,
30 ‘Are they not finding and dividing the spoil? ‡
A maiden (concubine) or two for every man;
A spoil of dyed garments for Sisera,
A spoil of dyed garments embroidered,
Two pieces of dyed garments embroidered for the neck of the plunderer?’
31 “So let all Your enemies perish, O LORD; ‡
But let those who love Him be like the rising of the sun in its might.”

And the land was at rest for forty years.

Judges 6

Israel Oppressed by Midian

1 THEN THE Israelites did evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hand of Midian for seven years. ‡

2 The [powerful] hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of Midian the sons of Israel made for themselves the dens (hideouts) which were in the mountains, and the caves and the [mountain] strongholds. ‡

3-For it was whenever Israel had sown [their seed] that the Midianites would come up with the Amalekites and the people of the east and go up against them. ‡

4 So they would camp against them and destroy the crops of the land as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel as well as no sheep, ox, or donkey. ‡

5 For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, and they would come in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were innumerable. So they came into the land to devastate it. ‡

6 So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the Israelites cried out to the LORD [for help]. ‡

7 Now it came about when they cried out to the LORD because of Midian,

8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the Israelites, and he said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of slavery.

<sup>9</sup> ‘And I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you and gave you their land.’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> and I said to you, “I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live.” But you have not listened to and obeyed My voice.’ ” ‡

Gideon Is Visited

<sup>11</sup> Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, and his son Gideon was beating wheat in the wine press [instead of the threshing floor] to [hide it and] save it from the Midianites. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, “The LORD is with you, O brave man.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> But Gideon said to him, “Please my lord, if the LORD is with us, then why has all this happened to us? And where are all His wondrous works which our fathers told us about when they said, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has abandoned us and put us into the hand of Midian.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> The LORD turned to him and said, “Go in this strength of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?” ‡

<sup>15</sup> But Gideon said to Him, “Please Lord, how am I to rescue Israel? Behold, my family is the least [significant] in Manasseh, and I am the youngest (smallest) in my father’s house.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> The LORD answered him, “I will certainly be with you, and you will strike down the Midianites as [if they were only] one man.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Gideon replied to Him, “If I have found any favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who speaks with me.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> “Please do not depart from here until I come back to You, and bring my offering and place it before You.” And He said, “I will wait until you return.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then Gideon went and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket and the broth in a pot, and he brought the food to Him under the oak (terebinth) and presented it. ‡

<sup>20</sup> The Angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth [over them].” And he did so. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in His hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire flared up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the Angel of the LORD vanished from his sight. ‡

<sup>22</sup> When Gideon realized [without any doubt] that He was the Angel of the LORD, he declared, “Oh no, Lord GOD! For now I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face [and I am doomed]!” ‡

<sup>23</sup> The LORD said to him, “Peace to you, do not be afraid; you shall not die.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and named it The LORD is Peace. To this day it is still in Ophrah, of the Abiezrites. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Now on that same night the LORD said to Gideon, “Take your father’s bull, the second bull seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it; ‡

<sup>26</sup> and build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this mountain stronghold [with stones laid down] in an orderly way. Then take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice using the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down.”

<sup>27</sup> Then Gideon took ten men of his servants and did just as the LORD had told him; but because he was too afraid of his father’s household (relatives) and the men of the city to do it during daylight, he did it at night.

The Altar of Baal Destroyed

<sup>28</sup> Early the next morning when the men of the city got up, they discovered that the altar of Baal was torn down, and the Asherah which was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar which had been built.

<sup>29</sup> So they said to one another, “Who has done this thing?” When they searched about and inquired, they were told, “Gideon the son of Joash did it.”

<sup>30</sup> Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, so that he may be executed, because he has torn down the altar of Baal and cut down the Asherah which was beside it.”

<sup>31</sup> But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Will you plead for Baal? Will you save him? Whoever pleads for Baal shall be put to death while it is still morning. If Baal is a god, let him defend himself, because someone has torn down his altar.”

<sup>32</sup> Therefore on that day he named Gideon Jerubbaal, meaning, “Let Baal plead,” because he had torn down his altar.

<sup>33</sup> Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east assembled together; and they crossed over [the Jordan] and camped in the Valley of Jezreel. ‡

<sup>34</sup> So the Spirit of the LORD clothed Gideon [and empowered him]; and he blew a trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called together [as a militia] to follow him. ‡

<sup>35</sup> He sent messengers throughout [the tribe of] Manasseh, and the fighting men were also called together to follow him; and he sent messengers to [the tribes of] Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

Sign of the Fleece

<sup>36</sup> Then Gideon said to God, “If You are going to rescue Israel through me, as You have spoken,

<sup>37</sup> behold, I will put a fleece of [freshly sheared] wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece, and it is dry on all the ground [around it], then I will know that You will rescue Israel through me, as You have said.” ‡

<sup>38</sup> And it was so. When he got up early the next morning and squeezed the dew out of the fleece, he wrung from it a bowl full of water.

<sup>39</sup> Then Gideon said to God, “Do not let your anger burn against me, so that I may speak once more. Please let me make a test once more with the fleece; now let only the fleece be dry, and let there be dew on all the ground.” ‡

<sup>40</sup> God did so that night; for it was dry only on the fleece, and there was dew on all the ground [around it].

Judges 7

Gideon's 300 Chosen Men

<sup>1</sup> THEN JERUBBAAL (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him got up early and camped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Midian was north of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley. ‡ The War of Gideon

<sup>2</sup> Then the LORD said to Gideon, “There are too many people with you for Me to hand over Midian to them, otherwise Israel will boast [about themselves] against Me, saying, ‘My own power has rescued me.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup>“So now, proclaim in the hearing of the people, ‘Whoever is afraid and trembling, let him turn back and leave Mount Gilead.’ ” So twenty-two thousand men returned [home], but ten thousand remained. ‡

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Gideon, “There are still too many people; bring them down to the water and I will test them for you there. Therefore it shall be that he of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall go with you,’ he shall go with you; but everyone of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.”

<sup>5</sup>So he brought the people down to the water, and the LORD said to Gideon, “You shall separate everyone who laps the water with his tongue as a dog laps, as well as everyone who kneels down to drink.”

<sup>6</sup>Now the number of those who lapped [the water], putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men, but all the rest of the people kneeled down to drink water.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD told Gideon, “With the three hundred men who lapped I will rescue you, and will hand over the Midianites to you. Let all the other people go, each man to his home.” ‡

<sup>8</sup>So the three hundred men took people’s provisions [for the journey] and their trumpets [made of rams’ horns] in their hands. And Gideon sent [away] all the other men of Israel, each to his tent, but kept the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup>Now on that same night the LORD said to Gideon, “Arise, go down against their camp, for I have given it into your hand. ‡

<sup>10</sup>“But if you are afraid to go down [by yourself], go with Purah your servant down to the camp,

<sup>11</sup>and you will hear what they say; and afterward you will have the courage to go down against the camp.” Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outposts of the army that was in the camp. ‡

<sup>12</sup>Now the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the sons of the east were lying [camped] in the valley, as countless as locusts; and their camels were without number, as numerous as the sand on the seashore. ‡

<sup>13</sup>When Gideon arrived, there was a man telling a dream to his friend. And he said, “Listen carefully, I had a dream: there was a loaf of barley bread tumbling into the camp of Midian, and it came to the tent and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down so that the tent lay flat.”

Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel. God has given Midian and the entire camp into his hand.”

<sup>15</sup> When Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed down in worship. Then he returned to the camp of Israel and said, “Arise, for the LORD has given the camp of Midian into your hand.”

<sup>16</sup> He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put trumpets and empty pitchers into the hands of all of them, with torches inside the pitchers.

<sup>17</sup> And he said to them, “Look at me, then do likewise. When I come to the edge of the camp, do just as I do.

<sup>18</sup> “When I and all who are with me blow the trumpet (ram’s horn), then all around the camp you also blow the trumpets and shout, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’ ”

Confusion of the Enemy

<sup>19</sup> So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when the guards had just been changed, and they blew the trumpets and smashed the pitchers that were in their hands.

<sup>21</sup> Then each stood in his place around the camp; and the entire [Midianite] army ran, crying out as they fled. ‡

<sup>22</sup> When Gideon’s men blew the three hundred trumpets, the LORD set the sword of one [Midianite] against another even throughout the whole army; and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath. ‡

<sup>23</sup> The men of Israel were summoned together from [the tribes of] Naphtali and Asher and all Manasseh, and they pursued Midian.

<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of [the tribe of] Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites and take [control of] the waters before them [thereby cutting off the Midianites], as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan [River].” So all the men of Ephraim were assembled together and they took control of the waters, as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then the men of Ephraim took the two leaders of Midian, Oreb and

Zeeb, and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the wine press of Zeeb, and pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon from across the Jordan. ‡

Judges 8

Zebah and Zalmunna Routed

<sup>1</sup> AND THE men of [the tribe of] Ephraim said to Gideon, “What is this thing that you have done to us, not calling us when you went to fight with Midian?” And they quarreled with him vehemently. ‡

<sup>2</sup> But he said to them, “What have I done now [that is so significant] in comparison with you? Is not the gleanings (leftovers) of the grapes of [your tribe of] Ephraim better than the vintage (entire harvest) of [my clan of] Abiezer?

<sup>3</sup> “God has given the leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb into your hands; and what was I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger toward him subsided when he made this statement. ‡

<sup>4</sup> So Gideon came to the Jordan and crossed over [the river], he and the three hundred men who were with him—exhausted, yet [still] pursuing [the enemy].

<sup>5</sup> He said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who are following me since they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> But the leaders of Succoth said, “Are Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands, that we should give bread to your army?” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Gideon said, “For that [response], when the LORD has handed over Zebah and Zalmunna to me, I will thrash your bodies with the thorns and briars of the wilderness.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> He went from there up to Penuel and spoke similarly to them; and the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered. ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Gideon said also to the men of Penuel, “When I come again in peace, I will tear down this tower.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Gideon went up by the route of those who lived in tents to the east of

Nobah and Jogbehah, and he attacked their camp when the camp was unsuspecting. ‡

<sup>12</sup> When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and terrified the entire army. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres.

<sup>14</sup> He captured a young man of Succoth and questioned him. And the youth wrote down for him [the names of] the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

<sup>15</sup> He came to the men of Succoth and said, “Look here, Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, ‘Are Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are exhausted?’ ” ‡

<sup>16</sup> He took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briars, and with them he punished the men of Succoth. ‡

<sup>17</sup> He tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Gideon said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?” And they replied, “They were like you, each one of them resembled the son of a king.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> He said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if only you had let them live, I would not kill you.”

<sup>20</sup> So [to humiliate them] Gideon said to Jether his firstborn, “Stand up, and kill them!” But the youth did not draw his sword, because he was afraid, for he was still [just] a boy.

<sup>21</sup> Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Rise up yourself and strike us; for as the man is, so is his strength.” So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent amulets that were on their camels’ necks. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule [as king] over us, both you and your son, also your son’s son, for you have rescued us from the hand of Midian.”

<sup>23</sup> But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> And Gideon said to them, “I would make a request of you, that each one of you give me an earring from his spoil.” For the Midianites had gold earrings, because they were Ishmaelites [who customarily wore them]. ‡

<sup>25</sup> They answered, “We will certainly give them to you .” And they spread out a garment, and every one of them threw an earring there from his spoil.

<sup>26</sup> And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was seventeen hundred shekels of gold, apart from the crescent amulets and pendants and the purple garments which were worn by the kings of Midian, and apart from the chains that were on their camels' necks.

<sup>27</sup>-Gideon made [all the golden earrings into] an ephod [a sacred, high priest's garment], and put it in his city of Ophrah, and all Israel worshiped it as an idol there, and it became a trap for Gideon and his household. ‡

Forty Years of Peace

<sup>28</sup> So Midian was subdued and humbled before the sons of Israel, and they no longer lifted up their heads [in pride]. And the land was at rest for forty years in the days of Gideon. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Jerubbaal (Gideon) the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.

<sup>30</sup> Now Gideon had seventy sons born to him, because he had many wives. ‡

<sup>31</sup>-And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelech. ‡

<sup>32</sup> Gideon the son of Joash died at a good advanced age and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then it came about, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the Israelites again played the prostitute with the Baals, and made Baal-berith their god. ‡

<sup>34</sup> And the Israelites did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies on every side; ‡

<sup>35</sup> nor did they show kindness to the family of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in return for all the good that he had done for Israel. ‡

Judges 9

Abimelech's Conspiracy

<sup>1</sup> NOW ABIMELECH the son of Jerubbaal (Gideon) went to Shechem to his mother's relatives, and said to them and to the whole clan of the household of his mother's father, ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Speak now in the hearing of all the leaders of Shechem, ‘Which is better for you, that seventy men, all of the sons of Jerubbaal rule over you, or that one man rule over you?’ Also, remember that I am your own bone and flesh.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So his mother's relatives spoke all these words concerning him so that all the leaders of Shechem could hear; and their hearts were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, “He is our relative.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal-berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and undisciplined men, and they followed (supported) him. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then he went to his father’s house at Ophrah and murdered his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, [in a public execution] on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left alive, because he had hidden himself. ‡

<sup>6</sup>- All the men of Shechem and all of Beth-millo assembled together, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the oak (terebinth) of the pillar (memorial stone) at Shechem.

<sup>7</sup> When they told Jotham, he went and stood at the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted to them, “Hear me, O men of Shechem, so that God may hear you. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Once the trees went forth to anoint a king over them, and they said to the olive tree, ‘Reign over us!’ ‡

<sup>9</sup> “But the olive tree said to them, ‘Should I give up my fatness by which God and men are honored, and go to wave over the trees?’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Then the trees said to the fig tree, ‘You come and reign over us!’

<sup>11</sup> “But the fig tree said to them, ‘Should I give up my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to wave over the trees?’

<sup>12</sup> “Then the trees said to the vine, ‘You come and reign over us.’

<sup>13</sup> “And the vine replied, ‘Should I give up my new wine, which makes God and men happy, and go to wave over the trees?’ ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Then all the trees said to the bramble, ‘You come and reign over us.’

<sup>15</sup> “So the bramble said to the trees, ‘If in truth you are anointing me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon.’ ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Now then, if you acted in truth and integrity when you made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have dealt with him as he deserved— ‡

<sup>17</sup> for my father fought for you and risked his life and rescued you from the hand of Midian;

<sup>18</sup> but you have risen against my father’s house today and have murdered his sons, seventy men, on one stone, and have made Abimelech, son of his maid-servant, king over the people of Shechem, because he is your relative— ‡

<sup>19</sup> if then you have acted in truth and integrity with Jerubbaal and his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “But if not, may fire come out from Abimelech and devour the people of Shechem and Beth-millo; and may fire come out from the people of Shechem and Beth-millo, and devour Abimelech.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then Jotham escaped and fled, and went to Beer and lived there because of Abimelech his brother. ‡

Shechem and Abimelech Fall

<sup>23</sup> Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem; and the leaders of Shechem acted treacherously against Abimelech, ‡

<sup>24</sup> so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal (Gideon) might come [on the guilty], and that their [innocent] blood might be laid on Abimelech their brother, who had killed them, and on the leaders of Shechem, who strengthened his hands (encouraged him) to kill his brothers. ‡

<sup>25</sup> The leaders of Shechem set men in ambush against Abimelech on the mountaintops, and they robbed all who passed by them along the road; and it was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>26</sup> Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his relatives, and moved into Shechem; and the leaders of Shechem trusted him.

<sup>27</sup> They went out into the field, gathered the grapes of their vineyard and trod them, and held a festival; and they entered the house of their god, and they ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech. ‡

<sup>28</sup> Gaal the son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not [merely] the son of Jerubbaal and is Zebul not his lieutenant? Serve the men of Hamor the father (founder) of Shechem. Why then should we serve Abimelech? ‡

<sup>29</sup> “If only this people were under my authority! Then I would remove Abimelech and say to him, ‘Increase [the size of] your army and come out [to fight].’ ” ‡

<sup>30</sup> When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger burned.

<sup>31</sup> He sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, “Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his relatives have come to Shechem; and they are stirring up the city against you.

<sup>32</sup> “Now then, get up during the night, you and the people who are with you, and set up an ambush in the field.

<sup>33</sup> “Then in the morning, at sunrise, you will get up early and rush upon and attack the city; and when Gaal and the people who are with him come out against you, you shall do to them whatever you can.”

<sup>34</sup> So Abimelech and all the people who were with him got up during the night, and set up an ambush against Shechem, in four companies.

<sup>35</sup> Now Gaal the son of Ebed came out and stood in the entrance of the city gate; then Abimelech and the people who were with him got up from the ambush.

<sup>36</sup> When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the mountaintops.” But Zebul said to him, “You are only seeing the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.”

<sup>37</sup> Gaal spoke again and said, “Look! People are coming down from the highest part of the land, and one company is coming by way of the sorcerers’ oak tree.”

<sup>38</sup> Then Zebul said to Gaal, “Where is your [boasting] mouth now, you who said, ‘Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?’ Is this not the people whom you despised? Go out now and fight with them!” ‡

<sup>39</sup> So Gaal went out ahead of the leaders of Shechem and fought with Abimelech.

<sup>40</sup> Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him; and many fell wounded as far as the entrance of the gate.

<sup>41</sup> Then Abimelech stayed at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his relatives so that they could not remain in Shechem.

