New International Version 1984 NIV

Gen 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Gen 1:2 Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

Gen 1:3 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

Gen 1:4 God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

Gen 1:5 God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning-- the first day.

Gen 1:6 And God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water."

Gen 1:7 So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it. And it was so.

Gen 1:8 God called the expanse "sky." And there was evening, and there was morning-- the second day.

Gen 1:9 And God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear." And it was so.

Gen 1:10 God called the dry ground "land," and the gathered waters he called "seas." And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:11 Then God said, "Let the land produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds." And it was so.

Gen 1:12 The land produced vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:13 And there was evening, and there was morning-- the third day.

Gen 1:14 And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark seasons and days and years, Gen 1:15 and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth." And it was so.

Gen 1:16 God made two great lights-- the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars.

Gen 1:17 God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth,

Gen 1:18 to govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:19 And there was evening, and there was morning-- the fourth day.

Gen 1:20 And God said, "Let the water teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky."

Gen 1:21 So God created the great creatures of the sea and every living and moving thing with which the water teems, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:22 God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds increase on the earth."

Gen 1:23 And there was evening, and there was morning-- the fifth day.

Gen 1:24 And God said, "Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creatures that move along the ground, and wild animals, each according to its kind." And it was so.

Gen 1:25 God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

Gen 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Gen 1:28 God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground."

Gen 1:29 Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food."

Gen 1:30 And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air and all the creatures that move on the ground-- everything that has the breath of life in it-- I give every green plant for food." And it was so.

Gen 1:31 God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning-- the sixth day.

Gen 2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

Gen 2:2 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work.

Gen 2:3 And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

Gen 2:4 This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created. When the LORD God made the earth and the heavens--

Gen 2:5 and no shrub of the field had yet appeared on the earth and no plant of the field had yet sprung up, for the LORD God had not sent rain on the earth and there was no man to work the ground,

Gen 2:6 but streams came up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground--

Gen 2:7 the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

Gen 2:8 Now the LORD God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man he had formed.

Gen 2:9 And the LORD God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground-- trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Gen 2:10 A river watering the garden flowed from Eden; from there it was separated into four headwaters.

Gen 2:11 The name of the first is the Pishon; it winds through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold.

Gen 2:12 (The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin and onyx are also there.)

Gen 2:13 The name of the second river is the Gihon; it winds through the entire land of Cush.

Gen 2:14 The name of the third river is the Tigris; it runs along the east side of Asshur. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

Gen 2:15 The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.

Gen 2:16 And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden;

Gen 2:17 but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

Gen 2:18 The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him."

Gen 2:19 Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name.

Gen 2:20 So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field. But for Adam no suitable helper was found.

Gen 2:21 So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh.

Gen 2:22 Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

Gen 2:23 The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man."

Gen 2:24 For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

Gen 2:25 The man and his wife were both naked, and they felt no shame.

Gen 3:1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?"

Gen 3:2 The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden,

Gen 3:3 but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'"

Gen 3:4 "You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman.

Gen 3:5 "For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

Gen 3:6 When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

Gen 3:7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Gen 3:8 Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

Gen 3:9 But the LORD God called to the man, "Where are you?"

Gen 3:10 He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid."

Gen 3:11 And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

Gen 3:12 The man said, "The woman you put here with me-- she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it."

Gen 3:13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

Gen 3:14 So the LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, "Cursed are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

Gen 3:15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

Gen 3:16 To the woman he said, "I will greatly increase your pains in childbearing; with pain you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."

Gen 3:17 To Adam he said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, 'You must not eat of it,' "Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

Gen 3:18 It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.

Gen 3:19 By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return."

Gen 3:20 Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.

Gen 3:21 The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them.

Gen 3:22 And the LORD God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever."

Gen 3:23 So the LORD God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken.

Gen 3:24 After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

Gen 4:1 Adam lay with his wife Eve, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, "With the help of the LORD I have brought forth a man."

Gen 4:2 Later she gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel kept flocks, and Cain worked the soil.

Gen 4:3 In the course of time Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD.

Gen 4:4 But Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering,

Gen 4:5 but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was very angry, and his face was downcast.

Gen 4:6 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why is your face downcast?

Gen 4:7 If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it."

Gen 4:8 Now Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

Gen 4:9 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" "I don't know," he replied. "Am I my brother's keeper?"

Gen 4:10 The LORD said, "What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground.

Gen 4:11 Now you are under a curse and driven from the ground, which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

Gen 4:12 When you work the ground, it will no longer yield its crops for you. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth."

Gen 4:13 Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is more than I can bear.

Gen 4:14 Today you are driving me from the land, and I will be hidden from your presence; I will be a restless wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me."

Gen 4:15 But the LORD said to him, "Not so; if anyone kills Cain, he will suffer vengeance seven times over." Then the LORD put a mark on Cain so that no one who found him would kill him.

Gen 4:16 So Cain went out from the LORD's presence and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Gen 4:17 Cain lay with his wife, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was then building a city, and he named it after his son Enoch.

Gen 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael was the father of Methushael, and Methushael was the father of Lamech.

Gen 4:19 Lamech married two women, one named Adah and the other Zillah.

Gen 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who live in tents and raise livestock.

Gen 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all who play the harp and flute.

Gen 4:22 Zillah also had a son, Tubal-Cain, who forged all kinds of tools out of bronze and iron. Tubal-Cain's sister was Naamah.

Gen 4:23 Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, listen to me; wives of Lamech, hear my words. I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for injuring me.

Gen 4:24 If Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech seventy-seven times."

Gen 4:25 Adam lay with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth, saying, "God has granted me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him."

Gen 4:26 Seth also had a son, and he named him Enosh. At that time men began to call on the name of the LORD.

Gen 5:1 This is the written account of Adam's line. When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God.

Gen 5:2 He created them male and female and blessed them. And when they were created, he called them "man."

Gen 5:3 When Adam had lived 130 years, he had a son in his own likeness, in his own image; and he named him Seth.

Gen 5:4 After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:5 Altogether, Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:6 When Seth had lived 105 years, he became the father of Enosh.

Gen 5:7 And after he became the father of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:8 Altogether, Seth lived 912 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:9 When Enosh had lived 90 years, he became the father of Kenan.

Gen 5:10 And after he became the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:11 Altogether, Enosh lived 905 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:12 When Kenan had lived 70 years, he became the father of Mahalalel.

Gen 5:13 And after he became the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:14 Altogether, Kenan lived 910 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:15 When Mahalalel had lived 65 years, he became the father of Jared.

Gen 5:16 And after he became the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:17 Altogether, Mahalalel lived 895 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:18 When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch.

Gen 5:19 And after he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:20 Altogether, Jared lived 962 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:21 When Enoch had lived 65 years, he became the father of Methuselah.

Gen 5:22 And after he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:23 Altogether, Enoch lived 365 years.

Gen 5:24 Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.

Gen 5:25 When Methuselah had lived 187 years, he became the father of Lamech.

Gen 5:26 And after he became the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:27 Altogether, Methuselah lived 969 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:28 When Lamech had lived 182 years, he had a son.

Gen 5:29 He named him Noah and said, "He will comfort us in the labor and painful toil of our hands caused by the ground the LORD has cursed."

Gen 5:30 After Noah was born, Lamech lived 595 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:31 Altogether, Lamech lived 777 years, and then he died.

Gen 5:32 After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Gen 6:1 When men began to increase in number on the earth and daughters were born to them,

Gen 6:2 the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful, and they married any of them they chose.

Gen 6:3 Then the LORD said, "My Spirit will not contend with man forever, for he is mortal; his days will be a hundred and twenty years."

Gen 6:4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days-- and also afterward-- when the sons of God went to the daughters of men and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown.

Gen 6:5 The LORD saw how great man's wickedness on the earth had become, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the time.

Gen 6:6 The LORD was grieved that he had made man on the earth, and his heart was filled with pain.

Gen 6:7 So the LORD said, "I will wipe mankind, whom I have created, from the face of the earth-- men and animals, and creatures that move along the ground, and birds of the air-- for I am grieved that I have made them."

Gen 6:8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD.

Gen 6:9 This is the account of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time, and he walked with God.

Gen 6:10 Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Gen 6:11 Now the earth was corrupt in God's sight and was full of violence.

Gen 6:12 God saw how corrupt the earth had become, for all the people on earth had corrupted their ways.

Gen 6:13 So God said to Noah, "I am going to put an end to all people, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. I am surely going to destroy both them and the earth.

Gen 6:14 So make yourself an ark of cypress wood; make rooms in it and coat it with pitch inside and out.

Gen 6:15 This is how you are to build it: The ark is to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high.

Gen 6:16 Make a roof for it and finish the ark to within 18 inches of the top. Put a door in the side of the ark and make lower, middle and upper decks.

Gen 6:17 I am going to bring floodwaters on the earth to destroy all life under the heavens, every creature that has the breath of life in it. Everything on earth will perish.

Gen 6:18 But I will establish my covenant with you, and you will enter the ark-- you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you.

Gen 6:19 You are to bring into the ark two of all living creatures, male and female, to keep them alive with you.

Gen 6:20 Two of every kind of bird, of every kind of animal and of every kind of creature that moves along the ground will come to you to be kept alive.

Gen 6:21 You are to take every kind of food that is to be eaten and store it away as food for you and for them."

Gen 6:22 Noah did everything just as God commanded him.

Gen 7:1 The LORD then said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and your whole family, because I have found you righteous in this generation.

Gen 7:2 Take with you seven of every kind of clean animal, a male and its mate, and two of every kind of unclean animal, a male and its mate,

Gen 7:3 and also seven of every kind of bird, male and female, to keep their various kinds alive throughout the earth.

Gen 7:4 Seven days from now I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe from the face of the earth every living creature I have made."

Gen 7:5 And Noah did all that the LORD commanded him.

Gen 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters came on the earth.

Gen 7:7 And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives entered the ark to escape the waters of the flood.

Gen 7:8 Pairs of clean and unclean animals, of birds and of all creatures that move along the ground,

Gen 7:9 male and female, came to Noah and entered the ark, as God had commanded Noah.

Gen 7:10 And after the seven days the floodwaters came on the earth.

Gen 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, on the seventeenth day of the second month-- on that day all the springs of the great deep burst forth, and the floodgates of the heavens were opened.

Gen 7:12 And rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights.

Gen 7:13 On that very day Noah and his sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, together with his wife and the wives of his three sons, entered the ark.

Gen 7:14 They had with them every wild animal according to its kind, all livestock according to their kinds, every creature that moves along the ground according to its kind and every bird according to its kind, everything with wings.

Gen 7:15 Pairs of all creatures that have the breath of life in them came to Noah and entered the ark.

Gen 7:16 The animals going in were male and female of every living thing, as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD shut him in.

Gen 7:17 For forty days the flood kept coming on the earth, and as the waters increased they lifted the ark high above the earth.

Gen 7:18 The waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water.

Gen 7:19 They rose greatly on the earth, and all the high mountains under the entire heavens were covered.

Gen 7:20 The waters rose and covered the mountains to a depth of more than twenty feet.

Gen 7:21 Every living thing that moved on the earth perished-- birds, livestock, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all mankind.

Gen 7:22 Everything on dry land that had the breath of life in its nostrils died.

Gen 7:23 Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; men and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds of the air were wiped from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.

Gen 7:24 The waters flooded the earth for a hundred and fifty days.

Gen 8:1 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and the livestock that were with him in the ark, and he sent a wind over the earth, and the waters receded.

Gen 8:2 Now the springs of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens had been closed, and the rain had stopped falling from the sky.

Gen 8:3 The water receded steadily from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the water had gone down,

Gen 8:4 and on the seventeenth day of the seventh month the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.

Gen 8:5 The waters continued to recede until the tenth month, and on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains became visible.

Gen 8:6 After forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark

Gen 8:7 and sent out a raven, and it kept flying back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth.

Gen 8:8 Then he sent out a dove to see if the water had receded from the surface of the ground.

Gen 8:9 But the dove could find no place to set its feet because there was water over all the surface of the earth; so it returned to Noah in the ark. He reached out his hand and took the dove and brought it back to himself in the ark.

Gen 8:10 He waited seven more days and again sent out the dove from the ark.

Gen 8:11 When the dove returned to him in the evening, there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf! Then Noah knew that the water had receded from the earth.

Gen 8:12 He waited seven more days and sent the dove out again, but this time it did not return to him.

Gen 8:13 By the first day of the first month of Noah's six hundred and first year, the water had dried up from the earth. Noah then removed the covering from the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was dry.

Gen 8:14 By the twenty-seventh day of the second month the earth was completely dry.

Gen 8:15 Then God said to Noah,

Gen 8:16 "Come out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and their wives.

Gen 8:17 Bring out every kind of living creature that is with you-- the birds, the animals, and all the creatures that move along the ground-- so they can multiply on the earth and be fruitful and increase in number upon it."

Gen 8:18 So Noah came out, together with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives.

Gen 8:19 All the animals and all the creatures that move along the ground and all the birds-- everything that moves on the earth-- came out of the ark, one kind after another.

Gen 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD and, taking some of all the clean animals and clean birds, he sacrificed burnt offerings on it.

Gen 8:21 The LORD smelled the pleasing aroma and said in his heart: "Never again will I curse the ground because of man, even though every inclination of his heart is evil from childhood. And never again will I destroy all living creatures, as I have done.

Gen 8:22 "As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease."

Gen 9:1 Then God blessed Noah and his sons, saying to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the earth.

Gen 9:2 The fear and dread of you will fall upon all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air, upon every creature that moves along the ground, and upon all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hands.

Gen 9:3 Everything that lives and moves will be food for you. Just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything.

Gen 9:4 "But you must not eat meat that has its lifeblood still in it.

Gen 9:5 And for your lifeblood I will surely demand an accounting. I will demand an accounting from every animal. And from each man, too, I will demand an accounting for the life of his fellow man.

Gen 9:6 "Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed; for in the image of God has God made man.

Gen 9:7 As for you, be fruitful and increase in number; multiply on the earth and increase upon it."

Gen 9:8 Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him:

Gen 9:9 "I now establish my covenant with you and with your descendants after you

Gen 9:10 and with every living creature that was with you-- the birds, the livestock and all the wild animals, all those that came out of the ark with you-- every living creature on earth.

Gen 9:11 I establish my covenant with you: Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth."

Gen 9:12 And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant I am making between me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all generations to come:

Gen 9:13 I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

Gen 9:14 Whenever I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds,
Gen 9:15 I will remember my covenant between me and you and all living creatures of every kind. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all life.
Gen 9:16 Whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and all living creatures of every kind on the earth."
Gen 9:17 So God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant I have established between me and all life on the earth."
Gen 9:18 The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.)
Gen 9:19 These were the three sons of Noah, and from them came the people who were scattered over the earth.
Gen 9:20 Noah, a man of the soil, proceeded to plant a vineyard.
Gen 9:21 When he drank some of its wine, he became drunk and lay uncovered inside his tent.
Gen 9:22 Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father's nakedness and told his two brothers outside.
Gen 9:23 But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it across their shoulders; then they walked in backward and covered their father's nakedness. Their faces were turned the other way so that they would not see their father's nakedness.
Gen 9:24 When Noah awoke from his wine and found out what his youngest son had done to him,
Gen 9:25 he said, "Cursed be Canaan! The lowest of slaves will he be to his brothers."
Gen 9:26 He also said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem! May Canaan be the slave of Shem.
Gen 9:27 May God extend the territory of Japheth; may Japheth live in the tents of Shem, and may Canaan be his slave."
Gen 9:28 After the flood Noah lived 350 years.
Gen 9:29 Altogether, Noah lived 950 years, and then he died.
Gen 10:1 This is the account of Shem, Ham and Japheth, Noah's sons, who themselves had sons after the flood.
Gen 10:2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras.
Gen 10:3 The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah.
Gen 10:4 The sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittim and the Rodanim.
Gen 10:5 (From these the maritime peoples spread out into their territories by their clans within their nations, each with its own language.)
Gen 10:6 The sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan.
Gen 10:7 The sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.
Gen 10:8 Cush was the father of Nimrod, who grew to be a mighty warrior on the earth.
Gen 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; that is why it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD."
Gen 10:10 The first centers of his kingdom were Babylon, Erech, Akkad and Calneh, in Shinar.
Gen 10:11 From that land he went to Assyria, where he built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah
Gen 10:12 and Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.
Gen 10:13 Mizraim was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites,
Gen 10:14 Pathrusites, Casluhites (from whom the Philistines came) and Caphtorites.
Gen 10:15 Canaan was the father of Sidon his firstborn, and of the Hittites,
Gen 10:16 Jebusites, Amorites, Gergashites,
Gen 10:17 Hivites, Arkites, Sinites,
Gen 10:18 Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites. Later the Canaanite clans scattered
Gen 10:19 and the borders of Canaan reached from Sidon toward Gerar as far as Gaza, and then toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.
Gen 10:20 These are the sons of Ham by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.
Gen 10:21 Sons were also born to Shem, whose older brother was Japheth; Shem was the ancestor of all the sons of Eber.
Gen 10:22 The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram.
Gen 10:23 The sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshech.
Gen 10:24 Arphaxad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah the father of Eber.
Gen 10:25 Two sons were born to Eber: One was named Peleg, because in his time the earth was divided; his brother was named Joktan.
Gen 10:26 Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,
Gen 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
Gen 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

Gen 10:29 Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

Gen 10:30 The region where they lived stretched from Mesha toward Sephar, in the eastern hill country.

Gen 10:31 These are the sons of Shem by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.

Gen 10:32 These are the clans of Noah's sons, according to their lines of descent, within their nations. From these the nations spread out over the earth after the flood.

Gen 11:1 Now the whole world had one language and a common speech.

Gen 11:2 As men moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and settled there.

Gen 11:3 They said to each other, "Come, let's make bricks and bake them thoroughly." They used brick instead of stone, and tar for mortar.

Gen 11:4 Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth."

Gen 11:5 But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building.

Gen 11:6 The LORD said, "If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them."

Gen 11:7 Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other."

Gen 11:8 So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city.

Gen 11:9 That is why it was called Babel--because there the LORD confused the language of the whole world. From there the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

Gen 11:10 This is the account of Shem. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father of Arphaxad.

Gen 11:11 And after he became the father of Arphaxad, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:12 When Arphaxad had lived 35 years, he became the father of Shelah.

Gen 11:13 And after he became the father of Shelah, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:14 When Shelah had lived 30 years, he became the father of Eber.

Gen 11:15 And after he became the father of Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:16 When Eber had lived 34 years, he became the father of Peleg.

Gen 11:17 And after he became the father of Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:18 When Peleg had lived 30 years, he became the father of Reu.

Gen 11:19 And after he became the father of Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:20 When Reu had lived 32 years, he became the father of Serug.

Gen 11:21 And after he became the father of Serug, Reu lived 207 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:22 When Serug had lived 30 years, he became the father of Nahor.

Gen 11:23 And after he became the father of Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:24 When Nahor had lived 29 years, he became the father of Terah.

Gen 11:25 And after he became the father of Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:26 After Terah had lived 70 years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran.

Gen 11:27 This is the account of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran. And Haran became the father of Lot.

Gen 11:28 While his father Terah was still alive, Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans, in the land of his birth.

Gen 11:29 Abram and Nahor both married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah; she was the daughter of Haran, the father of both Milcah and Iscah.

Gen 11:30 Now Sarai was barren; she had no children.

Gen 11:31 Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and together they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there.

Gen 11:32 Terah lived 205 years, and he died in Haran.

Gen 12:1 The LORD had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you."

Gen 12:2 "I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing."

Gen 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

Gen 12:4 So Abram left, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he set out from Haran.

Gen 12:5 He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan, and they arrived there.

Gen 12:6 Abram traveled through the land as far as the site of the great tree of Moreh at Shechem. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

Gen 12:7 The LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Gen 12:8 From there he went on toward the hills east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD.

Gen 12:9 Then Abram set out and continued toward the Negev.

Gen 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe.

Gen 12:11 As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "I know what a beautiful woman you are.

Gen 12:12 When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' Then they will kill me but will let you live.

Gen 12:13 Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of you."

Gen 12:14 When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw that she was a very beautiful woman.

Gen 12:15 And when Pharaoh's officials saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into his palace.

Gen 12:16 He treated Abram well for her sake, and Abram acquired sheep and cattle, male and female donkeys, menservants and maidservants, and camels.

Gen 12:17 But the LORD inflicted serious diseases on Pharaoh and his household because of Abram's wife Sarai.

Gen 12:18 So Pharaoh summoned Abram. "What have you done to me?" he said. "Why didn't you tell me she was your wife?"

Gen 12:19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to be my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and go!"

Gen 12:20 Then Pharaoh gave orders about Abram to his men, and they sent him on his way, with his wife and everything he had.

Gen 13:1 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and everything he had, and Lot went with him.

Gen 13:2 Abram had become very wealthy in livestock and in silver and gold.

Gen 13:3 From the Negev he went from place to place until he came to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been earlier

Gen 13:4 and where he had first built an altar. There Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Gen 13:5 Now Lot, who was moving about with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

Gen 13:6 But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to stay together.

Gen 13:7 And quarreling arose between Abram's herdsmen and the herdsmen of Lot. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land at that time.

Gen 13:8 So Abram said to Lot, "Let's not have any quarreling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and mine, for we are brothers.

Gen 13:9 Is not the whole land before you? Let's part company. If you go to the left, I'll go to the right; if you go to the right, I'll go to the left."

Gen 13:10 Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan was well watered, like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, toward Zoar. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.)

Gen 13:11 So Lot chose for himself the whole plain of the Jordan and set out toward the east. The two men parted company.

Gen 13:12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain and pitched his tents near Sodom.

Gen 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked and were sinning greatly against the LORD.

Gen 13:14 The LORD said to Abram after Lot had parted from him, "Lift up your eyes from where you are and look north and south, east and west.

Gen 13:15 All the land that you see I will give to you and your offspring forever.

Gen 13:16 I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust, then your offspring could be counted.

Gen 13:17 Go, walk through the length and breadth of the land, for I am giving it to you."

Gen 13:18 So Abram moved his tents and went to live near the great trees of Mamre at Hebron, where he built an altar to the LORD.

Gen 14:1 At this time Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of Goiim

Gen 14:2 went to war against Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Gen 14:3 All these latter kings joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (the Salt Sea).

Gen 14:4 For twelve years they had been subject to Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Gen 14:5 In the fourteenth year, Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him went out and defeated the Rephaites in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzites in Ham, the Emites in Shaveh Kiriathaim

Gen 14:6 and the Horites in the hill country of Seir, as far as El Paran near the desert.

Gen 14:7 Then they turned back and went to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and they conquered the whole territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who were living in Hazazon Tamar.

Gen 14:8 Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) marched out and drew up their battle lines in the Valley of Siddim

Gen 14:9 against Kedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar-- four kings against five.

Gen 14:10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some of the men fell into them and the rest fled to the hills.

Gen 14:11 The four kings seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food; then they went away.

Gen 14:12 They also carried off Abram's nephew Lot and his possessions, since he was living in Sodom.

Gen 14:13 One who had escaped came and reported this to Abram the Hebrew. Now Abram was living near the great trees of Mamre the Amorite, a brother of Eshcol and Aner, all of whom were allied with Abram.

Gen 14:14 When Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, he called out the 318 trained men born in his household and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

Gen 14:15 During the night Abram divided his men to attack them and he routed them, pursuing them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.

Gen 14:16 He recovered all the goods and brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, together with the women and the other people.

Gen 14:17 After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

Gen 14:18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High,

Gen 14:19 and he blessed Abram, saying, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth.

Gen 14:20 And blessed be God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Gen 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people and keep the goods for yourself."

Gen 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, and have taken an oath

Gen 14:23 that I will accept nothing belonging to you, not even a thread or the thong of a sandal, so that you will never be able to say, 'I made Abram rich.'

Gen 14:24 I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share that belongs to the men who went with me-- to Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them have their share."

Gen 15:1 After this, the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your very great reward."

Gen 15:2 But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?"

Gen 15:3 And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir."

Gen 15:4 Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."

Gen 15:5 He took him outside and said, "Look up at the heavens and count the stars-- if indeed you can count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your offspring be."

Gen 15:6 Abram believed the LORD, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

Gen 15:7 He also said to him, "I am the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to take possession of it."

Gen 15:8 But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, how can I know that I will gain possession of it?"

Gen 15:9 So the LORD said to him, "Bring me a heifer, a goat and a ram, each three years old, along with a dove and a young pigeon."

Gen 15:10 Abram brought all these to him, cut them in two and arranged the halves opposite each other; the birds, however, he did not cut in half.

Gen 15:11 Then birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.

Gen 15:12 As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and a thick and dreadful darkness came over him.

Gen 15:13 Then the LORD said to him, "Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years."

Gen 15:14 But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will come out with great possessions.

Gen 15:15 You, however, will go to your fathers in peace and be buried at a good old age.

Gen 15:16 In the fourth generation your descendants will come back here, for the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure."

Gen 15:17 When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, a smoking firepot with a blazing torch appeared and passed between the pieces.

Gen 15:18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram and said, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates--

Gen 15:19 the land of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites,

Gen 15:20 Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaeites,

Gen 15:21 Amorites, Canaanites, Gergashites and Jebusites."

Gen 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maid servant named Hagar;

Gen 16:2 so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maid servant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said.

Gen 16:3 So after Abram had been living in Canaan ten years, Sarai his wife took her Egyptian maid servant Hagar and gave her to her husband to be his wife.

Gen 16:4 He slept with Hagar, and she conceived. When she knew she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress.

Gen 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering. I put my servant in your arms, and now that she knows she is pregnant, she despises me. May the LORD judge between you and me."

Gen 16:6 "Your servant is in your hands," Abram said. "Do with her whatever you think best." Then Sarai mistreated Hagar; so she fled from her.

Gen 16:7 The angel of the LORD found Hagar near a spring in the desert; it was the spring that is beside the road to Shur.

Gen 16:8 And he said, "Hagar, servant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?" "I'm running away from my mistress Sarai," she answered.

Gen 16:9 Then the angel of the LORD told her, "Go back to your mistress and submit to her."

Gen 16:10 The angel added, "I will so increase your descendants that they will be too numerous to count."

Gen 16:11 The angel of the LORD also said to her: "You are now with child and you will have a son. You shall name him Ishmael, for the LORD has heard of your misery.

Gen 16:12 He will be a wild donkey of a man; his hand will be against everyone and everyone's hand against him, and he will live in hostility toward all his brothers."

Gen 16:13 She gave this name to the LORD who spoke to her: "You are the God who sees me," for she said, "I have now seen the One who sees me."

Gen 16:14 That is why the well was called Beer Lahai Roi; it is still there, between Kadesh and Bered.

Gen 16:15 So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Gen 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael.

Gen 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am God Almighty; walk before me and be blameless.

Gen 17:2 I will confirm my covenant between me and you and will greatly increase your numbers."

Gen 17:3 Abram fell facedown, and God said to him,

Gen 17:4 "As for me, this is my covenant with you: You will be the father of many nations.

Gen 17:5 No longer will you be called Abram; your name will be Abraham, for I have made you a father of many nations.

Gen 17:6 I will make you very fruitful; I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.

Gen 17:7 I will establish my covenant as an everlasting covenant between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

Gen 17:8 The whole land of Canaan, where you are now an alien, I will give as an everlasting possession to you and your descendants after you; and I will be their God."

Gen 17:9 Then God said to Abraham, "As for you, you must keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you for the generations to come.

Gen 17:10 This is my covenant with you and your descendants after you, the covenant you are to keep: Every male among you shall be circumcised.

Gen 17:11 You are to undergo circumcision, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and you.

Gen 17:12 For the generations to come every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised, including those born in your household or bought with money from a foreigner-- those who are not your offspring.

Gen 17:13 Whether born in your household or bought with your money, they must be circumcised. My covenant in your flesh is to be an everlasting covenant.

Gen 17:14 Any uncircumcised male, who has not been circumcised in the flesh, will be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."

Gen 17:15 God also said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you are no longer to call her Sarai; her name will be Sarah.

Gen 17:16 I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her."

Gen 17:17 Abraham fell facedown; he laughed and said to himself, "Will a son be born to a man a hundred years old? Will Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?"

Gen 17:18 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!"

Gen 17:19 Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

Gen 17:20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard you: I will surely bless him; I will make him fruitful and will greatly increase his numbers. He will be the father of twelve rulers, and I will make him into a great nation.

Gen 17:21 But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you by this time next year."

Gen 17:22 When he had finished speaking with Abraham, God went up from him.

Gen 17:23 On that very day Abraham took his son Ishmael and all those born in his household or bought with his money, every male in his household, and circumcised them, as God told him.

Gen 17:24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised,

Gen 17:25 and his son Ishmael was thirteen;

Gen 17:26 Abraham and his son Ishmael were both circumcised on that same day.

Gen 17:27 And every male in Abraham's household, including those born in his household or bought from a foreigner, was circumcised with him.

Gen 18:1 The LORD appeared to Abraham near the great trees of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent in the heat of the day.

Gen 18:2 Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he hurried from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground.

Gen 18:3 He said, "If I have found favor in your eyes, my lord, do not pass your servant by.

Gen 18:4 Let a little water be brought, and then you may all wash your feet and rest under this tree.

Gen 18:5 Let me get you something to eat, so you can be refreshed and then go on your way-- now that you have come to your servant." "Very well," they answered, "do as you say."

Gen 18:6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. "Quick," he said, "get three seahs of fine flour and knead it and bake some bread."

Gen 18:7 Then he ran to the herd and selected a choice, tender calf and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it.

Gen 18:8 He then brought some curds and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.

Gen 18:9 "Where is your wife Sarah?" they asked him. "There, in the tent," he said.

Gen 18:10 Then the LORD said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife will have a son." Now Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him.

Gen 18:11 Abraham and Sarah were already old and well advanced in years, and Sarah was past the age of childbearing.

Gen 18:12 So Sarah laughed to herself as she thought, "After I am worn out and my master is old, will I now have this pleasure?"

Gen 18:13 Then the LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Will I really have a child, now that I am old?'"

Gen 18:14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will return to you at the appointed time next year and Sarah will have a son."

Gen 18:15 Sarah was afraid, so she lied and said, "I did not laugh." But he said, "Yes, you did laugh."

Gen 18:16 When the men got up to leave, they looked down toward Sodom, and Abraham walked along with them to see them on their way.

Gen 18:17 Then the LORD said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do?

Gen 18:18 Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and all nations on earth will be blessed through him.

Gen 18:19 For I have chosen him, so that he will direct his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just, so that the LORD will bring about for Abraham what he has promised him."

Gen 18:20 Then the LORD said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great and their sin so grievous

Gen 18:21 that I will go down and see if what they have done is as bad as the outcry that has reached me. If not, I will know."

Gen 18:22 The men turned away and went toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before the LORD.

Gen 18:23 Then Abraham approached him and said: "Will you sweep away the righteous with the wicked?"

Gen 18:24 What if there are fifty righteous people in the city? Will you really sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous people in it?"

Gen 18:25 Far be it from you to do such a thing-- to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous and the wicked alike. Far be it from you! Will not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

Gen 18:26 The LORD said, "If I find fifty righteous people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

Gen 18:27 Then Abraham spoke up again: "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, though I am nothing but dust and ashes,

Gen 18:28 what if the number of the righteous is five less than fifty? Will you destroy the whole city because of five people?" "If I find forty-five there," he said, "I will not destroy it."

Gen 18:29 Once again he spoke to him, "What if only forty are found there?" He said, "For the sake of forty, I will not do it."

Gen 18:30 Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak. What if only thirty can be found there?" He answered, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

Gen 18:31 Abraham said, "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, what if only twenty can be found there?" He said, "For the sake of twenty, I will not destroy it."

Gen 18:32 Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak just once more. What if only ten can be found there?" He answered, "For the sake of ten, I will not destroy it."

Gen 18:33 When the LORD had finished speaking with Abraham, he left, and Abraham returned home.

Gen 19:1 The two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of the city. When he saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground.

Gen 19:2 "My lords," he said, "please turn aside to your servant's house. You can wash your feet and spend the night and then go on your way early in the morning." "No," they answered, "we will spend the night in the square."

Gen 19:3 But he insisted so strongly that they did go with him and entered his house. He prepared a meal for them, baking bread without yeast, and they ate.

Gen 19:4 Before they had gone to bed, all the men from every part of the city of Sodom-- both young and old-- surrounded the house.

Gen 19:5 They called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can have sex with them."

Gen 19:6 Lot went outside to meet them and shut the door behind him

Gen 19:7 and said, "No, my friends. Don't do this wicked thing."

Gen 19:8 Look, I have two daughters who have never slept with a man. Let me bring them out to you, and you can do what you like with them. But don't do anything to these men, for they have come under the protection of my roof."

Gen 19:9 "Get out of our way," they replied. And they said, "This fellow came here as an alien, and now he wants to play the judge! We'll treat you worse than them." They kept bringing pressure on Lot and moved forward to break down the door.

Gen 19:10 But the men inside reached out and pulled Lot back into the house and shut the door.

Gen 19:11 Then they struck the men who were at the door of the house, young and old, with blindness so that they could not find the door.

Gen 19:12 The two men said to Lot, "Do you have anyone else here-- sons-in-law, sons or daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of here,

Gen 19:13 because we are going to destroy this place. The outcry to the LORD against its people is so great that he has sent us to destroy it."

Gen 19:14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry his daughters. He said, "Hurry and get out of this place, because the LORD is about to destroy the city!" But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

Gen 19:15 With the coming of dawn, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Hurry! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away when the city is punished."

Gen 19:16 When he hesitated, the men grasped his hand and the hands of his wife and of his two daughters and led them safely out of the city, for the LORD was merciful to them.

Gen 19:17 As soon as they had brought them out, one of them said, "Flee for your lives! Don't look back, and don't stop anywhere in the plain! Flee to the mountains or you will be swept away!"

Gen 19:18 But Lot said to them, "No, my lords, please!"

Gen 19:19 Your servant has found favor in your eyes, and you have shown great kindness to me in sparing my life. But I can't flee to the mountains; this disaster will overtake me, and I'll die.

Gen 19:20 Look, here is a town near enough to run to, and it is small. Let me flee to it-- it is very small, isn't it? Then my life will be spared."

Gen 19:21 He said to him, "Very well, I will grant this request too; I will not overthrow the town you speak of.

Gen 19:22 But flee there quickly, because I cannot do anything until you reach it." (That is why the town was called Zoar.)

Gen 19:23 By the time Lot reached Zoar, the sun had risen over the land.

Gen 19:24 Then the LORD rained down burning sulfur on Sodom and Gomorrah-- from the LORD out of the heavens.

Gen 19:25 Thus he overthrew those cities and the entire plain, including all those living in the cities-- and also the vegetation in the land.

Gen 19:26 But Lot's wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

Gen 19:27 Early the next morning Abraham got up and returned to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

Gen 19:28 He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, toward all the land of the plain, and he saw dense smoke rising from the land, like smoke from a furnace.

Gen 19:29 So when God destroyed the cities of the plain, he remembered Abraham, and he brought Lot out of the catastrophe that overthrew the cities where Lot had lived.

Gen 19:30 Lot and his two daughters left Zoar and settled in the mountains, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave.

Gen 19:31 One day the older daughter said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man around here to lie with us, as is the custom all over the earth.

Gen 19:32 Let's get our father to drink wine and then lie with him and preserve our family line through our father."

Gen 19:33 That night they got their father to drink wine, and the older daughter went in and lay with him. He was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.

Gen 19:34 The next day the older daughter said to the younger, "Last night I lay with my father. Let's get him to drink wine again tonight, and you go in and lie with him so we can preserve our family line through our father."

Gen 19:35 So they got their father to drink wine that night also, and the younger daughter went and lay with him. Again he was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.

Gen 19:36 So both of Lot's daughters became pregnant by their father.

Gen 19:37 The older daughter had a son, and she named him Moab; he is the father of the Moabites of today.

Gen 19:38 The younger daughter also had a son, and she named him Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the Ammonites of today.

Gen 20:1 Now Abraham moved on from there into the region of the Negev and lived between Kadesh and Shur. For a while he stayed in Gerar,

Gen 20:2 and there Abraham said of his wife Sarah, "She is my sister." Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her.

Gen 20:3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream one night and said to him, "You are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken; she is a married woman."

Gen 20:4 Now Abimelech had not gone near her, so he said, "Lord, will you destroy an innocent nation?

Gen 20:5 Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister,' and didn't she also say, 'He is my brother'? I have done this with a clear conscience and clean hands."

Gen 20:6 Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know you did this with a clear conscience, and so I have kept you from sinning against me. That is why I did not let you touch her."

Gen 20:7 Now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, you may be sure that you and all yours will die."

Gen 20:8 Early the next morning Abimelech summoned all his officials, and when he told them all that had happened, they were very much afraid.

Gen 20:9 Then Abimelech called Abraham in and said, "What have you done to us? How have I wronged you that you have brought such great guilt upon me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done."

Gen 20:10 And Abimelech asked Abraham, "What was your reason for doing this?"

Gen 20:11 Abraham replied, "I said to myself, 'There is surely no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.'

Gen 20:12 Besides, she really is my sister, the daughter of my father though not of my mother; and she became my wife.

Gen 20:13 And when God had me wander from my father's household, I said to her, 'This is how you can show your love to me: Everywhere we go, say of me, "He is my brother." '

Gen 20:14 Then Abimelech brought sheep and cattle and male and female slaves and gave them to Abraham, and he returned Sarah his wife to him.

Gen 20:15 And Abimelech said, "My land is before you; live wherever you like."

Gen 20:16 To Sarah he said, "I am giving your brother a thousand shekels of silver. This is to cover the offense against you before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated."

Gen 20:17 Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his slave girls so they could have children again,

Gen 20:18 for the LORD had closed up every womb in Abimelech's household because of Abraham's wife Sarah.

Gen 21:1 Now the LORD was gracious to Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah what he had promised.

Gen 21:2 Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the very time God had promised him.

Gen 21:3 Abraham gave the name Isaac to the son Sarah bore him.

Gen 21:4 When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God commanded him.

Gen 21:5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Gen 21:6 Sarah said, "God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me."

Gen 21:7 And she added, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

Gen 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and on the day Isaac was weaned Abraham held a great feast.

Gen 21:9 But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham was mocking,

Gen 21:10 and she said to Abraham, "Get rid of that slave woman and her son, for that slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac."

Gen 21:11 The matter distressed Abraham greatly because it concerned his son.

Gen 21:12 But God said to him, "Do not be so distressed about the boy and your maidservant. Listen to whatever Sarah tells you, because it is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.

Gen 21:13 I will make the son of the maidservant into a nation also, because he is your offspring."

Gen 21:14 Early the next morning Abraham took some food and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar. He set them on her shoulders and then sent her off with the boy. She went on her way and wandered in the desert of Beersheba.

Gen 21:15 When the water in the skin was gone, she put the boy under one of the bushes.

Gen 21:16 Then she went off and sat down nearby, about a bowshot away, for she thought, "I cannot watch the boy die." And as she sat there nearby, she began to sob.

Gen 21:17 God heard the boy crying, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What is the matter, Hagar? Do not be afraid; God has heard the boy crying as he lies there.

Gen 21:18 Lift the boy up and take him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation."

Gen 21:19 Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

Gen 21:20 God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the desert and became an archer.

Gen 21:21 While he was living in the Desert of Paran, his mother got a wife for him from Egypt.

Gen 21:22 At that time Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his forces said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do.

Gen 21:23 Now swear to me here before God that you will not deal falsely with me or my children or my descendants. Show to me and the country where you are living as an alien the same kindness I have shown to you."

Gen 21:24 Abraham said, "I swear it."

Gen 21:25 Then Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized.

Gen 21:26 But Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this. You did not tell me, and I heard about it only today."

Gen 21:27 So Abraham brought sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a treaty.

Gen 21:28 Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock,

Gen 21:29 and Abimelech asked Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs you have set apart by themselves?"

Gen 21:30 He replied, "Accept these seven lambs from my hand as a witness that I dug this well."

Gen 21:31 So that place was called Beersheba, because the two men swore an oath there.

Gen 21:32 After the treaty had been made at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his forces returned to the land of the Philistines.

Gen 21:33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called upon the name of the LORD, the Eternal God.

Gen 21:34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines for a long time.

Gen 22:1 Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied.

Gen 22:2 Then God said, "Take your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about."

Gen 22:3 Early the next morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about.

Gen 22:4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance.

Gen 22:5 He said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you."

Gen 22:6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together,

Gen 22:7 Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, "Father?" "Yes, my son?" Abraham replied. "The fire and wood are here," Isaac said, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

Gen 22:8 Abraham answered, "God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." And the two of them went on together.

Gen 22:9 When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

Gen 22:10 Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

Gen 22:11 But the angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, "Abraham! Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied.

Gen 22:12 "Do not lay a hand on the boy," he said. "Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son."

Gen 22:13 Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

Gen 22:14 So Abraham called that place The LORD Will Provide. And to this day it is said, "On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided."

Gen 22:15 The angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time

Gen 22:16 and said, "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son,

Gen 22:17 I will surely bless you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of the cities of their enemies,

Gen 22:18 and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed me."

Gen 22:19 Then Abraham returned to his servants, and they set off together for Beersheba. And Abraham stayed in Beersheba.

Gen 22:20 Some time later Abraham was told, "Milcah is also a mother; she has borne sons to your brother Nahor:

Gen 22:21 Uz the firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel (the father of Aram),

Gen 22:22 Kesen, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph and Bethuel."

Gen 22:23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight sons to Abraham's brother Nahor.

Gen 22:24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also had sons: Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

Gen 23:1 Sarah lived to be a hundred and twenty-seven years old.

Gen 23:2 She died at Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to weep over her.

Gen 23:3 Then Abraham rose from beside his dead wife and spoke to the Hittites. He said,

Gen 23:4 "I am an alien and a stranger among you. Sell me some property for a burial site here so I can bury my dead."

Gen 23:5 The Hittites replied to Abraham,

Gen 23:6 "Sir, listen to us. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our tombs. None of us will refuse you his tomb for burying your dead."

Gen 23:7 Then Abraham rose and bowed down before the people of the land, the Hittites.

Gen 23:8 He said to them, "If you are willing to let me bury my dead, then listen to me and intercede with Ephron son of Zohar on my behalf

Gen 23:9 so he will sell me the cave of Machpelah, which belongs to him and is at the end of his field. Ask him to sell it to me for the full price as a burial site among you."

Gen 23:10 Ephron the Hittite was sitting among his people and he replied to Abraham in the hearing of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city.

Gen 23:11 "No, my lord," he said. "Listen to me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. I give it to you in the presence of my people. Bury your dead."

Gen 23:12 Again Abraham bowed down before the people of the land

Gen 23:13 and he said to Ephron in their hearing, "Listen to me, if you will. I will pay the price of the field. Accept it from me so I can bury my dead there."

Gen 23:14 Ephron answered Abraham,

Gen 23:15 "Listen to me, my lord; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver, but what is that between me and you? Bury your dead."

Gen 23:16 Abraham agreed to Ephron's terms and weighed out for him the price he had named in the hearing of the Hittites: four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weight current among the merchants.

Gen 23:17 So Ephron's field in Machpelah near Mamre-- both the field and the cave in it, and all the trees within the borders of the field-- was deeded

Gen 23:18 to Abraham as his property in the presence of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of the city.

Gen 23:19 Afterward Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Machpelah near Mamre (which is at Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

Gen 23:20 So the field and the cave in it were deeded to Abraham by the Hittites as a burial site.

Gen 24:1 Abraham was now old and well advanced in years, and the LORD had blessed him in every way.

Gen 24:2 He said to the chief servant in his household, the one in charge of all that he had, "Put your hand under my thigh.

Gen 24:3 I want you to swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living,

Gen 24:4 but will go to my country and my own relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac."

Gen 24:5 The servant asked him, "What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land? Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?"

Gen 24:6 "Make sure that you do not take my son back there," Abraham said.

Gen 24:7 "The LORD, the God of heaven, who brought me out of my father's household and my native land and who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying, 'To your offspring I will give this land'-- he will send his angel before you so that you can get a wife for my son from there.

Gen 24:8 If the woman is unwilling to come back with you, then you will be released from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there."

Gen 24:9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

Gen 24:10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and left, taking with him all kinds of good things from his master. He set out for Aram Naharaim and made his way to the town of Nahor.

Gen 24:11 He had the camels kneel down near the well outside the town; it was toward evening, the time the women go out to draw water.

Gen 24:12 Then he prayed, "O LORD, God of my master Abraham, give me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

Gen 24:13 See, I am standing beside this spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.

Gen 24:14 May it be that when I say to a girl, 'Please let down your jar that I may have a drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I'll water your camels too'-- let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."

Gen 24:15 Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, who was the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor.

Gen 24:16 The girl was very beautiful, a virgin; no man had ever lain with her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar and came up again.

Gen 24:17 The servant hurried to meet her and said, "Please give me a little water from your jar."

Gen 24:18 "Drink, my lord," she said, and quickly lowered the jar to her hands and gave him a drink.

Gen 24:19 After she had given him a drink, she said, "I'll draw water for your camels too, until they have finished drinking."

Gen 24:20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels.

Gen 24:21 Without saying a word, the man watched her closely to learn whether or not the LORD had made his journey successful.

Gen 24:22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold nose ring weighing a beka and two gold bracelets weighing ten shekels.

Gen 24:23 Then he asked, "Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?"

Gen 24:24 She answered him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son that Milcah bore to Nahor."

Gen 24:25 And she added, "We have plenty of straw and fodder, as well as room for you to spend the night."

Gen 24:26 Then the man bowed down and worshiped the LORD,

Gen 24:27 saying, "Praise be to the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned his kindness and faithfulness to my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the journey to the house of my master's relatives."

Gen 24:28 The girl ran and told her mother's household about these things.

Gen 24:29 Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and he hurried out to the man at the spring.

Gen 24:30 As soon as he had seen the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's arms, and had heard Rebekah tell what the man said to her, he went out to the man and found him standing by the camels near the spring.

Gen 24:31 "Come, you who are blessed by the LORD," he said. "Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels."

Gen 24:32 So the man went to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and fodder were brought for the camels, and water for him and his men to wash their feet.

Gen 24:33 Then food was set before him, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told you what I have to say." "Then tell us," [Laban] said.

Gen 24:34 So he said, "I am Abraham's servant.

Gen 24:35 The LORD has blessed my master abundantly, and he has become wealthy. He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, menservants and maidservants, and camels and donkeys.

Gen 24:36 My master's wife Sarah has borne him a son in her old age, and he has given him everything he owns.

Gen 24:37 And my master made me swear an oath, and said, "You must not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live,

Gen 24:38 but go to my father's family and to my own clan, and get a wife for my son.'

Gen 24:39 "Then I asked my master, 'What if the woman will not come back with me?'

Gen 24:40 "He replied, 'The LORD, before whom I have walked, will send his angel with you and make your journey a success, so that you can get a wife for my son from my own clan and from my father's family.'

Gen 24:41 Then, when you go to my clan, you will be released from my oath even if they refuse to give her to you-- you will be released from my oath.'

Gen 24:42 "When I came to the spring today, I said, 'O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if you will, please grant success to the journey on which I have come.'

Gen 24:43 See, I am standing beside this spring; if a maiden comes out to draw water and I say to her, "Please let me drink a little water from your jar,"

Gen 24:44 and if she says to me, "Drink, and I'll draw water for your camels too," let her be the one the LORD has chosen for my master's son.'

Gen 24:45 "Before I finished praying in my heart, Rebekah came out, with her jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.'

Gen 24:46 "She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said, 'Drink, and I'll water your camels too.' So I drank, and she watered the camels also.

Gen 24:47 "I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' "She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.' "Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her arms,

Gen 24:48 and I bowed down and worshiped the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right road to get the granddaughter of my master's brother for his son.

Gen 24:49 Now if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so I may know which way to turn."

Gen 24:50 Laban and Bethuel answered, "This is from the LORD; we can say nothing to you one way or the other.

Gen 24:51 Here is Rebekah; take her and go, and let her become the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has directed."

Gen 24:52 When Abraham's servant heard what they said, he bowed down to the ground before the LORD.

Gen 24:53 Then the servant brought out gold and silver jewelry and articles of clothing and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave costly gifts to her brother and to her mother.

Gen 24:54 Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night there. When they got up the next morning, he said, "Send me on my way to my master."

Gen 24:55 But her brother and her mother replied, "Let the girl remain with us ten days or so; then you may go."

Gen 24:56 But he said to them, "Do not detain me, now that the LORD has granted success to my journey. Send me on my way so I may go to my master."

Gen 24:57 Then they said, "Let's call the girl and ask her about it."

Gen 24:58 So they called Rebekah and asked her, "Will you go with this man?" "I will go," she said.

Gen 24:59 So they sent their sister Rebekah on her way, along with her nurse and Abraham's servant and his men.

Gen 24:60 And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, "Our sister, may you increase to thousands upon thousands; may your offspring possess the gates of their enemies."

Gen 24:61 Then Rebekah and her maids got ready and mounted their camels and went back with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

Gen 24:62 Now Isaac had come from Beer Lahai Roi, for he was living in the Negev.

Gen 24:63 He went out to the field one evening to meditate, and as he looked up, he saw camels approaching.

Gen 24:64 Rebekah also looked up and saw Isaac. She got down from her camel

Gen 24:65 and asked the servant, "Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?" "He is my master," the servant answered. So she took her veil and covered herself.

Gen 24:66 Then the servant told Isaac all he had done.

Gen 24:67 Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah, and he married Rebekah. So she became his wife, and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Gen 25:1 Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah.

Gen 25:2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.

Gen 25:3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan; the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites and the Leummites.

Gen 25:4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were descendants of Keturah.

Gen 25:5 Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac.

Gen 25:6 But while he was still living, he gave gifts to the sons of his concubines and sent them away from his son Isaac to the land of the east.

Gen 25:7 Altogether, Abraham lived a hundred and seventy-five years.

Gen 25:8 Then Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age, an old man and full of years; and he was gathered to his people.

Gen 25:9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite,

Gen 25:10 the field Abraham had bought from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah.

Gen 25:11 After Abraham's death, God blessed his son Isaac, who then lived near Beer Lahai Roi.

Gen 25:12 This is the account of Abraham's son Ishmael, whom Sarah's maidservant, Hagar the Egyptian, bore to Abraham.

Gen 25:13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, listed in the order of their birth: Nebaioth the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Gen 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Gen 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.

Gen 25:16 These were the sons of Ishmael, and these are the names of the twelve tribal rulers according to their settlements and camps.

Gen 25:17 Altogether, Ishmael lived a hundred and thirty-seven years. He breathed his last and died, and he was gathered to his people.

Gen 25:18 His descendants settled in the area from Havilah to Shur, near the border of Egypt, as you go toward Asshur. And they lived in hostility toward all their brothers.

Gen 25:19 This is the account of Abraham's son Isaac. Abraham became the father of Isaac,

Gen 25:20 and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram and sister of Laban the Aramean.

Gen 25:21 Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was barren. The LORD answered his prayer, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.

Gen 25:22 The babies jostled each other within her, and she said, "Why is this happening to me?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

Gen 25:23 The LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples from within you will be separated; one people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger."

Gen 25:24 When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb.

Gen 25:25 The first to come out was red, and his whole body was like a hairy garment; so they named him Esau.

Gen 25:26 After this, his brother came out, with his hand grasping Esau's heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekah gave birth to them.

Gen 25:27 The boys grew up, and Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the open country, while Jacob was a quiet man, staying among the tents.

Gen 25:28 Isaac, who had a taste for wild game, loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Gen 25:29 Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished.

Gen 25:30 He said to Jacob, "Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I'm famished!" (That is why he was also called Edom.)

Gen 25:31 Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright."

Gen 25:32 "Look, I am about to die," Esau said. "What good is the birthright to me?"

Gen 25:33 But Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob.

Gen 25:34 Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

Gen 26:1 Now there was a famine in the land-- besides the earlier famine of Abraham's time-- and Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines in Gerar.

Gen 26:2 The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land where I tell you to live.

Gen 26:3 Stay in this land for a while, and I will be with you and will bless you. For to you and your descendants I will give all these lands and will confirm the oath I swore to your father Abraham.

Gen 26:4 I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and will give them all these lands, and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed,

Gen 26:5 because Abraham obeyed me and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees and my laws."

Gen 26:6 So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

Gen 26:7 When the men of that place asked him about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," because he was afraid to say, "She is my wife." He thought, "The men of this place might kill me on account of Rebekah, because she is beautiful."

Gen 26:8 When Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down from a window and saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

Gen 26:9 So Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, "She is really your wife! Why did you say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac answered him, "Because I thought I might lose my life on account of her."

Gen 26:10 Then Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the men might well have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us."

Gen 26:11 So Abimelech gave orders to all the people: "Anyone who molests this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."

Gen 26:12 Isaac planted crops in that land and the same year reaped a hundredfold, because the LORD blessed him.

Gen 26:13 The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy.

Gen 26:14 He had so many flocks and herds and servants that the Philistines envied him.

Gen 26:15 So all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the time of his father Abraham, the Philistines stopped up, filling them with earth.

Gen 26:16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Move away from us; you have become too powerful for us."

Gen 26:17 So Isaac moved away from there and encamped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there.

Gen 26:18 Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the time of his father Abraham, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died, and he gave them the same names his father had given them.

Gen 26:19 Isaac's servants dug in the valley and discovered a well of fresh water there.

Gen 26:20 But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen and said, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Esek, because they disputed with him.

Gen 26:21 Then they dug another well, but they quarreled over that one also; so he named it Sitnah.

Gen 26:22 He moved on from there and dug another well, and no one quarreled over it. He named it Rehoboth, saying, "Now the LORD has given us room and we will flourish in the land."

Gen 26:23 From there he went up to Beersheba.

Gen 26:24 That night the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bless you and will increase the number of your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham."

Gen 26:25 Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD. There he pitched his tent, and there his servants dug a well.

Gen 26:26 Meanwhile, Abimelech had come to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his personal adviser and Phicol the commander of his forces.

Gen 26:27 Isaac asked them, "Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me and sent me away?"

Gen 26:28 They answered, "We saw clearly that the LORD was with you; so we said, 'There ought to be a sworn agreement between us'-- between us and you. Let us make a treaty with you

Gen 26:29 that you will do us no harm, just as we did not molest you but always treated you well and sent you away in peace. And now you are blessed by the LORD."

Gen 26:30 Isaac then made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

Gen 26:31 Early the next morning the men swore an oath to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.

Gen 26:32 That day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well they had dug. They said, "We've found water!"

Gen 26:33 He called it Shibah, and to this day the name of the town has been Beersheba.

Gen 26:34 When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and also Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Gen 26:35 They were a source of grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

Gen 27:1 When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see, he called for Esau his older son and said to him, "My son." "Here I am," he answered.

Gen 27:2 Isaac said, "I am now an old man and don't know the day of my death.

Gen 27:3 Now then, get your weapons-- your quiver and bow-- and go out to the open country to hunt some wild game for me.

Gen 27:4 Prepare me the kind of tasty food I like and bring it to me to eat, so that I may give you my blessing before I die."

Gen 27:5 Now Rebekah was listening as Isaac spoke to his son Esau. When Esau left for the open country to hunt game and bring it back,

Gen 27:6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Look, I overheard your father say to your brother Esau,

Gen 27:7 'Bring me some game and prepare me some tasty food to eat, so that I may give you my blessing in the presence of the LORD before I die.'

Gen 27:8 Now, my son, listen carefully and do what I tell you:

Gen 27:9 Go out to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, so I can prepare some tasty food for your father, just the way he likes it.

Gen 27:10 Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may give you his blessing before he dies."

Gen 27:11 Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "But my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I'm a man with smooth skin.

Gen 27:12 What if my father touches me? I would appear to be tricking him and would bring down a curse on myself rather than a blessing."

Gen 27:13 His mother said to him, "My son, let the curse fall on me. Just do what I say; go and get them for me."

Gen 27:14 So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and she prepared some tasty food, just the way his father liked it.

Gen 27:15 Then Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son, which she had in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob.

Gen 27:16 She also covered his hands and the smooth part of his neck with the goatskins.

Gen 27:17 Then she handed to her son Jacob the tasty food and the bread she had made.

Gen 27:18 He went to his father and said, "My father." "Yes, my son," he answered. "Who is it?"

Gen 27:19 Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game so that you may give me your blessing."

Gen 27:20 Isaac asked his son, "How did you find it so quickly, my son?" "The LORD your God gave me success," he replied.

Gen 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near so I can touch you, my son, to know whether you really are my son Esau or not."

Gen 27:22 Jacob went close to his father Isaac, who touched him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau."

Gen 27:23 He did not recognize him, for his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him.

Gen 27:24 "Are you really my son Esau?" he asked. "I am," he replied.

Gen 27:25 Then he said, "My son, bring me some of your game to eat, so that I may give you my blessing."

Jacob brought it to him and he ate; and he brought some wine and he drank.

Gen 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come here, my son, and kiss me."

Gen 27:27 So he went to him and kissed him. When Isaac caught the smell of his clothes, he blessed him and said, "Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed."

Gen 27:28 May God give you of heaven's dew and of earth's richness-- an abundance of grain and new wine.

Gen 27:29 May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. May those who curse you be cursed and those who bless you be blessed."

Gen 27:30 After Isaac finished blessing him and Jacob had scarcely left his father's presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting.

Gen 27:31 He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, "My father, sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing."

Gen 27:32 His father Isaac asked him, "Who are you?" "I am your son," he answered, "your firstborn, Esau."

Gen 27:33 Isaac trembled violently and said, "Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came and I blessed him-- and indeed he will be blessed!"

Gen 27:34 When Esau heard his father's words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me-- me too, my father!"

Gen 27:35 But he said, "Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing."

Gen 27:36 Esau said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob? He has deceived me these two times: He took my birthright, and now he's taken my blessing!" Then he asked, "Haven't you reserved any blessing for me?"

Gen 27:37 Isaac answered Esau, "I have made him lord over you and have made all his relatives his servants, and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. So what can I possibly do for you, my son?"

Gen 27:38 Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father!" Then Esau wept aloud.

Gen 27:39 His father Isaac answered him, "Your dwelling will be away from the earth's richness, away from the dew of heaven above.

Gen 27:40 You will live by the sword and you will serve your brother. But when you grow restless, you will throw his yoke from off your neck."

Gen 27:41 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

Gen 27:42 When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is consoling himself with the thought of killing you.

Gen 27:43 Now then, my son, do what I say: Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran.

Gen 27:44 Stay with him for a while until your brother's fury subsides.

Gen 27:45 When your brother is no longer angry with you and forgets what you did to him, I'll send word for you to come back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

Gen 27:46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I'm disgusted with living because of these Hittite women. If Jacob takes a wife from among the women of this land, from Hittite women like these, my life will not be worth living."

Gen 28:1 So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him and commanded him: "Do not marry a Canaanite woman.

Gen 28:2 Go at once to Paddan Aram, to the house of your mother's father Bethuel. Take a wife for yourself there, from among the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.

Gen 28:3 May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and increase your numbers until you become a community of peoples.

Gen 28:4 May he give you and your descendants the blessing given to Abraham, so that you may take possession of the land where you now live as an alien, the land God gave to Abraham."

Gen 28:5 Then Isaac sent Jacob on his way, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Gen 28:6 Now Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram to take a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he commanded him, "Do not marry a Canaanite woman,"

Gen 28:7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Paddan Aram.

Gen 28:8 Esau then realized how displeasing the Canaanite women were to his father Isaac;

Gen 28:9 so he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Ishmael son of Abraham, in addition to the wives he already had.

Gen 28:10 Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran.

Gen 28:11 When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep.

Gen 28:12 He had a dream in which he saw a stairway resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

Gen 28:13 There above it stood the LORD, and he said: "I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying.

Gen 28:14 Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring.

Gen 28:15 I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

Gen 28:16 When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I was not aware of it."

Gen 28:17 He was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven."

Gen 28:18 Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it.

Gen 28:19 He called that place Bethel, though the city used to be called Luz.

Gen 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear

Gen 28:21 so that I return safely to my father's house, then the LORD will be my God
Gen 28:22 and this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be God's house, and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth."

Gen 29:1 Then Jacob continued on his journey and came to the land of the eastern peoples.

Gen 29:2 There he saw a well in the field, with three flocks of sheep lying near it because the flocks were watered from that well. The stone over the mouth of the well was large.

Gen 29:3 When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone away from the well's mouth and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

Gen 29:4 Jacob asked the shepherds, "My brothers, where are you from?" "We're from Haran," they replied.

Gen 29:5 He said to them, "Do you know Laban, Nahor's grandson?" "Yes, we know him," they answered.

Gen 29:6 Then Jacob asked them, "Is he well?" "Yes, he is," they said, "and here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep."

Gen 29:7 "Look," he said, "the sun is still high; it is not time for the flocks to be gathered. Water the sheep and take them back to pasture."

Gen 29:8 "We can't," they replied, "until all the flocks are gathered and the stone has been rolled away from the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep."

Gen 29:9 While he was still talking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

Gen 29:10 When Jacob saw Rachel daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, and Laban's sheep, he went over and rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well and watered his uncle's sheep.

Gen 29:11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and began to weep aloud.

Gen 29:12 He had told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and a son of Rebekah. So she ran and told her father.

Gen 29:13 As soon as Laban heard the news about Jacob, his sister's son, he hurried to meet him. He embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his home, and there Jacob told him all these things.

Gen 29:14 Then Laban said to him, "You are my own flesh and blood." After Jacob had stayed with him for a whole month,

Gen 29:15 Laban said to him, "Just because you are a relative of mine, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be."

Gen 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Gen 29:17 Leah had weak eyes, but Rachel was lovely in form, and beautiful.

Gen 29:18 Jacob was in love with Rachel and said, "I'll work for you seven years in return for your younger daughter Rachel."

Gen 29:19 Laban said, "It's better that I give her to you than to some other man. Stay here with me."

Gen 29:20 So Jacob served seven years to get Rachel, but they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her.

Gen 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife. My time is completed, and I want to lie with her."

Gen 29:22 So Laban brought together all the people of the place and gave a feast.

Gen 29:23 But when evening came, he took his daughter Leah and gave her to Jacob, and Jacob lay with her.

Gen 29:24 And Laban gave his servant girl Zilpah to his daughter as her maidservant.

Gen 29:25 When morning came, there was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? I served you for Rachel, didn't I? Why have you deceived me?"

Gen 29:26 Laban replied, "It is not our custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the older one.

Gen 29:27 Finish this daughter's bridal week; then we will give you the younger one also, in return for another seven years of work."

Gen 29:28 And Jacob did so. He finished the week with Leah, and then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife.

Gen 29:29 Laban gave his servant girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maidservant.

Gen 29:30 Jacob lay with Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked for Laban another seven years.

Gen 29:31 When the LORD saw that Leah was not loved, he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.

Gen 29:32 Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben, for she said, "It is because the LORD has seen my misery. Surely my husband will love me now."

Gen 29:33 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "Because the LORD heard that I am not loved, he gave me this one too." So she named him Simeon.

Gen 29:34 Again she conceived, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons." So he was named Levi.

Gen 29:35 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "This time I will praise the LORD."

So she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

Gen 30:1 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children, she became jealous of her sister. So she said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I'll die!"

Gen 30:2 Jacob became angry with her and said, "Am I in the place of God, who has kept you from having children?"

Gen 30:3 Then she said, "Here is Bilhah, my maid servant. Sleep with her so that she can bear children for me and that through her I too can build a family."

Gen 30:4 So she gave him her servant Bilhah as a wife. Jacob slept with her,

Gen 30:5 and she became pregnant and bore him a son.

Gen 30:6 Then Rachel said, "God has vindicated me; he has listened to my plea and given me a son." Because of this she named him Dan.

Gen 30:7 Rachel's servant Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

Gen 30:8 Then Rachel said, "I have had a great struggle with my sister, and I have won." So she named him Naphtali.

Gen 30:9 When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her maid servant Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

Gen 30:10 Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Gen 30:11 Then Leah said, "What good fortune!" So she named him Gad.

Gen 30:12 Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

Gen 30:13 Then Leah said, "How happy I am! The women will call me happy." So she named him Asher.

Gen 30:14 During wheat harvest, Reuben went out into the fields and found some mandrake plants, which he brought to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

Gen 30:15 But she said to her, "Wasn't it enough that you took away my husband? Will you take my son's mandrakes too?" "Very well," Rachel said, "he can sleep with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes."

Gen 30:16 So when Jacob came in from the fields that evening, Leah went out to meet him. "You must sleep with me," she said. "I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he slept with her that night.

Gen 30:17 God listened to Leah, and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth son.

Gen 30:18 Then Leah said, "God has rewarded me for giving my maid servant to my husband." So she named him Issachar.

Gen 30:19 Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

Gen 30:20 Then Leah said, "God has presented me with a precious gift. This time my husband will treat me with honor, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun.

Gen 30:21 Some time later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

Gen 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel; he listened to her and opened her womb.

Gen 30:23 She became pregnant and gave birth to a son and said, "God has taken away my disgrace."

Gen 30:24 She named him Joseph, and said, "May the LORD add to me another son."

Gen 30:25 After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me on my way so I can go back to my own homeland.

Gen 30:26 Give me my wives and children, for whom I have served you, and I will be on my way. You know how much work I've done for you."

Gen 30:27 But Laban said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes, please stay. I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you."

Gen 30:28 He added, "Name your wages, and I will pay them."

Gen 30:29 Jacob said to him, "You know how I have worked for you and how your livestock has fared under my care.

Gen 30:30 The little you had before I came has increased greatly, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I have been. But now, when may I do something for my own household?"

Gen 30:31 "What shall I give you?" he asked. "Don't give me anything," Jacob replied. "But if you will do this one thing for me, I will go on tending your flocks and watching over them:

Gen 30:32 Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-colored lamb and every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages.

Gen 30:33 And my honesty will testify for me in the future, whenever you check on the wages you have paid me. Any goat in my possession that is not speckled or spotted, or any lamb that is not dark-colored, will be considered stolen."

Gen 30:34 "Agreed," said Laban. "Let it be as you have said."

Gen 30:35 That same day he removed all the male goats that were streaked or spotted, and all the speckled or spotted female goats (all that had white on them) and all the dark-colored lambs, and he placed them in the care of his sons.

Gen 30:36 Then he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob continued to tend the rest of Laban's flocks.

Gen 30:37 Jacob, however, took fresh-cut branches from poplar, almond and plane trees and made white stripes on them by peeling the bark and exposing the white inner wood of the branches.

Gen 30:38 Then he placed the peeled branches in all the watering troughs, so that they would be directly in front of the flocks when they came to drink. When the flocks were in heat and came to drink,

Gen 30:39 they mated in front of the branches. And they bore young that were streaked or speckled or spotted.

Gen 30:40 Jacob set apart the young of the flock by themselves, but made the rest face the streaked and dark-colored animals that belonged to Laban. Thus he made separate flocks for himself and did not put them with Laban's animals.

Gen 30:41 Whenever the stronger females were in heat, Jacob would place the branches in the troughs in front of the animals so they would mate near the branches,

Gen 30:42 but if the animals were weak, he would not place them there. So the weak animals went to Laban and the strong ones to Jacob.

Gen 30:43 In this way the man grew exceedingly prosperous and came to own large flocks, and maidservants and menservants, and camels and donkeys.

Gen 31:1 Jacob heard that Laban's sons were saying, "Jacob has taken everything our father owned and has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father."

Gen 31:2 And Jacob noticed that Laban's attitude toward him was not what it had been.

Gen 31:3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

Gen 31:4 So Jacob sent word to Rachel and Leah to come out to the fields where his flocks were.

Gen 31:5 He said to them, "I see that your father's attitude toward me is not what it was before, but the God of my father has been with me.

Gen 31:6 You know that I've worked for your father with all my strength,

Gen 31:7 yet your father has cheated me by changing my wages ten times. However, God has not allowed him to harm me.

Gen 31:8 If he said, 'The speckled ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks gave birth to speckled young; and if he said, 'The streaked ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks bore streaked young.

Gen 31:9 So God has taken away your father's livestock and has given them to me.

Gen 31:10 "In breeding season I once had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats mating with the flock were streaked, speckled or spotted.

Gen 31:11 The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob.' I answered, 'Here I am.'

Gen 31:12 And he said, 'Look up and see that all the male goats mating with the flock are streaked, speckled or spotted, for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you.'

Gen 31:13 I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and where you made a vow to me. Now leave this land at once and go back to your native land."

Gen 31:14 Then Rachel and Leah replied, "Do we still have any share in the inheritance of our father's estate?

Gen 31:15 Does he not regard us as foreigners? Not only has he sold us, but he has used up what was paid for us.

Gen 31:16 Surely all the wealth that God took away from our father belongs to us and our children. So do whatever God has told you."

Gen 31:17 Then Jacob put his children and his wives on camels,

Gen 31:18 and he drove all his livestock ahead of him, along with all the goods he had accumulated in Paddan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

Gen 31:19 When Laban had gone to shear his sheep, Rachel stole her father's household gods.

Gen 31:20 Moreover, Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him he was running away.

Gen 31:21 So he fled with all he had, and crossing the River, he headed for the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:22 On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled.

Gen 31:23 Taking his relatives with him, he pursued Jacob for seven days and caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:24 Then God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and said to him, "Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad."

Gen 31:25 Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country of Gilead when Laban overtook him, and Laban and his relatives camped there too.

Gen 31:26 Then Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? You've deceived me, and you've carried off my daughters like captives in war.

Gen 31:27 Why did you run off secretly and deceive me? Why didn't you tell me, so I could send you away with joy and singing to the music of tambourines and harps?

Gen 31:28 You didn't even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters good-by. You have done a foolish thing.

Gen 31:29 I have the power to harm you; but last night the God of your father said to me, 'Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.'

Gen 31:30 Now you have gone off because you longed to return to your father's house. But why did you steal my gods?"

Gen 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, "I was afraid, because I thought you would take your daughters away from me by force.

Gen 31:32 But if you find anyone who has your gods, he shall not live. In the presence of our relatives, see for yourself whether there is anything of yours here with me; and if so, take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.

Gen 31:33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent and into the tent of the two maidservants, but he found nothing. After he came out of Leah's tent, he entered Rachel's tent.

Gen 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them inside her camel's saddle and was sitting on them. Laban searched through everything in the tent but found nothing.

Gen 31:35 Rachel said to her father, "Don't be angry, my lord, that I cannot stand up in your presence; I'm having my period." So he searched but could not find the household gods.

Gen 31:36 Jacob was angry and took Laban to task. "What is my crime?" he asked Laban. "What sin have I committed that you hunt me down?

Gen 31:37 Now that you have searched through all my goods, what have you found that belongs to your household? Put it here in front of your relatives and mine, and let them judge between the two of us.

Gen 31:38 "I have been with you for twenty years now. Your sheep and goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten rams from your flocks.

Gen 31:39 I did not bring you animals torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. And you demanded payment from me for whatever was stolen by day or night.

Gen 31:40 This was my situation: The heat consumed me in the daytime and the cold at night, and sleep fled from my eyes.

Gen 31:41 It was like this for the twenty years I was in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, and you changed my wages ten times.

Gen 31:42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would surely have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my hardship and the toil of my hands, and last night he rebuked you."

Gen 31:43 Laban answered Jacob, "The women are my daughters, the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks. All you see is mine. Yet what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about the children they have borne?"

Gen 31:44 Come now, let's make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between us."

Gen 31:45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.

Gen 31:46 He said to his relatives, "Gather some stones." So they took stones and piled them in a heap, and they ate there by the heap.

Gen 31:47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, and Jacob called it Galeed.

Gen 31:48 Laban said, "This heap is a witness between you and me today." That is why it was called Galeed.

Gen 31:49 It was also called Mizpah, because he said, "May the LORD keep watch between you and me when we are away from each other.

Gen 31:50 If you mistreat my daughters or if you take any wives besides my daughters, even though no one is with us, remember that God is a witness between you and me."

Gen 31:51 Laban also said to Jacob, "Here is this heap, and here is this pillar I have set up between you and me.

Gen 31:52 This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not go past this heap to your side to harm you and that you will not go past this heap and pillar to my side to harm me.

Gen 31:53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us." So Jacob took an oath in the name of the Fear of his father Isaac.

Gen 31:54 He offered a sacrifice there in the hill country and invited his relatives to a meal. After they had eaten, they spent the night there.

Gen 31:55 Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then he left and returned home.

Gen 32:1 Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

Gen 32:2 When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is the camp of God!" So he named that place Mahanaim.

Gen 32:3 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

Gen 32:4 He instructed them: "This is what you are to say to my master Esau: 'Your servant Jacob says, I have been staying with Laban and have remained there till now.

Gen 32:5 I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats, menservants and maidservants. Now I am sending this message to my lord, that I may find favor in your eyes."

Gen 32:6 When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him."

Gen 32:7 In great fear and distress Jacob divided the people who were with him into two groups, and the flocks and herds and camels as well.

Gen 32:8 He thought, "If Esau comes and attacks one group, the group that is left may escape."

Gen 32:9 Then Jacob prayed, "O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, O LORD, who said to me, 'Go back to your country and your relatives, and I will make you prosper,'

Gen 32:10 I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness you have shown your servant. I had only my staff when I crossed this Jordan, but now I have become two groups.

Gen 32:11 Save me, I pray, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid he will come and attack me, and also the mothers with their children.

Gen 32:12 But you have said, 'I will surely make you prosper and will make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted.'

Gen 32:13 He spent the night there, and from what he had with him he selected a gift for his brother Esau:

Gen 32:14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

Gen 32:15 thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

Gen 32:16 He put them in the care of his servants, each herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Go ahead of me, and keep some space between the herds."

Gen 32:17 He instructed the one in the lead: "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and who owns all these animals in front of you?'

Gen 32:18 then you are to say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and he is coming behind us.'"

Gen 32:19 He also instructed the second, the third and all the others who followed the herds: "You are to say the same thing to Esau when you meet him.

Gen 32:20 And be sure to say, 'Your servant Jacob is coming behind us.'" For he thought, "I will pacify him with these gifts I am sending on ahead; later, when I see him, perhaps he will receive me."

Gen 32:21 So Jacob's gifts went on ahead of him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

Gen 32:22 That night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maidservants and his eleven sons and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

Gen 32:23 After he had sent them across the stream, he sent over all his possessions.

Gen 32:24 So Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him till daybreak.

Gen 32:25 When the man saw that he could not overpower him, he touched the socket of Jacob's hip so that his hip was wrenched as he wrestled with the man.

Gen 32:26 Then the man said, "Let me go, for it is daybreak." But Jacob replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

Gen 32:27 The man asked him, "What is your name?" "Jacob," he answered.

Gen 32:28 Then the man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome."

Gen 32:29 Jacob said, "Please tell me your name." But he replied, "Why do you ask my name?" Then he blessed him there.

Gen 32:30 So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "It is because I saw God face to face, and yet my life was spared."

Gen 32:31 The sun rose above him as he passed Peniel, and he was limping because of his hip.

Gen 32:32 Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the tendon attached to the socket of the hip, because the socket of Jacob's hip was touched near the tendon.

Gen 33:1 Jacob looked up and there was Esau, coming with his four hundred men; so he divided the children among Leah, Rachel and the two maidservants.

Gen 33:2 He put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph in the rear.

Gen 33:3 He himself went on ahead and bowed down to the ground seven times as he approached his brother.

Gen 33:4 But Esau ran to meet Jacob and embraced him; he threw his arms around his neck and kissed him. And they wept.

Gen 33:5 Then Esau looked up and saw the women and children. "Who are these with you?" he asked. Jacob answered, "They are the children God has graciously given your servant."

Gen 33:6 Then the maidservants and their children approached and bowed down.

Gen 33:7 Next, Leah and her children came and bowed down. Last of all came Joseph and Rachel, and they too bowed down.

Gen 33:8 Esau asked, "What do you mean by all these droves I met?" "To find favor in your eyes, my lord," he said.

Gen 33:9 But Esau said, "I already have plenty, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself."

Gen 33:10 "No, please!" said Jacob. "If I have found favor in your eyes, accept this gift from me. For to see your face is like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me favorably."

Gen 33:11 Please accept the present that was brought to you, for God has been gracious to me and I have all I need." And because Jacob insisted, Esau accepted it.

Gen 33:12 Then Esau said, "Let us be on our way; I'll accompany you."

Gen 33:13 But Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are tender and that I must care for the ewes and cows that are nursing their young. If they are driven hard just one day, all the animals will die."

Gen 33:14 So let my lord go on ahead of his servant, while I move along slowly at the pace of the droves before me and that of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir."

Gen 33:15 Esau said, "Then let me leave some of my men with you." "But why do that?" Jacob asked. "Just let me find favor in the eyes of my lord."

Gen 33:16 So that day Esau started on his way back to Seir.

Gen 33:17 Jacob, however, went to Succoth, where he built a place for himself and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place is called Succoth.

Gen 33:18 After Jacob came from Paddan Aram, he arrived safely at the city of Shechem in Canaan and camped within sight of the city.

Gen 33:19 For a hundred pieces of silver, he bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, the plot of ground where he pitched his tent.

Gen 33:20 There he set up an altar and called it El Elohe Israel.

Gen 34:1 Now Dinah, the daughter Leah had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the women of the land.

Gen 34:2 When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, the ruler of that area, saw her, he took her and violated her.

Gen 34:3 His heart was drawn to Dinah daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke tenderly to her.

Gen 34:4 And Shechem said to his father Hamor, "Get me this girl as my wife."

Gen 34:5 When Jacob heard that his daughter Dinah had been defiled, his sons were in the fields with his livestock; so he kept quiet about it until they came home.

Gen 34:6 Then Shechem's father Hamor went out to talk with Jacob.

Gen 34:7 Now Jacob's sons had come in from the fields as soon as they heard what had happened. They were filled with grief and fury, because Shechem had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter-- a thing that should not be done.

Gen 34:8 But Hamor said to them, "My son Shechem has his heart set on your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife.

Gen 34:9 Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves.

Gen 34:10 You can settle among us; the land is open to you. Live in it, trade in it, and acquire property in it."

Gen 34:11 Then Shechem said to Dinah's father and brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and I will give you whatever you ask.

Gen 34:12 Make the price for the bride and the gift I am to bring as great as you like, and I'll pay whatever you ask me. Only give me the girl as my wife."

Gen 34:13 Because their sister Dinah had been defiled, Jacob's sons replied deceitfully as they spoke to Shechem and his father Hamor.

Gen 34:14 They said to them, "We can't do such a thing; we can't give our sister to a man who is not circumcised. That would be a disgrace to us.

Gen 34:15 We will give our consent to you on one condition only: that you become like us by circumcising all your males.

Gen 34:16 Then we will give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves. We'll settle among you and become one people with you.

Gen 34:17 But if you will not agree to be circumcised, we'll take our sister and go."

Gen 34:18 Their proposal seemed good to Hamor and his son Shechem.

Gen 34:19 The young man, who was the most honored of all his father's household, lost no time in doing what they said, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter.

Gen 34:20 So Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their city to speak to their fellow townsmen.

Gen 34:21 "These men are friendly toward us," they said. "Let them live in our land and trade in it; the land has plenty of room for them. We can marry their daughters and they can marry ours.

Gen 34:22 But the men will consent to live with us as one people only on the condition that our males be circumcised, as they themselves are.

Gen 34:23 Won't their livestock, their property and all their other animals become ours? So let us give our consent to them, and they will settle among us."

Gen 34:24 All the men who went out of the city gate agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male in the city was circumcised.

Gen 34:25 Three days later, while all of them were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and attacked the unsuspecting city, killing every male.

Gen 34:26 They put Hamor and his son Shechem to the sword and took Dinah from Shechem's house and left.

Gen 34:27 The sons of Jacob came upon the dead bodies and looted the city where their sister had been defiled.

Gen 34:28 They seized their flocks and herds and donkeys and everything else of theirs in the city and out in the fields.

Gen 34:29 They carried off all their wealth and all their women and children, taking as plunder everything in the houses.

Gen 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me a stench to the Canaanites and Perizzites, the people living in this land. We are few in number, and if they join forces against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed."

Gen 34:31 But they replied, "Should he have treated our sister like a prostitute?"

Gen 35:1 Then God said to Jacob, "Go up to Bethel and settle there, and build an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau."

Gen 35:2 So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods you have with you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes.

Gen 35:3 Then come, let us go up to Bethel, where I will build an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and who has been with me wherever I have gone."

Gen 35:4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods they had and the rings in their ears, and Jacob buried them under the oak at Shechem.

Gen 35:5 Then they set out, and the terror of God fell upon the towns all around them so that no one pursued them.

Gen 35:6 Jacob and all the people with him came to Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan.

Gen 35:7 There he built an altar, and he called the place El Bethel, because it was there that God revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from his brother.

Gen 35:8 Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died and was buried under the oak below Bethel. So it was named Allon Bacuth.

Gen 35:9 After Jacob returned from Paddan Aram, God appeared to him again and blessed him.

Gen 35:10 God said to him, "Your name is Jacob, but you will no longer be called Jacob; your name will be Israel." So he named him Israel.

Gen 35:11 And God said to him, "I am God Almighty; be fruitful and increase in number. A nation and a community of nations will come from you, and kings will come from your body.

Gen 35:12 The land I gave to Abraham and Isaac I also give to you, and I will give this land to your descendants after you."

Gen 35:13 Then God went up from him at the place where he had talked with him.

Gen 35:14 Jacob set up a stone pillar at the place where God had talked with him, and he poured out a drink offering on it; he also poured oil on it.

Gen 35:15 Jacob called the place where God had talked with him Bethel.

Gen 35:16 Then they moved on from Bethel. While they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth and had great difficulty.

Gen 35:17 And as she was having great difficulty in childbirth, the midwife said to her, "Don't be afraid, for you have another son."

Gen 35:18 As she breathed her last-- for she was dying-- she named her son Ben-Oni. But his father named him Benjamin.

Gen 35:19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

Gen 35:20 Over her tomb Jacob set up a pillar, and to this day that pillar marks Rachel's tomb.

Gen 35:21 Israel moved on again and pitched his tent beyond Migdal Eder.

Gen 35:22 While Israel was living in that region, Reuben went in and slept with his father's concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard of it. Jacob had twelve sons:

Gen 35:23 The sons of Leah: Reuben the firstborn of Jacob, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.

Gen 35:24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 35:25 The sons of Rachel's maid servant Bilhah: Dan and Naphtali.

Gen 35:26 The sons of Leah's maid servant Zilpah: Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

Gen 35:27 Jacob came home to his father Isaac in Mamre, near Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed.

Gen 35:28 Isaac lived a hundred and eighty years.

Gen 35:29 Then he breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people, old and full of years. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Gen 36:1 This is the account of Esau (that is, Edom).

Gen 36:2 Esau took his wives from the women of Canaan: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite--

Gen 36:3 also Basemath daughter of Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth.

Gen 36:4 Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, Basemath bore Reuel,

Gen 36:5 and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were the sons of Esau, who were born to him in Canaan.

Gen 36:6 Esau took his wives and sons and daughters and all the members of his household, as well as his livestock and all his other animals and all the goods he had acquired in Canaan, and moved to a land some distance from his brother Jacob.

Gen 36:7 Their possessions were too great for them to remain together; the land where they were staying could not support them both because of their livestock.

Gen 36:8 So Esau (that is, Edom) settled in the hill country of Seir.

Gen 36:9 This is the account of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

Gen 36:10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.

Gen 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz.

Gen 36:12 Esau's son Eliphaz also had a concubine named Timna, who bore him Amalek. These were grandsons of Esau's wife Adah.

Gen 36:13 The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Gen 36:14 The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon, whom she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

Gen 36:15 These were the chiefs among Esau's descendants: The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: Chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Gen 36:16 Korah, Gatam and Amalek. These were the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in Edom; they were grandsons of Adah.

Gen 36:17 The sons of Esau's son Reuel: Chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the chiefs descended from Reuel in Edom; they were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Gen 36:18 The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: Chiefs Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were the chiefs descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

Gen 36:19 These were the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these were their chiefs.

Gen 36:20 These were the sons of Seir the Horite, who were living in the region: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Gen 36:21 Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These sons of Seir in Edom were Horite chiefs.

Gen 36:22 The sons of Lotan: Hori and Homam. Timna was Lotan's sister.

Gen 36:23 The sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

Gen 36:24 The sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is the Anah who discovered the hot springs in the desert while he was grazing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

Gen 36:25 The children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

Gen 36:26 The sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Keran.

Gen 36:27 The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan.

Gen 36:28 The sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Gen 36:29 These were the Horite chiefs: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

Gen 36:30 Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These were the Horite chiefs, according to their divisions, in the land of Seir.

Gen 36:31 These were the kings who reigned in Edom before any Israelite king reigned:

Gen 36:32 Bela son of Beor became king of Edom. His city was named Dinhbabah.

Gen 36:33 When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah succeeded him as king.

Gen 36:34 When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king.

Gen 36:35 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, succeeded him as king. His city was named Avith.

Gen 36:36 When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah succeeded him as king.

Gen 36:37 When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the river succeeded him as king.

Gen 36:38 When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan son of Acbor succeeded him as king.

Gen 36:39 When Baal-Hanan son of Acbor died, Hadad succeeded him as king. His city was named Pau, and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab.

Gen 36:40 These were the chiefs descended from Esau, by name, according to their clans and regions: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

Gen 36:41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,

Gen 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,

Gen 36:43 Magdiel and Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they occupied. This was Esau the father of the Edomites.

Gen 37:1 Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan.

Gen 37:2 This is the account of Jacob. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, was tending the flocks with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them.

Gen 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made a richly ornamented robe for him.

Gen 37:4 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him.

Gen 37:5 Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more.

Gen 37:6 He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had:

Gen 37:7 We were binding sheaves of grain out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around mine and bowed down to it."

Gen 37:8 His brothers said to him, "Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?" And they hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said.

Gen 37:9 Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me."

Gen 37:10 When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, "What is this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?"

Gen 37:11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Gen 37:12 Now his brothers had gone to graze their father's flocks near Shechem,

Gen 37:13 and Israel said to Joseph, "As you know, your brothers are grazing the flocks near Shechem. Come, I am going to send you to them." "Very well," he replied.

Gen 37:14 So he said to him, "Go and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flocks, and bring word back to me." Then he sent him off from the Valley of Hebron. When Joseph arrived at Shechem,

Gen 37:15 a man found him wandering around in the fields and asked him, "What are you looking for?"

Gen 37:16 He replied, "I'm looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are grazing their flocks?"

Gen 37:17 "They have moved on from here," the man answered. "I heard them say, 'Let's go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them near Dothan.

Gen 37:18 But they saw him in the distance, and before he reached them, they plotted to kill him.

Gen 37:19 "Here comes that dreamer!" they said to each other.

Gen 37:20 "Come now, let's kill him and throw him into one of these cisterns and say that a ferocious animal devoured him. Then we'll see what comes of his dreams."

Gen 37:21 When Reuben heard this, he tried to rescue him from their hands. "Let's not take his life," he said.

Gen 37:22 "Don't shed any blood. Throw him into this cistern here in the desert, but don't lay a hand on him."

Reuben said this to rescue him from them and take him back to his father.

Gen 37:23 So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe-- the richly ornamented robe he was wearing--

Gen 37:24 and they took him and threw him into the cistern. Now the cistern was empty; there was no water in it.

Gen 37:25 As they sat down to eat their meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were loaded with spices, balm and myrrh, and they were on their way to take them down to Egypt.

Gen 37:26 Judah said to his brothers, "What will we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?

Gen 37:27 Come, let's sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him; after all, he is our brother, our own flesh and blood." His brothers agreed.

Gen 37:28 So when the Midianite merchants came by, his brothers pulled Joseph up out of the cistern and sold him for twenty shekels of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt.

Gen 37:29 When Reuben returned to the cistern and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes.

Gen 37:30 He went back to his brothers and said, "The boy isn't there! Where can I turn now?"

Gen 37:31 Then they got Joseph's robe, slaughtered a goat and dipped the robe in the blood.

Gen 37:32 They took the ornamented robe back to their father and said, "We found this. Examine it to see whether it is your son's robe."

Gen 37:33 He recognized it and said, "It is my son's robe! Some ferocious animal has devoured him. Joseph has surely been torn to pieces."

Gen 37:34 Then Jacob tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and mourned for his son many days.

Gen 37:35 All his sons and daughters came to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. "No," he said, "in mourning will I go down to the grave to my son." So his father wept for him.

Gen 37:36 Meanwhile, the Midianites sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard.

Gen 38:1 At that time, Judah left his brothers and went down to stay with a man of Adullam named Hirah.

Gen 38:2 There Judah met the daughter of a Canaanite man named Shua. He married her and lay with her;

Gen 38:3 she became pregnant and gave birth to a son, who was named Er.

Gen 38:4 She conceived again and gave birth to a son and named him Onan.

Gen 38:5 She gave birth to still another son and named him Shelah. It was at Kezib that she gave birth to him.

Gen 38:6 Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.

Gen 38:7 But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the LORD's sight; so the LORD put him to death.

Gen 38:8 Then Judah said to Onan, "Lie with your brother's wife and fulfill your duty to her as a brother-in-law to produce offspring for your brother."

Gen 38:9 But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so whenever he lay with his brother's wife, he spilled his semen on the ground to keep from producing offspring for his brother.

Gen 38:10 What he did was wicked in the LORD's sight; so he put him to death also.

Gen 38:11 Judah then said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Live as a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up." For he thought, "He may die too, just like his brothers." So Tamar went to live in her father's house.

Gen 38:12 After a long time Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died. When Judah had recovered from his grief, he went up to Timnah, to the men who were shearing his sheep, and his friend Hirah the Adullamite went with him.

Gen 38:13 When Tamar was told, "Your father-in-law is on his way to Timnah to shear his sheep,"

Gen 38:14 she took off her widow's clothes, covered herself with a veil to disguise herself, and then sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. For she saw that, though Shelah had now grown up, she had not been given to him as his wife.

Gen 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute, for she had covered her face.

Gen 38:16 Not realizing that she was his daughter-in-law, he went over to her by the roadside and said, "Come now, let me sleep with you." "And what will you give me to sleep with you?" she asked.

Gen 38:17 "I'll send you a young goat from my flock," he said. "Will you give me something as a pledge until you send it?" she asked.

Gen 38:18 He said, "What pledge should I give you?" "Your seal and its cord, and the staff in your hand," she answered. So he gave them to her and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him.

Gen 38:19 After she left, she took off her veil and put on her widow's clothes again.

Gen 38:20 Meanwhile Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite in order to get his pledge back from the woman, but he did not find her.

Gen 38:21 He asked the men who lived there, "Where is the shrine prostitute who was beside the road at Enaim?" "There hasn't been any shrine prostitute here," they said.

Gen 38:22 So he went back to Judah and said, "I didn't find her. Besides, the men who lived there said, 'There hasn't been any shrine prostitute here.'"

Gen 38:23 Then Judah said, "Let her keep what she has, or we will become a laughingstock. After all, I did send her this young goat, but you didn't find her."

Gen 38:24 About three months later Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar is guilty of prostitution, and as a result she is now pregnant." Judah said, "Bring her out and have her burned to death!"

Gen 38:25 As she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law. "I am pregnant by the man who owns these," she said. And she added, "See if you recognize whose seal and cord and staff these are."

Gen 38:26 Judah recognized them and said, "She is more righteous than I, since I wouldn't give her to my son Shelah." And he did not sleep with her again.

Gen 38:27 When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb.

Gen 38:28 As she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand; so the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on his wrist and said, "This one came out first."

Gen 38:29 But when he drew back his hand, his brother came out, and she said, "So this is how you have broken out!" And he was named Perez.

Gen 38:30 Then his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his wrist, came out and he was given the name Zerah.

Gen 39:1 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian who was one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.

Gen 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph and he prospered, and he lived in the house of his Egyptian master.

Gen 39:3 When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he did,

Gen 39:4 Joseph found favor in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned.

Gen 39:5 From the time he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the household of the Egyptian because of Joseph. The blessing of the LORD was on everything Potiphar had, both in the house and in the field.

Gen 39:6 So he left in Joseph's care everything he had; with Joseph in charge, he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate. Now Joseph was well-built and handsome,

Gen 39:7 and after a while his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Come to bed with me!"

Gen 39:8 But he refused. "With me in charge," he told her, "my master does not concern himself with anything in the house; everything he owns he has entrusted to my care."

Gen 39:9 No one is greater in this house than I am. My master has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?"

Gen 39:10 And though she spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her or even be with her.

Gen 39:11 One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside.

Gen 39:12 She caught him by his cloak and said, "Come to bed with me!" But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.

Gen 39:13 When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house,

Gen 39:14 she called her household servants. "Look," she said to them, "this Hebrew has been brought to us to make sport of us! He came in here to sleep with me, but I screamed.

Gen 39:15 When he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

Gen 39:16 She kept his cloak beside her until his master came home.

Gen 39:17 Then she told him this story: "That Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to make sport of me.

Gen 39:18 But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

Gen 39:19 When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is how your slave treated me," he burned with anger.

Gen 39:20 Joseph's master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined. But while Joseph was there in the prison,

Gen 39:21 the LORD was with him; he showed him kindness and granted him favor in the eyes of the prison warden.

Gen 39:22 So the warden put Joseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there.

Gen 39:23 The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph's care, because the LORD was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

Gen 40:1 Some time later, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt.

Gen 40:2 Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker,

Gen 40:3 and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined.

Gen 40:4 The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them. After they had been in custody for some time,

Gen 40:5 each of the two men-- the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in prison-- had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

Gen 40:6 When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw that they were dejected.

Gen 40:7 So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were in custody with him in his master's house, "Why are your faces so sad today?"

Gen 40:8 "We both had dreams," they answered, "but there is no one to interpret them." Then Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams."

Gen 40:9 So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream. He said to him, "In my dream I saw a vine in front of me,

Gen 40:10 and on the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters ripened into grapes.

Gen 40:11 Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in his hand."

Gen 40:12 "This is what it means," Joseph said to him. "The three branches are three days.

Gen 40:13 Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer.

Gen 40:14 But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison.

Gen 40:15 For I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon."

Gen 40:16 When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given a favorable interpretation, he said to Joseph, "I too had a dream: On my head were three baskets of bread.

Gen 40:17 In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

Gen 40:18 "This is what it means," Joseph said. "The three baskets are three days.

Gen 40:19 Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head and hang you on a tree. And the birds will eat away your flesh."

Gen 40:20 Now the third day was Pharaoh's birthday, and he gave a feast for all his officials. He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker in the presence of his officials:

Gen 40:21 He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh's hand,

Gen 40:22 but he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation.

Gen 40:23 The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him.

Gen 41:1 When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing by the Nile,

Gen 41:2 when out of the river there came up seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds.

Gen 41:3 After them, seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile and stood beside those on the riverbank.

Gen 41:4 And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

Gen 41:5 He fell asleep again and had a second dream: Seven heads of grain, healthy and good, were growing on a single stalk.

Gen 41:6 After them, seven other heads of grain sprouted-- thin and scorched by the east wind.

Gen 41:7 The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy, full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up; it had been a dream.

Gen 41:8 In the morning his mind was troubled, so he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt.

Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them for him.

Gen 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, "Today I am reminded of my shortcomings.

Gen 41:10 Pharaoh was once angry with his servants, and he imprisoned me and the chief baker in the house of the captain of the guard.

Gen 41:11 Each of us had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

Gen 41:12 Now a young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us, giving each man the interpretation of his dream.

Gen 41:13 And things turned out exactly as he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged."

Gen 41:14 So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was quickly brought from the dungeon. When he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came before Pharaoh.

Gen 41:15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."

Gen 41:16 "I cannot do it," Joseph replied to Pharaoh, "but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires."

Gen 41:17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile,

Gen 41:18 when out of the river there came up seven cows, fat and sleek, and they grazed among the reeds.

Gen 41:19 After them, seven other cows came up-- scrawny and very ugly and lean. I had never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:20 The lean, ugly cows ate up the seven fat cows that came up first.

Gen 41:21 But even after they ate them, no one could tell that they had done so; they looked just as ugly as before. Then I woke up.

Gen 41:22 "In my dreams I also saw seven heads of grain, full and good, growing on a single stalk.

Gen 41:23 After them, seven other heads sprouted-- withered and thin and scorched by the east wind.

Gen 41:24 The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads. I told this to the magicians, but none could explain it to me."

Gen 41:25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Gen 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads of grain are seven years; it is one and the same dream.

Gen 41:27 The seven lean, ugly cows that came up afterward are seven years, and so are the seven worthless heads of grain scorched by the east wind: They are seven years of famine.

Gen 41:28 "It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Gen 41:29 Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt,

Gen 41:30 but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land.

Gen 41:31 The abundance in the land will not be remembered, because the famine that follows it will be so severe.

Gen 41:32 The reason the dream was given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided by God, and God will do it soon.

Gen 41:33 "And now let Pharaoh look for a discerning and wise man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:34 Let Pharaoh appoint commissioners over the land to take a fifth of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.

Gen 41:35 They should collect all the food of these good years that are coming and store up the grain under the authority of Pharaoh, to be kept in the cities for food.

Gen 41:36 This food should be held in reserve for the country, to be used during the seven years of famine that will come upon Egypt, so that the country may not be ruined by the famine."

Gen 41:37 The plan seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his officials.

Gen 41:38 So Pharaoh asked them, "Can we find anyone like this man, one in whom is the spirit of God?"

Gen 41:39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one so discerning and wise as you.

Gen 41:40 You shall be in charge of my palace, and all my people are to submit to your orders. Only with respect to the throne will I be greater than you."

Gen 41:41 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I hereby put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt."

Gen 41:42 Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his finger and put it on Joseph's finger. He dressed him in robes of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.

Gen 41:43 He had him ride in a chariot as his second-in-command, and men shouted before him, "Make way!" Thus he put him in charge of the whole land of Egypt.

Gen 41:44 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, but without your word no one will lift hand or foot in all Egypt."

Gen 41:45 Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah and gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, to be his wife. And Joseph went throughout the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and traveled throughout Egypt.

Gen 41:47 During the seven years of abundance the land produced plentifully.

Gen 41:48 Joseph collected all the food produced in those seven years of abundance in Egypt and stored it in the cities. In each city he put the food grown in the fields surrounding it.

Gen 41:49 Joseph stored up huge quantities of grain, like the sand of the sea; it was so much that he stopped keeping records because it was beyond measure.

Gen 41:50 Before the years of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.

Gen 41:51 Joseph named his firstborn Manasseh and said, "It is because God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's household."

Gen 41:52 The second son he named Ephraim and said, "It is because God has made me fruitful in the land of my suffering."

Gen 41:53 The seven years of abundance in Egypt came to an end,

Gen 41:54 and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all the other lands, but in the whole land of Egypt there was food.

Gen 41:55 When all Egypt began to feel the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do what he tells you."

Gen 41:56 When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt.

Gen 41:57 And all the countries came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the world.

Gen 42:1 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why do you just keep looking at each other?"

Gen 42:2 He continued, "I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may live and not die."

Gen 42:3 Then ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.

Gen 42:4 But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with the others, because he was afraid that harm might come to him.

Gen 42:5 So Israel's sons were among those who went to buy grain, for the famine was in the land of Canaan also.

Gen 42:6 Now Joseph was the governor of the land, the one who sold grain to all its people. So when Joseph's brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

Gen 42:7 As soon as Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he pretended to be a stranger and spoke harshly to them. "Where do you come from?" he asked. "From the land of Canaan," they replied, "to buy food."

Gen 42:8 Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him.

Gen 42:9 Then he remembered his dreams about them and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see where our land is unprotected."

Gen 42:10 "No, my lord," they answered. "Your servants have come to buy food."

Gen 42:11 We are all the sons of one man. Your servants are honest men, not spies."

Gen 42:12 "No!" he said to them. "You have come to see where our land is unprotected."

Gen 42:13 But they replied, "Your servants were twelve brothers, the sons of one man, who lives in the land of Canaan. The youngest is now with our father, and one is no more."

Gen 42:14 Joseph said to them, "It is just as I told you: You are spies!"

Gen 42:15 And this is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

Gen 42:16 Send one of your number to get your brother; the rest of you will be kept in prison, so that your words may be tested to see if you are telling the truth. If you are not, then as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies!"

Gen 42:17 And he put them all in custody for three days.

Gen 42:18 On the third day, Joseph said to them, "Do this and you will live, for I fear God:

Gen 42:19 If you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here in prison, while the rest of you go and take grain back for your starving households.

Gen 42:20 But you must bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words may be verified and that you may not die." This they proceeded to do.

Gen 42:21 They said to one another, "Surely we are being punished because of our brother. We saw how distressed he was when he pleaded with us for his life, but we would not listen; that's why this distress has come upon us."

Gen 42:22 Reuben replied, "Didn't I tell you not to sin against the boy? But you wouldn't listen! Now we must give an accounting for his blood."

Gen 42:23 They did not realize that Joseph could understand them, since he was using an interpreter.

Gen 42:24 He turned away from them and began to weep, but then turned back and spoke to them again. He had Simeon taken from them and bound before their eyes.

Gen 42:25 Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to put each man's silver back in his sack, and to give them provisions for their journey. After this was done for them,

Gen 42:26 they loaded their grain on their donkeys and left.

Gen 42:27 At the place where they stopped for the night one of them opened his sack to get feed for his donkey, and he saw his silver in the mouth of his sack.

Gen 42:28 "My silver has been returned," he said to his brothers. "Here it is in my sack." Their hearts sank and they turned to each other trembling and said, "What is this that God has done to us?"

Gen 42:29 When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them. They said,

Gen 42:30 "The man who is lord over the land spoke harshly to us and treated us as though we were spying on the land."

Gen 42:31 But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.'

Gen 42:32 We were twelve brothers, sons of one father. One is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in Canaan.'

Gen 42:33 "Then the man who is lord over the land said to us, 'This is how I will know whether you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take food for your starving households and go.'

Gen 42:34 But bring your youngest brother to me so I will know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I will give your brother back to you, and you can trade in the land."

Gen 42:35 As they were emptying their sacks, there in each man's sack was his pouch of silver! When they and their father saw the money pouches, they were frightened.

Gen 42:36 Their father Jacob said to them, "You have deprived me of my children. Joseph is no more and Simeon is no more, and now you want to take Benjamin. Everything is against me!"

Gen 42:37 Then Reuben said to his father, "You may put both of my sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him back."

Gen 42:38 But Jacob said, "My son will not go down there with you; his brother is dead and he is the only one left. If harm comes to him on the journey you are taking, you will bring my gray head down to the grave in sorrow."

Gen 43:1 Now the famine was still severe in the land.

Gen 43:2 So when they had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go back and buy us a little more food."

Gen 43:3 But Judah said to him, "The man warned us solemnly, 'You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'

Gen 43:4 If you will send our brother along with us, we will go down and buy food for you.

Gen 43:5 But if you will not send him, we will not go down, because the man said to us, 'You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'

Gen 43:6 Israel asked, "Why did you bring this trouble on me by telling the man you had another brother?"

Gen 43:7 They replied, "The man questioned us closely about ourselves and our family. 'Is your father still living?' he asked us. 'Do you have another brother?' We simply answered his questions. How were we to know he would say, 'Bring your brother down here'?"

Gen 43:8 Then Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the boy along with me and we will go at once, so that we and you and our children may live and not die.

Gen 43:9 I myself will guarantee his safety; you can hold me personally responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him here before you, I will bear the blame before you all my life.

Gen 43:10 As it is, if we had not delayed, we could have gone and returned twice."

Gen 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be, then do this: Put some of the best products of the land in your bags and take them down to the man as a gift-- a little balm and a little honey, some spices and myrrh, some pistachio nuts and almonds.

Gen 43:12 Take double the amount of silver with you, for you must return the silver that was put back into the mouths of your sacks. Perhaps it was a mistake.

Gen 43:13 Take your brother also and go back to the man at once.

Gen 43:14 And may God Almighty grant you mercy before the man so that he will let your other brother and Benjamin come back with you. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved."

Gen 43:15 So the men took the gifts and double the amount of silver, and Benjamin also. They hurried down to Egypt and presented themselves to Joseph.

Gen 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Take these men to my house, slaughter an animal and prepare dinner; they are to eat with me at noon."

Gen 43:17 The man did as Joseph told him and took the men to Joseph's house.

Gen 43:18 Now the men were frightened when they were taken to his house. They thought, "We were brought here because of the silver that was put back into our sacks the first time. He wants to attack us and overpower us and seize us as slaves and take our donkeys."

Gen 43:19 So they went up to Joseph's steward and spoke to him at the entrance to the house.

Gen 43:20 "Please, sir," they said, "we came down here the first time to buy food.

Gen 43:21 But at the place where we stopped for the night we opened our sacks and each of us found his silver-- the exact weight-- in the mouth of his sack. So we have brought it back with us.

Gen 43:22 We have also brought additional silver with us to buy food. We don't know who put our silver in our sacks."

Gen 43:23 "It's all right," he said. "Don't be afraid. Your God, the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks; I received your silver." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

Gen 43:24 The steward took the men into Joseph's house, gave them water to wash their feet and provided fodder for their donkeys.

Gen 43:25 They prepared their gifts for Joseph's arrival at noon, because they had heard that they were to eat there.

Gen 43:26 When Joseph came home, they presented to him the gifts they had brought into the house, and they bowed down before him to the ground.

Gen 43:27 He asked them how they were, and then he said, "How is your aged father you told me about? Is he still living?"

Gen 43:28 They replied, "Your servant our father is still alive and well." And they bowed low to pay him honor.

Gen 43:29 As he looked about and saw his brother Benjamin, his own mother's son, he asked, "Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?" And he said, "God be gracious to you, my son."

Gen 43:30 Deeply moved at the sight of his brother, Joseph hurried out and looked for a place to weep. He went into his private room and wept there.

Gen 43:31 After he had washed his face, he came out and, controlling himself, said, "Serve the food."

Gen 43:32 They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews, for that is detestable to Egyptians.

Gen 43:33 The men had been seated before him in the order of their ages, from the firstborn to the youngest; and they looked at each other in astonishment.

Gen 43:34 When portions were served to them from Joseph's table, Benjamin's portion was five times as much as anyone else's. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

Gen 44:1 Now Joseph gave these instructions to the steward of his house: "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man's silver in the mouth of his sack.

Gen 44:2 Then put my cup, the silver one, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack, along with the silver for his grain." And he did as Joseph said.

Gen 44:3 As morning dawned, the men were sent on their way with their donkeys.

Gen 44:4 They had not gone far from the city when Joseph said to his steward, "Go after those men at once, and when you catch up with them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid good with evil?'

Gen 44:5 Isn't this the cup my master drinks from and also uses for divination? This is a wicked thing you have done."

Gen 44:6 When he caught up with them, he repeated these words to them.

Gen 44:7 But they said to him, "Why does my lord say such things? Far be it from your servants to do anything like that!"

Gen 44:8 We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan the silver we found inside the mouths of our sacks. So why would we steal silver or gold from your master's house?

Gen 44:9 If any of your servants is found to have it, he will die; and the rest of us will become my lord's slaves."

Gen 44:10 "Very well, then," he said, "let it be as you say. Whoever is found to have it will become my slave; the rest of you will be free from blame."

Gen 44:11 Each of them quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.

Gen 44:12 Then the steward proceeded to search, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest. And the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

Gen 44:13 At this, they tore their clothes. Then they all loaded their donkeys and returned to the city.

Gen 44:14 Joseph was still in the house when Judah and his brothers came in, and they threw themselves to the ground before him.

Gen 44:15 Joseph said to them, "What is this you have done? Don't you know that a man like me can find things out by divination?"

Gen 44:16 "What can we say to my lord?" Judah replied. "What can we say? How can we prove our innocence? God has uncovered your servants' guilt. We are now my lord's slaves-- we ourselves and the one who was found to have the cup."

Gen 44:17 But Joseph said, "Far be it from me to do such a thing! Only the man who was found to have the cup will become my slave. The rest of you, go back to your father in peace."

Gen 44:18 Then Judah went up to him and said: "Please, my lord, let your servant speak a word to my lord. Do not be angry with your servant, though you are equal to Pharaoh himself."

Gen 44:19 My lord asked his servants, 'Do you have a father or a brother?'

Gen 44:20 And we answered, 'We have an aged father, and there is a young son born to him in his old age. His brother is dead, and he is the only one of his mother's sons left, and his father loves him.'

Gen 44:21 "Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me so I can see him for myself.'

Gen 44:22 And we said to my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father; if he leaves him, his father will die.'

Gen 44:23 But you told your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.'

Gen 44:24 When we went back to your servant my father, we told him what my lord had said.

Gen 44:25 "Then our father said, 'Go back and buy a little more food.'

Gen 44:26 But we said, 'We cannot go down. Only if our youngest brother is with us will we go. We cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.'

Gen 44:27 "Your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons.'

Gen 44:28 One of them went away from me, and I said, "He has surely been torn to pieces." And I have not seen him since.

Gen 44:29 If you take this one from me too and harm comes to him, you will bring my gray head down to the grave in misery.'

Gen 44:30 "So now, if the boy is not with us when I go back to your servant my father and if my father, whose life is closely bound up with the boy's life,

Gen 44:31 sees that the boy isn't there, he will die. Your servants will bring the gray head of our father down to the grave in sorrow.

Gen 44:32 Your servant guaranteed the boy's safety to my father. I said, 'If I do not bring him back to you, I will bear the blame before you, my father, all my life!"

Gen 44:33 "Now then, please let your servant remain here as my lord's slave in place of the boy, and let the boy return with his brothers.

Gen 44:34 How can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? No! Do not let me see the misery that would come upon my father."

Gen 45:1 Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all his attendants, and he cried out, "Have everyone leave my presence!" So there was no one with Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers.

Gen 45:2 And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard him, and Pharaoh's household heard about it.

Gen 45:3 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Is my father still living?" But his brothers were not able to answer him, because they were terrified at his presence.

Gen 45:4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come close to me." When they had done so, he said, "I am your brother Joseph, the one you sold into Egypt!

Gen 45:5 And now, do not be distressed and do not be angry with yourselves for selling me here, because it was to save lives that God sent me ahead of you.

Gen 45:6 For two years now there has been famine in the land, and for the next five years there will not be plowing and reaping.

Gen 45:7 But God sent me ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant on earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

Gen 45:8 "So then, it was not you who sent me here, but God. He made me father to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household and ruler of all Egypt.

Gen 45:9 Now hurry back to my father and say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; don't delay.'

Gen 45:10 You shall live in the region of Goshen and be near me-- you, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and all you have.

Gen 45:11 I will provide for you there, because five years of famine are still to come. Otherwise you and your household and all who belong to you will become destitute.'

Gen 45:12 "You can see for yourselves, and so can my brother Benjamin, that it is really I who am speaking to you.

Gen 45:13 Tell my father about all the honor accorded me in Egypt and about everything you have seen. And bring my father down here quickly."

Gen 45:14 Then he threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin embraced him, weeping.

Gen 45:15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept over them. Afterward his brothers talked with him.

Gen 45:16 When the news reached Pharaoh's palace that Joseph's brothers had come, Pharaoh and all his officials were pleased.

Gen 45:17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and return to the land of Canaan,

Gen 45:18 and bring your father and your families back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt and you can enjoy the fat of the land.'

Gen 45:19 "You are also directed to tell them, 'Do this: Take some carts from Egypt for your children and your wives, and get your father and come.'

Gen 45:20 Never mind about your belongings, because the best of all Egypt will be yours."

Gen 45:21 So the sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them carts, as Pharaoh had commanded, and he also gave them provisions for their journey.

Gen 45:22 To each of them he gave new clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels of silver and five sets of clothes.

Gen 45:23 And this is what he sent to his father: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and other provisions for his journey.

Gen 45:24 Then he sent his brothers away, and as they were leaving he said to them, "Don't quarrel on the way!"

Gen 45:25 So they went up out of Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan.

Gen 45:26 They told him, "Joseph is still alive! In fact, he is ruler of all Egypt." Jacob was stunned; he did not believe them.

Gen 45:27 But when they told him everything Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts Joseph had sent to carry him back, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

Gen 45:28 And Israel said, "I'm convinced! My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

Gen 46:1 So Israel set out with all that was his, and when he reached Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Gen 46:2 And God spoke to Israel in a vision at night and said, "Jacob! Jacob!" "Here I am," he replied.

Gen 46:3 "I am God, the God of your father," he said. "Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there."

Gen 46:4 I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again. And Joseph's own hand will close your eyes."

Gen 46:5 Then Jacob left Beersheba, and Israel's sons took their father Jacob and their children and their wives in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to transport him.

Gen 46:6 They also took with them their livestock and the possessions they had acquired in Canaan, and Jacob and all his offspring went to Egypt.

Gen 46:7 He took with him to Egypt his sons and grandsons and his daughters and granddaughters-- all his offspring.

Gen 46:8 These are the names of the sons of Israel (Jacob and his descendants) who went to Egypt: Reuben the firstborn of Jacob.

Gen 46:9 The sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

Gen 46:10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

Gen 46:11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Gen 46:12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah (but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez: Hezron and Hamul.

Gen 46:13 The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron.

Gen 46:14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon and Jahleel.

Gen 46:15 These were the sons Leah bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, besides his daughter Dinah. These sons and daughters of his were thirty-three in all.

Gen 46:16 The sons of Gad: Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.

Gen 46:17 The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah. Their sister was Serah. The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malkiel.

Gen 46:18 These were the children born to Jacob by Zilpah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Leah-- sixteen in all.

Gen 46:19 The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 46:20 In Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.

Gen 46:21 The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard.

Gen 46:22 These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob-- fourteen in all.

Gen 46:23 The son of Dan: Hushim.

Gen 46:24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem.

Gen 46:25 These were the sons born to Jacob by Bilhah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Rachel-- seven in all.

Gen 46:26 All those who went to Egypt with Jacob-- those who were his direct descendants, not counting his sons' wives-- numbered sixty-six persons.

Gen 46:27 With the two sons who had been born to Joseph in Egypt, the members of Jacob's family, which went to Egypt, were seventy in all.

Gen 46:28 Now Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to get directions to Goshen. When they arrived in the region of Goshen,

Gen 46:29 Joseph had his chariot made ready and went to Goshen to meet his father Israel. As soon as Joseph appeared before him, he threw his arms around his father and wept for a long time.

Gen 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, "Now I am ready to die, since I have seen for myself that you are still alive."

Gen 46:31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and speak to Pharaoh and will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household, who were living in the land of Canaan, have come to me.'

Gen 46:32 The men are shepherds; they tend livestock, and they have brought along their flocks and herds and everything they own.'

Gen 46:33 When Pharaoh calls you in and asks, 'What is your occupation?'

Gen 46:34 you should answer, 'Your servants have tended livestock from our boyhood on, just as our fathers did.' Then you will be allowed to settle in the region of Goshen, for all shepherds are detestable to the Egyptians."

Gen 47:1 Joseph went and told Pharaoh, "My father and brothers, with their flocks and herds and everything they own, have come from the land of Canaan and are now in Goshen."

Gen 47:2 He chose five of his brothers and presented them before Pharaoh.

Gen 47:3 Pharaoh asked the brothers, "What is your occupation?" "Your servants are shepherds," they replied to Pharaoh, "just as our fathers were."

Gen 47:4 They also said to him, "We have come to live here awhile, because the famine is severe in Canaan and your servants' flocks have no pasture. So now, please let your servants settle in Goshen."

Gen 47:5 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you,

Gen 47:6 and the land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land. Let them live in Goshen. And if you know of any among them with special ability, put them in charge of my own livestock."

Gen 47:7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob in and presented him before Pharaoh. After Jacob blessed Pharaoh,

Gen 47:8 Pharaoh asked him, "How old are you?"

Gen 47:9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty. My years have been few and difficult, and they do not equal the years of the pilgrimage of my fathers."

Gen 47:10 Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from his presence.

Gen 47:11 So Joseph settled his father and his brothers in Egypt and gave them property in the best part of the land, the district of Rameses, as Pharaoh directed.

Gen 47:12 Joseph also provided his father and his brothers and all his father's household with food, according to the number of their children.

Gen 47:13 There was no food, however, in the whole region because the famine was severe; both Egypt and Canaan wasted away because of the famine.

Gen 47:14 Joseph collected all the money that was to be found in Egypt and Canaan in payment for the grain they were buying, and he brought it to Pharaoh's palace.

Gen 47:15 When the money of the people of Egypt and Canaan was gone, all Egypt came to Joseph and said, "Give us food. Why should we die before your eyes? Our money is used up."

Gen 47:16 "Then bring your livestock," said Joseph. "I will sell you food in exchange for your livestock, since your money is gone."

Gen 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, their sheep and goats, their cattle and donkeys. And he brought them through that year with food in exchange for all their livestock.

Gen 47:18 When that year was over, they came to him the following year and said, "We cannot hide from our lord the fact that since our money is gone and our livestock belongs to you, there is nothing left for our lord except our bodies and our land.

Gen 47:19 Why should we perish before your eyes-- we and our land as well? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we with our land will be in bondage to Pharaoh. Give us seed so that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate."

Gen 47:20 So Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians, one and all, sold their fields, because the famine was too severe for them. The land became Pharaoh's,

Gen 47:21 and Joseph reduced the people to servitude, from one end of Egypt to the other.

Gen 47:22 However, he did not buy the land of the priests, because they received a regular allotment from Pharaoh and had food enough from the allotment Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land.

Gen 47:23 Joseph said to the people, "Now that I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh, here is seed for you so you can plant the ground.

Gen 47:24 But when the crop comes in, give a fifth of it to Pharaoh. The other four-fifths you may keep as seed for the fields and as food for yourselves and your households and your children."

Gen 47:25 "You have saved our lives," they said. "May we find favor in the eyes of our lord; we will be in bondage to Pharaoh."

Gen 47:26 So Joseph established it as a law concerning land in Egypt-- still in force today-- that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. It was only the land of the priests that did not become Pharaoh's.

Gen 47:27 Now the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and were fruitful and increased greatly in number.

Gen 47:28 Jacob lived in Egypt seventeen years, and the years of his life were a hundred and forty-seven.

Gen 47:29 When the time drew near for Israel to die, he called for his son Joseph and said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh and promise that you will show me kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt, Gen 47:30 but when I rest with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried." "I will do as you say," he said.

Gen 47:31 "Swear to me," he said. Then Joseph swore to him, and Israel worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

Gen 48:1 Some time later Joseph was told, "Your father is ill." So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim along with him.

Gen 48:2 When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has come to you," Israel rallied his strength and sat up on the bed.

Gen 48:3 Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and there he blessed me

Gen 48:4 and said to me, 'I am going to make you fruitful and will increase your numbers. I will make you a community of peoples, and I will give this land as an everlasting possession to your descendants after you.'

Gen 48:5 "Now then, your two sons born to you in Egypt before I came to you here will be reckoned as mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

Gen 48:6 Any children born to you after them will be yours; in the territory they inherit they will be reckoned under the names of their brothers.

Gen 48:7 As I was returning from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan while we were still on the way, a little distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).

Gen 48:8 When Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he asked, "Who are these?"

Gen 48:9 "They are the sons God has given me here," Joseph said to his father. Then Israel said, "Bring them to me so I may bless them."

Gen 48:10 Now Israel's eyes were failing because of old age, and he could hardly see. So Joseph brought his sons close to him, and his father kissed them and embraced them.

Gen 48:11 Israel said to Joseph, "I never expected to see your face again, and now God has allowed me to see your children too."

Gen 48:12 Then Joseph removed them from Israel's knees and bowed down with his face to the ground.

Gen 48:13 And Joseph took both of them, Ephraim on his right toward Israel's left hand and Manasseh on his left toward Israel's right hand, and brought them close to him.

Gen 48:14 But Israel reached out his right hand and put it on Ephraim's head, though he was the younger, and crossing his arms, he put his left hand on Manasseh's head, even though Manasseh was the firstborn.

Gen 48:15 Then he blessed Joseph and said, "May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day,

Gen 48:16 the Angel who has delivered me from all harm--may he bless these boys. May they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they increase greatly upon the earth."

Gen 48:17 When Joseph saw his father placing his right hand on Ephraim's head he was displeased; so he took hold of his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.

Gen 48:18 Joseph said to him, "No, my father, this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head."

Gen 48:19 But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He too will become a people, and he too will become great. Nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a group of nations."

Gen 48:20 He blessed them that day and said, "In your name will Israel pronounce this blessing: 'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.'" So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

Gen 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die, but God will be with you and take you back to the land of your fathers.

Gen 48:22 And to you, as one who is over your brothers, I give the ridge of land I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

Gen 49:1 Then Jacob called for his sons and said: "Gather around so I can tell you what will happen to you in days to come.

Gen 49:2 "Assemble and listen, sons of Jacob; listen to your father Israel.

Gen 49:3 "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, the first sign of my strength, excelling in honor, excelling in power.

Gen 49:4 Turbulent as the waters, you will no longer excel, for you went up onto your father's bed, onto my couch and defiled it.

Gen 49:5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers-- their swords are weapons of violence.

Gen 49:6 Let me not enter their council, let me not join their assembly, for they have killed men in their anger and hamstrung oxen as they pleased.

Gen 49:7 Cursed be their anger, so fierce, and their fury, so cruel! I will scatter them in Jacob and disperse them in Israel.

Gen 49:8 "Judah, your brothers will praise you; your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons will bow down to you.

Gen 49:9 You are a lion's cub, O Judah; you return from the prey, my son. Like a lion he crouches and lies down, like a lioness-- who dares to rouse him?

Gen 49:10 The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs and the obedience of the nations is his.

Gen 49:11 He will tether his donkey to a vine, his colt to the choicest branch; he will wash his garments in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes.

Gen 49:12 His eyes will be darker than wine, his teeth whiter than milk.

Gen 49:13 "Zebulun will live by the seashore and become a haven for ships; his border will extend toward Sidon.

Gen 49:14 "Issachar is a rawboned donkey lying down between two saddlebags.

Gen 49:15 When he sees how good is his resting place and how pleasant is his land, he will bend his shoulder to the burden and submit to forced labor.

Gen 49:16 "Dan will provide justice for his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

Gen 49:17 Dan will be a serpent by the roadside, a viper along the path, that bites the horse's heels so that its rider tumbles backward.

Gen 49:18 "I look for your deliverance, O LORD.

Gen 49:19 "Gad will be attacked by a band of raiders, but he will attack them at their heels.

Gen 49:20 "Asher's food will be rich; he will provide delicacies fit for a king.

Gen 49:21 "Naphtali is a doe set free that bears beautiful fawns.

Gen 49:22 "Joseph is a fruitful vine, a fruitful vine near a spring, whose branches climb over a wall.

Gen 49:23 With bitterness archers attacked him; they shot at him with hostility.

Gen 49:24 But his bow remained steady, his strong arms stayed limber, because of the hand of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

Gen 49:25 because of your father's God, who helps you, because of the Almighty, who blesses you with blessings of the heavens above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings of the breast and womb.

Gen 49:26 Your father's blessings are greater than the blessings of the ancient mountains, than the bounty of the age-old hills. Let all these rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

Gen 49:27 "Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; in the morning he devours the prey, in the evening he divides the plunder."

Gen 49:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them, giving each the blessing appropriate to him.

Gen 49:29 Then he gave them these instructions: "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

Gen 49:30 the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in Canaan, which Abraham bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, along with the field.

Gen 49:31 There Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried, there Isaac and his wife Rebekah were buried, and there I buried Leah.

Gen 49:32 The field and the cave in it were bought from the Hittites."

Gen 49:33 When Jacob had finished giving instructions to his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

Gen 50:1 Joseph threw himself upon his father and wept over him and kissed him.

Gen 50:2 Then Joseph directed the physicians in his service to embalm his father Israel. So the physicians embalmed him,

Gen 50:3 taking a full forty days, for that was the time required for embalming. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

Gen 50:4 When the days of mourning had passed, Joseph said to Pharaoh's court, "If I have found favor in your eyes, speak to Pharaoh for me. Tell him, Gen 50:5 'My father made me swear an oath and said, "I am about to die; bury me in the tomb I dug for myself in the land of Canaan." Now let me go up and bury my father; then I will return.'"

Gen 50:6 Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do."

Gen 50:7 So Joseph went up to bury his father. All Pharaoh's officials accompanied him-- the dignitaries of his court and all the dignitaries of Egypt--

Gen 50:8 besides all the members of Joseph's household and his brothers and those belonging to his father's household. Only their children and their flocks and herds were left in Goshen.

Gen 50:9 Chariots and horsemen also went up with him. It was a very large company.

Gen 50:10 When they reached the threshing floor of Atad, near the Jordan, they lamented loudly and bitterly; and there Joseph observed a seven-day period of mourning for his father.

Gen 50:11 When the Canaanites who lived there saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "The Egyptians are holding a solemn ceremony of mourning." That is why that place near the Jordan is called Abel Mizraim.

Gen 50:12 So Jacob's sons did as he had commanded them:

Gen 50:13 They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre, which Abraham had bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, along with the field.

Gen 50:14 After burying his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, together with his brothers and all the others who had gone with him to bury his father.

Gen 50:15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph holds a grudge against us and pays us back for all the wrongs we did to him?"

Gen 50:16 So they sent word to Joseph, saying, "Your father left these instructions before he died:

Gen 50:17 'This is what you are to say to Joseph: I ask you to forgive your brothers the sins and the wrongs they committed in treating you so badly.' Now please forgive the sins of the servants of the God of your father." When their message came to him, Joseph wept.

Gen 50:18 His brothers then came and threw themselves down before him. "We are your slaves," they said.

Gen 50:19 But Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid. Am I in the place of God?

Gen 50:20 You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.

Gen 50:21 So then, don't be afraid. I will provide for you and your children." And he reassured them and spoke kindly to them.

Gen 50:22 Joseph stayed in Egypt, along with all his father's family. He lived a hundred and ten years

Gen 50:23 and saw the third generation of Ephraim's children. Also the children of Makir son of Manasseh were placed at birth on Joseph's knees.

Gen 50:24 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die. But God will surely come to your aid and take you up out of this land to the land he promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."

Gen 50:25 And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath and said, "God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up from this place."

Gen 50:26 So Joseph died at the age of a hundred and ten. And after they embalmed him, he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exo 1:1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt with Jacob, each with his family:

Exo 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah;

Exo 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin;

Exo 1:4 Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.

Exo 1:5 The descendants of Jacob numbered seventy in all; Joseph was already in Egypt.

Exo 1:6 Now Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died,

Exo 1:7 but the Israelites were fruitful and multiplied greatly and became exceedingly numerous, so that the land was filled with them.

Exo 1:8 Then a new king, who did not know about Joseph, came to power in Egypt.

Exo 1:9 "Look," he said to his people, "the Israelites have become much too numerous for us.

Exo 1:10 Come, we must deal shrewdly with them or they will become even more numerous and, if war breaks out, will join our enemies, fight against us and leave the country."

Exo 1:11 So they put slave masters over them to oppress them with forced labor, and they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh.

Exo 1:12 But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites

Exo 1:13 and worked them ruthlessly.

Exo 1:14 They made their lives bitter with hard labor in brick and mortar and with all kinds of work in the fields; in all their hard labor the Egyptians used them ruthlessly.

Exo 1:15 The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah,

Exo 1:16 "When you help the Hebrew women in childbirth and observe them on the delivery stool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, let her live."

Exo 1:17 The midwives, however, feared God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them to do; they let the boys live.

Exo 1:18 Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, "Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?"

Exo 1:19 The midwives answered Pharaoh, "Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives arrive."

Exo 1:20 So God was kind to the midwives and the people increased and became even more numerous.

Exo 1:21 And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own.

Exo 1:22 Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: "Every boy that is born you must throw into the Nile, but let every girl live."

Exo 2:1 Now a man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman,

Exo 2:2 and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months.

Exo 2:3 But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile.

Exo 2:4 His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

Exo 2:5 Then Pharaoh's daughter went down to the Nile to bathe, and her attendants were walking along the river bank. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her slave girl to get it.

Exo 2:6 She opened it and saw the baby. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. "This is one of the Hebrew babies," she said.

Exo 2:7 Then his sister asked Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?"

Exo 2:8 "Yes, go," she answered. And the girl went and got the baby's mother.

Exo 2:9 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So the woman took the baby and nursed him.

Exo 2:10 When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, "I drew him out of the water."

Exo 2:11 One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to where his own people were and watched them at their hard labor. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people.

Exo 2:12 Glancing this way and that and seeing no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Exo 2:13 The next day he went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He asked the one in the wrong, "Why are you hitting your fellow Hebrew?"

Exo 2:14 The man said, "Who made you ruler and judge over us? Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid and thought, "What I did must have become known."

Exo 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of this, he tried to kill Moses, but Moses fled from Pharaoh and went to live in Midian, where he sat down by a well.

Exo 2:16 Now a priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father's flock.

Exo 2:17 Some shepherds came along and drove them away, but Moses got up and came to their rescue and watered their flock.

Exo 2:18 When the girls returned to Reuel their father, he asked them, "Why have you returned so early today?"

Exo 2:19 They answered, "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds. He even drew water for us and watered the flock."

Exo 2:20 "And where is he?" he asked his daughters. "Why did you leave him? Invite him to have something to eat."

Exo 2:21 Moses agreed to stay with the man, who gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage.

Exo 2:22 Zipporah gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom, saying, "I have become an alien in a foreign land."

Exo 2:23 During that long period, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned in their slavery and cried out, and their cry for help because of their slavery went up to God.

Exo 2:24 God heard their groaning and he remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob.

Exo 2:25 So God looked on the Israelites and was concerned about them.

Exo 3:1 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exo 3:2 There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up.

Exo 3:3 So Moses thought, "I will go over and see this strange sight-- why the bush does not burn up."

Exo 3:4 When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, "Moses! Moses!" And Moses said, "Here I am."

Exo 3:5 "Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground."

Exo 3:6 Then he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob." At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

Exo 3:7 The LORD said, "I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering.

Exo 3:8 So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey-- the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Exo 3:9 And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them.

Exo 3:10 So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt."

Exo 3:11 But Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

Exo 3:12 And God said, "I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain."

Exo 3:13 Moses said to God, "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' Then what shall I tell them?"

Exo 3:14 God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

Exo 3:15 God also said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers-- the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob-- has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, the name by which I am to be remembered from generation to generation."

Exo 3:16 "Go, assemble the elders of Israel and say to them, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers-- the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob-- appeared to me and said: I have watched over you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.'

Exo 3:17 And I have promised to bring you up out of your misery in Egypt into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites-- a land flowing with milk and honey.'

Exo 3:18 "The elders of Israel will listen to you. Then you and the elders are to go to the king of Egypt and say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Let us take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God.'

Exo 3:19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless a mighty hand compels him.

Exo 3:20 So I will stretch out my hand and strike the Egyptians with all the wonders that I will perform among them. After that, he will let you go.

Exo 3:21 "And I will make the Egyptians favorably disposed toward this people, so that when you leave you will not go empty-handed.

Exo 3:22 Every woman is to ask her neighbor and any woman living in her house for articles of silver and gold and for clothing, which you will put on your sons and daughters. And so you will plunder the Egyptians."

Exo 4:1 Moses answered, "What if they do not believe me or listen to me and say, 'The LORD did not appear to you'?"

Exo 4:2 Then the LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" "A staff," he replied.

Exo 4:3 The LORD said, "Throw it on the ground." Moses threw it on the ground and it became a snake, and he ran from it.

Exo 4:4 Then the LORD said to him, "Reach out your hand and take it by the tail." So Moses reached out and took hold of the snake and it turned back into a staff in his hand.

Exo 4:5 "This," said the LORD, "is so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers-- the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob-- has appeared to you."

Exo 4:6 Then the LORD said, "Put your hand inside your cloak." So Moses put his hand into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was leprous, like snow.

Exo 4:7 "Now put it back into your cloak," he said. So Moses put his hand back into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored, like the rest of his flesh.

Exo 4:8 Then the LORD said, "If they do not believe you or pay attention to the first miraculous sign, they may believe the second.

Exo 4:9 But if they do not believe these two signs or listen to you, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the river will become blood on the ground."

Exo 4:10 Moses said to the LORD, "O Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant. I am slow of speech and tongue."

Exo 4:11 The LORD said to him, "Who gave man his mouth? Who makes him deaf or mute? Who gives him sight or makes him blind? Is it not I, the LORD?

Exo 4:12 Now go; I will help you speak and will teach you what to say."

Exo 4:13 But Moses said, "O Lord, please send someone else to do it."

Exo 4:14 Then the LORD's anger burned against Moses and he said, "What about your brother, Aaron the Levite? I know he can speak well. He is already on his way to meet you, and his heart will be glad when he sees you.

Exo 4:15 You shall speak to him and put words in his mouth; I will help both of you speak and will teach you what to do.

Exo 4:16 He will speak to the people for you, and it will be as if he were your mouth and as if you were God to him.

Exo 4:17 But take this staff in your hand so you can perform miraculous signs with it."

Exo 4:18 Then Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, "Let me go back to my own people in Egypt to see if any of them are still alive." Jethro said, "Go, and I wish you well."

Exo 4:19 Now the LORD had said to Moses in Midian, "Go back to Egypt, for all the men who wanted to kill you are dead."

Exo 4:20 So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey and started back to Egypt. And he took the staff of God in his hand.

Exo 4:21 The LORD said to Moses, "When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders I have given you the power to do. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

Exo 4:22 Then say to Pharaoh, 'This is what the LORD says: Israel is my firstborn son,
Exo 4:23 and I told you, "Let my son go, so he may worship me." But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your firstborn son."

Exo 4:24 At a lodging place on the way, the LORD met [Moses] and was about to kill him.

Exo 4:25 But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin and touched [Moses'] feet with it. "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me," she said.

Exo 4:26 So the LORD let him alone. (At that time she said "bridegroom of blood," referring to circumcision.)

Exo 4:27 The LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the desert to meet Moses." So he met Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exo 4:28 Then Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say, and also about all the miraculous signs he had commanded him to perform.

Exo 4:29 Moses and Aaron brought together all the elders of the Israelites,

Exo 4:30 and Aaron told them everything the LORD had said to Moses. He also performed the signs before the people,

Exo 4:31 and they believed. And when they heard that the LORD was concerned about them and had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshiped.

Exo 5:1 Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Let my people go, so that they may hold a festival to me in the desert."

Exo 5:2 Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD and I will not let Israel go."

Exo 5:3 Then they said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, or he may strike us with plagues or with the sword."

Exo 5:4 But the king of Egypt said, "Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their labor? Get back to your work!"

Exo 5:5 Then Pharaoh said, "Look, the people of the land are now numerous, and you are stopping them from working."

Exo 5:6 That same day Pharaoh gave this order to the slave drivers and foremen in charge of the people:

Exo 5:7 "You are no longer to supply the people with straw for making bricks; let them go and gather their own straw.

Exo 5:8 But require them to make the same number of bricks as before; don't reduce the quota. They are lazy; that is why they are crying out, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'

Exo 5:9 Make the work harder for the men so that they keep working and pay no attention to lies."

Exo 5:10 Then the slave drivers and the foremen went out and said to the people, "This is what Pharaoh says: 'I will not give you any more straw.

Exo 5:11 Go and get your own straw wherever you can find it, but your work will not be reduced at all."

Exo 5:12 So the people scattered all over Egypt to gather stubble to use for straw.

Exo 5:13 The slave drivers kept pressing them, saying, "Complete the work required of you for each day, just as when you had straw."

Exo 5:14 The Israelite foremen appointed by Pharaoh's slave drivers were beaten and were asked, "Why didn't you meet your quota of bricks yesterday or today, as before?"

Exo 5:15 Then the Israelite foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh: "Why have you treated your servants this way?

Exo 5:16 Your servants are given no straw, yet we are told, 'Make bricks!' Your servants are being beaten, but the fault is with your own people."

Exo 5:17 Pharaoh said, "Lazy, that's what you are-- lazy! That is why you keep saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'

Exo 5:18 Now get to work. You will not be given any straw, yet you must produce your full quota of bricks."

Exo 5:19 The Israelite foremen realized they were in trouble when they were told, "You are not to reduce the number of bricks required of you for each day."

Exo 5:20 When they left Pharaoh, they found Moses and Aaron waiting to meet them,

Exo 5:21 and they said, "May the LORD look upon you and judge you! You have made us a stench to Pharaoh and his officials and have put a sword in their hand to kill us."

Exo 5:22 Moses returned to the LORD and said, "O Lord, why have you brought trouble upon this people? Is this why you sent me?

Exo 5:23 Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble upon this people, and you have not rescued your people at all."

Exo 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of my mighty hand he will let them go; because of my mighty hand he will drive them out of his country."

Exo 6:2 God also said to Moses, "I am the LORD.

Exo 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the LORD I did not make myself known to them.

Exo 6:4 I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they lived as aliens.

Exo 6:5 Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

Exo 6:6 "Therefore, say to the Israelites: 'I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment.'

Exo 6:7 I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

Exo 6:8 And I will bring you to the land I swore with uplifted hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD."

Exo 6:9 Moses reported this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and cruel bondage.

Exo 6:10 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 6:11 "Go, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his country."

Exo 6:12 But Moses said to the LORD, "If the Israelites will not listen to me, why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I speak with faltering lips?"

Exo 6:13 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron about the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he commanded them to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

Exo 6:14 These were the heads of their families: The sons of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

Exo 6:15 The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

Exo 6:16 These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their records: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

Exo 6:17 The sons of Gershon, by clans, were Libni and Shimei.

Exo 6:18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

Exo 6:19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi according to their records.

Exo 6:20 Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, who bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

Exo 6:21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg and Zicri.

Exo 6:22 The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

Exo 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Exo 6:24 The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These were the Korahite clans.

Exo 6:25 Eleazar son of Aaron married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the Levite families, clan by clan.

Exo 6:26 It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions."

Exo 6:27 They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt. It was the same Moses and Aaron.

Exo 6:28 Now when the LORD spoke to Moses in Egypt,

Exo 6:29 he said to him, "I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I tell you."

Exo 6:30 But Moses said to the LORD, "Since I speak with faltering lips, why would Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exo 7:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.

Exo 7:2 You are to say everything I command you, and your brother Aaron is to tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his country.

Exo 7:3 But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and though I multiply my miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt,

Exo 7:4 he will not listen to you. Then I will lay my hand on Egypt and with mighty acts of judgment I will bring out my divisions, my people the Israelites.

Exo 7:5 And the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out of it."

Exo 7:6 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD commanded them.

Exo 7:7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exo 7:8 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Exo 7:9 "When Pharaoh says to you, 'Perform a miracle,' then say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh,' and it will become a snake."

Exo 7:10 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as the LORD commanded. Aaron threw his staff down in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a snake.

Exo 7:11 Pharaoh then summoned wise men and sorcerers, and the Egyptian magicians also did the same things by their secret arts:

Exo 7:12 Each one threw down his staff and it became a snake. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs.

Exo 7:13 Yet Pharaoh's heart became hard and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Exo 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is unyielding; he refuses to let the people go.

Exo 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he goes out to the water. Wait on the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was changed into a snake.

Exo 7:16 Then say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to say to you: Let my people go, so that they may worship me in the desert. But until now you have not listened.'

Exo 7:17 This is what the LORD says: By this you will know that I am the LORD: With the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water of the Nile, and it will be changed into blood.

Exo 7:18 The fish in the Nile will die, and the river will stink; the Egyptians will not be able to drink its water."

Exo 7:19 The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt-- over the streams and canals, over the ponds and all the reservoirs'-- and they will turn to blood. Blood will be everywhere in Egypt, even in the wooden buckets and stone jars."

Exo 7:20 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded. He raised his staff in the presence of Pharaoh and his officials and struck the water of the Nile, and all the water was changed into blood.

Exo 7:21 The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled so bad that the Egyptians could not drink its water. Blood was everywhere in Egypt.

Exo 7:22 But the Egyptian magicians did the same things by their secret arts, and Pharaoh's heart became hard; he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.

Exo 7:23 Instead, he turned and went into his palace, and did not take even this to heart.

Exo 7:24 And all the Egyptians dug along the Nile to get drinking water, because they could not drink the water of the river.

Exo 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD struck the Nile.

Exo 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.'

Exo 8:2 If you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs.

Exo 8:3 The Nile will teem with frogs. They will come up into your palace and your bedroom and onto your bed, into the houses of your officials and on your people, and into your ovens and kneading troughs.

Exo 8:4 The frogs will go up on you and your people and all your officials."

Exo 8:5 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your staff over the streams and canals and ponds, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.'

Exo 8:6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land.

Exo 8:7 But the magicians did the same things by their secret arts; they also made frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

Exo 8:8 Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray to the LORD to take the frogs away from me and my people, and I will let your people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD."

Exo 8:9 Moses said to Pharaoh, "I leave to you the honor of setting the time for me to pray for you and your officials and your people that you and your houses may be rid of the frogs, except for those that remain in the Nile."

Exo 8:10 "Tomorrow," Pharaoh said. Moses replied, "It will be as you say, so that you may know there is no one like the LORD our God.

Exo 8:11 The frogs will leave you and your houses, your officials and your people; they will remain only in the Nile."

Exo 8:12 After Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh, Moses cried out to the LORD about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh.

Exo 8:13 And the LORD did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the courtyards and in the fields.

Exo 8:14 They were piled into heaps, and the land reeked of them.

Exo 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.

Exo 8:16 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground,' and throughout the land of Egypt the dust will become gnats."

Exo 8:17 They did this, and when Aaron stretched out his hand with the staff and struck the dust of the ground, gnats came upon men and animals. All the dust throughout the land of Egypt became gnats.

Exo 8:18 But when the magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, they could not. And the gnats were on men and animals.

Exo 8:19 The magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God." But Pharaoh's heart was hard and he would not listen, just as the LORD had said.

Exo 8:20 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning and confront Pharaoh as he goes to the water and say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.'

Exo 8:21 If you do not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you and your officials, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies, and even the ground where they are.

Exo 8:22 "But on that day I will deal differently with the land of Goshen, where my people live; no swarms of flies will be there, so that you will know that I, the LORD, am in this land.

Exo 8:23 I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This miraculous sign will occur tomorrow."

Exo 8:24 And the LORD did this. Dense swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials, and throughout Egypt the land was ruined by the flies.

Exo 8:25 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God here in the land."

Exo 8:26 But Moses said, "That would not be right. The sacrifices we offer the LORD our God would be detestable to the Egyptians. And if we offer sacrifices that are detestable in their eyes, will they not stone us?"

Exo 8:27 We must take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, as he commands us."

Exo 8:28 Pharaoh said, "I will let you go to offer sacrifices to the LORD your God in the desert, but you must not go very far. Now pray for me."

Exo 8:29 Moses answered, "As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD, and tomorrow the flies will leave Pharaoh and his officials and his people. Only be sure that Pharaoh does not act deceitfully again by not letting the people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD."

Exo 8:30 Then Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD,

Exo 8:31 and the LORD did what Moses asked: The flies left Pharaoh and his officials and his people; not a fly remained.

Exo 8:32 But this time also Pharaoh hardened his heart and would not let the people go.

Exo 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, so that they may worship me."

Exo 9:2 If you refuse to let them go and continue to hold them back,

Exo 9:3 the hand of the LORD will bring a terrible plague on your livestock in the field-- on your horses and donkeys and camels and on your cattle and sheep and goats.

Exo 9:4 But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and that of Egypt, so that no animal belonging to the Israelites will die."

Exo 9:5 The LORD set a time and said, "Tomorrow the LORD will do this in the land."

Exo 9:6 And the next day the LORD did it: All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but not one animal belonging to the Israelites died.

Exo 9:7 Pharaoh sent men to investigate and found that not even one of the animals of the Israelites had died. Yet his heart was unyielding and he would not let the people go.

Exo 9:8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Take handfuls of soot from a furnace and have Moses toss it into the air in the presence of Pharaoh.

Exo 9:9 It will become fine dust over the whole land of Egypt, and festering boils will break out on men and animals throughout the land."

Exo 9:10 So they took soot from a furnace and stood before Pharaoh. Moses tossed it into the air, and festering boils broke out on men and animals.

Exo 9:11 The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils that were on them and on all the Egyptians.

Exo 9:12 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart and he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said to Moses.

Exo 9:13 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning, confront Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me,'

Exo 9:14 or this time I will send the full force of my plagues against you and against your officials and your people, so you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth.

Exo 9:15 For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth.

Exo 9:16 But I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I might show you my power and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.

Exo 9:17 You still set yourself against my people and will not let them go.

Exo 9:18 Therefore, at this time tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded till now.

Exo 9:19 Give an order now to bring your livestock and everything you have in the field to a place of shelter, because the hail will fall on every man and animal that has not been brought in and is still out in the field, and they will die."

Exo 9:20 Those officials of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD hurried to bring their slaves and their livestock inside.

Exo 9:21 But those who ignored the word of the LORD left their slaves and livestock in the field.

Exo 9:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky so that hail will fall all over Egypt-- on men and animals and on everything growing in the fields of Egypt."

Exo 9:23 When Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, the LORD sent thunder and hail, and lightning flashed down to the ground. So the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt;

Exo 9:24 hail fell and lightning flashed back and forth. It was the worst storm in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.

Exo 9:25 Throughout Egypt hail struck everything in the fields-- both men and animals; it beat down everything growing in the fields and stripped every tree.

Exo 9:26 The only place it did not hail was the land of Goshen, where the Israelites were.

Exo 9:27 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. "This time I have sinned," he said to them. "The LORD is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong."

Exo 9:28 Pray to the LORD, for we have had enough thunder and hail. I will let you go; you don't have to stay any longer."

Exo 9:29 Moses replied, "When I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands in prayer to the LORD. The thunder will stop and there will be no more hail, so you may know that the earth is the LORD's.

Exo 9:30 But I know that you and your officials still do not fear the LORD God."

Exo 9:31 (The flax and barley were destroyed, since the barley had headed and the flax was in bloom.

Exo 9:32 The wheat and spelt, however, were not destroyed, because they ripen later.)

Exo 9:33 Then Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. He spread out his hands toward the LORD; the thunder and hail stopped, and the rain no longer poured down on the land.

Exo 9:34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder had stopped, he sinned again: He and his officials hardened their hearts.

Exo 9:35 So Pharaoh's heart was hard and he would not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had said through Moses.

Exo 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials so that I may perform these miraculous signs of mine among them

Exo 10:2 that you may tell your children and grandchildren how I dealt harshly with the Egyptians and how I performed my signs among them, and that you may know that I am the LORD."

Exo 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, "This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may worship me.'

Exo 10:4 If you refuse to let them go, I will bring locusts into your country tomorrow.

Exo 10:5 They will cover the face of the ground so that it cannot be seen. They will devour what little you have left after the hail, including every tree that is growing in your fields.

Exo 10:6 They will fill your houses and those of all your officials and all the Egyptians-- something neither your fathers nor your forefathers have ever seen from the day they settled in this land till now." Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

Exo 10:7 Pharaoh's officials said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship the LORD their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt is ruined?"

Exo 10:8 Then Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. "Go, worship the LORD your God," he said. "But just who will be going?"

Exo 10:9 Moses answered, "We will go with our young and old, with our sons and daughters, and with our flocks and herds, because we are to celebrate a festival to the LORD."

Exo 10:10 Pharaoh said, "The LORD be with you-- if I let you go, along with your women and children! Clearly you are bent on evil.

Exo 10:11 No! Have only the men go; and worship the LORD, since that's what you have been asking for." Then Moses and Aaron were driven out of Pharaoh's presence.

Exo 10:12 And the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over Egypt so that locusts will swarm over the land and devour everything growing in the fields, everything left by the hail."

Exo 10:13 So Moses stretched out his staff over Egypt, and the LORD made an east wind blow across the land all that day and all that night. By morning the wind had brought the locusts;

Exo 10:14 they invaded all Egypt and settled down in every area of the country in great numbers. Never before had there been such a plague of locusts, nor will there ever be again.

Exo 10:15 They covered all the ground until it was black. They devoured all that was left after the hail-- everything growing in the fields and the fruit on the trees. Nothing green remained on tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.

Exo 10:16 Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

Exo 10:17 Now forgive my sin once more and pray to the LORD your God to take this deadly plague away from me."

Exo 10:18 Moses then left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

Exo 10:19 And the LORD changed the wind to a very strong west wind, which caught up the locusts and carried them into the Red Sea. Not a locust was left anywhere in Egypt.

Exo 10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.

Exo 10:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky so that darkness will spread over Egypt-- darkness that can be felt."

Exo 10:22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and total darkness covered all Egypt for three days.

Exo 10:23 No one could see anyone else or leave his place for three days. Yet all the Israelites had light in the places where they lived.

Exo 10:24 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "Go, worship the LORD. Even your women and children may go with you; only leave your flocks and herds behind."

Exo 10:25 But Moses said, "You must allow us to have sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to the LORD our God.

Exo 10:26 Our livestock too must go with us; not a hoof is to be left behind. We have to use some of them in worshiping the LORD our God, and until we get there we will not know what we are to use to worship the LORD."

Exo 10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was not willing to let them go.

Exo 10:28 Pharaoh said to Moses, "Get out of my sight! Make sure you do not appear before me again! The day you see my face you will die."

Exo 10:29 "Just as you say," Moses replied, "I will never appear before you again."

Exo 11:1 Now the LORD had said to Moses, "I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you go from here, and when he does, he will drive you out completely.

Exo 11:2 Tell the people that men and women alike are to ask their neighbors for articles of silver and gold."

Exo 11:3 (The LORD made the Egyptians favorably disposed toward the people, and Moses himself was highly regarded in Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and by the people.)

Exo 11:4 So Moses said, "This is what the LORD says: 'About midnight I will go throughout Egypt.

Exo 11:5 Every firstborn son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, who sits on the throne, to the firstborn son of the slave girl, who is at her hand mill, and all the firstborn of the cattle as well.

Exo 11:6 There will be loud wailing throughout Egypt-- worse than there has ever been or ever will be again.

Exo 11:7 But among the Israelites not a dog will bark at any man or animal.' Then you will know that the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.

Exo 11:8 All these officials of yours will come to me, bowing down before me and saying, 'Go, you and all the people who follow you!' After that I will leave." Then Moses, hot with anger, left Pharaoh.

Exo 11:9 The LORD had said to Moses, "Pharaoh will refuse to listen to you-- so that my wonders may be multiplied in Egypt."

Exo 11:10 Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go out of his country.

Exo 12:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt,

Exo 12:2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year.

Exo 12:3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household.

Exo 12:4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat.

Exo 12:5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats.

Exo 12:6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight.

Exo 12:7 Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs.

Exo 12:8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast.

Exo 12:9 Do not eat the meat raw or cooked in water, but roast it over the fire-- head, legs and inner parts.

Exo 12:10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it.

Exo 12:11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover.

Exo 12:12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn-- both men and animals-- and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD.

Exo 12:13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

Exo 12:14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD-- a lasting ordinance.

Exo 12:15 For seven days you are to eat bread made without yeast. On the first day remove the yeast from your houses, for whoever eats anything with yeast in it from the first day through the seventh must be cut off from Israel.

Exo 12:16 On the first day hold a sacred assembly, and another one on the seventh day. Do no work at all on these days, except to prepare food for everyone to eat-- that is all you may do.

Exo 12:17 "Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because it was on this very day that I brought your divisions out of Egypt. Celebrate this day as a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Exo 12:18 In the first month you are to eat bread made without yeast, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day.

Exo 12:19 For seven days no yeast is to be found in your houses. And whoever eats anything with yeast in it must be cut off from the community of Israel, whether he is an alien or native-born.

Exo 12:20 Eat nothing made with yeast. Wherever you live, you must eat unleavened bread."

Exo 12:21 Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go at once and select the animals for your families and slaughter the Passover lamb.

Exo 12:22 Take a bunch of hyssop, dip it into the blood in the basin and put some of the blood on the top and on both sides of the doorframe. Not one of you shall go out the door of his house until morning.

Exo 12:23 When the LORD goes through the land to strike down the Egyptians, he will see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over that doorway, and he will not permit the destroyer to enter your houses and strike you down.

Exo 12:24 "Obey these instructions as a lasting ordinance for you and your descendants.

Exo 12:25 When you enter the land that the LORD will give you as he promised, observe this ceremony.

Exo 12:26 And when your children ask you, 'What does this ceremony mean to you?'

Exo 12:27 then tell them, 'It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt and spared our homes when he struck down the Egyptians.'" Then the people bowed down and worshiped.

Exo 12:28 The Israelites did just what the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exo 12:29 At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on the throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner, who was in the dungeon, and the firstborn of all the livestock as well.

Exo 12:30 Pharaoh and all his officials and all the Egyptians got up during the night, and there was loud wailing in Egypt, for there was not a house without someone dead.

Exo 12:31 During the night Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Up! Leave my people, you and the Israelites! Go, worship the LORD as you have requested.

Exo 12:32 Take your flocks and herds, as you have said, and go. And also bless me."

Exo 12:33 The Egyptians urged the people to hurry and leave the country. "For otherwise," they said, "we will all die!"

Exo 12:34 So the people took their dough before the yeast was added, and carried it on their shoulders in kneading troughs wrapped in clothing.

Exo 12:35 The Israelites did as Moses instructed and asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold and for clothing.

Exo 12:36 The LORD had made the Egyptians favorably disposed toward the people, and they gave them what they asked for; so they plundered the Egyptians.

Exo 12:37 The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth. There were about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides women and children.

Exo 12:38 Many other people went up with them, as well as large droves of livestock, both flocks and herds.

Exo 12:39 With the dough they had brought from Egypt, they baked cakes of unleavened bread. The dough was without yeast because they had been driven out of Egypt and did not have time to prepare food for themselves.

Exo 12:40 Now the length of time the Israelite people lived in Egypt was 430 years.

Exo 12:41 At the end of the 430 years, to the very day, all the LORD's divisions left Egypt.

Exo 12:42 Because the LORD kept vigil that night to bring them out of Egypt, on this night all the Israelites are to keep vigil to honor the LORD for the generations to come.

Exo 12:43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "These are the regulations for the Passover: "No foreigner is to eat of it.

Exo 12:44 Any slave you have bought may eat of it after you have circumcised him,

Exo 12:45 but a temporary resident and a hired worker may not eat of it.

Exo 12:46 "It must be eaten inside one house; take none of the meat outside the house. Do not break any of the bones.

Exo 12:47 The whole community of Israel must celebrate it.

Exo 12:48 "An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD's Passover must have all the males in his household circumcised; then he may take part like one born in the land. No uncircumcised male may eat of it.

Exo 12:49 The same law applies to the native-born and to the alien living among you."

Exo 12:50 All the Israelites did just what the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exo 12:51 And on that very day the LORD brought the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions.

Exo 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 13:2 "Consecrate to me every firstborn male. The first offspring of every womb among the Israelites belongs to me, whether man or animal."

Exo 13:3 Then Moses said to the people, "Commemorate this day, the day you came out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery, because the LORD brought you out of it with a mighty hand. Eat nothing containing yeast.

Exo 13:4 Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving.

Exo 13:5 When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites and Jebusites--the land he swore to your forefathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey-- you are to observe this ceremony in this month:

Exo 13:6 For seven days eat bread made without yeast and on the seventh day hold a festival to the LORD.

Exo 13:7 Eat unleavened bread during those seven days; nothing with yeast in it is to be seen among you, nor shall any yeast be seen anywhere within your borders.

Exo 13:8 On that day tell your son, 'I do this because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'

Exo 13:9 This observance will be for you like a sign on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the law of the LORD is to be on your lips. For the LORD brought you out of Egypt with his mighty hand.

Exo 13:10 You must keep this ordinance at the appointed time year after year.

Exo 13:11 "After the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as he promised on oath to you and your forefathers, Exo 13:12 you are to give over to the LORD the first offspring of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to the LORD.

Exo 13:13 Redeem with a lamb every firstborn donkey, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem every firstborn among your sons.

Exo 13:14 "In days to come, when your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' say to him, 'With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.'

Exo 13:15 When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed every firstborn in Egypt, both man and animal. This is why I sacrifice to the LORD the first male offspring of every womb and redeem each of my firstborn sons.'

Exo 13:16 And it will be like a sign on your hand and a symbol on your forehead that the LORD brought us out of Egypt with his mighty hand."

Exo 13:17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them on the road through the Philistine country, though that was shorter. For God said, "If they face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt."

Exo 13:18 So God led the people around by the desert road toward the Red Sea. The Israelites went up out of Egypt armed for battle.

Exo 13:19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him because Joseph had made the sons of Israel swear an oath. He had said, "God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up with you from this place."

Exo 13:20 After leaving Succoth they camped at Etham on the edge of the desert.

Exo 13:21 By day the LORD went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night.

Exo 13:22 Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place in front of the people.

Exo 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 14:2 "Tell the Israelites to turn back and encamp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. They are to encamp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon.

Exo 14:3 Pharaoh will think, 'The Israelites are wandering around the land in confusion, hemmed in by the desert.'

Exo 14:4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them. But I will gain glory for myself through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD." So the Israelites did this.

Exo 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them and said, "What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and have lost their services!"

Exo 14:6 So he had his chariot made ready and took his army with him.

