The Letter of Paul to the Galatians

► AUTHOR: The Pauline authorship and the unity of this epistle are virtually unchallenged. The first verse clearly identifies the author as, “Paul, an apostle” as does 5:2 , “Notice, it is I, Paul, who tells you.” In fact, Paul actually wrote, or at least finished, Galatians by his own hand (6:11 ) instead of dictating it to a secretary, as was his usual practice. There is some controversy as to whether Paul was writing to the North Galatians or the South Galatians. If the former theory is correct, this epistle was written sometime during Paul’s third missionary journey in AD 53–56. If the latter theory is correct, this epistle was written before the Jerusalem Council (Ac 15 ) in AD 49, right after the first missionary journey. Regardless of the timing of its writing, Galatians affords us a clear glimpse into the ministry and theology of Paul as a Jewish Christian.

► KEY VERSES: Gal 2:20–21

► THEME: The big question for the church in its first generation was “Did a person have to become a Jew before they could be a Christian?” There were many Jews who thought this was the case. Three things happened to move the church away from this perspective: Peter’s vision as recorded in Acts 10 ; the decision of the Jerusalem Council in Acts 15 that Gentiles didn’t need to adopt all the Jewish customs; and Paul’s received revelation that he was to deliver to the Gentiles. Even with all this evidence, there were still some Jews who followed Paul around and attempted to teach Jewish regulations to his newly planted churches. Paul was furious at these events and used this letter to set the record straight. Christ brought freedom and died for people of all cultures, an idea that was a new paradigm for many of the Jews who were stuck in a “God loves us most” mode. Paul goes to great lengths to review with the Galatians what he had taught them and where this teaching had come from.

Galatians 1

Introduction

1 PAUL, AN apostle (not commissioned and sent from men nor through the agency of man, but through Jesus Christ—the Messiah—and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), ‡

2. and all the brothers who are with me, ‡

To the churches of Galatia:

3. Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, ‡

4. who gave Himself [as a sacrifice to atone] for our sins [to save and sanctify us] so that He might rescue us from this present evil age, in accordance with the will and purpose and plan of our God and Father—‡

5 to Him be [ascribed all] the glory through the ages of the ages. Amen.

Perversion of the Gospel

6. I am astonished and extremely irritated that you are so quickly shifting your allegiance and deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different [even contrary] gospel; ‡

7 which is really not another [gospel]; but there are [obviously] some [people masquerading as teachers] who are disturbing and confusing you [with a misleading, counterfeit teaching] and want to distort the gospel of Christ [twisting it into something which it absolutely is not]. ‡

8. But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to that which we [originally] preached to you, let him be condemned to destruction! ‡

9 As we have said before, so I now say again, if anyone is preaching to you a gospel different from that which you received [from us], let him be condemned to destruction! ‡

10. Am I now trying to win the favor and approval of men, or of God? Or am I seeking to please someone? If I were still trying to be popular with men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ. ‡

Paul Defends His Ministry

<sup>11</sup> For I want you to know, believers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not man's gospel [it is not a human invention, patterned after any human concept]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> For indeed I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a [direct] revelation of Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>13</sup> You have heard of my career and former manner of life in Judaism, how I used to hunt down and persecute the church of God extensively and [with fanatical zeal] tried [my best] to destroy it. ‡

<sup>14</sup> And [you have heard how] I surpassed many of my contemporaries among my countrymen in [my advanced study of the laws of] Judaism, as I was extremely loyal to the traditions of my ancestors. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But when God, who had chosen me and set me apart before I was born, and called me through His grace, was pleased [Is 49:1; Jer 1:5] ‡

<sup>16</sup> to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the Gentiles [as the good news—the way of salvation], I did not immediately consult with anyone [for guidance regarding God's call and His revelation to me]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Nor did I [even] go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia and stayed awhile, and afterward returned once more to Damascus.

<sup>19</sup> But I did not see any other apostle except James, the [half] brother of the Lord. ‡

<sup>20</sup> (Now in what I am writing to you, I assure you as if I were standing before God that I am not lying.) ‡

<sup>22</sup> And I was still unknown by sight to the churches which were in Christ in Judea (Jerusalem and the surrounding region); ‡

<sup>23</sup> they only kept hearing, "He who used to persecute us is now preaching the [good news of the] faith which he once was trying to destroy."

<sup>24</sup> And they were glorifying God [as the Author and Source of what had taken place and all that had been accomplished] in me.

Galatians 2

The Council at Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> THEN AFTER a period of fourteen years I again went up to Jerusalem, [this time] with Barnabas, taking Titus along also. ‡

<sup>2</sup> I went up [to Jerusalem] because of a [divine] revelation, and I put before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles. But I did so in private before those of reputation, for fear that I might be running or had run [the course of my ministry] in vain. ‡

<sup>3</sup> But [all went well, for] not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled [as some had anticipated] to be circumcised, despite the fact that he was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup>—My concern was because of the false brothers [those people masquerading as Christians] who had been secretly smuggled in [to the community of believers]. They had slipped in to spy on the freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to bring us back into bondage [under the Law of Moses]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> But we did not yield to them even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel would continue to remain with you [in its purity]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But from those who were of high reputation (whatever they were—in terms of individual importance—makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality—He is not impressed with the positions that people hold nor does He recognize distinctions such as fame or power)—well, those who were of reputation contributed nothing to me [that is, they had nothing to add to my gospel message nor did they impose any new requirements on me].  [Deut 10:17.] ‡

<sup>7</sup> But on the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised (Gentiles), just as Peter had been [entrusted to proclaim the gospel] to the circumcised (Jews); ‡

<sup>8</sup> (for He who worked effectively for Peter and empowered him in his ministry to the Jews also worked effectively for me and empowered me in my ministry to the Gentiles). ‡

<sup>9</sup> And recognizing the grace [that God had] bestowed on me, James and Cephas (Peter) and John, who were reputed to be pillars [of the Jerusalem church], gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, so that we could go to the Gentiles [with their blessing] and they to the circumcised (Jews). ‡

<sup>10</sup> They asked only [one thing], that we remember the poor, the very thing I was also eager to do. ‡

Peter (Cephas) Opposed by Paul

<sup>11</sup>Now when Cephas (Peter) came to Antioch, I opposed him face to face [about his conduct there], because he stood condemned [by his own actions]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Before certain men came from James, he used to eat [his meals] with the Gentiles; but when the men [from Jerusalem] arrived, he began to withdraw and separate himself [from the Gentile believers], because he was afraid of those from the circumcision. ‡

<sup>13</sup> The rest of the Jews joined him in this hypocrisy [ignoring their knowledge that Jewish and Gentile Christians were united, under the new covenant, into one faith], with the result that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

<sup>14</sup> But when I saw that they were not being straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I told Cephas (Peter) in front of everyone, “If you, being a Jew, live [as you have been living] like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how is it that you are [now virtually] forcing the Gentiles to live like Jews [if they want to eat with you]?” ‡

<sup>16</sup> yet we know that a man is not justified [and placed in right standing with God] by works of the Law, but [only] through faith in [God’s beloved Son,] Christ Jesus. And even we [as Jews] have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the Law. By observing the Law no one will ever be justified [declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty].  [Ps 143:2] ‡

<sup>17</sup>“But if, while we seek to be justified in Christ [by faith], we ourselves are found to be sinners, does that make Christ an advocate or promoter of our sin? Certainly not! ‡

<sup>18</sup> “For if I [or anyone else should] rebuild [through word or by practice] what I once tore down [the belief that observing the Law is essential for salvation], I prove myself to be a transgressor.

<sup>19</sup> “For through the Law I died to the Law and its demands on me [because salvation is provided through the death and resurrection of Christ], so that I might [from now on] live to God. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “I have been crucified with Christ [that is, in Him I have shared His crucifixion]; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body I live by faith [by adhering to, relying on, and completely trusting] in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me. ‡

amazing, unmerited favor], for if righteousness comes through [observing] the Law, then Christ died needlessly. [His suffering and death would have had no purpose whatsoever.]”‡

Faith Brings Righteousness

1 O YOU foolish and thoughtless and superficial Galatians, who has bewitched you [that you would act like this], to whom—right before your very eyes—Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified [in the gospel message]?‡

2 This is all I want to ask of you: did you receive the [Holy] Spirit as the result of obeying [the requirements of] the Law, or was it the result of hearing [the message of salvation and] with faith [believing it]?‡

3 Are you so foolish and senseless? Having begun [your new life by faith] with the Spirit, are you now being perfected and reaching spiritual maturity by the flesh [that is, by your own works and efforts to keep the Law]?‡

4 Have you suffered so many things and experienced so much all for nothing—if indeed it was all for nothing?‡

5 So then, does He who supplies you with His [marvelous Holy] Spirit and works miracles among you, do it as a result of the works of the Law [which you perform], or because you [believe confidently in the message which you] heard with faith?

6—Just as Abraham BELIEVED G OD , AND IT WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS , [as conformity to God’s will and purpose—so it is with you also].  [Gen 15:6 ]‡

7—So understand that it is the people who live by faith [with confidence in the power and goodness of God] who are [the true] sons of Abraham.‡

8—The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the good news [of the Savior] to Abraham in advance [with this promise], saying, “I N YOU SHALL ALL THE NATIONS BE BLESSED .”  [Gen 12:3 ]‡

9 So then those who are people of faith [whether Jew or Gentile] are blessed and favored by God [and declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing with Him] along with Abraham, the believer.

10—For all who depend on the Law [seeking justification and salvation by obedience to the Law and the observance of rituals] are under a curse; for it is written, “C URSED (condemned to destruction) IS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW , SO AS TO PRACTICE THEM .”  [Deut 27:26.] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now it is clear that no one is justified [that is, declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing] before God by the Law, for “T HE RIGHTEOUS (the just, the upright) SHALL LIVE BY FAITH .”  [Hab 2:4.] ‡

<sup>12</sup> But the Law does not rest on or require faith [it has nothing to do with faith], but [instead, the Law] says, “H E WHO PRACTICES THEM [the things prescribed by the Law] SHALL LIVE BY THEM [instead of faith].”  [Lev 18:5.] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Christ purchased our freedom and redeemed us from the curse of the Law and its condemnation by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, “C URSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS [crucified] ON A TREE (cross)”—  [Deut 21:23.] ‡

<sup>14</sup> in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might also come to the Gentiles, so that we would all receive [the realization of] the promise of the [Holy] Spirit through faith. ‡

Intent of the Law

<sup>15</sup> Brothers and sisters, I speak in terms of human relations: even though a last will and testament is just a human covenant, yet when it has been signed and made legally binding, no one sets it aside or adds to it [modifying it in some way]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Now the promises [in the covenants] were decreed to Abraham and to his seed. God does not say, “And to seeds (descendants, heirs),” as if [referring] to many [persons], but as to one, “And to your Seed,” who is [none other than] Christ.  [Gen 13:15 ; 17:8.] ‡

<sup>17</sup> This is what I mean: the Law, which came into existence four hundred and thirty years later [after the covenant concerning the coming Messiah], does not and cannot invalidate the covenant previously established by God, so as to abolish the promise.  [Ex 12:40.] ‡

<sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance [of what was promised] is based on [observing] the Law [as these false teachers claim], it is no longer based on a promise; however, God granted it to Abraham [as a gift] by virtue of His promise. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Why, then, the Law [what was its purpose]? It was added [after the promise to Abraham, to reveal to people their guilt] because of transgressions [that is, to make people conscious of the sinfulness of sin], and [the Law] was ordained through angels and delivered to Israel by the hand of a mediator [Moses, the mediator between God and Israel, to be in effect] until the Seed would come to whom the promise had been made. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Now the mediator or go-between [in a transaction] is not [needed] for just one party; whereas God is only one [and was the only One giving the promise to Abraham, but the Law was a contract between two, God and Israel; its validity depended on both]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a system of law had been given which could impart life, then righteousness (right standing with God) would actually have been based on law.

<sup>22</sup> But the Scripture has imprisoned everyone [everything—the entire world] under sin, so that [the inheritance, the blessing of salvation] which was promised through faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe [in Him and acknowledge Him as God's precious Son]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Now before faith came, we were kept in custody under the Law, [perpetually] imprisoned [in preparation] for the faith that was destined to be revealed,

<sup>24</sup> with the result that the Law has become our tutor and our disciplinarian to guide us to Christ, so that we may be justified [that is, declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing with God] by faith. ‡

<sup>25</sup> But now that faith has come, we are no longer under [the control and authority of] a tutor and disciplinarian.

<sup>26</sup> For you [who are born-again have been reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, sanctified and] are all children of God [set apart for His purpose with full rights and privileges] through faith in Christ Jesus. ‡

<sup>27</sup> For all of you who were baptized into Christ [into a spiritual union with the Christ, the Anointed] have clothed yourselves with Christ [that is, you have taken on His characteristics and values]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> There is [now no distinction in regard to salvation] neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you [who believe] are all one in Christ Jesus [no one can claim a spiritual superiority].  [Rom 3:22; 1 Cor 12:13 ] ‡

<sup>29</sup> And if you belong to Christ [if you are in Him], then you are Abraham's descendants, and [spiritual] heirs according to [God's] promise. ‡

Sonship in Christ

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHAT I mean [when I talk about children and their guardians] is this: as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ at all from a slave even though he is the [future owner and] master of all [the estate];

<sup>2</sup> but he is under [the authority of] guardians and household administrators or managers until the date set by his father [when he is of legal age].

<sup>3</sup> So also we [whether Jews or Gentiles], when we were children (spiritually immature), were kept like slaves under the elementary [man-made religious or philosophical] teachings of the world. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But when [in God's plan] the proper time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the [regulations of the] Law, ‡

<sup>5</sup> so that He might redeem and liberate those who were under the Law, that we [who believe] might be adopted as sons [as God's children with all rights as fully grown members of a family].  [Rom 11:17-24. ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> And because you [really] are [His] sons, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba! Father!" ‡

<sup>7</sup> Therefore you are no longer a slave (bond-servant), but a son; and if a son, then also an heir through [the gracious act of] God [through Christ]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> But at that time, when you did not know [the true] God and were unacquainted with Him, you [Gentiles] were slaves to those [pagan] things which by [their very] nature were not and could not be gods at all. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Now, however, since you have come to know [the true] God [through personal experience], or rather to be known by God, how is it that you are turning back again to the weak and worthless elemental principles [of religions and philosophies], to which you want to be enslaved all over again? ‡

<sup>10</sup> [For example,] you observe [particular] days and months and seasons and years. ‡

<sup>11</sup> I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored [to the point of exhaustion] over you in vain. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Believers, I beg of you, become as I am [free from the bondage of Jewish ritualism and ordinances], for I have become as you are [a Gentile]. You did me no wrong [when I first came to you; do not do it now]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> On the contrary, you know that it was because of a physical illness that I [remained and] preached the gospel to you the first time; ‡

<sup>14</sup> and even though my physical condition was a trial to you, you did not regard it with contempt, or scorn and reject me; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus Himself. ‡

<sup>15</sup> What then has become of that sense of blessing and the joy that you once had [from your salvation and your relationship with Christ]? For I testify of you that, if possible, you would have torn out your own eyes and given them to me [to replace mine].

<sup>17</sup> These men [the Judaizers] eagerly seek you [to entrap you with honeyed words and attention, to win you over to their philosophy], not honorably [for their purpose is not honorable or worthy of consideration]. They want to isolate you [from us who oppose them] so that you will seek them. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Now it is always pleasant to be eagerly sought after [provided that it is] for a good purpose, and not just when I am with you [seeking you myself—but beware of the others doing it].

<sup>19</sup> My little children, for whom I am again in [the pains of] labor until Christ is [completely and permanently] formed within you—‡

<sup>20</sup> how I wish that I were with you now and could change my tone, because I am perplexed in regard to you.

Bond and Free

<sup>21</sup> Tell me, you who are bent on being under the Law, do you not listen to [what] the Law [really says]?

<sup>22</sup> For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman [Hagar] and one by the free woman [Sarah].  [Gen 16:15; 21:2, 9.] ‡

<sup>23</sup> But the child of the slave woman was born according to the flesh and had an ordinary birth, while the son of the free woman was born in fulfillment of the promise. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Now these facts are about to be used [by me] as an allegory [that is, I will illustrate by using them]: for these women can represent two covenants: one [covenant originated] from Mount Sinai [where the Law was given] that bears children [destined] for slavery; she is Hagar. ‡

“R EJOICE , O BARREN WOMAN WHO HAS NOT GIVEN BIRTH ;
B REAK FORTH INTO A [joyful] SHOUT , YOU WHO ARE NOT IN LABOR ;
F OR THE DESOLATE WOMAN HAS MANY MORE CHILDREN

T HAN SHE WHO HAS A HUSBAND .”  [Is 54:1 ]

<sup>29</sup> But as at that time the child [of ordinary birth] born according to the flesh persecuted the son who was born according to [the promise and working of] the Spirit, so it is now also.  [Gen 21:9 ] ‡

“C AST OUT THE BONDWOMAN [Hagar] AND HER SON [Ishmael], F OR NEVER SHALL THE SON OF THE BONDWOMAN BE HEIR and SHARE THE INHERITANCE WITH THE SON OF THE FREE
WOMAN .”  [Gen 21:10 ]

<sup>31</sup> So then, believers, we [who are born again—reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose] are not children of a slave woman [the natural], but of the free woman [the supernatural]. ‡

Walk by the Spirit

<sup>1</sup> IT WAS for this freedom that Christ set us free [completely liberating us]; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery [which you once removed]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Notice, it is I, Paul, who tells you that if you receive circumcision [as a supposed requirement of salvation], Christ will be of no benefit to you [for you will lack the faith in Christ that is necessary for salvation]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Once more I solemnly affirm to every man who receives circumcision [as a supposed requirement of salvation], that he is under obligation and required to keep the whole Law. ‡

<sup>4</sup> You have been severed from Christ, if you seek to be justified [that is, declared free of the guilt of sin and its penalty, and placed in right standing with God] through the Law; you have fallen from grace [for you have lost your grasp on God’s unmerited favor and blessing]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For we [not relying on the Law but] through the [strength and power of the Holy] Spirit, by faith, are waiting [confidently] for the hope of righteousness [the completion of our salvation]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> You were running [the race] well; who has interfered and prevented you from obeying the truth? ‡

<sup>10</sup> I have confidence in you in the Lord that you will adopt no other view [contrary to mine on the matter]; but the one who is disturbing you, whoever he is, will have to bear the penalty. ‡

<sup>11</sup> But as for me, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision [as I had done before I met Christ; and as some accuse me of doing now, as necessary for salvation], why am I still being persecuted [by Jews]? In that case the stumbling block of the cross [to unbelieving Jews] has been abolished. ‡

<sup>12</sup> I wish that those who are troubling you [by teaching that circumcision is necessary for salvation] would even [go all the way and] castrate themselves! ‡

<sup>13</sup>-For you, my brothers, were called to freedom; only do not let your freedom become an opportunity for the sinful nature (worldliness, selfishness), but through love serve and seek the best for one another. ‡

<sup>14</sup>-For the whole Law [concerning human relationships] is fulfilled in one precept, “YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF [that is, you shall have an unselfish concern for others and do things for their benefit].”  [Lev 19:18] ‡

<sup>15</sup> But if you bite and devour one another [in bickering and strife], watch out that you [along with your entire fellowship] are not consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup>-But I say, walk habitually in the [Holy] Spirit [seek Him and be responsive to His guidance], and then you will certainly not carry out the desire of the sinful nature [which responds impulsively without regard for God and His precepts]. ‡

<sup>17</sup>-For the sinful nature has its desire which is opposed to the Spirit, and the [desire of the] Spirit opposes the sinful nature; for these [two, the sinful nature and the Spirit] are in direct opposition to each other [continually in conflict], so that you [as believers] do not [always] do whatever [good things] you want to do. ‡

<sup>18</sup> But if you are guided and led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the Law. ‡

<sup>21</sup> envy, drunkenness, riotous behavior, and other things like these. I warn you beforehand, just as I did previously, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. ‡

<sup>24</sup> And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature together with its passions and appetites. ‡

<sup>25</sup> If we [claim to] live by the [Holy] Spirit, we must also walk by the Spirit [with personal integrity, godly character, and moral courage—our conduct empowered by the Holy Spirit]. ‡

Galatians 6

Bear One Another's Burdens

<sup>1</sup> BROTHERS, IF anyone is caught in any sin, you who are spiritual [that is, you who are responsive to the guidance of the Spirit] are to restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness [not with a sense of superiority or self-righteousness], keeping a watchful eye on yourself, so that you are not tempted as well. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For if anyone thinks he is something [special] when [in fact] he is nothing [special except in his own eyes], he deceives himself. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Do not be deceived, God is not mocked [He will not allow Himself to be ridiculed, nor treated with contempt nor allow His precepts to be scornfully set aside]; for whatever a man sows, this and this only is what he will reap. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Let us not grow weary or become discouraged in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap, if we do not give in. ‡

<sup>10</sup> So then, while we [as individual believers] have the opportunity, let us do good to all people [not only being helpful, but also doing that which promotes their spiritual well-being], and especially [be a blessing] to those of the household of faith (born-again believers). ‡

<sup>12</sup> Those who want to make a good impression in public [before the Jews] try to compel you to be circumcised, just so they will escape being persecuted for [faithfulness to] the cross of Christ. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For even the circumcised [Jews] themselves do not [really] keep the Law, but they want to have you circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh [that is, in the fact that they convinced you to be circumcised].

<sup>14</sup> But far be it from me to boast [in anything or anyone], except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For neither is circumcision anything [of any importance], nor uncircumcision, but [only] a new creation [which is the result of a new birth—a spiritual transformation—a new nature in Christ Jesus]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Peace and mercy be upon all who walk by this rule [who discipline themselves and conduct their lives by this principle], and upon the [true] Israel of God (Jewish believers).  [Ps 125:5.] ‡

<sup>17</sup> From now on let no one trouble me [by making it necessary for me to justify my authority as an apostle, and the absolute truth of the gospel], for I bear on my body the branding-marks of Jesus [the wounds, scars, and other outward evidence of persecutions—these testify to His ownership of me]. ‡

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers and sisters. Amen. ‡

Annotations for Galatians

1:1 an apostle. Paul calls himself this title to assert his divinely given authority to speak to the problem confronting the Galatian churches. through Jesus Christ—the Messiah—and God the Father. Paul makes reference to his unique call to be an apostle (vv. 15–16) which came to him at the same time as his salvation on the road to Damascus (Ac 26:12–18).

1:2 To the churches of Galatia. Galatians is a circular letter, intended for several churches.

1:3 Grace to you and peace. These words are a variation from the standard greeting of ancient letters in Paul's time. Paul adds the Greek word for the traditional Hebrew greeting, "peace."

1:4 rescue us from this present evil age. This passage is similar to Colossians 1:13, which states, "For He has rescued us and has drawn us to Himself from the dominion of darkness, and has transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son." Both passages develop this truth based on Christ's redemptive work (Col 1:14), implying that the word "rescue" refers to sanctification in the face of temptations of this present age.

1:6–7 astonished. Use of this word reveals Paul's ongoing shock at the Galatians' defection from the gospel of God's undeserved grace. The Galatians had unwittingly fallen for a different message.

1:8–9 if anyone. Paul's concern for the purity of the gospel message is revealed by his assertion that he would condemn to destruction anyone who taught a false gospel.

1:10 seeking to please someone. This was neither Paul's motivation nor the source of his authority (v. 1). Paul continually sought the approval of God. He did not base his decisions on the opinions of other people. Instead he single-mindedly aimed at pleasing God (Php 3:14).

1:13–14 manner of life in Judaism. This refers to the Jewish way of life, which was based partly on the Old Testament and partly on additional traditions (Mt 15:2).

1:15–17 chosen me and set me apart . . . called me through His grace. Paul related that God had chosen him to be an apostle (v. 1) before his birth, not unlike Jeremiah's call to be a prophet (Jer 1:5). Paul, like the Judaizers in Galatia, had previously tried to earn his salvation by works (v. 14). He needed no human validation because of the way he had received his message.

[1:19 James, the \[half\] brother of the Lord.](#) This reference indicates that the "apostles" were not always restricted to "the twelve."

2:1 fourteen years. This timeframe may refer to twelve full years plus fractions of the first and last years (1:18). The span could date from Paul's previous visit to Jerusalem, but more likely from his conversion.

2:3 Titus. One of Paul's companions was a kind of "test-case" Gentile. circumcised. This term introduces a central topic of the Jewish false teachers, one which Paul addresses repeatedly in Galatians (5:2–3 ,6). Unlike Timothy, whom Paul had circumcised because Timothy's mother was Jewish, Titus was not circumcised. Circumcising him would have been a sign to all other Gentiles that following Jewish law was required for a person to become a Christian. As Paul explains in this letter, circumcising Titus would be a rejection of the good news that salvation is God's gift to those who believe in His Son.

2:4 false brothers. This phrase apparently indicates that, although these people passed themselves off convincingly as Christians, there was reason to view their profession as a sham. These pseudo-Christians did not announce their purpose, which was to curtail Christian liberty (5:1 ,13).

2:6 those who were of high reputation. While Paul recognized the leadership roles of James, Peter, and John, he pointed out that they were in no way superior to him in their understanding of the gospel.

2:7–10 uncircumcised . . . circumcised. There were not two different gospels. Rather, the primary scope of Paul's apostolic ministry was to the Gentiles (Ro 11:13), while Peter's apostleship was, first and foremost, targeted toward the Jews. remember the poor. Almost certainly, this is a reference to the poor among the church in Judea (Ac 11:29–30).

2:11–12 Antioch. This city was the largest of the Roman province of Syria. It became a center for missionary outreach to other Gentile cities in Asia Minor and Macedonia (Ac 13:1–3).

2:14 they were not being straightforward about the truth of the gospel. Peter's hypocritical example implied that Gentiles had to behave like Jews in order to receive God's grace. It had already been decided (vv. 1–5) that it was not proper to compel Gentiles to live as Jews, because salvation was through faith alone.

2:15–17 We are Jews by birth. Paul is not denying that those who are Jews by birth are sinners, as are all Gentiles (Ro 3:23). Rather he is implying that Jews enjoy spiritual privileges (Ro 9:4–5) that should make them more knowledgeable about how to be justified before God (3:6; Ge 15:6). The Jews should have been aware that no person can be declared righteous or justified by obedience to the law of Moses (3:10–21).

2:17–19 make Christ an advocate or promoter of our sin. Paul strongly rejects the erroneous conclusion that being justified by faith in Christ actually made Jews sinners. Those who attempt to be justified through "the works of the law" are "under a curse" (3:10). If anyone attempts to reassert the "works of the law" as having any part in the justification before God, the law itself convicts that person. The law itself is not sinful; its purpose is to convince individuals of their personal, spiritual deadness in sin outside of faith in Christ (Ro 7:7–13).

3:1 O you foolish and thoughtless and superficial Galatians. This phrase does not indicate lack of intelligence, but lack of wisdom. Paul wonders whether something like an evil spell had prevented the Galatians from recalling the gospel of the crucified Christ.

3:3 Having begun [your new life by faith] with the Spirit . . . now being perfected and reaching spiritual maturity by the flesh. The Galatians were mistakenly trying to achieve perfection through their own efforts, especially through circumcision.

3:6 Abraham BELIEVED GOD. There are several reasons for Paul's reference to Abraham's faith as an example: (1) Abraham was the father of the Jewish nation (Ge 12:1–3); (2) Abraham is the clearest example of justification in the Old Testament; (3) the Judaizers almost certainly were pointing back to Abraham, probably in connection with circumcision (2:3; 5:2–3). The example of Abraham's faith is also developed in Romans 4 and Hebrews 11.

3:7 the people who live by faith. These are the spiritual sons of Abraham, even if they are not Jews. They are part of God's people.

3:8–9 Scripture. Here, Scripture is personified as a preacher who foretells that Abraham and his example of faith (Ge 15:6) would become a life-changing blessing to all nations (Ge 12:3; Mt 28:19) as the gospel spread. All who have faith, as Abraham did, join in his "blessed" status.

3:10 CURSED (condemned to destruction) IS EVERYONE. The quotation from Deuteronomy 27:26 says that those who do not keep the whole law are cursed, proving that all are cursed who follow the law, because all fall short of the law's standards (Ro 1:17; 3:10,18,23).

3:13 the curse of the Law. Paul knew that many of his readers would perceive that they were actually under the curse of the law. For them, as for us, it is incredibly comforting to know that Christ became that curse for us on the cross (Dt 21:23).

3:16 to Abraham and to his seed. Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the covenant (v. 15) God made with Abraham. Although in one sense all Jews are the physical seed of Abraham, Christ is the final focus of God's promises, the ultimate seed.

3:19–20 Why, then, the Law [what was its purpose]? The purpose of the law of Moses was not to justify humankind in God's eyes (2:16). Rather, the law was added after God's promise to Abraham to clarify the issue of sin until Christ, the seed, came.

3:21–22 Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? The relationship of the law and the promises is one of need and fulfillment. The law was not designed by God to give eternal life and righteousness. Rather, the law showed humanity's need for the promise of life through faith in Jesus Christ (v. 9; 2:16).

3:23–25 kept in custody under the Law . . . tutor and disciplinarian. Paul gives two different illustrations concerning the function of the law until Christ came (4:4–5). The law acted as a jailor to hold humankind in custody until faith in Christ was revealed. But the law also served as a teacher. A teacher in ancient Greek culture would accompany the children in his care, instructing and disciplining them when necessary. The law was like a teacher because it both corrected and instructed the Israelites in God's ways until Christ was revealed and such a schoolmaster was no longer needed (4:1–2).

3:28 There is . . . neither Jew nor Greek. The context of this verse is justification by faith in Christ Jesus. Racial, social, and gender distinctions that so easily divide in no way hinder a person from coming to Christ in order to receive His mercy. All people equally can become God's heirs and recipients of His eternal promises (4:5–7).

4:1–2 until the date set by his father. In ancient society a child had to wait until the proper time before he could inherit what was his. Paul uses this idea to explain why God delayed Jesus Christ's coming, leaving people with His law as a guide (3:23–25).

4:4–5 born under the [regulations of the] Law. This means Christ was subject to the Jewish law (Mt 5:17–19), further establishing His identification with all people who are subject to the law. redeem. This verb was used in the context of buying from a slave market. It describes Christ's supreme and final payment for the sins of humanity. His death on the cross frees those who believe in Him from the curse of the law and slavery to sin. This decisive payment and resulting freedom clear the way for Christians to become God's sons.

4:6 God has sent the Spirit. Just as "God sent His Son" when "the proper time had fully come" in world history (v. 4), so God has also sent the Spirit at just the right time for every person who believes in Christ.

4:9 how is it that you are turning back again. The Galatians had come to know God through faith in Jesus Christ (Jn 17:2–3). He had adopted them as His own sons, but they were turning back to the law that had once enslaved them.

4:12 I beg of you. To get beyond the present dilemma, Paul appeals to the Galatians to follow his example (1Co 11:1). He had abandoned the ceremonial rules and regulations connected with Judaism so that he could freely preach the gospel of Christ to Jew and Gentile alike in the cities of Galatia. They too should not hinder the gospel of Christ with laws and regulations.

4:17–18 They want to isolate you. Paul was strongly implying that the false teachers in Galatia were making the same mistake he had made prior to his conversion. Their zeal for the law was blinding them to the freedom and truth to be found in Jesus Christ.

4:19 My little children. Paul calls the Galatians children because of their lack of spiritual growth and depth. The apostle also portrays himself as the Galatians' "spiritual mother." He was feeling the labor pains of their birth all over again because they had fallen into serious error.

4:21–22 slave woman . . . free woman. To clinch his argument about the bondage of the law and freedom found in Christ, Paul uses as examples the two sons of Abraham, Ishmael and Isaac. Ishmael was born of a slave woman, Hagar, and Isaac was born of Sarah, a free woman (Ge 16:15; 21:2). Paul counters the Jewish false teachers' zeal for the law with an argument based on the Law, the Pentateuch.

He uses allegory to prove his point because it was a rhetorical technique the false teachers used. In other words, Paul was demonstrating that he could argue from the law just as well as they could, but to prove that the law of Moses pointed to the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

4:26 Jerusalem above. This phrase represents the Jewish hope of heaven finally coming to earth (Rev 21:22 ). Paul was strongly implying that the question at hand was not allegiance to Jerusalem, but allegiance to which Jerusalem—the new or the old? Would the Galatians follow the shortsighted present Jerusalem and its legalism or the liberty of the heavenly Jerusalem?

4:28–30 And we, [believing] brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children . . . of promise. This portion of Paul's allegory is based on Genesis 21:9–10 . Isaac was continually persecuted by his older half brother Ishmael. Eventually, Ishmael and his mother Hagar were expelled because Ishmael had no standing in God's eyes as an heir of Abraham. In creating a parallel between the story from Genesis and the Galatians' situation, Paul points out that (1) the persecution by the Jewish legalists of his day was not unexpected, and (2) it would not go on indefinitely because the legalists would soon be cast out.

4:31–5:1 So then. This phrase represents the conclusion of the previous section, while “therefore” signals that Paul is going to apply this spiritual truth to the lives of the Galatian believers.

5:2–3 if you receive circumcision. The legalistic Jewish teachers in Galatia were urging believers to be circumcised (6:12–13 ). Paul points out that circumcision would change the entire orientation of salvation away from God's grace to one's own actions. One who is circumcised in an attempt to gain God's acceptance is obligated to keep the whole law, which history has abundantly demonstrated no one can do (Ro 3:10–18 ).

5:5 hope of righteousness. We can be assured that we will be declared righteous before the Lord on that last day because we have a foretaste of that righteousness from the Spirit who lives within us (2Co 5:5 ).

5:9–10 leaven. This symbolizes the intruders, with their false doctrine and its sinister influence. They were taking the gospel of free forgiveness away from the Galatians. The one who causes such harm will experience God's judgment (2Co 5:10 ).

5:11 the stumbling block of the cross. The cross is a stumbling block to people because it proclaims God's unmerited grace and leaves no place for people's good works.

5:13 freedom. Christian liberty is the freedom to serve one another in love (vv. 5–6 ). As we grow in our knowledge of the Word of God, understand and apply its meaning, we should increasingly be involved in serving God and our fellow believers. The Spirit of God has given us spiritual gifts, but those gifts are worthless unless they are used in the service of God and His church. Paul often uses the figure of the human body to show the importance of each part serving the others (Ro 12:4–5 ; 1Co 12:12–31 ). While some parts of the body have more prominent places of service than others, all are equally important. To maintain strength, health, and vitality, every part of the body must function and serve all the other parts of the body. This is also true of the spiritual or new life. We will grow in the new life, become strong, and maintain good spiritual health as we use the talents and abilities that God has given us to meet the needs of the other parts of the body.

5:14 the whole Law. The Christian does not live under the law of Moses, but instead under “the law of Christ” (6:2 ). Living in Christ empowers us to love others, which is the fulfillment of the law (Mt 22:36–40 ).

5:16 walk habitually in the [Holy] Spirit. The only consistent way to overcome the sinful desires of our human nature (the flesh) is to live step-by-step in the power of the Holy Spirit as He works through our spirit.

5:17 the sinful nature has its desire which is opposed to the Spirit. The potential of the sinful nature energized by Satan in the life of the Christian should not be underestimated. Given free rein, the sinful nature will direct our choices, making us do what we know we should not do. This inner conflict between the sinful nature and the Spirit is very real. Although the precise meaning of sinful nature is unclear, Paul's intent is plain. The desires of our sinful nature are at odds with what the Holy Spirit desires for us: to be free from sin.

5:19–21 The Human Condition— The last part of Galatians 5 contrasts practices of the sinful nature with fruit of the Spirit. The practices of the sinful nature here are represented by those kinds of activities that are characteristic of our old natures. Without God, our lives are dominated by these more obvious sins and less obvious sinful attitudes. It is our sinful nature to be this way. Those who operate with these sins as a regular part of their lives, with no sense of guilt, demonstrate their need for salvation. It is the role of the Spirit to change these sinful behaviors. Paul points out that, if changes are not occurring, then there is a need for the Spirit that comes with the gift of salvation. Go to Theological Notes Index

The Fruit of the Spirit

The aspects of the fruit of the Spirit advocated by Paul in Galatians 5:22–23 occur not only here but also elsewhere in the Scriptures. Most of the attributes are those by which God himself lives.

Aspect: love

GK Number: 26

Definition: sacrificial, unmerited deeds to help a needy person

5:22–24 The New Nature— While the deeds of the sinful nature portray a disintegrating life, the fruit of the Spirit describes a life where things are working harmoniously. It points to qualities of personality and to behaviors that make us function as better people. It points to what God wants to see in us and should see in us as we mature in the faith. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:22 fruit of the Spirit. This analogy is reminiscent of Jesus' teaching on the vine, branches, and fruitful harvest.

5:24 have crucified the sinful nature. Those who have mastered these sinful desires are those who have kept their focus on God (Jer 9:23–24; Da 11:32; Jn 17:3; Heb 12:1–3).

6:1 restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness. A believer devastated by sin needs to be approached gently by fellow believers.

6:2 the law of Christ. This phrase is probably referring to the summation of the law: "Love your neighbor" (5:14; Mt 22:39; Jn 13:34–35). Bearing the burdens of one another is precisely what Christ expects of all believers. The Greek word for burdens refers to something beyond the normal capacity to carry.

6:7–8 the one who sows to his flesh. The principle of sowing and reaping was known to everyone in a largely agricultural society. It would be foolish for Christians to think that they could escape the harvest of destruction and judgment if they persist in sin. ruin and destruction. This is a term used for a field in which the produce is too rotten to harvest (Heb 6:8 ). the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. This does not mean that everlasting life is earned by works. Rather, Paul is saying that everlasting life is the glorious end of those who follow the guidance of the Spirit (Ro 6:22 ). Jesus said that He came so that we might have life and have it more abundantly (Jn 10:10 ). In this life, through the indwelling of the Spirit, Christians are developing a capacity to experience Christ to the fullest in the life to come.

6:9 doing good. The apostle has argued at length that such works cannot justify (2:16 ) or sanctify (3:3 ) anyone. However, good works are, in fact, an important fruit of the life of faith (5:5 ) that God has planned for each believer (Eph 2:8-10 ).

6:12 make a good impression. The Judaizers were trying to appear spiritual by becoming circumcised and demanding that others become circumcised (5:2-12 ). By teaching that all Christians should become circumcised, the Judaizers were trying to make Christianity into a sect of Judaism. This would have two advantages. First, they could counter the persecution that they suffered from the zealous Jews. Second, they could include themselves with an officially sanctioned religion of the Roman Empire, Judaism.

[6:13 even the circumcised \[Jews\] themselves do not \[really\] keep the Law.](#) The Judaizers knew that they were unable to keep the entire law even though they were required to do so. They still attempted to persuade the Galatians to be circumcised so that they could boast about having them as their followers.

[6:16 the \[true\] Israel of God.](#) This probably refers to the remnant of believing Jews (Ro 11:1-2 ,7 ). They are Abraham's spiritual descendants (3:6-9 ) because they believe in God and rely on His grace.

6:17 I bear on my body. Paul's scars branded him as a slave for Christ (Ro 1:1 ). Such marks far outweighed the "mark" of circumcision so valued by the false teachers in Galatia (vv. 12-15 ).

The Letter of Paul to the # Ephesians

- ▶ AUTHOR: All internal and external evidence strongly supports the Pauline authorship of Ephesians. In recent years, however, critics have turned to internal grounds to challenge this unanimous ancient tradition. It has been argued that the vocabulary and style are different from other Pauline epistles, but this overlooks Paul's flexibility under different circumstances (as in Romans and 2 Corinthians). The theology of Ephesians in some ways reflects a later development, but this must be attributed to Paul's own growth and meditation on the church as the body of Christ. Ephesians was written during his first Roman imprisonment in AD 60–62, perhaps around the same time as Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon.
- ▶ TIMES: c. AD 60–61
- ▶ KEY VERSES: Eph 4:1–3
- ▶ THEME: Ephesians is like a grand landscape whose subject is the whole world. Paul paints a richly textured picture of God's plan to bless the world through Christ. God is bringing light to darkness, healing to brokenness and reconciliation to the separated. Central to this teaching is the role of the church in the world and the gifts God has given it. God will bring about these things through the church. Once we understand and believe all that God has done and is doing, it is our responsibility to obey and live in light of His actions. Paul gives us much more than the theory in Ephesians. He makes critical connections between big picture theology and the practical implications for living the day-to-day Christian life.

The Blessings of Redemption

To the saints (God's people) who are at Ephesus and are faithful and loyal and steadfast in Christ Jesus:

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>3</sup>-Blessed and worthy of praise be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms in Christ, ‡

<sup>4</sup>-just as [in His love] He chose us in Christ [actually selected us for Himself as His own] before the foundation of the world, so that we would be holy [that is, consecrated, set apart for Him, purpose-driven] and blameless in His sight. In love ‡

<sup>5</sup> He predestined and lovingly planned for us to be adopted to Himself as [His own] children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the kind intention and good pleasure of His will— ‡

<sup>6</sup> to the praise of His glorious grace and favor, which He so freely bestowed on us in the Beloved [His Son, Jesus Christ]. ‡

<sup>7</sup>-In Him we have redemption [that is, our deliverance and salvation] through His blood, [which paid the penalty for our sin and resulted in] the forgiveness and complete pardon of our sin, in accordance with the riches of His grace ‡

<sup>8</sup> which He lavished on us. In all wisdom and understanding [with practical insight]

<sup>9</sup>-He made known to us the mystery of His will according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Christ, ‡

<sup>10</sup> with regard to the fulfillment of the times [that is, the end of history, the climax of the ages]—to bring all things together in Christ, [both] things in the heavens and things on the earth. ‡

<sup>11</sup> In Him also we have received an inheritance [a destiny—we were claimed by God as His own], having been predestined (chosen, appointed beforehand) according to the purpose of Him who works everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His will,‡

<sup>12</sup> so that we who were the first to hope in Christ [who first put our confidence in Him as our Lord and Savior] would exist to the praise of His glory.‡

<sup>13</sup> In Him, you also, when you heard the word of truth, the good news of your salvation, and [as a result] believed in Him, were stamped with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit [the One promised by Christ] as owned and protected [by God].  [John 7:39 ; Acts 2:33 ]‡

<sup>16</sup> I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers;‡

<sup>17</sup> [I always pray] that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may grant you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation [that gives you a deep and personal and intimate insight] into the true knowledge of Him [for we know the Father through the Son].‡

<sup>18</sup> And [I pray] that the eyes of your heart [the very center and core of your being] may be enlightened [flooded with light by the Holy Spirit], so that you will know and cherish the hope [the divine guarantee, the confident expectation] to which He has called you, the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints (God's people),‡

<sup>19</sup> and [so that you will begin to know] what the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His [active, spiritual] power is in us who believe. These are in accordance with the working of His mighty strength‡

<sup>21</sup>—far above all rule and authority and power and dominion [whether angelic or human], and [far above] every name that is named [above every title that can be conferred], not only in this age and world but also in the one to come.‡

Ephesians 2

Made Alive in Christ

<sup>1</sup> AND YOU [He made alive when you] were [spiritually] dead and separated from Him because of your transgressions and sins, ‡

<sup>2</sup>-in which you once walked. You were following the ways of this world [influenced by this present age], in accordance with the prince of the power of the air (Satan), the spirit who is now at work in the disobedient [the unbelieving, who fight against the purposes of God]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Among these [unbelievers] we all once lived in the passions of our flesh [our behavior governed by the sinful self], indulging the desires of human nature [without the Holy Spirit] and [the impulses] of the [sinful] mind. We were, by nature, children [under the sentence] of [God's] wrath, just like the rest [of mankind]. ‡

<sup>4</sup>-But God, being [so very] rich in mercy, because of His great and wonderful love with which He loved us, ‡

<sup>5</sup> even when we were [spiritually] dead and separated from Him because of our sins, He made us [spiritually] alive together with Christ (for by His grace —His undeserved favor and mercy—you have been saved from God's judgment).  [Rom 6:1–10] ‡

<sup>6</sup> And He raised us up together with Him [when we believed], and seated us with Him in the heavenly places, [because we are] in Christ Jesus, ‡

<sup>7</sup> [and He did this] so that in the ages to come He might [clearly] show the immeasurable and unsurpassed riches of His grace in [His] kindness toward us in Christ Jesus [by providing for our redemption]. ‡

<sup>8</sup>-For it is by grace [God's remarkable compassion and favor drawing you to Christ] that you have been saved [actually delivered from judgment and given eternal life] through faith. And this [salvation] is not of yourselves [not through your own effort], but it is the [undeserved, gracious] gift of God; ‡

<sup>9</sup> not as a result of [your] works [nor your attempts to keep the Law], so that no one will [be able to] boast or take credit in any way [for his salvation].

<sup>10</sup> For we are His workmanship [His own master work, a work of art], created in Christ Jesus [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, ready to be used] for good works, which God prepared [for us] beforehand [taking paths which He set], so that we would walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us].  [Rom

1:20] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, who are called “Uncircumcision” by those who called themselves “Circumcision,” [itself a mere mark] which is made in the flesh by human hands— ‡

<sup>12</sup> remember that at that time you were separated from Christ [excluded from any relationship with Him], alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise [with no share in the sacred Messianic promise and without knowledge of God’s agreements], having no hope [in His promise] and [living] in the world without God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> But now [at this very moment] in Christ Jesus you who once were [so very] far away [from God] have been brought near by the blood of Christ. ‡

<sup>14</sup> For He Himself is our peace and our bond of unity. He who made both groups —[Jews and Gentiles]— into one body and broke down the barrier, the dividing wall [of spiritual antagonism between us], ‡

<sup>15</sup> by abolishing in His [own crucified] flesh the hostility caused by the Law with its commandments contained in ordinances [which He satisfied]; so that in Himself He might make the two into one new man, thereby establishing peace. ‡

<sup>16</sup> And [that He] might reconcile them both [Jew and Gentile, united] in one body to God through the cross, thereby putting to death the hostility. ‡

<sup>17</sup> A ND H E CAME AND PREACHED THE GOOD NEWS OF PEACE TO YOU [Gentiles] WHO WERE FAR AWAY , AND PEACE TO THOSE [Jews] WHO WERE NEAR .  [Is 57:19 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> For it is through Him that we both have a [direct] way of approach in one Spirit to the Father. ‡

<sup>19</sup> So then you are no longer strangers and aliens [outsiders without rights of citizenship], but you are fellow citizens with the saints (God’s people), and are [members] of God’s household, ‡

<sup>20</sup> having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the [chief] Cornerstone, ‡

<sup>22</sup> In Him [and in fellowship with one another] you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit. ‡

Paul's Stewardship

<sup>1</sup> FOR THIS reason [because I preach that you and believing Jews are joint heirs] I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—‡

<sup>2</sup> assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was entrusted to me [to share with you] for your benefit; ‡

<sup>3</sup> and that by [divine] revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I have already written in brief.  [Eph 1:9 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> By referring to this, when you read it you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ,

<sup>5</sup> which in other generations was not disclosed to mankind, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the [Holy] Spirit; ‡

<sup>7</sup> Of this [gospel] I was made a minister by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of His power. ‡

<sup>8</sup> To me, [though I am] the very least of all the saints (God's people), this grace [which is undeserved] was graciously given, to proclaim to the Gentiles the good news of the incomprehensible riches of Christ [that spiritual wealth which no one can fully understand], ‡

<sup>9</sup> and to make plain [to everyone] the plan of the mystery [regarding the uniting of believing Jews and Gentiles into one body] which [until now] was kept hidden through the ages in [the mind of] God who created all things. ‡

<sup>10</sup> So now through the church the multifaceted wisdom of God [in all its countless aspects] might now be made known [revealing the mystery] to the [angelic] rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. ‡

<sup>11</sup> This is in accordance with [the terms of] the eternal purpose which He carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord,

<sup>12</sup> in whom we have boldness and confident access through faith in Him [that is, our faith gives us sufficient courage to freely and openly approach God through Christ]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> So I ask you not to lose heart at my sufferings on your behalf, for they are your glory and honor. ‡

<sup>14</sup> For this reason [grasping the greatness of this plan by which Jews and Gentiles are joined together in Christ] I bow my knees [in reverence] before the Father [of our Lord Jesus Christ],

<sup>15</sup> from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name [God—

the first and ultimate Father]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> May He grant you out of the riches of His glory, to be strengthened and spiritually energized with power through His Spirit in your inner self, [indwelling your innermost being and personality], ‡

<sup>17</sup> so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through your faith. And may you, having been [deeply] rooted and [securely] grounded in love, ‡

<sup>19</sup> and [that you may come] to know [practically, through personal experience] the love of Christ which far surpasses [mere] knowledge [without experience], that you may be filled up [throughout your being] to all the fullness of God [so that you may have the richest experience of God's presence in your lives, completely filled and flooded with God Himself]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Now to Him who is able to [carry out His purpose and] do superabundantly more than all that we dare ask or think [infinitely beyond our greatest prayers, hopes, or dreams], according to His power that is at work within us, ‡

<sup>21</sup> to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations forever and ever. Amen. ‡

Ephesians 4

Unity of the Spirit

<sup>1</sup> SO I, the prisoner for the Lord, appeal to you to live a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called [that is, to live a life that exhibits godly character, moral courage, personal integrity, and mature behavior—a life that expresses gratitude to God for your salvation], ‡

“W HEN H E ASCENDED ON HIGH ,
H E LED CAPTIVITY CAPTIVE ,
A ND H E BESTOWED GIFTS ON MEN .”  [Ps 68:18. ]

<sup>9</sup> (Now this expression, “He ascended,” what does it mean except that He also had previously descended [from the heights of heaven] into the lower parts of the earth? ‡

<sup>10</sup> He who descended is the very same as He who also has ascended high above all the heavens, that He [His presence] might fill all things [that is, the whole universe]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And [His gifts to the church were varied and] He Himself appointed some as apostles [special messengers, representatives], some as prophets [who speak a new message from God to the people], some as evangelists [who spread the good news of salvation], and some as pastors and teachers [to shepherd and guide and instruct], ‡

<sup>12</sup> [and He did this] to fully equip and perfect the saints (God's people) for works of service, to build up the body of Christ [the church]; ‡

<sup>13</sup> until we all reach oneness in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, [growing spiritually] to become a mature believer, reaching to the measure of the fullness of Christ [manifesting His spiritual completeness and exercising our spiritual gifts in unity]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> So that we are no longer children [spiritually immature], tossed back and forth [like ships on a stormy sea] and carried about by every wind of [shifting] doctrine, by the cunning and trickery of [unscrupulous] men, by the deceitful scheming of people ready to do anything [for personal profit]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But speaking the truth in love [in all things—both our speech and our lives expressing His truth], let us grow up in all things into Him [following His example] who is the Head—Christ. ‡

<sup>16</sup> From Him the whole body [the church, in all its various parts], joined and knitted firmly together by what every joint supplies, when each part is working properly, causes the body to grow and mature, building itself up in

[unselfish] love. ‡

The Christian's Walk

<sup>17</sup> So this I say, and solemnly affirm together with the Lord [as in His presence], that you must no longer live as the [unbelieving] Gentiles live, in the futility of their minds [and in the foolishness and emptiness of their souls]. ‡

<sup>18</sup> for their [moral] understanding is darkened and their reasoning is clouded; [they are] alienated and self-banished from the life of God [with no share in it; this is] because of the [willful] ignorance and spiritual blindness that is [deep-seated] within them, because of the hardness and insensitivity of their heart. ‡

<sup>21</sup> If in fact you have [really] heard Him and have been taught by Him, just as truth is in Jesus [revealed in His life and personified in Him],

<sup>22</sup>-that, regarding your previous way of life, you put off your old self [completely discard your former nature], which is being corrupted through deceitful desires, ‡

<sup>23</sup> and be continually renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh, untarnished mental and spiritual attitude], ‡

<sup>24</sup> and put on the new self [the regenerated and renewed nature], created in God's image, [godlike] in the righteousness and holiness of the truth [living in a way that expresses to God your gratitude for your salvation]. ‡

<sup>27</sup> And do not give the devil an opportunity [to lead you into sin by holding a grudge, or nurturing anger, or harboring resentment, or cultivating bitterness]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> The thief [who has become a believer] must no longer steal, but instead he must work hard [making an honest living], producing that which is good with his own hands, so that he will have something to share with those in need. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Do not let unwholesome [foul, profane, worthless, vulgar] words ever come out of your mouth, but only such speech as is good for building up others, according to the need and the occasion, so that it will be a blessing to those who hear [you speak]. ‡

<sup>30</sup> And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God [but seek to please Him], by whom you were sealed and marked [branded as God's own] for the day of redemption [the final deliverance from the consequences of sin].  [Eph 1:13, 14; Phil 3:20, 21 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> Be kind and helpful to one another, tender-hearted [compassionate, understanding], forgiving one another [readily and freely], just as God in Christ also forgave you. ‡

Ephesians 5

Be Imitators of God

<sup>2</sup> and walk continually in love [that is, value one another—practice empathy and compassion, unselfishly seeking the best for others], just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God [slain for you, so that it became] a sweet fragrance.  [Ezek 20:41 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> But sexual immorality and all [moral] impurity [indecent, offensive behavior] or greed must not even be hinted at among you, as is proper among saints [for as believers our way of life, whether in public or in private, reflects the validity of our faith]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Let there be no filthiness and silly talk, or coarse [obscene or vulgar] joking, because such things are not appropriate [for believers]; but instead speak of your thankfulness [to God]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For be sure of this: no immoral, impure, or greedy person—for that one is

[in effect] an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God [for such a person places a higher value on something other than God]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Let no one deceive you with empty arguments [that encourage you to sin], for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience [those who habitually sin].  [Lev 18:24, 25. ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> For once you were darkness, but now you are Light in the Lord; walk as children of Light [live as those who are native-born to the Light] ‡

<sup>9</sup> (for the fruit [the effect, the result] of the Light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth), ‡

<sup>10</sup> trying to learn [by experience] what is pleasing to the Lord [and letting your lifestyles be examples of what is most acceptable to Him—your behavior expressing gratitude to God for your salvation]. ‡

And arise from the dead,
And Christ will shine [as dawn] upon you and give you light.”

 [Is 26:19; 51:17; 52:1; 60:1, 2 ]

<sup>16</sup> making the very most of your time [on earth, recognizing and taking advantage of each opportunity and using it with wisdom and diligence], because the days are [filled with] evil. ‡

Prov 23:20] ‡

19 Speak to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [offering praise by] singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; ‡

20 always giving thanks to God the Father for all things, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; ‡

21 being subject to one another out of reverence for Christ. ‡

Marriage Like Christ and the Church

22 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as [a service] to the Lord. ‡

23 For the husband is head of the wife, as Christ is head of the church, Himself being the Savior of the body. ‡

24 But as the church is subject to Christ, so also wives should be subject to their husbands in everything [respecting both their position as protector and their responsibility to God as head of the house]. ‡

25 Husbands, love your wives [seek the highest good for her and surround her with a caring, unselfish love], just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her, ‡

26 so that He might sanctify the church, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word [of God], ‡

27 so that [in turn] He might present the church to Himself in glorious splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy [set apart for God] and blameless. ‡

28 Even so husbands should and are morally obligated to love their own wives as [being in a sense] their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself.

29 For no one ever hated his own body, but [instead] he nourishes and protects and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church,

30 because we are members (parts) of His body. ‡

31 F OR THIS REASON A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND HIS MOTHER AND SHALL BE JOINED [and be faithfully devoted] TO HIS WIFE , AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH . [ Gen 2:24 ] ‡

32 This mystery [of two becoming one] is great; but I am speaking with reference to [the relationship of] Christ and the church.

33 However, each man among you [without exception] is to love his wife as his very own self [with behavior worthy of respect and esteem, always seeking the best for her with an attitude of lovingkindness], and the wife

[must see to it] that she respects and delights in her husband [that she notices him and prefers him and treats him with loving concern, treasuring him, honoring him, and holding him dear].  [1 Pet 3:2 ] ‡

Family Relationships

<sup>2</sup> H ONOR [esteem, value as precious] YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER [and be respectful to them]—this is the first commandment with a promise— ‡

<sup>3</sup> SO THAT IT MAY BE WELL WITH YOU , AND THAT YOU MAY HAVE A LONG LIFE ON THE EARTH .  [Ex 20:12 ]

<sup>5</sup>-Slaves, be obedient to those who are your earthly masters, with respect for authority, and with a sincere heart [seeking to please them], as [service] to Christ— ‡

<sup>6</sup> not in the way of eye-service [working only when someone is watching you and only] to please men, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from your heart; ‡

<sup>7</sup> rendering service with goodwill, as to the Lord, and not [only] to men,

<sup>8</sup> knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive this back from the Lord, whether [he is] slave or free. ‡

<sup>9</sup> You masters, do the same [showing goodwill] toward them, and give up threatening and abusive words, knowing that [He who is] both their true Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with Him [regardless of one's earthly status]. ‡

The Armor of God

<sup>10</sup> In conclusion, be strong in the Lord [draw your strength from Him and be empowered through your union with Him] and in the power of His [boundless] might.

11-Put on the full armor of God [for His precepts are like the splendid armor of a heavily-armed soldier], so that you may be able to [successfully] stand up against all the schemes and the strategies and the deceits of the devil. ‡

12-For our struggle is not against flesh and blood [contending only with physical opponents], but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this [present] darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly (supernatural) places. ‡

13 Therefore, put on the complete armor of God, so that you will be able to [successfully] resist and stand your ground in the evil day [of danger], and having done everything [that the crisis demands], to stand firm [in your place, fully prepared, immovable, victorious]. ‡

14-So stand firm and hold your ground, HAVING TIGHTENED THE WIDE BAND OF TRUTH (personal integrity, moral courage) AROUND YOUR WAIST and HAVING PUT ON THE BREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS (an upright heart),  [Is 11:5] ‡

15-and having strapped on YOUR FEET THE GOSPEL OF PEACE IN PREPARATION [to face the enemy with firm-footed stability and the readiness produced by the good news].  [Is 52:7] ‡

16-Above all, lift up the [protective] shield of faith with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. ‡

17-And take THE HELMET OF SALVATION , and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.  [Is 59:17] ‡

18 With all prayer and petition pray [with specific requests] at all times [on every occasion and in every season] in the Spirit, and with this in view, stay alert with all perseverance and petition [interceding in prayer] for all God's people. ‡

19 And pray for me, that words may be given to me when I open my mouth, to proclaim boldly the mystery of the good news [of salvation], ‡

20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. And pray that in proclaiming it I may speak boldly and courageously, as I should. ‡

21-Now, so that you may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will tell you everything. ‡

22 I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know how we are, and that he may comfort and encourage and strengthen your hearts. ‡

23 Peace be to the brothers and sisters, and love joined with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

Annotations for Ephesians

1:1–2 saints. In the New Testament all believers are set apart by God in Christ. Grace be to you and peace. The salutations in the New Testament epistles follow the form of the typical first-century letter. The writer is mentioned first and the recipient next, followed by a blessing or best wishes for good health. The difference here lies in the content of the blessing: pagan letters mentioned non-existent gods and goddesses such as Diana or Apollo; the apostles call upon the one true God and His Son Jesus Christ to bless their readers.

1:3 every spiritual blessing. God does not guarantee health, wealth, and prosperity to the New Testament believer. The blessings of Christianity are largely spiritual.

1:4–5 love. In this instance the Greek agape is used. That love is a love that is by choice or one's will, not just a sentimental feeling. He predestinated and lovingly planned for us. Predestination is not a cold-hearted determinism or set fate, but rather a loving choice on God's part.

1:6 the Beloved. This title is messianic, referring to God's Son, Jesus.

1:7 redemption. The word means “buy back” or “ransom.” In ancient times, one could buy back a person who was sold into slavery. In the same way, Christ through His death bought us from our slavery to sin. His blood. The blood of Christ is the means by which our redemption comes. The Old Testament and the New both clearly teach that there is no forgiveness without the shedding of blood.

1:9 the mystery. This is not a puzzle to solve, or knowledge only for the few and the initiated, as in the mystery religions of Paul's day. In Paul's use, the word mystery refers to an aspect of God's will that was once hidden or obscure, but now was being revealed by God (Ro 11:25 ).

1:14 the guarantee [the first installment, the pledge, a foretaste] of our inheritance. The Greek word for earnest can also be used to indicate an engagement ring. As Christ is the bridegroom and the church is the bride, so the Holy Spirit is the down payment, the earnest money in the long-awaited marriage of the two (Rev 19:7 ). [purchased] possession. The Old Testament described the nation of Israel as God's special treasure, one He had purchased by His mighty acts of deliverance during the exodus (Ex 19:5 ). Here Paul describes Christians as a purchased possession, bought with the blood of Christ.

1:18–19 the eyes of your heart. This phrase refers to spiritual understanding. To describe this, Paul uses words that picture eyes that have been brightened with divine illumination.

1:21 not only in this age and world but also in the one to come. The Jews of Christ's time understood the end times to be divided into two time periods, the age in which they were living and the coming age. The Messiah, called “the Coming One,” would rule in the age which is to come.

2:2 in which you once walked. Walking is a biblical expression that pictures a believer's steady normal progress with God (Ps 1:1 ). Believers are saved so that they can have a lifestyle characterized by good works (v. 10 ). prince of the power of the air. This is a reference to Satan.

2:4–7 we were [spiritually] dead and separated from Him because of our sins. Because of Adam's sin, the entire human race is spiritually dead. Only God can grant new life and save us from this predicament. Out of His mercy, God gave His Son for us while we were yet His enemies. He loved us long before we loved Him (Jn 4:9–10 ).

2:8–10 you have been saved . . . through faith. The grace of God is the source of salvation; faith is the channel, not the cause. God alone saves. Salvation never originates in the efforts of people; it always arises out of the lovingkindness of God. the [undeserved, gracious] gift of God. We cannot do anything to earn our salvation.

2:14 the barrier, the dividing wall. This was vividly portrayed by an actual partition in the temple area, with a sign warning that any Gentile going beyond the Court of the Gentiles would receive swift and sudden death.

2:15 one new man. In the early days of Christianity, the church was largely made up of Jews. But, under the direction of God's Spirit, the believers witnessed to Gentiles (Ac 10 ), who then soon outnumbered the Jewish members. As the two groups learned to work together, they became something completely new.

2:20 the apostles and prophets. The early church was established on the teaching and preaching of the apostles. They were the foundation of the church.

2:21 joined together. This idea pictures the process in Roman construction whereby laborers would turn huge rocks around until they fit each other perfectly.

3:5–6 the Gentiles are now joint heirs. In Old Testament times people had only partial knowledge of God and His works. While Genesis pointed to the fact that God's grace would come to the Gentiles (Ge 12:3 ), no one understood that they would also be fully equal with the Jews.

3:10 multifaceted wisdom. God's ways are not only "mysterious," but also varied. Angels are also learning about God's wisdom as they watch His grace working in us (1Co 11:10 ).

3:17 Christ may dwell in your hearts. Christ actually resides or makes His home in the believer's heart.

