<sup>10</sup> As soon as he finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel finally came; Saul went out to meet and to welcome him.

<sup>11</sup> But Samuel said, “What have you done?” Saul said, “Since I saw that the people were scattering away from me, and that you did not come within the appointed time, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash, <sup>12</sup> therefore, I said, ‘Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not asked for the LORD’s favor [by making supplication to Him].’ So I forced myself to offer the burnt offering.”

<sup>13</sup> Samuel said to Saul, “You have acted foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, for [if you had obeyed] the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “But now your kingdom shall not endure. The LORD has sought out for Himself a man (David) after His own heart, and the LORD has appointed him as leader and ruler over His people, because you have not kept (obeyed) what the LORD commanded you.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul assembled and counted the people who were still with him, [only] about six hundred [fighting] men. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Saul and his son Jonathan and the people with them were staying in Geba of Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

<sup>17</sup> And the raiding party came from the Philistine camp in three companies: one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual,‡

<sup>20</sup> So all [the men of] Israel went down to the Philistines, each to get his plowshare, pick, axe, or sickle sharpened.

<sup>21</sup> The fee [for sharpening] was a pim (two-thirds of a shekel) for the plowshares, the picks, the pitchforks, and the axes, and to straighten the goads (cattle prods).

<sup>22</sup> So it came about on the day of battle that neither sword nor spear was found in the hands of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and Jonathan his son had them.‡

1 Samuel 14

Jonathan’s Victory

<sup>1</sup> ONE DAY Jonathan the son of Saul said to his young armor bearer, “Come, let us go over to the Philistine garrison on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.

<sup>2</sup> Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree in Migron; and with him were about six hundred men,‡

<sup>3</sup> and Ahijah the son of Ichabod’s brother Ahitub the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD’s priest at Shiloh, was wearing the ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.‡

<sup>4</sup> Between the passes by which Jonathan sought to cross over to get to the Philistine garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side and a rocky crag on the other side; one [crag] was named Bozez, and the other, Seneh.‡

<sup>6</sup> Jonathan said to his young armor bearer, “Come, let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised men; it may be that the LORD will work for us. For there is nothing to prevent the LORD from saving, whether by many or by few.”‡

<sup>7</sup> And his armor bearer said to him, “Do everything that is in your heart (mind); here I am with you in whatever you think [best].”

<sup>8</sup> Jonathan said, “See now, we are going to cross over to the [Philistine] men and reveal ourselves to them.

<sup>9</sup> “If they say to us, ‘Wait until we come to you,’ then we will stand in our place and not go up to them.

<sup>10</sup> “But if they say, ‘Come up to us,’ we will go up, for the LORD has handed them over to us; and this shall be the sign to us.”‡

<sup>11</sup> When both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, the Philistines said, “Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves.”

<sup>12</sup> So the men of the garrison responded to Jonathan and his armor bearer, “Come up to us and we will tell you something.” Jonathan said to his armor bearer, “Climb up after me, for the LORD has given them into the hands of Israel.”

<sup>14</sup> That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer made was about twenty men within about half a [plow] furrow in a plot of land [the area of which a yoke of oxen could plow in a day].

<sup>15</sup> And there was trembling in the [Philistine] camp, in the field, and among all the people; even the garrison and the raiding party trembled [in fear], and the earth quaked and it became a trembling and terror from God.‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Saul said to the people with him, “Take a count and see who has left us.” When they had taken a count, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were missing.

<sup>18</sup> Saul said to Ahijah [the priest], “Bring the ark of God here.” For at that time the ark of God was with the sons of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and went into the battle; and behold, every [Philistine] man's sword was against his companion, in wild confusion.‡

<sup>21</sup> Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines previously, who went up with them all around in the camp, they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

<sup>23</sup> So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle spread beyond Beth-aven.‡

Saul's Foolish Order

<sup>24</sup> But the men of Israel were hard-pressed that day, because Saul had put the people under a curse, saying, "Cursed be the man who eats food before evening, and before I have taken vengeance on my enemies." So none of the people ate any food.‡

<sup>25</sup> All the people of the land came to a forest, and there was honey on the ground.‡

<sup>26</sup> When the people entered the forest, the honey was dripping, but no man put his hand to his mouth [to taste it], because the people feared the oath [of Saul].

<sup>27</sup> But Jonathan had not heard when his father put the people under the oath. So he put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into a honeycomb, and then he put his hand to his mouth, and his energy was restored.

<sup>28</sup> But one of the people told him, "Your father strictly put the people under an oath, saying, 'Cursed be the man who eats food today.' " And the people were exhausted [and hungry].

<sup>29</sup> Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land [with his foolish curse]. See how my energy is restored because I tasted a little of this honey."

<sup>30</sup> How much better [it would have been] if only the people had eaten freely today from the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great."

<sup>31</sup> They struck the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. And the people were very tired.

<sup>32</sup> [When night came and the oath ended] the people rushed greedily upon the spoil. They took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and they ate them [raw] with the blood [still in them]. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then Saul was told, “Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating [the meat] with the blood.” And he said, “You have violated [the Law] and acted treacherously; roll a large stone to me today.”  [Lev 7:26, 27. ]

<sup>34</sup> Saul said, “Spread out among the people and tell them, ‘Each one of you bring me his ox or his sheep, and butcher it [properly] here and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating [the meat with] the blood.’ ” So that night each one brought his ox with him and butchered it there.

<sup>35</sup> And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Then Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them [alive].” They said, “Do whatever seems good to you.” Then the priest said, “Let us approach God here.”

<sup>37</sup> Saul asked [counsel] of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You hand them over to Israel?” But He did not answer him that day. ‡

<sup>38</sup> Then Saul said, “Come here, all you who are leaders of the people, and let us find out how this sin [causing God’s silence] happened today. ‡

<sup>39</sup> “For as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, for even if the guilt is in my son Jonathan, he shall most certainly die.” But not one of all the people answered him. ‡

<sup>40</sup> Then he said to all the Israelites, “You shall be on one side; I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side.” The people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

<sup>41</sup> Therefore, Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, “Give a perfect lot [identifying the transgressor].” Then Saul and Jonathan were selected [by lot], but the other men went free. ‡

<sup>42</sup> Saul said, “Cast [lots] between me and my son Jonathan.” And Jonathan was selected.

<sup>43</sup> Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” So Jonathan told him, “I tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am, I must die!” ‡

<sup>44</sup> Saul answered, “May God do so [to me], and more also [if I do not keep my word], for you shall most certainly die, Jonathan.” ‡

<sup>45</sup> But the people said to Saul, “Must Jonathan, who has brought about this great victory in Israel, be put to death? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan and he was not put to death. ‡

Constant Warfare

<sup>47</sup> When Saul assumed control of the kingdom of Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side: Moab, the sons (descendants) of Ammon, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment. ‡

<sup>48</sup> He acted valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, and rescued Israel from the hands of those who had plundered them. ‡

<sup>49</sup> Now Saul’s sons were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchi-shua. The names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn was Merab, and the name of the younger, Michal. ‡

<sup>50</sup> The name of Saul’s wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. The commander of his army was named Abner, the son of Ner, Saul’s uncle.

<sup>51</sup> Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel. ‡

<sup>52</sup> Now the war against the Philistines was severe (brutal, relentless) all the days of Saul; and whenever Saul saw any mighty or courageous man, he recruited him for his staff. ‡

1 Samuel 15

Saul’s Disobedience

<sup>1</sup> SAMUEL SAID to Saul, “The Lord sent me to anoint you king over His people Israel. Now listen and pay close attention to the words of the Lord. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Thus says the LORD of hosts (armies), ‘I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way when Israel came up from Egypt.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> ‘Now go and strike Amalek and completely destroy everything that they have; do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’ ” ‡

<sup>4</sup> So Saul summoned the people and numbered them at Telaim—200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men of Judah.

<sup>5</sup> Saul came to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the valley.

<sup>6</sup>-Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, leave, go down from the Amalekites, so that I do not destroy you along with them; for you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they went up from Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. ‡

<sup>8</sup> He captured Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, though he totally destroyed all [the rest of] the people with the sword. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and everything that was good, and they were not willing to destroy them entirely; but everything that was undesirable or worthless they destroyed completely. ‡

Samuel Rebukes Saul

<sup>10</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying,

<sup>11</sup> “I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned away from following Me and has not carried out My commands.” Samuel was angry [over Saul’s failure] and he cried out to the LORD all night. ‡

<sup>12</sup> When Samuel got up early in the morning to meet Saul, he was told, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up for himself a monument [commemorating his victory], then he turned and went on and went down to Gilgal.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, “Blessed are you of the LORD. I have carried out the command of the LORD.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?”

<sup>15</sup> Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites, for the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen to sacrifice to the LORD your God; but the rest we have destroyed completely.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, “Stop, and let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night.” Saul said to him, “Speak.”

<sup>17</sup> Samuel said, “Is it not true that even though you were small (insignificant) in your own eyes, you were made the head of the tribes of Israel? And the LORD anointed you king over Israel, ‡

<sup>18</sup> and the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, ‘Go, totally destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are eliminated.’

<sup>19</sup> “Why did you not obey the voice of the LORD, but [instead] swooped down on the plunder [with shouts of victory] and did evil in the sight of the LORD?”

<sup>20</sup> Saul said to Samuel, “I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and have brought back Agag the king of Amalek, and have completely destroyed the Amalekites.”‡

“Has the LORD as great a delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices

As in obedience to the voice of the LORD?

Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,

And to heed [is better] than the fat of rams.

And disobedience is as [serious as] false religion and idolatry.

Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,

He also has rejected you as king.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned; for I have transgressed the command of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.”‡

<sup>25</sup> “Now, please, pardon my sin and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD.”

<sup>26</sup> But Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”‡

<sup>27</sup> As Samuel turned to go [away], Saul grabbed the hem of his robe [to stop him], and it tore.‡

<sup>28</sup> So Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbor, who is better than you.”‡

<sup>29</sup> “Also the Splendor and Glory and Eminence of Israel will not lie or change His mind; for He is not a man that He should change His mind.”‡

<sup>30</sup> Saul said, “I have sinned; but please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and go back with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said, “Bring me Agag, the king of the Amalekites.” And Agag came to him cheerfully. And Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death has come to an end.”

<sup>33</sup> Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel cut Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Then Samuel went to Ramah, but Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, for Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel. ‡

Samuel Goes to Bethlehem

<sup>1</sup> THE LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve for Saul, when I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have chosen a king for Myself among his sons.” ‡ David's Family Tree

<sup>2</sup> But Samuel said, “How can I go? When Saul hears about it, he will kill me.” And the LORD said, “Take a heifer from the herd with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the Lord.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> “You shall invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do [after that]; and you shall anoint for Me the one whom I designate.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> So Samuel did what the LORD said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him and said, “Do you come in peace?” ‡

<sup>5</sup> And he said, “In peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then Jesse called Abinadab and had him pass before Samuel. But Samuel said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Next Jesse had Shammah pass by. And Samuel said, “The LORD has not chosen him either.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Jesse had seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen [any of] these.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all your sons here?” Jesse replied, “There is still one left, the youngest; he is tending the sheep.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Send word and bring him; because we will not sit down [to eat the sacrificial meal] until he comes here.” ‡

David Anointed

<sup>12</sup> So Jesse sent word and brought him in. Now he had a ruddy complexion, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. The LORD said [to Samuel], “Arise, anoint him; for this is he.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord tormented and terrified him. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Saul’s servants said to him, “Behold, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you.

<sup>16</sup> “Let our lord now command your servants who are here before you to find a man who plays skillfully on the harp; and when the evil spirit from God is on you, he shall play the harp with his hand, and you will be well.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> So Saul told his servants, “Find me a man who plays well and bring him to me.”

<sup>19</sup> So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me David your son, who is with the flock.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, “Please let David be my attendant, for he has found favor in my sight.”

<sup>23</sup> So it came about that whenever the [evil] spirit from God was on Saul, David took a harp and played it with his hand; so Saul would be refreshed and be well, and the evil spirit would leave him. ‡

1 Samuel 17

Goliath's Challenge

<sup>2</sup> Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together and they camped in the Valley of Elah, and assembled in battle formation to meet the Philistines.

<sup>3</sup> The Philistines were standing on the mountain on one side and Israel was standing on the mountain on the other side, with the valley between them.

<sup>4</sup> Then a champion came out from the camp of the Philistines named Goliath of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. ‡

<sup>5</sup> He had a bronze helmet on his head, and wore a coat of scale-armor (overlapping metal plates) which weighed 5,000 shekels of bronze.

<sup>8</sup> Goliath stood and shouted to the battle lines of Israel, saying to them, “Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not the Philistine and are you not servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and have him come down to me. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will become your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall become our servants and serve us.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Again the Philistine said, “I defy the battle lines of Israel this day; give me a man so that we may fight together.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

<sup>13</sup> His three older sons had followed Saul into battle. The names of his three sons who went to battle were Eliab, the firstborn; next, Abinadab; and third, Shammah. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesse said to David his son, “Take for your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread and run quickly to the camp to your brothers.

<sup>18</sup> “Also take these ten cuts of cheese to the commander of the unit. See how your brothers are doing and bring back news of them. ‡

David Accepts the Challenge

<sup>20</sup> So David got up early in the morning, left the flock with a keeper, picked up the provisions and went just as Jesse had directed him. And he came to the encampment as the army was going out in battle formation shouting the battle cry.

<sup>21</sup> Israel and the Philistines drew up in battle formation, army against army.

<sup>24</sup> When the men of Israel all saw the man, they fled from him, and were very frightened.

<sup>25</sup> The men of Israel said, “Have you seen this man who is coming up? Surely he is coming up to defy Israel. The king will reward the man who kills him with great riches, and will give him his daughter [in marriage] and make his father’s house (family) free [from taxes and service] in Israel.” ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then David spoke to the men who were standing by him, “What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes the disgrace [of his taunting] from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he has taunted and defied the armies of the living God?” ‡

<sup>27</sup> The men told him, “That is what will be done for the man who kills him.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> Now Eliab his oldest brother heard what he said to the men; and Eliab’s anger burned against David and he said, “Why have you come down here? With whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption (overconfidence) and the evil of your heart; for you have come down in order to see the battle.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> But David said, “What have I done now? Was it not just a [harmless] question?” ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then David turned away from Eliab to someone else and asked the same question; and the people gave him the same answer as the first time. ‡

David Kills Goliath

<sup>31</sup> When the words that David spoke were heard, the men reported them to Saul, and he sent for him.

<sup>32</sup> David said to Saul, “Let no man’s courage fail because of him (Goliath). Your servant will go out and fight with this Philistine.” ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight him. For you are [only] a young man and he has been a warrior since his youth.” ‡

<sup>34</sup> But David said to Saul, “Your servant was tending his father’s sheep. When a lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock, <sup>35</sup> I went out after it and attacked it and rescued the lamb from its mouth; and when it rose up against me, I seized it by its whiskers and struck and killed it.

<sup>36</sup> “Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, since he has taunted and defied the armies of the living God.”

<sup>37</sup> David said, “The LORD who rescued me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine.” And Saul said to David, “Go, and may the LORD be with you.” ‡

<sup>38</sup> Then Saul dressed David in his garments and put a bronze helmet on his head, and put a coat of mail (armor) on him.

<sup>39</sup> Then David fastened his sword over his armor and tried to walk, [but he could not,] because he was not used to them. And David said to Saul, “I cannot go with these, because I am not used to them.” So David took them off.

<sup>43</sup> The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with [shepherd’s] staffs?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ‡

<sup>44</sup> The Philistine also said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the beasts of the field.” ‡

<sup>45</sup> Then David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have taunted. ‡

<sup>46</sup> “This day the LORD will hand you over to me, and I will strike you down and cut off your head. And I will give the corpses of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, ‡

<sup>47</sup> and that this entire assembly may know that the LORD does not save with the sword or with the spear; for the battle is the LORD’s and He will hand you over to us.” ‡

<sup>50</sup> So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and he struck down the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David's hand. ‡

<sup>51</sup> So he ran and stood over the Philistine, grasped his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their [mighty] champion was dead, they fled. ‡

<sup>54</sup> Then David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his weapons in his tent.

<sup>58</sup> Saul asked him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem." ‡

1 Samuel 18

Jonathan and David

<sup>1</sup> WHEN DAVID had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bonded to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as himself. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and he acted wisely and prospered; and Saul appointed him over the men of war. And it pleased all the people and also Saul's servants.

<sup>6</sup> As they were coming [home], when David returned from killing the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul with tambourines, [songs of] joy, and musical instruments.

<sup>8</sup> Then Saul became very angry, for this saying displeased him; and he said, “They have ascribed to David ten thousands, but to me they have ascribed [only] thousands. Now what more can he have but the kingdom?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Saul looked at David with suspicion [and jealously] from that day forward.

Saul Turns against David

<sup>10</sup> Now it came about on the next day that an evil spirit from God came forcefully on Saul, and he raved [madly] inside his house, while David was playing the harp with his hand, as usual; and there was a spear in Saul’s hand. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Saul said to David, “Behold I will give you my older daughter Merab as a wife; only be brave for me and fight the LORD’s battles.” For Saul thought, “My hand shall not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> David said to Saul, “Who am I, and what is my life or my father’s family in Israel, that I should be the king’s son-in-law?” ‡

David, she was [instead] given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife. ‡

David Marries Saul's Daughter

<sup>21</sup> Saul said, "I will give her to him so that she may become a snare (bad influence, source of trouble) to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." So Saul said to David for a second time, "You shall be my son-in-law today." ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David secretly, saying, 'Listen, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you; now then, become the king's son-in-law.' "

<sup>23</sup> So Saul's servants spoke these words to David. But David said, "Is it a trivial thing in your sight to become a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and insignificant?"

<sup>25</sup> Then Saul said, "This is what you shall say to David: 'The king wants no dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king's enemies.' " Now Saul's intention was to cause David's death at the hand of the Philistines. ‡

<sup>26</sup> When his servants told David these words, it pleased him to become the king's son-in-law. Before the time [for the marriage] arrived, ‡

<sup>27</sup> David arose and went, he and his men, and killed two hundred Philistine men, and David brought their foreskins [as proof of death] and presented every one of them to the king, so that he might become the king's son-in-law. So Saul gave him Michal, his [younger] daughter, as a wife. ‡

<sup>28</sup> When Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, his daughter, loved him,

<sup>30</sup> Then the Philistine commanders (princes) came out to battle, and it happened as often as they did, that David acted more wisely and had more success than all Saul's servants. So his name was highly esteemed. ‡

David Protected from Saul

<sup>1</sup> NOW SAUL told his son Jonathan and all his servants to kill David, but Jonathan, Saul's son, greatly delighted in David.

<sup>2</sup> So he told David, "Saul my father is seeking to kill you. Now then, please be on guard in the morning, and stay in a secret place and hide yourself." ‡

<sup>3</sup> "As for me, I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you, and if I learn anything, then I will tell you."

<sup>4</sup> Then Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father and said to him, "May the king not sin against his servant David, since he has not sinned against you, and since his deeds have been very beneficial to you." ‡

<sup>5</sup> "For he took his life in his hand and killed the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great victory for all Israel; you saw it and rejoiced. Why then would you sin against innocent blood by killing David without a cause?" ‡

<sup>6</sup> Saul listened to Jonathan and swore [an oath], "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."

<sup>7</sup> So Jonathan called David and told him all these things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence [serving him] as previously. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then there was war again, and David went out and fought with the Philistines and defeated them with a great slaughter, and they fled before him.

<sup>10</sup> Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he escaped from Saul's presence, so that Saul only stuck the spear into the wall. Then David fled and escaped that night.

<sup>11</sup> Then Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch for him, so that he might kill him in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, told him, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." ‡

<sup>13</sup> And Michal took the household idol and laid it on the bed, put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with clothes.

<sup>15</sup> Then Saul sent the messengers [again] to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me on his bed [if necessary], so that I may kill him."

<sup>16</sup> When the messengers came in, there was the household idol on the bed with a quilt of goats' hair at its head.

<sup>17</sup> Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?' " ‡

<sup>18</sup> So David fled and escaped and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him everything that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul sent messengers to take David; but when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing and presiding over them, the Spirit of God came on the messengers of Saul; and they also prophesied. ‡

<sup>21</sup> When Saul was informed, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again, the third time, and they prophesied as well.

<sup>22</sup> Then Saul went to Ramah himself and came to the great well that is in Secu; and he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" And he was told, "They are at Naioth [with the prophets] in Ramah."

<sup>23</sup> So he went on to Naioth in Ramah; and the Spirit of God came upon him too, and he went along continually prophesying until he came to Naioth in Ramah. ‡

<sup>24</sup> He also took off his [royal] robes [and armor] and prophesied before Samuel and lay down naked all that day and night. So they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"  [1 Sam 10:10] ‡

1 Samuel 20

David and Jonathan's Covenant

<sup>1</sup> DAVID FLED from Naioth in Ramah and he came and said to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my guilt? What is my sin before (against) your father, that he is seeking my life?"

<sup>2</sup> Jonathan said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. My father does nothing important or insignificant without telling me. So why would he hide this thing from me? It is not so!"

<sup>3</sup> But David vowed again, saying "Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your sight, and he has said, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, or he will be worried.’ But truly as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is hardly a step between me and death.”

<sup>4</sup> Then Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you say, I will do for you.”

<sup>5</sup> David said to Jonathan, “Behold, tomorrow is the New Moon [observance], and I should sit at the table to eat [the sacrificial meal] with the king; but let me go, so that I may hide myself in the field until the third evening.”‡

<sup>6</sup> “If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked permission from me to go to Bethlehem, his city, because it is the yearly sacrifice there for the entire family.’‡

<sup>7</sup> “If he says, ‘All right,’ your servant will be safe; but if he is very angry, then be certain that he has decided on evil.‡

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore show kindness to your servant, because you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if there is iniquity (guilt) in me, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father [to be killed]? ”‡

<sup>9</sup> Jonathan said, “Far be it from [happening to] you! In fact, if I indeed learn that my father has decided to harm you, would I not tell you about it?”

<sup>10</sup> Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?”

<sup>11</sup> Jonathan said to David, “Come, let us go out into the field [to talk].” So they went out to the field.

<sup>12</sup> Then Jonathan said to David, “The LORD, the God of Israel, is my witness! When I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if he has a good feeling toward you, shall I not then send word to you and make it known to you?

<sup>13</sup> “But if it pleases my father to do you harm, may the LORD do so to Jonathan, and more if I do not let you know about it and send you away, so that you may go in safety. And may the LORD be with you as He has been with my father.‡

<sup>14</sup> “If I am still alive, will you not show me the lovingkindness and faithfulness of the LORD, so that I will not die?

<sup>17</sup> Jonathan made David vow again because of his love for him, for Jonathan loved him as himself. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Jonathan said to David, “Tomorrow is the New Moon [festival], and you will be missed because your seat will be empty. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “When you have stayed for three days, you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself on that eventful day [when my father tried to kill you], and shall stay by the stone Ezel. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I shot at a target.

<sup>21</sup> “And I will send a boy, saying, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I specifically say to the boy, ‘Look, the arrows are on this side of you, get them,’ then come [back to my father’s table]; for it is safe for you and there is no danger, as the LORD lives. ‡

<sup>22</sup> “But if I say to the boy, ‘Look, the arrows are beyond you,’ then go, for the LORD has sent you away.

<sup>23</sup> “As for the agreement of which you and I have spoken, behold, the LORD is between you and me forever [making sure that we each keep our word].” ‡

<sup>24</sup> So David hid in the field; and when the New Moon [festival] came, the king sat down to eat food.

<sup>26</sup> Yet Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, “It is an incident [of some kind] and he is not [ceremonially] clean—surely he is unclean.” ‡

<sup>27</sup> But on the next day, the second day of the new moon, David’s place was empty [again]; and Saul said to Jonathan his son, “Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?”

<sup>29</sup> He said, ‘Please let me go because our family is holding a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to attend. Now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me slip away so that I may see my brothers.’ That is why he has not come to the king’s table.”

Saul Is Angry with Jonathan

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul’s anger burned against Jonathan and he said to him, “You son of a wayward, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse [over me] to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?

<sup>31</sup>“For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you [as heir to the throne] nor your kingdom will be established. So now, send [someone] and bring him to me, for he must die.”

<sup>32</sup> Jonathan answered Saul his father, “Why must he be put to death? What has he done?” ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then Saul hurled his spear at him to strike him down, so Jonathan knew [without any doubt] that his father had decided to put David to death. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Then Jonathan stood up from the table in the heat of anger, and ate no food on that second day of the new moon (month), for he grieved and worried about David because his father had dishonored him.

<sup>35</sup> In the morning Jonathan went out to the field for the meeting with David, and a young boy was with him.

<sup>36</sup> And he said to his boy, “Run, please find the arrows which I am about to shoot.” As the boy ran, he shot an arrow past him.

<sup>37</sup> When the boy came to the place where Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan called to him, “Is the arrow not beyond you?”

<sup>39</sup> But the boy was not aware of anything; only Jonathan and David knew about the matter.

<sup>40</sup> Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy and said to him, “Go, take them to the city.”

<sup>41</sup> As soon as the boy was gone, David got up from the south side [beside the mound of stones] and fell on his face to the ground [in submission and respect], and bowed three times. Then they kissed one another and wept together, but David wept more.

<sup>42</sup> Jonathan told David, “Go in safety, inasmuch as we have sworn to each other in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD shall be between me and you, and between my descendants and yours forever.’ ” Then he stood and left, while Jonathan went into the city. ‡

David Takes Consecrated Bread

<sup>1</sup> THEN DAVID went to Nob to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech came trembling [in fear] to meet David and said to him, “Why are you alone, and no one with you?” ‡

<sup>2</sup> David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has commissioned me with a matter and has told me, ‘Let no one know anything about the matter for which I am sending you and with which I have commissioned you. I have directed the young men to a certain place.’”

<sup>3</sup> “Now what [food] do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found.”

<sup>4</sup> The priest answered David, “There is no ordinary (unconsecrated) bread on hand, but there is consecrated bread; [you may have it] if only the young men have kept themselves from women.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> David answered the priest, “Be assured that women have been kept from us in these three days since I set out, and the bodies of the young men were consecrated (ceremonially clean), although it was an ordinary (unconsecrated) journey; so how much more will their vessels be holy today?” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So the priest gave him the consecrated bread; for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence which was removed from before the LORD in order to put hot bread in its place when it was taken away. ‡

<sup>8</sup> David said to Ahimelech, “Do you not have a sword or spear here on hand? For I brought neither my sword nor my [other] weapons with me, because the king’s business was urgent.”

<sup>9</sup> Then the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you would take it for yourself, do so. For there is no other here except for it.” And David said, “There is none like that; give it to me.” ‡

‘Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?’”

<sup>12</sup> David took these words to heart and was greatly afraid of Achish king of

<sup>14</sup> Then Achish said to his servants, “Look, you see that the man is insane. Why have you brought him to me?”

<sup>15</sup> “Do I lack madmen, that you bring this one to behave like a madman in my presence? Shall this one come into my house?”

1 Samuel 22

The Priests Slain at Nob

<sup>1</sup> SO DAVID departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father’s house heard about it, they went down there to him. ‡

<sup>2</sup>-Everyone who was suffering hardship, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him; and he became captain over them. There were about four hundred men with him. ‡

<sup>3</sup> And David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, “Please let my father and my mother come [out of Judah] and stay with you until I know what God will do for me.”

<sup>4</sup> Then he left them with the king of Moab; and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

<sup>6</sup> But Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered. Now Saul was in Gibeah, sitting under the tamarisk tree on the high place with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.

<sup>7</sup> Saul said to his servants who were standing around him, “Listen now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse also give every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all commanders of thousands and hundreds? ‡

<sup>8</sup> “For all of you have conspired against me so that no one informs me when my son [Jonathan] makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you cares about me or informs me that my son has stirred up my servant against me to lie in ambush, as he does this day?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing with Saul’s servants, replied, “I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech [the priest] the son of Ahitub.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Ahimelech inquired of the LORD for him, and gave him provisions and the sword of Goliath the Philistine.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then the king sent someone to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father’s household, the priests who were at Nob; and all of them came to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Then Saul said, “Listen now, son of Ahitub.” He replied, “Here I am [at your service], my lord.”

<sup>13</sup> Saul said to him, “Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me, in that you have given him bread and a sword and have inquired of God for him, so he would rebel against me by lying in ambush, as he does this day?”

<sup>14</sup> Then Ahimelech answered the king, “And who among all your servants is as faithful and trustworthy as David, who is the king’s son-in-law, and who is captain over your guard [and your confidant], and is honored in your house?

<sup>15</sup> “Did I just begin to inquire of God for him today? Far be it from me! Do not let the king impute any guilt to his servant or to any of the household of my father, for your servant knows nothing at all about this entire matter.”

<sup>16</sup> But Saul said, “Be assured that you shall die, Ahimelech, you and all your father’s household (extended family).”

<sup>17</sup> And the king said to the guards who stood around him, “Turn around and kill the priests of the LORD, because their loyalty also is with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not inform me.” But the servants of the king were not willing to put out their hands to attack the LORD’s priests. ‡

<sup>18</sup> So the king said to Doeg, “You turn around and attack the priests.” And Doeg the Edomite turned and attacked the priests, and that day he killed eighty-five men who wore the [priest’s] linen ephod. ‡

<sup>19</sup> And he struck Nob the city of the priests with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and infants; also he struck oxen and donkeys and sheep with the edge of the sword. ‡

22 Then David said to Abiathar, “I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would certainly tell Saul. I have brought about the death of everyone in your father’s household (extended family).

23 “Stay with me; do not be afraid, for he who seeks my life seeks your life, but you are safe with me.” ‡

1 Samuel 23

David Rescues Keilah

1 THEN THEY told David, saying, “Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are plundering (robbing) the threshing floors [of the grain].” ‡ The Events of David's Wanderings

2 So David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” And the Lord said to David, “Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah.” ‡

3 But David’s men said to him, “Listen, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the battle lines of the Philistines?”

4 Then David inquired of the LORD again. And the LORD answered him, “Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will hand over the Philistines to you.”

5 So David and his men went to Keilah and fought the Philistines; he drove away their cattle and struck them with a great slaughter. So David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand. ‡

7 Now when Saul was informed that David had come to Keilah, Saul said, “God has handed him over to me, for he shut himself in by entering a city that has double gates and bars.”

8 So Saul summoned all the people (soldiers) for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

9 But David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.” ‡

10 Then David said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, Your servant has heard for certain that Saul intends to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account. ‡

11 “Will the men of Keilah hand me over to him? Will Saul come down just as Your servant has heard? O LORD, God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant.”

And the LORD said, “He will come down.”

<sup>12</sup> Then David asked, “Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men to Saul?” The LORD said, “They will surrender you.”

Saul Pursues David

<sup>15</sup> Now David became aware that Saul had come out to seek his life. David was in the Wilderness of Ziph [in the woods] at Horesh.

<sup>16</sup> And Jonathan, Saul’s son, arose and went [into the woods] to David at Horesh, and encouraged him in God.

<sup>17</sup> He said to him, “Do not be afraid; the hand of my father Saul will not find you. You will be king over Israel and I will be second in command to you; my father Saul knows this too.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Now then, O king, come down [to Ziph] in accordance with all your heart’s desire to do so [and capture him]; and our part shall be to hand him over to the king.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> Saul said, “May you be blessed by the LORD, because you have had compassion on me.

<sup>22</sup> “Go now, be very persistent and investigate, and see where his haunt is and who has seen him there; for I am told he is very cunning.

<sup>23</sup> “So look, and take note of all the places where he hides and come back to me with the established facts, then I will go with you. If he is [anywhere] in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Saul and his men went to search for him. When David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed [there] in the Wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard it, he pursued David in the Wilderness of Maon.

<sup>27</sup> But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come, because the Philistines have attacked the land.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> So Saul returned from pursuing David and went to meet the Philistines; therefore they called that place the Rock of Escape.

<sup>29</sup> David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds of Engedi. ‡

1 Samuel 24

David Spares Saul's Life

<sup>3</sup> On the way he came to the sheepfolds where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the cave's innermost recesses. ‡

<sup>4</sup> David's men said to him, “Behold, this is the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Behold, I will hand over your enemy to you, and you shall do to him as seems good to you.’ ” Then David arose [in the darkness] and stealthily cut off the hem (edge) of Saul's robe. ‡

<sup>6</sup> He said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the LORD's anointed, to put out my hand against him, since he is the anointed of the LORD.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then David also got up afterward and went out of the cave and called after Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and lay himself face down.

<sup>9</sup> David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of men who say,

‘David seeks to harm you?’ ‡

10 “Behold, your eyes have seen today how the LORD had given you into my hand in the cave. Some told me to kill you, but I spared you; I said, ‘I will not reach out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD’s anointed.’

11 “Look, my father! Indeed, see the hem of your robe in my hand! Since I cut off the hem of your robe and did not kill you, know and understand [without question] that there is no evil or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you are lying in wait to take my life. ‡

12 “May the LORD judge between me and you; and may the LORD avenge me on you; but my hand shall not be against you. ‡

13 “As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Out of the wicked comes wickedness’; but my hand shall not be against you.

14 “After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue [with three thousand men]? A dead dog, a single flea? ‡

15 “May the LORD be the judge and render judgment between me and you; and may He see and plead my cause and vindicate me by saving me from your hand.”  [Ps 142 ] ‡

16 When David had finished saying these words to Saul, Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” Then Saul raised his voice and wept. ‡

17 He said to David, “You are more righteous and upright [in God’s eyes] than I; for you have done good to me, but I have done evil to you. ‡

18 “You have declared today the good that you have done to me, for when the LORD put me into your hand, you did not kill me. ‡

19 “For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away unharmed? So may the LORD reward you with good in return for what you have done for me this day.

20 “Now, behold, I know that you will certainly be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand. ‡

21 “So now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me and that you will not destroy my name from my father’s household (extended family).” ‡

22 David gave Saul his oath; and Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the mountain stronghold. ‡

Samuel's Death

Nabal and Abigail

<sup>2</sup> Now there was a man in Maon whose business and possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats, and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel ‡

<sup>3</sup> (now the man's name was Nabal and his wife's name was Abigail. She was intelligent and beautiful in appearance, but the man was harsh and evil in his dealings; he was a Calebite).

<sup>5</sup> So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name;

<sup>6</sup> and this is what you shall say, 'Have a long life! Peace be to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that you have.' ‡

<sup>7</sup> 'Now I have heard that you have shearers. Now your shepherds have been with us and we have not harmed them, nor were they missing anything all the time they were in Carmel. ‡

<sup>8</sup> 'Ask your young men and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your sight [and be well-treated], for we have come on a good (festive) day. Please, give whatever you find at hand to your servants and to your son David.' " ‡

<sup>9</sup> When David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David; then they waited.

<sup>10</sup> But Nabal answered David's servants and said, "Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today, each of whom is breaking away from his master. ‡

<sup>11</sup> "So should I take my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men when I do not know where they are from?" ‡

<sup>12</sup> So David's young men made their way back and returned; and they came and told him everything that was said [to them by Nabal].

<sup>13</sup> David said to his men, "Each man put on your sword." So each man put on his sword. David also put on his sword, and about four hundred men went up behind David while two hundred stayed back with the provisions and supplies. ‡

<sup>15</sup> "But David's men were very good to us, and we were not harmed or treated badly, nor did we miss anything as long as we were with them, when we were in the fields. ‡

<sup>16</sup> "They were a wall [of protection] to us both night and day, all the time that we were with them tending the sheep. ‡

<sup>17</sup> "Now then, know this and consider what you should do, for evil is [already] planned against our master and against all his household; but he is such a worthless and wicked man that one cannot speak [reasonably] to him." ‡

Abigail Intercedes

<sup>18</sup> Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two jugs of wine, five sheep already prepared [for roasting], five measures of roasted grain, a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys. ‡

<sup>19</sup> She said to her young men (servants), "Go on ahead of me; behold, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal. ‡

<sup>20</sup> It happened that as she was riding on her donkey and coming down by [way of] the hidden part of the mountain, that suddenly David and his men were coming down toward her, and she met them.

<sup>21</sup> Now David had said, "Surely in vain I have protected and guarded all that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missing of all that belonged to him; and he has repaid me evil for good. ‡

<sup>22</sup> "May God do so to the enemies of David, and more also, if by morning I leave [alive] even one male of any who belong to him." ‡

<sup>24</sup> Kneeling at his feet she said, "My lord, let the blame and guilt be on me alone. And please let your maidservant speak to you, and listen to the words of your maidservant.

<sup>25</sup> "Please do not let my lord pay attention to this worthless man, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he. Nabal (fool) is his name and foolishness (stupidity) is with him; but I your maidservant did not see my lord's young men whom you sent.

<sup>26</sup> “So now, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, since the LORD has prevented you from shedding blood, and from avenging yourself by your own hand, now then let your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord, be as [self-destructive as] Nabal.”‡

<sup>27</sup> “Now this gift, which your maidservant has brought my lord, let it be given to the young men who accompany and follow my lord.”‡

<sup>28</sup> “Please forgive the transgression of your maidservant; for the LORD will certainly make my lord a secure and enduring house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil will not be found in you all your days.”‡

<sup>29</sup> “Should anyone rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, then the life of my lord will be bound in the [precious] bundle of the living with the LORD your God; but the lives of your enemies—those He will hurl out as from the center of a sling.”‡

<sup>30</sup> “And it will happen when the LORD does for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken (promised) concerning you, and appoints you ruler over Israel, <sup>31</sup> that this [incident] will not cause grief or [bring] a troubled conscience to my lord, both by having shed blood without cause and by my lord having avenged himself. When the LORD deals well with my lord, then remember [with favor] your maidservant.”

<sup>32</sup> David said to Abigail, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you to meet me this day.”‡

<sup>33</sup> “And blessed be your discretion and discernment, and blessed be you, who has kept me from bloodshed this day and from avenging myself by my own hand.”‡

<sup>34</sup> “Nevertheless, as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has prevented me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, most certainly by the morning light there would not have been left to Nabal so much as one male.”‡

<sup>35</sup> So David accepted what she had brought to him and said to her, “Go up to your house in peace. See, I have listened to you and have granted your request.”‡

<sup>36</sup> Then Abigail came to Nabal, and he was holding a feast in his house [for the shearers], like the feast of a king. And Nabal's mood was joyous because he was very drunk; so she told him nothing at all until the morning light. ‡

<sup>37</sup> But in the morning, when Nabal was sober, and his wife told him these things, his heart died within him and he became [paralyzed and helpless] like a stone.

<sup>38</sup> About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

David Marries Abigail

<sup>39</sup> When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach [suffered] at the hand of Nabal and has kept His servant from [retaliating with] evil. For the Lord has returned the wickedness of Nabal on his own head.” Then David sent word to Abigail, proposing to take her as his wife. ‡

<sup>40</sup> When the servants of David came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, “David sent us to you to take you [to him] to be his wife.”

1 Samuel 26

David Again Spares Saul

<sup>2</sup> So Saul arose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, taking with him three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search for David [there] in the wilderness of Ziph.

<sup>3</sup> Saul camped on the hill of Hachilah, which is beside the road east of Jeshimon, but David stayed in the wilderness. When he saw that Saul came into the wilderness after him,

<sup>4</sup> David sent out spies, and he learned that Saul was definitely coming.

<sup>5</sup> So David arose and went to the place where Saul had camped, and saw the spot where Saul lay, as well as Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; and Saul was lying inside the circle of the camp, with the army camped around him. ‡

<sup>6</sup>-Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?” And Abishai said, “I will go down with you.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So David and Abishai went to the army during the night, and there was Saul lying asleep inside the circle of the camp with his spear stuck in the ground by his head; and Abner and the people were lying around him.

<sup>8</sup> Then Abishai said to David, “God has given your enemy into your hand this day; now then, please let me strike him with the spear driving it to the ground with one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time.”

<sup>10</sup>-David also said, “As the LORD lives, most certainly the LORD will strike him [in His own time and way], or his day will come and he will die, or he will go down into battle and be carried off [dead]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on the top of the mountain at a distance, with a large area between them.

<sup>14</sup> David called to the army and to Abner the son of Ner, “Will you not answer, Abner?” Abner replied, “Who are you who calls [and disturbs] the king?”

<sup>15</sup> David said to Abner, “Are you not a [brave] man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came [into your camp] to kill the king your lord.

<sup>16</sup> “This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you surely deserve to die, because you have not guarded your lord, the LORD’s anointed. And now, see where the king’s spear is, and the jug of water that was by his head.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Saul recognized David's voice and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord the king!" ‡

<sup>18</sup> And David said, "Why is my lord pursuing his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand?" ‡

<sup>19</sup> "Now therefore, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD has incited you against me, let Him accept an offering [from me]; but if it is men, may they be cursed before the LORD, because they have driven me out this day to keep me from sharing in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' ‡

<sup>20</sup> "Now then, do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to search for a single flea, just as when one hunts a [defenseless] partridge in the mountains." ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not harm you again because my life was precious in your sight this day. Hear me, I have played the fool and have done a very great wrong [to you]." ‡

<sup>24</sup> "Now behold, just as your life was precious in my sight this day, so let my life be precious in the sight of the LORD, and may He rescue me from all distress."

<sup>25</sup> Then Saul said to David, "May you be blessed, my son David; you will both accomplish much and certainly prevail." So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place. ‡

1 Samuel 27

David Flees to the Philistines

<sup>1</sup> BUT DAVID said in his heart, "Now I will die one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up searching for me inside the borders of Israel, and I will escape from his hand [once and for all]."

<sup>2</sup> So David and the six hundred men who were with him arose and crossed over to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath.‡

<sup>5</sup> Then David said to Achish, “If I have found favor in your sight, let me be given a place [of my own] in one of the cities in the country, so that I may live there; for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”

<sup>6</sup> Then Achish gave David [the town of] Ziklag that day. Therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.‡

<sup>7</sup> The number of days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

<sup>8</sup> Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites [the enemies of Israel that Joshua had failed to annihilate]; for they had inhabited the land from ancient times, as one comes to Shur even as far as the land of Egypt.  [Deut 25:19; Josh 13:1, 2, 13 ]‡

<sup>9</sup> David attacked the land and did not leave a man or a woman alive, but he took the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing, and returned to Achish.

<sup>11</sup> David did not leave a man or a woman alive to bring news to Gath, saying [to himself], “Otherwise they will tell about us, saying, ‘This is what David has done, and this has been his practice all the time that he has lived in the country of the Philistines.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Achish believed David, saying, “He has certainly become hated by his people in Israel; so he will always be my servant.”

1 Samuel 28

Saul and the Spirit Medium

<sup>1</sup> IN THOSE days the Philistines gathered their forces for war to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, “Understand for certain that you and your men will go out with me to battle.”‡

2. David said to Achish, “All right, you shall know what your servant can do.” So Achish said to David, “Therefore I will make you my bodyguard for life.”

3. Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had removed the mediums and the spiritists (soothsayers) from the land. ‡

4 The Philistines assembled and came and camped at Shunem; and Saul gathered all the Israelites and they camped at Gilboa. ‡

5 When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid and badly shaken. ‡

6. So Saul inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim [used like lots by the priest to determine the will of God] or by prophets.  [Prov 1:24–30. ] ‡

7. Then Saul said to his servants, “Find for me a woman who is a medium [between the living and the dead], so that I may go to her and ask her advice.” His servants said to him, “There is a woman who is a medium at Endor.”

8 So Saul disguised himself by wearing different clothes, and he left with two men, and they came to the woman at night. He said to her, “Conjure up for me, please, and bring up [from the dead] for me [the spirit] whom I shall name to you.” ‡

9 But the woman said to him, “See here, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off (eliminated) those who are mediums and spiritists from the land. So why are you laying a trap for my life, to cause my death?” ‡

10. Then Saul swore [an oath] to her by the LORD, saying, “As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this.”

11 So the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” He said, “Bring up Samuel for me.”

12. When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed with a loud voice; and she said to Saul, “Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!”

13 The king said to her, “Do not be afraid; but [tell me] what do you see?” The woman said to Saul, “I see a divine [superhuman] being coming up from the earth.” ‡

14 He said to her, “What is his appearance?” And she said, “An old man is coming up, wrapped in a robe.” Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and paid respect [to him]. ‡

15 Then Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” Saul answered, “I am greatly distressed; for the Philistines are making war against me, and God has left me and no longer answers me, either through prophets or by dreams; therefore I have called you to make known to me what I should do.”‡

<sup>16</sup> Samuel said, “Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has left you and has become your enemy?

<sup>17</sup> “The LORD has done [to you] just as He said through me [when I was with you]; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, to David.  [1 Sam 15:22–28]‡

<sup>19</sup> “Moreover, the LORD will also put Israel along with you into the hands of the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me [among the dead]. Indeed, the LORD will put the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul immediately fell full length on the earth [floor of the medium’s house], and was very afraid because of Samuel’s words; and he was thoroughly exhausted because he had not eaten all day and all night.

<sup>21</sup> The woman came to Saul and saw that he was greatly troubled, and she said to him, “Look, your maid servant has obeyed you, and I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to everything you said to me.‡

<sup>22</sup> “So now, please listen to the voice of your maid servant, and let me set a piece of bread before you, and eat, so that you may have strength when you go on your way.”

<sup>23</sup> But he refused and said, “I will not eat.” But his servants together with the woman urged him, and he [finally] listened to them. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed.

<sup>24</sup> The woman had a fattened calf in the house; she quickly killed it, and took flour, kneaded it and baked unleavened bread.

<sup>25</sup> She brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they got up and went away that night.

1 Samuel 29

The Philistines Mistrust David

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek, while Israel camped by the spring in Jezreel.‡

<sup>3</sup> the Philistine commanders [having noticed David] said, “What are these Hebrews doing here?” Achish said to the Philistine commanders, “Is this not David, the servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me these days and years, and I have found no fault in him from the day he deserted to me to this day?”‡

<sup>4</sup> But the Philistine commanders were angry with Achish and they said to him, “Make this man return, so that he may go back to his place where you have assigned him, and do not let him go down to battle with us, or in the battle he may [turn and] become our adversary. For how could David reconcile himself to his lord [Saul]? Would it not be with the heads of these [Philistine] men?‡

And David his ten thousands?’”

<sup>6</sup> Then Achish called David and said to him, “As the LORD lives, you have been upright (righteous), and your behavior in the army is pleasing in my sight. For from the day you came to me to this day I have found no evil in you. Nevertheless, the [Philistine] lords do not approve of you.‡

<sup>7</sup>—“So return now and go in peace [to your place], so that you do not displease the Philistine lords.”

<sup>8</sup> David said to Achish, “But what have I done? What have you found in your servant from the day when I [first] came before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”

<sup>9</sup> Achish answered David, “I know that you are blameless in my sight, like an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, ‘He must not go up with us to the battle.’‡

<sup>10</sup> “So now, get up early in the morning with your master’s servants who have come with you, and as soon as you are up in the morning and have light, leave.”

<sup>11</sup> So David and his men got up early to leave in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel [to fight against Israel].‡

1 Samuel 30

David's Victory over the Amalekites

1 NOW IT happened when David and his men came [home] to Ziklag on the third day, [they found] that the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negev (the South country) and on Ziklag, and had overthrown Ziklag and burned it with fire; ‡

2 and they had taken captive the women [and all] who were there, both small and great. They killed no one, but carried them off [to be used as slaves] and went on their way.

3 When David and his men came to the town, it was burned, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

4 Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept until they were too exhausted to weep [any longer].

5 Now David's two wives had been captured, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. ‡

6 Further, David was greatly distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, for all of them were embittered, each man for his sons and daughters. But David felt strengthened and encouraged in the LORD his God. ‡

7 David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "Please bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought him the ephod. ‡

8 David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this band [of raiders]? Will I overtake them?" And He answered him, "Pursue, for you will certainly overtake them, and you will certainly rescue [the captives]." ‡

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor; there those [who could not continue] remained behind.

10 But David pursued [the Amalekites], he and four hundred men, for two hundred who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor stayed behind. ‡

11 They found an Egyptian [who had collapsed] in the field and brought him to David, and gave him bread and he ate, and they gave him water to drink,

12 and they gave him a piece of a fig cake and two clusters of raisins; and when he had eaten, his energy returned, for he had not eaten bread or had any water to drink for three days and three nights. ‡

13 David said to him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" He said, "I am a young man from Egypt, a servant of an Amalekite; and my master abandoned me [as useless] when I fell sick three days ago.

<sup>14</sup> “We made a raid on the Negev of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag with fire.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then David said to him, “Will you take me down to this band [of raiders]?” And he said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or turn me over to the hand of my master, and I will bring you down to this band.”

<sup>16</sup> When he brought David down, the Amalekites had disbanded and spread over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing because of all the great spoil they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. ‡

<sup>18</sup> So David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and rescued his two wives.

<sup>20</sup> So David captured all the flocks and herds [which the enemy had], and [the people] drove those animals before him and said, “This is David’s spoil.”

The Spoils Are Divided

<sup>21</sup> David came to the two hundred men who were so exhausted that they could not follow him and had been left at the brook Besor [with the provisions]. They went out to meet David and the people with him, and when he approached the people, he greeted them. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then all the wicked and worthless men among those who went with David said, “Because they did not go with us, we will give them none of the spoil that we have recovered, except that each man may take his wife and children away and leave.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> David said, “You must not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us. He has kept us safe and has handed over to us the band [of Amalekites] that came against us.

<sup>24</sup> “And who will listen to you in regard to this matter? For as is the share of him who goes down into the battle, so shall his share be who stays by the provisions and supplies; they shall share alike.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> So from that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

<sup>31</sup> Hebron, and for [those elders in] all the places where David himself and his men were accustomed to go.” ‡

1 Samuel 31

Saul and His Sons Slain

<sup>4</sup> Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and pierce me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised [Philistines] will come and pierce me through and abuse and mock me.” But his armor bearer would not, because he was terrified [of doing such a thing]. So Saul took his sword and fell on it. ‡

<sup>5</sup> When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him.

<sup>6</sup> So Saul, his three sons, his armor bearer, and all his men died together on that day.

<sup>7</sup> When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley [of Jezreel], and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the other men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; then the Philistines came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup> The next day, when the Philistines came to plunder the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>9</sup> So they cut off Saul’s head and stripped off his weapons and armor and sent them throughout the land of the Philistines, to bring the good news to the house of their idols and to the people. ‡

11 When the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, ‡

<sup>12</sup> all the brave men stood and walked all night, and they took the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and they came to Jabesh and cremated them there. ‡

13 They took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted [as a sign of mourning and respect] for seven days. ‡

Annotations for 1 Samuel

1:1 Elkanah. Elkanah was a Levite (1Ch 6:26) who lived in a village about five miles north of Jerusalem. He is referred to as an Ephraimite because he lived in the territory of Ephraim.

1:3 LORD of hosts. The term “LORD of hosts” refers to God as the One who commands the angelic armies of heaven (1Ki 22:19; Rev 19:14) and the armies of Israel (17:45). Shiloh. Shiloh, located twenty miles north of Jerusalem, was the religious center for the nation at this time and the location of the tabernacle (Jos 18:1).

1:9 Eli. Eli, Israel’s high priest and judge, was from the family of Ithamar, Aaron’s fourth son (1Ch 24:1–3). The last high priest mentioned before him was Phinehas, the son of Eleazar (Jdg 20:28). It is not known why or how the office of high priest passed from the house of Eleazar to that of Ithamar.

1:11 vow. Hannah vowed that the child she would bear would be a servant to the Lord all of his life. Can a parent really make a vow that the child will carry out? Hannah surely both taught Samuel and prayed for him, but it was Samuel who said “yes” to the Lord and to the promise his mother had made. Every single relationship with the Lord is between that individual and the Lord. No one is a follower of God just because his parents are. But there is much that parents can do to encourage and teach their children about loving and serving the Lord, and a heartfelt enthusiastic example is the very best incentive that a parent can provide. a razor shall never touch his head. The Nazirite vow involved a designated period of time (usually a few weeks or months) during which there was a commitment to refrain completely from wine, from cutting the hair, and touching any dead body. Hannah promised that her son would be a Nazirite for life.

1:17 Petition— The Lord went to great lengths to ensure that Scripture records all the instances in which God heard and answered prayer; unlike the gods of Israel’s surrounding nations. In the contest on Mount Carmel, Elijah’s prayers were answered while the prayers of the prophets of Baal went nowhere (1Ki 18). The Psalmist says “But certainly God has heard [me]; He has given heed to the voice of my prayer” (Ps 66:19).

Petitions are requests that we pray by faith (Jas 1:6), in the name of Jesus (Jn 14:13). If we pray in this manner, we are assured that God hears us (1Jn 5:14–15). We should pray for ourselves, asking for cleansing (1Jn 1:9), and wisdom (Jas 1:5), spiritual leaders (Col 4:3), sick believers (Jas 5:14), rulers (1Ti 2:1–3), and even for our enemies (Mt 5:44). Go to Theological Notes Index

1:22 until the child is weaned. Hebrew children were normally weaned when they were two or three years old.

1:23 Do what seems best. According to law, Elkanah could have declared Hannah’s vow a rash promise and prohibited her from fulfilling it (Nu 30:10–15). When he told her to “do what seems best to you” he was validating her promise to God.

2:1–10 Prayer— Hannah’s prayer is one of praise to God. We often think of prayer as supplication or intercession, but this is a prayer of rejoicing in the Lord, His salvation, His power to raise up and to shatter, His justice, and His strength. To pray like this requires centering in on who God is, thoughtful recollection of His attributes, and thanksgiving for His work in our lives. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:13–15 take for himself. The priests’ rightful share of a sacrifice was the breast and the right thigh of the animal (Lev 7:34). Eli’s sons sinned by taking any part they wanted and demanding the meat immediately, before the fat consecrated to God had been burned on the altar.

2:30 Godlessness— Whenever a priesthood or church or nation falls into apostasy, the people who should have been served suffer. Eli failed his people far more than his disgraceful sons did, because the Israelites trusted Eli's integrity and his discernment. He should have restrained his sons, and he did not. The price of disobedience is always high, and the spiritual cost to a community that has lost trust in one whom they thought was close to God is greater than most people are willing to calculate. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:31–34 will not be an old man in your house. The judgment was partially fulfilled in the massacre of the priests of Nob (22:11–19), and was ultimately fulfilled when the priesthood was transferred to the family of Zadok in the time of Solomon (1Ki 2:26–27 ,35).

2:35 faithful priest. This term refers to Zadok, who was faithful to God and to the line of David (1Ki 1:7–8 ; 2:26–27 ,35).

3:1–19 Listening for God's Call— Samuel heard God's call in an audible voice. That experience is not a common one in the history of those who follow after God. While most of us get a sense of a call by some other means, Samuel's experience does help us to understand what our attitude and response should be.

Samuel's attitude was one of readiness and eager response with a desire to listen. It is that attitude of listening that was foundational to Samuel's whole life and ministry. Throughout his life we see him listening to God's word and following God's direction. He listened for the general will of God and also had an ear for the more specific directions that God gave him. Sometimes he raised questions about why he was doing a particular thing, but the word from God was paramount. He listened for it and responded to it. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:14 shall not be atoned for. Eli and his sons were guilty of presumptuous sin (Nu 15:30–31). For such sin, there was no atoning sacrifice.

3:20 from Dan [in the north] to Beersheba [in the south]. This expression denotes the whole territory of Israel, from its most northern point to its most southern (Jdg 20:1).

The Wanderings of the Ark of the Covenant

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

4:1 the Philistines. Abraham and Isaac had contact with the Philistines as early as the twentieth century BC. With their aggressive invasions and fortress cities, the Philistines established strong political and military control of the southern coastal plain of Palestine. They had iron weapons, and were a significant threat to the Israelites.

4:4 who sits above the cherubim. Cherubim are angels generally regarded as guardians of God's holiness (Ge 3:24 ; Ps 80:1 ; Ezr 10:9 ).

4:6–7 the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. The Philistines were afraid. Apparently the Philistines viewed the ark as some sort of idol.

4:11 Also the ark of God was taken. The loss of the ark, symbolic of God's presence among His people, was a great tragedy for Israel—even worse than the loss of life. The ark probably never returned to Shiloh.

4:21 Ichabod. The name Ichabod, meaning "No Glory," reflected Israel's circumstances. The loss of the ark meant the absence of God's glory in Israel.

5:2 Dagon. This god appears to be a Philistine adaptation of the Canaanite god Baal. Philistia was in an important grain producing area, and the worship of Dagon was thought to ensure a good crop.

5:6–7 Idolatry— The residents of Ashdod made one fatal mistake. They tried to place a false god alongside the true God. These ancient Philistines are not the only ones who have tried this sort of idolatry. People are quick to recognize that there is “something” about the Living God, and they want Him. But they want to have God with qualifiers—“God and my career track,” “God and my dedication to entertainment,” “God and my secret sin,” “God and my own way.” But God will not share the throne of any man’s heart. It has to be God, and God alone. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:8 send it away. This seemed like a good test to the Philistines. The natural inclination of the cows would be to return home to their calves. If the cows went against their normal instincts, it would show that God was causing them to walk away from their calves.

6:14 offered the cows as a burnt offering. The law required that sacrifices be offered only at the central sanctuary (Dt 12:4–14). Apparently the people felt that special circumstances required an immediate offering of thanksgiving.

6:19 Presumption— The Israelites who looked into the ark were glad to have it back. Perhaps they thought that the Philistines had looked inside it, and certainly they had more right than the Philistines to gaze upon the holy objects contained in the ark. Their reasons may have seemed good at the moment, but they were ignoring God’s specific commands and treating His holiness as unimportant. In the same way today, we can end up trivializing who God is. We can speak frivolously of the things of God, calling Him the “Man upstairs,” or being “Sunday Christians.” We can presume on our relationship with God without remembering what it cost Jesus to obtain it for us. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:2 twenty years. It was probably twenty years before Samuel called the assembly at Mizpah (v. 5). The ark remained at Kiriath-jearim until David brought it to Jerusalem in the first year of his reign over all Israel.

7:6 poured it out. The pouring of water was symbolic of repentance (La 2:19).

7:12 Ebenezer. The name Ebenezer means “stone of help.” Samuel followed Joshua’s practice of commemorating the victories of God for His people with stone markers. Some old gospel hymns refer to an “Ebenezer,” meaning a particular notation of something special God has done.

7:14 Amorites. This name may refer to the original inhabitants of Canaan (Ge 15:16).

7:17 Ramah. Samuel was back in the town where he was born.

8:5 appoint us a king. The reasons given for wanting a king were Samuel’s age and his sons’ unreliability. This is a sad commentary on Samuel’s failure to raise his sons to honor and obey the Lord, particularly considering the example of Eli’s sons. But this was not really a reason to ask for a king. The Israeli judges had always been appointed by God, rather than gaining their position by inheritance. There was no reason to think that God would not appoint someone to succeed Samuel.

8:7 they have rejected Me. This actually fulfilled the prophecy in Deuteronomy 17:14–20. God knew long ago that the Israelites would choose to be like the other nations and have a king, instead of being ruled more directly by God through judges. He warned them of the pitfalls of having a king, and set out some guidelines for the kings to follow.

8:20 and fight our battles. The Israelites were looking for human leadership on the battlefield, instead of recognizing that God would lead them in battle, and win (Ex 15:3 ; Jdg 7 ).

9:12 the high place. A hill that was used for worship was called “a high place.” The Canaanites were known for building their places for worship on hills, and the Israelites apparently used similar sites for worship after the ark was taken from the tabernacle at Shiloh. They believed that the presence of the Lord had departed from the tabernacle, and it was apparently at that point that Shiloh ceased to be a gathering center for the nation.

9:20 Providence— God, in His providence, is directing our lives according to His plan and purpose. Hunting for livestock or having a vehicle break down are normal nuisances, something we can handle, but seldom think about as being the providence of God. Yet if we realize that God has His hand on all of our circumstances, everything that changes our plans puts us into a position to meet, pray for, help, or witness to someone else who would not normally come our way. Go to Theological Notes Index

9:21 the smallest of the tribes. Benjamin was the second smallest tribe at the first census following the exodus (Nu 1:36–37 ). The tribe was reduced to six hundred fighting men during the punishment of Benjamin for the atrocity at Gibeah (Jdg 19–20 ).

9:24 the leg. Giving Saul the leg was intended to honor him in the presence of the other guests.

10:1 Has the LORD not anointed you. The anointing of a ruler was a religious act. That is why David had such high regard for Saul, refusing to lift a hand against “the LORD’s anointed.” His inheritance. The land of Israel was God’s gift to His people, but it would return to God’s direct control if the people did not manage it according to God’s laws (Dt 27:30 ).

10:4 two loaves of bread. The bread that the strangers would offer to Saul would have been bread prepared for use in the worship of God. Giving the bread to Saul was a sacred act, as well as a sign for Saul.

10:9 God changed his heart. God’s Spirit prepared Saul for the kingship. It probably was not spiritual regeneration in the way it is understood in New Testament times. Saul wanted to worship God, but he continually struggled with wanting to do things his own way.

10:19 Unfaithfulness— This was not the first time that the Israelites had been unfaithful. Sometimes they could see what God was doing and respond with thanksgiving, and sometimes they seemed to forget everything about Him and go headlong into the very sins He had warned them would bring nothing but disaster. Believers today have the incredible gift of the Holy Spirit to direct them and remind them of the ways of God. It is hard to imagine what it would be like to follow God without the help of the Holy Spirit, the comforter, the helper (Jn 14:25–26 ). It is important to remember that for humanity, unfaithfulness is our middle name, and to thank God for His mercy and grace which provided a way for us to belong to Him. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:20 was chosen. Even though Samuel already knew that Saul was to be the king, the designation of Saul as Israel’s first monarch was made by casting lots. The lots were cast like dice, and God’s will was determined by asking yes and no questions. They believed that God controlled all events, including the lots when they were used to seek God.

10:24 whom the LORD has chosen. Long ago, before they crossed the Jordan, the Lord had told Moses that the Israelites would want a king. At that time the Lord laid out guidelines for the king, and one of them was that the king must be an Israelite chosen by the Lord (Dt 17:14–20 ).

11:1 Ammonite. The Ammonites, who were descendants of Lot, occupied the fringes of the desert east of the territories of Gad and Manasseh.

11:5 out of the field. Saul had been appointed king, but he did not assume governmental authority at once. He continued farming until he could answer Israel’s expectations of him by delivering them from their enemies. This pattern was more in the style of the judges of Israel.

The Salvation of Jabesh-Gilead

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

11:11 morning watch. The Israelites divided the night into three watches: nine to twelve, twelve to three, and three to six in the morning.

12:9 they forgot the LORD their God. Samuel recounted the nation's apostasy and subsequent divine discipline. Israel was having problems because they had stopped obeying God. It was not because either God or Samuel was inadequate.

12:17 wheat harvest. The season for harvesting wheat in Israel is the months of May and June. thunder and rain. The land of Israel receives its rainfall during the winter season. For rain to fall during the wheat harvest would be both unusual and detrimental to the harvest.

12:22 His people. God's desire to raise up a people for His great name's sake is not based on pride, but on love. He is pleased to show His goodness to the world, and He is willing to reach out to us in spite of our rebellion and foolishness. The whole history of the human race is littered with mankind's failure to acknowledge and follow the living God who created us. But even if we are faithless, God will remain faithful (2Ti 2:13 ), and that is our great comfort. We cannot even be faithful without His help, but "if God is for us, who can be [successful] against us?" (Ro 8:31 ).

The Battle at Michmash

13:8–9 Presumption— We will never know what would have happened if Saul had waited for Samuel. Whenever we assume we “know better” and take action on our own authority, we cannot know what would have happened if we had followed God’s way. Some of the snarls that are the result of stubborn rebellion are often too difficult for us to set right. This is why we must pay such careful attention not only to the direct commandments in the Bible, but to the spirit behind them. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:19 no blacksmith. The Canaanites and Philistines learned how to forge iron from the Hittites. Although they were not great in numerical strength, the Philistines were able to dominate Israel because of their superior weaponry. By the end of David’s reign, the Israelites had also acquired iron technology.

13:22 neither sword nor spear. The weapons available to the Israelite soldiers would have included slings, bows and arrows, and numerous instruments made of bronze.

14:14 half a [plow] furrow in a plot of land. This can also be translated “half a yoke of land.” A yoke of land was the area a pair of oxen could plow in one day.

14:24 had put the people under a curse. This was not only an oath, but an oath with a curse. Yet food would have helped the soldiers fight with better stamina. Keeping the oath was a matter of loyalty to Saul as he avenged his enemies. But the enemies were not Saul’s personal enemies, they were the enemies of the whole nation, and the power in the vengeance came from God, not Saul. Saul should have focused the faith of the people on God, not on himself. This oath is an example of poor leadership, foolish vows, and misplaced loyalties. It is easy to get into trouble with an impulsive vow. It may sound very noble and wise in the heat of the moment, but it doesn’t turn out to be practical. The kinds of vows that will never get us in trouble are the vows that echo the things that Scripture teaches. Such vows as determining to raise our children for the Lord, promising to stay away from habits that control us, or commitment to pray for certain people will never leave us entangled in promises that we should not have made.

14:32 rushed greedily upon. If the soldiers had not been fasting as they fought, they might have had the self-control to properly bleed the animals before they began eating.

14:37 He did not answer him. God’s silence was taken by Saul as evidence of sin in the camp.

14:39 he shall most certainly die. This was Saul’s second foolish oath. Saul is not the only one who found himself in trouble because of an impulsive oath. Jephthah made a tragic vow (Jdg 11:29–40 ), John the Baptist was beheaded because of Herod’s thoughtless oath (Mt 14:7–9 ), and a group of Jews bound themselves together with a curse, promising not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul (Ac 23:12 ). Jesus taught his followers not to swear to foolish vows, but to let their yes be yes, and their no be no (Mt 5:37 ; Jas 5:12 ).

14:47 Moab . . . Ammon. The Moabites and Ammonites were descendants of Lot (Ge 19:30–38 ). They occupied regions east of the Jordan and Dead Sea. Edom. The Edomites were descendants of Esau (Ge 36:8 ) who ruled over a region southeast of the Dead Sea. Zobah. This was the Aramean kingdom in the Bekaa valley. Philistines. The Philistines lived on the coastal plain west of the hill country.

15:6 Kenites. The Kenites were a nomadic offshoot of the Midianites (Nu 10:29 ). They had been loosely associated with the Israelites since Moses’ marriage to the daughter of Jethro, a Kenite (Jdg 1:16 ; 4:11 ).

15:22 Obedience— If we love God we are commanded to keep His commandments (Jn 14:15 ). The problem is, we sometimes fool ourselves. Saul thought he was doing something good for God. He was partially obeying. He killed a lot of the Amalekites, and instead of killing the animals, he sacrificed them. They would still be dead, and it would honor God too. But He was not pleased. Saul did what was “right in his own eyes” but this was not obedience. Go to Theological Notes Index

15:23 divination. Witchcraft, divination, idolatry, and other occult activities are an attempt to manipulate spiritual powers for our own ends. In his rebellion Saul was treating God as if He were a moody, cranky pagan god, who could be thwarted, and then appeased by sacrifices. He also has rejected you. Saul was rejected because he was still treating God as a force to be used. He was sorry he got caught, but he still thought he was right and could give a quick sacrifice and go on with the plan.

15:35 see. God was through with Saul as king, and so was Samuel.

David's Family Tree

16:2 I have come to sacrifice to the Lord. At this time Shiloh was still the designated central location for sacrifices (Dt 12:4-14). But with the disruptions of the priesthood, the ark located at Kiriath-jearim (7:2), and the general belief that God had removed His presence from Shiloh, it would not be surprising if the sacrificial system had been interrupted as well. In any case, God did direct Samuel to make this sacrifice at Bethlehem.

16:7 God— Our Creator knows His human creatures intimately, and He is able to discern our thoughts and purposes before we ourselves are aware of them. He always looks beyond appearance and stature to the heart. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:12 anoint him. David was anointed with olive oil. This religious ritual consecrated him to the kingship, although he did not take the role of king for many years. The heart He saw in David is the one He wants to see in all of us. It has purposefulness, intelligence, and willingness to obey. If our heart is centered on God, He can use us to extend His kingdom.

16:14 departed from Saul. After the Spirit of God came upon David, Saul was no longer empowered by the Spirit to serve as king. In Old Testament times the Holy Spirit came upon people selectively, usually a king, prophet, or judge. It was only after the resurrection of Jesus that the Holy Spirit came to indwell all believers (Jn 16:5-11 ; Ac 2:4 ).

16:15 evil spirit from God. This affliction is understood in various ways. Perhaps the spirit was a demon that God allowed to harass Saul, in the same way that God allowed Satan to tempt Job (Job 1:8-12 ). Perhaps Saul had a spirit of discontent in his heart, caused by the absence of the Holy Spirit. Perhaps pride, that same sin that caused Satan to fall, was allowed to grow in Saul's heart and dominate his thoughts and actions. Scripture is clear that God is always holy, just, and righteous, so this evil spirit was something that God allowed to come upon Saul, but it was not a part of God.

16:21 David came to Saul. David played for Saul, and was his armor bearer. It is unclear exactly how much time David spent with Saul. Probably David at this time continued to come and go from Saul's household to his father's.

17:1 the Philistines gathered their armies for battle. The Philistine and Israelite armies were gathered in the Elah valley, about 15 miles west of David's hometown of Bethlehem. The Philistines were camped on a hill, south of the valley, between the cities of Azekah and Sochoh.

17:2 Valley of Elah. The valley is an east-west valley, leading from the hill country of Judah toward the lowlands of the Philistines. It had a steep ravine that extended the length of the valley, making it unfit for the Philistine's chariots. Probably the ravine prevented a full-scale assault by the Philistines, causing the long delay before engaging in battle.

17:4 champion. The champion was a warrior who would fight in single combat as a stand-in for the entire army. The most likely person to take on this champion would be Saul, who, when he was chosen king, stood head and shoulders above his countrymen. six cubits and a span. The cubit was about 18 inches, and a span was 9 inches. Goliath stood approximately nine feet, nine inches tall.

17:5 bronze helmet. Ordinary troops had leather helmets. coat of scale-armor. Goliath's coat of scale-armor was made of overlapping plates of bronze sewn on leather. 5,000 shekels. The coat of armor weighed about 125 pounds.

17:6 bronze shin protectors. This was armor that protected Goliath's legs. bronze javelin. The javelin was designed for hurling.

17:7 six hundred shekels. The spear was a weapon designed for hand-to-hand combat, like a long sword. The head of Goliath's spear weighed about 17 pounds. shield-bearer. The soldier carried a small round shield, usually worn on the left arm. The shield-bearer carried the much larger, oblong shield.

17:12 Ephrathite. Ephrath was the early name for Bethlehem.

17:17 Take for your brothers. In ancient times, soldiers usually lived off the land they conquered or depended on personal supplies that they or someone else brought from home.

17:39-40 Wisdom— David had embarked on a risky venture. It might seem smart to meet Goliath with the best armor, but David had wisdom enough to know that if he was going to attack the giant, it would have to be on his own terms. The years of solitary shepherding had given David the time to practice with his sling, and the opportunity to know that it was the Lord who gave him the strength and the will to kill the predators that threatened his flock. The insight and practices gained through difficult experiences blossom as wisdom. We can look back on these times with thankfulness because that is how God has equipped us for the next task. Go to Theological Notes Index

17:40 sling. A sling was the typical equipment of the shepherd. It was a hollow pocket of leather attached to two cords. Putting a stone in the pouch, the slinger would whirl it around his head to build up momentum. Releasing one of the cords would hurl the stone at its target. It takes skill and practice to be expert with a sling. Slingers were a regular part of armies in the ancient Middle East.

17:55 whose son is this young man. How does this question fit with the fact that David had been serving as a musician in Saul's court and as Saul's armor bearer, and that Saul "loved him greatly" (16:18–23)? Possibly in Saul's unstable mental condition he did not recall David, or perhaps he did not know his name, even if he did recognize him. David was not at court full time until after he had killed Goliath. It would not be unusual for the king to know nothing personal about a servant, even a servant he appreciated.

18:16 he publicly associated with them. David's military activities elevated him to prominence before the people.

18:25 dowry. A sum of money, about fifty shekels (Dt 22:29), was paid by the bridegroom to the father of the bride as economic compensation for the loss of a daughter.

18:30 more wisely . . . than all. David's wise actions contrast significantly with Saul's foolish actions (13:13).

18:30 Wisdom— David was popular, he had even been privately anointed to be the next king, and Saul had just thrown a spear at him. Yet David did nothing to take justice in his own hands. He remained calm and loyal. It is clear that David decided very early in the time after he was anointed that if he became king, it would have to be totally by the hand of God. He would do nothing to destroy the man that God had previously anointed king. Historically we can see what a very wise choice this was, but it must have been very difficult for David to choose the path of wisdom when he could have raised the power of the people to his side so easily. Go to Theological Notes Index

19:11 tomorrow you will be killed. The story of David's escape is alluded to in the title of Psalm 59.

19:12 Michal let David down through the window. Saul had imagined that Michal would be loyal to him and a snare to David. But she loved David, and her loyalty was to her husband.

20:5 tomorrow is the New Moon. The first day of the month, the New Moon, was observed as a religious festival (Nu 10:10; 28:11–15). It was celebrated with a sacrificial meal and rest from work.

20:6 yearly sacrifice. Apparently Jesse's family gathered for a special time of worship during the New Moon celebration.

20:16–17 Love— The love and loyalty displayed by Jonathan to David is unparalleled among human relationships in the Bible. He was a living example of the New Testament phrase, "not self-seeking" (1Co 13:5). In protecting David from the murderous plots of Saul, Jonathan was in reality closing the door to his own possible reign over Israel after his father's death. Jonathan knew this, but his faithfulness to David continued until his death on a battlefield (1Sa 31:2). Go to Theological Notes Index

20:16 May the LORD require it. Jonathan prayed that the Lord would hold David accountable to the obligations of the covenant.

20:30 to the shame of your mother's nakedness. This was a way of saying that Jonathan shamed his mother who conceived him by maintaining loyalty to David. It was a slur on Jonathan, and a slur on his mother.

20:31 Justice— If David had been taking matters into his own hands, and making moves to secure the kingdom for himself, perhaps Saul would have been justified in seeking David's life. But Saul could charge David with no wrongdoing. Saul was enraged at David, at Jonathan, and in rebellion against God. Because he was driven by anger, Saul could no longer see the injustice in his own thinking. Go to Theological Notes Index

21:1 Nob. Nob was a Levitical community in Benjamin where the tabernacle was located after it was in Shiloh. Ahimelech. Ahimelech, the great-grandson of Eli, was serving as high priest.

21:4 no ordinary (unconsecrated) bread. Ahimelech explained that the only bread available was holy bread, sometimes called the “showbread,” which had been displayed before the Lord in the tabernacle (Ex 25:30 ; Lev 24:5–9 ). According to God’s law, this bread could be eaten only by priests.

21:6 gave him the consecrated bread. This was the bread that had been displayed before the Lord for a week, and was removed for fresh bread. In giving the bread to David, Ahimelech broke the Law, yet in his compassion he kept the spirit of the Law. Jesus referred to this incident when He explained to the Pharisees that it was all right to pick grain to eat on the Sabbath (Mt 12:2–4 ).

21:7 detained before the LORD . Apparently Doeg, although he was not an Israelite, was at the tabernacle under a spiritual vow.

21:10 Achish . . . Gath. Achish ruled the city of Gath, one of the five major cities of the Philistines (6:17 ).

21:12–13 Achish king of Gath. These verses provide the background for Psalms 34 and 56 . In Psalm 34 Achish is referred to as Abimilech, which was apparently a dynastic title used by the Philistine rulers (Ge 26:1 ).

22:1 cave of Adullam. The cave near the city of Adullam was about ten miles southeast of Gath and sixteen miles southwest of Jerusalem. It was here that David composed Psalm 142 , and possibly Psalm 57 .

22:2 Everyone who was suffering hardship . . . debt. The men who gathered around David were not so much taking sides with him as escaping Saul. The sense of desolation in Psalm 142:4 reflects David’s feeling of being all alone. became captain over them. Nevertheless, David organized them, governed them, and made them into a loyal and obedient unit.

22:18 Doeg. Only Doeg, who was a descendant of Esau, but not an Israelite, was willing to kill the priests of the living God.

22:22 I have brought about the death. David felt responsible for the death of the priests and their families because he knew that he was jeopardizing them by receiving help from them. He knew Doeg would betray him, and he felt that he should have done something to prevent this or to warn the priests.

The Events of David’s Wanderings

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

23:14 Wilderness of Ziph. This barren region about four miles southeast of Hebron had many caves and ravines in which David and his men could hide.

23:16-18 encouraged him in God. Visiting David was risky, for Saul considered David his enemy. Jonathan was treading a narrow line between following his own convictions and obeying his father. He had a fervent love for God, and encouraged David to continue in his obedient walk with the Lord at a time when David must have been feeling very discouraged and alone.

23:17–18 Love— Love “rejoices with the truth” (1Co 13:6 ). Jonathan had the happy faculty of delighting in the Lord’s plan. He is never seen comparing his role with David’s role, but he continually encouraged David to live up to the great responsibility that God had given him. Jonathan was the kind of friend that we all need and seldom find. If we want to put love into action, we can look at Jonathan and rejoice with our friends over the great favor God has shown them, encourage them to remain faithful to their calling, and remind them that we will be “next to them,” if not in fact, then in prayer. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:19–29 Is David not hiding with us. The background for Psalm 54 is David’s narrow escape from being captured by Saul.

23:19 Jeshimon. Jeshimon is the barren wilderness of Judah.

24:3 sheepfolds. At night shepherds in the wild area would gather their sheep into a protective rock enclosure. A low stone wall would keep the sheep from wandering, and the shepherd would position himself at the entrance to keep guard. Often a cave with a wall built across its mouth served as a sheepfold.

24:10–12 Mercy— David does not say the words, “I forgive you,” in this passage, but he speaks as one who has forgiven Saul for his foolish and violent acts against himself. A big part of forgiving an unrepentant individual is deliberately putting the whole situation in God’s hands, knowing that it is only God who can judge rightly. God will vindicate the innocent, and punish the guilty, if necessary. Go to Theological Notes Index

24:12 my hand shall not be against you. David knew that the Lord had anointed him to be the king to succeed Saul, and Saul knew it too. Saul, probably thinking of how he himself would have responded, was sure that David would seize power and oust him with trickery and violence. David had to prove to Saul that he was not going to harm him, and the only way to do this was to turn down every opportunity he had to kill the king. It was God’s job, and His alone, to arrange the transfer of power from Saul to David.

24:22 David gave Saul his oath. David agreed to Saul’s requests, and he kept his promise (2Sa 9:1–13 ; 21:1–14 ), as Saul knew he would. However, David had no great confidence in the lasting value of Saul’s expressions of remorse, so David remained in hiding.

25:2 Maon. Located in the Judean hill country, Maon was about eight miles south of Hebron. Carmel. Carmel was located on the edge of the Judean wilderness, about a mile north of Maon. shearing his sheep. Like the times of harvest, sheep shearing was a festive occasion.

25:21 repaid me evil for good. Saul had returned David evil for good, and David refrained from retaliation. But Nabal’s insult did not meet with such forbearance. David’s fierce response is actually a response of the natural man, and as such gives an even better understanding of the force of David’s commitment to restrain his natural response to Saul for the sake of his Lord.

25:29 bound in the [precious] bundle of the living with the LORD your God. This metaphor reflects the custom of binding valuables in a bundle to protect them from injury. The point here is that God cares for His own as a man cares for his valuable treasure.

25:30–31 Prudence— Abigail’s courageous and gracious intervention saved not only her own household, but all that David had worked so hard to maintain during the years he was a fugitive. It takes more strength of character to restrain oneself than to lash out and return sting for sting. But the bitterness of grief that follows a vicious tongue or a vicious deed is a far heavier burden than suffering an injustice. Go to Theological Notes Index

25:33 blessed be your discretion and discernment, and blessed be you. David responds to the wisdom of Abigail’s entreaty, and he also shows that he knows she came to him without regard to personal risk. Abigail laid out the facts and David responded to her godly counsel because he was accustomed to listening to the Lord, and recognized that she was representing God’s point of view.

25:39 the Lord has returned the wickedness. David was very thankful that the Lord had kept him from taking revenge on Nabal, for that would have been evil. But David was also thankful that the Lord, in His justice, had seen fit to punish Nabal. For David this would have been a reminder of his situation with Saul. David was not to touch the Lord's anointed, and the Lord would indeed at some point deal with Saul for trying to take David's life.

26:2 Ziph. Ziph was four miles southeast of Hebron, which would have been about 4 or 5 miles from Maon, where Nabal lived.

26:6 Abishai. Abishai was David's nephew (1Ch 2:16 ).

26:10 the LORD will strike him [in His own time and way], or . . . he will die. David had just been reminded that the Lord could and would deal with his enemies, which strengthened him for his next encounter with Saul. David had not trusted in the value of Saul's expressions of remorse, but it must have been discouraging even so, to be faced with the same relentless pursuit, the same dogged determination to kill him, even though David repeatedly said he would not stretch out his hand against Saul, the king who had been anointed by God.

26:19 If the LORD has incited you. David knew that God could bring adverse events into someone's life to turn him to the Lord. If Saul was pursuing David because God wanted him to, God would accept a sin offering from David. But if men had stirred up Saul to kill David, that would be wicked injustice. In that case, David had no hesitation in asking God to curse them. For in driving David out of his homeland, he was effectively cut off from the inheritance of the Lord, which would include the land, the blessings on the land and people, and the special ways God had ordained for worship and sacrifice.

26:20 partridge. A partridge was known to flee for safety by running rather than fighting. David was reminding Saul that he was not fighting against the king.

26:23 Righteousness— One mark of a righteous person is that he can walk away from a situation where he has a golden chance to get in the last kick. And as he walks away, he says, “Father, forgive him, for he does not know what he is doing.” David never lost sight of the fact that this business of being king was God's plan, not his own. Go to Theological Notes Index

27:5 let me be given a place [of my own] in one of the cities. David was probably wanting more independence of movement in his own city and freedom from daily involvement with Achish's household and religious practices. This request was also a good way to find out how much Achish trusted him. If Achish was willing for David to live independently, he was not likely to be treating David as a spy or enemy.

27:10 the Negev (the South country) of Judah. The Negev was a dry pastoral region, south of Hebron.

27:12 he will always be my servant. It seems that David was double dealing with Achish in a way that was dishonest, and indeed he was. But Achish was not David's friend. He was the sworn enemy of David's people and all that David held dear. Achish intended to use David's military expertise for his own ends. This account does not say what God, whose very character is truth, thought about David's strategy. It is clear that God continued to protect and bless David during this very vulnerable time, and the raiding that David had done was continuing the commission the Lord had given the Israelites when they first came into the land.

28:2 you shall know what your servant can do. In this case, David is purposely ambiguous. He states that his prowess is well known, without saying that he commits this skill to Achish. David could not refuse Achish's offer without risking his life. He trusted the Lord to rescue him from this compromising situation.

28:3 Samuel had died. No one could go to Samuel for advice or direction from the Lord. mediums and the spiritists. The term “mediums” refers to necromancers, those who presume to communicate with the dead. “Spiritists” is a general term for those who have contact with spirits. In keeping with God's law, persons associated with necromancy and spiritism had been expelled from the land (Ex 22:18 ; Lev 19:31 ; Dt 18:9–14 ).

28:6 Saul inquired of the LORD. It sounds as if Saul was desperate to hear from the Lord. But he had never said, “Whatever You want, Lord, I will do it.” Saul knew that he had been rejected by God as king, and if he wanted to repent, Saul could have admitted to God that he was not fit to be king, and asked God to turn the kingdom over to the man of His choice. But Saul wanted to be king, and to hear from God, and have David ejected, and have the Philistines leave him alone, none of which was possible for a man who had decided to deliberately disobey the Lord.

28:7–11 Unfaithfulness— It started with disobeying God’s directions about fighting with the Amalekites, and it ended with a witch. Saul apparently never saw himself as a rebel. He knew that the Lord had rejected him, but he thought that it was unjust. Rejecting God is the beginning of a downward spiral, and finally the man who had hounded the mediums from the land was asking a witch for guidance because he had no hope of hearing from God. Go to Theological Notes Index

28:10 Saul swore [an oath] to her by the LORD. While engaging in a practice that was essentially a denial of God’s control of everything, Saul swore in God’s name that he would protect the woman.

28:12 When the woman saw Samuel. The appearance of Samuel has been interpreted in various ways. Some think that a demon impersonated Samuel, and others think that Saul was tricked into believing it was Samuel. It seems best to follow the early view that this was a genuine appearance of Samuel, which God Himself brought about. Several points favor this interpretation. The medium herself was surprised and frightened by his appearance. Saul identified the figure as Samuel. The message Samuel spoke was clearly from God. The text says the figure was Samuel. There is no inherent difficulty with God bringing back the spirit of Samuel from heaven and allowing him to appear to Saul—in spite of the woman’s evil profession.

28:19 with me. The words “with me” refer to the grave. This text is not intended to provide a final answer concerning Saul’s spiritual status. At the very least, it does indicate the reality of life after death.

29:6 you have been upright. David had not been honest with Achish, but he had not turned his hand against Achish personally.

29:7 return. This was the God-orchestrated escape from a compromising situation that David was confident God would provide. go in peace. This farewell was more than a courtesy. Achish was releasing David from any further obligation that he had incurred when Achish had made David his vassal in Ziklag.

29:9–10 Prudence— Achish saw David as an angel of God. There must have been something in the way that David conducted himself that showed even a pagan Philistine that David belonged to the God of Israel, and that this was a good place to be. David was being very careful in how he dealt with the Philistine. He could not endanger the people who depended on him, nor be unfaithful to his Lord. Only God can help us when we have to live in such a difficult situation. Go to Theological Notes Index

30:1 Amalekites. The Amalekites were a nomadic people who roamed the dry land south of the hill country. For their attack on the Israelites after the exodus from Egypt (Ex 17:8–13), they were placed under divine judgment (Dt 25:19).

30:7 ephod. The Urim and Thummim were attached to the ephod. The Lord could be consulted by the means of the Urim and Thummim, but the Bible does not say how this worked.

30:10 too exhausted. The weariness of David’s men was due to the fact that they had traveled about 80 miles from Aphek to Ziklag (29:1 ; 30:1), only to set off immediately in pursuit of the Amalekites.

30:26 sent part of the spoil to the elders of Judah. This goodwill gesture helped David reestablish his relationships among the leaders of Judah after his stay in Philistine territory.

30:31 Hebron. Hebron was a Levitical city, and a city of refuge, and it was soon to become David’s capital (2Sa 5:3).

31:2 Saul and his sons. Saul’s fourth son, Ishbosheth, was apparently not present at this battle, since Abner promoted him to king after Saul’s death (2Sa 2:8–10).

31:6 all his men. This does not refer to the whole army, but rather to men who were particularly associated with Saul, such as his royal body guards.

31:11 inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead. The inhabitants of this town had been delivered from the threats of Nahash the Ammonite by Saul in his first military campaign as king of Israel (11:1–11 ).

[31:13 and fasted \[as a sign of mourning and respect\] for seven days.](#) In ancient Israel, fasting was a way of expressing sorrow in mourning. With their fasting, the men of Jabesh showed their respect for Israel's first king.

The Second Book of Samuel

- AUTHOR: No author is mentioned anywhere in this book. Although the traditional view is that Samuel wrote 2 Samuel, it was probably compiled by one man who combined the written chronicles of “Nathan the prophet” and “Gad the seer” (1Ch 29:29 ). In addition to these written sources, the compiler evidently used another source called the “Book of Jashar” (1:18 ).
- TIMES: c. 1011–971 BC
- KEY VERSES: 2Sa 7:12–13
- THEME: Second Samuel begins with Saul’s death and David’s ascension to the throne of Judah. A few years later he becomes the king of all of Israel. During his reign there were many problems, most of which can be traced back to David’s own behavior. He abuses power and plays favorites with his sons. The result is much personal sorrow and the seeds of discord that follow in succeeding generations. Second Samuel gives us a full picture of a king, a poet, a soldier, and a sinner who yearns after God’s own heart and follows where He leads.

David Learns of Saul's Death

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, that he stayed two days in Ziklag. ‡

<sup>2</sup> On the third day a man came [unexpectedly] from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dust on his head [as in mourning]. When he came to David, he bowed to the ground and lay himself face down [in an act of great respect and submission]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then David asked him, "Where do you come from?" He said, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

<sup>4</sup> David said to him, "How did it go? Please tell me." He answered, "The people have fled from the battle. Also, many of the people have fallen and are dead; Saul and Jonathan his son are also dead."

<sup>5</sup> So David said to the young man who informed him, "How do you know Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

<sup>6</sup> And the young man who told him explained, "By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and there was Saul leaning on his spear, and the chariots and horsemen [of the Philistines] were close behind him. ‡

<sup>7</sup> "When he turned to look behind him, he saw me, and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'

<sup>8</sup> "He asked me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

<sup>9</sup> "He said to me, 'Stand up facing me and kill me, for [terrible] agony has come over me, yet I still live [and I will be taken alive].'

<sup>10</sup> "So I stood facing him and killed him, because I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. Then I took the crown which was on his head and the band which was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord." [1 Sam 31:4.] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then David grasped his own clothes and tore them [in mourning]; so did all the men who were with him. ‡

<sup>12</sup> They mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and Jonathan his son, and for the LORD's people and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword [in battle].

<sup>13</sup> David said to the young man who informed him, "Where are you from?" He answered, "I am the son of a foreigner (resident alien, sojourner), an

<sup>14</sup>David said to him, “How is it that you were not afraid to put out your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?” ‡

<sup>15</sup>David called one of the young men and said, “Go, execute him.” So he struck the Amalekite and he died. ‡

David’s Dirge for Saul and Jonathan

<sup>17</sup> Then David sang this dirge (funeral song) over Saul and his son Jonathan,

How the mighty have fallen!

Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon,
Or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice,
The daughters of the uncircumcised (pagans) will exult.

Let not dew or rain be upon you, nor fields with offerings;
For there the shield of the mighty was defiled,
The shield of Saul, [dry, cracked] not anointed with oil.

<sup>22</sup> “From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, ‡
The bow of Jonathan did not turn back,
And the sword of Saul did not return empty.

And in their death they were not separated;
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.

Who clothed you luxuriously in scarlet,
Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

<sup>25</sup> “How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan lies slain upon your high places.

You have been a good friend to me.
Your love toward me was more wonderful
Than the love of women.

And the weapons of war have perished!”

2 Samuel 2

David Made King over Judah

<sup>1</sup> SO IT happened after this that David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah?” And the LORD said to him, “Go up.” David asked, “Where shall I go?” And He said, “To Hebron.” ‡

Then they told David, “It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul.”
 [1 Sam 31:11–13 ]

<sup>5</sup> So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, “May you be blessed by the LORD because you showed this graciousness and loyalty to Saul your lord (king), and buried him. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “Now may the LORD show lovingkindness and truth and faithfulness to you. I too will show this goodness to you, because you have done this thing. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “So now, let your hands be strong and be valiant; for your lord Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

Ish-bosheth Made King over Israel

<sup>8</sup> Now [Saul’s cousin] Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul’s army, had taken Ish-bosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim. ‡

Ephraim, over Benjamin, even over all Israel [except Judah].

<sup>10</sup> Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned for two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

<sup>11</sup> And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months. ‡

Civil War

<sup>12</sup> Now Abner the son of Ner and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Joab [David's nephew] the son of Zeruiah and the servants of David also went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. They sat down, with one group on one side of the pool and the other group on the other side of the pool. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men now stand and have a contest before us." And Joab said, "Let them stand."

<sup>15</sup> So they stood up and went over by number, twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

<sup>16</sup> Each one of them seized his opponent by the head and thrust his sword into his opponents side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim [that is, the Field of Sides], which is in Gibeon.

<sup>17</sup> There was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

<sup>22</sup> Abner repeated again, "Turn away from following me. Why should I have to strike you to the ground? How would I be able to face Joab your brother [and look him in the eye]?"

<sup>23</sup> But Asahel refused to turn away; so Abner struck him in the abdomen with the butt end of his spear, and the spear came out his back; and he fell there and died on that spot. And it came about that everyone who came to the place where Asahel fell and died, stood still [and reflected]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> But Joab and Abishai [Asahel's brothers] pursued Abner. When the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is in front of Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

<sup>25</sup> And the sons of [the tribe of] Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became one troop, and took their stand on the top of a hill.

<sup>26</sup> Then Abner called to Joab, "Must the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? How long [will it be] before you tell the people to stop pursuing their brothers?"

<sup>27</sup> Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, then the people certainly would have stopped pursuing their brothers in the morning." ‡

<sup>28</sup> So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people halted and no longer pursued Israel, nor did they fight anymore.

<sup>29</sup> Then Abner and his men went through the Arabah (desert region) all that night, crossed the Jordan, went through Bithron and walked the whole morning and came to Mahanaim [where Ish-bosheth ruled Israel].

<sup>30</sup> Joab returned from pursuing Abner; and when he had gathered all the people together, nineteen of David's servants were missing, besides Asahel.

<sup>31</sup> But the servants of David had struck down many of Benjamin and Abner's men; so that three hundred and sixty men died.

<sup>32</sup> And they picked up [the body of] Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father in Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men walked all night and they arrived in Hebron at daybreak.

2 Samuel 3

The House of David Strengthened

<sup>1</sup> THERE WAS a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; but David grew steadily stronger, while the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker [to the point of being powerless].

Abner Joins David

<sup>7</sup> Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah the daughter of Aiah; and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?" ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then Abner was very angry at the words of Ish-bosheth, and he said, "Am I a dog's head [a despicable traitor] that belongs to Judah? Today I show loyalty and kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and his friends, by not having you handed over to David; and yet you charge me today with guilt concerning this woman. ‡

<sup>9</sup> "May God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David just as the LORD has sworn to him, ‡

<sup>11</sup> And Ish-bosheth could not say another word to Abner, because he was afraid of him.

<sup>12</sup> Then Abner sent messengers to David [who was] in his place [at Hebron], saying, "Whose is the land? Make your covenant (treaty) with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel over to you."

<sup>13</sup> David said, "Good! I will make a covenant (treaty) with you, but I require one thing of you: you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see me." ‡

<sup>17</sup> Abner talked with the elders (tribal leaders) of Israel, saying, “In times past you were seeking for David to be king over you.

<sup>18</sup> “Now then, do it [and make him king]! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies.’ ” [1 Sam 9:16.]‡

<sup>19</sup> Abner also spoke to [the men of] Benjamin. Then he also went to tell David at Hebron everything that seemed good to Israel and to the entire house of Benjamin.‡

<sup>20</sup> So Abner came to David at Hebron, and [brought] twenty men along with him. And David prepared a feast for Abner and the men with him.

<sup>21</sup> Abner said to David, “Let me stand up and go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant (treaty) with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.‡

<sup>22</sup> Then the servants of David came with Joab from a raid and brought a great quantity of spoil with them; but Abner was not with David at Hebron, because David had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

<sup>23</sup> When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, they told Joab, “Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you; why did you send him away, so that he is already gone?”

<sup>25</sup> “You know Abner the son of Ner, that he [only] came to deceive you [with flattering words] and to learn of your going out and coming in, and to find out what you are doing.”‡

Joab Murders Abner

<sup>27</sup> So when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside to the middle of the gate to speak to him privately, and there he struck Abner in the abdomen so that he died, to avenge the blood of Asahel, Joab’s brother.‡

<sup>28</sup> Afterward, when David heard of it, he said, “I and my kingdom are forever innocent before the LORD of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.”

<sup>29</sup> “Let the guilt fall on the head of Joab and on all his father’s house (family); and may there never disappear from the house of Joab one who suffers with a discharge or one who is a leper or one who walks with a crutch [being unfit for war], or one who falls by the sword, or one who lacks food.” ‡

David Mourns Abner

<sup>32</sup> They buried Abner in Hebron; and the king raised his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

“Should Abner [the great warrior] die as a fool dies?

<sup>34</sup> “Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put in fetters;
As a man falls before the wicked, so you have fallen.”

And all the people wept again over him.

<sup>35</sup> All the people came to urge David to eat food while it was still day; but David took an oath, saying, “May God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun sets.” ‡

<sup>36</sup> And all the people took notice of it and it pleased them, just as everything that the king did pleased all the people.

<sup>37</sup> So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the will of the king to put Abner the son of Ner to death.

<sup>38</sup> Then the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?

2 Samuel 4

Ish-bosheth Murdered

<sup>1</sup> WHEN SAUL'S son Ish-bosheth [king of Israel], heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel was horrified. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Saul's son had two men who were commanders of [raiding] bands [of soldiers]. One was named Baanah and the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite of the sons (tribe) of Benjamin (for Beeroth is also considered part of [the tribe of] Benjamin, ‡

<sup>3</sup> and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have been resident aliens there to this day). ‡

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son whose feet were crippled. He was five years old when the news [of the deaths] of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. And the boy's nurse picked him up and fled; but it happened that while she was hurrying to flee, he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth. ‡

<sup>6</sup> They came into the interior of the house as if to get wheat [for the soldiers], and they struck him in the stomach. Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped [unnoticed]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now when they entered the house he was lying on his bed in his bedroom. They [not only] struck and killed him, [but] they also beheaded him. Then they took his head and traveled all night by way of the Arabah.

<sup>8</sup> They brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, “Look, the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; thus the LORD has granted my lord the king vengeance this day on Saul and on his descendants.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> David replied to Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every adversity, ‡

<sup>10</sup> when a man told me, ‘Behold, Saul is dead,’ thinking that he was bringing good news, I seized and killed him in Ziklag, to reward him for his news. ‡

<sup>12</sup> So David commanded his young men, and they killed them and cut off their hands and feet and hung them beside the pool in Hebron. But they took Ish-bosheth's head and buried it in Hebron in the tomb of Abner [his relative]. ‡

2 Samuel 5

David King over All Israel

<sup>1</sup> THEN ALL the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> “In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led Israel out [to war] and brought Israel in [from battle]. And the LORD told you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel and be ruler over them.’ ”  [1 Sam 15:27–29; 16:1] ‡

<sup>5</sup> In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then David said on that day, “Whoever strikes the Jebusites, let him go up through the [underground] water shaft to strike the lame and the blind, who are detested by David’s soul [because of their arrogance].” So [for that reason] they say, “The blind or the lame (Jebusites) shall not come into the [royal] house [of Israel].”  [1 Chr 11:6] ‡

<sup>12</sup> And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for His people Israel's sake.

War with the Philistines

<sup>17</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to look for him, but he heard about it and went down to the stronghold. ‡

<sup>19</sup> David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You hand them over to me?” And the LORD said to David, “Go up, for I will certainly hand them over to you.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> So David came to Baal-perazim, and he defeated them there, and said, “The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water.” So he named that place Baal-perazim (master of breakthroughs). ‡

<sup>24</sup> “And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall pay attention and act promptly, for at that time the LORD will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> David did just as the LORD had commanded him, and struck down the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer. ‡

2 Samuel 6

Peril in Moving the Ark

<sup>2</sup>-And David arose and went with all those who were with him to Baale-judah [Kiriath-jearim], to bring up from there [to Jerusalem] the ark of God which is called by the Name—the very Name of the LORD of hosts, who dwells enthroned above the cherubim. ‡

<sup>3</sup> They placed the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart.

<sup>5</sup> Meanwhile, David and all the house of Israel were celebrating and dancing before the LORD with all kinds of instruments made of fir or cypress wood, with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets, and cymbals.

<sup>6</sup> When they came to Nacon's threshing floor, Uzzah reached out [with his hand] to the ark of God and took hold of it, because the oxen [stumbled and] nearly overturned it.

<sup>7</sup>-And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his irreverence; and he died there by the ark of God. ‡

<sup>8</sup> David became angry and grieved and offended because of the LORD's outburst against Uzzah, and that place has been called Perez-uzzah (outburst against Uzzah) to this day.

<sup>9</sup> So David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?" ‡

<sup>11</sup> So the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite for three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household (family). ‡

The Ark Is Brought to Jerusalem

<sup>12</sup> Now King David was told, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the City of

David with rejoicing and gladness. ‡

<sup>13</sup> And when those who were carrying the ark of the LORD [by its poles] had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then, as the ark of the LORD came into the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter [David's wife], looked down from the window above and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she felt contempt for him in her heart [because she thought him undignified].

<sup>19</sup> and distributed to all the people, the entire multitude of Israel, both to men and women, to each a [ring-shaped] loaf of bread, a cake of dates, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people departed, each to his house. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then David returned to bless his household. But [his wife] Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, "How glorious and distinguished was the king of Israel today, who uncovered himself and stripped [off his kingly robes] in the eyes of his servants' maids like one of the riffraff who shamelessly uncovers himself!" ‡

<sup>21</sup> So David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD [that I did this], who chose me above your father and all his house, to appoint me as ruler over Israel, the people of the LORD. Therefore I will celebrate [in pure enjoyment] before the LORD. ‡

<sup>22</sup> "Yet I will demean myself even more than this, and will be humbled (abased) in my own sight [and yours, as I please], but by the maids whom you mentioned, by them I shall be held in honor."

2 Samuel 7

David Plans to Build a Temple

<sup>3</sup> And Nathan said to the king, “Go, do everything that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you.”

<sup>4</sup>-But it happened that night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

<sup>5</sup> “Go and tell My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Should you be the one to build Me a house in which to dwell? ‡

<sup>6</sup> “For I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought the sons (descendants) of Israel up from Egypt, even to this day; but I have been moving about in a tent, even in a tabernacle. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Wherever I have gone with all the Israelites, did I speak a word to any from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, asking, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ” ’ ‡

God’s Covenant with David

<sup>8</sup> “So now, say this to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a great name, like that of the great men of the earth. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “I will appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in a place of their own and not be disturbed again. The wicked will not afflict them again, as formerly, ‡

<sup>11</sup> even from the day that I appointed judges over My people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also declares to you that He will make a house (royal dynasty) for you. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “When your days are fulfilled and you lie down [in death] with your fathers (ancestors), I will raise up your descendant after you, who shall be born to you, and I will establish his kingdom. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “He [is the one who] shall build a house for My Name and My Presence, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. When he commits iniquity

(wrongdoing), I will discipline him with the rod of men and with the strokes of the sons of man. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “But My lovingkindness and mercy will not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Your house (royal dynasty) and your kingdom will endure forever before Me; your throne will be established forever.” ’ ” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Nathan spoke to David in accordance with all these words and all of this vision.

David’s Prayer

<sup>18</sup> Then King David went in and sat [in prayer] before the LORD, and said, “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house (family), that You have brought me this far? ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Yet this was very insignificant in Your eyes, O Lord GOD, for You have spoken also of Your servant’s house (royal dynasty) in the distant future. And this is the law and custom of man, O Lord GOD. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “What more can David say to You? For You know (acknowledge, choose) Your servant, O Lord GOD. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Because of Your word (promise), and in accordance with Your own heart, You have done all these great and astounding things to let Your servant know (understand).

<sup>22</sup> “Therefore You are great, O Lord GOD; for there is none like You, and there is no God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “What one nation on earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people and to make a name for Himself, and to do great and awesome things for Yourself and for Your land, before Your people whom You have redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, from nations and their gods? ‡

<sup>24</sup> “You established for Yourself Your people Israel as Your people forever, and You, O LORD, have become their God. ‡

<sup>25</sup> “Now, O LORD God, confirm forever the word [of the covenant] that You have spoken in regard to Your servant and his house (royal dynasty); and do just as You have spoken,

<sup>26</sup> so that Your Name may be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts (armies) is God over Israel;’ and may the house (royal dynasty) of Your servant David be established before You.

27 “For You, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house (royal dynasty).’ For that reason Your servant has found courage to pray this prayer to You.

28 “And now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are truth, and You have promised this good thing to Your servant.” ‡

29 “Therefore now, may it please You to bless the house (royal dynasty) of Your servant, so that it may continue forever before You; for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken it, and with Your blessing may the house of Your servant be blessed forever.” ‡

2 Samuel 8

David’s Triumphs

1 NOW IT came about after this that David defeated the Philistines and subdued (humbled) them, and he took control of Metheg-ammah [the main city] from the hand of the Philistines.

2- He defeated Moab, and measured them with a length of rope, making them lie down on the ground; he measured two lengths to [choose those to] put to death, and one full length to [choose those to] be kept alive. And the [surviving] Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute. ‡

3 Then David defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power at the River [Euphrates]. ‡

4- David captured from him 1,700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers. David also hamstrung all the chariot horses (making them lame), but reserved enough of them for a hundred chariots. ‡

5- When the Arameans (Syrians) of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 Arameans. ‡

6 Then David put garrisons among the Arameans in Damascus, and the Arameans became his servants and brought tribute. The LORD helped David wherever he went. ‡

7 David took the shields of gold that were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ‡

8- And from Betah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took an immense quantity of bronze.

9 When Toi king of Hamath heard about David’s defeat of all the forces of Hadadezer,

<sup>11</sup> King David also dedicated these [gifts] to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he subdued: ‡

<sup>12</sup> from Aram (Syria), Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

<sup>13</sup> So David made a name for himself when he returned from killing 18,000 Arameans (Syrians) in the Valley of Salt. ‡

<sup>14</sup> He put garrisons in Edom; in all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD helped him wherever he went. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So David reigned over all Israel, and continued to administer justice and righteousness for all his people.

<sup>16</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiyah was [commander] over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder (secretary); ‡

<sup>18</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was [head] over both the Cherethites and Pelethites [the king's bodyguards]; and David's sons were chief [confidential] advisers (officials) [to the king].  [1 Chr 18:17 ] ‡

2 Samuel 9

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

<sup>2</sup> There was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, so they called him to David. And the king said to him, “Are you Ziba?” He said, “I am your servant.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> And the king said, “Is there no longer anyone left of the house (family) of Saul to whom I may show the goodness and graciousness of God?” Ziba replied to the king, “There is still a son of Jonathan, [one] whose feet are crippled.”  [1 Sam 20:14–17 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> So the king said to him, “Where is he?” And Ziba replied to the king, “He is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then King David sent word and had him brought from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

<sup>6</sup> Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David and fell face down and lay himself down [in respect]. David said, “Mephibosheth.” And he answered, “Here is your servant!”

<sup>7</sup> David said to him, “Do not be afraid, for I will certainly show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan, and will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul; and you shall always eat at my table.”

<sup>8</sup> Again Mephibosheth lay himself face down and said, “What is your servant, that you would be concerned for a dead dog like me?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul’s servant, and said to him, “I have given your master’s grandson everything that belonged to Saul and to all his house (family). ‡

<sup>10</sup> “You and your sons and your servants shall cultivate the land for him, and you shall bring in the produce, so that your master’s grandson may have food to eat; but Mephibosheth, your master’s grandson, shall always eat at my table.” Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then Ziba said to the king, “Your servant will do according to everything that my lord the king commands.” So Mephibosheth ate at David’s table as one of the king’s sons.

<sup>12</sup> Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. And all who lived in Ziba’s house were servants to Mephibosheth. ‡

<sup>13</sup> So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he always ate at the king’s table. And he was lame in both feet. ‡

2 Samuel 10

Ammon and Aram Defeated

<sup>2</sup> Then David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, just as his father did to me.” So David sent [a letter along with] some of his servants to console him in regard to his father’s death; and David’s servants came into the land of the Ammonites.

their lord, “Do you think that David is honoring your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not sent his servants to you in order to search the city, to spy it out and overthrow it?”

<sup>5</sup> When David was informed, he sent [messengers] to meet them [before they reached Jerusalem], for the men were greatly ashamed and humiliated. And the king said, “Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and then return.”

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites saw that they had become an object of hatred to David, they sent word and hired the Arameans (Syrians) of Beth-rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, 20,000 foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with 1,000 men, and the men of Tob with 12,000 men [to fight for them]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Now when Joab saw that the battlefield was against him in front and in the rear, he selected some of all the choice men in Israel and set them in battle formation to meet the Arameans (Syrians).

<sup>10</sup> But he placed the rest of the men in the hand of his brother Abishai, and he placed them in battle formation to meet the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> Joab said [to Abishai], “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will come to help you.

<sup>12</sup> “Be courageous, and let us show ourselves courageous for the benefit of our people and the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So Joab and the people who were with him approached the battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him.

<sup>14</sup> When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled before Abishai and entered the city. So Joab returned from battling against the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> Hadadezer sent word and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the River [Euphrates]; and they came to Helam; and Shobach the commander of the army of Hadadezer led them.

<sup>17</sup> When David was informed, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. Then the Arameans assembled in battle formation to meet David and fought against him.

<sup>18</sup> But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed 700 Aramean charioteers and 40,000 horsemen, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there.

<sup>19</sup> When all the kings serving Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Arameans (Syrians) were afraid to help the Ammonites anymore. ‡

2 Samuel 11

Bathsheba, David's Great Sin

<sup>1</sup> THEN IT happened in the spring, at the time when the kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all [the fighting men of] Israel, and they destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then David sent word to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David.

<sup>7</sup> When Uriah came to him, David asked him how Joab was, how the people were doing, and how the war was progressing.

to Uriah, “Have you not [just] come from a [long] journey? Why did you not go to your house?”

<sup>11</sup> Uriah said to David, “The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in huts (temporary shelters), and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Should I go to my house to eat and drink and lie with my wife? By your life and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then David said to Uriah, “Stay here today as well, and tomorrow I will let you leave.” So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

<sup>13</sup> Now David called him [to dinner], and he ate and drank with him, so that he made Uriah drunk; in the evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, and [still] did not go down to his house. ‡

<sup>15</sup> He wrote in the letter, “Put Uriah in the front line of the heaviest fighting and leave him, so that he may be struck down and die.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> So it happened that as Joab was besieging the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew the [enemy’s] valiant men were positioned .

<sup>17</sup> And the men of the city came out and fought against Joab, and some of the people among the servants of David fell; Uriah the Hittite also died.

<sup>18</sup> Then Joab sent word and informed David of all the events of the war.

<sup>19</sup> And he commanded the messenger, “When you have finished reporting all the events of the war to the king,

<sup>20</sup> then if the king becomes angry and he says to you, ‘Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot [arrows] from the wall?’

<sup>21</sup> ‘Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth (Gideon)? Was it not a woman who threw an upper millstone on him from the wall so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?’ Then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.’ ”  [Judg 9:35, 53 ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> So the messenger left, and he came and told David everything that Joab had sent him to report .

<sup>23</sup> The messenger said to David, “The men indeed prevailed against us and came out to us in the field, but we were on them and pushed them as far as the entrance of the [city] gate.

<sup>24</sup> “Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall. Some of the king’s servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.”

<sup>25</sup> Then David said to the messenger, “Tell Joab this, ‘Do not let this thing disturb you, for the sword devours one [side] as well as another. Strengthen your battle against the city and overthrow it'; and so encourage Joab."

<sup>26</sup> When Uriah's wife [Bathsheba] heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

<sup>27</sup> And when the time of mourning was past, David sent word and had her brought to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done [with Bathsheba] was evil in the sight of the LORD.‡

2 Samuel 12

Nathan Rebukes David

<sup>1</sup> AND THE LORD sent Nathan [the prophet] to David. He came and said to him,‡

"There were two men in a city, one rich and the other poor.

<sup>2</sup> "The rich man had a very large number of flocks and herds,

Which he had purchased and nourished;

And it grew up together with him and his children.

It ate his food, drank from his cup, it lay in his arms,

And was like a daughter to him.

<sup>4</sup> "Now a traveler (visitor) came to the rich man,

And to avoid taking one from his own flock or herd

To prepare [a meal] for the traveler who had come to him,

He took the poor man's ewe lamb and prepared it for his guest."

<sup>5</sup> Then David's anger burned intensely against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die.

<sup>6</sup> "He shall make restitution for the ewe lamb four times as much [as the lamb was worth], because he did this thing and had no compassion."‡

<sup>7</sup> Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I anointed you as king over Israel, and I spared you from the hand of Saul.'‡

<sup>8</sup> 'I also gave you your master's house, and put your master's wives into your care and under your protection, and I gave you the house (royal dynasty) of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have given you much more!

<sup>9</sup> ‘Why have you despised the word of the LORD by doing evil in His sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife to be your wife. You have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.  [Lev 20:10; 24:17 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘Now, therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.’ ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will stir up evil against you from your own household; and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your companion, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight.’ ‡

<sup>13</sup> David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.” And Nathan said to David, “The LORD also has allowed your sin to pass [without further punishment]; you shall not die.  [Ps 51 ] ‡

Loss of a Child

And the LORD struck the child that Uriah’s widow bore to David, and he was very sick.

<sup>16</sup> David therefore appealed to God for the child [to be healed]; and David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground. ‡

<sup>17</sup> The elders of his household stood by him [in the night] to lift him up from the ground, but he was unwilling [to get up] and would not eat food with them.

<sup>18</sup> Then it happened on the seventh day that the child died. David’s servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, “While the child was still alive, we spoke to him and he would not listen to our voices. How then can we tell him the child is dead, since he might harm himself [or us]?”

<sup>19</sup> But when David saw that his servants were whispering to one another, he realized that the child was dead. So David said to them, “Is the child dead?” And they said, “He is dead.”

<sup>20</sup> Then David got up from the ground, washed, anointed himself [with olive oil], changed his clothes, and went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he came [back] to his own house, and when he asked, they set food before him and he ate. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Then his servants said to him, “What is this thing that you have done? While the child was alive you fasted and wept, but when the child died, you got up and ate food.”

<sup>22</sup> David said, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I thought, ‘Who knows, the LORD may be gracious to me and the child may live.’ ‡

<sup>23</sup> “But now he is dead; why should I [continue to] fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him [when I die], but he will not return to me.” ‡

Solomon Born

<sup>25</sup> and He sent word through Nathan the prophet, and he named him Jedidiah (beloved of the LORD) for the sake of the LORD [who loved the child].

War Again

<sup>27</sup> Joab sent messengers to David and said, “I have fought against Rabbah; I have even taken the city of waters.

<sup>28</sup> “So now, assemble the rest of the men, and camp against the city and capture it, or I will take the city myself, and it will be named after me.”

<sup>29</sup> So David gathered all the men together and went to Rabbah, then fought against it and captured it.

<sup>30</sup> And he took the crown of their king from his head; it weighed a talent of gold, and [set in it was] a precious stone; and it was placed on David’s head. And he brought the spoil out of the city in great amounts. ‡

<sup>31</sup> He also brought out the people who were there, and put them to [work with] the saws and sharp iron instruments and iron axes, and made them work at the brickkiln. And he did this to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all the men returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13

Amnon and Tamar

<sup>1</sup> IT HAPPENED afterwards that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and Amnon [her half brother] the son of David was in love with her. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Amnon was so frustrated because of his [half-] sister Tamar that he made himself sick, for she was a virgin, and Amnon thought it impossible for him to do anything to her.

<sup>3</sup> But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very shrewd (cunning) man. ‡

<sup>4</sup> He said to Amnon, “Why are you, the king's son, so depressed morning after morning? Will you not tell me?” And Amnon said to him, “I am in love with Tamar, my [half-] brother Absalom's sister.”

<sup>5</sup> Jonadab said to him, “Go to bed and pretend you are sick; and when your father [David] comes to see you, say to him, ‘Just let my sister Tamar come and serve me food, and let her prepare it in my sight, so that I may see it and eat it from her hand.’”

<sup>6</sup> So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, “Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then David sent word to the house for Tamar, saying, “Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare some food for him.”

<sup>8</sup> So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, and he was in bed. And she took dough and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked them.

<sup>9</sup> She took the pan and dished them out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, “Have everyone leave me.” So everyone left him [except Tamar]. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food into the bedroom, so that I may eat from your hand.” So Tamar took the cakes she had made and brought them into the bedroom to her [half-] brother Amnon.

<sup>11</sup> When she brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said, “Come, lie with me, my sister.” ‡

done in Israel; do not do this disgraceful thing!  [Gen 34:7 ] ‡

<sup>13</sup> “As for me, how could I get rid of my shame and disgrace? And you, you will be considered one of the fools in Israel. So now, just speak to the king [about taking me as your wife], for he will not withhold me from you.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> But he would not listen to her; and since he was stronger than she, he violated her and lay with her. ‡

<sup>16</sup> But she said, “No, because this wrong of sending me away is worse than the other that you have done to me!” But he would not listen to her.

<sup>17</sup> Instead, he called his young man who was his personal servant and said, “Now throw this woman out of my presence and bolt the door behind her.”

<sup>20</sup> So her brother Absalom said to her, “Has your brother Amnon been with you? But now keep silent, my sister; he is your brother; do not take this matter to heart.” So Tamar remained secluded in her brother Absalom’s house.

<sup>21</sup> Now when King David heard about all these things, he was very angry [but failed to take any action].

Absalom Avenges Tamar

<sup>24</sup> Absalom came to [his father] the king and said, “Behold, your servant has sheepshearers; please let the king and his servants go with your servant.”

<sup>25</sup> But the king said to Absalom, “No, my son, we should not all go, for we will be a burden to you.” Although Absalom [strongly] urged David, still he would not go, but he gave him his blessing.

<sup>26</sup> Then Absalom said, “If not, then at least let my brother Amnon go with us.” And the king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

<sup>27</sup> But Absalom urged him [again], and he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.

<sup>28</sup> Now Absalom commanded his servants, “Notice carefully, when Amnon’s heart is joyous with wine, and when I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon,’ then kill him. Do not be afraid; have I not commanded you myself [and in doing so have I not taken full responsibility for his death]? Be courageous and brave.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons got up, and every man mounted his mule and fled.

<sup>32</sup> But Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David’s brother, responded, “Do not let my lord assume that all the king’s sons have been put to death; for only Amnon is dead. This act of revenge has been on Absalom’s mind since the day Amnon violated his sister Tamar. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “So now, do not let my lord the king take the report to heart that all the king’s sons are dead; for Amnon alone is dead.” ‡

<sup>35</sup> And Jonadab said to the king, “Look, the king’s sons are coming. It has turned out just as your servant said.”

<sup>36</sup> And when he finished speaking, the king’s sons came, and they raised their voices and wept; and the king and all his servants also wept very bitterly.

<sup>38</sup> So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there for three years. ‡

<sup>39</sup> And the heart of King David longed to go to Absalom; for he was comforted regarding Amnon, since he was dead. ‡

2 Samuel 14

The Woman of Tekoa

<sup>2</sup> So Joab sent word to Tekoa and had a wise woman brought from there and told her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning clothes, and do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has for many days been in mourning for the dead. ‡

<sup>3</sup> "Then go to the king and speak to him in this way." So Joab told her what to say. ‡

<sup>6</sup> "Your maid servant had two sons, but the two of them struggled and fought in the field. There was no one to separate them, so one struck the other and killed him.

<sup>7</sup> "Now behold, the entire family has risen against your maid servant, and they say, 'Hand over the one who killed his brother, so that we may put him to death [to pay] for the life of his brother whom he killed and destroy the heir also.' By doing this they will extinguish my coal that is left, leaving my husband without a name or a remnant (heir) on the face of the earth."

<sup>8</sup> Then David said to the woman, "Go to your home, and I will give orders concerning you."

<sup>10</sup> The king said, "If anyone speaks to you [about this matter], bring him to me [for judgment], and he will not touch you again."

<sup>11</sup> Then she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, so that the avenger of blood will not continue to destroy, otherwise they will destroy my son." And David said, "As the LORD lives, not a single hair [from the head] of your son shall fall to the ground." ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then the woman said, "Please let your maid servant speak one more word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak."

<sup>13</sup> The woman said, "Now why have you planned such a thing against

God's people? For in speaking this word the king is like a guilty man, in that the king does not bring back his banished one. ‡

14. “For we will certainly die and are like water that is spilled on the ground and cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not [simply] take away life, but devises plans so that the one who is banished is not driven away from Him.” ‡

15 “Now I came to speak of this matter to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. So your maidservant thought, ‘I will just speak to the king; perhaps the king will do what his maidservant requests.

16 ‘For the king will hear and save his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.’

17 “Then your maidservant said, ‘Please let the word of my lord the king be comforting, for my lord the king is as the angel of God to discern good and evil. May the LORD your God be with you.’ ” ‡

18 Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Do not hide from me anything that I ask you.” And the woman said, “Let my lord the king please speak.”

19 The king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all of this?” And the woman answered, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king has said. Indeed, it was your servant Joab who commanded me; he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant. ‡

20 “In order to change the appearance of things [between Absalom and you, his father] your servant Joab did this thing. But my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God, to know everything that is in the earth.” ‡

Absalom Is Recalled

21 Then the king said to Joab, “Listen, I will most certainly do this thing; now go, bring back the young man Absalom.”

22 Joab bowed his face toward the ground and lay himself down and blessed the king. Then Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has done the request of his servant.”

23 So Joab got up, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. ‡

24 However, the king said, “Let him go to his own house, and do not let him see my face.” So Absalom went to his own house and did not see the king's face. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Now in all Israel there was no man as handsome as Absalom, so highly praised [for that]; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. ‡

<sup>29</sup> So Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him; even when he sent again a second time, he [still] would not come.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore Absalom said to his servants, "See, Joab's property is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

<sup>31</sup> Then Joab took action and went to Absalom at his house and said to him, "Why did your servants set my field on fire?"

<sup>32</sup> Absalom answered Joab, "I sent for you, saying, 'Come here, so that I may send you to the king to ask, "Why have I come [back] from Geshur? It would be better for me to still be there." ' Now then, let me see the king's face, and if there is guilt in me, let him put me to death."

<sup>33</sup> So Joab came to the king and told him. Then David called for Absalom, and he came to the king and bowed his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom. ‡

2 Samuel 15

Absalom's Conspiracy

<sup>2</sup> He would get up early and stand beside the road to the gate [of the city, where court was held]; and when any man who had a dispute came to the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him, "From what city are you?" And he would say, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel."

<sup>3</sup> Then Absalom would say to him, “See, your claims are good and right, but there is no man appointed as the king’s agent to listen to you.”

<sup>4</sup> Moreover Absalom would say, “Oh, that I were appointed judge in the land! Then every man who had a dispute could come to me and I would get justice for him.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> And whenever a man approached to bow down before him, he would put out his hand, take hold of him, and kiss him.

<sup>7</sup> And after four years, Absalom said to the king, “Please let me go and pay my vow which I have made to the LORD at Hebron [my birthplace]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “For your servant made a vow while I lived at Geshur in Aram (Syria), ‘If the LORD will in fact bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord [by offering a sacrifice of thanksgiving].’ ” ‡

<sup>9</sup> And [David] the king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he arose and went to Hebron.

<sup>10</sup> But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, you shall say, ‘Absalom is king in Hebron.’ ”

David Flees Jerusalem

<sup>14</sup> David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, “Arise, let us flee, or none of us will escape from Absalom! Go in haste, or he will overtake us quickly and bring disaster on us and strike the city with the edge of the sword.” ‡

ten women who were concubines to take care of the house (palace).  [2 Sam 12:11; 20:3 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> All of David's servants passed on beside him, and all the Cherethites, Pelethites and the Gittites, six hundred men who had come with him from Gath, passed on before the king. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why should you go with us, too? Go back and stay with the king [of your own country], for you are a foreigner and an exile as well; return to your own place." ‡

<sup>20</sup> "You came only yesterday, so should I make you wander with us today while I go where I will? Return and take your brothers back with you also. May lovingkindness and faithfulness be with you." ‡

<sup>21</sup> But Ittai answered the king, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, most certainly wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or life, there will your servant be also." ‡

<sup>22</sup> So David said to Ittai, "Go on and cross over [the Brook Kidron]." So Ittai the Gittite crossed over with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.

<sup>23</sup> While all the country was weeping with a loud voice, all the people crossed over. The king also crossed the Brook Kidron, and all the people went on toward the way of the wilderness [that lies between Jerusalem and the Jordan River]. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Now Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar [the priest] came up [and officiated] until all the people had finished passing from the city.

<sup>25</sup> Then the king told Zadok, "Take the ark of God back to [its rightful place in] the city [of Jerusalem, the capital]. If I find favor in the LORD's sight, He will bring me back again and let me see both it and His dwelling place (habitation). ‡

<sup>26</sup> "But if He should say, 'I have no delight in you,' then here I am; let Him do to me what seems good to Him." ‡

<sup>27</sup> The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace [you and Abiathar], and your two sons with you, your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. ‡

<sup>28</sup> "See, I am going to wait at the fords [of the Jordan] in the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me." ‡

<sup>29</sup> So Zadok and Abiathar brought the ark of God back to Jerusalem, and they stayed there.

<sup>33</sup> David said to him, “If you go on with me, you will be a burden to me. ‡

<sup>34</sup> “But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father’s servant in the past, so I will be your servant now;’ then you can thwart (make useless) the advice of Ahithophel for me. ‡

<sup>35</sup> “Are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? So it shall be that every word you hear from the king’s palace, you shall report it to them. ‡

<sup>36</sup> “Their two sons are there with them, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son; and by them you shall send to me everything that you hear.” ‡

<sup>37</sup> So Hushai, David’s friend, returned to the city, and [at about the same time] Absalom came into Jerusalem. ‡

2 Samuel 16

Ziba, a False Servant

<sup>2</sup> The king said to Ziba, “Why do you have these?” Ziba said, “The donkeys are for the king’s household (family) to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine is for anyone to drink who becomes weary in the wilderness.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then the king said, “And where is your master’s son [Mephibosheth]?” Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he remains in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will give me back the kingdom of my father.’ ” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then the king said to Ziba, “Behold, everything that belonged to Mephibosheth is [now] yours.” Ziba said, “I bow down [in honor and gratitude]; let me find favor in your sight, O my lord the king.”

David Is Cursed

<sup>5</sup> When King David came to Bahurim, a man named Shimei, the son of Gera, came out from there. He was of the family of Saul’s household and he was cursing continually as he came out. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “The LORD has returned upon you all the bloodshed of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hands of Absalom your son. And behold, you are caught in your own evil, for you are a man of bloodshed!” ‡

<sup>10</sup> But the king said, “What business is this of yours, O sons of Zeruiah? If Shimei is cursing because the LORD said to him, ‘Curse David,’ then who should say, ‘Why have you done so?’ ” ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, “Look, my son [Absalom] who came from my own body, is seeking my life; how much more [reason] now [does] this Benjamite [have to curse me]? Let him alone and let him curse, for [it could be that] the LORD has told him [to do it]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Perhaps the LORD will look on the wrong done to me [by Shimei, if he is acting on his own]; and [in that case perhaps] the Lord will this day return good to me in place of his cursing.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So David and his men went on the road; and Shimei went along on the hillside close beside David and cursed as he went and threw stones and dust at him.

<sup>14</sup> The king and all the people who were with him arrived [at the Jordan River] weary, and he refreshed himself there.

Absalom Enters Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> Then Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, entered Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Now it happened when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, Hushai said to him, “Long live the king! Long live the king!” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Absalom said to Hushai, “Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Hushai said to Absalom, “No! For whomever the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen [as king], I will be his, and I will remain with him.

<sup>19</sup> “Besides, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of David's son? As I have served in your father's presence, so I shall serve in your presence.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give me your advice. What should we do?”

<sup>21</sup>-Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left behind to take care of the house; then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened [by your boldness and audacity].” ‡

<sup>23</sup> The advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man had consulted the word of God; that is how all Ahithophel's counsel was regarded by both David and Absalom. ‡

2 Samuel 17

Hushai's Counsel

<sup>1</sup> THEN, AHITHOPHEL said to Absalom, “Please let me choose 12,000 men, and I will set out and pursue David tonight.

<sup>2</sup> “I will strike while he is weary and exhausted, and terrify him; and all the people with him will flee [in terror]. Then I will attack the king alone, ‡

<sup>3</sup> and I will bring all the people [who follow David] back to you. The return of everyone depends on the [death of the] man you are seeking; then all the people will be at peace [and accept you as king].”

<sup>4</sup> So the plan pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, Absalom said, “Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he has to say.”

<sup>6</sup> When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom said to him, “Ahithophel has advised this [plan of action]. Should we do what he says? If not, you speak [and explain why not].”

<sup>8</sup> And Hushai said, “You know your father and his men, that they are brave men, and they are enraged and fierce, like a bear deprived of her cubs in the field. Your father is a [shrewd] man of war, and will not spend the night with the people [knowing that you seek his life]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Behold, he has hidden himself [even] now in one of the ravines or in another place; and when some of your troops fall at the first attack, whoever hears about it will say, ‘There has been a defeat among the people who follow Absalom.’

<sup>10</sup> “And even the one who is brave, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will completely lose heart and melt away; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and that those who are with him are brave men. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “But I advise that all [the men of] Israel be summoned to you, from Dan [in the north] to Beersheba [in the south], like the sand that is by the sea in abundance, and that you personally go into battle. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “So shall we come upon David in one of the places where he can be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls [unseen and unheard] on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him, not even one will be left.

<sup>13</sup> “If he retreats into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it into the ravine until not even a pebble [of it] is found there.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than that of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had ordained to thwart the good advice of Ahithophel, so that the LORD could bring disaster upon Absalom. ‡

Hushai's Warning Saves David

<sup>15</sup> Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, “This is the advice that Ahithophel gave to Absalom and the elders of Israel, and this is the advice that I have given. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Now then, send word quickly and tell David, ‘Do not spend the night at the fords [on the west side of the Jordan] in the wilderness, but by all means cross over [to the east side of the river], or else the king and all the people with him will be destroyed [if Ahithophel is allowed by Absalom to lead an attack].’ ” ‡

<sup>19</sup> And the woman [of the house] took a covering and spread it over the mouth of the well and scattered grain on it; so nothing was discovered. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” And the woman said to them, “They have crossed over the brook.” When they searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then David and all the people who were with him departed and crossed over the Jordan. By daybreak, not even one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup> Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out and went to his home, to his city. Then he put his household in order, and hanged himself. So he died and was buried in the tomb of his father. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Absalom put Amasa in command of the army instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Israelite, who had married Abigail the daughter of Nahash, [the half sister of David and] the sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.‡

<sup>28</sup> brought beds, basins, pottery, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, broad beans, lentils, and [other] roasted grain,

<sup>29</sup> honey, cream, sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him, to eat; for they said, “The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.”‡

2 Samuel 18

Absalom's Death

<sup>1</sup> DAVID NUMBERED the men who were with him and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

<sup>2</sup> Then David sent the army out, a third under the command of Joab, a third under Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the men, “I myself will certainly go out [to fight] with you.”‡

<sup>3</sup> But the men said, “You should not go out [to battle with us]. For if in fact we retreat, they will not care about us; even if half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us. So now it is better that you be ready to help us from the city [of Mahanaim].”‡

<sup>4</sup> Then the king said to them, “I will do whatever seems best to you.” So the king stood beside the gate [of Mahanaim], and all the army went out in groups of hundreds and of thousands.

<sup>6</sup> So the men went out into the field against Israel, and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim.‡

<sup>7</sup> The men of Israel [who supported Absalom] were defeated there by the men of David, and a great slaughter took place there that day, 20,000 men.

<sup>8</sup> For the battle there was spread out over the surface of the entire countryside, and the [hazards of the] forest devoured more men that day than did the sword.

<sup>9</sup>-Now Absalom met the servants of David. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a massive tree, and his head was caught in [the thick branches of] the tree; and he was left hanging [in midair] between heaven and earth, while the mule that had been under him kept going.

<sup>11</sup> Joab said to the man who informed him, “You saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt.”

<sup>12</sup> The man told Joab, “Even if I were to feel the weight of a thousand pieces of silver in my hands, I would not put out my hand against the king’s son; for we all heard the king command you, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, ‘Protect the young man Absalom, for my sake.’”‡

<sup>14</sup> Joab said, “I will not waste time with you.” So he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was still alive [and caught] in the midst of the tree.

<sup>15</sup> And ten young men, Joab’s armor bearers, surrounded and struck Absalom and killed him.

<sup>16</sup> Then Joab blew the trumpet [to signal the end of the combat], and the men returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab held them back.

<sup>17</sup> They took [down the body of] Absalom and threw him into a deep pit in the forest and set up a huge mound of stones over him. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his own tent.‡

<sup>18</sup> Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a memorial pillar which is in the King’s Valley, for he said, “I have no son to keep my name in remembrance.” He named the memorial pillar after himself, and to this day it is called Absalom’s Monument.‡

David Is Grief-stricken

<sup>19</sup> Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, said, “Let me run and bring the king news that the LORD has vindicated him by rescuing him from [the power of] his enemies.”

<sup>20</sup> But Joab told him, “You are not the man to carry news [to King David] today, but you shall carry news another day. On this day you shall carry no news, because the king’s son is dead.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Joab said to the Cushite (Ethiopian), “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” And the Cushite bowed to Joab and ran.

<sup>22</sup> Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, “But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite.” Joab said, “Why should you run, my son, seeing you will have no messenger’s reward for going [because you have only bad news]?”

<sup>23</sup> “But whatever happens, Let me run.” So Joab said to him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain [of the Jordan River] and outran the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup> Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the lookout went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and when he raised his eyes and looked, he saw a man running alone. ‡

<sup>25</sup> The lookout called down and told the king. The king said, “If he is alone, he has good news to tell.” And he came nearer and nearer.

<sup>26</sup> Then the lookout saw another man running, and he called to the gatekeeper and said, “Look, another man running alone.” The king said, “He also is bringing good news.”

<sup>28</sup> And Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, “All is well.” And he bowed before the king with his face to the ground and said, “Blessed be the LORD your God, who has handed over the men who lifted up their hands [to fight] against my lord the king.”

<sup>30</sup> The king told him, “Step aside; stand here.” And he stepped aside and stood still.

<sup>31</sup> Behold, the Cushite (Ethiopian) arrived, and said, “Let my lord the king receive good news, for the LORD has vindicated you today by rescuing you from the hand (power) of all those who stood against you.”

<sup>32</sup> The king asked the Cushite, “Is the young man Absalom [my son] safe?” The Cushite replied, “May the enemies of my lord the king, and all those who rise against you to do evil, be [dead] like that young man is.”

33 The king was deeply moved and went to the upper room over the gate and wept [in sorrow]. And this is what he said as he walked: “O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! How I wish that I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!” ‡

2 Samuel 19

Joab Reproves David's Lament

<sup>2</sup> So the victory on that day was turned into mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said on that day, “The king grieves for his son.”

<sup>4</sup> But the king covered his face and cried out with a loud voice, “O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, “Today you have put all your servants to shame who this day have saved your life and the lives of your sons and your daughters, and the lives of your wives and concubines.

<sup>6</sup> “For you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. For you have shown today that commanders and servants are nothing to you; for today I know that if Absalom had lived and all the rest of us had died today, then you would be pleased.

<sup>7</sup> “So now stand up, go out and speak kindly and encouragingly to your servants; for I swear by the LORD that if you do not go out, not a man will stay with you tonight. And this will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now.”

David Restored as King

<sup>8</sup> Then the king stood and sat at the gate [of Mahanaim]. And they told all the people, “The king is sitting at the gate,” and all the people came before the king.

But Israel [Absalom’s troops] had fled, every man to his tent.

<sup>9</sup> All the people were quarreling throughout the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king rescued us from the hands of our enemies, and he saved us from the hands of the Philistines, but now he has fled out of the land from Absalom.‡

<sup>10</sup> “And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. So now, why are you [leaders] doing nothing about bringing back the king?”

<sup>11</sup> Then King David sent word to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, “Say to the elders of Judah, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house [in Jerusalem], since the word of all Israel has come to the king, and to his house?’

<sup>12</sup> ‘You are my brothers (relatives, relations); you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?’‡

<sup>13</sup> “Say to Amasa [the commander of Absalom’s troops], ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God do so to me, and more also, if you will not be commander of my army from now on in place of Joab.’ ”‡

<sup>15</sup> So David returned and came to the Jordan. And [supporters from] Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king, to escort him across the Jordan.‡

<sup>18</sup> Then they [repeatedly] crossed the ford to bring over the king’s household (family), and to do what pleased him. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan,

<sup>19</sup> and said to the king, “Let not my lord consider me guilty, nor remember what your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem, so that the king would take it to heart.‡

<sup>20</sup> “For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore, behold, I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king.”‡

<sup>21</sup> But Abishai the son of Zeruiah said, “Should not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD’s anointed?”‡

<sup>22</sup> David said, “What business is this of yours, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be an adversary to me today? Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?”‡

<sup>23</sup> Therefore the king said to Shimei, “You shall not be put to death.” And so the king gave him his promise.  [1 Kin 2:44–46 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> And when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?” ‡

<sup>26</sup> He said, “My lord the king, my servant [Ziba] betrayed me; for I said, ‘Saddle a donkey for me so that I may ride on it and go with the king,’ for your servant is lame [but he took the donkeys and left without me].  [2 Sam 16:1–4 ]

<sup>27</sup> “Further, he has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is like the angel of God; so do what is good in your eyes. ‡

<sup>28</sup> “For were not all of my father’s household (family) nothing but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. So what right do I still have to cry out anymore to the king [for help]?” ‡

<sup>29</sup> The king said to him, “Why speak anymore of your affairs? I have said, ‘You and Ziba shall divide the land.’ ”

<sup>30</sup> Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him even take it all, since my lord the king has returned to his own house in safety and peace.”

<sup>33</sup> The king said to Barzillai, “Cross over with me and I will provide for you in Jerusalem with me.”

<sup>34</sup> But Barzillai said to the king, “How much longer have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

<sup>35</sup> “I am this day eighty years old. Can I [be useful to advise you to] discern between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or drink? Can I still hear the voices of singing men and women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king? ‡

<sup>36</sup> “Your servant would merely cross over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king compensate me with this reward?

<sup>37</sup> “Please let your servant return, so that I may die in my own city [and be buried] by the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant

Chimham [my son]; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you.”  [1 Kin 2:7.] ‡

<sup>38</sup> The king answered, “Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you; and whatever you ask of me, I will do for you.”

<sup>39</sup> So all the people crossed over the Jordan. When the king had crossed over, he kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his place. ‡

<sup>40</sup> Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; and all the people of Judah and also half the people of Israel accompanied the king.

<sup>41</sup> And all the men of Israel came to the king and said to him, “Why have our brothers (relatives), the men [from the tribe] of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king and his household and all David’s men with him over the Jordan [instead of waiting for us to arrive]?” ‡

<sup>42</sup> Then all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “Because the king is a close relative to us. So why then are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king’s expense? Or has anything been taken for us?” ‡

<sup>43</sup> Then the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, “We have ten [tribes’] shares in the king, and we have more claim on David than you. Why then did you treat us with contempt and ignore us [by rushing ahead]? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?” But the words of the men of Judah were harsher than those of the men of Israel. ‡

Sheba’s Revolt

<sup>1</sup> THERE HAPPENED to be there a worthless and wicked man named Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite. He blew a trumpet [to call Israel to revolt] and said, ‡

“We have no portion in David
And no inheritance in the son of Jesse,
Every man to his tents, O Israel!”

<sup>3</sup> Then David came to his house (palace) at Jerusalem, and the king took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to take care of the house, and placed them under guard and provided for them, but did not go in to them. So they were confined, and lived as widows until the day of their death. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Now the king said to Amasa [the commander of his army], “Summon the [fighting] men of Judah to me within three days, and be present here yourself.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> So Amasa went to summon [the fighting men of] Judah, but he delayed longer than the time which David had set for him.

<sup>6</sup> And David said to Abishai [his nephew], “Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your lord’s servants and pursue him, so that he does not find fortified cities for himself and escape from our sight.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> So Joab’s men went after him, along with [David’s bodyguards] the Cherethites and Pelethites and all the warriors; they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. ‡

<sup>8</sup> When they were at the great stone in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was wearing his military uniform, and over it he had a belt with a sheathed sword strapped around his hips; and as he went forward, it fell out.

<sup>9</sup> Joab said to Amasa, “Is it going well with you, my brother?” And with his right hand Joab took hold of Amasa by the beard [as if] to kiss him [in greeting]. ‡

Amasa Murdered

<sup>10</sup> But Amasa [who had replaced Joab as David’s commander] was off guard and not attentive to the sword in Joab’s hand. So Joab struck Amasa in the abdomen with the sword, spilling his intestines to the ground. Without another blow Amasa died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now one of Joab’s young men stood by him and said, “Whoever favors Joab and is for David, let him follow Joab!”

<sup>12</sup> But Amasa was wallowing in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people who came by stopped [to look], he moved Amasa from the highway into the field and threw a garment over him when he saw that everyone who came by Amasa stopped.

Revolt Put Down

<sup>13</sup> When [the body of] Amasa was removed from the highway, everyone followed after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>14</sup> Now Joab went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, even Beth-maacah, and all the Berites; and they assembled and also went after Sheba. ‡

<sup>15</sup> And the army of Joab came and besieged Sheba in Abel Beth-maacah, and they built up an assault ramp against the city, and it stood against the outer rampart; and all the people who were with Joab were wreaking destruction to make the wall fall. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then a wise woman cried out from the city, “Hear, hear! Tell Joab, ‘Come here so that I may speak to you.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> So when he approached her, the woman asked, “Are you Joab?” He answered, “I am.” Then she said to him, “Listen to the words of your maidservant.” He answered, “I am listening.”

<sup>18</sup> Then she said, “In the past people used to say, ‘They will certainly ask advice at Abel,’ and so they settled the dispute .

<sup>20</sup> Joab answered, “Far be it, far be it from me that I would swallow up or destroy!

<sup>21</sup> “That is not true. But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand [in rebellion] against King David. Only hand him over, and I will leave the city.” And the woman said to Joab, “Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the woman in her wisdom went to all the people [to inform them of the agreement]. And they beheaded Sheba the son of Bichri and threw his head [down] to Joab. So he blew the trumpet [signaling the end of the attack], and they dispersed from the city, every man to his own tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to [David] the king.  [Eccl 9:13–16 ] ‡

2 Samuel 21

Gibeonite Revenge

<sup>1</sup> THERE WAS famine in the days of David for three consecutive years; and David sought the presence (face) of the LORD [asking the reason]. The LORD replied, “It is because of Saul and his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death.”

<sup>2</sup> So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the sons (descendants) of Israel but of the remnant (survivors) of the Amorites. The Israelites had sworn [an oath] to [spare] them, but Saul in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah had sought to strike down the Gibeonites). ‡

<sup>3</sup> So David said to the Gibeonites, “What should I do for you? How can I make it good so that you will bless the LORD’s inheritance (Israel)?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> The Gibeonites said to him, “We will not accept silver or gold belonging to Saul or his household (descendants); nor is it for us to put any man to death in Israel.” David said, “I will do for you whatever you say.”

<sup>5</sup> So they said to the king, “The man who consumed us and planned to exterminate us from remaining in any territory of Israel, <sup>6</sup> let seven men [chosen] from his sons (descendants) be given to us and we will hang them before the LORD [that is, put them on display, impaled with broken legs and arms] in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen one of the LORD.” And the king said, “I will give them.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the LORD’s oath that was between David and Saul’s son Jonathan. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite. ‡

<sup>9</sup> He handed them over to the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before the LORD, and the seven died together. They were put to death in the first days of the grain harvest, the beginning of the barley harvest [in the spring]. ‡

rain fell on them; and she allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on their bodies by day, nor the beasts of the field [to feed on them] by night. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then David went and took the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the open square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them on the day when the Philistines had killed Saul in Gilboa. ‡

<sup>14</sup> They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father; and they did all that the king commanded. After that, God was moved by prayer for the land. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Now the Philistines were at war again with Israel. David went down with his servants, and as they fought against the Philistines, David became weary.

<sup>16</sup> Then Ishbi-benob, who was among the descendants of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels (six pounds) of bronze, was armed with a new sword, and he intended to kill David.

<sup>17</sup> But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to David's aid, and struck and killed the Philistine. Then David's men swore to him, "You shall not go out again with us to battle, so that you do not extinguish the lamp of Israel." ‡

<sup>18</sup> After this, there was war again with the Philistines at Gob (Gezer). At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph (Sippai), who was among the descendants of the giant. ‡

<sup>19</sup> There was war with the Philistines again at Gob, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Bethlehemite, killed Goliath the Gittite, whose spear shaft was like a weaver's beam. ‡

<sup>20</sup> There was war at Gath again, where there was a man of great stature who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; he also was a descendant of the giants. ‡

<sup>22</sup> These four [warriors] were descended from the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hands of David and his servants. ‡

2 Samuel 22

David's Psalm of Rescue

<sup>2</sup> He said: ‡

“The LORD is my rock and my fortress [on the mountain] and my rescuer;  [1 Sam 23:14, 25, 28. ]

My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge,

My Savior—You save me from violence.  [Gen 15:1. ]

<sup>4</sup> “I call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised,
And I am saved from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup> “For the waves of death encompassed me;
The torrents of destruction overwhelmed and terrified me.

<sup>6</sup>. “The cords of Sheol surrounded me;‡
The snares of death confronted me.