Exo 14:7 He took six hundred of the best chariots, along with all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them.

Exo 14:8 The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out boldly.

Exo 14:9 The Egyptians-- all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, horsemen and troops-- pursued the Israelites and overtook them as they camped by the sea near Pi Hahiroth, opposite Baal Zephon.

Exo 14:10 As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up, and there were the Egyptians, marching after them. They were terrified and cried out to the LORD.

Exo 14:11 They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us to the desert to die? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt?"

Exo 14:12 Didn't we say to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians'? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!"

Exo 14:13 Moses answered the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the LORD will bring you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see again."

Exo 14:14 The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still."

Exo 14:15 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on.

Exo 14:16 Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground.

Exo 14:17 I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.

Exo 14:18 The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I gain glory through Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen."

Exo 14:19 Then the angel of God, who had been traveling in front of Israel's army, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from in front and stood behind them,

Exo 14:20 coming between the armies of Egypt and Israel. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness to the one side and light to the other side; so neither went near the other all night long.

Exo 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided,

Exo 14:22 and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Exo 14:23 The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea.

Exo 14:24 During the last watch of the night the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into confusion.

Exo 14:25 He made the wheels of their chariots come off so that they had difficulty driving. And the Egyptians said, "Let's get away from the Israelites! The LORD is fighting for them against Egypt."

Exo 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen."

Exo 14:27 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea went back to its place. The Egyptians were fleeing toward it, and the LORD swept them into the sea.

Exo 14:28 The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen-- the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not one of them survived.

Exo 14:29 But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Exo 14:30 That day the LORD saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore.

Exo 14:31 And when the Israelites saw the great power the LORD displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant.

Exo 15:1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: "I will sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea."

Exo 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him.

Exo 15:3 The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name.

Exo 15:4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army he has hurled into the sea. The best of Pharaoh's officers are drowned in the Red Sea.

Exo 15:5 The deep waters have covered them; they sank to the depths like a stone.

Exo 15:6 "Your right hand, O LORD, was majestic in power. Your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy.

Exo 15:7 In the greatness of your majesty you threw down those who opposed you. You unleashed your burning anger; it consumed them like stubble.

Exo 15:8 By the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up. The surging waters stood firm like a wall; the deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea.

Exo 15:9 "The enemy boasted, 'I will pursue, I will overtake them. I will divide the spoils; I will gorge myself on them. I will draw my sword and my hand will destroy them.'

Exo 15:10 But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Exo 15:11 "Who among the gods is like you, O LORD? Who is like you-- majestic in holiness, awesome in glory, working wonders?

Exo 15:12 You stretched out your right hand and the earth swallowed them.

Exo 15:13 "In your unfailing love you will lead the people you have redeemed. In your strength you will guide them to your holy dwelling.

Exo 15:14 The nations will hear and tremble; anguish will grip the people of Philistia.

Exo 15:15 The chiefs of Edom will be terrified, the leaders of Moab will be seized with trembling, the people of Canaan will melt away;

Exo 15:16 terror and dread will fall upon them. By the power of your arm they will be as still as a stone-- until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people you bought pass by.

Exo 15:17 You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of your inheritance-- the place, O LORD, you made for your dwelling, the sanctuary, O Lord, your hands established.

Exo 15:18 The LORD will reign for ever and ever."

Exo 15:19 When Pharaoh's horses, chariots and horsemen went into the sea, the LORD brought the waters of the sea back over them, but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.

Exo 15:20 Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women followed her, with tambourines and dancing.

Exo 15:21 Miriam sang to them: "Sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea."

Exo 15:22 Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea and they went into the Desert of Shur. For three days they traveled in the desert without finding water.

Exo 15:23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink its water because it was bitter. (That is why the place is called Marah.)

Exo 15:24 So the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "What are we to drink?"

Exo 15:25 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood. He threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD made a decree and a law for them, and there he tested them.

Exo 15:26 He said, "If you listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep all his decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the LORD, who heals you."

Exo 15:27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there near the water.

Exo 16:1 The whole Israelite community set out from Elim and came to the Desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had come out of Egypt.

Exo 16:2 In the desert the whole community grumbled against Moses and Aaron.

Exo 16:3 The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the LORD's hand in Egypt! There we sat around pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death."

Exo 16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. In this way I will test them and see whether they will follow my instructions.

Exo 16:5 On the sixth day they are to prepare what they bring in, and that is to be twice as much as they gather on the other days."

Exo 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of Egypt, Exo 16:7 and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?"

Exo 16:8 Moses also said, "You will know that it was the LORD when he gives you meat to eat in the evening and all the bread you want in the morning, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we? You are not grumbling against us, but against the LORD."

Exo 16:9 Then Moses told Aaron, "Say to the entire Israelite community, 'Come before the LORD, for he has heard your grumbling."

Exo 16:10 While Aaron was speaking to the whole Israelite community, they looked toward the desert, and there was the glory of the LORD appearing in the cloud.

Exo 16:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 16:12 "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them, 'At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.'

Exo 16:13 That evening quail came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

Exo 16:14 When the dew was gone, thin flakes like frost on the ground appeared on the desert floor.

Exo 16:15 When the Israelites saw it, they said to each other, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread the LORD has given you to eat.

Exo 16:16 This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Each one is to gather as much as he needs. Take an omer for each person you have in your tent.'

Exo 16:17 The Israelites did as they were told; some gathered much, some little.

Exo 16:18 And when they measured it by the omer, he who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little. Each one gathered as much as he needed.

Exo 16:19 Then Moses said to them, "No one is to keep any of it until morning."

Exo 16:20 However, some of them paid no attention to Moses; they kept part of it until morning, but it was full of maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them.

Exo 16:21 Each morning everyone gathered as much as he needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away.

Exo 16:22 On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much-- two omers for each person-- and the leaders of the community came and reported this to Moses.

Exo 16:23 He said to them, "This is what the LORD commanded: 'Tomorrow is to be a day of rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. So bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left and keep it until morning.'

Exo 16:24 So they saved it until morning, as Moses commanded, and it did not stink or get maggots in it.

Exo 16:25 "Eat it today," Moses said, "because today is a Sabbath to the LORD. You will not find any of it on the ground today.

Exo 16:26 Six days you are to gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will not be any."

Exo 16:27 Nevertheless, some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather it, but they found none.

Exo 16:28 Then the LORD said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep my commands and my instructions?

Exo 16:29 Bear in mind that the LORD has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the sixth day he gives you bread for two days. Everyone is to stay where he is on the seventh day; no one is to go out."

Exo 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

Exo 16:31 The people of Israel called the bread manna. It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey.

Exo 16:32 Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Take an omer of manna and keep it for the generations to come, so they can see the bread I gave you to eat in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.'"

Exo 16:33 So Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar and put an omer of manna in it. Then place it before the LORD to be kept for the generations to come."

Exo 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, Aaron put the manna in front of the Testimony, that it might be kept.

Exo 16:35 The Israelites ate manna forty years, until they came to a land that was settled; they ate manna until they reached the border of Canaan.

Exo 16:36 (An omer is one tenth of an ephah.)

Exo 17:1 The whole Israelite community set out from the Desert of Sin, traveling from place to place as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

Exo 17:2 So they quarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses replied, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put the LORD to the test?"

Exo 17:3 But the people were thirsty for water there, and they grumbled against Moses. They said, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to make us and our children and livestock die of thirst?"

Exo 17:4 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What am I to do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me."

Exo 17:5 The LORD answered Moses, "Walk on ahead of the people. Take with you some of the elders of Israel and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Exo 17:6 I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink." So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Exo 17:7 And he called the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites quarreled and because they tested the LORD saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

Exo 17:8 The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim.

Exo 17:9 Moses said to Joshua, "Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hands."

Exo 17:10 So Joshua fought the Amalekites as Moses had ordered, and Moses, Aaron and Hur went to the top of the hill.

Exo 17:11 As long as Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning, but whenever he lowered his hands, the Amalekites were winning.

Exo 17:12 When Moses' hands grew tired, they took a stone and put it under him and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held his hands up-- one on one side, one on the other-- so that his hands remained steady till sunset.

Exo 17:13 So Joshua overcame the Amalekite army with the sword.

Exo 17:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write this on a scroll as something to be remembered and make sure that Joshua hears it, because I will completely blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven."

Exo 17:15 Moses built an altar and called it The LORD is my Banner.

Exo 17:16 He said, "For hands were lifted up to the throne of the LORD. The LORD will be at war against the Amalekites from generation to generation."

Exo 18:1 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian and father-in-law of Moses, heard of everything God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exo 18:2 After Moses had sent away his wife Zipporah, his father-in-law Jethro received her

Exo 18:3 and her two sons. One son was named Gershom, for Moses said, "I have become an alien in a foreign land";

Exo 18:4 and the other was named Eliezer, for he said, "My father's God was my helper; he saved me from the sword of Pharaoh."

Exo 18:5 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, together with Moses' sons and wife, came to him in the desert, where he was camped near the mountain of God.

Exo 18:6 Jethro had sent word to him, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

Exo 18:7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him. They greeted each other and then went into the tent.

Exo 18:8 Moses told his father-in-law about everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake and about all the hardships they had met along the way and how the LORD had saved them.

Exo 18:9 Jethro was delighted to hear about all the good things the LORD had done for Israel in rescuing them from the hand of the Egyptians.

Exo 18:10 He said, "Praise be to the LORD, who rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh, and who rescued the people from the hand of the Egyptians."

Exo 18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all other gods, for he did this to those who had treated Israel arrogantly."

Exo 18:12 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God.

Exo 18:13 The next day Moses took his seat to serve as judge for the people, and they stood around him from morning till evening.

Exo 18:14 When his father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he said, "What is this you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge, while all these people stand around you from morning till evening?"

Exo 18:15 Moses answered him, "Because the people come to me to seek God's will.

Exo 18:16 Whenever they have a dispute, it is brought to me, and I decide between the parties and inform them of God's decrees and laws."

Exo 18:17 Moses' father-in-law replied, "What you are doing is not good.

Exo 18:18 You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone.

Exo 18:19 Listen now to me and I will give you some advice, and may God be with you. You must be the people's representative before God and bring their disputes to him.

Exo 18:20 Teach them the decrees and laws, and show them the way to live and the duties they are to perform.

Exo 18:21 But select capable men from all the people-- men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain-- and appoint them as officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exo 18:22 Have them serve as judges for the people at all times, but have them bring every difficult case to you; the simple cases they can decide themselves. That will make your load lighter, because they will share it with you.

Exo 18:23 If you do this and God so commands, you will be able to stand the strain, and all these people will go home satisfied."

Exo 18:24 Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said.

Exo 18:25 He chose capable men from all Israel and made them leaders of the people, officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exo 18:26 They served as judges for the people at all times. The difficult cases they brought to Moses, but the simple ones they decided themselves.

Exo 18:27 Then Moses sent his father-in-law on his way, and Jethro returned to his own country.

Exo 19:1 In the third month after the Israelites left Egypt-- on the very day-- they came to the Desert of Sinai.

Exo 19:2 After they set out from Rephidim, they entered the Desert of Sinai, and Israel camped there in the desert in front of the mountain.

Exo 19:3 Then Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain and said, "This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and what you are to tell the people of Israel:

Exo 19:4 'You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.

Exo 19:5 Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine,

Exo 19:6 you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites."

Exo 19:7 So Moses went back and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all the words the LORD had commanded him to speak.

Exo 19:8 The people all responded together, "We will do everything the LORD has said." So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.

Exo 19:9 The LORD said to Moses, "I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear me speaking with you and will always put their trust in you." Then Moses told the LORD what the people had said.

Exo 19:10 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Have them wash their clothes

Exo 19:11 and be ready by the third day, because on that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Exo 19:12 Put limits for the people around the mountain and tell them, 'Be careful that you do not go up the mountain or touch the foot of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

Exo 19:13 He shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows; not a hand is to be laid on him. Whether man or animal, he shall not be permitted to live.' Only when the ram's horn sounds a long blast may they go up to the mountain."

Exo 19:14 After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes.

Exo 19:15 Then he said to the people, "Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations."

Exo 19:16 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, with a thick cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast. Everyone in the camp trembled.

Exo 19:17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Exo 19:18 Mount Sinai was covered with smoke, because the LORD descended on it in fire. The smoke billowed up from it like smoke from a furnace, the whole mountain trembled violently, Exo 19:19 and the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder. Then Moses spoke and the voice of God answered him.

Exo 19:20 The LORD descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up

Exo 19:21 and the LORD said to him, "Go down and warn the people so they do not force their way through to see the LORD and many of them perish.

Exo 19:22 Even the priests, who approach the LORD, must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out against them."

Exo 19:23 Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, because you yourself warned us, 'Put limits around the mountain and set it apart as holy.'"

Exo 19:24 The LORD replied, "Go down and bring Aaron up with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out against them."

Exo 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exo 20:1 And God spoke all these words:

Exo 20:2 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Exo 20:3 "You shall have no other gods before me.

Exo 20:4 "You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.

Exo 20:5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, Exo 20:6 but showing love to a thousand [generations] of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Exo 20:7 "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Exo 20:8 "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy.

Exo 20:9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

Exo 20:10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien within your gates.

Exo 20:11 For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

Exo 20:12 "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Exo 20:13 "You shall not murder.

Exo 20:14 "You shall not commit adultery.

Exo 20:15 "You shall not steal.

Exo 20:16 "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.

Exo 20:17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

Exo 20:18 When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance

Exo 20:19 and said to Moses, "Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die."

Exo 20:20 Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning."

Exo 20:21 The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

Exo 20:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites this: 'You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven:

Exo 20:23 Do not make any gods to be alongside me; do not make for yourselves gods of silver or gods of gold.

Exo 20:24 "Make an altar of earth for me and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, your sheep and goats and your cattle. Wherever I cause my name to be honored, I will come to you and bless you.

Exo 20:25 If you make an altar of stones for me, do not build it with dressed stones, for you will defile it if you use a tool on it.

Exo 20:26 And do not go up to my altar on steps, lest your nakedness be exposed on it.'

Exo 21:1 "These are the laws you are to set before them:

Exo 21:2 "If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free, without paying anything.

Exo 21:3 If he comes alone, he is to go free alone; but if he has a wife when he comes, she is to go with him.

Exo 21:4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free.

Exo 21:5 "But if the servant declares, 'I love my master and my wife and children and do not want to go free,'

Exo 21:6 then his master must take him before the judges. He shall take him to the door or the doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he will be his servant for life.

Exo 21:7 "If a man sells his daughter as a servant, she is not to go free as menservants do.

Exo 21:8 If she does not please the master who has selected her for himself, he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, because he has broken faith with her.

Exo 21:9 If he selects her for his son, he must grant her the rights of a daughter.

Exo 21:10 If he marries another woman, he must not deprive the first one of her food, clothing and marital rights.

Exo 21:11 If he does not provide her with these three things, she is to go free, without any payment of money.

Exo 21:12 "Anyone who strikes a man and kills him shall surely be put to death.

Exo 21:13 However, if he does not do it intentionally, but God lets it happen, he is to flee to a place I will designate.

Exo 21:14 But if a man schemes and kills another man deliberately, take him away from my altar and put him to death.

Exo 21:15 "Anyone who attacks his father or his mother must be put to death.

Exo 21:16 "Anyone who kidnaps another and either sells him or still has him when he is caught must be put to death.

Exo 21:17 "Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.

Exo 21:18 "If men quarrel and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist and he does not die but is confined to bed,

Exo 21:19 the one who struck the blow will not be held responsible if the other gets up and walks around outside with his staff; however, he must pay the injured man for the loss of his time and see that he is completely healed.

Exo 21:20 "If a man beats his male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies as a direct result, he must be punished,

Exo 21:21 but he is not to be punished if the slave gets up after a day or two, since the slave is his property.

Exo 21:22 "If men who are fighting hit a pregnant woman and she gives birth prematurely but there is no serious injury, the offender must be fined whatever the woman's husband demands and the court allows.

Exo 21:23 But if there is serious injury, you are to take life for life,

Exo 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Exo 21:25 burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

Exo 21:26 "If a man hits a manservant or maidservant in the eye and destroys it, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the eye.

Exo 21:27 And if he knocks out the tooth of a manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the tooth.

Exo 21:28 "If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull must be stoned to death, and its meat must not be eaten. But the owner of the bull will not be held responsible.

Exo 21:29 If, however, the bull has had the habit of goring and the owner has been warned but has not kept it penned up and it kills a man or woman, the bull must be stoned and the owner also must be put to death.

Exo 21:30 However, if payment is demanded of him, he may redeem his life by paying whatever is demanded.

Exo 21:31 This law also applies if the bull gores a son or daughter.

Exo 21:32 If the bull gores a male or female slave, the owner must pay thirty shekels of silver to the master of the slave, and the bull must be stoned.

Exo 21:33 "If a man uncovers a pit or digs one and fails to cover it and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

Exo 21:34 the owner of the pit must pay for the loss; he must pay its owner, and the dead animal will be his.

Exo 21:35 "If a man's bull injures the bull of another and it dies, they are to sell the live one and divide both the money and the dead animal equally.

Exo 21:36 However, if it was known that the bull had the habit of goring, yet the owner did not keep it penned up, the owner must pay, animal for animal, and the dead animal will be his.

Exo 22:1 "If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he must pay back five head of cattle for the ox and four sheep for the sheep.

Exo 22:2 "If a thief is caught breaking in and is struck so that he dies, the defender is not guilty of bloodshed;

Exo 22:3 but if it happens after sunrise, he is guilty of bloodshed. "A thief must certainly make restitution, but if he has nothing, he must be sold to pay for his theft.

Exo 22:4 "If the stolen animal is found alive in his possession-- whether ox or donkey or sheep-- he must pay back double.

Exo 22:5 "If a man grazes his livestock in a field or vineyard and lets them stray and they graze in another man's field, he must make restitution from the best of his own field or vineyard.

Exo 22:6 "If a fire breaks out and spreads into thornbushes so that it burns shocks of grain or standing grain or the whole field, the one who started the fire must make restitution.

Exo 22:7 "If a man gives his neighbor silver or goods for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, the thief, if he is caught, must pay back double.

Exo 22:8 But if the thief is not found, the owner of the house must appear before the judges to determine whether he has laid his hands on the other man's property.

Exo 22:9 In all cases of illegal possession of an ox, a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or any other lost property about which somebody says, 'This is mine,' both parties are to bring their cases before the judges. The one whom the judges declare guilty must pay back double to his neighbor.

Exo 22:10 "If a man gives a donkey, an ox, a sheep or any other animal to his neighbor for safekeeping and it dies or is injured or is taken away while no one is looking,

Exo 22:11 the issue between them will be settled by the taking of an oath before the LORD that the neighbor did not lay hands on the other person's property. The owner is to accept this, and no restitution is required.

Exo 22:12 But if the animal was stolen from the neighbor, he must make restitution to the owner.

Exo 22:13 If it was torn to pieces by a wild animal, he shall bring in the remains as evidence and he will not be required to pay for the torn animal.

Exo 22:14 "If a man borrows an animal from his neighbor and it is injured or dies while the owner is not present, he must make restitution.

Exo 22:15 But if the owner is with the animal, the borrower will not have to pay. If the animal was hired, the money paid for the hire covers the loss.

Exo 22:16 "If a man seduces a virgin who is not pledged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the bride-price, and she shall be his wife.

Exo 22:17 If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must still pay the bride-price for virgins.

Exo 22:18 "Do not allow a sorceress to live.

Exo 22:19 "Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal must be put to death.

Exo 22:20 "Whoever sacrifices to any god other than the LORD must be destroyed.

Exo 22:21 "Do not mistreat an alien or oppress him, for you were aliens in Egypt.

Exo 22:22 "Do not take advantage of a widow or an orphan.

Exo 22:23 If you do and they cry out to me, I will certainly hear their cry.

Exo 22:24 My anger will be aroused, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives will become widows and your children fatherless.

Exo 22:25 "If you lend money to one of my people among you who is needy, do not be like a moneylender; charge him no interest.

Exo 22:26 If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, return it to him by sunset,

Exo 22:27 because his cloak is the only covering he has for his body. What else will he sleep in? When he cries out to me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

Exo 22:28 "Do not blaspheme God or curse the ruler of your people.

Exo 22:29 "Do not hold back offerings from your granaries or your vats. "You must give me the firstborn of your sons.

Exo 22:30 Do the same with your cattle and your sheep. Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but give them to me on the eighth day.

Exo 22:31 "You are to be my holy people. So do not eat the meat of an animal torn by wild beasts; throw it to the dogs.

Exo 23:1 "Do not spread false reports. Do not help a wicked man by being a malicious witness.

Exo 23:2 "Do not follow the crowd in doing wrong. When you give testimony in a lawsuit, do not pervert justice by siding with the crowd, Exo 23:3 and do not show favoritism to a poor man in his lawsuit.

Exo 23:4 "If you come across your enemy's ox or donkey wandering off, be sure to take it back to him.

Exo 23:5 If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen down under its load, do not leave it there; be sure you help him with it.

Exo 23:6 "Do not deny justice to your poor people in their lawsuits.

Exo 23:7 Have nothing to do with a false charge and do not put an innocent or honest person to death, for I will not acquit the guilty.

Exo 23:8 "Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and twists the words of the righteous.

Exo 23:9 "Do not oppress an alien; you yourselves know how it feels to be aliens, because you were aliens in Egypt.

Exo 23:10 "For six years you are to sow your fields and harvest the crops,

Exo 23:11 but during the seventh year let the land lie unplowed and unused. Then the poor among your people may get food from it, and the wild animals may eat what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

Exo 23:12 "Six days do your work, but on the seventh day do not work, so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the slave born in your household, and the alien as well, may be refreshed.

Exo 23:13 "Be careful to do everything I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other gods; do not let them be heard on your lips.

Exo 23:14 "Three times a year you are to celebrate a festival to me.

Exo 23:15 "Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread; for seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt. "No one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Exo 23:16 "Celebrate the Feast of Harvest with the firstfruits of the crops you sow in your field. "Celebrate the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in your crops from the field.

Exo 23:17 "Three times a year all the men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD.

Exo 23:18 "Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast. "The fat of my festival offerings must not be kept until morning.

Exo 23:19 "Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the LORD your God. "Do not cook a young goat in its mother's milk.

Exo 23:20 "See, I am sending an angel ahead of you to guard you along the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared.

Exo 23:21 Pay attention to him and listen to what he says. Do not rebel against him; he will not forgive your rebellion, since my Name is in him.

Exo 23:22 If you listen carefully to what he says and do all that I say, I will be an enemy to your enemies and will oppose those who oppose you.

Exo 23:23 My angel will go ahead of you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites and Jebusites, and I will wipe them out.

Exo 23:24 Do not bow down before their gods or worship them or follow their practices. You must demolish them and break their sacred stones to pieces.

Exo 23:25 Worship the LORD your God, and his blessing will be on your food and water. I will take away sickness from among you, Exo 23:26 and none will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will give you a full life span.

Exo 23:27 "I will send my terror ahead of you and throw into confusion every nation you encounter. I will make all your enemies turn their backs and run.

Exo 23:28 I will send the hornet ahead of you to drive the Hivites, Canaanites and Hittites out of your way.

Exo 23:29 But I will not drive them out in a single year, because the land would become desolate and the wild animals too numerous for you.

Exo 23:30 Little by little I will drive them out before you, until you have increased enough to take possession of the land.

Exo 23:31 "I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the River. I will hand over to you the people who live in the land and you will drive them out before you.

Exo 23:32 Do not make a covenant with them or with their gods.

Exo 23:33 Do not let them live in your land, or they will cause you to sin against me, because the worship of their gods will certainly be a snare to you."

Exo 24:1 Then he said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. You are to worship at a distance, Exo 24:2 but Moses alone is to approach the LORD; the others must not come near. And the people may not come up with him."

Exo 24:3 When Moses went and told the people all the LORD's words and laws, they responded with one voice, "Everything the LORD has said we will do."

Exo 24:4 Moses then wrote down everything the LORD had said. He got up early the next morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve stone pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exo 24:5 Then he sent young Israelite men, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings to the LORD.

Exo 24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he sprinkled on the altar.

Exo 24:7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They responded, "We will do everything the LORD has said; we will obey."

Exo 24:8 Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

Exo 24:9 Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel went up

Exo 24:10 and saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a pavement made of sapphire, clear as the sky itself.

Exo 24:11 But God did not raise his hand against these leaders of the Israelites; they saw God, and they ate and drank.

Exo 24:12 The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and commands I have written for their instruction."

Exo 24:13 Then Moses set out with Joshua his aide, and Moses went up on the mountain of God.

Exo 24:14 He said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you, and anyone involved in a dispute can go to them."

Exo 24:15 When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it,

Exo 24:16 and the glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from within the cloud.

Exo 24:17 To the Israelites the glory of the LORD looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain.

Exo 24:18 Then Moses entered the cloud as he went up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exo 25:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 25:2 "Tell the Israelites to bring me an offering. You are to receive the offering for me from each man whose heart prompts him to give.

Exo 25:3 These are the offerings you are to receive from them: gold, silver and bronze;

Exo 25:4 blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen; goat hair;
Exo 25:5 ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows; acacia wood;
Exo 25:6 olive oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;
Exo 25:7 and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.
Exo 25:8 "Then have them make a sanctuary for me, and I will dwell among them.
Exo 25:9 Make this tabernacle and all its furnishings exactly like the pattern I will show you.
Exo 25:10 "Have them make a chest of acacia wood-- two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.
Exo 25:11 Overlay it with pure gold, both inside and out, and make a gold molding around it.
Exo 25:12 Cast four gold rings for it and fasten them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other.
Exo 25:13 Then make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.
Exo 25:14 Insert the poles into the rings on the sides of the chest to carry it.
Exo 25:15 The poles are to remain in the rings of this ark; they are not to be removed.
Exo 25:16 Then put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.
Exo 25:17 "Make an atonement cover of pure gold-- two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.
Exo 25:18 And make two cherubim out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover.
Exo 25:19 Make one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; make the cherubim of one piece with the cover, at the two ends.
Exo 25:20 The cherubim are to have their wings spread upward, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim are to face each other, looking toward the cover.
Exo 25:21 Place the cover on top of the ark and put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.
Exo 25:22 There, above the cover between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the Testimony, I will meet with you and give you all my commands for the Israelites.
Exo 25:23 "Make a table of acacia wood-- two cubits long, a cubit wide and a cubit and a half high.
Exo 25:24 Overlay it with pure gold and make a gold molding around it.
Exo 25:25 Also make around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a gold molding on the rim.
Exo 25:26 Make four gold rings for the table and fasten them to the four corners, where the four legs are.
Exo 25:27 The rings are to be close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table.
Exo 25:28 Make the poles of acacia wood, overlay them with gold and carry the table with them.
Exo 25:29 And make its plates and dishes of pure gold, as well as its pitchers and bowls for the pouring out of offerings.
Exo 25:30 Put the bread of the Presence on this table to be before me at all times.
Exo 25:31 "Make a lampstand of pure gold and hammer it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms shall be of one piece with it.
Exo 25:32 Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand-- three on one side and three on the other.
Exo 25:33 Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms are to be on one branch, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand.
Exo 25:34 And on the lampstand there are to be four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms.
Exo 25:35 One bud shall be under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair-- six branches in all.
Exo 25:36 The buds and branches shall all be of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.
Exo 25:37 "Then make its seven lamps and set them up on it so that they light the space in front of it.
Exo 25:38 Its wick trimmers and trays are to be of pure gold.
Exo 25:39 A talent of pure gold is to be used for the lampstand and all these accessories.
Exo 25:40 See that you make them according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.
Exo 26:1 "Make the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.
Exo 26:2 All the curtains are to be the same size-- twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.
Exo 26:3 Join five of the curtains together, and do the same with the other five.
Exo 26:4 Make loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and do the same with the end curtain in the other set.
Exo 26:5 Make fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other.
Exo 26:6 Then make fifty gold clasps and use them to fasten the curtains together so that the tabernacle is a unit.
Exo 26:7 "Make curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle-- eleven altogether.
Exo 26:8 All eleven curtains are to be the same size-- thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.

Exo 26:9 Join five of the curtains together into one set and the other six into another set. Fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent.

Exo 26:10 Make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.

Exo 26:11 Then make fifty bronze clasps and put them in the loops to fasten the tent together as a unit.

Exo 26:12 As for the additional length of the tent curtains, the half curtain that is left over is to hang down at the rear of the tabernacle.

Exo 26:13 The tent curtains will be a cubit longer on both sides; what is left will hang over the sides of the tabernacle so as to cover it.

Exo 26:14 Make for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.

Exo 26:15 "Make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.

Exo 26:16 Each frame is to be ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,

Exo 26:17 with two projections set parallel to each other. Make all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

Exo 26:18 Make twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle

Exo 26:19 and make forty silver bases to go under them-- two bases for each frame, one under each projection.

Exo 26:20 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, make twenty frames

Exo 26:21 and forty silver bases-- two under each frame.

Exo 26:22 Make six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle,

Exo 26:23 and make two frames for the corners at the far end.

Exo 26:24 At these two corners they must be double from the bottom all the way to the top, and fitted into a single ring; both shall be like that.

Exo 26:25 So there will be eight frames and sixteen silver bases-- two under each frame.

Exo 26:26 "Also make crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle,

Exo 26:27 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.

Exo 26:28 The center crossbar is to extend from end to end at the middle of the frames.

Exo 26:29 Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings to hold the crossbars. Also overlay the crossbars with gold.

Exo 26:30 "Set up the tabernacle according to the plan shown you on the mountain.

Exo 26:31 "Make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman.

Exo 26:32 Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold and standing on four silver bases.

Exo 26:33 Hang the curtain from the clasps and place the ark of the Testimony behind the curtain. The curtain will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place.

Exo 26:34 Put the atonement cover on the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place.

Exo 26:35 Place the table outside the curtain on the north side of the tabernacle and put the lampstand opposite it on the south side.

Exo 26:36 "For the entrance to the tent make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen-- the work of an embroiderer.

Exo 26:37 Make gold hooks for this curtain and five posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold. And cast five bronze bases for them.

Exo 27:1 "Build an altar of acacia wood, three cubits high; it is to be square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.

Exo 27:2 Make a horn at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar are of one piece, and overlay the altar with bronze.

Exo 27:3 Make all its utensils of bronze-- its pots to remove the ashes, and its shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks and firepans.

Exo 27:4 Make a grating for it, a bronze network, and make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the network.

Exo 27:5 Put it under the ledge of the altar so that it is halfway up the altar.

Exo 27:6 Make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze.

Exo 27:7 The poles are to be inserted into the rings so they will be on two sides of the altar when it is carried.

Exo 27:8 Make the altar hollow, out of boards. It is to be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

Exo 27:9 "Make a courtyard for the tabernacle. The south side shall be a hundred cubits long and is to have curtains of finely twisted linen,

Exo 27:10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exo 27:11 The north side shall also be a hundred cubits long and is to have curtains, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exo 27:12 "The west end of the courtyard shall be fifty cubits wide and have curtains, with ten posts and ten bases.

Exo 27:13 On the east end, toward the sunrise, the courtyard shall also be fifty cubits wide.

Exo 27:14 Curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases,

Exo 27:15 and curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on the other side, with three posts and three bases.

Exo 27:16 "For the entrance to the courtyard, provide a curtain twenty cubits long, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen-- the work of an embroiderer-- with four posts and four bases.

Exo 27:17 All the posts around the courtyard are to have silver bands and hooks, and bronze bases.

Exo 27:18 The courtyard shall be a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide, with curtains of finely twisted linen five cubits high, and with bronze bases.

Exo 27:19 All the other articles used in the service of the tabernacle, whatever their function, including all the tent pegs for it and those for the courtyard, are to be of bronze.

Exo 27:20 "Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning.

Exo 27:21 In the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain that is in front of the Testimony, Aaron and his sons are to keep the lamps burning before the LORD from evening till morning. This is to be a lasting ordinance among the Israelites for the generations to come.

Exo 28:1 "Have Aaron your brother brought to you from among the Israelites, along with his sons Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, so they may serve me as priests.

Exo 28:2 Make sacred garments for your brother Aaron, to give him dignity and honor.

Exo 28:3 Tell all the skilled men to whom I have given wisdom in such matters that they are to make garments for Aaron, for his consecration, so he may serve me as priest.

Exo 28:4 These are the garments they are to make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a woven tunic, a turban and a sash. They are to make these sacred garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so they may serve me as priests.

Exo 28:5 Have them use gold, and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen.

Exo 28:6 "Make the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen-- the work of a skilled craftsman.

Exo 28:7 It is to have two shoulder pieces attached to two of its corners, so it can be fastened.

Exo 28:8 Its skillfully woven waistband is to be like it-- of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen.

Exo 28:9 "Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel

Exo 28:10 in the order of their birth-- six names on one stone and the remaining six on the other.

Exo 28:11 Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the way a gem cutter engravés a seal. Then mount the stones in gold filigree settings

Exo 28:12 and fasten them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel.

Aaron is to bear the names on his shoulders as a memorial before the LORD.

Exo 28:13 Make gold filigree settings

Exo 28:14 and two braided chains of pure gold, like a rope, and attach the chains to the settings.

Exo 28:15 "Fashion a breastpiece for making decisions-- the work of a skilled craftsman. Make it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Exo 28:16 It is to be square-- a span long and a span wide-- and folded double.

Exo 28:17 Then mount four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there shall be a ruby, a topaz and a beryl;

Exo 28:18 in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald;

Exo 28:19 in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst;

Exo 28:20 in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. Mount them in gold filigree settings.

Exo 28:21 There are to be twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Exo 28:22 "For the breastpiece make braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

Exo 28:23 Make two gold rings for it and fasten them to two corners of the breastpiece.

Exo 28:24 Fasten the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece,

Exo 28:25 and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

Exo 28:26 Make two gold rings and attach them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exo 28:27 Make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

Exo 28:28 The rings of the breastpiece are to be tied to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband, so that the breastpiece will not swing out from the ephod.

Exo 28:29 "Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place, he will bear the names of the sons of Israel over his heart on the breastpiece of decision as a continuing memorial before the LORD.

Exo 28:30 Also put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastpiece, so they may be over Aaron's heart whenever he enters the presence of the LORD. Thus Aaron will always bear the means of making decisions for the Israelites over his heart before the LORD.

Exo 28:31 "Make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth,

Exo 28:32 with an opening for the head in its center. There shall be a woven edge like a collar around this opening, so that it will not tear.

Exo 28:33 Make pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet yarn around the hem of the robe, with gold bells between them.

Exo 28:34 The gold bells and the pomegranates are to alternate around the hem of the robe.

Exo 28:35 Aaron must wear it when he ministers. The sound of the bells will be heard when he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and when he comes out, so that he will not die.

Exo 28:36 "Make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.

Exo 28:37 Fasten a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban; it is to be on the front of the turban.

Exo 28:38 It will be on Aaron's forehead, and he will bear the guilt involved in the sacred gifts the Israelites consecrate, whatever their gifts may be. It will be on Aaron's forehead continually so that they will be acceptable to the LORD.

Exo 28:39 "Weave the tunic of fine linen and make the turban of fine linen. The sash is to be the work of an embroiderer.

Exo 28:40 Make tunics, sashes and headbands for Aaron's sons, to give them dignity and honor.

Exo 28:41 After you put these clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint and ordain them. Consecrate them so they may serve me as priests.

Exo 28:42 "Make linen undergarments as a covering for the body, reaching from the waist to the thigh.

Exo 28:43 Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they will not incur guilt and die. "This is to be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants.

Exo 29:1 "This is what you are to do to consecrate them, so they may serve me as priests: Take a young bull and two rams without defect.

Exo 29:2 And from fine wheat flour, without yeast, make bread, and cakes mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.

Exo 29:3 Put them in a basket and present them in it-- along with the bull and the two rams.

Exo 29:4 Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water.

Exo 29:5 Take the garments and dress Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself and the breastpiece. Fasten the ephod on him by its skillfully woven waistband.

Exo 29:6 Put the turban on his head and attach the sacred diadem to the turban.

Exo 29:7 Take the anointing oil and anoint him by pouring it on his head.

Exo 29:8 Bring his sons and dress them in tunics

Exo 29:9 and put headbands on them. Then tie sashes on Aaron and his sons. The priesthood is theirs by a lasting ordinance. In this way you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.

Exo 29:10 "Bring the bull to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Exo 29:11 Slaughter it in the LORD's presence at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exo 29:12 Take some of the bull's blood and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

Exo 29:13 Then take all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, and both kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar.

Exo 29:14 But burn the bull's flesh and its hide and its offal outside the camp. It is a sin offering.

Exo 29:15 "Take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Exo 29:16 Slaughter it and take the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides.

Exo 29:17 Cut the ram into pieces and wash the inner parts and the legs, putting them with the head and the other pieces.

Exo 29:18 Then burn the entire ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Exo 29:19 "Take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Exo 29:20 Slaughter it, take some of its blood and put it on the lobes of the right ears of Aaron and his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Then sprinkle blood against the altar on all sides.

Exo 29:21 And take some of the blood on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. Then he and his sons and their garments will be consecrated.

Exo 29:22 "Take from this ram the fat, the fat tail, the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh. (This is the ram for the ordination.)

Exo 29:23 From the basket of bread made without yeast, which is before the LORD, take a loaf, and a cake made with oil, and a wafer.

Exo 29:24 Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Exo 29:25 Then take them from their hands and burn them on the altar along with the burnt offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Exo 29:26 After you take the breast of the ram for Aaron's ordination, wave it before the LORD as a wave offering, and it will be your share.

Exo 29:27 "Consecrate those parts of the ordination ram that belong to Aaron and his sons: the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented.

Exo 29:28 This is always to be the regular share from the Israelites for Aaron and his sons. It is the contribution the Israelites are to make to the LORD from their fellowship offerings.

Exo 29:29 "Aaron's sacred garments will belong to his descendants so that they can be anointed and ordained in them.

Exo 29:30 The son who succeeds him as priest and comes to the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place is to wear them seven days.

Exo 29:31 "Take the ram for the ordination and cook the meat in a sacred place.

Exo 29:32 At the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket.

Exo 29:33 They are to eat these offerings by which atonement was made for their ordination and consecration. But no one else may eat them, because they are sacred.

Exo 29:34 And if any of the meat of the ordination ram or any bread is left over till morning, burn it up. It must not be eaten, because it is sacred.

Exo 29:35 "Do for Aaron and his sons everything I have commanded you, taking seven days to ordain them.

Exo 29:36 Sacrifice a bull each day as a sin offering to make atonement. Purify the altar by making atonement for it, and anoint it to consecrate it.

Exo 29:37 For seven days make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. Then the altar will be most holy, and whatever touches it will be holy.

Exo 29:38 "This is what you are to offer on the altar regularly each day: two lambs a year old.

Exo 29:39 Offer one in the morning and the other at twilight.

Exo 29:40 With the first lamb offer a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil from pressed olives, and a quarter of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

Exo 29:41 Sacrifice the other lamb at twilight with the same grain offering and its drink offering as in the morning-- a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Exo 29:42 "For the generations to come this burnt offering is to be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD. There I will meet you and speak to you;

Exo 29:43 there also I will meet with the Israelites, and the place will be consecrated by my glory.

Exo 29:44 "So I will consecrate the Tent of Meeting and the altar and will consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests.

Exo 29:45 Then I will dwell among the Israelites and be their God.

Exo 29:46 They will know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out of Egypt so that I might dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

Exo 30:1 "Make an altar of acacia wood for burning incense.

Exo 30:2 It is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high--its horns of one piece with it.

Exo 30:3 Overlay the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it.

Exo 30:4 Make two gold rings for the altar below the molding-- two on opposite sides-- to hold the poles used to carry it.

Exo 30:5 Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

Exo 30:6 Put the altar in front of the curtain that is before the ark of the Testimony-- before the atonement cover that is over the Testimony-- where I will meet with you.

Exo 30:7 "Aaron must burn fragrant incense on the altar every morning when he tends the lamps.

Exo 30:8 He must burn incense again when he lights the lamps at twilight so incense will burn regularly before the LORD for the generations to come.

Exo 30:9 Do not offer on this altar any other incense or any burnt offering or grain offering, and do not pour a drink offering on it.

Exo 30:10 Once a year Aaron shall make atonement on its horns. This annual atonement must be made with the blood of the atoning sin offering for the generations to come. It is most holy to the LORD."

Exo 30:11 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:12 "When you take a census of the Israelites to count them, each one must pay the LORD a ransom for his life at the time he is counted. Then no plague will come on them when you number them.

Exo 30:13 Each one who crosses over to those already counted is to give a half shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs. This half shekel is an offering to the LORD.

Exo 30:14 All who cross over, those twenty years old or more, are to give an offering to the LORD.

Exo 30:15 The rich are not to give more than a half shekel and the poor are not to give less when you make the offering to the LORD to atone for your lives.

Exo 30:16 Receive the atonement money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting. It will be a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD, making atonement for your lives."

Exo 30:17 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:18 "Make a bronze basin, with its bronze stand, for washing. Place it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exo 30:19 Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet with water from it.

Exo 30:20 Whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water so that they will not die. Also, when they approach the altar to minister by presenting an offering made to the LORD by fire, Exo 30:21 they shall wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. This is to be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants for the generations to come."

Exo 30:22 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:23 "Take the following fine spices: 500 shekels of liquid myrrh, half as much (that is, 250 shekels) of fragrant cinnamon, 250 shekels of fragrant cane,

Exo 30:24 500 shekels of cassia-- all according to the sanctuary shekel-- and a hin of olive oil.

Exo 30:25 Make these into a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer. It will be the sacred anointing oil.

Exo 30:26 Then use it to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony,

Exo 30:27 the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense,

Exo 30:28 the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin with its stand.

Exo 30:29 You shall consecrate them so they will be most holy, and whatever touches them will be holy.

Exo 30:30 "Anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them so they may serve me as priests.

Exo 30:31 Say to the Israelites, 'This is to be my sacred anointing oil for the generations to come.

Exo 30:32 Do not pour it on men's bodies and do not make any oil with the same formula. It is sacred, and you are to consider it sacred.

Exo 30:33 Whoever makes perfume like it and whoever puts it on anyone other than a priest must be cut off from his people."

Exo 30:34 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Take fragrant spices-- gum resin, onycha and galbanum-- and pure frankincense, all in equal amounts,

Exo 30:35 and make a fragrant blend of incense, the work of a perfumer. It is to be salted and pure and sacred.

Exo 30:36 Grind some of it to powder and place it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.

Exo 30:37 Do not make any incense with this formula for yourselves; consider it holy to the LORD.

Exo 30:38 Whoever makes any like it to enjoy its fragrance must be cut off from his people."

Exo 31:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 31:2 "See, I have chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Exo 31:3 and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge in all kinds of crafts--

Exo 31:4 to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze,

Exo 31:5 to cut and set stones, to work in wood, and to engage in all kinds of craftsmanship.

Exo 31:6 Moreover, I have appointed Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, to help him. Also I have given skill to all the craftsmen to make everything I have commanded you:

Exo 31:7 the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony with the atonement cover on it, and all the other furnishings of the tent--

Exo 31:8 the table and its articles, the pure gold lampstand and all its accessories, the altar of incense,

Exo 31:9 the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, the basin with its stand--

Exo 31:10 and also the woven garments, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests,

Exo 31:11 and the anointing oil and fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them just as I commanded you."

Exo 31:12 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 31:13 "Say to the Israelites, 'You must observe my Sabbaths. This will be a sign between me and you for the generations to come, so you may know that I am the LORD, who makes you holy.'

Exo 31:14 "Observe the Sabbath, because it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death; whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from his people.

Exo 31:15 For six days, work is to be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must be put to death.

Exo 31:16 The Israelites are to observe the Sabbath, celebrating it for the generations to come as a lasting covenant.

Exo 31:17 It will be a sign between me and the Israelites forever, for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he abstained from work and rested."

Exo 31:18 When the LORD finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the Testimony, the tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

Exo 32:1 When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him."

Exo 32:2 Aaron answered them, "Take off the gold earrings that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me."

Exo 32:3 So all the people took off their earrings and brought them to Aaron.

Exo 32:4 He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt."

Exo 32:5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf and announced, "Tomorrow there will be a festival to the LORD."

Exo 32:6 So the next day the people rose early and sacrificed burnt offerings and presented fellowship offerings. Afterward they sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry.

Exo 32:7 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down, because your people, whom you brought up out of Egypt, have become corrupt.

Exo 32:8 They have been quick to turn away from what I commanded them and have made themselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. They have bowed down to it and sacrificed to it and have said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.'

Exo 32:9 "I have seen these people," the LORD said to Moses, "and they are a stiff-necked people.

Exo 32:10 Now leave me alone so that my anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation."

Exo 32:11 But Moses sought the favor of the LORD his God. "O LORD," he said, "why should your anger burn against your people, whom you brought out of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand?"

Exo 32:12 Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out, to kill them in the mountains and to wipe them off the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce anger; relent and do not bring disaster on your people.

Exo 32:13 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, to whom you swore by your own self: 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and I will give your descendants all this land I promised them, and it will be their inheritance forever.'

Exo 32:14 Then the LORD relented and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened.

Exo 32:15 Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides, front and back.

Exo 32:16 The tablets were the work of God; the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

Exo 32:17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people shouting, he said to Moses, "There is the sound of war in the camp."

Exo 32:18 Moses replied: "It is not the sound of victory, it is not the sound of defeat; it is the sound of singing that I hear."

Exo 32:19 When Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, his anger burned and he threw the tablets out of his hands, breaking them to pieces at the foot of the mountain.

Exo 32:20 And he took the calf they had made and burned it in the fire; then he ground it to powder, scattered it on the water and made the Israelites drink it.

Exo 32:21 He said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you led them into such great sin?"

Exo 32:22 "Do not be angry, my lord," Aaron answered. "You know how prone these people are to evil.

Exo 32:23 They said to me, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him.'

Exo 32:24 So I told them, 'Whoever has any gold jewelry, take it off.' Then they gave me the gold, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!"

Exo 32:25 Moses saw that the people were running wild and that Aaron had let them get out of control and so become a laughingstock to their enemies.

Exo 32:26 So he stood at the entrance to the camp and said, "Whoever is for the LORD, come to me." And all the Levites rallied to him.

Exo 32:27 Then he said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Each man strap a sword to his side. Go back and forth through the camp from one end to the other, each killing his brother and friend and neighbor.'"

Exo 32:28 The Levites did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people died.

Exo 32:29 Then Moses said, "You have been set apart to the LORD today, for you were against your own sons and brothers, and he has blessed you this day."

Exo 32:30 The next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin. But now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."

Exo 32:31 So Moses went back to the LORD and said, "Oh, what a great sin these people have committed! They have made themselves gods of gold.

Exo 32:32 But now, please forgive their sin-- but if not, then blot me out of the book you have written."

Exo 32:33 The LORD replied to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me I will blot out of my book.

Exo 32:34 Now go, lead the people to the place I spoke of, and my angel will go before you. However, when the time comes for me to punish, I will punish them for their sin."

Exo 32:35 And the LORD struck the people with a plague because of what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

Exo 33:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.'

Exo 33:2 I will send an angel before you and drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Exo 33:3 Go up to the land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked people and I might destroy you on the way."

Exo 33:4 When the people heard these distressing words, they began to mourn and no one put on any ornaments.

Exo 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I might destroy you. Now take off your ornaments and I will decide what to do with you.'"

Exo 33:6 So the Israelites stripped off their ornaments at Mount Horeb.

Exo 33:7 Now Moses used to take a tent and pitch it outside the camp some distance away, calling it the "tent of meeting." Anyone inquiring of the LORD would go to the tent of meeting outside the camp.

Exo 33:8 And whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose and stood at the entrances to their tents, watching Moses until he entered the tent.

Exo 33:9 As Moses went into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stay at the entrance, while the LORD spoke with Moses.

Exo 33:10 Whenever the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they all stood and worshiped, each at the entrance to his tent.

Exo 33:11 The LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young aide Joshua son of Nun did not leave the tent.

Exo 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, "You have been telling me, 'Lead these people,' but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, 'I know you by name and you have found favor with me.'

Exo 33:13 If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways so I may know you and continue to find favor with you. Remember that this nation is your people."

Exo 33:14 The LORD replied, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

Exo 33:15 Then Moses said to him, "If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here.

Exo 33:16 How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us? What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?"

Exo 33:17 And the LORD said to Moses, "I will do the very thing you have asked, because I am pleased with you and I know you by name."

Exo 33:18 Then Moses said, "Now show me your glory."

Exo 33:19 And the LORD said, "I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the LORD, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

Exo 33:20 But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live."

Exo 33:21 Then the LORD said, "There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock.

Exo 33:22 When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by.

Exo 33:23 Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen."

Exo 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

Exo 34:2 Be ready in the morning, and then come up on Mount Sinai. Present yourself to me there on top of the mountain.

Exo 34:3 No one is to come with you or be seen anywhere on the mountain; not even the flocks and herds may graze in front of the mountain."

Exo 34:4 So Moses chiseled out two stone tablets like the first ones and went up Mount Sinai early in the morning, as the LORD had commanded him; and he carried the two stone tablets in his hands.

Exo 34:5 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and stood there with him and proclaimed his name, the LORD.

Exo 34:6 And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, "The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, Exo 34:7 maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation."

Exo 34:8 Moses bowed to the ground at once and worshiped.

Exo 34:9 "O Lord, if I have found favor in your eyes," he said, "then let the Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, forgive our wickedness and our sin, and take us as your inheritance."

Exo 34:10 Then the LORD said: "I am making a covenant with you. Before all your people I will do wonders never before done in any nation in all the world. The people you live among will see how awesome is the work that I, the LORD, will do for you.

Exo 34:11 Obey what I command you today. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Exo 34:12 Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land where you are going, or they will be a snare among you.

Exo 34:13 Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and cut down their Asherah poles.

Exo 34:14 Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

Exo 34:15 "Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land; for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you and you will eat their sacrifices.

Exo 34:16 And when you choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons and those daughters prostitute themselves to their gods, they will lead your sons to do the same.

Exo 34:17 "Do not make cast idols.

Exo 34:18 "Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt.

Exo 34:19 "The first offspring of every womb belongs to me, including all the firstborn males of your livestock, whether from herd or flock.

Exo 34:20 Redeem the firstborn donkey with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem all your firstborn sons. "No one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Exo 34:21 "Six days you shall labor, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even during the plowing season and harvest you must rest.

Exo 34:22 "Celebrate the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year.

Exo 34:23 Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD, the God of Israel.

Exo 34:24 I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your territory, and no one will covet your land when you go up three times each year to appear before the LORD your God.

Exo 34:25 "Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast, and do not let any of the sacrifice from the Passover Feast remain until morning.

Exo 34:26 "Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the LORD your God. "Do not cook a young goat in its mother's milk."

Exo 34:27 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."

Exo 34:28 Moses was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights without eating bread or drinking water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant-- the Ten Commandments.

Exo 34:29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands, he was not aware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the LORD.

Exo 34:30 When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him.

Exo 34:31 But Moses called to them; so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and he spoke to them.

Exo 34:32 Afterward all the Israelites came near him, and he gave them all the commands the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.

Exo 34:33 When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face.

Exo 34:34 But whenever he entered the LORD's presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded,

Exo 34:35 they saw that his face was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD.

Exo 35:1 Moses assembled the whole Israelite community and said to them, "These are the things the LORD has commanded you to do:

Exo 35:2 For six days, work is to be done, but the seventh day shall be your holy day, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it must be put to death.

Exo 35:3 Do not light a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day."

Exo 35:4 Moses said to the whole Israelite community, "This is what the LORD has commanded:

Exo 35:5 From what you have, take an offering for the LORD. Everyone who is willing is to bring to the LORD an offering of gold, silver and bronze;

Exo 35:6 blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen; goat hair;

Exo 35:7 ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows; acacia wood;

Exo 35:8 olive oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Exo 35:9 and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Exo 35:10 "All who are skilled among you are to come and make everything the LORD has commanded:

Exo 35:11 the tabernacle with its tent and its covering, clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases;

Exo 35:12 the ark with its poles and the atonement cover and the curtain that shields it;

Exo 35:13 the table with its poles and all its articles and the bread of the Presence;

Exo 35:14 the lampstand that is for light with its accessories, lamps and oil for the light;

Exo 35:15 the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense; the curtain for the doorway at the entrance to the tabernacle;

Exo 35:16 the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the bronze basin with its stand;

Exo 35:17 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;

Exo 35:18 the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard, and their ropes;

Exo 35:19 the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary-- both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests."

Exo 35:20 Then the whole Israelite community withdrew from Moses' presence,

Exo 35:21 and everyone who was willing and whose heart moved him came and brought an offering to the LORD for the work on the Tent of Meeting, for all its service, and for the sacred garments.

Exo 35:22 All who were willing, men and women alike, came and brought gold jewelry of all kinds: brooches, earrings, rings and ornaments. They all presented their gold as a wave offering to the LORD.

Exo 35:23 Everyone who had blue, purple or scarlet yarn or fine linen, or goat hair, ram skins dyed red or hides of sea cows brought them.

Exo 35:24 Those presenting an offering of silver or bronze brought it as an offering to the LORD, and everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the work brought it.

Exo 35:25 Every skilled woman spun with her hands and brought what she had spun-- blue, purple or scarlet yarn or fine linen.

Exo 35:26 And all the women who were willing and had the skill spun the goat hair.

Exo 35:27 The leaders brought onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Exo 35:28 They also brought spices and olive oil for the light and for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.

Exo 35:29 All the Israelite men and women who were willing brought to the LORD freewill offerings for all the work the LORD through Moses had commanded them to do.

Exo 35:30 Then Moses said to the Israelites, "See, the LORD has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Exo 35:31 and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge in all kinds of crafts--

Exo 35:32 to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze,

Exo 35:33 to cut and set stones, to work in wood and to engage in all kinds of artistic craftsmanship.

Exo 35:34 And he has given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others.

Exo 35:35 He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work as craftsmen, designers, embroiderers in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen, and weavers-- all of them master craftsmen and designers.

Exo 36:1 So Bezalel, Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD has given skill and ability to know how to carry out all the work of constructing the sanctuary are to do the work just as the LORD has commanded."

Exo 36:2 Then Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD had given ability and who was willing to come and do the work.

Exo 36:3 They received from Moses all the offerings the Israelites had brought to carry out the work of constructing the sanctuary. And the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning.

Exo 36:4 So all the skilled craftsmen who were doing all the work on the sanctuary left their work

Exo 36:5 and said to Moses, "The people are bringing more than enough for doing the work the LORD commanded to be done."

Exo 36:6 Then Moses gave an order and they sent this word throughout the camp: "No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary." And so the people were restrained from bringing more, Exo 36:7 because what they already had was more than enough to do all the work.

Exo 36:8 All the skilled men among the workmen made the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

Exo 36:9 All the curtains were the same size-- twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

Exo 36:10 They joined five of the curtains together and did the same with the other five.

Exo 36:11 Then they made loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and the same was done with the end curtain in the other set.

Exo 36:12 They also made fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other.

Exo 36:13 Then they made fifty gold clasps and used them to fasten the two sets of curtains together so that the tabernacle was a unit.

Exo 36:14 They made curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle-- eleven altogether.

Exo 36:15 All eleven curtains were the same size-- thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.

Exo 36:16 They joined five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another set.

Exo 36:17 Then they made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.

Exo 36:18 They made fifty bronze clasps to fasten the tent together as a unit.

Exo 36:19 Then they made for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.

Exo 36:20 They made upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.

Exo 36:21 Each frame was ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,

Exo 36:22 with two projections set parallel to each other. They made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

Exo 36:23 They made twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle

Exo 36:24 and made forty silver bases to go under them-- two bases for each frame, one under each projection.

Exo 36:25 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, they made twenty frames

Exo 36:26 and forty silver bases-- two under each frame.

Exo 36:27 They made six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle,

Exo 36:28 and two frames were made for the corners of the tabernacle at the far end.

Exo 36:29 At these two corners the frames were double from the bottom all the way to the top and fitted into a single ring; both were made alike.

Exo 36:30 So there were eight frames and sixteen silver bases-- two under each frame.

Exo 36:31 They also made crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle,

Exo 36:32 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.

Exo 36:33 They made the center crossbar so that it extended from end to end at the middle of the frames.

Exo 36:34 They overlaid the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars. They also overlaid the crossbars with gold.

Exo 36:35 They made the curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman.

Exo 36:36 They made four posts of acacia wood for it and overlaid them with gold. They made gold hooks for them and cast their four silver bases.

Exo 36:37 For the entrance to the tent they made a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen-- the work of an embroiderer;

Exo 36:38 and they made five posts with hooks for them. They overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold and made their five bases of bronze.

Exo 37:1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood-- two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exo 37:2 He overlaid it with pure gold, both inside and out, and made a gold molding around it.

Exo 37:3 He cast four gold rings for it and fastened them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

Exo 37:4 Then he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exo 37:5 And he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it.

Exo 37:6 He made the atonement cover of pure gold-- two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.

Exo 37:7 Then he made two cherubim out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover.

Exo 37:8 He made one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; at the two ends he made them of one piece with the cover.

Exo 37:9 The cherubim had their wings spread upward, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim faced each other, looking toward the cover.

Exo 37:10 They made the table of acacia wood-- two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exo 37:11 Then they overlaid it with pure gold and made a gold molding around it.

Exo 37:12 They also made around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a gold molding on the rim.

Exo 37:13 They cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners, where the four legs were.

Exo 37:14 The rings were put close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table.

Exo 37:15 The poles for carrying the table were made of acacia wood and were overlaid with gold.

Exo 37:16 And they made from pure gold the articles for the table-- its plates and dishes and bowls and its pitchers for the pouring out of drink offerings.

Exo 37:17 They made the lampstand of pure gold and hammered it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms were of one piece with it.

Exo 37:18 Six branches extended from the sides of the lampstand-- three on one side and three on the other.

Exo 37:19 Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms were on one branch, three on the next branch and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand.

Exo 37:20 And on the lampstand were four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms.

Exo 37:21 One bud was under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair-- six branches in all.

Exo 37:22 The buds and the branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

Exo 37:23 They made its seven lamps, as well as its wick trimmers and trays, of pure gold.

Exo 37:24 They made the lampstand and all its accessories from one talent of pure gold.

Exo 37:25 They made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. It was square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high--its horns of one piece with it.

Exo 37:26 They overlaid the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it.

Exo 37:27 They made two gold rings below the molding-- two on opposite sides-- to hold the poles used to carry it.

Exo 37:28 They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exo 37:29 They also made the sacred anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense-- the work of a perfumer.

Exo 38:1 They built the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, three cubits high; it was square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.

Exo 38:2 They made a horn at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar were of one piece, and they overlaid the altar with bronze.

Exo 38:3 They made all its utensils of bronze-- its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks and firepans.

Exo 38:4 They made a grating for the altar, a bronze network, to be under its ledge, halfway up the altar.

Exo 38:5 They cast bronze rings to hold the poles for the four corners of the bronze grating.

Exo 38:6 They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

Exo 38:7 They inserted the poles into the rings so they would be on the sides of the altar for carrying it. They made it hollow, out of boards.

Exo 38:8 They made the bronze basin and its bronze stand from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exo 38:9 Next they made the courtyard. The south side was a hundred cubits long and had curtains of finely twisted linen,

Exo 38:10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exo 38:11 The north side was also a hundred cubits long and had twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exo 38:12 The west end was fifty cubits wide and had curtains, with ten posts and ten bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exo 38:13 The east end, toward the sunrise, was also fifty cubits wide.

Exo 38:14 Curtains fifteen cubits long were on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases,

Exo 38:15 and curtains fifteen cubits long were on the other side of the entrance to the courtyard, with three posts and three bases.

Exo 38:16 All the curtains around the courtyard were of finely twisted linen.

Exo 38:17 The bases for the posts were bronze. The hooks and bands on the posts were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver; so all the posts of the courtyard had silver bands.

Exo 38:18 The curtain for the entrance to the courtyard was of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen-- the work of an embroiderer. It was twenty cubits long and, like the curtains of the courtyard, five cubits high,

Exo 38:19 with four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks and bands were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver.

Exo 38:20 All the tent pegs of the tabernacle and of the surrounding courtyard were bronze.

Exo 38:21 These are the amounts of the materials used for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, which were recorded at Moses' command by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Exo 38:22 (Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything the LORD commanded Moses;

Exo 38:23 with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan-- a craftsman and designer, and an embroiderer in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen.)

Exo 38:24 The total amount of the gold from the wave offering used for all the work on the sanctuary was 29 talents and 730 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

Exo 38:25 The silver obtained from those of the community who were counted in the census was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel--

Exo 38:26 one beka per person, that is, half a shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, from everyone who had crossed over to those counted, twenty years old or more, a total of 603,550 men.

Exo 38:27 The 100 talents of silver were used to cast the bases for the sanctuary and for the curtain-- 100 bases from the 100 talents, one talent for each base.

Exo 38:28 They used the 1,775 shekels to make the hooks for the posts, to overlay the tops of the posts, and to make their bands.

Exo 38:29 The bronze from the wave offering was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels.

Exo 38:30 They used it to make the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grating and all its utensils,

Exo 38:31 the bases for the surrounding courtyard and those for its entrance and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and those for the surrounding courtyard.

Exo 39:1 From the blue, purple and scarlet yarn they made woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary. They also made sacred garments for Aaron, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:2 They made the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Exo 39:3 They hammered out thin sheets of gold and cut strands to be worked into the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen-- the work of a skilled craftsman.

Exo 39:4 They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached to two of its corners, so it could be fastened.

Exo 39:5 Its skillfully woven waistband was like it-- of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:6 They mounted the onyx stones in gold filigree settings and engraved them like a seal with the names of the sons of Israel.

Exo 39:7 Then they fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:8 They fashioned the breastpiece-- the work of a skilled craftsman. They made it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Exo 39:9 It was square-- a span long and a span wide-- and folded double.

Exo 39:10 Then they mounted four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there was a ruby, a topaz and a beryl;

Exo 39:11 in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald;

Exo 39:12 in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst;

Exo 39:13 in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. They were mounted in gold filigree settings.

Exo 39:14 There were twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Exo 39:15 For the breastpiece they made braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

Exo 39:16 They made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and fastened the rings to two of the corners of the breastpiece.

Exo 39:17 They fastened the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece,

Exo 39:18 and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

Exo 39:19 They made two gold rings and attached them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exo 39:20 Then they made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

Exo 39:21 They tied the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband so that the breastpiece would not swing out from the ephod-- as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:22 They made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth-- the work of a weaver--

Exo 39:23 with an opening in the center of the robe like the opening of a collar, and a band around this opening, so that it would not tear.

Exo 39:24 They made pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen around the hem of the robe.

Exo 39:25 And they made bells of pure gold and attached them around the hem between the pomegranates.

Exo 39:26 The bells and pomegranates alternated around the hem of the robe to be worn for ministering, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:27 For Aaron and his sons, they made tunics of fine linen-- the work of a weaver--

Exo 39:28 and the turban of fine linen, the linen headbands and the undergarments of finely twisted linen.

Exo 39:29 The sash was of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn-- the work of an embroiderer-- as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:30 They made the plate, the sacred diadem, out of pure gold and engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.

Exo 39:31 Then they fastened a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:32 So all the work on the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 39:33 Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses: the tent and all its furnishings, its clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases;

Exo 39:34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of hides of sea cows and the shielding curtain;

Exo 39:35 the ark of the Testimony with its poles and the atonement cover;

Exo 39:36 the table with all its articles and the bread of the Presence;

Exo 39:37 the pure gold lampstand with its row of lamps and all its accessories, and the oil for the light;

Exo 39:38 the gold altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;

Exo 39:39 the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the basin with its stand;

Exo 39:40 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard; the ropes and tent pegs for the courtyard; all the furnishings for the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting;

Exo 39:41 and the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when serving as priests.

Exo 39:42 The Israelites had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:43 Moses inspected the work and saw that they had done it just as the LORD had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

Exo 40:1 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Exo 40:2 "Set up the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the first month.

Exo 40:3 Place the ark of the Testimony in it and shield the ark with the curtain.

Exo 40:4 Bring in the table and set out what belongs on it. Then bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps.

Exo 40:5 Place the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony and put the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Exo 40:6 "Place the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting;

Exo 40:7 place the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it.

Exo 40:8 Set up the courtyard around it and put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard.

Exo 40:9 "Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it; consecrate it and all its furnishings, and it will be holy.

Exo 40:10 Then anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate the altar, and it will be most holy.

Exo 40:11 Anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate them.

Exo 40:12 "Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water.

Exo 40:13 Then dress Aaron in the sacred garments, anoint him and consecrate him so he may serve me as priest.

Exo 40:14 Bring his sons and dress them in tunics.

Exo 40:15 Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so they may serve me as priests. Their anointing will be to a priesthood that will continue for all generations to come."

Exo 40:16 Moses did everything just as the LORD commanded him.

Exo 40:17 So the tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month in the second year.

Exo 40:18 When Moses set up the tabernacle, he put the bases in place, erected the frames, inserted the crossbars and set up the posts.

Exo 40:19 Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering over the tent, as the LORD commanded him.

Exo 40:20 He took the Testimony and placed it in the ark, attached the poles to the ark and put the atonement cover over it.

Exo 40:21 Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle and hung the shielding curtain and shielded the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD commanded him.

Exo 40:22 Moses placed the table in the Tent of Meeting on the north side of the tabernacle outside the curtain

Exo 40:23 and set out the bread on it before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

Exo 40:24 He placed the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle

Exo 40:25 and set up the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

Exo 40:26 Moses placed the gold altar in the Tent of Meeting in front of the curtain

Exo 40:27 and burned fragrant incense on it, as the LORD commanded him.

Exo 40:28 Then he put up the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Exo 40:29 He set the altar of burnt offering near the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it burnt offerings and grain offerings, as the LORD commanded him.

Exo 40:30 He placed the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing, Exo 40:31 and Moses and Aaron and his sons used it to wash their hands and feet.

Exo 40:32 They washed whenever they entered the Tent of Meeting or approached the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 40:33 Then Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and altar and put up the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. And so Moses finished the work.

Exo 40:34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exo 40:35 Moses could not enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud had settled upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exo 40:36 In all the travels of the Israelites, whenever the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle, they would set out;

Exo 40:37 but if the cloud did not lift, they did not set out-- until the day it lifted.

Exo 40:38 So the cloud of the LORD was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel during all their travels.

Lev 1:1 The LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting. He said,

Lev 1:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When any of you brings an offering to the LORD, bring as your offering an animal from either the herd or the flock.'

Lev 1:3 "'If the offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he is to offer a male without defect. He must present it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting so that it will be acceptable to the LORD.'

Lev 1:4 He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.

Lev 1:5 He is to slaughter the young bull before the LORD, and then Aaron's sons the priests shall bring the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 1:6 He is to skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces.

Lev 1:7 The sons of Aaron the priest are to put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

Lev 1:8 Then Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, including the head and the fat, on the burning wood that is on the altar.

Lev 1:9 He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water, and the priest is to burn all of it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 1:10 "'If the offering is a burnt offering from the flock, from either the sheep or the goats, he is to offer a male without defect.'

Lev 1:11 He is to slaughter it at the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Lev 1:12 He is to cut it into pieces, and the priest shall arrange them, including the head and the fat, on the burning wood that is on the altar.

Lev 1:13 He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water, and the priest is to bring all of it and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 1:14 "'If the offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, he is to offer a dove or a young pigeon.'

Lev 1:15 The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off the head and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar.

Lev 1:16 He is to remove the crop with its contents and throw it to the east side of the altar, where the ashes are.

Lev 1:17 He shall tear it open by the wings, not severing it completely, and then the priest shall burn it on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 2:1 "When someone brings a grain offering to the LORD, his offering is to be of fine flour. He is to pour oil on it, put incense on it

Lev 2:2 and take it to Aaron's sons the priests. The priest shall take a handful of the fine flour and oil, together with all the incense, and burn this as a memorial portion on the altar, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 2:3 The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 2:4 "If you bring a grain offering baked in an oven, it is to consist of fine flour: cakes made without yeast and mixed with oil, or wafers made without yeast and spread with oil.

Lev 2:5 If your grain offering is prepared on a griddle, it is to be made of fine flour mixed with oil, and without yeast.

Lev 2:6 Crumble it and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

Lev 2:7 If your grain offering is cooked in a pan, it is to be made of fine flour and oil.

Lev 2:8 Bring the grain offering made of these things to the LORD; present it to the priest, who shall take it to the altar.

Lev 2:9 He shall take out the memorial portion from the grain offering and burn it on the altar as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 2:10 The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 2:11 "Every grain offering you bring to the LORD must be made without yeast, for you are not to burn any yeast or honey in an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 2:12 You may bring them to the LORD as an offering of the firstfruits, but they are not to be offered on the altar as a pleasing aroma.

Lev 2:13 Season all your grain offerings with salt. Do not leave the salt of the covenant of your God out of your grain offerings; add salt to all your offerings.

Lev 2:14 "If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits to the LORD, offer crushed heads of new grain roasted in the fire.

Lev 2:15 Put oil and incense on it; it is a grain offering.

Lev 2:16 The priest shall burn the memorial portion of the crushed grain and the oil, together with all the incense, as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 3:1 "If someone's offering is a fellowship offering, and he offers an animal from the herd, whether male or female, he is to present before the LORD an animal without defect.

Lev 3:2 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood against the altar on all sides.

Lev 3:3 From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice made to the LORD by fire: all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Lev 3:4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Lev 3:5 Then Aaron's sons are to burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering that is on the burning wood, as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 3:6 "If he offers an animal from the flock as a fellowship offering to the LORD, he is to offer a male or female without defect.

Lev 3:7 If he offers a lamb, he is to present it before the LORD.

Lev 3:8 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Lev 3:9 From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice made to the LORD by fire: its fat, the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone, all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Lev 3:10 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Lev 3:11 The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 3:12 "If his offering is a goat, he is to present it before the LORD.

Lev 3:13 He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Lev 3:14 From what he offers he is to make this offering to the LORD by fire: all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Lev 3:15 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Lev 3:16 The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is the LORD's.

Lev 3:17 "This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live: You must not eat any fat or any blood."

Lev 4:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 4:2 "Say to the Israelites: 'When anyone sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD's commands--

Lev 4:3 "If the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, he must bring to the LORD a young bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he has committed.

Lev 4:4 He is to present the bull at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD. He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the LORD.

Lev 4:5 Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood and carry it into the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:6 He is to dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before the LORD, in front of the curtain of the sanctuary.

Lev 4:7 The priest shall then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting. The rest of the bull's blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:8 He shall remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering-- the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Lev 4:9 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys--

Lev 4:10 just as the fat is removed from the ox sacrificed as a fellowship offering. Then the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.

Lev 4:11 But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, as well as the head and legs, the inner parts and offal--

Lev 4:12 that is, all the rest of the bull-- he must take outside the camp to a place ceremonially clean, where the ashes are thrown, and burn it in a wood fire on the ash heap.

Lev 4:13 "If the whole Israelite community sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD's commands, even though the community is unaware of the matter, they are guilty.

Lev 4:14 When they become aware of the sin they committed, the assembly must bring a young bull as a sin offering and present it before the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:15 The elders of the community are to lay their hands on the bull's head before the LORD, and the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD.

Lev 4:16 Then the anointed priest is to take some of the bull's blood into the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:17 He shall dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle it before the LORD seven times in front of the curtain.

Lev 4:18 He is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting. The rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:19 He shall remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar,

Lev 4:20 and do with this bull just as he did with the bull for the sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven.

Lev 4:21 Then he shall take the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull. This is the sin offering for the community.

Lev 4:22 "When a leader sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the commands of the LORD his God, he is guilty.

Lev 4:23 When he is made aware of the sin he committed, he must bring as his offering a male goat without defect.

Lev 4:24 He is to lay his hand on the goat's head and slaughter it at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD. It is a sin offering.

Lev 4:25 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:26 He shall burn all the fat on the altar as he burned the fat of the fellowship offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for the man's sin, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 4:27 "If a member of the community sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD's commands, he is guilty.

Lev 4:28 When he is made aware of the sin he committed, he must bring as his offering for the sin he committed a female goat without defect.

Lev 4:29 He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place of the burnt offering.

Lev 4:30 Then the priest is to take some of the blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:31 He shall remove all the fat, just as the fat is removed from the fellowship offering, and the priest shall burn it on the altar as an aroma pleasing to the LORD. In this way the priest will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 4:32 "If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he is to bring a female without defect.

Lev 4:33 He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it for a sin offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered.

Lev 4:34 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:35 He shall remove all the fat, just as the fat is removed from the lamb of the fellowship offering, and the priest shall burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made to the LORD by fire. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 5:1 "If a person sins because he does not speak up when he hears a public charge to testify regarding something he has seen or learned about, he will be held responsible.

Lev 5:2 "Or if a person touches anything ceremonially unclean-- whether the carcasses of unclean wild animals or of unclean livestock or of unclean creatures that move along the ground-- even though he is unaware of it, he has become unclean and is guilty.

Lev 5:3 "Or if he touches human uncleanness-- anything that would make him unclean-- even though he is unaware of it, when he learns of it he will be guilty.

Lev 5:4 "Or if a person thoughtlessly takes an oath to do anything, whether good or evil-- in any matter one might carelessly swear about-- even though he is unaware of it, in any case when he learns of it he will be guilty.

Lev 5:5 "When anyone is guilty in any of these ways, he must confess in what way he has sinned

Lev 5:6 and, as a penalty for the sin he has committed, he must bring to the LORD a female lamb or goat from the flock as a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin.

Lev 5:7 "If he cannot afford a lamb, he is to bring two doves or two young pigeons to the LORD as a penalty for his sin-- one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Lev 5:8 He is to bring them to the priest, who shall first offer the one for the sin offering. He is to wring its head from its neck, not severing it completely,

Lev 5:9 and is to sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering against the side of the altar; the rest of the blood must be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.

Lev 5:10 The priest shall then offer the other as a burnt offering in the prescribed way and make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 5:11 "If, however, he cannot afford two doves or two young pigeons, he is to bring as an offering for his sin a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He must not put oil or incense on it, because it is a sin offering.

Lev 5:12 He is to bring it to the priest, who shall take a handful of it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made to the LORD by fire. It is a sin offering.

Lev 5:13 In this way the priest will make atonement for him for any of these sins he has committed, and he will be forgiven. The rest of the offering will belong to the priest, as in the case of the grain offering."

Lev 5:14 The LORD said to Moses:

Lev 5:15 "When a person commits a violation and sins unintentionally in regard to any of the LORD's holy things, he is to bring to the LORD as a penalty a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value in silver, according to the sanctuary shekel. It is a guilt offering.

Lev 5:16 He must make restitution for what he has failed to do in regard to the holy things, add a fifth of the value to that and give it all to the priest, who will make atonement for him with the ram as a guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 5:17 "If a person sins and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD's commands, even though he does not know it, he is guilty and will be held responsible.

Lev 5:18 He is to bring to the priest as a guilt offering a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the wrong he has committed unintentionally, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 5:19 It is a guilt offering; he has been guilty of wrongdoing against the LORD."

Lev 6:1 The LORD said to Moses:

Lev 6:2 "If anyone sins and is unfaithful to the LORD by deceiving his neighbor about something entrusted to him or left in his care or stolen, or if he cheats him,

Lev 6:3 or if he finds lost property and lies about it, or if he swears falsely, or if he commits any such sin that people may do--

Lev 6:4 when he thus sins and becomes guilty, he must return what he has stolen or taken by extortion, or what was entrusted to him, or the lost property he found,

Lev 6:5 or whatever it was he swore falsely about. He must make restitution in full, add a fifth of the value to it and give it all to the owner on the day he presents his guilt offering.

Lev 6:6 And as a penalty he must bring to the priest, that is, to the LORD, his guilt offering, a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value.

Lev 6:7 In this way the priest will make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for any of these things he did that made him guilty."

Lev 6:8 The LORD said to Moses:

Lev 6:9 "Give Aaron and his sons this command: 'These are the regulations for the burnt offering: The burnt offering is to remain on the altar hearth throughout the night, till morning, and the fire must be kept burning on the altar.

Lev 6:10 The priest shall then put on his linen clothes, with linen undergarments next to his body, and shall remove the ashes of the burnt offering that the fire has consumed on the altar and place them beside the altar.

Lev 6:11 Then he is to take off these clothes and put on others, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a place that is ceremonially clean.

Lev 6:12 The fire on the altar must be kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the priest is to add firewood and arrange the burnt offering on the fire and burn the fat of the fellowship offerings on it.

Lev 6:13 The fire must be kept burning on the altar continuously; it must not go out.

Lev 6:14 "These are the regulations for the grain offering: Aaron's sons are to bring it before the LORD, in front of the altar.

Lev 6:15 The priest is to take a handful of fine flour and oil, together with all the incense on the grain offering, and burn the memorial portion on the altar as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 6:16 Aaron and his sons shall eat the rest of it, but it is to be eaten without yeast in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 6:17 It must not be baked with yeast; I have given it as their share of the offerings made to me by fire. Like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is most holy.

Lev 6:18 Any male descendant of Aaron may eat it. It is his regular share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire for the generations to come. Whatever touches them will become holy."

Lev 6:19 The LORD also said to Moses,

Lev 6:20 "This is the offering Aaron and his sons are to bring to the LORD on the day he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.

Lev 6:21 Prepare it with oil on a griddle; bring it well-mixed and present the grain offering broken in pieces as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 6:22 The son who is to succeed him as anointed priest shall prepare it. It is the LORD's regular share and is to be burned completely.

Lev 6:23 Every grain offering of a priest shall be burned completely; it must not be eaten."

Lev 6:24 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 6:25 "Say to Aaron and his sons: 'These are the regulations for the sin offering: The sin offering is to be slaughtered before the LORD in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is most holy.'

Lev 6:26 The priest who offers it shall eat it; it is to be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 6:27 Whatever touches any of the flesh will become holy, and if any of the blood is spattered on a garment, you must wash it in a holy place.

Lev 6:28 The clay pot the meat is cooked in must be broken; but if it is cooked in a bronze pot, the pot is to be scoured and rinsed with water.

Lev 6:29 Any male in a priest's family may eat it; it is most holy.

Lev 6:30 But any sin offering whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place must not be eaten; it must be burned.

Lev 7:1 "These are the regulations for the guilt offering, which is most holy:

Lev 7:2 The guilt offering is to be slaughtered in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, and its blood is to be sprinkled against the altar on all sides.

Lev 7:3 All its fat shall be offered: the fat tail and the fat that covers the inner parts,

Lev 7:4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which is to be removed with the kidneys.

Lev 7:5 The priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire. It is a guilt offering.

Lev 7:6 Any male in a priest's family may eat it, but it must be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

Lev 7:7 "The same law applies to both the sin offering and the guilt offering: They belong to the priest who makes atonement with them.

Lev 7:8 The priest who offers a burnt offering for anyone may keep its hide for himself.

Lev 7:9 Every grain offering baked in an oven or cooked in a pan or on a griddle belongs to the priest who offers it,

Lev 7:10 and every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, belongs equally to all the sons of Aaron.

Lev 7:11 "These are the regulations for the fellowship offering a person may present to the LORD:

Lev 7:12 "If he offers it as an expression of thankfulness, then along with this thank offering he is to offer cakes of bread made without yeast and mixed with oil, wafers made without yeast and spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour well-kneaded and mixed with oil.

Lev 7:13 Along with his fellowship offering of thanksgiving he is to present an offering with cakes of bread made with yeast.

Lev 7:14 He is to bring one of each kind as an offering, a contribution to the LORD; it belongs to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offerings.

Lev 7:15 The meat of his fellowship offering of thanksgiving must be eaten on the day it is offered; he must leave none of it till morning.

Lev 7:16 "If, however, his offering is the result of a vow or is a freewill offering, the sacrifice shall be eaten on the day he offers it, but anything left over may be eaten on the next day.

Lev 7:17 Any meat of the sacrifice left over till the third day must be burned up.

Lev 7:18 If any meat of the fellowship offering is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted. It will not be credited to the one who offered it, for it is impure; the person who eats any of it will be held responsible.

Lev 7:19 "Meat that touches anything ceremonially unclean must not be eaten; it must be burned up. As for other meat, anyone ceremonially clean may eat it.

Lev 7:20 But if anyone who is unclean eats any meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.

Lev 7:21 If anyone touches something unclean-- whether human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean, detestable thing-- and then eats any of the meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people."

Lev 7:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 7:23 "Say to the Israelites: 'Do not eat any of the fat of cattle, sheep or goats.'

Lev 7:24 The fat of an animal found dead or torn by wild animals may be used for any other purpose, but you must not eat it.

Lev 7:25 Anyone who eats the fat of an animal from which an offering by fire may be made to the LORD must be cut off from his people.

Lev 7:26 And wherever you live, you must not eat the blood of any bird or animal.

Lev 7:27 If anyone eats blood, that person must be cut off from his people."

Lev 7:28 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 7:29 "Say to the Israelites: 'Anyone who brings a fellowship offering to the LORD is to bring part of it as his sacrifice to the LORD.'

Lev 7:30 With his own hands he is to bring the offering made to the LORD by fire; he is to bring the fat, together with the breast, and wave the breast before the LORD as a wave offering.

Lev 7:31 The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons.

Lev 7:32 You are to give the right thigh of your fellowship offerings to the priest as a contribution.

Lev 7:33 The son of Aaron who offers the blood and the fat of the fellowship offering shall have the right thigh as his share.

Lev 7:34 From the fellowship offerings of the Israelites, I have taken the breast that is waved and the thigh that is presented and have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons as their regular share from the Israelites."

Lev 7:35 This is the portion of the offerings made to the LORD by fire that were allotted to Aaron and his sons on the day they were presented to serve the LORD as priests.

Lev 7:36 On the day they were anointed, the LORD commanded that the Israelites give this to them as their regular share for the generations to come.

Lev 7:37 These, then, are the regulations for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering and the fellowship offering,

Lev 7:38 which the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai on the day he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the Desert of Sinai.

Lev 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 8:2 "Bring Aaron and his sons, their garments, the anointing oil, the bull for the sin offering, the two rams and the basket containing bread made without yeast,

Lev 8:3 and gather the entire assembly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting."

Lev 8:4 Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the assembly gathered at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 8:5 Moses said to the assembly, "This is what the LORD has commanded to be done."

Lev 8:6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward and washed them with water.

Lev 8:7 He put the tunic on Aaron, tied the sash around him, clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him. He also tied the ephod to him by its skillfully woven waistband; so it was fastened on him.

Lev 8:8 He placed the breastpiece on him and put the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece.

Lev 8:9 Then he placed the turban on Aaron's head and set the gold plate, the sacred diadem, on the front of it, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:10 Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything in it, and so consecrated them.

Lev 8:11 He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times, anointing the altar and all its utensils and the basin with its stand, to consecrate them.

Lev 8:12 He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him.

Lev 8:13 Then he brought Aaron's sons forward, put tunics on them, tied sashes around them and put headbands on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:14 He then presented the bull for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Lev 8:15 Moses slaughtered the bull and took some of the blood, and with his finger he put it on all the horns of the altar to purify the altar. He poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. So he consecrated it to make atonement for it.

Lev 8:16 Moses also took all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, and both kidneys and their fat, and burned it on the altar.

Lev 8:17 But the bull with its hide and its flesh and its offal he burned up outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:18 He then presented the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Lev 8:19 Then Moses slaughtered the ram and sprinkled the blood against the altar on all sides.

Lev 8:20 He cut the ram into pieces and burned the head, the pieces and the fat.

Lev 8:21 He washed the inner parts and the legs with water and burned the whole ram on the altar as a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:22 He then presented the other ram, the ram for the ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Lev 8:23 Moses slaughtered the ram and took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev 8:24 Moses also brought Aaron's sons forward and put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Then he sprinkled blood against the altar on all sides.

Lev 8:25 He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys and their fat and the right thigh.

Lev 8:26 Then from the basket of bread made without yeast, which was before the LORD, he took a cake of bread, and one made with oil, and a wafer; he put these on the fat portions and on the right thigh.

Lev 8:27 He put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and waved them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Lev 8:28 Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering as an ordination offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 8:29 He also took the breast-- Moses' share of the ordination ram-- and waved it before the LORD as a wave offering, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood from the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. So he consecrated Aaron and his garments and his sons and their garments.

Lev 8:31 Moses then said to Aaron and his sons, "Cook the meat at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and eat it there with the bread from the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons are to eat it.'

Lev 8:32 Then burn up the rest of the meat and the bread.

Lev 8:33 Do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed, for your ordination will last seven days.

Lev 8:34 What has been done today was commanded by the LORD to make atonement for you.

Lev 8:35 You must stay at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days and do what the LORD requires, so you will not die; for that is what I have been commanded."

Lev 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD commanded through Moses.

Lev 9:1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.

Lev 9:2 He said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for your sin offering and a ram for your burnt offering, both without defect, and present them before the LORD.

Lev 9:3 Then say to the Israelites: 'Take a male goat for a sin offering, a calf and a lamb-- both a year old and without defect-- for a burnt offering,

Lev 9:4 and an ox and a ram for a fellowship offering to sacrifice before the LORD, together with a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you."

Lev 9:5 They took the things Moses commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and the entire assembly came near and stood before the LORD.

Lev 9:6 Then Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."

Lev 9:7 Moses said to Aaron, "Come to the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and the people; sacrifice the offering that is for the people and make atonement for them, as the LORD has commanded."

Lev 9:8 So Aaron came to the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin offering for himself.

Lev 9:9 His sons brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger into the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.

Lev 9:10 On the altar he burned the fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver from the sin offering, as the LORD commanded Moses;

Lev 9:11 the flesh and the hide he burned up outside the camp.

Lev 9:12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides.

Lev 9:13 They handed him the burnt offering piece by piece, including the head, and he burned them on the altar.

Lev 9:14 He washed the inner parts and the legs and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

Lev 9:15 Aaron then brought the offering that was for the people. He took the goat for the people's sin offering and slaughtered it and offered it for a sin offering as he did with the first one.

Lev 9:16 He brought the burnt offering and offered it in the prescribed way.

Lev 9:17 He also brought the grain offering, took a handful of it and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning's burnt offering.

Lev 9:18 He slaughtered the ox and the ram as the fellowship offering for the people. His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides.

Lev 9:19 But the fat portions of the ox and the ram-- the fat tail, the layer of fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver--

Lev 9:20 these they laid on the breasts, and then Aaron burned the fat on the altar.

Lev 9:21 Aaron waved the breasts and the right thigh before the LORD as a wave offering, as Moses commanded.

Lev 9:22 Then Aaron lifted his hands toward the people and blessed them. And having sacrificed the sin offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offering, he stepped down.

Lev 9:23 Moses and Aaron then went into the Tent of Meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people; and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

Lev 9:24 Fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted for joy and fell facedown.

Lev 10:1 Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu took their censers, put fire in them and added incense; and they offered unauthorized fire before the LORD, contrary to his command.

Lev 10:2 So fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

Lev 10:3 Moses then said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke of when he said: "Among those who approach me I will show myself holy; in the sight of all the people I will be honored." Aaron remained silent.

Lev 10:4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, "Come here; carry your cousins outside the camp, away from the front of the sanctuary."

Lev 10:5 So they came and carried them, still in their tunics, outside the camp, as Moses ordered.

Lev 10:6 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not let your hair become unkempt, and do not tear your clothes, or you will die and the LORD will be angry with the whole community. But your relatives, all the house of Israel, may mourn for those the LORD has destroyed by fire.

Lev 10:7 Do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting or you will die, because the LORD's anointing oil is on you." So they did as Moses said.

Lev 10:8 Then the LORD said to Aaron,

Lev 10:9 "You and your sons are not to drink wine or other fermented drink whenever you go into the Tent of Meeting, or you will die. This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Lev 10:10 You must distinguish between the holy and the common, between the unclean and the clean, Lev 10:11 and you must teach the Israelites all the decrees the LORD has given them through Moses."

Lev 10:12 Moses said to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the grain offering left over from the offerings made to the LORD by fire and eat it prepared without yeast beside the altar, for it is most holy.
Lev 10:13 Eat it in a holy place, because it is your share and your sons' share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire; for so I have been commanded.

Lev 10:14 But you and your sons and your daughters may eat the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. Eat them in a ceremonially clean place; they have been given to you and your children as your share of the Israelites' fellowship offerings.

Lev 10:15 The thigh that was presented and the breast that was waved must be brought with the fat portions of the offerings made by fire, to be waved before the LORD as a wave offering. This will be the regular share for you and your children, as the LORD has commanded."

Lev 10:16 When Moses inquired about the goat of the sin offering and found that it had been burned up, he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, and asked,

Lev 10:17 "Why didn't you eat the sin offering in the sanctuary area? It is most holy; it was given to you to take away the guilt of the community by making atonement for them before the LORD.

Lev 10:18 Since its blood was not taken into the Holy Place, you should have eaten the goat in the sanctuary area, as I commanded."

Lev 10:19 Aaron replied to Moses, "Today they sacrificed their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, but such things as this have happened to me. Would the LORD have been pleased if I had eaten the sin offering today?"

Lev 10:20 When Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

Lev 11:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Lev 11:2 "Say to the Israelites: 'Of all the animals that live on land, these are the ones you may eat:

Lev 11:3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof completely divided and that chews the cud.

Lev 11:4 "There are some that only chew the cud or only have a split hoof, but you must not eat them. The camel, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is ceremonially unclean for you.

Lev 11:5 The coney, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.

Lev 11:6 The rabbit, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.

Lev 11:7 And the pig, though it has a split hoof completely divided, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you.

Lev 11:8 You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you.

Lev 11:9 "Of all the creatures living in the water of the seas and the streams, you may eat any that have fins and scales.

Lev 11:10 But all creatures in the seas or streams that do not have fins and scales-- whether among all the swarming things or among all the other living creatures in the water-- you are to detest.

Lev 11:11 And since you are to detest them, you must not eat their meat and you must detest their carcasses.

Lev 11:12 Anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales is to be detestable to you.

Lev 11:13 "These are the birds you are to detest and not eat because they are detestable: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture,

Lev 11:14 the red kite, any kind of black kite,

Lev 11:15 any kind of raven,

Lev 11:16 the horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,

Lev 11:17 the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl,

Lev 11:18 the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey,

Lev 11:19 the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.

Lev 11:20 "All flying insects that walk on all fours are to be detestable to you.

Lev 11:21 There are, however, some winged creatures that walk on all fours that you may eat: those that have jointed legs for hopping on the ground.

Lev 11:22 Of these you may eat any kind of locust, katydid, cricket or grasshopper.

Lev 11:23 But all other winged creatures that have four legs you are to detest.

Lev 11:24 "You will make yourselves unclean by these; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening.

Lev 11:25 Whoever picks up one of their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 11:26 "Every animal that has a split hoof not completely divided or that does not chew the cud is unclean for you; whoever touches [the carcass of] any of them will be unclean.

Lev 11:27 Of all the animals that walk on all fours, those that walk on their paws are unclean for you; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening.

Lev 11:28 Anyone who picks up their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening. They are unclean for you.

Lev 11:29 "Of the animals that move about on the ground, these are unclean for you: the weasel, the rat, any kind of great lizard,

Lev 11:30 the gecko, the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink and the chameleon.

Lev 11:31 Of all those that move along the ground, these are unclean for you. Whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean till evening.

Lev 11:32 When one of them dies and falls on something, that article, whatever its use, will be unclean, whether it is made of wood, cloth, hide or sackcloth. Put it in water; it will be unclean till evening, and then it will be clean.

Lev 11:33 If one of them falls into a clay pot, everything in it will be unclean, and you must break the pot.

Lev 11:34 Any food that could be eaten but has water on it from such a pot is unclean, and any liquid that could be drunk from it is unclean.

Lev 11:35 Anything that one of their carcasses falls on becomes unclean; an oven or cooking pot must be broken up. They are unclean, and you are to regard them as unclean.

Lev 11:36 A spring, however, or a cistern for collecting water remains clean, but anyone who touches one of these carcasses is unclean.

Lev 11:37 If a carcass falls on any seeds that are to be planted, they remain clean.

Lev 11:38 But if water has been put on the seed and a carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.

Lev 11:39 "If an animal that you are allowed to eat dies, anyone who touches the carcass will be unclean till evening.

Lev 11:40 Anyone who eats some of the carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

Anyone who picks up the carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 11:41 "Every creature that moves about on the ground is detestable; it is not to be eaten.

Lev 11:42 You are not to eat any creature that moves about on the ground, whether it moves on its belly or walks on all fours or on many feet; it is detestable.

Lev 11:43 Do not defile yourselves by any of these creatures. Do not make yourselves unclean by means of them or be made unclean by them.

Lev 11:44 I am the LORD your God; consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am holy. Do not make yourselves unclean by any creature that moves about on the ground.

Lev 11:45 I am the LORD who brought you up out of Egypt to be your God; therefore be holy, because I am holy.

Lev 11:46 "These are the regulations concerning animals, birds, every living thing that moves in the water and every creature that moves about on the ground.

Lev 11:47 You must distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between living creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten."

Lev 12:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 12:2 "Say to the Israelites: 'A woman who becomes pregnant and gives birth to a son will be ceremonially unclean for seven days, just as she is unclean during her monthly period.

Lev 12:3 On the eighth day the boy is to be circumcised.

Lev 12:4 Then the woman must wait thirty-three days to be purified from her bleeding. She must not touch anything sacred or go to the sanctuary until the days of her purification are over.

Lev 12:5 If she gives birth to a daughter, for two weeks the woman will be unclean, as during her period. Then she must wait sixty-six days to be purified from her bleeding.

Lev 12:6 "When the days of her purification for a son or daughter are over, she is to bring to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting a year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a dove for a sin offering.

Lev 12:7 He shall offer them before the LORD to make atonement for her, and then she will be ceremonially clean from her flow of blood. "These are the regulations for the woman who gives birth to a boy or a girl.

Lev 12:8 If she cannot afford a lamb, she is to bring two doves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for her, and she will be clean."

Lev 13:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Lev 13:2 "When anyone has a swelling or a rash or a bright spot on his skin that may become an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons who is a priest.

Lev 13:3 The priest is to examine the sore on his skin, and if the hair in the sore has turned white and the sore appears to be more than skin deep, it is an infectious skin disease. When the priest examines him, he shall pronounce him ceremonially unclean.

Lev 13:4 If the spot on his skin is white but does not appear to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

Lev 13:5 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him, and if he sees that the sore is unchanged and has not spread in the skin, he is to keep him in isolation another seven days.

Lev 13:6 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him again, and if the sore has faded and has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a rash. The man must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

Lev 13:7 But if the rash does spread in his skin after he has shown himself to the priest to be pronounced clean, he must appear before the priest again.

Lev 13:8 The priest is to examine him, and if the rash has spread in the skin, he shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious disease.

Lev 13:9 "When anyone has an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to the priest.

Lev 13:10 The priest is to examine him, and if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white and if there is raw flesh in the swelling,

Lev 13:11 it is a chronic skin disease and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He is not to put him in isolation, because he is already unclean.

Lev 13:12 "If the disease breaks out all over his skin and, so far as the priest can see, it covers all the skin of the infected person from head to foot,

Lev 13:13 the priest is to examine him, and if the disease has covered his whole body, he shall pronounce that person clean. Since it has all turned white, he is clean.

Lev 13:14 But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean.

Lev 13:15 When the priest sees the raw flesh, he shall pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; he has an infectious disease.

Lev 13:16 Should the raw flesh change and turn white, he must go to the priest.

Lev 13:17 The priest is to examine him, and if the sores have turned white, the priest shall pronounce the infected person clean; then he will be clean.

Lev 13:18 "When someone has a boil on his skin and it heals,

Lev 13:19 and in the place where the boil was, a white swelling or reddish-white spot appears, he must present himself to the priest.

Lev 13:20 The priest is to examine it, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease that has broken out where the boil was.

Lev 13:21 But if, when the priest examines it, there is no white hair in it and it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

Lev 13:22 If it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is infectious.

Lev 13:23 But if the spot is unchanged and has not spread, it is only a scar from the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Lev 13:24 "When someone has a burn on his skin and a reddish-white or white spot appears in the raw flesh of the burn,

Lev 13:25 the priest is to examine the spot, and if the hair in it has turned white, and it appears to be more than skin deep, it is an infectious disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.

Lev 13:26 But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the spot and if it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

Lev 13:27 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him, and if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.

Lev 13:28 If, however, the spot is unchanged and has not spread in the skin but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scar from the burn.

Lev 13:29 "If a man or woman has a sore on the head or on the chin,

Lev 13:30 the priest is to examine the sore, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce that person unclean; it is an itch, an infectious disease of the head or chin.

Lev 13:31 But if, when the priest examines this kind of sore, it does not seem to be more than skin deep and there is no black hair in it, then the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

Lev 13:32 On the seventh day the priest is to examine the sore, and if the itch has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it and it does not appear to be more than skin deep,

Lev 13:33 he must be shaved except for the diseased area, and the priest is to keep him in isolation another seven days.

Lev 13:34 On the seventh day the priest is to examine the itch, and if it has not spread in the skin and appears to be no more than skin deep, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

Lev 13:35 But if the itch does spread in the skin after he is pronounced clean, Lev 13:36 the priest is to examine him, and if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair; the person is unclean.

Lev 13:37 If, however, in his judgment it is unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Lev 13:38 "When a man or woman has white spots on the skin,
Lev 13:39 the priest is to examine them, and if the spots are dull white, it is a harmless rash that has broken out on the skin; that person is clean.
Lev 13:40 "When a man has lost his hair and is bald, he is clean.
Lev 13:41 If he has lost his hair from the front of his scalp and has a bald forehead, he is clean.
Lev 13:42 But if he has a reddish-white sore on his bald head or forehead, it is an infectious disease breaking out on his head or forehead.
Lev 13:43 The priest is to examine him, and if the swollen sore on his head or forehead is reddish-white like an infectious skin disease,
Lev 13:44 the man is diseased and is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean because of the sore on his head.
Lev 13:45 "The person with such an infectious disease must wear torn clothes, let his hair be unkempt, cover the lower part of his face and cry out, 'Unclean! Unclean!'
Lev 13:46 As long as he has the infection he remains unclean. He must live alone; he must live outside the camp.
Lev 13:47 "If any clothing is contaminated with mildew-- any woolen or linen clothing,
Lev 13:48 any woven or knitted material of linen or wool, any leather or anything made of leather--
Lev 13:49 and if the contamination in the clothing, or leather, or woven or knitted material, or any leather article, is greenish or reddish, it is a spreading mildew and must be shown to the priest.
Lev 13:50 The priest is to examine the mildew and isolate the affected article for seven days.
Lev 13:51 On the seventh day he is to examine it, and if the mildew has spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather, whatever its use, it is a destructive mildew; the article is unclean.
Lev 13:52 He must burn up the clothing, or the woven or knitted material of wool or linen, or any leather article that has the contamination in it, because the mildew is destructive; the article must be burned up.
Lev 13:53 "But if, when the priest examines it, the mildew has not spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather article,
Lev 13:54 he shall order that the contaminated article be washed. Then he is to isolate it for another seven days.
Lev 13:55 After the affected article has been washed, the priest is to examine it, and if the mildew has not changed its appearance, even though it has not spread, it is unclean. Burn it with fire, whether the mildew has affected one side or the other.
Lev 13:56 If, when the priest examines it, the mildew has faded after the article has been washed, he is to tear the contaminated part out of the clothing, or the leather, or the woven or knitted material.
Lev 13:57 But if it reappears in the clothing, or in the woven or knitted material, or in the leather article, it is spreading, and whatever has the mildew must be burned with fire.
Lev 13:58 The clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or any leather article that has been washed and is rid of the mildew, must be washed again, and it will be clean."
Lev 13:59 These are the regulations concerning contamination by mildew in woolen or linen clothing, woven or knitted material, or any leather article, for pronouncing them clean or unclean.
Lev 14:1 The LORD said to Moses,
Lev 14:2 "These are the regulations for the diseased person at the time of his ceremonial cleansing, when he is brought to the priest:
Lev 14:3 The priest is to go outside the camp and examine him. If the person has been healed of his infectious skin disease,
Lev 14:4 the priest shall order that two live clean birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop be brought for the one to be cleansed.
Lev 14:5 Then the priest shall order that one of the birds be killed over fresh water in a clay pot.
Lev 14:6 He is then to take the live bird and dip it, together with the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn and the hyssop, into the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.
Lev 14:7 Seven times he shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed of the infectious disease and pronounce him clean. Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields.
Lev 14:8 "The person to be cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair and bathe with water; then he will be ceremonially clean. After this he may come into the camp, but he must stay outside his tent for seven days.
Lev 14:9 On the seventh day he must shave off all his hair; he must shave his head, his beard, his eyebrows and the rest of his hair. He must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water, and he will be clean.
Lev 14:10 "On the eighth day he must bring two male lambs and one ewe lamb a year old, each without defect, along with three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and one log of oil.
Lev 14:11 The priest who pronounces him clean shall present both the one to be cleansed and his offerings before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 14:12 "Then the priest is to take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering, along with the log of oil; he shall wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Lev 14:13 He is to slaughter the lamb in the holy place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered. Like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

Lev 14:14 The priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev 14:15 The priest shall then take some of the log of oil, pour it in the palm of his own left hand,

Lev 14:16 dip his right forefinger into the oil in his palm, and with his finger sprinkle some of it before the LORD seven times.

Lev 14:17 The priest is to put some of the oil remaining in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.

Lev 14:18 The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed and make atonement for him before the LORD.

Lev 14:19 "Then the priest is to sacrifice the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. After that, the priest shall slaughter the burnt offering Lev 14:20 and offer it on the altar, together with the grain offering, and make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

Lev 14:21 "If, however, he is poor and cannot afford these, he must take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, together with a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, a log of oil,

Lev 14:22 and two doves or two young pigeons, which he can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Lev 14:23 "On the eighth day he must bring them for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, before the LORD.

Lev 14:24 The priest is to take the lamb for the guilt offering, together with the log of oil, and wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Lev 14:25 He shall slaughter the lamb for the guilt offering and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev 14:26 The priest is to pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand,

Lev 14:27 and with his right forefinger sprinkle some of the oil from his palm seven times before the LORD.

Lev 14:28 Some of the oil in his palm he is to put on the same places he put the blood of the guilt offering-- on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev 14:29 The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

Lev 14:30 Then he shall sacrifice the doves or the young pigeons, which the person can afford,

Lev 14:31 one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. In this way the priest will make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one to be cleansed."

Lev 14:32 These are the regulations for anyone who has an infectious skin disease and who cannot afford the regular offerings for his cleansing.

Lev 14:33 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Lev 14:34 "When you enter the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as your possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in that land,

Lev 14:35 the owner of the house must go and tell the priest, 'I have seen something that looks like mildew in my house.'

Lev 14:36 The priest is to order the house to be emptied before he goes in to examine the mildew, so that nothing in the house will be pronounced unclean. After this the priest is to go in and inspect the house.

Lev 14:37 He is to examine the mildew on the walls, and if it has greenish or reddish depressions that appear to be deeper than the surface of the wall,

Lev 14:38 the priest shall go out the doorway of the house and close it up for seven days.

Lev 14:39 On the seventh day the priest shall return to inspect the house. If the mildew has spread on the walls,

Lev 14:40 he is to order that the contaminated stones be torn out and thrown into an unclean place outside the town.

Lev 14:41 He must have all the inside walls of the house scraped and the material that is scraped off dumped into an unclean place outside the town.

Lev 14:42 Then they are to take other stones to replace these and take new clay and plaster the house.

Lev 14:43 "If the mildew reappears in the house after the stones have been torn out and the house scraped and plastered,

Lev 14:44 the priest is to go and examine it and, if the mildew has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew; the house is unclean.

Lev 14:45 It must be torn down-- its stones, timbers and all the plaster-- and taken out of the town to an unclean place.

Lev 14:46 "Anyone who goes into the house while it is closed up will be unclean till evening.

Lev 14:47 Anyone who sleeps or eats in the house must wash his clothes.

Lev 14:48 "But if the priest comes to examine it and the mildew has not spread after the house has been plastered, he shall pronounce the house clean, because the mildew is gone.

Lev 14:49 To purify the house he is to take two birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop.

Lev 14:50 He shall kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot.

Lev 14:51 Then he is to take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn and the live bird, dip them into the blood of the dead bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Lev 14:52 He shall purify the house with the bird's blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop and the scarlet yarn.

Lev 14:53 Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields outside the town. In this way he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean."

Lev 14:54 These are the regulations for any infectious skin disease, for an itch,

Lev 14:55 for mildew in clothing or in a house,

Lev 14:56 and for a swelling, a rash or a bright spot,

Lev 14:57 to determine when something is clean or unclean. These are the regulations for infectious skin diseases and mildew.

Lev 15:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Lev 15:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When any man has a bodily discharge, the discharge is unclean.

Lev 15:3 Whether it continues flowing from his body or is blocked, it will make him unclean. This is how his discharge will bring about uncleanness:

Lev 15:4 "Any bed the man with a discharge lies on will be unclean, and anything he sits on will be unclean.

Lev 15:5 Anyone who touches his bed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:6 Whoever sits on anything that the man with a discharge sat on must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:7 "Whoever touches the man who has a discharge must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:8 "If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, that person must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:9 "Everything the man sits on when riding will be unclean,

Lev 15:10 and whoever touches any of the things that were under him will be unclean till evening; whoever picks up those things must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:11 "Anyone the man with a discharge touches without rinsing his hands with water must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:12 "A clay pot that the man touches must be broken, and any wooden article is to be rinsed with water.

Lev 15:13 "When a man is cleansed from his discharge, he is to count off seven days for his ceremonial cleansing; he must wash his clothes and bathe himself with fresh water, and he will be clean.

Lev 15:14 On the eighth day he must take two doves or two young pigeons and come before the LORD to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and give them to the priest.

Lev 15:15 The priest is to sacrifice them, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. In this way he will make atonement before the LORD for the man because of his discharge.

Lev 15:16 "When a man has an emission of semen, he must bathe his whole body with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:17 Any clothing or leather that has semen on it must be washed with water, and it will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:18 When a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, both must bathe with water, and they will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:19 "When a woman has her regular flow of blood, the impurity of her monthly period will last seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:20 "Anything she lies on during her period will be unclean, and anything she sits on will be unclean.

Lev 15:21 Whoever touches her bed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:22 Whoever touches anything she sits on must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:23 Whether it is the bed or anything she was sitting on, when anyone touches it, he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:24 "If a man lies with her and her monthly flow touches him, he will be unclean for seven days; any bed he lies on will be unclean.

Lev 15:25 "When a woman has a discharge of blood for many days at a time other than her monthly period or has a discharge that continues beyond her period, she will be unclean as long as she has the discharge, just as in the days of her period.

Lev 15:26 Any bed she lies on while her discharge continues will be unclean, as is her bed during her monthly period, and anything she sits on will be unclean, as during her period.

Lev 15:27 Whoever touches them will be unclean; he must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Lev 15:28 "When she is cleansed from her discharge, she must count off seven days, and after that she will be ceremonially clean.

Lev 15:29 On the eighth day she must take two doves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 15:30 The priest is to sacrifice one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. In this way he will make atonement for her before the LORD for the uncleanness of her discharge.

Lev 15:31 "You must keep the Israelites separate from things that make them unclean, so they will not die in their uncleanness for defiling my dwelling place, which is among them."

Lev 15:32 These are the regulations for a man with a discharge, for anyone made unclean by an emission of semen,

Lev 15:33 for a woman in her monthly period, for a man or a woman with a discharge, and for a man who lies with a woman who is ceremonially unclean.

Lev 16:1 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron who died when they approached the LORD.

Lev 16:2 The LORD said to Moses: "Tell your brother Aaron not to come whenever he chooses into the Most Holy Place behind the curtain in front of the atonement cover on the ark, or else he will die, because I appear in the cloud over the atonement cover.

Lev 16:3 "This is how Aaron is to enter the sanctuary area: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:4 He is to put on the sacred linen tunic, with linen undergarments next to his body; he is to tie the linen sash around him and put on the linen turban. These are sacred garments; so he must bathe himself with water before he puts them on.

Lev 16:5 From the Israelite community he is to take two male goats for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:6 "Aaron is to offer the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household.

Lev 16:7 Then he is to take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 16:8 He is to cast lots for the two goats-- one lot for the LORD and the other for the scapegoat.

Lev 16:9 Aaron shall bring the goat whose lot falls to the LORD and sacrifice it for a sin offering.

Lev 16:10 But the goat chosen by lot as the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD to be used for making atonement by sending it into the desert as a scapegoat.

Lev 16:11 "Aaron shall bring the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household, and he is to slaughter the bull for his own sin offering.

Lev 16:12 He is to take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of finely ground fragrant incense and take them behind the curtain.

Lev 16:13 He is to put the incense on the fire before the LORD, and the smoke of the incense will conceal the atonement cover above the Testimony, so that he will not die.

Lev 16:14 He is to take some of the bull's blood and with his finger sprinkle it on the front of the atonement cover; then he shall sprinkle some of it with his finger seven times before the atonement cover.

Lev 16:15 "He shall then slaughter the goat for the sin offering for the people and take its blood behind the curtain and do with it as he did with the bull's blood: He shall sprinkle it on the atonement cover and in front of it.

Lev 16:16 In this way he will make atonement for the Most Holy Place because of the uncleanness and rebellion of the Israelites, whatever their sins have been. He is to do the same for the Tent of Meeting, which is among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

Lev 16:17 No one is to be in the Tent of Meeting from the time Aaron goes in to make atonement in the Most Holy Place until he comes out, having made atonement for himself, his household and the whole community of Israel.

Lev 16:18 "Then he shall come out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it. He shall take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on all the horns of the altar.

Lev 16:19 He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse it and to consecrate it from the uncleanness of the Israelites.

Lev 16:20 "When Aaron has finished making atonement for the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting and the altar, he shall bring forward the live goat.

Lev 16:21 He is to lay both hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the wickedness and rebellion of the Israelites-- all their sins-- and put them on the goat's head. He shall send the goat away into the desert in the care of a man appointed for the task.

Lev 16:22 The goat will carry on itself all their sins to a solitary place; and the man shall release it in the desert.

Lev 16:23 "Then Aaron is to go into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments he put on before he entered the Most Holy Place, and he is to leave them there.

Lev 16:24 He shall bathe himself with water in a holy place and put on his regular garments. Then he shall come out and sacrifice the burnt offering for himself and the burnt offering for the people, to make atonement for himself and for the people.

Lev 16:25 He shall also burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

Lev 16:26 "The man who releases the goat as a scapegoat must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterward he may come into the camp.

Lev 16:27 The bull and the goat for the sin offerings, whose blood was brought into the Most Holy Place to make atonement, must be taken outside the camp; their hides, flesh and offal are to be burned up.

Lev 16:28 The man who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterward he may come into the camp.

Lev 16:29 "This is to be a lasting ordinance for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month you must deny yourselves and not do any work-- whether native-born or an alien living among you--

Lev 16:30 because on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you. Then, before the LORD, you will be clean from all your sins.

Lev 16:31 It is a sabbath of rest, and you must deny yourselves; it is a lasting ordinance.

Lev 16:32 The priest who is anointed and ordained to succeed his father as high priest is to make atonement. He is to put on the sacred linen garments

Lev 16:33 and make atonement for the Most Holy Place, for the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and for the priests and all the people of the community.

Lev 16:34 "This is to be a lasting ordinance for you: Atonement is to be made once a year for all the sins of the Israelites." And it was done, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 17:2 "Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them: 'This is what the LORD has commanded:

Lev 17:3 Any Israelite who sacrifices an ox, a lamb or a goat in the camp or outside of it

Lev 17:4 instead of bringing it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to present it as an offering to the LORD in front of the tabernacle of the LORD-- that man shall be considered guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood and must be cut off from his people.

Lev 17:5 This is so the Israelites will bring to the LORD the sacrifices they are now making in the open fields. They must bring them to the priest, that is, to the LORD, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and sacrifice them as fellowship offerings.

Lev 17:6 The priest is to sprinkle the blood against the altar of the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 17:7 They must no longer offer any of their sacrifices to the goat idols to whom they prostitute themselves. This is to be a lasting ordinance for them and for the generations to come.'

Lev 17:8 "Say to them: 'Any Israelite or any alien living among them who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice

Lev 17:9 and does not bring it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to the LORD-- that man must be cut off from his people.

Lev 17:10 "Any Israelite or any alien living among them who eats any blood-- I will set my face against that person who eats blood and will cut him off from his people.

Lev 17:11 For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make atonement for yourselves on the altar; it is the blood that makes atonement for one's life.

Lev 17:12 Therefore I say to the Israelites, "None of you may eat blood, nor may an alien living among you eat blood."

Lev 17:13 "Any Israelite or any alien living among you who hunts any animal or bird that may be eaten must drain out the blood and cover it with earth,

Lev 17:14 because the life of every creature is its blood. That is why I have said to the Israelites, "You must not eat the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood; anyone who eats it must be cut off."

Lev 17:15 "Anyone, whether native-born or alien, who eats anything found dead or torn by wild animals must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be ceremonially unclean till evening; then he will be clean.

Lev 17:16 But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe himself, he will be held responsible."

Lev 18:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 18:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'I am the LORD your God.

Lev 18:3 You must not do as they do in Egypt, where you used to live, and you must not do as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you. Do not follow their practices.

Lev 18:4 You must obey my laws and be careful to follow my decrees. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 18:5 Keep my decrees and laws, for the man who obeys them will live by them. I am the LORD.

Lev 18:6 "No one is to approach any close relative to have sexual relations. I am the LORD.

Lev 18:7 "Do not dishonor your father by having sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother; do not have relations with her.

Lev 18:8 "Do not have sexual relations with your father's wife; that would dishonor your father.

Lev 18:9 "Do not have sexual relations with your sister, either your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether she was born in the same home or elsewhere.

Lev 18:10 "Do not have sexual relations with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter; that would dishonor you.

Lev 18:11 "Do not have sexual relations with the daughter of your father's wife, born to your father; she is your sister.

Lev 18:12 "Do not have sexual relations with your father's sister; she is your father's close relative.

Lev 18:13 "Do not have sexual relations with your mother's sister, because she is your mother's close relative.

Lev 18:14 "Do not dishonor your father's brother by approaching his wife to have sexual relations; she is your aunt.

Lev 18:15 "Do not have sexual relations with your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife; do not have relations with her.

Lev 18:16 "Do not have sexual relations with your brother's wife; that would dishonor your brother.

Lev 18:17 "Do not have sexual relations with both a woman and her daughter. Do not have sexual relations with either her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter; they are her close relatives. That is wickedness.

Lev 18:18 "Do not take your wife's sister as a rival wife and have sexual relations with her while your wife is living.

Lev 18:19 "Do not approach a woman to have sexual relations during the uncleanness of her monthly period.

Lev 18:20 "Do not have sexual relations with your neighbor's wife and defile yourself with her.

Lev 18:21 "Do not give any of your children to be sacrificed to Molech, for you must not profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Lev 18:22 "Do not lie with a man as one lies with a woman; that is detestable.

Lev 18:23 "Do not have sexual relations with an animal and defile yourself with it. A woman must not present herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; that is a perversion.

Lev 18:24 "Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, because this is how the nations that I am going to drive out before you became defiled.

Lev 18:25 Even the land was defiled; so I punished it for its sin, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

Lev 18:26 But you must keep my decrees and my laws. The native-born and the aliens living among you must not do any of these detestable things,

Lev 18:27 for all these things were done by the people who lived in the land before you, and the land became defiled.

Lev 18:28 And if you defile the land, it will vomit you out as it vomited out the nations that were before you.

Lev 18:29 "Everyone who does any of these detestable things-- such persons must be cut off from their people.

Lev 18:30 Keep my requirements and do not follow any of the detestable customs that were practiced before you came and do not defile yourselves with them. I am the LORD your God."

Lev 19:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 19:2 "Speak to the entire assembly of Israel and say to them: 'Be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy.

Lev 19:3 "Each of you must respect his mother and father, and you must observe my Sabbaths. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:4 "Do not turn to idols or make gods of cast metal for yourselves. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:5 "When you sacrifice a fellowship offering to the LORD, sacrifice it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf.

Lev 19:6 It shall be eaten on the day you sacrifice it or on the next day; anything left over until the third day must be burned up.

Lev 19:7 If any of it is eaten on the third day, it is impure and will not be accepted.

Lev 19:8 Whoever eats it will be held responsible because he has desecrated what is holy to the LORD; that person must be cut off from his people.

Lev 19:9 "When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.

Lev 19:10 Do not go over your vineyard a second time or pick up the grapes that have fallen. Leave them for the poor and the alien. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:11 "Do not steal. "Do not lie. "Do not deceive one another.

Lev 19:12 "Do not swear falsely by my name and so profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:13 "Do not defraud your neighbor or rob him. "Do not hold back the wages of a hired man overnight.

Lev 19:14 "Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block in front of the blind, but fear your God. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:15 "Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the great, but judge your neighbor fairly.

Lev 19:16 "Do not go about spreading slander among your people. "Do not do anything that endangers your neighbor's life. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:17 "Do not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your neighbor frankly so you will not share in his guilt.

Lev 19:18 "Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:19 "Keep my decrees. "Do not mate different kinds of animals. "Do not plant your field with two kinds of seed. "Do not wear clothing woven of two kinds of material.

Lev 19:20 "If a man sleeps with a woman who is a slave girl promised to another man but who has not been ransomed or given her freedom, there must be due punishment. Yet they are not to be put to death, because she had not been freed.

Lev 19:21 The man, however, must bring a ram to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for a guilt offering to the LORD.

Lev 19:22 With the ram of the guilt offering the priest is to make atonement for him before the LORD for the sin he has committed, and his sin will be forgiven.

Lev 19:23 "When you enter the land and plant any kind of fruit tree, regard its fruit as forbidden. For three years you are to consider it forbidden; it must not be eaten.

Lev 19:24 In the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.

Lev 19:25 But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit. In this way your harvest will be increased. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:26 "Do not eat any meat with the blood still in it. "Do not practice divination or sorcery.

Lev 19:27 "Do not cut the hair at the sides of your head or clip off the edges of your beard.

Lev 19:28 "Do not cut your bodies for the dead or put tattoo marks on yourselves. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:29 "Do not degrade your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will turn to prostitution and be filled with wickedness.

Lev 19:30 "Observe my Sabbaths and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:31 "Do not turn to mediums or seek out spiritists, for you will be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:32 "Rise in the presence of the aged, show respect for the elderly and revere your God. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:33 "When an alien lives with you in your land, do not mistreat him.

Lev 19:34 The alien living with you must be treated as one of your native-born. Love him as yourself, for you were aliens in Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:35 "Do not use dishonest standards when measuring length, weight or quantity.

Lev 19:36 Use honest scales and honest weights, an honest ephah and an honest hin. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt.

Lev 19:37 "Keep all my decrees and all my laws and follow them. I am the LORD."

Lev 20:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 20:2 "Say to the Israelites: 'Any Israelite or any alien living in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech must be put to death. The people of the community are to stone him.'

Lev 20:3 I will set my face against that man and I will cut him off from his people; for by giving his children to Molech, he has defiled my sanctuary and profaned my holy name.

Lev 20:4 If the people of the community close their eyes when that man gives one of his children to Molech and they fail to put him to death,

Lev 20:5 I will set my face against that man and his family and will cut off from their people both him and all who follow him in prostituting themselves to Molech.

Lev 20:6 "I will set my face against the person who turns to mediums and spiritists to prostitute himself by following them, and I will cut him off from his people.

Lev 20:7 "Consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am the LORD your God.

Lev 20:8 Keep my decrees and follow them. I am the LORD, who makes you holy.

Lev 20:9 "If anyone curses his father or mother, he must be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother, and his blood will be on his own head.

Lev 20:10 "If a man commits adultery with another man's wife-- with the wife of his neighbor-- both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.

Lev 20:11 "If a man sleeps with his father's wife, he has dishonored his father. Both the man and the woman must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:12 "If a man sleeps with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. What they have done is a perversion; their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:13 "If a man lies with a man as one lies with a woman, both of them have done what is detestable. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:14 "If a man marries both a woman and her mother, it is wicked. Both he and they must be burned in the fire, so that no wickedness will be among you.

Lev 20:15 "If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he must be put to death, and you must kill the animal.

Lev 20:16 "If a woman approaches an animal to have sexual relations with it, kill both the woman and the animal. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:17 "If a man marries his sister, the daughter of either his father or his mother, and they have sexual relations, it is a disgrace. They must be cut off before the eyes of their people. He has dishonored his sister and will be held responsible.

Lev 20:18 "If a man lies with a woman during her monthly period and has sexual relations with her, he has exposed the source of her flow, and she has also uncovered it. Both of them must be cut off from their people.

Lev 20:19 "Do not have sexual relations with the sister of either your mother or your father, for that would dishonor a close relative; both of you would be held responsible.

Lev 20:20 "If a man sleeps with his aunt, he has dishonored his uncle. They will be held responsible; they will die childless.

Lev 20:21 "If a man marries his brother's wife, it is an act of impurity; he has dishonored his brother. They will be childless.

Lev 20:22 "Keep all my decrees and laws and follow them, so that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out.

Lev 20:23 You must not live according to the customs of the nations I am going to drive out before you. Because they did all these things, I abhorred them.

Lev 20:24 But I said to you, "You will possess their land; I will give it to you as an inheritance, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am the LORD your God, who has set you apart from the nations.

Lev 20:25 "You must therefore make a distinction between clean and unclean animals and between unclean and clean birds. Do not defile yourselves by any animal or bird or anything that moves along the ground-- those which I have set apart as unclean for you.

Lev 20:26 You are to be holy to me because I, the LORD, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be my own.

Lev 20:27 "A man or woman who is a medium or spiritist among you must be put to death. You are to stone them; their blood will be on their own heads."

Lev 21:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: 'A priest must not make himself ceremonially unclean for any of his people who die,

Lev 21:2 except for a close relative, such as his mother or father, his son or daughter, his brother,

Lev 21:3 or an unmarried sister who is dependent on him since she has no husband-- for her he may make himself unclean.

Lev 21:4 He must not make himself unclean for people related to him by marriage, and so defile himself.

Lev 21:5 "Priests must not shave their heads or shave off the edges of their beards or cut their bodies.

Lev 21:6 They must be holy to their God and must not profane the name of their God. Because they present the offerings made to the LORD by fire, the food of their God, they are to be holy.

Lev 21:7 "They must not marry women defiled by prostitution or divorced from their husbands, because priests are holy to their God.

Lev 21:8 Regard them as holy, because they offer up the food of your God. Consider them holy, because I the LORD am holy-- I who make you holy.

Lev 21:9 "If a priest's daughter defiles herself by becoming a prostitute, she disgraces her father; she must be burned in the fire.

Lev 21:10 "The high priest, the one among his brothers who has had the anointing oil poured on his head and who has been ordained to wear the priestly garments, must not let his hair become unkempt or tear his clothes. Lev 21:11 He must not enter a place where there is a dead body. He must not make himself unclean, even for his father or mother,

Lev 21:12 nor leave the sanctuary of his God or desecrate it, because he has been dedicated by the anointing oil of his God. I am the LORD.

Lev 21:13 "The woman he marries must be a virgin.

Lev 21:14 He must not marry a widow, a divorced woman, or a woman defiled by prostitution, but only a virgin from his own people,

Lev 21:15 so he will not defile his offspring among his people. I am the LORD, who makes him holy. "

Lev 21:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 21:17 "Say to Aaron: 'For the generations to come none of your descendants who has a defect may come near to offer the food of his God.

Lev 21:18 No man who has any defect may come near: no man who is blind or lame, disfigured or deformed;

Lev 21:19 no man with a crippled foot or hand,

Lev 21:20 or who is hunchbacked or dwarfed, or who has any eye defect, or who has festering or running sores or damaged testicles.

Lev 21:21 No descendant of Aaron the priest who has any defect is to come near to present the offerings made to the LORD by fire. He has a defect; he must not come near to offer the food of his God.

Lev 21:22 He may eat the most holy food of his God, as well as the holy food;

Lev 21:23 yet because of his defect, he must not go near the curtain or approach the altar, and so desecrate my sanctuary. I am the LORD, who makes them holy. "

Lev 21:24 So Moses told this to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites.

Lev 22:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 22:2 "Tell Aaron and his sons to treat with respect the sacred offerings the Israelites consecrate to me, so they will not profane my holy name. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:3 "Say to them: 'For the generations to come, if any of your descendants is ceremonially unclean and yet comes near the sacred offerings that the Israelites consecrate to the LORD, that person must be cut off from my presence. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:4 "If a descendant of Aaron has an infectious skin disease or a bodily discharge, he may not eat the sacred offerings until he is cleansed. He will also be unclean if he touches something defiled by a corpse or by anyone who has an emission of semen,

Lev 22:5 or if he touches any crawling thing that makes him unclean, or any person who makes him unclean, whatever the uncleanness may be.

Lev 22:6 The one who touches any such thing will be unclean till evening. He must not eat any of the sacred offerings unless he has bathed himself with water.

Lev 22:7 When the sun goes down, he will be clean, and after that he may eat the sacred offerings, for they are his food.

Lev 22:8 He must not eat anything found dead or torn by wild animals, and so become unclean through it. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:9 "The priests are to keep my requirements so that they do not become guilty and die for treating them with contempt. I am the LORD, who makes them holy.

Lev 22:10 "No one outside a priest's family may eat the sacred offering, nor may the guest of a priest or his hired worker eat it.

Lev 22:11 But if a priest buys a slave with money, or if a slave is born in his household, that slave may eat his food.

Lev 22:12 If a priest's daughter marries anyone other than a priest, she may not eat any of the sacred contributions.

Lev 22:13 But if a priest's daughter becomes a widow or is divorced, yet has no children, and she returns to live in her father's house as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food. No unauthorized person, however, may eat any of it.

Lev 22:14 "If anyone eats a sacred offering by mistake, he must make restitution to the priest for the offering and add a fifth of the value to it.

Lev 22:15 The priests must not desecrate the sacred offerings the Israelites present to the LORD

Lev 22:16 by allowing them to eat the sacred offerings and so bring upon them guilt requiring payment. I am the LORD, who makes them holy."

Lev 22:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 22:18 "Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them: 'If any of you-- either an Israelite or an alien living in Israel-- presents a gift for a burnt offering to the LORD, either to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering,

Lev 22:19 you must present a male without defect from the cattle, sheep or goats in order that it may be accepted on your behalf.

Lev 22:20 Do not bring anything with a defect, because it will not be accepted on your behalf.

Lev 22:21 When anyone brings from the herd or flock a fellowship offering to the LORD to fulfill a special vow or as a freewill offering, it must be without defect or blemish to be acceptable.

Lev 22:22 Do not offer to the LORD the blind, the injured or the maimed, or anything with warts or festering or running sores. Do not place any of these on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 22:23 You may, however, present as a freewill offering an ox or a sheep that is deformed or stunted, but it will not be accepted in fulfillment of a vow.

Lev 22:24 You must not offer to the LORD an animal whose testicles are bruised, crushed, torn or cut. You must not do this in your own land,

Lev 22:25 and you must not accept such animals from the hand of a foreigner and offer them as the food of your God. They will not be accepted on your behalf, because they are deformed and have defects."

Lev 22:26 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 22:27 "When a calf, a lamb or a goat is born, it is to remain with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 22:28 Do not slaughter a cow or a sheep and its young on the same day.

Lev 22:29 "When you sacrifice a thank offering to the LORD, sacrifice it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf.

Lev 22:30 It must be eaten that same day; leave none of it till morning. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:31 "Keep my commands and follow them. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:32 Do not profane my holy name. I must be acknowledged as holy by the Israelites. I am the LORD, who makes you holy Lev 22:33 and who brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD."

Lev 23:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'These are my appointed feasts, the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies.

Lev 23:3 "There are six days when you may work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, a day of sacred assembly. You are not to do any work; wherever you live, it is a Sabbath to the LORD.

Lev 23:4 "These are the LORD's appointed feasts, the sacred assemblies you are to proclaim at their appointed times:

Lev 23:5 The LORD's Passover begins at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Lev 23:6 On the fifteenth day of that month the LORD's Feast of Unleavened Bread begins; for seven days you must eat bread made without yeast.

Lev 23:7 On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Lev 23:8 For seven days present an offering made to the LORD by fire. And on the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work."

Lev 23:9 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:10 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you enter the land I am going to give you and you reap its harvest, bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain you harvest.'

Lev 23:11 He is to wave the sheaf before the LORD so it will be accepted on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath.

Lev 23:12 On the day you wave the sheaf, you must sacrifice as a burnt offering to the LORD a lamb a year old without defect,

Lev 23:13 together with its grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil-- an offering made to the LORD by fire, a pleasing aroma-- and its drink offering of a quarter of a hin of wine.

Lev 23:14 You must not eat any bread, or roasted or new grain, until the very day you bring this offering to your God. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Lev 23:15 "From the day after the Sabbath, the day you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, count off seven full weeks.

Lev 23:16 Count off fifty days up to the day after the seventh Sabbath, and then present an offering of new grain to the LORD.

Lev 23:17 From wherever you live, bring two loaves made of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour, baked with yeast, as a wave offering of firstfruits to the LORD.

Lev 23:18 Present with this bread seven male lambs, each a year old and without defect, one young bull and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings-- an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 23:19 Then sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering and two lambs, each a year old, for a fellowship offering.

Lev 23:20 The priest is to wave the two lambs before the LORD as a wave offering, together with the bread of the firstfruits. They are a sacred offering to the LORD for the priest.

Lev 23:21 On that same day you are to proclaim a sacred assembly and do no regular work. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Lev 23:22 "When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the alien. I am the LORD your God."

Lev 23:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:24 "Say to the Israelites: 'On the first day of the seventh month you are to have a day of rest, a sacred assembly commemorated with trumpet blasts.'

Lev 23:25 Do no regular work, but present an offering made to the LORD by fire."

Lev 23:26 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:27 "The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. Hold a sacred assembly and deny yourselves, and present an offering made to the LORD by fire."

Lev 23:28 Do no work on that day, because it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before the LORD your God.

Lev 23:29 Anyone who does not deny himself on that day must be cut off from his people.

Lev 23:30 I will destroy from among his people anyone who does any work on that day.

Lev 23:31 You shall do no work at all. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Lev 23:32 It is a sabbath of rest for you, and you must deny yourselves. From the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening you are to observe your sabbath."

Lev 23:33 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:34 "Say to the Israelites: 'On the fifteenth day of the seventh month the LORD's Feast of Tabernacles begins, and it lasts for seven days.'

Lev 23:35 The first day is a sacred assembly; do no regular work.

Lev 23:36 For seven days present offerings made to the LORD by fire, and on the eighth day hold a sacred assembly and present an offering made to the LORD by fire. It is the closing assembly; do no regular work.

Lev 23:37 ("These are the LORD's appointed feasts, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies for bringing offerings made to the LORD by fire-- the burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings required for each day.

Lev 23:38 These offerings are in addition to those for the LORD's Sabbaths and in addition to your gifts and whatever you have vowed and all the freewill offerings you give to the LORD.)

Lev 23:39 "So beginning with the fifteenth day of the seventh month, after you have gathered the crops of the land, celebrate the festival to the LORD for seven days; the first day is a day of rest, and the eighth day also is a day of rest.

Lev 23:40 On the first day you are to take choice fruit from the trees, and palm fronds, leafy branches and poplars, and rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

Lev 23:41 Celebrate this as a festival to the LORD for seven days each year. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come; celebrate it in the seventh month.

Lev 23:42 Live in booths for seven days: All native-born Israelites are to live in booths

Lev 23:43 so your descendants will know that I had the Israelites live in booths when I brought them out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God."

Lev 23:44 So Moses announced to the Israelites the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Lev 24:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 24:2 "Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning continually.

Lev 24:3 Outside the curtain of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron is to tend the lamps before the LORD from evening till morning, continually. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Lev 24:4 The lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD must be tended continually.

Lev 24:5 "Take fine flour and bake twelve loaves of bread, using two-tenths of an ephah for each loaf.

Lev 24:6 Set them in two rows, six in each row, on the table of pure gold before the LORD.

Lev 24:7 Along each row put some pure incense as a memorial portion to represent the bread and to be an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Lev 24:8 This bread is to be set out before the LORD regularly, Sabbath after Sabbath, on behalf of the Israelites, as a lasting covenant.

Lev 24:9 It belongs to Aaron and his sons, who are to eat it in a holy place, because it is a most holy part of their regular share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire."

Lev 24:10 Now the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites, and a fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite.

Lev 24:11 The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name with a curse; so they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri the Danite.)

Lev 24:12 They put him in custody until the will of the LORD should be made clear to them.

Lev 24:13 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Lev 24:14 "Take the blasphemer outside the camp. All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him.

Lev 24:15 Say to the Israelites: 'If anyone curses his God, he will be held responsible;

Lev 24:16 anyone who blasphemers the name of the LORD must be put to death. The entire assembly must stone him. Whether an alien or native-born, when he blasphemers the Name, he must be put to death.

Lev 24:17 "'If anyone takes the life of a human being, he must be put to death.

Lev 24:18 Anyone who takes the life of someone's animal must make restitution-- life for life.

Lev 24:19 If anyone injures his neighbor, whatever he has done must be done to him:

Lev 24:20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has injured the other, so he is to be injured.

Lev 24:21 Whoever kills an animal must make restitution, but whoever kills a man must be put to death.

Lev 24:22 You are to have the same law for the alien and the native-born. I am the LORD your God."

Lev 24:23 Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 25:1 The LORD said to Moses on Mount Sinai,

Lev 25:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you enter the land I am going to give you, the land itself must observe a sabbath to the LORD.

Lev 25:3 For six years sow your fields, and for six years prune your vineyards and gather their crops.

Lev 25:4 But in the seventh year the land is to have a sabbath of rest, a sabbath to the LORD. Do not sow your fields or prune your vineyards.

Lev 25:5 Do not reap what grows of itself or harvest the grapes of your untended vines. The land is to have a year of rest.

Lev 25:6 Whatever the land yields during the sabbath year will be food for you-- for yourself, your manservant and maidservant, and the hired worker and temporary resident who live among you,

Lev 25:7 as well as for your livestock and the wild animals in your land. Whatever the land produces may be eaten.

Lev 25:8 "'Count off seven sabbaths of years-- seven times seven years-- so that the seven sabbaths of years amount to a period of forty-nine years.

Lev 25:9 Then have the trumpet sounded everywhere on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement sound the trumpet throughout your land.

Lev 25:10 Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; each one of you is to return to his family property and each to his own clan.

Lev 25:11 The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you; do not sow and do not reap what grows of itself or harvest the untended vines.

Lev 25:12 For it is a jubilee and is to be holy for you; eat only what is taken directly from the fields.

Lev 25:13 "In this Year of Jubilee everyone is to return to his own property.

Lev 25:14 "If you sell land to one of your countrymen or buy any from him, do not take advantage of each other.

Lev 25:15 You are to buy from your countryman on the basis of the number of years since the Jubilee. And he is to sell to you on the basis of the number of years left for harvesting crops.

Lev 25:16 When the years are many, you are to increase the price, and when the years are few, you are to decrease the price, because what he is really selling you is the number of crops.

Lev 25:17 Do not take advantage of each other, but fear your God. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 25:18 "Follow my decrees and be careful to obey my laws, and you will live safely in the land.

Lev 25:19 Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill and live there in safety.

Lev 25:20 You may ask, "What will we eat in the seventh year if we do not plant or harvest our crops?"

Lev 25:21 I will send you such a blessing in the sixth year that the land will yield enough for three years.

Lev 25:22 While you plant during the eighth year, you will eat from the old crop and will continue to eat from it until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.

Lev 25:23 "The land must not be sold permanently, because the land is mine and you are but aliens and my tenants.

Lev 25:24 Throughout the country that you hold as a possession, you must provide for the redemption of the land.

Lev 25:25 "If one of your countrymen becomes poor and sells some of his property, his nearest relative is to come and redeem what his countryman has sold.

Lev 25:26 If, however, a man has no one to redeem it for him but he himself prospers and acquires sufficient means to redeem it,

Lev 25:27 he is to determine the value for the years since he sold it and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it; he can then go back to his own property.

Lev 25:28 But if he does not acquire the means to repay him, what he sold will remain in the possession of the buyer until the Year of Jubilee. It will be returned in the Jubilee, and he can then go back to his property.

Lev 25:29 "If a man sells a house in a walled city, he retains the right of redemption a full year after its sale. During that time he may redeem it.

Lev 25:30 If it is not redeemed before a full year has passed, the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to the buyer and his descendants. It is not to be returned in the Jubilee.

Lev 25:31 But houses in villages without walls around them are to be considered as open country. They can be redeemed, and they are to be returned in the Jubilee.

Lev 25:32 "The Levites always have the right to redeem their houses in the Levitical towns, which they possess.

Lev 25:33 So the property of the Levites is redeemable-- that is, a house sold in any town they hold-- and is to be returned in the Jubilee, because the houses in the towns of the Levites are their property among the Israelites.

Lev 25:34 But the pastureland belonging to their towns must not be sold; it is their permanent possession.

Lev 25:35 "If one of your countrymen becomes poor and is unable to support himself among you, help him as you would an alien or a temporary resident, so he can continue to live among you.

Lev 25:36 Do not take interest of any kind from him, but fear your God, so that your countryman may continue to live among you.

Lev 25:37 You must not lend him money at interest or sell him food at a profit.

Lev 25:38 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

Lev 25:39 "If one of your countrymen becomes poor among you and sells himself to you, do not make him work as a slave.

Lev 25:40 He is to be treated as a hired worker or a temporary resident among you; he is to work for you until the Year of Jubilee.

Lev 25:41 Then he and his children are to be released, and he will go back to his own clan and to the property of his forefathers.

Lev 25:42 Because the Israelites are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt, they must not be sold as slaves.

Lev 25:43 Do not rule over them ruthlessly, but fear your God.

Lev 25:44 "Your male and female slaves are to come from the nations around you; from them you may buy slaves.

Lev 25:45 You may also buy some of the temporary residents living among you and members of their clans born in your country, and they will become your property.

Lev 25:46 You can will them to your children as inherited property and can make them slaves for life, but you must not rule over your fellow Israelites ruthlessly.

Lev 25:47 "If an alien or a temporary resident among you becomes rich and one of your countrymen becomes poor and sells himself to the alien living among you or to a member of the alien's clan,

Lev 25:48 he retains the right of redemption after he has sold himself. One of his relatives may redeem him:

Lev 25:49 An uncle or a cousin or any blood relative in his clan may redeem him. Or if he prospers, he may redeem himself.

Lev 25:50 He and his buyer are to count the time from the year he sold himself up to the Year of Jubilee. The price for his release is to be based on the rate paid to a hired man for that number of years.

Lev 25:51 If many years remain, he must pay for his redemption a larger share of the price paid for him.

Lev 25:52 If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he is to compute that and pay for his redemption accordingly.

Lev 25:53 He is to be treated as a man hired from year to year; you must see to it that his owner does not rule over him ruthlessly.

Lev 25:54 "Even if he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children are to be released in the Year of Jubilee,

Lev 25:55 for the Israelites belong to me as servants. They are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 26:1 "Do not make idols or set up an image or a sacred stone for yourselves, and do not place a carved stone in your land to bow down before it. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 26:2 "Observe my Sabbaths and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

Lev 26:3 "If you follow my decrees and are careful to obey my commands,

Lev 26:4 I will send you rain in its season, and the ground will yield its crops and the trees of the field their fruit.

Lev 26:5 Your threshing will continue until grape harvest and the grape harvest will continue until planting, and you will eat all the food you want and live in safety in your land.

Lev 26:6 "I will grant peace in the land, and you will lie down and no one will make you afraid. I will remove savage beasts from the land, and the sword will not pass through your country.

Lev 26:7 You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall by the sword before you.

Lev 26:8 Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand, and your enemies will fall by the sword before you.

Lev 26:9 "I will look on you with favor and make you fruitful and increase your numbers, and I will keep my covenant with you.

Lev 26:10 You will still be eating last year's harvest when you will have to move it out to make room for the new.

Lev 26:11 I will put my dwelling place among you, and I will not abhor you.

Lev 26:12 I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be my people.

Lev 26:13 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt so that you would no longer be slaves to the Egyptians; I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to walk with heads held high.

Lev 26:14 "But if you will not listen to me and carry out all these commands,

Lev 26:15 and if you reject my decrees and abhor my laws and fail to carry out all my commands and so violate my covenant,

Lev 26:16 then I will do this to you: I will bring upon you sudden terror, wasting diseases and fever that will destroy your sight and drain away your life. You will plant seed in vain, because your enemies will eat it.

Lev 26:17 I will set my face against you so that you will be defeated by your enemies; those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee even when no one is pursuing you.

Lev 26:18 "If after all this you will not listen to me, I will punish you for your sins seven times over.

Lev 26:19 I will break down your stubborn pride and make the sky above you like iron and the ground beneath you like bronze.

Lev 26:20 Your strength will be spent in vain, because your soil will not yield its crops, nor will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

Lev 26:21 "If you remain hostile toward me and refuse to listen to me, I will multiply your afflictions seven times over, as your sins deserve.

Lev 26:22 I will send wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children, destroy your cattle and make you so few in number that your roads will be deserted.

Lev 26:23 "If in spite of these things you do not accept my correction but continue to be hostile toward me,

Lev 26:24 I myself will be hostile toward you and will afflict you for your sins seven times over.

Lev 26:25 And I will bring the sword upon you to avenge the breaking of the covenant. When you withdraw into your cities, I will send a plague among you, and you will be given into enemy hands.

Lev 26:26 When I cut off your supply of bread, ten women will be able to bake your bread in one oven, and they will dole out the bread by weight. You will eat, but you will not be satisfied.

Lev 26:27 "If in spite of this you still do not listen to me but continue to be hostile toward me,

Lev 26:28 then in my anger I will be hostile toward you, and I myself will punish you for your sins seven times over.

Lev 26:29 You will eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters.

Lev 26:30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars and pile your dead bodies on the lifeless forms of your idols, and I will abhor you.

Lev 26:31 I will turn your cities into ruins and lay waste your sanctuaries, and I will take no delight in the pleasing aroma of your offerings.

Lev 26:32 I will lay waste the land, so that your enemies who live there will be appalled.

Lev 26:33 I will scatter you among the nations and will draw out my sword and pursue you. Your land will be laid waste, and your cities will lie in ruins.

Lev 26:34 Then the land will enjoy its sabbath years all the time that it lies desolate and you are in the country of your enemies; then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths.

Lev 26:35 All the time that it lies desolate, the land will have the rest it did not have during the sabbaths you lived in it.

Lev 26:36 "As for those of you who are left, I will make their hearts so fearful in the lands of their enemies that the sound of a windblown leaf will put them to flight. They will run as though fleeing from the sword, and they will fall, even though no one is pursuing them.

Lev 26:37 They will stumble over one another as though fleeing from the sword, even though no one is pursuing them. So you will not be able to stand before your enemies.

Lev 26:38 You will perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will devour you.

Lev 26:39 Those of you who are left will waste away in the lands of their enemies because of their sins; also because of their fathers' sins they will waste away.

Lev 26:40 "But if they will confess their sins and the sins of their fathers-- their treachery against me and their hostility toward me,

Lev 26:41 which made me hostile toward them so that I sent them into the land of their enemies-- then when their uncircumcised hearts are humbled and they pay for their sin,

Lev 26:42 I will remember my covenant with Jacob and my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

Lev 26:43 For the land will be deserted by them and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them. They will pay for their sins because they rejected my laws and abhorred my decrees.

Lev 26:44 Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them or abhor them so as to destroy them completely, breaking my covenant with them. I am the LORD their God.

Lev 26:45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out of Egypt in the sight of the nations to be their God. I am the LORD."

Lev 26:46 These are the decrees, the laws and the regulations that the LORD established on Mount Sinai between himself and the Israelites through Moses.

Lev 27:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 27:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'If anyone makes a special vow to dedicate persons to the LORD by giving equivalent values,

Lev 27:3 set the value of a male between the ages of twenty and sixty at fifty shekels of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel;

Lev 27:4 and if it is a female, set her value at thirty shekels.

Lev 27:5 If it is a person between the ages of five and twenty, set the value of a male at twenty shekels and of a female at ten shekels.

Lev 27:6 If it is a person between one month and five years, set the value of a male at five shekels of silver and that of a female at three shekels of silver.

Lev 27:7 If it is a person sixty years old or more, set the value of a male at fifteen shekels and of a female at ten shekels.

Lev 27:8 If anyone making the vow is too poor to pay the specified amount, he is to present the person to the priest, who will set the value for him according to what the man making the vow can afford.

Lev 27:9 "If what he vowed is an animal that is acceptable as an offering to the LORD, such an animal given to the LORD becomes holy.

Lev 27:10 He must not exchange it or substitute a good one for a bad one, or a bad one for a good one; if he should substitute one animal for another, both it and the substitute become holy.

Lev 27:11 If what he vowed is a ceremonially unclean animal-- one that is not acceptable as an offering to the LORD-- the animal must be presented to the priest,

Lev 27:12 who will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, that is what it will be.

Lev 27:13 If the owner wishes to redeem the animal, he must add a fifth to its value.

Lev 27:14 "If a man dedicates his house as something holy to the LORD, the priest will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, so it will remain.

Lev 27:15 If the man who dedicates his house redeems it, he must add a fifth to its value, and the house will again become his.

Lev 27:16 "If a man dedicates to the LORD part of his family land, its value is to be set according to the amount of seed required for it-- fifty shekels of silver to a homer of barley seed.

Lev 27:17 If he dedicates his field during the Year of Jubilee, the value that has been set remains.

Lev 27:18 But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, the priest will determine the value according to the number of years that remain until the next Year of Jubilee, and its set value will be reduced.

Lev 27:19 If the man who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it, he must add a fifth to its value, and the field will again become his.

Lev 27:20 If, however, he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold it to someone else, it can never be redeemed.

Lev 27:21 When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will become holy, like a field devoted to the LORD; it will become the property of the priests.

Lev 27:22 "If a man dedicates to the LORD a field he has bought, which is not part of his family land,

Lev 27:23 the priest will determine its value up to the Year of Jubilee, and the man must pay its value on that day as something holy to the LORD.

Lev 27:24 In the Year of Jubilee the field will revert to the person from whom he bought it, the one whose land it was.

Lev 27:25 Every value is to be set according to the sanctuary shekel, twenty gerahs to the shekel.

Lev 27:26 "No one, however, may dedicate the firstborn of an animal, since the firstborn already belongs to the LORD; whether an ox or a sheep, it is the LORD's.

Lev 27:27 If it is one of the unclean animals, he may buy it back at its set value, adding a fifth of the value to it. If he does not redeem it, it is to be sold at its set value.

Lev 27:28 "But nothing that a man owns and devotes to the LORD-- whether man or animal or family land-- may be sold or redeemed; everything so devoted is most holy to the LORD.

Lev 27:29 "No person devoted to destruction may be ransomed; he must be put to death.

Lev 27:30 "A tithe of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil or fruit from the trees, belongs to the LORD; it is holy to the LORD.

Lev 27:31 If a man redeems any of his tithe, he must add a fifth of the value to it.

Lev 27:32 The entire tithe of the herd and flock-- every tenth animal that passes under the shepherd's rod-- will be holy to the LORD.

Lev 27:33 He must not pick out the good from the bad or make any substitution. If he does make a substitution, both the animal and its substitute become holy and cannot be redeemed."

Lev 27:34 These are the commands the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

Num 1:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting in the Desert of Sinai on the first day of the second month of the second year after the Israelites came out of Egypt. He said:

Num 1:2 "Take a census of the whole Israelite community by their clans and families, listing every man by name, one by one.

Num 1:3 You and Aaron are to number by their divisions all the men in Israel twenty years old or more who are able to serve in the army.

Num 1:4 One man from each tribe, each the head of his family, is to help you.

Num 1:5 These are the names of the men who are to assist you: from Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur;

Num 1:6 from Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;

Num 1:7 from Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab;

Num 1:8 from Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar;

Num 1:9 from Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon;

Num 1:10 from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;

Num 1:11 from Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni;

Num 1:13 from Asher, Pagiel son of Ocran;

Num 1:14 from Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel;

Num 1:15 from Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan."

Num 1:16 These were the men appointed from the community, the leaders of their ancestral tribes. They were the heads of the clans of Israel.

Num 1:17 Moses and Aaron took these men whose names had been given,

Num 1:18 and they called the whole community together on the first day of the second month. The people indicated their ancestry by their clans and families, and the men twenty years old or more were listed by name, one by one,

Num 1:19 as the LORD commanded Moses. And so he counted them in the Desert of Sinai:

Num 1:20 From the descendants of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:21 The number from the tribe of Reuben was 46,500.

Num 1:22 From the descendants of Simeon: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were counted and listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:23 The number from the tribe of Simeon was 59,300.

Num 1:24 From the descendants of Gad: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:25 The number from the tribe of Gad was 45,650.

Num 1:26 From the descendants of Judah: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:27 The number from the tribe of Judah was 74,600.

Num 1:28 From the descendants of Issachar: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:29 The number from the tribe of Issachar was 54,400.

Num 1:30 From the descendants of Zebulun: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:31 The number from the tribe of Zebulun was 57,400.

Num 1:32 From the sons of Joseph: From the descendants of Ephraim: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:33 The number from the tribe of Ephraim was 40,500.

Num 1:34 From the descendants of Manasseh: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:35 The number from the tribe of Manasseh was 32,200.

Num 1:36 From the descendants of Benjamin: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:37 The number from the tribe of Benjamin was 35,400.

Num 1:38 From the descendants of Dan: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:39 The number from the tribe of Dan was 62,700.

Num 1:40 From the descendants of Asher: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:41 The number from the tribe of Asher was 41,500.

Num 1:42 From the descendants of Naphtali: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Num 1:43 The number from the tribe of Naphtali was 53,400.

Num 1:44 These were the men counted by Moses and Aaron and the twelve leaders of Israel, each one representing his family.

Num 1:45 All the Israelites twenty years old or more who were able to serve in Israel's army were counted according to their families.

Num 1:46 The total number was 603,550.

Num 1:47 The families of the tribe of Levi, however, were not counted along with the others.

Num 1:48 The LORD had said to Moses:

Num 1:49 "You must not count the tribe of Levi or include them in the census of the other Israelites.

Num 1:50 Instead, appoint the Levites to be in charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony-- over all its furnishings and everything belonging to it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they are to take care of it and encamp around it.

Num 1:51 Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites are to take it down, and whenever the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall do it. Anyone else who goes near it shall be put to death.

Num 1:52 The Israelites are to set up their tents by divisions, each man in his own camp under his own standard.

Num 1:53 The Levites, however, are to set up their tents around the tabernacle of the Testimony so that wrath will not fall on the Israelite community. The Levites are to be responsible for the care of the tabernacle of the Testimony."

Num 1:54 The Israelites did all this just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 2:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Num 2:2 "The Israelites are to camp around the Tent of Meeting some distance from it, each man under his standard with the banners of his family."

Num 2:3 On the east, toward the sunrise, the divisions of the camp of Judah are to encamp under their standard. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Num 2:4 His division numbers 74,600.

Num 2:5 The tribe of Issachar will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar.

Num 2:6 His division numbers 54,400.

Num 2:7 The tribe of Zebulun will be next. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon.

Num 2:8 His division numbers 57,400.

Num 2:9 All the men assigned to the camp of Judah, according to their divisions, number 186,400. They will set out first.

Num 2:10 On the south will be the divisions of the camp of Reuben under their standard. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur.

Num 2:11 His division numbers 46,500.

Num 2:12 The tribe of Simeon will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

Num 2:13 His division numbers 59,300.

Num 2:14 The tribe of Gad will be next. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel.

Num 2:15 His division numbers 45,650.

Num 2:16 All the men assigned to the camp of Reuben, according to their divisions, number 151,450. They will set out second.

Num 2:17 Then the Tent of Meeting and the camp of the Levites will set out in the middle of the camps. They will set out in the same order as they encamp, each in his own place under his standard.

Num 2:18 On the west will be the divisions of the camp of Ephraim under their standard. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud.

Num 2:19 His division numbers 40,500.

Num 2:20 The tribe of Manasseh will be next to them. The leader of the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Num 2:21 His division numbers 32,200.

Num 2:22 The tribe of Benjamin will be next. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni.

Num 2:23 His division numbers 35,400.

Num 2:24 All the men assigned to the camp of Ephraim, according to their divisions, number 108,100. They will set out third.

Num 2:25 On the north will be the divisions of the camp of Dan, under their standard. The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Num 2:26 His division numbers 62,700.

Num 2:27 The tribe of Asher will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran.

Num 2:28 His division numbers 41,500.

Num 2:29 The tribe of Naphtali will be next. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.

Num 2:30 His division numbers 53,400.

Num 2:31 All the men assigned to the camp of Dan number 157,600. They will set out last, under their standards.

Num 2:32 These are the Israelites, counted according to their families. All those in the camps, by their divisions, number 603,550.

Num 2:33 The Levites, however, were not counted along with the other Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 2:34 So the Israelites did everything the LORD commanded Moses; that is the way they encamped under their standards, and that is the way they set out, each with his clan and family.

Num 3:1 This is the account of the family of Aaron and Moses at the time the LORD talked with Moses on Mount Sinai.

Num 3:2 The names of the sons of Aaron were Nadab the firstborn and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Num 3:3 Those were the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests.

Num 3:4 Nadab and Abihu, however, fell dead before the LORD when they made an offering with unauthorized fire before him in the Desert of Sinai. They had no sons; so only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

Num 3:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 3:6 "Bring the tribe of Levi and present them to Aaron the priest to assist him.

Num 3:7 They are to perform duties for him and for the whole community at the Tent of Meeting by doing the work of the tabernacle.

Num 3:8 They are to take care of all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, fulfilling the obligations of the Israelites by doing the work of the tabernacle.

Num 3:9 Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to him.

Num 3:10 Appoint Aaron and his sons to serve as priests; anyone else who approaches the sanctuary must be put to death."

Num 3:11 The LORD also said to Moses,

Num 3:12 "I have taken the Levites from among the Israelites in place of the first male offspring of every Israelite woman. The Levites are mine, Num 3:13 for all the firstborn are mine. When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set apart for myself every firstborn in Israel, whether man or animal. They are to be mine. I am the LORD."

Num 3:14 The LORD said to Moses in the Desert of Sinai,

Num 3:15 "Count the Levites by their families and clans. Count every male a month old or more."

Num 3:16 So Moses counted them, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

Num 3:17 These were the names of the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Num 3:18 These were the names of the Gershonite clans: Libni and Shimei.

Num 3:19 The Kohathite clans: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

Num 3:20 The Merarite clans: Mahli and Mushi. These were the Levite clans, according to their families.

Num 3:21 To Gershon belonged the clans of the Libnites and Shimeites; these were the Gershonite clans.

Num 3:22 The number of all the males a month old or more who were counted was 7,500.

Num 3:23 The Gershonite clans were to camp on the west, behind the tabernacle.

Num 3:24 The leader of the families of the Gershonites was Eliasaph son of Lael.

Num 3:25 At the Tent of Meeting the Gershonites were responsible for the care of the tabernacle and tent, its coverings, the curtain at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Num 3:26 the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, and the ropes-- and everything related to their use.

Num 3:27 To Kohath belonged the clans of the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites and Uzzielites; these were the Kohathite clans.

Num 3:28 The number of all the males a month old or more was 8,600. The Kohathites were responsible for the care of the sanctuary.

Num 3:29 The Kohathite clans were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.

Num 3:30 The leader of the families of the Kohathite clans was Elizaphan son of Uzziel.

Num 3:31 They were responsible for the care of the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the articles of the sanctuary used in ministering, the curtain, and everything related to their use.

Num 3:32 The chief leader of the Levites was Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest. He was appointed over those who were responsible for the care of the sanctuary.

Num 3:33 To Merari belonged the clans of the Mahlites and the Mushites; these were the Merarite clans.

Num 3:34 The number of all the males a month old or more who were counted was 6,200.

Num 3:35 The leader of the families of the Merarite clans was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

Num 3:36 The Merarites were appointed to take care of the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts, bases, all its equipment, and everything related to their use,

Num 3:37 as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs and ropes.

Num 3:38 Moses and Aaron and his sons were to camp to the east of the tabernacle, toward the sunrise, in front of the Tent of Meeting. They were responsible for the care of the sanctuary on behalf of the Israelites.

Anyone else who approached the sanctuary was to be put to death.

Num 3:39 The total number of Levites counted at the LORD's command by Moses and Aaron according to their clans, including every male a month old or more, was 22,000.