3:21 The Purpose of the Church— The ultimate purpose of the church is to bring honor and glory to Jesus Christ. It does this as it fulfills its three purposes related to God's plan for the world. Go to Theological Notes Index

Worship— As the church worships, it continually declares to believers and the world God's view of reality. God is the world's Creator and Sustainer. Through Jesus Christ, God has redeemed the world and provided a way of salvation for people who rebel against Him.

Evangelism— The Great Commission in Matthew 28 clearly points to evangelism as a primary purpose for the church. "Teaching" implies that there is more to evangelism than simply declaring the good news. Evangelism should lead to discipleship, which involves the work of helping the new believer reach full maturity in Christ. This happens much as a parent raises children, nurturing them in every way possible so that they can grow. Christ makes baptism an important element in this process. In baptism, one indicates that he has been identified with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection and that he wishes to be identified with the church.

Edification— Ephesians 4:12 points to the fact that the saints need to be built up (that is equipped) to fully do the work of the church, namely the ministry of Christ to the world. This involves making believers aware of everything they have in Christ and how the Spirit's gifts enable them to serve the body of Christ effectively.

4:1 live a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called. The second half of Ephesians, like that of a number of Paul's epistles, emphasizes the behavior that should result from the doctrines or beliefs taught in the first half.

4:2 humility [forsaking self-righteousness], and gentleness [maintaining self-control], with patience. These are the attitudes that Jesus demonstrated when He was on earth (Php 2:5–8 ). These attitudes do not come naturally, but must be cultivated by the determination to place others above ourselves. Only the Spirit can empower us to treat people this way consistently.

4:3 Person of the Holy Spirit— Many people make the serious error of thinking of the Holy Spirit as only some kind of vague principle or an influence. On the contrary, the Holy Spirit is as much a person (individual existence of a conscious being) as the Father and the Son. Go to Theological Notes Index

The personality of the Holy Spirit. The Bible speaks of the mind (Ro 8:27 ) and will (1Co 2:11 ) of the Spirit. He is often described as speaking directly to men in the Book of Acts. During Paul's second missionary journey, the apostle was forbidden by the Spirit to visit a certain mission field (Ac 16:6–7) and then was instructed to proceed toward another field of service (Ac 16:10). It was God's Spirit who spoke directly to Christian leaders in the Antioch church, commanding them to send Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey (Ac 13:2).

The deity of the Holy Spirit. He is not only a distinct being, but He is also God. As is God the Father, He too is everywhere at once (Ps 139:7). As the Son is eternal, the Holy Spirit has also existed forever (Heb 9:14). He is often referred to as God in the Bible (Ac 5:3–4). Finally, the Holy Spirit is equal with the Father and Son. This is seen during the baptism of Christ (Mt 3:16–17) and is mentioned by Jesus Himself just prior to His ascension from the Mount of Olives (Mt 28:19–20).

4:7 grace [God's undeserved favor] was given . . . in proportion to the measure of Christ's [rich and abundant] gift. Like Peter (1Pe 4:10), Paul taught that all Christians have a spiritual gift or gifts. The gifts are given sovereignly by the ascended Christ in order to build up the church (1Co 12:11). Thus the body of Christ is to function like a machine in which every part is essential for getting a job done. But, unlike a machine, the body of Christ should maintain itself and build every one of its members up so that they can do good works (1Co 12:7).

4:8 W HEN H E ASCENDED ON HIGH. Paul quotes Psalm 68:18 to picture the ascended Messiah triumphant over Satan and his hosts, distributing spiritual gifts to His people.

4:11 apostles . . . prophets . . . evangelists . . . pastors and teachers. Apostles, meaning “envoys” or “ambassadors,” in its strict sense refers to those who saw Christ in resurrected form and were specially chosen by Christ to tell others about Him from their eyewitness accounts. Prophets delivered direct revelations from God. They foretold God’s actions in the future and they proclaimed what God had already said in the Scriptures. Evangelists play a major role in bringing people into the body of Christ. Pastors function as shepherds. They feed, nurture, care for, and protect the members of the body. The Greek ties in teacher with pastor.

4:12–13 fully equip and perfect the saints for works of service . . . to build up the body of Christ. Three stages of growth are presented here. Leaders are responsible to perfect, or equip. The well-equipped saints do the work of the ministry, and the result is that the body is built up. The final goal is maturity, truth, and love.

4:16 every joint . . . each part. There are no insignificant parts in the body (1Co 12:14–27). Anything that builds up believers and the church can be said to be edifying.

4:22–24 you put off your old self. Paul compares the Christian life to stripping off the dirty clothes of a sinful past and putting on the snowy white robes of Christ’s righteousness.

4:30 the Holy Spirit of God. We should never push away, ignore, or reject the Holy Spirit. If we would remember that the One who lives in us is God’s own Spirit, we would be much more selective about what we think, read, watch, say, and do.

5:1 Therefore become imitators of God. Believers are to follow the example of God’s actions. He loved us when we were still His enemies.

5:12 in secret. This verse effectively bans Christians from indulging in the modern preoccupation with examining the lurid details of evils such as the occult and other perverted practices.

5:16 making the very most of your time. This means taking advantage of opportunities for service. Paul exhorts us to use as much time as is possible for advancing Christ’s purposes in this world.

5:18 drunk with wine. Just as a person who is drunk is under the control of alcohol, so a Spirit-filled believer is controlled by the Spirit. filled. Filling is a step beyond the sealing of the Holy Spirit (1:13). Sealing is an action God took at the point of our new birth. The tense of the Greek word translated filled indicates that filling is a moment-by-moment repeatable action. To be filled with the Spirit is to be controlled by the Spirit and is therefore crucial to successfully living the Christian life. The imperative says that the believer is to be filled with the presence of the Spirit so that he comes to know

God in all His fullness, living in relationship with Him. Out of this relationship, the believer is able to manifest Christlike character. The certainty of being filled with the Spirit may be confirmed by the believer's faith and life. The believer must, of course, believe God's Word that meeting the conditions will result in the filling. The Spirit-filled person will exhibit the Christlike character described in Galatians 5:22–23 as the fruit of the Spirit. Included in that list are all the vibrant, attractive qualities desired by all Christians. Any Christian may be transformed by the filling of the Spirit and possess these qualities.

5:19 singing and making melody. Most believe that these words refer to three larger categories: (1) the 150 psalms in the Psalter, (2) hymns or compositions addressed directly to God, and (3) spiritual songs, hymns about the Christian experience.

5:21–22 being subject. Verse 21 completes the thought of the previous verses (vv. 18–20), which address how being filled with the Spirit manifests itself in the believer's life. It also introduces the next section (5:22–6:4), about how members of a Christian family should relate to each other. The Greek word for being subject does not refer to being under the absolute control of another but to voluntarily place oneself under the authority of another.

5:22–24 Wives, be subject. Just as Christ is not inferior to the Father, but is the second Person in the Trinity, so wives are equal to their own husbands. Yet, in a marriage relationship, a husband and wife have different roles. A wife's voluntary submission arises out of her own submission to Christ.

5:25 Husbands, love. Paul does not emphasize the husband's authority; instead, he calls on husbands to love self-sacrificially. Husbands are to emulate Christ's love, the kind of love that is willing to lay down one's life for another. Christ also loved the church. The relationship between Christ and the church was initiated by Christ, who loved the church and gave Himself for it. The details of that relationship are described with seven images:

“The Shepherd and the sheep” emphasizes both the warm leadership and protection of Christ and the helplessness and dependency of believers (Jn 10:1–18).

“The vine and the branches” points out the necessity for Christians to depend on Christ's sustaining strength for growth (Jn 15:1–8).

“Christ as high priest” and “the church as a kingdom of priests” stress the joyful worship, fellowship, and service which the church can render to God through Christ (Heb 5:1–10; 7:1; 8:6; 1Pe 2:5–9).

“The cornerstone and building stones” (Mt 21:42) accents the foundational value of Christ to everything the church is and does, as well as Christ's value to the unity of believers. Love is to be the mortar which solidly holds the living stones together (1Co 3:9; 13:1–13; Eph 2:19–22; 1Pe 2:5).

“The head and many-membered body,” the church is a vibrant organism, not merely an organization; it draws its vitality and direction from Christ, the Head, and each believer has a unique and necessary place in its growth (1Co 12:12–13, 27; Eph 4:4).

“The last Adam and new creation” presents Christ as the initiator of a new creation of believers as Adam was of the old creation (1Co 15:22, 45; 2Co 5:17).

“The bridegroom and bride” beautifully emphasizes the intimate fellowship and co-ownership existing between Christ and the church (Eph 5:25–33; Rev 19:7–8; 21:9).

5:31 THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH. Paul quotes Genesis 2:24, which teaches that the special union between husband and wife supersedes the original family ties.

5:32 This mystery . . . is great. A sacred secret revealed is that Christian marriage parallels the union that exists spiritually between Christ and His bride, the church.

6:1–4 Children, obey . . . Fathers, do not provoke. This paragraph has the beautiful balance we expect to find in God's Word: children are to obey their parents, and parents are to treat their children in such a way that the children will want to obey.

6:4 Parenting— The father is the parent responsible for setting the pattern for the child's obedience in the family. The father's responsibility is set forth in two ways: First, what the father is not to do —“do not provoke your children to anger.” He is not to overdiscipline them or rule the household in such a way that the child can only react in a rage. Second, what the father is to do —“but bring them up . . . in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.” “Bring them up” involves three ideas:

It is a continuous job. As long as the child is a dependent, the father is to be responsible for providing for the child so that he becomes what God wants him to be.

It is a loving job. To “bring up” means literally to nourish tenderly; children should be objects of tender, loving care.

It is a job that involves nurture and admonition. The child needs to be nurtured physically and spiritually. He also needs corrective discipline that will be effective in bringing about obedience to the Word of God (Pr 13:24; 19:18; 29:15–17). Go to Theological Notes Index

6:5 Slaves, be obedient. The word “slaves” can also be translated “bondservants.” They made up a large percentage of the population of the Roman Empire. These people were considered mere property and could be abused and even killed by their masters with no resulting investigation by the state. In the church, wealthy slave owners and their slaves broke bread together at the Lord’s Table as equals.

6:6 not in the way of eye-service. Servants and employees should serve faithfully even when no one is looking. After all, God sees all that we do.

6:11 the full armor of God. This equipment is the believer’s protection against evil and the devil. Paul presented the extended metaphor of the battle dress roughly according to the order in which the various pieces were put on.

6:12 For our struggle is not. The real battle is not with human cultists, false religionists, atheists, agnostics, and pseudo-Christians, but with the demonic beings working through them.

6:14 TRUTH. This is a reference to integrity, a life of practical truthfulness and honesty. BREASTPLATE. In Roman times this went completely around the body and was made of hard leather or metal. RIGHTEOUSNESS. This is not the righteousness of Christ, which all believers possess, but the practical, righteous character and deeds of the believer.

6:15 THE GOSPEL OF PEACE IN PREPARATION. This may mean either that the gospel is the firm foundation on which Christians are to stand or that the Christian soldier should be ready to go out to defend and spread the gospel.

6:16 shield of faith. The Christian’s shield offers protection against all forms of evil. Flaming arrows could not penetrate the fireproof shield of the ancient Roman soldier, nor can the assaults of Satan penetrate to the believer who places his or her faith in God.

6:17 the sword of the Spirit. This is the only offensive weapon in the believer’s armor. This weapon is not necessarily the Bible as a whole, but the specific word that needs to be spoken in a specific situation.

6:21–24 that you may know how I am and what I am doing. The last verses of Ephesians reveal Paul’s appreciation of the ministry of others, especially the ministry of Tychicus (Col 4:7). The fact that this letter does not conclude with personal greetings, as Paul’s other letters do, may indicate that this was a circular letter, one intended for a number of churches around Ephesus.

The Letter of Paul to the # Philippians

- AUTHOR: The external and internal evidence for the Pauline authorship of Philippians is very strong, and there is scarcely any doubt that anyone but Paul wrote it. Paul's "Macedonian Call" in Troas during his second missionary journey led to his ministry in Philippi with the conversion of Lydia and others. Internal evidence suggests that the epistle was written from Rome (1:3 ; 4:22 ), although some commentators argue for Caesarea or Ephesus. It seems that during the writing of this letter Paul's life was at stake, and he was evidently awaiting the verdict of the Imperial Court (2:20–26 ).
- TIMES: c. AD 62
- KEY VERSES: Php 4:4–7
- THEME: Even though Paul probably wrote this letter while imprisoned in Rome, the letter is often called the Epistle of Joy. It gives us valuable insight into key areas of the Christian life by helping understand how we should identify with Christ in a variety of circumstances. We gain some insight into what Christian relationships should look like and what the content of our prayers for each other should be. Philippians also provides great insight in setting spiritual direction and determining practical priorities. Christians desiring to mature in the Lord will return to study it often.

Philippians 1

Thanksgiving

1 PAUL AND Timothy, bond-servants of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed), ‡

To all the saints (God's people) in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, including the overseers and deacons:

2 Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

3. I thank my God in every remembrance of you, ‡

4-always offering every prayer of mine with joy [and with specific requests] for all of you,

5-[thanking God] for your participation and partnership [both your comforting fellowship and gracious contributions] in [advancing] the good news [regarding salvation] from the first day [you heard it] until now. ‡

6. I am convinced and confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will [continue to] perfect and complete it until the day of Christ Jesus [the time of His return].  [Rom 14:10.] ‡

7. It is right for me to feel this way about you, because [you have me in your heart as] I have you in my heart, since both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the good news [regarding salvation], all of you share in [His matchless] grace with me.

8-For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus [whose great love fills me]. ‡

9-And this I pray, that your love may abound more and more [displaying itself in greater depth] in real knowledge and in practical insight,

10 so that you may learn to recognize and treasure what is excellent [identifying the best, and distinguishing moral differences], and that you may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ [actually living lives that lead others away from sin]; ‡

11 filled with the fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God [so that His glory may be both revealed and recognized]. ‡

The Gospel Is Preached

<sup>12</sup>Now I want you to know, believers, that what has happened to me [this imprisonment that was meant to stop me] has actually served to advance [the spread of] the good news [regarding salvation].

<sup>13</sup>My imprisonment in [the cause of] Christ has become common knowledge throughout the whole praetorian (imperial) guard and to everyone else. ‡

<sup>14</sup>Because of my chains [seeing that I am doing well and that God is accomplishing great things], most of the brothers have renewed confidence in the Lord, and have far more courage to speak the word of God [concerning salvation] without fear [of the consequences, seeing that God can work His good in all circumstances].

<sup>15</sup>Some, it is true, are [actually] preaching Christ out of envy and rivalry [toward me—for no better reason than a competitive spirit or misguided ambition], but others out of goodwill and a loyal spirit [toward me]. ‡

<sup>17</sup>but the former preach Christ [insincerely] out of selfish ambition [just self-promotion], thinking that they are causing me distress in my imprisonment.

<sup>18</sup>What then [does it matter]? So long as in every way, whether in pretense [for self-promotion] or in all honesty [to spread the truth], Christ is being preached; and in this I rejoice.

Yes, and I will rejoice [later as well],

<sup>19</sup>for I know [with confidence] that this will turn out for my deliverance and spiritual well-being, through your prayers and the [superabundant] supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ [which upholds me]. ‡

<sup>20</sup>It is my own eager expectation and hope, that [looking toward the future] I will not disgrace myself nor be ashamed in anything, but that with courage and the utmost freedom of speech, even now as always, Christ will be magnified and exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. ‡

To Live Is Christ

<sup>21</sup>For to me, to live is Christ [He is my source of joy, my reason to live] and to die is gain [for I will be with Him in eternity].

<sup>22</sup>If, however, it is to be life here and I am to go on living, this will mean useful and productive service for me; so I do not know which to choose [if I am given that choice].

<sup>23</sup> But I am hard-pressed between the two. I have the desire to leave [this world] and be with Christ, for that is far, far better; ‡

<sup>25</sup> Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, ‡

<sup>26</sup> so that your rejoicing for me may overflow in Christ Jesus through my coming to you again. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Only [be sure to] lead your lives in a manner [that will be] worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I do come and see you or remain absent, I will hear about you that you are standing firm in one spirit [and one purpose], with one mind striving side by side [as if in combat] for the faith of the gospel. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And in no way be alarmed or intimidated [in anything] by your opponents, for such [constancy and fearlessness on your part] is a [clear] sign [a proof and a seal] for them of [their impending] destruction, but [a clear sign] for you of deliverance and salvation, and that too, from God. ‡

<sup>29</sup> For you have been granted [the privilege] for Christ's sake, not only to believe and confidently trust in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, ‡

<sup>30</sup> [and so you are] experiencing the same [kind of] conflict which you saw me endure, and which you hear to be mine now. ‡

Philippians 2

Be Like Christ

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE IF there is any encouragement and comfort in Christ [as there certainly is in abundance], if there is any consolation of love, if there is any fellowship [that we share] in the Spirit, if [there is] any [great depth of] affection and compassion, ‡

<sup>2</sup> make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love [toward one another], knit together in spirit, intent on one purpose [and living a life that reflects your faith and spreads the gospel—the good news regarding salvation through faith in Christ]. ‡

righteous], regard others as more important than yourselves.‡

<sup>5</sup> Have this same attitude in yourselves which was in Christ Jesus [look to Him as your example in selfless humility],‡

<sup>6</sup> who, although He existed in the form and unchanging essence of God [as One with Him, possessing the fullness of all the divine attributes—the entire nature of deity], did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped or asserted [as if He did not already possess it, or was afraid of losing it];‡

<sup>7</sup> but emptied Himself [without renouncing or diminishing His deity, but only temporarily giving up the outward expression of divine equality and His rightful dignity] by assuming the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men [He became completely human but was without sin, being fully God and fully man].‡

<sup>8</sup> After He was found in [terms of His] outward appearance as a man [for a divinely-appointed time], He humbled Himself [still further] by becoming obedient [to the Father] to the point of death, even death on a cross.‡

<sup>9</sup> For this reason also [because He obeyed and so completely humbled Himself], God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name,‡

<sup>10</sup> so that at the name of Jesus EVERY KNEE SHALL BOW [in submission], of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, [Is 45:23]‡

<sup>11</sup> and that every tongue will confess and openly acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord (sovereign God), to the glory of God the Father.‡

<sup>12</sup> So then, my dear ones, just as you have always obeyed [my instructions with enthusiasm], not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, continue to work out your salvation [that is, cultivate it, bring it to full effect, actively pursue spiritual maturity] with awe-inspired fear and trembling [using serious caution and critical self-evaluation to avoid anything that might offend God or discredit the name of Christ].‡

<sup>13</sup> For it is [not your strength, but it is] God who is effectively at work in you, both to will and to work [that is, strengthening, energizing, and creating in you the longing and the ability to fulfill your purpose] for His good pleasure.‡

<sup>15</sup> so that you may prove yourselves to be blameless and guileless, innocent and uncontaminated, children of God without blemish in the midst of a

[morally] crooked and [spiritually] perverted generation, among whom you are seen as bright lights [beacons shining out clearly] in the world [of darkness], ‡

<sup>16</sup> holding out and offering to everyone the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I will have reason to rejoice greatly because I did not run [my race] in vain nor labor without result. ‡

<sup>17</sup> But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith [for preaching the message of salvation], still I rejoice and share my joy with you all.  [Num 28:7; 2 Tim 4:6 ] ‡

Timothy and Epaphroditus

<sup>19</sup> But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may also be encouraged by learning news about you. ‡

<sup>20</sup> For I have no one else [like him who is] so kindred a spirit who will be genuinely concerned for your [spiritual] welfare. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But you know of Timothy's tested worth and his proven character, that he has served with me to advance the gospel like a son serving with his father. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Therefore, I hope [that it is His will] to send him immediately, just as soon as I see how my case turns out;

<sup>24</sup> and I trust [confidently] in the Lord that soon I also will be coming to you. ‡

<sup>25</sup> However, I thought it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, [who has been] my brother and companion and fellow soldier, who was also sent as your messenger to take care of my needs. ‡

<sup>26</sup> For he has been longing for all of you and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick. ‡

<sup>27</sup> He certainly was sick and close to death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow.

<sup>28</sup> So I have sent him all the more eagerly so that when you see him again you may rejoice and I may be less concerned about you.

<sup>30</sup> because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was lacking in your service to me [which distance prevented you from rendering personally]. ‡

Philippians 3

The Goal of Life

<sup>3</sup>-for we [who are born-again have been reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, set apart for His purpose and] are the true circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and glory and take pride and exult in Christ Jesus and place no confidence [in what we have or who we are] in the flesh—‡

<sup>4</sup> though I myself might have [some grounds for] confidence in the flesh [if I were pursuing salvation by works]. If anyone else thinks that he has reason to be confident in the flesh [that is, in his own efforts to achieve salvation], I have far more: ‡

<sup>6</sup> as to my zeal [for Jewish tradition], a persecutor of the church; and as to righteousness [supposed right living] which [my fellow Jews believe] is in the Law, I proved myself blameless. ‡

<sup>7</sup>-But whatever former things were gains to me [as I thought then], these things [once regarded as advancements in merit] I have come to consider as loss [absolutely worthless] for the sake of Christ [and the purpose which He has given my life]. ‡

<sup>8</sup>-But more than that, I count everything as loss compared to the priceless privilege and supreme advantage of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord [and of growing more deeply and thoroughly acquainted with Him—a joy unequaled]. For His sake I have lost everything, and I consider it all garbage, so that I may gain Christ, ‡

<sup>9</sup> and may be found in Him [believing and relying on Him], not having any righteousness of my own derived from [my obedience to] the Law and its rituals, but [possessing] that [genuine righteousness] which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith.

<sup>10</sup> And this, so that I may know Him [experientially, becoming more thoroughly acquainted with Him, understanding the remarkable wonders of His Person more completely] and [in that same way experience] the power of His resurrection [which overflows and is active in believers], and [that I may share] the fellowship of His sufferings, by being continually conformed [inwardly into His likeness even] to His death [dying as He did];

<sup>12</sup> Not that I have already obtained it [this goal of being Christlike] or have already been made perfect, but I actively press on so that I may take hold of that [perfection] for which Christ Jesus took hold of me and made me His own.  [1 Cor 9:24; 1 Tim 6:12 ]

<sup>13</sup> Brothers and sisters, I do not consider that I have made it my own yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead,

<sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal to win the [heavenly] prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> All of us who are mature [pursuing spiritual perfection] should have this attitude. And if in any respect you have a different attitude, that too God will make clear to you.

<sup>17</sup> Brothers and sisters, together follow my example and observe those who live by the pattern we gave you.

<sup>18</sup> For there are many, of whom I have often told you, and now tell you even with tears, who live as enemies of the cross of Christ [rejecting and opposing His way of salvation],

<sup>20</sup> But [we are different, because] our citizenship is in heaven. And from there we eagerly await [the coming of] the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;

<sup>21</sup> who, by exerting that power which enables Him even to subject everything to Himself, will [not only] transform [but completely refashion] our earthly bodies so that they will be like His glorious resurrected body.

Philippians 4

Think of Excellence

<sup>2</sup>I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to agree and to work in harmony in the Lord. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Indeed, I ask you too, my true companion, to help these women [to keep on cooperating], for they have shared my struggle in the [cause of the] gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.  [Dan 12:1 ; Mal 3:16, 17 ; Rev 3:5 ; 21:27 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup>Do not be anxious or worried about anything, but in everything [every circumstance and situation] by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, continue to make your [specific] requests known to God. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And the peace of God [that peace which reassures the heart, that peace] which transcends all understanding, [that peace which] stands guard over your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus [is yours].  [John 14:27 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> Finally, believers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable and worthy of respect, whatever is right and confirmed by God's word, whatever is pure and wholesome, whatever is lovely and brings peace, whatever is admirable and of good repute; if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think continually on these things [center your mind on them, and implant them in your heart]. ‡

<sup>9</sup>-The things which you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, practice these things [in daily life], and the God [who is the source] of peace and well-being will be with you. ‡

God's Provisions

<sup>10</sup> I rejoiced greatly in the Lord, that now at last you have renewed your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned about me before, but you had no opportunity to show it. ‡

11 Not that I speak from [any personal] need, for I have learned to be content [and self-sufficient through Christ, satisfied to the point where I am not disturbed or uneasy] regardless of my circumstances. ‡

12 I know how to get along and live humbly [in difficult times], and I also know how to enjoy abundance and live in prosperity. In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret [of facing life], whether well-fed or going hungry, whether having an abundance or being in need. ‡

13 I can do all things [which He has called me to do] through Him who strengthens and empowers me [to fulfill His purpose—I am self-sufficient in Christ's sufficiency; I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him who infuses me with inner strength and confident peace.] ‡

14 Nevertheless, it was right of you to share [with me] in my difficulties. ‡

15 And you Philippians know that in the early days of preaching the gospel, after I left Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone; ‡

16 for even in Thessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs.

17 Not that I seek the gift itself, but I do seek the profit which increases to your [heavenly] account [the blessing which is accumulating for you]. ‡

18 But I have received everything in full and more; I am amply supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent me. They are the fragrant aroma of an offering, an acceptable sacrifice which God welcomes and in which He delights. ‡

19 And my God will liberally supply (fill until full) your every need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ‡

20 To our God and Father be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ‡

21 Remember me to every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. ‡

22 All God's people wish to be remembered to you, especially those of Caesar's household. ‡

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. ‡

Annotations for Philippians

1:1–11 To all the saints. This term means “holy ones” (those who are separated to God) and refers to all the believers in Philippi. overseers. This refers to those who watch over the spiritual welfare of the local church. deacons. This is a reference to those who serve the congregation in special service capacities. They were charged with handling the physical and material concerns of the church (Ac 6:1–7). In the first few verses, Paul reveals his great love for the Philippians. He thinks of them often (vv. 3–6), he is concerned about them (vv. 7–8), and he regularly prays for them (vv. 9–11).

1:3 I thank. The tense of the Greek verb indicates that Paul was continually thankful to God for the Philippian Christians. in every remembrance of you. Every time God brought them to his mind, Paul gave thanks.

1:4 joy. This is the first of five uses of the Greek word for joy in the letter (v. 25 ; 2:2 ,29 ; 4:1 ). Paul also uses the Greek word for rejoice eight times in this letter (v. 18 ; 2:17–18 ,28 ; 3:1 ; 4:4 ).

1:5 partnership. This term is a commercial term for a joint-partnership in a business venture in which all parties actively participate to ensure the success of the business. In the Christian community, the word expresses intimacy with Christ (1Co 1:9 ).

1:6 until. This word can also be translated “as far as.” It expresses progress toward a goal and indicates that a time is coming when God will completely finish His work among the Philippian Christians.

1:7 right. This word conveys a sense of moral uprightness and is often translated throughout the New Testament as “righteous.” In this context, the word indicates that Paul’s thoughts regarding the Philippians were in perfect accord with God’s will. confirmation. Used only here and in Hebrews 6:16 in the New Testament, this word is a legal and commercial term meaning “a validating guarantee.”

1:8 the affection of Christ Jesus. The word translated “affection” literally means the internal organs, regarded by the first century reader as the center of the deepest feelings. Whereas the heart is the seat of reflection, Paul now speaks of his deep feelings for the believers. His feelings for the Philippians were like those of Jesus Christ, who loved them and died for them.

1:9 love. The kind of love that Paul sought for the believers is the highest form of Christian love, based on a lasting, unconditional commitment, not on an unstable emotion. knowledge. The first of two terms on which a directed love is built, knowledge suggests an intimate understanding based on a relationship with a person. Here the focus of this knowledge is God. insight. Found only here in the New Testament, the Greek word means moral or ethical understanding based on both the intellect and the senses.

1:12 advance. This word could suggest a pioneer beating or cutting a path through a densely forested area. Paul’s imprisonment was a strategic advance in the kingdom of God because it was clearing the way for the gospel to penetrate the ranks of the Roman military.

1:13 praetorian (imperial) guard. This is a force consisting of several thousand highly trained, elite soldiers of the Roman Empire who were headquartered at Rome. For the one to two years that Paul had been under house arrest in Rome, different soldiers had taken turns guarding him. Although Paul could not go to the world to preach, in this way God brought the world to Paul. In an ironic twist, they were the captives and Paul was free to preach.

1:18 in pretense [for self-promotion] or in all honesty. Whether the preaching was done for false motives or pure, whether for appearance’s sake or for the sake of what was right, Paul was pleased that the gospel was being spread.

1:20 be magnified. Paul was committed to ensuring that Christ would be made even more conspicuous in his own life than ever. He was not relying on himself to magnify Christ but looked to the Holy Spirit (v. 19) to magnify Christ in him (Jn 16:14).

1:21 Christ . . . gain. Paul would experience gain in his own death because He would be with Christ (v. 23). In fact, Paul may have been expressing his confidence that his imprisonment had furthered the gospel; God would also use his death to further His kingdom.

1:22 I do not know which to choose. Paul was in a dilemma because he clearly saw the advantages of both life and death, for the Christian life meant an opportunity to minister to people like the Philippians (v. 24), while death meant being with Christ his Savior.

1:25 your progress. Paul was not satisfied that the Philippian Christians should simply be saved, but that they should advance to maturity in Christ.

1:27 lead your lives. The word used could refer to discharging the obligations of a citizen. Because Philippi held the privileged status of a Roman colony, its citizens understood the responsibilities associated with citizenship. Paul here commanded them to shift their perspective from the earthly realm to the heavenly one. They should live in this world as citizens of another world, the heavenly kingdom. Their conduct should reveal their heavenly citizenship.

1:28 alarmed or intimidated. This phrase is used for the terror of a panicked horse. The Philippians are not to be terror-stricken in the face of their enemies.

1:29 to suffer for His sake. Suffering matures us as Christians in the present (Jas 1:2–4) and enables us to be glorified with Christ in the future (Ro 8:17).

2:1 If . . . if . . . if. The conditional clauses in this verse indicate certainties, not “maybes.” Each if here expresses the idea of “since,” and each following clause may be considered to be true.

2:2 being of the same mind. In this verse the apostle sets forth a fourfold appeal that expresses one major idea—namely, the unity of the church. Paul is strongly emphasizing the unity that should exist between believers and how they must single-mindedly strive together to advance the gospel of Jesus Christ.

2:3 regard others as more important than yourselves. This verb indicates a thorough analysis of the facts in order to reach a correct conclusion about the matter. In other words, each Philippian Christian was to properly assess himself or herself. Such an assessment would lead to valuing others.

2:5 Have this same attitude. All godly action begins with the “renewing of the mind.” Right thinking produces right actions. Our actions are the fruit of our deepest thoughts. in yourselves. Thinking and being like Christ are requirements not only for an individual but also for the corporate body of believers. Together, we need to think and act like one being, like the Person of Jesus Christ.

2:6 did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped or asserted. Because Christ was God, He did not look on sharing God’s nature as “a thing to be grasped,” as though He did not already possess it, or “asserted,” as though He might lose it.

2:7 emptied Himself. Christ did this by taking on the form of a servant. In doing this, He did not empty Himself of any part of His essence as God. Instead, He gave up His privileges as God and took upon Himself existence as a man. While remaining completely God, He became completely human. form. Jesus added to His divine essence (v. 6) a servant’s essence, that is, the essential characteristics of a human being seeking to fulfill the will of another. Paul does not say that Christ exchanged the form of God for the form of a servant, involving a loss of deity or the attributes of deity. Rather, in the incarnation, Christ continued in the very nature of God but added to Himself the nature of a servant.

2:8 He humbled Himself. Jesus willingly took the role of a servant; no one forced Him to do it. obedient. Although He never sinned and did not deserve to die, He chose to die so that the sins of the world could be charged to His account. Subsequently, He could credit His righteousness to the account of all who believe in Him (2Co 5:21; Gal 1:4). even death on a cross. Paul describes the depths of Christ's humiliation by reminding his readers that Christ died by the cruelest form of capital punishment, crucifixion. The Jews viewed death on a cross as a curse from God (Dt 21:23 ; Gal 3:13 ).

2:11 confess. The term Paul uses is a strong, intensive verb, which means "agree with" or "say the same thing." Essentially Paul is saying that everyone will unanimously affirm what God the Father has already stated (Isa 45:23 ): that Jesus Christ is Lord.

2:12 work out. The Greek term speaks of the present deliverance of the Philippians. The word translated work out is used by a first century author to speak of digging silver out of silver mines. Thus, salvation can be compared to a huge gift that needs to be unwrapped for one's thorough enjoyment. Note that Paul is encouraging the Philippians to develop and work out their salvation, but not to work for their salvation.

2:15 crooked and [spiritually] perverted generation. Paul describes the world as being the opposite of Christian. On the one hand, the world is turned away from the truth, while on the other hand, it exerts a corrupting influence that is opposed to the truth.

2:17 poured out. Paul was probably saying that he was presently being offered as a living sacrifice on behalf of the faith of the Philippians. sacrifice. This means primarily the act of offering something to God.

2:19 Timothy. He had accompanied Paul on his second missionary journey, during which time they had established the church at Philippi. Timothy was apparently well loved by the Philippians, and he in turn exhibited a great concern for them.

2:22 like a son serving with his father. In New Testament times a son who served his father did so to learn the family trade. Serving in this way meant learning all about the business and being willing to obey the teacher in order to become as skillful as possible in the work.

2:25 Epaphroditus. He was a Philippian Christian sent by the church in Philippi to take a gift to Paul and to assist Paul in his ministry.

2:27 sick and close to death. Paul was making certain that the Philippians understood the effort that Epaphroditus had made for the cause of Christ. His condition had been far worse than perhaps they had imagined. Paul viewed Epaphroditus' healing as God's direct intervention.

3:2 Look out for the dogs. In New Testament times, dogs were hated scavengers. The term came to be used for all who had morally impure minds. the false circumcision. Paul here points sarcastically and specifically to those who desire to reinstate Jewish religious practices as necessary for salvation. He suggests that these people do not even understand the truth about the Old Testament practice of circumcision.

3:3 the true circumcision. Paul defines this as a matter of the heart and not of the flesh. He reveals three aspects: (1) worshiping God in the Spirit; (2) rejoicing in Christ; and (3) placing no confidence in any human honor or accomplishment as a means to reach God.

3:5 eight days old. Paul's parents obeyed God's law and had Paul circumcised on the appropriate day after his birth (Lev 12:2-3 ). tribe of Benjamin. This tribe was highly regarded because it had produced the first king of Israel and had remained loyal to David. Hebrew of Hebrews. This description of Paul may indicate that (1) both his parents were Jews, (2) he was a model Jew, or (3) he was educated completely as a Jew. Pharisee. They rigorously followed and defended the letter of the Jewish law.

3:7 loss. This word indicates that which is damaged or of no further use (v. 8 ). Those things that Paul thought to be important became unimportant after confronting the resurrected Messiah.

3:8 garbage. This word means anything that is detestable or worthless. All things of this world are garbage compared to Christ. Even our righteousness is like filthy rags (Isa 64:6 ).

3:10 power of His resurrection. Paul does not say the power "in" His resurrection, which would specify the power of the one-time event of His resurrection. Rather, Paul seeks the ongoing power that is the day-to-day experience of being in Christ. fellowship of His sufferings. Paul sees the value of participating in the persecutions or struggles that naturally accompany one who is in partnership with Christ and His sufferings. being continually conformed [inwardly into His likeness even] to His death. Paul desires to imitate Christ—even in His death. In other words, Paul wants to be completely obedient to God the Father, just as Jesus was obedient to His Father's will (Lk 22:42 ).

3:12 perfect. The Greek term means mature or complete, finished. It does not specifically mean a moral or sinless perfection. Paul is not speaking of moral perfection or righteousness but of reaching the state of completion as a Christian. take hold. This phrase adds the idea of overtaking by surprise to the sense of seizing some object. Paul urgently wants to “take hold of” God as God had taken hold of him.

3:13 forgetting. Paul was indicating that it is an ongoing process. He might even be implying that he wanted to forget everything so that he would not rest on his past successes in Christ, but continue to labor for the Lord.

3:16 let us stay true. Paul commands the Philippians to conduct themselves as soldiers who “march in line” together, organized each in his proper position.

3:17 example. The word indicates an exact representation of the original. The example of Paul’s life is so evident that one can readily see it and use it as a pattern for living.

3:19 glory is in their shame. The things in which they take pride actually are the things that will bring “disgrace” or “humiliation” to them, things of which they should have been ashamed.

3:20 citizenship is in heaven. Here Paul presents a direct contrast to the earthly focus of enemies of the cross in v. 19 . The eager desire of Christians is not earthly things, but a heavenly Person, the Savior.

3:21 like His glorious resurrected body. Our bodies now are weak and susceptible to sin, disease, and death. But God will change our bodies to resemble Christ’s glorious resurrection body.

4:2 Euodia . . . Syntyche. What is written here is all that is known about the two women and their dispute. Paul does not take sides in the argument, but instead encourages them to be reconciled.

4:4 Rejoice in the Lord. The joy of Christians is not based on agreeable circumstances; instead, it is based on their relationship to God. Christians will face trouble in this world, but they should rejoice in the trials they face because they know God is using those situations to improve their character.

4:6 Do not be anxious or worried about anything. Paul prohibits the Philippians from worrying about their own problems. Instead, they are to commit their problems to God in prayer, trusting that He will provide deliverance.

4:7 stands guard. Paul’s choice of a military term “keep” or “guard” implies that the mind is in a battle zone and needs to be “protected by a military guard” since the purpose of such a guard in a wartime situation is either to prevent a hostile invasion or to keep the inhabitants of a besieged city from escaping.

4:9 learned. This verb conveys not only the concept of “increasing in intellectual knowledge,” but also the idea of “learning by habitual practice.” In some areas of their Christian development, the Philippians had been excellent disciples of Paul, practicing what he had taught.

4:11 content. The word literally means “self-sufficient.” In Stoic philosophy this Greek word described a person who dispassionately accepted whatever circumstances brought. For the Greeks, this contentment came from personal sufficiency. But for Paul, true sufficiency is found in the strength of Christ.

4:17 account. Paul uses business terminology. The Philippians’ gift was producing spiritual profit, just as money deposited in a bank account accrues interest. But Paul was not as concerned with their gift as with the development in the Philippians of the spiritual ability to give.

The Letter of Paul to the Colossians

- AUTHOR: The external testimony to the Pauline authorship of Colossians is ancient and consistent, and the internal evidence is also very good. It not only claims to be written by Paul (1:1 ,23 ; 4:18 ), but the personal details and close parallels with Ephesians and Philemon make the case even stronger. It is evident from 1:4–8 and 2:1 that Paul had never visited the church at Colosse, which was founded by Epaphras. On his third missionary journey, Paul devoted almost three years to an Asian ministry centered in Ephesus (Ac 19:10 ; 20:31 ), and Epaphras probably came to Christ during this time. He then carried the gospel to cities like Colosse in the Lycus valley. Epaphras visited Paul in prison (4:12 ) and his report concerning the church in Colosse prompted this epistle.
- TIMES: c. AD 60–61
- KEY VERSES: Col 2:9–10
- THEME: The problem of the Colossian church was similar to what we experience in many churches today. This is often called syncretism, the tendency to regard other philosophies and religions as equally valid as Christianity. The people in Colosse wanted to believe Christian truth, but they also wanted to hang on to their old beliefs as well by blending them with the gospel. Paul’s purpose in this letter is to settle once and for all the issue of Christ’s centrality and supremacy. He writes to restore Jesus, the Messiah, to the center of these believers’ lives. Here we can see Paul’s unwavering confidence in the incomparability of Christ, as it has completely shaped his views on all of life. He writes to introduce the Colossians to this same vision.

Colossians 1

Thankfulness for Spiritual Attainments

1 PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed) by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, ‡

2 To the saints and faithful believers in Christ [who are] at Colossae: Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God our Father. ‡

3 We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, as we pray always for you, ‡

4-for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus [how you lean on Him with absolute confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness], and of the [unselfish] love which you have for all the saints (God's people); ‡

5 because of the [confident] hope [of experiencing that] which is reserved and waiting for you in heaven. You previously heard of this hope in the message of truth, the gospel [regarding salvation] ‡

6 which has come to you. Indeed, just as in the whole world the gospel is constantly bearing fruit and spreading [by God's power], just as it has been doing among you ever since the day you first heard of it and understood the grace of God in truth [becoming thoroughly and deeply acquainted with it]. ‡

7 You learned it from [our representative] Epaphras, our beloved fellow bond-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf ‡

8 and he also has told us of your love [well-grounded and nurtured] in the [Holy] Spirit. ‡

9-For this reason, since the day we heard about it, we have not stopped praying for you, asking [specifically] that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom [with insight into His purposes], and in understanding [of spiritual things], ‡

10-so that you will walk in a manner worthy of the Lord [displaying admirable character, moral courage, and personal integrity], to [fully] please Him in all things, bearing fruit in every good work and steadily growing in the knowledge of God [with deeper faith, clearer insight and fervent love for His precepts]; ‡

11 [we pray that you may be] strengthened and invigorated with all power, according to His glorious might, to attain every kind of endurance and

12—giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints (God's people) in the Light. ‡

The Incomparable Christ

13 For He has rescued us and has drawn us to Himself from the dominion of darkness, and has transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, ‡

14 in whom we have redemption [because of His sacrifice, resulting in] the forgiveness of our sins [and the cancellation of sins' penalty]. ‡

15 He is the exact living image [the essential manifestation] of the unseen God [the visible representation of the invisible], the firstborn [the preeminent one, the sovereign, and the originator] of all creation. ‡

16 For by Him all things were created in heaven and on earth, [things] visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities; all things were created and exist through Him [that is, by His activity] and for Him. ‡

17 And He Himself existed and is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. [His is the controlling, cohesive force of the universe.]  [Prov 8:22–31 ] ‡

18 He is also the head [the life-source and leader] of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will occupy the first place [He will stand supreme and be preeminent] in everything.  [1 Cor 15:20 ] ‡

19 For it pleased the Father for all the fullness [of deity—the sum total of His essence, all His perfection, powers, and attributes] to dwell [permanently] in Him (the Son), ‡

20 and through [the intervention of] the Son to reconcile all things to Himself, making peace [with believers] through the blood of His cross; through Him, [I say,] whether things on earth or things in heaven. ‡

21 And although you were at one time estranged and alienated and hostile-minded [toward Him], participating in evil things, ‡

22 yet Christ has now reconciled you [to God] in His physical body through death, in order to present you before the Father holy and blameless and beyond reproach— ‡

23 [and He will do this] if you continue in the faith, well-grounded and steadfast, and not shifting away from the [confident] hope [that is a result] of the gospel that you have heard, which was proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which [gospel] I, Paul, was made a minister. ‡

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings on your behalf. And with my own body I supplement whatever is lacking [on our part] of Christ's afflictions, on behalf of His body, which is the church. ‡

25 In this church I was made a minister according to the stewardship which God entrusted to me for your sake, so that I might make the word of God fully known [among you]—‡

26 that is, the mystery which was hidden [from angels and mankind] for ages and generations, but has now been revealed to His saints (God's people). ‡

27 God [in His eternal plan] chose to make known to them how great for the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in and among you, the hope and guarantee of [realizing the] glory. ‡

28 We proclaim Him, warning and instructing everyone in all wisdom [that is, with comprehensive insight into the word and purposes of God], so that we may present every person complete in Christ [mature, fully trained, and perfect in Him—the Anointed]. ‡

29 For this I labor [often to the point of exhaustion], striving with His power and energy, which so greatly works within me. ‡

Colossians 2

You Are Built Up in Christ

1 FOR I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those [believers] at Laodicea, and for all who [like yourselves] have never seen me face to face. ‡

2 [For my hope is] that their hearts may be encouraged as they are knit together in [unselfish] love, so that they may have all the riches that come from the full assurance of understanding [the joy of salvation], resulting in a true [and more intimate] knowledge of the mystery of God, that is, Christ, ‡

3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge [regarding the word and purposes of God]. ‡

4 I say this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive [but thoroughly deceptive] arguments. ‡

5 For even though I am absent [from you] in body, nevertheless I am with you in spirit, delighted to see your good discipline [as you stand shoulder to shoulder and form a solid front] and to see the stability of your faith in Christ [your steadfast reliance on Him and your unwavering confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Therefore as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in [union with] Him [reflecting His character in the things you do and say—living lives that lead others away from sin], ‡

<sup>7</sup> having been deeply rooted [in Him] and now being continually built up in Him and [becoming increasingly more] established in your faith, just as you were taught, and overflowing in it with gratitude. ‡

<sup>8</sup> See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception [pseudo-intellectual babble], according to the tradition [and musings] of mere men, following the elementary principles of this world, rather than following [the truth—the teachings of] Christ. ‡

<sup>9</sup> For in Him all the fullness of Deity (the Godhead) dwells in bodily form [completely expressing the divine essence of God]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> And in Him you have been made complete [achieving spiritual stature through Christ], and He is the head over all rule and authority [of every angelic and earthly power]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, but by the [spiritual] circumcision of Christ in the stripping off of the body of the flesh [the sinful carnal nature], ‡

<sup>12</sup> having been buried with Him in baptism and raised with Him [to a new life] through [your] faith in the working of God, [as displayed] when He raised Christ from the dead. ‡

<sup>13</sup> When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh (worldliness, manner of life), God made you alive together with Christ, having [freely] forgiven us all our sins,

<sup>14</sup> having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of legal demands [which were in force] against us and which were hostile to us. And this certificate He has set aside and completely removed by nailing it to the cross. ‡

<sup>15</sup> When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities [those supernatural forces of evil operating against us], He made a public example of them [exhibiting them as captives in His triumphal procession], having triumphed over them through the cross. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Therefore let no one judge you in regard to food and drink or in regard to [the observance of] a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Such things are only a shadow of what is to come and they have only symbolic value; but the substance [the reality of what is foreshadowed] belongs to Christ. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Let no one defraud you of your prize [your freedom in Christ and your salvation] by insisting on mock humility and the worship of angels, going into detail about visions [he claims] he has seen [to justify his authority], puffed up [in conceit] by his unspiritual mind,

<sup>19</sup> and not holding fast to the head [of the body, Jesus Christ], from whom the entire body, supplied and knit together by its joints and ligaments, grows with the growth [that can come only] from God. ‡

<sup>20</sup> If you have died with Christ to the elementary principles of the world, why, as if you were still living in the world, do you submit to rules and regulations, such as, ‡

<sup>23</sup> These practices indeed have the appearance [that popularly passes as that] of wisdom in self-made religion and mock humility and severe treatment of the body (asceticism), but are of no value against sinful indulgence [because they do not honor God]. ‡

Colossians 3

Put On the New Self

<sup>4</sup> When Christ, who is our life, appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So put to death and deprive of power the evil longings of your earthly body [with its sensual, self-centered instincts] immorality, impurity, sinful passion, evil desire, and greed, which is [a kind of] idolatry [because it replaces your devotion to God]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> and in these [sinful things] you also once walked, when you were habitually living in them [without the knowledge of Christ]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Do not lie to one another, for you have stripped off the old self with its evil practices, ‡

<sup>10</sup> and have put on the new [spiritual] self who is being continually renewed in true knowledge in the image of Him who created the new self—  [Gen 1:26 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> a renewal in which there is no [distinction between] Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, [nor between nations whether] barbarian or Scythian, [nor in status whether] slave or free, but Christ is all, and in all [so believers are equal in Christ, without distinction]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> So, as God's own chosen people, who are holy [set apart, sanctified for His purpose] and well-beloved [by God Himself], put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience [which has the power to endure whatever injustice or unpleasantness comes, with good temper]; ‡

<sup>13</sup> bearing graciously with one another, and willingly forgiving each other if one has a cause for complaint against another; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so should you forgive. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Let the peace of Christ [the inner calm of one who walks daily with Him] be the controlling factor in your hearts [deciding and settling questions that arise]. To this peace indeed you were called as members in one body [of believers]. And be thankful [to God always]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Let the [spoken] word of Christ have its home within you [dwelling in your heart and mind—permeating every aspect of your being] as you teach [spiritual things] and admonish and train one another with all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs with thankfulness in your hearts to God. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Whatever you do [no matter what it is] in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus [and in dependence on Him], giving thanks to God the Father through Him. ‡

Family Relations

<sup>18</sup>-Wives, be subject to your husbands [out of respect for their position as protector, and their accountability to God], as is proper and fitting in the Lord. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Husbands, love your wives [with an affectionate, sympathetic, selfless love that always seeks the best for them] and do not be embittered or resentful toward them [because of the responsibilities of marriage]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Children, obey your parents [as God's representatives] in all things, for this [attitude of respect and obedience] is well-pleasing to the Lord [and will bring you God's promised blessings]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Fathers, do not provoke or irritate or exasperate your children [with demands that are trivial or unreasonable or humiliating or abusive; nor by favoritism or indifference; treat them tenderly with lovingkindness], so they will not lose heart and become discouraged or unmotivated [with their spirits broken]. ‡

<sup>22</sup>-Servants, in everything obey those who are your masters on earth, not only with external service, as those who merely please people, but with sincerity of heart because of your fear of the Lord. ‡

<sup>25</sup> For he who does wrong will be punished for his wrongdoing, and [with God] there is no partiality [no special treatment based on a person's position in life]. ‡

Colossians 4

Fellow Workers

that you also have a Master in heaven. [Lev 25:43 , 53] ‡

<sup>2</sup> Be persistent and devoted to prayer, being alert and focused in your prayer life with an attitude of thanksgiving. ‡

<sup>3</sup> At the same time pray for us, too, that God will open a door [of opportunity] to us for the word, to proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I have been imprisoned; ‡

<sup>6</sup> Let your speech at all times be gracious and pleasant, seasoned with salt, so that you will know how to answer each one [who questions you]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> As to all my affairs, Tychicus, who is a much-loved brother and faithful assistant and fellow bond-servant in the Lord, will give you all the information. [Eph 6:21]

<sup>8</sup> I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are doing and that he may encourage your hearts; ‡

<sup>9</sup> and with him is Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will let you know everything about the situation here [in Rome]. ‡

<sup>10</sup>-Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, wishes to be remembered to you; as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions; if he comes to you, welcome him); ‡

<sup>11</sup> and from Jesus, who is called Justus. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are from the circumcision (Jewish Christians), and they have proved to be an encouragement and a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you and a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, sends you greetings. [He is] always striving for you in his prayers, praying with genuine concern, [pleading] that you may [as people of character and courage] stand firm, [spiritually mature] and fully assured in all the will of God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For I testify for him that he has worked strenuously for you and for the believers in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis.

<sup>16</sup> When this letter has been read among you, see that it is read in the church of the Laodiceans; and also that you in turn read my letter [that is coming to you] from Laodicea. ‡

<sup>17</sup> And say to Archippus, “See to it that you fulfill [carefully the duties of] the ministry which you have received in the Lord.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. May grace (God’s unmerited favor and blessing) be with you. ‡

Annotations for Colossians

1:1 an apostle. Paul calls himself an apostle, a word whose root means “to send.” The Greek word was first used for a cargo ship or fleet, but later denoted a commander of a fleet. The New Testament employs the word to signify an approved spokesman sent as a personal representative.

1:2 saints. The Greek term means “holy people.” The essence of “holiness” is being set apart to God. All believers are saints, not because they are perfect, but because they belong to God. in Christ. This is a favorite expression of the apostle Paul, used some 80 times in his letters.

1:4–8 faith . . . love . . . hope. Paul often uses these three terms together (Ro 5:2–5 ; 1Co 13:13 ; 1Th 1:3 ; 5:8 ). Faith is in Christ. Love flows from faith and proves the genuineness of one’s faith (Jas 2:14–26 ). Hope refers to the result of faith, the treasure laid up in heaven.

1:9 all spiritual wisdom . . . and in understanding. Wisdom is the practical outworking of knowledge (Jas 3:17 ), and that knowledge cannot be separated from the spiritual understanding that comes through the discernment given by the Holy Spirit.

1:10 walk in a manner worthy of the Lord. Paul wanted the Colossians to live in a manner that adequately reflected what God had done for them and was doing in them. Being “worthy of God” is a phrase that occurs in ancient pagan inscriptions throughout Asia. It pictures someone’s life being weighed on scales to determine its worth.

1:12 qualified us. Believers can never be qualified on their own; instead, God must make them sufficient through Jesus Christ. The tense of the verb points to “qualifying” as an act in the past rather than a process.

1:13 rescued . . . transferred. God has liberated believers from the dominion of darkness. The apostle uses the common symbolism of light and darkness for good and evil, for God’s kingdom and Satan’s kingdom, that is found throughout the New Testament. The kingdom from which believers have been rescued is the kingdom of darkness.

1:14 redemption. The Greek word points naturally to the payment of a price or ransom for the release of a slave. They are freed from bondage to sin by forgiveness through the blood of Jesus (Eph 1:7 ).

1:15 firstborn . . . of all creation. Verses 15–20 are thought to be an early Christian hymn celebrating the supremacy of Christ. Firstborn could denote a priority in time or in rank. The word does not describe Christ as the first being created in time because the hymn proclaims that all things were “created by Him” and that “He is before all things.” Being firstborn referred more to rank and privilege than to order of birth.

1:16 all things were created and exist through Him [that is, by His activity] and for Him. Not only did Jesus create all things, everything was created for His purposes (Heb 1:2 , where Christ is said to be the “heir and lawful owner of all things”).

1:18 head [the life-source and leader] of the body. No one should underestimate the significance of the church, for it is in fact Christ’s body. The sovereign Creator of the universe, as Head of the church, provides leadership and oversight over it.

1:19 fullness. The opponents of Paul, and later the Greek Gnostics, seem to have used this word as a technical term for the sphere between heaven and earth where a hierarchy of angels lived. The Gnostics viewed Christ as one of many spirits existing in this hierarchy between God and all people. However, Paul used the term fullness to refer to the complete embodiment of God.

1:20–22 Jesus Pays the Price— Salvation is a free gift, but it is not a cheap one. It costs us nothing, but it cost God dearly—it cost Jesus His life. In physically dying on the cross, Jesus sacrificed Himself and satisfied the debt that we had incurred through sin, so that it is possible for God and man to be reconciled. As Jesus hung on the cross, He cried, My God, My God, why have You forsaken me? (Mt 27:46). Jesus was separated from God the Father so that we do not have to be. This is the heart of the atonement (becoming at one with God). The marvel of it all is that He did this while we were His enemies: But God clearly shows and proves His own love for us, by the fact that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us (Ro 5:8). Go to Theological Notes Index

1:20–21 reconcile all things. This phrase shows the significance of Christ's work on the cross. It does not mean that all people will be saved, since many passages clearly say that unbelievers will suffer eternal separation from God (Mt 25:46).

1:22 holy and blameless and beyond reproach. We who were once enemies of God and alienated by our own wicked works will one day be presented as above reproach on account of Christ's death for us.

1:23 if you continue in the faith. The perseverance of the Colossians was proof of the reconciling work of Christ on their behalf. all creation under heaven. Paul uses this exaggeration to illustrate the rapid spread of the gospel. Compare Acts 17:6 where the apostles are said to have turned the world upside down, even though their ministry, up to that point, had been limited to a small portion of the eastern Mediterranean region.

1:24 my sufferings on your behalf. Paul is making the point that a Christian will endure the sufferings that Christ would be enduring if He were still in the world (2Co 1:5 ; 4:11 ).

1:26–27 mystery. In Greek pagan religions, a mystery was a secret teaching reserved for a few spiritual teachers who had been initiated into an inner circle. Paul uses the word to refer to knowledge that had been “hidden for ages and generations” but was now being revealed by God. The mystery is that Christ now lives within Gentile believers.

2:1 Laodicea. It was a sister city of Colosse about 11 miles away. The two churches were to share their letters from Paul.

2:2–3 knowledge of the mystery of God. Paul reminds the Colossians that true knowledge will be acknowledged by bringing people together in Christian love in the church. The Gnostics thought only certain “knowledgeable” people could join their elite group; Paul teaches that every believer has access to complete wisdom found in Christ.

2:8 philosophy. This verse has been used at times to teach that Christians should not study or read philosophy. This is not Paul’s meaning. Paul himself was adept at philosophy, evidenced by his interaction with the Stoic and Epicurean philosophers in Athens (Ac 17:1–34 ). Paul was warning the believers not to be taken in by any philosophy that does not conform to a proper knowledge of Christ. The false teachers at Colosse had combined worldly philosophies with the gospel.

2:9 all the fullness of Deity (the Godhead) dwells in bodily form. In this verse Paul clearly proclaims the incarnation, the fact that God became a man bodily. This contradicts the Gnostic idea of the inherent evil of physical bodies and the claim that Jesus is merely a spirit.

2:10 you have been made complete. Paul emphasizes the sufficiency of Christ in order to refute the Gnostics and the Judaizers who respectively believed that special knowledge or works were necessary to make a Christian complete.

2:12–13 buried with Him in baptism. Baptism is the symbol of the believer’s association with Christ’s death on the cross. Water baptism itself does not bring forgiveness of sins, but Paul uses the rite to help explain the work of the Spirit. The early church would never have understood the idea of an unbaptized Christian.

2:15 rulers and authorities. These words allude to Satan and the fallen angels. Paul is describing Christ’s victory on the cross over the powers that opposed Him and that were against God’s faithful people. To describe this victory, Paul uses the spectacle of the military triumph, when prisoners of war were stripped and paraded before the populace behind the conquering general.

2:16–19 mock humility. People who do not champion salvation in Christ alone often appear to be humble. But their search for a new spiritual experience or advocacy of some work as necessary for salvation is actually human pride. They do not want to submit to God's plan of salvation.

2:20–23 submit to rules and regulations. Since believers have been released from ritualistic observances, why should they let others bind them down again (Ro 6:3–14)? No human work can be added to the merit of Christ's death. His work on the cross is the only acceptable work in God's eyes.

3:1–4 Set your mind . . . on the things above. The false teachers were instructing the Colossians to concentrate on temporal observances; in contrast, Paul instructs them to concentrate on the eternal realities of heaven. The Greek verb for set emphasizes an ongoing decision. Christians must continually discipline themselves to focus on eternal realities instead of the temporal realities of this earth.

3:9–10 old self . . . new [spiritual] self. These two terms do not refer to the Christian's fleshly and spiritual natures. Instead, Paul describes our former unredeemed life as the old self and our life as God's child as the new self. The new self has the image of the new creation in Christ, just as the old self bears the image of our fallen nature. The old self is under an old master, Satan, while the new self has a new master, the Spirit of God living within.

3:11 barbarian. In the Roman Empire a person who did not speak Greek was despised. Scythian. An uncultured person who came from the area around the Black Sea.

3:18–23 be subject. See notes on Ephesians 5:19–31.

3:22–25 the inheritance which is your [greatest] reward. The strong motivation to serve someone well is found in the future reward that Christ gives to those who are faithful in this service. We normally think we receive eternal rewards for spiritual practices like reading the Bible, prayer, or evangelism. Here, Paul asserts that all work done to the honor of Christ will bring an eternal reward (1:22–23; 2:18).

4:5 Conduct yourself with wisdom in your interactions with outsiders. Early Christians were often viewed with suspicion, distrust, and disdain. They were considered atheists because they would not worship the gods of Rome and Greece. Many labeled them as unpatriotic because they would not burn incense before the image of the emperor. Some even accused the early Christians of participating in orgies because of their talk of "love feasts" (Jude 12). Others harbored suspicions that Christians were really cannibals who ate and drank the blood and body of the Lord. With such misrepresentations of Christian belief and practice running rampant, it was very important for misunderstandings to be dispelled by the virtuous and impeccable lives of Christian believers.

4:9 Onesimus. This slave of Philemon probably accompanied Tychicus to Colosse. Paul's letter to Philemon would have been carried along with the letter to the Colossians. It dealt with a personal situation between Onesimus and his master.

4:10–15 Mark. This is the author of the Gospel of Mark.

4:18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. The apostle dictated his letters to a secretary, but it was his custom to give a greeting in his own handwriting at the end (2Th 2:1; 3:17). This served to personalize and authenticate the letter.

The First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

► AUTHOR: First Thessalonians went unchallenged as a Pauline Epistle until the nineteenth century, when radical critics claimed that its lack of doctrinal content made its authenticity suspect. But this is a weak objection on two counts: (1) the proportion of doctrinal teaching in Paul's epistles varies widely, and (2) 4:13–5:11 is a foundational passage for New Testament eschatology (future events). Paul had quickly grounded the Thessalonians in Christian doctrine, and the only problematic issue when this epistle was written concerned the matter of Christ's return. Paul planted the Thessalonian church on his second missionary journey, and wrote this epistle as a response to a good report regarding the church from Timothy in AD 51.

► KEY VERSES: 1Th 3:12–13

► THEME: In that Paul's time in Thessalonica was cut short, Paul used these letters to clarify some of his teaching. After a review of the basics, the primary issues covered in 1 Thessalonians are what happens when people die and the timing of the second coming of Christ. In that there were so many people around at that time that had seen Jesus, the promise of His return was met with anxious expectation. We tend to be blasé about it because we have watched so many predictions concerning the end times come and go, but this book will help us to sharpen and renew our expectations.

1 Thessalonians 1

Thanksgiving for These Believers

1 PAUL, SILVANUS (Silas), and Timothy, ‡

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being from God].