<sup>7</sup> “In my distress I called upon the LORD;‡
I cried out to my God,
And from His temple [in the heavens] He heard my voice;
My cry for help came into His ears.

<sup>8</sup> “Then the earth shook and quaked,‡
The foundations of the heavens trembled
And were shaken, because He was angry.

And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.

<sup>10</sup> “He bowed the heavens also, and came down ‡
With thick darkness under His feet.

<sup>11</sup> “He rode on a cherub and flew;‡
He appeared upon the wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup> “He made darkness canopies around Him,‡
A mass of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

<sup>13</sup> “Out of the brightness before Him ‡
Coals of fire were set aflame.

<sup>14</sup> “The LORD thundered from heaven,‡
And the Most High uttered His voice.

15 “He sent out arrows and scattered them; ‡
Lightning, and confused them.

16 “The channels of the sea appeared, ‡
The foundations of the world were uncovered
At the rebuke of the LORD,
At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

17 “He sent from above, He took me; ‡
He drew me out of great waters.

18 “He rescued me from my strong enemy, ‡
From those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me.

19 “They came upon me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my support.

20 “He also brought me out to an open place; ‡
He rescued me because He delighted in me.

21 “The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; ‡
According to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me.

22. “For I have kept the ways of the LORD, ‡
And have not acted wickedly against my God.

23 “For all His judgments (legal decisions) were before me, ‡
And from His statutes I did not turn aside.

24 “I was also blameless before Him, ‡
And kept myself from wrongdoing.

25 “Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, ‡
According to my cleanness in His sight.

26 “With the loving and loyal You show Yourself loving and loyal, ‡
With the blameless You show Yourself blameless.

27 “With the pure You show Yourself pure, ‡
With the perverted You show Yourself astute.

28 “And You save the afflicted people; ‡
But Your eyes are on the haughty whom You abase (humiliate).

29 “For You, O LORD, are my lamp;
The LORD illumines and dispels my darkness.

30 “For by You I can run upon a troop;
By my God I can leap over a wall.

- 31 “As for God, His way is blameless and perfect; ‡
The word of the LORD is tested.
He is a shield to all those who take refuge and trust in Him.
- 32 “For who is God, besides the LORD? ‡
And who is a rock, besides our God?  [1 Sam 2:2 ]
- 33 “God is my strong fortress; ‡
He sets the blameless in His way.
- 34 “He makes my feet like the doe’s feet [firm and swift]; ‡
He sets me [secure and confident] on my high places.
- 35 “He trains my hands for war, ‡
So that my arms can bend (pull back) a bow of bronze.
- 36 “You have also given me the shield of Your salvation,
And Your help and gentleness make me great.
- 37 “You enlarge my steps under me, ‡
And my feet have not slipped.
- 38 “I pursued my enemies and destroyed them,
And I did not turn back until they were consumed (eliminated).
- 39 “I consumed them and shattered them, so that they did not rise; ‡
They fell under my feet.
- 40 “For You have surrounded me with strength for the battle; ‡
You have subdued under me those who stood against me.
- 41 “You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me [in retreat], ‡
And I destroyed those who hated me.
- 42 “They looked, but there was no savior for them — ‡
Even to the LORD [they looked], but He did not answer them.
- 43 “Then I beat them as [small as] the dust of the earth; ‡
I crushed and stamped them as the mire (dirt, mud) of the streets.
- 44 “You also have rescued me from strife with my [own]
people; ‡
You have kept me as the head of the nations.
People whom I have not known served me.
- 45 “Foreigners pretend obedience to me;
As soon as they hear [me], they obey me.

<sup>46</sup> “Foreigners lose heart; ‡
They come trembling out of their strongholds.
<sup>47</sup> “The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock, ‡
And exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation.
<sup>48</sup> “It is God who executes vengeance for me, ‡
And brings down [and disciplines] the peoples under me,
<sup>49</sup> Who also brings me out from my enemies. ‡
You even lift me above those who rise up against me;
You rescue me from the violent man.
<sup>50</sup> “For this I will give thanks and praise You, O LORD, among the nations; ‡
I will sing praises to Your name.
<sup>51</sup> “He is a tower of salvation and great deliverance to His king, ‡
And shows lovingkindness to His anointed,
To David and his offspring forever.”

2 Samuel 23

David’s Last Song

<sup>1</sup> NOW THESE are the last words of David. ‡

David the son of Jesse declares,
The man who was raised on high declares,
The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel,
<sup>2</sup> “The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, ‡
And His word was on my tongue.
<sup>3</sup> “The God of Israel, ‡
The Rock of Israel spoke to me,
‘He who rules over men righteously,
Who rules in the fear of God,
<sup>4</sup> Is like the morning light when the sun rises,
A morning without clouds,
When the fresh grass springs out of the earth
Through sunshine after rain.’

<sup>5</sup>“Truly is not my house so [blessed] with God? ‡
For He has made an everlasting covenant with me,
Ordered in all things, and secured.
For will He not cause to grow and prosper
All my salvation and my every wish?
Will He not make it grow and prosper?
<sup>6</sup>“But the wicked and worthless are all to be thrown away like thorns,
Because they cannot be taken with the hand;
<sup>7</sup> “But the man who touches them
Must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear,
And they are utterly burned and consumed by fire in their place.”

His Mighty Men

<sup>8</sup>-These are the names of the mighty men (warriors) whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth, a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains, also called Adino the Eznite (spear) because of the eight hundred men killed [by him] at one time.  [1 Chr 11:11 ]

<sup>9</sup> Next to him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the son of Ahohi. He was one of the three mighty men with David when they taunted and defied the Philistines assembled there for battle, and the men of Israel had gone. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Eleazar stood up and struck down the Philistines until his hand was weary and clung to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day; the people returned after him only to take the spoil [of the slain].

<sup>11</sup> Next to Eleazar was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines were gathered into an army where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the people [of Israel] fled from the Philistines. ‡

<sup>12</sup> But he took his stand in the center of the plot and defended it and struck down the Philistines; and the LORD brought about a great victory.

<sup>13</sup>-Then three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David at harvest time in the cave of Adullam, while an army of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim. ‡

<sup>14</sup> David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. ‡

<sup>15</sup>-And David had a craving and said, “Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!”

<sup>16</sup> So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem by the gate, and carried and brought it to David. But he would not drink it, but poured it out [in worship] to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> And he said, “Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should drink this. [Is it not the same as] the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?” So he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did. ‡

<sup>19</sup> He was the most honored of the thirty, so he became their commander; however, he did not attain to the [greatness of the] three.

<sup>20</sup> Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many notable acts, killed two [famous] warriors of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And he killed an Egyptian, an impressive and handsome man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benaiah went down to him with a club, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand and killed the man with his own spear.

<sup>22</sup> These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and gained a reputation beside the three mighty men.

2 Samuel 24

The Census Taken

<sup>1</sup> NOW AGAIN the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He incited David against them to say, “Go, count [the people of] Israel and Judah.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> So the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, “Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan [in the north] to Beersheba [in the south], and conduct a census of the people, so that I may know the number of the people.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> But Joab said to the king, “May the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as there are, and let the eyes of my lord the king see it; but why does my lord the king want to do this thing?”

<sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, the king’s word prevailed against Joab and the commanders of the army. So they went from the king’s presence to take a census of the people of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and they came to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon, ‡

<sup>7</sup> and they came to the stronghold of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites, and they went out to the south of Judah, to Beersheba.

<sup>8</sup> So when they had gone about through all the land [taking the census], they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

<sup>9</sup> And Joab gave the sum of the census of the people to the king. In Israel there were 800,000 valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were 500,000. ‡

<sup>10</sup> But David’s heart (conscience) troubled him after he had counted the people. David said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I have done.

But now, O LORD, please take away the sin of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Go and say to David, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I am giving you three choices; select one of them for yourself, and I will do it to you.” ’ ”

<sup>13</sup> So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, “Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your enemies as they pursue you? Or shall there be three days of pestilence (plague) in your land? Now consider this and decide what answer I shall return to Him who sent me.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then David said to Gad, “I am in great distress. Let us fall into the hands of the LORD, for His mercies are great, but do not let me fall into the hands of man.” ‡

Pestilence Sent

<sup>15</sup> So the LORD sent a pestilence (plague) [lasting three days] upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time, and seventy thousand men of the people from Dan to Beersheba died. ‡

<sup>16</sup> When the [avenging] angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the disaster and said to the angel who destroyed the people, “It is enough! Now relax your hand.” And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ‡

<sup>17</sup> When David saw the angel who was striking down the people, he spoke to the LORD and said, “Behold, I [alone] am the one who has sinned and done wrong; but these sheep (people of Israel), what have they done [to deserve this]? Please let Your hand be [only] against me and my father’s house (family).” ‡

David Builds an Altar

<sup>18</sup> Then Gad [the prophet] came to David that day and said to him, “Go up, set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite [where you saw the angel].” ‡

<sup>19</sup> So David went up according to Gad’s word, as the LORD commanded.

<sup>20</sup> Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over toward him; and he went out and bowed before the king with his face toward the ground.

<sup>21</sup> Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” And David said, “To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, so that the plague may be held back from the people.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> “All of this, O king, Araunah gives to the king.” And Araunah said to the king, “May the LORD your God be favorable to you.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> But the king said to Araunah, “No, but I will certainly buy it from you for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God which cost me nothing.” So David purchased the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. ‡

<sup>25</sup> David built an altar to the LORD there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was moved [to compassion] by [David’s] prayer for the land, and the plague was held back from Israel. ‡

Annotations for 2 Samuel

1:2 clothes torn and dust on his head. Dust or ashes on the head, torn clothing, and sack cloth were all signs of mourning.

1:12 fasted. Spiritual fasting is abstaining from food to devote time and energy to prayer. Sometimes people plan a time of fasting, and sometimes it just comes upon them because overwhelming spiritual needs supersede all thought of food. This was a time of true calamity for Israel, even though it solved a problem for David. He was personally very grieved, for he had known the man Saul as he could have been, and he had lost Jonathan, the best friend he would ever have. His future as king seemed assured, but the task of uniting the nation would be very difficult.

1:14 the LORD's anointed. David's use of the phrase "the LORD's anointed" indicates that even though Saul was his enemy, David honored the position that Saul had as God's representative. David repeatedly refused to harm Saul because of this (1Sa 24:6 ; 26:9 ).

1:15 struck the Amalekite. The Amalekite had probably been hoping for a reward from David. His story was a lie (1Sa 31 ), and this lie cost him his life. David's execution of the Amalekite was a strong testimony to those under his command that he had no part in Saul's death and did not reward it in any way.

2:5 graciousness. David was grateful to the men who had shown kindness to Saul. This acknowledgement was not an act of politeness, but came from David's own heart of compassion. Saul repeatedly demonstrated that he considered himself above correction, but David was careful to maintain an attitude of kindness and humility.

2:18 Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. The three brothers were David's nephews, children of his sister Zeruiah (1Ch 2:13–16 ).

2:19 Asahel pursued Abner. Asahel did not have a personal grudge against Abner. This was a military move. If Abner, the chief military leader, was dead, Ish-bosheth's power base would dissolve.

3:1 Strife— Finally David was in a position to push to establish his kingdom. It was still a contest of power and loyalty. An important question had to be settled: Is the king chosen by God? Or is the one who seizes the power the king? David knew he had to establish himself both politically and militarily, but he wanted to show, even in battle, that he trusted God to establish his kingdom. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:2 Sons were born to David. David began his reign in Judah with two wives, Ahinoam and Abigail. His wife Michal, the daughter of Saul, had been given to another when David fled from Saul. In Hebron David married four more wives, in spite of the warning from Moses that a king should not "acquire multiple wives for himself" (Dt 17:17 ).

3:3 Chileab. Chileab is also called Daniel (1Ch 3:1 ).

3:5 born to David in Hebron. These six sons, each from a different mother, constituted the royal family during David's reign over the house of Judah. The dynastic lists in Chronicles include four sons of David by Bathsheba (1Ch 3:5 ) and nine other sons whose mothers are not named (1Ch 3:6–8 ).

3:7 gone in to my father's concubine. The royal harem was the property of the king's successor. Taking a king's concubine was tantamount to claiming the throne.

3:8 dog's head. In the ancient Middle East dogs were scavengers, living off dead animals and garbage, and were viewed with contempt. to Judah. The tribe of Judah was the enemy of Ish-bosheth. In essence Abner was saying, "Do you think I am the scum of the enemy?"

3:13 Michal. David's first wife, Michal (1Sa 18:17–27), was left in Gibeah when David fled from Saul's court (1Sa 19:11–27). Saul then gave his daughter Michal, perhaps out of spite, to a man named Palti (1Sa 25:44). This request of David's was certainly in line with his rights as a husband who had given a proper dowry for his bride, and it was also a political statement. He was asserting his power over the house of Saul. (See note for 3:7.)

3:16 her husband went with her. Michal's husband wept. Nothing is said of Michal's feelings, or of David's. A king did not leave his wife with another man, for that was in the same category as another man taking the king's concubines. How he, or anyone else felt about it, had no bearing on the situation. (See note for 3:7.)

3:22 gone in peace. The words "gone in peace" are repeated (v. 21), to emphasize that the hostilities between David and Abner had been resolved.

4:8–10 brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David. Ish-bosheth was Jonathan's brother. Whether or not they looked alike, David had no desire to have the head of his beloved friend's brother brought to him as a prize. Once again, greed for a reward overcame prudence, and the plotters lost their lives on their own testimony.

4:9–12 Strife— Once again David was faced with the question: Who was going to establish his kingdom? In David's mind the answer could only be "God." David wanted to meet his adversary honestly on the field of battle or over a flag of truce, but he would have nothing to do with murder. There was another compelling reason for David to conduct himself honorably. David was closely associated with Ish-bosheth as the brother of his wife and of his best friend, and he did not find it easy to be at war with him. Go to Theological Notes Index

4:11 righteous and just man. Ish-bosheth had accepted what he considered to be his rightful role as the next king after his father, Saul. Apparently, even in David's mind, Ish-bosheth's supposition was reasonable.

5:3 anointed him king over Israel. This was the third time that David was anointed as king. The first time was in anticipation of his rule (1Sa 16:13), the second time was acknowledgment of his rule over Judah (2:4), and the third time acknowledged his rule over the entire nation.

5:6 went to Jerusalem. The city of Jerusalem was strategically located on a hill, just south of Mount Moriah, with steep cliffs on all sides except the north, making it a natural fortress. It was near the border of Judah and Benjamin. Jerusalem became the site of the temple, and the place, more than any other place on earth, which was identified with the Jewish people. It was there that Jesus was crucified, and it is there that He will come again (Zec 14:4). the blind and the lame. Jerusalem was so strategically situated that the "blind and the lame" would be enough to defeat David.

5:7 Zion. The word Zion originally applied to the Jebusite stronghold, which became the City of David after its capture. As the city expanded to the north, encompassing Mount Moriah, the temple mount came to be called Zion (Ps 78:68–69). Eventually the term was used as a synonym for Jerusalem (Isa 40:9).

5:8 water shaft. The water shaft or tunnel extended about 230 feet up from the Gihon spring to the top of the hill where the Jebusite fortress was situated (2Ch 32:30). The tunnel gave the city a secure water supply in the event of a siege.

5:11 cedar trees. Most buildings in Israel were made of stone. The use of cedar added elegance to David's palace.

5:13 took more concubines and wives. These marriages probably reflect David's involvement in international treaties and alliances which were sealed with the marriage of a king's daughter to the other participant in the treaty. Concubines, wives who did not have the legal rights of a true marriage, were a part of a royal harem. The status of kings in ancient times was often measured in part by the size of their harem. But Israel's kings had been warned not to acquire many wives (Dt 17:17).

5:18 Valley of Rephaim. This valley extends southwest from Jerusalem toward the coastal plain, and is a strategic approach to the city.

5:21 abandoned their [pagan] idols. The Philistines would have regarded their gods as being defeated by the God of Israel.

6:2 Baale-judah. The name means “Masters of Judah,” and the city was also called Baalah and Kiriath-jearim. It was here that the ark had been left after it was returned by the Philistines in the days when Samuel was a young man and there was no king (1Sa 7:1-2). cherubim. Cherubim are angelic beings generally regarded as guardians of God’s holiness (Ex 25:22).

6:3 placed the ark of God on a new cart. The law was specific that the ark was to be carried by the sons of Kothath, not by a cart or any other vehicle (Ex 25:14-15 ; Nu 7:8-9 ).

6:6-8 Respect for the Ark— It is easy to understand David’s anger at God. Uzzah’s death seems quite unnecessary. It looks like his motives were in fact good ones. Reading about this event elicits fear and questioning. Why? We can’t see how the punishment fits the crime. This seems incredibly arbitrary. How can we possibly understand the mystery that’s involved here? Why such tragedy in the midst of this celebration?

The instructions on handling the ark are found in Numbers 4:15, 19-20. There it says if you touch the holy things you die. We still don’t understand why, but obviously there was more to the ark than anybody could imagine and no human could control it or use it. It was God’s, made to be representative of His holiness and glory. God placed such power in the ark that a human would be overwhelmed by it.

We have such a poor sense of the holiness of God that we only see this event from our perspective. Fear and awe must be a part of a healthy relationship with God. While God is love, He is also to be feared. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:6 threshing floor. A threshing floor was a place for processing grain, separating kernels from the chaff (Ru 3:2 ).

6:7 for his irreverence. God had warned His people that not even the Kohathites of the tribe of Levi could touch the holy objects of the tabernacle. All of the holy objects were to be covered by the priests before the sons of Kohath came to carry them “so that they do not touch the holy things, and die” (Nu 4:15 ).

6:10 Obed-edom. Obed-edom was a Levite of the family of Korah, and later one of the doorkeepers for the tabernacle (1Ch 15:18, 24 ; 26:4-8 ). the Gittite. He was called the Gittite because he was from the Levitical city of Gath-rimmon (Jos 21:24 ).

6:14 linen ephod. The linen ephod was a short sleeveless garment worn by priests (1Sa 2:18 ). David wore it to honor the Lord because of his worshipful activities that day (v. 13 ).

6:17 the tent which David had pitched for it. There are no descriptive details of this tent. It is not clear exactly what happened to the tabernacle after it was moved from Shiloh to Nob (1Sa 5 ; 21:1-5 ). At the time that David bought the threshing floor from Araunah (24:21-25 ) the tabernacle of the Lord, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were in the high place of Gibeon (1Ch 21:29 ), which was about six miles northwest of Jerusalem.

6:18-19 peace offerings. A distinctive feature of the peace offering was that a portion of it would be eaten by the worshiper as a fellowship meal before the Lord.

6:20-23 uncovered himself. The love and respect that Michal once had for David was gone. She ridiculed his enthusiasm as he worshiped the Lord, and for David that was not an attitude he could overlook. It is difficult to comprehend the complexities of a marriage where multiple wives and concubines are a part of the picture, and the wife is viewed as chattel before she is viewed as a person. As in so many places in the Bible, the picture is drawn, but without comment on what God thought. Jesus clarifies this a little when He comments on the hardness of hearts, and says, “from the beginning it has not been this way” (Mt 19:8 ).

7:2 Nathan. Nathan was a personal advisor to David. As a prophet, he spoke for God, advising David on religious matters. He also chronicled the reigns of David and Solomon (1Ch 29:29 ).

7:4–17 The Covenant with David— The Davidic covenant contains God's promise to Israel and to David. God promised Israel that Palestine would always be their place (vs. 10). He also promised that David would have an unending dynasty and an everlasting kingdom. This promise is fulfilled in Christ. Both Matthew and Luke, in their Gospels, trace Jesus' ancestry back to David. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:13 the throne of his kingdom forever. This is not to say that Solomon would rule forever. Rather, the right to rule, represented by the image of the throne, would always belong to his descendants. Further, there would always be a male heir who would be able to rule. Ultimately this promise is fulfilled in Christ (Mt 1 ).

7:19 in the distant future. God extended the promise concerning David's dynasty far into the future. All of human history leads inevitably to the rule of Christ on earth. This is its destiny, its prophetic fulfillment, the final meaning of all history.

7:27 prayer. David was a king for God, not for himself. It is not likely that he was totally without pride in his position, but he did not seem to be a man who was full of himself. His purpose in wanting to build the temple was to glorify God whom he loved, not to glorify himself. David's prayer of worship and thanksgiving is an intimate key that shows how he was able to keep himself both willing and trusting as he followed God.

7:28 You are God, and Your words are truth. This is David's theme, throughout his life, and this is why he was a man after God's heart (1Sa 13:14 ).

8:2 Moabites. The Moabites were descendants of the incestuous relationship between Lot and his older daughter (Ge 19:36–37 ).

8:4 hamstrung. David disabled the horses by cutting the back sinews of the hind legs to prevent them from being used for military activity (Jos 11:6 ,9 ).

8:5 Damascus. Damascus was located at an oasis near the foot of the Anti-Lebanon mountains and was one of the most strategically located cities of the ancient world. Damascus lay at the crossroads of the two main international highways; the Via Maris, leading south and west to Egypt, and the King's Highway, leading from the east side of the Jordan south to Arabia.

8:8 Berothai. This city was about 30 miles northwest of Damascus.

8:15 David reigned over all Israel. As a result of David's conquests, the sovereignty of Israel extended from the Gulf of Aqaba and the River of Egypt to the Euphrates River—the very region God had promised Abraham (Ge 15:18 ).

The Kingdom in David's Days

9:1–13 kindness. David wrote in Psalm 23:5, “You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.” And that is just what David did for Mephibosheth, for the sake of his father Jonathan. Jonathan and David had been separated by the hostility that Saul had for David, and as far as Mephibosheth would have understood, David was an enemy to the house of Saul. But the bond of love and friendship that David and Jonathan had was greater than the hostility of Saul, and David was faithful to honor those bonds.

9:4 Machir the son of Ammiel. Machir was a man, apparently of wealth and position, who extended hospitality to David during Absalom’s revolt (17:27–29). He showed himself to be a man of kindness who was willing to help someone in need, even if it might not be politically expedient.

9:11 as one of the king’s sons. David kept his promise to Jonathan. The two young men had vowed that the Lord would be between them, and between their descendants forever (1Sa 20:42). It was a way of saying that the Lord would always be in their relationships with each other, keeping them loyal, kind, honest, and willing to bear each other’s burdens. Now Jonathan’s son was provided for as one of David’s sons.

10:1 the king of the Ammonites. The king of Ammon was probably the same Nahash who was defeated by Saul at Jabesh-gilead (1Sa 11:1–11).

10:2 as his father did to me. The occasion of Nahash’s kindness is not recorded. One possibility is that Nahash, an enemy of Saul, had given aid to David during his war with Ish-bosheth (2:8–4:12).

10:6 Beth-rehob and . . . Zobah. These two Aramean city-states were located north of Israel. Maacah. The small Aramean kingdom east of the Jordan was part of the territory assigned to the half-tribe of Manasseh (Jos 12:5; 13:11) Tob. Tob was also an area east of the Jordan, but not a part of Israel (Jdg 11:3).

10:8 at the entrance of the [city] gate. Some cities had multiple gates. If attackers broke through one gate, they would find another gate in front of them. The Ammonites fought near the entrance of the city so they could retreat behind the city gates if the battle turned against them. The mercenary soldiers were in more exposed positions in the field.

10:10 Abishai. Abishai was one of David’s mighty men (23:18). He was a brave warrior (1Sa 26:6–9) and a successful commander (1Ch 18:12–13), but was impetuous and perhaps even bloodthirsty (16:9; 19:21). He had played a part in the murder of Abner.

11:1 in the spring, at the time when the kings go out to battle. Spring was a good time to mount a campaign. They could be assured of good weather and an abundance of food along the way.

11:2 from there he saw a woman bathing. She was probably in the enclosed courtyard of her home, a place of privacy, not visible from the street.

11:5 The woman conceived. The law commanded both parties in an adulterous relationship to be put to death (Lev 20:10). In practice, a woman who became pregnant might be forced to bear the shame and guilt alone (Jn 8:1–11).

11:21 Was it not a woman. The story referred to here is recorded in Judges 9:50–55. For a soldier to die at the hand of a woman was at best, shameful, if not a point of ridicule (Jdg 4:17–24). It seems that Joab was letting David know that he knew David’s real reasons for wanting Uriah dead.

12:7 You are the man. It took courage and a strong commitment to the Lord for Nathan to speak these words to the king. Nathan's rebuke was centered on who the Lord is, and what the Lord expects of His servants. It was the word of the Lord that convicted David, not the force of Nathan's character or rhetoric.

12:9 despised the word of the LORD. David had broken the commandments about coveting, adultery, and murder (Ex 20:13–17). The word despised means “to think lightly of.”

12:13 I have sinned against the LORD. David did not attempt to rationalize his sin or make an excuse for himself. A fuller expression of David's confession is found in Psalm 51. you shall not die. David deserved death (Lev 20:10 ; Nu 35:31–33), but God's grace is able to circumvent His own plan for punishment.

12:14 Adultery— Adultery is forbidden in the Ten Commandments (Ex 20:14), and it is not difficult to think of a long list of the messy problems that accompany adultery. But adultery is not just a problem involving other people. It is also a problem with God. It is a direct and deliberate disobedience of a nonnegotiable command. This kind of disobedience is also a choice to stop listening to God in other areas—not because He won't communicate, but because we won't. We don't want to ask for help because we don't want to hear Him say, “And what about the affair with ___?” Adultery is more expensive than we can calculate. Go to Theological Notes Index

12:24 Solomon. The name Solomon is related to the Hebrew word for peace .

12:25 Jedidiah. The name Jedidiah means “beloved of the Lord.” The Hebrew name is related to David's name, meaning “beloved.” This name, coming from the prophet Nathan, surely must have comforted David and Bathsheba with assurance of God's forgiveness.

12:30 a talent of gold. The crown weighed about 75 pounds.

13:1 Temptation— Not all temptation is equal. Some kinds of temptations are easily squelched, and others must be fought with vigilance and every ounce of energy that we have. The battle begins in the mind, and one of the first steps in combating temptation is to make up one's mind that the answer must be “no.” Once we begin thinking of how nice it would be to give in, the temptation has a foothold that can grow into full blown sin. God always provides a way out, but we have to want to take that way (1Co 10:13). Go to Theological Notes Index

13:4 I am in love with Tamar, my [half-] brother Absalom's sister. Such relationships are clearly forbidden in the law (Lev 18:9 , 29 ; 20:17). The lust that he conceived in his heart gave birth to sin, and that sin, when accomplished, brought death (Jas 1:15). Amnon did die, but even worse, his heart was hardened so that he did not care what he had done to Tamar. For her, the price of his wickedness was very high.

13:17 throw this woman out. It is difficult to translate the contempt which Amnon had for Tamar. His order to his servant suggests the words and tone used when asking a servant to dump trash. If she had not been his sister, Amnon would have been forced to marry her (Dt 22:28–29).

13:19 dust on her head . . . tore the long-sleeved robe . . . put her hand on her head. All of these gestures, as well as her public weeping, were traditional signs of mourning. Amnon had wantonly destroyed her, and there was nothing anyone could do to set her life right. Women who have been raped often feel abandoned by society, and the very people who should have protected them are oblivious to their need for comfort. Rape is a private crime, and yet it is also a very public menace. It is difficult to redress the wrongs caused by rape without subjecting the victim to more publicity than is comfortable for someone who has already been severely traumatized.

13:21 very angry. David was angry, but he took no steps to discipline his son. Perhaps he felt he could not enforce exile on his son (Lev 18:9 , 29 ; 20:17), when the Lord had forgiven him in a similar circumstance. The big difference between David and Amnon was that David acknowledged his sin and was remorseful and repentant.

11:54 ).

13:29 mule. The mule, the offspring of a donkey and a horse, combines the size and strength of a horse with the surefootedness and endurance of a donkey. Although the Israelites were forbidden to breed such hybrids (Lev 19:19 ), mules were imported into Israel. They were the preferred mount of royalty during this period. (18:9 ; 1Ki 1:33 ).

13:37 Talmi. Talmi was Absalom's grandfather, the father of David's wife Maacah (3:3 ). He ruled as king of the territory of Geshur, northeast of the Sea of Galilee.

14:7 extinguish my coal that is left. The woman used a graphic picture of the extinction of her family. The demise of a family name and the end of a surviving remnant or family line were crucial matters to the Hebrew people.

14:11 avenger of blood. The Hebrew phrase, “avenger of blood” or “redeemer of blood” is closely related to the term “kinsman redeemer.” The kinsman redeemer is the protector of family rights. Here, the protector of the family would be expected to bring vengeance on one who had taken the life of a family member. Cities of refuge had been established under Moses for protection from a blood avenger in cases where the killing was accidental (Nu 35:9–34 ).

14:14 Restoration— The wise woman from Tekoa spoke compellingly of Absalom's (the banished one's) need to make things right with God. David, whose heart was leaning toward his son, was touched, and he brought Absalom back. But no restoration took place. Neither Absalom nor David discussed how they had failed to seek justice according to law in the case of Amnon and Tamar. Restoration is only possible if we are willing to look sin in the face and acknowledge the need to repent before God and turn to new and righteous ways.

It is difficult to know exactly what the woman is saying to David, because she is speaking with double meanings. On the surface is her made-up story, which is supposed to speak allegorically to David. In this instance she is referring to the fact that because “her son” did not kill “his brother” in pre-meditated murder, he should have found safety in a city of refuge. Absalom, however, did kill his brother in pre-meditated murder. The mitigating factor is that Amnon should have been banished for his rape of Tamar, and the king, Tamar's first protector, had done nothing. Absalom was the next in line as near relative of Tamar, so there was some justice in his desire to bring Amnon to account. Go to Theological Notes Index

14:19 hand of Joab. The exact extent of the under-game Joab was playing is not explained. Joab had been a difficult force in David's life (13:37–39 ). Joab had killed Abner in a way that David considered unjust, and it was Joab who arranged Uriah's death for David. These factors, and the fact that Joab was in some way sponsoring Absalom's return, made the relationship between David and Joab uneasy. The old trust was gone.

14:24 do not let him see my face. Absalom was allowed to return, but his position was not restored. There were issues of justice that had not been settled. One was David's apparent indifference to the sin of Amnon, and the other was whether Amnon's death was an act of justice or an act of murder. It never pays to let matters of justice remain undecided for a long period of time. It creates bitterness and disrespect for the authorities whose job it is to decide matters of justice, and the people involved become set in their attitudes in a way that makes repentance and restitution virtually impossible.

14:26 200 shekels. The weight of Absalom's hair was about 5 pounds.

14:27 three sons. Apparently Absalom's sons did not live to maturity. When he set up a pillar in Jerusalem to memorialize his name, he said it was because he had no son.

14:32 Come here. Apparently Joab did not sponsor Absalom to the extent of acting as a go-between with his father. Absalom responded with the attitude of a superior to an inferior, not what one might expect from the king's son to his father's highest ranking officer. It seems from the fearless and high handed way in which he answered Joab that Absalom was already seeing himself as his father's successor.

15:4 I would get justice for him. Administration of justice, the proper relationship between people in society according to God's standard of righteousness, was a major concern of the Old Testament rulers and prophets (8:15 ; 1Ki 3:28 ; Isa 1:17 ; Am 5:24 ). Absalom is playing on the people's emotions, and perhaps justifying himself in his actions against Amnon as well.

15:13 The hearts of the men of Israel. When David's power in Judah was confined to Hebron (ch. 2 ) he was resented by the supporters of Saul in the rest of the country. Old suspicions and resentments can be stoked again by a person who knows how to use people to his own advantage—a disreputable quality in which Absalom excelled.

15:15 your servants are ready. The loyalty of David's servants must have been a real encouragement in a time of such disloyalty from David's own family.

15:18 Cherethites, Pelethites. The Cherethites and Pelethites were elite units of David's army. These trusted troops of David were not Israelites, but mercenaries from a variety of nations, possibly Crete and Philistia. They had been with David for years, owed him their loyalty, and would defend him and his family to the death. Gittites. The Gittites were probably Philistine mercenary soldiers who were among David's original followers from Gath (1Sa 22:1–2 ).

15:19–21 Righteousness— Making the choice to stand with the right man, even when it looked like he might spend the rest of his life in exile was not practical, but it was right. We will all have to make choices to tell the truth, stand up for honorable actions, or support someone who is right but not powerful. Taking the right path does not mean it will be easy, but when we are on the right path, God is with us, “Even . . . through the [sunless] valley of the shadow of death” (Ps 23:4 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

15:21 whether for death or life. David rewarded Ittai's loyalty when he made Ittai commander of a third of the army (18:2 ).

15:23 Brook Kidron. The Brook Kidron is a small stream that flows through the valley separating Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives during the rainy season (October through March). way of the wilderness. The way of the wilderness refers to the road leading through the wilderness of Judah to Jericho and down to the fords of the Jordan.

15:25 He will bring me back again. David committed the entire situation to the care and will of the Lord.

15:31 Ahithophel. Ahithophel was Bathsheba's grandfather (11:3 ; 23:34 ). A wise counselor (16:23 ), he had been in David's service (v. 12 ) but had switched his allegiance to Absalom. David's prayer was for his enemy to be confused. The name Ahithophel may mean “Brother of Folly.”

15:34 thwart (make useless) the advice. David had committed the entire situation to the care and will of the Lord, but he was acting wisely to protect himself and to provide a source of information as well as an inside confederate to confound the enemy.

16:1 Ziba. A longtime servant of both Saul and Mephibosheth, Ziba was expressing his loyalty to King David.

16:5 Bahurim. Bahurim was near Jerusalem, east of the Mount of Olives (3:16 ). cursing continually. These were not simple insults or the words of someone with a foul mouth. Shimei was asking God to destroy David (Nu 22:6 ).

16:6 threw stones. Throwing stones is a gesture of contempt, as if the fleeing king were merely a stray dog. Stones can also be deadly, as is shown by the fact that stoning was a normal means of capital punishment among the Hebrews (1Ki 21:13 ).

16:9–13 Forbearance— David was more aware of his failure as a father than his dignity as a king. David knew that both Moses and Saul had been disciplined by God, and he certainly did not rule out the idea that both Absalom's rebellion and Shimei's cursing might be part of a lesson that God had for him. He was willing to endure both while he waited to see how God would work things out. Go to

Theological Notes Index

16:10 What business is this of yours. This idiom means that David did not share the feelings and views of Abishai.

16:21–22 concubines. In ancient times taking over a king's harem was a recognized means of claiming the throne. Once Absalom violated David's concubines, he was set on a course of sure and final alienation from his father. Putting his tent on the roof was a public and insolent act.

17:2 I will attack the king alone. In a battle, it is a little rash to promise to kill only one person. Ahithophel was suggesting that David's companions and troops would switch their loyalty to Absalom if David were killed.

17:8 bear deprived of her cubs. There is no more dangerous foe in the woods than a mother bear who believes her cubs to be in danger.

17:22 crossed the Jordan. Although the Jordan was not a large river, crossing it provided a barrier between him and his enemies. The tribal allotments included land on both sides of the Jordan, but there was always an emotional understanding that the "real" land of Israel was west of the Jordan. David was truly an exile.

17:27 Shobi . . . Barzillai. The gifts of these three men showed a real understanding of the material needs of the exiles, and this act of kindness must have been very encouraging to them. Machir. Jonathan's son Mephibosheth was living with Machir when David found him (9:4 ).

18:3–4 Wisdom— One facet of good leadership is the ability to delegate authority to others and leave the results in the hands of God. Waiting in safety was not David's idea, but it seemed best to others, so David agreed. David's strength as a leader lay in having the hearts of his followers, and they in turn put his safety as a high priority. These loyal men did not think that God was done with David as king, and David needed their wisdom. Go to Theological Notes Index

18:9 massive tree. This strong, massive tree, sometimes translated terebinth or elm, was native to the land of Israel and grew to a height of about 35 feet.

18:23 by the way of the plain. The plain was the floor of the Jordan valley. Ahimaaz took a longer route, but avoided the hilly terrain on the road taken by the Cushite.

18:33 O my son Absalom. David's grief can be understood by any parent who has lost a child to vice or crime. Absalom was a rebel, but he had been a little boy born to David in the early years as king in Hebron, and for David he would always be that beloved son. Absalom deserved to die, and David knew it, but he still longed for things to have turned out differently. In a few short years the repercussions of his sin with Bathsheba had destroyed the lives of Amnon, Tamar, and Absalom.

18:33 Despondency— In many ways mental suffering is more intense and devastating than physical suffering. It was hard for David to even imagine taking up life again and going back to Jerusalem as king. It is only the Lord who can give courage in such moments, and He often does it by reminding us of who He is, what He has done in the past, and what He promises to do in the future. Sandwiched in these certainties, we can begin to see that His hand is on us even in our grief. Go to Theological Notes Index

19:11 elders of Judah. David asked his friends, the priests, to begin the movement to invite David back to his throne. Apparently he did not want to come into Jerusalem without public support for his rule.

19:13 Amasa. David's nephew Amasa had commanded the army of Absalom (17:25 ). When David offered him the position of commander it was probably intended to secure Amasa's allegiance as well as discipline Joab for killing Absalom against David's orders.

19:23 the king gave him his promise. The king was willing to accept Shimei as a loyal subject if he continued in his loyalty, and he swore that he would not kill Shimei. Apparently David did not trust Shimei, for he later directed Solomon to kill him (1Ki 2:8 ) along with others that he considered dangerous to Solomon's reign. David could not put Shimei to death himself because of his oath, but his son could do it if there was just cause.

19:27 do what is good in your eyes. David did not try to decide whether it was Ziba or Mephibosheth who was telling the truth. He commanded that they divide the land. Each was provided for; neither was validated in his claims.

19:36 Love— Barzillai's acts of hospitality were acts of love: love for the Lord, and love for his king (Mk 9:41 ). Such true acts of kindness may bring a reward, but the real reward is the pleasure that comes with giving. Go to Theological Notes Index

20:6 us more harm. Sheba's revolt had more potential for destroying David's reign than Absalom's revolt because it was based on long-standing tribal animosity between Judah and the tribe of Benjamin.

20:9 my brother. This was not the first time Joab had killed a man while pretending to have a friendly word with him (3:27 ). The text does not say whether he suspected Amasa of treachery in his delay, or if Joab was acting out of jealousy, protecting his own long standing position of leader of David's army.

20:13–22 Strife— Once again David had an opportunity to demonstrate that it was God who had chosen him to be king. If a leader has to contend for his position he is sure to leave rebellion and destruction in his wake. Go to Theological Notes Index

21:1 because he put the Gibeonites to death. When the Israelites first came into the promised land under the leadership of Joshua, the Gibeonites had deceived them into making a treaty that guaranteed their protection and security (Jos 9:3–27 ). Saul had broken that agreement.

21:10 Rizpah. Rizpah remained near the bodies, protecting them from scavengers, from the barley harvest to the early rains (late April to October). This heartbreaking devotion from the mother of two of the slain men commended her to David, and finally the bones of Saul and all of his sons were buried in the family grave site.

21:14 God was moved by prayer for the land. It is hard to understand why the death of the descendants of Saul as payment for his treachery was something that would be connected to God hearing prayers for famine. Saul was described as rebellious, and apparently his disobedience was more far reaching than is recorded in Scripture. Possibly the men who were killed had been implicated in killing the Gibeonites. Even if we do not understand, we can always be sure that God is just and God is righteous.

21:16 giant. The giants were the Rephaim, a people living in Canaan who were noted for their large size.

22:1 words of this song. This psalm later became part of the congregational worship of Israel (Ps 18 ), but it began as David's personal and earnest expression of praise to the Lord.

22:3 the horn of my salvation. The horn of an animal is used for protection and defense, so it is a good word picture for a sign of might and power.

22:6 Sheol. Sheol is used in Hebrew poetry as a synonym for death. In the Old Testament, Sheol is described as a place of dust, referring to death (Job 17:16 ), a place of decay (Ps 16:10 ), and as a pit (Isa 14:15 ).

22:22 I have kept the ways of the LORD . David did not keep the ways of the Lord perfectly. His sins have been written down for the whole world to know throughout the ages. But he never forgot the Lord, always knew that what he did mattered to God, and always turned his steps back to the Lord when he went astray. Like Paul, David ran the race in such a way as to get the prize (1Co 9:24 ).

22:34 doe's feet. The type of deer indicated in this passage is noted for its swiftness, agility, and sure-footedness.

22:35 bend (pull back) a bow of bronze. It would take unusual strength to bend a bronze bow (Job 20:24 ).

22:47 The LORD lives. This shout of exaltation is the heart cry of every follower of God. The difference between the Living God and the dead idols that entrapped so many in the countries around him stood out very strongly to David.

22:51 His anointed. David was anointed by God to be king of Israel. He was set aside for a certain job. Jesus is the ultimate Anointed One, which is the meaning of the Hebrew name Messiah and the Greek name Christ.

23:1 sweet psalmist of Israel. Of the 150 psalms in the Book of Psalms, 73 are attributed to David by the text. No person in Scripture is more closely associated with music in the worship of the Lord than King David. He left behind a beautiful record of his heartfelt love of the Lord, his struggles, and his victories.

23:3–4 Fear of God— For centuries certain dynasties of rulers in Europe claimed the divine right to rule. Certainly the Bible teaches that government is ordained of God (Ro 13 ). But it also teaches that rulers have a deep stewardship responsibility. They are to rule men in the fear of God. Over and over again it is shown that God sets rulers in place, and also deposes those who consistently rebel against Him. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:5 everlasting covenant. David celebrates his everlasting covenant (7:12–16 ) here and in Psalm 89 .

23:6–7 the wicked and worthless. This is an expression of contempt and scorn, the phrase that Shimei hurled at David when David was fleeing from the rebellion of his son Absalom (16:7 ). The expression was also used to describe Sheba, the scoundrel from the tribe of Benjamin (20:1 ). David anticipated God's judgment on the ungodly, who are likened to thorns fit only to be burned.

23:8 mighty men. The term "mighty men" suggests that these were the elite of David's troops, possibly his personal body guards. These men were heroes in the full sense of the word. Their listing must have inspired others to attain such accomplishments.

23:13–14 Valley of Rephaim. This valley was a route to Jerusalem. Bethlehem. David's hometown (1Sa 16:1–3 ) was about six miles south of Jerusalem.

23:15 give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem. Anyone who has grown up with an especially good well for drinking water can identify with David's craving. The taste of the water from the well at "home" seems more thirst quenching, more heartening, than any other.

23:16 poured it out [in worship] to the LORD . David was deeply moved by this act of loyalty. He could have let it make him feel important, but instead he dedicated the water to the Lord, knowing that no man's craving should be satisfied at the risk of another man's life.

24:3 why does my lord the king want to do this thing. God was angry with Israel, and the numbering and resulting pestilence were a part of His plan to deal with Israel in such a way that they did not become complacent. This incident is not well explained in Scripture. Joab knew that David was acting presumptuously, but at this point David could not see it. Perhaps the census showed a lack of trust in the Lord, and a sense that the might of the nation rested in its armed men.

24:9 men who drew the sword. The numbers given refer only to men of military age. It is impressive that the division of Israel and Judah was so well established. This division would in the end result in a divided kingdom.

24:10 David's heart (conscience) troubled him. The text does not state precisely what David's sin was. His heart was always sensitive to God's will, and he quickly confessed his sin and sought restoration with the Lord.

24:24 threshing floor. The threshing floor was located on Mount Moriah, where Abraham had bound Isaac (Ge 22:2 ). Later, Solomon would build the temple at this site (1Ki 6:1 ; 1Ch 21:27–22:1 ; 2Ch 3:1 ). fifty shekels of silver. The fifty shekels of silver paid only for the threshing floor, the oxen, and the implements. The land that surrounded the threshing floor would cost considerably more—six hundred shekels, or 15 pounds of gold (1Ch 21:25 ).

24:25 burnt offerings and peace offerings. The burnt offering was the principal atoning sacrifice for unintentional sins (Lev 1:1–17 ; 6:8–13 ). It was completely consumed on the altar, except for the hide, which was given to the officiating priest. The peace offering was an optional sacrifice, which did not form any part of the regular offerings required in the tabernacle or temple. It was a voluntary expression of thanksgiving or worship (Lev 3:1–17 ; 7:11–34 ).

The First Book of the Kings

- AUTHOR: Both 1 and 2 Kings emphasize God's righteous judgment on idolatry and immorality. The style of these books is similar to that found in Jeremiah. The author of 1 Kings is unknown, but evidence supports the Talmudic tradition that Kings was written by Jeremiah. Clearly, the author was a prophet/historian as evidenced in the prophetic exposé of apostasy.
- TIMES: c. 971–851 BC
- KEY VERSES: 1Ki 9:4–5
- THEME: First Kings continues the saga of the kings of Israel after David. Solomon's reign and the details of the building of the temple take up a major portion of 1 Kings. After Solomon, the kingdom divides, and we have parallel narratives of the Northern Kingdom, Israel, and the Southern Kingdom, Judah. The book covers a span of about 120 years. During these years, idolatry becomes the norm, and God is largely forgotten. After Solomon, the main character of the book is Elijah the prophet.

1 Kings 1

David in Old Age

<sup>2</sup> So his servants said to him, “Let a young virgin be found for my lord the king and let her attend him and become his nurse; let her lie against your chest, so that my lord the king may feel warm.”

<sup>4</sup> The girl was very beautiful; and she became the king’s nurse and served him, but the king was not intimate with her.

<sup>5</sup> Then Adonijah the son of [David’s wife] Haggith exalted himself, saying, “I [the eldest living son] will be king.” So [following Absalom’s example] he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. [2 Sam 15:1] ‡

<sup>6</sup> His father [David] had never rebuked him at any time by asking, “Why have you done this?” Adonijah was also a very handsome man, and he was born after Absalom. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fattened steers by the Stone of Zoheleth, which is beside [the well] En-rogel; and he invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the men of Judah, the king’s servants [to this feast]. [2 Sam 15:7–12]

<sup>10</sup> But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the most formidable warriors, or his brother Solomon.

Nathan and Bathsheba

<sup>11</sup> Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, “Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know about it? ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Come now, please let me advise you and save your life and the life of your son Solomon.  [2 Sam 12:24, 25 ]

<sup>13</sup> “Go at once to King David and say to him, ‘Did you not, my lord, O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, ‘Solomon your son shall certainly be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne’? Why then has Adonijah become king?’ ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Behold, while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words.”

<sup>15</sup> So Bathsheba went to the king in his bedroom. Now the king was very old and weak, and Abishag the Shunammite was attending the king.

<sup>16</sup> So Bathsheba bowed down and paid respect to the king. And the king said, “What do you wish?”

<sup>17</sup> She said to him, “My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, saying, ‘Solomon your son shall certainly be king after me and he shall sit on my throne.’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But now, behold, Adonijah is [acting as] king; and now [as things stand], my lord the king, you do not know it.

<sup>19</sup> “He has sacrificed oxen and fattened steers and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king’s sons and Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army [to a feast], but he did not invite your servant Solomon. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Now as for you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you [waiting for you] to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

<sup>21</sup> “Otherwise it will come about when my lord the king lies down [in death] with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered political enemies.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then Nathan said, “My lord the king, have you said, ‘Adonijah shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne’?”

<sup>25</sup> “Because he has gone down today [to En-Rogel] and has sacrificed oxen and fattened steers and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king’s sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest [to this feast]; and [right now] they are eating and drinking in his presence; and they say, ‘Long live King Adonijah!' ‡

<sup>26</sup> "But he has not invited me, your servant, nor Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, nor your servant Solomon.

<sup>27</sup> "If this thing has been done by my lord the king, why have you not shown your servants who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

<sup>28</sup> King David answered, "Call Bathsheba to me." And she came into the king's presence and stood before him.

<sup>29</sup> Then the king swore an oath and said, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul from all distress, ‡

<sup>30</sup> even as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, 'Solomon your son shall certainly be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place'; I will indeed do so this very day." ‡

<sup>32</sup> Then King David said, "Call Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada to me." And they came before the king.

<sup>33</sup> The king told them, "Take the servants of your lord with you and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule, and bring him down to [the spring at] Gihon [in the Kidron Valley]. ‡

<sup>34</sup> "Let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there as king over Israel. Then blow the trumpet and say, 'Long live King Solomon!' ‡

<sup>35</sup> "Then you shall come up [to Jerusalem] after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne and he shall reign as king in my place; for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah."

<sup>36</sup> Benaiah [the overseer of the king's bodyguards], the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Amen! (So be it!) May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so too.

<sup>37</sup> "Just as the LORD has been with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David!" ‡

Solomon Anointed King

<sup>38</sup> So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites [the king's bodyguards] went down [from Jerusalem] and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and brought him to

39 Zadok the priest took a horn of [olive] oil from the [sacred] tent and anointed Solomon. They blew the trumpet, and all the people said, “Long live King Solomon!” ‡

<sup>40</sup> All the people went up after him, and they were playing on flutes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth shook and seemed to burst open with their [joyful] sound.

<sup>41</sup> Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. When Joab heard the trumpet sound, he said, “Why is the city in such an uproar?”

<sup>42</sup> While he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest arrived. And Adonijah said, “Come in, for you are a valiant and trustworthy man and you bring good news.”  [2 Sam 17:17–21 ] ‡

<sup>43</sup> But Jonathan replied to Adonijah, “No, on the contrary, our lord King David has made Solomon king!

<sup>44</sup> “The king has sent him with Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have had him ride on the king’s [own royal] mule.

<sup>45</sup> “Also, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon, and they have come up from there celebrating, so the city is in an uproar. This is the noise which you have heard.

<sup>47</sup> Moreover, the king’s servants came to bless (congratulate) our lord King David, saying, ‘May your God make the name of Solomon better (more famous) than your name and make his throne greater than your throne.’ And the king bowed himself [before God] upon the bed. ‡

<sup>48</sup> “The king has also said this: ‘Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has granted one [of my descendants] to sit on my throne today and allowed my eyes to see it.’ ” ‡

<sup>49</sup> Then all Adonijah’s guests were terrified [of being branded as traitors] and stood up and left the feast, and each one went on his way.

50 And Adonijah feared Solomon, and he got up and went [to the tabernacle on Mt. Zion] and took hold of the horns of the altar [seeking asylum]. ‡

<sup>51</sup> Now Solomon was told, “Behold, Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon, and behold, he has grasped the horns of the altar [seeking God’s protection], saying, ‘King Solomon must swear to me today that he will not kill his servant with the sword.’ ”

<sup>53</sup> So King Solomon sent [soldiers], and they brought Adonijah down from the altar [that was in front of the tabernacle]. And he came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, “Go to your house.”

1 Kings 2

David's Charge to Solomon

<sup>2</sup> “I am going the way of all the earth [as dust to dust]. Be strong and prove yourself a man. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Keep the charge of the LORD your God, [that is, fulfill your obligation to] walk in His ways, keep His statutes, His commandments, His precepts, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, so that you may succeed in everything that you do and wherever you turn, ‡

<sup>4</sup> so that the LORD may fulfill His promise concerning me, saying, ‘If your sons are careful regarding their way [of life], to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and mind and with all their soul, you shall not fail to have a man (descendant) on the throne of Israel.’ ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Now you also know what Joab the son of Zeruiah [my sister] did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether, [both of] whom he murdered; avenging the blood of war in [a time of] peace. And he put the [innocent] blood of war [of Abner and Amasa] on his belt that was around his waist, and on his sandals on his feet. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But be gracious and kind to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who [have the honor to] eat at your table; for they met me [with kindness] when I fled from your brother Absalom.  [2 Sam 17:27–29 ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> “And look, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite of Bahurim; he is the one who cursed me with a sinister curse the day I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at the Jordan [on my return], and I

swores to him by the LORD, saying, ‘I will not put you to death with the sword.’ ‡

<sup>9</sup> “But now do not let him go unpunished, for you are a wise man; and you will know what to do to him, and you will bring his gray head down to Sheol [covered] with blood.” ‡

Death of David

<sup>10</sup> So David lay down with his fathers [in death] and was buried in the City of David. ‡

<sup>11</sup> The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years: he reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now Adonijah the son of [David and] Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. She said, “Do you come in peace?” And he said, “In peace.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then he said, “I have something to say to you.” And she said, “Speak.”

<sup>15</sup> So he said, “You know that the kingdom belonged to me [as the eldest living son] and all Israel looked to me and expected me to be king. However, the kingdom has passed [from me] and became my brother’s, for it was his from the LORD. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “So now I am making one request of you; do not refuse me.” And she said to him, “Speak.”

<sup>17</sup> He said, “Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not refuse you; ask that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife.”  [1 Kin 1:1-4 ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> Bathsheba replied, “Very well; I will speak to the king for you.”

Adonijah Executed

<sup>19</sup> So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her, bowed before her, and sat down on his throne; then he had a throne set for her, the king’s mother, and she sat on his right. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then she said, “I am making one small request of you; do not refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you.”

<sup>22</sup> King Solomon answered and said to his mother, “And why are you asking for Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask the kingdom for him also—since he is my older brother—[ask it] for him and for Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Zeruiah [his supporters]!” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, “May God do the same to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not requested this [deplorable] thing against his own life.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> “So now, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house as He promised, Adonijah shall indeed be put to death today.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> So King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he struck Adonijah and he died.

<sup>26</sup> Then the king said to Abiathar the priest, “Go to Anathoth to your own fields, for you certainly deserve to die; but I will not put you to death this day, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and you suffered everything that my father endured.” ‡

Joab Executed

<sup>28</sup> Now the news reached Joab, for Joab had supported and followed Adonijah, although he had not followed Absalom. So Joab fled to the [sacred] tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar [to seek asylum]. ‡

<sup>29</sup> King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD and was at that moment beside the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, strike him down.”

<sup>30</sup> So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and told Joab, “This is what the king commands, ‘Come out of there.’ ” But Joab said, “No, for I will die here.” Then Benaiah brought word to the king again, saying, “This is what Joab said, and this is how he answered me.”

<sup>31</sup> The king said to him, “Do as he has said. Strike him down and bury him, so that you may remove from me and from my father’s house the innocent blood which Joab shed.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> “The LORD will return his bloody deeds upon his own head, because he struck down two men more righteous and honorable than he and killed them with the sword, without my father David knowing: Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.‡

<sup>34</sup> So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up [to the tabernacle] and struck and killed Joab, and he was buried at his own house in the wilderness [of Judah].

Shimei Executed

<sup>36</sup> Now the king sent word and called for Shimei and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there. Do not go from there to any other place.‡

<sup>37</sup> “For on the day you leave and cross over the Brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your own head.”‡

<sup>38</sup> Shimei said to the king, “The word (ruling) is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for many days.

<sup>40</sup> So Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to [King] Achish to look for his servants. And Shimei went and brought them back from Gath.

<sup>41</sup> Now Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned.

<sup>42</sup> So the king sent word and called for Shimei and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD and solemnly warn you, saying, ‘Know for certain that on the day you leave [Jerusalem] and go anywhere, you shall surely die’? And you said to me, ‘The word (ruling) I have heard is good.’”

<sup>43</sup> “Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD, and the command which I gave you?”

<sup>44</sup> The king also said to Shimei, “You are aware in your own heart of all the evil you did to my father David; so the LORD shall return your evil on your own head. ‡

<sup>45</sup> “But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever.” ‡

<sup>46</sup> So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck down Shimei, and he died. ‡

So the kingdom was established in the hands of Solomon.

1 Kings 3

Solomon's Rule Consolidated

<sup>1</sup> NOW SOLOMON became a son-in-law to Pharaoh king of Egypt [and formed an alliance] by taking Pharaoh's daughter [in marriage]. He brought her to the City of David [where she remained temporarily] until he had finished building his own house (palace) and the house of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>2</sup> But [in the meantime] the people were still sacrificing [to God] on the high places (hilltops) [as the pagans did to their idols], for there was no [permanent] house yet built for the Name of the LORD. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Now Solomon loved the LORD, walking [at first] in the statutes of David his father, except [for the fact that] he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places [ignoring the law that required all sacrifices to be offered at the tabernacle].  [Lev 17:3 , 4 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> The king went to Gibeon [near Jerusalem, where the tabernacle and the bronze altar stood] to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. ‡

<sup>5</sup> In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night; and God said, “Ask [Me] what I shall give you.” ‡

Solomon's Prayer

<sup>6</sup> Then Solomon said, “You have shown Your servant David my father great lovingkindness, because he walked before You in faithfulness and righteousness and with uprightness of heart toward You; and You have kept for him this great lovingkindness, in that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is today. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “So now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king in place of

David my father; and as for me, I am but a little boy [in wisdom and experience]; I do not know how to go out or come in [that is, how to conduct business as a king]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Your servant is among Your people whom You have chosen, a great people who are too many to be numbered or counted. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “So give Your servant an understanding mind and a hearing heart [with which] to judge Your people, so that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge and rule this great people of Yours?”  [James 1:5] ‡

God’s Answer

<sup>10</sup> Now it pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this thing.

<sup>11</sup> God said to him, “Because you have asked this and have not asked for yourself a long life nor for wealth, nor for the lives of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to recognize justice, ‡

<sup>12</sup> behold, I have done as you asked. I have given you a wise and discerning heart (mind), so that no one before you was your equal, nor shall anyone equal to you arise after you. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “I have also given you what you have not asked, both wealth and honor, so that there will not be anyone equal to you among the kings, for all your days. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “If you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and My commandments, as your father David did, then I will lengthen your days.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Solomon awoke, and he realized that it was a dream. He came [back] to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and he prepared a feast for all his servants.  [2 Sam 6:17] ‡

Solomon Wisely Judges

<sup>16</sup> Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him. ‡

<sup>17</sup> And the one woman said, “O my lord, this woman and I live in the same house; and I gave birth to a child while she was in the house.

<sup>18</sup> “And on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. And we were [alone] together; no one else was with us in the house, just we two.

<sup>19</sup> “Now this woman’s son died during the night, because she lay on him

[and smothered him].

<sup>20</sup> “So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from [his place] beside me while your maidservant was asleep, and laid him on her bosom, and laid her dead son on my bosom.

<sup>21</sup> “When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, behold, he was dead. But when I examined him carefully in the morning, behold, it was not my son, the one whom I had borne.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the other woman said, “No! For my son is the one who is living, and your son is the dead one.” But the first woman said, “No! For your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.” [This is how] they were speaking before the king.

<sup>23</sup> Then the king said, “This woman says, ‘This is my son, the one who is alive, and your son is the dead one’; and the other woman says, ‘No! For your son is the dead one, and my son is the one who is alive.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> Then the king said, “Bring me a sword.” So they brought a sword before the king.

<sup>25</sup> Then the king said, “Cut the living child in two, and give half to the one [woman] and half to the other.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the woman whose child was the living one spoke to the king, for she was deeply moved over her son, “O my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him.” But the other said, “He shall be neither mine nor yours; cut him!” ‡

<sup>27</sup> Then the king said, “Give the first woman [who is pleading for his life] the living child, and by no means kill him. She is his mother.”

<sup>28</sup> When all [the people of] Israel heard about the judgment which the king had made, they [were in awe and reverently] feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was within him to administer justice. ‡

1 Kings 4

Solomon's Officials

<sup>5</sup> Azariah the son of Nathan was in charge of the deputies; Zabud the son of Nathan was priest and was the king's friend [and trusted advisor]; ‡

<sup>6</sup> Ahishar was in charge of the household (palace); and Adoniram the son of Abda was in charge of the forced labor. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer who was in the land. ‡

Solomon's Power, Wealth and Wisdom

<sup>20</sup> [The people of] Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand that is in abundance by the sea; they were eating and drinking and rejoicing. ‡

to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt; they brought tribute (money) and served Solomon all the days of his life. ‡

22 Solomon's food [for the royal household] for one day was thirty kors of finely milled flour, sixty kors of wheat flour,

23 ten fat oxen, twenty pasture-fed oxen, a hundred sheep not counting fallow deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened fowl.

24 For he was ruling over everything west of the [Euphrates] River, from Tiphsah to Gaza, over all the kings west of the [Euphrates] River; and he had peace on all sides around him. ‡

25 Judah and Israel lived in security, every man under his vine and fig tree [in peace and prosperity], from Dan [in the north] to Beersheba [in the south], during all the days of Solomon.  [Mic 4:3., 4. ] ‡

26 Solomon also had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots, and 12,000 horsemen. ‡

27 Those deputies provided food for King Solomon and for all [the staff] who came to King Solomon's table, each in his month; they let nothing be lacking. ‡

28 They also brought the barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds (warhorses, chargers) to the place where it was needed, each man according to his assignment.

29 Now God gave Solomon [exceptional] wisdom and very great discernment and breadth of mind, like the sand of the seashore. ‡

30 Solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the sons of the east and all the wisdom of Egypt. ‡

31 For he was wiser than all [other] men, [wiser] than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. His fame was known in all the surrounding nations. ‡

32 He also spoke 3,000 proverbs, and his songs were 1,005. ‡

33 He spoke of trees, from the cedar which is in Lebanon to the hyssop [vine] that grows on the wall; he spoke also of animals, of birds, of creeping things, and fish.

34 People came from all the peoples (nations) to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom. ‡

1 Kings 5

Alliance with King Hiram

<sup>3</sup> “You know that David my father could not build a house (temple) for the Name (Presence) of the LORD his God because of the wars which surrounded him, until the LORD put his enemies under his feet.  [2 Sam 7:4ff ; 1 Chr 22:8 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> “But now that the LORD my God has given me rest [from war] on every side, there is neither adversary nor misfortune [confronting me]. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Behold, I intend to build a house (temple) to the Name of the LORD my God, just as the LORD said to my father David: ‘Your son whom I will put on your throne in your place shall build the house for My Name and Presence.’ ‡

<sup>6</sup> “So now, command that they cut cedar trees from Lebanon for me, and my servants will join your servants, and I will give you whatever wages you set for your servants. For you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the men of Sidon.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, “Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given David a wise son [to be king] over this great people.”

<sup>8</sup> So Hiram sent word to Solomon, saying, “I have heard the message which you sent to me; I will do everything you wish concerning the cedar and cypress timber.

<sup>9</sup> “My servants will bring the logs down from Lebanon to the [Mediterranean] sea, and I will have them made into rafts to go by sea to the place (port) that you direct me; then I will have them broken up there, and you shall carry them away. Then you shall return the favor by providing food for my household.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, just as He promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty. ‡

Conscription of Laborers

<sup>13</sup>-King Solomon levied forced laborers from all Israel; and the forced laborers numbered 30,000 men.

<sup>14</sup> He sent them to Lebanon, 10,000 a month in shifts; one month they were in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced laborers. ‡

<sup>16</sup> besides Solomon's 3,300 chief deputies who were in charge of the project and who were in charge of the people doing the work.

<sup>18</sup> So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the men of Gebal cut and chiseled the stones, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house (temple).

1 Kings 6

The Building of the Temple

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv (April-May) which is the second month, that he began to build the Lord's house (temple). ‡

<sup>5</sup> Against the wall of the house he built extensions around the walls of the house, around both the main room (Holy Place) and the Holy of Holies; and he made side chambers all around. ‡

<sup>6</sup> The lowest story was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for he made offsets (niches) in the walls all around on the outside of the house so that the supporting beams would not be inserted into the walls of the house.

<sup>7</sup> While it was being built, the house was built of stone prepared and finished (prefabricated) at the quarry, and no hammer, axe, or iron tool of any kind was heard in the house while it was under construction. ‡

<sup>8</sup> The entrance to the lowest side chamber was on the right [or south] side of the house; and they would go up winding stairs to the middle [level], and from the middle to the third.

<sup>9</sup> So Solomon built the house (temple) and finished it, and roofed the house with beams and boards of cedar. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then he built the extensions [of rooms] against the entire house, each [story] five cubits high; and they were attached to the house with timbers of cedar.

<sup>12</sup> “Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes and execute My precepts and keep all My commandments by walking in them, then I will carry out My word (promises) with you which I made to David your father. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “I will dwell among the sons (descendants) of Israel, and will not abandon My people Israel.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> He built the walls of the interior of the house [that is, the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies] with boards of cedar, from the floor of the house to the rafters of the ceiling. He overlaid the interior with wood, and he overlaid the floor of the house with boards of cypress.

<sup>17</sup> The [rest of the] house, that is, the temple in front of the Holy of Holies, was forty cubits long.

<sup>18</sup> The cedar on the house within had wood carvings in the shape of gourds and open flowers. Everything was cedar; no stone was visible.

<sup>19</sup> Then he prepared the Holy of Holies within the house in order to put the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.

<sup>20</sup> The Holy of Holies was twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and twenty cubits in height (a cube), and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the cedar altar [with gold].

chains of gold across the front of the Holy of Holies (inner sanctuary), and he overlaid it with gold.

<sup>22</sup> Then he overlaid the entire house with gold, until the whole house was finished. He also overlaid the entire [incense] altar which was by the Holy of Holies with gold. ‡

23. Within the Holy of Holies he made two cherubim (sculptured figures) of olive wood, each ten cubits high. ‡

<sup>24</sup> One wing of the cherub was five cubits long, and the other wing was also five cubits long; it was ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

<sup>25</sup> The [wingspan of the] other cherub was also ten cubits. The measurements and cut (shape) of the two cherubim were the same;

<sup>26</sup> the height of the one cherub was ten cubits, as was the other.

<sup>27</sup> He put the cherubim [above the ark] inside the innermost room of the house, and their wings were spread out so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall; and their inner wings were touching each other in the middle of the house. ‡

<sup>29</sup> He carved all the walls of the house all around with carved engravings of cherubim, palm-shaped decorations, and open flowers, [both] the inner and the outer sanctuaries .

<sup>30</sup> He overlaid the floor of the house with gold, [both] the inner and outer sanctuaries .

31. For the entrance of the Holy of Holies he made two [folding] doors of olive wood, the lintel (header above the door) and five-sided doorposts (frames).

<sup>32</sup> So he made two doors of olive wood, and he carved on them carvings of cherubim, palm-shaped decorations, and open flowers; and overlaid them with gold; and he hammered out overlays of gold on the cherubim and palm decorations.

<sup>33</sup> Also he made for the entrance of the [outer] sanctuary (the Holy Place) four-sided doorposts (frames) of olive wood

<sup>34</sup> and two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door turned on pivots and were folding, and the two leaves of the other door also turned on pivots. ‡

<sup>38</sup> In the eleventh year [of King Solomon's reign] in the month of Bul (October-November), that is, the eighth month, the house was finished throughout all its parts and in accordance with all its specifications. So he built it in seven years. ‡

1 Kings 7

Solomon's Palace

<sup>2</sup> He also built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was a hundred cubits (150 ft.), its width fifty cubits (75 ft.), and its height thirty cubits (45 ft.), upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

<sup>3</sup> And it was covered with cedar [as a roof] on the supporting beams that were upon the forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row.

<sup>4</sup> There were artistic window frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

<sup>5</sup> All the doorways and doorposts [and windows] had squared [artistic] frames, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

<sup>6</sup> He also made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits (75 ft.) and its width thirty cubits (45 ft.). There was a porch in front, and pillars and a threshold in front of them.

<sup>7</sup> He made the hall for the throne where he was to judge, the Hall of Judgment; it was paneled with cedar from [one] floor to [another] floor.

<sup>8</sup> His house where he was to live, the other courtyard behind the hall, was of similar workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married. ‡

<sup>9</sup> All these were of expensive stones, of stone cut according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside; even from the foundation to the coping, and from the outside to the great courtyard.

<sup>10</sup> The foundation was of expensive stones, large stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits.

<sup>12</sup> So the great courtyard all around had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams like the inner courtyard of the house of the LORD, and the porch of the house. ‡

Hiram's Work in the Temple

<sup>14</sup> He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a craftsman in bronze. Hiram was filled with wisdom, understanding, and skill for doing any [kind of] work in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and did all his [bronze] work. ‡

<sup>15</sup> He cast the two pillars of bronze; the one pillar was eighteen cubits high, and a [measuring] line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of both. ‡

<sup>16</sup>-He also made two capitals (crowns) of cast bronze to put on the tops of the pillars; the height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

<sup>17</sup> There were nets of network (lattice-work) and twisted threads (wreaths) of chainwork for the capitals which were on the tops of the pillars, seven for one capital and seven for the other.

<sup>18</sup> So Hiram made the pillars [in this manner], and two rows around on the one network to cover the capitals which were on the top of the pomegranates; and he did the same for the other capital.

<sup>19</sup> The capitals which were upon the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily work (design), four cubits.

<sup>20</sup> The capitals were on the two pillars and also above and close to the rounded projection which was beside the network. There were two hundred pomegranates in rows around both capitals. ‡

<sup>22</sup> On the tops of the pillars was lily work (design). So the work of the pillars was finished.

30:17–21 ; 2 Chr 4:6 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three west, three south, and three east; the Sea was set on top of them, and all their rear parts pointed inward. ‡

<sup>26</sup> It was a hand width thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Then Hiram made ten bronze stands [for smaller basins]; the length of each stand was four cubits, its width was four cubits and its height was three cubits.

<sup>30</sup> Now each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and its four feet had supports [for a basin]. Beneath the basin were cast supports with borders at each side.

<sup>31</sup> Its opening inside the crown at the top measured a cubit, and its opening was round like the design of a pedestal, a cubit and a half. Also on its opening were carvings, and their borders were square, not round.

<sup>32</sup> Underneath the borders were four wheels, and the axles of the wheels were on the stand. And the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half.

<sup>34</sup> Now there were four supports at the four corners of each stand; the supports were part of the stand itself.

<sup>35</sup> On the top of the stand there was a circular piece half a cubit high, and on the top of the stand its supports and borders were part of it.

<sup>36</sup> And on the surface of its supports and its borders Hiram engraved cherubim, lions, and palm-shaped decorations, according to the [available] space for each, with borders all around.

<sup>37</sup> He made the ten stands like this: they all had one casting, one measure, and one form.

<sup>38</sup> Then he made ten basins of bronze; each basin held forty baths and was four cubits, and there was one basin on each of the ten stands. ‡

<sup>39</sup> Then he placed the bases, five on the right [or south] side of the house and five on the left [or north] side; and he set the Sea [of cast metal] on the right side of the house toward the southeast.

40 Now Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished all the work which he did for King Solomon on the house of the LORD:

41 the two pillars and the [two] bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on top of the pillars; ‡

42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars;

43 the ten stands and the ten basins on the stands;

44 one Sea (basin), and the twelve oxen under the Sea;

45 the pails, the shovels, and the bowls; all these utensils which Hiram made for King Solomon in the house of the LORD were of polished bronze. ‡

46 In the plain of the Jordan [River] the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. ‡

47 Solomon left all the utensils unweighed, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

48 Solomon made all the [other] furniture which was in the house of the LORD: the [incense] altar of gold; the table of gold on which was the bread of the Presence; ‡

49 the lampstands of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left, in front of the Holy of Holies (inner sanctuary); with the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold;

50 the cups, snuffers, bowls, spoons, firepans—of pure gold; and the hinges of gold [both] for the doors of the inner house, the Holy of Holies, and for the doors of the house, the main room [the Holy Place].

51 So all the work that King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was completed. Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and the utensils—and he put them in the treasuries of the LORD’s house. ‡

The Ark Brought into the Temple

<sup>4</sup> They brought up the ark of the LORD and the Tent of Meeting and all the holy utensils that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up. ‡

<sup>7</sup> For the cherubim spread their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its [carrying] poles from above.

<sup>8</sup> The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were visible from the Holy Place that was in front of the Holy of Holies, but they were not visible from the outside; they are there to this day (the date of this writing). ‡

<sup>9</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb (Sinai), where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites when they came out of the land of Egypt.  [Deut 10:2–5 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now it happened that when the priests had come out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the LORD's house, ‡

<sup>11</sup> so the priests could not stand [in their positions] to minister because of the cloud, for the glory and brilliance of the LORD had filled the LORD's house (temple).

Solomon Addresses the People

“The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness [of the cloud].

A place for You to dwell in forever.”

<sup>15</sup> He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled it with His hand, saying, ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘Since the day that I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I did not choose a [particular] city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house so that My Name (Presence) would be in it, but I chose David to be over My people Israel.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Now it was [determined] in the heart of my father David to build a house (temple) for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel. ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a house for My Name, you did well, in that it was in your heart. ‡

<sup>19</sup> ‘Nevertheless, you shall not build the house, but your son, who shall be born to you, it is he who shall build it for My Name [and My Presence].’ ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; I have risen in the place of my father David and have taken my seat on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and have built the house (temple) for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “There I have made a place [in the Holy of Holies] for the ark, in which is the covenant (solemn agreement) of the LORD, which He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.”  [Ex 34:28. ] ‡

The Prayer of Dedication

<sup>23</sup> He said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth below, who keeps the covenant and shows lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart; ‡

<sup>24</sup> You who have kept what You promised to Your servant my father David. You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled Your word with Your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>25</sup> “Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep for Your servant my father David that which You promised him when You said, ‘You shall not be without a man (descendant) to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way [of life] to walk before Me [according to my laws] as you have done.’ ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Now, O God of Israel, please let Your word which You have spoken to Your servant David my father be confirmed. ‡

<sup>27</sup> “But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built! ‡

<sup>28</sup> “Yet graciously consider the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the [loud] cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You today;

<sup>29</sup> that Your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, ‘My Name (Presence) shall be there,’ that You may listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place. ‡

<sup>30</sup> “Listen to the prayer of Your servant and of Your people Israel which they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven, Your dwelling place; hear and forgive. ‡

<sup>31</sup> “If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath [of innocence] and he comes to take the oath before Your altar in this house (temple), ‡

<sup>32</sup> then hear from heaven and act and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked by bringing his guilt on his own head, and justifying the righteous by rewarding him in accordance with his righteousness. ‡

<sup>33</sup> “When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and then they turn to You again and praise Your Name and pray and ask for Your favor and compassion in this house (temple), ‡

<sup>34</sup> then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave their fathers.

<sup>35</sup> “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and praise Your name and turn from their sin when You afflict them, ‡

<sup>36</sup> then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel; indeed, teach them the good way in which they should walk (live). And send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “If there is famine in the land, or if there is pestilence (plague), blight, mildew, migratory locusts, or grasshoppers, if their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities, whatever affliction or plague, whatever sickness [there is], ‡

<sup>38</sup> whatever prayer or pleading is made by any individual, or by Your people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart, and spreading his hands out toward this house;

<sup>39</sup> then hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive and act and give to each according to his ways, whose heart (mind) You know, for You and You alone know the hearts of all the children of men, ‡

<sup>40</sup> so that they may fear You [with reverence and awe] all the days that they live in the land which You have given to our fathers. ‡

<sup>41</sup> “Moreover, concerning a foreigner who is not of Your people Israel, but comes from a far (distant) country for the sake of Your name [to plead with You]

<sup>42</sup> (for they will hear of Your great name, Your strong hand [of power], and outstretched arm); when he comes and prays toward this house (temple), ‡

<sup>43</sup> hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls upon (prays to) You, so that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You [with reverence and awe], as do Your people Israel, and that they may know [without any doubt] that this house which I have built is called by Your name. ‡

<sup>44</sup> “When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way You send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen and the house that I have built for Your Name and Presence,

<sup>46</sup> “When they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them and hand them over to the enemy, so that they are carried away captive to the enemy’s land, [whether] far away or near; ‡

<sup>47</sup> if they take it to heart in the land where they have been taken captive, and they repent and pray to You in the land of their captors, saying, ‘We have sinned and done wrong and we have acted wickedly;’ ‡

<sup>48</sup> if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and they pray to You toward their land [of Israel] which You gave to their fathers, the city [of Jerusalem] which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your Name and Presence; ‡

<sup>49</sup> then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven Your dwelling place, and maintain their right and defend their cause,

<sup>50</sup> and forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all the transgressions which they have committed against You, and make them objects of compassion before their captors, that they will be merciful to them ‡

<sup>51</sup> (for they are Your people and Your heritage, whom You brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace [of slavery and oppression]), ‡

<sup>52</sup> that Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant and to the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them and be attentive to them whenever they call to You.

<sup>53</sup> “For You singled them out from all the peoples of the earth as Your heritage, just as You declared through Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.” ‡

Solomon’s Benediction

<sup>54</sup> When Solomon finished offering this entire prayer and supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the LORD’s altar, where he had knelt down with his hands stretched toward heaven.

<sup>56</sup> “Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel, in accordance with everything that He promised. Not one word has failed of all His good promise, which He spoke through Moses His servant. ‡

<sup>57</sup> “May the LORD our God be with us as He was with our fathers; may He not leave us nor abandon us [to our enemies], ‡

<sup>58</sup> that He may guide our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways [following Him] and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His precepts which He commanded our fathers. ‡

<sup>59</sup> “Let these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, so that He will maintain the cause and right of His servant and of His people Israel as each day requires,

<sup>60</sup> so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no one else. ‡

<sup>61</sup> “Therefore, your hearts are to be wholly devoted to the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as [you are doing] today.” ‡

Dedicatory Sacrifices

<sup>62</sup> Then the king and all [the people of] Israel with him [repeatedly] offered sacrifice before the LORD. ‡

<sup>63</sup> Solomon offered as peace offerings to the LORD: 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the Israelites dedicated the house (temple) of the LORD.

<sup>64</sup> On that same day the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the house (temple) of the LORD; for he offered there the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to hold [all] the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat of the peace offerings. ‡

<sup>65</sup> So at that time Solomon held the feast, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath [on the northern border of Israel] to the Brook of Egypt [at Israel's southern border], before the LORD our God, for seven days and seven more days [beyond the prescribed period for the Feast of Booths], fourteen days in all. ‡

<sup>66</sup> On the eighth (fifteenth) day he sent the people away and they blessed the king. Then they went to their tents joyful and in good spirits because of all the goodness which the LORD had shown to David His servant and Israel His people. ‡

God's Promise and Warning

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened when Solomon had finished building the house (temple) of the LORD and the king's house (palace), and all else which he was pleased to do, ‡

<sup>2</sup> that the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, just as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. ‡

<sup>3</sup> The LORD told him, "I have heard your prayer and supplication which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built by putting My Name and My Presence there forever. My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually. ‡

<sup>4</sup> "As for you, if you walk (live your life) before Me, as David your father walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, acting in accordance with everything that I have commanded you, and will keep My statutes and My precepts, ‡

<sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, just as I promised your father David, saying, 'You shall not be without a man

(descendant) on the throne of Israel.’ ‡

<sup>6</sup> “But if you or your sons turn away from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them, ‡

<sup>7</sup> then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them, and I will cast out of My sight the house which I have consecrated for My Name and Presence. Then Israel will become a proverb (a saying) and a byword (object of ridicule) among all the peoples. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “This house (temple) will become a heap of ruins; everyone who passes by will be appalled and sneer and say, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this house?’ ‡

<sup>9</sup> “And they [who know] will say, ‘Because they abandoned the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and they have chosen other gods and have worshiped and served them; that is the reason the LORD has brought on them all this adversity.’ ”

Cities Given to Hiram

<sup>12</sup> So Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they did not please him.

<sup>13</sup> He said, “What are these cities [good for] which you have given me, my brother?” So they have been called the land of Cabul (like nothing, unproductive) to this day. ‡

<sup>23</sup> These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people doing the work. ‡

<sup>27</sup> And Hiram [king of Tyre] sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who knew the sea, along with the servants of Solomon. ‡

<sup>28</sup> They came to Ophir and took four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon. ‡

1 Kings 10

The Queen of Sheba

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with riddles. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So she came to Jerusalem with a very large caravan (entourage), with camels carrying spices, a great quantity of gold, and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about everything that was on her mind [to discover the extent of his wisdom].

<sup>3</sup> Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from the king which he did not explain to her.

<sup>4</sup> When the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house (palace) which he had built,

<sup>5</sup> the food on his table, the seating of his servants (court officials), the attendance of his waiters and their attire, his cupbearers, his stairway by which he went up to the house (temple) of the LORD, she was breathless and awed [by the wonder of it all]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then she told the king, “The report which I heard in my own land about your words and wisdom is true!

<sup>7</sup> “I did not believe the report until I came and saw it with my own eyes. Behold, the half of it was not told to me. You exceed in wisdom and prosperity the report which I heard.

<sup>9</sup> “Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you to set you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD loved Israel forever, He made you king to execute justice and righteousness.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> She gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold and a very great quantity of spices and precious stones. Never again did such an abundance of spices come in [to Israel] as that which the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Also the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir a great quantity of almug wood (sandalwood) and precious stones. ‡

<sup>12</sup> From the almug wood (sandalwood) the king made pillars for the house of the LORD and for the king’s palace, and also lyres and harps for the singers. Such almug wood did not come in [to Israel] again, nor has it been seen to this day. ‡

<sup>13</sup> King Solomon [in turn] gave to the queen of Sheba everything that she wanted, whatever she asked, besides what he gave to her from his royal bounty. So she returned to her own country, she and her servants.

Wealth, Splendor and Wisdom

<sup>14</sup> Now the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one [particular] year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

<sup>16</sup> King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten (hammered) gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.

<sup>19</sup> The throne had six steps, and a round top was attached to the throne from the back. On either side of the seat were armrests, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

<sup>20</sup> Twelve lions stood there, one on either end of each of the six steps; there was nothing like it made for any other kingdom.

<sup>24</sup> All the earth was seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his mind.

<sup>25</sup> Every man brought a gift [of tribute]: articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

<sup>29</sup> A chariot could be imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and in the same way they exported them, by the king's merchants, to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram (Syria). ‡

1 Kings 11

Solomon Turns from God

<sup>2</sup> from the very nations of whom the LORD said to the Israelites, “You shall not associate with them, nor shall they associate with you, for the result will be that they will turn away your hearts to follow their gods.” Yet Solomon clung to these in love.  [Deut 17:17 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away [from God].

<sup>6</sup> Solomon did evil [things] in the sight of the LORD, and did not follow the LORD fully, as his father David had done.

<sup>8</sup> And he did the same for all of his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

<sup>9</sup> So the LORD became angry with Solomon because his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, ‡

<sup>10</sup> and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not follow other gods; but he did not observe (remember, obey) what the LORD had commanded. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, “Because you have done this and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will certainly tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “However, I will not do it in your lifetime, for the sake of your father David, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son (Rehoboam).

<sup>13</sup> “However, I will not tear away all the kingdom; I will give one tribe (Judah) to your son for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen.” ‡

God Raises Adversaries

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD stirred up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of royal descent in Edom. ‡

<sup>15</sup> For it came about, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury those killed [in battle] and had struck down every male in Edom ‡

<sup>16</sup> (for Joab and all [the army of] Israel stayed there six months, until he had killed every male in Edom), <sup>17</sup> that Hadad escaped to Egypt, he and some Edomites from his father’s servants with him, while Hadad was [still] a little boy.

<sup>18</sup> They set out from Midian [south of Edom] and came to Paran, and took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave [young] Hadad a house and ordered food and provisions for him and gave him land.

<sup>19</sup> Hadad found great favor with Pharaoh, so that he gave Hadad in marriage the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

<sup>20</sup> The sister of Tahpenes gave birth to Genubath, Hadad’s son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh’s house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh’s household among the sons of Pharaoh.

<sup>21</sup> But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David had died and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, “Let me leave, so that I may go to my own country.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh said to him, “But what have you lacked with me that now you ask to go to your own country?” He replied, “Nothing; nevertheless you must let me go.”

<sup>24</sup> Rezon gathered men to himself and became leader of a marauding band, after David killed those in Zobah. They went to Damascus and stayed there and they reigned in Damascus.  [2 Sam 10:8, 18] ‡

<sup>25</sup> So Rezon was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the evil that Hadad inflicted. Rezon hated Israel and reigned over Aram (Syria).

<sup>28</sup> The man Jeroboam was a brave warrior and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he put him in charge of all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

<sup>30</sup> Then Ahijah took hold of the new cloak which he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces. ‡

<sup>31</sup>—He said to Jeroboam, “Take ten pieces for yourself; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I am going to tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon and give you ten tribes—‡

<sup>32</sup> but he [and his descendants] shall have one tribe (Benjamin was annexed to Judah), for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel—

<sup>33</sup> because they have abandoned Me and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon; and they have not walked in My ways and followed My commandments, doing what is right in My sight and keeping My statutes and My ordinances as did his father David. ‡

<sup>34</sup> ‘However, I will not take the entire kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of My servant David, whom I chose because he kept My commandments and My statutes.

<sup>35</sup> ‘But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and give it to you: ten tribes. ‡

<sup>36</sup>—‘Yet to his son I will give one tribe, so that My servant David may have a lamp always before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen to put My Name and Presence. ‡

<sup>37</sup> ‘I will take you [Jeroboam], and you shall reign over whatever your soul desires; and you shall be king over Israel (the ten northern tribes).

<sup>38</sup> ‘Then it shall be, that if you listen to all that I command you and walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight, keeping and observing My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then I will be with you and build you an enduring house, as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.’ ‡

<sup>39</sup> ‘And in this way I will afflict the descendants of David for this (their sin), but not forever.’ ”

<sup>40</sup> So Solomon attempted to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam set out and escaped to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and stayed in Egypt until Solomon died.

The Death of Solomon

1 Kings 12

King Rehoboam Acts Foolishly

<sup>2</sup> Now when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about it, he was living in Egypt (for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon). ‡

<sup>3</sup> So they sent word and called for him, and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup> “Your father made our yoke (burden) heavy; so now lighten the hard labor and the heavy yoke your father imposed on us, and we will serve you.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Rehoboam replied to them, “Leave for three days, then come back to me [for my decision].” So the people left.

<sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served and advised his father Solomon while he was still alive and said, “How do you advise me to answer this people?”

<sup>7</sup> They spoke to him, saying, “If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve them and grant their request, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> But he ignored the advice which the elders gave him and consulted the young men who grew up with him and served him.

<sup>9</sup> He said to them, “What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, ‘Lighten the yoke (burden) which your father put on us’?”

<sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him answered, “This is what you should say to this people who told you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but as for you, make our yoke lighter’—say this to them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins [and my reign will be even more severe].

<sup>11</sup> ‘And now, whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Jeroboam and all the people came back to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had instructed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

<sup>13</sup> The king answered the people harshly and ignored the advice which the elders had given him,

<sup>14</sup> and spoke to them in accordance with the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but as for me, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.”

<sup>15</sup> So the king did not listen to the people; for the situation was from the LORD, so that He might fulfill His word which He spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.  [1 Kin 11:29–33. ] ‡

The Kingdom Divided; Jeroboam Rules Israel

<sup>16</sup> So when all [the ten northern tribes of] Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people replied to the king, saying,

“What portion do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse;
To your tents, O Israel!
Look now after your own house, David!”

Then Israel went back to their tents. ‡ The Division of the Kingdom

<sup>18</sup> Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of the forced labor [to represent him], and all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam quickly mounted his chariot to escape to Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>19</sup> So Israel (the ten northern tribes) has rebelled against the house (royal line) of David to this day (the date of this writing). ‡

<sup>20</sup> It came about when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent word and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. None followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah [including Benjamin]. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Tell Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and all the house (fighting men) of Judah and Benjamin and the rest of the people,

<sup>24</sup> ‘Thus says the LORD, “You shall not go up and fight against your brothers, the sons of Israel. Let every man return to his house, for this thing has come about from Me.” ’ ” So they listened to the word of the LORD and returned to go home, in accordance with the word of the LORD. ‡

Jeroboam's Idolatry

<sup>25</sup> Then Jeroboam built Shechem [as his royal city] in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. He went out from there and rebuilt Penuel [as a stronghold]. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Jeroboam [doubted God's promise to him and] said in his heart, “Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.  [1 Kin 11:38 ]

<sup>27</sup> “If these people go up to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem to offer sacrifices, then their heart will turn to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.” ‡

<sup>28</sup> So the king took counsel [and followed bad advice] and made two calves of gold. And he said to the people, “It is too much for you to go [all the way] up to Jerusalem; behold your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.” ‡

<sup>29</sup> He set the one [golden calf] in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Now this thing became a sin [for Israel]; because the people went to worship before the one [or the other of them] as far as Dan. ‡

31 And Jeroboam also made houses on high places, and he made priests from all people who were not of the sons (descendants) of Levi. ‡

32 Jeroboam held a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the feast which is kept in Judah, and he went up to the altar; he did this in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves which he had made. And he stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.  [Lev 23:34. ] ‡

33 So he went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised in his own heart [in defiance of God's commandments]; and he held a feast for the Israelites and he went up to the altar to burn incense [in defiance of God's law.] ‡

1 Kings 13

Jeroboam Warned, Stricken

1 NOW BEHOLD, there came a man of God from Judah to Bethel by the word (command) of the LORD, while Jeroboam was standing by the altar [which he had built] to burn incense. ‡

2 The man cried out against the [idolatrous] altar by the word of the LORD, “O altar, altar, thus says the Lord: ‘Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and on you shall he sacrifice [the bodies of] the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and human bones shall be burned on you.’ ” ‡

3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, “This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: ‘Behold, the altar shall be split apart and the ashes that are on it shall be poured out.’ ”  [2 Kin 23:15, 16. ] ‡

4 When the king heard the words which the man of God cried out against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, “Seize him!” And his hand which he had put out against him withered, so that he was unable to pull it back to himself.

5 The altar also was split apart and the ashes were poured out from the altar in accordance with the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 The king answered and said to the man of God, “Please entreat [the favor of] the LORD your God and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me.” So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him and became as it was before. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And the king said to the man of God, “Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> But the man of God said to the king, “Even if you were to give me half your house (wealth), I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water in this place. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “For I was commanded by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall not eat bread or drink water, nor shall you return by the way you came.’ ” ‡

<sup>10</sup> So he went another way and did not return by the way that he came to Bethel.

The Disobedient Prophet

<sup>11</sup> Now there was an old prophet living in Bethel; and his sons came and told him everything that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” For his sons had seen which way the man of God who came from Judah had gone.

<sup>13</sup> He said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him and he rode away on it,

<sup>14</sup> and he went after the man of God. And he found him sitting under an oak (terebinth) tree, and he said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” And he said, “I am.”

<sup>15</sup> Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat bread.”

<sup>16</sup> He said, “I cannot return with you nor go in with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For I was told by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall not eat bread nor drink water there, nor shall you return by going the way that you came.’ ” ‡

<sup>18</sup> He answered him, “I too am a prophet, as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘Bring him back with you to your house, so that he may eat bread and drink water.’ ” But he lied to him.

<sup>19</sup> So the man of God went back with him, and ate bread in his house and drank water.

<sup>20</sup> Now it happened as they were sitting at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back.

<sup>21</sup> And he cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

<sup>22</sup> but have come back and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which the LORD said to you, “You shall not eat bread nor drink water”; your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers (ancestors). ”

<sup>23</sup> After the prophet of the house had eaten bread and after he had drunk, he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back.

<sup>25</sup> And there were men passing by, and they saw the body thrown in the road, and the lion standing beside the body. So they came and told about it in the city [of Bethel] where the old prophet lived.

<sup>26</sup> When the prophet who had brought him back from the road heard about it, he said, “It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke to him.”

<sup>27</sup> And he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And they saddled it.

<sup>28</sup> And he went and found the body thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion standing beside the body; the lion [miraculously] had not eaten the body or attacked the donkey.

<sup>29</sup> Then the prophet picked up the body of the man of God and laid it on the donkey and brought it back, and he came into the city (Bethel) of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him.

<sup>30</sup> And he laid the body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother!” ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then after he had buried him, he said to his sons, “When I am dead, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones. ‡

<sup>32</sup> “For the words which he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria shall certainly come to pass.” ‡

<sup>33</sup> After this event, Jeroboam [still] did not turn from his evil way, but again made priests for the high places from among all the people. He ordained anyone who was willing, so that there would be priests for the high places. ‡

1 Kings 14

Ahijah Prophesies against the King

<sup>2</sup> Jeroboam said to his wife, “Please get up and disguise yourself, so that people will not know that you are Jeroboam’s wife, and go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet is there, the one who told me that I would be king over this people. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a bottle of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Jeroboam’s wife did so. She got up and went [twenty miles] to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see, because his eyes were dim from old age. ‡

<sup>5</sup> And the LORD said to Ahijah, “Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you about her son, because he is sick. You shall say such and such to her, for when she arrives, she will pretend to be another woman.”

<sup>6</sup> So when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in the doorway, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another woman? For I have been sent to you [by God] with a harsh message .

<sup>7</sup> “Go, tell Jeroboam, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because I exalted you from among the people and made you leader over My people Israel, ‡

<sup>8</sup> and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you—but you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and followed Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes, ‡

<sup>9</sup> but have done more evil than all [the kings] who were before you; for you have gone and made for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back— ‡

<sup>10</sup> therefore behold, I am bringing evil on the house (royal line) of Jeroboam, and I will cut off (destroy) from Jeroboam every male, both bond and free, in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone. ‡

11 “The dogs will eat [the carcass of] anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city, and the birds of the sky will eat [the carcass of] anyone who dies in the field, for the LORD has spoken it.” ’  [Deut 28:26.] ‡

12 “Now as for you (Jeroboam’s wife), arise, go to your own house. When your feet enter the city, the child [Abijah] will die. ‡

13 “All Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he alone of Jeroboam’s family will come to [be placed in] the grave, because in him there was found something good and pleasing toward the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. ‡

14 “Moreover, the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house (royal line) of Jeroboam this day and from now on. ‡

15 “The LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and He will scatter them beyond the [Euphrates] River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger. ‡

16 “He will give up Israel because of the sins of Jeroboam which he has committed, and with which he has made Israel sin [by leading them into idolatry].” ‡

17 So Jeroboam’s wife arose and left and came to Tirzah [the king’s residence]. As she was entering the threshold of the house, the child [Abijah] died. ‡

18 And all Israel buried him and mourned for him, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet. ‡

19 Now as for the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ‡

20 The time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years, and he slept with his fathers [in death]; and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

Rehoboam Misleads Judah

21 Now Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel in which to put His Name (Presence). His mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ‡ Rulers of the Divided Kingdom of Israel and Judah

22 And [the people of] Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD. They provoked Him to jealousy more than all that their fathers had done, with their sins which they had committed. ‡

23 For they also built for themselves high places [to worship idols] and sacred pillars and Asherim [for the goddess Asherah]. These were on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree. ‡

24 There were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They committed all the repulsive acts of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the Israelites. ‡

25 Now in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt [Jeroboam's brother-in-law] came up against Jerusalem. ‡

26 He took away the treasures of the house (temple) of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything, he even took all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ‡

27 So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and handed them over to the captains of the palace guard who guarded the doorway of the king's house.

28 And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guards would carry them and bring them back into the guardroom.

29 Now as for the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ‡

30 There was also war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. ‡

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers [in death] and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijam (Abijah) his son became king in his place. ‡

1 Kings 15

Abijam Reigns over Judah

1 IN THE eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah. ‡

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother was Maacah [grand]daughter of Abishalom (Absalom). ‡

3 He walked in all the sins [of idol worship] that his father [Rehoboam] committed before him; and his heart was not entirely devoted to the LORD his God, like the heart of his father (forefather) David. ‡

4 Nevertheless, for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp

(descendant on the throne) in Jerusalem, setting up his son after him and establishing Jerusalem, ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now as for the rest of the acts of Abijam and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. ‡

Asa Succeeds Abijam

<sup>9</sup> So in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa began to reign as king over Judah.

<sup>14</sup>But the high places [of idol worship] were not removed. Nevertheless, Asa's heart was entirely devoted to the LORD all his days. ‡

<sup>15</sup> He brought the things which his father had dedicated and the things which he had dedicated into the house of the LORD—silver, gold, and utensils and accessories.

<sup>16</sup> Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and gold left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the palace of the king and handed them over to his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Aram (Syria), who lived in Damascus, saying, ‡

19 “Let there be a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me.”

20 So Ben-hadad listened to king Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah, and all Chinneroth [the region of the Sea of Galilee], along with all the land of Naphtali. ‡

21 When Baasha heard about it, he stopped fortifying Ramah and stayed in Tirzah.

22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah—none was exempt—and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built [the fortifications]. And King Asa built with them [border fortresses at] Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah. ‡

Jehoshaphat Succeeds Asa

23 Now as for the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, everything that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But during the time of his old age he had a foot disease. ‡

24 Asa slept with his fathers [in death] and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David. Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place. ‡

Nadab, then Baasha, Rules over Israel

25 Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

26 He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father [Jeroboam] and in his sin [of idolatry], with which he made Israel sin. ‡

27 Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house (tribe) of Issachar conspired against Nadab, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. ‡

28 So Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

<sup>29</sup>As soon as he was king, Baasha struck down all the household of Jeroboam. He did not leave for Jeroboam anyone alive, but he destroyed them in accordance with the word of the LORD which He had spoken through His servant Ahijah the Shilonite—  [1 Kin 14:9–16 ] ‡

<sup>30</sup>because of the sins committed by Jeroboam and which he made Israel commit, and because he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger. ‡

<sup>31</sup>Now as for the rest of Nadab’s acts and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

War with Judah

<sup>32</sup>There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. ‡

<sup>33</sup>In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah [the capital city], and reigned twenty-four years.

<sup>34</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin [of idolatry] with which he made Israel sin. ‡

1 Kings 16

Prophecy against Baasha

<sup>2</sup>“Because I exalted you [Baasha] from the dust and made you leader over My people Israel, and you walked in the way of Jeroboam and made My people Israel sin, provoking Me to anger with their sins [of idol worship], ‡

<sup>3</sup>behold, I am going to sweep away Baasha and his household (family), and I will make your house (royal line) like that of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ‡

The Israelite Kings

son became king in his place. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Moreover, the word of the LORD came against Baasha and his household through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani, both for all the evil that Baasha did in the sight of the LORD in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands (idolatry), in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he [willingly] destroyed it (the family of Jeroboam). ‡

<sup>8</sup> In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years.

<sup>9</sup> His servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against Elah. Now Elah was in Tirzah, getting drunk in the house of Arza, who was in charge of the [king's] household in Tirzah. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Zimri came in and struck and killed Elah in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and became king in his place.

<sup>11</sup> When he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, he killed the entire household of Baasha; he did not leave a single male [alive], either of his relatives or his friends. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Thus Zimri destroyed the entire household of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke against Baasha through Jehu the prophet, [1 Kin 16:3] ‡

<sup>13</sup> for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they committed, and made Israel commit, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now as for the rest of the acts of Elah and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>15</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned [over Israel] for seven days at Tirzah. Now the troops were camped against Gibbethon, [a city] which belonged to the Philistines, ‡

<sup>16</sup> and the people who were camped heard it said, “Zimri has conspired and has also struck down the king.” So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

<sup>17</sup> Then Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

<sup>18</sup> When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the fortress of the king's palace; and while inside, he set fire to the king's palace and died,

<sup>19</sup> because of the sins he had committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, by walking in the way of Jeroboam, and because of his sin he caused Israel to sin. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Now as for the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his [treasonous] conspiracy which he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>21</sup> Then the people of Israel were divided in half. Half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and the other half followed Omri.

<sup>22</sup> But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

<sup>23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel and reigned for twelve years. He reigned six years at Tirzah.

<sup>26</sup> He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sin, which he made Israel commit, provoking the LORD God of Israel, [to anger] with their idols. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Now as for the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might which he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>28</sup> So Omri slept with his fathers [in death] and was buried in Samaria. Ahab his son became king in his place.

<sup>29</sup> Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria for twenty-two years.

<sup>30</sup>Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all [the kings] who were before him.

<sup>31</sup>It came about, as if it had been a trivial thing for Ahab to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal and worshiped him. ‡

<sup>32</sup> So he erected an altar for Baal in the house of Baal which he built in Samaria. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Ahab also made the Asherah. Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him. ‡

<sup>34</sup>In his days, Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundations with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the LORD, which He spoke through Joshua the son of Nun.  [Josh 6:26 ] ‡

1 Kings 17

Elijah Predicts Drought

1 NOW ELIJAH the Tishbite, who was of the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD, the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by My word.”  [Deut 11:16 , 17 ] ‡

2 And the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

3 “Go from here and turn eastward and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan [River].

4 “You shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to sustain you there [with food].”

5 So he went and did in accordance with the word of the LORD; he went and lived by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he would drink from the brook.

7 It happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

9 “Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you.” ‡

10 So he set out and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks [for firewood]. He called out to her and said, “Please bring me a little water in a jar, so that I may drink.”

11 As she was going to get it, he called to her and said, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand.”

12 But she said, “As the LORD your God lives, I have no bread, only a handful of flour in the bowl and a little oil in the jar. See, I am gathering a few sticks so that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it [as our last meal] and die.”

13 Elijah said to her, “Do not fear; go and do as you have said. Just make me a little bread from it first and bring it out to me, and afterward you may make one for yourself and for your son.

14 “For this is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘The bowl of flour shall not be exhausted nor shall the jar of oil be empty until the day that the LORD sends rain [again] on the face of the earth.’ ”

<sup>15</sup> She went and did as Elijah said. And she and he and her household ate for many days.

<sup>16</sup> The bowl of flour was not exhausted nor did the jar of oil become empty, in accordance the word of the LORD which He spoke through Elijah.

Elijah Raises the Widow's Son

<sup>17</sup> It happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.

<sup>18</sup> So she said to Elijah, “What [problem] is there between you and me, O man of God? Have you come to me to bring my sin to mind and to put my son to death?” ‡

<sup>19</sup> He said to her, “Give me your son.” Then he took him from her arms and carried him up to the upper room where he was living, and laid him on his own bed.

<sup>20</sup> He called to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, have You brought further tragedy to the widow with whom I am staying, by causing her son to die?”

<sup>21</sup> Then he stretched himself out upon the child three times, and called to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, please let this child’s life return to him.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the [lower part of the] house and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, “See, your son is alive.”

<sup>24</sup> Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.” ‡

1 Kings 18

Obadiah Meets Elijah

in the third year, saying, “Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the face of the earth.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria.

<sup>3</sup> Ahab called Obadiah who was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly;

<sup>5</sup> Then Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go into the land to all the sources of water and to all the streams; perhaps we may find grass and keep the horses and mules alive, and not have to kill some of the cattle.”

<sup>6</sup> So they divided the land between them to survey it. Ahab went one way by himself and Obadiah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup> As Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah met him. He recognized him and fell face downward [out of respect] and said, “Is it you, my lord Elijah?”

<sup>8</sup> He answered him, “It is I. Go tell your master, ‘Elijah is here.’ ”

<sup>9</sup> But he said, “What sin have I committed, that you would hand over your servant to Ahab to put me to death?

<sup>10</sup> “As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent messengers to seek you; and when they said, ‘He is not here,’ Ahab made the kingdom or nation swear that they had not found you.

<sup>12</sup> “And as soon as I leave you, the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to a place I do not know; so when I come to tell Ahab and he does not find you, he will kill me. Yet your servant has [reverently] feared the LORD from my youth. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Has it not been told to my lord [Elijah] what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred of the LORD’s prophets by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water?

<sup>14</sup> “And now you are saying, ‘Go, tell your master, ‘Elijah is here’ ’; and he will kill me.”

<sup>15</sup> Elijah said, “As the LORD of hosts (armies) lives, before whom I stand, I will certainly show myself to Ahab today.”

<sup>16</sup> So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup> When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, “Are you the one who is bringing disaster on Israel?” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Elijah said, “I have not brought disaster on Israel, but you and your father’s household have, by abandoning (rejecting) the commandments of the LORD and by following the Baals. ‡

God or Baal on Mount Carmel

<sup>21</sup> Elijah approached all the people and said, “How long will you hesitate between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him.” But the people [of Israel] did not answer him [so much as] a word. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Then Elijah said to the people, “I alone remain a prophet of the LORD, while Baal’s prophets are 450 men. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Now let them give us two oxen, and let them choose one ox for themselves and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it. I will prepare the other ox and lay it on the wood, and I will not put a fire under it.

<sup>24</sup> “Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the god who answers by fire, He is God.” And all the people answered, “It is well spoken.” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, since there are many of you; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it.”

<sup>26</sup> So they took the bull that was given to them and prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, “O Baal, hear and answer us.” But there was no voice and no one answered. And they leaped about the altar which they had made. ‡

<sup>27</sup> At noon Elijah mocked them, saying, “Cry out with a loud voice, for he is a god; either he is occupied, or he is out [at the moment], or he is on a journey. Perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened!”

<sup>28</sup> So they cried out with a loud voice [to get Baal’s attention] and cut themselves with swords and lances in accordance with their custom, until the blood flowed out on them. ‡

<sup>29</sup> As midday passed, they played the part of prophets and raved dramatically until the time for offering the evening sacrifice; but there was no voice, no one answered, and no one paid attention. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come near to me.” So all the people approached him. And he repaired and rebuilt the [old] altar of the LORD that had been torn down [by Jezebel].  [1 Kin 18:13 ; 19:10 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> Then Elijah took twelve stones in accordance with the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Israel shall be your name.”  [Gen 32:28 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> So with the stones Elijah built an altar in the name of the LORD. He made a trench around the altar large enough to hold two measures of seed. ‡

<sup>33</sup> Then he laid out the wood and cut the ox in pieces and laid it on the wood. ‡

<sup>34</sup> And he said, “Fill four pitchers with water and pour it on the burnt offering and the wood.” And he said, “Do it the second time.” And they did it the second time. And he said, “Do it the third time.” And they did it a third time.

<sup>35</sup> The water flowed around the altar, and he also filled the trench with water. ‡

Elijah’s Prayer

<sup>36</sup> At the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet approached [the altar] and said, “O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob), let it be known today that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant and that I have done all these things at Your word. ‡

<sup>37</sup> “Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so that this people may know that You, O LORD, are God, and that You have turned their hearts back [to You].”

<sup>38</sup> Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood, and even the stones and the dust; it also licked up the water in the trench. ‡

<sup>39</sup> When all the people saw it, they fell face downward; and they said, “The LORD, He is God! The LORD, He is God!” ‡

<sup>40</sup> Then Elijah said to them, “Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape.” They seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and [as God’s law required] killed them there.  [Deut 13:5 , 12-15 ;

18:20.] ‡

41 Now Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of the roar of an abundance of rain.”

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he crouched down to the earth and put his face between his knees, ‡

43 and he said to his servant, “Go up, look toward the sea.” So he went up and looked and said, “There is nothing.” Elijah said, “Go back” seven times.

44 And at the seventh time the servant said, “A cloud as small as a man’s hand is coming up from the sea.” And Elijah said, “Go up, say to Ahab, ‘Prepare your chariot and go down, so that the rain shower does not stop you.’ ”

45 In a little while the sky grew dark with clouds and wind, and there were heavy showers. And Ahab mounted and rode [his chariot] and went [inland] to Jezreel.

46 Then the hand of the LORD came upon Elijah [giving him supernatural strength]. He girded up his loins and outran Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel [nearly twenty miles]. ‡

Elijah Flees from Jezebel

1 NOW AHAB told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets [of Baal] with the sword. ‡

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So may the gods do to me, and even more, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like the life of one of them.” ‡

3 And Elijah was afraid and arose and ran for his life, and he came to Beersheba which belongs to Judah, and he left his servant there.

4 But he himself traveled a day’s journey into the wilderness, and he came and sat down under a juniper tree and asked [God] that he might die. He said, “It is enough; now, O LORD, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers.” ‡

5 He lay down and slept under the juniper tree, and behold, an angel touched him and said to him, “Get up and eat.”

6 He looked, and by his head there was a bread cake baked on hot coal, and a pitcher of water. So he ate and drank and lay down again.

<sup>7</sup> Then the angel of the LORD came again a second time and touched him and said, “Get up, and eat, for the journey is too long for you [without adequate sustenance].”

<sup>8</sup> So he got up and ate and drank, and with the strength of that food he traveled forty days and nights to Horeb (Sinai), the mountain of God. ‡

Elijah at Horeb

<sup>9</sup> There he came to a cave and spent the night in it; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” *The Wanderings of Elijah*

<sup>10</sup> He said, “I have been very zealous (impassioned) for the LORD God of hosts (armies) [proclaiming what is rightfully and uniquely His]; for the sons of Israel have abandoned (broken) Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I, only I, am left; and they seek to take away my life.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> So He said, “Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD.” And behold, the LORD was passing by, and a great and powerful wind was tearing out the mountains and breaking the rocks in pieces before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind, [there was] an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. ‡

<sup>12</sup> After the earthquake, [there was] a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire, [there was] the sound of a gentle blowing.

<sup>13</sup> When Elijah heard the sound, he wrapped his face in his mantle (cloak) and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, a voice came to him and said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” ‡

<sup>14</sup> He said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts (armies), because the sons of Israel have abandoned (broken) Your covenant, torn down Your altars and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I, only I, am left; and they seek to take away my life.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> and you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “It shall come about that Jehu shall put to death whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, and Elisha shall put to death whoever escapes the sword of Jehu. ‡

18 “Yet I will leave 7,000 [survivors] in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed down to Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him.” ‡

19 So Elijah departed from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, while he was plowing with twelve pairs of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his mantle (coat) on him.

20 He left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, “Please let me kiss my father and mother [goodbye], then I will follow you.” And he said to him, “Go on back; for what have I done to [stop] you?” ‡

21 So Elisha left him and went back. Then he took a pair of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their meat with the implements of the oxen [as fuel], and gave the meat to the people, and they ate. Then he stood and followed Elijah, and served him.  [2 Kin 3:11 ] ‡

War with Aram

1 BEN-HADAD KING of Aram (Syria) gathered all his army together; thirty-two kings were [allied] with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria [Israel’s capital], and fought against it.

2 Then he sent messengers to the city to Ahab king of Israel; and he said to him, “Thus says Ben-hadad:

3 ‘Your silver and your gold are mine; your wives and your children, even the fairest, also are mine [as conditions of peace].’ ”

4 The king of Israel [conceded his defeat and] answered, “By your word, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have.”

5 The messengers returned and said, “Thus says Ben-hadad: ‘I indeed sent word to you, saying, “You shall give me your silver, your gold, your wives, and your children,”

6 but about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants; and they will take with their hands (confiscate) whatever is desirable in your eyes and carry it away.’ ”

7 Then the king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said, “Please observe and see how this man is seeking our destruction. For he sent messengers to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I did not refuse him.”

<sup>8</sup> All the elders and all the people said to him, “Do not listen or consent [to this additional demand].”

<sup>9</sup> So he said to Ben-hadad’s messengers, “Tell my lord the king, ‘Every demand you first sent to your servant I will do, but I cannot do this [additional] thing [as a condition of peace].’ ” And the messengers left; then they brought him word again.

<sup>10</sup> Ben-hadad sent word to him and said, “May the gods do so to me, and more also, if there is enough dust left of Samaria for handfuls for all the [armed] people who follow me.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> The king of Israel answered, “Tell him, ‘A man who puts on [his armor to go to battle] should not boast like the man who takes it off [after the battle has been won].’ ”

<sup>12</sup> When Ben-hadad heard this message, as he and the kings were drinking in the temporary shelters, he said to his servants, “Station yourselves.” So they stationed themselves against the city [of Samaria]. ‡

Ahab Victorious

<sup>13</sup> Then a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel and said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Have you seen all this great army? Behold, I will hand them over to you, and you shall know [without any doubt] that I am the LORD.’ ” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Ahab said, “By whom?” And he said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘By the young men [the attendants or bodyguards] of the governors of the districts.’ ” Then Ahab said, “Who shall begin the battle?” And he answered, “You.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Ahab assembled and counted the young men of the governors of the districts, and there were 232. After them he assembled and counted all the people, all the sons of Israel, 7,000. [1 Kin 19:18.]

<sup>16</sup> They went out at noon, while Ben-hadad was getting drunk in the temporary shelters, he and the thirty-two kings who were helping him. ‡

<sup>17</sup> The young men of the governors of the districts went out first; and Ben-hadad sent men out and they told him, saying, “Men have come out of Samaria.”

<sup>18</sup> And he said, “Whether they have come out for peace or for war, take them alive.”

<sup>19</sup> So these young men of the governors of the districts went out of the city, and the army followed them.

<sup>20</sup> And each one killed his man; and the Arameans (Syrians) fled and Israel pursued them. Ben-hadad king of Aram escaped on a horse with horsemen.

<sup>21</sup> The king of Israel went out and struck [the riders of] the horses and chariots, and killed the Arameans in a great slaughter.

<sup>22</sup> Then the prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, “Go, strengthen yourself and observe and see what you have to do; for at the first of next year the king of Aram (Syria) will come up against you.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Now the servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Israel’s god is a god of the hills; that is why they were stronger than we. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they.

<sup>24</sup> “Do this: remove the [thirty-two allied] kings, each from his place, and put captains in their place, <sup>25</sup> and assemble an army like the army that you have lost in battle, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.” And he listened to their words and did so.

Another Aramean War

<sup>26</sup> At the first of the year [in spring], Ben-hadad assembled and counted the Arameans (Syrians) and went up to Aphek [east of the Sea of Galilee] to fight against Israel. ‡

<sup>27</sup> The sons of Israel were counted and given provisions, and they went to meet them. The Israelites camped before the enemy like two little flocks of goats [with everything against them, except God], and the Arameans filled the country.

<sup>28</sup> A man of God approached and said to the king of Israel, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because the Arameans have said, “The LORD is a god of the hills, but He is not a god of the valleys,” I will give this great army into your hand, and you shall know [by experience] that I am the LORD.’ ”  [Phil 4:13. ] ‡

<sup>29</sup> So they camped opposite each other for seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle began, and the sons of Israel killed 100,000 of the Aramean foot soldiers in a single day.

<sup>30</sup> But the rest ran to the city of Aphek, and the [city] wall fell on 27,000 of the men who were left. Ben-hadad escaped and came into the city, going into an inner chamber [to hide].

<sup>31</sup> But his servants said to him, “We have heard that the kings of the house (royal line) of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth around our loins and ropes on our necks [as symbols of submission], and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life.” ‡

<sup>32</sup> So they put sackcloth around their loins and ropes on their necks, and came to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-hadad says, ‘Please let me live.’ ” And Ahab asked, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

<sup>33</sup> Now the men took it as a good omen, and quickly understanding his meaning said, “Yes, your brother Ben-hadad lives.” Then the king said, “Go, bring him.” Then Ben-hadad came out to him, and Ahab had him come up into the chariot.

<sup>34</sup> Ben-hadad [tempting him] said to him, “I will restore the cities which my father took from your father; and you may set up bazaars (shops) of your own in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.” Then, Ahab replied, “I will let you go with this covenant (treaty).” So he made a covenant with him and let him go. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to another by the word of the LORD, “Please strike me.” But the man refused to strike him. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Then the prophet said to him, “Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you leave me, a lion will kill you.” And as soon as he left him, a lion found him and killed him. ‡

<sup>37</sup> Then the prophet found another man and said, “Please strike me.” So the man struck him hard, wounding him.

<sup>39</sup> As the king passed by, the prophet called out to the king and said, “Your servant went out into the middle of the battle, and behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, ‘Guard this man; if for any reason he is missing, then your life shall be required for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.’ ‡

<sup>40</sup> “But while your servant was busy here and there, he [escaped and] was gone.” And the king of Israel said to him, “Such is your own judgment (verdict); you have determined it.”

<sup>41</sup> Then the prophet quickly removed the bandage from his eyes, and [Ahab] the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

<sup>42</sup> He said to the king, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Because you have released from your hand the man [Ben-hadad] whom I had devoted to destruction, your life shall be required for his life, and your people for his people.’ ” ‡

43. So the king of Israel went to his house resentful and sullen, and came to Samaria.  [1 Kin 22:34–36. ] ‡

1 Kings 21

Ahab Covets Naboth's Vineyard

1 NOW IT came about after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, close beside the [winter] palace of Ahab king of Samaria;

2 Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, “Give me your vineyard, so that I may have it for a garden of vegetables and herbs, because it is near my house. I will give you a better vineyard for it, or, if you prefer, I will give you what it is worth in money.” ‡

3 But Naboth said to Ahab, “The LORD forbid me that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you.” ‡

4 So Ahab [already upset by the Lord’s message] came into his house [feeling more] resentful and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him; for he had said, “I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers.” And he lay down on his bed and turned away his face, and would not eat any food.

5 Then Jezebel his wife came to him and asked him, “Why is your spirit so troubled that you have not eaten?”

6 And he said to her, “Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, ‘Give me your vineyard for money; or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it.’ But he answered, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’ ”

7 Jezebel his wife said to him, “Do you now reign over Israel? Get up, eat food, and let your heart rejoice; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name and sealed them with his seal, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived with Naboth in his city.

9 Now in the letters she wrote, “Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth at the head of the people;

10 and seat two worthless and unprincipled men opposite him, and have them testify against him, saying, ‘You cursed God and the king.’ Then take him out and stone him to death.” ‡

Jezebel's Plot

<sup>11</sup> So the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived there, did as Jezebel had sent word to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.

<sup>13</sup> Two worthless and unprincipled men came in and sat down opposite him; and they testified against Naboth before the people, saying, “Naboth cursed and renounced God and the king.” Then they brought him outside the city and stoned him to death. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then they sent word to Jezebel, saying, “Naboth has been stoned to death.”

<sup>15</sup> When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, she said to Ahab, “Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite which he refused to sell you, because Naboth is no longer alive, but dead.”

<sup>16</sup> When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

<sup>18</sup> “Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to take possession of it. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “You shall speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Have you murdered and also taken possession [of the victim’s property]?”’ And you shall speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says the Lord: “In the place where dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick up your blood as well.”’” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Ahab said to Elijah, “Have you found me, O my enemy?” And he answered, “I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “Behold [says the LORD], I am bringing evil (catastrophe) on you, and will utterly sweep you away, and will cut off from Ahab every male, both bond and free in Israel; ‡

<sup>22</sup> and I will make your house (descendants) like that of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for provoking Me to anger and making Israel sin. ‡

<sup>23</sup> “The LORD also spoke in regard to Jezebel, saying, ‘The dogs will eat [the body of] Jezebel in the district of Jezreel.’ ‡

‡

<sup>25</sup> There certainly was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do evil in the sight of the LORD, because Jezebel his wife incited him. ‡

<sup>26</sup> He acted very repulsively in following idols, in accordance with everything the Amorites had done, whom the LORD expelled [from the land] before the sons of Israel. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Now when Ahab heard these words [of Elijah], he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and fasted, and he lay in sackcloth and went about dejectedly (mourning). ‡

<sup>28</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

<sup>29</sup> “Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the evil (catastrophe) in his lifetime, but in his son’s days I will bring evil upon his house.” ‡

1 Kings 22

Ahab’s Third Campaign against Aram

<sup>3</sup> Now the king of Israel said to his servants, “Do you know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, yet we are still doing nothing to take it from the hand of the king of Aram?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> And Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?” Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please inquire first for the word of the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup> Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall I go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or should I not?” And they said, “Go up, for the LORD has handed it over to the king.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> But Jehoshaphat [doubted and] said, “Is there not another prophet of the LORD here whom we may ask?” ‡

<sup>8</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is one more man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, because he never prophesies good news for me, but only evil.” But Jehoshaphat said, “May the king not say that [Micaiah only tells bad news].”

9-Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, “Bring quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron and said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘With these you will gore the Arameans (Syrians) until they are destroyed.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> All the prophets were prophesying in the same way [to please Ahab], saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and be successful, for the LORD will hand it over to the king.”

Micaiah Predicts Defeat

<sup>13</sup> Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, “Listen carefully, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. Please let your words be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably.”

14-But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, I will speak what the LORD says to me.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> So when he came to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead in battle, or shall we not?” And he answered him, “Go up and be successful, for the LORD will hand it over to the king.”

16-But the king [doubted him and] said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

<sup>17</sup> And he said, ‡

“I saw all Israel
Scattered upon the mountains,
Like sheep that have no shepherd.
And the LORD said,
‘These have no master.
Let each of them return to his house in peace.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

<sup>19</sup> Micaiah said, “Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host (army) of heaven standing by Him on

<sup>20</sup> “The LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’ And one said this, while another said that.

<sup>21</sup> “Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’

<sup>22</sup> “The LORD said to him, ‘How?’ And he said, ‘I will go out and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Then the LORD said, ‘You are to entice him and also succeed. Go and do so.’ ‡

<sup>23</sup> “Now then, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all these prophets; and the LORD has proclaimed disaster against you.” ‡

<sup>24</sup> But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah approached and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, “How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?” ‡

<sup>25</sup> Micaiah said, “Behold, you shall see on that day [of the king’s defeat] when you enter an inner room [looking for a place] to hide yourself.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king’s son,

<sup>27</sup> and say, ‘Thus says the king, “Put this man in prison, and feed him sparingly with the bread and water until I return safely.” ’ ”

<sup>28</sup> Micaiah said, “If you indeed return safely, the LORD has not spoken by me.” Then he said, “Listen, all you people.” ‡

Defeat and Death of Ahab

<sup>29</sup> So [Ahab] the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>30</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and enter the battle, but you put on your [royal] clothing.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. ‡

<sup>32</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “Surely it is the king of Israel.” They turned to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat shouted out [in fear]. ‡

<sup>33</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>34</sup> But one man drew a bow at random and struck the king of Israel in a joint of the armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the fight, because I have been seriously wounded.”

<sup>35</sup> The battle raged that day, and [Ahab] the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans (Syrians). And in the evening he died, and the blood from his wound ran down into the bottom of the chariot.

<sup>36</sup> Then about sundown a resounding cry passed throughout the army, saying, “Every man to his city and every man to his own country!”

<sup>37</sup> So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

<sup>38</sup> They washed the chariot by the pool [on the outskirts] of Samaria, where the prostitutes bathed, and the dogs licked up his blood, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He had spoken.  [1 Kin 21:19 ] ‡

<sup>39</sup> Now the rest of Ahab’s acts, and everything that he did, the ivory palace which he built and all the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ‡

<sup>40</sup> So Ahab slept with his fathers [in death], and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

The New Rulers

<sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>45</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, his might which he displayed and how he made war, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>49</sup> Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Let my servants go with your servants in the ships,” But Jehoshaphat was unwilling and refused.

<sup>53</sup> He served Baal and worshiped him, and he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, in accordance with everything that his father [Ahab] had done. ‡

1:1 King David was old. David was about seventy years old at the time of his death (2Sa 5:4 ; 1Ch 29:26–28), and the long years of warfare had doubtlessly taken their physical toll.

1:5 Adonijah. The name Adonijah means “the LORD is my Lord.” Amnon and Absalom both experienced violent deaths (2Sa 13:28–29 ; 18:14). Chiliab, his second son, apparently died at an early age. Adonijah was David’s oldest surviving son.

1:6 had never rebuked him. While David had been a most capable leader and a man of deep spiritual sensitivity, he had not exercised proper parental discipline of his children (2Sa 13:21–39 ; 14:18–24).

1:11–14 Wisdom— In Old Testament times, messages from God were often given through personal prophecy. Today, believers do not often receive messages through prophecy. God has given the higher privilege of direct access to His wisdom through the ministry of the indwelling Holy Spirit in all who believe. Today believers have access to God’s wisdom through His Word, His indwelling Spirit, and counsel from mature Christians. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:11 Nathan. It is a mark of David’s integrity that Nathan, who had confronted him with his terrible sin with Bathsheba, was still welcome in the royal household (2Sa 12:1–15).

1:29 who has redeemed my soul. In these words of praise, David celebrated the innumerable times that the Lord had acted on his behalf, to deliver him from his enemies and from his own sins. Some of David’s psalms were written in connection with those times of God’s deliverance (Ps 40 ; 142).

1:38 the Cherethites, and the Pelethites. These two groups were part of David’s bodyguard (2Sa 8:18 ; 15:18 ; 20:7). Their association with David stretched back to his days among the Philistines, with whom the Cherethites are usually identified (1Sa 30:13–14 ; Eze 25:16 ; Zep 2:5).

1:39 Zadok . . . anointed Solomon. Every priestly anointing would recall the words of Psalm 2, in accordance with the words of the Davidic covenant of 2 Samuel 7. The anointing announced that the anointed one was now the adopted son of the living God.

1:50 took hold of the horns of the altar. This action was in keeping with the traditional function of the altar as a haven of refuge for those who had committed unintentional crimes (Ex 21:12–14).

1:53 Forgiveness— Solomon chose to forgive Adonijah for his attempted usurpation of the throne, realizing that Adonijah had legitimate reason to think that he should be the next king. Wiser than his years, young Solomon overlooked the offense of his brother rather than bring any reproach on his reign at this early stage. Sadly, Adonijah proved himself unworthy of his pardon, making another attempt to take the throne after his father David was dead. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:4 you shall not fail to have a man (descendant) on the throne. God had made an unconditional covenant with David (2Sa 7:12–16 ; 1Ch 17:11–14 ; Ps 89 ), granting him a continual posterity and a royal dynasty. Although the Davidic covenant was an everlasting sacred promise, individual kings through their evil behavior could fail to receive the benefits of the covenant. The line of promise would be preserved, but the time would come when the promised Ruler would not be on an earthly throne (Hos 3:4 ). God’s prophets predict that the heir to the throne of David will yet reign over a repentant, regathered, and restored Israel (Jer 33:19–26 ; Eze 34:22–31 ) in fulfillment of the promises of the covenants (Eze 37:21–28 ; Mic 7:18–20 ). The New Testament reveals that all this will be realized in Jesus Christ, the Savior King (Ac 3:25–26 ; 15:16–17 ; Gal 3:26–29 ; Rev 3:21 ), who is David’s Heir in the ultimate sense (Ac 2:22–36 ).

2:5–8 Joab . . . Shimei. David knew that these two men would cause trouble for Solomon if they were not dealt with. Joab had murdered two generals (2Sa 3:27 ; 20:10 ), killed David’s son Absalom (2Sa 18:14 ), and joined Adonijah’s conspiracy (1:7 ,19 ). Shimei had cursed the king and treated him shamefully as he was fleeing from Absalom (2Sa 16:5–13 ; 19:16–23 ).

2:27 Abiathar. This act fulfilled God’s word to Eli, removing the last of his descendants from serving before the Lord (1Sa 2:30–33 ). When Abiathar was removed from office, his influence was greatly restricted. Solomon spared his life in recognition of his past service to God and David (2Sa 15:24 ,29 ; 1Ch 15:11–15 ).

2:28 horns of the altar. Because Joab was a murderer (2Sa 3:27 ; 18:14 ; 20:10 ), he could not claim the protective sanctity of the horns of the altar, and could not escape execution.

2:35 Zadok. Zadok was a descendant of Eleazar, the son of Aaron (1Ch 6:4–8 ).

3:1 became a son-in-law. In the ancient Middle East, political alliances were often ratified by the marriage of the son of one king to the daughter of another. Except in unusual circumstances, the pharaohs of Egypt did not observe this custom. Therefore, the giving of Pharaoh’s daughter to Solomon attested to the Israelite king’s growing prestige and importance to the Egyptians.

3:7 but a little boy. The term “boy” often refers to a servant or to an inexperienced person still in training for a profession. With proper humility, Solomon stressed his relative youth and inexperience.

3:14 Obedience— Because he loved God above all at this time of his life (v. 3 ), and chose wisdom and discernment for his office, Solomon received even more—riches and honor and distinction. Obedient in many ways, he was accordingly blessed by God. When commands are given by a loving, caring person, obedience must result in blessing. God repeatedly stated this principle (Dt 5:29–6:24 ). Saul, David, and Solomon all lost blessing because of disobedience. This was not because of narrowness or rigidity on God’s part. He does not give us commands to make our lives harder, or to be harsh and demanding. His commands have blessings built in—He is showing us the best way to live. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:15 ark of the covenant. Although David had brought the ark of the covenant to Jerusalem (2Sa 6 ), the tabernacle and its furnishings remained in Gibeon, which served as an important worship center (v. 4 , 2Ch 1:3–5 ). After its capture by the Philistines (1Sa 5–6 ), the ark never returned to the tabernacle. The ark was not in the holy of holies again until it was placed in Solomon’s temple.

3:28 wisdom . . . justice. These important qualities which marked Solomon’s reign would characterize the rule of Israel’s Messiah in a far greater way (Isa 11:1–5 ). David’s final words to Solomon were, “act in accordance with your wisdom” (2:6 ). Wisdom does not dwell as a recluse among books in the study. Rather, wisdom stands with confidence at the crossroads of life. Solomon’s wisdom was decisive. Through God he was able to observe the actions of others and in this way have a revelation of the truth.

4:7–19 twelve deputies. These men were responsible for handling lesser administrative tasks and raising revenue for the crown. The districts did not follow tribal boundaries.

4:18 Shimei. This is not the same Shimei who cursed David (2Sa 16:5–13 ), but probably the man mentioned in 1:8 as a supporter of Solomon.

4:20 as numerous as the sand. God fulfilled His promise to make Abraham's descendants numerous (Ge 15:5 ,18 ). Solomon's empire extended far beyond the traditional boundaries of Israel. Through this greatly expanded empire, Hebrew people not only traveled to far-flung regions, but they took with them their knowledge of the living God.

4:22 kors. A kor was the same size as a homer (Eze 45:14 ); at between six and seven bushels, it was the normal load for a donkey.

4:29 wisdom. The three terms used in this verse underscore Solomon's depth of understanding. He was not merely intelligent, able to understand facts and logic; he was also given the ability to apply his intelligence to problems which defy logic, possessing a rare understanding of human beings with all their emotional and spiritual complexities.

4:32–34 proverbs . . . songs. Solomon was the author of a large part of the Book of Proverbs. He is also traditionally assigned the authorship of the Song of Solomon, Psalms 72 and 127 , and Ecclesiastes.

5:1 Hiram. This Phoenician king ruled over Tyre for 34 years (978–944 BC).

5:7 Blessed be the LORD . Acknowledging the deities of another people is well known in the Bible (Da 3:28 ) and other ancient Middle Eastern literature. It does not necessarily imply that Hiram was expressing faith in God.

5:13 levied . . . 30,000 men. Solomon's long and extensive use of this type of social conscription to accomplish his vast building projects became a source of considerable difficulty for his successor, Rehoboam (12:4 ).

6:1 four hundred and eightieth year. Many scholars take this date as the key date for establishing the time of the exodus. The division of the kingdom at the death of Solomon can be dated at 930 BC (11:41–43 ). Allowing forty years for Solomon's rule (11:42 ), the fourth year of his reign would be 966 BC. If the exodus took place 480 years before 966 BC, its date was 1446 BC.

6:2 house . . . for the LORD . Solomon followed the floor plan of the tabernacle, but doubled its dimensions. Solomon's temple was constructed on Mount Moriah, the mountain where Abraham was told to offer Isaac as a sacrifice (2Ch 3:1 ; Ge 22:2 ), on the site of the threshing floor of Araunah where God had spoken to David (2Sa 24:24 ). cubits. The standard cubit was about 18 inches.

6:11 word of the LORD . This message to Solomon might have come by means of a prophet. On other occasions, Solomon had more personal encounters with the Lord (3:5 ; 9:2 ; 11:11 ).

6:19 ark of the covenant. The ark of the covenant (Dt 10:8 ) was so named because it housed the two stone tablets of the covenant—the Ten Commandments (Dt 10:1–5 ). The ark symbolized the presence of the sovereign God in the midst of His people (8:10–11 ; Jos 3:13 ).

6:20 Holy of Holies. The Holy of Holies was a cube of thirty feet. gold. The amount of gold used in this room was about 21 tons or 600 talents (2Ch 3:8 ).

6:23 cherubim. Cherubim are mighty angelic beings; they were often depicted in the furnishings of the tabernacle and temple. Not a great deal is known about their nature. Cherubim were set to guard the entrance to the garden of Eden (Ge 3:24 ). The only extensive description of their appearance is in the Book of Ezekiel (Eze 1:5–14 ; 10:1 ).

6:31 doors of olive wood. A veil or curtain was hung here as well (Ex 26:31–36 ; 2Ch 3:14 ).

6:38 Worship—in the midst of Solomon's building project he received a prophetic revelation from the Lord (vv. 11–14 ) in which a promise and a condition were prominent: the Lord would fulfill His promise to David if Solomon obeyed His laws. The temple was the external sign that the Lord would keep His covenant of grace and dwell among the people. Worship can never be divorced from obedience to God's laws in everyday life. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:1–2 House of the Forest of Lebanon. This building was also apparently used as an armory (10:16–17 ; Isa 22:8 ).

7:13–14 Hiram. Hiram (called Huram in some translations) was of mixed parentage. His father was a Phoenician artisan who had married a widow from the tribe of Naphtali (2Ch 2:14 ). Like his father, Hiram had become a master craftsman; his contributions to the work on the temple were extensive.

7:16 five cubits. Jeremiah 52:22 agrees with this measurement, but 2 Kings 25:17 records the height as three cubits. This apparent discrepancy may just be a difference in whether the capitals of the pillars were included in the measurement height.

7:21 Jachin . . . Boaz. Jachin can mean “He will establish.” The name Boaz may mean “in Him is strength.” Another possible meaning is “He is quick.” These two pillars were placed near the porch in front of the temple (2Ch 3:17 ).

7:40–47 Service— When talents and skills are used in God’s service, no work is insignificant. All is deserving of our best because it is done for God (Mt 10:42 ). For this task Hiram was filled with wisdom, understanding, and skill (v. 14 ). This description is similar to the description of Bezalel’s work on the tabernacle (Ex 31:2–6 ). The Holy Spirit is the source of natural gifts as well as the supernatural gifts used in the service of the Lord. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:48 the [other] furniture. The furnishings of the temple were designed to correspond with similar furnishings in the tabernacle (Ex 25 ; 30 ). Although Solomon made ten tables and lampstands instead of one, their functions remained the same, all ten being considered one unit (2Ch 29:18 ).

7:51 David. David’s personal example of giving (1Ch 29:1–9 ) provided a high model of godly concern in leadership.

8:1 ark of the covenant. The ark had been in Jerusalem for some time (2Sa 6 ), and now it was finally in its proper setting. With the erection of the temple and the placement of the ark, the division of spiritual activities between Gibeon, the location of the tabernacle, and Jerusalem, where the ark had resided in a temporary shelter, was now at an end. The pattern of central worship set up in the wilderness could once again be observed (Dt 12:1–4 ).

8:9 two tablets of stone. The two tablets upon which the Ten Commandments were inscribed were known as the “tablets of the covenant” (Dt 9:9 ) and were kept in the ark (Dt 10:1–5 , 8 ) along with the jar of manna (Ex 16:33–34 ) and Aaron’s rod that budded (Nu 17:10 ).

8:10–11 the cloud. This visible presence of God’s dwelling with His people—sometimes called the “shekinah glory”—had also covered the tabernacle when it was inaugurated (Ex 40:34–35 ).

8:20 the LORD has fulfilled. Israel’s God is a keeper of promises. His promise to give Abraham’s descendants a land (Ge 15:13–14 , 18–21 ; Jos 14:12–15 ) had been provisionally realized (Jos 21:43–45 ). Solomon also appropriated God’s promise to David (2Sa 7:12–18 ). Subsequent kings in the Davidic line could likewise by faith enjoy the blessings of God promised in the Davidic covenant (Ps 89:3–4 , 19–24 , 27–37 ).

8:27 God. God is infinite; no mere building, no matter how wonderful, can contain Him. God rules from heaven in a realm far superior to anything that man can imagine. Unlike the pagan gods who were thought to actually live in the temples built for them, He is not limited by time or space (Ac 7:48 ; 17:24 ). Yet God has committed Himself to fellowship with men, walking among them on the earth and being their God. Incredibly, He has chosen to dwell in the hearts of human beings. The true believer is the temple that God desires (1Co 3:16–19 ).

8:29–30 The Temple in the Life of Israel— Once Solomon built the temple, it became the primary location for the ceremonial worship of Israel. But it was also to be a house of prayer (Isa 56:7 ), a special place where God’s people could rightly maintain their individual relationships with God. The temple was a place for repentance and forgiveness (Lk 18:10–14 ). It was a place for petitions to be brought to God. The temple was the central point of worship and life for Israel. Even today in many European towns, beautiful church buildings stand in the town square as a testament to the centrality that the church once had in the life of the community.

Too often we fall into a practice that makes ceremony itself the central thing or, in some cases, the only thing. Here, we can see what mattered most was not the ritualistic practices but communication with God. This passage and others like it give clarity to many of the claims of the prophets mentioned later in Scripture. If the people had been praying and listening to God as a part of the act of worship, surely they would have been more obedient to His commands, especially in view of the fact that prophets continually rebuked them. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:41 foreigner. Unlike God's people or resident aliens within the commonwealth of Israel (Dt 10:18–19), foreigners had no particular claim on the ear of God. But the Israelites expected foreigners to be drawn to God by the way His people worshiped Him.

8:54 arose . . . had knelt down. Chronicles adds that Solomon's prayer and blessing were accompanied by heavenly fire that consumed the sacrifice on the altar (2Ch 7:1–3).

8:58 Regeneration—Solomon prayed for an ability given by God that would allow the people to live according to the covenant which had been given at the time of Moses. Solomon was aware that the nation's history was full of examples of the people turning away from God and from His written revelation. Ultimately, the promise of God to the nation of Israel was that there would be a new covenant given to them which would be internalized and which would be brought about by the Holy Spirit (Jer 31)—the new covenant which was ratified in Jesus' blood (1Co 11:25). Believers today have a power which enables us to live according to God's Word—the Holy Spirit who is the agent of our regeneration. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:60 all the peoples of the earth. This verse does not limit God to the Jews but includes the Gentiles as well.

9:2 second time. God had appeared previously to Solomon in Gibeon (3:4–15). The Lord's warning was a necessary reminder for Solomon, who eventually did compromise the conditions required for enjoying God's blessing (11:1–11).

9:12 they did not please him. Hiram's displeasure with Solomon's gift would later result in Solomon's redeeming the towns by repaying the debt in another manner (2Ch 8:1–2).

9:14 120 talents. A talent was said to be the full load one man could easily carry. It was equal to three thousand shekels, or about 70 pounds.

9:16 Gezer. Gezer had been a strong Canaanite city, a part of Ephraim's territorial assignment. Ephraim had never taken Gezer; however, Egypt had conquered the city. Its key location on the edge of the lowlands west of Jerusalem made it a splendid gift for Pharaoh to give on the occasion of his daughter's marriage to Solomon.

9:26 Ezion-geber. Ezion-geber was at the head of the modern Gulf of Aqaba. Its key location as an outlet to the Red Sea and the regions beyond made it commercially important to Solomon and to Hiram, his Phoenician trading partner (2Ch 8:17–18).

9:28 Ophir. The exact location of Ophir is a mystery. Some have speculated that it may have been in Africa, since it was reached by sea (1Ki 22:48). It was certainly a celebrated gold area, the source of much of the wealth David and Solomon used to pay for their vast building projects (1Ch 29:4).

10:1 Sheba. Located in southwestern Arabia (present-day Yemen), Sheba was the homeland of the Sabeans, a people whose far-flung commercial enterprises stretched from Syria to east Africa to distant India. The Sabeans dealt in such precious commodities as gold, gemstones, perfumes, and rare spices.

10:9 Blessed be the LORD your God. The queen's acknowledgement of Solomon's God and the Lord's covenant faithfulness towards Israel does not necessarily mean that she made a commitment of personal faith in the Lord. She may simply have been expressing respect for Solomon's God (see 5:7).

10:26 1,400 chariots. Shalmaneser III of Assyria reported that at the battle of Qarqar (853 BC) he faced a combined enemy chariot force of 3,900, some two thousand of which were supplied by Israel.

10:27 silver . . . cedars. Under Solomon, Israel enjoyed its greatest period of prosperity. This time of prosperity and peace also must have allowed for the growth of scholarship and for arts and music.

11:1–4 Unfaithfulness— Solomon was affected by the contemporary practices of the surrounding culture. Entering into a political marriage was a means to consolidate a relationship with a neighboring monarch, and Solomon followed this custom at the expense of obedience to God. Unfaithfulness creeps into our lives when our hearts are more closely attuned to contemporary culture and peer pressure than to the voice of God. The heinousness of Solomon’s unfaithfulness stands in contrast with the abundance of God’s favor and the plainness of His commands (vv. 9–10). Go to Theological Notes Index

11:1–2 Materialism— Even before Israel crossed over the Jordan and entered the promised land, God had given special instructions for the nation’s future kings, warning them against materialism: they were not to collect horses, women, or gold for themselves (Dt 17:16–17). However, King Solomon did all three, resulting in his downfall. He owned many horses (4:26); he gathered hundreds of wives and concubines (v. 3); and he possessed much gold and silver (10:14–27). The gathering of material wealth, when gained honestly, is not prohibited in the Bible. Improper love of possessions, however, is idolatry. We can own things, but things must not own us. Go to Theological Notes Index

11:1 many foreign women. Taking foreign wives violated the Lord’s prohibitions against marrying Canaanite women (v. 2; Ex 34:12–17; Dt 7:1–3); taking many wives violated the standard of monogamy established at the beginning (Ge 2:24–25), and resulted in rampant polygamy, something God had also forbidden to Israel’s future kings (Dt 17:17).

11:3 seven hundred . . . three hundred. If the reference to 60 queens and 80 concubines in Song of Solomon 6:8 is to Solomon’s wives, it represents a much earlier period in Solomon’s reign.

11:4 not completely devoted. Although it is true that David did not always live up to God’s standards, he was loyal to God and trusted Him implicitly, even when he was rebuked for his sins (2Sa 12:13; Ps 32:1–5; 53:1–5).

11:7 high place. The use of high places in association with the worship of foreign gods shows the terrible danger that the high places presented to Israel (3:2–4; 14:23; Mic 1:3). Molech. The worship of Molech was associated with Baal worship and with human sacrifice (Jer 7:31–32; 19:5–6; 32:35).

11:13 one tribe. The one tribe left to the house of David was Judah, the principal tribe of the Southern Kingdom. By this time, Simeon had assimilated with Judah (12:17–21).

11:14 Hadad the Edomite. Hadad was one of the survivors who had escaped when David defeated the Edomite army (2Sa 8:13–14). Pharaoh’s ready reception and favorable treatment of Hadad probably had political ramifications, the pharaoh seeing him as a potential future ally on Israel’s border.

11:26 Jeroboam. At first a trusted official for Solomon (v. 28), Jeroboam came under his wrath and fled to Egypt. Eventually, Jeroboam was instrumental in bringing about the prophesied schism of the country (12:2–19). He became the first king of the Northern Kingdom (12:20).

11:31–32 ten tribes . . . one tribe. The twelfth tribe might be Simeon, which was absorbed by Judah; it is also possible that Benjamin existed for some time as a “buffer state” between Israel and Judah, linked at times with the Southern Kingdom (2Ch 11:3).

11:36 a lamp. This is an image of one of the divinely intended functions of the kings of ancient Israel. In the midst of the darkness of a pagan world, the Davidic kings were to be a lamp to the nations, in anticipation of the coming Messiah who would be the Light of the World (Jn 1:1–9; 2Sa 21:17; 2Ki 8:19; 2Ch 21:7).

11:40 Shishak. Shishak (or Sheshonq I, 945–924 BC) was the first pharaoh of Egypt’s strong twenty-second dynasty. Ironically, this future destroyer of Israel appears here as a protector of one of its future kings.

11:41 the book of the acts of Solomon. This book is mentioned only here; compare the references to the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel (14:19) and the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah (14:29). It is likely that the author of the books of Kings drew on these sources.

12:1 Shechem. Shechem was an important center of Israelite activity. It was the first place mentioned in Canaan with reference to Abraham (Ge 12:6 ). It was also one of the Levitical cities of refuge (Nu 35:6 ). By going for his coronation to a place with ancient ties to the history of his people, and which was situated in the region of the northern tribes, Rehoboam doubtless believed that he was making a strategic move.

12:15 from the LORD . Even at this crucial time of national schism, God was sovereignly working through human events to accomplish His will, which had been made known through earlier prophecy (11:29–39 ). might fulfill His word. All things derive their origin and destiny from God. They are determined, controlled, and directed from beginning to end by His wise and sovereign counsel. His plan encompasses everything that comes to pass, including all ends and all the ways and means to those ends. His plan also incorporates the folly of men in their deliberations, advice, and decisions, without compelling them to it by external constraint. In fact, God's Word reveals the solemn truth that His plan encompasses even the sin, ungodliness, and evil of men in their motivations and aspirations, their thoughts, words, and deeds, without eliminating their full responsibility for it (Ac 2:22–23 ; 4:27–28 ).

The Division of the Kingdom

12:16 What portion do we have in David? The ancient rivalry felt by the northern tribes now came to a peak in resentment against the tribe of Judah and the house of David.

12:17 cities of Judah. The southern section of the land also included the tribal allotment of Simeon. But Simeon by this time had been absorbed by Judah, their allotment was “within the inheritance of the sons of Judah” (Jos 19:1 ).

12:20 made him king. The coronation of Jeroboam had been prophesied by Ahijah the prophet of the Lord (11:29–31 ). Nonetheless, the actual coronation apparently was done apart from priest or prophet of the Lord; there was no divine anointing, no true religious ceremony. Only the kings of the Southern Kingdom would have the sanction of the Davidic covenant (2Sa 7 ).