<sup>42</sup> The next day the people went out to the field, and it was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>43</sup> So he took his people and divided them into three companies, and set an ambush in the field; and he looked and saw the people coming out of the city. And he rose up against them and struck them down.

<sup>44</sup> Then Abimelech and the company with him advanced forward and stood in the entrance of the city gate; the two other companies attacked all who were in the field and killed them.

<sup>45</sup> Abimelech fought against the city that entire day. He took the city and killed the people who were in it; he demolished the city and sowed it with salt. ‡

entered the inner chamber (stronghold) of the temple of El-berith (the god of a covenant). ‡

<sup>47</sup> Abimelech was told that all the leaders of the Tower of Shechem were assembled together.

<sup>48</sup> So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand and cut down a branch from the trees, picked it up, and laid it on his shoulder. And he said to the people with him, “What you have seen me do, hurry and do just as I have done.” ‡

<sup>49</sup> So everyone of the people also cut down his branch and followed Abimelech, and they put the branches on top of the inner chamber and set it on fire over those inside, so that all the people in the Tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup> Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and camped against Thebez and took it.

<sup>51</sup> But there was a strong (fortified) tower in the center of the city, and all the men and women with all the leaders of the city fled to it and shut themselves in; and they went up on the roof of the tower.

<sup>52</sup> So Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and approached the entrance of the tower to burn it down with fire.

<sup>53</sup> But a certain woman threw an upper millstone [down] on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull. ‡

<sup>54</sup> Then he called quickly to the young man who was his armor bearer, and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, so that it will not be said of me, ‘A woman killed him.’ ” So the young man pierced him through, and he died. ‡

<sup>55</sup> When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, each departed to his home.

<sup>56</sup> In this way God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father [Jerubbaal] by killing his seventy brothers. ‡

<sup>57</sup> Also God repaid all the wickedness of the men of Shechem on their heads, and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal (Gideon) came upon them.  [Judg 9:19, 20] ‡

Judges 10

Oppression of Philistines and Ammonites

<sup>1</sup> AFTER ABIMELECH died, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel; and he lived in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Tola judged Israel for twenty-three years; then he died and was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup> After him, Jair the Gileadite arose, and he judged Israel for twenty-two years.

<sup>4</sup> He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys, and they had thirty towns in the land of Gilead that are called Havvoth-jair (towns of Jair) to this day. ‡

<sup>5</sup> And Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

<sup>6</sup> Then the Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; they served the Baals, the Ashtaroth (female deities), the gods of Aram (Syria), the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines. They abandoned the LORD and did not serve Him. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and the Ammonites, ‡

<sup>8</sup> and they oppressed and crushed Israel that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites who were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

<sup>9</sup> The Ammonites crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed.

<sup>10</sup> Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD [for help], saying, “We have sinned against You, because we have abandoned (rejected) our God and have served the Baals.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to the Israelites, “Did I not rescue you from the Egyptians the Amorites, the Ammonites, and the Philistines? ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Also when the Sidonians, the Amalekites, and the Maonites oppressed and crushed you, you cried out to Me, and I rescued you from their hands. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Yet you have abandoned (rejected) Me and served other gods; therefore I will no longer rescue you. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Go, cry out to the gods you have chosen; let them rescue you in your time of distress.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> The Israelites said to the LORD, “We have sinned, do to us whatever seems good to You; only please rescue us this day.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> So they removed the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD; and He could bear the misery of Israel no longer. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then the Ammonites were assembled together and they camped in Gilead. And the sons of Israel assembled and camped at Mizpah.‡

<sup>18</sup> The people, the leaders of Gilead (Israel) said to one another, “Who is the man who will begin to fight against the Ammonites? He shall become head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”‡

Judges 11

Jephthah the Ninth Judge

<sup>1</sup> NOW JEPHTHAH the Gileadite was a brave warrior, but he was the son of a prostitute. Gilead was the father of Jephthah.‡ The War of Jephthah

<sup>2</sup> Gilead’s wife bore him sons, and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, “You shall not have an inheritance in our father’s house, because you are the son of another woman.”

<sup>5</sup> When the Ammonites fought against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob;

<sup>6</sup> and they said to Jephthah, “Come and be our leader, so that we may fight against the Ammonites.”

<sup>7</sup> But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “Did you not hate me and drive me from the house of my father? Why have you come to me now when you are in trouble?”‡

<sup>8</sup> The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “This is why we have turned to you now: that you may go with us and fight the Ammonites and become head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”‡

<sup>9</sup> So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “If you take me back [home] to fight against the Ammonites and the LORD gives them over to me, will I [really] become your head?”

<sup>10</sup> The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “The LORD is the witness between us; be assured that we will do as you have said.”‡

<sup>11</sup> So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and leader over them. And Jephthah repeated everything that he had promised before the LORD at Mizpah.‡

<sup>12</sup> Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, saying,

“What is [the problem] between you and me, that you have come against me to fight in my land?”

<sup>13</sup> The Ammonites’ king replied to the messengers of Jephthah, “It is because Israel took away my land when they came up from Egypt, from the [river] Arnon as far as the Jabbok and [east of] the Jordan; so now, return those lands peaceably.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> But Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the Ammonites,

<sup>15</sup> and they said to him, “This is what Jephthah says: ‘Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites.’” ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘For when they came up from Egypt, Israel walked through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh;’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please let us pass through your land,” but the king of Edom would not listen. Also they sent word to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel stayed at Kadesh. ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘Then they went through the wilderness and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came to the east side of the land of Moab, and they camped on the other side of the [river] Arnon; but they did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the [northern] boundary of Moab.’ ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, “Please let us pass through your land to our place.”’ ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered together all his people and camped at Jahaz and fought against Israel.’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘The LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them; so Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.’ ‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and from the wilderness [westward] as far as the Jordan.’ ‡

<sup>23</sup> ‘And now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed and driven out the Amorites from before His people Israel, so [why] should you possess it?’

<sup>24</sup> ‘Do you not possess what Chemosh your god gives you to possess? And everything that the LORD our God dispossessed before us, we will possess.’ ‡

<sup>25</sup> ‘Now are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever go to war against them?’ ‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘While Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon for three hundred years, why did you not recover your lost lands during that time?’ ‡

27 ‘So I have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong by making war against me; may the LORD, the [righteous] Judge, judge this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites.’ ” ‡

<sup>28</sup> But the king of the Ammonites disregarded the message of Jephthah, which he sent to him.

Jephthah’s Tragic Vow

<sup>29</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed on to the Ammonites. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Jephthah made a vow to the LORD and said, “If You will indeed give the Ammonites into my hand, ‡

31-then whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the Ammonites, it shall be the LORD’s, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> Then Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight with them; and the LORD gave them into his hand.

<sup>33</sup> And from Aroer to the entrance of Minnith he struck them, twenty cities, and as far as Abel-keramim (brook by the vineyard), with a very great defeat. So the Ammonites were subdued and humbled before the Israelites. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Then Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, and this is what he saw: his daughter coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dancing. And she was his only child; except for her he had no son or daughter. ‡

35-And when he saw her, he tore his clothes [in grief] and said, “Alas, my daughter! You have brought me great disaster, and you are the cause of ruin to me; for I have made a vow to the LORD, and I cannot take it back.” ‡

<sup>36</sup> And she said to him, “My father, you have made a vow to the LORD; do to me as you have vowed, since the LORD has taken vengeance for you on your enemies, the Ammonites.” ‡

<sup>37</sup> And she said to her father, “Let this one thing be done for me; let me alone for two months, so that I may go to the mountains and weep over my virginity, I and my companions.”

<sup>38</sup> And he said, “Go.” So he sent her away for two months; and she left with her companions, and wept over her virginity on the mountains.

<sup>39</sup> At the end of two months she returned to her father, who did to her as he had vowed; and she had no relations with a man. It became a custom in Israel,‡

<sup>40</sup> that the daughters of Israel went yearly to tell the story of the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

Judges 12

Jephthah and His Successors

<sup>1</sup> THE MEN of [the tribe of] Ephraim were summoned [to action], and they crossed over to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight with the Ammonites without calling us to go with you? [For that] we will burn your house down upon you.”‡

<sup>2</sup> And Jephthah said to them, “My people and I were in a major conflict with the Ammonites, and when I called you [for help], you did not rescue me from their hand.

<sup>3</sup> “So when I saw that you were not coming to help me, I took my life in my hands and crossed over against the Ammonites, and the LORD handed them over to me. So why have you come up to me this day to fight against me?”‡

<sup>4</sup> Then Jephthah assembled all the men of Gilead and fought with [the tribe of] Ephraim; and the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they had said, “You Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim, in the midst of [the tribes of] Ephraim and Manasseh.”‡

<sup>5</sup> And the Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan opposite the Ephraimites; and when any of the fugitives of Ephraim said, “Let me cross over,” the men of Gilead would say to him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” If he said, “No,”‡

<sup>6</sup> they said to him, “Then say ‘Shibboleth.’ ” And he said, “Sibboleth,” for he could not pronounce it correctly. Then they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. At that time forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites fell.

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah judged Israel for six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

<sup>9</sup> He had thirty sons, and thirty daughters whom he gave in marriage outside the family, and he brought in thirty daughters [-in-law] from outside for his sons. He judged Israel for seven years.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

<sup>12</sup> Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

<sup>14</sup> He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys; and he judged Israel for eight years. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites. ‡

Judges 13

Philistines Oppress Again

<sup>1</sup> NOW ISRAEL again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was infertile and had no children. ‡

<sup>3</sup>-And the Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Behold, you are infertile and have no children, but you shall conceive and give birth to a son. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Therefore, be careful not to drink wine or [any other] intoxicating drink, and do not eat anything [ceremonially] unclean. ‡

<sup>5</sup>“For behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son. No razor shall come upon his head, for the boy shall be a Nazirite [dedicated] to God from birth; and he shall begin to rescue Israel from the hands of the Philistines.” ‡

<sup>6</sup>-Then the woman went and told her husband, saying, “A Man of God came to me and his appearance was like the appearance of the Angel of God, very awesome. I did not ask Him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But He said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and now you shall not drink wine or [any other] intoxicating drink, nor eat anything [ceremonially] unclean, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from birth to the day of his death.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Then Manoah pleaded with the LORD and said, “O Lord, please let the Man of God whom You sent come again to us and teach us what we are to do for the boy who is to be born.”

<sup>9</sup> And God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the Angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

<sup>10</sup> So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, “Behold, the Man who came to me the other day has appeared to me.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Manoah got up and followed his wife, and came to the Man and said to him, “Are you the Man who spoke to this woman?” He said, “I am.”

<sup>12</sup> And Manoah said, “Now when your words come true, what shall be the boy’s manner of life, and his vocation?”

<sup>13</sup> The Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “The woman must pay attention to everything that I said to her.

<sup>14</sup> “She may not eat anything that comes from the vine nor drink wine or [any other] intoxicating drink, nor eat anything [ceremonially] unclean. She shall observe everything that I commanded her.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain you and let us prepare a young goat for you [to eat].” ‡

<sup>16</sup> The Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain me, I will not eat your food, but if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to the LORD.” For Manoah did not know that he was the Angel of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that when your words come true, we may honor you?”

<sup>18</sup> But the Angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask my name, seeing it is wonderful (miraculous)?”  [Is 9:6] ‡

<sup>19</sup> So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering and offered it on the rock to the LORD, and He performed miracles while Manoah and his wife looked on. ‡

<sup>20</sup> For when the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the Angel of the LORD ascended in the altar flame. When Manoah and his wife saw this they fell on their faces to the ground. ‡

<sup>21</sup>-The Angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah or his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was the Angel of the LORD. ‡

<sup>22</sup> So Manoah said to his wife, “We will certainly die, because we have seen God.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> But his [sensible] wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have received a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have announced such things as these at this time.”

<sup>24</sup> So the woman [in due time] gave birth to a son and named him Samson; and the boy grew and the LORD blessed him. ‡

<sup>25</sup> And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him at times in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol. ‡

Judges 14

Samson’s Marriage

<sup>2</sup> So he went back and told his father and his mother, “I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines; now get her for me as a wife.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> But his father and mother said to him, “Is there no woman among the daughters of your relatives, or among all our people, that you must go to take a wife from the uncircumcised (pagan) Philistines?” And Samson said to his father, “Get her for me, because she looks pleasing to me.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> His father and mother did not know that it was of the LORD, and that He was seeking an occasion [to take action] against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother [to arrange the marriage], and they came as far as the vineyards of Timnah; and suddenly, a young lion came roaring toward him.

<sup>6</sup> The Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he tore the lion apart as one tears apart a young goat, and he had nothing at all in his hand; but he did not tell his father or mother what he had done. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So he went down and talked with the woman; and she looked pleasing to Samson.

<sup>8</sup> When he returned later to take her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion; and behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the body of the lion.

<sup>9</sup> So he scraped the honey out into his hands and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and mother, he gave them some, and they ate it; but he did not tell them he had taken the honey from the body of the lion.

10 His father went down to the woman, and Samson prepared a feast there, for that was the customary thing for young men to do.

11 When the people saw him, they brought thirty companions (wedding attendants) to be with him.

Samson's Riddle

12 Then Samson said to them, “Let me now ask you a riddle; if you can tell me what it is within the seven days of the feast, and solve it, then I will give you thirty linen tunics (undergarments) and thirty changes of [outer] clothing.”

13 “But if you are unable to tell me [the answer], then you shall give me thirty linen tunics (undergarments) and thirty changes of [outer] clothing.” And they said to him, “Ask your riddle, so that we may hear it.”

14 So he said to them,

“Out of the eater came something to eat,
And out of the strong came something sweet.”

And they could not solve the riddle in three days.

15 Then on the fourth day they said to Samson’s wife, “Persuade your husband to tell us [through you] the [answer to the] riddle, or we will burn you and your father’s household with fire. Have you invited us to make us poor? Is this not true?”

16 So Samson’s wife wept before him and said, “You only hate me, you do not love me; you have asked my countrymen a riddle, and have not told [the answer] to me.” And he said to her, “Listen, I have not told my father or my mother [either], so [why] should I tell you?”

17 However Samson’s wife wept before him seven days while their [wedding] feast lasted, and on the seventh day he told her because she pressed him so hard. Then she told the [answer to the] riddle to her countrymen.

18 So the men of the city said to Samson on the seventh day before sundown,

“What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?”

And he said to them,

“If you had not plowed with my heifer,
You would not have solved my riddle.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of them and took their gear, and gave changes of clothes to those who had explained the riddle. And his anger burned, and he went up to his father’s house. ‡

<sup>20</sup> But Samson’s wife was given to his companion who had been his friend. ‡

Judges 15

Samson Burns Philistine Crops

<sup>1</sup> BUT AFTER a while, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife with a young goat [as a gift of reconciliation]; and he said, “I will go in to my wife in her room.” But her father would not allow him to go in.

<sup>2</sup> Her father said, “I really thought you utterly hated her; so I gave her to your companion. Is her younger sister not more beautiful than she? Please take her [as your wife] instead.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Samson said to them, “This time I shall be blameless in regard to the Philistines when I do them harm.”

<sup>4</sup> So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches and turning the foxes tail to tail, he put a torch between each pair of tails.

<sup>5</sup> When he had set the torches ablaze, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and he burned up the heap of sheaves and the standing grain, along with the vineyards and olive groves.

<sup>6</sup> Then the Philistines said, “Who did this?” And they were told, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took Samson’s wife and gave her to his [chief] companion [at the wedding feast].” So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Samson said to them, “If this is the way you act, be certain that I will take revenge on you, and [only] after that I will stop.”

<sup>8</sup> Then he struck them without mercy, a great slaughter; and he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

<sup>9</sup> Then the [army of the] Philistines came up and camped in [the tribal territory of] Judah, and overran Lehi (Jawbone). ‡

<sup>10</sup> The men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” And they answered, “We have come up to bind Samson, in order to do to him as he has done to us.”

<sup>11</sup> Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam and said to Samson, “Have you not known that the Philistines are rulers over us? What is this that you have done to us?” He said to them, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> They said to him, “We have come down to bind you, so that we may hand you over to the Philistines.” And Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me.”

<sup>13</sup> So they said to him, “No, we will [only] bind you securely and place you into their hands; but we certainly will not kill you.” So they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock [of Etam].

<sup>14</sup> When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him. And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and the ropes on his arms were like flax (linen) that had been burned, and his bonds dropped off his hands. ‡

<sup>15</sup> He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, so he reached out his hand and took it and killed a thousand men with it. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then Samson said,

“With the jawbone of a donkey,
Heaps upon heaps,
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have struck down a thousand men.”

<sup>17</sup> When he finished speaking, he threw the jawbone from his hand; and he named that place Ramath-lehi (hill of the jawbone).

<sup>18</sup> Then Samson was very thirsty, and he called out to the LORD and said, “You have given this great victory through the hand of Your servant, and now am I to die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised (pagans)?” ‡

<sup>19</sup> So God split open the hollow place that was at Lehi, and water came out of it. When Samson drank, his spirit (strength) returned and he was revived. Therefore he named it En-hakkore (spring which is calling), which is at Lehi to this day. ‡

<sup>20</sup> And Samson judged Israel in the days of [occupation by] the Philistines for twenty years.  [Judg 17:6. ] ‡

Judges 16

Samson's Weakness

<sup>1</sup> THEN SAMSON went to Gaza and saw a prostitute there, and went in to her.