Num 3:40 The LORD said to Moses, "Count all the firstborn Israelite males who are a month old or more and make a list of their names.

Num 3:41 Take the Levites for me in place of all the firstborn of the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites in place of all the firstborn of the livestock of the Israelites. I am the LORD."

Num 3:42 So Moses counted all the firstborn of the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him.

Num 3:43 The total number of firstborn males a month old or more, listed by name, was 22,273.

Num 3:44 The LORD also said to Moses,

Num 3:45 "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock. The Levites are to be mine. I am the LORD.

Num 3:46 To redeem the 273 firstborn Israelites who exceed the number of the Levites,

Num 3:47 collect five shekels for each one, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.

Num 3:48 Give the money for the redemption of the additional Israelites to Aaron and his sons."

Num 3:49 So Moses collected the redemption money from those who exceeded the number redeemed by the Levites.

Num 3:50 From the firstborn of the Israelites he collected silver weighing 1,365 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

Num 3:51 Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

Num 4:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Num 4:2 "Take a census of the Kohathite branch of the Levites by their clans and families.

Num 4:3 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:4 "This is the work of the Kohathites in the Tent of Meeting: the care of the most holy things.

Num 4:5 When the camp is to move, Aaron and his sons are to go in and take down the shielding curtain and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.

Num 4:6 Then they are to cover this with hides of sea cows, spread a cloth of solid blue over that and put the poles in place.

Num 4:7 "Over the table of the Presence they are to spread a blue cloth and put on it the plates, dishes and bowls, and the jars for drink offerings; the bread that is continually there is to remain on it.

Num 4:8 Over these they are to spread a scarlet cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

Num 4:9 "They are to take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand that is for light, together with its lamps, its wick trimmers and trays, and all its jars for the oil used to supply it.

Num 4:10 Then they are to wrap it and all its accessories in a covering of hides of sea cows and put it on a carrying frame.

Num 4:11 "Over the gold altar they are to spread a blue cloth and cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

Num 4:12 "They are to take all the articles used for ministering in the sanctuary, wrap them in a blue cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put them on a carrying frame.

Num 4:13 "They are to remove the ashes from the bronze altar and spread a purple cloth over it.

Num 4:14 Then they are to place on it all the utensils used for ministering at the altar, including the firepans, meat forks, shovels and sprinkling bowls. Over it they are to spread a covering of hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

Num 4:15 "After Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy articles, and when the camp is ready to move, the Kohathites are to come to do the carrying. But they must not touch the holy things or they will die. The Kohathites are to carry those things that are in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:16 "Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, is to have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including its holy furnishings and articles."

Num 4:17 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 4:18 "See that the Kohathite tribal clans are not cut off from the Levites.

Num 4:19 So that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things, do this for them: Aaron and his sons are to go into the sanctuary and assign to each man his work and what he is to carry.

Num 4:20 But the Kohathites must not go in to look at the holy things, even for a moment, or they will die."

Num 4:21 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 4:22 "Take a census also of the Gershonites by their families and clans.

Num 4:23 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:24 "This is the service of the Gershonite clans as they work and carry burdens:

Num 4:25 They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, its covering and the outer covering of hides of sea cows, the curtains for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Num 4:26 the curtains of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, the curtain for the entrance, the ropes and all the equipment used in its service. The Gershonites are to do all that needs to be done with these things.

Num 4:27 All their service, whether carrying or doing other work, is to be done under the direction of Aaron and his sons. You shall assign to them as their responsibility all they are to carry.

Num 4:28 This is the service of the Gershonite clans at the Tent of Meeting. Their duties are to be under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Num 4:29 "Count the Merarites by their clans and families.

Num 4:30 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:31 This is their duty as they perform service at the Tent of Meeting: to carry the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts and bases,

Num 4:32 as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, ropes, all their equipment and everything related to their use. Assign to each man the specific things he is to carry.

Num 4:33 This is the service of the Merarite clans as they work at the Tent of Meeting under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest."

Num 4:34 Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the community counted the Kohathites by their clans and families.

Num 4:35 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting,

Num 4:36 counted by clans, were 2,750.

Num 4:37 This was the total of all those in the Kohathite clans who served in the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD's command through Moses.

Num 4:38 The Gershonites were counted by their clans and families.

Num 4:39 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Num 4:40 counted by their clans and families, were 2,630.

Num 4:41 This was the total of those in the Gershonite clans who served at the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD's command.

Num 4:42 The Merarites were counted by their clans and families.

Num 4:43 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Num 4:44 counted by their clans, were 3,200.

Num 4:45 This was the total of those in the Merarite clans. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD's command through Moses.

Num 4:46 So Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted all the Levites by their clans and families.

Num 4:47 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting

Num 4:48 numbered 8,580.

Num 4:49 At the LORD's command through Moses, each was assigned his work and told what to carry. Thus they were counted, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 5:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 5:2 "Command the Israelites to send away from the camp anyone who has an infectious skin disease or a discharge of any kind, or who is ceremonially unclean because of a dead body.

Num 5:3 Send away male and female alike; send them outside the camp so they will not defile their camp, where I dwell among them."

Num 5:4 The Israelites did this; they sent them outside the camp. They did just as the LORD had instructed Moses.

Num 5:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 5:6 "Say to the Israelites: 'When a man or woman wrongs another in any way and so is unfaithful to the LORD, that person is guilty'

Num 5:7 and must confess the sin he has committed. He must make full restitution for his wrong, add one fifth to it and give it all to the person he has wronged.

Num 5:8 But if that person has no close relative to whom restitution can be made for the wrong, the restitution belongs to the LORD and must be given to the priest, along with the ram with which atonement is made for him.

Num 5:9 All the sacred contributions the Israelites bring to a priest will belong to him.

Num 5:10 Each man's sacred gifts are his own, but what he gives to the priest will belong to the priest."

Num 5:11 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Num 5:12 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'If a man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him

Num 5:13 by sleeping with another man, and this is hidden from her husband and her impurity is undetected (since there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act),

Num 5:14 and if feelings of jealousy come over her husband and he suspects his wife and she is impure-- or if he is jealous and suspects her even though she is not impure--

Num 5:15 then he is to take his wife to the priest. He must also take an offering of a tenth of an ephah of barley flour on her behalf. He must not pour oil on it or put incense on it, because it is a grain offering for jealousy, a reminder offering to draw attention to guilt.

Num 5:16 "The priest shall bring her and have her stand before the LORD.

Num 5:17 Then he shall take some holy water in a clay jar and put some dust from the tabernacle floor into the water.

Num 5:18 After the priest has had the woman stand before the LORD, he shall loosen her hair and place in her hands the reminder offering, the grain offering for jealousy, while he himself holds the bitter water that brings a curse.

Num 5:19 Then the priest shall put the woman under oath and say to her, "If no other man has slept with you and you have not gone astray and become impure while married to your husband, may this bitter water that brings a curse not harm you.

Num 5:20 But if you have gone astray while married to your husband and you have defiled yourself by sleeping with a man other than your husband"--

Num 5:21 here the priest is to put the woman under this curse of the oath-- "may the LORD cause your people to curse and denounce you when he causes your thigh to waste away and your abdomen to swell.

Num 5:22 May this water that brings a curse enter your body so that your abdomen swells and your thigh wastes away." "Then the woman is to say, "Amen. So be it."

Num 5:23 "The priest is to write these curses on a scroll and then wash them off into the bitter water.

Num 5:24 He shall have the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and this water will enter her and cause bitter suffering.

Num 5:25 The priest is to take from her hands the grain offering for jealousy, wave it before the LORD and bring it to the altar.

Num 5:26 The priest is then to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial offering and burn it on the altar; after that, he is to have the woman drink the water.

Num 5:27 If she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, then when she is made to drink the water that brings a curse, it will go into her and cause bitter suffering; her abdomen will swell and her thigh waste away, and she will become accursed among her people.

Num 5:28 If, however, the woman has not defiled herself and is free from impurity, she will be cleared of guilt and will be able to have children.

Num 5:29 "This, then, is the law of jealousy when a woman goes astray and defiles herself while married to her husband,

Num 5:30 or when feelings of jealousy come over a man because he suspects his wife. The priest is to have her stand before the LORD and is to apply this entire law to her.

Num 5:31 The husband will be innocent of any wrongdoing, but the woman will bear the consequences of her sin."

Num 6:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 6:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'If a man or woman wants to make a special vow, a vow of separation to the LORD as a Nazirite,

Num 6:3 he must abstain from wine and other fermented drink and must not drink vinegar made from wine or from other fermented drink. He must not drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins.

Num 6:4 As long as he is a Nazirite, he must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins.

Num 6:5 "During the entire period of his vow of separation no razor may be used on his head. He must be holy until the period of his separation to the LORD is over; he must let the hair of his head grow long.

Num 6:6 Throughout the period of his separation to the LORD he must not go near a dead body.

Num 6:7 Even if his own father or mother or brother or sister dies, he must not make himself ceremonially unclean on account of them, because the symbol of his separation to God is on his head.

Num 6:8 Throughout the period of his separation he is consecrated to the LORD.

Num 6:9 "If someone dies suddenly in his presence, thus defiling the hair he has dedicated, he must shave his head on the day of his cleansing-- the seventh day.

Num 6:10 Then on the eighth day he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 6:11 The priest is to offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to make atonement for him because he sinned by being in the presence of the dead body. That same day he is to consecrate his head.

Num 6:12 He must dedicate himself to the LORD for the period of his separation and must bring a year-old male lamb as a guilt offering. The previous days do not count, because he became defiled during his separation.

Num 6:13 "Now this is the law for the Nazirite when the period of his separation is over. He is to be brought to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 6:14 There he is to present his offerings to the LORD: a year-old male lamb without defect for a burnt offering, a year-old ewe lamb without defect for a sin offering, a ram without defect for a fellowship offering,

Num 6:15 together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and a basket of bread made without yeast-- cakes made of fine flour mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.

Num 6:16 "The priest is to present them before the LORD and make the sin offering and the burnt offering.

Num 6:17 He is to present the basket of unleavened bread and is to sacrifice the ram as a fellowship offering to the LORD, together with its grain offering and drink offering.

Num 6:18 "Then at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the Nazirite must shave off the hair that he dedicated. He is to take the hair and put it in the fire that is under the sacrifice of the fellowship offering.

Num 6:19 "After the Nazirite has shaved off the hair of his dedication, the priest is to place in his hands a boiled shoulder of the ram, and a cake and a wafer from the basket, both made without yeast.

Num 6:20 The priest shall then wave them before the LORD as a wave offering; they are holy and belong to the priest, together with the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.

Num 6:21 "This is the law of the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD in accordance with his separation, in addition to whatever else he can afford. He must fulfill the vow he has made, according to the law of the Nazirite."

Num 6:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 6:23 "Tell Aaron and his sons, 'This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

Num 6:24 ""The LORD bless you and keep you;

Num 6:25 the LORD make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you;

Num 6:26 the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace."

Num 6:27 "So they will put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them."

Num 7:1 When Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings. He also anointed and consecrated the altar and all its utensils.

Num 7:2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of families who were the tribal leaders in charge of those who were counted, made offerings.

Num 7:3 They brought as their gifts before the LORD six covered carts and twelve oxen-- an ox from each leader and a cart from every two. These they presented before the tabernacle.

Num 7:4 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 7:5 "Accept these from them, that they may be used in the work at the Tent of Meeting. Give them to the Levites as each man's work requires."

Num 7:6 So Moses took the carts and oxen and gave them to the Levites.

Num 7:7 He gave two carts and four oxen to the Gershonites, as their work required,

Num 7:8 and he gave four carts and eight oxen to the Merarites, as their work required. They were all under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Num 7:9 But Moses did not give any to the Kohathites, because they were to carry on their shoulders the holy things, for which they were responsible.

Num 7:10 When the altar was anointed, the leaders brought their offerings for its dedication and presented them before the altar.

Num 7:11 For the LORD had said to Moses, "Each day one leader is to bring his offering for the dedication of the altar."

Num 7:12 The one who brought his offering on the first day was Nahshon son of Amminadab of the tribe of Judah.

Num 7:89 When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim above the atonement cover on the ark of the Testimony. And he spoke with him.

Num 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:2 "Speak to Aaron and say to him, 'When you set up the seven lamps, they are to light the area in front of the lampstand.'"

Num 8:3 Aaron did so; he set up the lamps so that they faced forward on the lampstand, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 8:4 This is how the lampstand was made: It was made of hammered gold-- from its base to its blossoms. The lampstand was made exactly like the pattern the LORD had shown Moses.

Num 8:5 The LORD said to Moses:

Num 8:6 "Take the Levites from among the other Israelites and make them ceremonially clean.

Num 8:7 To purify them, do this: Sprinkle the water of cleansing on them; then have them shave their whole bodies and wash their clothes, and so purify themselves.

Num 8:8 Have them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil; then you are to take a second young bull for a sin offering.

Num 8:9 Bring the Levites to the front of the Tent of Meeting and assemble the whole Israelite community.

Num 8:10 You are to bring the Levites before the LORD, and the Israelites are to lay their hands on them.

Num 8:11 Aaron is to present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the Israelites, so that they may be ready to do the work of the LORD.

Num 8:12 "After the Levites lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, use the one for a sin offering to the LORD and the other for a burnt offering, to make atonement for the Levites.

Num 8:13 Have the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons and then present them as a wave offering to the LORD.

Num 8:14 In this way you are to set the Levites apart from the other Israelites, and the Levites will be mine.

Num 8:15 "After you have purified the Levites and presented them as a wave offering, they are to come to do their work at the Tent of Meeting.

Num 8:16 They are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to me. I have taken them as my own in place of the firstborn, the first male offspring from every Israelite woman.

Num 8:17 Every firstborn male in Israel, whether man or animal, is mine. When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set them apart for myself.

Num 8:18 And I have taken the Levites in place of all the firstborn sons in Israel.

Num 8:19 Of all the Israelites, I have given the Levites as gifts to Aaron and his sons to do the work at the Tent of Meeting on behalf of the Israelites and to make atonement for them so that no plague will strike the Israelites when they go near the sanctuary."

Num 8:20 Moses, Aaron and the whole Israelite community did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 8:21 The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes. Then Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD and made atonement for them to purify them.

Num 8:22 After that, the Levites came to do their work at the Tent of Meeting under the supervision of Aaron and his sons. They did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 8:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:24 "This applies to the Levites: Men twenty-five years old or more shall come to take part in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Num 8:25 but at the age of fifty, they must retire from their regular service and work no longer.

Num 8:26 They may assist their brothers in performing their duties at the Tent of Meeting, but they themselves must not do the work. This, then, is how you are to assign the responsibilities of the Levites."

Num 9:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai in the first month of the second year after they came out of Egypt. He said, Num 9:2 "Have the Israelites celebrate the Passover at the appointed time.

Num 9:3 Celebrate it at the appointed time, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month, in accordance with all its rules and regulations."

Num 9:4 So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover,

Num 9:5 and they did so in the Desert of Sinai at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 9:6 But some of them could not celebrate the Passover on that day because they were ceremonially unclean on account of a dead body. So they came to Moses and Aaron that same day

Num 9:7 and said to Moses, "We have become unclean because of a dead body, but why should we be kept from presenting the LORD's offering with the other Israelites at the appointed time?"

Num 9:8 Moses answered them, "Wait until I find out what the LORD commands concerning you."

Num 9:9 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Num 9:10 "Tell the Israelites: 'When any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body or are away on a journey, they may still celebrate the LORD's Passover.'

Num 9:11 They are to celebrate it on the fourteenth day of the second month at twilight. They are to eat the lamb, together with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Num 9:12 They must not leave any of it till morning or break any of its bones. When they celebrate the Passover, they must follow all the regulations.

Num 9:13 But if a man who is ceremonially clean and not on a journey fails to celebrate the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people because he did not present the LORD's offering at the appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

Num 9:14 "An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD's Passover must do so in accordance with its rules and regulations. You must have the same regulations for the alien and the native-born."

Num 9:15 On the day the tabernacle, the Tent of the Testimony, was set up, the cloud covered it. From evening till morning the cloud above the tabernacle looked like fire.

Num 9:16 That is how it continued to be; the cloud covered it, and at night it looked like fire.

Num 9:17 Whenever the cloud lifted from above the Tent, the Israelites set out; wherever the cloud settled, the Israelites encamped.

Num 9:18 At the LORD's command the Israelites set out, and at his command they encamped. As long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.

Num 9:19 When the cloud remained over the tabernacle a long time, the Israelites obeyed the LORD's order and did not set out.

Num 9:20 Sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle only a few days; at the LORD's command they would encamp, and then at his command they would set out.

Num 9:21 Sometimes the cloud stayed only from evening till morning, and when it lifted in the morning, they set out. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud lifted, they set out.

Num 9:22 Whether the cloud stayed over the tabernacle for two days or a month or a year, the Israelites would remain in camp and not set out; but when it lifted, they would set out.

Num 9:23 At the LORD's command they encamped, and at the LORD's command they set out. They obeyed the LORD's order, in accordance with his command through Moses.

Num 10:1 The LORD said to Moses:

Num 10:2 "Make two trumpets of hammered silver, and use them for calling the community together and for having the camps set out.

Num 10:3 When both are sounded, the whole community is to assemble before you at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 10:4 If only one is sounded, the leaders-- the heads of the clans of Israel-- are to assemble before you.

Num 10:5 When a trumpet blast is sounded, the tribes camping on the east are to set out.

Num 10:6 At the sounding of a second blast, the camps on the south are to set out. The blast will be the signal for setting out.

Num 10:7 To gather the assembly, blow the trumpets, but not with the same signal.

Num 10:8 "The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to blow the trumpets. This is to be a lasting ordinance for you and the generations to come.

Num 10:9 When you go into battle in your own land against an enemy who is oppressing you, sound a blast on the trumpets. Then you will be remembered by the LORD your God and rescued from your enemies.

Num 10:10 Also at your times of rejoicing-- your appointed feasts and New Moon festivals-- you are to sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, and they will be a memorial for you before your God. I am the LORD your God."

Num 10:11 On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.

Num 10:12 Then the Israelites set out from the Desert of Sinai and traveled from place to place until the cloud came to rest in the Desert of Paran.

Num 10:13 They set out, this first time, at the LORD's command through Moses.

Num 10:14 The divisions of the camp of Judah went first, under their standard. Nahshon son of Amminadab was in command.

Num 10:15 Nethanel son of Zuar was over the division of the tribe of Issachar, Num 10:16 and Eliab son of Helon was over the division of the tribe of Zebulun.

Num 10:17 Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and Merarites, who carried it, set out.

Num 10:18 The divisions of the camp of Reuben went next, under their standard. Elizur son of Shedeur was in command.

Num 10:19 Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was over the division of the tribe of Simeon,

Num 10:20 and Eliasaph son of Deuel was over the division of the tribe of Gad.

Num 10:21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things. The tabernacle was to be set up before they arrived.

Num 10:22 The divisions of the camp of Ephraim went next, under their standard. Elishama son of Ammihud was in command.

Num 10:23 Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was over the division of the tribe of Manasseh,

Num 10:24 and Abidan son of Gideoni was over the division of the tribe of Benjamin.

Num 10:25 Finally, as the rear guard for all the units, the divisions of the camp of Dan set out, under their standard. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai was in command.

Num 10:26 Pagiel son of Ocran was over the division of the tribe of Asher,

Num 10:27 and Ahira son of Enan was over the division of the tribe of Naphtali.

Num 10:28 This was the order of march for the Israelite divisions as they set out.

Num 10:29 Now Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place about which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

Num 10:30 He answered, "No, I will not go; I am going back to my own land and my own people."

Num 10:31 But Moses said, "Please do not leave us. You know where we should camp in the desert, and you can be our eyes.

Num 10:32 If you come with us, we will share with you whatever good things the LORD gives us."

Num 10:33 So they set out from the mountain of the LORD and traveled for three days. The ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them during those three days to find them a place to rest.

Num 10:34 The cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

Num 10:35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses said, "Rise up, O LORD! May your enemies be scattered; may your foes flee before you."

Num 10:36 Whenever it came to rest, he said, "Return, O LORD, to the countless thousands of Israel."

Num 11:1 Now the people complained about their hardships in the hearing of the LORD, and when he heard them his anger was aroused. Then fire from the LORD burned among them and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp.

Num 11:2 When the people cried out to Moses, he prayed to the LORD and the fire died down.

Num 11:3 So that place was called Taberah, because fire from the LORD had burned among them.

Num 11:4 The rabble with them began to crave other food, and again the Israelites started wailing and said, "If only we had meat to eat!"

Num 11:5 We remember the fish we ate in Egypt at no cost-- also the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic.

Num 11:6 But now we have lost our appetite; we never see anything but this manna!"

Num 11:7 The manna was like coriander seed and looked like resin.

Num 11:8 The people went around gathering it, and then ground it in a handmill or crushed it in a mortar. They cooked it in a pot or made it into cakes. And it tasted like something made with olive oil.

Num 11:9 When the dew settled on the camp at night, the manna also came down.

Num 11:10 Moses heard the people of every family wailing, each at the entrance to his tent. The LORD became exceedingly angry, and Moses was troubled.

Num 11:11 He asked the LORD, "Why have you brought this trouble on your servant? What have I done to displease you that you put the burden of all these people on me?"

Num 11:12 Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth? Why do you tell me to carry them in my arms, as a nurse carries an infant, to the land you promised on oath to their forefathers?

Num 11:13 Where can I get meat for all these people? They keep wailing to me, 'Give us meat to eat!'

Num 11:14 I cannot carry all these people by myself; the burden is too heavy for me.

Num 11:15 If this is how you are going to treat me, put me to death right now-- if I have found favor in your eyes-- and do not let me face my own ruin."

Num 11:16 The LORD said to Moses: "Bring me seventy of Israel's elders who are known to you as leaders and officials among the people. Have them come to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you.

Num 11:17 I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take of the Spirit that is on you and put the Spirit on them. They will help you carry the burden of the people so that you will not have to carry it alone.

Num 11:18 "Tell the people: 'Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow, when you will eat meat. The LORD heard you when you wailed, 'If only we had meat to eat! We were better off in Egypt!' Now the LORD will give you meat, and you will eat it.

Num 11:19 You will not eat it for just one day, or two days, or five, ten or twenty days,

Num 11:20 but for a whole month-- until it comes out of your nostrils and you loathe it-- because you have rejected the LORD, who is among you, and have wailed before him, saying, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?" "

Num 11:21 But Moses said, "Here I am among six hundred thousand men on foot, and you say, 'I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!'

Num 11:22 Would they have enough if flocks and herds were slaughtered for them? Would they have enough if all the fish in the sea were caught for them?"

Num 11:23 The LORD answered Moses, "Is the LORD's arm too short? You will now see whether or not what I say will come true for you."

Num 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people what the LORD had said. He brought together seventy of their elders and had them stand around the Tent.

Num 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke with him, and he took of the Spirit that was on him and put the Spirit on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did not do so again.

Num 11:26 However, two men, whose names were Eldad and Medad, had remained in the camp. They were listed among the elders, but did not go out to the Tent. Yet the Spirit also rested on them, and they prophesied in the camp.

Num 11:27 A young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

Num 11:28 Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses' aide since youth, spoke up and said, "Moses, my lord, stop them!"

Num 11:29 But Moses replied, "Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!"

Num 11:30 Then Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Num 11:31 Now a wind went out from the LORD and drove quail in from the sea. It brought them down all around the camp to about three feet above the ground, as far as a day's walk in any direction.

Num 11:32 All that day and night and all the next day the people went out and gathered quail. No one gathered less than ten homers. Then they spread them out all around the camp.

Num 11:33 But while the meat was still between their teeth and before it could be consumed, the anger of the LORD burned against the people, and he struck them with a severe plague.

Num 11:34 Therefore the place was named Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had craved other food.

Num 11:35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people traveled to Hazeroth and stayed there.

Num 12:1 Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife, for he had married a Cushite.

Num 12:2 "Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?" they asked. "Hasn't he also spoken through us?" And the LORD heard this.

Num 12:3 (Now Moses was a very humble man, more humble than anyone else on the face of the earth.)

Num 12:4 At once the LORD said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, "Come out to the Tent of Meeting, all three of you." So the three of them came out.

Num 12:5 Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud; he stood at the entrance to the Tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When both of them stepped forward,

Num 12:6 he said, "Listen to my words: "When a prophet of the LORD is among you, I reveal myself to him in visions, I speak to him in dreams.

Num 12:7 But this is not true of my servant Moses; he is faithful in all my house.

Num 12:8 With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he sees the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

Num 12:9 The anger of the LORD burned against them, and he left them.

Num 12:10 When the cloud lifted from above the Tent, there stood Miriam-- leprous, like snow. Aaron turned toward her and saw that she had leprosy;

Num 12:11 and he said to Moses, "Please, my lord, do not hold against us the sin we have so foolishly committed.

Num 12:12 Do not let her be like a stillborn infant coming from its mother's womb with its flesh half eaten away."

Num 12:13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, "O God, please heal her!"

Num 12:14 The LORD replied to Moses, "If her father had spit in her face, would she not have been in disgrace for seven days? Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that she can be brought back."

Num 12:15 So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on till she was brought back.

Num 12:16 After that, the people left Hazereth and encamped in the Desert of Paran.

Num 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 13:2 "Send some men to explore the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites. From each ancestral tribe send one of its leaders."

Num 13:3 So at the LORD's command Moses sent them out from the Desert of Paran. All of them were leaders of the Israelites.

Num 13:4 These are their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur;

Num 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;

Num 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

Num 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;

Num 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;

Num 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;

Num 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;

Num 13:11 from the tribe of Manasseh (a tribe of Joseph), Gaddi son of Susi;

Num 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;

Num 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;

Num 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophs;

Num 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Maki.

Num 13:16 These are the names of the men Moses sent to explore the land. (Moses gave Hoshea son of Nun the name Joshua.)

Num 13:17 When Moses sent them to explore Canaan, he said, "Go up through the Negev and on into the hill country.

Num 13:18 See what the land is like and whether the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many.

Num 13:19 What kind of land do they live in? Is it good or bad? What kind of towns do they live in? Are they unwalled or fortified?

Num 13:20 How is the soil? Is it fertile or poor? Are there trees on it or not? Do your best to bring back some of the fruit of the land." (It was the season for the first ripe grapes.)

Num 13:21 So they went up and explored the land from the Desert of Zin as far as Rehob, toward Lebo Hamath.

Num 13:22 They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, lived. (Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Num 13:23 When they reached the Valley of Eshcol, they cut off a branch bearing a single cluster of grapes.

Two of them carried it on a pole between them, along with some pomegranates and figs.

Num 13:24 That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut off there.

Num 13:25 At the end of forty days they returned from exploring the land.

Num 13:26 They came back to Moses and Aaron and the whole Israelite community at Kadesh in the Desert of Paran. There they reported to them and to the whole assembly and showed them the fruit of the land.

Num 13:27 They gave Moses this account: "We went into the land to which you sent us, and it does flow with milk and honey! Here is its fruit.

Num 13:28 But the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. We even saw descendants of Anak there.

Num 13:29 The Amalekites live in the Negev; the Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live near the sea and along the Jordan."

Num 13:30 Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses and said, "We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly do it."

Num 13:31 But the men who had gone up with him said, "We can't attack those people; they are stronger than we are."

Num 13:32 And they spread among the Israelites a bad report about the land they had explored. They said, "The land we explored devours those living in it. All the people we saw there are of great size.

Num 13:33 We saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and we looked the same to them."

Num 14:1 That night all the people of the community raised their voices and wept aloud.

Num 14:2 All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron, and the whole assembly said to them, "If only we had died in Egypt! Or in this desert!

Num 14:3 Why is the LORD bringing us to this land only to let us fall by the sword? Our wives and children will be taken as plunder. Wouldn't it be better for us to go back to Egypt?"

Num 14:4 And they said to each other, "We should choose a leader and go back to Egypt."

Num 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron fell facedown in front of the whole Israelite assembly gathered there.

Num 14:6 Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their clothes

Num 14:7 and said to the entire Israelite assembly, "The land we passed through and explored is exceedingly good.

Num 14:8 If the LORD is pleased with us, he will lead us into that land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and will give it to us.

Num 14:9 Only do not rebel against the LORD. And do not be afraid of the people of the land, because we will swallow them up. Their protection is gone, but the LORD is with us. Do not be afraid of them."

Num 14:10 But the whole assembly talked about stoning them. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the Tent of Meeting to all the Israelites.

Num 14:11 The LORD said to Moses, "How long will these people treat me with contempt? How long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the miraculous signs I have performed among them?

Num 14:12 I will strike them down with a plague and destroy them, but I will make you into a nation greater and stronger than they."

Num 14:13 Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear about it! By your power you brought these people up from among them.

Num 14:14 And they will tell the inhabitants of this land about it. They have already heard that you, O LORD, are with these people and that you, O LORD, have been seen face to face, that your cloud stays over them, and that you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

Num 14:15 If you put these people to death all at one time, the nations who have heard this report about you will say,

Num 14:16 'The LORD was not able to bring these people into the land he promised them on oath; so he slaughtered them in the desert.'

Num 14:17 "Now may the Lord's strength be displayed, just as you have declared:

Num 14:18 'The LORD is slow to anger, abounding in love and forgiving sin and rebellion. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.'

Num 14:19 In accordance with your great love, forgive the sin of these people, just as you have pardoned them from the time they left Egypt until now."

Num 14:20 The LORD replied, "I have forgiven them, as you asked.

Num 14:21 Nevertheless, as surely as I live and as surely as the glory of the LORD fills the whole earth,

Num 14:22 not one of the men who saw my glory and the miraculous signs I performed in Egypt and in the desert but who disobeyed me and tested me ten times--

Num 14:23 not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their forefathers. No one who has treated me with contempt will ever see it.

Num 14:24 But because my servant Caleb has a different spirit and follows me wholeheartedly, I will bring him into the land he went to, and his descendants will inherit it.

Num 14:25 Since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the valleys, turn back tomorrow and set out toward the desert along the route to the Red Sea."

Num 14:26 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Num 14:27 "How long will this wicked community grumble against me? I have heard the complaints of these grumbling Israelites.

Num 14:28 So tell them, 'As surely as I live, declares the LORD, I will do to you the very things I heard you say:

Num 14:29 In this desert your bodies will fall-- every one of you twenty years old or more who was counted in the census and who has grumbled against me.

Num 14:30 Not one of you will enter the land I swore with uplifted hand to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Num 14:31 As for your children that you said would be taken as plunder, I will bring them in to enjoy the land you have rejected.

Num 14:32 But you-- your bodies will fall in this desert.

Num 14:33 Your children will be shepherds here for forty years, suffering for your unfaithfulness, until the last of your bodies lies in the desert.

Num 14:34 For forty years-- one year for each of the forty days you explored the land-- you will suffer for your sins and know what it is like to have me against you.'

Num 14:35 I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will surely do these things to this whole wicked community, which has banded together against me. They will meet their end in this desert; here they will die."

Num 14:36 So the men Moses had sent to explore the land, who returned and made the whole community grumble against him by spreading a bad report about it--

Num 14:37 these men responsible for spreading the bad report about the land were struck down and died of a plague before the LORD.

Num 14:38 Of the men who went to explore the land, only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh survived.

Num 14:39 When Moses reported this to all the Israelites, they mourned bitterly.

Num 14:40 Early the next morning they went up toward the high hill country. "We have sinned," they said. "We will go up to the place the LORD promised."

Num 14:41 But Moses said, "Why are you disobeying the LORD's command? This will not succeed!

Num 14:42 Do not go up, because the LORD is not with you. You will be defeated by your enemies,

Num 14:43 for the Amalekites and Canaanites will face you there. Because you have turned away from the LORD, he will not be with you and you will fall by the sword."

Num 14:44 Nevertheless, in their presumption they went up toward the high hill country, though neither Moses nor the ark of the LORD's covenant moved from the camp.

Num 14:45 Then the Amalekites and Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and attacked them and beat them down all the way to Hormah.

Num 15:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 15:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'After you enter the land I am giving you as a home

Num 15:3 and you present to the LORD offerings made by fire, from the herd or the flock, as an aroma pleasing to the LORD-- whether burnt offerings or sacrifices, for special vows or freewill offerings or festival offerings--

Num 15:4 then the one who brings his offering shall present to the LORD a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil.

Num 15:5 With each lamb for the burnt offering or the sacrifice, prepare a quarter of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

Num 15:6 "With a ram prepare a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil,

Num 15:7 and a third of a hin of wine as a drink offering. Offer it as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Num 15:8 "When you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or sacrifice, for a special vow or a fellowship offering to the LORD,

Num 15:9 bring with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil.

Num 15:10 Also bring half a hin of wine as a drink offering. It will be an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Num 15:11 Each bull or ram, each lamb or young goat, is to be prepared in this manner.

Num 15:12 Do this for each one, for as many as you prepare.

Num 15:13 "Everyone who is native-born must do these things in this way when he brings an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Num 15:14 For the generations to come, whenever an alien or anyone else living among you presents an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, he must do exactly as you do.

Num 15:15 The community is to have the same rules for you and for the alien living among you; this is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. You and the alien shall be the same before the LORD:

Num 15:16 The same laws and regulations will apply both to you and to the alien living among you."

Num 15:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 15:18 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you enter the land to which I am taking you

Num 15:19 and you eat the food of the land, present a portion as an offering to the LORD.

Num 15:20 Present a cake from the first of your ground meal and present it as an offering from the threshing floor.

Num 15:21 Throughout the generations to come you are to give this offering to the LORD from the first of your ground meal.

Num 15:22 "Now if you unintentionally fail to keep any of these commands the LORD gave Moses--

Num 15:23 any of the LORD's commands to you through him, from the day the LORD gave them and continuing through the generations to come--

Num 15:24 and if this is done unintentionally without the community being aware of it, then the whole community is to offer a young bull for a burnt offering as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, along with its prescribed grain offering and drink offering, and a male goat for a sin offering.

Num 15:25 The priest is to make atonement for the whole Israelite community, and they will be forgiven, for it was not intentional and they have brought to the LORD for their wrong an offering made by fire and a sin offering.

Num 15:26 The whole Israelite community and the aliens living among them will be forgiven, because all the people were involved in the unintentional wrong.

Num 15:27 "But if just one person sins unintentionally, he must bring a year-old female goat for a sin offering.

Num 15:28 The priest is to make atonement before the LORD for the one who erred by sinning unintentionally, and when atonement has been made for him, he will be forgiven.

Num 15:29 One and the same law applies to everyone who sins unintentionally, whether he is a native-born Israelite or an alien.

Num 15:30 "But anyone who sins defiantly, whether native-born or alien, blasphemes the LORD, and that person must be cut off from his people.

Num 15:31 Because he has despised the LORD's word and broken his commands, that person must surely be cut off; his guilt remains on him."

Num 15:32 While the Israelites were in the desert, a man was found gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

Num 15:33 Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly,

Num 15:34 and they kept him in custody, because it was not clear what should be done to him.

Num 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man must die. The whole assembly must stone him outside the camp."

Num 15:36 So the assembly took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 15:37 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 15:38 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'Throughout the generations to come you are to make tassels on the corners of your garments, with a blue cord on each tassel.'

Num 15:39 You will have these tassels to look at and so you will remember all the commands of the LORD, that you may obey them and not prostitute yourselves by going after the lusts of your own hearts and eyes.

Num 15:40 Then you will remember to obey all my commands and will be consecrated to your God.

Num 15:41 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD your God."

Num 16:1 Korah son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and certain Reubenites-- Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth-- became insolent

Num 16:2 and rose up against Moses. With them were 250 Israelite men, well-known community leaders who had been appointed members of the council.

Num 16:3 They came as a group to oppose Moses and Aaron and said to them, "You have gone too far! The whole community is holy, every one of them, and the LORD is with them. Why then do you set yourselves above the LORD's assembly?"

Num 16:4 When Moses heard this, he fell facedown.

Num 16:5 Then he said to Korah and all his followers: "In the morning the LORD will show who belongs to him and who is holy, and he will have that person come near him. The man he chooses he will cause to come near him.

Num 16:6 You, Korah, and all your followers are to do this: Take censers

Num 16:7 and tomorrow put fire and incense in them before the LORD. The man the LORD chooses will be the one who is holy. You Levites have gone too far!"

Num 16:8 Moses also said to Korah, "Now listen, you Levites!

Num 16:9 Isn't it enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the Israelite community and brought you near himself to do the work at the LORD's tabernacle and to stand before the community and minister to them?

Num 16:10 He has brought you and all your fellow Levites near himself, but now you are trying to get the priesthood too.

Num 16:11 It is against the LORD that you and all your followers have banded together. Who is Aaron that you should grumble against him?"

Num 16:12 Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But they said, "We will not come!

Num 16:13 Isn't it enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the desert? And now you also want to lord it over us?

Num 16:14 Moreover, you haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? No, we will not come!"

Num 16:15 Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, "Do not accept their offering. I have not taken so much as a donkey from them, nor have I wronged any of them."

Num 16:16 Moses said to Korah, "You and all your followers are to appear before the LORD tomorrow-- you and they and Aaron.

Num 16:17 Each man is to take his censer and put incense in it-- 250 censers in all-- and present it before the LORD. You and Aaron are to present your censers also."

Num 16:18 So each man took his censer, put fire and incense in it, and stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 16:19 When Korah had gathered all his followers in opposition to them at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the glory of the LORD appeared to the entire assembly.

Num 16:20 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 16:21 "Separate yourselves from this assembly so I can put an end to them at once."

Num 16:22 But Moses and Aaron fell facedown and cried out, "O God, God of the spirits of all mankind, will you be angry with the entire assembly when only one man sins?"

Num 16:23 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:24 "Say to the assembly, 'Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.'"

Num 16:25 Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.

Num 16:26 He warned the assembly, "Move back from the tents of these wicked men! Do not touch anything belonging to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins."

Num 16:27 So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing with their wives, children and little ones at the entrances to their tents.

Num 16:28 Then Moses said, "This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things and that it was not my idea:

Num 16:29 If these men die a natural death and experience only what usually happens to men, then the LORD has not sent me.

Num 16:30 But if the LORD brings about something totally new, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them, with everything that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the grave, then you will know that these men have treated the LORD with contempt."

Num 16:31 As soon as he finished saying all this, the ground under them split apart

Num 16:32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, with their households and all Korah's men and all their possessions.

Num 16:33 They went down alive into the grave, with everything they owned; the earth closed over them, and they perished and were gone from the community.

Num 16:34 At their cries, all the Israelites around them fled, shouting, "The earth is going to swallow us too!"

Num 16:35 And fire came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense.

Num 16:36 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:37 "Tell Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, to take the censers out of the smoldering remains and scatter the coals some distance away, for the censers are holy--

Num 16:38 the censers of the men who sinned at the cost of their lives. Hammer the censers into sheets to overlay the altar, for they were presented before the LORD and have become holy. Let them be a sign to the Israelites."

Num 16:39 So Eleazar the priest collected the bronze censers brought by those who had been burned up, and he had them hammered out to overlay the altar,

Num 16:40 as the LORD directed him through Moses. This was to remind the Israelites that no one except a descendant of Aaron should come to burn incense before the LORD, or he would become like Korah and his followers.

Num 16:41 The next day the whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. "You have killed the LORD's people," they said.

Num 16:42 But when the assembly gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron and turned toward the Tent of Meeting, suddenly the cloud covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Num 16:43 Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Tent of Meeting,

Num 16:44 and the LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:45 "Get away from this assembly so I can put an end to them at once." And they fell facedown.

Num 16:46 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer and put incense in it, along with fire from the altar, and hurry to the assembly to make atonement for them. Wrath has come out from the LORD; the plague has started."

Num 16:47 So Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly. The plague had already started among the people, but Aaron offered the incense and made atonement for them.

Num 16:48 He stood between the living and the dead, and the plague stopped.

Num 16:49 But 14,700 people died from the plague, in addition to those who had died because of Korah.

Num 16:50 Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, for the plague had stopped.

Num 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 17:2 "Speak to the Israelites and get twelve staffs from them, one from the leader of each of their ancestral tribes. Write the name of each man on his staff.

Num 17:3 On the staff of Levi write Aaron's name, for there must be one staff for the head of each ancestral tribe.

Num 17:4 Place them in the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, where I meet with you.

Num 17:5 The staff belonging to the man I choose will sprout, and I will rid myself of this constant grumbling against you by the Israelites."

Num 17:6 So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and their leaders gave him twelve staffs, one for the leader of each of their ancestral tribes, and Aaron's staff was among them.

Num 17:7 Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the Tent of the Testimony.

Num 17:8 The next day Moses entered the Tent of the Testimony and saw that Aaron's staff, which represented the house of Levi, had not only sprouted but had budded, blossomed and produced almonds.

Num 17:9 Then Moses brought out all the staffs from the LORD's presence to all the Israelites. They looked at them, and each man took his own staff.

Num 17:10 The LORD said to Moses, "Put back Aaron's staff in front of the Testimony, to be kept as a sign to the rebellious. This will put an end to their grumbling against me, so that they will not die."

Num 17:11 Moses did just as the LORD commanded him.

Num 17:12 The Israelites said to Moses, "We will die! We are lost, we are all lost!"

Num 17:13 Anyone who even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all going to die?"

Num 18:1 The LORD said to Aaron, "You, your sons and your father's family are to bear the responsibility for offenses against the sanctuary, and you and your sons alone are to bear the responsibility for offenses against the priesthood.

Num 18:2 Bring your fellow Levites from your ancestral tribe to join you and assist you when you and your sons minister before the Tent of the Testimony.

Num 18:3 They are to be responsible to you and are to perform all the duties of the Tent, but they must not go near the furnishings of the sanctuary or the altar, or both they and you will die.

Num 18:4 They are to join you and be responsible for the care of the Tent of Meeting-- all the work at the Tent-- and no one else may come near where you are.

Num 18:5 "You are to be responsible for the care of the sanctuary and the altar, so that wrath will not fall on the Israelites again.

Num 18:6 I myself have selected your fellow Levites from among the Israelites as a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD to do the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Num 18:7 But only you and your sons may serve as priests in connection with everything at the altar and inside the curtain. I am giving you the service of the priesthood as a gift. Anyone else who comes near the sanctuary must be put to death."

Num 18:8 Then the LORD said to Aaron, "I myself have put you in charge of the offerings presented to me; all the holy offerings the Israelites give me I give to you and your sons as your portion and regular share.

Num 18:9 You are to have the part of the most holy offerings that is kept from the fire. From all the gifts they bring me as most holy offerings, whether grain or sin or guilt offerings, that part belongs to you and your sons.

Num 18:10 Eat it as something most holy; every male shall eat it. You must regard it as holy.

Num 18:11 "This also is yours: whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I give this to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Num 18:12 "I give you all the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain they give the LORD as the firstfruits of their harvest.

Num 18:13 All the land's firstfruits that they bring to the LORD will be yours. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Num 18:14 "Everything in Israel that is devoted to the LORD is yours.

Num 18:15 The first offspring of every womb, both man and animal, that is offered to the LORD is yours. But you must redeem every firstborn son and every firstborn male of unclean animals.

Num 18:16 When they are a month old, you must redeem them at the redemption price set at five shekels of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.

Num 18:17 "But you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep or a goat; they are holy. Sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Num 18:18 Their meat is to be yours, just as the breast of the wave offering and the right thigh are yours.

Num 18:19 Whatever is set aside from the holy offerings the Israelites present to the LORD I give to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before the LORD for both you and your offspring."

Num 18:20 The LORD said to Aaron, "You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any share among them; I am your share and your inheritance among the Israelites.

Num 18:21 "I give to the Levites all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance in return for the work they do while serving at the Tent of Meeting.

Num 18:22 From now on the Israelites must not go near the Tent of Meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin and will die.

Num 18:23 It is the Levites who are to do the work at the Tent of Meeting and bear the responsibility for offenses against it. This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. They will receive no inheritance among the Israelites.

Num 18:24 Instead, I give to the Levites as their inheritance the tithes that the Israelites present as an offering to the LORD. That is why I said concerning them: 'They will have no inheritance among the Israelites.'

Num 18:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 18:26 "Speak to the Levites and say to them: 'When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you as your inheritance, you must present a tenth of that tithe as the LORD's offering.

Num 18:27 Your offering will be reckoned to you as grain from the threshing floor or juice from the winepress.

Num 18:28 In this way you also will present an offering to the LORD from all the tithes you receive from the Israelites. From these tithes you must give the LORD's portion to Aaron the priest.

Num 18:29 You must present as the LORD's portion the best and holiest part of everything given to you.'

Num 18:30 "Say to the Levites: 'When you present the best part, it will be reckoned to you as the product of the threshing floor or the winepress.

Num 18:31 You and your households may eat the rest of it anywhere, for it is your wages for your work at the Tent of Meeting.

Num 18:32 By presenting the best part of it you will not be guilty in this matter; then you will not defile the holy offerings of the Israelites, and you will not die.'"

Num 19:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Num 19:2 "This is a requirement of the law that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer without defect or blemish and that has never been under a yoke.

Num 19:3 Give it to Eleazar the priest; it is to be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.

Num 19:4 Then Eleazar the priest is to take some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the Tent of Meeting.

Num 19:5 While he watches, the heifer is to be burned-- its hide, flesh, blood and offal.

Num 19:6 The priest is to take some cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet wool and throw them onto the burning heifer.

Num 19:7 After that, the priest must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water. He may then come into the camp, but he will be ceremonially unclean till evening.

Num 19:8 The man who burns it must also wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he too will be unclean till evening.

Num 19:9 "A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and put them in a ceremonially clean place outside the camp. They shall be kept by the Israelite community for use in the water of cleansing; it is for purification from sin.

Num 19:10 The man who gathers up the ashes of the heifer must also wash his clothes, and he too will be unclean till evening. This will be a lasting ordinance both for the Israelites and for the aliens living among them.

Num 19:11 "Whoever touches the dead body of anyone will be unclean for seven days.

Num 19:12 He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean.

Num 19:13 Whoever touches the dead body of anyone and fails to purify himself defiles the LORD's tabernacle. That person must be cut off from Israel. Because the water of cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, he is unclean; his uncleanness remains on him.

Num 19:14 "This is the law that applies when a person dies in a tent: Anyone who enters the tent and anyone who is in it will be unclean for seven days,

Num 19:15 and every open container without a lid fastened on it will be unclean.

Num 19:16 "Anyone out in the open who touches someone who has been killed with a sword or someone who has died a natural death, or anyone who touches a human bone or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.

Num 19:17 "For the unclean person, put some ashes from the burned purification offering into a jar and pour fresh water over them.

Num 19:18 Then a man who is ceremonially clean is to take some hyssop, dip it in the water and sprinkle the tent and all the furnishings and the people who were there. He must also sprinkle anyone who has touched a human bone or a grave or someone who has been killed or someone who has died a natural death.

Num 19:19 The man who is clean is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third and seventh days, and on the seventh day he is to purify him. The person being cleansed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and that evening he will be clean.

Num 19:20 But if a person who is unclean does not purify himself, he must be cut off from the community, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, and he is unclean.

Num 19:21 This is a lasting ordinance for them. "The man who sprinkles the water of cleansing must also wash his clothes, and anyone who touches the water of cleansing will be unclean till evening.

Num 19:22 Anything that an unclean person touches becomes unclean, and anyone who touches it becomes unclean till evening."

Num 20:1 In the first month the whole Israelite community arrived at the Desert of Zin, and they stayed at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

Num 20:2 Now there was no water for the community, and the people gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron.

Num 20:3 They quarreled with Moses and said, "If only we had died when our brothers fell dead before the LORD!

Num 20:4 Why did you bring the LORD's community into this desert, that we and our livestock should die here?

Num 20:5 Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to this terrible place? It has no grain or figs, grapevines or pomegranates. And there is no water to drink!"

Num 20:6 Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and fell facedown, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

Num 20:7 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 20:8 "Take the staff, and you and your brother Aaron gather the assembly together. Speak to that rock before their eyes and it will pour out its water. You will bring water out of the rock for the community so they and their livestock can drink."

Num 20:9 So Moses took the staff from the LORD's presence, just as he commanded him.

Num 20:10 He and Aaron gathered the assembly together in front of the rock and Moses said to them, "Listen, you rebels, must we bring you water out of this rock?"

Num 20:11 Then Moses raised his arm and struck the rock twice with his staff. Water gushed out, and the community and their livestock drank.

Num 20:12 But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust in me enough to honor me as holy in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bring this community into the land I give them."

Num 20:13 These were the waters of Meribah, where the Israelites quarreled with the LORD and where he showed himself holy among them.

Num 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, saying: "This is what your brother Israel says: You know about all the hardships that have come upon us.

Num 20:15 Our forefathers went down into Egypt, and we lived there many years. The Egyptians mistreated us and our fathers, Num 20:16 but when we cried out to the LORD, he heard our cry and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. "Now we are here at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.

Num 20:17 Please let us pass through your country. We will not go through any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king's highway and not turn to the right or to the left until we have passed through your territory."

Num 20:18 But Edom answered: "You may not pass through here; if you try, we will march out and attack you with the sword."

Num 20:19 The Israelites replied: "We will go along the main road, and if we or our livestock drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We only want to pass through on foot-- nothing else."

Num 20:20 Again they answered: "You may not pass through." Then Edom came out against them with a large and powerful army.

Num 20:21 Since Edom refused to let them go through their territory, Israel turned away from them.

Num 20:22 The whole Israelite community set out from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

Num 20:23 At Mount Hor, near the border of Edom, the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 20:24 "Aaron will be gathered to his people. He will not enter the land I give the Israelites, because both of you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.

Num 20:25 Get Aaron and his son Eleazar and take them up Mount Hor.

Num 20:26 Remove Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar, for Aaron will be gathered to his people; he will die there."

Num 20:27 Moses did as the LORD commanded: They went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole community.

Num 20:28 Moses removed Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar. And Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain, Num 20:29 and when the whole community learned that Aaron had died, the entire house of Israel mourned for him thirty days.

Num 21:1 When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked the Israelites and captured some of them.

Num 21:2 Then Israel made this vow to the LORD: "If you will deliver these people into our hands, we will totally destroy their cities."

Num 21:3 The LORD listened to Israel's plea and gave the Canaanites over to them. They completely destroyed them and their towns; so the place was named Hormah.

Num 21:4 They traveled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, to go around Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way;

Num 21:5 they spoke against God and against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!"

Num 21:6 Then the LORD sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died.

Num 21:7 The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

Num 21:8 The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live."

Num 21:9 So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

Num 21:10 The Israelites moved on and camped at Oboth.

Num 21:11 Then they set out from Oboth and camped in Iye Abarim, in the desert that faces Moab toward the sunrise.

Num 21:12 From there they moved on and camped in the Zered Valley.

Num 21:13 They set out from there and camped alongside the Arnon, which is in the desert extending into Amorite territory. The Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

Num 21:14 That is why the Book of the Wars of the LORD says: "...Waheb in Supah and the ravines, the Arnon Num 21:15 and the slopes of the ravines that lead to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab."

Num 21:16 From there they continued on to Beer, the well where the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together and I will give them water."

Num 21:17 Then Israel sang this song: "Spring up, O well! Sing about it, Num 21:18 about the well that the princes dug, that the nobles of the people sank-- the nobles with scepters and staffs." Then they went from the desert to Mattanah,

Num 21:19 from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

Num 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley in Moab where the top of Pisgah overlooks the wasteland.

Num 21:21 Israel sent messengers to say to Sihon king of the Amorites:

Num 21:22 "Let us pass through your country. We will not turn aside into any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king's highway until we have passed through your territory."

Num 21:23 But Sihon would not let Israel pass through his territory. He mustered his entire army and marched out into the desert against Israel. When he reached Jahaz, he fought with Israel.

Num 21:24 Israel, however, put him to the sword and took over his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, but only as far as the Ammonites, because their border was fortified.

Num 21:25 Israel captured all the cities of the Amorites and occupied them, including Heshbon and all its surrounding settlements.

Num 21:26 Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken from him all his land as far as the Arnon.

Num 21:27 That is why the poets say: "Come to Heshbon and let it be rebuilt; let Sihon's city be restored.

Num 21:28 "Fire went out from Heshbon, a blaze from the city of Sihon. It consumed Ar of Moab, the citizens of Arnon's heights.

Num 21:29 Woe to you, O Moab! You are destroyed, O people of Chemosh! He has given up his sons as fugitives and his daughters as captives to Sihon king of the Amorites.

Num 21:30 "But we have overthrown them; Heshbon is destroyed all the way to Dibon. We have demolished them as far as Nophah, which extends to Medeba."

Num 21:31 So Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

Num 21:32 After Moses had sent spies to Jazer, the Israelites captured its surrounding settlements and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Num 21:33 Then they turned and went up along the road toward Bashan, and Og king of Bashan and his whole army marched out to meet them in battle at Edrei.

Num 21:34 The LORD said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you, with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon." Num 21:35 So they struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army, leaving them no survivors. And they took possession of his land.

Num 22:1 Then the Israelites traveled to the plains of Moab and camped along the Jordan across from Jericho.

Num 22:2 Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites,

Num 22:3 and Moab was terrified because there were so many people. Indeed, Moab was filled with dread because of the Israelites.

Num 22:4 The Moabites said to the elders of Midian, "This horde is going to lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field." So Balak son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, Num 22:5 sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, who was at Pethor, near the River, in his native land. Balak said: "A people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the land and have settled next to me.

Num 22:6 Now come and put a curse on these people, because they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the country. For I know that those you bless are blessed, and those you curse are cursed."

Num 22:7 The elders of Moab and Midian left, taking with them the fee for divination. When they came to Balaam, they told him what Balak had said.

Num 22:8 "Spend the night here," Balaam said to them, "and I will bring you back the answer the LORD gives me." So the Moabite princes stayed with him.

Num 22:9 God came to Balaam and asked, "Who are these men with you?"

Num 22:10 Balaam said to God, "Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message:

Num 22:11 'A people that has come out of Egypt covers the face of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. Perhaps then I will be able to fight them and drive them away.'"

Num 22:12 But God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them. You must not put a curse on those people, because they are blessed."

Num 22:13 The next morning Balaam got up and said to Balak's princes, "Go back to your own country, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you."

Num 22:14 So the Moabite princes returned to Balak and said, "Balaam refused to come with us."

Num 22:15 Then Balak sent other princes, more numerous and more distinguished than the first.

Num 22:16 They came to Balaam and said: "This is what Balak son of Zippor says: Do not let anything keep you from coming to me, Num 22:17 because I will reward you handsomely and do whatever you say. Come and put a curse on these people for me."

Num 22:18 But Balaam answered them, "Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything great or small to go beyond the command of the LORD my God.

Num 22:19 Now stay here tonight as the others did, and I will find out what else the LORD will tell me."

Num 22:20 That night God came to Balaam and said, "Since these men have come to summon you, go with them, but do only what I tell you."

Num 22:21 Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Moab.

Num 22:22 But God was very angry when he went, and the angel of the LORD stood in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

Num 22:23 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, she turned off the road into a field. Balaam beat her to get her back on the road.

Num 22:24 Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between two vineyards, with walls on both sides.

Num 22:25 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed close to the wall, crushing Balaam's foot against it. So he beat her again.

Num 22:26 Then the angel of the LORD moved on ahead and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right or to the left.

Num 22:27 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam, and he was angry and beat her with his staff.

Num 22:28 Then the LORD opened the donkey's mouth, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?"

Num 22:29 Balaam answered the donkey, "You have made a fool of me! If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now."

Num 22:30 The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your own donkey, which you have always ridden, to this day? Have I been in the habit of doing this to you?" "No," he said.

Num 22:31 Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with his sword drawn. So he bowed low and fell facedown.

Num 22:32 The angel of the LORD asked him, "Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? I have come here to oppose you because your path is a reckless one before me.

Num 22:33 The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away, I would certainly have killed you by now, but I would have spared her."

Num 22:34 Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned. I did not realize you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now if you are displeased, I will go back."

Num 22:35 The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

Num 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the Moabite town on the Arnon border, at the edge of his territory.

Num 22:37 Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why didn't you come to me? Am I really not able to reward you?"

Num 22:38 "Well, I have come to you now," Balaam replied. "But can I say just anything? I must speak only what God puts in my mouth."

Num 22:39 Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth.

Num 22:40 Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and gave some to Balaam and the princes who were with him.

Num 22:41 The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth Baal, and from there he saw part of the people.

Num 23:1 Balaam said, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."

Num 23:2 Balak did as Balaam said, and the two of them offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Num 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your offering while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet with me. Whatever he reveals to me I will tell you." Then he went off to a barren height.

Num 23:4 God met with him, and Balaam said, "I have prepared seven altars, and on each altar I have offered a bull and a ram."

Num 23:5 The LORD put a message in Balaam's mouth and said, "Go back to Balak and give him this message."

Num 23:6 So he went back to him and found him standing beside his offering, with all the princes of Moab.

Num 23:7 Then Balaam uttered his oracle: "Balak brought me from Aram, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains. 'Come,' he said, 'curse Jacob for me; come, denounce Israel.'

Num 23:8 How can I curse those whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce those whom the LORD has not denounced?

Num 23:9 From the rocky peaks I see them, from the heights I view them. I see a people who live apart and do not consider themselves one of the nations.

Num 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and may my end be like theirs!"

Num 23:11 Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but you have done nothing but bless them!"

Num 23:12 He answered, "Must I not speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?"

Num 23:13 Then Balak said to him, "Come with me to another place where you can see them; you will see only a part but not all of them. And from there, curse them for me."

Num 23:14 So he took him to the field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah, and there he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Num 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your offering while I meet with him over there."

Num 23:16 The LORD met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth and said, "Go back to Balak and give him this message."

Num 23:17 So he went to him and found him standing beside his offering, with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, "What did the LORD say?"

Num 23:18 Then he uttered his oracle: "Arise, Balak, and listen; hear me, son of Zippor.

Num 23:19 God is not a man, that he should lie, nor a son of man, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act? Does he promise and not fulfill?

Num 23:20 I have received a command to bless; he has blessed, and I cannot change it.

Num 23:21 "No misfortune is seen in Jacob, no misery observed in Israel. The LORD their God is with them; the shout of the King is among them.

Num 23:22 God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox.

Num 23:23 There is no sorcery against Jacob, no divination against Israel. It will now be said of Jacob and of Israel, 'See what God has done!'

Num 23:24 The people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion that does not rest till he devours his prey and drinks the blood of his victims."

Num 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!"

Num 23:26 Balaam answered, "Did I not tell you I must do whatever the LORD says?"

Num 23:27 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Come, let me take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them for me from there."

Num 23:28 And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, overlooking the wasteland.

Num 23:29 Balaam said, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."

Num 23:30 Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Num 24:1 Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not resort to sorcery as at other times, but turned his face toward the desert.

Num 24:2 When Balaam looked out and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came upon him

Num 24:3 and he uttered his oracle: "The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly,

Num 24:4 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

Num 24:5 "How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling places, O Israel!

Num 24:6 "Like valleys they spread out, like gardens beside a river, like aloes planted by the LORD, like cedars beside the waters.

Num 24:7 Water will flow from their buckets; their seed will have abundant water. "Their king will be greater than Agag; their kingdom will be exalted.

Num 24:8 "God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox. They devour hostile nations and break their bones in pieces; with their arrows they pierce them.

Num 24:9 Like a lion they crouch and lie down, like a lioness-- who dares to rouse them? "May those who bless you be blessed and those who curse you be cursed!"

Num 24:10 Then Balak's anger burned against Balaam. He struck his hands together and said to him, "I summoned you to curse my enemies, but you have blessed them these three times.

Num 24:11 Now leave at once and go home! I said I would reward you handsomely, but the LORD has kept you from being rewarded."

Num 24:12 Balaam answered Balak, "Did I not tell the messengers you sent me,

Num 24:13 'Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything of my own accord, good or bad, to go beyond the command of the LORD-- and I must say only what the LORD says'?

Num 24:14 Now I am going back to my people, but come, let me warn you of what this people will do to your people in days to come."

Num 24:15 Then he uttered his oracle: "The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly,

Num 24:16 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who has knowledge from the Most High, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

Num 24:17 "I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near. A star will come out of Jacob; a scepter will rise out of Israel. He will crush the foreheads of Moab, the skulls of all the sons of Sheth.

Num 24:18 Edom will be conquered; Seir, his enemy, will be conquered, but Israel will grow strong.

Num 24:19 A ruler will come out of Jacob and destroy the survivors of the city."

Num 24:20 Then Balaam saw Amalek and uttered his oracle: "Amalek was first among the nations, but he will come to ruin at last."

Num 24:21 Then he saw the Kenites and uttered his oracle: "Your dwelling place is secure, your nest is set in a rock;

Num 24:22 yet you Kenites will be destroyed when Asshur takes you captive."

Num 24:23 Then he uttered his oracle: "Ah, who can live when God does this?

Num 24:24 Ships will come from the shores of Kittim; they will subdue Asshur and Eber, but they too will come to ruin."

Num 24:25 Then Balaam got up and returned home and Balak went his own way.

Num 25:1 While Israel was staying in Shittim, the men began to indulge in sexual immorality with Moabite women,

Num 25:2 who invited them to the sacrifices to their gods. The people ate and bowed down before these gods.

Num 25:3 So Israel joined in worshiping the Baal of Peor. And the LORD's anger burned against them.

Num 25:4 The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of these people, kill them and expose them in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the LORD's fierce anger may turn away from Israel."

Num 25:5 So Moses said to Israel's judges, "Each of you must put to death those of your men who have joined in worshiping the Baal of Peor."

Num 25:6 Then an Israelite man brought to his family a Midianite woman right before the eyes of Moses and the whole assembly of Israel while they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 25:7 When Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, saw this, he left the assembly, took a spear in his hand

Num 25:8 and followed the Israelite into the tent. He drove the spear through both of them-- through the Israelite and into the woman's body. Then the plague against the Israelites was stopped; Num 25:9 but those who died in the plague numbered 24,000.

Num 25:10 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 25:11 "Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, has turned my anger away from the Israelites; for he was as zealous as I am for my honor among them, so that in my zeal I did not put an end to them.

Num 25:12 Therefore tell him I am making my covenant of peace with him.

Num 25:13 He and his descendants will have a covenant of a lasting priesthood, because he was zealous for the honor of his God and made atonement for the Israelites."

Num 25:14 The name of the Israelite who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, the leader of a Simeonite family.

Num 25:15 And the name of the Midianite woman who was put to death was Cozbi daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a Midianite family.

Num 25:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 25:17 "Treat the Midianites as enemies and kill them,

Num 25:18 because they treated you as enemies when they deceived you in the affair of Peor and their sister Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite leader, the woman who was killed when the plague came as a result of Peor."

Num 26:1 After the plague the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest,

Num 26:2 "Take a census of the whole Israelite community by families-- all those twenty years old or more who are able to serve in the army of Israel."

Num 26:3 So on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them and said,

Num 26:4 "Take a census of the men twenty years old or more, as the LORD commanded Moses." These were the Israelites who came out of Egypt:

Num 26:5 The descendants of Reuben, the firstborn son of Israel, were: through Hanoch, the Hanochite clan; through Pallu, the Palluite clan;

Num 26:6 through Hezron, the Hezronite clan; through Carmi, the Carmite clan.

Num 26:7 These were the clans of Reuben; those numbered were 43,730.

Num 26:8 The son of Pallu was Eliah,

Num 26:9 and the sons of Eliah were Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. The same Dathan and Abiram were the community officials who rebelled against Moses and Aaron and were among Korah's followers when they rebelled against the LORD.

Num 26:10 The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah, whose followers died when the fire devoured the 250 men. And they served as a warning sign.

Num 26:11 The line of Korah, however, did not die out.

Num 26:12 The descendants of Simeon by their clans were: through Nemuel, the Nemuelite clan; through Jamin, the Jaminite clan; through Jakin, the Jakinite clan;

Num 26:13 through Zerah, the Zerahite clan; through Shaul, the Shaulite clan.

Num 26:14 These were the clans of Simeon; there were 22,200 men.

Num 26:15 The descendants of Gad by their clans were: through Zephon, the Zephonite clan; through Haggi, the Haggite clan; through Shuni, the Shunite clan;

Num 26:18 These were the clans of Gad; those numbered were 40,500.

Num 26:19 Er and Onan were sons of Judah, but they died in Canaan.

Num 26:20 The descendants of Judah by their clans were: through Shelah, the Shelanite clan; through Perez, the Perezite clan; through Zerah, the Zerahite clan.

Num 26:21 The descendants of Perez were: through Hezron, the Hezronite clan; through Hamul, the Hamulite clan.

Num 26:22 These were the clans of Judah; those numbered were 76,500.

Num 26:23 The descendants of Issachar by their clans were: through Tola, the Tolaite clan; through Puah, the Puite clan;

Num 26:24 through Jashub, the Jashubite clan; through Shimron, the Shimronite clan.

Num 26:25 These were the clans of Issachar; those numbered were 64,300.

Num 26:26 The descendants of Zebulun by their clans were: through Sered, the Seredite clan; through Elon, the Elonite clan; through Jahleel, the Jahleelite clan.

Num 26:27 These were the clans of Zebulun; those numbered were 60,500.

Num 26:28 The descendants of Joseph by their clans through Manasseh and Ephraim were:

Num 26:29 The descendants of Manasseh: through Makir, the Makirite clan (Makir was the father of Gilead); through Gilead, the Gileadite clan.

Num 26:30 These were the descendants of Gilead: through Iezer, the Iezerite clan; through Helek, the Helekite clan;

Num 26:31 through Asriel, the Asrielite clan; through Shechem, the Shechemite clan;

Num 26:32 through Shemida, the Shemidaite clan; through Hepher, the Hepherite clan.

Num 26:33 (Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons; he had only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.)

Num 26:34 These were the clans of Manasseh; those numbered were 52,700.

Num 26:35 These were the descendants of Ephraim by their clans: through Shuthelah, the Shuthelahite clan; through Beker, the Bekerite clan; through Tahan, the Tahanite clan.

Num 26:36 These were the descendants of Shuthelah: through Eran, the Eranite clan.

Num 26:37 These were the clans of Ephraim; those numbered were 32,500. These were the descendants of Joseph by their clans.

Num 26:38 The descendants of Benjamin by their clans were: through Bela, the Belaite clan; through Ashbel, the Ashbelite clan; through Ahiram, the Ahiramite clan;

Num 26:39 through Shupham, the Shuphamite clan; through Hupham, the Huphamite clan.

Num 26:40 The descendants of Bela through Ard and Naaman were: through Ard, the Ardite clan; through Naaman, the Naamite clan.

Num 26:41 These were the clans of Benjamin; those numbered were 45,600.

Num 26:42 These were the descendants of Dan by their clans: through Shuham, the Shuhamite clan. These were the clans of Dan:

Num 26:43 All of them were Shuhamite clans; and those numbered were 64,400.

Num 26:44 The descendants of Asher by their clans were: through Imnah, the Imnite clan; through Ishvi, the Ishvite clan; through Beriah, the Beriite clan;

Num 26:45 and through the descendants of Beriah: through Heber, the Heberite clan; through Malkiel, the Malkielite clan.

Num 26:46 (Asher had a daughter named Serah.)

Num 26:47 These were the clans of Asher; those numbered were 53,400.

Num 26:48 The descendants of Naphtali by their clans were: through Jahzeel, the Jahzeelite clan; through Guni, the Gunite clan;

Num 26:49 through Jezer, the Jezerite clan; through Shillem, the Shillemite clan.

Num 26:50 These were the clans of Naphtali; those numbered were 45,400.

Num 26:51 The total number of the men of Israel was 601,730.

Num 26:52 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 26:53 "The land is to be allotted to them as an inheritance based on the number of names.

Num 26:54 To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one; each is to receive its inheritance according to the number of those listed.

Num 26:55 Be sure that the land is distributed by lot. What each group inherits will be according to the names for its ancestral tribe.

Num 26:56 Each inheritance is to be distributed by lot among the larger and smaller groups."

Num 26:57 These were the Levites who were counted by their clans: through Gershon, the Gershonite clan; through Kohath, the Kohathite clan; through Merari, the Merarite clan.

Num 26:58 These also were Levite clans: the Libnite clan, the Hebronite clan, the Mahlite clan, the Mushite clan, the Korahite clan. (Kohath was the forefather of Amram;

Num 26:59 the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, a descendant of Levi, who was born to the Levites in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron, Moses and their sister Miriam.

Num 26:60 Aaron was the father of Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Num 26:61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they made an offering before the LORD with unauthorized fire.)

Num 26:62 All the male Levites a month old or more numbered 23,000. They were not counted along with the other Israelites because they received no inheritance among them.

Num 26:63 These are the ones counted by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they counted the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Num 26:64 Not one of them was among those counted by Moses and Aaron the priest when they counted the Israelites in the Desert of Sinai.

Num 26:65 For the LORD had told those Israelites they would surely die in the desert, and not one of them was left except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Num 27:1 The daughters of Zelophehad son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, belonged to the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph. The names of the daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. They approached

Num 27:2 the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders and the whole assembly, and said,

Num 27:3 "Our father died in the desert. He was not among Korah's followers, who banded together against the LORD, but he died for his own sin and left no sons.

Num 27:4 Why should our father's name disappear from his clan because he had no son? Give us property among our father's relatives."

Num 27:5 So Moses brought their case before the LORD

Num 27:6 and the LORD said to him,

Num 27:7 "What Zelophehad's daughters are saying is right. You must certainly give them property as an inheritance among their father's relatives and turn their father's inheritance over to them.

Num 27:8 "Say to the Israelites, 'If a man dies and leaves no son, turn his inheritance over to his daughter.'

Num 27:9 If he has no daughter, give his inheritance to his brothers.

Num 27:10 If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father's brothers.

Num 27:11 If his father had no brothers, give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his clan, that he may possess it. This is to be a legal requirement for the Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses."

Num 27:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go up this mountain in the Abarim range and see the land I have given the Israelites.

Num 27:13 After you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was,

Num 27:14 for when the community rebelled at the waters in the Desert of Zin, both of you disobeyed my command to honor me as holy before their eyes." (These were the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin.)

Num 27:15 Moses said to the LORD,

Num 27:16 "May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all mankind, appoint a man over this community

Num 27:17 to go out and come in before them, one who will lead them out and bring them in, so the LORD's people will not be like sheep without a shepherd."

Num 27:18 So the LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand on him.

Num 27:19 Have him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire assembly and commission him in their presence.

Num 27:20 Give him some of your authority so the whole Israelite community will obey him.

Num 27:21 He is to stand before Eleazar the priest, who will obtain decisions for him by inquiring of the Urim before the LORD. At his command he and the entire community of the Israelites will go out, and at his command they will come in."

Num 27:22 Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole assembly.

Num 27:23 Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as the LORD instructed through Moses.

Num 28:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 28:2 "Give this command to the Israelites and say to them: 'See that you present to me at the appointed time the food for my offerings made by fire, as an aroma pleasing to me.'

Num 28:3 Say to them: 'This is the offering made by fire that you are to present to the LORD: two lambs a year old without defect, as a regular burnt offering each day.'

Num 28:4 Prepare one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight,

Num 28:5 together with a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil from pressed olives.

Num 28:6 This is the regular burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai as a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Num 28:7 The accompanying drink offering is to be a quarter of a hin of fermented drink with each lamb. Pour out the drink offering to the LORD at the sanctuary.

Num 28:8 Prepare the second lamb at twilight, along with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering that you prepare in the morning. This is an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Num 28:9 "On the Sabbath day, make an offering of two lambs a year old without defect, together with its drink offering and a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil.

Num 28:10 This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Num 28:11 "On the first of every month, present to the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Num 28:12 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil;

Num 28:13 and with each lamb, a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil. This is for a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Num 28:14 With each bull there is to be a drink offering of half a hin of wine; with the ram, a third of a hin; and with each lamb, a quarter of a hin. This is the monthly burnt offering to be made at each new moon during the year.

Num 28:15 Besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering, one male goat is to be presented to the LORD as a sin offering.

Num 28:16 "On the fourteenth day of the first month the LORD's Passover is to be held.

Num 28:17 On the fifteenth day of this month there is to be a festival; for seven days eat bread made without yeast.

Num 28:18 On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Num 28:19 Present to the LORD an offering made by fire, a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Num 28:20 With each bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Num 28:21 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Num 28:22 Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

Num 28:23 Prepare these in addition to the regular morning burnt offering.

Num 28:24 In this way prepare the food for the offering made by fire every day for seven days as an aroma pleasing to the LORD; it is to be prepared in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Num 28:25 On the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Num 28:26 "On the day of firstfruits, when you present to the LORD an offering of new grain during the Feast of Weeks, hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Num 28:27 Present a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Num 28:28 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Num 28:29 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Num 28:30 Include one male goat to make atonement for you.

Num 28:31 Prepare these together with their drink offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering. Be sure the animals are without defect.

Num 29:1 "On the first day of the seventh month hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. It is a day for you to sound the trumpets.

Num 29:2 As an aroma pleasing to the LORD, prepare a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Num 29:3 With the bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Num 29:4 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Num 29:5 Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

Num 29:6 These are in addition to the monthly and daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and drink offerings as specified. They are offerings made to the LORD by fire-- a pleasing aroma.

Num 29:7 "On the tenth day of this seventh month hold a sacred assembly. You must deny yourselves and do no work.

Num 29:8 Present as an aroma pleasing to the LORD a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Num 29:9 With the bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Num 29:10 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Num 29:11 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering for atonement and the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Num 29:12 "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. Celebrate a festival to the LORD for seven days.

Num 29:13 Present an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, a burnt offering of thirteen young bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Num 29:14 With each of the thirteen bulls prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with each of the two rams, two-tenths;

Num 29:15 and with each of the fourteen lambs, one-tenth.

Num 29:16 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Num 29:17 "On the second day prepare twelve young bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Num 29:35 "On the eighth day hold an assembly and do no regular work.

Num 29:39 "In addition to what you vow and your freewill offerings, prepare these for the LORD at your appointed feasts: your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings and fellowship offerings. "

Num 29:40 Moses told the Israelites all that the LORD commanded him.

Num 30:1 Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: "This is what the LORD commands:

Num 30:2 When a man makes a vow to the LORD or takes an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said.

Num 30:3 "When a young woman still living in her father's house makes a vow to the LORD or obligates herself by a pledge

Num 30:4 and her father hears about her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then all her vows and every pledge by which she obligated herself will stand.

Num 30:5 But if her father forbids her when he hears about it, none of her vows or the pledges by which she obligated herself will stand; the LORD will release her because her father has forbidden her.

Num 30:6 "If she marries after she makes a vow or after her lips utter a rash promise by which she obligates herself

Num 30:7 and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her, then her vows or the pledges by which she obligated herself will stand.

Num 30:8 But if her husband forbids her when he hears about it, he nullifies the vow that obligates her or the rash promise by which she obligates herself, and the LORD will release her.

Num 30:9 "Any vow or obligation taken by a widow or divorced woman will be binding on her.

Num 30:10 "If a woman living with her husband makes a vow or obligates herself by a pledge under oath

Num 30:11 and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her and does not forbid her, then all her vows or the pledges by which she obligated herself will stand.

Num 30:12 But if her husband nullifies them when he hears about them, then none of the vows or pledges that came from her lips will stand. Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will release her.

Num 30:13 Her husband may confirm or nullify any vow she makes or any sworn pledge to deny herself.

Num 30:14 But if her husband says nothing to her about it from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or the pledges binding on her. He confirms them by saying nothing to her when he hears about them.

Num 30:15 If, however, he nullifies them some time after he hears about them, then he is responsible for her guilt."

Num 30:16 These are the regulations the LORD gave Moses concerning relationships between a man and his wife, and between a father and his young daughter still living in his house.

Num 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 31:2 "Take vengeance on the Midianites for the Israelites. After that, you will be gathered to your people."

Num 31:3 So Moses said to the people, "Arm some of your men to go to war against the Midianites and to carry out the LORD's vengeance on them.

Num 31:4 Send into battle a thousand men from each of the tribes of Israel."

Num 31:5 So twelve thousand men armed for battle, a thousand from each tribe, were supplied from the clans of Israel.

Num 31:6 Moses sent them into battle, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, who took with him articles from the sanctuary and the trumpets for signaling.

Num 31:7 They fought against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses, and killed every man.

Num 31:8 Among their victims were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba-- the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

Num 31:9 The Israelites captured the Midianite women and children and took all the Midianite herds, flocks and goods as plunder.

Num 31:10 They burned all the towns where the Midianites had settled, as well as all their camps.

Num 31:11 They took all the plunder and spoils, including the people and animals,

Num 31:12 and brought the captives, spoils and plunder to Moses and Eleazar the priest and the Israelite assembly at their camp on the plains of Moab, by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Num 31:13 Moses, Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the community went to meet them outside the camp.

Num 31:14 Moses was angry with the officers of the army-- the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds-- who returned from the battle.

Num 31:15 "Have you allowed all the women to live?" he asked them.

Num 31:16 "They were the ones who followed Balaam's advice and were the means of turning the Israelites away from the LORD in what happened at Peor, so that a plague struck the LORD's people.

Num 31:17 Now kill all the boys. And kill every woman who has slept with a man,

Num 31:18 but save for yourselves every girl who has never slept with a man.

Num 31:19 "All of you who have killed anyone or touched anyone who was killed must stay outside the camp seven days. On the third and seventh days you must purify yourselves and your captives.

Num 31:20 Purify every garment as well as everything made of leather, goat hair or wood."

Num 31:21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone into battle, "This is the requirement of the law that the LORD gave Moses:

Num 31:22 Gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, lead

Num 31:23 and anything else that can withstand fire must be put through the fire, and then it will be clean. But it must also be purified with the water of cleansing. And whatever cannot withstand fire must be put through that water.

Num 31:24 On the seventh day wash your clothes and you will be clean. Then you may come into the camp."

Num 31:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 31:26 "You and Eleazar the priest and the family heads of the community are to count all the people and animals that were captured.

Num 31:27 Divide the spoils between the soldiers who took part in the battle and the rest of the community.

Num 31:28 From the soldiers who fought in the battle, set apart as tribute for the LORD one out of every five hundred, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep or goats.

Num 31:29 Take this tribute from their half share and give it to Eleazar the priest as the LORD's part.

Num 31:30 From the Israelites' half, select one out of every fifty, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats or other animals. Give them to the Levites, who are responsible for the care of the LORD's tabernacle."

Num 31:31 So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 31:32 The plunder remaining from the spoils that the soldiers took was 675,000 sheep,
Num 31:33 72,000 cattle,
Num 31:34 61,000 donkeys
Num 31:35 and 32,000 women who had never slept with a man.
Num 31:36 The half share of those who fought in the battle was: 337,500 sheep,
Num 31:37 of which the tribute for the LORD was 675;
Num 31:38 36,000 cattle, of which the tribute for the LORD was 72;
Num 31:39 30,500 donkeys, of which the tribute for the LORD was 61;
Num 31:40 16,000 people, of which the tribute for the LORD was 32.
Num 31:41 Moses gave the tribute to Eleazar the priest as the LORD's part, as the LORD commanded Moses.
Num 31:42 The half belonging to the Israelites, which Moses set apart from that of the fighting men--
Num 31:43 the community's half-- was 337,500 sheep,
Num 31:44 36,000 cattle,
Num 31:45 30,500 donkeys
Num 31:46 and 16,000 people.
Num 31:47 From the Israelites' half, Moses selected one out of every fifty persons and animals, as the LORD commanded him, and gave them to the Levites, who were responsible for the care of the LORD's tabernacle.
Num 31:48 Then the officers who were over the units of the army-- the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds-- went to Moses
Num 31:49 and said to him, "Your servants have counted the soldiers under our command, and not one is missing.
Num 31:50 So we have brought as an offering to the LORD the gold articles each of us acquired-- armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings and necklaces-- to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD."
Num 31:51 Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted from them the gold-- all the crafted articles.
Num 31:52 All the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds that Moses and Eleazar presented as a gift to the LORD weighed 16,750 shekels.
Num 31:53 Each soldier had taken plunder for himself.
Num 31:54 Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.
Num 32:1 The Reubenites and Gadites, who had very large herds and flocks, saw that the lands of Jazer and Gilead were suitable for livestock.
Num 32:2 So they came to Moses and Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the community, and said,
Num 32:3 "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon--
Num 32:4 the land the LORD subdued before the people of Israel-- are suitable for livestock, and your servants have livestock.
Num 32:5 If we have found favor in your eyes," they said, "let this land be given to your servants as our possession. Do not make us cross the Jordan."
Num 32:6 Moses said to the Gadites and Reubenites, "Shall your countrymen go to war while you sit here?
Num 32:7 Why do you discourage the Israelites from going over into the land the LORD has given them?
Num 32:8 This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to look over the land.
Num 32:9 After they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and viewed the land, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the land the LORD had given them.
Num 32:10 The LORD's anger was aroused that day and he swore this oath:
Num 32:11 'Because they have not followed me wholeheartedly, not one of the men twenty years old or more who came up out of Egypt will see the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob--
Num 32:12 not one except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they followed the LORD wholeheartedly.'
Num 32:13 The LORD's anger burned against Israel and he made them wander in the desert forty years, until the whole generation of those who had done evil in his sight was gone.
Num 32:14 "And here you are, a brood of sinners, standing in the place of your fathers and making the LORD even more angry with Israel.
Num 32:15 If you turn away from following him, he will again leave all this people in the desert, and you will be the cause of their destruction."
Num 32:16 Then they came up to him and said, "We would like to build pens here for our livestock and cities for our women and children.
Num 32:17 But we are ready to arm ourselves and go ahead of the Israelites until we have brought them to their place. Meanwhile our women and children will live in fortified cities, for protection from the inhabitants of the land.

Num 32:18 We will not return to our homes until every Israelite has received his inheritance.

Num 32:19 We will not receive any inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan, because our inheritance has come to us on the east side of the Jordan."

Num 32:20 Then Moses said to them, "If you will do this-- if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for battle,

Num 32:21 and if all of you will go armed over the Jordan before the LORD until he has driven his enemies out before him--

Num 32:22 then when the land is subdued before the LORD, you may return and be free from your obligation to the LORD and to Israel. And this land will be your possession before the LORD.

Num 32:23 "But if you fail to do this, you will be sinning against the LORD; and you may be sure that your sin will find you out.

Num 32:24 Build cities for your women and children, and pens for your flocks, but do what you have promised."

Num 32:25 The Gadites and Reubenites said to Moses, "We your servants will do as our lord commands.

Num 32:26 Our children and wives, our flocks and herds will remain here in the cities of Gilead.

Num 32:27 But your servants, every man armed for battle, will cross over to fight before the LORD, just as our lord says."

Num 32:28 Then Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun and to the family heads of the Israelite tribes.

Num 32:29 He said to them, "If the Gadites and Reubenites, every man armed for battle, cross over the Jordan with you before the LORD, then when the land is subdued before you, give them the land of Gilead as their possession.

Num 32:30 But if they do not cross over with you armed, they must accept their possession with you in Canaan."

Num 32:31 The Gadites and Reubenites answered, "Your servants will do what the LORD has said.

Num 32:32 We will cross over before the LORD into Canaan armed, but the property we inherit will be on this side of the Jordan."

Num 32:33 Then Moses gave to the Gadites, the Reubenites and the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan-- the whole land with its cities and the territory around them.

Num 32:34 The Gadites built up Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,

Num 32:35 Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,

Num 32:36 Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran as fortified cities, and built pens for their flocks.

Num 32:37 And the Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh and Kiriathaim,

Num 32:38 as well as Nebo and Baal Meon (these names were changed) and Sibmah. They gave names to the cities they rebuilt.

Num 32:39 The descendants of Makir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Num 32:40 So Moses gave Gilead to the Makirites, the descendants of Manasseh, and they settled there.

Num 32:41 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, captured their settlements and called them Havvoth Jair.

Num 32:42 And Nobah captured Kenath and its surrounding settlements and called it Nobah after himself.

Num 33:1 Here are the stages in the journey of the Israelites when they came out of Egypt by divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Num 33:2 At the LORD's command Moses recorded the stages in their journey. This is their journey by stages:

Num 33:3 The Israelites set out from Rameses on the fifteenth day of the first month, the day after the Passover. They marched out boldly in full view of all the Egyptians,

Num 33:4 who were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck down among them; for the LORD had brought judgment on their gods.

Num 33:5 The Israelites left Rameses and camped at Succoth.

Num 33:6 They left Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the desert.

Num 33:7 They left Etham, turned back to Pi Hahiroth, to the east of Baal Zephon, and camped near Migdol.

Num 33:8 They left Pi Hahiroth and passed through the sea into the desert, and when they had traveled for three days in the Desert of Etham, they camped at Marah.

Num 33:9 They left Marah and went to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

Num 33:10 They left Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

Num 33:11 They left the Red Sea and camped in the Desert of Sin.

Num 33:12 They left the Desert of Sin and camped at Dophkah.

Num 33:13 They left Dophkah and camped at Alush.

Num 33:14 They left Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

Num 33:15 They left Rephidim and camped in the Desert of Sinai.

Num 33:16 They left the Desert of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.
Num 33:17 They left Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.
Num 33:18 They left Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.
Num 33:19 They left Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.
Num 33:20 They left Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.
Num 33:21 They left Libnah and camped at Rissah.
Num 33:22 They left Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
Num 33:23 They left Kehelathah and camped at Mount Sheper.
Num 33:24 They left Mount Sheper and camped at Haradah.
Num 33:25 They left Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
Num 33:26 They left Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
Num 33:27 They left Tahath and camped at Terah.
Num 33:28 They left Terah and camped at Mithcah.
Num 33:29 They left Mithcah and camped at Hashmonah.
Num 33:30 They left Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
Num 33:31 They left Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan.
Num 33:32 They left Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad.
Num 33:33 They left Hor Haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
Num 33:34 They left Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
Num 33:35 They left Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber.
Num 33:36 They left Ezion Geber and camped at Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin.
Num 33:37 They left Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the border of Edom.
Num 33:38 At the LORD's command Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor, where he died on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the Israelites came out of Egypt.
Num 33:39 Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.
Num 33:40 The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev of Canaan, heard that the Israelites were coming.
Num 33:41 They left Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.
Num 33:42 They left Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
Num 33:43 They left Punon and camped at Oboth.
Num 33:44 They left Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim, on the border of Moab.
Num 33:45 They left Iyim and camped at Dibon Gad.
Num 33:46 They left Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim.
Num 33:47 They left Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, near Nebo.
Num 33:48 They left the mountains of Abarim and camped on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.
Num 33:49 There on the plains of Moab they camped along the Jordan from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim.
Num 33:50 On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho the LORD said to Moses,
Num 33:51 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you cross the Jordan into Canaan,
Num 33:52 drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you. Destroy all their carved images and their cast idols, and demolish all their high places.
Num 33:53 Take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given you the land to possess.
Num 33:54 Distribute the land by lot, according to your clans. To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one. Whatever falls to them by lot will be theirs. Distribute it according to your ancestral tribes.
Num 33:55 "But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land, those you allow to remain will become barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will give you trouble in the land where you will live.
Num 33:56 And then I will do to you what I plan to do to them."
Num 34:1 The LORD said to Moses,
Num 34:2 "Command the Israelites and say to them: 'When you enter Canaan, the land that will be allotted to you as an inheritance will have these boundaries:
Num 34:3 "Your southern side will include some of the Desert of Zin along the border of Edom. On the east, your southern boundary will start from the end of the Salt Sea,
Num 34:4 cross south of Scorpion Pass, continue on to Zin and go south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it will go to Hazar Addar and over to Azmon,
Num 34:5 where it will turn, join the Wadi of Egypt and end at the Sea.
Num 34:6 "Your western boundary will be the coast of the Great Sea. This will be your boundary on the west.
Num 34:7 "For your northern boundary, run a line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor
Num 34:8 and from Mount Hor to Lebo Hamath. Then the boundary will go to Zedad,

Num 34:9 continue to Ziphron and end at Hazar Enan. This will be your boundary on the north.

Num 34:10 "For your eastern boundary, run a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

Num 34:11 The boundary will go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain and continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Kinnereth.

Num 34:12 Then the boundary will go down along the Jordan and end at the Salt Sea. "This will be your land, with its boundaries on every side."

Num 34:13 Moses commanded the Israelites: "Assign this land by lot as an inheritance. The LORD has ordered that it be given to the nine and a half tribes,

Num 34:14 because the families of the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance.

Num 34:15 These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan of Jericho, toward the sunrise."

Num 34:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 34:17 "These are the names of the men who are to assign the land for you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun.

Num 34:18 And appoint one leader from each tribe to help assign the land.

Num 34:19 These are their names: Caleb son of Jephunneh, from the tribe of Judah;

Num 34:20 Shemuel son of Ammihud, from the tribe of Simeon;

Num 34:21 Elidad son of Kislon, from the tribe of Benjamin;

Num 34:22 Bukki son of Jogli, the leader from the tribe of Dan;

Num 34:23 Hanniel son of Ephod, the leader from the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph;

Num 34:24 Kemuel son of Shiptan, the leader from the tribe of Ephraim son of Joseph;

Num 34:25 Elizaphan son of Parnach, the leader from the tribe of Zebulun;

Num 34:26 Paltiel son of Azzan, the leader from the tribe of Issachar;

Num 34:27 Ahihud son of Shelomi, the leader from the tribe of Asher;

Num 34:28 Pedahel son of Ammihud, the leader from the tribe of Naphtali."

Num 34:29 These are the men the LORD commanded to assign the inheritance to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

Num 35:1 On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, the LORD said to Moses,

Num 35:2 "Command the Israelites to give the Levites towns to live in from the inheritance the Israelites will possess. And give them pasturelands around the towns.

Num 35:3 Then they will have towns to live in and pasturelands for their cattle, flocks and all their other livestock.

Num 35:4 "The pasturelands around the towns that you give the Levites will extend out fifteen hundred feet from the town wall.

Num 35:5 Outside the town, measure three thousand feet on the east side, three thousand on the south side, three thousand on the west and three thousand on the north, with the town in the center. They will have this area as pastureland for the towns.

Num 35:6 "Six of the towns you give the Levites will be cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone may flee. In addition, give them forty-two other towns.

Num 35:7 In all you must give the Levites forty-eight towns, together with their pasturelands.

Num 35:8 The towns you give the Levites from the land the Israelites possess are to be given in proportion to the inheritance of each tribe: Take many towns from a tribe that has many, but few from one that has few."

Num 35:9 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Num 35:10 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you cross the Jordan into Canaan,

Num 35:11 select some towns to be your cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone accidentally may flee.

Num 35:12 They will be places of refuge from the avenger, so that a person accused of murder may not die before he stands trial before the assembly.

Num 35:13 These six towns you give will be your cities of refuge.

Num 35:14 Give three on this side of the Jordan and three in Canaan as cities of refuge.

Num 35:15 These six towns will be a place of refuge for Israelites, aliens and any other people living among them, so that anyone who has killed another accidentally can flee there.

Num 35:16 "If a man strikes someone with an iron object so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Num 35:17 Or if anyone has a stone in his hand that could kill, and he strikes someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Num 35:18 Or if anyone has a wooden object in his hand that could kill, and he hits someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Num 35:19 The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.

Num 35:20 If anyone with malice aforethought shoves another or throws something at him intentionally so that he dies

Num 35:21 or if in hostility he hits him with his fist so that he dies, that person shall be put to death; he is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

Num 35:22 "But if without hostility someone suddenly shoves another or throws something at him unintentionally

Num 35:23 or, without seeing him, drops a stone on him that could kill him, and he dies, then since he was not his enemy and he did not intend to harm him,

Num 35:24 the assembly must judge between him and the avenger of blood according to these regulations.

Num 35:25 The assembly must protect the one accused of murder from the avenger of blood and send him back to the city of refuge to which he fled. He must stay there until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

Num 35:26 "But if the accused ever goes outside the limits of the city of refuge to which he has fled

Num 35:27 and the avenger of blood finds him outside the city, the avenger of blood may kill the accused without being guilty of murder.

Num 35:28 The accused must stay in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; only after the death of the high priest may he return to his own property.

Num 35:29 "These are to be legal requirements for you throughout the generations to come, wherever you live.

Num 35:30 "Anyone who kills a person is to be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of witnesses. But no one is to be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Num 35:31 "Do not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer, who deserves to die. He must surely be put to death.

Num 35:32 "Do not accept a ransom for anyone who has fled to a city of refuge and so allow him to go back and live on his own land before the death of the high priest.

Num 35:33 "Do not pollute the land where you are. Bloodshed pollutes the land, and atonement cannot be made for the land on which blood has been shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it.

Num 35:34 Do not defile the land where you live and where I dwell, for I, the LORD, dwell among the Israelites."

Num 36:1 The family heads of the clan of Gilead son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, who were from the clans of the descendants of Joseph, came and spoke before Moses and the leaders, the heads of the Israelite families.

Num 36:2 They said, "When the LORD commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance to the Israelites by lot, he ordered you to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

Num 36:3 Now suppose they marry men from other Israelite tribes; then their inheritance will be taken from our ancestral inheritance and added to that of the tribe they marry into. And so part of the inheritance allotted to us will be taken away.

Num 36:4 When the Year of Jubilee for the Israelites comes, their inheritance will be added to that of the tribe into which they marry, and their property will be taken from the tribal inheritance of our forefathers."

Num 36:5 Then at the LORD's command Moses gave this order to the Israelites: "What the tribe of the descendants of Joseph is saying is right.

Num 36:6 This is what the LORD commands for Zelophehad's daughters: They may marry anyone they please as long as they marry within the tribal clan of their father.

Num 36:7 No inheritance in Israel is to pass from tribe to tribe, for every Israelite shall keep the tribal land inherited from his forefathers.

Num 36:8 Every daughter who inherits land in any Israelite tribe must marry someone in her father's tribal clan, so that every Israelite will possess the inheritance of his fathers.

Num 36:9 No inheritance may pass from tribe to tribe, for each Israelite tribe is to keep the land it inherits."

Num 36:10 So Zelophehad's daughters did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 36:11 Zelophehad's daughters-- Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah-- married their cousins on their father's side.

Num 36:12 They married within the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in their father's clan and tribe.

Num 36:13 These are the commands and regulations the LORD gave through Moses to the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Deu 1:1 These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel in the desert east of the Jordan-- that is, in the Arabah-- opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Dizahab.

Deu 1:2 (It takes eleven days to go from Horeb to Kadesh Barnea by the Mount Seir road.)

Deu 1:3 In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses proclaimed to the Israelites all that the LORD had commanded him concerning them.

Deu 1:4 This was after he had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and at Edrei had defeated Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

Deu 1:5 East of the Jordan in the territory of Moab, Moses began to expound this law, saying:

Deu 1:6 The LORD our God said to us at Horeb, "You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

Deu 1:7 Break camp and advance into the hill country of the Amorites; go to all the neighboring peoples in the Arabah, in the mountains, in the western foothills, in the Negev and along the coast, to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates.

Deu 1:8 See, I have given you this land. Go in and take possession of the land that the LORD swore he would give to your fathers-- to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob-- and to their descendants after them."

Deu 1:9 At that time I said to you, "You are too heavy a burden for me to carry alone.

Deu 1:10 The LORD your God has increased your numbers so that today you are as many as the stars in the sky.

Deu 1:11 May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times and bless you as he has promised!

Deu 1:12 But how can I bear your problems and your burdens and your disputes all by myself?

Deu 1:13 Choose some wise, understanding and respected men from each of your tribes, and I will set them over you."

Deu 1:14 You answered me, "What you propose to do is good."

Deu 1:15 So I took the leading men of your tribes, wise and respected men, and appointed them to have authority over you-- as commanders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens and as tribal officials.

Deu 1:16 And I charged your judges at that time: Hear the disputes between your brothers and judge fairly, whether the case is between brother Israelites or between one of them and an alien.

Deu 1:17 Do not show partiality in judging; hear both small and great alike. Do not be afraid of any man, for judgment belongs to God. Bring me any case too hard for you, and I will hear it.

Deu 1:18 And at that time I told you everything you were to do.

Deu 1:19 Then, as the LORD our God commanded us, we set out from Horeb and went toward the hill country of the Amorites through all that vast and dreadful desert that you have seen, and so we reached Kadesh Barnea.

Deu 1:20 Then I said to you, "You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.

Deu 1:21 See, the LORD your God has given you the land. Go up and take possession of it as the LORD, the God of your fathers, told you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged."

Deu 1:22 Then all of you came to me and said, "Let us send men ahead to spy out the land for us and bring back a report about the route we are to take and the towns we will come to."

Deu 1:23 The idea seemed good to me; so I selected twelve of you, one man from each tribe.

Deu 1:24 They left and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and explored it.

Deu 1:25 Taking with them some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and reported, "It is a good land that the LORD our God is giving us."

Deu 1:26 But you were unwilling to go up; you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God.

Deu 1:27 You grumbled in your tents and said, "The LORD hates us; so he brought us out of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us."

Deu 1:28 Where can we go? Our brothers have made us lose heart. They say, 'The people are stronger and taller than we are; the cities are large, with walls up to the sky. We even saw the Anakites there.'"

Deu 1:29 Then I said to you, "Do not be terrified; do not be afraid of them."

Deu 1:30 The LORD your God, who is going before you, will fight for you, as he did for you in Egypt, before your very eyes,

Deu 1:31 and in the desert. There you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a father carries his son, all the way you went until you reached this place."

Deu 1:32 In spite of this, you did not trust in the LORD your God,

Deu 1:33 who went ahead of you on your journey, in fire by night and in a cloud by day, to search out places for you to camp and to show you the way you should go.

Deu 1:34 When the LORD heard what you said, he was angry and solemnly swore:

Deu 1:35 "Not a man of this evil generation shall see the good land I swore to give your forefathers,

Deu 1:36 except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land he set his feet on, because he followed the LORD wholeheartedly."

Deu 1:37 Because of you the LORD became angry with me also and said, "You shall not enter it, either."

Deu 1:38 But your assistant, Joshua son of Nun, will enter it. Encourage him, because he will lead Israel to inherit it.

Deu 1:39 And the little ones that you said would be taken captive, your children who do not yet know good from bad-- they will enter the land. I will give it to them and they will take possession of it.

Deu 1:40 But as for you, turn around and set out toward the desert along the route to the Red Sea."

Deu 1:41 Then you replied, "We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight, as the LORD our God commanded us." So every one of you put on his weapons, thinking it easy to go up into the hill country.

Deu 1:42 But the LORD said to me, "Tell them, 'Do not go up and fight, because I will not be with you. You will be defeated by your enemies.'"

Deu 1:43 So I told you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the LORD's command and in your arrogance you marched up into the hill country.

Deu 1:44 The Amorites who lived in those hills came out against you; they chased you like a swarm of bees and beat you down from Seir all the way to Hormah.

Deu 1:45 You came back and wept before the LORD, but he paid no attention to your weeping and turned a deaf ear to you.

Deu 1:46 And so you stayed in Kadesh many days-- all the time you spent there.

Deu 2:1 Then we turned back and set out toward the desert along the route to the Red Sea, as the LORD had directed me. For a long time we made our way around the hill country of Seir.

Deu 2:2 Then the LORD said to me,

Deu 2:3 "You have made your way around this hill country long enough; now turn north.

Deu 2:4 Give the people these orders: 'You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, but be very careful.'

Deu 2:5 Do not provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land, not even enough to put your foot on. I have given Esau the hill country of Seir as his own.

Deu 2:6 You are to pay them in silver for the food you eat and the water you drink...'"

Deu 2:7 The LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched over your journey through this vast desert. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you, and you have not lacked anything.

Deu 2:8 So we went on past our brothers the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We turned from the Arabah road, which comes up from Elath and Ezion Geber, and traveled along the desert road of Moab.

Deu 2:9 Then the LORD said to me, "Do not harass the Moabites or provoke them to war, for I will not give you any part of their land. I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession."

Deu 2:10 (The Emrites used to live there-- a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites.)

Deu 2:11 Like the Anakites, they too were considered Rephaites, but the Moabites called them Emrites.

Deu 2:12 Horites used to live in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out. They destroyed the Horites from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did in the land the LORD gave them as their possession.)

Deu 2:13 And the LORD said, "Now get up and cross the Zered Valley." So we crossed the valley.

Deu 2:14 Thirty-eight years passed from the time we left Kadesh Barnea until we crossed the Zered Valley. By then, that entire generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them.

Deu 2:15 The LORD's hand was against them until he had completely eliminated them from the camp.

Deu 2:16 Now when the last of these fighting men among the people had died,

Deu 2:17 the LORD said to me,

Deu 2:18 "Today you are to pass by the region of Moab at Ar.

Deu 2:19 When you come to the Ammonites, do not harass them or provoke them to war, for I will not give you possession of any land belonging to the Ammonites. I have given it as a possession to the descendants of Lot."

Deu 2:20 (That too was considered a land of the Rephaites, who used to live there; but the Ammonites called them Zamzummites.)

Deu 2:21 They were a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites. The LORD destroyed them from before the Ammonites, who drove them out and settled in their place.

Deu 2:22 The LORD had done the same for the descendants of Esau, who lived in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them. They drove them out and have lived in their place to this day.

Deu 2:23 And as for the Avvites who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites coming out from Caphtor destroyed them and settled in their place.)

Deu 2:24 "Set out now and cross the Arnon Gorge. See, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his country. Begin to take possession of it and engage him in battle.

Deu 2:25 This very day I will begin to put the terror and fear of you on all the nations under heaven. They will hear reports of you and will tremble and be in anguish because of you."

Deu 2:26 From the desert of Kedemoth I sent messengers to Sihon king of Heshbon offering peace and saying,

Deu 2:27 "Let us pass through your country. We will stay on the main road; we will not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Deu 2:28 Sell us food to eat and water to drink for their price in silver. Only let us pass through on foot--

Deu 2:29 as the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, did for us-- until we cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us."

Deu 2:30 But Sihon king of Heshbon refused to let us pass through. For the LORD your God had made his spirit stubborn and his heart obstinate in order to give him into your hands, as he has now done.

Deu 2:31 The LORD said to me, "See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his country over to you. Now begin to conquer and possess his land."

Deu 2:32 When Sihon and all his army came out to meet us in battle at Jahaz,

Deu 2:33 the LORD our God delivered him over to us and we struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army.

Deu 2:34 At that time we took all his towns and completely destroyed them-- men, women and children. We left no survivors.

Deu 2:35 But the livestock and the plunder from the towns we had captured we carried off for ourselves.

Deu 2:36 From Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the gorge, even as far as Gilead, not one town was too strong for us. The LORD our God gave us all of them.

Deu 2:37 But in accordance with the command of the LORD our God, you did not encroach on any of the land of the Ammonites, neither the land along the course of the Jabbok nor that around the towns in the hills.

Deu 3:1 Next we turned and went up along the road toward Bashan, and Og king of Bashan with his whole army marched out to meet us in battle at Edrei.

Deu 3:2 The LORD said to me, "Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon."

Deu 3:3 So the LORD our God also gave into our hands Og king of Bashan and all his army. We struck them down, leaving no survivors.

Deu 3:4 At that time we took all his cities. There was not one of the sixty cities that we did not take from them-- the whole region of Argob, Og's kingdom in Bashan.

Deu 3:5 All these cities were fortified with high walls and with gates and bars, and there were also a great many unwalled villages.

Deu 3:6 We completely destroyed them, as we had done with Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying every city-- men, women and children.

Deu 3:7 But all the livestock and the plunder from their cities we carried off for ourselves.

Deu 3:8 So at that time we took from these two kings of the Amorites the territory east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge as far as Mount Hermon.

Deu 3:9 (Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians; the Amorites call it Senir.)

Deu 3:10 We took all the towns on the plateau, and all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, towns of Og's kingdom in Bashan.

Deu 3:11 (Only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaites. His bed was made of iron and was more than thirteen feet long and six feet wide. It is still in Rabbah of the Ammonites.)

Deu 3:12 Of the land that we took over at that time, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory north of Aroer by the Arnon Gorge, including half the hill country of Gilead, together with its towns.

Deu 3:13 The rest of Gilead and also all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh. (The whole region of Argob in Bashan used to be known as a land of the Rephaites.)

Deu 3:14 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites; it was named after him, so that to this day Bashan is called Havvoth Jair.)

Deu 3:15 And I gave Gilead to Makir.

Deu 3:16 But to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory extending from Gilead down to the Arnon Gorge (the middle of the gorge being the border) and out to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites.

Deu 3:17 Its western border was the Jordan in the Arabah, from Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deu 3:18 I commanded you at that time: "The LORD your God has given you this land to take possession of it. But all your able-bodied men, armed for battle, must cross over ahead of your brother Israelites.

Deu 3:19 However, your wives, your children and your livestock (I know you have much livestock) may stay in the towns I have given you,

Deu 3:20 until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as he has to you, and they too have taken over the land that the LORD your God is giving them, across the Jordan. After that, each of you may go back to the possession I have given you."

Deu 3:21 At that time I commanded Joshua: "You have seen with your own eyes all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. The LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms over there where you are going.

Deu 3:22 Do not be afraid of them; the LORD your God himself will fight for you."

Deu 3:23 At that time I pleaded with the LORD:

Deu 3:24 "O Sovereign LORD, you have begun to show to your servant your greatness and your strong hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do the deeds and mighty works you do?"

Deu 3:25 Let me go over and see the good land beyond the Jordan-- that fine hill country and Lebanon."

Deu 3:26 But because of you the LORD was angry with me and would not listen to me. "That is enough," the LORD said. "Do not speak to me anymore about this matter.

Deu 3:27 Go up to the top of Pisgah and look west and north and south and east. Look at the land with your own eyes, since you are not going to cross this Jordan.

Deu 3:28 But commission Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he will lead this people across and will cause them to inherit the land that you will see."

Deu 3:29 So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.

Deu 4:1 Hear now, O Israel, the decrees and laws I am about to teach you. Follow them so that you may live and may go in and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

Deu 4:2 Do not add to what I command you and do not subtract from it, but keep the commands of the LORD your God that I give you.

Deu 4:3 You saw with your own eyes what the LORD did at Baal Peor. The LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor, Deu 4:4 but all of you who held fast to the LORD your God are still alive today.

Deu 4:5 See, I have taught you decrees and laws as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to take possession of it.

Deu 4:6 Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these decrees and say, "Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people."

Deu 4:7 What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him?

Deu 4:8 And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous decrees and laws as this body of laws I am setting before you today?

Deu 4:9 Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them.

Deu 4:10 Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when he said to me, "Assemble the people before me to hear my words so that they may learn to revere me as long as they live in the land and may teach them to their children."

Deu 4:11 You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain while it blazed with fire to the very heavens, with black clouds and deep darkness.

Deu 4:12 Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form; there was only a voice.

Deu 4:13 He declared to you his covenant, the Ten Commandments, which he commanded you to follow and then wrote them on two stone tablets.

Deu 4:14 And the LORD directed me at that time to teach you the decrees and laws you are to follow in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

Deu 4:15 You saw no form of any kind the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire. Therefore watch yourselves very carefully,

Deu 4:16 so that you do not become corrupt and make for yourselves an idol, an image of any shape, whether formed like a man or a woman,

Deu 4:17 or like any animal on earth or any bird that flies in the air,

Deu 4:18 or like any creature that moves along the ground or any fish in the waters below.

Deu 4:19 And when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon and the stars-- all the heavenly array-- do not be enticed into bowing down to them and worshiping things the LORD your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven.

Deu 4:20 But as for you, the LORD took you and brought you out of the iron-smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to be the people of his inheritance, as you now are.

Deu 4:21 The LORD was angry with me because of you, and he solemnly swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance.

Deu 4:22 I will die in this land; I will not cross the Jordan; but you are about to cross over and take possession of that good land.

Deu 4:23 Be careful not to forget the covenant of the LORD your God that he made with you; do not make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything the LORD your God has forbidden.

Deu 4:24 For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

Deu 4:25 After you have had children and grandchildren and have lived in the land a long time-- if you then become corrupt and make any kind of idol, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God and provoking him to anger,

Deu 4:26 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day that you will quickly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You will not live there long but will certainly be destroyed.

Deu 4:27 The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and only a few of you will survive among the nations to which the LORD will drive you.

Deu 4:28 There you will worship man-made gods of wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or eat or smell.

Deu 4:29 But if from there you seek the LORD your God, you will find him if you look for him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 4:30 When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, then in later days you will return to the LORD your God and obey him.

Deu 4:31 For the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not abandon or destroy you or forget the covenant with your forefathers, which he confirmed to them by oath.

Deu 4:32 Ask now about the former days, long before your time, from the day God created man on the earth; ask from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything so great as this ever happened, or has anything like it ever been heard of?

Deu 4:33 Has any other people heard the voice of God speaking out of fire, as you have, and lived?

Deu 4:34 Has any god ever tried to take for himself one nation out of another nation, by testings, by miraculous signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, or by great and awesome deeds, like all the things the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

Deu 4:35 You were shown these things so that you might know that the LORD is God; besides him there is no other.

Deu 4:36 From heaven he made you hear his voice to discipline you. On earth he showed you his great fire, and you heard his words from out of the fire.

Deu 4:37 Because he loved your forefathers and chose their descendants after them, he brought you out of Egypt by his Presence and his great strength,

Deu 4:38 to drive out before you nations greater and stronger than you and to bring you into their land to give it to you for your inheritance, as it is today.

Deu 4:39 Acknowledge and take to heart this day that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other.

Deu 4:40 Keep his decrees and commands, which I am giving you today, so that it may go well with you and your children after you and that you may live long in the land the LORD your God gives you for all time.

Deu 4:41 Then Moses set aside three cities east of the Jordan,

Deu 4:42 to which anyone who had killed a person could flee if he had unintentionally killed his neighbor without malice aforethought. He could flee into one of these cities and save his life.

Deu 4:43 The cities were these: Bezer in the desert plateau, for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

Deu 4:44 This is the law Moses set before the Israelites.

Deu 4:45 These are the stipulations, decrees and laws Moses gave them when they came out of Egypt

Deu 4:46 and were in the valley near Beth Peor east of the Jordan, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon and was defeated by Moses and the Israelites as they came out of Egypt.

Deu 4:47 They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan.

Deu 4:48 This land extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge to Mount Siyon (that is, Hermon), Deu 4:49 and included all the Arabah east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deu 5:1 Moses summoned all Israel and said: Hear, O Israel, the decrees and laws I declare in your hearing today. Learn them and be sure to follow them.

Deu 5:2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

Deu 5:3 It was not with our fathers that the LORD made this covenant, but with us, with all of us who are alive here today.

Deu 5:4 The LORD spoke to you face to face out of the fire on the mountain.

Deu 5:5 (At that time I stood between the LORD and you to declare to you the word of the LORD, because you were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:

Deu 5:6 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deu 5:7 "You shall have no other gods before me.

Deu 5:8 "You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.

Deu 5:9 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

Deu 5:10 but showing love to a thousand [generations] of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Deu 5:11 "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Deu 5:12 "Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the LORD your God has commanded you.

Deu 5:13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

Deu 5:14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your ox, your donkey or any of your animals, nor the alien within your gates, so that your manservant and maidservant may rest, as you do.

Deu 5:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.

Deu 5:16 "Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live long and that it may go well with you in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deu 5:17 "You shall not murder.

Deu 5:18 "You shall not commit adultery.

Deu 5:19 "You shall not steal.

Deu 5:20 "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.

Deu 5:21 "You shall not covet your neighbor's wife. You shall not set your desire on your neighbor's house or land, his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

Deu 5:22 These are the commandments the LORD proclaimed in a loud voice to your whole assembly there on the mountain from out of the fire, the cloud and the deep darkness; and he added nothing more. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

Deu 5:23 When you heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was ablaze with fire, all the leading men of your tribes and your elders came to me.

Deu 5:24 And you said, "The LORD our God has shown us his glory and his majesty, and we have heard his voice from the fire. Today we have seen that a man can live even if God speaks with him.

Deu 5:25 But now, why should we die? This great fire will consume us, and we will die if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer.

Deu 5:26 For what mortal man has ever heard the voice of the living God speaking out of fire, as we have, and survived?

Deu 5:27 Go near and listen to all that the LORD our God says. Then tell us whatever the LORD our God tells you. We will listen and obey."

Deu 5:28 The LORD heard you when you spoke to me and the LORD said to me, "I have heard what this people said to you. Everything they said was good.

Deu 5:29 Oh, that their hearts would be inclined to fear me and keep all my commands always, so that it might go well with them and their children forever!

Deu 5:30 "Go, tell them to return to their tents.

Deu 5:31 But you stay here with me so that I may give you all the commands, decrees and laws you are to teach them to follow in the land I am giving them to possess."

Deu 5:32 So be careful to do what the LORD your God has commanded you; do not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Deu 5:33 Walk in all the way that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess.

Deu 6:1 These are the commands, decrees and laws the LORD your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess,

Deu 6:2 so that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD your God as long as you live by keeping all his decrees and commands that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life.

Deu 6:3 Hear, O Israel, and be careful to obey so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

Deu 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one.

Deu 6:5 Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

Deu 6:6 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts.

Deu 6:7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deu 6:8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.

Deu 6:9 Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Deu 6:10 When the LORD your God brings you into the land he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to give you-- a land with large, flourishing cities you did not build,

Deu 6:11 houses filled with all kinds of good things you did not provide, wells you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves you did not plant-- then when you eat and are satisfied,

Deu 6:12 be careful that you do not forget the LORD, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deu 6:13 Fear the LORD your God, serve him only and take your oaths in his name.

Deu 6:14 Do not follow other gods, the gods of the peoples around you;

Deu 6:15 for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a jealous God and his anger will burn against you, and he will destroy you from the face of the land.

Deu 6:16 Do not test the LORD your God as you did at Massah.

Deu 6:17 Be sure to keep the commands of the LORD your God and the stipulations and decrees he has given you.

Deu 6:18 Do what is right and good in the LORD's sight, so that it may go well with you and you may go in and take over the good land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers,

Deu 6:19 thrusting out all your enemies before you, as the LORD said.

Deu 6:20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?"

Deu 6:21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deu 6:22 Before our eyes the LORD sent miraculous signs and wonders-- great and terrible-- upon Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household.

Deu 6:23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land that he promised on oath to our forefathers.

Deu 6:24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today.

Deu 6:25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

Deu 7:1 When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess and drives out before you many nations-- the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations larger and stronger than you--

Deu 7:2 and when the LORD your God has delivered them over to you and you have defeated them, then you must destroy them totally. Make no treaty with them, and show them no mercy.

Deu 7:3 Do not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons,

Deu 7:4 for they will turn your sons away from following me to serve other gods, and the LORD's anger will burn against you and will quickly destroy you.

Deu 7:5 This is what you are to do to them: Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones, cut down their Asherah poles and burn their idols in the fire.

Deu 7:6 For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be his people, his treasured possession.

Deu 7:7 The LORD did not set his affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous than other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.

Deu 7:8 But it was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath he swore to your forefathers that he brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the land of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deu 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commands.

Deu 7:10 But those who hate him he will repay to their face by destruction; he will not be slow to repay to their face those who hate him.

Deu 7:11 Therefore, take care to follow the commands, decrees and laws I give you today.

Deu 7:12 If you pay attention to these laws and are careful to follow them, then the LORD your God will keep his covenant of love with you, as he swore to your forefathers.

Deu 7:13 He will love you and bless you and increase your numbers. He will bless the fruit of your womb, the crops of your land-- your grain, new wine and oil-- the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks in the land that he swore to your forefathers to give you.

Deu 7:14 You will be blessed more than any other people; none of your men or women will be childless, nor any of your livestock without young.

Deu 7:15 The LORD will keep you free from every disease. He will not inflict on you the horrible diseases you knew in Egypt, but he will inflict them on all who hate you.

Deu 7:16 You must destroy all the peoples the LORD your God gives over to you. Do not look on them with pity and do not serve their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

Deu 7:17 You may say to yourselves, "These nations are stronger than we are. How can we drive them out?"

Deu 7:18 But do not be afraid of them; remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt.

Deu 7:19 You saw with your own eyes the great trials, the miraculous signs and wonders, the mighty hand and outstretched arm, with which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples you now fear.

Deu 7:20 Moreover, the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until even the survivors who hide from you have perished.

Deu 7:21 Do not be terrified by them, for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a great and awesome God.

Deu 7:22 The LORD your God will drive out those nations before you, little by little. You will not be allowed to eliminate them all at once, or the wild animals will multiply around you.

Deu 7:23 But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, throwing them into great confusion until they are destroyed.

Deu 7:24 He will give their kings into your hand, and you will wipe out their names from under heaven. No one will be able to stand up against you; you will destroy them.

Deu 7:25 The images of their gods you are to burn in the fire. Do not covet the silver and gold on them, and do not take it for yourselves, or you will be ensnared by it, for it is detestable to the LORD your God.

Deu 7:26 Do not bring a detestable thing into your house or you, like it, will be set apart for destruction. Utterly abhor and detest it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Deu 8:1 Be careful to follow every command I am giving you today, so that you may live and increase and may enter and possess the land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers.

Deu 8:2 Remember how the LORD your God led you all the way in the desert these forty years, to humble you and to test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commands.

Deu 8:3 He humbled you, causing you to hunger and then feeding you with manna, which neither you nor your fathers had known, to teach you that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD.

Deu 8:4 Your clothes did not wear out and your feet did not swell during these forty years.

Deu 8:5 Know then in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God disciplines you.

Deu 8:6 Observe the commands of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and revering him.

Deu 8:7 For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land-- a land with streams and pools of water, with springs flowing in the valleys and hills;

Deu 8:8 a land with wheat and barley, vines and fig trees, pomegranates, olive oil and honey;

Deu 8:9 a land where bread will not be scarce and you will lack nothing; a land where the rocks are iron and you can dig copper out of the hills.

Deu 8:10 When you have eaten and are satisfied, praise the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

Deu 8:11 Be careful that you do not forget the LORD your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day.

Deu 8:12 Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down,

Deu 8:13 and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied,

Deu 8:14 then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deu 8:15 He led you through the vast and dreadful desert, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock.

Deu 8:16 He gave you manna to eat in the desert, something your fathers had never known, to humble and to test you so that in the end it might go well with you.

Deu 8:17 You may say to yourself, "My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me."

Deu 8:18 But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your forefathers, as it is today.

Deu 8:19 If you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods and worship and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will surely be destroyed.

Deu 8:20 Like the nations the LORD destroyed before you, so you will be destroyed for not obeying the LORD your God.

Deu 9:1 Hear, O Israel. You are now about to cross the Jordan to go in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities that have walls up to the sky.

Deu 9:2 The people are strong and tall-- Anakites! You know about them and have heard it said: "Who can stand up against the Anakites?"

Deu 9:3 But be assured today that the LORD your God is the one who goes across ahead of you like a devouring fire. He will destroy them; he will subdue them before you. And you will drive them out and annihilate them quickly, as the LORD has promised you.

Deu 9:4 After the LORD your God has driven them out before you, do not say to yourself, "The LORD has brought me here to take possession of this land because of my righteousness." No, it is on account of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is going to drive them out before you.

Deu 9:5 It is not because of your righteousness or your integrity that you are going in to take possession of their land; but on account of the wickedness of these nations, the LORD your God will drive them out before you, to accomplish what he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deu 9:6 Understand, then, that it is not because of your righteousness that the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.

Deu 9:7 Remember this and never forget how you provoked the LORD your God to anger in the desert. From the day you left Egypt until you arrived here, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

Deu 9:8 At Horeb you aroused the LORD's wrath so that he was angry enough to destroy you.

Deu 9:9 When I went up on the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD had made with you, I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water.

Deu 9:10 The LORD gave me two stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God. On them were all the commandments the LORD proclaimed to you on the mountain out of the fire, on the day of the assembly.

Deu 9:11 At the end of the forty days and forty nights, the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant.

Deu 9:12 Then the LORD told me, "Go down from here at once, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have become corrupt. They have turned away quickly from what I commanded them and have made a cast idol for themselves."

Deu 9:13 And the LORD said to me, "I have seen this people, and they are a stiff-necked people indeed!"

Deu 9:14 Let me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. And I will make you into a nation stronger and more numerous than they."

Deu 9:15 So I turned and went down from the mountain while it was ablaze with fire. And the two tablets of the covenant were in my hands.

Deu 9:16 When I looked, I saw that you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made for yourselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. You had turned aside quickly from the way that the LORD had commanded you.

Deu 9:17 So I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands, breaking them to pieces before your eyes.

Deu 9:18 Then once again I fell prostrate before the LORD for forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water, because of all the sin you had committed, doing what was evil in the LORD's sight and so provoking him to anger.

Deu 9:19 I feared the anger and wrath of the LORD, for he was angry enough with you to destroy you. But again the LORD listened to me.

Deu 9:20 And the LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, but at that time I prayed for Aaron too.

Deu 9:21 Also I took that sinful thing of yours, the calf you had made, and burned it in the fire. Then I crushed it and ground it to powder as fine as dust and threw the dust into a stream that flowed down the mountain.

Deu 9:22 You also made the LORD angry at Taberah, at Massah and at Kibroth Hattaavah.

Deu 9:23 And when the LORD sent you out from Kadesh Barnea, he said, "Go up and take possession of the land I have given you." But you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. You did not trust him or obey him.

Deu 9:24 You have been rebellious against the LORD ever since I have known you.

Deu 9:25 I lay prostrate before the LORD those forty days and forty nights because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

Deu 9:26 I prayed to the LORD and said, "O Sovereign LORD, do not destroy your people, your own inheritance that you redeemed by your great power and brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand."

Deu 9:27 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Overlook the stubbornness of this people, their wickedness and their sin.

Deu 9:28 Otherwise, the country from which you brought us will say, 'Because the LORD was not able to take them into the land he had promised them, and because he hated them, he brought them out to put them to death in the desert.'

Deu 9:29 But they are your people, your inheritance that you brought out by your great power and your outstretched arm."

Deu 10:1 At that time the LORD said to me, "Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones and come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden chest.

Deu 10:2 I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. Then you are to put them in the chest."

Deu 10:3 So I made the ark out of acacia wood and chiseled out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hands.

Deu 10:4 The LORD wrote on these tablets what he had written before, the Ten Commandments he had proclaimed to you on the mountain, out of the fire, on the day of the assembly. And the LORD gave them to me.

Deu 10:5 Then I came back down the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made, as the LORD commanded me, and they are there now.

Deu 10:6 (The Israelites traveled from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried, and Eleazar his son succeeded him as priest.

Deu 10:7 From there they traveled to Gudgodah and on to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water.

Deu 10:8 At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister and to pronounce blessings in his name, as they still do today.

Deu 10:9 That is why the Levites have no share or inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance, as the LORD your God told them.)

Deu 10:10 Now I had stayed on the mountain forty days and nights, as I did the first time, and the LORD listened to me at this time also. It was not his will to destroy you.

Deu 10:11 "Go," the LORD said to me, "and lead the people on their way, so that they may enter and possess the land that I swore to their fathers to give them."

Deu 10:12 And now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul,

Deu 10:13 and to observe the LORD's commands and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good?

Deu 10:14 To the LORD your God belong the heavens, even the highest heavens, the earth and everything in it.

Deu 10:15 Yet the LORD set his affection on your forefathers and loved them, and he chose you, their descendants, above all the nations, as it is today.

Deu 10:16 Circumcise your hearts, therefore, and do not be stiff-necked any longer.

Deu 10:17 For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality and accepts no bribes.

Deu 10:18 He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the alien, giving him food and clothing.

Deu 10:19 And you are to love those who are aliens, for you yourselves were aliens in Egypt.

Deu 10:20 Fear the LORD your God and serve him. Hold fast to him and take your oaths in his name.

Deu 10:21 He is your praise; he is your God, who performed for you those great and awesome wonders you saw with your own eyes.

Deu 10:22 Your forefathers who went down into Egypt were seventy in all, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

Deu 11:1 Love the LORD your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.

Deu 11:2 Remember today that your children were not the ones who saw and experienced the discipline of the LORD your God: his majesty, his mighty hand, his outstretched arm;

Deu 11:3 the signs he performed and the things he did in the heart of Egypt, both to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his whole country;

Deu 11:4 what he did to the Egyptian army, to its horses and chariots, how he overwhelmed them with the waters of the Red Sea as they were pursuing you, and how the LORD brought lasting ruin on them.

Deu 11:5 It was not your children who saw what he did for you in the desert until you arrived at this place,

Deu 11:6 and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened its mouth right in the middle of all Israel and swallowed them up with their households, their tents and every living thing that belonged to them.

Deu 11:7 But it was your own eyes that saw all these great things the LORD has done.

Deu 11:8 Observe therefore all the commands I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to go in and take over the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess,

Deu 11:9 and so that you may live long in the land that the LORD swore to your forefathers to give to them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deu 11:10 The land you are entering to take over is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you planted your seed and irrigated it by foot as in a vegetable garden.

Deu 11:11 But the land you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of is a land of mountains and valleys that drinks rain from heaven.

Deu 11:12 It is a land the LORD your God cares for; the eyes of the LORD your God are continually on it from the beginning of the year to its end.

Deu 11:13 So if you faithfully obey the commands I am giving you today-- to love the LORD your God and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul--

Deu 11:14 then I will send rain on your land in its season, both autumn and spring rains, so that you may gather in your grain, new wine and oil.

Deu 11:15 I will provide grass in the fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.

Deu 11:16 Be careful, or you will be enticed to turn away and worship other gods and bow down to them.

Deu 11:17 Then the LORD's anger will burn against you, and he will shut the heavens so that it will not rain and the ground will yield no produce, and you will soon perish from the good land the LORD is giving you.

Deu 11:18 Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.

Deu 11:19 Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deu 11:20 Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates,

Deu 11:21 so that your days and the days of your children may be many in the land that the LORD swore to give your forefathers, as many as the days that the heavens are above the earth.

Deu 11:22 If you carefully observe all these commands I am giving you to follow-- to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways and to hold fast to him--

Deu 11:23 then the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations larger and stronger than you.

Deu 11:24 Every place where you set your foot will be yours: Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the Euphrates River to the western sea.

Deu 11:25 No man will be able to stand against you. The LORD your God, as he promised you, will put the terror and fear of you on the whole land, wherever you go.

Deu 11:26 See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse--

Deu 11:27 the blessing if you obey the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today;

Deu 11:28 the curse if you disobey the commands of the LORD your God and turn from the way that I command you today by following other gods, which you have not known.

Deu 11:29 When the LORD your God has brought you into the land you are entering to possess, you are to proclaim on Mount Gerizim the blessings, and on Mount Ebal the curses.

Deu 11:30 As you know, these mountains are across the Jordan, west of the road, toward the setting sun, near the great trees of Moreh, in the territory of those Canaanites living in the Arabah in the vicinity of Gilgal.

Deu 11:31 You are about to cross the Jordan to enter and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you have taken it over and are living there,

Deu 11:32 be sure that you obey all the decrees and laws I am setting before you today.

Deu 12:1 These are the decrees and laws you must be careful to follow in the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess-- as long as you live in the land.

Deu 12:2 Destroy completely all the places on the high mountains and on the hills and under every spreading tree where the nations you are dispossessing worship their gods.

Deu 12:3 Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and burn their Asherah poles in the fire; cut down the idols of their gods and wipe out their names from those places.

Deu 12:4 You must not worship the LORD your God in their way.

Deu 12:5 But you are to seek the place the LORD your God will choose from among all your tribes to put his Name there for his dwelling. To that place you must go;

Deu 12:6 there bring your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, what you have vowed to give and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.

Deu 12:7 There, in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your families shall eat and shall rejoice in everything you have put your hand to, because the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deu 12:8 You are not to do as we do here today, everyone as he sees fit,

Deu 12:9 since you have not yet reached the resting place and the inheritance the LORD your God is giving you.

Deu 12:10 But you will cross the Jordan and settle in the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and he will give you rest from all your enemies around you so that you will live in safety.

Deu 12:11 Then to the place the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name-- there you are to bring everything I command you: your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, and all the choice possessions you have vowed to the LORD.

Deu 12:12 And there rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites from your towns, who have no allotment or inheritance of their own.

Deu 12:13 Be careful not to sacrifice your burnt offerings anywhere you please.

Deu 12:14 Offer them only at the place the LORD will choose in one of your tribes, and there observe everything I command you.

Deu 12:15 Nevertheless, you may slaughter your animals in any of your towns and eat as much of the meat as you want, as if it were gazelle or deer, according to the blessing the LORD your God gives you. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it.

Deu 12:16 But you must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

Deu 12:17 You must not eat in your own towns the tithe of your grain and new wine and oil, or the firstborn of your herds and flocks, or whatever you have vowed to give, or your freewill offerings or special gifts.

Deu 12:18 Instead, you are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place the LORD your God will choose-- you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites from your towns-- and you are to rejoice before the LORD your God in everything you put your hand to.

Deu 12:19 Be careful not to neglect the Levites as long as you live in your land.

Deu 12:20 When the LORD your God has enlarged your territory as he promised you, and you crave meat and say, "I would like some meat," then you may eat as much of it as you want.

Deu 12:21 If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put his Name is too far away from you, you may slaughter animals from the herds and flocks the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you, and in your own towns you may eat as much of them as you want.

Deu 12:22 Eat them as you would gazelle or deer. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat.

Deu 12:23 But be sure you do not eat the blood, because the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat.

Deu 12:24 You must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

Deu 12:25 Do not eat it, so that it may go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Deu 12:26 But take your consecrated things and whatever you have vowed to give, and go to the place the LORD will choose.

Deu 12:27 Present your burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD your God, both the meat and the blood. The blood of your sacrifices must be poured beside the altar of the LORD your God, but you may eat the meat.

Deu 12:28 Be careful to obey all these regulations I am giving you, so that it may always go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is good and right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Deu 12:29 The LORD your God will cut off before you the nations you are about to invade and dispossess. But when you have driven them out and settled in their land,

Deu 12:30 and after they have been destroyed before you, be careful not to be ensnared by inquiring about their gods, saying, "How do these nations serve their gods? We will do the same."

Deu 12:31 You must not worship the LORD your God in their way, because in worshiping their gods, they do all kinds of detestable things the LORD hates. They even burn their sons and daughters in the fire as sacrifices to their gods.

Deu 12:32 See that you do all I command you; do not add to it or take away from it.

Deu 13:1 If a prophet, or one who foretells by dreams, appears among you and announces to you a miraculous sign or wonder,

Deu 13:2 and if the sign or wonder of which he has spoken takes place, and he says, "Let us follow other gods" (gods you have not known) "and let us worship them,"

Deu 13:3 you must not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer. The LORD your God is testing you to find out whether you love him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 13:4 It is the LORD your God you must follow, and him you must revere. Keep his commands and obey him; serve him and hold fast to him.

Deu 13:5 That prophet or dreamer must be put to death, because he preached rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from the land of slavery; he has tried to turn you from the way the LORD your God commanded you to follow. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deu 13:6 If your very own brother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you love, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, "Let us go and worship other gods" (gods that neither you nor your fathers have known,

Deu 13:7 gods of the peoples around you, whether near or far, from one end of the land to the other),

Deu 13:8 do not yield to him or listen to him. Show him no pity. Do not spare him or shield him.

Deu 13:9 You must certainly put him to death. Your hand must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people.

Deu 13:10 Stone him to death, because he tried to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deu 13:11 Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and no one among you will do such an evil thing again.

Deu 13:12 If you hear it said about one of the towns the LORD your God is giving you to live in

Deu 13:13 that wicked men have arisen among you and have led the people of their town astray, saying, "Let us go and worship other gods" (gods you have not known),

Deu 13:14 then you must inquire, probe and investigate it thoroughly. And if it is true and it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done among you,

Deu 13:15 you must certainly put to the sword all who live in that town. Destroy it completely, both its people and its livestock.

Deu 13:16 Gather all the plunder of the town into the middle of the public square and completely burn the town and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It is to remain a ruin forever, never to be rebuilt.

Deu 13:17 None of those condemned things shall be found in your hands, so that the LORD will turn from his fierce anger; he will show you mercy, have compassion on you, and increase your numbers, as he promised on oath to your forefathers,

Deu 13:18 because you obey the LORD your God, keeping all his commands that I am giving you today and doing what is right in his eyes.

Deu 14:1 You are the children of the LORD your God. Do not cut yourselves or shave the front of your heads for the dead,

Deu 14:2 for you are a people holy to the LORD your God. Out of all the peoples on the face of the earth, the LORD has chosen you to be his treasured possession.

Deu 14:3 Do not eat any detestable thing.

Deu 14:4 These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

Deu 14:5 the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope and the mountain sheep.

Deu 14:6 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof divided in two and that chews the cud.

Deu 14:7 However, of those that chew the cud or that have a split hoof completely divided you may not eat the camel, the rabbit or the coney. Although they chew the cud, they do not have a split hoof; they are ceremonially unclean for you.

Deu 14:8 The pig is also unclean; although it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud. You are not to eat their meat or touch their carcasses.

Deu 14:9 Of all the creatures living in the water, you may eat any that has fins and scales.

Deu 14:10 But anything that does not have fins and scales you may not eat; for you it is unclean.

Deu 14:11 You may eat any clean bird.

Deu 14:12 But these you may not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture,

Deu 14:13 the red kite, the black kite, any kind of falcon,

Deu 14:14 any kind of raven,

Deu 14:15 the horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,

Deu 14:16 the little owl, the great owl, the white owl,

Deu 14:17 the desert owl, the osprey, the cormorant,

Deu 14:18 the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.

Deu 14:19 All flying insects that swarm are unclean to you; do not eat them.

Deu 14:20 But any winged creature that is clean you may eat.

Deu 14:21 Do not eat anything you find already dead. You may give it to an alien living in any of your towns, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. But you are a people holy to the LORD your God. Do not cook a young goat in its mother's milk.

Deu 14:22 Be sure to set aside a tenth of all that your fields produce each year.

Deu 14:23 Eat the tithe of your grain, new wine and oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name, so that you may learn to revere the LORD your God always.

Deu 14:24 But if that place is too distant and you have been blessed by the LORD your God and cannot carry your tithe (because the place where the LORD will choose to put his Name is so far away),

Deu 14:25 then exchange your tithe for silver, and take the silver with you and go to the place the LORD your God will choose.

Deu 14:26 Use the silver to buy whatever you like: cattle, sheep, wine or other fermented drink, or anything you wish. Then you and your household shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice.

Deu 14:27 And do not neglect the Levites living in your towns, for they have no allotment or inheritance of their own.

Deu 14:28 At the end of every three years, bring all the tithes of that year's produce and store it in your towns,

Deu 14:29 so that the Levites (who have no allotment or inheritance of their own) and the aliens, the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns may come and eat and be satisfied, and so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deu 15:1 At the end of every seven years you must cancel debts.

Deu 15:2 This is how it is to be done: Every creditor shall cancel the loan he has made to his fellow Israelite. He shall not require payment from his fellow Israelite or brother, because the LORD's time for canceling debts has been proclaimed.

Deu 15:3 You may require payment from a foreigner, but you must cancel any debt your brother owes you.

Deu 15:4 However, there should be no poor among you, for in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as your inheritance, he will richly bless you,

Deu 15:5 if only you fully obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow all these commands I am giving you today.

Deu 15:6 For the LORD your God will bless you as he has promised, and you will lend to many nations but will borrow from none. You will rule over many nations but none will rule over you.

Deu 15:7 If there is a poor man among your brothers in any of the towns of the land that the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hardhearted or tightfisted toward your poor brother.

Deu 15:8 Rather be openhanded and freely lend him whatever he needs.

Deu 15:9 Be careful not to harbor this wicked thought: "The seventh year, the year for canceling debts, is near," so that you do not show ill will toward your needy brother and give him nothing. He may then appeal to the LORD against you, and you will be found guilty of sin.

Deu 15:10 Give generously to him and do so without a grudging heart; then because of this the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you put your hand to.

Deu 15:11 There will always be poor people in the land. Therefore I command you to be openhanded toward your brothers and toward the poor and needy in your land.

Deu 15:12 If a fellow Hebrew, a man or a woman, sells himself to you and serves you six years, in the seventh year you must let him go free.

Deu 15:13 And when you release him, do not send him away empty-handed.

Deu 15:14 Supply him liberally from your flock, your threshing floor and your winepress. Give to him as the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deu 15:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you. That is why I give you this command today.

Deu 15:16 But if your servant says to you, "I do not want to leave you," because he loves you and your family and is well off with you,

Deu 15:17 then take an awl and push it through his ear lobe into the door, and he will become your servant for life. Do the same for your maidservant.

Deu 15:18 Do not consider it a hardship to set your servant free, because his service to you these six years has been worth twice as much as that of a hired hand. And the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deu 15:19 Set apart for the LORD your God every firstborn male of your herds and flocks. Do not put the firstborn of your oxen to work, and do not shear the firstborn of your sheep.

Deu 15:20 Each year you and your family are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose.

Deu 15:21 If an animal has a defect, is lame or blind, or has any serious flaw, you must not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

Deu 15:22 You are to eat it in your own towns. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer.

Deu 15:23 But you must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

Deu 16:1 Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover of the LORD your God, because in the month of Abib he brought you out of Egypt by night.

Deu 16:2 Sacrifice as the Passover to the LORD your God an animal from your flock or herd at the place the LORD will choose as a dwelling for his Name.

Deu 16:3 Do not eat it with bread made with yeast, but for seven days eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, because you left Egypt in haste-- so that all the days of your life you may remember the time of your departure from Egypt.

Deu 16:4 Let no yeast be found in your possession in all your land for seven days. Do not let any of the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain until morning.

Deu 16:5 You must not sacrifice the Passover in any town the LORD your God gives you

Deu 16:6 except in the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name. There you must sacrifice the Passover in the evening, when the sun goes down, on the anniversary of your departure from Egypt.

Deu 16:7 Roast it and eat it at the place the LORD your God will choose. Then in the morning return to your tents.

Deu 16:8 For six days eat unleavened bread and on the seventh day hold an assembly to the LORD your God and do no work.

Deu 16:9 Count off seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain.

Deu 16:10 Then celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God by giving a freewill offering in proportion to the blessings the LORD your God has given you.

Deu 16:11 And rejoice before the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name-- you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, the Levites in your towns, and the aliens, the fatherless and the widows living among you.

Deu 16:12 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and follow carefully these decrees.

Deu 16:13 Celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing floor and your winepress.

Deu 16:14 Be joyful at your Feast-- you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites, the aliens, the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns.

Deu 16:15 For seven days celebrate the Feast to the LORD your God at the place the LORD will choose. For the LORD your God will bless you in all your harvest and in all the work of your hands, and your joy will be complete.

Deu 16:16 Three times a year all your men must appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles. No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed:

Deu 16:17 Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deu 16:18 Appoint judges and officials for each of your tribes in every town the LORD your God is giving you, and they shall judge the people fairly.

Deu 16:19 Do not pervert justice or show partiality. Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.

Deu 16:20 Follow justice and justice alone, so that you may live and possess the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deu 16:21 Do not set up any wooden Asherah pole beside the altar you build to the LORD your God,

Deu 16:22 and do not erect a sacred stone, for these the LORD your God hates.

Deu 17:1 Do not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has any defect or flaw in it, for that would be detestable to him.

Deu 17:2 If a man or woman living among you in one of the towns the LORD gives you is found doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God in violation of his covenant,

Deu 17:3 and contrary to my command has worshiped other gods, bowing down to them or to the sun or the moon or the stars of the sky,

Deu 17:4 and this has been brought to your attention, then you must investigate it thoroughly. If it is true and it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done in Israel,

Deu 17:5 take the man or woman who has done this evil deed to your city gate and stone that person to death.

Deu 17:6 On the testimony of two or three witnesses a man shall be put to death, but no one shall be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Deu 17:7 The hands of the witnesses must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deu 17:8 If cases come before your courts that are too difficult for you to judge-- whether bloodshed, lawsuits or assaults-- take them to the place the LORD your God will choose.

Deu 17:9 Go to the priests, who are Levites, and to the judge who is in office at that time. Inquire of them and they will give you the verdict.

Deu 17:10 You must act according to the decisions they give you at the place the LORD will choose. Be careful to do everything they direct you to do.

Deu 17:11 Act according to the law they teach you and the decisions they give you. Do not turn aside from what they tell you, to the right or to the left.

Deu 17:12 The man who shows contempt for the judge or for the priest who stands ministering there to the LORD your God must be put to death. You must purge the evil from Israel.

Deu 17:13 All the people will hear and be afraid, and will not be contemptuous again.

Deu 17:14 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you and have taken possession of it and settled in it, and you say, "Let us set a king over us like all the nations around us,"

Deu 17:15 be sure to appoint over you the king the LORD your God chooses. He must be from among your own brothers. Do not place a foreigner over you, one who is not a brother Israelite.

Deu 17:16 The king, moreover, must not acquire great numbers of horses for himself or make the people return to Egypt to get more of them, for the LORD has told you, "You are not to go back that way again."

Deu 17:17 He must not take many wives, or his heart will be led astray. He must not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold.

Deu 17:18 When he takes the throne of his kingdom, he is to write for himself on a scroll a copy of this law, taken from that of the priests, who are Levites.

Deu 17:19 It is to be with him, and he is to read it all the days of his life so that he may learn to revere the LORD his God and follow carefully all the words of this law and these decrees

Deu 17:20 and not consider himself better than his brothers and turn from the law to the right or to the left. Then he and his descendants will reign a long time over his kingdom in Israel.

Deu 18:1 The priests, who are Levites-- indeed the whole tribe of Levi-- are to have no allotment or inheritance with Israel. They shall live on the offerings made to the LORD by fire, for that is their inheritance.

Deu 18:2 They shall have no inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.

Deu 18:3 This is the share due the priests from the people who sacrifice a bull or a sheep: the shoulder, the jowls and the inner parts.

Deu 18:4 You are to give them the firstfruits of your grain, new wine and oil, and the first wool from the shearing of your sheep,

Deu 18:5 for the LORD your God has chosen them and their descendants out of all your tribes to stand and minister in the LORD's name always.

Deu 18:6 If a Levite moves from one of your towns anywhere in Israel where he is living, and comes in all earnestness to the place the LORD will choose,

Deu 18:7 he may minister in the name of the LORD his God like all his fellow Levites who serve there in the presence of the LORD.

Deu 18:8 He is to share equally in their benefits, even though he has received money from the sale of family possessions.

Deu 18:9 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate the detestable ways of the nations there.

Deu 18:10 Let no one be found among you who sacrifices his son or daughter in the fire, who practices divination or sorcery, interprets omens, engages in witchcraft,

Deu 18:11 or casts spells, or who is a medium or spiritist or who consults the dead.

Deu 18:12 Anyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD, and because of these detestable practices the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you.

Deu 18:13 You must be blameless before the LORD your God.

Deu 18:14 The nations you will dispossess listen to those who practice sorcery or divination. But as for you, the LORD your God has not permitted you to do so.

Deu 18:15 The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers. You must listen to him.

Deu 18:16 For this is what you asked of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, "Let us not hear the voice of the LORD our God nor see this great fire anymore, or we will die."

Deu 18:17 The LORD said to me: "What they say is good.

Deu 18:18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers; I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him.

Deu 18:19 If anyone does not listen to my words that the prophet speaks in my name, I myself will call him to account.

Deu 18:20 But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death."

Deu 18:21 You may say to yourselves, "How can we know when a message has not been spoken by the LORD?"

Deu 18:22 If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the LORD does not take place or come true, that is a message the LORD has not spoken. That prophet has spoken presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him.

Deu 19:1 When the LORD your God has destroyed the nations whose land he is giving you, and when you have driven them out and settled in their towns and houses,

Deu 19:2 then set aside for yourselves three cities centrally located in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deu 19:3 Build roads to them and divide into three parts the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, so that anyone who kills a man may flee there.

Deu 19:4 This is the rule concerning the man who kills another and flees there to save his life-- one who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without malice aforethought.

Deu 19:5 For instance, a man may go into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood, and as he swings his ax to fell a tree, the head may fly off and hit his neighbor and kill him. That man may flee to one of these cities and save his life.

Deu 19:6 Otherwise, the avenger of blood might pursue him in a rage, overtake him if the distance is too great, and kill him even though he is not deserving of death, since he did it to his neighbor without malice aforethought.

Deu 19:7 This is why I command you to set aside for yourselves three cities.

Deu 19:8 If the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he promised on oath to your forefathers, and gives you the whole land he promised them,

Deu 19:9 because you carefully follow all these laws I command you today-- to love the LORD your God and to walk always in his ways-- then you are to set aside three more cities.

Deu 19:10 Do this so that innocent blood will not be shed in your land, which the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance, and so that you will not be guilty of bloodshed.

Deu 19:11 But if a man hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him, assaults and kills him, and then flees to one of these cities,

Deu 19:12 the elders of his town shall send for him, bring him back from the city, and hand him over to the avenger of blood to die.

Deu 19:13 Show him no pity. You must purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood, so that it may go well with you.

Deu 19:14 Do not move your neighbor's boundary stone set up by your predecessors in the inheritance you receive in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deu 19:15 One witness is not enough to convict a man accused of any crime or offense he may have committed. A matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Deu 19:16 If a malicious witness takes the stand to accuse a man of a crime,

Deu 19:17 the two men involved in the dispute must stand in the presence of the LORD before the priests and the judges who are in office at the time.

Deu 19:18 The judges must make a thorough investigation, and if the witness proves to be a liar, giving false testimony against his brother,

Deu 19:19 then do to him as he intended to do to his brother. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deu 19:20 The rest of the people will hear of this and be afraid, and never again will such an evil thing be done among you.

Deu 19:21 Show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deu 20:1 When you go to war against your enemies and see horses and chariots and an army greater than yours, do not be afraid of them, because the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt, will be with you.

Deu 20:2 When you are about to go into battle, the priest shall come forward and address the army.

Deu 20:3 He shall say: "Hear, O Israel, today you are going into battle against your enemies. Do not be fainthearted or afraid; do not be terrified or give way to panic before them."

Deu 20:4 For the LORD your God is the one who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you victory."

Deu 20:5 The officers shall say to the army: "Has anyone built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else may dedicate it."

Deu 20:6 Has anyone planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else enjoy it.

Deu 20:7 Has anyone become pledged to a woman and not married her? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else marry her."

Deu 20:8 Then the officers shall add, "Is any man afraid or fainthearted? Let him go home so that his brothers will not become disheartened too."

Deu 20:9 When the officers have finished speaking to the army, they shall appoint commanders over it.

Deu 20:10 When you march up to attack a city, make its people an offer of peace.

Deu 20:11 If they accept and open their gates, all the people in it shall be subject to forced labor and shall work for you.

Deu 20:12 If they refuse to make peace and they engage you in battle, lay siege to that city.

Deu 20:13 When the LORD your God delivers it into your hand, put to the sword all the men in it.

Deu 20:14 As for the women, the children, the livestock and everything else in the city, you may take these as plunder for yourselves. And you may use the plunder the LORD your God gives you from your enemies.

Deu 20:15 This is how you are to treat all the cities that are at a distance from you and do not belong to the nations nearby.

Deu 20:16 However, in the cities of the nations the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, do not leave alive anything that breathes.

Deu 20:17 Completely destroy them-- the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites-- as the LORD your God has commanded you.

Deu 20:18 Otherwise, they will teach you to follow all the detestable things they do in worshiping their gods, and you will sin against the LORD your God.

Deu 20:19 When you lay siege to a city for a long time, fighting against it to capture it, do not destroy its trees by putting an ax to them, because you can eat their fruit. Do not cut them down. Are the trees of the field people, that you should besiege them?

Deu 20:20 However, you may cut down trees that you know are not fruit trees and use them to build siege works until the city at war with you falls.

Deu 21:1 If a man is found slain, lying in a field in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,

Deu 21:2 your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distance from the body to the neighboring towns.

Deu 21:3 Then the elders of the town nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked and has never worn a yoke

Deu 21:4 and lead her down to a valley that has not been plowed or planted and where there is a flowing stream. There in the valley they are to break the heifer's neck.

Deu 21:5 The priests, the sons of Levi, shall step forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister and to pronounce blessings in the name of the LORD and to decide all cases of dispute and assault.

Deu 21:6 Then all the elders of the town nearest the body shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley,

Deu 21:7 and they shall declare: "Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it done.

Deu 21:8 Accept this atonement for your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, O LORD, and do not hold your people guilty of the blood of an innocent man." And the bloodshed will be atoned for.

Deu 21:9 So you will purge from yourselves the guilt of shedding innocent blood, since you have done what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Deu 21:10 When you go to war against your enemies and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands and you take captives,

Deu 21:11 if you notice among the captives a beautiful woman and are attracted to her, you may take her as your wife.

Deu 21:12 Bring her into your home and have her shave her head, trim her nails

Deu 21:13 and put aside the clothes she was wearing when captured. After she has lived in your house and mourned her father and mother for a full month, then you may go to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife.

Deu 21:14 If you are not pleased with her, let her go wherever she wishes. You must not sell her or treat her as a slave, since you have dishonored her.

Deu 21:15 If a man has two wives, and he loves one but not the other, and both bear him sons but the firstborn is the son of the wife he does not love,

Deu 21:16 when he wills his property to his sons, he must not give the rights of the firstborn to the son of the wife he loves in preference to his actual firstborn, the son of the wife he does not love.

Deu 21:17 He must acknowledge the son of his unloved wife as the firstborn by giving him a double share of all he has. That son is the first sign of his father's strength. The right of the firstborn belongs to him.

Deu 21:18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father and mother and will not listen to them when they discipline him,

Deu 21:19 his father and mother shall take hold of him and bring him to the elders at the gate of his town.

Deu 21:20 They shall say to the elders, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a profligate and a drunkard."

Deu 21:21 Then all the men of his town shall stone him to death. You must purge the evil from among you. All Israel will hear of it and be afraid.

Deu 21:22 If a man guilty of a capital offense is put to death and his body is hung on a tree,

Deu 21:23 you must not leave his body on the tree overnight. Be sure to bury him that same day, because anyone who is hung on a tree is under God's curse. You must not desecrate the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deu 22:1 If you see your brother's ox or sheep straying, do not ignore it but be sure to take it back to him.

Deu 22:2 If the brother does not live near you or if you do not know who he is, take it home with you and keep it until he comes looking for it. Then give it back to him.

Deu 22:3 Do the same if you find your brother's donkey or his cloak or anything he loses. Do not ignore it.

Deu 22:4 If you see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen on the road, do not ignore it. Help him get it to its feet.

Deu 22:5 A woman must not wear men's clothing, nor a man wear women's clothing, for the LORD your God detests anyone who does this.

Deu 22:6 If you come across a bird's nest beside the road, either in a tree or on the ground, and the mother is sitting on the young or on the eggs, do not take the mother with the young.

Deu 22:7 You may take the young, but be sure to let the mother go, so that it may go well with you and you may have a long life.

Deu 22:8 When you build a new house, make a parapet around your roof so that you may not bring the guilt of bloodshed on your house if someone falls from the roof.

Deu 22:9 Do not plant two kinds of seed in your vineyard; if you do, not only the crops you plant but also the fruit of the vineyard will be defiled.

Deu 22:10 Do not plow with an ox and a donkey yoked together.

Deu 22:11 Do not wear clothes of wool and linen woven together.

Deu 22:12 Make tassels on the four corners of the cloak you wear.

Deu 22:13 If a man takes a wife and, after lying with her, dislikes her

Deu 22:14 and slanders her and gives her a bad name, saying, "I married this woman, but when I approached her, I did not find proof of her virginity,"

Deu 22:15 then the girl's father and mother shall bring proof that she was a virgin to the town elders at the gate.

Deu 22:16 The girl's father will say to the elders, "I gave my daughter in marriage to this man, but he dislikes her.

Deu 22:17 Now he has slandered her and said, 'I did not find your daughter to be a virgin.' But here is the proof of my daughter's virginity." Then her parents shall display the cloth before the elders of the town,

Deu 22:18 and the elders shall take the man and punish him.

Deu 22:19 They shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give them to the girl's father, because this man has given an Israelite virgin a bad name. She shall continue to be his wife; he must not divorce her as long as he lives.

Deu 22:20 If, however, the charge is true and no proof of the girl's virginity can be found,

Deu 22:21 she shall be brought to the door of her father's house and there the men of her town shall stone her to death. She has done a disgraceful thing in Israel by being promiscuous while still in her father's house. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deu 22:22 If a man is found sleeping with another man's wife, both the man who slept with her and the woman must die. You must purge the evil from Israel.

Deu 22:23 If a man happens to meet in a town a virgin pledged to be married and he sleeps with her,

Deu 22:24 you shall take both of them to the gate of that town and stone them to death-- the girl because she was in a town and did not scream for help, and the man because he violated another man's wife. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deu 22:25 But if out in the country a man happens to meet a girl pledged to be married and rapes her, only the man who has done this shall die.

Deu 22:26 Do nothing to the girl; she has committed no sin deserving death. This case is like that of someone who attacks and murders his neighbor,

Deu 22:27 for the man found the girl out in the country, and though the betrothed girl screamed, there was no one to rescue her.

Deu 22:28 If a man happens to meet a virgin who is not pledged to be married and rapes her and they are discovered,

Deu 22:29 he shall pay the girl's father fifty shekels of silver. He must marry the girl, for he has violated her. He can never divorce her as long as he lives.

Deu 22:30 A man is not to marry his father's wife; he must not dishonor his father's bed.

Deu 23:1 No one who has been emasculated by crushing or cutting may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deu 23:2 No one born of a forbidden marriage nor any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.

Deu 23:3 No Ammonite or Moabite or any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.

Deu 23:4 For they did not come to meet you with bread and water on your way when you came out of Egypt, and they hired Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Aram Naharaim to pronounce a curse on you.

Deu 23:5 However, the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam but turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loves you.

Deu 23:6 Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them as long as you live.

Deu 23:7 Do not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. Do not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as an alien in his country.

Deu 23:8 The third generation of children born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deu 23:9 When you are encamped against your enemies, keep away from everything impure.

Deu 23:10 If one of your men is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he is to go outside the camp and stay there.

Deu 23:11 But as evening approaches he is to wash himself, and at sunset he may return to the camp.

Deu 23:12 Designate a place outside the camp where you can go to relieve yourself.

Deu 23:13 As part of your equipment have something to dig with, and when you relieve yourself, dig a hole and cover up your excrement.

Deu 23:14 For the LORD your God moves about in your camp to protect you and to deliver your enemies to you. Your camp must be holy, so that he will not see among you anything indecent and turn away from you.

Deu 23:15 If a slave has taken refuge with you, do not hand him over to his master.

Deu 23:16 Let him live among you wherever he likes and in whatever town he chooses. Do not oppress him.

Deu 23:17 No Israelite man or woman is to become a shrine prostitute.

Deu 23:18 You must not bring the earnings of a female prostitute or of a male prostitute into the house of the LORD your God to pay any vow, because the LORD your God detests them both.

Deu 23:19 Do not charge your brother interest, whether on money or food or anything else that may earn interest.

Deu 23:20 You may charge a foreigner interest, but not a brother Israelite, so that the LORD your God may bless you in everything you put your hand to in the land you are entering to possess.

Deu 23:21 If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not be slow to pay it, for the LORD your God will certainly demand it of you and you will be guilty of sin.

Deu 23:22 But if you refrain from making a vow, you will not be guilty.

Deu 23:23 Whatever your lips utter you must be sure to do, because you made your vow freely to the LORD your God with your own mouth.

Deu 23:24 If you enter your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat all the grapes you want, but do not put any in your basket.

Deu 23:25 If you enter your neighbor's grainfield, you may pick kernels with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to his standing grain.

Deu 24:1 If a man marries a woman who becomes displeasing to him because he finds something indecent about her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her and sends her from his house,

Deu 24:2 and if after she leaves his house she becomes the wife of another man,

Deu 24:3 and her second husband dislikes her and writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her and sends her from his house, or if he dies,

Deu 24:4 then her first husband, who divorced her, is not allowed to marry her again after she has been defiled. That would be detestable in the eyes of the LORD. Do not bring sin upon the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deu 24:5 If a man has recently married, he must not be sent to war or have any other duty laid on him. For one year he is to be free to stay at home and bring happiness to the wife he has married.

Deu 24:6 Do not take a pair of millstones-- not even the upper one-- as security for a debt, because that would be taking a man's livelihood as security.

Deu 24:7 If a man is caught kidnapping one of his brother Israelites and treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must die. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deu 24:8 In cases of leprous diseases be very careful to do exactly as the priests, who are Levites, instruct you. You must follow carefully what I have commanded them.

Deu 24:9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam along the way after you came out of Egypt.

Deu 24:10 When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, do not go into his house to get what he is offering as a pledge.

Deu 24:11 Stay outside and let the man to whom you are making the loan bring the pledge out to you.

Deu 24:12 If the man is poor, do not go to sleep with his pledge in your possession.

Deu 24:13 Return his cloak to him by sunset so that he may sleep in it. Then he will thank you, and it will be regarded as a righteous act in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deu 24:14 Do not take advantage of a hired man who is poor and needy, whether he is a brother Israelite or an alien living in one of your towns.

Deu 24:15 Pay him his wages each day before sunset, because he is poor and is counting on it. Otherwise he may cry to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

Deu 24:16 Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sin.

Deu 24:17 Do not deprive the alien or the fatherless of justice, or take the cloak of the widow as a pledge.