12:22 Shemaiah. According to 2 Chronicles 12:15 , Iddo the prophet and Shemaiah together wrote a history of Rehoboam’s reign.

12:28 two calves of gold. Not only would they strike a familiar chord from Israel’s history, but the two calves would arouse the interest of the remaining Canaanites in the Northern Kingdom. The result of Jeroboam’s action was religious confusion and apostasy; this was the first time that a deliberate attempt had been made to establish a heterodox doctrine, an unauthorized variation of the true religion. It appears that Jeroboam was doing the same thing that Aaron did, presenting the calves as representations of God, and thus luring people away from true worship.

12:29 Bethel. Bethel was north of Jerusalem in Benjaminite territory; it had enjoyed a prominent place in Israelite history throughout the earlier patriarchal period (Ge 28:10–21 ). Dan was in the north; before its capture by the Danites it had a reputation as a center for pagan worship (Jdg 18:30 ). Jeroboam’s choice of these two sites was a brilliant move. He had one site in the northernmost part of his kingdom and another in the southernmost part; both had long ties to Israel’s past, and eliminated the need for long, tedious treks to Jerusalem.

12:31 not of the sons (descendants) of Levi. Jeroboam’s new religious institutions included starting a new religious order that did not include the Levites; setting up shrines at high places (3:2–3 ); and replacing the Feast of Tabernacles with a fall festival of the eighth month. His various attempts at religious innovation would quickly incur God’s wrath and earn him a reputation that would live in infamy (13:33–34 ; 22:52 ).

13:4–5 Seize him! The life and character of Jeroboam stands in stark contrast to that of King David. When David was told that he would become king, he never forgot that it was God who gave him the position, and God who would maintain it. Jeroboam, however, seemed to think that he would only stay in office by his own efforts. When David was confronted with his sin by Nathan the prophet, he humbly confessed (2Sa 12:13 ). The wicked Jeroboam sought to arrest his accuser.

13:6 the LORD your God. This language may be simply deferential to the prophet, but here it may indicate recognition by Jeroboam that he was no longer really serving the living God.

13:7–8 reward. The prophet was not just being ungracious, he was following a direct command from God. In biblical times, sharing a meal was more than just a social custom. It implied an intimate fellowship. Great religious ceremonies from the Passover to the Lord’s Table center on people eating together. The prophet did not want his act of mercy to suggest that God accepted Jeroboam’s deviant worship, or leave the impression that a touch from God could be bought and paid for. Giving a gift can be an easy way to avoid the really important matter of changing lives and lifestyles. If a person is convinced that by his giving he is rewarding a church or a pastor, then it becomes impossible for that church or pastor to have any kind of prophetic ministry to that individual. Instead, they become his debtor.

13:11 an old prophet. This prophet was clearly an apostate. He had not spoken against Jeroboam; instead, he boldly lied to the Lord's true prophet.

13:19 went back with him. The man of God had withstood Jeroboam's persuasions; he probably came expecting just such pressure. Sadly, he made the mistake of letting down his guard when he had passed the test he was expecting. There is never any excuse for violating God's clear instructions, and he paid a terrible price for his disobedience.

13:24 a lion. The way the lion stood by both the man of God and his donkey shows that the lion did not kill for food but was God's executioner (vv. 25–26, 28).

13:32 cities of Samaria. The city of Samaria did not, in fact, come into being for nearly half a century (16:24), but the author mentions it here from his own later perspective.

13:33 evil way. Rather than learning from the report of this incident, Jeroboam was even more set in his evil ways. His apostasy would earn for him his reputation as the one who "made Israel to sin" (16:26).

14:4 Shiloh. Located about twenty miles north of Jerusalem, Shiloh had been the religious center for the nation during the time of the judges and was the location of the tabernacle (Jos 18:1; 1Sa 1:3). The city was destroyed by the Philistines after the loss of the ark (1Sa 4:1–11; Jer 7:12–15). could not see. Although he was blind, Ahijah could "see" by means of the revelation of the living God.

14:11 dogs. Dogs were scavengers, and in the Middle East they came to symbolize the dregs of society (2Ki 8:13).

14:14 cut off the house. As prophesied here, the end of Jeroboam's reign would soon be accomplished (15:27–16:7).

14:15 Asherim. This word refers to the wooden poles or images associated with the worship of the goddess Asherah (Jdg 3:7; 2Ki 23:4). Her worship would become one of the sins that would bring about the downfall of the Northern Kingdom (2Ki 17:9–11).

14:17 Tirzah. Famed for its beauty (SS 6:4), Tirzah was a royal retreat and the capital of the Northern Kingdom's first two dynasties (15:33).

14:19 the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. This book is mentioned 15 times in Kings. Apparently it was an official record of events in the Southern Kingdom down to the days of Jehoiakim. This work should not be confused with the biblical books of Chronicles, which were written much later, after the exile.

14:20 Jeroboam. Each of the subsequent kings of Israel was judged against the example of the wickedness of Jeroboam (15:34). Only with Ahab was a worse pattern set (16:31).

14:23 high places. The high places were a problem throughout the history of Judah and Israel (Mic 1:3). At times, the worship offered on them may have been done sincerely, in true worship of God (3:2–4; 2Ki 12:3). But these were also the places in which Canaanite worship rites were practiced, and images set up to honor Baal and Asherah. Even when the worship on the high places was not mixed with pagan rituals, it was not in accord with the law of Moses (see 2Ch 1:3).

14:24 repulsive acts. This is an exceedingly strong term; it describes perverted activities that impelled God to dispossess the Canaanite peoples from their land (Dt 18:9–12).

14:26 treasures of the house (temple) of the LORD . The sacking of the temple is particularly shocking when we think of the long and detailed description of Solomon's building and furnishing of the house of the Lord.

15:2 Maacah. Elsewhere she is described as “the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah” (2Ch 13:2), and “the daughter of Absalom” (2Ch 11:21). It is thought that she was the granddaughter of Absalom; the daughter of Uriel of Gibea and Absalom’s daughter Tamar (2Sa 14:27). She was the favorite of Rehoboam’s many wives. The fact that she is mentioned in connection with both her son Abijam and her grandson Asa (vv. 10, 12) makes it appear that she was an important figure, probably wielding a good deal of influence.

15:4 for David's sake. That is, because of God's love for David and the promise He had made to him (2Sa 7). lamp. This is one of the lovely images of God's intended blessing on the Davidic house.

15:5 Perseverance— The lamp of God was still shining in Jerusalem during the reign of Abijam, even though he was not wholly devoted to the Lord, nor was his father who reigned before him. In spite of the sins of Abijam and his father, God continued to let His light shine in Jerusalem for the sake of David, whose heart was all for the Lord. In a similar way, our actions will affect the generations which follow us. If we are committed to God's ways, and willing to stand for what is right, our children will benefit; if we selfishly follow our own pleasures, our children often are left picking up the pieces. Go to Theological Notes Index

15:10 His [great-grand]mother was Maacah. It is important to remember that many times the Hebrews used the terms “father, mother, son, daughter” loosely, to indicate ancestry rather than exact generation (v. 3).

15:13 He also deposed. Asa's many spiritual activities (2Ch 14:2–5; 15:1–18) are telescoped into a few statements here. Although the reforms mentioned took place early in Asa's reign (2Ch 14:2–5), the chronicler indicates that the deposing of Maacah took place in the fifteenth year of his rule (895 BC). Maacah's removal came as a result of a time of covenant renewal (2Ch 15:1–16) and a consequent reaction against her vile idolatry.

15:14 high places. In some instances, the high places were places where the Lord was worshiped (1Sa 9:12); in other cases they were used for pagan purposes (2Ch 14:2–3).

15:17 Ramah. Ramah was about five and a half miles north of Jerusalem on the main north-south commercial route through the land, and it was therefore of great importance to both kingdoms. It gave east-west access to both the foothills of Ephraim and the Mediterranean coast, so it was of strategic military importance as well. Baasha was striking a blow for control of the center of the land.

15:18–19 Unfaithfulness— Asa's life was a mixture of good and evil, faithfulness and faithlessness. He took a stand against the rampant idolatry, removing male cult prostitutes and idolatrous worship, and even demoting his own grandmother to reduce her evil influence (v. 13). Yet later in his life, he signally failed to trust God for either safety or health. When Baasha, king of Israel, attacked him, he sought help from the Syrians (vv. 17–18) rather than from God, and resented and rejected the prophetic rebuke he received (2Ch 16:7–10). Near the end of his life, Asa suffered a crippling disease in his feet; yet even in this “he did not seek the LORD, but [relied only on] the physicians” (2Ch 16:12). Go to Theological Notes Index

15:25 Nadab. His name means “Generous” or “Noble,” but he did not live up to his name.

15:29 in accordance with the word of the LORD . The death of Nadab was in line with the prophetic fulfillment of God’s judgment on the house of Jeroboam (14:9 ,16). Nonetheless, the manner of his death was condemned by God through His prophet Jehu (16:7 ).

16:1–7 Jehu. This Jehu is not to be confused with Jehu the king of Israel (2Ki 9:2 ). Jehu the prophet came from the Southern Kingdom; his long prophetic ministry lasted into the days of Jehoshaphat. Like his father before him, he confronted sin fearlessly, even in the royal house (2Ch 16:7–10 ).

16:10 Zimri. Zimri’s treacherous act was the prophesied judgment on Baasha and Elah for their wickedness.

16:23 Omri. Omri’s exploits are commemorated in the Moabite Stone and the Assyrian annals. Indeed, he was so important to the Assyrians that they called Israel “the House of Omri” long after his death. Yet the author of Kings describes little of Omri’s achievements, because he did evil in the eyes of the Lord.

16:30 Ahab. In Ahab we come to the very lowest point in the degeneration of the spiritual life of the kings of Israel. Each of the kings of the Northern Kingdom had been guilty of walking in the steps of Jeroboam, but Ahab’s sins made Jeroboam’s look trivial. His greatest crime was his promotion of Baal worship as the state religion.

16:31 Jezebel. Ahab’s marriage to Jezebel was politically important and demonstrated the rising prominence of Israel’s third dynasty. Her father was both king and priest of Baal in Sidon; similarly, Jezebel was princess and priestess of Baal. Her Phoenician name was Abizebel, meaning “My Father [Baal] is Noble.” The Hebrew scribes purposely dropped a letter from her name, calling her Jezebel, “Lacking Honor.” went and served Baal and worshiped him. Ahab completely abandoned even a skewed worship of God, and became a full-fledged worshiper of Baal.

16:34 rebuilt Jericho. Jericho had been semi-occupied at various times (Jdg 3:13 ), but not as a permanently occupied fortified city. Either Hiel offered his sons as foundation sacrifices, or they died in some mishap. However it happened, Joshua’s curse was carried out.

17:1 Elijah. No prophet had arisen since Moses who was like Elijah. His name means “The Lord is God,” a statement which was the core of his message to the unbelieving nation. dew nor rain. Elijah’s pronouncement was an immediate challenge: Baal was supposed to govern the weather, but Elijah was declaring him powerless before the Living God.

17:6 ravens. It is interesting to note that ravens were considered unclean birds (Lev 11:15 ).

17:9 Zarephath. Zarephath was in Phoenician territory, seven miles south of Sidon, the stronghold of Baal. The Lord’s sustaining Elijah first by a raven and then by a widow provided the prophet with a dramatic test of faith at the outset of his ministry. The widow, too, would be taught the value of trusting in God alone.

17:14 shall not be exhausted. While an apostate Israelite nation suffered because of the drought, God supplied the daily necessities to a non-Israelite who willingly took Him at His word. Both the prophet and the widow were reminded of the value of personal trust in Him who alone is sufficient to meet every need (Php 4:19 ).

17:17–23 Resurrection— Resurrection from the dead was not a miracle ordinary people expected to see, even from a prophet of God. This widow, however, would have had reason to hope for God’s help. She had opened her home to Elijah, and she had seen firsthand His power and the results of complete trust in Him. Yet it was not until she had seen the miracle of her son brought back to life that she expressed faith in God. Go to Theological Notes Index

18:3 Obadiah. Although tradition has sometimes identified them, this Obadiah is probably not the author of the prophetic book of that name. It is clear that this Obadiah was a man of great faith, whose heroic actions give us a more balanced picture of the situation people of faith endured in Israel at this time.

18:18 the Baals. The wording indicates that Ahab had a practice of attending services at various local shrines where this deity was worshiped.

18:19 Baal . . . Asherah. The worship of Baal and Asherah held a constant fascination for Israel from earliest times (Ex 34:13 ; Nu 25 ; Jdg 2:13 ) and eventually caused Israel's demise (2Ki 17:16–18 ).

18:21 two opinions. We are confronted today with a choice no less momentous than the Israelites' choice between the Lord and Baal. Here is a broad road that leads down to destruction; there, a way narrow and difficult that leads upward to life (Mt 7:13–14 ). God doesn't share devotion with anything or anyone. We have to make the choice to be on God's side; we cannot serve two masters. We will either gratify self, conforming to the corrupt pattern of this present age, or glorify Him who alone is worthy of worship.

18:27 out [at the moment], or he is on a journey. "On a journey" is a euphemism with the same meaning as our euphemism "using the restroom." Elijah was piling on the sarcasm—a god is not supposed to have embarrassing bodily functions.

18:30 repaired and rebuilt the [old] altar. This was an earlier altar that had been used by the true people of God. Elijah avoided all contact with the altar that was associated with Baal.

18:36 LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel. This phrase, so characteristic of worship in the early period (Ge 50:24 ; Ex 3:6 ), reminded Elijah's hearers that the God who had made the covenant with Abraham was still the God of the Northern Kingdom, and the nation's only hope of life, protection, and blessing (Dt 30:20 ).

18:46 girded up his loins. Elijah tucked his garment into his sash, enabling him to run freely the 13 miles to Jezreel.

19:3 ran for his life. One may ask why a man who had seen God's mighty power should give way to fear, but we must realize that God did not criticize Elijah for his reaction. Elijah was not a superhero but a man with a nature like ours (Jas 5:17 ). He had seen a great victory on Mount Carmel, but he also knew that Jezebel was still in power, the faith of the people was still weak, at best, and his life truly was in danger. To run for his life did not necessarily indicate lack of trust; running is sometimes just the act of prudence.

19:5 Get up and eat. God's response to Elijah's fear and discouragement was to give him the very tangible, physical encouragement of food and rest.

19:7 the angel of the LORD . This term sometimes refers to God Himself (Ex 3:2–6 ); other times it seems to refer simply to a heavenly messenger (2Ki 1:3 ; 19:35 ).

19:8 Horeb. The name Horeb refers to Mount Sinai itself, "the mountain of God" (Ex 3:1 ).

The Wanderings of Elijah

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

19:11 the LORD was not in the earthquake. Although each of the things mentioned in these verses could signal God's presence (Ex 40:38 ; Zec 14:4–5 ; Ac 2:2–3 ), Elijah learned that God is not just the God of the spectacular.

19:12 gentle blowing. This is often translated "a still small voice." Elijah had called for fire and national revival. What Elijah did not see was that God was already quietly at work in the lives of many people (v. 18 ).

19:18 have not bowed down. In times of widespread drift and deliberate deviation from biblical standards of doctrine and ethics, it is easy to suffer from an "Elijah complex." We think that we alone have been on fire for God when everyone else has rejected His covenant, profaned His altars, and persecuted His prophets. Whenever we are tempted to imagine that we are the only ones left to represent the cause of the gospel, we are also open to the dangers of self-pity and self-righteousness. But we are not alone when we belong to the family of God. In every age, God has preserved faithful people who rejoice in Him and are on fire for the truth.

20:1 Ben-hadad. Ben-hadad II (860–842 BC) was king of Aram, the ancient name for the area which is Syria today.

20:2 Ahab. When he is associated with his wicked wife Jezebel, Ahab appears as thoroughly evil. But in this chapter he appears as a capable leader in a time of international turmoil, and as a person who had some sense of the power and presence of God (vv. 13–14 ).

20:13 a prophet. This prophet was not named, but his true message reminds us that there were still many prophets who were faithful to the Lord (18:13 ; 20:35 ).

20:23 god of the hills. The Aramean advisors reflected traditional ancient Middle Eastern theological concepts. Their gods were limited to certain geographical locations.

20:26 Aphek. This is not the Philistine city where the ark was lost (1Sa 4:1 ), but another location just east of the Jordan in northern Gilead. They were launching their second campaign in the Jordan Valley, but they would learn that the power of the living God is not limited to the mountains as they had hoped.

20:28 not a god of the valleys. The God of Israel is Lord of the universe, and there is no limit to His power and authority. Not only are we responsible to Him as individuals, but so are the social, economic, and political institutions of the world. Just as it was presumption for the Arameans to think that God was bound by geography, it is also presumption to think that if we follow the laws of morality in our private lives, we can violate them in our social, economic, and political relationships. Separation of church and state should not mean separation of God and state. The nation that violates the moral laws of God will eventually suffer defeat.

20:43 resentful and sullen. Rather than repenting of his sin, Ahab felt ill-used by God and resented his punishment, adamantly refusing to change his ways.

21:1 Samaria. Samaria was Ahab's capital city; sometimes its name is used to represent all Israel (2Ki 1:3 ; 2Ch 24:23 ; Jnh 3:6 ).

21:2 Give me your vineyard. All the land was the Lord's, who granted it to each Israelite tribe and family, and provisions were made so that the land could not be permanently sold out of the family to whom it had been given (Lev 25:23–28 ; Nu 36:2–9 ). In this sense, the vineyard was not Naboth's to dispose of. It belonged to his descendants as much as it did to him.

21:13 outside the city. God's law was followed in the manner and place of his death (Lev 24:14–16 ,23 ), although his execution was an outrage, based on false testimony, lies, greed, and refusal to honor the laws concerning the land.

21:19 Have you murdered. In Genesis 9:6 the principle was established that those who shed human blood must have their blood shed by other humans. Ahab had previously allowed his wicked wife Jezebel to plot the murder of an innocent landowner in order to obtain his vineyard. As a result, God determined that both Ahab and Jezebel would die bloody deaths, and this is exactly what happened

(22:34–38 ; 2Ki 9:30–37 ). How tragic that these two brilliant, capable, and talented members of royalty, whose lives could have brought so much blessing to Israel, would instead bring about their own downfall by choosing the path of wickedness rather than the path of life.

21:27 when Ahab heard these words. The vacillating nature of Ahab's conduct is seen clearly in verses 25–29 . He did great evil, under the influence of his evil wife. Nevertheless, he could at times display real courage (22:34–35 ) and even real humility before God (v. 29 ). His life is a sad picture of what happens when we are ruled by our own passions rather than by God.

22:4 Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat was the fourth king of the Southern Kingdom. He was related to Ahab through the marriage of his son Jehoram to Ahab's daughter Athaliah (2Ki 8:18–27 ).

22:9 Micaiah. The prophet Micaiah is not known except in connection with this incident (2Ch 18:8–27 ).

22:14 I will speak what the LORD says to me. Unless a prophecy is truly directed by God, it is valueless. Micaiah's response was what one would expect from a godly man, but his first statement to Ahab (v. 15 ) is a little puzzling. It seems that Micaiah was playing with Ahab a little, pointing out to him the futility of asking for favorable prophecy rather than true prophecy. It seems obvious that Micaiah (or God through Micaiah), was in no way deceiving Ahab, since Ahab was instantly aware that he had not been given a real prophecy.

22:16–17 truth. All of us wish to hear good news, not bad. We want to hear the favorable, the acceptable, the words that bring us happiness and do not condemn. It can be tempting to speak only what will be well-received even if it is not true, but neither God nor man is served by untruth. While the truth should always be spoken in love (Eph 4:15 ), it must be the sole content of what we say. The prophet had to speak only the truth, or he would no longer have been a prophet—his words were the words of the Lord spoken in His name. Our words should be true because, if we are His people, we speak in His name.

22:38 the dogs licked up his blood. Elijah's grisly prophecy concerning the house of Ahab came to pass here (21:19–24 ).

22:39 ivory palace. Archeological excavations at Samaria have illustrated the nature of Ahab's palace, a house with luxurious decorations made of ivory.

22:46 remnant of the sodomites. Apparently male prostitution was a part of the debased religious practices of Baal worship (14:24 ).

22:53 Conclusion— The story does not end here but is continued in 2 Kings. The division of the Book of Kings is not original, but was done for convenience when the Bible was translated into Greek in the 2nd century BC. Go to Theological Notes Index

The Second Book of the Kings

- AUTHOR: This book, thought to originally be part of 1 Kings, is similar to the Book of Jeremiah. It has been observed that the omission of Jeremiah's ministry in the account of King Josiah and his successors may indicate that Jeremiah himself was the recorder of the events. The last two chapters were evidently added to the book after the Babylonian captivity and written by someone other than Jeremiah.
- TIMES: 853–560 BC
- KEY VERSES: 2Ki 17:22–23
- THEME: Both Elijah in 1 Kings and Elisha in 2 Kings are prime examples of how prophets functioned in Israel. They fearlessly confronted kings. They were involved in miracles. Both seemed to always be involved in the middle of some political controversy. Most importantly, they called on God and got results. In 2 Kings, Israel's story begins with the reign of Ahab's son, Ahaziah, continues with the capture and deportation of Israel to Assyria in 722 BC, and ends with Judah's fall in 587 BC, when Nebuchadnezzar burns the temple and palace in Jerusalem and deports many people back to Babylon.

2 Kings 1

Ahaziah's Messengers Meet Elijah

<sup>2</sup>-Ahaziah [the king of Israel] fell through the lattice (grid) in his upper chamber which was in Samaria, and became sick [from the injury]. So he sent messengers, saying to them, “Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, if I will recover from this sickness.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?’

<sup>4</sup> “Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘You [Ahaziah] will not leave the bed on which you lie, but you will certainly die.’ ” So Elijah departed.

<sup>5</sup> When the messengers returned to Ahaziah, he said to them, “Why have you returned [so soon]?”

<sup>6</sup> They replied, “A man came up to meet us and said to us, ‘Go, return to the king who sent you and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD: ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you send to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave the bed on which you lie, but you will certainly die.’ ’ ’ ”

<sup>7</sup> The king asked them, “What was the appearance of the man who came up to meet you and said these things to you?”

<sup>8</sup>-They answered him, “ He was a hairy man with a [wide] leather band bound around his loins. ” And Ahaziah said, “It is Elijah the Tishbite.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the king sent to Elijah a captain of fifty with his fifty [fighting men to seize the prophet]. And he went up to him, and behold, he was sitting on the top of a hill. And the captain said to him, “Man of God, the king says, ‘Come down.’ ”

<sup>10</sup>-Elijah replied to the captain of fifty, “So if I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty [fighting men].” Then fire fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty. ‡

<sup>11</sup> So King Ahaziah again sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty [fighting men]. And he said to him, “Man of God, thus says the king, ‘Come down quickly.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Elijah answered them, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty [fighting men].” And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>13</sup> So Ahaziah again sent a captain of a third fifty with his fifty [fighting men]. And the third captain of fifty went up and came bowed down on his knees before Elijah, and begged him [for compassion] and said to him, “O man of God, please let my life and the lives of your servants, these fifty, be precious in your sight. ‡

<sup>15</sup> The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So he stood and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup> Then Elijah said to Ahaziah, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Since you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, god of Ekron—is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word?—therefore you will not leave the bed on which you lie, but will certainly die.’ ”

Jehoram Reigns over Israel

<sup>17</sup> So Ahaziah [the son of King Ahab] died in accordance with the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And because he had no son, Jehoram [his younger brother] became king [of Israel, the northern kingdom] in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah [the southern kingdom].

<sup>18</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 2

Elijah Taken to Heaven

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THE LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were traveling from Gilgal. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And Elijah said to Elisha, “Please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel.” But Elisha replied, “As the LORD lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Now the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from you today?” He said, “Yes, I know it; be quiet [about it].” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Elijah said to him, “Elisha, please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” But he said, “As the LORD lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup> The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from you today?” And he answered, “Yes, I know it; be quiet [about it].”

<sup>6</sup> Elijah said to him, “Please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” But he said, “As the LORD lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on.

<sup>7</sup> Fifty men of the sons of the prophets also went and stood opposite them [to watch] at a distance; and the two of them stood by the Jordan.

<sup>8</sup> And Elijah took his mantle (coat) and rolled it up and struck the waters, and they were divided this way and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground. ‡

<sup>9</sup> And when they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you.” And Elisha said, “Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me.”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “You have asked for a difficult thing. However, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so.”

<sup>12</sup> Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!” And he no longer saw Elijah. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces [in grief]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> He picked up the mantle of Elijah that fell off him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

<sup>14</sup> He took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and struck the waters and said, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” And when he too had struck the waters, they divided this way and that, and Elisha crossed over. ‡

Elisha Succeeds Elijah

15 When the sons of the prophets who were [watching] opposite at Jericho saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” And they came to meet him and bowed down to the ground before him [in respect]. ‡ The Activities of Elisha

16 Then they said to Elisha, “Behold now, there are among your servants fifty strong men; please let them go and search for your master. It may be that the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him on some mountain or into some valley.” And he said, “You shall not send anyone. ” ‡

17 But when they urged him until he was embarrassed [to refuse them], he said, “Send them. ” So they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find Elijah.

18 They returned to Elisha while he was staying at Jericho; and he said to them, “Did I not tell you, ‘Do not go’?”

19 Then the men of the city said to Elisha, “Look, this city is in a pleasant place, as my lord [Elisha] sees; but the water is bad and the land is barren.”

20 He said, “Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

21 Then Elisha went to the spring of water and threw the salt in it and said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘I [not the salt] have purified and healed these waters; there shall no longer be death or barrenness because of it.’ ” ‡

22 So the waters have been purified to this day, in accordance with the word spoken by Elisha.

23 Then Elisha went up from Jericho to Bethel. On the way, young boys came out of the city and mocked him and said to him, “Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!”

24 When he turned around and looked at them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and tore to pieces forty-two of the boys.

25 Elisha went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3

Jehoram Meets Moab Rebellion

<sup>1</sup> JEHORAM THE son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

<sup>2</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had made. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then he went and sent word to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” And he replied, “I will go; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Jehoram said, “Which way shall we go up?” Jehoshaphat answered, “The way through the Wilderness of Edom.”

<sup>9</sup> So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. They made a circuit of seven days’ journey, but there was no water for the army or for the cattle that followed them.

<sup>10</sup> Then the king of Israel said, “We are doomed, for the LORD has called these three kings to be handed over to Moab.”

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to Elisha. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What business do you have with me? Go to the prophets of your [wicked] father [Ahab] and to the prophets of your [pagan] mother [Jezebel].” But the king of Israel said to him, “No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to be handed over to Moab.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Elisha said, “As the LORD of hosts (armies) lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I have regard for Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you nor see you [king of Israel]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “But now bring me a musician.” And it came about while the musician played, that the hand (power) of the LORD came upon Elisha. ‡

<sup>16</sup> He said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Make this valley (the Arabah) full of trenches.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “For thus says the LORD, ‘You will not see wind or rain, yet that valley will be filled with water, so you and your cattle and your other animals may drink.

<sup>18</sup> ‘This is but a simple thing in the sight of the LORD; He will also hand over the Moabites to you.

<sup>19</sup> ‘You shall strike every fortified city and every choice (principal) city, and cut down every good tree and stop up all sources of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones.’ ”

<sup>20</sup> It happened in the morning, when the sacrifice was offered, that suddenly water came [miraculously] from the area of Edom, and the country was filled with water. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Now all the Moabites heard that the [three] kings had come up to fight against them, and all who were able to put on armor, as well as those who were older, were summoned and stood [together in battle formation] at the border.

<sup>22</sup> When they got up early the next morning, the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water across from them as red as blood.

<sup>23</sup> And they said, “This is blood! Clearly the kings have fought together, and have killed one another. Now then, Moab, to the spoil [and the plunder of the dead soldiers]!”

<sup>24</sup> But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land, killing the Moabites [as they went].

<sup>26</sup> When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not.

<sup>27</sup> Then the king of Moab took his eldest son, who was to reign in his place, and offered him [publicly] as a burnt offering [to Chemosh] on the [city] wall [horrifying everyone]. And there was great wrath against Israel, and Israel’s allies [Judah and Edom] withdrew from King Jehoram and returned to their own land. ‡

2 Kings 4

The Widow's Oil

<sup>1</sup> NOW ONE of the wives of a man of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha [for help], saying “Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant [reverently] feared the LORD; but the creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves [in payment for a loan].” ‡

<sup>2</sup> Elisha said to her, “What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have [of value] in the house?” She said, “Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a [small] jar of [olive] oil.”

<sup>3</sup> Then he said, “Go, borrow containers from all your neighbors, empty containers—and not just a few.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Then you shall go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour out [the oil you have] into all these containers, and you shall set aside each one when it is full.”

<sup>5</sup> So she left him and shut the door behind her and her sons; they were bringing her the containers as she poured [the oil].

<sup>6</sup> When the containers were all full, she said to her son, “Bring me another container.” And he said to her, “There is not a one left.” Then the oil stopped [multiplying].

<sup>7</sup> Then she came and told the man of God. He said, “Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons can live on the rest.”

The Shunammite Woman

<sup>8</sup> Now there came a day when Elisha went over to Shunem, where there was a prominent and influential woman, and she persuaded him to eat a meal. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he stopped there for a meal. ‡

<sup>9</sup> She said to her husband, “Behold, I sense that this is a holy man of God who frequently passes our way.

<sup>10</sup> “Please, let us make a small, fully-walled upper room [on the housetop] and put a bed there for him, with a table, a chair, and a lampstand. Then whenever he comes to visit us, he can turn in there.”

<sup>11</sup> One day he came there and turned in to the upper room and lay down to rest.

<sup>12</sup> And he said to Gehazi his servant, “Call this Shunammite.” So he called her and she stood before him.

<sup>13</sup> Now he said to Gehazi, “Say to her now, ‘You have gone to all this trouble for us; what can I do for you? Would you like to be mentioned to the king or to the captain of the army?’ ” She answered, “I live among my own people [in peace and security and need no special favors].”

<sup>14</sup> Later Elisha said, “What then is to be done for her?” Gehazi answered, “Well, she has no son and her husband is old.”

<sup>15</sup> He said, “Call her.” So Gehazi called her, and she [came and] stood in the doorway.

<sup>16</sup> Elisha said, “At this season next year, you will embrace a son.” She said, “No, my lord. O man of God, do not lie to your maidservant.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son at that season the next year, just as Elisha had said to her.

The Shunammite's Son

<sup>18</sup> When the child was grown, the day came that he went out to his father, to the reapers.

<sup>19</sup> But he said to his father, “My head, my head.” The man said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

<sup>20</sup> When he had carried and brought him to his mother, he sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.

<sup>21</sup> She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door [of the small upper room] behind him and left.

<sup>22</sup> Then she called to her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so that I may run to the man of God and return.”

<sup>23</sup> He said, “Why are you going to him today? It is neither the New Moon nor the Sabbath.” And she said, “It will be all right.”

<sup>24</sup> Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Drive [the animal] fast; do not slow down the pace for me unless I tell you.”

<sup>25</sup> So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. ‡

When the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his servant, “Look, there is the Shunammite woman .

<sup>26</sup> “Please run now to meet her and ask her, ‘Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?’ ” And she answered, “It is well.”

27 When she came to the mountain to the man of God, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi approached to push her away; but the man of God said, “Let her alone, for her soul is desperate and troubled within her; and the LORD has hidden the reason from me and has not told me.”

28 Then she said, “Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, ‘Do not give me false hope?’” ‡

29 Then he said to Gehazi, “Gird up your loins (prepare now!) and take my staff in your hand, and go [to the woman’s house]; if you meet any man [along the way], do not greet him and if a man greets you, do not [stop to] answer him; and lay my staff on the face of the boy [as soon as you reach the house].” ‡

30 The mother of the child said, “As the LORD lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So Elisha arose and followed her. ‡

31 Gehazi went on ahead of them and laid the staff on the boy’s face, but there was no sound or response [from the boy]. So he turned back to meet Elisha and told him, “The boy has not awakened (revived).” ‡

32 When Elisha came into the house, the child was dead and lying on his bed.

33 So he went in, shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the LORD. ‡

34 Then he went up and lay on the child and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. And as he stretched himself out on him and held him, the boy’s skin became warm. [1 Kin 17:21] ‡

35 Then he returned and walked in the house once back and forth, and went up [again] and stretched himself out on him; and the boy sneezed seven times and he opened his eyes. ‡

36 Then Elisha called Gehazi and said, “Call this Shunammite.” So he called her. And when she came to him, he said, “Pick up your son.”

37 She came and fell at his feet, bowing herself to the ground [in respect and gratitude]. Then she picked up her son and left. ‡

The Poisonous Stew

38 Elisha came back to Gilgal during a famine in the land. The sons of the prophets were sitting before him, and he said to his servant, “Put on the large pot and cook stew for the sons of the prophets.” ‡

39 Then one [of them] went into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and cut them up into the pot of stew, although they did not know what they were .

<sup>40</sup> So they served it for the men to eat. But as they ate the stew, they cried out, “O man of God, there is death in the pot.” And they could not eat it. ‡

<sup>41</sup> But he said, “Bring flour.” And he threw it into the pot and said, “Serve it for the people so that they may eat.” Then there was nothing harmful in the pot. ‡

<sup>42</sup> Now [at another time] a man from Baal-shalisha came and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley bread, and fresh ears of grain [in the husk] in his sack. And Elisha said, “Give it to the people [affected by the famine] so that they may eat.” ‡

<sup>43</sup> His servant said, “How am I to set [only] this before a hundred [hungry] men?” He said, “Give it to the people so that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, ‘They shall eat and have some left.’ ” ‡

<sup>44</sup> So he set it before them, and they ate and left some , in accordance with the word of the LORD. ‡

2 Kings 5

Naaman Is Healed

<sup>1</sup> NOW NAAMAN, commander of the army of the king of Aram (Syria), was considered a great man by his king, and was highly respected because through Naaman the LORD had given victory to Aram (Syria). He was also a man of courage, but he was a leper. ‡

<sup>2</sup> The Arameans (Syrians) had gone out in bands [as raiders] and had taken captive a little girl from the land of Israel; and she waited on Naaman’s wife [as a servant].

<sup>3</sup> She said to her mistress, “I wish that my master [Naaman] were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would heal him of his leprosy.”

<sup>4</sup> Naaman went in and told his master [the king], “The girl who is from the land of Israel said such and such.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the king of Aram (Syria) said, “Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel (Jehoram the son of Ahab).” So he left and took with him ten talents of silver and 6,000 shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And he brought the letter to the king of Israel. It said, “And now when this letter comes to you, I will have sent my servant Naaman to you, so that you may heal him of his leprosy.”

<sup>7</sup>When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes [in shock and outrage at the request] and said, “Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me [a request] to heal a man of his leprosy? Just consider [what he is asking] and see how he is seeking an opportunity [for a battle] with me.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent word to the king, asking, “Why have you torn your clothes? Just let Naaman come to me, and he shall know that there is a [true] prophet in Israel.”

<sup>10</sup>Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, “Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will be restored to you and you will be clean.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> But Naaman was furious and went away and said, “Indeed! I thought ‘He would at least come out to [see] me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place [of leprosy] and heal the leper.’”

<sup>12</sup> “Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus [in Aram], better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?” So he turned and went away in a rage.

<sup>13</sup> Then his servants approached and said to him, “My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he has said to you, ‘Wash, and be clean?’ ”

<sup>14</sup> So he went down and plunged himself into the Jordan seven times, just as the man of God had said; and his flesh was restored like that of a little child and he was clean. ‡

Gehazi’s Greed

<sup>15</sup> Then Naaman returned to the man of God, he and all the people in his group, and stood before him. He said, “Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel; so now accept a blessing and gift from your servant.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will accept nothing.” He urged him to take it, but Elisha refused. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Naaman said, “If not, then please, let your servant be given a load of earth for a team of mules; for [from this day on] your servant will no longer offer a burnt offering nor a sacrifice to other gods, but only to the LORD, [the God of Israel].

<sup>18</sup> “In this matter may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master [the king] goes into the house of [his god] Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand and I bow in the house of Rimmon, when I bow down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant in this matter [of attending the king when he worships].” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Elisha said to him, “Go in peace.” So Naaman departed and was a good distance away from him,

<sup>20</sup> when Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, “My master has spared this Naaman the Aramean (Syrian), by not accepting from him what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him.”

<sup>21</sup> So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him and said, “Is all well?”

<sup>22</sup> And he said, “All is well. My master has sent me to say, ‘Just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.’ ”

<sup>23</sup> Naaman said, “Please take two talents.” And he urged him [to accept], and tied up two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes and gave them to two of his servants; and they carried them in front of Gehazi.

<sup>24</sup> When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand and put them in the house [for safekeeping]; and he sent the men away, and they left.

<sup>25</sup> Then he went in and stood before his master. Elisha asked him, “Where have you been, Gehazi?” He said, “Your servant went nowhere.”

<sup>26</sup> Elisha said to him, “Did my heart not go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a [proper] time to accept money and clothing and olive orchards and vineyards and sheep and oxen and male and female servants?

<sup>27</sup> “Therefore, the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and to your descendants forever.” So Gehazi departed from his presence, a leper as white as snow.  [Ex 4:6; Num 12:10 ] ‡

2 Kings 6

The Axe Head Recovered

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “Look now, the place where we live near you is too small for us.”‡

<sup>2</sup> “Please let us go to the Jordan [River] and let each man take from there a beam [for the building]; and let us make a place there for ourselves where we may live.” And he answered, “Go.”

<sup>3</sup> Then one said, “Please be willing to go with your servants.” So he answered, “I shall go.”

<sup>4</sup> So he went with them; and when they came to the Jordan, they cut down [some of] the trees.

<sup>5</sup> But it happened that as one was cutting down a beam, the axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, “Oh no, my master! It was borrowed!”

<sup>6</sup> The man of God said, “Where did it fall?” When he showed him the place, Elisha cut off a stick and threw it in there, and made the iron [axe head] float.‡

<sup>7</sup> He said, “Pick it up for yourself.” So he reached out with his hand and took it.

The Arameans Plot to Capture Elisha

<sup>8</sup> Now the king of Aram (Syria) was making war against Israel, and he consulted with his servants, saying, “My camp shall be in such and such a place.”

<sup>9</sup> The man of God sent word to the king of Israel saying, “Be careful not to pass by this place, because the Arameans are pulling back to there.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the king of Israel sent word to the place about which Elisha had warned him; so he guarded himself there repeatedly.

<sup>11</sup> Now the heart of the king of Aram (Syria) was enraged over this thing. He called his servants and said to them, “Will you not tell me which of us is helping the king of Israel?”

<sup>12</sup> One of his servants said, “None [of us is helping him], my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.”

<sup>13</sup> So he said, “Go and see where he is, so that I may send [men] and seize him.” And he was told, “He is in Dothan.”‡

<sup>14</sup> So he sent horses and chariots and a powerful army there. They came by night and surrounded the city.

15 The servant of the man of God got up early and went out, and behold, there was an army with horses and chariots encircling the city. Elisha's servant said to him, "Oh no, my master! What are we to do?"

16 Elisha answered, "Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." ‡

17 Then Elisha prayed and said, "LORD, please, open his eyes that he may see." And the LORD opened the servants eyes and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire surrounding Elisha. ‡

18 When the Arameans came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, 'Please strike this people (nation) with blindness.' And God struck them with blindness, in accordance with Elisha's request. ‡

19 Then Elisha said to the Arameans, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me and I will lead you to the man whom you are seeking." And he led them to Samaria.

20 When they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, so that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes and they saw. Behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 When the king of Israel (Jehoram) saw them, he said to Elisha, "My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"

22 Elisha answered, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those you have taken captive with your sword and bow? Serve them bread and water, so that they may eat and drink, and go back to their master [King Ben-hadad]." ‡

23 So the king prepared a great feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the marauding bands of Aram did not come into the land of Israel again. ‡

The Siege of Samaria—Cannibalism

24 But it came about after this, that Ben-hadad king of Aram (Syria) gathered his whole army together and went up and besieged Samaria.

25 Now there was a great famine in Samaria; and they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and a fourth of a kab of dove's dung for five shekels of silver.

26 As the king of Israel (Jehoram) was passing by on the [city] wall a woman cried out to him, "Help, my lord, O king!"

27 He said, "If the LORD does not help you, from where shall I get you help? From the threshing floor, or from the wine press?"

28 And the king said to her, “What is the matter with you?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give your son so we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.’”

29 “So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, ‘Give your son so that we may eat him’; but she had hidden her son.” ‡

30 When the king heard the woman’s words, he tore his clothes—now he was still walking along on the wall—and the people looked [at him], and he had on sackcloth underneath [his royal robe] next to his skin. ‡

31 Then he said, “May God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today!” ‡

32 Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man ahead of him [to behead Elisha]; but before the messenger arrived, Elisha told the elders, “Do you see how this son of [Jezebel] a murderer has sent [a man] to remove my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it securely against him. Is not the sound of his master’s feet [just] behind him?” ‡

33 While Elisha was still talking with them, the messenger came down to him [followed by the king] and the king said, “This evil [situation] is from the LORD! Why should I wait for [help from] the LORD any longer?” ‡

Elisha Promises Food

1 THEN ELISHA said, “Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD, ‘Tomorrow about this time a measure of finely-milled flour will sell for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.’ ” ‡

2 Then the royal officer on whose arm the king leaned answered the man of God and said, “If the LORD should make windows in heaven [for the rain], could this thing take place?” Elisha said, “Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but [because you doubt] you will not eat of it.” ‡

Four Lepers Relate Arameans’ Flight

3.Now four men who were lepers were at the entrance of the [city’s] gate; and they said to one another, “Why should we sit here until we die?” ‡

4 “If we say, ‘We will enter the city’—then the famine is in the city and we will die there; and if we sit still here, we will also die. So now come, let us go over to the camp of the Arameans (Syrians). If they let us live, we will live; and if they kill us, we will only die.”

<sup>5</sup> So they got up at twilight to go to the Aramean camp. But when they came to the edge of the camp, there was no one there.

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD had caused the Aramean army to hear the sound of chariots, and the sound of horses, the sound of a great army. They had said to one another, “The king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come [and fight] against us.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> When these lepers came to the edge of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried away from there silver, gold, and clothing, and went and hid them. Then they went back and entered another tent and carried [some valuable things] from there also, and went and hid them.

<sup>9</sup> Then they said one to another, “We are not doing the right thing. This is a day of good news, yet we are keeping silent. If we wait until the morning light, some punishment [for not reporting this now] will come on us. So now come, let us go and tell the king’s household.”

<sup>10</sup> So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city. They told them, “We went to the camp of the Arameans (Syrians), and behold, there was no one there, nor the sound of man there—only the horses and donkeys tied up, and the tents [had been left] just as they were.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the gatekeepers called out and it was reported to the king’s household inside [the city].

<sup>12</sup> Then the king got up in the night and said to his servants, “I will tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry; so they have left the camp to hide themselves in the open country, thinking, ‘When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive and get into the city.’ ”

<sup>13</sup> One of his servants replied, “Please let some men take five of the horses which remain inside the city. Consider this: [if they are caught then at worst] they will be like all the people of Israel who are left in the city; [even if they are killed then] they will be like all the people of Israel who have already died. So let us send [them] and see [what happens].”

<sup>14</sup> So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army, saying, “Go and see.”

The Promise Fulfilled

<sup>15</sup> They went after them to the Jordan, and all the road was entirely littered with clothing and equipment which the Arameans (Syrians) had thrown away when they hurriedly fled. And the messengers returned and told the king.

<sup>16</sup> Then the people [of Israel] went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So [goods were so plentiful that] a measure of finely-milled flour [was sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in accordance with the word of the LORD [as spoken through Elisha].  [2 Kin 7:1] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Now the king had appointed the royal officer on whose arm he leaned to be in charge of the [city] gate; and the [starving] people trampled him at the gate [as they struggled to get through for food], and he died, just as the man of God had foretold when the king came down to him. ‡

<sup>18</sup> It happened just as [Elisha] the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, “Two measures of barley will be sold for a shekel and a measure of finely-milled flour for a shekel tomorrow about this time at the gate of Samaria.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> The royal officer had answered the man of God and said, “Now behold, [even] if the LORD should make windows in heaven, could such a thing happen?” And Elisha had answered, “You will see it with your own eyes, but [because of your doubt] you will not eat it.”  [2 Kin 7:2] ]

<sup>20</sup> And so it happened to him; for the people trampled him at the gate, and he died.

The King Restores the Shunammite’s Land

<sup>1</sup> NOW ELISHA had said to the [Shunammite] woman whose son he had restored to life, “Prepare and go, you and your household, and stay temporarily wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and moreover, it will come on the land [and continue] for seven years.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> So the woman set out and did everything in accordance with the word of the man of God. She and her household went and stayed temporarily as foreigners in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

<sup>3</sup>-At the end of the seven years the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to appeal to the king [of Israel] for her house and for her land.

<sup>4</sup>Now the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, “Tell me all the great things that Elisha has done.” ‡

<sup>5</sup>And [just] as Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had restored the dead to life, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, “My lord, O king, this is the woman and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.” ‡

Elisha Predicts Evil from Hazael

<sup>7</sup>Now Elisha came to Damascus, and Ben-hadad king of Aram (Syria) was sick; and he was told, “The man of God has come here.”

<sup>8</sup>And the king said to Hazael, “Take a gift with you and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’ ” ‡

<sup>9</sup>So Hazael went to meet Elisha and took a gift with him of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels’ loads; and he came and stood before him and said, “Your son Ben-hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, asking, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’ ”

<sup>10</sup>And Elisha said to him, “Go, say to him, ‘You will certainly recover,’ but the LORD has shown me that he will certainly die.” ‡

<sup>11</sup>Elisha stared steadily at Hazael until he was embarrassed, and then the man of God wept. ‡

<sup>12</sup>Hazael said, “Why are you weeping, my lord?” He answered, “Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons (descendants) of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, kill their young men with the sword, smash their children to pieces, and rip up their pregnant women.” ‡

<sup>13</sup>Then Hazael said, “Surely not! For what is your servant, who is nothing more than a dog, that he would do this monstrous thing?” And Elisha answered, “The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Aram.” ‡

<sup>14</sup>Then Hazael departed from Elisha and came to his master, who said to him, “What did Elisha say to you?” And he answered, “He told me you would certainly recover.”

<sup>15</sup> But the next day Hazael took the bedspread and dipped it in water and covered the king's face, so that he died. And Hazael became king in his place.

Another Jehoram Reigns in Judah

<sup>17</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>21</sup> So Jehoram [king of Judah] went over to Zair [in Edom] with all his chariots. He set out by night and struck down the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of his chariots; but the people [of his army] fled to their tents.

<sup>23</sup> The rest of the acts of Jehoram and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

Ahaziah Succeeds Jehoram in Judah

<sup>25</sup> In the twelfth year of Joram (Jehoram) the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

<sup>27</sup> He walked in the ways of the house of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab, for he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab. ‡

<sup>28</sup> Ahaziah went with Joram the son of Ahab to battle against Hazael king of Aram (Syria) in Ramoth-gilead; and the Arameans wounded Joram. ‡

<sup>29</sup> King Joram returned to Jezreel to be healed of the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. ‡

2 Kings 9

Jehu Reigns over Israel

<sup>1</sup> NOW ELISHA the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, “Gird up your loins (prepare for action), take this flask of oil in your hand and go to Ramoth-gilead. ‡

<sup>2</sup> “When you arrive there, look for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in and have him arise from among his brothers, and take him into an inner room. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, ‘Thus says the LORD: ‘I have anointed you king over Israel.’ ’ Then open the door and flee and do not delay.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>5</sup> When he arrived, the captains of the army were sitting [outside]; and he said, “I have a message for you, O captain.” Jehu said, “To which one of us?” And he said, “For you, O captain.”

<sup>6</sup> So Jehu got up, and they went into the house. And he poured the oil on Jehu’s head and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, [who have died] at the hands of Jezebel. ‡

<sup>8</sup> ‘For the entire house of Ahab shall perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male, both bond and free, in Israel. ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.  [1 Kin 21:22 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘And the dogs will eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and there will be no one to bury her.’ ” Then he opened the door and fled. [1 Kin 9:33–37] ‡

<sup>11</sup> When Jehu came out to the servants of his master, one said to him, “Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?” And he said to them, “You know [very well] the man and his talk.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> And they said, “It is a lie; tell us now.” And he said, “Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: ‘I have anointed you king over Israel.’ ’ ”

<sup>13</sup> Then they hurried and each man took his garment and placed it [as a cushion] under Jehu on the top of the [outside] stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, “Jehu is king!” ‡

Jehoram (Joram) Is Assassinated

<sup>14</sup> So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram [to dethrone and kill him]. Now Joram with all Israel was protecting Ramoth-gilead against Hazael king of Aram (Syria),

<sup>15</sup> but King Joram had returned to Jezreel to heal from the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Aram. So Jehu said, “If this is your intent, let no one survive and leave the city (Ramoth-gilead) to go and tell of the plan in Jezreel [the capital].” ‡

<sup>16</sup> So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was lying there. And Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel and he saw the crowd with Jehu as he approached, and said, “I see a company.” And Joram said, “Send a horseman to meet them and have him ask, ‘Do you come in peace?’ ”

<sup>18</sup> So the horseman went to meet him and said, “Thus says the king: ‘Do you come in peace?’ ” And Jehu said, “What have you to do with peace? Rein in behind me.” And the watchman reported, “The messenger approached them, but he has not returned.”

<sup>19</sup> Then Joram sent out a second horseman, who approached them and said, “Thus says the king: ‘Do you come in peace?’ ” Jehu replied, “What have you to do with peace? Rein in behind me.”

<sup>20</sup> And the watchman reported, “He approached them, but he has not returned; and the driving [of the chariot] is like that of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Joram said, “Harness [the chariot].” When they harnessed his chariot horses , Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu and met him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite. ‡

22 When Joram saw Jehu, he said, “Do you come in peace, Jehu?” And he answered, “What peace [can exist] as long as the fornications of your mother Jezebel and her sorceries are so many?”

23 So Joram reined [his chariot] around and fled, and he said to Ahaziah, “Treachery and betrayal, Ahaziah!”

24 But Jehu drew his bow with his full strength and shot Joram between his shoulders; and the arrow went out through his heart and he sank down in his chariot.

25 Then Jehu said to Bidkar his officer, “Pick him up and throw him on the property of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for I remember when you and I were riding together after his father Ahab, that the LORD uttered this prophecy against him: ‡

26 ‘I certainly saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons yesterday,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will repay you on this property,’ says the LORD. Now then, pick him up and throw him into the property [of Naboth], in accordance with the word of the LORD.”  [1 Kin 21:15–29 ]

Jehu Assassimates Ahaziah

27 When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. Jehu pursued him and said, “Shoot him too, [while he is] in the chariot.” So they shot him at the ascent to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And Ahaziah fled to Megiddo and died there.

28 Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave with his fathers in the City of David.

29 In the eleventh year of Joram, the son of Ahab, Ahaziah became king over Judah.

30 So when Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it, and she painted her eyes and adorned her head and looked down from the [upper] window. ‡

31 As Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, “Is it well, Zimri, your master’s murderer?”  [1 Kin 16:9, 10 ] ‡

32 Then Jehu raised his face toward the window and said, “Who is on my side? Who?” And two or three officials looked down at him.

Jezebel Is Killed

<sup>33</sup> And he said, “Throw her down.” So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her underfoot.

<sup>34</sup> When he came in, he ate and drank, and said, “See now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king’s daughter.” ‡

<sup>35</sup> They went to bury her, but they found nothing left of her except the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

<sup>36</sup> So they returned and told Jehu. Then he said, “This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke through His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ‘In the property of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel.  [1 Kin 21:23 ] ‡

<sup>37</sup> ‘The corpse of Jezebel will be like dung on the surface of the field in the property of Jezreel, so they cannot say, “This is Jezebel.” ’ ” ‡

2 Kings 10

Judgment upon Ahab’s House

<sup>1</sup> AHAB HAD seventy sons [and grandsons] in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to the guardians of the children of Ahab, saying,

<sup>2</sup> “Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master’s sons (male descendants) are with you, as well as chariots and horses and a fortified city and weapons,

<sup>3</sup> select the best and most capable of your master’s sons, and set him on his father’s throne, and fight for your master’s [royal] house.”

<sup>4</sup> But they were extremely afraid and said, “Look, the two kings did not stand before Jehu; so how can we stand?”

<sup>5</sup> And the one who was in charge of the household, and the one who was overseer of the city, the elders, and the guardians [of the children] sent word to Jehu, saying, “We are your servants and we will do whatever you tell us, but we will not make any man king; do what is good in your eyes.”

<sup>6</sup> Then Jehu wrote a second letter to them, saying, “If you are with me and will obey me, take the heads of your master’s sons, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow about this time.” Now the [dead] king’s sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them.

<sup>7</sup> When the letter came to them, they took the king’s sons and slaughtered them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to Jehu at Jezreel. ‡

<sup>8</sup> When a messenger came and told him, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons,” he said, “Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the city gate until morning.”

<sup>9</sup> The next morning he went out and stood and said to all the people, “You are just and innocent; behold, I conspired against [Joram] my master and killed him, but who killed all these? ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Know then [without any doubt] that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the LORD has done what He said through His servant Elijah.”  [1 Kin 19:17] ‡

<sup>12</sup> And he set out and went to Samaria. On the way as he was at the place of the sand heaps [meeting place] for the shepherds,

<sup>13</sup> Jehu met the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and said, “Who are you?” They answered, “We are the relatives of Ahaziah; and we came down to greet the royal princes and the sons of the queen mother [Jezebel].” ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then Jehu said, “Take them alive.” So they took them alive and [later] slaughtered them at the well by the place of the sand heaps, forty-two men; he left none of them [alive].

<sup>15</sup> When Jehu went on from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him and said to him, “Is your heart right, as my heart is with yours?” Jehonadab answered, “It is.” Jehu said “If it is, give me your hand.” He gave him his hand, and Jehu pulled him up into the chariot. ‡

<sup>16</sup> And he said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.” So he had Jehonadab in his chariot. ‡

<sup>17</sup> When Jehu came to Samaria, he killed everyone who remained of Ahab’s family in Samaria, until he had destroyed all of them, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke to Elijah. ‡

Jehu Destroys Baal Worshipers

<sup>18</sup> Jehu assembled all the people and said [in pretense] to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much [more]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Now, summon unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal; whoever is missing shall not live.” But Jehu did it with trickery, in order to destroy the worshipers of Baal. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Jehu said, “Consecrate a festive assembly (celebration) for Baal.” And they proclaimed it.

<sup>21</sup> Then Jehu sent throughout Israel, and all the worshipers of Baal came; there was no one left who did not come. They went to the house (temple) of Baal, and the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other. ‡

<sup>22</sup> He said to the man in charge of the wardrobe, “Bring out garments for all the worshipers of Baal.” And he brought the garments out to them.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jehu with Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the house of Baal; and he said to the worshipers of Baal, “Search carefully and see that there are no servants of the LORD here with you, but only the worshipers of Baal.”

<sup>N</sup>ow Jehu had stationed eighty men outside for himself and said, “If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, the one who lets him go shall forfeit his own life for that man’s life.”

<sup>25</sup> Then it came about, as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guards and to the royal officers, “Go in and kill them; let no one come out.” And they killed them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the royal officers threw their bodies out, and went to the inner room of the house of Baal.

<sup>27</sup> They also tore down the sacred pillar of Baal and tore down the house of Baal, and made it into a latrine [forever unclean] to this day. ‡

<sup>29</sup> However, Jehu did not turn from the [idolatrous] sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, that is, [led them to worship] the golden calves which were at Bethel and Dan.  [1 Kin 12:28ff. ] ‡

<sup>30</sup> The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in executing what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab in accordance with everything that was in My heart, your sons (descendants) shall sit on Israel’s throne to the fourth generation.”  [2 Kin 15:12 ] ‡

<sup>31</sup> But Jehu did not take care to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, who made

Israel sin. ‡

32 So in those days the LORD began to cut off portions of Israel; Hazael [of Aram] defeated them throughout the territory of Israel: ‡

33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Arnon River, even Gilead and Bashan. ‡

Jehoahaz Succeeds Jehu

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu and everything that he did and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

35 Jehu slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son became king in his place.

36 The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11

Athaliah Queen of Judah

1 WHEN ATHALIAH the mother of Ahaziah [king of Judah] saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring. ‡

2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram [of Judah and half] sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and abducted him from among the king's sons who were to be killed, and hid him and his nurse in the bedroom. So they hid him from Athaliah, and he was not put to death.

3 Joash was hidden with his nurse in the house (temple) of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

4 Now in the seventh year Jehoiada [the priest, Jehosheba's husband] sent for the captains of hundreds of the Carites and of the guard and brought them to him to the house of the LORD. Then he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's [hidden] son. ‡

5 He commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: a third of you who come in [reporting for duty] on the Sabbath shall keep watch over the king's house ‡

6 (a third shall also be at the [city] gate Sur, and a third at the gate behind the guards); so you shall keep watch over the palace [from three posts] for defense.

<sup>7</sup> “Two units of you, all those who go out [off duty] on the Sabbath, shall also keep watch over the house (temple) of the LORD for [the protection of] the king.

<sup>8</sup> “You shall surround the [young] king, each man with weapons in his hand; and whoever comes through the ranks shall be put to death. You are to be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in.”

<sup>9</sup>—The captains of hundreds acted in accordance with everything that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and each of them took his men who were to come in (on duty) on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out (off duty) on the Sabbath, and they came to Jehoiada the priest. ‡

<sup>10</sup> The priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that had been King David’s, which were in the house of the LORD. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then Jehoiada brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him and gave him the Testimony [a copy of the Mosaic Law]; and they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, “Long live the king!” ‡

<sup>13</sup> When Athaliah heard the sound of the guards and of the people, she went into the house of the LORD to the people. ‡

<sup>14</sup> When she looked, behold, there stood the [young] king [on the platform] by the pillar, as was customary [on such occasions], and the captains and the trumpeters were beside the king; and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing the trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, “Treason! Treason!” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds appointed over the army and said to them, “Take her out between the ranks, and whoever follows her put to death with the sword.” For the priest had said, “Let her not be put to death in the house (temple) of the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup> So they seized her, and she went through the horses’ entrance to the king’s house (palace), and she was put to death there.

<sup>17</sup> Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people, that they would be the LORD’s people—also between the king and the people [to be his subjects]. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then all the people of the land went to the house of Baal and tore it down. They utterly smashed his altar and his images to pieces, and they put Mattan the priest of Baal to death in front of the altars. And [Jehoiada] the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. ‡

19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, the Carites (royal bodyguards), the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought the [young] king down from the house of the LORD, and came by way of the guards' gate to the king's house. And [little] Joash sat on the throne of the kings.

20 So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city [of Jerusalem] was quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king's house.

21 Jehoash (Joash) was seven years old when he became king. ‡

2 Kings 12

Joash (Jehoash) Reigns over Judah

2. Jehoash did right in the sight of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3. Only the high places were not removed; the people were still sacrificing and burning incense [to the LORD] on the high places [rather than at the temple]. ‡

The Temple to Be Repaired

4 Jehoash said to the priests, “All the money for the dedicated things which is brought into the house of the LORD, in current money, both the money of each man's assessment [for all those bound by vows], and all the money which any man's heart prompts him to bring into the house (temple) of the LORD, ‡

5 let the priests receive such contributions for themselves, each from his acquaintance; and they shall repair any breach in the house of the LORD, wherever a breach is found.”

6 But it came about in the twenty-third year of [the reign of] King Jehoash, that the priests still had not repaired the damages of the LORD's house. ‡

7 Then King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest and the [other] priests and said to them, “Why are you not repairing the damage of the house

(temple)? Now then, do not take any more money from your acquaintances, but turn it all over for [the repair of] the damages of the house.” [You are no longer responsible for this work. I will take it into my own hands.] ‡

<sup>8</sup> So the priests agreed that they would receive no [more] money from the people, nor [be responsible to] repair the damages of the house.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the house of the LORD; and the priests who guarded the door put in the chest all the money that was brought [by the people] into the house of the LORD. ‡

<sup>10</sup> And whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the king’s scribe and the high priest came up and tied it in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Then they gave the money, which was weighed out into the hands of those who were doing the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house (temple) of the LORD,

<sup>12</sup> and to the masons and stonecutters, and to buy timber and hewn (cut) stone to repair any breach in the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for repairing the house.

<sup>13</sup> However, there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any gold containers or [other] silver containers, from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD; ‡

<sup>14</sup> but they gave that to those who did the work, and with it they repaired the house of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the men into whose hands they placed the money to be paid to those who did the work, for they acted in good faith. ‡

<sup>18</sup> So Jehoash the king of Judah took all the sacred things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things and all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the house (temple) of the LORD and of the king’s house, and sent them to Hazael king of Aram; and Hazael departed from Jerusalem.  [1 Kin 15:18] ‡

Joash (Jehoash) Succeeded by Amaziah in Judah

<sup>19</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Joash and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>21</sup> For Jozacar (Jozachar) the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him and he died; and they buried Joash with his fathers in the City of David. Amaziah his son became king in his place. ‡

2 Kings 13

Kings of Israel: Jehoahaz and Joash (Jehoash)

<sup>1</sup> IN THE twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years.

<sup>2</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the [idolatrous] sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin; he did not turn from them.

<sup>3</sup> So the anger of the LORD was kindled and burned against Israel, and He handed them over time and again to Hazael the king of Aram (Syria), and of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But Jehoahaz sought the favor of the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD gave Israel a savior [to rescue them and give them peace], so that they escaped from under the hand of the Arameans; and the sons (descendants) of Israel lived in their tents as before. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Yet they did not turn from the [idolatrous] sins of the [royal] house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin; but walked in them. And the Asherah [set up by Ahab] also remained standing in Samaria [Israel's capital]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, everything that he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash (Joash) the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

<sup>11</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from all the [idolatrous] sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin; but he walked in them.

<sup>13</sup> Joash slept with his fathers [in death], and Jeroboam [II] sat on his throne. Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Death of Elisha

<sup>14</sup> Now Elisha had become sick with the illness by which he would die. And Joash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him and said, “O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!”  [2 Kin 2:12. ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> And Elisha said to him, “Take a bow and arrows.” So he took a bow and arrows.

<sup>16</sup> Then he said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow.” And he put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.

<sup>17</sup> And he said, “Open the window to the east,” and he opened it. Then Elisha said, “Shoot!” And he shot. And Elisha said, “The LORD’s arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram (Syria); for you will strike the Arameans in Aphek until you have destroyed them.” ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then he said, “Take the arrows,” and he took them. And Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground,” and he struck it three times and stopped.

<sup>19</sup> So the man of God was angry with him and said, “You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Aram until you had destroyed it. But now you shall strike Aram only three times.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> Elisha died, and they buried him. Now marauding bands of Moabites would invade the land in the spring of the year.

<sup>21</sup> And it happened that as a man was being buried [on an open bier], they saw a marauding band [coming]; and they threw the man into Elisha’s grave. But when the [body of the] man [was being let down and] touched the bones of Elisha he revived and stood up on his feet.

<sup>23</sup> But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them and turned toward them for the sake of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and He was unwilling to destroy them, and did not cast them from His presence until now.  [Mal 3:6 ] ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Jehoash (Joash) the son of Jehoahaz recovered from Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken from Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times Joash defeated Ben-hadad and recovered the cities of Israel.  [2 Kin 13:19 ] ‡

2 Kings 14

Amaziah Reigns over Judah

<sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> However, the high places were not removed; the people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places. ‡

<sup>5</sup> As soon as the kingdom was firmly in Amaziah's hand, he executed his servants who had killed his father the king.  [2 Kin 12:20 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> But he did not put the sons of the murderers to death, in compliance with what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the sons, nor shall the sons be put to death for the fathers; but each shall be put to death [only] for his own sin."  [Deut 24:16 ] ‡

the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us face each other [in combat].” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Jehoash the king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The [little] thorn-bush in Lebanon sent word to the [tall] cedar in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as wife.’ But a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn-bush.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> “You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has lifted you up [in pride]. Enjoy your glory but stay at home; for why should you plunge into misery so that you, even you, would fall [at my hand], and Judah with you?” ‡

<sup>11</sup> But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other [in combat] at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah the king of Judah, the son of Jehoash (Joash), the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem and broke through the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, 400 cubits (600 feet). ‡

<sup>14</sup> He seized all the gold and silver and all the utensils found in the house (temple) of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king’s house, as well as hostages, and returned to Samaria. ‡

Jeroboam II Succeeds Jehoash (Joash) in Israel

<sup>15</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might and how he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ‡

Azariah (Uzziah) Succeeds Amaziah in Judah

<sup>18</sup> The rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>19</sup> Now a conspiracy was formed against him in Jerusalem, and Amaziah fled [south] to Lachish; but they sent [men] after him to Lachish and killed him there. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Then they carried him on horses and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.

<sup>21</sup> And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was [only] sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

<sup>23</sup> In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam [II] the son of Joash (Jehoash) king of Israel became king in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years.

<sup>24</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn from all the [idolatrous] sins of Jeroboam [I] the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin.

<sup>25</sup> Jeroboam restored Israel's border from the entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah (Dead Sea), in accordance with the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which He spoke through His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was from Gath-hepher. ‡

<sup>27</sup> But the LORD had not said that He would blot out the name of Israel from under the heavens, so He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam [II] the son of Joash [king of Israel]. ‡

Zechariah Reigns over Israel

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the acts of Jeroboam [II], all that he did, his might, how he fought, and how he recovered Damascus and Hamath for Israel, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ‡

<sup>29</sup> Jeroboam [II] slept with his fathers [in death], even with the kings of Israel. Zechariah his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 15

Series of Kings: Azariah (Uzziah) over Judah

<sup>2</sup> He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He did right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with all that his father Amaziah had done.

<sup>4</sup> Only [the altars on] the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places [instead of worshiping God at the temple]. ‡

<sup>5</sup>- And the LORD struck (afflicted) the king, and he was a leper until the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was in charge of the household, judging the people of the land.  [2 Chr 26:16–21 ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Now the rest of Azariah's acts, and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

Zechariah over Israel

<sup>8</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam [II] became king over Israel in Samaria for six months.

<sup>9</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his fathers had done; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam [I] the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin.

<sup>10</sup> But Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah and struck and killed him in the presence of the people and reigned in his place. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>- This is [the fulfillment of] the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons (descendants) shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." And so it came to pass.  [2 Kin 10:30 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah and came to Samaria, and struck and killed Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and became king in his place. ‡

<sup>15</sup> The rest of Shallum's acts, and his conspiracy which he made, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> Then Menahem struck [the town of] Tiphsah and all who were in it and its borders from Tirzah; [he attacked it] because they did not surrender to him; so he struck it and ripped up all the women there who were pregnant. ‡

Menahem over Israel

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

<sup>18</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; for all his days he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

19 Pul, [Tiglath-pileser III] king of Assyria, came against the land [of Israel], and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver [as a bribe], so that he might help him to strengthen his control of the kingdom. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the wealthy, influential men, fifty shekels of silver from each man to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land.

<sup>21</sup> Now the rest of Menahem's acts, and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

Pekahiah over Israel

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel, and reigned two years in Samaria.

<sup>24</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn from the [idolatrous] sins of Jeroboam [I] the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin.

25 But Pekah the son of Remaliah, his officer, conspired against Pekahiah and struck him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh; and with Pekah were fifty Gileadites. So he killed Pekahiah and became king in his place.

<sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, all that he did, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Pekah over Israel

27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel, and reigned twenty years in Samaria. ‡

<sup>28</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn from the [idolatrous] sins of Jeroboam [I] the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin.

<sup>29</sup> In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of [the tribe of] Naphtali, and he carried the people captive to Assyria. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Hoshea the son of Elah conspired against Pekah the son of Remaliah [of Israel]; he struck and killed him, and became king in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah [king of Judah].

<sup>31</sup> Now the rest of Pekah's acts, and everything that he did, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of Israel's Kings.

Jotham over Judah

<sup>32</sup> In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah became king. ‡

<sup>33</sup> When he was twenty-five years old, he became king [over Judah], and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

<sup>34</sup> He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father Uzziah had done. ‡

<sup>36</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of Judah's Kings?

<sup>37</sup> In those days the LORD began sending Rezin the king of Aram (Syria) and [Israel's king] Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah. ‡

<sup>38</sup> Jotham slept with his fathers [in death], and was buried with them in the City of David his father (ancestor). Ahaz his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 16

Ahaz Reigns over Judah

years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father (ancestor) David had done.

<sup>3</sup>Instead he walked in the way of the [idolatrous] kings of Israel, and even made his son pass through the fire [as a human sacrifice], in accordance with the repulsive [and idolatrous] practices of the [pagan] nations whom the LORD drove out before the Israelites. ‡

<sup>4</sup>He also sacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills and under every green tree. ‡

<sup>5</sup>Then Rezin the king of Aram (Syria) and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to wage war. They besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome and conquer him. ‡

<sup>6</sup>At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath [in Edom] for Aram, and drove the Jews away from it. The Arameans came to Elath, and live there to this day. ‡

Ahaz Seeks Help of Assyria

<sup>7</sup>So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, “I am your servant and son. Come up and rescue me from the hand of the kings of Aram and of Israel, who are rising up against me.” ‡

<sup>8</sup>And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king’s house, and sent a gift to the king of Assyria. ‡

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Assyria listened to him; and he went up against Damascus and captured it, and carried its people away into exile to Kir, and put Rezin [king of Aram] to death. ‡

Damascus Falls

<sup>10</sup>Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria, and saw the pagan altar which was at Damascus. Then King Ahaz sent a model of the altar to Urijah the priest along with a [detailed] pattern for all its construction.

<sup>11</sup>So Urijah the priest built an altar; in accordance with everything that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, that is how Urijah the priest made it before King Ahaz returned from Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>When the king came from Damascus, he saw the altar; then the king approached the altar and offered [sacrifices] on it, ‡

<sup>13</sup> and burned his burnt offering and his grain offering, and poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

<sup>14</sup> He brought the bronze altar, which was before the LORD, from the front of the house (temple), from between the [new] altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the [new] altar. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, “Upon the great [new] altar, burn the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, and the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their grain offering and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on the new altar all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. But the [old] bronze altar shall be kept for me to use to examine the sacrifices.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then King Ahaz cut away the frames of the basin stands [in the temple], and removed the basin from [each of] them; and he took down the [large] Sea from the bronze oxen which were under it, and put it on a plastered stone floor. ‡

<sup>18</sup> He removed from the house of the LORD the covered way for the Sabbath which they had built in the house, and the outer entrance of the king, because of the king of Assyria [who might confiscate them].

Hezekiah Reigns over Judah

<sup>19</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>20</sup> So Ahaz slept with his fathers [in death] and was buried with his fathers in the City of David; and his son Hezekiah became king in his place. ‡

2 Kings 17

Hoshea Reigns over Israel

<sup>1</sup> IN THE twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned for nine years.

<sup>2</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel who came before him.

<sup>4</sup> But the king of Assyria discovered a conspiracy in Hoshea, who sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; therefore the king of Assyria arrested him and bound him in prison.

<sup>5</sup> Then the king of Assyria invaded all the land [of Israel] and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years. ‡

Israel Captive

<sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and carried [the people of] Israel into exile to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and in Habor, by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. ‡ The Rise of the Kingdom of Assyria

Why Israel Fell

<sup>7</sup> Now this came about because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and they had feared [and worshiped] other gods

<sup>8</sup> and walked in the customs of the [pagan] nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons (descendants) of Israel, and in the pagan customs of the kings of Israel which they had introduced. ‡

<sup>10</sup> They set up for themselves sacred pillars (memorial stones) and Asherim on every high hill and under every green tree. ‡

<sup>11</sup> There they burned incense on all the high places, just as the [pagan] nations whom the LORD had deported before them; and they did evil and contemptible things, provoking the LORD [to anger].

<sup>12</sup> And they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah through all His prophets and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways and keep My commandments and My statutes, in accordance with all the Law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets.” ‡

14 However they did not listen, but stiffened their necks as did their fathers who did not believe (trust in, rely on, remain steadfast to) the LORD their God. ‡

15 They rejected His statutes and His covenant which He made with their fathers, as well as His warnings that he gave them. And they followed vanity [that is, false gods, idols] and became vain (empty-headed). They followed the [pagan practices of the] nations which surrounded them, although the LORD had commanded that they were not to do as they did. ‡

16 They abandoned all the commandments of the LORD their God and made for themselves cast images of two calves; and they made an Asherah [idol] and worshiped all the [starry] host of heaven and served Baal. ‡

17 They made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire [as human sacrifices], and used divination [to foretell the future] and enchantments; and they sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger. ‡

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from His sight; none [of the tribes] was left except the tribe of Judah. ‡

19 Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God either, but walked in the customs which Israel introduced. ‡

20 So the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel (Jacob) and [repeatedly] afflicted them and handed them over to plunderers, until He had cast them out of His sight. ‡

21 When He had torn Israel from the [royal] house of David, they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. And Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD and made them commit a great sin. ‡

22 For the Israelites walked in all the [idolatrous] sins which Jeroboam committed; they did not turn from them

23 until the LORD removed Israel from His sight, just as He had foretold through all His servants the prophets. So Israel went into exile from their own land to Assyria to this day [the date of this writing]. ‡

Cities of Israel Filled with Strangers

24 The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon and from Cuthah and from Avva and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons (people) of Israel. They took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Now when they began to live there, they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them which killed some of them.

<sup>26</sup> So the king of Assyria was told, “The nations whom you have sent into exile and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the god of the land; so He has sent lions among them, and they are killing them because they do not know the manner of [worship demanded by] the god of the land.”

<sup>27</sup> Then the king of Assyria commanded, “Take back [to Samaria] one of the priests whom you brought from there, and have him go and live there; and have him teach the people the custom of the god of the land.”

<sup>28</sup> So one of the priests whom they had exiled from Samaria came [back] and lived in Bethel and taught them how they should fear [and worship] the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> But every nation still made gods of its own and put them in the houses (shrines) of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities where they lived.

<sup>32</sup> They also feared the LORD and appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.‡

<sup>34</sup> To this day they act in accordance with their former [pagan] customs: they do not [really] fear the LORD, nor do they obey their statutes and ordinances, nor the law, nor the commandments which the LORD commanded the sons (descendants) of Jacob, whom He named Israel;‡

<sup>35</sup> with whom the LORD had made a covenant and commanded them, saying, “You shall not fear other gods or bow yourselves to them nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them.‡

<sup>36</sup> “But the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, and to Him you shall bow yourselves down, and to Him you shall sacrifice.‡

<sup>37</sup> “The statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment which He wrote for you [by the hand of Moses], you shall observe and do forever. You shall not fear (worship, serve) other gods. ‡

<sup>38</sup> “The covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget; you shall not fear other gods. ‡

<sup>39</sup> “But the LORD your God you shall fear [and worship]; then He will rescue you from the hands of all your enemies.”

<sup>41</sup> So these nations [superficially] feared the LORD; they also served their idols, as did their children and their children’s children, just as their fathers did, so do they to this day [the date of this writing]. ‡

2 Kings 18

Hezekiah Reigns over Judah

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT came about in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah became king. ‡

<sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>4</sup> He removed the high places [of pagan worship], broke down the images (memorial stones) and cut down the Asherim. He also crushed to pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the Israelites had burned incense to it; and it was called Nehushtan [a bronze sculpture].  [Num 21:8] ‡

<sup>5</sup> Hezekiah trusted in and relied confidently on the LORD, the God of Israel; so that after him there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among those who were before him. ‡

<sup>6</sup>—For he clung to the LORD; he did not turn away from [faithfully] following Him, but he kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses. ‡

Hezekiah Victorious

<sup>7</sup> And the LORD was with Hezekiah; he was successful wherever he went.

And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and refused to serve him. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Now in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh of Hoshea the son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser the king of Assyria went up against Samaria and besieged it. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then the king of Assyria sent Israel into exile to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of [the city of] Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ‡

<sup>12</sup> because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but broke His covenant, everything that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; and they would not listen nor do it.

Invasion of Judah

<sup>14</sup> Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, “I have done wrong. Withdraw from me; whatever you impose on me I will bear.” So the king of Assyria imposed on Hezekiah king of Judah [a tribute tax of] three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

<sup>16</sup> At that time Hezekiah cut away the gold framework from the doors of the temple of the LORD and from the doorposts which he had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

<sup>17</sup> Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan and the Rab-saris and the Rabshakeh [his highest officials] with a large army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem, and when they went up and arrived, they stood by the aqueduct of the upper pool, which is on the road of the Fuller’s Field. [2 Chr 32:9–19; Is 36:1–22] ‡

<sup>18</sup> When they called for the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the [king’s] household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the secretary went out to [meet] them.

<sup>19</sup> Then the Rabshakeh said to them, “Say to Hezekiah, ‘Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, “What is [the reason for] this confidence that you have?’ †

<sup>20</sup> “You say (but they are only empty words) ‘I have counsel and strength for the war.’ Now on whom do you rely, that you have rebelled against me?

<sup>21</sup> “Now pay attention: you are relying on Egypt, on that staff of crushed reed; if a man leans on it, it will only go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust and rely on him. †

<sup>22</sup> “But if you tell me, ‘We trust in and rely on the LORD our God,’ is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, and has said to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship [only] before this altar in Jerusalem?’ †

<sup>23</sup> “Now then, make a bargain with my lord the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if on your part you can put riders on them.

<sup>24</sup> “How then can you drive back even one official of the least of my master’s servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

<sup>25</sup> “Now have I come up against this place to destroy it without the LORD’s approval? The LORD said to me, ‘Go up against this land and destroy it.’ ” ” ”

<sup>26</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah, said to the Rabshakeh, “Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic (Syrian) language, because we understand it; and do not speak with us in the Judean (Hebrew) language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall.”

<sup>27</sup> But the Rabshakeh said to them, “Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to say these things? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, [who are doomed by the siege] to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine along with you?”

<sup>29</sup> “Thus says the king, ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you from my hand; †

<sup>30</sup> nor let Hezekiah make you trust in and rely on the LORD, saying, “The LORD will certainly rescue us, and this city [of Jerusalem] will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”

<sup>31</sup> ‘Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria: “Surrender to me and come out to [meet] me, and every man may eat from his own vine and fig tree, and every man may drink the waters of his own well,

<sup>32</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, so that you may live and not die.” Do not listen to Hezekiah when he misleads and incites you, saying, “The LORD will rescue us!” ‡

<sup>36</sup> But the people kept silent and did not answer him, for the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”

<sup>37</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the [royal] household, and Shebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph the secretary, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn [in grief and despair] and told him what the Rabshakeh had said. ‡

2 Kings 19

Isaiah Encourages Hezekiah

<sup>2</sup> Then he sent Eliakim who was in charge of his household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. ‡

<sup>3</sup> They said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah, ‘This is a day of distress and anxiety, of punishment and humiliation; for children have come to [the time of their] birth and there is no strength to rescue them.’ ” ‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to taunt and defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. So offer a prayer for the remnant [of His people] that is left [in Judah].’ ” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, “Say this to your master: ‘Thus says the LORD, “Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled (blasphemed) Me. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘Behold, I will put a spirit in him so that he will hear a rumor and return to his own land. And I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.’ ” ‡

Sennacherib Defies God

<sup>9</sup> When the king heard them say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, “Behold, he has come out to make war against you,” he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah, ‘Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by saying, “Jerusalem shall not be handed over to the king of Assyria.”’ ‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘Listen, you have heard what the Assyrian kings have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. So will you be spared?’

<sup>12</sup> ‘Did the gods of the nations whom my forefathers destroyed rescue them —Gozan and Haran [of Mesopotamia] and Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?’ ‡

Hezekiah’s Prayer

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the house (temple) of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.  [Is 37:14–20 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, who is enthroned above the cherubim [of the ark in the temple], You are the God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “O LORD, bend down Your ear and hear; LORD, open Your eyes and see; hear the [taunting] words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to taunt and defy the living God. ‡

<sup>17</sup> “It is true, LORD, that the Assyrian kings have devastated the nations and their lands

<sup>18</sup> and have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were not [real] gods but [only] the work of men's hands, wood and stone. So they [could destroy them and] have destroyed them. ‡

<sup>19</sup> "Now, O LORD our God, please, save us from his hand so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know [without any doubt] that You alone, O LORD, are God." ‡

God's Answer through Isaiah

<sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I have heard your prayer to Me regarding Sennacherib king of Assyria.'  [Is 37:21–38. ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> "This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him: ‡

'The virgin daughter of Zion
Has despised you and mocked you;
The daughter of Jerusalem
Has shaken her head behind you!

<sup>22</sup> 'Whom have you taunted and blasphemed? ‡
Against whom have you raised your voice,
And haughtily lifted up your eyes?
Against the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup> 'Through your messengers you have taunted and defied the Lord, ‡

And have said [boastfully], "With my many chariots
I came up to the heights of the mountains,
To the remotest parts of Lebanon;
I cut down its tall cedar trees and its choicest cypress trees.
I entered its most distant lodging, its densest forest.

<sup>24</sup> "I dug wells and drank foreign waters,
And with the sole of my feet I dried up
All the rivers of [the Lower Nile of] Egypt."

<sup>25</sup> 'Have you not heard [asks the God of Israel]? ‡
Long ago I did it;
From ancient times I planned it.
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you [king of Assyria] should [be My instrument to] turn fortified cities into ruinous heaps.

<sup>26</sup> ‘Therefore their inhabitants were powerless,‡
They were shattered [in spirit] and put to shame;
They were like plants of the field, the green herb,
As grass on the housetops is scorched before it is grown up.

<sup>27</sup> ‘But I [the LORD] know your sitting down [O
Sennacherib],‡

Your going out, your coming in,
And your raging against Me.

<sup>28</sup> ‘Because of your raging against Me,‡
And because your arrogance and complacency have come up to My ears,

I will put My hook in your nose,
And My bridle in your lips,
And I will turn you back [to Assyria] by the way that you came.

<sup>29</sup> ‘Then this shall be the sign [of these things] to you [Hezekiah]: this year you will eat what grows of itself, in the second year what springs up voluntarily, and in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

30 ‘The survivors who remain of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward.‡

from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall perform this.‡

32 ‘Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: “He will not come to this city [Jerusalem] nor shoot an arrow there; nor will he come before it with a shield nor throw up a siege ramp against it.

<sup>33</sup> “By the way that he came, by the same way he will return, and he will not come into this city,” ’ declares the LORD.

<sup>34</sup> ‘For I will protect this city to save it, for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.’ ”‡

<sup>35</sup> Then it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went forth and struck down 185,000 [men] in the camp of the Assyrians; when the survivors got up early in the morning, behold, all [185,000] of them were dead.‡

Nineveh.‡

37. It came about as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with a sword; and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son became king in his place. ‡

2 Kings 20

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

<sup>1</sup> IN THOSE days [when Sennacherib first invaded Judah] Hezekiah became deathly ill. The prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Set your house in order, for you shall die and not recover.’ ” [2 Chr 32:24–26 ; Is 38:1–8 ] ‡

3. “Please, O LORD, remember now [with compassion] how I have walked before You in faithfulness and truth and with a whole heart [entirely devoted to You], and have done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Before Isaiah had gone out of the middle courtyard, the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

<sup>5</sup> “Go back and tell Hezekiah the leader of My people, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father (ancestor): “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. Behold, I am healing you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “I will add fifteen years to your life and save you and this city [Jerusalem] from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will protect this city for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.” ’ ” ‡

7. Then Isaiah said, “Bring a cake of figs. And they brought it and placed it on the [painful] inflammation, and he recovered.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What will be the sign that the LORD will [completely] heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Isaiah said, “This will be the sign to you from the LORD, that He will do the thing that He has spoken: shall the shadow [indicating the time of day] go forward ten steps, or go backward ten steps?” ‡

no, but let the shadow turn backward ten steps.”

<sup>11</sup> So Isaiah the prophet called out to the LORD, and He brought the shadow on the steps ten steps backward by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz. ‡

Hezekiah Shows Babylon His Treasures

<sup>12</sup> At that time Berodach-baladan a son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.  [Is 39:1–8.] ‡

<sup>13</sup> Hezekiah listened to and welcomed them and [foolishly] showed them all his treasure house—the silver and gold and spices and precious oil and his armory and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house (palace) nor in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say [that would cause you to do this for them]? From where have they come to you?” Hezekiah said, “They have come from a far country, from Babylon.”

<sup>15</sup> Isaiah said, “What have they seen in your house?” Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything that is in my house (palace). There is nothing in my treasuries that I have not shown them.” ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> ‘Behold, the time is coming when everything that is in your house, and that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD. ‡

<sup>18</sup> ‘And some of your sons (descendants) who will be born to you will be taken away [as captives]; and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “Is it not good, if [at least] there will be peace and security in my lifetime?” ‡

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he made the [Siloam] pool and the aqueduct and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ‡

<sup>21</sup> Hezekiah slept with his fathers [in death], and Manasseh his son became king in his place. ‡

2 Kings 21

Manasseh Succeeds Hezekiah

1 MANASSEH WAS twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. ‡

2 He did [great] evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with the [idolatrous] repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons (descendants) of Israel. ‡

3 For he rebuilt the high places [for the worship of pagan gods] which his father Hezekiah had destroyed; and he set up altars for Baal and made an [image of] Asherah, just as Ahab king of Israel had done, and he worshiped all the [starry] host of heaven and served them. ‡

4 And he built [pagan] altars in the house (temple) of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My Name (Presence)." ‡

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courtyards of the house of the LORD.

6 He made his son pass through the fire and burned him [as an offering to Molech]; he practiced witchcraft and divination, and dealt with mediums and soothsayers. He did great evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger. ‡

7 He made a carved image of the [goddess] Asherah and set it up in the house (temple), of which the LORD said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this house and in Jerusalem [in the tribe of Judah], which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My Name forever. ‡

8 "And I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will be careful to act in accordance with everything that I have commanded them, and with all the law that My servant Moses commanded them." ‡

9 But they did not listen; and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons (descendants) of Israel. ‡

The King's Idolatries Rebuked

10 Now the LORD spoke through His servants the prophets, saying,

11 "Because Manasseh king of Judah has committed these repulsive acts, having done more evil than all the Amorites did who were before him, and has also made Judah sin with his idols; ‡

<sup>12</sup> therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I am bringing such catastrophe on Jerusalem and Judah, that everyone who hears of it, both of his ears will ring [from the shock]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem clean just as one wipes a [dirty] bowl clean, wiping it and turning it upside down. ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘I will abandon the remnant (remainder) of My inheritance and hand them over to their enemies; and they will become plunder and spoil to all their enemies,

<sup>15</sup> because they have done evil in My sight, and have been provoking Me to anger, since the day their fathers came from Egypt to this day.’ ”

<sup>16</sup> Moreover, Manasseh shed a very great quantity of innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah sin, by doing evil in the sight of the LORD.  [2 Chr 33:1–10 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, everything that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ‡

<sup>18</sup> Manasseh slept with his fathers [in death] and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. And his son Amon became king in his place. ‡

Amon Succeeds Manasseh

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ‡

<sup>20</sup> He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done.  [2 Kin 23:26, 27; 24:3, 4 ] ‡

<sup>21</sup> He walked in all the [evil] ways that his father had walked; and he served the idols that his father had served, and worshiped them;

<sup>22</sup> he abandoned the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD. ‡

<sup>23</sup> But the servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his own house (palace). ‡

<sup>24</sup> Then the people of the land [of Judah] killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

<sup>25</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>26</sup> He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah became king in his place. ‡

2 Kings 22

Josiah Succeeds Amon

<sup>4</sup> “Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, so that he may count the entire amount of money brought into the house of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.  [2 Kin 12:4 ] ‡

<sup>5</sup> “And have them deliver it to the hands of the workmen who have been appointed over the house of the LORD, and have them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the LORD to repair the damages of the house— ‡

<sup>6</sup> that is, [have them give the money] to the carpenters and the builders and the masons—and to buy timber and cut stones to repair the house (temple).

<sup>7</sup> “However, no accounting shall be required of them for the money placed in their hands, because they act faithfully.” ‡

The Lost Book

<sup>8</sup> Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Law in the house (temple) of the LORD.” Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to him: “Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have placed it in the hands of the workmen who have been appointed over the house of the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read it [aloud] before the king.

<sup>11</sup> Now when the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes.

<sup>13</sup> “Go, inquire of the LORD for my sake and for the sake of the people and for all Judah concerning the words of this book which has been found, for great is the wrath of the LORD which has been kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to and obeyed the words of this book, so as to act in accordance with everything that is written concerning us.” ‡

Huldah Predicts

<sup>14</sup> So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (she was living in Jerusalem, in the Second Quarter [the new part of the city]); and they spoke to her. ‡

<sup>15</sup> She said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Tell the man who sent you to me,

<sup>16</sup> thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I am bringing a catastrophe on this place (Judah) and on its inhabitants, [according to] all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. ‡

<sup>17</sup> ‘Because they have abandoned (rejected) Me and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore My wrath burns against this place, and it will not be quenched.’ ‡

<sup>18</sup> “But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, you shall say this to him: ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, “Regarding the words which you have heard, ‡

<sup>19</sup> because your heart was tender (receptive, penitent) and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I said against this place and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I have heard you,” declares the LORD. ‡

<sup>20</sup> “Therefore, behold, [King Josiah,] I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be taken to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil (catastrophe) which I will bring on this place.” ’ ” So they brought back word to the king. ‡

Josiah's Covenant

<sup>2</sup> The king went up to the house of the LORD, and with him all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the prophets, and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house (temple) of the LORD. ‡

<sup>3</sup> The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with all his heart and soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people entered into the covenant. ‡

Reforms under Josiah

<sup>4</sup> Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest and the priests of the second rank and the doorkeepers to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the articles made for Baal, for [the goddess] Asherah, and for all the [starry] host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel [where Israel's idolatry began].  [1 Kin 12:28 , 29] ‡

<sup>5</sup> He got rid of the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense [to pagan gods] in the high places in Judah's cities and all around Jerusalem—also those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations [of the zodiac], and to all the [starry] host of heaven. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Josiah brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD to the Brook Kidron outside Jerusalem, and burned it there, and ground it to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the common people [who had sacrificed to it]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> And he tore down the houses of the [male] cult prostitutes, which were at the house (temple) of the LORD, where the women were weaving [tent] hangings for the Asherah [shrines]. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Then Josiah brought all the [idolatrous] priests from the cities of Judah, and desecrated the high places where the priests had burned incense [to idols], from Geba to Beersheba, [that is, north to south]; and he tore down the high places of the gates which were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on one's left at the city gate. ‡

<sup>9</sup> However, the priests of the high places were not allowed to go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem [to serve], but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Josiah also defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben-hinnom (son of Hinnom), so that no man could make his son or his daughter pass through the fire [as a burnt offering] for Molech.  [Ezek 16:21 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> And he got rid of the horses that the kings of Judah had given [in worship] to the sun at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the official, which was in the annex; and he burned the chariots of the sun.

<sup>12</sup> The altars [dedicated to the starry host of heaven] which were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courtyards of the house of the LORD, the king tore down; and he smashed them there and threw their dust into the Brook Kidron. ‡

<sup>14</sup> He broke in pieces the sacred pillars (cultic memorial stones, images) and cut down the Asherim and replaced them with human bones [to desecrate the places forever]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Further, the altar that was at Bethel, the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he tore down. Then he demolished its stones, ground them to dust, and burned the Asherah. ‡

<sup>16</sup> And as Josiah turned, he saw the graves that were there on the mountain, and he sent men and had the bones taken from the graves, and burned them on the altar and [thereby] desecrated it, in accordance with the word of the LORD which the man of God prophesied, who proclaimed these things [about this altar, naming Josiah before he was born].  [1 Kin 13:2–5 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Josiah said, “What is this monument (gravestone) that I see?” The men of the city told him, “It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done to the altar of Bethel.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Josiah also removed all the houses of the high places which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made provoking the LORD [to anger]; and he did to them just as he had done [to those] in Bethel. ‡

<sup>20</sup> All the priests of the high places who were there he slaughtered on the altars, and burned human bones on them [to desecrate the places forever]. Then he returned to Jerusalem. ‡

Passover Reinstated

<sup>22</sup> Indeed, such a Passover as this had not been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah. ‡

<sup>23</sup> But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover to the LORD was kept in Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup> Moreover, Josiah removed the mediums and the soothsayers and the teraphim (household gods) and the idols and all the repulsive things that were seen in Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he might fulfill the words of the law written in the book which Hilkiah the priest found in the house (temple) of the LORD. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Before him there was no king like Josiah who turned to the LORD with all his heart and all his soul and all his might, in accordance with all the Law of Moses; nor did anyone like him arise after him. ‡

<sup>27</sup> The LORD said, “I will also remove Judah from My sight, just as I have removed Israel; and will reject this city which I have chosen, this Jerusalem, and the house, of which I said, ‘My Name [and the pledge of My Presence] shall be there.’ ” ‡

Jehoahaz Succeeds Josiah

<sup>28</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>29</sup> In his days Pharaoh Neco (Necho) king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates [to help him fight Nabopolassar the king of Babylon]. King Josiah went out to meet him, but Pharaoh killed Josiah at Megiddo when he saw him. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Josiah’s servants carried his dead body in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in his father’s place. ‡

<sup>31</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned for [only] three months in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ‡

<sup>32</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his forefathers had done.

<sup>33</sup> Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he would not reign in Jerusalem, and imposed a fine on the land of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ‡

Jehoiakim Made King by Pharaoh

<sup>34</sup> Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt, where he died. ‡

<sup>35</sup> Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the money as Pharaoh commanded. He collected the silver and gold from the people of the land, from everyone according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco. ‡

<sup>37</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his forefathers had done.

2 Kings 24

Babylon Controls Jehoiakim

<sup>1</sup> IN HIS days, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years; then he turned and rebelled against him. ‡

<sup>4</sup> and also for the innocent blood that he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and the LORD would not pardon it. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

Jehoiachin Reigns

<sup>7</sup> The king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, because the king of Babylon had taken everything that belonged to the king of Egypt, from the river of Egypt to the river Euphrates. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned [only] three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>9</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father had done.

Deportation to Babylon

<sup>10</sup> At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege. ‡

<sup>13</sup> He carried out of there (Jerusalem) all the treasures of the house (temple) of the LORD, and the treasures of the house (palace) of the king, and cut in pieces all the articles of gold in the temple of the LORD, which Solomon king of Israel had made, just as the LORD had said. ‡

<sup>14</sup> He led away into exile all Jerusalem and all the captains and all the brave men, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Nebuchadnezzar led Jehoiachin away into exile to Babylon; also he took the king's mother and the king's wives and his officials and the leading men of the land [including Ezekiel] as exiles from Jerusalem to Babylon.  [Ezek 1:1 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> And the king of Babylon brought as exiles to Babylon all the brave men, seven thousand [of them], and the craftsmen and the smiths, a thousand [of them], all strong and fit for war. ‡

Zedekiah Made King

<sup>19</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that Jehoiakim had done. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Because of the anger of the LORD these things happened in Jerusalem and Judah, and it [finally] came to the point that He cast them from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ‡

2 Kings 25

Nebuchadnezzar Besieges Jerusalem

<sup>2</sup> The city came under siege [for nearly two years] until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

<sup>3</sup> On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine [caused by the siege] was severe in the city; there was no food for the people of the land. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then the city [wall] was broken into [and conquered]; all the men of war fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans (Babylonians) were all around the city. And they went by way of the Arabah (the plain of the Jordan). ‡

<sup>5</sup> The army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. Then his entire army was dispersed from him.

<sup>6</sup> So they seized the king (Zedekiah) and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah [on the Orontes River], and sentence was passed on him. ‡

<sup>7</sup> They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah and bound him [hand and foot] with bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon.  [Jer 34:3; Ezek 12:13 ] ‡

Jerusalem Burned and Plundered

<sup>8</sup> On the seventh day of the fifth month in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, captain of the bodyguard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>9</sup> He burned the house (temple) of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down. ‡

<sup>10</sup> All the army of the Chaldeans (Babylonians) who were with the captain of the bodyguard tore down the walls around Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Now the Chaldeans (Babylonians) smashed the bronze pillars which were in the house of the LORD and their bases and the bronze sea (large basin) which were in the house of the LORD, and carried the bronze to Babylon. ‡

<sup>14</sup> They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the bronze articles which were used in the temple service, ‡

<sup>15</sup> the captain of the bodyguard also took away the firepans and basins, anything made of fine gold and anything made of fine silver.

<sup>16</sup> The two pillars, the one sea (large basin), and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these articles was incalculable. ‡

<sup>17</sup> The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits (27 ft.), and a capital of bronze was on top of it. The height of the capital was three cubits (4.5 ft.); a network (lattice work) and pomegranates around the capital were all of bronze. And the second pillar had the same as these, with a network. ‡

<sup>19</sup> And from the city [of Jerusalem] he took an officer who was in command of the men of war, and five men from the king's personal advisors who were found in the city, and the scribe of the captain of the army who mustered the people of the land [for military service] and sixty men from the people of the land who were found in the city. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

<sup>21</sup> Then the king of Babylon struck them down and killed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath [north of Damascus]. So Judah was taken into exile from its land. ‡

Gedaliah Made Governor

<sup>23</sup> When all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah governor, they came with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah, namely, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Gedaliah swore [an oath] to them and their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants (officials) of the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you."

<sup>25</sup> But in the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family [who had a claim to be governor], came with ten men and struck and killed Gedaliah and the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Then all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces set out and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans (Babylonians). ‡

<sup>27</sup>-Now it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, showed favor to Jehoiachin king of Judah and released him from prison; ‡

<sup>28</sup>-and he spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the throne of the [other] kings [of captive peoples] who were with him in Babylon.

<sup>29</sup> Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes [for palace garments] and he dined regularly in the king's presence for the remainder of his life; ‡

<sup>30</sup> and his allowance, a continual one, was given to him by the king (Evil-meridach), a portion every day, for the rest of his life.

Annotations for 2 Kings

1:2 Ahaziah. The account of his brief, wicked reign begins in 1 Kings 22:51. The division of the Book of Kings into two parts was for the convenience of the translators, as is indicated by the fact that Ahaziah's reign carries over from one book to the other without a break.

1:6 Unbelief— Just as in the days of Ahaziah, men and women today often will turn to everything but the one genuine source of truth. But because there is no help or life or power in man's gods, man's ideas and philosophies, belief in them will end only in wasted, ineffective lives, and eventually in eternal death. True joy and meaning in life can only be found through trust in God. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:8 a hairy man. This may refer to Elijah's garments, but the usual translation of "hairy man" is supported by the ancient versions.

1:10 fire . . . from heaven. Heavenly fire could signal divine judgment (Ge 19:24). Elijah had already called down such fire in his contest with the prophets of Baal (1Ki 18:36–38). If this fire was lightning, the episode would have been a particularly significant slap in the face of their religion, showing that Baal was not the god of the storm he was reputed to be. The God of Israel was—and is—the Lord of creation.

2:3 take . . . away. The same Hebrew word is used for Enoch's entrance to heaven (Ge 5:24). The work that God was about to do had been divinely revealed to many of God's servants (vv. 3, 5). This widespread knowledge of God's purpose would protect against later denials by cynical persons that the event had ever taken place.

2:9 double portion. In material things, the principal heir received a double portion of his father's goods. Elisha wanted the principle of primary inheritance to apply to spiritual things. Far from being a selfish request, Elisha's petition reflects his humble acknowledgment that if Elijah's ministry were to continue through him, it would take special God-given spiritual power.

2:11 heaven. The Bible does not give very much information about exactly what happens to the believer after death. Elijah is described as being "caught up to heaven," and it is assumed that he went to the same place to which Enoch had been taken up (Heb 11:5). Jesus assured the thief on the cross that he would be in "paradise" with Him (Lk 23:43), a place of which Paul also had a brief glimpse (2Co 12:1–4). While we do not have a clear picture of what it is like, we know that God will provide a place of beauty and rest for all His children.

The Activities of Elisha

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

2:15 The spirit of Elijah. The prophets witnessed both the miracle of Elijah (v. 8) and the similar miracle of Elisha. In this way there would be common agreement that Elisha was the successor of Elijah. They bowed, not in worship, but in respect and submission to the will of God.

2:17 he was embarrassed. Although these words may indicate Elisha's sense of shame on behalf of his disciples for their disbelief, the use of the phrase elsewhere indicates that it means Elisha was worn out, no longer willing to resist (8:11). He came to the point where he gave in to their request.

2:23 Go up, you baldhead! The words of these youths indicate their disbelief of Elijah's "going up" into heaven and their disrespect for God's prophet. God did not tolerate blasphemy against Himself by the demeaning of Elijah's departure, or the abuse of his prophet, whom He had called for an important task at a critical period in Israel's history.

3:2 sacred pillar of Baal. Probably this was a stone pillar or statue erected by Ahab and bearing an inscription and image of the god Baal. Although it was put away temporarily, it apparently was not destroyed, because it later became one of the objects of Jehu's purge (10:26–27).

3:4 Mesha the king of Moab. The existence of this Moabite king is confirmed by an inscription on a pillar known as the Moabite Stone. The inscription indicates that Omri had conquered the plains of Moab north of the Arnon River, and that the area remained under Israelite control throughout Ahab's reign. Thus the events of this chapter probably took place after Jehoram's accession and shortly before Jehoshaphat's death in 847 BC. sheep breeder. This Hebrew word is used only of Mesha and of Amos, the prophet (Am 1:1).

3:7 Will you go with me. Because Jehoshaphat was related to the throne of the Northern Kingdom through the marriage of his son Jehoram to Ahab's daughter Athaliah, it could be presumed that he would be available as an ally.

3:14 I would not look at you. As a devotee of Baal, Jehoram had no claim on the favor of God. Nevertheless, he would enjoy the benefits of God's grace toward Jehoshaphat.

3:20 filled with water. The dry stream beds can easily overflow their banks in downpours of rain. Even distant areas can be flooded by water from faraway mountain streams swelled by heavy rains.

4:1 one of the wives. The fate of widows was perilous in the ancient Middle East. A practical test of biblical piety was to observe how those in power treated widows and orphans (Job 24:21; Ps 146:9).

4:10 small, fully-walled upper room. The flat roofs of houses in this time were used as extra living space, and often a small room would be built on the roof which could be reached from outside. This accommodated a guest while providing privacy. Recognizing Elisha as one of God's chosen servants, the Shunammite woman was especially concerned that the normal measures of hospitality be applied even more fully.

4:12–13 Thankfulness— Both Elijah and the Shunammite woman illustrate the vitally important teaching of Scripture: Be thankful; be ready both to receive and to give; express your thankfulness always with words and deeds. Too many blessings, kind words, and thoughtful actions go thankless until it is too late. The kindness and love expressed to Elijah registered in his heart and mind. His loving question should be our question in response to kindness: "What can I do for you?" Go to Theological Notes Index

4:23 New Moon . . . Sabbath. There was no work on these days, so they would be more suitable for going to see the prophet (Ex 20:9–12; Am 8:5).

4:27 the LORD has hidden. The prophets did not know everything, but only what God made known to them (5:26).

4:33 prayed to the LORD. Elisha's actions demonstrate that his faith was in the person and power of God alone, and not in the staff that symbolized his prophetic office. The restoration of the boy's life is a demonstration that life itself is in the hands of God.

4:36 Resurrection— When the writer of Hebrews tells us about those “women [who] received back their dead by resurrection” (Heb 11:35), he is probably referring to the two women about whom we read in 1 Kings 17:8–24 and 2 Kings 4:8–37. Many similarities can be seen between these two resurrection miracles, but it is clear that neither prophet followed a “resurrection formula.” God is not bound to follow certain procedures or respond to incantations. Instead, He heals whom He will, in what way He wills. Go to Theological Notes Index

4:41 flour. The flour had no magical properties; Elisha’s faith in the living God effected the miraculous cure.

5:1 king of Aram. The king of Aram (or Syria) was Ben-hadad II (860–842 BC). He was a constant threat against the Northern Kingdom and would lead an invasion against it later (6:24–7:20).

5:3 the prophet . . . in Samaria. Although Elisha traveled frequently and may sometimes have lived at Mount Carmel (4:25), he apparently maintained a residence in the capital city of Samaria (2:25; 6:9–7:20).

5:7 tore his clothes. While such letters of introduction were common in the ancient Middle East, Ben-hadad’s frequent forays against Israel made the king suspicious that the Arameans were seeking a pretext for another attack. Tearing one’s robes was a sign of grief or agitation.

5:10 wash in the Jordan. Elisha’s instructions illustrate the fact that simple obedience to God’s will, even if it is not what we imagined, is the only road to receiving God’s blessings.

5:15 no God . . . except in Israel. Naaman is an unusual example of a foreigner who came to faith in God.

5:17 earth. Naaman’s unusual request may refer back to God’s instructions to the Israelites in the desert (Ex 20:24). Altars built for the worship of the Lord were to be made of earth or undressed stones, perhaps to avoid the possibility of the altar itself becoming an object of veneration.

5:23 talents. A talent was an enormous amount of silver—equal to 3,000 shekels, or about 75 pounds.

5:26–27 Worldliness— Naaman, in gratitude, urged Elisha to receive a gift, but Elisha steadfastly refused. The prophet wanted the new convert to understand clearly that the God of Israel cannot be bribed. His gifts are bestowed because of His gracious heart. Gehazi’s sin was serious—it involved covetousness, lying, misrepresentation of the prophet and, more importantly, brought disgrace on the name of the God of Israel. Gehazi was acting in his own self-interest rather than for the cause of God. When we choose according to the values of unregenerate men, we are worldly and damage the interests of God’s kingdom. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:26 Did my heart not go with you. The use of the term heart suggests not only Elisha’s knowledge but also his strong feelings for Gehazi.

6:6 made the iron [axe head] float. At a time when most tools were still made of bronze, an iron blade was valuable.

6:13 Dothan. Dothan was in the central highlands of Israel. It is mentioned only here and in Genesis 37:17, when Joseph was sold to the Midianites.

6:15 servant of the man of God. Since Gehazi had become a leper (5:27), this is probably another servant. However, Gehazi is mentioned again in 8:4 as one who was still faithfully representing the miracles done through Elisha.

6:16–17 Understanding the Big Picture— Spiritually, we don’t often make the personal progress we should. We fall back into old patterns of behavior too easily. We feel like God has left us out there alone to fight with our internal weaknesses as well as external forces that often seem to overpower us.

We’re like Elisha’s servant who couldn’t see the full reality. We don’t have a big enough vision to see what God is doing around us and in us. We’re too wrapped up in our own physical and emotional reality. We’re so full of ourselves that there’s no room for God and the new vision He can bring to our lives.

Curiously, this story doesn't contain any record of the servant's response to what he saw. Did that new vision dramatically change his life? Did he forever understand the extent of God's protective care? Maybe that happened, or maybe like most of us, he was only able to catch a glimpse. We must live by faith that the full reality is represented by those brief and beautiful glimpses of the bigger picture. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:19 I will lead you. Elisha's words are technically true, although he was undoubtedly misleading and deceiving the Arameans. The fact that he did not use his unfair advantage to kill Israel's enemies is worthy of notice.

6:25 donkey's head. Donkeys were unclean for food (Lev 11:3). dove's dung. It is not known whether this term is meant to refer to the actual manure of doves or pigeons, or whether it is a slang term for some kind of bean or seed (some translations say "seed pods" or "locust beans").

6:28 eat him. Israel had been warned that national disobedience could reduce the people to such a loathsome deed (Lev 26:29 ; Dt 28:53–57).

7:3 lepers. Because lepers were excluded from the city (Lev 13:4–6 ; Nu 5:2–3), and avoided by all, they probably were ignored by the invaders and had been left to their fate. If the ordinary people of the city were suffering from hunger, these men must have been in even worse plight. They concluded that they had nothing to lose by going to the other side.

7:9 good news. Good news and good fortune had to be shared (Pr 15:27 ; 21:17), and the men feared that failure to do so might merit divine punishment.

8:1 Kindness— Performing an act of kindness can be compared to throwing sand in the wind. You can be sure some of it will come back to you. The woman mentioned here could give glowing testimony to this. She had been led to feed and house the prophet Elisha (4:8–10), and this act of kindness produced good fruit. Through Elisha's prayers, her child was born and restored (ch. 4), and now Elisha warned her of the coming famine. God always remembers our acts of kindness (Mal 3:16). In fact, the only thing God "forgets" about us is our confessed sins (Jer 31:34). Go to Theological Notes Index

8:3 she went to appeal. The Shunammite woman had not renounced or sold her property, but merely had left during the previous famine. Moreover, she had returned within seven years (Dt 15:1–6 ; Ru 4:3–4). Since the property was still legally hers, she pressed her claim to the king himself.

8:4 Gehazi. At this point, Gehazi was still faithful to the ministry of Elisha.

8:6 Restore everything. We get a complex picture of King Jehoram. At times he was so angry with Elisha that he wished him dead (6:31), yet even then he was in mourning for his people. In this section, his righteous judgment should be contrasted with the wretched behavior of the wicked Ahab (1Ki 21:1–16).

8:10 You will certainly recover. Elisha was answering Ben-hadad's exact question: his illness was not deadly, in the natural course of things, he would have recovered. However, Elisha also knew that Ben-hadad's life would be taken by his servant Hazael.

8:11 embarrassed. Elisha had reached the end of his ability to resist his emotions and wept over the suffering that Hazael would bring.

8:13 dog. In the ancient Middle East, dogs were despised as scavengers and unclean animals. Shalmaneser III of Assyria noted Hazael's accession to the throne with the words: "Hazael, son of nobody, seizes the throne."

8:16–19 Apostasy— The complete picture of Jehoram's shameful apostasy is presented by the chronicler (2Ch 21:2–26). There were two powerful influences in Jehoram's life, one good and one evil; sadly, the evil influence prevailed. His father, Jehoshaphat, was one of the few godly kings of Judah, but Jehoram's wife was Athaliah, daughter of Jezebel, who influenced him to worship Baal (v. 18). Jehoram's life of unfaithfulness earned God's judgment, and he died a lonely and miserable death. Nevertheless, the Lord remained committed to His covenant promise (v. 19 ). Human unfaithfulness cannot destroy God's purpose of salvation. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:16 Joram . . . Jehoram. These are variant spellings of the same name; the two kings were brothers-in-law since Jehoram of Judah had married the sister of Joram of Israel.

8:27 the ways of the house of Ahab. The lowest point of Israel's religious apostasy was reached in the reign of Ahab and his wicked wife Jezebel (1Ki 16:31 ).

9:2 Jehu. The name Jehu means "the Lord is He."

9:6 poured the oil. The last part of the Lord's threefold command to Elijah had been carried out (1Ki 19:15–21 ; 2Ki 8:7–13 ). In the Old Testament, anointing was customarily reserved for a king (2Sa 2:4 ) or the high priest (Ex 40:13 ).

9:13 garment. This action was a mark of homage fit for a king (Mt 21:8 ). This scene is reminiscent of the anointing of King Solomon (1Ki 1:34 ).

9:21 the property of Naboth. Ahab's dynasty ended on the very stolen property that occasioned the divine sentence of judgment (1Ki 21:17–24 ). Ahab's unlawful seizure of the land of Naboth was regarded as one of his most heinous crimes.

9:22 fornications of . . . Jezebel. Jezebel's spiritual adultery had brought vile demonic practices into the kingdom and sealed its doom (1Ki 21:25–26 ). As God had said, such activities would surely bring about the nation's demise (Dt 28:25–26 ). Jehu justified his actions as a judgment on Jezebel's sins.

9:23 Treachery. In reality, Joram and Ahaziah were the true traitors, the ones who had led the people in rebellion against God and sealed their own doom by their disobedience.

10:1 seventy sons. Ahab's "seventy sons" probably included the children of his concubines, as well as grandchildren.

10:9 Righteousness— Jehu declared Ahab's "great men" (v. 6 ) "innocent" of the death of Ahab's seventy sons, or as the Hebrew word translates literally, "just" or "righteous." They were righteous in the same sense that Jehu himself was (v. 30 ), in that God had ordered the death of Ahab's family and they were actually carrying out God's orders. However, this did not mean that these men could be considered righteous in any other sense. They had already thrown in their lot with Ahab and his wicked ways; they were his "great men," and as such, they had to meet the same fate as the rest of his family (v. 11 ). They had almost accidentally been obedient to God's will, but their hearts were still for the enemy. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:10 the LORD has done what He said. Evaluating Jehu is difficult. His praise for the ministry of the prophets of God and his stated respect for the word of God commend him to us, but later he did not exhibit faithfulness to the Lord (10:31 ).

10:15 Jehonadab. The name Jehonadab means "The Lord is noble." He was an ascetic, nomadic Rechabite. These people were known for their faithfulness to God and to the austere regulations laid down by Jehonadab (Jer 35:1–16 ).

10:21–24 Worship— At times Israel imported pagan ideas and practices into their worship and attempted to mix them with the worship of the Lord. The extremity of this apostasy was reached when Ahab erected an altar for Baal, the fertility god of the Canaanites, in a temple built for Baal in Samaria (1Ki 16:32 ). The participants in Baal worship engaged not only in immoral sexual orgies but in the detestable practice of child sacrifice (Nu 25:1–8 ; Jer 19:5 ). God could not tolerate such behavior and Jehu's purge was the punishment that He had promised for disobedience. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:21 house \(temple\) of Baal. This was the temple constructed by Ahab (1Ki 16:32 ).

10:29 the golden calves. Jehu's destruction of Baal worship was a political act. His continuing of the state worship policies established by Jeroboam clearly shows his disregard for true spiritual revival in Israel.

10:32 the LORD began to cut off portions of Israel. The attacks of Hazael were part of God's judgment on Israel.

11:1 Athaliah. This name means "the LORD is exalted." Sadly, she did not live up to her name, and instead exalted herself.

11:2 Jehosheba. Josephus says that Jehosheba was Ahaziah's half sister. As the wife of the high priest Jehoiada, her marriage, and her relation to the royal house made it possible for her to rescue and hide her nephew Joash.

11:3 was hidden . . . in the house (temple) of the LORD . Joash was to inherit the promises of the Davidic covenant. His righteous reign may be attributed in part to his early years spent in the house of the Lord and to the godly instruction and protection of his aunt Jehosheba and her husband.

11:9 acted in accordance with everything . . . the priest commanded. The remarkably willing obedience of the royal guard would seem to indicate that even her own followers were disgusted by Athaliah's wickedness.

11:12 gave him the Testimony. Deuteronomy prescribed the duties of the king with regard to the preservation of God's law (Dt 17:18 ). By putting a copy of the Law in Joash's hand and the crown on his head, Jehoiada presented him as the rightful heir to the throne. The term "testimony" recalls the covenant, emphasizing that Joash's coronation was given both its scriptural warrant and its rightful connection to the Davidic covenant.

11:17 covenant. Covenant renewal was particularly necessary after the usurpation by the wicked Athaliah.

11:20 rejoiced . . . quiet. The joy of the people and the peacefulness of the land were marks of God's blessing to the restored Davidic dynasty.

11:21 Jehoash. This variant spelling is used interchangeably with Joash.

12:2 all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. Sadly, after Jehoiada's death Joash's reign took a different turn; nonetheless, he was one of the few kings of Judah who showed some signs of righteousness.

12:3 high places. Although the high places seem to have been used at times for the worship of the true God, they were also strongly associated with Canaanite religious rites (1Ki 3:2–4 ; 14:23 ). Apostasy would become a besetting sin later in Joash's reign (2Ch 24:17–19 ,24 ).

12:17 Hazael king of Aram. The Aramean invasion recorded here took place late in Joash's reign. The king fell into apostasy and this invasion came as a judgment of his wickedness.

12:20 struck down Joash. Joash had been severely wounded in Hazael's invasion (2Ch 24:24–25 ), and then fell victim to dissent and unpopularity that culminated in his assassination. Because of Joash's apostasy and murder of Zechariah, Jehoiada's son (2Ch 24:17–22 ), the king was not laid to rest in the royal tombs (2Ch 24:25 ).

13:2 evil . . . the [idolatrous] sins of Jeroboam. After the end of the house of Omri in Jehu's purge, the kings of Israel reverted to the level of syncretism that had been established by Jeroboam I, indulging in a skewed religion in which worship of the Lord was mixed with idolatry.

13:4 sought the favor of the LORD . Although Jehoahaz did not follow the Lord exclusively, God graciously heard his genuine plea for help. In His long-suffering mercy, God often deals patiently with people and blesses them in spite of their failures (1Ki 21:25–29 ; 2Pe 3:9 ).

13:6 Unbelief— No one is bound to continue following a path of sin. We always have the option of turning to God. However, the tendency to maintain things as they are and have been, to resist change no matter how urgently needed or how right it may be, or how much good it promises, is powerful. We cling to the known, the familiar, no matter how unsatisfying and ineffective it may be or how unhappy it may make us. Changing direction is not easy or painless, but the good news is that it really can be done. God is loving and forgiving, and when we repent of sin, He gives us the power to overcome it. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:14 O my father. The grief of Jehoash at the impending death of Elisha shows that, like his father Jehoahaz, this Israelite king possessed some genuine spirituality. The line of Jehu had its good moments and received some reward from the Lord (10:30 ). However, none of this line or any other of the kings of Israel served God with all their hearts.

13:18 he struck it three times and stopped. Jehoash's half-hearted compliance with Elisha's instructions exposed his weak faith and illustrated God's unfavorable evaluation of his character (v. 11 ).

13:21 he revived. There was no magic in Elisha's bones; this was a demonstration of the power of God associated with His servant.

13:23 had compassion on them. This glimpse of the wonderful mercy of the living God is like a drink of fresh water in the midst of the sad tale of the Northern Kingdom.

14:1 Amaziah. The name Amaziah means "the LORD is Mighty." He was one of the few godly kings in the kingdom of Judah.

14:4 high places. Like his father Joash before him (12:3 ), Amaziah allowed worship at the high places to continue. This practice blossomed into open idolatry in the reigns of subsequent kings (16:4 ; 21:3 ).

14:9–10 Pride— Amaziah's conquest of the formidable city of Sela atop the seemingly unapproachable cliffs of the Wadi Musa was a monumental accomplishment. Rather than recognize God's hand in this feat, Amaziah became proud and fell into spiritual compromise (2Ch 25:5–16 ). A little success can sometimes be a dangerous thing. Failure to acknowledge God's power leads to personal pride, and such pride leads inevitably to downfall. God will not share His glory. Go to Theological Notes Index

14:11 Beth-shemesh. The name of the city means "House of the Sun," indicating that there had once been a temple to the sun god there in Canaanite times. Beth-shemesh was in the Valley of Sorek, about 15 miles west of Jerusalem. This was the town where the holy ark was taken after its "wanderings" among the Philistines.

14:17 fifteen years. The notice of fifteen years of life for Amaziah suggests he was released after the death of Jehoash for an additional period (782–867 BC). If so, he reigned alongside his son Azariah (or Uzziah), whose 52-year reign began in 792 BC (15:2 ).

14:23 forty-one years. Jeroboam II had a very long reign. His 41 years included 10 years as coregent with his father Jehoash (792–782 BC).

14:25 Jonah. Once again a prophet of God gave direction to a king. The reference to Jonah here provides the historical setting for the famous prophet (Jnh 1:1 ).

14:28 his might. The Scriptures emphasize Jeroboam's military prowess. Yet Jeroboam's might may have also been economic. The well-known Samaritan Ostraca, which may date from this period, record the delivery to Samaria of fine oil and barley produced on the royal estates.

14:29 Zechariah. The brief reign of Zechariah is noted in 15:8–12 . He was the fourth in the line of Jehu to reign in Israel, in fulfillment of God's gracious promise to Jehu (10:30 ).

15:1 Azariah. Also called Uzziah (2Ch 26:1 ), this king is credited with 52 years of reign. This figure includes 10 years during which his father Amaziah was held captive (792–782 BC). The latter part of Azariah's reign was tainted by his intrusion into the priestly office (2Ch 26:16–19 ), an act that resulted in his being stricken with leprosy (v. 5 ). This condition put his son Jotham on the throne to rule with him and handle public matters relative to the royal office. The nature of Jotham's duties (v. 5 ), the assigning of a full 52 years of reign to Azariah, and Isaiah's dating of his call to the year of Azariah's (or Uzziah's) death (Isa 6:1 ) may indicate that Azariah retained the power of the throne until the end.

15:5 leper. The events that brought about this affliction are described in 2Ch 26:16–21 .

15:12 fourth generation. Jehu had been promised a continuing posterity into the fourth generation as a reward for carrying out his divine commission (10:30 ), but after the death of Zachariah in 752 BC, Israel plunged into a period of degeneracy, bloody conspiracies and international intrigue that would bring about its demise in 722 BC.

15:17 Menahem. This wicked king came into power by assassination and established his authority by brutal acts against humanity. Ironically, his name means “comforter.”

15:19 Pul. Pul is a second Babylonian name for the Assyrian king Tiglath-pileser III (745–727 BC; 1Ch 5:26 ). Although he came to the throne as a usurper from the ranks of the military, he would prove a competent king. Under Tiglath-pileser III and his successors, Assyria became the dominant power in the Middle East for well over a century (747–612 BC).

15:23 Pekahiah. Pekahiah means “the Lord has opened the eyes.” After an evil reign of two years, a usurper “closed his eyes” for him.

15:25 Murder— Sometimes a corrupt leader needs to be taken out of power, but when this is done by coup and murder, the new leader ends up being just as bad as the old one. He lives in fear that someone will do the same thing to him; in an attempt to keep his position, he will exercise the same control and perpetrate the same kind of abuses as the leader he deposed. A vicious cycle is begun, as we can see from the succession of murders and new kings in Israel. Anytime leadership changes through conniving and coup, even if actual murder is not part of the picture, problems in trust and confidence will result.
Go to Theological Notes Index

15:27 Pekah. Because Hoshea’s nine-year reign (17:1 ) began in 732 BC, Pekah’s twenty years must have included a time of kingship in his own district during the unsettled days of Shallum, Menahem, and Pekahiah (752–740 BC). Apparently Pekah rode the crest of anti-Assyrian sentiment.

15:30 Hoshea . . . conspired. The annals of Tiglath-pileser III record Hoshea’s heavy tribute and the Assyrian king’s claim that he himself set the new Israelite king in office.

15:32 Jotham. Jotham’s reign was partly righteous. After the purge of Ahaziah and Athaliah (9:27–29 ; 11:13–16 ), the kings of Judah who reigned in relative righteousness were Joash (12:2–3 ), Amaziah (14:3–4 ), and Azariah (15:3–4 ). A positive righteousness would be modeled by Hezekiah (18:3–6 ) and again by Josiah (22:2 ).

16:1 Ahaz . . . became king. The seventeenth year of Pekah was 736–735 BC. Ahaz’s 16-year reign apparently ended in 720 BC. If so, like Jotham before him, Ahaz must have lived on another four years after giving up his rule. Hezekiah’s first year of independent rule began in 715 BC, 14 years before Sennacherib’s invasion of Judah and his siege of Jerusalem in 701 BC.

16:3 made his son pass through the fire. According to the author of Chronicles, this rite was connected with the Baal worship practiced in the valley of the son of Hinnom (2Ch 28:2–3 ). Ahaz was an apostate who personally led his people in the religious worship practices of Canaan.

16:7 sent messengers . . . king of Assyria. Tiglath-pileser’s records list the tribute of both Hoshea and Ahaz.

16:10–16 Vanity— The king of Israel was commanded to pattern his reign according to God’s Word, but Ahaz apparently thought his own ideas were better. Once the Word of God has been set aside, there is no stopping point for presumptuous spirituality and immoral activities. Such practices may be aesthetically and humanly pleasing, but Jesus designated them as vain worship because they are based upon precepts and traditions of men, rather than on God’s holy and sufficient Word (Mt 15:7–9 ).
Go to Theological Notes Index

16:18 because of the king of Assyria. Ahaz was more interested in imitating the foreign king than in following God. His use of the altar to make sacrifices to God and his many other religious innovations underscored Ahaz’s essential paganism (2Ch 28:2–4 ,22–25 ). He went so far in his apostasy as to shut the doors of the temple (2Ch 28:24 ).

17:1 twelfth year. Hoshea became king in 732 BC, so the twelve years of Ahaz indicate a period of coregency with his father Jotham.

17:3 Shalmaneser. Shalmaneser V succeeded Tiglath-pileser III as king of Assyria in 727 BC.

The Rise of the Kingdom of Assyria

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

17:7 Israelites had sinned. The reason for the fall of Samaria and the end of the Northern Kingdom was clearly its spiritual failure; they had turned away from the living God.

17:14–18 Israel's Disobedience— These verses are a good summary of the spiritual departure from God that led to Israel's eventual downfall. The people of Israel didn't listen and three specific results are recorded: Go to Theological Notes Index

1. The Israelites refused to believe. All the fulfilled promises, all the history of God's saving acts were simply ignored. It didn't matter what God had done. They had ears to hear and eyes to see, yet failed to do so.

2. They rejected God's laws and covenant. They willfully turned their backs on the way of living that God had directed them toward.

3. They worshiped idols. They actually worshiped anything and everything but what they were instructed to worship. In spite of God's clear mandate to them to have no other gods before Him, the Israelites were easily influenced by any culture they came in contact with.

The common denominator here is the will. This was willful rebellion. We are no different. Every day each of us, by an act of our own will, does something disobedient. We worry unnecessarily, we have fears for aspects of our lives that we know God has promised to protect and care for. Sometimes we simply don't care what God has said. We'd rather do what we want because it feels good or because His way is too difficult. We are truly sinners in need of a forgiving God.

17:21 Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD. Jeroboam had initiated the false worship that set the standard for all of Israel's idolatrous activities. The worship of the calves at Dan and Bethel, and Israel's fascination with Baal worship (1Ki 12:28–29 ; 16:32–33 ), are repeatedly cited as the chief causes of Israel's spiritual defeat and political collapse.

17:24 king of Assyria. This was probably Sargon II (722–705 BC), although the practice described here was continued by later kings as well. Such a mixing of populations was designed to break down ethnic distinctions and weaken the loyalties that the people had. It would also help create a sense of empire. Samaria. This was the whole region where the repopulation took place; eventually the inhabitants would be called Samaritans.

17:33 feared the LORD, yet served their own gods. This is the classic example of syncretism, the attempt to mix the worship of the true God with other religious traditions and beliefs. The apostate religion of the people of Samaria caused them to be rejected by the faithful Jews who returned from the exile (Ezr 4:1–5 ), and by the time of the New Testament, hostility was very strong between the two groups (Jn 4:9 ; 8:48 ).

18:1 the third year of Hoshea. The 29 years of Hezekiah's reign thus included a period of coregency with his father Ahaz before he ruled independently (715–699 BC). The name Hezekiah means "the Lord has strengthened."

18:3 Hezekiah did right in the sight of the LORD. Hezekiah was the first king since David who served the Lord with all his heart.

18:4 high places. Consistently, the kings who preceded Hezekiah are criticized by the author for not destroying the high places (15:34–35 ). While there were traditions of worship of the true God at these locations, far too often they became sites for the licentious worship of Baal and Asherah. Hezekiah's reforms included not only the destruction of the pagan cult objects introduced in the days of his apostate father Ahaz, but the bronze serpent that had been preserved since the days of Moses (2Ch 29–31 ). Symbols all too easily can be made into objects of veneration.

18:5 no one like him. Hezekiah's faith was unparalleled by any other king who had preceded him after the time of David; Josiah's adherence to the law would be extolled in a similar manner (23:25 ).

18:6 Obedience— The obedience of Hezekiah provides a powerful lesson for all of God's people. He "clung" to the Lord, staying true to God and His commandments. He must have faced strong opposition as he eliminated practices which had been going on for generations, and destroyed objects which had long been considered sacred, but he knew that God's approval was more important than human approbation. In the same way, we must be willing to serve God before we please those around us. Go to Theological Notes Index

18:13 fourteenth year. Hezekiah's fourteenth year of sole rule was 701 BC. The details of the generally rebellious situation that provoked Sennacherib to invade the western portion of his empire are recounted in his annals, where Hezekiah is particularly mentioned for his involvement in the whole affair.

18:17 Tartan . . . Rab-saris . . . Rabshakeh. These titles suggest persons of high station in Assyria.

18:20 on whom do you rely? Perhaps Hezekiah's reputation for trusting in God was already widely known (v. 5). Trusting became the focal point of the Assyrian's psychological warfare (vv. 19–22, 24–30).

18:21 crushed reed. Actually, Sennacherib's warning against confidence in Egypt was well taken, the point having been made previously by Isaiah (Isa 30:3–5; 31:1–3).

18:25 The LORD said to me. The Assyrians may have been aware of prophecies concerning the judgment of Judah and Jerusalem and Assyria's own role as God's avengers (Isa 10:5–11). The remark was intended to introduce stark terror into the hearts of the people of Jerusalem (2Ch 32:18) by pointing out that now even their God was against them.

18:25 Self-righteousness— The Assyrians were God's instrument for punishing Israel (Isa 10:5–10), but this fact was not due to any righteousness or virtue on Assyria's part. Rather, their attitude was blasphemous and proud (19:22). The lesson for the powerful king of Assyria is the lesson for kings, nations, and all individuals: no one may boast before the Lord (1Co 1:29). Go to Theological Notes Index

18:33 the gods of the nations. Rabshekah's assertion that none of the gods of the nations who had opposed Assyria had withstood the Assyrian king is another aspect of the continued psychological warfare and evidence of Rabshekah's awareness of Isaiah's prophetic words (Isa 10:7–11).

19:2 Isaiah. The ministry of the great prophet Isaiah had begun in the year that Uzziah (or Azariah) died (Isa 6:1), nearly four decades earlier (740 BC). Once Isaiah had sought out Judah's godless King Ahaz to minister to him (Isa 7:3); now the prophet was being sought by the godly Hezekiah (the details of 18:13–20:19 are also recorded in Isa 36–39).

19:4 hear . . . taunt and defy. The first verb does not suggest that God is unaware of the words of Rabshekah. Rather, the words describe God as determining to redress the wrong.

19:6 Do not be afraid. Isaiah's prophecy was one of comfort. Not only would Sennacherib fail to conquer Jerusalem, but he would face a violent death upon his return home. Both points of this prophetic message would come true, although Sennacherib was not assassinated until 20 years later (c. 681 BC). In his annals Sennacherib boasts of five more campaigns; however, he makes no mention of any other invasions of Judah.

19:9 Tirhakah king of Ethiopia. Since Tirhakah did not become king until 690 BC, there is an apparent problem with the chronology of this verse. However, it is possible that the biblical author merely calls Tirhakah by the title he was best known by at the time of writing.

19:12 Eden. This is not the Eden of Genesis, but an area known today as Bit-Adini, south of Haran (Eze 27:23; Am 1:5).

19:15 You have made the heavens and the earth. The conflict mentioned in this chapter involves far more than the kings of Egypt, Assyria, or Judah. The warfare is one in which the gods of the pagan world would dishonor the true and living God of Israel. Hezekiah's prayer was addressed to the God who alone is sovereign over all the kingdoms of the world. His sovereignty is related to the fact of creation; He is the God who made heaven and earth. The heathen gods are born in corrupted human imaginations, and backed by a rebellious angel (Satan), but God is the one who owns and controls the universe.

19:21 daughter of Zion. As elsewhere in the Old Testament (Zep 3:14 ), this phrase should be written “daughter Zion,” without the “of.” Zion (Jerusalem) is like a daughter to God, whom He will protect and guard as only a father would.

19:22 Holy One of Israel. This title is characteristic of Isaiah’s own manner of referring to God. He uses the phrase 26 times (Isa 6:3 ). Sennacherib needed to know that his boastful pride blasphemed the sovereign and holy God of all nations.

19:30 survivors . . . will again take root. The promises in these verses were both for the immediate situation and ultimately for the final regathering of the Jewish people into their land in the time of the coming Messiah.

19:32 not come to this city. While Sennacherib later boasted of taking some 46 Judean cities, with reference to Jerusalem he could only report that he made Hezekiah “prisoner in Jerusalem, his royal residence, like a bird in a cage.” God’s defense and deliverance of Jerusalem demonstrated His faithfulness to the Davidic covenant.

19:37 killed him with a sword. The events depicted here took place 20 years after God’s deliverance of Jerusalem. When his father was assassinated, Esarhaddon took the throne and ruled from 681 to 668 BC.

20:3 I have walked before You. Hezekiah’s prayer recognized that although all of life is in God’s hands, God is also a rewarder of those who faithfully serve Him (Dt 5:30–33 ; 30:15–16 ).

20:7 cake of figs. The practice of applying figs to an ulcerated sore is well attested in the records of the ancient Middle East, being mentioned as early as 2000 BC.

20:12 Berodach-baladan. This was a Chaldean king who twice ruled in Babylon (721–710, 703 BC). A perennial enemy of Assyria, he was twice defeated by them and cast out from Babylon. His search for allies in his resistance to Assyria may have occasioned the embassy to Hezekiah, especially because he had heard of Hezekiah’s miraculous deliverance from the Assyrian army (2Ch 32:31 ).

20:13 showed them all his treasure house. One of the remarkable features of the Bible is the fact that it does not gloss over the faults of its best heroes and heroines. This account of the foolishness of Hezekiah follows immediately on the narrative of his great trust in the Lord (vv. 1–11 ).

20:16–18 Vanity— How much better for Israel’s welfare if Hezekiah had been interested in introducing the Babylonian envoys to his God rather than to the treasures of the nation. The prophet’s rebuke confirms that Hezekiah’s action arose from a vain desire to impress the Babylonians with the externals of his kingdom. Human pride, and the vain hope that deliverance will come from man, must be forsaken if God’s blessing is to be experienced. Go to Theological Notes Index

20:19 The word of the LORD . . . is good. Hezekiah’s response seems a little heartless. He did verbally acknowledge God’s right to decide, but it does not appear that he had any real sense of the trouble his folly would bring on the people.

20:20 the [Siloam] pool and the aqueduct. Hezekiah dug a tunnel between the spring of Gihon and the Pool of Siloam to bring a ready supply of water within the eastern wall of Jerusalem. This tunnel is still in existence, a crooked shaft 1,750 feet long.

21:1 Manasseh. This wicked king’s fifty-five year reign was the longest of any of the kings of the divided kingdom. Externally, the period was one of political stability. It is known as the Assyrian Peace, an era in which the kings Esarhaddon (681–668 BC) and Ashurbanipal (668–626 BC) reigned and brought the Assyrian Empire to its zenith. However, the length of Manasseh’s reign does not indicate a good rule, but rather God’s persevering mercy and faithfulness to the Davidic covenant (2Ch 33:10–13 ).

21:3 host of heaven. Worship of heavenly bodies was strictly forbidden (Dt 4:19 ; 17:2–7 ) and was condemned strongly by Israel's prophets (Isa 47:13 ; Am 5:26 ). Yet Manasseh paid no attention to either the law or the prophets (2Ch 33:2-10 ).

21:4 altars in the house \(temple\) of the LORD. All that had been accomplished by the godly kings of Judah was undone by this reprobate. But wicked as Manasseh was, God heard his prayer when he repented (2Ch 33:12-16 ).

21:15 since the day. The story of the Old Testament is not a record of God's anger, but of His mercy and the delay of His just wrath.

21:23 conspired against him. No reason is assigned for the conspiracy that brought about Amon's assassination. While it may have had some connection with the international crisis that precipitated Ashurbanipal's renewed attention to the west, Amon's own wickedness may have provided sufficient cause.

22:1 Josiah. The name Josiah means "The Lord Supports." Like the name of Cyrus (Isa 44:28 ; 45:1 ) and of the city of Bethlehem (Mic 5:2 ), the name Josiah was announced by a prophet long before the time of his birth (1Ki 13:1-2 ).

22:2 did not turn aside. Not many rulers can rival Josiah's thirty-eight years of perseverance in righteousness. Some begin with high ideals and a commitment to do what is right in the sight of the Lord, but they soon learn that compromise is the art of politics. Compromise can be right and good. We ought to think more highly of others than ourselves and be willing to let go of our own preferences and opinions for the good of others. However, good can never result from compromising God's revealed ethics, morality, and justice. We must learn to live like Josiah, putting obedience to God before comfort and popular acceptance.

22:4 Hilkiah the high priest. This man was a major figure in the revival of true religion that young Josiah accomplished. The work of restoring the temple was under his direction.

22:8 the Book of the Law. This may mean either parts or all of the Pentateuch. Although it was placed by the side of the ark of the covenant (Dt 31:26 ), it may have been lost, set aside, or hidden during the wicked reigns of Manasseh and Amon.

22:14 Huldah the prophetess. Huldah is one of only a few women mentioned in Scripture as a prophetess. She served at the same time as other godly prophets, such as Jeremiah and Zephaniah, and some have suggested that her husband Shallum was a relative of Jeremiah (Jer 32:7-12 ).

23:2 he read . . . the words of the book. Like Moses (Ex 24:3-8 ) and Joshua (Jos 8:34-35 ) before him, Josiah followed the ancient standard for godly leadership (Dt 17:18-20 ; 31:9-13 ) and assembled the people to renew the covenant.

23:3 Knowing the Will of God— Christians often act as if learning the will of God is some mysterious process fraught with the danger of making all kinds of mistakes. This passage points to the fact that most of what we need to know about the will of God is contained in the Scriptures. The best place to learn the will of God is from reading the Bible. The only way to do the will of God is to obey the teaching of the Bible. God may have more specific plans for each of us, but His basic plan for all of us is to do what He says as revealed in His written word. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:5 idolatrous priests. This term is also used by Zephaniah to describe the priests who led the rites associated with Baal and with star worship of various kinds (Zep 1:4 ). These priests had been appointed by Judah's past kings but functioned outside the divinely established priesthood.

23:6 the Asherah. Although they had been destroyed by Hezekiah, these wooden images had been reintroduced by Manasseh (21:7 ) and also by Amon (21:21 ).

23:10 Topheth. This appears to have been a place in the valley of Hinnom where human sacrifices were made to Molech (Jer 7:31-32 ; 32:35 ). [pass through the fire \[as a burnt offering\] for Molech](#). Some think that Molech was a god of the Ammonites (1Ki 11:5 ), or that Molech was the name of a type of child sacrifice associated with Baal worship (Jer 19:5-6 ). Evidence of such child sacrifice has been found in the excavations at the Phoenician city of Carthage.

23:18 the prophet who came from Samaria. The prophet from Samaria was the old prophet of Bethel (1Ki 13:11 ). Samaria is the name for an entire area, not just the city that was later the capital of the Northern Kingdom (1Ki 13:32 ; 16:23–24 ). After the death of the man of God who had denounced Jeroboam's altar at Bethel, the aged prophet of Bethel requested that at his death he should be buried in Bethel beside that prophet of Judah.

23:22 such a Passover. The restoration of religious places was part of the revival of spiritual worship. Although Hezekiah had held a Passover (2Ch 30 ), he had done so with some modification of the law (2Ch 30:13–20 ). Accordingly, Josiah's meeting of the strict requirements of the law (2Ch 35:1–19 ) was truly unparalleled since the days of the judges.

23:25 there was no king like Josiah. Like his grandfather Hezekiah, who was famed for being without equal in his trust of the Lord (18:5 ), Josiah was truly a righteous king. Because of their outstanding examples of godliness, the authors of Kings and Chronicles devote considerable space to their reigns.

23:26–27 Unfaithfulness— The revival under Josiah, recorded in chapters 22 and 23 , was like a stay of execution. It gave Judah some additional time but it was too little, too late. The die had been cast in Manasseh's reign as God threatened to wipe out Jerusalem “as one wipes a [dirty] bowl” (21:13 ) because Manasseh did more evil than the other nations whom the Lord had destroyed. In the light of Jeremiah 18:7–8 we must assume that Josiah's people responded only externally to God's principles and not from the heart. Unfaithfulness was deeply rooted, and professions of religion could not change them from the inside. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:29 Pharaoh Neco. During the long years of Josiah's reign (640–609 BC), Assyrian power had steadily crumbled until, as Nahum had predicted, Nineveh itself had fallen (612 BC). The surviving Assyrian forces had regrouped at Haran. Because Egypt was a long-standing ally of Assyria, Neco journeyed northward to help the beleaguered Assyrians. Josiah's deployment of his forces to the valley of Megiddo was an attempt to prevent the Egyptians from aiding the Assyrian forces at Haran. Although Pharaoh Neco was delayed sufficiently so that Haran was lost to the Assyrians, Josiah's action ultimately cost him his life (2Ch 35:20–25 ).

23:31 Jehoahaz. Jehoahaz, also called Shallum (Jer 22:11 ), was Josiah's third son (24:18 ; 1Ch 3:15 ).

23:34 brought him to Egypt, where he died. The curse for Judah's disobedience was beginning to fall (Dt 28:64–48 ).

23:37 He did evil. Jehoiakim's short reign was noted for its extreme wickedness (2Ch 36:5–8 ). Jeremiah depicts him as a despicable monster who took advantage of his people (Jer 22:13–14 ,17 ), filled the land with every sort of vice and violence (Jer 18:18–20 ), and opposed all that was holy (Jer 25:1–7 ). Unlike his father Josiah, who led the nation in reformation at the hearing of the Word of God (22:11 ; 23:1–25 ), Jehoiakim went so far as to cut up and burn a scroll of Scripture (Jer 36:21–24 ) and to kill Urijah, a true prophet of God (Jer 26:20–23 ).

24:2 Chaldeans. This name originally applied to certain inhabitants of southern Mesopotamia, but by this time the term had come to be identified with the Babylonians, and Babylonia was called Chaldea. After the fall of the Babylonian Empire, the term Chaldean came to mean “soothsayer” (Da 2:2 ).

24:8 Jehoiachin. Because the scriptural description of Jehoiachin seems to represent him as a mature young man (Jer 22:24–30 ; Eze 19:6 ), Jehoiachin's age at accession was probably eighteen rather than eight, as given elsewhere in some manuscripts (compare 2Ch 36:9 ).

24:12 Jehoiachin. Jehoiakim apparently had died before Nebuchadnezzar arrived at Jerusalem, because it was Jehoiachin who was carried off captive with other leaders of Judah (such as Ezekiel; Eze 1:1 ). Jeremiah called him “Jeconiah” and “Coniah” (Jer 22:24–28 ).

24:14–16 led away. The people of Israel lost their freedom and independence because of their own perpetually iniquitous ways. To be exiled is to be torn away from everything familiar, from everything traditional, from all identifiable scenery, and forced to live in a place where one has no identity and no roots. The people's whole sense of national identity was bound to their land, the place God had given them, and to be torn from that land was the ultimate evidence that God had rejected them.

24:15 led Jehoiachin away into exile. Jehoiachin's captivity was prophesied in Jeremiah 22:24–27 . Jehoiachin's eventual release is recorded in 25:27–30 and Jeremiah 52:31–34 .

24:17 Mattaniah. This was Josiah's youngest son (1Ch 3:15 ). He reigned until the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC.

25:7 put out the eyes. The last thing Zedekiah saw was the reward of his sinful folly—the horrible spectacle of his own loved ones being put to death. He would carry this picture with him until his own death in a Babylonian prison (Jer 52:11 ).

25:10 tore down the walls. These walls would lie in ruins for a century and a half (Neh 2:11–6:16 ).

25:17 three cubits. This may be the height of the capitals not including the ornamental work; 1Ki 7:16 and Jer 52:22 say five cubits.

25:18 Seraiah. Although Seraiah was executed (v. 21 ), his son Jehozadak was deported (1Ch 6:15 ). Through Jehozadak's line would come Ezra, the priest and great reformer, who one day would return to Jerusalem and take up Seraiah's work (Ezr 7:1 ).

25:22 Gedaliah. Gedaliah's father Ahikam had supported Jeremiah in his struggles with the apostate officials of Judah (Jer 26:24 ). The prophet Jeremiah was allowed to stay and assist Gedaliah in the process of reconstruction (Jer 39:11–14 ; 40:1–6 ).

25:27 Evil-merodach. This king succeeded Nebuchadnezzar and reigned a short time (561–560 BC). Tablets from the reign of Nabonidus (555–539 BC) record the daily rations of Jehoiachin who is called "Yaukin, king of the land of Yahud (Judah)."

25:28 spoke kindly. Evil-merodach's kindness toward Jehoiachin brings the books of Kings to an end on a ray of hope. Exile was neither the end of Israel nor of the Davidic line.