<sup>2</sup> The Gazites were told, “Samson has come here.” So they surrounded the place and waited all night at the gate of the city to ambush him. They kept quiet all night, saying, “In the morning, when it is light, we will kill him.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> But Samson lay [resting] until midnight, then at midnight he got up and took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two door-posts, and pulled them up, [security] bar and all, and he put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the hill which is opposite Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> After this he fell in love with a [Philistine] woman [living] in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

<sup>5</sup> So the [five] lords (governors) of the Philistines came to her and said to her, “Persuade him, and see where his great strength lies and [find out] how we may overpower him so that we may bind him to subdue him. And each of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me where your great strength lies and with what you may be bound and subdued.”

<sup>7</sup> Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh cords (tendons) that have not been dried, then I will be weak and be like any [other] man.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the Philistine lords brought her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

<sup>9</sup> Now she had men lying in ambush in an inner room. And she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he broke the cords as a string of tow breaks when it touches fire. So [the secret of] his strength was not discovered.

<sup>10</sup> Then Delilah said to Samson, “See now, you have mocked me and told me lies; now please tell me [truthfully] how you may be bound.”

<sup>11</sup> He said to her, “If they bind me tightly with new ropes that have not been used, then I will become weak and be like any [other] man.”

<sup>12</sup> So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And the men lying in ambush were in the inner room. But he snapped the ropes off his arms like [sewing] thread.

<sup>13</sup> Then Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies; tell me [truthfully] with what you may be bound.” And he said to her, “If you weave the seven braids of my hair with the web [ and fasten it with a pin, then I will become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>14</sup> So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks (braids) of his hair and wove them into the web ]. And she fastened it with the pin [of the loom] and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin of the [weaver’s] loom and the web.

Delilah Extracts His Secret

<sup>15</sup> Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times and have not told me where your great strength lies.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> When she pressured him day after day with her words and pleaded with him, he was annoyed to death.

<sup>17</sup> Then [finally] he told her everything that was in his heart and said to her, “A razor has never been used on my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will leave me, and I will become weak and be like any [other] man.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Delilah realized that he had told her everything in his heart, so she sent and called for the Philistine lords, saying, “Come up this once, because he has told me everything in his heart.” Then the Philistine lords came up to her and brought the money [they had promised] in their hands.

<sup>19</sup> She made Samson sleep on her knees, and she called a man and had him shave off the seven braids of his head. Then she began to abuse Samson, and his strength left him. ‡

<sup>20</sup> She said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he awoke from his sleep and said, “I will go out as I have time after time and shake myself free.” For Samson did not know that the LORD had departed from him. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with [two] bronze chains; and he was forced to be a grinder [of grain into flour at the mill] in the prison.

<sup>22</sup> But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaved off.

<sup>23</sup> Now the Philistine lords gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to celebrate, for they said,

“Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hands!”

24 When the people saw Samson, they praised their god, for they said, ‡

“Our god has handed over our enemy to us,
The ravager of our country,
Who has killed many of us.”

25 Now when they were in high spirits, they said, “Call for Samson, so that he may amuse us.” So they called Samson out of the prison, and he entertained them. They made him stand between the pillars. ‡

26 Then Samson said to the boy who held him by the hand, “Let me feel the pillars on which the [roof of the] house rests, so that I may lean against them.”

27 Now the house was full of men and women; all the Philistine lords were there, and on the flat roof were about three thousand men and women who looked on while Samson was entertaining them. ‡

Samson Is Avenged

28 Then Samson called to the LORD and said, “O Lord GOD, please remember me and please strengthen me just this one time, O God, and let me take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes.” ‡

29 Samson took hold of the two middle [support] pillars on which the house rested, and braced himself against them, one with his right hand and the other with his left.

30-And Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” And he stretched out with all his might [collapsing the support pillars], and the house fell on the lords and on all the people who were in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those whom he had killed during his life.

31-Then his brothers and his father’s entire [tribal] household came down, took him, and brought him up; and they buried him in the tomb of Manoah his father, [which was] between Zorah and Eshtaol. So Samson had judged Israel for twenty years.  [Judg 17:6; Heb 11:32 ] ‡

Micah’s Idolatry

1 THERE WAS a man of the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah.

2 And he said to his mother, “The eleven hundred pieces of silver which were taken from you, about which you cursed [the thief] and also spoke about in my hearing, behold, the silver is with me; I took it.” And his mother said, “Blessed be my son before the LORD.” ‡

3. He returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and she said, “I had truly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son (in his name) to make an image [carved from wood and plated with silver] and a cast image [of solid silver]; so now, I will return it to you.” ‡

4 So when he returned the silver to his mother, she took two hundred pieces of silver and gave them to the silversmith who made of it an image [of silver-plated wood] and a cast image [of solid silver]; and they were in the house of Micah. ‡

5. Now the man Micah had a house of gods (shrine), and he made an ephod and teraphim and dedicated and installed one of his sons, who became his [personal] priest. ‡

6. In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes. ‡

7 Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, from the family [of the tribe] of Judah, who was a Levite; and he was staying there [temporarily]. ‡

8 Then the man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah, to stay wherever he could find a place; and as he journeyed, he came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah.

9 Micah said to him, “Where do you come from?” And he said to him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to stay wherever I can find a place.”

10—And Micah said to him, “Live here with me and be a father and a [personal] priest to me, and I will give you ten pieces of silver each year, a supply of clothing, and your sustenance (room and board).” So the Levite went in. ‡

11 The Levite agreed to live with the man, and the young man became to Micah like one of his sons.

12 So Micah dedicated (installed) the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in the house of Micah. ‡

13 Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will favor me and make me prosper because I have a Levite as my priest.”

Judges 18

Danites Seek Territory

<sup>1</sup> IN THOSE days there was no king in Israel; and in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance [of land] for themselves to live in, for until then an inheritance had not been allotted to them as a possession among the tribes of Israel. ‡ *The Migration of the Tribe of Dan*

<sup>2</sup> So the sons of Dan sent from the total number of their [extended] family five brave men from Zorah and Eshtaol, to scout the land and to explore it; and they said to them, “Go, explore the land.” They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there. ‡

<sup>3</sup> When they passed near Micah’s house, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite, and they turned aside there and said to him, “Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what do you have here?”

<sup>4</sup> And he said to them, “Micah has done this and that for me, and he has hired me and I have become his priest.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> And they said to him, “Please ask of God, so that we may know whether our journey on which we are going will be successful.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> The priest said to them, “Go in peace; the journey on which you are going is acceptable to the LORD.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then the five men went on and came to Laish and saw the people who were there, [how they were] living securely in the style of the Sidonians, quiet and peaceful; and there was no oppressive magistrate in the land humiliating them in anything, and they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone. ‡

<sup>8</sup> The five men came back [home] to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brothers said to them, “What do you have to report?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> They said, “Arise, let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good (fertile). Will you sit still and do nothing? Do not hesitate to go, to enter, to take possession of the land.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> “When you enter, you will come to people [feeling] safe and secure with a spacious land [widely extended on all sides]; for God has given it into your hands—a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then from the [tribal] family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundred men armed with weapons of war set out.

<sup>12</sup> They went up and camped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. Therefore they have called that place Mahaneh-dan to this day; it is west of Kiriath-jearim. ‡

<sup>13</sup> They went on from there to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah's house. ‡

Danites Take Micah's Idols

<sup>14</sup> Then the five men who had gone to scout the country of Laish said to their relatives, "Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, teraphim, an image [of silver-plated wood], and a cast image [of solid silver]? Now therefore, consider what you should do." ‡

<sup>15</sup> So they turned in that direction and came to the house of the young Levite, at the home of Micah, and asked him how he was doing.

<sup>16</sup> Now the six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the sons of Dan, stood at the entrance of the gate. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Now the five men who had gone to scout the land went up and entered the house and took the image [of silver-plated wood], the ephod, the teraphim, and the cast image [of solid silver], while the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war. ‡

<sup>18</sup> When these [five men] went into Micah's house and took the [plated] image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the cast image, the priest asked them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup> They said to him, "Keep quiet, put your hand over your mouth and come with us, and be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest to the house of one man, or to be a priest to a tribe and family in Israel?" ‡

<sup>20</sup> The priest's heart was glad [to hear that], and he took the ephod, the teraphim, and the image, and went among the people.

<sup>22</sup> When they had gone some distance from the house of Micah, the men who were [living] in the houses near Micah's house assembled [as a militia] and overtook the sons of Dan.

<sup>23</sup> They shouted to the Danites, who turned and said to Micah, "What is your reason for assembling [against us]?"

<sup>24</sup> He said, "You have taken away my gods which I have made, and the priest, and have gone away; what else do I have left? How can you say to me, 'What is your reason?'"

<sup>25</sup> The sons of Dan said to him, “Do not let your voice [of complaint] be heard among us, or else angry men will assault you and you will lose your life, along with the lives of [everyone in] your household.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the Danites went on their way; and Micah saw that they were too strong for him, so he turned and went back to his house.

<sup>27</sup> They took the [idolatrous] things that Micah had made, and his priest, and they came to Laish, to a people who were quiet and secure; and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And there was no one to rescue them because it was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with anyone. It was in the valley which belongs to Beth-rehob. And they rebuilt the city and lived in it. ‡

<sup>29</sup> They named the city Dan, after Dan their forefather who was born to Israel (Jacob); however, the original name of the city was Laish. ‡

<sup>30</sup> The [tribe of] the sons of Dan set up the image [of silver-plated wood] for themselves; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity and exile from the land. ‡

<sup>31</sup> So they set up for themselves Micah’s [silver-plated wooden] image which he had made, and kept it throughout the time that the house (tabernacle) of God was at Shiloh. ‡

Judges 19

A Levite’s Concubine Degraded

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that a certain Levite living [as an alien] in the most remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, who took a concubine for himself from Bethlehem in Judah. ‡

<sup>2</sup> But his concubine was unfaithful to him, and left him and went to her father’s house in Bethlehem of Judah, and stayed there for a period of four months.

<sup>3</sup> Then her husband arose and went after her to speak kindly and tenderly to her in order to bring her back, taking with him his servant and a pair of donkeys. So she brought him into her father’s house, and when the father of the girl saw him, he was happy to meet him.

<sup>4</sup> So his father-in-law, the girl’s father, detained him; and he stayed there with him for three days. So they ate and drank, and he lodged there.

<sup>5</sup> On the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and the Levite prepared to leave; but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen yourself with a piece of bread, and afterward go your way." ‡

<sup>6</sup> So both men sat down and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Please be willing to spend the night and enjoy yourself."

<sup>7</sup> Then the man got up to leave, but his father-in-law urged him [strongly to remain]; so he spent the night there again.

<sup>8</sup> On the fifth day he got up early in the morning to leave, but the girl's father said, "Please strengthen yourself, and wait until the end of the day." So both of them ate.

<sup>9</sup> When the man and his concubine and his servant got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold, now the day has drawn to a close; please spend the night. Look, now the day comes to an end; spend the night here and celebrate, enjoy yourself. Then tomorrow you may get up early for your journey and go home."

<sup>10</sup> But the man was not willing to stay the night; so he got up and left and came to a place opposite Jebus (that is Jerusalem). With him were two saddled donkeys [and his servant] and his concubine. ‡

<sup>11</sup> When they were near Jebus, the day was almost gone, and the servant said to his master, "Please come and let us turn aside into this Jebusite city and spend the night in it." ‡

<sup>12</sup> But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners who are not of the sons (descendants) of Israel. We will go on as far as Gibeah." ‡

<sup>13</sup> And he said to his servant, "Come and let us approach one of these places: and we will spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah." ‡

<sup>14</sup> So they passed by and went on their way, and the sun set on them near Gibeah, which belongs to [the tribe of] Benjamin,

<sup>15</sup> and they turned aside there to go in and spend the night in Gibeah. And the Levite went in and sat down in the open square of the city, because no man invited them into his house to spend the night. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then behold, there was an old man who was coming out of the field from his work at evening. He was from the hill country of Ephraim but was staying in Gibeah, and the men of the place were sons (descendants) of Benjamin. ‡

<sup>17</sup> When he looked up, he saw the traveler [and his companions] in the city square; and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

<sup>18</sup> The Levite replied, “We are passing through from Bethlehem [in the territory] of Judah to the most remote part of the hill country of Ephraim; I am from there. I went to Bethlehem of Judah, but I am now going [home] to my house, and there is no man [in the city] who will take me into his house [for the night].‡

<sup>19</sup> “Yet we have both straw and feed for our donkeys, and also bread and wine for me, and for your handmaid, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of anything.”

<sup>20</sup> Then the old man said, “Peace be to you. Only leave all your needs to me; and do not spend the night in the open square.”‡

<sup>21</sup> So he brought him into his house and fed the donkeys; and they washed their feet and ate and drank.‡

<sup>22</sup> While they were celebrating, behold, men of the city, certain worthless and evil men, surrounded the house, pounding on the door; and they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, “Bring out the man who came to your house so that we may have relations with him.”‡

<sup>23</sup> Then the man, the master of the house, went out and said to them, “No, my fellow citizens, please do not act so wickedly. Since this man has come to my house [as my guest], do not commit this sacrilege.‡

<sup>24</sup> “Here is my virgin daughter and this man’s concubine. I will bring them out now; abuse and humiliate them and do to them whatever you want, but do not commit this act of sacrilege against this man.”‡

<sup>25</sup> But the men would not listen to him. So the man took the Levite’s concubine and brought her outside to them; and they had relations with her and abused her all night until morning; and when daybreak came, they let her go.‡

<sup>26</sup> At daybreak the woman came and collapsed at the door of the man’s house where her master was, until it was [fully] light.

<sup>27</sup> When her master got up in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, he saw his concubine lying at the door of the house, and her hands were on the threshold.

<sup>28</sup> He said to her, “Get up, and let us go.” But there was no answer [for she had died]. Then he put her [body] on the donkey; and the man left and went home.‡

<sup>30</sup> All who saw the dismembered parts said, “Nothing like this has ever happened or been seen from the day that the sons of Israel came up from the land of Egypt to this day. Consider it, take counsel, and speak [your minds]!” ‡

Judges 20

Resolve to Punish the Guilty

<sup>1</sup> THEN ALL the sons of Israel from Dan [in the north] to Beersheba [in the south], including the land of Gilead came out, and the congregation assembled as one man to the LORD at Mizpah. ‡

<sup>2</sup> The chiefs of all the people of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand men on foot who drew the sword. ‡

<sup>3</sup> (Now the Benjamites [in whose territory the crime was committed] heard that the [other tribes of the] sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the sons of Israel said, “How did this evil thing happen?”

<sup>4</sup> So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, replied, “I had come with my concubine to spend the night in Gibeah, [a town] which belongs to [the tribe of] Benjamin. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “But the men of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me, but instead they raped my concubine [so brutally] that she died. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “So I took my concubine and cut her [corpse] in pieces and sent her [body parts] throughout the land of the inheritance of Israel; for the men of Gibeah have committed a lewd and disgraceful act in Israel. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Now then, all you sons of Israel, all of you, give your advice and counsel here [regarding what should be done].” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then all the people stood [unified] as one man, saying, “None of us will go to his tent, and none of us will return to his home [until this is settled].

<sup>9</sup> “But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it,

<sup>10</sup> and we will take ten men out of a hundred throughout the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand to bring provisions for the men, so that when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, they may punish them for all the despicable acts which they have committed in Israel.”

<sup>11</sup> So all the men of Israel assembled against the city, united as one man.

<sup>12</sup> Then the tribes of Israel sent men through the entire tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this evil thing that has been done among you?” ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Now therefore, turn over the men [involved], the worthless and wicked men in Gibeah, so that we may put them to death and remove this wickedness from Israel.” But the Benjamites would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then the [tribe of the] sons of Benjamin gathered from the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the [other] sons of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> And the Benjamites assembled out of their cities at that time twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who assembled seven hundred chosen men.

<sup>17</sup> Then the men of Israel, other than Benjamin, assembled four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of war.

Civil War, Benjamin Defeated

<sup>18</sup> The men of Israel arose and went up to Bethel and asked of God and said, “Which of us shall take the lead to battle against the sons [tribe] of Benjamin?” And the LORD said, “Judah [shall go up] first.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then the [fighting men of the] sons of Israel arose in the morning and camped against Gibeah.

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Benjamin came out of Gibeah and struck to the ground on that day twenty-two thousand [fighting] men of Israel. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But the people, the [fighting] men of Israel, took courage and strengthened themselves and again set their battle line in the same place where they formed it the first day.

<sup>23</sup> The sons of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked of the LORD, “Shall we advance again to battle against the sons of our brother Benjamin?” And the LORD said, “Go up against them.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> So the sons of Israel came against the sons of Benjamin the second day.

<sup>25</sup> And [the fighting men from the tribe of] Benjamin went out of Gibeah against them the second day and again struck to the ground the sons of Israel, eighteen thousand men, all of whom were swordsmen. ‡

26 Then all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel and wept; and they sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. ‡

27 And the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there [at Bethel] in those days, ‡

28 and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, “Shall I yet again go out to battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin, or shall I quit?” And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will hand them over to you.” ‡

29 So Israel set men in ambush around Gibeah. ‡

30 The [fighting men of the] sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day and placed themselves in battle formation against Gibeah as at other times.

31 The Benjamites went out against their army and were lured away from the city, and they began to strike and kill some of the people as at other times, on the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, and in the open country, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the Benjamites said, “They are defeated before us, as at the first.” But the sons of Israel said, “Let us flee and lure them away from the city to the highways.”