2 We give thanks to God always for all of you, continually mentioning you in our prayers; ‡

3. recalling unceasingly before our God and Father your work energized by faith, and your service motivated by love and unwavering hope in [the return of] our Lord Jesus Christ. [1 Thess 1:10] ‡

4 Brothers and sisters beloved by God, we know that He has chosen you; ‡

5-for our good news [regarding salvation] came to you not only in word, but also in [its inherent] power and in the Holy Spirit and with great conviction [on our part]. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your benefit. ‡

6-You became imitators of us and [through us] of the Lord, after you welcomed our message in [a time of] great trouble with the joy supplied by the Holy Spirit; ‡

7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

8-For the word of the Lord has resounded from you and has echoed [like thunder], not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place [the news of] your [great] faith in God has spread, so that we never need to say anything about it. ‡

9 For they themselves report about us, telling what kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, ‡

10-and to [look forward and confidently] wait for [the coming of] His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Jesus, who [personally] rescues us from the coming wrath [and draws us to Himself, granting us all the privileges and rewards of a new life with Him]. ‡

Paul's Ministry

<sup>1</sup> FOR YOU know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you has not been ineffective (fruitless, in vain), ‡

<sup>2</sup>-but after we had already suffered and been outrageously treated in Philippi, as you know, yet in [the strength of] our God we summoned the courage to proclaim boldly to you the good news of God [regarding salvation] amid great opposition. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For our appeal does not come from delusion or impure motives, nor [is it motivated] by deceit [our message is complete, accurate, and based on the truth—it does not change]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel [that tells the good news of salvation through faith in Christ], so we speak, not as [if we were trying] to please people [to gain power and popularity], but to please God who examines our hearts [expecting our best]. ‡

<sup>5</sup>-For as you well know, we never came with words of flattery nor with a pretext for greed—God is our witness—‡

<sup>6</sup> nor did we seek glory and honor from people, neither from you nor from anyone else, though as apostles of Christ we had the power to assert our authority. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But we behaved gently when we were among you, like a devoted mother tenderly caring for her own children. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Having such a deep affection for you, we were delighted to share with you not only God's good news but also our own lives, because you had become so very dear to us. ‡

<sup>9</sup>-For you remember, believers, our labor and hardship. We worked night and day [practicing our trade] in order not to be a [financial] burden to any of you while we proclaimed the gospel of God to you. ‡

<sup>10</sup> You are witnesses, and so is God, how unworldly and just and blameless was our behavior toward you who believe [in our Lord Jesus Christ]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For you know how we were exhorting and encouraging and imploring each one of you just as a father does [in dealing with] his own children, [guiding you]

<sup>12</sup> to live lives [of honor, moral courage, and personal integrity] worthy of the God who [saves you and] calls you into His own kingdom and glory. ‡

<sup>13</sup>-And we also thank God continually for this, that when you received the word of God [concerning salvation] which you heard from us, you welcomed it not as the word of [mere] men, but as it truly is, the word of God, which is effectually at work in you who believe [exercising its inherent, supernatural power in those of faith]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, because you too suffered the same [kind of] persecution from your own countrymen, as they did from the Jews, ‡

<sup>15</sup> who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and harassed and drove us out; and [they] continue to be highly displeasing to God and [to show themselves] hostile to all people, ‡

<sup>16</sup> forbidding us from speaking to the Gentiles (non-Jews) so that they may be saved. So, as always, they fill up [to the brim] the measure of their sins [allotted to them by God]. But [God's] wrath has come upon them at last [completely and forever].  [Gen 15:16] ‡

<sup>17</sup> But since we were taken away from you, believers, for a little while—in person, but not in heart—we endeavored, with great longing to see you face to face. ‡

<sup>18</sup> For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, again and again [wanted to come], but Satan hindered us. ‡

<sup>19</sup> For who is [the object of] our hope or joy or our victor's wreath of triumphant celebration [when we stand] in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? Is it not you? ‡

Encouragement of Timothy's Visit

<sup>2</sup> and so we sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in [spreading] the good news of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you [exhorting, comforting, and establishing you] in regard to your faith, ‡

<sup>3</sup> so that no one would be unsettled by these difficulties [to which I have referred]. For you know that we have been destined for this [as something unavoidable in our position]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> For even when we were with you, we warned you plainly in advance that we were going to experience persecution; and so, as you know, it has come to pass. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For this reason, when I could no longer endure the suspense, I sent someone to find out about your faith [how you were holding up under pressure], for fear that somehow the tempter had tempted you and our work [among you] would prove to be ineffective. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But now that Timothy has come back to us from [his visit with] you, and has brought us good news of your [steadfast] faith and [the warmth of your] love, and [reported] that you always think kindly of us and treasure your memories of us, longing to see us just as we long to see you, ‡

<sup>7</sup> for this reason, brothers and sisters, during all our distress and suffering we have been comforted and greatly encouraged about you because of your faith [your unwavering trust in God—placing yourselves completely in His loving hands]; ‡

<sup>8</sup> because now we really live [in spite of everything], if you stand firm in the Lord. ‡

<sup>9</sup> For what [adequate] thanks can we offer to God for you in return for all the joy and delight we have before our God on your account? ‡

<sup>10</sup> We continue to pray night and day most earnestly that we may see you face to face, and may complete whatever may be imperfect and lacking in your faith. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now may our God and Father Himself, and Jesus our Lord guide our steps to you [by removing the obstacles that stand in our way]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And may the Lord cause you to increase and excel and overflow in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you; ‡

<sup>13</sup> so that He may strengthen and establish your hearts without blame in holiness in the sight of our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints (God's people). ‡

Sanctification and Love

<sup>1</sup> FINALLY, BELIEVERS, we ask and admonish you in the Lord Jesus, that you follow the instruction that you received from us about how you ought to walk and please God (just as you are actually doing) and that you excel even more and more [pursuing a life of purpose and living in a way that expresses gratitude to God for your salvation]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For you know what commandments and precepts we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> For this is the will of God, that you be sanctified [separated and set apart from sin]: that you abstain and back away from sexual immorality; ‡

<sup>4</sup> that each of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor [being available for God's purpose and separated from things profane], ‡

<sup>5</sup> not [to be used] in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God and are ignorant of His will; ‡

<sup>6</sup> and that [in this matter of sexual misconduct] no man shall transgress and defraud his brother because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we have told you before and solemnly warned you. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For God has not called us to impurity, but to holiness [to be dedicated, and set apart by behavior that pleases Him, whether in public or in private]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So whoever rejects and disregards this is not [merely] rejecting man but the God who gives His Holy Spirit to you [to dwell in you and empower you to overcome temptation]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Now concerning brotherly love, you have no need for anyone to write you, for you have been [personally] taught by God to love one another [that is, to have an unselfish concern for others and to do things for their benefit].  [Lev 19:18; John 13:34 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> For indeed you already do practice it toward all the believers throughout Macedonia [by actively displaying your love and concern for them]. But we urge you, brothers and sisters, that you excel [in this matter] more and more, ‡

<sup>11</sup> and to make it your ambition to live quietly and peacefully, and to mind your own affairs and work with your hands, just as we directed you, ‡

<sup>12</sup> so that you will behave properly toward outsiders [exhibiting good character, personal integrity, and moral courage worthy of the respect of the outside world], and be dependent on no one and in need of nothing [be self-supporting]. ‡

Those Who Died in Christ

<sup>13</sup> Now we do not want you to be uninformed, believers, about those who are asleep [in death], so that you will not grieve [for them] as the others do who have no hope [beyond this present life]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again [as in fact He did], even so God [in this same way—by raising them from the dead] will bring with Him those [believers] who have fallen asleep in Jesus. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For we say this to you by the Lord's [own] word, that we who are still alive and remain until the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede [into His presence] those [believers] who have fallen asleep [in death]. ‡

<sup>16</sup> For the Lord Himself will come down from heaven with a shout of command, with the voice of the archangel and with the [blast of the] trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then we who are alive and remain [on the earth] will simultaneously be caught up (raptured) together with them [the resurrected ones] in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord!  [John 14:3 ; 1 Cor 15:52 ; 2 Cor 5:8 ; Phil 1:23 ; Col 3:4 ] ‡

The Day of the Lord

<sup>1</sup> NOW AS to the times and dates, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For you yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the [return of the] Lord is coming just as a thief [comes unexpectedly and suddenly] in the night. ‡

<sup>3</sup> While they are saying, "Peace and safety [all is well and secure!]" then [in a moment unforeseen] destruction will come upon them suddenly like labor pains on a woman with child, and they will absolutely not escape [for there will be no way to escape the judgment of the Lord]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But you, believers, [all you who believe in Christ as Savior and acknowledge Him as God's Son] are not in spiritual darkness [nor held by its power], that the day [of judgment] would overtake you [by surprise] like a thief; ‡

<sup>5</sup> for you are all sons of light and sons of day. We do not belong to the night nor to darkness. ‡

<sup>6</sup> So then let us not sleep [in spiritual indifference] as the rest [of the world does], but let us keep wide awake [alert and cautious] and let us be sober [self-controlled, calm, and wise]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. ‡

8. But since we [believers] belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope and confident assurance of salvation. ‡

9. For God has not destined us to [incur His] wrath [that is, He did not select us to condemn us], but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ‡

10 who died [willingly] for us, so that whether we are awake (alive) or asleep (dead) [at Christ's appearing], we will live together with Him [sharing eternal life]. ‡

11 Therefore encourage and comfort one another and build up one another, just as you are doing. ‡

Christian Conduct

12. Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to appreciate those who diligently work among you [recognize, acknowledge, and respect your leaders], who are in charge over you in the Lord and who give you instruction, ‡

13 and [we ask that you appreciate them and] hold them in the highest esteem in love because of their work [on your behalf]. Live in peace with one another. ‡

14 We [earnestly] urge you, believers, admonish those who are out of line [the undisciplined, the unruly, the disorderly], encourage the timid [who lack spiritual courage], help the [spiritually] weak, be very patient with everyone [always controlling your temper].  [Is 35:4 ] ‡

15 See that no one repays another with evil for evil, but always seek that which is good for one another and for all people. ‡

16. Rejoice always and delight in your faith; ‡

17. be unceasing and persistent in prayer; ‡

18 in every situation [no matter what the circumstances] be thankful and continually give thanks to God; for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

19 Do not quench [subdue, or be unresponsive to the working and guidance of] the [Holy] Spirit. ‡

20 Do not scorn or reject gifts of prophecy or prophecies [spoken revelations —words of instruction or exhortation or warning]. ‡

21 But test all things carefully [so you can recognize what is good]. Hold firmly to that which is good. ‡

22 Abstain from every form of evil [withdraw and keep away from it]. ‡

23 Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you through and through [that is, separate you from profane and vulgar things, make you pure and whole and undamaged—consecrated to Him—set apart for His purpose]; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept complete and [be found] blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

24 Faithful and absolutely trustworthy is He who is calling you [to Himself for your salvation], and He will do it [He will fulfill His call by making you holy, guarding you, watching over you, and protecting you as His own]. ‡

25 Brothers and sisters, pray for us. ‡

26 Greet all the believers with a holy kiss [as brothers and sisters in God's family]. ‡

27 I solemnly charge you by the Lord to have this letter read before all the congregation. ‡

Annotations for 1 Thessalonians

1:1 Silvanus. Silvanus is the Roman form of the name Silas. After Paul had separated from Barnabas (Ac 15:36–40), Silas became Paul's traveling companion on the second missionary journey, and he may have served as Paul's secretary. He was a leader of the Jerusalem church (Ac 15:22–23), and he accompanied Paul and Barnabas to Antioch to deliver the decree of the Jerusalem council (Ac 15:22–23). He and Paul suffered a beating at Philippi (Ac 16:22–24), and he had helped found the church at Thessalonica (Ac 17:1–4). Timothy. Timothy was also with Paul on the second missionary journey. Paul considered him like a son and loved him dearly (Ac 16:3; 1Ti 1:2). This letter is a response to Timothy's report from the church in Thessalonica. To the church. The Greek word ekklesia was a familiar term meaning any gathering or assembly. In its New Testament usage this word calls to mind the relationship of believers in Thessalonica as a body.

1:3 unwavering hope. The believers at Thessalonica fixed their hope solidly on the return of Jesus Christ (v. 10). Notice that each of the virtues has Christ as its object. Jesus is constantly the focus. This is a good standard for evaluating any Christian service.

1:5 our good news. Paul had preached the gospel to them clearly when he was with them. For three weeks he had “engaged in discussion and friendly debate with them from the Scriptures, explaining and pointing out [scriptural evidence] that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and rise from the dead” (Ac 17:2–3). This message was far different from the messianic expectations that Paul knew from his own training as a Pharisee. The Jews of that day were not looking for a suffering savior but a conquering champion.

1:5 Sharing Our Faith— In order to share our faith successfully, we must keep the following rules in mind:

First, we must be clean vessels. God reminds Isaiah the prophet of this: “purify yourselves, you who carry the articles of the Lord” (Isa 52:11). David prays for forgiveness and cleansing, and a willing spirit. He states, “Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners shall be converted and return to You” (Ps 51:13).

We must be able to clearly give out the simple facts of the gospel without getting bogged down with profound theological concepts. Philip the evangelist demonstrated how to do this when he dealt with the Ethiopian eunuch in the desert. “Then Philip spoke and beginning with this Scripture he preached Jesus to him” (Ac 8:35).

We must avoid arguments and stick to the basic issues of man’s sin and Christ’s sacrifice.

We must use the Word of God. Paul’s tremendous success as an evangelist can be linked directly to his constant use of God’s Word (Ac 17:2; 18:28; 2Ti 2:15; 3:14–17).

We must depend upon the Spirit of God (Jn 3:15; Ac 6:10; 1Co 2:4). Go to Theological Notes Index

1:6 imitators of us. As we focus on Jesus we will reflect His image to others (2Co 3:18).

1:8 the word of the Lord has resounded from you. Since Thessalonica was a port city on the much-traveled Egnatian Way, those who saw the virtuous life and persistent faith of the Thessalonican Christians would spread the word throughout the entire region.

1:10 rescues us from the coming wrath. Because Christ endured God’s wrath at Calvary, all who are in Christ will escape that wrath. They have nothing to fear.

2:2 in Philippi. Paul and Silas were beaten and put in the stocks in Philippi (Ac 16:22–24).

2:5 words of flattery. Far from flattering, Paul preached boldly that everyone was a sinner who needed to be saved by the grace of God.

2:9 labor. This word indicates strenuous work that produces weariness. Paul made tents to provide for his financial needs (Ac 18:3 ), showing that his ministry was motivated by an unselfish desire to promote the well-being of others rather than to advance his own needs.

2:13 effectually at work. Gentile Christians in Thessalonica could contrast the pure Word of God, with its transforming effect, with the immoral pagan religions, which only perverted people even more. Likewise, Jewish believers could contrast the love and grace of God in the gospel to the legalism and pride often produced by the Jewish religion.

2:16 fill up [to the brim] the measure of their sins. The implication is that God will allow a nation, group, or individual to go only so far in sin before He brings judgment upon them (Ge 15:16 ).

2:18 Satan hindered us. Satan has a vested interest in hindering the spread of the gospel, and we may be sure that when we are engaged in the Lord's work, we will experience spiritual attacks and opposition of various kinds.

3:1 Athens. When forced to leave Thessalonica, Paul and Silas went to Berea, the next city west of Thessalonica. The Thessalonian Jews who had opposed Paul learned that he was at Berea, and went there also to stir up opposition. Paul's friends then escorted him south to Athens (Ac 17:13–15 ).

3:3 unsettled by these difficulties. The Bible teaches that those who live godly lives should expect persecution (2Ti 3:12 ). In fact, Christ warned His disciples that they would experience the same type of rejection He had experienced (Jn 15:18–21 ). But such suffering should not make us depressed. Instead we should rejoice that we are allied with His name (Mt 5:10–12 ).

3:12 increase and excel and overflow in love for one another. Christ had told His disciples that His followers would be identified by their love for one another (Jn 13:35 ).

3:13 all His saints. The word saints means "holy ones" or "those set apart." It can be used to apply to believers, or to holy angels. Angels will participate in the second coming (4:16 ; Jude 14 ; Rev 19:14 ).

4:1 how you ought to walk. The Christian life not only begins with faith, but it continues as a daily walk of faith. Christians are not to live like unsaved Gentiles (Eph 4:17 ), instead they are to walk worthy of their calling from God (Eph 4:1 ). John exhorts Christians to walk in the light, that is, in the revealed will of God (1Jn 1:7 ).

4:3 abstain and back away from sexual immorality. A major problem for the early church was maintaining sexual purity (1Co 5:1 ,9–11 ). Pagan religions often included sexual orgies as part of their rites of worship, and temple prostitutes were dedicated to various gods. In contrast, Christianity taught that the body is God's temple (1Co 6:18–20 ). The body should be honored as created by God and should be sanctified in keeping with its holy purpose.

4:10 excel [in this matter] more and more. These believers already had a good record of loving one another, but Paul desired that love to increase. This was the commandment of Jesus (Jn 13:34–35 ; 15:12 ,17 ) and is an important basis of evangelism. In a world that is filled with self-serving individuals, the genuine love of Christians should attract others to the faith.

4:11 make it your ambition to live quietly and peacefully. This does not refer to a lack of activity but rather to an inner quietness and peace befitting the Christian faith (2Th 3:12 ; 1Ti 2:11 ). work with your hands. Usually people who are busy running other people's affairs do not run their own affairs well. A Christian's house should be in order as a testimony to others.

4:14 those [believers] who have fallen asleep. Some believe this phrase indicates that departed Christians are unconscious until the second coming. But the Bible indicates that to be absent from our present body is to be present with the Lord Jesus (5:10 ; 2Co 5:8 ; Php 1:23 ). When a Christian dies, it is the body that sleeps. The soul goes to heaven.

4:16 come down from heaven with a shout. Accompanying the descent of Christ from heaven will be the voice of an archangel, perhaps Michael, who is portrayed as the leader of the army of God (Da 10:13 ,21 ; Jude 9 ; Rev 12:7–9 ). The only other angel named in Scripture is Gabriel, who is given a prominent role as a messenger of God (Da 8:16 ; 9:21 ; Lk 1:19 ,26 ). the dead in Christ will rise. Clearly this will be a physical resurrection in which bodily existence will be restored, as confirmed in 1 Corinthians 15:51–53 . The resurrected bodies of Christians will be like the body of Christ (1Jn 3:2 ), incorruptible and immortal, and yet they will be bodies of flesh and bone (Lk 24:39–40 ; Jn 20:20 , 25 ,27 ).

[5:2 the day of the \[return of the\] Lord.](#) This expression was familiar to those who knew the Hebrew Scriptures. The day of the Lord in the Old Testament was characterized by two phases: God’s judgment against sinful people and God’s eternal reign over His people. God’s judgment will be a time of darkness and an expression of His wrath (Joel 2:1–2 ; Am 5:18–20 ; Zep 1:14–15 ). His reign will also be a time blessing (Isa 2:1–3 ; 11:1–9 ; 30:23–26 ; Zec 14:1 , 7–11 ,20–21 ; Mt 19:28 ; Ac 3:19–21 ).

5:4 not in spiritual darkness. Though the day of the Lord will overtake the unsaved world unexpectedly, it will not overtake Christians, because they will be looking forward to and expecting it. The fact that Christ could come at any moment should motivate unbelievers to accept His forgiveness, and believers to live daily for Him.

[5:9 not destined us to \[incur His\] wrath.](#) There will be wrath at the day of the Lord, but it will be God’s wrath on the unbelieving world that has spurned and mocked Christ (Rev 6:12–17 ).

5:12 Now we ask you. Significantly, Paul combines prophecy with practical teachings for the Christian life. God never intended prophecy to just be a field for academic debate, but to be a truth that would provide believers hope and direction in their lives.

5:16 Rejoice always. Regardless of difficult circumstances, a Christian always has grounds for rejoicing. The Lord is a sovereign Ruler and will accomplish His purpose. Christian joy is not based on circumstances, but on a growing awareness of God and the certain future of eternal life with Christ (Rev 21:1–7 ).

5:17 be unceasing and persistent in prayer. To pray without ceasing seems impossible, but a person can develop an attitude and habit of constant prayer. No matter what else is going on, we should be aware of God’s presence with us, and turn to Him with every thought and action.

5:23 spirit and soul and body. Every part of the Christian life should bear evidence that we are set apart as holy to God.

5:26 a holy kiss. A kiss was a customary greeting among friends (as it still is in some cultures), something like our modern handshake.

The Second Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

- AUTHOR: The external attestation to the authenticity of 2 Thessalonians as a Pauline Epistle is even stronger than that for 1 Thessalonians. Internally the vocabulary, style, and doctrinal content support the claims in 1:1 and 3:17 that it was written by Paul. This letter was probably written a few months after 1 Thessalonians, while Paul was still in Corinth with Silas and Timothy (1:1 ; Ac 18:5 ).
- TIMES: c. AD 51
- KEY VERSES: 2Th 2:2–3
- THEME: This letter to the Thessalonians appears to have been written fairly soon after the first one. He provides some further clarification on some of the same issues he addressed in the first letter. There appears to still be some confusion about the events of the end times, which he clarifies. He also wisely encourages the believers in the basics he has taught them in his role as a caring pastor.

2 Thessalonians 1

Thanksgiving for Faith and Perseverance

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>3</sup> We ought always and indeed are morally obligated [as those in debt] to give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is fitting, because your faith is growing ever greater, and the [unselfish] love of each one of you toward one another is continually increasing. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, we speak of you with pride among the churches of God for your steadfastness [your unflinching endurance, and patience] and your firm faith in the midst of all the persecution and [crushing] distress which you endure. ‡

<sup>6</sup> For after all it is only just for God to repay with distress those who distress you, ‡

<sup>7</sup> and to give relief to you who are so distressed and to us as well when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in a flame of fire, ‡

<sup>8</sup> dealing out [full and complete] vengeance to those who do not [seek to] know God and to those who ignore and refuse to obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus [by choosing not to respond to Him]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> These people will pay the penalty and endure the punishment of everlasting destruction, banished from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, ‡

<sup>10</sup> when He comes to be glorified in His saints on that day [that is, glorified through the changed lives of those who have accepted Him as Savior and have been set apart for His purpose], and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed and trusted [and confirmed in your lives]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> With this in view, we constantly pray for you, that our God will count

you worthy of your calling [to faith] and with [His] power fulfill every desire for goodness, and complete [your] every work of faith,‡

12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified in you [by what you do], and you in Him, according to the [precious] grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.‡

2 Thessalonians 2

Man of Lawlessness

1 NOW IN regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to meet Him, we ask you, brothers and sisters, [Mark 13:27 ; 1 Thess 2:19 ; 4:15-17] ‡

2-not to be quickly unsettled or alarmed either by a [so-called prophetic revelation of a] spirit or a message or a letter [alleged to be] from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has [already] come.‡

3-Let no one in any way deceive or entrap you, for that day will not come unless the apostasy comes first [that is, the great rebellion, the abandonment of the faith by professed Christians], and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction [the Antichrist, the one who is destined to be destroyed], [Dan 7:25 ; 8:25 ; 1 Tim 4:1] ‡

4-who opposes and exalts himself [so proudly and so insolently] above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he [actually enters and] takes his seat in the temple of God, publicly proclaiming that he himself is God. [Ezek 28:2 ; Dan 11:36, 37] ‡

5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I was telling you these things?

6 And you know what restrains him now [from being revealed]; it is so that he will be revealed at his own [appointed] time.

7-For the mystery of lawlessness [rebellion against divine authority and the coming reign of lawlessness] is already at work; [but it is restrained] only until he who now restrains it is taken out of the way.‡

8-Then the lawless one [the Antichrist] will be revealed and the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of His mouth and bring him to an end by the appearance of His coming. [Is 11:4] ‡

9 The coming of the [Antichrist, the lawless] one is through the activity of Satan, [attended] with great power [all kinds of counterfeit miracles] and

[deceptive] signs and false wonders [all of them lies], ‡

<sup>10</sup> and by unlimited seduction to evil and with all the deception of wickedness for those who are perishing, because they did not welcome the love of the truth [of the gospel] so as to be saved [they were spiritually blind, and rejected the truth that would have saved them]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Because of this God will send upon them a misleading influence, [an activity of error and deception] so they will believe the lie, ‡

<sup>12</sup> in order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe the truth [about their sin, and the need for salvation through Christ], but instead took pleasure in unrighteousness. ‡

<sup>13</sup> But we should and are [morally] obligated [as debtors] always to give thanks to God for you, believers beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through the sanctifying work of the Spirit [that sets you apart for God's purpose] and by your faith in the truth [of God's word that leads you to spiritual maturity]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> It was to this end that He called you through our gospel [the good news of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection], so that you may obtain and share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold [tightly] to the traditions which you were taught, whether by word of mouth or by letter from us. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting comfort and encouragement and the good [well-founded] hope [of salvation] by His grace, ‡

2 Thessalonians 3

Exhortation

<sup>1</sup> FINALLY, BROTHERS and sisters, pray continually for us that the word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be honored [triumphantly celebrated and glorified], just as it was with you; ‡

<sup>2</sup>—and [pray] that we will be rescued from perverse and evil men; for not everyone has the faith. ‡

foundation] and will protect and guard you from the evil one. ‡

<sup>4</sup> We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will continue to do the things [which] we command. ‡

<sup>5</sup> May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the steadfastness and patience of Christ. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Now we command you, believers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and by His authority, that you withdraw and keep away from every brother or sister who leads an undisciplined life and does not live in accordance with the tradition and teaching that you have received from us. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example, because we did not act in an undisciplined or inappropriate manner when we were with you [we were never idle or lazy, nor did we avoid our duties], ‡

<sup>8</sup> nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with labor and hardship we worked night and day [to pay our own way] so that we would not be a financial burden on any of you [for our support]; ‡

<sup>9</sup> not because we do not have a right to such support, but [we provided our own financial support] to offer ourselves as a model for you, so that you would follow our example. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For even while we were with you, we used to give you this order: if anyone is not willing to work, then he is not to eat, either. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Indeed, we hear that some among you are leading an undisciplined and inappropriate life, doing no work at all, but acting like busybodies [meddling in other people's business]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Now such people we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and work quietly and earn their own food and other necessities [supporting themselves instead of depending on the hospitality of others]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> And as for [the rest of] you, believers, do not grow tired or lose heart in doing good [but continue doing what is right without weakening]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now if anyone [in the church] does not obey what we say in this letter, take special note of that person and do not associate with him, so that he will be ashamed and repent. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Do not regard him as an enemy, but keep admonishing him as a [believing] brother. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Now may the Lord of peace Himself grant you His peace at all times and in every way [that peace and spiritual well-being that comes to those who walk with Him, regardless of life's circumstances]. The Lord be with you all.
 [John 14:27 ] ‡

Annotations for 2 Thessalonians

1:1 Silvanus \(Silas\), and Timothy. Silvanus (Latin for Silas) had been Paul's traveling companion ever since the start of the second missionary journey. He had participated in the founding of the church at Thessalonica (Ac 17:1–4). Timothy also accompanied Paul on his second missionary journey. His report from the Thessalonian church had been the occasion for writing 1 Thessalonians (1Th 3:6–8). To the church. The Greek word ekklesia means “gathering” or “assembly.”

1:5 considered worthy of His kingdom. If believers handle their persecutions properly, they will be counted worthy of great reward in the coming kingdom of God (Mt 5:12 ; 1Pe 2:19–20). Christians are called to endure suffering in this world, for they will receive a far greater reward in the next (2Ti 2:12).

1:7–8 when the Lord Jesus is revealed. Presently the Lord Jesus is enthroned in glory at the right hand of the Father (Jn 17:5). Stephen saw this glory before he was martyred (Ac 7:55–56), but one day, and it may be soon, “every eye will see Him” (Rev 1:7). in a flame of fire. Some believe that this is the fulfillment of John the Baptist’s prophecy of the One who would “baptize with fire” (Mt 3:11–12 ; Lk 3:16–17).

[1:8 do not \[seek to\] know . . . refuse to obey.](#) Those who do not know are the unbelieving Gentiles, those who do not obey are the unbelieving Jews who knew about God and rejected His Son (Ro 10:1–16).

1:12 glorified in you. Christ will be glorified not only among, but also in the saints, for believers reflect His glory.

2:1 to the coming of our Lord. After writing 1 Thessalonians, Paul had received word that the believers in Thessalonica were being misled by false teachers who were confusing the believers with erroneous ideas about the second coming. gathering together to meet Him. This will be the first time that the whole church, including every believer, will be gathered before the Lord to worship Him. The phrase seems to refer to the event described in 1 Thessalonians 4:17, where Paul speaks of meeting the Lord in the air.

[2:2 the day of the Lord has \[already\] come.](#) The false teaching was that the day of the Lord (1Th 5:2–4) had already come, bringing with it the tribulations they were experiencing. Thus, some Thessalonian believers thought that they had missed the second coming.

2:3 apostasy. The Greek word translated “apostasy” is the word commonly used to describe a military rebellion. In the Scriptures, the word is used of rebellion against God. Some have therefore interpreted this verse to refer to a general defection from the truth, perhaps even by those professing to be the church. This apostasy would prepare the way for the antichrist. the man of lawlessness. Paul does not use the title “antichrist” for this man, but his description parallels John’s description of the antichrist (1Jn 2:18 ; Rev 13). The man of lawlessness will lead the world into rebellion against God (v. 10), perform wonders through Satan’s power (v. 9), and finally will present himself as a god to be worshiped (v. 4).

2:4 takes his seat in the temple of God. This is the ultimate fulfillment of the “abomination of desolation” spoken of by Daniel (Da 7:23 ; 9:26 ; 11:31 ,36–37 ; 12:11) and Jesus (Mt 24:15 ; Mk 13:14).

2:7 is already at work. The evil and deception that the man of sin embodies already exist in this world (1Jn 2:18). Anyone who opposes Christ and His church and seeks to deceive others into worshiping false gods is against Christ (antichrist). taken out of the way. Many believe that this verse refers to the rapture of the church (1Th 4:16–17), and the cessation of the Holy Spirit working through believers to restrain the power of sin in this world. There are a variety of other interpretations for the identity of the restrainer, including the Roman state, or the principle of law and government embodied in the state.

2:8 the Lord Jesus will slay him . . . and bring him to an end. Although the man of lawlessness will be revealed as extremely powerful (Rev 13:7 ), he will be destroyed by Christ and cast into the lake of fire when the Lord comes (Rev 19:19–20 ).

2:14 obtain and share in the glory. The Thessalonians have already been saved (v. 13 ), and called, but they must respond to God's work in them. Through the power of the Holy Spirit (v. 13 ), believers on this earth prepare for a future with Christ by living in a holy manner (1:10 ; 1Th 4:1–2 ).

2:17 comfort and encourage and strengthen your hearts. It is interesting to note that Paul uses the singular form of these verbs, with the plural subject of "Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father," supporting the trinity and equality of God (1Th 3:11 ).

3:2 perverse and evil men. These may have been the unbelieving Jews in Corinth who were persecuting Paul at the time he wrote this letter (Ac 18:12–13 ). Justice in this world may never come for Christians, but they can certainly pray for deliverance from the wicked.

3:5 direct your hearts. The heart, the seat of a person's will and emotions, is the place where spiritual renewal begins. There God plants love and patience, traits that will produce a harvest of good works.

3:6 command. This is not just a friendly suggestion, but a binding order with the authority of Jesus Christ. withdraw. Among other things, this would include not allowing the person to participate in love feasts and the Lord's Supper (1Co 5:9–12 ; Mt 18:15–17 ).

3:9 not because we do not have a right. It is right for the church to financially support those who do the Lord's work (Lk 10:7 ; 1Co 9:6–14 ; Gal 6:6 ; 1Ti 5:17–18 ).

3:11 doing no work at all. Some Thessalonians, apparently using the impending return of the Lord as an excuse, had refused to work and were expecting others in the church to feed them. In his previous letter, Paul had already exhorted them to work (1Th 4:11–12 ). Since they had not heeded, the time had come to take further steps. While believers must always act with gentleness and love toward one another, it is wrong to enable another person to continue in sin.

3:12 work quietly. The cure for gossips and busybodies is hard work. There is much truth in the saying "Satan finds work for idle hands."

3:15 as a [believing] brother. The disobedient one is not an enemy, but one who needs compassionate correction.

3:18 our Lord Jesus Christ. Not only is Jesus our ultimate hope, it is He who lovingly strengthens us to endure trials.

The First Letter of Paul to

Timothy

- AUTHOR: The external evidence solidly supports the position that Paul wrote the letters to Timothy and Titus. Only Romans and 1 Corinthians have better attestation among the Pauline Epistles. Pauline authorship of the Pastoral Epistles requires Paul's release from his Roman imprisonment (Ac 28), the continuation of his missionary endeavors, and his imprisonment for a second time in Rome. Unfortunately, the order of events can only be reconstructed from hints, because there is no concurrent history paralleling Acts to chronicle the last years of the apostle. It is most probable that Paul wrote 1 Timothy from Macedonia in AD 62 or 63 while Timothy was serving as his representative in Ephesus.
- TIMES: c. AD 62–63
- KEY VERSES: 1Ti 3:15–16
- THEME: The letters to Timothy and Titus are generally called the “Pastoral” Epistles. They are pastoral in tone and in the subject matter they address. While covering much of the apostolic instruction on the life and doctrine of the church, they also provide some guidelines on how Christians in the church should relate to society. One of the overriding concerns of the books is that truth be valued and guarded. Too often today, truth is subjective and culturally conditioned to the point where people don't even have problems believing mutually contradictory ideas. Paul speaks of the value of truth in his own apostolic role, and he stands against false teachers who would distort the truth for their own ends.

Misleadings in Doctrine and Living

<sup>1</sup> PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus by the commandment of God our Savior, and of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed) our Hope [the fulfillment of our salvation], ‡

<sup>2</sup> to Timothy, my true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. ‡

<sup>3</sup> As I urged you when I was on my way to Macedonia, stay on at Ephesus so that you may instruct certain individuals not to teach any different doctrines, ‡

<sup>12</sup> I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has granted me [the needed] strength and made me able for this, because He considered me faithful and trustworthy, putting me into service [for this ministry], ‡

13-even though I was formerly a blasphemer [of our Lord] and a persecutor [of His church] and a shameful and outrageous and violent aggressor [toward believers]. Yet I was shown mercy because I acted out of ignorance in unbelief. ‡

14-The grace of our Lord [His amazing, unmerited favor and blessing] flowed out in superabundance [for me, together] with the faith and love which are [realized] in Christ Jesus. ‡

15-This is a faithful and trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance and approval, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, among whom I am foremost. ‡

16-Yet for this reason I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost [of sinners], Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example or pattern for those who would believe in Him for eternal life. ‡

17 Now to the King of the ages [eternal], immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. ‡

18 This command I entrust to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophecies previously made concerning you, so that [inspired and aided] by them you may fight the good fight [in contending with false teachers], ‡

19 keeping your faith [leaning completely on God with absolute trust and confidence in His guidance] and having a good conscience; for some [people] have rejected [their moral compass] and have made a shipwreck of their faith.

20-Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan, so that they will be disciplined and taught not to blaspheme. ‡

1 Timothy 2

A Call to Prayer

<sup>1</sup> FIRST OF all, then, I urge that petitions (specific requests), prayers, intercessions (prayers for others) and thanksgivings be offered on behalf of all people,

<sup>2</sup> for kings and all who are in [positions of] high authority, so that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. ‡

<sup>3</sup> This [kind of praying] is good and acceptable and pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, ‡

<sup>4</sup>-who wishes all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge and recognition of the [divine] truth. ‡

5-For there is [only] one God, and [only] one Mediator between God and mankind, the Man Christ Jesus, ‡

6-who gave Himself as a ransom [a substitutionary sacrifice to atone] for all, the testimony given at the right and proper time. ‡

7-And for this matter I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying [when I say this]—a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. ‡

8-Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger and disputing or quarreling or doubt [in their mind]. ‡

Women Instructed

9 Likewise, I want women to adorn themselves modestly and appropriately and discreetly in proper clothing, not with [elaborately] braided hair and gold or pearls or expensive clothes, ‡

10-but instead adorned by good deeds [helping others], as is proper for women who profess to worship God. ‡

11-A woman must quietly receive instruction with all submissiveness.

12-I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet [in the congregation]. ‡

13 For Adam was formed first [by God from the earth], then Eve;  [Gen 2:7, 21, 22 ] ‡

14-and it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman who was led astray and fell into sin.  [Gen 3:1–6 ] ‡

15-But women will be preserved (saved) through [the pain and dangers of] the bearing of children if they continue in faith and love and holiness with self-control and discretion.

1 Timothy 3

Overseers and Deacons

1 THIS IS a faithful and trustworthy saying: if any man [eagerly] seeks the office of overseer (bishop, superintendent), he desires an excellent task.

2-Now an overseer must be blameless and beyond reproach, the husband of one wife, self-controlled, sensible, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, ‡

<sup>5</sup>(for if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?).

<sup>6</sup>and He must not be a new convert, so that he will not [behave stupidly and] become conceited [by appointment to this high office] and fall into the [same] condemnation incurred by the devil [for his arrogance and pride]. [Is 14:12–14]

<sup>7</sup>And he must have a good reputation and be well thought of by those outside the church, so that he will not be discredited and fall into the devil's trap. ‡

<sup>11</sup>Women must likewise be worthy of respect, not malicious gossips, but self-controlled, [thoroughly] trustworthy in all things. ‡

<sup>13</sup>For those who have served well as deacons gain a high standing [having a good reputation among the congregation], and great confidence in the faith which is [founded on and centered] in Christ Jesus. ‡

<sup>14</sup>I hope to come to you before long, but I am writing these instructions to you

<sup>15</sup>in case I am delayed, so that you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ‡

<sup>16</sup>And great, we confess, is the mystery [the hidden truth] of godliness: ‡

He (Jesus Christ) who was revealed in human flesh,
Was justified and vindicated in the Spirit,

Seen by angels,
Preached among the nations,
Believed on in the world,
Taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4

Apostasy

<sup>3</sup> who forbid marriage and advocate abstaining from [certain kinds of] foods which God has created to be gratefully shared by those who believe and have [a clear] knowledge of the truth. ‡

<sup>4</sup> For everything God has created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude; ‡

<sup>5</sup> for it is sanctified [set apart, dedicated to God] by means of the word of God and prayer.

A Good Minister's Discipline

<sup>6</sup> If you point out these instructions to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, constantly nourished [through study] on the words of the faith and of the good [Christian] doctrine which you have closely followed. ‡

<sup>8</sup> For physical training is of some value, but godliness (spiritual training) is of value in everything and in every way, since it holds promise for the present life and for the life to come. ‡

<sup>10</sup> It is for this that we labor and strive [often called to account], because we have fixed our [confident] hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe [in Him, recognize Him as the Son of God, and accept Him as Savior and Lord]. ‡

11 Keep commanding and teaching these things.

12—Let no one look down on [you because of] your youth, but be an example and set a pattern for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in [moral] purity. ‡

13 Until I come, devote yourself to public reading [of Scripture], to preaching and to teaching [the sound doctrine of God's word].

14 Do not neglect the spiritual gift within you, [that special endowment] which was intentionally bestowed on you [by the Holy Spirit] through prophetic utterance when the elders laid their hands on you [at your ordination]. ‡

15 Practice and work hard on these things; be absorbed in them [completely occupied in your ministry], so that your progress will be evident to all.

16—Pay close attention to yourself [concentrate on your personal development] and to your teaching; persevere in these things [hold to them], for as you do this you will ensure salvation both for yourself and for those who hear you. ‡

Honor Widows

1 DO NOT sharply reprimand an older man, but appeal to him as [you would to] a father, to younger men as brothers, ‡

2—to older women as mothers, to younger women as sisters, in all purity [being careful to maintain appropriate relationships].

3. Honor and help those widows who are truly widowed [alone, and without support].

4 But if a widow has children or grandchildren [who are adults], see to it that these first learn to show great respect to their own family [as their religious duty and natural obligation], and to compensate their parents or grandparents [for their upbringing]; for this is acceptable and pleasing in the sight of God. ‡

5 Now a woman who is really a widow and has been left [entirely] alone [without adequate income] trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Whereas she who lives for pleasure and self-indulgence is spiritually dead even while she still lives. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Keep instructing [the people to do] these things as well, so that they may be blameless and beyond reproach.

<sup>8</sup> If anyone fails to provide for his own, and especially for those of his own family, he has denied the faith [by disregarding its precepts] and is worse than an unbeliever [who fulfills his obligation in these matters]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> A widow is to be put on the list [to receive regular assistance] only if she is over sixty years of age, [having been] the wife of one man,

<sup>10</sup> and has a reputation for good deeds; [she is eligible] if she has brought up children, if she has shown hospitality to strangers, if she has washed the feet of the saints (God's people), if she has assisted the distressed, and has devoted herself to doing good in every way. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now at the same time, they also learn to be idle as they go from house to house; and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies [meddlers in things that do not concern them], talking about things they should not mention. ‡

<sup>16</sup> If any believing woman has [dependent] widows [in her household], she must assist them [according to her ability]; and the church must not be burdened [with them], so that it may assist those who are truly widows [those who are all alone and are dependent]. ‡

Concerning Elders

<sup>17</sup> The elders who perform their leadership duties well are to be considered worthy of double honor (financial support), especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching [the word of God concerning eternal salvation through Christ]. ‡

TREADING OUT THE GRAIN [to keep it from eating]," and, "The worker is worthy of his wages [he deserves fair compensation]."  [Deut 25:4; Luke 10:7 ] ‡

19 Do not accept an accusation against an elder unless it is based on [the testimony of at least] two or three witnesses.  [Deut 19:15 ] ‡

20 As for those [elders] who continue in sin, reprimand them in the presence of all [the congregation], so that the rest will be warned. ‡

21 I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels that you guard and keep these rules without bias, doing nothing out of favoritism. ‡

22 Do not hurry to lay hands on anyone [ordaining and approving someone for ministry or an office in the church, or in reinstating expelled offenders], and thereby share in the sins of others; keep yourself free from sin. ‡

23 No longer continue drinking [only] water, but use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent illnesses. ‡

24 The sins of some people are conspicuous, leading the way for them into judgment [so that they are clearly not qualified for ministry]; but the sins of others appear later [for they are hidden and follow behind them]. ‡

25 Likewise, good deeds are quite evident, and those which are otherwise cannot be hidden [indefinitely].

1 Timothy 6

Instructions to Those Who Minister

1 ALL WHO are under the yoke as bond-servants (slaves) are to regard their own masters as worthy of honor and respect so that the name of God and the teaching [about Him] will not be spoken against. ‡

2 Those who have believing masters are not to be disrespectful toward them because they are brothers [in Christ], but they should serve them even better, because those who benefit from their kindly service are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these [duties and principles]. ‡

3 If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the doctrine and teaching which is in agreement with godliness (personal integrity, upright behavior), ‡

4 he is conceited and woefully ignorant [understanding nothing]. He has a morbid interest in controversial questions and disputes about words, which produces envy, quarrels, verbal abuse, evil suspicions, ‡

<sup>7</sup> For we have brought nothing into the world, so [it is clear that] we cannot take anything out of it, either. ‡

<sup>8</sup> But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But those who [are not financially ethical and] crave to get rich [with a compulsive, greedy longing for wealth] fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction [leading to personal misery]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For the love of money [that is, the greedy desire for it and the willingness to gain it unethically] is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves [through and through] with many sorrows. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Fight the good fight of the faith [in the conflict with evil]; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and [for which] you made the good confession [of faith] in the presence of many witnesses. ‡

<sup>13</sup> I solemnly charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and [in the presence] of Christ Jesus, who made the good confession [in His testimony] before Pontius Pilate, ‡

<sup>14</sup> to keep all His precepts without stain or reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ‡

<sup>15</sup> which He will bring about in His own time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign [the absolute Ruler], the King of those who reign as kings and Lord of those who rule as lords, ‡

<sup>16</sup> He alone possesses immortality [absolute exemption from death] and lives in unapproachable light, whom no man has ever seen or can see. To Him be honor and eternal power and dominion! Amen. ‡

<sup>17</sup> As for the rich in this present world, instruct them not to be conceited and arrogant, nor to set their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly and ceaselessly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. ‡

<sup>21</sup>—which some have professed and by doing so have erred (missed the mark) and strayed from the faith.

G race be with you.

Annotations for 1 Timothy

1:1 apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus. The Greek word for “apostle” means “sent one.” Paul was an ambassador sent by Christ (Ac 9 ).

1:2 Timothy. Timothy was a young believer from Lystra who traveled with Paul during his second and third missionary journeys.

1:3 that you may instruct. Paul’s request that Timothy stay in Ephesus to minister to the believers there demonstrates Paul’s confidence in the young man.

1:4 legends (fables, myths) and endless genealogies. The errors that Paul left Timothy to correct in Ephesus appear to have been primarily Jewish in nature. The Jews tended to place a lot of importance on the genealogies and also on allegorical interpretations of the law.

1:6 empty arguments and useless discussions. Gossip, speculation, and criticism should not come from the lips of believers.

1:8 Law. The proper function of the law is to make sinners aware of their sinfulness (Ro 3:20 ).

1:10 perjurors. The term “perjure” is more significant than simply “lie,” as it deals with false promises. To swear an oath and then not carry through is a serious thing indeed.

1:13 Yet I was shown mercy. Paul found mercy and forgiveness even after his intense persecution of the church. God surely offers salvation to all people (2:4 ).

1:14 grace. Grace is God’s undeserved, unearned, freely given favor.

1:15–16 Believing Jesus— Jesus came to earth to save sinners. Paul knew this firsthand. When he became a Christian, Paul realized the extent of his sin in terms of both his past sins and his current tendencies. But he also knew exactly where he stood in Christ as a believer. The mercy of God can only be acquired through belief. Paul reminds Timothy here of God’s perfect patience and mercy and urges others to come to faith and receive the benefit of new and everlasting life, as he has. Eternal life can only begin with belief. It is an active choice of the individual. We must believe that Jesus is the saving Christ or reject Him. Paul says, I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost [of sinners], Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example or pattern for those who would believe in Him for eternal life. If you have never believed in Jesus, take this opportunity to tell God how you feel. Believe in Jesus as Savior and begin on the path of a new life. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:16 believe in Him. As stated over 185 times in the New Testament, the sole condition for salvation is belief, having faith or trust in Jesus Christ. The gospel (or “good news”) is that Jesus Christ, God’s Son, gave up His heavenly kingdom for a time to become a human. As a man, He died for our sins, was buried, and rose on the third day. All who place their trust in Jesus will be saved from the coming judgment and from the present power of sin. To add any other condition to faith for salvation is to make it dependent on our own works (Ro 11:6 ; Gal 2:16 ).

1:20 handed over to Satan. Paul did not have some sort of authority over these men to have them “handed over” in the sense that they would now belong to Satan. Rather, Paul had stopped trying to exhort them, or show them the way they should go. They would not listen, so Paul had to say, “so be it, go your own way.”

2:4 who wishes all people to be saved. God desires that all men would be saved, although this does not mean that He will force this to happen. Only those who believe in Christ will receive salvation (Ro 1:16–17 ; 3:21–26 ; 5:17 ). Christ died for the sins of the entire world, but only those who believe will receive the benefits of His sacrifice. and to come to the knowledge and recognition of the [divine] truth. God not only wants our salvation (justification), He also wants us to grow in truth (sanctification) so that we will not be led astray by false teachers.

2:5 one God. This is the central truth of the Hebrew Scriptures. The only living God desires that all should be saved. He is the only one to whom our prayers should be addressed. Mediator. This is a concept that came from the ceremonial worship in the Old Testament. In the tabernacle and later in the temple, the priests mediated between God and Israel by offering sacrifices to atone for the sins of the people. In their position of mediator, the priests were the only ones eligible to enter into the holy place, the place where God had made His presence known. When Jesus came, He came as the Mediator between man and God. Through Him we can be eligible to enter into God's holy presence.

2:6 a ransom. The Greek word translated "ransom" is found only here in the New Testament. It specifically refers to a ransom paid for a slave.

2:7 in faith and truth. Paul was called not only to preach the gospel to the Gentiles, but also to guide their growth in truth.

2:8 men. The Greek word translated "men" in this verse refers specifically to males as distinguished from females. Some believe that this verse means specifically public worship, while others believe it refers to life in general. lifting up holy hands. This is a Hebrew way of praying (1Ki 8:22 ; Ps 141:2 ). "Holy" means morally and spiritually clean.

2:9 appropriately and discreetly. This word is also translated "with propriety," which means reverence and respect, shrinking away from what is inappropriate. in proper clothing. Modesty means more than just covering up enough. It means not flaunting one's wealth, or one's jewels, or one's name brands, as well as not flaunting one's body.

2:10 good deeds. A Christian woman's beauty should be found in her godly character and her love for the Lord as demonstrated in all types of good deeds.

2:11 quietly . . . with all submissiveness. These verses are not easy to understand, and there are many differences of opinion as to their meaning. The Scripture here does actually say just what it looks like: that women must be silent and submissive. It is universally accepted that this is referring to times of public worship, although the Bible makes it clear that a woman must submit to her husband (Eph 5:22 ; Col 3:18 ), but the concept of submission also applies to all believers. Philippians 4:5 says, "Let your gentle spirit be known to all people. The Lord is near." Being submissive means not being unruly or argumentative. There are times when it is proper for a woman to teach, pray, or prophesy (1Co 11 ), but apparently this is not supposed to happen in public worship.

2:12 to teach or exercise authority. It seems best to understand this passage as saying that women may exercise their spiritual gifts in a variety of ministries in the local assembly, as long as those gifts are exercised under the appropriate leadership of men. We have problems understanding the roles of men and women in the church. Often we want to ignore the subject altogether and say that men and women are entirely equal, the alternative being that men become despotic and tyrannical, while women become spiritually weak with no teaching and no opportunity to use their God-given gifts. Men and women are equal in God's eyes in terms of their value as people and eligibility for spiritual growth and relationship with God, but He created this difference in roles. Many tend to feel that this role difference is because of the fall, but God did create men and women to be different. The mess and confusion we have with our God-given positions is the result of the fall.

2:14 it was not Adam who was deceived. This seems to point to the fact that Adam sinned with his eyes open; he knew what he was doing. Eve sinned because she was deceived. Paul's arguments from creation and the fall seem to indicate that the prohibitions in verses 9–12 are permanent, not cultural.

2:15 will be preserved (saved) through [the pain and dangers of] the bearing of children. This is a very difficult verse to understand and no one agrees about what it means. We know that it does not mean "saved" in terms of receiving eternal life, because the Bible elsewhere makes it very clear we are saved by faith alone (Ro 1:16–17 ; 3:23–26 ; 5:17 ; Jn 3:15–18). Some think that it has to do with daily sanctification and the woman's special task of bearing children. Others say it is referring to being delivered from the desire to dominate by recognizing one's appropriate place in God's creation order. Still others believe that it refers specifically to the birth of Jesus Christ, the seed born of woman prophesied in Genesis 3:15.

3:1 overseer. This means a person who oversees a congregation. The words “overseer” and “elder” are used interchangeably for the same office (Titus 1:5–7).

3:2 blameless. The idea is not that an overseer is sinless, but that he displays mature, consistent Christian conduct that gives no reason for anyone to accuse him of anything. husband of one wife. This phrase is also subject to much disagreement. Many feel that it means “a one-woman kind of man,” indicating a lifestyle of fidelity. Others feel that it is more specific, and prohibits a divorced and remarried man from the elder position. Certainly it is an exclusion of any one who is sexually immoral or a polygamist.

3:3 a bully. This word is also translated “violent.” An overseer is not to be a quarrelsome man.

3:7 good reputation. An overseer must have a good reputation in the community. A non-Christian should not be able to reproach or insult an elder because of his behavior. The elder's good testimony avoids the traps of Satan.

3:8 Deacons. Deacons fill a second leadership position in the local assembly. The Greek word for deacon means “servant.” not double-tongued. This speaks specifically of the dangers of gossip, especially changing sides or changing a story to fit the audience.

3:9 mystery [that is, the true doctrine] of the [Christian] faith. The mystery of the faith is the coming of God in the flesh (v. 16). The Son of God becoming a human in order to serve humanity (Mk 10:43–45) is the embodiment of service.

3:11 Women must likewise be. Some believe here that Paul is speaking of another office in the local body, that of “deaconess,” godly women who serve under the leadership of the elders. Others, however, believe that this verse refers to the wives of the deacons, and not to an office. It could be assumed that both are true, and that the deacon and his wife are supposed to work together as a team, serving the church. The original language leaves the verse open to interpretation, since the Greek uses one word to mean both woman and wife.

3:15 pillar and foundation of the truth. Misconduct and disorder in the local church weaken the support of God's truth in the world. We as believers have a tremendous responsibility to keep the name of our Lord without spot or criticism from the nonbelieving world.

3:16 revealed in human flesh. This refers to Christ's incarnation, the fact that Jesus became man (Jn 1:14). justified and vindicated in the Spirit. This is the work of the Holy Spirit in Jesus' ministry and resurrection (Mt 3:15–17 ; Jn 16:7–10 ; Ro 1:4). Seen by angels. This refers to the angelic witness of Christ's ministry and resurrection. Preached among the nations. This refers to the preaching of Christ to the Gentiles (Col 1:23). Believed on in the world. This is the response of individuals to God's plan of salvation (Col 1:18–25). Taken up in glory. Christ ascended to heaven and is seated at God's right hand there (Ac 1:9 ; Heb 1:3–4).

4:1 the [Holy] Spirit explicitly and unmistakably declares. When Paul speaks of the Holy Spirit's words here, he may be referring to various prophecies inspired by the Holy Spirit concerning defection from God's truth (Da 7:25 ; 8:23 ; Mt 24:4–12), or also he may have been referring to a revelation the Spirit had given him.

4:5 sanctified. Sanctified means “set apart,” or “made holy.” Paul is saying that God has sanctified all the good things He created, from marriage to the food we eat. Nothing is less in accord with God than to begin forbidding the good things He made for us.

4:7 irreverent folklore and silly myths. Paul is merely using these terms to describe the superstitions and thoughtless beliefs that were prevalent.

4:8 of some value. This contrasts the short-term value of physical exercise with the long-term benefits of godliness for all things.

4:10 Savior of all people. This describes God as the One who gives life, breath, and existence to all.

4:12 be an example. Timothy, in spite of youth, was to set an example in five areas: “in speech”; “in conduct,” or behavior; “in love,” which is the love of God; “in faith,” meaning trust in God; “in purity,” both in thought and action. These are qualities every believer should strive after, practice, and desire.

4:16 ensure salvation . . . for yourself. This is not a reference to justification by works, but to sanctification, which is the Christian’s daily walk of faith (Mk 8:34–38 ; Jn 12:25–26 ). Timothy’s example and hard work in teaching would serve to help others with their walk also.

5:2 all purity. Believing men must respect the purity of a young woman as the purity of a sister.

5:3 truly widowed. This refers to a woman who when widowed is left with no family at all, as opposed to those widows who still have living children or other relations.

5:4 show great respect to their own family. Honoring our parents includes caring for them physically and financially as they grow older.

5:8 fails to provide for his own. A believer is to provide for his family and this seems to include any of his relatives that need help. Failure to do this denies the faith he has said to believe in and smirches the name of Christianity.

5:9 put on the list. Many believe the list referred to here was a list of widows whom the church was to assist. Some have maintained that this was an official order of widows. These women were to pray for the church and practice works of charity (vv. 5 ,10 ).

5:13–14 idle . . . gossips and busybodies. An old saying tells us “Idle hands are the devil’s workshop.” Do not allow yourself to become so idle that you begin to gossip. As odd as it may sound, it will happen. Employ yourself with the tasks God has set before you. Look around. There are lots of things we as believers should be doing.

5:18 Scripture says. Paul quotes two passages: Deuteronomy 25:4 and Luke 10:7 . The quotation from Luke is especially interesting as it shows that Paul considered the Gospels to be Scripture as well as the Old Testament.

5:19 Do not accept an accusation against an elder. Charges against elders are to be factual, not based on a single opinion or rumor.

5:20 those [elders] who continue in sin. This seems to refer to elders who fail in their leadership, whether in the church, in their social relationships, or in their home life. Public rebuke is to serve as a warning to other believers. Sin is a serious matter, especially for those who are in leadership, setting an example for others (1Pe 4:14 ).

5:22 Do not hurry. This verse is believed to be warning against too quickly restoring a leader who has fallen. Correction in love and restoration to fellowship should occur as soon as possible, but restoration to leadership should not be made without time and biblical evaluation. Not only does this apply to former leaders, it is a caution not to share responsibility for someone else’s sins by restoring or appointing someone who is not qualified.

5:25 evident . . . cannot be hidden. Unnoticed good works always come to light, if not in this life, at the judgment seat, but even sins hidden from men cannot be concealed from God.

6:1 bond-servants. This serves as an example of how believers should act in the workplace. We are Christians, who are to represent our faith, and Christ Himself. If we do this badly, we minimize not only our faith, but the power and testimony of Christ.

6:2 these [duties and principles]. This probably refers to the contents of the entire letter to Timothy.

6:9 those who [are not financially ethical and] crave to get rich. Inside of every man there is a “God-shaped void.” Many unbelievers try to fill this inner longing with wealth and possessions. Greed drives people to temptation and foolish and harmful desires. This is not an ailment of unbelievers only. Many believers also try to gain material things rather than the imperishable things of righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness (v. 11). These are the things we should pursue with all of our being.

6:10 love of money. Money in and of itself is not a problem, but the love of money is. Christians can be so blinded by greed that they no longer see the need for holy living. A life focused on material things brings only pain.

6:12 take hold of the eternal life. Use the hope of everlasting life with the Savior as your lifeline, your comfort, and your guide.

6:14 the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. The imminent return of Christ should be a motive for godly living (1Jn 2:28 ).

6:16 immortality. This may also be translated “without death.” Jesus is God, and can therefore never die.

6:20 what is falsely called “knowledge.” Gnosticism (from the Greek word for knowledge) is a heresy that teaches that salvation comes through secret knowledge of spiritual mysteries.

6:21 Grace be with you. The Greek word for “you” here is plural, including the whole church. God’s grace to us as sinners is indeed amazing.

The Second Letter of Paul to

Timothy

- AUTHOR: Fearing for their own lives, the Asian believers failed to support Paul after his second Roman imprisonment and his first defense before the Imperial Court (1:15 ; 4:16 ). Now he was in a cold Roman cell (4:13 ) without hope of acquittal in spite of the success of his initial defense. Under these conditions, Paul wrote this epistle in the fall of AD 67, hoping that Timothy would be able to visit him before the approaching winter (4:21 ).
- TIMES: c. AD 66–67
- KEY VERSES: 2Ti 3:14–17
- THEME: This is likely the last of Paul's writings that we have. He writes this letter from a prison cell where he is being kept like a common criminal. He knows that his work on earth is nearing its conclusion, and these are then his last words of counsel to his trusted companion in ministry. One can sense his weariness, but also his strongly held conviction about what is necessary for the continued growth of the church. One can also clearly see the hope that sustains him as he looks forward to going home to Christ.

Timothy Charged to Guard His Trust

1 PAUL, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed) by the will of God, according to the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, ‡

2 to Timothy, my beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. ‡

3 I thank God, whom I worship and serve with a clear conscience the way my forefathers did, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day, ‡

4 and as I recall your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy.

5 I remember your sincere and unqualified faith [the surrendering of your entire self to God in Christ with confident trust in His power, wisdom and goodness, a faith] which first lived in [the heart of] your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am confident that it is in you as well. ‡

6 That is why I remind you to fan into flame the gracious gift of God, [that inner fire—the special endowment] which is in you through the laying on of my hands [with those of the elders at your ordination]. ‡

7 For God did not give us a spirit of timidity or cowardice or fear, but [He has given us a spirit] of power and of love and of sound judgment and personal discipline [abilities that result in a calm, well-balanced mind and self-control]. ‡

8 So do not be ashamed to testify about our Lord or about me His prisoner, but with me take your share of suffering for the gospel [continue to preach regardless of the circumstances], in accordance with the power of God [for His power is invincible], ‡

9 for He delivered us and saved us and called us with a holy calling [a calling that leads to a consecrated life—a life set apart—a life of purpose], not because of our works [or because of any personal merit—we could do nothing to earn this], but because of His own purpose and grace [His amazing, undeserved favor] which was granted to us in Christ Jesus before the world began [eternal ages ago], ‡

10 but now [that extraordinary purpose and grace] has been fully disclosed

and realized by us through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus who [through His incarnation and earthly ministry] abolished death [making it null and void] and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, ‡

<sup>11</sup> for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher [of this good news regarding salvation]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> This is why I suffer as I do. Still, I am not ashamed; for I know Him [and I am personally acquainted with Him] whom I have believed [with absolute trust and confidence in Him and in the truth of His deity], and I am persuaded [beyond any doubt] that He is able to guard that which I have entrusted to Him until that day [when I stand before Him].  [1 Cor 1:8, 3:13; Phil 1:6 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Keep and follow the pattern of sound teaching (doctrine) which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Guard [with greatest care] and keep unchanged, the treasure [that precious truth] which has been entrusted to you [that is, the good news about salvation through personal faith in Christ Jesus], through [the help of] the Holy Spirit who dwells in us. ‡

<sup>15</sup> You are aware of the fact that all who are in [the province of] Asia turned away and deserted me, Phygelus and Hermogenes among them. ‡

<sup>16</sup> The Lord grant mercy to the family of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and showed me kindness [comforting and reviving me like fresh air] and he was not ashamed of my chains [for Christ's sake]; ‡

<sup>17</sup> but [instead] when he reached Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me—

<sup>18</sup> the Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord on that [great] day. You know very well how many things he did for me and what a help he was at Ephesus [you know better than I can tell you]. ‡

2 Timothy 2

Be Strong

<sup>1</sup> SO YOU, my son, be strong [constantly strengthened] and empowered in the grace that is [to be found only] in Christ Jesus. ‡

<sup>2</sup> The things [the doctrine, the precepts, the admonitions, the sum of my ministry] which you have heard me teach in the presence of many witnesses, entrust [as a treasure] to reliable and faithful men who will also be capable and qualified to teach others.

<sup>3</sup> Take with me your share of hardship [passing through the difficulties which you are called to endure], like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. ‡

<sup>4</sup> No soldier in active service gets entangled in the [ordinary business] affairs of civilian life; [he avoids them] so that he may please the one who enlisted him to serve. ‡

<sup>5</sup> And if anyone competes as an athlete [in competitive games], he is not crowned [with the wreath of victory] unless he competes according to the rules. ‡

<sup>6</sup> The hard-working farmer [who labors to produce crops] ought to be the first to receive his share of the crops.

<sup>7</sup> Think over the things I am saying [grasp their application], for the Lord will grant you insight and understanding in everything.

<sup>8</sup>-Remember Jesus Christ [the ever-living Lord who has] risen from the dead, [as the prophesied King] descended from David [king of Israel], according to my gospel [the good news that I preach],  [Ps 16:10] ‡

<sup>9</sup> for that [gospel] I am suffering even to [the point of] wearing chains like a criminal; but the word of God is not chained or imprisoned! ‡

<sup>10</sup> For this reason I [am ready to] patiently endure all things for the sake of those who are the elect (God's chosen ones), so that they too may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus and with it the reward of eternal glory. ‡

<sup>11</sup>-This is a faithful and trustworthy saying: ‡

If we died with Him, we will also live with Him;

<sup>12</sup>-If we endure, we will also reign with Him; ‡

If we deny Him, He will also deny us;

<sup>13</sup>-If we are faithless, He remains faithful [true to His word and His righteous character], for He cannot deny Himself. ‡

An Unashamed Workman

<sup>14</sup> Remind the people of these facts, and solemnly charge them in the presence of God to avoid petty controversy over words, which does no good, and [upsets and undermines and] ruins [the faith of] those who listen. ‡

<sup>15</sup>-Study and do your best to present yourself to God approved, a workman [tested by trial] who has no reason to be ashamed, accurately handling and skillfully teaching the word of truth.