The First Book of the Chronicles

- AUTHOR: Tradition in the Jewish Talmud supports Ezra the priest as the author of 1 Chronicles. The content points to priestly authorship because of the emphasis on the temple, the priesthood, and the theocratic line of David in the Southern Kingdom of Judah. Ezra was an educated scribe (Ezr 7:6 ), and according to the apocryphal book of 2 Maccabees 2:13–15, Nehemiah collected an extensive library which was available to Ezra for his use in compiling Chronicles.
- TIMES: c. 1004–971 BC
- KEY VERSES: 1Ch 7:11–14
- THEME: First Chronicles is largely a retelling of the texts of 1 and 2 Samuel with administrative details and the roles that the various tribes and alliances played in the events of the nation. We don't see the family conflict with Michal when the ark is brought to Jerusalem or the affair with Bathsheba and its fallout. When it comes to succession, all we are told is that David chose Solomon to succeed him. This is a primary document of the history of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>These were the potters and those who lived [among plantations and hedges] at Netaim and Gederah; they lived there with the king for his work.

Descendants of Simeon

<sup>38</sup> these mentioned by name were leaders in their families; and their fathers' houses increased greatly [so they needed more land].

<sup>39</sup> So they journeyed to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

<sup>40</sup> They found rich, good pasture, and the [cleared] land was wide, quiet, and peaceful; for those who had lived there previously came from Ham [and had left it a better place for those who came after them].

<sup>41</sup> These, registered by name, came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and they attacked their tents and the Meunites (foreigners) who were found there, and utterly destroyed them to this day; and they settled in their place, because there was pasture there for their flocks. ‡

<sup>42</sup> From them, from the sons of Simeon, five hundred men went to Mount Seir, with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, as their leaders.

<sup>43</sup> They destroyed the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and they have lived there to this day (the date of this writing). ‡

1 Chronicles 5

Descendants of Reuben

<sup>1</sup> NOW [WE come to] the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—for Reuben was the eldest, but because he defiled his father’s bed [with Bilhah his father’s concubine], his birthright was given to [Manasseh and Ephraim] the sons of Joseph [the favorite] son of Israel, so that he is not enrolled in the genealogy according to the birthright. [Gen 35:22 ; 48:15–22 ; 49:3 , 4] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away into exile; he was a leader of the tribe of Reuben.

<sup>8</sup> Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal-meon. ‡

<sup>10</sup> In the days of King Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hands; and they lived in their tents throughout all the land east of Gilead. ‡

Descendants of Gad

<sup>12</sup> Joel was the chief, Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.

<sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

<sup>17</sup> All these were enrolled in the genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam [II] king of Israel. ‡

<sup>18</sup> The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh—valiant men able to bear shield and sword, and to shoot with the bow, and skillful in war—were 44,760 who went to war.

<sup>20</sup> They were given help against them, and the Hagrites were handed over to them, and all who were allied with them; for they cried out to God [for help] in the battle; and He granted their entreaty because they relied on and trusted in Him. ‡

<sup>21</sup> These Israelites took away their livestock: their 50,000 camels, and 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys; and 100,000 people.

<sup>22</sup> For a great number fell mortally wounded, because the battle was of God. And these Israelites settled in their territory until the exile [by Assyria more than five centuries later].  [2 Kin 15:29 ] ‡

Descendants of Manasseh

<sup>25</sup> But they acted treacherously against the God of their fathers and played the prostitute with the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them. ‡

<sup>26</sup> So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul, king of Assyria, [that is,] the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away into exile—the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh—and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river Gozan, [where they remain] to this day. ‡

26 As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son and Nahath his son, 27 Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah [Samuel's father] his son.

28 The sons of Samuel: Joel the firstborn and Abijah the second.

29 The sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzza his son, 30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

31 Now these are those whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD after the ark [of the covenant] rested there. ‡

32 They ministered with singing before the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon had built the LORD's house (temple) in Jerusalem, performing their service in due order.

33 These men and their sons served from the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel [the great prophet and judge],

34 the son of Elkanah [III], the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

35 the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah [II], the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,

36 the son of Elkanah [I], the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

37 the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, ‡

38 the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel (Jacob).

39 Heman's [tribal] brother Asaph stood at his right hand: Asaph the son of Berechiah, the son of Shimea,

40 the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah,

41 the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, ‡

<sup>42</sup> the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, <sup>43</sup> the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.
<sup>44</sup> Their relatives the sons of Merari stood at the left hand: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,
<sup>45</sup> the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah,
<sup>46</sup> the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, <sup>47</sup> the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.
<sup>48</sup> Their relatives the Levites [who were not descended from Aaron] were appointed for all the other kinds of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

Descendants of Aaron

<sup>49</sup> But [the line of] Aaron and his sons made offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, ministering for all the work of the Holy of Holies (Most Holy Place), and [they did so] to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses, God's servant, had commanded. ‡

<sup>55</sup> to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah and its surrounding pasture land; ‡

<sup>56</sup> but the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. ‡

<sup>60</sup> and from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth, with their pasture lands. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

<sup>61</sup> Then to the rest of the sons of Kohath were given ten cities by lot from the family of the tribe [of Ephraim and of Dan and], from the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh.  [Josh 21:5.] ‡

<sup>62</sup> To the sons of Gershon, according to their families, were given thirteen cities from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and [the other half of] Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>64</sup> So the sons of Israel gave to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands.

<sup>65</sup> They gave by lot from the tribes of the sons of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin these cities which are mentioned by name.

76 and from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, and Kiriathaim with their pasture lands.

<sup>77</sup> To the rest of the Levites, the sons of Merari were given, from the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono and Tabor, with their pasture lands;

78 and on the other side of the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan the Levites were given, from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness and Jahzah with their pasture lands,

80 from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead and Mahanaim with their pasture lands, <sup>81</sup> Heshbon and Jazer with their pasture lands.

1 Chronicles 9

People of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> SO ALL Israel was enrolled by genealogies; and they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And Judah was carried away into exile to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness [to God]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the sons of Perez the son of Judah.

<sup>7</sup> From the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

<sup>8</sup> Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

<sup>9</sup> and their relatives according to their generations, 956. All these men were heads of fathers' households according to their fathers' houses.

<sup>11</sup> Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the chief officer of the house of God;

<sup>12</sup> and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

<sup>13</sup> and their relatives, heads of their fathers' households, 1,760—very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup> Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

<sup>15</sup> and Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

<sup>16</sup> and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites [near Jerusalem].

<sup>18</sup> who until now was assigned to the king's gate on the east side) they were the gatekeepers for the camp of the Levites.

<sup>19</sup> Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his relatives of his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, doorkeepers of the Tent; and their fathers had been in charge of the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entrance.

<sup>20</sup> Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in times past, and the LORD was with him. ‡

<sup>22</sup> All those chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds were 212. They were enrolled by their genealogies in their villages [around Jerusalem], these men [whose grandfathers] David and Samuel the seer had appointed to their official duty. ‡

<sup>23</sup> So they and their sons were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, that is, the house of the tabernacle, as guards.

<sup>24</sup> The gatekeepers were stationed on the four sides —on the east, west, north, and south.

<sup>25</sup> Their relatives in their villages were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them; ‡

<sup>26</sup> for these Levites, the four chief gatekeepers, had an official duty, and were in charge of the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

<sup>27</sup> They spent the night around the house of God, for the [night] watch was theirs, and they were in charge of opening the house morning after morning.

<sup>28</sup> Now some of them were in charge of the serving utensils, being required to count them when they brought them in or took them out.

<sup>29</sup> Some of them also were appointed over the furniture and over all the [sacred] utensils of the sanctuary, as well as over the fine flour and the wine and the [olive] oil and the frankincense and the spices.

<sup>33</sup> Now these are the singers, heads of the fathers' households of the Levites, living in the temple chambers, free from other service because they were on duty day and night. ‡

<sup>34</sup> These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites according to their generations, chief men, who lived in Jerusalem.

Ancestry and Descendants of Saul

<sup>38</sup> Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. They also lived with their relatives in Jerusalem, opposite their other relatives.

<sup>39</sup> Ner became the father of Kish, and Kish became the father of [King] Saul, and Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab, and Esh-baal. ‡

1 Chronicles 10

Defeat and Death of Saul and His Sons

<sup>3</sup> The battle became heavy against Saul, and the archers found him; and he was [mortally] wounded by the archers.

<sup>4</sup> Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and run me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised [Philistines] will come and abuse and humiliate me.” But his armor bearer would not, for he was terrified. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup> When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

<sup>6</sup> So Saul died with his three sons and all those of his house died together.

<sup>7</sup> When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that the army had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup> It came about the next day, when the Philistines came to strip (plunder) the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>9</sup> So they stripped Saul and took his head and his armor and sent messengers around the land of the Philistines to bring the good news to their idols and to the people.

<sup>10</sup> They put Saul’s armor in the house of their gods and nailed up his head in the house (temple) of Dagon. ‡

Jabesh-gilead’s Tribute to Saul

<sup>11</sup> When all Jabesh-gilead heard about everything that the Philistines had done to Saul,

<sup>12</sup> all the brave men arose, took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh, and they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh; then they fasted seven days.  [1 Sam 31:12. ]

<sup>13</sup> So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against the LORD, for his failure to keep the word of the LORD; and also because he consulted a medium [regarding a spirit of the dead], to inquire of her , ‡

<sup>14</sup> and did not inquire of the LORD [instead]. Therefore the LORD killed him and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.  [1 Sam 28:6. ] ‡

1 Chronicles 11

David Made King over All Israel

<sup>1</sup> THEN ALL Israel gathered to David at Hebron, saying, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.  [2 Sam 2:8–10 ] ‡

<sup>2</sup> “In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be prince and leader over My people Israel.’ ” ‡

<sup>3</sup> So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant (solemn agreement) with them there before the LORD; and they anointed him king over Israel, in accordance with the word of the LORD through Samuel.  [1 Sam 16:1, 12, 13. ] ‡

Jerusalem, Capital City

<sup>4</sup> Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then the Jebusites said to David, “You shall not come in here.” But David captured the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

<sup>6</sup> Now David said, “Whoever strikes down a Jebusite first shall be chief and commander.” Joab the son of Zeruiah [David’s half sister] went up first, and so he was made chief.

<sup>7</sup> Then David lived in the stronghold; so it was called the City of David.

<sup>8</sup> He built the city around it, from the Millo (fortification) to the surrounding area; and Joab repaired the rest of the [old Jebusite] city.

<sup>9</sup> David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him.

David's Mighty Men

<sup>11</sup> This is the list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty [heroes]. He lifted up his spear against three hundred whom he killed at one time.

<sup>12</sup> Next to him [in rank] was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

<sup>13</sup> He was with David at Pasdammim [where David had killed Goliath] and there the Philistines were gathered together for battle, and there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people [of Israel] fled before the Philistines.

<sup>14</sup> But they took their stand in the midst of that plot and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD rescued them by a great victory.  [2 Sam 23:9, 10. ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> David was then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem.

<sup>17</sup> David had a craving and said, “Oh that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is next to the gate!”

<sup>18</sup> Then the three [mighty men] broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem which was next to the gate, and brought it to David. But David would not drink it; he poured it out to the LORD [as an offering];

<sup>19</sup> and he said, “Far be it from me before my God that I would do this thing! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For they brought it at the risk of their lives.” So he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

<sup>20</sup> Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the [other] three, and he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and he had a name as well as the three. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Of the three in the second [rank] he was the most honored and became their captain; however, he did not attain to the first three [Jashobeam, Eleazar, and Shammah]. ‡

who had done great things, killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. Also he went down and killed a lion in a pit on a snowy day. ‡

<sup>23</sup>He killed an Egyptian also, a man of great stature, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam, and Benaiah went down to him with [only] a staff (rod) and grabbed the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

<sup>24</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name as well as the three mighty men.

<sup>25</sup> He was honored among the thirty, but he did not attain to [the rank of] the [first] three. David appointed him over his bodyguard.

<sup>26</sup> Now the mighty men of the armies were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, ‡

<sup>42</sup> Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty [heroes] with him,

David's Supporters in Ziklag

<sup>1</sup> THESE ARE the ones who came to David at Ziklag, while he still concealed himself from Saul the son of Kish; they were among the courageous men who helped him in battle. ‡

<sup>3</sup> The chief was Ahiezer and then Joash, the sons of Shemaah of Gibeah; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, and Jehu of Anathoth,

<sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah of Gibeon, a mighty man among the thirty, and [a leader] over them; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad of Gederah,

<sup>5</sup> Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Haruphite, <sup>6</sup> Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites,

<sup>8</sup> Courageous men from the Gadites came over to David in the stronghold in the wilderness, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and who were swift as gazelles on the mountains. ‡

<sup>14</sup> These from the sons (descendants) of Gad were captains of the army; he who was least was equal to a hundred, and the greatest was equal to a thousand.

<sup>15</sup> These are the men who crossed over the Jordan in the first month when it had overflowed all its banks and they put to flight all those in the valleys, east and west. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then some of the men of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.

<sup>17</sup> David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come peacefully to me to help me, my heart shall be united with you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no violence or wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look on [what you are doing] and punish [you].”

<sup>18</sup> Then the [Holy] Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and he said, ‡

“We are yours, O David,
And with you, O son of Jesse!
Peace, peace be to you,
And peace be to him who helps you;
For your God helps you.”

Then David accepted and received them and made them officers of his troops.

<sup>19</sup> Some [of the men] of Manasseh also defected to David when he came with the Philistines to go to battle against Saul. But David’s men did not [actually] assist the Philistines, for the lords (governors) of the Philistines after consultation sent him away, saying, “At the cost of our heads he may defect to his master Saul.”  [1 Sam 29:2–9.] ‡

<sup>21</sup> They helped David against the band of raiders, for they were all courageous men, and [all seven] became commanders in his army. ‡

<sup>22</sup> For day by day men kept coming to David to help him, until there was a great army, like the army of God.

Supporters Gathered at Hebron

<sup>24</sup> Those of the tribe of Judah who carried shield and spear were 6,800, armed for war;

3,700,

<sup>31</sup> Of the half-tribe of Manasseh, 18,000, who were designated by name to come and make David king.

<sup>32</sup> Of the tribe of Issachar, men who understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do, two hundred chiefs; and all their relatives were at their command; ‡

<sup>33</sup> of the tribe of Zebulun, there were 50,000 in military service who could draw up in battle formation with all kinds of weapons of war and helped David, men with an undivided heart.

<sup>34</sup> Of the tribe of Naphtali, there were 1,000 captains, and with them 37,000 [of the rank and file armed] with shield and spear.

<sup>36</sup> Of the tribe of Asher, 40,000 men in military service, able to draw up in battle formation.

<sup>37</sup> From the other side [east] of the Jordan River , of [the tribes of] Reuben and Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, 120,000 men, armed with all kinds of weapons of war for the battle.

<sup>38</sup> All these, being men of war arrayed in battle formation, came to Hebron with a perfect (committed) heart to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were also of one mind to make David king.

<sup>39</sup> They were there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their relatives had prepared for them.

<sup>40</sup> Also those who were [living] near them [from] as far as [the tribes of] Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen, abundant supplies of flour, cakes of figs and raisins, wine, [olive] oil, oxen, and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

1 Chronicles 13

Peril in Transporting the Ark

<sup>1</sup> DAVID CONSULTED with the captains of the thousands and the hundreds, even with every leader.

<sup>2</sup> David said to all the assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is from the LORD our God, let us send word everywhere to our fellow countrymen who remain in all the land of Israel, and to the priests and Levites who are with them in their cities with pasture lands, so that they may meet with us; ‡

<sup>3</sup>-and let us bring back the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it during the days of Saul.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then all the assembly agreed to do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

<sup>5</sup>-So David gathered all Israel together, from the Shihor [watercourse] of Egypt, to the entrance of Hamath [in the north], to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim. ‡

<sup>6</sup>-David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD who sits enthroned above the cherubim, the ark which is called by His name. ‡

<sup>9</sup>-When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to hold and steady the ark, for the oxen [that were drawing the cart] nearly overturned it.

<sup>10</sup> The anger of the LORD burned against Uzza, and He struck him down because he touched the ark; and there he died before God.  [Num 4:15 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup>-David became angry because of the LORD’s outburst against Uzza; so that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

<sup>12</sup> David was afraid of God that day, and he said, “How can I bring the ark of God home with me?”

<sup>13</sup> So David did not bring the ark with him to the City of David, but took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.  [Josh 21:20 , 24 ; 1 Chr 15:24 ]

<sup>14</sup> So the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; and the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that he had. ‡

David's Family Enlarged

<sup>2</sup> And David understood that the LORD had established and confirmed him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Then David took more wives at Jerusalem, and he became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>7</sup> Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

Philistines Defeated

<sup>8</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they all went up in search of David; and he heard about it and went out against them. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the Valley of Rephaim. ‡

<sup>10</sup> So David inquired of God, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will You hand them over to me?” Then the LORD said to him, “Go up, and I will hand them over to you.”

<sup>11</sup> So Israel came up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated the Philistines there. Then David said, “God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like the breakthrough of waters.” Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.

<sup>12</sup> The Philistines abandoned their gods (idols) there; so David gave a command and they were burned in a fire [as the Law of Moses required]. [Deut 7:5]

<sup>15</sup> “It shall be when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the Philistine army.”

<sup>16</sup> So David did just as God had commanded him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer.

<sup>17</sup> Then David's fame spread into all the lands; and the LORD caused all nations to fear him. ‡

1 Chronicles 15

Plans to Move the Ark to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> DAVID BUILT houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then David said, “No one is to carry the ark of God except the Levites; for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of God and to minister to Him forever.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to the place which he had prepared for it. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites—Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, <sup>12</sup> and he said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites; consecrate yourselves, both you and your relatives, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it.

<sup>13</sup> “Because you did not [carry it as God directed] the first time, the LORD our God made an [angry] outburst against us, for we did not seek Him in accordance with the ordinance.”  [Num 1:50; 1 Chr 13:7–10 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> So the priests and the Levites consecrated (dedicated) themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> The Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles, as Moses commanded in accordance with the word of the LORD. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then David told the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their relatives as the singers, with instruments of music—harps, lyres, and cymbals—to play loudly and to raise sounds of joy [with their voices].

<sup>17</sup> So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and from his relatives, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and from the sons of Merari their relatives, Ethan the son of Kushahiah,‡

<sup>19</sup> So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were appointed to sound aloud the bronze cymbals;

<sup>21</sup> and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah were to lead with lyres set to Sheminith [that is, the eighth string, a low pitch].

<sup>22</sup> Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was in charge of the singing; he gave instruction in singing because he was skilled.

<sup>26</sup> Because God was helping the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD [to do it carefully and safely], they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

<sup>27</sup> David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who carried the ark, and the singers and Chenaniah, director of the music of the singers. David also wore an ephod (a priestly upper garment) of linen.

<sup>29</sup> It happened that as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, Michal [David's wife] the daughter of Saul, looking down through a window, saw King David leaping and dancing [in celebration]; and she despised him in her heart.‡

1 Chronicles 16

A Tent for the Ark

<sup>1</sup> SO THEY brought the ark of God and set it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. ‡

<sup>2</sup> When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> He distributed to everyone in Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a raisin cake.

<sup>4</sup> He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD and to profess [God's name] and to thank and praise the LORD, the God of Israel: ‡

<sup>5</sup> Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, then Jeiel (Jaaziel), Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel with musical instruments, harps and lyres; also Asaph played loud-sounding cymbals;

<sup>6</sup> and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests blew trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>7</sup> Then on that day David first entrusted to Asaph and his relatives to give thanks to the LORD [as their chief task]. ‡

Psalm of Thanksgiving

<sup>8</sup> O give thanks to the LORD, call on His name; ‡
Make His deeds known among the peoples.

<sup>9</sup> Sing to Him, sing praises to Him;
Speak of all His wonders.

<sup>10</sup> Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

<sup>11</sup> Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face continually [longing to be in His presence].

<sup>12</sup> Remember [with gratitude] His marvelous deeds which He has done,
His miracles and the judgments from His mouth,

<sup>13</sup> O seed of Israel His servant,

Children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

<sup>14</sup> He is the LORD our God;

His judgments are in all the earth.

<sup>15</sup> Be mindful of His covenant forever,

The promise which He commanded and established to a thousand generations,

<sup>16</sup> The covenant which He made with Abraham, ‡

And His oath (sworn promise) to Isaac.

<sup>17</sup> He confirmed it as a statute to Jacob,

And to Israel as an everlasting covenant,  [Gen 35:11, 12 ]

<sup>18</sup> Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan,

As the portion of your possession and inheritance.”

<sup>19</sup> When you were few in number, ‡

Even a very few, and strangers in it,

<sup>20</sup> When they wandered from nation to nation,

And from one kingdom to another people,

<sup>21</sup> He allowed no man to oppress or exploit them, ‡

And, He reproved and punished kings for their sakes, saying , [

Gen 12:17; 20:3; Ex 7:15–18 ]

<sup>22</sup> “Do not touch My anointed ones, ‡

And do My prophets no harm.”  [Gen 20:7 ]

<sup>23</sup> Sing to the LORD, all the earth; ‡

Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.

<sup>24</sup> Declare His glory among the nations,

His marvelous works among all peoples.

<sup>25</sup> For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;

He is also to be feared [with awe-filled reverence] above all gods.

<sup>26</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are [lifeless] idols, ‡

But the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>27</sup> Splendor and majesty are [found] in His presence;

Strength and joy are [found] in His place (sanctuary).

<sup>28</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, Ascribe to the LORD glory and honor and strength.

<sup>29</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory and honor due His name;

Bring an offering [of thanksgiving], and come before Him;

Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness.

<sup>30</sup> Tremble [reverently] before Him, all the earth;
The world is firmly established, it will not be moved.
<sup>31</sup> Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
And let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns.”
<sup>32</sup> Let the sea roar, and all the things that fill it;
Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.
33 Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD;
For He comes to judge and govern the earth.
<sup>34</sup> O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; ‡
For His lovingkindness endures forever.
<sup>35</sup> Then say, “Save us, O God of our salvation; ‡
Gather us together and rescue us from the nations,
That we may give thanks to Your holy name,
And glory in Your praise.”
<sup>36</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, ‡
Forever and ever.

And all the people said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD.

Worship before the Ark

<sup>37</sup> So David left Asaph and his relatives there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark continually, as each day's work required;

38 and Obed-edom with his sixty-eight relatives; also Obed-edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, were to be gatekeepers.

39 David left Zadok the priest and his relatives the priests before the dwelling place (tabernacle) of the LORD in the high place which was at Gibeon, [1 Chr 21:29] ‡

<sup>40</sup> to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering continually, morning and evening, in accordance with all that is written in the Law of the LORD, which He commanded Israel. ‡

41 With them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen and designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, for His lovingkindness endures forever. ‡

42 With them were Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who were to sound aloud, and instruments for [accompanying] the songs of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were to be at the gate.

<sup>43</sup> Then all the people departed, each to his house, and David returned [home] to bless his household. ‡

1 Chronicles 17

God's Covenant with David

<sup>1</sup> AS DAVID sat in his house (palace), he said to Nathan the prophet, “Behold, I live in a house of cedars, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.”

<sup>3</sup> But it came about that same night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

<sup>4</sup> “Go and tell David My servant, ‘Thus says the LORD, “You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in;

<sup>5</sup> for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought Israel up [from Egypt] until this day, but I have gone from tent to tent and from one dwelling place to another .

<sup>6</sup> “Wherever I have walked with all Israel, did I say a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built for Me a house of cedar?’ ” ”

<sup>7</sup> “Now, therefore, this is what you shall say to My servant David: ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader over My people Israel.

<sup>8</sup> “I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make your name like the name of the great ones of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> “I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place and not be moved again [nor tremble with fear]; and the wicked will not waste (persecute) them anymore, as formerly,

<sup>10</sup> since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. And I will humble and subdue all your enemies.

“ Furthermore, I tell you that the LORD will build you a house (a blessed posterity).

<sup>11</sup> “And it shall come to pass that when your days are completed and you must go to be with your fathers [in death], I will raise up one of your descendants after you, one of your own sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

<sup>12</sup> “He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.  [1 Chr 28:7 ]

<sup>13</sup> “I will be his father and he shall be My son; and I will not take My steadfast love and mercy away from him, as I took it from him (King Saul) who was before you.  [Heb 1:5, 6 ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> “But I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forevermore.” ’ ”  [Is 9:7 ] ‡

<sup>15</sup> According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David’s Prayer in Response

<sup>16</sup> Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD and said, “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house and family that You have brought me this far? ‡

<sup>17</sup> “This was a small thing in Your eyes, O God; but You have spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the standard and estate of a man of high degree (prominence), O LORD God.

<sup>18</sup> “What more can David say to You for the honor granted to Your servant? For You know Your servant.

<sup>19</sup> “O LORD, for Your servant’s sake, and in accordance with Your own heart, You have accomplished all this greatness, to make known all these great things.

<sup>20</sup> “O LORD, there is no one like You, nor is there any God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

<sup>21</sup> “And what one nation on the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make a name for Yourself by great and awesome and terrible things, by driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed out of Egypt?

<sup>22</sup> “You made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and You, LORD, became their God.

<sup>23</sup> “Therefore now, O LORD, let the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house endure forever, and do as You have said.

<sup>24</sup> “Let Your name [and the character that it denotes] endure and be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, yes, a God to Israel; and the house of Your servant David is established before You.’

<sup>25</sup> “For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build for him a house (descendants); therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You.

<sup>26</sup> “And now, O LORD, You are God, and you have spoken and promised this good thing to Your servant.

<sup>27</sup> “Therefore may it please You to bless the house (descendants) of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for what You bless, O LORD, is blessed forever.”

1 Chronicles 18

David’s Kingdom Strengthened

<sup>1</sup> AFTER THIS it came about that David defeated and subdued the Philistines, and he took Gath and its villages out of the hand of the Philistines. ‡

<sup>3</sup> David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion to the Euphrates River.

<sup>5</sup> When the Arameans (Syrians) of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 of the Arameans.

<sup>6</sup> Then David put military outposts among the Arameans in Damascus; and the Arameans became David’s servants and brought tribute. Thus the LORD helped David wherever he went.

<sup>7</sup> David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> Likewise from Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a very large amount of bronze, with which Solomon later made the bronze

Sea (large basin), the pillars, and the utensils of bronze.  [1 Kin 7:13–47 ; 2 Chr 4:2–18. ] ‡

<sup>9</sup> When Tou king of Hamath heard how David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, <sup>10</sup> he sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless (congratulate) him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and had defeated him; for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou. And Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

<sup>11</sup> King David also dedicated these to the LORD [setting them apart for sacred use], with the silver and the gold which he brought from all the nations: from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and from Amalek.

<sup>12</sup> Also Abishai the son of Zeruiah [David's half sister] defeated 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. ‡

<sup>14</sup> So David reigned over all Israel and administered justice and righteousness for all his people.

<sup>15</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah was in command of the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder;

<sup>16</sup> Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests, and Shavsha was secretary (state scribe);

<sup>17</sup> and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was in charge of the Cherethites and the Pelethites [David's bodyguards], and the sons of David were chiefs at the king's side. ‡

David's Messengers Abused

<sup>2</sup> David said, "I will be kind (gracious) to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father was kind to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning [the death of] his father. And the servants of David came to the land of the Ammonites to comfort Hanun.

<sup>3</sup> But the leaders of the Ammonites said to Hanun, "Do you think that David has sent people to console and comfort you because he honors your father? Have his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?”

<sup>4</sup> Therefore Hanun took David’s servants, shaved them [cutting off half their beards], and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their buttocks, and sent them away [in humiliation].

<sup>5</sup> When David was told how the men were treated, he sent messengers to meet them, for they were very humiliated and ashamed [to return]. So the king said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow [back], and then return.”

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites saw that they had made themselves hateful to David, Hanun and his people sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, Aram-maacah, and Zobah. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So they hired for themselves 32,000 chariots and the king of Maacah and his troops, who came and camped before Medeba. And the Ammonites gathered together from their cities and came to battle.

<sup>8</sup> When David heard about it, he sent Joab and all the army of courageous men.

<sup>9</sup> The Ammonites came out and lined up in battle formation at the entrance of the city [Medeba], while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

Ammon and Aram Defeated

<sup>10</sup> Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him in the front and in the rear, he chose warriors from all the choice men of Israel and put them in formation against the Arameans (Syrians).

<sup>11</sup> The rest of the soldiers he placed in the hand of Abishai his brother, and they lined up against the Ammonites.

<sup>12</sup> He said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will help you.

<sup>13</sup> “Be strong and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what is good in His sight.”

<sup>14</sup> So Joab and the people who were with him approached the Arameans for battle, and they fled before him.

<sup>15</sup> When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans fled, they also fled before Abishai, Joab's brother, and entered the city [Medeba]. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> When the Arameans (Syrians) saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the [Euphrates] River, with Shopach the commander of the army of Hadadezer leading them.

<sup>17</sup> When this was told to David, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan, and came upon them and drew up in formation against them. So when David drew up in battle array against the Arameans, they fought against him.

<sup>18</sup> But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed of the Arameans 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers, and put to death Shopach the commander of the army.

<sup>19</sup> When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to and served him. And the Arameans (Syrians) were not willing to help the Ammonites anymore.

1 Chronicles 20

War with Philistine Giants

<sup>1</sup> THEN IT happened at the end of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, Joab led out the army and ravaged and devastated the land of the Ammonites, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem [with Bathsheba]. Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it. [2 Sam 12:24–29] ‡

<sup>2</sup> David took the crown of their king from his head and found that it weighed a talent of gold and that there was a precious stone in it; so it was set on David's head. He also brought a very great amount of spoil (plunder) out of the city [of Rabbah]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> He brought out the people who were in it, and put them [to work] with saws, iron picks, and axes. David dealt in this way with all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> Now it came about after this that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the giants, and they were subdued. ‡

<sup>5</sup> There was war again with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

<sup>6</sup> Again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot; and he also was descended from the giants. ‡

<sup>7</sup>-When he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

<sup>8</sup>-These were descended from the giants in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1 Chronicles 21

Census Brings Pestilence

<sup>2</sup>-So David said to Joab and the leaders of the people, “Go, count Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring me their total, so that I may know it.” ‡

<sup>3</sup>-Joab said, “May the LORD add to His people a hundred times as many as they are! But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this? Why will he bring guilt on Israel?”

<sup>4</sup> But the king's word prevailed over Joab. So Joab left and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Then Joab gave the total of the census of the people to David. And all Israel were 1,100,000 men who drew the sword; and in Judah 470,000 men who drew the sword.

<sup>6</sup> But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, because the king's order was detestable to Joab. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Now God was displeased with this act [of arrogance and pride], and He struck Israel.

<sup>8</sup> Then David said to God, “I have sinned greatly because I have done this thing. But now, I beseech You, take away the wickedness and guilt of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Go and tell David, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I offer you three choices; choose for yourself one of them, which I will do to you [as punishment for your sin].” ’ ”

<sup>11</sup> So Gad came to David and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Choose for yourself

<sup>12</sup> either three years of famine, or three months to be swept away before your enemies, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or else three days of the sword of the LORD and plague in the land, and the angel of the LORD bringing destruction throughout all the territory of Israel.’ Now therefore, consider what answer I shall return to Him who sent me.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> David said to Gad, “I am in great distress; please let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for His mercies are very great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and 70,000 men of Israel fell.

<sup>15</sup> God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; and as he was destroying it, the LORD looked, and relented concerning the catastrophe and said to the destroying angel, “It is enough; now remove your hand [of judgment].” And the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then David raised his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, covered in sackcloth, fell on their faces. ‡

<sup>17</sup> David said to God, “Is it not I who commanded the people to be counted? I am the one who has sinned and done evil; but as for these sheep [the people of Israel], what have they done? O LORD my God, please let Your hand be against me and my father’s house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued.”

David’s Altar

<sup>18</sup> Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ‡

<sup>19</sup> So David went up at Gad’s word, which he spoke in the name of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> Now Ornan was threshing wheat, and he turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves.

<sup>21</sup> As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw him, and went out from the threshing floor and bowed down before David with his face to the ground.

<sup>22</sup> Then David said to Ornan, “Give me the site of this threshing floor, so that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. You shall charge me the full price for it, so that the plague may be averted from the people.”

<sup>23</sup> Ornan said to David, “Take it for yourself; and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. See, I will give you the oxen also for burnt offerings and the threshing sledges (heavy wooden platforms) for wood and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all.”

<sup>24</sup> But King David said to Ornan, “No, I will certainly pay the full price; for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering which costs me nothing.”

<sup>26</sup> Then David built an altar to the LORD there and presented burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called on the LORD, and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Then the LORD commanded the [avenging] angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.

<sup>28</sup> At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

<sup>29</sup> For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. ‡

<sup>30</sup> But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was terrified by the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22

David Prepares for Temple Building

<sup>1</sup> THEN DAVID said, “This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel.” ‡

<sup>2</sup> So David gave orders to gather the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, and he assigned stonecutters to hew out stones to build the house of God. ‡

<sup>5</sup> David said, “Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD shall be exceedingly magnificent, famous, and an object of glory and splendor throughout all lands [of the earth]. So now I will make preparations for it.” Therefore, David made ample preparations before his death. ‡

Solomon Charged with the Task

<sup>6</sup> Then he called for Solomon his son and ordered him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> David said to Solomon, “My son, I had intended to build a house for the Name (Presence) of the LORD my God. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house for My Name, because you have shed so much blood on the earth before me. ‡

<sup>9</sup> ‘Behold, a son will be born to you, who will be a man of peace. I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.  [2 Sam 12:24, 25 ] ‡

<sup>10</sup> ‘He shall build a house for My Name (Presence). He shall be My son and I will be his father; and I will establish his royal throne over Israel forever.’ ‡

<sup>11</sup> “Now, my son, may the LORD be with you so that you may be successful and build the house of the LORD your God, just as He has spoken concerning you. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “Only may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God. ‡

<sup>13</sup> “Then you will prosper, if you are careful to observe and fulfill the statutes and ordinances which the LORD commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous, do not fear nor be dismayed. ‡

<sup>14</sup> “Now listen, with great trouble I have prepared and provided for the house of the LORD 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing, for they are great in quantity. I have also prepared and provided timber and stone, and you may add to them. ‡

<sup>15</sup> “Further, you have workmen in abundance: stonemasons and carpenters, and all men who are skillful in every kind of work.

<sup>16</sup> “As for the gold, the silver, the bronze, and the iron, there is no limit. So arise and begin working, and may the LORD be with you.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

<sup>18</sup> “Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest and peace on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people. ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Now set your heart and your soul to seek (inquire of, require as your vital necessity) the LORD your God. Arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles and utensils of God into the house built for the Name (Presence) of the LORD.” ‡

Solomon Reigns

<sup>2</sup> And he assembled together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and Levites.

Offices of the Levites

<sup>3</sup> The Levites thirty years old and upward were counted, and their number man by man was 38,000. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Of these 24,000 were to oversee and inspect the work of the house of the LORD and 6,000 were to be administrators and judges, ‡

<sup>5</sup> and 4,000 were gatekeepers, and 4,000 [musicians] were to praise the LORD with the instruments which David made for giving praise. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And David organized them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ‡

Gershonites

<sup>8</sup> The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the first and Zetham and Joel—three in all.

<sup>9</sup> The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Hziel, and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the fathers’ households of Ladan.

<sup>10</sup> The sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zizah (Zizah), Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei.

<sup>11</sup> Jahath was the first and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons [not enough for a father's house or clan], so they were [counted together] as one father's household, one working group.

Kohathites

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart to consecrate him as most holy, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before the LORD, attend to His service, and to bless [worshippers] in His name forever. ‡

<sup>14</sup> But as for Moses the man of God, his sons were counted among the tribe of Levi. ‡

<sup>17</sup> The son of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chief. Eliezer had no other sons, but Rehabiah's sons were very many [in number]. ‡

Merarites

<sup>22</sup> Eleazar died and had no sons, but daughters only, and their relatives, the sons of Kish, took them as wives. ‡

Duties Revised

<sup>24</sup> These were the Levites by their fathers' households, the heads of the fathers' households of those registered, according to the number of names of the individuals who were the servants of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward. ‡

<sup>25</sup> For David said, "The LORD God of Israel, has given peace and rest to His people, and He dwells in Jerusalem forever. ‡

26“Also, the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its utensils for its service.” ‡

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites from twenty years old and above were counted.

28 For their duty is to assist [the priests] the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD, in [caring for] the courtyards, the chambers, the purifying of all holy things, and any work of the service of the house of God,

29 and with the showbread, and the fine flour for a grain offering, and unleavened wafers, or what is baked in the pan or what is well-mixed, and all measures of volume and size [as the Law of Moses required]. ‡

30 They are to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening,

31 and to offer all burnt sacrifices to the LORD on the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the festivals by number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD. ‡

32 So they shall be responsible for the Tent of Meeting, the Holy Place, and the sons of Aaron their relatives, for the service of the house of the LORD. ‡

1 Chronicles 24

Divisions of Levites

1 THE DIVISIONS of the descendants of Aaron were these: the sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ‡

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no sons; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests. ‡

3 David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their offices for their assigned duties.

4 Since there were more chief men found among the descendants of Eleazar than among the descendants of Ithamar [because of Eli's misfortunes, and Saul's massacre of the priests at Nob], they were divided in this way: sixteen heads of fathers' households of the descendants of Eleazar and eight of the descendants of Ithamar, corresponding to their fathers' households.

5 So they were divided by lot, one group with the other; for they were officers of the sanctuary and officers (high priests) of God, both from the descendants of Eleazar and from the descendants of Ithamar.

6 Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel the scribe, from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the officers, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar [the priest who escaped Saul's massacre at Nob], and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites; one father's household taken for Eleazar and one taken for Ithamar.

<sup>7</sup> The lots fell, the first one to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

<sup>8</sup> the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

<sup>9</sup> the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

<sup>17</sup> the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

<sup>19</sup> These were their offices and positions for their service in the house of the LORD according to the ordinance given to them by their father (ancestor) Aaron, just as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him. ‡

<sup>30</sup> The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' households. ‡

<sup>31</sup> These also cast lots as did their relatives the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites—the head of father's households as well as those of his younger brother.

1 Chronicles 25

Number and Services of Musicians

<sup>1</sup> Moreover, David and the commanders of the army selected for the [temple] service some of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who were to prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. The list of the musicians who performed their service was as follows: ‡

<sup>3</sup> Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with the lyre in thanksgiving and praise to the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> All these [men] were the sons of Heman the king's seer to exalt him in accordance with the words of God; for God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.  [Ps 68:25 ]

<sup>6</sup> All these were under the direction of their father to sing in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the order and direction of the king. ‡

<sup>7</sup> So their number [who led the remainder of the 4,000], with their relatives who were trained in singing to the LORD, all who were skillful, was 288.  [1 Chr 23:5 ]

Divisions of Musicians

<sup>8</sup> The musicians cast lots for their duties, everyone alike, the small (younger) as well as the great (older), the teacher as well as the student. ‡

<sup>9</sup> The first lot for Asaph fell to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, to him, his relatives and his sons, twelve;

<sup>10</sup> the third to Zaccur, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

- <sup>11</sup> the fourth to Izri, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>12</sup> the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>13</sup> the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>14</sup> the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>15</sup> the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>16</sup> the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>17</sup> the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>18</sup> the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>19</sup> the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>20</sup> the thirteenth to Shubael, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>21</sup> the fourteenth to Mattithiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>22</sup> the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>23</sup> the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>24</sup> the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>25</sup> the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>26</sup> the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>27</sup> the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>28</sup> the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>29</sup> the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>30</sup> the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>31</sup> the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his relatives, twelve.

1 Chronicles 26

Divisions of the Gatekeepers

<sup>2</sup> Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

<sup>4</sup> Obed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, <sup>5</sup> Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for God had blessed him.

<sup>6</sup> Also to his son Shemaiah sons were born who ruled over the house of their father, for they were courageous men of ability.

<sup>7</sup> The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers were courageous and able men, Elihu and Semachiah.

<sup>8</sup> All these were sons of Obed-edom [in whose house the ark was kept], they and their sons and relatives, strong and able men for the service—sixty-two from Obed-edom.  [1 Chr 13:13, 14. ]

<sup>10</sup> Also Hosah, one of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first and chief (although he was not the firstborn, his father made him first), ‡

Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; the sons and relatives of Hosah were thirteen in all.

<sup>12</sup> To these divisions of the gatekeepers, the chief men, were given duties, like their relatives, to minister in the house of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> The lot for the east [gates] fell to Shelemiah. They cast lots also for his son Zechariah, a wise counselor, and his lot came out for the north [gates].

<sup>15</sup> To Obed-edom [it came out] for the south [gates], and the storehouse was allotted to his sons.

<sup>16</sup> To Shuppim and Hosah [the lot fell] for the west [gates], by the gate of Shallecheth, on the ascending highway, division by division.

<sup>17</sup> On the east were six Levites, on the north four a day, on the south four a day, and two by two at the storehouse.

<sup>18</sup> At the colonnade on the west side [of the outer court of the temple] there were four at the road and two at the colonnade.

<sup>19</sup> These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the Korahites and the sons of Merari.

Keepers of the Treasure

<sup>20</sup> Of the Levites, Ahijah was in charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the treasuries of the dedicated gifts. ‡

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, namely, the Jehielites, were the heads of the fathers' households, belonging to Ladan the Gershonite.

<sup>22</sup> The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> This Shelomoth and his relatives were in charge of all the treasuries of the dedicated gifts which King David, the heads of the fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and the commanders of the army, had dedicated.

<sup>27</sup> From spoil won in battles they dedicated gifts to maintain and repair the house of the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> Also all that Samuel the seer had dedicated, and Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Zeruiah, everyone who had dedicated anything, this was in the care of Shelomoth and his relatives. ‡

Outside Duties

<sup>29</sup> Of the Izharites: Chenaniah and his sons were appointed to outside duties for Israel, as administrators and judges. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Of the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 capable men, were in charge of the affairs of Israel west of the Jordan, for all the work of the LORD and the service of the king.

<sup>31</sup> Of the Hebronites: Jerijah was the chief (these Hebronites were examined according to their descendants and fathers' households in the fortieth [and final] year of David's reign, and men of courage and ability were found among them at Jazer in Gilead) ‡

<sup>32</sup> and Jerijah's relatives, 2,700 capable men, were heads of fathers' households; and King David made them overseers of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for everything pertaining to God and to the king. ‡

1 Chronicles 27

Commanders of the Army

<sup>1</sup> THIS IS the list of the sons (descendants) of Israel, the heads of fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout the year, each division numbering 24,000:

<sup>2</sup>Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division for the first month; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>3</sup>He was descended from Perez, and was chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month.

<sup>4</sup>Dodai the Ahohite and his division was in charge of the division for the second month, Mikloth was the chief officer; and in his division were 24,000.

<sup>5</sup>The third commander of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, as chief; and in his division were 24,000.

<sup>6</sup>This is the Benaiah who was the mighty man of the thirty and was in charge of the thirty; and Ammizabad his son was over his division. ‡

<sup>7</sup>The fourth, for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>8</sup>The fifth, for the fifth month was the commander Shammuth the Izrahite; and in his division were 24,000.

<sup>9</sup>The sixth, for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>10</sup>The seventh, for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>11</sup>The eighth, for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite of the Zerahites; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>12</sup>The ninth, for the ninth month was Abiezer of Anathoth, a Benjaminite; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>13</sup>The tenth, for the tenth month was Maharai from Netophah of the Zerahites; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>14</sup>The eleventh, for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were 24,000. ‡

<sup>15</sup>The twelfth, for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel; and in his division were 24,000.

Chief Officers of the Tribes

<sup>16</sup>Now in charge of the tribes of Israel [were the following]: chief officer of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;

<sup>20</sup> of the Ephraimites, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

<sup>21</sup> of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

<sup>22</sup> of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> But David did not count those twenty years of age and under, for the LORD had said he would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census but did not finish; and because of this, [God's] wrath came on Israel, and the number was not recorded in the chronicles of King David. ‡

Various Overseers

<sup>25</sup> Azmaveth the son of Adiel was in charge of the king's storerooms; and Jonathan the son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages, and in the towers.

<sup>26</sup> Ezri the son of Chelub was in charge of those who did the work of the field, tilling the soil.

<sup>27</sup> Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards; Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars.

<sup>28</sup> Baal-hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore trees in Shephelah (the lowlands); and Joash was in charge of the stores of [olive] oil.

<sup>29</sup> Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the cattle grazing in Sharon; Shaphat the son of Adlai was in charge of the cattle in the valleys.

<sup>30</sup> Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels; and Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.

<sup>31</sup> Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks. All these were overseers and stewards of the property which belonged to King David.

Counselors

<sup>32</sup> Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor and advisor, a man of understanding and wisdom, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni attended (tutored) the king's sons.  [2 Kin 10:6 ]

<sup>33</sup> Ahithophel was counselor to the king; and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion and friend. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada the son of Benaiah and by Abiathar; and Joab was the commander of the king's army. ‡

David's Address about the Temple

<sup>1</sup> DAVID ASSEMBLED at Jerusalem all the leaders (officials) of Israel, the leaders of the tribes, and the commanders of the divisions that served the king, and the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and livestock of the king and his sons, with the palace officers and the mighty men, and all the brave warriors. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then David the king rose to his feet and said, “Hear me, my brothers [in arms] and my people. I had intended to build a permanent home for the ark of the covenant of the LORD and as a footstool for our God, and I prepared materials for the building. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “But God said to me, ‘You shall not build a house for My Name (Presence), because you are a man of war and have shed blood.’ ‡

<sup>4</sup> “However, the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from all in my father's house to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be the leader; and in the house (tribe) of Judah he chose the house of my father; and among the sons of my father He was pleased to make me king over all Israel. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. ‡

<sup>6</sup> “He said to me, ‘Solomon your son shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be a son to Me, and I will be a father to him. ‡

<sup>7</sup> ‘I will establish his kingdom forever if he loyally and continually obeys My commandments and My ordinances, as is done today.’ ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek after all the commandments of the LORD your God so that you may possess the good land and leave it as an inheritance to your sons after you forever.

<sup>9</sup> “As for you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father [have personal knowledge of Him, be acquainted with, and understand Him; appreciate, heed, and cherish Him] and serve Him with a blameless heart and a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and minds, and understands every intent and inclination of the thoughts. If you seek Him [inquiring for and of Him and requiring Him as your first and vital necessity] He will let you find Him; but if you abandon (turn away from) Him, He will reject you forever.”‡

<sup>11</sup> Then David gave to his son Solomon the plan for the porch of the temple, its buildings, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner rooms, and for the place for the [ark and its] mercy seat;‡

<sup>12</sup> and the plan of all that he had in mind, for the courts of the house of the LORD, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the storerooms of the house of God and for the storerooms for the dedicated gifts and offerings;‡

<sup>13</sup> the plan for the divisions of the priests and the Levites and for all the work of the service in the house of the LORD and for all the utensils for service in the house of the LORD;

<sup>14</sup> for the golden utensils, the weight of gold and silver for all the gold and silver articles for every kind of service;

<sup>15</sup> and the weight of gold for the golden lampstands and their golden lamps, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for the silver lampstands, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps according to the use of each lampstand;

<sup>16</sup> the gold by weight for each table of showbread, and the silver for the tables of silver;

<sup>17</sup> and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold; and for the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl; and for the silver bowls with the weight for each bowl;

<sup>19</sup> “All this,” said David, “the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, all the work and details [to be done] according to this plan.”‡

<sup>20</sup> Then David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and take action; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor abandon you [but will guide you in the construction] until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.”‡

<sup>21</sup> “And see, [you have] the divisions of the priests and Levites for all the service of God’s house, and every willing, skillful man will be with you in all the kinds of work for any kind of service. Also the officers and all the people will be entirely at your command.”‡

1 Chronicles 29

Offerings for the Temple

<sup>1</sup> AND KING David said to all the assembly, “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is still young and inexperienced and the work is great; for the temple is not for man but for the LORD God.”‡

<sup>2</sup> “So with all my ability I have provided for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, silver for the things of silver, bronze for the things of bronze, iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, as well as onyx stones and stones to be inlaid, stones of antimony (a brittle, silvery-white metal) and stones of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones and alabaster in abundance.”‡

<sup>3</sup> “Moreover, because I delight in the house of my God, the [personal] treasure that I have of gold and silver, I give to the house of my God, in addition to all that I have already provided for the holy house:

<sup>4</sup> namely, 3,000 talents of gold from the gold of Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the buildings;‡

<sup>5</sup> gold for the things of gold, silver for the things of silver, that is, for all the work to be done by craftsmen. Now who is willing to consecrate himself today to the LORD?”

<sup>7</sup> and gave for the service of the house of God: 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, and 10,000 talents of silver, and 18,000 talents of bronze, and 100,000 talents of iron.

<sup>8</sup> Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the people rejoiced because they had given willingly, for with a whole and blameless heart they had offered freely to the LORD. King David also rejoiced greatly. ‡

David's Prayer

10 Therefore David blessed the LORD in the sight of all the assembly and said, “Blessed (praised, adored, and thanked) are You, O LORD God of Israel (Jacob) our father, forever and ever.

11 “Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, indeed everything that is in the heavens and on the earth; Yours is the dominion and kingdom, O LORD, and You exalt Yourself as head over all. ‡

12 “Both riches and honor come from You, and You rule over all. In Your hand is power and might; and it is in Your hands to make great and to give strength to everyone. ‡

13 “Now therefore, our God, we thank You, and praise Your glorious name.

14 “But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to offer as generously as this? For all things come from You, and from Your own hand we have given to You.

15 “For we are sojourners before You, and tenants, as all our fathers were; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope [of remaining]. ‡

16 “O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy Name, it is from Your hand, and is all Your own.

17 “I know also, my God, that You test the heart and delight in uprightness and integrity. In the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. So now with joy I have seen Your people who are present here, make their offerings willingly and freely to You. ‡

18 “O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep forever such purposes and thoughts in the minds of Your people, and direct their hearts toward You;

19 and give to my son Solomon a perfect heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to do all [that is necessary] to build the temple [for You], for which I have made provision.” ‡

20 Then David said to all the assembly, “Now bless (praise, thank) the LORD your God.” And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed down and honored the LORD and to the king [as His earthly representative].

Sacrifices

<sup>21</sup> The next day they offered sacrifices and burnt offerings to the LORD: 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs, with their drink offerings (libations) and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

<sup>22</sup> They ate and drank that day before the LORD with great rejoicing. ‡

Solomon Again Made King

They made Solomon the son of David king a second time, and anointed him as ruler for the LORD and Zadok as [high] priest.

<sup>23</sup> Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of David his father; and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

<sup>27</sup> The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ‡

Death of David

<sup>28</sup> He died in a good old age [his seventy-first year], full of days (satisfied), riches and honor. Solomon his son reigned in his place. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Now the acts of King David, from first to last, are written in the chronicles (records) of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the chronicles of Gad the seer,

<sup>30</sup> with [accounts of] all his reign, and his power, and the times and circumstances which came on him, on Israel, and on all the kingdoms of the [surrounding] lands. ‡

Annotations for 1 Chronicles

[1:1 Adam \[his genealogical line\], Seth, Enosh.](#) Including the names of these pre-flood people along with the rest of the genealogical record indicates that the chronicler had no question of their historical identity.

1:18 Eber. Eber was the ancestor of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The name Hebrew, a derivative of Eber's name, was applied to the Israelites.

1:19 the earth was divided. This refers to the division of the earth's population by the scattering of the human race following the judgment of God on the tower of Babel.

1:36 Timna. Timna was Eliphaz's concubine (Ge 36:12 ). Her son Amalek was the founder of the Amalekites, a people that became one of Israel's most persistent enemies (Ex 17:8–16 ; Dt 25:17–19 ; 1Sa 15:1–3 ).

1:38 Seir. Seir was the patriarchal name of the pre-Edomite population in the region east and south of the Dead Sea (Ge 36:20–30 ). Lotan. Lotan was Temna's brother, and Temna was the concubine of Esau's son. This is how the people of Seir and the descendants of Esau were related, and together these two people groups became the kingdom of Edom.

1:43 the kings . . . of Edom. Although the kings of Edom ruled in succession, they were not part of a dynasty. Apparently Edom did not have a capital, and its kings ruled from their own cities.

1:51 chiefs. The word "chiefs" usually referred to military leaders (Ge 36:40–43 ).

2:1–55 Family— The Hebrew nation, descended through Abraham, kept one of the most carefully preserved family records of all time. To be associated with the family of Israel was to be identified with the God of Israel, and the history of this people is closely associated with the things that God taught each of these ancestors. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:10 Nahshon. This genealogy is selective, focusing on the members important to the lineage of David. Nahshon was head of the tribe of Judah at the time of the wilderness march from Sinai to Kadesh Barnea (Nu 1:7 ; 2:3 ; 7:12 ). He was more than five generations removed from Judah.

2:16 sisters. Sisters are not usually mentioned in ancient genealogies. However this genealogy pays particular attention to the family of David, and as his sister's sons were important members of his military units, the sisters are listed.

2:18 Caleb. This Caleb is not the famous companion of Joshua (Nu 13:6 ; Jos 14:6–7 ), who lived several centuries later during the conquest of Canaan.

2:51 father of Bethlehem. The chronicler recorded Caleb's genealogy because of the significance of Bethlehem, the birthplace of King David. One of Caleb's descendants, Salma, was the founder of Bethlehem.

3:1–5 sons of David. The fact that David had six sons by six wives in Hebron does not condone polygamy. David had apparently followed the custom of marrying the daughters of neighboring kings to create allies, in spite of the warning Moses gave for the kings to avoid accumulating many wives (Dt 17:17 ). Jesus refers back to creation when He addresses the concept of single partners for life (Mt 19:1–12 ), so it is clear that even though some polygamy was practiced, it has never been God's plan for marriage.

3:19 Pedaiah. Zerubbabel here is designated as a son of Pedaiah, but elsewhere (Ezr 3:2 ; 8 ; 5:2 ; Neh 12:1 ; Hag 1:12 ; 14 ; 2:2 ; 23 ) as a son of Pedaiah's brother Shealtiel (v. 17 ). It is likely that Shealtiel had died while Zerubbabel was young, and that the youth was raised by his uncle Pedaiah. This relationship may explain Luke's statement that Zerubbabel was "the son of Shealtiel" (Lk 3:27), who was a descendant of David through his son Nathan.

4:1 sons of Judah. The chronicler here refers to other persons and events relative to Judah's genealogy (2:3–17). In the list in this verse Perez is Judah's son, Hezron is his grandson, Carmi his nephew, Hur the grandson of Hezron, and Shobal the grandson of Hur.

4:4 Ephrathah. Ephrathah is the wife of the early Caleb (2:19) and the mother of Hur, whose son Salma was the "father of Bethlehem." The names of Bethlehem and Ephrath are closely connected (Ge 35:19; Ru 4:11), and the birthplace of the anticipated Messiah is called Bethlehem Ephrathah (Mic 5:2).

4:9–10 Providence— This passage does not say why or how Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. At the least, he recognized that God is the source of all blessings, and Jabez asked God to bless him. James said that we have not because we ask not (Jas 4:2–3), and then goes on to address the issue of selfish motives in prayer. Paul encourages believers not to be anxious, but to make our requests to God, with prayer and thanksgiving (Php 4:6). It is clear that it is right to ask God for the things that we believe are good, to thank Him for them, and to keep in mind that we can trust Him to meet all of our needs. Go to Theological Notes Index

4:15 Caleb. This is the Caleb who was the friend and colleague of Joshua (Jos 14:6–7).

4:21 Er. The fact the Shelah named his son "Er" indicates that he followed the levirate custom of raising up a child in the name of a deceased brother (Ge 38:6–11).

4:24 Simeon. The tribe of Simeon had no land allotted to them (Jos 19:1–9) because they were a small tribe. They settled in the territory of Judah.

5:9 entrance into . . . the river Euphrates. The Reubenites had pushed east into the wilderness, so they were the first to be deported by the Assyrians (v. 6).

5:25 Unbelief— In marriage, adultery is the ultimate breach of trust, breaking a solemn promise of faithfulness and commitment. These tribes of Israel acted just like adulterers when they chose idols instead of the living God. Like a prostitute who has chosen crudity, vulgarity, and cheap finery instead of the steady faithful love and fine clothing from her husband, so Israel had believed a lie and abandoned their covenant with the living God. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:26 Tilgath-pilneser. The famous king Tiglath-pilneser, who reigned around 745–727 BC, has gone down in Assyrian annals as one of the most powerful rulers of the neo-Assyrian period (v. 6).

6:1–60 Family— Families are usually marked by certain traits or characteristics. Because the Levites were the designated priests, they had a special responsibility to have a reputation for uprightness and faithfulness, but all Israelites were a representation of God to the nations around them. If we are a part of the family of God, we should ask ourselves if we look like God. When people see us, do they see His characteristics? Go to Theological Notes Index

6:1 Levi. All religious personnel involved in tabernacle or temple ministry had to be members of the tribe of Levi. Aaron himself was a Levite, and from the beginning of the priesthood his descendants were designated as the only ones who could serve as high priests (6:16–25; Ex 28:1).

6:2–4 Kohath. This son of Levi was the one to whom the office of priest became exclusively connected. Every priest had to be a Levite, but not every Levite could become a priest. The high priests were descended from Aaron, Kohath's grandson. Eleazar. Beginning with Eleazar, the genealogy traces the line of high priests through Jehozadak, the priest who went into Babylonian exile with his people (v. 15). Ithamar. Another line of high priests began with Ithamar, including such persons as Eli, Ahimelech, and Abiathar. In the days of David the priestly service was divided between the Eleazar and the Ithamar priests. Solomon rejected the Ithamar priesthood, and accepted only the priests descended from Eleazar (1Ki 2:26–27). From Eleazar to Jehozadak, there were at least 22 high priests in unbroken succession.

6:8 Zadok. This priest, not the same person as the Zadok of verse 12 , was the one selected by David to serve along with Ahimelech the son of Abiathar as high priest (2Sa 8:17 ).

6:14 Jehozadak. The last priest in the list was carried into Babylon (v. 15 ). He was the father of Joshua, the priest who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel to rebuild the temple and reestablish the Jewish community (Hag 1:12 ,14 ).

6:17 Gershom. The purpose of this genealogy is to list the principal offspring of the sons of Levi who were not priests, but servants in the temple.

6:22 Amminidab. Amminidab is another name for Ishar (v. 18 ) who otherwise appears as the father of Korah (6:37-38 ; Ex 6:21 ; Nu 16:1 ).

6:28 Samuel. Samuel's ancestors were described as Ephraimites (1Sa 1:1 ). Although Samuel was an Ephraimite because he lived in a city in the tribal territory of Ephraim, this genealogy makes it clear that he was a Levite. Levites lived in their own cities among all the tribes, because they did not receive a land inheritance. As a Levite, he could be trained under Eli (1Sa 2:11 ), and later officiate at public services that included sacrifices (1Sa 9:13 ; 10:8 ).

6:57 Hebron. The law specified that if a person killed another unintentionally he could find sanctuary in one of six specified cities, and there wait in safety for the trial (Nu 35:6-27 ). No one could take revenge as long as he was in the city of refuge. These six cities were included among the 48 Levitical cities, and Hebron, located in Judah, was one of them.

6:61-7:27 Family— In any family record, some of the names have strong memories associated with them. The reputations may be good or bad, but they are all a part of the family reputation. It is comforting to know that the family that produced Saul, the unfaithful king, is the same line that produced Saul, who became the faithful apostle Paul. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:67 Shechem. Shechem was both a Levitical city and a city of refuge. Shechem was especially significant in Israel. It was the site of Abraham's first altar in Canaan (Ge 12:6-7 ), the place where Jacob bought a piece of land (Ge 33:19 ), and the location of the first capital of the Northern Kingdom (1Ki 12:25 ).

6:76 Kedesh. Kedesh was another of the six cities of refuge. It was the most northern of the three west of the Jordan.

6:78 Bezer. Bezer was also a city of refuge, the farthest south of those east of the Jordan.

6:80 Ramoth in Gilead. Another city of refuge, Ramoth, was directly east of the Jordan. In this way the cities of refuge were distributed throughout the land so that any Israelite could be within a few miles of one of them. All six cities were assigned to the Levites, with Hebron designated for the priests (Dt 17:8-13 ; 19:17-21 ).

7:14 Manasseh . . . Machir. Manasseh was the son of Joseph, and his son was Machir. Machir's daughter became the wife of Judah's grandson Hezron (2:2 ), which joined the two tribes of Judah and Manasseh.

7:15 Zelophehad had [only] daughters. This man had no sons, so Moses made provision for inheritance rights for daughters in such cases (Nu 36:1-9 ).

7:20-21 Tahath . . . Shuthelah. The repetition of these two names illustrates the custom of sons being named for their grandfathers or more remote ancestors.

8:1 Benjamin. The reason for this second and much more detailed genealogy of Benjamin is its focus on the genealogy of King Saul (vv. 29-40 ).

8:9 Mesha. There was a well-known Moabite king named Mesha. Both the Scriptures (2Ki 3:4 ) and the Moabite Stone attest to this fact. The reference here to Mesha as a son of Shaharaim and Hodesh, his Moabite wife (v. 8 ), suggests that the illustrious Moabite king may have had a Benjamite father, but the evidence is not conclusive.

8:28 chief men . . . lived in Jerusalem. This city was not taken by David until approximately 1004 BC, so the line of Benjamin was traced to at least that time. Even after David took the city, there may have been Benjamites who still lived there, for David gave Benjamites positions of responsibility in his government (11:31 ; 12:1–7 ,29 ).

8:30 Kish. Kish was the father of Saul (v. 33 ; 9:39 ). In this passage the relationship between Jeiel and Kish is unclear because Kish is also named as the son of Ner (v. 33 ). However, in 9:35–39 the lineage is clearly traced from Jeiel to Ner to Kish and finally to Saul.

8:32 Jerusalem. Jerusalem remained under Jebusite control until David conquered it (2Sa 5:6–19 ). Perhaps at this time the Benjamites lived among the Jebusites.

8:33 Eshbaal. Eshbaal was evidently Saul's youngest son, since he was not named in the genealogies of the beginning of Saul's reign (1Sa 14:49 ). Usually called Ishbosheth, which means "man of shame," he reigned for a short time after his father's death (2Sa 2:10 ).

9:1 Unfaithfulness— Blatant disobedience always leads to disaster. God is serious about working righteousness in our lives, and He knows the changes that both trials and blessings can bring to our hearts. He will not leave us in a state of lethargy and peace if we need to be ignited. Sometimes He will test us to see if we are serious about walking with Him. Like the Israelites, we need to ask ourselves if we are obedient or compromising. Go to Theological Notes Index

9:2 Israel. The deportation of Israel by the Assyrians from 734 to 722 BC resulted in Israel's dispersion throughout the eastern Mediterranean world. However, it is apparent from this verse that some of them joined their Judean brethren in the return from Babylon after 539 BC.

9:3 Ephraim, and Manasseh. Both of these tribes were from the Northern Kingdom, or Israel. This is another confirmation that the returning community included Israelites as well as Judeans. It is very possible that some of those in the northern tribes, who had remained faithful to the Lord, may have migrated into Judah before Assyria took Israel captive.

9:19 Korah. As descendants of Kohath (Ex 6:18 ), Korah and his line had close connections with the priesthood. They could not be priests, but they ministered closely with the temple, first as carriers of the holy objects (Nu 4:5–15 ), and later as gatekeepers.

10:4 uncircumcised. For the Hebrew, circumcision was a sign of God's promise through Abraham to them. The uncircumcised were those outside the promise, often their enemies. abuse. The abuse of the Philistines might take the form of cutting off Saul's thumbs and big toes, which would leave him disabled and humiliated (Jdg 1:6–7 ). Whatever they did would have been meant to belittle Saul, his kingdom, and his God. was terrified. The armor bearer was not afraid of Saul. He was afraid of God. He was afraid of killing one who had been anointed king over Israel and who belonged to God who had set him apart. sword and fell on it. Suicide was very rare among Hebrews of Old Testament times.

10:10 Dagon. Dagon was worshiped by the Philistines and other peoples in Syria and northwest Mesopotamia as the god of gain. Apparently the Philistines celebrated military victory by bringing a trophy of their success back to their temple where it could be displayed as a tribute to the might of their god.

10:14 the LORD killed him. This statement is shocking in its bluntness. In the final analysis, Saul's death was not by his own hand, but by the hand of God. The Lord let Saul pursue a course that led to death.

11:1–2 Unity— The history of events between the death of Saul and the beginning of David's reign over all Israel is omitted by the chronicler, but is narrated in 2 Samuel 2–4 . The fighting between the house of David and the house of Saul continued until Saul's son Ishbosheth was killed. Israel could not be unified as long as some were trying to be loyal to Saul. God had already rejected Saul and chosen David, but until Saul's house was gone, the people could not focus on God's choice for king. We as believers often find ourselves in a state of disunity because we are mixed up with our own agendas instead of seeing God's plan. Go to Theological Notes Index

11:8 He built the city. Once David occupied Mount Ophel, the original and very small area of Jerusalem, he greatly enlarged it by building retaining walls along the Kidron valley to the east and south and the Tyropoeon valley to the west. Between these walls and the top of the hill he built terraces, so that various buildings could be constructed there.

11:18 poured it out to the LORD. Even though he had been longing for a drink from his “home well,” David never considered sending any of his brave supporters to get it for him. When they risked their lives to bring it to him, David responded by pouring it on the ground, as if it had been a blood offering for God. The Israelites were strictly forbidden to eat blood (Lev 3:17 ; Dt 12:23 ), and David considered this water to be in the same category. Only God should receive such a sacrifice (Ge 35:14 ).

11:23 five cubits. The Egyptian was about seven and a half feet tall.

11:41 Uriah. This is the same Uriah who was the husband of Bathsheba. The fact that Uriah was one of the mighty men of valor, who did so much to establish David as king, makes David’s betrayal of Uriah doubly tragic (2Sa 11 ).

[12:2 Saul’s relatives from \[the tribe off\] Benjamin.](#) There is a curious little play on words here. Benjamin means “son of the right hand.” These Benjamites could shoot and sling with either the right hand or the left hand, which made them particularly versatile in battle. They were more than “sons of the right hand” to David. They were “sons of the left hand” as well.

12:15 in the first month. The first month was Nisan, corresponding approximately to April, the time of spring rains. Ordinarily a person could not cross the Jordan at flood stage, but the fact that the Gadites were not stopped by the floods is a testimony of their unusual courage.

12:28 Zadok. This Zadok was probably the same Zadok who was first appointed by David as priest at Gibeon (16:39 ). The office of priest was not incompatible with that of warrior, as Phinehas showed (Nu 25:6–9 ; Jos 22:13–30 ).

12:32 Wisdom— The men of Issachar were dealing with the issue of “the Lord’s anointed.” There was no longer any question that David was the Lord’s choice, and that Saul had been replaced, but the timing was crucial. It would do no good to anoint David if it took rebellion and treason to place him on the throne. Men who gain power by trickery usually assume that others will be ready to do likewise, and dishonesty and intrigue are not a good foundation for a God-honoring nation. It is sometimes hard to wait for God’s timing, or even hard to tell just what His timing is, but if we ask for wisdom, He will give it to us (Jas 1:5 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

13:3 the ark of our God. This was the ark of the covenant that contained a copy of the Ten Commandments (Ex 25:10–22 ). Besides holding the stone tablets, the ark represented the presence of the living God among the Israelites.

13:5 Commitment— One of David’s first official actions upon becoming king was to bring the ark of God to Jerusalem. The ark had been in Kiriath-jearim since the time it was returned by the Philistines when Samuel was a boy (1Sa 6:20–7:1 ). Moving the ark to Jerusalem was a sign of David’s commitment to place the Lord first in his reign. Go to Theological Notes Index

13:6 the LORD who sits enthroned above the cherubim. On each side of the ark of the covenant were two cherubim. They extended their wings over the cover, also called the mercy seat (Ex 25:17–22 ), and the glory of God was perceived as sitting on top of the ark, as a King sits on a throne. which is called by His name. In Deuteronomy, the presence of God is often spoken of as the presence of His name (Dt 12:1–14 ).

13:9 threshing floor of Chidon. Also called “Nacon’s threshing floor” (2Sa 6:6 ), this hard flat surface was used for separating the grain kernels from the straw and husks.

13:11 Perez-uzza. Perez-uzza means “outbreak against Uzza.” The ark should have been carried on poles by Levites (Nu 4:14–15 ). This direction for transporting the holy things was very clear, and should have been remembered.

14:1–2 Hiram king of Tyre. A powerful ruler of the Phoenician city-state of Tyre, Hiram is mentioned in the Scriptures and in other sources. He was a contemporary of both David and Solomon. He helped build David's house, and he also supplied material for the temple and other building projects in Solomon's reign (1Ki 9:10 ).

14:3 took more wives. See the note for 3:1–5 .

14:4 children. The first four listed here are all sons of Bathsheba (3:5 ).

15:1 place for the ark. The place for the ark was in the tent in the City of David. The original tabernacle built in Moses' day had been placed at Shiloh (Jos 18:1 ). It remained there until the capture of the ark by the Philistines (1Sa 4:1–11 ), when it was evidently moved to Nob, just two miles from Jerusalem (1Sa 21:1–6 ). Then it was moved to a high place at Gibeon (2Ch 1:3 ), about two miles north of Saul's city Gibeath. When David became king he left the Mosaic tabernacle at Gibeon and appointed the priest Zadok to attend to its ministry (16:39 ). Even after he had built a new tabernacle on Mount Zion and brought the ark into it, the original tent remained at Gibeon. Solomon brought the ark from Mount Zion and the tabernacle of Moses from Gibeon and placed them in the new temple he had built on Mount Moriah (2Ch 5:4–5 ).

15:2 No one . . . except the Levites. According to the provisions of the Law, the ark was to be carried only by the Levites, by means of poles inserted through corner rings (Nu 4:14–15 ).

15:11 Zadok. The other line of the priesthood descended from Aaron's son Eleazar, and included Zadok (6:8 ). During David's time representatives of both Ithamar and Eleazar served. Zadok served at the tabernacle at Gibeon, and Abiathar served as chief priest at Jerusalem. When Solomon became king, Abiathar was deposed and Zadok ministered as high priest at the temple (1Ki 2:26–27 , 35 ). The dismissal of Abiathar as priest was in accordance with the Lord's word to Eli because of the unfaithfulness of Eli's sons (1Sa 2:27–36 ). Abiathar. The transition from the rule of Saul to David involved a transition from the old Mosaic tabernacle to the new place David had established on Mount Zion in preparation for the temple (v. 1 ). Abiathar's father, the priest Ahimelech, was in charge of the old tabernacle when it left Shiloh and was moved to Nob (1Sa 21:1 ). Ahimelech was Eli's great-grandson (1Sa 14:3 ; 22:9 ). Eli is considered to have been a descendant of Aaron's son Ithamar.

15:17 Heman. The musician Heman was the grandson of the prophet Samuel (6:33 ). He is probably the same Heman who appears in the superscription of Psalm 88 . Asaph. Asaph was leader of the Gershonite Levites (6:39–43 ). Asaph and his sons ministered primarily as singers (25:1–2 ; 2Ch 20:14 ) and composers, as their superscriptions suggest (Ps 50 ; 73–83 ). Ethan. Ethan was the head of the Merarite division of musicians (6:44 ). He may be the composer of Psalm 89 .

15:20 with harps tuned to Alamoth. The meaning of "alamoth" is uncertain. It may mean a soprano voice, or a high pitch.

15:21 lyres set to Sheminith. The meaning of "sheminith" is uncertain, but it is apparently a musical term, perhaps derived from the Hebrew word for eighth, referring to musical scales.

15:24 Obed-edom. It is likely that Obed-Edom in this verse was the same person who had custody of the ark in the months before it was brought to Jerusalem (13:13–14 ). He apparently was a Levite and certainly a righteous man.

15:29 Michal [David's wife] the daughter of Saul. Michal was David's first wife, whom he married before Saul started pursuing him (1Sa 18:27 ; 19:11–17 ). When David was hiding from Saul, Michal was given in marriage to another (1Sa 25:44 ). One of the conditions of David's peace agreement with Abner was that Michal be returned to him (2Sa 3:13–16 ). The Bible does not say why Michal despised David, but it seems probable that the real source of her attitude was bitterness about her life. If she had no understanding of God's hand in her life and the life of the nation, seeing David's joyful abandonment before the Lord would have been galling.

16:3 He distributed. David's distribution of food was in line with the nature of the peace offerings. Such offerings often accompanied occasions of praise and thanksgiving such as this one. They were unique in that they provided a common meal in which all participated before God—the offerer, his family and friends, and the priests (Lev 7:11–14 ; 28–34 ; Dt 12:17–19 ).

16:4 Levites. The appointment of Levites described here was of a more permanent nature than that of 15:1–24 , which concerned the immediate task of moving the ark into Jerusalem. Some of the same persons were involved, as verses 5 and 6 make clear.

16:7 to give thanks to the LORD . David's musical abilities are well-known, both as a harpist (1Sa 16:18 ) and as the writer of many of the psalms. This psalm consists of three different parts. Each portion correlates with part of another psalm. Verses 8–22 correspond with Psalm 105:1–15 ; verses 23–33 with Psalm 96:1–13 ; and verses 34–36 with Psalm 106:1 ,47–48 .

16:12–16 Obedience— “Remember [with gratitude] His marvelous deeds . . . Be mindful of His covenant forever . . .” and for those of us who are believers, we proclaim “[the fact of] the Lord's death until He comes [again]” (1Co 11:23–26 ). Remembering is connected to obedience, only when we remember His commands can we obey Him. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:22 anointed. In this context “anointed ones” means those set apart for God's service, not necessarily literally anointed with oil.

16:29 The Meaning of Worship— Worship refers to the honor and praise given in thought or deed to a person or thing. The Bible teaches that God alone is worthy of worship (Ps 29:2 ). But it also records accounts of those who worshiped inappropriately: people (Ac 14:8–18 ); false gods (2Ki 10:19 ); images and idols (Isa 2:8 ); heavenly bodies (2Ki 21:3 ); Satan (Rev 13:4 ); and demons (Rev 9:20 ).

True worship involves at least three important elements:

Reverence. This includes the honor and respect directed toward the Lord in thought and feeling. Jesus said that those who worship God must do so “in spirit and truth” (Jn 4:24 ). The term spirit speaks of the personal nature of worship. It is from my person to God's person and involves the intellect, emotions, and will. The word truth speaks of the content of worship. God is pleased when we worship Him, understanding His true character.

Public expression. This was particularly prevalent in the Old Testament because of the sacrificial system. For example, when a believer received a particular blessing for which he wanted to thank God, it was not sufficient to say it privately; he expressed his thanks publicly with a thank-offering (Lev 7:12 ).

Service. The words for worship in both Testaments originally referred to the labor of slaves for the master. Worship especially includes the joyful service which Christians render to Christ their Master. The concept of worship involves much more than church attendance once or twice a week. It involves an entire life of obedience, service, and praise to God. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:33 trees . . . sing. This is a figure of speech called personification, in which inanimate things are spoken of as if they had human characteristics. Because the whole creation was negatively affected by the fall of humanity into sin, it could not be restored to perfection and could not truly rejoice until humanity was redeemed. He comes. When the Lord returns to the earth, all creation will burst out in praise.

16:38 Obed-edom. There are two men by this name in this verse. The first is the Obed-edom whose house sheltered the ark for three months (13:14 ) and who was a doorkeeper (15:24 ). The second was also a gatekeeper, a son of Jeduthun.

16:39 Zadok. Until the temple of Solomon was completed, there were two legitimate places for community worship—the Mosaic tabernacle at Gibeon, and David's tabernacle on Mount Zion. Zadok, a descendant of Eleazar, served at Gibeon, while Abiathar, a descendant of Ithamar, served at Jerusalem (see note for 15:11 ).

16:41 Jeduthun. This was probably another name for the musician Ethan, who is usually named together with Asaph and Heman (15:17 ; 19 ; 6:33 ,39 ,44 ).

16:42 instruments for the songs of God. It is difficult to overemphasize the importance of music in Old Testament worship. The Book of Psalms in itself, and constant references to choral and orchestral ministry demonstrate the significance of music as the people worshiped their Creator (9:33 ; 15:16–24 ; 16:4–6 ; 25:1–31 )

17:1 Nathan the prophet. Nathan was a prophet at the time of both David and Solomon. He was closely connected with both kings, and was trusted as a faithful spokesman of God (2Sa 7:2–3 ; 12:1–15 ; 1Ki 1:8–38 ; 45 ; 2Ch 29:25 ). The “chronicles of Nathan the prophet” provided a source for the composition of the books of Chronicles (29:29 ; 2Ch 9:29 ). a house of cedars. Cedar paneling was too expensive to be used in an ordinary home.

17:9 I will appoint a place. This did not mean that Israel would move to another land, but it was a restating of God’s promise that they were meant to inherit the land (Ge 13:14–17 ; 15:18–21 ; 17:8 ; Ex 3:16–17 ; 6:8 ; Dt 1:8 ; Jos 1:2–5 ).

17:16–18 Thankfulness— As with David, God’s willingness to bless us is not because we are great but because He is good. His purpose is for us to be like Him, and to bless us and establish us forever with Him through Christ (Jn 14 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

17:20 any God except You. This is a clear assertion of the uniqueness of Israel’s God. Statements such as “all gods” and “the gods of the peoples” in David’s song of thanksgiving (16:25–26 ) must be understood in the light of this clear confession that there is only one living God.

18:1 took Gath. This is the only record of David taking a Philistine city, although he had defeated the Philistines many times in battle. Gath was the Philistine city closest to Israelite territory, so it posed the greatest threat to Israel.

18:2 Moab. David’s great-grandmother Ruth was a Moabitess (Ru 4:13–17 ), and David had sent his own family to Moab for protection when he was hiding from Saul (1Sa 22:3–4 ). Yet Moab had been an enemy of Israel (Nu 23 ), and would be again (Eze 25:9 ).

18:11 dedicated these to the LORD . The fact that David dedicated all the spoils of war to God suggests that he viewed the battles as campaigns initiated and led by God. When Solomon built the temple, he brought all the dedicated things into the temple treasures (2Ch 5:1 ).

18:17 Cherethites . . . Pelethites. These were companies of soldiers, probably mercenaries from Philistia (Eze 25:16 ; 1Sa 30:14 ; 2Sa 15:18 ).

19:1 Nahash. Nahash was reigning in Saul’s earliest years (1Sa 11:1 ); the present incident must have occurred early in David’s reign at Jerusalem.

19:3 Slander— The delegation was treated scandalously, and David’s motives were slanderously attacked. Of course there were no grounds for such suspicions. Men who themselves act basely toward their neighbors are most likely to suspect such behavior in others. One of the marks of a godly person is that he does not slander with his tongue (Ps 15:3 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

19:4 shaved . . . cut off. Hebrew men were proud of their beards and scrupulously modest in their attire. The Ammonites had humiliated David’s men in the most offensive way possible.

19:6 1,000 talents. A talent is about 75 pounds.

19:19 became subject to and served him. “Subject to” signifies national subservience to a greater power, in this case, Israel.

20:1 David stayed at Jerusalem. This is the time that David committed adultery with Bathsheba (2Sa 11 ). The chronicler omits this story, not because it is unsavory, but because it has no bearing on his theme. He is showing how the Davidic dynasty was the fulfillment of God’s promises.

20:2 crown. The crown David took was ceremonial and not for wearing, since it weighed about 75 pounds. David put the crown on his head to demonstrate that he had vanquished the Ammonites and now reigned over them as well.

20:7 Shimea. This was David's older brother, the third son of Jesse (2:13 ).

20:8 the giants in Gath. Goliath was from Gath (1Sa 17:4 ).

21:1 Temptation by Satan— The role of Satan as the Christian's opponent is well summed up by the meaning of the name Satan, which means “adversary.” He is also called “the devil,” meaning “accuser.” He can appear as a dragon (Rev 12:3–4 ,9 ) or as a beautifully deceptive “angel of light” (2Co 11:14 ). He stands hatefully opposed to all the work of God and promotes defiance among men (Job 2:4–5 ). When Satan sinned he was expelled from heaven (Lk 10:18 ), although apparently he still had some access to God (Job 2:4–5 ). A multitude of angels joined him in his rebellion and subsequently became the demons mentioned often in the biblical record (Mt 12:24 ; Rev 12:7 ). Although Satan's doom was secured by Jesus' death on the cross (Jn 16:11 ), he will continue to hinder God's program until he and his angels are destroyed (Mt 25:41 ).

The terrifying work of Satan in the unbeliever is described in Scripture as follows: he blinds their minds (2Co 4:4 ); he takes the Word of God from their hearts (Lk 8:12 ); and he controls them (Ac 13:8 ). In regard to Christians, Satan may accuse them (Rev 12:10 ), devour their testimony for Christ (1Pe 5:8–9 ), deceive them (Col 2:8 ), hinder their work (1Th 2:18 ), tempt them to immorality (1Co 7:5 ), and even be used by God to discipline Christians (1Co 5:5 ; 2Co 12:7 ).

The Christian's response to Satan is to recognize his power and deception (2Co 2:11 ; Eph 6:11 ), to adhere steadfastly to the faith (1Pe 5:9 ) to resist him openly (Jas 4:7 ), and not to give him opportunities. In practice, the best way to oppose him is to be a growing Christian. Believers can respond to temptation by Satan with confidence. We know that nothing can separate us from the love of God (Ro 8:38–39 ). Also in light of Satan's tremendous power to blind men to the gospel, Christians must always be aggressively and compassionately witnessing to the lost in order to snatch them from his control. Go to Theological Notes Index

21:2 So David said. Samuel attributed David's impulse to number the people to God Himself (2Sa 24:1 ) while here it is attributed to Satan (v. 1 ). The apparent contradiction can be resolved by recognizing that though Satan is the author of all evil, he cannot exercise his evil intentions apart from the permission of God. Moreover, God could use Satan to accomplish His own purposes of judgment (1Ki 22:19–23 ; Job 1 ) or discipline (as here with David). Go, count. David's plan to take a census was not evil in itself, for the Lord Himself at other times had commanded the Israelites to be counted (Nu 1 ). The problem seems to have been David's presumptuous attitude. He apparently wanted to have a number to look at, instead of remembering that no matter how many or few were the Israelites, their strength was always in the Lord. Beersheba to Dan. This was the traditional way of describing all of Israel from south to north. The distance is about 150 miles.

21:3 bring guilt. Joab's warning was David's chance to repent of his intention to number the people for his own purposes. God does not entice us to evil (Jas 1:13–15 ; 4:7–8 ), and even though God was using Satan in this situation, David was still the one who decided to sin (v. 17 ). God knew what was in David's heart, and either through Joab's rebuke or through David carrying out his sinful thoughts, God intended to deal with David's attitude.

21:9 seer. Gad was a prophet, one who received revelations from the Lord (1Sa 22:5 ).

21:15 Jerusalem to destroy it. When God saw David's repentance and heard his intercessory prayer (v. 17 ), He relented and stopped the destroying angel. God responded to David's heartfelt prayer. One of the most important aspects of intercessory prayer is how it turns the heart of the one praying toward God, and aligns the intercessor with God's attitudes and purposes.

21:24 which costs me nothing. David showed a clear perception of the essence of sacrifice. Every prayer, every sacrifice must come from the heart and labor of the one who offers these things to God. No one can have a relationship with God for or on behalf of someone else.

21:29 tabernacle . . . which Moses made. The Old Testament account does not fully trace the movement of the tabernacle after Shiloh, but it did end up first at Nob and finally at Gibeon (15:1 ).

22:1 This is the house of the LORD God. As long as the ark remained at Kiriath-jearim and the tabernacle of Moses was at Nob and Gibeon, it was impossible for worship to be carried out in the manner originally intended. When the house of God was built, the ark and the altar would be together once again.

22:5 young and inexperienced. Solomon was born about halfway through David's reign. At the time that David began to gather building materials, Solomon was probably not over 18 years old.

22:13 Zeal— David says in Psalm 71 , “O God, You have taught me from my youth, and I still declare your wondrous works” (v. 17 ). Wherever he went, David proclaimed the goodness and majesty of God, and now he saw the temple and the centrality of worship as the pinnacle of his service for God. He could encourage Solomon to proceed with confidence because he knew he was doing God's will. Go to Theological Notes Index

22:18 subdued before the LORD . The conquest of the land began in Joshua's time and was completed under David. It had been a long process, including times of great disobedience and others of great faith. There is an element of submission in this statement, relating both to the Israelites and the land itself.

23:1 his son Solomon king. This phrasing suggests that this is an official appointment, perhaps in the role of coregent with David. It was later ratified by the whole nation (29:22 ).

23:26 no longer need to carry. When the tabernacle was replaced by a permanent building, the role of the Levites changed. This is another aspect of the subdued land. The Israelites were there to stay.

23:30 Praise— This is a beautiful picture of daily praise, thanking the Lord for the day that begins and the day that ends. As believers, we don't need someone else to thank the Lord on our behalf. We need to praise Him. The value of praise is that it lifts our hearts to God's heart. It keeps us thinking about Him and worshiping Him. Life can be almost overwhelming at times, and a habit of praising God lifts our thoughts above our troubles and focuses on who He is and what He has done. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:32 Holy Place. This referred to the outer room of the tabernacle. The Most Holy Place was only approached by the high priest.

24:1 sons of Aaron. (See note after 6:2-4 ; 15:11 .)

24:10 Abijah. This Abijah may be the ancestor of Zacharias, father of John the Baptist, who is named in Luke 1:5 .

24:20-21 sons of Levi. The nonpriestly Levites also were divided by clan to determine their service rotation.

25:1 prophecy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. The role of prophet was not limited to a prediction or proclamation in words. Vocal and instrumental music could be a kind of prophetic message, usually in the form of praise (1Sa 10:5-6 ).

25:2 under the direction of the king. This underscored the leading role that David took in the religious life of the nation.

26:1-32 Duty— Our duties include all of the activities required to fulfill an assigned service. We are not praised for doing these jobs, and sometimes only the Lord sees what we have done. The temple servants knew that their jobs were “for” the Lord, but they were not personally very visible among the hundreds who did similar tasks. From the gatekeepers to the guardians of the treasures, faithfulness was the moral obligation, or duty, of each officer. For us as believers, the moral obligation is the same. We are never off duty. Go to Theological Notes Index

26:14 lot for the east. The east Gate was the most important because it led straight into the main entrance of the temple.

27:1 heads of fathers' households, the commanders. Apparently a professional standing army is being described here, one that was divided into twelve corps.

27:2 Jashobeam. A connection can be made here to the list of David's mighty men, which is also headed by Jashobeam (11:11–12). He was one of "the three," which meant that he was regarded as unusually heroic.

27:4 Dodai. Dodai's son Eleazar was the second of the mighty men included in the first trio along with Jashobeam (11:12).

27:5 Benaiah. As the son of a priest, Benaiah was from the tribe of Levi. In the earlier list of mighty men he was celebrated for killing a lion and a gigantic Egyptian (11:22–23). Because of this kind of courage, he was honored among the thirty mighty men, though he was not one of "the three" (11:24). Later he was named as commander of the entire Israelite army (2Ki 4:4).

27:7 Asahel. David's nephew Asahel (2:15–16) was among the thirty mighty men, but did not achieve a position among "the three" (11:26).

27:11–12 Sibbecai . . . Abiezer. These two men were also members of the elite thirty mighty men. (11:28–29).

27:18 Elihu. This brother of David is usually called Eliab (1Sa 16:6).

27:29 Sharonite. A fertile plain between Israelite and Philistine territory, Sharon was ideal for grazing cattle and sheep. It is appropriate that someone from Sharon, who knew the land and all its seasonal changes, should be in charge of the livestock.

27:30 Ishmaelite. As inhabitants of the desert, the Ishmaelites were at home with the breeding and use of camels.

28:2 footstool. The word "footstool" is a metaphor describing either the ark of the covenant or the tabernacle as the earthly base of God's activity. The words make a little picture of God on His throne in heaven, resting his feet on the earth.

28:4–6 Government of Israel— The government of Israel was under two important headings: the laws, and the leaders. The laws— The "commandments," especially the Ten Commandments, revealed God's holiness and set up a divine standard of righteousness for the people to follow (Ex 20:1–17). The judgments governed the social life of the people (Ex 21). The ordinances included the sacrifices that showed that blood must be shed for the forgiveness of sins (Lev 1–17). The leaders— At first Moses was the primary leader; then he was replaced by Joshua. After Joshua's death the nation was governed for many years by judges who were usually raised up by God to oppose a specific enemy. Finally, at the people's request, God granted them a king, thus establishing the monarchy (1Sa 8:6–17).

Through most of Israel's history four leadership roles can be seen:

The king was the Lord's representative who ruled the people, but only as the Lord's servant. He led in war (1Sa 8:20) and made judicial decisions (2Sa 15:2); but could not make law, since he himself was under the law (Dt 17:14–20).

The priest taught the Lord's laws and officiated at the offering of sacrifices (Lev 1:5).

The prophet was the man of God who spoke for God and gave divine pronouncements for the present or the future.

The wise man produced literary works stressing practical wisdom (Pr 1:1), taught discipline of character to the young (Pr 22:17), and gave counsel to the king (2Sa 16:20). Go to Theological Notes Index

28:6 be a son to Me, and I will be a father to him. This remarkable statement not only shows that the Davidic kings enjoyed unparalleled access to the Lord as his adopted sons (17:3 ; Ps 2:7 ), but it anticipates the absolute sonship of the Son of David, Jesus Christ (Ac 13:33 ; Heb 1:5 ).

28:19 by His hand upon me. The plans for the temple were from God, just as the plans of the tabernacle of Moses were. This was extremely important, for God had stressed the necessity of making the tabernacle exactly according to His instructions (Ex 38:22 ; 39:5–7, 42–43 ). The Israelites would need to know that this permanent building was God's plan, not just David's.

28:20 Be strong and courageous. David's charge to Solomon is very similar to the charge given to Joshua when Moses handed over the leadership of Israel to him (Jos 1:6–9 ).

29:4 Generosity— It is extremely difficult to assign a modern monetary value to ancient goods and services, but we might compare David's gift for the temple to approximately one billion, eight-hundred thousand dollars in gold, and eighty-four million in silver. This kind of personal wealth is astounding, but for David, its value was significant only as provision for the temple for the Lord. He never lost sight of the fact that both honor and riches come from God. They are His to give, His to use, and His to remove. Go to Theological Notes Index

29:7 5,000 talents. This represents about 190 tons of gold. 10,000 darics . This is about 185 pounds of gold. 18,000 talents . This was equivalent to about 675 tons. 100,000 talents . This was approximately 3,750 tons.

29:10 blessed the LORD . David modeled before the people the worship of the living God. He started with praise for God's goodness, greatness, and glory, and then acknowledged his place under the care and blessing of God.

29:14–15 All That We Have— Even though David was king and could accumulate whatever he wanted, he was more conscious of the need to give, particularly to God. How can anyone strive to accumulate, if you know in the long run that none of what you've gathered is really yours? Generosity is the natural outcome of a right perspective on possessions.

Verse 15 points to two other elements that indicate a basis for generosity. David understood where his real home was, namely with God. If a king regards himself as an alien in his own land, how much more should we? Somehow he resisted the temptation to regard the land as his to do with as he wished. He understood the brevity of life. Why spend time accumulating when we can't take it with us? Living with this perspective allows us to be transparent before God. We can be in sync with God because we're keeping nothing from him. What we have has value only as it furthers the kingdom, and God is quite capable of supplying everything we need to be able to live.

It also means we're functioning clearly in the context of the biblical mandate of stewardship. We're here to have dominion (Ge 1:28) but with the end that God is honored by what we do. Go to Theological Notes Index

29:18 God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel. These familiar words identify the Israelites with the promises of God to their forefathers, and to the God of those promises.

29:22 king a second time. This refers to the ratification of Solomon's kingship (see note on 23:1 ).

29:23 throne of the LORD . The position of king may have passed from David to Solomon, but the throne was the Lord's. Eventually Jesus, the Son of David and the Son of God, would sit on that throne and reign forever (Lk 1:32 ).

The Second Book of the Chronicles

- ▶ AUTHOR: The sources of 1 and 2 Chronicles include multiple official and prophetic records. In addition to these, the author-compiler had access to genealogical lists and documents, such as the message and letters of Sennacherib (2Ch 32:10–17 ). It seems likely that Ezra was the author as Jewish tradition suggests.
- ▶ TIMES: c. 991–538 BC
- ▶ KEY VERSE: 2Ch 7:14
- ▶ THEME: Second Chronicles begins with Solomon's reign and ends with the fall of Jerusalem. It covers more extensively the details involved in the building and dedication of the temple. The kings of Judah are detailed down through the last king, Zedekiah, who is exiled to Babylon in 587 BC. It largely ignores what happens in the Northern Kingdom after the split into two nations.

2 Chronicles 1

Solomon Worships at Gibeon

<sup>1</sup> SOLOMON THE son of David established himself securely over his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' (ancestors') households. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then Solomon and all the assembly went to the high place at Gibeon [to offer sacrifices, where the Canaanites had habitually worshiped], for God's Tent of Meeting was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Now the bronze altar, which Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there before the tabernacle of the LORD, and Solomon and the assembly sought it out. ‡

<sup>7</sup> That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask what I shall give to you.” ‡

Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom

<sup>8</sup> Then Solomon said to God, “You have shown great lovingkindness and mercy to my father David, and have made me king in his place. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “Now, O LORD God, Your promise to my father David is fulfilled, for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Give me wisdom and knowledge, so that I may go out and come in [performing my duties] before this people, for [otherwise] who can rule and administer justice to this great people of Yours?” ‡

<sup>11</sup> God replied to Solomon, “Because this was in your heart and you did not ask for riches, possessions or honor and personal glory, or the life of those who hate you, nor have you even asked for long life, but you have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself so that you may rule and administer justice to My people over whom I have made you king.‡

<sup>12</sup> wisdom and knowledge have been granted you. I will also give you riches, possessions, and honor, such as none of the kings who were before you has possessed nor will those who will come after you.”‡

<sup>13</sup> So Solomon went from the high place at Gibeon, from the Tent of Meeting, to Jerusalem. And he reigned over Israel.

Solomon’s Wealth

<sup>15</sup> The king made silver and gold as plentiful and common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar as plentiful as the sycamore-fig trees in the lowland.‡

<sup>17</sup> And they imported chariots from Egypt for 600 shekels of silver apiece, and horses for 150 apiece; and in the same way they exported horses to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Arameans (Syrians).

2 Chronicles 2

Solomon Will Build a Temple and Palace

<sup>2</sup> So Solomon assigned 70,000 men to carry loads, 80,000 men to quarry stone in the mountains, and 3,600 to supervise them.‡

<sup>3</sup> Then Solomon sent word to Hiram king of Tyre, saying, “As you dealt with my father David and sent him cedars to build himself a house in which to live, [please] do the same for me.‡

<sup>4</sup> “Observe, I am about to build a house for the Name of the LORD my God, dedicated to Him, to burn fragrant incense [of sweet spices] before Him, to set out the showbread continually, and to offer burnt offerings morning and evening, on Sabbaths, New Moons, and on the festivals of the LORD our

God, as ordained forever in Israel.‡

5 “The house I am going to build will be great, for our God is greater than all the gods.‡

6 “But who is able to build a house for Him, since the heavens and [even] the highest heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I to build a house for Him, except [as a place] to burn incense before Him?‡

7 “Now send me a man who is skilled to work in gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue fabrics, and who knows how to make engravings, to work with the skilled men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my father David provided.‡

8 “Send me also cedar, cypress, and aljum timber, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon. And indeed my servants will work with your servants‡

9 to prepare for me an abundance of timber, because the house I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

10 “And I will give to your servants who cut timber, 20,000 measures of crushed wheat and 20,000 measures of barley, and 20,000 baths of wine and 20,000 baths of [olive] oil.”‡

Hiram to Assist

11 Then Hiram, king of Tyre replied in a letter sent to Solomon: “Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.”‡

12 Hiram said also, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who will build a house for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.‡

13 “Now I am sending a skilled man, endowed with understanding, Huram-abi,

14 the son of a Danite woman and a Tyrian father. He is trained to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood; in purple, blue, and crimson fabrics, and in fine linen. He is able to make any kind of engraving and to carry out any design given him. He will work with your skilled men and those of my lord, David your father.‡

15 “Now then, let my lord send to his servants the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine of which he has spoken.‡

16 “We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you on rafts by sea to Joppa, so that you may take it up to Jerusalem.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Solomon took a count of all the aliens in the land of Israel, like the census that his father David had taken; and they were found to be 153,600. ‡

<sup>18</sup> He assigned 70,000 of them to carry loads and 80,000 to quarry stone in the mountain, and 3,600 as overseers to make the people work. ‡

2 Chronicles 3

The Temple Construction in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> THEN SOLOMON began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD appeared to his father David, in the place that David had prepared, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. [1 Chr 21:20–22] ‡

<sup>2</sup>-Solomon began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

Dimensions and Materials of the Temple

<sup>3</sup> Now this is the [measurement of the] foundation which Solomon laid for the house of God: the length in cubits—by the old standard of measure—was sixty cubits (90 ft.), and the width was twenty cubits (30 ft.). ‡

<sup>4</sup> The porch in front of the house was as long as the width of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was 120 cubits. He overlaid it inside with pure gold. ‡

<sup>6</sup> And he adorned the house with precious stones; and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

<sup>7</sup> He also overlaid the house [the Holy Place] with gold—the beams, the thresholds, and its walls and its doors; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

<sup>8</sup>-Now he made the room of the Holy of Holies: its length equaling the width of the house was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with 600 talents of fine gold.

<sup>9</sup>-The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

<sup>10</sup> And in the Holy of Holies he made two sculptured cherubim, and overlaid them with gold. ‡

<sup>11</sup> The wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits: one wing of one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, touched the other cherub's wing.

<sup>12</sup> The wing of the other cherub, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house; and its other wing of five cubits touched the wing of the first cherub.

<sup>13</sup>-The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits. The cherubim stood on their feet, their faces toward the Holy Place (the main room).

<sup>14</sup>-He made the veil [between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies] of blue, purple, and crimson colors, and fine linen, and embroidered cherubim on it. ‡

<sup>15</sup>-He also made two pillars for the front of the house, thirty-five cubits high, and the capital on the top of each one was five cubits. ‡

<sup>16</sup> He made chains [like a necklace] in the inner sanctuary and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made a hundred pomegranates and put them on the chains. ‡

<sup>17</sup> He erected the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right, the other on the left, and named the one on the right Jachin (may He establish) and the one on the left Boaz (in Him is strength). ‡

2 Chronicles 4

Furnishings of the Temple

<sup>2</sup>-He also made the Sea [that is, the large basin used for ceremonial washing] of cast metal, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and five cubits in height, and its circumference was thirty cubits. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Under it and entirely encircling it were figures of oxen, ten to a cubit. The oxen were in two rows, cast in one piece. ‡

<sup>4</sup> It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, three facing east; and the Sea was set on top of them and all their hindquarters turned inward.

<sup>5</sup>-It was a handbreadth (the width of the four fingers) thick; its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It could hold 3,000 baths (measures). ‡

6. He also made ten [portable] basins in which to wash, and he put five on the right (south) side and five on the left (north). They would rinse things for the burnt offering in them, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in. ‡

7. And he made ten golden lampstands just as directed and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. ‡

8. He made also ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left side, and he made a hundred [ceremonial] basins of gold. ‡

9. Moreover, he made the courtyard of the priests, and the great courtyard [for the people] and doors for the courtyard, and he overlaid their doors with bronze. ‡

10 He set the Sea on the right side at the southeast corner [of the house]. ‡

11 And Huram also made the pails [for ashes], the shovels, and the basins. So Huram finished the work that he did for King Solomon in the house of God: ‡

12 the two pillars, the bowls, the capitals on top of the two pillars, and the two lattice works to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on top of the pillars, ‡

13 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two lattice works, two rows of pomegranates for each lattice to cover the two bowls of the capitals on the pillars. ‡

14. He also made the stands and he made the basins on the stands; ‡

15 and the one Sea with the twelve oxen under it.

16 The pails, the shovels, and the meat-forks, and all the utensils Huram-abi made of polished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD. ‡

17. The king cast them on the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah. ‡

18 Solomon made all these utensils in such great quantity that the weight of the bronze could not be determined. ‡

19. Solomon also made all the articles that were in the house of God: the golden altar, and the tables for the bread of the Presence (showbread), ‡

20 and the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary (the Holy of Holies) as directed; ‡

21 the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of purest gold; ‡

22. and the snuffers, the basins, the dishes [for incense], and the firepans, of pure gold; and for the entrance of the house (temple), the inner doors for the Holy of Holies and the doors of the Holy Place (main room), were of gold.

2 Chronicles 5

The Ark Is Brought into the Temple

<sup>1</sup> THUS ALL the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. He brought in the things that his father David had dedicated, and he put the silver and the gold and all the utensils in the treasuries of the house of God. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

<sup>5</sup>-The Levitical priests brought up the ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy utensils that were in the Tent.

<sup>6</sup> And King Solomon and all the assembly of Israel who gathered together with him before the ark were sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

<sup>7</sup> Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, to the inner sanctuary of the house, into the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cherubim;

<sup>8</sup> for the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, making a covering above the ark and its carrying poles.

<sup>9</sup>-The poles were so long that the ends of the poles of the ark were visible from the front of the Holy of Holies (inner sanctuary), but were not visible from the outside. They are there to this day.

<sup>10</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets [of the Ten Commandments] which Moses put there at Mount Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, when they came out of Egypt.  [Ex 31:18 ] ‡

The Glory of God Fills the Temple

<sup>11</sup> When the priests came out of the Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves [separating themselves from everything unclean], without regard to their assigned divisions),

12.and all of the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, with their sons and relatives, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres were standing at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests blowing trumpets ‡

13.in unison when the trumpeters and singers were to make themselves heard with one voice praising and thanking the LORD, and when they raised their voices accompanied by the trumpets and cymbals and [other] instruments of music, and when they praised the LORD, saying, “For He is good, for His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever,” then the house of the LORD was filled with a cloud, ‡

14. so that the priests could not remain standing to minister because of the cloud; for the glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the house of God. ‡

2 Chronicles 6

Solomon's Dedication

1 THEN SOLOMON said, ‡

“The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud.

2.“I have built You a lofty house,
A place for You to dwell forever.”

3 Then the king turned around and blessed the entire assembly of Israel, while they were all standing.

4 And he said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled with His hands what He promised, saying,

5 ‘Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city among all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house so that My Name (Presence) might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a leader over My people Israel;

6 but I have chosen Jerusalem that My Name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’ ‡

7 “Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a house for My Name, you did well that it was in your heart.

<sup>9</sup> ‘Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will be born to you, he shall build the house for My Name.’

<sup>10</sup> “Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in place of my father David and I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> “There I have placed the ark [the symbol of His Presence] in which is the covenant of the LORD [the Ten Commandments], which He made with the people (descendants) of Israel.” ‡

Solomon’s Prayer of Dedication

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of the entire assembly of Israel and spread out his hands. ‡

<sup>13</sup> For Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits square and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the courtyard; and he stood on it, and he knelt down on his knees in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven,

<sup>14</sup> and he said, “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no god like You in heaven or on the earth, keeping covenant and showing mercy and lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You [in obedience] with all their heart, ‡

<sup>15</sup> [You] who have kept Your promise to Your servant David, my father, that which You told him; You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is today. ‡

<sup>16</sup> “Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David, my father, that which You promised him, saying, ‘You shall not fail to have a man to sit on the throne of Israel, provided your sons are careful to walk in My law as you, [David,] have walked before Me.’ ‡

<sup>17</sup> “Now then, O LORD, the God of Israel, let Your word which You have spoken to Your servant David be confirmed (verified).

<sup>18</sup> “But will God actually dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built! ‡

<sup>19</sup> “Yet have regard for the prayer of Your servant and for his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant

prays before You,

<sup>20</sup> that Your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, toward the place in which You have said that You would put Your Name (Presence), to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place.

<sup>21</sup> “So listen to the requests of Your servant and Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven; and when You hear, forgive.

<sup>22</sup> “If a man sins against his neighbor, and he is required to take an oath, and he comes and takes the oath before Your altar in this house, <sup>23</sup> then hear from heaven and act and judge Your servants, punishing the wicked by bringing his conduct on his own head, and providing justice to the righteous by giving to him in accordance with his righteousness (innocence).

<sup>24</sup> “If Your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they return to You and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this house, <sup>25</sup> then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers.

<sup>26</sup> “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because Your people have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict and humble them; ‡

<sup>27</sup> then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel, indeed, teach them the good way in which they should walk. And send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup> “If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, if there are [migratory] locusts or grasshoppers, if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities, whatever plague or whatever sickness there is, ‡

<sup>29</sup> then whatever prayer or request is made by any man or all of Your people Israel, each knowing his own suffering and his own pain, and stretching out his hands toward this house,

<sup>30</sup> then hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and forgive, and render to each in accordance with all his ways, whose heart You know; for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men, ‡

<sup>31</sup> so that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways [in obedience to You] as long as they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

<sup>32</sup> “Also in regard to the foreigner who is not from Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty power and Your outstretched arm—when they come and pray toward this house,‡

<sup>33</sup> then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, and fear You [reverently and worshipfully], as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your Name.

<sup>34</sup> “When Your people go out to war against their enemies, by the way that You send them, and they pray to You facing this city [Jerusalem] which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your Name, <sup>35</sup> then hear from heaven their prayer and their request, and maintain their cause and do justice.

<sup>36</sup> “When they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them and hand them over to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to a land far away or near,‡

<sup>37</sup> if they take it to heart in the land where they have been taken captive, and repent and pray to You in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong and have acted wickedly’;

<sup>38</sup> if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, and pray facing their land which You have given to their fathers and toward the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your Name;

<sup>39</sup> then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, their prayer and requests, and maintain their cause and do justice and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

<sup>40</sup> “Now, O my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place.

<sup>41</sup> “Now then arise, O LORD God, [and come] to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength and power. Let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation and let Your godly ones rejoice in [Your] goodness.‡

<sup>42</sup> “O LORD God, do not turn away and reject the face of Your anointed; remember Your lovingkindness and faithfulness to Your servant David.”‡

2 Chronicles 7

The Shekinah Glory

consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the [Shekinah] glory and brilliance of the LORD filled the house. [Lev 9:24] ‡

<sup>2</sup> The priests could not enter the house of the LORD because the glory and brilliance of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. ‡

<sup>3</sup>-When all the people of Israel saw how the fire came down and saw the glory and brilliance of the LORD upon the house, they bowed down on the stone pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and praised the LORD, saying, “For He is good, for His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever.” ‡

Sacrifices Offered

<sup>5</sup> King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. In this way the king and all the people dedicated God's house.

<sup>6</sup> The priests stood at their posts [ready for service], and the Levites also, with the musical instruments of the LORD which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, “For His lovingkindness and mercy endure forever,” whenever David offered praise through their ministry. The priests were opposite the Levites blowing the trumpets and all Israel was standing. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Moreover, Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the house of the LORD, for it was there that he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings because the bronze altar which he had made was not sufficient to hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat [all together]. ‡

The Feast of Dedication

<sup>8</sup>-At that time Solomon observed the feast for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very large assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt. ‡

<sup>9</sup>-On the eighth day they held a celebration, for they had observed the dedication of the altar for seven days, and the feast for seven days.

<sup>10</sup>-And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month Solomon sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and happy in heart because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, to Solomon, and to His people Israel. ‡

God's Promise and Warning

11 And so Solomon finished the house (temple) of the LORD and the palace of the king. He successfully accomplished all that he had planned to do in the house of the LORD and in his palace. ‡

12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon by night and said to him: “I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice. ‡

13 “If I shut up the heavens so that no rain falls, or if I command locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence and plague among My people, ‡

14 and My people, who are called by My Name, humble themselves, and pray and seek (crave, require as a necessity) My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear [them] from heaven, and forgive their sin and heal their land. ‡

15 “Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer offered in this place. ‡

16 “For now I have chosen and sanctified and set apart for My purpose this house that My Name may be here forever, and My eyes and My heart will be here perpetually. ‡

17 “As for you [Solomon], if you will walk before me as your father David walked, and do everything that I have commanded you, and observe My statutes and My ordinances,  [1 Kin 11:1–11 ] ‡

18 then I will establish your royal throne just as I covenanted with your father David, saying, ‘You will not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.’ ‡

19 “But if you [people] turn away and abandon My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and you go and serve other gods and worship them, ‡

20 then I will uproot Israel from My land which I have given them; and I will cast this house, which I have consecrated for My Name, out of My sight, and will make it a proverb and an object of scorn among all nations.  [Jer 24:9 , 10 ]

21 “And as for this house, which was so exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and appalled and say, ‘Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?’ ‡

22 “Then people will say, ‘It is because they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this adversity and evil on them.’ ”

2 Chronicles 8

Solomon's Activities and Accomplishments

<sup>2</sup> that he built and fortified the cities which Huram (Hiram) had given to him, and settled the Israelites there.

<sup>5</sup> He also built upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars [to lock the gates];

<sup>6</sup> and Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his rule.

<sup>8</sup> but were descendants of those who were left in the land, whom the Israelites had not destroyed—Solomon brought them up as forced laborers to this day.

<sup>9</sup> But Solomon did not make slaves of the Israelites for his work; they were men of war, his chief captains, and commanders of his chariots and his horsemen.

<sup>11</sup> Then Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David into the house (palace) he had built for her, for he said, “My wife shall not live in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where the ark of the LORD has entered are holy.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built in front of the porch [of the temple],

<sup>13</sup> a certain number every day, offering them up as Moses commanded for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three annual feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths (Tabernacles). ‡

<sup>14</sup> Now in accordance with the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties of praise and ministering and serving before the priests as every day required, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for David the man of God had so commanded. ‡

<sup>15</sup> And they did not deviate from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites in any respect or in regard to the storehouses or treasuries.

<sup>16</sup> Thus all the work of Solomon was carried out from the day the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

<sup>17</sup> Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Eloth on the shore of the [Red] Sea in the land of Edom. ‡

<sup>18</sup> And Huram (Hiram) sent him, by his servants, ships and servants familiar with the sea; and they went with Solomon's servants to Ophir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to King Solomon. ‡

2 Chronicles 9

Visit of the Queen of Sheba

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THE queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with riddles. She was accompanied by a very large number of attendants, with camels bearing spices (balsam oil) and a large amount of gold and precious stones. And when she came to Solomon, she talked with him about all that was on her mind. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from him which he did not make clear to her.

<sup>3</sup> So when the queen of Sheba saw the [depth of] Solomon's wisdom, and the house which he had built, <sup>4</sup> and the food of his table, the [vast] seating order of his officials, the attendance and service of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, she was breathless.

<sup>5</sup> She said to the king, "The report which I heard in my own land regarding your [accomplishments and your] words and your wisdom was true, <sup>6</sup> but I did not believe the reports until I came and saw it with my own eyes. Behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told to me; you have surpassed the report that I heard.

<sup>7</sup> “Blessed and fortunate are your people, how blessed and fortunate are these servants of yours who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom!

<sup>8</sup> “Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king for the LORD your God; because your God loved Israel, establishing them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness.”

<sup>9</sup> Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, a very large amount of spices (balsam oil) and precious stones; there was no such spice [anywhere] like that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

<sup>10</sup> The servants of Huram and those of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought almug trees and precious stones. ‡

<sup>11</sup> From the almug timber the king made stairways for the house of the LORD and for the king’s palace, and lyres and harps for the singers; none like that was seen before in the land of Judah.

<sup>12</sup> King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all [the things] she desired, whatever she asked, besides a return for what she had brought to the king. So she returned to her own land with her servants.

Solomon’s Wealth and Power

<sup>13</sup> Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents, Trade Under Solomon

<sup>14</sup> besides what the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup> King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold, using six hundred shekels of beaten gold on each large shield.

<sup>16</sup> And he made three hundred [smaller] shields of beaten gold, using three hundred shekels of gold on each shield; and the king put them in the house of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>18</sup> There were six steps to the throne and a golden footstool attached to the throne, and arms on each side of the seat, with two lions standing beside the arms.

<sup>19</sup> Also, twelve lions were standing there, one on each side of the six steps. Nothing like it had ever been made for any [other] kingdom.

<sup>20</sup> All King Solomon’s drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

<sup>21</sup> For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks.

<sup>22</sup> So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom.

<sup>23</sup> And all the kings of the earth were seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put into his heart.

<sup>24</sup> Each man brought his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

<sup>25</sup> Now Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities or with the king at Jerusalem.  [Deut 17:16, 17 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt. ‡

<sup>27</sup> The king made silver in Jerusalem as common as stones, and cedar wood as plentiful as the sycamore-fig trees that are in the lowland. ‡

<sup>28</sup> And they were importing horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all [the other] countries. ‡

<sup>29</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from the first to the last, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? ‡

Death of Solomon

<sup>31</sup> And Solomon slept with his fathers [in death]; he was buried in the city of his father David. Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 10

Rehoboam's Reign of Folly

<sup>1</sup> THEN REHOBOAM went to Shechem, because all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ‡

<sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about the new king (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), Jeroboam returned from Egypt.  [1 Kin 11:26–40 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> And the people sent messengers and summoned him. So when Jeroboam and all Israel came, they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup> “Your father [King Solomon] made our yoke hard (heavy, difficult); so now lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

<sup>5</sup> Rehoboam replied, “Come back to me again in three days.” So the people departed.

<sup>6</sup> Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon [as advisers] while he was alive, asking, “What advice do you give me in answer to these people?”

<sup>7</sup> They answered him, saying, “If you are kind to these people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.”

<sup>8</sup> But the king rejected the advice which the elders gave him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him [as advisers].

<sup>9</sup> He asked them, “What advice do you give to us regarding the answer to these people, who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’? ”

<sup>10</sup> The young men who grew up with him told him, “Tell the people who said to you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us’: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins!’

<sup>11</sup> ‘Now my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, but I will add [more weight] to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions (extremely painful scourges).’ ”

<sup>12</sup> So on the third day Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam just as the king had directed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

<sup>14</sup> He spoke to them in accordance with the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.”

<sup>15</sup> So the king did not listen to the people, for the turn of events was from God that the LORD might fulfill His word, which He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.  [1 Kin 11:29–39 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king did not listen and pay attention to them, the people answered him,

“What portion do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
Every man to your tents, O Israel;
Now, [Rehoboam, descendant of] David, see to your own house.”

So all Israel went to their tents.

<sup>17</sup> But as for the Israelites who lived in Judah’s cities, Rehoboam ruled over them.

<sup>18</sup> Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, and the Israelites stoned him and he died. And King Rehoboam hurried to mount his [royal] chariot to escape to Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> And Israel has rebelled against the house of David to this day. ‡

2 Chronicles 11

Rehoboam Reigns over Judah and Builds Cities

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen warriors to fight against [the ten tribes of] Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, <sup>4</sup> ‘Thus says the LORD: “You shall not go up nor fight against your brothers (countrymen); return, every man to his house, for this thing is from Me.” ’ ” And they listened to and obeyed the words of the LORD and turned back from going against Jeroboam.

Benjamin.

<sup>12</sup> And in each city he put [large] shields and spears, and made them very strong. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

<sup>13</sup> Further, the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with Rehoboam from all their districts.

Jeroboam Appoints False Priests

<sup>15</sup> Jeroboam appointed his own priests for the high places, for the satyrs (goat demons) and calves (idols) which he had made.  [1 Kin 12:28 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> Those from all the tribes of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers. ‡

<sup>17</sup> So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years; for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years. ‡

Rehoboam's Family

<sup>18</sup> Rehoboam took as his wife Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse.

<sup>21</sup> Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter (granddaughter) of Absalom more than all his wives and concubines—for he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and he fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

<sup>23</sup> He acted wisely and distributed some of his sons throughout the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities. He gave them abundant provisions, and he sought many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12

Shishak of Egypt Invades Judah

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THE kingdom of Rehoboam was established and strong, he and all Israel with him abandoned the law of the LORD. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And it came about in King Rehoboam's fifth year, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem ‡

<sup>3</sup> with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. The people who came with him from Egypt were beyond counting—the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, “Thus says the LORD: ‘You have abandoned (turned away from) Me, so I have abandoned you into the hands of Shishak.’ ” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “The LORD is righteous.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, “They have humbled themselves so I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some measure of a remnant [that escapes]; and My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Nevertheless they will become his slaves, so that they may know [the difference between] My service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.” ‡

Plunder Impoverishes Judah

<sup>9</sup> So Shishak king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem; he took the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house (palace). He took everything. He even took the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ‡

<sup>11</sup> And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards came and carried the shields and then brought them back into the guards' room.

<sup>12</sup> When Rehoboam humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and also conditions were good in Judah.

<sup>13</sup> So King Rehoboam established himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city in which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His Name. And his mother was Naamah the Ammonitess. ‡

<sup>14</sup> He did evil because he did not set his heart to seek and worship and honor the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Now the acts of Rehoboam, from the first to the last, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, according to genealogical enrollment? There were wars between Rehoboam [of Judah] and Jeroboam [of Israel] continually. ‡

<sup>16</sup> And Rehoboam slept with his fathers [in death] and was buried in the City of David; and Abijah his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 13

Abijah Succeeds Rehoboam

<sup>2</sup> He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. ‡

And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam [of Israel].

<sup>3</sup> Abijah began the battle with an army of brave soldiers, 400,000 chosen men. Jeroboam drew up in battle formation against him with 800,000 chosen men, valiant men.

Civil War

<sup>4</sup> Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel: ‡

<sup>5</sup>- "Do you not know that the LORD God of Israel, gave rule over Israel forever to David and to his sons by a covenant of salt [a permanent pact, extending to each generation of Israel]?  [Num 18:19 ] ‡

6 “Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord [the king], ‡

7 and worthless (unprincipled, unethical) men gathered around him, useless and wicked men, who proved too strong for Rehoboam the son of Solomon when Rehoboam was young and timid, and could not assert himself against them. ‡

8 “And now you intend to assert yourselves against the kingdom of the LORD which is in the hands of the sons of David, since you are a great multitude and have with you the golden calves (idols) which Jeroboam made for you as gods. ‡

9 “Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of other lands? So whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, even he may become a priest of non-existent gods (idols). ‡

10 “But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not abandoned (turned away from) Him. The sons of Aaron are ministering to the LORD as priests, and the Levites attend to their service.

11 “Every morning and every evening they offer the burnt offerings and the fragrant incense to the LORD; and the showbread is set on the clean table [of pure gold], and the golden lampstand with its lamps is ready to light every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God [that is, the obligation we have to Him], but you have abandoned (turned away from) Him. ‡

12 “Behold, God is with us at our head, and His priests [are here] with their signal trumpets to sound an alarm against you. O sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you cannot succeed.” ‡

13 But Jeroboam had set an ambush to come from the rear, so that Israel was in front of Judah and the ambush was behind them.

14 When [the men of] Judah turned around, they were attacked from both front and rear; so they cried out to the LORD [for help], and the priests blew the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah raised a war cry; and as they shouted, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel [with defeat] before Abijah and Judah. ‡

16 And the sons of Israel fled before Judah, and God handed over the sons of Israel to them.

17 Abijah and his people inflicted on them a great defeat, so that 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell slain.

<sup>18</sup> Thus the sons of Israel were subdued (humbled) at that time, and the sons of Judah prevailed because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers.

<sup>19</sup> Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured [several] cities from him: Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephraim (Ephron), with their villages. ‡

Death of Jeroboam

<sup>20</sup> Jeroboam did not recover strength again during the time of [the reign of] Abijah. And the LORD struck him and he died. ‡

<sup>21</sup> But Abijah became powerful. He took fourteen wives for himself and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

<sup>22</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his sayings, are written in the writing of the prophet Iddo. ‡

2 Chronicles 14

Asa Succeeds Abijah in Judah

<sup>3</sup> He removed the foreign altars and high places and tore down the [pagan] pillars (obelisks, memorial stones), and cut to pieces the Asherim [the symbols of the goddess Asherah]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And he commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers [to inquire of and for Him and seek Him as a vital necessity], and to observe the law [given to Moses] and the commandment.

<sup>5</sup> Asa also removed the [idolatrous] high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah. The kingdom was at rest and undisturbed under his reign.

<sup>6</sup> He built fortified cities in Judah, since the land was at rest, and there was no one at war with him in those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

<sup>7</sup> So he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities and surround them with walls, towers, gates and bars [to secure the doors]. The land is still ours because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him [longing for Him with all our heart] and He has given us peace on every side.” So they built and prospered.

<sup>8</sup> Now Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah, who carried large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, who carried shields and drew bows, all courageous men.

<sup>9</sup> Now Zerah the Ethiopian (Cushite) came out against Judah with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came as far as Mareshah.

<sup>10</sup> Then Asa went out against him, and they drew up in battle formation in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

<sup>11</sup> Asa called out to the LORD his God, saying, “O LORD, there is no one besides You to help in the battle between the powerful and the weak; so help us, O LORD our God, for we trust in and rely on You, and in Your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; let not man prevail against You.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD struck the Ethiopians [with defeat] before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar; and so many Ethiopians fell that none of them were found alive; for they were destroyed before the LORD and His army. And they carried away a very large amount of spoil. ‡

<sup>14</sup> They attacked and destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the dread of the LORD had fallen on them. They plundered all the cities, for there was a large amount of spoil in them. ‡

<sup>15</sup> They also struck down the people [living] in tents who had livestock, and took captive large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15

The Prophet Azariah Warns Asa

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded, ‡

<sup>2</sup> and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: the LORD is with you while you are with Him. If you seek Him [inquiring for and of Him, as your soul’s first necessity], He will let you find Him; but if you abandon (turn away from) Him, He will abandon (turn away from) you. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Now for a long time Israel was without the true God and without a teaching priest, and without [God’s] law. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “But when they were in their trouble and distress they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and [in desperation earnestly] sought Him, and He let them find Him. ‡

<sup>5</sup> “In those times there was no peace for him who went out or for him who came in, for great suffering came on all the inhabitants of the lands.

<sup>6</sup> “Nation was crushed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “But as for you, be strong and do not lose courage, for there is reward for your work.”

Asa’s Reforms

<sup>8</sup> And when Asa heard these words, the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded the prophet, he took courage and removed the repulsive idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. Then he restored the altar [of burnt offering] of the LORD which was in front of the porch [of the temple] of the LORD. ‡

<sup>9</sup> He gathered all Judah and Benjamin and the strangers who were with them out of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to Asa from Israel in large numbers when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. ‡

<sup>10</sup> So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign.

<sup>11</sup> They sacrificed to the LORD on that day from the spoil they had brought —700 oxen and 7,000 sheep. ‡

<sup>12</sup> They entered into a covenant (solemn agreement) to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and soul; ‡

<sup>13</sup> and that whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel, was to be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman. ‡

<sup>15</sup> All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and had sought Him with their whole heart, and He let them find Him. So the LORD gave them rest on every side. ‡ mother, because she had made a repulsive image for [the goddess] Asherah. Asa cut down her idol, crushed it, and burned it at the Brook Kidron. ‡

17 But the high places [of pagan worship] were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless Asa's heart was blameless all his days. ‡

<sup>18</sup> He brought the things that his father [Abijah] had dedicated and those things that he had dedicated into the house of God—silver and gold and utensils.

<sup>19</sup> And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2 Chronicles 16

Asa Wars against Baasha

<sup>2</sup> Then Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and from the king's house, and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Aram (Syria), who lived in Damascus, saying,

<sup>3</sup> “Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I am sending you silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me.”

6 Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building, and with them he fortified Geba and Mizpah.

Asa Imprisons the Prophet

7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, “Because you relied on the king of Aram (Syria) and did not rely on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram (Syria) has escaped out of your hand. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Were not the Ethiopians and Lubim a huge army with a great number of chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the LORD, He placed them in your hand.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> “For the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth so that He may support those whose heart is completely His. You have acted foolishly in this; therefore, from now on you will have wars.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in prison [in the stocks], for he was enraged with him because of this. And at the same time Asa oppressed some of the people. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now the acts of Asa, from the first to the last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ‡

<sup>12</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa developed a disease in his feet. His disease was severe, yet even in his illness he did not seek the LORD, but [relied only on] the physicians. ‡

<sup>14</sup> They buried him in his own tomb which he had cut out for himself in the City of David, and they laid him on a bier which he had filled with various kinds of spices blended by the perfumers' art; and they made a very great fire in his honor. ‡

2 Chronicles 17

Jehoshaphat Succeeds Asa

<sup>2</sup> He placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which his father Asa had captured. ‡

His Good Reign

<sup>3</sup> The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father (ancestor) David. He did not seek [to follow] the Baals [the false gods],

<sup>4</sup> but sought the God of his father, and walked in (obeyed) His commandments, and did not act as Israel did. ‡

<sup>5</sup> Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great wealth and honor. ‡

<sup>8</sup> and with them were the Levites—Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah; and with them the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

<sup>9</sup> They taught in Judah having the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now the dread of the LORD was on all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Some of the Philistines brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat; the Arabians also brought him flocks: 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats. ‡

<sup>12</sup> So Jehoshaphat became greater and greater. He built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

<sup>13</sup> He had large supplies in the cities of Judah, and soldiers, courageous men, in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> This was the number of them by their fathers' (ancestors') households: of Judah, the commanders of thousands, Adnah the commander, and with him 300,000 courageous men;

<sup>15</sup> and next to him was Jehohanan the commander, and with him 280,000;

<sup>16</sup> and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who volunteered for the LORD, and with him 200,000 courageous men; ‡

<sup>17</sup> and of Benjamin: Eliada, a brave man, and with him 200,000 men armed with bow and shield;

<sup>18</sup> and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 armed and ready for military service.

<sup>19</sup> These are the ones who were in the service of the king, besides those he had placed in fortified cities throughout Judah. ‡

2 Chronicles 18

Jehoshaphat Allies with Ahab

<sup>2</sup>- Some years later he went down to [visit] Ahab in Samaria. And Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen for him and the people who were with him, and induced him to go up against Ramoth-gilead. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, “Will you go with me to [fight against] Ramoth-gilead?” He answered, “I am as you are, and my people as your people [your hopes and concerns are ours]; we will be with you in the battle.”

<sup>4</sup> Further, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please inquire first for the word of the LORD.” ‡

<sup>5</sup>- Then the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?” And they said, “Go up, for God will hand it over to the king.”

<sup>6</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no prophet of the LORD still here by whom we may inquire?”

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, for he never prophesies [anything] good for me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla” And Jehoshaphat said, “Let not the king say so [perhaps this time it will be different].”

Ahab's False Prophets Assure Victory

<sup>8</sup> Then the king of Israel called for an officer and said, “Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly.”

<sup>10</sup> Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘With these you shall gore the Arameans (Syrians) until they are destroyed.’ ”

<sup>11</sup>- All the prophets prophesied this, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed; the LORD will hand it over to the king.”

Micaiah Brings Word from God

<sup>12</sup> The messenger who went to call Micaiah said to him, “Listen, the words of the prophets are of one accord, foretelling a favorable outcome for the king. So just let your word be like one of them and speak favorably.”

<sup>13</sup> But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, I will [only] speak what my God says.” ‡

<sup>14</sup> When he came to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?” And he said, “Go up and succeed, for they will be handed over to you.”

<sup>15</sup> Then the king said to him, “How many times must I warn you (make you swear an oath) to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

<sup>16</sup> Then Micaiah said,

“I saw all [the people of] Israel
Scattered on the mountains,
As sheep that have no shepherd;
And the LORD said,
‘These have no master.
Let each one return to his house in peace.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good in regard to me, but [only] evil?”

<sup>19</sup> “Then the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall [defeated] at Ramoth-gilead?’ And one said this and another said that.

<sup>20</sup> “Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’ The LORD said to him, ‘By what means?’ ‡

<sup>21</sup> “He said, ‘I will go out and be a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Then the LORD said, ‘You are to entice him and also succeed. Go and do so.’

<sup>22</sup> “Now, you see, the LORD put a deceptive spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours; and the LORD has [actually] proclaimed disaster against you.” ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came up and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, “Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go [when he departed] from me to speak to you?” ‡

<sup>24</sup> Micaiah said, “Behold, you will see on that day when you go into an inner room [desperately trying] to hide yourself.”

<sup>25</sup> Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son,

<sup>26</sup> and say, ‘Thus says the king: “Put this man in prison and feed him just enough bread and water to survive until I return in peace (safely).”’ ” ‡

<sup>27</sup> But Micaiah said, “If you actually return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he added, “Listen [to what I have said], you people, all of you.”

Ahab’s Defeat and Death

<sup>28</sup> So [Ahab] the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>29</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and will go into battle, but you put on your [royal] robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into the battle.

<sup>30</sup> Now the king of Aram (Syria) had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, “Do not fight with the small or the great, but only with the king of Israel.”

<sup>31</sup> So when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat [of Judah], they said, “It is the king of Israel!” So they turned to fight against him, but Jehoshaphat called out [for God’s help], and the LORD helped him; and God diverted them away from him.

<sup>32</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>33</sup> Then a certain man drew his bow at random and struck [Ahab] the king of Israel between the scales of his armor. So Ahab said to his chariot driver, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, because I am seriously wounded.”

<sup>34</sup> The battle raged that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot in front of the Arameans (Syrians) until the evening, and at sunset he died.

Jehu Rebukes Jehoshaphat

<sup>2</sup> Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the ungodly and love those who hate the LORD and in doing so bring wrath from the LORD on yourself?”‡

<sup>3</sup> “But there are some good things found in you, for you have removed the Asherim (idols) from the land and you have set your heart to seek God [with all your soul’s desire].”‡

<sup>4</sup> So Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Reforms Instituted

<sup>5</sup> He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,

<sup>6</sup> and he said to the judges, “Be careful what you do, for you do not judge for man, but for the LORD who is with you in the matter of judgment.”‡

<sup>7</sup> “So now let the fear (reverent awe) of the LORD be on you [to keep you from making unjust decisions]; be careful in what you do, for there is no injustice with the LORD our God, or partiality, or acceptance of a bribe.”‡

<sup>8</sup> In Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests, and heads of the fathers’ households of Israel to render the judgment of the LORD and to judge disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.‡

<sup>9</sup> Then the king commanded them, “Do this in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and wholeheartedly.”‡

<sup>10</sup> “Whenever any dispute comes to you from your brothers (relatives) who live in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, or between statutes and judgments, you are to warn [and instruct] them so that they may not be guilty before the LORD; otherwise [God’s] wrath will come on you and your brothers. Do this and you will not be guilty.”‡

<sup>11</sup> “Behold, Amariah the chief priest will be over you in all matters of the LORD, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the governor of the house of Judah, in all the king’s matters; and the Levites will serve you as officers. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the upright.”‡

Judah Invaded

<sup>1</sup> NOW IT happened after this that the Moabites and the Ammonites, together with some of the Meunites, came to make war against Jehoshaphat.

<sup>2</sup> Then it was reported to Jehoshaphat, “A great multitude has come against you from beyond the [Dead] Sea, out of Aram (Syria); and behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar (that is, Engedi).” ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then Jehoshaphat was afraid and set himself [determinedly, as his vital need] to seek the LORD; and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. ‡

<sup>4</sup> So [the people of] Judah gathered together to seek help from the LORD; indeed they came from all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD [longing for Him with all their heart].

Jehoshaphat’s Prayer

<sup>5</sup> Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD in front of the new courtyard,

<sup>6</sup> and said, “O LORD, God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven? And do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand, there is no one able to take a stand against You.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> “O our God, did You not drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and give it forever to the descendants of Your friend Abraham?” ‡

<sup>8</sup> “They have lived in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your Name, saying,

<sup>9</sup> ‘If evil comes on us, or the sword of judgment, or plague, or famine, we will stand before this house and before You (for Your Name and Your Presence is in this house) and we will cry out to You in our distress, and You will hear and save us.’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Now behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You would not allow Israel to invade when they came from the land of Egypt (for they turned away from them and did not destroy them),  [Deut 2:9 ] ‡

<sup>11</sup> here they are, rewarding us by coming to drive us out of Your possession which You have given us as an inheritance. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “O our God, will You not judge them? For we are powerless against this great multitude which is coming against us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on You.” ‡

<sup>13</sup> So all Judah stood before the LORD, with their infants, their wives, and their children.

Jahaziel Answers the Prayer

<sup>14</sup> Then in the midst of the assembly the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph. ‡

<sup>15</sup> He said, “Listen carefully, all [you people of] Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat. The LORD says this to you: ‘Be not afraid or dismayed at this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s. ‡

<sup>16</sup> ‘Go down against them tomorrow. Behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the river valley, in front of the Wilderness of Jeruel.

<sup>18</sup> Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping Him. ‡

<sup>19</sup> The Levites, from the sons of the Kohathites and the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

Enemies Destroy Themselves

<sup>20</sup> So they got up early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, O Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe and trust in the LORD your God and you will be established (secure). Believe and trust in His prophets and succeed.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> When he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who sang to the LORD and those who praised Him in their holy (priestly) attire, as they went out before the army and said, “Praise and give thanks to the LORD, for His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever.” ‡

<sup>22</sup> When they began singing and praising, the LORD set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they were struck down [in defeat]. ‡

<sup>23</sup> For the sons of Ammon and Moab [suspecting betrayal] rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, completely destroying them; and when they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

<sup>24</sup> When [the men of] Judah came to the lookout tower of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies lying on the ground, and no one had escaped.

<sup>25</sup> When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found much among them, including equipment, garments, and valuable things which they took for themselves, more than they could carry away; so much that they spent three days gathering the spoil.

Triumphant Return to Jerusalem

<sup>26</sup> Then on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, for it was there that they blessed the LORD. For that reason they named that place “The Valley of Beracah (blessing)” until today.

<sup>27</sup> Then they returned to Jerusalem with joy, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, led by Jehoshaphat, for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies. ‡

<sup>28</sup> They came to Jerusalem with harps, lyres, and trumpets to the house (temple) of the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> And the fear of God came on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel. ‡

<sup>30</sup> So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest on all sides. ‡

<sup>31</sup> Now Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five-years. His mother’s name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ‡

<sup>32</sup> He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not depart from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> Only the high places [for pagan sacrifices] were not removed, for the people had not yet set their hearts firmly on the God of their fathers. ‡

<sup>34</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the records of Jehu the son of Hanani, which are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel. ‡

Alliance Displeases God

<sup>35</sup> After [all] this Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel, and he acted wickedly in doing so. ‡

<sup>36</sup> He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish [for trade], and they built them in Ezion-geber.

<sup>37</sup> Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has broken down what you have built.” So the ships were wrecked and were unable to go to Tarshish. ‡

2 Chronicles 21

Jehoram Succeeds Jehoshaphat in Judah

<sup>2</sup> He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah. All of these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold, and valuable things, in addition to fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

<sup>4</sup> When Jehoram had ascended over the kingdom of his father and made himself secure, he killed all his brothers with the sword [to eliminate any rivals], and some of the leaders of Israel as well.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years of age when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done (for he married the daughter of Ahab), and he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David because of the covenant which He had made with David, and because He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons forever.  [2 Sam 7:12–17; 1 Kin 11:36; Ps 132:17 ] ‡

Revolt against Judah

<sup>9</sup> Then Jehoram crossed over [the Jordan River] with his commanders and all his chariots, and rose up by night and struck down the Edomites who were surrounding him and the commanders of the chariots.

<sup>10</sup> So Edom revolted against the rule of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time against Jehoram's rule, because he had abandoned (turned away from) the LORD God of his fathers.

<sup>11</sup> Moreover, he made [idolatrous] high places in the hill country of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be unfaithful [to God], and he led Judah astray [compelling the people's cooperation]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then a letter came to Jehoram from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of David your father (ancestor): 'Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

<sup>13</sup> but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be unfaithful [to God] as the house of Ahab was unfaithful, and you have also murdered your brothers, your father's house (your own family), who were better than you, ‡

<sup>14</sup> behold, the LORD is going to strike your people, your sons, your wives, and all your possessions with a great disaster;

<sup>15</sup> and you will suffer a severe illness, an intestinal disease, until your intestines come out because of the sickness, day after day.' " ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit (anger) of the Philistines and of the Arabs who bordered the Ethiopians.

<sup>19</sup> Now it came about in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his disease and he died in excruciating pain. And his people did not make a funeral fire to honor him, like the fire for his fathers. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years; and he departed with no one's regret (sorrow). They buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22

Ahaziah Succeeds Jehoram in Judah

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, because the band of men (raiders) who came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons . So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. ‡

<sup>3</sup> He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his adviser [and she encouraged him] to act wickedly.

<sup>4</sup> So he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab, for they were his advisers after the death of his father, resulting in his destruction.

Ahaziah Allies with Jehoram of Israel

<sup>5</sup> He also walked in accordance with their advice, and he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram (Syria) at Ramoth-gilead. And the Arameans wounded Joram (Jehoram).  [2 Kin 8:28ff ] ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they had inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. ‡

<sup>7</sup> But the downfall of Ahaziah was ordained by God, in that he went to Joram (Jehoram). For when he arrived there he went out [as an ally] with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab. ‡

Jehu Murders Leaders of Judah

<sup>8</sup> It came about that when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the leaders of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's [murdered] brothers ministering to Ahaziah, and he killed them. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Jehu also searched for Ahaziah, who was hiding in Samaria; he was captured, brought to Jehu, and put to death. They buried him, for they said, “After all, he is the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart.” So the house of Ahaziah had no one left to retain the power to rule over the kingdom. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose and destroyed all the royal family of the house of Judah. ‡

<sup>11</sup> But Jehoshabeath, the king’s daughter, took Joash the [infant] son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king’s sons who were being put to death, and she placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram [of Judah] and wife of Jehoiada the priest, hid Joash from [his grandmother] Athaliah so that she did not murder him (for Jehoshabeath was the sister of Ahaziah).

<sup>12</sup> Joash was hidden with them in the house (temple) of God for six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23

Jehoiada Sets Joash on the Throne of Judah

<sup>1</sup> IN THE seventh year Jehoiada [the priest] summoned his courage and took the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Johanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, and they entered into a covenant with him. ‡

<sup>2</sup> They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of the households of the fathers (ancestors) in Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Then all the assembly made a covenant in the house of God with the king [that is, with the child Joash, to overthrow Athaliah by proclaiming his sovereignty]. And Jehoiada [the priest] said to them, “Behold, the king’s son [Joash] shall reign, as the LORD has said in regard to the sons of David. ‡

<sup>5</sup> a [second] third shall be at the king’s house (palace), and a [final] third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall be in the courtyards of the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> “But let no one enter the house (temple) of the LORD except the priests and the Levites who minister; they may enter, for they are holy. And let all the people carefully observe the law of the LORD. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “The Levites shall surround the [young] king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the temple [breaking through the ranks of the guard to get near Joash] is to be killed. You are to be with the king when he comes in [from the temple chamber where he is hiding] and when he goes out.”

<sup>8</sup> So the Levites and all Judah acted in accordance with everything that Jehoiada the priest had commanded; and every man took his men who were to resume duty on the Sabbath, with those who were to go off duty on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss [any of] the divisions [from their duties]. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David’s, which were in the house of God.

<sup>11</sup> Then they brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony [a copy of the Mosaic Law] and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, “Long live the king!” [Ex 25:16, 21] ‡

Athaliah Killed

<sup>12</sup> When Athaliah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she went into the house of the LORD to [see what] the people [were doing].

<sup>13</sup> She looked, and there was the [young] king, standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters were beside him. And all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments were directing the [singing of] praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, “Treason! Treason!” ‡

<sup>14</sup> So Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, “Bring her out between the ranks [of soldiers]; and whoever follows her shall be put to death with the sword.” For the priest had said, “Do not let her be put to death in the temple of the LORD.”

Reforms Carried Out

<sup>16</sup> Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people, and the king, that they would be the LORD's people.

<sup>17</sup> Then all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, and they smashed its altars and its images to pieces, and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Also Jehoiada placed the offices and officers of the house of the LORD under the authority of the Levitical priests, whom David had [previously] assigned over the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing in accordance with the order of David. ‡

<sup>20</sup> He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they came through the upper gate to the king's house (palace) and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. ‡

<sup>21</sup> So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been put to death with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24

Young Joash Influenced by Jehoiada

<sup>3</sup> Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he fathered sons and daughters.

Faithless Priests

<sup>4</sup> Now it came about after this that Joash decided to restore the house

(temple) of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> He gathered the priests and the Levites and said to them, “Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God from year to year; and see that you do it quickly.” But the Levites did not act quickly. ‡

<sup>6</sup> So the king called for Jehoiada the high priest and said to him, “Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax for the tent of the testimony which was authorized by Moses, the servant of the LORD and the servant of the assembly of Israel?” ‡

<sup>7</sup> For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God and also had used all the holy and dedicated things of the house of the LORD for the Baals. ‡

Temple Repaired

<sup>8</sup> So at the king’s command they made a chest and set it outside by the gate of the house of the LORD. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then they made a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God imposed on Israel in the wilderness. ‡

<sup>10</sup> All the officers and all the people rejoiced and brought their tax and dropped it into the chest until they had finished [and the chest was full].

<sup>11</sup> It came about that whenever the Levites brought the chest to the king’s official, and whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money, the king’s secretary and the chief priest’s representative would come and empty the chest, and take it, and return it to its place. They did this day after day and collected a large amount of money. ‡

<sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they would hire masons and carpenters (craftsmen) and also those who worked in iron and bronze to repair and restore the house of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> So the workmen labored, and the repair work progressed in their hands; and they restored and organized the house of God in accordance with its specifications and strengthened it.

<sup>14</sup> When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and it was [melted down and] made into utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for ministering and for burnt offerings, and bowls and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Now when Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, he died. He was a hundred and thirty years old at his death.

<sup>16</sup> They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good [things] in Israel and toward God and His house.

<sup>17</sup> Now after the death of Jehoiada [the priest, who had hidden Joash], the officials of Judah came and bowed down to King Joash; then the king listened to them.

<sup>18</sup> They abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols; so [God's] wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for their sin and guilt. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Yet God sent prophets among them to bring them back to the LORD; these prophets testified against them, but they would not listen. ‡

Joash Murders Son of Jehoiada

<sup>20</sup> Then the Spirit of God came over Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, and he stood above the people and said to them, “This is what God has said: ‘Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD so that you cannot prosper? Because you have abandoned (turned away from) the LORD, He has also abandoned (turned away from) you.’ ” ‡

<sup>22</sup> Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, had shown him, but he murdered his son. And when Zechariah was dying, he said, “May the LORD see this and require an accounting!”

Aram Invades and Defeats Judah

<sup>23</sup> Now it happened at the end of the year, that the army of Aram (Syria) went up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders among the people and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus. ‡

<sup>24</sup> Though the army of the Arameans came with a small company of men, the LORD handed over a very large army into their hands, because Joash and Judah had abandoned (turned away from) the LORD, the God of their fathers. So the Arameans executed judgment against Joash. ‡

<sup>25</sup> When they left Joash (for they left him very ill), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they murdered him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings. ‡

<sup>26</sup> The conspirators against Joash were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

<sup>27</sup> Now as to his sons and the many prophecies uttered against him and the rebuilding of the house of God, they are written in the commentary on the Book of Kings. Then his son Amaziah became king in his place. ‡

2 Chronicles 25

Amaziah Succeeds Joash in Judah

<sup>3</sup> When his kingdom was firmly established, he killed his servants who had struck down his father the king. ‡

<sup>4</sup> But he did not kill their children; for he did as it is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "The fathers shall not die for the children, nor the children die for the fathers, but each shall be put to death for his own sin." ‡

Amaziah Defeats Edomites

<sup>7</sup> But a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let this army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel nor with any of the sons of Ephraim.

<sup>8</sup> “But if you do go [in spite of this warning], be strong and courageous for battle; yet God will cause you to stumble and fall before the enemy, for God has power to help and to cause people to stumble.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> Amaziah said to the man of God, “But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I gave to the troops of Israel?” The man of God answered, “The LORD is able to give you much more than this.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> So Amaziah dismissed the troops that came to him from Ephraim, to go home. So their anger was kindled and burned greatly against Judah, and they returned home in the heat of anger.

<sup>11</sup> Now Amaziah took courage and led his people out to the Valley of Salt, and he struck down 10,000 of the men of Seir (Edom). ‡

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Judah also captured 10,000 alive and brought them to the top of the cliff. They threw them down from the top of the cliff and they were all crushed to pieces.

<sup>13</sup> But the troops whom Amaziah sent back, those not allowed to go with him to battle, attacked and raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck down 3,000 men and took a large amount of spoil.