33 Then all the men of Israel got up from their places and placed themselves in battle formation at Baal-tamar; and the men of Israel [who were] in ambush rushed from their place in the plain of Maareh-geba.

34 When the ten thousand choice [fighting] men from all Israel came against Gibeah, the battle was hard and fierce; but the Benjamites did not realize that disaster was about to strike them. ‡

35 And the LORD struck down [the tribe of] Benjamin before Israel, so that the sons of Israel destroyed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin that day, all of whom were swordsmen.

36 So the Benjamites realized that they were defeated. Then men of Israel gave ground to the Benjamites, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had placed against Gibeah. ‡

37 Then the men in ambush quickly rushed and attacked Gibeah; and the men in ambush also deployed and struck the entire city with the edge of the sword. ‡

38 Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise from the city.

<sup>39</sup> So the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill about thirty men of Israel, for they said, “Certainly they are defeated before us as in the first battle!”

<sup>40</sup> But when the [signal] cloud began to rise out of the city in a column of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them; and behold, the entire city went up in smoke to heaven. ‡

<sup>41</sup> When the men of Israel turned back again, the men of Benjamin were terrified, for they saw that disaster had fallen upon them.

<sup>42</sup> Therefore, they turned their backs before the men of Israel [and fled] toward the direction of the wilderness, but the battle followed and overtook them. As the [fighting men of the] sons of Benjamin ran among them, the Israelites of the cities came out and destroyed them.

<sup>43</sup> They surrounded [the men of] Benjamin, pursued them relentlessly, and overtook them opposite Gibeah toward the east.

<sup>45</sup> The survivors [of Benjamin] turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and Israel caught five thousand of them on the roads and overtook them at Gidom and killed two thousand of them. ‡

<sup>46</sup> So all of Benjamin who fell that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword, all of them brave and able warriors.

<sup>47</sup> But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon and stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months. ‡

<sup>48</sup> The men of Israel turned back against [the tribe of] the sons of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city [of Gibeah] and the livestock and all that they found. They also set on fire all the [surrounding] towns which they found.

Judges 21

Mourning the Lost Tribe

<sup>2</sup> So the people came to Bethel and sat there before God until evening, and lifted up their voices and wept bitterly.  [Judg 20:27 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> They said, “O LORD, God of Israel, why has this come about in Israel, that there should be today one tribe missing from Israel?”

<sup>4</sup> And the next day the people got up early and built an altar there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the sons of Israel said, “Which one from all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?” For they had taken a great oath concerning him who did not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, “He shall certainly be put to death.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> And the sons of Israel felt sorry [and had compassion] for their brother Benjamin and said, “One tribe has been cut off from Israel today.

<sup>7</sup> “What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn [an oath] by the LORD that we will not give them any of our daughters as wives?”

Provision for Their Survival

<sup>8</sup> And they said, “Which one is there of the tribes from Israel that did not come up to Mizpah to the LORD?” And behold, [it was discovered that] no one had come to the camp from Jabesh-gilead, to the assembly. ‡

<sup>9</sup> For when the people were assembled, behold, there was not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

<sup>11</sup> “And this is the thing that you shall do; you shall utterly destroy every male and every woman who is not a virgin.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man intimately; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then the whole congregation sent word to the [surviving] sons of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them. ‡

<sup>14</sup> So [the survivors of] Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had kept alive from the women of Jabesh-gilead; but there were not enough [to provide wives] for them.

<sup>15</sup> And the people were sorry [and had compassion] for [the survivors of the tribe of] Benjamin because the LORD had made a gap in the tribes of Israel. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for those [men] who are left, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?”

<sup>17</sup> They said, “There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe will not be wiped out from Israel.

<sup>18</sup> “But we cannot give them wives from our daughters.” For the sons of Israel had sworn [an oath], “Cursed is he who gives a wife to [a man from the tribe of] Benjamin.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> So they said, “Listen, there is the yearly feast of the LORD at Shiloh, which is on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south side of Lebonah.”

<sup>20</sup> So they instructed the sons of Benjamin, saying, “Go, set an ambush in the vineyards,

<sup>21</sup> and watch; if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then you shall come out of the vineyards and each of you shall catch his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of [the tribe of] Benjamin. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “When their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we shall say to them, ‘Give them to us voluntarily, because we did not take a wife for each man of Benjamin in battle, nor did you give wives to them, for that would have made you guilty [of breaking your oath].’ ”

<sup>23</sup> So the sons of [the tribe of] Benjamin did as instructed and took wives according to their number, from the dancers whom they carried away. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and rebuilt the towns and lived in them. ‡

<sup>24</sup> The sons of Israel departed from there at that time, each man to his tribe and family, and each man went from there to his inheritance.

<sup>25</sup> In those days [when the judges governed] there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes. ‡

Annotations for Judges

1:1 Now . . . after the death of Joshua. Judges begins as the Book of Joshua does, with reference to the death of the previous leader. Yet no new leader was commissioned to lead Israel after Joshua. The tribe of Judah was designated to lead in the fight against the Canaanites, the first hint of the fulfillment of Jacob's prophecy (Ge 49:8–12 ).

1:3 Judah . . . Simeon. History bound the tribes of Judah and Simeon together. They were descended from the same mother (Ge 29:33–35 ), and Simeon had inherited land in Judah's territory (Jos 19:1, 9 ).

1:6–7 thumbs and his big toes. To cut off a warrior's thumbs and big toes would prevent him from ever engaging in battle again, besides subjecting him to pain and humiliation.

1:8 Jerusalem. Jerusalem was captured and burned, but not settled. The complete conquest and settlement of Jerusalem was not accomplished until David's day (2Sa 5:6–10 ).

1:10 Hebron. Hebron, about 20 miles southwest of Jerusalem, was where Abraham settled and built an altar (Ge 13:18 ).

1:16 the Kenite. The Kenites were Midianites, descendants of Abraham's son by Keturah (Ge 25:1–4 ).

1:18 Gaza . . . Ashkelon . . . Ekron. Israel was not able to hold these cities for long. By Samson's day, all three were in Philistine hands again (14:19 ; 16:1 ; 1Sa 5:10 ).

1:21 Unfaithfulness— This verse duplicates Joshua 15:63 almost exactly, except that in Joshua the tribe of Judah is held responsible. Jerusalem lay on the border between Judah and Benjamin; either or both tribes were responsible for driving out the Canaanites. Their failure to do so was not because the task was too hard, but because they did not really take God's commands and promises seriously. Jerusalem was not claimed for Israel until David came, a man who trusted the Lord for his victories and obeyed His word. Victories for the Lord are won only through faith. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:22 Bethel. Bethel means "house of God." It was a site with an honored history, beginning with Abraham's first sacrifice to God (Ge 13:3–4 ) and Jacob's revelation from God there (Ge 31:13 ).

2:1 the Angel of the LORD . The angel of the Lord appears as God's representative here, speaking authoritatively to the people about their covenant disobedience.

2:2 you shall not make a covenant. God's commands to make no covenants with pagan nations and to tear down their altars are found in Exodus 23:32 ; 34:13 ; Deuteronomy 12:3 .

2:8–10 Then Joshua . . . died. Most likely the reference to Joshua's death in 1:1 is placed chronologically, and this subsequent passage has been inserted by the author out of sequence. It is a "flashback" that leads into the second major section of the book, emphasizing the spiritual downfall of the nation after their leader was gone.

2:13 Ashteroth. Ashteroth was a female fertility goddess and a goddess of love and war, closely associated with Baal (10:6 ; 1Sa 7:4 ; 12:10 ).

2:15 as the LORD had sworn. God had promised to deliver Israel into the hands of its enemies if the people forsook Him (Dt 28:25 ; Jos 23:13 ).

2:18 Pity— God is compassionate toward His people at all times. But God had given notice to His people (Dt 28 ) that if they disobeyed Him, and did not live according to the covenant, then He would have to discipline them. However, if they did live according to the covenant, then He would bless them as a nation. Throughout Judges the pattern occurred that when the people forgot God another nation would come down upon them as an act of judgment from God. When the nation turned to God, He also would turn and “hear” and “ pity” them and bring deliverance. God had not forgotten them when they were in trouble, but He wanted that trouble to cause them to turn to Him. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:1 to test Israel. The idea of testing implies difficulty and adversity; elsewhere the same word refers to God’s testing of Abraham (Ge 22:1 ) and Hezekiah (2Ch 32:31 ). Here God was testing Israel to refine it.

3:8 Cushan-rishathaim. This name means “Chushan of Double Wickedness.” This may not have been his actual name, but instead a name pinned on him by the author of Judges for ridicule.

3:9 Othniel. Othniel was the hero who captured the city of Kiriath-sepher (1:13 ; Jos 15:17 ). He was from Judah and was Caleb's near kinsman and son-in-law.

3:12 Moab. Moab was a plateau southeast of the Dead Sea. It was populated by nomadic herders and farmers in small agrarian settlements but had no large cities. It sat on either side of the King's Highway, an important north-south trade route. The ancestor of the Moabites was the offspring of Lot's incestuous relationship with his older daughter (Ge 19:37 ), so the Moabites and Israelites were distantly related. The Bible frequently mentions conflict between the two peoples, and particularly the trouble caused by the Israelite tendency to embrace Moab's false gods.

3:20 sitting alone in his [private] cool upper chamber. In ancient cities, a small room was often built onto the flat roof of a house, providing a cool, private place, away from the cooking fires and general living areas.

4:2 Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. Years earlier, Joshua had defeated a king of Hazor named Jabin (Jos 11:1–15). Probably Jabin was a title rather than a proper name.

4:4 Deborah. Deborah is shown in the best light of all the judges in the book. She is called a prophetess (v. 4), and many sought out her decisions (v. 5). For this reason, she is called “a mother in Israel” (5:7). She is probably included among the “leaders” in Israel (5:2), and she instructed Barak in the strategy of the battle (4:9, 14). She was also a prominent author of the victory song (5:1) and gave her name to a place in Israel, the palm tree of Deborah (v. 5).

4:9 will not be for your honor. Barak clearly respected Deborah as the Lord’s spokesperson, and wanted her to be nearby so that he could receive instructions from the Lord. It is not clear whether Deborah’s response was a rebuke, or just a statement, but it seems that part of the reason Israel was judged by a woman was because the men were not listening that closely to God, or willing to take the responsibility. Whatever his stage of spiritual growth was at the time, Barak did obey the Lord and is listed in the Book of Hebrews as a man of great faith (Heb 11:32).

5:2 took the lead in Israel. The phrase literally means “the long-haired ones who let their hair hang loose.” The precise meaning of the phrase is obscure, but it may mean that loosed locks or flowing hair were signs of great strength or leadership.

5:2–3 Praise— Deborah did not attribute their success to herself or to Barak, or even to Jael, but to the Lord. He was the one to whom all praise and thanksgiving were directed in the celebration of their victory. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:7 a mother in Israel. This phrase occurs twice in the Old Testament, here and in 2 Samuel 20:19. The title is given to Deborah as one of honor, respect, and prominence.

5:10 ride on white donkeys . . . walk by the way. This verse calls all classes of society to bear witness to the mighty acts of God, from the ruling classes, those riding on white donkeys, to the lowest classes, those who walk on the road.

5:17 live as an alien on ships. The reference to Dan remaining “on ships” probably reflects the location of their original inheritance, which was along the south-central coastal plain where they would have had access to the sea (Jos 19:40–46). Later they migrated northward, having been forced out of their territory (1:34; 18:1; Jos 19:47).

5:26 Sisera. The poem describes Sisera’s death using graphic, emotive language, which it repeats several times to make the point. Sisera’s death was probably a bloodier affair than the prose account indicates.

6:1 Midian. Midian was located in the Arabian Peninsula, southeast of Israel and east of the Sinai Peninsula. The Midianites were descendants of Abraham through his wife Keturah (Ge 25:1–2), so they were distantly related to the Israelites. Midianites bought Joseph from his brothers (Ge 37:25–36), welcomed Moses in the wilderness (Ex 2:15–21), and hired Balaam to curse Israel (Nu 22:7). Generally speaking, Israel counted Midian among its foes. In this account, the Midianites were menacing Israel, burning, looting, and leaving many near starvation (6:4–5).

6:3 Amalekites. The Amalekites were a nomadic people who lived in the Sinai desert and the Negev, the desert south of Israel. They were descendants of Esau (Ge 36:12) and they joined the Midianites against Israel.

6:11–16 Doubt— Doubt, at first thought, appears to be an innocuous sin, so harmless that it affects only the attitude of the one who doubts. But doubt is much more serious than this. Doubt of God’s Word, planted by the arch deceiver, was at the root of that first sin committed in the garden of Eden. Doubt of God’s goodness and truth arose before desire for the forbidden fruit led to disobedience. Doubt of God and doubt of God’s Word cause men to make decisions based on human reckonings. Doubts undispersed lead to sin and defeat. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:11 terebinth tree. This is a large tree with a thick trunk and heavy branches. Botanically speaking, it is similar to an oak tree, with a majestic appearance. wine press. A wine press was a square or circular pit carved into rock in which grapes were crushed. Wheat was usually separated on open threshing floors so the wind could carry away the chaff in the winnowing process. The fact that Gideon was forced to thresh wheat hidden inside a winepress—despite the fact that he had access to a threshing floor (v. 37)—is yet another illustration of the desperate state the Israelites were in.

6:13 my Lord . . . the LORD . “My lord” was a polite form of address, but “the LORD” is the personal name of God (Yahweh).

6:15 I am the youngest (smallest) in my father’s house. Gideon’s objection is reminiscent of the words spoken by Moses (Ex 3:11) and Jeremiah (Jer 1:6).

6:16 I will certainly be with you. This was the same great promise that God had given to Moses and Joshua previously (Ex 3:12; Jos 1:5–9). This should have greatly encouraged Gideon, but he still had doubts. Often we are quick to judge those who doubt God even when they have firsthand evidence of His mighty works. But we all fail to trust God fully at times. God accomplished His will despite Gideon’s weakness, and He can do the same through us.

6:22 Gideon realized. When the angel of the Lord vanished, then Gideon realized who it was and feared for his life. This reaction of fear appears to have been rooted in the knowledge that anyone who gazed upon God would die (Ex 33:20).

6:24 To this day. This expression lends authenticity to the account. It is the author’s way of declaring to later generations that they could verify the story by going and seeing this altar themselves.

6:25 Asherah. Asherah was the Canaanite fertility goddess. Sacred wooden poles or groves were erected at places where she was worshiped.

6:26 the wood of the Asherah. Gideon’s sacrifice was to be a bold statement of the superiority of the Lord over the false gods His people were worshiping.

6:36–40 Prayer— Gideon had already received an unmistakable message from God, and he had been assured that God would lead him to victory. His prayer and request for a sign were the result of his lack of faith, but in spite of Gideon’s wavering, God kindly accommodated his requests. Many people have relied on Gideon’s example as a way of seeking guidance from the Lord. Occasionally God has chosen to answer such requests, even as He did for Gideon, because He is compassionate and makes allowances for our weakness, but putting out a fleece is not the action of faith. Isaiah modeled a proper response to God’s clearly revealed will: he said, “Here am I. Send me!” (Isa 6:8). So too did the disciples, who dropped their nets immediately and followed Jesus (Mk 1:18). Go to Theological Notes Index

6:39 let me make a test once more. Gideon’s desire to test God’s sign could have been a violation of the law which prohibited people from testing God (Dt 6:16). Gideon himself was aware that he was doing something unwise, if not sinful, since he asked God not to be angry with him.

The War of Gideon

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

7:3 afraid and trembling. Mosaic law allowed military exemptions for several classes of people, including those who had just built a home, those who had just planted a vineyard, those engaged to be married, and those who were fearful (Dt 20:5-8 ).

7:4-5 There are still too many people. God reduced Gideon's army to emphasize who was really bringing victory.

7:19 middle watch. According to Jewish tradition, the hours between sunset and sunrise were divided into three watches, which would put the time of this attack at roughly 10:00 p.m.

8:5 Succoth. Succoth was east of the Jordan, near the Jabbok River.

8:14 the youth wrote down for him [the names of] the leaders of Succoth. Literacy in early civilizations was at first limited to the educated elite, as in Mesopotamia and Egypt. Their writing systems were complex and only a tiny portion of the population could read and write. However, the spread of alphabetic systems vastly simplified the task of reading and writing. Hundreds of potsherds from throughout Palestine have simple inscriptions on them, indicating that some degree of literacy had become widely accessible by Gideon's day.

8:22–23 Self-denial— In the initial flush of victory Gideon was offered hereditary rulership over Israel, which he wisely rejected. God the Lord was Judge with ultimate authority, and He would rule over the people. Gideon knew his place before God. In the same way, we are taught not to think more highly of ourselves than we ought, but “as God has apportioned” (Ro 12:3). Go to Theological Notes Index

8:22 Rule [as king] over us. This request, while understandable from a human perspective, failed to acknowledge that it was God, not Gideon, who had delivered the people.

8:23 the LORD shall rule over you. The word order of the Hebrew makes it clear that God’s claim was exclusive; it might be paraphrased, “It is the Lord, and no one else, who shall rule over you.” This statement is widely assumed to indicate that God intended that Israel should never have a king, but that He would be their only King. However, God had promised Abraham that he would count kings among his descendants (Ge 17:6). The problem was not in the concept of having a king, but in their motivation. They wanted to have a visible, human leader, rather than trusting in God’s leadership. The role of a true king would be to lead the people in devotion to God’s rule.