Deu 24:18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. That is why I command you to do this.

Deu 24:19 When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it. Leave it for the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deu 24:20 When you beat the olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time. Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow.

Deu 24:21 When you harvest the grapes in your vineyard, do not go over the vines again. Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow.

Deu 24:22 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That is why I command you to do this.

Deu 25:1 When men have a dispute, they are to take it to court and the judges will decide the case, acquitting the innocent and condemning the guilty.

Deu 25:2 If the guilty man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall make him lie down and have him flogged in his presence with the number of lashes his crime deserves,

Deu 25:3 but he must not give him more than forty lashes. If he is flogged more than that, your brother will be degraded in your eyes.

Deu 25:4 Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.

Deu 25:5 If brothers are living together and one of them dies without a son, his widow must not marry outside the family. Her husband's brother shall take her and marry her and fulfill the duty of a brother-in-law to her.

Deu 25:6 The first son she bears shall carry on the name of the dead brother so that his name will not be blotted out from Israel.

Deu 25:7 However, if a man does not want to marry his brother's wife, she shall go to the elders at the town gate and say, "My husband's brother refuses to carry on his brother's name in Israel. He will not fulfill the duty of a brother-in-law to me."

Deu 25:8 Then the elders of his town shall summon him and talk to him. If he persists in saying, "I do not want to marry her,"

Deu 25:9 his brother's widow shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, take off one of his sandals, spit in his face and say, "This is what is done to the man who will not build up his brother's family line."

Deu 25:10 That man's line shall be known in Israel as The Family of the Unsandaled.

Deu 25:11 If two men are fighting and the wife of one of them comes to rescue her husband from his assailant, and she reaches out and seizes him by his private parts,

Deu 25:12 you shall cut off her hand. Show her no pity.

Deu 25:13 Do not have two differing weights in your bag-- one heavy, one light.

Deu 25:14 Do not have two differing measures in your house-- one large, one small.

Deu 25:15 You must have accurate and honest weights and measures, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deu 25:16 For the LORD your God detests anyone who does these things, anyone who deals dishonestly.

Deu 25:17 Remember what the Amalekites did to you along the way when you came out of Egypt.

Deu 25:18 When you were weary and worn out, they met you on your journey and cut off all who were lagging behind; they had no fear of God.

Deu 25:19 When the LORD your God gives you rest from all the enemies around you in the land he is giving you to possess as an inheritance, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven. Do not forget!

Deu 26:1 When you have entered the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance and have taken possession of it and settled in it,

Deu 26:2 take some of the firstfruits of all that you produce from the soil of the land the LORD your God is giving you and put them in a basket. Then go to the place the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name

Deu 26:3 and say to the priest in office at the time, "I declare today to the LORD your God that I have come to the land the LORD swore to our forefathers to give us."

Deu 26:4 The priest shall take the basket from your hands and set it down in front of the altar of the LORD your God.

Deu 26:5 Then you shall declare before the LORD your God: "My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down into Egypt with a few people and lived there and became a great nation, powerful and numerous.

Deu 26:6 But the Egyptians mistreated us and made us suffer, putting us to hard labor.

Deu 26:7 Then we cried out to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and saw our misery, toil and oppression.

Deu 26:8 So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror and with miraculous signs and wonders.

Deu 26:9 He brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey;

Deu 26:10 and now I bring the firstfruits of the soil that you, O LORD, have given me." Place the basket before the LORD your God and bow down before him.

Deu 26:11 And you and the Levites and the aliens among you shall rejoice in all the good things the LORD your God has given to you and your household.

Deu 26:12 When you have finished setting aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied.

Deu 26:13 Then say to the LORD your God: "I have removed from my house the sacred portion and have given it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, according to all you commanded. I have not turned aside from your commands nor have I forgotten any of them."

Deu 26:14 I have not eaten any of the sacred portion while I was in mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor have I offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God; I have done everything you commanded me.

Deu 26:15 Look down from heaven, your holy dwelling place, and bless your people Israel and the land you have given us as you promised on oath to our forefathers, a land flowing with milk and honey."

Deu 26:16 The LORD your God commands you this day to follow these decrees and laws; carefully observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 26:17 You have declared this day that the LORD is your God and that you will walk in his ways, that you will keep his decrees, commands and laws, and that you will obey him.

Deu 26:18 And the LORD has declared this day that you are his people, his treasured possession as he promised, and that you are to keep all his commands.

Deu 26:19 He has declared that he will set you in praise, fame and honor high above all the nations he has made and that you will be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised.

Deu 27:1 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people: "Keep all these commands that I give you today.

Deu 27:2 When you have crossed the Jordan into the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones and coat them with plaster.

Deu 27:3 Write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

Deu 27:4 And when you have crossed the Jordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I command you today, and coat them with plaster.

Deu 27:5 Build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones. Do not use any iron tool upon them.

Deu 27:6 Build the altar of the LORD your God with fieldstones and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

Deu 27:7 Sacrifice fellowship offerings there, eating them and rejoicing in the presence of the LORD your God.

Deu 27:8 And you shall write very clearly all the words of this law on these stones you have set up."

Deu 27:9 Then Moses and the priests, who are Levites, said to all Israel, "Be silent, O Israel, and listen! You have now become the people of the LORD your God.

Deu 27:10 Obey the LORD your God and follow his commands and decrees that I give you today."

Deu 27:11 On the same day Moses commanded the people:

Deu 27:12 When you have crossed the Jordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph and Benjamin.

Deu 27:13 And these tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

Deu 27:14 The Levites shall recite to all the people of Israel in a loud voice:

Deu 27:15 "Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol-- a thing detestable to the LORD, the work of the craftsman's hands-- and sets it up in secret." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:16 "Cursed is the man who dishonors his father or his mother." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:17 "Cursed is the man who moves his neighbor's boundary stone." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:18 "Cursed is the man who leads the blind astray on the road." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:19 "Cursed is the man who withholds justice from the alien, the fatherless or the widow." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:20 "Cursed is the man who sleeps with his father's wife, for he dishonors his father's bed." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:21 "Cursed is the man who has sexual relations with any animal." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:22 "Cursed is the man who sleeps with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:23 "Cursed is the man who sleeps with his mother-in-law." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:24 "Cursed is the man who kills his neighbor secretly." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:25 "Cursed is the man who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 27:26 "Cursed is the man who does not uphold the words of this law by carrying them out." Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Deu 28:1 If you fully obey the LORD your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations on earth.

Deu 28:2 All these blessings will come upon you and accompany you if you obey the LORD your God:

Deu 28:3 You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country.

Deu 28:4 The fruit of your womb will be blessed, and the crops of your land and the young of your livestock-- the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

Deu 28:5 Your basket and your kneading trough will be blessed.

Deu 28:6 You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.

Deu 28:7 The LORD will grant that the enemies who rise up against you will be defeated before you. They will come at you from one direction but flee from you in seven.

Deu 28:8 The LORD will send a blessing on your barns and on everything you put your hand to. The LORD your God will bless you in the land he is giving you.

Deu 28:9 The LORD will establish you as his holy people, as he promised you on oath, if you keep the commands of the LORD your God and walk in his ways.

Deu 28:10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they will fear you.

Deu 28:11 The LORD will grant you abundant prosperity-- in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your ground-- in the land he swore to your forefathers to give you.

Deu 28:12 The LORD will open the heavens, the storehouse of his bounty, to send rain on your land in season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations but will borrow from none.

Deu 28:13 The LORD will make you the head, not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of the LORD your God that I give you this day and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom.

Deu 28:14 Do not turn aside from any of the commands I give you today, to the right or to the left, following other gods and serving them.

Deu 28:15 However, if you do not obey the LORD your God and do not carefully follow all his commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

Deu 28:16 You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.

Deu 28:17 Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed.

Deu 28:18 The fruit of your womb will be cursed, and the crops of your land, and the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

Deu 28:19 You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

Deu 28:20 The LORD will send on you curses, confusion and rebuke in everything you put your hand to, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin because of the evil you have done in forsaking him.

Deu 28:21 The LORD will plague you with diseases until he has destroyed you from the land you are entering to possess.

Deu 28:22 The LORD will strike you with wasting disease, with fever and inflammation, with scorching heat and drought, with blight and mildew, which will plague you until you perish.

Deu 28:23 The sky over your head will be bronze, the ground beneath you iron.

Deu 28:24 The LORD will turn the rain of your country into dust and powder; it will come down from the skies until you are destroyed.

Deu 28:25 The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will come at them from one direction but flee from them in seven, and you will become a thing of horror to all the kingdoms on earth.

Deu 28:26 Your carcasses will be food for all the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away.

Deu 28:27 The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors, festering sores and the itch, from which you cannot be cured.

Deu 28:28 The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness and confusion of mind.

Deu 28:29 At midday you will grope about like a blind man in the dark. You will be unsuccessful in everything you do; day after day you will be oppressed and robbed, with no one to rescue you.

Deu 28:30 You will be pledged to be married to a woman, but another will take her and ravish her. You will build a house, but you will not live in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will not even begin to enjoy its fruit.

Deu 28:31 Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will eat none of it. Your donkey will be forcibly taken from you and will not be returned. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no one will rescue them.

Deu 28:32 Your sons and daughters will be given to another nation, and you will wear out your eyes watching for them day after day, powerless to lift a hand.

Deu 28:33 A people that you do not know will eat what your land and labor produce, and you will have nothing but cruel oppression all your days.

Deu 28:34 The sights you see will drive you mad.

Deu 28:35 The LORD will afflict your knees and legs with painful boils that cannot be cured, spreading from the soles of your feet to the top of your head.

Deu 28:36 The LORD will drive you and the king you set over you to a nation unknown to you or your fathers. There you will worship other gods, gods of wood and stone.

Deu 28:37 You will become a thing of horror and an object of scorn and ridicule to all the nations where the LORD will drive you.

Deu 28:38 You will sow much seed in the field but you will harvest little, because locusts will devour it.

Deu 28:39 You will plant vineyards and cultivate them but you will not drink the wine or gather the grapes, because worms will eat them.

Deu 28:40 You will have olive trees throughout your country but you will not use the oil, because the olives will drop off.

Deu 28:41 You will have sons and daughters but you will not keep them, because they will go into captivity.

Deu 28:42 Swarms of locusts will take over all your trees and the crops of your land.

Deu 28:43 The alien who lives among you will rise above you higher and higher, but you will sink lower and lower.

Deu 28:44 He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him. He will be the head, but you will be the tail.

Deu 28:45 All these curses will come upon you. They will pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the LORD your God and observe the commands and decrees he gave you.

Deu 28:46 They will be a sign and a wonder to you and your descendants forever.

Deu 28:47 Because you did not serve the LORD your God joyfully and gladly in the time of prosperity,

Deu 28:48 therefore in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and dire poverty, you will serve the enemies the LORD sends against you. He will put an iron yoke on your neck until he has destroyed you.

Deu 28:49 The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away, from the ends of the earth, like an eagle swooping down, a nation whose language you will not understand,

Deu 28:50 a fierce-looking nation without respect for the old or pity for the young.

Deu 28:51 They will devour the young of your livestock and the crops of your land until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine or oil, nor any calves of your herds or lambs of your flocks until you are ruined.

Deu 28:52 They will lay siege to all the cities throughout your land until the high fortified walls in which you trust fall down. They will besiege all the cities throughout the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deu 28:53 Because of the suffering that your enemy will inflict on you during the siege, you will eat the fruit of the womb, the flesh of the sons and daughters the LORD your God has given you.

Deu 28:54 Even the most gentle and sensitive man among you will have no compassion on his own brother or the wife he loves or his surviving children,

Deu 28:55 and he will not give to one of them any of the flesh of his children that he is eating. It will be all he has left because of the suffering your enemy will inflict on you during the siege of all your cities.

Deu 28:56 The most gentle and sensitive woman among you-- so sensitive and gentle that she would not venture to touch the ground with the sole of her foot-- will begrudge the husband she loves and her own son or daughter

Deu 28:57 the afterbirth from her womb and the children she bears. For she intends to eat them secretly during the siege and in the distress that your enemy will inflict on you in your cities.

Deu 28:58 If you do not carefully follow all the words of this law, which are written in this book, and do not revere this glorious and awesome name-- the LORD your God--

Deu 28:59 the LORD will send fearful plagues on you and your descendants, harsh and prolonged disasters, and severe and lingering illnesses.

Deu 28:60 He will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt that you dreaded, and they will cling to you.

Deu 28:61 The LORD will also bring on you every kind of sickness and disaster not recorded in this Book of the Law, until you are destroyed.

Deu 28:62 You who were as numerous as the stars in the sky will be left but few in number, because you did not obey the LORD your God.

Deu 28:63 Just as it pleased the LORD to make you prosper and increase in number, so it will please him to ruin and destroy you. You will be uprooted from the land you are entering to possess.

Deu 28:64 Then the LORD will scatter you among all nations, from one end of the earth to the other. There you will worship other gods-- gods of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known.

Deu 28:65 Among those nations you will find no repose, no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you an anxious mind, eyes weary with longing, and a despairing heart.

Deu 28:66 You will live in constant suspense, filled with dread both night and day, never sure of your life.

Deu 28:67 In the morning you will say, "If only it were evening!" and in the evening, "If only it were morning!"-- because of the terror that will fill your hearts and the sights that your eyes will see.

Deu 28:68 The LORD will send you back in ships to Egypt on a journey I said you should never make again. There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you.

Deu 29:1 These are the terms of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in Moab, in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Horeb.

Deu 29:2 Moses summoned all the Israelites and said to them: Your eyes have seen all that the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials and to all his land.

Deu 29:3 With your own eyes you saw those great trials, those miraculous signs and great wonders.

Deu 29:4 But to this day the LORD has not given you a mind that understands or eyes that see or ears that hear.

Deu 29:5 During the forty years that I led you through the desert, your clothes did not wear out, nor did the sandals on your feet.

Deu 29:6 You ate no bread and drank no wine or other fermented drink. I did this so that you might know that I am the LORD your God.

Deu 29:7 When you reached this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out to fight against us, but we defeated them.

Deu 29:8 We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Deu 29:9 Carefully follow the terms of this covenant, so that you may prosper in everything you do.

Deu 29:10 All of you are standing today in the presence of the LORD your God-- your leaders and chief men, your elders and officials, and all the other men of Israel,

Deu 29:11 together with your children and your wives, and the aliens living in your camps who chop your wood and carry your water.

Deu 29:12 You are standing here in order to enter into a covenant with the LORD your God, a covenant the LORD is making with you this day and sealing with an oath,

Deu 29:13 to confirm you this day as his people, that he may be your God as he promised you and as he swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deu 29:14 I am making this covenant, with its oath, not only with you

Deu 29:15 who are standing here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God but also with those who are not here today.

Deu 29:16 You yourselves know how we lived in Egypt and how we passed through the countries on the way here.

Deu 29:17 You saw among them their detestable images and idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold.

Deu 29:18 Make sure there is no man or woman, clan or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from the LORD our God to go and worship the gods of those nations; make sure there is no root among you that produces such bitter poison.

Deu 29:19 When such a person hears the words of this oath, he invokes a blessing on himself and therefore thinks, "I will be safe, even though I persist in going my own way." This will bring disaster on the watered land as well as the dry.

Deu 29:20 The LORD will never be willing to forgive him; his wrath and zeal will burn against that man. All the curses written in this book will fall upon him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under heaven.

Deu 29:21 The LORD will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for disaster, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this Book of the Law.

Deu 29:22 Your children who follow you in later generations and foreigners who come from distant lands will see the calamities that have fallen on the land and the diseases with which the LORD has afflicted it.

Deu 29:23 The whole land will be a burning waste of salt and sulfur-- nothing planted, nothing sprouting, no vegetation growing on it. It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in fierce anger.

Deu 29:24 All the nations will ask: "Why has the LORD done this to this land? Why this fierce, burning anger?"

Deu 29:25 And the answer will be: "It is because this people abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, the covenant he made with them when he brought them out of Egypt.

Deu 29:26 They went off and worshiped other gods and bowed down to them, gods they did not know, gods he had not given them.

Deu 29:27 Therefore the LORD's anger burned against this land, so that he brought on it all the curses written in this book.

Deu 29:28 In furious anger and in great wrath the LORD uprooted them from their land and thrust them into another land, as it is now."

Deu 29:29 The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may follow all the words of this law.

Deu 30:1 When all these blessings and curses I have set before you come upon you and you take them to heart wherever the LORD your God disperses you among the nations,

Deu 30:2 and when you and your children return to the LORD your God and obey him with all your heart and with all your soul according to everything I command you today,

Deu 30:3 then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes and have compassion on you and gather you again from all the nations where he scattered you.

Deu 30:4 Even if you have been banished to the most distant land under the heavens, from there the LORD your God will gather you and bring you back.

Deu 30:5 He will bring you to the land that belonged to your fathers, and you will take possession of it. He will make you more prosperous and numerous than your fathers.

Deu 30:6 The LORD your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants, so that you may love him with all your heart and with all your soul, and live.

Deu 30:7 The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies who hate and persecute you.

Deu 30:8 You will again obey the LORD and follow all his commands I am giving you today.

Deu 30:9 Then the LORD your God will make you most prosperous in all the work of your hands and in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your land. The LORD will again delight in you and make you prosperous, just as he delighted in your fathers,

Deu 30:10 if you obey the LORD your God and keep his commands and decrees that are written in this Book of the Law and turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 30:11 Now what I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach.

Deu 30:12 It is not up in heaven, so that you have to ask, "Who will ascend into heaven to get it and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?"

Deu 30:13 Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you have to ask, "Who will cross the sea to get it and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?"

Deu 30:14 No, the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart so you may obey it.

Deu 30:15 See, I set before you today life and prosperity, death and destruction.

Deu 30:16 For I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commands, decrees and laws; then you will live and increase, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.

Deu 30:17 But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them,

Deu 30:18 I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

Deu 30:19 This day I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live

Deu 30:20 and that you may love the LORD your God, listen to his voice, and hold fast to him. For the LORD is your life, and he will give you many years in the land he swore to give to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deu 31:1 Then Moses went out and spoke these words to all Israel:

Deu 31:2 "I am now a hundred and twenty years old and I am no longer able to lead you. The LORD has said to me, 'You shall not cross the Jordan.'

Deu 31:3 The LORD your God himself will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you will take possession of their land. Joshua also will cross over ahead of you, as the LORD said.

Deu 31:4 And the LORD will do to them what he did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, whom he destroyed along with their land.

Deu 31:5 The LORD will deliver them to you, and you must do to them all that I have commanded you.

Deu 31:6 Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you."

Deu 31:7 Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you must go with this people into the land that the LORD swore to their forefathers to give them, and you must divide it among them as their inheritance.

Deu 31:8 The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged."

Deu 31:9 So Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

Deu 31:10 Then Moses commanded them: "At the end of every seven years, in the year for canceling debts, during the Feast of Tabernacles,

Deu 31:11 when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose, you shall read this law before them in their hearing.

Deu 31:12 Assemble the people-- men, women and children, and the aliens living in your towns-- so they can listen and learn to fear the LORD your God and follow carefully all the words of this law.

Deu 31:13 Their children, who do not know this law, must hear it and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess."

Deu 31:14 The LORD said to Moses, "Now the day of your death is near. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, where I will commission him." So Moses and Joshua came and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting.

Deu 31:15 Then the LORD appeared at the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood over the entrance to the Tent.

Deu 31:16 And the LORD said to Moses: "You are going to rest with your fathers, and these people will soon prostitute themselves to the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will forsake me and break the covenant I made with them.

Deu 31:17 On that day I will become angry with them and forsake them; I will hide my face from them, and they will be destroyed. Many disasters and difficulties will come upon them, and on that day they will ask, 'Have not these disasters come upon us because our God is not with us?'

Deu 31:18 And I will certainly hide my face on that day because of all their wickedness in turning to other gods.

Deu 31:19 "Now write down for yourselves this song and teach it to the Israelites and have them sing it, so that it may be a witness for me against them.

Deu 31:20 When I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, the land I promised on oath to their forefathers, and when they eat their fill and thrive, they will turn to other gods and worship them, rejecting me and breaking my covenant.

Deu 31:21 And when many disasters and difficulties come upon them, this song will testify against them, because it will not be forgotten by their descendants. I know what they are disposed to do, even before I bring them into the land I promised them on oath."

Deu 31:22 So Moses wrote down this song that day and taught it to the Israelites.

Deu 31:23 The LORD gave this command to Joshua son of Nun: "Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the Israelites into the land I promised them on oath, and I myself will be with you."

Deu 31:24 After Moses finished writing in a book the words of this law from beginning to end,

Deu 31:25 he gave this command to the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD:

Deu 31:26 "Take this Book of the Law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God. There it will remain as a witness against you.

Deu 31:27 For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If you have been rebellious against the LORD while I am still alive and with you, how much more will you rebel after I die!

Deu 31:28 Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes and all your officials, so that I can speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to testify against them.

Deu 31:29 For I know that after my death you are sure to become utterly corrupt and to turn from the way I have commanded you. In days to come, disaster will fall upon you because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD and provoke him to anger by what your hands have made."

Deu 31:30 And Moses recited the words of this song from beginning to end in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

Deu 32:1 Listen, O heavens, and I will speak; hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Deu 32:2 Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew, like showers on new grass, like abundant rain on tender plants.

Deu 32:3 I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God!

Deu 32:4 He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.

Deu 32:5 They have acted corruptly toward him; to their shame they are no longer his children, but a warped and crooked generation.

Deu 32:6 Is this the way you repay the LORD, O foolish and unwise people? Is he not your Father, your Creator, who made you and formed you?

Deu 32:7 Remember the days of old; consider the generations long past. Ask your father and he will tell you, your elders, and they will explain to you.

Deu 32:8 When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when he divided all mankind, he set up boundaries for the peoples according to the number of the sons of Israel.

Deu 32:9 For the LORD's portion is his people, Jacob his allotted inheritance.

Deu 32:10 In a desert land he found him, in a barren and howling waste. He shielded him and cared for him; he guarded him as the apple of his eye,

Deu 32:11 like an eagle that stirs up its nest and hovers over its young, that spreads its wings to catch them and carries them on its pinions.

Deu 32:12 The LORD alone led him; no foreign god was with him.

Deu 32:13 He made him ride on the heights of the land and fed him with the fruit of the fields. He nourished him with honey from the rock, and with oil from the flinty crag,

Deu 32:14 with curds and milk from herd and flock and with fattened lambs and goats, with choice rams of Bashan and the finest kernels of wheat. You drank the foaming blood of the grape.

Deu 32:15 Jeshurun grew fat and kicked; filled with food, he became heavy and sleek. He abandoned the God who made him and rejected the Rock his Savior.

Deu 32:16 They made him jealous with their foreign gods and angered him with their detestable idols.

Deu 32:17 They sacrificed to demons, which are not God-- gods they had not known, gods that recently appeared, gods your fathers did not fear.

Deu 32:18 You deserted the Rock, who fathered you; you forgot the God who gave you birth.

Deu 32:19 The LORD saw this and rejected them because he was angered by his sons and daughters.

Deu 32:20 "I will hide my face from them," he said, "and see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children who are unfaithful.

Deu 32:21 They made me jealous by what is no god and angered me with their worthless idols. I will make them envious by those who are not a people; I will make them angry by a nation that has no understanding.

Deu 32:22 For a fire has been kindled by my wrath, one that burns to the realm of death below. It will devour the earth and its harvests and set afire the foundations of the mountains.

Deu 32:23 "I will heap calamities upon them and spend my arrows against them.

Deu 32:24 I will send wasting famine against them, consuming pestilence and deadly plague; I will send against them the fangs of wild beasts, the venom of vipers that glide in the dust.

Deu 32:25 In the street the sword will make them childless; in their homes terror will reign. Young men and young women will perish, infants and gray-haired men.

Deu 32:26 I said I would scatter them and blot out their memory from mankind,

Deu 32:27 but I dreaded the taunt of the enemy, lest the adversary misunderstand and say, 'Our hand has triumphed; the LORD has not done all this.'

Deu 32:28 They are a nation without sense, there is no discernment in them.

Deu 32:29 If only they were wise and would understand this and discern what their end will be!

Deu 32:30 How could one man chase a thousand, or two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, unless the LORD had given them up?

Deu 32:31 For their rock is not like our Rock, as even our enemies concede.

Deu 32:32 Their vine comes from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are filled with poison, and their clusters with bitterness.

Deu 32:33 Their wine is the venom of serpents, the deadly poison of cobras.

Deu 32:34 "Have I not kept this in reserve and sealed it in my vaults?

Deu 32:35 It is mine to avenge; I will repay. In due time their foot will slip; their day of disaster is near and their doom rushes upon them."

Deu 32:36 The LORD will judge his people and have compassion on his servants when he sees their strength is gone and no one is left, slave or free.

Deu 32:37 He will say: "Now where are their gods, the rock they took refuge in,

Deu 32:38 the gods who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up to help you! Let them give you shelter!"

Deu 32:39 "See now that I myself am He! There is no god besides me. I put to death and I bring to life, I have wounded and I will heal, and no one can deliver out of my hand.

Deu 32:40 I lift my hand to heaven and declare: As surely as I live forever,

Deu 32:41 when I sharpen my flashing sword and my hand grasps it in judgment, I will take vengeance on my adversaries and repay those who hate me.

Deu 32:42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, while my sword devours flesh: the blood of the slain and the captives, the heads of the enemy leaders."

Deu 32:43 Rejoice, O nations, with his people, for he will avenge the blood of his servants; he will take vengeance on his enemies and make atonement for his land and people.

Deu 32:44 Moses came with Joshua son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.

Deu 32:45 When Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel,

Deu 32:46 he said to them, "Take to heart all the words I have solemnly declared to you this day, so that you may command your children to obey carefully all the words of this law.

Deu 32:47 They are not just idle words for you-- they are your life. By them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess."

Deu 32:48 On that same day the LORD told Moses,

Deu 32:49 "Go up into the Abarim Range to Mount Nebo in Moab, across from Jericho, and view Canaan, the land I am giving the Israelites as their own possession.

Deu 32:50 There on the mountain that you have climbed you will die and be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.

Deu 32:51 This is because both of you broke faith with me in the presence of the Israelites at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Desert of Zin and because you did not uphold my holiness among the Israelites.

Deu 32:52 Therefore, you will see the land only from a distance; you will not enter the land I am giving to the people of Israel."

Deu 33:1 This is the blessing that Moses the man of God pronounced on the Israelites before his death.

Deu 33:2 He said: "The LORD came from Sinai and dawned over them from Seir; he shone forth from Mount Paran. He came with myriads of holy ones from the south, from his mountain slopes.

Deu 33:3 Surely it is you who love the people; all the holy ones are in your hand. At your feet they all bow down, and from you receive instruction,

Deu 33:4 the law that Moses gave us, the possession of the assembly of Jacob.

Deu 33:5 He was king over Jeshurun when the leaders of the people assembled, along with the tribes of Israel.

Deu 33:6 "Let Reuben live and not die, nor his men be few!"

Deu 33:7 And this he said about Judah: "Hear, O LORD, the cry of Judah; bring him to his people. With his own hands he defends his cause. Oh, be his help against his foes!"

Deu 33:8 About Levi he said: "Your Thummim and Urim belong to the man you favored. You tested him at Massah; you contended with him at the waters of Meribah.

Deu 33:9 He said of his father and mother, 'I have no regard for them.' He did not recognize his brothers or acknowledge his own children, but he watched over your word and guarded your covenant.

Deu 33:10 He teaches your precepts to Jacob and your law to Israel. He offers incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.

Deu 33:11 Bless all his skills, O LORD, and be pleased with the work of his hands. Smite the loins of those who rise up against him; strike his foes till they rise no more."

Deu 33:12 About Benjamin he said: "Let the beloved of the LORD rest secure in him, for he shields him all day long, and the one the LORD loves rests between his shoulders."

Deu 33:13 About Joseph he said: "May the LORD bless his land with the precious dew from heaven above and with the deep waters that lie below;

Deu 33:14 with the best the sun brings forth and the finest the moon can yield;

Deu 33:15 with the choicest gifts of the ancient mountains and the fruitfulness of the everlasting hills;

Deu 33:16 with the best gifts of the earth and its fullness and the favor of him who dwelt in the burning bush. Let all these rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

Deu 33:17 In majesty he is like a firstborn bull; his horns are the horns of a wild ox. With them he will gore the nations, even those at the ends of the earth. Such are the ten thousands of Ephraim; such are the thousands of Manasseh."

Deu 33:18 About Zebulun he said: "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and you, Issachar, in your tents.

Deu 33:19 They will summon peoples to the mountain and there offer sacrifices of righteousness; they will feast on the abundance of the seas, on the treasures hidden in the sand."

Deu 33:20 About Gad he said: "Blessed is he who enlarges Gad's domain! Gad lives there like a lion, tearing at arm or head.

Deu 33:21 He chose the best land for himself; the leader's portion was kept for him. When the heads of the people assembled, he carried out the LORD's righteous will, and his judgments concerning Israel."

Deu 33:22 About Dan he said: "Dan is a lion's cub, springing out of Bashan."

Deu 33:23 About Naphtali he said: "Naphtali is abounding with the favor of the LORD and is full of his blessing; he will inherit southward to the lake."

Deu 33:24 About Asher he said: "Most blessed of sons is Asher; let him be favored by his brothers, and let him bathe his feet in oil.

Deu 33:25 The bolts of your gates will be iron and bronze, and your strength will equal your days.

Deu 33:26 "There is no one like the God of Jeshurun, who rides on the heavens to help you and on the clouds in his majesty.

Deu 33:27 The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. He will drive out your enemy before you, saying, 'Destroy him!'

Deu 33:28 So Israel will live in safety alone; Jacob's spring is secure in a land of grain and new wine, where the heavens drop dew.

Deu 33:29 Blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD? He is your shield and helper and your glorious sword. Your enemies will cower before you, and you will trample down their high places."

Deu 34:1 Then Moses climbed Mount Nebo from the plains of Moab to the top of Pisgah, across from Jericho. There the LORD showed him the whole land-- from Gilead to Dan,

Deu 34:2 all of Naphtali, the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the western sea,

Deu 34:3 the Negev and the whole region from the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar.

Deu 34:4 Then the LORD said to him, "This is the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob when I said, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over into it."

Deu 34:5 And Moses the servant of the LORD died there in Moab, as the LORD had said.

Deu 34:6 He buried him in Moab, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, but to this day no one knows where his grave is.

Deu 34:7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were not weak nor his strength gone.

Deu 34:8 The Israelites grieved for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, until the time of weeping and mourning was over.

Deu 34:9 Now Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. So the Israelites listened to him and did what the LORD had commanded Moses.

Deu 34:10 Since then, no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

Deu 34:11 who did all those miraculous signs and wonders the LORD sent him to do in Egypt-- to Pharaoh and to all his officials and to his whole land.

Deu 34:12 For no one has ever shown the mighty power or performed the awesome deeds that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

Jos 1:1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' aide:

Jos 1:2 "Moses my servant is dead. Now then, you and all these people, get ready to cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them-- to the Israelites.

Jos 1:3 I will give you every place where you set your foot, as I promised Moses.

Jos 1:4 Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the great river, the Euphrates-- all the Hittite country-- to the Great Sea on the west.

Jos 1:5 No one will be able to stand up against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.

Jos 1:6 "Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their forefathers to give them.

Jos 1:7 Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go.

Jos 1:8 Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

Jos 1:9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go."

Jos 1:10 So Joshua ordered the officers of the people:

Jos 1:11 "Go through the camp and tell the people, 'Get your supplies ready. Three days from now you will cross the Jordan here to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you for your own.'"

Jos 1:12 But to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,

Jos 1:13 "Remember the command that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you: 'The LORD your God is giving you rest and has granted you this land.'

Jos 1:14 Your wives, your children and your livestock may stay in the land that Moses gave you east of the Jordan, but all your fighting men, fully armed, must cross over ahead of your brothers. You are to help your brothers

Jos 1:15 until the LORD gives them rest, as he has done for you, and until they too have taken possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them. After that, you may go back and occupy your own land, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you east of the Jordan toward the sunrise."

Jos 1:16 Then they answered Joshua, "Whatever you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

Jos 1:17 Just as we fully obeyed Moses, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses.

Jos 1:18 Whoever rebels against your word and does not obey your words, whatever you may command them, will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous!"

Jos 2:1 Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Shittim. "Go, look over the land," he said, "especially Jericho." So they went and entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab and stayed there.

Jos 2:2 The king of Jericho was told, "Look! Some of the Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land."

Jos 2:3 So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: "Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, because they have come to spy out the whole land."

Jos 2:4 But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She said, "Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they had come from.

Jos 2:5 At dusk, when it was time to close the city gate, the men left. I don't know which way they went. Go after them quickly. You may catch up with them."

Jos 2:6 (But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them under the stalks of flax she had laid out on the roof.)

Jos 2:7 So the men set out in pursuit of the spies on the road that leads to the fords of the Jordan, and as soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

Jos 2:8 Before the spies lay down for the night, she went up on the roof

Jos 2:9 and said to them, "I know that the LORD has given this land to you and that a great fear of you has fallen on us, so that all who live in this country are melting in fear because of you.

Jos 2:10 We have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan, whom you completely destroyed.

Jos 2:11 When we heard of it, our hearts melted and everyone's courage failed because of you, for the LORD your God is God in heaven above and on the earth below.

Jos 2:12 Now then, please swear to me by the LORD that you will show kindness to my family, because I have shown kindness to you. Give me a sure sign

Jos 2:13 that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and that you will save us from death."

Jos 2:14 "Our lives for your lives!" the men assured her. "If you don't tell what we are doing, we will treat you kindly and faithfully when the LORD gives us the land."

Jos 2:15 So she let them down by a rope through the window, for the house she lived in was part of the city wall.

Jos 2:16 Now she had said to them, "Go to the hills so the pursuers will not find you. Hide yourselves there three days until they return, and then go on your way."

Jos 2:17 The men said to her, "This oath you made us swear will not be binding on us

Jos 2:18 unless, when we enter the land, you have tied this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you have brought your father and mother, your brothers and all your family into your house.

Jos 2:19 If anyone goes outside your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head; we will not be responsible. As for anyone who is in the house with you, his blood will be on our head if a hand is laid on him.

Jos 2:20 But if you tell what we are doing, we will be released from the oath you made us swear."

Jos 2:21 "Agreed," she replied. "Let it be as you say." So she sent them away and they departed. And she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

Jos 2:22 When they left, they went into the hills and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had searched all along the road and returned without finding them.

Jos 2:23 Then the two men started back. They went down out of the hills, forded the river and came to Joshua son of Nun and told him everything that had happened to them.

Jos 2:24 They said to Joshua, "The LORD has surely given the whole land into our hands; all the people are melting in fear because of us."

Jos 3:1 Early in the morning Joshua and all the Israelites set out from Shittim and went to the Jordan, where they camped before crossing over.

Jos 3:2 After three days the officers went throughout the camp,

Jos 3:3 giving orders to the people: "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests, who are Levites, carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it.

Jos 3:4 Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before. But keep a distance of about a thousand yards between you and the ark; do not go near it."

Jos 3:5 Joshua told the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do amazing things among you."

Jos 3:6 Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on ahead of the people." So they took it up and went ahead of them.

Jos 3:7 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so they may know that I am with you as I was with Moses.

Jos 3:8 Tell the priests who carry the ark of the covenant: 'When you reach the edge of the Jordan's waters, go and stand in the river.'

Jos 3:9 Joshua said to the Israelites, "Come here and listen to the words of the LORD your God.

Jos 3:10 This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that he will certainly drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites and Jebusites.

Jos 3:11 See, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth will go into the Jordan ahead of you.

Jos 3:12 Now then, choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe.

Jos 3:13 And as soon as the priests who carry the ark of the LORD-- the Lord of all the earth-- set foot in the Jordan, its waters flowing downstream will be cut off and stand up in a heap."

Jos 3:14 So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them.

Jos 3:15 Now the Jordan is at flood stage all during harvest. Yet as soon as the priests who carried the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water's edge,

Jos 3:16 the water from upstream stopped flowing. It piled up in a heap a great distance away, at a town called Adam in the vicinity of Zarethan, while the water flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) was completely cut off. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho.

Jos 3:17 The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.

Jos 4:1 When the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua,

Jos 4:2 "Choose twelve men from among the people, one from each tribe,

Jos 4:3 and tell them to take up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan from right where the priests stood and to carry them over with you and put them down at the place where you stay tonight."

Jos 4:4 So Joshua called together the twelve men he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe,

Jos 4:5 and said to them, "Go over before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan. Each of you is to take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites,

Jos 4:6 to serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you, 'What do these stones mean?' Jos 4:7 tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial to the people of Israel forever."

Jos 4:8 So the Israelites did as Joshua commanded them. They took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, as the LORD had told Joshua; and they carried them over with them to their camp, where they put them down.

Jos 4:9 Joshua set up the twelve stones that had been in the middle of the Jordan at the spot where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are there to this day.

Jos 4:10 Now the priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything the LORD had commanded Joshua was done by the people, just as Moses had directed Joshua. The people hurried over,

Jos 4:11 and as soon as all of them had crossed, the ark of the LORD and the priests came to the other side while the people watched.

Jos 4:12 The men of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over, armed, in front of the Israelites, as Moses had directed them.

Jos 4:13 About forty thousand armed for battle crossed over before the LORD to the plains of Jericho for war.

Jos 4:14 That day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they revered him all the days of his life, just as they had revered Moses.

Jos 4:15 Then the LORD said to Joshua,

Jos 4:16 "Command the priests carrying the ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan."

Jos 4:17 So Joshua commanded the priests, "Come up out of the Jordan."

Jos 4:18 And the priests came up out of the river carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD. No sooner had they set their feet on the dry ground than the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and ran at flood stage as before.

Jos 4:19 On the tenth day of the first month the people went up from the Jordan and camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho.

Jos 4:20 And Joshua set up at Gilgal the twelve stones they had taken out of the Jordan.

Jos 4:21 He said to the Israelites, "In the future when your descendants ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean?'

Jos 4:22 tell them, 'Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.'

Jos 4:23 For the LORD your God dried up the Jordan before you until you had crossed over. The LORD your God did to the Jordan just what he had done to the Red Sea when he dried it up before us until we had crossed over.

Jos 4:24 He did this so that all the peoples of the earth might know that the hand of the LORD is powerful and so that you might always fear the LORD your God."

Jos 5:1 Now when all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the coast heard how the LORD had dried up the Jordan before the Israelites until we had crossed over, their hearts melted and they no longer had the courage to face the Israelites.

Jos 5:2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites again."

Jos 5:3 So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath Haaraloth.

Jos 5:4 Now this is why he did so: All those who came out of Egypt-- all the men of military age-- died in the desert on the way after leaving Egypt.

Jos 5:5 All the people that came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the desert during the journey from Egypt had not.

Jos 5:6 The Israelites had moved about in the desert forty years until all the men who were of military age when they left Egypt had died, since they had not obeyed the LORD. For the LORD had sworn to them that they would not see the land that he had solemnly promised their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Jos 5:7 So he raised up their sons in their place, and these were the ones Joshua circumcised. They were still uncircumcised because they had not been circumcised on the way.

Jos 5:8 And after the whole nation had been circumcised, they remained where they were in camp until they were healed.

Jos 5:9 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." So the place has been called Gilgal to this day.

Jos 5:10 On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, while camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites celebrated the Passover.

Jos 5:11 The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain.

Jos 5:12 The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate of the produce of Canaan.

Jos 5:13 Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, "Are you for us or for our enemies?"

Jos 5:14 "Neither," he replied, "but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." Then Joshua fell facedown to the ground in reverence, and asked him, "What message does my Lord have for his servant?"

Jos 5:15 The commander of the LORD's army replied, "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did so.

Jos 6:1 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No one went out and no one came in.

Jos 6:2 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men.

Jos 6:3 March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days.

Jos 6:4 Have seven priests carry trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets.

Jos 6:5 When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, have all the people give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse and the people will go up, every man straight in."

Jos 6:6 So Joshua son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant of the LORD and have seven priests carry trumpets in front of it."

Jos 6:7 And he ordered the people, "Advance! March around the city, with the armed guard going ahead of the ark of the LORD."

Jos 6:8 When Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets before the LORD went forward, blowing their trumpets, and the ark of the LORD's covenant followed them.

Jos 6:9 The armed guard marched ahead of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard followed the ark. All this time the trumpets were sounding.

Jos 6:10 But Joshua had commanded the people, "Do not give a war cry, do not raise your voices, do not say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout!"

Jos 6:11 So he had the ark of the LORD carried around the city, circling it once. Then the people returned to camp and spent the night there.

Jos 6:12 Joshua got up early the next morning and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

Jos 6:13 The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets went forward, marching before the ark of the LORD and blowing the trumpets. The armed men went ahead of them and the rear guard followed the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets kept sounding.

Jos 6:14 So on the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

Jos 6:15 On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times.

Jos 6:16 The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city!"

Jos 6:17 The city and all that is in it are to be devoted to the LORD. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall be spared, because she hid the spies we sent.

Jos 6:18 But keep away from the devoted things, so that you will not bring about your own destruction by taking any of them. Otherwise you will make the camp of Israel liable to destruction and bring trouble on it.

Jos 6:19 All the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron are sacred to the LORD and must go into his treasury."

Jos 6:20 When the trumpets sounded, the people shouted, and at the sound of the trumpet, when the people gave a loud shout, the wall collapsed; so every man charged straight in, and they took the city.

Jos 6:21 They devoted the city to the LORD and destroyed with the sword every living thing in it-- men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys.

Jos 6:22 Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the prostitute's house and bring her out and all who belong to her, in accordance with your oath to her."

Jos 6:23 So the young men who had done the spying went in and brought out Rahab, her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her. They brought out her entire family and put them in a place outside the camp of Israel.

Jos 6:24 Then they burned the whole city and everything in it, but they put the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron into the treasury of the LORD's house.

Jos 6:25 But Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, because she hid the men Joshua had sent as spies to Jericho-- and she lives among the Israelites to this day.

Jos 6:26 At that time Joshua pronounced this solemn oath: "Cursed before the LORD is the man who undertakes to rebuild this city, Jericho: "At the cost of his firstborn son will he lay its foundations; at the cost of his youngest will he set up its gates."

Jos 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

Jos 7:1 But the Israelites acted unfaithfully in regard to the devoted things; Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of them. So the LORD's anger burned against Israel.

Jos 7:2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth Aven to the east of Bethel, and told them, "Go up and spy out the region." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

Jos 7:3 When they returned to Joshua, they said, "Not all the people will have to go up against Ai. Send two or three thousand men to take it and do not weary all the people, for only a few men are there."

Jos 7:4 So about three thousand men went up; but they were routed by the men of Ai,

Jos 7:5 who killed about thirty-six of them. They chased the Israelites from the city gate as far as the stone quarries and struck them down on the slopes. At this the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

Jos 7:6 Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell facedown to the ground before the ark of the LORD, remaining there till evening. The elders of Israel did the same, and sprinkled dust on their heads.

Jos 7:7 And Joshua said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD, why did you ever bring this people across the Jordan to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? If only we had been content to stay on the other side of the Jordan!

Jos 7:8 O Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has been routed by its enemies?

Jos 7:9 The Canaanites and the other people of the country will hear about this and they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. What then will you do for your own great name?"

Jos 7:10 The LORD said to Joshua, "Stand up! What are you doing down on your face?

Jos 7:11 Israel has sinned; they have violated my covenant, which I commanded them to keep. They have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, they have lied, they have put them with their own possessions.

Jos 7:12 That is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies; they turn their backs and run because they have been made liable to destruction. I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy whatever among you is devoted to destruction.

Jos 7:13 "Go, consecrate the people. Tell them, 'Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow; for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: That which is devoted is among you, O Israel. You cannot stand against your enemies until you remove it.'

Jos 7:14 "In the morning, present yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe that the LORD takes shall come forward clan by clan; the clan that the LORD takes shall come forward family by family; and the family that the LORD takes shall come forward man by man.

Jos 7:15 He who is caught with the devoted things shall be destroyed by fire, along with all that belongs to him. He has violated the covenant of the LORD and has done a disgraceful thing in Israel!"

Jos 7:16 Early the next morning Joshua had Israel come forward by tribes, and Judah was taken.

Jos 7:17 The clans of Judah came forward, and he took the Zerahites. He had the clan of the Zerahites come forward by families, and Zimri was taken.

Jos 7:18 Joshua had his family come forward man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

Jos 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give him the praise. Tell me what you have done; do not hide it from me."

Jos 7:20 Achan replied, "It is true! I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I have done:

Jos 7:21 When I saw in the plunder a beautiful robe from Babylonia, two hundred shekels of silver and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

Jos 7:22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver underneath.

Jos 7:23 They took the things from the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites and spread them out before the LORD.

Jos 7:24 Then Joshua, together with all Israel, took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the gold wedge, his sons and daughters, his cattle, donkeys and sheep, his tent and all that he had, to the Valley of Achor.

Jos 7:25 Joshua said, "Why have you brought this trouble on us? The LORD will bring trouble on you today." Then all Israel stoned him, and after they had stoned the rest, they burned them.

Jos 7:26 Over Achan they heaped up a large pile of rocks, which remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from his fierce anger. Therefore that place has been called the Valley of Achor ever since.

Jos 8:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Take the whole army with you, and go up and attack Ai. For I have delivered into your hands the king of Ai, his people, his city and his land.

Jos 8:2 You shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king, except that you may carry off their plunder and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city."

Jos 8:3 So Joshua and the whole army moved out to attack Ai. He chose thirty thousand of his best fighting men and sent them out at night

Jos 8:4 with these orders: "Listen carefully. You are to set an ambush behind the city. Don't go very far from it. All of you be on the alert.

Jos 8:5 I and all those with me will advance on the city, and when the men come out against us, as they did before, we will flee from them.

Jos 8:6 They will pursue us until we have lured them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are running away from us as they did before.' So when we flee from them,

Jos 8:7 you are to rise up from ambush and take the city. The LORD your God will give it into your hand.

Jos 8:8 When you have taken the city, set it on fire. Do what the LORD has commanded. See to it; you have my orders."

Jos 8:9 Then Joshua sent them off, and they went to the place of ambush and lay in wait between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai-- but Joshua spent that night with the people.

Jos 8:10 Early the next morning Joshua mustered his men, and he and the leaders of Israel marched before them to Ai.

Jos 8:11 The entire force that was with him marched up and approached the city and arrived in front of it. They set up camp north of Ai, with the valley between them and the city.

Jos 8:12 Joshua had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.

Jos 8:13 They had the soldiers take up their positions-- all those in the camp to the north of the city and the ambush to the west of it. That night Joshua went into the valley.

Jos 8:14 When the king of Ai saw this, he and all the men of the city hurried out early in the morning to meet Israel in battle at a certain place overlooking the Arabah. But he did not know that an ambush had been set against him behind the city.

Jos 8:15 Joshua and all Israel let themselves be driven back before them, and they fled toward the desert.

Jos 8:16 All the men of Ai were called to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were lured away from the city.

Jos 8:17 Not a man remained in Ai or Bethel who did not go after Israel. They left the city open and went in pursuit of Israel.

Jos 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Hold out toward Ai the javelin that is in your hand, for into your hand I will deliver the city." So Joshua held out his javelin toward Ai.

Jos 8:19 As soon as he did this, the men in the ambush rose quickly from their position and rushed forward. They entered the city and captured it and quickly set it on fire.

Jos 8:20 The men of Ai looked back and saw the smoke of the city rising against the sky, but they had no chance to escape in any direction, for the Israelites who had been fleeing toward the desert had turned back against their pursuers.

Jos 8:21 For when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that smoke was going up from the city, they turned around and attacked the men of Ai.

Jos 8:22 The men of the ambush also came out of the city against them, so that they were caught in the middle, with Israelites on both sides. Israel cut them down, leaving them neither survivors nor fugitives.

Jos 8:23 But they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

Jos 8:24 When Israel had finished killing all the men of Ai in the fields and in the desert where they had chased them, and when every one of them had been put to the sword, all the Israelites returned to Ai and killed those who were in it.

Jos 8:25 Twelve thousand men and women fell that day-- all the people of Ai.

Jos 8:26 For Joshua did not draw back the hand that held out his javelin until he had destroyed all who lived in Ai.

Jos 8:27 But Israel did carry off for themselves the livestock and plunder of this city, as the LORD had instructed Joshua.

Jos 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a permanent heap of ruins, a desolate place to this day.

Jos 8:29 He hung the king of Ai on a tree and left him there until evening. At sunset, Joshua ordered them to take his body from the tree and throw it down at the entrance of the city gate. And they raised a large pile of rocks over it, which remains to this day.

Jos 8:30 Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel,

Jos 8:31 as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites. He built it according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses-- an altar of uncut stones, on which no iron tool had been used. On it they offered to the LORD burnt offerings and sacrificed fellowship offerings.

Jos 8:32 There, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua copied on stones the law of Moses, which he had written.

Jos 8:33 All Israel, aliens and citizens alike, with their elders, officials and judges, were standing on both sides of the ark of the covenant of the LORD, facing those who carried it-- the priests, who were Levites. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had formerly commanded when he gave instructions to bless the people of Israel.

Jos 8:34 Afterward, Joshua read all the words of the law-- the blessings and the curses-- just as it is written in the Book of the Law.

Jos 8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read to the whole assembly of Israel, including the women and children, and the aliens who lived among them.

Jos 9:1 Now when all the kings west of the Jordan heard about these things-- those in the hill country, in the western foothills, and along the entire coast of the Great Sea as far as Lebanon (the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites)--

Jos 9:2 they came together to make war against Joshua and Israel.

Jos 9:3 However, when the people of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,

Jos 9:4 they resorted to a ruse: They went as a delegation whose donkeys were loaded with worn-out sacks and old wineskins, cracked and mended.

Jos 9:5 The men put worn and patched sandals on their feet and wore old clothes. All the bread of their food supply was dry and moldy.

Jos 9:6 Then they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant country; make a treaty with us."

Jos 9:7 The men of Israel said to the Hivites, "But perhaps you live near us. How then can we make a treaty with you?"

Jos 9:8 "We are your servants," they said to Joshua. But Joshua asked, "Who are you and where do you come from?"

Jos 9:9 They answered: "Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the fame of the LORD your God. For we have heard reports of him: all that he did in Egypt,

Jos 9:10 and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan-- Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

Jos 9:11 And our elders and all those living in our country said to us, 'Take provisions for your journey; go and meet them and say to them, "We are your servants; make a treaty with us."

Jos 9:12 This bread of ours was warm when we packed it at home on the day we left to come to you. But now see how dry and moldy it is.

Jos 9:13 And these wineskins that we filled were new, but see how cracked they are. And our clothes and sandals are worn out by the very long journey."

Jos 9:14 The men of Israel sampled their provisions but did not inquire of the LORD.

Jos 9:15 Then Joshua made a treaty of peace with them to let them live, and the leaders of the assembly ratified it by oath.

Jos 9:16 Three days after they made the treaty with the Gibeonites, the Israelites heard that they were neighbors, living near them.

Jos 9:17 So the Israelites set out and on the third day came to their cities: Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth and Kiriath Jearim.

Jos 9:18 But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the assembly had sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. The whole assembly grumbled against the leaders, Jos 9:19 but all the leaders answered, "We have given them our oath by the LORD, the God of Israel, and we cannot touch them now.

Jos 9:20 This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, so that wrath will not fall on us for breaking the oath we swore to them."

Jos 9:21 They continued, "Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for the entire community." So the leaders' promise to them was kept.

Jos 9:22 Then Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said, "Why did you deceive us by saying, 'We live a long way from you,' while actually you live near us?

Jos 9:23 You are now under a curse: You will never cease to serve as woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."

Jos 9:24 They answered Joshua, "Your servants were clearly told how the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you the whole land and to wipe out all its inhabitants from before you. So we feared for our lives because of you, and that is why we did this.

Jos 9:25 We are now in your hands. Do to us whatever seems good and right to you."

Jos 9:26 So Joshua saved them from the Israelites, and they did not kill them.

Jos 9:27 That day he made the Gibeonites woodcutters and water carriers for the community and for the altar of the LORD at the place the LORD would choose. And that is what they are to this day.

Jos 10:1 Now Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai and totally destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and that the people of Gibeon had made a treaty of peace with Israel and were living near them.

Jos 10:2 He and his people were very much alarmed at this, because Gibeon was an important city, like one of the royal cities; it was larger than Ai, and all its men were good fighters.

Jos 10:3 So Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem appealed to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish and Debir king of Eglon.

Jos 10:4 "Come up and help me attack Gibeon," he said, "because it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."

Jos 10:5 Then the five kings of the Amorites-- the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon-- joined forces. They moved up with all their troops and took up positions against Gibeon and attacked it.

Jos 10:6 The Gibeonites then sent word to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal: "Do not abandon your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, because all the Amorite kings from the hill country have joined forces against us."

Jos 10:7 So Joshua marched up from Gilgal with his entire army, including all the best fighting men.

Jos 10:8 The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them; I have given them into your hand. Not one of them will be able to withstand you."

Jos 10:9 After an all-night march from Gilgal, Joshua took them by surprise.

Jos 10:10 The LORD threw them into confusion before Israel, who defeated them in a great victory at Gibeon. Israel pursued them along the road going up to Beth Horon and cut them down all the way to Azekah and Makkedah.

Jos 10:11 As they fled before Israel on the road down from Beth Horon to Azekah, the LORD hurled large hailstones down on them from the sky, and more of them died from the hailstones than were killed by the swords of the Israelites.

Jos 10:12 On the day the LORD gave the Amorites over to Israel, Joshua said to the LORD in the presence of Israel: "O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon."

Jos 10:13 So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, till the nation avenged itself on its enemies, as it is written in the Book of Jashar. The sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed going down about a full day.

Jos 10:14 There has never been a day like it before or since, a day when the LORD listened to a man. Surely the LORD was fighting for Israel!

Jos 10:15 Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

Jos 10:16 Now the five kings had fled and hidden in the cave at Makkedah.

Jos 10:17 When Joshua was told that the five kings had been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah,

Jos 10:18 he said, "Roll large rocks up to the mouth of the cave, and post some men there to guard it.

Jos 10:19 But don't stop! Pursue your enemies, attack them from the rear and don't let them reach their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand."

Jos 10:20 So Joshua and the Israelites destroyed them completely-- almost to a man-- but the few who were left reached their fortified cities.

Jos 10:21 The whole army then returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah, and no one uttered a word against the Israelites.

Jos 10:22 Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me."

Jos 10:23 So they brought the five kings out of the cave-- the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon.

Jos 10:24 When they had brought these kings to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the army commanders who had come with him, "Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came forward and placed their feet on their necks.

Jos 10:25 Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Be strong and courageous. This is what the LORD will do to all the enemies you are going to fight."

Jos 10:26 Then Joshua struck and killed the kings and hung them on five trees, and they were left hanging on the trees until evening.

Jos 10:27 At sunset Joshua gave the order and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had been hiding. At the mouth of the cave they placed large rocks, which are there to this day.

Jos 10:28 That day Joshua took Makkedah. He put the city and its king to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it. He left no survivors. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Makkedah to Libnah and attacked it.

Jos 10:30 The LORD also gave that city and its king into Israel's hand. The city and everyone in it Joshua put to the sword. He left no survivors there. And he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:31 Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Libnah to Lachish; he took up positions against it and attacked it.

Jos 10:32 The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel, and Joshua took it on the second day. The city and everyone in it he put to the sword, just as he had done to Libnah.

Jos 10:33 Meanwhile, Horam king of Gezer had come up to help Lachish, but Joshua defeated him and his army-- until no survivors were left.

Jos 10:34 Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Lachish to Eglon; they took up positions against it and attacked it.

Jos 10:35 They captured it that same day and put it to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it, just as they had done to Lachish.

Jos 10:36 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it.

Jos 10:37 They took the city and put it to the sword, together with its king, its villages and everyone in it. They left no survivors. Just as at Eglon, they totally destroyed it and everyone in it.

Jos 10:38 Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned around and attacked Debir.

Jos 10:39 They took the city, its king and its villages, and put them to the sword. Everyone in it they totally destroyed. They left no survivors. They did to Debir and its king as they had done to Libnah and its king and to Hebron.

Jos 10:40 So Joshua subdued the whole region, including the hill country, the Negev, the western foothills and the mountain slopes, together with all their kings. He left no survivors. He totally destroyed all who breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded.

Jos 10:41 Joshua subdued them from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza and from the whole region of Goshen to Gibeon.

Jos 10:42 All these kings and their lands Joshua conquered in one campaign, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

Jos 10:43 Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

Jos 11:1 When Jabin king of Hazor heard of this, he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, to the kings of Shimron and Acshaph,

Jos 11:2 and to the northern kings who were in the mountains, in the Arabah south of Kinnereth, in the western foothills and in Naphoth Dor on the west;

Jos 11:3 to the Canaanites in the east and west; to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites in the hill country; and to the Hivites below Hermon in the region of Mizpah.

Jos 11:4 They came out with all their troops and a large number of horses and chariots-- a huge army, as numerous as the sand on the seashore.

Jos 11:5 All these kings joined forces and made camp together at the Waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

Jos 11:6 The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, because by this time tomorrow I will hand all of them over to Israel, slain. You are to hamstring their horses and burn their chariots."

Jos 11:7 So Joshua and his whole army came against them suddenly at the Waters of Merom and attacked them,

Jos 11:8 and the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel. They defeated them and pursued them all the way to Greater Sidon, to Misrephoth Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpah on the east, until no survivors were left.

Jos 11:9 Joshua did to them as the LORD had directed: He hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

Jos 11:10 At that time Joshua turned back and captured Hazor and put its king to the sword. (Hazor had been the head of all these kingdoms.)

Jos 11:11 Everyone in it they put to the sword. They totally destroyed them, not sparing anything that breathed, and he burned up Hazor itself.

Jos 11:12 Joshua took all these royal cities and their kings and put them to the sword. He totally destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

Jos 11:13 Yet Israel did not burn any of the cities built on their mounds-- except Hazor, which Joshua burned.

Jos 11:14 The Israelites carried off for themselves all the plunder and livestock of these cities, but all the people they put to the sword until they completely destroyed them, not sparing anyone that breathed.

Jos 11:15 As the LORD commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and Joshua did it; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

Jos 11:16 So Joshua took this entire land: the hill country, all the Negev, the whole region of Goshen, the western foothills, the Arabah and the mountains of Israel with their foothills,

Jos 11:17 from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and struck them down, putting them to death.

Jos 11:18 Joshua waged war against all these kings for a long time.

Jos 11:19 Except for the Hivites living in Gibeon, not one city made a treaty of peace with the Israelites, who took them all in battle.

Jos 11:20 For it was the LORD himself who hardened their hearts to wage war against Israel, so that he might destroy them totally, exterminating them without mercy, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Jos 11:21 At that time Joshua went and destroyed the Anakites from the hill country: from Hebron, Debir and Anab, from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua totally destroyed them and their towns.

Jos 11:22 No Anakites were left in Israelite territory; only in Gaza, Gath and Ashdod did any survive.

Jos 11:23 So Joshua took the entire land, just as the LORD had directed Moses, and he gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal divisions. Then the land had rest from war.

Jos 12:1 These are the kings of the land whom the Israelites had defeated and whose territory they took over east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge to Mount Hermon, including all the eastern side of the Arabah:

Jos 12:2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge-- from the middle of the gorge-- to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites. This included half of Gilead.

Jos 12:3 He also ruled over the eastern Arabah from the Sea of Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), to Beth Jeshimoth, and then southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

Jos 12:4 And the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaites, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

Jos 12:5 He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, all of Bashan to the border of the people of Geshur and Maacah, and half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

Jos 12:6 Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites conquered them. And Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh to be their possession.

Jos 12:7 These are the kings of the land that Joshua and the Israelites conquered on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir (their lands Joshua gave as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel according to their tribal divisions--

Jos 12:8 the hill country, the western foothills, the Arabah, the mountain slopes, the desert and the Negev-- the lands of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites):

Jos 12:9 the king of Jericho one the king of Ai (near Bethel) one

Jos 12:10 the king of Jerusalem one the king of Hebron one

Jos 12:11 the king of Jarmuth one the king of Lachish one

Jos 12:12 the king of Eglon one the king of Gezer one

Jos 12:13 the king of Debir one the king of Geder one

Jos 12:14 the king of Hormah one the king of Arad one

Jos 12:15 the king of Libnah one the king of Adullam one

Jos 12:16 the king of Makkedah one the king of Bethel one

Jos 12:17 the king of Tappuah one the king of Hepher one

Jos 12:18 the king of Aphek one the king of Lasharon one

Jos 12:19 the king of Madon one the king of Hazor one

Jos 12:20 the king of Shimron Meron one the king of Acshaph one

Jos 12:21 the king of Taanach one the king of Megiddo one

Jos 12:22 the king of Kedesh one the king of Jokneam in Carmel one

Jos 12:23 the king of Dor (in Naphoth Dor) one the king of Goyim in Gilgal one

Jos 12:24 the king of Tirzah one thirty-one kings in all.

Jos 13:1 When Joshua was old and well advanced in years, the LORD said to him, "You are very old, and there are still very large areas of land to be taken over.

Jos 13:2 "This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and Geshurites:

Jos 13:3 from the Shihor River on the east of Egypt to the territory of Ekron on the north, all of it counted as Canaanite (the territory of the five Philistine rulers in Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron-- that of the Avvites);

Jos 13:4 from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, from Arah of the Sidonians as far as Aphek, the region of the Amorites,

Jos 13:5 the area of the Gebalites; and all Lebanon to the east, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

Jos 13:6 "As for all the inhabitants of the mountain regions from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, that is, all the Sidonians, I myself will drive them out before the Israelites. Be sure to allocate this land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have instructed you,

Jos 13:7 and divide it as an inheritance among the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh."

Jos 13:8 The other half of Manasseh, the Reubenites and the Gadites had received the inheritance that Moses had given them east of the Jordan, as he, the servant of the LORD, had assigned it to them.

Jos 13:9 It extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and included the whole plateau of Medeba as far as Dibon,

Jos 13:10 and all the towns of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, out to the border of the Ammonites.

Jos 13:11 It also included Gilead, the territory of the people of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon and all Bashan as far as Salecah--

Jos 13:12 that is, the whole kingdom of Og in Bashan, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei and had survived as one of the last of the Rephaites. Moses had defeated them and taken over their land.

Jos 13:13 But the Israelites did not drive out the people of Geshur and Maacah, so they continue to live among the Israelites to this day.

Jos 13:14 But to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance, since the offerings made by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as he promised them.

Jos 13:15 This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Reuben, clan by clan:

Jos 13:16 The territory from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and the whole plateau past Medeba

Jos 13:17 to Heshbon and all its towns on the plateau, including Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon,

Jos 13:18 Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

Jos 13:19 Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley,

Jos 13:20 Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth

Jos 13:21 --all the towns on the plateau and the entire realm of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled at Heshbon. Moses had defeated him and the Midianite chiefs, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba-- princes allied with Sihon-- who lived in that country.

Jos 13:22 In addition to those slain in battle, the Israelites had put to the sword Balaam son of Beor, who practiced divination.

Jos 13:23 The boundary of the Reubenites was the bank of the Jordan. These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Reubenites, clan by clan.

Jos 13:24 This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Gad, clan by clan:

Jos 13:25 The territory of Jazer, all the towns of Gilead and half the Ammonite country as far as Aroer, near Rabbah;

Jos 13:26 and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir;

Jos 13:27 and in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth and Zaphon with the rest of the realm of Sihon king of Heshbon (the east side of the Jordan, the territory up to the end of the Sea of Kinnereth).

Jos 13:28 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Gadites, clan by clan.

Jos 13:29 This is what Moses had given to the half-tribe of Manasseh, that is, to half the family of the descendants of Manasseh, clan by clan:

Jos 13:30 The territory extending from Mahanaim and including all of Bashan, the entire realm of Og king of Bashan-- all the settlements of Jair in Bashan, sixty towns,

Jos 13:31 half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei (the royal cities of Og in Bashan). This was for the descendants of Makir son of Manasseh-- for half of the sons of Makir, clan by clan.

Jos 13:32 This is the inheritance Moses had given when he was in the plains of Moab across the Jordan east of Jericho.

Jos 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi, Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he promised them.

Jos 14:1 Now these are the areas the Israelites received as an inheritance in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel allotted to them.

Jos 14:2 Their inheritances were assigned by lot to the nine-and-a-half tribes, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Jos 14:3 Moses had granted the two-and-a-half tribes their inheritance east of the Jordan but had not granted the Levites an inheritance among the rest,

Jos 14:4 for the sons of Joseph had become two tribes-- Manasseh and Ephraim. The Levites received no share of the land but only towns to live in, with pasturelands for their flocks and herds.

Jos 14:5 So the Israelites divided the land, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Jos 14:6 Now the men of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God at Kadesh Barnea about you and me.

Jos 14:7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to explore the land. And I brought him back a report according to my convictions,

Jos 14:8 but my brothers who went up with me made the hearts of the people melt with fear. I, however, followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.

Jos 14:9 So on that day Moses swore to me, 'The land on which your feet have walked will be your inheritance and that of your children forever, because you have followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.'

Jos 14:10 "Now then, just as the LORD promised, he has kept me alive for forty-five years since the time he said this to Moses, while Israel moved about in the desert. So here I am today, eighty-five years old!

Jos 14:11 I am still as strong today as the day Moses sent me out; I'm just as vigorous to go out to battle now as I was then.

Jos 14:12 Now give me this hill country that the LORD promised me that day. You yourself heard then that the Anakites were there and their cities were large and fortified, but, the LORD helping me, I will drive them out just as he said."

Jos 14:13 Then Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron as his inheritance.

Jos 14:14 So Hebron has belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite ever since, because he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, wholeheartedly.

Jos 14:15 (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba after Arba, who was the greatest man among the Anakites.) Then the land had rest from war.

Jos 15:1 The allotment for the tribe of Judah, clan by clan, extended down to the territory of Edom, to the Desert of Zin in the extreme south.

Jos 15:2 Their southern boundary started from the bay at the southern end of the Salt Sea,

Jos 15:3 crossed south of Scorpion Pass, continued on to Zin and went over to the south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it ran past Hezron up to Addar and curved around to Karka.

Jos 15:4 It then passed along to Azmon and joined the Wadi of Egypt, ending at the sea. This is their southern boundary.

Jos 15:5 The eastern boundary is the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. The northern boundary started from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan,

Jos 15:6 went up to Beth Hoglah and continued north of Beth Arabah to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Jos 15:7 The boundary then went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor and turned north to Gilgal, which faces the Pass of Adummim south of the gorge. It continued along to the waters of En Shemesh and came out at En Rogel.

Jos 15:8 Then it ran up the Valley of Ben Hinnom along the southern slope of the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem). From there it climbed to the top of the hill west of the Hinnom Valley at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim.

Jos 15:9 From the hilltop the boundary headed toward the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, came out at the towns of Mount Ephron and went down toward Baalah (that is, Kiriath Jearim).

Jos 15:10 Then it curved westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, ran along the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Kesalon), continued down to Beth Shemesh and crossed to Timnah.

Jos 15:11 It went to the northern slope of Ekron, turned toward Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah and reached Jabneel. The boundary ended at the sea.

Jos 15:12 The western boundary is the coastline of the Great Sea. These are the boundaries around the people of Judah by their clans.

Jos 15:13 In accordance with the LORD's command to him, Joshua gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh a portion in Judah-- Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

Jos 15:14 From Hebron Caleb drove out the three Anakites-- Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai-- descendants of Anak.

Jos 15:15 From there he marched against the people living in Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher).

Jos 15:16 And Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher."

Jos 15:17 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.

Jos 15:18 One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What can I do for you?"

Jos 15:19 She replied, "Do me a special favor. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Jos 15:20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Judah, clan by clan:

Jos 15:21 The southernmost towns of the tribe of Judah in the Negev toward the boundary of Edom were:

Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

Jos 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Jos 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Jos 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Jos 15:25 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (that is, Hazor),

Jos 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Jos 15:27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,

Jos 15:28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah,

Jos 15:29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem,

Jos 15:30 Eltolad, Kesil, Hormah,

Jos 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Jos 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain and Rimmon-- a total of twenty-nine towns and their villages.

Jos 15:33 In the western foothills: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,
Jos 15:34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,
Jos 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,
Jos 15:36 Shaaraim, Adithaim and Gederah (or Gederothaim)--fourteen towns and their villages.
Jos 15:37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad,
Jos 15:38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,
Jos 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,
Jos 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmas, Kitlish,
Jos 15:41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah and Makkedah-- sixteen towns and their villages.
Jos 15:42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,
Jos 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,
Jos 15:44 Keilah, Aczib and Mareshah-- nine towns and their villages.
Jos 15:45 Ekron, with its surrounding settlements and villages;
Jos 15:46 west of Ekron, all that were in the vicinity of Ashdod, together with their villages;
Jos 15:47 Ashdod, its surrounding settlements and villages; and Gaza, its settlements and villages, as far as the Wadi of Egypt and the coastline of the Great Sea.
Jos 15:48 In the hill country: Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,
Jos 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath Sannah (that is, Debir),
Jos 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,
Jos 15:51 Goshen, Holon and Giloh-- eleven towns and their villages.
Jos 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan,
Jos 15:53 Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,
Jos 15:54 Humtah, Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) and Zior-- nine towns and their villages.
Jos 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
Jos 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,
Jos 15:57 Kain, Gibeah and Timnah-- ten towns and their villages.
Jos 15:58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,
Jos 15:59 Maarath, Beth Anoth and Eltekon-- six towns and their villages.
Jos 15:60 Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim) and Rabbah-- two towns and their villages.
Jos 15:61 In the desert: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,
Jos 15:62 Nibshan, the City of Salt and En Gedi-- six towns and their villages.
Jos 15:63 Judah could not dislodge the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem; to this day the Jebusites live there with the people of Judah.
Jos 16:1 The allotment for Joseph began at the Jordan of Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, and went up from there through the desert into the hill country of Bethel.
Jos 16:2 It went on from Bethel (that is, Luz), crossed over to the territory of the Arkites in Ataroth,
Jos 16:3 descended westward to the territory of the Japhletites as far as the region of Lower Beth Horon and on to Gezer, ending at the sea.
Jos 16:4 So Manasseh and Ephraim, the descendants of Joseph, received their inheritance.
Jos 16:5 This was the territory of Ephraim, clan by clan: The boundary of their inheritance went from Ataroth Addar in the east to Upper Beth Horon
Jos 16:6 and continued to the sea. From Micmethath on the north it curved eastward to Taanath Shiloh, passing by it to Janoah on the east.
Jos 16:7 Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Jericho and came out at the Jordan.
Jos 16:8 From Tappuah the border went west to the Kanah Ravine and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites, clan by clan.
Jos 16:9 It also included all the towns and their villages that were set aside for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites.
Jos 16:10 They did not dislodge the Canaanites living in Gezer; to this day the Canaanites live among the people of Ephraim but are required to do forced labor.
Jos 17:1 This was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh as Joseph's firstborn, that is, for Makir, Manasseh's firstborn. Makir was the ancestor of the Gileadites, who had received Gilead and Bashan because the Makirites were great soldiers.
Jos 17:2 So this allotment was for the rest of the people of Manasseh-- the clans of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher and Shemida. These are the other male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their clans.
Jos 17:3 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons but only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.
Jos 17:4 They went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers." So Joshua gave them an inheritance along with the brothers of their father, according to the LORD's command.

Jos 17:5 Manasseh's share consisted of ten tracts of land besides Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan, Jos 17:6 because the daughters of the tribe of Manasseh received an inheritance among the sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

Jos 17:7 The territory of Manasseh extended from Asher to Micmethath east of Shechem. The boundary ran southward from there to include the people living at En Tappuah.

Jos 17:8 (Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah itself, on the boundary of Manasseh, belonged to the Ephraimites.)

Jos 17:9 Then the boundary continued south to the Kanah Ravine. There were towns belonging to Ephraim lying among the towns of Manasseh, but the boundary of Manasseh was the northern side of the ravine and ended at the sea.

Jos 17:10 On the south the land belonged to Ephraim, on the north to Manasseh. The territory of Manasseh reached the sea and bordered Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

Jos 17:11 Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh also had Beth Shan, Ibleam and the people of Dor, Endor, Taanach and Megiddo, together with their surrounding settlements (the third in the list is Naphoth).

Jos 17:12 Yet the Manassites were not able to occupy these towns, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that region.

Jos 17:13 However, when the Israelites grew stronger, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labor but did not drive them out completely.

Jos 17:14 The people of Joseph said to Joshua, "Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? We are a numerous people and the LORD has blessed us abundantly."

Jos 17:15 "If you are so numerous," Joshua answered, "and if the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, go up into the forest and clear land for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and Rephaeites."

Jos 17:16 The people of Joseph replied, "The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the plain have iron chariots, both those in Beth Shan and its settlements and those in the Valley of Jezreel."

Jos 17:17 But Joshua said to the house of Joseph-- to Ephraim and Manasseh-- "You are numerous and very powerful. You will have not only one allotment

Jos 17:18 but the forested hill country as well. Clear it, and its farthest limits will be yours; though the Canaanites have iron chariots and though they are strong, you can drive them out."

Jos 18:1 The whole assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The country was brought under their control,

Jos 18:2 but there were still seven Israelite tribes who had not yet received their inheritance.

Jos 18:3 So Joshua said to the Israelites: "How long will you wait before you begin to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?

Jos 18:4 Appoint three men from each tribe. I will send them out to make a survey of the land and to write a description of it, according to the inheritance of each. Then they will return to me.

Jos 18:5 You are to divide the land into seven parts. Judah is to remain in its territory on the south and the house of Joseph in its territory on the north.

Jos 18:6 After you have written descriptions of the seven parts of the land, bring them here to me and I will cast lots for you in the presence of the LORD our God.

Jos 18:7 The Levites, however, do not get a portion among you, because the priestly service of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan. Moses the servant of the LORD gave it to them."

Jos 18:8 As the men started on their way to map out the land, Joshua instructed them, "Go and make a survey of the land and write a description of it. Then return to me, and I will cast lots for you here at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD."

Jos 18:9 So the men left and went through the land. They wrote its description on a scroll, town by town, in seven parts, and returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.

Jos 18:10 Joshua then cast lots for them in Shiloh in the presence of the LORD, and there he distributed the land to the Israelites according to their tribal divisions.

Jos 18:11 The lot came up for the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan. Their allotted territory lay between the tribes of Judah and Joseph:

Jos 18:12 On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan, passed the northern slope of Jericho and headed west into the hill country, coming out at the desert of Beth Aven.

Jos 18:13 From there it crossed to the south slope of Luz (that is, Bethel) and went down to Ataroth Addar on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon.

Jos 18:14 From the hill facing Beth Horon on the south the boundary turned south along the western side and came out at Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim), a town of the people of Judah. This was the western side.

Jos 18:15 The southern side began at the outskirts of Kiriath Jearim on the west, and the boundary came out at the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.

Jos 18:16 The boundary went down to the foot of the hill facing the Valley of Ben Hinnom, north of the Valley of Rephaim. It continued down the Hinnom Valley along the southern slope of the Jebusite city and so to En Rogel.

Jos 18:17 It then curved north, went to En Shemesh, continued to Geliloth, which faces the Pass of Adummim, and ran down to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Jos 18:18 It continued to the northern slope of Beth Arabah and on down into the Arabah.

Jos 18:19 It then went to the northern slope of Beth Hoglah and came out at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the mouth of the Jordan in the south. This was the southern boundary.

Jos 18:20 The Jordan formed the boundary on the eastern side. These were the boundaries that marked out the inheritance of the clans of Benjamin on all sides.

Jos 18:21 The tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, had the following cities: Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

Jos 18:22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Jos 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,

Jos 18:24 Kephar Ammoni, Ophni and Geba-- twelve towns and their villages.

Jos 18:25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

Jos 18:26 Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah,

Jos 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

Jos 18:28 Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah and Kiriath-- fourteen towns and their villages. This was the inheritance of Benjamin for its clans.

Jos 19:1 The second lot came out for the tribe of Simeon, clan by clan. Their inheritance lay within the territory of Judah.

Jos 19:2 It included: Beersheba (or Sheba), Moladah,

Jos 19:3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,

Jos 19:4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

Jos 19:5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,

Jos 19:6 Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhem-- thirteen towns and their villages;

Jos 19:7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan-- four towns and their villages--

Jos 19:8 and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah in the Negev). This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Simeonites, clan by clan.

Jos 19:9 The inheritance of the Simeonites was taken from the share of Judah, because Judah's portion was more than they needed. So the Simeonites received their inheritance within the territory of Judah.

Jos 19:10 The third lot came up for Zebulun, clan by clan: The boundary of their inheritance went as far as Sarid.

Jos 19:11 Going west it ran to Maralah, touched Dabbesheth, and extended to the ravine near Jokneam.

Jos 19:12 It turned east from Sarid toward the sunrise to the territory of Kisloth Tabor and went on to Daberath and up to Japhia.

Jos 19:13 Then it continued eastward to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin; it came out at Rimmon and turned toward Neah.

Jos 19:14 There the boundary went around on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah El.

Jos 19:15 Included were Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah and Bethlehem. There were twelve towns and their villages.

Jos 19:16 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of Zebulun, clan by clan.

Jos 19:17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, clan by clan.

Jos 19:18 Their territory included: Jezreel, Kesulloth, Shunem,

Jos 19:19 Haphraim, Shion, Anaharath,

Jos 19:20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,

Jos 19:21 Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah and Beth Pazzez.

Jos 19:22 The boundary touched Tabor, Shahazumah and Beth Shemesh, and ended at the Jordan. There were sixteen towns and their villages.

Jos 19:23 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, clan by clan.

Jos 19:24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher, clan by clan.

Jos 19:25 Their territory included: Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph,

Jos 19:26 Allammelech, Amad and Mishal. On the west the boundary touched Carmel and Shihor Libnath.

Jos 19:27 It then turned east toward Beth Dagon, touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El, and went north to Beth Emek and Neiel, passing Cabul on the left.

Jos 19:28 It went to Abdon, Rehob, Hammon and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.

Jos 19:29 The boundary then turned back toward Ramah and went to the fortified city of Tyre, turned toward Hosah and came out at the sea in the region of Aczib, Jos 19:30 Ummah, Aphek and Rehob. There were twenty-two towns and their villages.

Jos 19:31 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Asher, clan by clan.

Jos 19:32 The sixth lot came out for Naphtali, clan by clan:

Jos 19:33 Their boundary went from Heleph and the large tree in Zaanannim, passing Adami Nekeb and Jabneel to Lakkum and ending at the Jordan.

Jos 19:34 The boundary ran west through Aznoth Tabor and came out at Hukkok. It touched Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west and the Jordan on the east.

Jos 19:35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth,

Jos 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Jos 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,

Jos 19:38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath and Beth Shemesh. There were nineteen towns and their villages.

Jos 19:39 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali, clan by clan.

Jos 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan, clan by clan.

Jos 19:41 The territory of their inheritance included: Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,

Jos 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,

Jos 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Jos 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

Jos 19:45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,

Jos 19:46 Me Jarkon and Rakkon, with the area facing Joppa.

Jos 19:47 (But the Danites had difficulty taking possession of their territory, so they went up and attacked Leshem, took it, put it to the sword and occupied it. They settled in Leshem and named it Dan after their forefather.)

Jos 19:48 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, clan by clan.

Jos 19:49 When they had finished dividing the land into its allotted portions, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them,

Jos 19:50 as the LORD had commanded. They gave him the town he asked for-- Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. And he built up the town and settled there.

Jos 19:51 These are the territories that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel assigned by lot at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. And so they finished dividing the land.

Jos 20:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua:

Jos 20:2 "Tell the Israelites to designate the cities of refuge, as I instructed you through Moses,

Jos 20:3 so that anyone who kills a person accidentally and unintentionally may flee there and find protection from the avenger of blood.

Jos 20:4 "When he flees to one of these cities, he is to stand in the entrance of the city gate and state his case before the elders of that city. Then they are to admit him into their city and give him a place to live with them.

Jos 20:5 If the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not surrender the one accused, because he killed his neighbor unintentionally and without malice aforethought.

Jos 20:6 He is to stay in that city until he has stood trial before the assembly and until the death of the high priest who is serving at that time. Then he may go back to his own home in the town from which he fled."

Jos 20:7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

Jos 20:8 On the east side of the Jordan of Jericho they designated Bezer in the desert on the plateau in the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead in the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan in the tribe of Manasseh.

Jos 20:9 Any of the Israelites or any alien living among them who killed someone accidentally could flee to these designated cities and not be killed by the avenger of blood prior to standing trial before the assembly.

Jos 21:1 Now the family heads of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the other tribal families of Israel

Jos 21:2 at Shiloh in Canaan and said to them, "The LORD commanded through Moses that you give us towns to live in, with pasturelands for our livestock."

Jos 21:3 So, as the LORD had commanded, the Israelites gave the Levites the following towns and pasturelands out of their own inheritance:

Jos 21:4 The first lot came out for the Kohathites, clan by clan. The Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest were allotted thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin.

Jos 21:5 The rest of Kohath's descendants were allotted ten towns from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan and half of Manasseh.

Jos 21:6 The descendants of Gershon were allotted thirteen towns from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

Jos 21:7 The descendants of Merari, clan by clan, received twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.

Jos 21:8 So the Israelites allotted to the Levites these towns and their pasturelands, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Jos 21:9 From the tribes of Judah and Simeon they allotted the following towns by name

Jos 21:10 (these towns were assigned to the descendants of Aaron who were from the Kohathite clans of the Levites, because the first lot fell to them):

Jos 21:11 They gave them Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), with its surrounding pastureland, in the hill country of Judah. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

Jos 21:12 But the fields and villages around the city they had given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession.

Jos 21:13 So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Libnah,

Jos 21:14 Jattir, Eshtemoa,

Jos 21:15 Holon, Debir,

Jos 21:16 Ain, Juttah and Beth Shemesh, together with their pasturelands-- nine towns from these two tribes.

Jos 21:17 And from the tribe of Benjamin they gave them Gibeon, Geba, Jos 21:18 Anathoth and Almon, together with their pasturelands-- four towns.

Jos 21:19 All the towns for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were thirteen, together with their pasturelands.

Jos 21:20 The rest of the Kohathite clans of the Levites were allotted towns from the tribe of Ephraim:

Jos 21:21 In the hill country of Ephraim they were given Shechem (a city of refuge for one accused of murder) and Gezer,

Jos 21:22 Kibzaim and Beth Horon, together with their pasturelands-- four towns.

Jos 21:23 Also from the tribe of Dan they received Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Jos 21:24 Aijalon and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasturelands-- four towns.

Jos 21:25 From half the tribe of Manasseh they received Taanach and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasturelands-- two towns.

Jos 21:26 All these ten towns and their pasturelands were given to the rest of the Kohathite clans.

Jos 21:27 The Levite clans of the Gershonites were given: from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan (a city of refuge for one accused of murder) and Be Eshtaroth, together with their pasturelands-- two towns;

Jos 21:28 from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion, Daberath,

Jos 21:29 Jarmuth and En Gannim, together with their pasturelands-- four towns;

Jos 21:30 from the tribe of Asher, Mishal, Abdon,

Jos 21:31 Helkath and Rehob, together with their pasturelands-- four towns;

Jos 21:32 from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Hammoth Dor and Kartan, together with their pasturelands-- three towns.

Jos 21:33 All the towns of the Gershonite clans were thirteen, together with their pasturelands.

Jos 21:34 The Merarite clans (the rest of the Levites) were given: from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam, Kartah,

Jos 21:35 Dimnah and Nahalal, together with their pasturelands-- four towns;

Jos 21:36 from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer, Jahaz,

Jos 21:37 Kedemoth and Mephaath, together with their pasturelands-- four towns;

Jos 21:38 from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Mahanaim,

Jos 21:39 Heshbon and Jazer, together with their pasturelands-- four towns in all.

Jos 21:40 All the towns allotted to the Merarite clans, who were the rest of the Levites, were twelve.

Jos 21:41 The towns of the Levites in the territory held by the Israelites were forty-eight in all, together with their pasturelands.

Jos 21:42 Each of these towns had pasturelands surrounding it; this was true for all these towns.

Jos 21:43 So the LORD gave Israel all the land he had sworn to give their forefathers, and they took possession of it and settled there.

Jos 21:44 The LORD gave them rest on every side, just as he had sworn to their forefathers. Not one of their enemies withheld them; the LORD handed all their enemies over to them.

Jos 21:45 Not one of all the LORD's good promises to the house of Israel failed; every one was fulfilled.

Jos 22:1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh

Jos 22:2 and said to them, "You have done all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and you have obeyed me in everything I commanded.

Jos 22:3 For a long time now-- to this very day-- you have not deserted your brothers but have carried out the mission the LORD your God gave you.

Jos 22:4 Now that the LORD your God has given your brothers rest as he promised, return to your homes in the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

Jos 22:5 But be very careful to keep the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you: to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to obey his commands, to hold fast to him and to serve him with all your heart and all your soul."

Jos 22:6 Then Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their homes.

Jos 22:7 (To the half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given land in Bashan, and to the other half of the tribe Joshua gave land on the west side of the Jordan with their brothers.) When Joshua sent them home, he blessed them,

Jos 22:8 saying, "Return to your homes with your great wealth-- with large herds of livestock, with silver, gold, bronze and iron, and a great quantity of clothing-- and divide with your brothers the plunder from your enemies."

Jos 22:9 So the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the Israelites at Shiloh in Canaan to return to Gilead, their own land, which they had acquired in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses.

Jos 22:10 When they came to Geliloth near the Jordan in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an imposing altar there by the Jordan.

Jos 22:11 And when the Israelites heard that they had built the altar on the border of Canaan at Geliloth near the Jordan on the Israelite side,

Jos 22:12 the whole assembly of Israel gathered at Shiloh to go to war against them.

Jos 22:13 So the Israelites sent Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, to the land of Gilead-- to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Jos 22:14 With him they sent ten of the chief men, one for each of the tribes of Israel, each the head of a family division among the Israelite clans.

Jos 22:15 When they went to Gilead-- to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh-- they said to them:

Jos 22:16 "The whole assembly of the LORD says: 'How could you break faith with the God of Israel like this? How could you turn away from the LORD and build yourselves an altar in rebellion against him now?'

Jos 22:17 Was not the sin of Peor enough for us? Up to this very day we have not cleansed ourselves from that sin, even though a plague fell on the community of the LORD!

Jos 22:18 And are you now turning away from the LORD? "If you rebel against the LORD today, tomorrow he will be angry with the whole community of Israel.

Jos 22:19 If the land you possess is defiled, come over to the LORD's land, where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and share the land with us. But do not rebel against the LORD or against us by building an altar for yourselves, other than the altar of the LORD our God.

Jos 22:20 When Achan son of Zerah acted unfaithfully regarding the devoted things, did not wrath come upon the whole community of Israel? He was not the only one who died for his sin."

Jos 22:21 Then Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh replied to the heads of the clans of Israel:

Jos 22:22 "The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows! And let Israel know! If this has been in rebellion or disobedience to the LORD, do not spare us this day.

Jos 22:23 If we have built our own altar to turn away from the LORD and to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, or to sacrifice fellowship offerings on it, may the LORD himself call us to account.

Jos 22:24 "No! We did it for fear that some day your descendants might say to ours, 'What do you have to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?'

Jos 22:25 The LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you-- you Reubenites and Gadites! You have no share in the LORD.' So your descendants might cause ours to stop fearing the LORD.

Jos 22:26 "That is why we said, 'Let us get ready and build an altar-- but not for burnt offerings or sacrifices.'

Jos 22:27 On the contrary, it is to be a witness between us and you and the generations that follow, that we will worship the LORD at his sanctuary with our burnt offerings, sacrifices and fellowship offerings. Then in the future your descendants will not be able to say to ours, 'You have no share in the LORD.'

Jos 22:28 "And we said, 'If they ever say this to us, or to our descendants, we will answer: Look at the replica of the LORD's altar, which our fathers built, not for burnt offerings and sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you.'

Jos 22:29 "Far be it from us to rebel against the LORD and turn away from him today by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings and sacrifices, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle."

Jos 22:30 When Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the community-- the heads of the clans of the Israelites-- heard what Reuben, Gad and Manasseh had to say, they were pleased.

Jos 22:31 And Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, said to Reuben, Gad and Manasseh, "Today we know that the LORD is with us, because you have not acted unfaithfully toward the LORD in this matter. Now you have rescued the Israelites from the LORD's hand."

Jos 22:32 Then Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders returned to Canaan from their meeting with the Reubenites and Gadites in Gilead and reported to the Israelites.

Jos 22:33 They were glad to hear the report and praised God. And they talked no more about going to war against them to devastate the country where the Reubenites and the Gadites lived.

Jos 22:34 And the Reubenites and the Gadites gave the altar this name: A Witness Between Us that the LORD is God.

Jos 23:1 After a long time had passed and the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, Joshua, by then old and well advanced in years,

Jos 23:2 summoned all Israel-- their elders, leaders, judges and officials-- and said to them: "I am old and well advanced in years.

Jos 23:3 You yourselves have seen everything the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake; it was the LORD your God who fought for you.

Jos 23:4 Remember how I have allotted as an inheritance for your tribes all the land of the nations that remain-- the nations I conquered-- between the Jordan and the Great Sea in the west.

Jos 23:5 The LORD your God himself will drive them out of your way. He will push them out before you, and you will take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

Jos 23:6 "Be very strong; be careful to obey all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, without turning aside to the right or to the left.

Jos 23:7 Do not associate with these nations that remain among you; do not invoke the names of their gods or swear by them. You must not serve them or bow down to them.

Jos 23:8 But you are to hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have until now.

Jos 23:9 "The LORD has driven out before you great and powerful nations; to this day no one has been able to withstand you.

Jos 23:10 One of you routs a thousand, because the LORD your God fights for you, just as he promised.

Jos 23:11 So be very careful to love the LORD your God.

Jos 23:12 "But if you turn away and ally yourselves with the survivors of these nations that remain among you and if you intermarry with them and associate with them,

Jos 23:13 then you may be sure that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations before you.

Instead, they will become snares and traps for you, whips on your backs and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land, which the LORD your God has given you.

Jos 23:14 "Now I am about to go the way of all the earth. You know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the LORD your God gave you has failed. Every promise has been fulfilled; not one has failed.

Jos 23:15 But just as every good promise of the LORD your God has come true, so the LORD will bring on you all the evil he has threatened, until he has destroyed you from this good land he has given you.

Jos 23:16 If you violate the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, the LORD's anger will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land he has given you."

Jos 24:1 Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel, and they presented themselves before God.

Jos 24:2 Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Long ago your forefathers, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the River and worshiped other gods.'

Jos 24:3 But I took your father Abraham from the land beyond the River and led him throughout Canaan and gave him many descendants. I gave him Isaac,

Jos 24:4 and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I assigned the hill country of Seir to Esau, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

Jos 24:5 "Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I afflicted the Egyptians by what I did there, and I brought you out.

Jos 24:6 When I brought your fathers out of Egypt, you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued them with chariots and horsemen as far as the Red Sea.

Jos 24:7 But they cried to the LORD for help, and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians; he brought the sea over them and covered them. You saw with your own eyes what I did to the Egyptians. Then you lived in the desert for a long time.

Jos 24:8 "I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived east of the Jordan. They fought against you, but I gave them into your hands. I destroyed them from before you, and you took possession of their land.

Jos 24:9 When Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab, prepared to fight against Israel, he sent for Balaam son of Beor to put a curse on you.

Jos 24:10 But I would not listen to Balaam, so he blessed you again and again, and I delivered you out of his hand.

Jos 24:11 "Then you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The citizens of Jericho fought against you, as did also the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites and Jebusites, but I gave them into your hands.

Jos 24:12 I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove them out before you-- also the two Amorite kings. You did not do it with your own sword and bow.

Jos 24:13 So I gave you a land on which you did not toil and cities you did not build; and you live in them and eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.'

Jos 24:14 "Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your forefathers worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

Jos 24:15 But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Jos 24:16 Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods!

Jos 24:17 It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our fathers up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we traveled.

Jos 24:18 And the LORD drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God."

Jos 24:19 Joshua said to the people, "You are not able to serve the LORD. He is a holy God; he is a jealous God. He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins.

Jos 24:20 If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, he will turn and bring disaster on you and make an end of you, after he has been good to you."

Jos 24:21 But the people said to Joshua, "No! We will serve the LORD."

Jos 24:22 Then Joshua said, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD." "Yes, we are witnesses," they replied.

Jos 24:23 "Now then," said Joshua, "throw away the foreign gods that are among you and yield your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel."

Jos 24:24 And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and obey him."

Jos 24:25 On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people, and there at Shechem he drew up for them decrees and laws.

Jos 24:26 And Joshua recorded these things in the Book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak near the holy place of the LORD.

Jos 24:27 "See!" he said to all the people. "This stone will be a witness against us. It has heard all the words the LORD has said to us. It will be a witness against you if you are untrue to your God."

Jos 24:28 Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

Jos 24:29 After these things, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten.

Jos 24:30 And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Jos 24:31 Israel served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had experienced everything the LORD had done for Israel.

Jos 24:32 And Joseph's bones, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the tract of land that Jacob bought for a hundred pieces of silver from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. This became the inheritance of Joseph's descendants.

Jos 24:33 And Eleazar son of Aaron died and was buried at Gibeah, which had been allotted to his son Phinehas in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 1:1 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites asked the LORD, "Who will be the first to go up and fight for us against the Canaanites?"

Jdg 1:2 The LORD answered, "Judah is to go; I have given the land into their hands."

Jdg 1:3 Then the men of Judah said to the Simeonites their brothers, "Come up with us into the territory allotted to us, to fight against the Canaanites. We in turn will go with you into yours." So the Simeonites went with them.

Jdg 1:4 When Judah attacked, the LORD gave the Canaanites and Perizzites into their hands and they struck down ten thousand men at Bezek.

Jdg 1:5 It was there that they found Adoni-Bezek and fought against him, putting to rout the Canaanites and Perizzites.

Jdg 1:6 Adoni-Bezek fled, but they chased him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Jdg 1:7 Then Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have picked up scraps under my table. Now God has paid me back for what I did to them." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

Jdg 1:8 The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem also and took it. They put the city to the sword and set it on fire.

Jdg 1:9 After that, the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country, the Negev and the western foothills.

Jdg 1:10 They advanced against the Canaanites living in Hebron (formerly called Kiriath Arba) and defeated

Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai.

Jdg 1:11 From there they advanced against the people living in Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher).

Jdg 1:12 And Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher."

Jdg 1:13 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.

Jdg 1:14 One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What can I do for you?"

Jdg 1:15 She replied, "Do me a special favor. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water." Then Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Jdg 1:16 The descendants of Moses' father-in-law, the Kenite, went up from the City of Palms with the men of Judah to live among the people of the Desert of Judah in the Negev near Arad.

Jdg 1:17 Then the men of Judah went with the Simeonites their brothers and attacked the Canaanites living in Zephath, and they totally destroyed the city. Therefore it was called Hormah.

Jdg 1:18 The men of Judah also took Gaza, Ashkelon and Ekron-- each city with its territory.

Jdg 1:19 The LORD was with the men of Judah. They took possession of the hill country, but they were unable to drive the people from the plains, because they had iron chariots.

Jdg 1:20 As Moses had promised, Hebron was given to Caleb, who drove from it the three sons of Anak.

Jdg 1:21 The Benjamites, however, failed to dislodge the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem; to this day the Jebusites live there with the Benjamites.

Jdg 1:22 Now the house of Joseph attacked Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

Jdg 1:23 When they sent men to spy out Bethel (formerly called Luz),

Jdg 1:24 the spies saw a man coming out of the city and they said to him, "Show us how to get into the city and we will see that you are treated well."

Jdg 1:25 So he showed them, and they put the city to the sword but spared the man and his whole family.

Jdg 1:26 He then went to the land of the Hittites, where he built a city and called it Luz, which is its name to this day.

Jdg 1:27 But Manasseh did not drive out the people of Beth Shan or Taanach or Dor or Ibleam or Megiddo and their surrounding settlements, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that land.

Jdg 1:28 When Israel became strong, they pressed the Canaanites into forced labor but never drove them out completely.

Jdg 1:29 Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer, but the Canaanites continued to live there among them.

Jdg 1:30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the Canaanites living in Kitron or Nahalol, who remained among them; but they did subject them to forced labor.

Jdg 1:31 Nor did Asher drive out those living in Acco or Sidon or Ahlab or Aczib or Helbah or Aphek or Rehob, Jdg 1:32 and because of this the people of Asher lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land.

Jdg 1:33 Neither did Naphtali drive out those living in Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath; but the Naphtalites too lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land, and those living in Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath became forced laborers for them.

Jdg 1:34 The Amorites confined the Danites to the hill country, not allowing them to come down into the plain.

Jdg 1:35 And the Amorites were determined also to hold out in Mount Heres, Ajalon and Shaalbim, but when the power of the house of Joseph increased, they too were pressed into forced labor.

Jdg 1:36 The boundary of the Amorites was from Scorpion Pass to Sela and beyond.

Jdg 2:1 The angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bokim and said, "I brought you up out of Egypt and led you into the land that I swore to give to your forefathers. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you, Jdg 2:2 and you shall not make a covenant with the people of this land, but you shall break down their altars.' Yet you have disobeyed me. Why have you done this?"

Jdg 2:3 Now therefore I tell you that I will not drive them out before you; they will be [thorns] in your sides and their gods will be a snare to you."

Jdg 2:4 When the angel of the LORD had spoken these things to all the Israelites, the people wept aloud,

Jdg 2:5 and they called that place Bokim. There they offered sacrifices to the LORD.

Jdg 2:6 After Joshua had dismissed the Israelites, they went to take possession of the land, each to his own inheritance.

Jdg 2:7 The people served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had seen all the great things the LORD had done for Israel.

Jdg 2:8 Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten.

Jdg 2:9 And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Heres in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Jdg 2:10 After that whole generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation grew up, who knew neither the LORD nor what he had done for Israel.

Jdg 2:11 Then the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD and served the Baals.

Jdg 2:12 They forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of Egypt. They followed and worshiped various gods of the peoples around them. They provoked the LORD to anger

Jdg 2:13 because they forsook him and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.

Jdg 2:14 In his anger against Israel the LORD handed them over to raiders who plundered them. He sold them to their enemies all around, whom they were no longer able to resist.

Jdg 2:15 Whenever Israel went out to fight, the hand of the LORD was against them to defeat them, just as he had sworn to them. They were in great distress.

Jdg 2:16 Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hands of these raiders.

Jdg 2:17 Yet they would not listen to their judges but prostituted themselves to other gods and worshiped them. Unlike their fathers, they quickly turned from the way in which their fathers had walked, the way of obedience to the LORD's commands.

Jdg 2:18 Whenever the LORD raised up a judge for them, he was with the judge and saved them out of the hands of their enemies as long as the judge lived; for the LORD had compassion on them as they groaned under those who oppressed and afflicted them.

Jdg 2:19 But when the judge died, the people returned to ways even more corrupt than those of their fathers, following other gods and serving and worshiping them. They refused to give up their evil practices and stubborn ways.

Jdg 2:20 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel and said, "Because this nation has violated the covenant that I laid down for their forefathers and has not listened to me,

Jdg 2:21 I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations Joshua left when he died.

Jdg 2:22 I will use them to test Israel and see whether they will keep the way of the LORD and walk in it as their forefathers did."

Jdg 2:23 The LORD had allowed those nations to remain; he did not drive them out at once by giving them into the hands of Joshua.

Jdg 3:1 These are the nations the LORD left to test all those Israelites who had not experienced any of the wars in Canaan

Jdg 3:2 (he did this only to teach warfare to the descendants of the Israelites who had not had previous battle experience):

Jdg 3:3 the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites living in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

Jdg 3:4 They were left to test the Israelites to see whether they would obey the LORD's commands, which he had given their forefathers through Moses.

Jdg 3:5 The Israelites lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Jdg 3:6 They took their daughters in marriage and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

Jdg 3:7 The Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD; they forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs.

Jdg 3:8 The anger of the LORD burned against Israel so that he sold them into the hands of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim, to whom the Israelites were subject for eight years.

Jdg 3:9 But when they cried out to the LORD, he raised up for them a deliverer, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, who saved them.

Jdg 3:10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, so that he became Israel's judge and went to war. The LORD gave Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram into the hands of Othniel, who overpowered him.

Jdg 3:11 So the land had peace for forty years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Jdg 3:12 Once again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and because they did this evil the LORD gave Eglon king of Moab power over Israel.

Jdg 3:13 Getting the Ammonites and Amalekites to join him, Eglon came and attacked Israel, and they took possession of the City of Palms.

Jdg 3:14 The Israelites were subject to Eglon king of Moab for eighteen years.

Jdg 3:15 Again the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he gave them a deliverer-- Ehud, a left-handed man, the son of Gera the Benjaminite. The Israelites sent him with tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

Jdg 3:16 Now Ehud had made a double-edged sword about a foot and a half long, which he strapped to his right thigh under his clothing.

Jdg 3:17 He presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab, who was a very fat man.

Jdg 3:18 After Ehud had presented the tribute, he sent on their way the men who had carried it.

Jdg 3:19 At the idols near Gilgal he himself turned back and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

The king said, "Quiet!" And all his attendants left him.

Jdg 3:20 Ehud then approached him while he was sitting alone in the upper room of his summer palace and said, "I have a message from God for you." As the king rose from his seat,

Jdg 3:21 Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword from his right thigh and plunged it into the king's belly.

Jdg 3:22 Even the handle sank in after the blade, which came out his back. Ehud did not pull the sword out, and the fat closed in over it.

Jdg 3:23 Then Ehud went out to the porch; he shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

Jdg 3:24 After he had gone, the servants came and found the doors of the upper room locked. They said, "He must be relieving himself in the inner room of the house."

Jdg 3:25 They waited to the point of embarrassment, but when he did not open the doors of the room, they took a key and unlocked them. There they saw their lord fallen to the floor, dead.

Jdg 3:26 While they waited, Ehud got away. He passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah.

Jdg 3:27 When he arrived there, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went down with him from the hills, with him leading them.

Jdg 3:28 "Follow me," he ordered, "for the LORD has given Moab, your enemy, into your hands." So they followed him down and, taking possession of the fords of the Jordan that led to Moab, they allowed no one to cross over.

Jdg 3:29 At that time they struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all vigorous and strong; not a man escaped.

Jdg 3:30 That day Moab was made subject to Israel, and the land had peace for eighty years.

Jdg 3:31 After Ehud came Shamgar son of Anath, who struck down six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad. He too saved Israel.

Jdg 4:1 After Ehud died, the Israelites once again did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

Jdg 4:2 So the LORD sold them into the hands of Jabin, a king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth Haggioim.

Jdg 4:3 Because he had nine hundred iron chariots and had cruelly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years, they cried to the LORD for help.

Jdg 4:4 Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was leading Israel at that time.

Jdg 4:5 She held court under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites came to her to have their disputes decided.

Jdg 4:6 She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you: 'Go, take with you ten thousand men of Naphtali and Zebulun and lead the way to Mount Tabor.'

Jdg 4:7 I will lure Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his troops to the Kishon River and give him into your hands."

Jdg 4:8 Barak said to her, "If you go with me, I will go; but if you don't go with me, I won't go."

Jdg 4:9 "Very well," Deborah said, "I will go with you. But because of the way you are going about this, the honor will not be yours, for the LORD will hand Sisera over to a woman." So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh, Jdg 4:10 where he summoned Zebulun and Naphtali. Ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.

Jdg 4:11 Now Heber the Kenite had left the other Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, Moses' brother-in-law, and pitched his tent by the great tree in Zaanannim near Kedesh.

Jdg 4:12 When they told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor, Jdg 4:13 Sisera gathered together his nine hundred iron chariots and all the men with him, from Harosheth Haggioim to the Kishon River.

Jdg 4:14 Then Deborah said to Barak, "Go! This is the day the LORD has given Sisera into your hands. Has not the LORD gone ahead of you?" So Barak went down Mount Tabor, followed by ten thousand men.

Jdg 4:15 At Barak's advance, the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and army by the sword, and Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled on foot.

Jdg 4:16 But Barak pursued the chariots and army as far as Harosheth Haggioim. All the troops of Sisera fell by the sword; not a man was left.

Jdg 4:17 Sisera, however, fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there were friendly relations between Jabin king of Hazor and the clan of Heber the Kenite.

Jdg 4:18 Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Come, my lord, come right in. Don't be afraid." So he entered her tent, and she put a covering over him.

Jdg 4:19 "I'm thirsty," he said. "Please give me some water." She opened a skin of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him up.

Jdg 4:20 "Stand in the doorway of the tent," he told her. "If someone comes by and asks you, 'Is anyone here?'

say 'No.'

Jdg 4:21 But Jael, Heber's wife, picked up a tent peg and a hammer and went quietly to him while he lay fast asleep, exhausted. She drove the peg through his temple into the ground, and he died.

Jdg 4:22 Barak came by in pursuit of Sisera, and Jael went out to meet him. "Come," she said, "I will show you the man you're looking for." So he went in with her, and there lay Sisera with the tent peg through his temple--dead.

Jdg 4:23 On that day God subdued Jabin, the Canaanite king, before the Israelites.

Jdg 4:24 And the hand of the Israelites grew stronger and stronger against Jabin, the Canaanite king, until they destroyed him.

Jdg 5:1 On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:

Jdg 5:2 "When the princes in Israel take the lead, when the people willingly offer themselves-- praise the LORD!

Jdg 5:3 "Hear this, you kings! Listen, you rulers! I will sing to the LORD, I will sing; I will make music to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jdg 5:4 "O LORD, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the land of Edom, the earth shook, the heavens poured, the clouds poured down water.

Jdg 5:5 The mountains quaked before the LORD, the One of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jdg 5:6 "In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the roads were abandoned; travelers took to winding paths.

Jdg 5:7 Village life in Israel ceased, ceased until I, Deborah, arose, arose a mother in Israel.

Jdg 5:8 When they chose new gods, war came to the city gates, and not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

Jdg 5:9 My heart is with Israel's princes, with the willing volunteers among the people. Praise the LORD!

Jdg 5:10 "You who ride on white donkeys, sitting on your saddle blankets, and you who walk along the road, consider Jdg 5:11 the voice of the singers at the watering places. They recite the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous acts of his warriors in Israel. "Then the people of the LORD went down to the city gates.

Jdg 5:12 'Wake up, wake up, Deborah! Wake up, wake up, break out in song! Arise, O Barak! Take captive your captives, O son of Abinoam.'

Jdg 5:13 "Then the men who were left came down to the nobles; the people of the LORD came to me with the mighty.

Jdg 5:14 Some came from Ephraim, whose roots were in Amalek; Benjamin was with the people who followed you. From Makir captains came down, from Zebulun those who bear a commander's staff.

Jdg 5:15 The princes of Issachar were with Deborah; yes, Issachar was with Barak, rushing after him into the valley. In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

Jdg 5:16 Why did you stay among the campfires to hear the whistling for the flocks? In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

Jdg 5:17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan. And Dan, why did he linger by the ships? Asher remained on the coast and stayed in his coves.

Jdg 5:18 The people of Zebulun risked their very lives; so did Naphtali on the heights of the field.

Jdg 5:19 "Kings came, they fought; the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo, but they carried off no silver, no plunder.

Jdg 5:20 From the heavens the stars fought, from their courses they fought against Sisera.

Jdg 5:21 The river Kishon swept them away, the age-old river, the river Kishon. March on, my soul; be strong!

Jdg 5:22 Then thundered the horses' hoofs-- galloping, galloping go his mighty steeds.

Jdg 5:23 'Curse Meroz,' said the angel of the LORD. 'Curse its people bitterly, because they did not come to help the LORD, to help the LORD against the mighty.'

Jdg 5:24 "Most blessed of women be Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, most blessed of tent-dwelling women.

Jdg 5:25 He asked for water, and she gave him milk; in a bowl fit for nobles she brought him curdled milk.

Jdg 5:26 Her hand reached for the tent peg, her right hand for the workman's hammer. She struck Sisera, she crushed his head, she shattered and pierced his temple.

Jdg 5:27 At her feet he sank, he fell; there he lay. At her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell--dead.

Jdg 5:28 "Through the window peered Sisera's mother; behind the lattice she cried out, 'Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why is the clatter of his chariots delayed?'

Jdg 5:29 The wisest of her ladies answer her; indeed, she keeps saying to herself,

Jdg 5:30 'Are they not finding and dividing the spoils: a girl or two for each man, colorful garments as plunder for Sisera, colorful garments embroidered, highly embroidered garments for my neck-- all this as plunder?'

Jdg 5:31 "So may all your enemies perish, O LORD! But may they who love you be like the sun when it rises in its strength." Then the land had peace forty years.

Jdg 6:1 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and for seven years he gave them into the hands of the Midianites.

Jdg 6:2 Because the power of Midian was so oppressive, the Israelites prepared shelters for themselves in mountain clefts, caves and strongholds.

Jdg 6:3 Whenever the Israelites planted their crops, the Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern peoples invaded the country.

Jdg 6:4 They camped on the land and ruined the crops all the way to Gaza and did not spare a living thing for Israel, neither sheep nor cattle nor donkeys.

Jdg 6:5 They came up with their livestock and their tents like swarms of locusts. It was impossible to count the men and their camels; they invaded the land to ravage it.

Jdg 6:6 Midian so impoverished the Israelites that they cried out to the LORD for help.

Jdg 6:7 When the Israelites cried to the LORD because of Midian,

Jdg 6:8 he sent them a prophet, who said, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I brought you up out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Jdg 6:9 I snatched you from the power of Egypt and from the hand of all your oppressors. I drove them from before you and gave you their land.

Jdg 6:10 I said to you, 'I am the LORD your God; do not worship the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you live.' But you have not listened to me."

Jdg 6:11 The angel of the LORD came and sat down under the oak in Ophrah that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress to keep it from the Midianites.

Jdg 6:12 When the angel of the LORD appeared to Gideon, he said, "The LORD is with you, mighty warrior."

Jdg 6:13 "But sir," Gideon replied, "if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened to us? Where are all his wonders that our fathers told us about when they said, 'Did not the LORD bring us up out of Egypt?' But now the LORD has abandoned us and put us into the hand of Midian."

Jdg 6:14 The LORD turned to him and said, "Go in the strength you have and save Israel out of Midian's hand. Am I not sending you?"

Jdg 6:15 "But Lord," Gideon asked, "how can I save Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family."

Jdg 6:16 The LORD answered, "I will be with you, and you will strike down all the Midianites together."

Jdg 6:17 Gideon replied, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, give me a sign that it is really you talking to me.

Jdg 6:18 Please do not go away until I come back and bring my offering and set it before you." And the LORD said, "I will wait until you return."

Jdg 6:19 Gideon went in, prepared a young goat, and from an ephah of flour he made bread without yeast.

Putting the meat in a basket and its broth in a pot, he brought them out and offered them to him under the oak.

Jdg 6:20 The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread, place them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And Gideon did so.

Jdg 6:21 With the tip of the staff that was in his hand, the angel of the LORD touched the meat and the unleavened bread. Fire flared from the rock, consuming the meat and the bread. And the angel of the LORD disappeared.

Jdg 6:22 When Gideon realized that it was the angel of the LORD, he exclaimed, "Ah, Sovereign LORD! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!"

Jdg 6:23 But the LORD said to him, "Peace! Do not be afraid. You are not going to die."

Jdg 6:24 So Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and called it The LORD is Peace. To this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Jdg 6:25 That same night the LORD said to him, "Take the second bull from your father's herd, the one seven years old. Tear down your father's altar to Baal and cut down the Asherah pole beside it.

Jdg 6:26 Then build a proper kind of altar to the LORD your God on the top of this height. Using the wood of the Asherah pole that you cut down, offer the second bull as a burnt offering."

Jdg 6:27 So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the LORD told him. But because he was afraid of his family and the men of the town, he did it at night rather than in the daytime.

Jdg 6:28 In the morning when the men of the town got up, there was Baal's altar, demolished, with the Asherah pole beside it cut down and the second bull sacrificed on the newly built altar!

Jdg 6:29 They asked each other, "Who did this?" When they carefully investigated, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash did it."

Jdg 6:30 The men of the town demanded of Joash, "Bring out your son. He must die, because he has broken down Baal's altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it."

Jdg 6:31 But Joash replied to the hostile crowd around him, "Are you going to plead Baal's cause? Are you trying to save him? Whoever fights for him shall be put to death by morning! If Baal really is a god, he can defend himself when someone breaks down his altar."

Jdg 6:32 So that day they called Gideon "Jerub-Baal," saying, "Let Baal contend with him," because he broke down Baal's altar.

Jdg 6:33 Now all the Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern peoples joined forces and crossed over the Jordan and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.

Jdg 6:34 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, summoning the Abiezrites to follow him.

Jdg 6:35 He sent messengers throughout Manasseh, calling them to arms, and also into Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali, so that they too went up to meet them.

Jdg 6:36 Gideon said to God, "If you will save Israel by my hand as you have promised--

Jdg 6:37 look, I will place a wool fleece on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece and all the ground is dry, then I will know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you said."

Jdg 6:38 And that is what happened. Gideon rose early the next day; he squeezed the fleece and wrung out the dew-- a bowlful of water.

Jdg 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, "Do not be angry with me. Let me make just one more request. Allow me one more test with the fleece. This time make the fleece dry and the ground covered with dew."

Jdg 6:40 That night God did so. Only the fleece was dry; all the ground was covered with dew.

Jdg 7:1 Early in the morning, Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and all his men camped at the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh.

Jdg 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, "You have too many men for me to deliver Midian into their hands. In order that Israel may not boast against me that her own strength has saved her, Jdg 7:3 announce now to the people, 'Anyone who trembles with fear may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.'" So twenty-two thousand men left, while ten thousand remained.

Jdg 7:4 But the LORD said to Gideon, "There are still too many men. Take them down to the water, and I will sift them for you there. If I say, 'This one shall go with you,' he shall go; but if I say, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go."

Jdg 7:5 So Gideon took the men down to the water. There the LORD told him, "Separate those who lap the water with their tongues like a dog from those who kneel down to drink."

Jdg 7:6 Three hundred men lapped with their hands to their mouths. All the rest got down on their knees to drink.

Jdg 7:7 The LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men that lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hands. Let all the other men go, each to his own place."

Jdg 7:8 So Gideon sent the rest of the Israelites to their tents but kept the three hundred, who took over the provisions and trumpets of the others. Now the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley.

Jdg 7:9 During that night the LORD said to Gideon, "Get up, go down against the camp, because I am going to give it into your hands.

Jdg 7:10 If you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah

Jdg 7:11 and listen to what they are saying. Afterward, you will be encouraged to attack the camp." So he and Purah his servant went down to the outposts of the camp.

Jdg 7:12 The Midianites, the Amalekites and all the other eastern peoples had settled in the valley, thick as locusts. Their camels could no more be counted than the sand on the seashore.

Jdg 7:13 Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a friend his dream. "I had a dream," he was saying. "A round loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed."

Jdg 7:14 His friend responded, "This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has given the Midianites and the whole camp into his hands."

Jdg 7:15 When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped God. He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, "Get up! The LORD has given the Midianite camp into your hands."

Jdg 7:16 Dividing the three hundred men into three companies, he placed trumpets and empty jars in the hands of all of them, with torches inside.

Jdg 7:17 "Watch me," he told them. "Follow my lead. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do.

Jdg 7:18 When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then from all around the camp blow yours and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

Jdg 7:19 Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after they had changed the guard. They blew their trumpets and broke the jars that were in their hands.

Jdg 7:20 The three companies blew the trumpets and smashed the jars. Grasping the torches in their left hands and holding in their right hands the trumpets they were to blow, they shouted, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"

Jdg 7:21 While each man held his position around the camp, all the Midianites ran, crying out as they fled.

Jdg 7:22 When the three hundred trumpets sounded, the LORD caused the men throughout the camp to turn on each other with their swords. The army fled to Beth Shittah toward Zererah as far as the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

Jdg 7:23 Israelites from Naphtali, Asher and all Manasseh were called out, and they pursued the Midianites.

Jdg 7:24 Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters of the Jordan ahead of them as far as Beth Barah." So all the men of Ephraim were called out and they took the waters of the Jordan as far as Beth Barah.

Jdg 7:25 They also captured two of the Midianite leaders, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Jordan.

Jdg 8:1 Now the Ephraimites asked Gideon, "Why have you treated us like this? Why didn't you call us when you went to fight Midian?" And they criticized him sharply.

Jdg 8:2 But he answered them, "What have I accomplished compared to you? Aren't the gleanings of Ephraim's grapes better than the full grape harvest of Abiezer?

Jdg 8:3 God gave Oreb and Zeeb, the Midianite leaders, into your hands. What was I able to do compared to you?" At this, their resentment against him subsided.

Jdg 8:4 Gideon and his three hundred men, exhausted yet keeping up the pursuit, came to the Jordan and crossed it.

Jdg 8:5 He said to the men of Succoth, "Give my troops some bread; they are worn out, and I am still pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

Jdg 8:6 But the officials of Succoth said, "Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession? Why should we give bread to your troops?"

Jdg 8:7 Then Gideon replied, "Just for that, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will tear your flesh with desert thorns and briers."

Jdg 8:8 From there he went up to Peniel and made the same request of them, but they answered as the men of Succoth had.

Jdg 8:9 So he said to the men of Peniel, "When I return in triumph, I will tear down this tower."

Jdg 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with a force of about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of the armies of the eastern peoples; a hundred and twenty thousand swordsmen had fallen.

Jdg 8:11 Gideon went up by the route of the nomads east of Nobah and Jogbehah and fell upon the unsuspecting army.

Jdg 8:12 Zebah and Zalmunna, the two kings of Midian, fled, but he pursued them and captured them, routing their entire army.

Jdg 8:13 Gideon son of Joash then returned from the battle by the Pass of Heres.

Jdg 8:14 He caught a young man of Succoth and questioned him, and the young man wrote down for him the names of the seventy-seven officials of Succoth, the elders of the town.

Jdg 8:15 Then Gideon came and said to the men of Succoth, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me by saying, 'Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession? Why should we give bread to your exhausted men?'"

Jdg 8:16 He took the elders of the town and taught the men of Succoth a lesson by punishing them with desert thorns and briers.

Jdg 8:17 He also pulled down the tower of Peniel and killed the men of the town.

Jdg 8:18 Then he asked Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?" "Men like you," they answered, "each one with the bearing of a prince."

Jdg 8:19 Gideon replied, "Those were my brothers, the sons of my own mother. As surely as the LORD lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you."

Jdg 8:20 Turning to Jether, his oldest son, he said, "Kill them!" But Jether did not draw his sword, because he was only a boy and was afraid.

Jdg 8:21 Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Come, do it yourself. 'As is the man, so is his strength.'" So Gideon stepped forward and killed them, and took the ornaments off their camels' necks.

Jdg 8:22 The Israelites said to Gideon, "Rule over us-- you, your son and your grandson-- because you have saved us out of the hand of Midian."

Jdg 8:23 But Gideon told them, "I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. The LORD will rule over you."

Jdg 8:24 And he said, "I do have one request, that each of you give me an earring from your share of the plunder." (It was the custom of the Ishmaelites to wear gold earrings.)

Jdg 8:25 They answered, "We'll be glad to give them." So they spread out a garment, and each man threw a ring from his plunder onto it.

Jdg 8:26 The weight of the gold rings he asked for came to seventeen hundred shekels, not counting the ornaments, the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian or the chains that were on their camels' necks.

Jdg 8:27 Gideon made the gold into an ephod, which he placed in Ophrah, his town. All Israel prostituted themselves by worshiping it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his family.

Jdg 8:28 Thus Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not raise its head again. During Gideon's lifetime, the land enjoyed peace forty years.

Jdg 8:29 Jerub-Baal son of Joash went back home to live.

Jdg 8:30 He had seventy sons of his own, for he had many wives.

Jdg 8:31 His concubine, who lived in Shechem, also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelech.

Jdg 8:32 Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Jdg 8:33 No sooner had Gideon died than the Israelites again prostituted themselves to the Baals. They set up Baal-Berith as their god and Jdg 8:34 did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hands of all their enemies on every side.

Jdg 8:35 They also failed to show kindness to the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) for all the good things he had done for them.

Jdg 9:1 Abimelech son of Jerub-Baal went to his mother's brothers in Shechem and said to them and to all his mother's clan,

Jdg 9:2 "Ask all the citizens of Shechem, 'Which is better for you: to have all seventy of Jerub-Baal's sons rule over you, or just one man? Remember, I am your flesh and blood."

Jdg 9:3 When the brothers repeated all this to the citizens of Shechem, they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."

Jdg 9:4 They gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, and Abimelech used it to hire reckless adventurers, who became his followers.

Jdg 9:5 He went to his father's home in Ophrah and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerub-Baal. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerub-Baal, escaped by hiding.

Jdg 9:6 Then all the citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo gathered beside the great tree at the pillar in Shechem to crown Abimelech king.

Jdg 9:7 When Jotham was told about this, he climbed up on the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted to them, "Listen to me, citizens of Shechem, so that God may listen to you.

Jdg 9:8 One day the trees went out to anoint a king for themselves. They said to the olive tree, 'Be our king.'

Jdg 9:9 "But the olive tree answered, 'Should I give up my oil, by which both gods and men are honored, to hold sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:10 "Next, the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and be our king.'

Jdg 9:11 "But the fig tree replied, 'Should I give up my fruit, so good and sweet, to hold sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:12 "Then the trees said to the vine, 'Come and be our king.'

Jdg 9:13 "But the vine answered, 'Should I give up my wine, which cheers both gods and men, to hold sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:14 "Finally all the trees said to the thornbush, 'Come and be our king.'

Jdg 9:15 "The thornbush said to the trees, 'If you really want to anoint me king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, then let fire come out of the thornbush and consume the cedars of Lebanon!'

Jdg 9:16 "Now if you have acted honorably and in good faith when you made Abimelech king, and if you have been fair to Jerub-Baal and his family, and if you have treated him as he deserves--

Jdg 9:17 and to think that my father fought for you, risked his life to rescue you from the hand of Midian

Jdg 9:18 (but today you have revolted against my father's family, murdered his seventy sons on a single stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his slave girl, king over the citizens of Shechem because he is your brother)--

Jdg 9:19 if then you have acted honorably and in good faith toward Jerub-Baal and his family today, may Abimelech be your joy, and may you be his, too!

Jdg 9:20 But if you have not, let fire come out from Abimelech and consume you, citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo, and let fire come out from you, citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo, and consume Abimelech!"

Jdg 9:21 Then Jotham fled, escaping to Beer, and he lived there because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

Jdg 9:22 After Abimelech had governed Israel three years,

Jdg 9:23 God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the citizens of Shechem, who acted treacherously against Abimelech.

Jdg 9:24 God did this in order that the crime against Jerub-Baal's seventy sons, the shedding of their blood, might be avenged on their brother Abimelech and on the citizens of Shechem, who had helped him murder his brothers.

Jdg 9:25 In opposition to him these citizens of Shechem set men on the hilltops to ambush and rob everyone who passed by, and this was reported to Abimelech.

Jdg 9:26 Now Gaal son of Ebed moved with his brothers into Shechem, and its citizens put their confidence in him.

Jdg 9:27 After they had gone out into the fields and gathered the grapes and trodden them, they held a festival in the temple of their god. While they were eating and drinking, they cursed Abimelech.

Jdg 9:28 Then Gaal son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should be subject to him? Isn't he Jerub-Baal's son, and isn't Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor, Shechem's father! Why should we serve Abimelech?"

Jdg 9:29 If only this people were under my command! Then I would get rid of him. I would say to Abimelech, 'Call out your whole army!"

Jdg 9:30 When Zebul the governor of the city heard what Gaal son of Ebed said, he was very angry.

Jdg 9:31 Under cover he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, "Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem and are stirring up the city against you.

Jdg 9:32 Now then, during the night you and your men should come and lie in wait in the fields.

Jdg 9:33 In the morning at sunrise, advance against the city. When Gaal and his men come out against you, do whatever your hand finds to do."

Jdg 9:34 So Abimelech and all his troops set out by night and took up concealed positions near Shechem in four companies.

Jdg 9:35 Now Gaal son of Ebed had gone out and was standing at the entrance to the city gate just as Abimelech and his soldiers came out from their hiding place.

Jdg 9:36 When Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!" Zebul replied, "You mistake the shadows of the mountains for men."

Jdg 9:37 But Gaal spoke up again: "Look, people are coming down from the center of the land, and a company is coming from the direction of the soothsayers' tree."

Jdg 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your big talk now, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should be subject to him?' Aren't these the men you ridiculed? Go out and fight them!"

Jdg 9:39 So Gaal led out the citizens of Shechem and fought Abimelech.

Jdg 9:40 Abimelech chased him, and many fell wounded in the flight-- all the way to the entrance to the gate.

Jdg 9:41 Abimelech stayed in Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem.

Jdg 9:42 The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields, and this was reported to Abimelech.

Jdg 9:43 So he took his men, divided them into three companies and set an ambush in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he rose to attack them.

Jdg 9:44 Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward to a position at the entrance to the city gate. Then two companies rushed upon those in the fields and struck them down.

Jdg 9:45 All that day Abimelech pressed his attack against the city until he had captured it and killed its people. Then he destroyed the city and scattered salt over it.

Jdg 9:46 On hearing this, the citizens in the tower of Shechem went into the stronghold of the temple of El-Berith.

Jdg 9:47 When Abimelech heard that they had assembled there,

Jdg 9:48 he and all his men went up Mount Zalmon. He took an ax and cut off some branches, which he lifted to his shoulders. He ordered the men with him, "Quick! Do what you have seen me do!"

Jdg 9:49 So all the men cut branches and followed Abimelech. They piled them against the stronghold and set it on fire over the people inside. So all the people in the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women, also died.

Jdg 9:50 Next Abimelech went to Thebez and besieged it and captured it.

Jdg 9:51 Inside the city, however, was a strong tower, to which all the men and women-- all the people of the city-- fled. They locked themselves in and climbed up on the tower roof.

Jdg 9:52 Abimelech went to the tower and stormed it. But as he approached the entrance to the tower to set it on fire,

Jdg 9:53 a woman dropped an upper millstone on his head and cracked his skull.

Jdg 9:54 Hurriedly he called to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and kill me, so that they can't say, 'A woman killed him.'" So his servant ran him through, and he died.

Jdg 9:55 When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home.

Jdg 9:56 Thus God repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father by murdering his seventy brothers.

Jdg 9:57 God also made the men of Shechem pay for all their wickedness. The curse of Jotham son of Jerub-Baal came on them.

Jdg 10:1 After the time of Abimelech a man of Issachar, Tola son of Puah, the son of Dodo, rose to save Israel. He lived in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 10:2 He led Israel twenty-three years; then he died, and was buried in Shamir.

Jdg 10:3 He was followed by Jair of Gilead, who led Israel twenty-two years.

Jdg 10:4 He had thirty sons, who rode thirty donkeys. They controlled thirty towns in Gilead, which to this day are called Havvoth Jair.

Jdg 10:5 When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

Jdg 10:6 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD. They served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, and the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites and the gods of the Philistines. And because the Israelites forsook the LORD and no longer served him,

Jdg 10:7 he became angry with them. He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and the Ammonites, Jdg 10:8 who that year shattered and crushed them. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites on the east side of the Jordan in Gilead, the land of the Amorites.

Jdg 10:9 The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin and the house of Ephraim; and Israel was in great distress.

Jdg 10:10 Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, "We have sinned against you, forsaking our God and serving the Baals."

Jdg 10:11 The LORD replied, "When the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines,

Jdg 10:12 the Sidonians, the Amalekites and the Maonites oppressed you and you cried to me for help, did I not save you from their hands?

Jdg 10:13 But you have forsaken me and served other gods, so I will no longer save you."

Jdg 10:14 Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them save you when you are in trouble!"

Jdg 10:15 But the Israelites said to the LORD, "We have sinned. Do with us whatever you think best, but please rescue us now."

Jdg 10:16 Then they got rid of the foreign gods among them and served the LORD. And he could bear Israel's misery no longer.

Jdg 10:17 When the Ammonites were called to arms and camped in Gilead, the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah.

Jdg 10:18 The leaders of the people of Gilead said to each other, "Whoever will launch the attack against the Ammonites will be the head of all those living in Gilead."

Jdg 11:1 Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior. His father was Gilead; his mother was a prostitute.

Jdg 11:2 Gilead's wife also bore him sons, and when they were grown up, they drove Jephthah away. "You are not going to get any inheritance in our family," they said, "because you are the son of another woman."

Jdg 11:3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and settled in the land of Tob, where a group of adventurers gathered around him and followed him.

Jdg 11:4 Some time later, when the Ammonites made war on Israel,

Jdg 11:5 the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

Jdg 11:6 "Come," they said, "be our commander, so we can fight the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:7 Jephthah said to them, "Didn't you hate me and drive me from my father's house? Why do you come to me now, when you're in trouble?"

Jdg 11:8 The elders of Gilead said to him, "Nevertheless, we are turning to you now; come with us to fight the Ammonites, and you will be our head over all who live in Gilead."

Jdg 11:9 Jephthah answered, "Suppose you take me back to fight the Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me-- will I really be your head?"

Jdg 11:10 The elders of Gilead replied, "The LORD is our witness; we will certainly do as you say."

Jdg 11:11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them. And he repeated all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

Jdg 11:12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king with the question: "What do you have against us that you have attacked our country?"

Jdg 11:13 The king of the Ammonites answered Jephthah's messengers, "When Israel came up out of Egypt, they took away my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, all the way to the Jordan. Now give it back peaceably."

Jdg 11:14 Jephthah sent back messengers to the Ammonite king,

Jdg 11:15 saying: "This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites.

Jdg 11:16 But when they came up out of Egypt, Israel went through the desert to the Red Sea and on to Kadesh.

Jdg 11:17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Give us permission to go through your country,' but the king of Edom would not listen. They sent also to the king of Moab, and he refused. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.

Jdg 11:18 "Next they traveled through the desert, skirted the lands of Edom and Moab, passed along the eastern side of the country of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was its border.

Jdg 11:19 "Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, and said to him, 'Let us pass through your country to our own place.'

Jdg 11:20 Sihon, however, did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. He mustered all his men and encamped at Jahaz and fought with Israel.

Jdg 11:21 "Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his men into Israel's hands, and they defeated them. Israel took over all the land of the Amorites who lived in that country, Jdg 11:22 capturing all of it from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the desert to the Jordan.

Jdg 11:23 "Now since the LORD, the God of Israel, has driven the Amorites out before his people Israel, what right have you to take it over?

Jdg 11:24 Will you not take what your god Chemosh gives you? Likewise, whatever the LORD our God has given us, we will possess.

Jdg 11:25 Are you better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever quarrel with Israel or fight with them?

Jdg 11:26 For three hundred years Israel occupied Heshbon, Aroer, the surrounding settlements and all the towns along the Arnon. Why didn't you retake them during that time?

Jdg 11:27 I have not wronged you, but you are doing me wrong by waging war against me. Let the LORD, the Judge, decide the dispute this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:28 The king of Ammon, however, paid no attention to the message Jephthah sent him.

Jdg 11:29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah. He crossed Gilead and Manasseh, passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from there he advanced against the Ammonites.

Jdg 11:30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD: "If you give the Ammonites into my hands, Jdg 11:31 whatever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in triumph from the Ammonites will be the LORD's, and I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering."

Jdg 11:32 Then Jephthah went over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into his hands.

Jdg 11:33 He devastated twenty towns from Aroer to the vicinity of Minnith, as far as Abel Keramim. Thus Israel subdued Ammon.

Jdg 11:34 When Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, who should come out to meet him but his daughter, dancing to the sound of tambourines! She was an only child. Except for her he had neither son nor daughter.

Jdg 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes and cried, "Oh! My daughter! You have made me miserable and wretched, because I have made a vow to the LORD that I cannot break."

Jdg 11:36 "My father," she replied, "you have given your word to the LORD. Do to me just as you promised, now that the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:37 But grant me this one request," she said. "Give me two months to roam the hills and weep with my friends, because I will never marry."

Jdg 11:38 "You may go," he said. And he let her go for two months. She and the girls went into the hills and wept because she would never marry.

Jdg 11:39 After the two months, she returned to her father and he did to her as he had vowed. And she was a virgin. From this comes the Israelite custom

Jdg 11:40 that each year the young women of Israel go out for four days to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Jdg 12:1 The men of Ephraim called out their forces, crossed over to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, "Why did you go to fight the Ammonites without calling us to go with you? We're going to burn down your house over your head."

Jdg 12:2 Jephthah answered, "I and my people were engaged in a great struggle with the Ammonites, and although I called, you didn't save me out of their hands.

Jdg 12:3 When I saw that you wouldn't help, I took my life in my hands and crossed over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave me the victory over them. Now why have you come up today to fight me?"

Jdg 12:4 Jephthah then called together the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. The Gileadites struck them down because the Ephraimites had said, "You Gileadites are renegades from Ephraim and Manasseh."

Jdg 12:5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan leading to Ephraim, and whenever a survivor of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead asked him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he replied, "No,"

Jdg 12:6 they said, "All right, say 'Shibboleth.'" If he said, "Sibboleth," because he could not pronounce the word correctly, they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand Ephraimites were killed at that time.

Jdg 12:7 Jephthah led Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in a town in Gilead.

Jdg 12:8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem led Israel.

Jdg 12:9 He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He gave his daughters away in marriage to those outside his clan, and for his sons he brought in thirty young women as wives from outside his clan. Ibzan led Israel seven years.

Jdg 12:10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried in Bethlehem.

Jdg 12:11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite led Israel ten years.

Jdg 12:12 Then Elon died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

Jdg 12:13 After him, Abdon son of Hillel, from Pirathon, led Israel.

Jdg 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys. He led Israel eight years.

Jdg 12:15 Then Abdon son of Hillel died, and was buried at Pirathon in Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Jdg 13:1 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, so the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years.

Jdg 13:2 A certain man of Zorah, named Manoah, from the clan of the Danites, had a wife who was sterile and remained childless.

Jdg 13:3 The angel of the LORD appeared to her and said, "You are sterile and childless, but you are going to conceive and have a son."

Jdg 13:4 Now see to it that you drink no wine or other fermented drink and that you do not eat anything unclean,

Jdg 13:5 because you will conceive and give birth to a son. No razor may be used on his head, because the boy is to be a Nazirite, set apart to God from birth, and he will begin the deliverance of Israel from the hands of the Philistines."

Jdg 13:6 Then the woman went to her husband and told him, "A man of God came to me. He looked like an angel of God, very awesome. I didn't ask him where he came from, and he didn't tell me his name.

Jdg 13:7 But he said to me, "You will conceive and give birth to a son. Now then, drink no wine or other fermented drink and do not eat anything unclean, because the boy will be a Nazirite of God from birth until the day of his death."

Jdg 13:8 Then Manoah prayed to the LORD: "O Lord, I beg you, let the man of God you sent to us come again to teach us how to bring up the boy who is to be born."

Jdg 13:9 God heard Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman while she was out in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her.

Jdg 13:10 The woman hurried to tell her husband, "He's here! The man who appeared to me the other day!"

Jdg 13:11 Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said, "Are you the one who talked to my wife?" "I am," he said.

Jdg 13:12 So Manoah asked him, "When your words are fulfilled, what is to be the rule for the boy's life and work?"

Jdg 13:13 The angel of the LORD answered, "Your wife must do all that I have told her.

Jdg 13:14 She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, nor drink any wine or other fermented drink nor eat anything unclean. She must do everything I have commanded her."

Jdg 13:15 Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "We would like you to stay until we prepare a young goat for you."

Jdg 13:16 The angel of the LORD replied, "Even though you detain me, I will not eat any of your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to the LORD." (Manoah did not realize that it was the angel of the LORD.)

Jdg 13:17 Then Manoah inquired of the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, so that we may honor you when your word comes true?"

Jdg 13:18 He replied, "Why do you ask my name? It is beyond understanding."

Jdg 13:19 Then Manoah took a young goat, together with the grain offering, and sacrificed it on a rock to the LORD. And the LORD did an amazing thing while Manoah and his wife watched:

Jdg 13:20 As the flame blazed up from the altar toward heaven, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame. Seeing this, Manoah and his wife fell with their faces to the ground.

Jdg 13:21 When the angel of the LORD did not show himself again to Manoah and his wife, Manoah realized that it was the angel of the LORD.

Jdg 13:22 "We are doomed to die!" he said to his wife. "We have seen God!"

Jdg 13:23 But his wife answered, "If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and grain offering from our hands, nor shown us all these things or now told us this."

Jdg 13:24 The woman gave birth to a boy and named him Samson. He grew and the LORD blessed him,

Jdg 13:25 and the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him while he was in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Jdg 14:1 Samson went down to Timnah and saw there a young Philistine woman.

Jdg 14:2 When he returned, he said to his father and mother, "I have seen a Philistine woman in Timnah; now get her for me as my wife."

Jdg 14:3 His father and mother replied, "Isn't there an acceptable woman among your relatives or among all our people? Must you go to the uncircumcised Philistines to get a wife?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me. She's the right one for me."

Jdg 14:4 (His parents did not know that this was from the LORD, who was seeking an occasion to confront the Philistines; for at that time they were ruling over Israel.)

Jdg 14:5 Samson went down to Timnah together with his father and mother. As they approached the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion came roaring toward him.

Jdg 14:6 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power so that he tore the lion apart with his bare hands as he might have torn a young goat. But he told neither his father nor his mother what he had done.

Jdg 14:7 Then he went down and talked with the woman, and he liked her.

Jdg 14:8 Some time later, when he went back to marry her, he turned aside to look at the lion's carcass. In it was a swarm of bees and some honey,

Jdg 14:9 which he scooped out with his hands and ate as he went along. When he rejoined his parents, he gave them some, and they too ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the lion's carcass.

Jdg 14:10 Now his father went down to see the woman. And Samson made a feast there, as was customary for bridegrooms.

Jdg 14:11 When he appeared, he was given thirty companions.

Jdg 14:12 "Let me tell you a riddle," Samson said to them. "If you can give me the answer within the seven days of the feast, I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes."

Jdg 14:13 If you can't tell me the answer, you must give me thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes." "Tell us your riddle," they said. "Let's hear it."

Jdg 14:14 He replied, "Out of the eater, something to eat; out of the strong, something sweet." For three days they could not give the answer.

Jdg 14:15 On the fourth day, they said to Samson's wife, "Coax your husband into explaining the riddle for us, or we will burn you and your father's household to death. Did you invite us here to rob us?"

Jdg 14:16 Then Samson's wife threw herself on him, sobbing, "You hate me! You don't really love me. You've given my people a riddle, but you haven't told me the answer." "I haven't even explained it to my father or mother," he replied, "so why should I explain it to you?"

Jdg 14:17 She cried the whole seven days of the feast. So on the seventh day he finally told her, because she continued to press him. She in turn explained the riddle to her people.

Jdg 14:18 Before sunset on the seventh day the men of the town said to him, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?" Samson said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle."

Jdg 14:19 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power. He went down to Ashkelon, struck down thirty of their men, stripped them of their belongings and gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. Burning with anger, he went up to his father's house.

Jdg 14:20 And Samson's wife was given to the friend who had attended him at his wedding.

Jdg 15:1 Later on, at the time of wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat and went to visit his wife. He said, "I'm going to my wife's room." But her father would not let him go in.

Jdg 15:2 "I was so sure you thoroughly hated her," he said, "that I gave her to your friend. Isn't her younger sister more attractive? Take her instead."

Jdg 15:3 Samson said to them, "This time I have a right to get even with the Philistines; I will really harm them."

Jdg 15:4 So he went out and caught three hundred foxes and tied them tail to tail in pairs. He then fastened a torch to every pair of tails,

Jdg 15:5 lit the torches and let the foxes loose in the standing grain of the Philistines. He burned up the shocks and standing grain, together with the vineyards and olive groves.

Jdg 15:6 When the Philistines asked, "Who did this?" they were told, "Samson, the Timnite's son-in-law, because his wife was given to his friend." So the Philistines went up and burned her and her father to death.

Jdg 15:7 Samson said to them, "Since you've acted like this, I won't stop until I get my revenge on you."

Jdg 15:8 He attacked them viciously and slaughtered many of them. Then he went down and stayed in a cave in the rock of Etam.

Jdg 15:9 The Philistines went up and camped in Judah, spreading out near Lehi.

Jdg 15:10 The men of Judah asked, "Why have you come to fight us?" "We have come to take Samson prisoner," they answered, "to do to him as he did to us."

Jdg 15:11 Then three thousand men from Judah went down to the cave in the rock of Etam and said to Samson, "Don't you realize that the Philistines are rulers over us? What have you done to us?" He answered, "I merely did to them what they did to me."

Jdg 15:12 They said to him, "We've come to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines." Samson said, "Swear to me that you won't kill me yourselves."

Jdg 15:13 "Agreed," they answered. "We will only tie you up and hand you over to them. We will not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes and led him up from the rock.

Jdg 15:14 As he approached Lehi, the Philistines came toward him shouting. The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power. The ropes on his arms became like charred flax, and the bindings dropped from his hands.

Jdg 15:15 Finding a fresh jawbone of a donkey, he grabbed it and struck down a thousand men.

Jdg 15:16 Then Samson said, "With a donkey's jawbone I have made donkeys of them. With a donkey's jawbone I have killed a thousand men."

Jdg 15:17 When he finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone; and the place was called Ramath Lehi.

Jdg 15:18 Because he was very thirsty, he cried out to the LORD, "You have given your servant this great victory. Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"

Jdg 15:19 Then God opened up the hollow place in Lehi, and water came out of it. When Samson drank, his strength returned and he revived. So the spring was called En Hakkore, and it is still there in Lehi.

Jdg 15:20 Samson led Israel for twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Jdg 16:1 One day Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute. He went in to spend the night with her.

Jdg 16:2 The people of Gaza were told, "Samson is here!" So they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate. They made no move during the night, saying, "At dawn we'll kill him."

Jdg 16:3 But Samson lay there only until the middle of the night. Then he got up and took hold of the doors of the city gate, together with the two posts, and tore them loose, bar and all. He lifted them to his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

Jdg 16:4 Some time later, he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek whose name was Delilah.

Jdg 16:5 The rulers of the Philistines went to her and said, "See if you can lure him into showing you the secret of his great strength and how we can overpower him so we may tie him up and subdue him. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred shekels of silver."

Jdg 16:6 So Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me the secret of your great strength and how you can be tied up and subdued."

Jdg 16:7 Samson answered her, "If anyone ties me with seven fresh thongs that have not been dried, I'll become as weak as any other man."

Jdg 16:8 Then the rulers of the Philistines brought her seven fresh thongs that had not been dried, and she tied him with them.

Jdg 16:9 With men hidden in the room, she called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" But he snapped the thongs as easily as a piece of string snaps when it comes close to a flame. So the secret of his strength was not discovered.

Jdg 16:10 Then Delilah said to Samson, "You have made a fool of me; you lied to me. Come now, tell me how you can be tied."

Jdg 16:11 He said, "If anyone ties me securely with new ropes that have never been used, I'll become as weak as any other man."

Jdg 16:12 So Delilah took new ropes and tied him with them. Then, with men hidden in the room, she called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" But he snapped the ropes off his arms as if they were threads.

Jdg 16:13 Delilah then said to Samson, "Until now, you have been making a fool of me and lying to me. Tell me how you can be tied." He replied, "If you weave the seven braids of my head into the fabric [on the loom] and tighten it with the pin, I'll become as weak as any other man." So while he was sleeping, Delilah took the seven braids of his head, wove them into the fabric

Jdg 16:14 and tightened it with the pin. Again she called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" He awoke from his sleep and pulled up the pin and the loom, with the fabric.

Jdg 16:15 Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when you won't confide in me? This is the third time you have made a fool of me and haven't told me the secret of your great strength."

Jdg 16:16 With such nagging she prodded him day after day until he was tired to death.

Jdg 16:17 So he told her everything. "No razor has ever been used on my head," he said, "because I have been a Nazirite set apart to God since birth. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would become as weak as any other man."

Jdg 16:18 When Delilah saw that he had told her everything, she sent word to the rulers of the Philistines, "Come back once more; he has told me everything." So the rulers of the Philistines returned with the silver in their hands.

Jdg 16:19 Having put him to sleep on her lap, she called a man to shave off the seven braids of his hair, and so began to subdue him. And his strength left him.

Jdg 16:20 Then she called, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" He awoke from his sleep and thought, "I'll go out as before and shake myself free." But he did not know that the LORD had left him.

Jdg 16:21 Then the Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes and took him down to Gaza. Binding him with bronze shackles, they set him to grinding in the prison.

Jdg 16:22 But the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

Jdg 16:23 Now the rulers of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to celebrate, saying, "Our god has delivered Samson, our enemy, into our hands."

Jdg 16:24 When the people saw him, they praised their god, saying, "Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands, the one who laid waste our land and multiplied our slain."

Jdg 16:25 While they were in high spirits, they shouted, "Bring out Samson to entertain us." So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. When they stood him among the pillars,

Jdg 16:26 Samson said to the servant who held his hand, "Put me where I can feel the pillars that support the temple, so that I may lean against them."

Jdg 16:27 Now the temple was crowded with men and women; all the rulers of the Philistines were there, and on the roof were about three thousand men and women watching Samson perform.

Jdg 16:28 Then Samson prayed to the LORD, "O Sovereign LORD, remember me. O God, please strengthen me just once more, and let me with one blow get revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes."

Jdg 16:29 Then Samson reached toward the two central pillars on which the temple stood. Bracing himself against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other,

Jdg 16:30 Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" Then he pushed with all his might, and down came the temple on the rulers and all the people in it. Thus he killed many more when he died than while he lived.

Jdg 16:31 Then his brothers and his father's whole family went down to get him. They brought him back and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had led Israel twenty years.

Jdg 17:1 Now a man named Micah from the hill country of Ephraim

Jdg 17:2 said to his mother, "The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you and about which I heard you utter a curse-- I have that silver with me; I took it." Then his mother said, "The LORD bless you, my son!"

Jdg 17:3 When he returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, she said, "I solemnly consecrate my silver to the LORD for my son to make a carved image and a cast idol. I will give it back to you."

Jdg 17:4 So he returned the silver to his mother, and she took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to a silversmith, who made them into the image and the idol. And they were put in Micah's house.

Jdg 17:5 Now this man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and some idols and installed one of his sons as his priest.

Jdg 17:6 In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit.

Jdg 17:7 A young Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, who had been living within the clan of Judah, Jdg 17:8 left that town in search of some other place to stay. On his way he came to Micah's house in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 17:9 Micah asked him, "Where are you from?" "I'm a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah," he said, "and I'm looking for a place to stay."

Jdg 17:10 Then Micah said to him, "Live with me and be my father and priest, and I'll give you ten shekels of silver a year, your clothes and your food."

Jdg 17:11 So the Levite agreed to live with him, and the young man was to him like one of his sons.

Jdg 17:12 Then Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in his house.

Jdg 17:13 And Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since this Levite has become my priest."

Jdg 18:1 In those days Israel had no king. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking a place of their own where they might settle, because they had not yet come into an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Jdg 18:2 So the Danites sent five warriors from Zorah and Eshtaol to spy out the land and explore it. These men represented all their clans. They told them, "Go, explore the land." The men entered the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah, where they spent the night.

Jdg 18:3 When they were near Micah's house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite; so they turned in there and asked him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? Why are you here?"

Jdg 18:4 He told them what Micah had done for him, and said, "He has hired me and I am his priest."

Jdg 18:5 Then they said to him, "Please inquire of God to learn whether our journey will be successful."

Jdg 18:6 The priest answered them, "Go in peace. Your journey has the LORD's approval."

Jdg 18:7 So the five men left and came to Laish, where they saw that the people were living in safety, like the Sidonians, unsuspecting and secure. And since their land lacked nothing, they were prosperous. Also, they lived a long way from the Sidonians and had no relationship with anyone else.

Jdg 18:8 When they returned to Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers asked them, "How did you find things?"

Jdg 18:9 They answered, "Come on, let's attack them! We have seen that the land is very good. Aren't you going to do something? Don't hesitate to go there and take it over."

Jdg 18:10 When you get there, you will find an unsuspecting people and a spacious land that God has put into your hands, a land that lacks nothing whatever."

Jdg 18:11 Then six hundred men from the clan of the Danites, armed for battle, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol.

Jdg 18:12 On their way they set up camp near Kiriath Jearim in Judah. This is why the place west of Kiriath Jearim is called Mahaneh Dan to this day.

Jdg 18:13 From there they went on to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah's house.

Jdg 18:14 Then the five men who had spied out the land of Laish said to their brothers, "Do you know that one of these houses has an ephod, other household gods, a carved image and a cast idol? Now you know what to do."

Jdg 18:15 So they turned in there and went to the house of the young Levite at Micah's place and greeted him.

Jdg 18:16 The six hundred Danites, armed for battle, stood at the entrance to the gate.

Jdg 18:17 The five men who had spied out the land went inside and took the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods and the cast idol while the priest and the six hundred armed men stood at the entrance to the gate.

Jdg 18:18 When these men went into Micah's house and took the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods and the cast idol, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

Jdg 18:19 They answered him, "Be quiet! Don't say a word. Come with us, and be our father and priest. Isn't it better that you serve a tribe and clan in Israel as priest rather than just one man's household?"

Jdg 18:20 Then the priest was glad. He took the ephod, the other household gods and the carved image and went along with the people.

Jdg 18:21 Putting their little children, their livestock and their possessions in front of them, they turned away and left.

Jdg 18:22 When they had gone some distance from Micah's house, the men who lived near Micah were called together and overtook the Danites.

Jdg 18:23 As they shouted after them, the Danites turned and said to Micah, "What's the matter with you that you called out your men to fight?"

Jdg 18:24 He replied, "You took the gods I made, and my priest, and went away. What else do I have? How can you ask, 'What's the matter with you?'"

Jdg 18:25 The Danites answered, "Don't argue with us, or some hot-tempered men will attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives."

Jdg 18:26 So the Danites went their way, and Micah, seeing that they were too strong for him, turned around and went back home.

Jdg 18:27 Then they took what Micah had made, and his priest, and went on to Laish, against a peaceful and unsuspecting people. They attacked them with the sword and burned down their city.

Jdg 18:28 There was no one to rescue them because they lived a long way from Sidon and had no relationship with anyone else. The city was in a valley near Beth Rehob. The Danites rebuilt the city and settled there.

Jdg 18:29 They named it Dan after their forefather Dan, who was born to Israel-- though the city used to be called Laish.

Jdg 18:30 There the Danites set up for themselves the idols, and Jonathan son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan until the time of the captivity of the land.

Jdg 18:31 They continued to use the idols Micah had made, all the time the house of God was in Shiloh.

Jdg 19:1 In those days Israel had no king. Now a Levite who lived in a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

Jdg 19:2 But she was unfaithful to him. She left him and went back to her father's house in Bethlehem, Judah. After she had been there four months,

Jdg 19:3 her husband went to her to persuade her to return. He had with him his servant and two donkeys. She took him into her father's house, and when her father saw him, he gladly welcomed him.

Jdg 19:4 His father-in-law, the girl's father, prevailed upon him to stay; so he remained with him three days, eating and drinking, and sleeping there.

Jdg 19:5 On the fourth day they got up early and he prepared to leave, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh yourself with something to eat; then you can go."

Jdg 19:6 So the two of them sat down to eat and drink together. Afterward the girl's father said, "Please stay tonight and enjoy yourself."

Jdg 19:7 And when the man got up to go, his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed there that night.

Jdg 19:8 On the morning of the fifth day, when he rose to go, the girl's father said, "Refresh yourself. Wait till afternoon!" So the two of them ate together.

Jdg 19:9 Then when the man, with his concubine and his servant, got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said, "Now look, it's almost evening. Spend the night here; the day is nearly over. Stay and enjoy yourself. Early tomorrow morning you can get up and be on your way home."

Jdg 19:10 But, unwilling to stay another night, the man left and went toward Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine.

Jdg 19:11 When they were near Jebus and the day was almost gone, the servant said to his master, "Come, let's stop at this city of the Jebusites and spend the night."

Jdg 19:12 His master replied, "No. We won't go into an alien city, whose people are not Israelites. We will go on to Gibeah."

Jdg 19:13 He added, "Come, let's try to reach Gibeah or Ramah and spend the night in one of those places."

Jdg 19:14 So they went on, and the sun set as they neared Gibeah in Benjamin.

Jdg 19:15 There they stopped to spend the night. They went and sat in the city square, but no one took them into his home for the night.

Jdg 19:16 That evening an old man from the hill country of Ephraim, who was living in Gibeah (the men of the place were Benjamites), came in from his work in the fields.

Jdg 19:17 When he looked and saw the traveler in the city square, the old man asked, "Where are you going? Where did you come from?"

Jdg 19:18 He answered, "We are on our way from Bethlehem in Judah to a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim where I live. I have been to Bethlehem in Judah and now I am going to the house of the LORD. No one has taken me into his house."

Jdg 19:19 We have both straw and fodder for our donkeys and bread and wine for ourselves your servants--me, your maidservant, and the young man with us. We don't need anything."

Jdg 19:20 "You are welcome at my house," the old man said. "Let me supply whatever you need. Only don't spend the night in the square."

Jdg 19:21 So he took him into his house and fed his donkeys. After they had washed their feet, they had something to eat and drink.

Jdg 19:22 While they were enjoying themselves, some of the wicked men of the city surrounded the house. Pounding on the door, they shouted to the old man who owned the house, "Bring out the man who came to your house so we can have sex with him."

Jdg 19:23 The owner of the house went outside and said to them, "No, my friends, don't be so vile. Since this man is my guest, don't do this disgraceful thing."

Jdg 19:24 Look, here is my virgin daughter, and his concubine. I will bring them out to you now, and you can use them and do to them whatever you wish. But to this man, don't do such a disgraceful thing."

Jdg 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the man took his concubine and sent her outside to them, and they raped her and abused her throughout the night, and at dawn they let her go.

Jdg 19:26 At daybreak the woman went back to the house where her master was staying, fell down at the door and lay there until daylight.

Jdg 19:27 When her master got up in the morning and opened the door of the house and stepped out to continue on his way, there lay his concubine, fallen in the doorway of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

Jdg 19:28 He said to her, "Get up; let's go." But there was no answer. Then the man put her on his donkey and set out for home.

Jdg 19:29 When he reached home, he took a knife and cut up his concubine, limb by limb, into twelve parts and sent them into all the areas of Israel.

Jdg 19:30 Everyone who saw it said, "Such a thing has never been seen or done, not since the day the Israelites came up out of Egypt. Think about it! Consider it! Tell us what to do!"

Jdg 20:1 Then all the Israelites from Dan to Beersheba and from the land of Gilead came out as one man and assembled before the LORD in Mizpah.

Jdg 20:2 The leaders of all the people of the tribes of Israel took their places in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand soldiers armed with swords.

Jdg 20:3 (The Benjamites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the Israelites said, "Tell us how this awful thing happened."

Jdg 20:4 So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, said, "I and my concubine came to Gibeah in Benjamin to spend the night.

Jdg 20:5 During the night the men of Gibeah came after me and surrounded the house, intending to kill me. They raped my concubine, and she died.

Jdg 20:6 I took my concubine, cut her into pieces and sent one piece to each region of Israel's inheritance, because they committed this lewd and disgraceful act in Israel.

Jdg 20:7 Now, all you Israelites, speak up and give your verdict."

Jdg 20:8 All the people rose as one man, saying, "None of us will go home. No, not one of us will return to his house.

Jdg 20:9 But now this is what we'll do to Gibeah: We'll go up against it as the lot directs.

Jdg 20:10 We'll take ten men out of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred from a thousand, and a thousand from ten thousand, to get provisions for the army. Then, when the army arrives at Gibeah in Benjamin, it can give them what they deserve for all this vileness done in Israel."

Jdg 20:11 So all the men of Israel got together and united as one man against the city.

Jdg 20:12 The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What about this awful crime that was committed among you?"

Jdg 20:13 Now surrender those wicked men of Gibeah so that we may put them to death and purge the evil from Israel." But the Benjamites would not listen to their fellow Israelites.

Jdg 20:14 From their towns they came together at Gibeah to fight against the Israelites.

Jdg 20:15 At once the Benjamites mobilized twenty-six thousand swordsmen from their towns, in addition to seven hundred chosen men from those living in Gibeah.

Jdg 20:16 Among all these soldiers there were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed, each of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

Jdg 20:17 Israel, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand swordsmen, all of them fighting men.

Jdg 20:18 The Israelites went up to Bethel and inquired of God. They said, "Who of us shall go first to fight against the Benjamites?" The LORD replied, "Judah shall go first."

Jdg 20:19 The next morning the Israelites got up and pitched camp near Gibeah.

Jdg 20:20 The men of Israel went out to fight the Benjamites and took up battle positions against them at Gibeah.