Amaziah Rebuked for Idolatry

<sup>14</sup> After Amaziah came back from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the sons of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, bowed before them, and burned incense to them. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So the anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, “Why have you desired the gods of the people who did not save their own people from your hand?” ‡

<sup>16</sup> As he was talking, the king said to him, “Have we made you the king’s counselor? Stop! Why should you be put to death?” Then the prophet stopped and said, “I know that God has decided to destroy you because you have done this and have ignored my advice.” ‡

Amaziah Defeated by Joash of Israel

<sup>17</sup> Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent word to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come [to battle], let us face each other.”  [2 Kin 14:8–20. ] ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then Joash king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, saying,

“The [little] thorn bush in Lebanon sent word to the [great] cedar in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ But a wild beast in Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thorn bush.

<sup>19</sup>“You say, ‘See, I have struck down and defeated Edom.’ Your heart lifts you up to boast [about your victory]. Now stay at home; why should you meddle and court disaster so that you, even you, will fall and Judah with you?”

<sup>20</sup> But Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God, so that He might hand Judah over to Joash because they had desired the gods of Edom. ‡

<sup>21</sup> So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah.

<sup>22</sup> And Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled, every man to his tent.

<sup>23</sup> Then Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz (Ahaziah), at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, 400 cubits. ‡

<sup>24</sup> He took all the gold and silver and all the utensils which were found in the house of God with [the doorkeeper] Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king’s house (palace), and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

<sup>25</sup> And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from the first to the last, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

<sup>27</sup> Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.

<sup>28</sup> Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of [David in] Judah.

2 Chronicles 26

Uzziah Succeeds Amaziah in Judah

<sup>1</sup> THEN ALL the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechiliah of Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> He did right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father Amaziah had done.

<sup>5</sup> He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the vision of God; and as long as he sought (inquired of, longing for) the LORD, God caused him to prosper. ‡

Uzziah Succeeds in War

<sup>6</sup> He went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke through the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities near Ashdod and [elsewhere] among the Philistines. ‡

<sup>7</sup> God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabs who lived in Gur-baal, and the Meunites. ‡

<sup>10</sup> He also built towers in the wilderness and dug many cisterns, for he had a great deal of livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plain. He also had farmers and vinedressers in the hill country and in the fertile fields, for he loved the soil.

<sup>11</sup> Moreover, Uzziah had an army ready for battle, which went into combat by divisions according to the number of their muster as recorded by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders.

<sup>14</sup> Moreover, Uzziah prepared shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and sling stones for the entire army.

<sup>15</sup> In Jerusalem he made machines of war invented by skillful men to be put on the towers and on the [corner] battlements for the purpose of shooting arrows and large stones. And his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he was strong.

Pride Is Uzziah's Undoing

<sup>16</sup> But when Uzziah became strong, he became so proud [of himself and his accomplishments] that he acted corruptly, and he was unfaithful and sinned against the LORD his God, for he went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.  [Num 3:38. ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Then Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, men of courage. ‡

<sup>18</sup> They opposed King Uzziah and said to him, “It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron who have been consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful and will have no honor from the LORD God.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Then Uzziah, with a censer in his hand to burn incense, was enraged; and while he was enraged with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar. ‡

<sup>20</sup> As Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked toward him, behold, he was leprous on his forehead; and they hurried him out of there, and he also hurried to get out because the LORD had stricken him. ‡

<sup>21</sup> King Uzziah was a leper to the day of his death; and, being a leper, he lived in a separate house, for he was excluded from the house of the LORD. And his son Jotham took charge of the king’s household, judging and governing the people of the land. ‡

Jotham Succeeds Uzziah in Judah

3-He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel.

4 Moreover, he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

5 He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them. As a result the Ammonites gave him during that year a hundred talents of silver and ten thousand measures each of wheat and of barley. The Ammonites also paid him that much in the second year and third year.

6. So Jotham grew powerful, because he directed his ways before the LORD his God.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in the City of David. Ahaz his son became king in his place. ‡

2 Chronicles 28

Ahaz Succeeds Jotham in Judah

1 AHAZ WAS twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do right in the sight of the LORD, as his father (forefather) David had done. ‡

2 Instead he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made cast images for the Baals. ‡

3. And he burned incense in the Valley of Ben-hinnom and burned his sons [as an offering], in accordance with the repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons (descendants) of Israel. ‡

4-He also sacrificed and burned incense on the high places [of pagan worship], on the hills and under every green tree.

Judah Is Invaded

5 Therefore the LORD his God handed over Ahaz to the king of Aram (Syria), who defeated him and led away a great number [of the people] as captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also handed over to the king of Israel, who struck Judah with a great slaughter. ‡

6—For Pekah son of Remaliah killed 120,000 in Judah in one day, all courageous men, because they had abandoned (turned away from) the LORD God of their fathers. ‡

7 And Zichri, a warrior of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king’s son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah, who was second [in power] to the king.

8 And the sons of Israel led away captive 200,000 of their kinsmen [of Judah]—women, sons, and daughters—and they also took a great quantity of spoil from them and brought it to Samaria. ‡

9—But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out to meet the army that was returning to Samaria and said to them, “Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He handed them over to you; but you have killed them in a rage that has reached as far as heaven. ‡

10 “And now you intend to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem as male and female slaves for yourselves. But are you yourselves not guilty of transgressions against the LORD your God? ‡

11 “Now therefore, hear me and return the captives whom you have captured from your brothers (fellow descendants of Israel, i.e. Jacob), for the burning anger of the LORD is against you.” ‡

12 Then some of the heads of the Ephraimites (Israel)—Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai—took a stand against those who were returning from the battle,

13—and said to them, “You must not bring the captives in here; for we are guilty before the LORD already, and what you intend to do will add more to our sins and our guilt. For our guilt is so great that His burning anger is against Israel.”

14 So the armed men [of Israel] left the captives and the spoil [of Judah] before the officers and all the assembly.

15 Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all those who were naked; they clothed them and gave them sandals, and fed them and gave them [something to] drink, anointed them [with oil, as was a host’s duty], and led all the feeble ones on donkeys, and they brought them to Jericho, the City of Palm Trees, to their brothers (fellow descendants of Israel, i.e. Jacob). Then they returned to Samaria.  [Luke 10:25–37 ] ‡

Compromise with Assyria

16. At that time King Ahaz sent word to the king of Assyria [to ask him] for help. ‡

17. For the Edomites had come again and attacked Judah and led away captives.

18. The Philistines had also invaded the cities of the low country and of the Negev (the South country) of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, and Soco with their villages, and also Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages, and they settled there. ‡

19. For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for Ahaz had allowed unrestrained and undisciplined behavior in Judah and had been very unfaithful to the LORD. ‡

20. So Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and harassed him instead of strengthening and supporting him. ‡

21. Although Ahaz took a portion [of treasure] from the house of the LORD and from the house (palace) of the king and from the leaders, and gave it [as tribute] to the king of Assyria, it did not help Ahaz.

22. In the time of his distress, this same King Ahaz became yet more unfaithful to the LORD.

23. For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which had defeated him, and he said, “Since the gods of the kings of Aram (Syria) helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me.” But they became the ruin and downfall of him and all of Israel. ‡

24. Then Ahaz collected the utensils of the house of God and he cut them in pieces; and he shut the doors of the house of the LORD and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem. ‡

25. In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, provoking to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers.

26. Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ‡

27. And Ahaz slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. And his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

Hezekiah Succeeds Ahaz in Judah

<sup>1</sup> HEZEKIAH BECAME king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah. ‡

<sup>3</sup> In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD [which his father had closed] and repaired them [and replaced the gold overlay].  [2 Kin 18:16. ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> He brought in the priests and Levites and gathered them into the square on the east.

Reforms Begun

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, "Levites, listen to me! Now consecrate (dedicate) yourselves and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and get the filth [of idol worship] out of the Holy Place. ‡

<sup>6</sup> "For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and they have abandoned Him and have turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and have turned their backs [toward Him]. ‡

<sup>7</sup> "They have also closed the doors of the [temple] porch and put out the lamps, and they have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the Holy Place to the God of Israel.  [2 Kin 16:10-16. ] ‡

<sup>8</sup> "Therefore the wrath of the LORD has been against Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of terror, of horror, and of hissing, just as you see with your own eyes. ‡

<sup>9</sup> "For behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity because of this. ‡

<sup>10</sup> "Now it is in my heart to make a covenant (solemn agreement) with the LORD God of Israel, so that His burning anger will turn away from us. ‡

<sup>11</sup> "My sons, do not be negligent and careless now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand in His presence, to attend to His service, and to be His ministers and burn incense." ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, from the sons of the Kohathites; from the sons of Merari: Kish the son of Abdi, Azariah the son of Jehallelel; from the Gershonites: Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

<sup>13</sup> from the sons of Elizaphan: Shimri and Jeiel; from the sons of Asaph: Zechariah, and Mattaniah;

<sup>14</sup> from the sons of Heman: Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun: Shemaiah and Uzziel.

<sup>15</sup> They gathered their brothers (fellow Levites) together, consecrated themselves, and went in to cleanse the house of the LORD, as the king had commanded by the words of the LORD. ‡

<sup>16</sup> The priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and every unclean thing they found in the temple of the LORD they brought out to the courtyard of the LORD's house. Then the Levites received it to take out to the Kidron Valley [for disposal].

<sup>17</sup> Now they began the consecration on the first [day] of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of the LORD. Then for eight days they consecrated the house of the LORD, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

<sup>18</sup> Then they went inside to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed the entire house (temple) of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all of its utensils, and the table of showbread with all its utensils.

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

<sup>20</sup> Then King Hezekiah arose early and assembled the officials of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. He commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD. ‡

<sup>22</sup> So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They also slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then they brought the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them [to symbolize the transference of their sin]. ‡

24 The priests slaughtered them and cleansed the altar from sin with their blood to atone for all Israel, because the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel. ‡

25 Hezekiah stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, in accordance with the command of David [his ancestor] and of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for the command was from the LORD through His prophets. ‡

26 The Levites stood with the musical instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. ‡

27 Then Hezekiah gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD also began with the trumpets accompanied by the instruments of David, king of Israel. ‡

28 The entire congregation worshiped, the singers also sang, and the trumpets sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 When the burnt offerings were completed, the king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped [God]. ‡

30 Also King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to exclaim praises to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they exclaimed praises with joy, and bowed down and worshiped.

31 Then Hezekiah said, "Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD; approach and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD." And the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and all those who were willing brought burnt offerings.  [Ex 35:5, 22 ] ‡

32 The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 The consecrated things were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep.

34 But there were too few priests and they were unable to skin all the burnt offerings; so until the other priests had consecrated themselves, their brothers, the Levites, helped them until the work was done. For the Levites were more upright in heart and more conscientious than the priests in consecrating themselves. ‡

35 There were also many burnt offerings with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. So the service of the house of the LORD was established again. ‡

36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had prepared for the people, for the thing came about suddenly.

2 Chronicles 30

All Israel Invited to the Passover

<sup>1</sup> HEZEKIAH SENT word to all Israel and to Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover Feast to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> Thus the [decision to set a] new time pleased the king and the entire assembly.

<sup>5</sup> So they decided to circulate a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that the people were to come to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel, at Jerusalem. For they had not celebrated it in great numbers as it was prescribed [for a long time].

<sup>6</sup> So the runners went throughout Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his officials, in accordance with the command of the king, saying, “O sons (descendants) of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob), so that He will return to those of you who escaped and are left from the hand (power) of the kings of Assyria. ‡

<sup>7</sup> “Do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who were unfaithful to the LORD God of their fathers, so that He made them a horror (lifeless, desolate), just as you see. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “Now do not stiffen your neck [becoming obstinate] like your fathers, but yield to the LORD and come to His sanctuary which He has sanctified and set apart forever, and serve the LORD your God, so that His burning anger will turn away from you. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “For if you return to the LORD, your brothers (relatives) and your children will find compassion in the presence of those who led them away captive and will return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him.” ‡

<sup>10</sup> So the runners (couriers) passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but the people laughed at them with scorn and mocked them. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them one heart to do that which the king and the officials had commanded by the word of the LORD. ‡

Passover Reinstated

<sup>13</sup> Now many people were gathered at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month; it was a very large assembly.

<sup>14</sup> They took action and removed the [pagan] altars which were in Jerusalem; they also removed all the incense altars and threw them into the Brook Kidron [the dumping place for the ashes of such repulsive things]. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed of themselves, and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of the LORD. ‡

<sup>16</sup> They stood at their accustomed stations, in accordance with the Law of Moses, the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood [which they received] from the hand of the Levites [on the altar].

<sup>17</sup> For there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves [that is, become ceremonially clean and free from all sin]; so the Levites had to slaughter the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, in order to make them holy for the LORD. ‡

<sup>18</sup> For the majority of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, and yet they ate the Passover contrary to what had been prescribed. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, “May the good LORD pardon ‡

<sup>19</sup> everyone who sets his heart to seek God—the LORD God of his fathers—even though it is not in accordance with the [ceremonial] purification [rules] of the sanctuary.” ‡

<sup>20</sup> So the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people [of their uncleanness].

<sup>21</sup> The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy. The Levites and priests praised the LORD day after day, singing to the LORD with loud instruments. ‡

<sup>22</sup> Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good understanding in the things of the LORD. So the people ate for the appointed seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and giving thanks to the LORD God of their fathers. ‡

<sup>23</sup> Then the whole assembly decided to celebrate [the feast] for another seven days; and they celebrated it another seven days with joy. ‡

<sup>24</sup> For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the officials gave the assembly 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep. And a large number of priests consecrated themselves [for service]. ‡

<sup>25</sup> All the assembly of Judah rejoiced, with the priests and the Levites and all the assembly that came from Israel, both the sojourners (resident aliens, foreigners) who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah. ‡

<sup>26</sup> So there was great joy in Jerusalem, because there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> Then the priests and Levites stood and blessed the people; and their voice was heard and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling place, to heaven. ‡

2 Chronicles 31

Idols Are Destroyed

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN all of this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and smashed the [pagan] pillars (obelisks, memorial stones) in pieces, cut down the Asherim (wooden symbols of a female deity), and tore down the high places and the altars [of idolatry] throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons (descendants) of Israel returned to their own cities, each to his own property. ‡

<sup>2</sup> And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests, and the Levites by their divisions, each in accordance with his service, both the priests and Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD. ‡

Reforms Continued

<sup>3</sup> Hezekiah also appointed the king's [personal] portion of his goods: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and for the New Moons and for the appointed feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD. ‡

<sup>4</sup> He also told (ordered) the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion that was due to the priests and Levites, so that they might [be free to] devote themselves to the Law of the LORD. ‡

<sup>5</sup> As soon as the king's order spread, the Israelites gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, [olive] oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in the tithe of everything abundantly. ‡

<sup>6</sup> The sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of sacred gifts which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and placed them in heaps. ‡

<sup>7</sup> In the third month [at the end of wheat harvest] they began to make the heaps, and they finished them in the seventh month.

<sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.

<sup>9</sup> Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and Levites about the heaps.

<sup>11</sup> Then Hezekiah told them to prepare rooms [for storage] in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.

<sup>12</sup> They faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes, and the sacred (dedicated) things. Conaniah the Levite was in charge of them, and Shimei his brother was second [in authority]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers directed by Conaniah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of King Hezekiah, and Azariah was the chief officer of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup> Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the voluntary offerings to God, to apportion the contributions for the LORD and the most holy things.

<sup>16</sup> without regard to their genealogical registration, to the males from thirty years old and upward—everyone who entered the house of the LORD for his daily obligations—for their service in accordance with their duties by their divisions;

<sup>17</sup>as well as the priests who were registered genealogically according to their fathers' households, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, by their duties and by their divisions. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Also for the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the pasture lands of their cities or in each and every city, there were men who were designated by name to give portions to every male among the priests and to everyone genealogically registered among the Levites. ‡

<sup>20</sup> This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah; and he did what was good, right, and true before the LORD his God. ‡

<sup>21</sup> Every work which he began in the service of the house of God in keeping with the law and the commandment, seeking and inquiring of his God [and longing for Him], he did with all his heart and prospered.

2 Chronicles 32

Sennacherib Invades Judah

<sup>2</sup> When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to go to war against Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> he decided, together with his officers and his soldiers, to stop up the water [supply] from the springs which were outside the city [by enclosing them with masonry and concealing them], and they helped him.

<sup>4</sup> So many people came together, and they stopped up all the springs and the brook which flowed [underground] through the region, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find an abundance of water?"

<sup>5</sup> Also Hezekiah resolutely set to work and rebuilt all the wall that had been broken down, and erected towers on it, and he built another wall outside and strengthened the Millo (fortification) in the City of David, and made a great number of weapons and shields. ‡

<sup>6</sup> He also appointed military officers over the people and gathered them to him in the square at the city gate, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

<sup>7</sup> “Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be dismayed because of the king of Assyria, nor because of all the army that is with him; for the One with us is greater than the one with him.”‡

<sup>8</sup> “With him there is only an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.‡

Sennacherib Undermines Hezekiah

<sup>10</sup> “Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, ‘In what do you trust that you are remaining in Jerusalem under siege?’‡

<sup>11</sup> ‘Is not Hezekiah misleading you in order to let you die by famine and thirst, while saying, “The LORD our God will rescue us from the hand of the king of Assyria?”‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘Has the same Hezekiah not taken away his [Baal’s] high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, “You shall worship before [only] one altar and burn incense on it”?‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘Do you not know what I and my fathers (ancestors) have done to all the peoples of the [other] lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands able to rescue their lands from my hand at all?‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘Who [was there] among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed who was able to rescue his people from my hand, that your God should be able to rescue you from my hand?’‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘So now, do not let Hezekiah deceive or mislead you like this, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to rescue his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God rescue you from my hand!’‡

<sup>16</sup> And his servants said even more against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.

<sup>17</sup> The Assyrian king also wrote letters insulting and taunting the LORD God of Israel, and speaking against Him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of other lands have not rescued their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not rescue His people from my hand.”‡

<sup>18</sup> They shouted it loudly in the language of Judah to the people of

Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so that they might take the city [without a long siege]. ‡

<sup>19</sup> They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as [they spoke of] the gods of the peoples of the earth, [which are only] the work of the hands of men. ‡

Hezekiah's Prayer Is Answered

<sup>20</sup> But Hezekiah the king and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven [for help]. ‡

<sup>21</sup> And the LORD sent an angel who destroyed every brave warrior, commander, and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So the king returned to his own land in shame. And when he entered the house (temple) of his god, some of his own children killed him there with the sword.  [2 Kin 19:35–37. ] ‡

<sup>22</sup> Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from the hand of all others, and He gave them rest on every side.

<sup>23</sup> And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem and valuable presents to Hezekiah king of Judah; so from then on he was exalted in the sight of all nations. ‡

<sup>24</sup> In those days Hezekiah became terminally ill; and he prayed to the LORD, and He answered him and gave him a [miraculous] sign. ‡

<sup>25</sup> But Hezekiah did nothing [for the LORD] in return for the benefit bestowed on him, because his heart had become proud; therefore God's wrath came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>26</sup> However, Hezekiah humbled his proud heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them during the days of Hezekiah. ‡

<sup>27</sup> Now Hezekiah had immense wealth and honor; and he made for himself treasures for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all kinds of delightful articles,

<sup>28</sup> and storehouses for the produce of grain, new wine, and [olive] oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds for the flocks.

<sup>29</sup> Moreover, he made cities for himself and acquired an abundance of flocks and herds, for God gave him very many possessions. ‡

<sup>30</sup> This same Hezekiah also stopped up the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and channeled them down to the west side of the City of David.

Hezekiah succeeded in everything that he did. ‡

<sup>31</sup> And so in the matter of the envoys of the rulers of Babylon, who were sent to him to inquire about the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone only to test him, in order to know everything that was in his heart.  [Is 39:1-7 ] ‡

<sup>33</sup> So Hezekiah slept with his fathers [in death] and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the descendants of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh became king in his place. ‡

2 Chronicles 33

Manasseh Succeeds Hezekiah in Judah

<sup>1</sup> MANASSEH WAS twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For he rebuilt the [idolatrous] high places which his father Hezekiah had torn down; and he set up altars for the Baals and made the Asherim, and worshiped all the host of heaven [the sun, the moon, stars and planets] and served them.  [Deut 4:19 ] ‡

<sup>4</sup> He built [pagan] altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “My Name shall be in Jerusalem forever.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. ‡

<sup>6</sup> He made his sons pass through the fire [as an offering to his gods] in the Valley of Ben-hinnom; and he practiced witchcraft, used divination, and practiced sorcery, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then he set the carved image of the idol which he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, “In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My Name [and the symbol of my Presence] forever; ‡

<sup>8</sup> and I will not again remove Israel from the land which I appointed for your fathers, if they will only be careful to do everything that I have commanded them in regard to all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Manasseh caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to sin, by doing more evil than the [pagan] nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the sons of Israel.

Manasseh's Idolatry Rebuked

<sup>10</sup> Now the LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they paid no attention.

<sup>11</sup> So the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks [through his nose or cheeks] and bound him with bronze [chains] and took him to Babylon. ‡

<sup>12</sup> But when he was in distress, he sought the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. ‡

<sup>13</sup> When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty and heard his pleading, and brought him back to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God. ‡

<sup>14</sup> After this he built an outer wall for the City of David on the west side of Gihon, in the river valley, to the entrance of the Fish Gate; and he encircled the Ophel with it and made it very high. Then he put military commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah. ‡

<sup>15</sup> He also removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he threw them outside the city. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Then he set up the altar of the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it; and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.  [Ex 35:5, 22 ] ‡

<sup>17</sup> Yet the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are among the records of the kings of Israel. ‡

<sup>19</sup> His prayer also and how God heard him, and all his sin, his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and set up the Asherim and the carved images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of the Hozai.

<sup>20</sup> So Manasseh slept with his fathers [in death], and they buried him in [the garden of] his own house. And his son Amon became king in his place. ‡

Amon Becomes King in Judah

<sup>21</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>22</sup> But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and he served them.

<sup>25</sup> But the people of the land struck down all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made his son Josiah king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34

Josiah Succeeds Amon in Judah

<sup>1</sup> JOSIAH WAS eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>3</sup> For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young (sixteen), he began to seek after and inquire of the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, and the carved and cast images. ‡

<sup>4</sup> They tore down the altars of the Baals in his presence; he cut to pieces the incense altars that were high above them; he also smashed the Asherim and the carved images and the cast images to pieces, and ground them to dust and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ‡

<sup>6</sup> In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding ruins,

<sup>7</sup> he tore down the altars and beat and crushed the Asherim and the carved images into powder, and cut to pieces all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem. ‡

Josiah Repairs the Temple

<sup>8</sup> In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, when he had purged the land and the [LORD's] house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder (secretary), to repair the house of the LORD his God. ‡

<sup>9</sup> When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, who guarded the doors, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then they gave it to the workmen who were appointed over the house of the LORD, and the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD gave it [to others] to repair and restore the house (temple).

<sup>11</sup> They in turn gave it to the carpenters and builders to buy quarried stone and timber for couplings (trusses, braces) and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

<sup>12</sup> The men did the work faithfully with foremen over them to supervise and inspect [their work]: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of the Kohathites, and the Levites, all who were skillful with musical instruments.

<sup>13</sup> They were also in charge of the burden bearers [who carried heavy loads], and supervised all the workmen in any kind of service; and some of the Levites were scribes and officials and gatekeepers. ‡

Hilkiah Discovers Lost Book of the Law

<sup>14</sup> When they were bringing out the money which had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses. ‡

<sup>15</sup> Hilkiah told Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD.” And he gave the book to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup> Shaphan brought the book to the king, but [first] reported further to him, “Your servants are doing everything that was entrusted to them.

<sup>17</sup> “They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hands of the overseers and the workmen.”

<sup>19</sup> When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.

<sup>20</sup> Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

<sup>21</sup> “Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah in regard to the words of the book which has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD which has been poured out on us because our fathers have not kept and obeyed the word of the LORD, to act in accordance with everything that is written in this book.”

Huldah, the Prophetess, Speaks

<sup>22</sup> So Hilkiah and those whom the king had told went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem, in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her about this. ‡

<sup>23</sup> And she answered them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Tell the man who sent you to me,

<sup>24</sup> thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I am bringing evil on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read in the presence of the king of Judah.

<sup>25</sup> ‘Because they have abandoned (rejected) Me and have burned incense to other gods, in order to provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands, My wrath will be poured out on this place and it will not be extinguished.’”

<sup>26</sup> “But you shall say the following to King Josiah of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD: ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, concerning the words which you have heard, <sup>27</sup> “Because your heart was gentle and penitent and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and its inhabitants, and humbled yourself before Me, and tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,” declares the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> “Behold, I will gather you to your fathers [in death], and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I am going to bring on this place and on its inhabitants.” ’ ” So they brought back word to the king.

<sup>30</sup> And the king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, from the greatest to the least; and he read aloud so they could hear all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

Josiah's Good Reign

<sup>31</sup> Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD—to walk after (obey) the LORD, and to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant written in this book. ‡

<sup>32</sup> Further, he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand [with him, in confirmation of it]. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

<sup>33</sup> Josiah removed all the [pagan] repulsive things from all the lands belonging to the sons (descendants) of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. Throughout his lifetime they did not turn from following the LORD God of their fathers. ‡

2 Chronicles 35

The Passover Observed Again

service of the house of the LORD. ‡

<sup>3</sup>To the Levites who taught all Israel and were holy to the LORD he said, “Put the holy ark in the house (temple) which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; it shall not be a burden [carried] on your shoulders any longer. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel. ‡

<sup>5</sup>“And stand in the holy place [of the priests] according to the sections of the fathers’ households of your fellow kinsmen the lay people, and according to the Levites, by division of [the families of] a father’s household. ‡

<sup>7</sup>Then Josiah contributed to the lay people, to all who were present, flocks of lambs and young goats numbering 30,000, all as Passover offerings, and 3,000 bulls—these were from the king’s property. ‡

<sup>8</sup>His officers also contributed a voluntary offering to the people, the priests and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the officials of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings 2,600 from the flocks [of lambs and young goats], and 300 bulls.

<sup>9</sup>Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, officers of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for the Passover offerings 5,000 from the flocks [of lambs and young goats], and 500 bulls.

<sup>10</sup>When the service was ready, the priests stood in their [assigned] places and the Levites by their divisions, in accordance with the king’s command. ‡

<sup>12</sup>Then they removed the burnt offerings, to distribute them to the sections of the fathers’ households of the lay people to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the bulls. ‡

<sup>13</sup>So they roasted the Passover lambs on the fire according to the ordinance; and they cooked the holy offerings in pots, in kettles, and in pans, and quickly brought them to all the lay people. ‡

<sup>14</sup>Afterward the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; so the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

<sup>15</sup> The singers, the sons of Asaph, were also in their places in accordance with the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers at each gate did not need to leave their service, because their kinsmen the Levites prepared for them. ‡

<sup>16</sup> So all the service of the LORD was prepared on that day to celebrate the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, in accordance with the command of King Josiah.

<sup>17</sup> Thus the sons of Israel who were present celebrated the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. ‡

<sup>18</sup> No Passover like it had been celebrated in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the kings of Israel celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>19</sup> In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign this Passover was celebrated.

Josiah Dies in Battle

<sup>20</sup> After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt came up to make war at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to meet him. ‡

<sup>21</sup> But Neco sent messengers to Josiah, saying, "What business do we have with each other, O King of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but against the house with which I am at war, and God has ordered me to hurry. Stop for your own sake from interfering with God who is with me, so that He will not destroy you."

<sup>22</sup> Yet Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight against him. He did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but came to fight against him on the plain of Megiddo.

<sup>23</sup> The archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am badly wounded."

<sup>24</sup> So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. ‡

<sup>25</sup> Then Jeremiah sang a lament (funeral song) for Josiah, and all the male and female singers have spoken about Josiah in their laments to this day. They made the songs an ordinance in Israel; behold, they are written in the Lamentations.  [Lam 4:20 ] ‡

<sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion and godly achievements as written in the Law of the LORD,

<sup>27</sup> and his acts, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, then Jehoiachin Rule

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE people of the land took Joahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned [only] three months in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Then the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and imposed a fine on the land of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

<sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt made Eliakim, the brother of Joahaz, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Joahaz his brother, and brought him to Egypt.

<sup>7</sup> Nebuchadnezzar also brought some of the articles of the house (temple) of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his temple there. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and the repulsive acts which he committed, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiachin was eight[teen] years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.  [2 Kin 24:8 ] ‡

Captivity in Babylon Begun

word and had him brought to Babylon with the valuable articles of the house of the LORD, and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem. ‡

Zedekiah Rules in Judah

11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. ‡

12 He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke for the LORD.

13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear allegiance by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel. ‡

14 Also, all the officials of the priests and the people were very unfaithful, following all the repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations; and they defiled the house of the LORD which He had sanctified in Jerusalem.

15 The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them again and again by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. ‡

16 But they kept mocking the messengers of God and despising His words and scoffing at His prophets until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, until there was no remedy or healing. ‡

17 Therefore He brought the king of the Chaldeans against them, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or infirm; He gave them all into his hand. ‡

18 And as for all the articles of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his officials, he brought them all to Babylon. ‡

19 Then they burned the house of God and tore down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its fortified buildings with fire, and destroyed all its valuable articles. ‡

20 He deported to Babylon those who had escaped from the sword; and they were servants to him and to his sons until the kingdom of Persia was established there, ‡

21 to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had restored its Sabbaths; for as long as the land lay desolate it kept Sabbath until seventy years were complete.  [Lev 25:4; 26:43; Jer 25:11; 29:10 ] ‡

Cyrus Permits Return

22Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia—in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah—the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,‡

23“Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all His people, may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up [to Jerusalem]!’ ”‡

Annotations for 2 Chronicles

1:3 high place. In the Old Testament the high places were usually associated with pagan worship (Nu 22:41). The Israelites were specifically charged to destroy these places of worship so that they would not become a snare and lead them into idol worship (Nu 33:53 ; Dt 12:3). Nevertheless, Israelites often chose the high places to worship (1Sa 9:12). The high place at Gibeon was the location of the Mosaic tabernacle and the great bronze altar throughout David's reign (see note for 1Ki 14:23 ).

1:10 go out and come in. This figure of speech refers to the totality of Solomon's life. As king he would lead by example as well as by edict.

1:11–12 Wisdom— There's significance here in what Solomon didn't ask for. He didn't ask for honor, money, a long life, or the death of his enemies. He didn't ask for the things that would be on the top of most people's lists. He didn't ask for what would make life comfortable and easy. He asked for what would make life good. He asked for wisdom with an eye toward how he would rule, knowing that the quality of his reign largely depended on the quality of his judgments in dealing with people and issues. His priority was his service to others rather than doing what was supposedly best for his personal well being.

What would be an equivalent today? A corporate executive wanting to know how to make his company contribute for the good of society as opposed to focusing exclusively on profit. A manager being more interested in seeing his staff happy and functioning well rather than getting ahead himself. A father being interested in seeing his family be healthy rather than getting his own. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:14 chariots. A chariot force of 1,400 units was a significant achievement for Israel, a nation located primarily in hilly terrain where chariots were of limited value. horsemen. Moses warned the future kings not to multiply horses for themselves, nor were they to send people back to Egypt to multiply horses (Dt 17:16). The number of horses that Solomon had for his 1,400 chariots was probably about 4,000.

1:17 600 shekels of silver. It is often difficult to assign a price in modern currency to the goods and services of the ancient world. This verse suggests that a chariot cost as much as four horses. they exported. Solomon had a thriving business in horses and chariots. Because Israel was on the route between Asia and Africa, such goods would go through Israel and become subject to Solomon's heavy import and export taxes.

2:3 Hiram king of Tyre. Hiram was the same Phoenician ruler who had provided men and materials for David's palace.

2:5 our God is greater than all the gods. Solomon's statement means that God is the only true God, not that He is the greatest among many lesser ones. All pagan "gods" are not gods at all (1Co 8:4–5 ; 10:20 ).

2:6 Heaven— God is omnipresent. This means that He is everywhere present at all times. There are no bounds or limitations to his presence. But in a special sense, God does have a center for His existence. This is described by Solomon as the "highest heavens," an expression also used by Moses (Dt 10:14). His title "Lord of hosts" (1Sa 1:3) suggests that the dwelling of God is populated by angels and other heavenly beings. It is here that His throne is situated (Isa 6:1). In this sphere His will is done perfectly (Da 4:35). Go to Theological Notes Index

2:10 wheat . . . barley. The amount of wheat and barley was about 125,000 bushels, or 3,750 tons of each. wine . . . oil. Twenty thousand baths of wine and oil was approximately 115,000 gallons of each.

2:12 Prudence— The wisdom and generosity of King Hiram toward Solomon showed him to be a prudent king. He wanted things to go well for Solomon because he liked and respected his father David, and good neighbors created stability for both nations. Go to Theological Notes Index

2:14 Danite woman. His mother was an Israelite from the tribe of Dan.

3:1 Mount Moriah. This was the mountain where Abraham brought his son Isaac to sacrifice him (Ge 22) and where the Lord provided a ram instead. It was suitable that this place where Abraham showed such incredible obedience should be the site of the temple that dealt with the issues of sacrifice and sin. threshing floor of Ornan. It was here that David saw the angel of death and prayed for the people (2Sa 24).

3:2 second day of the second month. The second month fell in our month of April.

3:3 cubits—by the old standard of measure. The Israelites had two standard cubits, one about 17 inches and the other about 20 inches. The temple was probably made on the cubit that measured a little over 17 inches, which means that its foundation was approximately 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. The tabernacle that Moses made in the wilderness was about 45 feet long and 15 feet wide (Ex 26:15–37). More details of the temple are in 1 Kings 5–7.

3:5 main room. This room was the holy place, or sanctuary (1Ki 6:17).

3:8 Holy of Holies. The “holy of holies” was the inner sanctuary where the ark of the covenant was kept. This room was cubical, 30 feet on a side. 600 talents. The room was overlaid with about 23 tons of gold.

3:9 nails . . . gold. Gold by itself is too soft to use for nails, so the nails mentioned here must have been plated with gold, as the weight would indicate.

3:13 twenty cubits. The wings of the cherubim spanned the entire width of the room.

3:14 the veil. The veil was a heavy curtain between the holy place and the holy of holies. It shielded the ark and cherubim from view, and as God was visualized as sitting on the mercy seat under the wings of the cherubim (see note on 1Ch 13:6), it also shielded even the priests from the most intimate presence of God. The veil between the holy place and the holy of holies was ripped in two when Jesus died on the cross (Mt 27:51). The tearing of the temple curtain is seen as a symbol that through Jesus, believers have direct access to the Lord God (Heb 6:19 ; 9:1–10:20).

3:15 thirty-five cubits . . . five cubits. The pillars were about 53 feet tall with a 7 foot capital on top.

4:2 the Sea. The Sea was a receptacle for water corresponding to the much smaller bronze basin of the Mosaic tabernacle (Ex 30:17–21). The basin provided water for the priests to wash their hands and feet in preparation for ministering at the altar. The Sea served the same purpose. It was huge—15 feet in diameter and 45 feet in circumference.

4:5 3,000 baths. When filled with about 27,000 gallons of water the Sea would have weighed about 108 tons.

4:6 ten [portable] basins. Each laver held 40 baths, or about 230 gallons (1Ki 7:38). They could accommodate large animals, such as oxen. The law of burnt offerings required certain parts of the animal to be washed in water before it was placed on the altar (Lev 1:9 , 13).

4:7 ten golden lampstands. The wilderness tabernacle had only one lampstand (Ex 25:31), but the temple had ten.

4:8 ten tables. There had been only one table in the tabernacle (Ex 25:23). The increase reflects the grandeur of the temple, as well as the large number of people to be served.

4:9 courtyard of the priests. There were areas in and about the temple that only the priests could enter. One of these was the area immediately surrounding it and enclosed by a separating wall, the “courtyard of the priests.” great courtyard. The great court was an outer area where the people in general could go.

4:14 stands. The stands were mobile with four bronze wheels (1Ki 7:27–37 ).

4:17 cast them . . . in the clay ground. Many bronze products were made at a place in the Jordan valley about 35 miles north of the Dead Sea. Archaeologists have uncovered evidence of this work in an area where the clay is suitable for bronze casting.

4:19 golden altar. This altar was used for offering incense (Ex 30:1–10 ; 1Ki 7:48 ). It was in the holy place just in front of the veil.

4:22 inner doors. The tabernacle had a veil between the “holy of holies” where the ark was, and the “house,” or holy place. Solomon’s temple had a set of doors there as well.

5:2 ark of the covenant. Though David had built a tabernacle, or tent, on Mount Zion to house the ark (1Ch 15:1 ), it was still separate from the original tabernacle and bronze altar at Gibeon. Completing Solomon’s temple made it possible for the ark and the altar to be in the same place for the first time since the Israelites lost the ark to the Philistines during the days when the tabernacle was at Shiloh and Samuel was a little boy (1Sa 4–6 ).

5:3 feast. Since this was the seventh month, the feast was the Feast of Tabernacles. This was an appropriate occasion for moving the ark to a permanent location because the feast commemorated Israel’s wandering in the wilderness when the ark had no permanent place (Lev 23:39–43 ).

5:5 Tent. This tent was the Mosaic tabernacle. Solomon ended worship at the high place at Gibeon by dismantling the tabernacle and bringing it and all its furnishings to Jerusalem.

5:9 to this day. The ark was supposed to remain safely in the temple forever. At the time of the writing of this book (probably between 460 and 430 BC), the temple had been destroyed and the ark was gone. No one knows what happened to the ark after Nebuchadnezzar destroyed Jerusalem in 586 BC.

5:12 Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun. These men were the heads of the divisions of Levitical musicians (1Ch 6:33 ; 39 , 44 ; 25:1 ).

5:13 Praise— Praise and worship are simply recognizing the perfections and worthiness of the Lord. His lovingkindness never runs out or diminishes. Everyday his mercy and grace exist in perfection on our behalf. A time for daily praise is one of the best ways to grow closer to God. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:2 place for You to dwell forever. It did not occur to Solomon that one day the glory of the Lord would depart from this temple and it would be destroyed (Ezr 10:18 ).

6:14 there is no god like You. Solomon’s acclamation is echoed by every child of God who reflects on God’s faithfulness and mercy to those who “walk before Him” with “all their heart.” It is not that Solomon considered other gods to be valid, but he was in a position to see the kind of trust that pagans put in their gods, and how whimsical and unfaithful these “gods” were.

6:16 provided your sons . . . walk in My law. Solomon was recognizing that the covenant was dependent on the people remaining faithful to God, and he wanted his line to walk with God as David had. Even though future generations did not imitate David, God’s faithfulness was carried out through Jesus, the son of David (Mt 9:27 ; 15:22 ; 22:41–45 ).

6:23 hear from heaven. Solomon’s request that God hear from heaven underscored God’s transcendence. Although God had chosen to be present on earth at the temple, He is also beyond the limits of the temple building.

6:25 bring them again. This statement is a hint of the future captivity and deportation of God’s disobedient people (Dt 28:29–30 ). When the exile to Babylon became a reality, the temple was destroyed and no one could pray at that place as before. But even in those days, God’s people directed their prayer toward Jerusalem (Da 6:10 ).

6:32–33 in regard to the foreigner. God made His covenant exclusively with Israel, the nation descended from Abraham, but He did so for the purpose of attracting the nations to Himself, the Creator of all people. A foreigner who embraced the Lord as God would be numbered among God's people.

6:36 there is no man who does not sin. This statement is repeated in the New Testament (Ro 3:23 ; 1Jn 1:8–10 ). take them away captive. Solomon's speech anticipated the possibility of exile (v. 25 ), something that had already taken place by the time Chronicles was written.

7:1 Miracles— This event marks the third of four events when supernatural fire fell from heaven. The first occurred during the dedication of the tabernacle in the days of Moses (Lev 9:24 ). The second happened when David dedicated a piece of ground to the Lord that later became the site of Solomon's temple (1Ch 21:26 ). The final occurrence transpired on Mount Carmel when Elijah prayed for fire to consume his offering (1Ki 18:38 ). We often think that a miracle will convince an unbeliever of the reality of the living God, and sometimes it does. But sensing the presence of God, or seeing His work, does not equal believing. The Israelites often backslid, even after miraculous events, and even the miracles of Jesus did not convince all that He was the Messiah (Mt 11:20–24 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

7:3 Need for Worship— The first reason for worship is simply that God commands it (1Ch 16:29 ; Mt 4:10 ). The first four of the Ten Commandments charge men and women to worship the one true God and Him alone (Ex 20:3–10 ). To allow anything or anyone other than God to have a position of lordship over us constitutes gross disobedience to the will of God and incurs His terrible wrath (Ex 20:5 ; Dt 27:15 ). Eventually all peoples will bow to God anyway, even if they do so unwillingly (Php 2:10 ).

An equally important reason for worship is that God is worthy of our worship. He designed us for worship. He alone possesses the attributes that merit our worship and service. Among these are goodness (Ps 100:5), mercy (Ex 4:31), holiness (Ps 99:5, 9), and creative power (Rev 4:11). When men of biblical times clearly saw the unveiled glory of God, they could not help but fall prostrate in worship. Examples of this response can be seen in the actions of Moses (Ex 34:5–8), Isaiah (Isa 6), Paul (Ac 9:3–6), and John (Rev 1:9–17).

A final reason for worship is that men and women need to give it. People cannot find personal fulfillment apart from the glad submission of themselves in worshipful obedience to God. He is the Creator and they are the creatures (Rev 4:11 ). We are made to worship God. If we do anything less, we fail to be who God created us to be. One who worships God not only participates in the occupation of heaven (Rev 7:9–12), but also finds joyful satisfaction in the present time (Ro 12:2; Col 3:24). Go to Theological Notes Index

7:8 feast. The feast was the Feast of Tabernacles, which began on the fifteenth day of the seventh month and continued through the twenty-second day (see note for 5:3 ). Hamath . . . Brook of Egypt. These geographical locations specify the extent of Solomon's early kingdom from north to south.

7:9 dedication of the altar. This is the same dedication referred to in 5:3 .

7:10 sent the people to their tents. The people returned to their huts, or booths, where they stayed as a part of the Feast of Tabernacles. Few if any Israelites used tents for their housing at this time.

7:11 house of the LORD . . . palace of the king. Since it took Solomon 13 years to build his palace and 20 years in all to build both it and the temple, these events are half-way through Solomon's 40-year reign.

7:14 Prayer— This promise to hear, if the people will pray, is directly linked to the covenant promises that God made with the Israelites (Dt 28–30 ). Blessings were linked to obedience, curses linked to rebellion, and the promise that God would hear if they repented was the reminder that God had eternal commitment to them. Even nations outside this covenant have taken great comfort in remembering this promise. God always hears the sincere prayers of His people, and Christians are directed to pray for the leaders of the nations (1Ti 2:1–2 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

8:4 Tadmor. Solomon built and fortified cities such as Tadmor because they were on vital caravan routes. These fortified cities provided protection to his caravans and became the customs points at which Solomon collected taxes. storage cities. Facilities were scattered throughout Solomon's outlying provinces to provide warehouses for his armies and merchantmen, as well as to store produce and other tributes paid by the vassal states (1Ki 9:19 ).

8:5 upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon. These cities were strategically located near the border between Judah and the northern tribal districts, along a major mountain pass to the Mediterranean (Jos 10:10 ; 1Sa 13:18 ).

8:18 Huram. The Phoenicians were world famous mariners, so when Solomon undertook a merchant marine enterprise he called once more on his good friend Huram (also spelled Hiram), king of Tyre. Ophir. A source of finest gold (1Ch 29:4 ); the location of Ophir is not known, except that it was reached by sea. People have speculated that it may have been in South Arabia, India, or Africa.

9:1 Sheba. Sheba was more than a thousand miles south of Israel, at the southern end of the Arabian Peninsula.

9:8 Blessed be the LORD your God. The language of politeness in the ancient world does not necessarily suggest that the Queen of Sheba was converted. Visiting dignitaries customarily praised the god of the host nation.

Trade Under Solomon

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

9:13 666 talents. Solomon's annual income in gold amounted to 25 tons. This figure probably reflects the annual revenues of the entire nation through taxes.

9:14 kings . . . governors . . . brought. The gold and silver that the kings and governors brought to Solomon was tribute, a form of taxation on vassal states, not a voluntary gift.

9:15 shields of beaten gold. The shields of beaten gold were for decorative or ceremonial purpose, not the armory. Gold was too expensive, too heavy, and too soft to use in battle.

9:26 to the land of the Philistines. Most of the kings of Israel had continuing trouble with the Philistines, even though they were able to subdue every other surrounding neighbor. David had some success against the Philistines (1Ch 18:1 ), and later Jehoshaphat managed to exact tribute from some of them (17:11 ).

9:29 Nathan the prophet. This is the same Nathan that rebuked David for his adultery and murder (2Sa 12:1–15 ). He was a confidant and counselor to both David and Solomon (1Ki 1:8–11 ). Ahijah . . . Iddo. Ahijah and Iddo were contemporaries who compiled the accounts of both Jeroboam and Rehoboam (12:15 ).

9:31 Rehoboam. Rehoboam was a son of Solomon by his wife Naamah of Ammon (12:13 ). He was 41 when he began to rule, so he must have been born during the period when Solomon ruled alongside David (1Ch 29:22–23 ).

10:1 Shechem. Rehoboam probably chose Shechem as the place to be crowned because a rift had begun to develop between the northern and southern tribes (1Ki 11:26–40 ).

10:4 Wisdom— Bravado is different than wisdom. Saying that one is going to be tough is different than being wise. Short of despotic force, no king can rule a people who do not trust him, and even if there is not outright rebellion, the resistance makes an unhappy nation. Like many other people, Rehoboam mistook conciliation for weakness, and lost his chance to have influence with most of the nation. It is important to remember that the outcome of this encounter was just what God wanted. Rehoboam was reaping the fruits of his father's (and his own) indifference to God. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:15 the turn of events was from God. Human foolishness and decisions often achieve God's purposes. Solomon's defection from God late in his reign had already disqualified his descendants from ruling over all Israel (1Ki 11:9–13 ). Rehoboam initiated the split with his own foolish actions.

11:13 all their districts. Though Israel and Judah had split into two kingdoms, the priests and Levites of Israel sided with Judah. One reason for this was that they knew that Rehoboam was of the lineage of David, and therefore part of God's covenant promise to David. Another reason was that Jeroboam had established his own religious cult, which had no need for the true priests of God (1Ki 12:24–33 ).

11:16 followed them to Jerusalem. Once the legitimate religious leaders had left Israel, the worshipers of God in the Northern Kingdom could no longer worship in good conscience, so they either made pilgrimages to Jerusalem, or moved there (1Ki 12:25–33 ). At the time of the Babylonian captivity (36:10 ) the Northern Kingdom was already captured by Assyria (2Ki 17 ), but there were many representatives from the northern tribes living in Judah.

11:22 Abijah. Rehoboam named his son Abijah as the next king to ensure a smooth succession following his death. Abijah probably served under or alongside Rehoboam, just as Solomon had served under David (1Ch 23:1 ).

12:2 Egypt. Egypt was beginning to recover from a long period of decline and wanted to reestablish control over Israel. God used their ambitions to discipline Rehoboam for abandoning the Lord.

12:3 Lubim . . . Sukkiim. The Lubim were the Libyans, and the Sukkiim were other desert tribes, probably from western Libya. Ethiopians. These famous warriors, sometimes referred to as Cushites, originated in the lands south of Egypt.

12:6 Righteousness— The king and princes of Judah recognized that the Lord was righteous, even in leaving them in the hands of Shishak. What they did not know, was the difference between being the “vassal” of the righteous Lord, and the vassal of the unrighteous Shishak. Like the Israelites, we count on the righteousness and graciousness of the Lord toward us. It is good to know that He is unfailing in His lovingkindness, but it is not something to presume upon, as if our conforming to His image does not really matter. Go to Theological Notes Index

12:9 took the treasures. Judah was now a vassal state of Egypt.

13:2 His mother's name was Micaiah. Micaiah is a variation of "Maacah." She is the daughter of "Uriel of Gibeah" in this passage, as well as the "daughter of Absalom" (11:21). It is thought that she was the granddaughter of Absalom, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah and Absalom's daughter Tamar (2Sa 14:27). The terms "father, mother, son, daughter" were often used in talking of ancestors instead of generations. Jesus is referred to as the "son of David" (Mt 9:27 ; 15:22 ; 22:42), which is clearly a reference to his ancestry.

13:5 covenant of salt. Salt was a preservative and symbolized durability, so a covenant of salt was one that would not be broken. Sometimes covenant makers each took a pinch of salt and mixed it, to show that just as the salt could not be separated, so the promise could not be set aside.

13:6 Yet Jeroboam. The throne had been promised to David's line forever, yet the promise was contingent on the faithfulness of his descendants (7:18–19). Because Solomon had turned from God, part of the kingdom was taken from him, and Jeroboam was chosen by God through the prophet Ahijah to rule over the part of the kingdom that was taken from Solomon (10:2). So far this story mirrors the events in the lives of Saul and David. But unlike David, Jeroboam did not wait for the Lord to deliver the promised kingdom to him. Jeroboam took his place by force, and immediately turned from God. His name became a byword, synonymous with "bad king." (See also 1Ki 11–14.)

13:7 when Rehoboam was young and timid. Abijah's version of the nation's division put his father in a relatively good light. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king (12:13).

14:2–4 Faithfulness— King Asa chose to be faithful to God as he began his reign. His people enjoyed ten years of peace because of Asa's obedience. For each one of us there is a peace that comes with faithfulness to God. This does not necessarily mean that outer circumstances are uncomplicated, but in our hearts the peace of God can still reign. Like Asa, our actions affect the lives of those around us. We are created to have an eternal relationship with God, and that begins in the life of faith, believing that He is who He says He is and that we need Him. "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, and the evidence of things not seen" (Heb 11:1). Go to Theological Notes Index

14:3 pillars. Sacred pillars were stone posts associated with Canaanite fertility rites. Asherim. Asherah was a Canaanite goddess associated with Baal worship. Asherim were the poles, trees, or groves that were symbolic parts of Asherah worship.

14:9 Zerah the Ethiopian. Since Egypt was strong at this time (12:3) and fully in control of its own territory, it is likely that Zerah and his large army were mercenaries of the Egyptian king Osorkon I (914–874 BC), successor of Shishak. Mareshah. Mareshah was one of Asa's important fortified cities, about 25 miles southwest of Jerusalem (11:8). It was near the Via Maris, the coastal highway connecting Egypt and Canaan, making it strategically important.

14:13 Gerar. Gerar was at the frontier between Egypt and Canaan and might have been in Egyptian territory at this time.

15:10 third month. This quite likely locates this festival at the time of the firstfruits, the Feast of Pentecost (Lev 23:15–21 ; Nu 28:26–31).

15:16 Maacah. It appears that "mother" is used in the sense of ancestress; Maacah was the mother of Asa's father, Abijah (13:2). Still, Asa demoted her from her position as queen mother because she set up pagan idols—a courageous and delicate task for anyone, even a king.

15:17 Perseverance— Asa started his reign with a determination to serve the Lord and to abolish idol worship. Oded the prophet spurred him on to finish the job, to get rid of idols in his land and the land just captured. Paul talks about fighting the good fight, finishing the course, keeping the faith (2Ti 4:7). We all need people like Oded in our lives, who encourage us to keep on being faithful. In the same manner, we need to encourage others to persevere to the end. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:6 Geba and Mizpah. Geba was just east of Ramah, and Mizpah was between Ramah and Bethel. Fortifying these two cities effectively stopped Israel from rebuilding Ramah because it was now between two of Asa's fortresses.

16:7–9 Hanani the seer. Hanani was probably the father of another prophet, Jehu, who once challenged King Jehoshaphat of Judah (19:2 ; 20:34 ).

17:2 cities of Ephraim. Ephraim is a synonym for Israel. The cities referred to here are mentioned also in 15:8 .

17:13–18 soldiers, courageous men. Jehoshaphat's men were grouped into three divisions of Judeans with a total number of 780,000 and two divisions of Benjamites numbering 380,000. The Hebrew word for thousand can mean family, or clan (Jdg 6:15 ; 1Sa 10:19 ; Mic 5:2 ). In that case, the 780,000 would be 780 companies, and the 380,000 would be 380 companies, and the total warriors would be nearer to 78,000 and 38,000.

18:2 Ramoth-gilead. This important city was some 35 miles east of Beth-shan, and was controlled by the Arameans. It was also one of the Israelite cities of refuge (Jos 20:8 ; 1Ch 6:80 ).

18:5 the prophets. These prophets were probably prophets of Baal or Asherah (1Ki 18:19 ), the Canaanite gods worshiped by Ahab's wife Jezebel.

18:11 prophesied. The true prophet's words come directly from God, and they show God's thoughts, and sometimes His plans. These false prophets were speaking authoritatively, probably accompanied with such ravings and demonstrations as would show their power and ability to see the future (1Ki 18:26–29 ).

18:15 nothing but the truth. Ahab knew from experience that his prophets told him what they thought he wanted to hear, not the truth. Because their prophecies agreed with Micaiah's, he knew that Micaiah must have been mocking when he prophesied success.

18:22 deceptive spirit. The spirits who stood before the Lord were both angels and demons, none of whom could act without God's permission. God allowed this spirit to work in the mouths of the false prophets to accomplish His own purposes of judgment (1Ch 21:1 ; Job 1 ).

18:33 at random. From the human perspective, this was a chance shot. From God's perspective, chance had no part in it. Ahab's disguise could not foil God's plan.

19:3 Repentance— Repentance is never by word only. It is always followed by actions which show that the attitude of repentance is really present. Part of repentance is acknowledging that God is right and that He knows how we should live. It was the change in Jehoshaphat's actions that proved his change of heart. Go to Theological Notes Index

19:4 hill country of Ephraim. The mountains of Ephraim became the northern border of Judah after the division into two kingdoms. This is another way of saying that the whole country was brought back to the Lord.

20:14 Jahaziel. As a member of the Asaph division of the Levites (1Ch 6:39 ; 15:17–19 ; 16:7 ) Jahaziel was probably a musician. The spiritual work of the musicians was closely linked with prophecy (1Ch 25:1 ).

20:19 Kohathites . . . Korahites. The Kohathites were members of the Levitical division of Heman the singer (1Ch 6:33 ). The Korahites were a subdivision of the Kohathites (1Ch 6:37 ,39 ) who were employed as gatekeepers to the temple.

20:21 Thankfulness— More necessary than guns for soldiers, more important than strategy, is the giving of thanks to God. Judah faced a literal, physical battle involving great odds. They sent their singers out first, singing praises to God and thanking Him for His everlasting lovingkindness. Is this the way we face battles in our lives? Do we first thank God for who He is, what He has done, and for His faithfulness to us? Go to Theological Notes Index

20:26 Valley of Beracah. The Judeans renamed Ziz “The valley of Beracah,” meaning “blessing,” to remind themselves of God’s goodness.

20:34 Jehu. The son of the prophet Hanani, Jehu was a prophet himself (19:2). He is mentioned in 1 Kings in connection with the kings of Israel, and was therefore a good source of information about both the Northern and Southern Kingdoms.

20:35 Ahaziah. Ahaziah was the son of Ahab. He succeeded his father and reigned for two years (1Ki 22:51). Ahaziah was injured in a fall and turned to the Philistine gods rather than to the Lord for healing (2Ki 1:2).

21:11 be unfaithful. Israel’s relationship with God was like a marriage relationship. Worship of other gods was a violation in the same way that prostitution violates a marriage. It not only says that the true husband is not worthy of respect, it is a rejection of the whole idea of the faithfulness and care of the true husband.

21:12 Elijah the prophet. Though 1 and 2 Kings pay considerable attention to Elijah (1Ki 17:1-2Ki 2:18), the books of Chronicles mention him only here. He had been taken up into heaven after King Ahaziah’s death (2Ki 1:17 ; 2:1).

21:20 tombs of the kings. These tombs were a royal cemetery in Jerusalem where most of the kings of David’s dynasty were buried. (Asa was an exception, 16:14.)

22:1 Ahaziah. Ahaziah of Judah was the namesake of his uncle from Israel. His father Jehoram had married a sister of Ahab’s son Ahaziah (1Ki 22:40 ; 2Ki 8:18).

22:5 Jehoram the son of Ahab. Jehoram succeeded his brother Ahaziah because Ahaziah had no son of his own (2Ki 1:17). He is also called Joram, a short form of Jehoram, to distinguish him from his brother-in-law Jehoram who was king of Judah. Hazaël. Hazael was the king of Damascus who came to power after assassinating Ben-hadad (2Ki 8:7-15). Elijah had prophesied that this would come about and had even commissioned Elisha to anoint Hazael to his new position (1Ki 19:15). Elisha wept after he had anointed Hazael, for he knew that Hazael would cruelly kill many Israelites. Ramoth-gilead. Ahab and Jehoshaphat had tried to recover this city from Aramean domination 12 years earlier (18:3).

22:10 the royal family. Most of the royal heirs that Athaliah murdered were her own grandchildren. She wanted to stamp out the Davidic dynasty and bring Judah back under Israelite control. Satan had been diligent in his attempts to thwart the plans of God, and because the Davidic line was directly linked to the Messiah, this would have been a strategic move. It is not unlike the murder of the baby boys by Herod at the time of Jesus’ birth (Mt 2:10-18).

23:3 Unity— Unity is only unity when we are “the same” on issues of the truth. The removal of Athaliah could not have occurred without the cooperation and teamwork of everyone. Knowing that they were doing God’s will gave them great courage. Go to Theological Notes Index

23:11 the testimony. The testimony was a copy of the Law of Moses, part of which outlined the king’s covenant privileges and duties (Dt 17:18-20 ; 1Ch 29:19). anointed him. Anointing was a sign and seal of the king’s appointment by God (1Sa 16:3 ; 1Ki 1:39).

24:7 dedicated things. The dedicated things included gold, silver, and other valuables collected as tribute from defeated enemies and presented to God as spoils of war, acknowledging that the victory was His and for His purposes (2Sa 8:10-11).

24:14 all the days of Jehoiada. As long as Jehoiada remained alive, Judah enjoyed a revival of the true worship of God.

24:20-21 Zechariah the son of Jehoiada. This priest is not the prophet of the same name who wrote the Book of Zechariah, nor is he the Zacharias mentioned by Jesus (Mt 23:35). Zechariah, whose father rescued the young Joash, may even have been raised like a brother to King Joash. The “Zechariah, son of Berechiah,” that Jesus refers to was probably the prophet who wrote the Book of Zechariah (Zec 1:7) ), although the reference to his death is found only in the Gospels.

24:22 Martyrs— Zechariah is one of the pre-Christian martyrs who gave his life for his faith in God. Some of these faithful ones are listed in Hebrews 11, some are known only to God. Jesus predicted that those killed for their faith would actually increase in the last days (Mt 10:21 ; 24:9) and during the coming great tribulation, the ranks of the martyrs will swell to unprecedented size (Rev 7:14). The “offense” of martyrs is their relationship with God; their comfort is that God knows, and He keeps them faithful to the end (2Ti 4:8). Go to Theological Notes Index

24:24 executed judgment. God arranged for Israel’s defeat and Josiah’s death in fulfillment of Zechariah’s dying cry for justice (v. 22). Judgment for evil does not always come so quickly, but it is just as inevitable, no matter how long it is delayed.

25:7 do not let this army of Israel go with you. As long as Israel was in rebellion against God, He would not bless any alliance with them. Ephraim. Ephraim was the dominant tribe in Israel, so the whole kingdom was sometimes referred to as Ephraim (Hos 4:15–19).

25:11 Valley of Salt. This valley was probably in the desert south of the Dead Sea. men of Seir. These people were Edomites, descendants of Esau.

25:18 thorn bush . . . cedar. The thorn bush represents Amaziah, and the cedar, Joash. It was arrogant for the weak, insignificant Amaziah to suppose that he could defeat Joash. wild beast. The wild beast that tramples the bush represents the war that Amaziah was so eager to pursue.

25:19 Vanity— Those who reject God’s counsel in favor of their own way are taking counsel against Him; their devising is in vain and will come to nothing (Ps 2:12). Refusing God’s counsel, though seeking counsel from others, Amaziah decided to challenge the king of Israel to war (v. 17). It is hard to imagine how he thought he could succeed under such circumstances. One of the delusions that goes with rejection of God is a false confidence in ones’ own powers of understanding. Go to Theological Notes Index

25:27 Lachish. The fact that Amaziah reached the city of Lachish on the border with Philistia, some 25 miles from Jerusalem, suggests that he may have been seeking sanctuary among the Philistines.

26:2 Eloth. On the eastern arm of the Red Sea, Eloth was technically in Edomite territory (8:17), but it was regularly under Israel or Judah throughout Old Testament times (21:8–10).

26:15 machines. This is one of the earliest references to catapults, which seem to have been defensive weapons, since their users were on the towers and in the corners.

26:19 leprosy. Leprosy was any kind of serious skin condition (Lev 13:1–14:32). Today the term “leprosy” refers technically only to Hansen’s disease. The Law viewed leprosy as a breach of God’s own holiness; it was a graphic symbol of defilement.

26:22 Isaiah. Isaiah the prophet witnessed the last years of Uzziah, but very little about Uzziah is included in the Book of Isaiah. The books of Kings and Chronicles frequently refer to further details written about the kings, but they were not part of the Scripture, so we know very little about these records.

27:1 sixteen years. Jotham’s sixteen years began eleven years before Uzziah died. This suggests that Uzziah had leprosy for more than a decade before he died.

27:3 upper gate. This gate connected the temple and the royal palace. wall of Ophel. Ophel was the original Jebusite area of Jerusalem. Its walls dated back hundreds of years and must have required regular maintenance.

27:6 Truth— In the face of deep moral corruption among his people, Jotham set his course to act on God’s truth. There is always blessing in obedience, even if the blessing is not the sort that the rest of the world can see. Go to Theological Notes Index

28:1 did not do right in the sight of the LORD . During Ahaz’s reign Isaiah and Micah prophesied in Judah, and Hosea prophesied in Israel.

28:3 Valley of Ben-hinnom. This valley was just outside the western wall of Jerusalem. It was a dumping ground for all kinds of refuse, much of which was burned. The valley itself became a symbol of impurity. It was used as a site of pagan worship, including human sacrifice (2Ki 23:10 ; Jer 7:31–32 ; 19:2–6 ; 32:35 ). repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations. Worshipers of the Ammonite god Molech practiced human and child sacrifice (Lev 18:21 ; 20:2–5 ; Dt 12:31 ).

28:4 every green tree. Canaanite nature cults focused on evergreens, probably as symbols of perpetual fertility (see note on 14:3 ).

28:6 Pekah. Pekah, who assassinated Pekahiah son of Menahem so that he could become king of Israel (2Ki 15:23–27 ), reigned for 20 years. He was murdered in a plot headed by Hoshea, the last king of Israel. because they had abandoned (turned away from) the LORD God. Pekah was not offended by Judah's godlessness and did not himself initiate this purge. God used Pekah to carry out His judgment.

28:9 Oded. The prophet Oded is mentioned only here. killed them in a rage. God used the Israelite armies to carry out His judgment on Judah (v. 6 ), but He never intended for the Israelites to enjoy it.

28:13 our guilt is so great. Within ten years the Assyrians would capture Samaria and deport all of the Israelites, treating them far more cruelly than they were treating the Judeans. The Israelites brought this judgment on themselves not only by this incident, but by the whole course of the history of their unfaithfulness to God.

28:16 king of Assyria. The kings of Assyria were Tiglath-pileser III, Shalamaneser V, and Sargon II.

28:18 Beth-shemesh . . . Gimzo. All these places were near valleys that led up to central Judah from the surrounding plains. Control of them meant control of Judah itself. Because Ahaz understood this, he appealed to Assyria.

28:20 Tilgath-pilneser. Tilgath-pilneser brought the Mesopotamian influence over the countries of the eastern Mediterranean to its highest point. He undertook a campaign against Arpad in Syria and terrorized Menahem of Israel so much that Menahem paid him a huge bribe to be left alone (2Ki 15:19 ). Tilgath returned to the west again, and Ahaz scrambled for protection against Syria and Israel (2Ki 16:5–7 ; Isa 7:1–2 ). The Assyrians overran Damascus and replaced the assassinated Pekah of Israel with Hoshea (2Ki 15:30 ), but they did not assist Ahaz. The king of Judah's troubles with the Edomites, Philistines, Arameans, and even the Israelites (Isa 7:1 ) were over for the time being, but at great cost.

28:23 Unbelief— Looking to the gods of his enemies, foolishly believing that the gods had aided his enemies in their victory, Ahaz went farther from God into unbelief. Ahaz committed two grievous sins. He ascribed to another source what was God's doing, and he placed his faith in what was imagined, to bring success to himself. There is never a time when God is out of control. Even if things do not turn out the way we wish they would, we can be sure that if we keep our minds and attitudes in line with God's ways, we will eventually see these events from His perspective. Go to Theological Notes Index

29:9 in captivity. Under the wicked leadership of Ahaz, many of the people of Judah had been taken captive by Rezin of Damascus and Pekah of Israel (28:5–8 ).

29:12 Kohathites . . . Merari . . . Gershonites. Hezekiah summoned the leaders of the three major Levitical clans, two leaders from each clan.

29:21 bulls . . . rams . . . lambs . . . goats. The law required the sacrifice of these animals for atonement of sin in general (Lev 1:3–13 ). On the other hand, the sacrifice of goats atoned for specific sins (Lev 4:1–5:13 ). Here the priests offered seven of each kind to signify the wholeness of their repentance.

29:24 all Israel. The repetition of "all Israel" here suggests that Hezekiah meant to include all twelve tribes, including the Northern Kingdom (30:1–9 ).

29:30 the words of David and of Asaph. This refers to the psalms of David and Asaph (1Ch 6:39 ; 15:17 ; 16:5 ; 25:1 ), many of them in the Book of Psalms. The people of Judah used these psalms for community worship and private meditation.

29:31 thank offerings. Sometimes called “peace” or “fellowship” offerings, thank offerings celebrated the relationship gained by the offerings of atonement (v. 21–24 ; Lev 3:1–17 ; 7:11–36 ). The thank offerings included people and priests in a great banquet together, all in fellowship with God.

29:34 too few priests. Under Ahaz the priests and Levites had been stripped of their duties. Now, 20 years later, there were not enough priests.

30:1 sent word to all Israel. Though the kingdom of Israel had split more than two centuries before, Hezekiah never lost sight of the fact that God’s covenant was made with all twelve tribes and that His promises included them all (Eze 37:15–28 ).

30:8 come to His sanctuary. People who were not priests were not allowed to enter the temple. This phrase is a figure of speech for serving the Lord.

30:9 if you return to the LORD . Hezekiah was referring to the covenant (Dt 28–30 ) which promised that obedience would lead to blessing in the land, and disobedience would result in exile.

30:10 as far as Zebulun. Zebulun was probably the northernmost territory of Israel at this time because Naphtali had been taken by Tiglath-pileser III (2Ki 15:29 ).

30:17 Levites had to slaughter. Traditionally the slaughter of the Passover lamb was performed by the head of the family (Ex 12:3–6 ). But on this occasion many were not ritually purified, and the Levites acted on their behalf.

30:22 who showed good understanding. The Levites’ ministry included teaching (17:8–10 ). The people of Israel had had virtually no consistent teaching of God’s revelation for 200 years, apart from the witness of the prophets such as Elijah, Elisha, Hosea, and Amos.

30:25 sojourners. The sojourners were aliens who lived in Israel and Judah and who could come to the festivals because they adhered to God and the Law (Dt 16:11 ; 26:11 ; 29:11 ; 31:12 ).

30:26 Heaven— Solomon asked God to hear the prayers of the people as they directed their prayers toward the temple in Jerusalem, and to respond from His dwelling in heaven (2Ch 6:21 ). The people, nearly 200 years after Solomon made this prayer, sought the Lord, and He heard them. There is great joy among the people when they realize that God hears them from heaven, and there is great joy in heaven when one sinner repents (Lk 15:7 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

31:2 Hezekiah appointed. The long interruption (28:24 ) of Judah’s official worship in the time of Ahaz brought chaos to their religious life. David had originally organized the Levitical system, but because of the years of neglect, Hezekiah had to reorganize it.

31:3 New Moons. The new moon celebrations came at the appearance of the new moon, the beginning of another month (Nu 28:11–15 ). appointed feasts. The fixed festivals were the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread (Lev 23:4–8 ); Feast of Firstfruits or Pentecost (Lev 23:15–22 ); and the Feast of Tabernacles (Lev 23:33–43 ).

31:5 first fruits. The early harvests of grain, particularly barley, were being reaped at this time. The Passover had been held a month late (30:2 ) and it was now the third month. The first fruits began appearing at the time of the late Passover, and the harvests were fully gathered in some 50 days later, at the time of Pentecost (Lev 23:9–22 ). the tithe. A tenth of the harvest belonged to the Levites (Nu 18:21–24 ).

31:17 genealogically . . . by their divisions. All temple servants had to descend from Levi, but the priests had to trace their genealogy specifically to Aaron (1Ch 6:49–53 ).

Sennacherib's Campaign in Philistia and Judah

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

32:1 Sennacherib. In Hezekiah's fourteenth year, Sennacherib invaded Judah and eventually laid siege to Jerusalem (2Ki 18:13-17). One of the most imperialistic of Assyria's kings, Sennacherib undertook many military campaigns to the west. In his own inscriptions he boasts of having taken many of Judah's cities, a claim supported by the parallel account in 2 Kings.

32:3 stop up the water. Hezekiah managed to stop the water by concealing the springs outside the city and then digging a tunnel to bring them to the Pool of Siloam inside the city walls. Hezekiah hid the source of water and made it unavailable to the enemy (2Ki 20:20 ). The Siloam Inscription describes how workmen constructed the 1,800 foot tunnel connecting the springs of Gihon to the Pool of Siloam.

32:5 strengthened the Millo. Millo means landfill and refers to extensive terracing that surrounded the ancient hills of Ophel and Mount Zion. The work of extending the hills of Jerusalem was first undertaken by David (1Ch 11:7–8 ) and continued by Solomon (1Ki 9:15 ).

32:9 while he was at Lachish [besieging it]. Both the Old Testament and Assyrian inscriptions document the siege against Lachish, an important fortified city west of Jerusalem and near the great coastal route (11:9 ). Its capture by Assyria would cut off access to Jerusalem from the west and would give Assyria control of the coast.

32:18 in the language of Judah. Aramaic had become the language of international communication and diplomacy and there was no reason to continue the dialogue in Hebrew except to traumatize the people.

32:20 the prophet Isaiah. By now the prophet Isaiah had been involved in public ministry to the kings of Judah for nearly 40 years (26:22 ; Isa 6:1 ). He had considerable prestige and was especially important as a counselor of young Hezekiah (Isa 37:1–7 ).

32:25 his heart had become proud. Hezekiah had received Babylonian envoys who had come to congratulate him on his recovery, and probably to enlist his support in their struggle against Assyria (2Ki 20:12–19 ). Their visit ignited his desire to show off the treasures of his kingdom, and this treasure was eventually seized by the same Babylonians (2Ki 20:16–18 ; Isa 39:6–7 ).

32:31 test. This test was not for God's benefit, but for Hezekiah's.

33:4 My Name shall be in Jerusalem. The point was that God had the exclusive right to inhabit the temple, as opposed to the deities Manasseh introduced (v. 5 ).

33:6 pass through the fire. Like Ahaz, Manasseh practiced human sacrifice, going so far as to offer up his own children (28:3 ). divination . . . sorcery. Divination and sorcery attempt to bring about desired results by employing magical or mystical rituals. mediums and spiritists. Mediums are those who claim to contact and consult with the dead. Spiritists are the “knowing ones” whose specialty is also communication with the dead in the hope of acquiring information inaccessible to the living. All such practices were common among Canaanite and other pagan religions and were to be strictly avoided by God's people (Dt 13:1–6 ; 18:9–14 ).

33:11 Babylon. For some time Babylon had been part of the Assyrian Empire, though it had broken free on occasion, especially under the leadership of Berodach-Baladan, Hezekiah's contemporary (2Ki 20:12 ). Ashurbanipal brought Babylon back under Assyrian domination. He was the king who took Manasseh to Babylon as a prisoner.

33:14 outer wall for the City of David. The term “City of David” originally referred to Mount Zion alone (1Ch 11:5 ) but eventually designated the entire city, including Mount Ophel, the original Jebusite settlement. Gihon. Gihon was the spring that was the main source of water for Jerusalem. It was in the Kidron valley near the northeastern brow of Mt. Zion. Fish Gate. The fish gate was in the center of the wall north of the temple. Manasseh's construction was a total distance of about 750 yards.

33:20 buried him in [the garden of] his own house. Manasseh had truly converted (v. 13 ), but his prior sin had been so heinous that he was denied burial in the royal cemetery.

34:3 carved and cast images. (See note for 14:3 ).

34:5 burned the bones of the [pagan] priests. This act of Josiah, which took place at Bethel, fulfilled the words of the prophet of Judah in the days of Jeroboam I, king of Israel (1Ki 13:1–2 ; 2Ki 23:15–16 ). The prophet had mentioned Josiah by name three hundred years before.

34:8 Shaphan. Shaphan was a scribe or secretary of the king (v. 15 ). He was responsible for state records that must have included the original temple plans and specifications. The temple was repaired strictly according to its original pattern. Joahaz the recorder (secretary). The recorder kept the royal diaries. Official happenings were duly noted and recorded for posterity. The work of men like Joahaz provided sources for later historians such as the author of Chronicles (1Ch 18:15 ).

34:22 Huldah the prophetess. Huldah is one of four female prophets named in the Old Testament. The other three are Miriam (Ex 15:20 ), Deborah (Jdg 4:4 ), and Noadiah (Neh 6:14 ).

34:24 all the curses that are written in the book. Both Deuteronomy and Leviticus had long lists of blessings for obedience and curses for rebellion, which were part of the conditions attached to the covenant with Israel (Dt 28–30 ).

34:25 Apostasy— In all of life, no greater sin, no more serious or sadder error could be made than to forsake God and believe other gods. Such an act cuts one off from all of the loving care, the wisdom, and discipline of the Creator God. Apostasy grieves God, and it grieves those who love God. Go to Theological Notes Index

34:31 a covenant . . . to walk after \(obey\) the LORD . Very few of the kings of Judah promised to follow the Lord as Josiah did. After David, only Joash, Hezekiah, and Josiah made such public commitments (23:3 ; 29:10 ; 1Ch 17:7–14 ).

[35:3 Put the holy ark in the house \(temple\) . . . it shall not be a burden \[carried\] on your shoulders.](#) The ark had apparently been removed from the temple. Who removed it and when or why is not known, but plenty of wicked kings could have done it. Manasseh's vehement opposition to God must have kept the ark in constant jeopardy, so perhaps it had been removed for protection. The only proper way to carry the ark was on the shoulders of the priests (Nu 4:5 ; 6:1 ).

35:6 Slaughter the Passover lambs. The Levites were standing in for the people in the sacrifice of the Passover lambs. This became the tradition from that time on, with the result that the priests gained influence and power.

35:13 holy offerings. The other holy offerings, distinguished from the Passover offering, were the cattle slaughtered for thank, or peace, offerings (v. Z ).

35:18 since the days of Samuel the prophet. It had been almost four hundred years since the days of Samuel.

35:20 to make war at Carchemish. Carchemish was one of the last strongholds of Assyria to resist the onslaught of the rising neo-Babylonian kingdom. The Babylonians and Medes were on their way to subdue Haran and Carchemish. Neco, more afraid of the Babylonians than the Assyrians, was hoping to get to Carchemish in time to assist his Assyrian allies in their time of need. Josiah was an ally of Babylon, so he went to Megiddo to intercept the Egyptians.

35:21 God has ordered me. God sometimes spoke to pagan rulers about a course of action He wanted them to take (36:22 ; Ge 20:6 ; 41:25 ; Da 2:28 ). Necho did not know the source of his divine leading, but God did direct him, displaying His sovereignty over even the wicked and unbelieving powers of this world (Isa 44:28–45 ).

35:22 Megiddo. The major route from Egypt to the upper Euphrates was the Via Maris, or Way of the Sea. This route went up the coast of Israel before turning inland through the mountain pass at Megiddo. It crossed the plain of Jezreel, crossed the Jordan near the Sea of Galilee, and went on through Damascus where it joined the north-south route to upper Syria. If Josiah could control the pass at Megiddo, he could control the movement of traffic on that vital route.

36:3 king of Egypt. After Assyria's defeat at Haran and Carchemish, the Egyptian army withdrew south of the Euphrates, dominating Syria and Judah. Judah became an Egyptian vassal state, which explains why Neco could depose Jehoahaz and require tribute.

36:6 Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar was leading a campaign against Carchemish when he succeeded his father. He drove Egypt out of Syria and Judah and took some Jewish captives, including Daniel, back to Babylon (Da 1:1 ). At the same time, Jehoiakim changed his loyalty from Neco to Nebuchadnezzar and remained a trusted vassal for three years (2Ki 24:1 ). But then Jehoiakim rebelled against Babylon, and in about 602 BC Nebuchadnezzar returned to Jerusalem to punish him. to take him to Babylon. Jehoiakim was not actually taken to Babylon since he reigned until 598 BC and died of natural causes in Jerusalem (Jer 22:18 ).

36:7 brought some of the articles of the house (temple) of the LORD . The Babylonian king looted the temple of much of its treasure, fulfilling the prophecy made to Hezekiah a century earlier (32:31 ). his temple. His temple was the temple of the Babylonian's patron god Marduk.

36:10 Zedekiah. Zedekiah was the youngest of the four sons of Josiah, and the third to rule over Judah (v. 1 ). He became king by Nebuchadnezzar's appointment, showing Judah's status as a Babylonian vassal (v. 3 ).

36:12 Jeremiah. Jeremiah was the famous prophet who composed the Book of Jeremiah, which included his words to Zedekiah (Jer 21:3–7 ; 32:5 ).

36:14 all the repulsive acts of the [pagan] nations. This statement refers primarily to idolatry and all the immorality and perversity that went with it. God's covenant with Israel required them to be different from the nations in this key respect (Ex 23:24 ; Lev 26:1 ; Dt 4:15–20 , 25–28 ; 18:9–14 ; 27:14–15 ).

36:16 Unbelief— There is a line of divine patience that a nation can cross, bringing doom upon that country. In 586 BC Judah stepped over that mark. Prior to this God had graciously given His people many opportunities to repent of their unbelief. When we earnestly pray for our country as commanded by God (1Ti 2:1–2 ) we are asking to be kept from overstepping the limit of God's patience. About three thousand years ago, Solomon succinctly said, "Righteousness [moral and spiritual integrity and virtuous character] exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people." (Pr 14:34 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

36:17 king of the Chaldeans. The Chaldean, or Babylonian, king was Nebuchadnezzar, who reigned from 605 to 562 BC. He became an instrument of God's judgment all through Judah's last years and well into the Exile (Da 2:37–38 ; 5:18–19 ).

36:20 until the kingdom of Persia. Cyrus conquered Babylon in 539 BC and allowed the Jews to return to Jerusalem the following year.

36:21 Jeremiah. In two places (Jer 25:12 ; 29:10 ) Jeremiah predicted the Exile and its length (Da 9:2 ). Sabbath. According to the Law of Moses, the land was to lie fallow every seventh year (Lev 25:4 ). Judah's exile in Babylon allowed the land to enjoy the sabbaths it had missed because of disobedience (Lev 26:33–35 ).

36:22 the first year of Cyrus. The first year refers to the first year of Cyrus' rule over Babylon, not his first year over Media and Persia. He began to rule Media and Persia in 550 BC. Twelve years later he brought Babylon under his control and issued his famous decree, known from the Old Testament (Ezr 1:2–4 ) and from his own records, the Cylinder of Cyrus. Jeremiah's seventy years were from about 609 to 539 BC. the LORD stirred up. Cyrus was both a mighty monarch and the instrument by whom God delivered His people from exile, returned them to their land, and rebuilt the temple (Isa 44:28–45 ). Like many rulers who encountered the Living God, Cyrus recognized and even extolled His power as the God of Israel, but this was not the same as abandoning all other gods and following the Lord alone.

36:23 Providence— God is the Lord of the universe. He not only rules over those who are called by His name, but He also moves upon the hearts and minds of others whom He chooses to use in the fulfillment of His purpose. It was part of God's plan for the Jews to be taken captive by Babylon, and for Babylon to be taken by Persia. Cyrus had been chosen and ordained for his role in returning the Jews to their own land, and was even called by name by Isaiah the prophet (Isa 44:28 ; 45:1 ). It is not always possible to understand the things that the Lord is doing, but we can still rejoice in His providence, confident that the Judge of all the earth will do right (Ge 18:25 ). ## The Book of

Ezra

- AUTHOR: Although Ezra is not specifically named as the author, Jewish tradition attributes the book to him. This seems appropriate as portions of the book are written in the first person, from Ezra's point of view (7:28–9:15 ). Similar to Chronicles, this book has a strong priestly emphasis. Ezra was a direct descendant of Aaron through Eleazar, Phinehas, and Zadok, and so came from a long and illustrious priestly line. It is believed that Ezra had access to the extensive library of written documents gathered by Nehemiah and that this was one of the sources used in writing this book as well as Chronicles.
- TIMES: c. 538–457 BC
- KEY VERSE: Ezr 1:3
- THEME: Many scholars think Ezra and Nehemiah belong together as one book. Together they tell parts of the same story. The exile is over and the temple is to be rebuilt along with the wall of Jerusalem despite considerable opposition. While Nehemiah's perspective is that of a civil servant and building contractor, Ezra is a teacher of the law and a priest, and as such, provides leadership by bringing God's Word to the people and by restoring proper worship. When the people respond to the Word and reestablish their relationship with God through worship, the building process is renewed and completed.

Ezra 1

Proclamation of Cyrus

<sup>1</sup> NOW IN the first year of Cyrus king of Persia [that is, the first year he ruled Babylon], in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah [the prophet], the LORD stirred up (put in motion) the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying: [Jer 29:10–14] ‡

<sup>2</sup> “Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and He has appointed me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.’ ‡

<sup>3</sup> ‘Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him! Let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel; He is God who is in Jerusalem.’ ‡

<sup>4</sup> ‘In any place where a survivor (Jewish exile) may live, let the men (Gentiles) of that place support him with silver and gold, with goods and cattle, together with freewill offerings for the house of God in Jerusalem.’ ”

Holy Articles Restored

<sup>5</sup> Then the heads of the fathers’ households of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and Levites, all those whose spirits God had stirred up, arose to go up and rebuild the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>6</sup> All those who were around them encouraged them with articles of silver, with gold, with goods, with cattle, and with valuable things, in addition to all that was given as a freewill offering.

<sup>7</sup> Also King Cyrus brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem [when he captured that city] and had put in the house of his gods. ‡

<sup>9</sup> And they counted: 30 dishes (basins) of gold, 1,000 dishes of silver, 29 duplicates;

<sup>10</sup> 30 [small] gold bowls, 410 [small] silver bowls of a second kind, and 1,000 other articles.

<sup>11</sup> All the articles of gold and of silver totaled 5,400. All these Sheshbazzar [the governor] brought up with the exiles who went from Babylon up to Jerusalem.

<sup>60</sup> the sons of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda, 652.

Priests Removed

<sup>62</sup> These searched [for their names] among those registered in the genealogies, but they were not found; so they were excluded from the priesthood as [ceremonially] unclean. ‡

<sup>63</sup> The governor told them that they should not eat of the most holy things [the priests' food] until a priest stood up with Urim and Thummim [who by consulting these articles in his breastplate could determine God's will in the matter]. ‡

<sup>65</sup> besides their male and female servants who numbered 7,337; and [among them] they had 200 male and female singers.

<sup>69</sup> They gave according to their ability to the treasury for the work, 61,000 drachmas of gold, 5,000 minas of silver, and 100 priestly [linen] garments. ‡

<sup>70</sup> So the priests, the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants settled in their [own] cities, and all

Israel [gradually settled] into their cities.‡

Ezra 3

Altar and Sacrifices Restored

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THE seventh month came and the sons of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem. Chronology: Ezra—Nehemiah

<sup>2</sup> Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers arose, and they built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses, the man of God. ‡

<sup>3</sup> So they set up the altar on its [old] foundation, for they were terrified because of the peoples of the lands; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, morning and evening. ‡

<sup>4</sup> They celebrated the Feast of Booths, as it is written, and offered the fixed number of daily burnt offerings, in accordance with the ordinances, as each day required; ‡

<sup>5</sup> and afterward, there was the continual burnt offering, the offering at the New Moons, and at all the appointed festivals of the LORD that were consecrated, and the offerings of everyone who made a voluntary offering to the LORD. ‡

<sup>6</sup> From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, but the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid.

<sup>7</sup> They gave money to the masons and to the carpenters, and gave food, drink, and [olive] oil to the people from Sidon and Tyre, to bring cedar wood from Lebanon to the seaport of Joppa, in accordance with the authorization they had from Cyrus king of Persia. ‡

Temple Restoration Begun

<sup>8</sup> In the second year of their coming to God's house at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak began [the work], with the rest of their brothers—the priests and Levites and all who came to Jerusalem from the captivity. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to oversee the work of the house of the

<sup>9</sup> Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers stood united with Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah and the sons of Henadad with their sons and brothers the Levites, to oversee the workmen in the house of God. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Now when the builders had laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with their cymbals, to praise the LORD in accordance with the directions of David king of Israel. ‡

<sup>11</sup> They sang [responsively], praising and giving thanks to the LORD, saying , “For He is good, for His lovingkindness (mercy) toward Israel endures forever.” And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. ‡

<sup>12</sup> But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers’ households, the old men who had seen the first house (temple), wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, while many shouted aloud for joy, <sup>13</sup> so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard far away.

Ezra 4

Adversaries Hinder the Work

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN [the Samaritans] the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles from the captivity were building a temple to the LORD God of Israel, ‡

<sup>2</sup> they came to Zerubbabel [who was now governor] and to the heads of the fathers’ households and said to them, “Let us build with you, for we seek your God [and worship] just as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here.”  [2 Kin 17:24–29] ‡

<sup>3</sup> But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers’ households of Israel said to them, “You have nothing in common with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves will together build to the LORD God of Israel, just as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us.” ‡

the people of Judah, and frightened them [to deter them] from building,‡

<sup>5</sup> and hired advisers [to work] against them to frustrate their plans during the entire time that Cyrus king of Persia reigned, [and this lasted] even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

<sup>6</sup> Now in the reign of Ahasuerus (Xerxes), in the beginning of his reign, the Samaritans wrote [to him] an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem [who had returned from exile].

<sup>7</sup> Later, in the days of [King] Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of their associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the text of the letter was written in Aramaic and translated from Aramaic.

The Letter to King Artaxerxes

<sup>8</sup> Rehum the [Persian] commander [of the Samaritans] and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows—

<sup>9</sup> then wrote Rehum the [Persian] commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates, the judges, the lesser governors, the officials, the secretaries, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites,‡

<sup>10</sup> and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar deported and settled in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the region west of the [Euphrates] River. Now‡

<sup>11</sup> this is a copy of the letter which they sent to him:

“To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men in the region west of the [Euphrates] River; and now:

<sup>12</sup> Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem. They are rebuilding this rebellious and evil city and are finishing its walls and repairing the foundations.

<sup>13</sup> “Now let it be known to the king, that if that city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, then they will not pay tax, custom, or toll, and the revenue of the kings will be diminished.‡

<sup>14</sup> “Now because we are in the service of the palace, and it is not proper for us to witness the king’s dishonor, for that reason we have sent word and informed the king,

<sup>15</sup> in order that a search may be made in the record books of your fathers. And you will discover in the record books and learn that this is a rebellious city, damaging to kings and provinces, and that in the past they have incited rebellion within it. That is why that city was laid waste (destroyed).

<sup>16</sup> “We are informing the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls finished, it will mean that you will have no possession in the province west of the [Euphrates] River.”

The King Replies and Work Stops

<sup>17</sup> Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the [Persian] commander, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their colleagues who live in Samaria and in the rest of the provinces west of the River: “Peace (Greetings). And now, <sup>18</sup> The document which you sent to us has been translated and read before me.

<sup>19</sup> “I have issued a command and a search has been made, and it has been discovered that this city [Jerusalem] in earlier times has revolted against the kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been perpetrated in it.

<sup>20</sup> “There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem who have ruled over all the provinces west of the [Euphrates] River, and tax, custom, and toll were paid to them. ‡

<sup>21</sup> “So, now issue a decree to make these men stop [work], so that this city is not rebuilt until a [new] command is issued by me.

<sup>22</sup> “Beware of being negligent in carrying out this matter. Why should damage increase to the detriment of the kings?”

<sup>23</sup> Then as soon as the copy of King Artaxerxes’ document was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, and their colleagues, they went up hurriedly to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them stop [work] by force of arms.

<sup>24</sup> Then the work on the house of God in Jerusalem stopped. It was suspended until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezra 5

Temple Work Resumed

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, the son (grandson) of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, whose Spirit was over them, ‡

<sup>2</sup> then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel [heir to the throne of Judah] and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God [Haggai and Zechariah] were with them, supporting and encouraging them.  [Hag 1:12–14; Matt 1:12, 13 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> At that time Tattenai, the governor of the province on the west side of the [Euphrates] River, and Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues came to them and said, “Who issued you a decree and authorized you to rebuild this temple and to restore this wall (shrine)?” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were reconstructing this building. ‡

<sup>5</sup> But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, so they [Tattenai and the others] did not stop them until a report could come before Darius, and then an answer was returned by letter concerning it. ‡

Adversaries Write to Darius

<sup>7</sup> They sent a report to him in which it was written: “To Darius the king, all peace.

<sup>8</sup> “Let it be known to the king that we have gone to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God. It is being built with huge stones, with beams laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and care and is succeeding in their hands.

<sup>9</sup> “Then we asked those elders, ‘Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?’ ‡

<sup>10</sup> “We also asked them their names so that we might notify you, and so that we might record the names of the men in charge.

<sup>11</sup> “They replied, ‘We are servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are rebuilding the temple which was erected many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.’ ‡

<sup>12</sup> ‘But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and exiled the people to Babylon.’ ‡

<sup>13</sup> ‘But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, [the same] King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.’ ‡

<sup>14</sup> ‘Also the gold and silver utensils of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and had brought into the temple of Babylon, King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon and had them given to a man whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.‡

<sup>15</sup> ‘And Cyrus said to him, “Take these utensils, go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site.”

<sup>16</sup> ‘Then that Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from then until now it has been under construction and is not yet completed.’‡

<sup>17</sup> “So now, if it pleases the king, let a search be conducted in the king’s treasure house [in the royal archives] there in Babylon to see if it is true that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to rebuild this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send us his decision concerning this matter.”‡

Darius Finds Cyrus’ Decree

<sup>3</sup>—“In the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king issued a decree: ‘Concerning the house of God in Jerusalem, let the temple (house), the place where sacrifices are offered, be rebuilt and let its foundations be strongly laid, its height and its width each 60 cubits,

<sup>4</sup> with three layers of huge stones and one layer of timbers. Let the cost be paid from the royal treasury.‡

<sup>5</sup> ‘Also let the gold and silver utensils of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and brought back to their [proper] places in the temple in Jerusalem; and you shall put them in the house of God.’‡

<sup>7</sup> “Leave the work on this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

<sup>8</sup> “Also, I issue a decree as to what you are to do for these Jewish elders for the rebuilding of this house of God: the full cost is to be paid to these people from the royal treasury out of the taxes of the provinces west of the River, and that without delay.

<sup>9</sup> “Whatever is needed, including young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine, and anointing oil, according to the request of the priests at Jerusalem, let it all be given to them daily without fail,

<sup>10</sup> so that they may offer pleasing (sweet-smelling) sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons. ‡

<sup>11</sup> “I have also issued a decree that if there is any man who violates this edict, a beam of timber shall be pulled from his house [and set up]; then he shall be impaled on it, and his house shall be turned into a refuse heap for this [violation]. ‡

<sup>12</sup> “May the God who has caused His Name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who attempts to alter this command, so as to destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued this decree; let it be carried out quickly and with due diligence. ‡

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

<sup>13</sup> Then Tattenai, governor of the province west of the [Euphrates] River, with Shethar-bozenai and their associates carried out the decree with due diligence, just as King Darius had sent and commanded.

<sup>14</sup> And the Jewish elders built and prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They finished their building as commanded by the God of Israel and in accordance with the decree of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes king of Persia. ‡

<sup>15</sup> This temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

<sup>16</sup> And all Israel—the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the [former] exiles—celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy. ‡

<sup>17</sup> They offered at the dedication of this house of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and, as a sin offering for all Israel, 12 male goats, according to the number of Israel’s tribes. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Then they appointed the priests to their divisions and the Levites in their orders for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses. ‡

The Passover Observed

19. The [former] exiles kept the Passover on the fourteenth [day] of the first month. ‡

20. For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were [ceremonially] clean. So they slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. ‡

21. The Passover was eaten by the sons (descendants) of Israel (Jacob) who returned from exile and by all those who had separated themselves from the [ceremonial] uncleanness of the nations of the land to join them, in order to seek the LORD God of Israel. ‡

22. They observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with joy, for the LORD had caused them to rejoice and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, so that he encouraged them and strengthened their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel. ‡

Ezra 7

Ezra Journeys from Babylon to Jerusalem

1 NOW AFTER this, in the reign of Artaxerxes I [son of Ahasuerus (Xerxes)] king of Persia, Ezra the son (descendant) of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ‡

2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—

6 this Ezra went up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the Law (the five books) of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given; and the king granted him everything that he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him. ‡

7 Some of the sons of Israel, with some of the priests and Levites, the singers and gatekeepers, and the temple servants also went up [from Babylon] to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes. ‡

8 Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

9 For on the first of the first month he started out from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth month he arrived in Jerusalem, because the good hand of his

God was on him. ‡

<sup>10</sup> For Ezra had set his heart (resolved) to study and interpret the Law of the LORD, and to practice it and teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel. ‡

King's Decree on Behalf of Ezra

<sup>11</sup> Now this is a copy of the decree that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe [who was] learned in the words of the commandments of the LORD and of His statutes to Israel:

<sup>12</sup> "Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, perfect peace (greetings). And now ‡

<sup>13</sup> I have issued a decree that all of the people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my kingdom who are willing to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

<sup>14</sup> "For you are sent by the king and his seven advisers to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem in accordance with the Law of your God, which is in your hand, ‡

<sup>15</sup> and to bring [with you] the silver and gold which the king and his advisers have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, ‡

<sup>16</sup> and all the silver and gold which you find in the whole province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and of the priests for the house of their God in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>17</sup> "Therefore with this money, you shall diligently buy bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>18</sup> "And whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, you may do in accordance with the will of your God.

<sup>19</sup> "As for the utensils which are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver [those] in full before the God of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> "The rest of the things required for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, provide it from the royal treasury.

<sup>21</sup> "And I, Artaxerxes the king, issue a decree to all the treasurers in the provinces west of the [Euphrates] River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, it shall be done diligently and at once—

22-even up to 100 talents of silver, 100 kors (measures) of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of [olive] oil, and salt as needed.

<sup>23</sup> “Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done diligently and with enthusiasm for the house of the God of heaven, so that there will not be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons.

<sup>24</sup> “We also inform you that it is not authorized to impose tax, tribute, or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, temple servants or other servants of this house of God.

<sup>25</sup> “You, Ezra, are to appoint magistrates and judges in accordance with the wisdom and instruction of your God which is in your hand, so that they may judge all the people who are in the province west of the [Euphrates] River; appoint those who know the laws of your God; and you may teach anyone who does not know them. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Whoever does not observe and practice the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed upon him strictly and promptly, whether it be for death or banishment or confiscation of property or imprisonment.”

The King’s Kindness

<sup>27</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers [said Ezra], who put such a thing as this in the king’s heart, to adorn and glorify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, ‡

<sup>28</sup> and has extended His mercy and lovingkindness to me before the king, his advisers, and all the king’s mighty officials. I was strengthened and encouraged, for the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together outstanding men of Israel to go up with me [to Jerusalem]. ‡

Ezra 8

People Who Went with Ezra

with him were registered 150 men by genealogy; ‡

- <sup>4</sup> of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, with 200 men;
- <sup>5</sup> of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, with 300 men;
- <sup>6</sup> of the sons of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, with 50 men;
- <sup>7</sup> of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah son of Athaliah, with 70 men;
- <sup>8</sup> of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, with 80 men;
- <sup>9</sup> of the sons of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, with 218 men;
- <sup>10</sup> of the sons of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, with 160 men;
- <sup>11</sup> of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, with 28 men;
- <sup>12</sup> of the sons of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, with 110 men;
- <sup>13</sup> of the sons of Adonikam, the last to come, their names are Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, with 60 men;
- <sup>14</sup> and of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, with 70 men.

Ezra Sends for Levites

<sup>15</sup> Now I gathered them together at the river that runs to Ahava, where we camped for three days. I observed the people and the priests, and I did not find any Levites there. ‡

<sup>16</sup> So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, [who were] leading men, and also for Joiarib and Elnathan, [who were] teachers.

<sup>17</sup> And I sent them to Iddo, the leading man at the place Casiphia, telling them what to say to Iddo and his brothers, the temple servants at the place Casiphia, that is, to bring us servants (ministers) for the house of our God.

<sup>18</sup> And as the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought us a man of understanding (insight) from the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, named Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers (relatives), 18 men; ‡

<sup>19</sup> and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, with his brothers (relatives) and their sons, 20 men;

<sup>20</sup> also 220 of the temple servants, whom David and the leaders had set apart [with their descendants] for the service of the Levites. They were all designated by name. ‡

Protection of God Invoked

<sup>21</sup> Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river Ahava, so that we might humble ourselves before our God to seek from Him a safe journey for us, our children, and all our possessions. ‡

22 For I was ashamed to request troops and horsemen from the king to protect us from the enemy along the way, because we had told the king, “The hand of our God is favorable toward all those who seek Him, but His power and His anger are against all those who abandon (turn away from) Him.” ‡

23 So we fasted and sought [help from] our God concerning this [matter], and He heard our plea. ‡

24 Then I set apart twelve leading priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers (relatives),

25 and I weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the utensils, the offering for the house of our God which the king, his advisers, his officials, and all Israel who were present there had offered. ‡

26 I weighed into their hands 650 talents of silver, and silver utensils worth 100 talents, and 100 talents of gold;

27 also 20 bowls of gold worth 1,000 darics, and two utensils of fine shiny bronze, precious as gold.

28 Then I said to them, “You are holy to the LORD, the utensils are holy, and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers. ‡

29 “Guard and keep them until you weigh them before the leading priests and the Levites and the leaders of the fathers’ households of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.”

30 So the priests and the Levites received the weighed out silver and gold, and the utensils, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

31 We set out from the river Ahava on the twelfth [day] of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and He rescued us from the hand of the enemy and those who lay in ambushes along the way. ‡

32 So we came to Jerusalem and remained there for three days. ‡

Treasure Placed in the Temple

33 On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the utensils were weighed out in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them were the Levites—Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui. ‡

34 Every piece was counted and weighed, and all the weight was recorded at that time.

<sup>35</sup> Also the [former] exiles who had come from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, and 12 male goats for a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD. ‡

<sup>36</sup> And they delivered the king's edicts to the king's satraps (lieutenants) and to the governors west of the [Euphrates] River, and they supported the people and God's house. ‡

Ezra 9

Mixed Marriages

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THESE things were completed, the officials came to me and said, "The people of Israel and the priests and Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, but have committed the repulsive acts of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. ‡

<sup>2</sup> "For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy race has intermingled with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the officials and chief men have been foremost in this unfaithful act and direct violation [of God's will]."  [Deut 7:3, 4] ‡

<sup>3</sup> When I heard this, I tore my clothing and my robe [in grief], I pulled out some of the hair from my head and my beard, and sat down appalled [at the shame of it]. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel because of the unfaithfulness of the exiles gathered to me as I sat appalled until the evening offering. ‡

Prayer of Confession

<sup>5</sup> At the evening offering I arose from my [time of] humiliation and penitence and having torn my clothing and my robe, I fell on my knees and stretched out my hands to the LORD my God, ‡

<sup>6</sup> and I said, "O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to You, my God, for our wrongdoings have risen higher than our heads and our guilt has grown to the heavens. ‡

<sup>7</sup> "Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been exceedingly guilty; and on account of our wrongdoings we, our kings, and our priests have been handed over to the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to complete shame, as it is today. ‡

<sup>8</sup> “But now for a brief moment grace has been [shown to us] from the LORD our God, who has left us a surviving remnant and has given us a peg (secure hold) in His holy place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a little reviving in our bondage. ‡

<sup>9</sup> “For we are slaves; yet our God has not abandoned us in our bondage, but has extended lovingkindness to us before the kings of Persia, to revive us to rebuild the house of our God, to repair the site of its ruins and to give us a wall [of protection] in Judah and Jerusalem. ‡

<sup>10</sup> “Now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have abandoned (turned away from) Your commandments, <sup>11</sup> which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land which you are entering to possess is a defiled land with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their repulsive acts which have filled it from one end to the other along with their impurity.

<sup>12</sup> ‘So now do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons; and never seek their peace or their prosperity, so that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.’ ‡

<sup>13</sup> “And after everything that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God have punished us less than our wrongdoings deserve, and have given us survivors like these, ‡

<sup>14</sup> shall we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the peoples who practice these repulsive acts? Would You not be angry with us to the point of total destruction, so that there would be no remnant nor survivor? [Deut 7:2–4] ‡

<sup>15</sup> “O LORD God of Israel, You are [uncompromisingly] just (righteous), for we have been left as survivors, as it is this day. Behold, we are before You in our guilt, for no one can stand before You because of this.” ‡

Ezra 10

Reconciliation with God

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHILE Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and laying himself face down before the house of God, a very large group from Israel, of men, women, and children, gathered to him, for the people wept bitterly. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope for Israel in spite of this. ‡

<sup>3</sup> “Therefore let us now make a covenant with our God to send away all the [foreign] wives and their children, in accordance with the advice of my lord and of those who tremble [in reverent obedience] at the commandment of our God; and let it be done in accordance with the Law. ‡

<sup>4</sup> “Stand up, for it is your duty, and we will be with you. Be brave and act.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Then Ezra stood and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, take an oath that they would act in accordance with this proposal; so they took the oath. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then Ezra got up from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib [and spent the night there]. He did not eat bread nor drink water, for he was mourning over the [former] exiles’ faithlessness. ‡

<sup>7</sup> They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the [former] exiles, that they were to assemble at Jerusalem,

<sup>8</sup> and that whoever would not come within three days, by order of the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his possessions and property would be forfeited and he himself would be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

<sup>9</sup> So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the twentieth [day] of the ninth month, and all the people sat in the open square in front of the house of God, trembling because of [the seriousness of] this matter and because of the heavy rain. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful [to God] and have married foreign (pagan) women, adding to the guilt of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> “So now, make confession to the LORD God of your fathers and do His will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from [your] foreign wives.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then all the assembly replied with a loud voice, “It is our responsibility to do just as you have said.

<sup>13</sup> “But there are many people and it is the season of heavy rain; so we are unable to stand outside. Nor can the task be done in a day or two, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter.

<sup>14</sup> “Let our leaders stand for and represent the entire assembly; let all those in our cities who have married foreign wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each city, until the burning anger of our God over this matter is turned away from us.”‡

<sup>15</sup> Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.

<sup>16</sup> Then the [former] exiles did so. Ezra the priest and men who were heads of fathers’ households were selected, according to their fathers’ households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.

<sup>17</sup> And by the first day of the first month they finished investigating all the men married to foreign wives.

List of Offenders

<sup>18</sup> Now among the sons of the priests who had married foreign women were found: of the sons of Jeshua [the high priest] the son of Jozadak, and his brothers—Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

<sup>19</sup> They vowed to send away their [pagan] wives, and being guilty, they each offered a ram of the flock for their offense.‡

<sup>44</sup> All these had married foreign women, and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Annotations for Ezra

1:1 first year of Cyrus. This refers to the first year of Cyrus' reign over Babylon. Cyrus the Great, the founder of the Persian Empire and the Achaemenid dynasty, conquered Babylon in 539 BC. The events in the Book of Ezra were taking place at the same time as the latter part of the Book of Daniel, after the overthrow of Belshazzar by the Medes and Persians, and the absorption of Babylon into the Persian Empire (Da 5:28 , 30–31 ; 6:28 ). Jeremiah. Jeremiah had prophesied that the Babylonian captivity would last 70 years (Jer 25:11 ; 29:10 ) after which the Lord would judge Babylon (Jer 25:12–14 ). he sent a proclamation. One hundred and forty years before Cyrus the Great was even born, Isaiah the prophet called him by name, foretelling the decree he would issue allowing the Israelites to return to their homeland (Isa 44:28 ; 45:14 ).

1:4 let the men (Gentiles) of that place support him. The assistance that the Israelites were to receive from their non-Jewish neighbors in rebuilding the temple was similar to the help an earlier generation received from the Egyptians before the exodus (Ex 12:33–36 ). In a sense, the return to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple was a second exodus (Isa 43:14–21 ; 48:20–21 ).

1:7 which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away. See 2 Kings 24:1–7 , 11–13 ; 25:8–17 ; 2 Chronicles 36:5–19 ; Daniel 1:2 .

1:8 Sheshbazzar. Ezra 5:2 and 5:16 appear to identify Sheshbazzar and Zerubbabel as one and the same person. The name Sheshbazzar occurs in only two passages (vv. 8–11 ; 5:14–16 ) and both times are related to official Persian actions. It is possible, and considered likely, that Sheshbazzar was the Persian name for Zerubbabel.

2:2 Nehemiah . . . Mordecai. The Nehemiah mentioned here is not the same man who rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem 90 years later. The Mordecai in this verse is also considered to be a different man than the one who figured so prominently in the Book of Esther.

2:40-42 The Levites . . . The singers . . . The sons of the gatekeepers. The Levites assisted the priests in the temple and in teaching the people the Law. The singers were also Levites and had the responsibility of praising God with music (1Ch 15:16). Although only 128 singers returned to Jerusalem, at one time there had been as many as four thousand who praised the Lord with musical instruments in Solomon's temple (1Ch 23:5). The temple servants were another set of Levites who prevented unauthorized people from entering the restricted area of the temple.

2:43 The temple servants. In 1 Chronicles 9:2, the temple servants, also called the Nethinim, are distinguished from the priests and the Levites. Jewish tradition identifies the Nethinim with the Gibeonites who had been assigned by Joshua to assist the Levites in more menial tasks (Jos 9:27).

2:63 Urim and Thummim. The Urim and Thummim were somehow used to determine God's will (Ex 28:30). It is not known exactly what they were, but it has been speculated that they were special sacred stones, used for casting lots.

2:64 42,360. The individual numbers listed in chapter 2 add up to only 29,818. The difference is accounted for because the larger total includes women, who are not named in the lists.

2:65 male and female singers. These men and women are thought to be other than the choir of the temple (v. 41 ). They were probably professional singers employed for banquets and feasts (2Ch 35:25 ; Ecc 2:7–8 ). It could be that some of the Jews achieved prosperity and a degree of luxury in Babylon. They had not, after all, been enslaved in exile, but only restricted from returning to their land.

Jerusalem in the Days of the Return

3:1 seventh month. The seventh month was a sacred month to the Jewish people. The first day of the month was the Feast of Trumpets (Nu 29:1-6), the tenth day was the Day of Atonement (Nu 29:7-11), and the fifteenth day was the Feast of Tabernacles (Nu 29:12–38 ).

3:2–3 Jeshua. This is believed to be the same person as the priest Joshua mentioned by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah (Hag 1:1 ; Zec 3:1 ).

3:4 Feast of Booths. The Feast of Booths, or Tabernacles, was a feast instituted as a remembrance of the earlier generations' wanderings in the wilderness (Nu 29:13–38 ).

3:11 Patience— In spite of Israel's history of sin, leading to the broken empire, captivity, exile, the destruction of the temple and walls of Jerusalem, God still had not forgotten His people. Joy filled the hearts of the Israelites, for God's love had endured. Patiently, faithfully, He was keeping every promise. He is equally faithful and patient to each of us, even though we so often miss the mark. He does not give us up, but showers us with benefits and never ceases to show us His unchanging persistent love. Go to Theological Notes Index

4:1 the adversaries of Judah. The enemies of Judah were the Samaritans. Esarhaddon (v. 2 ), who ruled Assyria from 681–669 BC, had transported the conquered people of the Northern Kingdom to other lands. He then brought people from elsewhere into Palestine. These foreigners intermarried with the Hebrews who were left in the land. Their offspring became the Samaritans mentioned in the New Testament.

4:4–5 Persecution— Israel encountered hostility when they returned to their land. At first glance it might seem that Israel was at fault for turning down help. These people said they had been offering sacrifices to Jehovah. This did not mean, however, that they had ceased to serve their idols (2Ki 17:29–35 ). Whatever their hidden reasons for offering help, it would not have been in favor of the Israelites. Their underlying hostility became obvious as they succeeded in hindering the work on the temple. Go to Theological Notes Index

4:6 Ahasuerus. When Darius I died (486 BC) his son Ahasuerus reigned (485–465 BC). Ahasuerus' Greek name was Xerxes. This is the same king who appears in the Book of Esther.

4:21 this city is not rebuilt. The Persian king Artaxerxes ordered the Jewish people to cease their work on the temple. Years later at the request of Nehemiah the decision was reviewed (Neh 2:1–8 ).

4:24 Darius king of Persia. This is not the same Darius as the Darius of Daniel 5 and 6 .

5:12 our fathers provoked the God of heaven. Although the Jewish people acknowledged that Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the first temple they traced the cause not to his power, but to their sin and God's judgment.

6:2 Ecbatana. This city was the summer residence of the Persian kings.

6:3 its height and its width each 60 cubits. Though the complete dimensions are not given, it is likely that the second temple was built on the foundation stones that were still in place from the time of Solomon (1Ki 6:2 ).

6:8–10 Also. Not only could Tattenai not stop reconstruction of the temple, he also had to fund its completion.

6:16 celebrated the dedication . . . with joy. Some have suggested that Psalms 145–148 were used to celebrate the completion of the rebuilding of the temple.

6:19 kept the Passover. This celebration must have been exceptionally memorable; it was the first time since the captivity that the people were able to celebrate according to the law, with sacrifices offered in the temple (v. 20 ).

6:21 the [ceremonial] uncleanness of the nations of the land. The term "nations of the land" probably refers to the people who had been transplanted into Palestine by the Assyrians.

6:22 Providence— The situation the Jews faced seemed hopeless. But God in His providence caused Cyrus to look favorably upon the Jews and allow them to return to their homeland. What seemed impossible became possible through God. Sometimes it is easy for us to forget that even in the worst of times and circumstances God is still on His throne. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:1–5 after this. The events of chapter 6 took place during the reign of King Darius. The temple was completed and dedicated in 515 BC. Chapter 7 jumps forward many years to the reign of Artaxerxes (464–424 BC). Thus, between chapters 6 and 7 there is a gap of approximately 60 years. During this period, the events of the Book of Esther took place.

7:6 a scribe skilled in the Law (the five books) of Moses. A scribe was one who copied and studied the law. After the exile, the office of scribe came into prominence, in some ways replacing the prophet in importance, and eventually eclipsing the role of the priest. In the Gospels, numerous references are made to the scribes as ones who were considered spiritual leaders of the people.

7:9 first month . . . fifth month. The first month corresponds to March-April, the fifth month to July-August. the good hand of his God. Ezra was grateful for God's protection even more since the route he traveled was dangerous because of rebellion in Egypt and the fact that spring was the time armies began their campaigns.

7:9–10 Obedience— Ezra followed God's command and made his paramount exercise the study, practice, and teaching of God's law. The "good hand of his God" was upon Ezra, for he "had set his heart (resolved) to study and interpret the Law of the LORD." That same command is for us also. We don't always know when we as Christians are being watched by others, but if we are diligent to obey, our lives will point to Christ. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:22 100 talents of silver. One hundred talents of silver weighed nearly four tons. One hundred kors of wheat amounted to about 625 bushels; one hundred baths of oil equaled about six hundred gallons each.

8:17 Casiphia. The significance of Casiphia is uncertain, but it is thought that there may have been a Jewish sanctuary or temple there.

8:22 seek Him. Ezra knew that God would protect him; he wasn't afraid to "stick his neck out" even though it might have been more comfortable to have the security of soldiers as escorts. In our own lives, it is the same. Our responsibility is obedience, no matter what. Our safety is God's responsibility.

9:2 taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves. Intermarrying with people who did not worship the One True God was expressly forbidden (Ex 34:16 ; Dt 7:3 ). While there are instances of marriages to non-Israelites being blessed (Rahab, Ruth), these were cases where the woman had clearly taken a stand as a believer in Yahweh, renouncing her old religion.

9:13–14 punished us less than our wrongdoings deserve. Israel was guilty and deserved whatever punishment God gave them. God would have been just in consuming them, even to the point of leaving no remnant or survivor. But in His great mercy, God provided a way out for Israel. In an even greater way, He provided a way out for all mankind. Sin is always sin, no matter how small it may seem to us. God would be justified in destroying us all for only one sin. God is just. This means that He cannot tolerate sin even a little bit. But He is also more loving, kind, and compassionate than we can comprehend. In His mercy, He provided the way out. He sent His son to pay the price of our sin for us. In this way His justice was satisfied, and at the same time His love provided a way to save us.

9:15 we have been left as survivors. It is true that Israel was rebellious and evil at times in her history. Kings and Chronicles record how wicked they had become. But the people who returned to rebuild the temple were a chastened and different generation from the one taken into captivity. The men and women who went back were determined to obey God's laws and would not tolerate idolatry. While the returning Jews succeeded in ridding themselves of heathen idol worship, they created another problem. They set in motion a legalistic system that culminated with a people who valued their interpretation of the law over the Scriptures. The condition progressed until Jesus spoke out against their extremism and their lack of mercy and compassion (Mt 23:1–36 ).

10:3 Fear of God— When one thinks of fear, usually what comes to mind is dread and alarm—an unpleasant emotion caused by the anticipation of danger or a threat. But the fear of God is another thing. We tremble and obey Him, not out of dread but out of deep reverence for an almighty God. The covenant the men of Israel made with God was the most binding form of covenant a person could make. They were pledging “in the fear of God” to do as they promised. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:9 the ninth month. The ninth month, Chislev, corresponds to November-December.

The Book of Nehemiah

- AUTHOR: It is apparent that much of this book came from Nehemiah's personal memoirs. The account is extremely vivid and frank. Obviously, 1:1–7:5 ; 12:27–43 ; and 13:4–31 are the "words of Nehemiah." Some scholars state that Nehemiah composed the above portions and compiled the rest. Others feel that Ezra wrote 7:6–12:26 and 12:44–13:3 , then put together the rest using Nehemiah's diary. Nehemiah 7:5–73 and Ezra 2:1–70 are almost identical, but both lists may have been pulled from an existing record of the same period.
- TIMES: 444–425 BC
- KEY VERSE: Neh 6:15
- THEME: Nehemiah's role in rebuilding the temple and the walls of Jerusalem is more political than physical, as he deals with the new political situation arising in Persia and in Jerusalem. He also serves as the general contractor who pulls together the raw materials and the workers while orchestrating the rebuilding process. Within all his work, there is an underlying understanding that he has been called by God to do this work and is fulfilling God's purposes. When the people don't follow through with adhering to the law, Nehemiah is just as forceful as Ezra in calling the people back to repentance and obedience.

Nehemiah 1

Nehemiah's Grief for the Exiles

1 THE WORDS of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah: ‡

N ow it happened in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year [of the Persian king], as I was in the capitol of Susa,

2 Hanani, one of my brothers, and some men from Judah came; and I asked them about the surviving Jews who had escaped and survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

3 They said to me, “The remnant there in the province who survived the captivity are in great distress and reproach; the wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its [fortified] gates have been burned (destroyed) by fire.” ‡

4 Now it came about when I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days; and I was fasting and praying [constantly] before the God of heaven.

5 And I said, “Please, O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps the covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments, ‡

6 please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant which I am praying before You, day and night, on behalf of Your servants, the sons (descendants) of Israel (Jacob), confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have committed against You; I and my father’s house have sinned. ‡

7 “We have acted very corruptly against You and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses.  [Deut 6:1–9 ] ‡

8 “Please remember the word which You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you are unfaithful and violate your obligations to Me I will scatter you [abroad] among the peoples;  [Lev 26:33 ] ‡

9 but if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though those of you who have been scattered are in the most remote part of the heavens, I will gather them from there and will bring them to the place where I have chosen for My Name to dwell.’  [Deut 30:1–5 ] ‡

10 “Now they are Your servants and Your people whom You have redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand. ‡

11 “Please, O Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and the prayer of Your servants who delight to [reverently] fear Your Name [Your essence, Your nature, Your attributes, with awe]; and make Your servant successful this day and grant him compassion in the sight of this man [the king].” ‡

F or I was cupbearer to the king [of Persia].

Nehemiah 2

Nehemiah’s Prayer Answered

1 IN THE month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was placed before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not [previously] been sad in his presence. ‡

2-So the king said to me, “Why do you look sad when you are not sick? This is nothing but sadness of heart.” Then I was very frightened, ‡

3 and I said to the king, “Let the king live forever. Why should my face not be sad when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies desolate and its gates have been consumed by fire?” ‡

4-The king said to me, “What do you request?” So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your presence, [I ask] that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, so that I may rebuild it.”

6 The king, beside whom the queen was sitting, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a definite time [for my return]. ‡

7 Then I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the provinces beyond the [Euphrates] River, so that they will allow me to pass through until I reach Judah,

8-and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest, so that he will give me timber to construct beams for the gates of the fortress which is by the temple, and for the city wall and for the house which I will occupy.” And the king granted me what I asked, for the good hand of my God was upon me. ‡

9 Then I came to the governors of the provinces beyond the [Euphrates] River and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent officers of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard this, it caused them great displeasure that someone had come to see about the welfare and prosperity of the Israelites.

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem's Walls

11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there for three days. ‡

12 Then I got up in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my God was putting in my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there was no animal with me except the one on which I was riding [so as not to attract attention].

13 So I went out at night by the Valley Gate toward the Dragon's Well and to the Refuse Gate and inspected the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were consumed by fire. ‡

14 Then I passed over to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was no place for the animal that I was riding to pass. ‡

15 So I went up at night by the ravine [of Kidron] and inspected the wall; then I turned back and entered [the city] by the Valley Gate, and returned. ‡

16 The officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; nor had I yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the rest who did the work.

17 Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation that we are in—how Jerusalem is desolate and lies in ruins and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, so that we will no longer be a disgrace." ‡

18 Then I told them how the hand of my God had been favorable to me and also about the words that the king had spoken to me. And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they thoroughly supported the good work. ‡

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked us and regarded us with contempt and said, "What is this thing you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?" ‡

20 I answered them, "The God of heaven [has appointed us for His purpose and] will give us success; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no portion, right, or memorial in Jerusalem." ‡

Nehemiah 3

Builders of the Walls

<sup>3</sup> Now the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and set up its doors with its bolts and its bars. ‡

<sup>4</sup> Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, made repairs. Next to him Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana also made repairs.

<sup>5</sup> Next to him the men of Tekoa made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their overseers. ‡

<sup>6</sup> Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors with its bolts and its bars. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

<sup>10</sup> Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his own house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.

<sup>11</sup> Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Furnaces. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohes, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

<sup>13</sup> Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and set up its doors with its bolts and its bars, and repaired a thousand cubits (1,500 ft.) of the wall as far as the Refuse Gate. ‡

<sup>14</sup> Malchijah the son of Rechab, the official of the district of Beth-haccherem repaired the Refuse Gate. He rebuilt it and set its doors with its bolts and its bars.

<sup>15</sup> Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, official of the district of Mizpah repaired the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it and covered it [with a roof], and set up its doors with its bolts and its bars, and [he rebuilt] the wall of the Pool of Shelah (Siloam) by the King's Garden as far as the stairs that descend [the eastern slope] from [the section of Jerusalem known as] the City of David. ‡

<sup>18</sup> After him their brothers carried out repairs under Bavvai the son of Henadad, official of [the other] half of the district of Keilah.

<sup>21</sup> After him Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired another [eastern] section, from the door of Eliashib's house as far as the end of his house.

<sup>30</sup> After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah carried out repairs in front of his own quarters.

<sup>31</sup> After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, carried out repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the upper room of the corner.

<sup>32</sup> Between the upper room of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and merchants carried out repairs.

Nehemiah 4

Work Is Ridiculed

<sup>1</sup> BUT WHEN Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious, completely enraged, and he ridiculed the Jews. ‡

<sup>2</sup> He spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, “What are these feeble Jews doing? Can they restore it for themselves? Can they offer sacrifices? Can they finish in a day? Can they revive the stones from the heaps of dust and rubbish, even the ones that have been burned?”

<sup>3</sup> Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, “Even what they are building—if a fox should get up on it, he would break down their stone wall.” ‡

<sup>5</sup> Do not forgive their wrongdoing and do not let their sin be wiped out before You, for they have offended the builders [and provoked You]. ‡

<sup>6</sup> So we built the wall and the entire wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.

<sup>7</sup> But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of the walls of Jerusalem went on, and that the breaches were being closed, they were very angry. ‡

<sup>8</sup> They all conspired together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to cause a disturbance in it. ‡

Discouragement Overcome

<sup>9</sup> But we prayed to our God, and because of them we set up a guard against them day and night. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then [the leaders of] Judah said,

“The strength of the burden bearers is failing,
And there is much rubble;
We ourselves are unable To rebuild the wall.”

<sup>11</sup> Our enemies said, “They will not know or see us until we are among them, kill them and put a stop to the work.”

<sup>12</sup> When the Jews who lived near them came, they said to us ten times (repeatedly), “From every place you turn, they will come up against us.”

<sup>13</sup> So I stationed armed men behind the wall in the lowest places, at the open positions [where it was least protected]; and I stationed the people in families with their swords, spears, and bows.

<sup>14</sup> When I saw their fear, I stood and said to the nobles and officials and the rest of the people: “Do not be afraid of them; [confidently] remember the Lord who is great and awesome, and [with courage from Him] fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and for your homes.” ‡

<sup>15</sup> Now when our enemies heard that we knew about their plot against us, and that God had frustrated their plan, we all returned to the wall, each one to his work. ‡

<sup>16</sup> From that day on, half of my servants carried on the work while the other half held the spears, shields, bows, and breastplates; and the captains were behind the whole house of Judah.

<sup>17</sup> Those who were rebuilding the wall and those who carried burdens loaded themselves so that everyone worked with one hand and held a weapon with the other.

<sup>18</sup> Every builder had his sword secured at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet [to summon the troops] stood at my side.

<sup>19</sup> I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another.

<sup>20</sup> “Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather to us there. Our God will fight for us.” ‡

<sup>21</sup> So we carried on with the work with half of them holding spears from dawn until the stars came out.

<sup>22</sup> At that time I also said to the people, “Let each man with his servant spend the night inside Jerusalem so that they may serve as a guard for us at night and a laborer during the day.”

<sup>23</sup> So neither I, my brothers (relatives), my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes; each took his weapon [even] to the water.

Nehemiah 5

Usury Abolished

<sup>1</sup> NOW THERE was a great outcry of the [poorer] people and their wives against their Jewish brothers [to whom they were deeply in debt]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> For there were some who were saying, “We, along with our sons and our daughters, are many; therefore allow us to get grain, so that we may eat and survive.”

<sup>3</sup> There were others who were saying, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses to buy grain because of the famine.”

<sup>4</sup> There were also others who were saying, “We have borrowed money on our fields and vineyards for the [Persian] king’s [heavy] tax.”

<sup>5</sup> “Now our flesh (skin) is the same as that of our brothers (relatives), and our children are like their children, yet here we are forcing (selling) our sons and our daughters to be slaves; and some of our daughters are forced into bondage already, and we are powerless [to redeem them] because our fields and vineyards belong to others.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> Then I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words [of accusation].

<sup>7</sup> I thought it over and then challenged the nobles and the rulers. I said to them, “You are exacting usury (excessive interest) from your own brother (relative).” So I held a great assembly to confront them. ‡

<sup>8</sup> I said to them, “According to our ability we have redeemed (purchased back) our Jewish brothers who were sold to the [Gentile] nations; now would you even sell your brothers, that they might be sold to us?” Then they were silent and could not find a [single] word to say. ‡

<sup>9</sup> So I said, “What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God to prevent the taunting by the [pagan] nations, our enemies? ‡

<sup>10</sup> “And likewise I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop [charging] this interest.  [Ex 22:25. ]

<sup>11</sup> “Please, give back to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, and also a hundredth part of the money, the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are lending them.”

<sup>12</sup> Then they said, “We will give it back and not require anything from them. We will do exactly as you say.” Then I called the priests and took an oath from them that they would act in accordance with this promise. ‡

<sup>13</sup> I also shook out the front of my garment and said, “So may God shake out every man from his house and from his possessions who does not keep this promise; like this may he be shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amen!” And they praised the LORD. Then the people acted in accordance with this promise. ‡

Nehemiah's Example

<sup>14</sup> Moreover, from the day that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, for twelve years, neither I nor my relatives have eaten the governor's food allowance. ‡

<sup>15</sup> But the former governors who were [in office] before me put heavy burdens on the people and took food and wine from them in addition to forty shekels of silver [as an excessive monthly salary]; even their servants assumed authority over the people. But I did not do so because of the [reverent] fear of God. ‡

<sup>16</sup> I also applied myself to the work on this wall; we did not buy any land, and all my servants were gathered together there for the work.

<sup>17</sup> Moreover, there were at my table a hundred and fifty Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations that were around us. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Now the following were prepared for each day: one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls (poultry) were prepared for me; and in intervals of ten days all sorts of wine was provided in abundance. Yet for all this, I did not demand the governor's food allowance, because the servitude was heavy on this people. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Remember me, O my God, for good, according to all I have done for this people.  [Heb 6:10. ] ‡

Nehemiah 6

The Enemy's Plot

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there was no breach left in it, although at that time I had not set up doors in the gates,‡

<sup>2</sup>—Sanballat and Geshem sent word to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together at Chephirim in the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to harm me.‡

<sup>3</sup> So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work and cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave to come down to [meet with] you?”

<sup>4</sup> They sent word to me four times in this way, and I answered them in the same way.

<sup>5</sup> Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

<sup>6</sup> In it was written, “It is reported among the [neighboring] nations, and Gashmu is saying that you and the Jews are planning to revolt, and that is the reason you are rebuilding the wall. And according to these reports, you are to be their king.‡

<sup>7</sup> “Also [it is reported that] you have appointed prophets to make a proclamation concerning you in Jerusalem, saying, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ And now these things will be reported to the [Persian] king. So come now, and let us consult together.”

<sup>8</sup> I sent a message to him, saying, “Such things as you are saying have not been done; you are inventing them in your own mind.”

<sup>9</sup> For they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, “They will become discouraged with the work and it will not be done.” But now, [O God,] strengthen my hands.

<sup>10</sup> When I went into the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was confined at home, he said, “Let us meet [and take refuge] together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple, because they are coming to kill you, and they are coming to kill you at night.”

<sup>11</sup> But I said, “Should a man like me flee [in fear and hide]? Should someone like me enter the temple [for sanctuary] to save his life? I will not go.”

<sup>12</sup> Then I realized that God had not sent him, but he spoke this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ‡

<sup>13</sup> He was hired for this reason, that I would be frightened and do as he said and sin, so that they would have [grounds to make] a malicious report in order to censure and disgrace me.

<sup>14</sup> Remember, O My God, Tobiah and Sanballat in regard to these actions of theirs, and also [remember] the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who were trying to frighten me. ‡

The Wall Is Finished

<sup>15</sup> So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth [day] of [the month] Elul, in fifty-two days.

<sup>16</sup> When all our enemies heard about it, and all the [Gentile] nations around us saw it, they lost their confidence; for they recognized that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God. ‡

<sup>17</sup> Moreover, in those days many letters went from the nobles of Judah to Tobiah, and Tobiah’s letters came to them.

<sup>18</sup> For many in Judah were bound by oath to him because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

<sup>19</sup> Also, they were speaking about Tobiah’s good deeds in my presence, and reporting to him what I said. Then Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Nehemiah 7

Census of First Returned Exiles

<sup>1</sup> NOW WHEN the wall had been rebuilt and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites had been appointed, ‡

<sup>2</sup> I put my brother Hanani, with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem, for Hananiah was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many [of the others]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> I said to them, “Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while the watchmen are still standing guard, have them shut and bar the doors. Appoint guards from the residents of Jerusalem, each at his post

[on the wall], and each in front of his own house.”

<sup>4</sup>Now the city was spacious and large, but there were few people in it and the houses had not [yet] been built.

<sup>5</sup>Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be registered by genealogy. Then I found the register of the genealogy of those who came [from Babylon] first, and I found the following record:

<sup>6</sup>These are the sons (descendants, people) of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had deported [to Babylon]; they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his city,‡

<sup>7</sup>the ones who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

The men of the people of Israel numbered:

<sup>8</sup>the sons of Parosh, 2,172;

<sup>31</sup> the men of Michmas, 122;
<sup>32</sup> the men of Bethel and Ai, 123;
<sup>33</sup> the men of the other Nebo, 52;
<sup>34</sup> the sons of the other Elam, 1,254; ‡
<sup>35</sup> the sons of Harim, 320;
<sup>36</sup> the sons of Jericho, 345;
<sup>37</sup> the sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, 721;
<sup>38</sup> the sons of Senaah, 3,930.

<sup>40</sup> the sons of Immer, 1,052; ‡

<sup>45</sup> The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, 138.

<sup>46</sup> The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,

<sup>57</sup> The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida,

<sup>59</sup> the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Amon.

<sup>60</sup> All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants, totaled 392.

<sup>61</sup> And these were the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer; but they [had no birth records and] could not prove their fathers' houses or their descent, whether they were of Israel: ‡

<sup>63</sup> Of the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, and the sons of Barzillai, who [was so named because he had] married one of the daughters of Barzillai, the [well-known] Gileadite, and was named after them.

<sup>64</sup> These men searched for their ancestral registration among those recorded in the genealogies, but it was not located; so they were excluded from the priesthood as [ceremonially] unclean.

<sup>65</sup> The governor told them that they should not eat any of the most holy food until a priest arose with Urim and Thummim [to determine God's will in the matter].

Total of People and Gifts

<sup>67</sup> besides their male and their female servants, of whom there were 7,337; and they had 245 male and female singers.

<sup>68</sup> Their horses were 736; their mules, 245;

<sup>72</sup> And what the rest of the people gave was 20,000 gold drachmas, 2,000 silver minas, and 67 priests' garments.

<sup>73</sup> So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, along with all Israel, lived in their cities. ‡

And when the seventh month came, the sons (descendants) of Israel (Jacob) were in their cities.

Ezra Reads the Law

<sup>1</sup> THEN ALL the people gathered together as one man at the open square in front of the Water Gate; and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel. ‡

<sup>2</sup> So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly of men, women and all who could listen with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then he read from it, in front of the open square which was in front of the Water Gate, from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and women, those who could understand; and all the people listened carefully to the Book of the Law.

<sup>5</sup> Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above them; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. ‡

<sup>7</sup> Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, explained the Law to the people, and the people remained in their places. ‡

<sup>8</sup> So they read from the Book of the Law of God, translating and explaining it so that the people understood the reading.

“This Day Is Holy”

<sup>9</sup> Then Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping when they heard the words of the Law. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Then Ezra said to them, “Go [your way], eat the rich festival food, drink the sweet drink, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be worried, for the joy of the LORD is your strength and your stronghold.” ‡

<sup>11</sup> So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, “Be still, for the day is holy; do not be worried.”

<sup>12</sup> Then all the people went on their way to eat, to drink, to send portions [of food to others] and to celebrate a great festival, because they understood the words which had been communicated to them. ‡

Feast of Booths Restored

<sup>13</sup> On the second day, all of the heads of fathers’ households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, were gathered before Ezra the scribe to gain insight into the words of the Law (divine instruction).

<sup>14</sup> They found written in the Law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should live in booths (huts) during the feast of the seventh month. ‡

<sup>15</sup> So they proclaimed and published an announcement in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the hills and bring olive branches, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy branches to make booths, as it is written.”  [Lev 23:39, 40 ] ‡

<sup>16</sup> So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on the roof of his house, and in their courtyards and the courtyards of God’s house, and in the open square of the Water Gate and in the square of the Gate of Ephraim. ‡

<sup>17</sup> The entire assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in them. Indeed since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that very day, the Israelites had not done so. And there was great rejoicing and celebration. ‡

<sup>18</sup> Every day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days; on the eighth day there was a [closing] solemn assembly in accordance with the ordinance. ‡

The People Confess Their Sin

<sup>1</sup> NOW ON the twenty-fourth day of this month the Israelites assembled with fasting and in sackcloth and with dirt on their heads. ‡

foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins and the wrongdoings of their fathers. ‡

3. While they stood in their places, they read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day and for another fourth [of it] they confessed [their sins] and worshiped the LORD their God. ‡

4 On the platform of the Levites stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and they called out with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—said, “Stand up and bless (praise, honor) the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting. ‡

May Your glorious name be blessed
And exalted above all blessing and praise.”

6. [And Ezra said], ‡

“You are the LORD, You alone;
You have made the heavens,
The heaven of heavens with all their host (the heavenly bodies),

The earth and everything that is on it,
The seas and everything that is in them.
You give life to all of them,
And the heavenly host is bowing down [in worship] to You.

7. “You are the LORD God, ‡

Who chose Abram
And brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees,
And gave him the name Abraham.

8 “You found his heart to be faithful before You, ‡
And You made a covenant with him
To give him the land of the Canaanite,
Of the Hittite, of the Amorite,
Of the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Gergashite—
To give it to his descendants.
And You have fulfilled Your promise,
For You are righteous and just.

9. “You saw our fathers’ affliction in Egypt, ‡
And You heard their cry by the Red Sea (Sea of Reeds).

<sup>10</sup> “Then You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,‡
Against all his servants and all the people of his land;
For You knew that they behaved arrogantly toward them (the Israelites),

And You made a name for Yourself, as it is to this day.

<sup>11</sup> “You divided the sea before them,‡
So that they passed through the midst of the sea on dry land;
You hurled their pursuers into the depths,
Like a stone into mighty and raging waters.

<sup>12</sup> “And with a pillar of cloud You led them by day,‡
And with a pillar of fire by night
To light the way for them
In which they were to go.

<sup>13</sup> “Then You came down on Mount Sinai,‡
And spoke with them from heaven;
And You gave them fair ordinances and true laws,
Good statutes and commandments.

<sup>14</sup> “So You made known to them Your holy Sabbath,‡
And gave them commandments, statutes, and law,
Through Your servant Moses.

<sup>15</sup> “You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger,‡
And brought water for them out of a rock for their thirst,
And You told them to enter and take possession of
The land that You swore to give them.  [John 6:31–34 ]

<sup>16</sup> “But they, our fathers, acted arrogantly;‡
They stiffened their necks and would not heed Your commandments.

<sup>17</sup> “They refused to listen and obey,‡
And did not remember Your wondrous acts which You had performed among them;
So they stiffened their necks and [in their rebellion] appointed a leader in order to return them to slavery in Egypt.

But You are a God of forgiveness,
Gracious and merciful and compassionate,
Slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness;
And You did not abandon them.  [Num 14:4 ]

- <sup>18</sup> “Even when they had made for themselves ‡
A calf of cast metal
And said, ‘This is your god
Who brought you up from Egypt,’
And committed great [and contemptible] blasphemies,
<sup>19</sup> You, in Your great mercy and compassion, ‡
Did not abandon them in the wilderness;
The pillar of the cloud did not leave them by day,
To lead them in the way,
Nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way they should go.
- <sup>20</sup> “You [also] gave Your good Spirit to instruct them, ‡
You did not withhold Your manna from their mouth,
And You gave them water for their thirst.
- <sup>21</sup> “Indeed, for forty years You sustained them in the wilderness; they lacked nothing, ‡
Their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell.
- <sup>22</sup> “You also gave them kingdoms and peoples, ‡
And You allotted the kingdoms to them as a boundary.
So they took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon
And the land of Og king of Bashan.
- <sup>23</sup> “You made their children as numerous as the stars of heaven, ‡
And You brought them into the land
Which You told their fathers to enter and possess.
- <sup>24</sup> “So their sons (descendants) went in and took possession of the land; ‡
And You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites,
And You gave them into their hand, with their kings and the peoples of the land,
To do with them as they pleased.
- <sup>25</sup> “They captured fortified cities and a fertile land. ‡
They took possession of houses full of all good things,
Hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive groves,
And fruit trees in abundance.
So they ate and were filled and became fat,
And they reveled and were delighted in Your great goodness.

26 “Yet they were disobedient and rebelled against You,‡

And cast Your law behind their backs

And killed Your prophets who warned them

To return to You;

And they committed great [and contemptible] blasphemies.

27 “Therefore You handed them over to their enemies who oppressed them.‡

But when they cried out to You in the time of their suffering and distress,

You heard them from heaven, and according to Your great compassion You gave them people to rescue them.

Who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.

28 “But as soon as they had rest, they again did evil before You;‡

Therefore You abandoned them into the hand of their enemies, so that they ruled over them.

Yet when they turned and cried out again to You, You heard them from heaven,

And You rescued them many times in accordance with Your compassion,

29 And You admonished them and warned them to turn them back to Your law.‡

Yet they acted presumptuously and arrogantly and did not heed Your commandments, but sinned against Your ordinances,

Which by keeping, a man will live.

But they turned a stubborn shoulder, stiffened their neck, and would not listen.

30 “Yet You were patient with them for many years,‡

And admonished them and warned them by Your Spirit through Your prophets;

Still they would not listen.

Therefore You gave them into the hand (power) of the peoples of the lands.

31 “Yet in Your great compassion You did not utterly destroy them or abandon them,‡

For You are a gracious and merciful God.

32 “Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps the covenant and lovingkindness,‡

Do not let all the hardship seem insignificant before You, Which has come upon us, our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers and on all Your people, Since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day.

33 “However, You are just and righteous in everything that has come upon us;‡

For You have dealt faithfully, but we have acted wickedly.

34 Our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept Your law

Or paid attention to Your commandments and Your warnings which You have given them.

35 “But they, in their kingdom,‡

With Your great goodness which You gave them, With the broad and rich land which You set before them, Did not serve You or turn from their wicked deeds.

36 “Behold, we are slaves today,‡

And as for the land which You gave our fathers, to eat of its fruit and its goodness,

Behold, we are slaves in it.

37 “Its abundant produce is for the kings‡

Whom You have set over us because of our sins; They also rule over our bodies And over our cattle as they please, So we are in great distress.

A Covenant Results

38 “Now because of all this‡

We are making an agreement in writing; And on the sealed document are the names of our princes, our Levites, and our priests.”

Nehemiah 10

Signers of the Document

<sup>1</sup> NOW THESE were the names on the sealed document: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah. And Zedekiah,‡

Obligations of the Document

<sup>28</sup> Now the rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, all those who had knowledge and understanding—‡

<sup>29</sup> are joining with their fellow Israelites, their nobles, and are taking on themselves a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law, which was given through Moses the servant of God, and to keep and to observe all the commandments of GOD our Lord, and His ordinances and statutes: ‡

<sup>30</sup> and that we will not give our daughters [as wives] to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons. ‡

<sup>31</sup> As for the peoples of the land who bring merchandise or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on a holy day; and we will give up raising crops during the seventh year [leaving the land uncultivated], and forgive every debt.  [Ex 23:10, 11; Deut 15:1, 2 ] ‡

<sup>32</sup> Also we pledge ourselves to contribute yearly one third of a shekel for the service [expenses] of the house of our God:

<sup>33</sup> for the showbread; for the continual grain offerings and the continual burnt offerings; [for the offerings on] the Sabbaths, the New Moons, the [feasts at] appointed times; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel; and for all the work of the house of our God. ‡

<sup>34</sup> We have also cast lots—the priests, the Levites, and the people—for [contributing] the supply of wood, to bring it to the house of our God, according to our fathers' households, at set times annually, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law; ‡

<sup>35</sup> and [we obligate ourselves] to bring the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all the fruit of every tree to the house of the LORD annually, ‡

<sup>36</sup> as well as the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, as is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and flocks, to bring to the house of our God, for the priests who minister in the house of our God. ‡

<sup>37</sup> We will bring the first [and best] of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine and the [olive] oil to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God, and the tithe of our ground to the Levites, for the Levites are the ones who receive the tithes in all the rural towns. ‡

<sup>38</sup> The priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when they receive tithes, and they shall bring one-tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the chambers of the storehouse. ‡

<sup>39</sup> For the Israelites and the sons of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the chambers; the utensils of the sanctuary, the priests who are ministering, the gatekeepers, and the singers are there. In this manner, we will not neglect the house of our God. ‡

Nehemiah 11

Time Passes; Heads of Provinces

<sup>1</sup> NOW THE leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem; but the rest of the people cast lots to bring one [person] out of ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while nine-tenths remained in the other cities. ‡

<sup>3</sup> These are the heads of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem, but in the cities of Judah everyone lived on his property in their cities—the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon’s servants. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin lived in Jerusalem. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez; ‡

<sup>5</sup> Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.

<sup>7</sup> These are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiah;

<sup>9</sup> Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second in command of the city.

<sup>11</sup> Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God,

<sup>12</sup> and their brothers (relatives, fellow workers) who did the work of the house, 822; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,

<sup>13</sup> and his brothers, heads of fathers’ households, 242; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, <sup>14</sup> and their brothers, brave men, 128. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of Haggedolim [one of the great men].

Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

<sup>16</sup> and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, who were in charge of the outside work of the house of God; ‡

<sup>17</sup> Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

Outside Jerusalem

<sup>20</sup> Now the rest of Israel, the priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each on his own inheritance.

<sup>21</sup> But the temple servants were living in Ophel; Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants. ‡

<sup>22</sup> The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, from Asaph's sons, who were the singers in regard to the work of the house of God.

<sup>24</sup> Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's representative in all matters concerning the people. ‡

<sup>27</sup> in Hazar-shual and in Beersheba and its towns,

<sup>28</sup> in Ziklag and in Meconah and its towns,

<sup>29</sup> in En-rimmon, in Zorah, and in Jarmuth,

<sup>30</sup> Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Azekah and its towns. So they camped from Beersheba as far as the Hinnom Valley.

<sup>31</sup> The sons (descendants) of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its towns,

Nehemiah 12

Priests and Levites who Returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel

<sup>1</sup> NOW THESE are the priests and Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ‡

<sup>8</sup> The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving and praise, he and his brothers. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of fathers' households were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

The Chief Levites

<sup>22</sup> As for the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, the heads of fathers' households were registered; so were the priests, during the reign of Darius the Persian.

<sup>24</sup> The heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, and their brothers opposite them, to praise and to give thanks, as commanded by David the man of God, [one] division [singing] in response to [the men in the opposite] division. ‡

<sup>26</sup> These men served in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and Ezra the priest and scribe. ‡

Dedication of the Wall

<sup>28</sup> So the sons of the singers gathered together from the district around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites, <sup>29</sup> from Beth-gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup> The priests and the Levites purified themselves; they also purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

Procedures for the Temple

<sup>31</sup> Then I had the leaders of Judah come up on the wall, and I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs, the first one proceeding to the right on top of the wall toward the Refuse Gate. ‡

<sup>32</sup> Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed them,

<sup>35</sup> and some of the priests' sons with trumpets, and Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,‡

<sup>40</sup> Then the two choirs stood in the house of God. So did I, and half of the officials with me;

<sup>42</sup> and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang, with Jezrahiah as their leader.

<sup>43</sup> Also on that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great joy; the women and children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard from far away.

<sup>44</sup> On that day men were appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the law for the priests and the Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who served.‡

<sup>45</sup> And they performed the worship of their God and the service of purification; so did the singers and gatekeepers, as David and his son Solomon had commanded.‡

<sup>46</sup> For in the days of David and Asaph, in ancient times, there were leaders of singers, songs of praise and hymns of thanksgiving to God.‡

<sup>47</sup> So in the days of Zerubbabel and [later of] Nehemiah, all Israel would give the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers; and they set apart

the consecrated portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the consecrated portion for the sons of Aaron [the priests]. ‡

Nehemiah 13

Foreigners Excluded

<sup>1</sup> ON THAT day they read aloud from the book of Moses so that the people could hear [its words], and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite could ever enter the assembly of God, ‡

<sup>2</sup> because they did not meet the Israelites with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. Yet our God turned the curse into a blessing.  [Num 22:3–11; Deut 23:5, 6 ] ‡

<sup>3</sup> When the Jews heard the law, they separated from Israel all who were of foreign descent. ‡

Tobiah Expelled and the Temple Cleansed

<sup>4</sup>—Now prior to this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, and was related to Tobiah [our adversary],

<sup>5</sup> had prepared for Tobiah a large room (chamber) where previously they had put the grain offerings, the frankincense, the utensils, and the tithes of grain, new wine, and [olive] oil which were given by commandment for the Levites, the singers, and gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But during all this time I was not at Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes [Persian] king of Babylon I went to the king. Then after some time I asked for a leave [of absence] from the king, ‡

<sup>7</sup> and I came to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil [thing] that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by preparing a room for him in the courtyards of the house of God. ‡

<sup>8</sup> It was very displeasing to me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household furnishings out of the room.