8:27 ephod. The original ephod was an ornate ceremonial garment worn by the high priest (Ex 29:5). Gideon’s motivation for making this golden ephod is unclear, but his imitation of the sacred objects devoted to the worship of God ended up distracting the people and undermining the true worship of God.

8:31 Abimelech. This name means “my father is king.” Some think that Gideon did become a king in practice if not in name, for he gave his son a royal name and acted as a leader of the people (vv. 24–27).

9:1–57 Conspiracy— The seeds of Abimelech’s violent grab for power were sown in Israel’s persistent infidelity to God, which led to another rejection of the Lord (8:22, 24–27, 33–35). Go to Theological Notes Index

9:6 oak (terebinth) of the pillar. Sadly, this coronation took place at the same tree where Jacob had put away his foreign gods many years before (Ge 35:4), and where Joshua had commemorated his covenant with God (Jos 24:26).

9:14–15 Pride— The pomp and ceremony that goes with royalty is a source of pride not only for the king but also for his subjects. The idea of having a man from their own tribe ruling the entire nation appealed to the pride of the men of Shechem. Pride led them to surrender their freedom and submit to the rule of man rather than God. It is the cause of many kinds of injustice in society: social, economic, and political. It often leads to war and violence, as it did in this case. Within a brief period of time after Abimelech was anointed king they realized their mistake. The prophecy of Jotham was fulfilled, since fire did come out of the bramble (from Abimelech) to consume the men of Shechem. Pride led to their destruction. Go to Theological Notes Index

9:37 the sorcerers’ oak tree. This term literally means “terebinth tree.” It appears to have had some association with occult or magical practices, and this particular terebinth tree was certainly an important landmark (Ge 35:4; Jos 24:26).

9:45 sowed it with salt. Spreading salt on the land turned the area into a barren desert. Salt will kill most vegetation, and it takes a long time for the land to become good again.

9:56 God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech. Abimelech was not a true king, he had established his reign through murder and in no way sought to lead the people to the Lord. God did not allow this kind of rebellion to pass unnoticed.

10:6–18 Mercy— A lengthy introduction precedes the story of Jephthah. These verses repeat the themes of apostasy and God’s unfailing mercy. A new theme here is the emphasis on Israel’s confession and repentance (vv. 10 ,15–16 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

10:6 Baals, the Ashtaroth (female deities), the gods of Aram . . . Sidon . . . Moab . . . Ammonites. This list demonstrates the extent of Israel’s idolatry. Not only did the people worship the major Canaanite gods (Baal and Asherah), but they also absorbed the religions of other groups.

10:7–8 Suffering— Here, and elsewhere, the Book of Judges underscores the consequences of disobedience. Those consequences are always tragic. The Israelites were never oppressed because they did not have a big enough military, or a strong enough leader, or because God could not protect them. They were oppressed by God’s permission because of their disobedience and sin. Defeat and miserable suffering do loom large whenever believers retreat from their exclusive commitment to God. They become their own worst enemy. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:14 the gods you have chosen. This is a response of confrontation. When Israel cried out to God, He reminded them again of their faithless ways.

10:16 He could bear the misery of Israel no longer. Not only is God a God of great justice, He is a God of great mercy and compassion. Despite their constant sinning and backsliding, God still loved the Israelites and shared their misery, much as parents are moved by their children’s suffering.

The War of Jephthah

11:8 you may go with us and fight. This is almost the same phrase that the Israelites used when they asked Samuel for a king (1Sa 8:20 ).

11:11 promised before the LORD . Jephthah's promises "before the Lord" are a strange mixture of faith and foolishness. While Jephthah did acknowledge God, his self-interest and foolishness often overruled his faith. The Book of Hebrews has a more positive view of him. Jephthah is one of those listed "who by faith [that is, with an enduring trust in God and His promises] subdued kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promised blessings . . ." (Heb 11:32–33 ).

11:21 The LORD, the God of Israel. Israel was not merely an aggressor, but the recipient of the Lord's generosity. The Ammonites had brought their misfortune on themselves by hindering Israel's advance into the promised land. Israel would not have taken Ammonite land, since God had expressly commanded them not to (Dt 2:19 ). The Ammonites were only indirectly affected by Israel's expansion (Nu 21:25–26 ). In addition, the Ammonites never really had true claim to the land to begin with; it was in fact the land of the Amorites (vv. 19–22 ). The limits of the Amorite land in verse 22 are precisely what the Ammonites claimed as theirs in verse 13 (Nu 21:24 also rebuts the Ammonites' claim). Israel had occupied the land in dispute for at least three hundred years, long enough to make a legitimate claim on it (v. 26 ).

11:24 what Chemosh your god gives you. Usually the worship of Chemosh is associated with Moab, elsewhere the Ammonites' god was called Molech. However, Ammon and Moab lived side by side, and apparently shared culture and religion as well as their common descent from Lot (Ge 19:37–38 ). Jephthah's comment was a derisive jab at the ineffectiveness of their gods.

11:27 the LORD, the [righteous] Judge. God is the ultimate source of all justice. He has the right to judge every man and woman. With His divine authority and power, God always judges with justice, while at the same time He is loving, compassionate, and perfect. Strife— Given the depravity of the human heart it is only expected that nation will declare war on nation. We also deal with "wars" and strife in our interpersonal relationships. When we are faced with unjust attacks, we can only do as Jephthah did and trust God to judge rightly between the two sides of the dispute. Go to Theological Notes Index

11:31 whatever comes out of the doors of my house. Some have interpreted Jephthah's vow as a clear intention to offer a human sacrifice. The phrase "to meet me," coupled with coming out of the house seems to refer more appropriately to a human than an animal. Undoubtedly Jephthah knew that human sacrifice was strictly forbidden in Israel (Lev 18:21 ; 20:2 ; Dt 12:31 ; 18:10 ; Jer 19:5 ; Eze 20:30–31 ; 23:37–39 ), but his foolishness and lack of faith impelled him to make a reckless vow in order to try to manipulate God.

11:35 I have made a vow to the LORD, and I cannot take it back. Did Jephthah have to follow through on his vow? Ordinarily the answer would be yes. Vows were made only to God, and they were solemn pledges that had to be kept (Dt 23:21–23 ; Ps 15:4 ; Ecc 5:4–5 ). But if Jephthah intended his vow to include human sacrifice, he was vowing to sin, an action which could hardly please the Lord.

11:39 did to her as he had vowed. The text does not explicitly say that he killed his daughter, and some believe that instead he "sacrificed" her by dedicating her to a life of virginity. Human sacrifice was contrary to the law of Moses (Lev 18:21 ; 20:2–5 ; Dt 12:31 ; 18:10 ). Until the wicked reigns of Ahaz and Manasseh centuries later (2Ki 16:3 ; 21:6 ), there is no record of human sacrifice in Israel, even by those who followed Baal. The great respect that Jephthah had for God would surely have prevented him from making such a perverse offering. The several references to her virginity seem to support the idea of lifelong celibacy, and the Bible provides evidence that such devoted service for women did exist at the central sanctuary (Ex 38:8 ; 1Sa 2:22 ; Lk 2:36–37 ). Jephthah's vow in verse 31 could be translated "shall be the LORD's, or I will offer it up as a burnt offering." Thus his vow could be interpreted that if a person came out first, he would dedicate that person to the Lord, or if an animal came out first, he would offer the animal as a burnt sacrifice. As is frequently the case in the Book of Judges, we are given the bare facts of a puzzling story and no comment about what God thought of it.

12:2 Strife— Gilead and Ephraim grew so hostile that they came to blows, brother fighting against brother. Instead of putting their energy into fighting their common enemy, they were fighting each other. In the same way, today, Christians often react with hurt feelings, pride, and resentment, and prefer to fight against flesh and blood rather than against principalities and powers. The constant infighting Christians indulge in is often a reason for the rest of the world to pass the church off as much ado about nothing. Go to Theological Notes Index

12:4 You . . . are fugitives of Ephraim. This insult may have its roots in the division of the nation into eastern and western groups (5:17 ; Jos 1:12–15 ). Despite the emphasis in Joshua on the unity of all the tribes (Jos 1:12–15 ; 22:1–34 ), the practical reality in the period of the judges was dramatically different.

12:6 Shibboleth . . . Sibboleth. This is the only significant reference to the linguistic differences which apparently existed between the tribes. Today the English word shibboleth means an otherwise minor difference that becomes a sticking point because it distinguishes one side from the other.

13:1–16:31 Samson— The last of the judges lived at the beginning of the eleventh century BC. He was unusual among the judges in many ways. He did not lead an army, but carried on his campaign against the Philistines singlehandedly. He is mentioned in Hebrews 11:32 in the list of judges who accomplished great things through faith. The Book of Judges, in contrast, paints a darker picture. His checkered history of heroism and moral failure resembles Israel's troubles during the time of the judges. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:3 the Angel of the LORD. The angel of the Lord made a supernatural appearance, described here as "very awesome." Manoah's wife recognized him as "a Man of God." The essential character of the angel, embodied in his name, was not revealed to them (vv. 17–18 ). It seems that the angel of the Lord was God Himself, in a form they could perceive (13:21–22 ; Ge 22:11 ; Ex 3:14–15 ).

13:5 Nazirite. The regulations of the Nazirite vows are found in Numbers 6:1–21 . Samson's Nazirite service was remarkable in three ways. First, he did not take his vow voluntarily; it was his before birth. Second, his service was to be lifelong, not temporary. Third, he eventually broke every one of its stipulations.

13:6 Man of God. This was a term used to describe the prophets (Dt 33:1 ; 1Ki 17:18 ). At first Samson's mother may have thought she was talking to a prophet, but His radiant appearance convinced her otherwise.

13:21–22 The Angel of the LORD. Manoah's reaction is similar to the reaction Gideon had when he recognized the angel of the Lord (6:22 ).

13:25 the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him. The Hebrew word translated stir can also mean impel . The Spirit of the Lord was pushing Samson toward doing the work that God wanted him to do.

14:2 get her for me as a wife. Such marriages with foreigners were prohibited for Israelites (Ex 34:16 ; Dt 7:3 ).

14:3 she looks pleasing to me. Samson's words reveal his self-centered attitude. Instead of seeking to serve God, he was seeking to please himself. Samson's comment here foreshadows the author's summary of the entire period of the judges (17:6 ; 18:1 ; 19:1 ; 21:25 ). Unfaithfulness— The beginning of Samson's downfall was his disobedience to the Lord in his marriage. The theme of marriage within the covenant is common in the Old Testament. From earliest times the people of God were told not to contract marriages with unbelievers (Ge 6:2 ). When the covenant was renewed prior to the people's entry into Canaanite territory, Joshua warned them not to intermarry; to do so would be evidence of their failure to cling to the Lord (Jos 23:8 ,12 ). It is a tragic picture of the decadence of this period to see Samson's unfaithfulness to the Lord in taking a pagan wife. The New Covenant believer remains under the same divine command to marry only in the Lord (1Co 7:39 ; 2Co 6:14 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

14:4 it was of the LORD. God would use Samson's defiant wish as a way of defeating the Philistines and providing relief for His people.

14:6 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily. The Old Testament speaks numerous times of God's Spirit coming mightily upon individuals, usually to empower them physically for great feats of strength (3:10 ; 6:34 ; 11:29 ). The Spirit empowered others for the important task of speaking God's word (Ge 41:38 ; Nu 24:2 ; 1Sa 10:6 ; 19:20 ). It appears that the work of the Holy Spirit in the Old Testament was primarily a special anointing to accomplish a certain task, and was different from the indwelling Presence that believers enjoy today. Saul (1Sa 10:10 ; 16:23 ) and David (1Sa 16:13 ; Ps 51:11 ) were both filled with the Holy Spirit when they were anointed as king, but this presence seems to have been directly linked to their obedience.

14:8–9 carcass of the lion. Touching the dead lion violated Samson's Nazirite vow (13:5 ).

14:10 feast. The word translated feast denotes a banquet with considerable drinking. The passage does not say so, but it is not unlikely that this occasioned another violation of Samson's Nazirite vow (13:5 ).

15:1 the time of wheat harvest. This would have been late May or early June. The wheat harvest was associated with the second of the three great feasts in Israel, the Feast of Weeks, also known as Pentecost (Lev 23:15–22 ; Dt 16:9–12 ).

15:13 two new ropes. Ropes were made of leather, hair, or plant fibers; one common fiber was flax (Jos 2:6 ). Being new, these ropes were the strongest possible.

15:15 a fresh jawbone. A fresh jawbone would have been tough, resilient, and virtually unbreakable.

15:18 called out to the LORD. This is the first record of Samson calling on the Lord.

16:2 at the gate. The gates of this time in history were at least two stories high, with guard rooms on either side of a narrow opening. The Philistines waited in the recesses of the gate, hoping to trap Samson.

16:3 carried them up to the top of the hill. Given the large size of the doors of a city gate, Samson's feat was astounding. Hebron is 40 miles east of Gaza. Samson's trip would have taken the better part of a day.

16:16 pressured him. Delilah pestered him, just as his wife had done earlier (14:17 ). Samson's foolishness prevented him from learning the lesson of his earlier experience.

16:19 and his strength left him. When he broke the final stipulation of the Nazirite vow by allowing his hair to be cut, the Lord left him and he was captured.

16:20 Samson did not know. This is one of the few editorial comments by the author.

16:23 Dagon. Dagon was the principal Philistine god. A Philistine temple for Dagon was at Beth-shan, in northern Israel, in the days of Saul (1Sa 31:9–10 ; 1Ch 10:10 ), and it was in another such temple that the Philistines stored the ark of the covenant for a time (1Sa 5:1–7 ). Dagon was once commonly thought to be a fish god, but modern excavations have shown that he was a god of grain. In fact, one of the Hebrew words for grain is dagan .

16:24 Our god has handed over our enemy to us. The Philistines viewed their success over Samson as a triumph for their god (Jdg 16:23–24 ). In reality it was the Lord who had delivered Samson into their hands, for "the LORD had departed from him" (v. 20 ).

16:30 Zeal— The famous lament of David over Saul and Jonathan, "How the mighty have fallen!" (2Sa

1:19 ,27 ), could also be applied to Samson. He came from a godly home, but often was overcome by evil passion, pride, and violence. Yet at death his zeal for the Lord brought about a great victory over the Philistines and their god Dagon, and he is listed in Hebrews as a man of faith (Heb 11:32 ). The plan and purpose of God overruled Samson's folly and the Philistine's arrogance. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:31 Samson had judged Israel for twenty years. The story of the judges concludes with final editorial comments. Samson, the last judge, had been empowered by God's Spirit, just as the first had been. Despite the manifold failings of the judges themselves, God had delivered Israel and caused other nations to bow before Him. Samson's life is ultimately a story about God's faithfulness in spite of human weakness.

17:1–21:25 Conclusion— The Book of Judges closes with two appendices (ch. 17–18 ; 19–21 ). They seem to be unrelated to the material preceding them, and to each other. While chapters 2–16 describe foreign threats to Israel, these last chapters show an internal breakdown of Israel's worship and unity. Furthermore, the events of these chapters appear to have taken place early in the period of the judges. These chapters may have been written independently of the book's earlier chapters, but there is a certain logic to placing them at the end of the book. The structure highlights the theme of the disintegration of Israel, with the last chapters emphasizing that "every man did what was right in his own eyes" (17:6 ; 21:25 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

17:3 I had truly dedicated the silver . . . to the LORD. Micah's mother approved of his action, claiming that these images would be offered on the Lord's behalf. Today the temptation to mix elements of true worship of God with practices unacceptable to Him remains with us, even though it is in different ways.

17:5 house of gods. This is literally "a house of God." This was a perversion of the true sanctuary where all worship was to take place. At this time the true "house of God" was at Shiloh (18:31 ). Micah further violated the law by appointing his own son as his private priest. Micah sinned because his son had not descended from Aaron, nor was he even a Levite (Ex 28:1 ; 40:12–15 ; Nu 16:39–40 ; 17:8 ).

17:6 what was right in his own eyes. This editorial comment is echoed in the last verse of the book (21:25 ). The author suggests that times were so bad that people did whatever they wanted, not what was right in the Lord's eyes (14:3 ). We may infer that a king who focused Israel's attention on the Lord would have prevented the outbreaks of sin and oppression so prevalent during the time of the judges.

[17:10 be a father and a \[personal\] priest to me](#). To be called father was a title of honor. Micah wanted the Levite to be his priest, since his background would lend legitimacy to his service. Micah thought this would bring him God's favor (v. 13 ).

The Migration of the Tribe of Dan

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

---

18:1 Danites. The Danites were looking for a place to settle because they had been unable to settle effectively in their allotted territory. Compare their allotment in Joshua 19:41-47 and their failure to capture it all (1:34–35). It seems clear that this story is not placed chronologically, but refers back to the first chapters of Judges. The Danites' migration in search of new land probably would have come soon after the events of 1:34, not some three centuries or more later.

18:7 Sidonians. Sidon was a port city northwest of Israel, in what today is Lebanon.

18:19 be a father and a priest to us. The Levite's cynical acceptance of this opportunity for greater prestige indicates further how debased conditions had become. Those who had been divinely appointed to minister before the Lord were selling false spiritual services to the highest bidder.

18:31 throughout the time that the house \(tabernacle\) of God was at Shiloh. The true worship of God in the appointed place was available all this time—the Danites just did not want to bother with it.