<sup>17</sup> and their teaching will spread like gangrene. So it is with Hymenaeus and Philetus,

<sup>18</sup> who have deviated from the truth. They claim that the resurrection has already taken place, and they undermine the faith of some. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God [which He has laid] stands [sure and unshaken despite attacks], bearing this seal: “The Lord knows those who are His,” and, “Let everyone who names the name of the Lord stand apart from wickedness and withdraw from wrongdoing.”  [Num 16:5; Is 26:13 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> Now in a large house there are not only vessels and objects of gold and silver, but also vessels and objects of wood and of earthenware, and some are for honorable (noble, good) use and some for dishonorable (ignoble, common). ‡

<sup>24</sup> The servant of the Lord must not participate in quarrels, but must be kind to everyone [even-tempered, preserving peace, and he must be], skilled in teaching, patient and tolerant when wronged. ‡

<sup>25</sup> He must correct those who are in opposition with courtesy and gentleness in the hope that God may grant that they will repent and be led to the knowledge of the truth [accurately understanding and welcoming it], ‡

<sup>26</sup> and that they may come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will. ‡

2 Timothy 3

“Difficult Times Will Come”

<sup>1</sup> BUT UNDERSTAND this, that in the last days dangerous times [of great stress and trouble] will come [difficult days that will be hard to bear]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> always learning and listening to anybody who will teach them, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But they will not get very far, for their meaningless nonsense and ignorance will become obvious to everyone, as was that of Jannes and Jambres. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now you have diligently followed [my example, that is] my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, ‡

<sup>11</sup> persecutions, and sufferings—such as happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra; what persecutions I endured, but the Lord rescued me from them all!  [2 Cor 12:10 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, all who delight in pursuing righteousness and are determined to live godly lives in Christ Jesus will be hunted and persecuted [because of their faith]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> But evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. ‡

<sup>14</sup> But as for you, continue in the things that you have learned and of which you are convinced [holding tightly to the truths], knowing from whom you learned them, ‡

<sup>15</sup> and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings (Hebrew Scriptures) which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus [surrendering your entire self to Him and having absolute confidence in His wisdom, power and goodness]. ‡

<sup>16</sup>—All Scripture is God-breathed [given by divine inspiration] and is profitable for instruction, for conviction [of sin], for correction [of error and restoration to obedience], for training in righteousness [learning to live in conformity to God's will, both publicly and privately—behaving honorably with personal integrity and moral courage]; ‡

2 Timothy 4

“Preach the Word”

<sup>1</sup> I SOLEMNLY charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom: ‡

<sup>2</sup>—preach the word [as an official messenger]; be ready when the time is right and even when it is not [keep your sense of urgency, whether the opportunity seems favorable or unfavorable, whether convenient or inconvenient, whether welcome or unwelcome]; correct [those who err in doctrine or behavior], warn [those who sin], exhort and encourage [those who are growing toward spiritual maturity], with inexhaustible patience and [faithful] teaching. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine and accurate instruction [that challenges them with God's truth]; but wanting to have their ears tickled [with something pleasing], they will accumulate for themselves [many] teachers [one after another, chosen] to satisfy their own desires and to support the errors they hold, ‡

<sup>5</sup> But as for you, be clear-headed in every situation [stay calm and cool and steady], endure every hardship [without flinching], do the work of an evangelist, fulfill [the duties of] your ministry. ‡

<sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure [from this world] is at hand and I will soon go free.  [Num 15:1–12; ]

28:7 ; Phil 2:17 ] ‡

7 I have fought the good and worthy and noble fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith [firmly guarding the gospel against error]. ‡

8 In the future there is reserved for me the [victor's] crown of righteousness [for being right with God and doing right], which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that [great] day—and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved and longed for and welcomed His appearing. ‡

Personal Concerns

9 Make every effort to come to me soon;

10 for Demas, having loved [the pleasures of] this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ‡

11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is very helpful to me for the ministry. ‡

12 But Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus. ‡

13 When you come bring the coat that I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; [but that is no concern of mine, for] the Lord will repay him according to his actions. ‡

15 Be on guard against him yourself, because he vigorously opposed our message.

16 At my first trial no one supported me [as an advocate] or stood with me, but they all deserted me. May it not be counted against them [by God]. ‡

17 But the Lord stood by me and strengthened and empowered me, so that through me the [gospel] message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear it; and I was rescued from the mouth of the lion. ‡

18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil assault, and He will bring me safely into His heavenly kingdom; to Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ‡

19 Give my greetings to Prisca and Aquila, and to the household of Onesiphorus. ‡

21 Try your best to come [to me] before winter. Eubulus wishes to be remembered to you, as do Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brothers and sisters. ‡

Annotations for 2 Timothy

1:1 the promise of life. This message of life stands in ironic contrast to the fact that Paul was writing from a Roman prison, facing his execution.

1:3 my forefathers. Paul's forefathers were the patriarchs of the faith: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Paul had great love for Israel (Ro 9:1–5). The reason that he connects himself to Israel's forefathers may be to demonstrate that he is not advocating a new religion but one of which the godly of the past are also a part.

1:5 Lois . . . Eunice. The prayers, witness, and faith of his godly mother and grandmother were central factors in the spiritual development of Timothy (1Ti 2:15).

1:8 do not be ashamed to testify. To testify is to be a witness for the Lord; the Greek term is the source of the English word martyr. Church tradition says that most of the apostles died as martyrs.

1:9 not because of our works. It is impossible for people to earn their way into heaven. Salvation is by grace, the unearned and undeserved favor of God.

1:10 abolished death. Knowing that leaving our earthly bodies simply means that we will live forever with the Lord effectively robs death of its dread. The same gospel that offers us the forgiveness of sins and draws us to holy living also announces life and immortality. Believing the gospel, we begin to live in the power of an endless life (1Jn 5:11–13 ,20).

1:12 which I have entrusted. It is certain that God will keep our “deposit” safe. Paul was preparing for imminent death, but in spite of this he was hopeful. He had spent his time, resources, and even his life on proclaiming the gospel, and this investment in Christ’s kingdom would bring him an abundant reward in eternity (Lk 19:15 ; 1Co 3:10–15 ; Rev 11:15 ,18 ).

1:14 the treasure. This is the truth of the kingdom of God (Mt 13:44–45 ; 1Ti 6:20 ).

2:1 strong . . . in the grace that is [to be found only] in Christ Jesus. The emphasis is on the strength of Christ, not on Timothy’s own power. If we trust in ourselves, we are doomed to fail.

2:2 entrust [as a treasure] to reliable and faithful men. Since the time of Christ, there has been an endless chain of Christian discipleship (Mt 28:18–20 ).

2:8 descended from David. Jesus is the fulfillment of all the promises that God gave to David (2Sa 7:11–16 ).

2:11 If we died . . . we will also live. Believers are united with Christ in His death and resurrection (Ro 6:3–11 ).

2:12 If we endure. Persevering in our faith, even in the face of hardship or persecution, will result in a reward when Christ returns (Lk 19:11–27 ; Ro 8:17 ; Rev 3:21 ).

2:13 faithless. This word describes an immature believer who lives for self and not for the Savior (1Co 3:1–3 ,15 ). He remains faithful. For Christ to abandon us would be contrary to His faithful nature (Jn 10:27–30 ; Heb 10:23 ; 13:5 ).

2:15 Study. The position of teaching God’s word is a position of great responsibility, not to be taken lightly (Jas 3:1 ).

2:18 already taken place. This was probably an early form of Gnosticism, a body of teaching which emphasized the “spiritual,” and considered the physical world and the human body unreal and unimportant.

2:21 Master. This is a strong term for God's authority over the lives of believers, regardless of their level of spiritual maturity.

2:22 Run away . . . pursue. When we run toward righteousness, we are running away from sin. The two are completely opposite, and a person cannot follow both at once.

2:25 correct . . . with courtesy and gentleness. The aim of correction is repentance or a change of thinking, not self-justification or the pleasure of argument.

2:26 come to their senses and escape. False teaching has an intoxicating effect that dulls the mind to God's truth.

3:5 a form of [outward] godliness. This is an outward appearance of reverence for God. Denying its power describes religious activity that is not connected to a living relationship with Jesus Christ. This kind of religion provokes God's anger (Isa 1:10–18 ; Mt 23:25–28 ).

3:8 Jannes and Jambres. They are not named in the Old Testament, but according to Jewish tradition, Jannes and Jambres were two of the Egyptian magicians who opposed Moses (Ex 7:11 ).

3:12 will be hunted and persecuted. God does not promise deliverance from persecution, but deliverance through it. Persecution is one of the means that God uses to bring about our growth and sanctification (2:12 ; Mt 5:10–12 ; Rev 2:10 ).

3:16 God-breathed. Scripture was freely produced by human writers, but the original Author is God Himself. God "breathed out" the Scriptures so that they are not only human words, but simultaneously and ultimately the very utterances of God. Thus, Scripture is true in all that it affirms and is completely authoritative (1Pe 1:20–21 ). The Bible not only "contains God's words," it is God's Word. Therefore the Scriptures are fully consistent and inerrant, authoritative and trustworthy.

3:17 every good work. Paul emphasizes the essential link between knowing God's Word and applying it to one's daily life. Right doctrine should produce right practice.

4:2 inexhaustible patience. Patience and doctrine are two necessary components of an effective ministry. True spiritual growth occurs over a period of time, through consistent teaching and application of God's Word.

4:6 drink offering. This is an offering performed by pouring wine out on the ground or altar (Nu 28:11–31 ). Paul's life was already being poured out in service to Christ.

4:7 fought the good and worthy and noble fight. Paul did not make these comments until the end of his race, when he was about to die. He did not presume or rely on his past service. Instead, he persevered, struggled, and served God until the end (1Co 9:24–27 ).

4:8 loved and longed for and welcomed His appearing. These are the believers who have lived faithfully in the hope of His return (Titus 2:11–15 ; 1Jn 2:28 ).

4:11 Mark. Mark's desertion of Paul in Pamphylia on his first missionary journey had led to the separation of Paul and Barnabas at the beginning of Paul's second missionary journey (Ac 15:36–40 ). Later Paul and Mark were reconciled, and Mark served Paul in the ministry (Col 4:10 ). It is believed that Mark later wrote the Gospel of Mark.

4:12 Tychicus. Tychicus was Paul's faithful co-worker (Ac 20:4 ; Eph 6:21 ; Col 4:7 ).

4:14 Alexander. This may be the person named in 1 Timothy 1:20 or Acts 19:33 , who caused harm to Paul's ministry in Ephesus.

4:19 Prisca and Aquila. Prisca is a form of the name Priscilla. Paul had met Priscilla and Aquila in Corinth on his second missionary journey (Ac 18:1–3 ), and they had assisted in God's work in Ephesus (Ac 18:18–19 ).

4:20 Trophimus. Trophimus, a member of the church of Ephesus (Ac 21:29 ), had traveled with Paul to Jerusalem (Ac 20:4 ).

The Letter of Paul to Titus

- AUTHOR: Titus was one of Paul's Gentile converts. He probably worked with Paul during his time at Ephesus on his third missionary journey. Later he also worked in Corinth and this letter indicates that Paul is commissioning him to work on the island of Crete. Paul wrote this letter about AD 63, perhaps from Corinth, taking advantage of the journey of Zenas and Apollos (3:13 ), whose destination would take them by way of Crete.
- TIMES: c. AD 63
- KEY VERSE: Titus 3:8
- THEME: Paul's instructions to Titus are similar to those he gives to Timothy. He gives him instructions about the leadership and organization of the church and guidance in dealing with the opposition of those who would contradict his teaching. His tone is that of a seasoned leader passing on the essential instructions to a valued disciple.

Titus 1

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> PAUL, A bond-servant of God and an apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Jesus Christ, for the faith of God's chosen ones and [to lead and encourage them to recognize and pursue] the knowledge of the truth which leads to godliness, ‡

<sup>2</sup> based on the hope and divine guarantee of eternal life, [the life] which God, who is ever truthful and without deceit, promised before the ages of time began, ‡

<sup>3</sup> and at the appointed time has made known His word and revealed it as His message, through preaching, which was entrusted to me according to the command of God our Savior— ‡

<sup>4</sup> To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being] from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior. ‡

Qualifications of Elders

<sup>5</sup> For this reason I left you behind in Crete, so that you would set right what remains unfinished, and appoint elders in every city as I directed you, ‡

<sup>6</sup> namely, a man of unquestionable integrity, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of being immoral or rebellious. ‡

<sup>8</sup> And he must be hospitable [to believers, as well as strangers], a lover of what is good, sensible (upright), fair, devout, self-disciplined [above reproach —whether in public or in private]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> He must hold firmly to the trustworthy word [of God] as it was taught to him, so that he will be able both to give accurate instruction in sound [reliable, error-free] doctrine and to refute those who contradict [it by explaining their error]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For there are many rebellious men who are empty talkers [just windbags] and deceivers; especially those of the circumcision [those Jews who insist that Gentile believers must be circumcised and keep the Law in order to be saved]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> This description is true. So rebuke them sharply so that they will be sound in the faith and free from doctrinal error, ‡

<sup>14</sup>—not paying attention to Jewish myths and the commandments and rules of men who turn their backs on the truth. ‡

<sup>16</sup> They profess to know God [to recognize and be acquainted with Him], but by their actions they deny and disown Him. They are detestable and disobedient and worthless for good work of any kind. ‡

Titus 2

Duties of the Older and Younger

<sup>4</sup>—so that they may encourage the young women to tenderly love their husbands and their children,

<sup>5</sup>—to be sensible, pure, makers of a home [where God is honored], good-natured, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be dishonored. ‡

<sup>6</sup>—In a similar way urge the young men to be sensible and self-controlled and to behave wisely [taking life seriously].

<sup>8</sup> sound and beyond reproach in instruction, so that the opponent [of the faith] will be shamed, having nothing bad to say about us. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Urge bond-servants to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be pleasing and not talk back, ‡

<sup>10</sup> not stealing [things, regardless of value], but proving themselves trustworthy, so that in every respect they will adorn and do credit to the teaching of God our Savior. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For the [remarkable, undeserved] grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. ‡

<sup>12</sup> It teaches us to reject ungodliness and worldly (immoral) desires, and to live sensible, upright, and godly lives [lives with a purpose that reflect spiritual maturity] in this present age, ‡

<sup>13</sup> awaiting and confidently expecting the [fulfillment of our] blessed hope and the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus, ‡

<sup>14</sup> who [willingly] gave Himself [to be crucified] on our behalf to redeem us and purchase our freedom from all wickedness, and to purify for Himself a chosen and very special people to be His own possession, who are enthusiastic for doing what is good.  [Deut 14:2 ; Ps 130:8 ; Ezek 37:23 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> Tell them these things. Encourage and rebuke with full authority. Let no one disregard or despise you [conduct yourself and your teaching so as to command respect]. ‡

Titus 3

Godly Living

<sup>4</sup> But when the goodness and kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared [in human form as the Man, Jesus Christ], ‡

<sup>5</sup> He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we have done, but because of His own compassion and mercy, by the cleansing of the new birth (spiritual transformation, regeneration) and renewing by the Holy Spirit,‡

<sup>7</sup> so that we would be justified [made free of the guilt of sin] by His [compassionate, undeserved] grace, and that we would be [acknowledged as acceptable to Him and] made heirs of eternal life [actually experiencing it] according to our hope (His guarantee).‡

<sup>8</sup> This is a faithful and trustworthy saying; and concerning these things I want you to speak with great confidence, so that those who have believed God [that is, those who have trusted in, relied on, and accepted Christ Jesus as Savior,] will be careful to participate in doing good and honorable things. These things are excellent [in themselves] and profitable for the people.‡

<sup>9</sup> But avoid foolish and ill-informed and stupid controversies and genealogies and dissensions and quarrels about the Law, for they are unprofitable and useless.‡

<sup>11</sup> well aware that such a person is twisted and is sinning; he is convicted and self-condemned [and is gratified by causing confusion among believers].‡

Personal Concerns

<sup>12</sup> When I send Artemas or [perhaps] Tychicus to you, make every effort to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.‡

<sup>13</sup> Do your best to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way; see that they are supplied and lack nothing.‡

<sup>14</sup> Our people must learn to do good deeds to meet necessary demands [whatever the occasion may require], so that they will not be unproductive.‡

Grace be with all of you.

Annotations for Titus

1:2 We Can Trust God— Often Christians will doubt our position with God simply because we do not feel saved. We don't understand that the basis for our standing is the promise of God and not emotional feelings. One helpful way to see these promises is in relation to the Trinity: Go to Theological Notes Index

The promise and work of the Father. He has promised to graciously accept in Christ all repenting sinners (Eph 1:6 and Col 3:3 ). This means a Christian has the right to be in heaven someday, for he is in Christ. God guarantees us that He will work out all things for our ultimate good (Ro 8:28 ).

The promise and work of the Son. He has promised us eternal life (Jn 5:24 ) and abundant life (Jn 10:10 ). This promise covers not only our final destiny in heaven, but also our present Christian service here on earth. He is, in fact, right now praying for us and ministering to us at His Father's right hand (Heb 8:1 ; 9:24 ).

The promise and work of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is said to indwell the believer (Jn 14:16 ). In addition, He places all believing sinners into the body of Christ, thus assuring us of union with God's family (1Co 12:13 ).

1:3 preaching. Paul places the emphasis on the message, not on the messenger. Christ is the center of our faith, not any one preacher (1Co 9:16 ; 2Co 4:5 ).

1:5 appoint elders. The Greek words for “elder” and “overseer” seem to have been used interchangeably by Paul (v. 7 ). “Elder” perhaps speaks more of the office and its authority, while “overseer” may speak more of the person’s function and the ministry of oversight (Ac 20:17 ).

1:6 husband of one wife. The exact application of this phrase is debated; some believe that it merely forbids polygamy, while others believe that it also prohibits a man who is divorced and remarried. It is clearly emphasizing the importance of marital faithfulness (Mt 19:5 ). children who believe. The man must have a good relationship with his wife, and he should also have children who demonstrate faithfulness to God. If a man has children who reject the ways of God, or who are out of control, this reflects on the father’s ability to lead others outside his home.

1:9 refute. The word refute here means to rebuke in such a way as to produce repentance and confession of sin (Jn 16:8 ). A rebuke can have the positive results of producing change in a person’s life.

1:10 those of the circumcision. Apparently there were Jewish Christians in the churches of Crete who were limiting the Christian freedom of Gentile Christians by requiring an adherence to Jewish laws (Gal 3 ).

1:12 Cretans are always liars. Paul is quoting the Cretan poet Epimenides, who wrote these words around 600 BC. The Cretans were so much regarded as liars in the Mediterranean world that the expression “to Cretanize” meant “to lie.”

1:14 Jewish myths. These were probably legends about Old Testament figures, like some that survive to this day in non-biblical writings.

1:15 To the pure . . . to the corrupt and unbelieving. Paul highlights the mistaken asceticism of the Cretan false teachers. They had identified certain foods and practices as defiled when in reality it was their minds that were defiled and unbelieving. On the other hand, to the pure, all things are pure. The Cretan believers had placed their trust in Christ, focusing their minds on Him, and therefore they would be empowered by God’s Spirit to lead pure lives. Jesus taught the same principle in Matthew 15:11 . Physical objects or external practices do not defile a person, but a mind focused on evil thoroughly corrupts.

2:1 sound doctrine. “Sound” means “healthy.” Right thinking is the raw material for right actions (Ps 119:11 ; Pr 23:7 ; Ro 12:2 ; Jas 1:13–15 ). Our actions will naturally reveal the direction of our thoughts.

2:2 Older men. Maturity is not determined simply by age or even by how much a person knows; it is determined by how skilled a person is in applying the truth to life and in distinguishing good from evil (Heb 5:13–14 ).

2:4 love their husbands and their children. This is not just romantic or emotional love, but the commitment of a woman to the welfare of her husband and children.

2:5 being subject to their own husbands. Women are not under the authority of men in general, but rather the authority of their own husbands (Eph 5:21 ). will not be dishonored. The older women are to teach the younger women so that their actions will glorify God, build His kingdom, and strengthen the family. Failure to follow Paul’s instructions will result in the word of God being maligned in the pagan community.

2:6 young men. Young men are to pursue the character qualities that older men should possess already.

2:7 example of good works. More people will learn from our daily actions than from what we say.

2:11 appeared. Christ came the first time in grace to save men from their sins; the second time He will come in glory to reign (v. 13 ).

2:13 awaiting and confidently expecting the [fulfillment of our] blessed hope. Paul reminded Timothy that there is a special crown awaiting all “who have loved . . . His appearing” (2Ti 4:8 ). our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus. This is one of the strongest statements of the deity of Christ in the New Testament.

2:14 redeem. “Redeem” means “to purchase.” With His death on the cross, Christ paid the price to release us from the bondage of sin (Ro 6:6–7 , 17 ,20 ; Eph 1:7 ). God’s purpose in redeeming us is not only to save us from hell; He also wants to free us from sin so that we can produce good works that glorify Him (Eph 2:8–10 ).

3:1 Remind people. The Cretans notoriously lacked the virtue of good citizenship (1:12 ). Disobedience permeated the Cretan’s lifestyle, both in the church (v. 10 ) and in government. Believers who got along with civil authorities and who lived peacefully with their neighbors would reflect positively on their faith and would glorify God.

3:5 not because of any works of righteousness. Paul has been exhorting Titus to emphasize good works in his ministry with the Cretans, and he wants to make it clear that such good works have no value in saving a person. It is solely on the basis of God’s mercy that we are delivered from the penalty of our sin. cleansing of the new birth. This phrase refers to the work of the Holy Spirit, in whom we are “born again” (Jn 3:3 ,6 ), given a new nature and cleansed from old sin. renewing by the Holy Spirit. There are three works performed by the Holy Spirit in preparing nonbelievers to become Christians. (1) The Holy Spirit restrains. Satan would enjoy nothing more than to destroy people before they make their decision to accept Christ as Savior. But the Holy Spirit prevents this from occurring (Isa 59:19 ). (2) The Holy Spirit convicts. Mankind’s sin and righteousness are exposed by the Holy Spirit (Jn 16:8 ). Two examples of such conviction are Felix, a Roman governor who “trembled” under conviction (Ac 24:25 ), and King Agrippa, who was almost persuaded in Acts 26:28 . (3) The Holy Spirit regenerates. When a repenting sinner accepts Christ as Savior, he is given a new nature by the Holy Spirit (2Co 5:17 ). Jesus carefully explained this ministry of the Holy Spirit to Nicodemus (Jn 3:3–7 ).

3:7 we would be [acknowledged as acceptable to Him and] made heirs. God justifies believers so that they might become co-heirs with Jesus Christ in His coming reign (Ro 8:17 ; 2Ti 2:12 ).

3:10 reject a divisive man. A sinner must always be given ample opportunity to repent, but if he insists on continuing in sin, the church is required to let him go (Mt 18:15–17 ; 2Th 3:14–15 ).

3:12 Tychicus. Tychicus, one of Paul’s assistants, is also mentioned in Acts 20:4 ; Ephesians 6:21 ;

3:13 Apollos. Apollos was a fellow worker of Paul's (1Co 16:12 ), an Alexandrian who had been taught by Priscilla and Aquila and who had eloquently preached the gospel at Ephesus and Corinth (Ac 18:24-19:1 ).

3:14 not be unproductive. Justification is a free gift from God, but we will be rewarded according to what we do on this earth (Rev 22:12 ). It would be a tragedy to stand ashamed at Christ's return (1Jn 2:28 ).

The Letter of Paul to

Philemon

- ▶ AUTHOR: Though some critics deny its authenticity, the general consensus of scholarship recognizes Philemon as Paul's work. There could have been no doctrinal motive for its forgery, and it is supported externally by consistent tradition and internally by no less than three references to Paul (Phile 1 , 9 ,19 ).
- ▶ TIMES: c. AD 60–61
- ▶ KEY VERSES: Philemon 16–17
- ▶ THEME: Paul wrote this letter to a slave owner in the church at Colosse. Apparently, Onesimus, the slave of Philemon, had stolen from him and had run away, an act punishable by death under Roman law. Onesimus had since met Paul and become a Christian. Paul's letter is a personal appeal in an effort to help them reconcile and renew their relationship.

Philemon 1

<sup>1</sup> PAUL, A prisoner [for the sake] of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed), and our brother Timothy, ‡

To Philemon our dearly beloved friend and fellow worker,

<sup>2</sup> and to [your wife] Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier [in ministry], and to the church that meets in your house: ‡

Philemon's Love and Faith

<sup>4</sup> I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, ‡

<sup>5</sup> because I hear of your love and of your faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints (God's people). ‡

<sup>6</sup> I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective and powerful because of your accurate knowledge of every good thing which is ours in Christ. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For I have had great joy and comfort and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints (God's people) have been refreshed through you, my brother. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Therefore [on the basis of these facts], though I have enough confidence in Christ to order you to do what is appropriate, ‡

<sup>9</sup> yet for love's sake I prefer to appeal to you —since I am such a person as Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner [for the sake] of Christ Jesus— ‡

A Plea for Onesimus to be Freed

<sup>10</sup> I appeal to you for my [own spiritual] child Onesimus, whom I have fathered [in the faith] while a captive in these chains. ‡

<sup>13</sup> I would have chosen to keep him with me, so that he might minister to me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel; ‡

<sup>14</sup>but I did not want to do anything without first getting your consent, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will. ‡

<sup>15</sup>Perhaps it was for this reason that he was separated from you for a while, so that you would have him back forever, ‡

<sup>16</sup>no longer as a slave, but [as someone] more than a slave, as a brother [in Christ], especially dear to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh [as a servant] and in the Lord [as a fellow believer]. [Col 4:9] ‡

<sup>17</sup>So if you consider me a partner, welcome and accept him as you would me. ‡

<sup>18</sup>But if he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge that to my account;

<sup>19</sup>I, Paul, write this with my own hand, I will repay it in full (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self as well).

<sup>20</sup>Yes, brother, let me have some benefit and joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. ‡

<sup>21</sup>I write to you [perfectly] confident of your obedient compliance, since I know that you will do even more than I ask. ‡

<sup>22</sup>At the same time also prepare a guest room for me [in expectation of a visit], for I hope that through your prayers I will be [granted the gracious privilege of] coming to you [at Colossae]. ‡

Annotations for Philemon

1–2 To Philemon . . . and to the church. Paul addresses the letter to Philemon and the Colossian church, but this intensely personal epistle uses the singular “I” and “you,” demonstrating that the letter is Paul’s personal plea to Philemon. It was written at the same time as the letter to the Colossians, and doubtless carried by the same messenger.

2 Apphia . . . Archippus. Apphia may have been the wife of Philemon; Archippus may have been Philemon’s son, or perhaps an elder in the Colossian church (Col 4:17 ).

6 faith may become effective. Working faith is a sharing faith; it is the acknowledgment of what Christ has done in the believer’s life (Eph 3:17–19 ).

9 Paul, an old man. The apostle is either speaking of his old age, or of the office of an elder.

11 useless . . . useful. Paul uses an interesting play on words here. Having mentioned Onesimus, whose name means “useful,” the apostle describes him as someone who was formerly useless, but who has become useful through the work of Christ in his life.

14 by compulsion . . . free will. Service for Christ is never forced. Paul has given Philemon several good reasons to forgive Onesimus, but here he returns to the foundation of his argument: Philemon’s actions must proceed from his own love (v. 9 ).

18 wronged you. Onesimus had probably stolen something from Philemon when he left. charge that to my account. This accounting imagery reminds us of the theological truth that our sins were charged over to Christ even though He had not earned them. Forgiveness is costly (Isa 53:6 ).

19 my own hand. Paul wrote this personal letter himself, and therefore it could be considered a legal document obligating him to pay the damages that Onesimus had caused.

22 prepare a guest room for me. It is believed that Paul wrote this letter during his imprisonment in Rome (Ac 28 ), and that he was released shortly afterwards. He was probably not at liberty for very long, but it is possible that he was able to visit Colosse before his second imprisonment and execution.

23–24 Epaphras . . . Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke. These five co-workers are also mentioned in Colossians 4:10–14 .

The Letter to the Hebrews

- AUTHOR: The origin of Hebrews is unknown. Uncertainty plagues not only its authorship, but also its date and its readership. Hebrews 13:18–24 tells us that this book was not anonymous to the original readers; they evidently knew the author. For some reason, however, early church tradition is divided over the identity of the author. Part of the church attributed it to Paul, others preferred Barnabas, Luke, or Clement, and some chose anonymity. Some aspects of the language style and theology of Hebrews are very similar to Paul's Epistles. However, significant stylistic differences have led the majority of biblical scholars to reject Pauline authorship of this book.
- TIMES: c. AD 64–68
- KEY VERSES: Heb 4:14–16
- THEME: Hebrews was written for a group of Jewish Christians who were thinking about returning to their original faith. The author goes to great lengths to convince them to stay with their new faith. Point by point he goes through a whole series of arguments showing how Judaism was a foreshadowing of Christ. Everything promising about Old Testament Judaism is fulfilled in Christ. The new way is the superior way, as Christ and the faith that He established supersedes what has gone before. Understanding Jewish faith and practice, and the role of Moses and Aaron in biblical history, is a prerequisite to understanding Hebrews.

Hebrews 1

God's Final Word in His Son

<sup>2</sup> has in these last days spoken [with finality] to us in [the person of One who is by His character and nature] His Son [namely Jesus], whom He appointed heir and lawful owner of all things, through whom also He created the universe [that is, the universe as a space-time-matter continuum].‡

<sup>3</sup> The Son is the radiance and only expression of the glory of [our awesome] God [reflecting God's Shekinah glory, the Light-being, the brilliant light of the divine], and the exact representation and perfect imprint of His [Father's] essence, and upholding and maintaining and propelling all things [the entire physical and spiritual universe] by His powerful word [carrying the universe along to its predetermined goal]. When He [Himself and no other] had [by offering Himself on the cross as a sacrifice for sin] accomplished purification from sins and established our freedom from guilt, He sat down [revealing His completed work] at the right hand of the Majesty on high [revealing His Divine authority],‡

<sup>4</sup> having become as much superior to angels, since He has inherited a more excellent and glorious name than they [that is, Son—the name above all names].‡

“YOU ARE MY SON,
TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN (fathered) YOU [established You as a Son, with kingly dignity]”?

And again [did He ever say to the angels],

“I SHALL BE A FATHER TO HIM
AND HE SHALL BE A SON TO ME”? [2 Sam 7:14; Ps 2:7]

<sup>6</sup> And when He again brings the firstborn [highest-ranking Son] into the world, He says,‡

“A ND ALL THE ANGELS OF G OD ARE TO WORSHIP H IM .”  [Ps 97:7 ]

“W HO MAKES H IS ANGELS WINDS ,
A ND H IS MINISTERING SERVANTS FLAMES OF FIRE [to do His bidding].”  [Ps 104:4 ]

<sup>8</sup> But about the Son [the Father says to Him], ‡

“Y OUR THRONE , O G OD , IS FOREVER AND EVER ,
A ND THE SCEPTER OF [absolute] RIGHTEOUSNESS IS THE SCEPTER OF H IS KINGDOM .

<sup>9</sup> “Y OU HAVE LOVED RIGHTEOUSNESS [integrity, virtue, uprightness in purpose] AND HAVE HATED LAWLESSNESS
[injustice, sin]. ‡

T HEREFORE G OD , Y OUR G OD , H AS ANOINTED Y OU
W ITH THE OIL OF GLADNESS ABOVE Y OUR COMPANIONS .”  [Ps 45:6, 7 ]

BEGINNING ,

A ND THE HEAVENS ARE THE WORKS OF Y OUR HANDS ;

A ND THEY WILL ALL WEAR OUT LIKE A GARMENT ,

L IKE A GARMENT THEY WILL BE CHANGED .

B UT Y OU ARE THE SAME [forever],

A ND Y OUR YEARS WILL NEVER END .”  [Ps 102:25–27 ]

<sup>13</sup> But to which of the angels has the Father ever said, ‡

“S IT AT M Y RIGHT HAND [together with me in royal dignity], U NTIL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES
A FOOTSTOOL FOR YOUR FEET [in triumphant conquest]”?  [Ps 110:1 ]

14 Are not all the angels ministering spirits sent out [by God] to serve (accompany, protect) those who will inherit salvation? [Of course they are!] ‡

Hebrews 2

Give Heed

1 FOR THIS reason [that is, because of God's final revelation in His Son Jesus and because of Jesus' superiority to the angels] we must pay much closer attention than ever to the things that we have heard, so that we do not [in any way] drift away from truth.

2 For if the message given through angels [the Law given to Moses] was authentic and unalterable, and every violation and disobedient act received an appropriate penalty, ‡

3 how will we escape [the penalty] if we ignore such a great salvation [the gospel, the new covenant]? For it was spoken at first by the Lord, and it was confirmed to us and proved authentic by those who personally heard [Him speak], ‡

4 [and besides this evidence] God also testifying with them [confirming the message of salvation], both by signs and wonders and by various miracles [carried out by Jesus and the apostles] and by [granting to believers the] gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will. ‡

Earth Subject to Man

5 It was not to angels that God subjected the [inhabited] world of the future [when Christ reigns], about which we are speaking. ‡

6 But one has [solemnly] testified somewhere [in Scripture], saying, ‡

“W HAT IS MAN , THAT Y OU ARE MINDFUL OF HIM , O R THE SON OF MAN , THAT Y OU GRACIOUSLY CARE FOR HIM ?
7 “Y OU HAVE MADE HIM FOR A LITTLE WHILE LOWER [in status]
THAN THE ANGELS ;
Y OU HAVE CROWNED HIM WITH GLORY AND HONOR ,
A ND SET HIM OVER THE WORKS OF Y OUR HANDS ;
8 Y OU HAVE PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET

Now in putting all things in subjection to man, He left nothing outside his control. But at present we do not yet see all things subjected to him. [Ps 8:4–6]

Jesus Briefly Humbled

<sup>9</sup> But we do see Jesus, who was made lower than the angels for a little while [by taking on the limitations of humanity], crowned with glory and honor because of His suffering of death, so that by the grace of God [extended to sinners] He might experience death for [the sins of] everyone. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For it was fitting for God [that is, an act worthy of His divine nature] that He, for whose sake are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the author and founder of their salvation perfect through suffering [bringing to maturity the human experience necessary for Him to be perfectly equipped for His office as High Priest]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Both Jesus who sanctifies and those who are sanctified [that is, spiritually transformed, made holy, and set apart for God's purpose] are all from one Father; for this reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, ‡

“I WILL DECLARE Y OUR (the Father’s) NAME TO M Y BRETHREN
(believers),
I N THE MIDST OF THE CONGREGATION I WILL SING Y OUR PRAISE .” [
Ps 22:22.]

<sup>13</sup> And again [He says], ‡

“M Y TRUST and CONFIDENT HOPE WILL BE PLACED IN H IM .”

And again,

“H ERE I AM , I AND THE CHILDREN WHOM G OD HAS GIVEN M E .”  [Is 8:17, 18.]

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, since [these His] children share in flesh and blood [the physical nature of mankind], He Himself in a similar manner also shared in the same [physical nature, but without sin], so that through [experiencing] death He might make powerless (ineffective, impotent) him who had the power of death—that is, the devil—‡

<sup>15</sup> and [that He] might free all those who through [the haunting] fear of death were held in slavery throughout their lives. ‡

16. For, as we all know, He (Christ) does not take hold of [the fallen] angels [to give them a helping hand], but He does take hold of [the fallen] descendants of Abraham [extending to them His hand of deliverance].  [Is 41:8, 9 ]

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, it was essential that He had to be made like His brothers (mankind) in every respect, so that He might [by experience] become a merciful and faithful High Priest in things related to God, to make atonement (propitiation) for the people's sins [thereby wiping away the sin, satisfying divine justice, and providing a way of reconciliation between God and mankind]. ‡

18. Because He Himself [in His humanity] has suffered in being tempted, He is able to help and provide immediate assistance to those who are being tempted and exposed to suffering. ‡

Jesus Our High Priest

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, HOLY brothers and sisters, who share in the heavenly calling, [thoughtfully and attentively] consider the Apostle and High Priest whom we confessed [as ours when we accepted Him as Savior], namely, Jesus; ‡

<sup>2</sup> He was faithful to Him who appointed Him [Apostle and High Priest], as Moses also was faithful in all God's house.  [Num 12:7 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> Yet Jesus has been considered worthy of much greater glory and honor than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house. ‡

<sup>4</sup> For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Now Moses was faithful in [the administration of] all God's house, [but only] as a ministering servant, [his ministry serving] as a testimony of the things which were to be spoken afterward [the revelation to come in Christ];  [Num 12:7 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> but Christ is faithful as a Son over His [Father's] house. And we are His house if we hold fast our confidence and sense of triumph in our hope [in Christ]. ‡

7.Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says, ‡

“TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE ,
8 DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS AS [your fathers did] IN THE REBELLION [of Israel at Meribah],
ON THE DAY OF TESTING IN THE WILDERNESS , 9 WHERE YOUR FATHERS TRIED ME BY TESTING [My forbearance and tolerance],
AND SAW MY WORKS FOR FORTY YEARS
10 “THEFORE I WAS ANGERED WITH THIS GENERATION , AND I SAID , ‘THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART ,
AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS [nor become progressively better and more intimately acquainted with them]’;
11 SO I SWORE [an oath] IN MY WRATH ,
‘THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST [the promised land].’ ”  [Ps 95:7–11 ]

The Peril of Unbelief

12 Take care, brothers and sisters, that there not be in any one of you a wicked, unbelieving heart [which refuses to trust and rely on the Lord, a heart] that turns away from the living God.

13 But continually encourage one another every day, as long as it is called “Today” [and there is an opportunity], so that none of you will be hardened [into settled rebellion] by the deceitfulness of sin [its cleverness, delusive glamour, and sophistication].

14.For we [believers] have become partakers of Christ [sharing in all that the Messiah has for us], if only we hold firm our newborn confidence [which originally led us to Him] until the end, ‡

15.while it is said, ‡

“TODAY [while there is still opportunity] IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE , DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEART , AS WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME [in the rebellion in the desert at Meribah].”  [Ps 95:7 , 8 ]

16 For who were they who heard and yet provoked Him [with rebellious acts]? Was it not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses? ‡

<sup>17</sup> And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies were scattered in the desert? ‡

<sup>18</sup> And to whom did He swear [an oath] that they would not enter His rest, but to those who disobeyed [those who would not listen to His word]? ‡

<sup>19</sup> So we see that they were not able to enter [into His rest—the promised land] because of unbelief and an unwillingness to trust in God.  [Num 14:1–35 ]

Hebrews 4

The Believer's Rest

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, WHILE the promise of entering His rest still remains and is freely offered today, let us fear, in case any one of you may seem to come short of reaching it or think he has come too late. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For indeed we have had the good news [of salvation] preached to us, just as the Israelites also [when the good news of the promised land came to them]; but the message they heard did not benefit them, because it was not united with faith [in God] by those who heard.

<sup>3</sup> For we who believe [that is, we who personally trust and confidently rely on God] enter that rest [so we have His inner peace now because we are confident in our salvation, and assured of His power], just as He has said, ‡

“A S I SWORE [an oath] IN M Y WRATH , T HEY SHALL NOT ENTER M Y REST ,”

[this He said] although His works were completed from the foundation of the world [waiting for all who would believe].  [Ps 95:11 ]

<sup>4</sup> For somewhere [in Scripture] He has said this about the seventh day: “AND GOD RESTED ON THE SEVENTH DAY FROM ALL HIS WORKS ”;  [Gen 2:2 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, since the promise remains for some to enter His rest, and those who formerly had the good news preached to them failed to [grasp it and did not] enter because of [their unbelief evidenced by] disobedience, ‡

just as has been said before [in the words already quoted], ‡

“TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,
DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS.” [Ps 95:7, 8]

<sup>8</sup> [This mention of a rest was not a reference to their entering into Canaan.] For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not speak about another day [of opportunity] after that.

<sup>10</sup> For the one who has once entered His rest has also rested from [the weariness and pain of] his [human] labors, just as God rested from [those labors uniquely] His own. [Gen 2:2]

<sup>11</sup> Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest [of God, to know and experience it for ourselves], so that no one will fall by following the same example of disobedience [as those who died in the wilderness].

<sup>12</sup> For the word of God is living and active and full of power [making it operative, energizing, and effective]. It is sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating as far as the division of the soul and spirit [the completeness of a person], and of both joints and marrow [the deepest parts of our nature], exposing and judging the very thoughts and intentions of the heart. ‡

<sup>13</sup> And not a creature exists that is concealed from His sight, but all things are open and exposed, and revealed to the eyes of Him with whom we have to give account. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Inasmuch then as we [believers] have a great High Priest who has [already ascended and] passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession [of faith and cling tenaciously to our absolute trust in Him as Savior]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For we do not have a High Priest who is unable to sympathize and understand our weaknesses and temptations, but One who has been tempted [knowing exactly how it feels to be human] in every respect as we are, yet without [committing any] sin. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Therefore let us [with privilege] approach the throne of grace [that is, the throne of God's gracious favor] with confidence and without fear, so that we may receive mercy [for our failures] and find [His amazing] grace to help in time of need [an appropriate blessing, coming just at the right moment]. ‡

The Perfect High Priest

<sup>1</sup> FOR EVERY high priest chosen from among men is appointed [to act] on behalf of men in things relating to God, so that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. ‡

<sup>2</sup> He is able to deal gently with the spiritually ignorant and misguided, since he is also subject to human weakness;

<sup>3</sup> and because of this [human weakness] he is required to offer sacrifices for sins, for himself as well as for the people. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And besides, one does not appropriate for himself the honor [of being high priest], but he who is called by God, just as Aaron was. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So too Christ did not glorify Himself so as to be made a high priest, but He [was exalted and appointed by the One] who said to Him, ‡

“Y OU ARE M Y S ON ,
T ODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN (fathered) Y OU [declared Your authority and rule over the nations]”;  [Ps 2:7 ]

A CCORDING TO THE ORDER OF M ELCHIZEDEK .”  [Ps 110:4 ]

<sup>7</sup> In the days of His earthly life, Jesus offered up both [specific] petitions and [urgent] supplications [for that which He needed] with fervent crying and tears to the One who was [always] able to save Him from death, and He was heard because of His reverent submission toward God [His sinlessness and His unfailing determination to do the Father’s will]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Although He was a Son [who had never been disobedient to the Father], He learned [active, special] obedience through what He suffered. ‡

<sup>9</sup> And having been made perfect [uniquely equipped and prepared as Savior and retaining His integrity amid opposition], He became the source of eternal salvation [an eternal inheritance] to all those who obey Him,  [Is 45:17 ]

<sup>10</sup> being designated by God as High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek.  [Ps 110:4 ]

<sup>11</sup> Concerning this we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull and sluggish in [your spiritual] hearing and disinclined to listen. ‡

12—For though by this time you ought to be teachers [because of the time you have had to learn these truths], you actually need someone to teach you again the elementary principles of God's word [from the beginning], and you have come to be continually in need of milk, not solid food. ‡

13—For everyone who lives on milk is [doctrinally inexperienced and] unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a spiritual infant. ‡

14 But solid food is for the [spiritually] mature, whose senses are trained by practice to distinguish between what is morally good and what is evil. ‡

Hebrews 6

The Peril of Falling Away

1 THEREFORE LET us get past the elementary stage in the teachings about the Christ, advancing on to maturity and perfection and spiritual completeness, [doing this] without laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, ‡

2—of teaching about washings (ritual purifications), the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. [These are all important matters in which you should have been proficient long ago.] ‡

3 And we will do this [that is, proceed to maturity], if God permits. ‡

4 For [it is impossible to restore to repentance] those who have once been enlightened [spiritually] and who have tasted and consciously experienced the heavenly gift and have shared in the Holy Spirit, ‡

5 and have tasted and consciously experienced the good word of God and the powers of the age (world) to come, ‡

6—and then have fallen away—it is impossible to bring them back again to repentance, since they again nail the Son of God on the cross [for as far as they are concerned, they are treating the death of Christ as if they were not saved by it], and are holding Him up again to public disgrace. ‡

7 For soil that drinks the rain which often falls on it and produces crops useful to those for whose benefit it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God; ‡

8 but if it persistently produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and close to being cursed, and it ends up being burned.  [Gen 3:17, 18 ] ‡

Better Things for You

<sup>9</sup> But, beloved, even though we speak to you in this way, we are convinced of better things concerning you, and of things that accompany salvation.

<sup>10</sup> For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown for His name in ministering to [the needs of] the saints (God's people), as you do. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And we desire for each one of you to show the same diligence [all the way through] so as to realize and enjoy the full assurance of hope until the end, ‡

<sup>12</sup> so that you will not be [spiritually] sluggish, but [will instead be] imitators of those who through faith [lean on God with absolute trust and confidence in Him and in His power] and by patient endurance [even when suffering] are [now] inheriting the promises. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For when God made the promise to Abraham, He swore [an oath] by Himself, since He had no one greater by whom to swear, ‡

<sup>14</sup> saying, “I WILL SURELY BLESS YOU AND I WILL SURELY MULTIPLY YOU .”  [Gen 22:16, 17 ]

<sup>15</sup> And so, having patiently waited, he realized the promise [in the miraculous birth of Isaac, as a pledge of what was to come from God].

<sup>16</sup> Indeed men swear [an oath] by one greater than themselves, and with them [in all disputes] the oath serves as confirmation [of what has been said] and is an end of the dispute. ‡

<sup>18</sup> so that by two unchangeable things [His promise and His oath] in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled [to Him] for refuge would have strong encouragement and indwelling strength to hold tightly to the hope set before us. ‡

<sup>19</sup> This hope [this confident assurance] we have as an anchor of the soul [it cannot slip and it cannot break down under whatever pressure bears upon it] —a safe and steadfast hope that enters within the veil [of the heavenly temple, that most Holy Place in which the very presence of God dwells],  [Lev 16:2 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> where Jesus has entered [in advance] as a forerunner for us, having become a High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.  [Ps 110:4 ] ‡

Hebrews 7

Melchizedek's Priesthood Like Christ's

<sup>1</sup> FOR THIS Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham as he returned from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,‡

<sup>2</sup> and Abraham gave him a tenth of all [the spoil]. He is, first of all, by the translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then he is also king of Salem, which means king of peace.

<sup>3</sup> Without [any record of] father or mother, nor ancestral line, without [any record of] beginning of days (birth) nor ending of life (death), but having been made like the Son of God, he remains a priest without interruption and without successor.

<sup>4</sup> Now pause and consider how great this man was to whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth of the spoils.‡

<sup>7</sup> Yet it is beyond all dispute that the lesser person is always blessed by the greater one.

<sup>8</sup> Furthermore, here [in the Levitical priesthood] tithes are received by men who are subject to death; but in that case [concerning Melchizedek], they are received by one of whom it is testified that he lives on [perpetually].‡

<sup>9</sup> A person might even say that Levi [the father of the priestly tribe] himself, who received tithes, paid tithes through Abraham [the father of all Israel and of all who believe],

<sup>11</sup> Now if perfection [a perfect fellowship between God and the worshiper] had been attained through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people were given the Law) what further need was there for another and different kind of priest to arise, one in the manner of Melchizedek, rather than one appointed to the order of Aaron?‡

<sup>12</sup> For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is of necessity a change of the law [concerning the priesthood] as well.

<sup>13</sup> For the One of whom these things are said belonged [not to the priestly line of Levi but] to another tribe, from which no one has officiated or served at the altar.

<sup>15</sup> And this becomes even more evident if another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek,  [Ps 110:4 ]

<sup>16</sup> who has become a priest, not on the basis of a physical and legal requirement in the Law [concerning his ancestry as a descendant of Levi], but on the basis of the power of an indestructible and endless life.

A CCORDING TO THE ORDER OF M ELCHIZEDEK .”  [Ps 110:4 ]

<sup>18</sup> For, on the one hand, a former commandment is cancelled because of its weakness and uselessness [because of its inability to justify the sinner before God] ‡

<sup>19</sup> (for the Law never made anything perfect); while on the other hand a better hope is introduced through which we now continually draw near to God. ‡

<sup>20</sup> And indeed it was not without the taking of an oath [that Christ was made priest]

“T HE L ORD HAS SWORN A ND WILL NOT CHANGE H IS MIND or REGRET IT ,
‘Y OU (Christ) ARE A P RIEST FOREVER ’ ”).  [Ps 110:4 ]

<sup>22</sup> And so [because of the oath’s greater strength and force] Jesus has become the certain guarantee of a better covenant [a more excellent and more advantageous agreement; one that will never be replaced or annulled]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> The [former successive line of] priests, on the one hand, existed in greater numbers because they were each prevented by death from continuing [perpetually in office];

<sup>24</sup> but, on the other hand, Jesus holds His priesthood permanently and without change, because He lives on forever.

<sup>25</sup>—Therefore He is able also to save forever (completely, perfectly, for eternity) those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to intercede and intervene on their behalf [with God]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> It was fitting for us to have such a High Priest [perfectly adapted to our needs], holy, blameless, unstained [by sin], separated from sinners and exalted higher than the heavens; ‡

<sup>27</sup> who has no day by day need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices, first of all for his own [personal] sins and then for those of the people, because He [met all the requirements and] did this once for all when He offered up Himself [as a willing sacrifice]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> For the Law appoints men as high priests who are weak [frail, sinful, dying men], but the word of the oath [of God], which came after [the institution of] the Law, permanently appoints [as priest] a Son who has been made perfect forever.  [Ps 110:4 ] ‡

A Better Ministry

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE main point of what we have to say is this: we have such a High Priest, [the Christ] who is seated [in the place of honor] at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty (God) in heaven,  [Ps 110:1 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup>—a Minister (Officiating Priest) in the holy places and in the true tabernacle, which is erected not by man, but by the Lord. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; so it is essential for this One also to have something to offer. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Now if He were [still living] on earth, He would not be a priest at all, for there are priests who offer the gifts [to God] in accordance with the Law.

<sup>5</sup> They serve as a pattern and foreshadowing of [what has its true existence and reality in] the heavenly things (sanctuary). For when Moses was about to erect the tabernacle, he was warned by God, saying, “S EE THAT YOU MAKE it all [exactly] ACCORDING TO THE PATTERN WHICH WAS SHOWN TO YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN .”  [Ex 25:40 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> But as it is, Christ has acquired a [priestly] ministry which is more excellent [than the old Levitical priestly ministry], for He is the Mediator

(Arbiter) of a better covenant [uniting God and man], which has been enacted and rests on better promises. ‡

A New Covenant

<sup>8</sup> However, God finds fault with them [showing its inadequacy] when He says, ‡

“B EHOLD , THE DAYS WILL COME , SAYS THE LORD,
W HEN I WILL MAKE and RATIFY A NEW COVENANT
W ITH THE HOUSE OF I SRAEL AND WITH THE HOUSE OF J UDAH ;
<sup>9</sup> N OT LIKE THE COVENANT THAT I MADE WITH THEIR FATHERS
O N THE DAY WHEN I TOOK THEM BY THE HAND
T O LEAD THEM OUT OF THE LAND OF E GYPT ;
F OR THEY DID NOT ABIDE IN M Y COVENANT , A ND SO I WITHDREW M Y FAVOR and DISREGARDED THEM , SAYS THE LORD.

<sup>10</sup>“F OR THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF I SRAEL ‡

A FTER THOSE DAYS , SAYS THE LORD:
I WILL IMPRINT M Y LAWS UPON THEIR MINDS [even upon their innermost thoughts and understanding],
A ND ENGRAVE THEM UPON THEIR HEARTS [effecting their regeneration].

A ND I WILL BE THEIR G OD , A ND THEY SHALL BE M Y PEOPLE .

<sup>11</sup>“A ND IT WILL NOT BE [necessary] FOR EACH ONE TO TEACH HIS FELLOW CITIZEN , ‡

O R EACH ONE HIS BROTHER , SAYING , ‘K NOW [by experience, have knowledge of] THE LORD,’

F OR ALL WILL KNOW [Me by experience and have knowledge of] M E ,

F ROM THE LEAST TO THE GREATEST OF THEM .

<sup>12</sup>“F OR I WILL BE MERCIFUL and GRACIOUS TOWARD THEIR WICKEDNESS , ‡

A ND I WILL REMEMBER THEIR SINS NO MORE ."  [Jer 31:31–34. ]

13 When God speaks of "A new covenant , " He makes the first one obsolete. And whatever is becoming obsolete (out of use, annulled) and growing old is ready to disappear. ‡

Hebrews 9

The Old and the New

1 NOW EVEN the first covenant had regulations for divine worship and for the earthly sanctuary.  [Ex 25:10–40 ] ‡

2- A tabernacle (sacred tent) was put up, the outer one or first section, in which were the lampstand and the table with [its loaves of] the sacred showbread; this is called the Holy Place.  [Lev 24:5, 6. ] ‡

3 Behind the second veil there was another tabernacle [the inner one or second section] known as the Holy of Holies,  [Ex 26:31–33. ] ‡

4 having the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered entirely with gold. This contained a golden jar which held the manna, and the rod of Aaron that sprouted, and the [two stone] tablets of the covenant [inscribed with the Ten Commandments];  [Ex 16:32–34; 30:1–6; Num 17:8–10 ] ‡

5 and above the ark were the [golden] cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat; but we cannot now go into detail about these things. ‡

6 Now when these things have been prepared in this way, the priests continually enter the outer [or first section of the] tabernacle [that is, the Holy Place] performing [their ritual acts of] the divine worship, ‡

7 but into the second [inner tabernacle, the Holy of Holies], only the high priest enters [and then only] once a year, and never without [bringing a sacrifice of] blood, which he offers [as a substitutionary atonement] for himself and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance.  [Lev 16:15. ] ‡

8 By this the Holy Spirit signifies that the way into the Holy Place [the true Holy of Holies and the presence of God] has not yet been disclosed as long as the first or outer tabernacle is still standing [that is, as long as the Levitical system of worship remains a recognized institution], ‡

9 for this [first or outer tabernacle] is a symbol [that is, an archetype or paradigm] for the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices are offered which are incapable of perfecting the conscience and renewing the [inner self of the] worshiper. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For they [the gifts, sacrifices, and ceremonies] deal only with [clean and unclean] food and drink and various ritual washings, [mere] external regulations for the body imposed [to help the worshipers] until the time of reformation [that is, the time of the new order when Christ will establish the reality of what these things foreshadow—a better covenant]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> But when Christ appeared as a High Priest of the good things to come [that is, true spiritual worship], He entered through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not a part of this [material] creation. ‡

<sup>12</sup> He went once for all into the Holy Place [the Holy of Holies of heaven, into the presence of God], and not through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, having obtained and secured eternal redemption [that is, the salvation of all who personally believe in Him as Savior]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For if the sprinkling of [ceremonially] defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a [burnt] heifer is sufficient for the cleansing of the body, [Lev 16:6, 16; Num 19:9, 17, 18] ‡

<sup>14</sup> how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal [Holy] Spirit willingly offered Himself unblemished [that is, without moral or spiritual imperfection as a sacrifice] to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works and lifeless observances to serve the ever living God? ‡

<sup>15</sup> For this reason He is the Mediator and Negotiator of a new covenant [that is, an entirely new agreement uniting God and man], so that those who have been called [by God] may receive [the fulfillment of] the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has taken place [as the payment] which redeems them from the sins committed under the obsolete first covenant. ‡

<sup>16</sup> For where there is a will and testament involved, the death of the one who made it must be established,

<sup>17</sup> for a will and testament takes effect [only] at death, since it is never in force as long as the one who made it is alive. ‡

<sup>18</sup> So even the first covenant was not put in force without [the shedding of] blood. ‡

<sup>19</sup> For when every commandment in the Law had been read by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of the calves and goats [which had been sacrificed], together with water and scarlet wool and with a bunch of hyssop, and he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people, ‡

agreement] WHICH GOD ORDAINED and COMMANDED [me to deliver to] YOU ."  [I
24:6-8.] ‡

<sup>21</sup> And in the same way he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the containers and sacred utensils of worship with the blood. ‡

24 For Christ did not enter into a holy place made with hands, a mere copy of the true one, but [He entered] into heaven itself, now to appear in the very presence of God on our behalf; ‡

<sup>25</sup> nor did He [enter into the heavenly sanctuary to] offer Himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own. ‡

26 Otherwise, He would have needed to suffer over and over since the foundation of the world; but now once for all at the consummation of the ages He has appeared and been publicly manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. ‡

<sup>27</sup> And just as it is appointed and destined for all men to die once and after this [comes certain] judgment, ‡

<sup>28</sup> so Christ, having been offered once and once for all to bear [as a burden] the sins of many, will appear a second time [when he returns to earth], not to deal with sin, but to bring salvation to those who are eagerly and confidently waiting for Him. ‡

One Sacrifice of Christ Is Sufficient

1 FOR SINCE the Law has only a shadow [just a pale representation] of the good things to come—not the very image of those things—it can never, by offering the same sacrifices continually year after year, make perfect those who approach [its altars]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For if it were otherwise, would not these sacrifices have stopped being offered? For the worshipers, having once [for all time] been cleansed, would no longer have a consciousness of sin.

<sup>3</sup> But [as it is] these [continual] sacrifices bring a fresh reminder of sins [to be atoned for] year after year, ‡

“S ACRIFICE AND OFFERING Y OU HAVE NOT DESIRED ,
B UT [instead] Y OU HAVE PREPARED A BODY FOR M E [to offer];
<sup>6</sup> I N BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices FOR SIN Y OU HAVE TAKEN NO DELIGHT .

<sup>7</sup> “T HEN I SAID , ‘B EHOLD , I HAVE COME
T O DO Y OUR WILL , O G OD —
[T O FULFILL ] WHAT IS WRITTEN OF M E IN THE SCROLL OF THE BOOK
. ’ ”  [Ps 40:6–8 ]

<sup>8</sup> After saying [in the citation] above, “YOU HAVE NEITHER DESIRED , NOR HAVE YOU TAKEN DELIGHT IN SACRIFICES AND OFFERINGS AND WHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices FOR SIN ” (which are offered according to the Law)

<sup>9</sup> then He said, “B EHOLD , I HAVE COME TO DO Y OUR WILL .” [And so] He does away with the first [covenant as a means of atoning for sin based on animal sacrifices] so that He may inaugurate and establish the second [covenant by means of obedience].  [Ps 40:6–8 ]

<sup>10</sup> And in accordance with this will [of God] we [who believe in the message of salvation] have been sanctified [that is, set apart as holy for God and His purposes] through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) once for all. ‡

<sup>14</sup> For by the one offering He has perfected forever and completely cleansed those who are being sanctified [bringing each believer to spiritual completion and maturity]. ‡

this]; for after having said,

16. “T HIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THEM ‡
A FTER THOSE DAYS , SAYS THE LORD:
I WILL IMPRINT M Y LAWS UPON THEIR HEART ,
A ND ON THEIR MIND I WILL INSCRIBE THEM [producing an inward change],”

He then says,

17 “A ND THEIR SINS AND THEIR LAWLESS ACTS
I WILL REMEMBER NO MORE [no longer holding their sins against them].”  [Jer 31:33, 34. ]

18 Now where there is [absolute] forgiveness and complete cancellation of the penalty of these things, there is no longer any offering [to be made to atone] for sin.

A New and Living Way

19. Therefore, believers, since we have confidence and full freedom to enter the Holy Place [the place where God dwells] by [means of] the blood of Jesus, ‡

20. by this new and living way which He initiated and opened for us through the veil [as in the Holy of Holies], that is, through His flesh, ‡

21 and since we have a great and wonderful Priest [Who rules] over the house of God, ‡

22. let us approach [God] with a true and sincere heart in unqualified assurance of faith, having had our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ‡

23 Let us seize and hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is reliable and trustworthy and faithful [to His word]; ‡

24. and let us consider [thoughtfully] how we may encourage one another to love and to do good deeds,

25 not forsaking our meeting together [as believers for worship and instruction], as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more [faithfully] as you see the day [of Christ’s return] approaching. ‡

Christ or Judgment

26 For if we go on willfully and deliberately sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice [to atone] for our sins [that is, no further offering to anticipate]. ‡

27 but a kind of awful and terrifying expectation of [divine] judgment and THE FURY OF A FIRE and BURNING WRATH WHICH WILL CONSUME THE ADVERSARIES [those who put themselves in opposition to God].  [Is 26:11] ‡

28 Anyone who has ignored and set aside the Law of Moses is put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.  [Deut 17:2–6] ‡

29 How much greater punishment do you think he will deserve who has rejected and trampled under foot the Son of God, and has considered unclean and common the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and has insulted the Spirit of grace [who imparts the unmerited favor and blessing of God]?  [Ex 24:8] ‡

30 For we know Him who said, “V ENGEANCE IS M INE [retribution and the deliverance of justice rest with Me], I WILL REPAY [the wrongdoer].” And again, “T HE L ORD WILL JUDGE H IS PEOPLE .”  [Deut 32:35, 36] ‡

31 It is a fearful and terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God [incurring His judgment and wrath]. ‡

32 But remember the earlier days, when, after being [spiritually] enlightened, you [patiently] endured a great conflict of sufferings, ‡

33 sometimes by being made a spectacle, publicly exposed to insults and distress, and sometimes by becoming companions with those who were so treated. ‡

34 For you showed sympathy and deep concern for those who were imprisoned, and you joyfully accepted the [unjust] seizure of your belongings and the confiscation of your property, conscious of the fact that you have a better possession and a lasting one [prepared for you in heaven]. ‡

35 Do not, therefore, fling away your [fearless] confidence, for it has a glorious and great reward. ‡

36 For you have need of patient endurance [to bear up under difficult circumstances without compromising], so that when you have carried out the will of God, you may receive and enjoy to the full what is promised. ‡

37 F OR YET IN A VERY LITTLE WHILE , ‡

H E WHO IS COMING WILL COME , AND WILL NOT DELAY .

38 B UT M Y RIGHTEOUS ONE [the one justified by faith] SHALL LIVE

BY FAITH [respecting man's relationship to God and trusting Him]; ‡

A ND IF HE DRAWS BACK [shrinking in fear], M Y SOUL HAS NO DELIGHT IN HIM .  [Hab 2:3, 4. ]

<sup>39</sup> But our way is not that of those who shrink back to destruction, but [we are] of those who believe [relying on God through faith in Jesus Christ, the Messiah] and by this confident faith preserve the soul. ‡

The Triumphs of Faith

<sup>3</sup> By faith [that is, with an inherent trust and enduring confidence in the power, wisdom and goodness of God] we understand that the worlds (universe, ages) were framed and created [formed, put in order, and equipped for their intended purpose] by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible. ‡

<sup>4</sup> By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which it was testified of him that he was righteous (upright, in right standing with God), and God testified by accepting his gifts. And though he died, yet through [this act of] faith he still speaks.  [Gen 4:3–10. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> By faith [that pleased God] Enoch was caught up and taken to heaven so that he would not have a glimpse of death; AND HE WAS NOT FOUND BECAUSE G OD HAD TAKEN HIM ; for even before he was taken [to heaven], he received the testimony [still on record] that he had walked with God and pleased Him.  [Gen 5:21–24. ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> But without faith it is impossible to [walk with God and] please Him, for whoever comes [near] to God must [necessarily] believe that God exists and that He rewards those who [earnestly and diligently] seek Him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith [with confidence in God and His word] Noah, being warned by God about events not yet seen, in reverence prepared an ark for the salvation of his family. By this [act of obedience] he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness which comes by faith.  [Gen 6:13–22 ] ‡

8. By faith Abraham, when he was called [by God], obeyed by going to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance; and he went, not knowing where he was going. ‡

9 By faith he lived as a foreigner in the promised land, as in a strange land, living in tents [as nomads] with Isaac and Jacob, who were fellow heirs of the same promise.  [Gen 12:1–8 ] ‡

10 For he was [waiting expectantly and confidently] looking forward to the city which has foundations, [an eternal, heavenly city] whose architect and builder is God. ‡

11 By faith even Sarah herself received the ability to conceive [a child], even [when she was long] past the normal age for it, because she considered Him who had given her the promise to be reliable and true [to His word].  [Gen 17:19 ; 18:11–14 ; 21:2 ] ‡

12 So from one man, though he was [physically] as good as dead, were born as many descendants AS THE STARS OF HEAVEN IN NUMBER , AND INNUMERABLE AS THE SAND ON THE SEASHORE .  [Gen 15:5 , 6 ; 22:17 ; 32:12 ] ‡

13 All these died in faith [guided and sustained by it], without receiving the [tangible fulfillment of God's] promises, only having seen (anticipated) them and having welcomed them from a distance, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.  [Gen 23:4 ; Ps 39:12 ] ‡

14 Now those who say such things make it clear that they are looking for a country of their own. ‡

15. And if they had been thinking of that country from which they departed [as their true home], they would have had [a continuing] opportunity to return.