<sup>9</sup> Then I gave an order, and they cleaned the rooms; and I put back there the utensils of the house of God with the grain offerings and the frankincense. ‡

Tithes Restored

<sup>10</sup> I also discovered that the portions due the Levites had not been given to them, so that the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone away, each one back to his own field. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then I reprimanded the officials and said, “Why is the house of God neglected?” So I gathered the Levites and singers together and restored them at their posts. ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the storehouses. ‡

<sup>13</sup> I appointed [as treasurers] over the storehouses: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites; assisting them was Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered faithful and reliable, and their task was to distribute [supplies] to their brothers (fellow Levites). ‡

<sup>14</sup> O my God, remember me concerning this and do not wipe out my loyal deeds and kindnesses which I have done for the house of my God and for its services. ‡

Sabbath Restored

<sup>15</sup> In those days I saw some in Judah who were treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves or sacks of grain and loading them on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I protested and warned them on the day they sold the produce. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Also men of Tyre were living there who brought fish and all kinds of merchandise, and they were selling them to the people of Judah on the Sabbath, even in Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> Then I reprimanded the nobles of Judah, and said to them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing—profaning the Sabbath day?

<sup>18</sup> “Did your fathers (ancestors) not do the same, and did our God not bring all this trouble on us and on this city? Yet you are adding to the wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath.” ‡

<sup>19</sup> Now when it began to get dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath [began], I commanded that the doors be shut and not be opened until after the Sabbath. Then I stationed some of my servants at the gates so that no load [of merchandise] would enter [Jerusalem] on the Sabbath day. ‡

<sup>20</sup> So once or twice the merchants and sellers of every kind of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> But I warned them, saying, “Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do so again, I will use force against you.” From that time on, they did not come on the Sabbath.

<sup>22</sup> And I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and come and guard the gates to keep the Sabbath day holy. O my God, remember me concerning this also and have compassion on me according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness. ‡

Mixed Marriages Forbidden

<sup>23</sup> In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. ‡

<sup>24</sup> As for their children, half spoke in the language of Ashdod, and none of them knew how to speak [Hebrew] the language of Judah, but only the language of his own people.

<sup>25</sup> So I contended with them and cursed them and struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, “You shall not give your daughters [in marriage] to their sons, nor take [any of] their daughters for your sons or for yourselves. ‡

<sup>26</sup> “Did not Solomon king of Israel sin [greatly against God] regarding these things? Yet among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless the foreign women caused even him to sin [by turning to other gods and so, judged by God, he lost his kingdom].  [1 Kin 11:1–11 ] ‡

<sup>27</sup> “Do we then hear about you that you have done all this great evil, acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign (pagan) women?” ‡

<sup>28</sup> One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite, so I chased him away from me. ‡

<sup>29</sup> O my God, remember them, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites. ‡

<sup>30</sup> Thus I cleansed and purified them from everything foreign (pagan), and I defined the duties of the priests and Levites, each one in his task; ‡

<sup>31</sup> and I provided for the wood offering at appointed times and for the first fruits. O my God, [please] remember me for good [and imprint me on Your heart]. ‡

Annotations for Nehemiah

1:1 Nehemiah. Nehemiah, whose name means “The Lord Comforts,” was a highly placed statesman associated with Ezra in the work of reestablishing the people of Judah in the promised land. the twentieth year. This is a reference to the twentieth year of rule of Artaxerxes I Longimanus (456–424 BC). It was he who had commissioned Ezra to return to Jerusalem (Ezr 7:1 ). capitol of Susa. The capitol, or fortified royal palace, was built on an acropolis about 150 miles north of the Persian Gulf, in present day Iran. This is the city where Daniel received his vision about the rams and goats (Da 8:2 ) and the home of Mordecai and Esther (Est 1:2 ).

1:2 men from Judah . . . Jerusalem. The journey from Susa to Jerusalem, which covered nearly one thousand miles, probably took about four months.

1:5 Obedience— The covenant of God with the Israelites had been made with the understanding that obedience would bring God’s great blessings, and the result of rebellion would be curses, one of which was captivity (Dt 28–30 ). God had been patient for a long time, but eventually the nation was overpowered, and many of the people taken into captivity. Nehemiah acknowledged not only the necessity of obedience, but the confidence that he had that God would answer his prayer because God said He would hear and bless the obedient. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:11 cupbearer to the king. As the king’s cupbearer, Nehemiah held an honored position. His constant proximity to the king of Persia made him privy to the state secrets and personal affairs of the king.

2:2 you look sad. Persian monarchs believed that just being in their presence would make any person happy. Yet, Nehemiah was about to request the emperor’s permission to go to Jerusalem, suggesting that he would rather be somewhere other than in the emperor’s presence. In addition to this, it was Artaxerxes himself who had ordered the work on the wall to be stopped (Ezr 4:21–23 ). Nehemiah had reason to be afraid.

2:4 I prayed. Even though Nehemiah had come into the presence of the king, he never left the presence of God.

2:8 the king’s forest . . . timber. Jerusalem had plenty of limestone for building projects, but timber was scarce.

2:10 the Ammonite. At the time of Nehemiah, the Ammonites (Ge 19:38 ) had pushed west into the land vacated by Judah. The prospect of a strong Jewish community in newly fortified Jerusalem would have seemed threatening.

2:18 God had been favorable. Nehemiah emphasized that it was not just his own idea to rebuild the wall of Jerusalem. The idea had come to him from the Lord (v. 8 ,12 ).

3:8 the Broad Wall. The broad wall was probably built in the seventh century BC by Hezekiah to accommodate the influx of refugees from the fall of Samaria in 722 BC (2Ch 32:5 ).

4:2 revive the stones. When limestone is subjected to intense heat, it becomes unsuitable for building. The stones from the burned wall would not be useable.

4:9 Prayer— It is difficult to work in a hostile environment. Ambition, courage, and preparation are important in a situation like this, and so is prayer. If we are not careful to ask God to protect us, our fear can cripple us as much as the animosity of our enemies. No matter how prepared we may be for a crisis, the power of God is the ultimate factor in determining whether we win or lose. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:7 exacting usury. It was not wrong to lend money to a fellow Jew, or even to lend money at interest to a non-Jewish person, but it was forbidden to charge interest to a fellow Jew (Ex 22:25 ; Dt 23:19–20 ). The people had already fallen back into disobedience.

5:9 Fear of God— Fear of God is the knowledge that God has the right to judge our actions for good or evil. It is the basis for keeping the commandments which concern other men. We do not murder because it is taking the life of one who bears the image and likeness of God. We deal honestly with one another, we do not covet our neighbor's possessions, or abridge any of his rights, because those things are given to him by God, and our neighbor belongs to God who created him. If we do not walk in the fear of the Lord, we demonstrate our pride and presumption to those who are watching us. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:11 hundredth part. This is probably a reference to the interest the nobles and rulers had been charging.

5:15 former governors. Several former governors had paid their own expenses with the people's taxes. During his twelve year administration (444–432 BC), Nehemiah did not collect taxes from the people, although as the governor he had the right to.

6:2 the plain of Ono. The plain of Ono was about twenty miles northwest of Jerusalem.

6:10 Shemaiah. Shemaiah was a false prophet, not the Levite of the same name who helped build the wall (3:29 ) or the priest who sealed the covenant with Nehemiah (10:8 ). Whether he was pretending to represent God, or was speaking with "authority" because he claimed that he had inside information, Shemaiah's strategy was to get Nehemiah sidetracked.

6:16 Providence— The fact that the Jews were able to finish the wall so quickly and with such singleness of purpose said even to their enemies that it was God who had helped them. God always provides everything we need to do His work. It is when we get off on our own agendas that we are short of energy and resources. Like Nehemiah, we need to pray for God's direct guidance, and then pray to keep our focus on His plan. Go to Theological Notes Index

7:1 gatekeepers, singers, and Levites. The Levites were assistants to the priests (Nu 18:1–4 ) who guarded and cleaned the sanctuary. The gatekeepers and singers were also Levites (1Ch 9:17–19 ; 26:12–19 ).

7:3 gates. The gates of a city normally opened at sunrise. If an enemy mounted a surprise attack at sunrise, he would find a city just beginning to wake up. By keeping the gates closed a little longer, the city was safer.

7:4 few people. For the size of the city, Jerusalem was under-populated. Even though it had been 90 years since people had returned under Zerubbabel to live there, Jerusalem still had a lot of undeveloped space within the walls renewed by Nehemiah.

7:5 my God put it into my heart. Nehemiah attributed to the Lord the idea of a census that would show the distribution of the population. If he knew the population pattern in the capital and the countryside, he could then determine which districts could best afford to lose a portion of their inhabitants to Jerusalem.

7:70 drachmas. One thousand gold drachmas would weigh about nine pounds.

8:2 men, women and all who could listen with understanding. This is a more specific list of those gathered than is usual. "All who could listen" includes older children, as well as adults. first day of the seventh month. The wall had been completed on the twenty-fifth day of the sixth month (6:15 ) so this event took place just a few days after the completion of the wall.

8:3 Reading God's Word— There are many parts of the world today that still have limited access to the Bible and below average literacy rates. Even if they could obtain a Bible they might not be able to read it. Other areas of the world have a well-educated population and freedom to pursue any religion they choose. Throughout much of history, the only access to Scripture was through someone who read it in a public or church setting. Today most of the western world has access to audio tapes of the Bible or to numerous printed versions. Here are some suggestions to aid you in receiving the greatest benefit from reading or listening to the Bible: Go to Theological Notes Index

Read the Bible prayerfully. Ask the Spirit of God to meet your heart's need as you read (Ps 119:18 ).

Read the Bible thoughtfully. Think about the meaning and implications of what you are reading.

Read the Bible carefully. Take careful note not only of the words that are used but also of how they relate to one another.

Read the Bible repeatedly. It may be of great help to read the same portion over and over again each day for a month's time. This is a good way for the words to take root in your heart. If you are reading a short book, read it every day. Divide longer books up into manageable portions of two or three chapters and read that portion through every day.

Read the Bible extensively. Sometimes it is of great help to read through large portions of the Word of God at one sitting. If you do this, do it at a time when you are alert and not likely to be disturbed during your reading.

Read the Bible regularly. It is good to have a particular time every day when you habitually give yourself to the reading of the Word of God.

Read the Bible faithfully. Inevitably there will be days when you will fail to read the Bible. Do not let your momentary lapse discourage you. Faithfully resume your practice of reading God's Word.

Read the Bible obediently. Because the Bible is God's Word written to you, it is essential to obey it (Ex 12:24 ).

Read the Bible thankfully. Thank God for the gift He has given us in Scripture. Thank Him that you have the freedom or the opportunity to read the Bible at all.

8:5 all the people stood up. Standing signified their reverence for the Word. This gesture later became characteristic of the Jewish people in synagogue services.

8:6 lifting up their hands. The people answered "Amen" and lifted their hands, indicating their participation with Ezra in prayer.

8:9–10 Repentance— Once the people understood the Word of God, they wept. They had heard the high standard of the law, recognized their low standing before the Lord, and were convicted. Weeping and sorrow for sin are part of repentance. But the other part of repentance is change. With change comes joy. The joy of the Lord is the joy that springs up in our hearts because of our relationship to the Lord. It is a God-given gladness found when we are in communion with God. When our goal is to know more about the Lord, the by-product is His joy. Go to Theological Notes Index

8:9 God's Word Convicts— One of the great proofs that the Bible is really God's inspired Word is its unique ability to convict men and women of their sins. There are many biblical stories that point to this phenomenon where people realize the extent of their sin and the need to repent of it.

Under Josiah's rule a copy of God's Word is found in the temple. When it is read, both the king and the people are convicted of their sins in not keeping God's law. Afterwards a great revival occurs (2Ch 34:14–28 ).

When Nehemiah returns to Israel to help the returning Jews rebuild the gates of Jerusalem, he assembles the people and has the Scriptures read to them for three hours a day. This soon causes them to confess their sin (Neh 9:3 ).

In the New Testament we see many instances where the Holy Spirit uses God's Word to convict people of their sin. At Pentecost Peter uses the Scriptures to rebuke Israel for crucifying its Messiah. The result of his sermon is three thousand souls being convicted and accepting Christ (Ac 2:37, 41 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

8:17 since the days of Joshua. The reference here is to the construction of booths. The people of Israel had celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles since the days of Joshua (1Ki 8:65 ; 2Ch 7:9 ; Ezr 3:4 ).

9:1 the twenty-fourth day of this month. The people's public worship had begun on the first day of the seventh month (8:2 ). More than three weeks later, the people were still engaged in public worship. fasting and in sackcloth and with dirt. These are all traditional signs of mourning.

9:2 separated . . . from all foreigners. The separation was a sacred separation from foreign persons who worshiped other gods and whose practices might have brought harm to the integrity of the worship of the Lord.

9:3 confessed. When this word is used with God as its object, as in this verse, it refers to the praise of God. They were acknowledging His attributes and worthiness of praise.

9:6 You are the LORD, You alone. One of the fundamental teachings of Scripture is that God is not one among many. He alone is the living God (Dt 6:4 ).

9:7 You are the LORD God. The word order of the Hebrew text is striking: "You are He, Yahweh (the) God." The use of the definite article marks Him as "the true God."

9:9 our fathers' affliction in Egypt. The Book of Exodus tells about the plight of the Israelites in Egypt and their complaint to the Lord for deliverance. It then speaks of God's mercy in His response to the people's need. This verse suggests that before the people expressed their hurt, the Lord was already aware of their troubles.

9:11 Persecution— No one asks for or welcomes persecution. But history has borne out the fact that when believers are persecuted they draw close to the Lord. They are keenly aware that they are dependent on Him for strength, endurance, and even sustenance. Some of the sweetest times with the Lord are the times when unbelievers pity us for our tribulation. Times of rest bring independence of spirit. This is when it helps to go back and remember the things that the Lord has done in the past and rejoice, and to remember that He is sufficient for future persecution as well. Go to Theological Notes Index

9:26 killed Your prophets. Jesus also directed this charge against the rebellious people of his time (Mt 23:31 ).

9:30–31 Patience— Nehemiah writes, "You were patient with them." This is the same eternal God who still patiently bears with His people. Even as born again believers we struggle with sin, and we are thankful that He is patient with us as we grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ (2Pe 3:18 ). This patience does not mean that He is tolerant of sin, but that He knows that it takes perseverance to walk as a Christian. He gives us time to grow. Indeed, God is patient to the whole world, not wishing for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance (2Pe 3:9 ). Go to Theological Notes Index

9:32 Now. Now refers to the time of the great revival under Ezra (8:1–2 ). covenant. God's covenant and loyalty are unbreakable (2Ti 2:11–13 ).

9:38 because of all this. The psalm ends in action, not just sentiment. The intent was to bring the participants in this time of worship and remembrance to a commitment to change behavior and to pledge to mirror God's faithfulness.

10:1 these were the names on the sealed document. The way a person in official capacity "signed" a document in the ancient world was similar to the use of a wax seal. A personally distinctive seal was pressed into soft clay. The pattern of the seal identified the official who had issued the document.

10:30 will not give our daughters. Marriage with non-Jewish people was strictly forbidden in Scriptures (Ex 34:12–16 ; Dt 7:3 ; Jos 23:12–13 ; Jdg 3:6 ). Ezra had dealt very decisively with those who had married foreign wives, and this was still in their memory (Ezr 9–10 ).

11:1 cast lots. Casting lots was considered a good way to determine God's will when there was no other clear direction. Solomon wrote, "The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from the LORD" (Pr 16:33 ). one [person] out of ten. This was the proportion determined in order to bring the population of Jerusalem to the level deemed necessary for its strength and viability.

11:25 Kiriath-arba. Kiriath-arba is another name for Hebron.

12:1 Zerubbabel. The return of Zerubbabel is recorded in Ezra 1–6. Jeshua. Jeshua is Joshua the priest. Ezra. This is not the priest who wrote the book of the same name.

12:22 Darius. Darius refers to Darius II (Nothus), who ruled Persia from 423 to 405 BC.

12:23 the Book of the Chronicles. The Book of the Chronicles was not the biblical book, but an official record of the heads of the fathers' houses.

12:27 dedication of the wall. After the completion of Jerusalem's wall (ch. 6), the people repented and renewed their commitment to the Lord (ch. 8–10). The repopulation of Jerusalem was ordered, so the dedication was delayed.

12:31–46 Praise— Nehemiah choreographed a dramatic demonstration of praise, thanksgiving, and celebration on top of the wall. It was a wholehearted celebration to the Lord, and a visible victory dance before Israel's enemies. This time of praise had been preceded by repentance and reorganization of their duties to the temple and the city of Jerusalem. Praise that rises deep in the heart is always praise that comes from knowing that we are in good standing with God. We have repented of our sins and set our hearts and minds on obedience. God is good, His ways are infinitely right, and He is worthy of all of our enthusiastic worship. Go to Theological Notes Index

12:43 sacrifices. The sacrifices offered at the dedication of the wall probably were not burnt offerings, but peace offerings in which the people shared a common meal. The dedication was an occasion for great rejoicing, and men, women, and children took part.

13:4–9 Tobiah. Tobiah was an Ammonite (2:10).

13:23–24 Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. The problem of Jews marrying foreigners had been dealt with thirty years before by Ezra (Ezr 9–10).

13:25 cursed them and struck . . . them and pulled out their hair. It is unnerving to read this list of verbs and imagine the scene. These were not the dispassionate remarks of someone giving a seminar. Nehemiah forced them to comply to the will of God in this matter. After all, this was the principal issue that had led to Israel's captivity in the beginning.

13:28 son-in-law of Sanballat. The marriage was particularly offensive because it formed a treasonable alliance with Israel's enemies and compromised the purity of the high priesthood.

The Book of

Esther

- AUTHOR: Even though the author's identity is not given in the text, it is obvious from the intimate knowledge of Persian customs and etiquette, the palace in Susa, and the details of the reign of King Ahasuerus, that the author lived in Persia during this period. The love expressed here for the Jewish people and the author's knowledge of Jewish customs further suggests Jewish authorship. It is also thought that this Persian Jew was either an eyewitness to the events or knew an eyewitness. It may be that this author had access to the detailed records kept by Mordecai.
- TIMES: c. 483–473 BC
- KEY VERSE: Est 4:14
- THEME: Esther is unique among the Scriptures for two reasons: God is not mentioned by name once, and the heroine is a woman who is part of the harem of a foreign king. The events of the book take place about 30 years before Nehemiah, after the temple in Jerusalem was rebuilt but before the walls were refinished. Esther probably helped to pave the way for Nehemiah's work. The book fits well within the tapestry of the Old Testament. Just as in so many other Old Testament narratives, God provides the means to preserve His people in the face of a severe crisis. It is still read aloud as part of the Purim celebration by Jewish people.

Esther 1

The Banquets of the King

<sup>3</sup> in the third year of his reign he held a banquet for all his officials and his attendants. The army officers of Persia and Media, the nobles and the officials of the provinces were there in his presence. ‡

<sup>4</sup> And he displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his great majesty for many days, 180 days in all.

<sup>5</sup> When these days were completed, the king held a banquet for all the people who were present at the citadel in Susa [the capital], from the greatest [in importance] to the least, a seven-day feast in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace.

<sup>7</sup> Drinks were served in various kinds of golden goblets, and the royal wine was plentiful, in accordance with the generosity of the king.

<sup>8</sup>-The drinking was carried on in accordance with the law; no one was compelled [to drink], for the king had directed each official of his household to comply with each guest's wishes.

<sup>9</sup> Queen Vashti also held a [separate] banquet for the women in the palace of King Ahasuerus.

Queen Vashti's Refusal

<sup>10</sup>-On the seventh day, when the king's heart was joyful with wine (in high spirits), he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus [as his attendants], ‡ The Persian Empire turban), to display her beauty before the people and the officials, for she was lovely to see.

<sup>12</sup> But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command, which was delivered [to her] by the eunuchs. So the king became extremely angry and burned with rage.

<sup>13</sup> Then the king spoke to the wise men who understood the times [asking for their advice]—for it was the custom of the king to speak before all those who were familiar with law and legal matters—‡

<sup>14</sup> and who were close to him [as advisors]: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven officials of Persia and Media who had access to the king and were ranked highest in the kingdom.‡

<sup>15</sup> [He said,] “According to the law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus which was conveyed by the eunuchs?”

<sup>16</sup> And Memucan answered in the presence of the king and the officials, “Vashti the queen has not only wronged the king but [also] all the officials (royal representatives) and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

<sup>17</sup> “For the queen's conduct will become known to all women, causing them to look on their husbands with contempt (disrespect), since they will say, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she did not come.’‡

<sup>18</sup> “This [very] day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's refusal will speak [in the same way] to all the king's officials, and there will be plenty of contempt and anger.

<sup>19</sup> “If it pleases the king, let a royal command be issued by him and let it be written in the laws of the Persians and Medes so that it cannot be repealed or modified, that Vashti is no longer to come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better and more worthy than she.

<sup>21</sup> This statement (advice) pleased the king and the officials, and the king did what Memucan proposed.

<sup>22</sup> So he sent letters to all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, saying that every man should be the master and rule in his own home and that he should speak [in the household] in the language of his own people.‡

Esther 2

Vashti's Successor Sought

<sup>1</sup> AFTER THESE things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Then the king's attendants, who served him, said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.

<sup>3</sup> "Let the king appoint administrators in all the provinces of his kingdom, and have them gather all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel in Susa, into the harem, under the custody of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let their beauty preparations be given to them .

<sup>4</sup> "Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen in place of Vashti." This pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

<sup>5</sup>.There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite,

<sup>6</sup>.who had been deported from Jerusalem with the captives who had been exiled with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled. ‡

<sup>7</sup>.He was the guardian of Hadassah, that is Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had no father or mother. The young woman was beautiful of form and face; and when her father and mother died, Mordecai took her in as his own daughter. ‡

Esther Finds Favor

<sup>8</sup>—So it came about when the king's command and his decree were proclaimed and when many young women were gathered together in the citadel of Susa into the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken to the king's palace [and placed] in the custody of Hegai, who was in charge of the women. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Now the young woman pleased Hegai and found favor with him. So he quickly provided her with beauty preparations and her [portion of] food, and he gave her seven choice maids from the king's palace; then he transferred her and her maids to the best place in the harem. ‡

<sup>10</sup> Esther did not reveal [the Jewish background of] her people or her family, for Mordecai had instructed her not to do so. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Every day Mordecai [who was an attendant in the king's court] walked back and forth in front of the courtyard of the harem to learn how Esther was getting along and what was happening to her.

<sup>12</sup> Now when it was each young woman's turn to go before King Ahasuerus, after the end of her twelve months under the regulations for the women—for the days of their beautification were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with [sweet] spices and perfumes and the beauty preparations for women—

<sup>13</sup> then the young woman would go before the king in this way: anything that she wanted was given her to take with her from the harem into the king's palace.

<sup>14</sup> In the evening she would go in and the next morning she would return to the second harem, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he delighted in her and she was summoned by name.

<sup>15</sup> Now as for Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her in as his [own] daughter, when her turn came to go in to the king, she requested nothing except what Hegai the king's eunuch [and attendant] who was in charge of the women, advised. And Esther found favor in the sight of all who saw her. ‡

<sup>16</sup> So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, to his royal palace in the tenth month, that is, the month of Tebeth (Dec-Jan), in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther Becomes Queen

<sup>17</sup> Now the king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she found favor and kindness with him more than all the [other] virgins, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen in the place of Vashti.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king held a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his officials and his servants; and he made a festival for the provinces and gave gifts in accordance with the resources of the king. ‡

<sup>20</sup> Esther had not revealed her family or her people [that is, her Jewish background], just as Mordecai had instructed her; for Esther did what Mordecai told her just as when she was under his care. ‡

Mordecai Saves the King

<sup>21</sup> In those days, while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the door, became angry and conspired to attack King Ahasuerus.

<sup>23</sup> Now when the plot was investigated and found to be true, both men were hanged on the gallows. And it was recorded in the Book of the Chronicles in the king's presence. ‡

Esther 3

Haman's Plot against the Jews

<sup>2</sup> All the king's servants who were at the king's gate [in royal service] bowed down and honored and paid homage to Haman; for this is what the king had commanded in regard to him. But Mordecai [a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin] neither bowed down nor paid homage [to him]. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you disregarding the king's command?" ‡

<sup>4</sup> Now it happened when they had spoken to him day after day and he would not listen to them, that they told Haman to see whether Mordecai's reason [for his behavior] would stand [as valid]; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

<sup>5</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid homage to him, he was furious. ‡

<sup>6</sup> But he disdained laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him who the people of Mordecai were (his nationality); so Haman determined to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who lived throughout the kingdom of Ahasuerus. ‡

<sup>7</sup> In the first month, the month of Nisan (Mar-Apr), in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, Haman cast Pur, that is, the lot, cast before him day after day [to find a lucky day to approach the king], month after month, until the twelfth month, the month of Adar (Feb-Mar). ‡

8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, “There is a certain people scattered [abroad] and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from those of all other people, and they do not observe the king’s laws. Therefore it is not in the king’s interest to [tolerate them and] let them stay here. ‡

9 “If it pleases the king, let it be decreed that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who carry out the king’s business, to put into the king’s treasuries.”

10 Then the king removed his signet ring from his hand [that is, the special ring which was used to seal his letters] and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews. ‡

11 The king said to Haman, “The silver is given to you, and the people also, to do with them as you please.”

12 Then the king’s scribes (secretaries) were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written just as Haman commanded to the king’s satraps (chief rulers), and to the governors who were over each province and to the officials of each people, each province according to its script (writing), each people according to their own language; being written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king’s signet ring. ‡

13 Letters were sent by couriers to all the king’s provinces to destroy, to kill and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar (March 7, 473 B.C.), and to seize their belongings as plunder. ‡

14 A copy of the edict to be decreed as law in every province was published to all the peoples, so that they would be ready for this day. ‡

15 The couriers went out hurriedly by order of the king, and the decree was issued at the citadel in Susa. And while the king and Haman sat down to drink, the city of Susa was perplexed [by the unusual and alarming decree]. ‡

Esther 4

Esther Learns of Haman’s Plot

1 NOW WHEN Mordecai learned of everything that had been done, he tore his clothes [in mourning], and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the center of the city and cried out loudly and bitterly. ‡

2 He went [only] as far as the king’s gate, because no one was to enter the king's gate dressed in sackcloth.

<sup>3</sup>In each and every province that the decree and law of the king reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing; and many lay on sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>4</sup> When Esther's maids and her eunuchs came and told her [what had happened], the queen was seized by great fear. She sent garments to clothe Mordecai so that he would remove his sackcloth, but he did not accept them.

<sup>5</sup> Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom the king had appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to find out what this issue was and why it had come about.

<sup>6</sup> So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the [open] square of the city, which was in front of the king's gate.

<sup>7</sup> Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, and the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. ‡

<sup>8</sup> Mordecai also gave him a copy of the text of the decree which had been issued in Susa for the Jews destruction, so that he might show Esther and explain it to her, and order her to go in to the king to seek his favor and plead with him for [the lives of] her people. ‡

<sup>9</sup> Hathach came back and told Esther what Mordecai had said.

<sup>10</sup> Then Esther spoke to Hathach and ordered him to reply to Mordecai, saying:

<sup>11</sup>“All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that for any man or woman who comes to the king to the inner court without being summoned, he has but one law, that he is to be put to death, unless the king holds out to him the golden scepter so that he may live. And as for me, I have not been summoned to come to the king for these [last] thirty days.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> So they told Mordecai what Esther had said.

<sup>13</sup> Then Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, “Do not imagine that you in the king's palace can escape any more than all the Jews.

<sup>14</sup>“For if you remain silent at this time, liberation and rescue will arise for the Jews from another place, and you and your father's house will perish [since you did not help when you had the chance]. And who knows whether you have attained royalty for such a time as this [and for this very purpose]?”

Esther Plans to Intercede

<sup>15</sup> Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai,

<sup>16</sup> “Go, gather all the Jews that are present in Susa, and observe a fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids also will fast in the same way. Then I will go in to [see] the king [without being summoned], which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish.” ‡

<sup>17</sup> So Mordecai went away and did exactly as Esther had commanded him.

Esther 5

Esther Plans a Banquet

<sup>2</sup> When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she found favor in his sight; and the king extended to her the golden scepter which was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then the king said to her, “What is troubling you, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you, up to half of the kingdom.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Esther said, “If it pleases the king, may the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the king said, “Bring Haman quickly so that we may do as Esther says.” So the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

<sup>6</sup> As they drank their wine at the banquet, the king said to Esther, “What is your petition? It shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom it shall be done.” ‡

<sup>7</sup> Then Esther replied, “My petition and my request is this:

<sup>8</sup> if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to do as I request, may the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them; and tomorrow I will do as the king says [and express my request].”

Haman’s Pride

<sup>9</sup> Haman went away that day joyful and in good spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king’s gate refusing to stand up or show fear before him, he was filled with rage toward Mordecai.‡

<sup>11</sup> Then Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the large number of his sons, and every instance in which the king had magnified him and how he had promoted him over the officials and servants of the king.‡

<sup>12</sup> Haman also said, “Even Queen Esther let no one but me come with the king to the banquet she had prepared; and tomorrow also I am invited by her [together] with the king.

<sup>13</sup> “Yet all of this does not satisfy me as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.”

<sup>14</sup> Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Have a gallows fifty cubits high made, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it; then go joyfully to the banquet with the king.” And the advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.‡

Esther 6

The King Plans to Honor Mordecai

<sup>1</sup> ON THAT night the king could not sleep; so he ordered that the book of records and memorable deeds, the chronicles, be brought, and they were read before the king.‡

<sup>2</sup> It was found written there how Mordecai had reported that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s eunuchs who were doorkeepers, had planned to attack King Ahasuerus (Xerxes).

<sup>3</sup> The king said, “What honor or distinction has been given Mordecai for this?” Then the king’s servants who attended him said, “Nothing has been done for him.”

<sup>4</sup> So the king said, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king’s palace to ask the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows which he had prepared for him.‡

<sup>5</sup> The king’s servants said to him, “Look, Haman is standing in the court.” And the king said, “Let him come in.”

<sup>6</sup> So Haman came in and the king said to him, “What is to be done for the man whom the king desires to honor?” Now Haman thought to himself, “Whom would the king desire to honor more than me?”

<sup>7</sup> So Haman said to the king, “For the man whom the king desires to honor,

<sup>8</sup> let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and the horse on which the king has ridden, and on whose head a royal crown has been placed;

‡

<sup>9</sup> and let the robe and the horse be handed over to one of the king’s most noble officials. Let him dress the man whom the king delights to honor [in the royal robe] and lead him on horseback through the open square of the city, and proclaim before him, ‘This is what shall be done for the man whom the king desires to honor.’ ” ‡

Haman Must Honor Mordecai

<sup>10</sup> Then the king said to Haman, “Quickly take the royal robe and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting at the king’s gate. Leave out nothing of all that you have said.”

<sup>11</sup> So Haman took the royal robe and the horse and dressed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the open square of the city, proclaiming before him, “This is what shall be done for the man whom the king desires to honor.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise counselors and his wife Zeresh said to him, “If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall in status, is of Jewish heritage, you will not overcome him, but will certainly fall before him.”

<sup>14</sup> While they were still speaking with him, the king’s eunuchs (attendants) arrived and hurriedly brought Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared. ‡

Esther 7

Esther’s Plea

<sup>2</sup> And the king said to Esther on the second day also as they drank their wine, “What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom, it shall be done.” ‡

3. Then Queen Esther replied, “If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be spared as my petition, and my people [be spared] as my request;

4 for we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, killed and wiped out of existence. Now if we had only been sold as slaves, men and women, I would have remained silent, for our hardship would not be sufficient to burden the king [by even mentioning it].” ‡

5 Then King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) asked Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who dares to do such a thing?”

6. Esther said, “An adversary and an enemy is Haman, this evil man.” Then Haman became terrified before the king and queen.

Haman Is Hanged

7 Then in his fury, the king stood up from drinking wine and went into the palace garden [to decide what he should do]; but Haman stayed to plead for his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that harm had been determined against him by the king.

8. When the king returned from the palace garden to the place where they were drinking wine, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he even attempt to assault the queen with me in the palace?” As the king spoke those words, the servants covered Haman’s face [in preparation for execution]. ‡

9 Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs serving the king said, “Now look, there are gallows fifty cubits (75 ft.) high standing at Haman’s house, which Haman made for Mordecai, whose good warning saved the king.” And the king said, “Hang him on it.” ‡

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s anger subsided. ‡

Esther 8

Mordecai Promoted

1 ON THAT day King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) gave the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews, to Queen Esther; and Mordecai came before the king, because Esther had disclosed what [relation] he was to her. ‡

<sup>3</sup> Then Esther spoke again to the king and fell down at his feet and wept and implored him to avert the evil plot of Haman the Agagite and his plan which he had devised against the Jews [because the decree to annihilate the Jews was still in effect].

<sup>4</sup> Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose and stood before the king.‡

<sup>5</sup> Then she said, “If it pleases the king and if I have found favor before him and the matter is proper in the king’s view and I am pleasing in his sight, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman the son of Hamedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote [in order] to destroy the Jews who are in all the king’s provinces.

<sup>6</sup> “For how can I endure to see the tragedy that will happen to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?”‡

<sup>7</sup> Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, “Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he stretched out his hand against the Jews.‡

The King’s Decree Avenges the Jews

<sup>8</sup> “Also, concerning the Jews, write as you see fit, in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s signet ring—for a decree which is written in the king’s name and sealed with the king’s signet ring may not be revoked.”‡

<sup>9</sup> So the king’s scribes were called at that time in the third month (that is, the month of Sivan) on the twenty-third day; and it was written in accordance with everything that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, to the chief rulers (satraps), and the governors and officials of the provinces which extended from India to Ethiopia (Cush), 127 provinces, to every province in its own script (writing), and to every people in their own language and to the Jews according to their script and their language.‡

<sup>10</sup> He wrote [a decree] in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king’s ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on the royal [mail] relay horses, the offspring of the racing mares.‡

<sup>11</sup> In it the king granted the Jews who were in every city the right to assemble and to defend their lives; to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate any armed force that might attack them, their little children, and women; and to take the enemies' goods as plunder,‡

<sup>12</sup> on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar).‡

<sup>13</sup> A copy of the edict was to be issued as a law in every province and as a proclamation to all peoples, so that the Jews would be ready on that day, to avenge themselves on their enemies.‡

<sup>16</sup> For [at this time] the Jews had light [a dawn of new hope] and gladness and joy and honor.‡

<sup>17</sup> In each and every province and in each and every city, wherever the king's command and his decree arrived, the Jews celebrated with gladness and joy, a feast and a holiday. And many among the peoples of the land became Jews, for the fear of the Jews [and their God] had fallen on them.‡

Esther 9

The Jews Destroy Their Enemies

<sup>1</sup> NOW IN the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar) on the thirteenth day when the king's command and edict were about to be executed, on the [very] day when the enemies of the Jews had hoped to gain power over them [and slaughter them], it happened the other way around so that the Jews themselves gained power over those who hated them.‡

<sup>3</sup> Even all the officials of the provinces and the chief rulers (satraps) and the governors and those who attended to the king's business supported the Jews [in defeating their enemies], because the fear of Mordecai [and his God's power] had fallen on them.

spread throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai became greater and greater. ‡

<sup>5</sup> So the Jews struck all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them; and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

<sup>10</sup> the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder. ‡

<sup>11</sup> On that day the number of those who were killed at the citadel in Susa was reported to the king.

<sup>12</sup> The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman at the citadel in Susa. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. What is your further request? It shall also be done." ‡

<sup>13</sup> Esther replied, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Susa to act tomorrow also in accordance with the decree of today; and let [the dead bodies of] Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."  [Esth 9:10] ‡

<sup>14</sup> So the king commanded it to be done; the decree was given in Susa, and they hanged [the bodies of] Haman's ten sons.

<sup>15</sup> The Jews who were in Susa also gathered together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men in Susa, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder. ‡

<sup>16</sup> Now the rest of the Jews who were in the king's provinces assembled, to defend their lives and rid themselves of their enemies, and kill 75,000 of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder. ‡

<sup>17</sup> This was done on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

<sup>18</sup> But the Jews who were in Susa assembled on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth of the same month, and on the fifteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing. ‡

<sup>19</sup> Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the rural [unwalled] towns, make the fourteenth day of the month of Adar a holiday for rejoicing and feasting and sending choice portions of food to one another. ‡

The Feast of Purim Instituted

<sup>20</sup> Now Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews who lived in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

<sup>21</sup> obliging them to celebrate the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same month, annually,

<sup>22</sup> because on those days the Jews rid themselves of their enemies, and as the month which was turned for them from grief to joy and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and rejoicing and sending choice portions of food to one another and gifts to the poor. ‡

<sup>23</sup> So the Jews undertook what they had started to do, and what Mordecai had written to them.

<sup>24</sup> For Haman the son of Hamedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, [to find the right time] to disturb and destroy them. ‡

<sup>25</sup> But when it came before the king, he commanded in writing that Haman's wicked scheme which he had devised against the Jews was to return on his own head, and that he and his sons should [endure what he planned for the Jews and] be hanged on the gallows. ‡

<sup>26</sup> Therefore they called these days Purim after the name Pur (lot). And because of all the instructions in this letter, and what they had faced in this regard and what had happened to them, ‡

<sup>27</sup> the Jews established and made it a custom for themselves and for their descendants and for all who joined them, so that they would not fail to celebrate these two days as it was written and at the appointed time annually. ‡

<sup>28</sup> So these days were to be remembered and celebrated throughout every generation, every family, every province and every city; and these days of Purim were not to cease from among the Jews, nor their memory fade from their descendants.

<sup>30</sup> He sent letters to all the Jews, to the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, in words of peace and truth, ‡

<sup>32</sup> The command of Esther established these customs for Purim, and it was written in the book [of the royal archives].

Mordecai's Greatness

<sup>2</sup> And all the accomplishments of his authority and strength, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had raised him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia? ‡

<sup>3</sup> For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews and in favor with his many fellow people, for he worked for the good of his people and spoke for the welfare and peace of his whole nation. ‡

Annotations for Esther

1:1 Ahasuerus. The kingdom of Ahasuerus extended from India (the region drained by the Indus River) to Ethiopia (northern Sudan). The Persian Kingdom under Ahasuerus was divided into smaller areas called provinces and larger divisions called satrapies.

1:6 white and violet. These were the royal colors of the Persians.

1:8 no one was compelled. The usual Persian custom was that guests at a banquet were required to drink each time the king raised his cup.

The Persian Empire

Go to Index of Charts and Maps

1:10 eunuchs. These eunuchs were servants who were castrated for the purpose of acting as harem attendants. They would have had the physical strength and stamina of any man, but not be a sexual threat to the king's women.

1:16–18 Memucan. Acting as spokesman for the others, Memucan responded shrewdly by enlarging the offense beyond a personal affront to the king. The Hebrew word used for contempt occurs only here in the Old Testament. It is related to the verb translated “despise.”

2:5 Kish. Some think this may have been the Kish who was the father of King Saul (1Sa 9:1–2). It was not uncommon to refer to someone as “the son of” a more distant ancestor (Mt 15:22).

2:6 who had been deported. This verse is a little confusing, as the Hebrew text does not indicate the subject of the verb “had been carried away.” It seems highly unlikely that it could be Mordecai, because if he had been among those carried to Babylon, he would probably not be alive in the time of Ahasuerus. If the name Kish does not refer to a more distant ancestor, he may have been the one taken into captivity. Whatever the case, it is obvious that Mordecai and his family were among those descended from the captives taken to Babylon in the days of Nebuchadnezzar.

2:7 Hadassah. Hadassah is a Hebrew name that means “Myrtle.” Esther is a Persian name meaning “star.” Jewish people in that time customarily had two names when they lived in places other than Israel. One would be their secular name, which was understood by their adopted culture, and the other would be their sacred name, given in Hebrew.

2:8 Esther was taken. We cannot determine whether Esther went willingly or reluctantly to the palace complex. But perhaps God was already preparing her for the work he had for her to do.

2:14 concubines. These women lived unfortunate, though highly pampered lives. If the king never called them again, they were destined to remain secluded in the harem for the rest of their lives.

2:21 sitting at the king's gate. In ancient cities, the gates were the “courthouse” of the town, where official business was carried out (Dt 22:13–15). The “king's gate” may have served a similar purpose.

3:1 the Agagite. Some believe Agagite is a reference to the historical district of Agag within the Persian Empire. Others believe this term more likely links Haman's descent to the Amalekites. These descendants of Esau (Ge 36:12) were ancient enemies of the Hebrews (Ex 17:8). Agag, a king of the Amalekites, was captured by King Saul (1Sa 15:8). If Haman was descended from the Amalekites, and Mordecai from the family of Saul (v. 5), then the irritation Haman had for Mordecai could have been a symptom of a long-standing family hostility.

3:2 bowed down . . . paid homage to. It is not known whether the bowing was required as an act of worship to the king's man, or merely as an overt sign of deep respect. If such obeisance indicated worship, Mordecai's reason for refusal is obvious. If it was merely a sign of respect, he may not have been able to bring himself to show such honor to one who was an ancestral enemy.

3:5–6 furious. If Haman was of Amalekite ancestry, it could be that this was the cause of his deep hatred. Also, it is possible that Haman simply could not stand to see anyone who did not properly respect his position.

3:7 Pur, that is, the lot. The casting of lots was common in ancient times. Haman's casting a lot at the beginning of the year to determine the best time to destroy the Jewish people fits in with the culture of the day, as the Babylonians believed that the gods gathered at the beginning of each year to establish the destiny of human beings. The word pur is the basis for the name of the new feast in chapter 9.

3:8 Slander— Haman was sly. He devised an accusation to convince the king that the Jews were a dangerous and treasonous people. His accusation contained a clever mixture of truth and falsehood. The laws of the Jewish people were admittedly different, but this was not unusual, nor was it a threat to Persia, which contained many minorities. Not only was accusing the whole Jewish nation of civil disobedience a lie, it was also intended to lead to something much worse: murder. Go to Theological Notes Index

3:10 signet ring. The king's signet ring symbolized his authority. He would have used this signet as a stamp to authorize official documents.

3:15 Haman sat down to drink. Haman was so unconcerned about the death sentence he was placing on the Jewish people that he sat down comfortably to relax while the city was in confusion.

4:1–2 sackcloth and ashes. Sackcloth and ashes were used as a visible sign of mourning, indicating a sense of desolation.

4:3 fasting. It is interesting to note that throughout the entire Book of Esther, God is not mentioned by name even once. One assumes that Esther's fasting was accompanied by prayer, but it is never mentioned. Fasting was a religious custom, and we know the Jews relied on God for their safety. Many think the author of Esther was writing the story to a secular audience, and this is the reason for God's actual name being left out.

4:11 I have not been summoned. Esther understood that Mordecai was asking her to risk her life. She would be taking her life into her hands to go uncalled to the king in any circumstances; the fact that she had not been called for a month probably meant that she was even more unsure of her reception.

4:14 for such a time as this. Even though this verse does not directly mention God, Mordecai obviously believed that Esther was made queen through God's design, and she would be acting as God's agent to deliver His people.

4:16 Self-denial— Even though Esther must have been afraid, knowing that she was breaking the law, she decided to trust God. Her statement "if I perish, I perish," was not despair, but willingness to act however God willed, recognizing that the consequences were in His hands. Self-denial is not easy, but God never fails His children. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:2 she found favor in his sight. When Esther illegally entered the king's court, he was pleased by her appearance and decided to overlook her offense. In this scene we again see the hand of God.

5:8 tomorrow I will do as the king says. Why did Esther delay in telling the king her real request? Perhaps she was afraid, and used the intervening time to strengthen her courage. But it seems that here also is God's hand, for the delay provided time for the king's sleepless night and the events that followed.

5:14 gallows. The gallows height, 50 cubits, was about 75 feet.

6:1 the king could not sleep. Within this chapter we observe a series of events that point unmistakably to God's sovereign hand. Only because of the "chance happening" of his sleepless night did the king learn of Mordecai's past loyalty.

6:4 Now Haman had just entered the outer court. Here again is the Lord's hand at work on behalf of his people. No sooner had Mordecai's reward been discussed than Haman appeared in the court.

6:10 Jew. The term "Jew," derived from Judah, came into use during the exile because the people were primarily from the Southern Kingdom of Judah.

7:3 my people [be spared] as my request. Esther disclosed her real identity to the king in her plea for the lives of her people.

7:6 Haman, this evil man. In Haman's evil plan to kill his enemy he had unwittingly threatened the queen's life.

7:8 covered Haman's face. The covering of his face signified that he was condemned to death.

8:2 he had taken away from Haman. Mordecai was given Haman's position as prime minister.

8:8 may not be revoked. In the Persian Empire, a royal decree could not be altered, but a second one could be written that effectively invalidated the first.

8:17 became Jews. This is the only place in the Old Testament that refers to conversion to Judaism. Before, a person was a Jew if he or she was born so, and now it appears as a religion to which one could convert.

9:7–10 ten sons of Haman. The patterns of reprisal and revenge were so deeply engrained in the culture of the ancient Middle East that the survival of even one of these sons might mean trouble for the next generation of Jews.

9:26–28 Purim. Purim (from the word pur, referring to the lots Haman cast to determine the best day for destroying the Jews; 3:7) reminds the Jews of God's deliverance from their day of destruction.

The Book of Job

- AUTHOR: The author of Job is unknown and there are no textual hints as to his identity. The non-Hebraic cultural background may point to a Gentile authorship, but an interesting school of thought maintains that Moses may have written this book. The land of Uz (1:1) is directly adjacent to Midian, where Moses lived for 40 years. Perhaps the oldest book of the Bible, set in the time of the patriarchs (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph), it is conceivable that Moses obtained a record of the dialogue left by Job or Elihu.
- TIMES: Unknown
- KEY VERSE: Job 13:15
- THEME: There are many things that set Job apart from the rest of Scripture. Its dramatic format is unique. It is a story that is not part of the flow of the history of Israel. And the thematic focus is narrower than other books of its size. A classic work of literature, its primary subject matter is the most basic question man has of God: Why do we suffer? The Book of Job is the biblical text that addresses this issue head on, and the dramatic nature of the story intensifies the conflict of ideas and understanding between God and man.

Job 1

Job's Character and Wealth

1 THERE WAS a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God [with reverence] and abstained from and turned away from evil [because he honored God]. ‡

2 Seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

3 He also possessed 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke (pairs) of oxen, 500 female donkeys, and a very great number of servants, so that this man was the greatest [and wealthiest and most respected] of all the men of the east (northern Arabia).

4 His sons used to go [in turn] and feast in the house of each one on his day, and they would send word and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.  [Gen 21:8 ; 40:20 ]

5 When the days of their feasting were over, Job would send [for them] and consecrate them, rising early in the morning and offering burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, “It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” Job did this at all [such] times. ‡

6- Now there was a day when the sons of God (angels) came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan (adversary, accuser) also came among them.  [Rev 12:10 ] ‡

7- The LORD said to Satan, “From where have you come?” Then Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming around on the earth and from walking around on it.” ‡

8- The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered and reflected on My servant Job? For there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God [with reverence] and abstains from and turns away from evil [because he honors God].”

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, “Does Job fear God for nothing?

10-“Have You not put a hedge [of protection] around him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands [and conferred prosperity and happiness upon him], and his possessions have increased in the land. ‡

11-“But put forth Your hand now and touch (destroy) all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face.” ‡

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, all that Job has is in your power, only do not put your hand on the man himself.” So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.

Satan Allowed to Test Job

<sup>13</sup> Now there was a day when Job’s sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,‡

<sup>14</sup> and a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were feeding beside them,

<sup>15</sup> and the Sabeans attacked and swooped down on them and took away the animals. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>16</sup> While he was still speaking, another [messenger] also came and said, “The fire of God (lightning) has fallen from the heavens and has burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>17</sup> While he was still speaking, another [messenger] also came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three bands and made a raid on the camels and have taken them away and have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>18</sup> While he was still speaking, another [messenger] also came and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,‡

<sup>19</sup> and suddenly, a great wind came from across the desert, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people and they died, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Job got up and tore his robe and shaved his head [in mourning for the children], and he fell to the ground and worshiped [God].‡

<sup>21</sup> He said,‡

“Naked (without possessions) I came [into this world] from my mother’s womb,
And naked I will return there.
The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away;
Blessed be the name of the LORD.”

<sup>22</sup> Through all this Job did not sin nor did he blame God.‡

Job 2

Job Loses His Health

<sup>1</sup> AGAIN THERE was a day when the sons of God (angels) came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan (adversary, accuser) also came among them to present himself before the LORD. ‡

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to Satan, “From where have you come?” Then Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming around on the earth and from walking around on it.” ‡

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered and reflected on My servant Job? For there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God [with reverence] and abstains from and turns away from evil [because he honors God]. And still he maintains and holds tightly to his integrity, although you incited Me against him to destroy him without cause.” ‡

<sup>4</sup> Satan answered the LORD, “Skin for skin! Yes, a man will give all he has for his life.

<sup>5</sup> “But put forth Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh [and severely afflict him]; and he will curse You to Your face.” ‡

<sup>6</sup> So the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, he is in your hand, only spare his life.” ‡

<sup>8</sup> And Job took a piece of broken pottery with which to scrape himself, and he sat [down] among the ashes (rubbish heaps). ‡

<sup>9</sup> Then his wife said to him, “Do you still cling to your integrity [and your faith and trust in God, without blaming Him]? Curse God and die!”

<sup>10</sup> But he said to her, “You speak as one of the [spiritually] foolish women speaks [ignorant and oblivious to God’s will]. Shall we indeed accept [only] good from God and not [also] accept adversity and disaster?” In [spite of] all this Job did not sin with [words from] his lips. ‡

<sup>11</sup> Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, each one came from his own place, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; for they had made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him. ‡

<sup>12</sup> When they looked from a distance and did not recognize him [because of his disfigurement], they raised their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe [in grief] and they threw dust over their heads toward the sky [in sorrow]. ‡

<sup>13</sup> So they sat down on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great. ‡

Job 3

Job's Lament

<sup>1</sup> AFTER THIS, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth .

<sup>2</sup> And Job said,

And the night which announced: ‘There is a man-child conceived.’

<sup>4</sup> “May that day be darkness;
Let God above not care about it,
Nor light shine on it.

<sup>5</sup> “Let darkness and gloom claim it for their own; ‡
Let a cloud settle upon it;
Let all that blackens the day terrify it (the day that I was born).

<sup>6</sup> “As for that night, let darkness seize it;
Let it not rejoice among the days of the year;
Let it not be counted in the number of the months.

<sup>7</sup> “Behold, let that night be barren [and empty];
Let no joyful voice enter it.

<sup>8</sup> “Let those curse it who curse the day, ‡
Who are skilled in rousing up Leviathan.

<sup>9</sup> “Let the stars of its early dawn be dark;
Let the morning wait in vain for the light,
Let it not see the eyelids of morning (the day’s dawning),

<sup>10</sup> Because it did not shut the doors of my mother’s womb,
Nor hide trouble from my eyes.

- <sup>11</sup> “Why did I not die at birth,‡
Come forth from the womb and expire?
- <sup>12</sup> “Why did the knees receive me?‡
And why the breasts, that I would nurse?
- <sup>13</sup> “For now I would have lain down and been quiet;
I would have slept then, I would have been at rest [in death],
- <sup>14</sup> With kings and counselors of the earth,‡
Who built up [now desolate] ruins for themselves;
- <sup>15</sup> Or with princes who had gold,
Who filled their houses with silver.
- <sup>16</sup> “Or like a miscarriage which is hidden and put away, I would not exist,‡
Like infants who never saw light.
- <sup>17</sup> “There [in death] the wicked cease from raging,
And there the weary are at rest.
- <sup>18</sup> “There the prisoners rest together;‡
They do not hear the taskmaster’s voice.
- <sup>19</sup> “The small and the great are there,
And the servant is free from his master.  [Jer 20:14–18 ]
- <sup>20</sup> “Why is the light given to him who is in misery,‡
And life to the bitter in soul,
- <sup>21</sup> Who wait for death, but it does not come,‡
And dig (search) for death more [diligently] than for hidden treasures,
- <sup>22</sup> Who rejoice exceedingly,
And rejoice when they find the grave?
- <sup>23</sup> “ Why is the light of day given to a man whose way is hidden,‡
And whom God has hedged in?
- <sup>24</sup> “For my groaning comes at the sight of my food,
And my cries [of despair] are poured out like water.
- <sup>25</sup> “For the thing which I greatly fear comes upon me,
And that of which I am afraid has come upon me.
- <sup>26</sup> “I am not at ease, nor am I quiet,
And I am not at rest, and yet trouble still comes [upon me].”

Job 4

Eliphaz: Innocent Do Not Suffer

<sup>1</sup> THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “If we dare to converse with you, will you be impatient [or offended]?

But who can restrain himself from speaking?

<sup>3</sup> “Behold, you have admonished and instructed many,‡
And you have strengthened weak hands.

<sup>4</sup> “Your words have helped the one who was stumbling to stand,‡

And you have strengthened feeble knees.

<sup>5</sup> “But now adversity comes upon you, and you are impatient and intolerant;

It touches you, and you are horrified.

<sup>6</sup> “Is not your fear of God your confidence,‡

And [is not] the integrity and uprightness of your ways your hope?

Or where [and in what circumstances] were those upright and in right standing with God destroyed?

<sup>8</sup> “As I have seen, those who plow wickedness‡

And those who sow trouble and harm harvest it.

<sup>9</sup> “By the breath of God they perish,

And by the blast of His anger they are consumed.

<sup>10</sup> “The roaring of the lion and the voice of the fierce lion,‡

And the teeth of the young lions are broken.

<sup>11</sup> “The lion perishes for lack of prey,‡

And the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

<sup>12</sup> “Now a word was secretly brought to me,

And my ear received a whisper of it.

<sup>13</sup> “Amid disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night,‡

When deep sleep falls on men,

<sup>14</sup> Dread and trembling came upon me, ‡
Which made all my bones shake.

<sup>15</sup> “Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair on my skin stood on end!

<sup>16</sup> “The spirit stood still, but I could not discern its appearance;
A form was before my eyes;
There was silence, and then I heard a voice, saying:

<sup>17</sup> ‘Can [mortal] man be just before God or be more righteous than He?

Can a man be pure before his Maker or be more cleansed than
He?  [1 John 1:7; Rev 1:5 ]

<sup>18</sup> ‘God puts no trust or confidence, even in His [heavenly] servants, ‡

And He charges His angels with error.

<sup>19</sup> ‘How much more [will He blame and charge] those who dwell in houses (bodies) of clay,
Whose foundations are in the dust,
Who are crushed like a moth.

<sup>20</sup> ‘Between morning and evening they are broken in pieces and destroyed; ‡
Unobserved and unnoticed, they perish forever.

<sup>21</sup> ‘Is not their tent-cord drawn up within them [so that the tent collapses]?

Do they not die, and yet without [acquiring] wisdom?’

Job 5

God Is Just

<sup>1</sup> “CALL NOW—is there anyone who will answer you?
And to which of the holy ones (angels) will you turn?

<sup>2</sup> “For anger slays the foolish man,
And jealousy kills the simple (naive).

<sup>3</sup> “I have seen the foolish taking root [and outwardly prospering], ‡
But I cursed his dwelling immediately [for his destruction was certain].

<sup>4</sup> “His children are far from safety [and included in their father’s ruin],

They are oppressed and crushed in the [court of justice in the city’s] gate,

And there is no one to rescue them.

<sup>5</sup> “The hungry devour his harvest

And take it even [when it grows] among the thorns;

The trap opens for [his] wealth.

<sup>6</sup> “For affliction does not come forth from the dust,

Nor does trouble spring forth from the ground.

<sup>7</sup> “For man is born for trouble,

[As naturally] as sparks fly upward.

<sup>8</sup> “As for me, I would seek God and inquire of Him,

And I would commit my cause to God;

<sup>9</sup> Who does great and unsearchable things,

Marvelous things without number.

<sup>10</sup> “He gives rain upon the earth

And sends waters upon the fields,

<sup>11</sup> So that He sets on high those who are lowly, ‡

And He lifts to safety those who mourn.

<sup>12</sup> “He frustrates the devices and schemes of the crafty, ‡

So that their hands cannot attain success or achieve anything of [lasting] worth.

<sup>13</sup> “He catches the [so-called] wise in their own shrewdness,

And the advice of the devious is quickly thwarted. [1 Cor 3:19, 20]

<sup>14</sup> “In the daytime they meet in darkness,

And at noon they grope as in the night.

<sup>15</sup> “But God saves [the innocent] from the sword of the mouth of the devious, ‡

And the poor from the hand of the mighty.

<sup>16</sup> “So the helpless have hope, ‡

And injustice shuts its mouth.

17 “Behold, how happy and fortunate is the man whom God reproves, ‡

So do not despise or reject the discipline of the Almighty

[subjecting you to trial and suffering].

<sup>18</sup> “For He inflicts pain, but He binds up and gives relief; ‡
He wounds, but His hands also heal.

<sup>19</sup> “He will rescue you from six troubles; ‡
Even in seven, evil will not touch you.

<sup>20</sup> “In famine He will redeem you from death, ‡
And in war from the power of the sword.

<sup>21</sup> “You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, ‡
And you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.

<sup>22</sup> “You will laugh at violence and famine, ‡
And you will not be afraid of the wild beasts of the earth.

<sup>23</sup> “For you will be in harmony with the stones of the field, ‡
And the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

<sup>24</sup> “You will know also that your tent is secure and at peace,
And you will visit your dwelling and fear no loss [nor find anything amiss].

<sup>25</sup> “You will know also that your descendants will be many, ‡
And your offspring as the grass of the earth.

<sup>26</sup> “You will come to your grave in old age, ‡
Like the stacking of grain [on the threshing floor] in its season.

<sup>27</sup> “Behold this; we have investigated it, and it is true. ‡
Hear and heed it, and know for yourself [for your own good].”

Job 6

Job's Friends Are No Help

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Oh, that my grief could actually be weighed
And placed in the balances together with my tragedy [to see if my grief is the grief of a coward]!

<sup>3</sup> “For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea;
Therefore my words have been incoherent,

<sup>4</sup> Because the arrows of the Almighty are within me, ‡
My spirit drinks their poison;

The terrors of God are arrayed against me.

5 “Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass?

Or does the ox low over his fodder?

6 “Can something that has no taste to it be eaten without salt?

Or is there any flavor in the white of an egg?

7 “My soul refuses to touch them;

Such things are like loathsome food to me [sickening and repugnant].

8 “Oh that my request would come to pass,

And that God would grant me the thing that I long for!

9. “I wish that it would please God to crush me,

That He would let loose His hand and cut me off.

10. “Then I would still have consolation, ‡

And I would jump for joy amid unsparing pain,

That I have not denied or hidden the words of the Holy One.

11 “What strength do I have left, that I should wait [and hope]?

And what is ahead of me, that I should be patient and endure?

12 “Is my strength and endurance that of stones,

Or is my flesh made of bronze?

13 “Is it that I have no help within myself,

And that success and wisdom have been driven from me?

14 “For the despairing man there should be kindness from his friend; ‡

So that he does not abandon (turn away from) the fear of the Almighty.

15. “My brothers have acted deceitfully like a brook, ‡

Like the torrents of brooks that vanish,

16 Which are dull and dirty because of ice,

And into which the snow melts and hides itself;

17 When it is warm, they are silent and cease to flow;

When it is hot, they vanish from their place.

18 “The paths of their course wind along,

They go up into nothing and perish.

[Your counsel is as helpful to me as a dry streambed in the heat of summer.]

19 “The caravans of Tema looked [for water], ‡

The caravans of Sheba waited for them [in vain].

<sup>20</sup> “They were put to shame and disappointed because they had trusted [that they would find water]; ‡

They came there and were ashamed.

You see a terror [believing me to be a victim of the wrath of God] and are afraid [to be compassionate].

<sup>22</sup> “Did I ever say, ‘Give me something, ’

Or, ‘Pay a bribe for me from your wealth,’

<sup>23</sup> Or, ‘Rescue me from the adversary’s hand,’

Or, ‘Redeem me from the hand of the tyrants’?

<sup>24</sup> “Teach me, and I will be silent;

And show me how I have erred.

<sup>25</sup> “How painful are words of honesty.

But what does your argument prove?

<sup>26</sup> “Do you intend to reprove my words [with a convincing argument],

When the words of one in despair belong to the wind [and go ignored]?

<sup>27</sup> “You would cast lots (gamble) over the fatherless ‡

And bargain away your friend.

<sup>28</sup> “Now please look at me,

And see if I lie to your face [for you know that I would not].

<sup>29</sup> “Turn away [from your suspicion], let there be no injustice;

‡

Turn away, my righteousness and vindication is still in it.

<sup>30</sup> “Is there injustice or malice on my tongue?

Can my palate not discern what is destructive?

Job 7

Job’s Life Seems Futile

<sup>1</sup> “IS NOT man forced to labor on earth? ‡

And are not his days like the days of a hired man?

<sup>2</sup> “As a slave earnestly longs for the shade,

And as a hired man eagerly awaits his wages,

<sup>3</sup> So am I allotted months of futility and suffering, ‡
And [long] nights of trouble and misery are appointed to me.

<sup>4</sup> “When I lie down I say, ‡
‘When shall I arise [and the night be gone]?’

But the night continues,
And I am continually tossing until the dawning of day.

<sup>5</sup> “My body is clothed with worms and a crust of dust; ‡
My skin is hardened [and broken and loathsome], and [breaks out and] runs.

<sup>6</sup> “My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, ‡
And are spent without hope.

<sup>7</sup> “Remember that my life is but breath [a puff of wind, a sigh]; ‡

My eye will not see good again.

<sup>8</sup> “The eye of him who sees me [now] will see me no more; ‡
Your eyes will be upon me, but I will not be.

<sup>9</sup> “As a cloud vanishes and is gone, ‡
So he who goes down to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) does not come up.

<sup>10</sup> “He will not return again to his house, ‡
Nor will his place know about him anymore.

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; ‡
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit,
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul [O Lord].

<sup>12</sup> “Am I the sea, or the sea monster,
That You set a guard over me?

<sup>13</sup> “When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me, ‡
My couch will ease my complaint,’

<sup>14</sup> Then You frighten me with dreams
And terrify me through visions,

<sup>15</sup> So that I would choose suffocation,
Death rather than my pain.

<sup>16</sup> “I waste away and loathe my life; I will not live forever. ‡
Let me alone, for my days are but a breath [futile and without substance].

<sup>17</sup> “What is man that You [should] magnify him [and think him important]? ‡

And that You are concerned about him?  [Ps 8:4 ]
<sup>18</sup> “And that You examine him every morning
And try and test him every moment?
<sup>19</sup> “Will You never turn Your gaze away from me [it plagues
me],
Nor let me alone until I swallow my spittle?
<sup>20</sup> “If I have sinned, what [harm] have I done to You, ‡
O Watcher of mankind?
Why have You set me as a target for You,
So that I am a burden to myself?
<sup>21</sup> “Why then do You not pardon my transgression
And take away my sin and guilt?
For now I will lie down in the dust;
And You will seek me [diligently], but I will not be.”

Job 8

Bildad Says God Rewards the Good

<sup>1</sup> THEN BILDAD the Shuhite answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “How long will you say these things?
And will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?
<sup>3</sup> “Does God pervert justice? ‡
Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?
<sup>4</sup> “If your children have sinned against Him, ‡
Then He has handed them over to the power of their transgression and punished them.
<sup>5</sup> “If you would [diligently] seek God ‡
And implore the compassion and favor of the Almighty, <sup>6</sup> Then, if you are pure and upright,
Surely now He will awaken for you
And restore your righteous place.
<sup>7</sup> “Though your beginning was insignificant,
Yet your end will greatly increase.

<sup>8</sup> “Inquire, please, of past generations,‡
And consider and apply yourself to the things searched out by their fathers.

<sup>9</sup> “For we are only of yesterday and know nothing,‡
Because our days on earth are [like] a shadow [just a breath or a vapor].

<sup>10</sup> “Will they (the fathers) not teach you and tell you,
And utter words from their hearts [the deepest part of their nature]?

<sup>11</sup> “Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh?
Can the rushes or reed grass grow without water?

<sup>12</sup> “While it is still green (in flower) and not cut down,‡
Yet it withers before any other plant [when without water].

<sup>13</sup> “So are the paths of all who forget God;‡
And the hope of the godless will perish,

<sup>14</sup> For his confidence is fragile and breaks,
And his trust is [like] a spider’s web.

<sup>15</sup> “He trusts in his house, but it does not stand;‡
He holds tightly to it, but it does not endure.

<sup>16</sup> “He thrives and prospers [like a green plant] before the sun,
And his branches spread out over his garden.

<sup>17</sup> “His [godless] roots are wrapped around a pile of rocks,
And he gazes at a house of stones.

<sup>18</sup> “If he is snatched from his place [in the garden],‡
Then his place will forget him, saying, ‘I have never seen you.’

<sup>19</sup> “Behold, this is the joy of His way;‡
And from out of the dust others will spring up and grow [to take his place].

<sup>20</sup> “Behold, God will not reject a man of integrity,
Nor will He strengthen or support evildoers.

<sup>21</sup> “He will yet fill your mouth with laughter
And your lips with joyful shouting [if you are found blameless].

<sup>22</sup> “Those who hate you will be clothed with shame,‡
And the tents of the wicked will be no longer.”

Job 9

Job Says There Is No Arbitrator between God and Man

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Yes, I know it is true. ‡

But how can a mortal man be right before God?

<sup>3</sup> “If one should want to contend or dispute with Him,
He could not answer Him once in a thousand times.

<sup>4</sup> “God is wise in heart and mighty in strength; ‡
Who has [ever] defied or challenged Him and remained unharmed?

<sup>5</sup> “It is God who removes the mountains, and they do not know it,

When He overturns them in His anger;

<sup>6</sup> Who shakes the earth out of its place, ‡
And its pillars tremble;

<sup>7</sup> Who commands the sun, and it does not shine;
Who seals up the stars [from view];

<sup>8</sup> Who alone stretches out the heavens ‡
And tramples down the waves of the sea;

<sup>9</sup> Who made [the constellations] the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, ‡

And the [vast starry] spaces of the south;

<sup>10</sup> Who does great things, [beyond understanding,] unfathomable, ‡

Yes, marvelous and wondrous things without number.

<sup>11</sup> “Behold, He passes by me, and I do not see Him; ‡
He moves past me, but I do not perceive Him.

<sup>12</sup> “Behold, He snatches away; who can restrain or turn Him back? ‡

Who will say to Him, ‘What are You doing?’

<sup>13</sup> “God will not turn back His anger; ‡

The [proud] helpers of Rahab [the arrogant monster of the sea] bow under Him.

- <sup>14</sup> “How can I answer Him [and plead my case], Choosing my words [to reason] with Him?
- <sup>15</sup> For though I were righteous, I could not answer. ‡
I must appeal for mercy to my Opponent and Judge.
- <sup>16</sup> “If I called and He answered me,
I could not believe that He was listening to my voice.
- <sup>17</sup> “For He bruises me with a tempest ‡
And multiplies my wounds without cause.
- <sup>18</sup> “He will not allow me to catch my breath,
But fills and saturates me with bitterness.
- <sup>19</sup> “If it is a matter of strength and power, behold, He is mighty!
And if of justice, who can summon and challenge Him?
- <sup>20</sup> “Though I am innocent and in the right, my own mouth would pronounce me guilty;
Though I am blameless, He would denounce me as guilty.
- <sup>21</sup> “[Though] I am blameless,
I do not care about myself;
I despise my life.
- <sup>22</sup> “It is all one; therefore I say, ‡
‘He destroys [both] the blameless and the wicked.’
- <sup>23</sup> “When [His] scourge kills suddenly,
He mocks at the despair of the innocent.
- <sup>24</sup> “The earth is given into the hands of the wicked;
He covers the faces of its judges [so that they are blind to justice].
- If it is not He, then who is it [that is responsible for all this injustice]?
- <sup>25</sup> “Now my days are swifter than a runner; ‡
They vanish, they see no good.
- <sup>26</sup> “They pass by like the [swift] boats made of reeds, ‡
Like an eagle that swoops down on its prey.
- <sup>27</sup> “If I say, ‘I will forget my complaint, ‡
I will leave off my sad appearance, and be cheerful and brighten up,’
- <sup>28</sup> I am afraid of all my pains and worries [yet to come]; ‡
I know that You will not acquit me and leave me unpunished.

<sup>29</sup> “I am accounted wicked and held guilty;
Why then should I labor in vain [to appear innocent]?
<sup>30</sup> “If I were to wash myself with snow ‡
And cleanse my hands with lye,
<sup>31</sup> You would still plunge me into the pit,
And my own clothes would hate me [and refuse to cover my foul body].
<sup>32</sup> “For God is not a [mere] man, as I am, that I may answer
Him, ‡
That we may go to court and judgment together.
<sup>33</sup> “There is no arbitrator between us, ‡
Who could lay his hand upon us both [would that there were].
 [1 Tim 2:5 ]
<sup>34</sup> “Let Him take His rod away from me, ‡
And let not the dread and fear of Him terrify me.
<sup>35</sup> “ Then I would speak [my defense] and not fear Him;
But I am not like that in myself.

Job 10

Job Despairs of God's Dealings

<sup>1</sup> “I AM disgusted with my life and loathe it! ‡
I will give free expression to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
<sup>2</sup> “I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me [and declare me guilty]!
Show me why You contend and argue and struggle with me.
<sup>3</sup> ‘Does it indeed seem right to You to oppress,
To despise and reject the work of Your hands,
And to look with favor on the schemes of the wicked?
<sup>4</sup> ‘Do You have eyes of flesh? ‡
Do You see as a man sees?
<sup>5</sup> ‘Are Your days as the days of a mortal,
Are Your years as man’s years,
<sup>6</sup> That You seek my guilt
And search for my sin?

7. ‘Although You know that I am not guilty or wicked,
Yet there is no one who can rescue me from Your hand.

8 ‘Your hands have formed and made me altogether. ‡
Would You [turn around and] destroy me?

9 ‘Remember now, that You have made me as clay; ‡
So will You turn me into dust again?

10 ‘Have You not poured me out like milk ‡
And curdled me like cheese?

11 ‘[You have] clothed me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews.

12 ‘You have granted me life and lovingkindness;
And Your providence (divine care, supervision) has preserved my spirit.

13 ‘Yet these [present evils] You have hidden in Your heart
[since my creation]:

I know that this was within You [in Your purpose and thought].

14 ‘If I sin, then You would take note and observe me, ‡
And You would not acquit me of my guilt.

15 ‘If I am wicked, woe to me [for judgment comes]! ‡
And if I am righteous, I dare not lift up my head.
For I am sated and filled with disgrace and the sight of my misery.

16 ‘Should I lift my head up, You would hunt me like a lion; ‡
And again You would show Your marvelous power against me.

17 ‘You renew Your witnesses against me
And increase Your indignation and anger toward me; Hardship after hardship is with me [attacking me time after time].

18. ‘Why then did You bring me out of the womb? ‡
Would that I had perished and no eye had seen me!

19 ‘I should have been as though I had not existed;
[I should have been] carried from the womb to the grave.’

20 “Would He not let my few days alone, ‡
Withdraw from me that I may have a little cheer

<sup>21</sup> Before I go—and I shall not return—‡
To the land of darkness and the deep shadow [of death],
<sup>22</sup> The [sunless] land of utter gloom as darkness itself,
[The land] of the shadow of death, without order,
And [where] it shines as [thick] darkness.”

Job 11

Zophar Rebukes Job

<sup>1</sup> THEN ZOPHAR the Naamathite answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Shall a multitude of words not be answered?
And should a talkative man [making such a long-winded defense] be acquitted?

<sup>3</sup> “Should your boasts and babble silence men?
And shall you scoff and no one put you to shame?

<sup>4</sup>—“For you have said, ‘My teaching (doctrine) [that God knowingly afflicts the righteous] is pure,‡
And I am innocent in your eyes.’  [Job 10:7 ]

<sup>5</sup> “But oh, that God would speak,
And open His lips [to speak] against you,

<sup>6</sup> And [that He would] show you the secrets of wisdom!‡
For sound wisdom has two sides.

Know therefore that God forgets a part of your wickedness and guilt.

<sup>7</sup>—“Can you discover the depths of God? ‡
Can you [by searching] discover the limits of the Almighty [ascend to His heights, extend to His widths, and comprehend His infinite perfection]?

<sup>8</sup> “ His wisdom is as high as the heights of heaven. What can you do?

It is deeper than Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead). What can you know?

<sup>9</sup> “It is longer in measure [and scope] than the earth,
And broader than the sea.

<sup>10</sup> “If God passes by or arrests, ‡
Or calls an assembly [of judgment], who can restrain Him?
[If He is against a man, who can call Him to account for it?]
<sup>11</sup> “For He recognizes and knows false and worthless men, ‡
And He sees wickedness, will He not consider it?
<sup>12</sup> “But a hollow (empty-headed) man will become intelligent and wise ‡
[Only] when the colt of a wild donkey is born as a man.

<sup>13</sup> “If you direct your heart [on the right path] ‡
And stretch out your hands to Him,
<sup>14</sup> If sin is in your hand, put it far away [from you], ‡
And do not let wrongdoing dwell in your tents;
<sup>15</sup> Then, indeed, you could lift up your face [to Him] without moral defect, ‡
And you would be firmly established and secure and not fear.
<sup>16</sup> “For you would forget your trouble; ‡
You would remember it as waters that have passed by.
<sup>17</sup> “And your life would be brighter than the noonday; ‡
Darkness [then] would be like the morning.
<sup>18</sup> “Then you would trust [with confidence], because there is hope; ‡
You would look around you and rest securely.
<sup>19</sup> “You would lie down with no one to frighten you,
And many would entreat and seek your favor.
<sup>20</sup> “But the eyes of the wicked will fail, ‡
And they will not escape [the justice of God];
And their hope is to breathe their last [and die].”

Job 12

Job Chides His Accusers

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB responded,

<sup>2</sup> “No doubt you are the [only wise] people [in the world],
And wisdom will die with you!

- <sup>3</sup> “But I have intelligence and understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know such things as these [of God’s wisdom and might]?
- <sup>4</sup> “I am a joke to my friends; ‡
I, one whom God answered when he called upon Him—
A just and blameless man is a joke [and laughed to scorn].
- <sup>5</sup> “He who is at ease has contempt for misfortune, ‡
But misfortune is ready [and anxiously waiting] for those whose feet slip.
- <sup>6</sup> “The tents of the destroyers prosper; ‡
And those who provoke God are [apparently] secure,
Whom God brings into their power.
- <sup>7</sup> “Now ask the animals, and let them teach you [that God does not deal with His creatures according to their character];
And ask the birds of the air, and let them tell you;
- <sup>8</sup> Or speak to the earth [with its many forms of life], and it will teach you;
And let the fish of the sea declare [this truth] to you.
- <sup>9</sup> “Who among all these does not recognize [in all these things that good and evil are randomly scattered throughout nature and human life]
That the hand of the LORD has done this,
- <sup>10</sup> In whose hand is the life of every living thing,
And the breath of all mankind?
- <sup>11</sup> “Does the ear not put words to the test,
Just as the palate tastes its food [distinguishing between the desirable and the undesirable]?
- <sup>12</sup> “With the aged [you say] is wisdom,
And with long life is understanding.

Job Speaks of the Power of God

- <sup>13</sup> “But [only] with Him are [perfect] wisdom and might;
He [alone] has [true] counsel and understanding.
- <sup>14</sup> “Behold, He tears down, and it cannot be rebuilt;

He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.

<sup>15</sup> “Behold, He restrains the waters, and they dry up; ‡ Again, He sends the waters out, and they overwhelm and devastate the earth.

<sup>16</sup> “With Him are might and sound wisdom,
The misled and the misleader are His [and in His power].

<sup>17</sup> “He makes [great and scheming] counselors walk barefoot
And makes fools of judges.

<sup>18</sup> “He loosens the bond of kings
And binds their loins with a loincloth.

<sup>19</sup> “He makes priests walk barefoot,
And He overturns men firmly seated and secure.

<sup>20</sup> “He deprives the trusted ones of speech ‡
And takes away the discernment and discretion of the aged.

<sup>21</sup> “He pours contempt on princes and nobles ‡
And loosens the belt of the strong [disabling them].

<sup>22</sup> “He uncovers mysteries [that are difficult to grasp and understand] out of the darkness
And brings black gloom and the shadow of death into light.

<sup>23</sup> “He makes nations great, and He destroys them; ‡
He enlarges nations, and leads them away [captive].

<sup>24</sup> “He removes intelligence and understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth ‡
And makes them wander and move blindly in a pathless waste.

<sup>25</sup> “They grope in darkness without light, ‡
And He makes them stagger like a drunken man.”

Job 13

Job Says His Friends' Proverbs Are Ashes

<sup>1</sup> [JOB CONTINUED:] “Behold, my eye has seen all this,
My ear has heard and understood it.

<sup>2</sup> “What you know I also know; ‡
I am not inferior to you.

<sup>3</sup> “But I wish to speak to the Almighty, ‡

And I desire to argue with God.

4 “But you smear me with lies [you defame my character most untruthfully]; ‡

You are all worthless physicians and have no remedy to offer.

5 “Oh, that you would be completely silent, ‡

And that silence would be your wisdom!

6 “Please hear my argument

And listen to the pleadings of my lips.

7 “Will you speak what is unjust for God, ‡

And speak what is deceitful for Him?

8 “Will you show partiality for Him [and be unjust to me so that you may gain favor with Him]?

Will you contend and plead for God?

9 “Will it be well for you when He investigates you [and your tactics against me]?

Or will you deceive Him as one deceives a man?

10 “He will surely reprimand you

If you secretly show partiality.

11 “Will not His majesty terrify you,

And will not the dread of Him fall upon you?

12 “Your memorable sayings are [worthless, merely] proverbs of ashes;

Your defenses are defenses of [crumbling] clay.

Job Is Sure He Will Be Vindicated

13 “Be silent before me so that I may speak;
And let happen to me what may.

14 “Why should I take my flesh in my teeth ‡
And put my life in my hands [incurring the wrath of God]?

15 “Even though He kills me; ‡
I will hope in Him.

Nevertheless, I will argue my ways to His face.

16 “This also will be my salvation,
For a godless man may not come before Him.

17 “Listen diligently to my speech,
And let my declaration fill your ears.

<sup>18</sup> “Behold now, I have prepared my case;
I know that I will be vindicated.

<sup>19</sup> “Who will argue and contend with me? ‡
For then I would be silent and die.

<sup>20</sup> “Only [O Lord,] do not do two things to me, ‡
And then I will not hide myself from Your face:

<sup>21</sup> Withdraw Your hand from me and remove this bodily suffering, ‡

And let not the dread of You terrify me.

<sup>22</sup> “Then [Lord,] call, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, and then reply to me.

<sup>23</sup> “How many are my iniquities and sins [that so much sorrow should come to me]?

Make me recognize and understand my transgression and my
sin.  [Rom 8:1 ]

<sup>24</sup> “Why do You hide Your face [as if offended] ‡
And consider me Your enemy?

<sup>25</sup> “Will You cause a windblown leaf to tremble? ‡
Will You pursue the chaff of the dry stubble?

‡

And make me inherit and suffer for the iniquities of my youth.

<sup>27</sup> “You also put my feet in the stocks [as punishment] ‡
And [critically] observe all my paths;

You set a circle and limit around the soles of my feet [which I must not overstep],

<sup>28</sup> While I waste away like a rotten thing,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

Job 14

Job Speaks of the Finality of Death

<sup>1</sup> “MAN, WHO is born of a woman, ‡
Is short-lived and full of turmoil.

<sup>2</sup> “Like a flower he comes forth and withers; ‡
He also flees like a shadow and does not remain.

3 “You also open Your eyes upon him ‡
And bring him into judgment with Yourself.

4 “Who can make a clean thing out of the unclean? ‡
No one!  [Is 1:18; 1 John 1:7. ]

5 “Since his days are determined, ‡
The number of his months is with You [in Your control],
And You have made his limits so he cannot pass [his allotted time].

6 “[O God] turn your gaze from him so that he may rest, ‡
Until he fulfills his day [on earth] like a hired man.

7 “For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the shoots of it will not cease nor fail, [but there is no such hope for man].

8 “Though its roots grow old in the earth
And its stump dies in the dry soil,

9 Yet at the scent of water [the stump of the tree] will flourish
And bring forth sprigs and shoots like a seedling.

10 “But [the brave, strong] man must die and lie face down;
Man breathes his last, and where is he?

11 “As water evaporates from the sea,
And a river drains and dries up,

12 So man lies down and does not rise [again]. ‡
Until the heavens are no longer,
The dead will not awake nor be raised from their sleep.

13 “Oh, that You would hide me in Sheol (the nether world,
the place of the dead),
That You would conceal me until Your wrath is past,
That You would set a definite time and then remember me
[and in Your lovingkindness imprint me on your heart]!

14 “If a man dies, will he live again? ‡
I will wait all the days of my struggle
Until my change and release will come.  [John 5:25; 6:40 ;
1 Thess 4:16. ]

15 “[Then] You will call, and I will answer You; ‡

You will long for [me] the work of Your hands.

<sup>16</sup> “But now You number [each of] my steps; ‡

You do not observe nor take note of my sin.

<sup>17</sup> “My transgression is sealed up in a bag, ‡

And You cover my wickedness [from Your view].

<sup>18</sup> “But as a mountain, if it falls, crumbles into nothing,

And as the rock is moved from its place,

<sup>19</sup> Water wears away the stones,

Its floods and torrents wash away the soil of the earth,

So You [O Lord] destroy the hope of man.

<sup>20</sup> “You prevail forever against him and overpower him, and he passes on;

You change his appearance and send him away [from the presence of the living].

<sup>21</sup> “His sons achieve honor, and he does not know it; ‡

They become insignificant, and he is not aware of it.

<sup>22</sup> “But his body [lamenting its decay] grieves in pain over it, And his soul mourns over [the loss of] himself.”

Job 15

Eliphaz Says Job Presumes Much

<sup>1</sup> THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered [Job] and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Should a wise man [such as you] utter such windy and vain knowledge [as we have just heard]

And fill himself with the east wind [of withering, parching, and violent accusations]?

<sup>3</sup> “Should he rebuke and argue with useless talk?

Or with words in which there is no benefit?

<sup>4</sup> “Indeed, you are doing away with fear,

And you are diminishing meditation before God.

<sup>5</sup> “For your guilt teaches your mouth,

And you choose [to speak] the language of the crafty and cunning.

<sup>6</sup> “Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; ‡
Yes, your own lips testify against you.

<sup>7</sup> “Were you the first man to be born [the original wise man], ‡
Or were you created before the hills?

<sup>8</sup> “Do you hear the secret counsel of God, ‡
And do you limit [the possession of] wisdom to yourself?

<sup>9</sup> “What do you know that we do not know? ‡
What do you understand that is not equally clear to us?

<sup>10</sup> “Among us are both the gray-haired and the aged, ‡
Older than your father.

<sup>11</sup> “Are the consolations of God [as we have interpreted them to you] too trivial for you,
[Or] were we too gentle toward you [in our first speech] to be effective?

<sup>12</sup> “Why does your heart carry you away [allowing you to be controlled by emotion]?

And why do your eyes flash [in anger or contempt],

<sup>13</sup> That you should turn your spirit against God
And let such words [as you have spoken] go out of your mouth?

<sup>14</sup> “What is man, that he should be pure and clean, ‡
Or he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous and just?

<sup>15</sup> “Behold, God puts no trust in His holy ones (angels); ‡
Indeed, the heavens are not pure in His sight—

<sup>16</sup> How much less [pure and clean is] the one who is repulsive and corrupt, ‡
Man, who drinks unrighteousness and injustice like water!

What Eliphaz Has Seen of Life

<sup>17</sup> “I will tell you, listen to me;
And what I have seen I will also declare;

<sup>18</sup> What wise men have [freely] told, ‡
And have not hidden [anything passed on to them] from their fathers,

- <sup>19</sup> To whom alone the land was given, ‡
And no stranger passed among them [corrupting the truth].
- <sup>20</sup> “The wicked man writhes with pain all his days, ‡
And numbered are the years stored up for him, the ruthless one.
- <sup>21</sup> “A [dreadful] sound of terrors is in his ears; ‡ While at peace and in a time of prosperity the destroyer comes upon him [the tent of the robber is not at peace].
- <sup>22</sup> “He does not believe that he will return out of the darkness [for fear of being murdered],
And he is destined for the sword [of God’s vengeance].
- <sup>23</sup> “He wanders about for food, saying, ‘Where is it?’ ‡
He knows that the day of darkness and destruction is already at hand.
- <sup>24</sup> “Distress and anxiety terrify him,
They overpower him like a king ready for battle.
- <sup>25</sup> “Because he has stretched out his hand against God
And behaves arrogantly against the Almighty,
- <sup>26</sup> Running and charging headlong against Him
With his ornamented and massive shield;
- <sup>27</sup> For he has covered his face with his fat, ‡
Adding layers of fat to his thighs [giving himself up to pleasures],
- <sup>28</sup> And he has lived in desolate [God-forsaken] cities,
In houses which no one should inhabit,
Which were destined to become heaps [of ruins];
- <sup>29</sup> He will not become rich, nor will his wealth endure;
And his grain will not bend to the earth nor his possessions be extended on the earth.
- <sup>30</sup> “He will not escape from darkness [fleeing disaster];
The flame [of God’s wrath] will wither his branch,
And by the blast of His mouth he will go away.
- <sup>31</sup> “Let him not trust in vanity (emptiness, futility) and be led astray; ‡
For emptiness will be his reward [for such living].
- <sup>32</sup> “It will be fulfilled while he still lives, ‡
And his branch will not be green [but shall wither away].

<sup>33</sup> “He will fail to bring his grapes to maturity [leaving them to wither unnourished] on the vine,
And will cast off blossoms [and fail to bring forth fruit] like the olive tree.

<sup>34</sup> “For the company of the godless is barren,
And fire consumes the tents of bribery (wrong and injustice).
<sup>35</sup> “They conceive mischief and bring forth wickedness,‡
And their inmost soul prepares deceit and fraud.”

Job 16

Job Says Friends Are Sorry Comforters

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “I have heard many such things; ‡
Wearisome and miserable comforters are you all.
<sup>3</sup> “Is there no end to [your futile] words of wind?
Or what plagues you [so much] that you [so boldly] answer [me like this]?
<sup>4</sup> “I also could speak like you,‡
If you were in my place;
I could compose and join words together against you
And shake my head at you.
<sup>5</sup> “[But instead] I could strengthen and encourage you with [the words of] my mouth,
And the consolation and solace of my lips would soothe your suffering and lessen your anguish.

Job Says God Shattered Him

<sup>6</sup> “If I speak [to you miserable comforters], my pain is not relieved;
And if I refrain [from speaking], what [pain or anguish] leaves me?
<sup>7</sup> “But now God has exhausted me.
You [O Lord] have destroyed all my family and my household.

<sup>8</sup> “You have taken a firm hold on me and have shriveled me up,
It has become a witness [against me];
And my leanness [and infirmity] rises up [as evidence]
against me,

It testifies to my face [about my guilt].

<sup>9</sup> “His wrath has torn me and hunted me down, ‡
He has gnashed at me with his teeth;
My adversary sharpens His gaze and glares [with piercing eyes] at me.

<sup>10</sup> “They have gaped at me with their mouths, ‡
With contempt they have struck me on the cheek;
They massed themselves together [and conspired] against me.

 [Ps 22:13 ; 35:21 ]

<sup>11</sup> “God hands me over to criminals ‡
And tosses me [headlong] into the hands of the wicked.

<sup>12</sup> “I was [living] at ease, but He crushed me and broke me apart, ‡

And He has seized me by the neck and has shaken me to pieces;

He has also set me up as His target.

<sup>13</sup> “His arrows surround me.

He pierces my kidneys (vital organs) without mercy;
He pours out my gall on the ground.

<sup>14</sup> “He attacks me, making wound after wound;
He runs at me like a warrior.

<sup>15</sup> “I have sewed sackcloth over my skin [as a sign of mourning] ‡

And have defiled my horn (symbol of strength) in the dust.

<sup>16</sup> “My face is red and swollen with weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow of death [my eyes are dimmed],

<sup>17</sup> Although there is no violence or wrongdoing in my hands,
And my prayer is pure.

<sup>18</sup> “O earth, do not cover my blood, ‡
And let there be no [resting] place for my cry [where it will cease being heard].

And my Advocate [who vouches and testifies for me] is on high.  [Rom 1:9 ]

<sup>20</sup> “My friends are scoffers [who ridicule];
My eye pours out tears to God.

<sup>21</sup> “Oh, that a man would mediate and plead with God [for me]
‡

Just as a man [mediates and pleads] with his neighbor and friend.  [1 Tim 2:5 ]

<sup>22</sup> “For when a few years are past, ‡
I shall go the way of no return.

Job 17

Job Says He Has Become a Byword

<sup>1</sup> “MY SPIRIT is broken, my days are extinguished, ‡
The grave is ready for me.

<sup>2</sup> “Surely there are mockers and mockery with me, ‡
And my eye gazes on their obstinacy and provocation.

<sup>3</sup>—“Give me a pledge (guarantee, promise) with Yourself
[acknowledge my innocence before my death]; ‡
Who is there that will be my guarantor and give security for me?

<sup>4</sup> “But You [Lord] have closed their hearts to understanding, Therefore You will not exalt them [by giving a verdict against me].

<sup>5</sup> “He who denounces and informs against his friends for a share of the spoil,
The eyes of his children will also languish and fail.

<sup>6</sup> “But He has made me a byword and mockery among the people, ‡
And I have become one in whose face people spit.

<sup>7</sup> “My eye has grown dim (unexpressive) because of grief, ‡
And all my [body’s] members are [wasted away] like a shadow.

<sup>8</sup> “The upright will be [astonished and] appalled at this,

And the innocent will stir himself up against the godless and polluted.

<sup>9</sup>“Nevertheless the righteous will hold to his ways,‡
And he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.

 [Ps 24:4 ]

<sup>10</sup> “But as for all of you, come back again,‡

Even though I do not find a wise man among you.

<sup>11</sup> “My days are past, my purposes and plans are frustrated and torn apart; ‡

The wishes of my heart [are broken].

<sup>12</sup> “These [thoughts try to] make the night into the day;

‘The light is near,’ they say in the presence of darkness [but they pervert the truth].

<sup>13</sup> “But if I look to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) as my home,

If I make my bed in the darkness,

<sup>14</sup> If I call out to the pit (grave), ‘You are my father’;

And to the worm [that feeds on decay], ‘You are my mother and my sister [because I will soon be closest to you],’

<sup>15</sup> Where now is my hope?

And who regards or considers or is even concerned about my hope?

<sup>16</sup> “Will my hope go down with me to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead)? ‡

Shall we go down together in the dust?”

Job 18

Bildad Speaks of the Wicked

<sup>1</sup> THEN BILDAD the Shuhite answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “How long will you hunt for words and continue these speeches?

Do some clear thinking and show understanding and then we can talk.

<sup>3</sup> “Why are we regarded as beasts,‡

As if [we are] stupid (senseless) in your eyes?

<sup>4</sup>“You who tear yourself apart in anger,‡

Is the earth to be abandoned for your sake,
Or the rock to be moved out of its place?

<sup>5</sup>“Indeed, the light of the wicked will be put out,‡

And the flame of his fire will not shine.  [Prov 13:9; 24:20 ]

<sup>6</sup>“The light will be dark in his tent,‡

And his lamp beside him will be put out.  [Ps 18:28 ]

<sup>7</sup>“The vigorous stride will be shortened,‡

And his own counsel and the scheme [in which he trusted] will bring his downfall.

<sup>8</sup>“For the wicked is thrown into a net by his own feet (wickedness),‡

And he steps on the webbing [of the lattice-covered pit].

<sup>9</sup>“A snare catches him by the heel,‡

And a trap snaps shut on him.

<sup>10</sup>“A noose is hidden for him on the ground,

And a trap for him on the path.

<sup>11</sup>“Terrors frighten him on every side‡

<sup>12</sup>“The strength [of the wicked] is famished and weakened,‡

And disaster is ready at his side [if he stops].

<sup>13</sup>“His skin is devoured by disease;

The firstborn of death [the worst of diseases] consumes his limbs.

<sup>14</sup>“He is torn from his tent which he trusted [for safety],‡

And he is marched and brought to the king of terrors (death).

<sup>15</sup>“Nothing of his dwells in his tent;

Brimstone (burning sulfur) is scattered over his dwelling [to purify it].

<sup>16</sup>“The roots [of the wicked] are dried up below,‡

And above, his branch is cut off and withers.

<sup>17</sup>“Memory of him perishes from the earth,‡

And he has no name on the street.

<sup>18</sup>“He is driven and propelled from light into darkness,

And chased from the inhabited world.

<sup>19</sup> “He has no offspring or prosperity among his people,‡
Nor any survivor where he sojourned.

<sup>20</sup> “Those in the west are astonished and appalled at his fate,
And those in the east are seized with horror.

<sup>21</sup> “Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked and the ungodly,‡
And such is the place of him who does not know or recognize or honor God.”

Job 19

Job Feels Insulted

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “How long will you torment and exasperate me
And crush me with words?

<sup>3</sup> “These ten times you have insulted me;
You are not ashamed to wrong me [and harden your hearts
against me].

<sup>4</sup> “And if it were true that I have erred, My error would remain with me [and I would be conscious of it].

<sup>5</sup> “If indeed you [braggarts] vaunt and magnify yourselves over me‡

And prove my disgrace (humiliation) to me,

<sup>6</sup> Know then that God has wronged me and overthrown me
And has closed His net around me.

Everything Is Against Him

<sup>7</sup> “Behold, I cry out, ‘Violence!’ but I am not heard;
I shout for help, but there is no justice.

<sup>8</sup> “He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass,
And He has set darkness upon my paths.

<sup>9</sup> “He has stripped me of my honor
And removed the crown from my head.

<sup>10</sup> “He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone;
He has uprooted my hope like a tree.

<sup>11</sup> “He has also kindled His wrath [like a fire] against me ‡
And He considers and counts me as one of His adversaries.

<sup>12</sup> “His troops come together
And build up their way and siege works against me
And camp around my tent.

<sup>13</sup> “He has put my brothers far from me,
And my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.

<sup>14</sup> “My relatives have failed [me],
And my intimate friends have forgotten me.

<sup>15</sup> “Those who live [temporarily] in my house and my maids consider me a stranger;
I am a foreigner in their sight.

<sup>16</sup> “I call to my servant, but he does not answer;
I have to implore him with words.

<sup>17</sup> “My breath is repulsive to my wife,
And I am loathsome to my own brothers.

<sup>18</sup> “Even young children despise me; ‡
When I get up, they speak against me.

<sup>19</sup> “All the men of my council hate me; ‡
Those I love have turned against me.

<sup>20</sup> “My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh, ‡
And I have escaped [death] by the skin of my teeth.

<sup>21</sup> “Have pity on me! Have pity on me, O you my friends,
For the hand of God has touched me.

<sup>22</sup> “Why do you persecute me as God does? ‡
Why are you not satisfied with my flesh (anguish)?

Job Says, “My Redeemer Lives”

<sup>23</sup> “Oh, that the words I now speak were written!
Oh, that they were recorded in a scroll!

<sup>24</sup> “That with an iron stylus and [molten] lead
They were engraved in the rock forever!

<sup>25</sup> “For I know that my Redeemer and Vindicator lives,

And at the last He will take His stand upon the earth.  [Is 44:6
; 48:12.]

26 “Even after my [mortal] skin is destroyed [by death], ‡

Yet from my [immortal] flesh I will see God,

27 Whom I, even I, will see for myself,

And my eyes will see Him and not another!

My heart faints within me.

28 “If you say, ‘How shall we [continue to] persecute him?’

And ‘What pretext for a case against him can we find [since we claim the root of these afflictions is found in him]?’

29 “ Then beware and be afraid of the sword [of divine vengeance] for yourselves,

For wrathful are the punishments of that sword,

So that you may know there is judgment.”

Job 20

Zophar Says, “The Triumph of the Wicked Is Short”

1 THEN ZOPHAR the Naamathite answered and said,

2 “Therefore my disquieting thoughts make me answer,
Because of the uneasiness that is within me.

3 “I have heard the reproof which insults me,

But the spirit of my understanding makes me answer.

4 “Do you not know this from the old days,

Since the time that man was placed on the earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, ‡

And the joy of the godless is only for a moment?  [Ps 37:35, 36.]

6 “Though his pride reaches the heavens ‡

And his head touches the clouds,

7. Yet he perishes forever like his own refuse;

Those who have seen him will say, ‘Where is he?’

8 “He flies away like a dream and cannot be found; ‡

Yes, he is chased away like a vision of the night.

<sup>9</sup> “The eye which saw him sees him no longer,
Neither does his [accustomed] place behold him any longer.

<sup>10</sup> “His sons favor the poor [and pay his obligations],
And his hands give back his [ill-gotten] wealth.

<sup>11</sup> “His bones are full of youthful strength ‡
But it lies down with him in the dust.

<sup>12</sup> “Though evil and wickedness are sweet in his mouth
And he hides it under his tongue,

<sup>13</sup> Though he desires it and will not let it go
But holds it in his mouth,

<sup>14</sup> Yet his food turns [to poison] in his stomach;
It is the venom of vipers within him.

<sup>15</sup> “He swallows [his ill-gotten] riches,
But will vomit them up;
God will drive them out of his belly.

<sup>16</sup> “He sucks the poison of vipers [which ill-gotten wealth contains];

The viper’s tongue slays him.

<sup>17</sup> “He does not look at the rivers, ‡
The flowing streams of honey and butter [to enjoy his wealth].

<sup>18</sup> “He gives back what he has labored for and attained
And cannot swallow it [down to enjoy it];
As to the riches of his labor,
He cannot even enjoy them.

<sup>19</sup> “For he has oppressed and neglected the poor;
He has violently taken away houses which he did not build.

<sup>20</sup> “Because he knew no quietness or calm within him [because of his greed], ‡

He does not retain anything he desires.

<sup>21</sup> “There is nothing left of what he devoured;
Therefore his prosperity does not endure.

<sup>22</sup> “In the fullness of his excess (great abundance) he will be in trouble;

The hand of everyone who suffers will come against him [he is miserable on every side].

23 “When he fills his belly,
God will send His fierce anger on him
And will rain it upon him while he is eating.  [Num 11:33; Ps 78:26–31 ]

24 “He may flee from the iron weapon, ‡
But the bow of bronze will pierce him through.

25 “ The arrow is drawn forth and it comes out of his back [after passing through his body]; ‡

Yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall.

Terrors march in upon him;

26 Complete darkness (misfortune) is held in reserve for his treasures. ‡

An unfanned fire will devour him;

It will consume the survivor in his tent.

27 “The heavens will reveal his wickedness and guilt,
And the earth will rise up against him.

28 “The produce and increase of his house will depart [with the victors];

His possessions will be dragged away in the day of God’s wrath.

29 “This is the wicked man’s portion from God, ‡
And the heritage decreed and appointed to him by God.”

Job 21

Job’s Dialogue Regarding the Wicked

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB answered and said,

2 “Listen carefully to my speech,
And let this be the consolation.

3 “Bear with me, and I also will speak; ‡
And after I have spoken, you may [continue to] mock [me].

4 “As for me, is my complaint to man or about him?
And why should I not be impatient and my spirit troubled?

5 “Look at me and be astonished and appalled; ‡
And put your hand over your mouth.

<sup>6</sup> “Even when I remember, I am troubled and afraid;
Horror and trembling take hold of my flesh.

<sup>7</sup> “Why do the wicked still live, ‡
Become old, and become mighty in power?

<sup>8</sup> “Their children and descendants are established with them in their sight,

And their offspring before their eyes.

<sup>9</sup> “Their houses are safe from fear; ‡
And the rod of God is not on them.

<sup>10</sup> “His bull breeds and does not fail; ‡
His cow calves and does not miscarry.

<sup>11</sup> “They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children skip about.

<sup>12</sup> “They lift up their voices and sing to the tambourine and the lyre

And rejoice to the sound of the flute.

<sup>13</sup> “They fully enjoy their days in prosperity, ‡
And so go down to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) in a [peaceful] moment.

<sup>14</sup> “Yet they say to God, ‘Depart from us, ‡
For we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.

<sup>15</sup> ‘Who [and what] is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? ‡

And what would we gain if we plead with Him?’  [Ex 5:2 ]

(in their power); ‡

The counsel of the wicked [and the mystery of God’s dealings with the ungodly] is far from my comprehension.

<sup>17</sup> “How often [then] is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out, ‡

And that their disaster falls on them?

Does God distribute pain and destruction and sorrow [to them] in His anger?  [Luke 12:46 ]

<sup>18</sup> “Are they like straw before the wind, ‡

And like chaff that the storm steals and carries away?

<sup>19</sup> “ You say, ‘God stores away [the punishment of] man’s wickedness for his children.’ ‡

Let God repay him so that he may know and experience it.

<sup>20</sup> “Let his own eyes see his destruction,‡

And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

<sup>21</sup> “For what pleasure does he have in his house and family after he is dead,

When the number of his months [of life] is cut off?

<sup>22</sup> “Can anyone teach God knowledge,‡

Seeing that He judges those on high?  [Rom 11:34; 1 Cor 2:16

<sup>23</sup> “One dies in his full strength,

Being wholly at ease and quiet and satisfied;

<sup>24</sup> His pails are full of milk [his sides are filled out with fat],

And the marrow of his bones is moist,

<sup>25</sup> Whereas another dies with a bitter soul,

Never even tasting pleasure or good fortune.

<sup>26</sup> “Together they lie down in the dust,‡

And the worms cover them.

<sup>27</sup> “Behold, I know your thoughts,

And the plots by which you would wrong me.

<sup>28</sup> “For you say, ‘Where is the house of the noble man?’

And where is the tent, the dwelling place of the wicked?’

<sup>29</sup> “Have you not asked those who travel this way,

And do you not recognize their witness?

<sup>30</sup> “That evil men are [now] reserved for the day of disaster and destruction,‡

They will be led away on the day of [God’s] wrath?

<sup>31</sup> “ But who will confront him with his actions and rebuke him face to face,

And who will repay him for what he has done?

<sup>32</sup> “When he is carried to his grave,

A guard will keep watch over his tomb.

<sup>33</sup> “The [dirt] clods of the valley are sweet to him [and gently cover him],‡

Moreover, all men will follow after him [to a grave],

While countless ones go before him.

<sup>34</sup> “How then can you vainly comfort me with empty words, Since your answers remain untrue?”

Job 22

Eliphaz Accuses and Exhorts Job

<sup>1</sup> THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered and said,

Or a wise man be useful to himself?  [Ps 16:2; Luke 17:10. ]

<sup>3</sup> “Is it any pleasure or joy to the Almighty that you are righteous?

Or is it of benefit to Him that you make your ways perfect? [

Is 62:3; Zech 2:8; Mal 3:17; Acts 20:28. ]

<sup>4</sup> “Is it because of your fear of Him that He corrects you,
That He enters into judgment against you?

<sup>5</sup> “Is not your wickedness great,
And your sins without end?

<sup>6</sup> “For you have taken pledges of your brothers without cause,
‡

And stripped men naked.

<sup>7</sup> “You have not given water to the weary to drink, ‡

And you have withheld bread from the hungry.  [Matt 25:42. ]

<sup>8</sup> “But the land is possessed by the man with power,
And the favored and honorable man dwells in it.

<sup>9</sup> “You have sent widows away empty-handed,
And the arms (strength) of the fatherless have been broken.

<sup>10</sup> “Therefore snares surround you,
And sudden dread terrifies and overwhelms you;

<sup>11</sup> Or darkness, so that you cannot see, ‡
And a flood of water covers you.

<sup>12</sup> “Is not God in the height of heaven?

And behold the distant stars, how high they are!

<sup>13</sup> “You say, ‘What does God know [about me]? ‡

Can He judge through the thick darkness?

<sup>14</sup> ‘Thick clouds are a hiding place for Him, so that He cannot see,

And He walks on the vault (circle) of the heavens.'

<sup>15</sup> "Will you keep to the ancient path

That wicked men walked [in the time of Noah],  [2 Pet 2:5 ]

<sup>16</sup> Men who were snatched away before their time,‡

Whose foundations were poured out like a river?

<sup>17</sup> "They said to God, 'Depart from us! ‡

What can the Almighty do for us or to us?'

18 "Yet He filled their houses with good things;

But the counsel of the wicked and ungodly is far from me.

<sup>19</sup> "The righteous see it and are glad; ‡

And the innocent mock and laugh at them, saying,

<sup>20</sup> 'Surely our adversaries are cut off and destroyed,

And fire has consumed their abundance.'

<sup>21</sup> "Now yield and submit yourself to Him [agree with God and be conformed to His will] and be at peace; ‡

In this way [you will prosper and great] good will come to you.

<sup>22</sup> "Please receive the law and instruction from His mouth ‡

And establish His words in your heart and keep them.  [Ps 119:11 ]

<sup>23</sup> "If you return to the Almighty [and submit and humble yourself before Him], you will be built up [and restored];

If you remove unrighteousness far from your tents,

<sup>24</sup> And place your gold in the dust, ‡

And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks [considering it of little value],

<sup>25</sup> And make the Almighty your gold

And your precious silver,

<sup>26</sup> Then you will have delight in the Almighty, ‡

And you will lift up your face to God.

<sup>27</sup> "You will pray to Him, and He will hear you, ‡

And you will pay your vows.

<sup>28</sup> "You will also decide and decree a thing, and it will be established for you;

And the light [of God's favor] will shine upon your ways.

<sup>29</sup> “When you are cast down and humbled, you will speak with confidence,‡

And the humble person He will lift up and save.

<sup>30</sup> “He will even rescue the one [for whom you intercede] who is not innocent;

And he will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands.”

 [Job 42:7, 8 ]

Job 23

Job Says He Longs for God

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Even today my complaint is contentious;
His hand is heavy despite my groaning.

<sup>3</sup> “Oh, that I knew where I might find Him,
That I might [even] come to His seat!

<sup>4</sup> “I would present my cause before Him
And fill my mouth with arguments.

<sup>5</sup> “I would learn the words which He would answer,
And understand what He would say to me.

No, surely He would give attention to me.  [Is 27:4, 5; 57:16 ]

<sup>7</sup> “There the righteous and upright could reason with Him;
So I would be acquitted forever by my Judge.

<sup>8</sup> “Behold, I go forward (to the east), but He is not there;‡
I go backward (to the west), but I cannot perceive Him;

<sup>9</sup> To the left (north) He turns, but I cannot behold Him;
He turns to the right hand (south), but I cannot see Him.

<sup>10</sup> “But He knows the way that I take [and He pays attention to it].‡

When He has tried me, I will come forth as [refined] gold
[pure and luminous].  [Ps 17:3; 66:10; James 1:12 ]

<sup>11</sup> “My feet have carefully followed His steps;‡
I have kept His ways and not turned aside.

<sup>12</sup> “I have not departed from the commandment of His lips; ‡
I have kept the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.

<sup>13</sup> “But He is unique and unchangeable, and who can turn
Him? ‡

And what His soul desires, that He does.

<sup>14</sup> “For He performs what is planned (appointed) for me, ‡
And He is mindful of many such things.

<sup>15</sup> “Therefore I would be terrified at His presence;
When I consider [all of this], I tremble in dread of Him.

<sup>16</sup> “For God has made my heart faint, ‡
And the Almighty has terrified me,

<sup>17</sup> But I am not silenced by the darkness [of these woes that fell on me],
Nor by the thick darkness which covers my face.

Job 24

Job Says God Seems to Ignore Wrongs

<sup>1</sup> “WHY DOES the Almighty not set seasons for judgment? ‡ Why do those who know Him not see His days [for punishment of the wicked]?  [Acts 1:7. ]

<sup>2</sup> “Some remove the landmarks; ‡
They [violently] seize and pasture flocks [appropriating land and flocks openly].

<sup>3</sup> “They drive away the donkeys of the orphans; ‡
They take the widow’s ox for a pledge.

<sup>4</sup> “They crowd the needy off the road; ‡
The poor of the land all hide themselves.

<sup>5</sup> “Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert,
The poor go to their work, diligently seeking food;
As bread for their children in the desert.

<sup>6</sup> “They harvest their fodder in a field [that is not their own],
And glean the vineyard of the wicked.

<sup>7</sup> “They spend the night naked, without clothing, ‡
And have no covering against the cold.

- <sup>8</sup> “They are wet from the rain of the mountains ‡
And cling to the rock for lack of shelter.
- <sup>9</sup> “Others snatch the fatherless [infants] from the breast [to sell or make them slaves],
And against the poor they take a pledge [of clothing].
- <sup>10</sup> “They cause the poor to go about naked without clothing,
And they take away the sheaves [of grain] from the hungry.
- <sup>11</sup> “Within the walls [of the wicked] the poor make [olive] oil;
They tread [the grapes in] the wine presses, but thirst.
- <sup>12</sup> “From the [populous and crowded] city men groan,
And the souls of the wounded cry out for help;
Yet God [seemingly] does not pay attention to the wrong [done to them].
- <sup>13</sup> “Others have been with those who rebel against the light;
They do not want to know its ways
Nor stay in its paths.
- <sup>14</sup> “The murderer rises at dawn; ‡
He kills the poor and the needy,
And at night he becomes a thief.
- <sup>15</sup> “The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight, ‡
Saying, ‘No eye will see me,’
And he covers his face.
- <sup>16</sup> “In the dark they dig into [the penetrable walls of] houses; ‡
They shut themselves up by day;
They do not know the light [of day].
- <sup>17</sup> “For the morning is the same to him as the thick darkness [of midnight];
For he is familiar with the terrors of thick darkness.
- <sup>18</sup> “They are insignificant on the surface of the water;
Their portion is cursed on the earth;
They do not turn toward the vineyards.
- <sup>19</sup> “Drought and heat consume the snow waters;
So does Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) [consume] those who have sinned.
- <sup>20</sup> “A mother will forget him; ‡
The worm feeds on him until he is no longer remembered.

And wickedness will be broken like a tree [which cannot be restored].  [Prov 10:7 ]

<sup>21</sup> “He preys on the barren (childless) woman
And does no good for the widow.

<sup>22</sup> “Yet God draws away the mighty by His power;
He rises, but no one has assurance of life.

<sup>23</sup> “God gives them security, and they are supported; ‡
And His eyes are on their ways.

<sup>24</sup> “They are exalted for a little while, and then they are gone;
Moreover, they are brought low and like everything [they are] gathered up and taken out of the way;

Even like the heads of grain they are cut off.

<sup>25</sup> “And if this is not so, who can prove me a liar
And make my speech worthless?”

Job 25

Bildad Says Man Is Inferior

<sup>1</sup> THEN BILDAD the Shuhite answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Dominion and awe belong to God;
He establishes peace and order in His high places.

<sup>3</sup> “Is there any number to His [vast celestial] armies? ‡
And upon whom does His light not rise?

Or how can he who is born of a woman be pure and clean?  [Ps 130:3; 143:2 ]

<sup>5</sup> “Behold, even the moon has no brightness [compared to God’s majesty and glory]

And the stars are not pure in His sight,

<sup>6</sup> How much less man, that maggot, ‡
And the son of man, that worm!”

Job 26

Job Rebukes Bildad

<sup>2</sup> “What a help you are to the weak (powerless)!
How you have saved the arm that is without strength!
<sup>3</sup> “How you have counseled the one who has no wisdom!
And how abundantly you have provided sound wisdom and helpful insight!
<sup>4</sup> “To whom have you uttered [these] words?
And whose spirit [inspired what] came forth from you?

The Greatness of God

<sup>5</sup> “The spirits of the dead tremble
Underneath the waters and their inhabitants.
<sup>6</sup> “Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) is naked before God,‡
And Abaddon (the place of destruction) has no covering [from His eyes].
<sup>7</sup> “It is He who spreads out the north over emptiness ‡
And hangs the earth on nothing.
<sup>8</sup> “He wraps the waters in His clouds [which otherwise would spill on earth all at once],‡
And the cloud does not burst under them.
<sup>9</sup> “He covers the face of the full moon
And spreads His cloud over it.
<sup>10</sup> “He has inscribed a circular limit (the horizon) on the face of the waters ‡
At the boundary between light and darkness.
<sup>11</sup> “The pillars of the heavens tremble
And are terrified at His rebuke.
<sup>12</sup> “He stirred up the sea by His power,‡
And by His understanding He smashed [proud] Rahab.
<sup>13</sup> “By His breath the heavens are cleared;‡
His hand has pierced the [swiftly] fleeing serpent.  [Ps 33:6 ] <sup>14</sup> “Yet these are just the fringes of His ways [mere samples of His power],

The faintest whisper of His voice!
Who can contemplate the thunder of His [full] mighty power?"

Job 27

Job Affirms His Righteousness

And the Almighty, who has caused bitterness and grief for my soul,

<sup>3</sup> As long as my life is within me,

And the breath of God is [still] in my nostrils,

<sup>4</sup> My lips will not speak unjustly,

Nor will my tongue utter deceit.

<sup>5</sup> "Far be it from me that I should admit you are right [in your accusations against me];‡

Until I die, I will not remove my integrity from me.

<sup>6</sup> "I hold fast my uprightness and my right standing with God and I will not let them go;‡

My heart does not reproach me for any of my days.

The State of the Godless

<sup>7</sup> "May my enemy be as the wicked,
And he who rises up against me be as the unrighteous (unjust).

<sup>8</sup> "For what is the hope of the godless, even though he has gained [in this world],‡

When God takes his life?

<sup>9</sup> "Will God hear his cry‡

When trouble and distress come upon him?

<sup>10</sup> "Will he take delight in the Almighty?‡

Will he call on God at all times?

<sup>11</sup> “I will teach you regarding the hand (power) of God;
I will not conceal what is with the Almighty [God’s actual treatment of the wicked].

<sup>12</sup> “Behold, all of you have seen it;
Why then do you act vainly and foolishly [cherishing worthless concepts]?

<sup>13</sup> “This [which I am about to explain] is the portion of a wicked man from God,‡
And the inheritance which tyrants and oppressors receive from the Almighty:

<sup>14</sup> “Though his children are many, they are destined for the sword;‡

And his descendants will not have sufficient bread.

<sup>15</sup> “Those who survive him will be buried because of the plague,‡

And [their] widows will not be able to weep.

<sup>16</sup> “Though he heaps up silver like dust

And piles up clothing like clay,

<sup>17</sup> He may prepare it, but the just will wear it‡

And the innocent will divide the silver.

<sup>18</sup> “He builds his house like a spider’s web,‡

Like a (temporary) hut which a watchman makes.

<sup>19</sup> “He lies down rich, but never will again;

He opens his eyes, and it is gone.

<sup>20</sup> “Terrors overtake him like a [suddenly rising] flood;‡

A windstorm steals him away in the night.

<sup>21</sup> “The east wind lifts him up, and he is gone;

It sweeps him out of his place.

<sup>22</sup> “For it will hurl [thunderbolts of God’s wrath] at him
unspareingly and without compassion;

He flees in haste from its power.

<sup>23</sup> “People will clap their hands at him [to mock and ridicule him]

And hiss him out of his place.

Job 28

Job Tells of Earth's Treasures

- <sup>1</sup> "SURELY THERE is a mine for silver,
And a place where they refine gold.
- <sup>2</sup> "Iron is taken out of the earth,
And copper is smelted from the stone ore.
- <sup>3</sup> " Man puts an end to darkness [by bringing in a light],
And to the farthest bounds he searches out
The rock buried in gloom and deep shadow.
- <sup>4</sup> "He breaks open (mine) shafts far away from where people live,
[In places] forgotten by the [human] foot;
They dangle [in the mines] and hang away from men.
- <sup>5</sup> "[As for] the earth, out of it comes food,
But underneath [its surface, down deep] it is turned over as fire.
- <sup>6</sup> "Its stones are the bed of sapphires;
It holds dust of gold.
- <sup>7</sup> "The path [deep within] no bird of prey knows,
And the falcon's eye has not caught sight of it.
- <sup>8</sup> "The proud beasts [and their young] have not walked on it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
- <sup>9</sup> "Man puts his hand on [and tears apart] the flinty rock;
He overturns the mountains at the base [looking for treasure].
- <sup>10</sup> "He cuts out channels and passages among the rocks;
And his eye sees every precious thing.
- <sup>11</sup> "Man dams up the streams from flowing [so that they do not trickle into the mine],
And what is hidden he brings out to the light.

The Search for Wisdom Is Harder

- <sup>12</sup> "But where can wisdom be found? ‡
And where is the place of understanding?
- <sup>13</sup> "Man does not know the value of it; ‡
Nor is it found in the land of the living.
- <sup>14</sup> "The deep says, 'It is not in me'; ‡
And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

<sup>15</sup> “It cannot be obtained for pure gold,‡
Nor can silver be weighed as its price.

<sup>16</sup> “It cannot be valued in [terms of] the gold of Ophir,
In the precious onyx or beryl, or the sapphire.

<sup>17</sup> “Gold and glass cannot equal wisdom,
Nor can it be exchanged for articles of fine gold.

<sup>18</sup> “No mention of coral and crystal can be made;
For the possession of wisdom is even above [that of] rubies or pearls.

<sup>19</sup> “The topaz of Ethiopia cannot compare with it,
Nor can it be valued in pure gold.

<sup>20</sup> “From where then does wisdom come?‡
And where is the place of understanding?

<sup>21</sup> “It is hidden from the eyes of all the living
And concealed from the birds of the heavens.

<sup>22</sup> “Abaddon (the place of destruction) and Death say,‡
‘We have [only] heard a report of it with our ears.’

<sup>23</sup> “God understands the way [to wisdom]
And He knows its place [for wisdom is with God alone].

<sup>24</sup> “For He looks to the ends of the earth‡
And sees everything under the heavens.

<sup>25</sup> “When He gave weight and pressure to the wind‡
And allotted the waters by measure,

<sup>26</sup> When He made a limit for the rain‡
And a way for the thunderbolt,

<sup>27</sup> Then He saw wisdom and declared it;
He established it and searched it out.

<sup>28</sup> “But to man He said, ‘Behold, the reverential and worshipful fear of the Lord—that is wisdom;‡
And to depart from evil is understanding.’ ”

Job 29

Job's Past Was Glorious

<sup>1</sup> AND JOB again took up his discussion and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Oh, that I were as in the months of old,
As in the days when God watched over me,  [Eccl 7:10. ]
<sup>3</sup> When His lamp shone upon my head ‡
And by His light I walked through darkness;
<sup>4</sup> As I was in the prime of my days, ‡
When the friendship and counsel of God were over my tent,
<sup>5</sup> When the Almighty was still with me
And my boys were around me,
<sup>6</sup> When my steps [through rich pastures] were washed with butter and cream [from my livestock], ‡
And the rock poured out for me streams of oil [from my olive groves].

<sup>7</sup> “When I went out to the gate of the city,
When I took my seat [as a city father] in the square,
<sup>8</sup> The young men saw me and hid themselves,
The aged arose and stood [respectfully];
<sup>9</sup> The princes stopped talking ‡
And put their hands on their mouths;
<sup>10</sup> The voices of the nobles were hushed, ‡
And their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

<sup>11</sup> “For when an ear heard [my name mentioned], it called me
    happy and fortunate;
And when an eye saw [me], it testified for me [approvingly],
12. Because I rescued the poor who cried for help, ‡
And the orphan who had no helper.

<sup>13</sup> “The blessing of him who was about to perish came upon me,
And I made the widow’s heart sing for joy.
14. “I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; ‡
My justice was like a robe and a turban!

<sup>15</sup> “I was eyes to the blind ‡
And I was feet to the lame.
<sup>16</sup> “I was a father to the needy; ‡
I investigated the case I did not know [and assured justice].

<sup>17</sup> “And I smashed the jaws of the wicked ‡
And snatched the prey from his teeth.
<sup>18</sup> “Then I said, ‘I shall die in my nest, ‡

And I shall multiply my days as the sand.

<sup>19</sup> ‘My root is spread out and open to the waters,‡
And the dew lies all night upon my branch.

<sup>20</sup> ‘My glory and honor are fresh in me [being constantly renewed],‡
And my bow gains [ever] new strength in my hand.’

<sup>21</sup> “They listened to me and waited
And kept silent for my counsel.

<sup>22</sup> “After I spoke, they did not speak again,
And my speech dropped upon them [like a refreshing shower].

<sup>23</sup> “They waited for me [and for my words] as for the rain,‡
And they opened their mouths as for the spring rain.

<sup>24</sup> “I smiled at them when they did not believe,
And they did not diminish the light of my face.

<sup>25</sup> “I chose a way for them and sat as chief,
And dwelt as a king among his soldiers,
As one who comforts mourners.

Job 30

Job's Present State Is Humiliating

<sup>1</sup> “BUT NOW those younger than I mock and laugh at me, Whose fathers I refused to put with the sheepdogs of my flock.

<sup>2</sup> “Indeed, how could the strength of their hands profit me?
Vigor had perished from them.

<sup>3</sup> “They are gaunt with want and famine;
They gnaw the dry and barren ground by night in [the gloom of] waste and desolation.

<sup>4</sup> “They pluck [and eat] saltwort (mallows) among the bushes,
And their food is the root of the broom shrub.

<sup>5</sup> “They are driven from the community;
They shout after them as after a thief.

<sup>6</sup> “They must dwell on the slopes of wadis
And in holes in the ground and in rocks.

<sup>7</sup> “Among the bushes they cry out [like wild animals];
Beneath the prickly scrub they gather and huddle together.

<sup>8</sup> “They are the sons of [worthless and nameless] fools,
They have been driven out of the land.

<sup>9</sup> “And now I have become [the subject of] their taunting; ‡
Yes, I am a byword and a laughingstock to them.

<sup>10</sup> “They hate me, they stand aloof from me, ‡
And do not refrain from spitting in my face.

<sup>11</sup> “For God has loosed His bowstring [attacking me] and [He has] afflicted and humbled me; ‡
They have cast off the bridle [of restraint] before me.

<sup>12</sup> “On my right the [rabble] brood rises; ‡
They push my feet away, and they build up their ways of destruction against me [like an advancing army].

<sup>13</sup> “They break up and clutter my path [upsetting my plans],
They profit from my destruction;
No one restrains them.

<sup>14</sup> “As through a wide breach they come,
Amid the crash [of falling walls] they roll on [over me].

<sup>15</sup> “Terrors are turned upon me;
They chase away my honor and reputation like the wind,
And my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

<sup>16</sup> “And now my soul is poured out within me; ‡
The days of affliction have seized me.

<sup>17</sup> “My bones are pierced [with aching] in the night season,
And the pains that gnaw me take no rest.

<sup>18</sup> “By the great force [of my disease] my garment (skin) is disfigured and blemished;
It binds about me [choking me] like the collar of my coat.

<sup>19</sup> “God has cast me into the mire [a swampland of crisis],
And I have become [worthless] like dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup> “I cry to You for help, [Lord,] but You do not answer me;
I stand up, but You [only] gaze [indifferently] at me.

<sup>21</sup> “You have become harsh and cruel to me;
With the might of Your hand You [keep me alive only to] persecute me.

22 “You lift me up on the wind and cause me to ride [upon it];
And You toss me about in the tempest and dissolve me in the storm.

23 “For I know that You will bring me to death ‡
And to the house of meeting [appointed] for all the living.

24 “However, does not one falling in a heap of ruins stretch out his hand?

Or in his disaster [will he not] therefore cry out for help?

25 “Did I not weep for one whose life was hard and filled with trouble? ‡

Was not my heart grieved for the needy?

26 “When I expected good, then came evil [to me]; ‡
And when I waited for light, then came darkness.

27 “I am seething within and my heart is troubled and cannot rest;

Days of affliction come to meet me.

28 “I go about mourning without comfort [my skin blackened by disease, not by the heat of the sun]; ‡

I stand up in the assembly and cry out for help.

29 “I am a brother to [howling] jackals, ‡
And a companion to ostriches [which scream dismally].

30 “My skin falls from me in blackened flakes, ‡
And my bones are burned with fever.

31 “Therefore my lyre (harp) is used for [the sound of] mourning,

And my flute for the [sound of the] voices of those who weep.

Job 31

Job Asserts His Integrity

<sup>1</sup> “I HAVE made a covenant (agreement) with my eyes; ‡
How then could I gaze [lustfully] at a virgin?

<sup>2</sup> “For what is the portion I would have from God above, ‡
And what heritage from the Almighty on high?

<sup>3</sup> “Does not tragedy fall [justly] on the unjust

And disaster to those who work wickedness?

<sup>4</sup> “Does not God see my ways ‡

And count all my steps?

<sup>5</sup> “If I have walked with falsehood,

Or if my foot has chased after deceit,

<sup>6</sup> Oh, let Him weigh me with accurate scales,

And let God know my integrity.

<sup>7</sup> “If my step has turned away from the way [of God], ‡

Or if my heart has [covetously] followed my eyes,

Or if any spot [of guilt] has stained my hands,

<sup>8</sup> Then let me plant and [let] another eat [from the results of my labor], ‡

And let my crops be uprooted and ruined.

<sup>9</sup> “If my heart has been enticed and I was made a fool by a woman,

Or if I have [covetously] lurked at my neighbor’s door [until his departure],

<sup>10</sup> Let my wife grind [meal, like a bond slave] for another [man], ‡

And let others kneel down over her.

<sup>11</sup> “For adultery is a heinous and lustful crime; ‡

Moreover, it would be a sin punishable by the judges. [ [Deut
22:22](#); John 8:5 ]

<sup>12</sup> “For it is a fire which consumes to Abaddon (destruction, ruin, final torment);

And [illicit passion] would burn and rage and uproot all my [life’s] increase [destroying everything].

<sup>13</sup> “If I have despised and rejected the claim of my male or female servants

When they filed a complaint against me,

<sup>14</sup> What then could I do when God arises [to judge me]? ‡

When He calls me to account, what will I answer Him? [ [Ps
44:21](#) ]

<sup>15</sup> “Did not He who made me in the womb make my servant, ‡
And did not the same One fashion us both in the womb? [

Prov 14:31 ; 22:2 ; Mal 2:10 ]

<sup>16</sup> “If I have withheld from the poor what they desired, Or have caused the eyes of the widow to look in vain [for relief],

<sup>17</sup> Or have eaten my morsel [of food] alone,
And did not share it with the orphan

<sup>18</sup> (But from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father,
And from my mother’s womb I have been the widow’s guide),

<sup>19</sup> If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,
Or any poor person without covering,

<sup>20</sup> If his loins have not thanked and blessed me [for clothing them], ‡

And if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep,

<sup>21</sup> If I have lifted my hand against the orphan, ‡

Because I saw [that the judges would be] my help at the [council] gate,

<sup>22</sup> Then let my shoulder fall away from its socket,
And my arm be broken off at the elbow.

<sup>23</sup> “For tragedy from God is a terror to me, ‡

And because of His majesty and exaltation I can do nothing
[nor endure facing Him].  [Is 13:6 ; Joel 1:15 ]

<sup>24</sup> “If I have put my trust and confidence in gold, ‡
Or have declared fine gold my hope and assurance,

<sup>25</sup> If I gloated and rejoiced because my wealth was great, ‡
And because my [powerful] hand [alone] had obtained so much,

<sup>26</sup> If I beheld the sun [as an object of worship] when it shone ‡
Or the moon going in its splendor,

<sup>27</sup> And my heart became secretly enticed [by them],
And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth [in respect to them],

<sup>28</sup> This also would have been [a heinous] sin calling for judgment,

For I would have denied God above.  [Deut 4:19 ; 17:2–7 ]

<sup>29</sup> “Have I rejoiced at the destruction of the enemy [who hated me], ‡

Or exulted [in malicious triumph] when evil overtook him?

<sup>30</sup> “No, I have not allowed my mouth to sin ‡

By cursing my enemy and asking for his life.

<sup>31</sup> “I assure you, the men of my tent have said,

‘Who can find one [in need] who has not been satisfied with his meat’?

<sup>32</sup> “The stranger has not lodged in the street, ‡

Because I have opened my door to the traveler.

<sup>33</sup> “Have I concealed my transgressions like Adam or like other men, ‡

By hiding my wickedness in my bosom,

<sup>34</sup> Because I feared the great multitude, ‡

And the contempt of families terrified me,

So that I kept silence and did not acknowledge my sin and did not go out of the door?

<sup>35</sup> “Oh, that I had one to listen to me! ‡

Look, here is my signature (mark);

Let the Almighty answer me!

Let my adversary write out His indictment [and put His vague accusations in tangible form].

<sup>36</sup> “Surely I would [proudly] bear it on my shoulder,

And bind the scroll around my head like a crown.

<sup>37</sup> “I would count out to Him the number of my steps [with every detail of my life], Approaching His presence as if I were a prince.

<sup>38</sup> “For if my land has cried out against me,

And its furrows weep together;

<sup>39</sup> If I have eaten its fruits without paying for them, ‡

Or have caused its [rightful] owners to lose their lives,

<sup>40</sup> Let thorns grow instead of wheat, ‡

And stinkweed and cockleburs instead of barley.”

So the words of Job [with his friends] are finished.

Job 32

Elihu Rebukes Job

<sup>1</sup> SO THESE three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes [and could not be persuaded otherwise by them]. ‡

<sup>2</sup> But Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became indignant. His indignation was kindled and burned and he became upset with Job because he justified himself rather than God [and even expressed doubts about God's character].

<sup>3</sup> Elihu's anger burned against Job's three friends because they had found no answer [and were unable to determine Job's error], and yet they had condemned Job and declared him to be in the wrong [and responsible for his own afflictions].

<sup>4</sup> Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the others were years older than he.

<sup>5</sup> And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, he burned with anger.

<sup>6</sup> Then Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite said,

“I am young, and you are aged;
For that reason I was anxious and dared not tell you what I think.

<sup>7</sup> “I thought age should speak,
And a multitude of years should teach wisdom.

<sup>8</sup> “But there is [a vital force and] a spirit [of intelligence] in man, ‡

And the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding. [
Prov 2:6]

<sup>9</sup> “Those [who are] abundant in years may not [always] be wise, ‡

Nor may the elders [always] understand justice.

<sup>10</sup> “Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me;
I also will give you my opinion [about Job's situation] and tell you plainly what I think.’

<sup>11</sup> “You see, I waited for your words,
I listened to your [wise] reasons,

While you pondered and searched out what to say.

<sup>12</sup> “I even paid close attention to [what] you [said], Indeed, not one of you convinced Job [nor could you refute
him],

Not one of you supplied [satisfactory] answers to his words.

<sup>13</sup> “Beware if you say, ‡

‘We have found wisdom;

God thrusts Job down [justly], not man [for God alone is dealing with him].’

<sup>14</sup> “Now Job has not directed his words against me [therefore I have no reason to be offended],

Nor will I answer him with arguments like yours. [I speak for truth, not for revenge.]

<sup>15</sup> “They (Job’s friends) are dismayed and embarrassed, they no longer answer;

The words have moved away and failed them,” [says Elihu].

<sup>16</sup> “And shall I wait, because they say nothing,

But stand still and say no more?

<sup>17</sup> “I too will give my share of answers;

I too will express my opinion and share my knowledge.

<sup>18</sup> “For I am full of words;

The spirit within me constrains me.

<sup>19</sup> “My belly is like unvented wine;

Like new wineskins it is about to burst.

<sup>20</sup> “I must speak so that I may get relief;

I will open my lips and answer.

<sup>21</sup> “I will not [I warn you] be partial to any man [that is, let my respect for you mitigate what I say];

Nor flatter any man.

<sup>22</sup> “For I do not know how to flatter, [in an appropriate way, and I fear that],

My Maker would soon take me away.

Job 33

Elihu Claims to Speak for God

- <sup>1</sup> “HOWEVER, JOB, please listen to my words,
And pay attention to everything I say.
- <sup>2</sup> “Behold, I have opened my mouth [to begin my speech];
My tongue in my mouth is going to speak.
- <sup>3</sup> “My words will express the uprightness of my heart,
And my lips will speak what they know with utter sincerity.
- <sup>4</sup> “The Spirit of God has made me, ‡
And the breath of the Almighty gives me life [which inspires
me].
- <sup>5</sup> “Answer me, if you can;
Set yourselves before me, take your stand.
- <sup>6</sup> “Behold, I belong to God like you; ‡
I too was formed out of the clay.
- <sup>7</sup> “Behold, I will not make you afraid or terrified of me [for I am only mortal and not God], ‡
Nor should any pressure from me weigh heavily upon you.
- <sup>8</sup> “Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
And I have heard the sound of your words, saying:
- <sup>9</sup> ‘I am pure, without transgression; ‡
I am innocent and there is no guilt in me.
- <sup>10</sup> ‘Behold, God finds pretexts against me; ‡
He counts me as His enemy.
- <sup>11</sup> ‘He puts my feet in the stocks [to hinder and humiliate me];
‡
He [suspiciously] watches all my paths,’ [you say].
- <sup>12</sup> “Look, let me answer you, in this you are not right or just;
For God is greater and far superior to man.
- <sup>13</sup> “Why do you complain against Him? ‡
That He does not answer [you with] all His doings.
- <sup>14</sup> “For God speaks once, ‡
And even twice, yet no one notices it [including you, Job].
- <sup>15</sup> “In a dream, a vision of the night [one may hear God’s voice], ‡
When deep sleep falls on men
While slumbering upon the bed,
- <sup>16</sup> Then He opens the ears of men ‡

And seals their instruction,
17 That He may turn man aside from his conduct,
And keep him from pride;
18 He holds back his soul from the pit [of destruction],
And his life from passing over into Sheol (the nether world,
the place of the dead).

19 “Man is also disciplined with pain on his bed,
And with unceasing complaint in his bones,
20 So that his life makes him loathe food, ‡
And his soul [loathe] even his favorite dishes.
21 “His flesh is so wasted away that it cannot be seen,
And his bones which were not seen now stick out.
22 “Then his soul draws near to the pit [of destruction],
And his life to those who bring death (the destroyers).

23 “If there is an angel as a mediator for him,
One out of a thousand,
To explain to a man what is right for him [that is, how to be in right standing with God],
24 Then the angel is gracious to him, and says,
‘Spare him from going down to the pit [of destruction];
I have found a ransom [a consideration, or reason for redemption, an atonement]!’
25 “Let his flesh be restored and become fresher than in youth;
Let him return to the days of his youthful strength.
26 “He will pray to God, and He shall be favorable to him,
So that he looks at His face with joy;
For God restores to man His righteousness [that is, his right standing with God—with its joys].
27 “He sings out to other men, ‡
‘I have sinned and perverted that which was right,
And it was not proper for me!
28 ‘God has redeemed my life from going to the pit [of destruction], ‡
And my life shall see the light.’ ”

29. [Elihu comments,] “Behold, God does all these things twice, yes, three times, with a man,

30 To bring his life back from the pit [of destruction], ‡
That he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
31 “Pay attention, Job, listen to me;
Keep silent, and I will speak.
32 “If you have anything to say, answer me;
Speak, for I desire to justify you.
33 “If not [and you have nothing to say], listen to me; ‡
Keep silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34

Elihu Vindicates God’s Justice

<sup>1</sup> ELIHU CONTINUED his discourse and said,

2 “Hear my words, you wise men,
And listen to me, you who have [so much] knowledge.
3 “For the ear puts words to the test ‡
As the palate tastes food.
4 “Let us choose for ourselves that which is right;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.
5 “For Job has said, ‘I am righteous [and innocent], ‡
But God has taken away my right;  [Job 33:9 ]
6 Although I am right, I am accounted a liar. ‡
My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.’
7 “What man is like Job, ‡
Who drinks up derision like water,
8 Who goes in company with those who do evil
And walks with wicked men?
9 “For he has said, ‘It profits a man nothing ‡
When he takes delight and is pleased with God and obeys Him.’
10 “Therefore hear me, you men of understanding. ‡
Far be it from God that He would do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to do wrong.
11 “For God pays a man according to his work, ‡

And He will make every man find [appropriate] compensation
according to his way.

12 “Surely God will not act wickedly,‡

Nor will the Almighty pervert justice.

13 “Who put God in charge over the earth?

And who has laid on Him the whole world?

14 “If God should determine to do so,‡

If He should gather to Himself [that is, withdraw from man]
His [life-giving] spirit and His breath,

15 All flesh would perish together,‡

And man would return to dust.  [Ps 104:29; Eccl 12:7 ]

16 “If you now have understanding, hear this;

Listen to the sound of my words.

17 “Shall one who hates justice [and is an enemy of right] govern?‡

And will you condemn Him who is just and mighty?

18 “God who says to a king, ‘You are worthless and vile,’‡

Or to princes and nobles, ‘You are wicked and evil’?

19 “Who is not partial to princes,‡

Nor does He regard the rich above the poor,

For they all are the work of His hands.

20 “In a moment they die, even at midnight‡

The people are shaken and pass away,

And the powerful are taken away without a [human] hand.

21 “For God’s eyes are on the ways of a man,‡

And He sees all his steps.  [Ps 34:15; Prov 5:21; Jer 16:17 ]

22 “There is no darkness nor deep shadow‡

Where the evildoers may hide themselves.

23 “For He sets no appointed time for a man,

That he should appear before Him in judgment.

24 “He breaks mighty men without inquiry,‡

And sets others in their place.  [Dan 2:21 ]

25 “Therefore He knows of their works,

And He overthrows them in the night,

So that they are crushed and destroyed.

26 “He strikes them like the wicked

In a public place,

<sup>27</sup> Because they turned aside from following Him ‡
And would not consider or show regard for any of His ways, [
1 Sam 15:11.]

<sup>28</sup> So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him, ‡
And He heard the cry of the afflicted. [Ex 22:23; James 5:4.]

<sup>29</sup> “When He keeps quiet, who then can condemn?
When He hides His face [withdrawing His favor and help], who then can behold Him [and make supplication to Him],

Whether it be a nation or a man by himself?—

<sup>30</sup> So that godless men would not rule ‡
Nor be snares for the people.

<sup>31</sup> “For has anyone said to God,
'I have endured my chastisement;
I will not offend anymore;

<sup>32</sup> Teach me what I do not see [in regard to how I have sinned];

If I have done wrong (injustice, unrighteousness),
I will not do it again'?

<sup>33</sup> “Shall God's retribution [for your sins] be on your terms, because you refuse to accept it?

For you must do the choosing, and not I;
Therefore say what you [truthfully] know.

<sup>34</sup> “Men of understanding will tell me,
Indeed, every wise man who hears me [will agree],

<sup>35</sup> ‘Job speaks without knowledge, ‡
And his words are without wisdom and insight.

<sup>36</sup> ‘Job ought to be tried to the limit
Because he answers like wicked men!

<sup>37</sup> ‘For he adds rebellion [in his unsubmissive, defiant attitude toward God] to his [unacknowledged] sin;

He claps his hands among us [in open mockery and contempt of God],

And he multiplies his words [of accusation] against God.' ”

Job 35

Elihu Sharply Reproves Job

<sup>1</sup> ELIHU CONTINUED speaking [to Job] and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Do you think this is according to [your] justice?

Do you say, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s’?

<sup>3</sup> “For you say, ‘What advantage have you [by living a righteous life]? ‡

What profit will I have, more [by being righteous] than if I had sinned?’

<sup>4</sup> “I will answer you, ‡

And your companions with you.

<sup>5</sup> “Look to the heavens and see; ‡

And behold the skies which are [much] higher than you.

<sup>6</sup> “If you have sinned, what do you accomplish against Him? ‡

And if your transgressions are multiplied, what have you done to Him?

<sup>7</sup> “If you are righteous, what do you give God, ‡

Or what does He receive from your hand?

<sup>8</sup> “Your wickedness affects only a man such as you,

And your righteousness affects only a son of man [but it cannot affect God, who is sovereign].

<sup>9</sup> “Because of the multitudes of oppressions the people cry out; ‡

They cry for help because of the [violent] arm of the mighty.

<sup>10</sup> “But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, ‡

Who gives songs [of rejoicing] in the night,  [Acts 16:25. ]

<sup>11</sup> Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth ‡

And makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?’

<sup>12</sup> “The people cry out, but He does not answer ‡

Because of the pride of evil men.

<sup>13</sup> “Surely God will not listen to an empty cry [which lacks trust], ‡

Nor will the Almighty regard it.

<sup>14</sup> “Even though you say that you do not see Him [when missing His righteous judgment on earth], ‡

Yet your case is before Him, and you must wait for Him!
<sup>15</sup> “And now, because He has not [quickly] punished in His anger, ‡
Nor has He acknowledged transgression and arrogance well [and seems unaware of the wrong of which a person is guilty],
<sup>16</sup> Job uselessly opens his mouth ‡
And multiplies words without knowledge [drawing the worthless conclusion that the righteous have no more advantage than the wicked].”

Job 36

Elihu Speaks of God’s Dealings with Men

<sup>1</sup> ELIHU CONTINUED and said,

<sup>2</sup> “Bear with me a little longer, and I will show you,
That there is yet more to say on God’s behalf.
<sup>3</sup> “I will bring my knowledge from afar,
And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
<sup>4</sup> “For truly my words are not false;
He who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
<sup>5</sup> “Behold, God is mighty, and yet does not despise anyone [nor regard any as trivial]; ‡
He is mighty in the strength and power of understanding.
<sup>6</sup> “He does not prolong the life of the wicked,
But gives the afflicted their justice.
<sup>7</sup> “He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous [those in right standing with Him]; ‡
But with kings upon the throne
He has seated them forever, and they are exalted.
<sup>8</sup> “And if they are bound in bonds [of adversity], ‡
And held by cords of affliction, [Ps 107:10, 11.]
<sup>9</sup> Then He declares to them [the true character of] their deeds
And their transgressions, that they have acted arrogantly

[with presumption and notions of self-sufficiency].

<sup>10</sup> “He opens their ears to instruction and discipline,‡
And commands that they return from evil.

<sup>11</sup> “If they hear and serve Him,‡
They will end their days in prosperity
And their years in pleasantness and joy.

<sup>12</sup> “But if they do not hear and obey, they will die by the sword
[of God’s destructive judgments]

And they will die [in ignorance] without [true] knowledge.

<sup>13</sup> “But the godless in heart store up anger [at the divine discipline];‡

They do not cry [to Him] for help when He binds them [with cords of affliction].  [Rom 2:5 ]

<sup>14</sup> “They die in youth,‡
And their life ends among the cult prostitutes.  [Deut 23:17 ]

<sup>15</sup> “He rescues the afflicted in their affliction,
And opens their ears [so that they pay attention to His voice] in times of oppression.

<sup>16</sup> “Then indeed, He enticed you from the mouth of distress and confinement,‡

Into a broad place where there is no constraint or distress;
And that which was set on your table was full of fatness (rich food).

<sup>17</sup> “But you [Job] were full of judgment on the wicked,
Judgment and justice take hold of you .

<sup>18</sup> “Do not let wrath entice you into scoffing;‡
And do not let the greatness and the extent of the ransom turn you aside.

<sup>19</sup> “Will your wealth [be sufficient to] keep you from [the confinement of] distress,‡

Or will all the force of your strength do it?

<sup>20</sup> “Do not long for the night,
When people vanish from their places.

<sup>21</sup> “Take heed and be careful, do not turn to wickedness,‡
For you have chosen this [the vice of complaining against God] rather than [learning from] affliction.

<sup>22</sup> “Behold, God is exalted in His power;‡

Who is a ruler or a teacher like Him?
23 “Who has appointed God His way, ‡
And who can say [to Him], ‘You have done wrong’?