Jdg 20:21 The Benjamites came out of Gibeah and cut down twenty-two thousand Israelites on the battlefield that day.

Jdg 20:22 But the men of Israel encouraged one another and again took up their positions where they had stationed themselves the first day.

Jdg 20:23 The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and they inquired of the LORD. They said, "Shall we go up again to battle against the Benjamites, our brothers?" The LORD answered, "Go up against them."

Jdg 20:24 Then the Israelites drew near to Benjamin the second day.

Jdg 20:25 This time, when the Benjamites came out from Gibeah to oppose them, they cut down another eighteen thousand Israelites, all of them armed with swords.

Jdg 20:26 Then the Israelites, all the people, went up to Bethel, and there they sat weeping before the LORD. They fasted that day until evening and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the LORD.

Jdg 20:27 And the Israelites inquired of the LORD. (In those days the ark of the covenant of God was there, Jdg 20:28 with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, ministering before it.) They asked, "Shall we go up again to battle with Benjamin our brother, or not?" The LORD responded, "Go, for tomorrow I will give them into your hands."

Jdg 20:29 Then Israel set an ambush around Gibeah.

Jdg 20:30 They went up against the Benjamites on the third day and took up positions against Gibeah as they had done before.

Jdg 20:31 The Benjamites came out to meet them and were drawn away from the city. They began to inflict casualties on the Israelites as before, so that about thirty men fell in the open field and on the roads-- the one leading to Bethel and the other to Gibeah.

Jdg 20:32 While the Benjamites were saying, "We are defeating them as before," the Israelites were saying, "Let's retreat and draw them away from the city to the roads."

Jdg 20:33 All the men of Israel moved from their places and took up positions at Baal Tamar, and the Israelite ambush charged out of its place on the west of Gibeah.

Jdg 20:34 Then ten thousand of Israel's finest men made a frontal attack on Gibeah. The fighting was so heavy that the Benjamites did not realize how near disaster was.

Jdg 20:35 The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel, and on that day the Israelites struck down 25,100 Benjamites, all armed with swords.

Jdg 20:36 Then the Benjamites saw that they were beaten. Now the men of Israel had given way before Benjamin, because they relied on the ambush they had set near Gibeah.

Jdg 20:37 The men who had been in ambush made a sudden dash into Gibeah, spread out and put the whole city to the sword.

Jdg 20:38 The men of Israel had arranged with the ambush that they should send up a great cloud of smoke from the city,

Jdg 20:39 and then the men of Israel would turn in the battle. The Benjamites had begun to inflict casualties on the men of Israel (about thirty), and they said, "We are defeating them as in the first battle."

Jdg 20:40 But when the column of smoke began to rise from the city, the Benjamites turned and saw the smoke of the whole city going up into the sky.

Jdg 20:41 Then the men of Israel turned on them, and the men of Benjamin were terrified, because they realized that disaster had come upon them.

Jdg 20:42 So they fled before the Israelites in the direction of the desert, but they could not escape the battle.

And the men of Israel who came out of the towns cut them down there.

Jdg 20:43 They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them and easily overran them in the vicinity of Gibeah on the east.

Jdg 20:44 Eighteen thousand Benjamites fell, all of them valiant fighters.

Jdg 20:45 As they turned and fled toward the desert to the rock of Rimmon, the Israelites cut down five thousand men along the roads. They kept pressing after the Benjamites as far as Gidom and struck down two thousand more.

Jdg 20:46 On that day twenty-five thousand Benjamite swordsmen fell, all of them valiant fighters.

Jdg 20:47 But six hundred men turned and fled into the desert to the rock of Rimmon, where they stayed four months.

Jdg 20:48 The men of Israel went back to Benjamin and put all the towns to the sword, including the animals and everything else they found. All the towns they came across they set on fire.

Jdg 21:1 The men of Israel had taken an oath at Mizpah: "Not one of us will give his daughter in marriage to a Benjamite."

Jdg 21:2 The people went to Bethel, where they sat before God until evening, raising their voices and weeping bitterly.

Jdg 21:3 "O LORD, the God of Israel," they cried, "why has this happened to Israel? Why should one tribe be missing from Israel today?"

Jdg 21:4 Early the next day the people built an altar and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.

Jdg 21:5 Then the Israelites asked, "Who from all the tribes of Israel has failed to assemble before the LORD?" For they had taken a solemn oath that anyone who failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah should certainly be put to death.

Jdg 21:6 Now the Israelites grieved for their brothers, the Benjamites. "Today one tribe is cut off from Israel," they said.

Jdg 21:7 "How can we provide wives for those who are left, since we have taken an oath by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters in marriage?"

Jdg 21:8 Then they asked, "Which one of the tribes of Israel failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah?" They discovered that no one from Jabesh Gilead had come to the camp for the assembly.

Jdg 21:9 For when they counted the people, they found that none of the people of Jabesh Gilead were there.

Jdg 21:10 So the assembly sent twelve thousand fighting men with instructions to go to Jabesh Gilead and put to the sword those living there, including the women and children.

Jdg 21:11 "This is what you are to do," they said. "Kill every male and every woman who is not a virgin."

Jdg 21:12 They found among the people living in Jabesh Gilead four hundred young women who had never slept with a man, and they took them to the camp at Shiloh in Canaan.

Jdg 21:13 Then the whole assembly sent an offer of peace to the Benjamites at the rock of Rimmon.

Jdg 21:14 So the Benjamites returned at that time and were given the women of Jabesh Gilead who had been spared. But there were not enough for all of them.

Jdg 21:15 The people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a gap in the tribes of Israel.

Jdg 21:16 And the elders of the assembly said, "With the women of Benjamin destroyed, how shall we provide wives for the men who are left?"

Jdg 21:17 The Benjamite survivors must have heirs," they said, "so that a tribe of Israel will not be wiped out.

Jdg 21:18 We can't give them our daughters as wives, since we Israelites have taken this oath: 'Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to a Benjamite.'

Jdg 21:19 But look, there is the annual festival of the LORD in Shiloh, to the north of Bethel, and east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem, and to the south of Lebonah."

Jdg 21:20 So they instructed the Benjamites, saying, "Go and hide in the vineyards

Jdg 21:21 and watch. When the girls of Shiloh come out to join in the dancing, then rush from the vineyards and each of you seize a wife from the girls of Shiloh and go to the land of Benjamin.

Jdg 21:22 When their fathers or brothers complain to us, we will say to them, 'Do us a kindness by helping them, because we did not get wives for them during the war, and you are innocent, since you did not give your daughters to them.'"

Jdg 21:23 So that is what the Benjamites did. While the girls were dancing, each man caught one and carried her off to be his wife. Then they returned to their inheritance and rebuilt the towns and settled in them.

Jdg 21:24 At that time the Israelites left that place and went home to their tribes and clans, each to his own inheritance.

Jdg 21:25 In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit.

Rut 1:1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a man from Bethlehem in Judah, together with his wife and two sons, went to live for a while in the country of Moab.

Rut 1:2 The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to Moab and lived there.

Rut 1:3 Now Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died, and she was left with her two sons.

Rut 1:4 They married Moabite women, one named Orpah and the other Ruth. After they had lived there about ten years,

Rut 1:5 both Mahlon and Kilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband.

Rut 1:6 When she heard in Moab that the LORD had come to the aid of his people by providing food for them, Naomi and her daughters-in-law prepared to return home from there.

Rut 1:7 With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had been living and set out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah.

Rut 1:8 Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you, to your mother's home. May the LORD show kindness to you, as you have shown to your dead and to me.

Rut 1:9 May the LORD grant that each of you will find rest in the home of another husband." Then she kissed them and they wept aloud

Rut 1:10 and said to her, "We will go back with you to your people."

Rut 1:11 But Naomi said, "Return home, my daughters. Why would you come with me? Am I going to have any more sons, who could become your husbands?

Rut 1:12 Return home, my daughters; I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me-- even if I had a husband tonight and then gave birth to sons--

Rut 1:13 would you wait until they grew up? Would you remain unmarried for them? No, my daughters. It is more bitter for me than for you, because the LORD's hand has gone out against me!"

Rut 1:14 At this they wept again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-by, but Ruth clung to her.

Rut 1:15 "Look," said Naomi, "your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her."

Rut 1:16 But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God.

Rut 1:17 Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me."

Rut 1:18 When Naomi realized that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her.

Rut 1:19 So the two women went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they arrived in Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them, and the women exclaimed, "Can this be Naomi?"

Rut 1:20 "Don't call me Naomi," she told them. "Call me Mara, because the Almighty has made my life very bitter.

Rut 1:21 I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why call me Naomi? The LORD has afflicted me; the Almighty has brought misfortune upon me."

Rut 1:22 So Naomi returned from Moab accompanied by Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, arriving in Bethlehem as the barley harvest was beginning.

Rut 2:1 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side, from the clan of Elimelech, a man of standing, whose name was Boaz.

Rut 2:2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Let me go to the fields and pick up the leftover grain behind anyone in whose eyes I find favor." Naomi said to her, "Go ahead, my daughter."

Rut 2:3 So she went out and began to glean in the fields behind the harvesters. As it turned out, she found herself working in a field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech.

Rut 2:4 Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters, "The LORD be with you!" "The LORD bless you!" they called back.

Rut 2:5 Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, "Whose young woman is that?"

Rut 2:6 The foreman replied, "She is the Moabitess who came back from Moab with Naomi.

Rut 2:7 She said, 'Please let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the harvesters.' She went into the field and has worked steadily from morning till now, except for a short rest in the shelter."

Rut 2:8 So Boaz said to Ruth, "My daughter, listen to me. Don't go and glean in another field and don't go away from here. Stay here with my servant girls.

Rut 2:9 Watch the field where the men are harvesting, and follow along after the girls. I have told the men not to touch you. And whenever you are thirsty, go and get a drink from the water jars the men have filled."

Rut 2:10 At this, she bowed down with her face to the ground. She exclaimed, "Why have I found such favor in your eyes that you notice me-- a foreigner?"

Rut 2:11 Boaz replied, "I've been told all about what you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband-- how you left your father and mother and your homeland and came to live with a people you did not know before.

Rut 2:12 May the LORD repay you for what you have done. May you be richly rewarded by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge."

Rut 2:13 "May I continue to find favor in your eyes, my lord," she said. "You have given me comfort and have spoken kindly to your servant-- though I do not have the standing of one of your servant girls."

Rut 2:14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here. Have some bread and dip it in the wine vinegar." When she sat down with the harvesters, he offered her some roasted grain. She ate all she wanted and had some left over.

Rut 2:15 As she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his men, "Even if she gathers among the sheaves, don't embarrass her.

Rut 2:16 Rather, pull out some stalks for her from the bundles and leave them for her to pick up, and don't rebuke her."

Rut 2:17 So Ruth gleaned in the field until evening. Then she threshed the barley she had gathered, and it amounted to about an ephah.

Rut 2:18 She carried it back to town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gathered. Ruth also brought out and gave her what she had left over after she had eaten enough.

Rut 2:19 Her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who took notice of you!" Then Ruth told her mother-in-law about the one at whose place she had been working. "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz," she said.

Rut 2:20 "The LORD bless him!" Naomi said to her daughter-in-law. "He has not stopped showing his kindness to the living and the dead." She added, "That man is our close relative; he is one of our kinsman-redeemers."

Rut 2:21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, "He even said to me, 'Stay with my workers until they finish harvesting all my grain.'"

Rut 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It will be good for you, my daughter, to go with his girls, because in someone else's field you might be harmed."

Rut 2:23 So Ruth stayed close to the servant girls of Boaz to glean until the barley and wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Rut 3:1 One day Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, should I not try to find a home for you, where you will be well provided for?"

Rut 3:2 Is not Boaz, with whose servant girls you have been, a kinsman of ours? Tonight he will be winnowing barley on the threshing floor.

Rut 3:3 Wash and perfume yourself, and put on your best clothes. Then go down to the threshing floor, but don't let him know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking.

Rut 3:4 When he lies down, note the place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what to do."

Rut 3:5 "I will do whatever you say," Ruth answered.

Rut 3:6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law told her to do.

Rut 3:7 When Boaz had finished eating and drinking and was in good spirits, he went over to lie down at the far end of the grain pile. Ruth approached quietly, uncovered his feet and lay down.

Rut 3:8 In the middle of the night something startled the man, and he turned and discovered a woman lying at his feet.

Rut 3:9 "Who are you?" he asked. "I am your servant Ruth," she said. "Spread the corner of your garment over me, since you are a kinsman-redeemer."

Rut 3:10 "The LORD bless you, my daughter," he replied. "This kindness is greater than that which you showed earlier: You have not run after the younger men, whether rich or poor."

Rut 3:11 And now, my daughter, don't be afraid. I will do for you all you ask. All my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of noble character.

Rut 3:12 Although it is true that I am near of kin, there is a kinsman-redeemer nearer than I.

Rut 3:13 Stay here for the night, and in the morning if he wants to redeem, good; let him redeem. But if he is not willing, as surely as the LORD lives I will do it. Lie here until morning."

Rut 3:14 So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before anyone could be recognized; and he said, "Don't let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor."

Rut 3:15 He also said, "Bring me the shawl you are wearing and hold it out." When she did so, he poured into it six measures of barley and put it on her. Then he went back to town.

Rut 3:16 When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, "How did it go, my daughter?" Then she told her everything Boaz had done for her

Rut 3:17 and added, "He gave me these six measures of barley, saying, 'Don't go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'"

Rut 3:18 Then Naomi said, "Wait, my daughter, until you find out what happens. For the man will not rest until the matter is settled today."

Rut 4:1 Meanwhile Boaz went up to the town gate and sat there. When the kinsman-redeemer he had mentioned came along, Boaz said, "Come over here, my friend, and sit down." So he went over and sat down.

Rut 4:2 Boaz took ten of the elders of the town and said, "Sit here," and they did so.

Rut 4:3 Then he said to the kinsman-redeemer, "Naomi, who has come back from Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech.

Rut 4:4 I thought I should bring the matter to your attention and suggest that you buy it in the presence of these seated here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, do so. But if you will not, tell me, so I will know. For no one has the right to do it except you, and I am next in line." "I will redeem it," he said.

Rut 4:5 Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the land from Naomi and from Ruth the Moabitess, you acquire the dead man's widow, in order to maintain the name of the dead with his property."

Rut 4:6 At this, the kinsman-redeemer said, "Then I cannot redeem it because I might endanger my own estate. You redeem it yourself. I cannot do it."

Rut 4:7 (Now in earlier times in Israel, for the redemption and transfer of property to become final, one party took off his sandal and gave it to the other. This was the method of legalizing transactions in Israel.)

Rut 4:8 So the kinsman-redeemer said to Boaz, "Buy it yourself." And he removed his sandal.

Rut 4:9 Then Boaz announced to the elders and all the people, "Today you are witnesses that I have bought from Naomi all the property of Elimelech, Kilion and Mahlon.

Rut 4:10 I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon's widow, as my wife, in order to maintain the name of the dead with his property, so that his name will not disappear from among his family or from the town records. Today you are witnesses!"

Rut 4:11 Then the elders and all those at the gate said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you have standing in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.

Rut 4:12 Through the offspring the LORD gives you by this young woman, may your family be like that of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah."

Rut 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. Then he went to her, and the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

Rut 4:14 The women said to Naomi: "Praise be to the LORD, who this day has not left you without a kinsman-redeemer. May he become famous throughout Israel!"

Rut 4:15 He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you and who is better to you than seven sons, has given him birth."

Rut 4:16 Then Naomi took the child, laid him in her lap and cared for him.

Rut 4:17 The women living there said, "Naomi has a son." And they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Rut 4:18 This, then, is the family line of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron,

Rut 4:19 Hezron the father of Ram, Ram the father of Amminadab,

Rut 4:20 Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,

Rut 4:21 Salmon the father of Boaz, Boaz the father of Obed,

Rut 4:22 Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of David.

1Sa 1:1 There was a certain man from Ramathaim, a Zuphite from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

1Sa 1:2 He had two wives; one was called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.

1Sa 1:3 Year after year this man went up from his town to worship and sacrifice to the LORD Almighty at Shiloh, where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests of the LORD.

1Sa 1:4 Whenever the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters.

1Sa 1:5 But to Hannah he gave a double portion because he loved her, and the LORD had closed her womb.

1Sa 1:6 And because the LORD had closed her womb, her rival kept provoking her in order to irritate her.

1Sa 1:7 This went on year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the LORD, her rival provoked her till she wept and would not eat.

1Sa 1:8 Elkanah her husband would say to her, "Hannah, why are you weeping? Why don't you eat? Why are you downhearted? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?"

1Sa 1:9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on a chair by the doorpost of the LORD's temple.

1Sa 1:10 In bitterness of soul Hannah wept much and prayed to the LORD.

1Sa 1:11 And she made a vow, saying, "O LORD Almighty, if you will only look upon your servant's misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the LORD for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head."

1Sa 1:12 As she kept on praying to the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.

1Sa 1:13 Hannah was praying in her heart, and her lips were moving but her voice was not heard. Eli thought she was drunk

1Sa 1:14 and said to her, "How long will you keep on getting drunk? Get rid of your wine."

1Sa 1:15 "Not so, my lord," Hannah replied, "I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I have not been drinking wine or beer; I was pouring out my soul to the LORD.

1Sa 1:16 Do not take your servant for a wicked woman; I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief."

1Sa 1:17 Eli answered, "Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of him."

1Sa 1:18 She said, "May your servant find favor in your eyes." Then she went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast.

1Sa 1:19 Early the next morning they arose and worshiped before the LORD and then went back to their home at Ramah. Elkanah lay with Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

1Sa 1:20 So in the course of time Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, saying, "Because I asked the LORD for him."

1Sa 1:21 When the man Elkanah went up with all his family to offer the annual sacrifice to the LORD and to fulfill his vow,

1Sa 1:22 Hannah did not go. She said to her husband, "After the boy is weaned, I will take him and present him before the LORD, and he will live there always."

1Sa 1:23 "Do what seems best to you," Elkanah her husband told her. "Stay here until you have weaned him; only may the LORD make good his word." So the woman stayed at home and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

1Sa 1:24 After he was weaned, she took the boy with her, young as he was, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh.

1Sa 1:25 When they had slaughtered the bull, they brought the boy to Eli, 1Sa 1:26 and she said to him, "As surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to the LORD.

1Sa 1:27 I prayed for this child, and the LORD has granted me what I asked of him.

1Sa 1:28 So now I give him to the LORD. For his whole life he will be given over to the LORD." And he worshiped the LORD there.

1Sa 2:1 Then Hannah prayed and said: "My heart rejoices in the LORD; in the LORD my horn is lifted high. My mouth boasts over my enemies, for I delight in your deliverance.

1Sa 2:2 "There is no one holy like the LORD; there is no one besides you; there is no Rock like our God.

1Sa 2:3 "Do not keep talking so proudly or let your mouth speak such arrogance, for the LORD is a God who knows, and by him deeds are weighed.

1Sa 2:4 "The bows of the warriors are broken, but those who stumbled are armed with strength.

1Sa 2:5 Those who were full hire themselves out for food, but those who were hungry hunger no more. She who was barren has borne seven children, but she who has had many sons pines away.

1Sa 2:6 "The LORD brings death and makes alive; he brings down to the grave and raises up.

1Sa 2:7 The LORD sends poverty and wealth; he humbles and he exalts.

1Sa 2:8 He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap; he seats them with princes and has them inherit a throne of honor. "For the foundations of the earth are the LORD's; upon them he has set the world.

1Sa 2:9 He will guard the feet of his saints, but the wicked will be silenced in darkness. "It is not by strength that one prevails;

1Sa 2:10 those who oppose the LORD will be shattered. He will thunder against them from heaven; the LORD will judge the ends of the earth. "He will give strength to his king and exalt the horn of his anointed."

1Sa 2:11 Then Elkanah went home to Ramah, but the boy ministered before the LORD under Eli the priest.

1Sa 2:12 Eli's sons were wicked men; they had no regard for the LORD.

1Sa 2:13 Now it was the practice of the priests with the people that whenever anyone offered a sacrifice and while the meat was being boiled, the servant of the priest would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand.

1Sa 2:14 He would plunge it into the pan or kettle or caldron or pot, and the priest would take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This is how they treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh.

1Sa 2:15 But even before the fat was burned, the servant of the priest would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give the priest some meat to roast; he won't accept boiled meat from you, but only raw."

1Sa 2:16 If the man said to him, "Let the fat be burned up first, and then take whatever you want," the servant would then answer, "No, hand it over now; if you don't, I'll take it by force.."

1Sa 2:17 This sin of the young men was very great in the LORD's sight, for they were treating the LORD's offering with contempt.

1Sa 2:18 But Samuel was ministering before the LORD-- a boy wearing a linen ephod.

1Sa 2:19 Each year his mother made him a little robe and took it to him when she went up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice.

1Sa 2:20 Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, "May the LORD give you children by this woman to take the place of the one she prayed for and gave to the LORD." Then they would go home.

1Sa 2:21 And the LORD was gracious to Hannah; she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

1Sa 2:22 Now Eli, who was very old, heard about everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they slept with the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

1Sa 2:23 So he said to them, "Why do you do such things? I hear from all the people about these wicked deeds of yours.

1Sa 2:24 No, my sons; it is not a good report that I hear spreading among the LORD's people.

1Sa 2:25 If a man sins against another man, God may mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" His sons, however, did not listen to their father's rebuke, for it was the LORD's will to put them to death.

1Sa 2:26 And the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favor with the LORD and with men.

1Sa 2:27 Now a man of God came to Eli and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Did I not clearly reveal myself to your father's house when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh?

1Sa 2:28 I chose your father out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod in my presence. I also gave your father's house all the offerings made with fire by the Israelites.

1Sa 2:29 Why do you scorn my sacrifice and offering that I prescribed for my dwelling? Why do you honor your sons more than me by fattening yourselves on the choice parts of every offering made by my people Israel?"

1Sa 2:30 "Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, declares: 'I promised that your house and your father's house would minister before me forever.' But now the LORD declares: 'Far be it from me! Those who honor me I will honor, but those who despise me will be disdained.'

1Sa 2:31 The time is coming when I will cut short your strength and the strength of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your family line

1Sa 2:32 and you will see distress in my dwelling. Although good will be done to Israel, in your family line there will never be an old man.

1Sa 2:33 Every one of you that I do not cut off from my altar will be spared only to blind your eyes with tears and to grieve your heart, and all your descendants will die in the prime of life.

1Sa 2:34 "And what happens to your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will be a sign to you-- they will both die on the same day.

1Sa 2:35 I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who will do according to what is in my heart and mind. I will firmly establish his house, and he will minister before my anointed one always.

1Sa 2:36 Then everyone left in your family line will come and bow down before him for a piece of silver and a crust of bread and plead, "Appoint me to some priestly office so I can have food to eat.""

1Sa 3:1 The boy Samuel ministered before the LORD under Eli. In those days the word of the LORD was rare; there were not many visions.

1Sa 3:2 One night Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his usual place.

1Sa 3:3 The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was.

1Sa 3:4 Then the LORD called Samuel. Samuel answered, "Here I am."

1Sa 3:5 And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." But Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." So he went and lay down.

1Sa 3:6 Again the LORD called, "Samuel!" And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." "My son," Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down."

1Sa 3:7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD: The word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

1Sa 3:8 The LORD called Samuel a third time, and Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." Then Eli realized that the LORD was calling the boy.

1Sa 3:9 So Eli told Samuel, "Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

1Sa 3:10 The LORD came and stood there, calling as at the other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

1Sa 3:11 And the LORD said to Samuel: "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle.

1Sa 3:12 At that time I will carry out against Eli everything I spoke against his family-- from beginning to end.

1Sa 3:13 For I told him that I would judge his family forever because of the sin he knew about; his sons made themselves contemptible, and he failed to restrain them.

1Sa 3:14 Therefore, I swore to the house of Eli, 'The guilt of Eli's house will never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering."

1Sa 3:15 Samuel lay down until morning and then opened the doors of the house of the LORD. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision,

1Sa 3:16 but Eli called him and said, "Samuel, my son." Samuel answered, "Here I am."

1Sa 3:17 "What was it he said to you?" Eli asked. "Do not hide it from me. May God deal with you, be it ever so severely, if you hide from me anything he told you."

1Sa 3:18 So Samuel told him everything, hiding nothing from him. Then Eli said, "He is the LORD; let him do what is good in his eyes."

1Sa 3:19 The LORD was with Samuel as he grew up, and he let none of his words fall to the ground.

1Sa 3:20 And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba recognized that Samuel was attested as a prophet of the LORD.

1Sa 3:21 The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, and there he revealed himself to Samuel through his word.

1Sa 4:1 And Samuel's word came to all Israel. Now the Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. The Israelites camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines at Aphek.

1Sa 4:2 The Philistines deployed their forces to meet Israel, and as the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand of them on the battlefield.

1Sa 4:3 When the soldiers returned to camp, the elders of Israel asked, "Why did the LORD bring defeat upon us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the LORD's covenant from Shiloh, so that it may go with us and save us from the hand of our enemies."

1Sa 4:4 So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they brought back the ark of the covenant of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned between the cherubim. And Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

1Sa 4:5 When the ark of the LORD's covenant came into the camp, all Israel raised such a great shout that the ground shook.

1Sa 4:6 Hearing the uproar, the Philistines asked, "What's all this shouting in the Hebrew camp?" When they learned that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp, 1Sa 4:7 the Philistines were afraid. "A god has come into the camp," they said. "We're in trouble! Nothing like this has happened before.

1Sa 4:8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? They are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the desert.

1Sa 4:9 Be strong, Philistines! Be men, or you will be subject to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Be men, and fight!"

1Sa 4:10 So the Philistines fought, and the Israelites were defeated and every man fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great; Israel lost thirty thousand foot soldiers.

1Sa 4:11 The ark of God was captured, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

1Sa 4:12 That same day a Benjamite ran from the battle line and went to Shiloh, his clothes torn and dust on his head.

1Sa 4:13 When he arrived, there was Eli sitting on his chair by the side of the road, watching, because his heart feared for the ark of God. When the man entered the town and told what had happened, the whole town sent up a cry.

1Sa 4:14 Eli heard the outcry and asked, "What is the meaning of this uproar?" The man hurried over to Eli, 1Sa 4:15 who was ninety-eight years old and whose eyes were set so that he could not see.

1Sa 4:16 He told Eli, "I have just come from the battle line; I fled from it this very day." Eli asked, "What happened, my son?"

1Sa 4:17 The man who brought the news replied, "Israel fled before the Philistines, and the army has suffered heavy losses. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured."

1Sa 4:18 When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backward off his chair by the side of the gate. His neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man and heavy. He had led Israel forty years.

1Sa 4:19 His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and near the time of delivery. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went into labor and gave birth, but was overcome by her labor pains.

1Sa 4:20 As she was dying, the women attending her said, "Don't despair; you have given birth to a son." But she did not respond or pay any attention.

1Sa 4:21 She named the boy Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel"-- because of the capture of the ark of God and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband.

1Sa 4:22 She said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured."

1Sa 5:1 After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

1Sa 5:2 Then they carried the ark into Dagon's temple and set it beside Dagon.

1Sa 5:3 When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! They took Dagon and put him back in his place.

1Sa 5:4 But the following morning when they rose, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! His head and hands had been broken off and were lying on the threshold; only his body remained.

1Sa 5:5 That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor any others who enter Dagon's temple at Ashdod step on the threshold.

1Sa 5:6 The LORD's hand was heavy upon the people of Ashdod and its vicinity; he brought devastation upon them and afflicted them with tumors.

1Sa 5:7 When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of the god of Israel must not stay here with us, because his hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god."

1Sa 5:8 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines and asked them, "What shall we do with the ark of the god of Israel?" They answered, "Have the ark of the god of Israel moved to Gath." So they moved the ark of the God of Israel.

1Sa 5:9 But after they had moved it, the LORD's hand was against that city, throwing it into a great panic. He afflicted the people of the city, both young and old, with an outbreak of tumors.

1Sa 5:10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. As the ark of God was entering Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "They have brought the ark of the god of Israel around to us to kill us and our people."

1Sa 5:11 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines and said, "Send the ark of the god of Israel away; let it go back to its own place, or it will kill us and our people." For death had filled the city with panic; God's hand was very heavy upon it.

1Sa 5:12 Those who did not die were afflicted with tumors, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

1Sa 6:1 When the ark of the LORD had been in Philistine territory seven months,

1Sa 6:2 the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it back to its place."

1Sa 6:3 They answered, "If you return the ark of the god of Israel, do not send it away empty, but by all means send a guilt offering to him. Then you will be healed, and you will know why his hand has not been lifted from you."

1Sa 6:4 The Philistines asked, "What guilt offering should we send to him?" They replied, "Five gold tumors and five gold rats, according to the number of the Philistine rulers, because the same plague has struck both you and your rulers.

1Sa 6:5 Make models of the tumors and of the rats that are destroying the country, and pay honor to Israel's god. Perhaps he will lift his hand from you and your gods and your land.

1Sa 6:6 Why do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh did? When he treated them harshly, did they not send the Israelites out so they could go on their way?

1Sa 6:7 "Now then, get a new cart ready, with two cows that have calved and have never been yoked. Hitch the cows to the cart, but take their calves away and pen them up.

1Sa 6:8 Take the ark of the LORD and put it on the cart, and in a chest beside it put the gold objects you are sending back to him as a guilt offering. Send it on its way,

1Sa 6:9 but keep watching it. If it goes up to its own territory, toward Beth Shemesh, then the LORD has brought this great disaster on us. But if it does not, then we will know that it was not his hand that struck us and that it happened to us by chance."

1Sa 6:10 So they did this. They took two such cows and hitched them to the cart and penned up their calves.

1Sa 6:11 They placed the ark of the LORD on the cart and along with it the chest containing the gold rats and the models of the tumors.

1Sa 6:12 Then the cows went straight up toward Beth Shemesh, keeping on the road and lowing all the way; they did not turn to the right or to the left. The rulers of the Philistines followed them as far as the border of Beth Shemesh.

1Sa 6:13 Now the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they rejoiced at the sight.

1Sa 6:14 The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and there it stopped beside a large rock. The people chopped up the wood of the cart and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

1Sa 6:15 The Levites took down the ark of the LORD, together with the chest containing the gold objects, and placed them on the large rock. On that day the people of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD.

1Sa 6:16 The five rulers of the Philistines saw all this and then returned that same day to Ekron.

1Sa 6:17 These are the gold tumors the Philistines sent as a guilt offering to the LORD-- one each for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron.

1Sa 6:18 And the number of the gold rats was according to the number of Philistine towns belonging to the five rulers-- the fortified towns with their country villages. The large rock, on which they set the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

1Sa 6:19 But God struck down some of the men of Beth Shemesh, putting seventy of them to death because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. The people mourned because of the heavy blow the LORD had dealt them,

1Sa 6:20 and the men of Beth Shemesh asked, "Who can stand in the presence of the LORD, this holy God? To whom will the ark go up from here?"

1Sa 6:21 Then they sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to your place."

1Sa 7:1 So the men of Kiriath Jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD. They took it to Abinadab's house on the hill and consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the ark of the LORD.

1Sa 7:2 It was a long time, twenty years in all, that the ark remained at Kiriath Jearim, and all the people of Israel mourned and sought after the LORD.

1Sa 7:3 And Samuel said to the whole house of Israel, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your hearts, then rid yourselves of the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths and commit yourselves to the LORD and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines."

1Sa 7:4 So the Israelites put away their Baals and Ashtoreths, and served the LORD only.

1Sa 7:5 Then Samuel said, "Assemble all Israel at Mizpah and I will intercede with the LORD for you."

1Sa 7:6 When they had assembled at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before the LORD. On that day they fasted and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel was leader of Israel at Mizpah.

1Sa 7:7 When the Philistines heard that Israel had assembled at Mizpah, the rulers of the Philistines came up to attack them. And when the Israelites heard of it, they were afraid because of the Philistines.

1Sa 7:8 They said to Samuel, "Do not stop crying out to the LORD our God for us, that he may rescue us from the hand of the Philistines."

1Sa 7:9 Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it up as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD on Israel's behalf, and the LORD answered him.

1Sa 7:10 While Samuel was sacrificing the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to engage Israel in battle. But that day the LORD thundered with loud thunder against the Philistines and threw them into such a panic that they were routed before the Israelites.

1Sa 7:11 The men of Israel rushed out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, slaughtering them along the way to a point below Beth Car.

1Sa 7:12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, saying, "Thus far has the LORD helped us."

1Sa 7:13 So the Philistines were subdued and did not invade Israelite territory again. Throughout Samuel's lifetime, the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines.

1Sa 7:14 The towns from Ekron to Gath that the Philistines had captured from Israel were restored to her, and Israel delivered the neighboring territory from the power of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

1Sa 7:15 Samuel continued as judge over Israel all the days of his life.

1Sa 7:16 From year to year he went on a circuit from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah, judging Israel in all those places.

1Sa 7:17 But he always went back to Ramah, where his home was, and there he also judged Israel. And he built an altar there to the LORD.

1Sa 8:1 When Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as judges for Israel.

1Sa 8:2 The name of his firstborn was Joel and the name of his second was Abijah, and they served at Beersheba.

1Sa 8:3 But his sons did not walk in his ways. They turned aside after dishonest gain and accepted bribes and perverted justice.

1Sa 8:4 So all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.

1Sa 8:5 They said to him, "You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways; now appoint a king to lead us, such as all the other nations have."

1Sa 8:6 But when they said, "Give us a king to lead us," this displeased Samuel; so he prayed to the LORD.

1Sa 8:7 And the LORD told him: "Listen to all that the people are saying to you; it is not you they have rejected, but they have rejected me as their king.

1Sa 8:8 As they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so they are doing to you.

1Sa 8:9 Now listen to them; but warn them solemnly and let them know what the king who will reign over them will do."

1Sa 8:10 Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king.

1Sa 8:11 He said, "This is what the king who will reign over you will do: He will take your sons and make them serve with his chariots and horses, and they will run in front of his chariots.

1Sa 8:12 Some he will assign to be commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and others to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and still others to make weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

1Sa 8:13 He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.

1Sa 8:14 He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive groves and give them to his attendants.

1Sa 8:15 He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vintage and give it to his officials and attendants.

1Sa 8:16 Your menservants and maidservants and the best of your cattle and donkeys he will take for his own use.

1Sa 8:17 He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his slaves.

1Sa 8:18 When that day comes, you will cry out for relief from the king you have chosen, and the LORD will not answer you in that day."

1Sa 8:19 But the people refused to listen to Samuel. "No!" they said. "We want a king over us."

1Sa 8:20 Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles."

1Sa 8:21 When Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated it before the LORD.

1Sa 8:22 The LORD answered, "Listen to them and give them a king." Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Everyone go back to his town."

1Sa 9:1 There was a Benjamite, a man of standing, whose name was Kish son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah of Benjamin.

1Sa 9:2 He had a son named Saul, an impressive young man without equal among the Israelites-- a head taller than any of the others.

1Sa 9:3 Now the donkeys belonging to Saul's father Kish were lost, and Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the servants with you and go and look for the donkeys."

1Sa 9:4 So he passed through the hill country of Ephraim and through the area around Shalisha, but they did not find them. They went on into the district of Shaalim, but the donkeys were not there. Then he passed through the territory of Benjamin, but they did not find them.

1Sa 9:5 When they reached the district of Zuph, Saul said to the servant who was with him, "Come, let's go back, or my father will stop thinking about the donkeys and start worrying about us."

1Sa 9:6 But the servant replied, "Look, in this town there is a man of God; he is highly respected, and everything he says comes true. Let's go there now. Perhaps he will tell us what way to take."

1Sa 9:7 Saul said to his servant, "If we go, what can we give the man? The food in our sacks is gone. We have no gift to take to the man of God. What do we have?"

1Sa 9:8 The servant answered him again. "Look," he said, "I have a quarter of a shekel of silver. I will give it to the man of God so that he will tell us what way to take."

1Sa 9:9 (Formerly in Israel, if a man went to inquire of God, he would say, "Come, let us go to the seer," because the prophet of today used to be called a seer.)

1Sa 9:10 "Good," Saul said to his servant. "Come, let's go." So they set out for the town where the man of God was.

1Sa 9:11 As they were going up the hill to the town, they met some girls coming out to draw water, and they asked them, "Is the seer here?"

1Sa 9:12 "He is," they answered. "He's ahead of you. Hurry now; he has just come to our town today, for the people have a sacrifice at the high place.

1Sa 9:13 As soon as you enter the town, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not begin eating until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward, those who are invited will eat. Go up now; you should find him about this time."

1Sa 9:14 They went up to the town, and as they were entering it, there was Samuel, coming toward them on his way up to the high place.

1Sa 9:15 Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed this to Samuel:

1Sa 9:16 "About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him leader over my people Israel; he will deliver my people from the hand of the Philistines. I have looked upon my people, for their cry has reached me."

1Sa 9:17 When Samuel caught sight of Saul, the LORD said to him, "This is the man I spoke to you about; he will govern my people."

1Sa 9:18 Saul approached Samuel in the gateway and asked, "Would you please tell me where the seer's house is?"

1Sa 9:19 "I am the seer," Samuel replied. "Go up ahead of me to the high place, for today you are to eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart."

1Sa 9:20 As for the donkeys you lost three days ago, do not worry about them; they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel turned, if not to you and all your father's family?"

1Sa 9:21 Saul answered, "But am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest tribe of Israel, and is not my clan the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Why do you say such a thing to me?"

1Sa 9:22 Then Samuel brought Saul and his servant into the hall and seated them at the head of those who were invited-- about thirty in number.

1Sa 9:23 Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the piece of meat I gave you, the one I told you to lay aside."

1Sa 9:24 So the cook took up the leg with what was on it and set it in front of Saul. Samuel said, "Here is what has been kept for you. Eat, because it was set aside for you for this occasion, from the time I said, 'I have invited guests.'" And Saul dined with Samuel that day.

1Sa 9:25 After they came down from the high place to the town, Samuel talked with Saul on the roof of his house.

1Sa 9:26 They rose about daybreak and Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Get ready, and I will send you on your way." When Saul got ready, he and Samuel went outside together.

1Sa 9:27 As they were going down to the edge of the town, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us"-- and the servant did so-- "but you stay here awhile, so that I may give you a message from God."

1Sa 10:1 Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on Saul's head and kissed him, saying, "Has not the LORD anointed you leader over his inheritance?

1Sa 10:2 When you leave me today, you will meet two men near Rachel's tomb, at Zelzah on the border of Benjamin. They will say to you, 'The donkeys you set out to look for have been found. And now your father has stopped thinking about them and is worried about you. He is asking, "What shall I do about my son?"'

1Sa 10:3 "Then you will go on from there until you reach the great tree of Tabor. Three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there. One will be carrying three young goats, another three loaves of bread, and another a skin of wine.

1Sa 10:4 They will greet you and offer you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from them.

1Sa 10:5 "After that you will go to Gibeah of God, where there is a Philistine outpost. As you approach the town, you will meet a procession of prophets coming down from the high place with lyres, tambourines, flutes and harps being played before them, and they will be prophesying.

1Sa 10:6 The Spirit of the LORD will come upon you in power, and you will prophesy with them; and you will be changed into a different person.

1Sa 10:7 Once these signs are fulfilled, do whatever your hand finds to do, for God is with you.

1Sa 10:8 "Go down ahead of me to Gilgal. I will surely come down to you to sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, but you must wait seven days until I come to you and tell you what you are to do."

1Sa 10:9 As Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed Saul's heart, and all these signs were fulfilled that day.

1Sa 10:10 When they arrived at Gibeah, a procession of prophets met him; the Spirit of God came upon him in power, and he joined in their prophesying.

1Sa 10:11 When all those who had formerly known him saw him prophesying with the prophets, they asked each other, "What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1Sa 10:12 A man who lived there answered, "And who is their father?" So it became a saying: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1Sa 10:13 After Saul stopped prophesying, he went to the high place.

1Sa 10:14 Now Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where have you been?" "Looking for the donkeys," he said. "But when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel."

1Sa 10:15 Saul's uncle said, "Tell me what Samuel said to you."

1Sa 10:16 Saul replied, "He assured us that the donkeys had been found." But he did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said about the kingship.

1Sa 10:17 Samuel summoned the people of Israel to the LORD at Mizpah

1Sa 10:18 and said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I brought Israel up out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the power of Egypt and all the kingdoms that oppressed you.'

1Sa 10:19 But you have now rejected your God, who saves you out of all your calamities and distresses. And you have said, 'No, set a king over us.' So now present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and clans."

1Sa 10:20 When Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen.

1Sa 10:21 Then he brought forward the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, and Matri's clan was chosen. Finally Saul son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for him, he was not to be found.

1Sa 10:22 So they inquired further of the LORD, "Has the man come here yet?" And the LORD said, "Yes, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

1Sa 10:23 They ran and brought him out, and as he stood among the people he was a head taller than any of the others.

1Sa 10:24 Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the man the LORD has chosen? There is no one like him among all the people." Then the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

1Sa 10:25 Samuel explained to the people the regulations of the kingship. He wrote them down on a scroll and deposited it before the LORD. Then Samuel dismissed the people, each to his own home.

1Sa 10:26 Saul also went to his home in Gibeah, accompanied by valiant men whose hearts God had touched.

1Sa 10:27 But some troublemakers said, "How can this fellow save us?" They despised him and brought him no gifts. But Saul kept silent.

1Sa 11:1 Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to him, "Make a treaty with us, and we will be subject to you."

1Sa 11:2 But Nahash the Ammonite replied, "I will make a treaty with you only on the condition that I gouge out the right eye of every one of you and so bring disgrace on all Israel."

1Sa 11:3 The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days so we can send messengers throughout Israel; if no one comes to rescue us, we will surrender to you."

1Sa 11:4 When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and reported these terms to the people, they all wept aloud.

1Sa 11:5 Just then Saul was returning from the fields, behind his oxen, and he asked, "What is wrong with the people? Why are they weeping?" Then they repeated to him what the men of Jabesh had said.

1Sa 11:6 When Saul heard their words, the Spirit of God came upon him in power, and he burned with anger.

1Sa 11:7 He took a pair of oxen, cut them into pieces, and sent the pieces by messengers throughout Israel, proclaiming, "This is what will be done to the oxen of anyone who does not follow Saul and Samuel." Then the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they turned out as one man.

1Sa 11:8 When Saul mustered them at Bezek, the men of Israel numbered three hundred thousand and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

1Sa 11:9 They told the messengers who had come, "Say to the men of Jabesh Gilead, 'By the time the sun is hot tomorrow, you will be delivered.'" When the messengers went and reported this to the men of Jabesh, they were elated.

1Sa 11:10 They said to the Ammonites, "Tomorrow we will surrender to you, and you can do to us whatever seems good to you."

1Sa 11:11 The next day Saul separated his men into three divisions; during the last watch of the night they broke into the camp of the Ammonites and slaughtered them until the heat of the day. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

1Sa 11:12 The people then said to Samuel, "Who was it that asked, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring these men to us and we will put them to death."

1Sa 11:13 But Saul said, "No one shall be put to death today, for this day the LORD has rescued Israel."

1Sa 11:14 Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and there reaffirm the kingship."

1Sa 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal and confirmed Saul as king in the presence of the LORD. There they sacrificed fellowship offerings before the LORD, and Saul and all the Israelites held a great celebration.

1Sa 12:1 Samuel said to all Israel, "I have listened to everything you said to me and have set a king over you.

1Sa 12:2 Now you have a king as your leader. As for me, I am old and gray, and my sons are here with you. I have been your leader from my youth until this day.

1Sa 12:3 Here I stand. Testify against me in the presence of the LORD and his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I accepted a bribe to make me shut my eyes? If I have done any of these, I will make it right."

1Sa 12:4 "You have not cheated or oppressed us," they replied. "You have not taken anything from anyone's hand."

1Sa 12:5 Samuel said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and also his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." "He is witness," they said.

1Sa 12:6 Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your forefathers up out of Egypt.

1Sa 12:7 Now then, stand here, because I am going to confront you with evidence before the LORD as to all the righteous acts performed by the LORD for you and your fathers.

1Sa 12:8 "After Jacob entered Egypt, they cried to the LORD for help, and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your forefathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

1Sa 12:9 "But they forgot the LORD their God; so he sold them into the hand of Sisera, the commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hands of the Philistines and the king of Moab, who fought against them.

1Sa 12:10 They cried out to the LORD and said, 'We have sinned; we have forsaken the LORD and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths. But now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve you.'

1Sa 12:11 Then the LORD sent Jerub-Baal, Barak, Jephthah and Samuel, and he delivered you from the hands of your enemies on every side, so that you lived securely.

1Sa 12:12 "But when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites was moving against you, you said to me, 'No, we want a king to rule over us'-- even though the LORD your God was your king.

1Sa 12:13 Now here is the king you have chosen, the one you asked for; see, the LORD has set a king over you.

1Sa 12:14 If you fear the LORD and serve and obey him and do not rebel against his commands, and if both you and the king who reigns over you follow the LORD your God-- good!

1Sa 12:15 But if you do not obey the LORD, and if you rebel against his commands, his hand will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

1Sa 12:16 "Now then, stand still and see this great thing the LORD is about to do before your eyes!

1Sa 12:17 Is it not wheat harvest now? I will call upon the LORD to send thunder and rain. And you will realize what an evil thing you did in the eyes of the LORD when you asked for a king."

1Sa 12:18 Then Samuel called upon the LORD, and that same day the LORD sent thunder and rain. So all the people stood in awe of the LORD and of Samuel.

1Sa 12:19 The people all said to Samuel, "Pray to the LORD your God for your servants so that we will not die, for we have added to all our other sins the evil of asking for a king."

1Sa 12:20 "Do not be afraid," Samuel replied. "You have done all this evil; yet do not turn away from the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

1Sa 12:21 Do not turn away after useless idols. They can do you no good, nor can they rescue you, because they are useless.

1Sa 12:22 For the sake of his great name the LORD will not reject his people, because the LORD was pleased to make you his own.

1Sa 12:23 As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by failing to pray for you. And I will teach you the way that is good and right.

1Sa 12:24 But be sure to fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart; consider what great things he has done for you.

1Sa 12:25 Yet if you persist in doing evil, both you and your king will be swept away."

1Sa 13:1 Saul was [thirty] years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel [forty]-two years.

1Sa 13:2 Saul chose three thousand men from Israel; two thousand were with him at Micmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. The rest of the men he sent back to their homes.

1Sa 13:3 Jonathan attacked the Philistine outpost at Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul had the trumpet blown throughout the land and said, "Let the Hebrews hear!"

1Sa 13:4 So all Israel heard the news: "Saul has attacked the Philistine outpost, and now Israel has become a stench to the Philistines." And the people were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

1Sa 13:5 The Philistines assembled to fight Israel, with three thousand chariots, six thousand charioteers, and soldiers as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Micmash, east of Beth Aven.

1Sa 13:6 When the men of Israel saw that their situation was critical and that their army was hard pressed, they hid in caves and thickets, among the rocks, and in pits and cisterns.

1Sa 13:7 Some Hebrews even crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul remained at Gilgal, and all the troops with him were quaking with fear.

1Sa 13:8 He waited seven days, the time set by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and Saul's men began to scatter.

1Sa 13:9 So he said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings." And Saul offered up the burnt offering.

1Sa 13:10 Just as he finished making the offering, Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to greet him.

1Sa 13:11 "What have you done?" asked Samuel. Saul replied, "When I saw that the men were scattering, and that you did not come at the set time, and that the Philistines were assembling at Micmash, 1Sa 13:12 I thought, 'Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not sought the LORD's favor.' So I felt compelled to offer the burnt offering."

1Sa 13:13 "You acted foolishly," Samuel said. "You have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you; if you had, he would have established your kingdom over Israel for all time.

1Sa 13:14 But now your kingdom will not endure; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart and appointed him leader of his people, because you have not kept the LORD's command."

1Sa 13:15 Then Samuel left Gilgal and went up to Gibeah in Benjamin, and Saul counted the men who were with him. They numbered about six hundred.

1Sa 13:16 Saul and his son Jonathan and the men with them were staying in Gibeah in Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Micmash.

1Sa 13:17 Raiding parties went out from the Philistine camp in three detachments. One turned toward Ophrah in the vicinity of Shual, 1Sa 13:18 another toward Beth Horon, and the third toward the borderland overlooking the Valley of Zeboim facing the desert.

1Sa 13:19 Not a blacksmith could be found in the whole land of Israel, because the Philistines had said,

"Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears!"

1Sa 13:20 So all Israel went down to the Philistines to have their plowshares, mattocks, axes and sickles sharpened.

1Sa 13:21 The price was two thirds of a shekel for sharpening plowshares and mattocks, and a third of a shekel for sharpening forks and axes and for repointing goads.

1Sa 13:22 So on the day of the battle not a soldier with Saul and Jonathan had a sword or spear in his hand; only Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

1Sa 13:23 Now a detachment of Philistines had gone out to the pass at Micmash.

1Sa 14:1 One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man bearing his armor, "Come, let's go over to the Philistine outpost on the other side." But he did not tell his father.

1Sa 14:2 Saul was staying on the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree in Migron. With him were about six hundred men, 1Sa 14:3 among whom was Ahijah, who was wearing an ephod. He was a son of Ichabod's brother Ahitub son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh. No one was aware that Jonathan had left.

1Sa 14:4 On each side of the pass that Jonathan intended to cross to reach the Philistine outpost was a cliff; one was called Bozez, and the other Seneh.

1Sa 14:5 One cliff stood to the north toward Micmash, the other to the south toward Geba.

1Sa 14:6 Jonathan said to his young armor-bearer, "Come, let's go over to the outpost of those uncircumcised fellows. Perhaps the LORD will act in our behalf. Nothing can hinder the LORD from saving, whether by many or by few."

1Sa 14:7 "Do all that you have in mind," his armor-bearer said. "Go ahead; I am with you heart and soul."

1Sa 14:8 Jonathan said, "Come, then; we will cross over toward the men and let them see us.

1Sa 14:9 If they say to us, 'Wait there until we come to you,' we will stay where we are and not go up to them.

1Sa 14:10 But if they say, 'Come up to us,' we will climb up, because that will be our sign that the LORD has given them into our hands."

1Sa 14:11 So both of them showed themselves to the Philistine outpost. "Look!" said the Philistines. "The Hebrews are crawling out of the holes they were hiding in."

1Sa 14:12 The men of the outpost shouted to Jonathan and his armor-bearer, "Come up to us and we'll teach you a lesson." So Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Climb up after me; the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel."

1Sa 14:13 Jonathan climbed up, using his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer right behind him. The Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer followed and killed behind him.

1Sa 14:14 In that first attack Jonathan and his armor-bearer killed some twenty men in an area of about half an acre.

1Sa 14:15 Then panic struck the whole army-- those in the camp and field, and those in the outposts and raiding parties-- and the ground shook. It was a panic sent by God.

1Sa 14:16 Saul's lookouts at Gibeah in Benjamin saw the army melting away in all directions.

1Sa 14:17 Then Saul said to the men who were with him, "Muster the forces and see who has left us." When they did, it was Jonathan and his armor-bearer who were not there.

1Sa 14:18 Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God." (At that time it was with the Israelites.)

1Sa 14:19 While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the Philistine camp increased more and more. So Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

1Sa 14:20 Then Saul and all his men assembled and went to the battle. They found the Philistines in total confusion, striking each other with their swords.

1Sa 14:21 Those Hebrews who had previously been with the Philistines and had gone up with them to their camp went over to the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

1Sa 14:22 When all the Israelites who had hidden in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were on the run, they joined the battle in hot pursuit.

1Sa 14:23 So the LORD rescued Israel that day, and the battle moved on beyond Beth Aven.

1Sa 14:24 Now the men of Israel were in distress that day, because Saul had bound the people under an oath, saying, "Cursed be any man who eats food before evening comes, before I have avenged myself on my enemies!" So none of the troops tasted food.

1Sa 14:25 The entire army entered the woods, and there was honey on the ground.

1Sa 14:26 When they went into the woods, they saw the honey oozing out, yet no one put his hand to his mouth, because they feared the oath.

1Sa 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard that his father had bound the people with the oath, so he reached out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb. He raised his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.

1Sa 14:28 Then one of the soldiers told him, "Your father bound the army under a strict oath, saying, 'Cursed be any man who eats food today! That is why the men are faint."

1Sa 14:29 Jonathan said, "My father has made trouble for the country. See how my eyes brightened when I tasted a little of this honey.

1Sa 14:30 How much better it would have been if the men had eaten today some of the plunder they took from their enemies. Would not the slaughter of the Philistines have been even greater?"

1Sa 14:32 They pounced on the plunder and, taking sheep, cattle and calves, they butchered them on the ground and ate them, together with the blood.

1Sa 14:33 Then someone said to Saul, "Look, the men are sinning against the LORD by eating meat that has blood in it." "You have broken faith," he said. "Roll a large stone over here at once."

1Sa 14:34 Then he said, "Go out among the men and tell them, 'Each of you bring me your cattle and sheep, and slaughter them here and eat them. Do not sin against the LORD by eating meat with blood still in it.'" So everyone brought his ox that night and slaughtered it there.

1Sa 14:35 Then Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first time he had done this.

1Sa 14:36 Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them till dawn, and let us not leave one of them alive." "Do whatever seems best to you," they replied. But the priest said, "Let us inquire of God here."

1Sa 14:37 So Saul asked God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into Israel's hand?" But God did not answer him that day.

1Sa 14:38 Saul therefore said, "Come here, all you who are leaders of the army, and let us find out what sin has been committed today.

1Sa 14:39 As surely as the LORD who rescues Israel lives, even if it lies with my son Jonathan, he must die." But not one of the men said a word.

1Sa 14:40 Saul then said to all the Israelites, "You stand over there; I and Jonathan my son will stand over here." "Do what seems best to you," the men replied.

1Sa 14:41 Then Saul prayed to the LORD, the God of Israel, "Give me the right answer." And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, and the men were cleared.

1Sa 14:42 Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.

1Sa 14:43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." So Jonathan told him, "I merely tasted a little honey with the end of my staff. And now must I die?"

1Sa 14:44 Saul said, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if you do not die, Jonathan."

1Sa 14:45 But the men said to Saul, "Should Jonathan die-- he who has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Never! As surely as the LORD lives, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground, for he did this today with God's help." So the men rescued Jonathan, and he was not put to death.

1Sa 14:46 Then Saul stopped pursuing the Philistines, and they withdrew to their own land.

1Sa 14:47 After Saul had assumed rule over Israel, he fought against their enemies on every side: Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment on them.

1Sa 14:48 He fought valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, delivering Israel from the hands of those who had plundered them.

1Sa 14:49 Saul's sons were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malki-Shua. The name of his older daughter was Merab, and that of the younger was Michal.

1Sa 14:50 His wife's name was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of Saul's army was Abner son of Ner, and Ner was Saul's uncle.

1Sa 14:51 Saul's father Kish and Abner's father Ner were sons of Abiel.

1Sa 14:52 All the days of Saul there was bitter war with the Philistines, and whenever Saul saw a mighty or brave man, he took him into his service.

1Sa 15:1 Samuel said to Saul, "I am the one the LORD sent to anoint you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the LORD.

1Sa 15:2 This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt.'

1Sa 15:3 Now go, attack the Amalekites and totally destroy everything that belongs to them. Do not spare them; put to death men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys."

1Sa 15:4 So Saul summoned the men and mustered them at Telaim-- two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men from Judah.

1Sa 15:5 Saul went to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the ravine.

1Sa 15:6 Then he said to the Kenites, "Go away, leave the Amalekites so that I do not destroy you along with them; for you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

1Sa 15:7 Then Saul attacked the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, to the east of Egypt.

1Sa 15:8 He took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and all his people he totally destroyed with the sword.

1Sa 15:9 But Saul and the army spared Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves and lambs-- everything that was good. These they were unwilling to destroy completely, but everything that was despised and weak they totally destroyed.

1Sa 15:10 Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel:

1Sa 15:11 "I am grieved that I have made Saul king, because he has turned away from me and has not carried out my instructions." Samuel was troubled, and he cried out to the LORD all that night.

1Sa 15:12 Early in the morning Samuel got up and went to meet Saul, but he was told, "Saul has gone to Carmel. There he has set up a monument in his own honor and has turned and gone on down to Gilgal."

1Sa 15:13 When Samuel reached him, Saul said, "The LORD bless you! I have carried out the LORD's instructions."

1Sa 15:14 But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears? What is this lowing of cattle that I hear?"

1Sa 15:15 Saul answered, "The soldiers brought them from the Amalekites; they spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice to the LORD your God, but we totally destroyed the rest."

1Sa 15:16 "Stop!" Samuel said to Saul. "Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night." "Tell me," Saul replied.

1Sa 15:17 Samuel said, "Although you were once small in your own eyes, did you not become the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

1Sa 15:18 And he sent you on a mission, saying, 'Go and completely destroy those wicked people, the Amalekites; make war on them until you have wiped them out.'

1Sa 15:19 Why did you not obey the LORD? Why did you pounce on the plunder and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?"

1Sa 15:20 "But I did obey the LORD," Saul said. "I went on the mission the LORD assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king."

1Sa 15:21 The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal."

1Sa 15:22 But Samuel replied: "Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams.

1Sa 15:23 For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

1Sa 15:24 Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned. I violated the LORD's command and your instructions. I was afraid of the people and so I gave in to them."

1Sa 15:25 Now I beg you, forgive my sin and come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD."

1Sa 15:26 But Samuel said to him, "I will not go back with you. You have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you as king over Israel!"

1Sa 15:27 As Samuel turned to leave, Saul caught hold of the hem of his robe, and it tore.

1Sa 15:28 Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to one of your neighbors-- to one better than you.

1Sa 15:29 He who is the Glory of Israel does not lie or change his mind; for he is not a man, that he should change his mind."

1Sa 15:30 Saul replied, "I have sinned. But please honor me before the elders of my people and before Israel; come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God."

1Sa 15:31 So Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

1Sa 15:32 Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag king of the Amalekites." Agag came to him confidently, thinking, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

1Sa 15:33 But Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women." And Samuel put Agag to death before the LORD at Gilgal.

1Sa 15:34 Then Samuel left for Ramah, but Saul went up to his home in Gibeath of Saul.

1Sa 15:35 Until the day Samuel died, he did not go to see Saul again, though Samuel mourned for him. And the LORD was grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.

1Sa 16:1 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and be on your way; I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be king."

1Sa 16:2 But Samuel said, "How can I go? Saul will hear about it and kill me." The LORD said, "Take a heifer with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'

1Sa 16:3 Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what to do. You are to anoint for me the one I indicate."

1Sa 16:4 Samuel did what the LORD said. When he arrived at Bethlehem, the elders of the town trembled when they met him. They asked, "Do you come in peace?"

1Sa 16:5 Samuel replied, "Yes, in peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come to the sacrifice with me." Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

1Sa 16:6 When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab and thought, "Surely the LORD's anointed stands here before the LORD."

1Sa 16:7 But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart."

1Sa 16:8 Then Jesse called Abinadab and had him pass in front of Samuel. But Samuel said, "The LORD has not chosen this one either."

1Sa 16:9 Jesse then had Shammah pass by, but Samuel said, "Nor has the LORD chosen this one."

1Sa 16:10 Jesse had seven of his sons pass before Samuel, but Samuel said to him, "The LORD has not chosen these."

1Sa 16:11 So he asked Jesse, "Are these all the sons you have?" "There is still the youngest," Jesse answered, "but he is tending the sheep." Samuel said, "Send for him; we will not sit down until he arrives."

1Sa 16:12 So he sent and had him brought in. He was ruddy, with a fine appearance and handsome features. Then the LORD said, "Rise and anoint him; he is the one."

1Sa 16:13 So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and from that day on the Spirit of the LORD came upon David in power. Samuel then went to Ramah.

1Sa 16:14 Now the Spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

1Sa 16:15 Saul's attendants said to him, "See, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you.

1Sa 16:16 Let our lord command his servants here to search for someone who can play the harp. He will play when the evil spirit from God comes upon you, and you will feel better."

1Sa 16:17 So Saul said to his attendants, "Find someone who plays well and bring him to me."

1Sa 16:18 One of the servants answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who knows how to play the harp. He is a brave man and a warrior. He speaks well and is a fine-looking man. And the LORD is with him."

1Sa 16:19 Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep."

1Sa 16:20 So Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine and a young goat and sent them with his son David to Saul.

1Sa 16:21 David came to Saul and entered his service. Saul liked him very much, and David became one of his armor-bearers.

1Sa 16:22 Then Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, "Allow David to remain in my service, for I am pleased with him."

1Sa 16:23 Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

1Sa 17:1 Now the Philistines gathered their forces for war and assembled at Socoh in Judah. They pitched camp at Ephes Dammim, between Socoh and Azekah.

1Sa 17:2 Saul and the Israelites assembled and camped in the Valley of Elah and drew up their battle line to meet the Philistines.

1Sa 17:3 The Philistines occupied one hill and the Israelites another, with the valley between them.

1Sa 17:4 A champion named Goliath, who was from Gath, came out of the Philistine camp. He was over nine feet tall.

1Sa 17:5 He had a bronze helmet on his head and wore a coat of scale armor of bronze weighing five thousand shekels;

1Sa 17:6 on his legs he wore bronze greaves, and a bronze javelin was slung on his back.

1Sa 17:7 His spear shaft was like a weaver's rod, and its iron point weighed six hundred shekels. His shield bearer went ahead of him.

1Sa 17:8 Goliath stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why do you come out and line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not the servants of Saul? Choose a man and have him come down to me.

1Sa 17:9 If he is able to fight and kill me, we will become your subjects; but if I overcome him and kill him, you will become our subjects and serve us."

1Sa 17:10 Then the Philistine said, "This day I defy the ranks of Israel! Give me a man and let us fight each other."

1Sa 17:11 On hearing the Philistine's words, Saul and all the Israelites were dismayed and terrified.

1Sa 17:12 Now David was the son of an Ephrathite named Jesse, who was from Bethlehem in Judah. Jesse had eight sons, and in Saul's time he was old and well advanced in years.

1Sa 17:13 Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war: The firstborn was Eliab; the second,

Abinadab; and the third, Shammah.

1Sa 17:14 David was the youngest. The three oldest followed Saul,

1Sa 17:15 but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

1Sa 17:16 For forty days the Philistine came forward every morning and evening and took his stand.

1Sa 17:17 Now Jesse said to his son David, "Take this ephah of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread for your brothers and hurry to their camp.

1Sa 17:18 Take along these ten cheeses to the commander of their unit. See how your brothers are and bring back some assurance from them.

1Sa 17:19 They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines."

1Sa 17:20 Early in the morning David left the flock with a shepherd, loaded up and set out, as Jesse had directed. He reached the camp as the army was going out to its battle positions, shouting the war cry.

1Sa 17:21 Israel and the Philistines were drawing up their lines facing each other.

1Sa 17:22 David left his things with the keeper of supplies, ran to the battle lines and greeted his brothers.

1Sa 17:23 As he was talking with them, Goliath, the Philistine champion from Gath, stepped out from his lines and shouted his usual defiance, and David heard it.

1Sa 17:24 When the Israelites saw the man, they all ran from him in great fear.

1Sa 17:25 Now the Israelites had been saying, "Do you see how this man keeps coming out? He comes out to defy Israel. The king will give great wealth to the man who kills him. He will also give him his daughter in marriage and will exempt his father's family from taxes in Israel."

1Sa 17:26 David asked the men standing near him, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? Who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

1Sa 17:27 They repeated to him what they had been saying and told him, "This is what will be done for the man who kills him."

1Sa 17:28 When Eliab, David's oldest brother, heard him speaking with the men, he burned with anger at him and asked, "Why have you come down here? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle."

1Sa 17:29 "Now what have I done?" said David. "Can't I even speak?"

1Sa 17:30 He then turned away to someone else and brought up the same matter, and the men answered him as before.

1Sa 17:31 What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, and Saul sent for him.

1Sa 17:32 David said to Saul, "Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him."

1Sa 17:33 Saul replied, "You are not able to go out against this Philistine and fight him; you are only a boy, and he has been a fighting man from his youth."

1Sa 17:34 But David said to Saul, "Your servant has been keeping his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock, 1Sa 17:35 I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized it by its hair, struck it and killed it.

1Sa 17:36 Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God.

1Sa 17:37 The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you."

1Sa 17:38 Then Saul dressed David in his own tunic. He put a coat of armor on him and a bronze helmet on his head.

1Sa 17:39 David fastened on his sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them. "I cannot go in these," he said to Saul, "because I am not used to them." So he took them off.

1Sa 17:40 Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream, put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine.

1Sa 17:41 Meanwhile, the Philistine, with his shield bearer in front of him, kept coming closer to David.

1Sa 17:42 He looked David over and saw that he was only a boy, ruddy and handsome, and he despised him.

1Sa 17:43 He said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

1Sa 17:44 "Come here," he said, "and I'll give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!"

1Sa 17:45 David said to the Philistine, "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

1Sa 17:46 This day the LORD will hand you over to me, and I'll strike you down and cut off your head. Today I will give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel.

1Sa 17:47 All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword or spear that the LORD saves; for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give all of you into our hands."

1Sa 17:48 As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him.

1Sa 17:49 Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground.

1Sa 17:50 So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him.

1Sa 17:51 David ran and stood over him. He took hold of the Philistine's sword and drew it from the scabbard. After he killed him, he cut off his head with the sword. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran.

1Sa 17:52 Then the men of Israel and Judah surged forward with a shout and pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gath and to the gates of Ekron. Their dead were strewn along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

1Sa 17:53 When the Israelites returned from chasing the Philistines, they plundered their camp.

1Sa 17:54 David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, and he put the Philistine's weapons in his own tent.

1Sa 17:55 As Saul watched David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is that young man?" Abner replied, "As surely as you live, O king, I don't know."

1Sa 17:56 The king said, "Find out whose son this young man is."

1Sa 17:57 As soon as David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with David still holding the Philistine's head.

1Sa 17:58 "Whose son are you, young man?" Saul asked him. David said, "I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem."

1Sa 18:1 After David had finished talking with Saul, Jonathan became one in spirit with David, and he loved him as himself.

1Sa 18:2 From that day Saul kept David with him and did not let him return to his father's house.

1Sa 18:3 And Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself.

1Sa 18:4 Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his tunic, and even his sword, his bow and his belt.

1Sa 18:5 Whatever Saul sent him to do, David did it so successfully that Saul gave him a high rank in the army. This pleased all the people, and Saul's officers as well.

1Sa 18:6 When the men were returning home after David had killed the Philistine, the women came out from all the towns of Israel to meet King Saul with singing and dancing, with joyful songs and with tambourines and lutes.

1Sa 18:7 As they danced, they sang: "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands."

1Sa 18:8 Saul was very angry; this refrain galled him. "They have credited David with tens of thousands," he thought, "but me with only thousands. What more can he get but the kingdom?"

1Sa 18:9 And from that time on Saul kept a jealous eye on David.

1Sa 18:10 The next day an evil spirit from God came forcefully upon Saul. He was prophesying in his house, while David was playing the harp, as he usually did. Saul had a spear in his hand

1Sa 18:11 and he hurled it, saying to himself, "I'll pin David to the wall." But David eluded him twice.

1Sa 18:12 Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with David but had left Saul.

1Sa 18:13 So he sent David away from him and gave him command over a thousand men, and David led the troops in their campaigns.

1Sa 18:14 In everything he did he had great success, because the LORD was with him.

1Sa 18:15 When Saul saw how successful he was, he was afraid of him.

1Sa 18:16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he led them in their campaigns.

1Sa 18:17 Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab. I will give her to you in marriage; only serve me bravely and fight the battles of the LORD." For Saul said to himself, "I will not raise a hand against him. Let the Philistines do that!"

1Sa 18:18 But David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my family or my father's clan in Israel, that I should become the king's son-in-law?"

1Sa 18:19 So when the time came for Merab, Saul's daughter, to be given to David, she was given in marriage to Adriel of Meholah.

1Sa 18:20 Now Saul's daughter Michal was in love with David, and when they told Saul about it, he was pleased.

1Sa 18:21 "I will give her to him," he thought, "so that she may be a snare to him and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." So Saul said to David, "Now you have a second opportunity to become my son-in-law."

1Sa 18:22 Then Saul ordered his attendants: "Speak to David privately and say, 'Look, the king is pleased with you, and his attendants all like you; now become his son-in-law.'"

1Sa 18:23 They repeated these words to David. But David said, "Do you think it is a small matter to become the king's son-in-law? I'm only a poor man and little known."

1Sa 18:24 When Saul's servants told him what David had said,

1Sa 18:25 Saul replied, "Say to David, 'The king wants no other price for the bride than a hundred Philistine foreskins, to take revenge on his enemies.'" Saul's plan was to have David fall by the hands of the Philistines.

1Sa 18:26 When the attendants told David these things, he was pleased to become the king's son-in-law. So before the allotted time elapsed, 1Sa 18:27 David and his men went out and killed two hundred Philistines. He brought their foreskins and presented the full number to the king so that he might become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him his daughter Michal in marriage.

1Sa 18:28 When Saul realized that the LORD was with David and that his daughter Michal loved David, 1Sa 18:29 Saul became still more afraid of him, and he remained his enemy the rest of his days.

1Sa 18:30 The Philistine commanders continued to go out to battle, and as often as they did, David met with more success than the rest of Saul's officers, and his name became well known.

1Sa 19:1 Saul told his son Jonathan and all the attendants to kill David. But Jonathan was very fond of David 1Sa 19:2 and warned him, "My father Saul is looking for a chance to kill you. Be on your guard tomorrow morning; go into hiding and stay there.

1Sa 19:3 I will go out and stand with my father in the field where you are. I'll speak to him about you and will tell you what I find out."

1Sa 19:4 Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father and said to him, "Let not the king do wrong to his servant David; he has not wronged you, and what he has done has benefited you greatly.

1Sa 19:5 He took his life in his hands when he killed the Philistine. The LORD won a great victory for all Israel, and you saw it and were glad. Why then would you do wrong to an innocent man like David by killing him for no reason?"

1Sa 19:6 Saul listened to Jonathan and took this oath: "As surely as the LORD lives, David will not be put to death."

1Sa 19:7 So Jonathan called David and told him the whole conversation. He brought him to Saul, and David was with Saul as before.

1Sa 19:8 Once more war broke out, and David went out and fought the Philistines. He struck them with such force that they fled before him.

1Sa 19:9 But an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand. While David was playing the harp, 1Sa 19:10 Saul tried to pin him to the wall with his spear, but David eluded him as Saul drove the spear into the wall. That night David made good his escape.

1Sa 19:11 Saul sent men to David's house to watch it and to kill him in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, warned him, "If you don't run for your life tonight, tomorrow you'll be killed."

1Sa 19:12 So Michal let David down through a window, and he fled and escaped.

1Sa 19:13 Then Michal took an idol and laid it on the bed, covering it with a garment and putting some goats' hair at the head.

1Sa 19:14 When Saul sent the men to capture David, Michal said, "He is ill."

1Sa 19:15 Then Saul sent the men back to see David and told them, "Bring him up to me in his bed so that I may kill him."

1Sa 19:16 But when the men entered, there was the idol in the bed, and at the head was some goats' hair.

1Sa 19:17 Saul said to Michal, "Why did you deceive me like this and send my enemy away so that he escaped?" Michal told him, "He said to me, 'Let me get away. Why should I kill you?'"

1Sa 19:18 When David had fled and made his escape, he went to Samuel at Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there.

1Sa 19:19 Word came to Saul: "David is in Naioth at Ramah";

1Sa 19:20 so he sent men to capture him. But when they saw a group of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing there as their leader, the Spirit of God came upon Saul's men and they also prophesied.

1Sa 19:21 Saul was told about it, and he sent more men, and they prophesied too. Saul sent men a third time, and they also prophesied.

1Sa 19:22 Finally, he himself left for Ramah and went to the great cistern at Secu. And he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" "Over in Naioth at Ramah," they said.

1Sa 19:23 So Saul went to Naioth at Ramah. But the Spirit of God came even upon him, and he walked along prophesying until he came to Naioth.

1Sa 19:24 He stripped off his robes and also prophesied in Samuel's presence. He lay that way all that day and night. This is why people say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1Sa 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth at Ramah and went to Jonathan and asked, "What have I done? What is my crime? How have I wronged your father, that he is trying to take my life?"

1Sa 20:2 "Never!" Jonathan replied. "You are not going to die! Look, my father doesn't do anything, great or small, without confiding in me. Why would he hide this from me? It's not so!"

1Sa 20:3 But David took an oath and said, "Your father knows very well that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said to himself, 'Jonathan must not know this or he will be grieved.' Yet as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, there is only a step between me and death."

1Sa 20:4 Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you want me to do, I'll do for you."

1Sa 20:5 So David said, "Look, tomorrow is the New Moon festival, and I am supposed to dine with the king; but let me go and hide in the field until the evening of the day after tomorrow.

1Sa 20:6 If your father misses me at all, tell him, 'David earnestly asked my permission to hurry to Bethlehem, his hometown, because an annual sacrifice is being made there for his whole clan.'

1Sa 20:7 If he says, 'Very well,' then your servant is safe. But if he loses his temper, you can be sure that he is determined to harm me.

1Sa 20:8 As for you, show kindness to your servant, for you have brought him into a covenant with you before the LORD. If I am guilty, then kill me yourself! Why hand me over to your father?"

1Sa 20:9 "Never!" Jonathan said. "If I had the least inkling that my father was determined to harm you, wouldn't I tell you?"

1Sa 20:10 David asked, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?"

1Sa 20:11 "Come," Jonathan said, "let's go out into the field." So they went there together.

1Sa 20:12 Then Jonathan said to David: "By the LORD, the God of Israel, I will surely sound out my father by this time the day after tomorrow! If he is favorably disposed toward you, will I not send you word and let you know?"

1Sa 20:13 But if my father is inclined to harm you, may the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if I do not let you know and send you away safely. May the LORD be with you as he has been with my father.

1Sa 20:14 But show me unfailing kindness like that of the LORD as long as I live, so that I may not be killed,

1Sa 20:15 and do not ever cut off your kindness from my family-- not even when the LORD has cut off every one of David's enemies from the face of the earth."

1Sa 20:16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "May the LORD call David's enemies to account."

1Sa 20:17 And Jonathan had David reaffirm his oath out of love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself.

1Sa 20:18 Then Jonathan said to David: "Tomorrow is the New Moon festival. You will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

1Sa 20:19 The day after tomorrow, toward evening, go to the place where you hid when this trouble began, and wait by the stone Ezel.

1Sa 20:20 I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target.

1Sa 20:21 Then I will send a boy and say, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to him, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; bring them here,' then come, because, as surely as the LORD lives, you are safe; there is no danger.

1Sa 20:22 But if I say to the boy, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then you must go, because the LORD has sent you away.

1Sa 20:23 And about the matter you and I discussed-- remember, the LORD is witness between you and me forever."

1Sa 20:24 So David hid in the field, and when the New Moon festival came, the king sat down to eat.

1Sa 20:25 He sat in his customary place by the wall, opposite Jonathan, and Abner sat next to Saul, but David's place was empty.

1Sa 20:26 Saul said nothing that day, for he thought, "Something must have happened to David to make him ceremonially unclean-- surely he is unclean."

1Sa 20:27 But the next day, the second day of the month, David's place was empty again. Then Saul said to his son Jonathan, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse come to the meal, either yesterday or today?"

1Sa 20:28 Jonathan answered, "David earnestly asked me for permission to go to Bethlehem.

1Sa 20:29 He said, 'Let me go, because our family is observing a sacrifice in the town and my brother has ordered me to be there. If I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away to see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the king's table."

1Sa 20:30 Saul's anger flared up at Jonathan and he said to him, "You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Don't I know that you have sided with the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who bore you?"

1Sa 20:31 As long as the son of Jesse lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now send and bring him to me, for he must die!"

1Sa 20:32 "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" Jonathan asked his father.

1Sa 20:33 But Saul hurled his spear at him to kill him. Then Jonathan knew that his father intended to kill David.

1Sa 20:34 Jonathan got up from the table in fierce anger; on that second day of the month he did not eat, because he was grieved at his father's shameful treatment of David.

1Sa 20:35 In the morning Jonathan went out to the field for his meeting with David. He had a small boy with him, 1Sa 20:36 and he said to the boy, "Run and find the arrows I shoot." As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

1Sa 20:37 When the boy came to the place where Jonathan's arrow had fallen, Jonathan called out after him, "Isn't the arrow beyond you?"

1Sa 20:38 Then he shouted, "Hurry! Go quickly! Don't stop!" The boy picked up the arrow and returned to his master.

1Sa 20:39 (The boy knew nothing of all this; only Jonathan and David knew.)

1Sa 20:40 Then Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy and said, "Go, carry them back to town."

1Sa 20:41 After the boy had gone, David got up from the south side [of the stone] and bowed down before Jonathan three times, with his face to the ground. Then they kissed each other and wept together-- but David wept the most.

1Sa 20:42 Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, for we have sworn friendship with each other in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD is witness between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants forever.'" Then David left, and Jonathan went back to the town.

1Sa 21:1 David went to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech trembled when he met him, and asked, "Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?"

1Sa 21:2 David answered Ahimelech the priest, "The king charged me with a certain matter and said to me, 'No one is to know anything about your mission and your instructions.' As for my men, I have told them to meet me at a certain place.

1Sa 21:3 Now then, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever you can find."

1Sa 21:4 But the priest answered David, "I don't have any ordinary bread on hand; however, there is some consecrated bread here-- provided the men have kept themselves from women."

1Sa 21:5 David replied, "Indeed women have been kept from us, as usual whenever I set out. The men's things are holy even on missions that are not holy. How much more so today!"

1Sa 21:6 So the priest gave him the consecrated bread, since there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence that had been removed from before the LORD and replaced by hot bread on the day it was taken away.

1Sa 21:7 Now one of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before the LORD; he was Doeg the Edomite, Saul's head shepherd.

1Sa 21:8 David asked Ahimelech, "Don't you have a spear or a sword here? I haven't brought my sword or any other weapon, because the king's business was urgent."

1Sa 21:9 The priest replied, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here; it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want it, take it; there is no sword here but that one." David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

1Sa 21:10 That day David fled from Saul and went to Achish king of Gath.

1Sa 21:11 But the servants of Achish said to him, "Isn't this David, the king of the land? Isn't he the one they sing about in their dances: 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands'?"

1Sa 21:12 David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of Achish king of Gath.

1Sa 21:13 So he pretended to be insane in their presence; and while he was in their hands he acted like a madman, making marks on the doors of the gate and letting saliva run down his beard.

1Sa 21:14 Achish said to his servants, "Look at the man! He is insane! Why bring him to me?"

1Sa 21:15 Am I so short of madmen that you have to bring this fellow here to carry on like this in front of me? Must this man come into my house?"

1Sa 22:1 David left Gath and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and his father's household heard about it, they went down to him there.

1Sa 22:2 All those who were in distress or in debt or discontented gathered around him, and he became their leader. About four hundred men were with him.

1Sa 22:3 From there David went to Mizpah in Moab and said to the king of Moab, "Would you let my father and mother come and stay with you until I learn what God will do for me?"

1Sa 22:4 So he left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him as long as David was in the stronghold.

1Sa 22:5 But the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold. Go into the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

1Sa 22:6 Now Saul heard that David and his men had been discovered. And Saul, spear in hand, was seated under the tamarisk tree on the hill at Gibeah, with all his officials standing around him.

1Sa 22:7 Saul said to them, "Listen, men of Benjamin! Will the son of Jesse give all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?"

1Sa 22:8 Is that why you have all conspired against me? No one tells me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is concerned about me or tells me that my son has incited my servant to lie in wait for me, as he does today."

1Sa 22:9 But Doeg the Edomite, who was standing with Saul's officials, said, "I saw the son of Jesse come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob."

1Sa 22:10 Ahimelech inquired of the LORD for him; he also gave him provisions and the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

1Sa 22:11 Then the king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and his father's whole family, who were the priests at Nob, and they all came to the king.

1Sa 22:12 Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." "Yes, my lord," he answered.

1Sa 22:13 Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, giving him bread and a sword and inquiring of God for him, so that he has rebelled against me and lies in wait for me, as he does today?"

1Sa 22:14 Ahimelech answered the king, "Who of all your servants is as loyal as David, the king's son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard and highly respected in your household?"

1Sa 22:15 Was that day the first time I inquired of God for him? Of course not! Let not the king accuse your servant or any of his father's family, for your servant knows nothing at all about this whole affair."

1Sa 22:16 But the king said, "You will surely die, Ahimelech, you and your father's whole family."

1Sa 22:17 Then the king ordered the guards at his side: "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because they too have sided with David. They knew he was fleeing, yet they did not tell me." But the king's officials were not willing to raise a hand to strike the priests of the LORD.

1Sa 22:18 The king then ordered Doeg, "You turn and strike down the priests." So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck them down. That day he killed eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

1Sa 22:19 He also put to the sword Nob, the town of the priests, with its men and women, its children and infants, and its cattle, donkeys and sheep.

1Sa 22:20 But Abiathar, a son of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, escaped and fled to join David.

1Sa 22:21 He told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.

1Sa 22:22 Then David said to Abiathar: "That day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, I knew he would be sure to tell Saul. I am responsible for the death of your father's whole family."

1Sa 22:23 Stay with me; don't be afraid; the man who is seeking your life is seeking mine also. You will be safe with me."

1Sa 23:1 When David was told, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are looting the threshing floors,"

1Sa 23:2 he inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?" The LORD answered him, "Go, attack the Philistines and save Keilah."

1Sa 23:3 But David's men said to him, "Here in Judah we are afraid. How much more, then, if we go to Keilah against the Philistine forces!"

1Sa 23:4 Once again David inquired of the LORD, and the LORD answered him, "Go down to Keilah, for I am going to give the Philistines into your hand."

1Sa 23:5 So David and his men went to Keilah, fought the Philistines and carried off their livestock. He inflicted heavy losses on the Philistines and saved the people of Keilah.

1Sa 23:6 (Now Abiathar son of Ahimelech had brought the ephod down with him when he fled to David at Keilah.)

1Sa 23:7 Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah, and he said, "God has handed him over to me, for David has imprisoned himself by entering a town with gates and bars."

1Sa 23:8 And Saul called up all his forces for battle, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

1Sa 23:9 When David learned that Saul was plotting against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod."

1Sa 23:10 David said, "O LORD, God of Israel, your servant has heard definitely that Saul plans to come to Keilah and destroy the town on account of me."

1Sa 23:11 Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me to him? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O LORD, God of Israel, tell your servant." And the LORD said, "He will."

1Sa 23:12 Again David asked, "Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me and my men to Saul?" And the LORD said, "They will."

1Sa 23:13 So David and his men, about six hundred in number, left Keilah and kept moving from place to place. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he did not go there.

1Sa 23:14 David stayed in the desert strongholds and in the hills of the Desert of Ziph. Day after day Saul searched for him, but God did not give David into his hands.

1Sa 23:15 While David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph, he learned that Saul had come out to take his life.

1Sa 23:16 And Saul's son Jonathan went to David at Horesh and helped him find strength in God.

1Sa 23:17 "Don't be afraid," he said. "My father Saul will not lay a hand on you. You will be king over Israel, and I will be second to you. Even my father Saul knows this."

1Sa 23:18 The two of them made a covenant before the LORD. Then Jonathan went home, but David remained at Horesh.

1Sa 23:19 The Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is not David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hakilah, south of Jeshimon?"

1Sa 23:20 Now, O king, come down whenever it pleases you to do so, and we will be responsible for handing him over to the king."

1Sa 23:21 Saul replied, "The LORD bless you for your concern for me.

1Sa 23:22 Go and make further preparation. Find out where David usually goes and who has seen him there. They tell me he is very crafty.

1Sa 23:23 Find out about all the hiding places he uses and come back to me with definite information. Then I will go with you; if he is in the area, I will track him down among all the clans of Judah."

1Sa 23:24 So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the Desert of Maon, in the Arabah south of Jeshimon.

1Sa 23:25 Saul and his men began the search, and when David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Desert of Maon. When Saul heard this, he went into the Desert of Maon in pursuit of David.

1Sa 23:26 Saul was going along one side of the mountain, and David and his men were on the other side, hurrying to get away from Saul. As Saul and his forces were closing in on David and his men to capture them,

1Sa 23:27 a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Come quickly! The Philistines are raiding the land."

1Sa 23:28 Then Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to meet the Philistines. That is why they call this place Sela Hammahlekoth.

1Sa 23:29 And David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

1Sa 24:1 After Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the Desert of En Gedi."

1Sa 24:2 So Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and set out to look for David and his men near the Crags of the Wild Goats.

1Sa 24:3 He came to the sheep pens along the way; a cave was there, and Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were far back in the cave.

1Sa 24:4 The men said, "This is the day the LORD spoke of when he said to you, 'I will give your enemy into your hands for you to deal with as you wish.'" Then David crept up unnoticed and cut off a corner of Saul's robe.

1Sa 24:5 Afterward, David was conscience-stricken for having cut off a corner of his robe.

1Sa 24:6 He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, the LORD's anointed, or lift my hand against him; for he is the anointed of the LORD."

1Sa 24:7 With these words David rebuked his men and did not allow them to attack Saul. And Saul left the cave and went his way.

1Sa 24:8 Then David went out of the cave and called out to Saul, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

1Sa 24:9 He said to Saul, "Why do you listen when men say, 'David is bent on harming you'?

1Sa 24:10 This day you have seen with your own eyes how the LORD delivered you into my hands in the cave. Some urged me to kill you, but I spared you; I said, 'I will not lift my hand against my master, because he is the LORD's anointed.'

1Sa 24:11 See, my father, look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe but did not kill you. Now understand and recognize that I am not guilty of wrongdoing or rebellion. I have not wronged you, but you are hunting me down to take my life.

1Sa 24:12 May the LORD judge between you and me. And may the LORD avenge the wrongs you have done to me, but my hand will not touch you.

1Sa 24:13 As the old saying goes, 'From evildoers come evil deeds,' so my hand will not touch you.

1Sa 24:14 "Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? A flea?

1Sa 24:15 May the LORD be our judge and decide between us. May he consider my cause and uphold it; may he vindicate me by delivering me from your hand."

1Sa 24:16 When David finished saying this, Saul asked, "Is that your voice, David my son?" And he wept aloud.

1Sa 24:17 "You are more righteous than I," he said. "You have treated me well, but I have treated you badly."

1Sa 24:18 You have just now told me of the good you did to me; the LORD delivered me into your hands, but you did not kill me.

1Sa 24:19 When a man finds his enemy, does he let him get away unharmed? May the LORD reward you well for the way you treated me today.

1Sa 24:20 I know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hands.

1Sa 24:21 Now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father's family."

1Sa 24:22 So David gave his oath to Saul. Then Saul returned home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1Sa 25:1 Now Samuel died, and all Israel assembled and mourned for him; and they buried him at his home in Ramah. Then David moved down into the Desert of Maon.

1Sa 25:2 A certain man in Maon, who had property there at Carmel, was very wealthy. He had a thousand goats and three thousand sheep, which he was shearing in Carmel.

1Sa 25:3 His name was Nabal and his wife's name was Abigail. She was an intelligent and beautiful woman, but her husband, a Calebite, was surly and mean in his dealings.

1Sa 25:4 While David was in the desert, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep.

1Sa 25:5 So he sent ten young men and said to them, "Go up to Nabal at Carmel and greet him in my name.

1Sa 25:6 Say to him: 'Long life to you! Good health to you and your household! And good health to all that is yours!'

1Sa 25:7 "Now I hear that it is sheep-shearing time. When your shepherds were with us, we did not mistreat them, and the whole time they were at Carmel nothing of theirs was missing.

1Sa 25:8 Ask your own servants and they will tell you. Therefore be favorable toward my young men, since we come at a festive time. Please give your servants and your son David whatever you can find for them."

1Sa 25:9 When David's men arrived, they gave Nabal this message in David's name. Then they waited.

1Sa 25:10 Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is this David? Who is this son of Jesse? Many servants are breaking away from their masters these days.

1Sa 25:11 Why should I take my bread and water, and the meat I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men coming from who knows where?"

1Sa 25:12 David's men turned around and went back. When they arrived, they reported every word.

1Sa 25:13 David said to his men, "Put on your swords!" So they put on their swords, and David put on his.

About four hundred men went up with David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

1Sa 25:14 One of the servants told Nabal's wife Abigail: "David sent messengers from the desert to give our master his greetings, but he hurled insults at them.

1Sa 25:15 Yet these men were very good to us. They did not mistreat us, and the whole time we were out in the fields near them nothing was missing.

1Sa 25:16 Night and day they were a wall around us all the time we were herding our sheep near them.

1Sa 25:17 Now think it over and see what you can do, because disaster is hanging over our master and his whole household. He is such a wicked man that no one can talk to him."

1Sa 25:18 Abigail lost no time. She took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five dressed sheep, five seahs of roasted grain, a hundred cakes of raisins and two hundred cakes of pressed figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

1Sa 25:19 Then she told her servants, "Go on ahead; I'll follow you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

1Sa 25:20 As she came riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, there were David and his men descending toward her, and she met them.

1Sa 25:21 David had just said, "It's been useless-- all my watching over this fellow's property in the desert so that nothing of his was missing. He has paid me back evil for good.

1Sa 25:22 May God deal with David, be it ever so severely, if by morning I leave alive one male of all who belong to him!"

1Sa 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey and bowed down before David with her face to the ground.

1Sa 25:24 She fell at his feet and said: "My lord, let the blame be on me alone. Please let your servant speak to you; hear what your servant has to say.

1Sa 25:25 May my lord pay no attention to that wicked man Nabal. He is just like his name-- his name is Fool, and folly goes with him. But as for me, your servant, I did not see the men my master sent.

1Sa 25:26 "Now since the LORD has kept you, my master, from bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hands, as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, may your enemies and all who intend to harm my master be like Nabal.

1Sa 25:27 And let this gift, which your servant has brought to my master, be given to the men who follow you.

1Sa 25:28 Please forgive your servant's offense, for the LORD will certainly make a lasting dynasty for my master, because he fights the LORD's battles. Let no wrongdoing be found in you as long as you live.

1Sa 25:29 Even though someone is pursuing you to take your life, the life of my master will be bound securely in the bundle of the living by the LORD your God. But the lives of your enemies he will hurl away as from the pocket of a sling.

1Sa 25:30 When the LORD has done for my master every good thing he promised concerning him and has appointed him leader over Israel,

1Sa 25:31 my master will not have on his conscience the staggering burden of needless bloodshed or of having avenged himself. And when the LORD has brought my master success, remember your servant."

1Sa 25:32 David said to Abigail, "Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you today to meet me.

1Sa 25:33 May you be blessed for your good judgment and for keeping me from bloodshed this day and from avenging myself with my own hands.

1Sa 25:34 Otherwise, as surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, not one male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive by daybreak."

1Sa 25:35 Then David accepted from her hand what she had brought him and said, "Go home in peace. I have heard your words and granted your request."

1Sa 25:36 When Abigail went to Nabal, he was in the house holding a banquet like that of a king. He was in high spirits and very drunk. So she told him nothing until daybreak.

1Sa 25:37 Then in the morning, when Nabal was sober, his wife told him all these things, and his heart failed him and he became like a stone.

1Sa 25:38 About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

1Sa 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Praise be to the LORD, who has upheld my cause against Nabal for treating me with contempt. He has kept his servant from doing wrong and has brought Nabal's wrongdoing down on his own head." Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife.

1Sa 25:40 His servants went to Carmel and said to Abigail, "David has sent us to you to take you to become his wife."

1Sa 25:41 She bowed down with her face to the ground and said, "Here is your maidservant, ready to serve you and wash the feet of my master's servants."

1Sa 25:42 Abigail quickly got on a donkey and, attended by her five maids, went with David's messengers and became his wife.

1Sa 25:43 David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel, and they both were his wives.

1Sa 25:44 But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Paltiel son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1Sa 26:1 The Ziphites went to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is not David hiding on the hill of Hakilah, which faces Jeshimon?"

1Sa 26:2 So Saul went down to the Desert of Ziph, with his three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search there for David.

1Sa 26:3 Saul made his camp beside the road on the hill of Hakilah facing Jeshimon, but David stayed in the desert. When he saw that Saul had followed him there, 1Sa 26:4 he sent out scouts and learned that Saul had definitely arrived.

1Sa 26:5 Then David set out and went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw where Saul and Abner son of Ner, the commander of the army, had lain down. Saul was lying inside the camp, with the army encamped around him.

1Sa 26:6 David then asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, "Who will go down into the camp with me to Saul?" "I'll go with you," said Abishai.

1Sa 26:7 So David and Abishai went to the army by night, and there was Saul, lying asleep inside the camp with his spear stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the soldiers were lying around him.

1Sa 26:8 Abishai said to David, "Today God has delivered your enemy into your hands. Now let me pin him to the ground with one thrust of my spear; I won't strike him twice."

1Sa 26:9 But David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him! Who can lay a hand on the LORD's anointed and be guiltless?

1Sa 26:10 As surely as the LORD lives," he said, "the LORD himself will strike him; either his time will come and he will die, or he will go into battle and perish.

1Sa 26:11 But the LORD forbid that I should lay a hand on the LORD's anointed. Now get the spear and water jug that are near his head, and let's go."

1Sa 26:12 So David took the spear and water jug near Saul's head, and they left. No one saw or knew about it, nor did anyone wake up. They were all sleeping, because the LORD had put them into a deep sleep.

1Sa 26:13 Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the hill some distance away; there was a wide space between them.

1Sa 26:14 He called out to the army and to Abner son of Ner, "Aren't you going to answer me, Abner?" Abner replied, "Who are you who calls to the king?"

1Sa 26:15 David said, "You're a man, aren't you? And who is like you in Israel? Why didn't you guard your lord the king? Someone came to destroy your lord the king.

1Sa 26:16 What you have done is not good. As surely as the LORD lives, you and your men deserve to die, because you did not guard your master, the LORD's anointed. Look around you. Where are the king's spear and water jug that were near his head?"

1Sa 26:17 Saul recognized David's voice and said, "Is that your voice, David my son?" David replied, "Yes it is, my lord the king."

1Sa 26:18 And he added, "Why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done, and what wrong am I guilty of?"

1Sa 26:19 Now let my lord the king listen to his servant's words. If the LORD has incited you against me, then may he accept an offering. If, however, men have done it, may they be cursed before the LORD! They have now driven me from my share in the LORD's inheritance and have said, 'Go, serve other gods.'

1Sa 26:20 Now do not let my blood fall to the ground far from the presence of the LORD. The king of Israel has come out to look for a flea-- as one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

1Sa 26:21 Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Come back, David my son. Because you considered my life precious today, I will not try to harm you again. Surely I have acted like a fool and have erred greatly."

1Sa 26:22 "Here is the king's spear," David answered. "Let one of your young men come over and get it.

1Sa 26:23 The LORD rewards every man for his righteousness and faithfulness. The LORD delivered you into my hands today, but I would not lay a hand on the LORD's anointed.

1Sa 26:24 As surely as I valued your life today, so may the LORD value my life and deliver me from all trouble."

1Sa 26:25 Then Saul said to David, "May you be blessed, my son David; you will do great things and surely triumph." So David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

1Sa 27:1 But David thought to himself, "One of these days I will be destroyed by the hand of Saul. The best thing I can do is to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up searching for me anywhere in Israel, and I will slip out of his hand."

1Sa 27:2 So David and the six hundred men with him left and went over to Achish son of Maoch king of Gath.

1Sa 27:3 David and his men settled in Gath with Achish. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, the widow of Nabal.

1Sa 27:4 When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him.

1Sa 27:5 Then David said to Achish, "If I have found favor in your eyes, let a place be assigned to me in one of the country towns, that I may live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?"

1Sa 27:6 So on that day Achish gave him Ziklag, and it has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since.

1Sa 27:7 David lived in Philistine territory a year and four months.

1Sa 27:8 Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites and the Amalekites. (From ancient times these peoples had lived in the land extending to Shur and Egypt.)

1Sa 27:9 Whenever David attacked an area, he did not leave a man or woman alive, but took sheep and cattle, donkeys and camels, and clothes. Then he returned to Achish.

1Sa 27:10 When Achish asked, "Where did you go raiding today?" David would say, "Against the Negev of Judah" or "Against the Negev of Jerahmeel" or "Against the Negev of the Kenites."

1Sa 27:11 He did not leave a man or woman alive to be brought to Gath, for he thought, "They might inform on us and say, 'This is what David did.'" And such was his practice as long as he lived in Philistine territory.

1Sa 27:12 Achish trusted David and said to himself, "He has become so odious to his people, the Israelites, that he will be my servant forever."

1Sa 28:1 In those days the Philistines gathered their forces to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, "You must understand that you and your men will accompany me in the army."

1Sa 28:2 David said, "Then you will see for yourself what your servant can do." Achish replied, "Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life."

1Sa 28:3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in his own town of Ramah. Saul had expelled the mediums and spiritists from the land.

1Sa 28:4 The Philistines assembled and came and set up camp at Shunem, while Saul gathered all the Israelites and set up camp at Gilboa.

1Sa 28:5 When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid; terror filled his heart.

1Sa 28:6 He inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him by dreams or Urim or prophets.

1Sa 28:7 Saul then said to his attendants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, so I may go and inquire of her." "There is one in Endor," they said.

1Sa 28:8 So Saul disguised himself, putting on other clothes, and at night he and two men went to the woman. "Consult a spirit for me," he said, "and bring up for me the one I name."

1Sa 28:9 But the woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done. He has cut off the mediums and spiritists from the land. Why have you set a trap for my life to bring about my death?"

1Sa 28:10 Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As surely as the LORD lives, you will not be punished for this."

1Sa 28:11 Then the woman asked, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" "Bring up Samuel," he said.

1Sa 28:12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out at the top of her voice and said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!"

1Sa 28:13 The king said to her, "Don't be afraid. What do you see?" The woman said, "I see a spirit coming up out of the ground."

1Sa 28:14 "What does he look like?" he asked. "An old man wearing a robe is coming up," she said. Then Saul knew it was Samuel, and he bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

1Sa 28:15 Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" "I am in great distress," Saul said. "The Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned away from me. He no longer answers me, either by prophets or by dreams. So I have called on you to tell me what to do."

1Sa 28:16 Samuel said, "Why do you consult me, now that the LORD has turned away from you and become your enemy?

1Sa 28:17 The LORD has done what he predicted through me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hands and given it to one of your neighbors-- to David.

1Sa 28:18 Because you did not obey the LORD or carry out his fierce wrath against the Amalekites, the LORD has done this to you today.

1Sa 28:19 The LORD will hand over both Israel and you to the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also hand over the army of Israel to the Philistines."

1Sa 28:20 Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, filled with fear because of Samuel's words. His strength was gone, for he had eaten nothing all that day and night.

1Sa 28:21 When the woman came to Saul and saw that he was greatly shaken, she said, "Look, your maid servant has obeyed you. I took my life in my hands and did what you told me to do."

1Sa 28:22 Now please listen to your servant and let me give you some food so you may eat and have the strength to go on your way."

1Sa 28:23 He refused and said, "I will not eat." But his men joined the woman in urging him, and he listened to them. He got up from the ground and sat on the couch.

1Sa 28:24 The woman had a fattened calf at the house, which she butchered at once. She took some flour, kneaded it and baked bread without yeast.

1Sa 28:25 Then she set it before Saul and his men, and they ate. That same night they got up and left.

1Sa 29:1 The Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek, and Israel camped by the spring in Jezreel.

1Sa 29:2 As the Philistine rulers marched with their units of hundreds and thousands, David and his men were marching at the rear with Achish.

1Sa 29:3 The commanders of the Philistines asked, "What about these Hebrews?" Achish replied, "Is this not David, who was an officer of Saul king of Israel? He has already been with me for over a year, and from the day he left Saul until now, I have found no fault in him."

1Sa 29:4 But the Philistine commanders were angry with him and said, "Send the man back, that he may return to the place you assigned him. He must not go with us into battle, or he will turn against us during the fighting.

How better could he regain his master's favor than by taking the heads of our own men?

1Sa 29:5 Isn't this the David they sang about in their dances: "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands?"

1Sa 29:6 So Achish called David and said to him, "As surely as the LORD lives, you have been reliable, and I would be pleased to have you serve with me in the army. From the day you came to me until now, I have found no fault in you, but the rulers don't approve of you.

1Sa 29:7 Turn back and go in peace; do nothing to displease the Philistine rulers."

1Sa 29:8 "But what have I done?" asked David. "What have you found against your servant from the day I came to you until now? Why can't I go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

1Sa 29:9 Achish answered, "I know that you have been as pleasing in my eyes as an angel of God; nevertheless, the Philistine commanders have said, 'He must not go up with us into battle.'

1Sa 29:10 Now get up early, along with your master's servants who have come with you, and leave in the morning as soon as it is light."

1Sa 29:11 So David and his men got up early in the morning to go back to the land of the Philistines, and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1Sa 30:1 David and his men reached Ziklag on the third day. Now the Amalekites had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burned it, 1Sa 30:2 and had taken captive the women and all who were in it, both young and old. They killed none of them, but carried them off as they went on their way.

1Sa 30:3 When David and his men came to Ziklag, they found it destroyed by fire and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.

1Sa 30:4 So David and his men wept aloud until they had no strength left to weep.

1Sa 30:5 David's two wives had been captured-- Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

1Sa 30:6 David was greatly distressed because the men were talking of stoning him; each one was bitter in spirit because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength in the LORD his God.

1Sa 30:7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod." Abiathar brought it to him,

1Sa 30:8 and David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them?" "Pursue them," he answered. "You will certainly overtake them and succeed in the rescue."

1Sa 30:9 David and the six hundred men with him came to the Besor Ravine, where some stayed behind, 1Sa 30:10 for two hundred men were too exhausted to cross the ravine. But David and four hundred men continued the pursuit.

1Sa 30:11 They found an Egyptian in a field and brought him to David. They gave him water to drink and food to eat--

1Sa 30:12 part of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins. He ate and was revived, for he had not eaten any food or drunk any water for three days and three nights.

1Sa 30:13 David asked him, "To whom do you belong, and where do you come from?" He said, "I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite. My master abandoned me when I became ill three days ago.

1Sa 30:14 We raided the Negev of the Kerethites and the territory belonging to Judah and the Negev of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag."

1Sa 30:15 David asked him, "Can you lead me down to this raiding party?" He answered, "Swear to me before God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will take you down to them."

1Sa 30:16 He led David down, and there they were, scattered over the countryside, eating, drinking and reveling because of the great amount of plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from Judah.

1Sa 30:17 David fought them from dusk until the evening of the next day, and none of them got away, except four hundred young men who rode off on camels and fled.

1Sa 30:18 David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives.

1Sa 30:19 Nothing was missing: young or old, boy or girl, plunder or anything else they had taken. David brought everything back.

1Sa 30:20 He took all the flocks and herds, and his men drove them ahead of the other livestock, saying, "This is David's plunder."

1Sa 30:21 Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow him and who were left behind at the Besor Ravine. They came out to meet David and the people with him. As David and his men approached, he greeted them.

1Sa 30:22 But all the evil men and troublemakers among David's followers said, "Because they did not go out with us, we will not share with them the plunder we recovered. However, each man may take his wife and children and go."

1Sa 30:23 David replied, "No, my brothers, you must not do that with what the LORD has given us. He has protected us and handed over to us the forces that came against us."

1Sa 30:24 Who will listen to what you say? The share of the man who stayed with the supplies is to be the same as that of him who went down to the battle. All will share alike."

1Sa 30:25 David made this a statute and ordinance for Israel from that day to this.

1Sa 30:26 When David arrived in Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of Judah, who were his friends, saying, "Here is a present for you from the plunder of the LORD's enemies."

1Sa 30:27 He sent it to those who were in Bethel, Ramoth Negev and Jattir;

1Sa 30:28 to those in Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa

1Sa 30:29 and Racial; to those in the towns of the Jerahmeelites and the Kenites;

1Sa 30:30 to those in Hormah, Bor Ashan, Athach

1Sa 30:31 and Hebron; and to those in all the other places where David and his men had roamed.

1Sa 31:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 31:2 The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua.

1Sa 31:3 The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him critically.

1Sa 31:4 Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and run me through and abuse me." But his armor-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

1Sa 31:5 When the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died with him.

1Sa 31:6 So Saul and his three sons and his armor-bearer and all his men died together that same day.

1Sa 31:7 When the Israelites along the valley and those across the Jordan saw that the Israelite army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.

1Sa 31:8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 31:9 They cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and they sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among their people.

1Sa 31:10 They put his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths and fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.

1Sa 31:11 When the people of Jabesh Gilead heard of what the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Sa 31:12 all their valiant men journeyed through the night to Beth Shan. They took down the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth Shan and went to Jabesh, where they burned them.

1Sa 31:13 Then they took their bones and buried them under a tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

2Sa 1:1 After the death of Saul, David returned from defeating the Amalekites and stayed in Ziklag two days.

2Sa 1:2 On the third day a man arrived from Saul's camp, with his clothes torn and with dust on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground to pay him honor.

2Sa 1:3 "Where have you come from?" David asked him. He answered, "I have escaped from the Israelite camp."

2Sa 1:4 "What happened?" David asked. "Tell me." He said, "The men fled from the battle. Many of them fell and died. And Saul and his son Jonathan are dead."

2Sa 1:5 Then David said to the young man who brought him the report, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

2Sa 1:6 "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa," the young man said, "and there was Saul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and riders almost upon him.

2Sa 1:7 When he turned around and saw me, he called out to me, and I said, 'What can I do?'

2Sa 1:8 "He asked me, 'Who are you?' 'An Amalekite,' I answered.

2Sa 1:9 "Then he said to me, 'Stand over me and kill me! I am in the throes of death, but I'm still alive.'

2Sa 1:10 "So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that after he had fallen he could not survive. And I took the crown that was on his head and the band on his arm and have brought them here to my lord."

2Sa 1:11 Then David and all the men with him took hold of their clothes and tore them.

2Sa 1:12 They mourned and wept and fasted till evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the army of the LORD and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

2Sa 1:13 David said to the young man who brought him the report, "Where are you from?" "I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite," he answered.

2Sa 1:14 David asked him, "Why were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?"

2Sa 1:15 Then David called one of his men and said, "Go, strike him down!" So he struck him down, and he died.

2Sa 1:16 For David had said to him, "Your blood be on your own head. Your own mouth testified against you when you said, 'I killed the LORD's anointed.'"

2Sa 1:17 David took up this lament concerning Saul and his son Jonathan,

2Sa 1:18 and ordered that the men of Judah be taught this lament of the bow (it is written in the Book of Jashar):

2Sa 1:19 "Your glory, O Israel, lies slain on your heights. How the mighty have fallen!

2Sa 1:20 "Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines be glad, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised rejoice.

2Sa 1:21 "O mountains of Gilboa, may you have neither dew nor rain, nor fields that yield offerings [of grain]. For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul-- no longer rubbed with oil.

2Sa 1:22 From the blood of the slain, from the flesh of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, the sword of Saul did not return unsatisfied.

2Sa 1:23 "Saul and Jonathan-- in life they were loved and gracious, and in death they were not parted. They were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

2Sa 1:24 "O daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and finery, who adorned your garments with ornaments of gold.

2Sa 1:25 "How the mighty have fallen in battle! Jonathan lies slain on your heights.

2Sa 1:26 I grieve for you, Jonathan my brother; you were very dear to me. Your love for me was wonderful, more wonderful than that of women.

2Sa 1:27 "How the mighty have fallen! The weapons of war have perished!"

2Sa 2:1 In the course of time, David inquired of the LORD. "Shall I go up to one of the towns of Judah?" he asked. The LORD said, "Go up." David asked, "Where shall I go?" "To Hebron," the LORD answered.

2Sa 2:2 So David went up there with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

2Sa 2:3 David also took the men who were with him, each with his family, and they settled in Hebron and its towns.

2Sa 2:4 Then the men of Judah came to Hebron and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. When David was told that it was the men of Jabesh Gilead who had buried Saul, 2Sa 2:5 he sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead to say to them, "The LORD bless you for showing this kindness to Saul your master by burying him.

2Sa 2:6 May the LORD now show you kindness and faithfulness, and I too will show you the same favor because you have done this.

2Sa 2:7 Now then, be strong and brave, for Saul your master is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

2Sa 2:8 Meanwhile, Abner son of Ner, the commander of Saul's army, had taken Ish-Bosheth son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.

2Sa 2:9 He made him king over Gilead, Ashuri and Jezreel, and also over Ephraim, Benjamin and all Israel.

2Sa 2:10 Ish-Bosheth son of Saul was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David.

2Sa 2:11 The length of time David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

2Sa 2:12 Abner son of Ner, together with the men of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon.

2Sa 2:13 Joab son of Zeruiah and David's men went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. One group sat down on one side of the pool and one group on the other side.

2Sa 2:14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let's have some of the young men get up and fight hand to hand in front of us." "All right, let them do it," Joab said.

2Sa 2:15 So they stood up and were counted off-- twelve men for Benjamin and Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, and twelve for David.

2Sa 2:16 Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his dagger into his opponent's side, and they fell down together. So that place in Gibeon was called Helkath Hazzurim.

2Sa 2:17 The battle that day was very fierce, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by David's men.

2Sa 2:18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai and Asahel. Now Asahel was as fleet-footed as a wild gazelle.

2Sa 2:19 He chased Abner, turning neither to the right nor to the left as he pursued him.

2Sa 2:20 Abner looked behind him and asked, "Is that you, Asahel?" "It is," he answered.

2Sa 2:21 Then Abner said to him, "Turn aside to the right or to the left; take on one of the young men and strip him of his weapons." But Asahel would not stop chasing him.

2Sa 2:22 Again Abner warned Asahel, "Stop chasing me! Why should I strike you down? How could I look your brother Joab in the face?"

2Sa 2:23 But Asahel refused to give up the pursuit; so Abner thrust the butt of his spear into Asahel's stomach, and the spear came out through his back. He fell there and died on the spot. And every man stopped when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died.

2Sa 2:24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and as the sun was setting, they came to the hill of Ammah, near Giah on the way to the wasteland of Gibeon.

2Sa 2:25 Then the men of Benjamin rallied behind Abner. They formed themselves into a group and took their stand on top of a hill.

2Sa 2:26 Abner called out to Joab, "Must the sword devour forever? Don't you realize that this will end in bitterness? How long before you order your men to stop pursuing their brothers?"

2Sa 2:27 Joab answered, "As surely as God lives, if you had not spoken, the men would have continued the pursuit of their brothers until morning."

2Sa 2:28 So Joab blew the trumpet, and all the men came to a halt; they no longer pursued Israel, nor did they fight anymore.

2Sa 2:29 All that night Abner and his men marched through the Arabah. They crossed the Jordan, continued through the whole Bithron and came to Mahanaim.

2Sa 2:30 Then Joab returned from pursuing Abner and assembled all his men. Besides Asahel, nineteen of David's men were found missing.

2Sa 2:31 But David's men had killed three hundred and sixty Benjamites who were with Abner.

2Sa 2:32 They took Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb at Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men marched all night and arrived at Hebron by daybreak.

2Sa 3:1 The war between the house of Saul and the house of David lasted a long time. David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

2Sa 3:2 Sons were born to David in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon the son of Ahinoam of Jezreel;

2Sa 3:3 his second, Kileab the son of Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

2Sa 3:4 the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;
2Sa 3:5 and the sixth, Ithream the son of David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.
2Sa 3:6 During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner had been strengthening his own position in the house of Saul.
2Sa 3:7 Now Saul had had a concubine named Rizpah daughter of Aiah. And Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, "Why did you sleep with my father's concubine?"
2Sa 3:8 Abner was very angry because of what Ish-Bosheth said and he answered, "Am I a dog's head-- on Judah's side? This very day I am loyal to the house of your father Saul and to his family and friends. I haven't handed you over to David. Yet now you accuse me of an offense involving this woman!"
2Sa 3:9 May God deal with Abner, be it ever so severely, if I do not do for David what the LORD promised him on oath
2Sa 3:10 and transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and establish David's throne over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beersheba."
2Sa 3:11 Ish-Bosheth did not dare to say another word to Abner, because he was afraid of him.
2Sa 3:12 Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to say to David, "Whose land is it? Make an agreement with me, and I will help you bring all Israel over to you."
2Sa 3:13 "Good," said David. "I will make an agreement with you. But I demand one thing of you: Do not come into my presence unless you bring Michal daughter of Saul when you come to see me."
2Sa 3:14 Then David sent messengers to Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, demanding, "Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for the price of a hundred Philistine foreskins."
2Sa 3:15 So Ish-Bosheth gave orders and had her taken away from her husband Paltiel son of Laish.
2Sa 3:16 Her husband, however, went with her, weeping behind her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go back home!" So he went back.
2Sa 3:17 Abner conferred with the elders of Israel and said, "For some time you have wanted to make David your king.
2Sa 3:18 Now do it! For the LORD promised David, 'By my servant David I will rescue my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.'"
2Sa 3:19 Abner also spoke to the Benjamites in person. Then he went to Hebron to tell David everything that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin wanted to do.
2Sa 3:20 When Abner, who had twenty men with him, came to David at Hebron, David prepared a feast for him and his men.
2Sa 3:21 Then Abner said to David, "Let me go at once and assemble all Israel for my lord the king, so that they may make a compact with you, and that you may rule over all that your heart desires." So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.
2Sa 3:22 Just then David's men and Joab returned from a raid and brought with them a great deal of plunder. But Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, because David had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.
2Sa 3:23 When Joab and all the soldiers with him arrived, he was told that Abner son of Ner had come to the king and that the king had sent him away and that he had gone in peace.
2Sa 3:24 So Joab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why did you let him go? Now he is gone!"
2Sa 3:25 You know Abner son of Ner; he came to deceive you and observe your movements and find out everything you are doing."
2Sa 3:26 Joab then left David and sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.
2Sa 3:27 Now when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the gateway, as though to speak with him privately. And there, to avenge the blood of his brother Asahel, Joab stabbed him in the stomach, and he died.
2Sa 3:28 Later, when David heard about this, he said, "I and my kingdom are forever innocent before the LORD concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner."
2Sa 3:29 May his blood fall upon the head of Joab and upon all his father's house! May Joab's house never be without someone who has a running sore or leprosy or who leans on a crutch or who falls by the sword or who lacks food."
2Sa 3:30 (Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.)
2Sa 3:31 Then David said to Joab and all the people with him, "Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth and walk in mourning in front of Abner." King David himself walked behind the bier.
2Sa 3:32 They buried Abner in Hebron, and the king wept aloud at Abner's tomb. All the people wept also.
2Sa 3:33 The king sang this lament for Abner: "Should Abner have died as the lawless die?
2Sa 3:34 Your hands were not bound, your feet were not fettered. You fell as one falls before wicked men." And all the people wept over him again.

2Sa 3:35 Then they all came and urged David to eat something while it was still day; but David took an oath, saying, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun sets!"

2Sa 3:36 All the people took note and were pleased; indeed, everything the king did pleased them.

2Sa 3:37 So on that day all the people and all Israel knew that the king had no part in the murder of Abner son of Ner.

2Sa 3:38 Then the king said to his men, "Do you not realize that a prince and a great man has fallen in Israel this day?"

2Sa 3:39 And today, though I am the anointed king, I am weak, and these sons of Zeruiah are too strong for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his evil deeds!"

2Sa 4:1 When Ish-Bosheth son of Saul heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel became alarmed.

2Sa 4:2 Now Saul's son had two men who were leaders of raiding bands. One was named Baanah and the other Recab; they were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite from the tribe of Benjamin-- Beeroth is considered part of Benjamin, 2Sa 4:3 because the people of Beeroth fled to Gittaim and have lived there as aliens to this day.

2Sa 4:4 (Jonathan son of Saul had a son who was lame in both feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but as she hurried to leave, he fell and became crippled. His name was Mephibosheth.)

2Sa 4:5 Now Recab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, set out for the house of Ish-Bosheth, and they arrived there in the heat of the day while he was taking his noonday rest.

2Sa 4:6 They went into the inner part of the house as if to get some wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Recab and his brother Baanah slipped away.

2Sa 4:7 They had gone into the house while he was lying on the bed in his bedroom. After they stabbed and killed him, they cut off his head. Taking it with them, they traveled all night by way of the Arabah.

2Sa 4:8 They brought the head of Ish-Bosheth to David at Hebron and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, your enemy, who tried to take your life. This day the LORD has avenged my lord the king against Saul and his offspring."

2Sa 4:9 David answered Recab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of all trouble,

2Sa 4:10 when a man told me, 'Saul is dead,' and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and put him to death in Ziklag. That was the reward I gave him for his news!"

2Sa 4:11 How much more-- when wicked men have killed an innocent man in his own house and on his own bed-- should I not now demand his blood from your hand and rid the earth of you!"

2Sa 4:12 So David gave an order to his men, and they killed them. They cut off their hands and feet and hung the bodies by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in Abner's tomb at Hebron.

2Sa 5:1 All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, "We are your own flesh and blood.

2Sa 5:2 In the past, while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.'"

2Sa 5:3 When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, the king made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.

2Sa 5:4 David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years.

2Sa 5:5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years.

2Sa 5:6 The king and his men marched to Jerusalem to attack the Jebusites, who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, "You will not get in here; even the blind and the lame can ward you off." They thought, "David cannot get in here."

2Sa 5:7 Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

2Sa 5:8 On that day, David said, "Anyone who conquers the Jebusites will have to use the water shaft to reach those 'lame and blind' who are David's enemies." That is why they say, "The 'blind and lame' will not enter the palace."

2Sa 5:9 David then took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David. He built up the area around it, from the supporting terraces inward.

2Sa 5:10 And he became more and more powerful, because the LORD God Almighty was with him.

2Sa 5:11 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs and carpenters and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David.

2Sa 5:12 And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

2Sa 5:13 After he left Hebron, David took more concubines and wives in Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him.

2Sa 5:14 These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

2Sa 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

2Sa 5:16 Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet.

2Sa 5:17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold.

2Sa 5:18 Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim;

2Sa 5:19 so David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?" The LORD answered him, "Go, for I will surely hand the Philistines over to you."

2Sa 5:20 So David went to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, "As waters break out, the LORD has broken out against my enemies before me." So that place was called Baal Perazim.

2Sa 5:21 The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them off.

2Sa 5:22 Once more the Philistines came up and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim;

2Sa 5:23 so David inquired of the LORD, and he answered, "Do not go straight up, but circle around behind them and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

2Sa 5:24 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move quickly, because that will mean the LORD has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army."

2Sa 5:25 So David did as the LORD commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

2Sa 6:1 David again brought together out of Israel chosen men, thirty thousand in all.

2Sa 6:2 He and all his men set out from Baalah of Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, the name of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned between the cherubim that are on the ark.

2Sa 6:3 They set the ark of God on a new cart and brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart

2Sa 6:4 with the ark of God on it, and Ahio was walking in front of it.

2Sa 6:5 David and the whole house of Israel were celebrating with all their might before the LORD, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, sistruums and cymbals.

2Sa 6:6 When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of God, because the oxen stumbled.

2Sa 6:7 The LORD's anger burned against Uzzah because of his irreverent act; therefore God struck him down and he died there beside the ark of God.

2Sa 6:8 Then David was angry because the LORD's wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.

2Sa 6:9 David was afraid of the LORD that day and said, "How can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?"

2Sa 6:10 He was not willing to take the ark of the LORD to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

2Sa 6:11 The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite for three months, and the LORD blessed him and his entire household.

2Sa 6:12 Now King David was told, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-Edom and everything he has, because of the ark of God." So David went down and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with rejoicing.

2Sa 6:13 When those who were carrying the ark of the LORD had taken six steps, he sacrificed a bull and a fattened calf.

2Sa 6:14 David, wearing a linen ephod, danced before the LORD with all his might,

2Sa 6:15 while he and the entire house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouts and the sound of trumpets.

2Sa 6:16 As the ark of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she despised him in her heart.

2Sa 6:17 They brought the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and David sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before the LORD.

2Sa 6:18 After he had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD Almighty.

2Sa 6:19 Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each person in the whole crowd of Israelites, both men and women. And all the people went to their homes.

2Sa 6:20 When David returned home to bless his household, Michal daughter of Saul came out to meet him and said, "How the king of Israel has distinguished himself today, disrobing in the sight of the slave girls of his servants as any vulgar fellow would!"

2Sa 6:21 David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me rather than your father or anyone from his house when he appointed me ruler over the LORD's people Israel-- I will celebrate before the LORD.

2Sa 6:22 I will become even more undignified than this, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes. But by these slave girls you spoke of, I will be held in honor."

2Sa 6:23 And Michal daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

2Sa 7:1 After the king was settled in his palace and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies around him,

2Sa 7:2 he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent."

2Sa 7:3 Nathan replied to the king, "Whatever you have in mind, go ahead and do it, for the LORD is with you."

2Sa 7:4 That night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying:

2Sa 7:5 "Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD says: Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in?'

2Sa 7:6 I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling.

2Sa 7:7 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?"

2Sa 7:8 "Now then, tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock to be ruler over my people Israel.'

2Sa 7:9 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men of the earth.

2Sa 7:10 And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning

2Sa 7:11 and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies. "The LORD declares to you that the LORD himself will establish a house for you:

2Sa 7:12 When your days are over and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, who will come from your own body, and I will establish his kingdom.

2Sa 7:13 He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

2Sa 7:14 I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he does wrong, I will punish him with the rod of men, with floggings inflicted by men.

2Sa 7:15 But my love will never be taken away from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

2Sa 7:16 Your house and your kingdom will endure forever before me; your throne will be established forever."

2Sa 7:17 Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

2Sa 7:18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said: "Who am I, O Sovereign LORD, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?

2Sa 7:19 And as if this were not enough in your sight, O Sovereign LORD, you have also spoken about the future of the house of your servant. Is this your usual way of dealing with man, O Sovereign LORD?

2Sa 7:20 "What more can David say to you? For you know your servant, O Sovereign LORD.

2Sa 7:21 For the sake of your word and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made it known to your servant.

2Sa 7:22 "How great you are, O Sovereign LORD! There is no one like you, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.

2Sa 7:23 And who is like your people Israel-- the one nation on earth that God went out to redeem as a people for himself, and to make a name for himself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations and their gods from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt?

2Sa 7:24 You have established your people Israel as your very own forever, and you, O LORD, have become their God.

2Sa 7:25 "And now, LORD God, keep forever the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house. Do as you promised, 2Sa 7:26 so that your name will be great forever. Then men will say, 'The LORD Almighty is God over Israel!' And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

2Sa 7:27 "O LORD Almighty, God of Israel, you have revealed this to your servant, saying, 'I will build a house for you.' So your servant has found courage to offer you this prayer.

2Sa 7:28 O Sovereign LORD, you are God! Your words are trustworthy, and you have promised these good things to your servant.

2Sa 7:29 Now be pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever in your sight; for you, O Sovereign LORD, have spoken, and with your blessing the house of your servant will be blessed forever."

2Sa 8:1 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Metheg Ammah from the control of the Philistines.

2Sa 8:2 David also defeated the Moabites. He made them lie down on the ground and measured them off with a length of cord. Every two lengths of them were put to death, and the third length was allowed to live. So the Moabites became subject to David and brought tribute.

2Sa 8:3 Moreover, David fought Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when he went to restore his control along the Euphrates River.

2Sa 8:4 David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstrung all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

2Sa 8:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them.

2Sa 8:6 He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought tribute. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

2Sa 8:7 David took the gold shields that belonged to the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

2Sa 8:8 From Tebah and Berothai, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze.

2Sa 8:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer, 2Sa 8:10 he sent his son Joram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Joram brought with him articles of silver and gold and bronze.

2Sa 8:11 King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold from all the nations he had subdued:

2Sa 8:12 Edom and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek. He also dedicated the plunder taken from Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

2Sa 8:13 And David became famous after he returned from striking down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

2Sa 8:14 He put garrisons throughout Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

2Sa 8:15 David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.

2Sa 8:16 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

2Sa 8:17 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was secretary;

2Sa 8:18 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David's sons were royal advisers.

2Sa 9:1 David asked, "Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

2Sa 9:2 Now there was a servant of Saul's household named Ziba. They called him to appear before David, and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" "Your servant," he replied.

2Sa 9:3 The king asked, "Is there no one still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show God's kindness?"

Ziba answered the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in both feet."

2Sa 9:4 "Where is he?" the king asked. Ziba answered, "He is at the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar."

2Sa 9:5 So King David had him brought from Lo Debar, from the house of Makir son of Ammiel.

2Sa 9:6 When Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, he bowed down to pay him honor. David said, "Mephibosheth!" "Your servant," he replied.

2Sa 9:7 "Don't be afraid," David said to him, "for I will surely show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. I will restore to you all the land that belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will always eat at my table."

2Sa 9:8 Mephibosheth bowed down and said, "What is your servant, that you should notice a dead dog like me?"

2Sa 9:9 Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "I have given your master's grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family.

2Sa 9:10 You and your sons and your servants are to farm the land for him and bring in the crops, so that your master's grandson may be provided for. And Mephibosheth, grandson of your master, will always eat at my table." (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)

2Sa 9:11 Then Ziba said to the king, "Your servant will do whatever my lord the king commands his servant to do." So Mephibosheth ate at David's table like one of the king's sons.

2Sa 9:12 Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica, and all the members of Ziba's household were servants of Mephibosheth.

2Sa 9:13 And Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he always ate at the king's table, and he was crippled in both feet.

2Sa 10:1 In the course of time, the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun succeeded him as king.

2Sa 10:2 David thought, "I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father. When David's men came to the land of the Ammonites,

2Sa 10:3 the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think David is honoring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Hasn't David sent them to you to explore the city and spy it out and overthrow it?"

2Sa 10:4 So Hanun seized David's men, shaved off half of each man's beard, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.

2Sa 10:5 When David was told about this, he sent messengers to meet the men, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back."

2Sa 10:6 When the Ammonites realized that they had become a stench in David's nostrils, they hired twenty thousand Aramean foot soldiers from Beth Rehob and Zobah, as well as the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and also twelve thousand men from Tob.

2Sa 10:7 On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.

2Sa 10:8 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city gate, while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open country.

2Sa 10:9 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans.

2Sa 10:10 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother and deployed them against the Ammonites.

2Sa 10:11 Joab said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to come to my rescue; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come to rescue you."

2Sa 10:12 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight."

2Sa 10:13 Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him.

2Sa 10:14 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they fled before Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab returned from fighting the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

2Sa 10:15 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they regrouped.

2Sa 10:16 Hadadezer had Arameans brought from beyond the River; they went to Helam, with Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army leading them.

2Sa 10:17 When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan and went to Helam. The Arameans formed their battle lines to meet David and fought against him.

2Sa 10:18 But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven hundred of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also struck down Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there.

2Sa 10:19 When all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with the Israelites and became subject to them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites anymore.

2Sa 11:1 In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, David sent Joab out with the king's men and the whole Israelite army. They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem.

2Sa 11:2 One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful,

2Sa 11:3 and David sent someone to find out about her. The man said, "Isn't this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam and the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

2Sa 11:4 Then David sent messengers to get her. She came to him, and he slept with her. (She had purified herself from her uncleanness.) Then she went back home.

2Sa 11:5 The woman conceived and sent word to David, saying, "I am pregnant."

2Sa 11:6 So David sent this word to Joab: "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent him to David.

2Sa 11:7 When Uriah came to him, David asked him how Joab was, how the soldiers were and how the war was going.

2Sa 11:8 Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah left the palace, and a gift from the king was sent after him.

2Sa 11:9 But Uriah slept at the entrance to the palace with all his master's servants and did not go down to his house.

2Sa 11:10 When David was told, "Uriah did not go home," he asked him, "Haven't you just come from a distance? Why didn't you go home?"

2Sa 11:11 Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in tents, and my master Joab and my lord's men are camped in the open fields. How could I go to my house to eat and drink and lie with my wife? As surely as you live, I will not do such a thing!"

2Sa 11:12 Then David said to him, "Stay here one more day, and tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

2Sa 11:13 At David's invitation, he ate and drank with him, and David made him drunk. But in the evening Uriah went out to sleep on his mat among his master's servants; he did not go home.

2Sa 11:14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah.

2Sa 11:15 In it he wrote, "Put Uriah in the front line where the fighting is fiercest. Then withdraw from him so he will be struck down and die."

2Sa 11:16 So while Joab had the city under siege, he put Uriah at a place where he knew the strongest defenders were.

2Sa 11:17 When the men of the city came out and fought against Joab, some of the men in David's army fell; moreover, Uriah the Hittite died.

2Sa 11:18 Joab sent David a full account of the battle.

2Sa 11:19 He instructed the messenger: "When you have finished giving the king this account of the battle,

2Sa 11:20 the king's anger may flare up, and he may ask you, 'Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn't you know they would shoot arrows from the wall?'

2Sa 11:21 Who killed Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth? Didn't a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you get so close to the wall?' If he asks you this, then say to him, 'Also, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.'

2Sa 11:22 The messenger set out, and when he arrived he told David everything Joab had sent him to say.

2Sa 11:23 The messenger said to David, "The men overpowered us and came out against us in the open, but we drove them back to the entrance to the city gate.

2Sa 11:24 Then the archers shot arrows at your servants from the wall, and some of the king's men died.

Moreover, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead."

2Sa 11:25 David told the messenger, "Say this to Joab: 'Don't let this upset you; the sword devours one as well as another. Press the attack against the city and destroy it.' Say this to encourage Joab."

2Sa 11:26 When Uriah's wife heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for him.

2Sa 11:27 After the time of mourning was over, David had her brought to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing David had done displeased the LORD.

2Sa 12:1 The LORD sent Nathan to David. When he came to him, he said, "There were two men in a certain town, one rich and the other poor.

2Sa 12:2 The rich man had a very large number of sheep and cattle,

2Sa 12:3 but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb he had bought. He raised it, and it grew up with him and his children. It shared his food, drank from his cup and even slept in his arms. It was like a daughter to him.

2Sa 12:4 "Now a traveler came to the rich man, but the rich man refrained from taking one of his own sheep or cattle to prepare a meal for the traveler who had come to him. Instead, he took the ewe lamb that belonged to the poor man and prepared it for the one who had come to him."

2Sa 12:5 David burned with anger against the man and said to Nathan, "As surely as the LORD lives, the man who did this deserves to die!"

2Sa 12:6 He must pay for that lamb four times over, because he did such a thing and had no pity."

2Sa 12:7 Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.'

2Sa 12:8 I gave your master's house to you, and your master's wives into your arms. I gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if all this had been too little, I would have given you even more.

2Sa 12:9 Why did you despise the word of the LORD by doing what is evil in his eyes? You struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and took his wife to be your own. You killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.

2Sa 12:10 Now, therefore, the sword will never depart from your house, because you despised me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your own.'

2Sa 12:11 "This is what the LORD says: 'Out of your own household I am going to bring calamity upon you. Before your very eyes I will take your wives and give them to one who is close to you, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight.'

2Sa 12:12 You did it in secret, but I will do this thing in broad daylight before all Israel."

2Sa 12:13 Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." Nathan replied, "The LORD has taken away your sin. You are not going to die."

2Sa 12:14 But because by doing this you have made the enemies of the LORD show utter contempt, the son born to you will die."

2Sa 12:15 After Nathan had gone home, the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife had borne to David, and he became ill.

2Sa 12:16 David pleaded with God for the child. He fasted and went into his house and spent the nights lying on the ground.

2Sa 12:17 The elders of his household stood beside him to get him up from the ground, but he refused, and he would not eat any food with them.

2Sa 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they thought, "While the child was still living, we spoke to David but he would not listen to us. How can we tell him the child is dead? He may do something desperate."

2Sa 12:19 David noticed that his servants were whispering among themselves and he realized the child was dead. "Is the child dead?" he asked. "Yes," they replied, "he is dead."

2Sa 12:20 Then David got up from the ground. After he had washed, put on lotions and changed his clothes, he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he went to his own house, and at his request they served him food, and he ate.

2Sa 12:21 His servants asked him, "Why are you acting this way? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept, but now that the child is dead, you get up and eat!"

2Sa 12:22 He answered, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept. I thought, 'Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me and let the child live.'

2Sa 12:23 But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me."

2Sa 12:24 Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and he went to her and lay with her. She gave birth to a son, and they named him Solomon. The LORD loved him;

2Sa 12:25 and because the LORD loved him, he sent word through Nathan the prophet to name him Jedidiah.

2Sa 12:26 Meanwhile Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and captured the royal citadel.

2Sa 12:27 Joab then sent messengers to David, saying, "I have fought against Rabbah and taken its water supply.

2Sa 12:28 Now muster the rest of the troops and besiege the city and capture it. Otherwise I will take the city, and it will be named after me."

2Sa 12:29 So David mustered the entire army and went to Rabbah, and attacked and captured it.

2Sa 12:30 He took the crown from the head of their king--its weight was a talent of gold, and it was set with precious stones-- and it was placed on David's head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city

2Sa 12:31 and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labor with saws and with iron picks and axes, and he made them work at brickmaking. He did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 13:1 In the course of time, Amnon son of David fell in love with Tamar, the beautiful sister of Absalom son of David.

2Sa 13:2 Amnon became frustrated to the point of illness on account of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible for him to do anything to her.

2Sa 13:3 Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother. Jonadab was a very shrewd man.

2Sa 13:4 He asked Amnon, "Why do you, the king's son, look so haggard morning after morning? Won't you tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I'm in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

2Sa 13:5 "Go to bed and pretend to be ill," Jonadab said. "When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'I would like my sister Tamar to come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare the food in my sight so I may watch her and then eat it from her hand.'"

2Sa 13:6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to him, "I would like my sister Tamar to come and make some special bread in my sight, so I may eat from her hand."

2Sa 13:7 David sent word to Tamar at the palace: "Go to the house of your brother Amnon and prepare some food for him."

2Sa 13:8 So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon, who was lying down. She took some dough, kneaded it, made the bread in his sight and baked it.

2Sa 13:9 Then she took the pan and served him the bread, but he refused to eat. "Send everyone out of here," Amnon said. So everyone left him.

2Sa 13:10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food here into my bedroom so I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the bread she had prepared and brought it to her brother Amnon in his bedroom.

2Sa 13:11 But when she took it to him to eat, he grabbed her and said, "Come to bed with me, my sister."

2Sa 13:12 "Don't, my brother!" she said to him. "Don't force me. Such a thing should not be done in Israel! Don't do this wicked thing."

2Sa 13:13 What about me? Where could I get rid of my disgrace? And what about you? You would be like one of the wicked fools in Israel. Please speak to the king; he will not keep me from being married to you."

2Sa 13:14 But he refused to listen to her, and since he was stronger than she, he raped her.

2Sa 13:15 Then Amnon hated her with intense hatred. In fact, he hated her more than he had loved her. Amnon said to her, "Get up and get out!"

2Sa 13:16 "No!" she said to him. "Sending me away would be a greater wrong than what you have already done to me." But he refused to listen to her.

2Sa 13:17 He called his personal servant and said, "Get this woman out of here and bolt the door after her."

2Sa 13:18 So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her. She was wearing a richly ornamented robe, for this was the kind of garment the virgin daughters of the king wore.

2Sa 13:19 Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the ornamented robe she was wearing. She put her hand on her head and went away, weeping aloud as she went.

2Sa 13:20 Her brother Absalom said to her, "Has that Amnon, your brother, been with you? Be quiet now, my sister; he is your brother. Don't take this thing to heart." And Tamar lived in her brother Absalom's house, a desolate woman.

2Sa 13:21 When King David heard all this, he was furious.

2Sa 13:22 Absalom never said a word to Amnon, either good or bad; he hated Amnon because he had disgraced his sister Tamar.

2Sa 13:23 Two years later, when Absalom's sheepshearers were at Baal Hazor near the border of Ephraim, he invited all the king's sons to come there.

2Sa 13:24 Absalom went to the king and said, "Your servant has had shearers come. Will the king and his officials please join me?"

2Sa 13:25 "No, my son," the king replied. "All of us should not go; we would only be a burden to you." Although Absalom urged him, he still refused to go, but gave him his blessing.

2Sa 13:26 Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon come with us." The king asked him, "Why should he go with you?"

2Sa 13:27 But Absalom urged him, so he sent with him Amnon and the rest of the king's sons.

2Sa 13:28 Absalom ordered his men, "Listen! When Amnon is in high spirits from drinking wine and I say to you, 'Strike Amnon down,' then kill him. Don't be afraid. Have not I given you this order? Be strong and brave."

2Sa 13:29 So Absalom's men did to Amnon what Absalom had ordered. Then all the king's sons got up, mounted their mules and fled.

2Sa 13:30 While they were on their way, the report came to David: "Absalom has struck down all the king's sons; not one of them is left."

2Sa 13:31 The king stood up, tore his clothes and lay down on the ground; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

2Sa 13:32 But Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "My lord should not think that they killed all the princes; only Amnon is dead. This has been Absalom's expressed intention ever since the day Amnon raped his sister Tamar.

2Sa 13:33 My lord the king should not be concerned about the report that all the king's sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead."

2Sa 13:34 Meanwhile, Absalom had fled. Now the man standing watch looked up and saw many people on the road west of him, coming down the side of the hill. The watchman went and told the king, "I see men in the direction of Horonaim, on the side of the hill."

2Sa 13:35 Jonadab said to the king, "See, the king's sons are here; it has happened just as your servant said."

2Sa 13:36 As he finished speaking, the king's sons came in, wailing loudly. The king, too, and all his servants wept very bitterly.

2Sa 13:37 Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. But King David mourned for his son every day.

2Sa 13:38 After Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he stayed there three years.

2Sa 13:39 And the spirit of the king longed to go to Absalom, for he was consoled concerning Amnon's death.

2Sa 14:1 Joab son of Zeruiah knew that the king's heart longed for Absalom.

2Sa 14:2 So Joab sent someone to Tekoa and had a wise woman brought from there. He said to her, "Pretend you are in mourning. Dress in mourning clothes, and don't use any cosmetic lotions. Act like a woman who has spent many days grieving for the dead."

2Sa 14:3 Then go to the king and speak these words to him." And Joab put the words in her mouth.

2Sa 14:4 When the woman from Tekoa went to the king, she fell with her face to the ground to pay him honor, and she said, "Help me, O king!"

2Sa 14:5 The king asked her, "What is troubling you?" She said, "I am indeed a widow; my husband is dead.

2Sa 14:6 I your servant had two sons. They got into a fight with each other in the field, and no one was there to separate them. One struck the other and killed him.

2Sa 14:7 Now the whole clan has risen up against your servant; they say, 'Hand over the one who struck his brother down, so that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed; then we will get rid of the heir as well.' They would put out the only burning coal I have left, leaving my husband neither name nor descendant on the face of the earth."

2Sa 14:8 The king said to the woman, "Go home, and I will issue an order in your behalf."

2Sa 14:9 But the woman from Tekoa said to him, "My lord the king, let the blame rest on me and on my father's family, and let the king and his throne be without guilt."

2Sa 14:10 The king replied, "If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not bother you again."

2Sa 14:11 She said, "Then let the king invoke the LORD his God to prevent the avenger of blood from adding to the destruction, so that my son will not be destroyed." "As surely as the LORD lives," he said, "not one hair of your son's head will fall to the ground."

2Sa 14:12 Then the woman said, "Let your servant speak a word to my lord the king." "Speak," he replied.

2Sa 14:13 The woman said, "Why then have you devised a thing like this against the people of God? When the king says this, does he not convict himself, for the king has not brought back his banished son?"

2Sa 14:14 Like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be recovered, so we must die. But God does not take away life; instead, he devises ways so that a banished person may not remain estranged from him.

2Sa 14:15 "And now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. Your servant thought, 'I will speak to the king; perhaps he will do what his servant asks.'

2Sa 14:16 Perhaps the king will agree to deliver his servant from the hand of the man who is trying to cut off both me and my son from the inheritance God gave us."

2Sa 14:17 "And now your servant says, 'May the word of my lord the king bring me rest, for my lord the king is like an angel of God in discerning good and evil. May the LORD your God be with you.'"

2Sa 14:18 Then the king said to the woman, "Do not keep from me the answer to what I am going to ask you." "Let my lord the King speak," the woman said.

2Sa 14:19 The king asked, "Isn't the hand of Joab with you in all this?" The woman answered, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything my lord the king says. Yes, it was your servant Joab who instructed me to do this and who put all these words into the mouth of your servant."

2Sa 14:20 Your servant Joab did this to change the present situation. My lord has wisdom like that of an angel of God-- he knows everything that happens in the land."

2Sa 14:21 The king said to Joab, "Very well, I will do it. Go, bring back the young man Absalom."

2Sa 14:22 Joab fell with his face to the ground to pay him honor, and he blessed the king. Joab said, "Today your servant knows that he has found favor in your eyes, my lord the king, because the king has granted his servant's request."

2Sa 14:23 Then Joab went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.

2Sa 14:24 But the king said, "He must go to his own house; he must not see my face." So Absalom went to his own house and did not see the face of the king.

2Sa 14:25 In all Israel there was not a man so highly praised for his handsome appearance as Absalom. From the top of his head to the sole of his foot there was no blemish in him.

2Sa 14:26 Whenever he cut the hair of his head-- he used to cut his hair from time to time when it became too heavy for him-- he would weigh it, and its weight was two hundred shekels by the royal standard.

2Sa 14:27 Three sons and a daughter were born to Absalom. The daughter's name was Tamar, and she became a beautiful woman.

2Sa 14:28 Absalom lived two years in Jerusalem without seeing the king's face.

2Sa 14:29 Then Absalom sent for Joab in order to send him to the king, but Joab refused to come to him. So he sent a second time, but he refused to come.

2Sa 14:30 Then he said to his servants, "Look, Joab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

2Sa 14:31 Then Joab did go to Absalom's house and he said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

2Sa 14:32 Absalom said to Joab, "Look, I sent word to you and said, 'Come here so I can send you to the king to ask, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there!"' Now then, I want to see the king's face, and if I am guilty of anything, let him put me to death."

2Sa 14:33 So Joab went to the king and told him this. Then the king summoned Absalom, and he came in and bowed down with his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

2Sa 15:1 In the course of time, Absalom provided himself with a chariot and horses and with fifty men to run ahead of him.

2Sa 15:2 He would get up early and stand by the side of the road leading to the city gate. Whenever anyone came with a complaint to be placed before the king for a decision, Absalom would call out to him, "What town are you from?" He would answer, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel."

2Sa 15:3 Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your claims are valid and proper, but there is no representative of the king to hear you."

2Sa 15:4 And Absalom would add, "If only I were appointed judge in the land! Then everyone who has a complaint or case could come to me and I would see that he gets justice."

2Sa 15:5 Also, whenever anyone approached him to bow down before him, Absalom would reach out his hand, take hold of him and kiss him.

2Sa 15:6 Absalom behaved in this way toward all the Israelites who came to the king asking for justice, and so he stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

2Sa 15:7 At the end of four years, Absalom said to the king, "Let me go to Hebron and fulfill a vow I made to the LORD.

2Sa 15:8 While your servant was living at Geshur in Aram, I made this vow: 'If the LORD takes me back to Jerusalem, I will worship the LORD in Hebron.' "

2Sa 15:9 The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he went to Hebron.

2Sa 15:10 Then Absalom sent secret messengers throughout the tribes of Israel to say, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpets, then say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron.' "

2Sa 15:11 Two hundred men from Jerusalem had accompanied Absalom. They had been invited as guests and went quite innocently, knowing nothing about the matter.

2Sa 15:12 While Absalom was offering sacrifices, he also sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, to come from Giloh, his hometown. And so the conspiracy gained strength, and Absalom's following kept on increasing.

2Sa 15:13 A messenger came and told David, "The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom."

2Sa 15:14 Then David said to all his officials who were with him in Jerusalem, "Come! We must flee, or none of us will escape from Absalom. We must leave immediately, or he will move quickly to overtake us and bring ruin upon us and put the city to the sword."

2Sa 15:15 The king's officials answered him, "Your servants are ready to do whatever our lord the king chooses."

2Sa 15:16 The king set out, with his entire household following him; but he left ten concubines to take care of the palace.

2Sa 15:17 So the king set out, with all the people following him, and they halted at a place some distance away.

2Sa 15:18 All his men marched past him, along with all the Kerethites and Pelethites; and all the six hundred Gittites who had accompanied him from Gath marched before the king.

2Sa 15:19 The king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why should you come along with us? Go back and stay with King Absalom. You are a foreigner, an exile from your homeland.

2Sa 15:20 You came only yesterday. And today shall I make you wander about with us, when I do not know where I am going? Go back, and take your countrymen. May kindness and faithfulness be with you."

2Sa 15:21 But Ittai replied to the king, "As surely as the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether it means life or death, there will your servant be."

2Sa 15:22 David said to Ittai, "Go ahead, march on." So Ittai the Gittite marched on with all his men and the families that were with him.

2Sa 15:23 The whole countryside wept aloud as all the people passed by. The king also crossed the Kidron Valley, and all the people moved on toward the desert.

2Sa 15:24 Zadok was there, too, and all the Levites who were with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, and Abiathar offered sacrifices until all the people had finished leaving the city.

2Sa 15:25 Then the king said to Zadok, "Take the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the LORD's eyes, he will bring me back and let me see it and his dwelling place again.

2Sa 15:26 But if he says, 'I am not pleased with you,' then I am ready; let him do to me whatever seems good to him."

2Sa 15:27 The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer? Go back to the city in peace, with your son Ahimaaaz and Jonathan son of Abiathar. You and Abiathar take your two sons with you.

2Sa 15:28 I will wait at the fords in the desert until word comes from you to inform me."

2Sa 15:29 So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there.

2Sa 15:30 But David continued up the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went; his head was covered and he was barefoot. All the people with him covered their heads too and were weeping as they went up.

2Sa 15:31 Now David had been told, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." So David prayed, "O LORD, turn Ahithophel's counsel into foolishness."

2Sa 15:32 When David arrived at the summit, where people used to worship God, Hushai the Arkite was there to meet him, his robe torn and dust on his head.

2Sa 15:33 David said to him, "If you go with me, you will be a burden to me.

2Sa 15:34 But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; I was your father's servant in the past, but now I will be your servant,' then you can help me by frustrating Ahithophel's advice.

2Sa 15:35 Won't the priests Zadok and Abiathar be there with you? Tell them anything you hear in the king's palace.

2Sa 15:36 Their two sons, Ahimaaz son of Zadok and Jonathan son of Abiathar, are there with them. Send them to me with anything you hear."

2Sa 15:37 So David's friend Hushai arrived at Jerusalem as Absalom was entering the city.

2Sa 16:1 When David had gone a short distance beyond the summit, there was Ziba, the steward of Mephibosheth, waiting to meet him. He had a string of donkeys saddled and loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred cakes of raisins, a hundred cakes of figs and a skin of wine.

2Sa 16:2 The king asked Ziba, "Why have you brought these?" Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and fruit are for the men to eat, and the wine is to refresh those who become exhausted in the desert."

2Sa 16:3 The king then asked, "Where is your master's grandson?" Ziba said to him, "He is staying in Jerusalem, because he thinks, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back my grandfather's kingdom.'"

2Sa 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, "All that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours." "I humbly bow," Ziba said. "May I find favor in your eyes, my lord the king."

2Sa 16:5 As King David approached Bahurim, a man from the same clan as Saul's family came out from there. His name was Shimei son of Gera, and he cursed as he came out.

2Sa 16:6 He pelted David and all the king's officials with stones, though all the troops and the special guard were on David's right and left.

2Sa 16:7 As he cursed, Shimei said, "Get out, get out, you man of blood, you scoundrel!"

2Sa 16:8 The LORD has repaid you for all the blood you shed in the household of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. The LORD has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. You have come to ruin because you are a man of blood!"

2Sa 16:9 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off his head."

2Sa 16:10 But the king said, "What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? If he is cursing because the LORD said to him, 'Curse David,' who can ask, 'Why do you do this?'"

2Sa 16:11 David then said to Abishai and all his officials, "My son, who is of my own flesh, is trying to take my life. How much more, then, this Benjamite! Leave him alone; let him curse, for the LORD has told him to."

2Sa 16:12 It may be that the LORD will see my distress and repay me with good for the cursing I am receiving today."

2Sa 16:13 So David and his men continued along the road while Shimei was going along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went and throwing stones at him and showering him with dirt.

2Sa 16:14 The king and all the people with him arrived at their destination exhausted. And there he refreshed himself.

2Sa 16:15 Meanwhile, Absalom and all the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.

2Sa 16:16 Then Hushai the Arkite, David's friend, went to Absalom and said to him, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

2Sa 16:17 Absalom asked Hushai, "Is this the love you show your friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?"

2Sa 16:18 Hushai said to Absalom, "No, the one chosen by the LORD, by these people, and by all the men of Israel-- his I will be, and I will remain with him."

2Sa 16:19 Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve the son? Just as I served your father, so I will serve you."

2Sa 16:20 Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give us your advice. What should we do?"

2Sa 16:21 Ahithophel answered, "Lie with your father's concubines whom he left to take care of the palace.

Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself a stench in your father's nostrils, and the hands of everyone with you will be strengthened."

2Sa 16:22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and he lay with his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

2Sa 16:23 Now in those days the advice Ahithophel gave was like that of one who inquires of God. That was how both David and Absalom regarded all of Ahithophel's advice.

2Sa 17:1 Ahithophel said to Absalom, "I would choose twelve thousand men and set out tonight in pursuit of David.

2Sa 17:2 I would attack him while he is weary and weak. I would strike him with terror, and then all the people with him will flee. I would strike down only the king

2Sa 17:3 and bring all the people back to you. The death of the man you seek will mean the return of all; all the people will be unharmed."

2Sa 17:4 This plan seemed good to Absalom and to all the elders of Israel.

2Sa 17:5 But Absalom said, "Summon also Hushai the Arkite, so we can hear what he has to say."

2Sa 17:6 When Hushai came to him, Absalom said, "Ahithophel has given this advice. Should we do what he says? If not, give us your opinion."

2Sa 17:7 Hushai replied to Absalom, "The advice Ahithophel has given is not good this time.

2Sa 17:8 You know your father and his men; they are fighters, and as fierce as a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Besides, your father is an experienced fighter; he will not spend the night with the troops.

2Sa 17:9 Even now, he is hidden in a cave or some other place. If he should attack your troops first, whoever hears about it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the troops who follow Absalom.'

2Sa 17:10 Then even the bravest soldier, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt with fear, for all Israel knows that your father is a fighter and that those with him are brave.

2Sa 17:11 "So I advise you: Let all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba-- as numerous as the sand on the seashore-- be gathered to you, with you yourself leading them into battle.

2Sa 17:12 Then we will attack him wherever he may be found, and we will fall on him as dew settles on the ground. Neither he nor any of his men will be left alive.

2Sa 17:13 If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it down to the valley until not even a piece of it can be found."

2Sa 17:14 Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than that of Ahithophel." For the LORD had determined to frustrate the good advice of Ahithophel in order to bring disaster on Absalom.

2Sa 17:15 Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, "Ahithophel has advised Absalom and the elders of Israel to do such and such, but I have advised them to do so and so.

2Sa 17:16 Now send a message immediately and tell David, 'Do not spend the night at the fords in the desert; cross over without fail, or the king and all the people with him will be swallowed up...'"

2Sa 17:17 Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel. A servant girl was to go and inform them, and they were to go and tell King David, for they could not risk being seen entering the city.

2Sa 17:18 But a young man saw them and told Absalom. So the two of them left quickly and went to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it.

2Sa 17:19 His wife took a covering and spread it out over the opening of the well and scattered grain over it. No one knew anything about it.

2Sa 17:20 When Absalom's men came to the woman at the house, they asked, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" The woman answered them, "They crossed over the brook." The men searched but found no one, so they returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 17:21 After the men had gone, the two climbed out of the well and went to inform King David. They said to him, "Set out and cross the river at once; Ahithophel has advised such and such against you."

2Sa 17:22 So David and all the people with him set out and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, no one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

2Sa 17:23 When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his house in his hometown. He put his house in order and then hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

2Sa 17:24 David went to Mahanaim, and Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.

2Sa 17:25 Absalom had appointed Amasa over the army in place of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Jether, an Israelite who had married Abigail, the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah the mother of Joab.

2Sa 17:26 The Israelites and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

2Sa 17:27 When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Makir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim

2Sa 17:28 brought bedding and bowls and articles of pottery. They also brought wheat and barley, flour and roasted grain, beans and lentils,

2Sa 17:29 honey and curds, sheep, and cheese from cows' milk for David and his people to eat. For they said, "The people have become hungry and tired and thirsty in the desert."

2Sa 18:1 David mustered the men who were with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

2Sa 18:2 David sent the troops out-- a third under the command of Joab, a third under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. The king told the troops, "I myself will surely march out with you."

2Sa 18:3 But the men said, "You must not go out; if we are forced to flee, they won't care about us. Even if half of us die, they won't care; but you are worth ten thousand of us. It would be better now for you to give us support from the city."

2Sa 18:4 The king answered, "I will do whatever seems best to you." So the king stood beside the gate while all the men marched out in units of hundreds and of thousands.

2Sa 18:5 The king commanded Joab, Abishai and Ittai, "Be gentle with the young man Absalom for my sake." And all the troops heard the king giving orders concerning Absalom to each of the commanders.

2Sa 18:6 The army marched into the field to fight Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim.

2Sa 18:7 There the army of Israel was defeated by David's men, and the casualties that day were great-- twenty thousand men.

2Sa 18:8 The battle spread out over the whole countryside, and the forest claimed more lives that day than the sword.

2Sa 18:9 Now Absalom happened to meet David's men. He was riding his mule, and as the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak, Absalom's head got caught in the tree. He was left hanging in midair, while the mule he was riding kept on going.

2Sa 18:10 When one of the men saw this, he told Joab, "I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree."

2Sa 18:11 Joab said to the man who had told him this, "What! You saw him? Why didn't you strike him to the ground right there? Then I would have had to give you ten shekels of silver and a warrior's belt."

2Sa 18:12 But the man replied, "Even if a thousand shekels were weighed out into my hands, I would not lift my hand against the king's son. In our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, 'Protect the young man Absalom for my sake.'

2Sa 18:13 And if I had put my life in jeopardy--and nothing is hidden from the king-- you would have kept your distance from me."

2Sa 18:14 Joab said, "I'm not going to wait like this for you." So he took three javelins in his hand and plunged them into Absalom's heart while Absalom was still alive in the oak tree.

2Sa 18:15 And ten of Joab's armor-bearers surrounded Absalom, struck him and killed him.

2Sa 18:16 Then Joab sounded the trumpet, and the troops stopped pursuing Israel, for Joab halted them.

2Sa 18:17 They took Absalom, threw him into a big pit in the forest and piled up a large heap of rocks over him. Meanwhile, all the Israelites fled to their homes.

2Sa 18:18 During his lifetime Absalom had taken a pillar and erected it in the King's Valley as a monument to himself, for he thought, "I have no son to carry on the memory of my name." He named the pillar after himself, and it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.

2Sa 18:19 Now Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, "Let me run and take the news to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the hand of his enemies."

2Sa 18:20 "You are not the one to take the news today," Joab told him. "You may take the news another time, but you must not do so today, because the king's son is dead."

2Sa 18:21 Then Joab said to a Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed down before Joab and ran off.

2Sa 18:22 Ahimaaz son of Zadok again said to Joab, "Come what may, please let me run behind the Cushite." But Joab replied, "My son, why do you want to go? You don't have any news that will bring you a reward."

2Sa 18:23 He said, "Come what may, I want to run." So Joab said, "Run!" Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and outran the Cushite.

2Sa 18:24 While David was sitting between the inner and outer gates, the watchman went up to the roof of the gateway by the wall. As he looked out, he saw a man running alone.

2Sa 18:25 The watchman called out to the king and reported it. The king said, "If he is alone, he must have good news." And the man came closer and closer.

2Sa 18:26 Then the watchman saw another man running, and he called down to the gatekeeper, "Look, another man running alone!" The king said, "He must be bringing good news, too."

2Sa 18:27 The watchman said, "It seems to me that the first one runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok." "He's a good man," the king said. "He comes with good news."

2Sa 18:28 Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, "All is well!" He bowed down before the king with his face to the ground and said, "Praise be to the LORD your God! He has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against my lord the king."

2Sa 18:29 The king asked, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" Ahimaaz answered, "I saw great confusion just as Joab was about to send the king's servant and me, your servant, but I don't know what it was."

2Sa 18:30 The king said, "Stand aside and wait here." So he stepped aside and stood there.

2Sa 18:31 Then the Cushite arrived and said, "My lord the king, hear the good news! The LORD has delivered you today from all who rose up against you."

2Sa 18:32 The king asked the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" The Cushite replied, "May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up to harm you be like that young man."

2Sa 18:33 The king was shaken. He went up to the room over the gateway and wept. As he went, he said: "O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you-- O Absalom, my son, my son!"

2Sa 19:1 Joab was told, "The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom."

2Sa 19:2 And for the whole army the victory that day was turned into mourning, because on that day the troops heard it said, "The king is grieving for his son."

2Sa 19:3 The men stole into the city that day as men steal in who are ashamed when they flee from battle.

2Sa 19:4 The king covered his face and cried aloud, "O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!"