16 But the truth is that they were longing for a better country, that is, a heavenly one. For that reason God is not ashamed [of them or] to be called their God [even to be surnamed their God—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob]; for He has prepared a city for them.  [Ex 3:6 , 15 ; 4:5 ] ‡

17. By faith Abraham, when he was tested [that is, as the testing of his faith was still in progress], offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises [of God] was ready to sacrifice his only son [of promise];  [Gen 22:1–10 ] ‡

18 to whom it was said, “T HROUGH I SAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS SHALL BE CALLED .”  [Gen 21:12 ] ‡

19 For he considered [it reasonable to believe] that God was able to raise Isaac even from among the dead. [Indeed, in the sense that he was prepared to sacrifice Isaac in obedience to God] Abraham did receive him back [from the dead] figuratively speaking. ‡

<sup>21</sup> By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and bowed in worship, leaning on the top of his staff.  [Gen 48] ‡

<sup>22</sup> By faith Joseph, when he was dying, referred to [the promise of God for] the exodus of the sons of Israel [from Egypt], and gave instructions concerning [the burial of] his bones [in the land of the promise].  [Gen 50:24, 25; Ex 13:19] ‡

<sup>23</sup> By faith Moses, after his birth, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful and divinely favored child; and they were not afraid of the king's (Pharaoh's) decree.  [Ex 1:22; 2:2; Acts 7:20 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> because he preferred to endure the hardship of the people of God rather than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin. ‡

<sup>26</sup> He considered the reproach of the Christ [that is, the rebuke he would suffer for his faithful obedience to God] to be greater wealth than all the treasures of Egypt; for he looked ahead to the reward [promised by God]. ‡

<sup>28</sup> By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood [on the doorposts], so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them (the firstborn of Israel).  [Ex 12:21–30] ‡

<sup>29</sup> By faith the people [of Israel] crossed the Red Sea as though they were passing through dry land; but when the Egyptians attempted it they were drowned.  [Ex 14:21–31] ‡

<sup>30</sup> By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days [by Joshua and the sons of Israel].  [Josh 6:12–21] ‡

<sup>31</sup> By faith Rahab the prostitute was not destroyed along with those who were disobedient, because she had welcomed the spies [sent by the sons of Israel] in peace.  [Josh 2:1–21; 6:22–25.] ‡

<sup>32</sup> And what more shall I say? For time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets,  [Judg 4; 5; 6–8; 11; 12; 13–16; 1 Sam 1–30; 2 Sam 1–24; 1 Kin 1; 2; Acts 3:24.] ‡

<sup>33</sup> who by faith [that is, with an enduring trust in God and His promises]

subdued kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promised blessings, closed the mouths of lions,  [Dan 6. ] ‡

<sup>36</sup> and others experienced the trial of mocking and scourging [amid torture], and even chains and imprisonment. ‡

<sup>37</sup> They were stoned [to death], they were sawn in two, they were lured with tempting offers [to renounce their faith], they were put to death by the sword; they went about wrapped in the skins of sheep and goats, utterly destitute, oppressed, cruelly treated ‡

<sup>40</sup> because God had us in mind and had something better for us, so that they [these men and women of authentic faith] would not be made perfect [that is, completed in Him] apart from us. ‡

Jesus, the Example

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, SINCE we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses [who by faith have testified to the truth of God's absolute faithfulness], stripping off every unnecessary weight and the sin which so easily and cleverly entangles us, let us run with endurance and active persistence the race that is set before us, ‡

<sup>2</sup> [looking away from all that will distract us and] focusing our eyes on Jesus, who is the Author and Perfecter of faith [the first incentive for our belief and the One who brings our faith to maturity], who for the joy [of accomplishing the goal] set before Him endured the cross, disregarding the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God [revealing His deity, His authority, and the completion of His work].  [Ps 110:1 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> Just consider and meditate on Him who endured from sinners such bitter hostility against Himself [consider it all in comparison with your trials], so that you will not grow weary and lose heart. ‡

A Father's Discipline

<sup>4</sup> You have not yet struggled to the point of shedding blood in your striving against sin; ‡

<sup>5</sup> and you have forgotten the divine word of encouragement which is addressed to you as sons, ‡

“M Y SON , DO NOT MAKE LIGHT OF THE DISCIPLINE OF THE LORD,
A ND DO NOT LOSE HEART and GIVE UP WHEN YOU ARE CORRECTED
BY H IM ;

LOVES , ‡

A ND H E PUNISHES EVERY SON WHOM H E RECEIVES and WELCOMES [
TO H IS HEART ].”  [Prov 3:11, 12 ]

<sup>7</sup> You must submit to [correction for the purpose of] discipline; God is dealing with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now if you are exempt from correction and without discipline, in which all [of God's children] share, then you are illegitimate children and not sons [at all]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Moreover, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us, and we submitted and respected them [for training us]; shall we not much more willingly submit to the Father of spirits, and live [by learning from His discipline]? ‡

<sup>10</sup> For our earthly fathers disciplined us for only a short time as seemed best to them; but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For the time being no discipline brings joy, but seems sad and painful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness [right standing with God and a lifestyle and attitude that seeks conformity to God's will and purpose]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Cut through and make smooth, straight paths for your feet [that are safe and go in the right direction], so that the leg which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather may be healed. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Continually pursue peace with everyone, and the sanctification without which no one will [ever] see the Lord. ‡

<sup>15</sup> See to it that no one falls short of God's grace; that no root of resentment springs up and causes trouble, and by it many be defiled; ‡

<sup>16</sup> and [see to it] that no one is immoral or godless like Esau, who sold his own birthright for a single meal.  [Gen 25:29–34. ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> For you know that later on, when he wanted [to regain title to] his inheritance of the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no opportunity for repentance [there was no way to repair what he had done, no chance to recall the choice he had made], even though he sought for it with [bitter] tears.  [Gen 27:30–40. ] ‡

Contrast of Sinai and Zion

<sup>18</sup> For you have not come [as did the Israelites in the wilderness] to a mountain that can be touched and to a blazing fire, and to gloom and darkness and a raging windstorm, ‡

<sup>19</sup> and to the blast of a trumpet and a sound of words [such that] those who heard it begged that nothing more be said to them.  [Ex 19:12–22; 20:18–21; Deut 4:11, 12; 5:22–27. ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> For they could not bear the command, “I F EVEN A WILD ANIMAL TOUCHES THE MOUNTAIN , IT WILL BE STONED [to death].”  [Ex 19:12, 13. ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> In fact, so terrifying was the sight, that Moses said, “I AM FILLED WITH FEAR and trembling.”  [Deut 9:19. ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels [in festive gathering], ‡

<sup>23</sup> and to the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn who are registered [as citizens] in heaven, and to God, who is Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous (the redeemed in heaven) who have been made perfect [bringing them to their final glory], ‡

<sup>24</sup> and to Jesus, the Mediator of a new covenant [uniting God and man], and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks [of mercy], a better and nobler and more gracious message than the blood of Abel [which cried out for vengeance].  [Gen 4:10. ] ‡

The Unshaken Kingdom

<sup>25</sup> See to it that you do not refuse [to listen to] Him who is speaking [to you now]. For if those [sons of Israel] did not escape when they refused [to listen to] him who warned them on earth [revealing God's will], how much less will we escape if we turn our backs on Him who warns from heaven?  [Heb 2:1–4 ]

<sup>26</sup> His voice shook the earth [at Mount Sinai] then, but now He has given a promise, saying, “Y ET ONCE MORE I WILL SHAKE NOT ONLY THE EARTH , BUT ALSO THE [starry] HEAVEN .”  [Hag 2:6 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> Now this [expression], “Yet once more,” indicates the removal and final transformation of all those things which can be shaken—that is, of that which has been created—so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.  [Ps 102:26 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, and offer to God pleasing service and acceptable worship with reverence and awe;

Hebrews 13

The Changeless Christ

<sup>2</sup> Do not neglect to extend hospitality to strangers [especially among the family of believers—being friendly, cordial, and gracious, sharing the comforts of your home and doing your part generously], for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it.  [Gen 18:1–8 ; 19:1–3 ; Judg 6:11–24 ; 13:6–20 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> Remember those who are in prison, as if you were their fellow prisoner, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body [and subject to physical suffering]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Marriage is to be held in honor among all [that is, regarded as something of great value], and the marriage bed undefiled [by immorality or by any sexual sin]; for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Let your character [your moral essence, your inner nature] be free from the love of money [shun greed—be financially ethical], being content with what you have; for He has said, “I WILL NEVER [under any circumstances] DESERT YOU [nor give you up nor leave you without support, nor will I in any degree leave you helpless], NOR WILL I FORSAKE or LET YOU DOWN or RELAX M Y HOLD ON YOU [assuredly not]!”  [Josh 1:5 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently say, ‡

“T HE L ORD IS MY H ELPER [in time of need], I WILL NOT BE AFRAID
W HAT WILL MAN DO TO ME ?”  [Ps 27:1 ; 118:6 ]

<sup>7</sup> Remember your leaders [for it was they] who brought you the word of God; and consider the result of their conduct [the outcome of their godly lives], and imitate their faith [their conviction that God exists and is the Creator and Ruler of all things, the Provider of eternal salvation through Christ, and imitate their reliance on God with absolute trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is [eternally changeless, always] the same yesterday and today and forever. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Do not be carried away by diverse and strange teachings; for it is good for the heart to be established and strengthened by grace and not by foods [rules of diet and ritualistic meals], which bring no benefit or spiritual growth to those who observe them. ‡

<sup>10</sup> We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle (sacred tent) have no right to eat. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside the camp.  [Lev 16:27 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> Therefore Jesus also suffered and died outside the [city] gate so that He might sanctify and set apart for God as holy the people [who believe] through [the shedding of] His own blood. ‡

<sup>13</sup> So, let us go out to Him outside the camp, bearing His contempt [the disgrace and shame that He had to suffer].  [Lev 16:27 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> For here we have no lasting city, but we are seeking the city which is to come. ‡

God-pleasing Sacrifices

<sup>15</sup> Through Him, therefore, let us at all times offer up to God a sacrifice of praise, which is the fruit of lips that thankfully acknowledge and confess and glorify His name.  [Lev 7:12 ; Is 57:19 ; Hos 14:2 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Obey your [spiritual] leaders and submit to them [recognizing their authority over you], for they are keeping watch over your souls and continually guarding your spiritual welfare as those who will give an account [of their stewardship of you]. Let them do this with joy and not with grief and groans, for this would be of no benefit to you. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Keep praying for us, for we are convinced that we have a good conscience, seeking to conduct ourselves honorably [that is, with moral courage and personal integrity] in all things. ‡

Benediction

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace [the source of serenity and spiritual well-being] who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood that sealed and ratified the eternal covenant, [Is 55:3 ; 63:11 ; Ezek 37:26 ; Zech 9:11] ‡

<sup>21</sup> equip you with every good thing to carry out His will and strengthen you [making you complete and perfect as you ought to be], accomplishing in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ‡

<sup>22</sup> I call on you, brothers and sisters, listen [patiently] to this message of exhortation and encouragement, for I have written to you briefly. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Notice that our brother Timothy has been released [from prison]. If he comes soon, I will see you [along with him]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Give our greetings to all of your [spiritual] leaders and to all of the saints (God's people). Those [Christians] from Italy send you their greetings. ‡

Annotations for Hebrews

1:2 in . . . His Son. This could be rephrased as “in such a person as a Son.” The emphasis rests on the character of the revelation. It is a revelation of the Son, a revelation not so much in what He has said as in who He is and what He has done.

1:3 radiance . . . of the glory. The author of Hebrews is emphasizing that this is not a reflected brightness like the light of the moon. Instead, this is an inherent brightness like a ray from the sun. Jesus’ glorious brightness comes from being essentially divine. perfect imprint. In Greek literature the word was used for stamping a coin from the die. upholding. This means to “bear” or “carry,” referring to movement and progress toward a final end. The Son not only created the universe by His powerful word, but also maintains and directs its course. He is the Governor of the universe. sat down. This suggests the formal act of assuming the office of High Priest and implies a contrast to the Levitical priest, who never finished his work and sat down (10:11–13 ).

1:5 TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN (fathered) YOU. This probably refers to the day Christ sat down at the Father’s right hand after He accomplished His work as the Messiah.

1:6 And when He again brings the firstborn. This is a reference to the second coming. “Firstborn” refers to rank, meaning one who ranks above all others (Ps 89:27 ).

1:7 MINISTERING SERVANTS. The Son is superior to angels because He is the Sovereign who is worshiped, while the angels are ministering servants of God. The author of Hebrews quotes Psalm 104 because that psalm places angels in a long list of created objects which God sovereignly controls.

1:9 COMPANIONS. This term comes from a word that means “close associates” or “partners.” The concept of believers being partners with Christ is key in Hebrews (3:1 ,14 ; 6:4 ; 12:8 ). The term refers to those who will be participants with Christ in His reign.

1:10–12 YOU, LORD . The context of Psalm 102 here indicates that the Lord is the One who would appear in the future to Israel and the nations (Ps 102:12–16 ).

1:14 those who will inherit salvation. Salvation here is not justification because it is in the future, not in the past. The reference is to believers who inherit the kingdom or rule in God’s kingdom as a reward for their service to the Son (9:28 ; Col 3:24 ).

2:1 drift away. The author’s audience was marked by immaturity and spiritual sluggishness (5:11–12 ). The author warned them not to be carried away by the popular opinions that surrounded them. Instead, they were to hold fast to Christ’s words because they were the words of God.

2:3 how will we escape. If the people who heard the message delivered through angels were justly punished when they disobeyed the law, how can believers expect to escape punishment when they neglect the even greater message delivered through the greater Messenger, the Son?

2:4 signs and wonders. This phrase refers to the miracles performed by the Holy Spirit through the Lord and His apostles in fulfillment of the ancient promises regarding the coming of the Messiah (Ac 2:22 ,43 ; 4:30 ; 5:12 ; 6:8 ; 14:3 ; 15:12 ; 1Co 12:12 ).

2:6–8 AND SET HIM OVER THE WORKS OF YOUR HANDS. Since the Son’s humanity might appear to be an obstacle to the claim of His superiority, the author of Hebrews cites Psalm 8 , a lyrical reflection on Genesis 1 , to prove that God has placed humanity over all created things, which includes the angelic world.

2:10 founder of their salvation. The Greek word here means “leader” or “originator.” The word describes a pioneer or pathfinder. Jesus' endurance of sufferings on this earth makes Him our leader. He not only endured them but also triumphed over sin, death, and Satan through them.

2:12 TO M Y BRETHREN. Psalm 22 is quoted here. In it, the Messiah refers to "My brethren," identifying Himself with all those who place their faith in God.

2:14–16 He might make powerless . . . free all. Having established the unity between the Son and believer, the author concludes that there are two purposes of this close identification. The Son became human so that He could destroy the devil and release those who were in bondage to sin.

2:16 descendants of Abraham. The author may have used the expression because the recipients of this letter were primarily Jewish believers. The author is pointing out that Christ came to the aid of Abraham's sons, not the angelic hosts.

2:17 in things related to God. Jesus participated in our nature and in our sufferings on earth so that He could be a sympathetic Mediator between God and humanity. He understands our weaknesses and intercedes for us in the presence of God the Father. make atonement. This term refers to the satisfaction of the claims of a holy and righteous God against sinners who have broken His law. Christ appeased God's righteous wrath by dying on the cross in our place (Ro 3:21–26 ). Although completely sinless, Christ voluntarily submitted to the penalty of sin, His agonizing death on the cross. This voluntary sacrifice of Himself for our welfare satisfied the justice and holiness of God. The benefits of His sacrifice are applied to all who place their faith in Him.

2:18 He Himself [in His humanity] has suffered in being tempted. Christ's suffering included temptation. He experienced the lure of sin, but He never surrendered Himself to it. He knows what it is like to be tempted, so He knows how to assist those who are being tempted.

3:2 in all God's house. This phrase is taken from Numbers 12:7 . "House" refers to the tabernacle, the center of Israelite worship. Moses had faithfully obeyed God's instructions concerning the tabernacle. In the same way, Jesus had been obedient to the mission the Father had given Him. Through obedience, God established a new house of God, the church.

3:3–4 worthy of much greater glory and honor than Moses. The implication is that the covenant established through Jesus' death is more glorious than the covenant established at Mount Sinai.

3:5 as a ministering servant. The author of Hebrews continues the comparison between Moses and Jesus. While Moses was faithful as a servant, Christ's faithfulness was greater because it was performed by a Son. things which were to be spoken afterward. Moses' work pointed forward to Christ (9:10 ; 10:3 ). The regulations of the law of Moses pointed out both the sin of humanity and the need for a perfect sacrifice to reconcile people to their holy Creator.

3:7–11 D O NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS. The author of Hebrews quotes Psalm 95:7–11 to warn the Jewish Christians about hardening their hearts to God and the salvation He offers. Moses' generation had refused to trust in God to provide for their needs in the wilderness (Ex 17:1–7 ), and the readers of this letter were also in danger. M Y REST. This is a key concept in Hebrews. In the Old Testament, the conquest of the promised land and the cessation of fighting in the land was viewed as a form of rest (Dt 3:20 ; 12:9 ; 25:19 ; Jos 11:23 ; 21:44 ; 22:4 ). In the New Testament, "rest" speaks of the believer's eternal home and the joy that he or she will experience in Jesus' presence (4:1 ).

3:12–13 unbelieving heart. In essence, unbelief is a stubborn refusal to trust in the truthfulness of His word. It is a grave sin because it leads us away from God.

3:14 partakers of Christ. This is the same word translated companions in 1:9 . Believers will be partners with Christ in His future kingdom (Rev 2:26–27 ).

3:15–19 And with whom was He angry. The Jewish Christians to whom this letter was addressed were in danger of following in their ancestors' footsteps. They were tempted to doubt the words of Jesus. With the rhetorical questions in these verses, the author of Hebrews was encouraging them to place their faith firmly in Christ.

4:2 good news [of salvation] preached. This is the translation of a single Greek word meaning “the good news was announced.”

4:4 G OD RESTED. The theme of rest has its beginning in God’s own rest after creation. The fact that Genesis makes no mention of the evening of the seventh day of creation provides a basis for some Jewish commentators to conclude that the rest of God lasts throughout all history.

4:9 rest. The word used here is different from the word used in verses 1 ,3 ,5 ,10–11 ; 3:11 ,18 . Jews commonly taught that the Sabbath foreshadowed the world to come, and they spoke of “a day of which shall be all Sabbath.”

4:11 make every effort to enter that rest. The rest is not automatic. Determined diligence is required. The danger is that believers today, like the Israelites of the past, will not stand, but will fall in disobedience.

4:13 open and exposed. This phrase suggests complete exposure and defenselessness before God.

4:15 sympathize. This word means “to suffer with” and expresses the feeling of one who has entered into suffering.

4:16 approach. This command strongly contrasts with God’s command at Mt Sinai: “go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it” (Ex 19:12 ). Because of Christ’s priestly work, believers can approach God’s presence. with confidence. This word carries with it the idea of “fearlessness” or “courageousness.” Believers should boldly approach God in prayer because He is our gracious High Priest who sits at God’s right hand interceding for us.

5:1–4 high priest. He represents the people and thus must identify with their human nature. But he also represents God to the people and thus must be called by God to his office.

5:2 ignorant and misguided. This phrase describes those who unintentionally sin (Nu 15:30–36 ).

5:8 He learned [active, special] obedience. Jesus experienced all of what a person goes through on this earth. He knows how difficult it is to obey God completely, just as He understands the attraction of temptation (2:18 ).

5:9 having been made perfect. This phrase does not suggest that Jesus had not been perfect before. It means that He successfully carried out God’s plan for Him. He endured suffering and temptation so that He could truly function as our High Priest, understanding our weaknesses and interceding before God for us.

5:12 elementary principles. The phrase refers to the letters of the alphabet in writing or to addition and subtraction tables in arithmetic. They are principles out of which everything else develops.

5:13 unskilled in the word of righteousness. The readers of this letter did not necessarily lack information concerning righteousness; they lacked experience in practicing the information they had.

6:1 repentance from dead works. This phrase refers to a change of mind about the demands of the law of Moses (9:14 ). Even though the law was good (1Ti 1:8 ), it was weak because of the weakness of our sinful nature (Ro 8:3 ). What is needed for salvation is not lifeless works that cannot save, but faith directed toward God.

6:2 laying on of hands. This action was used to impart the Holy Spirit (Ac 8:17–18 ; 19:6 ). It was also used for ordination of the ministry (Ac 6:6 ; 13:3 ). This practice is also found in the Old Testament in commissioning someone to a public office (Nu 27:18 , 23 ; Dt 34:9 ) or in the context of presenting a sacrificial offering to the Lord (Lev 1:4 ; 3:2 ; 4:4 ; 8:14 ; 16:21 ). eternal judgment. This refers to the belief that everyone will be judged by the great Judge.

6:4–6 and then have fallen away. This difficult passage has been interpreted in various ways. Some insist that the author is speaking of nominal Christians who heard the truth and appeared to believe in Christ but were not sincere in their faith. Others view these verses as a hypothetical argument. In other words, the author is using this hypothetical case to warn the spiritually immature. These two positions are supported by passages that speak of God's consistency in His work, that nothing can separate us from His love (Jn 6:39–40 ; 10:27–29 ; Ro 8:28–30 ). But another group of commentators insists that the author is speaking of genuine Christians who renounce Christ. They point out that those who "tasted and consciously experienced the heavenly gift" fall away. Passages such as 2 Corinthians 11:1–4 ; 2 Timothy 2:17–18 ; 1 John 2:21–25 are in support of this position. Whatever way one interprets this passage, it is clear that the author of Hebrews has given us a clear warning not to renounce Christ or spurn His offer of salvation.

6:6 bring them back. In other words, it is impossible for continuous effort on the part of anyone in the Christian community to restore an apostate back to fellowship with God. Continuing Christian immaturity is dangerous.

6:13–15 Abraham. Here is an example of faith and patience in God's promise (v. 12 ). He waited 25 years from the time the promise was first made until Isaac, the promised son, was born (Ge 12:3–4 ; 15:4 ; 18:10 ; 21:5 ).

6:18 two unchangeable things. These things are God's Word and God's oath. Since God does not lie and since He is all-powerful, He will fulfill all His promises.

The “Greater Thans” in Hebrews

One of the author's main points in Hebrews is that Jesus is greater than all those things associated with the Jewish religion and way of life. Sometimes he actually uses the words “greater than”; sometimes he does not. But in all cases the theme is clear.

Theme	Passage in Hebrews
Jesus is greater than the prophets.	1:1–3
Jesus is greater than the angels.	1:4–14 ; 2:5
Jesus is greater than Moses.	3:1–6
Jesus is greater than Joshua.	4:6–11
Jesus is greater than the Aaronic high priests.	5:1–10 ; 7:26–8:2
Jesus is greater than the Levitical priests.	6:20–7:25
Jesus as the high priest in the order of Melchizedek is greater than Abraham.	7:1–10
Jesus' ministry is greater than the tabernacle ministry.	8:3–6 ; 9:1–28
Jesus' new covenant is greater than the old covenant.	8:7–13
Jesus' sacrifice is greater than the OT sacrifices.	10:1–14
Experiencing Jesus is greater than the experience on Mount Sinai.	12:18–24

6:20 forerunner. This word was used in the second century AD for the smaller boats sent into the harbor by larger ships unable to enter due to the buffeting of the weather. These smaller boats carried the anchor through the breakers inside the harbor and dropped it there, securing the larger ship. Forerunner also presupposes that others will follow. Thus, Jesus is like a runner boat that has taken our anchor into port and secured it there.

7:1 Melchizedek. The name means “king of righteousness.” Salem means “peace.” The ideal king rules in righteousness, which assures peace (Isa 32:17 ).

7:3 Without [any record of] father or mother, nor ancestral line. Genesis, a book with many genealogies, has none for Melchizedek. The author is not saying that Melchizedek was born without a father and mother, only that there is no record of his birth in the genealogies of Genesis. This description of Melchizedek prefigures the eternal priesthood of Jesus. Like Melchizedek, Jesus is both a Priest and a King belonging to a righteous priesthood that is independent of Aaron’s.

7:4 patriarch. In the Greek text this word is emphatic. The greatness of Abraham, the one who possessed the promises of God (v. 6 ), underscores the even greater rank of Melchizedek, the priest of righteousness.

7:8–10 tithes are received by men who are subject to death. Melchizedek was not only superior to Abraham, but he was also superior to the Levitical priesthood in two ways: first, the Levitical priests were mortal. In contrast, Melchizedek seems to be immortal. At least, the Old Testament does not record his death. Second, in a sense, Levi paid tithes to Melchizedek through Abraham’s gift. Because he was descended from Abraham, he is counted as having paid tithes to Melchizedek.

7:12 change. This word means removal (12:27 ). If the Melchizedek priesthood removed the Levitical priesthood, then the Mosaic law is also removed. In short, the believer is not under the law but instead relies on the righteousness of Christ (Ro 6:14 ; Gal 3:24–25 ).

7:15–18 but on the basis of the power of an indestructible and endless life. This point is proved by Psalm 110:4 , quoted in verse 17 . Jesus is a different kind of priest, another indication that the law has been changed. There has been a disannulling , a putting away, of the law.

7:25 He is able also to save. Christ is able to save because He is fully God and fully human (2:18 ; 4:15 ). Since this verse speaks to Jesus’ present intercession for us, the word “save” in this verse speaks of our sanctification, the continuing process by which we are freed from the power of sin. This continuing process of salvation will eventually be completed in our glorification, when we are saved from the presence of sin.

7:26–28 no day by day need, like those high priests. The high priest offered an annual sacrifice on the Day of Atonement for the atonement of the people’s sins (9:7 ; 10:1 ), but the priests also offered sacrifices every day before the Lord (Ex 29:36 ). In contrast Jesus offered Himself once, a perfect, sinless sacrifice for the sins of all. Since Jesus is perfect, He did not have to offer sacrifices for His own sins.

8:2 holy places. This term refers to the heavenly reality represented by the most holy place (9:2 ,8 ,24 ; 10:19 ; 13:11 ). The reality is the presence of God. Our High Priest serves there and desires to bring us there (10:19 ).

8:8 A NEW COVENANT. This covenant is the “better covenant” of verse 6 . This covenant was made with Israel and Judah, yet the church enjoys the spiritual blessings of this covenant now. The Abrahamic covenant was made with Abraham and his physical descendants (Ge 17:7 ). Yet the Abrahamic covenant also contained spiritual promise (Ge 12:3 ) in which the church participates (Ro 11:11–27 ; Gal 3:13–14 ). The new covenant in fact is a fulfillment of the spiritual redemption promise in the Abrahamic and Davidic covenants (Mt 26:26–29 ; Lk 22:20 ).

8:10–12 AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD . There are four provisions of the new covenant: (1) God's law will be written on believers' minds and hearts. (2) Believers will have a relationship with God fulfilling the promise of Leviticus 26:12 (2Co 6:16 ). (3) All will know God. No longer will Pharisees and scribes have to teach the intricacies of the law to the people. (4) God will forgive the sins of believers and remember them no more. The continual sacrifice of animals for the atonement of sin will cease.

8:13 becoming obsolete (out of use, annulled) and growing old. At the time the author of Hebrews wrote these words, the ceremonies of the Mosaic covenant were still being conducted in the temple in Jerusalem. In AD 70 the Roman general Titus destroyed the temple, fulfilling these words.

9:2–5 A tabernacle (sacred tent) was put up. These verses simply describe the furniture of the tabernacle. The tabernacle courtyard contained an altar for animal sacrifice and a laver for ceremonial washings. The tabernacle was divided into two rooms by a veil. The first part was the sanctuary or holy place, housing the lampstand, the table for the showbread, and the altar of incense. The second room was the most holy place, containing the ark of the covenant, in which were stored the symbols of the Mosaic covenant.

9:7–8 once a year. In the provisions of the Mosaic covenant, access to God was limited. The fact that the high priest had such little access himself indicates the striking failure of the Mosaic covenant to bring believers into the presence of God.

9:9 are incapable of perfecting the conscience and renewing the [inner self of the] worshiper. The Mosaic covenant covered sins of ignorance (v. 7), but not premeditated sins or the sinful nature of all people (Ps 51 ). In other words, the old system was lacking. It did not completely reconcile the people to God.

9:12 through His own blood. Christ obtained eternal redemption. His sacrifice never has to be repeated because it is perfect.

9:13 ashes of a [burnt] heifer. These were mixed with water and were used to cleanse a person who had become ceremonially defiled by touching a corpse (Nu 19:11–13 ). The author of Hebrews points out that these ceremonies could purify only a person's exterior, not a person's heart.

9:14 the eternal [Holy] Spirit. All three persons of the Trinity are involved in cleansing. The defilement is internal, not external (v. 13 ). Christ's death has the power to purify a person's mind and soul.

9:15 redeems. Christ paid the price to free us from our own sin. His death substitutes for our death, the penalty of our sins. Like the Israelites, believers receive an inheritance, but our inheritance is eternal (v. 14 ).

9:24 Christ did not enter into a holy place made with hands. Christ's sacrifice was better than sacrifices made under the Mosaic covenant because Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary, which was a copy; instead, He entered the true sanctuary, which is in heaven—the very presence of God.

9:26 but now once. Christ's sacrifice was better than the sacrifices made under the Mosaic covenant because He did not offer an annual sacrifice of animals but offered Himself once for all time.

10:1–4 not the very image of those things. The sacrifices of the Mosaic covenant prefigured Christ's ultimate sacrifice of Himself. Therefore, these imperfect sacrifices of mere animals could not completely purify the person who offered them. If they had been able to, these sacrifices would have ceased. Instead of thoroughly atoning for the sins of the people, the annual sacrifice on the Day of Atonement was a visible reminder of the people's sins.

10:5–7 TO DO YOUR WILL. The Old Testament prophets had warned the Israelites that sacrifices alone would not please God. He desired obedience as well (Ps 51:16–17 ; Isa 1:13–17 ; Mk 12:33 ). This messianic psalm indicates that Jesus' obedience to God the Father was one of the reasons His sacrifice was better than the Old Testament sacrifices.

10:8–9 He does away with the first . . . so that He may inaugurate and establish the second. The author is explaining Psalm 40 . The verb translated “does away with” means “abolishes.” The imperfect sacrifices were abolished so that the perfect Sacrifice could impart true life.

10:11–12 SAT DOWN. Sitting indicates that His work of atonement is finished. His final words on the cross, “It is finished,” declare this spiritual reality (Jn 19:30 ).

10:16–18 I WILL REMEMBER NO MORE. This phrase does not mean to forget, but not to hold sin against us any longer.

10:19 Therefore. The author has spent five chapters explaining the superiority of Christ’s priesthood to the Levitical priesthood and the superiority of the new covenant to the Mosaic covenant. Unlike the Israelites, who approached God at Mount Sinai with fear and trembling (Ex 20:18–21 ), believers can approach God with boldness (3:6 ; 4:16 ; 10:35 ) because we possess Christ’s righteousness and not our own.

10:20 His flesh. The Old Testament high priest passed through a veil to get to the most holy place. Now, believers enter God’s presence through Christ’s flesh, meaning His sacrificial death.

10:22 our hearts sprinkled . . . our bodies washed. Our consciences can be cleansed through the blood of Christ (9:14 ). Just as the high priest washed before entering the most holy place (Lev 16:3–4 ), so believers are cleansed before they come before the Holy One.

10:24–25 encourage one another to love and to do good deeds. The Greek word translated “encourage” carries the sense of “convulsion.” In this context the word speaks forcefully of the tremendous impact believers can have on each other. That is why the author exhorts the Hebrews to gather together. Evidently, some believers had stopped attending the worship services of the church, perhaps because they feared persecution.

10:26 willfully and deliberately sinning. The reference here is not to an occasional act of sin (which can be confessed and forgiven) but to a conscious rejection of God. The Old Testament speaks in Numbers 15:30–31 of committing willful sin. A person who sinned presumptuously was to be cut off from the people. To sin deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth is apostasy. If a Christian rejects God’s provision for his or her salvation, there is no other remedy for sins, since forgiveness for sins can only be found in Christ’s perfect sacrifice.

10:29 Spirit of grace. This is a reference to the Holy Spirit, the agent of God’s gracious gift of salvation. A believer who commits these offenses will be judged with a punishment worse than physical death.

10:35 Do not, therefore, fling away your [fearless] confidence. For the recipients of Hebrews to return to the safety of Judaism would mean a loss of eternal reward at the judgment seat of Christ.

11:1 Now faith is. This verse is not a definition of faith, but a description of what faith does. assurance. This means “essence” or “reality.” Faith treats things hoped for as reality. evidence. This means “proof.” Faith itself proves that what is unseen is real, such as the believer’s rewards at the return of Christ (2Co 4:18 ).

11:4 a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain. Evidently, Cain offered his sacrifice without faith (Ge 4 ). still speaks. Abel still speaks to us because his righteous deeds have been recorded in Scripture.

11:6 comes. This word is used repeatedly in Hebrews to refer to the privilege of drawing near to God (4:16 ; 7:25 ; 10:1 ,22 ). Here, the author of Hebrews explains that faith is mandatory for those who approach Him. rewards. God rewards not only those who seek Him, but also those who do good works in the Holy Spirit’s power (Rev 22:12 ).

11:8 not knowing where he was going. Abraham placed his trust in God. Faith means obediently stepping into the unknown (v. 1). Abraham did this, and God considered him righteous because of it (Ge 15:6 ; Ro 4:1–12 ).

11:15 opportunity to return. The patriarchs and Sarah did not return to Ur, even though they could have if they had wanted to. The recipients of Hebrews were to follow the patriarchs' example and refuse to return to the religion of their ancestors, a religious system that no longer provided atonement for sin (8:7–13 ).

11:17–19 Abraham . . . tested. Abraham believed that God could raise Isaac from the dead (Ge 22:5 ), if necessary. The incident is figurative of what God has done for us. Isaac was as good as dead, but God provided a ram to sacrifice in his place (Ge 22:9–14 ).

11:26 the reproach of the Christ. This phrase refers to the earthly disgrace Christ received. Like Christ, Moses chose to suffer the indignities associated with God's people, instead of embracing the worldly pleasures of Pharaoh's court.

11:28 sprinkling of the blood. God told Moses to sprinkle blood on the doorposts. Moses believed God's word and heeded His warning, and, as a result, the firstborn of every Israelite family was saved (Ex 12:1–13 ).

11:35 Women received back their dead. This is probably a reference to the raising of the son of the widow of Zarephath (1Ki 17:17–24 ) and of the Shunammite woman (2Ki 4:32–37 ). But the author of Hebrews also points out that not all who had faith won victories, at least not in the same hour. tortured. This is usually understood to be an allusion to the heroic martyrs of Maccabean times, who were well-known.

11:40 made perfect. This phrase means "made complete." This completion, the realization of all of God's promises in Christ's coming kingdom, awaits all believers.

12:1 cloud of witnesses. This refers to the people of faith mentioned in chapter 11 . They are not actually spectators watching us; they are witnesses testifying to the truth of the faith (11:2 ,4–6 ).

12:2 Perfecter. Christ has done everything necessary for us to endure in our faith. He is our example and model. the joy [of accomplishing the goal] set before Him. His attention was not on the agonies of the cross, but on the crown, not on the suffering, but on the reward.

12:3 consider. This thought involves the idea of comparison, as an accountant would compare the various columns of a balance sheet. Believers should compare their sufferings to the torture Christ endured on their behalf (v. 4 ).

12:8 then you are illegitimate children and not sons. In Roman society an illegitimate son was one who had no inheritance rights.

12:11 the peaceful fruit of righteousness. This phrase suggests that the result of God's discipline is peace and righteousness.

12:18–24 For you have not come [as did the Israelites in the wilderness] to a mountain. In these verses, the author of Hebrews contrasts the Mosaic covenant with the new covenant by contrasting two mountains: Mount Sinai and Mount Zion. At Mount Sinai, the Israelites received the law from God with fear and trembling, for God displayed at that time His awesome power (Ex 19:10–20:26 ). In contrast, Christian believers have come to a heavenly Jerusalem on Mount Zion through Jesus' blood. This mountain is a celebration of the Holy One, attended by angels, believers, and righteous people. The author makes the contrast between the two covenants vivid and then once again exhorts his readers not to reject Christ's offer of salvation (vv. 25–29 ).

12:23 righteous (the redeemed in heaven) who have been made perfect. This phrase refers to all believers who have died. They are righteous because they have been justified and perfect because they are now "complete" in heaven.

12:25 Him who warns from heaven. This is a reference to Christ, who spoke on earth and is now in heaven.

12:29 our God is [indeed] a consuming fire. The author concludes his lengthy warning to those who are tempted to abandon the faith (2:1–12:29) with a vivid description of God's judgment (Dt 4:24). The Lord will judge His people (10:27,30).

13:2 entertained angels. This is a reference to men in the Old Testament who encounter heavenly beings. These men included Abraham (Ge 18), Lot (Ge 19), and Gideon (Jdg 6). The idea is that, when you practice hospitality, you may be helping a messenger of God without realizing it.

13:5 I WILL NEVER [under any circumstances] DESERT YOU . . . NOR WILL I FORSAKE . . . YOU
This quotation is one of the emphatic statements in the New Testament. In Greek it contains two double negatives, similar to saying in English, "I will never, ever, ever forsake you." Jesus uses the same technique to express the certainty of eternal life for believers (Jn 10:28).

13:9 strange teachings. This implies ideas foreign to the gospel message. Many of the ideas which the author was confronting were Jewish in origin—pertaining to ritual observances, sacrificial feasts, and various laws identifying what was clean and unclean.

13:11 burned outside the camp. The believer has a sacrifice, Jesus Christ. He atoned for the sins of humanity with His death on the cross. But, unlike the high priests from the Old Testament, believers receive their sustenance from Christ in a symbolic way, by believing in Him (Jn 6:41–58).

13:15–16 sacrifice of praise. Although the Old Testament sacrifices are now obsolete (8:13), believers are to offer spiritual sacrifices which include their praise, their possessions, and even their lives (Ro 12:1–2).

13:15 Worship— Since worship encompasses thought, feeling, and deed, there are many expressions of it. Worship especially includes praise and thanksgiving which may be expressed privately or publicly, whether by grateful declarations (Heb 13:15) or by joyful singing (Ps 100:2; Eph 5:19; Col 3:16). Portions of early Christian hymns of worship have been preserved in the New Testament (Php 2:5–11; 1Ti 3:16; 2Ti 2:11–13). One very important expression of worship for the church is remembering the death of Christ through the Lord's Supper (1Co 11:26). The Lord's Supper was instituted by Christ Himself (Mt 26:26–28) and judged by Paul to be taken very seriously (1Co 11:28–32). Since worship means giving something to God, the cheerful giving of money to God's work is certainly an act of worship (2Co 9:7). The exercise of one of the spiritual gifts in ministry to the body of Christ constitutes worship as service (1Co 12) as does faithfully occupying a church office (Eph 4:11; 1Ti 3:1–13; Titus 1:5–9). In fact, presenting ourselves (mind and body) to God to serve in any context is described as an act of worship in Romans 12:1. In this manner our whole lives become acts of worship.
Go to Theological Notes Index

13:20 great Shepherd of the sheep. Having laid down His life for them (Jn 10:15) and now continuing to make intercession for them (7:25), this is another description of Jesus' ministry.

13:22 message of exhortation. This phrase refers to the whole Epistle to the Hebrews. It is an exhortation not to depart from the living God (3:12), but to go on to maturity (6:1) and endure in the faith to the end (3:6,14).

13:24 Those [Christians] from Italy. This phrase may refer to people living in Italy, or else to people from there who were now living elsewhere. Because of its ambiguity, this phrase does not reveal the location of the author or of the recipients.

The Letter of James

- AUTHOR: Four men are named James in the New Testament, one of which is the Lord's brother (Mt 13:55 ; Mk 6:3 ; Gal 1:19 ). Tradition points to this prominent figure as the author of the epistle, and this best fits the evidence of Scripture. The brevity and limited doctrinal emphasis of James kept it from wide circulation, and by the time it became known in the church as a whole, there was uncertainty about the identity of the James in 1:1 . Growing recognition that it was written by the Lord's brother led to its acceptance as a canonical book.
- TIMES: c. AD 46–49
- KEY VERSES: James 1:19–22
- THEME: James is for the practical person. While most of Paul's Epistles have a theological and practical section, there isn't much theoretical or systematic theology in this book. The subject matters covered in James are the issues we face daily if not hourly. How do we respond to trials and temptation? What are we doing with our money? Do we keep our tongues under control? Are we acting on our faith? What are we doing with our prayer lives? The main point of all these questions James raises is that saving faith needs to result in changed behavior.

James 1

Testing Your Faith

To the twelve [Hebrew] tribes [scattered abroad among the Gentiles] in the dispersion: Greetings (rejoice)!

<sup>4</sup> And let endurance have its perfect result and do a thorough work, so that you may be perfect and completely developed [in your faith], lacking in nothing.

<sup>5</sup>-If any of you lacks wisdom [to guide him through a decision or circumstance], he is to ask of [our benevolent] God, who gives to everyone generously and without rebuke or blame, and it will be given to him. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But he must ask [for wisdom] in faith, without doubting [God's willingness to help], for the one who doubts is like a billowing surge of the sea that is blown about and tossed by the wind. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For such a person ought not to think or expect that he will receive anything [at all] from the Lord,

<sup>8</sup>-being a double-minded man, unstable and restless in all his ways [in everything he thinks, feels, or decides]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position [as a born-again believer, called to the true riches and to be an heir of God];

<sup>10</sup> and the rich man is to glory in being humbled [by trials revealing human frailty, knowing true riches are found in the grace of God], for like the flower of the grass he will pass away. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For the sun rises with a scorching wind and withers the grass; its flower falls off and its beauty fades away; so too will the rich man, in the midst of his pursuits, fade away.  [Is 40:6, 7 ]

<sup>12</sup>-Blessed [happy, spiritually prosperous, favored by God] is the man who is steadfast under trial and perseveres when tempted; for when he has passed the test and been approved, he will receive the [victor's] crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. ‡

13 Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God” [for temptation does not originate from God, but from our own flaws]; for God cannot be tempted by [what is] evil, and He Himself tempts no one.

14 But each one is tempted when he is dragged away, enticed and baited [to commit sin] by his own [worldly] desire (lust, passion).

15 Then when the illicit desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin has run its course, it gives birth to death. ‡

16 Do not be misled, my beloved brothers and sisters.

17 Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above; it comes down from the Father of lights [the Creator and Sustainer of the heavens], in whom there is no variation [no rising or setting] or shadow cast by His turning [for He is perfect and never changes]. ‡

18 It was of His own will that He gave us birth [as His children] by the word of truth, so that we would be a kind of first fruits of His creatures [a prime example of what He created to be set apart to Himself—sanctified, made holy for His divine purposes]. ‡

19 Understand this, my beloved brothers and sisters. Let everyone be quick to hear [be a careful, thoughtful listener], slow to speak [a speaker of carefully chosen words and], slow to anger [patient, reflective, forgiving]; ‡

20 for the [resentful, deep-seated] anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God [that standard of behavior which He requires from us].

21 So get rid of all uncleanness and all that remains of wickedness, and with a humble spirit receive the word [of God] which is implanted [actually rooted in your heart], which is able to save your souls. ‡

22 But prove yourselves doers of the word [actively and continually obeying God’s precepts], and not merely listeners [who hear the word but fail to internalize its meaning], deluding yourselves [by unsound reasoning contrary to the truth]. ‡

23 For if anyone only listens to the word without obeying it, he is like a man who looks very carefully at his natural face in a mirror; ‡

24 for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he immediately forgets what he looked like.

25 But he who looks carefully into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and faithfully abides by it, not having become a [careless] listener who forgets but an active doer [who obeys], he will be blessed and favored by God in what he does [in his life of obedience]. ‡

26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious [scrupulously observant of the rituals of his faith], and does not control his tongue but deludes his own heart, this person's religion is worthless (futile, barren). ‡

27. Pure and unblemished religion [as it is expressed in outward acts] in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit and look after the fatherless and the widows in their distress, and to keep oneself uncontaminated by the [secular] world. ‡

James 2

The Sin of Partiality

<sup>1</sup> MY FELLOW believers, do not practice your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of partiality [toward people—show no favoritism, no prejudice, no snobbery]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For if a man comes into your meeting place wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in dirty clothes also comes in,

<sup>3</sup> and you pay special attention to the one who wears the fine clothes, and say to him, “You sit here in this good seat,” and you tell the poor man, “You stand over there, or sit down [on the floor] by my footstool,”

5. Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters: has not God chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and [as believers to be] heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? ‡

<sup>6</sup> But you [in contrast] have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress and exploit you, and personally drag you into the courts of law? ‡

<sup>8</sup> If, however, you are [really] fulfilling the royal law according to the Scripture, “Y OU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF [that is, if you have an unselfish concern for others and do things for their benefit]” you are doing well.  [Lev 19:18 ] ‡

9. But if you show partiality [prejudice, favoritism], you are committing sin and are convicted by the Law as offenders. ‡

10. For whoever keeps the whole Law but stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of [breaking] all of it. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For He who said, “D O NOT COMMIT ADULTERY ,” also said, “D O NOT MURDER .” Now if you do not commit adultery, but you murder, you have become guilty of transgressing the [entire] Law.  [Ex 20:13 , 14 ; Deut 5:17 , 18 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> Speak and act [consistently] as people who are going to be judged by the law of liberty [that moral law that frees obedient Christians from the bondage of sin]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; but [to the one who has shown mercy] mercy triumphs [victoriously] over judgment. ‡

Faith and Works

<sup>14</sup> What is the benefit, my fellow believers, if someone claims to have faith but has no [good] works [as evidence]? Can that [kind of] faith save him? [No, a mere claim of faith is not sufficient—genuine faith produces good works.] ‡

<sup>15</sup> If a brother or sister is without [adequate] clothing and lacks [enough] food for each day, ‡

<sup>17</sup> So too, faith, if it does not have works [to back it up], is by itself dead [inoperative and ineffective].

<sup>18</sup> But someone may say, “You [claim to] have faith and I have [good] works; show me your [alleged] faith without the works [if you can], and I will show you my faith by my works [that is, by what I do].” ‡

<sup>19</sup> You believe that God is one; you do well [to believe that]. The demons also believe [that], and shudder and bristle [in awe-filled terror—they have seen His wrath]!  [Deut 6:4 ; 11:13–21 ; Mark 12:29 ]

<sup>20</sup> But are you willing to recognize, you foolish [spiritually shallow] person, that faith without [good] works is useless?

<sup>23</sup> And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “A BRAHAM BELIEVED G OD ,

AND THIS [faith] WAS CREDITED TO HIM [by God] AS RIGHTEOUSNESS and AS CONFORMITY TO H IS WILL ,” and he was called the friend of God.  [Gen 15:6 ; 2 Chr 20:7 ; Is 41:8 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> You see that a man (believer) is justified by works and not by faith alone [that is, by acts of obedience a born-again believer reveals his faith].

<sup>26</sup> For just as the [human] body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works [of obedience] is also dead.

The Tongue Is a Fire

<sup>1</sup> NOT MANY [of you] should become teachers [serving in an official teaching capacity], my brothers and sisters, for you know that we [who are teachers] will be judged by a higher standard [because we have assumed greater accountability and more condemnation if we teach incorrectly]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For we all stumble and sin in many ways . If anyone does not stumble in what he says [never saying the wrong thing], he is a perfect man [fully developed in character, without serious flaws], able to bridle his whole body and rein in his entire nature [taming his human faults and weaknesses]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Now if we put bits into the horses’ mouths to make them obey us, we guide their whole body as well. ‡

<sup>5</sup> In the same sense, the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things. ‡

See [by comparison] how great a forest is set on fire by a small spark!

<sup>6</sup> And the tongue is [in a sense] a fire, the very world of injustice and unrighteousness; the tongue is set among our members as that which contaminates the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our life [the cycle of man’s existence], and is itself set on fire by hell (Gehenna). ‡

Z-For every species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by the human race.

<sup>9</sup> With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of God. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Out of the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. These things, my brothers, should not be this way [for we have a moral obligation to speak in a manner that reflects our fear of God and profound respect for His precepts].

Wisdom from Above

<sup>13</sup> Who among you is wise and intelligent? Let him by his good conduct show his [good] deeds with the gentleness and humility of true wisdom. ‡

<sup>14</sup> But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be arrogant, and [as a result] be in defiance of the truth. ‡

Things to Avoid

<sup>2</sup> You are jealous and covet [what others have] and your lust goes

unfulfilled; so you murder. You are envious and cannot obtain [the object of your envy]; so you fight and battle. You do not have because you do not ask [it of God].  [1 John 3:15. ]

<sup>3</sup> You ask [God for something] and do not receive it, because you ask with wrong motives [out of selfishness or with an unrighteous agenda], so that [when you get what you want] you may spend it on your [hedonistic] desires. ‡

<sup>4</sup> You adulteresses [disloyal sinners—flirting with the world and breaking your vow to God]! Do you not know that being the world's friend [that is, loving the things of the world] is being God's enemy? So whoever chooses to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Or do you think that the Scripture says to no purpose that the [human] spirit which He has made to dwell in us lusts with envy?  [Gen 6:5. ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> But He gives us more and more grace [through the power of the Holy Spirit to defy sin and live an obedient life that reflects both our faith and our gratitude for our salvation]. Therefore, it says, “GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD and HAUGHTY , BUT [continually] GIVES [the gift of] GRACE TO THE HUMBLE [who turn away from self-righteousness].”  [Prov 3:34. ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> So submit to [the authority of] God. Resist the devil [stand firm against him] and he will flee from you. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Come close to God [with a contrite heart] and He will come close to you. Wash your hands, you sinners; and purify your [unfaithful] hearts, you double-minded [people]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Be miserable and grieve and weep [over your sin]. Let your [foolish] laughter be turned to mourning and your [reckless] joy to gloom. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Humble yourselves [with an attitude of repentance and insignificance] in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you [He will lift you up, He will give you purpose]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Believers, do not speak against or slander one another. He who speaks [self-righteously] against a brother or judges his brother [hypocritically], speaks against the Law and judges the Law. If you judge the Law, you are not a doer of the Law but a judge of it. ‡

<sup>12</sup> There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and to destroy [the one God who has the absolute power of life and death]; but who are you to [hypocritically or self-righteously] pass judgment on your neighbor? ‡

<sup>13</sup> Come now [and pay attention to this], you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and carry on our business and make a profit.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Yet you do not know [the least thing] about what may happen in your life tomorrow. [What is secure in your life?] You are merely a vapor [like a puff of smoke or a wisp of steam from a cooking pot] that is visible for a little while and then vanishes [into thin air]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and we will do this or that.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> But as it is, you boast [vainly] in your pretension and arrogance. All such boasting is evil. ‡

James 5

Misuse of Riches

<sup>2</sup> Your wealth has rotted and is ruined and your [fine] clothes have become moth-eaten. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. You have stored up your treasure in the last days [when it will do you no good]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Look! The wages that you have [fraudulently] withheld from the laborers who have mowed your fields are crying out [against you for vengeance]; and the cries of the harvesters have come to the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. [1 Sam 1:3] ‡

<sup>5</sup> On the earth you have lived luxuriously and abandoned yourselves to soft living and led a life of wanton pleasure [self-indulgence, self-gratification]; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. ‡

<sup>6</sup> You have condemned and have put to death the righteous man; he offers you no resistance. ‡

Exhortation

<sup>7</sup> So wait patiently, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits [expectantly] for the precious harvest from the land, being patient about it, until it receives the early and late rains. ‡

<sup>8</sup> You too, be patient; strengthen your hearts [keep them energized and firmly committed to God], because the coming of the Lord is near. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Do not complain against one another, believers, so that you will not be judged [for it]. Look! The Judge is standing right at the door. ‡

<sup>10</sup> As an example, brothers and sisters, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord [as His messengers and representatives]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> You know we call those blessed [happy, spiritually prosperous, favored by God] who were steadfast and endured [difficult circumstances]. You have heard of the patient endurance of Job and you have seen the Lord's outcome [how He richly blessed Job]. The Lord is full of compassion and is merciful. [Job 1:21, 22; 42:10; Ps 111:4] ‡

<sup>12</sup> But above all, my fellow believers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath; but let your yes be [a truthful] yes, and your no be [a truthful] no, so that you may not fall under judgment. [Matt 5:34–37] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Is anyone among you suffering? He must pray. Is anyone joyful? He is to sing praises [to God]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Is anyone among you sick? He must call for the elders (spiritual leaders) of the church and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; ‡

<sup>15</sup> and the prayer of faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, confess your sins to one another [your false steps, your offenses], and pray for one another, that you may be healed and restored. The heartfelt and persistent prayer of a righteous man (believer) can accomplish much [when put into action and made effective by God—it is dynamic and can have tremendous power]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Elijah was a man with a nature like ours [with the same physical, mental, and spiritual limitations and shortcomings], and he prayed intensely for it not to rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. [1 Kin 17:1] ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then he prayed again, and the sky gave rain and the land produced its crops [as usual]. [1 Kin 18:42–45] ‡

<sup>19</sup> My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you strays from the truth and falls into error and [another] one turns him back [to God], ‡

<sup>20</sup> let the [latter] one know that the one who has turned a sinner from the error of his way will save that one's soul from death and cover a multitude of sins [that is, obtain the pardon of the many sins committed by the one who has been restored].‡

Annotations for James

[1:1 To the twelve \[Hebrew\] tribes.](#) This salutation probably means the letter is for Jewish Christians living outside of Palestine. The letter was not intended for one specific church but was to be passed around among various local assemblies.

1:2 trials. These are outward circumstances—conflicts, sufferings, and troubles—encountered by all believers. Trials are not pleasant and may be extremely grievous, but believers are to consider them as opportunities for rejoicing. Troubles and difficulties are a tool which refines and purifies our faith, producing patience and endurance.

1:3 testing of your faith. The word that is translated into this phrase occurs only here and in 1 Peter 1:7. The term was used for coins that were genuine and not debased. The aim of trying is not to destroy or afflict, but to purge and refine. “Patience” here transcends the idea of bearing affliction; it includes the idea of standing fast under pressure, with a staying power that turns adversities into opportunities.

1:5 wisdom. The starting point for wisdom is a genuine reverence for the Almighty (Ps 111:10 ; Pr 9:10) and a steadfast confidence that God controls all circumstances, guiding them to His good purposes (Ro 8:28 ).

1:8 double-minded. This person is literally one with “two souls.” If one part of a person is set on God and the other is set on this world (Mt 6:24 ), there will be constant conflict within.

[1:12 will receive the \[victor's\] crown of life.](#) The Bible describes the believer’s reward (2Co 5:10 ; Rev 22:12 ) under various vivid images, such as precious metals (1Co 3:8–14 ), garments (Rev 3:5 , 18 ; 19:7–8 ), and crowns (1Co 9:25 ; Rev 2:10 ; 3:11 ).

1:13 He Himself tempts no one. Enticement to sin does not come from God. God will never deliberately lead a person to commit sin because that would not only go against His nature, but it would also be opposed to His purpose of molding His creation into His holy image. Yet, God does sometimes place His people in adverse circumstances for the purpose of building godly character (Ge 22:1 , 12 ).

1:19 quick to hear . . . slow to speak . . . slow to anger. These three exhortations reveal the outline of this letter (1:21–2:26 for “swift to hear”; 3:1–18 for “slow to speak”; 4:1–5:18 for “slow to wrath”).

[1:21 with a humble spirit receive the word \[of God\] which is implanted.](#) The believer should have a teachable spirit—without resisting, disputing, or questioning. Receiving God’s Word this way will save the believer’s soul.

1:22 prove yourselves doers of the word . . . and not merely listeners. Believers who hear the Word of God (v. 19 ) must receive it with a teachable spirit (v. 21 ), applying it to their daily lives. To hear and not obey is to be deceived.

1:25 the perfect law, the law of liberty. Loving God and loving one’s neighbor sum up the law (Ro 13:8–10 ). But it is Christ’s love (Eph 3:17–19 ) which frees us from our sins to truly love others (Jn 8:36–38 ; Gal 5:13 ).

1:27 fatherless and the widows. These people were among the most unprotected and needy classes in ancient societies (Eze 22:7 ). Pure religion does not merely give material goods for the relief of the distressed; it also oversees their care (Ac 6:1–7 ).

2:5 heirs of the kingdom. This inheritance means more than entering the kingdom; it also involves ruling with Christ (1Co 6:9 ; Gal 5:21 ; 2Ti 2:12 ).

[2:9 if you show partiality \[prejudice, favoritism\], you are committing sin.](#) James alludes to Leviticus

2:10 he has become guilty of [breaking] all. God does not allow selective obedience. We cannot choose to obey the parts of the law that are to our own liking and disregard the rest. Some of the Pharisees were guilty of this. They carefully observed some of the requirements of the law, such as keeping the Sabbath, and ignored others, such as honoring their parents (Mt 15:1–7 ). Sin is a violation of the perfect righteousness of God, who is the Lawgiver. James is saying that the whole divine law has to be accepted as an expression of God’s will for His people. The violation of even one Commandment separates an individual from God and His purposes.

2:14 What is the benefit. James is implying in this verse that faith in Christ will demonstrate itself in love for others (Jn 13:34–35 ).

2:19 The demons also believe [that], and shudder. While they believe, the demons do not love Him (Mt 8:29 ). Their kind of belief does not lead to love, submission, and obedience; instead, it leads to hatred, rebellion, and disobedience.

2:21 justified. James is using the word justified to mean “proved.” We prove to others our genuine faith in Christ through our works. But the justification that comes through faith is before God, and we do not “prove” ourselves to Him; instead, God declares us righteous through our association with Christ, the One who died for our sins (Ro 3:28 ).

2:22 faith . . . works. These two should be together; there is a close relationship between the two. Faith produces works; and works make faith perfect, meaning “mature” or “complete.”

3:1 we [who are teachers] will be judged by a higher standard. James does not give the warning of condemnation to others without applying it to himself.

3:7–8 no one can tame the human tongue. The instincts of animals can be subdued through conditioning and punishment, but the sinful nature that inspires evil words is beyond our control. Only the work of the Holy Spirit within us can bring this destructive force under control.

3:9 we bless our Lord and Father. James is pointing out the inconsistency of blessing God while cursing people who are created in His image.

3:16 there is disorder. On the other hand, God brings harmony and wisdom (1Co 14:33 ). Anyone who is involved in envy and strife is confused. This confusion corrupts human relationships. It is likely that the Jewish Christians to whom James was writing were going through turmoil because of sinful acts like the ones mentioned here. James wanted his readers to set aside their petty attitudes and seek reconciliation.

4:1 conflicts among you. The source of problems is the conflict between desires for pleasure and the desire for God’s will, an attitude that the Holy Spirit has placed within us.

4:3 you ask with wrong motives. Some might have protested James’s admonition (vv. 1–2 ) by claiming that they had not received an answer to their prayers (Mt 7:7 ). James responds by suggesting that they were praying for the wrong things. Instead of praying for their sinful desires, they should have been praying for God’s good will for them.

4:4 whoever chooses. This verse does not speak of God’s attitude toward the believer, but of the believer’s attitude toward God. The difference between the world and God is so vast that, as we move toward the world, we alienate ourselves from God. In the world, sin is considered acceptable and pleasurable. Ultimately the world has lost its awareness of sin, and thus sin has become habitual.

4:6 GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD. James quotes from Proverbs 3:34 to prove his point. Those who submit to divine wisdom will receive the necessary grace from God to put into practice the kind of life James describes (3:13–18 ). On the other hand, those who elevate themselves will face a formidable foe (v. 4 ). God Himself will fight against their plans, because they are not on His side.

4:9 Be miserable and grieve and weep. When a believer who has fallen into sin responds to God’s call for repentance, he or she should place laughter and joy aside to reflect on the sin with genuine sorrow (2Co 7:9–10 ). In this verse, laughter seems to refer to the loud revelry of pleasure-loving people. They immerse themselves in a celebration of their sins in an effort to forget God's judgment. A Christian should never laugh at sin. However, Christian sorrow leads to repentance; repentance leads to forgiveness; and forgiveness leads to true joy over one's reconciliation with God (Ps 32:1 ; 126:2 ; Pr 15:13 ).

4:13 we will go . . . and make a profit. The problem here is not the plan or the concept of planning; it is leaving God out of the plan (v. 15 ).

5:2–3 your [fine] clothes. In the ancient world, food, costly clothing, and precious metals were conspicuous signs of wealth. James pronounces judgment and destruction on all three.

5:12–13 do not swear. James is not forbidding a believer from taking an oath in court or invoking God as witness to some significant statement (1Th 2:5 ). Instead, he is prohibiting the ancient practice of appealing to a variety of different objects to confirm the veracity of one's statement. This practice was extremely close to idolatry, for it implied that such objects contained spirits. The warning in these verses can serve as a reminder to us to watch what we say. We should not use God's name in a reckless manner, and we should be careful to speak the truth.

5:14 anointing him with oil. This may refer to medicinal treatment (Lk 10:34 ). Yet, in this passage, it most likely refers to the healing power of the Holy Spirit, for verse 15 speaks of prayer saving the person. In either case, there is no indication that calling the elders excludes the use of a physician or medicine.

5:15 the prayer of faith. Whether a believer is healed through medicine or through miraculous means, all healing is ultimately from the Lord. That is why prayers should be consistently offered for the sick.

5:16 The heartfelt and persistent prayer. This can mean that (1) prayer is effective when it is used, or (2) heartfelt prayer accomplishes great results.

The First Letter of Peter

- AUTHOR: The early church universally acknowledged the authenticity and authority of 1 Peter. It is likely that Peter used Silvanus as his scribe (5:12 ). This epistle was addressed to Christians throughout Asia Minor, indicating the spread of the gospel in regions not evangelized when Acts was written. It was written from Babylon (5:13 ), but scholars are divided as to whether this refers literally to Babylon in Mesopotamia or symbolically to Rome. It is probably the latter as tradition consistently indicates that Peter spent the last few years of his life in Rome.
- TIMES: c. AD 63–34
- KEY VERSES: 1Pe 4:12–13
- THEME: First Peter was probably written to the Roman provinces of Turkey at the beginning of Nero's persecutions of Christians. Its primary message is one of comfort, hope, and encouragement. He asks the readers to hold fast to the faith in the midst of the coming persecution. In these letters we get a picture of a mature Peter who has incorporated Christ's crucifixion and death and resurrection into his thinking about suffering. He fully understands, and even looks forward to, the glory that is to come after the sufferings of this life.

1 Peter 1

A Living Hope, and a Sure Salvation

1 PETER, AN apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Jesus Christ, ‡

To those [elect—both Jewish and Gentile believers] who live as exiles, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia [Minor], and Bithynia, who are chosen [Heb 13:14.]