24 “Remember that you should magnify God’s work, ‡
Of which men have sung.
25 “All men have seen God’s work;
Man looks at it from a distance.
26 “Behold, God is exalted, and we do not know Him; ‡
The number of His years is unsearchable.  [1 Cor 13:12 ]
27 “For He draws up the drops of water, ‡
They distill rain from the mist,
28 Which the clouds pour down, ‡
They drop abundantly upon mankind.”
29 “Can anyone understand the spreading of the clouds
Or the thundering of His pavilion?  [Ps 18:11 ; Is 40:22 ] 30 “Behold, He spreads His lightning around Him [against the dark clouds], ‡
And He covers the depths of the sea.
31 “For by these [mighty acts] He judges the peoples; ‡
He gives food in abundance.
32 “He covers His hands with the lightning, ‡
And commands it to strike the mark.
33 “His thundering voice declares [awesomely] His presence; ‡
The cattle also are told of His coming storm.

Job 37

Elihu Says God has Authority over the Storm

1 “INDEED, AT His thundering my heart trembles
And leaps out of its place.
2 “Listen carefully to the thunder of His voice,
And the rumbling that goes out of His mouth!
3 “He lets it loose under the whole heaven,
And His lightning to the ends of the earth.
4 “After it, His voice roars; ‡

He thunders with the voice of His majesty,
And He does not restrain His lightning [against His adversaries] when His voice is heard.

<sup>5</sup> “God thunders marvelously with His voice; ‡
He does great things which we cannot comprehend.

<sup>6</sup> “For He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth’; ‡
And [He speaks] to the showers and to the downpour [of His mighty rains], ‘Be strong.’

<sup>7</sup> “God seals (brings to a standstill, stops) [by severe weather] the hand of every man, ‡
That all men [whom He has made] may know His work [that is, His sovereign power and their subjection to it].

<sup>8</sup> “Then the beast goes into its lair ‡
And remains in its hiding place.

<sup>9</sup> “Out of its chamber comes the storm,
And cold from the north wind.

<sup>10</sup> “Ice is made by the breath of God, ‡
And the expanse of the waters is frozen.  [Ps 147:17, 18 ]

<sup>11</sup> “He loads the thick cloud with moisture;
He disperses the cloud of His lightning.

<sup>12</sup> “Its direction is turned around by His guidance, ‡
That it may do whatever He commands it
On the face of the inhabited earth.

<sup>13</sup> “Whether [it be] for correction, or for His earth [generally] ‡
Or for [His] mercy and lovingkindness, He causes it to happen.

 [Ex 9:18, 23; 1 Sam 12:18, 19 ]

<sup>14</sup> “Listen to this, Job; ‡
Stand still and consider the wonders of God.

<sup>15</sup> “Do you know how God establishes and commands them,
And makes the lightning of His [storm] cloud shine?

<sup>16</sup> “Do you know about the layers of thick clouds [and how they are balanced and poised in the heavens], ‡
The wonderful works of Him who is perfect in knowledge,

<sup>17</sup> You whose garments are hot,
When He quiets the earth [in sultry summer] with the [oppressive] south wind?

<sup>18</sup> “Can you, with Him, spread out the sky, ‡

Strong as a molten mirror?

<sup>19</sup> “Tell us [Job] what words [of man] shall we say to such a Being;

We cannot state our case because of darkness [that is, our ignorance in the presence of the unsearchable God].

<sup>20</sup> “So shall it be told Him that I wish to speak?

Or should a man say that he would be swallowed up [and destroyed by God]?

<sup>21</sup> “Now people cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies [without being blinded],

When the wind has passed and cleared them.

<sup>22</sup> “Out of the north comes golden splendor [and people can hardly look on it];

Around God is awesome splendor and majesty [far too glorious for man’s eyes].

<sup>23</sup> “The Almighty—we cannot find Him; ‡

He is exalted in power

And He will not do violence to [nor disregard] justice and abundant righteousness.  [1 Tim 6:16 ]

He does not regard nor respect any who are wise in heart [in their own understanding and conceit].”  [Matt 10:28 ]

Job 38

God Speaks Now to Job

<sup>2</sup> “Who is this that darkens counsel [questioning my authority and wisdom] ‡

By words without knowledge?  [Job 35:16 ]

<sup>3</sup> “Now gird up your loins like a man, ‡

And I will ask you, and you instruct Me!

<sup>4</sup> “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? ‡

Tell Me, if you know and have understanding.

<sup>5</sup> “Who determined the measurements [of the earth], if you know?

Or who stretched the [measuring] line on it?

<sup>6</sup> “On what were its foundations fastened?

Or who laid its cornerstone,

<sup>7</sup> When the morning stars sang together ‡

And all the sons of God (angels) shouted for joy?

<sup>8</sup> “Or who enclosed the sea with doors ‡

When it burst forth and went out of the womb;

<sup>9</sup> When I made the clouds its garment

And thick darkness its swaddling band,

<sup>10</sup> And marked for it My [appointed] boundary ‡

And set bars and doors [defining the shorelines],  [Jer 5:22 ]

<sup>11</sup> And said, ‘This far you shall come, but no farther; ‡

And here your proud waves shall stop’?  [Ps 89:9 ; 93:4 ]

God’s Mighty Power

<sup>12</sup> “ Since your days began, have you ever commanded the morning, ‡

And caused the dawn to know its place,

<sup>13</sup> So that light may take hold of the corners of the earth ‡

And shake the wickedness out of it?

<sup>14</sup> “The earth is changed like clay into which a seal is pressed;
And the things [of the earth] stand out like a [multi-colored] garment.

<sup>15</sup> “Their light is withheld from the wicked, ‡

And the uplifted arm is broken.

<sup>16</sup> “Have you entered and explored the springs of the sea ‡

Or [have you] walked in the recesses of the deep?

<sup>17</sup> “Have the gates of death been revealed to you, ‡

Or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?

<sup>18</sup> “Have you understood the expanse of the earth?

Tell Me, if you know all this.

<sup>19</sup> “Where is the way where light dwells?

And as for darkness, where is its place,
20 That you may take it to its territory
And that you may know the paths to its house?
21 “You [must] know, since you were born then,
And because you are so extremely old!
22 “Have you entered the storehouses of the snow, ‡
Or have you seen the storehouses of the hail,
23 Which I have reserved for the time of trouble, ‡
For the day of battle and war?  [Ex 9:18; Josh 10:11; Is 30:30;
Rev 16:21 ]
24 “Where is the way that the light is distributed,
Or the east wind scattered over the earth?

25 “Who has prepared a channel for the torrents of rain and for the flood, ‡
Or a path for the thunderbolt,
26 To bring rain on the uninhabited land,
And on the desert where no man lives,
27 To satisfy the barren and desolate ground ‡
And to make the seeds of grass to sprout?
28 “Has the rain a father? ‡
Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
29 “Out of whose womb has come the ice? ‡
And the frost of heaven, who has given it birth?
30 “Water becomes like stone [and hides itself], ‡
And the surface of the deep is frozen and imprisoned.

31 “Can you bind the chains of [the cluster of stars called] Pleiades, ‡
Or loose the cords of [the constellation] Orion?
32 “Can you lead forth a constellation in its season,
And guide [the stars of] the Bear with her sons?
33 “Do you know the ordinances of the heavens, ‡
Or [can you] establish their rule over the earth?

34 “Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
So that an abundance of water will cover you?
35 “Can you send forth lightnings that they may go

And say to you, ‘Here we are’?

<sup>36</sup> “Who has put wisdom in the innermost being [of man, or in the layers of clouds] ‡

Or given understanding to the mind [of man, or to the heavenly display]?

<sup>37</sup> “Who can count the clouds by [earthly] wisdom,

Or pour out the water jars of the heavens,

<sup>38</sup> When the dust hardens into a mass

And the clods stick together [because of the heat]?

<sup>39</sup> “Can you [Job] hunt the prey for the lion, ‡

Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions

<sup>40</sup> When they crouch in their dens

And lie in wait in their lair?

<sup>41</sup> “Who provides prey for the raven ‡

When its young cry to God

And wander about without food?

Job 39

God Speaks of Nature and Its Beings

<sup>1</sup> “DO YOU know the time when the wild goats of the rock give birth [to their young]? ‡

Do you observe the calving of the deer?

<sup>2</sup> “Can you count the months that they carry offspring,

Or do you know the time when they give birth?

<sup>3</sup> “They kneel down, they bring forth their young,

They cast out their labor pains.

<sup>4</sup> “Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open field;

They leave and do not return to them.

<sup>5</sup> “Who sent out the wild donkey free [from dependence on man]?

And who has loosed the bonds of the wild donkey [to survive in the wild],

<sup>6</sup> To whom I gave the wilderness as his home ‡

And the salt land as his dwelling place?

7 “He scorns the tumult of the city,
And does not hear the shouting of the taskmaster.

8 “He explores the mountains as his pasture
And searches after every green thing.

9 “Will the wild ox be willing to serve you,‡
Or remain beside your manger at night?

10 “Can you bind the wild ox with a harness [to the plow] in the furrow?

Or will he plow the valleys for you?

11 “Will you trust him because his strength is great
And leave your labor to him?

12 “Will you have faith and depend on him to return your grain
And gather it from your threshing floor?

13 “The [flightless] wings of the ostrich wave joyously;
With the pinion (shackles, fetters) and plumage of love,

14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground
And warms them in the dust,

15 Forgetting that a foot may crush them,
Or that the wild beast may trample them.

16 “She treats her young cruelly, as if they were not hers; ‡ Though her labor is in vain because she is unconcerned [for the safety of her brood],

17 For God has made her forget wisdom,‡
And has not given her a share of understanding.

18 “Yet when she lifts herself on high,
[So swift is she that] she laughs at the horse and his rider.

19 “Have you given the horse his might?
Have you clothed his neck with quivering and a shaking mane?

20 “Have you [Job] made him leap like a locust?
The majesty of his snorting [nostrils] is terrible.

21 “He paws in the valley and rejoices in his strength; ‡
He goes out to meet the weapons [of armed men].

22 “He laughs at fear and is not dismayed;
And [in battle] he does not turn back from the sword.

23 “The quiver rattles against him,
[As do] the flashing spear and the lance [of his rider].

24 “With fierceness and rage he races to devour the ground,
And he does not stand still at the sound of the [war] trumpet.

25 “As often as the trumpet sounds he says, ‘Aha!’
And he smells the battle from far away,
And senses the thunder of the captains and the war cry.

26 “Is it by your understanding that the hawk soars,
Stretching his wings toward the south [as winter approaches]?
27 “Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up ‡
And makes his nest on high [in an inaccessible place]?
28 “On the cliff he dwells and remains [securely],
Upon the point of the rock and the inaccessible stronghold.
29 “From there he spies out the prey;
His eyes see it from far away.
30.“His young ones suck up blood; ‡
And where the slain are, there is he.”

Job 40

Job: What Can I Say?

<sup>1</sup> THEN THE LORD said to Job,

Let him who disputes with God answer it.”

<sup>3</sup> Then Job replied to the LORD and said,

<sup>4</sup> “Behold, I am of little importance and contemptible; what can I reply to You? ‡
I lay my hand on my mouth.  [Ezra 9:6; Ps 51:4 ]
<sup>5</sup> “I have spoken once, but I will not reply again—Indeed, twice [I have answered], and I will add nothing further.”

God Questions Job

<sup>7</sup> “Now gird up your loins (prepare yourself) like a man, ‡
And I will ask you, and you instruct Me.

<sup>8</sup> “Will you really annul My judgment and set it aside as void? ‡
Will you condemn Me [your God] that you may [appear to] be righteous and justified?

<sup>9</sup> “Have you an arm like God, ‡
And can you thunder with a voice like His?

<sup>10</sup> “Adorn yourself with eminence and dignity [since you question the Almighty], ‡

And array yourself with honor and majesty.

<sup>11</sup> “Pour out the overflowings of your wrath,
And look at everyone who is proud and make him low.

<sup>12</sup> Look at everyone who is proud, and humble him, ‡
And [if you are so able] tread down the wicked where they stand.

<sup>13</sup> “[Crush and] hide them in the dust together;
Shut them up in the hidden place [the house of death].

<sup>14</sup> “[If you can do all this, Job, proving your divine power] then I [God] will also praise you and acknowledge
That your own right hand can save you.

God's Power Shown in Creatures

<sup>15</sup> “Behold now, Behemoth, which I created as well as you;
He eats grass like an ox.

<sup>16</sup> “See now, his strength is in his loins
And his power is in the muscles and sinews of his belly.

<sup>17</sup> “He sways his tail like a cedar;
The tendons of his thighs are twisted and knit together [like a rope].

<sup>18</sup> “His bones are tubes of bronze;
His limbs are like bars of iron.

<sup>19</sup> “He is the first [in magnitude and power] of the works of

God;

[Only] He who made him can bring near His sword [to master him].

<sup>20</sup> “Surely the mountains bring him food,‡
And all the wild animals play there.

<sup>21</sup> “He lies down under the lotus plants,
In the hidden shelter of the reeds in the marsh.

<sup>22</sup> “The lotus plants cover him with their shade;
The willows of the brook surround him.

<sup>23</sup> “If a river rages and overflows, he does not tremble;
He is confident, though the Jordan [River] swells and rushes against his mouth.

<sup>24</sup> “Can anyone capture him when he is on watch,
Or pierce his nose with barbs [to trap him]?

Job 41

God's Power Shown in Creatures

<sup>1</sup> “CAN YOU draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?‡
Or press down his tongue with a cord?

<sup>2</sup> “Can you put a rope [made] of rushes into his nose‡
Or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

<sup>3</sup> “Will he make many supplications to you [begging to be spared]?
Or will he speak soft words to you [to coax you to treat him kindly]?

<sup>4</sup> “Will he make a covenant or an arrangement with you?
Will you take him for your servant forever?

<sup>5</sup> “Will you play with him as with a bird?
Or will you bind him [and put him on a leash] for your maidens?

<sup>6</sup> “Will traders bargain over him?
Will they divide him up among the merchants?

<sup>7</sup> “Can you fill his skin with harpoons,
Or his head with fishing spears?

<sup>8</sup> “Lay your hand on him;

Remember the battle [with him]; you will not do such [an ill-advised thing] again!

<sup>9</sup> “Behold, his [assailant’s] hope and expectation [of defeating Leviathan] is false;

Will not one be overwhelmed even at the sight of him?

<sup>10</sup> “No one is so fierce [and foolhardy] that he dares to stir up Leviathan;

Who then is he who can stand before Me [or dares to contend with Me, the beast’s creator]?

<sup>11</sup> “Who has first given to Me that I should repay him? ‡

Whatever is under the whole heaven is Mine. [Who can have a claim against Me who made the unmastered beast?]

 [Rom 11:35. ]

<sup>12</sup> “I will not keep silence concerning his limbs,
Nor his mighty strength, nor his orderly frame.

<sup>13</sup> “Who can penetrate or strip off his outer armor?

Who can come to his jaws with a double bridle?

<sup>14</sup> “Who can open the doors (jaws) of his face?
Around his [open jaws and] teeth there is terror.

<sup>15</sup> “His strong scales are his pride,
Bound together as with a tight seal.

<sup>16</sup> “One is so near to another
That no air can come between them.

<sup>17</sup> “They are joined one to another;
They stick together and cannot be separated.

<sup>18</sup> “His sneezes flash forth light,
And his eyes are like the [reddish] eyelids of the dawn.

<sup>19</sup> “Out of his mouth go burning torches,
And sparks of fire leap out.

<sup>20</sup> “Out of his nostrils smoke goes forth
As from a boiling pot and [as from] burning rushes.

<sup>21</sup> “His breath kindles coals,
And a flame goes forth from his mouth.

<sup>22</sup> “In Leviathan’s neck resides strength,
And dismay and terror dance before him.

<sup>23</sup> “The folds of his flesh are joined together,

Firm on him and immobile [when he moves].

24 “His heart is as hard as a stone,
Indeed, as solid as a lower millstone.

25 “When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid;
Because of the crashing they are bewildered.

26 “The sword that reaches him cannot avail,
Nor [does] the spear, the dart, or the javelin.

27 “He considers iron as straw,
Bronze as rotten wood.

28 “The arrow cannot make him flee;
Slingstones are treated as stubble by him.

29 “Clubs [also] are regarded as stubble;
He laughs at the rushing and the rattling of the javelin.

30 “His underparts are like sharp pieces of broken pottery;
He moves across and spreads out [grooves] like a threshing sledge on the mire (muddy river banks).

31 “He makes the deep water boil like a pot;
He makes the sea like a [foaming] pot of ointment.

32 “Behind him he makes a shining wake;
One would think the deep to be gray-haired [with foam].

33 “Upon earth there is nothing like him—no equal exists,
A creature made without fear.

34 “He looks on everything that is high [without terror];
He is monarch over all the sons of pride. [And now, Job, who are you who does not dare to disturb the beast, yet who dares resist Me, the beast’s creator? Everything under the heavens is Mine; therefore, who can have a claim against God?]”

Job 42

Job’s Confession

<sup>1</sup> THEN JOB answered the LORD and said,

2 “I know that You can do all things, ‡
And that no thought or purpose of Yours can be restrained.

<sup>3</sup> “[You said to me] ‘Who is this that darkens and obscures counsel [by words] without knowledge?’ ‡

Therefore [I now see] I have [rashly] uttered that which I did not understand,

Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.  [Job 38:2

<sup>4</sup>. ‘Hear, please, and I will speak; ‡

I will ask You, and You instruct [and answer] me.’

<sup>5</sup>. “I had heard of You [only] by the hearing of the ear,
But now my [spiritual] eye sees You.

And I repent in dust and ashes.”

God Displeased with Job’s Friends

<sup>7</sup> It came about that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.

<sup>8</sup> “Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves, and My servant Job will pray for you. For I will accept him [and his prayer] so that I may not deal with you according to your folly, because you have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Job has.” ‡

<sup>9</sup> So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

God Restores Job’s Fortunes

<sup>10</sup> The LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he prayed for his friends, and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.  [Deut 30:1–3; Ps 126:1, 2] ‡

<sup>11</sup> Then all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before came to him, and they ate bread with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him over all the [distressing] adversities that the LORD had brought on him. And each one gave him a piece of money, and each a ring of gold. ‡

<sup>12</sup> And the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys.  [Job 1:3. ] ‡

<sup>14</sup> And he called the name of the first [daughter] Jemimah, and the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-happuch.

<sup>15</sup> In all the land there were found no women so fair as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.

Annotations for Job

1:1 Uz. The precise location of Uz is unknown, but it may have been near Edom. Some of the other towns and peoples mentioned in this book are known to have been located near Edom, so it is logical to assume that Uz was in the same area.

1:2 Why Do We Suffer?— Scripture points us to multiple reasons for suffering. Here, as in Job's case, suffering somehow is involved in God's purposes, and we are to learn from it. The New Testament echoes this teaching in James 1 where it says to “Consider it nothing but joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you fall into various trials. Be assured that the testing of your faith [through experience] produces endurance [leading to spiritual maturity, and inner peace]” (Jas 1:2–3). Suffering also happens as a result of our own sin. David suffered many family trials because of his sin with Bathsheba. Other times we suffer directly because of our faith, as martyrs have done for centuries. Sometimes living out our faith comes in direct conflict with the ruling powers, and we suffer because of it. Still other times we suffer because we live in a fallen world where things go wrong or natural disasters occur.

Both Peter and Paul advise us to commit our pain and suffering to God, realizing He is faithful to work out all things for our good and God's glory (Ro 8:28; 1Pe 4:9). This lesson is often learned over a whole lifetime as we see in numerous Psalms and in the lives of many biblical characters. Go to Theological Notes Index

1:6 the sons of God. Celestial beings or angels are called “sons of God” because they had no parents. They were created by God to serve Him (2:1 ; 4:18 ; Ps 103:20). This can also mean a group of saints (Ge 6:2). Adam was also called “the son of God” (Lk 3:38) because God was his Creator rather than having a human father and mother. Here Satan is said to be among them. Satan. At some point after creation, Satan, who was the highest created angel (Eze 28:12–15), aspired to be as God Himself (Isa 14:13–14). As a result, he was barred from his heavenly position (Eze 28:16) and took a large number of angels with him in his rebellion, over whom he rules as “prince” (Mt 12:24). Jesus says that He saw Satan fall from heaven (Lk 10:18), but this chapter in Job, and the incident of the lying spirit with the false prophets of Ahab (2Ch 18:8–22), indicate that Satan still had access to heaven and heavenly counsels. God can and does limit Satan (1:12). The cross defeated Satan (Jn 12:31), but the final judgment will not occur until the end of the millennium (Rev 20:10). In the meantime, Satan tries to thwart and defeat the work of God. God sometimes uses Satan to teach a lesson (1Ch 21 ; 2Co 12:7–10), but it is still God who is in control.

1:7 the LORD . The Hebrew word Yahweh, usually translated “the LORD,” is the personal name of the true God of the Old Testament (Ex 3:14–15). It is the particular name of God in covenantal relations with His people Israel (Ex 6:1–6 ; 19:3–8).

1:8 a blameless and upright man. The Lord was not saying that Job was sinless, but He was saying that Job had his priorities right. Job feared the Lord and it showed in his life.

1:10 hedge. No harm could come to Job unless the Lord permitted it (v. 12). Believers today should take great comfort from the biblical teaching that the Lord protects His people—whether by a cloud (Ex 14:19–20), or by a wall of fiery chariots (2Ki 6:17), or through guardian angels (Heb 1:14).

1:11 curse. The sin of cursing God is a pivotal issue for the Book of Job. Job feared that his children might think or speak irreverently of God (v. 5). But Satan asserted that Job would “surely curse” God if his prosperity and blessings were removed. Even Job's wife urged him to “curse God and die” (2:9).

1:15 Sabeans. The Sabeans were nomadic raiders from Sheba, probably located in southwestern Arabia, in present-day Yemen.

1:17 Chaldeans. The Chaldeans were part of various west Semitic marauding tribes active in the middle Euphrates from the twelfth to the ninth centuries BC. They migrated eastward into Assyria and then Babylonia, and were the forerunners of the Chaldean or neo-Babylonian dynasty established by Nebuchadnezzar's father.

2:10 good . . . adversity and disaster. This comment of Job's is one of the central themes of the whole book. A person of faith will trust in God through prosperity or adversity, even if they are unable to understand why bad things happen (Hab 3:17–19 ).

2:11 Temanite . . . Shuhite . . . Naamathite. A Temanite was probably an Edomite from Teman in northern Edom, and a Naamathite probably came from Naameh, a mountainous area in northwestern Arabia. From this context, it can be assumed that a Shuhite was also a person from a certain town, unknown in modern times.

3:1 cursed the day. The Hebrew word for “cursed,” meaning “to hold in contempt,” is elsewhere employed of cursing God (Ex 22:28 ; Lev 24:15 ) or cursing one's parents (Ex 21:17 ). Job expressed a strong malediction against the day of his birth and the night of his conception, but he did not commit blasphemy. He did not curse the Chaldeans, or Sabeans, much less God. Neither did he express thoughts of suicide.

3:8 curse. Job employed two separate Hebrew words translated “curse,” different from the term in verse 1. He wished that the popular magicians who cast spells on the day for their clients could have cast a spell on his day so that he never could have been born. He was not endorsing pagan magic, but was speaking vividly and forcefully to express his agony and despair.

3:20–22 wait for death. Even though Job longed for death, he was not considering suicide. The context of the other passages indicates that Job merely wished that the Lord would let him die (7:15–21 ; 10:18–22 ).

3:23 whom God has hedged in. The irony is that Job perceived God's hedge as keeping him from a desirable death instead of seeing it as God's protection of his life.

4:7 who, being innocent, ever perished. Eliphaz concluded that since Job was suffering, he must have sin in his life. Eliphaz supported the retribution doctrine: God supports the righteous but abandons the wicked.

4:8 sow trouble and harm harvest it. It can be true that planting wicked actions will yield a crop of trauma, but the converse is not necessarily true. Hard times can come to anyone, and the crop that is harvested in hard times depends on whether or not we continue to follow God in times of trouble.

4:13 visions of the night. Eliphaz appealed to a vision to authenticate his theology, but all dreams do not come from God. The “reader” of this book has different information, for God pulled aside the curtain of heaven to reveal the true background for Job's troubles.

4:19 Death— We live in houses of clay, and our foundations are in the dust. We may presume upon tomorrow, having illusions of permanence, but suddenly the cords of our tent are pulled up and our existence collapses. We perish, more readily than a moth encircling a flame. Surely the transience of life, the reality of death, and the certainty of judgment should move us to pray that the Eternal God will teach us to number our days so we can use them wisely (Ps 90:12 ). This awareness gives us a sense of urgency in turning from sin and serving our Savior. Go to Theological Notes Index

5:17 discipline. Eliphaz insinuated that since Job's suffering was a result of God's discipline for his sin, Job should not reject what God was trying to teach him. While it is true that God sometimes disciplines people for their own good (Pr 3:11–12 ; Heb 12:7 ), Eliphaz was suggesting that trouble in one's life necessarily means that one is being disciplined. Once again, the reader of this book has insight that the participants in the story do not have. Job's troubles do indeed teach him more about God, but the troubles originated because God was showing Satan that His followers are not following Him for what they get, but because of who He is.

5:23 in harmony with the stones of the field. Stones in the field are a significant hindrance to farming, just as wild animals or lack of rain are a hindrance. Eliphaz was saying that one who accepts the discipline of the Almighty will not find himself fighting the elements of nature. It is true that God is a deliverer, a healer, and one who disciplines his followers. We can safely trust Him to care for us. But having disaster, wounds, or failure is not necessarily a sign of God's discipline.

6:9 Prayer— Job thought it would be better to die than to endure all the pain and suffering that resulted from the tragedies he had experienced. He could not know that the fact that he was alive was actually because God had protected him. This prayer should be a great comfort to believers. We cannot always see God's hedge of protection in a traumatic situation. We can cry out for relief, when God wants us to endure. He knows far more about our situation than we do, and we can trust Him, even as we anguish over unanswered prayer. Go to Theological Notes Index

6:10 I would still have consolation. Job's single comfort was that he had not denied God, even though he believed that God was the one who had wounded him.

6:15 torrents of brooks that vanish. A brook is a stream that only carries water during the rainy season. Other times of the year it is a dry path. Job was likening his friends to a dry stream.

6:24 show me how I have erred. If Job's friends could show him error in his ways, Job was willing to listen. The problem was that Job's friends were reasoning backwards. They were assuming that they knew his error, based on the extent of Job's suffering. But they had their formula wrong. Sinners may suffer, but suffering does not equal sin or the Lord's discipline.

7:6 hope. Job's choice of the word "hope" in the context of the weaver's shuttle may convey a double meaning. The Hebrew word for "hope" sounds like the Hebrew word that means "thread" or "cord."

7:20 what [harm] have I done to You. Job, too, was assuming that his troubles came from God. Job did not believe that he had sinned in a way that would cause God to bring trouble on him. This may sound presumptuous, as if Job thought he was without any sin at all. But we remember that God Himself referred to Job as upright and blameless. God was not finding fault with the way that Job was living out his life of faith in God.

8:3 Does God pervert justice? Bildad was saying that Job and his children received what they deserved.

8:6 if you are pure and upright. This was actually the way God described Job (1:8 ; 2:3 ). Bildad's concept that one must "get right with God" was not erroneous. But his error was his assumption that loss of possessions was equal with loss of God's favor.

8:13 So are the paths of all who forget God. Bildad falsely deduced that one can always determine the cause by looking at the effect. We can know that the people around us suffer, but it is not given to us to know the spiritual causes, if any, behind this suffering.

9:3 If one should want to contend or dispute with Him. The word "contend" indicates a legal argument, not a quarrel. Job was seeking justice. He did not think he had sinned (as his friends indicated) so that God would punish him.

9:17 bruises me with a tempest. Job saw God as Lord of the heavens (v. 7-8 ) and assumed that it was God who sent the tempest that destroyed his children. Job did not know that it was Satan who sought to destroy him, and that God drew a line of protection around him.

10:1-3 Affliction— In the face of his adversities, Job despaired of life, but he continued to plead with God in prayer for an answer. Job's friends saw all suffering in a mathematical equation with sin. If these friends were right, that would reduce our relationship with God to a formula that says, "If you are good, God will rescue you, and if you are bad, God will abandon you to suffering." The converse of that statement says, "If you are suffering, you are bad, and because I am not suffering, I am good." It is often in the converse that a formula is shown to be faulty. Who can really claim to be good? We are all sinners in need of a savior. Go to Theological Notes Index

10:7 I am not guilty or wicked . . . there is no one who can rescue. Job thought that God was unjust in oppressing him, yet he realized that there is no one higher than God to deliver him from God. Job's thinking was twisted in much the same way that his friends' was. He was equating innocence with peace, and he could not imagine any reason why God would not rescue him.

10:18 bring me out of the womb. Job wondered how the God who so carefully fashioned him in the womb (v. 9-11) could turn against him. This was the desperate cry of a sufferer blind to the fact that God was working good out of all the tragic events of his life.

11:4 My teaching (doctrine) . . . is pure. Zophar exaggerated what Job had said about his innocence (9:14-21) to make Job look foolish.

11:7 Can you discover the depths of God? Zophar was correct in saying that understanding the depths of God is beyond man. But the fact that we cannot know everything about God does not mean that we cannot know anything about Him, nor that it is wrong to try to know and understand Him better.

11:13 stretch out your hands to Him. Stretching out the hands was a posture of prayer as well as of praise (Ps 134:2). Assuming that Job was suffering because of his iniquity, this was not bad advice.

11:15 secure and not fear. There is peace and comfort for those who have repented of their sin and turned to God. This is true and important to remember. But Zophar's presupposition that iniquity causes suffering kept him from understanding what Job's struggle was.

12:13 He [alone] has [true] counsel and understanding. Job was sure that he did not understand what was happening to him, but he knew that God did know the answer.

13:4 smear me with lies. Job's friends were accusing him of hidden sin, offering a false formula for peace with God, and assuming that they had a greater understanding both of Job and of God's ways than they really did. False doctrine, even if held with sincerity, is still a lie.

13:12 memorable sayings . . . defenses. The quickest way to make ourselves look silly is to try to explain something that we don't understand. Prayer is far more helpful than worthless counsel.

13:21 Withdraw Your hand . . . terrify me. Job was not cocky as he turned to plead his case before God. His requests were safe and wise for any believer who struggles with what life has handed him. Job asked God not to give up on him, and he asked God to keep him from being overpowered by the terror and majesty of God. Job knew very well that he was far below God, and that all that God is and does could be totally overwhelming to him.

14:13 hide me . . . until Your wrath is past. Job's wish for the grave to be a temporary hiding place from God's wrath differed dramatically from his earlier remarks concerning the grave (7:9-10; 10:18-22). He attributed the cause of his suffering to God's wrath because he assumed the retribution dogma that the righteous are always blessed and the wicked will eventually experience God's judgment. It did not occur to Job that he was being tested.

14:14 live again. Job had some understanding of the eternality of man's soul. The answer to his question comes in the New Testament with an emphatic "Yes!" by Jesus (Jn 11:23-26; 1Co 15:3-57).

15:21 [dreadful] sound of terrors. Eliphaz began his subtle argument to prove that Job was a wicked man. He alluded to Job's dread, the same word translated feared in 3:25, as an implicit indicator that Job was wicked.

15:24 Distress . . . terrify. In contrast to 14:20 where Job complained to God that He overpowered people, Eliphaz said that the wicked man's (by implication, Job's) own fears overpower him. Eliphaz's statement may have been true, but that did not mean it applied to Job. Job did not understand God's ways correctly, but neither did Eliphaz. Job was overpowered by Satan's attacks, and he could not see what God was doing. Eliphaz assumed that because Job was overpowered, it was because he had behaved arrogantly towards God.

15:31 trust in vanity. Eliphaz was entirely right in his comments about the fruitlessness of a wicked life, and that the Lord will bring the wicked into judgment. But Eliphaz did not have the concept that in this life the wicked can appear to prosper, and the righteous can appear to struggle. Judgment may not fall in this life.

15:34 fire consumes. In mentioning the fire that consumes the tents of the wicked, Eliphaz implied that the fire of God that destroyed Job's sheep and servants (1:16) was a direct result of Job's corruption.

16:7–17 Afflictions— One of the clear lessons of the Book of Job is that it is possible to give false and insensitive counsel to one who is experiencing affliction and testing. When we suffer, some of the lessons learned are for us, some of the lessons are for others who are watching, and some are for the Kingdom of God. We may not know in this life what all of the implications are. Our afflictions are designed by God to drive us out of ourselves to the Eternal God who is our refuge and who supports us with His everlasting arms (Dt 33:27). As friends of the afflicted, we must be sympathetic, loving, and kind, remembering that often only God has the answers. If we have suffered similarly, we have comfort to offer (2Co 1:6–7), and if we have not suffered similarly, we can support our friends in prayer and practical service. Go to Theological Notes Index

16:21 a man would mediate and plead. Job was expressing the need for an intercessor. This need anticipated Jesus Christ, who is our Intercessor (Heb 7:25) and Advocate (1Jn 2:1).

17:3 pledge. In another legal metaphor, Job appealed to God by laying down a pledge, that is, by providing bail. The use of the same metaphor in Psalms 119:121–122 to indicate the psalmist's request for relief from his "oppressors" may suggest that Job was pleading for God to demonstrate confidence in his innocence.

17:9 the righteous will hold to his ways. Job seems to be entertaining a little sarcasm here. He had referred to himself as a byword, one at whom men spit. Then he said that the righteous will grow stronger, which was not a reference to himself, even though he still did not think he deserved the trouble that had fallen upon him. He was probably referring to his friends, who considered themselves righteous, with clean hands, and who repeatedly strengthened their position and arguments.

18:4 who tear yourself apart in anger. This may be Bildad's response to Job's allegation that God had torn Job in His anger (16:13).

18:8–10 net . . . trap. Six different Hebrew synonyms for various types of nets and traps emphasize the many imminent dangers that God has designed for the wicked to ensure that they will be caught in their wickedness.

18:21 wicked. Bildad believed that the evidence he had exhibited in verses 5–20 implicated Job himself as the wicked one. Bildad was right that, in the end, the wicked will perish dramatically. But in this life they are not necessarily judged. If it were that simple, that the wicked never prospered and the righteous always thrived, people might try to be followers of God just for the blessings. The whole thrust of the Book of Job is that God Himself is reason enough to follow God, whether or not there is prosperity (1:9–11).

19:7 Despondency— The despondency of Job was a swollen river into which many streams had poured. He had experienced the loss of family, property, and health. His wife and friends had misunderstood him. The suffering saint felt tormented, crushed with the irrelevant words of critics who should have comforted instead of corrected him. Crying out for help, Job received none and came to the conclusion that there is no justice anywhere. The interesting thing about Job is that while he may have despaired of hearing from God, he never doubted that God was there and knew what was going on. Go to Theological Notes Index

19:8 He has walled up my way. Job felt fenced in by God, when it was really Satan who had been mistreating him (1:10; 3:23). The only fence from God was a hedge of protection.

19:25 I know that my Redeemer and Vindicator lives. Job's longing for a mediator (9:33) and his desire for someone to plead on his behalf with God (16:19–21) may suggest that he was thinking of someone other than God. Here was a strong, resolute hope for a mediator between God and humanity. Ultimately Job's longing for a vindicator or mediator was fulfilled in Jesus Christ (1Ti 2:5).

19:26 from my [immortal] flesh I will see God. Job was stating his strong belief in the eternity of the soul, and even of the resurrected body, although it was not until Christ's resurrection that followers of the Living God understood all the implications of this belief (1Co 15:12-19 ).

19:29 be afraid of the sword. Job anticipated the reaction of his friends to his stated confidence that someday he would see God face-to-face.

20:7 refuse. The word "refuse" may also be translated dung. This was a scathing comment.

20:20 he knew no quietness. In stating that the wicked person knows no quietness, Zophar implied that Job had received what he deserved.

20:27 heavens will reveal his wickedness and guilt. Zophar apparently reversed Job's appeal to the earth and heavens (16:18-19) for vindication. He argued that the heavens and earth would bear witness not to Job's innocence, but to his guilt.

20:29 heritage . . . appointed to him by God. In contrast to his previous words (11:13-20), Zophar seemed to be suggesting that it was too late for Job to repent. It is true, as Zophar says (v. 5) that the wicked and godless will be judged. But that does not mean either that Job was one of the wicked, or that the judgment of the wicked would be in this life (Lk 16:19-25).

21:7 wicked still live. With a rhetorical question, Job began exposing the loopholes in the retribution dogma—the belief that suffering always indicates God's punishment of a person. Other biblical writers also agonized over the prosperity of the wicked (Ps 37 ; 73 ; Jer 12:1-4), but Scriptures affirm that God is controlling everything to accomplish His good purpose (Ro 8:28).

21:9 safe from fear. Job reacted to Eliphaz's argument (15:21-24) that although the wicked live peacefully for a while, they live in terror of inevitable destruction.

21:17 lamp of the wicked is put out. The rhetorical questions introduced by "how often" expected the answer, "not very often." Job challenged Bildad's belief that the wicked person's light does go out (18:5-6).

21:19 wickedness for his children. Job denied the dogma that even if a wicked person prospers temporarily, his children will be punished. Job's position is sustained by other passages in the Bible (Dt 24:16 ; Jn 9:1-3).

22:2 man be of use to God. The implication of Eliphaz's rhetorical question—that man cannot put God under any obligation that God must repay—was a valid theological principle that the Lord Himself corroborates in 41:11. However, his application of that principle to Job's circumstances (vv. 3-5) was invalid, for it was based on the faulty assumption that the righteous are always blessed and the wicked always experience God's judgment on earth.

22:3-4 righteous . . . fear. The same Hebrew root words ("integrity" and "fear of God") had earlier been used by Eliphaz in his courteous remarks about Job (4:6). In these verses Eliphaz is being sarcastic.

22:6-9 naked . . . weary . . . widows. These trumped up charges were categorically denied by Job (29:11-17 ; 31:13-22), and God's own witness to Satan revealed to the reader that the charges were false (1:8).

22:18 the counsel of the wicked . . . is far from me. Eliphaz was repeating Job (21:16).

22:30 cleanliness of your hands. This was actually fulfilled through Job's prayer for the three friends (42:8-10).

23:13 unique. When Job contemplated the unique power and sovereign freedom of God, he was terrified (13:21).

24:2 remove the landmarks. Removing landmarks was tantamount to stealing land. The landmarks set boundaries, and moving them would have been like moving surveyor's stakes (Dt 27:17).

24:16 dig into [the penetrable walls of] houses. The walls of houses were built of mud bricks, through which thieves could dig.

24:24 brought low. Job was not so much arguing that the wicked would not prosper (vv. 18–25 ), as he was saying that everyone is brought low.

25:6 worm. What a contrast to the words of God (Ge 1:26–31 ) when He made humans in His own image and declared them “very good.” Bildad was conscious of the great gap between God and man, but unlike Job, he did not feel that he could make the connection of communication that Job was striving for.

26:4 whose spirit [inspired what] came forth from you. The contrast between Bildad’s comments about God (ch. 25 ) and Job’s worshipful declaration of God’s majesty (vv. 7–14 ) indicate the difference in the level of their understanding of who God is.

26:6 Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) is naked. This is the place of the dead and “destruction,” which were fearful hidden concepts to Job and his contemporaries, but they held no secrets for the all-knowing God.

26:7 hangs the earth on nothing. Job’s comments on the suspension of the earth, the manner of clouds (v. 8 ), and the horizon (v. 10 ) speak much for his powers of observation as well as the inspiration of Scripture.

27:2 who has caused bitterness and grief for my soul. Though Job repeatedly complained of a bitter spirit (7:11 ; 10:1 ), the Lord did not cause him to respond that way. Job’s responses only exposed the attitude that lay deep within his being. The message of the Lord for Job was that no matter what the circumstances, one should resolutely trust in God (40:8 ; 42:1–6 ).

27:5 admit you are right. Job maintained that his friends were erroneous in their reasoning, and to agree with them would be to compromise his integrity.

27:12 act vainly and foolishly. Job maintained that the actions of his friends were foolish, considering the knowledge of God that they should have had.

27:13 portion of a wicked man. Job likened the foolishness of his friends to wickedness, and indeed it is wicked to knowingly misrepresent God. The rest of the chapter is a satirical paraphrase of the friends’ teaching about the fate of the wicked (24:18–25 ), which Job has thrown back in his friends’ faces.

28:13–19 not. Every verse in this whole stanza has the Hebrew word for “not” at least once, stressing the absence of wisdom or even the desire for wisdom. The rhetorical questions concerning the whereabouts of wisdom and understanding (v. 12 ) receive an emphatic answer: not anywhere in the land of the living or dead.

28:28 fear of the LORD . To fear God is to acknowledge that God has the right to judge our actions for good or evil. Job had talked a lot about injustice and his innocence, but he was solidly aware that only God has wisdom, and in the end, his fear of the Lord was greater than his protestations of blamelessness.

29:12 rescued the poor. Considering Job’s account of his life when he was prosperous, Eliphaz’s accusations of Job sending the widows away empty and crushing the orphans (22:9 ) was a calculated insult.

29:14 put on righteousness . . . a turban. This vivid portrait of Job was a stark contrast to his present condition, with his flesh being “clothed” in worms and dust.

30:11 loosed His bowstring. A bow that is not strung up is not ready for use. This was a terrible contrast to his former life, described in 29:20 , where Job referred to himself as having his bowstring renewed. A bow that is being used has its string replaced regularly so that the bow can operate at its maximum strength.

30:21 might of Your hand. Job blamed God's strong hand, which Satan could not move, for calamities that were actually caused by the hand of Satan (1:11–12 ; 18–19 ).

31:5 If. The word “if” was a part of a formula used by accused persons to swear their innocence. The full oath formula was, in effect, “If I am guilty of this crime, may God impose that curse.” Because of hesitation about speaking a curse, the person swearing the oath would normally use an abbreviated version. By contrast, Job used the full formula four times, which demonstrated his confidence that he would be acquitted.

31:27 my hand threw a kiss from my mouth. This phrase refers to the apparent ancient custom of kissing the hand as a prelude to the superstitious and idolatrous act of throwing a kiss to the heavenly bodies.

32:1 righteous in his own eyes. Job's friends accused him of self-righteousness because of his denial of the sins they ascribed to him. Job considered himself blameless (and so did God), but he was not without sin. Job needed to see how he compared to God's utter holiness, in spite of the fact that he had none of the unconfessed sins that his friends accused him of.

32:2 indignation was kindled. Elihu's first mistake was in dealing with a delicate situation while he was angry. He did use the same arguments as the three friends, but he did not understand the whole situation any better than they did. Only the reader is aware of the counsel that took place in heaven (ch. 1 ).

33:12 in this you are not right or just. Elihu was correct in saying that God was not answerable to Job. God does not ever have to explain Himself to us, even though He often graciously does so. Job had great respect for God, and understood the fear of the Lord (28:28 ). He was persistent in asking God for an answer, and in the end, God did reply.

33:29–30 To bring his life back from the pit. Again, one of Job's advisors had some correct understanding of God, but he mistakenly applied it to Job. It is true that the chastening of pain or trouble sometimes causes men to turn to God and repent of wickedness. But Job's problem was not perverting what was right (v. 27 ). For him, the answer for the purpose of his pain could not be “to bring his life back from the pit.” Without claiming that Job was sin free, God had called him blameless and upright (1:8 ).

34:8 walks with wicked men. There was no justice in this charge against Job.

34:12 act wickedly . . . pervert justice. Elihu was unhappy with Job's persistent charges that God was unjust (9:22–24 ; 24:1–25 ), and this was a proper concern. The judge of all the earth will always do right (Rev 15:3 ).

34:16 hear this. As indicated by the singular Hebrew verb translated “hear,” Elihu was addressing Job directly in verses 16–33 .

34:24 breaks mighty men. Job was a mighty man who was broken. Elihu's implication is that Job was a worker of iniquity (v. 22 ).

34:37 adds rebellion . . . to his [unacknowledged] sin. Job was stubborn, but he was not rebellious. He was willing to accept punishment if he deserved it (31:5–6 ).

35:6 If you have sinned. This is the same argument used by Eliphaz (22:2 ). The point that Elihu was making here and through verse 8 , is that God's stature is not affected either by the sinfulness or righteousness of man. He cannot be diminished by sin nor made greater by righteousness. This is a true and important point. But it leaves out the understanding that God created man to be in His image, and He does care about the actions of man. God wants men to live blamelessly (ch. 1 ), and it is good to want to please God.

35:12 Pride— Elihu accused Job of pride because Job had declared his own righteousness (32:1 ). But Elihu's presumption and self-righteousness became even more excessive than Job's as he developed his pompous speech against Job (36:4 ). Later Elihu would understand that God had accepted Job, while his “friends” were condemned. Even knowledge about God and commitment to God can become a source of pride that blinds us to other things that God is doing, both in ourselves and in others. Go to Theological Notes Index

35:13 an empty cry. Elihu was assuming that Job had no answer from God because God knew that Job's cry was empty.

36:2 say on God's behalf. Elihu believed that he was speaking for God and that he was setting Job straight. It is interesting to note that God asked Job to pray for the other three friends (42:7-10), but no word, either of censure or praise, was said about Elihu.

36:6-14 does not prolong the life of the wicked. Elihu repeats the concept that the wicked are judged by being cut off and the repentant are rewarded.

36:23 You have done wrong. This is probably the most accurate warning that Elihu gives to Job. Even though Job was sure that God would vindicate his actions (and the reader knows that God saw Job as blameless and upright), he could not defend his position without telling God that He had done wrong. God cannot sin, nor will He tempt people to sin.

36:24 magnify God's work. This is the best advice that Elihu gave Job, and indeed, it was something that Job had already done (26:5-14; 28:1-28). Exalting God for who He is and what He has done is one of the best ways to gain perspective when we are in trouble or despair.

36:26 Behold, God is exalted. As Elihu begins to praise God, his anger with Job disappears, and he speaks accurately and joyfully of the things that he knows about God. From here to the end of chapter 37 Elihu is praising God. The speeches of Elihu are the most difficult of the friends' admonitions to analyze, and scholars are not in total agreement about which charges by Elihu are discerning and which charges are misapplied "conventional wisdom." Like all mixtures of truth and misunderstanding, Elihu's discourse needs careful sorting.

37:7 seals (brings to a standstill, stops) [by severe weather] the hand of every man. God uses the winter storm to stop man so that he cannot work, but instead may recognize the work of God.

37:12 guidance. This is a nautical term which literally means "steerings" or "rope-pullings" (Pr 15) and portrays God as the wise Captain who skillfully charts the course for the clouds, which respond obediently to His hand at the helm.

37:18 Strong as a molten mirror. Ancient mirrors were firm and unbreakable because they were made of polished bronze.

37:24 nor respect . . . wise in heart. Even though Elihu had claimed earlier to be one who "is perfect in knowledge" (36:4), he knew that God does not give preferential treatment, even to the wise.

38:2 words without knowledge. The theme of the first speech of the Lord is given here. Job did not know what he was talking about. God quite quickly points out that there is a wide gap in understanding between God and man. God was not saying that Job had sinned in the way that his friends had accused him, but He was saying that Job had been presumptuous with his superficial knowledge of divine things. Job, along with his friends, had to learn that suffering may serve a purpose known only to God. In that case, a follower of God will submit even to loss and trauma, without complaint, for the glory of God.

38:10 My [appointed] boundary. If God controls the sea and places boundaries on it, He can place boundaries on anything else that will affect mankind.

38:26 where no man lives. Though God utilizes meteorological elements to intervene in human affairs, He also uses them in areas that lie outside the human realm, for the sake of the land itself.

38:32 the Bear. This is a reference to the constellation known as Ursa Major, also called the Big Dipper or Great Bear.

39:1 Do you know. God continues His probing of Job. He has shown His control of the earth and seas, the elements and the heavens, and now He shows the splendor and mysteries of the wild forces of nature, which are also all in God's control.

39:5 loosed the bonds of the wild donkey. God shows his compassion even for beasts of burden. This contrasts sharply with Job's complaints about God not noticing the oppression by the wicked (24:1–12).

39:30 where the slain are, there is he. The animals that feed on the blood of the slain prevent the spread of disease. This too, is part of God's intricate plan.

[40:8 condemn Me \[your God\] that you may \[appear to\] be righteous.](#) Because Job had been arguing against the inflexible retribution dogma, which views suffering as God's punishment for sin, Job had to condemn God in order to maintain his own innocence.

40:15 Behemoth. Suggestions for the identity of this beast include the elephant, the hippopotamus, or a dinosaur. The name means "great beast," and the description most nearly fits a dinosaur, as neither the elephant nor the hippo has a tail like a cedar.

41:1 Leviathan. The identity of Leviathan, which is a transliteration for the Hebrew word "sea monster," or "sea serpent," is disputed. His description (vv. 12–18) sounds like the traditional dragon. He is a sea animal, an uncontrollable giant.

[42:4 instruct \[and answer\] me.](#) Job was completely done with his complaints of injustice. He knew that his presuppositions were wrong, and that he needed God's wisdom.

42:5 Conviction— Job was not convicted of a particular sin, but of too small a view of God. In the Bible, the revelation of the character and person of God is the criterion for proper self-evaluation (Isa 6:5). Job regretted that his trust in God had been so imperfect, for he now understood God in a new way. Go to Theological Notes Index

42:6 repent in dust and ashes. Dust and ashes were a sign of mourning. Job could not retract more fully.

42:7 spoken of Me . . . as My servant Job has. Even though God had just shown Job his presumption, God still validated Job's doggedly held position that God had not brought suffering on him because of sin in his life.

The Psalms

- AUTHOR: Seventy-five of the psalms in the book are designated as Davidic: 3–9 ; 11–32 ; 34–41 ; 51–65 ; 68–70 ; 86 ; 101 ; 103 ; 108–110 ; 122 ; 124 ; 131 ; 133 ; and 138–145 . The New Testament tells us that the “anonymous” psalms 2 and 95 were also written by David. In addition to these, 12 are by Asaph, a priest who headed the service of music; ten are by the sons of Korah, a guild of singers and composers; two are by Solomon, Israel’s most powerful king; one is by Moses; one by Heman, a wise man; and one is by Ethan, another wise man. The remaining fifty psalms are anonymous, but tradition attributes them to Ezra.
- TIMES: c. 1410–430 BC
- KEY VERSE: Ps 19:14
- THEME: A collection of songs that literally covers hundreds of years of Jewish history from the patriarchs down through the postexilic period, the Book of Psalms is practical and personal as well as scenic and magnificently beautiful. The Psalms teach us how to pray, how to grieve, how to rejoice, and how to worship. Any Christian who makes building a relationship with God a priority in his or her life will find great spiritual nourishment in the Psalms. It is the prayer book for all who believe in the God of the universe. Jesus used it as such, and so should we.

The following expressions occur often in the Psalms: Selah May mean Pause, Crescendo or Musical Interlude Maskil Possibly, Contemplative, or Didactic, or Skillful Psalm Mikhtam Possibly, Epigrammatic Poem, or Atonement Psalm Sheol The nether world

BOOK ONE

Psalm 1

The Righteous and the Wicked Contrasted.

1-BLESSED [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked [following their advice and example], ‡

Nor stand in the path of sinners,

Nor sit [down to rest] in the seat of scoffers (ridiculers). The Design and Message of the Psalter Messianic Psalms

2-But his delight is in the law of the LORD, ‡

And on His law [His precepts and teachings] he [habitually] meditates day and night.  [Rom 13:8–10 ; Gal 3:1–29 ; 2 Tim 3:16 ]

3-And he will be like a tree firmly planted [and fed] by streams of water, ‡

Which yields its fruit in its season;

Its leaf does not wither;

And in whatever he does, he prospers [and comes to maturity].  [Jer 17:7 , 8 ]

4 The wicked [those who live in disobedience to God's law] are not so, ‡

But they are like the chaff [worthless and without substance] which the wind blows away.

5 Therefore the wicked will not stand [unpunished] in the judgment,

Nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

6-For the LORD knows and fully approves the way of the righteous, ‡

But the way of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 2

The Reign of the LORD 's Anointed.

<sup>1</sup> WHY ARE the nations in an uproar [in turmoil against God], ‡
And why do the people devise a vain and hopeless plot?

<sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth take their stand;
And the rulers take counsel together Against the LORD and His Anointed (the Davidic King, the Messiah, the Christ), saying,  [Acts 4:25–27 ]

<sup>3</sup> “Let us break apart their [divine] bands [of restraint] ‡
And cast away their cords [of control] from us.”

<sup>4</sup> He who sits [enthroned] in the heavens laughs [at their rebellion]; ‡
The [Sovereign] Lord scoffs at them [and in supreme contempt
He mocks them].

<sup>5</sup> Then He will speak to them in His [profound] anger
And terrify them with His displeasure, saying,

<sup>6</sup> “Yet as for Me, I have anointed and firmly installed My King ‡
Upon Zion, My holy mountain.”

<sup>7</sup> “I will declare the decree of the LORD: ‡
He said to Me, ‘You are My Son;
This day [I proclaim] I have begotten You.  [2 Sam 7:14; Heb 1:5
; 3:5, 6; 2 Pet 1:17, 18 ]

<sup>8</sup> ‘Ask of Me, and I will assuredly give [You] the nations as Your inheritance, ‡
And the ends of the earth as Your possession.

<sup>9</sup> ‘You shall break them with a rod of iron;
You shall shatter them [in pieces] like earthenware.’ ”  [Rev 12:5
; 19:15 ]

<sup>10</sup> Now therefore, O kings, act wisely;
Be instructed and take warning, O leaders (judges, rulers) of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> Worship the LORD and serve Him with reverence [with awe-inspired fear and submissive wonder]; ‡

Rejoice [yet do so] with trembling.

<sup>12</sup> Kiss (pay respect to) the Son, so that He does not become angry, and you perish in the way, ‡

For His wrath may soon be kindled and set aflame.

How blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] are all those who take refuge in Him!

Psalm 3

Morning Prayer of Trust in God. ‡

A Psalm of David. When he fled from Absalom his son.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, how my enemies have increased! ‡

Many are rising up against me. Types of Hebrew Parallelism

<sup>2</sup> Many are saying of me, ‡

“There is no help [no salvation] for him in God.”

Selah.

<sup>3</sup> But You, O LORD, are a shield for me, ‡

My glory [and my honor], and the One who lifts my head.

<sup>4</sup> With my voice I was crying to the LORD, ‡

And He answered me from His holy mountain.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup> I lay down and slept [safely]; ‡

I awakened, for the LORD sustains me.

<sup>6</sup> I will not be intimidated or afraid of the ten thousands ‡

Who have set themselves against me all around.

<sup>7</sup> Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God! ‡

For You have struck all my enemies on the cheek;

You have shattered the teeth of the wicked.

<sup>8</sup> Salvation belongs to the LORD; ‡

May Your blessing be upon Your people.

Selah.

Psalm 4

Evening Prayer of Trust in God.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

1.ANSWER ME when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have freed me when I was hemmed in and relieved me when I was in distress;
Be gracious to me and hear [and respond to] my prayer.

2 O sons of men, how long will my honor and glory be [turned into] shame?
How long will you [my enemies] love worthless (vain, futile) things and seek deception and lies?

Selah.

3 But know that the LORD has set apart for Himself [and dealt wonderfully with] the godly man [the one of honorable character and moral courage—the one who does right]. ‡
The LORD hears and responds when I call to Him.

4.Tremble [with anger or fear], and do not sin; ‡
Meditate in your heart upon your bed and be still [reflect on your sin and repent of your rebellion].  [Eph 4:26 ]

Selah.

5 Offer righteous sacrifices; ‡
Trust [confidently] in the LORD.

6 Many are saying, “Oh, that we might see some good!” ‡
Lift up the light of Your face upon us, O LORD.

7.You have put joy in my heart, ‡
More than [others know] when their wheat and new wine have yielded abundantly.

8 In peace [and with a tranquil heart] I will both lie down and sleep, ‡
For You alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety and confident trust.

Psalm 5

Prayer for Protection from the Wicked.

To the Chief Musician; on wind instruments. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> LISTEN TO my words, O LORD,
Consider my groaning and sighing.

<sup>2</sup> Heed the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God, ‡
For to You I pray.

<sup>3</sup> In the morning, O LORD, You will hear my voice; ‡
In the morning I will prepare [a prayer and a sacrifice] for You and watch and wait [for You to speak to my heart].

<sup>4</sup> For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness;
No evil [person] dwells with You.

<sup>5</sup> The boastful and the arrogant will not stand in Your sight;
You hate all who do evil.

<sup>6</sup> You destroy those who tell lies; ‡
The LORD detests and rejects the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.
<sup>7</sup> But as for me, I will enter Your house through the abundance of Your steadfast love and tender mercy;
At Your holy temple I will bow [obediently] in reverence for You.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD, lead me in Your righteousness because of my enemies; ‡

Make Your way straight (direct, right) before me.

<sup>9</sup> For there is nothing trustworthy or reliable or truthful in what they say; ‡

Their heart is destruction [just a treacherous chasm, a yawning gulf of lies].

Their throat is an open grave;

They [glibly] flatter with their [silken] tongue.  [Rom 3:13. ]

<sup>10</sup> Hold them guilty, O God;

Let them fall by their own designs and councils!

Cast them out because of the abundance of their transgressions,
For they are mutinous and have rebelled against You.

<sup>11</sup> But let all who take refuge and put their trust in You rejoice, ‡
Let them ever sing for joy;
Because You cover and shelter them,
Let those who love Your name be joyful and exult in You.
<sup>12</sup> For You, O LORD, bless the righteous man [the one who is in right standing with You];
You surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

Prayer for Mercy in Time of Trouble. ‡

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, set [possibly] an octave below. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, do not rebuke or punish me in Your anger,
Nor discipline me in Your wrath.
<sup>2</sup> Have mercy on me and be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am weak (faint, frail); ‡
Heal me, O LORD, for my bones are dismayed and anguished.
<sup>3</sup> My soul [as well as my body] is greatly dismayed.
But as for You, O LORD—how long [until You act on my behalf]?

<sup>4</sup> Return, O LORD, rescue my soul;
Save me because of Your [unfailing] steadfast love and mercy.
<sup>5</sup> For in death there is no mention of You; ‡
In Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) who will praise
You and give You thanks?

<sup>6</sup> I am weary with my groaning;
Every night I soak my bed with tears,
I drench my couch with my weeping.
<sup>7</sup> My eye grows dim with grief; ‡
It grows old because of all my enemies.

<sup>8</sup> Depart from me, all you who do evil, ‡
For the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping.  [Matt 7:23 ;
Luke 13:27 ]
<sup>9</sup> The LORD has heard my supplication [my plea for grace];

The LORD receives my prayer.

<sup>10</sup> Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly horrified;
Let them turn back, let them suddenly be ashamed [of what they have done].

Psalm 7

The LORD Implored to Defend the Psalmist against the Wicked. ‡

An Ode of David, [perhaps in a wild, irregular, enthusiastic strain,] which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD my God, in You I take refuge; ‡
Save me and rescue me from all those who pursue me,
<sup>2</sup> So that my enemy will not tear me like a lion, ‡
Dragging me away while there is no one to rescue [me].

<sup>3</sup> O LORD my God, if I have done this, ‡
If there is injustice in my hands,
<sup>4</sup> If I have done evil to him who was at peace with me, ‡
Or without cause robbed him who was my enemy,
<sup>5</sup> Let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;
And let him trample my life to the ground
And lay my honor in the dust.

Selah.

<sup>6</sup> Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; ‡
Lift up Yourself against the rage of my enemies;
Rise up for me; You have commanded judgment and vindication.

<sup>7</sup> Let the assembly of the nations be gathered around You,
And return on high over them.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD judges the peoples; ‡
Judge me, O LORD, and grant me justice according to my righteousness and according to the integrity within me.

<sup>9</sup> Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous [those in right standing with You];
‡

For the righteous God tries the hearts and minds.  [Rev 2:23 ]

<sup>10</sup> My shield and my defense depend on God, ‡

Who saves the upright in heart.

<sup>11</sup> God is a righteous judge,
And a God who is indignant every day.

- <sup>12</sup>If a man does not repent, God will sharpen His sword; ‡
He has strung and bent His [mighty] bow and made it ready.
<sup>13</sup> He has also prepared [other] deadly weapons for Himself;
He makes His arrows fiery shafts [aimed at the unrepentant].
<sup>14</sup>Behold, the [wicked and irreverent] man is pregnant with sin, ‡
And he conceives mischief and gives birth to lies.
<sup>15</sup> He has dug a pit and hollowed it out, ‡
And has fallen into the [very] pit which he made [as a trap].
<sup>16</sup> His mischief will return on his own head, ‡
And his violence will come down on the top of his head [like loose dirt].
- <sup>17</sup> I will give thanks to the LORD according to His righteousness and justice,
And I will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

The LORD 's Glory and Man's Dignity. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to a Philistine lute [or perhaps to a particular Hittite tune]. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, our Lord, ‡
How majestic and glorious and excellent is Your name in all the earth!
You have displayed Your splendor above the heavens.
<sup>2</sup> Out of the mouths of infants and nursing babes You have established strength ‡
Because of Your adversaries,
That You might silence the enemy and make the revengeful cease.
 [Matt 21:15., 16. ]

<sup>3</sup> When I see and consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
‡
The moon and the stars, which You have established,

<sup>4</sup> What is man that You are mindful of him, ‡
And the son of [earthborn] man that You care for him?
<sup>5</sup> Yet You have made him a little lower than God,
And You have crowned him with glory and honor.
<sup>6</sup> You made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; ‡
You have put all things under his feet,  [1 Cor 15:27; Eph 1:22,
23; Heb 2:6-8 ]
<sup>7</sup> All sheep and oxen,
And also the beasts of the field,
<sup>8</sup> The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
Whatever passes through the paths of the seas.

<sup>9</sup> O LORD, our Lord, ‡
How majestic and glorious and excellent is Your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

A Psalm of Thanksgiving for God's Justice.

To the Chief Musician; on Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I WILL give thanks and praise the LORD, with all my heart;
I will tell aloud all Your wonders and marvelous deeds.
<sup>2</sup> I will rejoice and exult in you; ‡
I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.

<sup>3</sup> When my enemies turn back,
They stumble and perish before You.
<sup>4</sup> For You have maintained my right and my cause;
You have sat on the throne judging righteously.
<sup>5</sup> You have rebuked the nations, You have destroyed the wicked and unrepentant; ‡
You have wiped out their name forever and ever.
<sup>6</sup> The enemy has been cut off and has vanished in everlasting ruins,
You have uprooted their cities;
The very memory of them has perished.

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD will remain and sit enthroned forever; ‡
He has prepared and established His throne for judgment.  [Heb 1:11 ]

He will execute judgment for the nations with fairness (equity).  [Acts 17:31 ]

<sup>9</sup> The LORD also will be a refuge and a stronghold for the oppressed, ‡

A refuge in times of trouble;

<sup>10</sup> And those who know Your name [who have experienced Your precious mercy] will put their confident trust in You, ‡
For You, O LORD, have not abandoned those who seek You.  [Ps 42:1 ]

<sup>11</sup> Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion; ‡
Declare among the peoples His [great and wondrous] deeds.

<sup>12</sup> For He who avenges blood [unjustly shed] remembers them
(His people); ‡

He does not forget the cry of the afflicted and abused.

<sup>13</sup> Have mercy on me and be gracious to me, O LORD;
See how I am afflicted by those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death,

<sup>14</sup> That I may tell aloud all Your praises, ‡
That in the gates of the daughter of Zion (Jerusalem)
I may rejoice in Your salvation and Your help.

<sup>15</sup> The nations have sunk down in the pit which they have made; ‡
In the net which they hid, their own foot has been caught.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD has made Himself known; ‡
He executes judgment;
The wicked are trapped by the work of their own hands.

Higgaion (meditation) Selah.

<sup>17</sup> The wicked will turn to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead), ‡

Even all the nations who forget God.

<sup>18</sup> For the poor will not always be forgotten, ‡
Nor the hope of the burdened perish forever.

<sup>19</sup> Arise, O LORD, do not let man prevail;

Let the nations be judged before You.

<sup>20</sup> Put them in [reverent] fear of You, O LORD,
So that the nations may know they are but [frail and mortal] men.

Selah.

Psalm 10

A Prayer for the Overthrow of the Wicked.

<sup>1</sup> WHY DO You stand far away, O LORD?

Why do You hide [Yourself, veiling Your eyes] in times of trouble?

<sup>2</sup> In pride and arrogance the wicked hotly pursue and persecute the afflicted; ‡

Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

<sup>3</sup> For the wicked boasts and sings the praises of his heart's desire, ‡
And the greedy man curses and spurns [and even despises] the LORD.

All his thoughts are, "There is no God [so there is no accountability or punishment]."

<sup>5</sup> His ways prosper at all times;

Your judgments [LORD] are on high, out of his sight [so he never thinks about them];

As for all his enemies, he sneers at them.

<sup>6</sup> He says to himself, "I will not be moved; ‡

For throughout all generations I will not be in adversity [for nothing bad will happen to me]."

<sup>7</sup> His mouth is full of curses and deceit (fraud) and oppression; ‡
Under his tongue is mischief and wickedness [injustice and sin].

<sup>8</sup> He lurks in ambush in the villages;

In hiding places he kills the innocent;

He lies in wait for the unfortunate [the unhappy, the poor, the helpless].

<sup>9</sup> He lurks in a hiding place like a lion in his lair;
He lies in wait to catch the afflicted;
He catches the afflicted when he draws him into his net.

<sup>10</sup> He crushes [his prey] and crouches;
And the unfortunate fall by his mighty claws .

<sup>11</sup>. He says to himself, “God has [quite] forgotten; ‡
He has hidden His face; He will never see my deed.”

<sup>12</sup> Arise, O LORD! O God, lift up Your hand [in judgment]; ‡
Do not forget the suffering.

<sup>13</sup> Why has the wicked spurned and shown disrespect to God?
He has said to himself, “You will not require me to account.”

<sup>14</sup> You have seen it, for You have noted mischief and vexation
(irritation) to take it into Your hand. ‡
The unfortunate commits himself to You;
You are the helper of the fatherless.

<sup>15</sup> Break the arm of the wicked and the evildoer,
Seek out his wickedness until You find no more.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD is King forever and ever; ‡
The nations will perish from His land.

<sup>17</sup> O LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble and oppressed;
You will strengthen their heart, You will incline Your ear to hear, <sup>18</sup> To vindicate and obtain justice for the fatherless and the oppressed, ‡
So that man who is of the earth will no longer terrify them.

Psalm 11

The LORD a Refuge and Defense.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>IN THE LORD I take refuge [and put my trust]; ‡
How can you say to me, “Flee like a bird to your mountain;

<sup>2</sup> For look, the wicked are bending the bow; ‡
They take aim with their arrow on the string

To shoot [by stealth] in darkness at the upright in heart.

3.“If the foundations [of a godly society] are destroyed,‡
What can the righteous do?”

4 The LORD is in His holy temple; the LORD’s throne is in heaven.‡

His eyes see, His eyelids test the children of men.  [Acts 7:49; Rev 4:2 ]

5.The LORD tests the righteous and the wicked,‡
And His soul hates the [malevolent] one who loves violence.  [James 1:12 ]

6 Upon the wicked (godless) He will rain coals of fire;‡
Fire and brimstone and a dreadful scorching wind will be the portion of their cup [of doom].

7 For the LORD is [absolutely] righteous, He loves righteousness (virtue, morality, justice);‡
The upright shall see His face.

God, a Helper against the Treacherous.‡

To the Chief Musician; set an octave below. A Psalm of David.

1 SAVE AND help and rescue, LORD, for godly people cease to be, For the faithful vanish from among the sons of men.

2.They speak deceitful and worthless words to one another;‡ With flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, The tongue that speaks great things [in boasting];

4 Who have said, “With our tongue we will prevail; Our lips are our own; who is lord and master over us?”

5 “Because of the devastation of the afflicted, because of the groaning of the needy, Now I will arise,” says the LORD; “I will place him in the safety for which he longs.”

6.The words and promises of the LORD are pure words,‡ Like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times.

<sup>7</sup> You, O LORD, will preserve and keep them;
You will protect him from this [evil] generation forever.
<sup>8</sup> The wicked strut about [in pompous self-importance] on every side,
As vileness is exalted and baseness is prized among the sons of men.

Psalm 13

Prayer for Help in Trouble.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> HOW LONG, O LORD? Will You forget me forever? ‡
How long will You hide Your face from me?
<sup>2</sup> How long must I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart day after day?
How long will my enemy exalt himself and triumph over me?

<sup>3</sup> Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; ‡
Give light (life) to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death,
<sup>4</sup> And my enemy will say, “I have overcome him,”
And my adversaries will rejoice when I am shaken.

<sup>5</sup> But I have trusted and relied on and been confident in Your lovingkindness and faithfulness;
My heart shall rejoice and delight in Your salvation.
<sup>6</sup> I will sing to the LORD,
Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm 14

Folly and Wickedness of Men.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> THE [SPIRITUALLY ignorant] fool has said in his heart,
    “There is no God.” ‡
They are corrupt, they have committed repulsive and unspeakable deeds;

There is no one who does good.  [Rom 3:10. ]

<sup>2</sup> The LORD has looked down from heaven upon the children of men ‡

To see if there are any who understand (act wisely),
Who [truly] seek after God, [longing for His wisdom and guidance].

<sup>3</sup> They have all turned aside, together they have become corrupt;
There is no one who does good, not even one.  [Rom 3:11, 12. ]

<sup>4</sup> Have all the workers of wickedness and injustice no knowledge,
‡

Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call upon the LORD?

<sup>5</sup> There they tremble with great fear,
For God is with the [consistently] righteous generation.

<sup>6</sup> You [evildoers] shamefully plan against the poor, ‡
But the LORD is his safe refuge.

<sup>7</sup> Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! ‡

When the LORD restores His captive people,
Then Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.  [Rom 11:25–27. ]

Psalm 15

Description of a Citizen of Zion.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, who may lodge [as a guest] in Your tent? ‡
Who may dwell [continually] on Your holy hill?

<sup>2</sup> He who walks with integrity and strength of character, and works righteousness,

And speaks and holds truth in his heart.

<sup>3</sup> He does not slander with his tongue, ‡

Nor does evil to his neighbor,
Nor takes up a reproach against his friend;

<sup>4</sup> In his eyes an evil person is despised, ‡

But he honors those who fear the LORD [and obediently worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder].

He keeps his word even to his own disadvantage and does not change it [for his own benefit];

<sup>5</sup> He does not put out his money at interest [to a fellow Israelite], ‡
And does not take a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things will never be shaken.  [Ex 22:25, 26 ]

Psalm 16

The LORD , the Psalmist's Portion in Life and Deliverer in Death. ‡

A Mikhtam of David [probably intended to record memorable thoughts].

<sup>1</sup> KEEP AND protect me, O God, for in You I have placed my trust and found refuge.

I have no good besides You.”

<sup>3</sup> As for the saints (godly people) who are in the land,
They are the majestic and the noble and the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.

<sup>4</sup> The sorrows [pain and suffering] of those who have chosen another god will be multiplied [because of their idolatry]; ‡
I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood,
Nor will I take their names upon my lips.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is the portion of my inheritance, my cup [He is all I need];

You support my lot.

<sup>6</sup> The [boundary] lines [of the land] have fallen for me in pleasant places;
Indeed, my heritage is beautiful to me.

<sup>7</sup> I will bless the LORD who has counseled me;
Indeed, my heart (mind) instructs me in the night.

<sup>8</sup> I have set the LORD continually before me;
Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore my heart is glad and my glory [my innermost self] rejoices;

My body too will dwell [confidently] in safety,
10 For You will not abandon me to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead), ‡
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to undergo decay.  [Acts 13:35 ]
11 You will show me the path of life; ‡
In Your presence is fullness of joy;
In Your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.  [Acts 2:25–28, 31 ]

Psalm 17

Prayer for Protection against Oppressors.

A Prayer of David.

1 HEAR THE just (righteous) cause, O LORD; listen to my loud [piercing] cry;
Listen to my prayer, that comes from guileless lips.
2 Let my verdict of vindication come from Your presence;
May Your eyes look with equity and behold things that are just.
3. You have tried my heart; ‡
You have visited me in the night;
You have tested me and You find nothing [evil in me];
I intend that my mouth will not transgress.
4. Concerning the deeds of men, by the word of Your lips
I have kept away from the paths of the violent.
5 My steps have held closely to Your paths; ‡
My feet have not staggered.
6 I have called upon You, for You, O God, will answer me; ‡
Incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.
7 Wondrously show Your [marvelous and amazing]
lovingkindness,
O Savior of those who take refuge at Your right hand
From those who rise up against them.
8 Keep me [in Your affectionate care, protect me] as the apple of Your eye;

Hide me in the [protective] shadow of Your wings
⁹ From the wicked who despoil and deal violently with me,
My deadly enemies who surround me.
¹⁰ They have closed their unfeeling heart [to kindness and compassion]; ‡
With their mouths they speak proudly and make presumptuous claims.
¹¹ They track us down and have now surrounded us in our steps;
They set their eyes to force us to the ground,
¹² He is like a lion eager to tear [his prey],
And like a young lion lurking in hiding places.

¹³ Arise, O LORD, confront him, cast him down;
Save my soul from the wicked with Your sword,
¹⁴ From men with Your hand, O LORD,
From men of the world [these moths of the night] whose portion
[of enjoyment] is in this life—idle and vain,
And whose belly You fill with Your treasure;
They are satisfied with children,
And they leave what they have left [of wealth] to their children.
¹⁵ As for me, I shall see Your face in righteousness; ‡
I will be [fully] satisfied when I awake [to find myself] seeing Your likeness.

Psalm 18

David Praises the LORD for Rescuing Him. ‡

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said:

¹—I LOVE You [fervently and devotedly], O LORD, my strength.” ‡
² The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and the One who rescues me; ‡
My God, my rock and strength in whom I trust and take refuge;
My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower—my stronghold.  [Heb 2:13 ]

<sup>3</sup> I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; ‡
And I am saved from my enemies.  [Rev 5:12. ]

<sup>4</sup> The cords of death surrounded me, ‡
And the streams of ungodliness and torrents of destruction terrified me.

<sup>5</sup>-The cords of Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead) surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.

<sup>6</sup> In my distress [when I seemed surrounded] I called upon the LORD
And cried to my God for help;
He heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry for help came before Him, into His very ears.

<sup>7</sup> Then the earth shook and quaked, ‡
The foundations of the mountains trembled;
They were shaken because He was indignant and angry.

<sup>8</sup> Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And fire from His mouth devoured;
Coals were kindled by it.

<sup>9</sup> He bowed the heavens also and came down; ‡
And thick darkness was under His feet.

<sup>10</sup> And He rode upon a cherub (storm) and flew; ‡
And He sped on the wings of the wind.

(canopy) around Him, ‡
The darkness of the waters, the thick clouds of the skies.

<sup>12</sup> Out of the brightness before Him passed His thick clouds, ‡
Hailstones and coals of fire.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD also thundered in the heavens, ‡
And the Most High uttered His voice,
Hailstones and coals of fire.

<sup>14</sup> He sent out His arrows and scattered them; ‡
And He sent an abundance of lightning flashes and confused and routed them [in defeat].

<sup>15</sup> Then the stream beds of the waters appeared,
And the foundations of the world were laid bare

At Your rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

<sup>16</sup> He reached from on high, He took me; ‡
He drew me out of many waters.

<sup>17</sup> He rescued me from my strong enemy,
And from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

<sup>18</sup> They confronted me in the day of my disaster,
But the LORD was my support.

<sup>19</sup> He brought me out into a broad place; ‡
He rescued me because He was pleased with me and delighted in me.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD dealt with me according to my righteousness
(moral character, spiritual integrity); ‡

According to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me.

<sup>21</sup> For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.

<sup>22</sup> For all His ordinances were before me,
And I did not put away His statutes from me.

<sup>23</sup> I was blameless before Him,
And I kept myself free from my sin.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness (moral character, spiritual integrity), ‡
According to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

<sup>25</sup> With the kind (merciful, faithful, loyal) You show Yourself kind, ‡

With the blameless You show Yourself blameless,

<sup>26</sup> With the pure You show Yourself pure, ‡
And with the crooked You show Yourself astute.

<sup>27</sup> For You save an afflicted and humble people, ‡
But bring down those [arrogant fools] with haughty eyes.

<sup>28</sup> For You cause my lamp to be lighted and to shine; ‡
The LORD my God illuminates my darkness.

<sup>29</sup> For by You I can crush a troop,
And by my God I can leap over a wall.

- <sup>30</sup> As for God, His way is blameless. ‡
The word of the LORD is tested [it is perfect, it is faultless];
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
- <sup>31</sup> For who is God, but the LORD? ‡
Or who is a rock, except our God,
- <sup>32</sup> The God who encircles me with strength ‡
And makes my way blameless?
- <sup>33</sup> He makes my feet like hinds' feet [able to stand firmly and tread safely on paths of testing and trouble]; ‡
He sets me [securely] upon my high places.
- <sup>34</sup> He trains my hands for war, ‡
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- <sup>35</sup> You have also given me the shield of Your salvation,
And Your right hand upholds and sustains me;
Your gentleness [Your gracious response when I pray] makes me great.
- <sup>36</sup> You enlarge the path beneath me and make my steps secure, ‡
So that my feet will not slip.
- <sup>37</sup> I pursued my enemies and overtook them;
And I did not turn back until they were consumed.
- <sup>38</sup> I shattered them so that they were not able to rise;
They fell [wounded] under my feet.
- <sup>39</sup> For You have encircled me with strength for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
- <sup>40</sup> You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me [in defeat],
And I silenced and destroyed those who hated me.
- <sup>41</sup> They cried for help, but there was no one to save them— ‡
Even to the LORD [they cried], but He did not answer them.
- <sup>42</sup> Then I beat them fine as the dust before the wind; ‡
I emptied them out as the dirt of the streets.
- <sup>43</sup> You have rescued me from the contentions of the people; ‡
You have placed me as the head of the nations;
A people whom I have not known serve me.
- <sup>44</sup> As soon as they hear me, they respond and obey me;
Foreigners feign obedience to me.

<sup>45</sup> Foreigners lose heart, ‡
And come trembling out of their strongholds.

<sup>46</sup> The LORD lives, blessed be my rock;
And may the God of my salvation be exalted,

<sup>47</sup> The God who avenges me, ‡
And subdues peoples (nations) under me.

<sup>48</sup> He rescues me from my enemies; ‡
Yes, You lift me up above those who rise up against me;
You deliver me from the man of violence.

<sup>49</sup>. Therefore will I give thanks and praise You, O LORD, among the nations, ‡

And sing praises to Your name.  [Rom 15:9 ]

<sup>50</sup> He gives great triumphs to His king, ‡
And shows steadfast love and mercy to His anointed,
To David and his descendants forever.  [2 Sam 22:2–51 ]

Psalm 19

The Works and the Word of God.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> THE HEAVENS are telling of the glory of God; ‡
And the expanse [of heaven] is declaring the work of His hands.
 [Rom 1:20, 21 ]

<sup>2</sup> Day after day pours forth speech,
And night after night reveals knowledge.

<sup>3</sup> There is no speech, nor are there [spoken] words [from the stars];
Their voice is not heard.

<sup>4</sup>. Yet their voice [in quiet evidence] has gone out through all the earth, ‡

Their words to the end of the world.
In them and in the heavens He has made a tent for the sun,  [Rom 10:18 ]

<sup>5</sup> Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber; ‡
It rejoices as a strong man to run his course.

<sup>6</sup> The sun's rising is from one end of the heavens,
And its circuit to the other end of them;
And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

<sup>7</sup> The law of the LORD is perfect (flawless), restoring and refreshing the soul; ‡

The statutes of the LORD are reliable and trustworthy, making wise the simple.

The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

<sup>9</sup> The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever;
The judgments of the LORD are true, they are righteous altogether.

<sup>10</sup> They are more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb.

<sup>11</sup> Moreover, by them Your servant is warned [reminded, illuminated, and instructed];

In keeping them there is great reward.

<sup>12</sup> Who can understand his errors or omissions? Acquit me of hidden (unconscious, unintended) faults.

<sup>13</sup> Also keep back Your servant from presumptuous (deliberate, willful) sins;

Let them not rule and have control over me.

Then I will be blameless (complete),
And I shall be acquitted of great transgression.

<sup>14</sup> Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart ‡
Be acceptable and pleasing in Your sight,
O LORD, my [firm, immovable] rock and my Redeemer.

Psalm 20

Prayer for Victory over Enemies.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> MAY THE LORD answer you (David) in the day of trouble!
May the name of the God of Jacob set you securely on high [and defend you in battle]!

<sup>2</sup> May He send you help from the sanctuary (His dwelling place)
And support and strengthen you from Zion!

<sup>3</sup> May He remember all your meal offerings
And accept your burnt offering.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup> May He grant you your heart's desire
And fulfill all your plans.

<sup>5</sup>. We will sing joyously over your victory,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners.
May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

<sup>6</sup>. Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
He will answer him from His holy heaven
With the saving strength of His right hand.

<sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots and some in horses,
But we will remember and trust in the name of the LORD our God.

<sup>8</sup> They have bowed down and fallen,
But we have risen and stood upright.

<sup>9</sup> O LORD, save [the king];
May the King answer us in the day we call.

Psalm 21

Praise for Help.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD the king will delight in Your strength,
And in Your salvation how greatly will he rejoice!

<sup>2</sup>. You have given him his heart's desire,
And You have not withheld the request of his lips.

Selah.

<sup>3</sup> For You meet him with blessings of good things;
You set a crown of pure gold on his head.

<sup>4</sup> He asked life of You, ‡
And You gave it to him,

Long life forever and evermore.

<sup>5</sup> His glory is great because of Your victory;
Splendor and majesty You bestow upon him.

<sup>6</sup> For You make him most blessed [and a blessing] forever;
You make him joyful with the joy of Your presence.  [Gen 12:2 ]

<sup>7</sup> For the king [confidently] trusts in the LORD,
And through the lovingkindness (faithfulness, goodness) of the Most High he will never be shaken.

<sup>8</sup> Your hand will reach out and defeat all your enemies;
Your right hand will reach those who hate you.

<sup>9</sup> You will make them as [if in] a blazing oven in the time of your anger;
The LORD will swallow them up in His wrath,
And the fire will devour them.

<sup>10</sup> Their offspring You will destroy from the earth,
And their descendants from the sons of men.

<sup>11</sup> For they planned evil against You;
They devised a [malevolent] plot
And they will not succeed.

<sup>12</sup> For You will make them turn their backs [in defeat];
You will aim Your bowstring [of divine justice] at their faces.

<sup>13</sup> Be exalted, LORD, in Your strength;
We will sing and praise Your power.

Psalm 22

A Cry of Anguish and a Song of Praise.

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] Aijeleth Hashshahar (The Doe of the Dawn). A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> MY GOD, my God, why have You forsaken me? ‡
Why are You so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?  [Matt 27:46 ]

<sup>2</sup> O my God, I call out by day, but You do not answer;
And by night, but I find no rest nor quiet.

<sup>3</sup> But You are holy, ‡
O You who are enthroned in [the holy place where] the praises of Israel [are offered].

<sup>4</sup> In You our fathers trusted [leaned on, relied on, and were confident];

They trusted and You rescued them.

<sup>5</sup> They cried out to You and were delivered; ‡

They trusted in You and were not disappointed or ashamed.

<sup>6</sup> But I am [treated as] a worm [insignificant and powerless] and not a man; ‡

I am the scorn of men and despised by the people.  [Matt 27:39–44 ]

They [insultingly] open their lips, they shake their head, saying,  [Matt 27:43 ]

<sup>8</sup> “He trusted and committed himself to the LORD, let Him save him. ‡

Let Him rescue him, because He delights in him.”  [Matt 27:39 , 43; Mark 15:29 , 30; Luke 23:35 ]

<sup>9</sup> Yet You are He who pulled me out of the womb; ‡

You made me trust when on my mother’s breasts.

<sup>10</sup> I was cast upon You from birth; ‡

From my mother’s womb You have been my God.

<sup>11</sup> Do not be far from me, for trouble is near;

And there is no one to help.

Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me.  [Ezek 39:18 ; Amos 4:1 ]

<sup>13</sup> They open wide their mouths against me, ‡

Like a ravening and a roaring lion.

<sup>14</sup> I am poured out like water, ‡

And all my bones are out of joint.

My heart is like wax;

It is melted [by anguish] within me.

<sup>15</sup> My strength is dried up like a fragment of clay pottery; ‡

And my [dry] tongue clings to my jaws;

And You have laid me in the dust of death.  [John 19:28 ]

16. For [a pack of] dogs have surrounded me; ‡
A gang of evildoers has encircled me,
They pierced my hands and my feet.  [Is 53:7; John 19:37 ]

17 I can count all my bones; ‡
They look, they stare at me.  [Luke 23:27, 35. ]
18. They divide my clothing among them ‡
And cast lots for my garment.  [John 19:23, 24. ]

19 But You, O LORD, do not be far from me;
O You my help, come quickly to my assistance.
20 Rescue my life from the sword, ‡
My only life from the paw of the dog (the executioner).
21 Save me from the lion's mouth; ‡
From the horns of the wild oxen You answer me.

22 I will tell of Your name to my countrymen; ‡
In the midst of the congregation I will praise You.  [John 20:17;
Rom 8:29; Heb 2:12. ]

23 You who fear the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence], praise
Him! ‡
All you descendants of Jacob, honor Him.
Fear Him [with submissive wonder], all you descendants of Israel.
24 For He has not despised nor detested the suffering of the afflicted; ‡
Nor has He hidden His face from him;
But when he cried to Him for help, He listened.

25 My praise will be of You in the great assembly. ‡
I will pay my vows [made in the time of trouble] before those who [reverently] fear Him.

26 The afflicted will eat and be satisfied;
Those who [diligently] seek Him and require Him [as their greatest need] will praise the LORD.
May your hearts live forever!
27. All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD,
And all the families of the nations will bow down and worship before You,

<sup>28</sup> For the kingship and the kingdom are the LORD's ‡
And He rules over the nations.

<sup>29</sup> All the prosperous of the earth will eat and worship; ‡
All those who go down to the dust (the dead) will bow before
Him,
Even he who cannot keep his soul alive.

<sup>30</sup> Posterity will serve Him; ‡
They will tell of the Lord to the next generation.

<sup>31</sup> They will come and declare His righteousness ‡
To a people yet to be born—that He has done it [and that it is finished].  [John 19:30 ]

Psalm 23

The LORD , the Psalmist's Shepherd.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>-THE LORD is my Shepherd [to feed, to guide and to shield me],  [Ezek 34:11–31 ] ‡

I shall not want.

<sup>2</sup> He lets me lie down in green pastures; ‡
He leads me beside the still and quiet waters.  [Rev 7:17 ]

<sup>3</sup> He refreshes and restores my soul (life); ‡
He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

<sup>4</sup> Even though I walk through the [unless] valley of the shadow of death, ‡

I fear no evil, for You are with me;
Your rod [to protect] and Your staff [to guide], they comfort and console me.

<sup>5</sup> You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. ‡
You have anointed and refreshed my head with oil;
My cup overflows.

<sup>6</sup> Surely goodness and mercy and unfailing love shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell forever [throughout all my days] in the house and in the presence of the LORD.

Psalm 24

The King of Glory Entering Zion.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> THE EARTH is the LORD's, and the fullness of it, ‡
The world, and those who dwell in it.  [1 Cor 10:26 ]

<sup>2</sup> For He has founded it upon the seas
And established it upon the streams and the rivers.

<sup>3</sup> Who may ascend onto the mountain of the LORD? ‡
And who may stand in His holy place?

<sup>4</sup> He who has clean hands and a pure heart, ‡
Who has not lifted up his soul to what is false,
Nor has sworn [oaths] deceitfully.  [Matt 5:8 ]

<sup>5</sup> He shall receive a blessing from the LORD,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

<sup>6</sup> This is the generation (description) of those who diligently seek Him and require Him as their greatest need, ‡
Who seek Your face, even [as did] Jacob.  [Ps 42:1 ]

Selah.

<sup>7</sup> Lift up your heads, O gates, ‡
And be lifted up, ancient doors,
That the King of glory may come in.

<sup>8</sup> Who is the King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.

<sup>9</sup> Lift up your heads, O gates,
And lift them up, ancient doors,
That the King of glory may come in.

<sup>10</sup> Who is [He then] this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts,
He is the King of glory [who rules over all creation with His heavenly armies].

Selah.

Psalm 25

Prayer for Protection, Guidance and Pardon.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>2</sup> O my God, in You I [have unwavering] trust [and I rely on You with steadfast confidence], ‡

Do not let me be ashamed or my hope in You be disappointed;

Do not let my enemies triumph over me.

<sup>3</sup>Indeed, none of those who [expectantly] wait for You will be ashamed;

Those who turn away from what is right and deal treacherously without cause will be ashamed (humiliated, embarrassed).

<sup>4</sup> Let me know Your ways, O LORD; ‡

Teach me Your paths.

<sup>5</sup> Guide me in Your truth and teach me,

For You are the God of my salvation;

For You [and only You] I wait [expectantly] all the day long.

<sup>6</sup> Remember, O LORD, Your [tender] compassion and Your lovingkindnesses, ‡

For they have been from of old.

<sup>7</sup>Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions; ‡

According to Your lovingkindness remember me,

For Your goodness' sake, O LORD.

<sup>8</sup> Good and upright is the LORD;

Therefore He instructs sinners in the way.

<sup>9</sup> He leads the humble in justice,

And He teaches the humble His way.

<sup>10</sup> All the paths of the LORD are lovingkindness and goodness and truth and faithfulness

To those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.

<sup>11</sup> For Your name's sake, O LORD, ‡

Pardon my wickedness and my guilt, for they are great.

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man who fears the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence and worships Him with submissive wonder]? ‡
He will teach him [through His word] in the way he should choose.

<sup>13</sup> His soul will dwell in prosperity and goodness, ‡
And his descendants will inherit the land.

And He will let them know His covenant and reveal to them [through His word] its [deep, inner] meaning.  [John 7:17 ; 15:15. ]

<sup>15</sup> My eyes are continually toward the LORD, ‡
For He will bring my feet out of the net.

<sup>16</sup> Turn to me [LORD] and be gracious to me, ‡
For I am alone and afflicted.

<sup>17</sup> The troubles of my heart are multiplied;
Bring me out of my distresses.

<sup>18</sup> Look upon my affliction and my trouble, ‡
And forgive all my sins.

<sup>19</sup> Look upon my enemies, for they are many;
They hate me with cruel and violent hatred.

<sup>20</sup> Guard my soul and rescue me;
Do not let me be ashamed or disappointed,
For I have taken refuge in You.

<sup>21</sup> Let integrity and uprightness protect me,
For I wait [expectantly] for You.

<sup>22</sup> O God, redeem Israel, ‡
Out of all his troubles.

Psalm 26

Protestation of Integrity and Prayer for Protection. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> VINDICATE ME, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity; ‡
I have [relied on and] trusted [confidently] in the LORD without wavering and I shall not slip.

<sup>2</sup> Examine me, O LORD, and try me; ‡

Test my heart and my mind.

<sup>3</sup> For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes, ‡

And I have walked [faithfully] in Your truth.

<sup>4</sup> I do not sit with deceitful or unethical or worthless men, ‡

Nor seek companionship with pretenders (self-righteous hypocrites).

<sup>5</sup> I hate the company of evildoers, ‡

And will not sit with the wicked.

<sup>6</sup> I will wash my hands in innocence, ‡

And I will go about Your altar, O LORD,

<sup>7</sup> That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving

And declare all Your wonders.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD, I love the habitation of Your house ‡

And the place where Your glory dwells.

<sup>9</sup> Do not sweep my soul away with sinners, ‡

Nor [sweep away] my life with men of bloodshed,

<sup>10</sup> In whose hands is a wicked scheme, ‡

And whose right hand is full of bribes.

<sup>11</sup> But as for me, I shall walk in my integrity;

Redeem me and be merciful and gracious to me.

<sup>12</sup> My foot stands on a level place; ‡

In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalm 27

A Psalm of Fearless Trust in God.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> THE LORD is my light and my salvation— ‡

Whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the refuge and fortress of my life—

Whom shall I dread?

<sup>2</sup> When the wicked came against me to eat up my flesh, ‡

My adversaries and my enemies, they stumbled and fell.

<sup>3</sup> Though an army encamp against me, ‡
My heart will not fear;
Though war arise against me,
Even in this I am confident.

<sup>4</sup> One thing I have asked of the LORD, and that I will seek: ‡
That I may dwell in the house of the LORD [in His presence] all the days of my life,
To gaze upon the beauty [the delightful loveliness and majestic grandeur] of the LORD
And to meditate in His temple.  [Ps 16:11 ; 18:6 ; 65:4 ; Luke 2:37

<sup>5</sup> For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His shelter; ‡
In the secret place of His tent He will hide me;
He will lift me up on a rock.

<sup>6</sup> And now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me, ‡
In His tent I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud;
Be gracious and compassionate to me and answer me.

<sup>8</sup> When You said, “Seek My face [in prayer, require My presence as your greatest need],” my heart said to You, “Your face, O LORD, I will seek [on the authority of Your word].”

Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not abandon me nor leave me,
O God of my salvation!

<sup>10</sup> Although my father and my mother have abandoned me, ‡
Yet the LORD will take me up [adopt me as His child].  [Ps 22:10

<sup>11</sup> Teach me Your way, O LORD, ‡
And lead me on a level path
Because of my enemies [who lie in wait].

- <sup>12</sup> Do not give me up to the will of my adversaries,
For false witnesses have come against me;
They breathe out violence.
- <sup>13</sup> I would have despaired had I not believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD ‡
In the land of the living.
- <sup>14</sup> Wait for and confidently expect the LORD;
Be strong and let your heart take courage;
Yes, wait for and confidently expect the LORD.

Psalm 28

A Prayer for Help, and Praise for Its Answer.

A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> TO YOU I call, O LORD, ‡
My rock, do not be deaf to me,
For if You are silent to me,
I will become like those who go down to the pit (grave).
- <sup>2</sup> Hear the voice of my supplication (specific requests, humble entreaties) as I cry to You for help, ‡
As I lift up my hands and heart toward Your innermost sanctuary (Holy of Holies).
- <sup>3</sup> Do not drag me away with the wicked ‡
And with those who do evil,
Who speak peace with their neighbors,
While malice and mischief are in their hearts.
- <sup>4</sup> Repay them according to their work and according to the evil of their practices; ‡
Repay them according to the deeds of their hands;
Repay them what they deserve.  [2 Tim 4:14; Rev 18:6 ]
- <sup>5</sup> Because they have no regard for the works of the LORD ‡
Nor the deeds of His hands,
He will tear them down and not rebuild them.
- <sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD,
Because He has heard the voice of my supplication.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is my strength and my [impenetrable] shield; ‡
My heart trusts [with unwavering confidence] in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
And with my song I shall thank Him and praise Him.
<sup>8.</sup> The LORD is their [unyielding] strength, ‡
And He is the fortress of salvation to His anointed.
<sup>9</sup> Save Your people and bless Your inheritance; ‡
Be their shepherd also, and carry them forever.

Psalm 29

The Voice of the LORD in the Storm.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1.</sup> ASCRIBE TO the LORD, O sons of the mighty, ‡
Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
<sup>2.</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; ‡ Worship the LORD in the beauty and majesty of His holiness [as the creator and source of holiness].

<sup>3</sup> The voice of the LORD is upon the waters; ‡
The God of glory thunders;
The LORD is over many waters.
<sup>4</sup> The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
<sup>5</sup> The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; ‡
Yes, the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
<sup>6</sup> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, ‡
And Sirion (Mount Hermon) like a young, wild ox.
<sup>7</sup> The voice of the LORD rakes flames of fire (lightning).
<sup>8</sup> The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; ‡
The LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
<sup>9</sup> The voice of the LORD makes the doe labor and give birth
And strips the forests bare;
And in His temple all are saying, “Glory!”

10 The LORD sat as King at the flood; ‡
Yes, the LORD sits as King forever.
11 The LORD will give [unyielding and impenetrable] strength to His people; ‡
The LORD will bless His people with peace.

Psalm 30

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death. ‡

A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House (Temple). A Psalm of David.

1 I WILL extol and praise You, O LORD, for You have lifted me up, ‡
And have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
2 O LORD my God,
I cried to You for help, and You have healed me.
3 O LORD, You have brought my life up from Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead); ‡
You have kept me alive, so that I would not go down to the pit (grave).
4 Sing to the LORD, O you His godly ones,
And give thanks at the mention of His holy name.
5 For His anger is but for a moment, ‡
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may endure for a night,
But a shout of joy comes in the morning.  [2 Cor 4:17 ]

6 As for me, in my prosperity I said,
“I shall never be moved.”
7 By Your favor and grace, O LORD, you have made my mountain stand strong; ‡
You hid Your face, and I was horrified.
8 I called to You, O LORD,
And to the Lord I made supplication (specific request).
9 “What profit is there in my blood (death), if I go down to the pit (grave)? ‡
Will the dust praise You? Will it declare Your faithfulness [to man]?

10.“Hear, O LORD, be gracious and show favor to me;
O LORD, be my helper.”

11 You have turned my mourning into dancing for me;
You have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,
12 That my soul may sing praise to You and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Psalm 31

A Psalm of Complaint and of Praise.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 IN YOU, O LORD, I have placed my trust and taken refuge; ‡
Let me never be ashamed;
In Your righteousness rescue me.

2 Incline Your ear to me, deliver me quickly; ‡
Be my rock of refuge,
And a strong fortress to save me.

3 Yes, You are my rock and my fortress; ‡
For Your name’s sake You will lead me and guide me.

4 You will draw me out of the net that they have secretly laid for me,
For You are my strength and my stronghold.

5 Into Your hand I commit my spirit; ‡
You have redeemed me, O LORD, the God of truth and faithfulness.  [Luke 23:46; Acts 7:59 ]

6 I hate those who pay regard to vain (empty, worthless) idols; ‡
But I trust in the LORD [and rely on Him with unwavering confidence].

7 I will rejoice and be glad in Your steadfast love, ‡
Because You have seen my affliction;
You have taken note of my life’s distresses,

8 And You have not given me into the hand of the enemy; ‡
You have set my feet in a broad place.

<sup>9</sup> Be gracious and compassionate to me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; ‡

My eye is clouded and weakened by grief, my soul and my body also.

<sup>10</sup> For my life is spent with sorrow

And my years with sighing;

My strength has failed because of my iniquity,

And even my body has wasted away.

<sup>11</sup> Because of all my enemies I have become a reproach and disgrace, ‡

Especially to my neighbors,

And an object of dread to my acquaintances;

Those who see me on the street run from me.

<sup>12</sup> I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; ‡

I am like a broken vessel.

<sup>13</sup> For I have heard the slander and whispering of many, ‡

Terror is on every side;

While they schemed together against me,

They plotted to take away my life.  [Jer 20:10 ]

<sup>14</sup> But as for me, I trust [confidently] in You and Your greatness, O LORD;

I said, “You are my God.”

<sup>15</sup> My times are in Your hands;

Rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from those who pursue and persecute me.

<sup>16</sup> Make Your face shine upon Your servant; ‡

Save me in Your lovingkindness.

<sup>17</sup> Let me not be put to shame, O LORD, for I call on You; ‡

Let the wicked (godless) be put to shame, let them be silent in Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead).

<sup>18</sup> Let the lying lips be mute, ‡

Which speak insolently and arrogantly against the [consistently] righteous

With pride and contempt.

<sup>19</sup> How great is Your goodness, ‡

Which You have stored up for those who [reverently] fear You,

Which You have prepared for those who take refuge in You,

Before the sons of man!

<sup>20</sup> In the secret place of Your presence You hide them from the plots and conspiracies of man; ‡

You keep them secretly in a shelter (pavilion) from the strife of tongues.

<sup>21</sup> Blessed be the LORD, ‡

For He has shown His marvelous favor and lovingkindness to me [when I was assailed] in a besieged city.

22. As for me, I said in my alarm, ‡

“I am cut off from Your eyes.”

Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications (specific requests)

When I cried to You [for help].

<sup>23</sup> O love the LORD, all you His godly ones! ‡

The LORD preserves the faithful [those with moral and spiritual integrity]

And fully repays the [self-righteousness of the] arrogant.

<sup>24</sup> Be strong and let your hearts take courage, ‡

All you who wait for and confidently expect the LORD.

Psalm 32

Blessedness of Forgiveness and of Trust in God.

A Psalm of David. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem.

<sup>1</sup>. BLESSED [FORTUNATE, prosperous, favored by God] is he whose transgression is forgiven, ‡

And whose sin is covered.

And in whose spirit there is no deceit.  [Rom 4:7, 8 ]

<sup>3</sup>. When I kept silent about my sin, my body wasted away Through my groaning all the day long.

<sup>4</sup> For day and night Your hand [of displeasure] was heavy upon me; ‡

My energy (vitality, strength) was drained away as with the burning heat of summer.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>I acknowledged my sin to You, ‡
And I did not hide my wickedness;
I said, “I will confess [all] my transgressions to the LORD”;
And You forgave the guilt of my sin.

Selah.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, let everyone who is godly pray to You [for forgiveness] in a time when You [are near and] may be found; ‡
Surely when the great waters [of trial and distressing times] overflow they will not reach [the spirit in] him.

<sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place; You, LORD, protect me from trouble;
‡

You surround me with songs and shouts of deliverance.

Selah.

<sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you [who are willing to learn] with My eye upon you.

<sup>9</sup>Do not be like the horse or like the mule which have no understanding, ‡

Whose trappings include bridle and rein to hold them in check,
Otherwise they will not come near to you.

<sup>10</sup> Many are the sorrows of the wicked, ‡
But he who trusts in and relies on the LORD shall be surrounded with compassion and lovingkindness.

<sup>11</sup> Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous [who actively seek right standing with Him]; ‡
Shout for joy, all you upright in heart.

Psalm 33

Praise to the Creator and Preserver.

<sup>1</sup> REJOICE IN the LORD, you righteous ones; ‡ Praise is becoming and appropriate for those who are upright [in heart—those with moral integrity and godly character].

- <sup>2</sup> Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre; ‡
Sing praises to Him with the harp of ten strings.
- <sup>3</sup> Sing to Him a new song; ‡
Play skillfully [on the strings] with a loud and joyful sound.
- <sup>4</sup> For the word of the LORD is right;
And all His work is done in faithfulness.
- <sup>5</sup> He loves righteousness and justice; ‡
The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, ‡
And all their host by the breath of His mouth.  [Gen 1:1–3; Job 38:4–11; Heb 11:3; 2 Pet 3:5 ]
- <sup>7</sup> He gathers the waters of the sea together as in a wineskin; ‡
He puts the deeps in storehouses.
- <sup>8</sup> Let all the earth fear and worship the LORD;
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.
- <sup>9</sup> For He spoke, and it was done; ‡
He commanded, and it stood fast.
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD nullifies the counsel of the nations; ‡
He makes the thoughts and plans of the people ineffective.
- <sup>11</sup> The counsel of the LORD stands forever, ‡
The thoughts and plans of His heart through all generations.
- <sup>12</sup> Blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the nation whose God is the LORD, ‡
The people whom He has chosen as His own inheritance.  [Deut 32:8, 9 ]
- <sup>13</sup> The LORD looks [down] from heaven; ‡
He sees all the sons of man;
- <sup>14</sup> From His dwelling place He looks closely Upon all the inhabitants of the earth—
- <sup>15</sup> He who fashions the hearts of them all, ‡
Who considers and understands all that they do.
- <sup>16</sup> The king is not saved by the great size of his army; ‡
A warrior is not rescued by his great strength.
- <sup>17</sup> A horse is a false hope for victory; ‡
Nor does it deliver anyone by its great strength.

<sup>18</sup>Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear Him [and worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and obedience], ‡

On those who hope [confidently] in His compassion and lovingkindness,

<sup>19</sup>To rescue their lives from death ‡

And keep them alive in famine.

<sup>20</sup>We wait [expectantly] for the LORD; ‡

He is our help and our shield.

<sup>21</sup>For in Him our heart rejoices, ‡

Because we trust [lean on, rely on, and are confident] in His holy name.

<sup>22</sup>Let Your [steadfast] lovingkindness, O LORD, be upon us,

In proportion as we have hoped in You.

Psalm 34

The LORD , a Provider and the One Who Rescues Me.

A Psalm of David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him out, and he went away.

<sup>1</sup>I WILL bless the LORD at all times; ‡

His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

<sup>2</sup>My soul makes its boast in the LORD; ‡

The humble and downtrodden will hear it and rejoice.

<sup>3</sup>O magnify the LORD with me, ‡

And let us lift up His name together.

<sup>4</sup>I sought the LORD [on the authority of His word], and He answered me, ‡

And delivered me from all my fears.  [Ps 73:25; Matt 7:7 ]

<sup>5</sup>They looked to Him and were radiant;

Their faces will never blush in shame or confusion.

<sup>6</sup>This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him ‡

And saved him from all his troubles.

And He rescues [each of] them.  [2 Kin 6:8–23 ; Ps 18:1 ; 145:20 ]

<sup>8</sup> O taste and see that the LORD [our God] is good; ‡
How blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who takes refuge in Him.  [1 Pet 2:2 , 3 ]

<sup>9</sup> O [reverently] fear the LORD, you His saints (believers, holy ones);

For to those who fear Him there is no want.

<sup>10</sup> The young lions lack [food] and grow hungry, ‡
But they who seek the LORD will not lack any good thing.

<sup>11</sup> Come, you children, listen to me; ‡
I will teach you to fear the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence and worship Him with obedience].

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man who desires life ‡
And loves many days, that he may see good?

<sup>13</sup> Keep your tongue from evil
And your lips from speaking deceit.

<sup>14</sup> Turn away from evil and do good; ‡
Seek peace and pursue it.

<sup>15</sup> The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous [those with moral courage and spiritual integrity] ‡

And His ears are open to their cry.

<sup>16</sup> The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
To cut off the memory of them from the earth.  [1 Pet 3:10–12 ]

<sup>17</sup> When the righteous cry [for help], the LORD hears ‡
And rescues them from all their distress and troubles.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD is near to the heartbroken ‡
And He saves those who are crushed in spirit (contrite in heart, truly sorry for their sin).

<sup>19</sup> Many hardships and perplexing circumstances confront the righteous, ‡

But the LORD rescues him from them all.

<sup>20</sup> He keeps all his bones; ‡
Not one of them is broken.  [John 19:33 , 36 ]

<sup>21</sup> Evil will cause the death of the wicked,
And those who hate the righteous will be held guilty and will be condemned.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD redeems the soul of His servants,‡
And none of those who take refuge in Him will be condemned.

Psalm 35

Prayer for Rescue from Enemies.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> CONTEND, O LORD, with those who contend with me;‡
Fight against those who fight against me.

<sup>2</sup> Take hold of shield and buckler (small shield),‡
And stand up for my help.

<sup>3</sup> Draw also the spear and javelin to meet those who pursue me.
Say to my soul, “I am your salvation.”

<sup>4</sup> Let those be ashamed and dishonored who seek my life;‡
Let those be turned back [in defeat] and humiliated who plot evil against me.

<sup>5</sup> Let them be [blown away] like chaff before the wind [worthless, without substance],‡
With the angel of the LORD driving them on.

<sup>6</sup> Let their way be dark and slippery,‡
With the angel of the LORD pursuing and harassing them.

<sup>7</sup> For without cause they hid their net for me;‡
Without cause they dug a pit [of destruction] for my life.

<sup>8</sup> Let destruction come upon my enemy by surprise;‡
Let the net he hid for me catch him;
Into that very destruction let him fall.

<sup>9</sup> Then my soul shall rejoice in the LORD;
It shall rejoice in His salvation.

<sup>10</sup> All my bones will say, “LORD, who is like You,‡
Who rescues the afflicted from him who is too strong for him [to resist alone],

And the afflicted and the needy from him who robs him?”

<sup>11</sup> Malicious witnesses rise up;
They ask me of things that I do not know.

<sup>12</sup> They repay me evil for good; ‡

To the sorrow of my soul.

<sup>13</sup> But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth (mourning garment); ‡

I humbled my soul with fasting,

And I prayed with my head bowed on my chest.

<sup>14</sup> I behaved as if grieving for my friend or my brother;

I bowed down in mourning, as one who sorrows for his mother.

<sup>15</sup> But in my stumbling they rejoiced and gathered together [against me]; ‡

The slanderers whom I did not know gathered against me;

They slandered and reviled me without ceasing.

<sup>16</sup> Like godless jesters at a feast, ‡

They gnashed at me with their teeth [in malice].

<sup>17</sup> LORD, how long will You look on [without action]? ‡

Rescue my life from their destructions,

My only life from the young lions.

<sup>18</sup> I will give You thanks in the great congregation;

I will praise You among a mighty people.

<sup>19</sup> Do not let those who are wrongfully my enemies rejoice over me; ‡

Nor let those who hate me without cause wink their eye
[maliciously].  [John 15:24, 25. ]

<sup>20</sup> For they do not speak peace,

But they devise deceitful words [half-truths and lies] against those who are quiet in the land.

<sup>21</sup> They open their mouths wide against me; ‡

They say, “Aha, aha, our eyes have seen it!”

<sup>22</sup> You have seen this, O LORD; do not keep silent. ‡

O Lord, do not be far from me.

<sup>23</sup> Wake Yourself up, and arise to my right ‡

And to my cause, my God and my Lord.

<sup>24</sup> Judge me, O LORD my God, according to Your righteousness and justice; ‡

And do not let them rejoice over me.

<sup>25</sup> Do not let them say in their heart, “Aha, that is what we wanted!” ‡

Do not let them say, “We have swallowed him up and destroyed him.”

<sup>26</sup>Let those be ashamed and humiliated together who rejoice at my distress; ‡

Let those be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves over me.

Let them say continually, “Let the LORD be magnified, who delights and takes pleasure in the prosperity of His servant.”

<sup>28</sup> And my tongue shall declare Your righteousness (justice),
And Your praise all the day long.

Psalm 36

Wickedness of Men and Lovingkindness of God.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

<sup>1</sup> TRANSGRESSION SPEAKS [like an oracle] to the wicked (godless) [deep] within his heart; ‡

There is no fear (dread) of God before his eyes.  [Rom 3:18 ]

<sup>2</sup> For he flatters and deceives himself in his own eyes Thinking that his sinfulness will not be discovered and hated [by God].

<sup>3</sup> The words of his mouth are wicked and deceitful;
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.

<sup>4</sup> He plans wrongdoing on his bed;
He sets himself on a path that is not good;
He does not reject or despise evil.

<sup>5</sup> Your lovingkindness and graciousness, O LORD, extend to the skies,

Your faithfulness [reaches] to the clouds.

<sup>6</sup> Your righteousness is like the mountains of God,
Your judgments are like the great deep.

O LORD, You preserve man and beast.

The children of men take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.

<sup>8</sup> They drink their fill of the abundance of Your house; ‡

And You allow them to drink from the river of Your delights.

<sup>9</sup> For with You is the fountain of life [the fountain of life-giving water]; ‡

In Your light we see light.  [John 4:10, 14 ]

<sup>10</sup> O continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,
And Your righteousness (salvation) to the upright in heart.

<sup>11</sup> Do not let the foot of the proud [person] overtake me,
And do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

<sup>12</sup> There those who [are perverse and] do evil have fallen;
They have been thrust down and cannot rise.

Psalm 37

Security of Those Who Trust in the LORD , and Insecurity of the Wicked.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>DO NOT worry because of evildoers, ‡

Nor be envious toward wrongdoers;

<sup>2</sup> For they will wither quickly like the grass, ‡

And fade like the green herb.

<sup>3</sup> Trust [rely on and have confidence] in the LORD and do good;
Dwell in the land and feed [securely] on His faithfulness.

<sup>4</sup> Delight yourself in the LORD, ‡

And He will give you the desires and petitions of your heart.

<sup>5</sup> Commit your way to the LORD; ‡

Trust in Him also and He will do it.

<sup>6</sup> He will make your righteousness [your pursuit of right standing with God] like the light, ‡

And your judgment like [the shining of] the noonday [sun].

<sup>7</sup> Be still before the LORD; wait patiently for Him and entrust yourself to Him; ‡

Do not fret (whine, agonize) because of him who prospers in his way,

Because of the man who carries out wicked schemes.

<sup>8</sup> Cease from anger and abandon wrath; ‡

Do not fret; it leads only to evil.

But those who wait for the LORD, they will inherit the land.  [Is 57:13c ]

<sup>10</sup> For yet a little while and the wicked one will be gone [forever];
‡

Though you look carefully where he used to be, he will not be [found].  [Heb 10:36, 37; Rev 21:7, 8 ]

And will delight themselves in abundant prosperity and peace.  [Ps 37:29; Matt 5:5. ]

<sup>12</sup> The wicked plots against the righteous ‡

And gnashes at him with his teeth.

13—The Lord laughs at him [the wicked one—the one who oppresses the righteous], ‡

For He sees that his day [of defeat] is coming.

<sup>14</sup> The wicked have drawn the sword and bent their bow

To cast down the afflicted and the needy,

To slaughter those who are upright in conduct [those with personal integrity and godly character].

<sup>15</sup> The sword [of the ungodly] will enter their own heart, ‡

And their bow will be broken.

<sup>16</sup> Better is the little of the righteous [who seek the will of God] ‡
Than the abundance (riches) of many wicked (godless).  [1 Tim 6:6, 7 ]

<sup>17</sup> For the arms of the wicked will be broken, ‡

But the LORD upholds and sustains the righteous [who seek Him].

<sup>18</sup> The LORD knows the days of the blameless, ‡

And their inheritance will continue forever.

<sup>19</sup> They will not be ashamed in the time of evil, ‡

And in the days of famine they will have plenty and be satisfied.

<sup>20</sup> But the wicked (ungodly) will perish, ‡
And the enemies of the LORD will be like the glory of the pastures and like the fat of lambs [that is consumed in smoke],

They vanish—like smoke they vanish away.

<sup>21</sup> The wicked borrows and does not pay back, ‡
But the righteous is gracious and kind and gives.

<sup>22</sup> For those blessed by God will [at last] inherit the land, ‡
But those cursed by Him will be cut off. [Is 57:13c.]

<sup>23</sup> The steps of a [good and righteous] man are directed and established by the LORD, ‡
And He delights in his way [and blesses his path].

<sup>24</sup> When he falls, he will not be hurled down, ‡
Because the LORD is the One who holds his hand and sustains
him.

<sup>25</sup> I have been young and now I am old, ‡
Yet I have not seen the righteous (those in right standing with God) abandoned
Or his descendants pleading for bread.

<sup>26</sup> All day long he is gracious and lends, ‡
And his descendants are a blessing.

<sup>27</sup> Depart from evil and do good; ‡
And you will dwell [securely in the land] forever.
<sup>28</sup> For the LORD delights in justice ‡
And does not abandon His saints (faithful ones);
They are preserved forever,
But the descendants of the wicked will [in time] be cut off.

<sup>29</sup> The righteous will inherit the land ‡
And live in it forever.

<sup>30</sup> The mouth of the righteous proclaims wisdom, ‡
And his tongue speaks justice and truth.

<sup>31</sup> The law of his God is in his heart; ‡
Not one of his steps will slip.

<sup>32</sup> The wicked lies in wait for the righteous ‡
And seeks to kill him.

<sup>33</sup> The LORD will not leave him in his hand ‡

Or let him be condemned when he is judged.

<sup>34</sup> Wait for and expect the LORD and keep His way, ‡
And He will exalt you to inherit the land;
[In the end] when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

<sup>35</sup> I have seen a wicked, violent man [with great power] ‡
Spreading and flaunting himself like a cedar in its native soil,

<sup>36</sup> Yet he passed away, and lo, he was no more; ‡
I sought him, but he could not be found.

<sup>37</sup> Mark the blameless man [who is spiritually complete], and behold the upright [who walks in moral integrity]; ‡
There is a [good] future for the man of peace [because a life of honor blesses one's descendants].

<sup>38</sup> As for transgressors, they will be completely destroyed; ‡
The future of the wicked will be cut off.

<sup>39</sup> But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; ‡
He is their refuge and stronghold in the time of trouble.

<sup>40</sup> The LORD helps them and rescues them; ‡
He rescues them from the wicked and saves them,
Because they take refuge in Him.

Psalm 38

Prayer in Time of Discipline. ‡

A Psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your wrath, ‡
Nor discipline me in Your burning anger.

<sup>2</sup> For Your arrows have sunk into me and penetrate deeply, ‡
And Your hand has pressed down on me and greatly disciplined
me.

<sup>3</sup> There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation; ‡
There is no health in my bones because of my sin.

<sup>4</sup> For my iniquities have gone over my head [like the waves of a flood]; ‡
As a heavy burden they weigh too much for me.
<sup>5</sup> My wounds are loathsome and foul

Because of my foolishness.

<sup>6</sup> I am bent over and greatly bowed down; ‡

I go about mourning all day long.

<sup>7</sup> For my sides are filled with burning, ‡

And there is no health in my flesh.

<sup>8</sup> I am numb and greatly bruised [deadly cold and completely worn out]; ‡

I groan because of the disquiet and moaning of my heart.

<sup>9</sup> Lord, all my desire is before You;

And my sighing is not hidden from You.

<sup>10</sup> My heart throbs violently, my strength fails me; ‡

And as for the light of my eyes, even that has also gone from me.

<sup>11</sup> My loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my plague; ‡

And my neighbors stand far away.  [Luke 23:49 ]

<sup>12</sup> Those who seek my life lay snares for me, ‡

And those who seek to injure me threaten mischievous things and destruction;

They devise treachery all the day long.

<sup>13</sup> But I, like a deaf man, do not hear; ‡

I am like a mute man who does not open his mouth.

<sup>14</sup> Yes, I am like a man who does not hear,

In whose mouth are no arguments.

<sup>15</sup> For in You, O LORD, I hope; ‡

You will answer, O Lord my God.

<sup>16</sup> For I pray, “May they not rejoice over me, ‡

Who, when my foot slips, would boast against me.”

<sup>17</sup> For I am ready to fall;

My sorrow is continually before me.

<sup>18</sup> For I do confess my guilt and iniquity; ‡

I am filled with anxiety because of my sin.  [2 Cor 7:9 , 10 ]

<sup>19</sup> But my [numerous] enemies are vigorous and strong,

And those who hate me without cause are many.

<sup>20</sup> They repay evil for good, they attack and try to kill me, ‡

Because I follow what is good.

<sup>21</sup> Do not abandon me, O LORD; ‡

O my God, do not be far from me.

<sup>22</sup> Make haste to help me,
O Lord, my Salvation.

Psalm 39

The Vanity of Life. ‡

To the Chief Musician; for Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I SAID, “I will guard my ways ‡
That I may not sin with my tongue;
I will muzzle my mouth
While the wicked are in my presence.”

<sup>2</sup> I was mute and silent [before my enemies], ‡
I refrained even from good,
And my distress grew worse.

<sup>3</sup> My heart was hot within me.
While I was musing the fire burned;
Then I spoke with my tongue:

<sup>4</sup> “LORD, let me know my [life’s] end
And [to appreciate] the extent of my days;
Let me know how frail I am [how transient is my stay here].

<sup>5</sup> “Behold, You have made my days as [short as] hand widths,
And my lifetime is as nothing in Your sight.
Surely every man at his best is a mere breath [a wisp of smoke, a vapor that vanishes]!  [Eccl 1:2 ]

Selah.

<sup>6</sup> “Surely every man walks around like a shadow [in a charade]; ‡
Surely they make an uproar for nothing;
Each one builds up riches, not knowing who will receive them.  [Eccl 2:18 , 19 ; 1 Cor 7:31 ; James 4:14 ]

<sup>7</sup> “And now, Lord, for what do I expectantly wait?
My hope [my confident expectation] is in You.

<sup>8</sup> “Save me from all my transgressions; ‡
Do not make me the scorn and reproach of the [self-righteous, arrogant] fool.

<sup>9</sup> “I am mute, I do not open my mouth, ‡

Because it is You who has done it.

<sup>10</sup> “Remove Your plague from me;
I am wasting away because of the conflict and opposition of Your hand.

<sup>11</sup> “With rebukes You discipline man for sin; ‡
You consume like a moth what is precious to him;
Surely every man is a mere breath [a wisp of smoke, a vapor that vanishes].

Selah.

<sup>12</sup> “Hear my prayer, O LORD, and listen to my cry; ‡
Do not be silent at my tears;
For I am Your temporary guest,
A sojourner like all my fathers.

<sup>13</sup> “O look away from me, that I may smile and again know joy ‡
Before I depart and am no more.”

Psalm 40

God Sustains His Servant.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I WAITED patiently and expectantly for the LORD; ‡
And He inclined to me and heard my cry.

And He set my feet upon a rock, steadyng my footsteps and establishing my path.

<sup>3</sup> He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; ‡
Many will see and fear [with great reverence]
And will trust confidently in the LORD.  [Ps 5:11 ]

<sup>4</sup> Blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who makes the LORD his trust, ‡
And does not regard the proud nor those who lapse into lies.

<sup>5</sup> Many, O LORD my God, are the wonderful works which You have done, ‡
And Your thoughts toward us;

There is none to compare with You.
If I would declare and speak of your wonders,
They would be too many to count.

6—Sacrifice and meal offering You do not desire, nor do You delight in them;

You have opened my ears and given me the capacity to hear [and obey Your word];

Burnt offerings and sin offerings You do not require.  [Mic 6:6–8 ]

7 Then I said, “Behold, I come [to the throne];
In the scroll of the book it is written of me.

8 “I delight to do Your will, O my God; ‡
Your law is within my heart.”  [Jer 31:33; Heb 10:5–9. ]

9 I have proclaimed good news of righteousness [and the joy that comes from obedience to You] in the great assembly; ‡

Behold, I will not restrain my lips [from proclaiming Your righteousness],

As You know, O LORD.

10 I have not concealed Your righteousness within my heart; ‡

I have proclaimed Your faithfulness and Your salvation.

I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great assembly.  [Acts 20:20, 27 ]

11 Do not withhold Your compassion and tender mercy from me,
O LORD; ‡

Your lovingkindness and Your truth will continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have encompassed me; ‡

My sins have overtaken me, so that I am not able to see.

They are more numerous than the hairs of my head,

And my heart has failed me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to save me; ‡

O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let those be ashamed and humiliated together ‡

Who seek my life to destroy it;

Let those be turned back [in defeat] and dishonored
Who delight in my hurt.

<sup>15</sup> Let those be appalled and desolate because of their shame ‡
Who say to me, “Aha, aha [rejoicing in my misfortune]!”

<sup>16</sup> Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; ‡
Let those who love Your salvation say continually,
“The LORD be magnified!”

<sup>17</sup> Even though I am afflicted and needy, ‡
Still the Lord takes thought and is mindful of me.
You are my help and my rescuer.
O my God, do not delay.  [Ps 70:1–5; 1 Pet 5:7 ]

Psalm 41

The Psalmist in Sickness Complains of Enemies and False Friends.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> BLESSED [BY God’s grace and compassion] is he who considers the helpless;
The LORD will save him in the day of trouble.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD will protect him and keep him alive; ‡
And he will be called blessed in the land;
You do not hand him over to the desire of his enemies.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD will sustain and strengthen him on his sickbed;
In his illness, You will restore him to health.

<sup>4</sup> As for me, I said, “O LORD, be gracious to me;
Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You.”

<sup>5</sup> My enemies speak evil of me, saying,
“When will he die and his name perish?”

<sup>6</sup> And when one comes to see me, he speaks empty words,
While his heart gathers malicious gossip [against me];
When he goes away, he tells it [everywhere].

<sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper together about me;
Against me they devise my hurt [imagining the worst for me],
saying,

<sup>8</sup> “A wicked thing is poured out upon him and holds him;

And when he lies down, he will not rise up again.”
9 Even my own close friend in whom I trusted,‡
Who ate my bread,
Has lifted up his heel against me [betraying me].  [John 13:18. ]

10 But You, O LORD, be gracious to me and restore me [to health],
So that I may repay them.
11 By this I know that You favor and delight in me,
Because my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.
12 As for me, You uphold me in my integrity,‡
And You set me in Your presence forever.

13 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,‡
From everlasting to everlasting [from this age to the next, and forever].
Amen and Amen (so be it).

BOOK TWO

Psalm 42

Thirsting for God in Trouble and Exile.

To the Chief Musician. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> AS THE deer pants [longingly] for the water brooks,
So my soul pants [longingly] for You, O God.

<sup>2</sup> My soul (my life, my inner self) thirsts for God, for the living
God. ‡

When will I come and see the face of God?  [Ps 63:1, 2; John 7:37; 1 Thess 1:9, 10 ]

<sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night, ‡
While they say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

<sup>4</sup> These things I [vividly] remember as I pour out my soul; ‡
How I used to go along before the great crowd of people and lead them in procession to the house of God [like a choirmaster before his singers, timing the steps to the music and the chant of the song],

With the voice of joy and thanksgiving, a great crowd keeping a festival.

<sup>5</sup>. Why are you in despair, O my soul? ‡

And why have you become restless and disturbed within me?
Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall again praise
Him

For the help of His presence.

<sup>6</sup>. O my God, my soul is in despair within me [the burden more than I can bear];

Therefore I will [fervently] remember You from the land of the Jordan

And the peaks of [Mount] Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

<sup>7</sup> Deep calls to deep at the [thundering] sound of Your waterfalls; ‡
All Your breakers and Your waves have rolled over me.

<sup>8</sup> Yet the LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, ‡

And in the night His song will be with me,
A prayer to the God of my life.

<sup>9</sup> I will say to God my rock, “Why have You forgotten me? ‡
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”

<sup>10</sup> As a crushing of my bones [with a sword], my adversaries taunt me, ‡

While they say continually to me, “Where is your God?”

<sup>11</sup> Why are you in despair, O my soul? ‡

Why have you become restless and disquieted within me?

Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall yet praise
Him,

The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 43

Prayer for Rescue.

<sup>1</sup> JUDGE AND vindicate me, O God; plead my case against an ungodly nation. ‡

O rescue me from the deceitful and unjust man!

<sup>2</sup> For You are the God of my strength [my stronghold—in whom
I take refuge]; why have You rejected me? ‡

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

<sup>3</sup> O send out Your light and Your truth, let them lead me; ‡
Let them bring me to Your holy hill
And to Your dwelling places.

<sup>4</sup> Then I will go to the altar of God,
To God, my exceeding joy;
With the lyre I will praise You, O God, my God!

<sup>5</sup> Why are you in despair, O my soul? ‡
And why are you restless and disturbed within me?
Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall again praise
Him,
The help of my [sad] countenance and my God.

Psalm 44

Former Times of Help and Present Troubles.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem.

<sup>1</sup> WE HAVE heard with our ears, O God, ‡

Our fathers have told us

The work You did in their days,

In the days of old.

<sup>2</sup> You drove out the [pagan] nations with Your own hand; ‡

Then you planted and established them (Israel);

[It was by Your power that] You uprooted the [pagan] peoples,

Then You spread them abroad.

<sup>3</sup> For our fathers did not possess the land [of Canaan] by their own sword, ‡

Nor did their own arm save them,

But Your right hand and Your arm and the light of Your presence,

Because You favored and delighted in them.

<sup>4</sup> You are my King, O God; ‡

Command victories and deliverance for Jacob (Israel).

<sup>5</sup> Through You we will gore our enemies [like a bull]; ‡

Through Your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.

<sup>6</sup> For I will not trust in my bow, ‡

Nor will my sword save me.

<sup>7</sup> But You have saved us from our enemies, ‡

And You have put them to shame and humiliated those who hate us.

<sup>8</sup> In God we have boasted all the day long, ‡

And we will praise and give thanks to Your name forever.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup> But now You have rejected us and brought us to dishonor, ‡

And You do not go out with our armies [to lead us to victory].

<sup>10</sup> You make us turn back from the enemy, ‡

And those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.

<sup>11</sup> You have made us like sheep to be eaten [as mutton] ‡
And have scattered us [in exile] among the nations.

<sup>12</sup> You sell Your people cheaply, ‡
And have not increased Your wealth by their sale.

<sup>13</sup> You have made us the reproach and taunt of our neighbors, ‡
A scoffing and a derision to those around us.

<sup>14</sup> You make us a byword among the nations, ‡
A laughingstock among the people.

<sup>15</sup> My dishonor is before me all day long,
And humiliation has covered my face,

<sup>16</sup> Because of the voice of the taunter and reviler, ‡
Because of the presence of the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>17</sup> All this has come upon us, yet we have not forgotten You, ‡
Nor have we been false to Your covenant [which You made with our fathers].

<sup>18</sup> Our heart has not turned back, ‡
Nor have our steps wandered from Your path,

<sup>19</sup> Yet You have [distressingly] crushed us in the place of jackals ‡
And covered us with [the deep darkness of] the shadow of death.

<sup>20</sup> If we had forgotten the name of our God ‡
Or stretched out our hands to a strange god,

<sup>21</sup> Would not God discover this? ‡
For He knows the secrets of the heart.

<sup>22</sup> But for Your sake we are killed all the day long; ‡
We are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.  [Rom 8:35–39. ]

<sup>23</sup> Awake! Why do You sleep, O Lord? ‡
Awaken, do not reject us forever.

<sup>24</sup> Why do You hide Your face ‡
And forget our affliction and our oppression?

<sup>25</sup> For our life has melted away into the dust; ‡
Our body clings to the ground.

<sup>26</sup> Rise up! Come be our help,
And ransom us for the sake of Your steadfast love.

A Song Celebrating the King's Marriage. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to the [tune of] "Lilies." A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem. A Song of Love.

<sup>1</sup> MY HEART overflows with a good theme;
I address my psalm to the King.

My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.

<sup>2</sup> You are fairer than the sons of men; ‡
Graciousness is poured upon Your lips;
Therefore God has blessed You forever.

<sup>3</sup> Strap Your sword on Your thigh, O mighty One, ‡
In Your splendor and Your majesty!

<sup>4</sup> And in Your majesty ride on triumphantly ‡
For the cause of truth and humility and righteousness;
Let Your right hand guide You to awesome things.

<sup>5</sup> Your arrows are sharp;
The peoples (nations) fall under You;
Your arrows pierce the hearts of the King's enemies.

<sup>6</sup> Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; ‡
The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your kingdom.

<sup>7</sup> You have loved righteousness (virtue, morality, justice) and hated wickedness; ‡
Therefore God, your God, has anointed You

Above Your companions with the oil of jubilation.  [Heb 1:8, 9 ]

<sup>8</sup> All Your garments are fragrant with myrrh, aloes and cassia; ‡
From ivory palaces stringed instruments have made You glad.

<sup>9</sup> Kings' daughters are among Your noble ladies; ‡
At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.

instruction]; ‡

Forget your people and your father's house;

<sup>11</sup> Then the King will desire your beauty; ‡
Because He is your Lord, bow down and honor Him.

<sup>12</sup> The daughter of Tyre will come with a gift; ‡
The rich among the people will seek your favor.

<sup>13</sup> Glorious is the King's daughter within [the palace]; ‡

Her robe is interwoven with gold.  [Rev 19:7, 8 ]

<sup>14</sup> She will be brought to the King in embroidered garments; ‡

The virgins, her companions who follow her,

Will be brought to You.

<sup>15</sup> With gladness and rejoicing will they be led;

They will enter into the King's palace.

<sup>16</sup> In place of your fathers will be your sons; ‡

You shall make princes in all the land.

<sup>17</sup> I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations;

Therefore the peoples will praise and give You thanks forever and ever.

Psalm 46

God the Refuge of His People. ‡

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah, set to soprano voices. A Song.

<sup>1</sup> GOD IS our refuge and strength [mighty and impenetrable], ‡
A very present and well-proved help in trouble.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change
And though the mountains be shaken and slip into the heart of the seas,

<sup>3</sup> Though its waters roar and foam, ‡

Though the mountains tremble at its roaring.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup> There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, ‡
The holy dwelling places of the Most High.

<sup>5</sup> God is in the midst of her [His city], she will not be moved; ‡
God will help her when the morning dawns.

<sup>6</sup> The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered and were moved; ‡

He raised His voice, the earth melted.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD of hosts is with us;

The God of Jacob is our stronghold [our refuge, our high tower].

Selah.

- <sup>8</sup> Come, behold the works of the LORD, ‡
Who has wrought desolations and wonders in the earth.
<sup>9</sup> He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth; ‡
He breaks the bow into pieces and snaps the spear in two;
He burns the chariots with fire.
<sup>10</sup> “Be still and know (recognize, understand) that I am God. ‡
I will be exalted among the nations! I will be exalted in the earth.”
<sup>11</sup> The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our stronghold [our refuge, our high tower].
Selah.

Psalm 47

God the King of the Earth.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup> O CLAP your hands, all you people; ‡
Shout to God with the voice of triumph and songs of joy.
<sup>2</sup> For the LORD Most High is to be feared [and worshiped with awe-inspired reverence and obedience]; ‡
He is a great King over all the earth.
<sup>3</sup> He subdues peoples under us ‡
And nations under our feet.
<sup>4</sup> He chooses our inheritance for us, ‡
The glory and excellence of Jacob whom He loves.  [1 Pet 1:4, 5 ]
Selah.
- <sup>5</sup> God has ascended amid shouting, ‡
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
<sup>6</sup> Sing praises to God, sing praises;
Sing praises to our King, sing praises.
<sup>7</sup> For God is the King of all the earth; ‡
Sing praises in a skillful psalm and with understanding.
<sup>8</sup> God reigns over the nations; ‡

God sits on His holy throne.

<sup>9</sup>The princes of the people have gathered together as the people of the God of Abraham,‡
For the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is highly exalted.

Psalm 48

The Beauty and Glory of Zion.

A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>GREAT IS the LORD, and greatly to be praised,‡
In the city of our God, His holy mountain.
<sup>2</sup>Fair and beautiful in elevation, the joy of all the earth,‡
Is Mount Zion [the City of David] in the far north,
The city of the great King.  [Matt 5:35.]
<sup>3</sup>God, in her palaces,
Has made Himself known as a stronghold.
<sup>4</sup>For, lo, the kings assembled themselves,‡
They [came and] passed by together.
<sup>5</sup>They saw it, then they were amazed;
They were stricken with terror, they fled in alarm.
<sup>6</sup>Panic seized them there,‡
And pain, as that of a woman in childbirth.
<sup>7</sup>With the east wind‡
You shattered the ships of Tarshish.
<sup>8</sup>As we have heard, so have we seen
In the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God:
God will establish her forever.
Selah.
<sup>9</sup>We have thought of Your lovingkindness, O God,‡
In the midst of Your temple.
<sup>10</sup>As is Your name, O God,‡
So is Your praise to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is full of righteousness (rightness, justice).

<sup>11</sup> Let Mount Zion be glad,
Let the daughters of Judah rejoice
Because of Your [righteous] judgments.
<sup>12</sup> Walk about Zion, go all around her;
Count her towers,
<sup>13</sup> Consider her ramparts,
Go through her palaces,
That you may tell the next generation [about her glory].
<sup>14</sup> For this is God,
Our God forever and ever;
He will be our guide even until death.

Psalm 49

The Folly of Trusting in Riches. To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> HEAR THIS, all peoples;
Listen carefully, all inhabitants of the world,
<sup>2</sup> Both low and high,
Rich and poor together:
<sup>3</sup> My mouth will speak wisdom,
And the meditation of my heart will be understanding.
<sup>4</sup> I will incline my ear and consent to a proverb; ‡
On the lyre I will unfold my riddle.

<sup>5</sup> Why should I fear in the days of evil,
When the wickedness of those who would betray me surrounds me [on every side],
<sup>6</sup> Even those who trust in and rely on their wealth ‡
And boast of the abundance of their riches?
<sup>7</sup> None of them can by any means redeem [either himself or] his brother, ‡
Nor give to God a ransom for him—
<sup>8</sup> For the ransom of his soul is too costly, ‡
And he should cease trying forever—
<sup>9</sup> So that he should live on eternally, ‡

That he should never see the pit (grave) and undergo decay.

<sup>10</sup> For he sees that even wise men die; ‡

The fool and the stupid alike perish

And leave their wealth to others.  [Eccl 2:12–16 ]

<sup>11</sup> Their inward thought is that their houses will continue forever, ‡

And their dwelling places to all generations;

They have named their lands after their own names [ignoring God].

<sup>12</sup> But man, with all his [self] honor and pomp, will not endure;
He is like the beasts that perish.

<sup>13</sup> This is the fate of those who are foolishly confident, ‡

And of those after them who approve [and are influenced by] their words.

Selah.

<sup>14</sup> Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead); ‡

Death will be their shepherd;

And the upright shall rule over them in the morning,

And their form and beauty shall be for Sheol to consume,

So that they have no dwelling [on earth].

<sup>15</sup> But God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol, ‡

For He will receive me.

Selah.

<sup>16</sup> Be not afraid when [an ungodly] man becomes rich,

When the wealth and glory of his house are increased;

<sup>17</sup> For when he dies he will carry nothing away;

His glory will not descend after him.

<sup>18</sup> Though while he lives he counts himself happy and prosperous
— ‡

And though people praise you when you do well for yourself—

<sup>19</sup> He shall go to the generation of his fathers; ‡

They shall never again see the light.

<sup>20</sup> A man [who is held] in honor, ‡

Yet who lacks [spiritual] understanding and a teachable heart, is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

God the Judge of the Righteous and the Wicked. ‡

A Psalm of Asaph

<sup>1</sup> THE MIGHTY One, God, the LORD, has spoken, ‡
And summoned the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting [from east to west].

<sup>2</sup> Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, ‡
God has shone forth.

<sup>3</sup> May our God come and not keep silent; ‡
Fire devours before Him,
And around Him a mighty tempest rages.

<sup>4</sup> He summons the heavens above, ‡
And the earth, to judge His people:

<sup>5</sup> “Gather My godly ones to Me, ‡
Those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”

<sup>6</sup> And the heavens declare His righteousness, ‡
For God Himself is judge.

Selah.

<sup>7</sup> “Hear, O My people, and I will speak; ‡
O Israel, I will testify against you:
I am God, your God.

<sup>8</sup> “I do not reprove you for your sacrifices; ‡
Your burnt offerings are continually before Me.

<sup>9</sup> “I will accept no young bull from your house ‡
Nor male goat from your folds.

<sup>10</sup> “For every beast of the forest is Mine,
And the cattle on a thousand hills.

<sup>11</sup> “I know every bird of the mountains,
And everything that moves in the field is Mine.

<sup>12</sup> “If I were hungry, I would not tell you, ‡
For the world and all it contains are Mine.  [1 Cor 10:26 ]

<sup>13</sup> “Shall I eat the flesh of bulls
Or drink the blood of male goats?

<sup>14</sup> “Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving ‡

And pay your vows to the Most High;
15 Call on Me in the day of trouble; ‡
I will rescue you, and you shall honor and glorify Me.”

16 But to the wicked God says:
“What right have you to recite My statutes
Or to take My covenant on your lips?
17 “For you hate instruction and discipline ‡
And cast My words behind you [discarding them].
18 “When you see a thief, you are pleased with him and condone his behavior, ‡
And you associate with adulterers.
19 “You give your mouth to evil ‡
And your tongue frames deceit.
20 “You sit and speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother’s son.
21 “These things you have done and I kept silent; ‡
You thought that I was just like you.
Now I will reprimand and denounce you and state the case in order before your eyes.

22 “Now consider this, you who forget God, ‡
Or I will tear you in pieces, and there will be no one to rescue
[you].
23 “He who offers a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving honors
Me; ‡
And to him who orders his way rightly [who follows the way that I show him],
I shall show the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

A Contrite Sinner’s Prayer for Pardon. ‡

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had sinned with Bathsheba.

1—HAVE MERCY on me, O God, according to Your

According to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions.

<sup>2</sup> Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness and guilt ‡
And cleanse me from my sin.

<sup>3</sup> For I am conscious of my transgressions and I acknowledge them;

My sin is always before me.

<sup>4</sup> Against You, You only, have I sinned ‡
And done that which is evil in Your sight,
So that You are justified when You speak [Your sentence]
And faultless in Your judgment.  [Rom 3:4 ]

<sup>5</sup> I was brought forth in [a state of] wickedness; ‡
In sin my mother conceived me [and from my beginning I, too, was sinful].  [John 3:6; Rom 5:12; Eph 2:3 ]

<sup>6</sup> Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being,
And in the hidden part [of my heart] You will make me know wisdom.

<sup>7</sup> Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

<sup>8</sup> Make me hear joy and gladness and be satisfied;
Let the bones which You have broken rejoice.

<sup>9</sup> Hide Your face from my sins ‡
And blot out all my iniquities.

<sup>10</sup> Create in me a clean heart, O God, ‡
And renew a right and steadfast spirit within me.

<sup>11</sup> Do not cast me away from Your presence ‡
And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

<sup>12</sup> Restore to me the joy of Your salvation ‡
And sustain me with a willing spirit.

<sup>13</sup> Then I will teach transgressors Your ways,
And sinners shall be converted and return to You.

<sup>14</sup> Rescue me from bloodguiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation; ‡
Then my tongue will sing joyfully of Your righteousness and Your justice.

- <sup>15</sup> O Lord, open my lips,
That my mouth may declare Your praise.
- <sup>16</sup> For You do not delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it; ‡
You are not pleased with burnt offering.  [1 Sam 15:22. ]
- <sup>17</sup> My [only] sacrifice [acceptable] to God is a broken spirit; ‡
A broken and contrite heart [broken with sorrow for sin, thoroughly penitent], such, O God, You will not despise.
- <sup>18</sup> By Your favor do good to Zion;
May You rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
- <sup>19</sup> Then will You delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, ‡
In burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
Then young bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Psalm 52

Futility of Boastful Wickedness. ‡

To the Chief Musician. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem. A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, “David has come to the house of Ahimelech.”

<sup>1</sup> WHY DO you boast of evil, O mighty man? ‡
The lovingkindness of God endures all day long.

<sup>2</sup>. Your tongue devises destruction, ‡
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

<sup>3</sup> You love evil more than good, ‡
And falsehood more than speaking what is right.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup> You love all words that devour,
O deceitful tongue.

<sup>5</sup> But God will break you down forever; ‡
He will take you away and tear you away from your tent,
And uproot you from the land of the living.

Selah.

<sup>6</sup>. The righteous will see it and fear,
And will [scoffingly] laugh, saying,

<sup>7</sup> “Look, [this is] the man who would not make God his strength [his stronghold and fortress], ‡
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
Taking refuge in his wealth.”

<sup>8</sup>. But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; ‡

I trust [confidently] in the lovingkindness of God forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup> I will thank You forever, because You have done it, [You have rescued me and kept me safe]. ‡

I will wait on Your name, for it is good, in the presence of Your godly ones.

Psalm 53

Folly and Wickedness of Men.

To the Chief Musician; in a mournful strain. A skillful song, or didactic or reflective poem of David.

<sup>1</sup> THE [empty-headed] fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.” ‡

They are corrupt and evil, and have committed repulsive injustice;

There is no one who does good.

<sup>2</sup> God has looked down from heaven upon the children of men ‡

To see if there is anyone who understands,
Who seeks after God [who requires Him, who longs for Him as essential to life].

<sup>3</sup> Every one of them has turned aside and fallen away;

Together they have become filthy and corrupt;

There is no one who does good, no, not even one.  [Rom 3:10–12 ]

<sup>4</sup> Have workers of wickedness no knowledge or no understanding? ‡

They eat up My people as though they ate bread

And have not called upon God.

<sup>5</sup> There they were, in great terror and dread, where there had been no terror or dread; ‡

For God scattered the bones of him who besieged you;

You have put them to shame, because God has rejected them.

When God restores [the fortunes of] His people,

Let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

Prayer for Defense against Enemies. ‡

To the Chief Musician; with stringed instruments. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of David, when the Ziphites went and told Saul, “David is hiding among us.”

<sup>1</sup> SAVE ME, O God, by Your name;
And vindicate me by Your [wondrous] power.
<sup>2</sup> Hear my prayer, O God;
Listen to the words of my mouth.
<sup>3</sup> For strangers have risen against me ‡
And violent men have sought my life;
They have not set God before them.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup> Behold, God is my helper and ally; ‡
The Lord is the sustainer of my soul [my upholder].
<sup>5</sup> He will pay back the evil to my enemies; ‡
In Your faithfulness destroy them.

<sup>6</sup> With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to You; ‡
I will give thanks and praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good.

<sup>7</sup> For He has rescued me from every trouble, ‡
And my eye has looked with satisfaction (triumph) on my enemies.

Psalm 55

Prayer for the Destruction of the Treacherous.

To the Chief Musician; with stringed instruments. A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of David.

<sup>1</sup> LISTEN TO my prayer, O God,
And do not hide Yourself from my plea.
<sup>2</sup> Listen to me and answer me; ‡
I am restless and distraught in my complaint and distracted
<sup>3</sup> Because of the voice of the enemy, ‡
Because of the pressure of the wicked;
For they bring down trouble on me,
And in anger they persecute me.