19:1 a concubine. A concubine was a female servant regarded as a part of the family, often chosen to bear children. Several of the patriarchs had children with concubines: Abraham with Hagar (Ge 16); Jacob with Bilhah and Zilpah (Ge 30:4–13).

19:10 Jebus \(that is Jerusalem\). The city of Jerusalem was at this time in the hands of the Jebusites, and it is called a "city of foreigners" in v. 12 (see Jos 15:63).

19:22–30 Perversion— For a man to be raped by a group of town ruffians would be a terrible humiliation; the fact that offering the concubine and the virgin daughter could be considered a solution clearly illustrates the level of perversion and depravity to which the people had sunk. Women were no longer considered the companions and helpers that they were created to be (Ge 2:22–24), but as property, to be enjoyed or disposed of at will. The author offers no comment upon the horror perpetrated here, merely stating the cold facts and leaving a strong impression of the heartless and conscienceless state of the people. Go to Theological Notes Index

19:22–26 men of the city. This section closely resembles Genesis 19:4–9; indeed, the author may have written this story to make the comparison with Sodom unmistakable, as if to say, "Things were as bad as they were in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah."

19:22 certain worthless and evil men. This is a phrase describing wicked or worthless people. The name Belial came to designate Satan, as it is used in 2 Corinthians 6:15. may have relations with him. This same expression is found in Genesis 19:5, where the men of Sodom wanted to force homosexual relations on Lot's guests.

19:30 Nothing like this has ever happened or been seen. This phrase is ambiguous. It is uncertain whether they were horrified by discovering the dismembered body or by learning about the cruel rape and murder.

20:1–2 , 8 Unity— Both individually and corporately the Israelites of this period were functioning as a law unto themselves. "Every man did what was right in his own eyes" (21:25). One notable exception to this was the response to the loathsome rape and killing of a concubine in the Benjaminite territory of Gibeah (19:11–30). The result of this outrageous covenant violation was that all Israel gathered together as one man, and decided that they would not rest until the crime was punished. The people were shocked into unity against sin. It is still true that crises in life often serve to bring people together to work for a common cause or fight against a common enemy. While this can be a good result of difficult times, it is important that God's people be united in serving Him in peace as well as crisis. Go to Theological Notes Index

[20:1 from Dan \[in the north\] to Beersheba \[in the south\]](#). This is a common expression for the full extent of the land of Israel from north to south.

20:9 by lot. God's role is not mentioned here, but one can assume that the people were using lots to seek His will. To their credit, the Israelite tribes were united together as one man, a quality notably absent up to this point in the Book of Judges (v. 11).

[20:18 Judah \[shall go up\] first](#). The book begins and ends with Judah in this prominent position (1:1–2). This is no accident, since the end of the book points toward the monarchy, whose true expression would come out of Judah.

20:23 Go up against them. The Lord graciously answered the Israelites twice when they called upon Him (v. 18).

20:26 came to Bethel and wept. The Israelites suffered a second major defeat (v. 25). The result drove them to fasting and sacrificing at Bethel, something done very rarely in this period.

20:28 Phinehas. Phinehas was the grandson of Aaron who had stopped the plague at Peor (Nu 25:6–11). The fact that he was still alive shows that the organization of the Book of Judges is not strictly chronological. The author may have placed this account at the end of the book to make the point even more strongly about the spiritual deterioration of the nation.

20:48 and struck them with the edge of the sword. The spiritual decay of Israel had resulted in the destruction of its own people with a vengeance once reserved for pagan people.

21:6 Repentance— In the midst of this terrible account of great sin within the nation of Israel, we find that the people realized that it was important that none of the tribes should perish. The example set by the nation of Israel is important for believers today. The people of Israel felt sorry for their brothers after the brothers had been disciplined for their great sin. Restoration and continuance of fellowship are important for people who have fallen into sin (2Co 2:6–8 ; Gal 6:1–2 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

21:11 utterly destroy. This phrase is found numerous times in the Book of Joshua in regard to the conquest of the Canaanites. However, there is no hint that God supported the bloodbath at Jabesh-gilead.

21:19 feast of the LORD . Because of the dancing association, some believe that the yearly feast mentioned here was the Passover. Others believe that it was the Feast of Tabernacles, celebrated in the fall, since vineyards are mentioned (vv. 20–21 ). The grape harvest came in the early fall.

21:23 took wives according to their number. No justification is given for this peculiar abduction except for the supposed needs of the Benjamites. This interesting episode was a way for the rest of Israel to sidestep their oath (v. 1 ), and try to preserve the tribe of Benjamin.

21:25 what was right in his own eyes. This statement sums up the whole Book of Judges. What happened was governed by whatever people happened to feel like, rather than by listening to God, and the stories at the end of the book clearly illustrate the results of this mindset.

The Book of # Ruth

► AUTHOR: The Book of Ruth provides a cameo to the other side of the biblical story—the godly remnant who remain true to the laws of God. Although the author of Ruth is not given anywhere in the book, the anonymity should not detract from its spiritual value or literary beauty. Tradition has attributed the writing of Ruth to Samuel, but this is difficult to reconcile with the mention of David when Samuel died before David was installed as king.

► TIMES: During the Judges

► KEY VERSE: Ru 1:16

► THEME: Ruth is a simple yet intriguing short story. Throughout the story, the characters develop and eventually exhibit wisdom, loyalty, and obedience to God and the customs of the day. We see an interesting romance bloom out of most unusual circumstances. It provides a platform for some profound understanding of God's covenant plans with His people, Israel. We see the details of His plan unfold in the lives of a widow, her foreign born daughter-in-law, and a distant relative. We also see the lineage of David and Christ established and blessed.

Ruth 1

Naomi Widowed

<sup>1</sup> IN THE days when the judges governed [Israel], there was a famine in the land [of Canaan]. And a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live temporarily in the country of Moab with his wife and his two sons. ‡

<sup>2</sup> The man's name was Elimelech and his wife's name was Naomi and his two sons were named Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went to the country of Moab and stayed there. ‡

<sup>4</sup>-They took wives from the Moabite women; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other was Ruth. They lived there about ten years;

<sup>5</sup> and then both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so the woman [Naomi] was left without her two sons and her husband.

<sup>6</sup> Then she set out with her daughters-in-law to return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in Moab how the LORD had taken care of His people [of Judah] in giving them food. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So she left the place where she was living, her two daughters-in-law with her, and they started on the way back to the land of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>-But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you return to your mother's house. May the LORD show kindness to you as you have shown kindness to the dead and to me. ‡

<sup>9</sup> "May the LORD grant that you find rest, each one in the home of her husband." Then she kissed them [goodbye], and they wept aloud. ‡

<sup>10</sup> And they said to her, "No, we will go with you to your people [in Judah]."

<sup>11</sup> But Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters, why should you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb that may become your husbands? ‡

<sup>12</sup> "Go back, my daughters, go, for I am too old to have a husband. If I said I have hope, and if I actually had a husband tonight and even gave birth to sons, <sup>13</sup>-would you wait until they were grown? Would you go without marrying? No, my daughters; for it is much more difficult for me than for you, because the LORD's hand has gone against me."

Ruth's Loyalty

<sup>14</sup> Then they wept aloud again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law [goodbye], but Ruth clung to her. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Naomi said, “Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; turn back and follow your sister-in-law.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> But Ruth said, “Do not urge me to leave you or to turn back from following you; for where you go, I will go, and where you lodge, I will lodge. Your people will be my people, and your God, my God. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD do the same to me [as He has done to you], and more also, if anything but death separates me from you.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she said nothing more. ‡

<sup>19</sup> So the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. And when they arrived in Bethlehem, the whole city was stirred because of them, and the women asked, “Is this Naomi?” ‡

<sup>20</sup> She said to them, “Do not call me Naomi (sweetness); call me Mara (bitter), for the Almighty has caused me great grief and bitterness.

<sup>21</sup> “I left full [with a husband and two sons], but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me and the Almighty has afflicted me?” ‡

Ruth 2

Ruth Gleans in Boaz' Field

<sup>2</sup> And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “Please let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain after one [of the reapers] in whose sight I may find favor.” Naomi said to her, “Go, my daughter.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So Ruth went and picked up the leftover grain in a field after the reapers; and she happened to stop at the plot of land belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup> It was then that Boaz came back from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, “The LORD be with you!” And they answered him, “The LORD bless you!” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, “Whose young woman is this?”

<sup>6</sup> The servant in charge of the reapers answered, “She is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “And she said, ‘Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.’ So she came and has continued [gathering grain] from early morning until now, except when she sat [resting] for a little while in the [field] house.”

<sup>8</sup> Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen carefully, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but stay here close by my maids.

<sup>9</sup> “Watch which field they reap, and follow behind them. I have commanded the servants not to touch you. And when you are thirsty, go to the [water] jars and drink from what the servants draw.”

<sup>10</sup> Then she kneeled face downward, bowing to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your eyes that you should notice me, when I am a foreigner?” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Boaz answered her, “I have been made fully aware of everything that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you did not know before. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “May the LORD repay you for your kindness, and may your reward be full from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then she said, “Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not as one of your maidservants.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> At mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come over here and eat some bread and dip your bread in the vinegar.” So she sat beside the reapers; and he served her roasted grain, and she ate until she was satisfied and she had some left [for Naomi]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> When she got up to glean, Boaz ordered his servants, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not insult her.

<sup>16</sup> “Also you shall purposely pull out for her some stalks [of grain] from the sheaves and leave them so that she may collect them, and do not rebuke her.”

<sup>17</sup> So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

<sup>18</sup> She picked it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Ruth also took out and gave to Naomi what she had saved after she [had eaten and] was satisfied. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law said to her, “Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who took notice of you.” So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and said, “The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed of the LORD who has not ceased his kindness to the living and to the dead.” Again Naomi said to her, “The man is one of our closest relatives, one who has the right to redeem us.”  [Lev 25:25. ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then Ruth the Moabitess said, “He also said to me, ‘Stay close to my servants until they have harvested my entire crop.’ ”

<sup>22</sup> Naomi said to Ruth, “It is good, my daughter, for you to go out [to work] with his maids, so that others do not assault you in another field.”

<sup>23</sup> So she stayed close to the maids of Boaz, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

Boaz Will Redeem Ruth

<sup>1</sup> THEN NAOMI her mother-in-law said to Ruth, “My daughter, shall I not look for security and a home for you, so that it may be well with you? ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Now Boaz, with whose maids you were [working], is he not our relative? See now, he is winnowing barley at the threshing floor tonight. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “So wash and anoint yourself [with olive oil], then put on your [best] clothes, and go down to the threshing floor; but stay out of the man’s sight until he has finished eating and drinking. ‡

<sup>4-</sup>“When he lies down, notice the place where he is lying, and go and uncover his feet and lie down. Then he will tell you what to do.”

<sup>6</sup> So she went down to the threshing floor and did just as her mother-in-law had told her.

<sup>7</sup> When Boaz had eaten and drunk and his heart was happy, he went to lie down at the end of the stack of grain. Then Ruth came secretly, and uncovered his feet and lay down. ‡

<sup>8</sup> In the middle of the night the man was startled and he turned over, and found a woman lying at his feet.

<sup>9</sup> So he said, “Who are you?” And she answered, “I am Ruth your maid. Spread the hem of your garment over me, for you are a close relative and redeemer.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then he said, “May you be blessed by the LORD, my daughter. You have made your last kindness better than the first; for you have not gone after young men, whether poor or rich.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Now, my daughter, do not be afraid. I will do for you whatever you ask, since all my people in the city know that you are a woman of excellence.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> “It is true that I am your close relative and redeemer; however, there is a relative closer [to you] than I.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Spend the night [here], and in the morning if he will redeem you, fine; let him do it. But if he does not wish to redeem you, then, as the LORD lives, I will redeem you. Lie down until the morning.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> So she lay at his feet until the morning, but got up before anyone could recognize another; Boaz said, “Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor [last night].” ‡

<sup>15</sup> He also said, “Give me the shawl you are wearing and hold it out.” So Ruth held it and he measured out six measures of barley [into it] and placed it on her. And she went into the city.

<sup>16</sup> When she came home, her mother-in-law said, “How did it go, my daughter?” And Ruth told her everything that the man had done for her.

<sup>17</sup> She said, “He gave me these six measures of barley, and he said to me, ‘Do not go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Then Naomi said, “Sit and wait, my daughter, until you learn how this matter turns out; for the man will not rest until he has settled it today.” ‡

Ruth 4

The Marriage of Ruth

<sup>1</sup> THEN BOAZ went up to the city gate [where business and legal matters were settled] and sat down, and then the close relative (redeemer) of whom Boaz had spoken came by. He said to him, “Come over here, friend, and sit down.” So he came and sat down. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then Boaz took ten men from the elders of the city and said, “Sit down here.” And they sat down. ‡

<sup>3</sup> He said to the closest relative (redeemer), “Naomi, who has returned from the country of Moab, must sell the plot of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup> “So I thought to let you hear of it, saying, ‘Buy it in the presence of those sitting here, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if not, then tell me, so that I may know; for there is no one besides you to redeem it, and I am [next of kin] after you.’ ” And he said, “I will redeem it.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said, “The day that you buy the field from Naomi, you must also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the deceased, to restore the name of the deceased to his inheritance.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> The closest relative (redeemer) said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, because [by marrying a Moabitess] I would jeopardize my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption (purchase) yourself, because I cannot redeem it.”  [Deut 23:3, 4] ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now formerly in Israel this was the custom concerning redeeming and exchanging property. To confirm a transaction, a man pulled off his sandal and gave it to the other. This was the way of confirming and attesting in Israel. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So, when the closest relative (redeemer) said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself,” he pulled off his sandal [and gave it to Boaz to confirm the agreement].

<sup>9</sup> Then Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, “You are witnesses this day that I have bought everything that was Elimelech’s and everything that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s from the hand of Naomi.

<sup>10</sup> “I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, to be my wife to restore the name of the deceased to his inheritance, so that the name of the deceased will not be cut off from his brothers or from the gate of his birthplace. You are witnesses today.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> All the people at the gate and the elders said, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the household of Israel. May you achieve wealth and power in Ephrathah and become famous in Bethlehem.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Further, may your house be like the house of Perez whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which the LORD will give you by this young woman.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. And he went in to her, and the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.‡

<sup>14</sup> Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed is the LORD who has not left you without a redeemer (grandson, as heir) today, and may his name become famous in Israel.‡

<sup>15</sup> “May he also be to you one who restores life and sustains your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”‡

The Line of David Began Here

<sup>16</sup> Then Naomi took the child and placed him in her lap, and she became his nurse.

<sup>17</sup> The neighbor women gave him a name, saying, “A son (grandson) has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed (worshiper). He is the father of Jesse, the father of David [the ancestor of Jesus Christ].‡

<sup>20</sup> Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,‡

<sup>22</sup> Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of David [the king of Israel and the ancestor of Jesus Christ].‡

Annotations for Ruth

1:4 Ruth. The name Ruth means “friend” or “compassionate friend.” Throughout the account of her life it is easy to see that this name fittingly described Ruth’s character.

1:8 kindness. The Hebrew word translated “kindness” is often used to describe God. It can also be interpreted as “loyal love.”

1:13 gone against me. Naomi felt that the Lord was disciplining her. To be a widow in such a time and also without children was very difficult indeed.

1:14 Perseverance— When we sacrifice what would seem to be our best interest for another’s welfare, God may unexpectedly use it to uplift and reward us. Ruth’s desire to stay with Naomi not only lightened Naomi’s lot, but it also brought Ruth into the Messiah’s ancestral line. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:16–17 your God, my God. Ruth is casting her lot with Naomi, turning her back on all she has known. Most important, she is turning away from the many gods of Moab to the one true God of Israel.

1:22 Moabitess. God extended his protection to Ruth even though she was a foreigner and a member of a nation which had been the enemy of God and Israel (Nu 22–25 ).

2:1 Boaz. As a relative of Naomi’s husband Elimelech, as well as a man of both wealth and good character, Boaz was the ideal person to stand up for the rights of the two widows. In the ancient Middle East, a woman without a husband or father was a woman unprotected and with no way to make a living.

2:2 glean. The Law of Moses allowed the poor to glean in the fields of the farmers (Lev 23:22 ), picking up the loose grain that fell from the sheaves as the reapers gathered them up.

2:14–16 Come over here and eat some bread. Boaz not only let Ruth glean, he also amply provided her with food. He went beyond the letter of the law, demonstrating God’s compassion and the concern that each believer ought to show for others.

3:4 uncover his feet. By uncovering Boaz’s feet in this manner Ruth was showing her submission to him while also asking him to be her protector.

3:9 close relative and redeemer. Ruth reminded Boaz that he was a close relative of her dead husband, and in keeping with the law a close relative was required to be a “kinsman redeemer.” This meant that if a man was slain, his kinsman redeemer had to avenge his death. If a man was sold into slavery, his kinsman redeemer paid the price to release him. If a man died childless, his kinsman redeemer had the responsibility to marry his wife and father a child to bear his name (Dt 15:5–10 ). Ruth was placing herself so that Boaz would know that she was willing for him to redeem her.

3:12 closer [to you] than I. Boaz remembers that there is yet a closer relative; that relative would have the responsibility and the right to redeem Ruth first. If, however, he did not wish to or was unable to, Boaz would be free to do it himself.