2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father by the sanctifying work of the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ and to be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace [that special sense of spiritual well-being] be yours in increasing abundance [as you walk closely with God]. [John 14:27.] ‡

3 Blessed [gratefully praised and adored] be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant and boundless mercy has caused us to be born again [that is, to be reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose] to an ever-living hope and confident assurance through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, [Matt 28:1–9; Mark 16:6; Luke 24:6; John 20:1–18.] ‡

4 [born anew] into an inheritance which is imperishable [beyond the reach of change] and undefiled and unfading, reserved in heaven for you, ‡

5 who are being protected and shielded by the power of God through your faith for salvation that is ready to be revealed [for you] in the last time. ‡

6 In this you rejoice greatly, even though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been distressed by various trials, ‡

7 so that the genuineness of your faith, which is much more precious than gold which is perishable, even though tested and purified by fire, may be found to result in [your] praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ‡

8 Though you have not seen Him, you love Him; and though you do not even see Him now, you believe and trust in Him and you greatly rejoice and delight with inexpressible and glorious joy, ‡

9 receiving as the result [the outcome, the consummation] of your faith, the salvation of your souls. ‡

10 Regarding this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace [of God] that was intended for you, searched carefully and inquired [about this future way of salvation], ‡

<sup>11</sup> seeking to find out what person or what time the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating as He foretold the sufferings of Christ and the glories [destined] to follow. ‡

<sup>12</sup> It was revealed to them that their services [their prophecies regarding grace] were not [meant] for themselves and their time, but for you, in these things [the death, resurrection, and glorification of Jesus Christ] which have now been told to you by those who preached the gospel to you by the [power of the] Holy Spirit [who was] sent from heaven. Into these things even the angels long to look. ‡

<sup>13</sup> So prepare your minds for action, be completely sober [in spirit—steadfast, self-disciplined, spiritually and morally alert], fix your hope completely on the grace [of God] that is coming to you when Jesus Christ is revealed. ‡

<sup>16</sup> because it is written, “Y OU SHALL BE HOLY (set apart), FOR I AM HOLY .”  [Lev 11:44, 45; 19:2] ‡

<sup>17</sup> If you address as Father, the One who impartially judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves in [reverent] fear [of Him] and with profound respect for Him throughout the time of your stay on earth . ‡

<sup>18</sup> For you know that you were not redeemed from your useless [spiritually unproductive] way of life inherited [by tradition] from your forefathers with perishable things like silver and gold, ‡

<sup>20</sup> For He was foreordained (foreknown) before the foundation of the world, but has appeared [publicly] in these last times for your sake ‡

<sup>21</sup> and through Him you believe [confidently] in God [the heavenly Father], who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are [centered and rest] in God. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Since by your obedience to the truth you have purified yourselves for a sincere love of the believers, [see that you] love one another from the heart

[always unselfishly seeking the best for one another], ‡

<sup>23</sup> for you have been born again [that is, reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose] not of seed which is perishable but [from that which is] imperishable and immortal, that is, through the living and everlasting word of God. ‡

A ND ALL ITS GLORY LIKE THE FLOWER OF GRASS .
T HE GRASS WITHERS
A ND THE FLOWER FALLS OFF ,
<sup>25</sup> B UT THE WORD OF THE L ORD ENDURES FOREVER .” ‡

And this is the word [the good news of salvation] which was preached to you.
[Is 40:6–8 ]

1 Peter 2

As Newborn Babes

<sup>1</sup> SO PUT aside every trace of malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander and hateful speech; ‡

<sup>2</sup> like newborn babies [you should] long for the pure milk of the word, so that by it you may be nurtured and grow in respect to salvation [its ultimate fulfillment], ‡

<sup>3</sup> if in fact you have [already] tasted the goodness and gracious kindness of the Lord. [Ps 34:8] ‡

As Living Stones

<sup>4</sup> Come to Him [the risen Lord] as to a living Stone which men rejected and threw away, but which is choice and precious in the sight of God. [Ps 118:22; Is 28:16] ‡

<sup>5</sup> You [believers], like living stones, are being built up into a spiritual house for a holy and dedicated priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices [that are] acceptable and pleasing to God through Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>6</sup> For this is contained in Scripture: ‡

“B EHOLD , I AM LAYING IN Z ION A CHOSEN STONE , A PRECIOUS (honored) C ORNERSTONE ,

A ND HE WHO BELIEVES IN H IM [whoever adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] WILL NEVER BE DISAPPOINTED [in his expectations].”  [Is 28:16 ]

<sup>7</sup> This precious value, then, is for you who believe [in Him as God’s only Son
—the Source of salvation]; but for those who disbelieve, ‡

“T HE [very] STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED
H AS BECOME THE CHIEF C ORNERSTONE ,”  [Ps 118:22 ]

“A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE ”;

for they stumble because they disobey the word [of God], and to this they [who reject Him as Savior] were also appointed.  [Is 8:14 ]

[special] PEOPLE FOR God’s OWN POSSESSION , so that you may proclaim the excellencies [the wonderful deeds and virtues and perfections] of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.  [Ex 19:5, 6 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> Once you were NOT A PEOPLE [at all], but now you are G OD ’ S PEOPLE ; onc
you had NOT RECEIVED MERCY , but now you have RECEIVED MERCY .  [Hos 2:23 ]

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, I urge you as aliens and strangers [in this world] to abstain from the sensual urges [those dishonorable desires] that wage war against the soul. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Keep your behavior excellent among the [unsaved] Gentiles [conduct yourself honorably, with graciousness and integrity], so that for whatever reason they may slander you as evildoers, yet by observing your good deeds they may [instead come to] glorify God in the day of visitation [when He looks upon them with mercy]. ‡

Honor Authority

<sup>13</sup> Submit yourselves to [the authority of] every human institution for the sake of the Lord [to honor His name], whether it is to a king as one in a position of power, ‡

<sup>14</sup> or to governors as sent by him to bring punishment to those who do wrong, and to praise and encourage those who do right. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For it is the will of God that by doing right you may silence (muzzle, gag) the [culpable] ignorance and irresponsible criticisms of foolish people. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Live as free people, but do not use your freedom as a cover or pretext for evil, but [use it and live] as bond-servants of God. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Show respect for all people [treat them honorably], love the brotherhood [of believers], fear God, honor the king. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Servants, be submissive to your masters with all [proper] respect, not only to those who are good and kind, but also to those who are unreasonable. ‡

<sup>19</sup> For this finds favor, if a person endures the sorrow of suffering unjustly because of an awareness of [the will of] God. ‡

<sup>20</sup> After all, what kind of credit is there if, when you do wrong and are punished for it, you endure it patiently? But if when you do what is right and patiently bear [undeserved] suffering, this finds favor with God.

Christ Is Our Example

<sup>21</sup> For [as a believer] you have been called for this purpose, since Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you may follow in His footsteps. ‡

<sup>23</sup> While being reviled and insulted, He did not revile or insult in return; while suffering, He made no threats [of vengeance], but kept entrusting Himself to Him who judges fairly. ‡

<sup>24</sup> He personally carried our sins in His body on the cross [willingly offering Himself on it, as on an altar of sacrifice], so that we might die to sin [becoming immune from the penalty and power of sin] and live for righteousness; for by His wounds you [who believe] have been healed. ‡

<sup>25</sup> For you were continually wandering like [so many] sheep, but now you have come back to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.  [Is 53:5 , 6 ] ‡

Godly Living

<sup>1</sup> IN THE same way, you wives, be submissive to your own husbands [subordinate, not as inferior, but out of respect for the responsibilities entrusted to husbands and their accountability to God, and so partnering with them] so that even if some do not obey the word [of God], they may be won over [to Christ] without discussion by the godly lives of their wives, [Eph 5:22] ‡

<sup>4</sup> but let it be [the inner beauty of] the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality and unfading charm of a gentle and peaceful spirit, [one that is calm and self-controlled, not overanxious, but serene and spiritually mature] which is very precious in the sight of God. ‡

<sup>5</sup> For in this way in former times the holy women, who hoped in God, used to adorn themselves, being submissive to their own husbands and adapting themselves to them;

<sup>6</sup> just as Sarah obeyed Abraham [following him and having regard for him as head of their house], calling him lord. And you have become her daughters if you do what is right without being frightened by any fear [that is, being respectful toward your husband but not giving in to intimidation, nor allowing yourself to be led into sin, nor to be harmed]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> In the same way, you husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way [with great gentleness and tact, and with an intelligent regard for the marriage relationship], as with someone physically weaker, since she is a woman. Show her honor and respect as a fellow heir of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered or ineffective. ‡

<sup>9</sup> and never return evil for evil or insult for insult [avoid scolding, berating, and any kind of abuse], but on the contrary, give a blessing [pray for one another's well-being, contentment, and protection]; for you have been called for this very purpose, that you might inherit a blessing [from God that brings well-being, happiness, and protection]. ‡

“T HE ONE WHO WANTS TO ENJOY LIFE AND SEE GOOD DAYS [good
—whether apparent or not],

M UST KEEP HIS TONGUE FREE FROM EVIL AND HIS LIPS FROM SPEAKING GUILE (treachery, deceit).

11 “H E MUST TURN AWAY FROM WICKEDNESS AND DO WHAT IS RIGHT . ‡

H E MUST SEARCH FOR PEACE [with God, with self, with others]
AND PURSUE IT EAGERLY [actively—not merely desiring it].

12.“F OR THE EYES OF THE L ORD ARE [looking favorably] UPON THE RIGHTEOUS (the upright), ‡

A ND H IS EARS ARE ATTENTIVE TO THEIR PRAYER (eager to answer),

B UT THE FACE OF THE L ORD IS AGAINST THOSE WHO PRACTICE
EVIL .”  [Ps 34:12–16 ]

13 Now who is there to hurt you if you become enthusiastic for what is good? ‡

14 But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness [though it is not certain that you will], you are still blessed [happy, to be admired and favored by God]. D O NOT BE AFRAID OF THEIR INTIMIDATING THREATS , NOR BE TROUBLED or DISTURBED [by their opposition]. ‡

15.But in your hearts set Christ apart [as holy—acknowledging Him, giving Him first place in your lives] as Lord. Always be ready to give a [logical] defense to anyone who asks you to account for the hope and confident assurance [elicited by faith] that is within you, yet [do it] with gentleness and respect.  [Is 8:12, 13 ] ‡

16 And see to it that your conscience is entirely clear, so that every time you are slandered or falsely accused, those who attack or disparage your good behavior in Christ will be shamed [by their own words]. ‡

17 For it is better that you suffer [unjustly] for doing what is right, if that should be God’s will, than [to suffer justly] for doing wrong.

18 For indeed Christ died for sins once for all, the Just and Righteous for the unjust and unrighteous [the Innocent for the guilty] so that He might bring us to God, having been put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the Spirit; ‡

19.in which He also went and preached to the spirits now in prison, ‡

20 who once were disobedient, when the great patience of God was waiting in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons [Noah's family], were brought safely through the water.  [Gen 6–8.] ‡

<sup>21</sup> Corresponding to that [rescue through the flood], baptism [which is an expression of a believer's new life in Christ] now saves you, not by removing dirt from the body, but by an appeal to God for a good (clear) conscience, [demonstrating what you believe to be yours] through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ‡

<sup>22</sup> who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God [that is, the place of honor and authority], with [all] angels and authorities and powers made subservient to Him. ‡

Keep Fervent in Your Love

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, SINCE Christ suffered in the flesh [and died for us], arm yourselves [like warriors] with the same purpose [being willing to suffer for doing what is right and pleasing God], because whoever has suffered in the flesh [being like-minded with Christ] is done with [intentional] sin [having stopped pleasing the world], ‡

<sup>2</sup> so that he can no longer spend the rest of his natural life living for human appetites and desires, but [lives] for the will and purpose of God. ‡

<sup>4</sup> In [connection with] all this, they [the unbelievers] are resentful and surprised that you do not [think like them, value their values and] run [hand in hand] with them into the same excesses of dissipation and immoral freedom, and they criticize and abuse and ridicule you and make fun of your values. ‡

<sup>5</sup> But they will [have to] give an account to Him who is ready to judge and pass sentence on the living and the dead. ‡

<sup>6</sup>—For this is why the good news [of salvation] was preached [in their lifetimes] even to those who are dead, that though they were judged in the flesh as men are, they may live in the spirit according to [the will and purpose of] God. ‡

<sup>7</sup> The end and culmination of all things is near. Therefore, be sound-minded and self-controlled for the purpose of prayer [staying balanced and focused on the things of God so that your communication will be clear, reasonable, specific and pleasing to Him.] ‡

8. Above all, have fervent and unfailing love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins [it overlooks unkindness and unselfishly seeks the best for others].  [Prov 10:12 ] ‡

9. Be hospitable to one another without complaint. ‡

10. Just as each one of you has received a special gift [a spiritual talent, an ability graciously given by God], employ it in serving one another as [is appropriate for] good stewards of God's multi-faceted grace [faithfully using the diverse, varied gifts and abilities granted to Christians by God's unmerited favor]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Whoever speaks [to the congregation], is to do so as one who speaks the oracles (utterances, the very words) of God. Whoever serves [the congregation] is to do so as one who serves by the strength which God [abundantly] supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified [honored and magnified] through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. ‡

Share the Sufferings of Christ

12. Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal which is taking place to test you [that is, to test the quality of your faith], as though something strange or unusual were happening to you. ‡

<sup>13</sup> But insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, keep on rejoicing, so that when His glory [filled with His radiance and splendor] is revealed, you may rejoice with great joy. ‡

<sup>14</sup> If you are insulted and reviled for [bearing] the name of Christ, you are blessed [happy, with life-joy and comfort in God's salvation regardless of your circumstances], because the Spirit of glory and of God is resting on you [and indwelling you—He whom they curse, you glorify].  [Is 11:2 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> Make sure that none of you suffers as a murderer, or a thief, or any sort of criminal [in response to persecution], or as a troublesome meddler interfering in the affairs of others; ‡

<sup>16</sup> but if anyone suffers [ill-treatment] as a Christian [because of his belief], he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God [because he is considered worthy to suffer] in this name. ‡

17. For it is the time [destined] for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not respect or believe or obey the gospel of God? ‡

<sup>18</sup> AND IF IT IS DIFFICULT FOR THE RIGHTEOUS TO BE SAVED , WHAT WILL BECOME OF THE GODLESS AND THE SINNER ?  [Prov 11:31 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, those who are ill-treated and suffer in accordance with the will of God must [continue to] do right and commit their souls [for safe-keeping] to the faithful Creator. ‡

Serve God Willingly

<sup>1</sup> THEREFORE, I strongly urge the elders among you [pastors, spiritual leaders of the church], as a fellow elder and as an eyewitness [called to testify] of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory that is to be revealed: ‡

<sup>2</sup>-shepherd and guide and protect the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not [motivated] for shameful gain, but with wholehearted enthusiasm; ‡

<sup>3</sup>-not lording it over those assigned to your care [do not be arrogant or overbearing], but be examples [of Christian living] to the flock [set a pattern of integrity for your congregation]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And when the Chief Shepherd (Christ) appears, you will receive the [conqueror's] unfading crown of glory. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Likewise, you younger men [of lesser rank and experience], be subject to your elders [seek their counsel]; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another [tie on the servant's apron], for G OD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD [the disdainful, the presumptuous, and He defeats them], BUT H E GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE .  [Prov 3:34 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God [set aside self-righteous pride], so that He may exalt you [to a place of honor in His service] at the appropriate time,  [John 3:30 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> casting all your cares [all your anxieties, all your worries, and all your concerns, once and for all] on Him, for He cares about you [with deepest affection, and watches over you very carefully].  [Ps 55:22 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup>.Be sober [well balanced and self-disciplined], be alert and cautious at all times. That enemy of yours, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion

[fiercely hungry], seeking someone to devour. ‡

<sup>9</sup> But resist him, be firm in your faith [against his attack—rooted, established, immovable], knowing that the same experiences of suffering are being experienced by your brothers and sisters throughout the world. [You do not suffer alone.] ‡

<sup>10</sup> After you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace [who imparts His blessing and favor], who called you to His own eternal glory in Christ, will Himself complete, confirm, strengthen, and establish you [making you what you ought to be]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> By Silvanus, our faithful brother (as I consider him), I have written to you briefly, to counsel and testify that this is the true grace [the undeserved favor] of God. Stand firm in it! ‡

<sup>13</sup> She [the church] who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings, and so does my son [in the faith], Mark. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Greet one another with a kiss of love. ‡

To all of you who are in Christ, may there be peace.

Annotations for 1 Peter

1:1 exiles. This term conveys the idea of being dispersed, much like the Jewish exiles of the Old Testament who were not living in their homeland but in Babylon.

1:2 sanctifying work of the Spirit. Sanctification is the ongoing process whereby the Holy Spirit works in believers, making their lives holy, separated from their old ways and to God in order to be more like him. sprinkled with His blood. This concept, the second reason why God chooses us, draws our attention to three situations in the Old Testament when the Israelites were sprinkled with the blood of animals: (1) Moses' sprinkling of blood on the Israelites at Mount Sinai to symbolize their initiation into the covenant (Ex 24:5–8); (2) the sprinkling of Aaron and his sons to be the priests of Israel (Ex 29:19–21); and (3) the sprinkling of the blood performed by the priest over healed lepers to symbolize their cleansing (Lev 14:1–9). Any of these three cases could be the one that Peter has in mind here.

1:3 according to His abundant and boundless mercy. Our salvation is grounded in God's mercy, His act of compassion toward us despite our condition of sinfulness. has caused us to be born again. God has given believers a new, spiritual life that enables us to live in an entirely different dimension than the one our physical birth allowed.

1:4 inheritance. The Greek word here suggests both a present and a future reality. God has already determined what we will one day experience in its totality. reserved. God has set aside in heaven a wonderful inheritance that is waiting for us even now.

1:7 that the genuineness of your faith. As the purity of gold is brought forth by intense heat, so the reality and purity of our faith are revealed as a result of the fiery trials we face. Ultimately the testing of our faith not only demonstrates our final salvation but also develops our capacity to bring glory to the Lord Jesus Christ when He comes into His kingdom and we reign with Him (Ro 8:17 ; 2Ti 2:12 ; Rev 5:9–12 ).

1:10 the prophets. Peter indicates that the Old Testament prophets knew of the gracious salvation we would one day receive and, as a result, studied it carefully and intensively.

[1:12 by the \[power of the\] Holy Spirit.](#) Although humans may preach God's message of salvation, ultimately the Holy Spirit is the One who proclaims these great truths. Even the angels are amazed at what a wonderful salvation God has enacted on our behalf (Eph 3:10 ).

1:13 prepare your minds for action. Just as people in biblical times would gather up their long robes and tie them around their waists so that they could move quickly and freely, we need to do whatever it takes to focus our thoughts on those things that allow us to serve God successfully, all the while eliminating any thoughts that would trip us up (Heb 12:1 ). be completely sober. Peter's concern here is primarily using mentally or spiritually sound judgment. fix your hope completely. We need to exhibit confidence that God will accomplish all that He promised He would do (v. 3 ; Ro 8:24–25 ).

[1:17 in \[reverent\] fear.](#) For Christians, this phrase should be understood as something between terror and reverential awe. We need to remember that God is both our merciful Savior (vv. 3 ,18–21 ) and our holy Judge (vv. 15–17 ).

[1:19 a \[sacrificial\] lamb.](#) Peter describes Christ as the ultimate sacrificial Lamb, who is offered in our place to pay the price for our sins. The analogy here may be a reference either to the Passover lamb (Ex 12:3–6 ) or to the many lambs without blemish that were offered as part of the Old Testament sacrificial system (Lev 23:12 ; Nu 6:14 ; 28:3 ).

1:20 foreordained. God has known (v. 2 ) the One who would bring salvation, even as He has known those to whom that salvation is offered and secured (Ro 11:2). but has appeared. This phrase contrasts with the first half of the verse. What was known only to God before the creation of the world is now made known to us.

1:22 purified yourselves. We accomplish the purification of our souls by obedience to God's truth.

2:2 that by it you may be nurtured and grow. The purpose of studying God's truth is not only to learn more, but to become mature in the faith.

2:4 living Stone. This phrase anticipates the Old Testament quotations in verses 6–8. Jesus, as a living stone, is superior to the Old Testament temple.

2:5 stones. Christians are part of God's great spiritual building project. Referenced here are stones that are shaped and ready for use in construction, as opposed to natural rock. a holy and dedicated priesthood. Unlike the Old Testament priesthood, in which only those who were born into a certain tribe could be priests, all who are reborn into God's family, that is, all believers, are priests who have the privilege and responsibility of offering spiritual sacrifices to God (Ro 12:1–2; Heb 13:15–16).

2:6 A PRECIOUS \(honored\) C ORNERSTONE. Jesus is the foundation stone from which the placement of all other living stones in the spiritual house (v. 5) is determined (Isa 28:16). In ancient buildings, the cornerstone was first situated on the foundation and then all of the other stones were aligned to it. Thus as part of the house of God, we need to keep our focus on our Cornerstone (Heb 12:2).

2:9 A CHOSEN RACE. God has not left to chance who will be part of a unique body of people, a group who will serve Him. A ROYAL PRIESTHOOD. Believers are transformed not only internally (v. 5), which describes us as being made into a "holy priesthood" but also externally. We are a priesthood that functions in a ruling capacity, as kings. A CONSECRATED NATION. Believers are a unified group of people who are set apart for God's use. A [special] PEOPLE. God protects those whom He has adopted into His family.

2:11 aliens and strangers. With these words, Peter reminds believers (1:1) that this earth is not our home. We are foreigners here, traveling to our eternal home, heaven.

2:12 day of visitation. This term probably refers to the final day of judgment when all people, believers and unbelievers alike, will fall on their knees and acknowledge who Jesus Christ is and what He has done through His people.

[2:13 to \[the authority of\] every human institution.](#) This phrase suggests that the submission of Christians is not to be exercised solely in relation to civil authorities (v. 14), but to all kinds of rules that Christians encounter (2:18; 3:1).

2:13 Our Responsibility to Human Government— As children of God, our responsibility to human government is threefold:

We are to recognize and accept that the powers that be are ordained by God (Ro 13:1). This truth even applies to governments that are anti-Christian. If a given law is clearly anti-scriptural, the believer is required to obey God rather than man (Da 3:16; Ac 4:18–20).

We are to pay our taxes to human government (Mt 17:24; 22:21; Ro 13:7).

We are to pray for the leaders in human government (1Ti 2:1–3). Go to Theological Notes Index

2:16 as a cover or pretext for evil. This may be understood either as an excuse made up before the fact, or after the fact.

[2:18 be submissive . . . with all \[proper\] respect.](#) Workers are to take their responsibilities seriously, even when serving the worst of bosses.

2:20 what kind of credit. There is no advantage to believers for successfully enduring a deserved punishment for wrongdoing, yet there is great value when we honor God with our actions when we are unfairly condemned by others (3:17). patiently bear. Patience and perseverance in the face of suffering please God.

2:24 He personally carried our sins. The Greek wording emphasizes Jesus' personal involvement in the act of paying the price for our sins. that we might die to sin . . . and live for righteousness. The purpose of Christ's bearing our sins is that we might live to please Him.

2:25 Guardian. No one else is qualified to be the one Shepherd and Guardian of our souls—only Christ is. For this reason the New Testament regularly describes the church and its congregations as having more than one leader (Titus 1:5 ).

3:1 may be won over [to Christ] without discussion. A godly wife does not preach to her non-Christian husband with words but with the Christ-like beauty of her daily life. The goal is to see that husband become a Christian.

3:3 Your adornment must not be merely external. Christians are to spend more time developing their inner character than attempting to make themselves look beautiful on the outside (1Sa 16 ). Peter is not condemning women who wear jewelry. He is emphasizing the importance of a woman's character.

3:4 gentle and peaceful spirit. Peter encourages Christian wives to exhibit attitudes that do not demand personal rights, attitudes that are not harsh and grating but are soothing and tranquil.

3:6 calling him lord. Sarah was not worshiping Abraham; she was showing him respect.

3:7 husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way. A Christian husband should be intimately aware of his wife's needs, her strengths and weaknesses, and her goals and desires. He should know as much about her as possible in order to respond in the best way to her.

3:9 evil for evil. Peter encourages Christians to act like the Lord Jesus. He endured suffering and ridicule in silence, entrusting His just cause to the ultimate Judge.

3:12 EYES . . . EARS. Peter uses this imagery to remind his readers that God knows everything about believers, especially their suffering, and that He listens and responds to their cries for help (Heb 4:12–16 ).

3:15 in your hearts set Christ apart . . . as Lord. Believers should acknowledge the eternal holiness of Christ by revering Him as the Lord of the universe who is in control of all things. to give a [logical] defense. Peter assumes that the Christian faith will be falsely accused. He therefore encourages Christians to have rational answers to respond to those false accusations.

3:17 For it is better. Peter is not encouraging believers to seek out situations in which they will experience suffering. Instead, he is saying that believers should make certain that when they suffer, it is the result of having been faithful to God rather than because they have done evil (2:19 ).

3:19–20 spirits now in prison. The Greek term translated spirits can refer to human spirits, angels, or demons. There are three main interpretations: (1) Some interpret these verses as describing Jesus as going to the place where fallen angels are incarcerated and declaring His final victory over evil in His work on the cross; (2) Others hold that spirits refers to human spirits. Thus Christ preached to human beings who had died in Noah's day and were in the realm of the dead (hell or hades); and (3) Another major interpretation understands this passage as describing Christ preaching through Noah to the unbelievers of his day.

4:1 is done with [intentional] sin. Those who serve God faithfully in the midst of suffering take on a different attitude toward sin than what they previously held. Sin no longer holds the same grip on them.

4:3 wanton idolatries. The idea here is that some forms of idolatry may have been detestable even to the civil authorities. Of course, all types of idolatry are hateful to God.

4:5 they will [have to] give an account. Although unbelievers think they are free to do as they please, they are greatly mistaken. There are consequences to what they do. One day they will stand defenseless before God and give an account of all of their wickedness (Rev 20:11–15 ).

4:6 to those who are dead. There are four main interpretations of Peter's meaning here: (1) Some see a connection between the gospel preached in this verse and the proclamation of Christ in 3:19–20 .

Accordingly, they understand this verse to be about Christ offering salvation to those who lived in pre-Christian times; (2) Another group of commentators also connects this preaching to 3:19–20, but holds that this verse is speaking of Christ preaching the gospel only to the righteous people of Old Testament times; (3) Peter was speaking of the gospel which was preached to believers who are now dead; and (4) Peter is referring to the spiritually dead. The gospel was being preached to them so that they could come alive spiritually.

4:8 love covers a multitude of sins. Peter is not suggesting that one Christian's love atones for another Christian's sins. Rather, by introducing this proverb from the Old Testament (Pr 10:12), he is reminding us that love does not stir up sins. We can demonstrate our love for our fellow believers by truly forgiving them and not talking openly about their past sins.

4:9 Be hospitable. In New Testament times, hospitality typically meant housing and feeding travelers for two to three days with no expectation of payment in return.

4:10 Just as each one of you has received a special gift. Every believer is gifted to serve. stewards. These are managers or trustees who will be held accountable for using their gift in the best interest of the One who gave it to them.

4:12 do not be surprised. Apparently Peter's readers were astonished that they had to suffer as Christians, especially to the extent that they were suffering. fiery ordeal. The Greek word translated here was also used to speak of the intense fire that burned away impurities in metals.

4:17 it is the time [destined] for judgment to begin. Judgment does not always imply condemnation in Scripture. When used in relation to Christians, it consistently refers to the evaluation of a believer's works for the purpose of reward (1Co 3:10–15).

5:1 one who shares. This phrase speaks of sharing in Christ's reign in the coming kingdom (Ro 8:17; Rev 2:26–28; 5:9–10). Peter considers himself to be already participating partly in the glory that one day he will experience fully.

5:2 shepherd and guide and protect the flock of God. An ancient Israelite shepherd would go before his sheep to lead them; he would not drive the sheep in front of him. Church leaders should lead the people of God in the same way; feeding, protecting, and guiding them (Jn 21:15–17). Christian leaders should also remember that they have been given responsibility for tending a flock that belongs to God, not to themselves. not [motivated] for shameful gain. Christian leaders need to make certain that their work is not motivated by money, but by a passion for the good of those believers put in their charge (1Ti 3:3, 8; Titus 1:11).

5:3 not lording it over. Echoing a command that Peter heard directly from Jesus during His earthly ministry, Peter reminds all Christian leaders that they need to perform the role of servants, not masters, to those whom God has assigned to their care (Mt 20:25–28; Mk 10:42–45).

5:8 That enemy of yours. Satan is our avowed enemy. He never ceases from being hostile toward us; he is constantly accusing us before God (Job 1:9–2:7; Zec 3:1; Lk 22:31; Rev 12:10). like a roaring lion. Satan is both cunning and cruel. He attacks when least expected and desires to destroy completely those whom he attacks.

5:10 establish you. As a consequence of our facing the attacks of our enemy, God will build in us a firm foundation that makes us steadfast and immovable.

5:11 dominion(power, authority, sovereignty) forever and ever. God is in control of all things both in this world and throughout eternity.

The Second Letter of Peter

- AUTHOR: No other book in the New Testament poses as many problems of authenticity as does 2 Peter. But in spite of the external and internal problems, the traditional position of Petrine authorship overcomes more difficulties than any other option. This epistle was written just before the apostle's death (1:14 ), probably from Rome.
- TIMES: c. AD 64–66
- KEY VERSES: 2Pe 1:20–21
- THEME: While 1 Peter deals with suffering and persecution caused by people outside the church, 2 Peter deals more with the need for the true spiritual knowledge and maturity in the face of false teachers who would distort the faith from inside the church. He gives his readers insight into the thinking of the false teachers and encourages opposition to them. He also urges watchfulness for Christ's return through all the events at the end of the age.

2 Peter 1

Growth in Christian Virtue

To those who have received and possess [by God's will] a precious faith of the same kind as ours, by the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace [that special sense of spiritual well-being] be multiplied to you in the [true, intimate] knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. ‡

<sup>3</sup>—For His divine power has bestowed on us [absolutely] everything necessary for [a dynamic spiritual] life and godliness, through true and personal knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. ‡

<sup>4</sup>—For by these He has bestowed on us His precious and magnificent promises [of inexpressible value], so that by them you may escape from the immoral freedom that is in the world because of disreputable desire, and become sharers of the divine nature. ‡

<sup>5</sup>—For this very reason, applying your diligence [to the divine promises, make every effort] in [exercising] your faith to, develop moral excellence, and in moral excellence, knowledge (insight, understanding), ‡

<sup>6</sup> and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, steadfastness, and in your steadfastness, godliness,

<sup>7</sup> and in your godliness, brotherly affection, and in your brotherly affection, [develop Christian] love [that is, learn to unselfishly seek the best for others and to do things for their benefit]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> For as these qualities are yours and are increasing [in you as you grow toward spiritual maturity], they will keep you from being useless and unproductive in regard to the true knowledge and greater understanding of our Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, believers, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you [be sure that your behavior reflects and confirms your relationship with God]; for by doing these things [actively developing these virtues], you will never stumble [in your spiritual growth and will live a life that leads others away from sin]; ‡

11 for in this way entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be abundantly provided to you.

12 Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them and are established in the truth which is held firmly in your grasp. ‡

13 I think it right, as long as I am in this earthly tent, to inspire you by reminding you, ‡

14 knowing that the laying aside of this earthly tent of mine is imminent, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. ‡

15 Moreover, I will diligently endeavor [to see to it] that even after my departure you will be able, at all times, to call these things to mind.

Eyewitnesses

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised stories or myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty [His grandeur, His authority, His sovereignty]. ‡

17 For when He was invested with honor and [the radiance of the Shekinah] glory from God the Father, such a voice as this came to Him from the [splendid] Majestic Glory [in the bright cloud that overshadowed Him, saying], “This is My Son, My Beloved Son in whom I am well-pleased and delighted”—  [Matt 17:5 ] ‡

18 and we [actually] heard this voice made from heaven when we were together with Him on the holy mountain.  [Matt 17:6 ] ‡

19 So we have the prophetic word made more certain. You do well to pay [close] attention to it as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and light breaks through the gloom and the morning star arises in your hearts.  [Num 24:17 ] ‡

20 But understand this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of or comes from one’s own [personal or special] interpretation, ‡

21 for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God. ‡

The Rise of False Prophets

<sup>1</sup> BUT [in those days] false prophets arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will subtly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Many will follow their shameful ways, and because of them the way of truth will be maligned.

<sup>3</sup> And in their greed they will exploit you with false arguments and twisted doctrine. Their sentence [of condemnation which God has decreed] from a time long ago is not idle [but is still in force], and their destruction and deepening misery is not asleep [but is on its way]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> For if God did not [even] spare angels that sinned, but threw them into hell and sent them to pits of gloom to be kept [there] for judgment; ‡

<sup>5</sup> and if He did not spare the ancient world, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought [the judgment of] a flood upon the world of the ungodly;  [Gen 6–8 ; 1 Pet 3:20 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> and if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly lives thereafter;  [Gen 19:24 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> (for that just man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by what he saw and heard of their lawless acts), ‡

<sup>9</sup> then [in light of the fact that all this is true, be sure that] the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trial, and how to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, ‡

<sup>10</sup> and especially those who indulge in the corrupt passions of the sin nature, and despise authority. ‡

P resumptuous and reckless, self-willed and arrogant [creatures, despising the majesty of the Lord], they do not tremble when they revile angelic majesties,

<sup>12</sup> But these [false teachers], like unreasoning animals, [mere] creatures of instinct, born to be captured and destroyed, reviling things they do not understand, will also perish in their own corruption [in their destroying they will be destroyed], ‡

They count it a delight to revel in the daytime [living luxuriously]. They are stains and blemishes [on mankind], reveling in their deceptions even as they feast with you. ‡

14 They have eyes full of adultery, constantly looking for sin, enticing and luring away unstable souls. Having hearts trained in greed, [they are] children of a curse. ‡

15 Abandoning the straight road [that is, the right way to live], they have gone astray; they have followed the way of [the false teacher] Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the reward of wickedness;  [Num 22:5 , 7 ] ‡

16 but he was rebuked for his own transgression: a mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and restrained the prophet's madness.  [Num 22:21–31 ]

17 These [false teachers] are springs without water and mists driven by a tempest, for whom is reserved the gloom of black darkness. ‡

18 For uttering arrogant words of vanity [pompous words disguised to sound scholarly or profound, but meaning nothing and containing no spiritual truth], they beguile and lure using lustful desires, by sensuality, those who barely escape from the ones who live in error. ‡

19 They promise them liberty, when they themselves are the slaves of depravity—for by whatever anyone is defeated and overcome, to that [person, thing, philosophy, or concept] he is continually enslaved. ‡

20 For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world by [personal] knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, their last condition has become worse for them than the first. ‡

21 For it would have been better for them not to have [personally] known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to have turned back from the holy commandment [verbally] handed on to them. ‡

2 Peter 3

Purpose of This Letter

<sup>1</sup> BELOVED, I am now writing you this second letter. In this [as in the first one], I am stirring up your untainted mind to remind you, ‡

<sup>2</sup>that you should remember the words spoken in the past [about the future] by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior given by your apostles [His personally chosen representatives]. ‡

The Coming Day of the Lord

<sup>3</sup> First of all, know [without any doubt] that mockers will come in the last days with their mocking, following after their own human desires ‡

<sup>4</sup>and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming [what has become of it]? For ever since the fathers fell asleep [in death], all things have continued [exactly] as they did from the beginning of creation.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> For they willingly forget [the fact] that the heavens existed long ago by the word of God, and the earth was formed out of water and by water, ‡

<sup>6</sup> through which the world at that time was destroyed by being flooded with water.  [Gen 1:6–8 ; 7:11 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years is like one day.  [Ps 90:4 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> The Lord does not delay [as though He were unable to act] and is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is [extraordinarily] patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance. ‡

A New Heaven and Earth

<sup>10</sup> But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will vanish with a [mighty and thunderous] roar, and the [material] elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and the works that are on it will be burned up. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be [in the meantime] in holy behavior [that is, in a pattern of daily life that sets you apart as a believer] and in godliness [displaying profound reverence toward our awesome God], ‡

<sup>12</sup> [while you earnestly] look for and await the coming of the day of God. For on this day the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the [material] elements will melt with intense heat!  [Is 34:4 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> So, beloved, since you are looking forward to these things, be diligent and make every effort to be found by Him [at His return] spotless and blameless, in peace [that is, inwardly calm with a sense of spiritual well-being and confidence, having lived a life of obedience to Him]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> And consider the patience of our Lord [His delay in judging and avenging wrongs] as salvation [that is, allowing time for more to be saved]; just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given to him [by God], ‡

<sup>16</sup> speaking about these things as he does in all of his letters. In which there are some things that are difficult to understand, which the untaught and unstable [who have fallen into error] twist and misinterpret, just as they do the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, [let me warn you] beloved, knowing these things beforehand, be on your guard so that you are not carried away by the error of unprincipled men [who distort doctrine] and fall from your own steadfastness [of mind, knowledge, truth, and faith], ‡

<sup>18</sup> but grow [spiritually mature] in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory (honor, majesty, splendor), both now and to the day of eternity. Amen. ‡

Annotations for 2 Peter

1:1 apostle. With this term Peter identifies himself as an authorized spokesman for the truth that Christ proclaimed. In verses 1–4 Peter describes the resources his readers have that will make growth in grace and knowledge possible. His apostleship is the first of these resources. a precious faith. Anyone who has faith in Jesus has the same access to God as any other believer. This access is the second great resource that Peter's readers possess.

1:2 the [true, intimate] knowledge of God. The Greek word translated knowledge is a key word in this letter. It describes a special kind of knowledge, a kind that is complete. Since our knowledge of Jesus grows as we mature in the faith, we will experience His grace and peace on many different occasions in our Christian walk.

1:3 divine power. This power is identified as the “power of His resurrection” (Php 3:10 ; 4:13 ). This power is the third resource for godly living that Peter lists in this letter. glory and excellence. These words suggest the qualities of Jesus that attract believers to Him. The glory that John saw in Jesus (Jn 1:14 ) was His authority and power.

1:4 precious and magnificent promises. This phrase refers to the numerous offers of divine provision found in Scripture. These promises offer us the glory and virtue of Christ as the basis for our growing participation in the divine nature. We have Christ within us, as He promised (Jn 14:23 ), to enable us to become increasingly Christ-like (2Co 3:18 ).

1:5 moral excellence. This term is the same word used in verse 3 in reference to Christ’s character. We cannot produce virtue ourselves; but we can choose to obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

1:6 steadfastness. A person who exercises self-control will not easily succumb to discouragement or the temptation to quit. Viewing all circumstances as coming from the hand of a loving Father who is in control of all things is the secret of perseverance.

1:9 blind. This kind of person is one who looks only at earthly and material values—what is close at hand—and does not see the eternal spiritual realities. Concerned only with this present life, such a person becomes blind to the things of God, forgetting the wonderful sense of cleansing that comes from turning oneself over to Christ.

1:11 entry . . . abundantly. Peter distinguishes between a just-barely-made-it entrance into the eternal kingdom and a richly abundant one. The Scripture indicates that fruitful and faithful living here will be rewarded by greater privileges and rewards in glory (Rev 22:12 ).

1:15 I will diligently endeavor . . . after my departure. Several early church fathers took these words to be Peter’s promise to leave behind a testimony of the truth for his readers, which they considered to be the Gospel of Mark.

1:16 cleverly devised stories or myths. Peter countered the false teacher’s faith claims with an eyewitness account. Peter himself had actually seen the power and the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. These are the twin themes of this letter; the power of Jesus available for holy living and the coming of Jesus as the glorious hope of each believer.

1:19 we have the prophetic word made more certain. As strong as an eyewitness account (vv. 16–18 ) may be, there is an even stronger confirmation that Jesus is who He said He was. The written Scriptures are even more trustworthy than the personal experience of the apostle Peter.

1:20 one’s own [personal or special] interpretation. Although some have taken this phrase to mean that no individual Christian has the right to interpret prophecy for himself or herself, the context and the Greek word for interpretation indicates another meaning for the verse. The Greek word for interpretation can also mean “origin.” In the context of verse 21, it is clear that Peter is speaking of Scripture’s “origin” from God Himself and not the credentials of the one who interprets it. There is no private source for the Bible; the prophets did not supply their own solutions or explanations to the mysteries of life. Rather, God spoke through them; He alone is responsible for what is written in Scripture.

2:1 destructive heresies. Peter is addressing here the ethical implication of false teaching. The Greek word translated destructive means “shameful” or “deliberately immoral.” The false teachers gloried in the privileges of Christianity but treated its moral demands with indifference.

2:3 sentence . . . destruction and deepening misery. Peter turns from the description of the false teachers to a description of their fate. Verses 4–8 provide examples of judgment of false teachers of the past.

2:4 angels that sinned. There are two main interpretations of this passage, depending on one’s understanding of Genesis 6:1–6. Some think that Peter is referring to “sons of God” in Genesis 6:2. According to this interpretation, the “sons of God” were angels who rebelled against God and their role in creation. They began to engage in forbidden practices with the daughters of men. Their conduct was met with immediate judgment. A second group of commentators balk at the suggestion of sexual relations between angels and women. They consider this verse to simply be a reference to those angels who fell with Satan.

2:5 not spare the ancient world. Peter’s second example of God’s judgment is the flood (3:6). preacher of righteousness. This is a reference to Noah because his righteous life put to shame the immoral lives of his neighbors. Noah’s building of the ark would certainly have given him the opportunity to explain the coming judgment and to invite people to repent and believe in God. But the entreaties fell on deaf ears, just as the truth of Christ’s atonement fell on the deaf ears of the false teachers of Peter’s day. Such indifference and unbelief brought the ungodly of Noah’s world to certain destruction.

2:6 Sodom and Gomorrah. These cities are Peter’s third example of God’s judgment. Genesis 19 makes it clear that sexual perversion was the primary cause of their destruction.

2:9–10 Presumptuous and reckless, self-willed and arrogant. These words describe the character and methods of false teachers. Their actions are characterized by boldness; they recklessly defy both God and man. Behind their presumption is a commitment to their own desires.

2:12 like unreasoning animals, [mere] creatures of instinct. False teachers are compared to animals in their behavior because they act in ignorance of the realities of death and judgment. Like animals they also react only to present circumstances, without giving thought to the consequences of their actions.

2:13 revel in the daytime. Even pagan societies thought it strange and unnatural to hold drunken riots in the daylight. However, the false teachers had no qualms about practicing their erroneous concept of Christian liberty in clear daylight.

2:14 eyes full of adultery. They could not cease from sin because their fantasizing had become habitual. As a consequence, they convinced unstable souls in the church that adultery was acceptable Christian behavior and lured them into sexual immorality.

2:15–16 followed the way of [the false teacher] Balaam. The account of Balaam in Numbers 22–24 is used here, as well as in Jude 11 and Revelation 2:14, to depict the danger of forsaking the right way and going astray.

2:17 springs . . . mists. Peter accuses the heretical teachers of awakening false expectations, like wells that contain no water or storm clouds that darken but produce no rain.

2:20 they have escaped. The subject of this phrase is the heretical teachers who are called “slaves of depravity” in verse 19. This verse seems to indicate that the teachers had formerly turned from the pollution of the world through a full and experiential knowledge of Christ. Now, however, they have fallen again into immorality, even becoming teachers of sinful lifestyles. their last condition has become worse for them than the first. This phrase is almost certainly taken from Jesus' words in Matthew 12:45 and probably reflects Peter's memory of that occasion.

2:22 spoken of in the true proverb. Jews considered dogs and pigs among the lowest of animals, so Peter chooses these animals to describe people who have known the truth but have turned away from it.

3:2 words spoken in the past. The only way Peter's readers could recognize the errors of the heretical teachers was to compare their teaching with the teaching of the holy prophets and apostles. As Peter had already reminded his readers in 1:21 , "men moved by the Holy Spirit" spoke words that were therefore utterly reliable.

3:4 fathers fell asleep. This refers to the Old Testament patriarchs. all things have continued. The basis for denying the supernatural reappearance of Jesus is that nothing of that nature has occurred in the past.

3:8 a thousand years. God will surely accomplish His purposes and promises, even though it may appear that He is slow in doing so. His timing is always perfect.

3:10 day of the Lord. This phrase describes the end-time events, the second coming (Da 9:24–27 ; 1Th 5:2 ; 2Th 2:1–12 ). Peter's description requires the unlimited power of God in dissolving the very elements of the universe, from which He will create a new heaven and a new earth (v. 13 ; Rev 21:22 ).

3:11 what kind of people. The primary purpose of prophetic teaching is not to satisfy our curiosity but to motivate us to change our lives. Rather than work for things that will ultimately be destroyed, we should work for things that are eternal.

3:16 the untaught and unstable . . . twist and misinterpret. Untaught refers to one whose mind is untrained and undisciplined in habits of thought. Unstable refers to one whose conduct is not properly established.

The First Letter of John

- AUTHOR: First John was universally accepted without dispute as authoritative by the early church. The internal evidence supports this tradition because the “we” (apostles), “you” (readers), and “they” (false teachers) phraseology places the writer in the sphere of apostolic eyewitness (1:1–3 ; 4:14). John’s name was well-known to the readers, and it was unnecessary for him to mention it. The style and vocabulary of 1 John are so similar to those of the Fourth Gospel that most scholars acknowledge these books to be by the same hand. First John was probably written in Ephesus after the Gospel of John, but the date cannot be fixed with certainty.
- TIMES: c. AD 89–95
- KEY VERSES: 1Jn 1:3–4
- THEME: Shortly after the church began, people like the Gnostics continually tried to recast the gospel in their own terms. Gnosticism made a distinction between the material or carnal, which was evil to them, and the spiritual, which was pure. John writes as one who knew Jesus personally, physically, and spiritually. He wants the reader to take the Christ he knew at face value. John wants his readers to believe the truth of his experience of Jesus and not the philosophical speculation of the Gnostics. In these letters we see the same themes as John’s Gospel, light and darkness, truth and falsehood, life and death, love and hate. John weaves these themes together with a straightforward skill and fatherly care.

1 John 1

Introduction, The Incarnate Word

<sup>1</sup> [I AM writing about] what existed from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of Life [the One who existed even before the beginning of the world, Christ]—‡

<sup>2</sup> and the Life [an aspect of His being] was manifested, and we have seen [it as eyewitnesses] and testify and declare to you [the Life], the eternal Life who was [already existing] with the Father and was [actually] made visible to us [His followers]—‡

<sup>3</sup> what we have seen and heard we also proclaim to you, so that you too may have fellowship [as partners] with us. And indeed our fellowship [which is a distinguishing mark of born-again believers] is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>4</sup> We are writing these things to you so that our joy [in seeing you included] may be made complete [by having you share in the joy of salvation]. ‡

God Is Light

<sup>5</sup> This is the message [of God's promised revelation] which we have heard from Him and now announce to you, that God is Light [He is holy, His message is truthful, He is perfect in righteousness], and in Him there is no darkness at all [no sin, no wickedness, no imperfection]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness [of sin], we lie and do not practice the truth; ‡

<sup>7</sup> but if we [really] walk in the Light [that is, live each and every day in conformity with the precepts of God], as He Himself is in the Light, we have [true, unbroken] fellowship with one another [He with us, and we with Him], and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin [by erasing the stain of sin, keeping us cleansed from sin in all its forms and manifestations]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> If we say we have no sin [refusing to admit that we are sinners], we delude ourselves and the truth is not in us. [His word does not live in our hearts.] ‡

<sup>9</sup> If we [freely] admit that we have sinned and confess our sins, He is faithful and just [true to His own nature and promises], and will forgive our sins and cleanse us continually from all unrighteousness [our wrongdoing, everything not in conformity with His will and purpose]. ‡

10-If we say that we have not sinned [refusing to admit acts of sin], we make Him [out to be] a liar [by contradicting Him] and His word is not in us.

Christ Is Our Advocate

1 MY LITTLE children (believers, dear ones), I am writing you these things so that you will not sin and violate God's law. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate [who will intercede for us] with the Father: Jesus Christ the righteous [the upright, the just One, who conforms to the Father's will in every way—purpose, thought, and action]. ‡

2-And He [that same Jesus] is the propitiation for our sins [the atoning sacrifice that holds back the wrath of God that would otherwise be directed at us because of our sinful nature—our worldliness, our lifestyle]; and not for ours alone, but also for [the sins of all believers throughout] the whole world. ‡

3-And this is how we know [daily, by experience] that we have come to know Him [to understand Him and be more deeply acquainted with Him]: if we habitually keep [focused on His precepts and obey] His commandments (teachings).

4 Whoever says, "I have come to know Him," but does not habitually keep [focused on His precepts and obey] His commandments (teachings), is a liar, and the truth [of the divine word] is not in him. ‡

5 But whoever habitually keeps His word and obeys His precepts [and treasures His message in its entirety], in him the love of God has truly been perfected [it is completed and has reached maturity]. By this we know [for certain] that we are in Him: ‡

6-whoever says he lives in Christ [that is, whoever says he has accepted Him as God and Savior] ought [as a moral obligation] to walk and conduct himself just as He walked and conducted Himself. ‡

7 Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the message which you have heard [before from us]. [John 13:34, 35.] ‡

<sup>8</sup>-On the other hand, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true and realized in Christ and in you, because the darkness [of moral blindness] is clearing away and the true Light [the revelation of God in Christ] is already shining. ‡

<sup>9</sup> The one who says he is in the Light [in consistent fellowship with Christ] and yet habitually hates (works against) his brother [in Christ] is in the darkness until now. ‡

<sup>10</sup> The one who loves and unselfishly seeks the best for his [believing] brother lives in the Light, and in him there is no occasion for stumbling or offense [he does not hurt the cause of Christ or lead others to sin]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> But the one who habitually hates (works against) his brother [in Christ] is in [spiritual] darkness and is walking in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup> I am writing to you, little children (believers, dear ones), because your sins have been forgiven for His name's sake [you have been pardoned and released from spiritual debt through His name because you have confessed His name, believing in Him as Savior]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> I am writing to you, fathers [those believers who are spiritually mature], because you know Him who has existed from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men [those believers who are growing in spiritual maturity], because you have been victorious and have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, children [those who are new believers, those spiritually immature], because you have come to know the Father. ‡

<sup>14</sup> I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who has existed from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong and vigorous, and the word of God remains [always] in you, and you have been victorious over the evil one [by accepting Jesus as Savior]. ‡

Do Not Love the World

<sup>15</sup>-Do not love the world [of sin that opposes God and His precepts], nor the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ‡

<sup>16</sup>-For all that is in the world—the lust and sensual craving of the flesh and the lust and longing of the eyes and the boastful pride of life [pretentious confidence in one's resources or in the stability of earthly things]—these do not come from the Father, but are from the world. ‡

and ungodly longings]; but the one who does the will of God and carries out His purposes lives forever. ‡

18 Children, it is the last hour [the end of this age]; and just as you heard that the antichrist is coming [the one who will oppose Christ and attempt to replace Him], even now many antichrists (false teachers) have appeared, which confirms our belief that it is the last hour. ‡

19 They went out from us [seeming at first to be Christians], but they were not really of us [because they were not truly born again and spiritually transformed]; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out [teaching false doctrine], so that it would be clearly shown that none of them are of us. ‡

20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One [you have been set apart, specially gifted and prepared by the Holy Spirit], and all of you know [the truth because He teaches us, illuminates our minds, and guards us from error]. ‡

21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie [nothing false, no deception] is of the truth.

22 Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed)? This is the antichrist [the enemy and antagonist of Christ], the one who denies and consistently refuses to acknowledge the Father and the Son. ‡

23 Whoever denies and repudiates the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses and acknowledges the Son has the Father also. ‡

24 As for you, let that remain in you [keeping in your hearts that message of salvation] which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you too will remain in the Son and in the Father [forever]. ‡

The Promise Is Eternal Life

25 This is the promise which He Himself promised us—eternal life. ‡

26 These things I have written to you with reference to those who are trying to deceive you [seducing you and leading you away from the truth and sound doctrine]. ‡

27 As for you, the anointing [the special gift, the preparation] which you received from Him remains [permanently] in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you. But just as His anointing teaches you [giving you insight through the presence of the Holy Spirit] about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as His anointing has taught you, you must remain in Him [being rooted in Him, knit to Him]. ‡

28—Now, little children (believers, dear ones), remain in Him [with unwavering faith], so that when He appears [at His return], we may have [perfect] confidence and not be ashamed and shrink away from Him at His coming. ‡

29 If you know that He is absolutely righteous, you know [for certain] that everyone who practices righteousness [doing what is right and conforming to God's will] has been born of Him. ‡

1 John 3

Children of God Love One Another

1 SEE WHAT an incredible quality of love the Father has shown to us, that we would [be permitted to] be named and called and counted the children of God! And so we are! For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. ‡

2. Beloved, we are [even here and] now children of God, and it is not yet made clear what we will be [after His coming]. We know that when He comes and is revealed, we will [as His children] be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is [in all His glory]. ‡

3—And everyone who has this hope [confidently placed] in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure (holy, undefiled, guiltless). ‡

4—Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness [ignoring God's law by action or neglect or by tolerating wrongdoing—being unrestrained by His commands and His will]. ‡

5—You know that He appeared [in visible form as a man] in order to take away sins; and in Him there is [absolutely] no sin [for He has neither the sin nature nor has He committed sin or acts worthy of blame]. ‡

6 No one who abides in Him [who remains united in fellowship with Him—deliberately, knowingly, and habitually] practices sin. No one who habitually sins has seen Him or known Him. ‡

7 Little children (believers, dear ones), do not let anyone lead you astray. The one who practices righteousness [the one who strives to live a consistently honorable life—in private as well as in public—and to conform to God's precepts] is righteous, just as He is righteous. ‡

8. The one who practices sin [separating himself from God, and offending Him by acts of disobedience, indifference, or rebellion] is of the devil [and takes his inner character and moral values from him, not God]; for the devil has sinned and violated God's law from the beginning. The Son of God appeared for this purpose, to destroy the works of the devil. ‡

<sup>9</sup> No one who is born of God [deliberately, knowingly, and habitually] practices sin, because God's seed [His principle of life, the essence of His righteous character] remains [permanently] in him [who is born again—who is reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose]; and he [who is born again] cannot habitually [live a life characterized by] sin, because he is born of God and longs to please Him. ‡

10. By this the children of God and the children of the devil are clearly identified: anyone who does not practice righteousness [who does not seek God's will in thought, action, and purpose] is not of God, nor is the one who does not [unselfishly] love his [believing] brother. ‡

<sup>11</sup> For this is the message which you [believers] have heard from the beginning [of your relationship with Christ], that we should [unselfishly] love and seek the best for one another; ‡

14. We know that we have passed out of death into Life, because we love the brothers and sisters. He who does not love remains in [spiritual] death. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Everyone who hates (works against) his brother [in Christ] is [at heart] a murderer [by God's standards]; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.  [Matt 5:21–23.] ‡

<sup>16</sup> By this we know [and have come to understand the depth and essence of His precious] love: that He [willingly] laid down His life for us [because He loved us]. And we ought to lay down our lives for the believers. ‡

<sup>17</sup> But whoever has the world's goods (adequate resources), and sees his brother in need, but has no compassion for him, how does the love of God live in him? ‡

18. Little children (believers, dear ones), let us not love [merely in theory] with word or with tongue [giving lip service to compassion], but in action and in truth [in practice and in sincerity, because practical acts of love are more than words]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> By this we will know [without any doubt] that we are of the truth, and will assure our heart and quiet our conscience before Him ‡

<sup>20</sup>-whenever our heart convicts us [in guilt]; for God is greater than our heart and He knows all things [nothing is hidden from Him because we are in His hands]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Beloved, if our heart does not convict us [of guilt], we have confidence [complete assurance and boldness] before God; ‡

<sup>22</sup> and we receive from Him whatever we ask because we [carefully and consistently] keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight [habitually seeking to follow His plan for us]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> This is His commandment, that we believe [with personal faith and confident trust] in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and [that we unselfishly] love and seek the best for one another, just as He commanded us. ‡

<sup>24</sup>-The one who habitually keeps His commandments [obeying His word and following His precepts, abides and] remains in Him, and He in him. By this we know and have the proof that He [really] abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us [as a gift]. ‡

Testing the Spirits

<sup>1</sup> BELOVED, DO not believe every spirit [speaking through a self-proclaimed prophet]; instead test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets and teachers have gone out into the world. ‡

<sup>2</sup>-By this you know and recognize the Spirit of God: every spirit that acknowledges and confesses [the fact] that Jesus Christ has [actually] come in the flesh [as a man] is from God [God is its source]; ‡

<sup>3</sup> and every spirit that does not confess Jesus [acknowledging that He has come in the flesh, but would deny any of the Son's true nature] is not of God; this is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming, and is now already in the world. ‡

<sup>4</sup>-Little children (believers, dear ones), you are of God and you belong to Him and have [already] overcome them [the agents of the antichrist]; because He who is in you is greater than he (Satan) who is in the world [of sinful mankind]. ‡

therefore they speak from the [viewpoint of the] world [with its immoral freedom and baseless theories—demanding compliance with their opinions and ridiculing the values of the upright], and the [gullible one of the] world listens closely and pays attention to them. ‡

<sup>6</sup> We [who teach God's word] are from God [energized by the Holy Spirit], and whoever knows God [through personal experience] listens to us [and has a deeper understanding of Him]. Whoever is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know [without any doubt] the spirit of truth [motivated by God] and the spirit of error [motivated by Satan]. ‡

God Is Love

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, let us [unselfishly] love and seek the best for one another, for love is from God; and everyone who loves [others] is born of God and knows God [through personal experience]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> The one who does not love has not become acquainted with God [does not and never did know Him], for God is love. [He is the originator of love, and it is an enduring attribute of His nature.] ‡

<sup>9</sup> By this the love of God was displayed in us, in that God has sent His [One and] only begotten Son [the One who is truly unique, the only One of His kind] into the world so that we might live through Him. ‡

<sup>10</sup> In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation [that is, the atoning sacrifice, and the satisfying offering] for our sins [fulfilling God's requirement for justice against sin and placating His wrath]. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, if God so loved us [in this incredible way], we also ought to love one another. ‡

<sup>12</sup> No one has seen God at any time. But if we love one another [with unselfish concern], God abides in us, and His love [the love that is His essence abides in us and] is completed and perfected in us. ‡

<sup>13</sup> By this we know [with confident assurance] that we abide in Him and He in us, because He has given to us His [Holy] Spirit. ‡

<sup>14</sup> We [who were with Him in person] have seen and testify [as eye-witnesses] that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Whoever confesses and acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. ‡

<sup>16</sup> We have come to know [by personal observation and experience], and have believed [with deep, consistent faith] the love which God has for us.

God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides continually in him. ‡

<sup>17</sup> In this [union and fellowship with Him], love is completed and perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment [with assurance and boldness to face Him]; because as He is, so are we in this world. ‡

<sup>18</sup> There is no fear in love [dread does not exist]. But perfect (complete, full-grown) love drives out fear, because fear involves [the expectation of divine] punishment, so the one who is afraid [of God's judgment] is not perfected in love [has not grown into a sufficient understanding of God's love]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> If anyone says, "I love God," and hates (works against) his [Christian] brother he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And this commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God should also [unselfishly] love his brother and seek the best for him. ‡

Overcoming the World

<sup>1</sup> EVERYONE WHO believes [with a deep, abiding trust in the fact] that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed) is born of God [that is, reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, and set apart for His purpose], and everyone who loves the Father also loves the child born of Him. ‡

<sup>2</sup> By this we know [without any doubt] that we love the children of God: [expressing that love] when we love God and obey His commandments.

<sup>4</sup> For everyone born of God is victorious and overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has conquered and overcome the world—our [continuing, persistent] faith [in Jesus the Son of God]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Who is the one who is victorious and overcomes the world? It is the one who believes and recognizes the fact that Jesus is the Son of God. ‡

6. This is He who came through water and blood [His baptism and death], Jesus Christ—not by the water only, but by the water and the blood. It is the [Holy] Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. [He is the essence and origin of truth itself.] ‡

<sup>9</sup> If we accept [as we do] the testimony of men [that is, if we are willing to take the sworn statements of fallible humans as evidence], the testimony of God is greater [far more authoritative]; for this is the testimony of God, that He has testified regarding His Son. ‡

<sup>10</sup> The one who believes in the Son of God [who adheres to, trusts in, and relies confidently on Him as Savior] has the testimony within himself [because he can speak authoritatively about Christ from his own personal experience]. The one who does not believe God [in this way] has made Him [out to be] a liar, because he has not believed in the evidence that God has given regarding His Son. ‡

11. And the testimony is this: God has given us eternal life [we already possess it], and this life is in His Son [resulting in our spiritual completeness, and eternal companionship with Him]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> He who has the Son [by accepting Him as Lord and Savior] has the life [that is eternal]; he who does not have the Son of God [by personal faith] does not have the life. ‡

This Is Written That You May Know

<sup>13</sup> These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God [which represents all that Jesus Christ is and does], so that you will know [with settled and absolute knowledge] that you [already] have eternal life. ‡

14. This is the [remarkable degree of] confidence which we [as believers are entitled to] have before Him: that if we ask anything according to His will, [that is, consistent with His plan and purpose] He hears us. ‡

<sup>15</sup> And if we know [for a fact, as indeed we do] that He hears and listens to us in whatever we ask, we [also] know [with settled and absolute knowledge] that we have [granted to us] the requests which we have asked from Him.

16. If anyone sees his brother committing a sin that does not lead to death, he will pray and ask [on the believer's behalf] and God will for him give life to those whose sin is not leading to death. There is a sin that leads to death; I do not say that one should pray for this [kind of sin]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death [one can repent of it and be forgiven]. ‡

<sup>18</sup> We know [with confidence] that anyone born of God does not habitually sin; but He (Jesus) who was born of God [carefully] keeps and protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. ‡

<sup>19</sup> We know [for a fact] that we are of God, and the whole world [around us] lies in the power of the evil one [opposing God and His precepts]. ‡

<sup>20</sup> And we [have seen and] know [by personal experience] that the Son of God has [actually] come [to this world], and has given us understanding and insight so that we may [progressively and personally] know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true—in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. ‡

Annotations for 1 John

1:1–4 the Word of Life. These verses emphasize the personal experience of the apostles with the incarnate Word. The memory of Jesus Christ burned in the mind of John as he reflected on the three and one-half years that he and the other disciples were with the Lord. Now he wanted to be sure that the churches under his care enjoyed fellowship with the resurrected Lord and other disciples.

1:2 the Life [an aspect of His being] was manifested. The life was not hidden or obscured so that few, if any, could find it. Rather, this life was made known openly and had its origin in God the Father. God had provided truth about Himself in nature and through the prophets of old, but the revelation in His Son (Heb 1:1–2) is God's finest and clearest presentation of Himself.

1:3 have fellowship. The idea of this word carries both the thought of a positive relationship that people share and participation in a common interest or goal.

1:5 God is Light. This is God's nature, in His essential being, just as He is Spirit (Jn 4:24) and love (4:8). Light refers to God's moral character. no darkness at all. God is holy, untouched by any evil or sin. Because God is light, those who desire fellowship with Him must also be pure.

1:6 fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness. To walk in darkness means to live contrary to the moral character of God, to live a sinful life. To claim fellowship with God without living a moral life or practicing the truth is to live a lie, since God cannot compromise His holiness to accommodate sin.