2Sa 19:5 Then Joab went into the house to the king and said, "Today you have humiliated all your men, who have just saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters and the lives of your wives and concubines.
2Sa 19:6 You love those who hate you and hate those who love you. You have made it clear today that the commanders and their men mean nothing to you. I see that you would be pleased if Absalom were alive today and all of us were dead.

2Sa 19:7 Now go out and encourage your men. I swear by the LORD that if you don't go out, not a man will be left with you by nightfall. This will be worse for you than all the calamities that have come upon you from your youth till now."

2Sa 19:8 So the king got up and took his seat in the gateway. When the men were told, "The king is sitting in the gateway," they all came before him. Meanwhile, the Israelites had fled to their homes.

2Sa 19:9 Throughout the tribes of Israel, the people were all arguing with each other, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies; he is the one who rescued us from the hand of the Philistines. But now he has fled the country because of Absalom;

2Sa 19:10 and Absalom, whom we anointed to rule over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?"

2Sa 19:11 King David sent this message to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests: "Ask the elders of Judah, 'Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his palace, since what is being said throughout Israel has reached the king at his quarters?

2Sa 19:12 You are my brothers, my own flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to bring back the king?'

2Sa 19:13 And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my own flesh and blood? May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if from now on you are not the commander of my army in place of Joab.'"

2Sa 19:14 He won over the hearts of all the men of Judah as though they were one man. They sent word to the king, "Return, you and all your men."

2Sa 19:15 Then the king returned and went as far as the Jordan. Now the men of Judah had come to Gilgal to go out and meet the king and bring him across the Jordan.

2Sa 19:16 Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

2Sa 19:17 With him were a thousand Benjamites, along with Ziba, the steward of Saul's household, and his fifteen sons and twenty servants. They rushed to the Jordan, where the king was.

2Sa 19:18 They crossed at the ford to take the king's household over and to do whatever he wished. When Shimei son of Gera crossed the Jordan, he fell prostrate before the king

2Sa 19:19 and said to him, "May my lord not hold me guilty. Do not remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. May the king put it out of his mind.

2Sa 19:20 For I your servant know that I have sinned, but today I have come here as the first of the whole house of Joseph to come down and meet my lord the king."

2Sa 19:21 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said, "Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this? He cursed the LORD's anointed."

2Sa 19:22 David replied, "What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? This day you have become my adversaries! Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? Do I not know that today I am king over Israel?"

2Sa 19:23 So the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king promised him on oath.

2Sa 19:24 Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, also went down to meet the king. He had not taken care of his feet or trimmed his mustache or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he returned safely.

2Sa 19:25 When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, "Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?"

2Sa 19:26 He said, "My lord the king, since I your servant am lame, I said, 'I will have my donkey saddled and will ride on it, so I can go with the king.' But Ziba my servant betrayed me.

2Sa 19:27 And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. My lord the king is like an angel of God; so do whatever pleases you.

2Sa 19:28 All my grandfather's descendants deserved nothing but death from my lord the king, but you gave your servant a place among those who sat at your table. So what right do I have to make any more appeals to the king?"

2Sa 19:29 The king said to him, "Why say more? I order you and Ziba to divide the fields."

2Sa 19:30 Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let him take everything, now that my lord the king has arrived home safely."

2Sa 19:31 Barzillai the Gileadite also came down from Rogelim to cross the Jordan with the king and to send him on his way from there.

2Sa 19:32 Now Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years of age. He had provided for the king during his stay in Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man.

2Sa 19:33 The king said to Barzillai, "Cross over with me and stay with me in Jerusalem, and I will provide for you."

2Sa 19:34 But Barzillai answered the king, "How many more years will I live, that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king?

2Sa 19:35 I am now eighty years old. Can I tell the difference between what is good and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats and drinks? Can I still hear the voices of men and women singers? Why should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

2Sa 19:36 Your servant will cross over the Jordan with the king for a short distance, but why should the king reward me in this way?

2Sa 19:37 Let your servant return, that I may die in my own town near the tomb of my father and mother. But here is your servant Kimham. Let him cross over with my lord the king. Do for him whatever pleases you."

2Sa 19:38 The king said, "Kimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him whatever pleases you. And anything you desire from me I will do for you."

2Sa 19:39 So all the people crossed the Jordan, and then the king crossed over. The king kissed Barzillai and gave him his blessing, and Barzillai returned to his home.

2Sa 19:40 When the king crossed over to Gilgal, Kimham crossed with him. All the troops of Judah and half the troops of Israel had taken the king over.

2Sa 19:41 Soon all the men of Israel were coming to the king and saying to him, "Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, steal the king away and bring him and his household across the Jordan, together with all his men?"

2Sa 19:42 All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "We did this because the king is closely related to us. Why are you angry about it? Have we eaten any of the king's provisions? Have we taken anything for ourselves?"

2Sa 19:43 Then the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, "We have ten shares in the king; and besides, we have a greater claim on David than you have. So why do you treat us with contempt? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?" But the men of Judah responded even more harshly than the men of Israel.

2Sa 20:1 Now a troublemaker named Sheba son of Bicri, a Benjamite, happened to be there. He sounded the trumpet and shouted, "We have no share in David, no part in Jesse's son! Every man to his tent, O Israel!"

2Sa 20:2 So all the men of Israel deserted David to follow Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Judah stayed by their king all the way from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

2Sa 20:3 When David returned to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines he had left to take care of the palace and put them in a house under guard. He provided for them, but did not lie with them. They were kept in confinement till the day of their death, living as widows.

2Sa 20:4 Then the king said to Amasa, "Summon the men of Judah to come to me within three days, and be here yourself."

2Sa 20:5 But when Amasa went to summon Judah, he took longer than the time the king had set for him.

2Sa 20:6 David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba son of Bicri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your master's men and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities and escape from us."

2Sa 20:7 So Joab's men and the Kerethites and Pelethites and all the mighty warriors went out under the command of Abishai. They marched out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.

2Sa 20:8 While they were at the great rock in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was wearing his military tunic, and strapped over it at his waist was a belt with a dagger in its sheath. As he stepped forward, it dropped out of its sheath.

2Sa 20:9 Joab said to Amasa, "How are you, my brother?" Then Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

2Sa 20:10 Amasa was not on his guard against the dagger in Joab's hand, and Joab plunged it into his belly, and his intestines spilled out on the ground. Without being stabbed again, Amasa died. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bicri.

2Sa 20:11 One of Joab's men stood beside Amasa and said, "Whoever favors Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!"

2Sa 20:12 Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road, and the man saw that all the troops came to a halt there. When he realized that everyone who came up to Amasa stopped, he dragged him from the road into a field and threw a garment over him.

2Sa 20:13 After Amasa had been removed from the road, all the men went on with Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.

2Sa 20:14 Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah and through the entire region of the Berites, who gathered together and followed him.

2Sa 20:15 All the troops with Joab came and besieged Sheba in Abel Beth Maacah. They built a siege ramp up to the city, and it stood against the outer fortifications. While they were battering the wall to bring it down,

2Sa 20:16 a wise woman called from the city, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab to come here so I can speak to him."

2Sa 20:17 He went toward her, and she asked, "Are you Joab?" "I am," he answered. She said, "Listen to what your servant has to say." "I'm listening," he said.

2Sa 20:18 She continued, "Long ago they used to say, 'Get your answer at Abel,' and that settled it.

2Sa 20:19 We are the peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel.

Why do you want to swallow up the LORD's inheritance?"

2Sa 20:20 "Far be it from me!" Joab replied, "Far be it from me to swallow up or destroy!

2Sa 20:21 That is not the case. A man named Sheba son of Bicri, from the hill country of Ephraim, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Hand over this one man, and I'll withdraw from the city." The woman said to Joab, "His head will be thrown to you from the wall."

2Sa 20:22 Then the woman went to all the people with her wise advice, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri and threw it to Joab. So he sounded the trumpet, and his men dispersed from the city, each returning to his home. And Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

2Sa 20:23 Joab was over Israel's entire army; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites;

2Sa 20:24 Adoniram was in charge of forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

2Sa 20:25 Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

2Sa 20:26 and Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

2Sa 21:1 During the reign of David, there was a famine for three successive years; so David sought the face of the LORD. The LORD said, "It is on account of Saul and his blood-stained house; it is because he put the Gibeonites to death."

2Sa 21:2 The king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not a part of Israel but were survivors of the Amorites; the Israelites had sworn to [spare] them, but Saul in his zeal for Israel and Judah had tried to annihilate them.)

2Sa 21:3 David asked the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? How shall I make amends so that you will bless the LORD's inheritance?"

2Sa 21:4 The Gibeonites answered him, "We have no right to demand silver or gold from Saul or his family, nor do we have the right to put anyone in Israel to death." "What do you want me to do for you?" David asked.

2Sa 21:5 They answered the king, "As for the man who destroyed us and plotted against us so that we have been decimated and have no place anywhere in Israel,

2Sa 21:6 let seven of his male descendants be given to us to be killed and exposed before the LORD at Gibeah of Saul-- the Lord's chosen one." So the king said, "I will give them to you."

2Sa 21:7 The king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath before the LORD between David and Jonathan son of Saul.

2Sa 21:8 But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Aiah's daughter Rizpah, whom she had borne to Saul, together with the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab, whom she had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

2Sa 21:9 He handed them over to the Gibeonites, who killed and exposed them on a hill before the LORD. All seven of them fell together; they were put to death during the first days of the harvest, just as the barley harvest was beginning.

2Sa 21:10 Rizpah daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock. From the beginning of the harvest till the rain poured down from the heavens on the bodies, she did not let the birds of the air touch them by day or the wild animals by night.

2Sa 21:11 When David was told what Aiah's daughter Rizpah, Saul's concubine, had done,

2Sa 21:12 he went and took the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead. (They had taken them secretly from the public square at Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hung them after they struck Saul down on Gilboa.)

2Sa 21:13 David brought the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from there, and the bones of those who had been killed and exposed were gathered up.

2Sa 21:14 They buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the tomb of Saul's father Kish, at Zela in Benjamin, and did everything the king commanded. After that, God answered prayer in behalf of the land.

2Sa 21:15 Once again there was a battle between the Philistines and Israel. David went down with his men to fight against the Philistines, and he became exhausted.

2Sa 21:16 And Ishbi-Benob, one of the descendants of Rapha, whose bronze spearhead weighed three hundred shekels and who was armed with a new [sword], said he would kill David.

2Sa 21:17 But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to David's rescue; he struck the Philistine down and killed him.

Then David's men swore to him, saying, "Never again will you go out with us to battle, so that the lamp of Israel will not be extinguished."

2Sa 21:18 In the course of time, there was another battle with the Philistines, at Gob. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, one of the descendants of Rapha.

2Sa 21:19 In another battle with the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.

2Sa 21:20 In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot-- twenty-four in all. He also was descended from Rapha.

2Sa 21:21 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimeah, David's brother, killed him.

2Sa 21:22 These four were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

2Sa 22:1 David sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

2Sa 22:2 He said: "The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer;

2Sa 22:3 my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation. He is my stronghold, my refuge and my savior-- from violent men you save me.

2Sa 22:4 I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies.

2Sa 22:5 "The waves of death swirled about me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.

2Sa 22:6 The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me.

2Sa 22:7 In my distress I called to the LORD; I called out to my God. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came to his ears.

2Sa 22:8 "The earth trembled and quaked, the foundations of the heavens shook; they trembled because he was angry.

2Sa 22:9 Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from his mouth, burning coals blazed out of it.

2Sa 22:10 He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under his feet.

2Sa 22:11 He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared on the wings of the wind.

2Sa 22:12 He made darkness his canopy around him-- the dark rain clouds of the sky.

2Sa 22:13 Out of the brightness of his presence bolts of lightning blazed forth.

2Sa 22:14 The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded.

2Sa 22:15 He shot arrows and scattered [the enemies], bolts of lightning and routed them.

2Sa 22:16 The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of breath from his nostrils.

2Sa 22:17 "He reached down from on high and took hold of me; he drew me out of deep waters.

2Sa 22:18 He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.

2Sa 22:19 They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support.

2Sa 22:20 He brought me out into a spacious place; he rescued me because he delighted in me.

2Sa 22:21 "The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he has rewarded me.

2Sa 22:22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I have not done evil by turning from my God.

2Sa 22:23 All his laws are before me; I have not turned away from his decrees.

2Sa 22:24 I have been blameless before him and have kept myself from sin.

2Sa 22:25 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.

2Sa 22:26 "To the faithful you show yourself faithful, to the blameless you show yourself blameless, 2Sa 22:27 to the pure you show yourself pure, but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd.

2Sa 22:28 You save the humble, but your eyes are on the haughty to bring them low.

2Sa 22:29 You are my lamp, O LORD; the LORD turns my darkness into light.

2Sa 22:30 With your help I can advance against a troop; with my God I can scale a wall.

2Sa 22:31 "As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is flawless. He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

2Sa 22:32 For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?

2Sa 22:33 It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect.

2Sa 22:34 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he enables me to stand on the heights.

2Sa 22:35 He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

2Sa 22:36 You give me your shield of victory; you stoop down to make me great.

2Sa 22:37 You broaden the path beneath me, so that my ankles do not turn.

2Sa 22:38 "I pursued my enemies and crushed them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.

2Sa 22:39 I crushed them completely, and they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.

2Sa 22:40 You armed me with strength for battle; you made my adversaries bow at my feet.

2Sa 22:41 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.

2Sa 22:42 They cried for help, but there was no one to save them-- to the LORD, but he did not answer.

2Sa 22:43 I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth; I pounded and trampled them like mud in the streets.

2Sa 22:44 "You have delivered me from the attacks of my people; you have preserved me as the head of nations. People I did not know are subject to me, 2Sa 22:45 and foreigners come cringing to me; as soon as they hear me, they obey me.

2Sa 22:46 They all lose heart; they come trembling from their strongholds.

2Sa 22:47 "The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock! Exalted be God, the Rock, my Savior!"

2Sa 22:48 He is the God who avenges me, who puts the nations under me,
2Sa 22:49 who sets me free from my enemies. You exalted me above my foes; from violent men you rescued me.
2Sa 22:50 Therefore I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations; I will sing praises to your name.
2Sa 22:51 He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever."

2Sa 23:1 These are the last words of David: "The oracle of David son of Jesse, the oracle of the man exalted by the Most High, the man anointed by the God of Jacob, Israel's singer of songs:
2Sa 23:2 "The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me; his word was on my tongue.
2Sa 23:3 The God of Israel spoke, the Rock of Israel said to me: 'When one rules over men in righteousness, when he rules in the fear of God,
2Sa 23:4 he is like the light of morning at sunrise on a cloudless morning, like the brightness after rain that brings the grass from the earth.'
2Sa 23:5 "Is not my house right with God? Has he not made with me an everlasting covenant, arranged and secured in every part? Will he not bring to fruition my salvation and grant me my every desire?
2Sa 23:6 But evil men are all to be cast aside like thorns, which are not gathered with the hand.
2Sa 23:7 Whoever touches thorns uses a tool of iron or the shaft of a spear; they are burned up where they lie."
2Sa 23:8 These are the names of David's mighty men: Josheb-Basshebeth, a Tahkemonite, was chief of the Three; he raised his spear against eight hundred men, whom he killed in one encounter.
2Sa 23:9 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite. As one of the three mighty men, he was with David when they taunted the Philistines gathered [at Pas Dammim] for battle. Then the men of Israel retreated, 2Sa 23:10 but he stood his ground and struck down the Philistines till his hand grew tired and froze to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. The troops returned to Eleazar, but only to strip the dead.
2Sa 23:11 Next to him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. When the Philistines banded together at a place where there was a field full of lentils, Israel's troops fled from them.
2Sa 23:12 But Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field. He defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.
2Sa 23:13 During harvest time, three of the thirty chief men came down to David at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.
2Sa 23:14 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.
2Sa 23:15 David longed for water and said, "Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!"
2Sa 23:16 So the three mighty men broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD.
2Sa 23:17 "Far be it from me, O LORD, to do this!" he said. "Is it not the blood of men who went at the risk of their lives?" And David would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.
2Sa 23:18 Abishai the brother of Joab son of Zeruiah was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three.
2Sa 23:19 Was he not held in greater honor than the Three? He became their commander, even though he was not included among them.
2Sa 23:20 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab's best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.
2Sa 23:21 And he struck down a huge Egyptian. Although the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.
2Sa 23:22 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men.
2Sa 23:23 He was held in greater honor than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.
2Sa 23:24 Among the Thirty were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,
2Sa 23:25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,
2Sa 23:26 Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa,
2Sa 23:27 Abiezer from Anathoth, Mebunnai the Hushathite,
2Sa 23:28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maherai the Netophathite,
2Sa 23:29 Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin,
2Sa 23:30 Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai from the ravines of Gaash,
2Sa 23:31 Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,
2Sa 23:32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan
2Sa 23:33 son of Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite,
2Sa 23:34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

2Sa 23:35 Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

2Sa 23:36 Igai son of Nathan from Zobah, the son of Hagri,

2Sa 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,

2Sa 23:38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite

2Sa 23:39 and Uriah the Hittite. There were thirty-seven in all.

2Sa 24:1 Again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, "Go and take a census of Israel and Judah."

2Sa 24:2 So the king said to Joab and the army commanders with him, "Go throughout the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beersheba and enroll the fighting men, so that I may know how many there are."

2Sa 24:3 But Joab replied to the king, "May the LORD your God multiply the troops a hundred times over, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king want to do such a thing?"

2Sa 24:4 The king's word, however, overruled Joab and the army commanders; so they left the presence of the king to enroll the fighting men of Israel.

2Sa 24:5 After crossing the Jordan, they camped near Aroer, south of the town in the gorge, and then went through Gad and on to Jazer.

2Sa 24:6 They went to Gilead and the region of Tahtim Hodshi, and on to Dan Jaan and around toward Sidon.

2Sa 24:7 Then they went toward the fortress of Tyre and all the towns of the Hivites and Canaanites. Finally, they went on to Beersheba in the Negev of Judah.

2Sa 24:8 After they had gone through the entire land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

2Sa 24:9 Joab reported the number of the fighting men to the king: In Israel there were eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who could handle a sword, and in Judah five hundred thousand.

2Sa 24:10 David was conscience-stricken after he had counted the fighting men, and he said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. Now, O LORD, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing."

2Sa 24:11 Before David got up the next morning, the word of the LORD had come to Gad the prophet, David's seer:

2Sa 24:12 "Go and tell David, 'This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.'"

2Sa 24:13 So Gad went to David and said to him, "Shall there come upon you three years of famine in your land? Or three months of fleeing from your enemies while they pursue you? Or three days of plague in your land? Now then, think it over and decide how I should answer the one who sent me."

2Sa 24:14 David said to Gad, "I am in deep distress. Let us fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men."

2Sa 24:15 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel from that morning until the end of the time designated, and seventy thousand of the people from Dan to Beersheba died.

2Sa 24:16 When the angel stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was afflicting the people, "Enough! Withdraw your hand." The angel of the LORD was then at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

2Sa 24:17 When David saw the angel who was striking down the people, he said to the LORD, "I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? Let your hand fall upon me and my family."

2Sa 24:18 On that day Gad went to David and said to him, "Go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."

2Sa 24:19 So David went up, as the LORD had commanded through Gad.

2Sa 24:20 When Araunah looked and saw the king and his men coming toward him, he went out and bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

2Sa 24:21 Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" "To buy your threshing floor," David answered, "so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped."

2Sa 24:22 Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take whatever pleases him and offer it up. Here are oxen for the burnt offering, and here are threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood."

2Sa 24:23 O king, Araunah gives all this to the king." Araunah also said to him, "May the LORD your God accept you."

2Sa 24:24 But the king replied to Araunah, "No, I insist on paying you for it. I will not sacrifice to the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen and paid fifty shekels of silver for them.

2Sa 24:25 David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then the LORD answered prayer in behalf of the land, and the plague on Israel was stopped.

1Ki 1:1 When King David was old and well advanced in years, he could not keep warm even when they put covers over him.

1Ki 1:2 So his servants said to him, "Let us look for a young virgin to attend the king and take care of him. She can lie beside him so that our lord the king may keep warm."

1Ki 1:3 Then they searched throughout Israel for a beautiful girl and found Abishag, a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

1Ki 1:4 The girl was very beautiful; she took care of the king and waited on him, but the king had no intimate relations with her.

1Ki 1:5 Now Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, put himself forward and said, "I will be king." So he got chariots and horses ready, with fifty men to run ahead of him.

1Ki 1:6 (His father had never interfered with him by asking, "Why do you behave as you do?" He was also very handsome and was born next after Absalom.)

1Ki 1:7 Adonijah conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they gave him their support.

1Ki 1:8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei and Rei and David's special guard did not join Adonijah.

1Ki 1:9 Adonijah then sacrificed sheep, cattle and fattened calves at the Stone of Zoheleth near En Rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah who were royal officials, 1Ki 1:10 but he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the special guard or his brother Solomon.

1Ki 1:11 Then Nathan asked Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, "Have you not heard that Adonijah, the son of Haggith, has become king without our lord David's knowing it?

1Ki 1:12 Now then, let me advise you how you can save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

1Ki 1:13 Go in to King David and say to him, 'My lord the king, did you not swear to me your servant: "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?'

1Ki 1:14 While you are still there talking to the king, I will come in and confirm what you have said."

1Ki 1:15 So Bathsheba went to see the aged king in his room, where Abishag the Shunammite was attending him.

1Ki 1:16 Bathsheba bowed low and knelt before the king. "What is it you want?" the king asked.

1Ki 1:17 She said to him, "My lord, you yourself swore to me your servant by the LORD your God: 'Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne.'

1Ki 1:18 But now Adonijah has become king, and you, my lord the king, do not know about it.

1Ki 1:19 He has sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep, and has invited all the king's sons, Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant.

1Ki 1:20 My lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to learn from you who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

1Ki 1:21 Otherwise, as soon as my lord the king is laid to rest with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be treated as criminals."

1Ki 1:22 While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived.

1Ki 1:23 And they told the king, "Nathan the prophet is here." So he went before the king and bowed with his face to the ground.

1Ki 1:24 Nathan said, "Have you, my lord the king, declared that Adonijah shall be king after you, and that he will sit on your throne?

1Ki 1:25 Today he has gone down and sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep. He has invited all the king's sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. Right now they are eating and drinking with him and saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!'

1Ki 1:26 But me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon he did not invite.

1Ki 1:27 Is this something my lord the king has done without letting his servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

1Ki 1:28 Then King David said, "Call in Bathsheba." So she came into the king's presence and stood before him.

1Ki 1:29 The king then took an oath: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of every trouble,

1Ki 1:30 I will surely carry out today what I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel: Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place."

1Ki 1:31 Then Bathsheba bowed low with her face to the ground and, kneeling before the king, said, "May my lord King David live forever!"

1Ki 1:32 King David said, "Call in Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." When they came before the king, 1Ki 1:33 he said to them: "Take your lord's servants with you and set Solomon my son on my own mule and take him down to Gihon.

1Ki 1:34 There have Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel. Blow the trumpet and shout, 'Long live King Solomon!'

1Ki 1:35 Then you are to go up with him, and he is to come and sit on my throne and reign in my place. I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah."

1Ki 1:36 Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, "Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so declare it.

1Ki 1:37 As the LORD was with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon to make his throne even greater than the throne of my lord King David!"

1Ki 1:38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites went down and put Solomon on King David's mule and escorted him to Gihon.

1Ki 1:39 Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the sacred tent and anointed Solomon. Then they sounded the trumpet and all the people shouted, "Long live King Solomon!"

1Ki 1:40 And all the people went up after him, playing flutes and rejoicing greatly, so that the ground shook with the sound.

1Ki 1:41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they were finishing their feast. On hearing the sound of the trumpet, Joab asked, "What's the meaning of all the noise in the city?"

1Ki 1:42 Even as he was speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adonijah said, "Come in. A worthy man like you must be bringing good news."

1Ki 1:43 "Not at all!" Jonathan answered. "Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

1Ki 1:44 The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and they have put him on the king's mule, 1Ki 1:45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon. From there they have gone up cheering, and the city resounds with it. That's the noise you hear.

1Ki 1:46 Moreover, Solomon has taken his seat on the royal throne.

1Ki 1:47 Also, the royal officials have come to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May your God make Solomon's name more famous than yours and his throne greater than yours!' And the king bowed in worship on his bed

1Ki 1:48 and said, 'Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has allowed my eyes to see a successor on my throne today.'"

1Ki 1:49 At this, all Adonijah's guests rose in alarm and dispersed.

1Ki 1:50 But Adonijah, in fear of Solomon, went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

1Ki 1:51 Then Solomon was told, "Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon and is clinging to the horns of the altar. He says, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.'"

1Ki 1:52 Solomon replied, "If he shows himself to be a worthy man, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground; but if evil is found in him, he will die."

1Ki 1:53 Then King Solomon sent men, and they brought him down from the altar. And Adonijah came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon said, "Go to your home."

1Ki 2:1 When the time drew near for David to die, he gave a charge to Solomon his son.

1Ki 2:2 "I am about to go the way of all the earth," he said. "So be strong, show yourself a man,

1Ki 2:3 and observe what the LORD your God requires: Walk in his ways, and keep his decrees and commands, his laws and requirements, as written in the Law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all you do and wherever you go,

1Ki 2:4 and that the LORD may keep his promise to me: 'If your descendants watch how they live, and if they walk faithfully before me with all their heart and soul, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

1Ki 2:5 "Now you yourself know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me-- what he did to the two commanders of Israel's armies, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He killed them, shedding their blood in peacetime as if in battle, and with that blood stained the belt around his waist and the sandals on his feet.

1Ki 2:6 Deal with him according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to the grave in peace.

1Ki 2:7 "But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai of Gilead and let them be among those who eat at your table. They stood by me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

1Ki 2:8 "And remember, you have with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, who called down bitter curses on me the day I went to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD: 'I will not put you to death by the sword.'

1Ki 2:9 But now, do not consider him innocent. You are a man of wisdom; you will know what to do to him. Bring his gray head down to the grave in blood."

1Ki 2:10 Then David rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David.

1Ki 2:11 He had reigned forty years over Israel-- seven years in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem.

1Ki 2:12 So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his rule was firmly established.

1Ki 2:13 Now Adonijah, the son of Haggith, went to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. Bathsheba asked him, "Do you come peacefully?" He answered, "Yes, peacefully."

1Ki 2:14 Then he added, "I have something to say to you." "You may say it," she replied.

1Ki 2:15 "As you know," he said, "the kingdom was mine. All Israel looked to me as their king. But things changed, and the kingdom has gone to my brother; for it has come to him from the LORD."

1Ki 2:16 Now I have one request to make of you. Do not refuse me." "You may make it," she said.

1Ki 2:17 So he continued, "Please ask King Solomon-- he will not refuse you-- to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife."

1Ki 2:18 "Very well," Bathsheba replied, "I will speak to the king for you."

1Ki 2:19 When Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah, the king stood up to meet her, bowed down to her and sat down on his throne. He had a throne brought for the king's mother, and she sat down at his right hand.

1Ki 2:20 "I have one small request to make of you," she said. "Do not refuse me." The king replied, "Make it, my mother; I will not refuse you."

1Ki 2:21 So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given in marriage to your brother Adonijah."

1Ki 2:22 King Solomon answered his mother, "Why do you request Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? You might as well request the kingdom for him-- after all, he is my older brother-- yes, for him and for Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah!"

1Ki 2:23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD: "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if Adonijah does not pay with his life for this request!

1Ki 2:24 And now, as surely as the LORD lives-- he who has established me securely on the throne of my father David and has founded a dynasty for me as he promised-- Adonijah shall be put to death today!"

1Ki 2:25 So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he struck down Adonijah and he died.

1Ki 2:26 To Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go back to your fields in Anathoth. You deserve to die, but I will not put you to death now, because you carried the ark of the Sovereign LORD before my father David and shared all my father's hardships."

1Ki 2:27 So Solomon removed Abiathar from the priesthood of the LORD, fulfilling the word the LORD had spoken at Shiloh about the house of Eli.

1Ki 2:28 When the news reached Joab, who had conspired with Adonijah though not with Absalom, he fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar.

1Ki 2:29 King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD and was beside the altar. Then Solomon ordered Benaiah son of Jehoiada, "Go, strike him down!"

1Ki 2:30 So Benaiah entered the tent of the LORD and said to Joab, "The king says, 'Come out!'" But he answered, "No, I will die here." Benaiah reported to the king, "This is how Joab answered me."

1Ki 2:31 Then the king commanded Benaiah, "Do as he says. Strike him down and bury him, and so clear me and my father's house of the guilt of the innocent blood that Joab shed.

1Ki 2:32 The LORD will repay him for the blood he shed, because without the knowledge of my father David he attacked two men and killed them with the sword. Both of them-- Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel's army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah's army-- were better men and more upright than he.

1Ki 2:33 May the guilt of their blood rest on the head of Joab and his descendants forever. But on David and his descendants, his house and his throne, may there be the LORD's peace forever."

1Ki 2:34 So Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up and struck down Joab and killed him, and he was buried on his own land in the desert.

1Ki 2:35 The king put Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the army in Joab's position and replaced Abiathar with Zadok the priest.

1Ki 2:36 Then the king sent for Shimei and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but do not go anywhere else.

1Ki 2:37 The day you leave and cross the Kidron Valley, you can be sure you will die; your blood will be on your own head."

1Ki 2:38 Shimei answered the king, "What you say is good. Your servant will do as my lord the king has said." And Shimei stayed in Jerusalem for a long time.

1Ki 2:39 But three years later, two of Shimei's slaves ran off to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath, and Shimei was told, "Your slaves are in Gath."

1Ki 2:40 At this, he saddled his donkey and went to Achish at Gath in search of his slaves. So Shimei went away and brought the slaves back from Gath.

1Ki 2:41 When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned,

1Ki 2:42 the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn you, 'On the day you leave to go anywhere else, you can be sure you will die'? At that time you said to me, 'What you say is good. I will obey.'

1Ki 2:43 Why then did you not keep your oath to the LORD and obey the command I gave you?"

1Ki 2:44 The king also said to Shimei, "You know in your heart all the wrong you did to my father David. Now the LORD will repay you for your wrongdoing.

1Ki 2:45 But King Solomon will be blessed, and David's throne will remain secure before the LORD forever."

1Ki 2:46 Then the king gave the order to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck Shimei down and killed him. The kingdom was now firmly established in Solomon's hands.

1Ki 3:1 Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt and married his daughter. He brought her to the City of David until he finished building his palace and the temple of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem.

1Ki 3:2 The people, however, were still sacrificing at the high places, because a temple had not yet been built for the Name of the LORD.

1Ki 3:3 Solomon showed his love for the LORD by walking according to the statutes of his father David, except that he offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

1Ki 3:4 The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices, for that was the most important high place, and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

1Ki 3:5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon during the night in a dream, and God said, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you."

1Ki 3:6 Solomon answered, "You have shown great kindness to your servant, my father David, because he was faithful to you and righteous and upright in heart. You have continued this great kindness to him and have given him a son to sit on his throne this very day.

1Ki 3:7 "Now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David. But I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties.

1Ki 3:8 Your servant is here among the people you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to count or number.

1Ki 3:9 So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of yours?"

1Ki 3:10 The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this.

1Ki 3:11 So God said to him, "Since you have asked for this and not for long life or wealth for yourself, nor have I asked for the death of your enemies but for discernment in administering justice,

1Ki 3:12 I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be.

1Ki 3:13 Moreover, I will give you what you have not asked for-- both riches and honor-- so that in your lifetime you will have no equal among kings.

1Ki 3:14 And if you walk in my ways and obey my statutes and commands as David your father did, I will give you a long life."

1Ki 3:15 Then Solomon awoke-- and he realized it had been a dream. He returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord's covenant and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he gave a feast for all his court.

1Ki 3:16 Now two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

1Ki 3:17 One of them said, "My lord, this woman and I live in the same house. I had a baby while she was there with me.

1Ki 3:18 The third day after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no one in the house but the two of us.

1Ki 3:19 "During the night this woman's son died because she lay on him.

1Ki 3:20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I your servant was asleep. She put him by her breast and put her dead son by my breast.

1Ki 3:21 The next morning, I got up to nurse my son-- and he was dead! But when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn't the son I had borne."

1Ki 3:22 The other woman said, "No! The living one is my son; the dead one is yours." But the first one insisted, "No! The dead one is yours; the living one is mine." And so they argued before the king.

1Ki 3:23 The king said, "This one says, 'My son is alive and your son is dead,' while that one says, 'No! Your son is dead and mine is alive.'"

1Ki 3:24 Then the king said, "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword for the king.

1Ki 3:25 He then gave an order: "Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other."

1Ki 3:26 The woman whose son was alive was filled with compassion for her son and said to the king, "Please, my lord, give her the living baby! Don't kill him!" But the other said, "Neither I nor you shall have him. Cut him in two!"

1Ki 3:27 Then the king gave his ruling: "Give the living baby to the first woman. Do not kill him; she is his mother."

1Ki 3:28 When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom from God to administer justice.

1Ki 4:1 So King Solomon ruled over all Israel.

1Ki 4:2 And these were his chief officials: Azariah son of Zadok-- the priest;

1Ki 4:3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha-- secretaries; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud-- recorder;

1Ki 4:4 Benaiah son of Jehoiada-- commander in chief; Zadok and Abiathar-- priests;

1Ki 4:5 Azariah son of Nathan-- in charge of the district officers; Zabud son of Nathan-- a priest and personal adviser to the king;

1Ki 4:6 Ahishar-- in charge of the palace; Adoniram son of Abda-- in charge of forced labor.

1Ki 4:7 Solomon also had twelve district governors over all Israel, who supplied provisions for the king and the royal household. Each one had to provide supplies for one month in the year.

1Ki 4:8 These are their names: Ben-Hur-- in the hill country of Ephraim;

1Ki 4:9 Ben-Deker-- in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh and Elon Bethhanan;

1Ki 4:10 Ben-Hesed-- in Arubboth (Socoh and all the land of Hepher were his);

1Ki 4:11 Ben-Abinadab-- in Naphoth Dor (he was married to Taphath daughter of Solomon);

1Ki 4:12 Baana son of Ahilud-- in Taanach and Megiddo, and in all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah across to Jokmeam;

1Ki 4:13 Ben-Geber-- in Ramoth Gilead (the settlements of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead were his, as well as the district of Argob in Bashan and its sixty large walled cities with bronze gate bars);

1Ki 4:14 Ahinadab son of Iddo-- in Mahanaim;

1Ki 4:15 Ahimaaz-- in Naphtali (he had married Basemath daughter of Solomon);

1Ki 4:16 Baana son of Hushai-- in Asher and in Aloth;

1Ki 4:17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah-- in Issachar;

1Ki 4:18 Shimei son of Ela-- in Benjamin;

1Ki 4:19 Geber son of Uri-- in Gilead (the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and the country of Og king of Bashan). He was the only governor over the district.

1Ki 4:20 The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore; they ate, they drank and they were happy.

1Ki 4:21 And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. These countries brought tribute and were Solomon's subjects all his life.

1Ki 4:22 Solomon's daily provisions were thirty cors of fine flour and sixty cors of meal,

1Ki 4:23 ten head of stall-fed cattle, twenty of pasture-fed cattle and a hundred sheep and goats, as well as deer, gazelles, roebucks and choice fowl.

1Ki 4:24 For he ruled over all the kingdoms west of the River, from Tiphsah to Gaza, and had peace on all sides.

1Ki 4:25 During Solomon's lifetime Judah and Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, lived in safety, each man under his own vine and fig tree.

1Ki 4:26 Solomon had four thousand stalls for chariot horses, and twelve thousand horses.

1Ki 4:27 The district officers, each in his month, supplied provisions for King Solomon and all who came to the king's table. They saw to it that nothing was lacking.

1Ki 4:28 They also brought to the proper place their quotas of barley and straw for the chariot horses and the other horses.

1Ki 4:29 God gave Solomon wisdom and very great insight, and a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand on the seashore.

1Ki 4:30 Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men of the East, and greater than all the wisdom of Egypt.

1Ki 4:31 He was wiser than any other man, including Ethan the Ezrahite-- wiser than Heman, Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame spread to all the surrounding nations.

1Ki 4:32 He spoke three thousand proverbs and his songs numbered a thousand and five.

1Ki 4:33 He described plant life, from the cedar of Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of walls. He also taught about animals and birds, reptiles and fish.

1Ki 4:34 Men of all nations came to listen to Solomon's wisdom, sent by all the kings of the world, who had heard of his wisdom.

1Ki 5:1 When Hiram king of Tyre heard that Solomon had been anointed king to succeed his father David, he sent his envoys to Solomon, because he had always been on friendly terms with David.

1Ki 5:2 Solomon sent back this message to Hiram:

1Ki 5:3 "You know that because of the wars waged against my father David from all sides, he could not build a temple for the Name of the LORD his God until the LORD put his enemies under his feet.

1Ki 5:4 But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side, and there is no adversary or disaster.

1Ki 5:5 I intend, therefore, to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God, as the LORD told my father David, when he said, 'Your son whom I will put on the throne in your place will build the temple for my Name.'

1Ki 5:6 "So give orders that cedars of Lebanon be cut for me. My men will work with yours, and I will pay you for your men whatever wages you set. You know that we have no one so skilled in felling timber as the Sidonians."

1Ki 5:7 When Hiram heard Solomon's message, he was greatly pleased and said, "Praise be to the LORD today, for he has given David a wise son to rule over this great nation."

1Ki 5:8 So Hiram sent word to Solomon: "I have received the message you sent me and will do all you want in providing the cedar and pine logs.

1Ki 5:9 My men will haul them down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you specify. There I will separate them and you can take them away. And you are to grant my wish by providing food for my royal household."

1Ki 5:10 In this way Hiram kept Solomon supplied with all the cedar and pine logs he wanted, 1Ki 5:11 and Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his household, in addition to twenty thousand baths of pressed olive oil. Solomon continued to do this for Hiram year after year.

1Ki 5:12 The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, just as he had promised him. There were peaceful relations between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.

1Ki 5:13 King Solomon conscripted laborers from all Israel-- thirty thousand men.

1Ki 5:14 He sent them off to Lebanon in shifts of ten thousand a month, so that they spent one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor.

1Ki 5:15 Solomon had seventy thousand carriers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hills,

1Ki 5:16 as well as thirty-three hundred foremen who supervised the project and directed the workmen.

1Ki 5:17 At the king's command they removed from the quarry large blocks of quality stone to provide a foundation of dressed stone for the temple.

1Ki 5:18 The craftsmen of Solomon and Hiram and the men of Gebal cut and prepared the timber and stone for the building of the temple.

1Ki 6:1 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the Israelites had come out of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, the second month, he began to build the temple of the LORD.

1Ki 6:2 The temple that King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty wide and thirty high.

1Ki 6:3 The portico at the front of the main hall of the temple extended the width of the temple, that is twenty cubits, and projected ten cubits from the front of the temple.

1Ki 6:4 He made narrow clerestory windows in the temple.

1Ki 6:5 Against the walls of the main hall and inner sanctuary he built a structure around the building, in which there were side rooms.

1Ki 6:6 The lowest floor was five cubits wide, the middle floor six cubits and the third floor seven. He made offset ledges around the outside of the temple so that nothing would be inserted into the temple walls.

1Ki 6:7 In building the temple, only blocks dressed at the quarry were used, and no hammer, chisel or any other iron tool was heard at the temple site while it was being built.

1Ki 6:8 The entrance to the lowest floor was on the south side of the temple; a stairway led up to the middle level and from there to the third.

1Ki 6:9 So he built the temple and completed it, roofing it with beams and cedar planks.

1Ki 6:10 And he built the side rooms all along the temple. The height of each was five cubits, and they were attached to the temple by beams of cedar.

1Ki 6:11 The word of the LORD came to Solomon:

1Ki 6:12 "As for this temple you are building, if you follow my decrees, carry out my regulations and keep all my commands and obey them, I will fulfill through you the promise I gave to David your father.

1Ki 6:13 And I will live among the Israelites and will not abandon my people Israel."

1Ki 6:14 So Solomon built the temple and completed it.

1Ki 6:15 He lined its interior walls with cedar boards, paneling them from the floor of the temple to the ceiling, and covered the floor of the temple with planks of pine.

1Ki 6:16 He partitioned off twenty cubits at the rear of the temple with cedar boards from floor to ceiling to form within the temple an inner sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

1Ki 6:17 The main hall in front of this room was forty cubits long.

1Ki 6:18 The inside of the temple was cedar, carved with gourds and open flowers. Everything was cedar; no stone was to be seen.

1Ki 6:19 He prepared the inner sanctuary within the temple to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.

1Ki 6:20 The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty wide and twenty high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold, and he also overlaid the altar of cedar.

1Ki 6:21 Solomon covered the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he extended gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, which was overlaid with gold.

1Ki 6:22 So he overlaid the whole interior with gold. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary.

1Ki 6:23 In the inner sanctuary he made a pair of cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

1Ki 6:24 One wing of the first cherub was five cubits long, and the other wing five cubits-- ten cubits from wing tip to wing tip.

1Ki 6:25 The second cherub also measured ten cubits, for the two cherubim were identical in size and shape.

1Ki 6:26 The height of each cherub was ten cubits.

1Ki 6:27 He placed the cherubim inside the innermost room of the temple, with their wings spread out. The wing of one cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the other touched the other wall, and their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.

1Ki 6:28 He overlaid the cherubim with gold.

1Ki 6:29 On the walls all around the temple, in both the inner and outer rooms, he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers.

1Ki 6:30 He also covered the floors of both the inner and outer rooms of the temple with gold.

1Ki 6:31 For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood with five-sided jambs.

1Ki 6:32 And on the two olive wood doors he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid the cherubim and palm trees with beaten gold.

1Ki 6:33 In the same way he made four-sided jambs of olive wood for the entrance to the main hall.

1Ki 6:34 He also made two pine doors, each having two leaves that turned in sockets.

1Ki 6:35 He carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers on them and overlaid them with gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

1Ki 6:36 And he built the inner courtyard of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams.

1Ki 6:37 The foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv.

1Ki 6:38 In the eleventh year in the month of Bul, the eighth month, the temple was finished in all its details according to its specifications. He had spent seven years building it.

1Ki 7:1 It took Solomon thirteen years, however, to complete the construction of his palace.

1Ki 7:2 He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon a hundred cubits long, fifty wide and thirty high, with four rows of cedar columns supporting trimmed cedar beams.

1Ki 7:3 It was roofed with cedar above the beams that rested on the columns-- forty-five beams, fifteen to a row.

1Ki 7:4 Its windows were placed high in sets of three, facing each other.

1Ki 7:5 All the doorways had rectangular frames; they were in the front part in sets of three, facing each other.

1Ki 7:6 He made a colonnade fifty cubits long and thirty wide. In front of it was a portico, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.

1Ki 7:7 He built the throne hall, the Hall of Justice, where he was to judge, and he covered it with cedar from floor to ceiling.

1Ki 7:8 And the palace in which he was to live, set farther back, was similar in design. Solomon also made a palace like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

1Ki 7:9 All these structures, from the outside to the great courtyard and from foundation to eaves, were made of blocks of high-grade stone cut to size and trimmed with a saw on their inner and outer faces.

1Ki 7:10 The foundations were laid with large stones of good quality, some measuring ten cubits and some eight.

1Ki 7:11 Above were high-grade stones, cut to size, and cedar beams.

1Ki 7:12 The great courtyard was surrounded by a wall of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams, as was the inner courtyard of the temple of the LORD with its portico.

1Ki 7:13 King Solomon sent to Tyre and brought Huram,

1Ki 7:14 whose mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali and whose father was a man of Tyre and a craftsman in bronze. Huram was highly skilled and experienced in all kinds of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all the work assigned to him.

1Ki 7:15 He cast two bronze pillars, each eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits around, by line.

1Ki 7:16 He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; each capital was five cubits high.

1Ki 7:17 A network of interwoven chains festooned the capitals on top of the pillars, seven for each capital.

1Ki 7:18 He made pomegranates in two rows encircling each network to decorate the capitals on top of the pillars. He did the same for each capital.

1Ki 7:19 The capitals on top of the pillars in the portico were in the shape of lilies, four cubits high.

1Ki 7:20 On the capitals of both pillars, above the bowl-shaped part next to the network, were the two hundred pomegranates in rows all around.

1Ki 7:21 He erected the pillars at the portico of the temple. The pillar to the south he named Jakin and the one to the north Boaz.

1Ki 7:22 The capitals on top were in the shape of lilies. And so the work on the pillars was completed.

1Ki 7:23 He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits high. It took a line of thirty cubits to measure around it.

1Ki 7:24 Below the rim, gourds encircled it-- ten to a cubit. The gourds were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

1Ki 7:25 The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were toward the center.

1Ki 7:26 It was a handbreadth in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths.

1Ki 7:27 He also made ten movable stands of bronze; each was four cubits long, four wide and three high.

1Ki 7:28 This is how the stands were made: They had side panels attached to uprights.

1Ki 7:29 On the panels between the uprights were lions, bulls and cherubim-- and on the uprights as well. Above and below the lions and bulls were wreaths of hammered work.

1Ki 7:30 Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and each had a basin resting on four supports, cast with wreaths on each side.

1Ki 7:31 On the inside of the stand there was an opening that had a circular frame one cubit deep. This opening was round, and with its basework it measured a cubit and a half. Around its opening there was engraving. The panels of the stands were square, not round.

1Ki 7:32 The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles of the wheels were attached to the stand. The diameter of each wheel was a cubit and a half.

1Ki 7:33 The wheels were made like chariot wheels; the axles, rims, spokes and hubs were all of cast metal.

1Ki 7:34 Each stand had four handles, one on each corner, projecting from the stand.

1Ki 7:35 At the top of the stand there was a circular band half a cubit deep. The supports and panels were attached to the top of the stand.

1Ki 7:36 He engraved cherubim, lions and palm trees on the surfaces of the supports and on the panels, in every available space, with wreaths all around.

1Ki 7:37 This is the way he made the ten stands. They were all cast in the same molds and were identical in size and shape.

1Ki 7:38 He then made ten bronze basins, each holding forty baths and measuring four cubits across, one basin to go on each of the ten stands.

1Ki 7:39 He placed five of the stands on the south side of the temple and five on the north. He placed the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner of the temple.

1Ki 7:40 He also made the basins and shovels and sprinkling bowls. So Huram finished all the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of the LORD:

1Ki 7:41 the two pillars; the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars; the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

1Ki 7:42 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

1Ki 7:43 the ten stands with their ten basins;

1Ki 7:44 the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

1Ki 7:45 the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls. All these objects that Huram made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of burnished bronze.

1Ki 7:46 The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan.

1Ki 7:47 Solomon left all these things unweighed, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

1Ki 7:48 Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the LORD's temple: the golden altar; the golden table on which was the bread of the Presence;

1Ki 7:49 the lampstands of pure gold (five on the right and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary); the gold floral work and lamps and tongs;

1Ki 7:50 the pure gold basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers; and the gold sockets for the doors of the innermost room, the Most Holy Place, and also for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

1Ki 7:51 When all the work King Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated-- the silver and gold and the furnishings-- and he placed them in the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

1Ki 8:1 Then King Solomon summoned into his presence at Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from Zion, the City of David.

1Ki 8:2 All the men of Israel came together to King Solomon at the time of the festival in the month of Ethanim, the seventh month.

1Ki 8:3 When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the priests took up the ark,

1Ki 8:4 and they brought up the ark of the LORD and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it.

The priests and Levites carried them up,

1Ki 8:5 and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

1Ki 8:6 The priests then brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

1Ki 8:7 The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and overshadowed the ark and its carrying poles.

1Ki 8:8 These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today.

1Ki 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

1Ki 8:10 When the priests withdrew from the Holy Place, the cloud filled the temple of the LORD.

1Ki 8:11 And the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled his temple.

1Ki 8:12 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;

1Ki 8:13 I have indeed built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell forever."

1Ki 8:14 While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned around and blessed them.

1Ki 8:15 Then he said: "Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his own hand has fulfilled what he promised with his own mouth to my father David. For he said,

1Ki 8:16 'Since the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built for my Name to be there, but I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.'

1Ki 8:17 "My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ki 8:18 But the LORD said to my father David, 'Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my Name, you did well to have this in your heart.'

1Ki 8:19 Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, who is your own flesh and blood-- he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.'

1Ki 8:20 "The LORD has kept the promise he made: I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ki 8:21 I have provided a place there for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with our fathers when he brought them out of Egypt."

1Ki 8:22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel, spread out his hands toward heaven

1Ki 8:23 and said: "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below-- you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way.

1Ki 8:24 You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it-- as it is today.

1Ki 8:25 "Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said, 'You shall never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me as you have done.'

1Ki 8:26 And now, O God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David my father come true.

1Ki 8:27 "But will God really dwell on earth? The heavens, even the highest heaven, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built!

1Ki 8:28 Yet give attention to your servant's prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence this day.

1Ki 8:29 May your eyes be open toward this temple night and day, this place of which you said, 'My Name shall be there,' so that you will hear the prayer your servant prays toward this place.

1Ki 8:30 Hear the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and when you hear, forgive.

1Ki 8:31 "When a man wrongs his neighbor and is required to take an oath and he comes and swears the oath before your altar in this temple,

1Ki 8:32 then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, condemning the guilty and bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty, and so establish his innocence.

1Ki 8:33 "When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you, and when they turn back to you and confess your name, praying and making supplication to you in this temple, 1Ki 8:34 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to their fathers.

1Ki 8:35 "When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray toward this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them,

1Ki 8:36 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land you gave your people for an inheritance.

1Ki 8:37 "When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when an enemy besieges them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come,

1Ki 8:38 and when a prayer or plea is made by any of your people Israel-- each one aware of the afflictions of his own heart, and spreading out his hands toward this temple--

1Ki 8:39 then hear from heaven, your dwelling place. Forgive and act; deal with each man according to all he does, since you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of all men),

1Ki 8:40 so that they will fear you all the time they live in the land you gave our fathers.

1Ki 8:41 "As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your name--

1Ki 8:42 for men will hear of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm-- when he comes and prays toward this temple,

1Ki 8:43 then hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house I have built bears your Name.

1Ki 8:44 "When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to the LORD toward the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name, 1Ki 8:45 then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

1Ki 8:46 "When they sin against you-- for there is no one who does not sin-- and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to his own land, far away or near;

1Ki 8:47 and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their conquerors and say, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly';

1Ki 8:48 and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and pray to you toward the land you gave their fathers, toward the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name;

1Ki 8:49 then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

1Ki 8:50 And forgive your people, who have sinned against you; forgive all the offenses they have committed against you, and cause their conquerors to show them mercy;

1Ki 8:51 for they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of that iron-smelting furnace.

1Ki 8:52 "May your eyes be open to your servant's plea and to the plea of your people Israel, and may you listen to them whenever they cry out to you.

1Ki 8:53 For you singled them out from all the nations of the world to be your own inheritance, just as you declared through your servant Moses when you, O Sovereign LORD, brought our fathers out of Egypt."

1Ki 8:54 When Solomon had finished all these prayers and supplications to the LORD, he rose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven.

1Ki 8:55 He stood and blessed the whole assembly of Israel in a loud voice, saying:

1Ki 8:56 "Praise be to the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel just as he promised. Not one word has failed of all the good promises he gave through his servant Moses.

1Ki 8:57 May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our fathers; may he never leave us nor forsake us.

1Ki 8:58 May he turn our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep the commands, decrees and regulations he gave our fathers.

1Ki 8:59 And may these words of mine, which I have prayed before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that he may uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel according to each day's need, 1Ki 8:60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God and that there is no other.

1Ki 8:61 But your hearts must be fully committed to the LORD our God, to live by his decrees and obey his commands, as at this time."

1Ki 8:62 Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD.

1Ki 8:63 Solomon offered a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to the LORD: twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the Israelites dedicated the temple of the LORD.

1Ki 8:64 On that same day the king consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings, because the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings.

1Ki 8:65 So Solomon observed the festival at that time, and all Israel with him-- a vast assembly, people from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. They celebrated it before the LORD our God for seven days and seven days more, fourteen days in all.

1Ki 8:66 On the following day he sent the people away. They blessed the king and then went home, joyful and glad in heart for all the good things the LORD had done for his servant David and his people Israel.

1Ki 9:1 When Solomon had finished building the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had achieved all he had desired to do, 1Ki 9:2 the LORD appeared to him a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

1Ki 9:3 The LORD said to him: "I have heard the prayer and plea you have made before me; I have consecrated this temple, which you have built, by putting my Name there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

1Ki 9:4 "As for you, if you walk before me in integrity of heart and uprightness, as David your father did, and do all I command and observe my decrees and laws,

1Ki 9:5 I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised David your father when I said, 'You shall never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

1Ki 9:6 "But if you or your sons turn away from me and do not observe the commands and decrees I have given you and go off to serve other gods and worship them,

1Ki 9:7 then I will cut off Israel from the land I have given them and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. Israel will then become a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples.

1Ki 9:8 And though this temple is now imposing, all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff and say, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?'

1Ki 9:9 People will answer, 'Because they have forsaken the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshiping and serving them-- that is why the LORD brought all this disaster on them."

1Ki 9:10 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built these two buildings-- the temple of the LORD and the royal palace--

1Ki 9:11 King Solomon gave twenty towns in Galilee to Hiram king of Tyre, because Hiram had supplied him with all the cedar and pine and gold he wanted.

1Ki 9:12 But when Hiram went from Tyre to see the towns that Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them.

1Ki 9:13 "What kind of towns are these you have given me, my brother?" he asked. And he called them the Land of Cabul, a name they have to this day.

1Ki 9:14 Now Hiram had sent to the king 120 talents of gold.

1Ki 9:15 Here is the account of the forced labor King Solomon conscripted to build the LORD's temple, his own palace, the supporting terraces, the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer.

1Ki 9:16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Gezer. He had set it on fire. He killed its Canaanite inhabitants and then gave it as a wedding gift to his daughter, Solomon's wife.

1Ki 9:17 And Solomon rebuilt Gezer.) He built up Lower Beth Horon, 1Ki 9:18 Baalath, and Tadmor in the desert, within his land,

1Ki 9:19 as well as all his store cities and the towns for his chariots and for his horses--whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.

1Ki 9:20 All the people left from the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites (these peoples were not Israelites), 1Ki 9:21 that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites could not exterminate--these Solomon conscripted for his slave labor force, as it is to this day.

1Ki 9:22 But Solomon did not make slaves of any of the Israelites; they were his fighting men, his government officials, his officers, his captains, and the commanders of his chariots and chariooteers.

1Ki 9:23 They were also the chief officials in charge of Solomon's projects-- 550 officials supervising the men who did the work.

1Ki 9:24 After Pharaoh's daughter had come up from the City of David to the palace Solomon had built for her, he constructed the supporting terraces.

1Ki 9:25 Three times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar he had built for the LORD, burning incense before the LORD along with them, and so fulfilled the temple obligations.

1Ki 9:26 King Solomon also built ships at Ezion Geber, which is near Elath in Edom, on the shore of the Red Sea.

1Ki 9:27 And Hiram sent his men-- sailors who knew the sea-- to serve in the fleet with Solomon's men.

1Ki 9:28 They sailed to Ophir and brought back 420 talents of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

1Ki 10:1 When the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon and his relation to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

1Ki 10:2 Arriving at Jerusalem with a very great caravan-- with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones-- she came to Solomon and talked with him about all that she had on her mind.

1Ki 10:3 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain to her.

1Ki 10:4 When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the palace he had built,

1Ki 10:5 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he made at the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

1Ki 10:6 She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.

1Ki 10:7 But I did not believe these things until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half was told me; in wisdom and wealth you have far exceeded the report I heard.

1Ki 10:8 How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

1Ki 10:9 Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the LORD's eternal love for Israel, he has made you king, to maintain justice and righteousness."

1Ki 10:10 And she gave the king 120 talents of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

1Ki 10:11 (Hiram's ships brought gold from Ophir; and from there they brought great cargoes of almugwood and precious stones.

1Ki 10:12 The king used the almugwood to make supports for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. So much almugwood has never been imported or seen since that day.)

1Ki 10:13 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

1Ki 10:14 The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents, 1Ki 10:15 not including the revenues from merchants and traders and from all the Arabian kings and the governors of the land.

1Ki 10:16 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas of gold went into each shield.

1Ki 10:17 He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold, with three minas of gold in each shield. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

1Ki 10:18 Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory and overlaid with fine gold.

1Ki 10:19 The throne had six steps, and its back had a rounded top. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each of them.

1Ki 10:20 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom.

1Ki 10:21 All King Solomon's goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon's days.

1Ki 10:22 The king had a fleet of trading ships at sea along with the ships of Hiram. Once every three years it returned, carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.

1Ki 10:23 King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.

1Ki 10:24 The whole world sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

1Ki 10:25 Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift-- articles of silver and gold, robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

1Ki 10:26 Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

1Ki 10:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

1Ki 10:28 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue--the royal merchants purchased them from Kue.

1Ki 10:29 They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

1Ki 11:1 King Solomon, however, loved many foreign women besides Pharaoh's daughter-- Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites.

1Ki 11:2 They were from nations about which the LORD had told the Israelites, "You must not intermarry with them, because they will surely turn your hearts after their gods." Nevertheless, Solomon held fast to them in love.

1Ki 11:3 He had seven hundred wives of royal birth and three hundred concubines, and his wives led him astray.

1Ki 11:4 As Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, and his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been.

1Ki 11:5 He followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molech the detestable god of the Ammonites.

1Ki 11:6 So Solomon did evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not follow the LORD completely, as David his father had done.

1Ki 11:7 On a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable god of Moab, and for Molech the detestable god of the Ammonites.

1Ki 11:8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

1Ki 11:9 The LORD became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice.

1Ki 11:10 Although he had forbidden Solomon to follow other gods, Solomon did not keep the LORD's command.

1Ki 11:11 So the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this is your attitude and you have not kept my covenant and my decrees, which I commanded you, I will most certainly tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your subordinates.

1Ki 11:12 Nevertheless, for the sake of David your father, I will not do it during your lifetime. I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

1Ki 11:13 Yet I will not tear the whole kingdom from him, but will give him one tribe for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

1Ki 11:14 Then the LORD raised up against Solomon an adversary, Hadad the Edomite, from the royal line of Edom.

1Ki 11:15 Earlier when David was fighting with Edom, Joab the commander of the army, who had gone up to bury the dead, had struck down all the men in Edom.

1Ki 11:16 Joab and all the Israelites stayed there for six months, until they had destroyed all the men in Edom.

1Ki 11:17 But Hadad, still only a boy, fled to Egypt with some Edomite officials who had served his father.

1Ki 11:18 They set out from Midian and went to Paran. Then taking men from Paran with them, they went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house and land and provided him with food.

1Ki 11:19 Pharaoh was so pleased with Hadad that he gave him a sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes, in marriage.

1Ki 11:20 The sister of Tahpenes bore him a son named Genubath, whom Tahpenes brought up in the royal palace. There Genubath lived with Pharaoh's own children.

1Ki 11:21 While he was in Egypt, Hadad heard that David rested with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army was also dead. Then Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me go, that I may return to my own country."

1Ki 11:22 "What have you lacked here that you want to go back to your own country?" Pharaoh asked.

"Nothing," Hadad replied, "but do let me go!"

1Ki 11:23 And God raised up against Solomon another adversary, Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

1Ki 11:24 He gathered men around him and became the leader of a band of rebels when David destroyed the forces [of Zobah]; the rebels went to Damascus, where they settled and took control.

1Ki 11:25 Rezon was Israel's adversary as long as Solomon lived, adding to the trouble caused by Hadad. So Rezon ruled in Aram and was hostile toward Israel.

1Ki 11:26 Also, Jeroboam son of Nebat rebelled against the king. He was one of Solomon's officials, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, and his mother was a widow named Zeruah.

1Ki 11:27 Here is the account of how he rebelled against the king: Solomon had built the supporting terraces and had filled in the gap in the wall of the city of David his father.

1Ki 11:28 Now Jeroboam was a man of standing, and when Solomon saw how well the young man did his work, he put him in charge of the whole labor force of the house of Joseph.

1Ki 11:29 About that time Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, and Ahijah the prophet of Shiloh met him on the way, wearing a new cloak. The two of them were alone out in the country, 1Ki 11:30 and Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.

1Ki 11:31 Then he said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'See, I am going to tear the kingdom out of Solomon's hand and give you ten tribes.'

1Ki 11:32 But for the sake of my servant David and the city of Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, he will have one tribe.

1Ki 11:33 I will do this because they have forsaken me and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Molech the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked in my ways, nor done what is right in my eyes, nor kept my statutes and laws as David, Solomon's father, did.

1Ki 11:34 "But I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon's hand; I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of David my servant, whom I chose and who observed my commands and statutes.

1Ki 11:35 I will take the kingdom from his son's hands and give you ten tribes.

1Ki 11:36 I will give one tribe to his son so that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I chose to put my Name.

1Ki 11:37 However, as for you, I will take you, and you will rule over all that your heart desires; you will be king over Israel.

1Ki 11:38 If you do whatever I command you and walk in my ways and do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and commands, as David my servant did, I will be with you. I will build you a dynasty as enduring as the one I built for David and will give Israel to you.

1Ki 11:39 I will humble David's descendants because of this, but not forever."

1Ki 11:40 Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam fled to Egypt, to Shishak the king, and stayed there until Solomon's death.

1Ki 11:41 As for the other events of Solomon's reign-- all he did and the wisdom he displayed-- are they not written in the book of the annals of Solomon?

1Ki 11:42 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

1Ki 11:43 Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king.

1Ki 12:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from Egypt.

1Ki 12:3 So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and the whole assembly of Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him:

1Ki 12:4 "Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labor and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

1Ki 12:5 Rehoboam answered, "Go away for three days and then come back to me." So the people went away.

1Ki 12:6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. "How would you advise me to answer these people?" he asked.

1Ki 12:7 They replied, "If today you will be a servant to these people and serve them and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your servants."

1Ki 12:8 But Rehoboam rejected the advice the elders gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him.

1Ki 12:9 He asked them, "What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me, 'Lighten the yoke your father put on us'?"

1Ki 12:10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, "Tell these people who have said to you, 'Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter'-- tell them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist.'

1Ki 12:11 My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions."

1Ki 12:12 Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, "Come back to me in three days."

1Ki 12:13 The king answered the people harshly. Rejecting the advice given him by the elders,

1Ki 12:14 he followed the advice of the young men and said, "My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions."

1Ki 12:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from the LORD, to fulfill the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.

1Ki 12:16 When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king: "What share do we have in David, what part in Jesse's son? To your tents, O Israel! Look after your own house, O David!" So the Israelites went home.

1Ki 12:17 But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

1Ki 12:18 King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram, who was in charge of forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

1Ki 12:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

1Ki 12:20 When all the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the house of David.

1Ki 12:21 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin-- a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men-- to make war against the house of Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam son of Solomon.

1Ki 12:22 But this word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God:

1Ki 12:23 "Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, to the whole house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,

1Ki 12:24 'This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing." So they obeyed the word of the LORD and went home again, as the LORD had ordered.

1Ki 12:25 Then Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built up Peniel.

1Ki 12:26 Jeroboam thought to himself, "The kingdom will now likely revert to the house of David.

1Ki 12:27 If these people go up to offer sacrifices at the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, they will again give their allegiance to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah. They will kill me and return to King Rehoboam."

1Ki 12:28 After seeking advice, the king made two golden calves. He said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt."

1Ki 12:29 One he set up in Bethel, and the other in Dan.

1Ki 12:30 And this thing became a sin; the people went even as far as Dan to worship the one there.

1Ki 12:31 Jeroboam built shrines on high places and appointed priests from all sorts of people, even though they were not Levites.

1Ki 12:32 He instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the festival held in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. This he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves he had made. And at Bethel he also installed priests at the high places he had made.

1Ki 12:33 On the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing, he offered sacrifices on the altar he had built at Bethel. So he instituted the festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to make offerings.

1Ki 13:1 By the word of the LORD a man of God came from Judah to Bethel, as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to make an offering.

1Ki 13:2 He cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD: "O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says: 'A son named Josiah will be born to the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who now make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you.'"

1Ki 13:3 That same day the man of God gave a sign: "This is the sign the LORD has declared: The altar will be split apart and the ashes on it will be poured out."

1Ki 13:4 When King Jeroboam heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar and said, "Seize him!" But the hand he stretched out toward the man shriveled up, so that he could not pull it back.

1Ki 13:5 Also, the altar was split apart and its ashes poured out according to the sign given by the man of God by the word of the LORD.

1Ki 13:6 Then the king said to the man of God, "Intercede with the LORD your God and pray for me that my hand may be restored." So the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king's hand was restored and became as it was before.

1Ki 13:7 The king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and have something to eat, and I will give you a gift."

1Ki 13:8 But the man of God answered the king, "Even if you were to give me half your possessions, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water here."

1Ki 13:9 For I was commanded by the word of the LORD: 'You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came.'

1Ki 13:10 So he took another road and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

1Ki 13:11 Now there was a certain old prophet living in Bethel, whose sons came and told him all that the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what he had said to the king.

1Ki 13:12 Their father asked them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken.

1Ki 13:13 So he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." And when they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it

1Ki 13:14 and rode after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" "I am," he replied.

1Ki 13:15 So the prophet said to him, "Come home with me and eat."

1Ki 13:16 The man of God said, "I cannot turn back and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place."

1Ki 13:17 I have been told by the word of the LORD: 'You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.'

1Ki 13:18 The old prophet answered, "I too am a prophet, as you are. And an angel said to me by the word of the LORD: 'Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.'" (But he was lying to him.)

1Ki 13:19 So the man of God returned with him and ate and drank in his house.

1Ki 13:20 While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the old prophet who had brought him back.

1Ki 13:21 He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, "This is what the LORD says: 'You have defied the word of the LORD and have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you.'

1Ki 13:22 You came back and ate bread and drank water in the place where he told you not to eat or drink. Therefore your body will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers."

1Ki 13:23 When the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him.

1Ki 13:24 As he went on his way, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his body was thrown down on the road, with both the donkey and the lion standing beside it.

1Ki 13:25 Some people who passed by saw the body thrown down there, with the lion standing beside the body, and they went and reported it in the city where the old prophet lived.

1Ki 13:26 When the prophet who had brought him back from his journey heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God who defied the word of the LORD. The LORD has given him over to the lion, which has mauled him and killed him, as the word of the LORD had warned him."

1Ki 13:27 The prophet said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me," and they did so.

1Ki 13:28 Then he went out and found the body thrown down on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. The lion had neither eaten the body nor mauled the donkey.

1Ki 13:29 So the prophet picked up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to his own city to mourn for him and bury him.

1Ki 13:30 Then he laid the body in his own tomb, and they mourned over him and said, "Oh, my brother!"

1Ki 13:31 After burying him, he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

1Ki 13:32 For the message he declared by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines on the high places in the towns of Samaria will certainly come true."

1Ki 13:33 Even after this, Jeroboam did not change his evil ways, but once more appointed priests for the high places from all sorts of people. Anyone who wanted to become a priest he consecrated for the high places.

1Ki 13:34 This was the sin of the house of Jeroboam that led to its downfall and to its destruction from the face of the earth.

1Ki 14:1 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became ill,

1Ki 14:2 and Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go, disguise yourself, so you won't be recognized as the wife of Jeroboam. Then go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet is there-- the one who told me I would be king over this people.

1Ki 14:3 Take ten loaves of bread with you, some cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy."

1Ki 14:4 So Jeroboam's wife did what he said and went to Ahijah's house in Shiloh. Now Ahijah could not see; his sight was gone because of his age.

1Ki 14:5 But the LORD had told Ahijah, "Jeroboam's wife is coming to ask you about her son, for he is ill, and you are to give her such and such an answer. When she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else."

1Ki 14:6 So when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps at the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why this pretense? I have been sent to you with bad news.

1Ki 14:7 Go, tell Jeroboam that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I raised you up from among the people and made you a leader over my people Israel.'

1Ki 14:8 I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you, but you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commands and followed me with all his heart, doing only what was right in my eyes.

1Ki 14:9 You have done more evil than all who lived before you. You have made for yourself other gods, idols made of metal; you have provoked me to anger and thrust me behind your back.

1Ki 14:10 "Because of this, I am going to bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off from Jeroboam every last male in Israel-- slave or free. I will burn up the house of Jeroboam as one burns dung, until it is all gone.

1Ki 14:11 Dogs will eat those belonging to Jeroboam who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country. The LORD has spoken!"

1Ki 14:12 "As for you, go back home. When you set foot in your city, the boy will die.

1Ki 14:13 All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only one belonging to Jeroboam who will be buried, because he is the only one in the house of Jeroboam in whom the LORD, the God of Israel, has found anything good.

1Ki 14:14 "The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who will cut off the family of Jeroboam. This is the day! What? Yes, even now.

1Ki 14:15 And the LORD will strike Israel, so that it will be like a reed swaying in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land that he gave to their forefathers and scatter them beyond the River, because they provoked the LORD to anger by making Asherah poles.

1Ki 14:16 And he will give Israel up because of the sins Jeroboam has committed and has caused Israel to commit."

1Ki 14:17 Then Jeroboam's wife got up and left and went to Tirzah. As soon as she stepped over the threshold of the house, the boy died.

1Ki 14:18 They buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, as the LORD had said through his servant the prophet Ahijah.

1Ki 14:19 The other events of Jeroboam's reign, his wars and how he ruled, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

1Ki 14:20 He reigned for twenty-two years and then rested with his fathers. And Nadab his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 14:21 Rehoboam son of Solomon was king in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.

1Ki 14:22 Judah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. By the sins they committed they stirred up his jealous anger more than their fathers had done.

1Ki 14:23 They also set up for themselves high places, sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

1Ki 14:24 There were even male shrine prostitutes in the land; the people engaged in all the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

1Ki 14:25 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem.

1Ki 14:26 He carried off the treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including all the gold shields Solomon had made.

1Ki 14:27 So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.

1Ki 14:28 Whenever the king went to the LORD's temple, the guards bore the shields, and afterward they returned them to the guardroom.

1Ki 14:29 As for the other events of Rehoboam's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

1Ki 14:30 There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

1Ki 14:31 And Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite. And Abijah his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 15:1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijah became king of Judah, 1Ki 15:2 and he reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

1Ki 15:3 He committed all the sins his father had done before him; his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his forefather had been.

1Ki 15:4 Nevertheless, for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up a son to succeed him and by making Jerusalem strong.

1Ki 15:5 For David had done what was right in the eyes of the LORD and had not failed to keep any of the LORD's commands all the days of his life-- except in the case of Uriah the Hittite.

1Ki 15:6 There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout [Abijah's] lifetime.

1Ki 15:7 As for the other events of Abijah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

1Ki 15:8 And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Asa his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 15:9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah, 1Ki 15:10 and he reigned in Jerusalem forty-one years. His grandmother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

1Ki 15:11 Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as his father David had done.

1Ki 15:12 He expelled the male shrine prostitutes from the land and got rid of all the idols his fathers had made.

1Ki 15:13 He even deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole. Asa cut the pole down and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

1Ki 15:14 Although he did not remove the high places, Asa's heart was fully committed to the LORD all his life.

1Ki 15:15 He brought into the temple of the LORD the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.

1Ki 15:16 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

1Ki 15:17 Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

1Ki 15:18 Asa then took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of his own palace. He entrusted it to his officials and sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.

1Ki 15:19 "Let there be a treaty between me and you," he said, "as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you a gift of silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so he will withdraw from me."

1Ki 15:20 Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. He conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah and all Kinnereth in addition to Naphtali.

1Ki 15:21 When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and withdrew to Tirzah.

1Ki 15:22 Then King Asa issued an order to all Judah-- no one was exempt-- and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using there. With them King Asa built up Geba in Benjamin, and also Mizpah.

1Ki 15:23 As for all the other events of Asa's reign, all his achievements, all he did and the cities he built, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? In his old age, however, his feet became diseased.

1Ki 15:24 Then Asa rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his father David. And Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 15:25 Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

1Ki 15:26 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of his father and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

1Ki 15:27 Baasha son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar plotted against him, and he struck him down at Gibbethon, a Philistine town, while Nadab and all Israel were besieging it.

1Ki 15:28 Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Judah and succeeded him as king.

1Ki 15:29 As soon as he began to reign, he killed Jeroboam's whole family. He did not leave Jeroboam anyone that breathed, but destroyed them all, according to the word of the LORD given through his servant Ahijah the Shilonite--

1Ki 15:30 because of the sins Jeroboam had committed and had caused Israel to commit, and because he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger.

1Ki 15:31 As for the other events of Nadab's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Ki 15:32 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

1Ki 15:33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of all Israel in Tirzah, and he reigned twenty-four years.

1Ki 15:34 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

1Ki 16:1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha:

1Ki 16:2 "I lifted you up from the dust and made you leader of my people Israel, but you walked in the ways of Jeroboam and caused my people Israel to sin and to provoke me to anger by their sins.

1Ki 16:3 So I am about to consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat.

1Ki 16:4 Dogs will eat those belonging to Baasha who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country."

1Ki 16:5 As for the other events of Baasha's reign, what he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:6 Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah. And Elah his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 16:7 Moreover, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani to Baasha and his house, because of all the evil he had done in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger by the things he did, and becoming like the house of Jeroboam-- and also because he destroyed it.

1Ki 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah two years.

1Ki 16:9 Zimri, one of his officials, who had command of half his chariots, plotted against him. Elah was in Tirzah at the time, getting drunk in the home of Arza, the man in charge of the palace at Tirzah.

1Ki 16:10 Zimri came in, struck him down and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah. Then he succeeded him as king.

1Ki 16:11 As soon as he began to reign and was seated on the throne, he killed off Baasha's whole family. He did not spare a single male, whether relative or friend.

1Ki 16:12 So Zimri destroyed the whole family of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken against Baasha through the prophet Jehu--

1Ki 16:13 because of all the sins Baasha and his son Elah had committed and had caused Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.

1Ki 16:14 As for the other events of Elah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned in Tirzah seven days. The army was encamped near Gibbethon, a Philistine town.

1Ki 16:16 When the Israelites in the camp heard that Zimri had plotted against the king and murdered him, they proclaimed Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that very day there in the camp.

1Ki 16:17 Then Omri and all the Israelites with him withdrew from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah.

1Ki 16:18 When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the royal palace and set the palace on fire around him. So he died, 1Ki 16:19 because of the sins he had committed, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD and walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in the sin he had committed and had caused Israel to commit.

1Ki 16:20 As for the other events of Zimri's reign, and the rebellion he carried out, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:21 Then the people of Israel were split into two factions; half supported Tibni son of Ginath for king, and the other half supported Omri.

1Ki 16:22 But Omri's followers proved stronger than those of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

1Ki 16:23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.

1Ki 16:24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver and built a city on the hill, calling it Samaria, after Shemer, the name of the former owner of the hill.

1Ki 16:25 But Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD and sinned more than all those before him.

1Ki 16:26 He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.

1Ki 16:27 As for the other events of Omri's reign, what he did and the things he achieved, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:28 Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Ahab his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 16:29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria over Israel twenty-two years.

1Ki 16:30 Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the LORD than any of those before him.

1Ki 16:31 He not only considered it trivial to commit the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, but he also married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and began to serve Baal and worship him.

1Ki 16:32 He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he built in Samaria.

1Ki 16:33 Ahab also made an Asherah pole and did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than did all the kings of Israel before him.

1Ki 16:34 In Ahab's time, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundations at the cost of his firstborn son Abiram, and he set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by Joshua son of Nun.

1Ki 17:1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word."

1Ki 17:2 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah:

1Ki 17:3 "Leave here, turn eastward and hide in the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan.

1Ki 17:4 You will drink from the brook, and I have ordered the ravens to feed you there."

1Ki 17:5 So he did what the LORD had told him. He went to the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan, and stayed there.

1Ki 17:6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

1Ki 17:7 Some time later the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land.

1Ki 17:8 Then the word of the LORD came to him:

1Ki 17:9 "Go at once to Zarephath of Sidon and stay there. I have commanded a widow in that place to supply you with food."

1Ki 17:10 So he went to Zarephath. When he came to the town gate, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and asked, "Would you bring me a little water in a jar so I may have a drink?"

1Ki 17:11 As she was going to get it, he called, "And bring me, please, a piece of bread."

1Ki 17:12 "As surely as the LORD your God lives," she replied, "I don't have any bread-- only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it-- and die."

1Ki 17:13 Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small cake of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son."

1Ki 17:14 For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the LORD gives rain on the land.'"

1Ki 17:15 She went away and did as Elijah had told her. So there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family.

1Ki 17:16 For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the LORD spoken by Elijah.

1Ki 17:17 Some time later the son of the woman who owned the house became ill. He grew worse and worse, and finally stopped breathing.

1Ki 17:18 She said to Elijah, "What do you have against me, man of God? Did you come to remind me of my sin and kill my son?"

1Ki 17:19 "Give me your son," Elijah replied. He took him from her arms, carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his bed.

1Ki 17:20 Then he cried out to the LORD, "O LORD my God, have you brought tragedy also upon this widow I am staying with, by causing her son to die?"

1Ki 17:21 Then he stretched himself out on the boy three times and cried to the LORD, "O LORD my God, let this boy's life return to him!"

1Ki 17:22 The LORD heard Elijah's cry, and the boy's life returned to him, and he lived.

1Ki 17:23 Elijah picked up the child and carried him down from the room into the house. He gave him to his mother and said, "Look, your son is alive!"

1Ki 17:24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD from your mouth is the truth."

1Ki 18:1 After a long time, in the third year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah: "Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land."

1Ki 18:2 So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria,

1Ki 18:3 and Ahab had summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of his palace. (Obadiah was a devout believer in the LORD.)

1Ki 18:4 While Jezebel was killing off the LORD's prophets, Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and hidden them in two caves, fifty in each, and had supplied them with food and water.)

1Ki 18:5 Ahab had said to Obadiah, "Go through the land to all the springs and valleys. Maybe we can find some grass to keep the horses and mules alive so we will not have to kill any of our animals."

1Ki 18:6 So they divided the land they were to cover, Ahab going in one direction and Obadiah in another.

1Ki 18:7 As Obadiah was walking along, Elijah met him. Obadiah recognized him, bowed down to the ground, and said, "Is it really you, my lord Elijah?"

1Ki 18:8 "Yes," he replied. "Go tell your master, 'Elijah is here.'"

1Ki 18:9 "What have I done wrong," asked Obadiah, "that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to be put to death?"

1Ki 18:10 As surely as the LORD your God lives, there is not a nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to look for you. And whenever a nation or kingdom claimed you were not there, he made them swear they could not find you.

1Ki 18:11 But now you tell me to go to my master and say, 'Elijah is here.'

1Ki 18:12 I don't know where the Spirit of the LORD may carry you when I leave you. If I go and tell Ahab and he doesn't find you, he will kill me. Yet I your servant have worshiped the LORD since my youth.

1Ki 18:13 Haven't you heard, my lord, what I did while Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD? I hid a hundred of the LORD's prophets in two caves, fifty in each, and supplied them with food and water.

1Ki 18:14 And now you tell me to go to my master and say, 'Elijah is here.' He will kill me!"

1Ki 18:15 Elijah said, "As the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, I will surely present myself to Ahab today."

1Ki 18:16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

1Ki 18:17 When he saw Elijah, he said to him, "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"

1Ki 18:18 "I have not made trouble for Israel," Elijah replied. "But you and your father's family have. You have abandoned the LORD's commands and have followed the Baals."

1Ki 18:19 Now summon the people from all over Israel to meet me on Mount Carmel. And bring the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

1Ki 18:20 So Ahab sent word throughout all Israel and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel.

1Ki 18:21 Elijah went before the people and said, "How long will you waver between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal is God, follow him." But the people said nothing.

1Ki 18:22 Then Elijah said to them, "I am the only one of the LORD's prophets left, but Baal has four hundred and fifty prophets.

1Ki 18:23 Get two bulls for us. Let them choose one for themselves, and let them cut it into pieces and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood but not set fire to it.

1Ki 18:24 Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The god who answers by fire-- he is God." Then all the people said, "What you say is good."

1Ki 18:25 Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one of the bulls and prepare it first, since there are so many of you. Call on the name of your god, but do not light the fire."

1Ki 18:26 So they took the bull given them and prepared it. Then they called on the name of Baal from morning till noon. "O Baal, answer us!" they shouted. But there was no response; no one answered. And they danced around the altar they had made.

1Ki 18:27 At noon Elijah began to taunt them. "Shout louder!" he said. "Surely he is a god! Perhaps he is deep in thought, or busy, or traveling. Maybe he is sleeping and must be awakened."

1Ki 18:28 So they shouted louder and slashed themselves with swords and spears, as was their custom, until their blood flowed.

1Ki 18:29 Midday passed, and they continued their frantic prophesying until the time for the evening sacrifice. But there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention.

1Ki 18:30 Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come here to me." They came to him, and he repaired the altar of the LORD, which was in ruins.

1Ki 18:31 Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes descended from Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Your name shall be Israel."

1Ki 18:32 With the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD, and he dug a trench around it large enough to hold two seahs of seed.

1Ki 18:33 He arranged the wood, cut the bull into pieces and laid it on the wood. Then he said to them, "Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the offering and on the wood."

1Ki 18:34 "Do it again," he said, and they did it again. "Do it a third time," he ordered, and they did it the third time.

1Ki 18:35 The water ran down around the altar and even filled the trench.

1Ki 18:36 At the time of sacrifice, the prophet Elijah stepped forward and prayed: "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your command.

1Ki 18:37 Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so these people will know that you, O LORD, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back again."

1Ki 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones and the soil, and also licked up the water in the trench.

1Ki 18:39 When all the people saw this, they fell prostrate and cried, "The LORD-- he is God! The LORD-- he is God!"

1Ki 18:40 Then Elijah commanded them, "Seize the prophets of Baal. Don't let anyone get away!" They seized them, and Elijah had them brought down to the Kishon Valley and slaughtered there.

1Ki 18:41 And Elijah said to Ahab, "Go, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a heavy rain."

1Ki 18:42 So Ahab went off to eat and drink, but Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent down to the ground and put his face between his knees.

1Ki 18:43 "Go and look toward the sea," he told his servant. And he went up and looked. "There is nothing there," he said. Seven times Elijah said, "Go back."

1Ki 18:44 The seventh time the servant reported, "A cloud as small as a man's hand is rising from the sea." So Elijah said, "Go and tell Ahab, 'Hitch up your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.'"

1Ki 18:45 Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, a heavy rain came on and Ahab rode off to Jezreel.

1Ki 18:46 The power of the LORD came upon Elijah and, tucking his cloak into his belt, he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

1Ki 19:1 Now Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.

1Ki 19:2 So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, "May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them."

1Ki 19:3 Elijah was afraid and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there,

1Ki 19:4 while he himself went a day's journey into the desert. He came to a broom tree, sat down under it and prayed that he might die. "I have had enough, LORD," he said. "Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors."

1Ki 19:5 Then he lay down under the tree and fell asleep. All at once an angel touched him and said, "Get up and eat."

1Ki 19:6 He looked around, and there by his head was a cake of bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again.

1Ki 19:7 The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, "Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you."

1Ki 19:8 So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he traveled forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

1Ki 19:9 There he went into a cave and spent the night. And the word of the LORD came to him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

1Ki 19:10 He replied, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too."

1Ki 19:11 The LORD said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by." Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

1Ki 19:12 After the earthquake came a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper.

1Ki 19:13 When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave. Then a voice said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

1Ki 19:14 He replied, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too."

1Ki 19:15 The LORD said to him, "Go back the way you came, and go to the Desert of Damascus. When you get there, anoint Hazael king over Aram.

1Ki 19:16 Also, anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet.

1Ki 19:17 Jehu will put to death any who escape the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death any who escape the sword of Jehu.

1Ki 19:18 Yet I reserve seven thousand in Israel-- all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and all whose mouths have not kissed him."

1Ki 19:19 So Elijah went from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. He was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen, and he himself was driving the twelfth pair. Elijah went up to him and threw his cloak around him.

1Ki 19:20 Elisha then left his oxen and ran after Elijah. "Let me kiss my father and mother good-by," he said, "and then I will come with you." "Go back," Elijah replied. "What have I done to you?"

1Ki 19:21 So Elisha left him and went back. He took his yoke of oxen and slaughtered them. He burned the plowing equipment to cook the meat and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out to follow Elijah and became his attendant.

1Ki 20:1 Now Ben-Hadad king of Aram mustered his entire army. Accompanied by thirty-two kings with their horses and chariots, he went up and besieged Samaria and attacked it.

1Ki 20:2 He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, saying, "This is what Ben-Hadad says:

1Ki 20:3 'Your silver and gold are mine, and the best of your wives and children are mine.'"

1Ki 20:4 The king of Israel answered, "Just as you say, my lord the king. I and all I have are yours."

1Ki 20:5 The messengers came again and said, "This is what Ben-Hadad says: 'I sent to demand your silver and gold, your wives and your children.'

1Ki 20:6 But about this time tomorrow I am going to send my officials to search your palace and the houses of your officials. They will seize everything you value and carry it away."

1Ki 20:7 The king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said to them, "See how this man is looking for trouble! When he sent for my wives and my children, my silver and my gold, I did not refuse him."

1Ki 20:8 The elders and the people all answered, "Don't listen to him or agree to his demands."

1Ki 20:9 So he replied to Ben-Hadad's messengers, "Tell my lord the king, 'Your servant will do all you demanded the first time, but this demand I cannot meet.'" They left and took the answer back to Ben-Hadad.

1Ki 20:10 Then Ben-Hadad sent another message to Ahab: "May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if enough dust remains in Samaria to give each of my men a handful."

1Ki 20:11 The king of Israel answered, "Tell him: 'One who puts on his armor should not boast like one who takes it off.'"

1Ki 20:12 Ben-Hadad heard this message while he and the kings were drinking in their tents, and he ordered his men: "Prepare to attack." So they prepared to attack the city.

1Ki 20:13 Meanwhile a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and announced, "This is what the LORD says: 'Do you see this vast army? I will give it into your hand today, and then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

1Ki 20:14 "But who will do this?" asked Ahab. The prophet replied, "This is what the LORD says: 'The young officers of the provincial commanders will do it.'" "And who will start the battle?" he asked. The prophet answered, "You will."

1Ki 20:15 So Ahab summoned the young officers of the provincial commanders, 232 men. Then he assembled the rest of the Israelites, 7,000 in all.

1Ki 20:16 They set out at noon while Ben-Hadad and the 32 kings allied with him were in their tents getting drunk.

1Ki 20:17 The young officers of the provincial commanders went out first. Now Ben-Hadad had dispatched scouts, who reported, "Men are advancing from Samaria."

1Ki 20:18 He said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive."

1Ki 20:19 The young officers of the provincial commanders marched out of the city with the army behind them

1Ki 20:20 and each one struck down his opponent. At that, the Arameans fled, with the Israelites in pursuit. But Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of his horsemen.

1Ki 20:21 The king of Israel advanced and overpowered the horses and chariots and inflicted heavy losses on the Arameans.

1Ki 20:22 Afterward, the prophet came to the king of Israel and said, "Strengthen your position and see what must be done, because next spring the king of Aram will attack you again."

1Ki 20:23 Meanwhile, the officials of the king of Aram advised him, "Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were too strong for us. But if we fight them on the plains, surely we will be stronger than they."

1Ki 20:24 Do this: Remove all the kings from their commands and replace them with other officers.

1Ki 20:25 You must also raise an army like the one you lost-- horse for horse and chariot for chariot-- so we can fight Israel on the plains. Then surely we will be stronger than they." He agreed with them and acted accordingly.

1Ki 20:26 The next spring Ben-Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

1Ki 20:27 When the Israelites were also mustered and given provisions, they marched out to meet them. The Israelites camped opposite them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans covered the countryside.

1Ki 20:28 The man of God came up and told the king of Israel, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because the Arameans think the LORD is a god of the hills and not a god of the valleys, I will deliver this vast army into your hands, and you will know that I am the LORD.'"

1Ki 20:29 For seven days they camped opposite each other, and on the seventh day the battle was joined. The Israelites inflicted a hundred thousand casualties on the Aramean foot soldiers in one day.

1Ki 20:30 The rest of them escaped to the city of Aphek, where the wall collapsed on twenty-seven thousand of them. And Ben-Hadad fled to the city and hid in an inner room.

1Ki 20:31 His officials said to him, "Look, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful. Let us go to the king of Israel with sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads. Perhaps he will spare your life."

1Ki 20:32 Wearing sackcloth around their waists and ropes around their heads, they went to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says: 'Please let me live.'" The king answered, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

1Ki 20:33 The men took this as a good sign and were quick to pick up his word. "Yes, your brother Ben-Hadad!" they said. "Go and get him," the king said. When Ben-Hadad came out, Ahab had him come up into his chariot.

1Ki 20:34 "I will return the cities my father took from your father," Ben-Hadad offered. "You may set up your own market areas in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria." [Ahab said,] "On the basis of a treaty I will set you free." So he made a treaty with him, and let him go.

1Ki 20:35 By the word of the LORD one of the sons of the prophets said to his companion, "Strike me with your weapon," but the man refused.

1Ki 20:36 So the prophet said, "Because you have not obeyed the LORD, as soon as you leave me a lion will kill you." And after the man went away, a lion found him and killed him.

1Ki 20:37 The prophet found another man and said, "Strike me, please." So the man struck him and wounded him.

1Ki 20:38 Then the prophet went and stood by the road waiting for the king. He disguised himself with his headband down over his eyes.

1Ki 20:39 As the king passed by, the prophet called out to him, "Your servant went into the thick of the battle, and someone came to me with a captive and said, 'Guard this man. If he is missing, it will be your life for his life, or you must pay a talent of silver.'

1Ki 20:40 While your servant was busy here and there, the man disappeared." "That is your sentence," the king of Israel said. "You have pronounced it yourself."

1Ki 20:41 Then the prophet quickly removed the headband from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

1Ki 20:42 He said to the king, "This is what the LORD says: 'You have set free a man I had determined should die. Therefore it is your life for his life, your people for his people.'"

1Ki 20:43 Sullen and angry, the king of Israel went to his palace in Samaria.

1Ki 21:1 Some time later there was an incident involving a vineyard belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite. The vineyard was in Jezreel, close to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

1Ki 21:2 Ahab said to Naboth, "Let me have your vineyard to use for a vegetable garden, since it is close to my palace. In exchange I will give you a better vineyard or, if you prefer, I will pay you whatever it is worth."

1Ki 21:3 But Naboth replied, "The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers."

1Ki 21:4 So Ahab went home, sullen and angry because Naboth the Jezreelite had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He lay on his bed sulking and refused to eat.

1Ki 21:5 His wife Jezebel came in and asked him, "Why are you so sullen? Why won't you eat?"

1Ki 21:6 He answered her, "Because I said to Naboth the Jezreelite, 'Sell me your vineyard; or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard in its place.' But he said, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

1Ki 21:7 Jezebel his wife said, "Is this how you act as king over Israel? Get up and eat! Cheer up. I'll get you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

1Ki 21:8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, placed his seal on them, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city with him.

1Ki 21:9 In those letters she wrote: "Proclaim a day of fasting and seat Naboth in a prominent place among the people."

1Ki 21:10 But seat two scoundrels opposite him and have them testify that he has cursed both God and the king. Then take him out and stone him to death."

1Ki 21:11 So the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city did as Jezebel directed in the letters she had written to them.

1Ki 21:12 They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

1Ki 21:13 Then two scoundrels came and sat opposite him and brought charges against Naboth before the people, saying, "Naboth has cursed both God and the king." So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death.

1Ki 21:14 Then they sent word to Jezebel: "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

1Ki 21:15 As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, "Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite that he refused to sell you. He is no longer alive, but dead."

1Ki 21:16 When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up and went down to take possession of Naboth's vineyard.

1Ki 21:17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

1Ki 21:18 "Go down to meet Ahab King of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He is now in Naboth's vineyard, where he has gone to take possession of it.

1Ki 21:19 Say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: Have you not murdered a man and seized his property? Then say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: In the place where dogs licked up Naboth's blood, dogs will lick up your blood-- yes, yours!'"

1Ki 21:20 Ahab said to Elijah, "So you have found me, my enemy!" "I have found you," he answered, "because you have sold yourself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD."

1Ki 21:21 "I am going to bring disaster on you. I will consume your descendants and cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel-- slave or free.

1Ki 21:22 I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat and that of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked me to anger and have caused Israel to sin."

1Ki 21:23 "And also concerning Jezebel the LORD says: 'Dogs will devour Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.'

1Ki 21:24 "Dogs will eat those belonging to Ahab who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country."

1Ki 21:25 (There was never a man like Ahab, who sold himself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, urged on by Jezebel his wife.)

1Ki 21:26 He behaved in the vilest manner by going after idols, like the Amorites the LORD drove out before Israel.)

1Ki 21:27 When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and fasted. He lay in sackcloth and went around meekly.

1Ki 21:28 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

1Ki 21:29 "Have you noticed how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself, I will not bring this disaster in his day, but I will bring it on his house in the days of his son."

1Ki 22:1 For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel.

1Ki 22:2 But in the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to see the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:3 The king of Israel had said to his officials, "Don't you know that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us and yet we are doing nothing to retake it from the king of Aram?"

1Ki 22:4 So he asked Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

1Ki 22:5 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, "First seek the counsel of the LORD."

1Ki 22:6 So the king of Israel brought together the prophets-- about four hundred men-- and asked them, "Shall I go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" "Go," they answered, "for the Lord will give it into the king's hand."

1Ki 22:7 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can inquire of?"

1Ki 22:8 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man through whom we can inquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah." "The king should not say that," Jehoshaphat replied.

1Ki 22:9 So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, "Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once."

1Ki 22:10 Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them.

1Ki 22:11 Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns and he declared, "This is what the LORD says: 'With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.'"

1Ki 22:12 All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. "Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious," they said, "for the LORD will give it into the king's hand."

1Ki 22:13 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favorably."

1Ki 22:14 But Micaiah said, "As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what the LORD tells me."

1Ki 22:15 When he arrived, the king asked him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" "Attack and be victorious," he answered, "for the LORD will give it into the king's hand."

1Ki 22:16 The king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

1Ki 22:17 Then Micaiah answered, "I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, 'These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.'"

1Ki 22:18 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?"

1Ki 22:19 Micaiah continued, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the host of heaven standing around him on his right and on his left."

1Ki 22:20 And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?' "One suggested this, and another that.

1Ki 22:21 Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, 'I will entice him.'

1Ki 22:22 "By what means?" the LORD asked. "I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets," he said. "You will succeed in enticing him," said the LORD. 'Go and do it.'

1Ki 22:23 "So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you."

1Ki 22:24 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?" he asked.

1Ki 22:25 Micaiah replied, "You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room."

1Ki 22:26 The king of Israel then ordered, "Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king's son

1Ki 22:27 and say, 'This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.'"

1Ki 22:28 Micaiah declared, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he added, "Mark my words, all you people!"

1Ki 22:29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

1Ki 22:30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

1Ki 22:31 Now the king of Aram had ordered his thirty-two chariot commanders, "Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel."

1Ki 22:32 When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, "Surely this is the king of Israel." So they turned to attack him, but when Jehoshaphat cried out, 1Ki 22:33 the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel and stopped pursuing him.

1Ki 22:34 But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armor. The king told his chariot driver, "Wheel around and get me out of the fighting. I've been wounded."

1Ki 22:35 All day long the battle raged, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. The blood from his wound ran onto the floor of the chariot, and that evening he died.

1Ki 22:36 As the sun was setting, a cry spread through the army: "Every man to his town; everyone to his land!"

1Ki 22:37 So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried him there.

1Ki 22:38 They washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria (where the prostitutes bathed), and the dogs licked up his blood, as the word of the LORD had declared.

1Ki 22:39 As for the other events of Ahab's reign, including all he did, the palace he built and inlaid with ivory, and the cities he fortified, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Ki 22:40 Ahab rested with his fathers. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

1Ki 22:41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

1Ki 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

1Ki 22:43 In everything he walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. The high places, however, were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

1Ki 22:44 Jehoshaphat was also at peace with the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:45 As for the other events of Jehoshaphat's reign, the things he achieved and his military exploits, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

1Ki 22:46 He rid the land of the rest of the male shrine prostitutes who remained there even after the reign of his father Asa.

1Ki 22:47 There was then no king in Edom; a deputy ruled.

1Ki 22:48 Now Jehoshaphat built a fleet of trading ships to go to Ophir for gold, but they never set sail-- they were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

1Ki 22:49 At that time Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my men sail with your men," but Jehoshaphat refused.

1Ki 22:50 Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of David his father. And Jehoram his son succeeded him.

1Ki 22:51 Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

1Ki 22:52 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, because he walked in the ways of his father and mother and in the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

1Ki 22:53 He served and worshiped Baal and provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, just as his father had done.

2Ki 1:1 After Ahab's death, Moab rebelled against Israel.

2Ki 1:2 Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So he sent messengers, saying to them, "Go and consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, to see if I will recover from this injury."

2Ki 1:3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Go up and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going off to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?'

2Ki 1:4 Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'You will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!'" So Elijah went.

2Ki 1:5 When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you come back?"

2Ki 1:6 "A man came to meet us," they replied. "And he said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending men to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!'" "

2Ki 1:7 The king asked them, "What kind of man was it who came to meet you and told you this?"

2Ki 1:8 They replied, "He was a man with a garment of hair and with a leather belt around his waist." The king said, "That was Elijah the Tishbite."

2Ki 1:9 Then he sent to Elijah a captain with his company of fifty men. The captain went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down!'"

2Ki 1:10 Elijah answered the captain, "If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!" Then fire fell from heaven and consumed the captain and his men.

2Ki 1:11 At this the king sent to Elijah another captain with his fifty men. The captain said to him, "Man of God, this is what the king says, 'Come down at once!'"

2Ki 1:12 "If I am a man of God," Elijah replied, "may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!" Then the fire of God fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

2Ki 1:13 So the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. This third captain went up and fell on his knees before Elijah. "Man of God," he begged, "please have respect for my life and the lives of these fifty men, your servants!"

2Ki 1:14 See, fire has fallen from heaven and consumed the first two captains and all their men. But now have respect for my life!"

2Ki 1:15 The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

2Ki 1:16 He told the king, "This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel for you to consult that you have sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!"

2Ki 1:17 So he died, according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken. Because Ahaziah had no son, Joram succeeded him as king in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

2Ki 1:18 As for all the other events of Ahaziah's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 2:1 When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal.

2Ki 2:2 Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; the LORD has sent me to Bethel." But Elisha said, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

2Ki 2:3 The company of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?" "Yes, I know," Elisha replied, "but do not speak of it."

2Ki 2:4 Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, Elisha; the LORD has sent me to Jericho." And he replied, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho.

2Ki 2:5 The company of the prophets at Jericho went up to Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?" "Yes, I know," he replied, "but do not speak of it."

2Ki 2:6 Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." And he replied, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So the two of them walked on.

2Ki 2:7 Fifty men of the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan.

2Ki 2:8 Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

2Ki 2:9 When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?" "Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit," Elisha replied.

2Ki 2:10 "You have asked a difficult thing," Elijah said, "yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours-- otherwise not."

2Ki 2:11 As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind.

2Ki 2:12 Elisha saw this and cried out, "My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!" And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them apart.

2Ki 2:13 He picked up the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

2Ki 2:14 Then he took the cloak that had fallen from him and struck the water with it. "Where now is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over.

2Ki 2:15 The company of the prophets from Jericho, who were watching, said, "The spirit of Elijah is resting on Elisha." And they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.

2Ki 2:16 "Look," they said, "we your servants have fifty able men. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has picked him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley." "No," Elisha replied, "do not send them."

2Ki 2:17 But they persisted until he was too ashamed to refuse. So he said, "Send them." And they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him.

2Ki 2:18 When they returned to Elisha, who was staying in Jericho, he said to them, "Didn't I tell you not to go?"

2Ki 2:19 The men of the city said to Elisha, "Look, our lord, this town is well situated, as you can see, but the water is bad and the land is unproductive."

2Ki 2:20 "Bring me a new bowl," he said, "and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.

2Ki 2:21 Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt into it, saying, "This is what the LORD says: 'I have healed this water. Never again will it cause death or make the land unproductive.'"

2Ki 2:22 And the water has remained wholesome to this day, according to the word Elisha had spoken.

2Ki 2:23 From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, some youths came out of the town and jeered at him. "Go on up, you baldhead!" they said. "Go on up, you baldhead!"

2Ki 2:24 He turned around, looked at them and called down a curse on them in the name of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

2Ki 2:25 And he went on to Mount Carmel and from there returned to Samaria.

2Ki 3:1 Joram son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned twelve years.

2Ki 3:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father and mother had done. He got rid of the sacred stone of Baal that his father had made.

2Ki 3:3 Nevertheless he clung to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he did not turn away from them.

2Ki 3:4 Now Mesha king of Moab raised sheep, and he had to supply the king of Israel with a hundred thousand lambs and with the wool of a hundred thousand rams.

2Ki 3:5 But after Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

2Ki 3:6 So at that time King Joram set out from Samaria and mobilized all Israel.

2Ki 3:7 He also sent this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?" "I will go with you," he replied. "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

2Ki 3:8 "By what route shall we attack?" he asked. "Through the Desert of Edom," he answered.

2Ki 3:9 So the king of Israel set out with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout march of seven days, the army had no more water for themselves or for the animals with them.

2Ki 3:10 "What!" exclaimed the king of Israel. "Has the LORD called us three kings together only to hand us over to Moab?"

2Ki 3:11 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD through him?" An officer of the king of Israel answered, "Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He used to pour water on the hands of Elijah."

2Ki 3:12 Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

2Ki 3:13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What do we have to do with each other? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother." "No," the king of Israel answered, "because it was the LORD who called us three kings together to hand us over to Moab."

2Ki 3:14 Elisha said, "As surely as the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, if I did not have respect for the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you or even notice you.

2Ki 3:15 But now bring me a harpist." While the harpist was playing, the hand of the LORD came upon Elisha 2Ki 3:16 and he said, "This is what the LORD says: Make this valley full of ditches.

2Ki 3:17 For this is what the LORD says: You will see neither wind nor rain, yet this valley will be filled with water, and you, your cattle and your other animals will drink.

2Ki 3:18 This is an easy thing in the eyes of the LORD; he will also hand Moab over to you.

2Ki 3:19 You will overthrow every fortified city and every major town. You will cut down every good tree, stop up all the springs, and ruin every good field with stones."

2Ki 3:20 The next morning, about the time for offering the sacrifice, there it was-- water flowing from the direction of Edom! And the land was filled with water.

2Ki 3:21 Now all the Moabites had heard that the kings had come to fight against them; so every man, young and old, who could bear arms was called up and stationed on the border.

2Ki 3:22 When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water. To the Moabites across the way, the water looked red-- like blood.

2Ki 3:23 "That's blood!" they said. "Those kings must have fought and slaughtered each other. Now to the plunder, Moab!"

2Ki 3:24 But when the Moabites came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and fought them until they fled. And the Israelites invaded the land and slaughtered the Moabites.

2Ki 3:25 They destroyed the towns, and each man threw a stone on every good field until it was covered. They stopped up all the springs and cut down every good tree. Only Kir Hareseth was left with its stones in place, but men armed with slings surrounded it and attacked it as well.

2Ki 3:26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle had gone against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed.

2Ki 3:27 Then he took his firstborn son, who was to succeed him as king, and offered him as a sacrifice on the city wall. The fury against Israel was great; they withdrew and returned to their own land.

2Ki 4:1 The wife of a man from the company of the prophets cried out to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that he revered the LORD. But now his creditor is coming to take my two boys as his slaves."

2Ki 4:2 Elisha replied to her, "How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?" "Your servant has nothing there at all," she said, "except a little oil."

2Ki 4:3 Elisha said, "Go around and ask all your neighbors for empty jars. Don't ask for just a few.

2Ki 4:4 Then go inside and shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour oil into all the jars, and as each is filled, put it to one side."

2Ki 4:5 She left him and afterward shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her and she kept pouring.

2Ki 4:6 When all the jars were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another one." But he replied, "There is not a jar left." Then the oil stopped flowing.

2Ki 4:7 She went and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left."

2Ki 4:8 One day Elisha went to Shunem. And a well-to-do woman was there, who urged him to stay for a meal. So whenever he came by, he stopped there to eat.

2Ki 4:9 She said to her husband, "I know that this man who often comes our way is a holy man of God.

2Ki 4:10 Let's make a small room on the roof and put in it a bed and a table, a chair and a lamp for him. Then he can stay there whenever he comes to us."

2Ki 4:11 One day when Elisha came, he went up to his room and lay down there.

2Ki 4:12 He said to his servant Gehazi, "Call the Shunammite." So he called her, and she stood before him.

2Ki 4:13 Elisha said to him, "Tell her, 'You have gone to all this trouble for us. Now what can be done for you? Can we speak on your behalf to the king or the commander of the army?'" She replied, "I have a home among my own people."

2Ki 4:14 "What can be done for her?" Elisha asked. Gehazi said, "Well, she has no son and her husband is old."

2Ki 4:15 Then Elisha said, "Call her." So he called her, and she stood in the doorway.

2Ki 4:16 "About this time next year," Elisha said, "you will hold a son in your arms." "No, my lord," she objected. "Don't mislead your servant, O man of God!"

2Ki 4:17 But the woman became pregnant, and the next year about that same time she gave birth to a son, just as Elisha had told her.

2Ki 4:18 The child grew, and one day he went out to his father, who was with the reapers.

2Ki 4:19 "My head! My head!" he said to his father. His father told a servant, "Carry him to his mother."

2Ki 4:20 After the servant had lifted him up and carried him to his mother, the boy sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.

2Ki 4:21 She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, then shut the door and went out.

2Ki 4:22 She called her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and a donkey so I can go to the man of God quickly and return."

2Ki 4:23 "Why go to him today?" he asked. "It's not the New Moon or the Sabbath." "It's all right," she said.

2Ki 4:24 She saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Lead on; don't slow down for me unless I tell you."

2Ki 4:25 So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When he saw her in the distance, the man of God said to his servant Gehazi, "Look! There's the Shunammite!

2Ki 4:26 Run to meet her and ask her, 'Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your child all right?'" "Everything is all right," she said.

2Ki 4:27 When she reached the man of God at the mountain, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi came over to push her away, but the man of God said, "Leave her alone! She is in bitter distress, but the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me why."

2Ki 4:28 "Did I ask you for a son, my lord?" she said. "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't raise my hopes'?"

2Ki 4:29 Elisha said to Gehazi, "Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand and run. If you meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer. Lay my staff on the boy's face."

2Ki 4:30 But the child's mother said, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So he got up and followed her.

2Ki 4:31 Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the boy's face, but there was no sound or response. So Gehazi went back to meet Elisha and told him, "The boy has not awakened."

2Ki 4:32 When Elisha reached the house, there was the boy lying dead on his couch.

2Ki 4:33 He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed to the LORD.

2Ki 4:34 Then he got on the bed and lay upon the boy, mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, hands to hands. As he stretched himself out upon him, the boy's body grew warm.

2Ki 4:35 Elisha turned away and walked back and forth in the room and then got on the bed and stretched out upon him once more. The boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

2Ki 4:36 Elisha summoned Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite." And he did. When she came, he said, "Take your son."

2Ki 4:37 She came in, fell at his feet and bowed to the ground. Then she took her son and went out.

2Ki 4:38 Elisha returned to Gilgal and there was a famine in that region. While the company of the prophets was meeting with him, he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot and cook some stew for these men."

2Ki 4:39 One of them went out into the fields to gather herbs and found a wild vine. He gathered some of its gourds and filled the fold of his cloak. When he returned, he cut them up into the pot of stew, though no one knew what they were.

2Ki 4:40 The stew was poured out for the men, but as they began to eat it, they cried out, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.

2Ki 4:41 Elisha said, "Get some flour." He put it into the pot and said, "Serve it to the people to eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

2Ki 4:42 A man came from Baal Shalishah, bringing the man of God twenty loaves of barley bread baked from the first ripe grain, along with some heads of new grain. "Give it to the people to eat," Elisha said.

2Ki 4:43 "How can I set this before a hundred men?" his servant asked. But Elisha answered, "Give it to the people to eat. For this is what the LORD says: 'They will eat and have some left over.'"

2Ki 4:44 Then he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

2Ki 5:1 Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the LORD had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy.

2Ki 5:2 Now bands from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman's wife.

2Ki 5:3 She said to her mistress, "If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

2Ki 5:4 Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said.

2Ki 5:5 "By all means, go," the king of Aram replied. "I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold and ten sets of clothing.

2Ki 5:6 The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: "With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy."

2Ki 5:7 As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, "Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!"

2Ki 5:8 When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: "Why have you torn your robes? Have the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel."

2Ki 5:9 So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house.

2Ki 5:10 Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, "Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed."

2Ki 5:11 But Naaman went away angry and said, "I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy.

2Ki 5:12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than any of the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them and be cleansed?" So he turned and went off in a rage.

2Ki 5:13 Naaman's servants went to him and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, 'Wash and be cleansed'!"

2Ki 5:14 So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

2Ki 5:15 Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. He stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. Please accept now a gift from your servant."

2Ki 5:16 The prophet answered, "As surely as the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will not accept a thing." And even though Naaman urged him, he refused.

2Ki 5:17 "If you will not," said Naaman, "please let me, your servant, be given as much earth as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will never again make burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god but the LORD.

2Ki 5:18 But may the LORD forgive your servant for this one thing: When my master enters the temple of Rimmon to bow down and he is leaning on my arm and I bow there also-- when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant for this."

2Ki 5:19 "Go in peace," Elisha said. After Naaman had traveled some distance,

2Ki 5:20 Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, "My master was too easy on Naaman, this Aramean, by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him."

2Ki 5:21 So Gehazi hurried after Naaman. When Naaman saw him running toward him, he got down from the chariot to meet him. "Is everything all right?" he asked.

2Ki 5:22 "Everything is all right," Gehazi answered. "My master sent me to say, 'Two young men from the company of the prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two sets of clothing.'"

2Ki 5:23 "By all means, take two talents," said Naaman. He urged Gehazi to accept them, and then tied up the two talents of silver in two bags, with two sets of clothing. He gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them ahead of Gehazi.

2Ki 5:24 When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the things from the servants and put them away in the house. He sent the men away and they left.

2Ki 5:25 Then he went in and stood before his master Elisha. "Where have you been, Gehazi?" Elisha asked. "Your servant didn't go anywhere," Gehazi answered.

2Ki 5:26 But Elisha said to him, "Was not my spirit with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to take money, or to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, flocks, herds, or menservants and maidservants?

2Ki 5:27 Naaman's leprosy will cling to you and to your descendants forever." Then Gehazi went from Elisha's presence and he was leprous, as white as snow.

2Ki 6:1 The company of the prophets said to Elisha, "Look, the place where we meet with you is too small for us.

2Ki 6:2 Let us go to the Jordan, where each of us can get a pole; and let us build a place there for us to live." And he said, "Go."

2Ki 6:3 Then one of them said, "Won't you please come with your servants?" "I will," Elisha replied.

2Ki 6:4 And he went with them. They went to the Jordan and began to cut down trees.

2Ki 6:5 As one of them was cutting down a tree, the iron axhead fell into the water. "Oh, my lord," he cried out, "it was borrowed!"

2Ki 6:6 The man of God asked, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, Elisha cut a stick and threw it there, and made the iron float.

2Ki 6:7 "Lift it out," he said. Then the man reached out his hand and took it.

2Ki 6:8 Now the king of Aram was at war with Israel. After conferring with his officers, he said, "I will set up my camp in such and such a place."

2Ki 6:9 The man of God sent word to the king of Israel: "Beware of passing that place, because the Arameans are going down there."

2Ki 6:10 So the king of Israel checked on the place indicated by the man of God. Time and again Elisha warned the king, so that he was on his guard in such places.

2Ki 6:11 This enraged the king of Aram. He summoned his officers and demanded of them, "Will you not tell me which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?"

2Ki 6:12 "None of us, my lord the king," said one of his officers, "but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the very words you speak in your bedroom."

2Ki 6:13 "Go, find out where he is," the king ordered, "so I can send men and capture him." The report came back: "He is in Dothan."

2Ki 6:14 Then he sent horses and chariots and a strong force there. They went by night and surrounded the city.

2Ki 6:15 When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. "Oh, my lord, what shall we do?" the servant asked.

2Ki 6:16 "Don't be afraid," the prophet answered. "Those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

2Ki 6:17 And Elisha prayed, "O LORD, open his eyes so he may see." Then the LORD opened the servant's eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

2Ki 6:18 As the enemy came down toward him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, "Strike these people with blindness." So he struck them with blindness, as Elisha had asked.

2Ki 6:19 Elisha told them, "This is not the road and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you are looking for." And he led them to Samaria.

2Ki 6:20 After they entered the city, Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men so they can see." Then the LORD opened their eyes and they looked, and there they were, inside Samaria.

2Ki 6:21 When the king of Israel saw them, he asked Elisha, "Shall I kill them, my father? Shall I kill them?"

2Ki 6:22 "Do not kill them," he answered. "Would you kill men you have captured with your own sword or bow? Set food and water before them so that they may eat and drink and then go back to their master."

2Ki 6:23 So he prepared a great feast for them, and after they had finished eating and drinking, he sent them away, and they returned to their master. So the bands from Aram stopped raiding Israel's territory.

2Ki 6:24 Some time later, Ben-Hadad king of Aram mobilized his entire army and marched up and laid siege to Samaria.

2Ki 6:25 There was a great famine in the city; the siege lasted so long that a donkey's head sold for eighty shekels of silver, and a quarter of a cab of seed pods for five shekels.

2Ki 6:26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, "Help me, my lord the king!"

2Ki 6:27 The king replied, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor? From the winepress?"

2Ki 6:28 Then he asked her, "What's the matter?" She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give up your son so we may eat him today, and tomorrow we'll eat my son.'

2Ki 6:29 So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, 'Give up your son so we may eat him,' but she had hidden him."

2Ki 6:30 When the king heard the woman's words, he tore his robes. As he went along the wall, the people looked, and there, underneath, he had sackcloth on his body.

2Ki 6:31 He said, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today!"

2Ki 6:32 Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a messenger ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the elders, "Don't you see how this murderer is sending someone to cut off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it shut against him. Is not the sound of his master's footsteps behind him?"

2Ki 6:33 While he was still talking to them, the messenger came down to him. And [the king] said, "This disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

2Ki 7:1 Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the LORD says: About this time tomorrow, a seah of flour will sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria."

2Ki 7:2 The officer on whose arm the king was leaning said to the man of God, "Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?" "You will see it with your own eyes," answered Elisha, "but you will not eat any of it!"

2Ki 7:3 Now there were four men with leprosy at the entrance of the city gate. They said to each other, "Why stay here until we die?"

2Ki 7:4 If we say, 'We'll go into the city'-- the famine is there, and we will die. And if we stay here, we will die. So let's go over to the camp of the Arameans and surrender. If they spare us, we live; if they kill us, then we die."

2Ki 7:5 At dusk they got up and went to the camp of the Arameans. When they reached the edge of the camp, not a man was there,

2Ki 7:6 for the Lord had caused the Arameans to hear the sound of chariots and horses and a great army, so that they said to one another, "Look, the king of Israel has hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings to attack us!"

2Ki 7:7 So they got up and fled in the dusk and abandoned their tents and their horses and donkeys. They left the camp as it was and ran for their lives.

2Ki 7:8 The men who had leprosy reached the edge of the camp and entered one of the tents. They ate and drank, and carried away silver, gold and clothes, and went off and hid them. They returned and entered another tent and took some things from it and hid them also.

2Ki 7:9 Then they said to each other, "We're not doing right. This is a day of good news and we are keeping it to ourselves. If we wait until daylight, punishment will overtake us. Let's go at once and report this to the royal palace."

2Ki 7:10 So they went and called out to the city gatekeepers and told them, "We went into the Aramean camp and not a man was there-- not a sound of anyone-- only tethered horses and donkeys, and the tents left just as they were."

2Ki 7:11 The gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported within the palace.

2Ki 7:12 The king got up in the night and said to his officers, "I will tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know we are starving; so they have left the camp to hide in the countryside, thinking, 'They will surely come out, and then we will take them alive and get into the city.'"

2Ki 7:13 One of his officers answered, "Have some men take five of the horses that are left in the city. Their plight will be like that of all the Israelites left here-- yes, they will only be like all these Israelites who are doomed. So let us send them to find out what happened."

2Ki 7:14 So they selected two chariots with their horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army. He commanded the drivers, "Go and find out what has happened."

2Ki 7:15 They followed them as far as the Jordan, and they found the whole road strewn with the clothing and equipment the Arameans had thrown away in their headlong flight. So the messengers returned and reported to the king.

2Ki 7:16 Then the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So a seah of flour sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley sold for a shekel, as the LORD had said.

2Ki 7:17 Now the king had put the officer on whose arm he leaned in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died, just as the man of God had foretold when the king came down to his house.

2Ki 7:18 It happened as the man of God had said to the king: "About this time tomorrow, a seah of flour will sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria."

2Ki 7:19 The officer had said to the man of God, "Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?" The man of God had replied, "You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it!"

2Ki 7:20 And that is exactly what happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died.

2Ki 8:1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, "Go away with your family and stay for a while wherever you can, because the LORD has decreed a famine in the land that will last seven years."

2Ki 8:2 The woman proceeded to do as the man of God said. She and her family went away and stayed in the land of the Philistines seven years.

2Ki 8:3 At the end of the seven years she came back from the land of the Philistines and went to the king to beg for her house and land.

2Ki 8:4 The king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, and had said, "Tell me about all the great things Elisha has done."

2Ki 8:5 Just as Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had restored the dead to life, the woman whose son Elisha had brought back to life came to beg the king for her house and land. Gehazi said, "This is the woman, my lord the king, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life."

2Ki 8:6 The king asked the woman about it, and she told him. Then he assigned an official to her case and said to him, "Give back everything that belonged to her, including all the income from her land from the day she left the country until now."

2Ki 8:7 Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram was ill. When the king was told, "The man of God has come all the way up here,"

2Ki 8:8 he said to Hazael, "Take a gift with you and go to meet the man of God. Consult the LORD through him; ask him, 'Will I recover from this illness?'"

2Ki 8:9 Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him as a gift forty camel-loads of all the finest wares of Damascus. He went in and stood before him, and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to ask, 'Will I recover from this illness?'"

2Ki 8:10 Elisha answered, "Go and say to him, 'You will certainly recover'; but the LORD has revealed to me that he will in fact die."

2Ki 8:11 He stared at him with a fixed gaze until Hazael felt ashamed. Then the man of God began to weep.

2Ki 8:12 "Why is my lord weeping?" asked Hazael. "Because I know the harm you will do to the Israelites," he answered. "You will set fire to their fortified places, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little children to the ground, and rip open their pregnant women."

2Ki 8:13 Hazael said, "How could your servant, a mere dog, accomplish such a feat?" "The LORD has shown me that you will become king of Aram," answered Elisha.

2Ki 8:14 Then Hazael left Elisha and returned to his master. When Ben-Hadad asked, "What did Elisha say to you?" Hazael replied, "He told me that you would certainly recover."

2Ki 8:15 But the next day he took a thick cloth, soaked it in water and spread it over the king's face, so that he died. Then Hazael succeeded him as king.

2Ki 8:16 In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, when Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat began his reign as king of Judah.

2Ki 8:17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years.

2Ki 8:18 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ki 8:19 Nevertheless, for the sake of his servant David, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah. He had promised to maintain a lamp for David and his descendants forever.

2Ki 8:20 In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king.

2Ki 8:21 So Jehoram went to Zair with all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night; his army, however, fled back home.

2Ki 8:22 To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah. Libnah revolted at the same time.

2Ki 8:23 As for the other events of Jehoram's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 8:24 Jehoram rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 8:25 In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2Ki 8:26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

2Ki 8:27 He walked in the ways of the house of Ahab and did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was related by marriage to Ahab's family.

2Ki 8:28 Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram;

2Ki 8:29 so King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramoth in his battle with Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because he had been wounded.

2Ki 9:1 The prophet Elisha summoned a man from the company of the prophets and said to him, "Tuck your cloak into your belt, take this flask of oil with you and go to Ramoth Gilead.

2Ki 9:2 When you get there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go to him, get him away from his companions and take him into an inner room.

2Ki 9:3 Then take the flask and pour the oil on his head and declare, 'This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and run; don't delay!"

2Ki 9:4 So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.

2Ki 9:5 When he arrived, he found the army officers sitting together. "I have a message for you, commander," he said. "For which of us?" asked Jehu. "For you, commander," he replied.

2Ki 9:6 Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on Jehu's head and declared, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I anoint you king over the LORD's people Israel.'

2Ki 9:7 You are to destroy the house of Ahab your master, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the LORD's servants shed by Jezebel.

2Ki 9:8 The whole house of Ahab will perish. I will cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel-- slave or free.

2Ki 9:9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.

2Ki 9:10 As for Jezebel, dogs will devour her on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and no one will bury her." Then he opened the door and ran.

2Ki 9:11 When Jehu went out to his fellow officers, one of them asked him, "Is everything all right? Why did this madman come to you?" "You know the man and the sort of things he says," Jehu replied.

2Ki 9:12 "That's not true!" they said. "Tell us." Jehu said, "Here is what he told me: 'This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.'"

2Ki 9:13 They hurried and took their cloaks and spread them under him on the bare steps. Then they blew the trumpet and shouted, "Jehu is king!"

2Ki 9:14 So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram and all Israel had been defending Ramoth Gilead against Hazael king of Aram, 2Ki 9:15 but King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him in the battle with Hazael king of Aram.) Jehu said, "If this is the way you feel, don't let anyone slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel."

2Ki 9:16 Then he got into his chariot and rode to Jezreel, because Joram was resting there and Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to see him.

2Ki 9:17 When the lookout standing on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu's troops approaching, he called out, "I see some troops coming." "Get a horseman," Joram ordered. "Send him to meet them and ask, 'Do you come in peace?'"

2Ki 9:18 The horseman rode off to meet Jehu and said, "This is what the king says: 'Do you come in peace?'" "What do you have to do with peace?" Jehu replied. "Fall in behind me." The lookout reported, "The messenger has reached them, but he isn't coming back."

2Ki 9:19 So the king sent out a second horseman. When he came to them he said, "This is what the king says: 'Do you come in peace?'" Jehu replied, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

2Ki 9:20 The lookout reported, "He has reached them, but he isn't coming back either. The driving is like that of Jehu son of Nimshi-- he drives like a madman."

2Ki 9:21 "Hitch up my chariot," Joram ordered. And when it was hitched up, Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah rode out, each in his own chariot, to meet Jehu. They met him at the plot of ground that had belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite.

2Ki 9:22 When Joram saw Jehu he asked, "Have you come in peace, Jehu?" "How can there be peace," Jehu replied, "as long as all the idolatry and witchcraft of your mother Jezebel abound?"

2Ki 9:23 Joram turned about and fled, calling out to Ahaziah, "Treachery, Ahaziah!"

2Ki 9:24 Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow pierced his heart and he slumped down in his chariot.

2Ki 9:25 Jehu said to Bidkar, his chariot officer, "Pick him up and throw him on the field that belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember how you and I were riding together in chariots behind Ahab his father when the LORD made this prophecy about him:

2Ki 9:26 'Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons, declares the LORD, and I will surely make you pay for it on this plot of ground, declares the LORD.' Now then, pick him up and throw him on that plot, in accordance with the word of the LORD."

2Ki 9:27 When Ahaziah king of Judah saw what had happened, he fled up the road to Beth Haggan. Jehu chased him, shouting, "Kill him too!" They wounded him in his chariot on the way up to Gur near Ibleam, but he escaped to Megiddo and died there.

2Ki 9:28 His servants took him by chariot to Jerusalem and buried him with his fathers in his tomb in the City of David.

2Ki 9:29 (In the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king of Judah.)

2Ki 9:30 Then Jehu went to Jezreel. When Jezebel heard about it, she painted her eyes, arranged her hair and looked out of a window.

2Ki 9:31 As Jehu entered the gate, she asked, "Have you come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master?"

2Ki 9:32 He looked up at the window and called out, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked down at him.

2Ki 9:33 "Throw her down!" Jehu said. So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered the wall and the horses as they trampled her underfoot.

2Ki 9:34 Jehu went in and ate and drank. "Take care of that cursed woman," he said, "and bury her, for she was a king's daughter."

2Ki 9:35 But when they went out to bury her, they found nothing except her skull, her feet and her hands.

2Ki 9:36 They went back and told Jehu, who said, "This is the word of the LORD that he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite: On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs will devour Jezebel's flesh.

2Ki 9:37 Jezebel's body will be like refuse on the ground in the plot at Jezreel, so that no one will be able to say, 'This is Jezebel.'

2Ki 10:1 Now there were in Samaria seventy sons of the house of Ahab. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria: to the officials of Jezreel, to the elders and to the guardians of Ahab's children. He said,

2Ki 10:2 "As soon as this letter reaches you, since your master's sons are with you and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons,

2Ki 10:3 choose the best and most worthy of your master's sons and set him on his father's throne. Then fight for your master's house."

2Ki 10:4 But they were terrified and said, "If two kings could not resist him, how can we?"

2Ki 10:5 So the palace administrator, the city governor, the elders and the guardians sent this message to Jehu: "We are your servants and we will do anything you say. We will not appoint anyone as king; you do whatever you think best."

2Ki 10:6 Then Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are on my side and will obey me, take the heads of your master's sons and come to me in Jezreel by this time tomorrow." Now the royal princes, seventy of them, were with the leading men of the city, who were rearing them.

2Ki 10:7 When the letter arrived, these men took the princes and slaughtered all seventy of them. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel.

2Ki 10:8 When the messenger arrived, he told Jehu, "They have brought the heads of the princes." Then Jehu ordered, "Put them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning."

2Ki 10:9 The next morning Jehu went out. He stood before all the people and said, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these?"

2Ki 10:10 Know then, that not a word the LORD has spoken against the house of Ahab will fail. The LORD has done what he promised through his servant Elijah."

2Ki 10:11 So Jehu killed everyone in Jezreel who remained of the house of Ahab, as well as all his chief men, his close friends and his priests, leaving him no survivor.

2Ki 10:12 Jehu then set out and went toward Samaria. At Beth Eked of the Shepherds,

2Ki 10:13 he met some relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and asked, "Who are you?" They said, "We are relatives of Ahaziah, and we have come down to greet the families of the king and of the queen mother."

2Ki 10:14 "Take them alive!" he ordered. So they took them alive and slaughtered them by the well of Beth Eked-- forty-two men. He left no survivor.

2Ki 10:15 After he left there, he came upon Jehonadab son of Recab, who was on his way to meet him. Jehu greeted him and said, "Are you in accord with me, as I am with you?" "I am," Jehonadab answered. "If so," said Jehu, "give me your hand." So he did, and Jehu helped him up into the chariot.

2Ki 10:16 Jehu said, "Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD." Then he had him ride along in his chariot.

2Ki 10:17 When Jehu came to Samaria, he killed all who were left there of Ahab's family; he destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD spoken to Elijah.

2Ki 10:18 Then Jehu brought all the people together and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much.

2Ki 10:19 Now summon all the prophets of Baal, all his ministers and all his priests. See that no one is missing, because I am going to hold a great sacrifice for Baal. Anyone who fails to come will no longer live." But Jehu was acting deceptively in order to destroy the ministers of Baal.

2Ki 10:20 Jehu said, "Call an assembly in honor of Baal." So they proclaimed it.

2Ki 10:21 Then he sent word throughout Israel, and all the ministers of Baal came; not one stayed away. They crowded into the temple of Baal until it was full from one end to the other.

2Ki 10:22 And Jehu said to the keeper of the wardrobe, "Bring robes for all the ministers of Baal." So he brought out robes for them.

2Ki 10:23 Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Recab went into the temple of Baal. Jehu said to the ministers of Baal, "Look around and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you-- only ministers of Baal."

2Ki 10:24 So they went in to make sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had posted eighty men outside with this warning: "If one of you lets any of the men I am placing in your hands escape, it will be your life for his life."

2Ki 10:25 As soon as Jehu had finished making the burnt offering, he ordered the guards and officers: "Go in and kill them; let no one escape." So they cut them down with the sword. The guards and officers threw the bodies out and then entered the inner shrine of the temple of Baal.

2Ki 10:26 They brought the sacred stone out of the temple of Baal and burned it.

2Ki 10:27 They demolished the sacred stone of Baal and tore down the temple of Baal, and people have used it for a latrine to this day.

2Ki 10:28 So Jehu destroyed Baal worship in Israel.

2Ki 10:29 However, he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit-- the worship of the golden calves at Bethel and Dan.

2Ki 10:30 The LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in accomplishing what is right in my eyes and have done to the house of Ahab all I had in mind to do, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."

2Ki 10:31 Yet Jehu was not careful to keep the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2Ki 10:32 In those days the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel. Hazael overpowered the Israelites throughout their territory

2Ki 10:33 east of the Jordan in all the land of Gilead (the region of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh), from Aroer by the Arnon Gorge through Gilead to Bashan.

2Ki 10:34 As for the other events of Jehu's reign, all he did, and all his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 10:35 Jehu rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 10:36 The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2Ki 11:1 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family.

2Ki 11:2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes, who were about to be murdered. She put him and his nurse in a bedroom to hide him from Athaliah; so he was not killed.

2Ki 11:3 He remained hidden with his nurse at the temple of the LORD for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

2Ki 11:4 In the seventh year Jehoiada sent for the commanders of units of a hundred, the Carites and the guards and had them brought to him at the temple of the LORD. He made a covenant with them and put them under oath at the temple of the LORD. Then he showed them the king's son.

2Ki 11:5 He commanded them, saying, "This is what you are to do: You who are in the three companies that are going on duty on the Sabbath-- a third of you guarding the royal palace,

2Ki 11:6 a third at the Sur Gate, and a third at the gate behind the guard, who take turns guarding the temple--

2Ki 11:7 and you who are in the other two companies that normally go off Sabbath duty are all to guard the temple for the king.

2Ki 11:8 Station yourselves around the king, each man with his weapon in his hand. Anyone who approaches your ranks must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes."

2Ki 11:9 The commanders of units of a hundred did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men-- those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty-- and came to Jehoiada the priest.

2Ki 11:10 Then he gave the commanders the spears and shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 11:11 The guards, each with his weapon in his hand, stationed themselves around the king-- near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

2Ki 11:12 Jehoiada brought out the king's son and put the crown on him; he presented him with a copy of the covenant and proclaimed him king. They anointed him, and the people clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

2Ki 11:13 When Athaliah heard the noise made by the guards and the people, she went to the people at the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 11:14 She looked and there was the king, standing by the pillar, as the custom was. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her robes and called out, "Treason! Treason!"

2Ki 11:15 Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops: "Bring her out between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her." For the priest had said, "She must not be put to death in the temple of the LORD."

2Ki 11:16 So they seized her as she reached the place where the horses enter the palace grounds, and there she was put to death.

2Ki 11:17 Jehoiada then made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people that they would be the LORD's people. He also made a covenant between the king and the people.

2Ki 11:18 All the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols to pieces and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars. Then Jehoiada the priest posted guards at the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 11:19 He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guards and all the people of the land, and together they brought the king down from the temple of the LORD and went into the palace, entering by way of the gate of the guards. The king then took his place on the royal throne, 2Ki 11:20 and all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword at the palace.

2Ki 11:21 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign.

2Ki 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu, Joash became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba.

2Ki 12:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

2Ki 12:3 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2Ki 12:4 Joash said to the priests, "Collect all the money that is brought as sacred offerings to the temple of the LORD-- the money collected in the census, the money received from personal vows and the money brought voluntarily to the temple.

2Ki 12:5 Let every priest receive the money from one of the treasurers, and let it be used to repair whatever damage is found in the temple."

2Ki 12:6 But by the twenty-third year of King Joash the priests still had not repaired the temple.

2Ki 12:7 Therefore King Joash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and asked them, "Why aren't you repairing the damage done to the temple? Take no more money from your treasurers, but hand it over for repairing the temple."

2Ki 12:8 The priests agreed that they would not collect any more money from the people and that they would not repair the temple themselves.

2Ki 12:9 Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid. He placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the temple of the LORD. The priests who guarded the entrance put into the chest all the money that was brought to the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 12:10 Whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the royal secretary and the high priest came, counted the money that had been brought into the temple of the LORD and put it into bags.

2Ki 12:11 When the amount had been determined, they gave the money to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. With it they paid those who worked on the temple of the LORD-- the carpenters and builders, 2Ki 12:12 the masons and stonecutters. They purchased timber and dressed stone for the repair of the temple of the LORD, and met all the other expenses of restoring the temple.

2Ki 12:13 The money brought into the temple was not spent for making silver basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, trumpets or any other articles of gold or silver for the temple of the LORD;

2Ki 12:14 it was paid to the workmen, who used it to repair the temple.

2Ki 12:15 They did not require an accounting from those to whom they gave the money to pay the workers, because they acted with complete honesty.

2Ki 12:16 The money from the guilt offerings and sin offerings was not brought into the temple of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

2Ki 12:17 About this time Hazael king of Aram went up and attacked Gath and captured it. Then he turned to attack Jerusalem.

2Ki 12:18 But Joash king of Judah took all the sacred objects dedicated by his fathers-- Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, the kings of Judah-- and the gifts he himself had dedicated and all the gold found in the treasures of the temple of the LORD and of the royal palace, and he sent them to Hazael king of Aram, who then withdrew from Jerusalem.

2Ki 12:19 As for the other events of the reign of Joash, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 12:20 His officials conspired against him and assassinated him at Beth Millo, on the road down to Silla.

2Ki 12:21 The officials who murdered him were Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer. He died and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 13:1 In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years.

2Ki 13:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD by following the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit, and he did not turn away from them.

2Ki 13:3 So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and for a long time he kept them under the power of Hazael king of Aram and Ben-Hadad his son.

2Ki 13:4 Then Jehoahaz sought the LORD's favor, and the LORD listened to him, for he saw how severely the king of Aram was oppressing Israel.

2Ki 13:5 The LORD provided a deliverer for Israel, and they escaped from the power of Aram. So the Israelites lived in their own homes as they had before.

2Ki 13:6 But they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit; they continued in them. Also, the Asherah pole remained standing in Samaria.

2Ki 13:7 Nothing had been left of the army of Jehoahaz except fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Aram had destroyed the rest and made them like the dust at threshing time.

2Ki 13:8 As for the other events of the reign of Jehoahaz, all he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 13:9 Jehoahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoash his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years.

2Ki 13:11 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he continued in them.

2Ki 13:12 As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, all he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 13:13 Jehoash rested with his fathers, and Jeroboam succeeded him on the throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

2Ki 13:14 Now Elisha was suffering from the illness from which he died. Jehoash king of Israel went down to see him and wept over him. "My father! My father!" he cried. "The chariots and horsemen of Israel!"

2Ki 13:15 Elisha said, "Get a bow and some arrows," and he did so.

2Ki 13:16 "Take the bow in your hands," he said to the king of Israel. When he had taken it, Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.

2Ki 13:17 "Open the east window," he said, and he opened it. "Shoot!" Elisha said, and he shot. "The LORD's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram!" Elisha declared. "You will completely destroy the Arameans at Aphek."

2Ki 13:18 Then he said, "Take the arrows," and the king took them. Elisha told him, "Strike the ground." He struck it three times and stopped.

2Ki 13:19 The man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. But now you will defeat it only three times."

2Ki 13:20 Elisha died and was buried. Now Moabite raiders used to enter the country every spring.

2Ki 13:21 Once while some Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a band of raiders; so they threw the man's body into Elisha's tomb. When the body touched Elisha's bones, the man came to life and stood up on his feet.

2Ki 13:22 Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz.

2Ki 13:23 But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion and showed concern for them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. To this day he has been unwilling to destroy them or banish them from his presence.

2Ki 13:24 Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 13:25 Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz recaptured from Ben-Hadad son of Hazael the towns he had taken in battle from his father Jehoahaz. Three times Jehoash defeated him, and so he recovered the Israelite towns.

2Ki 14:1 In the second year of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah began to reign.

2Ki 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddin; she was from Jerusalem.

2Ki 14:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father David had done. In everything he followed the example of his father Joash.

2Ki 14:4 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2Ki 14:5 After the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king.

2Ki 14:6 Yet he did not put the sons of the assassins to death, in accordance with what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses where the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins."

2Ki 14:7 He was the one who defeated ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and captured Sela in battle, calling it Joktheel, the name it has to this day.

2Ki 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, with the challenge: "Come, meet me face to face."

2Ki 14:9 But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot.

2Ki 14:10 You have indeed defeated Edom and now you are arrogant. Glory in your victory, but stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?"

2Ki 14:11 Amaziah, however, would not listen, so Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah.

2Ki 14:12 Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

2Ki 14:13 Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash went to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate-- a section about six hundred feet long.

2Ki 14:14 He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace. He also took hostages and returned to Samaria.

2Ki 14:15 As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, what he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 14:16 Jehoash rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 14:17 Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

2Ki 14:18 As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 14:19 They conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.

2Ki 14:20 He was brought back by horse and was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers, in the City of David.

2Ki 14:21 Then all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

2Ki 14:22 He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

2Ki 14:23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Jehoash king of Israel became king in Samaria, and he reigned forty-one years.

2Ki 14:24 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2Ki 14:25 He was the one who restored the boundaries of Israel from Lebo Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, in accordance with the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, spoken through his servant Jonah son of Amitai, the prophet from Gath Hepher.

2Ki 14:26 The LORD had seen how bitterly everyone in Israel, whether slave or free, was suffering; there was no one to help them.

2Ki 14:27 And since the LORD had not said he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.

2Ki 14:28 As for the other events of Jeroboam's reign, all he did, and his military achievements, including how he recovered for Israel both Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Yaudi, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 14:29 Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. And Zechariah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign.

2Ki 15:2 He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem.

2Ki 15:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

2Ki 15:4 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2Ki 15:5 The LORD afflicted the king with leprosy until the day he died, and he lived in a separate house.

Jotham the king's son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

2Ki 15:6 As for the other events of Azariah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 15:7 Azariah rested with his fathers and was buried near them in the City of David. And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned six months.

2Ki 15:9 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2Ki 15:10 Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah. He attacked him in front of the people, assassinated him and succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:11 The other events of Zechariah's reign are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:12 So the word of the LORD spoken to Jehu was fulfilled: "Your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."

2Ki 15:13 Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned in Samaria one month.

2Ki 15:14 Then Menahem son of Gadi went from Tirzah up to Samaria. He attacked Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, assassinated him and succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:15 The other events of Shallum's reign, and the conspiracy he led, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:16 At that time Menahem, starting out from Tirzah, attacked Tiphsah and everyone in the city and its vicinity, because they refused to open their gates. He sacked Tiphsah and ripped open all the pregnant women.

2Ki 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria ten years.

2Ki 15:18 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. During his entire reign he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2Ki 15:19 Then Pul king of Assyria invaded the land, and Menahem gave him a thousand talents of silver to gain his support and strengthen his own hold on the kingdom.

2Ki 15:20 Menahem exacted this money from Israel. Every wealthy man had to contribute fifty shekels of silver to be given to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria withdrew and stayed in the land no longer.

2Ki 15:21 As for the other events of Menahem's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 15:22 Menahem rested with his fathers. And Pekahiah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned two years.

2Ki 15:24 Pekahiah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2Ki 15:25 One of his chief officers, Pekah son of Remaliah, conspired against him. Taking fifty men of Gilead with him, he assassinated Pekahiah, along with Argob and Arieh, in the citadel of the royal palace at Samaria. So Pekah killed Pekahiah and succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:26 The other events of Pekahiah's reign, and all he did, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned twenty years.

2Ki 15:28 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2Ki 15:29 In the time of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh and Hazor. He took Gilead and Galilee, including all the land of Naphtali, and deported the people to Assyria.

2Ki 15:30 Then Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked and assassinated him, and then succeeded him as king in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

2Ki 15:31 As for the other events of Pekah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Ki 15:32 In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah king of Judah began to reign.

2Ki 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2Ki 15:34 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done.

2Ki 15:35 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 15:36 As for the other events of Jotham's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 15:37 (In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.)

2Ki 15:38 Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David, the city of his father. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 16:1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2Ki 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2Ki 16:3 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and even sacrificed his son in the fire, following the detestable ways of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2Ki 16:4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.

2Ki 16:5 Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem and besieged Ahaz, but they could not overpower him.

2Ki 16:6 At that time, Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram by driving out the men of Judah. Edomites then moved into Elath and have lived there to this day.

2Ki 16:7 Ahaz sent messengers to say to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, "I am your servant and vassal. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Aram and of the king of Israel, who are attacking me."

2Ki 16:8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasures of the royal palace and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.

2Ki 16:9 The king of Assyria complied by attacking Damascus and capturing it. He deported its inhabitants to Kir and put Rezin to death.

2Ki 16:10 Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. He saw an altar in Damascus and sent to Uriah the priest a sketch of the altar, with detailed plans for its construction.

2Ki 16:11 So Uriah the priest built an altar in accordance with all the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus and finished it before King Ahaz returned.

2Ki 16:12 When the king came back from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached it and presented offerings on it.

2Ki 16:13 He offered up his burnt offering and grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings on the altar.

2Ki 16:14 The bronze altar that stood before the LORD he brought from the front of the temple-- from between the new altar and the temple of the LORD-- and put it on the north side of the new altar.

2Ki 16:15 King Ahaz then gave these orders to Uriah the priest: "On the large new altar, offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offering. Sprinkle on the altar all the blood of the burnt offerings and sacrifices. But I will use the bronze altar for seeking guidance."

2Ki 16:16 And Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz had ordered.

2Ki 16:17 King Ahaz took away the side panels and removed the basins from the movable stands. He removed the Sea from the bronze bulls that supported it and set it on a stone base.

2Ki 16:18 He took away the Sabbath canopy that had been built at the temple and removed the royal entryway outside the temple of the LORD, in deference to the king of Assyria.

2Ki 16:19 As for the other events of the reign of Ahaz, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 16:20 Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 17:1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years.

2Ki 17:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

2Ki 17:3 Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up to attack Hoshea, who had been Shalmaneser's vassal and had paid him tribute.

2Ki 17:4 But the king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was a traitor, for he had sent envoys to So king of Egypt, and he no longer paid tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore Shalmaneser seized him and put him in prison.

2Ki 17:5 The king of Assyria invaded the entire land, marched against Samaria and laid siege to it for three years.

2Ki 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in the towns of the Medes.

2Ki 17:7 All this took place because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of Egypt from under the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshiped other gods

2Ki 17:8 and followed the practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before them, as well as the practices that the kings of Israel had introduced.

2Ki 17:9 The Israelites secretly did things against the LORD their God that were not right. From watchtower to fortified city they built themselves high places in all their towns.

2Ki 17:10 They set up sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

2Ki 17:11 At every high place they burned incense, as the nations whom the LORD had driven out before them had done. They did wicked things that provoked the LORD to anger.

2Ki 17:12 They worshiped idols, though the LORD had said, "You shall not do this."

2Ki 17:13 The LORD warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers: "Turn from your evil ways. Observe my commands and decrees, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your fathers to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets."

2Ki 17:14 But they would not listen and were as stiff-necked as their fathers, who did not trust in the LORD their God.

2Ki 17:15 They rejected his decrees and the covenant he had made with their fathers and the warnings he had given them. They followed worthless idols and themselves became worthless. They imitated the nations around them although the LORD had ordered them, "Do not do as they do," and they did the things the LORD had forbidden them to do.

2Ki 17:16 They forsook all the commands of the LORD their God and made for themselves two idols cast in the shape of calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed down to all the starry hosts, and they worshiped Baal.

2Ki 17:17 They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. They practiced divination and sorcery and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2Ki 17:18 So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah was left, 2Ki 17:19 and even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God. They followed the practices Israel had introduced.

2Ki 17:20 Therefore the LORD rejected all the people of Israel; he afflicted them and gave them into the hands of plunderers, until he thrust them from his presence.

2Ki 17:21 When he tore Israel away from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam enticed Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit a great sin.

2Ki 17:22 The Israelites persisted in all the sins of Jeroboam and did not turn away from them

2Ki 17:23 until the LORD removed them from his presence, as he had warned through all his servants the prophets. So the people of Israel were taken from their homeland into exile in Assyria, and they are still there.

2Ki 17:24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the towns of Samaria to replace the Israelites. They took over Samaria and lived in its towns.

2Ki 17:25 When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD; so he sent lions among them and they killed some of the people.

2Ki 17:26 It was reported to the king of Assyria: "The people you deported and resettled in the towns of Samaria do not know what the god of that country requires. He has sent lions among them, which are killing them off, because the people do not know what he requires."

2Ki 17:27 Then the king of Assyria gave this order: "Have one of the priests you took captive from Samaria go back to live there and teach the people what the god of the land requires."

2Ki 17:28 So one of the priests who had been exiled from Samaria came to live in Bethel and taught them how to worship the LORD.

2Ki 17:29 Nevertheless, each national group made its own gods in the several towns where they settled, and set them up in the shrines the people of Samaria had made at the high places.

2Ki 17:30 The men from Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men from Cuthah made Nergal, and the men from Hamath made Ashima;

2Ki 17:31 the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

2Ki 17:32 They worshiped the LORD, but they also appointed all sorts of their own people to officiate for them as priests in the shrines at the high places.

2Ki 17:33 They worshiped the LORD, but they also served their own gods in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they had been brought.

2Ki 17:34 To this day they persist in their former practices. They neither worship the LORD nor adhere to the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

2Ki 17:35 When the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, he commanded them: "Do not worship any other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them."

2Ki 17:36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of Egypt with mighty power and outstretched arm, is the one you must worship. To him you shall bow down and to him offer sacrifices.

2Ki 17:37 You must always be careful to keep the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands he wrote for you. Do not worship other gods.

2Ki 17:38 Do not forget the covenant I have made with you, and do not worship other gods.

2Ki 17:39 Rather, worship the LORD your God; it is he who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."

2Ki 17:40 They would not listen, however, but persisted in their former practices.

2Ki 17:41 Even while these people were worshiping the LORD, they were serving their idols. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.

2Ki 18:1 In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2Ki 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2Ki 18:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done.

2Ki 18:4 He removed the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. (It was called Nehushtan.)

2Ki 18:5 Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, either before him or after him.

2Ki 18:6 He held fast to the LORD and did not cease to follow him; he kept the commands the LORD had given Moses.

2Ki 18:7 And the LORD was with him; he was successful in whatever he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

2Ki 18:8 From watchtower to fortified city, he defeated the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory.

2Ki 18:9 In King Hezekiah's fourth year, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched against Samaria and laid siege to it.

2Ki 18:10 At the end of three years the Assyrians took it. So Samaria was captured in Hezekiah's sixth year, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel.

2Ki 18:11 The king of Assyria deported Israel to Assyria and settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in towns of the Medes.

2Ki 18:12 This happened because they had not obeyed the LORD their God, but had violated his covenant-- all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened to the commands nor carried them out.

2Ki 18:13 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

2Ki 18:14 So Hezekiah king of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish: "I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you demand of me." The king of Assyria exacted from Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

2Ki 18:15 So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace.

2Ki 18:16 At this time Hezekiah king of Judah stripped off the gold with which he had covered the doors and doorposts of the temple of the LORD, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

2Ki 18:17 The king of Assyria sent his supreme commander, his chief officer and his field commander with a large army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They came up to Jerusalem and stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman's Field.

2Ki 18:18 They called for the king; and Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to them.

2Ki 18:19 The field commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah: "This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours?"

2Ki 18:20 You say you have strategy and military strength-- but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel against me?

2Ki 18:21 Look now, you are depending on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which pierces a man's hand and wounds him if he leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him.

2Ki 18:22 And if you say to me, "We are depending on the LORD our God"-- isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem"?

2Ki 18:23 "Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses-- if you can put riders on them!

2Ki 18:24 How can you repulse one officer of the least of my master's officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

2Ki 18:25 Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this place without word from the LORD? The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it."

2Ki 18:26 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall."

2Ki 18:27 But the commander replied, "Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the men sitting on the wall-- who, like you, will have to eat their own filth and drink their own urine?"

2Ki 18:28 Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!"

2Ki 18:29 This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you from my hand.

2Ki 18:30 Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, 'The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

2Ki 18:31 "Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and fig tree and drink water from his own cistern, 2Ki 18:32 until I come and take you to a land like your own, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey. Choose life and not death! "Do not listen to Hezekiah, for he is misleading you when he says, 'The LORD will deliver us.'

2Ki 18:33 Has the god of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

2Ki 18:34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand?

2Ki 18:35 Who of all the gods of these countries has been able to save his land from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

2Ki 18:36 But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, "Do not answer him."

2Ki 18:37 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

2Ki 19:1 When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and went into the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 19:2 He sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and the leading priests, all wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2Ki 19:3 They told him, "This is what Hezekiah says: This day is a day of distress and rebuke and disgrace, as when children come to the point of birth and there is no strength to deliver them.

2Ki 19:4 It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to ridicule the living God, and that he will rebuke him for the words the LORD your God has heard. Therefore pray for the remnant that still survives."

2Ki 19:5 When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah,

2Ki 19:6 Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid of what you have heard-- those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.'

2Ki 19:7 Listen! I am going to put such a spirit in him that when he hears a certain report, he will return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword."

2Ki 19:8 When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.

2Ki 19:9 Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the Cushite king [of Egypt], was marching out to fight against him. So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word:

2Ki 19:10 "Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says, 'Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.'

2Ki 19:11 Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered?

2Ki 19:12 Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my forefathers deliver them: the gods of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar?

2Ki 19:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, or of Hena or Ivvah?"

2Ki 19:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

2Ki 19:15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: "O LORD, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth."

2Ki 19:16 Give ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; listen to the words Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God.

2Ki 19:17 "It is true, O LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste these nations and their lands.

2Ki 19:18 They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by men's hands.

2Ki 19:19 Now, O LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all kingdoms on earth may know that you alone, O LORD, are God."

2Ki 19:20 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I have heard your prayer concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria.

2Ki 19:21 This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him: "The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you. The Daughter of Jerusalem tosses her head as you flee.

2Ki 19:22 Who is it you have insulted and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!

2Ki 19:23 By your messengers you have heaped insults on the Lord. And you have said, "With my many chariots I have ascended the heights of the mountains, the utmost heights of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its pines. I have reached its remotest parts, the finest of its forests.

2Ki 19:24 I have dug wells in foreign lands and drunk the water there. With the soles of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt."

2Ki 19:25 "Have you not heard? Long ago I ordained it. In days of old I planned it; now I have brought it to pass, that you have turned fortified cities into piles of stone.

2Ki 19:26 Their people, drained of power, are dismayed and put to shame. They are like plants in the field, like tender green shoots, like grass sprouting on the roof, scorched before it grows up.

2Ki 19:27 "But I know where you stay and when you come and go and how you rage against me.

2Ki 19:28 Because you rage against me and your insolence has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will make you return by the way you came.'

2Ki 19:29 "This will be the sign for you, O Hezekiah: "This year you will eat what grows by itself, and the second year what springs from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

2Ki 19:30 Once more a remnant of the house of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

2Ki 19:31 For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

2Ki 19:32 "Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria: "He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow here. He will not come before it with shield or build a siege ramp against it.

2Ki 19:33 By the way that he came he will return; he will not enter this city, declares the LORD.

2Ki 19:34 I will defend this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David my servant."

2Ki 19:35 That night the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning-- there were all the dead bodies!

2Ki 19:36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

2Ki 19:37 One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer cut him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 20:1 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, "This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover."

2Ki 20:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD,

2Ki 20:3 "Remember, O LORD, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

2Ki 20:4 Before Isaiah had left the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him:

2Ki 20:5 "Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of my people, 'This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the temple of the LORD.'

2Ki 20:6 I will add fifteen years to your life. And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my sake and for the sake of my servant David."

2Ki 20:7 Then Isaiah said, "Prepare a poultice of figs." They did so and applied it to the boil, and he recovered.

2Ki 20:8 Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the temple of the LORD on the third day from now?"

2Ki 20:9 Isaiah answered, "This is the LORD's sign to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or shall it go back ten steps?"

2Ki 20:10 "It is a simple matter for the shadow to go forward ten steps," said Hezekiah. "Rather, have it go back ten steps."

2Ki 20:11 Then the prophet Isaiah called upon the LORD, and the LORD made the shadow go back the ten steps it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.

2Ki 20:12 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of Hezekiah's illness.

2Ki 20:13 Hezekiah received the messengers and showed them all that was in his storehouses-- the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine oil-- his armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

2Ki 20:14 Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did those men say, and where did they come from?" "From a distant land," Hezekiah replied. "They came from Babylon."

2Ki 20:15 The prophet asked, "What did they see in your palace?" "They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."

2Ki 20:16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD:

2Ki 20:17 The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.

2Ki 20:18 And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood, that will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

2Ki 20:19 "The word of the LORD you have spoken is good," Hezekiah replied. For he thought, "Will there not be peace and security in my lifetime?"

2Ki 20:20 As for the other events of Hezekiah's reign, all his achievements and how he made the pool and the tunnel by which he brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 20:21 Hezekiah rested with his fathers. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

2Ki 21:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2Ki 21:3 He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he also erected altars to Baal and made an Asherah pole, as Ahab king of Israel had done. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshiped them.

2Ki 21:4 He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put my Name."

2Ki 21:5 In both courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts.

2Ki 21:6 He sacrificed his own son in the fire, practiced sorcery and divination, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2Ki 21:7 He took the carved Asherah pole he had made and put it in the temple, of which the LORD had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name forever.

2Ki 21:8 I will not again make the feet of the Israelites wander from the land I gave their forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them and will keep the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them."

2Ki 21:9 But the people did not listen. Manasseh led them astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

2Ki 21:10 The LORD said through his servants the prophets:

2Ki 21:11 "Manasseh king of Judah has committed these detestable sins. He has done more evil than the Amorites who preceded him and has led Judah into sin with his idols.

2Ki 21:12 Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.

2Ki 21:13 I will stretch out over Jerusalem the measuring line used against Samaria and the plumb line used against the house of Ahab. I will wipe out Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

2Ki 21:14 I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance and hand them over to their enemies. They will be looted and plundered by all their foes,

2Ki 21:15 because they have done evil in my eyes and have provoked me to anger from the day their forefathers came out of Egypt until this day."

2Ki 21:16 Moreover, Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem from end to end-- besides the sin that he had caused Judah to commit, so that they did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ki 21:17 As for the other events of Manasseh's reign, and all he did, including the sin he committed, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 21:18 Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in his palace garden, the garden of Uzza. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz; she was from Jotbah.

2Ki 21:20 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

2Ki 21:21 He walked in all the ways of his father; he worshiped the idols his father had worshiped, and bowed down to them.

2Ki 21:22 He forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

2Ki 21:23 Amon's officials conspired against him and assassinated the king in his palace.

2Ki 21:24 Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

2Ki 21:25 As for the other events of Amon's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 21:26 He was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza. And Josiah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath.

2Ki 22:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and walked in all the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

2Ki 22:3 In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah sent the secretary, Shaphan son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the temple of the LORD. He said:

2Ki 22:4 "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest and have him get ready the money that has been brought into the temple of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.

2Ki 22:5 Have them entrust it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. And have these men pay the workers who repair the temple of the LORD--

2Ki 22:6 the carpenters, the builders and the masons. Also have them purchase timber and dressed stone to repair the temple.

2Ki 22:7 But they need not account for the money entrusted to them, because they are acting faithfully."

2Ki 22:8 Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD." He gave it to Shaphan, who read it.

2Ki 22:9 Then Shaphan the secretary went to the king and reported to him: "Your officials have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the workers and supervisors at the temple."

2Ki 22:10 Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

2Ki 22:11 When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his robes.

2Ki 22:12 He gave these orders to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king's attendant:

2Ki 22:13 "Go and inquire of the LORD for me and for the people and for all Judah about what is written in this book that has been found. Great is the LORD's anger that burns against us because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written there concerning us."

2Ki 22:14 Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to speak to the prophetess Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.

2Ki 22:15 She said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me,

2Ki 22:16 'This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people, according to everything written in the book the king of Judah has read.'

2Ki 22:17 Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all the idols their hands have made, my anger will burn against this place and will not be quenched.'

2Ki 22:18 Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard:

2Ki 22:19 Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I have spoken against this place and its people, that they would become accursed and laid waste, and because you tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the LORD.'

2Ki 22:20 Therefore I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place.'" So they took her answer back to the king.

2Ki 23:1 Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:2 He went up to the temple of the LORD with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the prophets-- all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 23:3 The king stood by the pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD-- to follow the LORD and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, thus confirming the words of the covenant written in this book. Then all the people pledged themselves to the covenant.

2Ki 23:4 The king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, the priests next in rank and the doorkeepers to remove from the temple of the LORD all the articles made for Baal and Asherah and all the starry hosts. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley and took the ashes to Bethel.

2Ki 23:5 He did away with the pagan priests appointed by the kings of Judah to burn incense on the high places of the towns of Judah and on those around Jerusalem-- those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and moon, to the constellations and to all the starry hosts.