4:1–2 the city gate. The gate of the city was the place where the men congregated and where the officials of a city were to be found. Legal business was typically carried on here where the elders of the city were present to be witnesses.

4:11 like Rachel and Leah. The people blessed Ruth and asked the Lord to bless her as he had the founding mothers of the twelve tribes of Israel. Even though she was a Moabitess, Ruth was accepted.

4:14–15 who loves you . . . is better . . . than seven sons. Ruth, although not knowing the outcome, sowed kindness by staying with Naomi. Because of this she also reaped what she had sown: abundant blessing. She became the great-grandmother of King David, and had a place in the genealogy of Christ Jesus. Boaz, as the kinsman redeemer, had to sacrifice his name—the son that was born would bear the family name of Mahlon—but he was also abundantly blessed. Boaz received the admiration of the people (4:11), the beautiful and faithful Ruth became his wife, and together they became ancestors of the great Redeemer, Jesus Christ. This story of Boaz's redemption of the foreign woman points to the wonderful redemption of Jesus for all those who believe in Him.

The First Book of Samuel

- AUTHOR: The author of 1 and 2 Samuel is anonymous. Samuel may have written the first portion of the book, but his death recorded in 1 Samuel 25:1 makes it clear that he did not write all of 1 or 2 Samuel. It is very possible that a single compiler, perhaps a member of the prophetic school mentioned in 1 Chronicles 29:29, used the various writings referenced as the chronicles of “Nathan the prophet,” “Gad the seer” and “Samuel the seer.”
- TIMES: c. 1105–1011 BC
- KEY VERSE: 1Sa 13:14
- THEME: First Samuel tells the story of three characters: Samuel, Saul, and David. Saul’s story begins the line of Israel’s monarchy. His story ends with the end of 1 Samuel. David’s starts in 1 Samuel, goes through 2 Samuel and ends in the first few chapters of 1 Kings. All three of the main characters in this book make mistakes that cost them dearly. Samuel has problems with his own sons. The result is the end of the rule of judges. Saul seems to be a classic study in what a poor self-image can do to a person. David’s early violence prevents him from being able to build the temple later on when he is king.

1 Samuel 1

Elkanah and His Wives

1 THERE WAS a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of the hill country of Ephraim, named Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. ‡

2 He had two wives, one named Hannah and the other named Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.

3 This man went up from his city each year to worship and sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh. Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests to the LORD there. ‡

4 When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions [of the sacrificial meat] to Peninnah his wife and all her sons and daughters. ‡

5 But to Hannah he would give a double portion, because he loved Hannah, but the LORD had given her no children. ‡

6 Hannah's rival provoked her bitterly, to irritate and embarrass her, because the LORD had left her childless. ‡

7 So it happened year after year, whenever she went up to the house of the LORD, Peninnah provoked her; so she wept and would not eat.

8 Then Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you cry and why do you not eat? Why are you so sad and discontent? Am I not better to you than ten sons?" ‡

9 So Hannah got up after eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his seat beside the doorpost of the temple (tabernacle) of the LORD. ‡

10 Hannah was greatly distressed, and she prayed to the LORD and wept in anguish. ‡

11 She made a vow, saying, "O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction (suffering) of Your maidservant and remember, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life; a razor shall never touch his head." ‡

12 Now it happened as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli was watching her mouth.

13 Hannah was speaking in her heart (mind); only her lips were moving, and her voice was not heard, so Eli thought she was drunk.

<sup>14</sup> Eli said to her, “How long will you make yourself drunk? Get rid of your wine.”

<sup>15</sup> But Hannah answered, “No, my lord, I am a woman with a despairing spirit. I have not been drinking wine or any intoxicating drink, but I have poured out my soul before the LORD.  [Gen 19:34 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Do not regard your maidservant as a wicked and worthless woman, for I have spoken until now out of my great concern and [bitter] provocation.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Eli answered and said, “Go in peace; and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of Him.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Hannah said, “Let your maidservant find grace and favor in your sight.” So the woman went on her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad . ‡

Samuel Is Born to Hannah

<sup>19</sup> The family got up early the next morning, worshiped before the LORD, and returned to their home in Ramah. Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her [prayer]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> It came about in due time, after Hannah had conceived, that she gave birth to a son; she named him Samuel, saying , “Because I have asked for him from the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup> Then the man Elkanah and all his household went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and pay his vow. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “ I will not go up until the child is weaned; and then I will bring him, so that he may appear before the LORD and remain there as long as he lives.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do what seems best to you. Wait until you have weaned him; only may the LORD establish and confirm His word.” So the woman remained [behind] and nursed her son until she weaned him. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a leather bottle of wine [to pour over the burnt offering for a sweet fragrance], and she brought Samuel to the LORD’s house in Shiloh, although the child was young. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Hannah said, “Oh, my lord! As [surely as] your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood beside you here, praying to the LORD. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my request which I asked of Him. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Therefore I have also dedicated him to the LORD; as long as he lives he is dedicated to the LORD.” And they worshiped the LORD there. ‡

1 Samuel 2

Hannah's Song of Thanksgiving

<sup>1</sup> HANNAH PRAYED and said, ‡

“My heart rejoices and triumphs in the LORD;
My horn (strength) is lifted up in the LORD,
My mouth has opened wide [to speak boldly] against my enemies,

Because I rejoice in Your salvation.

<sup>2</sup> “There is no one holy like the LORD, ‡
There is no one besides You,
There is no Rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup> “Do not go on boasting so very proudly, ‡
Do not let arrogance come out of your mouth;
For the LORD is a God of knowledge,
And by Him actions are weighed (examined).

<sup>4</sup> “The bows of the mighty are broken,‡
But those who have stumbled equip themselves with strength.

<sup>5</sup> “Those who were full hire themselves out for bread, ‡
But those who were hungry cease [to hunger].
Even the barren [woman] gives birth to seven,
But she who has many children withers away.

<sup>6</sup> “The LORD puts to death and makes alive; ‡
He brings down to Sheol (the grave) and raises up [from the grave].

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD makes poor and makes rich; ‡
He brings low and He lifts up.

<sup>8</sup> “He raises up the poor from the dust, ‡
He lifts up the needy from the ash heap
To make them sit with nobles,
And inherit a seat of honor and glory;
For the pillars of the earth are the LORD’s,

And He set the land on them.

<sup>9</sup> “He guards the feet of His godly (faithful) ones,‡
But the wicked ones are silenced and perish in darkness;
For a man shall not prevail by might.

<sup>10</sup> “The adversaries of the LORD will be broken to pieces;‡
He will thunder against them in the heavens,
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth;
And He will give strength to His king,
And will exalt the horn (strength) of His anointed.”  [Luke 1:46 ]

<sup>11</sup> Elkanah [and his wife Hannah] returned to Ramah to his house. But the child [Samuel] served the LORD under the guidance of Eli the priest.‡

The Sin of Eli's Sons

<sup>13</sup> and the custom of the priests with [the sacrifices of] the people. When any man was offering a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged [meat] fork in his hand;

<sup>14</sup> then he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; everything that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. This is what they did in Shiloh to all [the sacrifices of] the Israelites who came there.

<sup>15</sup> Also, before they burned (offered) the fat, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, “Give the priest meat to roast, since he will not accept boiled meat from you, only raw.”‡

<sup>16</sup> If the man said to him, “Certainly they are to burn (offer) the fat first, and then you may take as much as you want,” then the priest's servant would say, “No! You shall give it to me now or I will take it by force.”

<sup>17</sup> So the sin of the [two] young men [Hophni and Phinehas] was very great before the LORD, for the men treated the offering of the LORD disrespectfully.‡

Samuel before the LORD as a Boy

<sup>18</sup> Now Samuel was ministering before the LORD, as a child dressed in a linen ephod [a sacred item of priestly clothing].‡

<sup>19</sup> Moreover, his mother would make him a little robe and would bring it up to him each year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, “May the LORD give you children by this woman in place of the one she asked for which was dedicated to the LORD.” Then they would return to their own home. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And [the time came when] the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew before the LORD. ‡

Eli Rebukes His Sons

<sup>22</sup> Now Eli was very old; and he heard about everything that his sons were doing to all [the people of] Israel, and how they were lying with the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting (tabernacle). ‡

<sup>23</sup> Eli said to them, “Why do you do such things, the evil things that I hear from all these people?

<sup>24</sup> “No, my sons; for the report that I keep hearing from the passers-by among the LORD’s people is not good.

<sup>25</sup> “If one man does wrong and sins against another, God will intercede (arbitrate) for him; but if a man does wrong to the LORD, who can intercede for him?” But they would not listen to their father, for it was the LORD’s will to put them to death. ‡

<sup>26</sup> But the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favor both with the LORD and with men. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Then a man of God (prophet) came to Eli and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Did I not plainly reveal Myself to the house of your father (ancestor) when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh’s house?’ ‡

<sup>28</sup> ‘Moreover, I selected him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before Me. And [from then on] I gave to the house of your father all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel.’ ‡

<sup>29</sup> ‘Why then do you kick at (despise) My sacrifice and My offering which I commanded in My dwelling place, and honor your sons more than Me, by fattening yourselves with the choicest part of every offering of My people Israel?’ ‡

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore the LORD God of Israel declares, ‘I did indeed say that your house and that of [Aaron] your father would walk [in priestly service] before Me forever.' But now the LORD declares, 'Far be it from Me—for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me will be insignificant and contemptible. ‡

<sup>31</sup> 'Behold, the time is coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your house. ‡

<sup>32</sup> 'You will look at the distress of My house (the tabernacle), in spite of all the good which God will do for Israel, and there will never again be an old man in your house. ‡

<sup>33</sup> 'Yet I will not cut off every man of yours from My altar; your eyes will fail from weeping and your soul will grieve, and all those born in your house will die as men [in the prime of life].  [1 Sam 22:17–20 ]

<sup>34</sup> 'This will be the sign to you which shall come concerning your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: on the same day both of them shall die.  [1 Sam 4:17, 18 ] ‡

<sup>35</sup> 'But I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who will do according to what is in My heart and in My soul; and I will build him a permanent and enduring house, and he will walk before My anointed forever.  [1 Sam 2:10 ] ‡

<sup>36</sup> 'And it will happen that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread and say, "Please assign me to one of the priest's offices so I may eat a piece of bread." ' ' ‡

1 Samuel 3

The Prophetic Call to Samuel

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE boy Samuel was attending to the service of the LORD under the supervision of Eli. The word of the LORD was rare and precious in those days; visions [that is, new revelations of divine truth] were not widespread. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Yet it happened at that time, as Eli was lying down in his own place (now his eyesight had begun to grow dim and he could not see well ).

<sup>3</sup> and the [oil] lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, ‡

<sup>4</sup> that the LORD called Samuel, and he answered, "Here I am."

<sup>5</sup> He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But Eli said, "I did not call you; lie down again." So he went and lay down.

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD called yet again, “Samuel!” So Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But Eli answered, “I did not call, my son; lie down again.”

<sup>7</sup> Now Samuel did not yet know [or personally experience] the LORD, and the word of the LORD was not yet revealed [directly] to him. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the LORD called Samuel a third time. And he stood and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you did call me.” Then Eli understood that it was the LORD [who was] calling the boy.

<sup>9</sup> So Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down, and it shall be that if He calls you, you shall say, ‘Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.’ ” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD came and stood and called as at the previous times, “Samuel! Samuel!” Then Samuel answered, “Speak, for Your servant is listening.”

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, “Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will ring. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “On that day I will carry out against Eli everything that I have spoken concerning his house (family), from beginning to end. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Now I have told him that I am about to judge his house forever for the sinful behavior which he knew [was happening], because his sons were bringing a curse on themselves [dishonoring and blaspheming God] and he did not rebuke them. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the sinful behavior of Eli’s house (family) shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> So Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the LORD’s house. But Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.

<sup>16</sup> But Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” And he answered, “Here I am.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Eli said, “What is it that He said to you? Please do not hide it from me. May God do the same to you, and more also, if you hide from me anything of all that He said to you.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> So Samuel told him everything, hiding nothing from him. And Eli said, “It is the LORD; may He do what seems good to Him.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Now Samuel grew; and the LORD was with him and He let none of his words fail [to be fulfilled].  [Josh 23:14. ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> And all Israel from Dan [in the north] to Beersheba [in the south] knew that Samuel was appointed as a prophet of the LORD. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And the LORD continued to appear in Shiloh, for the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD. ‡

1 Samuel 4

Philistines Take the Ark in Victory

<sup>1</sup> AND THE word of [the LORD through] Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle and they camped beside Ebenezer while the Philistines camped at Aphek. ‡ The Wanderings of the Ark of the Covenant

<sup>2</sup> The Philistines assembled in battle formation to meet Israel, and when the battle was over, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men on the battlefield.

<sup>3</sup> When the people (soldiers) came into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD here from Shiloh, so that He may come among us and save us from the hand of our enemies.”

<sup>4</sup> So the people sent word to Shiloh, and from there they carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts who sits above the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were with the ark of the covenant of God. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So it happened that as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all [the people of] Israel shouted with a great shout, and the earth resounded.

<sup>6</sup> When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean? ” Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

<sup>7</sup> The Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp.” And they said, “Woe [disaster is coming] to us! For nothing like this has happened before.

<sup>8</sup> “Woe to us! Who will rescue us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness.

<sup>9</sup> “Take courage, and be men, O Philistines, so that you do not become servants to the Hebrews, as they have been servants to you; act like men and fight!” ‡

<sup>10</sup> So the Philistines fought; Israel was defeated and every man fled to his tent. It was a very great defeat, for thirty thousand foot soldiers of Israel fell. ‡

11-Also the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were killed.  [1 Sam 2:34 ] ‡

12 Now a man [from the tribe] of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh that same day with his clothes torn and dust on his head [as signs of mourning over the disaster]. ‡

13 When he arrived, Eli was sitting on his seat by the road, keeping watch, because his heart was anxious about the ark of God. When the man arrived to report [the news] in the city, everyone in the city cried out [to God, for help]. ‡

14 When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he asked, “What is the noise of this uproar?” And the man came hurriedly and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; his eyes were dim so that he could not see. ‡

16 The man said to Eli, “I have come from the battle line. Indeed, I escaped from the battle line today.” Eli said, “How did things go, my son?” ‡

17 The messenger replied, “Israel has fled before the Philistines and there has also been a great slaughter among the people. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been taken.”

18 When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell off the seat backwards by the side of the [city] gate. His neck was broken and he died, for he was old and heavy. He had judged Israel for forty years.

19 Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’ wife, was pregnant, and was about to give birth; so when she heard the news that the ark of God had been taken and that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she kneeled down and gave birth, because her [labor] pains began.

20 And about the time of her death [following the sudden birth] the women attending her said to her, “Do not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son.” But she did not answer or pay any attention. ‡

21-And she named the boy Ichabod, saying, “The glory has left Israel,” because the ark of God had been taken and because of [the deaths of] her father-in-law and her husband. ‡

22 She said, “The glory has left Israel, for the ark of God has been taken.”

Capture of the Ark Provokes God

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE Philistines took the ark of God, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. ‡

<sup>2</sup>They took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon and set it beside [the image of] Dagon [their chief idol]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> When the people of Ashdod got up early the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and returned him to his place. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But when they got up early the next morning, behold, Dagon had [again] fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD, and his head and both palms of his hands were [lying] cut off on the threshold; only the trunk [portion] of [the idol of] Dagon was left on him. ‡

<sup>5</sup> This is the reason neither the priests of Dagon nor any who enter Dagon's house step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the hand of the LORD was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and He caused them to be dumbfounded and struck them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territory. ‡

<sup>7</sup> When the men of Ashdod saw what had happened, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is heavy on us and on Dagon our god."

<sup>8</sup> So they sent word and gathered all the lords (governors) of the Philistines to them and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath." So they took the ark of the God of Israel there.

<sup>9</sup> But it happened that after they had taken it to Gath, the hand of the LORD was against the city, causing an extremely great panic [because of the deaths from the plague], for He struck the people of the city, both young and old, and tumors broke out on them. ‡

<sup>10</sup> So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And as the ark of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel [from Gath] to us, to kill us and our people."

<sup>11</sup> So they sent word and gathered all the lords of the Philistines and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel; let it be returned to its own place, so that it will not kill us and our people." For there was a deadly panic throughout the city; the hand of God was very heavy (severe) there. ‡

<sup>12</sup> The men who had not died were stricken with tumors and the cry of the city [for help] went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6

The Ark Returned to Israel

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE ark of the LORD had been in the country of the Philistines for seven months.

<sup>2</sup> And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners (seers), saying, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Let us know how we can send it back to its place.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> They said, “If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty [without a gift]; but be sure to return [it] to Him [together with] a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then they said, “What shall the guilt offering be which we shall return to Him?” They answered, “Five golden tumors and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords (governors) of the Philistines, for one plague was on all of you and on your lords.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> “So you shall make replicas of your tumors and of your mice that ravage the land, and give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will lighten His hand [of judgment] on you and your gods and your land.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Why then do you harden your hearts [allowing pride to cause your downfall] just as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had severely dealt with them and mocked them, did they not allow the people [of Israel] to go, and they departed?” ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Now then, make a new cart and prepare two milk cows on which a yoke has never been placed; and hitch the cows to the cart and take their calves back home, away from them.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Then take the ark of the LORD and put it on the cart; and put the articles of gold which you are returning to Him as a guilt offering in a box beside it. Then send it away [without a driver].” ‡

<sup>9</sup> “But watch, if it goes up by the way of its own territory to Beth-shemesh, then [you will know that] He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we will know that it was not His hand that struck us; this disaster happened to us by chance.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> And the men did so, and took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and corralled their calves at home.