1:8–9 If we . . . confess. To confess is to agree with God, to admit that we are sinners in need of His mercy. If a believer confesses his or her specific sins to God, He will cleanse all unrighteousness from that person. Forgiveness and cleansing are guaranteed because God is faithful to His promises. Those promises are legitimated because God is just. God can maintain His perfect character and yet forgive us because of the perfect and righteous sacrifice of Jesus, His own Son (2:2).

1:10 His word is not in us. A person who denies committing sinful acts does not have the Word of God changing his or her life.

2:1 My little children . . . that you will not sin. John's statements about sin (1:8–10) were designed to make believers aware of sin's ever-present danger and to put them on guard against it. According to Greek grammar, the if before anyone sins carries the added sense of "and it is assumed that we all do." This statement is not an encouragement to sin but a warning to all Christians to be on guard against sinful tendencies.

2:2 propitiation. This act brings about the merciful removal of guilt through divine forgiveness. In the Greek Old Testament, the Greek term for propitiation was used for the sacrificial mercy seat on which the high priest placed the blood of the Israelites' sacrifices (Ex 25:17–22). This practice indicates that God's righteous wrath had to be appeased somehow. God sent His Son and satisfied His own wrath with Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. Our sins made it necessary for Jesus to suffer the agonies of the crucifixion; but God demonstrated His love and justice by providing His own Son.

2:3 we have come to know Him. The New Testament speaks of knowing God in two senses. One who has trusted Christ knows Him (Jn 17:3), that is to say, has met Him. One who has previously met the Lord can also come to know Him intimately (Php 3:10). In this verse John is talking about knowing the Lord intimately.

2:6 lives in Christ. Living in Christ means pursuing habitual obedience. It has the idea of settling down in Christ or resting in Him. It is evidenced by a life modeled after Christ. ought [as a moral obligation] to walk and conduct himself. The admonition to live by the teaching of Jesus reveals that this conformity comes from us. The Christian, as a child of God, ought to obey God because of a sincere desire to do so. It should be a joy to follow in the footsteps of the One who died for us.

2:8 new commandment. This refers to love (v. 10 ). It may be that John is simply repeating the statement of Christ in John 13:34 . The command to love reached its truest and fullest expression in the life of Christ. He demonstrated what true love is by coming into our world and giving His life for us.

2:11 the one who habitually hates (works against) his brother. Hating one's brother opposes the teaching of Christ to love one another. The idea that one could hate a brother and yet claim fellowship with God shows the utter darkness that has blinded the Christian to the truth.

2:15 Do not love the world. These words may be rephrased as “stop loving the world.” John’s readers were acting in a way that was inconsistent with the relationship with Christ. “World” here is the morally evil system opposed to all that God is and holds dear. In this sense, the “world” is the satanic system opposing Christ’s kingdom on this earth (v. 16 ; 3:1 ; 4:4 ; 5:19 ; Jn 12:31 ; Eph 6:11–12 ; Jas 4:4 ).

2:16 lust and sensual craving of the flesh and the lust and longing of the eyes and the boastful pride of life. The world is characterized by these three lusts, which have been interpreted as corresponding to the three different ways Eve was tempted in the garden (Ge 3:6 ), or the three different temptations Jesus experienced (Lk 4:1–12 ). However, the correspondences are not close enough to make it certain that John was alluding to either of these. Instead, John was probably making a short list of the different ways believers could be lured away from a loving God. Lust of the flesh refers to desires of sinful sensual pleasure. The lust of the eyes refers to covetousness or materialism. The pride of life refers to being proud about one’s position in this world.

2:17 passing away. John highlights the brevity of life. To be consumed with this life is to be unprepared for the next.

2:18 antichrists. This word is a combination of two Greek words: anti , meaning “instead of” or “against”; and christos , meaning “anointed one.” Antichrists most likely means those who seek to take the place of Christ.

2:20 anointing. This is a reference to either the Holy Spirit or to Scripture. This anointing is the protection that believers have against the false teachers. The true Anointed One, Jesus, also has representatives who are anointed. One of the main heresies the first century church faced was Gnosticism, whose followers claimed to have secret knowledge of the truth that led to salvation. Here John was opposing this teaching by asserting that all believers knew the truth.

2:22–23 that Jesus is the Christ. In John’s epistles, denying that Jesus came in the flesh is to deny His status as the Anointed One. A person cannot worship God while denying Jesus’ full deity and full humanity.

2:28 ashamed and shrink away from Him at His coming. The shame is the result of not having had a lifestyle of obedience when Christ returns.

3:1 what an incredible quality of love. John stands in amazement of God’s love. But the greater amazement and appreciation is for the fact that God’s love is expressed to human beings and that Christians are included in His family.

3:2 We Have a New Family— One of the primary benefits of becoming a Christian is that we also become part of Christ’s family. The Bible refers to this change as being born again (Jn 3:3 ). When an individual places his faith in Christ as Savior, he is born again into a new, spiritual, familial relationship with God (Gal 3:26 ). He gains God as Father (Eph 4:6 ) and other Christians as brothers and sisters (Heb 3:1 ). God also adopts us when we become His children (Eph 1:5 ). This image implies a dramatic transformation of status from slave to son (Gal 4:1–5 ). One is no longer in bondage to the master but becomes a free son possessing all the rights and privileges of sonship. One of these benefits is the right to call God Abba , an affectionate term meaning “Father” (Ro 8:15 ). A marvelous relationship is possible when one becomes a part of the family of God. As in any family, there are also responsibilities.

The Christian must exhibit the family character and grow into spiritual maturity. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:3 everyone who has this hope. Knowing that Christ is morally pure helps a person pursue purity even more.

3:4 sin. This verse is not referring to occasional sin but a consistent lifestyle of sin. lawlessness. This is active rebellion against the law.

3:5–6 No one who abides in Him . . . practices sin. Habitually sinful conduct indicates an absence of fellowship with Christ. Thus, if we claim to be a Christian but sin is our way of life, our status as children of God can legitimately be questioned.

3:8 destroy the works of the devil. A person who sins is of the devil in the sense that he is participating in the devil's activity (2:19). Thus John is indicating that it is possible for believers to do that which is of the devil (Mk 8:31–33 ; Jas 3:6 ).

3:10 children of the devil. Believers who sin are not expressing their nature as children of God; instead, they are following the devil's pattern.

3:14 have passed out of death into Life. The tense of the verb "have passed" indicates that something experienced in the past has continuing and abiding results in the present. Thus John is saying that Christians, who have experienced Christ's salvation in the past, should demonstrate their salvation by loving their fellow believers in the present.

3:18 not love [merely in theory] with word or with tongue. This phrase means to speak loving words but to stop short of doing anything to prove that love. The opposite of living in word is loving in deed and in truth.

3:20 our heart convicts us. This will happen when we recognize that we do not measure up to the standard of love and feel insecure in approaching God. Our conscience may not acknowledge the loving deeds we have done in the power of the Holy Spirit, but God does, and He is superior to our heart. Unlike our conscience, God takes everything into account, including Christ's atoning work for us. God is more compassionate and understanding toward us than we sometimes are toward ourselves.

3:24 We Have a Witness— Some of the benefits of being a believer are best described as being spiritual or even mystical. The whole idea of abiding in Christ while He abides in us is one of those concepts. Abide is best understood as "remain with." God doesn't come and go in our lives. He carries on a permanent relationship with us because He is always there for us and in us. We sense His presence primarily through the work of the Holy Spirit, whose role it is to stand beside us and comfort us. It happens in our hearts and minds and is largely invisible. Yet, it is also what most accurately describes the most important aspect of our day-to-day life as Christians. As we abide in Christ, He nourishes us spiritually the same way a vine gives nourishment to its branches (Jn 15:16). Go to Theological Notes Index

4:1 false prophets. These persons obey evil spirits. A true prophet is one who receives direct revelation from God. A false prophet claims to have received direct revelation from God but in fact promotes erroneous ideas.

4:2 Jesus Christ has [actually] come in the flesh. This test seems to be aimed at Docetists. They taught that Christ did not have a physical body. The test may also be aimed at the followers of Cerinthus who claimed that Jesus and "the Christ" were two separate beings, one physical and the other spiritual. In this letter, John is careful to use the name and the title of Jesus Christ together to clearly express the complete union of the two titles in one person.

4:4 he (Satan) who is in the world. This phrase refers to the devil.

4:8 has not become acquainted with God. The knowledge of God here refers to an intimate, experiential knowledge (v. 6 ; 2:3) of God, rather than just information about God. John never says that those who do not love are not born of God (v. 7). Yet it is impossible to know God intimately without loving others, for God is love. Anyone in whom God dwells reflects His character. To claim to know

God while failing to love others is to make a false claim (1:6 ).

4:13 that we abide in Him and He in us. Mutual abiding refers to the fellowship we have with God as a result of our salvation. The evidence that God abides in us and we in Him is the experience of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us. In the remainder of this passage, John explains how a believer can know that the Spirit is working in his or her life.

4:15 Whoever confesses. To be a Christian, a person must believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

5:1 born of God. This condition happens when one believes or trusts in Jesus Christ. Only correct, sincere belief produces spiritual birth. This birth is reflected in love for others who also have been born into the family of God (2:3–11 ).

5:6 through water and blood. This phrase has been interpreted at least four ways: (1) as Jesus' baptism and death; (2) as His incarnation; (3) as the water and blood that flowed from His side on the cross; and (4) as the baptism of the believer and the Lord's Supper. Most scholars favor the first interpretation. John is correcting the false teacher, Cerinthus, who claimed that the Spirit came on Jesus at His baptism but left Him before His death (4:2–3 ).

5:11 the testimony is this. God's witness or testimony is that He has given us eternal life in his Son. Eternal life is not a wage to be earned, but a gift to be received from God (Ro 6:23 ).

5:14–15 according to His will. The key to knowing that God hears is to pray this way.

5:16–17 There is a sin that leads to death. This phrase may refer to blaspheming the Holy Spirit, rejecting Christ as Savior, rejecting the humanity or deity of Jesus, a specific sin such as murder (3:12 ,15 ), or a life of habitual sin. Whatever it is, the sin seems to be a flagrant violation of the sanctity of the Christian community (Ac 5:1–11 ; 1Co 5:5 ; 11:30 ). In other words, John is encouraging us to help fellow believers who are straying; we can be the tools God uses to restore an erring brother or sister to the true fellowship.

5:18–20 We know. This phrase introduces three concluding absolute truths. The general idea of this concluding section is that a proper relationship with God results in confidence of our position in Christ with a hostile world.

5:21 idols. This term may refer to literal idols, foods sacrificed to idols, false ideas in contrast to God's truth, or doctrines of false teachers. John has just reminded his readers of the true God (v. 20 ). It is appropriate that he closes by exhorting them to stay away from false gods.

The Second Letter of John

- ▶ AUTHOR: Second John was not widely circulated at the beginning because of its brevity and subject matter. Its strong resemblance to the tone and style of 1 John and the Fourth Gospel support the early tradition that John was the author of this epistle sometime after AD 90.
- ▶ TIMES: c. AD 89–95
- ▶ KEY VERSES: 2Jn 9–10
- ▶ THEME: The addressee of 2 John is a woman in a local church that apparently had a strong friendship with John. The apostle writes to warn her about showing hospitality to false teachers. He cautions her against unwittingly aiding these teachers who were sowing seeds of heresy and hurting the church.

2 John 1

Walk According to His Commandments

<sup>1</sup> THE ELDER [of the church addresses this letter] to the elect (chosen) lady and her children, whom I love in truth—and not only I, but also all who know and understand the truth—‡

<sup>2</sup> because of the truth which lives in our hearts and will be with us forever:

<sup>3</sup> Grace, mercy, and peace (inner calm, a sense of spiritual well-being) will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father's Son, in truth and love. ‡

<sup>4</sup> I was greatly delighted to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have been commanded by the Father. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Now I ask you, lady, not as if I were writing to you a new commandment, but [simply reminding you of] the one which we have had from the beginning, that we love and unselfishly seek the best for one another. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And this is love: that we walk in accordance with His commandments and are guided continually by His precepts. This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, that you should [always] walk in love. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For many deceivers [heretics, posing as Christians] have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge and confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh (bodily form). This [person, the kind who does this] is the deceiver and the antichrist [that is, the antagonist of Christ]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Watch yourselves, so that you do not lose what we have accomplished together, but that you may receive a full and perfect reward [when He grants rewards to faithful believers]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Anyone who runs on ahead and does not remain in the doctrine of Christ [that is, one who is not content with what He taught], does not have God; but the one who continues to remain in the teaching [of Christ does have God], he has both the Father and the Son. ‡

<sup>10</sup> If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching [but diminishes or adds to the doctrine of Christ], do not receive or welcome him into your house, and do not give him a greeting or any encouragement; ‡

<sup>12</sup> I have many things to write to you, but I prefer not to do so with paper

(papyrus) and black (ink); but I hope to come to you and speak with you face to face, so that your joy may be complete.  [Num 12:8 ] ‡

Annotations for 2 John

1 The elder. This is probably the apostle John. The title can refer either to an old man, an older person deserving respect, or a church leader. the elect (chosen) lady may be a specific person, or the phrase may be a figurative description of the local church.

4 walking in truth. This phrase means having an authentic relationship with God. Our walk with the Lord, if genuine, must be based upon His word.

6 His commandments. God's love is the basis of His desire for our obedience, and it is the reason He has revealed His will in His word. We prove our obedience to Christ by demonstrating love toward one another. Love is an unlimited resource readily available to us, and it is tremendously effective in furthering the work of Christ.

7 coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. These words refer to the Incarnation, the fact that Jesus is the God-man. The humanity of Jesus provides a test by which false teachers can be identified. The Gnostic heresy, against which John wrote in 1 and 2 John, included a denial of the physical body of Christ. People who deny the physical reality of Jesus are not Christians, but antichrists.

8 Watch yourselves. Being seduced by false teachers is one way that Christians can lose their reward at the judgment. With this in mind, John writes that the reason to guard against deceivers is our own desire not to lose our reward at the judgment seat of Christ.

9 runs on ahead. This phrase has the strong sense of running too far ahead. Departure from Christ into doctrinal error indicates that a person does not have God.

10 this teaching. Jesus is completely human and completely divine. A Christian should not only refuse to receive false teachers in the sense of supporting them while they visit the community, a Christian should also avoid appearing to endorse their teachings. The proper response to deceivers is to reject them as unbelievers. This shows how seriously we should take the Scriptures and how careful we should be in evaluating the teachings of everyone.

The Third Letter of

John

- ▶ AUTHOR: Much like 2 John, this letter had a very limited circulation in the early church, but was accepted as authoritative on account of its apostolic authorship. Its style and vocabulary strongly resemble that of John's Gospel and other epistles.
- ▶ TIMES: c. AD 89–95
- ▶ KEY VERSE: 3Jn 11
- ▶ THEME: Third John has two main purposes. The first is to commend Gaius for being hospitable to itinerant missionaries. The second is to advise Gaius about Diotrephes, a man in the church who refuses to help the same kind of missionaries and who even gossips about them.

3 John 1

You Walk in the Truth

<sup>2</sup> Beloved, I pray that in every way you may succeed and prosper and be in good health [physically], just as [I know] your soul prospers [spiritually].

<sup>3</sup> For I was greatly pleased when [some of the] brothers came [from time to time] and testified to your [faithfulness to the] truth [of the gospel message], that is, how you are walking in truth. ‡

<sup>4</sup> I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my [spiritual] children are living [their lives] in the truth. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Beloved, you are acting faithfully in what you are providing for the brothers, and especially when they are strangers;

<sup>6</sup> and they have testified before the church of your love and friendship. You will do well to [assist them and] send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.

<sup>7</sup> For these [traveling missionaries] went out for the sake of the Name [of Christ], accepting nothing [in the way of assistance] from the Gentiles. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So we ought to support such people [welcoming them as guests and providing for them], so that we may be fellow workers for the truth [that is, for the gospel message of salvation].

<sup>9</sup> I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to put himself first, does not accept what we say and refuses to recognize my authority.

<sup>10</sup> For this reason, if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing, unjustly accusing us with wicked words and unjustified charges. And not satisfied with this, he refuses to receive the [missionary] brothers himself, and also forbids those who want to [welcome them] and puts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but [imitate] what is good. The one who practices good [exhibiting godly character, moral courage and personal integrity] is of God; the one who practices [or permits or tolerates] evil has not seen God [he has no personal experience with Him and does not know Him at all].  [1 John 3:6. ] ‡

everyone—and from the truth [the standard of God's word] itself; and we add our testimony and speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true. ‡

<sup>13</sup> I had many things [to say when I began] to write to you, but I prefer not to put it down with pen (reed) and black (ink); ‡

<sup>14</sup> but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face.  [Num 12:8 ]

Annotations for 3 John

2 may succeed and prosper and be in good health. John's greeting may imply that Gaius was physically weak though spiritually strong. More probably John is simply following the pattern of greetings common to Greek letters.

4 my [spiritual] children. This is a description Paul uses of those he has led to saving faith in Christ (1Co 4:14–17) and may indicate that Gaius was one of John's converts. It may also be a term John uses to describe those under his pastoral care as reflected in 1 John 2:1 , 12 ,18 ; 3:7 ,18 ; 4:4 ; 5:21 .

5–12 you are acting faithfully. In these verses, John affirms Gaius' responsibility to assist Demetrius despite the opposition of Diotrephes and his expulsion of those who receive traveling missionaries.

7 Gentiles. In this case the term refers to unbelievers, not to Gentile Christians. The majority of Christians in the churches of Asia Minor were Gentile converts rather than Jewish.

11 has not seen God. Our sin is a result of a faulty vision of God. Therefore, the Scriptures encourage us to look at Christ (2Co 3:18 ; 4:16–18 ; Heb 12:2–3 ), for the day when we see Him perfectly will be the day that we will be like Him (1Jn 3:2–3 ).

12 from the truth [the standard of God's word] itself. Demetrius' life measured up to the teaching of Scripture and Christ's commands. His conduct matched his theology.

The Letter of

Jude

- AUTHOR: In spite of its limited subject matter and size, Jude was accepted as authentic and quoted by early church fathers. It is unlikely that the author is the apostle Jude (Lk 6:16 ), but rather Jude the brother of Jesus and James (called Judas in Mt 13:55 and Mk 6:3 ). Because of the silence of the New Testament and tradition concerning Jude's later years, we cannot know where or when this epistle was written.
- TIMES: c. AD 66–80
- KEY VERSE: Jude 3
- THEME: Jude's letter is hard hitting, short, and right to the point. False teachers are on the loose in the church and Jude wants to make sure his readers understand the destructive implications of their teaching. He urges Christians to resist these false teachers and to defend the faith and the body of truth received from the apostles that they have come to know and believe. He finishes by reminding them of the hope they have in knowing Christ is coming again.

Jude 1

The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

To those who are the called (God's chosen ones, the elect), dearly loved by God the Father, and kept [secure and set apart] for Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup>- May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you [filling your heart with the spiritual well-being and serenity experienced by those who walk closely with God]. ‡

<sup>3</sup>- Beloved, while I was making every effort to write you about our common salvation, I was compelled to write to you [urgently] appealing that you fight strenuously for [the defense of] the faith which was once for all handed down to the saints [the faith that is the sum of Christian belief that was given verbally to believers]. ‡

<sup>4</sup>- For certain people have crept in unnoticed [just as if they were sneaking in by a side door]. They are ungodly persons whose condemnation was predicted long ago, for they distort the grace of our God into decadence and immoral freedom [viewing it as an opportunity to do whatever they want], and deny and disown our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. ‡

<sup>5</sup>- Now I want to remind you, although you are fully informed once for all, that the Lord, after saving a people out of the land of Egypt, subsequently destroyed those who did not believe [who refused to trust and obey and rely on Him].  [Num 14:27–37 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup>- And angels who did not keep their own designated place of power, but abandoned their proper dwelling place, [these] He has kept in eternal chains under [the thick gloom of utter] darkness for the judgment of the great day, ‡

<sup>7</sup> just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the adjacent cities, since they in the same way as these angels indulged in gross immoral freedom and unnatural vice and sensual perversity. They are exhibited [in plain sight] as an example in undergoing the punishment of everlasting fire.  [Gen 19:1–29 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup>- Nevertheless in the same way, these dreamers [who are dreaming that God will not punish them] also defile the body, and reject [legitimate] authority, and revile and mock angelic majesties. ‡

<sup>9</sup>- But even the archangel Michael, when he was disputing with the devil

(Satan), and arguing about the body of Moses, did not dare bring an abusive condemnation against him, but [simply] said, “The Lord rebuke you!”  [Deut 34:5, 6; Zech 3:2 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> But these men sneer at anything which they do not understand; and whatever they do know by [mere] instinct, like unreasoning and irrational beasts—by these things they are destroyed. ‡

11—Woe to them! For they have gone the [defiant] way of Cain, and for profit they have run headlong into the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of [mutinous] Korah.  [Gen 4:3–8; Num 16:22–24; 2 Pet 2:15 ] ‡

13—wild waves of the sea, flinging up their own shame like foam; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of deep darkness has been reserved forever. ‡

<sup>14</sup> It was about these people that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, when he said, “Look, the Lord came with myriads of His holy ones ‡

15—to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all the ungodly deeds they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh and cruel things ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.” ‡

Keep Yourselves in the Love of God

<sup>17</sup> But as for you, beloved, remember the [prophetic] words spoken by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. ‡

18—They used to say to you, “In the last days there will be scoffers, following after their own ungodly passions.”  [2 Pet 3:3, 4 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> But you, beloved, build yourselves up on [the foundation of] your most holy faith [continually progress, rise like an edifice higher and higher], pray in the Holy Spirit, ‡

<sup>21</sup> and keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting anxiously and looking forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ [which will bring you] to eternal life. ‡

22. And have mercy on some, who are doubting;

<sup>23</sup> save others, snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy but with fear, loathing even the clothing spotted and polluted by their shameless immoral freedom.  [Amos 4:11; Zech 3:2–4 ] ‡

24. Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling or falling into sin, and to present you unblemished [blameless and faultless] in the presence of His glory with triumphant joy and unspeakable delight, ‡

<sup>25</sup> to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and power, before all time and now and forever. Amen. ‡

Annotations for Jude

2 peace. This is the state of a person who rests in God completely for salvation and protection.

3 common salvation. Jude intended to write a more general doctrinal letter, but the present crisis demanded this short, pointed attack on doctrinal error.

4 distort the grace of our God into decadence and immoral freedom. The teaching of grace can be dangerous when perverted by false teachers or carnal people who believe that because they have been saved by grace they may live as they please (Ro 6:1–2 ).

5 destroyed those who did not believe. The Israelites of the exodus had a magnificent beginning in Egypt but a disastrous ending in the wilderness. That we have begun with the Lord does not mean that we will have the glorious conclusion we might have envisioned at the beginning of our salvation journey. The false believers who had infiltrated God's people would be judged, just like the false believers who rejected God in the wilderness (Nu 25:1–9 ).

6 angels. These are not holy angels of God. Instead these angels could be those who had previously fallen with Satan. Some think that these angels are “the sons of God” of Genesis 6:2 , who took on human form and married women before the flood.

8 reject [legitimate] authority. The false teachers even despised those who were placed in positions of authority in local congregations. They not only preferred error to truth but also demeaned and rejected those who taught the truth.

9 arguing about the body of Moses. Jude’s description here is probably taken from an apocryphal book called The Assumption of Moses , written in the first century AD. There is no record in the Bible itself of the archangel’s encounter with Satan, or a detailed account of Moses’ body.

11 For they have gone the [defiant] way of Cain. The heretics are compared to three Old Testament failures. Cain did not place his faith in the Lord. The “way of Cain” is the way of pride and self-righteousness (Ge 4:3–8 ; Heb 11:4 ; 1Jn 3:12 ). Balaam. He was the epitome of the sin of greed (Nu 31:16 ). Korah. This was the Levite Korah (Nu 16:1–3 ; 31–35 ) who resented the prominent positions of Moses and Aaron as God’s representatives. The Lord brought judgment on him and his followers for rebelling against those He had placed in authority.

13 wild waves . . . flinging . . . wandering stars. These godless people put on a great show but lacked any substance. They boasted of liberty but placed the people of God in bondage to sin (2Pe 2:19 ). After they had done their evil deeds and made their profits, they, like wandering stars, moved on to other places to exploit God’s people again.

15 ungodly. This word is repeated four times, making the verse one of the most striking in the letter. In view of the wicked nature of evil persons, how could the church allow them to stay in their midst?

18 there will be scoffers. One of the main tactics that the false teachers used to gain credibility was to tear down godly leaders.

22–23 have mercy on some. We have certain obligations to other believers. First, we need to show compassion to those in any kind of spiritual or physical need. Second, we need to use discernment in helping our brothers and sisters in the church. Some will require tender care and patience to help them grow in Christ. With others we may need to use drastic action to rescue them from the temptations of sin. loathing even the clothing spotted and polluted by their shameless immoral freedom. This is a metaphor for staying wary of sin—as Paul says, “keeping a watchful eye on yourself, so that you are not tempted as well” (Gal 6:1 ).

24 unblemished. This is a Greek word used of sacrificial animals that had no blemish and thus were fit to be offered to God. Only God can save us, cleanse us from our sins, and present us to Himself as faultless, for God is the Author and Finisher of our faith (Heb 12:2 ).

The
Revelation
to John

- AUTHOR: The style, symmetry, and plan of Revelation show that it was written by one author, four times named “John” (Rev 1:1 , 4 ,9 ; 22:8 ). Because of its contents and its address to seven churches, Revelation quickly circulated and became widely known and accepted in the early church. From the beginning, Revelation was considered an authentic work of the apostle John, the same John who wrote the Gospel and Epistles. Revelation was written at a time when Roman hostility to Christianity was erupting into overt persecution. It is likely that John wrote this book in AD 95 or 96 when the severe persecution of Christians began under the emperor Domitian.
- TIMES: c. AD 95–96
- KEY VERSES: Rev 19:11–15
- THEME: John wrote this book late in his life while in exile on the island of Patmos off the coast of Asia. It is safe to say that no book of the Bible has generated more theories of interpretation over the last two millennia. In this context, probably one of the best approaches to interpreting and understanding Revelation is to concentrate on the major themes, such as worship. When the reader does that, one finds great comfort and assurance in the book. Many scholars think the purpose of the book is to provide comfort in the midst of persecution and difficult times, as the form of the book is in the tradition of Jewish apocalyptic literature that is designed to communicate hope through symbolic imagery.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup> THIS IS the revelation of Jesus Christ [His unveiling of the divine mysteries], which God [the Father] gave to Him to show to His bond-servants (believers) the things which must soon take place [in their entirety]; and He sent and communicated it by His angel (divine messenger) to His bond-servant John,‡

<sup>2</sup> who testified and gave supporting evidence to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to everything that he saw [in his visions].‡

<sup>3</sup>-Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and who keep the things which are written in it [heeding them and taking them to heart]; for the time [of fulfillment] is near.‡

Message to the Seven Churches

<sup>4</sup> John, to the seven churches that are in [the province of] Asia: Grace [be granted] to you and peace [inner calm and spiritual well-being], from Him Who is [existing forever] and Who was [continually existing in the past] and Who is to come, and from the seven Spirits that are before His throne, [Is 11:2]‡

<sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ, the faithful and trustworthy Witness, the Firstborn of the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who [always] loves us and who [has once for all] freed us [or washed us] from our sins by His own blood (His sacrificial death)— [Ps 89:27]‡

<sup>6</sup> and formed us into a kingdom [as His subjects], priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the power and the majesty and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. [Ex 19:6; Is 61:6]‡

<sup>7</sup> B EHOLD , H E IS COMING WITH THE CLOUDS , and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes (nations) of the earth will mourn over Him [realizing their sin and guilt, and anticipating the coming wrath]. So it is to be. Amen. [Dan 7:13; Zech 12:10]‡

<sup>8</sup>“I am the Alpha and the Omega [the Beginning and the End],” says the Lord God, “Who is [existing forever] and Who was [continually existing in the past] and Who is to come, the Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all].”  [Is 9:6. ] ‡

The Patmos Vision

9 I, John, your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patient endurance which are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos, [exiled there] because of [my preaching of] the word of God [regarding eternal salvation] and the testimony of Jesus Christ. ‡

10 I was in the Spirit [in special communication with the Holy Spirit and empowered to receive and record the revelation from Jesus Christ] on the Lord’s Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like the sound of a trumpet, ‡

11 saying, “Write on a scroll what you see [in this revelation], and send it to the seven churches—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.” ‡

12 Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And after turning I saw seven golden lampstands; ‡

13 and in the midst of the lampstands I saw someone like the Son of Man, dressed in a robe reaching to His feet, and with a golden sash wrapped around His chest.  [Dan 7:13; 10:5. ] ‡

14 His head and His hair were white like white wool, [glistening white] like snow; and His [all-seeing] eyes were [flashing] like a flame of fire [piercing into my being].  [Dan 7:9. ] ‡

15 His feet were like burnished [white-hot] bronze, refined in a furnace, and His voice was [powerful] like the sound of many waters.  [Dan 10:6. ] ‡

16 In His right hand He held seven stars, and from His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword [of judgment]; and His face [reflecting His majesty and the Shekinah glory] was like the sun shining in [all] its power [at midday].  [Ex 34:29. ] ‡

17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet as though dead. And He placed His right hand on me and said, “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last [absolute Deity, the Son of God],  [Is 44:6. ] ‡

18 and the Ever-living One [living in and beyond all time and space]. I died, but see, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of [absolute control and victory over] death and of Hades (the realm of the dead). ‡

19 “So write the things which you have seen [in the vision], and the things which are [now happening], and the things which will take place after these things. ‡

20“As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels (divine messengers) of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches. ‡

Message to Ephesus

1 “TO THE angel (divine messenger) of the church in Ephesus write: ‡

“T hese are the words of the One who holds [firmly] the seven stars [which are the angels or messengers of the seven churches] in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands (the seven churches):

2 ‘I know your deeds and your toil, and your patient endurance, and that you cannot tolerate those who are evil, and have tested and critically appraised those who call themselves apostles (special messengers, personally chosen representatives, of Christ), and [in fact] are not, and have found them to be liars and impostors; ‡

3 and [I know that] you [who believe] are enduring patiently and are bearing up for My name’s sake, and that you have not grown weary [of being faithful to the truth]. ‡

4 ‘But I have this [charge] against you, that you have left your first love [you have lost the depth of love that you first had for Me].

5.‘So remember the heights from which you have fallen, and repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, your sinful behavior—seek God’s will] and do the works you did at first [when you first knew Me]; otherwise, I will visit you and remove your lampstand (the church, its impact) from its place—unless you repent. ‡

6.‘Yet you have this [to your credit], that you hate the works and corrupt teachings of the Nicolaitans [that mislead and delude the people], which I also hate.

7.‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], I will grant [the privilege] to eat [the fruit] from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.’  [Gen 2:9 ; 3:24 ; 1 John 5:5 ] ‡

Message to Smyrna

8 “And to the angel (divine messenger) of the church in Smyrna write: ‡

“ These are the words of the First and the Last [absolute Deity, the Son of God] who died and came to life [again]:  [Is 44:6 ]

9 ‘I know your suffering and your poverty (but you are rich), and how you are blasphemed and slandered by those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan [they are Jews only by blood, and do not believe and truly honor the God whom they claim to worship]. ‡

10 ‘Fear nothing that you are about to suffer. Be aware that the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested [in your faith], and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful to the point of death [if you must die for your faith], and I will give you the crown [consisting] of life.  [Rev 3:10, 11 ] ‡

11 ‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God] will not be hurt by the second death (the lake of fire).’  [1 John 5:5; Rev 20:14 ] ‡

Message to Pergamum

12 “And to the angel (divine messenger) of the church in Pergamum write: ‡

“ These are the words of Him who has and wields the sharp two-edged sword [in judgment]:

13 ‘I know where you dwell, [a place] where Satan sits enthroned. Yet you are holding fast to My name, and you did not deny My faith even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed (martyred) among you, where Satan dwells.

14 ‘But I have a few things against you, because you have there some [among you] who are holding to the [corrupt] teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, [enticing them] to eat things that had been sacrificed to idols and to commit [acts of sexual] immorality.  [Num 25:1, 2; 31:16 ] ‡

15 ‘You also have some who in the same way are holding to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

16 ‘Therefore repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, your sinful behavior—seek God’s will]; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war and fight against them with the sword of My mouth [in judgment]. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], to him I will give [the privilege of eating] some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone with a new name engraved on the stone which no one knows except the one who receives it.’  [Ps 78:24; Is 62:2; 1 John 5:5 ] ‡

Message to Thyatira

“ These are the words of the Son of God, who has eyes [that flash] like a flame of fire [in righteous judgment], and whose feet are like burnished [white-hot] bronze:  [Dan 10:6 ]

<sup>19</sup> ‘I know your deeds, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your last deeds are more numerous and greater than the first. ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘But I have this [charge] against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess [claiming to be inspired], and she teaches and misleads My bond-servants so that they commit [acts of sexual] immorality and eat food sacrificed to idols.  [1 Kin 16:31; 2 Kin 9:22, 30 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘I gave her time to repent [to change her inner self and her sinful way of thinking], but she has no desire to repent of her immorality and refuses to do so. ‡

<sup>23</sup> ‘And I will kill her children (followers) with pestilence [thoroughly annihilating them], and all the churches will know [without any doubt] that I am He who searches the minds and hearts [the innermost thoughts, purposes]; and I will give to each one of you [a reward or punishment] according to your deeds.  [Ps 62:12; Jer 17:10 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> ‘But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not explored and known the depths of Satan, as they call them—I place no other burden on you, ‡

<sup>26</sup> ‘And he who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God] and he who keeps My deeds [doing things that please Me] until the [very] end, TO HIM I WILL GIVE AUTHORITY and POWER OVER THE NATIONS ; [

1 John 5:5] ‡

<sup>27</sup> AND HE SHALL SHEPHERD and RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON , AS THE EARTH POTS ARE BROKEN IN PIECES , as I also have received authority [and power to rule them] from My Father;  [Ps 2:8 , 9 ] ‡

<sup>28</sup> and I will give him the Morning Star. ‡

<sup>29</sup> ‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.’ ‡

Revelation 3

Message to Sardis

“ T hese are the words of Him who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: ‘I know your deeds; you have a name (reputation) that you are alive, but [in reality] you are dead.

<sup>2</sup> ‘Wake up, and strengthen and reaffirm what remains [of your faithful commitment to Me], which is about to die; for I have not found [any of] your deeds completed in the sight of My God or meeting His requirements.

<sup>3</sup> ‘So remember and take to heart the lessons you have received and heard. Keep and obey them, and repent [change your sinful way of thinking, and demonstrate your repentance with new behavior that proves a conscious decision to turn away from sin]. So then, if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you. ‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘But you [still] have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes [that is, contaminated their character and personal integrity with sin]; and they will walk with Me [dressed] in white, because they are worthy (righteous). ‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God] will accordingly be dressed in white clothing; and I will never blot out his name from the Book of Life, and I will confess and openly acknowledge his name before My Father and before His angels [saying that he is one of Mine].  [Ps 69:28 ; Dan 12:1 ; Matt 10:32 ; 1 John 5:5 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> ‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.’ ‡

Message to Philadelphia

“ These are the words of the Holy One, the True One, He who has the key [to the house] of David, He who opens and no one will [be able to] shut, and He who shuts and no one opens:  [Is 22:22 ]

<sup>8</sup>‘I know your deeds. See, I have set before you an open door which no one is able to shut, for you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not renounced or denied My name.  [1 Cor 16:9; Col 4:3, 4 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup>‘Take note, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie—I will make them come and bow down at your feet and make them know [without any doubt] that I have loved you.  [Is 45:14; 49:23; 60:14 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup>‘Because you have kept the word of My endurance [My command to persevere], I will keep you [safe] from the hour of trial, that hour which is about to come on the whole [inhabited] world, to test those who live on the earth.  [Mark 13:9; 2 Thess 2:1–12 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup>‘I am coming quickly. Hold tight what you have, so that no one will take your crown [by leading you to renounce the faith]. ‡

<sup>12</sup>‘He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God; he will most certainly never be put out of it, and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem, which descends out of heaven from My God, and My [own] new name.  [Is 62:2; Ezek 48:35; 1 John 5:5 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup>‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.’ ‡

Message to Laodicea

“ These are the words of the Amen, the trusted and faithful and true Witness the Beginning and Origin of God’s creation:

<sup>15</sup>‘I know your deeds, that you are neither cold (invigorating, refreshing) nor hot (healing, therapeutic); I wish that you were cold or hot. ‡

<sup>16</sup>‘So because you are lukewarm (spiritually useless), and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of My mouth [rejecting you with disgust].

<sup>17</sup>‘Because you say, “I am rich, and have prospered and grown wealthy, and have need of nothing,” and you do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked [without hope and in great need],  [Hos 12:8] ‡

<sup>18</sup> I counsel you to buy from Me gold that has been heated red hot and refined by fire so that you may become truly rich; and white clothes [representing righteousness] to clothe yourself so that the shame of your nakedness will not be seen; and healing salve to put on your eyes so that you may see. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘Those whom I [dearly and tenderly] love, I rebuke and discipline [showing them their faults and instructing them]; so be enthusiastic and repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, your sinful behavior—seek God’s will].  [Prov 3:11, 12; Heb 5:8; 12:5–7] ‡

<sup>20</sup> ‘Behold, I stand at the door [of the church] and continually knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him (restore him), and he with Me. ‡

<sup>21</sup> ‘He who overcomes [the world through believing that Jesus is the Son of God], I will grant to him [the privilege] to sit beside Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down beside My Father on His throne.  [1 John 5:5] ‡

<sup>22</sup> ‘He who has an ear, let him hear and heed what the Spirit says to the churches.’ ” ‡

Revelation 4

Scene in Heaven

<sup>1</sup> AFTER THIS I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice which I had heard, like the sound of a [war] trumpet speaking with me, said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> At once I was in [special communication with] the Spirit; and behold, a throne stood in heaven, with One seated on the throne.  [Ezek 1:26] ‡

<sup>3</sup> And He who sat there appeared like [the crystalline sparkle of] a jasper stone and [the fiery redness of] a sardius stone, and encircling the throne there was a rainbow that looked like [the color of an] emerald.  [Ezek 1:28; Rev 21:11, 19] ‡

<sup>4</sup>-Twenty-four [other] thrones surrounded the throne; and seated on these thrones were twenty-four elders dressed in white clothing, with crowns of gold on their heads.‡

The Throne and Worship of the Creator

<sup>5</sup> From the throne came flashes of lightning and [rumbling] sounds and peals of thunder. Seven lamps of fire were burning in front of the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; [Ex 19:16–20a] ‡

<sup>6</sup> and in front of the throne there was something like a sea or large expanse of glass, like [the clearest] crystal. In the center and around the throne were four living creatures who were full of eyes in front and behind [seeing everything and knowing everything that is around them]. [Ps 99:1; Is 6:2, 3; Ezek 1:5, 1] ‡

<sup>8</sup> And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes all over and within [underneath their wings]; and day and night they never stop saying,‡

“H OLY , HOLY , HOLY [is the] LORD G OD , THE A LMIGHTY [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all], WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME [the unchanging, eternal God].” [Is 6:1–3; Rev 1:4]

<sup>9</sup> Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever, [Ps 47:8] ‡

<sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and they worship Him who lives forever and ever; and they throw down their crowns before the throne, saying,‡

<sup>11</sup> “Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power; for You created all things, and because of Your will they exist, and were created and brought into being.” [Ps 19:1] ‡

The Scroll with Seven Seals

<sup>1</sup> I SAW in the right hand of Him who was seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, closed and sealed with seven seals.  [Is 29:11 ; Ezek 2:9 , 10 ; Dan 12:4 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> And I saw a strong angel announcing with a loud voice, “Who is worthy [having the authority and virtue] to open the scroll and to break its seals?”

<sup>3</sup> And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth [in Hades, the realm of the dead] was able to open the scroll or look into it.

<sup>4</sup> And I began to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or look into it.

<sup>5</sup>-Then one of the [twenty-four] elders said to me, “Stop weeping! Look closely, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome and conquered! He can open the scroll and [break] its seven seals.”  [Gen 49:9 , 10 ; Is 11:1 , 10 ; Rev 22:16 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> And there between the throne (with the four living creatures) and among the elders I saw a Lamb (Christ) standing, [bearing scars and wounds] as though it had been slain, with seven horns (complete power) and with seven eyes (complete knowledge), which are the seven Spirits of God who have been sent [on duty] into all the earth.  [Is 53:7 ; Zech 3:8 , 9 ; 4:10 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> And He came and took the scroll from the right hand of Him who sat on the throne. ‡

<sup>8</sup> And when He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb (Christ), each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of fragrant incense, which are the prayers of the saints (God’s people). ‡

“Worthy and deserving are You to take the scroll and to break its seals; for You were slain (sacrificed), and with Your blood You purchased people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.  [Ps 33:3 ]

<sup>10</sup> “You have made them to be a kingdom [of royal subjects] and priests to our God; and they will reign on the earth.”  [Ex 19:6 ; Is 61:6 ; Rev 20:6 ] ‡

Angels Exalt the Lamb

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and [the voice] of the living creatures and the elders; and they numbered myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands (innumerable),  [Dan 7:10. ] ‡

“Worthy and deserving is the Lamb that was sacrificed to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing.”

<sup>13</sup> And I heard every created thing that is in heaven or on earth or under the earth [in Hades, the realm of the dead] or on the sea, and everything that is in them, saying [together], ‡

“To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb (Christ), be blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever.”  [Dan 7:13., 14. ]

<sup>14</sup> And the four living creatures kept saying, “Amen.” And the elders fell down and worshiped [Him who lives forever and ever]. ‡

Revelation 6

The First Seal—The Conqueror

<sup>2-</sup>I looked, and behold, a white horse [of victory] whose rider carried a bow; and a crown [of victory] was given to him, and he rode forth conquering and to conquer.  [Ps 45:4., 5.; Zech 1:8.; 6:1–8. ] ‡

The Second Seal—War

<sup>3</sup> When He (the Lamb) broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature call out, “Come.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> And another, a fiery red horse [of bloodshed], came out; and its rider was empowered to take peace from the earth, so that men would slaughter one another; and a great sword [of war and violent death] was given to him.  [Zech

1:8 ; 6:1–8 ] ‡

The Third Seal—Famine

<sup>5</sup> When He (the Lamb) broke open the third seal, I heard the third living creature call out, “Come.” I looked, and behold, a black horse [of famine]; and the rider had in his hand a pair of scales (a balance).  [Zech 6:1–8 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> And I heard something like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a denarius (a day’s wages), and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not damage the oil and the wine.”  [2 Kin 6:25 ] ‡

The Fourth Seal—Death

<sup>7</sup> When He (the Lamb) broke open the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature call out, “Come.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> So I looked, and behold, an ashen (pale greenish gray) horse [like a corpse, representing death and pestilence]; and its rider’s name was Death; and Hades (the realm of the dead) was following with him. They were given authority and power over a fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword and with famine and with plague (pestilence, disease) and by the wild beasts of the earth.  [Ezek 14:21 ; Hos 13:14 ] ‡

The Fifth Seal—Martyrs

<sup>9</sup> When He (the Lamb) broke open the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained [out of loyalty to Christ]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> They cried in a loud voice, saying, “O Lord, holy and true, how long now before You will sit in judgment and avenge our blood on those [unregenerate ones] who dwell on the earth?”  [Gen 4:10 ; Ps 79:10 ; 94:3 ; Zech 1:12 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then they were each given a white robe; and they were told to rest and wait quietly for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers and sisters who were to be killed even as they had been, would be completed. ‡

The Sixth Seal—Terror

12. I looked when He (the Lamb) broke open the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth [made] of hair, and the whole moon became like blood;  [Joel 2:10, 31 ] ‡

13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree shedding its late [summer] figs when shaken by a strong wind.  [Is 34:4 ] ‡

14. The sky was split [separated from the land] and rolled up like a scroll, and every mountain and island were dislodged and moved out of their places. ‡

15 Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the military commanders and the wealthy and the strong and everyone, [whether] slave or free, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains; ‡

16 and they called to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne, and from the [righteous] wrath and indignation of the Lamb;  [Is 2:19–21; Hos 10:8 ] ‡

17. for the great day of their wrath and vengeance and retribution has come, and who is able to [face God and] stand [before the wrath of the Lamb]?”  [Joel 2:11; Mal 3:2; Jude 14; Rev 19:11–16 ] ‡

An Interlude

1 AFTER THIS I saw four angels stationed at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.  [Zech 6:5 ] ‡

2 Then I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, holding the seal of the living God; and with a loud voice he called out to the four angels to whom it was granted [to have authority and power] to harm the earth and the sea,

3-saying, “Do not harm the earth nor the sea nor the trees until we seal (mark) the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads.”  [Ezek 9:4 ] ‡

The 144,000

4. And I heard how many were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand; [twelve thousand] sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: ‡

5—Twelve thousand were sealed from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand from the tribe of Gad,

<sup>6</sup> twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand from the tribe of Manasseh,

<sup>7</sup> twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand from the tribe of Issachar,

<sup>8</sup> twelve thousand from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph, and twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed (marked, redeemed, protected).

A Multitude from the Tribulation

“S alvation [belongs] to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb [our salvation is the Trinity’s to give, and to God the Trinity we owe our deliverance].”

<sup>11</sup> And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the [twenty-four] elders and the four living creatures; and they fell to their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ‡

“A men! Blessing and glory and majesty and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen.”

<sup>13</sup> Then one of the elders responded, saying to me, “These who are dressed in the long white robes—who are they, and from where did they come?” ‡

<sup>14</sup> I said to him, “My lord, you know [the answer].” And he said to me, “These are the people who come out of the great tribulation (persecution), and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb [because of His atoning sacrifice].  [Gen 49:11 ; Dan 12:1 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “For this reason, they are [standing] before the throne of God; and they serve Him [in worship] day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them and shelter and protect them [with

His presence].  [Rev 21:3 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> “They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any [scorching] heat;  [Is 49:10 ; Ps 121:6 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> for the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will be their Shepherd, and He will guide them to springs of the waters of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes [giving them eternal comfort].”  [Ps 23:2 ; Is 25:8 ; Ezek 34:23 ; Rev 21:4 ] ‡

Revelation 8

The Seventh Seal—the Trumpets

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Another angel came and stood at the altar. He had a golden censer, and much incense was given to him, so that he might add it to the prayers of all the saints (God’s people) on the golden altar in front of the throne.  [Ps 141:2 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> And the smoke and fragrant aroma of the incense, with the prayers of the saints (God’s people), ascended before God from the angel’s hand. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it to the earth; and there were peals of thunder and loud rumblings and sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake.  [Lev 16:12 ; Ezek 10:2 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them [initiating the judgments].

<sup>7</sup> The first [angel] sounded [his trumpet], and there was [a storm of] hail and fire, mixed with blood, and it was hurled to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.  [Ex 9:13–35 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> and a third of the living creatures that were in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed. ‡

10 The third angel sounded [his trumpet], and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch [flashing across the sky], and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of [fresh] waters. ‡

11 The name of the star is Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters, because they had become bitter (toxic). ‡

12 Then the fourth angel sounded [his trumpet], and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and a third of the daylight would not shine, and the night in the same way [would not shine].  [Ex 10:21–23. ] ‡

13 Then I looked, and I heard a solitary eagle flying in midheaven [for all to see], saying with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe [great wrath is coming] to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpets which the three angels are about to sound [announcing ever greater judgments]!” ‡

The Fifth Trumpet—the Bottomless Pit

1 THEN THE fifth angel sounded [his trumpet], and I saw a star (angelic being) that had fallen from heaven to the earth; and the key of the bottomless pit (abyss) was given to him (the star-angel).  [Rev 20:1 ] ‡

2 He opened the bottomless pit, and smoke like the smoke of a great furnace flowed out of the pit; and the sun and the atmosphere were darkened by the smoke from the pit.  [Gen 19:28 ; Ex 19:18 ; Joel 2:10 ]

3 Then out of the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power [to hurt] was given to them, like the power which the earth's scorpions have.  [Ex 10:12–15. ] ‡

4 They were told not to hurt the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but [to hurt] only the people who do not have the seal (mark of ownership, protection) of God on their foreheads.  [Ezek 9:4. ] ‡

5 They were not permitted to kill anyone, but to torment and cause them extreme pain for five months; and their torment was like the torment from a scorpion when it stings a man. ‡

6 And in those days people will seek death and will not find it; and they will long to die [to escape the pain], but [will discover that] death evades them. [

Job 3:21] ‡

<sup>8</sup> They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions.  [Joel 1:6] ‡

<sup>9</sup> They had breastplates (scales) like breastplates made of iron; and the [whirring] noise of their wings was like the [thunderous] noise of countless horse-drawn chariots charging [at full speed] into battle.  [Joel 2:5] ‡

<sup>10</sup> They have tails like scorpions, and stingers; and in their tails is their power to hurt people for five months.  [Joel 2:6] ‡

<sup>12</sup> The first woe has passed; behold, two woes are still coming after these things. ‡

The Sixth Trumpet—Army from the East

<sup>14</sup> saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> So the four angels, who had been prepared for the [appointed] hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind.

<sup>16</sup> The number of the troops of cavalry was twice ten thousand times ten thousand (two hundred million); I heard the number of them. ‡

<sup>17</sup> And this is how I saw the horses and their riders in my vision: the riders had breastplates [the color] of fire and of hyacinth (sapphire blue) and of brimstone (yellow); and the heads of the horses looked like the heads of lions; and from out of their mouths came fire and smoke and brimstone (burning sulfur). ‡

<sup>18</sup> A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone that came from the mouths of the horses.

<sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses [to do harm] is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and it is with them that they do harm. ‡

<sup>20</sup> The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent even then of the works of their hands, so as to cease worshiping and paying homage to the demons and the idols of gold and of silver and of bronze and of stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk;  [Ps 115:4–7 ; 135:15–17 ; Is 17:8 ] ‡

The Angel and the Little Book

<sup>3</sup> and he shouted with a loud voice, like the roaring of a lion [compelling attention and inspiring awe]; and when he had shouted out, the seven peals of thunder spoke with their own voices [uttering their message in distinct words].  [Ps 29 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> And when the seven peals of thunder had spoken, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken and do not write them down.”  [2 Cor 12:4 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel whom I had seen standing on the sea and the land raised his right hand [to swear an oath] to heaven,  [Deut 32:40 ; Dan 12:6 , 7 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> and swore [an oath] by [the name of] Him who lives forever and ever, WHO CREATED HEAVEN AND THE THINGS IN IT , AND THE EARTH AND THE THINGS IN IT , AND THE SEA AND THE THINGS IN IT , that there will be delay no longer,  [Neh 9:6 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> but when it is time for the trumpet call of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God [that is, His hidden purpose and plan] is finished, as He announced the gospel to His servants the prophets.  [Dan 12:6 ; Rom 11:25 ; 1 Cor 15:55 ; 2 Thess 2:7 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard again speaking to me, and saying, “Go, take the book (scroll) which is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So I went up to the angel and told him to give me the little book. And he said to me, “Take it and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.”  [Ezek 2:8, 9; 3:1–3. ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> So I took the little book from the angel’s hand and ate it, and in my mouth it was as sweet as honey; but once I had swallowed it, my stomach was bitter.  [Ps 119:103; Jer 15; 16. ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then they said to me, “You must prophesy again concerning many peoples and nations and languages and kings.”  [Jer 1:10. ]

Revelation 11

The Two Witnesses

<sup>1</sup> THEN THERE was given to me a measuring rod like a staff; and someone said, “Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar [of incense], and [count] those who worship in it.  [Ezek 40–42 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> “But leave out the court [of the Gentiles] which is outside the temple and do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles (the nations); and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months (three and one-half years).  [Dan 8:9–14; Zech 12:3; Luke 21:24. ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> “And I will grant authority to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for twelve hundred and sixty days (forty-two months; three and one-half years), dressed in sackcloth.”  [Deut 18:18; Mal 4:5; Mark 9:4. ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> These [witnesses] are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the Lord of the earth.  [Zech 4:3, 11–14. ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> And if anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies; so if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way.  [2 Kin 1:10–12; Jer 5:14. ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> These [two witnesses] have the power [from God] to shut up the sky, so that no rain will fall during the days of their prophesying [regarding judgment and salvation]; and they have power over the waters (seas, rivers) to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every [kind of] plague, as often as they wish.  [Ex 7:14–19; 1 Kin 17:1. ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> When they have finished their testimony and given their evidence, the beast that comes up out of the abyss (bottomless pit) will wage war with them, and overcome them and kill them.  [Dan 7:3, 7, 21. ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> And their dead bodies will lie exposed in the open street of the great city

(Jerusalem), which in a spiritual sense is called [by the symbolic and allegorical names of] Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.  [Is 1:9 ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> Those from the peoples and tribes and languages and nations look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. ‡

<sup>10</sup> And those [non-believers] who live on the earth will gloat over them and rejoice; and they will send gifts [in celebration] to one another, because these two prophets tormented and troubled those who live on the earth. ‡

<sup>11</sup> But after three and a half days, the breath of life from God came into them, and they stood on their feet; and great fear and panic fell on those who were watching them.  [Ezek 37:5, 10 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> And the two witnesses heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” Then they ascended into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them.  [2 Kin 2:11 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> And in that [very] hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell and was destroyed; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest [who survived] were overcome with terror, and they glorified the God of heaven [as they recognized His awesome power]. ‡

<sup>14</sup> The second woe is past; behold, the third woe is coming quickly. ‡

The Seventh Trumpet—Christ’s Reign Foreseen

<sup>15</sup> Then the seventh angel sounded [his trumpet]; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, ‡

“The kingdom (dominion, rule) of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever.”  [Ps 22:28; Dan 2:31–45; 7:13, 14, 27; Zech 14:9.]

“To You we give thanks, O Lord God Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all], Who are and Who were, because You have taken Your great power and the sovereignty [which is rightly Yours] and have [now] begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup> “And the nations (Gentiles) became enraged, and Your wrath and indignation came, and the time came for the dead to be judged, and [the time came] to reward Your bond-servants the prophets and the saints (God’s people) and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and [the time came] to destroy the destroyers of the earth.”  [Ps 2:1; 2 Thess 1:3–12] ‡

19 And the temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple, and there were flashes of lightning, loud rumblings and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm.  [1 Kin 8:1–12] ‡

Revelation 12

The Woman, Israel

1 AND A great sign [warning of an ominous and frightening future event] appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

2 She was with child (the Messiah) and she cried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth.  [Rom 9:4, 5] ‡

The Red Dragon, Satan

3 Then another sign [of warning] was seen in heaven: behold, a great fiery red dragon (Satan) with seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads were seven royal crowns (diadems).  [Dan 7:7] ‡

4 And his tail swept [across the sky] and dragged away a third of the stars of heaven and flung them to the earth. And the dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child.  [Dan 8:10; Rev 12:9] ‡

The Male Child, Christ

5 And she gave birth to a Son, a male Child, who is destined to rule (shepherd) all the nations with a rod of iron; and her Child was caught up to God and to His throne.  [Ps 2:8, 9; 110:1, 2] ‡

6. Then the woman fled into the wilderness where she had a place prepared by God, so that she would be nourished there for a thousand two hundred and sixty days (forty-two months; three and one-half years). ‡

The Angel, Michael

<sup>7</sup> And war broke out in heaven, Michael [the archangel] and his angels waging war with the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought, ‡

<sup>8</sup> but they were not strong enough and did not prevail, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven.  [2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6 ]

<sup>9</sup> And the great dragon was thrown down, the age-old serpent who is called the devil and Satan, he who continually deceives and seduces the entire inhabited world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.  [Gen 3:1, 14, 15; Zech 3:1; John 13:2; 2 Cor 11:3; Rev 20:8] ‡

“Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom (dominion, reign) of our God, and the authority of His Christ have come; for the accuser of our [believing] brothers and sisters has been thrown down [at last], he who accuses them and keeps bringing charges [of sinful behavior] against them before our God day and night.  [Job 1:6–11 ]

<sup>11</sup> “And they overcame and conquered him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, for they did not love their life and renounce their faith even when faced with death.  [Zech 3:1–10; Rom 8:33, 34] ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Therefore rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them [in the presence of God]. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you in great wrath, knowing that he has only a short time [remaining]!”  [Is 44:23; 49:13] ‡

<sup>13</sup> And when the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who had given birth to the male Child. ‡

<sup>14</sup> But the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she could fly into the wilderness to her place, where she was nourished for a time and times and half a time (three and one-half years), away from the presence of the serpent (Satan).  [Ex 19:4; Deut 32:10, 11; Is 40:31; Dan 7:25; 12:7] ‡

<sup>15</sup> And the serpent hurled water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood. ‡

<sup>16</sup> But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon had hurled out of his mouth.  [Ex 15:12] ‡

<sup>17</sup> So the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went off to wage war on the rest of her children (seed), those who keep and obey the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus [holding firmly to it and bearing witness to Him]. ‡

Revelation 13

The Beast from the Sea

1 AND THE dragon (Satan) stood on the sandy shore of the sea. [Dan 7:7] ‡

T hen I saw a [vicious] beast coming up out of the sea with ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns were ten royal crowns (diadems), and on his heads were blasphemous names.

2 And the beast that I saw resembled a leopard, but his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth was like that of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority. ‡

3. I saw one of his heads which seemed to have a fatal wound, but his fatal wound was healed; and the entire earth followed after the beast in amazement. ‡

4. They fell down and worshiped the dragon because he gave his authority to the beast; they also worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like (as great as) the beast, and who is able to wage war against him?” ‡

5. And the beast was given a mouth (the power of speech), uttering great things and arrogant and blasphemous words, and he was given freedom and authority to act and to do as he pleased for forty-two months (three and a half years). [Dan 7:8] ‡

6 And he opened his mouth to speak blasphemies (abusive speech, slander) against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, and those who live in heaven. ‡

7 He was also permitted to wage war against the saints (God’s people) and to overcome them, and authority and power over every tribe and people and language and nation. [Dan 7:21, 25.] ‡

8 All the inhabitants of the earth will fall down and worship him, everyone whose name has not been written since the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who has been slain [as a willing sacrifice]. ‡

9. If anyone has an ear, let him hear. ‡

10 If anyone is destined for captivity, he will go into captivity; if anyone kills with a sword, he must be killed with a sword. Here is [the call for] the patient endurance and the faithfulness of the saints [which is seen in the response of God’s people to difficult times]. [Jer 15:2.] ‡

The Beast from the Earth

11. Then I saw another beast rising up out of the earth; he had two horns like a lamb and he spoke like a dragon.  [Matt 7:15, 16. ] ‡

12. He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence [when the two are together]. And he makes the earth and those who inhabit it worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. ‡

13 He performs great signs (awe-inspiring acts), even making fire fall from the sky to the earth, right before peoples' eyes. ‡

14 And he deceives those [unconverted ones] who inhabit the earth [into believing him] because of the signs which he is given [by Satan] to perform in the presence of the [first] beast, telling those who inhabit the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded [fatally] by the sword and has come back to life.  [Deut 13:1–5; Mark 13:22; 2 Thess 2:9, 10. ] ‡

15 And he is given power to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast will even [appear to] speak, and cause those who do not bow down and worship the image of the beast to be put to death.  [Dan 3:5 ] ‡

16. Also he compels all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hand or on their forehead [signifying allegiance to the beast], ‡

17 and that no one will be able to buy or sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name. ‡

18. Here is wisdom. Let the person who has enough insight calculate the number of the beast, for it is the [imperfect] number of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty-six. ‡

Revelation 14

The Lamb and the 144,000 on Mount Zion

1 THEN I looked, and this is what I saw: the Lamb stood [firmly established] on Mount Zion, and with Him a hundred and forty-four thousand who had His name and His Father's name inscribed on their foreheads [signifying God's own possession].  [Joel 2:32 ] ‡

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of great waters and like the rumbling of mighty thunder; and the voice that I heard [seemed like music and] was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps. ‡

<sup>3</sup> And they sang a new song before the throne [of God] and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased (ransomed, redeemed) from the earth.  [Rev 7:4–8. ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> These are the ones who have not been defiled [by relations] with women, for they are celibate. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased and redeemed from among men [of Israel] as the first fruits [sanctified and set apart for special service] for God and the Lamb.  [Mark 8:34. ] ‡

The Angel with the Gospel

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw another angel flying in midheaven, with an eternal gospel to preach to the inhabitants of the earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people;  [Rom 1:1–4; 1 Cor 15:3–5; Gal 1:6, 7 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> and he said with a loud voice, “Fear God [with awe and reverence], and give Him glory [and honor and praise in worship], because the hour of His judgment has come; [with all your heart] worship Him who created the heaven and the earth, the sea and the springs of water.” ‡

Doom for Proud Babylon

<sup>8</sup> Then another angel, a second one, followed, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, she who has made all nations drink the wine of the passion of her immorality [corrupting them with idolatry].”  [Is 21:9; Dan 4:30, 31; Rev 17:2 ] ‡

Doom for Worshipers of the Beast

<sup>10</sup> he too will [have to] drink of the wine of the wrath of God, mixed undiluted into the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone (flaming sulfur) in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb (Christ).  [Gen 19:24; Jer 25:15, 16; Luke 12:9 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard [the distinct words of] a voice from heaven, saying, “Write, ‘Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!’ ” “Yes, [blessed indeed],” says the Spirit, “so that they may rest and have relief from their labors, for their deeds do follow them.” ‡

The Reapers

<sup>14</sup> Again I looked, and this is what I saw: a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was One like the Son of Man, with a crown of gold on His head and a sharp sickle [of swift judgment] in His hand.  [Dan 7:13, 14; Matt 13:30, 40-42 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> And another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to Him who was sitting upon the cloud, “Put in Your sickle and reap [at once], for the hour to reap [in judgment] has arrived, because the earth’s harvest is fully ripened.”  [Joel 3:13 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> So He who was sitting on the cloud cast His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped (judged).

<sup>17</sup> Then another angel came out of the temple (sanctuary) in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.

<sup>18</sup> And another angel came from the altar, the one who has power over fire; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Put in your sharp sickle and reap the clusters of grapes from the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe [for judgment].”  [Luke 9:54 ] ‡

<sup>19</sup> So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and harvested the grapevine of the earth, and threw the grapes into the great wine press of the wrath and indignation of God [as judgment of the rebellious world].  [Is 63:3 ] ‡

<sup>20</sup> And the grapes in the wine press were trampled and crushed outside the city, and blood poured from the wine press, reaching up to the horses’ bridles, for a distance of sixteen hundred stadia.  [Joel 3:13; Heb 13:12 ] ‡

A Scene of Heaven

<sup>1</sup> THEN I saw another sign in heaven, great and wonderful [a warning of terrifying and horrible events]: seven angels who had seven plagues (afflictions, calamities), which are the last, because with them the wrath of God is finished [that is, it is completely expressed and reaches its zenith]. [Lev 26:21] ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw something like a sea or large expanse of glass mixed with fire, and those who were victorious over the beast and over his image and over the number corresponding to his name were standing on the sea or large expanse of glass, holding harps of God [worshiping Him]. [Rev 4:6; 7:9–17] ‡

<sup>3</sup> And they sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, ‡

“Great and wonderful and awe-inspiring are Your works [in judgment],

O Lord God, the Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all];
Righteous and true are Your ways,
O King of the nations! [Ex 15:1–8; Ps 145:17.]