<sup>4</sup> My heart is in anguish within me, ‡
And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

<sup>5</sup> Fear and trembling have come upon me;
Horror has overwhelmed me.

<sup>6</sup> And I say, “Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.

<sup>7</sup> “I would wander far away,
I would lodge in the [peace of the] wilderness.
Selah.

<sup>8</sup> “I would hurry to my refuge [my tranquil shelter far away]
From the stormy wind and from the tempest.”

<sup>9</sup> Confuse [my enemies], O Lord, divide their tongues [destroying their schemes], ‡
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

<sup>10</sup> Day and night they go around her walls;
Wickedness and mischief are in her midst.

<sup>11</sup> Destruction is within her;
Oppression and deceit do not depart from her streets and market places.

<sup>12</sup> For it is not an enemy who taunts me—‡
Then I could bear it;
Nor is it one who has hated me who insolently exalts himself against me—
Then I could hide from him.

<sup>13</sup> But it is you, a man my equal and my counsel, ‡
My companion and my familiar friend;

<sup>14</sup> We who had sweet fellowship together, ‡
Who walked to the house of God in company.

<sup>15</sup> Let death come deceitfully upon them; ‡ Let them go down alive to Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead),
For evil [of every kind] is in their dwelling and in their hearts, in their midst.

<sup>16</sup> As for me, I shall call upon God,
And the LORD will save me.

<sup>17</sup> Evening and morning and at noon I will complain and murmur, ‡

And He will hear my voice.

<sup>18</sup> He has redeemed my life in peace from the battle that was against me; ‡

For there were many against me.

<sup>19</sup> God will hear and humble them, ‡

Even He who sits enthroned from old—

Selah.

Because in them there has been no change [of heart],
And they do not fear God [at all].

<sup>20</sup> He [my companion] has put out his hands against those who were at peace with him; ‡

He has broken his covenant [of friendship and loyalty].

<sup>21</sup> The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, ‡

But his heart was hostile;

His words were softer than oil,

Yet they were drawn swords.

22—Cast your burden on the LORD [release it] and He will sustain and uphold you; ‡

He will never allow the righteous to be shaken (slip, fall, fail).  [1 Pet 5:7 ]

<sup>23</sup> But You, O God, will bring down the wicked to the pit of destruction; ‡

Men of blood and treachery will not live out half their days.
But I will [boldly and unwaveringly] trust in You.

Psalm 56

Supplication for Rescue and Grateful Trust in God. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Silent Dove Among Those Far Away.” A Mikhtam of David. [A record of memorable thoughts] when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

1—BE GRACIOUS to me, O God, for man has trampled on me; ‡

All day long the adversary oppresses and torments me.

<sup>2</sup> My enemies have trampled upon me all day long, ‡

For they are many who fight proudly against me.

<sup>3</sup> When I am afraid,

I will put my trust and faith in You.

<sup>4</sup> In God, whose word I praise; ‡

In God I have put my trust;

I shall not fear.

What can mere man do to me?

<sup>5</sup> All day long they twist my words and say hurtful things;

All their thoughts are against me for evil.

<sup>6</sup> They attack, they hide and lurk, ‡

They watch my steps,

As they have [expectantly] waited to take my life.

<sup>7</sup> Cast them out because of their wickedness.

In anger bring down the peoples, O God!

<sup>8</sup> You have taken account of my wanderings;

Put my tears in Your bottle.

Are they not recorded in Your book?

<sup>9</sup> Then my enemies will turn back in the day when I call; ‡

This I know, that God is for me.  [Rom 8:31. ]

<sup>10</sup> In God, whose word I praise,

In the LORD, whose word I praise,

<sup>11</sup> In God have I put my trust and confident reliance; I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?

<sup>12</sup> Your vows are binding upon me, O God;

I will give thank offerings to You.

<sup>13</sup> For You have rescued my soul from death, ‡

Yes, and my feet from stumbling,

So that I may walk before God

In the light of life.

Psalm 57

Prayer for Rescue from Persecutors. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Mikhtam of David. [A record of memorable thoughts of David] when he fled from Saul in the cave.

<sup>1</sup>.BE GRACIOUS to me, O God, be gracious and merciful to me, ‡

For my soul finds shelter and safety in You,
And in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge and be confidently secure

Until destruction passes by.

<sup>2</sup> I will cry to God Most High, ‡
Who accomplishes all things on my behalf [for He completes my purpose in His plan].

<sup>3</sup> He will send from heaven and save me; ‡
He calls to account him who tramples me down.

Selah.

God will send out His lovingkindness and His truth.

<sup>4</sup> My life is among lions; ‡
I must lie among those who breathe out fire—
The sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.

<sup>5</sup> Be exalted above the heavens, O God; ‡
Let Your glory and majesty be over all the earth.

<sup>6</sup> They set a net for my steps; ‡
My very life was bowed down.
They dug a pit before me;
Into the midst of it they themselves have fallen.

Selah.

<sup>7</sup> My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast and confident! ‡

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises [to You]!

<sup>8</sup> Awake, my glory! ‡

Awake, harp and lyre!

I will awaken the dawn.

<sup>9</sup> I will praise and give thanks to You, O Lord, among the people; ‡

I will sing praises to You among the nations.

<sup>10</sup> For Your faithfulness and lovingkindness are great, reaching to the heavens, ‡

And Your truth to the clouds.

Let Your glory and majesty be over all the earth.

Psalm 58

Prayer for the Punishment of the Wicked. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Mikhtam of David. [A record of memorable thoughts of David].

<sup>1</sup>DO YOU indeed speak righteousness, O gods (heavenly beings)?

Do you judge fairly, O sons of men?  [Ps 82:1, 2 ]

<sup>2</sup> No, in your heart you devise wrongdoing;

On earth you deal out the violence of your hands.

<sup>3</sup> The wicked are estranged from the womb; ‡

These go astray from birth, speaking lies [even twisted partial truths].

<sup>4</sup> Their poison is like the venom of a serpent; ‡

They are like the deaf horned viper that stops up its ear,

<sup>5</sup> So that it does not listen to the voice of charmers,

Or of the skillful enchanter casting [cunning] spells.

<sup>6</sup> O God, break their teeth in their mouth; ‡

When he aims his arrows, let them be as headless shafts.

<sup>8</sup> Let them be as a snail which melts away (secretes slime) as it goes along, ‡

Like the miscarriage of a woman which never sees the sun.

He will sweep them away with a whirlwind, the green and the burning ones alike.

<sup>10</sup> The [unyieldingly] righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance [of God]; ‡

He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup> Men will say, “Surely there is a reward for the righteous; ‡ Surely there is a God who judges on the earth.”

Psalm 59

Prayer for Rescue from Enemies. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Mikhtam of David, [a record of memorable thoughts] when Saul sent men to watch his house in order to kill him.

<sup>1</sup>.DELIVER ME from my enemies, O my God; Set me securely on an inaccessibly high place away from those who rise up against me.

<sup>2</sup> Deliver me from those who practice wrongdoing,
And save me from bloodthirsty men.

<sup>3</sup>.Look! They lie in wait for my life; ‡ Fierce and powerful men [are uniting together to] launch an attack against me,

Not for my wrongdoing nor for any sin of mine, O LORD.

<sup>4</sup> They run and set themselves against me though there is no guilt in me; ‡

Stir Yourself to meet and help me, and see [what they are doing]!

<sup>5</sup> You, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel,
Arise to punish all the nations;
Spare no one and do not be merciful to any who treacherously plot evil.

Selah.

<sup>6</sup>.They return at evening, they howl and snarl like dogs, ‡
And go [prowling] around the city.

<sup>7</sup> Look how they belch out [insults] with their mouths; ‡ Swords [of sarcasm, ridicule, slander, and lies] are in their lips,

For they say, “Who hears us?”

<sup>8</sup> But You, O LORD, will laugh at them [in scorn]; ‡
You scoff at and deride all the nations.

<sup>9</sup> O [God] my strength, I will watch for You; ‡
For God is my stronghold [my refuge, my protector, my high tower].

<sup>10</sup> My God in His [steadfast] lovingkindness will meet me; ‡
God will let me look triumphantly on my enemies [who lie in wait for me].

<sup>11</sup>Do not kill them, or my people will forget;
Scatter them and make them wander [endlessly] back and forth by Your power, and bring them down,
O Lord our shield!

<sup>12</sup> For the sin of their mouths and the words of their lips, ‡
Let them even be trapped in their pride,
And on account of the curses and lies which they tell.

<sup>13</sup> Destroy them in wrath, destroy them so that they may be no more;
Let them know that God rules over Jacob (Israel)
To the ends of the earth.

Selah.

<sup>14</sup> They return at evening, they howl and snarl like dogs, ‡
And go [prowling] around the city.

<sup>15</sup> They wander around for food [to devour] ‡
And growl all night if they are not satisfied.

<sup>16</sup> But as for me, I will sing of Your mighty strength and power;
Yes, I will sing joyfully of Your lovingkindness in the morning;

For You have been my stronghold
And a refuge in the day of my distress.

<sup>17</sup> To You, O [God] my strength, I will sing praises; ‡
For God is my stronghold [my refuge, my protector, my high tower], the God who shows me [steadfast] lovingkindness.

Psalm 60

Lament over Defeat in Battle, and Prayer for Help. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “The Lily of the Testimony.” A Mikhtam of David [intended to record memorable thoughts and] to teach; when he struggled with the Arameans of Mesopotamia and the Arameans of Zobah, and when Joab returned and struck twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>1</sup>-O GOD, You have rejected us and cast us off. You have broken [down our defenses and scattered] us; ‡

You have been angry; O restore us and turn again to us.

<sup>2</sup> You have made the land quake, You have split it open; ‡
Heal its rifts, for it shakes and totters.

<sup>3</sup> You have made Your people experience hardship; ‡
You have given us wine to drink that makes us stagger and fall.

<sup>4</sup> You have set up a banner for those who fear You [with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder—a banner to shield them from attack], ‡

A banner that may be displayed because of the truth.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>. That Your beloved ones may be rescued, ‡
Save with Your right hand and answer us.

<sup>6</sup> God has spoken in His holiness [in His promises]: ‡
“I will rejoice, I will divide [the land of] Shechem and measure out the Valley of Succoth [west to east].

<sup>7</sup> “Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine; ‡
Ephraim is My helmet;
Judah is My scepter.

<sup>8</sup>.“Moab is My washbowl; ‡
Over Edom I shall throw My shoe [in triumph];
Over Philistia I raise the shout [of victory].”

<sup>9</sup> Who will bring me into the besieged city [of Petra]?
Who will lead me to Edom?

<sup>10</sup> Have You not rejected us, O God? ‡
And will You not go out with our armies?

<sup>11</sup> Give us help against the enemy,
For the help of man is worthless (ineffectual, without purpose).

<sup>12</sup>.Through God we will have victory, ‡
For He will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 61

Confidence in God's Protection.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> HEAR MY cry, O God;
Listen to my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>-From the end of the earth I call to You, when my heart is overwhelmed and weak;
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I [a rock that is too high to reach without Your help].

<sup>3</sup> For You have been a shelter and a refuge for me, ‡
A strong tower against the enemy.

<sup>4</sup> Let me dwell in Your tent forever; ‡
Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup> For You have heard my vows, O God;
You have given me the inheritance of those who fear Your name [with reverence].

<sup>6</sup> You will prolong the king's life [adding days upon days];
His years will be like many generations.

<sup>7</sup> He will sit enthroned forever before [the face of] God; ‡
Appoint lovingkindness and truth to watch over and preserve him.

<sup>8</sup> So I will sing praise to Your name forever,
Paying my vows day by day.

Psalm 62

God Alone a Refuge from Treachery and Oppression. ‡

To the Chief Musician; to Jeduthun [Ethan, the noted musician, founder of an official musical family].
A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>.FOR GOD alone my soul waits in silence; ‡
From Him comes my salvation.

<sup>2</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation,
My defense and my strong tower; I will not be shaken or disheartened.

<sup>3</sup> How long will you attack a man ‡
So that you may murder him, all of you,
Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

<sup>4</sup> They consult only to throw him down from his high position [to dishonor him]; ‡
They delight in lies.
They bless with [the words of] their mouths,
But inwardly they curse.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup> For God alone my soul waits in silence and quietly submits to Him,

For my hope is from Him.

<sup>6</sup> He only is my rock and my salvation;
My fortress and my defense, I will not be shaken or discouraged.

<sup>7</sup> On God my salvation and my glory rest; ‡
He is my rock of [unyielding] strength, my refuge is in God.
<sup>8</sup> Trust [confidently] in Him at all times, O people; ‡
Pour out your heart before Him.
God is a refuge for us.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup> Men of low degree are only a breath (emptiness), and men of [high] rank are a lie (delusion). ‡

In the balances they go up [because they have no measurable weight or value];

They are together lighter than a breath.

<sup>10</sup> Do not trust in oppression, ‡
And do not vainly hope in robbery;
If riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

<sup>11</sup> God has spoken once, ‡
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.

<sup>12</sup> Also to You, O Lord, belong lovingkindness and compassion, ‡
For You compensate every man according to [the value of] his work.  [Jer 17:10; Rev 22:12 ]

Psalm 63

The Thirsting Soul Satisfied in God. ‡

A Psalm of David; when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

<sup>1</sup>O GOD, You are my God; with deepest longing I will seek You; ‡

My soul [my life, my very self] thirsts for You, my flesh longs and sighs for You,

In a dry and weary land where there is no water.

<sup>2</sup>So I have gazed upon You in the sanctuary, ‡

To see Your power and Your glory.  [Ps 42:1, 2 ]

<sup>3</sup> Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise You.

<sup>4</sup>So will I bless You as long as I live;

I will lift up my hands in Your name.

<sup>5</sup> My soul [my life, my very self] is satisfied as with marrow and fatness,

And my mouth offers praises [to You] with joyful lips.

<sup>6</sup> When I remember You on my bed, ‡

I meditate and thoughtfully focus on You in the night watches,

<sup>7</sup> For You have been my help,

And in the shadow of Your wings [where I am always protected] I sing for joy.

<sup>8</sup> My soul [my life, my very self] clings to You;

Your right hand upholds me.

<sup>9</sup> But those who seek my life to destroy it

Will [be destroyed and] go into the depths of the earth [into the underworld].

<sup>10</sup> They will be given over to the power of the sword;

They will be a prey for foxes.

Everyone who swears by Him [honoring the true God, acknowledging His authority and majesty] will glory,

For the mouths of those who speak lies will be stopped.

Psalm 64

Prayer for Protection from Secret Enemies.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> HEAR MY voice, O God, in my complaint;
Guard my life from the terror of the enemy.

<sup>2</sup> Hide me from the secret counsel and conspiracy of the ungodly,

From the scheming of those who do wrong,

<sup>3</sup> Who have sharpened their tongues like a sword. ‡

They aim venomous words as arrows,

<sup>4</sup> To shoot from ambush at the blameless [one];

Suddenly they shoot at him, without fear.

<sup>5</sup> They encourage themselves in [their pursuit of] an evil agenda; ‡

They talk of laying snares secretly;

They say, “Who will discover us?”

<sup>6</sup> They devise acts of injustice, saying,

“We are ready with a well-conceived plan.”

For the inward thought and the heart of a man are deep (mysterious, unsearchable).

<sup>7</sup> But God will shoot them with an [unexpected] arrow;
Suddenly they will be wounded.

<sup>8</sup> So they will be caused to stumble; ‡

Their own tongue is against them;

All who gaze at them will shake the head [in scorn].

<sup>9</sup> Then all men will fear [God’s judgment]; ‡

They will declare the work of God,

And they will consider and wisely acknowledge what He has done.

10 The righteous will rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in Him;

All the upright in heart will glory and offer praise.

Psalm 65

God's Abundant Favor to Earth and Man.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

<sup>1</sup> TO YOU belongs silence [the submissive wonder of reverence], and [it bursts into] praise in Zion, O God; ‡
And to You the vow shall be performed.

<sup>2</sup> O You who hear prayer, ‡
To You all mankind comes.

<sup>3</sup> Wickedness and guilt prevail against me; ‡
Yet as for our transgressions,
You forgive them [removing them from Your sight].

<sup>4</sup> Blessed is the one whom You choose and bring near ‡
To dwell in Your courts.

We will be filled with the goodness of Your house,
Your holy temple.

<sup>5</sup> By awesome and wondrous things You answer us in righteousness, O God of our salvation,
You who are the trust and hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest sea;

<sup>6</sup> Who creates the mountains by His strength, ‡
Being clothed with power,

<sup>7</sup> Who stills the roaring of the seas, ‡
The roaring of their waves,
And the tumult of the peoples,

<sup>8</sup> So they who dwell at the ends of the earth stand in awe of Your signs [the evidence of Your presence].  [Mark 4:36–41. ]

You make the dawn and the sunset shout for joy.

<sup>9</sup> You visit the earth and make it overflow [with water]; ‡
You greatly enrich it;
The stream of God is full of water;
You provide their grain, when You have prepared the earth.

<sup>10</sup> You water its furrows abundantly,
You smooth its ridges;

You soften it with showers,
You bless its growth.

<sup>11</sup> You crown the year with Your bounty,
And Your paths overflow.

<sup>12</sup> The pastures of the wilderness drip [with dew],
And the hills are encircled with joy.

<sup>13</sup> The meadows are clothed with flocks ‡
And the valleys are covered with grain;
They shout for joy and they sing.

Psalm 66

Praise for God's Mighty Deeds and for His Answer to Prayer.

To the Chief Musician. A Song. A Psalm.

<sup>2</sup> Sing of the honor and glory and magnificence of His name;
Make His praise glorious.

<sup>3</sup> Say to God, “How awesome and fearfully glorious are Your works! ‡

Because of the greatness of Your power Your enemies will pretend to be obedient to You.

<sup>4</sup> “All the earth will [bow down to] worship You [in submissive wonder], ‡

And will sing praises to You;
They will praise Your name in song.”

Selah.

<sup>5</sup> Come and see the works of God,
He is awesome in His deeds toward the children of men.

<sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land; ‡
They crossed through the river on foot;
There we rejoiced in Him.  [Ex 14–15 ]

<sup>7</sup> Who rules by His might forever,
His eyes keep watch on the nations;
Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves.

Selah.

<sup>8</sup> Bless our God, O peoples,
And make the sound of His praise be heard abroad,
<sup>9</sup> Who keeps us among the living,
And does not allow our feet to slip or stumble.
<sup>10</sup> For You have tested us, O God; ‡
You have refined us as silver is refined.
<sup>11</sup> You brought us into the net; ‡
You laid a heavy burden [of servitude] on us.
<sup>12</sup> You made men (charioteers) ride over our heads [in defeat];
    ‡
We went through fire and through water,
Yet You brought us out into a [broad] place of abundance [to be refreshed].

<sup>13</sup> I shall come into Your house with burnt offerings; ‡
I shall pay You my vows,
<sup>14</sup> Which my lips uttered
And my mouth spoke as a promise when I was in distress.
<sup>15</sup> I shall offer to You burnt offerings of fat lambs,
With the [sweet] smoke of rams;
I will offer bulls with male goats.

Selah.

<sup>16</sup> Come and hear, all who fear God [and worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and obedience],
And I will tell what He has done for me.
<sup>17</sup> I cried aloud to Him;
He was highly praised with my tongue.
<sup>18</sup> If I regard sin and baseness in my heart [that is, if I know it is there and do nothing about it], ‡
The Lord will not hear [me];  [Prov 15:29; 28:9; Is 1:15; John 9:31; James 4:3. ]
<sup>19</sup> But certainly God has heard [me]; ‡
He has given heed to the voice of my prayer.
<sup>20</sup> Blessed be God,
Who has not turned away my prayer
Nor His lovingkindness from me.

Psalm 67

The Nations Exhortated to Praise God.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

<sup>1</sup>GOD BE gracious and kind-hearted to us and bless us,‡
And make His face shine [with favor] on us—

Selah.

<sup>2</sup>That Your way may be known on earth,‡
Your salvation and deliverance among all nations.

<sup>3</sup> Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.

<sup>4</sup> Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,‡
For You will judge the people fairly
And guide the nations on earth.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup> Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.

<sup>6</sup>—The earth has yielded its harvest [as evidence of His approval];‡
God, our God, blesses us.

<sup>7</sup> God blesses us,
And all the ends of the earth shall fear Him [with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder].

Psalm 68

The God of Sinai and of the Sanctuary.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

<sup>1</sup>LET GOD arise, and His enemies be scattered;‡
Let those who hate Him flee before Him.

<sup>2</sup> As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;‡
As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked and guilty perish before [the presence of] God.

<sup>3</sup> But let the righteous be glad; let them be in good spirits before God,‡

Yes, let them rejoice with delight.
<sup>4</sup> Sing to God, sing praises to His name;‡
Lift up a song for Him who rides through the desert—
His name is the LORD—be in good spirits before Him.

<sup>5</sup> A father of the fatherless and a judge and protector of the widows,‡

Is God in His holy habitation.

<sup>6</sup> God makes a home for the lonely;‡
He leads the prisoners into prosperity,
Only the stubborn and rebellious dwell in a parched land.

<sup>7</sup> O God, when You went out before Your people,‡
When You marched through the wilderness,

Selah.

<sup>8</sup> The earth trembled;
The heavens also poured down rain at the presence of God;
Sinai itself trembled at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> You, O God, sent abroad plentiful rain;‡
You confirmed Your inheritance when it was parched and weary.

<sup>10</sup> Your flock found a dwelling place in it;‡
O God, in Your goodness You provided for the poor.

<sup>11</sup> The Lord gives the command [to take Canaan];
The women who proclaim the good news are a great host (army);

<sup>12</sup> “The kings of the [enemies’] armies flee, they flee,‡
And the beautiful woman who remains at home divides the spoil [left behind].”

<sup>13</sup> When you lie down [to rest] among the sheepfolds,‡
You [Israel] are like the wings of a dove [of victory] overlaid with silver,
Its feathers glistening with gold [trophies taken from the enemy].

14. When the Almighty scattered [the Canaanite] kings in the land of Canaan,‡
It was snowing on Zalmon.

15 A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan;
A [high] mountain of many summits is Mount Bashan [rising east of the Jordan].

16 Why do you look with envy, mountains with many peaks,‡
At the mountain [of the city of Zion] which God has desired for His dwelling place?

Yes, the LORD will dwell there forever.

17 The chariots of God are myriads, thousands upon thousands;‡

The Lord is among them as He was at Sinai, in holiness.

18 You have ascended on high, You have led away captive Your captives;‡

You have received gifts among men,

Even from the rebellious also, that the LORD God may dwell there.  [Eph 4:8 ]

19 Blessed be the Lord, who bears our burden day by day,
The God who is our salvation!

Selah.

20 God is to us a God of acts of salvation;‡
And to GOD the Lord belong escapes from death [setting us free].

21 Surely God will shatter the head of His enemies,‡
The hairy scalp of one who goes on in his guilty ways.

22 The Lord said, “I will bring your enemies back from Bashan;‡

I will bring them back from the depths of the [Red] Sea,

23 That your foot may crush them in blood,‡

That the tongue of your dogs may have its share from your enemies.”

24 They have seen Your [solemn] procession, O God,
The procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary [in holiness].

<sup>25</sup> The singers go in front, the players of instruments last; ‡
Between them the maidens playing on tambourines.

<sup>26</sup> Bless God in the congregations, [give thanks, gratefully praise Him], ‡

The LORD, you who are from [Jacob] the fountain of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> The youngest is there, Benjamin, ruling them, ‡

The princes of Judah and their company [the southern tribes],
The princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali [the northern tribes].

<sup>28</sup> Your God has commanded your strength [your power in His service and your resistance to temptation]; ‡

Show Yourself strong, O God, who acted on our behalf.

<sup>29</sup> Because of Your temple at Jerusalem ‡

[Pagan] kings will bring gifts to You [out of respect].

<sup>30</sup> Rebuke the beasts [living] among the reeds [in Egypt], ‡

The herd of bulls (the leaders) with the calves of the peoples;

Trampling underfoot the pieces of silver;

He has scattered the peoples who delight in war.

<sup>31</sup> Princes and envoys shall come from Egypt; ‡

Ethiopia will quickly stretch out her hands [with the offerings of submission] to God.

<sup>32</sup> Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth,
Sing praises to the Lord!

Selah.

<sup>33</sup> To Him who rides in the highest heavens, the ancient heavens, ‡

Behold, He sends out His voice, a mighty and majestic voice.

<sup>34</sup> Ascribe strength to God; ‡

His majesty is over Israel

And His strength is in the skies.

<sup>35</sup> O God, You are awesome and profoundly majestic from Your sanctuary; ‡

The God of Israel gives strength and power to His people.

Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

A Cry of Distress and Imprecation on Adversaries. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] "Lilies." A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>SAVE ME, O God, ‡

For the waters have threatened my life [they have come up to my neck].

<sup>2</sup> I have sunk in deep mire, where there is no foothold; ‡

I have come into deep waters, where a flood overwhelms me.

<sup>3</sup> I am weary with my crying; my throat is parched; ‡

My eyes fail while I wait [with confident expectation] for my God.

<sup>4</sup>Those who hate me without cause are more than the hairs of my head; ‡

Those who would destroy me are powerful, being my enemies wrongfully;

I am forced to restore what I did not steal.  [John 15:25. ]

<sup>5</sup> O God, You know my folly;

My wrongs are not hidden from You.

<sup>6</sup> Do not let those who wait [confidently] for You be ashamed through me, O Lord GOD of hosts;

Do not let those who seek You [as necessary for life itself] be dishonored through me, O God of Israel,

<sup>7</sup> Because for Your sake I have borne reproach;

Confusion and dishonor have covered my face.

<sup>8</sup> I have become estranged from my brothers ‡

And an alien to my mother's sons.  [John 7:3–5. ]

<sup>9</sup> For zeal for Your house has consumed me, ‡

And the [mocking] insults of those who insult You have fallen on me.  [John 2:17; Rom 15:3. ]

<sup>10</sup> When I wept and humbled myself with fasting, ‡

It became my reproach.

<sup>11</sup> When I made sackcloth my clothing [as one in mourning], ‡

I became a byword [a mere object of scorn] to them.

<sup>12</sup> They who sit in the [city's] gate talk about me and mock me,

‡

And I am the song of the drunkards.

<sup>13</sup> But as for me, my prayer is to You, O LORD, at an acceptable and opportune time; ‡

O God, in the greatness of Your favor and in the abundance of Your lovingkindness, Answer me with truth [that is, the faithfulness of Your salvation].

<sup>14</sup> Rescue me from the mire and do not let me sink; ‡

Let me be rescued from those who hate me and from the deep waters.

<sup>15</sup> Do not let the floodwater overwhelm me, ‡

Nor the deep waters swallow me up,

Nor the pit [of Sheol] shut its mouth over me.

<sup>16</sup> Answer me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is sweet and good and comforting; ‡

According to the greatness of Your compassion, turn to me.

<sup>17</sup> Do not hide Your face from Your servant, ‡

For I am in distress; answer me quickly.

<sup>18</sup> Draw near to my soul and redeem it;

Ransom me because of my enemies [so that they do not delight in my distress].

<sup>19</sup> You know my reproach and my shame and my dishonor [how I am insulted]; ‡

My adversaries are all before You [each one fully known].

<sup>20</sup> Reproach and insults have broken my heart and I am so sick.
‡

I looked for sympathy, but there was none,

And for comforters, but I found none.

<sup>21</sup> They (self-righteous hypocrites) also gave me gall [poisonous and bitter] for my food, ‡

And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. [Matt 27:34, 48]

<sup>22</sup> May their table [with all its abundance and luxury] become a snare [to them]; ‡

And when they are in peace [secure at their sacrificial feasts], may it become a trap.

<sup>23</sup> May their eyes be dimmed so that they cannot see,‡
And make their loins shake continually [in terror and weakness].

<sup>24</sup> Pour out Your indignation on them,‡
And let [the fierceness of] Your burning anger overtake them.

<sup>25</sup> May their encampment be desolate;‡
May no one dwell in their tents.  [Matt 23:38; Acts 1:20 ]

<sup>26</sup> For they have persecuted him whom You have struck,‡
And they tell of the pain of those whom You have pierced and wounded.

<sup>27</sup> Add [unforgiven] iniquity to their iniquity [in Your book],‡
And may they not come into Your righteousness.

<sup>28</sup> May they be blotted out of the book of life [and their lives come to an end]‡
And may they not be recorded with the righteous (those in right standing with God).  [Rev 3:4, 5; 20:12, 15;
21:27 ]

<sup>29</sup> But I am sorrowful and in pain;
May Your salvation, O God, set me [securely] on high.

<sup>30</sup> I will praise the name of God with song‡
And magnify Him with thanksgiving.

<sup>31</sup> And it will please the LORD better than an ox‡
Or a young bull with horns and hoofs.

<sup>32</sup> The humble have seen it and are glad;‡
You who seek God [requiring Him as your greatest need], let your heart revive and live.  [Ps 22:26; 42:1 ]

<sup>33</sup> For the LORD hears the needy‡
And does not despise His who are prisoners.

<sup>34</sup> Let heaven and earth praise Him,‡
The seas and everything that moves in them.

<sup>35</sup> For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah,‡
That His servants may remain there and possess it.

<sup>36</sup> The descendants of His servants will inherit it,‡
And those who love His name will dwell in it.

Psalm 70

Prayer for Help against Persecutors. ‡

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

- <sup>1</sup> O GOD, come quickly to save me; ‡
O LORD, come quickly to help me!
<sup>2</sup> Let those be ashamed and humiliated ‡
Who seek my life;
Let them be turned back and humiliated
Who delight in my hurt.
<sup>3</sup> Let them be turned back because of their shame and disgrace ‡
Who say, “Aha, aha!”
- <sup>4</sup> May all those who seek You [as life’s first priority] rejoice and be glad in You;
May those who love Your salvation say continually,
“Let God be magnified!”
<sup>5</sup> But I am afflicted and needy; ‡
Come quickly to me, O God!
You are my help and my rescuer;
O LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

Prayer of an Old Man for Rescue.

- <sup>1</sup> IN YOU, O LORD, I have put my trust and confidently taken refuge; ‡
Let me never be put to shame.
<sup>2</sup> In Your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; ‡
Incline Your ear to me and save me.
<sup>3</sup> Be to me a rock of refuge and a sheltering stronghold to which I may continually come; ‡
You have given the commandment to save me,
For You are my rock and my fortress.
<sup>4</sup> Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked (godless), ‡

From the grasp of the unrighteous and ruthless man.

<sup>5</sup> For You are my hope; ‡

O Lord GOD, You are my trust and the source of my confidence from my youth.

<sup>6</sup> Upon You have I relied and been sustained from my birth; ‡

You are He who took me from my mother's womb and You have been my benefactor from that day.

My praise is continually of You.

<sup>7</sup> I am as a wonder to many, ‡

For You are my strong refuge.

<sup>8</sup> My mouth is filled with Your praise ‡

And with Your glory all day long.

<sup>9</sup> Do not cast me off nor send me away in the time of old age; ‡

Do not abandon me when my strength fails and I am weak.

<sup>10</sup> For my enemies have spoken against me; ‡

Those who watch for my life have consulted together,

<sup>11</sup> Saying, "God has abandoned him;

Pursue and seize him, for there is no one to rescue him."

<sup>12</sup> O God, do not be far from me; ‡

O my God, come quickly to help me!

<sup>13</sup> Let those who attack my life be ashamed and consumed; ‡

Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor, who seek to injure me.

<sup>14</sup> But as for me, I will wait and hope continually,

And will praise You yet more and more.

<sup>15</sup> My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness ‡

And of Your [deeds of] salvation all day long,

For their number is more than I know.

<sup>16</sup> I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord GOD [and in His strength];

I will make mention of Your righteousness, Yours alone.

<sup>17</sup> O God, You have taught me from my youth,

And I still declare Your wondrous works and miraculous deeds.

<sup>18</sup> And even when I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not abandon me, ‡

Until I declare Your [mighty] strength to this generation,
Your power to all who are to come.

<sup>19</sup> Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the [height of the] heavens, ‡

You who have done great things;
O God, who is like You, [who is Your equal]?‡

<sup>20</sup> You who have shown me many troubles and distresses ‡
Will revive and renew me again,

And will bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

<sup>21</sup> May You increase my greatness (honor)
And turn to comfort me.

<sup>22</sup> I will also praise You with the harp, ‡
Your truth and faithfulness, O my God;
To You I will sing praises with the lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to You, ‡
And my soul, which You have redeemed.

<sup>24</sup> My tongue also will speak of Your righteousness all day long;
For they are ashamed, for they are humiliated who seek my injury.

Psalm 72

The Reign of the Righteous King. ‡

A Psalm of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup> GIVE THE king [knowledge of] Your judgments, O God,
And [the spirit of] Your righteousness to the king's son [to guide all his ways].

<sup>2</sup> May he judge Your people with righteousness, ‡
And Your afflicted with justice. [1 Kin 3:1–5.]

<sup>3</sup> The mountains will bring peace and prosperity to the people, ‡
And the hills, in [the establishment of] righteousness.

<sup>4</sup> May he bring justice to the poor among the people, ‡

Save the children of the needy
And crush the oppressor,

<sup>5</sup> Let them fear You [with awe-inspired reverence and worship
    You with obedience] while the sun endures,‡
And as long as the moon [reflects light], throughout all generations.

<sup>6</sup> May he come down like rain on the mown grass,‡
Like showers that water the earth.

<sup>7</sup> In his days may the righteous flourish,‡
And peace abound until the moon is no more.  [Is 11:1–9 ]

<sup>8</sup>. May he also rule from sea to sea ‡
And from the River [Euphrates] to the ends of the earth. [
Zech 14:9.]

<sup>9</sup> The nomads of the desert will bow before him,‡
And his enemies will lick the dust.

<sup>10</sup> The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring offerings;‡
The kings of Sheba and Seba will offer gifts.

<sup>11</sup> Yes, all kings will bow down before him,‡
All nations will serve him.  [Ps 138:4 ]

<sup>12</sup> For he will rescue the needy when he cries for help,‡
The afflicted and abused also, and him who has no helper.

<sup>13</sup> He will have compassion on the poor and needy,
And he will save the lives of the needy.

<sup>14</sup>. He will redeem their life from oppression and fraud and violence,‡
And their blood will be precious in His sight.

<sup>15</sup> So may he live, and may the gold of Sheba be given to him;
And let them pray for him continually;
Let them bless and praise him all day long.

<sup>16</sup> There will be an abundance of grain in the soil on the top of the mountains;‡
Its fruit will wave like [the cedars of] Lebanon,
And those of the city will flourish like grass of the earth.

17. May his name endure forever; ‡
May his name continue as long as the sun;
And let men bless themselves by him;
Let all nations call him blessed.

18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, ‡
Who alone does wonderful things.

19 Blessed be His glorious name forever; ‡
And may the whole earth be filled with His glory.
Amen and Amen.

20 The prayers of David son of Jesse are ended.

BOOK THREE

Psalm 73

The End of the Wicked Contrasted with That of the Righteous. ‡

A Psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> TRULY GOD is good to Israel,
To those who are pure in heart.
<sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet came close to stumbling,
My steps had almost slipped.
<sup>3</sup> For I was envious of the arrogant ‡
As I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
<sup>4</sup> For there are no pains in their death,
Their body is fat and pampered.
<sup>5</sup> They are not in trouble as other men, ‡
Nor are they plagued like mankind.
<sup>6</sup> Therefore pride is their necklace; ‡
Violence covers them like a garment [like a long, luxurious robe].
<sup>7</sup> Their eye bulges from fatness [they have more than the heart desires]; ‡
The imaginations of their mind run riot [with foolishness].
<sup>8</sup> They mock and wickedly speak of oppression; ‡
They speak loftily [with malice].
<sup>9</sup> They set their mouth against the heavens, ‡
And their tongue swaggers through the earth.  [Rev 13:6. ]
- <sup>10</sup> Therefore his people return to this place, ‡
And waters of abundance [offered by the irreverent] are [blindly] drunk by them.
<sup>11</sup> They say, “How does God know? ‡
Is there knowledge [of us] with the Most High?”
<sup>12</sup> Behold, these are the ungodly,
Who always prosper and are at ease [in the world]; they have increased in wealth.
<sup>13</sup> Surely then in vain I have cleansed my heart ‡

And washed my hands in innocence.  [Mal 3:14 ]

<sup>14</sup> For all the day long have I been stricken,
And punished every morning.

<sup>15</sup> If I had said, “I will say this,” [and expressed my feelings],
I would have betrayed the generation of Your children.

<sup>16</sup> When I considered how to understand this, ‡
It was too great an effort for me and too painful

<sup>17</sup> Until I came into the sanctuary of God; ‡
Then I understood [for I considered] their end.

<sup>18</sup> Surely You set the wicked-minded and immoral on slippery places; ‡

You cast them down to destruction.

<sup>19</sup> How they are destroyed in a moment!

They are completely swept away by sudden terrors!

<sup>20</sup> Like a dream [which seems real] until one awakens, ‡

O Lord, when stirred, [You observe the wicked], You will despise their image.

<sup>21</sup> When my heart was embittered
And I was pierced within [as with the fang of an adder],

<sup>22</sup> Then I was senseless and ignorant; ‡
I was like a beast before You.

<sup>23</sup> Nevertheless I am continually with You;
You have taken hold of my right hand.

<sup>24</sup> You will guide me with Your counsel, ‡
And afterward receive me to honor and glory.

<sup>25</sup> Whom have I in heaven [but You]? ‡
And besides You, I desire nothing on earth.

<sup>26</sup> My flesh and my heart may fail, ‡
But God is the rock and strength of my heart and my portion forever.

<sup>27</sup> For behold, those who are far from You will perish; ‡
You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful and have abandoned You.

<sup>28</sup> But as for me, it is good for me to draw near to God; ‡
I have made the Lord GOD my refuge and placed my trust in

Him,
That I may tell of all Your works.

Psalm 74

An Appeal against the Devastation of the Land by the Enemy.

A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup>O GOD, why have You rejected us forever? ‡
Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?
<sup>2</sup> Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,
Which You have redeemed to be the tribe of Your inheritance;
Remember Mount Zion, where You have dwelt.
<sup>3</sup> Turn your footsteps [quickly] toward the perpetual ruins;
The enemy has damaged everything within the sanctuary.
<sup>4</sup> In the midst of Your meeting place Your enemies have roared [with their battle cry]; ‡
They have set up their own emblems for signs [of victory].
<sup>5</sup> It seems as if one had lifted up
An axe in a forest of trees [to set a record of destruction].
<sup>6</sup> And now all the carved work [of the meeting place]
They smash with hatchets and hammers.
<sup>7</sup> They have burned Your sanctuary to the ground;
They have profaned the dwelling place of Your name.
<sup>8</sup> They said in their heart, “Let us completely subdue them.” ‡
They have burned all the meeting places of God in the land.
<sup>9</sup> We do not see our symbols; ‡
There is no longer any prophet [to guide us],
Nor does any among us know for how long.
<sup>10</sup> O God, how long will the adversary scoff?
Is the enemy to revile Your name forever?
<sup>11</sup> Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand [from judging the enemy]? ‡
Remove Your hand from Your chest, destroy them!
<sup>12</sup> Yet God is my King of old, ‡

Working salvation in the midst of the earth.

<sup>13</sup> You divided the [Red] Sea by Your strength; ‡
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.  [Ex 14:21 ]

<sup>14</sup> You crushed the heads of Leviathan (Egypt); ‡
You gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.  [Job 41:1 ]

<sup>15</sup> You broke open fountains and streams; ‡
You dried up ever-flowing rivers.  [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11; Josh 3:13 ]

<sup>16</sup> The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;
You have established and prepared the [heavenly] light and the sun.

<sup>17</sup> You have defined and established all the borders of the earth
[the divisions of land and sea and of the nations]; ‡
You have made summer and winter.  [Acts 17:26 ]

<sup>18</sup> Remember this, O LORD, the enemy has scoffed, ‡
And a foolish and impious people has spurned Your name.

<sup>19</sup> Oh, do not hand over the soul of your turtledove to the wild beast; ‡

Do not forget the life of Your afflicted forever.

<sup>20</sup> Consider the covenant [You made with Abraham], ‡
For the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence.

<sup>21</sup> Let not the oppressed return dishonored;
Let the afflicted and needy praise Your name.

<sup>22</sup> Arise, O God, plead Your own cause; ‡
Remember how the foolish man scoffs at You all day long.

<sup>23</sup> Do not forget the [clamoring] voices of Your adversaries,
The uproar of those who rise against You, which ascends continually [to Your ears].

Psalm 75

God Abases the Proud, but Exalts the Righteous. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Do Not Destroy.” A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

<sup>1</sup> WE GIVE thanks and praise to You, O God, we give thanks,
For Your [wonderful works declare that Your] name is near;
People declare Your wonders.

<sup>2</sup>“When I select an appointed time,
I will judge with equity,” [says the LORD].

<sup>3</sup> “The earth and all the inhabitants of it melt [in tumultuous times].

It is I who will steady its pillars.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup> “I said to the arrogant, ‘Do not boast;’ ‡
And to the wicked, ‘Do not lift up the horn [of self-glorification].

<sup>5</sup> ‘Do not lift up your [defiant and aggressive] horn on high,
Do not speak with a stiff neck.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> For not from the east, nor from the west,
Nor from the desert comes exaltation.  [Is 14:13 ]

<sup>7</sup> But God is the Judge; ‡
He puts down one and lifts up another.

<sup>8</sup> For a cup [of His wrath] is in the hand of the LORD, and the wine foams; ‡

It is well mixed and fully spiced, and He pours out from it;
And all the wicked of the earth must drain it and drink down to its dregs.  [Ps 60:3 ; Jer 25:15 ; Rev 14:9 , 10 ; 16:19 ]

<sup>9</sup> But as for me, I will declare it and rejoice forever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

<sup>10</sup> All the horns of the wicked He will cut off, ‡
But the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

Psalm 76

The Victorious Power of the God of Jacob.

To the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

<sup>1</sup> GOD IS known in Judah; ‡
His name is great in Israel.

<sup>2</sup> His tabernacle is in Salem (Jerusalem);
His dwelling place is in Zion.
<sup>3</sup> There He broke the flaming arrows, ‡
The shield, the sword, and the weapons of war.
Selah.

<sup>4</sup> You are glorious and resplendent, ‡
More majestic than the mountains of prey.
<sup>5</sup> The stouthearted have been stripped of their spoil, ‡
They have slept the sleep [of death];
And none of the warriors could use his hands.
<sup>6</sup> At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, ‡
Both rider and horse were cast into a dead sleep [of death].  [Ex 15:1, 21; Nah 2:13; Zech 12:4 ]

<sup>7</sup> You, even You, are to be feared [with the submissive wonder of reverence]; ‡
Who may stand in Your presence when once You are angry?

<sup>8</sup> You caused judgment to be heard from heaven; ‡
The earth feared and was quiet
<sup>9</sup> When God arose to [establish] judgment, ‡
To save all the humble of the earth.

Selah.

<sup>10</sup> For the wrath of man shall praise You; ‡
With a remnant of wrath You will clothe and arm Yourself.

<sup>11</sup> Make vows to the LORD your God and fulfill them; ‡
Let all who are around Him bring gifts to Him who is to be feared [with awe-inspired reverence].

<sup>12</sup> He will cut off the spirit of princes; ‡
He is awesome and feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

Comfort in Trouble from Recalling God's Mighty Deeds. ‡

To the Chief Musician; according to Jeduthun [one of David's three chief musicians, founder of an official musical family]. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> MY VOICE rises to God, and I will cry aloud; ‡

My voice rises to God, and He will hear me.

<sup>2</sup> In the day of my trouble I [desperately] sought the Lord; ‡

In the night my hand was stretched out [in prayer] without weariness;

My soul refused to be comforted.

<sup>3</sup>I remember God; then I am disquieted and I groan; ‡

I sigh [in prayer], and my spirit grows faint.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup> You have held my eyelids open;

I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

<sup>5</sup> I have considered the ancient days, ‡

The years [of prosperity] of long, long ago.

<sup>6</sup> I will remember my song in the night; ‡

I will meditate with my heart,

And my spirit searches:

<sup>7</sup>Will the Lord reject forever? ‡

And will He never be favorable again?

<sup>8</sup> Has His lovingkindness ceased forever? ‡

Have His promises ended for all time?

<sup>9</sup> Has God forgotten to be gracious? ‡

Or has He in anger withdrawn His compassion?

Selah.

<sup>10</sup> And I said, “This is my grief, ‡

That the right hand of the Most High has changed [and His lovingkindness is withheld].”

<sup>11</sup>I will [solemnly] remember the deeds of the LORD; ‡

Yes, I will [wholeheartedly] remember Your wonders of old.

<sup>12</sup> I will meditate on all Your works

And thoughtfully consider all Your [great and wondrous] deeds.

<sup>13</sup> Your way, O God, is holy [far from sin and guilt]. ‡

What god is great like our God?

<sup>14</sup> You are the [awesome] God who works [powerful] wonders;

You have demonstrated Your power among the people.

<sup>15</sup> You have with Your [great] arm redeemed Your people, ‡

The sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah.

<sup>16</sup> The waters [of the Red Sea] saw You, O God; ‡
The waters saw You, they were in anguish;
The deeps also trembled.

<sup>17</sup> The clouds poured down water; ‡
The skies sent out a sound [of rumbling thunder];
Your arrows (lightning) flashed here and there.

<sup>18</sup> The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind; ‡
The lightnings illumined the world;
The earth trembled and shook.

<sup>19</sup> Your way [of escape for Your people] was through the sea, ‡
And Your paths through the great waters,
And Your footprints were not traceable.

<sup>20</sup>. You led Your people like a flock ‡
By the hand of Moses and Aaron [to the promised goal].

Psalm 78

God's Guidance of His People in Spite of Their Unfaithfulness. ‡

A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> LISTEN, O my people, to my teaching; ‡ Incline your ears to the words of my mouth [and be willing to learn].

<sup>2</sup>I will open my mouth in a parable [to instruct using examples]; ‡
I will utter dark and puzzling sayings of old [that contain important truth]—  [Matt 13:34, 35 ]

<sup>3</sup> Which we have heard and known, ‡
And our fathers have told us.

<sup>4</sup>We will not hide them from their children, ‡
But [we will] tell to the generation to come the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD,
And [tell of] His great might and power and the wonderful works that He has done.

<sup>5</sup>.For He established a testimony (a specific precept) in Jacob ‡
And appointed a law in Israel,

Which He commanded our fathers
That they should teach to their children [the great facts of God's transactions with Israel], <sup>6</sup> That the generation to come might know them, that the children still to be born ‡
May arise and recount them to their children,
<sup>7</sup> That they should place their confidence in God
And not forget the works of God,
But keep His commandments,
<sup>8</sup> And not be like their fathers— ‡
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation that did not prepare its heart to know and follow God,
And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

<sup>9</sup> The sons of Ephraim were armed as archers and carrying bows,
Yet they turned back in the day of battle.
<sup>10</sup> They did not keep the covenant of God ‡
And refused to walk according to His law;
<sup>11</sup> And they forgot His [incredible] works ‡
And His miraculous wonders that He had shown them.
<sup>12</sup> He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers ‡
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan [where Pharaoh resided].
<sup>13</sup> He divided the [Red] Sea and allowed them to pass through it, ‡
And He made the waters stand up like [water behind] a dam.  [Ex 14:22 ]
<sup>14</sup> In the daytime He led them with a cloud ‡
And all the night with a light of fire.  [Ex 13:21; 14:24 ]
<sup>15</sup> He split rocks in the wilderness ‡
And gave them abundant [water to] drink like the ocean depths.
<sup>16</sup> He brought streams also from the rock [at Rephidim and Kadesh] ‡
And caused waters to run down like rivers.  [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11 ]
<sup>17</sup> Yet they still continued to sin against Him ‡
By rebelling against the Most High in the desert.

<sup>18</sup> And in their hearts they put God to the test ‡
By asking for food according to their [selfish] appetite.

<sup>19</sup> Then they spoke against God; ‡
They said, “Can God prepare [food for] a table in the wilderness?

<sup>20</sup> “Behold, He struck the rock so that waters gushed out ‡
And the streams overflowed;
Can He give bread also?
Or will He provide meat for His people?”

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, when the LORD heard, He was full of wrath; ‡
A fire was kindled against Jacob,
And His anger mounted up against Israel,

<sup>22</sup> Because they did not believe in God [they did not rely on Him, they did not adhere to Him], ‡
And they did not trust in His salvation (His power to save).

<sup>23</sup> Yet He commanded the clouds from above ‡
And opened the doors of heaven;

<sup>24</sup> And He rained down manna upon them to eat ‡
And gave them the grain of heaven.  [Ex 16:14; John 6:31 ]

<sup>25</sup> Man ate the bread of angels;
God sent them provision in abundance.

<sup>26</sup> He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens ‡
And by His [unlimited] power He guided the south wind.

<sup>27</sup> He rained meat upon them like the dust,
And winged birds (quail) like the sand of the seas.  [Num 11:31 ]

<sup>28</sup> And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
Around their tents.

<sup>29</sup> So they ate and were well filled, ‡
He gave them what they craved.

<sup>30</sup> Before they had satisfied their desire, ‡
And while their food was in their mouths,  [Num 11:33 ]

<sup>31</sup> The wrath of God rose against them
And killed some of the strongest of them,
And subdued the choice young men of Israel.

<sup>32</sup> In spite of all this they still sinned, ‡
For they did not believe in His wonderful and extraordinary works.

<sup>33</sup> Therefore He consumed their days like a breath [in emptiness and futility] ‡

And their years in sudden terror.

<sup>34</sup> When He killed [some of] them, then those remaining sought Him, ‡

And they returned [to Him] and searched diligently for God [for a time].

<sup>35</sup> And they remembered that God was their rock, ‡
And the Most High God their Redeemer.

<sup>36</sup> Nevertheless they flattered Him with their mouths ‡
And lied to Him with their tongues.

<sup>37</sup> For their heart was not steadfast toward Him,
Nor were they faithful to His covenant.  [Acts 8:21 ]

<sup>38</sup> But He, the source of compassion and lovingkindness, forgave their wickedness and did not destroy them; ‡

Many times He restrained His anger
And did not stir up all His wrath.

<sup>39</sup> For He [graciously] remembered that they were mere [human] flesh, ‡

A wind that goes and does not return.

<sup>40</sup> How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness ‡
And grieved Him in the desert!

<sup>41</sup> Again and again they tempted God, ‡
And distressed the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>42</sup> They did not remember [the miracles worked by] His [powerful] hand,

Nor the day when He redeemed them from the enemy,

<sup>43</sup> How He worked His miracles in Egypt
And His wonders in the field of Zoan [where Pharaoh resided],

<sup>44</sup> And turned their rivers into blood, ‡
And their streams, so that they could not drink.

<sup>45</sup> He sent among them swarms of flies which devoured them, ‡
And frogs which destroyed them.

<sup>46</sup> He also gave their crops to the grasshopper,
And the fruit of their labor to the locust.

- <sup>47</sup> He destroyed their vines with [great] hailstones ‡
And their sycamore trees with frost.
- <sup>48</sup> He gave over their cattle also to the hailstones, ‡
And their flocks and herds to thunderbolts.  [Ex 9:18–21 ]
- <sup>49</sup> He sent upon them His burning anger,  [Ex 12:23 ]
His fury and indignation and distress,
A band of angels of destruction [among them].
- <sup>50</sup> He leveled a path for His anger [to give it free run];
He did not spare their souls from death,
But turned over their lives to the plague.
- <sup>51</sup> He killed all the firstborn in Egypt, ‡
The first and best of their strength in the tents [of the land of the sons] of Ham.
- <sup>52</sup> But God led His own people forward like sheep ‡
And guided them in the wilderness like [a good shepherd with] a flock.
- <sup>53</sup> He led them safely, so that they did not fear; ‡
But the sea engulfed their enemies.  [Ex 14:27, 28 ]
- <sup>54</sup> So He brought them to His holy land, ‡
To this mountain [Zion] which His right hand had acquired.
- <sup>55</sup> He also drove out the nations before the sons of Israel ‡
And allotted their land as an inheritance, measured out and partitioned;
And He had the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents [the tents of those who had been dispossessed].
- <sup>56</sup> Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God ‡
And did not keep His testimonies (laws).
- <sup>57</sup> They turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers; ‡
They were twisted like a warped bow [that will not respond to the archer's aim].
- <sup>58</sup> For they provoked Him to [righteous] anger with their high places [devoted to idol worship] ‡
And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images [by denying Him the love, worship, and obedience that is rightfully and uniquely His].
- <sup>59</sup> When God heard this, He was filled with [righteous] wrath;
And utterly rejected Israel, [greatly hating her ways],

<sup>60</sup> So that He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh,
The tent in which He had dwelled among men, <sup>61</sup> And gave up His strength and power (the ark of the covenant) into captivity, ‡
And His glory into the hand of the enemy (the Philistines).  [1 Sam 4:21 ]

<sup>62</sup> He also handed His people over to the sword, ‡
And was infuriated with His inheritance (Israel).  [1 Sam 4:10 ]

<sup>63</sup> The fire [of war] devoured His young men, ‡
And His [bereaved] virgins had no wedding songs.

<sup>64</sup> His priests [Hophni and Phinehas] fell by the sword, ‡
And His widows could not weep.  [1 Sam 4:11 , 19 , 20 ]

<sup>65</sup> Then the Lord awakened as from sleep, ‡
Like a [mighty] warrior who awakens from the sleep of wine [fully conscious of his power].

<sup>66</sup> He drove His enemies backward; ‡
He subjected them to lasting shame and dishonor.

<sup>67</sup> Moreover, He rejected the tent of Joseph,
And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim [in which the tabernacle stood].

<sup>68</sup> But He chose the tribe of Judah [as Israel's leader], ‡
Mount Zion, which He loved [to replace Shiloh as His capital].

<sup>69</sup> And He built His sanctuary [exalted] like the heights [of the heavens],
Like the earth which He has established forever.

<sup>70</sup> He also chose David His servant ‡
And took him from the sheepfolds;  [1 Sam 16:11 , 12 ]

<sup>71</sup> From tending the ewes with nursing young He brought him ‡
To shepherd Jacob His people,
And Israel His inheritance.  [2 Sam 7:7 , 8 ]

<sup>72</sup> So David shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart; ‡
And guided them with his skillful hands.

Psalm 79

A Lament over the Destruction of Jerusalem, and Prayer for Help.

A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>O GOD, the nations have invaded [the land of Your people]
Your inheritance; ‡
They have defiled Your sacred temple;
They have laid Jerusalem in ruins.
<sup>2</sup> They have given the dead bodies of Your servants as food to the birds of the heavens, ‡
The flesh of Your godly ones to the beasts of the earth.
<sup>3</sup> They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem,
And there was no one to bury them.
<sup>4</sup> We have become an object of taunting to our neighbors
[because of our humiliation],
A derision and mockery to those who encircle us.
<sup>5</sup> How long, O LORD? Will You be angry forever? ‡
Will Your jealousy [which cannot endure a divided allegiance] burn like fire?
<sup>6</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the [Gentile] nations that do not know
You, ‡
And on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name. [2 Thess 1:8.]
<sup>7</sup> For they have devoured Jacob
And made his pasture desolate.
<sup>8</sup> O do not remember against us the sins and guilt of our forefathers. ‡
Let Your compassion and mercy come quickly to meet us,
For we have been brought very low.
<sup>9</sup> Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name; ‡
Rescue us, forgive us our sins for Your name's sake.
<sup>10</sup> Why should the [Gentile] nations say, "Where is their God?" ‡ Let there be known [without delay] among the nations in our sight [and to this generation],
Your vengeance for the blood of Your servants which has been poured out.
<sup>11</sup> Let the groaning and sighing of the prisoner come before You; ‡

According to the greatness of Your power keep safe those who are doomed to die.

<sup>12</sup> And return into the lap of our neighbors sevenfold ‡

The taunts with which they have taunted You, O Lord.

<sup>13</sup> So we Your people, the sheep of Your pasture, ‡

Will give You thanks forever;

We will declare and publish Your praise from generation to generation.

Psalm 80

God Implored to Rescue His People from Their Calamities. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to [the tune of] “Lilies, a Testimony.” A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> HEAR US O Shepherd of Israel, ‡

You who lead Joseph like a flock;

You who sit enthroned above the cherubim [of the ark of the covenant], shine forth!

<sup>2</sup> Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up Your power

And come to save us!

<sup>3</sup> Restore us, O God; ‡

Cause Your face to shine on us [with favor and approval], and we will be saved.

<sup>4</sup> O LORD God of hosts,

How long will You be angry with the prayers of Your people?

<sup>5</sup> You have fed them the bread of tears, ‡

And You have made them drink [bitter] tears in abundance.

<sup>6</sup> You make us an object of contention to our neighbors,

And our enemies laugh [at our suffering] among themselves.

<sup>7</sup> Restore us, O God of hosts;

And cause Your face to shine on us [with favor and approval], and we will be saved.

<sup>8</sup> You uprooted a vine (Israel) from Egypt; ‡

You drove out the [Canaanite] nations and planted the vine [in Canaan].

<sup>9</sup> You cleared away the ground before it,
And it took deep root and filled the land.

<sup>10</sup> The mountains were covered with its shadow,
And its branches were like the cedars of God.

<sup>11</sup> Israel sent out its branches to the [Mediterranean] Sea,
And its branches to the [Euphrates] River.  [1 Kin 4:21. ]

<sup>12</sup> Why have You broken down its walls and hedges, ‡
So that all who pass by pick its fruit?

<sup>13</sup> A boar from the woods eats it away,
And the insects of the field feed on it.

<sup>14</sup> Turn again [in favor to us], O God of hosts; ‡
Look down from heaven and see, and take care of this vine,

<sup>15</sup> Even the stock which Your right hand has planted,
And [look down on] the son that You have reared and strengthened for Yourself.

<sup>16</sup> It is burned with fire, it is cut down; ‡
They perish at the rebuke of Your [angry] appearance.

<sup>17</sup> Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand, ‡
Upon the son of man whom You have made strong for Yourself.

<sup>18</sup> Then we shall not turn back from You;
Revive us and we will call on Your name.

<sup>19</sup> Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; Cause Your face to shine on us [in favor and approval], and we shall be saved.

Psalm 81

God's Goodness and Israel's Waywardness. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to the Philistine lute. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> SING ALOUD to God our strength;
Shout for joy to the God of Jacob (Israel).

<sup>2</sup> Raise a song, sound the timbrel,
The sweet sounding lyre with the harp.
<sup>3</sup> Blow the trumpet at the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our feast day.

<sup>4</sup> For this is a statute for Israel,
An ordinance of the God of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> He established it for a testimony in Joseph ‡
When He went throughout the land of Egypt.
I heard the language [of One whom] I did not know, saying,

<sup>6</sup> “I removed the burden from his shoulder;
His hands were freed from the basket.

<sup>7</sup> “You called in [the time of] trouble and I rescued you; ‡
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.  [Num 20:3, 13, 24 ]

Selah.

<sup>8</sup> “Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you— ‡
O Israel, if you would listen to Me!

<sup>9</sup> “Let there be no strange god among you, ‡
Nor shall you worship any foreign god.

<sup>10</sup> “I am the LORD your God, ‡
Who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

<sup>11</sup> “But My people would not listen to My voice, ‡
And Israel did not [consent to] obey Me.

<sup>12</sup> “So I gave them up to the stubbornness of their heart, ‡
To walk in [the path of] their own counsel.  [Acts 7:42, 43; 14:16
; Rom 1:24, 26 ]

<sup>13</sup> “Oh, that My people would listen to Me, ‡
That Israel would walk in My ways!

<sup>14</sup> “Then I would quickly subdue and humble their enemies
And turn My hand against their adversaries;

<sup>15</sup> Those who hate the LORD would pretend obedience to Him and cringe before Him, ‡
And their time of punishment would be forever.

<sup>16</sup> “But I would feed Israel with the finest of the wheat; ‡
And with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Psalm 82

Unjust Judgments Rebuked.

A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> GOD STANDS in the divine assembly; ‡

He judges among the gods (divine beings).

<sup>2</sup> How long will you judge unjustly ‡

And show partiality to the wicked?

Selah.

<sup>3</sup> Vindicate the weak and fatherless; ‡

Do justice and maintain the rights of the afflicted and destitute.

<sup>4</sup> Rescue the weak and needy; ‡

Rescue them from the hand of the wicked.

<sup>5</sup> The rulers do not know nor do they understand; ‡

They walk on in the darkness [of complacent satisfaction];

All the foundations of the earth [the fundamental principles of the administration of justice] are shaken.

Indeed, all of you are sons of the Most High.  [Gen 6:1–4; John 10:34–36; Rom 13:1, 2 ]

<sup>7</sup> “Nevertheless you will die like men ‡

And fall like any one of the princes.”

<sup>8</sup> Arise, O God, judge the earth! ‡

For to You belong all the nations.  [Matt 28:18–20; Rev 11:15 ]

Psalm 83

God Implored to Confound His Enemies.

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> DO NOT keep silent, O God; ‡

Do not hold Your peace or be still, O God.

<sup>2</sup> For behold, Your enemies are in tumult, ‡

And those who hate You have raised their heads [in hatred of You].  [Acts 4:25, 26 ]

<sup>3</sup> They concoct crafty schemes against Your people, ‡

And conspire together against Your hidden and precious ones.

<sup>4</sup> They have said, “Come, and let us wipe them out as a nation; ‡

Let the name of Israel be remembered no more.”

<sup>5</sup> For they have conspired together with one mind;
Against You they make a covenant—

<sup>6</sup> The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, ‡

Of Moab and the Hagrites,

<sup>7</sup> Gebal and Ammon and Amalek,
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre.

<sup>8</sup> Assyria also has joined with them;
They have helped the children of Lot [the Ammonites and the Moabites] and have been an arm [of strength] to them.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup> Deal with them as [You did] with Midian, ‡

As with Sisera and Jabin at the brook of Kishon,  [Judg 4:12–24 ]

<sup>10</sup> Who were destroyed at En-dor, ‡

Who became like dung for the earth.

<sup>11</sup> Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb ‡

And all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,  [Judg 7:23–25 ;
8:10–21 ]

<sup>12</sup> Who said, “Let us possess for ourselves

The pastures of God.”

<sup>13</sup> O my God, make them like whirling dust, ‡

Like chaff before the wind [worthless and without substance].

<sup>14</sup> Like fire consumes the forest, ‡

And like the flame sets the mountains on fire,

<sup>15</sup> So pursue them with Your tempest

And terrify them with [the violence of] Your storm.

<sup>16</sup> Fill their faces with shame and disgrace,

That they may [persistently] seek Your name, O LORD.

<sup>17</sup> Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever;

Yes, let them be humiliated and perish,

<sup>18</sup> That they may know that You alone, whose name is the LORD,
‡

Are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

Longing for the Temple Worship. ‡

To the Chief Musician; set to a Philistine lute. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> HOW LOVELY are Your dwelling places, ‡
O LORD of hosts!

<sup>2</sup> My soul (my life, my inner self) longs for and greatly desires the courts of the LORD; ‡

My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.

<sup>3</sup> The bird has found a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young

Even Your altars, O LORD of hosts,
My King and my God.

<sup>4</sup> Blessed and greatly favored are those who dwell in Your house and Your presence;

They will be singing Your praises all the day long.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup> Blessed and greatly favored is the man whose strength is in You,
In whose heart are the highways to Zion.

<sup>6</sup> Passing through the Valley of Weeping (Baca), they make it a place of springs; ‡

The early rain also covers it with blessings.

<sup>7</sup> They go from strength to strength [increasing in victorious power]; ‡

Each of them appears before God in Zion.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Listen, O God of Jacob!

Selah.

<sup>9</sup> See our shield, O God, ‡

And look at the face of Your anointed [the king as Your representative].

<sup>10</sup> For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand [anywhere else];

I would rather stand [as a doorkeeper] at the threshold of the house of my God

Than to live [at ease] in the tents of wickedness.

<sup>11</sup>For the LORD God is a sun and shield; ‡
The LORD bestows grace and favor and honor;
No good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly.
<sup>12</sup>O LORD of hosts, ‡
How blessed and greatly favored is the man who trusts in You [believing in You, relying on You, and committing himself to You with confident hope and expectation].

Psalm 85

Prayer for God's Mercy upon the Nation. ‡

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, You have [at last] shown favor to Your land [of Canaan]; ‡

You have restored [from Babylon] the captives of Jacob (Israel).

<sup>2</sup>You have forgiven the wickedness of Your people;
You have covered all their sin.

Selah.

<sup>3</sup>You have withdrawn all Your wrath,
You have turned away from Your burning anger.

<sup>4</sup>Restore us, O God of our salvation,‡
And cause Your indignation toward us to cease.

<sup>5</sup>Will You be angry with us forever? ‡
Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?

<sup>6</sup>Will You not revive us and bring us to life again, ‡
That Your people may rejoice in You?

<sup>7</sup>Show us Your lovingkindness, O LORD,
And grant us Your salvation.

<sup>8</sup>I will hear [with expectant hope] what God the LORD will say, ‡
For He will speak peace to His people, to His godly ones—
But let them not turn again to folly.

<sup>9</sup>Surely His salvation is near to those who [reverently] fear Him
[and obey Him with submissive wonder], ‡
That glory [the manifest presence of God] may dwell in our land.

<sup>10</sup> Steadfast love and truth and faithfulness meet together; ‡
Righteousness and peace kiss each other.

<sup>11</sup> Truth springs from the earth,
And righteousness looks down from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, the LORD will give what is good, ‡
And our land will yield its produce.

<sup>13</sup> Righteousness will go before Him ‡
And will make His footsteps into a way [in which to walk].

Psalm 86

A Psalm of Supplication and Trust.

A Prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup> INCLINE YOUR ear, O LORD, and answer me,
For I am distressed and needy [I long for Your help].

<sup>2</sup> Protect my life (soul), for I am godly and faithful;
O You my God, save Your servant, who trusts in You [believing in You and relying on You, confidently committing everything to You].

<sup>3</sup> Be gracious and merciful to me, O Lord, ‡
For to You I cry out all the day long.

<sup>4</sup> Make Your servant rejoice, ‡
For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul [all that I am—in prayer].

<sup>5</sup> For You, O Lord, are good, and ready to forgive [our sins, sending them away, completely letting them go forever and ever]; ‡

And abundant in lovingkindness and overflowing in mercy to all those who call upon You.

<sup>6</sup> Hear, O LORD, my prayer;
And listen attentively to the voice of my supplications (specific requests)!

<sup>7</sup> In the day of my trouble I will call upon You,
For You will answer me.

<sup>8</sup> There is no one like You among the gods, O Lord, ‡
Nor are there any works [of wonder and majesty] like Yours.

<sup>9</sup> All nations whom You have made shall come and kneel down

- in worship before You, O Lord,‡
And they shall glorify Your name.
- <sup>10</sup> For You are great and do wondrous works!‡
You alone are God.
- <sup>11</sup> Teach me Your way, O LORD,‡
I will walk and live in Your truth;
Direct my heart to fear Your name [with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder].  [Ps 5:11; 69:36 ]
- <sup>12</sup> I will give thanks and praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart;
And will glorify Your name forevermore.
- <sup>13</sup> For great is Your lovingkindness and graciousness toward me;
And You have rescued my life from the depths of Sheol [from death].
- <sup>14</sup> O God, arrogant and insolent men have risen up against me;
A band of violent men have sought my life,
And they have not set You before them.
- <sup>15</sup> But You, O Lord, are a God [who protects and is] merciful and gracious,‡
Slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness and truth.
- <sup>16</sup> Turn to me, and be gracious to me;
Grant Your strength [Your might and the power to resist temptation] to Your servant,
And save the son of Your handmaid.
- <sup>17</sup> Show me a sign of [Your] goodwill,
That those who hate me may see it and be ashamed,
Because You, O LORD, helped and comforted me.

Psalm 87

The Privileges of Citizenship in Zion. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

- <sup>1</sup>HIS FOUNDATION is on the holy mountain.
<sup>2</sup> The LORD loves the gates of Zion‡
More than all the dwellings of Jacob (Israel).

<sup>3</sup> Glorious things are spoken of you, ‡

O city of God [Jerusalem].

Selah.

<sup>4</sup> “I will mention Rahab (Egypt) and Babylon among those who know Me—

Behold, Philistia and Tyre with Ethiopia (Cush)—

‘This one was born there.’ ”

<sup>5</sup> But of Zion it will be said, “This one and that one were born in her,”

And the Most High Himself will establish her.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD will count, when He registers the peoples, ‡

“This one was born there.”

Selah.

<sup>7</sup> The singers as well as the players of flutes will say,

“All my springs and sources of joy are in you [Jerusalem, city of God].”

Psalm 88

A Petition to Be Saved from Death. ‡

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. To the Chief Musician; set to chant mournfully. A didactic or reflective poem of Heman the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, the God of my salvation, ‡

I have cried out [for help] by day and in the night before You. [

Luke 18:7]

<sup>2</sup> Let my prayer come before You and enter into Your presence;

Incline Your ear to my cry!

<sup>3</sup> For my soul is full of troubles, ‡

And my life draws near the grave (Sheol, the place of the dead).

<sup>4</sup> I am counted among those who go down to the pit (grave); ‡

I am like a man who has no strength [a mere shadow],

<sup>5</sup> Cast away [from the living] and abandoned among the dead, ‡

Like the slain who lie in a [nameless] grave,

Whom You no longer remember,

And they are cut off from Your hand.

<sup>6</sup> You have laid me in the lowest pit,

In dark places, in the depths.

<sup>7</sup> Your wrath has rested heavily upon me, ‡
And You have afflicted me with all Your waves.  [Ps 42:7 ]
Selah.

<sup>8</sup> You have put my friends far from me; ‡
You have made me an object of loathing to them.
I am shut up and I cannot go out.
<sup>9</sup> My eye grows dim with sorrow. ‡
O LORD, I have called on You every day;
I have spread out my hands to You [in prayer].

<sup>10</sup> Will You perform wonders for the dead? ‡
Shall the departed spirits arise and praise You?
Selah.
<sup>11</sup> Will Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave
Or Your faithfulness in Abaddon (the underworld)?
<sup>12</sup> Will Your wonders be known in the darkness? ‡
And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness [where the dead forget and are forgotten]?

<sup>13</sup> But I have cried out to You, O LORD, for help; ‡
And in the morning my prayer will come to You.
<sup>14</sup> O LORD, why do You reject me? ‡
Why do You hide Your face from me?  [Matt 27:46 ]
<sup>15</sup> I was afflicted and close to death from my youth on; ‡
I suffer Your terrors; I am overcome.
<sup>16</sup> Your fierce wrath has swept over me;
Your terrors have destroyed me.
<sup>17</sup> They have surrounded me like flood waters all day long; ‡
They have completely encompassed me.
<sup>18</sup> Lover and friend You have placed far from me; ‡
My familiar friends are in darkness.

Psalm 89

The LORD 's Covenant with David, and Israel's Afflictions. ‡
A skillful song, or a didactic or reflective poem, of Ethan the Ezrahite.

With my mouth I will make known Your faithfulness from generation to generation.

<sup>2</sup> For I have said, “Goodness and lovingkindness will be built up forever; ‡

In the heavens [unchangeable and majestic] You will establish Your faithfulness.”

<sup>3</sup> [God has said] “I have made a covenant with My chosen one; ‡
I have sworn to David My servant,

And I will build up your throne for all generations.”  [Is 9:7; Jer 33:14–26; Luke 1:32, 33; Gal 3:16 ]

Selah.

<sup>5</sup> The heavens (angels) praise Your wonders, O LORD, ‡
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

<sup>6</sup> For who in the heavens can be compared to the LORD?
Who among the divine beings is like the LORD,

<sup>7</sup> A God greatly feared and reverently worshiped in the council of the holy [angelic] ones, ‡

And awesome above all those who are around Him?

<sup>8</sup> O LORD God of hosts, who is like You, O mighty LORD?
Your faithfulness surrounds You [as an intrinsic, unchangeable part of Your very being].

When its waves rise, You still them.  [Ps 65:7; 107:29; Mark 4:39

<sup>10</sup> You have crushed Rahab (Egypt) like one who is slain; ‡
You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.

<sup>11</sup> The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours;
The world and all that is in it, You have founded and established them.  [Gen 1:3 ]

<sup>12</sup> The north and the south, You have created them; ‡

Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon shout for joy at Your name.

<sup>13</sup> You have a strong arm;

Mighty is Your hand, Your right hand is exalted.

<sup>14</sup> Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
Lovingkindness and truth go before You.

<sup>15</sup> Blessed and happy are the people who know the joyful sound [of the trumpet's blast]! ‡

They walk, O LORD, in the light and favor of Your countenance!

<sup>16</sup> In Your name they rejoice all the day,
And in Your righteousness they are exalted.

<sup>17</sup> For You are the glory of their strength [their proud adornment],
And by Your favor our horn is exalted.

<sup>18</sup> For our shield belongs to the LORD,
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> Once You spoke in a vision to Your godly ones, ‡
And said, "I have given help to one who is mighty [giving him the power to be a champion for Israel];
I have exalted one chosen from the people.

<sup>20</sup> "I have found David My servant;
With My holy oil I have anointed him,  [Acts 13:22 ]

<sup>21</sup> With whom My hand shall be established and steadfast; ‡
My arm also shall strengthen him.

<sup>22</sup> "The enemy will not outwit him, ‡
Nor will the wicked man afflict or humiliate him.

<sup>23</sup> "I will crush his adversaries before him, ‡
And strike those who hate him.

<sup>24</sup> "My faithfulness and My steadfast lovingkindness shall be with him, ‡
And in My name shall his horn be exalted [great power and prosperity shall be conferred upon him].

<sup>25</sup> "I will also set his hand on the [Mediterranean] sea,
And his right hand on the rivers [the tributaries of the Euphrates].

<sup>26</sup> "He will cry to Me, 'You are my Father, ‡
My God, and the rock of my salvation.'

<sup>27</sup> "I will also make him My firstborn (preeminent), ‡
The highest of the kings of the earth.  [Rev 1:5 ]

<sup>28</sup> "My lovingkindness I will keep for him forevermore, ‡
And My covenant will be confirmed to him.

29 “His descendants I will establish forever,‡
And his throne [will endure] as the days of heaven.  [Is 9:7; Jer 33:14–26; Gal 3:16 ]

30 “If his children turn away from My law‡
And do not walk in My ordinances,
31 If they break My statutes
And do not keep My commandments,
32 Then I will punish their transgression with the rod [of discipline],‡

And [correct] their wickedness with stripes.  [2 Sam 7:14 ]

33 “Nevertheless, I will not break off My lovingkindness from him,‡

Nor allow My faithfulness to fail.

34 “My covenant I will not violate,
Nor will I alter the utterance of My lips.

35 “Once [for all] I have sworn by My holiness, [My vow which cannot be violated];‡

I will not lie to David.

36 “His descendants shall endure forever‡
And his throne [will continue] as the sun before Me.  [Is 9:7; Jer 33:14–26; Gal 3:16 ]

37 “It shall be established forever like the moon,
And the witness in the heavens is ever faithful.”  [Rev 1:5; 3:14 ]

Selah.

38 But [in apparent contradiction of all this] You [the faithful LORD] have cast off and rejected;‡

You have been full of wrath against Your anointed.

39 You have spurned and repudiated the covenant with Your servant;‡

You have profaned his crown [by casting it] in the dust.

40 You have broken down all his [city] walls;

You have brought his strongholds to ruin.

41 All who pass along the road rob him;‡

He has become the scorn of his neighbors.

42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes;

You have made all his enemies rejoice.

<sup>43</sup> Also, You have turned back the edge of his sword
And have not made him [strong enough] to stand in battle.

<sup>44</sup> You have put an end to his splendor
And have hurled his throne to the ground.

<sup>45</sup> You have shortened the days of his youth;
You have covered him with shame.

Selah.

<sup>46</sup> How long, O LORD? ‡
Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your wrath burn like fire?

<sup>47</sup> Remember how fleeting my lifetime is; ‡
For what vanity, [for what emptiness, for what futility, for what wisp of smoke] You have created all the sons of men!

<sup>48</sup> What man can live and not see death? ‡
Can he rescue his soul from the [powerful] hand of Sheol (the nether world, the place of the dead)?

Selah.

<sup>49</sup> O Lord, where are Your former lovingkindnesses [so abundant in the days of David and Solomon], ‡

Which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?

<sup>50</sup> Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants [scorned, insulted, and disgraced]; ‡

How I bear in my heart the reproach of all the many peoples,

<sup>51</sup> With which Your enemies have taunted, O LORD, ‡

With which they have mocked the footsteps of Your anointed.

<sup>52</sup> Blessed be the LORD forevermore! ‡

Amen and Amen.

BOOK FOUR

Psalm 90

God's Eternity and Man's Transitoriness. ‡

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, YOU have been our dwelling place [our refuge, our sanctuary, our stability] in all generations. ‡

<sup>2</sup> Before the mountains were born ‡
Or before You had given birth to the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are [the eternal] God.

<sup>3</sup> You turn man back to dust, ‡
And say, “Return [to the earth], O children of [mortal] men!”
<sup>4</sup> For a thousand years in Your sight ‡
Are like yesterday when it is past,
Or as a watch in the night.  [2 Pet 3:8 ]
<sup>5</sup> You have swept them away like a flood, they fall asleep
[forgotten as soon as they are gone]; ‡
In the morning they are like grass which grows anew—
<sup>6</sup> In the morning it flourishes and springs up;
In the evening it wilts and withers away.

<sup>7</sup> For we have been consumed by Your anger
And by Your wrath we have been terrified.
<sup>8</sup> You have placed our wickedness before you, ‡
Our secret sins [which we tried to conceal, You have placed] in the [revealing] light of Your presence.

<sup>9</sup> For all our days pass away in Your wrath;
We have finished our years like a whispered sigh.  [Num 14:26–35 ]

<sup>10</sup> The days of our life are seventy years—
Or even, if because of strength, eighty years;
Yet their pride [in additional years] is only labor and sorrow,
For it is soon gone and we fly away.

brevity of life among us with Your judgment of sin?] And Your wrath, [who connects it] with the [reverent] fear that is due You?

<sup>12</sup>So teach us to number our days, ‡
That we may cultivate and bring to You a heart of wisdom.

<sup>13</sup> Turn, O LORD [from Your fierce anger]; how long will it be? ‡
Be compassionate toward Your servants—revoke Your sentence.

<sup>14</sup> O satisfy us with Your lovingkindness in the morning [now, before we grow older], ‡

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

<sup>15</sup> Make us glad in proportion to the days You have afflicted us,
And the years we have suffered evil.

<sup>16</sup> Let Your work [the signs of Your power] be revealed to Your servants ‡

And Your [glorious] majesty to their children.

<sup>17</sup> And let the [gracious] favor of the Lord our God be on us; ‡
Confirm for us the work of our hands—
Yes, confirm the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

Security of the One Who Trusts in the LORD. ‡

<sup>1</sup> HE WHO dwells in the shelter of the Most High ‡
Will remain secure and rest in the shadow of the Almighty [whose power no enemy can withstand].

<sup>2</sup> I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress, ‡
My God, in whom I trust [with great confidence, and on whom I rely]!”

<sup>3</sup> For He will save you from the trap of the fowler, ‡
And from the deadly pestilence.

<sup>4</sup> He will cover you and completely protect you with His pinions, ‡
And under His wings you will find refuge;
His faithfulness is a shield and a wall.

<sup>5</sup> You will not be afraid of the terror of night, ‡
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,

- <sup>6</sup> Nor of the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
Nor of the destruction (sudden death) that lays waste at noon.
- <sup>7</sup> A thousand may fall at your side
And ten thousand at your right hand,
But danger will not come near you.
- <sup>8</sup> You will only [be a spectator as you] look on with your eyes ‡
And witness the [divine] repayment of the wicked [as you watch safely from the shelter of the Most High].
- <sup>9</sup> Because you have made the LORD, [who is] my refuge, ‡
Even the Most High, your dwelling place,  [Ps 91:1, 14. ]
- <sup>10</sup> No evil will befall you, ‡
Nor will any plague come near your tent.
- <sup>11</sup>. For He will command His angels in regard to you, ‡
To protect and defend and guard you in all your ways [of obedience and service].
- <sup>12</sup> They will lift you up in their hands, ‡
So that you do not [even] strike your foot against a stone.  [Luke 4:10, 11; Heb 1:14. ]
- <sup>13</sup>. You will tread upon the lion and cobra;
The young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot.  [Luke 10:19. ]
- <sup>14</sup>. “Because he set his love on Me, therefore I will save him; ‡
I will set him [securely] on high, because he knows My name
[he confidently trusts and relies on Me, knowing I will never abandon him, no, never].
- <sup>15</sup> “He will call upon Me, and I will answer him; ‡
I will be with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and honor him.
- <sup>16</sup> “With a long life I will satisfy him
And I will let him see My salvation.”

Psalm 92

Praise for the LORD ’s Goodness.

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath day.

<sup>1</sup> IT IS a good and delightful thing to give thanks to the LORD, ‡
To sing praises to Your name, O Most High,

<sup>2</sup> To declare Your lovingkindness in the morning ‡
And Your faithfulness by night,

<sup>3</sup> With an instrument of ten strings and with the harp, ‡
With a solemn sound on the lyre.

<sup>4</sup> For You, O LORD, have made me glad by Your works;
At the works of Your hands I joyfully sing.

<sup>5</sup> How great are Your works, O LORD! ‡

Your thoughts are very deep [beyond man's understanding].

<sup>6</sup>-A senseless man [in his crude and uncultivated state] knows nothing, ‡

Nor does a [self-righteous] fool understand this:

<sup>7</sup> That though the wicked sprout up like grass ‡
And all evildoers flourish,

They will be destroyed forever.

<sup>8</sup> But You, LORD, are on high forever. ‡

<sup>9</sup> For behold, Your enemies, O LORD, ‡
For behold, Your enemies will perish;
All who do evil will be scattered.

<sup>10</sup>-But my horn [my emblem of strength and power] You have exalted like that of a wild ox; ‡

I am anointed with fresh oil [for Your service].

<sup>11</sup> My eye has looked on my foes; ‡

My ears hear of the evildoers who rise up against me.

<sup>12</sup>-The righteous will flourish like the date palm [long-lived, upright and useful]; ‡

They will grow like a cedar in Lebanon [majestic and stable].

<sup>13</sup> Planted in the house of the LORD, ‡

They will flourish in the courts of our God.

<sup>14</sup> [Growing in grace] they will still thrive and bear fruit and prosper in old age;

They will flourish and be vital and fresh [rich in trust and love and contentment];

<sup>15</sup> [They are living memorials] to declare that the LORD is upright and faithful [to His promises]; ‡

He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.  [Rom 9:14. ]

Psalm 93

The Majesty of the LORD .

1. THE LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty and splendor; ‡
The LORD has clothed and encircled Himself with strength;
the world is firmly established, it cannot be moved.
2 Your throne is established from of old; ‡
You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their pounding waves.

4. More than the sounds of many waters, ‡
More than the mighty breakers of the sea,
The LORD on high is mighty.

5 Your precepts are fully confirmed and completely reliable;
Holiness adorns Your house,
O LORD, forever.

Psalm 94

The LORD Implored to Avenge His People.

1 O LORD God, You to whom vengeance belongs, ‡
O God, You to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth [in judgment]!

2 Rise up, O Judge of the earth; ‡
Give to the proud a fitting compensation.

3 O LORD, how long will the wicked,
How long will the wicked rejoice in triumph?

4 They pour out words, speaking arrogant things; ‡
All who do evil boast proudly.  [Jude 14, 15. ]

5 They crush Your people, O LORD,
And afflict and abuse Your heritage.

6. They kill the widow and the alien
And murder the fatherless.

<sup>7</sup> Yet they say, “The LORD does not see,‡
Nor does the God of Jacob (Israel) notice it.”

<sup>8</sup> Consider thoughtfully, you senseless (stupid ones) among the people;‡
And you [dull-minded] fools, when will you become wise and understand?

<sup>9</sup> He who made the ear, does He not hear?‡
He who formed the eye, does He not see?

<sup>10</sup> He who instructs the nations,‡
Does He not rebuke and punish,
He who teaches man knowledge?

<sup>11</sup> The LORD knows the thoughts of man,‡
That they are a mere breath (vain, empty, futile). [1 Cor 3:20.]

12-Blessed [with wisdom and prosperity] is the man whom You discipline and instruct, O LORD,‡
And whom You teach from Your law,

13-That You may grant him [power to calm himself and find] peace in the days of adversity,

Until the pit is dug for the wicked and ungodly.

14-For the LORD will not abandon His people,‡
Nor will He abandon His inheritance.

<sup>15</sup> For judgment will again be righteous,
And all the upright in heart will follow it.

<sup>16</sup> Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?
Who will take a stand for me against those who do wickedness?

<sup>17</sup> If the LORD had not been my help,‡
I would soon have dwelt in [the land of] silence.

18-If I say, “My foot has slipped,”‡
Your compassion and lovingkindness, O LORD, will hold me up.

<sup>19</sup> When my anxious thoughts multiply within me,
Your comforts delight me.

<sup>20</sup> Can a throne of destruction be allied with You,‡
One which frames and devises mischief by decree [under the sacred name of law]?

<sup>21</sup> They band themselves together against the life of the righteous

And condemn the innocent to death.

<sup>22</sup> But the LORD has become my high tower and defense, ‡
And my God the rock of my refuge.

<sup>23</sup> He has turned back their own wickedness upon them ‡
And will destroy them by means of their own evil;
The LORD our God will wipe them out.

Psalm 95

Praise to the LORD , and Warning against Unbelief.

<sup>1</sup>O COME, let us sing joyfully to the LORD; ‡
Let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

<sup>2</sup> Let us come before His presence with a song of thanksgiving;
Let us shout joyfully to Him with songs.

<sup>3</sup> For the LORD is a great God ‡
And a great King above all gods,

<sup>4</sup> In whose hand are the depths of the earth;
The peaks of the mountains are His also.

<sup>5</sup> The sea is His, for He made it [by His command]; ‡
And His hands formed the dry land.  [Gen 1:9 ]

<sup>6</sup>O come, let us worship and bow down, ‡
Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker [in reverent praise and prayer].

<sup>7</sup> For He is our God ‡
And we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.
Today, if you will hear His voice,  [Heb 3:7–11 ]

<sup>8</sup> Do not harden your hearts and become spiritually dull as at Meribah [the place of strife], ‡
And as at Massah [the place of testing] in the wilderness,  [Ex 17:1–7 ; Num 20:1–13 ; Deut 6:16 ]

<sup>9</sup> “When your fathers tested Me, ‡
They tried Me, even though they had seen My work [of miracles].

<sup>10</sup> “For forty years I was grieved and disgusted with that generation,‡

And I said, ‘They are a people who err in their heart,
And they do not acknowledge or regard My ways.’”

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore I swore [an oath] in My wrath,‡
‘They absolutely shall not enter My rest [the land of promise].’”

 [Heb 4:3–11 ]

Psalm 96

A Call to Worship the LORD the Righteous Judge.

<sup>1</sup> O SING to the LORD a new song;‡

Sing to the LORD, all the earth!

<sup>2</sup> Sing to the LORD, bless His name;

Proclaim good news of His salvation from day to day.

<sup>3</sup> Declare His glory among the nations,

His marvelous works and wonderful deeds among all the peoples.

<sup>4</sup> For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised;‡

He is to be feared above all gods.  [Deut 6:5 ; Rev 14:7 ]

<sup>5</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are [worthless, lifeless] idols,‡

But the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>6</sup> Splendor and majesty are before Him;‡

Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples,‡

Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

<sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory of His name;

Bring an offering and come into His courts.

<sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness;‡

Tremble [in submissive wonder] before Him, all the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Say among the nations, “The LORD reigns;‡

Indeed, the world is firmly and securely established, it shall not be moved;

He will judge and rule the people with fairness.”  [Rev 11:15 ; 19:6

<sup>11</sup> Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;‡

Let the sea roar, and all the things it contains;
¹² Let the field be exultant, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy
¹³ Before the LORD, for He is coming, ‡
For He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness
And the peoples in His faithfulness.  [1 Chr 16:23–33; Rev 19:11

Psalm 97

The LORD 's Power and Dominion.

¹ THE LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice; ‡
Let the many islands and coastlands be glad.
² Clouds and thick darkness surround Him [as at Sinai]; ‡
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.  [Ex 19:9 ]
³ Fire goes before Him ‡
And burns up His adversaries on all sides.
⁴ His lightnings have illuminated the world; ‡
The earth has seen and trembled.
⁵ The mountains melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, ‡
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
⁶ The heavens declare His righteousness, ‡
And all the peoples see His glory and brilliance.
⁷ Let all those be [deeply] ashamed who serve carved images, ‡
Who boast in idols.
Worship Him, all you gods!  [Heb 1:6 ]
⁸ Zion heard this and was glad,
And the daughters (cities) of Judah rejoiced [in relief]
Because of Your judgments, O LORD.
⁹ For You are the LORD Most High over all the earth; ‡
You are exalted far above all gods.
¹⁰ You who love the LORD, hate evil; ‡
He protects the souls of His godly ones (believers),

He rescues them from the hand of the wicked.  [Rom 8:13–17 ]

<sup>11</sup> Light is sown [like seed] for the righteous and illuminates their path, ‡

And [irrepressible] joy [is spread] for the upright in heart [who delight in His favor and protection].

<sup>12</sup> Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous ones [those whose moral and spiritual integrity places them in right standing with God], ‡

And praise and give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.

Psalm 98

A Call to Praise the LORD for His Righteousness.

A Psalm.

<sup>1</sup>O SING to the LORD a new song, ‡

For He has done marvelous and wonderful things;
His right hand and His holy arm have gained the victory for Him.

He has [openly] revealed His righteousness in the sight of the nations.  [Luke 2:30, 31. ]

<sup>3</sup> He has [graciously] remembered His lovingkindness and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; ‡

All the ends of the earth have witnessed the salvation of our God.  [Acts 13:47; 28:28. ]

<sup>4</sup> Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth; ‡

Shout [in jubilation] and sing for joy and sing praises.

<sup>5</sup> Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre,

With the lyre and the sound of melody.

<sup>6</sup> With trumpets and the sound of the horn ‡

Shout with joy before the King, the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Let the sea thunder and roar, and all the things it contains,
The world and those who dwell in it.

<sup>8</sup> Let the rivers clap their hands; ‡

Let the mountains sing together for joy and delight

<sup>9</sup> Before the LORD, for He is coming to judge the earth; ‡
He will judge the world with righteousness
And the peoples with fairness.

Psalm 99

Praise to the LORD for His Fidelity to Israel.

<sup>1</sup> THE LORD reigns, let the peoples tremble [with submissive wonder]! ‡

He sits enthroned above the cherubim, let the earth shake!

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is great in Zion, ‡

And He is exalted and magnified above all the peoples.

<sup>3</sup> Let them [reverently] praise Your great and awesome name;
Holy is He.  [Rev 15:4 ]

<sup>4</sup> The strength of the King loves justice and righteous judgment; ‡
You have established fairness;

You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob (Israel).

<sup>5</sup> Exalt the LORD our God ‡

And worship at His footstool;
Holy is He.

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among His priests, ‡

And Samuel was among those who called on His name;
They called upon the LORD and He answered them.

<sup>7</sup> He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud; ‡

They kept His testimonies

And the statutes that He gave them.  [Ps 105:9, 10 ]

<sup>8</sup> You answered them, O LORD our God; ‡

You were a forgiving God to them,
And yet an avenger of their evil practices.

<sup>9</sup> Exalt the LORD our God ‡

And worship at His holy hill [Zion, the temple mount],
For the LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

All Men Exhorted to Praise God.

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

1. SHOUT JOYFULLY to the LORD, all the earth. ‡

2 Serve the LORD with gladness and delight;
Come before His presence with joyful singing.

3. Know and fully recognize with gratitude that the LORD Himself is God; ‡

It is He who has made us, not we ourselves [and we are His].
We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.  [Eph 2:10 ]

4 Enter His gates with a song of thanksgiving ‡
And His courts with praise.

Be thankful to Him, bless and praise His name.

5. For the LORD is good; ‡
His mercy and lovingkindness are everlasting,
His faithfulness [endures] to all generations.

Psalm 101

The Psalmist's Profession of Uprightness.

A Psalm of David.

1. I WILL sing of [steadfast] lovingkindness and justice;
To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.

2 I will behave wisely and follow the way of integrity. ‡
When will You come to me?

I will walk in my house in integrity and with a blameless heart.

3 I will set no worthless or wicked thing before my eyes. ‡
I hate the practice of those who fall away [from the right path];

It will not grasp hold of me.

4 A perverse heart shall depart from me; ‡
I will not tolerate evil.

<sup>5</sup> Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor, him I will silence; ‡
The one who has a haughty look and a proud (arrogant) heart
I will not tolerate.

<sup>6</sup> My eyes will be on the faithful (honorable) of the land, that they may dwell with me;
He who walks blamelessly is the one who will minister to and serve me.

<sup>7</sup> He who practices deceit will not dwell in my house;
He who tells lies and half-truths will not continue [to remain] in my presence.

<sup>8</sup> Morning after morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, ‡
That I may cut off from the city of the LORD all those who do evil.

Psalm 102

Prayer of an Afflicted Man for Mercy on Himself and on Zion. ‡
A Prayer of the afflicted; when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint to God.

<sup>1</sup> HEAR MY prayer, O LORD, ‡
And let my cry for help come to You!

<sup>2</sup> Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my distress! ‡
Incline Your ear to me;
In the day when I call, answer me quickly.

<sup>3</sup> For my days have vanished in smoke, ‡
And my bones have been scorched like a hearth.

<sup>4</sup> My heart has been struck like grass and withered, ‡
Indeed, [absorbed by my heartache] I forget to eat my food.

<sup>5</sup> Because of the sound of my groaning [in suffering and trouble] ‡
My bones cling to my flesh.

<sup>6</sup> I am like a [mournful] vulture of the wilderness; ‡
I am like a [desolate] owl of the wasteland.

<sup>7</sup> I am sleepless and lie awake [mourning], ‡
I have become like a lonely bird on a housetop.

<sup>8</sup> My enemies taunt me all day long; ‡
Those who ridicule me use my name as a curse.
<sup>9</sup> For I have eaten ashes like bread,‡
And have mingled my drink with tears  [Is 44:20 ]
<sup>10</sup> Because of Your indignation and Your wrath,‡
For You have lifted me up and thrown me away.
<sup>11</sup> My days are like an evening shadow that lengthens and vanishes [with the sun]; ‡
And as for me, I wither away like grass.

<sup>12</sup> But You, O LORD, are enthroned forever [ruling eternally as sovereign]; ‡
And [the fame and glory of] Your name [endures] to all generations.
<sup>13</sup> You will arise and have compassion on Zion, ‡
For it is time to be gracious and show favor to her;
Yes, the appointed time [the moment designated] has come. [
Ps 12:5 ; 119:126 ]

<sup>14</sup> For Your servants find [melancholy] pleasure in the stones [of her ruins] ‡
And feel pity for her dust.

<sup>15</sup> So the nations will fear the name of the LORD, ‡
And all the kings of the earth [will recognize] Your glory.  [Ps 96:9 ]

<sup>16</sup> For the LORD has built up Zion; ‡
He has appeared in His glory and brilliance;
<sup>17</sup> He has regarded the prayer of the destitute, ‡
And has not despised their prayer.

<sup>18</sup> Let this be recorded for the generation to come, ‡
That a people yet to be created will praise the LORD.
<sup>19</sup> For He looked down from His holy height [of His sanctuary], ‡
From heaven the LORD gazed on the earth,
<sup>20</sup> To hear the sighing of the prisoner, ‡
To set free those who were doomed to death,
<sup>21</sup> So that people may declare the name of the LORD in Zion ‡
And His praise in Jerusalem,

<sup>22</sup> When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> He has exhausted my strength [humbling me with sorrow] in the way; ‡

He has shortened my days.

<sup>24</sup> I said, “O my God, do not take me away in the midst of my days; ‡

Your years are [eternal] throughout all generations.

<sup>25</sup> “At the beginning You founded the earth; ‡

The heavens are the work of Your hands.

<sup>26</sup> “Even they will perish, but You endure; ‡

Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment.

Like clothing You will change them and they shall be changed.

<sup>27</sup> “But You remain the same, ‡

And Your years will never end.  [Heb 1:10–12 ]

<sup>28</sup> “The children of Your servants will continue, ‡

And their descendants will be established before You.”

Psalm 103

Praise for the LORD ’s Mercies.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> BLESS AND affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul, ‡
And all that is [deep] within me, bless His holy name.

<sup>2</sup> Bless and affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul,
And do not forget any of His benefits;

<sup>3</sup> Who forgives all your sins, ‡
Who heals all your diseases;

<sup>4</sup> Who redeems your life from the pit, ‡
Who crowns you [lavishly] with lovingkindness and tender mercy;

<sup>5</sup> Who satisfies your years with good things, ‡
So that your youth is renewed like the [soaring] eagle.  [Is 40:31 ]

<sup>6</sup> The LORD executes righteousness
And justice for all the oppressed.

<sup>7</sup> He made known His ways [of righteousness and justice] to Moses,‡

His acts to the children of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>. The LORD is merciful and gracious,‡

Slow to anger and abounding in compassion and lovingkindness.  [James 5:11 ]

<sup>9</sup> He will not always strive with us,‡

Nor will He keep His anger forever.

<sup>10</sup> He has not dealt with us according to our sins [as we deserve],‡

Nor rewarded us [with punishment] according to our wickedness.

<sup>11</sup>. For as the heavens are high above the earth,

So great is His lovingkindness toward those who fear and worship Him [with awe-filled respect and deepest reverence].

<sup>12</sup> As far as the east is from the west,‡

So far has He removed our transgressions from us.

<sup>13</sup> Just as a father loves his children,‡

So the LORD loves those who fear and worship Him [with awe-filled respect and deepest reverence].

<sup>14</sup> For He knows our [mortal] frame;‡

He remembers that we are [merely] dust.

<sup>15</sup> As for man, his days are like grass;‡

Like a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

<sup>16</sup> For the wind passes over it and it is no more,‡

And its place knows it no longer.

<sup>17</sup>. But the lovingkindness of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who [reverently] fear Him,

And His righteousness to children's children,  [Deut 10:12 ]

<sup>18</sup> To those who honor and keep His covenant,‡

And remember to do His commandments [imprinting His word on their hearts].

<sup>19</sup> The LORD has established His throne in the heavens,‡

And His sovereignty rules over all [the universe].
<sup>20</sup>Bless the LORD, you His angels, ‡
You mighty ones who do His commandments,
Obeying the voice of His word!
<sup>21</sup>Bless the LORD, all you His hosts, ‡
You who serve Him and do His will.
<sup>22</sup>Bless the LORD, all you works of His, in all places of His dominion;
Bless and affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul!

Psalm 104

The LORD 's Care over All His Works.

<sup>1</sup>BLESS AND affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul! ‡
O LORD my God, You are very great;
You are clothed with splendor and majesty, <sup>2</sup>[You are the One] who covers Yourself with light as with a garment, ‡
Who stretches out the heavens like a tent curtain, <sup>3</sup>Who lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters
[above the firmament], ‡
Who makes the clouds His chariot,
Who walks on the wings of the wind,
<sup>4</sup>Who makes winds His messengers, ‡
Flames of fire His ministers.  [Heb 1:7. ]

<sup>5</sup>He established the earth on its foundations, ‡
So that it will not be moved forever and ever.  [Job 38:4, 6. ]
<sup>6</sup>You covered it with the deep as with a garment; ‡
The waters were standing above the mountains.  [Gen 1:2;
2 Pet 3:5. ]

<sup>7</sup>At Your rebuke they fled;
At the sound of Your thunder they hurried away.
<sup>8</sup>The mountains rose, the valleys sank down ‡
To the place which You established for them.
<sup>9</sup>You set a boundary [for the waters] that they may not cross over, ‡

So that they will not return to cover the earth.

10 You send springs into the valleys;
Their waters flow among the mountains.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst there.

12 Beside them the birds of the heavens have their nests;
They lift up their voices and sing among the branches.  [Matt 13:32 ]

13 He waters the mountains from His upper chambers; ‡
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of His works.

14 He causes grass to grow for the cattle, ‡
And all that the earth produces for cultivation by man,
So that he may bring food from the earth—

15 And wine which makes the heart of man glad, ‡
So that he may make his face glisten with oil,
And bread to sustain and strengthen man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD drink their fill,
The cedars of Lebanon which He has planted,

17 Where the birds make their nests;
As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high mountains are for the wild goats;
The rocks are a refuge for the shephanim.

19 He made the moon for the seasons; ‡
The sun knows the [exact] place of its setting.

20 You [O LORD] make darkness and it becomes night, ‡
In which prowls about every wild beast of the forest.

21 The young lions roar after their prey ‡
And seek their food from God.

22 When the sun arises, they withdraw
And lie down in their dens.

23 Man goes out to his work ‡
And remains at his labor until evening.

24 O LORD, how many and varied are Your works! ‡
In wisdom You have made them all;

The earth is full of Your riches and Your creatures.

<sup>25</sup> There is the sea, great and broad,
In which are swarms without number,
Creatures both small and great.

<sup>26</sup> There the ships [of the sea] sail, ‡
And Leviathan [the sea monster], which You have formed to play there.

<sup>27</sup> They all wait for You ‡
To give them their food in its appointed season.

<sup>28</sup> You give it to them, they gather it up;
You open Your hand, they are filled and satisfied with good [things].

<sup>29</sup> You hide Your face, they are dismayed; ‡
You take away their breath, they die
And return to their dust.

<sup>30</sup> You send out Your Spirit, they are created; ‡
You renew the face of the ground.

<sup>31</sup> May the glory of the LORD endure forever; ‡
May the LORD rejoice and be glad in His works—

<sup>32</sup> He looks at the earth, and it trembles; ‡
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.

<sup>33</sup> I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; ‡
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

<sup>34</sup> May my meditation be sweet and pleasing to Him;
As for me, I will rejoice and be glad in the LORD.

<sup>35</sup> Let sinners be consumed from the earth, ‡
And let the wicked be no more.

Bless and affectionately praise the LORD, O my soul.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 105

The LORD 's Wonderful Works in Behalf of Israel.

<sup>1</sup> O GIVE thanks to the LORD, call upon His name; ‡
Make known His deeds among the people.

- <sup>2</sup> Sing to Him, sing praises to Him; ‡
Speak of all His wonderful acts and devoutly praise them.
- <sup>3</sup> Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those who seek and require the LORD [as their most essential need] rejoice.
- <sup>4</sup> Seek and deeply long for the LORD and His strength [His power, His might]; ‡
Seek and deeply long for His face and His presence continually.
- <sup>5</sup> Remember [with awe and gratitude] the wonderful things which He has done, ‡
His amazing deeds and the judgments uttered by His mouth
[on His enemies, as in Egypt],  [Ps 78:43–51 ]
- <sup>6</sup> O you offspring of Abraham, His servant,
O you sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!
- <sup>7</sup> He is the LORD our God; ‡
His judgments are in all the earth.
- <sup>8</sup> He has remembered His covenant forever, ‡
The word which He commanded and established to a thousand generations,
- <sup>9</sup> The covenant which He made with Abraham, ‡
And His sworn oath to Isaac,  [Luke 1:72 , 73 ]
- <sup>10</sup> Which He confirmed to Jacob as a statute,
To Israel as an everlasting covenant,
- <sup>11</sup> Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan ‡
As the measured portion of your inheritance.”
- <sup>12</sup> When there were only a few men in number, ‡
Very few [in fact], and strangers in it;
- <sup>13</sup> And they wandered from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people,
- <sup>14</sup> He allowed no man to oppress them; ‡
He rebuked kings for their sakes, saying,  [Gen 12:17 ; 20:3–7 ]
- <sup>15</sup> “Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm.”  [1 Chr 16:8–22 ]
- <sup>16</sup> And He called for a famine upon the land [of Egypt]; ‡
He cut off every source of bread.  [Gen 41:54 ]
- <sup>17</sup> He sent a man before them, ‡

Joseph, who was sold as a slave.  [Gen 45:5 ; 50:20 , 21 ]

<sup>18</sup> His feet they hurt with shackles; ‡

He was put in chains of iron,

<sup>19</sup> Until the time that his word [of prophecy regarding his brothers] came true, ‡

The word of the LORD tested and refined him.

<sup>20</sup> The king sent and released him, ‡

The ruler of the peoples [of Egypt], and set him free.

<sup>21</sup> He made Joseph lord of his house ‡

And ruler of all his possessions,  [Gen 41:40 ]

<sup>22</sup> To imprison his princes at his will,

That he might teach his elders wisdom.

<sup>23</sup> Israel also came into Egypt; ‡

Thus Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.  [Gen 46:6 ]

<sup>24</sup> There the LORD greatly increased [the number of] His people, ‡

And made them more powerful than their enemies.

<sup>25</sup> He turned the heart [of the Egyptians] to hate His people, ‡
To deal craftily with His servants.

<sup>26</sup> He sent Moses His servant, ‡

And Aaron, whom He had chosen.

<sup>27</sup> They exhibited His wondrous signs among them, ‡
Great miracles in the land of Ham (Egypt).

<sup>28</sup> He sent [thick, oppressive] darkness and made the land dark;
‡

And Moses and Aaron did not rebel against His words.  [Ex 10:22 ; Ps 99:7 ]

<sup>29</sup> He turned Egypt's waters into blood ‡

And caused their fish to die.  [Ex 7:20 , 21 ]

<sup>30</sup> Their land swarmed with frogs, ‡

Even in the chambers of their kings.  [Ex 8:6 ]

<sup>31</sup> He spoke, and there came swarms of flies ‡

And gnats in all their territory.  [Ex 8:17 , 24 ]

<sup>32</sup> He gave them hail for rain, ‡

With flaming fire in their land.  [Ex 9:23 , 25 ]

<sup>33</sup> He struck their vines also and their fig trees, ‡

And shattered the [ice-laden] trees of their territory.  [Ps 78:47 ]

<sup>34</sup> He spoke, and the [migratory] locusts came, ‡
And the young locusts, even without number,  [Ex 10:4, 13, 14. ]

<sup>35</sup> And ate up all the vegetation in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.

<sup>36</sup> He also struck down all the firstborn in their land, ‡
The first fruits and chief substance of all their strength.  [Ex 12:29; Ps 78:51. ]

<sup>37</sup> He brought the sons of Israel out [of Egypt] with silver and gold, ‡

And among their tribes there was not one who stumbled.  [Ex 12:35. ]

<sup>38</sup> Egypt was glad when they departed, ‡
For the dread and fear of them had fallen on the Egyptians.  [Ex 12:33. ]

<sup>39</sup> The LORD spread a cloud as a covering [by day], ‡
And a fire to illumine the night.  [Ex 13:21. ]

<sup>40</sup> The Israelites asked, and He brought quail, ‡
And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.  [Ex 16:12–15. ]

<sup>41</sup> He opened the rock and water flowed out; ‡
It ran in the dry places like a river.  [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11. ]

<sup>42</sup> For He remembered His holy word ‡
To Abraham His servant;  [Gen 15:14. ]

<sup>43</sup> He brought out His people with joy,
And His chosen ones with a joyful shout,

<sup>44</sup> He gave them the lands of the nations [of Canaan], ‡
So that they would possess the fruits of those peoples' labor,  [Deut 6:10, 11. ]

<sup>45</sup> So that they might observe His precepts ‡
And keep His laws [obediently accepting and honoring and valuing them].

Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 106

Israel's Rebelliousness and the LORD's Deliverances.

<sup>1</sup> PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!) ‡

Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
For His mercy and lovingkindness endure forever!  [1 Chr 16:34 ]

<sup>2</sup> Who can put into words the mighty deeds of the LORD?
Or who can proclaim all His praise [that is due Him]?

<sup>3</sup> Blessed are those who observe justice [by honoring God's precepts], ‡

Who practice righteousness at all times.

<sup>4</sup> Remember me, O LORD, when You favor Your people. ‡
Visit me with Your salvation [when You rescue them],

<sup>5</sup> That I may see the prosperity of Your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
That I may glory with Your inheritance.

<sup>6</sup> We have sinned like our fathers; ‡

We have committed iniquity, we have behaved wickedly.  [Lev 26:40–42 ]

<sup>7</sup> Our fathers in Egypt did not understand nor appreciate Your miracles; ‡

They did not remember the abundance of Your mercies nor imprint Your lovingkindnesses on their hearts,
But they were rebellious at the sea, at the Red Sea.  [Ex 14:21 ]

<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake, ‡
That He might make His [supreme] power known.

<sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up; ‡
And He led them through the depths as through a pasture.  [Ex 14:21 ]

<sup>10</sup> So He saved them from the hand of the one that hated them,
‡

And redeemed them from the hand of the [Egyptian] enemy.  [Ex 14:30 ]

<sup>11</sup> And the waters covered their adversaries; ‡

Not one of them was left.  [Ex 14:27, 28; 15:5 ]

<sup>12</sup> Then Israel believed in [the validity of] His words; ‡

They sang His praise.

<sup>13</sup>But they quickly forgot His works; ‡
They did not [patiently] wait for His counsel and purpose [to be revealed regarding them],

<sup>14</sup> But lusted intensely in the wilderness ‡
And tempted God [with their insistent desires] in the desert. [
Num 11:4.]

<sup>15</sup> So He gave them their request, ‡
But sent a wasting disease among them. [Ps 78:29–31.]

<sup>16</sup> They envied Moses in the camp, ‡
And Aaron [the high priest], the holy one of the LORD, [
Num 16:1–32.]

<sup>17</sup> Therefore the earth opened and swallowed Dathan, ‡
And engulfed the company of Abiram. [Num 16:31, 32.]

<sup>18</sup> And a fire broke out in their company; ‡
The flame consumed the wicked. [Num 16:35, 46.]

<sup>19</sup> They made a calf in Horeb (Sinai) ‡
And worshiped a cast image. [Ex 32:4.]

<sup>20</sup> Thus they exchanged [the true God who was] their glory ‡
For the image of an ox that eats grass.

<sup>21</sup> They forgot God their Savior, ‡
Who had done such great things in Egypt,

<sup>22</sup> Wonders in the land of Ham, ‡
Awesome things at the Red Sea.

<sup>23</sup> Therefore He said He would destroy them, ‡
[And He would have done so] had not Moses, His chosen one, stepped into the gap before Him,
To turn away His wrath from destroying them. [Ex 32:10, 11, 32.]

<sup>24</sup> Then they despised the pleasant land [of Canaan]; ‡
They did not believe in His word nor rely on it,

<sup>25</sup> But they sulked and complained in their tents; ‡
They did not listen to the voice of the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore He lifted up His hand [swearing] to them, ‡
That He would cause them to fall in the wilderness,

<sup>27</sup> And that He would cast out their descendants among the nations ‡

And scatter them in the lands [of the earth].

<sup>28</sup> They joined themselves also to [the idol] Baal of Peor, ‡
And ate sacrifices offered to the dead.

<sup>29</sup> Thus they provoked Him to anger with their practices,
And a plague broke out among them.

<sup>30</sup> Then Phinehas [the priest] stood up and interceded, ‡
And so the plague was halted.  [Num 25:7, 8. ]

<sup>31</sup> And that was credited to him for righteousness, ‡
To all generations forever.

<sup>32</sup> They provoked Him to anger at the waters of Meribah, ‡
So that it went hard with Moses on their account;  [Num 20:3–13 ]

<sup>33</sup> Because they were rebellious against His Spirit, ‡
Moses spoke recklessly with his lips.

<sup>34</sup> They did not destroy the [pagan] peoples [in Canaan], ‡
As the LORD commanded them,

<sup>35</sup> But they mingled with the [idolatrous] nations ‡
And learned their ways,

<sup>36</sup> And served their idols, ‡
Which became a [dreadful] snare to them.

<sup>37</sup> They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons  [Deut 32:17 ; 2 Kin 16:3. ] ‡

<sup>38</sup> And shed innocent blood, ‡
Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
And the land was polluted with their blood.

<sup>39</sup> In this way they became unclean in their practices; ‡
They played the prostitute in their own deeds [by giving their worship, which belongs to God alone, to other “gods”].

<sup>40</sup> Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against His people ‡

And He detested His own inheritance.  [Deut 32:17 ]

<sup>41</sup> He gave them into the hands of the nations,‡

And those who hated them ruled over them.

<sup>42</sup> Their enemies also oppressed them,

And they were subdued under the [powerful] hand of their enemies.

<sup>43</sup> Many times He rescued them;‡

But they were rebellious in their counsel,

And sank down in their wickedness.

<sup>44</sup> Nevertheless He looked [sympathetically] at their distress‡

When He heard their cry;

<sup>45</sup> And He remembered His covenant for their sake,‡

And relented [rescinding their sentence] according to the greatness of His lovingkindness [when they cried out to Him],

<sup>46</sup> He also made them objects of compassion‡

Among those who had carried them away captive.  [2 Kin 25:27–30 ]

<sup>47</sup> Save us, O LORD our God,‡

And gather us from among the nations,

That we may give thanks to Your holy name

And glory in praising You.

<sup>48</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,‡

From everlasting even to everlasting.

And let all the people say, “Amen.”

Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)  [1 Chr 16:35 , 36 ]

Psalm 107

The LORD Rescues People from Many Troubles.

- <sup>1</sup>O GIVE thanks to the LORD, for He is good; ‡
For His compassion and lovingkindness endure forever!
- <sup>2</sup> Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, ‡
Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
- <sup>3</sup> And gathered them from the lands, ‡
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.
- <sup>4</sup> They wandered in the wilderness in a [solitary] desert region; ‡
And did not find a way to an inhabited city.
- <sup>5</sup> Hungry and thirsty,
They fainted.
- <sup>6</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, ‡
And He rescued them from their distresses.
- <sup>7</sup> He led them by the straight way, ‡
To an inhabited city [where they could establish their homes].
- <sup>8</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, ‡
And for His wonderful acts to the children of men!
- <sup>9</sup> For He satisfies the parched throat, ‡
And fills the hungry appetite with what is good.
- <sup>10</sup> Some dwelt in darkness and in the deep (deathly) darkness, ‡
Prisoners [bound] in misery and chains,  [Luke 1:79 ]
- <sup>11</sup> Because they had rebelled against the precepts of God ‡
And spurned the counsel of the Most High.
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore He humbled their heart with hard labor; ‡
They stumbled and there was no one to help.
- <sup>13</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them from their distresses.
- <sup>14</sup> He brought them out of darkness and the deep (deathly) darkness ‡
And broke their bonds apart.  [Ps 68:6; Acts 12:7; 16:26 ]

<sup>15</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, ‡
And for His wonderful acts to the children of men!

<sup>16</sup> For He has shattered the gates of bronze ‡
And cut the bars of iron apart.

<sup>17</sup> Fools, because of their rebellious way, ‡
And because of their sins, were afflicted.

<sup>18</sup> They detested all kinds of food, ‡
And they drew near to the gates of death.

<sup>19</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them from their distresses.

And rescued them from their destruction.  [2 Kin 20:4, 5; Matt 8:8 ]

<sup>21</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness,
And for His wonderful acts to the children of men!  [Heb 13:15 ]

<sup>22</sup> And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, ‡
And speak of His deeds with shouts of joy!

<sup>23</sup> Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business on great waters;

<sup>24</sup> They have seen the works of the LORD,
And His wonders in the deep.

<sup>25</sup> For He spoke and raised up a stormy wind, ‡
Which lifted up the waves of the sea.

<sup>26</sup> They went up toward the heavens [on the crest of the wave], they went down again to the depths [of the watery trough]; ‡

Their courage melted away in their misery.

<sup>27</sup> They staggered and trembled like a drunken man,
And were at their wits' end [all their wisdom was useless].

<sup>28</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, ‡
And He brought them out of their distresses.

So that the waves of the sea were still.  [Ps 65:7; 89:9; Matt 8:26 ]

<sup>30</sup> Then they were glad because of the calm,
And He guided them to their desired haven (harbor).

<sup>31</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, ‡
And for His wonderful acts to the children of men!

<sup>32</sup> Let them exalt Him also in the congregation of the people, ‡
And praise Him at the seat of the elders.

<sup>33</sup> He turns rivers into a wilderness, ‡
And springs of water into a thirsty ground;  [1 Kin 17:1, 7 ]

<sup>34</sup> A productive land into a [barren] salt waste, ‡
Because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.  [Gen 13:10;
14:3; 19:25 ]

<sup>35</sup> He turns a wilderness into a pool of water ‡
And a dry land into springs of water;  [Is 41:18 ]

<sup>36</sup> And there He has the hungry dwell,
So that they may establish an inhabited city,

<sup>37</sup> And sow fields and plant vineyards,
And produce an abundant harvest.

<sup>38</sup> Also He blesses them so that they multiply greatly, ‡
And He does not let [the number of] their cattle decrease.

<sup>39</sup> When they are diminished and bowed down (humbled) ‡
Through oppression, misery, and sorrow,

<sup>40</sup> He pours contempt on princes ‡
And makes them wander in a pathless wasteland.

<sup>41</sup> Yet He sets the needy securely on high, away from affliction, ‡
And makes their families like a flock.

<sup>42</sup> The upright see it and rejoice; ‡
But all unrighteousness shuts its mouth.

<sup>43</sup> Who is wise? Let him observe and heed these things; ‡
And [thoughtfully] consider the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

Praise and Supplication to God for Victory. A Song. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>-O GOD, my heart is steadfast [with confident faith]; ‡
I will sing, I will sing praises, even with my soul.

<sup>2</sup> Awake, harp and lyre; ‡
I will awaken the dawn!
<sup>3</sup> I will praise and give thanks to You, O LORD, among the people;
And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
<sup>4</sup> For Your lovingkindness is great and higher than the heavens;
Your truth reaches to the skies.  [Ps 57:7–11 ]
<sup>5</sup> Be exalted [in majesty], O God, above the heavens, ‡
And Your glory above all the earth.
<sup>6</sup> That Your beloved [ones] may be rescued, ‡
Save with Your right hand, and answer me!

<sup>7</sup> God has spoken in His holiness:
“I will rejoice, I will portion out Shechem [as I divide Canaan among My people],
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.
<sup>8</sup> “Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine; ‡ Ephraim also is the helmet of My head [My stronghold, My defense];
Judah is My scepter.  [Gen 49:10 ]
<sup>9</sup> “Moab is My washbowl;
Over Edom I will throw My shoe [to show Edom is Mine];
Over Philistia I will shout [in triumph].”

<sup>10</sup> Who will bring me into the fortified city [of Petra]? ‡
Who will lead me to Edom?
<sup>11</sup> Have You not rejected us, O God?
And will You not go out, O God, with our armies?
<sup>12</sup> Give us help against the adversary,
For deliverance by man is in vain [a worthless hope].
<sup>13</sup> With God we will do valiantly, ‡
For it is He who will trample down our enemies.  [Ps 60:5–12 ]

Psalm 109

Vengeance Invoked upon Adversaries.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O GOD of my praise! ‡
Do not keep silent,
- <sup>2</sup> For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me;
They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
- <sup>3</sup> They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, ‡
And have fought against me without a cause.
- <sup>4</sup> In return for my love, they attack me,
But I am in prayer.
- <sup>5</sup> They have repaid me evil for good, ‡
And hatred for my love.
- <sup>6</sup> Appoint a wicked man against him, ‡
And let an attacker stand at his right hand [to kill him].
- <sup>7</sup> When he enters into dispute, let wickedness come about. ‡
Let his prayer [for help] result [only] in sin.
- <sup>8</sup> Let his days be few; ‡
And let another take his office.  [Acts 1:20 ]
- <sup>9</sup> Let his children be fatherless ‡
And his wife a widow.
- <sup>10</sup> Let his children wander and beg;
Let them seek their food and be driven far from their ruined homes.  [Gen 4:12 ]
- <sup>11</sup> Let the creditor seize all that he has, ‡
And let strangers plunder the product of his labor.
- <sup>12</sup> Let there be no one to extend kindness to him,
Nor let anyone be gracious to his fatherless children.
- <sup>13</sup> Let his descendants be cut off, ‡
And in the following generation let their name be blotted out.
- <sup>14</sup> Let the wickedness of his fathers be remembered by the LORD; ‡
And do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
- <sup>15</sup> Let them be before the LORD continually, ‡
That He may cut off their memory from the earth;
- <sup>16</sup> Because the man did not remember to show kindness, ‡
But persecuted the suffering and needy man,
And the brokenhearted, to put them to death.

<sup>17</sup> He also loved cursing, and it came [back] to him; ‡
He did not delight in blessing, so it was far from him.

<sup>18</sup> He clothed himself with cursing as with his garment, ‡
And it seeped into his inner self like water
And like [anointing] oil into his bones.

<sup>19</sup> Let it be to him as a robe with which he covers himself,
And as a sash with which he is constantly bound.

<sup>20</sup> Let this be the reward of my attackers from the LORD,
And of those who speak evil against my life.

<sup>21</sup> But You, O GOD, the Lord, show kindness to me, for Your name's sake;
Because Your lovingkindness (faithfulness, compassion) is good,
O rescue me;

<sup>22</sup> For I am suffering and needy,
And my heart is wounded within me.

<sup>23</sup> I am vanishing like a shadow when it lengthens and fades; ‡
I am shaken off like the locust.

<sup>24</sup> My knees are unsteady from fasting; ‡
And my flesh is gaunt and without fatness.

<sup>25</sup> I also have become a reproach and an object of taunting to others; ‡
When they see me, they shake their heads [in derision].  [Matt 26:39 ]

<sup>26</sup> Help me, O LORD my God;
Save me according to Your lovingkindness—

<sup>27</sup> And let them know that this is Your hand; ‡
You, LORD, have done it.

<sup>28</sup> Let them curse, but You bless. ‡
When adversaries arise, let them be ashamed,
But let Your servant rejoice.

<sup>29</sup> Let my attackers be clothed with dishonor, ‡
And let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.

<sup>30</sup> I will give great praise and thanks to the LORD with my mouth;
‡

And in the midst of many I will praise Him.

<sup>31</sup> For He will stand at the right hand of the needy, ‡
To save him from those who judge his soul.

Psalm 110

The LORD Gives Dominion to the King.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> THE LORD (Father) says to my Lord (the Messiah, His Son), ‡
“Sit at My right hand

Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet [subjugating them into complete submission].”  [Josh 10:24 ; Matt 26:64 ; Acts 2:34 ; 1 Cor 15:25 ; Col 3:1 ; Heb 12:2 ]

<sup>2</sup> The LORD will send the scepter of Your strength from Zion,
saying,

“Rule in the midst of Your enemies.”  [Rom 11:26 , 27 ]

<sup>3</sup> Your people will offer themselves willingly [to participate in Your battle] in the day of Your power; ‡

In the splendor of holiness, from the womb of the dawn,
Your young men are to You as the dew.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD has sworn [an oath] and will not change His mind: ‡
“You are a priest forever

According to the order of Melchizedek.”  [Heb 5:10 ; 7:11 , 15 , 21

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is at Your right hand, ‡

He will crush kings in the day of His wrath.

<sup>6</sup> He will execute judgment [in overwhelming punishment] among the nations; ‡

He will fill them with corpses,

He will crush the chief men over a broad country.  [Ezek 38:21 ,
22 ; 39:11 , 12 ]

<sup>7</sup> He will drink from the brook by the wayside; ‡

Therefore He will lift up His head [triumphantly].

Psalm 111

The LORD Praised for His Goodness.

1 PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!) ‡

I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart,
In the company of the upright and in the congregation.

2 Great are the works of the LORD, ‡

Studied by all those who delight in them.

3 Splendid and majestic is His work, ‡

And His righteousness endures forever.

4 He has made His wonderful acts to be remembered; ‡

The LORD is gracious and merciful and full of loving compassion.

5 He has given food to those who fear Him [with awe-inspired reverence]; ‡

He will remember His covenant forever.  [Deut 10:12 ; Ps 96:9 ]

6 He has declared and made known to His people the power of His works,

In giving them the heritage of the nations.

7 The works of His hands are truth and [absolute] justice; ‡

All His precepts are sure (established, reliable, trustworthy).

8 They are upheld forever and ever; ‡

They are done in [absolute] truth and uprightness.

9 He has sent redemption to His people; ‡

He has ordained His covenant forever;

Holy and awesome is His name—[inspiring reverence and godly fear].

10 The [reverent] fear of the LORD is the beginning (the prerequisite, the absolute essential, the alphabet) of wisdom; ‡

A good understanding and a teachable heart are possessed by all those who do the will of the LORD ;

His praise endures forever.  [Job 28:28 ; Prov 1:7 ; Matt 22:37 , 38 ; Rev 14:7 ]

Psalm 112

Prosperity of the One Who Fears the LORD .

<sup>1</sup>PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!) ‡

Blessed [fortunate, prosperous, and favored by God] is the man who fears the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence and worships Him with obedience],

Who delights greatly in His commandments.  [Deut 10:12 ]

<sup>2</sup>His descendants will be mighty on earth; ‡

The generation of the upright will be blessed.

<sup>3</sup>Wealth and riches are in his house, ‡

And his righteousness endures forever.

<sup>4</sup>Light arises in the darkness for the upright; ‡

He is gracious and compassionate and righteous (upright—in right standing with God).

He conducts his affairs with justice.  [Ps 37:26; Luke 6:35; Col 4:5 ]

<sup>6</sup>He will never be shaken; ‡

The righteous will be remembered forever.  [Prov 10:7 ]

<sup>7</sup>He will not fear bad news; ‡

His heart is steadfast, trusting [confidently relying on and believing] in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>His heart is upheld, he will not fear ‡

While he looks [with satisfaction] on his adversaries.

<sup>9</sup>He has given freely to the poor; ‡

His righteousness endures forever;

His horn will be exalted in honor.  [2 Cor 9:9 ]

<sup>10</sup>The wicked will see it and be angered, ‡

He will gnash his teeth and melt away [in despair and death];

The desire of the wicked will perish and come to nothing.

Psalm 113

The LORD Exalts the Humble.

<sup>1</sup>PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!) ‡

Praise, O servants of the LORD,

Praise the name of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Blessed be the name of the LORD ‡
From this time forth and forever.
<sup>3</sup> From the rising of the sun to its setting ‡
The name of the LORD is to be praised [with awe-inspired reverence].
<sup>4</sup>The LORD is high above all nations, ‡
And His glory above the heavens.

<sup>5</sup> Who is like the LORD our God, ‡
Who is enthroned on high,
<sup>6</sup> Who humbles Himself to regard ‡
The heavens and the earth?  [Ps 138:6; Is 57:15 ]
<sup>7</sup> He raises the poor out of the dust ‡
And lifts the needy from the ash heap,
<sup>8</sup> That He may seat them with princes, ‡
With the princes of His people.
<sup>9</sup>He makes the barren woman live in the house ‡
As a joyful mother of children.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 114

God's Rescue of Israel from Egypt.

<sup>1</sup>WHEN ISRAEL came out of Egypt, ‡
The house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
<sup>2</sup>Judah became His sanctuary, ‡
And Israel His dominion.  [Ex 29:45, 46; Deut 27:9 ]

<sup>3</sup> The [Red] Sea looked and fled; ‡
The Jordan turned back.  [Ex 14:21; Josh 3:13, 16; Ps 77:16 ]
<sup>4</sup> The mountains leaped like rams, ‡
The [little] hills, like lambs.
<sup>5</sup> What ails you, O sea, that you flee? ‡
O Jordan, that you turn back?
<sup>6</sup> O mountains, that you leap like rams,
O [little] hills, like lambs?

<sup>7</sup> Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob (Israel),
<sup>8</sup> Who turned the rock into a pool of water, ‡
The flint into a fountain of water.  [Ex 17:6; Num 20:11 ]

Psalm 115

Pagan Idols Contrasted with the LORD .

<sup>1</sup> NOT TO us, O LORD, not to us, ‡
But to Your name give glory
Because of Your lovingkindness, because of Your truth and faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say, ‡
“Where, now, is their God?”

<sup>3</sup> But our God is in heaven; ‡
He does whatever He pleases.

<sup>4</sup> The idols [of the nations] are silver and gold, ‡
The work of man’s hands.

<sup>5</sup> They have mouths, but they cannot speak;
They have eyes, but they cannot see;

<sup>6</sup> They have ears, but they cannot hear;
They have noses, but they cannot smell;

<sup>7</sup> They have hands, but they cannot feel;
They have feet, but they cannot walk;
Nor can they make a sound with their throats.

<sup>8</sup> Those who make them will become like them, ‡
Everyone who trusts in them.  [Ps 135:15–18 ]

<sup>9</sup> O Israel, trust and take refuge in the LORD! [Be confident in Him, cling to Him, rely on His word!] ‡
He is their help and their shield.

<sup>10</sup> O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.

<sup>11</sup> You who [reverently] fear the LORD, trust in LORD;
He is their help and their shield.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD has been mindful of us; He will bless,
He will bless the house of Israel;

He will bless the house of Aaron.

<sup>13</sup> He will bless those who fear and worship the LORD [with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder], ‡

Both the small and the great.  [Ps 103:11; Rev 11:18; 19:5 ]

<sup>14</sup> May the LORD give you [great] increase,
You and your children.

<sup>15</sup> May you be blessed of the LORD, ‡
Who made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup> The heavens are the heavens of the LORD,
But the earth He has given to the children of men.

<sup>17</sup> The dead do not praise the LORD, ‡
Nor do any who go down into silence;

<sup>18</sup> But as for us, we will bless and affectionately and gratefully praise the LORD ‡
From this time forth and forever.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 116

Thanksgiving for Rescue from Death.

<sup>1</sup> I LOVE the LORD, because He hears [and continues to hear] ‡
My voice and my supplications (my pleas, my cries, my specific needs).

<sup>2</sup> Because He has inclined His ear to me,
Therefore I will call on Him as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup> The cords and sorrows of death encompassed me, ‡
And the terrors of Sheol came upon me;
I found distress and sorrow.

<sup>4</sup> Then I called on the name of the LORD:
“O LORD, please save my life!”

<sup>5</sup> Gracious is the LORD, and [consistently] righteous; ‡
Yes, our God is compassionate.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD protects the simple (childlike);
I was brought low [humbled and discouraged], and He saved me.

<sup>7</sup> Return to your rest, O my soul, ‡

For the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.  [Matt 11:29 ]

<sup>8</sup> For You have rescued my life from death, ‡

My eyes from tears,

And my feet from stumbling and falling.

<sup>9</sup> I will walk [in submissive wonder] before the LORD ‡

In the land of the living.

<sup>10</sup> I believed [and clung to my God] when I said, ‡

“I am greatly afflicted.”  [2 Cor 4:13 ]

<sup>11</sup> I said in my alarm, ‡

“All men are liars.”

<sup>12</sup> What will I give to the LORD [in return]

For all His benefits toward me?

[How can I repay Him for His precious blessings?]

<sup>13</sup> I will lift up the cup of salvation

And call on the name of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> I will pay my vows to the LORD, ‡

Yes, in the presence of all His people.

<sup>15</sup> Precious [and of great consequence] in the sight of the LORD ‡

Is the death of His godly ones [so He watches over them].

<sup>16</sup> O LORD, truly I am Your servant; ‡

I am Your servant, the son of Your handmaid;

You have unfastened my chains.

<sup>17</sup> I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving, ‡

And will call on the name of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> I will pay my vows to the LORD,

Yes, in the presence of all His people,

<sup>19</sup> In the courts of the LORD’s house (temple)— ‡

In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 117

A Psalm of Praise.

<sup>1</sup> O PRAISE the LORD, all you nations! ‡

Praise Him, all you people!  [Rom 15:11 ]

<sup>2</sup> For His lovingkindness prevails over us [and we triumph and overcome through Him], ‡

And the truth of the LORD endures forever.
Praise the LORD! (Hallelujah!)

Psalm 118

Thanksgiving for the LORD 's Saving Goodness.

- <sup>1</sup>O GIVE thanks to the LORD, for He is good; ‡
For His lovingkindness endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup>Oh let Israel say, ‡
“His lovingkindness endures forever.”
- <sup>3</sup> Oh let the house of Aaron say,
“His lovingkindness endures forever.”
- <sup>4</sup> Oh let those who [reverently] fear the LORD, say,
“His lovingkindness endures forever.”
- <sup>5</sup> Out of my distress I called on the LORD; ‡
The LORD answered me and set me free.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD is on my side; I will not fear. ‡
What can [mere] man do to me?  [Heb 13:6 ]
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD is on my side, He is among those who help me; ‡
Therefore I will look [in triumph] on those who hate me.
- <sup>8</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD ‡
Than to trust in man.
- <sup>9</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD ‡
Than to trust in princes.
- <sup>10</sup> All nations encompassed me;
In the name of the LORD I will surely cut them off.
- <sup>11</sup> They encompassed me, yes, they surrounded me [on every side]; ‡
In the name of the LORD I will cut them off.
- <sup>12</sup> They swarmed around me like bees; ‡
They flare up and are extinguished like a fire of thorns;
In the name of the LORD I will surely cut them off.  [Deut 1:44 ]
- <sup>13</sup>. You [my enemy] pushed me violently so that I was falling,
But the LORD helped me.

14. The LORD is my strength and song, ‡
And He has become my salvation.

15 The sound of joyful shouting and salvation is in the tents of the righteous:

The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.

16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted; ‡

The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.

17 I will not die, but live, ‡

And declare the works and recount the illustrious acts of the LORD.

18 The LORD has disciplined me severely, ‡

But He has not given me over to death.  [2 Cor 6:9 ]

19 Open to me the [temple] gates of righteousness; ‡

I shall enter through them, I shall give thanks to the LORD.

20 This is the gate of the LORD; ‡

The righteous will enter through it.  [Ps 24:7 ]

21 I will give thanks to You, for You have heard and answered me; ‡

And You have become my salvation [my Rescuer, my Savior].

22 The stone which the builders rejected ‡

Has become the chief corner stone .

23 This is from the LORD and is His doing;

It is marvelous in our eyes.  [Matt 21:42; Acts 4:11; 1 Pet 2:7 ]

24 This [day in which God has saved me] is the day which the LORD has made;

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

25 O LORD, save now, we beseech You;

O LORD, we beseech You, send now prosperity and give us success!

<sup>1</sup>I WAS glad when they said to me, ‡

“Let us go to the house of the LORD.”  [Is 2:3; Zech 8:21 ]

<sup>2</sup> Our feet are standing

Within your gates, O Jerusalem,

<sup>3</sup> Jerusalem, that is built ‡

As a city that is firmly joined together;

<sup>4</sup>To which the [twelve] tribes go up, even the tribes of the

[As was decreed as] an ordinance for Israel,

To give thanks to the name of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>For there the thrones of judgment were set, ‡

The thrones of the house of David.

<sup>6</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: ‡

“May they prosper who love you [holy city].

<sup>7</sup> “May peace be within your walls

And prosperity within your palaces.”

<sup>8</sup> For the sake of my brothers and my friends,

I will now say, “May peace be within you.”

<sup>9</sup> For the sake of the house of the LORD our God [which is Jerusalem], ‡

I will seek your (the city’s) good.

Psalm 123

Prayer for the LORD 's Help.

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> UNTO YOU I lift up my eyes, ‡

O You who are enthroned in the heavens!

<sup>2</sup> Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master,
And as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes look to the LORD our God,
Until He is gracious and favorable toward us.

<sup>3</sup> Be gracious to us, O LORD, be gracious and favorable toward us,

For we are greatly filled with contempt.

<sup>4</sup> Our soul is greatly filled
With the scoffing of those who are at ease,
And with the contempt of the proud [who disregard God's law].

Psalm 124

Praise for Rescue from Enemies.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

<sup>1</sup> "IF IT had not been the LORD who was on our side," ‡

Let Israel now say,

<sup>2</sup> "If it had not been the LORD who was on our side
When men rose up against us,

<sup>3</sup> Then they would have [quickly] swallowed us alive, ‡
When their wrath was kindled against us;

<sup>4</sup> Then the waters would have engulfed us,
The torrent would have swept over our soul;

<sup>5</sup> Then the raging waters would have swept over our soul."

<sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD,

Who has not given us as prey to be torn by their teeth.

<sup>7</sup> We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowlers; ‡
The trap is broken and we have escaped.

<sup>8</sup> Our help is in the name of the LORD, ‡
Who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

The LORD Surrounds His People.

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> THOSE WHO trust in and rely on the LORD [with confident expectation]

Are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved but remains forever.

<sup>2</sup> As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
So the LORD surrounds His people
From this time forth and forever.

<sup>3</sup> For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the land of the righteous,‡

So that the righteous will not reach out their hands to do wrong.

<sup>4</sup> Do good, O LORD, to those who are good
And to those who are upright in their hearts.

<sup>5</sup> But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways [in unresponsiveness to God],‡

The LORD will lead them away with those who do evil.
Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 126

Thanksgiving for Return from Captivity.

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> WHEN THE LORD brought back the captives to Zion (Jerusalem),‡

We were like those who dream [it seemed so unreal].  [Ps 53:6;
Acts 12:9 ]

<sup>2</sup> Then our mouth was filled with laughter‡
And our tongue with joyful shouting;
Then they said among the nations,
“The LORD has done great things for them.”

<sup>3</sup> The LORD has done great things for us;

We are glad!

<sup>4</sup> Restore our captivity, O LORD,
As the stream-beds in the South (the Negev) [are restored by torrents of rain].

<sup>5</sup> They who sow in tears shall reap with joyful singing. ‡

<sup>6</sup> He who goes back and forth weeping, carrying his bag of seed
[for planting],

Will indeed come again with a shout of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

Psalm 127

Prosperity Comes from the LORD .

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup> UNLESS THE LORD builds the house, ‡
They labor in vain who build it;
Unless the LORD guards the city,
The watchman keeps awake in vain.  [Ps 121:1, 3, 5 ]

<sup>2</sup> It is vain for you to rise early, ‡
To retire late,
To eat the bread of anxious labors—
For He gives [blessings] to His beloved even in his sleep.

<sup>3</sup> Behold, children are a heritage and gift from the LORD, ‡
The fruit of the womb a reward.  [Deut 28:4 ]

<sup>4</sup> Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
So are the children of one's youth.

<sup>5</sup> How blessed [happy and fortunate] is the man whose quiver is filled with them; ‡
They will not be ashamed
When they speak with their enemies [in gatherings] at the [city] gate.

Psalm 128

Blessedness of the Fear of the LORD .

A Song of Ascents.

Who walks in His ways and lives according to His commandments.  [Ps 1:1, 2 ]

<sup>2</sup> For you shall eat the fruit of [the labor of] your hands, ‡

You will be happy and blessed and it will be well with you.

<sup>3</sup> Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine ‡

Within the innermost part of your house;

Your children will be like olive plants

Around your table.

<sup>4</sup> Behold, for so shall the man be blessed and divinely favored

Who fears the LORD [and worships Him with obedience].

<sup>5</sup> May the LORD bless you from Zion [His holy mountain], ‡

And may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life;

<sup>6</sup> Indeed, may you see your [family perpetuated in your] children's children. ‡

Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 129

Prayer for the Overthrow of Zion's Enemies.

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> “MANY TIMES they have persecuted me (Israel) from my youth,” ‡

Let Israel now say,

<sup>2</sup> “Many times they have persecuted me from my youth, Yet they have not prevailed against me.

<sup>3</sup> “The [enemies, like] plowers plowed on my back; They made their furrows [of suffering] long [in Israel].”

<sup>4</sup> The LORD is righteous;

He has cut in two the [thick] cords of the wicked [which enslaved the people of Israel].

<sup>5</sup> May all who hate Zion
Be put to shame and turned backward [in defeat].
<sup>6</sup> Let them be like the grass on the housetops,‡
Which withers before it grows up,
<sup>7</sup> With which the reaper does not fill his hand,
Nor the binder of sheaves his arms,
<sup>8</sup> Nor do those who pass by say,‡
“The blessing of the LORD be upon you;
We bless you in the name of the LORD.”

Psalm 130

Hope in the LORD ’s Forgiving Love.

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> OUT OF the depths [of distress] I have cried to You, O LORD.‡
<sup>2</sup> Lord, hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.
<sup>3</sup> If You, LORD, should keep an account of our sins and treat us accordingly,‡
O Lord, who could stand [before you in judgment and claim innocence]?  [Ps 143:2; Rom 3:20; Gal 2:16. ]
<sup>4</sup> But there is forgiveness with You,‡
That You may be feared and worshiped [with submissive wonder].  [Deut 10:12. ]

<sup>5</sup> I wait [patiently] for the LORD, my soul [expectantly] waits,‡
And in His word do I hope.
<sup>6</sup> My soul waits for the Lord‡
More than the watchmen for the morning;
More than the watchmen for the morning.
<sup>7</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD;‡
For with the LORD there is lovingkindness,
And with Him is abundant redemption.

<sup>8</sup> And He will redeem Israel ‡
From all his sins.

Psalm 131

Childlike Trust in the LORD . A Song of Ascents. Of David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, MY heart is not proud, nor my eyes haughty; ‡
Nor do I involve myself in great matters,
Or in things too difficult for me.
<sup>2</sup>Surely I have calmed and quieted my soul; ‡
Like a weaned child [resting] with his mother,
My soul is like a weaned child within me [composed and freed from discontent].
<sup>3</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD ‡
From this time forth and forever.

Psalm 132

Prayer for the LORD 's Blessing Upon the Sanctuary. A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, remember on David's behalf
All his hardship and affliction;
<sup>2</sup> How he swore to the LORD ‡
And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
<sup>3</sup> "I absolutely will not enter my house,
Nor get into my bed—
<sup>4</sup> I certainly will not permit my eyes to sleep ‡
Nor my eyelids to slumber,
<sup>5</sup> Until I find a place for the LORD, ‡
A dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob (Israel)."  [Acts 7:46 ]

<sup>6</sup>Behold, we heard of it at Ephrathah; ‡
We found it in the field of Jaar.  [1 Sam 6:21 ]

<sup>7</sup> Let us go into His tabernacle; ‡
Let us worship at His footstool.

<sup>8</sup> Arise, O LORD, to Your resting place, ‡
You and the ark [the symbol] of Your strength.

<sup>9</sup> Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness (right living), ‡
And let Your godly ones shout for joy.

<sup>10</sup> For the sake of Your servant David,
Do not turn away the face of Your anointed.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD swore to David ‡
A truth from which He will not turn back:
“One of your descendants I will set upon your throne.  [Ps 89:3, 4
; Luke 1:69; Acts 2:30, 31 ]

<sup>12</sup> “If your children will keep My covenant
And My testimony which I will teach them,
Their children also shall sit upon your throne forever.”

<sup>13</sup> For the LORD has chosen Zion; ‡
He has desired it for His dwelling place:

<sup>14</sup> “This is My resting place forever” [says the LORD]; ‡
“Here will I dwell, for I have desired it.

<sup>15</sup> “I will abundantly bless her provisions; ‡
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

<sup>16</sup> “Her priests also I will clothe with salvation, ‡
And her godly ones will shout aloud for joy.

<sup>17</sup> “There I will make the horn (strength) of David grow; ‡
I have prepared a lamp for My anointed [fulfilling the promises].
 [1 Kin 11:36; 15:4; 2 Chr 21:7; Luke 1:69 ]

<sup>18</sup> “His enemies I will clothe with shame, ‡
But upon himself shall his crown shine.”

Psalm 133

The Excellency of Brotherly Unity. A Song of Ascents. Of David.

<sup>1</sup> BEHOLD, HOW good and how pleasant it is ‡

For brothers to dwell together in unity!
2 It is like the precious oil [of consecration] poured on the head,‡
Coming down on the beard,
Even the beard of Aaron,
Coming down upon the edge of his [priestly] robes [consecrating
the whole body].  [Ex 30:25, 30 ]

3 It is like the dew of [Mount] Hermon‡
Coming down on the hills of Zion;
For there the LORD has commanded the blessing: life forevermore.

Psalm 134

Greetings of Night Watchers. A Song of Ascents.

1 BEHOLD, BLESS and praise the LORD, all servants of the LORD (priests, Levites),‡

Who stand and serve by night in the house of the LORD.  [1 Chr 9:33 ]

2 Lift up your hands to the sanctuary‡
And bless the LORD.

3 May the LORD bless you from Zion,‡
He who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

Praise the LORD 's Wonderful Works. Vanity of Idols.

1 PRAISE THE LORD! (Hallelujah!)‡

Praise the name of the LORD;
Praise Him, O servants of the LORD (priests, Levites),

2 You who stand in the house of the LORD,‡