<sup>11</sup> They put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box containing the golden mice and the replicas of their tumors.

<sup>12</sup> And the cows went straight toward Beth-shemesh along the highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn away to the right or the left. And the Philistine lords (governors) followed them to the border of Beth-shemesh.

<sup>13</sup> Now the men of Beth-shemesh were gathering their wheat harvest in the valley, and they looked up and saw the ark and rejoiced to see it.

<sup>14</sup> The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh and stopped there. A large stone was there; and the men split up the wood of the cart [for firewood] and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> The Levites had taken down the ark of the LORD and the box beside it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone. And the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices that day to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> When the five lords of the Philistines saw what happened, they returned to Ekron that day. ‡

<sup>17</sup> These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath and one for Ekron [the five chief cities of the Philistines]; ‡

<sup>18</sup> also the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and [unwalled] country villages. The large stone on which the Levites set the ark of the LORD remains a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD struck down some of the men of Beth-shemesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck down 50,070 men among the people, and the people mourned because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter. ‡

<sup>20</sup> The men of Beth-shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us?” ‡

<sup>21</sup> So they sent messengers to the residents of Kiriath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to you.” ‡

1 Samuel 7

Rescue from the Philistines

<sup>1</sup> SO THE men of Kiriath-jearim came and took up the ark of the Lord and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and they consecrated Eleazar his son to care for the ark of the Lord. ‡

<sup>2</sup>-And from that day the ark remained in Kiriath-jearim for a very long time, for it was twenty years [until the reign of King David]; and all the house of Israel lamented (wailed) and grieved after the LORD.  [2 Sam 6:3, 4; 1 Chr 13:5–7 ]

<sup>3</sup> Then Samuel said to all the house of Israel, “If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, remove the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth (pagan goddesses) from among you and direct your hearts to the LORD and serve Him only; and He will rescue you from the hand of the Philistines.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> So the Israelites removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth and served the LORD alone. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Samuel said, “Gather all Israel together at Mizpah and I will pray to the LORD for you.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So they gathered at Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day and said there, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel judged the Israelites at Mizpah. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now when the Philistines heard that the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, the lords (governors) of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the Israelites heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

<sup>8</sup> And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, so that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Samuel took a nursing lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD; and Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel and the LORD answered him. ‡

<sup>10</sup> As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines approached for the battle against Israel. Then the LORD thundered with a great voice that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion, and they were defeated and fled before Israel. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And the men of Israel came out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them down as far as [the territory] below Beth-car.

<sup>12</sup> Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and he named it Ebenezer (stone of help), saying, “Thus far the LORD has helped us.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So the Philistines were subdued and they did not come anymore into Israelite territory. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. ‡

<sup>14</sup> The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered the cities’ territory from the Philistines. Also there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

Samuel's Ministry

<sup>16</sup> He used to go annually on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and he judged Israel in all these places.

<sup>17</sup> Then he would return to Ramah, because his home was there; and there he judged Israel, and there he built an altar to the LORD. ‡

1 Samuel 8

Israel Demands a King

<sup>1</sup> AND IT came about when Samuel was old that he appointed his sons as judges over Israel. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Now the name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judging in Beersheba.

<sup>3</sup> His sons, however, did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after dishonest gain, took bribes, and perverted justice. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah

<sup>5</sup> and said to him, “Look, you have grown old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint us a king to judge us [and rule over us] like all the other nations.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> But their demand displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge and rule over us.” So Samuel prayed to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in regard to all that they say to you, for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from being King over them. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Like all the deeds which they have done since the day that I brought them up from Egypt even to this day—in that they have abandoned (rejected) Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also.

<sup>9</sup> “So now listen to their voice; only solemnly warn them and tell them the ways of the king who will reign over them.” ‡

Warning concerning a King

<sup>10</sup> So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king.

<sup>11</sup> He said, “These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them for himself to his chariots and among his horsemen and they will run before his chariots.”‡

<sup>12</sup> “He will appoint them for himself to be commanders over thousands and over fifties, and some to do his plowing and to reap his harvest and to make his implements of war and equipment for his chariots.

<sup>13</sup> “He will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

<sup>14</sup> “He will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants.”‡

<sup>15</sup> “He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his servants.

<sup>16</sup> “He will take your male servants and your female servants and your best young men and your donkeys and use them for his work.

<sup>17</sup> “He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves shall be his servants.

<sup>18</sup> “Then you will cry out on that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you on that day [because you have rejected Him as King].”‡

<sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and they said, “No, but there shall be a king over us,”‡

<sup>20</sup> so that we too may be like all the nations [around us], that our king may judge [and govern] us and go out before us and fight our battles.”‡

<sup>21</sup> Samuel had heard all the words of the people and repeated them to the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> And the LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to their request and appoint a king for them.” So Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Go, each man to his own city.”‡

1 Samuel 9

Saul’s Search

<sup>1</sup> THERE WAS a man of [the tribe of] Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of influence and wealth.‡

<sup>2</sup> Kish had a son named Saul, a choice and handsome man; among the sons of Israel there was not a man more handsome than he. From his shoulders and up he was [a head] taller than any of the people.‡

<sup>3</sup> Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, had wandered off and were lost. Kish said to his son Saul, "Please take one of the servants with you and arise, go look for the donkeys."

<sup>4</sup> And they passed through the hill country of Ephraim and the land of Shalishah, but did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there and the land of the Benjamites, but they [still] did not find them.‡

<sup>5</sup> When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us return, otherwise my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and become anxious about us."

<sup>6</sup> The servant said to him, "Look here, in this city there is a man of God, and the man is held in honor; everything that he says comes true. Now let us go there; perhaps he can advise us about our journey [and tell us where we should go]."‡

<sup>7</sup> Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go [to see him], what shall we bring to the man? For the bread from our sacks is gone and there is no gift to bring to the man of God. What do we have [to offer]?"‡

<sup>8</sup> The servant replied again to Saul, "Here in my hand I have a quarter of a shekel of silver; I will give that to the man of God, and he will advise us as to [where we should go on] our journey [to find the donkeys]."

<sup>9</sup> (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he would say, "Come, let us go to the seer"; for he who is called a prophet today was formerly called a seer.)‡

<sup>10</sup> Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was living.

<sup>11</sup> As they went up the hill to the city, they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer (prophet) here?"‡

<sup>12</sup> They answered them, "He is; look, he is ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come into the city today because the people have a sacrifice on the high place today.‡

<sup>13</sup> "As you enter the city you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he comes, because he must ask the blessing on the sacrifice; afterward, those who are invited will eat. So go up now, for about now you will find him."

<sup>14</sup> So they went up to the city. And as they came into the city, there was Samuel coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

God's Choice for King

<sup>16</sup> “About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him as leader over My people Israel; and he will save My people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked upon [the distress of] My people, because their cry [for help] has come to Me.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, “There is the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall rule over My people [as their king].” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Saul approached Samuel in the [city] gate and said, “Please tell me where the seer’s house is.”

<sup>19</sup> Samuel answered Saul, “I am the seer. Go on ahead of me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and in the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is on your mind.

<sup>20</sup> “As for your donkeys which were lost three days ago, do not be concerned about them, for they have been found. And for whom are all things that are desirable in Israel? Are they not for you and for all your father’s household (family)?” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Saul replied, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And is not my family the smallest of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken this way to me [as if I were very important]?” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall [at the high place] and gave them a place [to sit] at the head of the persons—about thirty men—who were invited [while the rest ate outside].

<sup>23</sup> Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the [priests’] portion that I gave you, regarding which I told you, ‘Set it aside.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> Then the cook lifted up the leg (thigh) with the meat that was on it [indicating that it was the priest’s honored portion] and placed it before Saul. Samuel said, “Here is what has been reserved [for you]. Set it before you and eat, because it has been kept for you until the appointed time, ever since I invited the people.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day. ‡

<sup>25</sup> When they came down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the roof [of his house]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> They got up early [the next day]; and at dawn Samuel called Saul [who was sleeping] on the roof, saying, “Get up, so that I may send you on your way.” Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went outside.

<sup>27</sup> As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us so that he may pass by but you stand still now so that I may proclaim the word of God to you.”

1 Samuel 10

Saul among Prophets

<sup>1</sup> THEN SAMUEL took the flask of oil and poured it on Saul’s head, kissed him, and said, “Has the LORD not anointed you as ruler over His inheritance (Israel)? ‡

<sup>2</sup> “When you leave me today, you will meet two men beside Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; they will say to you, ‘The donkeys you went to look for have been found. And your father has stopped caring about them and is worried about you, saying, ‘What shall I do about my son?’’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Then you will go on further from there, and you will come to the terebinth tree of Tabor, and three men going up to [sacrifice to] God at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a jug of wine. ‡

<sup>4</sup> They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from their hand.

<sup>5</sup> “After that you will come to the hill of God where the garrison of the Philistines is; and when you come there to the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place [of worship] with harp, tambourine, flute, and lyre before them, and they will be prophesying. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you mightily, and you will prophesy with them, and you will be changed into another man. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “When these signs come to you, do for yourself whatever the situation requires, for God is with you. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “You shall go down ahead of me to Gilgal; and behold, I will be coming down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings. You shall wait seven days until I come to you and show you what you must do.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then it happened when Saul turned his back to leave Samuel, God changed his heart; and all those signs came to pass that day.

<sup>10</sup> When they came to the hill [Gibeah], behold, a group of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came on him mightily, and he prophesied [under divine guidance] among them. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now when all who knew Saul previously saw that he actually prophesied now [by inspiration] with the prophets, the people said one to another, “What has happened to [Saul, who is nobody but] the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?” ‡

<sup>12</sup> And a man from there answered, “But who is the father of the others?” So it became a proverb, “Is Saul also among the prophets?” ‡

<sup>13</sup> When Saul had finished prophesying, he went to the high place [of worship].

<sup>14</sup> Saul’s uncle said to him and to his servant, “Where did you go?” And Saul said, “To look for the donkeys. And when we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel [for help].”

<sup>15</sup> Saul’s uncle said, “Please tell me, what did Samuel say to you?”

<sup>16</sup> And Saul said to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found.” But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom which Samuel had mentioned.

Saul Publicly Chosen King

<sup>18</sup> and he said to Israel, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘It was I who brought Israel up from Egypt, and I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.’ ‡

<sup>19</sup> “But today you have rejected your God, who Himself saves you from all your disasters and distresses; yet you have said, ‘No! Set a king over us.’ Now then, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your families (clans).” ‡

<sup>20</sup> And when Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen by lot. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families, and the family of Matri was chosen by lot. And Saul the son of Kish was chosen by lot; but when they looked for him, he could not be found.

<sup>22</sup> So they inquired further of the LORD, “Has the man come here yet?” And the LORD answered, “He is there, hiding himself by the provisions and supplies.”  [Ex 28:30 ] ‡

<sup>23</sup> So they ran and took him from there, and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen? For there is no one like him among all the people.” So all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Samuel told the people the requirements of the kingdom, and wrote them in a book and placed it before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his home. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Saul also went home to Gibeah; and the brave men whose hearts God had touched went with him. ‡

<sup>27</sup> But some worthless men said, “How can this man save and rescue us?” And they regarded Saul with contempt and did not bring him a gift. But he ignored the insult and kept silent. ‡

1 Samuel 11

Saul Defeats the Ammonites

<sup>1</sup> NOW NAHASH the Ammonite [king] went up and besieged Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a treaty [of peace] with us and we will serve you.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> But Nahash the Ammonite told them, “I will make a treaty with you on this condition, that I will gouge out the right eye of every one of you, and make it a disgrace upon all Israel.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> The elders of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Give us seven days so that we may send messengers throughout the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out [and surrender] to you.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and told the news to the people; and all the people raised their voices and wept aloud. ‡

<sup>5</sup>-Now Saul was coming out of the field behind the oxen, and he said, “What is the matter with the people that they are weeping?” So they told him about the report of the men of Jabesh.

<sup>6</sup> The Spirit of God came upon Saul mightily when he heard these words, and he became extremely angry. ‡ The Salvation of Jabesh-Gilead

<sup>7</sup> He took a team of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not come out to follow Saul and Samuel, the same shall be done to his oxen.” Then fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out [united] as one man [with one purpose]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> He assembled and counted them at Bezek; and the sons of Israel numbered

300,000, and the men of Judah 30,000. ‡

<sup>9</sup> They said to the messengers who had come, “You shall say to the men of Jabesh-gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will have help [against the Ammonites].’ ” So the messengers came and reported this to the men of Jabesh; and they were overjoyed.

<sup>10</sup> So the men of Jabesh said [to Nahash the Ammonite], “Tomorrow we will come out to you [to surrender], and you may do to us whatever seems good to you.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> The next morning Saul put the men into three companies; and they entered the [Ammonites’] camp during the [darkness of the early] morning watch and killed the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and the survivors were scattered, and no two of them were left together. ‡

<sup>12</sup> The people said to Samuel, “Who is the one who said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Bring the men, and we will put them to death.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> But Saul said, “No man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has brought victory to Israel.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and there restore the kingdom.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they also sacrificed peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly. ‡

1 Samuel 12

Samuel Addresses Israel

<sup>1</sup> THEN SAMUEL said to all Israel, “Behold, I have listened to your voice in everything that you have said to me and have appointed a king over you. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “And now, here is the king walking before you. As for me, I am old and gray, and here are my sons with you. I have walked before you from my childhood to this day. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and [Saul] His anointed [if I have done someone wrong]. Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I exploited? Whom have I oppressed or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes [to the truth]? [Tell me and] I will restore it to you.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> They said, “You have not exploited us or oppressed us or taken anything at all from a man's hand."

<sup>5</sup> Samuel said to them, "The LORD is a witness against you, and [Saul] His anointed is a witness this day that you have not found anything in my hand." And they answered, "He is a witness."‡

<sup>6</sup> Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your fathers (ancestors) up from the land of Egypt.‡

<sup>7</sup> "Now then, take your stand, so that I may plead and contend with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did for you and for your fathers.‡

<sup>8</sup> "When Jacob [and his sons] had come into Egypt [and later when the Egyptians oppressed them] and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron who brought your fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.‡

<sup>9</sup> "But when they forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of Hazor's army, and into the hand of the Philistines and of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.‡

<sup>10</sup> "They cried out to the LORD, saying, 'We have sinned because we have abandoned (rejected) the Lord and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; but now rescue us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve You.'‡

<sup>11</sup> "Then the LORD sent Jerubbaal (Gideon) and Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel, and He rescued you from the hand of your enemies on every side, and you lived in security.‡

The King Confirmed

<sup>12</sup> "But when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites had come against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us'—although the LORD your God was your King.‡

<sup>13</sup> "Now therefore, here is [Saul] the king whom you have chosen, and for whom you asked; behold, the LORD has set a king over you.‡

<sup>14</sup> "If you will fear the LORD [with awe and profound reverence] and serve Him and listen to His voice and not rebel against His commandment, then both you and your king will follow the LORD your God [and it will be well].‡

<sup>15</sup> "But if you do not listen to the LORD's voice, but rebel against His command, then the hand of the LORD will be against you [to punish you], as it was against your fathers.‡

<sup>16</sup> "So now, take your stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes. ‡

17 “Is it not [the beginning of the] wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD and He will send thunder and rain; then you will know [without any doubt], and see that your evil which you have done is great in the sight of the LORD by asking for yourselves a king.” ‡

18 So Samuel called to the LORD [in prayer], and He sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel. ‡

19 Then all the people said to Samuel, “Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so that we will not die, for we have added to all our sins this evil —to ask for a king for ourselves.” ‡

20 Samuel said to the people, “Do not be afraid. You have [indeed] done all this evil; yet do not turn away from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

21 “You must not turn away, for then you would go after futile things which cannot profit or rescue, because they are futile. ‡

22 “The LORD will not abandon His people for His great name’s sake, because the LORD has been pleased to make you a people for Himself. ‡

23 “Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but I will instruct you in the good and right way. ‡

24 “Only fear the LORD [with awe and profound reverence] and serve Him faithfully with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you. ‡

25 “But if you still do evil, both you and your king will be swept away [to destruction].” ‡

1 Samuel 13

War with the Philistines

<sup>1</sup> SAUL WAS thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty - two years over Israel. The Battle at Michmash

<sup>2</sup> Saul chose for himself 3,000 men of Israel; of whom 2,000 were with him in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, while 1,000 were with Jonathan at Gibeah of Benjamin. But he sent the rest of the people away, each one to his own tent. ‡

and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> All Israel heard that Saul had defeated the Philistine garrison, and also that Israel had become despicable to the Philistines. And the people were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup> Now the Philistines gathered to fight against Israel, 30,000 chariots and 6,000 horsemen, and troops in multitude, like sand on the seashore. They came up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth-aven.

<sup>6</sup> When the men of Israel saw that they were in a tight situation (for their troops were hard-pressed), they hid in caves, in thickets, in cellars, and in [dry] cisterns (pits). ‡

<sup>7</sup> Also some of the Hebrews had crossed the [river] Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him, trembling [in fear and anticipation].

<sup>8</sup> Now Saul waited seven days, according to the appointed time which Samuel had set, but Samuel had not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattering away from Saul. ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Saul said, “Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings.” And he offered the burnt offering [which he was forbidden to do].