2Ki 23:6 He took the Asherah pole from the temple of the LORD to the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem and burned it there. He ground it to powder and scattered the dust over the graves of the common people.

2Ki 23:7 He also tore down the quarters of the male shrine prostitutes, which were in the temple of the LORD and where women did weaving for Asherah.

2Ki 23:8 Josiah brought all the priests from the towns of Judah and desecrated the high places, from Geba to Beersheba, where the priests had burned incense. He broke down the shrines at the gates-- at the entrance to the Gate of Joshua, the city governor, which is on the left of the city gate.

2Ki 23:9 Although the priests of the high places did not serve at the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, they ate unleavened bread with their fellow priests.

2Ki 23:10 He desecrated Topheth, which was in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, so no one could use it to sacrifice his son or daughter in the fire to Molech.

2Ki 23:11 He removed from the entrance to the temple of the LORD the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun. They were in the court near the room of an official named Nathan-Melech. Josiah then burned the chariots dedicated to the sun.

2Ki 23:12 He pulled down the altars the kings of Judah had erected on the roof near the upper room of Ahaz, and the altars Manasseh had built in the two courts of the temple of the LORD. He removed them from there, smashed them to pieces and threw the rubble into the Kidron Valley.

2Ki 23:13 The king also desecrated the high places that were east of Jerusalem on the south of the Hill of Corruption-- the ones Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the vile goddess of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the vile god of Moab, and for Molech the detestable god of the people of Ammon.

2Ki 23:14 Josiah smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles and covered the sites with human bones.

2Ki 23:15 Even the altar at Bethel, the high place made by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin-- even that altar and high place he demolished. He burned the high place and ground it to powder, and burned the Asherah pole also.

2Ki 23:16 Then Josiah looked around, and when he saw the tombs that were there on the hillside, he had the bones removed from them and burned on the altar to defile it, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by the man of God who foretold these things.

2Ki 23:17 The king asked, "What is that tombstone I see?" The men of the city said, "It marks the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and pronounced against the altar of Bethel the very things you have done to it."

2Ki 23:18 "Leave it alone," he said. "Don't let anyone disturb his bones." So they spared his bones and those of the prophet who had come from Samaria.

2Ki 23:19 Just as he had done at Bethel, Josiah removed and defiled all the shrines at the high places that the kings of Israel had built in the towns of Samaria that had provoked the LORD to anger.

2Ki 23:20 Josiah slaughtered all the priests of those high places on the altars and burned human bones on them. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:21 The king gave this order to all the people: "Celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant."

2Ki 23:22 Not since the days of the judges who led Israel, nor throughout the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah, had any such Passover been observed.

2Ki 23:23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was celebrated to the LORD in Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:24 Furthermore, Josiah got rid of the mediums and spiritists, the household gods, the idols and all the other detestable things seen in Judah and Jerusalem. This he did to fulfill the requirements of the law written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had discovered in the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 23:25 Neither before nor after Josiah was there a king like him who turned to the LORD as he did-- with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his strength, in accordance with all the Law of Moses.

2Ki 23:26 Nevertheless, the LORD did not turn away from the heat of his fierce anger, which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh had done to provoke him to anger.

2Ki 23:27 So the LORD said, "I will remove Judah also from my presence as I removed Israel, and I will reject Jerusalem, the city I chose, and this temple, about which I said, 'There shall my Name be.'"

2Ki 23:28 As for the other events of Josiah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 23:29 While Josiah was king, Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah marched out to meet him in battle, but Neco faced him and killed him at Megiddo.

2Ki 23:30 Josiah's servants brought his body in a chariot from Megiddo to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

2Ki 23:31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

2Ki 23:32 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done.

2Ki 23:33 Pharaoh Neco put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and he imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2Ki 23:34 Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt, and there he died.

2Ki 23:35 Jehoiakim paid Pharaoh Neco the silver and gold he demanded. In order to do so, he taxed the land and exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land according to their assessments.

2Ki 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah; she was from Rumah.

2Ki 23:37 And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done.

2Ki 24:1 During Jehoiakim's reign, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded the land, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. But then he changed his mind and rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar.

2Ki 24:2 The LORD sent Babylonian, Aramean, Moabite and Ammonite raiders against him. He sent them to destroy Judah, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by his servants the prophets.

2Ki 24:3 Surely these things happened to Judah according to the LORD's command, in order to remove them from his presence because of the sins of Manasseh and all he had done, 2Ki 24:4 including the shedding of innocent blood. For he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to forgive.

2Ki 24:5 As for the other events of Jehoiakim's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Ki 24:6 Jehoiakim rested with his fathers. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

2Ki 24:7 The king of Egypt did not march out from his own country again, because the king of Babylon had taken all his territory, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

2Ki 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan; she was from Jerusalem.

2Ki 24:9 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father had done.

2Ki 24:10 At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem and laid siege to it, 2Ki 24:11 and Nebuchadnezzar himself came up to the city while his officers were besieging it.

2Ki 24:12 Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his attendants, his nobles and his officials all surrendered to him. In the eighth year of the reign of the king of Babylon, he took Jehoiachin prisoner.

2Ki 24:13 As the LORD had declared, Nebuchadnezzar removed all the treasures from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace, and took away all the gold articles that Solomon king of Israel had made for the temple of the LORD.

2Ki 24:14 He carried into exile all Jerusalem: all the officers and fighting men, and all the craftsmen and artisans-- a total of ten thousand. Only the poorest people of the land were left.

2Ki 24:15 Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. He also took from Jerusalem to Babylon the king's mother, his wives, his officials and the leading men of the land.

2Ki 24:16 The king of Babylon also deported to Babylon the entire force of seven thousand fighting men, strong and fit for war, and a thousand craftsmen and artisans.

2Ki 24:17 He made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

2Ki 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

2Ki 24:19 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

2Ki 24:20 It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust them from his presence. Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2Ki 25:1 So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He encamped outside the city and built siege works all around it.

2Ki 25:2 The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

2Ki 25:3 By the ninth day of the [fourth] month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat.

2Ki 25:4 Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Babylonians were surrounding the city. They fled toward the Arabah,

2Ki 25:5 but the Babylonian army pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered, 2Ki 25:6 and he was captured. He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where sentence was pronounced on him.

2Ki 25:7 They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. Then they put out his eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

2Ki 25:8 On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, an official of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:9 He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down.

2Ki 25:10 The whole Babylonian army, under the commander of the imperial guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:11 Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile the people who remained in the city, along with the rest of the populace and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon.

2Ki 25:12 But the commander left behind some of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

2Ki 25:13 The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands and the bronze Sea that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried the bronze to Babylon.

2Ki 25:14 They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, dishes and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.

2Ki 25:15 The commander of the imperial guard took away the censers and sprinkling bowls-- all that were made of pure gold or silver.

2Ki 25:16 The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the movable stands, which Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed.

2Ki 25:17 Each pillar was twenty-seven feet high. The bronze capital on top of one pillar was four and a half feet high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its network, was similar.

2Ki 25:18 The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers.

2Ki 25:19 Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men and five royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land and sixty of his men who were found in the city.

2Ki 25:20 Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

2Ki 25:21 There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed. So Judah went into captivity, away from her land.

2Ki 25:22 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to be over the people he had left behind in Judah.

2Ki 25:23 When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah-- Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, and their men.

2Ki 25:24 Gedaliah took an oath to reassure them and their men. "Do not be afraid of the Babylonian officials," he said. "Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you."

2Ki 25:25 In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated Gedaliah and also the men of Judah and the Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah.

2Ki 25:26 At this, all the people from the least to the greatest, together with the army officers, fled to Egypt for fear of the Babylonians.

2Ki 25:27 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon, he released Jehoiachin from prison on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month.

2Ki 25:28 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

2Ki 25:29 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table.

2Ki 25:30 Day by day the king gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived.

1Ch 10:2 The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua.

1Ch 10:3 The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him.

1Ch 10:4 Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and abuse me." But his armor-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

1Ch 10:5 When the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died.

1Ch 10:6 So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

1Ch 10:7 When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.

1Ch 10:8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:9 They stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news among their idols and their people.

1Ch 10:10 They put his armor in the temple of their gods and hung up his head in the temple of Dagon.

1Ch 10:11 When all the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard of everything the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Ch 10:12 all their valiant men went and took the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh.

Then they buried their bones under the great tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

1Ch 10:13 Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD; he did not keep the word of the LORD and even consulted a medium for guidance, 1Ch 10:14 and did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

1Ch 11:1 All Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, "We are your own flesh and blood.

1Ch 11:2 In the past, even while Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD your God said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.'"

1Ch 11:3 When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, he made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel, as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

1Ch 11:4 David and all the Israelites marched to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus). The Jebusites who lived there 1Ch 11:5 said to David, "You will not get in here." Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

1Ch 11:6 David had said, "Whoever leads the attack on the Jebusites will become commander-in-chief." Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, and so he received the command.

1Ch 11:7 David then took up residence in the fortress, and so it was called the City of David.

1Ch 11:8 He built up the city around it, from the supporting terraces to the surrounding wall, while Joab restored the rest of the city.

1Ch 11:9 And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD Almighty was with him.

1Ch 11:10 These were the chiefs of David's mighty men-- they, together with all Israel, gave his kingship strong support to extend it over the whole land, as the LORD had promised--

1Ch 11:11 this is the list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam, a Hacmonite, was chief of the officers; he raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed in one encounter.

1Ch 11:12 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men.

1Ch 11:13 He was with David at Pas Dammim when the Philistines gathered there for battle. At a place where there was a field full of barley, the troops fled from the Philistines.

1Ch 11:14 But they took their stand in the middle of the field. They defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

1Ch 11:15 Three of the thirty chiefs came down to David to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

1Ch 11:16 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.

1Ch 11:17 David longed for water and said, "Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!"

1Ch 11:18 So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD.

1Ch 11:19 "God forbid that I should do this!" he said. "Should I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives?" Because they risked their lives to bring it back, David would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.

1Ch 11:20 Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three.

1Ch 11:21 He was doubly honored above the Three and became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

1Ch 11:22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab's best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

1Ch 11:23 And he struck down an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet tall. Although the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's rod in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

1Ch 11:24 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men.

1Ch 11:25 He was held in greater honor than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

1Ch 11:26 The mighty men were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

1Ch 11:27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

1Ch 11:28 Ira son of Ikkef from Tekoa, Abiezer from Anathoth,

1Ch 11:29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

1Ch 11:30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

1Ch 11:31 Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeath in Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

1Ch 11:32 Hurai from the ravines of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

1Ch 11:33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

1Ch 11:34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite,

1Ch 11:35 Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,

1Ch 11:36 Hepher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

1Ch 11:37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai,

1Ch 11:38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Hagri,

1Ch 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,

1Ch 11:40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

1Ch 11:41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad son of Ahlai,

1Ch 11:42 Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was chief of the Reubenites, and the thirty with him,

1Ch 11:43 Hanan son of Maacah, Joshaphat the Mithnite,

1Ch 11:44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

1Ch 11:45 Jediael son of Shimri, his brother Joha the Tizite,

1Ch 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, 1Ch 11:47 Eliel, Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1Ch 12:1 These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish (they were among the warriors who helped him in battle; 1Ch 12:2 they were armed with bows and were able to shoot arrows or to sling stones right-handed or left-handed; they were kinsmen of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin):

1Ch 12:3 Ahiezer their chief and Joash the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite,

1Ch 12:4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the Thirty, who was a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

1Ch 12:5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah and Shephatiah the Haruphite;

1Ch 12:6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam the Korahites;

1Ch 12:7 and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

1Ch 12:8 Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the desert. They were brave warriors, ready for battle and able to handle the shield and spear. Their faces were the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles in the mountains.

1Ch 12:9 Ezer was the chief, Obadiah the second in command, Eliab the third,

1Ch 12:10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

1Ch 12:11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

1Ch 12:12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

1Ch 12:13 Jeremiah the tenth and Macbannai the eleventh.

1Ch 12:14 These Gadites were army commanders; the least was a match for a hundred, and the greatest for a thousand.

1Ch 12:15 It was they who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to flight everyone living in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

1Ch 12:16 Other Benjamites and some men from Judah also came to David in his stronghold.

1Ch 12:17 David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come to me in peace, to help me, I am ready to have you unite with me. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies when my hands are free from violence, may the God of our fathers see it and judge you."

1Ch 12:18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said: "We are yours, O David! We are with you, O son of Jesse! Success, success to you, and success to those who help you, for your God will help you." So David received them and made them leaders of his raiding bands.

1Ch 12:19 Some of the men of Manasseh defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. (He and his men did not help the Philistines because, after consultation, their rulers sent him away. They said, "It will cost us our heads if he deserts to his master Saul.")

1Ch 12:20 When David went to Ziklag, these were the men of Manasseh who defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, leaders of units of a thousand in Manasseh.

1Ch 12:21 They helped David against raiding bands, for all of them were brave warriors, and they were commanders in his army.

1Ch 12:22 Day after day men came to help David, until he had a great army, like the army of God.

1Ch 12:23 These are the numbers of the men armed for battle who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul's kingdom over to him, as the LORD had said:

1Ch 12:24 men of Judah, carrying shield and spear-- 6,800 armed for battle;

1Ch 12:25 men of Simeon, warriors ready for battle-- 7,100;

1Ch 12:26 men of Levi-- 4,600,

1Ch 12:27 including Jehoiada, leader of the family of Aaron, with 3,700 men,

1Ch 12:28 and Zadok, a brave young warrior, with 22 officers from his family;

1Ch 12:29 men of Benjamin, Saul's kinsmen-- 3,000, most of whom had remained loyal to Saul's house until then;

1Ch 12:30 men of Ephraim, brave warriors, famous in their own clans-- 20,800;

1Ch 12:31 men of half the tribe of Manasseh, designated by name to come and make David king-- 18,000;

1Ch 12:32 men of Issachar, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do-- 200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command;

1Ch 12:33 men of Zebulun, experienced soldiers prepared for battle with every type of weapon, to help David with undivided loyalty-- 50,000;

1Ch 12:34 men of Naphtali-- 1,000 officers, together with 37,000 men carrying shields and spears;

1Ch 12:35 men of Dan, ready for battle-- 28,600;

1Ch 12:36 men of Asher, experienced soldiers prepared for battle-- 40,000;

1Ch 12:37 and from east of the Jordan, men of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, armed with every type of weapon-- 120,000.

1Ch 12:38 All these were fighting men who volunteered to serve in the ranks. They came to Hebron fully determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of the Israelites were also of one mind to make David king.

1Ch 12:39 The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking, for their families had supplied provisions for them.

1Ch 12:40 Also, their neighbors from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There were plentiful supplies of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, cattle and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

1Ch 13:1 David conferred with each of his officers, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

1Ch 13:2 He then said to the whole assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send word far and wide to the rest of our brothers throughout the territories of Israel, and also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their towns and pasturelands, to come and join us.

1Ch 13:3 Let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we did not inquire of it during the reign of Saul."

1Ch 13:4 The whole assembly agreed to do this, because it seemed right to all the people.

1Ch 13:5 So David assembled all the Israelites, from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriat Jearim.

1Ch 13:6 David and all the Israelites with him went to Baalah of Judah (Kiriat Jearim) to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who is enthroned between the cherubim-- the ark that is called by the Name.

1Ch 13:7 They moved the ark of God from Abinadab's house on a new cart, with Uzzah and Ahio guiding it.

1Ch 13:8 David and all the Israelites were celebrating with all their might before God, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.

1Ch 13:9 When they came to the threshing floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the ark, because the oxen stumbled.

1Ch 13:10 The LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he had put his hand on the ark. So he died there before God.

1Ch 13:11 Then David was angry because the LORD's wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.

1Ch 13:12 David was afraid of God that day and asked, "How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?"

1Ch 13:13 He did not take the ark to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

1Ch 13:14 The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his household and everything he had.

1Ch 14:1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters to build a palace for him.

1Ch 14:2 And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom had been highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

1Ch 14:3 In Jerusalem David took more wives and became the father of more sons and daughters.

1Ch 14:4 These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1Ch 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1Ch 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1Ch 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

1Ch 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went out to meet them.

1Ch 14:9 Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim;

1Ch 14:10 so David inquired of God: "Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?" The LORD answered him, "Go, I will hand them over to you."

1Ch 14:11 So David and his men went up to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, "As waters break out, God has broken out against my enemies by my hand." So that place was called Baal Perazim.

1Ch 14:12 The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, and David gave orders to burn them in the fire.

1Ch 14:13 Once more the Philistines raided the valley;

1Ch 14:14 so David inquired of God again, and God answered him, "Do not go straight up, but circle around them and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

1Ch 14:15 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move out to battle, because that will mean God has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army."

1Ch 14:16 So David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army, all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

1Ch 14:17 So David's fame spread throughout every land, and the LORD made all the nations fear him.

1Ch 15:1 After David had constructed buildings for himself in the City of David, he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

1Ch 15:2 Then David said, "No one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, because the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before him forever."

1Ch 15:3 David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it.

1Ch 15:4 He called together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

1Ch 15:5 From the descendants of Kohath, Uriel the leader and 120 relatives;

1Ch 15:6 from the descendants of Merari, Asaiah the leader and 220 relatives;

1Ch 15:7 from the descendants of Gershon, Joel the leader and 130 relatives;

1Ch 15:8 from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the leader and 200 relatives;

1Ch 15:9 from the descendants of Hebron, Eliel the leader and 80 relatives;

1Ch 15:10 from the descendants of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader and 112 relatives.

1Ch 15:11 Then David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab the Levites.

1Ch 15:12 He said to them, "You are the heads of the Levitical families; you and your fellow Levites are to consecrate yourselves and bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it.

1Ch 15:13 It was because you, the Levites, did not bring it up the first time that the LORD our God broke out in anger against us. We did not inquire of him about how to do it in the prescribed way."

1Ch 15:14 So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves in order to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ch 15:15 And the Levites carried the ark of God with the poles on their shoulders, as Moses had commanded in accordance with the word of the LORD.

1Ch 15:16 David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers to sing joyful songs, accompanied by musical instruments: lyres, harps and cymbals.

1Ch 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Berekiah; and from their brothers the Merarites, Ethan son of Kushiayah;

1Ch 15:18 and with them their brothers next in rank: Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.

1Ch 15:19 The musicians Heman, Asaph and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals;

1Ch 15:20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play the lyres according to alamoth, 1Ch 15:21 and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah were to play the harps, directing according to sheminith.

1Ch 15:22 Kenaniah the head Levite was in charge of the singing; that was his responsibility because he was skillful at it.

1Ch 15:23 Berekiah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the ark.

1Ch 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer the priests were to blow trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also to be doorkeepers for the ark.

1Ch 15:25 So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom, with rejoicing.

1Ch 15:26 Because God had helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams were sacrificed.

1Ch 15:27 Now David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and as were the singers, and Kenaniah, who was in charge of the singing of the choirs. David also wore a linen ephod.

1Ch 15:28 So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouts, with the sounding of rams' horns and trumpets, and of cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.

1Ch 15:29 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

1Ch 16:1 They brought the ark of God and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and they presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before God.

1Ch 16:2 After David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

1Ch 16:3 Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each Israelite man and woman.

1Ch 16:4 He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to make petition, to give thanks, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel:

1Ch 16:5 Asaph was the chief, Zechariah second, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They were to play the lyres and harps, Asaph was to sound the cymbals, 1Ch 16:6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were to blow the trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.

1Ch 16:7 That day David first committed to Asaph and his associates this psalm of thanks to the LORD:

1Ch 16:8 Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done.

1Ch 16:9 Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts.

1Ch 16:10 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

1Ch 16:11 Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.

1Ch 16:12 Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced, 1Ch 16:13 O descendants of Israel his servant, O sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

1Ch 16:14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

1Ch 16:15 He remembers his covenant forever, the word he commanded, for a thousand generations,

1Ch 16:16 the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.

1Ch 16:17 He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

1Ch 16:18 "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit."

1Ch 16:19 When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it, 1Ch 16:20 they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

1Ch 16:21 He allowed no man to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings:

1Ch 16:22 "Do not touch my anointed ones; do my prophets no harm."

1Ch 16:23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; proclaim his salvation day after day.

1Ch 16:24 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples.

1Ch 16:25 For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; he is to be feared above all gods.

1Ch 16:26 For all the gods of the nations are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

1Ch 16:27 Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and joy in his dwelling place.

1Ch 16:28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength,

1Ch 16:29 ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name. Bring an offering and come before him; worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness.

1Ch 16:30 Tremble before him, all the earth! The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

1Ch 16:31 Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!"

1Ch 16:32 Let the sea resound, and all that is in it; let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them!

1Ch 16:33 Then the trees of the forest will sing, they will sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.

1Ch 16:34 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever.

1Ch 16:35 Cry out, "Save us, O God our Savior; gather us and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name, that we may glory in your praise."

1Ch 16:36 Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Then all the people said "Amen" and "Praise the LORD."

1Ch 16:37 David left Asaph and his associates before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister there regularly, according to each day's requirements.

1Ch 16:38 He also left Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight associates to minister with them. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and also Hosah, were gatekeepers.

1Ch 16:39 David left Zadok the priest and his fellow priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place in Gibeon

1Ch 16:40 to present burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, in accordance with everything written in the Law of the LORD, which he had given Israel.

1Ch 16:41 With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, "for his love endures forever."

1Ch 16:42 Heman and Jeduthun were responsible for the sounding of the trumpets and cymbals and for the playing of the other instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were stationed at the gate.

1Ch 16:43 Then all the people left, each for his own home, and David returned home to bless his family.

1Ch 17:1 After David was settled in his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent."

1Ch 17:2 Nathan replied to David, "Whatever you have in mind, do it, for God is with you."

1Ch 17:3 That night the word of God came to Nathan, saying:

1Ch 17:4 "Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD says: You are not the one to build me a house to dwell in.'

1Ch 17:5 I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel up out of Egypt to this day. I have moved from one tent site to another, from one dwelling place to another.

1Ch 17:6 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their leaders whom I commanded to shepherd my people, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?"

1Ch 17:7 "Now then, tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock, to be ruler over my people Israel.'

1Ch 17:8 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name like the names of the greatest men of the earth.

1Ch 17:9 And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning

1Ch 17:10 and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies. "I declare to you that the LORD will build a house for you:

1Ch 17:11 When your days are over and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

1Ch 17:12 He is the one who will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever.

1Ch 17:13 I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will never take my love away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor.

1Ch 17:14 I will set him over my house and my kingdom forever; his throne will be established forever."

1Ch 17:15 Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

1Ch 17:16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said: "Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?

1Ch 17:17 And as if this were not enough in your sight, O God, you have spoken about the future of the house of your servant. You have looked on me as though I were the most exalted of men, O LORD God.

1Ch 17:18 "What more can David say to you for honoring your servant? For you know your servant, 1Ch 17:19 O LORD. For the sake of your servant and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made known all these great promises.

1Ch 17:20 "There is no one like you, O LORD, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.

1Ch 17:21 And who is like your people Israel-- the one nation on earth whose God went out to redeem a people for himself, and to make a name for yourself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt?

1Ch 17:22 You made your people Israel your very own forever, and you, O LORD, have become their God.

1Ch 17:23 "And now, LORD, let the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house be established forever. Do as you promised, 1Ch 17:24 so that it will be established and that your name will be great forever. Then men will say, 'The LORD Almighty, the God over Israel, is Israel's God!' And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

1Ch 17:25 "You, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. So your servant has found courage to pray to you.

1Ch 17:26 O LORD, you are God! You have promised these good things to your servant.

1Ch 17:27 Now you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever in your sight; for you, O LORD, have blessed it, and it will be blessed forever."

1Ch 18:1 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its surrounding villages from the control of the Philistines.

1Ch 18:2 David also defeated the Moabites, and they became subject to him and brought tribute.

1Ch 18:3 Moreover, David fought Hadadezer king of Zobah, as far as Hamath, when he went to establish his control along the Euphrates River.

1Ch 18:4 David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstrung all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

1Ch 18:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them.

1Ch 18:6 He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought tribute. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

1Ch 18:7 David took the gold shields carried by the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

1Ch 18:8 From Tebah and Cun, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, David took a great quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze Sea, the pillars and various bronze articles.

1Ch 18:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 1Ch 18:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

1Ch 18:11 King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold he had taken from all these nations: Edom and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek.

1Ch 18:12 Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1Ch 18:13 He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

1Ch 18:14 David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.

1Ch 18:15 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

1Ch 18:16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary;

1Ch 18:17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David's sons were chief officials at the king's side.

1Ch 19:1 In the course of time, Nahash king of the Ammonites died, and his son succeeded him as king.

1Ch 19:2 David thought, "I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father. When David's men came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to express sympathy to him,

1Ch 19:3 the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun, "Do you think David is honoring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Haven't his men come to you to explore and spy out the country and overthrow it?"

1Ch 19:4 So Hanun seized David's men, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.

1Ch 19:5 When someone came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back."

1Ch 19:6 When the Ammonites realized that they had become a stench in David's nostrils, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram Naharaim, Aram Maacah and Zobah.

1Ch 19:7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and charioteers, as well as the king of Maacah with his troops, who came and camped near Medeba, while the Ammonites were mustered from their towns and moved out for battle.

1Ch 19:8 On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.

1Ch 19:9 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

1Ch 19:10 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans.

1Ch 19:11 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother, and they were deployed against the Ammonites.

1Ch 19:12 Joab said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to rescue me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will rescue you.

1Ch 19:13 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight."

1Ch 19:14 Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him.

1Ch 19:15 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they too fled before his brother Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab went back to Jerusalem.

1Ch 19:16 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had Arameans brought from beyond the River, with Shophach the commander of Hadadezer's army leading them.

1Ch 19:17 When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan; he advanced against them and formed his battle lines opposite them. David formed his lines to meet the Arameans in battle, and they fought against him.

1Ch 19:18 But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their chariooteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach the commander of their army.

1Ch 19:19 When the vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites anymore.

1Ch 20:1 In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, Joab led out the armed forces. He laid waste the land of the Ammonites and went to Rabbah and besieged it, but David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and left it in ruins.

1Ch 20:2 David took the crown from the head of their king--its weight was found to be a talent of gold, and it was set with precious stones-- and it was placed on David's head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city

1Ch 20:3 and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labor with saws and with iron picks and axes. David did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

1Ch 20:4 In the course of time, war broke out with the Philistines, at Gezer. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaites, and the Philistines were subjugated.

1Ch 20:5 In another battle with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.

1Ch 20:6 In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot-- twenty-four in all. He also was descended from Rapha.

1Ch 20:7 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

1Ch 20:8 These were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

1Ch 21:1 Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel.

1Ch 21:2 So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, "Go and count the Israelites from Beersheba to Dan. Then report back to me so that I may know how many there are."

1Ch 21:3 But Joab replied, "May the LORD multiply his troops a hundred times over. My lord the king, are they not all my lord's subjects? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"

1Ch 21:4 The king's word, however, overruled Joab; so Joab left and went throughout Israel and then came back to Jerusalem.

1Ch 21:5 Joab reported the number of the fighting men to David: In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who could handle a sword, including four hundred and seventy thousand in Judah.

1Ch 21:6 But Joab did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, because the king's command was repulsive to him.

1Ch 21:7 This command was also evil in the sight of God; so he punished Israel.

1Ch 21:8 Then David said to God, "I have sinned greatly by doing this. Now, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing."

1Ch 21:9 The LORD said to Gad, David's seer,

1Ch 21:10 "Go and tell David, 'This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.'

1Ch 21:11 So Gad went to David and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Take your choice:

1Ch 21:12 three years of famine, three months of being swept away before your enemies, with their swords overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD-- days of plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD ravaging every part of Israel.' Now then, decide how I should answer the one who sent me."

1Ch 21:13 David said to Gad, "I am in deep distress. Let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men."

1Ch 21:14 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell dead.

1Ch 21:15 And God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But as the angel was doing so, the LORD saw it and was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough! Withdraw your hand." The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:16 David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth, with a drawn sword in his hand extended over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell facedown.

1Ch 21:17 David said to God, "Was it not I who ordered the fighting men to be counted? I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? O LORD my God, let your hand fall upon me and my family, but do not let this plague remain on your people."

1Ch 21:18 Then the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:19 So David went up in obedience to the word that Gad had spoken in the name of the LORD.

1Ch 21:20 While Araunah was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel; his four sons who were with him hid themselves.

1Ch 21:21 Then David approached, and when Araunah looked and saw him, he left the threshing floor and bowed down before David with his face to the ground.

1Ch 21:22 David said to him, "Let me have the site of your threshing floor so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped. Sell it to me at the full price."

1Ch 21:23 Araunah said to David, "Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever pleases him. Look, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this."

1Ch 21:24 But King David replied to Araunah, "No, I insist on paying the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that costs me nothing."

1Ch 21:25 So David paid Araunah six hundred shekels of gold for the site.

1Ch 21:26 David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He called on the LORD, and the LORD answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

1Ch 21:27 Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.

1Ch 21:28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there.

1Ch 21:29 The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the desert, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon.

1Ch 21:30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1Ch 22:1 Then David said, "The house of the LORD God is to be here, and also the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

1Ch 22:2 So David gave orders to assemble the aliens living in Israel, and from among them he appointed stonecutters to prepare dressed stone for building the house of God.

1Ch 22:3 He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, and more bronze than could be weighed.

1Ch 22:4 He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, for the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought large numbers of them to David.

1Ch 22:5 David said, "My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD should be of great magnificence and fame and splendor in the sight of all the nations. Therefore I will make preparations for it." So David made extensive preparations before his death.

1Ch 22:6 Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ch 22:7 David said to Solomon: "My son, I had it in my heart to build a house for the Name of the LORD my God.

1Ch 22:8 But this word of the LORD came to me: 'You have shed much blood and have fought many wars. You are not to build a house for my Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.'

1Ch 22:9 But you will have a son who will be a man of peace and rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon, and I will grant Israel peace and quiet during his reign.

1Ch 22:10 He is the one who will build a house for my Name. He will be my son, and I will be his father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'

1Ch 22:11 "Now, my son, the LORD be with you, and may you have success and build the house of the LORD your God, as he said you would.

1Ch 22:12 May the LORD give you discretion and understanding when he puts you in command over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

1Ch 22:13 Then you will have success if you are careful to observe the decrees and laws that the LORD gave Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged.

1Ch 22:14 "I have taken great pains to provide for the temple of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, a million talents of silver, quantities of bronze and iron too great to be weighed, and wood and stone. And you may add to them.

1Ch 22:15 You have many workmen: stonecutters, masons and carpenters, as well as men skilled in every kind of work

1Ch 22:16 in gold and silver, bronze and iron-- craftsmen beyond number. Now begin the work, and the LORD be with you."

1Ch 22:17 Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon.

1Ch 22:18 He said to them, "Is not the LORD your God with you? And has he not granted you rest on every side? For he has handed the inhabitants of the land over to me, and the land is subject to the LORD and to his people.

1Ch 22:19 Now devote your heart and soul to seeking the LORD your God. Begin to build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the sacred articles belonging to God into the temple that will be built for the Name of the LORD."

1Ch 23:1 When David was old and full of years, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

1Ch 23:2 He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel, as well as the priests and Levites.

1Ch 23:3 The Levites thirty years old or more were counted, and the total number of men was thirty-eight thousand.

1Ch 23:4 David said, "Of these, twenty-four thousand are to supervise the work of the temple of the LORD and six thousand are to be officials and judges.

1Ch 23:5 Four thousand are to be gatekeepers and four thousand are to praise the LORD with the musical instruments I have provided for that purpose."

1Ch 23:6 David divided the Levites into groups corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

1Ch 23:7 Belonging to the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei.

1Ch 23:8 The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the first, Zetham and Joel-- three in all.

1Ch 23:9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel and Haran-- three in all. These were the heads of the families of Ladan.

1Ch 23:10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Ziza, Jeush and Beriah. These were the sons of Shimei-- four in all.

1Ch 23:11 Jahath was the first and Ziza the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; so they were counted as one family with one assignment.

1Ch 23:12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel-- four in all.

1Ch 23:13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart, he and his descendants forever, to consecrate the most holy things, to offer sacrifices before the LORD, to minister before him and to pronounce blessings in his name forever.

1Ch 23:14 The sons of Moses the man of God were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.

1Ch 23:15 The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.

1Ch 23:16 The descendants of Gershom: Shubael was the first.

1Ch 23:17 The descendants of Eliezer: Rehabiah was the first. Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

1Ch 23:18 The sons of Izhar: Shelomith was the first.

1Ch 23:19 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

1Ch 23:20 The sons of Uzziel: Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

1Ch 23:21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.

1Ch 23:22 Eleazar died without having sons: he had only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

1Ch 23:23 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth-- three in all.

1Ch 23:24 These were the descendants of Levi by their families-- the heads of families as they were registered under their names and counted individually, that is, the workers twenty years old or more who served in the temple of the LORD.

1Ch 23:25 For David had said, "Since the LORD, the God of Israel, has granted rest to his people and has come to dwell in Jerusalem forever,

1Ch 23:26 the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the articles used in its service."

1Ch 23:27 According to the last instructions of David, the Levites were counted from those twenty years old or more.

1Ch 23:29 They were in charge of the bread set out on the table, the flour for the grain offerings, the unleavened wafers, the baking and the mixing, and all measurements of quantity and size.

1Ch 23:30 They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD. They were to do the same in the evening

1Ch 23:31 and whenever burnt offerings were presented to the LORD on Sabbaths and at New Moon festivals and at appointed feasts. They were to serve before the LORD regularly in the proper number and in the way prescribed for them.

1Ch 23:32 And so the Levites carried out their responsibilities for the Tent of Meeting, for the Holy Place and, under their brothers the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the temple of the LORD.

1Ch 24:1 These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron: The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

1Ch 24:2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did, and they had no sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests.

1Ch 24:3 With the help of Zadok a descendant of Eleazar and Ahimelech a descendant of Ithamar, David separated them into divisions for their appointed order of ministering.

1Ch 24:4 A larger number of leaders were found among Eleazar's descendants than among Ithamar's, and they were divided accordingly: sixteen heads of families from Eleazar's descendants and eight heads of families from Ithamar's descendants.

1Ch 24:5 They divided them impartially by drawing lots, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar.

1Ch 24:6 The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded their names in the presence of the king and of the officials: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites-- one family being taken from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.

1Ch 24:7 The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

1Ch 24:8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

1Ch 24:9 the fifth to Malkijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

1Ch 24:10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

1Ch 24:11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

1Ch 24:12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

1Ch 24:13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

1Ch 24:14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

1Ch 24:15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,

1Ch 24:16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

1Ch 24:17 the twenty-first to Jakin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

1Ch 24:18 the twenty-third to Delaiah and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

1Ch 24:19 This was their appointed order of ministering when they entered the temple of the LORD, according to the regulations prescribed for them by their forefather Aaron, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

1Ch 24:20 As for the rest of the descendants of Levi: from the sons of Amram: Shubael; from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.

1Ch 24:21 As for Rehabiah, from his sons: Isshiah was the first.

1Ch 24:22 From the Izharites: Shelomoth; from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.

1Ch 24:23 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

1Ch 24:24 The son of Uzziel: Micah; from the sons of Micah: Shamir.

1Ch 24:25 The brother of Micah: Isshiah; from the sons of Isshiah: Zechariah.

1Ch 24:26 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The son of Jaaziah: Beno.

1Ch 24:27 The sons of Merari: from Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.

1Ch 24:28 From Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

1Ch 24:29 From Kish: the son of Kish: Jerahmeel.

1Ch 24:30 And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. These were the Levites, according to their families.

1Ch 24:31 They also cast lots, just as their brothers the descendants of Aaron did, in the presence of King David and of Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites. The families of the oldest brother were treated the same as those of the youngest.

1Ch 25:1 David, together with the commanders of the army, set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun for the ministry of prophesying, accompanied by harps, lyres and cymbals. Here is the list of the men who performed this service:

1Ch 25:2 From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the king's supervision.

1Ch 25:3 As for Jeduthun, from his sons: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six in all, under the supervision of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied, using the harp in thanking and praising the LORD.

1Ch 25:4 As for Heman, from his sons: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael and Jerimoth; Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-Ezer; Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth.

1Ch 25:5 All these were sons of Heman the king's seer. They were given him through the promises of God to exalt him. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

1Ch 25:6 All these men were under the supervision of their fathers for the music of the temple of the LORD, with cymbals, lyres and harps, for the ministry at the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman were under the supervision of the king.

1Ch 25:7 Along with their relatives-- all of them trained and skilled in music for the LORD-- they numbered 288.

1Ch 25:8 Young and old alike, teacher as well as student, cast lots for their duties.

1Ch 25:9 The first lot, which was for Asaph, fell to Joseph, his sons and relatives, 12 the second to Gedaliah, he and his relatives and sons, 12

1Ch 25:10 the third to Zaccur, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:11 the fourth to Izri, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:12 the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:13 the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:14 the seventh to Jesarelah, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:15 the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:16 the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:17 the tenth to Shimei, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:18 the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:19 the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:22 the fifteenth to Jerimoth, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 25:23 the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1Ch 26:7 The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Raphael, Obed and Elzabad; his relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also able men.

1Ch 26:8 All these were descendants of Obed-Edom; they and their sons and their relatives were capable men with the strength to do the work-- descendants of Obed-Edom, 62 in all.

1Ch 26:9 Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, who were able men-- 18 in all.

1Ch 26:23 From the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites:

1Ch 26:31 As for the Hebronites, Jeriah was their chief according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth year of David's reign a search was made in the records, and capable men among the Hebronites were found at Jazer in Gilead.

1Ch 26:32 Jeriah had twenty-seven hundred relatives, who were able men and heads of families, and King David put them in charge of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh for every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

1Ch 27:1 This is the list of the Israelites-- heads of families, commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and their officers, who served the king in all that concerned the army divisions that were on duty month by month throughout the year. Each division consisted of 24,000 men.

1Ch 27:2 In charge of the first division, for the first month, was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch 27:22 over Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham. These were the officers over the tribes of Israel.

1Ch 27:23 David did not take the number of the men twenty years old or less, because the LORD had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars in the sky.

1Ch 27:24 Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the men but did not finish. Wrath came on Israel on account of this numbering, and the number was not entered in the book of the annals of King David.

1Ch 27:25 Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the royal storehouses. Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the outlying districts, in the towns, the villages and the watchtowers.

1Ch 27:32 Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of insight and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hacmoni took care of the king's sons.

1Ch 27:33 Ahithophel was the king's counselor. Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend.

1Ch 27:34 Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiathar. Joab was the commander of the royal army.

1Ch 28:1 David summoned all the officials of Israel to assemble at Jerusalem: the officers over the tribes, the commanders of the divisions in the service of the king, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty men and all the brave warriors.

1Ch 28:2 King David rose to his feet and said: "Listen to me, my brothers and my people. I had it in my heart to build a house as a place of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the footstool of our God, and I made plans to build it.

1Ch 28:3 But God said to me, 'You are not to build a house for my Name, because you are a warrior and have shed blood.'

1Ch 28:4 "Yet the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from my whole family to be king over Israel forever. He chose Judah as leader, and from the house of Judah he chose my family, and from my father's sons he was pleased to make me king over all Israel.

1Ch 28:5 Of all my sons-- and the LORD has given me many-- he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

1Ch 28:6 He said to me: 'Solomon your son is the one who will build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.'

1Ch 28:7 I will establish his kingdom forever if he is unwavering in carrying out my commands and laws, as is being done at this time.'

1Ch 28:8 "So now I charge you in the sight of all Israel and of the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God: Be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and pass it on as an inheritance to your descendants forever.

1Ch 28:9 "And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve him with wholehearted devotion and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands every motive behind the thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will reject you forever.

1Ch 28:10 Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a temple as a sanctuary. Be strong and do the work."

1Ch 28:11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico of the temple, its buildings, its storerooms, its upper parts, its inner rooms and the place of atonement.

1Ch 28:12 He gave him the plans of all that the Spirit had put in his mind for the courts of the temple of the LORD and all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the temple of God and for the treasures for the dedicated things.

1Ch 28:13 He gave him instructions for the divisions of the priests and Levites, and for all the work of serving in the temple of the LORD, as well as for all the articles to be used in its service.

1Ch 28:14 He designated the weight of gold for all the gold articles to be used in various kinds of service, and the weight of silver for all the silver articles to be used in various kinds of service:

1Ch 28:15 the weight of gold for the gold lampstands and their lamps, with the weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand;

1Ch 28:16 the weight of gold for each table for consecrated bread; the weight of silver for the silver tables;

1Ch 28:17 the weight of pure gold for the forks, sprinkling bowls and pitchers; the weight of gold for each gold dish; the weight of silver for each silver dish;

1Ch 28:18 and the weight of the refined gold for the altar of incense. He also gave him the plan for the chariot, that is, the cherubim of gold that spread their wings and shelter the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1Ch 28:19 "All this," David said, "I have in writing from the hand of the LORD upon me, and he gave me understanding in all the details of the plan."

1Ch 28:20 David also said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the service of the temple of the LORD is finished.

1Ch 28:21 The divisions of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on the temple of God, and every willing man skilled in any craft will help you in all the work. The officials and all the people will obey your every command."

1Ch 29:1 Then King David said to the whole assembly: "My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced. The task is great, because this palatial structure is not for man but for the LORD God.

1Ch 29:2 With all my resources I have provided for the temple of my God-- gold for the gold work, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron and wood for the wood, as well as onyx for the settings, turquoise, stones of various colors, and all kinds of fine stone and marble-- all of these in large quantities.

1Ch 29:3 Besides, in my devotion to the temple of my God I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the temple of my God, over and above everything I have provided for this holy temple:

1Ch 29:4 three thousand talents of gold (gold of Ophir) and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for the overlaying of the walls of the buildings,

1Ch 29:5 for the gold work and the silver work, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now, who is willing to consecrate himself today to the LORD?"

1Ch 29:6 Then the leaders of families, the officers of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king's work gave willingly.

1Ch 29:7 They gave toward the work on the temple of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze and a hundred thousand talents of iron.

1Ch 29:8 Any who had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the temple of the LORD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.

1Ch 29:9 The people rejoiced at the willing response of their leaders, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly to the LORD. David the king also rejoiced greatly.

1Ch 29:10 David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly, saying, "Praise be to you, O LORD, God of our father Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

1Ch 29:11 Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all.

1Ch 29:12 Wealth and honor come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all.

1Ch 29:13 Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.

1Ch 29:14 "But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand.

1Ch 29:15 We are aliens and strangers in your sight, as were all our forefathers. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope.

1Ch 29:16 O LORD our God, as for all this abundance that we have provided for building you a temple for your Holy Name, it comes from your hand, and all of it belongs to you.

1Ch 29:17 I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity. All these things have I given willingly and with honest intent. And now I have seen with joy how willingly your people who are here have given to you.

1Ch 29:18 O LORD, God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel, keep this desire in the hearts of your people forever, and keep their hearts loyal to you.

1Ch 29:19 And give my son Solomon the wholehearted devotion to keep your commands, requirements and decrees and to do everything to build the palatial structure for which I have provided."

1Ch 29:20 Then David said to the whole assembly, "Praise the LORD your God." So they all praised the LORD, the God of their fathers; they bowed low and fell prostrate before the LORD and the king.

1Ch 29:21 The next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and presented burnt offerings to him: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams and a thousand male lambs, together with their drink offerings, and other sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

1Ch 29:22 They ate and drank with great joy in the presence of the LORD that day. Then they acknowledged Solomon son of David as king a second time, anointing him before the LORD to be ruler and Zadok to be priest.

1Ch 29:23 So Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him.

1Ch 29:24 All the officers and mighty men, as well as all of King David's sons, pledged their submission to King Solomon.

1Ch 29:25 The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him royal splendor such as no king over Israel ever had before.

1Ch 29:26 David son of Jesse was king over all Israel.

1Ch 29:27 He ruled over Israel forty years-- seven in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem.

1Ch 29:28 He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth and honor. His son Solomon succeeded him as king.

1Ch 29:29 As for the events of King David's reign, from beginning to end, they are written in the records of Samuel the seer, the records of Nathan the prophet and the records of Gad the seer, 1Ch 29:30 together with the details of his reign and power, and the circumstances that surrounded him and Israel and the kingdoms of all the other lands.

2Ch 1:1 Solomon son of David established himself firmly over his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

2Ch 1:2 Then Solomon spoke to all Israel-- to the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, to the judges and to all the leaders in Israel, the heads of families--

2Ch 1:3 and Solomon and the whole assembly went to the high place at Gibeon, for God's Tent of Meeting was there, which Moses the LORD's servant had made in the desert.

2Ch 1:4 Now David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

2Ch 1:5 But the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was in Gibeon in front of the tabernacle of the LORD; so Solomon and the assembly inquired of him there.

2Ch 1:6 Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

2Ch 1:7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you."

2Ch 1:8 Solomon answered God, "You have shown great kindness to David my father and have made me king in his place.

2Ch 1:9 Now, LORD God, let your promise to my father David be confirmed, for you have made me king over a people who are as numerous as the dust of the earth.

2Ch 1:10 Give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may lead this people, for who is able to govern this great people of yours?"

2Ch 1:11 God said to Solomon, "Since this is your heart's desire and you have not asked for wealth, riches or honor, nor for the death of your enemies, and since you have not asked for a long life but for wisdom and knowledge to govern my people over whom I have made you king,

2Ch 1:12 therefore wisdom and knowledge will be given you. And I will also give you wealth, riches and honor, such as no king who was before you ever had and none after you will have."

2Ch 1:13 Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting. And he reigned over Israel.

2Ch 1:14 Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

2Ch 1:15 The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

2Ch 1:16 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue--the royal merchants purchased them from Kue.

2Ch 1:17 They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

2Ch 2:1 Solomon gave orders to build a temple for the Name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

2Ch 2:2 He conscripted seventy thousand men as carriers and eighty thousand as stonecutters in the hills and thirty-six hundred as foremen over them.

2Ch 2:3 Solomon sent this message to Hiram king of Tyre: "Send me cedar logs as you did for my father David when you sent him cedar to build a palace to live in.

2Ch 2:4 Now I am about to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God and to dedicate it to him for burning fragrant incense before him, for setting out the consecrated bread regularly, and for making burnt offerings every morning and evening and on Sabbaths and New Moons and at the appointed feasts of the LORD our God. This is a lasting ordinance for Israel.

2Ch 2:5 "The temple I am going to build will be great, because our God is greater than all other gods.

2Ch 2:6 But who is able to build a temple for him, since the heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain him? Who then am I to build a temple for him, except as a place to burn sacrifices before him?

2Ch 2:7 "Send me, therefore, a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, and in purple, crimson and blue yarn, and experienced in the art of engraving, to work in Judah and Jerusalem with my skilled craftsmen, whom my father David provided.

2Ch 2:8 "Send me also cedar, pine and aljum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your men are skilled in cutting timber there. My men will work with yours 2Ch 2:9 to provide me with plenty of lumber, because the temple I build must be large and magnificent.

2Ch 2:10 I will give your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, twenty thousand cors of ground wheat, twenty thousand cors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine and twenty thousand baths of olive oil."

2Ch 2:11 Hiram king of Tyre replied by letter to Solomon: "Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you their king."

2Ch 2:12 And Hiram added: "Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth! He has given King David a wise son, endowed with intelligence and discernment, who will build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself.

2Ch 2:13 "I am sending you Huram-Abi, a man of great skill,

2Ch 2:14 whose mother was from Dan and whose father was from Tyre. He is trained to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, and with purple and blue and crimson yarn and fine linen. He is experienced in all kinds of engraving and can execute any design given to him. He will work with your craftsmen and with those of my lord, David your father.

2Ch 2:15 "Now let my lord send his servants the wheat and barley and the olive oil and wine he promised,

2Ch 2:16 and we will cut all the logs from Lebanon that you need and will float them in rafts by sea down to Joppa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem."

2Ch 2:17 Solomon took a census of all the aliens who were in Israel, after the census his father David had taken; and they were found to be 153,600.

2Ch 2:18 He assigned 70,000 of them to be carriers and 80,000 to be stonecutters in the hills, with 3,600 foremen over them to keep the people working.

2Ch 3:1 Then Solomon began to build the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David. It was on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite, the place provided by David.

2Ch 3:2 He began building on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

2Ch 3:3 The foundation Solomon laid for building the temple of God was sixty cubits long and twenty cubits wide (using the cubit of the old standard).

2Ch 3:4 The portico at the front of the temple was twenty cubits long across the width of the building and twenty cubits high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

2Ch 3:5 He paneled the main hall with pine and covered it with fine gold and decorated it with palm tree and chain designs.

2Ch 3:6 He adorned the temple with precious stones. And the gold he used was gold of Parvaim.

2Ch 3:7 He overlaid the ceiling beams, doorframes, walls and doors of the temple with gold, and he carved cherubim on the walls.

2Ch 3:8 He built the Most Holy Place, its length corresponding to the width of the temple-- twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide. He overlaid the inside with six hundred talents of fine gold.

2Ch 3:9 The gold nails weighed fifty shekels. He also overlaid the upper parts with gold.

2Ch 3:10 In the Most Holy Place he made a pair of sculptured cherubim and overlaid them with gold.

2Ch 3:11 The total wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits. One wing of the first cherub was five cubits long and touched the temple wall, while its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub.

2Ch 3:12 Similarly one wing of the second cherub was five cubits long and touched the other temple wall, and its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the first cherub.

2Ch 3:13 The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, facing the main hall.

2Ch 3:14 He made the curtain of blue, purple and crimson yarn and fine linen, with cherubim worked into it.

2Ch 3:15 In the front of the temple he made two pillars, which [together] were thirty-five cubits long, each with a capital on top measuring five cubits.

2Ch 3:16 He made interwoven chains and put them on top of the pillars. He also made a hundred pomegranates and attached them to the chains.

2Ch 3:17 He erected the pillars in the front of the temple, one to the south and one to the north. The one to the south he named Jakin and the one to the north Boaz.

2Ch 4:1 He made a bronze altar twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and ten cubits high.

2Ch 4:2 He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits high. It took a line of thirty cubits to measure around it.

2Ch 4:3 Below the rim, figures of bulls encircled it-- ten to a cubit. The bulls were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

2Ch 4:4 The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were toward the center.

2Ch 4:5 It was a handbreadth in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held three thousand baths.

2Ch 4:6 He then made ten basins for washing and placed five on the south side and five on the north. In them the things to be used for the burnt offerings were rinsed, but the Sea was to be used by the priests for washing.

2Ch 4:7 He made ten gold lampstands according to the specifications for them and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north.

2Ch 4:8 He made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north. He also made a hundred gold sprinkling bowls.

2Ch 4:9 He made the courtyard of the priests, and the large court and the doors for the court, and overlaid the doors with bronze.

2Ch 4:10 He placed the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner.

2Ch 4:11 He also made the pots and shovels and sprinkling bowls. So Huram finished the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of God:

2Ch 4:12 the two pillars; the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars; the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

2Ch 4:13 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

2Ch 4:14 the stands with their basins;

2Ch 4:15 the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

2Ch 4:16 the pots, shovels, meat forks and all related articles. All the objects that Huram-Abi made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of polished bronze.

2Ch 4:17 The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan.

2Ch 4:18 All these things that Solomon made amounted to so much that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

2Ch 4:19 Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in God's temple: the golden altar; the tables on which was the bread of the Presence;

2Ch 4:20 the lampstands of pure gold with their lamps, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed;

2Ch 4:21 the gold floral work and lamps and tongs (they were solid gold);

2Ch 4:22 the pure gold wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers; and the gold doors of the temple: the inner doors to the Most Holy Place and the doors of the main hall.

2Ch 5:1 When all the work Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated-- the silver and gold and all the furnishings-- and he placed them in the treasuries of God's temple.

2Ch 5:2 Then Solomon summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from Zion, the City of David.

2Ch 5:3 And all the men of Israel came together to the king at the time of the festival in the seventh month.

2Ch 5:4 When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the Levites took up the ark,

2Ch 5:5 and they brought up the ark and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests, who were Levites, carried them up;

2Ch 5:6 and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

2Ch 5:7 The priests then brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

2Ch 5:8 The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and covered the ark and its carrying poles.

2Ch 5:9 These poles were so long that their ends, extending from the ark, could be seen from in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today.

2Ch 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

2Ch 5:11 The priests then withdrew from the Holy Place. All the priests who were there had consecrated themselves, regardless of their divisions.

2Ch 5:12 All the Levites who were musicians-- Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and their sons and relatives-- stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine linen and playing cymbals, harps and lyres. They were accompanied by 120 priests sounding trumpets.

2Ch 5:13 The trumpeters and singers joined in unison, as with one voice, to give praise and thanks to the LORD. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals and other instruments, they raised their voices in praise to the LORD and sang: "He is good; his love endures forever." Then the temple of the LORD was filled with a cloud, 2Ch 5:14 and the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the temple of God.

2Ch 6:1 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;

2Ch 6:2 I have built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell forever."

2Ch 6:3 While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned around and blessed them.

2Ch 6:4 Then he said: "Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hands has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David. For he said,

2Ch 6:5 'Since the day I brought my people out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built for my Name to be there, nor have I chosen anyone to be the leader over my people Israel.'

2Ch 6:6 But now I have chosen Jerusalem for my Name to be there, and I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.'

2Ch 6:7 "My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 6:8 But the LORD said to my father David, 'Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my Name, you did well to have this in your heart.'

2Ch 6:9 Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, who is your own flesh and blood-- he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.'

2Ch 6:10 "The LORD has kept the promise he made. I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 6:11 There I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with the people of Israel."

2Ch 6:12 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

2Ch 6:13 Now he had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high, and had placed it in the center of the outer court. He stood on the platform and then knelt down before the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven.

2Ch 6:14 He said: "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth-- you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way.

2Ch 6:15 You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it-- as it is today.

2Ch 6:16 "Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said, 'You shall never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me according to my law, as you have done.'

2Ch 6:17 And now, O LORD, God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David come true.

2Ch 6:18 "But will God really dwell on earth with men? The heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built!

2Ch 6:19 Yet give attention to your servant's prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence.

2Ch 6:20 May your eyes be open toward this temple day and night, this place of which you said you would put your Name there. May you hear the prayer your servant prays toward this place.

2Ch 6:21 Hear the supplications of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling place; and when you hear, forgive.

2Ch 6:22 "When a man wrongs his neighbor and is required to take an oath and he comes and swears the oath before your altar in this temple,

2Ch 6:23 then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, repaying the guilty by bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty and so establish his innocence.

2Ch 6:24 "When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you and when they turn back and confess your name, praying and making supplication before you in this temple,

2Ch 6:25 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to them and their fathers.

2Ch 6:26 "When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray toward this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them,

2Ch 6:27 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land you gave your people for an inheritance.

2Ch 6:28 "When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when enemies besiege them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come,

2Ch 6:29 and when a prayer or plea is made by any of your people Israel-- each one aware of his afflictions and pains, and spreading out his hands toward this temple--

2Ch 6:30 then hear from heaven, your dwelling place. Forgive, and deal with each man according to all he does, since you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of men),

2Ch 6:31 so that they will fear you and walk in your ways all the time they live in the land you gave our fathers.

2Ch 6:32 "As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm-- when he comes and prays toward this temple,

2Ch 6:33 then hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house I have built bears your Name.

2Ch 6:34 "When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to you toward this city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name,

2Ch 6:35 then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

2Ch 6:36 "When they sin against you-- for there is no one who does not sin-- and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to a land far away or near;

2Ch 6:37 and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their captivity and say, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong and acted wickedly';

2Ch 6:38 and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken, and pray toward the land you gave their fathers, toward the city you have chosen and toward the temple I have built for your Name;

2Ch 6:39 then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their pleas, and uphold their cause. And forgive your people, who have sinned against you.

2Ch 6:40 "Now, my God, may your eyes be open and your ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

2Ch 6:41 "Now arise, O LORD God, and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might. May your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, may your saints rejoice in your goodness.

2Ch 6:42 O LORD God, do not reject your anointed one. Remember the great love promised to David your servant."

2Ch 7:1 When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

2Ch 7:2 The priests could not enter the temple of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled it.

2Ch 7:3 When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the LORD above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, "He is good; his love endures forever."

2Ch 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

2Ch 7:5 And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the people dedicated the temple of God.

2Ch 7:6 The priests took their positions, as did the Levites with the LORD's musical instruments, which King David had made for praising the LORD and which were used when he gave thanks, saying, "His love endures forever." Opposite the Levites, the priests blew their trumpets, and all the Israelites were standing.

2Ch 7:7 Solomon consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings, because the bronze altar he had made could not hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat portions.

2Ch 7:8 So Solomon observed the festival at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him-- a vast assembly, people from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt.

2Ch 7:9 On the eighth day they held an assembly, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven days more.

2Ch 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their homes, joyful and glad in heart for the good things the LORD had done for David and Solomon and for his people Israel.

2Ch 7:11 When Solomon had finished the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had succeeded in carrying out all he had in mind to do in the temple of the LORD and in his own palace, 2Ch 7:12 the LORD appeared to him at night and said: "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a temple for sacrifices.

2Ch 7:13 "When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or command locusts to devour the land or send a plague among my people,

2Ch 7:14 if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

2Ch 7:15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

2Ch 7:16 I have chosen and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

2Ch 7:17 "As for you, if you walk before me as David your father did, and do all I command, and observe my decrees and laws,

2Ch 7:18 I will establish your royal throne, as I covenanted with David your father when I said, 'You shall never fail to have a man to rule over Israel.'

2Ch 7:19 "But if you turn away and forsake the decrees and commands I have given you and go off to serve other gods and worship them,

2Ch 7:20 then I will uproot Israel from my land, which I have given them, and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. I will make it a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples.

2Ch 7:21 And though this temple is now so imposing, all who pass by will be appalled and say, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?'

2Ch 7:22 People will answer, 'Because they have forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshiping and serving them-- that is why he brought all this disaster on them."

2Ch 8:1 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built the temple of the LORD and his own palace, 2Ch 8:2 Solomon rebuilt the villages that Hiram had given him, and settled Israelites in them.

2Ch 8:3 Solomon then went to Hamath Zobah and captured it.

2Ch 8:4 He also built up Tadmor in the desert and all the store cities he had built in Hamath.

2Ch 8:5 He rebuilt Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon as fortified cities, with walls and with gates and bars, 2Ch 8:6 as well as Baalath and all his store cities, and all the cities for his chariots and for his horses--whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.

2Ch 8:7 All the people left from the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites (these peoples were not Israelites), 2Ch 8:8 that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites had not destroyed-- these Solomon conscripted for his slave labor force, as it is to this day.

2Ch 8:9 But Solomon did not make slaves of the Israelites for his work; they were his fighting men, commanders of his captains, and commanders of his chariots and charioteers.

2Ch 8:10 They were also King Solomon's chief officials-- two hundred and fifty officials supervising the men.

2Ch 8:11 Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her, for he said, "My wife must not live in the palace of David king of Israel, because the places the ark of the LORD has entered are holy."

2Ch 8:12 On the altar of the LORD that he had built in front of the portico, Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD,

2Ch 8:13 according to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Moses for Sabbaths, New Moons and the three annual feasts-- the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles.

2Ch 8:14 In keeping with the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their duties, and the Levites to lead the praise and to assist the priests according to each day's requirement. He also appointed the gatekeepers by divisions for the various gates, because this was what David the man of God had ordered.

2Ch 8:15 They did not deviate from the king's commands to the priests or to the Levites in any matter, including that of the treasures.

2Ch 8:16 All Solomon's work was carried out, from the day the foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid until its completion. So the temple of the LORD was finished.

2Ch 8:17 Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the coast of Edom.

2Ch 8:18 And Hiram sent him ships commanded by his own officers, men who knew the sea. These, with Solomon's men, sailed to Ophir and brought back four hundred and fifty talents of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:1 When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. Arriving with a very great caravan-- with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones-- she came to Solomon and talked with him about all she had on her mind.

2Ch 9:2 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for him to explain to her.

2Ch 9:3 When the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, as well as the palace he had built,

2Ch 9:4 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, the cupbearers in their robes and the burnt offerings he made at the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

2Ch 9:5 She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.

2Ch 9:6 But I did not believe what they said until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half the greatness of your wisdom was told me; you have far exceeded the report I heard.

2Ch 9:7 How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

2Ch 9:8 Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on his throne as king to rule for the LORD your God. Because of the love of your God for Israel and his desire to uphold them forever, he has made you king over them, to maintain justice and righteousness."

2Ch 9:9 Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. There had never been such spices as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:10 (The men of Hiram and the men of Solomon brought gold from Ophir; they also brought aljumwood and precious stones.

2Ch 9:11 The king used the aljumwood to make steps for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. Nothing like them had ever been seen in Judah.)

2Ch 9:12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for; he gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

2Ch 9:13 The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents,

2Ch 9:14 not including the revenues brought in by merchants and traders. Also all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.

2Ch 9:15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas of hammered gold went into each shield.

2Ch 9:16 He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold, with three hundred bekas of gold in each shield. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

2Ch 9:17 Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory and overlaid with pure gold.

2Ch 9:18 The throne had six steps, and a footstool of gold was attached to it. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each of them.

2Ch 9:19 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom.

2Ch 9:20 All King Solomon's goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon's day.

2Ch 9:21 The king had a fleet of trading ships manned by Hiram's men. Once every three years it returned, carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.

2Ch 9:22 King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.

2Ch 9:23 All the kings of the earth sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

2Ch 9:24 Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift-- articles of silver and gold, and robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

2Ch 9:25 Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horses, which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

2Ch 9:26 He ruled over all the kings from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

2Ch 9:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

2Ch 9:28 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from all other countries.

2Ch 9:29 As for the other events of Solomon's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat?

2Ch 9:30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

2Ch 9:31 Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 10:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king.

2Ch 10:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from Egypt.

2Ch 10:3 So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and all Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him:

2Ch 10:4 "Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labor and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

2Ch 10:5 Rehoboam answered, "Come back to me in three days." So the people went away.

2Ch 10:6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime.

"How would you advise me to answer these people?" he asked.

2Ch 10:7 They replied, "If you will be kind to these people and please them and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your servants."

2Ch 10:8 But Rehoboam rejected the advice the elders gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him.

2Ch 10:9 He asked them, "What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me, 'Lighten the yoke your father put on us'?"

2Ch 10:10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, "Tell the people who have said to you, 'Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter'-- tell them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist.'

2Ch 10:11 My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions."

2Ch 10:12 Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, "Come back to me in three days."

2Ch 10:13 The king answered them harshly. Rejecting the advice of the elders,

2Ch 10:14 he followed the advice of the young men and said, "My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions."

2Ch 10:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God, to fulfill the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.

2Ch 10:16 When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king: "What share do we have in David, what part in Jesse's son? To your tents, O Israel! Look after your own house, O David!" So all the Israelites went home.

2Ch 10:17 But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

2Ch 10:18 King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram, who was in charge of forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

2Ch 10:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2Ch 11:1 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered the house of Judah and Benjamin-- a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men-- to make war against Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam.

2Ch 11:2 But this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God:

2Ch 11:3 "Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah and to all the Israelites in Judah and Benjamin, 2Ch 11:4 'This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.'" So they obeyed the words of the LORD and turned back from marching against Jeroboam.

2Ch 11:5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built up towns for defense in Judah:

2Ch 11:6 Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2Ch 11:7 Beth Zur, Soco, Adullam,

2Ch 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2Ch 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2Ch 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron. These were fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

2Ch 11:11 He strengthened their defenses and put commanders in them, with supplies of food, olive oil and wine.

2Ch 11:12 He put shields and spears in all the cities, and made them very strong. So Judah and Benjamin were his.

2Ch 11:13 The priests and Levites from all their districts throughout Israel sided with him.

2Ch 11:14 The Levites even abandoned their pasturelands and property, and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as priests of the LORD.

2Ch 11:15 And he appointed his own priests for the high places and for the goat and calf idols he had made.

2Ch 11:16 Those from every tribe of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 11:17 They strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam son of Solomon three years, walking in the ways of David and Solomon during this time.

2Ch 11:18 Rehoboam married Mahalath, who was the daughter of David's son Jerimoth and of Abihail, the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab.

2Ch 11:19 She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham.

2Ch 11:20 Then he married Maacah daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith.

2Ch 11:21 Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than any of his other wives and concubines. In all, he had eighteen wives and sixty concubines, twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

2Ch 11:22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah to be the chief prince among his brothers, in order to make him king.

2Ch 11:23 He acted wisely, dispersing some of his sons throughout the districts of Judah and Benjamin, and to all the fortified cities. He gave them abundant provisions and took many wives for them.

2Ch 12:1 After Rehoboam's position as king was established and he had become strong, he and all Israel with him abandoned the law of the LORD.

2Ch 12:2 Because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam.

2Ch 12:3 With twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen and the innumerable troops of Libyans, Sukkites and Cushites that came with him from Egypt, 2Ch 12:4 he captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

2Ch 12:5 Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and to the leaders of Judah who had assembled in Jerusalem for fear of Shishak, and he said to them, "This is what the LORD says, 'You have abandoned me; therefore, I now abandon you to Shishak.'"

2Ch 12:6 The leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is just."

2Ch 12:7 When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: "Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but will soon give them deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak."

2Ch 12:8 They will, however, become subject to him, so that they may learn the difference between serving me and serving the kings of other lands."

2Ch 12:9 When Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem, he carried off the treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including the gold shields Solomon had made.

2Ch 12:10 So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.

2Ch 12:11 Whenever the king went to the LORD's temple, the guards went with him, bearing the shields, and afterward they returned them to the guardroom.

2Ch 12:12 Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the LORD's anger turned from him, and he was not totally destroyed. Indeed, there was some good in Judah.

2Ch 12:13 King Rehoboam established himself firmly in Jerusalem and continued as king. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.

2Ch 12:14 He did evil because he had not set his heart on seeking the LORD.

2Ch 12:15 As for the events of Rehoboam's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer that deal with genealogies? There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

2Ch 12:16 Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Abijah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 13:1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam, Abijah became king of Judah, 2Ch 13:2 and he reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother's name was Maacah, a daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

2Ch 13:3 Abijah went into battle with a force of four hundred thousand able fighting men, and Jeroboam drew up a battle line against him with eight hundred thousand able troops.

2Ch 13:4 Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me!

2Ch 13:5 Don't you know that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the kingship of Israel to David and his descendants forever by a covenant of salt?

2Ch 13:6 Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, an official of Solomon son of David, rebelled against his master.

2Ch 13:7 Some worthless scoundrels gathered around him and opposed Rehoboam son of Solomon when he was young and indecisive and not strong enough to resist them.

2Ch 13:8 "And now you plan to resist the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hands of David's descendants. You are indeed a vast army and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made to be your gods.

2Ch 13:9 But didn't you drive out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make priests of your own as the peoples of other lands do? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may become a priest of what are not gods.

2Ch 13:10 "As for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him. The priests who serve the LORD are sons of Aaron, and the Levites assist them.

2Ch 13:11 Every morning and evening they present burnt offerings and fragrant incense to the LORD. They set out the bread on the ceremonially clean table and light the lamps on the gold lampstand every evening. We are observing the requirements of the LORD our God. But you have forsaken him.

2Ch 13:12 God is with us; he is our leader. His priests with their trumpets will sound the battle cry against you. Men of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers, for you will not succeed."

2Ch 13:13 Now Jeroboam had sent troops around to the rear, so that while he was in front of Judah the ambush was behind them.

2Ch 13:14 Judah turned and saw that they were being attacked at both front and rear. Then they cried out to the LORD. The priests blew their trumpets 2Ch 13:15 and the men of Judah raised the battle cry. At the sound of their battle cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2Ch 13:16 The Israelites fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hands.

2Ch 13:17 Abijah and his men inflicted heavy losses on them, so that there were five hundred thousand casualties among Israel's able men.

2Ch 13:18 The men of Israel were subdued on that occasion, and the men of Judah were victorious because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took from him the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah and Ephron, with their surrounding villages.

2Ch 13:20 Jeroboam did not regain power during the time of Abijah. And the LORD struck him down and he died.

2Ch 13:21 But Abijah grew in strength. He married fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2Ch 13:22 The other events of Abijah's reign, what he did and what he said, are written in the annotations of the prophet Iddo.

2Ch 14:1 And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. Asa his son succeeded him as king, and in his days the country was at peace for ten years.

2Ch 14:2 Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2Ch 14:3 He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles.

2Ch 14:4 He commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to obey his laws and commands.

2Ch 14:5 He removed the high places and incense altars in every town in Judah, and the kingdom was at peace under him.

2Ch 14:6 He built up the fortified cities of Judah, since the land was at peace. No one was at war with him during those years, for the LORD gave him rest.

2Ch 14:7 "Let us build up these towns," he said to Judah, "and put walls around them, with towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours, because we have sought the LORD our God; we sought him and he has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

2Ch 14:8 Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Judah, equipped with large shields and with spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand from Benjamin, armed with small shields and with bows. All these were brave fighting men.

2Ch 14:9 Zerah the Cushite marched out against them with a vast army and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mareshah.

2Ch 14:10 Asa went out to meet him, and they took up battle positions in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

2Ch 14:11 Then Asa called to the LORD his God and said, "LORD, there is no one like you to help the powerless against the mighty. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this vast army. O LORD, you are our God; do not let man prevail against you."

2Ch 14:12 The LORD struck down the Cushites before Asa and Judah. The Cushites fled, 2Ch 14:13 and Asa and his army pursued them as far as Gerar. Such a great number of Cushites fell that they could not recover; they were crushed before the LORD and his forces. The men of Judah carried off a large amount of plunder.

2Ch 14:14 They destroyed all the villages around Gerar, for the terror of the LORD had fallen upon them. They plundered all these villages, since there was much booty there.

2Ch 14:15 They also attacked the camps of the herdsmen and carried off droves of sheep and goats and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 15:1 The Spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded.

2Ch 15:2 He went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you when you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you."

2Ch 15:3 For a long time Israel was without the true God, without a priest to teach and without the law.

2Ch 15:4 But in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, and he was found by them.

2Ch 15:5 In those days it was not safe to travel about, for all the inhabitants of the lands were in great turmoil.

2Ch 15:6 One nation was being crushed by another and one city by another, because God was troubling them with every kind of distress.

2Ch 15:7 But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded."

2Ch 15:8 When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah son of Oded the prophet, he took courage. He removed the detestable idols from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had captured in the hills of Ephraim. He repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the portico of the LORD's temple.

2Ch 15:9 Then he assembled all Judah and Benjamin and the people from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who had settled among them, for large numbers had come over to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

2Ch 15:10 They assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

2Ch 15:11 At that time they sacrificed to the LORD seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep and goats from the plunder they had brought back.

2Ch 15:12 They entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul.

2Ch 15:13 All who would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, were to be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.

2Ch 15:14 They took an oath to the LORD with loud acclamation, with shouting and with trumpets and horns.

2Ch 15:15 All Judah rejoiced about the oath because they had sworn it wholeheartedly. They sought God eagerly, and he was found by them. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

2Ch 15:16 King Asa also deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole. Asa cut the pole down, broke it up and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

2Ch 15:17 Although he did not remove the high places from Israel, Asa's heart was fully committed [to the LORD] all his life.

2Ch 15:18 He brought into the temple of God the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.

2Ch 15:19 There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2Ch 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

2Ch 16:2 Asa then took the silver and gold out of the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of his own palace and sent it to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.

2Ch 16:3 "Let there be a treaty between me and you," he said, "as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so he will withdraw from me."

2Ch 16:4 Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim and all the store cities of Naphtali.

2Ch 16:5 When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and abandoned his work.

2Ch 16:6 Then King Asa brought all the men of Judah, and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using. With them he built up Geba and Mizpah.

2Ch 16:7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him: "Because you relied on the king of Aram and not on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand."

2Ch 16:8 Were not the Cushites and Libyans a mighty army with great numbers of chariots and horsemen? Yet when you relied on the LORD, he delivered them into your hand.

2Ch 16:9 For the eyes of the LORD range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him. You have done a foolish thing, and from now on you will be at war."

2Ch 16:10 Asa was angry with the seer because of this; he was so enraged that he put him in prison. At the same time Asa brutally oppressed some of the people.

2Ch 16:11 The events of Asa's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was afflicted with a disease in his feet. Though his disease was severe, even in his illness he did not seek help from the LORD, but only from the physicians.

2Ch 16:13 Then in the forty-first year of his reign Asa died and rested with his fathers.

2Ch 16:14 They buried him in the tomb that he had cut out for himself in the City of David. They laid him on a bier covered with spices and various blended perfumes, and they made a huge fire in his honor.

2Ch 17:1 Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king and strengthened himself against Israel.

2Ch 17:2 He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

2Ch 17:3 The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because in his early years he walked in the ways his father David had followed. He did not consult the Baals

2Ch 17:4 but sought the God of his father and followed his commands rather than the practices of Israel.

2Ch 17:5 The LORD established the kingdom under his control; and all Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, so that he had great wealth and honor.

2Ch 17:6 His heart was devoted to the ways of the LORD; furthermore, he removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.

2Ch 17:7 In the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah to teach in the towns of Judah.

2Ch 17:8 With them were certain Levites-- Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah-- and the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

2Ch 17:9 They taught throughout Judah, taking with them the Book of the Law of the LORD; they went around to all the towns of Judah and taught the people.

2Ch 17:10 The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, so that they did not make war with Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 17:11 Some Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and silver as tribute, and the Arabs brought him flocks: seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred goats.

2Ch 17:12 Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful; he built forts and store cities in Judah

2Ch 17:13 and had large supplies in the towns of Judah. He also kept experienced fighting men in Jerusalem.

2Ch 17:14 Their enrollment by families was as follows: From Judah, commanders of units of 1,000: Adnah the commander, with 300,000 fighting men;

2Ch 17:15 next, Jehohanan the commander, with 280,000;

2Ch 17:16 next, Amasiah son of Zicri, who volunteered himself for the service of the LORD, with 200,000.

2Ch 17:17 From Benjamin: Eliada, a valiant soldier, with 200,000 men armed with bows and shields;

2Ch 17:18 next, Jehozabad, with 180,000 men armed for battle.

2Ch 17:19 These were the men who served the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

2Ch 18:1 Now Jehoshaphat had great wealth and honor, and he allied himself with Ahab by marriage.

2Ch 18:2 Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and cattle for him and the people with him and urged him to attack Ramoth Gilead.

2Ch 18:3 Ahab king of Israel asked Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will join you in the war."

2Ch 18:4 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, "First seek the counsel of the LORD."

2Ch 18:5 So the king of Israel brought together the prophets-- four hundred men-- and asked them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" "Go," they answered, "for God will give it into the king's hand."

2Ch 18:6 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can inquire of?"

2Ch 18:7 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man through whom we can inquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah." "The king should not say that," Jehoshaphat replied.

2Ch 18:8 So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, "Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once."

2Ch 18:9 Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor by the entrance to the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them.

2Ch 18:10 Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns, and he declared, "This is what the LORD says: 'With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.'"

2Ch 18:11 All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. "Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious," they said, "for the LORD will give it into the king's hand."

2Ch 18:12 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favorably."

2Ch 18:13 But Micaiah said, "As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what my God says."

2Ch 18:14 When he arrived, the king asked him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" "Attack and be victorious," he answered, "for they will be given into your hand."

2Ch 18:15 The king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

2Ch 18:16 Then Micaiah answered, "I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, 'These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.'"

2Ch 18:17 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?"

2Ch 18:18 Micaiah continued, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the host of heaven standing on his right and on his left."

2Ch 18:19 And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab King of Israel into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?' "One suggested this, and another that.

2Ch 18:20 Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, 'I will entice him.' "By what means?" the LORD asked.

2Ch 18:21 "'I will go and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,' he said. "'You will succeed in enticing him,' said the LORD. 'Go and do it.'

2Ch 18:22 "So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you."

2Ch 18:23 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?" he asked.

2Ch 18:24 Micaiah replied, "You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room."

2Ch 18:25 The king of Israel then ordered, "Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king's son,

2Ch 18:26 and say, 'This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.'"

2Ch 18:27 Micaiah declared, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he added, "Mark my words, all you people!"

2Ch 18:28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

2Ch 18:29 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

2Ch 18:30 Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, "Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel."

2Ch 18:31 When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, "This is the king of Israel." So they turned to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him, 2Ch 18:32 for when the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they stopped pursuing him.

2Ch 18:33 But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armor. The king told the chariot driver, "Wheel around and get me out of the fighting. I've been wounded."

2Ch 18:34 All day long the battle raged, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening. Then at sunset he died.

2Ch 19:1 When Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem, 2Ch 19:2 Jehu the seer, the son of Hanani, went out to meet him and said to the king, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, the wrath of the LORD is upon you.

2Ch 19:3 There is, however, some good in you, for you have rid the land of the Asherah poles and have set your heart on seeking God."

2Ch 19:4 Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and turned them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 19:5 He appointed judges in the land, in each of the fortified cities of Judah.

2Ch 19:6 He told them, "Consider carefully what you do, because you are not judging for man but for the LORD, who is with you whenever you give a verdict.

2Ch 19:7 Now let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Judge carefully, for with the LORD our God there is no injustice or partiality or bribery."

2Ch 19:8 In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests and heads of Israelite families to administer the law of the LORD and to settle disputes. And they lived in Jerusalem.

2Ch 19:9 He gave them these orders: "You must serve faithfully and wholeheartedly in the fear of the LORD.

2Ch 19:10 In every case that comes before you from your fellow countrymen who live in the cities-- whether bloodshed or other concerns of the law, commands, decrees or ordinances-- you are to warn them not to sin against the LORD; otherwise his wrath will come on you and your brothers. Do this, and you will not sin.

2Ch 19:11 "Amariah the chief priest will be over you in any matter concerning the LORD, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the tribe of Judah, will be over you in any matter concerning the king, and the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act with courage, and may the LORD be with those who do well."

2Ch 20:1 After this, the Moabites and Ammonites with some of the Meunites came to make war on Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 20:2 Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, "A vast army is coming against you from Edom, from the other side of the Sea. It is already in Hazazon Tamar" (that is, En Gedi).

2Ch 20:3 Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to inquire of the LORD, and he proclaimed a fast for all Judah.

2Ch 20:4 The people of Judah came together to seek help from the LORD; indeed, they came from every town in Judah to seek him.

2Ch 20:5 Then Jehoshaphat stood up in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem at the temple of the LORD in the front of the new courtyard

2Ch 20:6 and said: "O LORD, God of our fathers, are you not the God who is in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no one can withstand you.

2Ch 20:7 O our God, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend?

2Ch 20:8 They have lived in it and have built in it a sanctuary for your Name, saying,

2Ch 20:9 'If calamity comes upon us, whether the sword of judgment, or plague or famine, we will stand in your presence before this temple that bears your Name and will cry out to you in our distress, and you will hear us and save us.'

2Ch 20:10 "But now here are men from Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, whose territory you would not allow Israel to invade when they came from Egypt; so they turned away from them and did not destroy them.

2Ch 20:11 See how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of the possession you gave us as an inheritance.

2Ch 20:12 O our God, will you not judge them? For we have no power to face this vast army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon you."

2Ch 20:13 All the men of Judah, with their wives and children and little ones, stood there before the LORD.

2Ch 20:14 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph, as he stood in the assembly.

2Ch 20:15 He said: "Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the LORD says to you: 'Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God's.'

2Ch 20:16 Tomorrow march down against them. They will be climbing up by the Pass of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the gorge in the Desert of Jeruel.

2Ch 20:17 You will not have to fight this battle. Take up your positions; stand firm and see the deliverance the LORD will give you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Go out to face them tomorrow, and the LORD will be with you."

2Ch 20:18 Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all the people of Judah and Jerusalem fell down in worship before the LORD.

2Ch 20:19 Then some Levites from the Kohathites and Korahites stood up and praised the LORD, the God of Israel, with very loud voice.

2Ch 20:20 Early in the morning they left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they set out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, Judah and people of Jerusalem! Have faith in the LORD your God and you will be upheld; have faith in his prophets and you will be successful."

2Ch 20:21 After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the LORD and to praise him for the splendor of his holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying: "Give thanks to the LORD, for his love endures forever."

2Ch 20:22 As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated.

2Ch 20:23 The men of Ammon and Moab rose up against the men from Mount Seir to destroy and annihilate them. After they finished slaughtering the men from Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

2Ch 20:24 When the men of Judah came to the place that overlooks the desert and looked toward the vast army, they saw only dead bodies lying on the ground; no one had escaped.

2Ch 20:25 So Jehoshaphat and his men went to carry off their plunder, and they found among them a great amount of equipment and clothing and also articles of value-- more than they could take away. There was so much plunder that it took three days to collect it.

2Ch 20:26 On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berakah, where they praised the LORD. This is why it is called the Valley of Berakah to this day.

2Ch 20:27 Then, led by Jehoshaphat, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem, for the LORD had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies.

2Ch 20:28 They entered Jerusalem and went to the temple of the LORD with harps and lutes and trumpets.

2Ch 20:29 The fear of God came upon all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard how the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

2Ch 20:30 And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God had given him rest on every side.

2Ch 20:31 So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

2Ch 20:32 He walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ch 20:33 The high places, however, were not removed, and the people still had not set their hearts on the God of their fathers.

2Ch 20:34 The other events of Jehoshaphat's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the annals of Jehu son of Hanani, which are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

2Ch 20:35 Later, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel, who was guilty of wickedness.

2Ch 20:36 He agreed with him to construct a fleet of trading ships. After these were built at Ezion Geber, 2Ch 20:37 Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made." The ships were wrecked and were not able to set sail to trade.

2Ch 21:1 Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Jehoram his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 21:2 Jehoram's brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All these were sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

2Ch 21:3 Their father had given them many gifts of silver and gold and articles of value, as well as fortified cities in Judah, but he had given the kingdom to Jehoram because he was his firstborn son.

2Ch 21:4 When Jehoram established himself firmly over his father's kingdom, he put all his brothers to the sword along with some of the princes of Israel.

2Ch 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years.

2Ch 21:6 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ch 21:7 Nevertheless, because of the covenant the LORD had made with David, the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David. He had promised to maintain a lamp for him and his descendants forever.

2Ch 21:8 In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king.

2Ch 21:9 So Jehoram went there with his officers and all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night.

2Ch 21:10 To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah. Libnah revolted at the same time, because Jehoram had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.

2Ch 21:11 He had also built high places on the hills of Judah and had caused the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves and had led Judah astray.

2Ch 21:12 Jehoram received a letter from Elijah the prophet, which said: "This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: 'You have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or of Asa king of Judah.'

2Ch 21:13 But you have walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and you have led Judah and the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, just as the house of Ahab did. You have also murdered your own brothers, members of your father's house, men who were better than you.

2Ch 21:14 So now the LORD is about to strike your people, your sons, your wives and everything that is yours, with a heavy blow.

2Ch 21:15 You yourself will be very ill with a lingering disease of the bowels, until the disease causes your bowels to come out."

2Ch 21:16 The LORD aroused against Jehoram the hostility of the Philistines and of the Arabs who lived near the Cushites.

2Ch 21:17 They attacked Judah, invaded it and carried off all the goods found in the king's palace, together with his sons and wives. Not a son was left to him except Ahaziah, the youngest.

2Ch 21:18 After all this, the LORD afflicted Jehoram with an incurable disease of the bowels.

2Ch 21:19 In the course of time, at the end of the second year, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great pain. His people made no fire in his honor, as they had for his fathers.

2Ch 21:20 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. He passed away, to no one's regret, and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 22:1 The people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, Jehoram's youngest son, king in his place, since the raiders, who came with the Arabs into the camp, had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2Ch 22:2 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.

2Ch 22:3 He too walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother encouraged him in doing wrong.

2Ch 22:4 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for after his father's death they became his advisers, to his undoing.

2Ch 22:5 He also followed their counsel when he went with Joram son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram;

2Ch 22:6 so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they had inflicted on him at Ramoth in his battle with Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab because he had been wounded.

2Ch 22:7 Through Ahaziah's visit to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah's downfall. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.

2Ch 22:8 While Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's relatives, who had been attending Ahaziah, and he killed them.

2Ch 22:9 He then went in search of Ahaziah, and his men captured him while he was hiding in Samaria. He was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, "He was a son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So there was no one in the house of Ahaziah powerful enough to retain the kingdom.

2Ch 22:10 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family of the house of Judah.

2Ch 22:12 He remained hidden with them at the temple of God for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

2Ch 23:1 In the seventh year Jehoiada showed his strength. He made a covenant with the commanders of units of a hundred: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri.

2Ch 23:2 They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites and the heads of Israelite families from all the towns. When they came to Jerusalem,

2Ch 23:3 the whole assembly made a covenant with the king at the temple of God. Jehoiada said to them, "The king's son shall reign, as the LORD promised concerning the descendants of David."

2Ch 23:4 Now this is what you are to do: A third of you priests and Levites who are going on duty on the Sabbath are to keep watch at the doors,

2Ch 23:5 a third of you at the royal palace and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the other men are to be in the courtyards of the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 23:6 No one is to enter the temple of the LORD except the priests and Levites on duty; they may enter because they are consecrated, but all the other men are to guard what the LORD has assigned to them.

2Ch 23:7 The Levites are to station themselves around the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. Anyone who enters the temple must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes."

2Ch 23:9 Then he gave the commanders of units of a hundred the spears and the large and small shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of God.

2Ch 23:10 He stationed all the men, each with his weapon in his hand, around the king-- near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

2Ch 23:11 Jehoiada and his sons brought out the king's son and put the crown on him; they presented him with a copy of the covenant and proclaimed him king. They anointed him and shouted, "Long live the king!"

2Ch 23:12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the king, she went to them at the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 23:13 She looked, and there was the king, standing by his pillar at the entrance. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and singers with musical instruments were leading the praises. Then Athaliah tore her robes and shouted, "Treason! Treason!"

2Ch 23:14 Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops, and said to them: "Bring her out between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not put her to death at the temple of the LORD."

2Ch 23:15 So they seized her as she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate on the palace grounds, and there they put her to death.

2Ch 23:16 Jehoiada then made a covenant that he and the people and the king would be the LORD's people.

2Ch 23:17 All the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

2Ch 23:18 Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the temple of the LORD in the hands of the priests, who were Levites, to whom David had made assignments in the temple, to present the burnt offerings of the LORD as written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing, as David had ordered.

2Ch 23:19 He also stationed doorkeepers at the gates of the LORD's temple so that no one who was in any way unclean might enter.

2Ch 23:20 He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the temple of the LORD. They went into the palace through the Upper Gate and seated the king on the royal throne, 2Ch 23:21 and all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

2Ch 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba.

2Ch 24:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years of Jehoiada the priest.

2Ch 24:3 Jehoiada chose two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

2Ch 24:4 Some time later Joash decided to restore the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 24:5 He called together the priests and Levites and said to them, "Go to the towns of Judah and collect the money due annually from all Israel, to repair the temple of your God. Do it now." But the Levites did not act at once.

2Ch 24:6 Therefore the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, "Why haven't you required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by Moses the servant of the LORD and by the assembly of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?"

2Ch 24:7 Now the sons of that wicked woman Athaliah had broken into the temple of God and had used even its sacred objects for the Baals.

2Ch 24:8 At the king's command, a chest was made and placed outside, at the gate of the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 24:9 A proclamation was then issued in Judah and Jerusalem that they should bring to the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God had required of Israel in the desert.

2Ch 24:10 All the officials and all the people brought their contributions gladly, dropping them into the chest until it was full.

2Ch 24:11 Whenever the chest was brought in by the Levites to the king's officials and they saw that there was a large amount of money, the royal secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and carry it back to its place. They did this regularly and collected a great amount of money.

2Ch 24:12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to the men who carried out the work required for the temple of the LORD. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the LORD's temple, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the temple.

2Ch 24:13 The men in charge of the work were diligent, and the repairs progressed under them. They rebuilt the temple of God according to its original design and reinforced it.

2Ch 24:14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made articles for the LORD's temple: articles for the service and for the burnt offerings, and also dishes and other objects of gold and silver. As long as Jehoiada lived, burnt offerings were presented continually in the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 24:15 Now Jehoiada was old and full of years, and he died at the age of a hundred and thirty.

2Ch 24:16 He was buried with the kings in the City of David, because of the good he had done in Israel for God and his temple.

2Ch 24:17 After the death of Jehoiada, the officials of Judah came and paid homage to the king, and he listened to them.

2Ch 24:18 They abandoned the temple of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and worshiped Asherah poles and idols. Because of their guilt, God's anger came upon Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 24:19 Although the LORD sent prophets to the people to bring them back to him, and though they testified against them, they would not listen.

2Ch 24:20 Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood before the people and said, "This is what God says: 'Why do you disobey the LORD's commands? You will not prosper. Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has forsaken you.'"

2Ch 24:21 But they plotted against him, and by order of the king they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the LORD's temple.

2Ch 24:22 King Joash did not remember the kindness Zechariah's father Jehoiada had shown him but killed his son, who said as he lay dying, "May the LORD see this and call you to account."

2Ch 24:23 At the turn of the year, the army of Aram marched against Joash; it invaded Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They sent all the plunder to their king in Damascus.

2Ch 24:24 Although the Aramean army had come with only a few men, the LORD delivered into their hands a much larger army. Because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, judgment was executed on Joash.

2Ch 24:25 When the Arameans withdrew, they left Joash severely wounded. His officials conspired against him for murdering the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they killed him in his bed. So he died and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 24:26 Those who conspired against him were Zabad, son of Shimeath an Ammonite woman, and Jehozabad, son of Shimrith a Moabite woman.

2Ch 24:27 The account of his sons, the many prophecies about him, and the record of the restoration of the temple of God are written in the annotations on the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddin; she was from Jerusalem.

2Ch 25:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not wholeheartedly.

2Ch 25:3 After the kingdom was firmly in his control, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king.

2Ch 25:4 Yet he did not put their sons to death, but acted in accordance with what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins."

2Ch 25:5 Amaziah called the people of Judah together and assigned them according to their families to commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He then mustered those twenty years old or more and found that there were three hundred thousand men ready for military service, able to handle the spear and shield.

2Ch 25:6 He also hired a hundred thousand fighting men from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

2Ch 25:7 But a man of God came to him and said, "O king, these troops from Israel must not march with you, for the LORD is not with Israel-- not with any of the people of Ephraim.

2Ch 25:8 Even if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has the power to help or to overthrow."

2Ch 25:9 Amaziah asked the man of God, "But what about the hundred talents I paid for these Israelite troops?" The man of God replied, "The LORD can give you much more than that."

2Ch 25:10 So Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home. They were furious with Judah and left for home in a great rage.

2Ch 25:11 Amaziah then marshaled his strength and led his army to the Valley of Salt, where he killed ten thousand men of Seir.

2Ch 25:12 The army of Judah also captured ten thousand men alive, took them to the top of a cliff and threw them down so that all were dashed to pieces.

2Ch 25:13 Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and had not allowed to take part in the war raided Judean towns from Samaria to Beth Horon. They killed three thousand people and carried off great quantities of plunder.

2Ch 25:14 When Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people of Seir. He set them up as his own gods, bowed down to them and burned sacrifices to them.

2Ch 25:15 The anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him, who said, "Why do you consult this people's gods, which could not save their own people from your hand?"

2Ch 25:16 While he was still speaking, the king said to him, "Have we appointed you an adviser to the king? Stop! Why be struck down?" So the prophet stopped but said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel."

2Ch 25:17 After Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, he sent this challenge to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel: "Come, meet me face to face."

2Ch 25:18 But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot.

2Ch 25:19 You say to yourself that you have defeated Edom, and now you are arrogant and proud. But stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?"

2Ch 25:20 Amaziah, however, would not listen, for God so worked that he might hand them over to [Jehoash], because they sought the gods of Edom.

2Ch 25:21 So Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah.

2Ch 25:22 Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

2Ch 25:23 Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate-- a section about six hundred feet long.

2Ch 25:24 He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of God that had been in the care of Obed-Edom, together with the palace treasures and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

2Ch 25:25 Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoahaz son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

2Ch 25:26 As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

2Ch 25:27 From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they conspired against him in Jerusalem and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.

2Ch 25:28 He was brought back by horse and was buried with his fathers in the City of Judah.

2Ch 26:1 Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

2Ch 26:2 He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

2Ch 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem.

2Ch 26:4 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

2Ch 26:5 He sought God during the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God. As long as he sought the LORD, God gave him success.

2Ch 26:6 He went to war against the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. He then rebuilt towns near Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines.

2Ch 26:7 God helped him against the Philistines and against the Arabs who lived in Gur Baal and against the Meunites.

2Ch 26:8 The Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread as far as the border of Egypt, because he had become very powerful.

2Ch 26:9 Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the angle of the wall, and he fortified them.

2Ch 26:10 He also built towers in the desert and dug many cisterns, because he had much livestock in the foothills and in the plain. He had people working his fields and vineyards in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

2Ch 26:11 Uzziah had a well-trained army, ready to go out by divisions according to their numbers as mustered by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer under the direction of Hananiah, one of the royal officials.

2Ch 26:12 The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600.

2Ch 26:13 Under their command was an army of 307,500 men trained for war, a powerful force to support the king against his enemies.

2Ch 26:14 Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, coats of armor, bows and slingstones for the entire army.

2Ch 26:15 In Jerusalem he made machines designed by skillful men for use on the towers and on the corner defenses to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. His fame spread far and wide, for he was greatly helped until he became powerful.

2Ch 26:16 But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride led to his downfall. He was unfaithful to the LORD his God, and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2Ch 26:17 Azariah the priest with eighty other courageous priests of the LORD followed him in.

2Ch 26:18 They confronted him and said, "It is not right for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD. That is for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful; and you will not be honored by the LORD God."

2Ch 26:19 Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the priests in their presence before the incense altar in the LORD's temple, leprosy broke out on his forehead.

2Ch 26:20 When Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests looked at him, they saw that he had leprosy on his forehead, so they hurried him out. Indeed, he himself was eager to leave, because the LORD had afflicted him.

2Ch 26:21 King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died. He lived in a separate house--leprous, and excluded from the temple of the LORD. Jotham his son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

2Ch 26:22 The other events of Uzziah's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2Ch 26:23 Uzziah rested with his fathers and was buried near them in a field for burial that belonged to the kings, for people said, "He had leprosy." And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2Ch 27:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done, but unlike him he did not enter the temple of the LORD. The people, however, continued their corrupt practices.

2Ch 27:3 Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD and did extensive work on the wall at the hill of Ophel.

2Ch 27:4 He built towns in the Judean hills and forts and towers in the wooded areas.

2Ch 27:5 Jotham made war on the king of the Ammonites and conquered them. That year the Ammonites paid him a hundred talents of silver, ten thousand cors of wheat and ten thousand cors of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.

2Ch 27:6 Jotham grew powerful because he walked steadfastly before the LORD his God.

2Ch 27:7 The other events in Jotham's reign, including all his wars and the other things he did, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years.

2Ch 27:9 Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ch 28:2 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and also made cast idols for worshiping the Baals.

2Ch 28:3 He burned sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom and sacrificed his sons in the fire, following the detestable ways of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2Ch 28:4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.

2Ch 28:5 Therefore the LORD his God handed him over to the king of Aram. The Arameans defeated him and took many of his people as prisoners and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hands of the king of Israel, who inflicted heavy casualties on him.

2Ch 28:6 In one day Pekah son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand soldiers in Judah-- because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 28:7 Zicri, an Ephraimite warrior, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer in charge of the palace, and Elkanah, second to the king.

2Ch 28:8 The Israelites took captive from their kinsmen two hundred thousand wives, sons and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder, which they carried back to Samaria.

2Ch 28:9 But a prophet of the LORD named Oded was there, and he went out to meet the army when it returned to Samaria. He said to them, "Because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand. But you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches to heaven."

2Ch 28:10 And now you intend to make the men and women of Judah and Jerusalem your slaves. But aren't you also guilty of sins against the LORD your God?

2Ch 28:11 Now listen to me! Send back your fellow countrymen you have taken as prisoners, for the LORD's fierce anger rests on you."

2Ch 28:12 Then some of the leaders in Ephraim-- Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai-- confronted those who were arriving from the war.

2Ch 28:13 "You must not bring those prisoners here," they said, "or we will be guilty before the LORD. Do you intend to add to our sin and guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger rests on Israel."

2Ch 28:14 So the soldiers gave up the prisoners and plunder in the presence of the officials and all the assembly.

2Ch 28:15 The men designated by name took the prisoners, and from the plunder they clothed all who were naked. They provided them with clothes and sandals, food and drink, and healing balm. All those who were weak they put on donkeys. So they took them back to their fellow countrymen at Jericho, the City of Palms, and returned to Samaria.

2Ch 28:16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria for help.

2Ch 28:17 The Edomites had again come and attacked Judah and carried away prisoners,

2Ch 28:18 while the Philistines had raided towns in the foothills and in the Negev of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth Shemesh, Aijalon and Gedereth, as well as Soco, Timnah and Gimzo, with their surrounding villages.

2Ch 28:19 The LORD had humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had promoted wickedness in Judah and had been most unfaithful to the LORD.

2Ch 28:20 Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came to him, but he gave him trouble instead of help.

2Ch 28:21 Ahaz took some of the things from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace and from the princes and presented them to the king of Assyria, but that did not help him.

2Ch 28:22 In his time of trouble King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the LORD.

2Ch 28:23 He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus, who had defeated him; for he thought, "Since the gods of the kings of Aram have helped them, I will sacrifice to them so they will help me." But they were his downfall and the downfall of all Israel.

2Ch 28:24 Ahaz gathered together the furnishings from the temple of God and took them away. He shut the doors of the LORD's temple and set up altars at every street corner in Jerusalem.

2Ch 28:25 In every town in Judah he built high places to burn sacrifices to other gods and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

2Ch 28:26 The other events of his reign and all his ways, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 28:27 Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not placed in the tombs of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 29:1 Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2Ch 29:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done.

2Ch 29:3 In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the temple of the LORD and repaired them.

2Ch 29:4 He brought in the priests and the Levites, assembled them in the square on the east side

2Ch 29:5 and said: "Listen to me, Levites! Consecrate yourselves now and consecrate the temple of the LORD, the God of your fathers. Remove all defilement from the sanctuary.

2Ch 29:6 Our fathers were unfaithful; they did evil in the eyes of the LORD our God and forsook him. They turned their faces away from the LORD's dwelling place and turned their backs on him.

2Ch 29:7 They also shut the doors of the portico and put out the lamps. They did not burn incense or present any burnt offerings at the sanctuary to the God of Israel.

2Ch 29:8 Therefore, the anger of the LORD has fallen on Judah and Jerusalem; he has made them an object of dread and horror and scorn, as you can see with your own eyes.

2Ch 29:9 This is why our fathers have fallen by the sword and why our sons and daughters and our wives are in captivity.

2Ch 29:10 Now I intend to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger will turn away from us.

2Ch 29:11 My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him and serve him, to minister before him and to burn incense."

2Ch 29:12 Then these Levites set to work: from the Kohathites, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah; from the Merarites, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallel; from the Gershonites, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah;

2Ch 29:13 from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; from the descendants of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

2Ch 29:14 from the descendants of Heman, Jehiel and Shimeai; from the descendants of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2Ch 29:15 When they had assembled their brothers and consecrated themselves, they went in to purify the temple of the LORD, as the king had ordered, following the word of the LORD.

2Ch 29:16 The priests went into the sanctuary of the LORD to purify it. They brought out to the courtyard of the LORD's temple everything unclean that they found in the temple of the LORD. The Levites took it and carried it out to the Kidron Valley.

2Ch 29:17 They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month they reached the portico of the LORD. For eight more days they consecrated the temple of the LORD itself, finishing on the sixteenth day of the first month.

2Ch 29:18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and reported: "We have purified the entire temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table for setting out the consecrated bread, with all its articles.

2Ch 29:19 We have prepared and consecrated all the articles that King Ahaz removed in his unfaithfulness while he was king. They are now in front of the LORD's altar."

2Ch 29:20 Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the city officials together and went up to the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 29:21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary and for Judah. The king commanded the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer these on the altar of the LORD.

2Ch 29:22 So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled their blood on the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled their blood on the altar.

2Ch 29:23 The goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.

2Ch 29:24 The priests then slaughtered the goats and presented their blood on the altar for a sin offering to atone for all Israel, because the king had ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

2Ch 29:25 He stationed the Levites in the temple of the LORD with cymbals, harps and lyres in the way prescribed by David and Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet; this was commanded by the LORD through his prophets.

2Ch 29:26 So the Levites stood ready with David's instruments, and the priests with their trumpets.

2Ch 29:27 Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. As the offering began, singing to the LORD began also, accompanied by trumpets and the instruments of David king of Israel.

2Ch 29:28 The whole assembly bowed in worship, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the sacrifice of the burnt offering was completed.

2Ch 29:29 When the offerings were finished, the king and everyone present with him knelt down and worshiped.

2Ch 29:30 King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed their heads and worshiped.

2Ch 29:31 Then Hezekiah said, "You have now dedicated yourselves to the LORD. Come and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the temple of the LORD." So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

2Ch 29:32 The number of burnt offerings the assembly brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams and two hundred male lambs-- all of them for burnt offerings to the LORD.

2Ch 29:33 The animals consecrated as sacrifices amounted to six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep and goats.

2Ch 29:34 The priests, however, were too few to skin all the burnt offerings; so their kinsmen the Levites helped them until the task was finished and until other priests had been consecrated, for the Levites had been more conscientious in consecrating themselves than the priests had been.

2Ch 29:35 There were burnt offerings in abundance, together with the fat of the fellowship offerings and the drink offerings that accompanied the burnt offerings. So the service of the temple of the LORD was reestablished.

2Ch 29:36 Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced at what God had brought about for his people, because it was done so quickly.

2Ch 30:1 Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 30:2 The king and his officials and the whole assembly in Jerusalem decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month.

2Ch 30:3 They had not been able to celebrate it at the regular time because not enough priests had consecrated themselves and the people had not assembled in Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:4 The plan seemed right both to the king and to the whole assembly.

2Ch 30:5 They decided to send a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, calling the people to come to Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. It had not been celebrated in large numbers according to what was written.

2Ch 30:6 At the king's command, couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with letters from the king and from his officials, which read: "People of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to you who are left, who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

2Ch 30:7 Do not be like your fathers and brothers, who were unfaithful to the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he made them an object of horror, as you see.

2Ch 30:8 Do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; submit to the LORD. Come to the sanctuary, which he has consecrated forever. Serve the LORD your God, so that his fierce anger will turn away from you.

2Ch 30:9 If you return to the LORD, then your brothers and your children will be shown compassion by their captors and will come back to this land, for the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate. He will not turn his face from you if you return to him."

2Ch 30:10 The couriers went from town to town in Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun, but the people scorned and ridiculed them.

2Ch 30:11 Nevertheless, some men of Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:12 Also in Judah the hand of God was on the people to give them unity of mind to carry out what the king and his officials had ordered, following the word of the LORD.

2Ch 30:13 A very large crowd of people assembled in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

2Ch 30:14 They removed the altars in Jerusalem and cleared away the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.

2Ch 30:15 They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 30:16 Then they took up their regular positions as prescribed in the Law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood handed to them by the Levites.

2Ch 30:17 Since many in the crowd had not consecrated themselves, the Levites had to kill the Passover lambs for all those who were not ceremonially clean and could not consecrate [their lambs] to the LORD.

2Ch 30:18 Although most of the many people who came from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover, contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the LORD, who is good, pardon everyone 2Ch 30:19 who sets his heart on seeking God-- the LORD, the God of his fathers-- even if he is not clean according to the rules of the sanctuary."

2Ch 30:20 And the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

2Ch 30:21 The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great rejoicing, while the Levites and priests sang to the LORD every day, accompanied by the LORD's instruments of praise.

2Ch 30:22 Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites, who showed good understanding of the service of the LORD. For the seven days they ate their assigned portion and offered fellowship offerings and praised the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 30:23 The whole assembly then agreed to celebrate the festival seven more days; so for another seven days they celebrated joyfully.

2Ch 30:24 Hezekiah king of Judah provided a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep and goats for the assembly, and the officials provided them with a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep and goats. A great number of priests consecrated themselves.

2Ch 30:25 The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced, along with the priests and Levites and all who had assembled from Israel, including the aliens who had come from Israel and those who lived in Judah.

2Ch 30:26 There was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon son of David king of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:27 The priests and the Levites stood to bless the people, and God heard them, for their prayer reached heaven, his holy dwelling place.

2Ch 31:1 When all this had ended, the Israelites who were there went out to the towns of Judah, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. They destroyed the high places and the altars throughout Judah and Benjamin and in Ephraim and Manasseh. After they had destroyed all of them, the Israelites returned to their own towns and to their own property.

2Ch 31:2 Hezekiah assigned the priests and Levites to divisions-- each of them according to their duties as priests or Levites-- to offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, to minister, to give thanks and to sing praises at the gates of the LORD's dwelling.

2Ch 31:3 The king contributed from his own possessions for the morning and evening burnt offerings and for the burnt offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moons and appointed feasts as written in the Law of the LORD.

2Ch 31:4 He ordered the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion due the priests and Levites so they could devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

2Ch 31:5 As soon as the order went out, the Israelites generously gave the firstfruits of their grain, new wine, oil and honey and all that the fields produced. They brought a great amount, a tithe of everything.

2Ch 31:6 The men of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah also brought a tithe of their herds and flocks and a tithe of the holy things dedicated to the LORD their God, and they piled them in heaps.

2Ch 31:7 They began doing this in the third month and finished in the seventh month.

2Ch 31:8 When Hezekiah and his officials came and saw the heaps, they praised the LORD and blessed his people Israel.

2Ch 31:9 Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the heaps;

2Ch 31:10 and Azariah the chief priest, from the family of Zadok, answered, "Since the people began to bring their contributions to the temple of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and plenty to spare, because the LORD has blessed his people, and this great amount is left over."

2Ch 31:11 Hezekiah gave orders to prepare storerooms in the temple of the LORD, and this was done.

2Ch 31:12 Then they faithfully brought in the contributions, tithes and dedicated gifts. Conaniah, a Levite, was in charge of these things, and his brother Shimei was next in rank.

2Ch 31:13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismaikiah, Mahath and Benaiah were supervisors under Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by appointment of King Hezekiah and Azariah the official in charge of the temple of God.

2Ch 31:14 Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings given to God, distributing the contributions made to the LORD and also the consecrated gifts.

2Ch 31:15 Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah assisted him faithfully in the towns of the priests, distributing to their fellow priests according to their divisions, old and young alike.

2Ch 31:16 In addition, they distributed to the males three years old or more whose names were in the genealogical records-- all who would enter the temple of the LORD to perform the daily duties of their various tasks, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

2Ch 31:17 And they distributed to the priests enrolled by their families in the genealogical records and likewise to the Levites twenty years old or more, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

2Ch 31:18 They included all the little ones, the wives, and the sons and daughters of the whole community listed in these genealogical records. For they were faithful in consecrating themselves.

2Ch 31:19 As for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who lived on the farm lands around their towns or in any other towns, men were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among them and to all who were recorded in the genealogies of the Levites.

2Ch 31:20 This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah, doing what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God.

2Ch 31:21 In everything that he undertook in the service of God's temple and in obedience to the law and the commands, he sought his God and worked wholeheartedly. And so he prospered.

2Ch 32:1 After all that Hezekiah had so faithfully done, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He laid siege to the fortified cities, thinking to conquer them for himself.

2Ch 32:2 When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to make war on Jerusalem, 2Ch 32:3 he consulted with his officials and military staff about blocking off the water from the springs outside the city, and they helped him.

2Ch 32:4 A large force of men assembled, and they blocked all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land. "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?" they said.

2Ch 32:5 Then he worked hard repairing all the broken sections of the wall and building towers on it. He built another wall outside that one and reinforced the supporting terraces of the City of David. He also made large numbers of weapons and shields.

2Ch 32:6 He appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate and encouraged them with these words:

2Ch 32:7 "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria and the vast army with him, for there is a greater power with us than with him.

2Ch 32:8 With him is only the arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles." And the people gained confidence from what Hezekiah the king of Judah said.

2Ch 32:9 Later, when Sennacherib king of Assyria and all his forces were laying siege to Lachish, he sent his officers to Jerusalem with this message for Hezekiah king of Judah and for all the people of Judah who were there:

2Ch 32:10 "This is what Sennacherib king of Assyria says: On what are you basing your confidence, that you remain in Jerusalem under siege?

2Ch 32:11 When Hezekiah says, 'The LORD our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria,' he is misleading you, to let you die of hunger and thirst.

2Ch 32:12 Did not Hezekiah himself remove this god's high places and altars, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You must worship before one altar and burn sacrifices on it'?

2Ch 32:13 "Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the other lands? Were the gods of those nations ever able to deliver their land from my hand?

2Ch 32:14 Who of all the gods of these nations that my fathers destroyed has been able to save his people from me? How then can your god deliver you from my hand?

2Ch 32:15 Now do not let Hezekiah deceive you and mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your god deliver you from my hand!"

2Ch 32:16 Sennacherib's officers spoke further against the LORD God and against his servant Hezekiah.

2Ch 32:17 The king also wrote letters insulting the LORD, the God of Israel, and saying this against him: "Just as the gods of the peoples of the other lands did not rescue their people from my hand, so the god of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand."

2Ch 32:18 Then they called out in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to terrify them and make them afraid in order to capture the city.

2Ch 32:19 They spoke about the God of Jerusalem as they did about the gods of the other peoples of the world- the work of men's hands.

2Ch 32:20 King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer to heaven about this.

2Ch 32:21 And the LORD sent an angel, who annihilated all the fighting men and the leaders and officers in the camp of the Assyrian king. So he withdrew to his own land in disgrace. And when he went into the temple of his god, some of his sons cut him down with the sword.

2Ch 32:22 So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all others. He took care of them on every side.

2Ch 32:23 Many brought offerings to Jerusalem for the LORD and valuable gifts for Hezekiah king of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded by all the nations.

2Ch 32:24 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD, who answered him and gave him a miraculous sign.

2Ch 32:25 But Hezekiah's heart was proud and he did not respond to the kindness shown him; therefore the LORD's wrath was on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 32:26 Then Hezekiah repented of the pride of his heart, as did the people of Jerusalem; therefore the LORD's wrath did not come upon them during the days of Hezekiah.

2Ch 32:27 Hezekiah had very great riches and honor, and he made treasures for his silver and gold and for his precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuables.

2Ch 32:28 He also made buildings to store the harvest of grain, new wine and oil; and he made stalls for various kinds of cattle, and pens for the flocks.

2Ch 32:29 He built villages and acquired great numbers of flocks and herds, for God had given him very great riches.

2Ch 32:30 It was Hezekiah who blocked the upper outlet of the Gihon spring and channeled the water down to the west side of the City of David. He succeeded in everything he undertook.

2Ch 32:31 But when envoys were sent by the rulers of Babylon to ask him about the miraculous sign that had occurred in the land, God left him to test him and to know everything that was in his heart.

2Ch 32:32 The other events of Hezekiah's reign and his acts of devotion are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 32:33 Hezekiah rested with his fathers and was buried on the hill where the tombs of David's descendants are. All Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him when he died. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years.

2Ch 33:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2Ch 33:3 He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had demolished; he also erected altars to the Baals and made Asherah poles. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshiped them.

2Ch 33:4 He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "My Name will remain in Jerusalem forever."

2Ch 33:5 In both courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts.

2Ch 33:6 He sacrificed his sons in the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, practiced sorcery, divination and witchcraft, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2Ch 33:7 He took the carved image he had made and put it in God's temple, of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name forever."

2Ch 33:8 I will not again make the feet of the Israelites leave the land I assigned to your forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them concerning all the laws, decrees and ordinances given through Moses."

2Ch 33:9 But Manasseh led Judah and the people of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

2Ch 33:10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

2Ch 33:11 So the LORD brought against them the army commanders of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh prisoner, put a hook in his nose, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

2Ch 33:12 In his distress he sought the favor of the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

2Ch 33:13 And when he prayed to him, the LORD was moved by his entreaty and listened to his plea; so he brought him back to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God.

2Ch 33:14 Afterward he rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, west of the Gihon spring in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate and encircling the hill of Ophel; he also made it much higher. He stationed military commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.

2Ch 33:15 He got rid of the foreign gods and removed the image from the temple of the LORD, as well as all the altars he had built on the temple hill and in Jerusalem; and he threw them out of the city.

2Ch 33:16 Then he restored the altar of the LORD and sacrificed fellowship offerings and thank offerings on it, and told Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 33:17 The people, however, continued to sacrifice at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

2Ch 33:18 The other events of Manasseh's reign, including his prayer to his God and the words the seers spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are written in the annals of the kings of Israel.

2Ch 33:19 His prayer and how God was moved by his entreaty, as well as all his sins and unfaithfulness, and the sites where he built high places and set up Asherah poles and idols before he humbled himself-- all are written in the records of the seers.

2Ch 33:20 Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in his palace. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years.

2Ch 33:22 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshiped and offered sacrifices to all the idols Manasseh had made.

2Ch 33:23 But unlike his father Manasseh, he did not humble himself before the LORD; Amon increased his guilt.

2Ch 33:24 Amon's officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace.

2Ch 33:25 Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

2Ch 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years.

2Ch 34:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and walked in the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

2Ch 34:3 In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David. In his twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of high places, Asherah poles, carved idols and cast images.

2Ch 34:4 Under his direction the altars of the Baals were torn down; he cut to pieces the incense altars that were above them, and smashed the Asherah poles, the idols and the images. These he broke to pieces and scattered over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

2Ch 34:5 He burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and so he purged Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:6 In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the ruins around them,

2Ch 34:7 he tore down the altars and the Asherah poles and crushed the idols to powder and cut to pieces all the incense altars throughout Israel. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:8 In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, to purify the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah and Maaseiah the ruler of the city, with Joah son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the temple of the LORD his God.

2Ch 34:9 They went to Hilkiah the high priest and gave him the money that had been brought into the temple of God, which the Levites who were the doorkeepers had collected from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim and the entire remnant of Israel and from all the people of Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:10 Then they entrusted it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the LORD's temple. These men paid the workers who repaired and restored the temple.

2Ch 34:11 They also gave money to the carpenters and builders to purchase dressed stone, and timber for joists and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.

2Ch 34:12 The men did the work faithfully. Over them to direct them were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites descended from Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, descended from Kohath. The Levites-- all who were skilled in playing musical instruments--

2Ch 34:13 had charge of the laborers and supervised all the workers from job to job. Some of the Levites were secretaries, scribes and doorkeepers.

2Ch 34:14 While they were bringing out the money that had been taken into the temple of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD that had been given through Moses.

2Ch 34:15 Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD." He gave it to Shaphan.

2Ch 34:16 Then Shaphan took the book to the king and reported to him: "Your officials are doing everything that has been committed to them."

2Ch 34:17 They have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the supervisors and workers."

2Ch 34:18 Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

2Ch 34:19 When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his robes.

2Ch 34:20 He gave these orders to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king's attendant:

2Ch 34:21 "Go and inquire of the LORD for me and for the remnant in Israel and Judah about what is written in this book that has been found. Great is the LORD's anger that is poured out on us because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written in this book."

2Ch 34:22 Hilkiah and those the king had sent with him went to speak to the prophetess Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.

2Ch 34:23 She said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me,
2Ch 34:24 'This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people-- all the curses written in the book that has been read in the presence of the king of Judah.

2Ch 34:25 Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all that their hands have made, my anger will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.'

2Ch 34:26 Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard:

2Ch 34:27 Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before God when you heard what he spoke against this place and its people, and because you humbled yourself before me and tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the LORD.

2Ch 34:28 Now I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place and on those who live here.'" So they took her answer back to the king.

2Ch 34:29 Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:30 He went up to the temple of the LORD with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites-- all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD.

2Ch 34:31 The king stood by his pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD-- to follow the LORD and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book.

2Ch 34:32 Then he had everyone in Jerusalem and Benjamin pledge themselves to it; the people of Jerusalem did this in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 34:33 Josiah removed all the detestable idols from all the territory belonging to the Israelites, and he had all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. As long as he lived, they did not fail to follow the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 35:1 Josiah celebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and the Passover lamb was slaughtered on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2Ch 35:2 He appointed the priests to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the LORD's temple.

2Ch 35:3 He said to the Levites, who instructed all Israel and who had been consecrated to the LORD: "Put the sacred ark in the temple that Solomon son of David king of Israel built. It is not to be carried about on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

2Ch 35:4 Prepare yourselves by families in your divisions, according to the directions written by David king of Israel and by his son Solomon.

2Ch 35:5 "Stand in the holy place with a group of Levites for each subdivision of the families of your fellow countrymen, the lay people.

2Ch 35:6 Slaughter the Passover lambs, consecrate yourselves and prepare [the lambs] for your fellow countrymen, doing what the LORD commanded through Moses."

2Ch 35:7 Josiah provided for all the lay people who were there a total of thirty thousand sheep and goats for the Passover offerings, and also three thousand cattle-- all from the king's own possessions.

2Ch 35:8 His officials also contributed voluntarily to the people and the priests and Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel, the administrators of God's temple, gave the priests twenty-six hundred Passover offerings and three hundred cattle.

2Ch 35:9 Also Conaniah along with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, the leaders of the Levites, provided five thousand Passover offerings and five hundred head of cattle for the Levites.

2Ch 35:10 The service was arranged and the priests stood in their places with the Levites in their divisions as the king had ordered.

2Ch 35:11 The Passover lambs were slaughtered, and the priests sprinkled the blood handed to them, while the Levites skinned the animals.

2Ch 35:12 They set aside the burnt offerings to give them to the subdivisions of the families of the people to offer to the LORD, as is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle.

2Ch 35:13 They roasted the Passover animals over the fire as prescribed, and boiled the holy offerings in pots, caldrons and pans and served them quickly to all the people.

2Ch 35:14 After this, they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat portions until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the Aaronic priests.

2Ch 35:15 The musicians, the descendants of Asaph, were in the places prescribed by David, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun the king's seer. The gatekeepers at each gate did not need to leave their posts, because their fellow Levites made the preparations for them.

2Ch 35:16 So at that time the entire service of the LORD was carried out for the celebration of the Passover and the offering of burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, as King Josiah had ordered.

2Ch 35:17 The Israelites who were present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

2Ch 35:18 The Passover had not been observed like this in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as did Josiah, with the priests, the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were there with the people of Jerusalem.

2Ch 35:19 This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

2Ch 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah marched out to meet him in battle.

2Ch 35:21 But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "What quarrel is there between you and me, O king of Judah? It is not you I am attacking at this time, but the house with which I am at war. God has told me to hurry; so stop opposing God, who is with me, or he will destroy you."

2Ch 35:22 Josiah, however, would not turn away from him, but disguised himself to engage him in battle. He would not listen to what Neco had said at God's command but went to fight him on the plain of Megiddo.

2Ch 35:23 Archers shot King Josiah, and he told his officers, "Take me away; I am badly wounded."

2Ch 35:24 So they took him out of his chariot, put him in the other chariot he had and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs of his fathers, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.

2Ch 35:25 Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the men and women singers commemorate Josiah in the laments. These became a tradition in Israel and are written in the Laments.

2Ch 35:26 The other events of Josiah's reign and his acts of devotion, according to what is written in the Law of the LORD--

2Ch 35:27 all the events, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 36:1 And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

2Ch 36:2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months.

2Ch 36:3 The king of Egypt dethroned him in Jerusalem and imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2Ch 36:4 The king of Egypt made Eliakim, a brother of Jehoahaz, king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Eliakim's brother Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt.

2Ch 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2Ch 36:6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked him and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.

2Ch 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also took to Babylon articles from the temple of the LORD and put them in his temple there.

2Ch 36:8 The other events of Jehoiakim's reign, the detestable things he did and all that was found against him, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch 36:9 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ch 36:10 In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon, together with articles of value from the temple of the LORD, and he made Jehoiachin's uncle, Zedekiah, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years.

2Ch 36:12 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke the word of the LORD.

2Ch 36:13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him take an oath in God's name. He became stiff-necked and hardened his heart and would not turn to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 36:14 Furthermore, all the leaders of the priests and the people became more and more unfaithful, following all the detestable practices of the nations and defiling the temple of the LORD, which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:15 The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them through his messengers again and again, because he had pity on his people and on his dwelling place.

2Ch 36:16 But they mocked God's messengers, despised his words and scoffed at his prophets until the wrath of the LORD was aroused against his people and there was no remedy.

2Ch 36:17 He brought up against them the king of the Babylonians, who killed their young men with the sword in the sanctuary, and spared neither young man nor young woman, old man or aged. God handed all of them over to Nebuchadnezzar.

2Ch 36:18 He carried to Babylon all the articles from the temple of God, both large and small, and the treasures of the LORD's temple and the treasures of the king and his officials.

2Ch 36:19 They set fire to God's temple and broke down the wall of Jerusalem; they burned all the palaces and destroyed everything of value there.

2Ch 36:20 He carried into exile to Babylon the remnant, who escaped from the sword, and they became servants to him and his sons until the kingdom of Persia came to power.

2Ch 36:21 The land enjoyed its sabbath rests; all the time of its desolation it rested, until the seventy years were completed in fulfillment of the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah.

2Ch 36:22 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and to put it in writing:

2Ch 36:23 "This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: "The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. Anyone of his people among you-- may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up."

Ezr 1:1 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and to put it in writing:

Ezr 1:2 "This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: "The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah.

Ezr 1:3 Anyone of his people among you-- may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:4 And the people of any place where survivors may now be living are to provide him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the temple of God in Jerusalem."

Ezr 1:5 Then the family heads of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and Levites-- everyone whose heart God had moved-- prepared to go up and build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:6 All their neighbors assisted them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with valuable gifts, in addition to all the freewill offerings.

Ezr 1:7 Moreover, King Cyrus brought out the articles belonging to the temple of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of his god.

Ezr 1:8 Cyrus king of Persia had them brought by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

Ezr 1:9 This was the inventory: gold dishes 30 silver dishes 1,000 silver pans 29

Ezr 1:10 gold bowls 30 matching silver bowls 410 other articles 1,000

Ezr 1:11 In all, there were 5,400 articles of gold and of silver. Sheshbazzar brought all these along when the exiles came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezr 2:1 Now these are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive to Babylon (they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town,

Ezr 2:58 The temple servants and the descendants of the servants of Solomon 392
Ezr 2:59 The following came up from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer, but they could not show that their families were descended from Israel:
Ezr 2:60 The descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda 652
Ezr 2:61 And from among the priests: The descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai (a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).
Ezr 2:62 These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.
Ezr 2:63 The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there was a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.
Ezr 2:64 The whole company numbered 42,360,
Ezr 2:65 besides their 7,337 menservants and maidservants; and they also had 200 men and women singers.
Ezr 2:66 They had 736 horses, 245 mules,
Ezr 2:67 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.
Ezr 2:68 When they arrived at the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families gave freewill offerings toward the rebuilding of the house of God on its site.
Ezr 2:69 According to their ability they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 drachmas of gold, 5,000 minas of silver and 100 priestly garments.
Ezr 2:70 The priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants settled in their own towns, along with some of the other people, and the rest of the Israelites settled in their towns.
Ezr 3:1 When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns, the people assembled as one man in Jerusalem.

Ezr 3:2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and his fellow priests and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, in accordance with what is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

Ezr 3:3 Despite their fear of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its foundation and sacrificed burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening sacrifices.

Ezr 3:4 Then in accordance with what is written, they celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles with the required number of burnt offerings prescribed for each day.

Ezr 3:5 After that, they presented the regular burnt offerings, the New Moon sacrifices and the sacrifices for all the appointed sacred feasts of the LORD, as well as those brought as freewill offerings to the LORD.

Ezr 3:6 On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, though the foundation of the LORD's temple had not yet been laid.

Ezr 3:7 Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and gave food and drink and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so that they would bring cedar logs by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorized by Cyrus king of Persia.

Ezr 3:8 In the second month of the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers (the priests and the Levites and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem) began the work, appointing Levites twenty years of age and older to supervise the building of the house of the LORD.

Ezr 3:9 Jeshua and his sons and brothers and Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodaviah) and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers-- all Levites-- joined together in supervising those working on the house of God.

Ezr 3:10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments and with trumpets, and the Levites (the sons of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise the LORD, as prescribed by David king of Israel.

Ezr 3:11 With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD: "He is good; his love to Israel endures forever." And all the people gave a great shout of praise to the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Ezr 3:12 But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple, wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy.

Ezr 3:13 No one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.

Ezr 4:1 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel,

Ezr 4:2 they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the families and said, "Let us help you build because, like you, we seek your God and have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here."

Ezr 4:3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the families of Israel answered, "You have no part with us in building a temple to our God. We alone will build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us."

Ezr 4:4 Then the peoples around them set out to discourage the people of Judah and make them afraid to go on building.

Ezr 4:5 They hired counselors to work against them and frustrate their plans during the entire reign of Cyrus king of Persia and down to the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 4:6 At the beginning of the reign of Xerxes, they lodged an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic script and in the Aramaic language.

Ezr 4:8 Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

Ezr 4:9 Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, together with the rest of their associates-- the judges and officials over the men from Tripolis, Persia, Erech and Babylon, the Elamites of Susa, Ezr 4:10 and the other people whom the great and honorable Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates.

Ezr 4:11 (This is a copy of the letter they sent him.) To King Artaxerxes, From your servants, the men of Trans-Euphrates:

Ezr 4:12 The king should know that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are restoring the walls and repairing the foundations.

Ezr 4:13 Furthermore, the king should know that if this city is built and its walls are restored, no more taxes, tribute or duty will be paid, and the royal revenues will suffer.

Ezr 4:14 Now since we are under obligation to the palace and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonored, we are sending this message to inform the king,

Ezr 4:15 so that a search may be made in the archives of your predecessors. In these records you will find that this city is a rebellious city, troublesome to kings and provinces, a place of rebellion from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed.

Ezr 4:16 We inform the king that if this city is built and its walls are restored, you will be left with nothing in Trans-Euphrates.

Ezr 4:17 The king sent this reply: To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary and the rest of their associates living in Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates: Greetings.

Ezr 4:18 The letter you sent us has been read and translated in my presence.

Ezr 4:19 I issued an order and a search was made, and it was found that this city has a long history of revolt against kings and has been a place of rebellion and sedition.

Ezr 4:20 Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over the whole of Trans-Euphrates, and taxes, tribute and duty were paid to them.

Ezr 4:21 Now issue an order to these men to stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until I so order.

Ezr 4:22 Be careful not to neglect this matter. Why let this threat grow, to the detriment of the royal interests?

Ezr 4:23 As soon as the copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary and their associates, they went immediately to the Jews in Jerusalem and compelled them by force to stop.

Ezr 4:24 Thus the work on the house of God in Jerusalem came to a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 5:1 Now Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.

Ezr 5:2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak set to work to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

Ezr 5:3 At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates went to them and asked, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?"

Ezr 5:4 They also asked, "What are the names of the men constructing this building?"

Ezr 5:5 But the eye of their God was watching over the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and his written reply be received.

Ezr 5:6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, the officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius.

Ezr 5:7 The report they sent him read as follows: To King Darius: Cordial greetings.

Ezr 5:8 The king should know that we went to the district of Judah, to the temple of the great God. The people are building it with large stones and placing the timbers in the walls. The work is being carried on with diligence and is making rapid progress under their direction.

Ezr 5:9 We questioned the elders and asked them, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?"

Ezr 5:10 We also asked them their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.

Ezr 5:11 This is the answer they gave us: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, one that a great king of Israel built and finished."

Ezr 5:12 But because our fathers angered the God of heaven, he handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, king of Babylon, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

Ezr 5:13 "However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

Ezr 5:14 He even removed from the temple of Babylon the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple in Babylon. "Then King Cyrus gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor,

Ezr 5:15 and he told him, 'Take these articles and go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem. And rebuild the house of God on its site.'

Ezr 5:16 So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem. From that day to the present it has been under construction but is not yet finished."

Ezr 5:17 Now if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives of Babylon to see if King Cyrus did in fact issue a decree to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision in this matter.

Ezr 6:1 King Darius then issued an order, and they searched in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon.

Ezr 6:2 A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana in the province of Media, and this was written on it:

Memorandum:

Ezr 6:3 In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem: Let the temple be rebuilt as a place to present sacrifices, and let its foundations be laid. It is to be ninety feet high and ninety feet wide,

Ezr 6:4 with three courses of large stones and one of timbers. The costs are to be paid by the royal treasury.

Ezr 6:5 Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; they are to be deposited in the house of God.

Ezr 6:6 Now then, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and you, their fellow officials of that province, stay away from there.

Ezr 6:7 Do not interfere with the work on this temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

Ezr 6:8 Moreover, I hereby decree what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the construction of this house of God: The expenses of these men are to be fully paid out of the royal treasury, from the revenues of Trans-Euphrates, so that the work will not stop.

Ezr 6:9 Whatever is needed-- young bulls, rams, male lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem-- must be given them daily without fail,

Ezr 6:10 so that they may offer sacrifices pleasing to the God of heaven and pray for the well-being of the king and his sons.

Ezr 6:11 Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, a beam is to be pulled from his house and he is to be lifted up and impaled on it. And for this crime his house is to be made a pile of rubble.

Ezr 6:12 May God, who has caused his Name to dwell there, overthrow any king or people who lifts a hand to change this decree or to destroy this temple in Jerusalem. I Darius have decreed it. Let it be carried out with diligence.

Ezr 6:13 Then, because of the decree King Darius had sent, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates carried it out with diligence.

Ezr 6:14 So the elders of the Jews continued to build and prosper under the preaching of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo. They finished building the temple according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.

Ezr 6:15 The temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Ezr 6:16 Then the people of Israel-- the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles-- celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy.

Ezr 6:17 For the dedication of this house of God they offered a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred male lambs and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, one for each of the tribes of Israel.

Ezr 6:18 And they installed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their groups for the service of God at Jerusalem, according to what is written in the Book of Moses.

Ezr 6:19 On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.

Ezr 6:20 The priests and Levites had purified themselves and were all ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

Ezr 6:21 So the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the unclean practices of their Gentile neighbors in order to seek the LORD, the God of Israel.

Ezr 6:22 For seven days they celebrated with joy the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because the LORD had filled them with joy by changing the attitude of the king of Assyria, so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezr 7:1 After these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

Ezr 7:2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

Ezr 7:3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

Ezr 7:4 the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

Ezr 7:5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest--

Ezr 7:6 this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a teacher well versed in the Law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted him everything he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him.

Ezr 7:7 Some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers and temple servants, also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

Ezr 7:8 Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

Ezr 7:9 He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the gracious hand of his God was on him.

Ezr 7:10 For Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the Law of the LORD, and to teaching its decrees and laws in Israel.

Ezr 7:11 This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes had given to Ezra the priest and teacher, a man learned in matters concerning the commands and decrees of the LORD for Israel:

Ezr 7:12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven: Greetings.

Ezr 7:13 Now I decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who wish to go to Jerusalem with you, may go.

Ezr 7:14 You are sent by the king and his seven advisers to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand.

Ezr 7:15 Moreover, you are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his advisers have freely given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:16 together with all the silver and gold you may obtain from the province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and priests for the temple of their God in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:17 With this money be sure to buy bulls, rams and male lambs, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and sacrifice them on the altar of the temple of your God in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:18 You and your brother Jews may then do whatever seems best with the rest of the silver and gold, in accordance with the will of your God.

Ezr 7:19 Deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles entrusted to you for worship in the temple of your God.

Ezr 7:20 And anything else needed for the temple of your God that you may have occasion to supply, you may provide from the royal treasury.

Ezr 7:21 Now I, King Artaxerxes, order all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates to provide with diligence whatever Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven, may ask of you--

Ezr 7:22 up to a hundred talents of silver, a hundred cors of wheat, a hundred baths of wine, a hundred baths of olive oil, and salt without limit.

Ezr 7:23 Whatever the God of heaven has prescribed, let it be done with diligence for the temple of the God of heaven. Why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and of his sons?

Ezr 7:24 You are also to know that you have no authority to impose taxes, tribute or duty on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants or other workers at this house of God.

Ezr 7:25 And you, Ezra, in accordance with the wisdom of your God, which you possess, appoint magistrates and judges to administer justice to all the people of Trans-Euphrates-- all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach any who do not know them.

Ezr 7:26 Whoever does not obey the law of your God and the law of the king must surely be punished by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.

Ezr 7:27 Praise be to the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the king's heart to bring honor to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem in this way

Ezr 7:28 and who has extended his good favor to me before the king and his advisers and all the king's powerful officials. Because the hand of the LORD my God was on me, I took courage and gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Ezr 8:1 These are the family heads and those registered with them who came up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Ezr 8:2 of the descendants of Phinehas, Gershom; of the descendants of Ithamar, Daniel; of the descendants of David, Hattush

Ezr 8:3 of the descendants of Shecaniah; of the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were registered 150 men;

Ezr 8:4 of the descendants of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him 200 men;

Ezr 8:5 of the descendants of Zattu, Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him 300 men;

Ezr 8:6 of the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him 50 men;

Ezr 8:7 of the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiah son of Athaliah, and with him 70 men;

Ezr 8:8 of the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him 80 men;

Ezr 8:9 of the descendants of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him 218 men;

Ezr 8:10 of the descendants of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him 160 men;

Ezr 8:11 of the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him 28 men;

Ezr 8:12 of the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him 110 men;

Ezr 8:13 of the descendants of Adonikam, the last ones, whose names were Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah, and with them 60 men;

Ezr 8:14 of the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur, and with them 70 men.

Ezr 8:15 I assembled them at the canal that flows toward Ahava, and we camped there three days. When I checked among the people and the priests, I found no Levites there.

Ezr 8:16 So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elhathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of learning,

Ezr 8:17 and I sent them to Iddo, the leader in Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his kinsmen, the temple servants in Casiphia, so that they might bring attendants to us for the house of our God.

Ezr 8:18 Because the gracious hand of our God was on us, they brought us Sherebiah, a capable man, from the descendants of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah's sons and brothers, 18 men;

Ezr 8:19 and Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiah from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and nephews, 20 men.

Ezr 8:20 They also brought 220 of the temple servants-- a body that David and the officials had established to assist the Levites. All were registered by name.

Ezr 8:21 There, by the Ahava Canal, I proclaimed a fast, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask him for a safe journey for us and our children, with all our possessions.

Ezr 8:22 I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us from enemies on the road, because we had told the king, "The gracious hand of our God is on everyone who looks to him, but his great anger is against all who forsake him."

Ezr 8:23 So we fasted and petitioned our God about this, and he answered our prayer.

Ezr 8:24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, together with Sherebiah, Hashabiah and ten of their brothers,

Ezr 8:25 and I weighed out to them the offering of silver and gold and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials and all Israel present there had donated for the house of our God.

Ezr 8:26 I weighed out to them 650 talents of silver, silver articles weighing 100 talents, 100 talents of gold,

Ezr 8:27 20 bowls of gold valued at 1,000 darics, and two fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold.

Ezr 8:28 I said to them, "You as well as these articles are consecrated to the LORD. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers.

Ezr 8:29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem before the leading priests and the Levites and the family heads of Israel."

Ezr 8:30 Then the priests and Levites received the silver and gold and sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

Ezr 8:31 On the twelfth day of the first month we set out from the Ahava Canal to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he protected us from enemies and bandits along the way.

Ezr 8:32 So we arrived in Jerusalem, where we rested three days.

Ezr 8:33 On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out the silver and gold and the sacred articles into the hands of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.

Ezr 8:34 Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was recorded at that time.

Ezr 8:35 Then the exiles who had returned from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs and, as a sin offering, twelve male goats. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezr 8:36 They also delivered the king's orders to the royal satraps and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, who then gave assistance to the people and to the house of God.

Ezr 9:1 After these things had been done, the leaders came to me and said, "The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the neighboring peoples with their detestable practices, like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites.

Ezr 9:2 They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, and have mingled the holy race with the peoples around them. And the leaders and officials have led the way in this unfaithfulness."

Ezr 9:3 When I heard this, I tore my tunic and cloak, pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down appalled.

Ezr 9:4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of this unfaithfulness of the exiles. And I sat there appalled until the evening sacrifice.

Ezr 9:5 Then, at the evening sacrifice, I rose from my self-abasement, with my tunic and cloak torn, and fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the LORD my God

Ezr 9:6 and prayed: "O my God, I am too ashamed and disgraced to lift up my face to you, my God, because our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens.

Ezr 9:7 From the days of our forefathers until now, our guilt has been great. Because of our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been subjected to the sword and captivity, to pillage and humiliation at the hand of foreign kings, as it is today.

Ezr 9:8 "But now, for a brief moment, the LORD our God has been gracious in leaving us a remnant and giving us a firm place in his sanctuary, and so our God gives light to our eyes and a little relief in our bondage.

Ezr 9:9 Though we are slaves, our God has not deserted us in our bondage. He has shown us kindness in the sight of the kings of Persia: He has granted us new life to rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins, and he has given us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 9:10 "But now, O our God, what can we say after this? For we have disregarded the commands
Ezr 9:11 you gave through your servants the prophets when you said: 'The land you are entering to possess is a land polluted by the corruption of its peoples. By their detestable practices they have filled it with their impurity from one end to the other.'

Ezr 9:12 Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them at any time, that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it to your children as an everlasting inheritance.'

Ezr 9:13 "What has happened to us is a result of our evil deeds and our great guilt, and yet, our God, you have punished us less than our sins have deserved and have given us a remnant like this.

Ezr 9:14 Shall we again break your commands and intermarry with the peoples who commit such detestable practices? Would you not be angry enough with us to destroy us, leaving us no remnant or survivor?

Ezr 9:15 O LORD, God of Israel, you are righteous! We are left this day as a remnant. Here we are before you in our guilt, though because of it not one of us can stand in your presence."

Ezr 10:1 While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, a large crowd of Israelites-- men, women and children-- gathered around him. They too wept bitterly.

Ezr 10:2 Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, said to Ezra, "We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples around us. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel.

Ezr 10:3 Now let us make a covenant before our God to send away all these women and their children, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Law.

Ezr 10:4 Rise up; this matter is in your hands. We will support you, so take courage and do it."

Ezr 10:5 So Ezra rose up and put the leading priests and Levites and all Israel under oath to do what had been suggested. And they took the oath.

Ezr 10:6 Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no food and drank no water, because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

Ezr 10:7 A proclamation was then issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem.

Ezr 10:8 Anyone who failed to appear within three days would forfeit all his property, in accordance with the decision of the officials and elders, and would himself be expelled from the assembly of the exiles.

Ezr 10:9 Within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin had gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the square before the house of God, greatly distressed by the occasion and because of the rain.

Ezr 10:10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have been unfaithful; you have married foreign women, adding to Israel's guilt.

Ezr 10:11 Now make confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples around you and from your foreign wives."

Ezr 10:12 The whole assembly responded with a loud voice: "You are right! We must do as you say.

Ezr 10:13 But there are many people here and it is the rainy season; so we cannot stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be taken care of in a day or two, because we have sinned greatly in this thing.

Ezr 10:14 Let our officials act for the whole assembly. Then let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at a set time, along with the elders and judges of each town, until the fierce anger of our God in this matter is turned away from us."

Ezr 10:15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite, opposed this.

Ezr 10:16 So the exiles did as was proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were family heads, one from each family division, and all of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to investigate the cases,

Ezr 10:17 and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women.

Ezr 10:18 Among the descendants of the priests, the following had married foreign women: From the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah.

Ezr 10:19 (They all gave their hands in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt they each presented a ram from the flock as a guilt offering.)

Ezr 10:20 From the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

Ezr 10:21 From the descendants of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziah.

Ezr 10:22 From the descendants of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasar.

Ezr 10:23 Among the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.

Ezr 10:24 From the singers: Eliashib. From the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem and Uri.

Ezr 10:25 And among the other Israelites: From the descendants of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah and Benaiah.

Ezr 10:26 From the descendants of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah.

Ezr 10:27 From the descendants of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza.

Ezr 10:28 From the descendants of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai.

Ezr 10:29 From the descendants of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal and Jeremoth.

Ezr 10:30 From the descendants of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh.

Ezr 10:31 From the descendants of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Ezr 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch and Shemariah.

Ezr 10:33 From the descendants of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei.

Ezr 10:34 From the descendants of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

Ezr 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi,

Ezr 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezr 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai and Jaasu.

Ezr 10:38 From the descendants of Binnui: Shimei,

Ezr 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

Ezr 10:40 Macnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezr 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezr 10:42 Shallum, Amariah and Joseph.

Ezr 10:43 From the descendants of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah.

Ezr 10:44 All these had married foreign women, and some of them had children by these wives.

Neh 1:1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah: In the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa,

Neh 1:2 Hanani, one of my brothers, came from Judah with some other men, and I questioned them about the Jewish remnant that survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem.

Neh 1:3 They said to me, "Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

Neh 1:4 When I heard these things, I sat down and wept. For some days I mourned and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven.

Neh 1:5 Then I said: "O LORD, God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with those who love him and obey his commands,

Neh 1:6 let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to hear the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father's house, have committed against you.

Neh 1:7 We have acted very wickedly toward you. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees and laws you gave your servant Moses.

Neh 1:8 "Remember the instruction you gave your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations,

Neh 1:9 but if you return to me and obey my commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen as a dwelling for my Name.'

Neh 1:10 "They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great strength and your mighty hand.

Neh 1:11 O Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success today by granting him favor in the presence of this man." I was cupbearer to the king.

Neh 2:1 In the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was brought for him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before;

Neh 2:2 so the king asked me, "Why does your face look so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart." I was very much afraid,

Neh 2:3 but I said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my face not look sad when the city where my fathers are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

Neh 2:4 The king said to me, "What is it you want?" Then I prayed to the God of heaven,

Neh 2:5 and I answered the king, "If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favor in his sight, let him send me to the city in Judah where my fathers are buried so that I can rebuild it."

Neh 2:6 Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, "How long will your journey take, and when will you get back?" It pleased the king to send me; so I set a time.

Neh 2:7 I also said to him, "If it pleases the king, may I have letters to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, so that they will provide me safe-conduct until I arrive in Judah?"

Neh 2:8 And may I have a letter to Asaph, keeper of the king's forest, so he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple and for the city wall and for the residence I will occupy?" And because the gracious hand of my God was upon me, the king granted my requests.

Neh 2:9 So I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry with me.

Neh 2:10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very much disturbed that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.

Neh 2:11 I went to Jerusalem, and after staying there three days

Neh 2:12 I set out during the night with a few men. I had not told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no mounts with me except the one I was riding on.

Neh 2:13 By night I went out through the Valley Gate toward the Jackal Well and the Dung Gate, examining the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire.

Neh 2:14 Then I moved on toward the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but there was not enough room for my mount to get through;

Neh 2:15 so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and reentered through the Valley Gate.

Neh 2:16 The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because as yet I had said nothing to the Jews or the priests or nobles or officials or any others who would be doing the work.

Neh 2:17 Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace."

Neh 2:18 I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me and what the king had said to me. They replied, "Let us start rebuilding." So they began this good work.

Neh 2:19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. "What is this you are doing?" they asked. "Are you rebelling against the king?"

Neh 2:20 I answered them by saying, "The God of heaven will give us success. We his servants will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it."

Neh 3:1 Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests went to work and rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set its doors in place, building as far as the Tower of the Hundred, which they dedicated, and as far as the Tower of Hananel.

Neh 3:2 The men of Jericho built the adjoining section, and Zaccur son of Imri built next to them.

Neh 3:3 The Fish Gate was rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Neh 3:4 Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired the next section. Next to him Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs, and next to him Zadok son of Baana also made repairs.

Neh 3:5 The next section was repaired by the men of Tekoa, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.

Neh 3:6 The Jeshanah Gate was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Neh 3:7 Next to them, repairs were made by men from Gibeon and Mizpah-- Melatiah of Gibeon and Jadon of Meronoth-- places under the authority of the governor of Trans-Euphrates.

Neh 3:8 Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next section; and Hananiah, one of the perfume-makers, made repairs next to that. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Neh 3:9 Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section.

Neh 3:10 Adjoining this, Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah made repairs next to him.

Neh 3:11 Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.

Neh 3:12 Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with the help of his daughters.

Neh 3:13 The Valley Gate was repaired by Hanun and the residents of Zanoah. They rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. They also repaired five hundred yards of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.

Neh 3:14 The Dung Gate was repaired by Malkijah son of Recab, ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Neh 3:15 The Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah. He rebuilt it, roofing it over and putting its doors and bolts and bars in place. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam, by the King's Garden, as far as the steps going down from the City of David.

Neh 3:16 Beyond him, Nehemiah son of Azruk, ruler of a half-district of Beth Zur, made repairs up to a point opposite the tombs of David, as far as the artificial pool and the House of the Heroes.

Neh 3:17 Next to him, the repairs were made by the Levites under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him, Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

Neh 3:18 Next to him, the repairs were made by their countrymen under Binnui son of Henadad, ruler of the other half-district of Keilah.

Neh 3:19 Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section, from a point facing the ascent to the armory as far as the angle.

Neh 3:20 Next to him, Baruch son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the angle to the entrance of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Neh 3:21 Next to him, Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired another section, from the entrance of Eliashib's house to the end of it.

Neh 3:22 The repairs next to him were made by the priests from the surrounding region.

Neh 3:23 Beyond them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house; and next to them, Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs beside his house.

Neh 3:24 Next to him, Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner,

Neh 3:25 and Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper palace near the court of the guard. Next to him, Pedaiah son of Parosh

Neh 3:26 and the temple servants living on the hill of Ophel made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate toward the east and the projecting tower.

Neh 3:27 Next to them, the men of Tekoa repaired another section, from the great projecting tower to the wall of Ophel.

Neh 3:28 Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

Neh 3:29 Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him, Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the guard at the East Gate, made repairs.

Neh 3:30 Next to him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs opposite his living quarters.

Neh 3:31 Next to him, Malkijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and as far as the room above the corner;

Neh 3:32 and between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Neh 4:1 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews,

Neh 4:2 and in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, he said, "What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble-- burned as they are?"

Neh 4:3 Tobiah the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, "What they are building-- if even a fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!"

Neh 4:4 Hear us, O our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity.

Neh 4:5 Do not cover up their guilt or blot out their sins from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of the builders.

Neh 4:6 So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart.

Neh 4:7 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the men of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem's walls had gone ahead and that the gaps were being closed, they were very angry.

Neh 4:8 They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it.

Neh 4:9 But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

Neh 4:10 Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall."

Neh 4:11 Also our enemies said, "Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work."

Neh 4:12 Then the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times over, "Wherever you turn, they will attack us."

Neh 4:13 Therefore I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, posting them by families, with their swords, spears and bows.

Neh 4:14 After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes."

Neh 4:15 When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his own work.

Neh 4:16 From that day on, half of my men did the work, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows and armor. The officers posted themselves behind all the people of Judah

Neh 4:17 who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon in the other,

Neh 4:18 and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who sounded the trumpet stayed with me.

Neh 4:19 Then I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, "The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from each other along the wall.

Neh 4:20 Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, join us there. Our God will fight for us!"

Neh 4:21 So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from the first light of dawn till the stars came out.

Neh 4:22 At that time I also said to the people, "Have every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night, so they can serve us as guards by night and workmen by day."

Neh 4:23 Neither I nor my brothers nor my men nor the guards with me took off our clothes; each had his weapon, even when he went for water.

Neh 5:1 Now the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their Jewish brothers.

Neh 5:2 Some were saying, "We and our sons and daughters are numerous; in order for us to eat and stay alive, we must get grain."

Neh 5:3 Others were saying, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our homes to get grain during the famine."

Neh 5:4 Still others were saying, "We have had to borrow money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards.

Neh 5:5 Although we are of the same flesh and blood as our countrymen and though our sons are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

Neh 5:6 When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry.

Neh 5:7 I pondered them in my mind and then accused the nobles and officials. I told them, "You are exacting usury from your own countrymen!" So I called together a large meeting to deal with them

Neh 5:8 and said: "As far as possible, we have bought back our Jewish brothers who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your brothers, only for them to be sold back to us!" They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to say.

Neh 5:9 So I continued, "What you are doing is not right. Shouldn't you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies?

Neh 5:10 I and my brothers and my men are also lending the people money and grain. But let the exacting of usury stop!

Neh 5:11 Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses, and also the usury you are charging them-- the hundredth part of the money, grain, new wine and oil."

Neh 5:12 "We will give it back," they said. "And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say." Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath to do what they had promised.

Neh 5:13 I also shook out the folds of my robe and said, "In this way may God shake out of his house and possessions every man who does not keep this promise. So may such a man be shaken out and emptied!" At this the whole assembly said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

Neh 5:14 Moreover, from the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, until his thirty-second year-- twelve years-- neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor.

Neh 5:15 But the earlier governors-- those preceding me-- placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Their assistants also lorded it over the people. But out of reverence for God I did not act like that.

Neh 5:16 Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall. All my men were assembled there for the work; we did not acquire any land.

Neh 5:17 Furthermore, a hundred and fifty Jews and officials ate at my table, as well as those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

Neh 5:18 Each day one ox, six choice sheep and some poultry were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundant supply of wine of all kinds. In spite of all this, I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the demands were heavy on these people.

Neh 5:19 Remember me with favor, O my God, for all I have done for these people.

Neh 6:1 When word came to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and not a gap was left in it-- though up to that time I had not set the doors in the gates-- Neh 6:2 Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: "Come, let us meet together in one of the villages on the plain of Ono." But they were scheming to harm me; Neh 6:3 so I sent messengers to them with this reply: "I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?" Neh 6:4 Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I gave them the same answer. Neh 6:5 Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his aide to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter Neh 6:6 in which was written: "It is reported among the nations-- and Geshem says it is true-- that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king" Neh 6:7 and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem: 'There is a king in Judah!' Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us confer together." Neh 6:8 I sent him this reply: "Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head." Neh 6:9 They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed." [But I prayed,] "Now strengthen my hands." Neh 6:10 One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home. He said, "Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you-- by night they are coming to kill you." Neh 6:11 But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Or should one like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!" Neh 6:12 I realized that God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. Neh 6:13 He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would commit a sin by doing this, and then they would give me a bad name to discredit me. Neh 6:14 Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, O my God, because of what they have done; remember also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who have been trying to intimidate me. Neh 6:15 So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days. Neh 6:16 When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realized that this work had been done with the help of our God. Neh 6:17 Also, in those days the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them. Neh 6:18 For many in Judah were under oath to him, since he was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah. Neh 6:19 Moreover, they kept reporting to me his good deeds and then telling him what I said. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me. Neh 7:1 After the wall had been rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed. Neh 7:2 I put in charge of Jerusalem my brother Hanani, along with Hananiah the commander of the citadel, because he was a man of integrity and feared God more than most men do. Neh 7:3 I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, have them shut the doors and bar them. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own houses." Neh 7:4 Now the city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and the houses had not yet been rebuilt. Neh 7:5 So my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the common people for registration by families. I found the genealogical record of those who had been the first to return. This is what I found written there: Neh 7:6 These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive (they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town, Neh 7:7 in company with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum and Baanah): The list of the men of Israel: Neh 7:8 the descendants of Parosh 2,172 Neh 7:9 of Shephatiah 372 Neh 7:10 of Arah 652 Neh 7:11 of Pahath-Moab (through the line of Jeshua and Joab) 2,818 Neh 7:12 of Elam 1,254

Neh 7:61 The following came up from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer, but they could not show that their families were descended from Israel:
Neh 7:62 the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda 642
Neh 7:63 And from among the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai (a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).
Neh 7:64 These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.
Neh 7:65 The governor, therefore, ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there should be a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.
Neh 7:66 The whole company numbered 42,360,
Neh 7:67 besides their 7,337 menservants and maidservants; and they also had 245 men and women singers.

Neh 7:68 There were 736 horses, 245 mules,

Neh 7:69 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

Neh 7:70 Some of the heads of the families contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 drachmas of gold, 50 bowls and 530 garments for priests.

Neh 7:71 Some of the heads of the families gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 drachmas of gold and 2,200 minas of silver.

Neh 7:72 The total given by the rest of the people was 20,000 drachmas of gold, 2,000 minas of silver and 67 garments for priests.

Neh 7:73 The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers and the temple servants, along with certain of the people and the rest of the Israelites, settled in their own towns. When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns,

Neh 8:1 all the people assembled as one man in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

Neh 8:2 So on the first day of the seventh month Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand.

Neh 8:3 He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Neh 8:4 Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform built for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah; and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

Neh 8:5 Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up.

Neh 8:6 Ezra praised the LORD, the great God; and all the people lifted their hands and responded, "Amen! Amen!" Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Neh 8:7 The Levites-- Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah-- instructed the people in the Law while the people were standing there.

Neh 8:8 They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear and giving the meaning so that the people could understand what was being read.

Neh 8:9 Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to them all, "This day is sacred to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep." For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

Neh 8:10 Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is sacred to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

Neh 8:11 The Levites calmed all the people, saying, "Be still, for this is a sacred day. Do not grieve."

Neh 8:12 Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.

Neh 8:13 On the second day of the month, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and the Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to give attention to the words of the Law.

Neh 8:14 They found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses, that the Israelites were to live in booths during the feast of the seventh month

Neh 8:15 and that they should proclaim this word and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem: "Go out into the hill country and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, and from myrtles, palms and shade trees, to make booths"-- as it is written.

Neh 8:16 So the people went out and brought back branches and built themselves booths on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God and in the square by the Water Gate and the one by the Gate of Ephraim.

Neh 8:17 The whole company that had returned from exile built booths and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated it like this. And their joy was very great.

Neh 8:18 Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days, and on the eighth day, in accordance with the regulation, there was an assembly.

Neh 9:1 On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the Israelites gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and having dust on their heads.

Neh 9:2 Those of Israelite descent had separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood in their places and confessed their sins and the wickedness of their fathers.

Neh 9:3 They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter in confession and in worshiping the LORD their God.

Neh 9:4 Standing on the stairs were the Levites-- Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kenani-- who called with loud voices to the LORD their God.

Neh 9:5 And the Levites-- Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah-- said: "Stand up and praise the LORD your God, who is from everlasting to everlasting." "Blessed be your glorious name, and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise."

Neh 9:6 You alone are the LORD. You made the heavens, even the highest heavens, and all their starry host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You give life to everything, and the multitudes of heaven worship you.

Neh 9:7 "You are the LORD God, who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and named him Abraham.

Neh 9:8 You found his heart faithful to you, and you made a covenant with him to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites and Gergashites. You have kept your promise because you are righteous.

Neh 9:9 "You saw the suffering of our forefathers in Egypt; you heard their cry at the Red Sea.

Neh 9:10 You sent miraculous signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his officials and all the people of his land, for you knew how arrogantly the Egyptians treated them. You made a name for yourself, which remains to this day.

Neh 9:11 You divided the sea before them, so that they passed through it on dry ground, but you hurled their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters.

Neh 9:12 By day you led them with a pillar of cloud, and by night with a pillar of fire to give them light on the way they were to take.

Neh 9:13 "You came down on Mount Sinai; you spoke to them from heaven. You gave them regulations and laws that are just and right, and decrees and commands that are good.

Neh 9:14 You made known to them your holy Sabbath and gave them commands, decrees and laws through your servant Moses.

Neh 9:15 In their hunger you gave them bread from heaven and in their thirst you brought them water from the rock; you told them to go in and take possession of the land you had sworn with uplifted hand to give them.

Neh 9:16 "But they, our forefathers, became arrogant and stiff-necked, and did not obey your commands.

Neh 9:17 They refused to listen and failed to remember the miracles you performed among them. They became stiff-necked and in their rebellion appointed a leader in order to return to their slavery. But you are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love. Therefore you did not desert them, Neh 9:18 even when they cast for themselves an image of a calf and said, 'This is your god, who brought you up out of Egypt,' or when they committed awful blasphemies.

Neh 9:19 "Because of your great compassion you did not abandon them in the desert. By day the pillar of cloud did not cease to guide them on their path, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine on the way they were to take.

Neh 9:20 You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water for their thirst.

Neh 9:21 For forty years you sustained them in the desert; they lacked nothing, their clothes did not wear out nor did their feet become swollen.

Neh 9:22 "You gave them kingdoms and nations, allotting to them even the remotest frontiers. They took over the country of Sihon king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan.

Neh 9:23 You made their sons as numerous as the stars in the sky, and you brought them into the land that you told their fathers to enter and possess.

Neh 9:24 Their sons went in and took possession of the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites, who lived in the land; you handed the Canaanites over to them, along with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with them as they pleased.

Neh 9:25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land; they took possession of houses filled with all kinds of good things, wells already dug, vineyards, olive groves and fruit trees in abundance. They ate to the full and were well-nourished; they reveled in your great goodness.

Neh 9:26 "But they were disobedient and rebelled against you; they put your law behind their backs. They killed your prophets, who had admonished them in order to turn them back to you; they committed awful blasphemies.

Neh 9:27 So you handed them over to their enemies, who oppressed them. But when they were oppressed they cried out to you. From heaven you heard them, and in your great compassion you gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.