<sup>4</sup> “Who will not fear [reverently] and glorify Your name, O
Lord [giving You honor and praise in worship]? ‡

For You alone are holy;
For ALL THE NATIONS SHALL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE YOU,
FOR YOUR RIGHTEOUS ACTS [Your just decrees and judgments]
HAVE BEEN REVEALED and DISPLAYED .” [Ps 86:9; Jer 10:7; Phil 2:9–11.]

<sup>5</sup> After these things I looked, and the temple (sanctuary) of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened, ‡

<sup>6</sup> and the seven angels who had the seven plagues (afflictions, calamities) came out of the temple, arrayed in linen, pure and gleaming, and wrapped around their chests were golden sashes. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath and indignation of God, who lives forever and ever. [Rev 4:6] ‡

<sup>8</sup> And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory and radiance and splendor of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished. [Ex 33:9, 10; 1 Kin 8:10, 11; Is 6:4; Ezek 44:4] ‡

Revelation 16

Six Bowls of Wrath

<sup>1</sup> THEN I heard a loud voice from the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath and indignation of God.”  [Ps 69:24 ; Is 66:6 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth; and loathsome and malignant sores came on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.  [Ex 9:10 , 11 ; Deut 28:35 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a corpse [foul and disgusting]; and every living thing in the sea died. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water; and they turned into blood.  [Ex 7:17–21 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> And I heard the angel of the waters saying, “Righteous and just are You, Who are and Who were, O Holy One, because You judged these things; ‡

<sup>6</sup> for they have poured out the blood of the saints (God’s people) and the prophets, and You [in turn] have given them blood to drink. They deserve Your judgment.”  [Ps 79:3 ] ‡

<sup>7</sup> And I heard [another from] the altar saying, “Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all], Your judgments are true and fair and righteous.”  [Ps 119:137 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given power to scorch humanity with [raging] fire. ‡

<sup>9</sup> People were [severely] burned by the great heat; and they reviled the name of God who has power over these plagues, but they did not repent [of their sin] and glorify Him. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness; and people gnawed their tongues because of the pain [of their excruciating anguish and severe torment],  [Ex 10:21 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their anguish and their sores (abscesses, boils); and they did not repent of what they had done nor hate their wickedness. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates; and its water was dried up, so that the way would be prepared for [the coming of] the kings from the east.  [Is 11:15., 16. ] ‡

Armageddon

13 And I saw three loathsome spirits like frogs, leaping from the mouth of the dragon (Satan) and from the mouth of the beast (Antichrist, dictator) and from the mouth of the false prophet;  [Ex 8:3 ; 1 Kin 22:21–23 ] ‡

14 for they are [actually] the spirits of demons, performing [miraculous] signs. And they go out to the kings of the entire inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty. ‡

15 (“Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is he who stays awake and who keeps his clothes [that is, stays spiritually ready for the Lord’s return], so that he will not be naked—spiritually unprepared—and men will not see his shame.”)  [Matt 24:42–44 ; 1 Thess 5:2–4 ] ‡

16 And they (demons) gathered the kings and armies of the world together at the place which in Hebrew is called Har-Magedon (Armageddon). ‡

Seventh Bowl of Wrath

17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne [of God], saying, “It is done. [It is all over, it is all accomplished, it has come.]” ‡

18 And there were flashes of lightning and loud rumblings and peals of thunder; and there was a massive earthquake—nothing like it has ever occurred since mankind originated on the earth, so severe and far-reaching was that earthquake.  [Ex 19:16–18 ; Dan 12:1 ] ‡

19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And God kept in mind Babylon the great, to give her the cup of the wine of His fierce and furious wrath. ‡

20 Then every island fled away, and no mountains could be found. ‡

21 And giant hailstones, as heavy as a talent, fell from the sky on the people; and people reviled and spoke abusively of God for the plague of the hail, because the plague was so very great.  [Ex 9:22–25 ] ‡

The Doom of Babylon

<sup>2</sup> she with whom the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality, and the inhabitants of the earth have become intoxicated with the wine of her immorality.” [Jer 25:15, 16] ‡

<sup>3</sup> And the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was entirely covered with blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. [Acts 10:10, 11] ‡

<sup>4</sup> The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones and pearls, [and she was] holding in her hand a gold cup full of the abominations and the filth of her [sexual] immorality. [Jer 51:7] ‡

<sup>6</sup> I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints (God’s people), and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus [who were martyred]. When I saw her, I wondered in amazement. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But the angel said to me, “Why do you wonder? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>8</sup> “The beast that you saw was [once], but [now] is not, and he is about to come up out of the abyss (the bottomless pit, the dwelling place of demons) and go to destruction (perdition). And the inhabitants of the earth, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was and is not and is yet to come [to earth]. [Dan 7:3] ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Here is the mind which has wisdom [and this is what it knows about the vision]. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits; ‡

<sup>10</sup> and they are seven kings: five of whom have fallen, one exists and is reigning; the other [the seventh] has not yet come, and when he does come, he must remain a little while.

<sup>11</sup> “And the beast that [once] was but is not, is himself also an eighth king and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction (perdition). ‡

<sup>12</sup> “The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but [together] they receive authority as kings for a single hour [for a common purpose] along with the beast. [Dan 7:20–24] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “These [kings] have one purpose [one mind, one common goal], and they give their power and authority to the beast.

Victory for the Lamb

<sup>14</sup> “They will wage war against the Lamb (Christ), and the Lamb will triumph and conquer them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him and on His side are the called and chosen (elect) and faithful.” [Dan 2:47 ; 1 Tim 6:15 ; Rev 19:16] ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then the angel said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute and will make her desolate and naked [stripped of her power and influence], and will eat her flesh and completely consume her with fire. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For God has put it in their hearts to carry out His purpose by agreeing together to surrender their kingdom to the beast, until the [prophetic] words of God will be fulfilled. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over and dominates and controls the kings and the political leaders of the earth.” ‡

Babylon Is Fallen

<sup>2</sup> And he shouted with a mighty voice, saying, “Fallen, fallen [certainly to be destroyed] is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place for demons, a dungeon haunted by every unclean spirit, and a prison for every unclean and loathsome bird. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “For all the nations have drunk from the wine of the passion of her [sexual] immorality, and the kings and political leaders of the earth have committed immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth and economic power of her sensuous luxury.” [Jer 25:15, 27] ‡

people, so that you will not be a partner in her sins and receive her plagues;  [Is 48:20; Jer 50:8 ] ‡

5 for her sins (crimes, transgressions) have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her wickedness and crimes [for judgment].  [Jer 51:9] ‡

6 “Repay to her even as she has repaid others, and pay back [to her] double [her torment] in accordance with what she has done; in the cup [of sin and suffering] which she mixed, mix a double portion [of perfect justice] for her.  [Ps 137:8] ‡

7 “To the degree that she glorified herself and reveled and gloated in her sensuality [living deliciously and luxuriously], to that same degree impose on her torment and anguish, and mourning and grief; for in her heart she boasts, ‘I SIT AS A QUEEN [on a throne] AND I AM NOT A WIDOW , and will never, ever see mourning or experience grief.’  [Is 47:8, 9] ‡

8 “For this reason in a single day her plagues (afflictions, calamities) will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire and completely consumed; for strong and powerful is the Lord God who judges her. ‡

Laments for Babylon

9—“And the kings and political leaders of the earth, who committed immorality and lived luxuriously with her, will weep and beat their chests [in mourning] over her when they see the smoke of her burning,  [Ezek 26:16, 17] ‡

10 standing a long way off, in fear of her torment, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, the strong city, Babylon! In a single hour your judgment has come.’ ‡

11 “And merchants of the earth will weep and grieve over her, because no one buys their cargo (goods, merchandise) anymore—  [Ezek 27:36] ‡

12 cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet; all kinds of citron (scented) wood and every article of ivory and every article of very costly and lavish wood and bronze and iron and marble;  [Ezek 27:12, 13, 22] ‡

13 and cinnamon and spices and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat; of cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and carriages; and of slaves and human lives. ‡

14 “The ripe fruits and delicacies of your soul’s desire have gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and extravagant are lost to you, never again to be found.

<sup>17</sup> because in one hour all the vast wealth has been laid waste.’ And every ship captain or navigator, and every passenger and sailor, and all who make their living by the sea, stood a long way off,  [Is 23:14; Ezek 27:26–30] ‡

<sup>19</sup> “And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, ‘Woe, woe, for the great city, where all who had ships at sea grew rich from her great wealth, because in one hour she has been laid waste!’  [Ezek 27:30–34] ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints (God’s people) and apostles and prophets [who were martyred], because God has executed vengeance for you [through righteous judgment] upon her.”  [Is 44:23; Jer 51:48, 49] ‡

The Divine Sentence upon Babylon

<sup>21</sup> Then a single powerful angel picked up a boulder like a great millstone and flung it into the sea, saying, “With such violence will Babylon the great city be hurled down [by the sudden, spectacular judgment of God], and will never again be found.  [Jer 51:63, 64; Ezek 26:21] ‡

<sup>22</sup> “And the sound of harpists and musicians and flutists and trumpeters will never again be heard in you, and no skilled artisan of any craft will ever again be found in you, and the sound of the millstone [grinding grain] will never again be heard in you [for commerce will no longer flourish, and normal life will cease].  [Is 24:8; Ezek 26:13] ‡

<sup>23</sup> “And never again will the light of a lamp shine in you, and never again will the voice of the bridegroom and bride be heard in you; for your merchants were the great and prominent men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived and misled by your sorcery [your magic spells and poisonous charm]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> “And in Babylon was found the blood of prophets and of saints (God’s people) and of all those who have been slaughtered on the earth.”  [Gen 4:10;

Jer 51:49] ‡

Revelation 19

The Fourfold Hallelujah

“ H alleluia! Salvation and glory (splendor, majesty) and power (dominion, might) belong to our God;

<sup>2</sup> BECAUSE H IS JUDGMENTS ARE TRUE AND RIGHTEOUS . He has judged [convicted and pronounced sentence on] the great prostitute (idolatress) who was corrupting and ruining and poisoning the earth with her adultery (idolatry), and H E HAS IMPOSED THE PENALTY FOR THE BLOOD OF H IS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER .”  [Deut 32:43; Ps 19:9] ‡

<sup>3</sup> And a second time they said, “Hallelujah! H ER SMOKE SHALL ASCEND FOREVER AND EVER .”  [Is 34:10] ‡

“ P raise our God, all you bond-servants of His, you who fear Him, the small (common) and the great (distinguished).”  [Ps 115:13]

Marriage of the Lamb

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard something like the shout of a vast multitude, and like the boom of many pounding waves, and like the roar of mighty peals of thunder, saying, ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Let us rejoice and shout for joy! Let us give Him glory and honor, for the marriage of the Lamb has come [at last] and His bride (the redeemed) has prepared herself.”  [Ps 118:24] ‡

<sup>8</sup> She has been permitted to dress in fine linen, dazzling white and clean—for the fine linen signifies the righteous acts of the saints [the ethical conduct, personal integrity, moral courage, and godly character of believers]. ‡

9 Then the angel said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.’ ” And he said to me [further], “These are the true and exact words of God.”  [Is 25:6–8; Matt 26:29; Luke 13:29 ] ‡

10 Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he [stopped me and] said to me, “You must not do that; I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers and sisters who have and hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God [alone]. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy [His life and teaching are the heart of prophecy].”  [Acts 10:25, 26; 2 Pet 1:21 ] ‡

The Coming of Christ the Conqueror

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who was riding it is called Faithful and True (trustworthy, loyal, incorruptible, steady), and in righteousness He judges and wages war [on the rebellious nations].  [2 Thess 1:7–10] ‡

12 His eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many royal crowns; and He has a name inscribed [on Him] which no one knows or understands except Himself. ‡

13 He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.  [John 1:1, 14] ‡

14 And the armies of heaven, dressed in fine linen, [dazzling] white and clean, followed Him on white horses. ‡

15 From His mouth comes a sharp sword (His word) with which He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He will tread the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty [in judgment of the rebellious world].  [Ps 2:9; Is 11:4; Rev 1:16] ‡

16 And on His robe and on His thigh He has a name inscribed, “KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.”  [Deut 10:17] ‡

Doom of the Beast and False Prophet

17 Then I saw a single angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he shouted to all the birds that fly in midheaven, saying, “Come, gather together for the great supper of God,  [Ezek 39:4, 17–20] ‡

18 so that you may feast on the flesh of kings, the flesh of commanders, the flesh of powerful and mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all humanity, both free men and slaves, both small and great [in a complete conquest of evil].” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then I saw the beast and the kings and political leaders of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against Him who is mounted on the [white] horse and against His army. ‡

<sup>20</sup> And the beast (Antichrist) was seized and overpowered, and with him the false prophet who, in his presence, had performed [amazing] signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image; these two were hurled alive into the lake of fire which blazes with brimstone. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And the rest were killed with the sword which came from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse, and all the birds fed ravenously and gorged themselves with their flesh. ‡

Revelation 20

Satan Bound

<sup>1</sup> AND THEN I saw an angel descending from heaven, holding the key of the abyss (the bottomless pit) and a great chain was in his hand. ‡

<sup>2</sup>- And he overpowered and laid hold of the dragon, that old serpent [of primeval times], who is the devil and Satan, and bound him [securely] for a thousand years (a millennium);  [Rev 12:7–9, 12, 15 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> and the angel hurled him into the abyss, and closed it and sealed it above him [preventing his escape or rescue], so that he would no longer deceive and seduce the nations, until the thousand years were at an end. After these things he must be liberated for a short time. ‡

The Millennial Reign

<sup>4</sup>- And then I saw thrones, and sitting on them were those to whom judgment [that is, the authority to act as judges] was given. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had refused to worship the beast or his image, and had not accepted his mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.  [Dan 7:9, 22, 27 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> The rest of the dead [the non-believers] did not come to life again until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection.

6-Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) and holy is the person who takes part in the first resurrection; over these the second death [which is eternal separation from God, the lake of fire] has no power or authority, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and they will reign with Him a thousand years.  [Ex 19:6; 1 Pet 2:5, 9; Rev 1:6; 5:10 ] ‡

The Final Rebellion

7 And when the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison (the abyss), ‡

8.and will come out to deceive and mislead the nations which are in the four corners of the earth—[including] Gog and Magog—to gather them together for the war; their number is like the sand of the seashore.  [Ezek 38:2; 39:1, 6 ] ‡

9-And they swarmed up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints (God's people) and the beloved city [Jerusalem]; but fire came down from heaven and consumed them.  [2 Kin 1:10–12; Ezek 38:2, 22] ‡

10 And the devil who had deceived them was hurled into the lake of fire and burning brimstone (sulfur), where the beast (Antichrist) and false prophet are also; and they will be tormented day and night, forever and ever. ‡

The Final Judgment

11-And I saw a great white throne and Him who was seated upon it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled away, and no place was found for them [for this heaven and earth are passing away].  [Is 51:6; Matt 24:35; 2 Pet 3:10–12] ‡

12-And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the Book of Life; and the dead were judged according to what they had done as written in the books [that is, everything done while on earth].  [Jer 17:10; Rom 2:6] ‡

13 And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and death and Hades (the realm of the dead) surrendered the dead who were in them; and they were judged and sentenced, every one according to their deeds. ‡

14-Then death and Hades [the realm of the dead] were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire [the eternal separation from God].  [Matt 25:41; 1 Cor 15:26] ‡

15. And if anyone's name was not found written in the Book of Life, he was hurled into the lake of fire. ‡

Revelation 21

The New Heaven and Earth

1 THEN I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away (vanished), and there is no longer any sea. [Is 65:17 ; 66:22] ‡

2. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, arrayed like a bride adorned for her husband;  [John 14:2 , 3; Gal 4:26 ; Heb 11:10 ] ‡

3 and then I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, “See! The tabernacle of God is among men, and He will live among them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them [ as their God, ]  [Lev 26:11 12 ; Ezek 37:27 ; John 1:14 ; 1 Cor 3:16 , 17 ] ‡

4 and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be death; there will no longer be sorrow and anguish, or crying, or pain; for the former order of things has passed away.”  [Is 25:8 ; 35:10 ] ‡

5 And He who sits on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new.” Also He said, “Write, for these words are faithful and true [they are accurate, incorruptible, and trustworthy].”  [Is 43:19 ] ‡

6. And He said to me, “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the one who thirsts I will give [water] from the fountain of the water of life without cost.  [Is 55:1 ] ‡

7 “He who overcomes [the world by adhering faithfully to Christ Jesus as Lord and Savior] will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son.  [2 Sam 7:14 ; 1 John 5:5 ] ‡

8 “But as for the cowards and unbelieving and abominable [who are devoid of character and personal integrity and practice or tolerate immorality], and murderers, and sorcerers [with intoxicating drugs], and idolaters and occultists [who practice and teach false religions], and all the liars [who knowingly deceive and twist truth], their part will be in the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.” ‡

The New Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup> Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven final plagues came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> And he carried me away in the Spirit to a vast and lofty mountain, and showed me the holy (sanctified) city of Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God,  [Ezek 40:2 ] ‡

<sup>12</sup> It had a massive and high wall, with twelve [large] gates, and at the gates [were stationed] twelve angels; and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were written.  [Ex 28:21; Ezek 48:30–34. ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> On the east side [there were] three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. ‡

<sup>14</sup> And the wall of the city had twelve foundation stones, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb (Christ). ‡

<sup>15</sup> The one who was speaking with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city, and its gates and its wall. ‡

<sup>16</sup> The city is laid out as a square, its length being the same as its width; and he measured the city with his rod—twelve thousand stadia (about 1,400 miles); its length and width and height are equal.

<sup>17</sup> He measured its wall also—a hundred forty-four cubits (about 200 feet), according to man’s measurements, which are [also] angelic [measurements].

<sup>18</sup> The wall was built of jasper; and the city was pure gold, transparent like clear crystal.  [1 Kin 6:30. ]

<sup>19</sup> The foundation stones of the wall of the city were adorned with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation stone was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;  [Ex 28:17–20; Is 54:11, 12 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty [the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all] and the Lamb are its temple. ‡

<sup>23</sup> And the city has no need of the sun nor of the moon to give light to it, for the glory (splendor, radiance) of God has illumined it, and the Lamb is its lamp and light.  [Is 24:23; 60:19, 20 ] ‡

<sup>24</sup> The nations [the redeemed people from the earth] will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring into it their glory.  [Is 60:1–5 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> By day (for there will be no night there) its gates will never be closed [in fear of evil];  [Is 60:11 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> and they will bring the glory (splendor, majesty) and the honor of the nations into it; ‡

<sup>27</sup> and nothing that defiles or profanes or is unwashed will ever enter it, nor anyone who practices abominations [detestable, morally repugnant things] and lying, but only those [will be admitted] whose names have been written in the Lamb's Book of Life.  [Dan 12:1 ] ‡

Revelation 22

The Perfect Life

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE angel showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb (Christ),  [Ezek 47:1–12 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup>.in the middle of its street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.  [Gen 2:9; 3:22 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup>.There will no longer exist anything that is cursed [because sin and illness and death are gone]; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve and worship Him [with great awe and joy and loving devotion];  [Zech 14:21 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup>.they will [be privileged to] see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads.  [Ps 17:15; Matt 5:48; 1 John 3:2 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> And there will no longer be night; they have no need for lamplight or sunlight, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign [as kings] forever and ever.  [Zech 14:7; Rev 1:6 ] ‡

You Are Invited to be Blessed

<sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, "These words are faithful and true." And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His angel [as a representative] to show His bond-servants the things that must soon take place. ‡

7. “And behold, I am coming quickly. Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) is the one who heeds and takes to heart and remembers the words of the prophecy [that is, the predictions, consolations, and warnings] contained in this book (scroll).” ‡

8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. ‡

9 But he said to me, “Do not do that. I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets and with those who heed and remember [the truths contained in] the words of this book. Worship God.” ‡

10 And he said to me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time [of their fulfillment] is near. ‡

11. “Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and the one who is filthy (vile, impure), still be filthy; and the one who is righteous (just, upright), still be righteous; and the one who is holy, still be holy.”  [Dan 12:10 ] ‡

12. “Behold, I (Jesus) am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to each one according to the merit of his deeds (earthly works, faithfulness).  [Is 40:10 ; Jer 17:10 ; Matt 16:27 ; 2 Cor 5:10 ] ‡

13 “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End [the Eternal One].”  [Is 44:6 ; 48:12 ; John 10:30 ] ‡

14. Blessed (happy, prosperous, to be admired) are those who wash their robes [in the blood of Christ by believing and trusting in Him—the righteous who do His commandments], so that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city.  [Gen 2:9 ; 3:22 , 24 ] ‡

15. Outside are the dogs [the godless, the impure, those of low moral character] and the sorcerers [with their intoxicating drugs, and magic arts], and the immoral persons [the perverted, the molesters, and the adulterers], and the murderers, and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying (deception, cheating). ‡

The Final Invitation

16. “I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you and to give you assurance of these things for the churches. I am the Root (the Source, the Life) and the Offspring of David, the radiant and bright Morning Star.”  [Num 24:17 ; Is 11:1 , 10 ] ‡

17. The [Holy] Spirit and the bride (the church, believers) say, “Come.” And let the one who hears say, “Come.” And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wishes take and drink the water of life without cost.  [Is 55:1 ] ‡

18. I testify and warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book [its predictions, consolations, and admonitions]: if anyone adds [anything] to them, God will add to him the plagues (afflictions, calamities) which are written in this book;  [Deut 4:2 ] ‡

19 and if anyone takes away from or distorts the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away [from that one] his share from the tree of life and from the holy city (new Jerusalem), which are written in this book. ‡

20. He who testifies and affirms these things says, “Yes, I am coming quickly.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus. ‡

21. The grace of the Lord Jesus (the Christ, the Messiah) be with all [the saints—all believers, those set apart for God]. Amen. ‡

Annotations for Revelation

1:1 revelation. The word “revelation,” which means “unveiling,” or “disclosure,” indicates that this book is a type of literature known as apocalyptic literature, or literature which reveals hidden things. of Jesus Christ. This revelation is both from Jesus Christ and about Him. John. John is the human writer, and Jesus is the divine Author.

1:3 Blessed. The word “blessed” means “spiritually happy.” Even though some of the words of this book speak of terrifying and solemn times, it is a blessing to know how thoroughly the Lord holds all time and all times in His hands. Those who take time to read and try to understand this book will find themselves blessed by the hope of heaven and by the nearness of our Lord and Savior.

1:4 the seven churches. The seven churches are in the Roman province of Asia, which today is southwestern Turkey. The churches fit within a square 50 miles on each side, and their names are given in order going clockwise from the southwest.

1:5 Firstborn of the dead. This phrase refers to the resurrection of Christ, the first to come back from the dead. This is the basis of the hope of resurrection held by Christians (1Co 15:20–24).

1:7 COMING WITH THE CLOUDS . . . EVERY EYE. “Coming with the clouds” recalls Daniel’s vision of the Son of Man (Da 7:13 ; Mt 24:30) and the ascension of Christ (Ac 1:11). “Every eye” indicates that Christ will be universally visible at His second coming.

1:8 Alpha and the Omega. The Lord’s description of Himself as the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet means that He is the beginning and the end of all creation.

1:9 tribulation. The apostle Paul said there would be many tribulations (Ac 14:22), and John identifies both the suffering of others and his own exile on Patmos as part of the “troubles.” The great tribulation is the time when the wrath of God is poured out on the earth (Mk 13:14–23); that time is explained in greater detail in this book.

1:12 seven golden lampstands. The seven lampstands represent the seven churches.

1:13 someone like the Son of Man. The term “Son of Man” echoes Daniel 7:13. Comparisons of these two passages, along with Jesus’ common use of the name “Son of Man” for Himself, indicate that Christ is the subject of verses 12–18.

1:14 white. The white appearance is parallel to the description of the “Ancient of Days” in Daniel 7:9, and of Christ on the mount of transfiguration (Mt 17:2). The similarity of descriptions demonstrates the purity and eternality of both God the Father and God the Son. Overcoming believers will also be “dressed in white clothing” (3:5 ; 19:8) in Christ’s presence, symbolizing purity.

1:16 sharp two-edged sword. The sword coming out of Christ’s mouth is symbolic of the judging power of the Word of God (Isa 49:2 ; Heb 4:12).

1:18 keys of [absolute control and victory over] death and of Hades. Christ has authority over those who have died physically and over their present resting place, which will be emptied and destroyed at the time of the great white throne judgment (20:11–15). “Hades” is the place where the dead rest. The Hebrew word Sheol, (the place where the dead go) and the Greek words Hades, or Gehenna (a place of eternal punishment), are both translated hell in some contexts. The parable that Jesus told (Lk 16:20–25) describes the rich man in torment in hell, and the beggar “far away” with Abraham. There was a great chasm between them.

1:20 angels. Angels are created spirit beings who minister to believers (Heb 1:14).

2:1 Ephesus. Ephesus was the most important city in Asia Minor when Revelation was written. It was the center of the worship of Artemis (or Diana; Ac 19:28 ), the goddess of fertility. It was a strategic commercial center and a great seaport.

2:5 remember. A generation earlier the same church was commended for love (Eph 1:15 ; 6:24 ).

2:6 Nicolaitans. The Nicolaitans were a heretical group that troubled the churches at Ephesus and Pergamos (v. 15 ). Apparently their teaching and practice were immoral, perhaps even idolatrous (v. 14 ).

2:7 Paradise. Jesus told the believing thief on the cross that he would be with Jesus in paradise (Lk 23:42 ). Paul uses the term interchangeably with “the third heaven” (2Co 12:2 ,4 ).

2:8 Smyrna. Smyrna was an important seaport 35 miles north of Ephesus. The presence of a Roman imperial cult and a large Jewish population made life difficult for believers in Smyrna. However, the churches of Smyrna and Philadelphia are the only two of the seven not rebuked by Christ in some way.

2:10 crown [consisting] of life. The Greek crown or garland of green leaves was given to winners in athletic events. James 1:12 also promises the crown of life to believers who persevere under trial.

2:11 second death. The second death refers to the experience of eternal death in the lake of fire (20:14–15 ). No believer will suffer the second death.

2:12 Pergamum. Pergamum was the ancient capital of the province of Asia. It was said to be the place where parchment was first used. Pergamum means “citadel” in Greek. It was located 50 miles north of Smyrna and was situated on a high hill dominating the valley below. two-edged sword. The two-edged sword is the powerful word of the Lord (1:16 ; Heb 4:12 ).

2:13 Satan sits enthroned. “Where Satan sits enthroned” implies that Satan’s authority and power were honored either openly or in effect. Antipas. Antipas (not Herod Antipas) had already suffered martyrdom, thus receiving the promised “crown of life.”

2:14 teaching of Balaam. The background for this teaching is in the Old Testament (Nu 22:1–25:31 ). Balak hired Balaam to turn the hearts of Israel away from the Lord. Apparently seduction similar to that which Balaam instigated was taking place at the church at Pergamum, especially in relation to idols and sexual immorality (Ac 15:20 ).

2:18 Thyatira. Thyatira was a city with a large military detachment about 30 miles southeast of Pergamum. Recognized for its wool and dye industries, the city was also noted for its trade guilds. eyes [that flash] like a flame . . . feet are like burnished [white-hot] bronze. This is essentially the same wording as Daniel 10:6 .

2:24 depths of Satan. The deep things may be secrets known by those initiated into the things of the devil. When the apostle Paul addressed the subject of walking in the Light (the revelation of Christ), he not only said not to participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but he went on to say that it is disgraceful even to speak of those things done in secret (Eph 5:11–12 ).

2:28 the Morning Star. The Morning Star is Christ Himself in 22:16 . For the believer, Christ’s presence is the light in the dark and difficult times. The morning star (the planet Venus, which can be seen in the sky just before sunrise) is the harbinger of day; it is easy to see how the return of Christ could be paralleled with the morning star. When Satan is referred to as the morning star, that is thought to be a description of what Satan was like before he rebelled (Isa 14:12 ).

3:1 Sardis. Sardis, located 30 miles southeast of Thyatira, had been the capital of Lydia. The worship of the Roman Caesar and Artemis, goddess of fertility, were active here.

3:3 like a thief. Christ’s warning that He will come as unexpectedly as a thief echoes His repeated emphasis in Matthew 24:36–25:13 (see also 16:15 ).

3:5 Book of Life. The Book of Life is the list of the redeemed (20:11–15 ; Ex 32:32–33 ).

3:7 Philadelphia. Philadelphia, which means “brotherly love” in Greek, was a small city located about 40 miles southeast of Sardis. Its location, vineyards, and wine production made it wealthy and commercially important. key [to the house] of David. This key represents the authority of the One who opens and shuts the door in the Davidic kingdom (Isa 22:22), a prerogative that is Christ’s as the rightful “son of David” (Mt 1:1).

3:8 an open door which no one is able to shut. The door, in this context, seems to be entrance into heaven and “the new Jerusalem” (v. 12; chs. 21–22).

3:10 keep you [safe] from the hour of trial. Christ’s promise to keep the believers from the hour of trial is often considered a promise that He will remove them before the period of unparalleled tribulation (1Th 4:16–18). Others believe that this means that believers will not be removed, but will be protected during the trial. The “hour of trial” is another way of referring to the unparalleled judgment of the “great tribulation” (7:14) predicted in Daniel 12:1 and Matthew 24:21.

3:14 Laodicea. Laodicea was 45 miles southeast of Philadelphia and 90 miles east of Ephesus. It was a wealthy city with thriving banks, a textile industry, and a medical school. The city was also known for its sparse water supply. All of these characteristics are played upon in Christ’s message to the church.

4:4 dressed in white . . . crowns. The white robes point to those who are confirmed in righteousness. The crowns are for those who possess ruling authority, and possibly also indicate that the elders have already been judged and rewarded.

4:6 four living creatures. These creatures are remarkably similar to the cherubim (angels) that Ezekiel saw close to God’s throne (Eze 1:4–10).

4:7 lion . . . calf . . . man . . . eagle. This description recalls the four cherubim in Ezekiel 1:4–10.
4:10 throw down their crowns before the throne. This act symbolizes the willing surrender of their authority in light of the worthiness of God as Creator. Because no one but God can create, He alone should be worshiped and recognized as sovereign.

5:1 a scroll. The scroll apparently contains the judgments and redemption seen in later chapters. It may also be the book that was sealed in Daniel 12:4. There appears to be an allusion to the scroll the Lord handed Ezekiel (Ezek 2:9–10). sealed with seven seals. A scroll cannot be unrolled until the seals have all been opened.

5:5 Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David. Both of these titles are messianic titles (Ge 49:8–10, Isa 11:1,10).

5:7 took the scroll. The Lamb taking the scroll from the Father demonstrates that judgment and authority over the earth is committed to the Son (Da 7:13–14). The scroll may be the same one that was sealed in Daniel 12:9.

6:2 white horse . . . conquering. Because the first rider is on a white horse and is conquering, some take it to be Christ (19:11). If so, His full conquest is considerably delayed (19:11–20:6). Another view is that this is a spirit of conquest and delusion (Mt 23:3–6). The bow suggests that the rider is a warrior. The crown suggests that he is a ruler.

6:8 ashen. The color of the “ashen” horse is the color of a corpse. It is fitting that this pale horse is ridden by a figure named “Death.” This fourth judgment is the inevitable consequence of the first three. sword . . . famine . . . plague. These plagues are the same means that God used to bring the nation of Israel to repentance (1Ki 8:33–39; 1Ch 21:12), and in Revelation a godly nucleus does arise as a result of these judgments (7:3–8).

6:9 underneath the altar. Sacrificial blood was poured beside the base of the altar in the temple (Ex 29:12).

6:12–13 sun . . . moon . . . stars. The effects of the great earthquake on the sun, moon, and stars are worded similarly to Matthew 24:29, placing these events in proximity to the coming of the Son of Man

6:14 split . . . rolled up. When the sky is rolled back, the people on earth can see “Him who sits on the throne” (v. 16 ). They will suddenly see that God is not far away or non-existent and they will have to be accountable to Him.

6:17 who is able to [face God and] stand. This rhetorical question is answered in the surrounding context. The unbelievers, no matter how strong, cannot stand. Those who are protected by the Lord are enabled to stand, whether on earth (7:1–8 ) or in God’s presence in heaven (7:9–17 ).

7:3 seal. The seal was a mark of ownership or authority. In ancient times a seal was fixed to a document by pressing a carved stamp or signet into a lump of clay or wax at the point where the document was opened and closed.

7:4 a hundred and forty-four thousand. Those sealed are all the children of Israel, fulfilling the promise that when the “full number of the Gentiles has come” all Israel will be saved (Ro 11:25–27 ).

7:5–8 Judah. Judah is placed first in this list of the Israelite tribes because Christ, the Messiah, is the “Lion of the tribe of Judah” (5:5 ; Ge 49:8–10 ). Reuben. Reuben is next as Jacob’s firstborn (Ge 49:3–4 ). Dan and Ephraim are omitted, perhaps because of their gross idolatry during the period of the judges, demonstrated by the incident in the territory of Dan (Jdg 18 ). Joseph. Joseph and his son Manasseh are both included, bringing the number of tribes to twelve.

7:14 great tribulation. This vast multitude has come out of the great tribulation, referring to “the hour of trial, that hour which is about to come on the whole [inhabited] world” (3:10 ). In view of the great loss of life during this time period, martyrdom is most likely the means of their escape. Tribulation was already being experienced by the church in John’s day (2:10 ; Ac 14:22 ). However, the great tribulation, predicted in Daniel 12:1 , will be of an intensity “such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will be” (Mt 24:21 ).

8:1 seventh seal. When the seventh seal is broken, the book can finally be opened.

8:7 hail . . . fire . . . blood. This blend of destruction and horror sounds like a combination of the first and seventh plagues of God upon Egypt (Ex 7:19–20 ; 9:22–25 ).

8:11 Wormwood. Wormwood is a plant found in the Middle East, known for its bitter taste. Here and elsewhere (La 3:19 ) the term is figurative for bitterness. Normally wormwood is not poisonous, but the plague of the third trumpet involves effects far more potent than the taste of this bitter plant: many men die from the water.

8:13 Woe, woe, woe. The “woes” refer to the impact of the three remaining trumpet judgments on the unbelieving inhabitants of the earth. The first woe is the fifth trumpet (9:12 ); the second woe is the sixth trumpet (11:14 ). The third woe “is coming quickly” and may be the same as the seventh trumpet (11:15–19 ), although that is not stated. If not, the final woe may be focused on Babylon, the great harlot, because of the climactic use of “woe” in 18:10 , 16 , and 19 .

9:1 star (angelic being) that had fallen from heaven. The star may be a demon (v. 11 ), Satan himself (12:9 ), or an angel serving God (20:1 ). bottomless pit. The pit is the interim jail for some demons (Lk 8:31 ). It is also the place of origin of the beast (11:7 ; 17:8 ). Furthermore, it will be the place where Satan will be imprisoned during Christ’s reign (20:2–3 ).

9:3 locusts. Locusts, or grasshoppers, were greatly feared in agricultural societies because they devoured crops. In Exodus 10:12–15 , a plague of locusts wiped out what was left of Egypt’s crops. Joel 1:2 tells of an invasion of locusts that the Lord used to judge unrepentant Judah, which was a foreshadowing of the day of the Lord. scorpions. Scorpions sting with their tails, causing great pain and even death (v. 10 ).

9:11 angel of the abyss. The angel of the abyss is demonic and controls the demonic locusts (3:10 ). If this angel serves God, this is another instance where the activity of Satan or his demons is under the Lord’s sovereign control (2Co 12:7 , 9 ).

9:14 great river Euphrates. This river is the eastern boundary of the land promised to Abraham for his descendants (Ge 15:18), as well as the geographic area from which powerful enemies like Assyria and Babylon came to invade Israel (Isa 8:5–8). It may represent the seat of Satan's former victory (in the garden of Eden).

9:18 A third of mankind. A third of mankind could number in the billions. Coupled with the former destruction of one-fourth of humanity (6:8), over one-half of the world's population will have been killed.

10:1 mighty angel. This mighty angel could be the “strong angel” of 5:2 or the angel “possessing great authority” of 18:1. It is unlikely that this is Michael, who is referred to by name elsewhere (12:7; Da 12:1) or Christ, since He is never called an angel in the New Testament. Furthermore, unlike Christ, this angel comes to earth before the time of tribulation is over.

10:2 little book. The little book is not the same as the book that was unsealed in 6:1–8:1. It is more like the scroll eaten by Ezekiel (Eze 2:9–3:3), although this scroll caused John's stomach to become bitter (vv. 9–10), not just his spirit (Eze 3:14).

10:10 sweet . . . bitter. The Word of God is always sweet, but the soberness of the judgments and what this will mean to the “peoples and nations and languages and kings,” to whom John must prophesy, is enough to turn John's stomach. It is a terrible thing to contemplate the fate of those who refuse to repent (9:21).

11:1 measuring rod like a staff. John's measuring rod is much like that used by Ezekiel (Eze 40:3–5) in his vision of measuring the temple.

11:3 two witnesses. The two unnamed witnesses are strikingly similar to Elijah (vv. 5–6; 1Ki 17; Mal 4:5) and Moses (v. 6; Ex 7–11), who appeared together with Christ on the Mount of Transfiguration (Lk 9:29–32). twelve hundred and sixty days. Forty-two months (v. 2) is the same length of time as twelve hundred and sixty days (12:6). Almost certainly “a time and times and half a time” (12:14) is also a period of three and a half years made up of 42 thirty-day months. These expressions draw from the prophecies in Daniel (Da 12:6–7, 11:12). sackcloth. Sackcloth is a sign of mourning.

11:4 two olive trees . . . two lampstands. The witnesses are described as olive trees and lampstands, linking them to the vision in Zechariah 4 of “the two sons of fresh oil . . . who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth” (Zec 4:14). The passage in Zechariah refers to Zerubbabel and Joshua the priest. But the overarching principle for these and all other witnesses for the Lord is that their testimony to the truth is “Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit” (Zec 4:6).

11:6 no rain . . . waters . . . into blood . . . plague. The power to prevent rain identifies the witnesses with Elijah (Jas 5:17), and turning the water into blood and striking the earth with plagues is reminiscent of Moses in Egypt (Ex 7:11–21).

11:7 abyss. The beast, who emerges as the satanically empowered world ruler (13; 17), comes from the abyss, as did the demonic locust plague of the fifth trumpet (9:1–10).

11:8 great city. The great city in Revelation is often Babylon (14:8), which possibly represents Rome (1Pe 5:13). But the further description “where also their Lord was crucified” seems to refer to Jerusalem. Sodom and Egypt. Sodom is the prototype for the moral degeneration of this great city (Ge 19) and Egypt was the prototype for its rampant idolatry.

11:14 second woe. The second woe includes the sixth trumpet (9:12–21) and a second interlude (10:1–11:13). third woe. The third woe is apparently the seventh trumpet (vv. 15–19), since it “is coming quickly” and 8:13 relates the woes to the last three blasts of the trumpet. The final woe may extend further since the word “woe” recurs in 12:12.

11:17–18 To You we give thanks. The 24 elders (4:10–11; 5:8–10) praise God's power and wrath, and the corresponding distribution of reward and judgment. This stanza of heavenly thanksgiving seems to reflect on the fulfillment of the great messianic prophecy in Psalm 2.

11:19 ark of His covenant. The ark of the covenant made by Moses disappeared at the time of the Babylonian captivity (2Ch 36:18–19). The ark represented God's presence, leadership, and protection of Israel (Nu 10:33–36; Jos 3:3, 15–17).

12:1 woman clothed with the sun. The woman is the nation Israel. To Israel belongs the covenant and the promises. If Satan can make even one of those promises fail, he will have “won.” This is why the dragon stands over the woman in such a predatory manner (v. 4).

12:3 great fiery red dragon. The sign of the dragon is interpreted in verse 9 as Satan, who first appeared in Scripture as the serpent in the garden of Eden (Ge 3). The imagery is in keeping with Old Testament and extra-biblical usage (Isa 27:1). seven heads and ten horns . . . seven royal crowns. The dragon with the seven heads and ten horns refers to Satan and the empire over which he rules during the course of time. The seven heads, ten horns, and seven diadems refer to Satan’s brilliance, power, and glory as “god of this world” (2Co 4:4). This description is almost identical to that of the beast from the sea in 13:1.

12:4 a third of the stars. This image may refer to the rebellion of a third of the angelic host following Satan. devour her child. The attempt of the dragon to devour the newborn Christ Child reveals that the strategy of Herod to kill the baby Jesus (Mt 2:3–16) was satanically inspired.

12:5 male Child, who is destined to rule. The male child who will rule with a rod of iron is the messianic figure of Psalm 2:8–9; however, there is no earthly rule over all nations at this point. From the perspective of this heavenly scene, the Child-ruler is soon caught up to the throne of God, apparently referring to the ascension of Christ (Ac 1:9).

12:6 a thousand two hundred and sixty days. The detailed way in which this same length of time is expressed (“a time and times and half a time,” v. 14), suggests half of a literal seven-year tribulation period (Da 9:27).

12:7–8 Michael. Michael is an archangel (Jude 9). According to Daniel 12:1, he is a special guardian angel for the nation of Israel. Apparently he commands an army of angels. Michael and the heavenly forces are victorious, making heaven off-limits to Satan and his demons. (In Job 1 and 1Ki 22:22 it is clear that at one time Satan did have access to heaven).

12:9 to the earth. The devil’s expulsion from heaven “to the earth” means that this world becomes his base of operations, and that his anger is vented toward the remaining inhabitants of the earth (v. 12). It is likely that the end times will be the greatest period of spiritual warfare (Eph 6:10–18) in history.

12:11 blood of the Lamb . . . word of their testimony . . . did not love their life. The heavenly defeat of Satan (vv. 7–9) is followed by reference to his earthly setbacks, including the crucifixion of Christ, the verbal witness of believers, and the martyrdom of some of the believers. The fact that these witnesses were willing to die for their testimony showed that they knew that Christ had defeated death.

12:14 a time. A “time” probably equals one year, so the period of protection here is three and a half years, which corresponds to the length of the two witnesses’ testimony in 11:3. It is also equivalent to the period of the beast’s authority (“forty-two months” in 13:5), which includes his ability to “wage war against the saints (God’s people) and to overcome them” (13:7; Da 7:25; Ps 122:7).

12:17 rest of her children. The rest of the children are believers in Christ.

13:1 blasphemous names. The blasphemous names may be the common claim of ancient Roman emperors to be divine, or blasphemy against the name of the true God (vv. 5–6) as Daniel predicted of the willful king during the tribulation period (Da 11:36).

13:1–2 beast. The parallel to the four beasts (especially the fourth) in Daniel 7, and the explanation of the beast given in 17:8–11 make it seem that the beast symbolizes both a revived Roman Empire, which exercises universal authority, and a specific ruler, whom John calls the “antichrist” (1Jn 2:18).

13:3 fatal wound. The apparently fatal wound that was healed is a satanic attempt to mimic the wounds of Christ from His crucifixion, which Christ still carries after the resurrection. This is part of the fulfillment of the prophecy of the “great power . . . and [deceptive] signs and false wonders . . . and with all the deception of wickedness” that accompany the “lawless one” (2Th 2:8–12 ).

13:4 worshiped the dragon . . . also . . . the beast. Any false worship or idolatry is ultimately demonic and satanic (1Co 10:20–22 ).

13:5 forty-two months. Forty-two months is the duration of the beast’s worldwide supremacy, in keeping with the prophecy of Daniel 7:25 .

13:9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear. This phrase is used frequently in the Bible. It seems to imply that what has just been said has a wider context, or a significant present application. The statement is not just for future reference. Therefore, widespread spiritual delusion and blasphemy, as well as persecution and martyrdom, should not surprise believers at any point in history.

13:11 another beast. This beast’s actions described in verses 12–17 make it virtually certain that he is the false prophet spoken of in 16:13 ; 19:20 ; 20:10 . The two beasts may symbolize the intermingling of religious power and of secular, political power during the Roman period and during the last days.

lamb. This is the only place in Revelation where “lamb” does not refer to Christ. The lamb with two horns is an emblem of Jewish worship and religious authority.

13:12–15 great signs. Calling fire from heaven and giving speech to the image of the first beast are persuasive signs of power. These signs are similar to those performed by the two witnesses (11:5–6 ). The performance of great signs and the power of Satan is part of the mass deception prophesied by Paul in 2 Thessalonians 2:8–12 .

13:16 to be given a mark. The mark is some sort of identifiable proof of ownership and loyalty, an evil counterfeit of the seal on the foreheads of the servants of God (7:3 ; 14:1 ).

13:18 Let the person who has enough insight calculate . . . six hundred and sixty-six. No one knows exactly what this means. It is the number of the beast, and the number of a man, so the beast is merely a man, not a god. We can be sure that this man’s “number” will someday be understood in relation to the number 666, and that when the people who are living at the time of the fulfillment of the prophecies in this book need to understand this clearly, the Lord will make it plain. In the meantime, the warning is enough for all that will hear.

14:5 they are blameless. This statement is not a reference to sinless perfection, but it is stating that they are considered pure before God. They have been sealed by God because of their belief in Christ (v. 1 ; 7:4 ).

14:6–7 angel . . . eternal gospel. The angel who preaches the gospel to “every nation and tribe and language and people” helps to fulfill God’s promise that the gospel “will be preached throughout the whole world as a testimony to all the nations” (Mt 24:14 ) before Christ returns. The word “gospel,” which literally means “good news,” is used in Revelation only once. Even at this late stage in God’s judgment He continues to offer everlasting life to the world (Jn 3:16 ). The gospel message at this point beseeches unbelievers to fear God and give glory to Him, and to escape the hour of His judgment.

14:8 Babylon. Babylon is first mentioned in Revelation here, and it becomes the focus of God’s judgment in the following sections (chs. 16–18 ).

14:13 Blessed. “Blessed” signals the second of seven beatitudes in Revelation (1:3 ; 16:15 ; 19:9 ; 20:6 ; 22:7 ,14 ). Six of the seven are clustered in the latter third of the book, perhaps as promises to encourage exemplary Christian response in the extremely difficult circumstances of the end times.

14:16 cast His sickle. The power of the Son of Man (Jesus Christ) is shown in that, with one swing of His sickle, the harvest of the earth is reaped. This pictures the events of chapters 16–19 as parts of one rapid succession of judgment, which is experienced by the inhabitants of the entire world.

15:1 another sign. The previous sign was about the woman clothed with the sun (12:1 ). This sign is “great and wonderful” because it deals with the seven last plagues sent by the Lord. The plagues, “the seven bowls of the wrath and indignation of God” (16:1 ), are much stronger and more widespread than the trumpet judgments in 8:2–11:19. The wrath of God is complete with the seven last plagues (15:1–19:5). They are immediately followed by the second coming and the marriage supper of the Lamb (19:6–21).

15:3 song of Moses. The song of Moses is a reference to Exodus 15:1–18 in which Israel celebrated its deliverance from Pharaoh's army (Ex 14). This song was sung by Jews in their Sabbath gatherings, as well as by early Christians at Easter. song of the Lamb. The song of the Lamb celebrates the finished work of God, when all of His righteous acts have been revealed, from creation to atonement to judgment.

16:6 saints. Saints are those who are set apart because of their relationship with Jesus Christ. prophets. The prophets are God's spokesmen. Probably this passage is referring both to the saints and prophets (11:3–18) who have been killed and persecuted during the tribulation as well as those from past history. Jesus referred to the pattern of killing prophets (Mt 23:35) when He spoke to the Pharisees of the coming judgment.

16:8 fourth . . . bowl. The fourth bowl and the fourth trumpet both affect the sun, but in the bowl judgment the sun's heat is intensified instead of diminished.

16:9–10 did not repent. They cannot argue against the existence or power of God, but even so they will not repent and give glory to God. The good news of Christ is still in effect even just before His return (19:11–21), though it is apparently rejected by all unbelievers who are still alive.

16:12 sixth . . . bowl. The sixth bowl involves the Euphrates River, as does the sixth trumpet (9:14). Both judgments deal with demonically inspired military forces. The army of two hundred million (9:16) will kill a third of all humankind (9:18); the army of verses 12–14 will do battle against God (19:19–21).

16:13–14 loathsome spirits . . . go out to the kings. The kings of the earth recoil in fear before the judgment of the Lamb (6:15–16), yet because of the deceptive words of the demons, they are willing to wage war against God. The difference seems to be their confidence in the power of the beast, since they reason, “who is able to wage war against him?” (13:4). great day of God. The battle of that great day takes place at Armageddon (Mount of Megiddo) (v. 16; 19:17–21).

16:15 Blessed. This is the third of seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note after 14:13). Jesus warned believers to be vigilant because of the unexpected timing of His return (Mt 24:43–44). The warning to watch is a reminder of the parable of the ten virgins (Mt 25:1–13) who were told to “Therefore, be on the alert [be prepared and ready], for you do not know the day nor the hour.”

16:17 It is done. The seventh bowl is the climax of all of Revelation's judgments. This is God's final act of judgment before Christ comes.

16:19 Babylon. Babylon may refer to the rebuilt ancient city, or it may be a symbolic name for Rome (17:9). It may also be a way of referring to any proud human society that attempts to exist apart from God. Babylon's classic manifestations of rebellion against God are the Tower of Babel (Ge 11:1–9) and the Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar (Da 4:30).

17:1 judgment and doom of the great prostitute. Babylon is called “the prostitute” in verses 1,5,16, and 19:2. Her habitual immorality was introduced in 14:8, as was her imminent and well-deserved judgment. Both the kings of the earth and the inhabitants of the earth are seduced into committing spiritual adultery with Babylon. The indication is that she made them drunk with power, material possessions, false worship, and pride. The wine of Babylon's immorality (14:8) is judged forcefully and finally by God in the “wine of His fierce and furious wrath” (16:19).

17:9 seven hills. Most interpreters understand this as a reference to the seven hills along the Tiber River, a well-known designation of the city of Rome.

17:10 five of whom have fallen. The five that have fallen would be past kingdoms, perhaps Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece. one exists and is reigning. The Roman Empire was the current power at the time of this writing. has not yet come. People speculate that the future kingdom may be a revived Roman Empire.

17:11 the beast . . . is one of the seven. The beast is related to the seventh king, but also has a separate identity. It seems that the eighth world empire may be some form of a revived Roman Empire over which the antichrist establishes the imperial authority of a dictator. He will overcome three horns, or nations (Da 7:20), and will claim universal authority.

17:12 a single hour. The time frame for these events may coincide with 16:14, in which the preparations for the battle at Armageddon are described.

17:14 wage war against the Lamb. The Lamb (Christ) will easily overcome the ten kings at His second coming (19:19–21). The beast and his forces are allowed by God to “wage war against the saints (God’s people) and to overcome them” (13:7). Many of those whom the beast defeated and even killed are now numbered in the conquering army of the Lamb. The Lord’s army is composed of the called, chosen, and faithful, probably the heavenly soldiers of 19:14.

17:16–17 ten horns . . . will hate the prostitute. Since this description is similar to God’s judgment on Babylon in 18:8, it seems that the Lord uses the forces of the beast as His instrument of judgment on the kingdom of the antichrist (ch. 18) before they themselves are destroyed (19:19–21). With the advent of the beast as a supreme ruler given to self-deification (Da 11:36; Mt 24:15; 2Th 2), Satan has originated an entirely new order. This order is so radically different from the great prostitute (vv. 1–6) that the beast, or perhaps the political aspect of Babylon, turns upon and destroys the religious aspect of Babylon.

17:18 the great city. The woman in John’s vision is the great city Babylon (16:19), yet she is also the ancient “mother of prostitutes” (v. 5). The satanic influence of this city over the world’s leaders has continued from Babel through Babylon to Rome (vv. 9–10), its classic manifestation in the first century AD.

18:4 Come out. The command echoes Isaiah 52:11 and especially Jeremiah 51:45, prophecies proclaimed at a time when the Babylonian Empire was ripe for judgment.

18:9–19 weep and beat their chests [in mourning] over her. This section is framed like an ancient lament and is especially similar in content to Ezekiel’s lament over the destruction of Tyre (Eze 27).

18:20 Rejoice . . . heaven, and you saints (God’s people) and apostles and prophets. This call to rejoice is a compressed introduction to the longer praise hymn in 19:1–5. Judgment for killing God’s prophets is mentioned in 16:6, but this is the only place in Revelation other than 21:14 where Christ’s apostles are mentioned. If specific apostles are in mind here, Peter and Paul’s deaths at the hands of the state in Rome probably apply. If Babylon is the symbol of all the enemies of God and His people, and not just the Babylonian or Roman manifestations, even the killing of James in Acts 12:1–2 is being avenged here.

19:9 Blessed. This is the fourth of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note for 14:13). marriage supper. The marriage supper of John’s day would begin on the evening of the wedding, but the celebration might continue for days. The marriage supper here is a time of joyous feasting to be enjoyed by the saints.

19:15 sharp sword. The sharp sword that comes out of Christ’s mouth is the two-edged sword spoken of in 1:16. rod of iron. Christ will rule with a rod of iron in fulfillment of the messianic prophesies in Psalm 2:8–9 and Isaiah 11:4.

19:20–21 beast . . . false prophet . . . hurled alive into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the eternal destiny of all unbelievers (20:10, 14–15). They are apparently the first to suffer the torment of the lake. The rest of the beast’s allies are killed by the word from the mouth of the victorious Christ. Apparently all those who now suffer death go to Hades (Mt 16:18), to which Jesus has the keys (1:8), until death and Hades are emptied and cast into the lake of fire (20:13–15).

20:1 angel. The angel here may be the same one who had the key to the bottomless pit in 9:1–2 .

20:2–3 abyss . . . closed it . . . until the thousand years. The abyss is presently the place of imprisonment of some demons (Lk 8:31) and will be the place from which the beast ascends (17:8). Thus, it is fitting that the devil will be held there for a thousand years. The dragon of 12:3,9, known as Satan, was in control of the serpent in the garden of Eden (Ge 3). God has a plan for Satan. He will be shut up in the abyss for a thousand years and then will be briefly released to deceive the nations one final time (vv. 7–9) before being cast into the lake of fire (v. 10). must be liberated. This phrase indicates that Satan will not escape from the pit but instead will be allowed to go forth from the pit to fulfill God's plan.

20:4 thrones . . . reigned. This may be a partial fulfillment of Daniel 7:18,27. The aspect of judgment in ruling is referred to in 1 Corinthians 6:2–4. At the onset of the kingdom, authority is officially transferred from angels to men (Heb 2:5,8). Christ, as the second Adam, fulfills God's original purpose for the earth. A new world order is established with the overcoming saints of the church age ruling together with Christ in His kingdom (Ro 8:17). Incredible as it may seem, with a perfect Ruler who is totally just, totally kind, and totally wise, there will still be men who will rebel (vv. 7–9).

20:5 did not come to life again. The resurrection of the dead will not encompass all people at the same time (Da 12:2; Jn 5:29). This passage indicates that there will be a first resurrection of dead believers before the thousand years of Christ's reign (1Co 15:23,52) and a final resurrection after the millennium is finished, before the great white throne judgment (vv. 11–13). It is generally considered that this is the time of resurrection of the Old Testament saints as well as those martyred in the great tribulation.

20:6 Blessed. This is the fifth of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note for 14:13). All look forward to life with Christ beyond the first resurrection (v. 5). Resurrection is assured for all believers. But the blessedness mentioned here belongs more precisely to those martyrs who will have a part as rulers with Christ in the first resurrection. second death. The second death is the everlasting death of torment in the lake of fire for unbelievers who face the great white throne judgment (vv. 11–15). John has previously stated that the one who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death (2:11).

20:8 Gog and Magog. Gog and Magog was a common rabbinical title for the nations in rebellion against the Lord, and the names recall the prophesied invasion of Israel in Ezekiel 38:18. Some hold that the battle of verses 8–9 is the one spoken of in Ezekiel, but there are major differences as well as similarities in the two passages.

20:9 beloved city. The beloved city may symbolically refer to the home of God's people. However, the new Jerusalem is commonly called "the city of My God" (3:12) and "the holy city" (21:2). The city here may be the renewed earthly Jerusalem, ready to give way to the everlasting sinless glory of the new Jerusalem (21:1–22:5).

20:11 great white throne. The great white throne is a picture of God's holy rule and judgment. The One occupying the throne may be God the Father (1Co 15:24–28) or both the Father and the Lamb (Christ), as in the new Jerusalem (22:1–3). earth and heaven fled away. There is no place for this sin-polluted creation in the new heaven and new earth (21:1–22:5). The earth and all of its works will be burned up (2Pe 3:10–13).

20:12 the dead. The dead, called "the rest of the dead" (v. 5), are raised and made to stand before God's throne of judgment. books. The books are thought to refer to the record of all works done in this life. Since all have sinned and fall short of God's standard (Ro 3:23), the opening of these books will certainly lead to eternal sentences in the lake of fire. Book of Life. The Book of Life is God's register of those who have believed in Jesus (17:8). Although no one can be judged acceptable based on works (Eph 2:8–9), many will be saved by God's grace received by faith in Jesus Christ.

20:14 death and Hades. Death and Hades refers not only to dying, but to existence beyond the grave (1:18; 6:8). If one considers "death" as a place, it would be the place where the body lies, and Hades, or hell, would be the place for the soul. The picture here is of all human bodies being given up to God's judgment. While unbelieving humanity is judged according to its works, death and hell, the Lord's final enemy (1Co 15:26), is also destroyed by being cast into the lake of fire. second death. The second death is spiritual and eternal, the just punishment of the wicked. The first death is physical dying. Both are included in the overall meaning of the death that came upon the human race because of Adam and Eve's sin (Ge 2:16–17; 3:1–19; Ro 5:12).

20:15 not found written in the Book of Life. Only those who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior will be found in the book. The rejection of the eternal gospel results in eternal condemnation (14:6–7).

21:1 new. "New" here suggest freshness, not just a second beginning. This is the fulfillment of the prophecies of Isaiah 65:17; 66:22 and 2 Peter 3:13. Significantly, this eternal renewal has already begun in the life of the believer because, using the same term, Paul says, "if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature" (2Co 5:17). passed away (vanished), and there is no longer any sea. The present heaven and earth, including the sea, were burned up in the great white throne judgment (20:11–13). There will be a continuation of some features of the present creation in the new heaven and new earth, yet the drastic difference in the new eternal state is obvious from the fact that there will be no more sea, which was a major part of the original creation (Ge 1:6–10).

21:2 bride. Christ's bride (v. 9) is the new Jerusalem, the redeemed inhabitants of the holy city (vv. 3–7; 24–27).

21:6 It is done. For the third time, it is done. The first statement of "finishing" was on the cross (Jn 19:30), the second was at the end of God's wrath (16:17), and the third is when there is no more death, a new heaven and a new earth. water of life. The water of life may be recalling Jesus' references to living water in John 4:14 and 7:38, in connection with eternal life and life in the Holy Spirit. This water is further described in 22:1. A similar offer of God's grace to him who spiritually thirsts is repeated in 22:17.

21:12 twelve [large] gates . . . twelve tribes. The description of the high wall and the twelve gates echoes Ezekiel 48:30–35. It is a glorious picture of the place that Israel holds in the new Jerusalem when the New Covenant with Israel is at last fulfilled.

21:14 twelve foundation stones . . . apostles. This picture calls to mind Paul's imagery of the apostles as the foundation of the house of God in Ephesians 2:20.

21:19–20 every kind of precious stone. The exact color of some of the stones is uncertain, but it is probable that jasper is colorless, sapphire is blue, chalcedony is green or greenish-blue, emerald is bright green, sardonyx has layers of red and white, sardius is blood red, chrysolite is yellow, beryl is blue or blue-green, topaz is golden, and amethyst is purple or violet.

22:2 tree of life. The tree of life in the original creation was in the middle of the garden of Eden (Ge 2:9), from which all of humanity was excluded after sin entered the world (Ge 3:22–24). Ezekiel's apocalyptic vision included trees bearing fruit every month with medicinal leaves (Eze 47:12). Since only one tree of life is mentioned here, even though it is on both sides of the river, it is probably meant as a parallel to Genesis 2, implying that a new, better, and everlasting Eden has come.

22:3 no longer exist anything that is cursed. The affliction of sin, especially on the human race and creation (Ge 3:14–19), will be erased. As God had fellowship with Adam and Eve before their fall into sin (Ge 3:8), so the Lord will again be with His servants eternally. In turn, His servants will worship and serve Him (Ro 12:1).

22:4 see His face. The believer's hope today is to see the Lord face to face (1Co 13:12), something neither Moses nor any other human was previously allowed to do (Ex 33:20).

22:7 Blessed. "Blessed" begins the sixth of seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note after 14:13). And indeed, those who pay attention to this book will be blessed. The Lord has shown the things that must come to pass, the things that His servants must pay attention to, the ultimate fate of unbelievers, and a beautiful glimpse of eternity, which leaves all believers with an eagerness for the return of the Lord.

22:11 wrong . . . filthy . . . righteous . . . holy. This verse, on the surface, seems to be a statement that believers and unbelievers will live out their lives true to their nature until the final judgment (20:12–15). However, because this book is to be read before the events it foretells take place, it is almost certainly an implied, indirect evangelistic appeal based on the continuing offer of the gospel (v. 17; 14:6–7).

22:12–13 My reward is with Me. The rewarding of each believer according to his or her works is taught in 2 Corinthians 5:10. Christ's rewards are meant to provide a powerful incentive for an obedient life. Little wonder that the apostle Paul rigorously disciplined himself so that he would not be disqualified from the prize (1Co 9:24–27; Php 3:10–14). The judgment seat of Christ can be a time of great regret (1Co 3:5–10), or it can be an occasion of supreme joy (2Co 5:9–11). After Christ comes again, He will give rewards to His own. This can be counted on because Christ is in control of all history and all eternity.

22:14 Blessed. This is the last of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note after 14:13). This beatitude is speaking of those justified by faith who express that faith in obedience (Eph 2:8–10).

22:15 dogs. According to the context of Deuteronomy 23:18, a “dog” is a male prostitute.

22:16 Root (the Source, the Life) and the Offspring of David. Jesus is both the Source and Son of David, echoing the words of Isaiah 11:1,10. Jesus is both greater than David and the rightful heir to the throne of David.

22:17 Come. This book, so full of the pictures of the fulfillment of God's righteous judgment, still closes with the sweet and compelling invitation to come to Christ. This is one of the reasons it is “blessed” to read this book.

22:18–19 adds [anything] to . . . takes away. The Book of Revelation was intended to be heard and obeyed (v. 7; 1:3), not tampered with. The person who either adds to or takes away from its contents will receive from God the strictest punishment, a punishment with eternal consequences.

22:20 I am coming quickly. The fact that Jesus is coming quickly within the scope of God's overall plan for this creation is a repeated theme in Revelation (3:11; 22:7–12). John adds the hope of all believers to the declaration of Christ with his prayer, “Come, Lord Jesus.”

22:21 grace. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ begins and concludes the Book of Revelation (1:4), implying that the message of grace and the free gift of eternal life in Christ (Eph 2:8–9), not merely the message of judgment upon unbelievers, can be found in this book.