Neh 9:28 "But as soon as they were at rest, they again did what was evil in your sight. Then you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies so that they ruled over them. And when they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven, and in your compassion you delivered them time after time.

Neh 9:29 "You warned them to return to your law, but they became arrogant and disobeyed your commands. They sinned against your ordinances, by which a man will live if he obeys them. Stubbornly they turned their backs on you, became stiff-necked and refused to listen.

Neh 9:30 For many years you were patient with them. By your Spirit you admonished them through your prophets. Yet they paid no attention, so you handed them over to the neighboring peoples.

Neh 9:31 But in your great mercy you did not put an end to them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.

Neh 9:32 "Now therefore, O our God, the great, mighty and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love, do not let all this hardship seem trifling in your eyes-- the hardship that has come upon us, upon our kings and leaders, upon our priests and prophets, upon our fathers and all your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria until today.

Neh 9:33 In all that has happened to us, you have been just; you have acted faithfully, while we did wrong.

Neh 9:34 Our kings, our leaders, our priests and our fathers did not follow your law; they did not pay attention to your commands or the warnings you gave them.

Neh 9:35 Even while they were in their kingdom, enjoying your great goodness to them in the spacious and fertile land you gave them, they did not serve you or turn from their evil ways.

Neh 9:36 "But see, we are slaves today, slaves in the land you gave our forefathers so they could eat its fruit and the other good things it produces.

Neh 9:37 Because of our sins, its abundant harvest goes to the kings you have placed over us. They rule over our bodies and our cattle as they please. We are in great distress.

Neh 9:38 "In view of all this, we are making a binding agreement, putting it in writing, and our leaders, our Levites and our priests are affixing their seals to it."

Neh 10:1 Those who sealed it were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah. Zedekiah,

Neh 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Neh 10:3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah,

Neh 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Neh 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Neh 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Neh 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Neh 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai and Shemaiah. These were the priests.

Neh 10:9 The Levites: Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,

Neh 10:10 and their associates: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

Neh 10:11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

Neh 10:12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

Neh 10:13 Hodiah, Bani and Beninu.

Neh 10:14 The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

Neh 10:15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

Neh 10:16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

Neh 10:17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

Neh 10:18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,

Neh 10:19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

Neh 10:20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

Neh 10:21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,

Neh 10:22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

Neh 10:23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,

Neh 10:24 Hallohes, Pilha, Shobek,

Neh 10:25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

Neh 10:26 Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,

Neh 10:27 Malluch, Harim and Baanah.

Neh 10:28 "The rest of the people-- priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants and all who separated themselves from the neighboring peoples for the sake of the Law of God, together with their wives and all their sons and daughters who are able to understand--

Neh 10:29 all these now join their brothers the nobles, and bind themselves with a curse and an oath to follow the Law of God given through Moses the servant of God and to obey carefully all the commands, regulations and decrees of the LORD our Lord.

Neh 10:30 "We promise not to give our daughters in marriage to the peoples around us or take their daughters for our sons.

Neh 10:31 "When the neighboring peoples bring merchandise or grain to sell on the Sabbath, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any holy day. Every seventh year we will forgo working the land and will cancel all debts.

Neh 10:32 "We assume the responsibility for carrying out the commands to give a third of a shekel each year for the service of the house of our God:

Neh 10:33 for the bread set out on the table; for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings; for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon festivals and appointed feasts; for the holy offerings; for sin offerings to make atonement for Israel; and for all the duties of the house of our God.

Neh 10:34 "We-- the priests, the Levites and the people-- have cast lots to determine when each of our families is to bring to the house of our God at set times each year a contribution of wood to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law.

Neh 10:35 "We also assume responsibility for bringing to the house of the LORD each year the firstfruits of our crops and of every fruit tree.

Neh 10:36 "As it is also written in the Law, we will bring the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, of our herds and of our flocks to the house of our God, to the priests ministering there.

Neh 10:37 "Moreover, we will bring to the storerooms of the house of our God, to the priests, the first of our ground meal, of our [grain] offerings, of the fruit of all our trees and of our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tithe of our crops to the Levites, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all the towns where we work.

Neh 10:38 A priest descended from Aaron is to accompany the Levites when they receive the tithes, and the Levites are to bring a tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury.

Neh 10:39 The people of Israel, including the Levites, are to bring their contributions of grain, new wine and oil to the storerooms where the articles for the sanctuary are kept and where the ministering priests, the gatekeepers and the singers stay. "We will not neglect the house of our God."

Neh 11:1 Now the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the remaining nine were to stay in their own towns.

Neh 11:2 The people commended all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

Neh 11:3 These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem (now some Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants and descendants of Solomon's servants lived in the towns of Judah, each on his own property in the various towns, Neh 11:4 while other people from both Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem): From the descendants of Judah: Athaiah son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez;

Neh 11:5 and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah.

Neh 11:6 The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totaled 468 able men.

Neh 11:7 From the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah, Neh 11:8 and his followers, Gabbai and Sallai-- 928 men.

Neh 11:9 Joel son of Zicri was their chief officer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was over the Second District of the city.

Neh 11:10 From the priests: Jedaiah; the son of Joiarib; Jakin;

Neh 11:11 Seraiah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, supervisor in the house of God,

Neh 11:12 and their associates, who carried on work for the temple-- 822 men; Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah,

Neh 11:13 and his associates, who were heads of families-- 242 men; Amashsai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,

Neh 11:14 and his associates, who were able men-- 128. Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.

Neh 11:15 From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

Neh 11:16 Shabbethai and Jozabad, two of the heads of the Levites, who had charge of the outside work of the house of God;

Neh 11:17 Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

Neh 11:18 The Levites in the holy city totaled 284.

Neh 11:19 The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon and their associates, who kept watch at the gates-- 172 men.

Neh 11:20 The rest of the Israelites, with the priests and Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each on his ancestral property.

Neh 11:21 The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.

Neh 11:22 The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. Uzzi was one of Asaph's descendants, who were the singers responsible for the service of the house of God.

Neh 11:23 The singers were under the king's orders, which regulated their daily activity.

Neh 11:24 Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, one of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's agent in all affairs relating to the people.

Neh 11:25 As for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its surrounding settlements, in Dibon and its settlements, in Jekabzeel and its villages,

Neh 11:26 in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet,

Neh 11:27 in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and its settlements,

Neh 11:28 in Ziklag, in Meconah and its settlements,

Neh 11:29 in En Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth,

Neh 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its settlements. So they were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

Neh 11:31 The descendants of the Benjamites from Geba lived in Micmash, Aija, Bethel and its settlements,

Neh 11:32 in Anathoth, Nob and Ananiah,

Neh 11:33 in Hazor, Ramah and Gittaim,

Neh 11:34 in Hadid, Zeboim and Neballat,

Neh 11:35 in Lod and Ono, and in the Valley of the Craftsmen.

Neh 11:36 Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled in Benjamin.

Neh 12:1 These were the priests and Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Neh 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

Neh 12:3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

Neh 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah,

Neh 12:5 Mijamin, Moadiah, Bilgah,

Neh 12:6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Neh 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Jeshua.

Neh 12:8 The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah, who, together with his associates, was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.

Neh 12:9 Bakbukiah and Unni, their associates, stood opposite them in the services.

Neh 12:10 Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada, Neh 12:11 Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.

Neh 12:12 In the days of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families: of Seraiah's family, Meraiah; of Jeremiah's, Hananiah;

Neh 12:13 of Ezra's, Meshullam; of Amariah's, Jehohanan;

Neh 12:14 of Malluch's, Jonathan; of Shecaniah's, Joseph;

Neh 12:15 of Harim's, Adna; of Meremoth's, Helkai;

Neh 12:16 of Iddo's, Zechariah; of Ginnethon's, Meshullam;

Neh 12:17 of Abijah's, Zicri; of Miniamin's and of Moadiah's, Piltai;

Neh 12:18 of Bilgah's, Shammua; of Shemaiah's, Jehonathan;

Neh 12:19 of Joiarib's, Mattenai; of Jedaiah's, Uzzi;

Neh 12:20 of Sallu's, Kallai; of Amok's, Eber;

Neh 12:21 of Hilkiah's, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah's, Nethanel.

Neh 12:22 The family heads of the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua, as well as those of the priests, were recorded in the reign of Darius the Persian.

Neh 12:23 The family heads among the descendants of Levi up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were recorded in the book of the annals.

Neh 12:24 And the leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their associates, who stood opposite them to give praise and thanksgiving, one section responding to the other, as prescribed by David the man of God.

Neh 12:25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub were gatekeepers who guarded the storerooms at the gates.

Neh 12:26 They served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

Neh 12:27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from where they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps and lyres.

Neh 12:28 The singers also were brought together from the region around Jerusalem-- from the villages of the Netophathites,

Neh 12:29 from Beth Gilgal, and from the area of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem.

Neh 12:30 When the priests and Levites had purified themselves ceremonially, they purified the people, the gates and the wall.

Neh 12:31 I had the leaders of Judah go up on top of the wall. I also assigned two large choirs to give thanks. One was to proceed on top of the wall to the right, toward the Dung Gate.

Neh 12:32 Hoshaiah and half the leaders of Judah followed them,

Neh 12:33 along with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

Neh 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

Neh 12:35 as well as some priests with trumpets, and also Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

Neh 12:36 and his associates-- Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani-- with musical instruments [prescribed by] David the man of God. Ezra the scribe led the procession.

Neh 12:37 At the Fountain Gate they continued directly up the steps of the City of David on the ascent to the wall and passed above the house of David to the Water Gate on the east.

Neh 12:38 The second choir proceeded in the opposite direction. I followed them on top of the wall, together with half the people-- past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall,

Neh 12:39 over the Gate of Ephraim, the Jeshanah Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate. At the Gate of the Guard they stopped.

Neh 12:40 The two choirs that gave thanks then took their places in the house of God; so did I, together with half the officials,

Neh 12:41 as well as the priests-- Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah with their trumpets--

Neh 12:42 and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam and Ezer. The choirs sang under the direction of Jezrahiah.

Neh 12:43 And on that day they offered great sacrifices, rejoicing because God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The sound of rejoicing in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Neh 12:44 At that time men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms for the contributions, firstfruits and tithes. From the fields around the towns they were to bring into the storerooms the portions required by the Law for the priests and the Levites, for Judah was pleased with the ministering priests and Levites.

Neh 12:45 They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did also the singers and gatekeepers, according to the commands of David and his son Solomon.

Neh 12:46 For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there had been directors for the singers and for the songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Neh 12:47 So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside the portion for the other Levites, and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.

Neh 13:1 On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people and there it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God,

Neh 13:2 because they had not met the Israelites with food and water but had hired Balaam to call a curse down on them. (Our God, however, turned the curse into a blessing.)

Neh 13:3 When the people heard this law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent.

Neh 13:4 Before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God. He was closely associated with Tobiah, Neh 13:5 and he had provided him with a large room formerly used to store the grain offerings and incense and temple articles, and also the tithes of grain, new wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests.

Neh 13:6 But while all this was going on, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Some time later I asked his permission

Neh 13:7 and came back to Jerusalem. Here I learned about the evil thing Eliashib had done in providing Tobiah a room in the courts of the house of God.

Neh 13:8 I was greatly displeased and threw all Tobiah's household goods out of the room.

Neh 13:9 I gave orders to purify the rooms, and then I put back into them the equipment of the house of God, with the grain offerings and the incense.

Neh 13:10 I also learned that the portions assigned to the Levites had not been given to them, and that all the Levites and singers responsible for the service had gone back to their own fields.

Neh 13:11 So I rebuked the officials and asked them, "Why is the house of God neglected?" Then I called them together and stationed them at their posts.

Neh 13:12 All Judah brought the tithes of grain, new wine and oil into the storerooms.

Neh 13:13 I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah in charge of the storerooms and made Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, their assistant, because these men were considered trustworthy. They were made responsible for distributing the supplies to their brothers.

Neh 13:14 Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services.

Neh 13:15 In those days I saw men in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, together with wine, grapes, figs and all other kinds of loads. And they were bringing all this into Jerusalem on the Sabbath. Therefore I warned them against selling food on that day.

Neh 13:16 Men from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath to the people of Judah.

Neh 13:17 I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this wicked thing you are doing--desecrating the Sabbath day?

Neh 13:18 Didn't your forefathers do the same things, so that our God brought all this calamity upon us and upon this city? Now you are stirring up more wrath against Israel by desecrating the Sabbath."

Neh 13:19 When evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered the doors to be shut and not opened until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my own men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.

Neh 13:20 Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem.

Neh 13:21 But I warned them and said, "Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on they no longer came on the Sabbath.

Neh 13:22 Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and go and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me for this also, O my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love.

Neh 13:23 Moreover, in those days I saw men of Judah who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab.

Neh 13:24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and did not know how to speak the language of Judah.

Neh 13:25 I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath in God's name and said: "You are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor are you to take their daughters in marriage for your sons or for yourselves."

Neh 13:26 Was it not because of marriages like these that Solomon king of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women.

Neh 13:27 Must we hear now that you too are doing all this terrible wickedness and are being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?"

Neh 13:28 One of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib the high priest was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I drove him away from me.

Neh 13:29 Remember them, O my God, because they defiled the priestly office and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

Neh 13:30 So I purified the priests and the Levites of everything foreign, and assigned them duties, each to his own task.

Neh 13:31 I also made provision for contributions of wood at designated times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me with favor, O my God.

Est 1:1 This is what happened during the time of Xerxes, the Xerxes who ruled over 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush:

Est 1:2 At that time King Xerxes reigned from his royal throne in the citadel of Susa,

Est 1:3 and in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his nobles and officials. The military leaders of Persia and Media, the princes, and the nobles of the provinces were present.

Est 1:4 For a full 180 days he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and glory of his majesty.

Est 1:5 When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days, in the enclosed garden of the king's palace, for all the people from the least to the greatest, who were in the citadel of Susa.

Est 1:6 The garden had hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white linen and purple material to silver rings on marble pillars. There were couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and other costly stones.

Est 1:7 Wine was served in goblets of gold, each one different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant, in keeping with the king's liberality.

Est 1:8 By the king's command each guest was allowed to drink in his own way, for the king instructed all the wine stewards to serve each man what he wished.

Est 1:9 Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

Est 1:10 On the seventh day, when King Xerxes was in high spirits from wine, he commanded the seven eunuchs who served him-- Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas--

Est 1:11 to bring before him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown, in order to display her beauty to the people and nobles, for she was lovely to look at.

Est 1:12 But when the attendants delivered the king's command, Queen Vashti refused to come. Then the king became furious and burned with anger.

Est 1:13 Since it was customary for the king to consult experts in matters of law and justice, he spoke with the wise men who understood the times

Est 1:14 and were closest to the king-- Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven nobles of Persia and Media who had special access to the king and were highest in the kingdom.

Est 1:15 "According to law, what must be done to Queen Vashti?" he asked. "She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her."

Est 1:16 Then Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles, "Queen Vashti has done wrong, not only against the king but also against all the nobles and the peoples of all the provinces of King Xerxes.

Est 1:17 For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women, and so they will despise their husbands and say, 'King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she would not come.'

Est 1:18 This very day the Persian and Median women of the nobility who have heard about the queen's conduct will respond to all the king's nobles in the same way. There will be no end of disrespect and discord.

Est 1:19 "Therefore, if it pleases the king, let him issue a royal decree and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Also let the king give her royal position to someone else who is better than she."

Est 1:20 Then when the king's edict is proclaimed throughout all his vast realm, all the women will respect their husbands, from the least to the greatest."

Est 1:21 The king and his nobles were pleased with this advice, so the king did as Memucan proposed.

Est 1:22 He sent dispatches to all parts of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each people in its own language, proclaiming in each people's tongue that every man should be ruler over his own household.

Est 2:1 Later when the anger of King Xerxes had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what he had decreed about her.

Est 2:2 Then the king's personal attendants proposed, "Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins for the king.

Est 2:3 Let the king appoint commissioners in every province of his realm to bring all these beautiful girls into the harem at the citadel of Susa. Let them be placed under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let beauty treatments be given to them.

Est 2:4 Then let the girl who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This advice appealed to the king, and he followed it.

Est 2:5 Now there was in the citadel of Susa a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, named Mordecai son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish,

Est 2:6 who had been carried into exile from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, among those taken captive with Jehoiachin king of Judah.

Est 2:7 Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother. This girl, who was also known as Esther, was lovely in form and features, and Mordecai had taken her as his own daughter when her father and mother died.

Est 2:8 When the king's order and edict had been proclaimed, many girls were brought to the citadel of Susa and put under the care of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who had charge of the harem.

Est 2:9 The girl pleased him and won his favor. Immediately he provided her with her beauty treatments and special food. He assigned to her seven maids selected from the king's palace and moved her and her maids into the best place in the harem.

Est 2:10 Esther had not revealed her nationality and family background, because Mordecai had forbidden her to do so.

Est 2:11 Every day he walked back and forth near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

Est 2:12 Before a girl's turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments prescribed for the women, six months with oil of myrrh and six with perfumes and cosmetics.

Est 2:13 And this is how she would go to the king: Anything she wanted was given her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace.

Est 2:14 In the evening she would go there and in the morning return to another part of the harem to the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.

Est 2:15 When the turn came for Esther (the girl Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail) to go to the king, she asked for nothing other than what Hegai, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the harem, suggested. And Esther won the favor of everyone who saw her.

Est 2:16 She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal residence in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Est 2:17 Now the king was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, and she won his favor and approval more than any of the other virgins. So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Est 2:18 And the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his nobles and officials. He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal liberality.

Est 2:19 When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

Est 2:20 But Esther had kept secret her family background and nationality just as Mordecai had told her to do, for she continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.

Est 2:21 During the time Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

Est 2:22 But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai.

Est 2:23 And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were hanged on a gallows. All this was recorded in the book of the annals in the presence of the king.

Est 3:1 After these events, King Xerxes honored Haman son of Hamedatha, the Agagite, elevating him and giving him a seat of honor higher than that of all the other nobles.

Est 3:2 All the royal officials at the king's gate knelt down and paid honor to Haman, for the king had commanded this concerning him. But Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honor.

Est 3:3 Then the royal officials at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"

Est 3:4 Day after day they spoke to him but he refused to comply. Therefore they told Haman about it to see whether Mordecai's behavior would be tolerated, for he had told them he was a Jew.

Est 3:5 When Haman saw that Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honor, he was enraged.

Est 3:6 Yet having learned who Mordecai's people were, he scorned the idea of killing only Mordecai. Instead Haman looked for a way to destroy all Mordecai's people, the Jews, throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes.

Est 3:7 In the twelfth year of King Xerxes, in the first month, the month of Nisan, they cast the pur (that is, the lot) in the presence of Haman to select a day and month. And the lot fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

Est 3:8 Then Haman said to King Xerxes, "There is a certain people dispersed and scattered among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom whose customs are different from those of all other people and who do not obey the king's laws; it is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them."

Est 3:9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will put ten thousand talents of silver into the royal treasury for the men who carry out this business."

Est 3:10 So the king took his signet ring from his finger and gave it to Haman son of Hamedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

Est 3:11 "Keep the money," the king said to Haman, "and do with the people as you please."

Est 3:12 Then on the thirteenth day of the first month the royal secretaries were summoned. They wrote out in the script of each province and in the language of each people all Haman's orders to the king's satraps, the governors of the various provinces and the nobles of the various peoples. These were written in the name of King Xerxes himself and sealed with his own ring.

Est 3:13 Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces with the order to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews-- young and old, women and little children-- on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.

Est 3:14 A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so they would be ready for that day.

Est 3:15 Spurred on by the king's command, the couriers went out, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was bewildered.

Est 4:1 When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the city, wailing loudly and bitterly.

Est 4:2 But he went only as far as the king's gate, because no one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it.

Est 4:3 In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Est 4:4 When Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them.

Est 4:5 Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

Est 4:6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city in front of the king's gate.

Est 4:7 Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.

Est 4:8 He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict for their annihilation, which had been published in Susa, to show to Esther and explain it to her, and he told him to urge her to go into the king's presence to beg for mercy and plead with him for her people.

Est 4:9 Hathach went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said.

Est 4:10 Then she instructed him to say to Mordecai,

Est 4:11 "All the king's officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned the king has but one law: that he be put to death. The only exception to this is for the king to extend the gold scepter to him and spare his life. But thirty days have passed since I was called to go to the king."

Est 4:12 When Esther's words were reported to Mordecai,

Est 4:13 he sent back this answer: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape.

Est 4:14 For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to royal position for such a time as this?"

Est 4:15 Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai:

Est 4:16 "Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish."

Est 4:17 So Mordecai went away and carried out all of Esther's instructions.

Est 5:1 On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance.

Est 5:2 When he saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was pleased with her and held out to her the gold scepter that was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

Est 5:3 Then the king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be given you."

Est 5:4 "If it pleases the king," replied Esther, "let the king, together with Haman, come today to a banquet I have prepared for him."

Est 5:5 "Bring Haman at once," the king said, "so that we may do what Esther asks." So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Est 5:6 As they were drinking wine, the king again asked Esther, "Now what is your petition? It will be given you. And what is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted."

Est 5:7 Esther replied, "My petition and my request is this:

Est 5:8 If the king regards me with favor and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king's question."

Est 5:9 Haman went out that day happy and in high spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate and observed that he neither rose nor showed fear in his presence, he was filled with rage against Mordecai.

Est 5:10 Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home. Calling together his friends and Zeresh, his wife,

Est 5:11 Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and all the ways the king had honored him and how he had elevated him above the other nobles and officials.

Est 5:12 "And that's not all," Haman added. "I'm the only person Queen Esther invited to accompany the king to the banquet she gave. And she has invited me along with the king tomorrow.

Est 5:13 But all this gives me no satisfaction as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate."

Est 5:14 His wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Have a gallows built, seventy-five feet high, and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go with the king to the dinner and be happy." This suggestion delighted Haman, and he had the gallows built.

Est 6:1 That night the king could not sleep; so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him.

Est 6:2 It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

Est 6:3 "What honor and recognition has Mordecai received for this?" the king asked. "Nothing has been done for him," his attendants answered.

Est 6:4 The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he had erected for him.

Est 6:5 His attendants answered, "Haman is standing in the court." "Bring him in," the king ordered.

Est 6:6 When Haman entered, the king asked him, "What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?" Now Haman thought to himself, "Who is there that the king would rather honor than me?"

Est 6:7 So he answered the king, "For the man the king delights to honor,

Est 6:8 have them bring a royal robe the king has worn and a horse the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head.

Est 6:9 Then let the robe and horse be entrusted to one of the king's most noble princes. Let them robe the man the king delights to honor, and lead him on the horse through the city streets, proclaiming before him, 'This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!'

Est 6:10 "Go at once," the king commanded Haman. "Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended."

Est 6:11 So Haman got the robe and the horse. He robed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, "This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!"

Est 6:12 Afterward Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman rushed home, with his head covered in grief,

Est 6:13 and told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, "Since Mordecai, before whom your downfall has started, is of Jewish origin, you cannot stand against him-- you will surely come to ruin!"

Est 6:14 While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman away to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Est 7:1 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther,

Est 7:2 and as they were drinking wine on that second day, the king again asked, "Queen Esther, what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted."

Est 7:3 Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have found favor with you, O King, and if it pleases your majesty, grant me my life-- this is my petition. And spare my people-- this is my request.

Est 7:4 For I and my people have been sold for destruction and slaughter and annihilation. If we had merely been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, because no such distress would justify disturbing the king."

Est 7:5 King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, "Who is he? Where is the man who has dared to do such a thing?"

Est 7:6 Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this vile Haman." Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

Est 7:7 The king got up in a rage, left his wine and went out into the palace garden. But Haman, realizing that the king had already decided his fate, stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

Est 7:8 Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, "Will he even molest the queen while she is with me in the house?" As soon as the word left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

Est 7:9 Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, "A gallows seventy-five feet high stands by Haman's house. He had it made for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king." The king said, "Hang him on it!"

Est 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's fury subsided.

Est 8:1 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her.

Est 8:2 The king took off his signet ring, which he had reclaimed from Haman, and presented it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed him over Haman's estate.

Est 8:3 Esther again pleaded with the king, falling at his feet and weeping. She begged him to put an end to the evil plan of Haman the Agagite, which he had devised against the Jews.

Est 8:4 Then the king extended the gold scepter to Esther and she arose and stood before him.

Est 8:5 "If it pleases the king," she said, "and if he regards me with favor and thinks it the right thing to do, and if he is pleased with me, let an order be written overruling the dispatches that Haman son of Hamedatha, the Agagite, devised and wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces."

Est 8:6 For how can I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my family?"

Est 8:7 King Xerxes replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Because Haman attacked the Jews, I have given his estate to Esther, and they have hanged him on the gallows.

Est 8:8 Now write another decree in the king's name in behalf of the Jews as seems best to you, and seal it with the king's signet ring-- for no document written in the king's name and sealed with his ring can be revoked."

Est 8:9 At once the royal secretaries were summoned-- on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all Mordecai's orders to the Jews, and to the satraps, governors and nobles of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush. These orders were written in the script of each province and the language of each people and also to the Jews in their own script and language.

Est 8:10 Mordecai wrote in the name of King Xerxes, sealed the dispatches with the king's signet ring, and sent them by mounted couriers, who rode fast horses especially bred for the king.

Est 8:11 The king's edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves; to destroy, kill and annihilate any armed force of any nationality or province that might attack them and their women and children; and to plunder the property of their enemies.

Est 8:12 The day appointed for the Jews to do this in all the provinces of King Xerxes was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

Est 8:13 A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

Est 8:14 The couriers, riding the royal horses, raced out, spurred on by the king's command. And the edict was also issued in the citadel of Susa.

Est 8:15 Mordecai left the king's presence wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large crown of gold and a purple robe of fine linen. And the city of Susa held a joyous celebration.

Est 8:16 For the Jews it was a time of happiness and joy, gladness and honor.

Est 8:17 In every province and in every city, wherever the edict of the king went, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear of the Jews had seized them.

Est 9:1 On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, the edict commanded by the king was to be carried out. On this day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but now the tables were turned and the Jews got the upper hand over those who hated them.

Est 9:2 The Jews assembled in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those seeking their destruction. No one could stand against them, because the people of all the other nationalities were afraid of them.

Est 9:3 And all the nobles of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and the king's administrators helped the Jews, because fear of Mordecai had seized them.

Est 9:4 Mordecai was prominent in the palace; his reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more powerful.

Est 9:5 The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them, and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

Est 9:6 In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

Est 9:7 They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

Est 9:8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

Est 9:9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha,

Est 9:10 the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Est 9:11 The number of those slain in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king that same day.

Est 9:12 The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in the citadel of Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? It will also be granted."

Est 9:13 "If it pleases the king," Esther answered, "give the Jews in Susa permission to carry out this day's edict tomorrow also, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on gallows."

Est 9:14 So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman.

Est 9:15 The Jews in Susa came together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they put to death in Susa three hundred men, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Est 9:16 Meanwhile, the remainder of the Jews who were in the king's provinces also assembled to protect themselves and get relief from their enemies. They killed seventy-five thousand of them but did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Est 9:17 This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Est 9:18 The Jews in Susa, however, had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth, and then on the fifteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Est 9:19 That is why rural Jews-- those living in villages-- observe the fourteenth of the month of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, a day for giving presents to each other.

Est 9:20 Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Xerxes, near and far,

Est 9:21 to have them celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar

Est 9:22 as the time when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a day of celebration. He wrote them to observe the days as days of feasting and joy and giving presents of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

Est 9:23 So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them.

Est 9:24 For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur (that is, the lot) for their ruin and destruction.

Est 9:25 But when the plot came to the king's attention, he issued written orders that the evil scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should come back onto his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Est 9:26 (Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word pur.) Because of everything written in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them,

Est 9:27 the Jews took it upon themselves to establish the custom that they and their descendants and all who join them should without fail observe these two days every year, in the way prescribed and at the time appointed.

Est 9:28 These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family, and in every province and in every city. And these days of Purim should never cease to be celebrated by the Jews, nor should the memory of them die out among their descendants.

Est 9:29 So Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter concerning Purim.

Est 9:30 And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Xerxes-- words of goodwill and assurance--

Est 9:31 to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants in regard to their times of fasting and lamentation.

Est 9:32 Esther's decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

Est 10:1 King Xerxes imposed tribute throughout the empire, to its distant shores.

Est 10:2 And all his acts of power and might, together with a full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had raised him, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Media and Persia?

Est 10:3 Mordecai the Jew was second in rank to King Xerxes, preeminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by his many fellow Jews, because he worked for the good of his people and spoke up for the welfare of all the Jews.

Job 1:1 In the land of Uz there lived a man whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil.

Job 1:2 He had seven sons and three daughters,

Job 1:3 and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys, and had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

Job 1:4 His sons used to take turns holding feasts in their homes, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Job 1:5 When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would send and have them purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them, thinking, "Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." This was Job's regular custom.

Job 1:6 One day the angels came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them.

Job 1:7 The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, "From roaming through the earth and going back and forth in it."

Job 1:8 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil."

Job 1:9 "Does Job fear God for nothing?" Satan replied.

Job 1:10 "Have you not put a hedge around him and his household and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands, so that his flocks and herds are spread throughout the land.

Job 1:11 But stretch out your hand and strike everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face."

Job 1:12 The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, then, everything he has is in your hands, but on the man himself do not lay a finger." Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job 1:13 One day when Job's sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house,

Job 1:14 a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby,

Job 1:15 and the Sabeans attacked and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, "The fire of God fell from the sky and burned up the sheep and the servants, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, "Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house, Job 1:19 when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

Job 1:20 At this, Job got up and tore his robe and shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground in worship

Job 1:21 and said: "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked I will depart. The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away; may the name of the LORD be praised."

Job 1:22 In all this, Job did not sin by charging God with wrongdoing.

Job 2:1 On another day the angels came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them to present himself before him.

Job 2:2 And the LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, "From roaming through the earth and going back and forth in it."

Job 2:3 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil. And he still maintains his integrity, though you incited me against him to ruin him without any reason."

Job 2:4 "Skin for skin!" Satan replied. "A man will give all he has for his own life.

Job 2:5 But stretch out your hand and strike his flesh and bones, and he will surely curse you to your face."

Job 2:6 The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, then, he is in your hands; but you must spare his life."

Job 2:7 So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and afflicted Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.

Job 2:8 Then Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped himself with it as he sat among the ashes.

Job 2:9 His wife said to him, "Are you still holding on to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

Job 2:10 He replied, "You are talking like a foolish woman. Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?" In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.

Job 2:11 When Job's three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathize with him and comfort him.

Job 2:12 When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognize him; they began to weep aloud, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads.

Job 2:13 Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

Job 3:1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.

Job 3:2 He said:

Job 3:3 "May the day of my birth perish, and the night it was said, 'A boy is born!'

Job 3:4 That day-- may it turn to darkness; may God above not care about it; may no light shine upon it.

Job 3:5 May darkness and deep shadow claim it once more; may a cloud settle over it; may blackness overwhelm its light.

Job 3:6 That night-- may thick darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year nor be entered in any of the months.

Job 3:7 May that night be barren; may no shout of joy be heard in it.

Job 3:8 May those who curse days curse that day, those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.

Job 3:9 May its morning stars become dark; may it wait for daylight in vain and not see the first rays of dawn,

Job 3:10 for it did not shut the doors of the womb on me to hide trouble from my eyes.

Job 3:11 "Why did I not perish at birth, and die as I came from the womb?

Job 3:12 Why were there knees to receive me and breasts that I might be nursed?

Job 3:13 For now I would be lying down in peace; I would be asleep and at rest

Job 3:14 with kings and counselors of the earth, who built for themselves places now lying in ruins,

Job 3:15 with rulers who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

Job 3:16 Or why was I not hidden in the ground like a stillborn child, like an infant who never saw the light of day?

Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.

Job 3:18 Captives also enjoy their ease; they no longer hear the slave driver's shout.

Job 3:19 The small and the great are there, and the slave is freed from his master.

Job 3:20 "Why is light given to those in misery, and life to the bitter of soul,

Job 3:21 to those who long for death that does not come, who search for it more than for hidden treasure,

Job 3:22 who are filled with gladness and rejoice when they reach the grave?

Job 3:23 Why is life given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in?

Job 3:24 For sighing comes to me instead of food; my groans pour out like water.

Job 3:25 What I feared has come upon me; what I dreaded has happened to me.

Job 3:26 I have no peace, no quietness; I have no rest, but only turmoil."

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 4:2 "If someone ventures a word with you, will you be impatient? But who can keep from speaking?"

Job 4:3 Think how you have instructed many, how you have strengthened feeble hands.

Job 4:4 Your words have supported those who stumbled; you have strengthened faltering knees.

Job 4:5 But now trouble comes to you, and you are discouraged; it strikes you, and you are dismayed.

Job 4:6 Should not your piety be your confidence and your blameless ways your hope?

Job 4:7 "Consider now: Who, being innocent, has ever perished? Where were the upright ever destroyed?"

Job 4:8 As I have observed, those who plow evil and those who sow trouble reap it.

Job 4:9 At the breath of God they are destroyed; at the blast of his anger they perish.

Job 4:10 The lions may roar and growl, yet the teeth of the great lions are broken.

Job 4:11 The lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

Job 4:12 "A word was secretly brought to me, my ears caught a whisper of it."

Job 4:13 Amid disquieting dreams in the night, when deep sleep falls on men,

Job 4:14 fear and trembling seized me and made all my bones shake.

Job 4:15 A spirit glided past my face, and the hair on my body stood on end.

Job 4:16 It stopped, but I could not tell what it was. A form stood before my eyes, and I heard a hushed voice:

Job 4:17 'Can a mortal be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

Job 4:18 If God places no trust in his servants, if he charges his angels with error,

Job 4:19 how much more those who live in houses of clay, whose foundations are in the dust, who are crushed more readily than a moth!

Job 4:20 Between dawn and dusk they are broken to pieces; unnoticed, they perish forever.

Job 4:21 Are not the cords of their tent pulled up, so that they die without wisdom?"

Job 5:1 "Call if you will, but who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?

Job 5:2 Resentment kills a fool, and envy slays the simple.

Job 5:3 I myself have seen a fool taking root, but suddenly his house was cursed.

Job 5:4 His children are far from safety, crushed in court without a defender.

Job 5:5 The hungry consume his harvest, taking it even from among thorns, and the thirsty pant after his wealth.

Job 5:6 For hardship does not spring from the soil, nor does trouble sprout from the ground.

Job 5:7 Yet man is born to trouble as surely as sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 "But if it were I, I would appeal to God; I would lay my cause before him."

Job 5:9 He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.

Job 5:10 He bestows rain on the earth; he sends water upon the countryside.

Job 5:11 The lowly he sets on high, and those who mourn are lifted to safety.

Job 5:12 He thwarts the plans of the crafty, so that their hands achieve no success.

Job 5:13 He catches the wise in their craftiness, and the schemes of the wily are swept away.

Job 5:14 Darkness comes upon them in the daytime; at noon they grope as in the night.

Job 5:15 He saves the needy from the sword in their mouth; he saves them from the clutches of the powerful.

Job 5:16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts its mouth.

Job 5:17 "Blessed is the man whom God corrects; so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty."

Job 5:18 For he wounds, but he also binds up; he injures, but his hands also heal.

Job 5:19 From six calamities he will rescue you; in seven no harm will befall you.

Job 5:20 In famine he will ransom you from death, and in battle from the stroke of the sword.

Job 5:21 You will be protected from the lash of the tongue, and need not fear when destruction comes.

Job 5:22 You will laugh at destruction and famine, and need not fear the beasts of the earth.

Job 5:23 For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

Job 5:24 You will know that your tent is secure; you will take stock of your property and find nothing missing.

Job 5:25 You will know that your children will be many, and your descendants like the grass of the earth.

Job 5:26 You will come to the grave in full vigor, like sheaves gathered in season.

Job 5:27 "We have examined this, and it is true. So hear it and apply it to yourself."

Job 6:1 Then Job replied:

Job 6:2 "If only my anguish could be weighed and all my misery be placed on the scales!"

Job 6:3 It would surely outweigh the sand of the seas-- no wonder my words have been impetuous.

Job 6:4 The arrows of the Almighty are in me, my spirit drinks in their poison; God's terrors are marshaled against me.

Job 6:5 Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass, or an ox bellow when it has fodder?

Job 6:6 Is tasteless food eaten without salt, or is there flavor in the white of an egg?

Job 6:7 I refuse to touch it; such food makes me ill.

Job 6:8 "Oh, that I might have my request, that God would grant what I hope for,
Job 6:9 that God would be willing to crush me, to let loose his hand and cut me off!
Job 6:10 Then I would still have this consolation-- my joy in unrelenting pain-- that I had not denied the words of the Holy One.
Job 6:11 "What strength do I have, that I should still hope? What prospects, that I should be patient?
Job 6:12 Do I have the strength of stone? Is my flesh bronze?
Job 6:13 Do I have any power to help myself, now that success has been driven from me?
Job 6:14 "A despairing man should have the devotion of his friends, even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
Job 6:15 But my brothers are as undependable as intermittent streams, as the streams that overflow
Job 6:16 when darkened by thawing ice and swollen with melting snow,
Job 6:17 but that cease to flow in the dry season, and in the heat vanish from their channels.
Job 6:18 Caravans turn aside from their routes; they go up into the wasteland and perish.
Job 6:19 The caravans of Tema look for water, the traveling merchants of Sheba look in hope.
Job 6:20 They are distressed, because they had been confident; they arrive there, only to be disappointed.
Job 6:21 Now you too have proved to be of no help; you see something dreadful and are afraid.
Job 6:22 Have I ever said, 'Give something on my behalf, pay a ransom for me from your wealth,
Job 6:23 deliver me from the hand of the enemy, ransom me from the clutches of the ruthless'?
Job 6:24 "Teach me, and I will be quiet; show me where I have been wrong.
Job 6:25 How painful are honest words! But what do your arguments prove?
Job 6:26 Do you mean to correct what I say, and treat the words of a despairing man as wind?
Job 6:27 You would even cast lots for the fatherless and barter away your friend.
Job 6:28 "But now be so kind as to look at me. Would I lie to your face?
Job 6:29 Relent, do not be unjust; reconsider, for my integrity is at stake.
Job 6:30 Is there any wickedness on my lips? Can my mouth not discern malice?
Job 7:1 "Does not man have hard service on earth? Are not his days like those of a hired man?
Job 7:2 Like a slave longing for the evening shadows, or a hired man waiting eagerly for his wages,
Job 7:3 so I have been allotted months of futility, and nights of misery have been assigned to me.
Job 7:4 When I lie down I think, 'How long before I get up?' The night drags on, and I toss till dawn.
Job 7:5 My body is clothed with worms and scabs, my skin is broken and festering.
Job 7:6 "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and they come to an end without hope.
Job 7:7 Remember, O God, that my life is but a breath; my eyes will never see happiness again.
Job 7:8 The eye that now sees me will see me no longer; you will look for me, but I will be no more.
Job 7:9 As a cloud vanishes and is gone, so he who goes down to the grave does not return.
Job 7:10 He will never come to his house again; his place will know him no more.
Job 7:11 "Therefore I will not keep silent; I will speak out in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
Job 7:12 Am I the sea, or the monster of the deep, that you put me under guard?
Job 7:13 When I think my bed will comfort me and my couch will ease my complaint,
Job 7:14 even then you frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions,
Job 7:15 so that I prefer strangling and death, rather than this body of mine.
Job 7:16 I despise my life; I would not live forever. Let me alone; my days have no meaning.
Job 7:17 "What is man that you make so much of him, that you give him so much attention,
Job 7:18 that you examine him every morning and test him every moment?
Job 7:19 Will you never look away from me, or let me alone even for an instant?
Job 7:20 If I have sinned, what have I done to you, O watcher of men? Why have you made me your target?
Have I become a burden to you?
Job 7:21 Why do you not pardon my offenses and forgive my sins? For I will soon lie down in the dust; you will search for me, but I will be no more."
Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
Job 8:2 "How long will you say such things? Your words are a blustering wind.
Job 8:3 Does God pervert justice? Does the Almighty pervert what is right?
Job 8:4 When your children sinned against him, he gave them over to the penalty of their sin.
Job 8:5 But if you will look to God and plead with the Almighty,
Job 8:6 if you are pure and upright, even now he will rouse himself on your behalf and restore you to your rightful place.
Job 8:7 Your beginnings will seem humble, so prosperous will your future be.
Job 8:8 "Ask the former generations and find out what their fathers learned,
Job 8:9 for we were born only yesterday and know nothing, and our days on earth are but a shadow.

Job 8:10 Will they not instruct you and tell you? Will they not bring forth words from their understanding?
Job 8:11 Can papyrus grow tall where there is no marsh? Can reeds thrive without water?
Job 8:12 While still growing and uncut, they wither more quickly than grass.
Job 8:13 Such is the destiny of all who forget God; so perishes the hope of the godless.
Job 8:14 What he trusts in is fragile; what he relies on is a spider's web.
Job 8:15 He leans on his web, but it gives way; he clings to it, but it does not hold.
Job 8:16 He is like a well-watered plant in the sunshine, spreading its shoots over the garden;
Job 8:17 it entwines its roots around a pile of rocks and looks for a place among the stones.
Job 8:18 But when it is torn from its spot, that place disowns it and says, 'I never saw you.'
Job 8:19 Surely its life withers away, and from the soil other plants grow.
Job 8:20 "Surely God does not reject a blameless man or strengthen the hands of evildoers.
Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.
Job 8:22 Your enemies will be clothed in shame, and the tents of the wicked will be no more."
Job 9:1 Then Job replied:
Job 9:2 "Indeed, I know that this is true. But how can a mortal be righteous before God?
Job 9:3 Though one wished to dispute with him, he could not answer him one time out of a thousand.
Job 9:4 His wisdom is profound, his power is vast. Who has resisted him and come out unscathed?
Job 9:5 He moves mountains without their knowing it and overturns them in his anger.
Job 9:6 He shakes the earth from its place and makes its pillars tremble.
Job 9:7 He speaks to the sun and it does not shine; he seals off the light of the stars.
Job 9:8 He alone stretches out the heavens and treads on the waves of the sea.
Job 9:9 He is the Maker of the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the constellations of the south.
Job 9:10 He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.
Job 9:11 When he passes me, I cannot see him; when he goes by, I cannot perceive him.
Job 9:12 If he snatches away, who can stop him? Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'
Job 9:13 God does not restrain his anger; even the cohorts of Rahab cowered at his feet.
Job 9:14 "How then can I dispute with him? How can I find words to argue with him?
Job 9:15 Though I were innocent, I could not answer him; I could only plead with my Judge for mercy.
Job 9:16 Even if I summoned him and he responded, I do not believe he would give me a hearing.
Job 9:17 He would crush me with a storm and multiply my wounds for no reason.
Job 9:18 He would not let me regain my breath but would overwhelm me with misery.
Job 9:19 If it is a matter of strength, he is mighty! And if it is a matter of justice, who will summon him?
Job 9:20 Even if I were innocent, my mouth would condemn me; if I were blameless, it would pronounce me guilty.
Job 9:21 "Although I am blameless, I have no concern for myself; I despise my own life.
Job 9:22 It is all the same; that is why I say, 'He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.'
Job 9:23 When a scourge brings sudden death, he mocks the despair of the innocent.
Job 9:24 When a land falls into the hands of the wicked, he blindfolds its judges. If it is not he, then who is it?
Job 9:25 "My days are swifter than a runner; they fly away without a glimpse of joy.
Job 9:26 They skim past like boats of papyrus, like eagles swooping down on their prey.
Job 9:27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will change my expression, and smile,'
Job 9:28 I still dread all my sufferings, for I know you will not hold me innocent.
Job 9:29 Since I am already found guilty, why should I struggle in vain?
Job 9:30 Even if I washed myself with soap and my hands with washing soda,
Job 9:31 you would plunge me into a slime pit so that even my clothes would detest me.
Job 9:32 "He is not a man like me that I might answer him, that we might confront each other in court.
Job 9:33 If only there were someone to arbitrate between us, to lay his hand upon us both,
Job 9:34 someone to remove God's rod from me, so that his terror would frighten me no more.
Job 9:35 Then I would speak up without fear of him, but as it now stands with me, I cannot.
Job 10:1 "I loathe my very life; therefore I will give free rein to my complaint and speak out in the bitterness of my soul.
Job 10:2 I will say to God: Do not condemn me, but tell me what charges you have against me.
Job 10:3 Does it please you to oppress me, to spurn the work of your hands, while you smile on the schemes of the wicked?
Job 10:4 Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see as a mortal sees?
Job 10:5 Are your days like those of a mortal or your years like those of a man,
Job 10:6 that you must search out my faults and probe after my sin--
Job 10:7 though you know that I am not guilty and that no one can rescue me from your hand?
Job 10:8 "Your hands shaped me and made me. Will you now turn and destroy me?"

Job 10:9 Remember that you molded me like clay. Will you now turn me to dust again?
Job 10:10 Did you not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese,
Job 10:11 clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews?
Job 10:12 You gave me life and showed me kindness, and in your providence watched over my spirit.
Job 10:13 "But this is what you concealed in your heart, and I know that this was in your mind:
Job 10:14 If I sinned, you would be watching me and would not let my offense go unpunished.
Job 10:15 If I am guilty-- woe to me! Even if I am innocent, I cannot lift my head, for I am full of shame and drowned in my affliction.
Job 10:16 If I hold my head high, you stalk me like a lion and again display your awesome power against me.
Job 10:17 You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger toward me; your forces come against me wave upon wave.
Job 10:18 "Why then did you bring me out of the womb? I wish I had died before any eye saw me.
Job 10:19 If only I had never come into being, or had been carried straight from the womb to the grave!
Job 10:20 Are not my few days almost over? Turn away from me so I can have a moment's joy
Job 10:21 before I go to the place of no return, to the land of gloom and deep shadow,
Job 10:22 to the land of deepest night, of deep shadow and disorder, where even the light is like darkness."
Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
Job 11:2 "Are all these words to go unanswered? Is this talker to be vindicated?
Job 11:3 Will your idle talk reduce men to silence? Will no one rebuke you when you mock?
Job 11:4 You say to God, 'My beliefs are flawless and I am pure in your sight.'
Job 11:5 Oh, how I wish that God would speak, that he would open his lips against you
Job 11:6 and disclose to you the secrets of wisdom, for true wisdom has two sides. Know this: God has even forgotten some of your sin.
Job 11:7 "Can you fathom the mysteries of God? Can you probe the limits of the Almighty?
Job 11:8 They are higher than the heavens-- what can you do? They are deeper than the depths of the grave-- what can you know?
Job 11:9 Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
Job 11:10 "If he comes along and confines you in prison and convenes a court, who can oppose him?
Job 11:11 Surely he recognizes deceitful men; and when he sees evil, does he not take note?
Job 11:12 But a witless man can no more become wise than a wild donkey's colt can be born a man.
Job 11:13 "Yet if you devote your heart to him and stretch out your hands to him,
Job 11:14 if you put away the sin that is in your hand and allow no evil to dwell in your tent,
Job 11:15 then you will lift up your face without shame; you will stand firm and without fear.
Job 11:16 You will surely forget your trouble, recalling it only as waters gone by.
Job 11:17 Life will be brighter than noonday, and darkness will become like morning.
Job 11:18 You will be secure, because there is hope; you will look about you and take your rest in safety.
Job 11:19 You will lie down, with no one to make you afraid, and many will court your favor.
Job 11:20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them; their hope will become a dying gasp."
Job 12:1 Then Job replied:
Job 12:2 "Doubtless you are the people, and wisdom will die with you!
Job 12:3 But I have a mind as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Who does not know all these things?
Job 12:4 "I have become a laughingstock to my friends, though I called upon God and he answered-- a mere laughingstock, though righteous and blameless!
Job 12:5 Men at ease have contempt for misfortune as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.
Job 12:6 The tents of marauders are undisturbed, and those who provoke God are secure-- those who carry their god in their hands.
Job 12:7 "But ask the animals, and they will teach you, or the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
Job 12:8 or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, or let the fish of the sea inform you.
Job 12:9 Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
Job 12:10 In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind.
Job 12:11 Does not the ear test words as the tongue tastes food?
Job 12:12 Is not wisdom found among the aged? Does not long life bring understanding?
Job 12:13 "To God belong wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are his.
Job 12:14 What he tears down cannot be rebuilt; the man he imprisons cannot be released.
Job 12:15 If he holds back the waters, there is drought; if he lets them loose, they devastate the land.
Job 12:16 To him belong strength and victory; both deceived and deceiver are his.
Job 12:17 He leads counselors away stripped and makes fools of judges.
Job 12:18 He takes off the shackles put on by kings and ties a loincloth around their waist.
Job 12:19 He leads priests away stripped and overthrows men long established.

Job 12:20 He silences the lips of trusted advisers and takes away the discernment of elders.
Job 12:21 He pours contempt on nobles and disarms the mighty.
Job 12:22 He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings deep shadows into the light.
Job 12:23 He makes nations great, and destroys them; he enlarges nations, and disperses them.
Job 12:24 He deprives the leaders of the earth of their reason; he sends them wandering through a trackless waste.
Job 12:25 They grope in darkness with no light; he makes them stagger like drunkards.
Job 13:1 "My eyes have seen all this, my ears have heard and understood it.
Job 13:2 What you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.
Job 13:3 But I desire to speak to the Almighty and to argue my case with God.
Job 13:4 You, however, smear me with lies; you are worthless physicians, all of you!
Job 13:5 If only you would be altogether silent! For you, that would be wisdom.
Job 13:6 Hear now my argument; listen to the plea of my lips.
Job 13:7 Will you speak wickedly on God's behalf? Will you speak deceitfully for him?
Job 13:8 Will you show him partiality? Will you argue the case for God?
Job 13:9 Would it turn out well if he examined you? Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?
Job 13:10 He would surely rebuke you if you secretly showed partiality.
Job 13:11 Would not his splendor terrify you? Would not the dread of him fall on you?
Job 13:12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes; your defenses are defenses of clay.
Job 13:13 "Keep silent and let me speak; then let come to me what may.
Job 13:14 Why do I put myself in jeopardy and take my life in my hands?
Job 13:15 Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him; I will surely defend my ways to his face.
Job 13:16 Indeed, this will turn out for my deliverance, for no godless man would dare come before him!
Job 13:17 Listen carefully to my words; let your ears take in what I say.
Job 13:18 Now that I have prepared my case, I know I will be vindicated.
Job 13:19 Can anyone bring charges against me? If so, I will be silent and die.
Job 13:20 "Only grant me these two things, O God, and then I will not hide from you:
Job 13:21 Withdraw your hand far from me, and stop frightening me with your terrors.
Job 13:22 Then summon me and I will answer, or let me speak, and you reply.
Job 13:23 How many wrongs and sins have I committed? Show me my offense and my sin.
Job 13:24 Why do you hide your face and consider me your enemy?
Job 13:25 Will you torment a windblown leaf? Will you chase after dry chaff?
Job 13:26 For you write down bitter things against me and make me inherit the sins of my youth.
Job 13:27 You fasten my feet in shackles; you keep close watch on all my paths by putting marks on the soles of my feet.
Job 13:28 "So man wastes away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.
Job 14:1 "Man born of woman is of few days and full of trouble.
Job 14:2 He springs up like a flower and withers away; like a fleeting shadow, he does not endure.
Job 14:3 Do you fix your eye on such a one? Will you bring him before you for judgment?
Job 14:4 Who can bring what is pure from the impure? No one!
Job 14:5 Man's days are determined; you have decreed the number of his months and have set limits he cannot exceed.
Job 14:6 So look away from him and let him alone, till he has put in his time like a hired man.
Job 14:7 "At least there is hope for a tree: If it is cut down, it will sprout again, and its new shoots will not fail.
Job 14:8 Its roots may grow old in the ground and its stump die in the soil,
Job 14:9 yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth shoots like a plant.
Job 14:10 But man dies and is laid low; he breathes his last and is no more.
Job 14:11 As water disappears from the sea or a riverbed becomes parched and dry,
Job 14:12 so man lies down and does not rise; till the heavens are no more, men will not awake or be roused from their sleep.
Job 14:13 "If only you would hide me in the grave and conceal me till your anger has passed! If only you would set me a time and then remember me!
Job 14:14 If a man dies, will he live again? All the days of my hard service I will wait for my renewal to come.
Job 14:15 You will call and I will answer you; you will long for the creature your hands have made.
Job 14:16 Surely then you will count my steps but not keep track of my sin.
Job 14:17 My offenses will be sealed up in a bag; you will cover over my sin.
Job 14:18 "But as a mountain erodes and crumbles and as a rock is moved from its place,
Job 14:19 as water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil, so you destroy man's hope.
Job 14:20 You overpower him once for all, and he is gone; you change his countenance and send him away.

Job 14:21 If his sons are honored, he does not know it; if they are brought low, he does not see it.
Job 14:22 He feels but the pain of his own body and mourns only for himself."

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 15:2 "Would a wise man answer with empty notions or fill his belly with the hot east wind?
Job 15:3 Would he argue with useless words, with speeches that have no value?
Job 15:4 But you even undermine piety and hinder devotion to God.
Job 15:5 Your sin prompts your mouth; you adopt the tongue of the crafty.
Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, not mine; your own lips testify against you.
Job 15:7 "Are you the first man ever born? Were you brought forth before the hills?
Job 15:8 Do you listen in on God's council? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
Job 15:9 What do you know that we do not know? What insights do you have that we do not have?
Job 15:10 The gray-haired and the aged are on our side, men even older than your father.
Job 15:11 Are God's consolations not enough for you, words spoken gently to you?
Job 15:12 Why has your heart carried you away, and why do your eyes flash,
Job 15:13 so that you vent your rage against God and pour out such words from your mouth?
Job 15:14 "What is man, that he could be pure, or one born of woman, that he could be righteous?
Job 15:15 If God places no trust in his holy ones, if even the heavens are not pure in his eyes,
Job 15:16 how much less man, who is vile and corrupt, who drinks up evil like water!
Job 15:17 "Listen to me and I will explain to you; let me tell you what I have seen,
Job 15:18 what wise men have declared, hiding nothing received from their fathers
Job 15:19 (to whom alone the land was given when no alien passed among them):
Job 15:20 All his days the wicked man suffers torment, the ruthless through all the years stored up for him.
Job 15:21 Terrifying sounds fill his ears; when all seems well, marauders attack him.
Job 15:22 He despairs of escaping the darkness; he is marked for the sword.
Job 15:23 He wanders about-- food for vultures; he knows the day of darkness is at hand.
Job 15:24 Distress and anguish fill him with terror; they overwhelm him, like a king poised to attack,
Job 15:25 because he shakes his fist at God and vaunts himself against the Almighty,
Job 15:26 defiantly charging against him with a thick, strong shield.
Job 15:27 "Though his face is covered with fat and his waist bulges with flesh,
Job 15:28 he will inhabit ruined towns and houses where no one lives, houses crumbling to rubble.
Job 15:29 He will no longer be rich and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.
Job 15:30 He will not escape the darkness; a flame will wither his shoots, and the breath of God's mouth will carry him away.
Job 15:31 Let him not deceive himself by trusting what is worthless, for he will get nothing in return.
Job 15:32 Before his time he will be paid in full, and his branches will not flourish.
Job 15:33 He will be like a vine stripped of its unripe grapes, like an olive tree shedding its blossoms.
Job 15:34 For the company of the godless will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of those who love bribes.
Job 15:35 They conceive trouble and give birth to evil; their womb fashions deceit."

Job 16:1 Then Job replied:

Job 16:2 "I have heard many things like these; miserable comforters are you all!
Job 16:3 Will your long-winded speeches never end? What ails you that you keep on arguing?
Job 16:4 I also could speak like you, if you were in my place; I could make fine speeches against you and shake my head at you.
Job 16:5 But my mouth would encourage you; comfort from my lips would bring you relief.
Job 16:6 "Yet if I speak, my pain is not relieved; and if I refrain, it does not go away.
Job 16:7 Surely, O God, you have worn me out; you have devastated my entire household.
Job 16:8 You have bound me-- and it has become a witness; my gauntness rises up and testifies against me.
Job 16:9 God assails me and tears me in his anger and gnashes his teeth at me; my opponent fastens on me his piercing eyes.
Job 16:10 Men open their mouths to jeer at me; they strike my cheek in scorn and unite together against me.
Job 16:11 God has turned me over to evil men and thrown me into the clutches of the wicked.
Job 16:12 All was well with me, but he shattered me; he seized me by the neck and crushed me. He has made me his target;
Job 16:13 his archers surround me. Without pity, he pierces my kidneys and spills my gall on the ground.
Job 16:14 Again and again he bursts upon me; he rushes at me like a warrior.
Job 16:15 "I have sewed sackcloth over my skin and buried my brow in the dust.
Job 16:16 My face is red with weeping, deep shadows ring my eyes;
Job 16:17 yet my hands have been free of violence and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 "O earth, do not cover my blood; may my cry never be laid to rest!
Job 16:19 Even now my witness is in heaven; my advocate is on high.
Job 16:20 My intercessor is my friend as my eyes pour out tears to God;
Job 16:21 on behalf of a man he pleads with God as a man pleads for his friend.
Job 16:22 "Only a few years will pass before I go on the journey of no return.
Job 17:1 My spirit is broken, my days are cut short, the grave awaits me.
Job 17:2 Surely mockers surround me; my eyes must dwell on their hostility.
Job 17:3 "Give me, O God, the pledge you demand. Who else will put up security for me?
Job 17:4 You have closed their minds to understanding; therefore you will not let them triumph.
Job 17:5 If a man denounces his friends for reward, the eyes of his children will fail.
Job 17:6 "God has made me a byword to everyone, a man in whose face people spit.
Job 17:7 My eyes have grown dim with grief; my whole frame is but a shadow.
Job 17:8 Upright men are appalled at this; the innocent are aroused against the ungodly.
Job 17:9 Nevertheless, the righteous will hold to their ways, and those with clean hands will grow stronger.
Job 17:10 "But come on, all of you, try again! I will not find a wise man among you.
Job 17:11 My days have passed, my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart.
Job 17:12 These men turn night into day; in the face of darkness they say, 'Light is near.'
Job 17:13 If the only home I hope for is the grave, if I spread out my bed in darkness,
Job 17:14 if I say to corruption, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'My mother' or 'My sister,'
Job 17:15 where then is my hope? Who can see any hope for me?
Job 17:16 Will it go down to the gates of death? Will we descend together into the dust?"
Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
Job 18:2 "When will you end these speeches? Be sensible, and then we can talk.
Job 18:3 Why are we regarded as cattle and considered stupid in your sight?
Job 18:4 You who tear yourself to pieces in your anger, is the earth to be abandoned for your sake? Or must the rocks be moved from their place?
Job 18:5 "The lamp of the wicked is snuffed out; the flame of his fire stops burning.
Job 18:6 The light in his tent becomes dark; the lamp beside him goes out.
Job 18:7 The vigor of his step is weakened; his own schemes throw him down.
Job 18:8 His feet thrust him into a net and he wanders into its mesh.
Job 18:9 A trap seizes him by the heel; a snare holds him fast.
Job 18:10 A noose is hidden for him on the ground; a trap lies in his path.
Job 18:11 Terrors startle him on every side and dog his every step.
Job 18:12 Calamity is hungry for him; disaster is ready for him when he falls.
Job 18:13 It eats away parts of his skin; death's firstborn devours his limbs.
Job 18:14 He is torn from the security of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.
Job 18:15 Fire resides in his tent; burning sulfur is scattered over his dwelling.
Job 18:16 His roots dry up below and his branches wither above.
Job 18:17 The memory of him perishes from the earth; he has no name in the land.
Job 18:18 He is driven from light into darkness and is banished from the world.
Job 18:19 He has no offspring or descendants among his people, no survivor where once he lived.
Job 18:20 Men of the west are appalled at his fate; men of the east are seized with horror.
Job 18:21 Surely such is the dwelling of an evil man; such is the place of one who knows not God."
Job 19:1 Then Job replied:
Job 19:2 "How long will you torment me and crush me with words?
Job 19:3 Ten times now you have reproached me; shamelessly you attack me.
Job 19:4 If it is true that I have gone astray, my error remains my concern alone.
Job 19:5 If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,
Job 19:6 then know that God has wronged me and drawn his net around me.
Job 19:7 "Though I cry, 'I've been wronged!' I get no response; though I call for help, there is no justice.
Job 19:8 He has blocked my way so I cannot pass; he has shrouded my paths in darkness.
Job 19:9 He has stripped me of my honor and removed the crown from my head.
Job 19:10 He tears me down on every side till I am gone; he uproots my hope like a tree.
Job 19:11 His anger burns against me; he counts me among his enemies.
Job 19:12 His troops advance in force; they build a siege ramp against me and encamp around my tent.
Job 19:13 "He has alienated my brothers from me; my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.
Job 19:14 My kinsmen have gone away; my friends have forgotten me.
Job 19:15 My guests and my maidservants count me a stranger; they look upon me as an alien.
Job 19:16 I summon my servant, but he does not answer, though I beg him with my own mouth.

Job 19:17 My breath is offensive to my wife; I am loathsome to my own brothers.
Job 19:18 Even the little boys scorn me; when I appear, they ridicule me.
Job 19:19 All my intimate friends detest me; those I love have turned against me.
Job 19:20 I am nothing but skin and bones; I have escaped with only the skin of my teeth.
Job 19:21 "Have pity on me, my friends, have pity, for the hand of God has struck me.
Job 19:22 Why do you pursue me as God does? Will you never get enough of my flesh?
Job 19:23 "Oh, that my words were recorded, that they were written on a scroll,
Job 19:24 that they were inscribed with an iron tool on lead, or engraved in rock forever!
Job 19:25 I know that my Redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand upon the earth.
Job 19:26 And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God;
Job 19:27 I myself will see him with my own eyes-- I, and not another. How my heart yearns within me!
Job 19:28 "If you say, 'How we will hound him, since the root of the trouble lies in him,' Job 19:29 you should fear the sword yourselves; for wrath will bring punishment by the sword, and then you will know that there is judgment."
Job 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
Job 20:2 "My troubled thoughts prompt me to answer because I am greatly disturbed.
Job 20:3 I hear a rebuke that dishonors me, and my understanding inspires me to reply.
Job 20:4 "Surely you know how it has been from of old, ever since man was placed on the earth,
Job 20:5 that the mirth of the wicked is brief, the joy of the godless lasts but a moment.
Job 20:6 Though his pride reaches to the heavens and his head touches the clouds,
Job 20:7 he will perish forever, like his own dung; those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
Job 20:8 Like a dream he flies away, no more to be found, banished like a vision of the night.
Job 20:9 The eye that saw him will not see him again; his place will look on him no more.
Job 20:10 His children must make amends to the poor; his own hands must give back his wealth.
Job 20:11 The youthful vigor that fills his bones will lie with him in the dust.
Job 20:12 "Though evil is sweet in his mouth and he hides it under his tongue,
Job 20:13 though he cannot bear to let it go and keeps it in his mouth,
Job 20:14 yet his food will turn sour in his stomach; it will become the venom of serpents within him.
Job 20:15 He will spit out the riches he swallowed; God will make his stomach vomit them up.
Job 20:16 He will suck the poison of serpents; the fangs of an adder will kill him.
Job 20:17 He will not enjoy the streams, the rivers flowing with honey and cream.
Job 20:18 What he toiled for he must give back uneaten; he will not enjoy the profit from his trading.
Job 20:19 For he has oppressed the poor and left them destitute; he has seized houses he did not build.
Job 20:20 "Surely he will have no respite from his craving; he cannot save himself by his treasure.
Job 20:21 Nothing is left for him to devour; his prosperity will not endure.
Job 20:22 In the midst of his plenty, distress will overtake him; the full force of misery will come upon him.
Job 20:23 When he has filled his belly, God will vent his burning anger against him and rain down his blows upon him.
Job 20:24 Though he flees from an iron weapon, a bronze-tipped arrow pierces him.
Job 20:25 He pulls it out of his back, the gleaming point out of his liver. Terrors will come over him;
Job 20:26 total darkness lies in wait for his treasures. A fire unfanned will consume him and devour what is left in his tent.
Job 20:27 The heavens will expose his guilt; the earth will rise up against him.
Job 20:28 A flood will carry off his house, rushing waters on the day of God's wrath.
Job 20:29 Such is the fate God allots the wicked, the heritage appointed for them by God."
Job 21:1 Then Job replied:
Job 21:2 "Listen carefully to my words; let this be the consolation you give me.
Job 21:3 Bear with me while I speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.
Job 21:4 "Is my complaint directed to man? Why should I not be impatient?
Job 21:5 Look at me and be astonished; clap your hand over your mouth.
Job 21:6 When I think about this, I am terrified; trembling seizes my body.
Job 21:7 Why do the wicked live on, growing old and increasing in power?
Job 21:8 They see their children established around them, their offspring before their eyes.
Job 21:9 Their homes are safe and free from fear; the rod of God is not upon them.
Job 21:10 Their bulls never fail to breed; their cows calve and do not miscarry.
Job 21:11 They send forth their children as a flock; their little ones dance about.
Job 21:12 They sing to the music of tambourine and harp; they make merry to the sound of the flute.
Job 21:13 They spend their years in prosperity and go down to the grave in peace.
Job 21:14 Yet they say to God, 'Leave us alone! We have no desire to know your ways.'

Job 21:15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him? What would we gain by praying to him?'
Job 21:16 But their prosperity is not in their own hands, so I stand aloof from the counsel of the wicked.
Job 21:17 "Yet how often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out? How often does calamity come upon them, the fate God allots in his anger?
Job 21:18 How often are they like straw before the wind, like chaff swept away by a gale?
Job 21:19 [It is said,] 'God stores up a man's punishment for his sons.' Let him repay the man himself, so that he will know it!
Job 21:20 Let his own eyes see his destruction; let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
Job 21:21 For what does he care about the family he leaves behind when his allotted months come to an end?
Job 21:22 "Can anyone teach knowledge to God, since he judges even the highest?
Job 21:23 One man dies in full vigor, completely secure and at ease,
Job 21:24 his body well nourished, his bones rich with marrow.
Job 21:25 Another man dies in bitterness of soul, never having enjoyed anything good.
Job 21:26 Side by side they lie in the dust, and worms cover them both.
Job 21:27 "I know full well what you are thinking, the schemes by which you would wrong me.
Job 21:28 You say, 'Where now is the great man's house, the tents where wicked men lived?'

Job 21:29 Have you never questioned those who travel? Have you paid no regard to their accounts--
Job 21:30 that the evil man is spared from the day of calamity, that he is delivered from the day of wrath?
Job 21:31 Who denounces his conduct to his face? Who repays him for what he has done?
Job 21:32 He is carried to the grave, and watch is kept over his tomb.
Job 21:33 The soil in the valley is sweet to him; all men follow after him, and a countless throng goes before him.
Job 21:34 "So how can you console me with your nonsense? Nothing is left of your answers but falsehood!"

Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:
Job 22:2 "Can a man be of benefit to God? Can even a wise man benefit him?
Job 22:3 What pleasure would it give the Almighty if you were righteous? What would he gain if your ways were blameless?
Job 22:4 "Is it for your piety that he rebukes you and brings charges against you?
Job 22:5 Is not your wickedness great? Are not your sins endless?
Job 22:6 You demanded security from your brothers for no reason; you stripped men of their clothing, leaving them naked.
Job 22:7 You gave no water to the weary and you withheld food from the hungry,
Job 22:8 though you were a powerful man, owning land-- an honored man, living on it.
Job 22:9 And you sent widows away empty-handed and broke the strength of the fatherless.
Job 22:10 That is why snares are all around you, why sudden peril terrifies you,
Job 22:11 why it is so dark you cannot see, and why a flood of water covers you.
Job 22:12 "Is not God in the heights of heaven? And see how lofty are the highest stars!
Job 22:13 Yet you say, 'What does God know? Does he judge through such darkness?
Job 22:14 Thick clouds veil him, so he does not see us as he goes about in the vaulted heavens.'
Job 22:15 Will you keep to the old path that evil men have trod?
Job 22:16 They were carried off before their time, their foundations washed away by a flood.
Job 22:17 They said to God, 'Leave us alone! What can the Almighty do to us?'
Job 22:18 Yet it was he who filled their houses with good things, so I stand aloof from the counsel of the wicked.
Job 22:19 "The righteous see their ruin and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,
Job 22:20 'Surely our foes are destroyed, and fire devours their wealth.'
Job 22:21 "Submit to God and be at peace with him; in this way prosperity will come to you.
Job 22:22 Accept instruction from his mouth and lay up his words in your heart.
Job 22:23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored: If you remove wickedness far from your tent
Job 22:24 and assign your nuggets to the dust, your gold of Ophir to the rocks in the ravines,
Job 22:25 then the Almighty will be your gold, the choicest silver for you.
Job 22:26 Surely then you will find delight in the Almighty and will lift up your face to God.
Job 22:27 You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows.
Job 22:28 What you decide on will be done, and light will shine on your ways.
Job 22:29 When men are brought low and you say, 'Lift them up!' then he will save the downcast.
Job 22:30 He will deliver even one who is not innocent, who will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."
Job 23:1 Then Job replied:
Job 23:2 "Even today my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.
Job 23:3 If only I knew where to find him; if only I could go to his dwelling!"

Job 23:4 I would state my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.
Job 23:5 I would find out what he would answer me, and consider what he would say.
Job 23:6 Would he oppose me with great power? No, he would not press charges against me.
Job 23:7 There an upright man could present his case before him, and I would be delivered forever from my judge.
Job 23:8 "But if I go to the east, he is not there; if I go to the west, I do not find him.
Job 23:9 When he is at work in the north, I do not see him; when he turns to the south, I catch no glimpse of him.
Job 23:10 But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, I will come forth as gold.
Job 23:11 My feet have closely followed his steps; I have kept to his way without turning aside.
Job 23:12 I have not departed from the commands of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my daily bread.
Job 23:13 "But he stands alone, and who can oppose him? He does whatever he pleases.
Job 23:14 He carries out his decree against me, and many such plans he still has in store.
Job 23:15 That is why I am terrified before him; when I think of all this, I fear him.
Job 23:16 God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me.
Job 23:17 Yet I am not silenced by the darkness, by the thick darkness that covers my face.
Job 24:1 "Why does the Almighty not set times for judgment? Why must those who know him look in vain for such days?
Job 24:2 Men move boundary stones; they pasture flocks they have stolen.
Job 24:3 They drive away the orphan's donkey and take the widow's ox in pledge.
Job 24:4 They thrust the needy from the path and force all the poor of the land into hiding.
Job 24:5 Like wild donkeys in the desert, the poor go about their labor of foraging food; the wasteland provides food for their children.
Job 24:6 They gather fodder in the fields and glean in the vineyards of the wicked.
Job 24:7 Lacking clothes, they spend the night naked; they have nothing to cover themselves in the cold.
Job 24:8 They are drenched by mountain rains and hug the rocks for lack of shelter.
Job 24:9 The fatherless child is snatched from the breast; the infant of the poor is seized for a debt.
Job 24:10 Lacking clothes, they go about naked; they carry the sheaves, but still go hungry.
Job 24:11 They crush olives among the terraces; they tread the winepresses, yet suffer thirst.
Job 24:12 The groans of the dying rise from the city, and the souls of the wounded cry out for help. But God charges no one with wrongdoing.
Job 24:13 "There are those who rebel against the light, who do not know its ways or stay in its paths.
Job 24:14 When daylight is gone, the murderer rises up and kills the poor and needy; in the night he steals forth like a thief.
Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer watches for dusk; he thinks, 'No eye will see me,' and he keeps his face concealed.
Job 24:16 In the dark, men break into houses, but by day they shut themselves in; they want nothing to do with the light.
Job 24:17 For all of them, deep darkness is their morning; they make friends with the terrors of darkness.
Job 24:18 "Yet they are foam on the surface of the water; their portion of the land is cursed, so that no one goes to the vineyards.
Job 24:19 As heat and drought snatch away the melted snow, so the grave snatches away those who have sinned.
Job 24:20 The womb forgets them, the worm feasts on them; evil men are no longer remembered but are broken like a tree.
Job 24:21 They prey on the barren and childless woman, and to the widow show no kindness.
Job 24:22 But God drags away the mighty by his power; though they become established, they have no assurance of life.
Job 24:23 He may let them rest in a feeling of security, but his eyes are on their ways.
Job 24:24 For a little while they are exalted, and then they are gone; they are brought low and gathered up like all others; they are cut off like heads of grain.
Job 24:25 "If this is not so, who can prove me false and reduce my words to nothing?"
Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
Job 25:2 "Dominion and awe belong to God; he establishes order in the heights of heaven.
Job 25:3 Can his forces be numbered? Upon whom does his light not rise?
Job 25:4 How then can a man be righteous before God? How can one born of woman be pure?
Job 25:5 If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in his eyes,
Job 25:6 how much less man, who is but a maggot-- a son of man, who is only a worm!"

Job 26:1 Then Job replied:

Job 26:2 "How you have helped the powerless! How you have saved the arm that is feeble!

Job 26:3 What advice you have offered to one without wisdom! And what great insight you have displayed!

Job 26:4 Who has helped you utter these words? And whose spirit spoke from your mouth?

Job 26:5 "The dead are in deep anguish, those beneath the waters and all that live in them.

Job 26:6 Death is naked before God; Destruction lies uncovered.

Job 26:7 He spreads out the northern [skies] over empty space; he suspends the earth over nothing.

Job 26:8 He wraps up the waters in his clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under their weight.

Job 26:9 He covers the face of the full moon, spreading his clouds over it.

Job 26:10 He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters for a boundary between light and darkness.

Job 26:11 The pillars of the heavens quake, aghast at his rebuke.

Job 26:12 By his power he churned up the sea; by his wisdom he cut Rahab to pieces.

Job 26:13 By his breath the skies became fair; his hand pierced the gliding serpent.

Job 26:14 And these are but the outer fringe of his works; how faint the whisper we hear of him! Who then can understand the thunder of his power?"

Job 27:1 And Job continued his discourse:

Job 27:2 "As surely as God lives, who has denied me justice, the Almighty, who has made me taste bitterness of soul,

Job 27:3 as long as I have life within me, the breath of God in my nostrils,

Job 27:4 my lips will not speak wickedness, and my tongue will utter no deceit.

Job 27:5 I will never admit you are in the right; till I die, I will not deny my integrity.

Job 27:6 I will maintain my righteousness and never let go of it; my conscience will not reproach me as long as I live.

Job 27:7 "May my enemies be like the wicked, my adversaries like the unjust!

Job 27:8 For what hope has the godless when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?

Job 27:9 Does God listen to his cry when distress comes upon him?

Job 27:10 Will he find delight in the Almighty? Will he call upon God at all times?

Job 27:11 "I will teach you about the power of God; the ways of the Almighty I will not conceal.

Job 27:12 You have all seen this yourselves. Why then this meaningless talk?

Job 27:13 "Here is the fate God allots to the wicked, the heritage a ruthless man receives from the Almighty:

Job 27:14 However many his children, their fate is the sword; his offspring will never have enough to eat.

Job 27:15 The plague will bury those who survive him, and their widows will not weep for them.

Job 27:16 Though he heaps up silver like dust and clothes like piles of clay,

Job 27:17 what he lays up the righteous will wear, and the innocent will divide his silver.

Job 27:18 The house he builds is like a moth's cocoon, like a hut made by a watchman.

Job 27:19 He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more; when he opens his eyes, all is gone.

Job 27:20 Terrors overtake him like a flood; a tempest snatches him away in the night.

Job 27:21 The east wind carries him off, and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.

Job 27:22 It hurls itself against him without mercy as he flees headlong from its power.

Job 27:23 It claps its hands in derision and hisses him out of his place.

Job 28:1 "There is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.

Job 28:2 Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.

Job 28:3 Man puts an end to the darkness; he searches the farthest recesses for ore in the blackest darkness.

Job 28:4 Far from where people dwell he cuts a shaft, in places forgotten by the foot of man; far from men he dangles and sways.

Job 28:5 The earth, from which food comes, is transformed below as by fire;

Job 28:6 sapphires come from its rocks, and its dust contains nuggets of gold.

Job 28:7 No bird of prey knows that hidden path, no falcon's eye has seen it.

Job 28:8 Proud beasts do not set foot on it, and no lion prowls there.

Job 28:9 Man's hand assaults the flinty rock and lays bare the roots of the mountains.

Job 28:10 He tunnels through the rock; his eyes see all its treasures.

Job 28:11 He searches the sources of the rivers and brings hidden things to light.

Job 28:12 "But where can wisdom be found? Where does understanding dwell?

Job 28:13 Man does not comprehend its worth; it cannot be found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 The deep says, 'It is not in me'; the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

Job 28:15 It cannot be bought with the finest gold, nor can its price be weighed in silver.

Job 28:16 It cannot be bought with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphires.

Job 28:17 Neither gold nor crystal can compare with it, nor can it be had for jewels of gold.

Job 28:18 Coral and jasper are not worthy of mention; the price of wisdom is beyond rubies.

Job 28:19 The topaz of Cush cannot compare with it; it cannot be bought with pure gold.
Job 28:20 "Where then does wisdom come from? Where does understanding dwell?
Job 28:21 It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing, concealed even from the birds of the air.
Job 28:22 Destruction and Death say, 'Only a rumor of it has reached our ears.'
Job 28:23 God understands the way to it and he alone knows where it dwells,
Job 28:24 for he views the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.
Job 28:25 When he established the force of the wind and measured out the waters,
Job 28:26 when he made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm,
Job 28:27 then he looked at wisdom and appraised it; he confirmed it and tested it.
Job 28:28 And he said to man, 'The fear of the Lord-- that is wisdom, and to shun evil is understanding.'"
Job 29:1 Job continued his discourse:
Job 29:2 "How I long for the months gone by, for the days when God watched over me,
Job 29:3 when his lamp shone upon my head and by his light I walked through darkness!
Job 29:4 Oh, for the days when I was in my prime, when God's intimate friendship blessed my house,
Job 29:5 when the Almighty was still with me and my children were around me,
Job 29:6 when my path was drenched with cream and the rock poured out for me streams of olive oil.
Job 29:7 "When I went to the gate of the city and took my seat in the public square,
Job 29:8 the young men saw me and stepped aside and the old men rose to their feet;
Job 29:9 the chief men refrained from speaking and covered their mouths with their hands;
Job 29:10 the voices of the nobles were hushed, and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
Job 29:11 Whoever heard me spoke well of me, and those who saw me commended me,
Job 29:12 because I rescued the poor who cried for help, and the fatherless who had none to assist him.
Job 29:13 The man who was dying blessed me; I made the widow's heart sing.
Job 29:14 I put on righteousness as my clothing; justice was my robe and my turban.
Job 29:15 I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.
Job 29:16 I was a father to the needy; I took up the case of the stranger.
Job 29:17 I broke the fangs of the wicked and snatched the victims from their teeth.
Job 29:18 "I thought, 'I will die in my own house, my days as numerous as the grains of sand.
Job 29:19 My roots will reach to the water, and the dew will lie all night on my branches.
Job 29:20 My glory will remain fresh in me, the bow ever new in my hand.'
Job 29:21 "Men listened to me expectantly, waiting in silence for my counsel.
Job 29:22 After I had spoken, they spoke no more; my words fell gently on their ears.
Job 29:23 They waited for me as for showers and drank in my words as the spring rain.
Job 29:24 When I smiled at them, they scarcely believed it; the light of my face was precious to them.
Job 29:25 I chose the way for them and sat as their chief; I dwelt as a king among his troops; I was like one who comforts mourners.
Job 30:1 "But now they mock me, men younger than I, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
Job 30:2 Of what use was the strength of their hands to me, since their vigor had gone from them?
Job 30:3 Haggard from want and hunger, they roamed the parched land in desolate wastelands at night.
Job 30:4 In the brush they gathered salt herbs, and their food was the root of the broom tree.
Job 30:5 They were banished from their fellow men, shouted at as if they were thieves.
Job 30:6 They were forced to live in the dry stream beds, among the rocks and in holes in the ground.
Job 30:7 They brayed among the bushes and huddled in the undergrowth.
Job 30:8 A base and nameless brood, they were driven out of the land.
Job 30:9 "And now their sons mock me in song; I have become a byword among them.
Job 30:10 They detest me and keep their distance; they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
Job 30:11 Now that God has unstrung my bow and afflicted me, they throw off restraint in my presence.
Job 30:12 On my right the tribe attacks; they lay snares for my feet, they build their siege ramps against me.
Job 30:13 They break up my road; they succeed in destroying me-- without anyone's helping them.
Job 30:14 They advance as through a gaping breach; amid the ruins they come rolling in.
Job 30:15 Terrors overwhelm me; my dignity is driven away as by the wind, my safety vanishes like a cloud.
Job 30:16 "And now my life ebbs away; days of suffering grip me.
Job 30:17 Night pierces my bones; my gnawing pains never rest.
Job 30:18 In his great power [God] becomes like clothing to me; he binds me like the neck of my garment.
Job 30:19 He throws me into the mud, and I am reduced to dust and ashes.
Job 30:20 "I cry out to you, O God, but you do not answer; I stand up, but you merely look at me.
Job 30:21 You turn on me ruthlessly; with the might of your hand you attack me.
Job 30:22 You snatch me up and drive me before the wind; you toss me about in the storm.

Job 30:23 I know you will bring me down to death, to the place appointed for all the living.
Job 30:24 "Surely no one lays a hand on a broken man when he cries for help in his distress.
Job 30:25 Have I not wept for those in trouble? Has not my soul grieved for the poor?
Job 30:26 Yet when I hoped for good, evil came; when I looked for light, then came darkness.
Job 30:27 The churning inside me never stops; days of suffering confront me.
Job 30:28 I go about blackened, but not by the sun; I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.
Job 30:29 I have become a brother of jackals, a companion of owls.
Job 30:30 My skin grows black and peels; my body burns with fever.
Job 30:31 My harp is tuned to mourning, and my flute to the sound of wailing.
Job 31:1 "I made a covenant with my eyes not to look lustfully at a girl.
Job 31:2 For what is man's lot from God above, his heritage from the Almighty on high?
Job 31:3 Is it not ruin for the wicked, disaster for those who do wrong?
Job 31:4 Does he not see my ways and count my every step?
Job 31:5 "If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has hurried after deceit--
Job 31:6 let God weigh me in honest scales and he will know that I am blameless--
Job 31:7 if my steps have turned from the path, if my heart has been led by my eyes, or if my hands have been defiled,
Job 31:8 then may others eat what I have sown, and may my crops be uprooted.
Job 31:9 "If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or if I have lurked at my neighbor's door,
Job 31:10 then may my wife grind another man's grain, and may other men sleep with her.
Job 31:11 For that would have been shameful, a sin to be judged.
Job 31:12 It is a fire that burns to Destruction; it would have uprooted my harvest.
Job 31:13 "If I have denied justice to my menservants and maidservants when they had a grievance against me,
Job 31:14 what will I do when God confronts me? What will I answer when called to account?
Job 31:15 Did not he who made me in the womb make them? Did not the same one form us both within our mothers?
Job 31:16 "If I have denied the desires of the poor or let the eyes of the widow grow weary,
Job 31:17 if I have kept my bread to myself, not sharing it with the fatherless--
Job 31:18 but from my youth I reared him as would a father, and from my birth I guided the widow--
Job 31:19 if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing, or a needy man without a garment,
Job 31:20 and his heart did not bless me for warming him with the fleece from my sheep,
Job 31:21 if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, knowing that I had influence in court,
Job 31:22 then let my arm fall from the shoulder, let it be broken off at the joint.
Job 31:23 For I dreaded destruction from God, and for fear of his splendor I could not do such things.
Job 31:24 "If I have put my trust in gold or said to pure gold, 'You are my security,'
Job 31:25 if I have rejoiced over my great wealth, the fortune my hands had gained,
Job 31:26 if I have regarded the sun in its radiance or the moon moving in splendor,
Job 31:27 so that my heart was secretly enticed and my hand offered them a kiss of homage,
Job 31:28 then these also would be sins to be judged, for I would have been unfaithful to God on high.
Job 31:29 "If I have rejoiced at my enemy's misfortune or gloated over the trouble that came to him--
Job 31:30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin by invoking a curse against his life--
Job 31:31 if the men of my household have never said, 'Who has not had his fill of Job's meat?'--
Job 31:32 but no stranger had to spend the night in the street, for my door was always open to the traveler--
Job 31:33 if I have concealed my sin as men do, by hiding my guilt in my heart
Job 31:34 because I so feared the crowd and so dreaded the contempt of the clans that I kept silent and would not go outside Job 31:35 ("Oh, that I had someone to hear me! I sign now my defense-- let the Almighty answer me; let my accuser put his indictment in writing.
Job 31:36 Surely I would wear it on my shoulder, I would put it on like a crown.
Job 31:37 I would give him an account of my every step; like a prince I would approach him.)--
Job 31:38 "if my land cries out against me and all its furrows are wet with tears,
Job 31:39 if I have devoured its yield without payment or broken the spirit of its tenants,
Job 31:40 then let briers come up instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley." The words of Job are ended.
Job 32:1 So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.
Job 32:2 But Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God.
Job 32:3 He was also angry with the three friends, because they had found no way to refute Job, and yet had condemned him.
Job 32:4 Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job because they were older than he.

Job 32:5 But when he saw that the three men had nothing more to say, his anger was aroused.
Job 32:6 So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said: "I am young in years, and you are old; that is why I was fearful, not daring to tell you what I know.
Job 32:7 I thought, 'Age should speak; advanced years should teach wisdom.'
Job 32:8 But it is the spirit in a man, the breath of the Almighty, that gives him understanding.
Job 32:9 It is not only the old who are wise, not only the aged who understand what is right.
Job 32:10 "Therefore I say: Listen to me; I too will tell you what I know.
Job 32:11 I waited while you spoke, I listened to your reasoning; while you were searching for words,
Job 32:12 I gave you my full attention. But not one of you has proved Job wrong; none of you has answered his arguments.
Job 32:13 Do not say, 'We have found wisdom; let God refute him, not man.'
Job 32:14 But Job has not marshaled his words against me, and I will not answer him with your arguments.
Job 32:15 "They are dismayed and have no more to say; words have failed them.
Job 32:16 Must I wait, now that they are silent, now that they stand there with no reply?
Job 32:17 I too will have my say; I too will tell what I know.
Job 32:18 For I am full of words, and the spirit within me compels me;
Job 32:19 inside I am like bottled-up wine, like new wineskins ready to burst.
Job 32:20 I must speak and find relief; I must open my lips and reply.
Job 32:21 I will show partiality to no one, nor will I flatter any man;
Job 32:22 for if I were skilled in flattery, my Maker would soon take me away.
Job 33:1 "But now, Job, listen to my words; pay attention to everything I say.
Job 33:2 I am about to open my mouth; my words are on the tip of my tongue.
Job 33:3 My words come from an upright heart; my lips sincerely speak what I know.
Job 33:4 The Spirit of God has made me; the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
Job 33:5 Answer me then, if you can; prepare yourself and confront me.
Job 33:6 I am just like you before God; I too have been taken from clay.
Job 33:7 No fear of me should alarm you, nor should my hand be heavy upon you.
Job 33:8 "But you have said in my hearing-- I heard the very words--
Job 33:9 'I am pure and without sin; I am clean and free from guilt.
Job 33:10 Yet God has found fault with me; he considers me his enemy.
Job 33:11 He fastens my feet in shackles; he keeps close watch on all my paths.'
Job 33:12 "But I tell you, in this you are not right, for God is greater than man.
Job 33:13 Why do you complain to him that he answers none of man's words?
Job 33:14 For God does speak-- now one way, now another-- though man may not perceive it.
Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men as they slumber in their beds,
Job 33:16 he may speak in their ears and terrify them with warnings,
Job 33:17 to turn man from wrongdoing and keep him from pride,
Job 33:18 to preserve his soul from the pit, his life from perishing by the sword.
Job 33:19 Or a man may be chastened on a bed of pain with constant distress in his bones,
Job 33:20 so that his very being finds food repulsive and his soul loathes the choicest meal.
Job 33:21 His flesh wastes away to nothing, and his bones, once hidden, now stick out.
Job 33:22 His soul draws near to the pit, and his life to the messengers of death.
Job 33:23 "Yet if there is an angel on his side as a mediator, one out of a thousand, to tell a man what is right for him,
Job 33:24 to be gracious to him and say, 'Spare him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom for him'--
Job 33:25 then his flesh is renewed like a child's; it is restored as in the days of his youth.
Job 33:26 He prays to God and finds favor with him, he sees God's face and shouts for joy; he is restored by God to his righteous state.
Job 33:27 Then he comes to men and says, 'I sinned, and perverted what was right, but I did not get what I deserved.
Job 33:28 He redeemed my soul from going down to the pit, and I will live to enjoy the light.'
Job 33:29 "God does all these things to a man-- twice, even three times--
Job 33:30 to turn back his soul from the pit, that the light of life may shine on him.
Job 33:31 "Pay attention, Job, and listen to me; be silent, and I will speak.
Job 33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me; speak up, for I want you to be cleared.
Job 33:33 But if not, then listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom."
Job 34:1 Then Elihu said:
Job 34:2 "Hear my words, you wise men; listen to me, you men of learning.
Job 34:3 For the ear tests words as the tongue tastes food.

Job 34:4 Let us discern for ourselves what is right; let us learn together what is good.
Job 34:5 "Job says, 'I am innocent, but God denies me justice.
Job 34:6 Although I am right, I am considered a liar; although I am guiltless, his arrow inflicts an incurable wound.'
Job 34:7 What man is like Job, who drinks scorn like water?
Job 34:8 He keeps company with evildoers; he associates with wicked men.
Job 34:9 For he says, 'It profits a man nothing when he tries to please God.'
Job 34:10 "So listen to me, you men of understanding. Far be it from God to do evil, from the Almighty to do wrong.
Job 34:11 He repays a man for what he has done; he brings upon him what his conduct deserves.
Job 34:12 It is unthinkable that God would do wrong, that the Almighty would pervert justice.
Job 34:13 Who appointed him over the earth? Who put him in charge of the whole world?
Job 34:14 If it were his intention and he withdrew his spirit and breath,
Job 34:15 all mankind would perish together and man would return to the dust.
Job 34:16 "If you have understanding, hear this; listen to what I say.
Job 34:17 Can he who hates justice govern? Will you condemn the just and mighty One?
Job 34:18 Is he not the One who says to kings, 'You are worthless,' and to nobles, 'You are wicked,'
Job 34:19 who shows no partiality to princes and does not favor the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of his hands?
Job 34:20 They die in an instant, in the middle of the night; the people are shaken and they pass away; the mighty are removed without human hand.
Job 34:21 "His eyes are on the ways of men; he sees their every step.
Job 34:22 There is no dark place, no deep shadow, where evildoers can hide.
Job 34:23 God has no need to examine men further, that they should come before him for judgment.
Job 34:24 Without inquiry he shatters the mighty and sets up others in their place.
Job 34:25 Because he takes note of their deeds, he overthrows them in the night and they are crushed.
Job 34:26 He punishes them for their wickedness where everyone can see them,
Job 34:27 because they turned from following him and had no regard for any of his ways.
Job 34:28 They caused the cry of the poor to come before him, so that he heard the cry of the needy.
Job 34:29 But if he remains silent, who can condemn him? If he hides his face, who can see him? Yet he is over man and nation alike,
Job 34:30 to keep a godless man from ruling, from laying snares for the people.
Job 34:31 "Suppose a man says to God, 'I am guilty but will offend no more.
Job 34:32 Teach me what I cannot see; if I have done wrong, I will not do so again.'
Job 34:33 Should God then reward you on your terms, when you refuse to repent? You must decide, not I; so tell me what you know.
Job 34:34 "Men of understanding declare, wise men who hear me say to me,
Job 34:35 'Job speaks without knowledge; his words lack insight.'
Job 34:36 Oh, that Job might be tested to the utmost for answering like a wicked man!
Job 34:37 To his sin he adds rebellion; scornfully he claps his hands among us and multiplies his words against God."
Job 35:1 Then Elihu said:
Job 35:2 "Do you think this is just? You say, 'I will be cleared by God.'
Job 35:3 Yet you ask him, 'What profit is it to me, and what do I gain by not sinning?'
Job 35:4 "I would like to reply to you and to your friends with you.
Job 35:5 Look up at the heavens and see; gaze at the clouds so high above you.
Job 35:6 If you sin, how does that affect him? If your sins are many, what does that do to him?
Job 35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give to him, or what does he receive from your hand?
Job 35:8 Your wickedness affects only a man like yourself, and your righteousness only the sons of men.
Job 35:9 "Men cry out under a load of oppression; they plead for relief from the arm of the powerful.
Job 35:10 But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
Job 35:11 who teaches more to us than to the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?'
Job 35:12 He does not answer when men cry out because of the arrogance of the wicked.
Job 35:13 Indeed, God does not listen to their empty plea; the Almighty pays no attention to it.
Job 35:14 How much less, then, will he listen when you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him and you must wait for him,
Job 35:15 and further, that his anger never punishes and he does not take the least notice of wickedness.
Job 35:16 So Job opens his mouth with empty talk; without knowledge he multiplies words."
Job 36:1 Elihu continued:

Job 36:2 "Bear with me a little longer and I will show you that there is more to be said in God's behalf.
Job 36:3 I get my knowledge from afar; I will ascribe justice to my Maker.
Job 36:4 Be assured that my words are not false; one perfect in knowledge is with you.
Job 36:5 "God is mighty, but does not despise men; he is mighty, and firm in his purpose.
Job 36:6 He does not keep the wicked alive but gives the afflicted their rights.
Job 36:7 He does not take his eyes off the righteous; he enthrones them with kings and exalts them forever.
Job 36:8 But if men are bound in chains, held fast by cords of affliction,
Job 36:9 he tells them what they have done-- that they have sinned arrogantly.
Job 36:10 He makes them listen to correction and commands them to repent of their evil.
Job 36:11 If they obey and serve him, they will spend the rest of their days in prosperity and their years in contentment.
Job 36:12 But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword and die without knowledge.
Job 36:13 "The godless in heart harbor resentment; even when he fetters them, they do not cry for help.
Job 36:14 They die in their youth, among male prostitutes of the shrines.
Job 36:15 But those who suffer he delivers in their suffering; he speaks to them in their affliction.
Job 36:16 "He is wooing you from the jaws of distress to a spacious place free from restriction, to the comfort of your table laden with choice food.
Job 36:17 But now you are laden with the judgment due the wicked; judgment and justice have taken hold of you.
Job 36:18 Be careful that no one entices you by riches; do not let a large bribe turn you aside.
Job 36:19 Would your wealth or even all your mighty efforts sustain you so you would not be in distress?
Job 36:20 Do not long for the night, to drag people away from their homes.
Job 36:21 Beware of turning to evil, which you seem to prefer to affliction.
Job 36:22 "God is exalted in his power. Who is a teacher like him?
Job 36:23 Who has prescribed his ways for him, or said to him, 'You have done wrong'?
Job 36:24 Remember to extol his work, which men have praised in song.
Job 36:25 All mankind has seen it; men gaze on it from afar.
Job 36:26 How great is God-- beyond our understanding! The number of his years is past finding out.
Job 36:27 "He draws up the drops of water, which distill as rain to the streams;
Job 36:28 the clouds pour down their moisture and abundant showers fall on mankind.
Job 36:29 Who can understand how he spreads out the clouds, how he thunders from his pavilion?
Job 36:30 See how he scatters his lightning about him, bathing the depths of the sea.
Job 36:31 This is the way he governs the nations and provides food in abundance.
Job 36:32 He fills his hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.
Job 36:33 His thunder announces the coming storm; even the cattle make known its approach.
Job 37:1 "At this my heart pounds and leaps from its place.
Job 37:2 Listen! Listen to the roar of his voice, to the rumbling that comes from his mouth.
Job 37:3 He unleashes his lightning beneath the whole heaven and sends it to the ends of the earth.
Job 37:4 After that comes the sound of his roar; he thunders with his majestic voice. When his voice resounds, he holds nothing back.
Job 37:5 God's voice thunders in marvelous ways; he does great things beyond our understanding.
Job 37:6 He says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth,' and to the rain shower, 'Be a mighty downpour.'
Job 37:7 So that all men he has made may know his work, he stops every man from his labor.
Job 37:8 The animals take cover; they remain in their dens.
Job 37:9 The tempest comes out from its chamber, the cold from the driving winds.
Job 37:10 The breath of God produces ice, and the broad waters become frozen.
Job 37:11 He loads the clouds with moisture; he scatters his lightning through them.
Job 37:12 At his direction they swirl around over the face of the whole earth to do whatever he commands them.
Job 37:13 He brings the clouds to punish men, or to water his earth and show his love.
Job 37:14 "Listen to this, Job; stop and consider God's wonders.
Job 37:15 Do you know how God controls the clouds and makes his lightning flash?
Job 37:16 Do you know how the clouds hang poised, those wonders of him who is perfect in knowledge?
Job 37:17 You who shelter in your clothes when the land lies hushed under the south wind,
Job 37:18 can you join him in spreading out the skies, hard as a mirror of cast bronze?
Job 37:19 "Tell us what we should say to him; we cannot draw up our case because of our darkness.
Job 37:20 Should he be told that I want to speak? Would any man ask to be swallowed up?
Job 37:21 Now no one can look at the sun, bright as it is in the skies after the wind has swept them clean.
Job 37:22 Out of the north he comes in golden splendor; God comes in awesome majesty.
Job 37:23 The Almighty is beyond our reach and exalted in power; in his justice and great righteousness, he does not oppress.

Job 37:24 Therefore, men revere him, for does he not have regard for all the wise in heart?"

Job 38:1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the storm. He said:

Job 38:2 "Who is this that darkens my counsel with words without knowledge?

Job 38:3 Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.

Job 38:4 "Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation? Tell me, if you understand.

Job 38:5 Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it?

Job 38:6 On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone--

Job 38:7 while the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy?

Job 38:8 "Who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb,

Job 38:9 when I made the clouds its garment and wrapped it in thick darkness,

Job 38:10 when I fixed limits for it and set its doors and bars in place,

Job 38:11 when I said, 'This far you may come and no farther; here is where your proud waves halt'?

Job 38:12 "Have you ever given orders to the morning, or shown the dawn its place,

Job 38:13 that it might take the earth by the edges and shake the wicked out of it?

Job 38:14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal; its features stand out like those of a garment.

Job 38:15 The wicked are denied their light, and their upraised arm is broken.

Job 38:16 "Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been shown to you? Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?

Job 38:18 Have you comprehended the vast expanses of the earth? Tell me, if you know all this.

Job 38:19 "What is the way to the abode of light? And where does darkness reside?

Job 38:20 Can you take them to their places? Do you know the paths to their dwellings?

Job 38:21 Surely you know, for you were already born! You have lived so many years!

Job 38:22 "Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of the hail,

Job 38:23 which I reserve for times of trouble, for days of war and battle?

Job 38:24 What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed, or the place where the east winds are scattered over the earth?

Job 38:25 Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain, and a path for the thunderstorm,

Job 38:26 to water a land where no man lives, a desert with no one in it,

Job 38:27 to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass?

Job 38:28 Does the rain have a father? Who fathers the drops of dew?

Job 38:29 From whose womb comes the ice? Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens

Job 38:30 when the waters become hard as stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen?

Job 38:31 "Can you bind the beautiful Pleiades? Can you loose the cords of Orion?

Job 38:32 Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons or lead out the Bear with its cubs?

Job 38:33 Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you set up [God's] dominion over the earth?

Job 38:34 "Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with a flood of water?

Job 38:35 Do you send the lightning bolts on their way? Do they report to you, 'Here we are'?

Job 38:36 Who endowed the heart with wisdom or gave understanding to the mind?

Job 38:37 Who has the wisdom to count the clouds? Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens

Job 38:38 when the dust becomes hard and the clods of earth stick together?

Job 38:39 "Do you hunt the prey for the lioness and satisfy the hunger of the lions

Job 38:40 when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in a thicket?

Job 38:41 Who provides food for the raven when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?

Job 39:1 "Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the doe bears her fawn?

Job 39:2 Do you count the months till they bear? Do you know the time they give birth?

Job 39:3 They crouch down and bring forth their young; their labor pains are ended.

Job 39:4 Their young thrive and grow strong in the wilds; they leave and do not return.

Job 39:5 "Who let the wild donkey go free? Who untied his ropes?

Job 39:6 I gave him the wasteland as his home, the salt flats as his habitat.

Job 39:7 He laughs at the commotion in the town; he does not hear a driver's shout.

Job 39:8 He ranges the hills for his pasture and searches for any green thing.

Job 39:9 "Will the wild ox consent to serve you? Will he stay by your manger at night?

Job 39:10 Can you hold him to the furrow with a harness? Will he till the valleys behind you?

Job 39:11 Will you rely on him for his great strength? Will you leave your heavy work to him?

Job 39:12 Can you trust him to bring in your grain and gather it to your threshing floor?

Job 39:13 "The wings of the ostrich flap joyfully, but they cannot compare with the pinions and feathers of the stork.

Job 39:14 She lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand,

Job 39:15 unmindful that a foot may crush them, that some wild animal may trample them.
Job 39:16 She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; she cares not that her labor was in vain,
Job 39:17 for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of good sense.
Job 39:18 Yet when she spreads her feathers to run, she laughs at horse and rider.
Job 39:19 "Do you give the horse his strength or clothe his neck with a flowing mane?
Job 39:20 Do you make him leap like a locust, striking terror with his proud snorting?
Job 39:21 He paws fiercely, rejoicing in his strength, and charges into the fray.
Job 39:22 He laughs at fear, afraid of nothing; he does not shy away from the sword.
Job 39:23 The quiver rattles against his side, along with the flashing spear and lance.
Job 39:24 In frenzied excitement he eats up the ground; he cannot stand still when the trumpet sounds.
Job 39:25 At the blast of the trumpet he snorts, 'Aha!' He catches the scent of battle from afar, the shout of commanders and the battle cry.
Job 39:26 "Does the hawk take flight by your wisdom and spread his wings toward the south?
Job 39:27 Does the eagle soar at your command and build his nest on high?
Job 39:28 He dwells on a cliff and stays there at night; a rocky crag is his stronghold.
Job 39:29 From there he seeks out his food; his eyes detect it from afar.
Job 39:30 His young ones feast on blood, and where the slain are, there is he."
Job 40:1 The LORD said to Job:
Job 40:2 "Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct him? Let him who accuses God answer him!"
Job 40:3 Then Job answered the LORD:
Job 40:4 "I am unworthy-- how can I reply to you? I put my hand over my mouth.
Job 40:5 I spoke once, but I have no answer-- twice, but I will say no more."
Job 40:6 Then the LORD spoke to Job out of the storm:
Job 40:7 "Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.
Job 40:8 "Would you discredit my justice? Would you condemn me to justify yourself?
Job 40:9 Do you have an arm like God's, and can your voice thunder like his?
Job 40:10 Then adorn yourself with glory and splendor, and clothe yourself in honor and majesty.
Job 40:11 Unleash the fury of your wrath, look at every proud man and bring him low,
Job 40:12 look at every proud man and humble him, crush the wicked where they stand.
Job 40:13 Bury them all in the dust together; shroud their faces in the grave.
Job 40:14 Then I myself will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.
Job 40:15 "Look at the behemoth, which I made along with you and which feeds on grass like an ox.
Job 40:16 What strength he has in his loins, what power in the muscles of his belly!
Job 40:17 His tail sways like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are close-knit.
Job 40:18 His bones are tubes of bronze, his limbs like rods of iron.
Job 40:19 He ranks first among the works of God, yet his Maker can approach him with his sword.
Job 40:20 The hills bring him their produce, and all the wild animals play nearby.
Job 40:21 Under the lotus plants he lies, hidden among the reeds in the marsh.
Job 40:22 The lotuses conceal him in their shadow; the poplars by the stream surround him.
Job 40:23 When the river rages, he is not alarmed; he is secure, though the Jordan should surge against his mouth.
Job 40:24 Can anyone capture him by the eyes, or trap him and pierce his nose?
Job 41:1 "Can you pull in the leviathan with a fishhook or tie down his tongue with a rope?
Job 41:2 Can you put a cord through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?
Job 41:3 Will he keep begging you for mercy? Will he speak to you with gentle words?
Job 41:4 Will he make an agreement with you for you to take him as your slave for life?
Job 41:5 Can you make a pet of him like a bird or put him on a leash for your girls?
Job 41:6 Will traders barter for him? Will they divide him up among the merchants?
Job 41:7 Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
Job 41:8 If you lay a hand on him, you will remember the struggle and never do it again!
Job 41:9 Any hope of subduing him is false; the mere sight of him is overpowering.
Job 41:10 No one is fierce enough to rouse him. Who then is able to stand against me?
Job 41:11 Who has a claim against me that I must pay? Everything under heaven belongs to me.
Job 41:12 "I will not fail to speak of his limbs, his strength and his graceful form.
Job 41:13 Who can strip off his outer coat? Who would approach him with a bridle?
Job 41:14 Who dares open the doors of his mouth, ringed about with his fearsome teeth?
Job 41:15 His back has rows of shields tightly sealed together;
Job 41:16 each is so close to the next that no air can pass between.
Job 41:17 They are joined fast to one another; they cling together and cannot be parted.

Job 41:18 His snorting throws out flashes of light; his eyes are like the rays of dawn.
Job 41:19 Firebrands stream from his mouth; sparks of fire shoot out.
Job 41:20 Smoke pours from his nostrils as from a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.
Job 41:21 His breath sets coals ablaze, and flames dart from his mouth.
Job 41:22 Strength resides in his neck; dismay goes before him.
Job 41:23 The folds of his flesh are tightly joined; they are firm and immovable.
Job 41:24 His chest is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.
Job 41:25 When he rises up, the mighty are terrified; they retreat before his thrashing.
Job 41:26 The sword that reaches him has no effect, nor does the spear or the dart or the javelin.
Job 41:27 Iron he treats like straw and bronze like rotten wood.
Job 41:28 Arrows do not make him flee; slingstones are like chaff to him.
Job 41:29 A club seems to him but a piece of straw; he laughs at the rattling of the lance.
Job 41:30 His undersides are jagged potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.
Job 41:31 He makes the depths churn like a boiling caldron and stirs up the sea like a pot of ointment.
Job 41:32 Behind him he leaves a glistening wake; one would think the deep had white hair.
Job 41:33 Nothing on earth is his equal-- a creature without fear.
Job 41:34 He looks down on all that are haughty; he is king over all that are proud."
Job 42:1 Then Job replied to the LORD:
Job 42:2 "I know that you can do all things; no plan of yours can be thwarted.
Job 42:3 [You asked,] 'Who is this that obscures my counsel without knowledge?' Surely I spoke of things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to know.
Job 42:4 ["You said,] 'Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you shall answer me.'
Job 42:5 My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you.
Job 42:6 Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes."
Job 42:7 After the LORD had said these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "I am angry with you and your two friends, because you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.
Job 42:8 So now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. You have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has."
Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite did what the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.
Job 42:10 After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD made him prosperous again and gave him twice as much as he had before.
Job 42:11 All his brothers and sisters and everyone who had known him before came and ate with him in his house. They comforted and consoled him over all the trouble the LORD had brought upon him, and each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.
Job 42:12 The LORD blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the first. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys.
Job 42:13 And he also had seven sons and three daughters.
Job 42:14 The first daughter he named Jemimah, the second Keziah and the third Keren-Happuch.
Job 42:15 Nowhere in all the land were there found women as beautiful as Job's daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.
Job 42:16 After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation.
Job 42:17 And so he died, old and full of years.
Psa 1:1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers.
Psa 1:2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.
Psa 1:3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.
Psa 1:4 Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.
Psa 1:5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
Psa 1:6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.
Psa 2:1 Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain?
Psa 2:2 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One.
Psa 2:3 "Let us break their chains," they say, "and throw off their fetters."
Psa 2:4 The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them.
Psa 2:5 Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying,

Psa 2:6 "I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill."

Psa 2:7 I will proclaim the decree of the LORD: He said to me, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father.

Psa 2:8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession.

Psa 2:9 You will rule them with an iron scepter; you will dash them to pieces like pottery."

Psa 2:10 Therefore, you kings, be wise; be warned, you rulers of the earth.

Psa 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear and rejoice with trembling.

Psa 2:12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry and you be destroyed in your way, for his wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Psa 3:1 A psalm of David. When he fled from his son Absalom. O LORD, how many are my foes! How many rise up against me!

Psa 3:2 Many are saying of me, "God will not deliver him." Selah

Psa 3:3 But you are a shield around me, O LORD; you bestow glory on me and lift up my head.

Psa 3:4 To the LORD I cry aloud, and he answers me from his holy hill. Selah

Psa 3:5 I lie down and sleep; I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.

Psa 3:6 I will not fear the tens of thousands drawn up against me on every side.

Psa 3:7 Arise, O LORD! Deliver me, O my God! Strike all my enemies on the jaw; break the teeth of the wicked.

Psa 3:8 From the LORD comes deliverance. May your blessing be on your people. Selah

Psa 4:1 For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm of David. Answer me when I call to you, O my righteous God. Give me relief from my distress; be merciful to me and hear my prayer.

Psa 4:2 How long, O men, will you turn my glory into shame? How long will you love delusions and seek false gods? Selah

Psa 4:3 Know that the LORD has set apart the godly for himself; the LORD will hear when I call to him.

Psa 4:4 In your anger do not sin; when you are on your beds, search your hearts and be silent. Selah

Psa 4:5 Offer right sacrifices and trust in the LORD.

Psa 4:6 Many are asking, "Who can show us any good?" Let the light of your face shine upon us, O LORD.

Psa 4:7 You have filled my heart with greater joy than when their grain and new wine abound.

Psa 4:8 I will lie down and sleep in peace, for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psa 5:1 For the director of music. For flutes. A psalm of David. Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my sighing.

Psa 5:2 Listen to my cry for help, my King and my God, for to you I pray.

Psa 5:3 In the morning, O LORD, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait in expectation.

Psa 5:4 You are not a God who takes pleasure in evil; with you the wicked cannot dwell.

Psa 5:5 The arrogant cannot stand in your presence; you hate all who do wrong.

Psa 5:6 You destroy those who tell lies; bloodthirsty and deceitful men the LORD abhors.

Psa 5:7 But I, by your great mercy, will come into your house; in reverence will I bow down toward your holy temple.

Psa 5:8 Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies-- make straight your way before me.

Psa 5:9 Not a word from their mouth can be trusted; their heart is filled with destruction. Their throat is an open grave; with their tongue they speak deceit.

Psa 5:10 Declare them guilty, O God! Let their intrigues be their downfall. Banish them for their many sins, for they have rebelled against you.

Psa 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you be glad; let them ever sing for joy. Spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may rejoice in you.

Psa 5:12 For surely, O LORD, you bless the righteous; you surround them with your favor as with a shield.

Psa 6:1 For the director of music. With stringed instruments. According to sheminith. A psalm of David. O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

Psa 6:2 Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am faint; O LORD, heal me, for my bones are in agony.

Psa 6:3 My soul is in anguish. How long, O LORD, how long?

Psa 6:4 Turn, O LORD, and deliver me; save me because of your unfailing love.

Psa 6:5 No one remembers you when he is dead. Who praises you from the grave?

Psa 6:6 I am worn out from groaning; all night long I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears.

Psa 6:7 My eyes grow weak with sorrow; they fail because of all my foes.

Psa 6:8 Away from me, all you who do evil, for the LORD has heard my weeping.

Psa 6:9 The LORD has heard my cry for mercy; the LORD accepts my prayer.

Psa 6:10 All my enemies will be ashamed and dismayed; they will turn back in sudden disgrace.

Psa 7:1 A shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjamite. O LORD my God, I take refuge in you; save and deliver me from all who pursue me,

Psa 7:2 or they will tear me like a lion and rip me to pieces with no one to rescue me.
Psa 7:3 O LORD my God, if I have done this and there is guilt on my hands--
Psa 7:4 if I have done evil to him who is at peace with me or without cause have robbed my foe--
Psa 7:5 then let my enemy pursue and overtake me; let him trample my life to the ground and make me sleep in the dust. Selah
Psa 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in your anger; rise up against the rage of my enemies. Awake, my God; decree justice.
Psa 7:7 Let the assembled peoples gather around you. Rule over them from on high;
Psa 7:8 let the LORD judge the peoples. Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, according to my integrity, O Most High.
Psa 7:9 O righteous God, who searches minds and hearts, bring to an end the violence of the wicked and make the righteous secure.
Psa 7:10 My shield is God Most High, who saves the upright in heart.
Psa 7:11 God is a righteous judge, a God who expresses his wrath every day.
Psa 7:12 If he does not relent, he will sharpen his sword; he will bend and string his bow.
Psa 7:13 He has prepared his deadly weapons; he makes ready his flaming arrows.
Psa 7:14 He who is pregnant with evil and conceives trouble gives birth to disillusionment.
Psa 7:15 He who digs a hole and scoops it out falls into the pit he has made.
Psa 7:16 The trouble he causes recoils on himself; his violence comes down on his own head.
Psa 7:17 I will give thanks to the LORD because of his righteousness and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.
Psa 8:1 For the director of music. According to gittith. A psalm of David. O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens.
Psa 8:2 From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise because of your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.
Psa 8:3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
Psa 8:4 what is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?
Psa 8:5 You made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor.
Psa 8:6 You made him ruler over the works of your hands; you put everything under his feet:
Psa 8:7 all flocks and herds, and the beasts of the field,
Psa 8:8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, all that swim the paths of the seas.
Psa 8:9 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!
Psa 9:1 For the director of music. To [the tune of] "The Death of the Son." A psalm of David. I will praise you, O LORD, with all my heart; I will tell of all your wonders.
Psa 9:2 I will be glad and rejoice in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.
Psa 9:3 My enemies turn back; they stumble and perish before you.
Psa 9:4 For you have upheld my right and my cause; you have sat on your throne, judging righteously.
Psa 9:5 You have rebuked the nations and destroyed the wicked; you have blotted out their name for ever and ever.
Psa 9:6 Endless ruin has overtaken the enemy, you have uprooted their cities; even the memory of them has perished.
Psa 9:7 The LORD reigns forever; he has established his throne for judgment.
Psa 9:8 He will judge the world in righteousness; he will govern the peoples with justice.
Psa 9:9 The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.
Psa 9:10 Those who know your name will trust in you, for you, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek you.
Psa 9:11 Sing praises to the LORD, enthroned in Zion; proclaim among the nations what he has done.
Psa 9:12 For he who avenges blood remembers; he does not ignore the cry of the afflicted.
Psa 9:13 O LORD, see how my enemies persecute me! Have mercy and lift me up from the gates of death,
Psa 9:14 that I may declare your praises in the gates of the Daughter of Zion and there rejoice in your salvation.
Psa 9:15 The nations have fallen into the pit they have dug; their feet are caught in the net they have hidden.
Psa 9:16 The LORD is known by his justice; the wicked are ensnared by the work of their hands. Higgaion.
Selah
Psa 9:17 The wicked return to the grave, all the nations that forget God.
Psa 9:18 But the needy will not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the afflicted ever perish.
Psa 9:19 Arise, O LORD, let not man triumph; let the nations be judged in your presence.
Psa 9:20 Strike them with terror, O LORD; let the nations know they are but men. Selah
Psa 10:1 Why, O LORD, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
Psa 10:2 In his arrogance the wicked man hunts down the weak, who are caught in the schemes he devises.

Psa 10:3 He boasts of the cravings of his heart; he blesses the greedy and reviles the LORD.
Psa 10:4 In his pride the wicked does not seek him; in all his thoughts there is no room for God.
Psa 10:5 His ways are always prosperous; he is haughty and your laws are far from him; he sneers at all his enemies.
Psa 10:6 He says to himself, "Nothing will shake me; I'll always be happy and never have trouble."
Psa 10:7 His mouth is full of curses and lies and threats; trouble and evil are under his tongue.
Psa 10:8 He lies in wait near the villages; from ambush he murders the innocent, watching in secret for his victims.
Psa 10:9 He lies in wait like a lion in cover; he lies in wait to catch the helpless; he catches the helpless and drags them off in his net.
Psa 10:10 His victims are crushed, they collapse; they fall under his strength.
Psa 10:11 He says to himself, "God has forgotten; he covers his face and never sees."
Psa 10:12 Arise, LORD! Lift up your hand, O God. Do not forget the helpless.
Psa 10:13 Why does the wicked man revile God? Why does he say to himself, "He won't call me to account"?
Psa 10:14 But you, O God, do see trouble and grief; you consider it to take it in hand. The victim commits himself to you; you are the helper of the fatherless.
Psa 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked and evil man; call him to account for his wickedness that would not be found out.
Psa 10:16 The LORD is King for ever and ever; the nations will perish from his land.
Psa 10:17 You hear, O LORD, the desire of the afflicted; you encourage them, and you listen to their cry,
Psa 10:18 defending the fatherless and the oppressed, in order that man, who is of the earth, may terrify no more.
Psa 11:1 For the director of music. Of David. In the LORD I take refuge. How then can you say to me: "Flee like a bird to your mountain."
Psa 11:2 For look, the wicked bend their bows; they set their arrows against the strings to shoot from the shadows at the upright in heart.
Psa 11:3 When the foundations are being destroyed, what can the righteous do?"
Psa 11:4 The LORD is in his holy temple; the LORD is on his heavenly throne. He observes the sons of men; his eyes examine them.
Psa 11:5 The LORD examines the righteous, but the wicked and those who love violence his soul hates.
Psa 11:6 On the wicked he will rain fiery coals and burning sulfur; a scorching wind will be their lot.
Psa 11:7 For the LORD is righteous, he loves justice; upright men will see his face.
Psa 12:1 For the director of music. According to sheminith. A psalm of David. Help, LORD, for the godly are no more; the faithful have vanished from among men.
Psa 12:2 Everyone lies to his neighbor; their flattering lips speak with deception.
Psa 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips and every boastful tongue
Psa 12:4 that says, "We will triumph with our tongues; we own our lips--who is our master?"
Psa 12:5 "Because of the oppression of the weak and the groaning of the needy, I will now arise," says the LORD. "I will protect them from those who malign them."
Psa 12:6 And the words of the LORD are flawless, like silver refined in a furnace of clay, purified seven times.
Psa 12:7 O LORD, you will keep us safe and protect us from such people forever.
Psa 12:8 The wicked freely strut about when what is vile is honored among men.
Psa 13:1 For the director of music. A psalm of David. How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?
Psa 13:2 How long must I wrestle with my thoughts and every day have sorrow in my heart? How long will my enemy triumph over me?
Psa 13:3 Look on me and answer, O LORD my God. Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death;
Psa 13:4 my enemy will say, "I have overcome him," and my foes will rejoice when I fall.
Psa 13:5 But I trust in your unfailing love; my heart rejoices in your salvation.
Psa 13:6 I will sing to the LORD, for he has been good to me.
Psa 14:1 For the director of music. Of David. The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, their deeds are vile; there is no one who does good.
Psa 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the sons of men to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God.
Psa 14:3 All have turned aside, they have together become corrupt; there is no one who does good, not even one.
Psa 14:4 Will evildoers never learn-- those who devour my people as men eat bread and who do not call on the LORD?
Psa 14:5 There they are, overwhelmed with dread, for God is present in the company of the righteous.

Psa 14:6 You evildoers frustrate the plans of the poor, but the LORD is their refuge.

Psa 14:7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!

Psa 15:1 A psalm of David. LORD, who may dwell in your sanctuary? Who may live on your holy hill?

Psa 15:2 He whose walk is blameless and who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth from his heart

Psa 15:3 and has no slander on his tongue, who does his neighbor no wrong and casts no slur on his fellowman,

Psa 15:4 who despises a vile man but honors those who fear the LORD, who keeps his oath even when it hurts,

Psa 15:5 who lends his money without usury and does not accept a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things will never be shaken.

Psa 16:1 A miktam of David. Keep me safe, O God, for in you I take refuge.

Psa 16:2 I said to the LORD, "You are my Lord; apart from you I have no good thing."

Psa 16:3 As for the saints who are in the land, they are the glorious ones in whom is all my delight.

Psa 16:4 The sorrows of those will increase who run after other gods. I will not pour out their libations of blood or take up their names on my lips.

Psa 16:5 LORD, you have assigned me my portion and my cup; you have made my lot secure.

Psa 16:6 The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; surely I have a delightful inheritance.

Psa 16:7 I will praise the LORD, who counsels me; even at night my heart instructs me.

Psa 16:8 I have set the LORD always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

Psa 16:9 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest secure,

Psa 16:10 because you will not abandon me to the grave, nor will you let your Holy One see decay.

Psa 16:11 You have made known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

Psa 17:1 A prayer of David. Hear, O LORD, my righteous plea; listen to my cry. Give ear to my prayer-- it does not rise from deceitful lips.

Psa 17:2 May my vindication come from you; may your eyes see what is right.

Psa 17:3 Though you probe my heart and examine me at night, though you test me, you will find nothing; I have resolved that my mouth will not sin.

Psa 17:4 As for the deeds of men-- by the word of your lips I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.

Psa 17:5 My steps have held to your paths; my feet have not slipped.

Psa 17:6 I call on you, O God, for you will answer me; give ear to me and hear my prayer.

Psa 17:7 Show the wonder of your great love, you who save by your right hand those who take refuge in you from their foes.

Psa 17:8 Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings

Psa 17:9 from the wicked who assail me, from my mortal enemies who surround me.

Psa 17:10 They close up their callous hearts, and their mouths speak with arrogance.

Psa 17:11 They have tracked me down, they now surround me, with eyes alert, to throw me to the ground.

Psa 17:12 They are like a lion hungry for prey, like a great lion crouching in cover.

Psa 17:13 Rise up, O LORD, confront them, bring them down; rescue me from the wicked by your sword.

Psa 17:14 O LORD, by your hand save me from such men, from men of this world whose reward is in this life.

You still the hunger of those you cherish; their sons have plenty, and they store up wealth for their children.

Psa 17:15 And I-- in righteousness I will see your face; when I awake, I will be satisfied with seeing your likeness.

Psa 18:1 For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD. He sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said: I love you, O LORD, my strength.

Psa 18:2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge. He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

Psa 18:3 I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies.

Psa 18:4 The cords of death entangled me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.

Psa 18:5 The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me.

Psa 18:6 In my distress I called to the LORD; I cried to my God for help. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came before him, into his ears.

Psa 18:7 The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook; they trembled because he was angry.

Psa 18:8 Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from his mouth, burning coals blazed out of it.

Psa 18:9 He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under his feet.

Psa 18:10 He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared on the wings of the wind.

Psa 18:11 He made darkness his covering, his canopy around him-- the dark rain clouds of the sky.

Psa 18:12 Out of the brightness of his presence clouds advanced, with hailstones and bolts of lightning.

Psa 18:13 The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded.

Psa 18:14 He shot his arrows and scattered [the enemies], great bolts of lightning and routed them.

Psa 18:15 The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at your rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of breath from your nostrils.

Psa 18:16 He reached down from on high and took hold of me; he drew me out of deep waters.

Psa 18:17 He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.

Psa 18:18 They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support.

Psa 18:19 He brought me out into a spacious place; he rescued me because he delighted in me.

Psa 18:20 The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he has rewarded me.

Psa 18:21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I have not done evil by turning from my God.

Psa 18:22 All his laws are before me; I have not turned away from his decrees.

Psa 18:23 I have been blameless before him and have kept myself from sin.

Psa 18:24 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

Psa 18:25 To the faithful you show yourself faithful, to the blameless you show yourself blameless,

Psa 18:26 to the pure you show yourself pure, but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd.

Psa 18:27 You save the humble but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.

Psa 18:28 You, O LORD, keep my lamp burning; my God turns my darkness into light.

Psa 18:29 With your help I can advance against a troop; with my God I can scale a wall.

Psa 18:30 As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is flawless. He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

Psa 18:31 For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?

Psa 18:32 It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect.

Psa 18:33 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he enables me to stand on the heights.

Psa 18:34 He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

Psa 18:35 You give me your shield of victory, and your right hand sustains me; you stoop down to make me great.

Psa 18:36 You broaden the path beneath me, so that my ankles do not turn.

Psa 18:37 I pursued my enemies and overtook them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.

Psa 18:38 I crushed them so that they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.

Psa 18:39 You armed me with strength for battle; you made my adversaries bow at my feet.

Psa 18:40 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.

Psa 18:41 They cried for help, but there was no one to save them-- to the LORD, but he did not answer.

Psa 18:42 I beat them as fine as dust borne on the wind; I poured them out like mud in the streets.

Psa 18:43 You have delivered me from the attacks of the people; you have made me the head of nations; people I did not know are subject to me.

Psa 18:44 As soon as they hear me, they obey me; foreigners cringe before me.

Psa 18:45 They all lose heart; they come trembling from their strongholds.

Psa 18:46 The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock! Exalted be God my Savior!

Psa 18:47 He is the God who avenges me, who subdues nations under me,

Psa 18:48 who saves me from my enemies. You exalted me above my foes; from violent men you rescued me.

Psa 18:49 Therefore I will praise you among the nations, O LORD; I will sing praises to your name.

Psa 18:50 He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever.

Psa 19:1 For the director of music. A psalm of David. The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.

Psa 19:2 Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge.

Psa 19:3 There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard.

Psa 19:4 Their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world. In the heavens he has pitched a tent for the sun,

Psa 19:5 which is like a bridegroom coming forth from his pavilion, like a champion rejoicing to run his course.

Psa 19:6 It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is hidden from its heat.

Psa 19:7 The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul. The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.

Psa 19:8 The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.

Psa 19:9 The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever. The ordinances of the LORD are sure and altogether righteous.

Psa 19:10 They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold; they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the comb.

Psa 19:11 By them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

Psa 19:12 Who can discern his errors? Forgive my hidden faults.

Psa 19:13 Keep your servant also from willful sins; may they not rule over me. Then will I be blameless, innocent of great transgression.

Psa 19:14 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Psa 20:1 For the director of music. A psalm of David. May the LORD answer you when you are in distress; may the name of the God of Jacob protect you.

Psa 20:2 May he send you help from the sanctuary and grant you support from Zion.

Psa 20:3 May he remember all your sacrifices and accept your burnt offerings. Selah

Psa 20:4 May he give you the desire of your heart and make all your plans succeed.

Psa 20:5 We will shout for joy when you are victorious and will lift up our banners in the name of our God. May the LORD grant all your requests.

Psa 20:6 Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he answers him from his holy heaven with the saving power of his right hand.

Psa 20:7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

Psa 20:8 They are brought to their knees and fall, but we rise up and stand firm.

Psa 20:9 O LORD, save the king! Answer us when we call!

Psa 21:1 For the director of music. A psalm of David. O LORD, the king rejoices in your strength. How great is his joy in the victories you give!

Psa 21:2 You have granted him the desire of his heart and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah

Psa 21:3 You welcomed him with rich blessings and placed a crown of pure gold on his head.

Psa 21:4 He asked you for life, and you gave it to him-- length of days, for ever and ever.

Psa 21:5 Through the victories you gave, his glory is great; you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.

Psa 21:6 Surely you have granted him eternal blessings and made him glad with the joy of your presence.

Psa 21:7 For the king trusts in the LORD; through the unfailing love of the Most High he will not be shaken.

Psa 21:8 Your hand will lay hold on all your enemies; your right hand will seize your foes.

Psa 21:9 At the time of your appearing you will make them like a fiery furnace. In his wrath the LORD will swallow them up, and his fire will consume them.

Psa 21:10 You will destroy their descendants from the earth, their posterity from mankind.

Psa 21:11 Though they plot evil against you and devise wicked schemes, they cannot succeed;

Psa 21:12 for you will make them turn their backs when you aim at them with drawn bow.

Psa 21:13 Be exalted, O LORD, in your strength; we will sing and praise your might.

Psa 22:1 For the director of music. To [the tune of] "The Doe of the Morning." A psalm of David. My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from the words of my groaning?

Psa 22:2 O my God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, and am not silent.

Psa 22:3 Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the praise of Israel.

Psa 22:4 In you our fathers put their trust; they trusted and you delivered them.

Psa 22:5 They cried to you and were saved; in you they trusted and were not disappointed.

Psa 22:6 But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by men and despised by the people.

Psa 22:7 All who see me mock me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads:

Psa 22:8 "He trusts in the LORD; let the LORD rescue him. Let him deliver him, since he delights in him."

Psa 22:9 Yet you brought me out of the womb; you made me trust in you even at my mother's breast.

Psa 22:10 From birth I was cast upon you; from my mother's womb you have been my God.

Psa 22:11 Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.

Psa 22:12 Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan encircle me.

Psa 22:13 Roaring lions tearing their prey open their mouths wide against me.

Psa 22:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart has turned to wax; it has melted away within me.

Psa 22:15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; you lay me in the dust of death.

Psa 22:16 Dogs have surrounded me; a band of evil men has encircled me, they have pierced my hands and my feet.

Psa 22:17 I can count all my bones; people stare and gloat over me.

Psa 22:18 They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.

Psa 22:19 But you, O LORD, be not far off; O my Strength, come quickly to help me.

Psa 22:20 Deliver my life from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs.
Psa 22:21 Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save me from the horns of the wild oxen.
Psa 22:22 I will declare your name to my brothers; in the congregation I will praise you.
Psa 22:23 You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you descendants of Jacob, honor him! Revere him, all you descendants of Israel!
Psa 22:24 For he has not despised or disdained the suffering of the afflicted one; he has not hidden his face from him but has listened to his cry for help.
Psa 22:25 From you comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly; before those who fear you will I fulfill my vows.
Psa 22:26 The poor will eat and be satisfied; they who seek the LORD will praise him-- may your hearts live forever!
Psa 22:27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him,
Psa 22:28 for dominion belongs to the LORD and he rules over the nations.
Psa 22:29 All the rich of the earth will feast and worship; all who go down to the dust will kneel before him-- those who cannot keep themselves alive.
Psa 22:30 Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord.
Psa 22:31 They will proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn-- for he has done it.
Psa 23:1 A psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.
Psa 23:2 He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters,
Psa 23:3 he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Psa 23:4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
Psa 23:5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Psa 23:6 Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
Psa 24:1 Of David. A psalm. The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it;
Psa 24:2 for he founded it upon the seas and established it upon the waters.
Psa 24:3 Who may ascend the hill of the LORD? Who may stand in his holy place?
Psa 24:4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to an idol or swear by what is false.
Psa 24:5 He will receive blessing from the LORD and vindication from God his Savior.
Psa 24:6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek your face, O God of Jacob. Selah
Psa 24:7 Lift up your heads, O you gates; be lifted up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.
Psa 24:8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.
Psa 24:9 Lift up your heads, O you gates; lift them up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.
Psa 24:10 Who is he, this King of glory? The LORD Almighty-- he is the King of glory. Selah
Psa 25:1 Of David. To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul;
Psa 25:2 in you I trust, O my God. Do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.
Psa 25:3 No one whose hope is in you will ever be put to shame, but they will be put to shame who are treacherous without excuse.
Psa 25:4 Show me your ways, O LORD, teach me your paths;
Psa 25:5 guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long.
Psa 25:6 Remember, O LORD, your great mercy and love, for they are from of old.
Psa 25:7 Remember not the sins of my youth and my rebellious ways; according to your love remember me, for you are good, O LORD.
Psa 25:8 Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in his ways.
Psa 25:9 He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way.
Psa 25:10 All the ways of the LORD are loving and faithful for those who keep the demands of his covenant.
Psa 25:11 For the sake of your name, O LORD, forgive my iniquity, though it is great.
Psa 25:12 Who, then, is the man that fears the LORD? He will instruct him in the way chosen for him.
Psa 25:13 He will spend his days in prosperity, and his descendants will inherit the land.
Psa 25:14 The LORD confides in those who fear him; he makes his covenant known to them.
Psa 25:15 My eyes are ever on the LORD, for only he will release my feet from the snare.
Psa 25:16 Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.
Psa 25:17 The troubles of my heart have multiplied; free me from my anguish.
Psa 25:18 Look upon my affliction and my distress and take away all my sins.
Psa 25:19 See how my enemies have increased and how fiercely they hate me!

Psa 25:20 Guard my life and rescue me; let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.

Psa 25:21 May integrity and uprightness protect me, because my hope is in you.

Psa 25:22 Redeem Israel, O God, from all their troubles!

Psa 26:1 Of David. Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have led a blameless life; I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

Psa 26:2 Test me, O LORD, and try me, examine my heart and my mind;

Psa 26:3 for your love is ever before me, and I walk continually in your truth.

Psa 26:4 I do not sit with deceitful men, nor do I consort with hypocrites;

Psa 26:5 I abhor the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked.

Psa 26:6 I wash my hands in innocence, and go about your altar, O LORD,

Psa 26:7 proclaiming aloud your praise and telling of all your wonderful deeds.

Psa 26:8 I love the house where you live, O LORD, the place where your glory dwells.

Psa 26:9 Do not take away my soul along with sinners, my life with bloodthirsty men,

Psa 26:10 in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hands are full of bribes.

Psa 26:11 But I lead a blameless life; redeem me and be merciful to me.

Psa 26:12 My feet stand on level ground; in the great assembly I will praise the LORD.

Psa 27:1 Of David. The LORD is my light and my salvation-- whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life-- of whom shall I be afraid?

Psa 27:2 When evil men advance against me to devour my flesh, when my enemies and my foes attack me, they will stumble and fall.

Psa 27:3 Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear; though war break out against me, even then will I be confident.

Psa 27:4 One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.

Psa 27:5 For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling; he will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.

Psa 27:6 Then my head will be exalted above the enemies who surround me; at his tabernacle will I sacrifice with shouts of joy; I will sing and make music to the LORD.

Psa 27:7 Hear my voice when I call, O LORD; be merciful to me and answer me.

Psa 27:8 My heart says of you, "Seek his face!" Your face, LORD, I will seek.

Psa 27:9 Do not hide your face from me, do not turn your servant away in anger; you have been my helper. Do not reject me or forsake me, O God my Savior.

Psa 27:10 Though my father and mother forsake me, the LORD will receive me.

Psa 27:11 Teach me your way, O LORD; lead me in a straight path because of my oppressors.

Psa 27:12 Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes, for false witnesses rise up against me, breathing out violence.

Psa 27:13 I am still confident of this: I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Psa 27:14 Wait for the LORD; be strong and take heart and wait for the LORD.

Psa 28:1 Of David. To you I call, O LORD my Rock; do not turn a deaf ear to me. For if you remain silent, I will be like those who have gone down to the pit.

Psa 28:2 Hear my cry for mercy as I call to you for help, as I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.

Psa 28:3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, with those who do evil, who speak cordially with their neighbors but harbor malice in their hearts.

Psa 28:4 Repay them for their deeds and for their evil work; repay them for what their hands have done and bring back upon them what they deserve.

Psa 28:5 Since they show no regard for the works of the LORD and what his hands have done, he will tear them down and never build them up again.

Psa 28:6 Praise be to the LORD, for he has heard my cry for mercy.

Psa 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and I am helped. My heart leaps for joy and I will give thanks to him in song.

Psa 28:8 The LORD is the strength of his people, a fortress of salvation for his anointed one.

Psa 28:9 Save your people and bless your inheritance; be their shepherd and carry them forever.

Psa 29:1 A psalm of David. Ascribe to the LORD, O mighty ones, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

Psa 29:2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness.

Psa 29:3 The voice of the LORD is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD thunders over the mighty waters.

Psa 29:4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is majestic.

Psa 29:5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

Psa 29:6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, Sirion like a young wild ox.

Psa 29:7 The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning.

Psa 29:8 The voice of the LORD shakes the desert; the LORD shakes the Desert of Kadesh.

Psa 29:9 The voice of the LORD twists the oaks and strips the forests bare. And in his temple all cry, "Glory!"

Psa 29:10 The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD is enthroned as King forever.

Psa 29:11 The LORD gives strength to his people; the LORD blesses his people with peace.

Psa 30:1 A psalm. A song. For the dedication of the temple. Of David. I will exalt you, O LORD, for you lifted me out of the depths and did not let my enemies gloat over me.

Psa 30:2 O LORD my God, I called to you for help and you healed me.

Psa 30:3 O LORD, you brought me up from the grave; you spared me from going down into the pit.

Psa 30:4 Sing to the LORD, you saints of his; praise his holy name.

Psa 30:5 For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime; weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.

Psa 30:6 When I felt secure, I said, "I will never be shaken."

Psa 30:7 O LORD, when you favored me, you made my mountain stand firm; but when you hid your face, I was dismayed.

Psa 30:8 To you, O LORD, I called; to the Lord I cried for mercy:

Psa 30:9 "What gain is there in my destruction, in my going down into the pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it proclaim your faithfulness?

Psa 30:10 Hear, O LORD, and be merciful to me; O LORD, be my help."

Psa 30:11 You turned my wailing into dancing; you removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,

Psa 30:12 that my heart may sing to you and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give you thanks forever.

Psa 31:1 For the director of music. A psalm of David. In you, O LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame; deliver me in your righteousness.

Psa 31:2 Turn your ear to me, come quickly to my rescue; be my rock of refuge, a strong fortress to save me.

Psa 31:3 Since you are my rock and my fortress, for the sake of your name lead and guide me.

Psa 31:4 Free me from the trap that is set for me, for you are my refuge.

Psa 31:5 Into your hands I commit my spirit; redeem me, O LORD, the God of truth.

Psa 31:6 I hate those who cling to worthless idols; I trust in the LORD.

Psa 31:7 I will be glad and rejoice in your love, for you saw my affliction and knew the anguish of my soul.

Psa 31:8 You have not handed me over to the enemy but have set my feet in a spacious place.

Psa 31:9 Be merciful to me, O LORD, for I am in distress; my eyes grow weak with sorrow, my soul and my body with grief.

Psa 31:10 My life is consumed by anguish and my years by groaning; my strength fails because of my affliction, and my bones grow weak.

Psa 31:11 Because of all my enemies, I am the utter contempt of my neighbors; I am a dread to my friends--those who see me on the street flee from me.

Psa 31:12 I am forgotten by them as though I were dead; I have become like broken pottery.

Psa 31:13 For I hear the slander of many; there is terror on every side; they conspire against me and plot to take my life.

Psa 31:14 But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, "You are my God."

Psa 31:15 My times are in your hands; deliver me from my enemies and from those who pursue me.

Psa 31:16 Let your face shine on your servant; save me in your unfailing love.

Psa 31:17 Let me not be put to shame, O LORD, for I have cried out to you; but let the wicked be put to shame and lie silent in the grave.

Psa 31:18 Let their lying lips be silenced, for with pride and contempt they speak arrogantly against the righteous.

Psa 31:19 How great is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you, which you bestow in the sight of men on those who take refuge in you.

Psa 31:20 In the shelter of your presence you hide them from the intrigues of men; in your dwelling you keep them safe from accusing tongues.

Psa 31:21 Praise be to the LORD, for he showed his wonderful love to me when I was in a besieged city.

Psa 31:22 In my alarm I said, "I am cut off from your sight!" Yet you heard my cry for mercy when I called to you for help.

Psa 31:23 Love the LORD, all his saints! The LORD preserves the faithful, but the proud he pays back in full.

Psa 31:24 Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the LORD.

Psa 32:1 Of David. A maskil. Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

Psa 32:2 Blessed is the man whose sin the LORD does not count against him and in whose spirit is no deceit.

Psa 32:3 When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

Psa 32:4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer.

Selah

Psa 32:5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD"-- and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah

Psa 32:6 Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to you while you may be found; surely when the mighty waters rise, they will not reach him.

Psa 32:7 You are my hiding place; you will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance.

Selah

Psa 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you.

Psa 32:9 Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to you.

Psa 32:10 Many are the woes of the wicked, but the LORD's unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts in him.

Psa 32:11 Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you righteous; sing, all you who are upright in heart!

Psa 33:1 Sing joyfully to the LORD, you righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise him.

Psa 33:2 Praise the LORD with the harp; make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre.

Psa 33:3 Sing to him a new song; play skillfully, and shout for joy.

Psa 33:4 For the word of the LORD is right and true; he is faithful in all he does.

Psa 33:5 The LORD loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of his unfailing love.

Psa 33:6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, their starry host by the breath of his mouth.

Psa 33:7 He gathers the waters of the sea into jars; he puts the deep into storehouses.

Psa 33:8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the people of the world revere him.

Psa 33:9 For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.

Psa 33:10 The LORD foils the plans of the nations; he thwarts the purposes of the peoples.

Psa 33:11 But the plans of the LORD stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations.

Psa 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people he chose for his inheritance.

Psa 33:13 From heaven the LORD looks down and sees all mankind;

Psa 33:14 from his dwelling place he watches all who live on earth--

Psa 33:15 he who forms the hearts of all, who considers everything they do.

Psa 33:16 No king is saved by the size of his army; no warrior escapes by his great strength.

Psa 33:17 A horse is a vain hope for deliverance; despite all its great strength it cannot save.

Psa 33:18 But the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love,

Psa 33:19 to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.

Psa 33:20 We wait in hope for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

Psa 33:21 In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name.

Psa 33:22 May your unfailing love rest upon us, O LORD, even as we put our hope in you.

Psa 34:1 Of David. When he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he left. I will extol the LORD at all times; his praise will always be on my lips.

Psa 34:2 My soul will boast in the LORD; let the afflicted hear and rejoice.

Psa 34:3 Glorify the LORD with me; let us exalt his name together.

Psa 34:4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears.

Psa 34:5 Those who look to him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame.

Psa 34:6 This poor man called, and the LORD heard him; he saved him out of all his troubles.

Psa 34:7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers them.

Psa 34:8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

Psa 34:9 Fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing.

Psa 34:10 The lions may grow weak and hungry, but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.

Psa 34:11 Come, my children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

Psa 34:12 Whoever of you loves life and desires to see many good days,

Psa 34:13 keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking lies.

Psa 34:14 Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.

Psa 34:15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their cry;

Psa 34:16 the face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Psa 34:17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles.

Psa 34:18 The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Psa 34:19 A righteous man may have many troubles, but the LORD delivers him from them all;

Psa 34:20 he protects all his bones, not one of them will be broken.

Psa 34:21 Evil will slay the wicked; the foes of the righteous will be condemned.

Psa 34:22 The LORD redeems his servants; no one will be condemned who takes refuge in him.

Psa 35:1 Of David. Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me.

Psa 35:2 Take up shield and buckler; arise and come to my aid.
Psa 35:3 Brandish spear and javelin against those who pursue me. Say to my soul, "I am your salvation."
Psa 35:4 May those who seek my life be disgraced and put to shame; may those who plot my ruin be turned back in dismay.
Psa 35:5 May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away;
Psa 35:6 may their path be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
Psa 35:7 Since they hid their net for me without cause and without cause dug a pit for me,
Psa 35:8 may ruin overtake them by surprise-- may the net they hid entangle them, may they fall into the pit, to their ruin.
Psa 35:9 Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in his salvation.
Psa 35:10 My whole being will exclaim, "Who is like you, O LORD? You rescue the poor from those too strong for them, the poor and needy from those who rob them."
Psa 35:11 Ruthless witnesses come forward; they question me on things I know nothing about.
Psa 35:12 They repay me evil for good and leave my soul forlorn.
Psa 35:13 Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting. When my prayers returned to me unanswered,
Psa 35:14 I went about mourning as though for my friend or brother. I bowed my head in grief as though weeping for my mother.
Psa 35:15 But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee; attackers gathered against me when I was unaware. They slandered me without ceasing.
Psa 35:16 Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked; they gnashed their teeth at me.
Psa 35:17 O Lord, how long will you look on? Rescue my life from their ravages, my precious life from these lions.
Psa 35:18 I will give you thanks in the great assembly; among throngs of people I will praise you.
Psa 35:19 Let not those gloat over me who are my enemies without cause; let not those who hate me without reason maliciously wink the eye.
Psa 35:20 They do not speak peaceably, but devise false accusations against those who live quietly in the land.
Psa 35:21 They gape at me and say, "Aha! Aha! With our own eyes we have seen it."
Psa 35:22 O LORD, you have seen this; be not silent. Do not be far from me, O Lord.
Psa 35:23 Awake, and rise to my defense! Contend for me, my God and Lord.
Psa 35:24 Vindicate me in your righteousness, O LORD my God; do not let them gloat over me.
Psa 35:25 Do not let them think, "Aha, just what we wanted!" or say, "We have swallowed him up."
Psa 35:26 May all who gloat over my distress be put to shame and confusion; may all who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.
Psa 35:27 May those who delight in my vindication shout for joy and gladness; may they always say, "The LORD be exalted, who delights in the well-being of his servant."
Psa 35:28 My tongue will speak of your righteousness and of your praises all day long.
Psa 36:1 For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD. An oracle is within my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked: There is no fear of God before his eyes.
Psa 36:2 For in his own eyes he flatters himself too much to detect or hate his sin.
Psa 36:3 The words of his mouth are wicked and deceitful; he has ceased to be wise and to do good.
Psa 36:4 Even on his bed he plots evil; he commits himself to a sinful course and does not reject what is wrong.
Psa 36:5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness to the skies.
Psa 36:6 Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains, your justice like the great deep. O LORD, you preserve both man and beast.
Psa 36:7 How priceless is your unfailing love! Both high and low among men find refuge in the shadow of your wings.
Psa 36:8 They feast on the abundance of your house; you give them drink from your river of delights.
Psa 36:9 For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light.
Psa 36:10 Continue your love to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.
Psa 36:11 May the foot of the proud not come against me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
Psa 36:12 See how the evildoers lie fallen-- thrown down, not able to rise!
Psa 37:1 Of David. Do not fret because of evil men or be envious of those who do wrong;
Psa 37:2 for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away.
Psa 37:3 Trust in the LORD and do good; dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture.
Psa 37:4 Delight yourself in the LORD and he will give you the desires of your heart.
Psa 37:5 Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him and he will do this:
Psa 37:6 He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.
Psa 37:7 Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; do not fret when men succeed in their ways, when they carry out their wicked schemes.

Psa 37:8 Refrain from anger and turn from wrath; do not fret-- it leads only to evil.

Psa 37:9 For evil men will be cut off, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.

Psa 37:10 A little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look for them, they will not be found.

Psa 37:11 But the meek will inherit the land and enjoy great peace.

Psa 37:12 The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them;

Psa 37:13 but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he knows their day is coming.

Psa 37:14 The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.

Psa 37:15 But their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

Psa 37:16 Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked;

Psa 37:17 for the power of the wicked will be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.

Psa 37:18 The days of the blameless are known to the LORD, and their inheritance will endure forever.

Psa 37:19 In times of disaster they will not wither; in days of famine they will enjoy plenty.

Psa 37:20 But the wicked will perish: The LORD's enemies will be like the beauty of the fields, they will vanish--vanish like smoke.

Psa 37:21 The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously;

Psa 37:22 those the LORD blesses will inherit the land, but those he curses will be cut off.

Psa 37:23 If the LORD delights in a man's way, he makes his steps firm;

Psa 37:24 though he stumble, he will not fall, for the LORD upholds him with his hand.

Psa 37:25 I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.

Psa 37:26 They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be blessed.

Psa 37:27 Turn from evil and do good; then you will dwell in the land forever.

Psa 37:28 For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones. They will be protected forever, but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off;

Psa 37:29 the righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.

Psa 37:30 The mouth of the righteous man utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks what is just.

Psa 37:31 The law of his God is in his heart; his feet do not slip.

Psa 37:32 The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, seeking their very lives;

Psa 37:33 but the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

Psa 37:34 Wait for the LORD and keep his way. He will exalt you to inherit the land; when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

Psa 37:35 I have seen a wicked and ruthless man flourishing like a green tree in its native soil,

Psa 37:36 but he soon passed away and was no more; though I looked for him, he could not be found.

Psa 37:37 Consider the blameless, observe the upright; there is a future for the man of peace.

Psa 37:38 But all sinners will be destroyed; the future of the wicked will be cut off.

Psa 37:39 The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD; he is their stronghold in time of trouble.

Psa 37:40 The LORD helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him.

Psa 38:1 A psalm of David. A petition. O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

Psa 38:2 For your arrows have pierced me, and your hand has come down upon me.

Psa 38:3 Because of your wrath there is no health in my body; my bones have no soundness because of my sin.

Psa 38:4 My guilt has overwhelmed me like a burden too heavy to bear.

Psa 38:5 My wounds fester and are loathsome because of my sinful folly.

Psa 38:6 I am bowed down and brought very low; all day long I go about mourning.

Psa 38:7 My back is filled with searing pain; there is no health in my body.

Psa 38:8 I am feeble and utterly crushed; I groan in anguish of heart.

Psa 38:9 All my longings lie open before you, O Lord; my sighing is not hidden from you.

Psa 38:10 My heart pounds, my strength fails me; even the light has gone from my eyes.

Psa 38:11 My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds; my neighbors stay far away.

Psa 38:12 Those who seek my life set their traps, those who would harm me talk of my ruin; all day long they plot deception.

Psa 38:13 I am like a deaf man, who cannot hear, like a mute, who cannot open his mouth;

Psa 38:14 I have become like a man who does not hear, whose mouth can offer no reply.

Psa 38:15 I wait for you, O LORD; you will answer, O Lord my God.

Psa 38:16 For I said, "Do not let them gloat or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."

Psa 38:17 For I am about to fall, and my pain is ever with me.

Psa 38:18 I confess my iniquity; I am troubled by my sin.
Psa 38:19 Many are those who are my vigorous enemies; those who hate me without reason are numerous.
Psa 38:20 Those who repay my good with evil slander me when I pursue what is good.
Psa 38:21 O LORD, do not forsake me; be not far from me, O my God.
Psa 38:22 Come quickly to help me, O Lord my Savior.
Psa 39:1 For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David. I said, "I will watch my ways and keep my tongue from sin; I will put a muzzle on my mouth as long as the wicked are in my presence."
Psa 39:2 But when I was silent and still, not even saying anything good, my anguish increased.
Psa 39:3 My heart grew hot within me, and as I meditated, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:
Psa 39:4 "Show me, O LORD, my life's end and the number of my days; let me know how fleeting is my life.
Psa 39:5 You have made my days a mere handbreadth; the span of my years is as nothing before you. Each man's life is but a breath. Selah
Psa 39:6 Man is a mere phantom as he goes to and fro: He bustles about, but only in vain; he heaps up wealth, not knowing who will get it.
Psa 39:7 "But now, Lord, what do I look for? My hope is in you.
Psa 39:8 Save me from all my transgressions; do not make me the scorn of fools.
Psa 39:9 I was silent; I would not open my mouth, for you are the one who has done this.
Psa 39:10 Remove your scourge from me; I am overcome by the blow of your hand.
Psa 39:11 You rebuke and discipline men for their sin; you consume their wealth like a moth-- each man is but a breath. Selah Psa 39:12 "Hear my prayer, O LORD, listen to my cry for help; be not deaf to my weeping. For I dwell with you as an alien, a stranger, as all my fathers were.
Psa 39:13 Look away from me, that I may rejoice again before I depart and am no more."
Psa 40:1 For the director of music. Of David. A psalm. I waited patiently for the LORD; he turned to me and heard my cry.
Psa 40:2 He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand.
Psa 40:3 He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.
Psa 40:4 Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not look to the proud, to those who turn aside to false gods.
Psa 40:5 Many, O LORD my God, are the wonders you have done. The things you planned for us no one can recount to you; were I to speak and tell of them, they would be too many to declare.
Psa 40:6 Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but my ears you have pierced; burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not require.
Psa 40:7 Then I said, "Here I am, I have come-- it is written about me in the scroll.
Psa 40:8 I desire to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."
Psa 40:9 I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly; I do not seal my lips, as you know, O LORD.
Psa 40:10 I do not hide your righteousness in my heart; I speak of your faithfulness and salvation. I do not conceal your love and your truth from the great assembly.
Psa 40:11 Do not withhold your mercy from me, O LORD; may your love and your truth always protect me.
Psa 40:12 For troubles without number surround me; my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see. They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails within me.
Psa 40:13 Be pleased, O LORD, to save me; O LORD, come quickly to help me.
Psa 40:14 May all who seek to take my life be put to shame and confusion; may all who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.
Psa 40:15 May those who say to me, "Aha! Aha!" be appalled at their own shame.
Psa 40:16 But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your salvation always say, "The LORD be exalted!"
Psa 40:17 Yet I am poor and needy; may the Lord think of me. You are my help and my deliverer; O my God, do not delay.
Psa 41:1 For the director of music. A psalm of David. Blessed is he who has regard for the weak; the LORD delivers him in times of trouble.
Psa 41:2 The LORD will protect him and preserve his life; he will bless him in the land and not surrender him to the desire of his foes.
Psa 41:3 The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed and restore him from his bed of illness.
Psa 41:4 I said, "O LORD, have mercy on me; heal me, for I have sinned against you."
Psa 41:5 My enemies say of me in malice, "When will he die and his name perish?"
Psa 41:6 Whenever one comes to see me, he speaks falsely, while his heart gathers slander; then he goes out and spreads it abroad.

Psa 41:7 All my enemies whisper together against me; they imagine the worst for me, saying,

Psa 41:8 "A vile disease has beset him; he will never get up from the place where he lies."

Psa 41:9 Even my close friend, whom I trusted, he who shared my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.

Psa 41:10 But you, O LORD, have mercy on me; raise me up, that I may repay them.

Psa 41:11 I know that you are pleased with me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.

Psa 41:12 In my integrity you uphold me and set me in your presence forever.

Psa 41:13 Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

Psa 42:1 For the director of music. A maskil of the Sons of Korah. As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, O God.

Psa 42:2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When can I go and meet with God?

Psa 42:3 My tears have been my food day and night, while men say to me all day long, "Where is your God?"

Psa 42:4 These things I remember as I pour out my soul: how I used to go with the multitude, leading the procession to the house of God, with shouts of joy and thanksgiving among the festive throng.

Psa 42:5 Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Savior and Psa 42:6 my God. My soul is downcast within me; therefore I will remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon-- from Mount Mizar.

Psa 42:7 Deep calls to deep in the roar of your waterfalls; all your waves and breakers have swept over me.

Psa 42:8 By day the LORD directs his love, at night his song is with me-- a prayer to the God of my life.

Psa 42:9 I say to God my Rock, "Why have you forgotten me? Why must I go about mourning, oppressed by the enemy?"

Psa 42:10 My bones suffer mortal agony as my foes taunt me, saying to me all day long, "Where is your God?"

Psa 42:11 Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Savior and my God.

Psa 43:1 Vindicate me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; rescue me from deceitful and wicked men.

Psa 43:2 You are God my stronghold. Why have you rejected me? Why must I go about mourning, oppressed by the enemy?

Psa 43:3 Send forth your light and your truth, let them guide me; let them bring me to your holy mountain, to the place where you dwell.

Psa 43:4 Then will I go to the altar of God, to God, my joy and my delight. I will praise you with the harp, O God, my God.

Psa 43:5 Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Savior and my God.

Psa 44:1 For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil. We have heard with our ears, O God; our fathers have told us what you did in their days, in days long ago.

Psa 44:2 With your hand you drove out the nations and planted our fathers; you crushed the peoples and made our fathers flourish.

Psa 44:3 It was not by their sword that they won the land, nor did their arm bring them victory; it was your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, for you loved them.

Psa 44:4 You are my King and my God, who decrees victories for Jacob.

Psa 44:5 Through you we push back our enemies; through your name we trample our foes.

Psa 44:6 I do not trust in my bow, my sword does not bring me victory;

Psa 44:7 but you give us victory over our enemies, you put our adversaries to shame.

Psa 44:8 In God we make our boast all day long, and we will praise your name forever. Selah

Psa 44:9 But now you have rejected and humbled us; you no longer go out with our armies.

Psa 44:10 You made us retreat before the enemy, and our adversaries have plundered us.

Psa 44:11 You gave us up to be devoured like sheep and have scattered us among the nations.

Psa 44:12 You sold your people for a pittance, gaining nothing from their sale.

Psa 44:13 You have made us a reproach to our neighbors, the scorn and derision of those around us.

Psa 44:14 You have made us a byword among the nations; the peoples shake their heads at us.

Psa 44:15 My disgrace is before me all day long, and my face is covered with shame

Psa 44:16 at the taunts of those who reproach and revile me, because of the enemy, who is bent on revenge.

Psa 44:17 All this happened to us, though we had not forgotten you or been false to your covenant.

Psa 44:18 Our hearts had not turned back; our feet had not strayed from your path.

Psa 44:19 But you crushed us and made us a haunt for jackals and covered us over with deep darkness.

Psa 44:20 If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god,

Psa 44:21 would not God have discovered it, since he knows the secrets of the heart?

Psa 44:22 Yet for your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.

Psa 44:23 Awake, O Lord! Why do you sleep? Rouse yourself! Do not reject us forever.

Psa 44:24 Why do you hide your face and forget our misery and oppression?

Psa 44:25 We are brought down to the dust; our bodies cling to the ground.

Psa 44:26 Rise up and help us; redeem us because of your unfailing love.

Psa 45:1 For the director of music. To [the tune of] "Lilies." Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil. A wedding song. My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verses for the king; my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.

Psa 45:2 You are the most excellent of men and your lips have been anointed with grace, since God has blessed you forever.
